What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A-1.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement permits you to resolve disputes with the franchisor only by mediation and then arbitration in Harris County, Texas. Out-of-state arbitration may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate or arbitrate with the franchisor in Harris County, Texas than in your own state.
2. Supplier Control. You must purchase all or nearly all of the inventory and supplies necessary to operate your business from Franchisor, its affiliates, or from suppliers that Franchisor designates at prices that the Franchisor or they set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchised business.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the State Specific Addenda (if any) for your state.

ADDENDUM FOR STATE OF MICHIGAN

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in the Michigan Franchise Investment Law. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity which in no event need be more than thirty (30) days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishing not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than five (5) years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least six (6) months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) Failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.
 - (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.
 - (iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENFORCEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000.00, franchisee has the right to request an escrow arrangement.

Our Business

Our business is granting franchises to allow franchisees to operate Snowfruit fresh-cut fruit and vegetable units that are operated as separate departments within supermarkets, grocery stores, and other facilities (such as universities and corporate settings) that are owned by third parties (“Stores”). We or our affiliates have verbal or written agreements to operate or let others operate fresh-cut fruit and vegetable units as separate departments of the Stores. In many instances we (or our affiliates) will perform this agreement by granting (or having us grant) franchises, so that franchisees like you can operate the fresh-cut fruit and vegetable unit.

We have developed distinctive business systems, operating formats, methods, procedures, menu, recipes, trade dress, designs and marketing standards and formats (collectively, the “System”) using the trademark “Snowfruit” and other associated names.

Franchisees will prepare and sell high-quality fresh-cut fruits and vegetables and related products at a location selected by us. Payments by customers for their purchases are made to the owners of the stores (“Store Owners”), which are then recorded by the Store Owners who retain a portion, and then reported and forwarded to us before you receive payments.

At times, the Store Owner may identify a Store location as a developing market. In those situations, we may grant Franchisees the right to operate a Snowfruit Express Unit from that location (“Snowfruit Express Unit”) under our Express Unit Program (“Express Unit Program”). Refer to the Express Unit Addendum attached as Exhibit K for further details regarding our Express Unit Program.

Although we do not have cap of how many people can attend the training program, in most cases 1 to 3 people attend the initial training program. Based on the number of people attend the initial training program, you will pay training fees ranging from $500 to $1,500. If you have previously owned, operated and/or served as a manager for a Snowfruit fresh-cut fruit and vegetable unit within the last two (2) years, we may waive the training requirement based on your experience with us.

If you are purchasing a Snowfruit Express Unit, we will waive the training fees for up to 3 people.

B. Initial Franchise Fee

If you are opening a new franchise location or if you are purchasing a Snowfruit operated Snowfruit Unit location from you, you will pay us an initial franchise fee ranging from $3,000 to $50,000. We will determine the initial franchise fee you pay for a location based on type of Snowfruit Unit and the size of display cases in the Snowfruit Unit. We also evaluate factors such as store location (rural, suburban, urban, remote rural), demographic data, condition of store (existing, remodeled), store amenities (if it offers coffee, flowers, wine), and in-store location.

The Display Case is provided by the Store Owner. It is refrigerated and holds the fresh-cut fruits and related products that are offered for sale at your Snowfruit Unit. The larger the Display Case the greater amount of fresh-cut fruits and vegetables the Snowfruit Unit will have available for sale.

Note 1 – These fees are uniformly imposed. All fees are non-refundable. When customers purchase products from your business, the Store Owner collects all payments. All sales are recorded by the Store Owners and then reported and forwarded to us before you receive payments. The Store Owner retains its Revenue Share out of your Gross Sales and remits the balance to us. The Store Owner Revenue Share is negotiated between the Store Owner and us. It is a percentage that may vary from one brand of Store Owner to another, as well as within each brand, as we negotiate with the Store Owner. The Franchisor Revenue Share is also a specified percentage of your Gross Sales. The Franchisor Revenue Share is determined by us in our sole discretion. Once we establish the Franchisor Revenue Share, it is not subject to change throughout the term of your Franchise Agreement. We keep the specified percentages due to us and pay the rest to you as commission, after deducting for other charges or purchases, including amounts you owe us, our affiliates, or other suppliers for your purchase of goods and/or services including food and inventory costs, freight, and equipment fees. The percentage paid to Store Owner will vary depending on each Store Owner agreement of your location. The Store Owner holds the first payment after opening generally up to 8 weeks but may hold the first payment longer. Thereafter, payment will be paid weekly. "Gross Sales" is all revenues from your business whether payment is in cash, by debit or credit card, but does not include refunds, sales taxes and discounts.

Note 2 – We will cover your location under our group insurance policy, then deduct your portion of our premium costs calculated based on sales (current rate $18.20 per $1,000 of sales, but we may revise the rate from time to time as we determine). Your portion of the premium will be deducted weekly.

Note 3 – In addition, you may have to provide us free of charge reasonable quantities of ingredients, foods, beverages, inventory, and other samples for inspection and evaluation purposes.

Note 4 – Repeats of the same violation may incur doubling of the default charge.

Note 5 – For Snowfruit Express Units, initially the Store Owner Revenue Share varies between 15% and 17.5% of Gross Sales and the Franchisor Revenue Share varies between 5% and 15% of Gross Sales. On or about May 15 of each calendar year, if your average weekly Gross Sales since either (i) the date you opened for business, if you have been in business for less than one (1) year or (ii) May 15 of the previous calendar year, if you have been in business for one (1) year or more was greater than $3,000, we may require you to convert your franchise from a Snowfruit Express Unit to a traditional Snowfruit Unit at the Store Revenue Share and Franchisor Revenue Share as described in the above table.

Notes for all charts:

All amounts are non-refundable unless otherwise noted.

Note 1 – The Initial Training fee is $500 per person who attends training. The estimate is for 1 to 3 persons attending training. The required training consists of 20 hours training at corporate HQ or other location designated by us. Training is further discussed in Item 5 and Item 11 of this disclosure document. If you are purchasing a Snowfruit Express Unit, we will waive the training fees for up to 3 people.

Note 2 – We may waive the training requirement for prospective franchisees that have previously owned, operated and/or served as a manager for a Snowfruit Unit within the last two (2) years, based on the amount of experience.

Note 3 – Food Manager certification fees may differ from state to state, and they are subject to change without notice, as they are charged by third parties.

Note 4 – The cost of a set of labels for a specific product is $150 per box (12 rolls), for an 800-count self-adhesive labels per roll. Based on the number of products sold, the label cost will range from $300 to $1,200 over the first 3 months. You must purchase computer hardware and software according to our specifications. The computer system cost will range from $999 to $3,000, plus shipping costing from $10 to $100. For existing locations, we assume that you will purchase the existing label printer as part of the assets from the seller of the Snowfruit Unit. These are the current costs and counts, which are subject to change. You must purchase a label printing machine from us or from our approved supplier. The system will report data to us such as the type and number of labels printed by you, and we will have independent access to the information and data generated and stored in the system. You may be required to use preprinted labels for products you sell.

Note 5 – Our uniform consists of a uniform, hat, apron, non-slip footwear and nametag. You and all your workers should wear only Snowfruit uniforms. The cost of the uniform is $20 each, the cost of the hat is $5 each, the cost of the apron is $5 each. The initial cost of non-slip footwear is approximately $50 to $200. You must also pay shipping charges. We will furnish you the nametag at no cost to you. These current prices are subject to change.

Note 6 – We will cover your location under our group insurance policy, then deduct your portion of our premium costs calculated based on sales (current rate $18.20 per $1,000 of sales, but we may revise the rate or waive your contribution from time to time as we determine). Your portion of the premium will be deducted weekly.

Note 7 – There is no charge for the first opening day, but we will charge $400 per day for any additional assistance requested by you.

Note 8 – In addition to the initial franchise fee, the amount to purchase an existing location is the value of the location reasonably appraised by us and includes assets and goodwill. The highest end of the range of prices is based on a location that produces the highest end of weekly sales for all outlets.

Note 9 – You may need additional operating capital to pay for operating expenses such as employee payroll, inventory, products, and supplies if these costs are not covered by your commissions. This is typically the case for new businesses. These costs and the amount of commission will vary among franchisees. The amount provided is only an estimate. Your costs will depend on factors such as: how many employees you intend to hire and the prevailing wage rate; how much you follow our methods and procedures; your management skill, experience and business acumen; local economic conditions; the number of potential customers who frequent the host Store; competition; and the sales level reached during the initial period. We based these figures on our experience in opening the various types of Snowfruit Unit in the past year.

Note 10 – The ranges provided are estimates of the initial investment for a new location and the purchase of an existing location. Your actual expenses may vary based on geographic location, your financial condition, and the terms of the business arrangements negotiated by you. As such, the amounts provided are only estimates.

Note 11 – We finance certain expenses for equipment and small wares such as thermometers, labels and uniforms. See Item 10 for additional details. The top end of the estimate includes the purchase of a commercial food processor, which costs $3,000 but is optional (not required) if you are purchasing a Snowfruit Express Unit.

Note 12 – Prior to accepting you as a Snowfruit franchisee, we require you to submit to drug testing, a criminal background check, and/or Tuberculosis testing. Your results must be acceptable to us. You must reimburse us our cost in obtaining these tests and checks, estimated at $250 to $1,000. None of these fees are refundable even if you are not accepted as our franchisee.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

You will operate your Snowfruit Unit within a Store as selected by us. You do not have to sign a lease with the Store.

Required Purchases

You must purchase or use certain goods, services, supplies, equipment, inventory, insurance, and other items related to operating your Snowfruit Unit only from our approved suppliers, which may be us or an affiliate. You may only use those fixtures, furnishings, equipment, and signs that are approved in writing by us. We may require you to purchase interior signage and display equipment only from us or our approved supplier. We may add designated suppliers or products by notice to you through additions to the Snowfruit Operating Manual.

We have developed proprietary food preparation procedures, products, sauces and recipes. To protect our System and maintain a high level of quality, we require you to buy food product and food preparation items only from suppliers authorized by us. You are required to purchase fresh fruit, fruit products, non-fruit products, cooler items, dry foods, and nonfood products such as labels, uniforms, small wares, equipment, and NSF approved carriers from our approved suppliers.

You must lease or purchase from us or another approved supplier, a label printing system designated by us to print labels for your products. Please see Item 11. All other supplies are generally required to be purchased from authorized suppliers only. Unless otherwise specified in the Snowfruit Operating Manual or by us, you can purchase certain equipment like food preparation utensils (knives, peelers) and plastic storage containers from other suppliers, such as a specialty merchant or restaurant supply store. Certain equipment such as cancarriers and fruit containers must be approved by the National Sanitation Foundation and bear the NSF logo.

We may from time to time change the products, ingredients, preparation process, mandatory menu items, and other required features of the System. Generally, we issue specifications and standards to our franchisees pursuant to the Snowfruit Operating Manual, SOP Manual, or written notices issued from time to time. Any changes or additions to those specifications are made by notice to you through modifications to the Snowfruit Operating Manual, SOP Manual or such other writings we issue in writing from time to time. As part of such standards, you must maintain your Snowfruit Unit and all equipment, fixtures and all other tangible property in clean, good and full working condition and will replace any of such equipment, fixtures or property as necessary. You may also have to cooperate with a Store Owner if it decides to remodel or upgrade your Snowfruit Unit to its current standards and designs. The cost of the remodeling/updating is paid by the Store Owner. At all times, we have the sole right to develop all items for sale at your Snowfruit Unit, and you will not have the right to make, develop, sell or otherwise dispose of any other products from your Snowfruit Unit.

Required and Approved Suppliers

There are several third-party suppliers that are approved by us. We will provide a list of approved suppliers, which will identify the suppliers, brands, products, and items approved by us. We can revise the list from time to time. You must purchase all food products only from suppliers that are authorized and approved by us. You must also purchase certain food items and supplies, such as labels, uniforms, masks, nametags, and a daily log book, only from a designated supplier, as specified in the Snowfruit Operating Manual.

None of our officers owns an interest in any of our approved suppliers.

Approval of Alternative Suppliers

If you want to purchase any items from any source other than an approved supplier of ours, we will test and evaluate such sources when you request, but we do not have to investigate or approve an inordinate number of suppliers or products which, in our reasonable judgment, would prevent effective and economical supervision of suppliers under the System. We will approve or disapprove such sources and products based on our tests, normally within 14 to 90 days of receipt of the request. You will have to pay us an Alternative Supplier Evaluation Fee of $1,000 plus all expenses incurred by us for investigating the new supplier or product, including laboratory testing costs. Any requested supplier must demonstrate to our reasonable satisfaction that it and its products meet our specifications. The supplier must be of good standing in the business community, and it must meet and maintain our standards, including, of quality, consistency, reliability, financial capability, and production capacity. If the supplier no longer meets those standards, we reserve the right to terminate the supplier and its authorization upon seven (7) days' notice.

Revenue from Fresh-Cut Fruit and Vegetable Franchisee Purchases

In the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025, we received $2,974,554 from the sale of products and supplies to SNOWFRUIT franchisees, which was 2.07% of our total revenue of $144,014,746. These figures are from our audited financial statements for our fiscal year ended March 31, 2025.

In addition, we and our affiliates have the right to receive payments from unaffiliated suppliers on account of their actual or prospective dealings with you and other franchisees and to use the amounts received without restriction (unless we or our affiliates agree otherwise with the supplier) for any purpose we or our affiliates deem appropriate.

We estimate that your expenditure for required purchases of products, equipment and supplies from us, our affiliates, or our approved suppliers will be 100% of your total initial investment and 100% of your monthly operating expenses.

Cooperatives

There are no franchisee purchasing or distribution cooperatives.

Negotiated Prices

We do not negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers for the benefit of franchisees. Some suppliers will pay fees to us and/or our affiliates for products purchased through these negotiated agreements, and willingness to pay us and/or our affiliates fees may be a condition for approving a supplier. These fees will usually be based on an amount per case of product ordered and are expected to generally range from $12 to $325 per case.

Material Benefits

We do not provide any material benefits to you (for example, renewal or granting of additional franchises) based upon your purchase of particular products or services from us or use of a particular supplier.

Insurance.

You must maintain the following insurance coverages with limits that are set forth in the Franchise Agreement: commercial general liability insurance, workers' compensation, employer's liability, and other insurance to meet statutory requirements.

You must purchase commercial general liability insurance for the Snowfruit Unit under our group insurance policy and we will deduct your portion of the premium costs on a weekly basis. Your premium is calculated on the amount of sales at the Franchisee's Snowfruit Unit.

If you purchase insurance in addition to the commercial general liability insurance provided under our group insurance policy, the insurance policies must be issued by an insurance carrier or insurance carriers acceptable to us and must name JFE Franchising, Inc. as an additional insured, must contain a waiver of the insurance company's right of subrogation against us, and must provide that we will receive 30 days' prior written notice of termination, expiration, or cancellation of the policy. ITEM 11 FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS, AND TRAINING Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

Pre-Opening Obligations. Before the opening of your Snowfruit Unit, we will provide you with the following:

1. If you complete your training to our satisfaction, we will find a location within a Store for your Snowfruit Unit. (Franchise Agreement § 2.1). Locations are chosen based on a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the general location, our agreement or our affiliate's agreement with a Store Owner, proximity to other Snowfruit Units, parking, size and quality of the Store, demographic information, and level of competition. A location can only be provided to you pursuant and subject to an agreement with the Store Owner, entered into by us or our affiliate, to supply the Store with a separate Snowfruit department. As such, we will not own the location and the location will not be leased. Pursuant to the applicable agreement with the Store Owner, the Store Owner may terminate the Snowfruit Unit or require adjustment to the way you operate your Snowfruit Unit. We are not required to disclose to you the terms of agreement with the Store Owner. You must comply with all rules, procedures and food safety requirements of the Store Owner set forth in the SOP Manual or otherwise by the Store Owner. You will be responsible for complying with all local ordinances and obtaining any permits required for your Snowfruit Unit. There is no time limit within which we must select or approve a location.
2. If you are buying a franchise for an existing Snowfruit Unit, we or our affiliate may sell you the equipment, furniture and inventory. Copies of the Purchase Agreement and Bill of Sale are attached as Exhibit D to this franchise disclosure document. (Purchase Agreement, §1.1).
3. We may, as necessary, assist you with obtaining the governmental approvals, licenses, permits and other permissions necessary to operate your Snowfruit Unit. You will ultimately be solely responsible for complying with all applicable laws and obtaining the necessary approvals, licenses, and permits. We do not assist you in hiring employees. (Franchise Agreement, §5.7).
4. The Store Owner will have sole control over and will be responsible for the build out, development, specifications and layouts of the Snowfruit Unit as provided. (Franchise Agreement, §5.1).
5. You must purchase from our approved suppliers any required equipment, signs, fixtures, opening inventory and supplies as set forth in the Snowfruit Operating Manual. Fixtures and signs will be installed by you, unless installed by the Store Owner. You must keep all equipment, signs, and fixtures in good repair. (Franchise Agreement §§6.7 - 6.11).
6. We will provide to you and allow you to borrow a copy of the Snowfruit Operating Manual and SOP (Standard Operating Procedures) Manual (collectively, "Operating Manuals"), that we generally furnish to franchisees for use in operating a Snowfruit Unit (Franchise Agreement § 5.3). The Operating Manuals contain mandatory and suggested specifications, standards, operating procedures and rules that we prescribe from time to time for operation of a Snowfruit Unit and information relating to your other obligations under the franchise agreement and related agreements. We may improve, further develop or otherwise modify from time to time our franchise system, and the Operating Manuals may be periodically modified, updated and revised. (Franchise Agreement § 5.3). The Snowfruit Standard Operating Procedures Manual for Fresh-Cut Fruit Program contains 26 pages and the In-Store Cut Fruit Program Guidebook contains 69 pages. The tables of contents for these 2 Manuals are attached as Exhibit E.

7. We will provide you opening assistance as you request, or as we determine is necessary. (Franchise Agreement § 5.4).
8. We will provide you and your employees with training as described in the “Training Program” table below, unless you already have received our training. (Franchise Agreement § 5.2).

Time Between Signing Franchise Agreement and Opening of Franchisee’s Business. If you complete your training to our satisfaction and we decide to grant you a franchise, then typically you start operating a new Snowfruit Unit within 14 to 21 days after you sign our franchise agreement. For an existing Snowfruit Unit that you purchase from us, we estimate the time from franchise agreement signing to operating is within 14 to 21 days after you sign. In some cases, delay by the Store Owner in providing the Snowfruit Unit may delay opening. You will generally be required to open within two (2) months from the date of signing the franchise agreement, or the date requested by Store Owner, whichever is earlier. (Franchise Agreement § 6.1).

Continuing Obligations. After you open your Snowfruit Unit, we will provide you with the following:

1. We will furnish such other guidance and operating assistance to you as we deem appropriate. This guidance and operating assistance may come in the form of bulletins or other written materials, telephonic consultations, and consultations at our offices or your location. Our assistance may consist of guidance with respect to (a) methods and operating procedures, (b) preparation, purchasing of ingredients, and marketing of fresh-cut fruit and related products and other approved products, materials, and supplies, and (c) the establishment and operation of administrative, sales, and general operating procedures. (Franchise Agreement § 5.5).
2. We will coordinate the Store Owner providing you the Snowfruit Unit (including the refrigerated display cases and sink), power, storage, and refrigeration (including adequate space in Store Owner’s refrigerator/freezer) to store fresh ingredients as necessary to operate the Snowfruit Unit. (Franchise Agreement §5.1).
3. We will provide you, and you must purchase from us, our affiliates, or our approved suppliers, any required equipment, signs, fixtures, opening inventory and supplies as set forth in the Snowfruit Operating Manual. Fixtures and sign will be installed by you, unless installed by the facility owner. You must keep all equipment, signs, fixtures in good repair. (Franchise Agreement §§ 6.7-6.11). For only those items provided by us directly, we will replace or refund items that do not meet our specifications, quality control procedures and formulas. (Franchise Agreement § 6.17).
4. We will provide ongoing research and development as to new food items that you will offer to your customers. We will inform you of new products that you will be required to sell. (Franchise Agreement §§ 5.5 and 6.5).
5. We will provide you management assistance as you request, or as we determine is necessary.

(Franchise Agreement § 5.6).

6. We will make available for you at our discretion training programs for you and your employees. (Franchise Agreement §§ 5.2 and 6.3). We do not provide assistance in hiring employees.
7. We will provide recommended resale prices or pricing schedules and provide pricing labels conforming to the recommended pricing. You will have the right to determine your own pricing, provided however, that in the event you want to charge a price or prices that differ from the recommended pricing, then you will have to pay fees or reimburse us for fees incurred. When it is allowed by law, we will specify maximum and minimum prices for products sold at your Snowfruit Unit. (Franchise Agreement § 6.11).

Advertising. We do not have an advertising program and we are not obligated to conduct advertising on your behalf. We are not required to spend any amount on advertising in your area or territory. You are not permitted to advertise your Snowfruit Unit in any format, including, but not limited to, print, radio, television, Internet, social media, or other electronic media. (Franchise Agreement § 6.13). We may in the future designate a geographic area, defined by radius of miles from a designated location, as an advertising cooperative that you must participate in. You will be required to participate and contribute to the cooperative if your location lies within the designated area. We can set the amount (but not to exceed 1.5% of Gross Sales) you and other Snowfruit franchisees contribute to any advertising fund operated by the cooperative. There is no requirement for locations that we own to contribute to the fund. The cooperative will operate according to governing documents that we prepare or consent to. (Franchise Agreement § 3.13). We can decide who administers the cooperative. There are no current requirements for cooperatives to prepare annual or periodic financial statements. We have the power to form, change, dissolve or merge cooperatives at our discretion. You are not required to participate in any other advertising fund. There are no current advertising councils composed of franchisees that advise us on advertising policies. Franchisor-owned outlets have no voting power on fees imposed by franchisee cooperatives.

Computer System. We do not require you to buy electronic cash registers or cash systems. You will be required to use the facility owner's cash registers and systems, and all food purchases by your customers are normally handled through supermarket cash registers or the registers of the facility where your Snowfruit Unit is located. The Store Owner will provide Gross Sales data to us for your location.

You must either lease or purchase a computer system and software to print such labels and exchange data with us, according to our specifications.

Prior to opening your business, you must purchase designated pricing label equipment from us or our approved supplier. The purchase price of the equipment ranges from $999 to $3,000, plus shipping costs ranging from $10 to $100. You must also purchase pricing labels which are compatible with the label equipment. The cost of a set of labels is $320 per box (25 rolls), for an 800-count-self-adhesive labels per roll. This cost is subject to change. None of these costs are refundable.

You must maintain the computer system and software in good repair. We may charge you for repairing or replacing your computer system and/or software. An estimate of that cost is $30 to $300. There are no contractual limits on the frequency and cost of your obligation to maintain, upgrade, and update the computer systems in conformance with our directives. If implemented, the system will report data to us such as the type and number of labels printed by you, and we will have independent access to the information and data generated and stored in the system. There are no contractual limits on our right to access this information. You may be required to use preprinted labels for products you sell.

Training. Before you open your Snowfruit Unit, you must successfully complete our initial training program to our satisfaction at our headquarters in Houston, Texas, or such other location as we may designate. You must complete your initial training within 4 weeks after signing your Franchise Agreement and at least 1 week prior to opening your Snowfruit Unit. You must execute our Initial Training Agreement (Exhibit C) and pay a training fee of $500 per person for you and any employee before training begins. Any of your employees who will prepare or handle food items must attend and successfully complete our training program. You will be responsible for all expenses to complete the initial and any additional training program, including travel, meals, lodging, employee compensation, and all other expenses incurred in connection with attendance at any training meetings by you and your employees. (Franchise Agreement §§ 5.2 and 6.3). If you have previously owned, operated and/or served as a manager for a Snowfruit fresh-cut fruit and vegetable kiosk within the prior 2 years, we may waive the training requirement based on your experience. Our initial training programs cover the following subjects:

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

Our franchise agreement grants to you the right to own and operate a Snowfruit Unit at a specific location in supermarkets, grocery stores or other third-party facilities as may be determined by us. You may not operate your Snowfruit Unit at any site other than the location specified in the franchise agreement. You will not have any minimum territory. In some cases, the Store Owner may remodel or upgrade your Snowfruit Unit's appearance, layout, and/or design, and or relocate your Snowfruit Unit's location within the store. Such remodeling and/or upgrades of your Snowfruit Unit will be done at the Store Owner's cost and expense, but you must cooperate with the Store Owner with respect to such remodeling or upgrade. You may not relocate your Snowfruit Unit, unless you receive our prior written consent. The franchise agreement does not provide you with any options, rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

If you wish to operate more than one location, we will consider the following factors as to whether to grant you the right to operate an additional Snowfruit Unit: i) availability and suitability of another location; ii) whether you are financially able to operate more than one location, as determined in our sole discretion; iii) whether you have the resources and capability to operate more than one location as determined in our sole discretion. Additionally, you must execute an additional franchise agreement and pay any applicable fees. Unless you sign an additional franchise agreement, you will not have any right to operate such locations.

If you and we mutually agree that a new and different location is available and preferred, you and we may mutually terminate this Agreement and enter into a new franchise agreement in the form then being used by us. If you elect to terminate your existing Snowfruit Unit and obtain a new franchise at a different location, you must pay the then-current initial franchise fee we charge for the new unit.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. Other produce businesses, including other Snowfruit Unit locations, may operate close by to your particular location. We and our affiliates reserve the right to use other methods of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales at any location regardless of the proximity to the location of your Snowfruit Unit using our principal trademarks and/or trademarks different from the ones you will use under the franchise agreement. Our affiliate has plans to use other channels of distribution to market products under our Marks. Neither we nor our affiliates are required to compensate you for any sales that we or our affiliates make through these other methods.

You are not permitted to solicit or accept orders from customers outside of your specific location. You are not permitted to use other distribution methods such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing, to make sales outside of your specified location(s). You may not solicit or accept orders for the wholesale sales of any products without receiving our prior written consent.

ITEM 13 TRADEMARKS

We are granting you pursuant to the franchise agreement the right to use the Snowfruit trademarks identified in the table below. We or our affiliates have used the name Snowfruit in the fresh-cut fruit and vegetable business with various stylings since February of 2022 without any known instance of opposition or conflicts.

Mark	Registration/Number	Registration/Application Date
SNOWFRUIT (Word Mark)	Registration Number: 7,288,739	Registration Date: January 23, 2024
 (Stylized Design Mark)	Registration Number: 7,288,740	Registration Date: January 23, 2024

We own the Snowfruit Mark and logo design, which have been registered on the Principal Register (“Snowfruit Marks”) of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”).

However, we do not yet have trademark registrations of our principal mark or logo design, “Snowfruit.” Applications have been filed as noted in the above table. Therefore, our trademark does not have as many legal benefits and rights as a federally registered trademark. If our right to use the trademark is challenged, you may have to change to an alternative trademark, which may increase your expenses.

You will receive a non-exclusive license for these trademarks as part of the franchise agreement. As of the effective date of this disclosure document, all required affidavits were filed. We intend to renew the registrations and to file all appropriate affidavits at the appropriate times required by law.

There are no effective agreements that significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of the trademarks listed in this section in a manner material to the franchise.

You must follow our rules when you use our trademarks. You cannot use a Snowfruit name or mark as part of a corporate name, and you cannot use our marks with modified words, designs, or symbols, except for those which we license to you. You may not use our trademarks in connection with the sale of any unauthorized product or service, or in a manner that we have not authorized in writing. In some situations, you will do business under a different name or a general description of the product, as may be required by us. If we require, you may have to stop using our trademarks, use our marks in a limited fashion, and/or use a different mark or name as we may designate. We are not required to pay for the costs related to you using a new name or mark, and we will not be responsible for any claims related to stopping or changing your use of the name or trademark.

There are no currently effective material determinations of the USPTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or any state trademark administrator or court; nor any pending infringement, opposition, or cancellation proceedings relating to the Snowfruit Marks. There is no pending material federal or state court litigation regarding our use or ownership rights in a trademark.

You must notify us if you become aware of any potentially infringing use of our trademark. We will take action as necessary, and you will not have separate rights to do so. You must also notify us if a third-party claims that you are infringing their trademark because of the use of our trademark. If you are using our trademark in accordance with our franchise agreement, we will at our cost determine the appropriate action in order to defend or handle the claims. If you are in violation of our franchise agreement, you must pay for the costs of defense. In all cases, you will be required to cooperate with us. In all instances, we have the sole right to determine how to handle any issues related to our trademark, including litigation.

We are not aware of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could affect your use of the principal trademark.

ITEM 14 PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

Patents

As of the date of this disclosure document, we are not aware of any patents that are material to the franchise and do not have any pending patent applications that are material to the franchise. There are no material proceedings pending in the USPTO or any court.

Copyrights

We do not own rights in, or licenses to, registered copyrights that are material to the franchise and you do not receive the right to use any item covered by a registered copyright. However, we assert a common law copyright on the contents of the Operating Manuals and only you or your authorized employees can have access to and use the proprietary information in the Operating Manuals.

Our intellectual property, whether the subject of a patent, copyright or not, also is protected by common law principles which limit the use of our confidential proprietary information, except as we have licensed it. We will enforce those rights as we determine.

Proprietary Information – Confidential Operations Manual

During the term of the franchise agreement, we will loan to you our confidential Operating Manuals. The Operating Manuals are our proprietary property and you must return them upon termination of the franchise agreement or at any time at our request. You must not photocopy or keep in any form any part of the Operating Manuals without our written consent.

You must use your best efforts to keep confidential the information in the Operating Manuals, their supplements, and any other materials or information designated by us as confidential. You may not provide your employees access to the Operating Manuals without our written approval.

You must comply with all provisions in the Operating Manuals, including any supplements or amendments that we provide. You are responsible for keeping your copy of the Operating Manuals current with the latest version and updates provided by us. The provisions in our master copy will control any disputes that arise. You agree to comply with revisions to the Operating Manuals that we may make from time to time, provided the revisions do not implement new or different requirements which alter the fundamental terms and conditions of the franchise agreement.

Confidential Information/Trade Secrets

We will be disclosing to you proprietary information, trade secrets and specific know-how related to our materials, product recipes, food preparation, methods of operation of your franchise, and customer data. You must not disclose any of our proprietary rights, confidential information, trade secrets or know-how, except as authorized in the franchise agreement. You cannot use our proprietary information in any activity other than operating your franchise. You may not sell, lease, or otherwise use any customer data other than in connection with operating your franchise. You must maintain adequate security in the control, use, and handling of our proprietary materials, including, but not limited to the Operating Manuals. All your officers and employees with management responsibilities who can access our proprietary materials must sign a confidentiality agreement in substantially the form attached as Exhibit C to the franchise agreement. You must immediately notify us of any unauthorized use of our trade secrets.

ITEM 15 OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

We expect only business entities, and not individuals, to operate the Snowfruit Unit. You must designate an Acting Principal who must meet our approval. The Acting Principal must maintain a majority ownership in your business entity. The Acting Principal must participate in and complete our initial training program and any post-training programs we develop in the future and must have authority to make decisions on your behalf and bind you with respect to matters and agreements between you and us.

Your Acting Principal must personally and actively participate in the direct operation of your Snowfruit Unit. This means that the Snowfruit Unit must at all times be under direct, day-to-day, full-time supervision by your Acting Principal or a full-time manager that has the training required for the management of the Snowfruit Unit. We recommend on-premises supervision by your Acting Principal at all times. You do not have limits on who you can hire as a manager, but the Acting Principal, any manager, and any employees who prepare or handle food items must successfully complete our initial training program to our satisfaction. If your Snowfruit Unit is operated by a manager, your Acting Principal is still required to be personally and actively involved in operations and remain fully responsible for such location. Your manager does not have to have any ownership interest in your business entity), but your manager must sign a confidentiality agreement in substantially the form attached as Exhibit C to the franchise agreement.

While you are solely responsible for hiring, firing, and establishing employment policies, any of your employees who will prepare or handle food items must attend and successfully complete our training program. Additionally, you must comply with the rules, policies and guidelines of the Store and sign any code of conduct or equivalent document required by the Store, which may include policies for any individuals working in the Store. You are responsible for compliance with these policies by you, your managers, and your employees.

You must always faithfully, honestly and diligently perform your obligations under the franchise agreement, continuously exert your best efforts to promote and enhance your Snowfruit Unit and not engage in any other business or activity that conflicts with your obligations to operate the Snowfruit Unit in compliance with the franchise agreement. We may require you to send us digital photos and streaming video from your Snowfruit Unit in the frequency we request (may be daily), and in the form and manner we reasonably require. All owner(s) of your business entity must sign a personal guaranty.

ITEM 16 RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT YOU MAY SELL

We require that you offer and sell only those food products and related products approved by us. If you wish to sell other items, you must first obtain our approval in writing.

You must offer all food and other products that we designate as required for all franchises. We have the sole right to change the types of authorized products sold, and we may periodically add or delete products required to be sold at your franchise. We have the sole right to develop new products to be offered for sale. You are prohibited from removing any required products on the menu. If you wish to remove any products for sale, you must first obtain our approval in writing.

If you desire to purchase any items from any source other than an approved supplier of ours, we will at your request test and evaluate such sources and approve or disapprove such sources and products based on our tests. You must pay us an Alternative Supplier Evaluation Fee of $1,000 per requested application plus all expenses incurred by us for researching and evaluating the new supplier or product, including laboratory testing costs. Any proposed supplier requested must demonstrate to our reasonable satisfaction that it and its products meet our specifications, and that it is of good standing in the business community with respect to its financial capabilities and the reliability of its products and services. The proposed supplier must meet our standards, including, of quality, consistency, reliability, financial capability, and production capacity.

In the event that you offer to sell unapproved products or remove required products without obtaining our prior written permission, we may take action, including, but not limited to, terminating your franchise agreement.

You must operate your Snowfruit Unit in strict conformity with all methods, policies, procedures and standards as described in the Confidential Operations Manuals and in any other document we may provide to you. You must use your designated location inside the market only for the operation of your Snowfruit Unit. You cannot operate any other business at or from your location without our express prior written consent.

You are not permitted to solicit or accept orders from customers outside of your specific location. You are not permitted to use other distribution methods such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing, to make sales outside of your specified location(s). You may not solicit or accept orders for the wholesale sales of any products without receiving our prior written permission.

You must fill orders placed by customers through all Third Party Delivery Services that your Store Owner has approved. A "Third Party Delivery Service" is a company or business through which customers purchase menu items from Franchisee's Snowfruit Unit, that delivers said menu items to the customer at a location other than the Store where Franchisee's Snowfruit Unit is located. Such orders will be placed through your tablet machine or other equipment we may designate.

Renewal or extension	Franchise Agreement Section 4.2 Franchise Agreement Section 4.3 Express Unit Addendum	If you meet the specified conditions outlined in this section, you can obtain a successor franchise and extend the term for additional 2 years or on such terms as set forth in the then-current franchise agreement. That franchise agreement may have materially different terms and conditions than in your original Franchise Agreement. Franchisor may offer to extend the terms of the agreement on a month-to-month basis after the expiration of a term until such time that Franchisor can lawfully offer a then current form of agreement. For Snowfruit Express Units, initially the Store Owner Revenue Share varies between 15% and 17.5% of Gross Sales and the Franchisor Revenue Share varies between 5% and 15% of Gross Sales. On or about May 15 of each calendar year, if your average weekly Gross Sales since either (i) the date you opened for business, if you have been in business for less than one (1) year or (ii) May 15 of the previous calendar year, if you have been in business for one (1) year or more was greater than $3,000, we may require you to convert your franchise from a Snowfruit Express Unit to a traditional Snowfruit Unit at the Store Revenue Share and Franchisor Revenue Share as described in the above table. For the avoidance of doubt, if you convert your franchise from a Snowfruit Express Unit to a traditional Snowfruit Unit, you will have no future right to convert back to a Snowfruit Express Unit regardless of your average weekly Gross Sales.
c. Requirement for franchisee to renew or extend	Franchise Agreement Section 4.2	There is no automatic right to renewal or option to extend. Renewal means the extension of the term of your Snowfruit Unit for additional 2 years or on such terms as set forth in the then-current franchise agreement. ITEM 18 PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figures to promote the franchise.

ITEM 19 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

We do not make any representations about a franchisee's future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised outlets. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Emma Deabill at 2021 Bingle Road, Houston, Texas 77055 and (713) 463-7777, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This FRANCHISE AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of _____ (the “Effective Date”) by and between JFE Franchising, Inc., a Texas corporation having its principal business address at 2021 Bingle Road, Houston, Texas 77055 (“Franchisor”), and _____, whose address is _____ (“Franchisee”).

RECITALS

A. Franchisor and/or its affiliates have developed distinctive business systems, operating formats, methods, procedures, menu, recipes, trade dress, designs and marketing standards and formats, all of which Franchisor may improve, further develop or otherwise modify from time to time (collectively, the “System”) using the trademark “SNOWFRUIT” (and other associated names) (collectively, the “Snowfruit Marks”) for the operation of fresh-cut fruit and vegetable units that are operated as departments within supermarkets, grocery stores, and other third party facilities. For purposes of this Agreement, an “affiliate” of a person is anyone controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the specified person.

B. Franchisor owns a license to operate, and grant franchises to third parties to operate, Snowfruit Units using the System.

C. Franchisee desires to be granted a franchise to operate a Snowfruit Unit using the System, and Franchisor is willing to grant a franchise to Franchisee, on the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

D. Franchisee will operate a Snowfruit Unit using the System, all in accordance with and subject to the terms of this Agreement and the high standards of quality and service associated with the System.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the matters recited above, the mutual promises herein contained and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Franchisor and Franchisee agree as follows:

1. Grant of Franchise.

1.1 Franchise to Operate Snowfruit Unit. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Franchisor hereby grants to Franchisee the non-exclusive right and license to use the System and Snowfruit Marks to operate a fresh-cut fruit and vegetable unit (the “SNOWFRUIT Unit”) located as a department within a supermarket, grocery store, or other facility identified in Exhibit A (the “Location”). This Agreement authorizes and requires Franchisee to engage only in the sale of products authorized by Franchisor. Franchisee agrees at all times to faithfully and diligently perform its obligations under this Agreement and to continuously exert best efforts to promote and enhance the business and goodwill associated with the System.

1.2 Use of System and Snowfruit Marks. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor or its affiliates are the sole and exclusive owners of the entire right, title and interest in and to the System, the Snowfruit Marks, and all other proprietary items and systems related to the System. Franchisee will have no right to use the System or other proprietary items and systems of Franchisor or its affiliates, or any Snowfruit Mark or any other name, trademark or service mark of Franchisor or its affiliates, except in accordance with this Agreement or with Franchisor’s prior written consent. Franchisee will not take any actions inconsistent with the proper operation of the System or with Franchisor's or its affiliate's ownership of the Snowfruit Marks and System. All additions, improvements, and other changes to the System, however derived, will be the sole property of Franchisor or its affiliates.

1.3 Limitations. Franchisor grants Franchisee no rights other than the rights expressly stated in this Agreement. Franchisee will have no right to use the System, any Snowfruit Mark or other items proprietary to Franchisor or its affiliates, or use any other name, trademark or service mark in the operation of the Snowfruit Unit or at any other location, or for any other purpose, except in accordance with this Agreement. Franchisee may not operate the Snowfruit Unit at any site other than the Location. Except as expressly set forth herein, Franchisee does not have the right to use any other methods of distribution or any distribution outside of the Snowfruit Unit. Franchisee will not engage in wholesale distribution of sales of goods or services of any kind. Nothing in this Agreement gives Franchisee: (i) the right to sublicense the rights granted herein or any component thereof to others, (ii) an interest in Franchisor or the right to participate in Franchisor's business activities or opportunities, or (iii) any rights in any intellectual property of Franchisor or its affiliates, except for the license expressly set forth in this Agreement. Franchisee understands and agrees that this Agreement does not grant Franchisee any implied or preferential right of any kind to acquire an additional franchise.

1.4 Internet and Web Sites. Franchisee is prohibited from maintaining its own website promoting the Snowfruit Unit, or otherwise from maintaining a presence or advertising the Snowfruit Marks or any variation thereof in any domain name. Franchisee will not develop, participate in, or use in any manner any computer or electronic medium (including any Internet webpage, e-mail address, website, domain name, bulletin board, social networking sites or apps such as Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Pinterest, and Gplus, or other Internet-related medium or activity) which in any way uses or displays the Snowfruit Marks, or any confusingly similar words, symbols or terms, or any other of Franchisor's intellectual property, without Franchisor's prior written consent, and then only in such manner and in accordance with Franchisor's policies. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor or its affiliates are the owner of all right, title and interest in and to such domain names as Franchisor will designate in the Operating Manuals set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement. Franchisee shall disable and remove any Internet-related medium in violation of Franchisor's policies within five (5) days of Franchisor's request.

1.5 Nonexclusive; Reservation of Rights. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the grant of the franchise to Franchisee under this Agreement does not constitute a grant of an exclusive area or territory in which Franchisee can operate the Snowfruit Unit. Franchisor and its affiliates reserve the right to sell, market and/or distribute any goods or services of any kind, including the products sold through the System, either directly or through others, through any retail, wholesale or other channel of distribution. Franchisor and its affiliates reserve the right to use other methods of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales at any location regardless of the proximity to the location of Franchisee's Snowfruit Unit using the JFE trademarks and/or trademarks different from the ones Franchisee uses under this franchise agreement. Neither Franchisor nor its affiliates are required to compensate Franchisee for any sales that Franchisor or its affiliates make through these other methods.

2. Location.

2.1 Initial Location. Franchisee will operate a Snowfruit Unit only at the specified Location within a supermarket, grocery store or other facility, as determined by Franchisor and as set forth in Exhibit A. The parties expressly acknowledge and agree that the selection of any Location by Franchisor will not be deemed a guarantee or representation that the Snowfruit Unit will be successful or meet expectations as to potential revenue. Franchisee must use the Snowfruit Unit within the Location only for the operation of the Snowfruit Unit. Franchisee will not operate any other business at or from the Snowfruit Unit without Franchisor's express prior written consent.

2.2 Acknowledgement. Franchisee acknowledges that the Location is in a supermarket, grocery store or other facility ("Store") owned, leased, and/or operated by a third party ("Store Owner"). Franchisee further acknowledges that Franchisor's right to grant a franchise at the Location is subject to an agreement between Store Owner and Franchisor or its affiliate to provide fresh-cut fruit and vegetables and related products for sale within the Store ("Store Agreement"). Franchisee understands and acknowledges that the Store Owner may object to or require adjustments to Franchisee's operation of the Snowfruit Unit, and that the Store Owner may terminate the Store Agreement at any time and upon short notice. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that termination of the Store Agreement by the Store Owner may result in the termination of this Agreement.

2.3 Relocation. Franchisee may not relocate the Snowfruit Unit within the Store or to a new location without Franchisor's prior written consent, which may be withheld for any or no reason. If Franchisee's right to use the Location and operate within the Store terminates for reasons other than Franchisee's breach and/or Franchisee's fault (for example, Store Owner terminates the Store Agreement for no cause or Franchisor terminates the Store Agreement for cause), Franchisor may, upon Franchisee's request and at Franchisor's sole discretion, make reasonable efforts to relocate the Snowfruit Unit to a new location selected by Franchisor at Franchisee's sole expense. Franchisee acknowledges that relocation may not be possible before the expiration of this Agreement, or at all, and that any new location proposed may not be the same in criteria as the prior location.

2.4 Remodeling. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Store Owner may remodel or upgrade the Snowfruit Unit's appearance, layout, and/or design, and/or relocate the Snowfruit Unit's location within the Store to satisfy Store Owner's then current standards. Such remodeling and/or upgrades of the Snowfruit Unit will be done at Store Owner's cost and expense, and Franchisee agrees to fully cooperate with Store Owner with respect to such remodeling or upgrade.

2.5 New Location. If Franchisor and Franchisee mutually agree that a new and different location is available and preferred, the parties may mutually terminate this Agreement and enter into a new franchise agreement in the form then being used by Franchisor. If Franchisee elects to terminate the existing Snowfruit Unit and obtain a new franchise, Franchisee will be responsible for the payment of the then-current initial franchise fee applicable to the new unit.

3. Fees and Payments.

3.1 Initial Franchise Fee. In consideration of the franchise and license granted to Franchisee pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee will pay to Franchisor in full simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement an initial franchise fee as set forth in Exhibit A (the “Initial Franchise Fee”). The Initial Franchise Fee will not be credited against or cause the waiver of payment of any fees, royalties, or other payments required under this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee. The Initial Franchise Fee is fully earned when paid and no portion of it is refundable under any circumstances, except as set forth in Section 3.1(a) of this Agreement.

(a) Proration of Initial Franchise Fee upon Relocation. In the event Franchisor relocates Franchisee’s Snowfruit Unit to a new Store, or new location within the same Store, and the new location places the Snowfruit Unit in a lower fee category (as determined by the formula set forth in the franchise disclosure document provided in conjunction with this Agreement), Franchisor reserves the right to issue Franchisee a prorated refund of the Initial Franchise Fee over the remaining term of this Agreement based on the difference between the Initial Franchise Fee and the franchise fee associated with the lower fee category. Should such relocation place the Snowfruit Unit in a higher fee category (as determined by the formula set forth in the franchise disclosure document provided in conjunction with this Agreement), Franchisor reserves the right to charge Franchisee a prorated franchise fee, in addition to the Initial Franchise Fee, over the remaining term of this Agreement, based on the difference between the franchise fee associated with the higher fee category and the Initial Franchise Fee.

3.2 Compensation to Franchisor. In consideration of the franchise and license granted to Franchisee pursuant to this Agreement, beginning on the date the Snowfruit Unit is open for business (the “Opening Date”) and for the remainder of the Term, in accordance with Section 3.3 of this Agreement, Franchisor will retain as “Franchisor Compensation,” without offset, credit or deduction of any nature, a percentage (subject to periodic adjustment by Franchisor, but always not less than 5% nor more than 20%) of the Gross Sales of the Snowfruit Unit. All Franchisor Compensation pursuant to this Section 3.2 will be retained on a weekly basis.

(a) Gross Sales Defined. For purposes of this Agreement, “Gross Sales” will mean the total gross receipts and revenues for the specified period from all products and/or services sold at or from the Snowfruit Unit, as applicable) whether payment is in cash, by debit or credit card, but excluding all refunds, sales taxes and discounts.

3.3 Compensation to Franchisee; Method of Payment. (i) all Gross Sales of the Snowfruit Unit will be made directly to the Store Owner under the System and recorded on the Store Owner’s point of sale system or cash registers and reported by Store Owner to Franchisor; (ii) after Store Owner deducts a percentage (subject to periodic adjustment by Store Owner, but always varying between 15% and 35%) of Gross Sales (“Store Owner Compensation”), the remaining Gross Sales will be forwarded to Franchisor; (iii) Franchisor will then deduct the Franchisor Compensation under Section 3.2 of this Agreement; and (iv) no later than forty-five (45) days of the receipt of sums from Store Owner, Franchisor will then remit to Franchisee (generally, on a weekly basis) as a “Weekly Franchisee Commission”, the remainder of the Gross Sales after deducting outstanding payments, if any, due to Franchisor or its affiliates for the purchase of goods and/or services, including but not limited to food and inventory costs, freight, and equipment fees or for installments on a Promissory Note between Franchisor and Franchisee (such amounts will generally be deducted as a lump sum). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the first payment of Weekly Franchisee Commissions may be remitted to Franchisee up to eight (8) weeks after the Opening Date, or a longer time as such sums are held by the Store Owner. As soon as practicable, Franchisor will notify Franchisee by email or otherwise in writing of any periodic adjustments made by Store Owner to the Store Owner Compensation described in subparagraph 3.3(ii) above, or periodic adjustments made by Franchisor to the Franchisor Compensation described in subparagraph 3.2 above. Franchisor reserves the right to modify and alter the method of payment described herein at any time. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Franchisor's sole obligation will be to remit to Franchisee the agreed upon portion (as set forth in this Agreement) of Weekly Franchisee Commissions based on the actual amounts received from Store Owner by Franchisor.

3.4 Sales Data. Franchisor will provide to Franchisee a weekly statement setting forth the Gross Sales within forty-five (45) days after the receipt of the sales statement provided by Store Owner or third party, which shall set forth the Store Owner Compensation and Franchisor Compensation, respectively, and the amounts deducted pursuant to Section 3.3. In the event the sales and revenue recorded by Franchisee is different or conflicts with that provided by Store Owner, the records of Store Owner will control. Franchisee will notify Franchisor within fifteen (15) days of any discrepancy in the sales and revenue records between its records and that of Store Owner. Further, in the event of any discrepancy, Franchisee will not contact Store Owner with any complaints or inquiries but will submit all inquiries to Franchisor for handling.

3.5 Late Payments. If Franchisee fails to pay any amount to Franchisor or its affiliates by the date payment is due, Franchisee may be charged (a) a late charge equal to 10% of the amount of the payment due, to cover Franchisor's increased expenses, or $250, whichever is higher, plus (b) interest on the amount unpaid in accordance as set forth herein, imposed from the date payment was due until the entire sum, late charge, and accrued interest is paid in full. Interest on all amounts due by Franchisee to Franchisor or its affiliates that are not paid when due will bear interest at the rate of 12%, or the highest amount allowed by law, whichever is lower. If any check, electronic funds transfer, or other payment by Franchisee is returned by its bank (for insufficient funds or any other reason), Franchisee will pay Franchisor an insufficient funds fee in the amount of 10% of the check, electronic funds transfer, or other payment to reimburse Franchisor for the extra costs of collecting the amounts due, to the maximum extent allowed by law. Franchisee understands and agrees that the late charges do not constitute an agreement by Franchisor to accept any payment after the date payment is due or a commitment by Franchisor to extend credit to, or otherwise finance, the Snowfruit Unit, and that Franchisee's failure to pay all amounts when due will constitute grounds for termination of this Agreement notwithstanding Franchisee's obligation to pay a late charge.

3.6 Application of Payment. Notwithstanding any designation made by Franchisee, Franchisor will have the right to apply any Gross Sales sums received from Store Owner toward any past due payment obligations Franchisee may owe to Franchisor or its affiliates pursuant to this Agreement, including any reimbursement of payments to suppliers to whom Franchisor has made payment on Franchisee's behalf. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor has the right to offset any amounts Franchisee owes to Franchisor under any agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee. Franchisor will forward to Franchisee the amounts remaining after such deductions.

3.7 Responsibility. Franchisee will pay Franchisor or its affiliates for certain proprietary food items, raw materials, supplies, equipment, paper products, signage and other consumable and non-consumable merchandise required to be purchased from Franchisor or its affiliates. Franchisee will be solely responsible for the payment of all costs and expenses arising out of Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement and the operation of the Snowfruit Unit, including without limitation all salaries and wages of employees and all taxes and assessments made in connection with such matters. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that in some cases, Store Owner may require that the Franchisee utilize employees employed directly by Store Owner to work at the Snowfruit Unit. In such cases, if Store Owner requires Franchisor to reimburse Store Owner for such employees, Franchisor will have the right to deduct such payments from the amounts due to Franchisee.

3.8 Reimbursement of Advances. Franchisee will promptly reimburse Franchisor for all amounts, if any, which Franchisor may advance or that Franchisor has paid on Franchisee's behalf to any third party. In any event, Franchisee will reimburse Franchisor no more than ten (10) days after notice.

3.9 Withholding. All amounts due under this Agreement will be net of any amounts withheld or deducted by governmental or other authorities, whether as taxes, exchange controls or otherwise. Franchisor may directly deduct from the Weekly Franchisee Commissions or require that Franchisee pay Franchisor the amount of any state or local sales, use, gross receipts, or similar tax that Franchisor may be required to pay on payments which Franchisee makes to Franchisor under this Agreement. This provision will not apply to income taxes or comparable taxes measured by income to which Franchisor may be subject. Franchisee agrees to indemnify and hold Franchisor and its officers, directors, employees, agents and affiliates, and the officers, directors, employees and agents of Franchisor's affiliates harmless against any claims or losses resulting from Franchisee's failure to comply with any tax or other similar obligation.

3.10 Default Charge. Notwithstanding any other rights and remedies available to Franchisor, in the event Franchisee or its employee or agent violates certain requirements of the Operating Manuals, Franchisor will have the right to assess default charges as specified in the Operating Manuals (currently ranging from $50 to $1,000 for each violation), as may be amended by Franchisor. Repeats of the same violation may incur doubling of the default charge. Such default charges may be deducted from the amounts to be paid to Franchisee pursuant to Section 3.3.

3.11 Store Owner Resolution Fee. If the Store Owner contacts Franchisor to lodge a complaint, Franchisor reserves the right to address the complaint in order to preserve goodwill and prevent damage to the brand. Franchisee shall pay Franchisor Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for each complaint ("Store Owner Resolution Fee") to compensate Franchisor for its administrative costs in responding to the complaint.

3.12 Inspection Fee. Notwithstanding any other rights and remedies available to Franchisor, in the event Franchisor determines that it needs to inspect the Snowfruit Unit due to an alleged breach of this Agreement, default under the Operating Manuals, and/or a suspected health violation, Franchisee will pay for the costs inspection (with a minimum inspection fee of $1,000), and the costs of remediation as may be determined by Franchisor. If Franchisor determines in its sole discretion that a laboratory test is required to test the quality, safety and freshness of the products sold at the Snowfruit Unit, Franchisor will have the right to assess a testing fee of up to $1,000 for each sample tested. Franchisee will cooperate fully with Franchisor's inspections and promptly cure all deviations from Franchisor's standards, specifications and operating procedures of which Franchisee is notified either orally or in writing.

3.13 Management Fee. If Franchisor determines in its sole discretion that Franchisor is required to temporarily operate the Snowfruit Unit in order to remedy a breach of this Agreement, default under the Operating Manuals, and/or a suspected health violation, Franchisee will pay a management fee of $400 per person (of Franchisor personnel) per day, for as long as may be reasonably required by Franchisor.

3.14 Advertising Cooperative Fee. Franchisor may, in the future, designate a geographic area for the implementation of a cooperative advertising program. If Franchisor establishes an advertising cooperative fund in a geographic area that covers the Location and the Snowfruit Unit, Franchisee will be required to participate and contribute in accordance with the procedures adopted by Franchisor (not to exceed 1.5% of Gross Sales). Franchisor will give Franchisee at least fifteen (15) days written notice before Franchisee's first payment of advertising cooperative fees is due.

3.15 Early Termination Fee. Notwithstanding any other rights and remedies available to Franchisor, in the event: (i) Franchisee ceases operations of the Snowfruit Unit, (ii) Franchisee abandons the Location, or (iii) this Agreement or any addendum thereto is terminated for cause before the end of the Agreement, Franchisor will have the right to assess an early termination fee of $10,000 for each location, plus any additional costs and expenses incurred by Franchisor in connection with the termination. Franchisor's assessment of this early termination fee will not constitute a waiver of any other rights, and nothing contained herein will be construed to impair or to restrict Franchisor's right and remedies or to preclude any procedures or process otherwise available to Franchisor.

3.16 Technology Fee. Franchisor reserves the right to charge you a technology fee ("Technology Fee" of up to One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month ("Maximum Technology Fee"). Franchisor reserves the right to increase the Maximum Technology Fee by ten percent (10%) per year. Franchisor reserves the right to determine how and for what purposes the technology fees will be used, which may include covering Franchisor's costs or paying fees to third party providers for technology development, maintenance, and usage for the franchise system, and subscription and license fees paid by Franchisor in order for franchisees to have access to and use certain technology tools. The Technology Fee shall be paid at times, in the manner, and in amounts as Franchisor designates. Franchisor will give Franchisee at least sixty (60) days written notice before increasing or decreasing the Technology Fee or in imposing an annual increase in the Maximum Technology Fee.

3.17 Ongoing Training Fee. Franchisor reserves the right to charge you a monthly fee, not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month, for your use of a mobile application for ongoing supplemental training. The Ongoing Training Fee shall be paid at times, in the manner, and in amounts as Franchisor designates. Franchisor will give Franchisee at least sixty (60) days written notice before increasing or decreasing the Ongoing Training Fee.

4. Term.

4.1 Term. The initial term of this Agreement (the “Initial Term”) will commence on the Effective Date and continue until the earlier of: (i) two (2) years from the Effective Date, unless otherwise specified in Exhibit A, or (ii) the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, including the expiration or termination of the applicable Store Agreement.

4.2 Conditional Right to Extend. At the end of the Initial Term, Franchisee will have the right to extend the term of this Agreement and acquire a successor franchise to continue operating the Snowfruit Unit for one term of two (2) years, or on such terms as set forth in Franchisor’s then-current franchise agreement form (the “Extension Term”), but only if all of the following conditions have been met:

(a) Franchisee has fully and continuously complied with this Agreement and all other agreements with Franchisor or its affiliates related to the franchise and/or the Snowfruit Unit, in each case without any defaults,

(b) Franchisee has maintained the Snowfruit Unit in full compliance with Franchisor’s requirements and policies, including the Operating Manuals, and all other specifications and standards set forth by Franchisor from time to time,

(c) Franchisee has given Franchisor written notice of Franchisee’s election to acquire a successor franchise at least six (6) months, but not more than twelve (12) months, before the end of the Initial Term of this Agreement.

(d) Franchisee shall, at Franchisor’s option, execute the then-current form of the franchise agreement used by Franchisor, which may contain terms and conditions materially different from those set forth in this Agreement, and such additional documents as Franchisor may reasonably require,

(e) Franchisor’s existing Store Agreement with Store Owner allows Franchisee to maintain use of the Location,

(f) Franchisor must be granting new franchises in the United States at the time when Franchisee is permitted to exercise each its rights under this Section,

(g) Franchisee has complied with any additional training requirements which Franchisor may reasonably impose, including timely payment of the charges set forth in this Agreement, and for which Franchisee will be responsible for all travel, meals, lodging and other expenses of Franchisee’s personnel,

(h) Franchisee has (i) cooperated or agrees to cooperate with any remodel or upgrade of the Snowfruit Unit’s appearance, layout and/or design or location within the Store by Store Owner; or, (ii) agreed to relocate the Snowfruit Unit to a substitute location that Franchisor has approved, and develop a new Snowfruit Unit location in accordance with Franchisor's requirements.

(i) Franchisee has executed a general release in a form substantially the same as Exhibit D with respect to all potential claims arising out of this Agreement; and

(j) Franchisee has paid a non-refundable successor franchise fee equal to twenty percent (20%) of the initial franchise fee that Franchisor is then charging for a new franchise in the state where the Snowfruit Unit is located ("Successor Franchise Fee") (Franchisor may charge a lower successor franchise fee, provided that such adjustment will be equally applied to all similarly situated Snowfruit franchisees). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the Successor Franchise Fee be greater than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).

Except as set forth herein, Franchisee will have no right or option to extend or renew the term of this Agreement. There is no right to renew this particular form of agreement. Franchisor grants the opportunity to extend the ability to operate the Snowfruit Unit by signing a new franchise agreement for the same Location upon the terms and conditions specified here.

4.3 Month to Month Extension. If Franchisor is not granting new franchises, or is in the process of revising, amending or renewing its franchise disclosure documents or registration to sell franchises in the state where the Snowfruit Unit is located, or, under applicable law, Franchisor cannot lawfully offer Franchisee its then-current form of the franchise agreement at the time of renewal, Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, offer to extend the terms and conditions of this Agreement on a month-to-month basis following the expiration of the Initial Term (or Extension Term, as applicable) for as long as Franchisor deems necessary so that Franchisor may lawfully offer its then-current form of franchise agreement.

4.4 Expiration. If any of the above conditions for extension is not timely satisfied, this Agreement will expire on the last day of the Initial Term (or Extension Term, as applicable) without further notice from Franchisor, provided, however, Franchisee will remain responsible for complying with all provisions of this Agreement which expressly, or by their nature, survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

5. Franchisor Obligations.

5.1 Location Selection and Plans. Franchisor will provide Franchisee with the Location of Franchisee's Snowfruit Unit, in accordance with the terms of the Store Agreement, if any. The parties agree that the Store Owner will have sole control over and will be responsible for the build out, development, specifications and layouts of the Snowfruit Unit as provided. The Store Owner will provide the Snowfruit Unit (including the refrigerated display cases and sink), power, storage, and refrigeration (including adequate space in Store Owner's refrigerator/freezer) to store fresh ingredients as necessary to operate the Snowfruit Unit.

5.2 Training. Prior to the Opening Date, Franchisor will offer an initial training program (the "Initial Training Program") to Franchisee as provided in Franchisor's current Initial Training Agreement, which must be completed to Franchisor's satisfaction by Franchisee (or if Franchisee is a corporation or limited liability company, all principals of Franchisee) any proposed manager of the Snowfruit Unit, and any employees of Franchisee who prepare or handle food items. The Initial Training Program for Franchisee (or its principals) and managers, if any, will consist of 20 hours of training provided over a 1-week period and will be $500 per person. After the Opening Date, Franchisor will provide additional initial training for any new proposed manager of Franchisee as may be requested by Franchisee for a training fee of $500 per person. Franchisor may also provide such other training and follow up informational programs as may be determined by Franchisor from time to time, or as required by applicable law.

5.3 Operating Manuals. Franchisor will provide to Franchisee during the term of this Agreement access to Franchisor's confidential operating manuals (collectively, the "Operating Manuals"), containing the specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed by Franchisor for the System. The Operating Manuals may consist of one or more handbooks or manuals, and will include one set of "Standard Operating Procedures" ("SOP Manual"), one "Operating Manual for JFE Franchise" ("JFE Operating Manual"), and "One Food Playbook." Franchisor will loan one hard copy of the Operating Manuals to Franchisee. Franchisee must keep the Operating Manuals confidential and current, and the master copy of the Operating Manuals maintained by Franchisor at its principal office will control in the event of a conflict related to the contents of the Operating Manuals. Franchisor may add to, delete from, or otherwise modify, the Operating Manuals to reflect any changes in authorized products and services and the specifications, standards, and operating procedures of the System, provided that no addition, deletion, or modification may alter Franchisee's fundamental status and rights under this Agreement. The Operating Manuals and all amendments to the Operating Manuals (and copies thereof) are, and at all times will remain, the sole property of Franchisor. Franchisee will return the Operating Manuals within seven (7) days of any expiration, termination or an assignment of this Agreement, or immediately upon request by Franchisor. In the event Franchisee loses or is unable to return any Manual in its complete form to Franchisor at the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Franchisee will pay Franchisor a Lost Manual Fee of $500 for each Manual it loses or is unable to return in complete form.

(a) Franchisee will treat all information contained in the Operating Manuals as confidential, and will keep the information secret. Franchisee will not, without Franchisor's prior written consent, copy, duplicate, record or otherwise reproduce the Operating Manuals, in whole or in part, or otherwise loan or make it available to any person not required to have access to its contents in order to carry out his or her employment functions. To the extent that the Operating Manuals are furnished in a printed "hard" copy rather than electronically, Franchisee will only grant authorized personnel access to the Operating Manuals and take adequate precautions to ensure that the Operating Manuals are kept in a locked receptacle at the Location when not in use by authorized personnel. To the extent that the Operating Manuals are furnished in electronically or in an equivalent format, Franchisee will only share the access password with authorized personnel. Franchisee will promptly notify Franchisor if any volume or part of its Operating Manuals that are maintained in a tangible media is lost or destroyed for any reason. In that event, the Lost Manual Fee will be charged.

5.4 Opening Assistance. At Franchisee's request, Franchisor will send one or more individuals to assist in opening the Snowfruit Unit for a total of one (1) day on or around the Opening Date at Franchisor's cost, provided however, that Franchisee will be responsible for reimbursing it for any and all costs incurred as a result of Franchisee's failure to meet with Franchisor on the date scheduled. If Franchisee requests more than one (1) day of assistance, Franchisee will pay the per diem onsite assistance fee of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) per trainer per day, including all costs of travel, meals, lodging and incidental expenses of Franchisor's personnel.

5.5 Operating and Ongoing Assistance. In addition to the Operating Manuals, Franchisor will furnish such other guidance and operating assistance to Franchisee as Franchisor considers appropriate in its sole discretion. This guidance and operating assistance may come in the form of bulletins or other written materials, telephonic consultations, and consultations at the offices of Franchisor or at Snowfruit Unit (the latter may be provided in conjunction with an inspection of Snowfruit Unit). Franchisor's operating assistance may consist of guidance with respect to (i) methods and operating procedures utilized under the System, (ii) preparation, purchasing of ingredients, and marketing of fresh-cut fruit and vegetables and related products as well as other approved products, materials, and supplies, and (iii) the establishment and maintenance of administrative, sales, and general operating procedures for the proper operation of a Snowfruit Unit.

5.6 Management Assistance. If requested by Franchisee prior to the Opening Date, or if Franchisor determines in its sole discretion that Franchisee requires assistance, Franchisor may provide on-site operating assistance. Franchisee will pay all travel, meals, lodging and incidental expenses of Franchisor's personnel, plus a per diem management assistance fee of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per representative per day, including travel time for each additional day of management assistance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee will be solely responsible for operating the Snowfruit Unit and will all times operate the Snowfruit Unit in compliance with this Agreement, and Franchisor will have no obligation to operate Franchisee's Snowfruit Unit.

5.7 Licenses. Franchisor may as necessary assist Franchisee with obtaining the governmental approvals, licenses, permits and other permissions required in connection with operating the Snowfruit Unit, provided however, that Franchisee will be solely responsible for complying with all appropriate local, state and federal laws, codes and regulations and obtaining all necessary approvals, licenses, and permits.

6. Franchisee Obligations.

6.1 Timely Opening. As an express condition of this Agreement, Franchisee will complete and open for business the Snowfruit Unit in full compliance with this Agreement within two (2) months from the Effective Date or the date requested by Store Owner, whichever is earlier. Failure to open the Snowfruit Unit before such date will constitute a default by Franchisee under this Agreement, and Franchisor will have the rights specified in this Agreement, including those under Section 3.14. Franchisee may not open the Snowfruit Unit for business without completing all obligations required prior to opening and without Franchisor's prior written approval, which will not be unreasonably withheld.

6.2 Management of Snowfruit Unit. Franchisee's Acting Principal agrees to serve as the manager of the Snowfruit Unit, or to appoint and authorize another duly qualified individual to serve as manager. Appointment of any other individual as manager will be subject to such individual's satisfactory completion of any training requirements imposed by Franchisor. In the event the Snowfruit Unit is operated by an authorized manager, Franchisee will still be required to be personally and actively involved in operations and remain fully responsible for the Snowfruit Unit. In addition, Franchisee or any other manager must pass or have passed any governmental certification exams required by Franchisor or by law, to qualify for appointment as manager of Franchisee's Snowfruit Unit. The manager will assume full responsibility for the day to day operations of the Snowfruit Unit and for compliance with the terms of this Agreement. Upon the death, disability or termination of employment of the manager, Franchisee or its principal will personally and actively participate in the direct day to day operation of Snowfruit Unit until a duly qualified successor manager is appointed. Any successor manager must complete Franchisor's initial training program to Franchisor's satisfaction and must pass or have passed all certification exams required.

6.3 Training. Prior to the Opening Date, Franchisee (or its principal) and its proposed manager personnel, if any, will have attended the initial training required by Franchisor for the full number of scheduled days and successfully completed it to Franchisor's satisfaction. In addition, any employees who will prepare or handle food items must attend and successfully complete our training program. Franchisee will be required to pay the initial training fee for attendance at all training, as set forth in the Initial Training Agreement. Any new proposed manager of the Snowfruit Unit will also be required to attend and complete the Initial Training Program to Franchisor's satisfaction for a training fee of $500 per person. If during any training program Franchisor determines that any proposed manager is not qualified to manage the Snowfruit Unit, Franchisor will notify Franchisee and Franchisee may select and enroll a substitute manager in the training program. All training fees for any program will be nonrefundable. Franchisee and each of its employees will also be required to complete all training on food preparation and handling in accordance with the standards required by law. Franchisee and any managers or employees will also attend and complete all other refresher, remedial, and supplemental training or other training programs as may be required by Franchisor or Store Owner from time to time, or as required by applicable law. All training will be furnished at a place and time designated by Franchisor, and Franchisee will be responsible for all travel, meals, lodging, employee compensation, and all other expenses incurred in connection with attendance at any training meetings by Franchisee and its employees, whether before or after the Opening Date.

6.4 Compliance With System. Franchisee will comply fully with all standards of the System, as modified by Franchisor from time to time, including but not limited to, the standards in Franchisor's Operating Manuals. Franchisee will use the products and equipment specified by Franchisor for the operation of Franchisee's Snowfruit Unit as set forth herein and in the Operating Manuals. Without limiting the scope of Franchisee's duties, Franchisee will use only the vinegar (in order to maintain uniform taste for the products sold under the System) and the product labels that are provided by Franchisor or its affiliates. Franchisee understands and agrees that strict and punctual performance of all obligations set forth in this Agreement, the Operating Manuals or otherwise communicated to Franchisee in writing is a material condition of the franchise granted to Franchisee. Franchisee will not deviate from any aspect of the System without Franchisor's prior written consent. If Franchisor modifies the System, for example, by adopting new or modified Snowfruit Marks, Franchisee agrees, at its own expense, to adopt, use and display each such modification as if it were part of the System. Without limiting the scope of Franchisee's duties, Franchisee's failure to abide by Franchisor's standards of quality and performance will not only constitute a breach of this Agreement, but infringement of the Snowfruit Marks.

6.5 Changes to System. Franchisee understands that Franchisor may from time to time change the products, ingredients, preparation process, menu items, and other required features of the System. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that these changes may require Franchisee to make capital expenditures in amounts that Franchisor cannot forecast, that Franchisor has no ability to identify with specificity the nature of these future changes or their expected cost, and that Franchisee accepts the risk that changes may be imposed that will require expenditures in amounts unknown on the Effective Date. Franchisee agrees to adopt all material changes that Franchisor may impose during the term in the specifications for mandatory features of the System at Franchisee's sole expense promptly after receiving written notice.

6.6 Compliance with Store Owner Rules, Procedures and Food Safety Requirements. Franchisee agrees at all times to comply with all rules, procedures and food safety requirements of Store Owner. Store Owner may conduct, or engage third parties to conduct, food safety or other types of audits and inspections at any time, and without notice. Franchisee will promptly remedy any deficiencies or non-compliance discovered by such audit or inspection. Franchisee will be responsible in the event that Franchisor's right to franchise the System at the Location is terminated due to any action by Franchisee.

6.7 Use of Approved Products and Suppliers Only. In order to maintain consistency and quality, as well as to protect the goodwill and reputation inherent in the System and the Snowfruit Marks, Franchisee will only purchase, use, sell and/or distribute supplies, equipment, food ingredients, paper products, items bearing the Snowfruit Marks, and all other products and services Franchisor deems necessary to operate the Snowfruit Unit, from suppliers designated and authorized by Franchisor in its sole discretion. Franchisor will provide a list of these designated and authorized suppliers to Franchisee. These products and services may be amended or supplemented by Franchisor from time to time in its sole discretion. Franchisor will not be obligated to reveal the specifications, formulas, recipes or supply arrangements of the required products, which information Franchisee understands and agrees constitutes Confidential Information. Franchisee understands and agrees that Franchisor's approval of a third party supplier does not constitute a representation or warranty of the supplier's ability to meet Franchisee's purchasing requirements nor of the fitness or merchantability of the products sold. Franchisee understands and agrees that Franchisor will not be liable to Franchisee for delays or shortages in the supply of required products or for any defect in the products purchased, and that Franchisee's sole remedy in any of the foregoing events will be against the manufacturer or supplier of the required products. Franchisee will not have the right to offer any new products or products not authorized by Franchisor.

6.8 Alternate Suppliers. If Franchisee desires to purchase any items from any source other than a Franchisor authorized supplier, Franchisor will evaluate and test such sources with reasonable promptness and approve or disapprove such sources based on Franchisor evaluations and tests, and upon the following conditions:

- (1) Franchisee will submit a written request to Franchisor for approval of the supplier or product;
- (2) The supplier will demonstrate to Franchisor reasonable satisfaction that the proposed supplier and products meet Franchisor specifications for such products;

(3) The supplier will demonstrate to Franchisor's reasonable satisfaction that the supplier is of good standing in the business community with respect to its financial capabilities and the reliability of its products and services, and that it otherwise satisfies Franchisor's standards of quality, consistency, reliability, financial capability, production capacity, labor relations and customer relations, and

(4) Franchisee will pay Franchisor a fee of $1,000, per item plus all expenses incurred by Franchisor for investigating the new supplier or product, including all laboratory testing costs.

The proposed supplier must continue to meet and maintain Franchisor standards, including, of quality, consistency, reliability, financial capability, and production capacity. In the event the supplier no longer meets those standards, Franchisor will have the right to terminate the supplier and its authorization upon seven (7) days' notice. Nothing contained herein will be deemed to require Franchisor to investigate or approve an inordinate number of suppliers or products which in the reasonable judgment of Franchisor would prevent effective and economical supervision of suppliers under the System.

6.9 Quality Standards. Franchisor may require Franchisee to discontinue the use or sale of any product or item which, in Franchisor's opinion, does not conform to the image or quality standards of Franchisor and its products. If Franchisor determines that any goods, products or items do not meet Franchisor's specifications for quality and freshness, it may require Franchisee to dispose of those items without selling them to the public. In the event Franchisee violates any of the provisions this Agreement and the Operating Manuals by purchasing supplies or food products from an unauthorized supplier, then in addition to all other remedies available to Franchisor, Franchisor may impose a penalty pursuant to Section 3.10.

If we require, Franchisee must lease or purchase computer hardware and software according to Franchisor's specifications to exchange data with Franchisor and to print pricing labels. If such computer hardware and software is required by Franchisor, Franchisee will also pay any support, maintenance and use fees charged by Franchisor. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor does not make any warranty with respect to such equipment, including but not limited to any warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. Any claims Franchisee may assert with respect to any defect in design or manufacture of any equipment of fixtures will be brought directly against the manufacturer thereof.

Any issues related to the equipment, fixtures or property not caused by Franchisee will be repaired by Store Owner. Franchisee understands and agrees that its failure to maintain the Snowfruit Unit in accordance with Franchisor's standards will constitute a breach of this Agreement. Without waiving its right to terminate this Agreement for such reason, Franchisor may notify Franchisee in writing specifying the action to be taken by Franchisee to correct the deficiency.

(m) Cash Registers. All sales and all revenue will be recorded on Store Owner's cash registers and equipment only.

Franchisee is solely responsible for the acts and omissions of its employees and agents. Franchisee will furnish Franchisor basic information regarding Franchisee's personnel, solely for the purpose of Franchisor's compliance with the Store Owner's request for such information.

6.12 Trade Accounts. Franchisee agrees to maintain all trade accounts with its suppliers in good standing and current status and will resolve any disputes with trade suppliers promptly. In the event of nonpayment by Franchisee, Franchisor will have the right, but not the obligation, to make payment to Franchisee's suppliers on Franchisee's behalf. In such cases, Franchisor will have the right to apply any Gross Sales sums received from Store Owner toward any past due payment obligations of Franchisee for which Franchisor has made payment, as set forth in Section 3.6.

Franchisee will also require its employees and specified personnel, to undergo drug, tuberculosis and other chemical and disease testing and/or criminal background investigation as may be required by Franchisor. The foregoing obligations are subject to the condition that the request is lawful in the jurisdiction where the Franchisee is located. Franchisee shall pay all costs of the testing and investigation, complete all forms and consents, and take all other action needed.

6.18 Warranty Disclaimer. Franchisor expressly disclaims any warranties, express or implied, in connection with items provided by vendors or suppliers, including but not limited to the warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY STATED HEREIN, THERE ARE NO WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, BY OPERATION OF LAW OR OTHERWISE, PERTAINING TO FRANCHISOR PRODUCTS OR OTHER ITEMS SUPPLIED BY FRANCHISOR OR ITS AFFILIATES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. 7.1 Recordkeeping. Franchisee agrees to use the system of reporting and record keeping as may be required by Franchisor in accordance with the Operating Manuals and any applicable laws and governmental regulations. Franchisee will maintain and preserve true, correct and accurate books and records, including supporting materials, for the Snowfruit Unit for at least the current fiscal year and the three (3) most recent prior fiscal years. Franchisee must fully cooperate with representatives of Franchisor and independent accountants hired by Franchisor to conduct any examination or audit. In the event that an audit of Franchisee’s books discloses an underpayment of amounts due, and the amount of such underpayment is equal to or more than one percent (1%) of the amounts owed, Franchisee must pay, in addition to the amount of underpayment and all other applicable costs, the costs incurred by Franchisor in connection with the audit, which amount will in no event be less than $500.

8. Other Covenants.

8.1 Inspections. In addition to Franchisor's audit rights described in this Agreement, Franchisee expressly authorizes Franchisor and its representatives or agents, at any reasonable time, and without prior notice to Franchisee, to enter the Location and conduct regular inspections of the Snowfruit Unit and Franchisee's methods of operation, including without limitation, use of mystery shoppers, to observe and conduct discussions with Franchisee's employees, observe customer interaction and services, and review Franchisee's books and records (including, without limitation, data stored on Franchisee's operational records) in order to verify compliance with this Agreement and the Operating Manuals. Franchisee shall obtain all software and hardware, including digital still and video cameras, as Franchisor may require to enable Franchisee to send and receive e-mail and digital photos and streaming video or other multimedia signals and information to and from the Snowfruit Unit, and Franchisee shall, from time to time, upon Franchisor's request transmit digital photos and real time video and audio signals of the Snowfruit Unit to Franchisor in the frequency requested by Franchisor (maybe daily), and in the form and manner reasonably required by Franchisor. To enable Franchisor and its representatives to conduct inspections, Franchisee will, as requested, provide free of charge reasonable quantities of ingredients, foods, beverages, inventory, and other samples for inspection and evaluation purposes to make certain that the items conform with Franchisor's then-current standards. If Franchisor determines in its sole discretion that a laboratory test is required to test the quality, safety and freshness of the products sold at the Snowfruit Unit, Franchisor will have the right to assess a testing fee of up to $1,000 for each sample tested. Franchisee will cooperate fully with Franchisor's inspections and promptly cure all violations of specifications and operating procedures of which Franchisee is notified either orally or in writing.

8.2 Remedial Action. Franchisor reserves the right to initiate any remedial action it reasonably deems necessary to respond to any possible, threatened or actual governmental investigation (including the costs of attorneys, experts and investigators) involving the operation of the Snowfruit Unit, including issues such as food safety, food poisoning, or other issues related to public health and safety. Such actions may include temporarily closing the Snowfruit Unit, in addition to any other reasonable action necessary to prevent damage to the System, the Snowfruit Marks, and Franchisor.

8.3 Modification. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that, as required by (i) business conditions, (ii) geographic area including areas designated for expansion of the System, and/or (ii) other business factors as may be reasonably determined by Franchisor in its sole discretion, Franchisor may waive or modify the terms of the franchise agreement to other prospective and/or current franchisees, the terms and conditions of which may differ from those set forth in this Agreement. Franchisee further understands and agrees that Franchisor has made no representations regarding the uniformity of its franchise agreements or arrangements.

9. Confidential Information.

9.1 Defined. "Confidential Information" means all information of a non-public, confidential and proprietary nature relating to the Franchisor's business and operations, including, without limitation, recipes, products and services, food preparation methods, techniques, formats, specifications, procedures, information, systems, processes, know-how, teaching materials, sales techniques, financial data, product plans, costs, prices, business or marketing plans, Franchisor's business relationships, supplier lists, financial data, trade secrets, product plans, historical operational data, manufacturing processes, technical data, equipment, projects, research and development data, customer identities, and any other information or materials considered proprietary by the Franchisor, in any form or medium and regardless of the presence or absence of any stamp or other designation of confidentiality accompanying such information.

9.2 Disclosure of Confidential Information. Franchisor discloses the Confidential Information to Franchisee during the training program, in the Operating Manuals, and in guidance furnished to Franchisee during the term of this Agreement.

9.3 Ownership. Franchisee will not acquire any interest in the Confidential Information, other than the right to utilize such information in the development and operation of the Snowfruit Unit during the term of this Agreement. The use or duplication of the Confidential Information in any other business would constitute an unfair method of competition. Franchisee acknowledges that the Confidential Information is the sole and exclusive property of Franchisor, a valuable proprietary asset of Franchisor, and constitutes trade secrets of Franchisor. Franchisee agrees that he or she has a duty to maintain the Confidential Information as confidential and secret. Franchisee further acknowledges that disclosure of any Confidential Information is made in the strictest of confidence.

9.4 Nondisclosure and Obligation of Confidentiality. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee may use the Confidential Information for the sole purpose of operating the Snowfruit Unit pursuant to this Franchise Agreement. Franchisee covenants that Franchisee (a) will not use the Confidential Information in any other business or capacity, (b) will maintain the absolute confidentiality of the Confidential Information during and after the term of this Agreement, (c) will not make unauthorized copies of any portion of the Confidential Information disclosed in written form, and (d) will adopt and implement all reasonable procedures prescribed by Franchisor to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information, including restrictions on disclosure to employees of the Snowfruit Unit and the use of nondisclosure clauses in employment agreements with those persons, as allowed by law. As part of its obligations herein, Franchisee will require each of its officers and employees with management responsibilities, including managers, to execute an employee confidentiality agreement, in substantially the form attached as Exhibit C. Franchisee agrees it will be responsible for any breach by its employees of the obligations set forth herein.

9.5 Conflict. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor would have difficulty protecting its Confidential Information and trade secrets against unauthorized use or disclosure and would be unable to encourage a free exchange of ideas and information among Snowfruit Units if the franchisees of Snowfruit Units were permitted to hold interests in other companies specializing in the sale of fresh-cut fruit and vegetables or related products in supermarkets or similar venues. Therefore, during the term of this Agreement, neither Franchisee, any owner of an interest in Franchisee, nor any member of the immediate families of Franchisee's principals will have any interest as an owner, investor, partner, director, officer, employee, consultant, representative, or agent, or in any other capacity, in any other fresh-cut fruit and vegetable units which sell fresh-cut fruit and vegetables or related products, except for other Snowfruit Units operated under franchise or other agreements granted by Franchisor or its affiliates. These restrictions will not apply, however, to the ownership of securities listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over the counter market that represent 1% or less of the same class of securities.

9.6 Enforcement. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that disclosure or misappropriation of Confidential Information in violation of this Agreement may cause Franchisor irreparable harm, the effect of which may be difficult to ascertain, and agrees therefore that Franchisor will be entitled to an injunction and/or specific performance in addition to all other remedies otherwise available to Franchisor at law and/or equity. If it becomes necessary to enforce the terms of this Agreement, Franchisee will be obligated to pay any and all costs reasonably incurred by Franchisor in pursuing such enforcement, including attorneys' fees, court costs, collection costs and any and all costs incurred.

9.7 Exceptions. The commitments set forth in this Section 9 will not extend to any portion of Confidential Information which: (i) is already in the Franchisee's lawful possession at the time of disclosure by Franchisor, as established by relevant documentary evidence, provided Franchisee gives Franchisor written notice and evidence of such prior knowledge within five (5) working days after receiving Confidential Information; (ii) is or later becomes, through no act on the part of the Franchisee, generally available to the public; or (iii) is required to be disclosed by law or government regulation, provided that the Recipient provides reasonable prior notice of such required disclosure to Franchisor.

10. System and Snowfruit Marks.

10.1 Snowfruit Marks. Franchisor owns or has the right to use and license the System and all of the commercial trade names, trademarks, service marks and other commercial symbols, including associated logos, which trademarks, service marks and/or trade names in connection with the operation of the System which Franchisor now or in the future authorizes or requires Franchisee to use, as Franchisor may modify in its sole discretion at any time (the "Snowfruit Marks"). Franchisee understands and agrees that, as between the parties, Franchisor owns all rights in System and its various components, including the Snowfruit Marks, and Franchisee owns no rights in the System and the Snowfruit Marks, except for the license granted by this Agreement. Franchisee will acquire no ownership interest in or to any of the System or Snowfruit Marks by virtue of this Agreement. Franchisee agrees not to contest, or assist any other person to contest, the validity of Franchisor's rights and interest in the System, or any component thereof, either during the term or after this Agreement terminates or expires. Nothing in this Agreement will be deemed to constitute or result in an assignment of any of the Snowfruit Marks to Franchisee or the creation of any equitable or other interests therein.

10.2 Use of the Snowfruit Marks by Franchisee. Franchisor hereby grants to Franchisee a non-exclusive right and license to use the Snowfruit Marks solely in connection with operation of the Snowfruit Unit as specified in this Agreement. Franchisee will use the Snowfruit Marks only in the form and manner prescribed from time to time by Franchisor. Franchisee acknowledges that at certain locations, a contractual restriction or a Store Owner may prohibit the use of Snowfruit Marks, and Franchisee will be required to do business under a different name or a general description of the products, as may be required by Franchisor.

10.3 Restrictions on Use. The right and license to use the Snowfruit Marks will not be assignable or transferable by, or subject to any encumbrance of, Franchisee in any manner whatsoever, nor will Franchisee have the right to grant any sublicenses without Franchisor's prior written consent. All rights with respect to the Snowfruit Marks and all other trademarks, service marks and trade names used by Franchisor not specifically granted to Franchisee in this Agreement will be and hereby are reserved to Franchisor. Franchisee will not use any of the Snowfruit Marks or any part thereof (i) in its corporate or fictitious business name, (ii) with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs, colors or symbols, (iii) in any modified form, (iv) in connection with the sale of any products or services not authorized by Franchisor, (v) in any manner not expressly authorized in writing by Franchisor, or (v) in any manner that may result in Franchisor's liability for Franchisee's debts or obligations.

10.4 Modification. Franchisor reserves the right to (i) modify or discontinue licensing any of System or features thereof, (ii) add new names, marks, designs, logos or commercial symbols to the Snowfruit Marks and require that Franchisee use them, (iii) modify or discontinue practices, components or requirements incorporated within the scope of System as of the Effective Date, and (iv) require that Franchisee introduce or observe new products or practices as part of System in operating the Snowfruit Unit. Franchisee understands that Franchisor may modify the System at any time and without notice to Franchisee. Franchisee will comply, at its sole expense, with Franchisor's directions regarding changes in the System within a reasonable time after written notice from Franchisor. Franchisor will have no liability to Franchisee for any cost, expense, loss or damage that Franchisee incurs in complying with Franchisor's directions and conforming to required changes to the System.

10.5 Registration. Franchisor will have the sole right to take such action as it deems appropriate to obtain trademark registration for any of the Snowfruit Marks. Franchisee will perform all reasonable and necessary acts and execute all necessary documents to effect the registration of the Snowfruit Marks as Franchisor may request. Franchisee will not obtain or attempt to obtain any right, title or interest, registration, or otherwise, in or to the Snowfruit Marks, or any of them. In the event that any such right, title or interest should be obtained by Franchisee in contravention hereof, Franchisee will hold the same in trust on behalf of Franchisor and will transfer the same to Franchisor upon request and without expense to Franchisor.

10.6 Infringement Information. Franchisee will notify Franchisor promptly of any unauthorized use of the Snowfruit Marks or of any mark confusingly similar thereto that comes to its attention. Franchisor will have the sole right to determine whether or not any action will be taken against any such infringement, and Franchisee will not institute any suit or take any action on account of any such infringement or imitation without first obtaining the written consent of Franchisor to do so. Franchisee will provide Franchisor with all reasonable assistance in any prosecution of any such infringement that Franchisor may decide to institute. With respect to any such action, including suits in which Franchisee is joined as plaintiff, Franchisor will have the sole right to employ counsel and to direct the handling of the action and litigation and any settlement thereof, and Franchisee will not share in any of the proceeds of judgment or settlement resulting from any such action.

10.7 Termination of Use. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, Franchisee will cease using the Snowfruit Marks in any manner. Franchisee understands and agrees that any unauthorized use of the Snowfruit Marks or System or its components by Franchisee will constitute both a breach of this Agreement and an infringement of Franchisor's intellectual property rights.

11. Transfer.

11.1 Transfer by Franchisor. Franchisor may freely transfer or assign this Agreement and its rights and obligations hereunder, in whole or in part, to any third party in its sole discretion and without Franchisee's consent.

11.2 Transfer by Franchisee. Franchisee understands, acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement is personal to Franchisee and its owners, is being entered into by Franchisor in reliance upon and in consideration of the character, skill, aptitude, attitude, experience, business ability, financial capacity, qualifications and representations of Franchisee and its owners. Accordingly, Franchisee may not voluntarily or involuntarily, directly or indirectly, sell, assign, transfer, gift, share, encumber or dispose of, by operation of law or otherwise (each, a "Transfer"), this Agreement, the Snowfruit Unit, or any interest therein, or any of Franchisee's rights or obligations hereunder, without Franchisor's prior written consent, which will be contingent upon Franchisee's compliance with the provisions of this Section. Any Transfer without Franchisor's prior written consent constitutes a breach of this Agreement and will be null and void and of no effect, and will constitute a material default of this Agreement. For the purposes of this Section, a Transfer will be deemed to occur, without limitation, (i) if Franchisee is a corporation, upon any merger, sale or transfer of ten percent (10%) or more of any one class of capital stock, or any series of mergers, sales or transfers totaling in the aggregate ten percent (10%) or more of any one class of capital stock, in Franchisee, (ii) upon any merger, sale or transfer of ten percent (10%) or more of any ownership interest, or any change of control, or (iii) a sale of all or substantially all of Franchisee's assets. Franchisor's consent to a Transfer, if any, is not a representation of the fairness of the terms of any contract between Franchisee and a transferee, a guarantee of the Snowfruit Unit's or transferee's prospects for success, or a waiver of any claims that Franchisor or its affiliates may have against Franchisee or any guarantor.

11.3 Notice of Transfer. If Franchisee intends to make a Transfer, Franchisee will provide notice with (i) the proposed date of the Transfer, (ii) all terms and conditions of the Transfer, (iii) a current income statement and balance sheet concerning Franchisee's operations, as Franchisor requests, and (iv) all relevant information concerning the proposed transferee as Franchisor requests. Within sixty (60) days of the receipt of such information as set forth in subsections (i) through (iv) above, Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, (a) consent in writing to the proposed Transfer subject to the conditions of this Section 11, (b) disapprove the proposed Transfer, (c) request additional information concerning the proposed Transfer, or (d) become the transferee on terms and conditions comparable to those provided for the proposed Transfer. In the event Franchisor requests additional information, the sixty (60) day time period provided by this Section will be extended for a period of twenty (20) days after receipt of a full and complete response to the request for such additional information.

11.4 Conditions for Consent to Transfer. Any consent to the Transfer which Franchisor grants pursuant to Section 11.3 above is expressly contingent upon Franchisee's satisfaction of the following conditions:

(a) Franchisee has fully complied with this Agreement and all other agreements between the parties throughout the term with respect to the Snowfruit Unit, and Franchisee continues to comply after the Transfer with the indemnity, insurance and noncompetition provisions of this Agreement;

(b) Franchisee has paid all amounts owed by Franchisee to Franchisor or its affiliates with respect to the Snowfruit Unit, and is in good standing and current status with all trade accounts with its suppliers;

(c) Franchisee must submit all required reports, financial statements and other documents due to Franchisor up to and including the date of the Transfer, and permit Franchisor to conduct an audit (at Franchisee's expense) of Franchisee's books, records and all other documents related to the operation of the Snowfruit Unit;

(d) transferee must submit a completed franchise application to Franchisor, and meet Franchisor's then-current qualifications for new franchisees, including qualifications pertaining to financial condition, credit rating, experience, moral character and reputation;

(e) transferee and transferee's manager must attend and complete to Franchisor's satisfaction the then current Initial Training Program in order to comply with all standards of the System, at Franchisee's sole cost and expense. If it is determined by Franchisor that the transferee requires additional training, then the transferee and his/her manager must complete all training programs Franchisor reasonably requires, including payment of a reasonable fee to cover the costs of providing such training;

(f) the transferee must obtain within time limits as Franchisor may establish, and maintain thereafter, all permits and licenses required for the operation of the Snowfruit Unit;

(g) Franchisee and/or the transferee must obtain all required consents of third parties to the Transfer, including Store Owner;

(h) the transferee must assume all of Franchisee's duties and obligations under this Agreement and all other agreements between Franchisor and Franchisee with respect to the Snowfruit Unit (such assumption will not, however, relieve Franchisee of its obligations to Franchisor under this Agreement and all other agreements between Franchisor and Franchisee with respect to the Snowfruit Unit);

(i) if Franchisee makes a Transfer prior to the sixth (6th) month of operation Snowfruit Unit, Franchisee as transferor must pay Franchisor a non-refundable transfer fee equal to Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00). Franchisee must pay Franchisor a non-refundable deposit of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) upon requesting Franchisor's consent to the proposed transfer. This deposit is not refundable under any circumstances, even if the transfer is not completed. If Franchisee owns and transfers more than one franchise simultaneously as part of the same transaction and Transfer to the same transferee, Franchisee understands that it is liable for a separate transfer fee for each of the separate franchises being transferred in the same transaction;

(j) if Franchisee makes a Transfer in the sixth (6th) month of operation of its Snowfruit Unit or thereafter, Franchisee as transferor must pay Franchisor a non-refundable transfer fee of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), plus any out-of-pocket costs incurred by Franchisor (such as attorney's fees) ("Transfer Fee"). Franchisee must pay Franchisor a non-refundable deposit of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) upon requesting Franchisor's consent to the proposed transfer ("Transfer Deposit"), which Transfer Deposit shall be applied to the Transfer Fee. The Transfer Fee is not refundable under any circumstances, even if the transfer is not completed. If Franchisee owns and transfers more than one franchise simultaneously as part of the same transaction and Transfer to the same transferee, Franchisee understands that it is liable for a separate transfer fee for each of the separate franchises being transferred in the same transaction;

(k) Franchisee must execute a general release in a form substantially the same as Exhibit D with respect to all potential claims arising out of this Agreement;

(l) the transferee may not enter into any financing arrangements whereby Franchisee and/or a third party obtains a security interest in the transferee's assets;

(m) the Transfer must comply with all laws and regulations that apply to the Transfer, including without limitation federal and state laws and regulations governing the offer and sale of franchises;

(n) Franchisee's right to receive the sales proceeds from the transferee will be subordinate to the transferee's and Franchisee's duties owed to Franchisor under, or pursuant to, this Agreement or any other agreement. All contracts by and between Franchisee and the transferee will expressly include a subordination provision permitting payment of the sales proceeds to Franchisee only after any outstanding obligations owed to Franchisor and its affiliates are fully satisfied;

(o) at Franchisor's option, the transferee signs: (1) Franchisor's then-current form of franchise agreement, the terms of which may differ materially from this Agreement, provided however, that the term of the new franchise agreement will be equal to the remaining term under this Agreement and the Extension Term if the time to exercise such option has not expired when Franchisee requests consent to complete the Transfer, or (2) Franchisor's then-current form of franchise agreement for a full term and pays Franchisor's then-current initial franchise fee; and

(p) the transferee must execute all other documents and agreements required by Franchisor to consummate the transfer of this Agreement. Each person who at the time of the transfer, or later, owns or acquires, either legally or beneficially, 5% or more of the equity or voting interests of the transferee must execute Franchisor's then-current form of guaranty.

12. Termination.

12.1 Termination By Franchisor With Notice of Default. Except as provided in Section 12.2 below, if Franchisee breaches any term of this Agreement or any other material agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor or its affiliate, or any rule, specification, standard, policy or procedure established by Franchisor in the Operating Manuals or otherwise, then Franchisor will have the right to terminate this Agreement upon fifteen (15) days' notice of default. During such fifteen (15) day notice period, Franchisee will have an opportunity to cure such breach. If Franchisee has not cured such breach within the fifteen (15) day notice period to Franchisor's reasonable satisfaction, Franchisor will have the right to terminate this Agreement and all other agreements between Franchisor and Franchisee.

12.2 Immediate Termination By Franchisor. Franchisor may terminate this Agreement, and all other agreements between Franchisor and Franchisee, in its sole discretion and election, effective immediately upon Franchisor's delivery of written notice of termination to Franchisee based upon the occurrence of any of the following events which will be specified in Franchisor's written notice, and Franchisee will have no opportunity to cure a termination based on any of the following events:

(a) Franchisee fails to begin operating the Snowfruit Unit within two (2) months of the Effective Date or the date requested by Store Owner, taking into account delays due to events beyond Franchisee's reasonable control;

(b) Franchisee has misrepresented, misstated or failed to state any material fact to Franchisor in connection with obtaining this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee or in any communication to Franchisor under this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee, whether or not such misrepresentation, misstatement or failure to state is intentional;

(c) Franchisee fails or refuses to pay, on or before the date payment is due, any fees or other amounts payable to Franchisor, its affiliates, and the default continues for a period of 5 days after written notice of default is given by Franchisor to Franchisee;

(d) Franchisee breaches its obligation pursuant this Agreement and under the Operating Manuals to use only products and suppliers approved by Franchisor;

(e) Franchisee breaches any of its confidentiality, indemnity, insurance or noncompetition obligations under this Agreement;

(f) Franchisee fails or refuses to submit any report or financial statement, or return the JFE Operating Manual or SOP Manual as requested, on or before the date due, and should the default continue for a period of 5 days after written notice of default is given by Franchisor to Franchisee;

(g) Franchisee or its principals fails to complete successfully any additional training required to Franchisor's satisfaction;

(h) Franchisee abandons or fails or refuse to actively operate the Snowfruit Unit for three (3) consecutive days, or any period such that Franchisor may reasonably conclude that Franchisee does not intend to continue operating it, unless Franchisee obtains Franchisor's written consent to close the Snowfruit Unit for a specified period of time;

(i) Franchisee loses the right to possession of the Location, or Franchisee's right to use the Location is terminated by Store Owner, for any reason;

(j) Any person who is required by this Agreement to personally guaranty Franchisee's obligations to Franchisee fails or refuses to execute and deliver Franchisor's form of guaranty for a period of 5 days after written notice of default is given by Franchisor to Franchisee;

(k) Franchisee commits an event of default under any other agreement by and between Franchisee and Franchisor pertaining to the Snowfruit Unit and franchise awarded by this Agreement which, by its terms, cannot be cured or which Franchisee fails to cure within the allowed time period. Except as otherwise specified herein, Franchisee's breach of one agreement/addendum with Franchisor shall, at Franchisor's election also constitute a breach of every other agreement/addendum between Franchisee and Franchisor. Franchisor's election to enforce or not enforce this provision will not constitute a waiver of any of Franchisor's rights or remedies against Franchisee hereunder;

(l) Franchisee violates any health, safety or sanitation law, ordinance or regulation, or any rules, procedures or food safety requirements of the Store Owners, and does not begin to cure such noncompliance or violation immediately, or does not correct such noncompliance or violation within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving written notice thereof;

(m) Franchisee becomes insolvent and/or files for bankruptcy or similar protection, and such insolvency or bankruptcy or similar condition remains in effect for more than sixty (60) days;

(n) Franchisee makes any general arrangement or assignment for the benefit of creditors or becomes a debtor as that term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 1101 or any successor statute, unless, in the case where a petition is filed against Franchisee, Franchisee obtains an order dismissing the proceeding within 30 days after the petition is filed, or should a trustee or receiver be appointed to take possession of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Snowfruit Unit, unless possession of the assets is restored to Franchisee within 30 days following the appointment, or should all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Snowfruit Unit or the franchise rights be subject to an order of attachment, execution or other judicial seizure, unless the order or seizure is discharged within 30 days following issuance;

(o) Franchisee, or any officer, director, shareholder, member, manager, agent or employee of Franchisee, is convicted of or pleads no contest to a felony charge or engages in any conduct or practice that, in Franchisor's reasonable opinion, reflects unfavorably upon or is detrimental or harmful to: (i) the Franchisor's relationship with the Store Owner (including the use of any of Store Owner's products without payment), or (ii) the Franchisor's good name, goodwill or reputation of Franchisor;

(p) Franchisee fail to comply with the conditions governing the transfer of rights under this Agreement in connection with a Transfer;

(q) An order is made or resolution passed for the winding-up or the liquidation of Franchisee or should Franchisee adopt or take any action for its dissolution or liquidation;

(r) Franchisee have received from Franchisor, during any consecutive 2 year period, two (2) or more notices of default whether or not the notices relate to the same or to different defaults and whether or not each default is timely cured by Franchisee;

(s) Franchisee make any unauthorized use, publication, duplication or disclosure of any Confidential Information or any portion of the Operating Manuals, or should any person required by this Agreement to execute a confidentiality agreement with Franchisor or Franchisee breach the confidentiality agreement;

(t) Franchisee materially misuses or makes an unauthorized use of any of the components of System or commit any other act which does, or can reasonably be expected to, materially impair the business, reputation or goodwill associated with any aspect of the System or the Snowfruit Marks;

(u) Franchisee makes or attempts to make any payments or provide anything of value directly or indirectly to any employee or agent of Franchisor or its affiliates to obtain undue or improper benefits or advantages in violation of Franchisor's policies or any applicable laws;

(v) Franchisee fails to comply with any violation of federal, state or local law, within 10 days after being notified of non-compliance; and

(w) Franchisor makes a reasonable determination that Franchisee's continued operation of the Snowfruit Unit will result in imminent danger to public health or safety.

(x) Upon the death or disability of one of Franchisee's owners, Franchisee fails to transfer the interest in Franchisee in accordance with Section 14.5.

Franchisor's right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section will be in addition to all other remedies that Franchisor may have against Franchisee under this Agreement, or otherwise.

12.3 Early Termination By Franchisee. Subject to Section 3.14, Franchisee will have the right to terminate this Agreement at any time for any reason upon 90 days prior written notice to Franchisor, or such earlier date as may be agreed by Franchisor and Franchisee.

12.4 Effects of Termination. Upon termination or expiration of the franchise, Franchisee's right and privilege to use the Snowfruit Marks, Franchisor's trade secrets, all components of the System and the Operating Manuals will absolutely and unconditionally cease. Upon termination or expiration of the franchise, Franchisee will immediately (i) cease operations of the Snowfruit Unit, (ii) discontinue use of the Snowfruit Marks, Franchisor's trade secrets, the System, and the Operating Manuals, (iii) return the Operating Manuals and delete electronic copies of the Operating Manuals, if any, (iv) pay to Franchisor all amounts owed pursuant to this Agreement and any other agreements between Franchisor and Franchisee, and (v) vacate the Location and provide all necessary assistance and cooperation with Franchisor in the orderly wind down of Franchisee's operations. The termination or expiration of this Agreement will result in the concurrent, and automatic, termination of all agreements between the parties pertaining to the Snowfruit Unit or the franchise granted by this Agreement and will also permit Franchisor to enforce any guaranty of Franchisee's obligations given to Franchisor as required by this Agreement. Notwithstanding the termination or expiration of this Agreement, the parties agree that any other franchise agreements then in effect between the parties concerning other Snowfruit Units owned by Franchisee will remain in full force and effect, unless the grounds which Franchisor has relied upon to terminate this Agreement also constitute grounds for terminating the other franchise agreements and Franchisor has satisfied all requirements to terminate the other franchise agreements. All agreements and obligations of Franchisee, which by their nature would continue beyond the termination or expiration of this Agreement will survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

13. Indemnity and Insurance.

13.1 Indemnity. Franchisee will be fully responsible for any damage, loss or other claims arising out of this Agreement, the performance of Franchisee's obligations hereunder, or the operation of the Snowfruit Unit. Franchisee will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Franchisor, its affiliates, and each of their partners, shareholders, directors, officers, employees, consultants, attorneys, accountants and agents, from and against any and all fines, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, actions, losses, damages (actual, consequential or otherwise), fees (including attorneys' fees and related expenses) arising out of, or in connection with Franchisee's ownership or operation of the Snowfruit Unit, the performance of Franchisee's obligations hereunder, or breach of this Agreement. Franchisor will have the right to defend and/or settle any claim against or involving Franchisor in such manner as Franchisor deem appropriate or desirable in its sole discretion, in each case without affecting Franchisor's right to indemnification under this Section. The indemnity under this Section will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement. The indemnities and assumptions of liabilities and obligations in this Agreement will continue in full force and effect after the expiration or termination of this Agreement until all applicable statutes of limitations have expired.

13.2 Insurance.

(a) Franchisor will provide commercial general liability insurance for the Snowfruit Unit under Franchisor's group insurance policy and deduct Franchisee's portion of the premium costs on a weekly basis, which amount is calculated on the amount of sales at the Franchisee's Snowfruit Unit.

(b) Franchisee will at all times during the term of this Agreement maintain in force, at its sole expense, on a primary, rather than on a participatory basis with Franchisor, Worker's compensation, employer's liability, and other insurance to meet statutory requirements, naming Franchisor as an additional insured.

(c) All insurance policies must be issued by an insurance carrier or insurance carriers acceptable to Franchisor and must name Franchisor as an additional insured, must contain a waiver of the insurance company's right of subrogation against Franchisor, and must provide that Franchisor will receive 30 days' prior written notice of termination, expiration, or cancellation of the policy. Franchisor may reasonably increase the minimum liability protection requirement annually and require at any time on reasonable prior notice to Franchisee different or additional kinds of insurance to reflect inflation, changes in standards of liability, or higher damage awards in public, product, or motor vehicle liability litigation or other relevant changes in circumstances. Franchisee will submit to Franchisor upon request a copy of the certificate of or other evidence of the renewal or extension of each insurance policy. Franchisee's obligations to obtain and maintain the insurance described are not limited in any way by reason of any insurance maintained by Franchisor, nor does Franchisee's performance of obligations relieve Franchisee of any indemnification obligations under Section 13.1 of this Agreement.

14. Use of Entity.

14.1 Ownership of Franchisee. Franchisee must be a corporation, limited liability company, or other entity. Franchisee will not use any of the Snowfruit Marks or any part thereof in its entity or fictitious business name. The articles of incorporation, by-laws and other organizational documents of any entity that is Franchisee must recite that the issuance of any interest is restricted by the terms of this Agreement and all issued and outstanding stock certificates or similar evidences of ownership must bear a legend reflecting or referring to the restrictions. Franchisee must furnish to Franchisor at any time upon request a certified copy of its organizational documents and a list of all owners of record and all persons having beneficial ownership in Franchisee, reflecting their respective interests in Franchisee, in a form attached as Exhibit A-1 or as Franchisor requires.

14.2 Principals and Guaranty. For purposes of this Agreement, "principals" will mean, if Franchisee is a business entity, any officer or manager of the entity or any person that owns, or later, owns or acquires, either legally or beneficially a ten percent (10%) or greater equity or voting interest in Franchisee (such as stock in a corporate franchisee, or a membership interest in an LLC franchisee). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, each principal owner will be individually bound by all of the obligations in this Agreement, including payment obligations and covenants concerning confidentiality and noncompetition, and will personally guarantee Franchisee's performance under this Agreement by signing Franchisor's then-current form of guaranty, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B. No principal owner may, within the term specified in this Agreement, hold an ownership interest in or perform services in any capacity for any other service food business that serves fresh-cut fruit and vegetables or related products. In the event a principal's relationship with a Franchisee entity is terminated (by sale or otherwise), this Agreement shall be deemed to have been terminated with respect to that principal.

14.3 Acting Principal; Full-Time Manager. Franchisee shall designate one owner of the entity having majority interest who will be the Acting Principal ("Acting Principal"). The Acting Principal must successfully complete Franchisor's initial training program. Franchisee shall give Franchisor immediate notice of any change in the Acting Principal and must arrange for the new Acting Principal to attend Franchisor's initial training program. The Acting Principal may also be the full-time manager providing the direct full-time on-site supervision of the operation of the franchised business. The franchised business must at all times be under the direct, day-to-day, full-time supervision of Franchisee's Acting Principal or a full-time manager that has completed Franchisor's initial training program to Franchisor's satisfaction. Even if Franchisee designates a full-time manager, Franchisee's Acting Principal must personally and actively participate in the direct operation of the franchised business.

14.4 Assignment to New Entity. In the event of a transfer among existing shareholders, partners or members of Franchisee, Franchisor reserves the right to waive conditions or requirements contained in Section 11.4 in its sole discretion and to require principals of the transferee to execute a Guaranty as required by Section 14.2.

14.5 Death or Disability of Franchisee. Upon the death or permanent disability of any of Franchisee's owners, the executor or other personal representative of such person must transfer such person's interest within a reasonable time, not to exceed six (6) months from the date of death or permanent disability, to a person approved by Franchisor. Such transfers, including, without limitation, transfers by devise or inheritance, will be subject to all the terms and conditions for assignments and transfers contained in Sections 11.2, 11.3, and 11.4. Failure to transfer such interest within the required period of time will constitute grounds for termination under Section 12.2. Prior to such transfer, the executor or other personal representative of such person, or the remaining owners, must appoint a replacement Acting Principal or a full-time manager within a reasonable time, not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of death or permanent disability. The appointment of this manager is subject to Franchisor's prior written approval. If the franchised business is not being managed by an Acting Principal or full-time manager approved by Franchisor following the death or permanent disability, Franchisor is authorized, but Franchisor is not required, to immediately appoint a manager to maintain the operations of the franchised business. Franchisor's appointment of a manager for the franchised business will not relieve Franchisee of its obligations under this Agreement, and Franchisor will not be liable for any debts, losses, costs or expenses incurred in the operation of Franchisee's franchised business or to any of Franchisee's creditors for any products, materials, supplies or services purchased by Franchisee's franchised business during any period in which it is managed by the manager appointed by Franchisor. Franchisor has the right to charge a non-refundable fee for such management services of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per representative per day and to cease providing such management services at any time.

15. Covenant Against Competition.

(a) In consideration of Franchisor's providing operations and management training to Franchisee and disclosing to Franchisee the System and other trade secrets, Franchisee and its principals covenant and agree that, during the term of the franchise and for two (2) years after its expiration or termination, Franchisee and its principals will not own or operate, directly or indirectly, or accept employment by, hold an interest in, or perform services in any capacity for any service food business that serves fresh-cut fruit and vegetables or related products, except as a franchisee of Franchisor.

(b) During the term of the franchise, this covenant not to compete will apply anywhere in the United States; for the two-year period after the franchise expires or is terminated, the covenant will apply within 5 miles of the Snowfruit Unit and within 5 miles of each other Franchisor-owned or franchised Snowfruit Unit then operating or under development. For purposes of calculating the duration of the two-year period, any time during which Franchisee or its principals are in violation or breach of the covenant will be excluded.

(c) Franchisee and its principals acknowledge that their covenant not to compete is reasonable and necessary to protect the business and goodwill of the System and to avoid misappropriation or other unauthorized use of the System and Franchisor's other trade secrets. Franchisee and its principals acknowledge and confirm that they possess the education, training and experience necessary to earn a reasonable livelihood apart from operating a business that serves fresh-cut fruit and vegetables as its principal product.

16. Miscellaneous.

16.1 Incorporation of Recitals. The Recitals set forth in the first page of this Agreement are incorporated herein by this reference as though set forth herein.

16.2 Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications that may be given or are required to be given under this Agreement will be in writing and in the English language. All communications required or permitted to be given to either party hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed duly given if properly addressed on the earlier of: (i) the date when delivered by hand, (ii) the date when delivered by fax or e-mail if confirmation of transmission is received or can be established by the sender, (iii) one business day after delivery to a reputable national overnight delivery service, or (iv) 5 days after being placed in the U.S. Mail and sent by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested. Notices will be directed to the address shown first above, or to such other address as each party hereto may from time to time designate by written notice to the other party as provided herein.

16.3 No Agency Relationship. Franchisor and Franchisee understand and agree that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between Franchisor and Franchisee, that Franchisor and Franchisee are and will be independent contractors throughout the term of this Agreement, and that nothing in this Agreement is intended to make either Franchisor or Franchisee a general or special agent, joint venturer, partner, or employee of the other for any purpose. It is acknowledged and understood that Franchisee is the independent owner of Franchisee's business, will be in full control thereof and will conduct Franchisee's business in accordance with its own judgment and discretion, subject only to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Franchisee shall conspicuously identify itself in all dealings with customers, suppliers, public officials and others as the owner of the Snowfruit Unit under a Franchise granted from Franchisor, and shall place such notices of independent ownership on such forms, business cards, stationery, advertising and other materials as Franchisor may require from time to time. Neither Franchisor nor Franchisee will be liable for the debts or obligations of the other unless expressly assumed in writing. Neither Franchisor nor Franchisee will make any express or implied agreements, warranties, guarantees or representations, or incur any debt in the name of or on behalf of the other, represent that their respective relationship is other than franchisor and franchisee, or be obligated by or have any liability under agreements or representations made by the other that are not expressly assumed in writing. Franchisee will not attempt to obligate Franchisor for purchases or other obligations incurred by Franchisee. Any and all agreements made by Franchisee will be executed in Franchisee's name alone, and will not purport to be executed by or on behalf of Franchisor. Franchisor will not be liable for any damages to any person or property directly or indirectly arising out of Franchisee's operation of the Snowfruit Unit or Franchisee's conduct of business pursuant to this Agreement.

16.4 Waiver. Any waiver granted by Franchisor to Franchisee excusing or reducing any obligation or restriction imposed under this Agreement will be in writing and will be effective upon delivery of such writing by Franchisor to Franchisee or upon such other effective date as specified in the writing, and only to the extent specifically allowed in such writing. No waiver granted by Franchisor, and no action taken by Franchisor, with respect to any third party will limit Franchisor's sole discretion to take action of any kind, or not to take action, with respect to Franchisee. Any waiver granted by Franchisor to Franchisee will be without prejudice to any other rights Franchisor may have. The rights and remedies granted to Franchisor are cumulative, and no delay on the part of Franchisor in the exercise of any right or remedy will operate as a waiver thereof, and no single or partial exercise by Franchisor of any right or remedy will preclude Franchisor from fully exercising such right or remedy or any other right or remedy Franchisor's acceptance of any payments made by Franchisee after a breach of this Agreement will not be, nor be construed as, a waiver by Franchisor of any breach by Franchisee of any term, covenant or condition of this Agreement.

16.5 Consents and Approvals. Whenever Franchisor's consent or approval is required under this Agreement, it may be granted or withheld in Franchisor's sole discretion. In no event will Franchisor be required to pay any claim, whether directly, by way of set-off, counterclaim, defense or otherwise, for money damages or otherwise by reason of any withholding or delaying of consent or approval by Franchisor. Franchisee's sole remedy for any such claim is to submit it to mediation or arbitration as provided in this Agreement.

16.6 Severability. The provisions of this Agreement are intended to be interpreted and construed in a manner so as to make such provisions valid, binding and enforceable. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is determined to be partially or wholly invalid, illegal or unenforceable, then such provision will be deemed to be modified or restricted to the extent necessary to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, or, if such provision cannot be modified or restricted in a manner so as to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, then such provision will be deemed to be excised from this Agreement and the validity, binding effect and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement will not be affected or impaired in any manner.

16.7 Entire Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement and all exhibits to this Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede any and all prior negotiations, understandings, representations, and agreements. Nothing in this or in any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations Franchisor made in the franchise disclosure document that Franchisor furnished to Franchisee.

16.8 Binding Authority. Each of the undersigned represents that he or she is duly authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of the respective Party and bind said Party to the terms of this Agreement.

16.9 Successors. The covenants, agreements, terms and conditions contained in this Agreement will be binding upon, and will inure to the benefit of, the successors, assigns, heirs and personal representatives of the parties hereto

16.10 Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence in the performance for the performance of each covenant and condition contained in this Agreement.

16.11 Force Majeure. In the event that either party is delayed or hindered in the performance of any obligation hereunder by reason of any cause beyond that party's reasonable control, then performance of such obligation will be excused for the period of the delay and the period for performance of any such obligation will be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay; provided, however, that any such extension will not exceed ninety (90) calendar days. The provisions of this Section will not operate to excuse either party from the prompt payment of any amounts due and owing to the other party pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

16.12 Governing Law; Dispute Resolution.

(a) Except as otherwise stipulated in subsections (c) and (d), or unless expressly prohibited by the franchising statutes of the state in which the Snowfruit Unit is located, this Agreement will for all purposes be governed by and interpreted and enforced in accordance with the internal laws of the state of Texas, without giving effect to principles of conflicts or choice of law. Any Texas law regulating the sale of franchises or business opportunities or governing the relationship of a franchisor and its franchisee will not apply unless its jurisdictional requirements are met independently without reference to this Section.

(b) The parties agree to use their best efforts to resolve and settle by direct, private negotiation any dispute that arises under or in relation to this Agreement or that concerns the relationship created by this Agreement. If the parties cannot resolve and settle a dispute by private negotiation within 30 days after one party gives the other written notice that a dispute exists, the parties mutually agree to submit the dispute to non-binding mediation.

(c) If the parties cannot fully resolve and settle a dispute through mediation within 30 days after the mediation conference concludes, all unresolved issues involved in the dispute will be submitted to binding arbitration, as follows: Arbitration will be instituted in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") in Harris County, Texas, before a single arbitrator. In no event will the demand for arbitration be made after the date that institution of legal or equitable proceedings based upon such claim, dispute or other matter would be barred by the applicable statute of limitations. AAA will provide the parties with a list of at least three (3) neutral arbitrators from which the parties will select the arbitrator. Should the parties fail to agree upon and select an arbitrator therefrom, AAA will make the selection from said list. Each party shall, however, be given the right of one (1) preemptory challenge. Arbitration will be held and conducted before the one (1) selected arbitrator, whose decision will be final and binding on the parties. Any such arbitration proceeding will be completed expeditiously and without undue delay or expense, and the arbitrator will be directed to follow the terms of this Agreement in any arbitration proceeding. The costs and fees of the arbitrator will be borne equally by the parties. The losing party, as determined by the arbitrator, will pay the prevailing party's reasonable attorneys' fees. The arbitrator's award will be final and binding on all parties, and neither party will have any right to contest or appeal the arbitrator's award except on the grounds expressly provided by law.

(d) Notwithstanding subsections (b) and (c), Franchisor will not be obligated to mediate or arbitrate any claim arising from Franchisee's alleged infringement of the Snowfruit Marks or other alleged misappropriation of Franchisor's intellectual property, including, but not limited to, in enforcing its intellectual property rights upon the expiration (without renewal) or termination of the franchise. The parties agree that any action based on infringement of any of the Snowfruit Marks or misappropriation of Franchisor's other intellectual property, will be governed by and interpreted and enforced in accordance with the United States Trademark (Lanham) Act, and will be litigated in any federal District Court sitting in Harris County, Texas. The parties further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of and venue in any such federal District Court and that service of process by certified mail, return receipt requested, will be sufficient to confer in personam jurisdiction over them in connection with any intellectual property litigation.

16.13 Attorney's Fees. In the event of any arbitration, lawsuit, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties hereto arising out of the obligations of Franchisor or Franchisee under this Agreement or concerning the meaning or interpretation of any provision contained herein, the losing Party will pay the prevailing Party's costs and expenses of such arbitration or suit, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees.

16.14 Headings; Language. The paragraph and subparagraph headings contained in this Agreement are solely for convenience and will not be used to define or construe any of the terms or provisions hereof. The language used in this Agreement will in all cases be construed simply according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against Franchisor, Franchisee or the drafter of the applicable language. Common nouns and pronouns will be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine, neuter, singular and plural, as the context may require. The singular will include the plural and the masculine gender will include the feminine and neuter, and vice versa, as the context may require.

16.15 Survival of Certain Rights/Obligations. The respective rights and obligations of Franchisor and Franchisee, which by their nature would continue beyond the termination or expiration of this Agreement will survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

16.16 Covenant and Condition. Each provision of this Agreement performable by Franchisee will be construed to be both a covenant and a condition.

16.17 Submission of Agreement. The submission of this Agreement to Franchisee does not constitute an offer to Franchisee, and this Agreement will become effective only upon execution by Franchisor and Franchisee.

16.18 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which taken together will constitute one and the same agreement. A party's signature to this Agreement transmitted by facsimile or electronic mail will have the same legal force and effect as the original. Each of the undersigned represents and warrants that he is duly authorized by the contracting party to sign this Agreement on behalf of said party.

16.19 Franchisor's Right to Vary Terms and Standards. Because complete and detailed uniformity under many varying conditions might not be possible or practical, Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor specifically reserves the right and privilege, as Franchisor considers to be best, to vary terms and standards for any franchise owner based upon the peculiarities of any condition that Franchisor considers important to that franchise owner's successful operation. Franchisee has no right to require Franchisor to grant Franchisee a similar variation or accommodation.

16.20 Limitation of Claims. Any and all claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the relationship among the parties hereto shall be barred unless an action or legal or arbitration proceeding is commenced within one (1) year from the date Franchisee or Franchisor knew of the facts giving rise to such claims. In addition, Franchisee must give Franchisor written notice of at least fourteen (14) days prior to filing arbitration or litigation. In the event Franchisee fails to give said notice, Franchisor is entitled to dismissal of the action, without prejudice, and Franchisee must reimburse Franchisor its costs and expenses incurred in connection with the action.

16.21 Limitation of Damages. The parties waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right or claim for any punitive or exemplary damages against the other and agree that if there is a dispute with the other, each will be limited to the recovery of actual damages sustained by it including reasonable accounting and legal fees as provided in Paragraph 16.13 herein.

16.22 No Waiver or Disclaimer of Reliance in Certain States. The following provision applies only to franchisees and franchises that are subject to state franchise registration/disclosure laws in California, Hawaii, Illinois, Indian, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, or Wisconsin:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound hereby, have duly executed and delivered this Agreement as of the date first stated above.

EXHIBIT B to Franchise Agreement GUARANTY

In consideration for, and as an inducement for JFE Franchising, Inc. ("Company") to enter into the Franchise Agreement dated _____ (the "Agreement") (capitalized terms not defined herein will have the respective meanings as set forth in the Agreement) with _____ ("Franchisee"), and all other written agreements between Company and Franchisee relating to the Snowfruit Unit and franchise granted under the Agreement (with the Agreement, collectively, the "Documents"), and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt, sufficiency and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the undersigned (whether one or more, herein called "Guarantor"), each an owner of 5% or more of the outstanding equity interests in Franchisee under the Agreement to which this Guaranty is annexed, agree as follows:

1. Guarantor, jointly and severally, unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guarantees and promises to perform, discharge and pay to Company, its representatives, successors and assigns or any transferee of this Guaranty, on demand, in lawful money of the United States of America and in immediately available funds, any and all obligations (the "Guaranteed Obligations") of Franchisee to Company under the Documents. Guarantor agrees to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every provision in the Agreement (including any amendments or modifications), both monetary obligations and obligations to take or refrain from taking specific actions or to engage or refrain from engaging in specific activities, including the noncompetition, confidentiality, transfer, and arbitration requirements. Guarantor agrees that this Guaranty constitutes a guaranty of payment when due and not of collection, and is not conditional or contingent upon the genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of any underlying agreements or related documents or other instruments relating to the obligations hereby guaranteed or the pursuit by Company of any remedies which it may now have or may hereafter have with respect thereto.

2. This Guaranty is a continuing guaranty of the Guaranteed Obligations, including any and all Guaranteed Obligations which are renewed, extended, compromised, refinanced or restructured from time to time. This Guaranty will remain effective until the Guaranteed Obligations have been fully paid, performed and discharged, and Company has given written notice of that fact to Guarantor.

3. Each Guarantor represents that he or she owns an equity or beneficial interest in Franchisee and that he or she is receiving consideration from the Guaranteed Obligations that is a material, direct benefit to such Guarantor. Each Guarantor consents and agrees that: (1) his, her or its direct and immediate liability under this Guaranty will be joint and several, both with Franchisee and among other guarantors.

4. Guarantor agrees that it is directly and primarily liable to Company, that their obligations hereunder are independent of the Guaranteed Obligations and that a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against Guarantor, whether action is brought against Franchisee or whether Franchisee is joined in any such action or actions. Guarantor agrees that any releases which may be given by Company to Franchisee or any other guarantor or endorser will not release Guarantor from this Guaranty.

5. In addition to the payment of expenses, Guarantor agrees to indemnify, defend, exonerate, pay and hold Company and the partners, officers, directors, employees, agents and attorneys of Company, and officers, directors, employees, agents and attorneys of Company's affiliates (the "Indemnitees") harmless from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, causes of action, judgments, suits, claims, costs, expenses and disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever (including without limitation, the fees and disbursements of counsel to Company and expert witness fees and disbursements) for such Indemnitees in connection with any investigative, administrative or judicial proceeding, whether or not such Indemnitee will be designated a party thereto, that may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against any such Indemnitee, in any manner relating to or arising out of or in connection with this Guaranty (the "Indemnified Liabilities"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Indemnified Liabilities will not include liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, causes of action, judgments, suits, claims, costs, expenses and disbursements to the extent caused by or resulting from the willful misconduct or gross negligence of any Indemnitee.

6. Guarantor hereby authorizes Company, without notice or demand and without affecting the liability of Guarantor hereunder, from time to time to:

(a) Renew, compromise, extend, refinance, accept partial payments, accelerate or restructure the Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise change the time for payment or the terms of any of the Guaranteed Obligations,

(b) Waive, amend, rescind or modify any of the terms or provisions of the Documents;

(c) Settle, release, compromise, collect or otherwise liquidate the Guaranteed Obligations, or any part thereof, and any security or collateral therefor in any manner as Company may determine in its sole discretion,

(d) Take and hold collateral to secure the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and exchange, enforce, waive and release any such collateral, and apply such collateral and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as Company in its sole discretion may determine,

(e) Release or substitute any one or more endorser(s) or other guarantor(s); and

(f) Assign, without notice, this Guaranty in whole or in part and Company's rights hereunder to any one at any time.

Guarantor agrees that Company may take any or all of the actions set forth in this Section 5 in such manner, upon such terms, and at such times as Company, in its sole discretion, deems advisable, without, in any way or respect, impairing, affecting, reducing or releasing Guarantor from its undertakings hereunder and Guarantor hereby consents to each and all of the foregoing acts, events and occurrences.

7. Guarantor hereby waives any right to assert against Company as a defense, counterclaim, setoff or crossclaim, any defense (legal or equitable), counterclaim, setoff or crossclaim which Guarantor may now or at any time hereafter have under applicable law, rule, arrangement or relationship against Franchisee, Company or any other party Guarantor waives all defenses, counterclaims and setoffs of any kind or nature arising, directly or indirectly, from the present or future lack of perfection, sufficiency, validity or enforceability of the Documents or any security interest thereunder

8. Guarantor hereby waives any defense arising by reason of any claim or defense based upon an election of remedies by Company, which in any manner impairs, affects, reduces, releases, destroys or extinguishes Guarantor's subrogation rights, rights to proceed against Franchisee for reimbursement, or any other rights of Guarantor to proceed against any other person or security, including, but not limited to, any defense based upon an election of remedies by Company.

9. Guarantor waives all presentments, demands for performance, notices of nonperformance, protests, notices of protests, notices of dishonor, notices of default, notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, diligence, and notices of the existence, creation or incurrence of the Guaranteed Obligations or of new or additional Guaranteed Obligations incurred or created after the date of this Guaranty, and all other notices or formalities to which Guarantor may be entitled under applicable law.

10. As a condition to payment or performance by Guarantor under this Guaranty, Company will not be required to, and Guarantor hereby waives any and all rights to require Company to, prosecute, seek to enforce, or exhaust any remedies against Franchisee or any other party liable to Company on account of the Guaranteed Obligations or to require Company to seek to enforce or resort to any remedies with respect to any security interests, liens or encumbrances granted to Franchisee by Company or any other party on account of the Guaranteed Obligations.

11. Guarantor will have no right of subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration, contribution or any other rights that would result in Guarantor being deemed a creditor of Franchisee under the federal Bankruptcy Code or any other law.

12. WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. EACH OF COMPANY AND GUARANTOR HEREBY KNOWINGLY, INTENTIONALLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING OF ANY KIND OR NATURE IN ANY COURT IN WHICH AN ACTION MAY BE COMMENCED BY OR AGAINST GUARANTOR OR COMPANY ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE GUARANTEED OBLIGATIONS OR BY REASON OF ANY OTHER CAUSE OR DISPUTE WHATSOEVER BETWEEN COMPANY AND GUARANTOR OF ANY KIND OR NATURE. EACH SUCH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT SUCH WAIVER IS MADE WITH FULL KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING OF THE NATURE OF THE RIGHTS AND BENEFITS WAIVED HEREBY, AND WITH THE BENEFIT OF ADVICE OF COUNSEL OF ITS CHOOSING. EACH PARTY MAY WANT TO CONSULT WITH THEIR RESPECTIVE ATTORNEYS BEFORE WAIVING THEIR RIGHTS UNDER THIS SECTION.

13. Any and all present and future debts and obligations of Franchisee to Guarantor are hereby postponed in favor of and subordinated to the full payment and performance of all present and future debts and obligations of Franchisee to Company. Any instruments now or hereafter evidencing any indebtedness of Franchisee to Guarantor will be delivered to Company. Upon the liquidation, bankruptcy, or distribution of any of Franchisee's assets, Guarantor will assign to the Company all of Guarantor's claims on account of such indebtedness so that Company will receive all dividends and payments on such indebtedness until payment in full of the Guaranteed Obligations. This Section 12 will constitute such an assignment if Guarantor fails to execute and deliver such an assignment

14. Guarantor's obligations under this Guaranty will continue in full force and effect and this Guaranty will not terminate until the Guaranteed Obligations are fully paid, performed and discharged and Company gives Guarantor written notice of that fact The Guaranteed Obligations will not be considered fully paid, performed and discharged unless and until all payments by Franchisee to Company are no longer subject to any right on the part of any person whomsoever, including, but not limited to, Franchisee, Franchisee as debtor-in-possession, or any trustee or receiver in bankruptcy, to set aside such payments or seek to recoup the amount of such payments, or any part thereof.

15. If Franchisee is not liable on any of the Guaranteed Obligations because the act of their creation is ultra vires, or if the officers or persons incurring any of the Guaranteed Obligations acted in excess of their authority, and therefore the Guaranteed Obligations cannot be enforced against Franchisee, Guarantors will nevertheless be liable under this Guaranty. If any payment by Franchisee to Company is held to be a preference under the United States Bankruptcy Code, or if for any other reason Company is required to refund such payment or pay the amount thereof to any other person, such payment by Franchisee will not constitute a discharge of Guarantors from any liability under this Guaranty, and Guarantor agrees to pay such amount to Company upon demand.

16. If Franchisee's status should change through merger, consolidation or otherwise, this Guaranty will cover the Guaranteed Obligations of Franchisee under its new status, according to the terms of this Guaranty.

17. Each Guarantor agrees that this Guaranty is to be performed by Guarantor in Houston, Harris County, Texas, that this Guaranty will be deemed to be a contract made under the laws of Texas and that this Guaranty and the rights of the parties hereto will be governed by, interpreted in accordance with, and enforced under Texas law. In the event that Company should institute any suit against Guarantor for violation of or to enforce any of the covenants or conditions of this Guaranty or to enforce any right of Company hereunder, Guarantor agrees to pay reasonable attorney fees and all other costs and expenses incurred by Company in enforcing this Guaranty or in any action or proceeding arising out of, or relating to this Guaranty.

18. This Guaranty embodies the entire agreement and understanding between the parties pertaining to the subject matter of this Guaranty, and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations, representations and discussions, whether verbal or written, of the parties, pertaining to that subject matter.

19. Neither this Guaranty nor any rights under this Guaranty may be assigned by Guarantor without the prior written consent of Company. The provisions of this Guaranty will bind and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns

20. All notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder will be in writing to the other party at the address below, and will be personally delivered or sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested. 22. Any provision of this Guaranty which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof or of each other agreement entered into pursuant to this Guaranty or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

23. Guarantor hereby represents and warrants to Company that (a) Guarantor has the requisite power and authority to execute and deliver this Guaranty; (b) Guarantor's execution, delivery and performance of this Guaranty will not violate any law, rule, regulation or judgment applicable to or agreement binding upon Guarantor; and (c) this Guaranty constitutes Guarantor's legal, valid and binding obligation enforceable in accordance with its terms. EXHIBIT C to Franchise Agreement
Form of
EMPLOYEE CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

THIS EMPLOYEE CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into as of _____, by and between _____ ("Employee"), an individual residing at [Insert Address], and _____ ("Employer").

WHEREAS, Employer has been granted a franchise by JFE Franchising, Inc. ("Franchisor") and has the right to operate a Snowfruit Unit, and Employer is obligated to obtain a written agreement from its employees who may have access to Confidential Information;

WHEREAS, in the course of Employee's employment with Employer, Employee will be exposed to and have access to confidential/proprietary information owned by Franchisor;

WHEREAS, Employer and Employee desire to set forth and memorialize Employee's obligations with respect to the non-disclosure of any such confidential information and in the absence of this Agreement, Employee understands that Employer would not hire or continue employment of Employee, or disclose such confidential information to Employee.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration for the employment (and continued employment) of Employee by Employer, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Confidential Information. During the term of employment under this Agreement, Employee will have access to and become acquainted with various proprietary and confidential information of Franchisor. "Confidential Information" means all information of a non-public, confidential and proprietary nature relating to the Franchisor's business and operations, including, without limitation, recipes, products and services, food preparation methods, techniques, formats, specifications, procedures, information, systems, processes, know-how, teaching materials, sales techniques, financial data, product plans, costs, prices, business or marketing plans, Employer's and Franchisor's business relationships, supplier lists, financial data, trade secrets, product plans, historical operational data, manufacturing processes, technical data, equipment, projects, research and development data, customer identities, and any other information or materials considered proprietary by the Franchisor, in any form or medium and regardless of the presence or absence of any stamp or other designation of confidentiality accompanying such information.
2. Acknowledgment of Confidentiality. Employee acknowledges and agrees that during the term of employment, Employee will be exposed to, have access to, and become acquainted with such Confidential Information, whether inherently as a function of providing duties in the course of employment, incidentally, or otherwise. Prior to employment, Employee acknowledges that he or she had no experience or information regarding the operations of a Snowfruit Unit. Employee's knowledge of the Confidential Information was obtained solely through Employer during the course of employment. Employee understands and agrees that all Confidential Information disclosed or exposed to Employee, or which comes into Employee's possession, is the sole and exclusive property of Franchisor. Employee agrees that Employee has a duty to maintain the Confidential Information as confidential and secret during and after Employee's employment with Employer and during and after the term of employment with Employer. Employee further understands and acknowledges that if any Confidential Information becomes available to third parties, Employer and/or Franchisor will be adversely affected and suffer damages.
3. Nondisclosure and Obligation of Confidentiality. Employee may use Confidential Information for the sole purpose of performing Employee's duties in the course of employment or providing the services on behalf of Employer and will not utilize the Confidential Information beyond or outside such employment without first having obtained the written consent of Employer. Employee covenants that Employee (a) will not use the Confidential Information in any other business or capacity, (b) will maintain the absolute confidentiality of the Confidential Information during and after the term of this Agreement, and (c) will not make unauthorized copies of any portion of the Confidential Information disclosed in written form.

4. Effective Date. The parties agree that the provisions of this Agreement are effective as of the date Confidential Information is first disclosed to Employee. Employee represents and warrants that Employee has maintained the Confidential Information as provided for herein and has not otherwise violated the terms of this Agreement prior to its execution by Employee.

5. Intended Third Party Beneficiary. The parties acknowledge and agree that Employer's Franchisor, JFE Franchising Inc., is an intended third party beneficiary of this Agreement, and accordingly, that said JFE Franchising, Inc., as well as Employer, shall have the right to enforce the provisions of this Agreement against Employee. Neither this Confidentiality Agreement between Employer and Employee, nor this Paragraph 5, which makes Franchisor an intended third party beneficiary, constitutes control by Franchisor over the Employee's conditions of employment, or creates an employee or joint employee relationship between JFE Franchising, Inc. and Employee.

6. Breach. In the event Employee breaches the terms of this Agreement, Employee understands and agrees that Employee will be held personally liable for any damages, claims, and losses incurred by Employer as a result of any such breach by Employee, including Franchisor's reasonable costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees and costs incurred in such litigation, arbitration or proceeding. Employee understands and agrees that monetary damages would not be sufficient to compensate Employer or Franchisor for the damage it may incur as a result of a breach by Employee of this Agreement. Consequently, Employee agrees that Employer or Franchisor may enforce its rights by means of specific performance and injunctive relief (temporary, preliminary and permanent), and Employee agrees to pay the other party's costs of any such action, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

7. Return of Employer Materials. Upon termination of Employee's employment with Employer, Employee will not take or retain any physical property (e.g., documentation, printouts, computer files with or without data), both confidential and not confidential, which is owned by Franchisor, or which was made available or accessible to Employee as a consequence such employment.

8. General. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to conflict of law principles. The recitals set forth above shall be deemed incorporated in full into and as part of this Agreement by this reference. The terms of this Agreement and the confidentiality covenants herein shall survive termination of employment. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the maximum extent possible. This Agreement may not be modified, released, discharged or otherwise terminated in whole or in part except by a written instrument signed by an authorized official of Franchisor. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. A party's signature to this Agreement transmitted by facsimile or electronic mail shall have the same legal force and effect as the original.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have signed this Agreement as of the date first seen above.

INITIAL TRAINING AGREEMENT

THIS INITIAL TRAINING AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of _____ (the “Effective Date”) by and between JFE Franchising, Inc., a Texas corporation having its principal business address at 2021 Bingle Road, Houston, TX 77055 (“Franchisor”), and _____, whose address is _____ (“Trainee”).

RECITALS

A. Franchisor and/or our affiliates have developed distinctive business systems, operating formats, signs, methods, procedures, menu, recipes, trade dress, designs and marketing standards and formats, all of which Franchisor may improve, further develop or otherwise modify from time to time (collectively, the “System”) using the trademark “SNOWFRUIT” and other associated names, for the operation of fresh-cut fruit and vegetable units that are operated as departments within supermarkets, grocery stores, and other facilities (such as universities and corporate settings) (“Snowfruit Units”). For purposes of this Agreement, an “affiliate” of a person is anyone controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the specified person.

B. Franchisor has the right to grant franchises to third parties, who meet Franchisor’s qualifications, to operate Snowfruit Units using the System, and in connection therewith Franchisor offers an initial training program regarding Franchisor’s System, which must be completed to Franchisor’s satisfaction.

C. Trainee desires to receive the initial training required by Franchisor.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the matters recited above, the mutual promises herein contained and other good and valuable consideration, Franchisor and Trainee agree as follows:

1. Training.

1.1 Initial Training Program. Franchisor will provide the initial training program (the “Initial Training Program”) to Trainee, which must be completed by Trainee, any proposed manager of the Trainee, and any employee of Trainee who prepares or handles food items. Such persons will attend the Initial Training Program for the full number of scheduled hours and days as required by Franchisor. The Initial Training Program will be furnished at Franchisor’s headquarters or at another location place and time as may be designated by Franchisor. The Initial Training Program required for Trainee and any proposed managers or employees of Trainee will consist of 20 hours of training provided over a 1 week period. Trainee will exert, and cause any of its managers to exert, best efforts to complete the Initial Training Program to Franchisor’s satisfaction.

1.2 Fees. The 20-hour Initial Training Program required for Trainee and any proposed managers and employees of Trainee will cost $500 per person. All training fees must be paid upon execution of this Agreement, are fully earned when paid, and no portion of it is refundable under any circumstances. Trainee will be responsible for all travel, meals, lodging, employee compensation, and all other expenses incurred in connection with attendance at the Initial Training Program.

1.3 No Obligation to Grant Franchise; Disclaimers. The parties acknowledge that Trainee desires to become a franchisee of Franchisor, and that attending and completing the Initial Training Program to Franchisor’s satisfaction is a prerequisite requirement to becoming a franchisee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, neither the execution of this Agreement nor the completion of training will create any obligation on the part of Franchisor to grant Trainee a franchise, as Trainee must complete the training to Franchisor’s satisfaction. If, after the Initial Training Program, Franchisor determines in its sole discretion that Trainee has not completed the training to Franchisor’s satisfaction and is not qualified to manage the Snowfruit franchise, Franchisor may decline to grant a franchise to Trainee. Franchisor makes no warranty, guarantee or representation, either express or implied, with respect to any information disclosed during the Initial Training Program, or with regard to contents or results of the Initial Training Program. Franchisor is not responsible for any personal injury, damage, or loss to Trainee incurred during any training program, and Trainee agrees to indemnify and hold Franchisor harmless from any claims or actions arising out of the negligent acts, omissions, or willful misconduct of Trainee during the training program. Franchisor does not warrant that the training will meet Trainee's expectations, needs or requirements.

2. Confidential Information.

2.1 Nondisclosure. Franchisor possesses certain confidential information consisting of the System, including recipes, methods, techniques, formats, specifications, procedures, information, systems, and knowledge of and experience in the operation and licensing of Snowfruit Units stores, including but not limited to, the Franchisor's operating manual (the "Confidential Information"). Franchisor will disclose the Confidential Information to Trainee during the training program and in the operating manual. Trainee acknowledges that the Confidential Information is proprietary and is a trade secret of Franchisor. Trainee covenants that Trainee (a) will not use the Confidential Information in any capacity as set forth herein, (b) will maintain the absolute confidentiality of the Confidential Information during and after the term of this Agreement, (c) will not make unauthorized copies of any portion of the Confidential Information disclosed in written form, and (d) will adopt and implement all reasonable procedures prescribed by Franchisor to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information. Trainee acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement does not grant Trainee any right to use any of Franchisor's or its affiliates' marks, intellectual property rights, or the System, except for the sole purpose of attending and completing the Initial Training Program.

2.2 Operating Manual. During the Initial Training Program, Franchisor will loan to Trainee a copy of Franchisor's confidential operating manual, containing the specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed by Franchisor for the System. The operating manual ("Operating Manual") may consist of one or more handbooks or manuals and will include one set of Standard Operating Procedures ("SOP") and one Operating Manual for Snowfruit Franchise. Trainee will treat all information contained in the Operating Manual as confidential and will keep the information secret. Trainee may only use the Operating Manual for the sole purpose of attending and obtaining training pursuant to this Agreement. The Operating Manual and (and copies thereof) is, and will always remain, the sole property of Franchisor. Trainee will not make any copies of the Operating Manual and will return the Operating Manual upon completion of training.

2.3 Enforcement. Trainee acknowledges that Franchisor would have difficulty protecting its trade secrets against unauthorized use or disclosure and would be unable to provide training. Trainee acknowledges and agrees that disclosure or misappropriation of Confidential Information in violation of this Agreement may cause Franchisor irreparable harm, the effect of which may be difficult to ascertain, and agrees therefore that Franchisor will be entitled to injunctive relief and/or specific performance in addition to all other remedies otherwise available to Franchisor at law and/or equity. If it becomes necessary to enforce the terms of this Agreement, Trainee will be obligated to pay all costs reasonably incurred by Franchisor in pursuing such enforcement, including attorneys' fees, court costs, collection costs and any and all costs incurred.

3. General.

(a) Binding. The obligations contained in this Agreement are binding upon Trainee and Trainee's directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives.

(b) Choice of Law; Venue. This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of Texas, and the parties hereto agree that the venue of any action arising in regard to this Agreement will be Harris County, Texas, and the parties hereto agree to the jurisdiction and venue of the courts of said state and county to the exclusion of any other courts which otherwise may have had jurisdiction.

(c) Arbitration. Except as provided in Section 2.3 of this Agreement, if the parties cannot resolve and settle a dispute arising under or in relation to this Agreement by private negotiation within 30 days after one party gives the other written notice, the parties mutually agree to submit and resolve all issues involved in the dispute to binding arbitration. Arbitration will be instituted before the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") in Harris County, Texas, before a single arbitrator. In no event will the demand for arbitration be made after the date that institution of legal or equitable proceedings based upon such claim, dispute or other matter would be barred by the applicable statute of limitations. AAA will provide the parties with a list of at least three (3) neutral arbitrators from which the parties will select the arbitrator. Should the parties fail to agree upon and select an arbitrator therefrom, AAA will make the selection from said list. Each party shall, however, be given the right of one (1) peremptory challenge. Arbitration will be held and conducted before the one (1) selected arbitrator, whose decision will be final and binding on the parties. Any such arbitration proceeding will be completed expeditiously and without undue delay or expense, and the arbitrator will be directed to follow the terms of this Agreement in any arbitration proceeding. The costs and fees of the arbitrator will be borne equally by the parties. The losing party, as determined by the arbitrator, will pay the prevailing party's reasonable attorneys' fees. The arbitrator's award will be final and binding on all parties, and neither party will have any right to contest or appeal the arbitrator's award except on the grounds expressly provided by law.

(d) Waiver. The failure of any party in any one or more instances to insist upon strict performance of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement, or to exercise any option herein conferred, will not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment, to any extent, of the right to assert or rely upon any such terms, provisions or options on any future occasion.

(e) No Exclusive Remedy. No remedy or election hereunder will be deemed exclusive but will be cumulative with all other remedies available at law or in equity.

(f) Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is determined to be illegal, invalid or otherwise unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then to the extent necessary to make such provision or this Agreement legal, valid or otherwise enforceable, such term or provision will be limited, construed or severed and deleted from this Agreement, and the remaining portion of such term or provision and the remaining other terms and provisions hereof will survive, remain in full force and effect and continue to be binding, and will be interpreted to give effect to the intention of the parties hereto insofar as that is possible.

(g) Entire Agreement. This Agreement and all exhibits to this Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede any and all prior negotiations, understandings, representations, and agreements. Nothing in this or in any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document that we furnished to you. You acknowledge that you are entering into this Agreement as a result of your own independent investigation of our franchised business and not as a result of any representations about us made by our shareholders, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, independent contractors, or franchisees that are contrary to the terms set forth in this Agreement, or in any disclosure document, prospectus, or other similar document required or permitted to be given to you pursuant to applicable law.

(h) Assignment; Successors. None of the rights created under this Agreement may be assigned by Trainee without the prior written consent of Franchisor. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Franchisor, its successors and assigns, and Trainee and its successors and permitted assigns.

(i) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which taken together will constitute one and the same agreement. A party's signature to this Agreement transmitted by facsimile or electronic mail will have the same legal force and effect as the original. Each of the undersigned represents and warrants that he is duly authorized by the contracting party to sign this Agreement on behalf of said party.

(j) Force Majeure. In the event that either party is delayed or hindered in the performance of any obligation hereunder by reason of any cause beyond that party's reasonable control, then performance of such obligation will be excused for the period of the delay and the period for performance of any such obligation will be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay; provided, however, that any such extension will not exceed thirty (30) calendar days. The provisions of this Section will not operate to excuse either party from the prompt payment of any amounts due and owing to the other party pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

(k) Modification. Trainee acknowledges and agrees that, as required by business conditions, geographic area including expansion, and/or other business factors as may be reasonably determined by Franchisor in its sole discretion, Franchisor may waive or modify the terms of the initial training agreement to other trainees, the terms and conditions of which may differ from those set forth in this Agreement. Trainee further understands and agrees that Franchisor has made no representations regarding the uniformity of its training agreements or arrangements.

(l) FDD. Trainee acknowledges having had an opportunity to review Franchisor's Franchise Disclosure Document for at least 14 calendar days before signing any agreement with Franchisor or making any payment to Franchisor, to consult with an attorney and other professional advisors of Trainee's choice, and Trainee has made the decision whether to consult with such advisors. Trainee represents and warrants that no person acting on Franchisor's behalf has made any representations or promises to Trainee about actual or potential sales, earnings, gross profits or net profits of a Snowfruit Unit, and Trainee is not relying on any representations or promises in entering into this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have signed this Agreement as of the date first seen above.

7.8 Headings. The section headings in this Agreement herein are for convenience of reference only, do not constitute part of this Agreement, and shall not be deemed to limit or otherwise affect any of the provisions hereof.

7.9 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any applicable legal requirement in any particular respect or under any particular circumstances, then, so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party, (a) such term or provision shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect in all other respects and under all other circumstances, and (b) all other terms, conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall remain

Report of Independent Auditors

To the Management of JFE Franchising, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of JFE Franchising, Inc. (the “Company”), which comprise the balance sheets as of March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024, and the related statements of income, of stockholders’ equity and of cash flows for the year ended March 31, 2025, the period from November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024, and the year ended November 27, 2022, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the “financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year ended March 31, 2025, the period from November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024, and the year ended November 27, 2022 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors’ report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. Organization and Nature of Business

JFE Franchising, Inc. (the “Company”), incorporated in the state of Texas on August 21, 2013, is primarily engaged in franchise operations to authorize and manage franchises sold by the Company. The franchisees are granted the right to operate sushi bars and fruit fridges under the brand names “SNOWFOX”, “SUSHI BOX” or “SNOWFRUIT” as separate departments in supermarkets.

Until June 28, 2019, JFE Franchising, Inc. was owned by JimKim Holdings, Inc. On June 28, 2019, SnowFox US Holdco, Inc. (“SnowFox US Holdco”) acquired 100 percent of the issued and outstanding shares in JFE Franchising, Inc. from JimKim Holdings, Inc. (the “Acquisition”). Subsequent to this acquisition, JFE Franchising, Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of SnowFox US Holdco. JFE Franchising, Inc. elected not to apply pushdown accounting in its separate financial statements.

In June 2023 Zensho Holdings acquired the SnowFox US Holdco which owns JFE Franchising. SnowFox US Holdco subsequently changed its name to The Wonderfield Group. The Company has elected to not record purchase accounting on the standalone financial statements of JFE Franchising.

The Company primarily generates revenues from the sales of new franchise agreements and ongoing royalty fees earned under JFE franchise agreements. The Company develops and operates a nationwide system of restaurants which prepare, package and sell a menu of competitively priced food items. On occasion, the Company will open up a location and operate it until a franchisee is approved by the related supermarket. However, the Company’s ownership is temporary and only for a few months. The Company-owned stores at March 31, 2025 and 2024 consist of the following:

	Number of Company-owned Stores
	March 31,
	2025	2024
Stores at beginning of year	58	42
Stores opened	51	111
Stores opened by the Company and transferred to Franchisees	(25)	(86)
Stores operated by Franchisees and transferred to the Company	-	-
Stores closed	(4)	(9)
Stores at end of year	80	58

During the year ended March 31, 2025 and period from November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024 and year ended November 27, 2022, the revenue generated from the Company-owned stores was $4,573,175 and $2,468,095 and $137,847, which is included in other revenues in the accompanying statements of income, while the related costs were $5,758,136 and $2,508,540 and $124,785, which are included in cost of goods sold in the accompanying statements of income. As of March 31, 2025, the Company has 2,651 franchise locations in operation, which are located in the United States.

Sushi

The Company typically grants a franchisee the right to open one or more express sushi restaurants inside of grocery stores. Under the franchise agreement, a franchisee is required to pay a nonrefundable franchise fee, which could range from $1,000 to $100,000 depending on the factors such as store location and demographic data, store quality and amenities, in-store location, and type of sushi bar structure. Thereafter, the franchisee pays royalties between 5% to 20% of its gross sales to the Company for use of the “SNOWFOX” name, menus, processes, and procedures. Franchise agreements generally have an initial term of three years and a franchisee will have the right to extend the term of the agreement for another three years.

Fruit

The Company typically grants a franchisee the right to open one or more express fruit fridges inside of grocery stores. Under the franchise agreement, a franchisee is required to pay a nonrefundable franchise fee, which could range from $3,000 to $50,000 depending on the factors such as store location and demographic data, store quality and amenities, in-store location, and type of structure. Thereafter, the franchisee pays royalties between 5% to 20% of its gross sales to the Company for use of the “SNOWFRUIT” name, menus, processes, and procedures. Franchise agreements generally have an initial term of two years and a franchisee will have the right to extend the term of the agreement for another two years.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The Company’s financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAP). The Company believes this information includes all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring accruals, necessary to fairly present the financial condition as of March 31, 2025 and 2024.

In 2022, the Company used a 52–53-week fiscal year which ended on the last Sunday of November. Accordingly, the 2022 fiscal year ended on November 27, 2022 and included 52 weeks. Due to the acquisition by Zensho Holdings, there was a change in fiscal year to a March month end. Accordingly, the FY24 reporting period from November 28, 2022 through March 31, 2024 or 16 months.

Reclassification of Prior Period Presentation

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified for consistency with the current year presentation. The reclassifications were made to the statements of income between line items for operating costs and expenses. There were no changes to the presentation of revenue, total operating costs and expenses, income from operations or net income.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Significant items subject to such estimates and assumptions include the allowances for credit losses, the valuation of inventories, and the useful lives of property and equipment. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on deposit with banks and, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company considers highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents.

Short-term investment (time deposit)

Short-term investments consist of certificates of deposit with an original maturity greater than three months when purchased.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable at March 31, 2025 and 2024 primarily consist of the amounts due from franchisees for royalties. The amounts due are stated at their net estimated realizable value. Prior to April 1, 2024, the Company maintained an allowance for doubtful accounts to provide for the estimated amount of receivables that would not be collected. Allowance for doubtful accounts, if needed, was computed under the allowance method, based upon historical experience and management's estimates of uncollectible accounts. Beginning April 1, 2024, the Company adopted ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326) and assesses an allowance for expected credit losses to provide for the estimated amount of receivables that will not be collected. The allowance is based upon an assessment of customer creditworthiness, historical payment experience, the age of outstanding receivables, and reflects the possible impact of current conditions and reasonable forecasts not already reflected in historical loss information. Ongoing credit evaluations of customers' financial conditions are performed, and collateral is generally not required. The Company believes accounts receivable as of March 31, 2025 are fully collectible, and, therefore, no allowance for credit losses was required.

Due From Affiliates/Due to Affiliates

Amounts due from affiliates are any amounts funded to other subsidiaries of the parent entity (Note 3). The counterparties possess the intent and ability to repay these amounts to the Company.

Amounts due to affiliates represents amounts owed by the Company to its corporate office and affiliated entities. These amounts are primarily attributable to charges for services provided by the corporate office, which includes administrative support, strategic guidance, and other management services that facilitate the operations of the business (Note 3).

The Company will remit excess cash flows from operations to its parent entity or to other affiliates to finance ongoing cash flow requirements (dividends, debt repayments, capital projects, etc.).

JFE Franchising, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
Year Ended March 31, 2025, Period From November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024
and Year Ended November 27, 2022

When either the lack of intent or ability to repay exists between the Company's affiliates, the Company records these amounts as an equity receivable or payable, and any related cash flows are reflected within cash flows from financing activities.

Supplies Inventory

Supplies inventory is stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value, cost being determined using the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method. Appropriate consideration is given to obsolescence, slow moving items and other factors in evaluating net realizable value. The supplies inventory at March 31, 2025 and 2024 primarily consists of packaging materials and printers which are held to be sold to the franchisees.

The Company did not reserve for any inventory obsolescence during the periods ended March 31, 2025 or 2024, while it did recognize $480,319 as a reduction of inventory as of November 27, 2022, and a loss in earnings during the year ended November 27, 2022, due to the assessment of certain supplies inventory as slow-moving and obsolete.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Under ASC Topic No. 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, fair value is defined as the price at which an asset could be exchanged, or a liability transferred in a transaction between knowledgeable, willing parties in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability. Where available, fair value is based on observable market prices or parameters or derived from such prices or parameters. Where observable prices or parameters are not available, valuation models are applied.

Assets and liabilities recorded at fair value in the financial statements are categorized based upon the level of judgment associated with the inputs used to measure their fair value. Hierarchical levels directly related to the amount of subjectivity associated with the inputs to fair valuation of these assets and liabilities are as follows:

- Level 1 Observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets for identical assets at the reporting date. Active markets are those in which transactions for the asset or liability occur in sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis.
- Level 2 Observable inputs, other than quoted prices included in Level 1, that are either directly or indirectly observable for the asset or liability through correlation with market data at the reporting date and for the duration of the instrument's anticipated life.
- Level 3 Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities and which reflect management's best estimate of what market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability at the reporting date. Consideration is given to the risk inherent in the valuation technique and the risk inherent in the inputs to the model.

All the Company's financial instruments such as cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments (time deposit), accounts receivable, due from affiliates, and accounts payable are of short-term duration. Their carrying value, therefore, approximates their fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments.

Year Ended March 31, 2025, Period From November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024
and Year Ended November 27, 2022

Loan Receivable From Affiliates

Loan receivable agreements are without collateral, accrue interest according to the terms of the loan agreements, and are due on the specified maturity dates or sooner on demand. Although loans receivable reach maturity, the Company occasionally does not demand repayment. Refer to Note 3 for further detail.

Additionally, a loan receivable is considered to be impaired when, based upon current events, it is probable that the Company will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the existing contractual terms. If a loan receivable is considered to be impaired, the amount of loss is calculated by comparing the recorded investment to the value determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at its effective interest rate. No impairment charges were recorded for the year ended March 31, 2025, the period from November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024 and year ended November 27, 2022.

The Company announced a dividend of $28,000,000 to Snowfox US Holdco Inc. in the twelve month period ended November 27, 2022. The dividend was provided through forgiveness of previously issued loans receivable from affiliates. No dividends were provided through forgiveness of previously issued loans receivable for the year ended March 31, 2025 and for the 16 month period ended March 31, 2024.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation on property and equipment is computed over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, generally ranging from five to seven years, using the straight-line method. Leasehold improvements are amortized on the straight-line method over the shorter of the lease term or estimated useful life of the assets. Repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred. Expenditures that increase the value or productive capacity of assets are capitalized. When property and equipment are retired, sold, or otherwise disposed of, the asset's carrying amount and related accumulated depreciation and amortization are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss is recorded as a component of other income or expenses in the accompanying statement of income.

Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of the assets to the future net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less selling expenses. As of March 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company believes that no asset is impaired.

Payable to Franchisees

The Company collects revenue earned by the franchisee directly from the grocery store, net of the grocery fees, and holds it in cash. The Company records its royalties and remits the remaining revenues earned by the franchisee to each franchisee.

Deferred Revenue

Deferred revenue represents the initial franchise fees received, but the Company has not earned yet. The initial franchise services are not distinct from the continuing rights or services offered during the term of the franchise agreement, and will, therefore, be treated as a single performance obligation. As such, initial franchise fees received are recognized over the franchise term, which is generally two to three years.

Revenue

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized in accordance with Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (“ASC 606”) when control of the promised goods or services is transferred to customers, in an amount that reflects the consideration we expect to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services. The Company recognizes revenue from contracts with customers as its performance obligations are satisfied at a transaction price reflecting an amount of consideration based upon a contractually agreed upon rate. The amount of revenue recognized may not equal customer cash payments because performance obligations may be satisfied ahead of or subsequent to cash receipt. The differences between revenue recognition and cash payments received are reflected in accounts receivable or deferred revenue, as appropriate. Revenue allocated to remaining performance obligations represents contracted revenue that has not yet been recognized and includes deferred revenue as well as amounts that will be recognized as revenue in future periods. Contracted but not yet recognized revenue was $3,207,593 and $3,001,416 as of March 31, 2025 and 2024, of which the Company expected to recognize approximately 66% and 79% over the next 12 months, respectively.

The Company is party to a contract with a third party grocery store to provide certain products and services for which the Company has arranged for JK959 Global, Inc., a sister company, to fulfill certain performance obligations, and the Company is considered an agent therefore related revenue and expenses are recorded net.

Franchise fee revenue is earned by entering into a franchise agreement with a franchisee and providing services during the term of the franchise agreement. Franchise fee revenue is recognized over the term of franchise agreement, which is generally two to three years.

Revenue related to royalty fees and insurance fees is earned based on a percentage of franchisee sales recorded when earned. Royalty and insurance revenue is recognized over time as franchisee sales occur.

Other revenues are earned primarily by selling supplies and providing other services to franchisees. Other revenues are recognized when the control of the promised goods or services is transferred.

Contract Identification

We account for a contract when it is approved, both parties are committed, the rights of the parties are identified, payment terms are defined, the contract has commercial substance, and collection of consideration is probable.

Performance Obligations

A performance obligation is a promise in a contract to transfer a distinct good or service to the customer under ASC 606. In accordance with ASC 606, we do not assess whether promised goods or services are performance obligations if they are immaterial in the context of the contract with the customer.

JFE Franchising, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
Year Ended March 31, 2025, Period From November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024
and Year Ended November 27, 2022

Contract Value

Revenue is measured based on the amount of consideration specified in the contracts with our customers and excludes any amounts collected on behalf of third parties. The estimation of total revenue from a customer contract is not subject to elements of variable consideration.

Timing of Recognition

We recognize revenue when we satisfy a performance obligation by transferring control of a product or service to a customer. Our performance obligations are satisfied over time as services are provided or at a point in time when control of products is transferred. Revenue from services provided to customers over time accounted for 92% and 92% and 93% of the Company's revenues for the year ended March 31, 2025 and period from November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024 and year ended November 27, 2022, respectively.

Disaggregation of Revenues

As a nonpublic entity, the Company has elected not to apply the quantitative disaggregation of revenue. The Company's franchise fee, royalty, and a majority of other revenues are recognized over time, whereas product sales revenues are recognized at a point in time. The location of the Company's customers and the types of contracts entered into may affect the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows.

Operating Costs and Expenses

Operating costs and expenses for the year ended March 31, 2025 and period from November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024 and year ended November 27, 2022 primarily consist of franchise expenses, sales and marketing expenses, and general and administrative expenses, as follows:

- Franchise expenses represent the costs associated with the selling to and training of franchisees. These costs include salaries, wages and benefits for employees involved in the selling and training of franchisees including the use of professionals, such as consultants and legal firms.
- Sales and marketing expenses include advertising and promotion expenses, general marketing expenses, and related travel expenses.
- General and administrative expenses include corporate and administrative functions that support the Company's franchise operations, information systems, recruiting costs, professional fees, and insurance.

Income Taxes

The Company pays federal, certain state income and local franchise taxes on its taxable income. The Company is a member of a group which files a consolidated income tax return. Members of the group are allocated a portion of the group's income tax liability based on relative taxable income.

In accordance with the Company's accounting policy, the changes in penalties and interest related to income taxes are recognized within other expenses on the statement of income and within other current liabilities on the balance sheet.

Leases

The Company adopted ASC 842 Leases on November 28, 2022, using the optional transition method to the modified retrospective approach, which eliminates the requirement to restate the JFE Franchising, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements
Year Ended March 31, 2025, Period From November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024
and Year Ended November 27, 2022

prior-period financial statements. Under this transition provision, the Company has applied ASC 842 to reporting periods beginning on November 28, 2022, while prior periods continue to be reported and disclosed in accordance with the Company's historical accounting treatment under ASC Topic 840, Leases.

The Company elected the "package of practical expedients" under the transition guidance within ASC 842, in which the Company does not reassess (1) the historical lease classification, (2) whether any existing contracts at transition are or contain leases, or (3) the initial direct costs for any existing leases. The Company has not elected to adopt the "hindsight" practical expedient, and therefore will measure the ROU asset and lease liability using the remaining portion of the lease term upon adoption of ASC 842 on November 28, 2022.

The Company determines if an arrangement is or contains a lease at inception, which is the date on which the terms of the contract are agreed to, and the agreement creates enforceable rights and obligations. A contract is or contains a lease when (i) explicitly or implicitly identified assets have been deployed in the contract and (ii) the Company obtains substantially all the economic benefits from the use of that underlying asset and directs how and for what purpose the asset is used during the term of the contract. The Company also considers whether its service arrangements include the right to control the use of an asset.

The Company made an accounting policy election available under ASC 842 not to recognize ROU assets and lease liabilities for leases with a term of 12 months or less. For all other leases, ROU assets and lease liabilities are measured based on the present value of future lease payments over the lease term at the commencement date of the lease (or November 28, 2022, for existing leases upon the adoption of ASC 842). The ROU assets also include any initial direct costs incurred and lease payments made at or before the commencement date and are reduced by any lease incentives. To determine the present value of lease payments, the Company made an accounting policy election available to nonpublic companies to utilize a risk-free borrowing rate, which is aligned with the lease term at the lease commencement date (or remaining term for leases existing upon the adoption of ASC 842).

Future lease payments may include fixed rent escalation clauses or payments that depend on an index (such as the consumer price index), which is initially measured using the index or rate at lease commencement. Subsequent changes of an index and other periodic market-rate adjustments to base rent are recorded in variable lease expense in the period incurred. Residual value guarantees or payments for terminating the lease are included in the lease payments only when it is probable they will be incurred.

The Company has made an accounting policy election to account for lease and nonlease components in its contracts as a single lease component for its real estate asset class. The nonlease components typically represent additional services transferred to the Company, such as common area maintenance for real estate, which are variable in nature and recorded in variable lease expense in the period incurred.

The Company's adoption of ASC 842 on November 28, 2022, resulted in the recording of additional ROU assets and lease liabilities for operating leases. The Company recorded operating lease ROU assets and lease liabilities of $2,527,559 and $2,527,559, respectively. The Company does not have any finance leases. The adoption of the new lease standard did not materially impact consolidated income or consolidated cash flows and did not result in a cumulative-effect adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended March 31, 2025, Period From November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024 and Year Ended November 27, 2022

Credit Risk

The standard deposit insurance limit of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) is $250,000 per depositor, per insured bank, for each account ownership category. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to credit risk consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents. The Company maintains its cash accounts with a high-quality financial institution, which, at times, may exceed federally insured coverage. At March 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company has $45,076,819 and $18,884,163 of cash and cash equivalents in excess of the FDIC insured limits, respectively.

Concentration Risk

The Company has a significant concentration of franchises with one grocery store conglomerate, which constitute 88% and 86% and 75% of gross sales for the year ended March 31, 2025 and period from November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024 and year ended November 27, 2022, respectively. The potential for severe impact can result, for example, from total or partial loss of the business relationship, or from renegotiations with this grocery store conglomerate that result in significant margin erosion that could subsequently threaten the Company's business model.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued an accounting standard update that changes the impairment model for financial assets, including trade receivables and certain other instruments. The update replaces the current "incurred loss" model with a methodology that reflects expected credit losses and requires consideration of a broader range of reasonable and supportable information to inform credit loss estimates. In November 2019, the update's effective date for the Company was deferred to 2023, and the update must be adopted using a modified-retrospective approach through a cumulative-effect adjustment to retained earnings as of the effective date. This ASU was effective for the Company on April 1, 2024. The adoption of this ASU did not have a material impact on the Company's balance sheet or statement of income.

3. Related Party Transactions and Balances

The Company has transactions with its affiliates in the normal course of business. Related party balances that relate to normal trading relationships have a right of offset. The Company also had lease agreements with the chairman of the Company for the Company's corporate offices and warehouse facility during the period from November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024, and the year ended November 27, 2022. During the year ended March 31, 2025, the period from November 28, 2022 to March 31, 2024, and the year ended November 27, 2022, the Company recognized share based payment compensation expense of $0, $83,477, and $478,190, respectively, related to shares issued to employees in respect of the parent company.

The loans mature between the three and five-year anniversary of the date of each loan. Under the agreements, the 2020 loans bear interest on the unpaid principal balances at a fixed rate of 3.75% per annum, while the loans for 2021 and subsequent years bear interest on the unpaid principal balances at a fixed rate per annum based on the short-term Applicable Federal Rate ("AFR") as set out by the US Treasury Regulations in the month of issuance. Interest accrues daily on the unpaid principal balance, computed on the basis of a 360- day year of twelve 30-day months. The principal, together with any accrued but unpaid interest, is due and receivable on demand, but in any event no later than the maturity date of each loan. While some of the loans receivable to affiliates have matured, the amount and associated interest remain outstanding as of March 31, 2025 as the Company has not requested repayment.

5. Income Taxes

The Company and its related affiliates file a consolidated federal income tax return and state returns as required.

Federal and state income taxes have been provided by the Company on the basis of its separate Company income and deductions in accordance with established practices of the consolidated group.

The Company applies a more-likely-than-not recognition threshold for all tax uncertainties. Accordingly, only those tax benefits that have a greater than 50% likelihood of being sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities are recognized. As applied to the Company, any tax uncertainties would principally relate to state income taxes, or uncertainties in its U.S. Federal income tax return that is used to determine state income tax liability. Management has reviewed the Company's tax positions and determined there were no significant outstanding or retroactive tax positions. The tax years which principally remain subject to examination by major tax jurisdictions as of March 31, 2025, are 2019 through 2021.

6. Leases

As Discussed in Note 2, on November 28, 2022 the Company adopted ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). The Company has long-term operating leases, comprised entirely of real estate lease arrangements. Operating leases have remaining lease terms of up to 7 years, and there are no finance leases outstanding. The largest lease includes an option for the business to extend the lease for a period of an additional 10 years, the notice must be provided in 2031. The other leases include options to extend the leases and options to terminate the leases.

The following table summarizes the balances as it relates to leases as of March 31, 2025 and 2024:

(in thousands of dollars)	March 31,
	2025	2024
Operating leases
Operating lease right-of-use assets	$ 2,054	$ 2,143
Operating lease liability, current portion	415	371
Operating lease liability, long-term portion	2,046	1,826

The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease at its inception. Operating lease ROU assets and liabilities are recognized at commencement date based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term. Operating lease ROU assets also include any initial direct costs and prepayments less lease incentives. Lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise such options. As the Company's leases generally do not provide an implicit rate, the Company has elected to use the practical expedient available to private companies, which allows the use of the risk-free rate that matches the term of the lease, in determining the present value of lease payments. Lease expense for these leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Operating lease arrangements are comprised of real estate agreements for which the right-of-use assets are included in assets and the corresponding lease liabilities, depending on their maturity, are included in current or long-term liabilities in the balance sheets. The Company also elected to apply the practical expedient to consider nonlease components as a part of the lease. The Company's leases contain certain nonlease components for common area maintenance which are variable on a month-to-month basis and as such recorded as a variable lease expense as incurred. Operating lease expense for minimum lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Variable lease payments and short-term lease payments (leases with initial terms less than 12 months) are expensed as incurred.

7. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is subject to various legal proceedings and claims that arise in the ordinary course of business. It is the opinion of management that the liability, if any, arising from the ultimate disposition of such legal proceedings will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations. Any current pending litigations are currently covered by the Company's insurance carrier and settled directly by the insurance carrier. As a result, no provision or asset is recognized within these financial statements.

8. Employee Benefit Plans

On December 24, 2015, the Company adopted the JFE Franchising, Inc. Pension Plan (the "Pension Plan") and JFE Franchising, Inc. Retirement Plan (the "Retirement Plan") to provide retirement benefits for its employees who are at least 21 years of age and are employed for at least one year with the Company. Under the Retirement Plan, the Company makes contributions to the plan at the minimum of 3% of each eligible employee's annual compensation. The Pension Plan and Retirement Plan were combined under a floor-offset plan arrangement for tax advantage purposes. In 2018, two participants associated with the Pension Plan who were previously employed by JFE Franchising, Inc. were transferred to employment with an affiliated entity, and the Pension Plan became effectively a multi-employer plan. Accordingly, in accordance with an agreement with the affiliated entity, the affiliated entity makes annual contributions to the Pension Plan for benefit amounts associated with participants under or retired from its employ as of the end of the plan year. Similarly, the Company would make annual contributions to the Pension Plan for any benefit amounts associated with participants under or retired from its employ as of the end of the plan year. The Company recognized a current liability of $1,904,728 and $1,237,082 associated with the Retirement Plan contribution as of March 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.
