What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay service fees and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a Territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your Territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Puerto Rico, or if the corporate headquarters is no longer in Puerto Rico, the city where the corporate headquarters is then located. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Puerto Rico, or the state where the corporate headquarters is located than in your own state.
2. Spouse Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for your financial obligations under the franchise agreement, even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the business. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's personal and marital assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.
3. Limited Operation History. The franchisor is at an early stage of development and has a limited operating history. This franchise is likely to be a riskier investment than a franchise system with a longer operating history.
4. Supplier control. You must purchase all or nearly all of the inventory or supplies that are necessary to operate your business from the franchisor, its affiliates, or suppliers that the franchisor designates, at prices the franchisor or they set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchise business.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

Market and Competition

The market for health, wellness, and fitness services is extremely competitive and well developed in most areas. You will compete with other STRETCHMED® studios, and other one-on-one assisted stretching businesses and fitness concepts which may be franchised or independent.

Industry Specific Laws and Regulations

Fitness studios are regulated in certain states and counties, and these regulations are always being updated. Some states require that health/fitness facilities have staff certified in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and automated external defibrillator use or other specialized medical training available during all hours of operation. Many states have laws regulating health club contracts, including refund and cancellation policies. Some states may also require you to obtain a bond for pre-paid membership fees. We require that you research your local laws and consult with your attorney prior to purchasing a STRETCHMED® Studio. At a minimum, your Studio will be subject to various federal, state and local laws, and regulations affecting the business, including laws relating to zoning, access for the disabled, and safety and fire standards. You may need the local fire marshals or other local, state or federal agency’s permission before you begin operations.

There are also business laws and regulations that may affect your operations, such as the Americans with Disabilities Act, Wage Laws, Credit Card Transaction Laws (Truth In Lending and Regulation Z; Equal Credit Act; Fair Debt Collection Practices), and business permit requirements. It is your sole responsibility to investigate, understand and comply with these laws and regulations.

ITEM 3: LITIGATION

Administrative Action

On or about June 28, 2023, we applied for franchise registration in the State of California. The Department of Financial Protection and Innovation of the State of California notified us that the CPA who had completed the audit of our financials did not have an active license. Our application was then denied and we would be charged $3,000 for this administrative action. We retained a new CPA who completed a new audit of our financials and we have resubmitted our application.

On or about July 12, 2023, we submitted an application for franchise registration in the State of Washington. During the application review, we entered into a consent order with the State of California due to the misrepresentation of the CPA we had hired to prepare our financial statements. As a result, we inadvertently failed to amend our registration application in the State of Washington. However, upon receipt of notice from the Department of Financial Institutions, Securities Division of the State of Washington, we immediately amended our application and agreed to comply with RCW 19.100.170, the anti-fraud section of the Franchise Investment Protection Act.

Emergency Purchases	Will vary under circumstances	As Incurred	Under emergency circumstances, we may purchase items for you that we determine are necessary for you to operate your business. You must reimburse us for these purchases.

Notes:

1. Except for product and service purchases described in Item 8, and except as otherwise noted in this Item 6, all fees are imposed and collected by and payable to us. Except as noted above, all fees are non-refundable. These fees are uniformly imposed.
2. Before your Studio opens, you must sign and deliver to us the documents we require to authorize us to debit your business checking account automatically for the Continuing Service Fee payments, Fund contributions, default notices, and other amounts due under the Franchise Agreement and for your purchases from us and our affiliates, and any subcontractor we deemed appropriate (the "Electronic Depository Transfer Account" or "EDTA") through the ACH Checking Account Deduction Document (see Franchise Agreement Attachment 3). We will debit the EDTA for these amounts on their due dates. Funds must be available in the EDTA for withdrawal. We may require payment other than by automatic debit, and you must comply with our payment instructions. We will charge you a Service fee of six percent (6%) (the "Continuing Service Fee") to consult you in a manner we deem appropriate and at our sole discretion, for the following ongoing consulting: local advertising, marketing, public relations, digital marketing strategy, social media strategy, sales training, stretch therapy education and training, business strategy planning and growth consulting. For any interruption in the operation of your business (except for an interruption due to a remodel or refurbish of the business), you must continue to pay us, during such period of interruption, continuing Service fees based on the average monthly Service fees paid by you during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the period of interruption. However, if (a) this interruption is due to force majeure, (b) you have obtained the insurance coverage we require or reasonably recommend, and (c) you properly and timely submit all applicable insurance claims, the Service fees payable to us during this period of interruption will be based on the insurance payments, if any, you receive.
3. "Gross Sales" means all of your revenue from the franchised business, but excluding taxes collected from customers and paid to taxing authority, and reduced by the amount of any documented refunds, credits, allowances, and charge backs the Studio in good faith gives to customers. Gross Sales also include any insurance proceeds you receive for loss of business at the Studio. If you do not report the Studio's Gross Sales, we may debit your EDTA for 118% of the last Continuing Service Fee payment and Fund contribution that we debited. If the amounts we debit are less than the amounts you actually owe us, we will debit your EDTA for the balance on the day we specify. If the amounts we debit are greater than the amounts you actually owe us, we will credit the excess against the amounts that we otherwise would debit from your EDTA during the following week.

These Studios will include STRETCHMED® Studios operating in the Advertising Coverage Area by us, or our affiliates. Each STRETCHMED® Studio operating in the Advertising Coverage Area will have one vote, including our studios and those owned by our affiliate(s). There is a Seventy-five-dollar ($75.00) charge per occurrence if you have insufficient funds in your ACH to cover a payment, or if you pay by check, the check is returned for insufficient funds.

On Monday of each week, we may electronically access your computer system to obtain your Studio's Gross Sales. If any state imposes a sales or other tax on the Service Fees, then we have the right to collect this tax from you.

4. Grant of Security Interest. As security for your obligations to us under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement, you will grant us a first-priority security interest in the assets comprising your Franchise Business.

Explanatory Notes

1. Unless otherwise agreed by a third party, or stated in this disclosure document, none of these payments are refundable.
2. We describe the initial franchise fee in Item 5.
3. A 1-Table STRETCHMED® Studio occupies about approximately 300-400 square feet of space, some Studios are a little smaller and some larger. Rent depends on geographic location, size, local rental rates, businesses in the area, site profile, and other factors, and could be considerably higher in large metropolitan areas than in more suburban or small-town areas. STRETCHMED® Studios can be located in strip shopping centers, shopping malls, free-standing units, and other venues in downtown commercial areas and in residential areas. We anticipate that you will rent the Studio's premises. It is possible, however, that you might choose to buy, rather than rent, real estate on which a building suitable for the Studio is already constructed or could be constructed. Real estate costs depend on location, size, visibility, economic conditions, accessibility, competitive market conditions, and the type of ownership interest you are buying. Because of the numerous variables that affect the value of a particular piece of real estate, this estimated initial investment table does not reflect the potential cost of purchasing real estate rather than renting it. The rent cost can vary between $4,301-$5,161 which includes 1 months' rent and 1 month security deposit.
4. This item includes utility deposits, telephone company deposits, electrical and other energy company deposits.
5. Leasehold improvement costs, including floor coverings, wall treatments, counters, ceilings painting, window coverings, electrical, carpentry, and similar work, and architect's and contractor's fees, depend on the site's condition, location, and size; the demand for the site among prospective lessees; the site's previous use; the build-out required to conform the site for your Studio; and any construction or other allowances the landlord grants. The lower figure assumes the landlord does the majority of the build out; the higher figure assumes the space requires a lot of construction work and the landlord does not contribute.

6. These figures reflect two computer options, which are outlined in Item 11, a tablet to be used at the front of the Studio to check in clients and play music in your studio, and a laptop for the Manager to run operations for the studio. This also includes a multifunction printer, fax, scanner, and copier.
7. The architect will provide architectural services relating to the Studio building. The lower number assumes that the landlord and town where your premises are located accept a basic floor plan when approving build out improvements. Some towns may require a licensed architect to submit floor plans.
8. This includes corporate discounts that we have established with national office supply and apparel vendors. Items include a small conference table and chairs, storage units, waiting room table, miscellaneous Studio supplies, such as bathroom tissue, artificial plants, etc., employee apparel, and promotional products.
9. This is the minimum required amount you must spend on grand opening marketing for your Studio.
10. You must spend this amount on local advertising for at least two (2) months before you open.
11. We will provide initial training up to two (2) people at no additional cost when opening a new Studio. The lower figure assumes that you will not have to pay for flights, meals, etc. The higher figure assumes that you will need to get a flight(s), hotel, and pay for food and living expenses during your week of training with us.
12. You must obtain and maintain certain types and amounts of insurance. (See Item 9) Insurance costs depend on policy limits, types of policies, nature and value of physical assets, gross revenue, number of employees, square footage, location, business contents, and other factors bearing on risk exposure. The estimate contemplates insurance costs for three (3) months.
13. Additional Operating Funds. Franchise disclosure laws require us to include an estimate of all costs and expenses to operate the franchise business during the "initial phase" of your business, which must be a period of at least three months after the franchised business opens, or a longer period if "reasonable for the industry". We are not aware of any established longer "reasonable period" for the health and fitness industry. This item estimates your expenses during the initial period of operation of your Studio (other than the items identified separately in the table). These expenses include payroll costs, but not any draw or salary for you. These figures are estimates, and we cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting the business. Your costs depend on how much you follow our methods and procedures; your management skills, experience, and business acumen; local economic conditions; the local market for your products and services; the prevailing wage rate; competition; and the sales level reached during the initial period of operation of your Studio. Some states may require you to obtain a bond for pre-paid membership fees. This amount does not include the cost of obtaining a bond for your business. Because the requirements vary by state, and may depend on your net worth, we cannot estimate the amount you will need to obtain a bond, or the assets you may need to collateralize that bond.

14. This amount will vary by the site's location, size, structure, and town permitting. The lower figure assumes a smaller sign, without being backlit; the higher number would be a larger sign and, in some cases, multiple signs that may be with backlit and local ordinances require additional signage criteria.
15. We may require you to place an initial order of supplies such as T-shirts, hats, and water bottles from us or our approved suppliers to have in stock upon opening.
16. Before you may open your STRETCHMED® Studio, you must purchase an Automated External Defibrillator ("AED") and you and your staff must be certified in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and AED use. The above estimate reflects the cost of purchasing the AED and certifying two (2) people.
17. Local, municipal, county, and state regulations vary on what licenses and permits you must obtain to operate a Franchise Business.
18. All staff stretching in any STRETCHMED® location, pop-up, or event must be trained on the STRETCHMED® protocols. You are solely responsible for obtaining these CST Certifications and paying the associated costs. This item estimates the costs for obtaining CST Certification on the initial staff who will provide stretching services at your Studio.
19. You may decide to form a Business Entity to operate the Franchise Business before beginning operations. You will have to comply with the fictitious, assumed, or trade name statutes of the state in which the Franchise Business will be located. These estimates include attorneys' fees, publication fees, filing fees and other costs for business entity formation, compliance with your state's fictitious or assumed name statute and review of this Franchise Disclosure Document, and lease review and negotiation, depending on the scope of representation. These fees may vary from state to state depending on each state's laws and the prevailing rates of attorneys' fees.
20. We or an approved third parties will review the letter of intent and/or lease for your studio and require that it include certain provisions in order to approve your studio's site and its lease. Franchisor's acceptance of a site does not constitute a guarantee by Franchisor that the Studio will be profitable at that site.

21. After you send us completed pre-construction forms and “as-built” drawings of the existing premises to be developed as your studio, we will prepare and send you a design plan for your studio that includes a floor plan, flooring specifications, ceiling specifications and renderings (including location of walls, retail displays, fixtures and equipment) (a “Studio Design”). All Studio Designs are subject to the Franchisor’s review and approval, which may be granted or withheld in the Franchisor’s sole discretion. The studio design fee is uniformly imposed.
22. We relied on affiliate-owned STRETCHMED® locations which have operated a STRETCHMED® location in establishing this estimate. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before deciding to acquire the franchise. We do not offer financing directly or indirectly for any part of the initial investment. The availability and terms of financing depend on many factors, including the availability of financing generally, your creditworthiness, and collateral and lending policies of financial institutions from which you request a loan.

Explanatory Notes

1. Unless otherwise agreed by a third party, or stated in this disclosure document, none of these payments are refundable.

2. We describe the initial franchise fee in Item 5.
3. A 3-Table STRETCHMED® Studio occupies approximately 800-900 square feet of space, some Studios are a little smaller and some larger. Rent depends on geographic location, size, local rental rates, businesses in the area, site profile, and other factors, and could be considerably higher in large metropolitan areas than in more suburban or small-town areas. STRETCHMED® Studios can be located in strip shopping centers, shopping malls, free-standing units, and other venues in downtown commercial areas and in residential areas. We anticipate that you will rent the Studio's premises. It is possible, however, that you might choose to buy, rather than rent, real estate on which a building suitable for the Studio is already constructed or could be constructed. Real estate costs depend on location, size, visibility, economic conditions, accessibility, competitive market conditions, and the type of ownership interest you are buying. Because of the numerous variables that affect the value of a particular piece of real estate, this estimated initial investment table does not reflect the potential cost of purchasing real estate rather than renting it. The rent cost can vary typically between $7,283 - $8,740 which includes 1 months' rent and 1 month security deposit.
4. This item includes utility deposits, telephone company deposits, electrical and other energy company deposits.
5. Leasehold improvement costs, including floor coverings, wall treatments, counters, ceilings painting, window coverings, electrical, carpentry, and similar work, and architect's and contractor's fees, depend on the site's condition, location, and size; the demand for the site among prospective lessees; the site's previous use; the build-out required to conform the site for your Studio; and any construction or other allowances the landlord grants. The lower figure assumes the landlord does the majority of the build out; the higher figure assumes the space requires a lot of construction work and the landlord does not contribute.
6. These figures reflect two computer options, which are outlined in Item 11, a tablet to be used at the front of the Studio to check in clients and play music in your studio, and a laptop for the Manager to run operations for the studio. This also includes a multifunction printer, fax, scanner, and copier.
7. The architect will provide architectural services relating to the Studio building. The lower number assumes that the landlord and town where your premises are located accept a basic floor plan when approving build out improvements. Some towns may require a licensed architect to submit floor plans.
8. This includes corporate discounts that we have established with national office supply and apparel vendors. Items include a small conference table and chairs, storage units, waiting room table, miscellaneous Studio supplies, such as bathroom tissue, artificial plants, etc., employee apparel, and promotional products.

9. This is the minimum required amount you must spend on grand opening marketing for your Studio.
10. You must spend this amount on local advertising for at least two (2) months before you open.
11. We will provide initial training up to two (2) people at no additional cost when opening a new Studio. The lower figure assumes that you will not have to pay for flights, meals, etc. The higher figure assumes that you will need to get a flight(s), hotel, and pay for food and living expenses during your week of training with us.
12. You must obtain and maintain certain types and amounts of insurance. (See Item 9) Insurance costs depend on policy limits, types of policies, nature and value of physical assets, gross revenue, number of employees, square footage, location, business contents, and other factors bearing on risk exposure. The estimate contemplates insurance costs for three (3) months.
13. Additional Operating Funds. Franchise disclosure laws require us to include an estimate of all costs and expenses to operate the franchise business during the “initial phase” of your business, which must be a period of at least three months after the franchised business opens, or a longer period if “reasonable for the industry”. We are not aware of any established longer “reasonable period” for the health and fitness industry. This item estimates your expenses during the initial period of operation of your Studio (other than the items identified separately in the table). These expenses include payroll costs, but not any draw or salary for you. These figures are estimates, and we cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting the business. Your costs depend on how much you follow our methods and procedures; your management skills, experience, and business acumen; local economic conditions; the local market for your products and services; the prevailing wage rate; competition; and the sales level reached during the initial period of operation of your Studio. Some states may require you to obtain a bond for pre-paid membership fees. This amount does not include the cost of obtaining a bond for your business. Because the requirements vary by state, and may depend on your net worth, we cannot estimate the amount you will need to obtain a bond, or the assets you may need to collateralize that bond.
14. This amount will vary by the site’s location, size, structure, and town permitting. The lower figure assumes a smaller sign, without being backlit; the higher number would be a larger sign and, in some cases, multiple signs that may be with backlit and local ordinances require additional signage criteria.
15. We may require you to place an initial order of supplies such as T-shirts, hats, and water bottles from us or our approved suppliers to have in stock upon opening.
16. Before you may open your STRETCHMED® Studio, you must purchase an Automated External Defibrillator (“AED”) and you and your staff must be certified in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and AED use. The above estimate reflects the cost of purchasing the AED and certifying two (2) people.

17. Local, municipal, county, and state regulations vary on what licenses and permits you must obtain to operate a Franchise Business.
18. All staff stretching in any STRETCHMED® location, pop-up, or event must be trained on the STRETCHMED® protocols. You are solely responsible for obtaining these CST Certifications and paying the associated costs. This item estimates the costs for obtaining CST Certification on the initial staff who will provide stretching services at your Studio.
19. You may decide to form a Business Entity to operate the Franchise Business before beginning operations. You will have to comply with the fictitious, assumed, or trade name statutes of the state in which the Franchise Business will be located. These estimates include attorneys' fees, publication fees, filing fees and other costs for business entity formation, compliance with your state's fictitious or assumed name statute and review of this Franchise Disclosure Document, and lease review and negotiation, depending on the scope of representation. These fees may vary from state to state depending on each state's laws and the prevailing rates of attorneys' fees.
20. We or an approved third parties will review the letter of intent and/or lease for your studio and require that it include certain provisions in order to approve your studio's site and its lease. Franchisor's acceptance of a site does not constitute a guarantee by Franchisor that the Studio will be profitable at that site.
21. After you send us completed pre-construction forms and "as-built" drawings of the existing premises to be developed as your studio, we will prepare and send you a design plan for your studio that includes a floor plan, flooring specifications, ceiling specifications and renderings (including location of walls, retail displays, fixtures and equipment) (a "Studio Design"). All Studio Designs are subject to the Franchisor's review and approval, which may be granted or withheld in the Franchisor's sole discretion. The studio design fee is uniformly imposed.
22. We relied on affiliate-owned STRETCHMED® locations which have operated a STRETCHMED® location in establishing this estimate. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before deciding to acquire the franchise. We do not offer financing directly or indirectly for any part of the initial investment. The availability and terms of financing depend on many factors, including the availability of financing generally, your creditworthiness, and collateral and lending policies of financial institutions from which you request a loan.

ITEM 8: RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Required Purchases of Goods and Services:

You must operate the Studio according to our System Standards, as outlined in this disclosure document and other confidential materials, may regulate, among other things: the types, models, and brands of fixtures, furniture, equipment, furnishings, and signs (collectively, "Operating Assets"); products, supplies and services you must use in operating the Studio; unauthorized and prohibited products, and services you must not use; inventory requirements; and designated and approved suppliers of Operating Assets, Trade Secret Products, and other products, supplies and services.

In the case of Trade Secret Products, suppliers will be limited to us, our affiliates, or other specified exclusive sources, and you must buy Trade Secret Products during the franchise term only from us, our affiliates or the other specified exclusive sources at the prices we and they decide to charge. We restrict your sources of Trade Secret Products in order to protect our trade secrets, assure quality, assure a reliable supply of products that meet our standards, achieve better terms of purchase and delivery service, control usage of the Marks by third parties, and monitor the manufacture, packaging, processing, and sale of these items.

In the case of Operating Assets and items other than Trade Secret Products, suppliers could, at our option, be limited to us, our affiliates, or other specified exclusive sources, in which case you would have to buy the Operating Assets and other items only from us, our affiliates or the other specified exclusive sources at the prices we or they decided to charge. We have the absolute right to limit the suppliers with whom you may deal.

We will identify all designated and approved suppliers in the Operations Manual or other written communications. You currently must buy all of your stretch trainers, stretch tables, business cards, stationary, uniforms/apparel, promotional products, nutrition products, build out materials, advertising and marketing material, office furniture and supplies, Studio furniture and décor, and your Customer Relationship Management and Scheduling program from designated suppliers. You must also purchase specific products, e.g., the Computer System (see Item 11), without reference to specific suppliers. Any purchases from us, and our affiliates, whether required or voluntary, may be at prices exceeding our costs. We may also purchase items in bulk and resell them to you at our cost plus a reasonable markup.

Under emergency circumstances, we may purchase items for you that we determine are necessary for you to operate your business. You must reimburse us for these purchases.

If you fail to make any payment when due to an approved supplier, or if we (in our reasonable discretion) determine that it is the most efficient method to remit payment to any supplier, we may act as a pass through by collecting payments (past due, current and future) for the specific product or service and remitting those payments to the supplier, who ultimately provides the product or the service to you. If we act in this pass-through capacity, we will collect your payment for our approved supplier or require you to wire the payment on a designated account and remit the payment to the approved supplier as arranged. Products and services for which we may act as a pass through may include equipment, fixtures, goods, merchandise, inventory, marketing campaigns or materials, lending services, computer hardware and software, supplies, uniforms and other categories of products and services that you may purchase from approved suppliers. Although we do not currently do so, we and our affiliates may receive commissions or other consideration for acting as a pass through between you and any approved supplier.

Insurance:

Franchisee shall procure, prior to opening the Studio, and shall maintain in full force and effect during the term of this Agreement at Franchisee's expense, an insurance policy or policies protecting Franchisor, and the officers, affiliates, directors, partners, and employees of both Franchisor and Franchisee against any loss, liability, personal injury, death, property damage, or expense whatsoever arising or occurring upon or in connection with operating the Studio. Franchisor shall be named as an additional insured on all such policies.

Prior to the opening of the Studio and thereafter at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of any such policy or policies, Franchisee shall deliver to STRETCHMED® certificates of insurance evidencing the proper coverage with limits not less than those required hereunder. All certificates shall expressly provide that not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice shall be given to STRETCHMED® in the event of material alteration to termination, non-renewal, or cancellation of, the coverage evidenced by such certificates.

Insurance Carrier Must be Approved by Franchisor:

Such policy or policies shall be written by the insurance company approved by STRETCHMED® in accordance with standards and specifications set forth in the Manuals or otherwise in writing, from time to time, and shall include, at a minimum (except as additional coverages and higher policy limits may be specified by STRETCHMED® from time to time), the following initial minimum coverage:

1. Commercial General Liability Insurance, covering your day-to-day business operation and premises liability exposure with limits not less than the following:
 - a. products-completed operations, contractual liability, personal and advertising injury, fire damage, medical expenses, including sexual abuse, sexual misconduct, molestation, and employment discrimination, having a combined single limit for bodily injury (including death) and property damage of $1,000,000 per occurrence and $3,000,000 in the aggregate (except for fire damage and medical expense coverage, which may have different limits of not less than $1,000,000 for one fire and $1,000,000 for one person, respectively), and Medical Payments coverage of not less than $5,000 per person; plus
 - b. not less than $1,000,000 for damage to rented premises, participant legal liability, professional liability, employee benefits liability (per employee) and $2,000,000 in aggregate for employee benefits liability; plus
 - c. non-owned automobile liability insurance and, if Franchisee owns, rents or identifies any vehicles with any Names and Marks or vehicles are used in connection with the operation of the Studio, automobile liability coverage for owned, non-owned, scheduled and hired vehicles having limits for bodily injuries of $1,000,000 per person and $1,000,000 per accident, and property damage limits of $100,000 per occurrence; plus
 - d. excess liability umbrella coverage for the general liability and automobile liability coverage in an amount of not less than $2,000,000 per occurrence and aggregate.
 - e. All such coverages shall be on an occurrence basis and shall provide for waivers of subrogation.
2. All-risk property insurance, including theft and flood coverage (when applicable), written at replacement cost value covering the building, improvements, furniture, fixtures, equipment, and inventory. Coverage shall be written in a value which will cover not less than eighty (80%) percent of the replacement cost of the building and one hundred (100%) percent of the replacement cost of the contents of the building. Such Property insurance shall include glass coverage with limits not less than $25,000, and signage coverage with limits not less than $10,000.

3. Workers' Compensation Insurance as required by applicable law, and Employer's Liability Insurance with minimum limits of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) per accident, Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) per employee for disease, and Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) aggregate disease policy limit.
4. Business interruption and Extra expense insurance of not less than $30,000 per month for loss of income and other expenses with a limit of not less than twelve (12) months of coverage.
5. Employee Practices Liability insurance of not less than $250,000 per claim in the aggregate, with a retention not larger than $50,000, providing legal defense coverage for any claims brought by current or former employees, or anyone else alleging employment related torts, including wrongful acts committed by non-employees or specific to joint employer liability and wage and hour claims. Said policy shall also include Third Party Employment Practices Liability coverage.

We have the right to reasonably increase the minimum liability protection requirement annually and require different or additional insurance coverage(s) to reflect inflation, changes in standards of liability, future damage awards or other relevant changes in circumstances. Should you not procure and maintain the above insurance coverage, we have the right (but not the obligation) to immediately procure such insurance coverage and to charge the premiums to you, which charges, together with a reasonable fee plus administrative fee for expenses incurred by us in connection with such procurement, shall be payable by you immediately upon notice.

We have the right to require that you obtain from your insurance company a report of claims made and reserves set against your insurance. We reserve the right to change our insurance requirements during the term of your Franchise Agreement, including the types of coverage and the amounts of coverage, and you must comply with those changes.

Advertising Materials:

Before using additional marketing material above what franchisor designs, you must send us for review samples of all advertising, promotional, and marketing materials that we have not prepared or previously approved. If you do not receive written approval within 5 days after we receive the materials, they are deemed disapproved. You may not use any advertising, promotional, or marketing materials that we have not approved.

Studio Development:

You must develop the Studio. We will give you mandatory specifications and layouts for a STRETCHMED® Studio, including requirements for dimensions, design, image, interior layout, décor, Operating Assets, and color scheme. These specifications and layouts might not reflect the requirements of any federal, state, or local law, code, or regulation, including those arising under the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) or similar rules governing public accommodations for persons with disabilities. You must prepare a site survey and all required construction plans and specifications for the Studio’s site and make sure that they comply with the ADA and similar rules, other applicable ordinances, building codes, permit requirements, and lease requirements and restrictions. We must review and approve all final specifications and plans before you begin constructing the Studio and all revised or “as built” specifications and plans during construction. Our review is only to ensure your compliance with our design requirements. We may inspect the Studio during its development and require changes in order to comply with our specifications.

Studio Site:

The Studio must be at a site that we approve. We have the right to approve the Studio’s lease or sublease and to require that it include certain provisions, including our right to the Studio’s site if the franchise is terminated or not renewed or if you lose possession because of your default under the lease. Once a final lease has been executed you may not alter any of the provisions contained in the final lease without our express written consent, this includes but is not limited to the term length, restrictive covenants, etc.

Real Estate Brokerage Services:

You must select a site for your Franchised Business in accordance with our site selection criteria. We may require you to use a real estate broker approved or designated by us to assist with site selection, lease negotiation, or related real estate services.

We may designate Everest CRE, LLC, an affiliate of the franchisor, to provide brokerage services in connection with site selection and lease negotiation. Everest CRE, LLC may receive commissions, fees, or other compensation from landlords as a result of providing brokerage services. We may benefit financially from such arrangements.

The commission or fee paid to Everest CRE, LLC is typically paid directly by the landlord under a separate brokerage agreement. You will not be required to pay Everest CRE, LLC any direct fees or commissions in connection with real estate brokerage services, but you are responsible for cooperating with Everest CRE, LLC or any approved broker in securing an approved site.

Approval of Alternative Suppliers:

To maintain the quality of the goods and services that STRETCHMED® Studios sell, as well as our system’s reputation, we may condition your right to buy or lease goods or services (besides those described above that you may obtain only from us, our affiliates, or other specified exclusive sources) on their meeting our minimum standards and specifications and being purchased from suppliers that we approve. Purchasing or leasing from unapproved suppliers is a default under your Franchise Agreement that may result in termination (or non-renewal) of your franchise.

We will formulate and modify standards and specifications based on our experience, the experience of our affiliates, and the experience of our franchisees in operating STRETCHMED® Studios. Our standards and specifications may impose minimum requirements for production, performance, reputation, prices, quality, design, and appearance. The criteria for our approval of suppliers are available to you in our Operations Manual or other written communications, which will identify our standards and specifications. We will notify you and, where appropriate, the suppliers. We may later inspect the Studio and items that you sought approval of and revoke our approval of the supplier and/or item that fails to continue to meet any of our criteria. We will send a written notice of any revocation. We may impose obligations on approved suppliers, which will be incorporated in a separate written license agreement with the supplier.

If you want to use any item or service that we have not yet evaluated or to buy or lease from a supplier that we have not yet approved or designated, you must first send us sufficient information, specifications, and samples so that we can determine whether the item or service complies with System Standards, or the supplier meets approved supplier criteria. We may charge you or the supplier a reasonable fee for the evaluation (see Item 6) and will decide within a reasonable time (generally no more than 30 days). We periodically will establish procedures for your requests and may limit the number of approved items, services or suppliers, as we think best.

Supplier approval might depend on product quality, delivery frequency and reliability, service standards, financial capability, customer relations, concentration of purchases with a limited number of suppliers to obtain better prices and service, and/or a supplier's willingness to pay us or our affiliates for the right to do business with our system. Supplier approval might be temporary until we evaluate the supplier in more detail. We may inspect a proposed supplier's facilities during and after the approval process to make sure that the supplier meets our standards. If it does not, we may revoke our approval by notifying the supplier and you in writing. We have no obligation to approve any request for a new supplier, product, or service. You must reimburse all costs we incur related to evaluating a product or supplier that you propose, up to $500 per day for personnel, plus expenses. We may also revoke approval of a particular product or supplier.

You must obtain all supplies, materials, fixtures, furnishings, equipment (including computer hardware and software), and other products used or offered for sale solely from approved suppliers who demonstrate, to our continuing reasonable satisfaction, the ability to meet our then-current standards or in accordance with our standards and specifications.

We and certain of our affiliates are approved suppliers and, in some cases, the only approved suppliers of specific products and services that franchisees are required to purchase or use. These include the Certified Stretch Therapist (CST™) Training and Certification Program, and real estate brokerage services (which may be provided by our affiliate, Everest CRE, LLC). Franchisees are also required to purchase specified equipment, signage, uniforms, promotional products, and studio furnishings from us, our affiliates, or other approved outside suppliers.

Brian Cook, our Founder, President, and Director of Franchise Development, is the beneficial owner of StretchMed Franchise, LLC, which supplies certain required products and services to franchisees. Accordingly, he indirectly owns an interest in the franchisor as a supplier. Other than this ownership, no officer of the franchisor owns an interest in any supplier.

Revenue Derived from a Supplier:

We and our affiliates have the right to derive revenue or receive payments from suppliers on account of their actual or prospective dealings with you and other franchisees and to use all amounts that we and our affiliates receive without restriction (unless we and our affiliates agree otherwise with the supplier) for any purposes we and our affiliates deem appropriate. We do not currently derive revenue or other material consideration from purchases required to be made by Franchisees from our Approved Suppliers; however, we reserve the right to do so in the future. If we collect such revenue from our Approved Suppliers, the amount paid to us by the Approved supplier will be on a case by case basis, such as a percentage of sales to you or a flat fee. We may also purchase items and resell them to you at our cost plus a markup, at our discretion.

Collectively, the purchases and leases described above are about 60-95% of your overall purchases and leases in establishing the Studio and about 30-55% of your overall purchases and leases in operating the Studio. During fiscal year 2024, we did not derive any revenue from selling items to franchisees.

Cooperatives:

We may negotiate purchase agreements or purchase cooperatives with suppliers (including price terms), for the benefit of the franchise system. We do not provide material benefits to you (for example, renewal or granting additional franchises) based on your purchase of particular products or services or use of particular suppliers. Currently, we coordinate purchases with suppliers for beneficial pricing and services for franchisees for promotional items, office supplies, uniforms, customer relationship management and scheduling programs, client survey programs, and customer apparel.

AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

Pre-Opening Assistance

Before you open a Studio, we will consult you, in a manner we deem appropriate and at our sole discretion:

1. Designate your Territory (Franchise Agreement – Section 2).
2. Approve or disapprove your Studio’s location. We will give you our site selection criteria for the Studio. We will not locate the site, nor negotiate the purchase or lease of the site for you. However, we reserve the right to assist in locating a site for you to develop in a manner we deem appropriate and at our sole discretion. In the event we are able to find a location suitable for development by you, you must develop said location. Neither we, nor any affiliate, owns any premises that will be leased to you or any other franchisee. The site must meet our criteria for demographic characteristics; traffic patterns; availability of parking; character of neighborhood; competition from, proximity to, and nature of other businesses; size (approximately 300-400 square feet for a 1-Table STRETCHMED® Studio; approximately 500-700 square feet for a 2-Table STRETCHMED® Studio; approximately 800-900 square feet for a 3-Table STRETCHMED® Studio; and approximately 1,000-1,200 square feet for a 4-Table STRETCHMED® Studio); appearance; visibility; and other physical and commercial characteristics. We will approve or disapprove a location you propose within 30 business days after receiving your description of, and evidence confirming your favorable prospects for obtaining, the proposed site. If franchisor and franchisee cannot agree on a site within 180 days after you sign the Franchise Agreement, we will have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement. We will use reasonable efforts to help analyze your market area, to help determine site feasibility, and to assist in designating the location, although we will not conduct site selection activities for you. You must submit photos of prospective site locations to us, which must meet our approval. (Franchise Agreement – Sections 2.2 and 6). We do not provide assistance with conforming the premises to local ordinances and building codes and obtaining any required permits
3. Approve or disapprove your Studio’s lease. Approval may be conditioned upon your lease containing certain franchise-specific language, which we will provide to you and a Collateral Assignment of Lease. (Franchise Agreement – Section 6.7 and 2.3).

We will not assist you in conforming your premises to local ordinances and building codes, nor will we assist you in obtaining any required permits.

If you do not locate and sign a lease or purchase document for an acceptable site for the premises of your Store within 180 days after you sign the Franchise Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed terminated upon written notice from either

Franchisee or Franchisor to the other, without the necessity of further action by either party or further documentation. (Franchise Agreement – Section 2.4(d))

Our review of your lease or purchase agreement and any advice or recommendations we may offer is not a representation or guarantee by us that you will succeed at the leased or purchased premises.

4. Give you mandatory and suggested specifications and layouts for a STRETCHMED® Studio, including requirements for dimensions, design, image, interior layout, décor, fixtures, equipment, signs, furnishings, and color scheme. This may be done in the form of a Prototype Floor Plan, which may not conform to your space precisely.
5. Review your proposed floor plans for the Studio and approve or provide corrective feedback on the plans. We will not help you in constructing, remodeling, or decorating the premises otherwise.
6. Assist you in obtaining the necessary equipment, signs, fixtures, opening inventory and supplies. We may provide these items directly, or simply provide you with names of approved suppliers. We will provide written specifications for these items. We will not deliver or install these items, unless we agree otherwise (Franchise Agreement – Sections 6.1(h) and 14.2)
7. Identify the Operating Assets, Trade Secret Products, other non-secret products, and supplies that you must use to develop and operate the Studio, the minimum standards and specifications that you must satisfy, and the designated and approved suppliers from whom you must or may buy or lease these items (which may be limited to or include us, our affiliates or other specified exclusive sources) (Franchise Agreement – Sections 6 and 14.2)
8. Give you digital access to the Operations Manual, the current table of contents of which is in Exhibit E. We may loan this to you by providing you a username and password to our website, which will give you access to the manual. (Franchise Agreement – Section 14)
9. Give you access to sample documents, such as advertisements, job descriptions and job proposals, to assist you in hiring new employees (Franchise Agreement – Section 14)
10. Provide the training program described in tabular form below (Franchise Agreement – Section 14). We reserve the right to substitute any in-person training for virtual training at our discretion. We also reserve the right to name additional trainers periodically. There are no limits on our right to assign a substitute to provide training.
11. Advise you on the Studio’s grand opening advertising program (Franchise Agreement – Sections 5 and 14)

We estimate that it will be, on average, 45 to 180 days after you sign the Franchise Agreement before you open the Studio, but this assumes that you already have a site for the Studio or find one shortly after signing the Franchise Agreement. You must sign a lease for an acceptable site within 180 days after the Franchise Agreement’s effective date, and we may terminate the Franchise Agreement if you fail to sign a lease within the 180-day period. The specific timetable for opening depends on the site’s condition; the Studio’s construction schedule; the extent to which you must upgrade or remodel an existing location; the delivery schedule for equipment and supplies; completing training; and complying with local laws and regulations. You may not open the Studio until: (1) we notify you in writing that the Studio meets our standards and specifications (you must send pictures, which will need to meet our approval before opening); (2) you complete pre-opening training to our satisfaction; (3) you pay the initial franchise fee and other amounts then due us; (4) you give us certificates for all required insurance policies; and (5) you have scheduled at least two-hundred fifty (250) free Intro Stretches. Subject to these conditions, you must open the Studio within 270 days after the Franchise Agreement’s effective date. (Franchise Agreement – Section 2.5).

The following is a summary of our initial training program as of the issuance date of this document:

During the operation of your Studio, we, in a manner we deem appropriate and at our sole discretion will:

1. Supply you with approved suppliers information (Franchise Agreement – Section 14).
2. Establish and maintain an internet-based application for your Studio. The application will allow you to access confidential company information and documents, such as the Operations Manual and training videos.
3. Send one of our representatives to the Studio for additional training and support, as we deem appropriate (Franchise Agreement – Section 14).
4. Consult with you and give you advice regarding your Studio’s operation based on your reports or our inspections, which may include phone calls and intro stretch recordings, reviewing video recordings, and reports by “secret shoppers.” Our advice will include information regarding standards, specifications, operating procedures, and methods that STRETCHMED® Studios use; as well as required purchasing of Operating Assets, Trade Secret Products, and other items and services that you will offer in your Studio. We will assist in arranging their distribution to you and establishing prices for items and services offered to clients (Franchise Agreement – Sections 14).
5. Consult with you and give you advice regarding advertising, marketing materials, programs; employee training, administrative, bookkeeping, accounting, and inventory control procedures. We will guide you in the use of our Training Program, Operations Manual, bulletins and other written materials, by electronic media, by telephone consultation, and/or at our office. We will also set all prices for services, memberships, goods, products and the like, offered or sold at all STRETCHMED® Studios. (Franchise Agreement – Section 14). Franchisor and Franchisee agree that any list or schedule of prices furnished to Franchisee by Franchisor is a set list of retail prices and that no prices for any such services, memberships, goods and products sold or offered at any STRETCHMED® Studio can deviate from said list or schedule, unless state law permits franchisee to do so.
6. Give you, at your request (and our option), or that we deem appropriate, additional or special guidance, assistance, and training (Franchise Agreement – Section 14), which training can be done by a third party, or anyone we deem appropriate. We have the right to charge you for any additional or ongoing training or support that you request and/or that we deem is necessary, including Monthly Coaching Sessions and Quarterly Coaching Workshops.

7. Provide additional and ongoing training for you, your manager, and/or employees at times and locations we designate. We may charge a fee for training. (See Item 6). You are responsible for all related travel and living expenses and employee wages (Franchise Agreement – Section 14).
8. Continue to give you access to the Operations Manual, which may include audio, video, computer software, other electronic media, and/or written materials. The Operations Manual contains mandatory and suggested specifications, standards, operating procedures, and rules (“System Standards”) that we periodically require. These are the administrative, bookkeeping, accounting, operations, and inventory control procedures you will need. We may modify the Operations Manual periodically to reflect changes in the System (Franchise Agreement – Sections 14).
9. Issue and modify System Standards, products and services for STRETCHMED® Studios. We may periodically modify System Standards, which may accommodate regional or local variations, and these modifications may require you to invest additional capital in the Studio or incur higher operating costs (Franchise Agreement – Section 14).
10. Send one of our representatives which may be an affiliate or an independent contractor to inspect the Studio and observe its operation to help you comply with the Online Operations Manual, Franchise Agreement and all System Standards. We will also be available by phone or video conference to help resolve operating problems you may encounter (Franchise Agreement – Section 14).
11. Allow you to use our confidential information (Franchise Agreement – Section 1).
12. Allow you to use our Marks (Franchise Agreement – Section 1).
13. Periodically offer refresher-training courses, such as Monthly Coaching Webinars, Quarterly Coaching Work Shops. We have the right to require attendance for this additional training. We have the right to charge a fee for this additional training. You must send your employees to these courses for training if we deem appropriate. We do not assist you in hiring employees (Franchise Agreement – Section 14).
14. Require you to attend an annual convention for all franchisees at a date, time, and location we designate; we will not require attendance at the annual meeting for any more than 4 calendar days per year. You are responsible for all training expenses, including associated travel, living expenses and wages. We may charge a fee for the annual meeting. (See Item 6.)

Advertising Assistance

Advertising and Development Fund

We have established a formal Advertising and Development Fund (the “Fund”) for advertising, marketing, and public relations programs and materials we deem appropriate. You must contribute to the Fund in amounts that we periodically require, which is currently up to 2% of weekly gross sales (See Item 6). STRETCHMED® Studios that we or our other affiliates own will contribute to the Fund on the same basis as franchisees. We have the right to collect, for deposit into the Fund, any advertising, marketing, or similar allowances paid to us by suppliers who deal with STRETCHMED® Studios and with whom we have agreed that we will deposit these allowances.

We will direct all programs that the Fund finances, with sole control over the creative concepts, materials, and endorsements used and their geographic, market, and media placement and allocation. We reserve the option of using an in-house advertising department and/or a national or regional advertising or creative agency. The Fund may pay for preparing and producing video, audio, and written materials and electronic media; developing, implementing, and maintaining an electronic commerce Website and/or related internet and social media strategies; administering regional and multi-regional marketing and advertising programs, including purchasing trade journal, direct mail, and other media advertising; using advertising, promotion, and marketing agencies and other advisors to provide assistance; and supporting public relations, market research, and other advertising, promotion, job posting platforms such as Indeed.com, and marketing activities to attract STRETCHMED® customers and employees. In the event of employee recruitment, we will not maintain a database but will forward all applicants to your franchise location website landing page. We will not advise you in any manner on HR-related items. The Fund may advertise locally, regionally, and/or nationally in printed materials, on radio, television, on the Internet, and/or by any other media sources as we see fit in our sole discretion. The Fund periodically will give you samples of advertising, marketing, and promotional formats and materials at no cost. We will sell you multiple copies of these materials at our direct cost of producing them, plus any related shipping, handling, and storage charges.

We will account for the Fund separately from our other funds and not use the Fund for our general operating expenses. However, in our sole discretion, we may charge the fund a management fee and use the Fund to pay the salaries and benefits of personnel who manage and/or administer the Fund, the Fund's other administrative costs, travel expenses of personnel while they are on Fund business, meeting costs, overhead relating to Fund business, and other expenses that we incur in activities related to administering or directing the Fund and its programs, including conducting market research; public relations; preparing advertising, promotion, and marketing materials; and collecting and accounting for Fund contributions. We are currently managing the Fund but reserve the right to allocate this task to a third party. We currently charge the fund a five thousand ($5,000) dollar per month management fee.

The Fund is not our asset. The Fund also is not a trust. We have a contractual obligation to hold all Fund contributions for the benefit of the contributors and to use contributions only for their permitted purposes (described herein). We have no fiduciary obligation to you for administering the Fund. The Fund may spend in any fiscal year more or less than the total Fund contributions in that year, borrow from us or others (paying reasonable interest) to cover deficits, or invest any surplus for future use. If not all of the advertising funds are spent in the year they accrue, we will carry the balance over into the next year. We will use interest earned on Fund contributions to pay costs before spending the Fund's other assets. We will not use Fund contributions for advertising that principally is a solicitation for the sale of franchises. We will prepare an annual, unaudited statement of Fund collections and expenses and, at your written request, give it to you in April of each year.

We may have the Fund audited annually, at the Fund's expense, by an independent certified public accountant. We may incorporate the Fund or operate it through a separate entity when we think best. The successor entity will have all of the rights and duties described here.

During fiscal year 2024, the Fund contributions were spent as follows: 43% on website hosting, computer, telephone, 6% on management Fee, 51% on graphic design, video production, marketing, advertising products and services.

The Fund is intended to maximize recognition of the Marks for the patronage of STRETCHMED® Studios by employees and customers. Although we will try to use the Fund to develop advertising and marketing materials and programs that will benefit all STRETCHMED® Studios, we need not ensure that Fund expenditures in or affecting any geographic area are proportionate or equivalent to Fund contributions by STRETCHMED® Studios operating in that geographic area or that any STRETCHMED® Studio benefits directly or in proportion to its Fund contributions from the development of advertising and marketing materials or the placement of advertising. We may use collection agents and institute legal proceedings to collect Fund contributions at the Fund's expense. We also may forgive, waive, settle, and compromise all claims by or against the Fund. We assume no other direct or indirect liability or obligation to you for collecting amounts due to maintaining, directing, or administering the Fund. The Fund materials may mention "Career & Franchise Opportunities Available", and brief statements about availability of information regarding the purchase of a STRETCHMED® franchise.

We may at any time defer or reduce a franchisee's Fund contributions and, upon 30 days' prior written notice to you, reduce or suspend Fund contributions and operations for one or more periods of any length and terminate (and, if terminated, reinstate) the Fund. If we terminate the Fund, we will distribute all unspent monies to franchisees, and to us and our affiliates, in proportion to their, and our, respective Fund contributions during the preceding 12-month period. We do not currently have a franchisee advisory council or advertising council that advises us on advertising policies.

Your Local Advertising

In addition to your Fund contributions and your grand opening advertising obligation, you must spend at least two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) each month to advertise and promote your Studio. We may require you to increase your monthly local marketing spend up to $5,000 if your Studio has not achieved 80% utilization. Utilization is defined as all tables fully booked from 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM, seven (7) days a week. Once 80% utilization is achieved and maintain it for 90 days, you may reduce your local marketing spend to $1,500 per month. If utilization later falls below this threshold, we may again require increased marketing expenditures.

Within 30 days after the end of each month, you must send us, in the manner we prescribe, an accounting of your expenditures for local advertising and promotion during the preceding month. Your local advertising and promotion must follow our guidelines, which may change from time to time, and use our approved suppliers. All advertising and promotional materials developed for your Studio must contain notices of our Website's domain name in the manner we designate. You may not develop, maintain, or authorize any Website or any web-related or mobile web material that mentions or describes you or the Studio or displays any of the Marks.

Each franchise location is required to have a photo and video shoot at their Studio no less than one

(1) every six (6) months. Each franchisee is required to provide a minimum of twelve (12) photos, three (3) customer video testimonials, one (1) employee video testimonials, and twelve (12) video reels per quarter. The cost of the photo and video shoot is approximately $3,000. The photo and video shoot must be done in accordance with the system laid out in the Operations Manual.

All advertising, promotion, and marketing must be completely clear, factual, and not misleading, and must conform to both the highest standards of ethical advertising and marketing and the advertising and marketing policies that we periodically require. All independent advertising, promotion and marketing material for your Studio must also contain the language, “This location is Independently Owned and Operated by, [your company], a franchisee of StretchMed Franchise, LLC”. Before you use any of the above material, you must send us or our designated agency for review samples of all advertising, promotional, and marketing materials that we have not prepared or previously approved. If you do not receive written approval within 5 days after we or our designated agency receives the materials, they are deemed to be disapproved. You may not use any advertising, promotional, or marketing materials that we have not approved.

Cooperative Advertising Programs:

We may designate an advertising coverage area (“ACA”) – local or regional – in your designated market area (“DMA”) in which two or more STRETCHMED® Studios are located, in order to seek to establish a cooperative advertising program (“Cooperative Program”). An ACA is the area covered by the particular advertising medium recognized in the industry. DMA is a recognized marketing medium by Arbitron. We will require all franchisees in the ACA to participate. Each STRETCHMED® Studio operating in the ACA will have one vote, including each Studio we, or our affiliates operate.

If a Cooperative Program is established for your ACA, your Studio and each other Studio in the ACA (whether franchised or owned by us or an affiliate) must contribute up to 2% of Gross Sales to the Cooperative Program weekly. Any amounts you contribute to a Cooperative Program will count toward the $2,500 you are required to spend on local advertising each month. The funds will be used for advertising for customers and/or recruitment of employees in your advertising coverage area and/or your designated market area. In the event of employee recruitment, we will not maintain a database but will forward all applicants to your franchise location website landing page. We will not advise you in any manner on HR-related items.

We have the power to form, change, dissolve, or merge any Cooperative Program. Cooperative Programs will not operate from any written governing documents. However, in the event Studios in the ACA cannot agree, we shall have final control over advertising decisions.

We are responsible for administering the Cooperative Program funds and reserve the right to allocate this task to a third-party advertising agency. We will account for the Cooperative Program funds separately from our other funds and not use the Cooperative Program Funds for our general operating expenses. related to administering or directing the Cooperative Program, including conducting market research; public relations; preparing advertising, promotion, and marketing materials; and collecting and accounting for Cooperative Program contributions. We will make available for your review any records showing payments to and expenses of any Cooperative Program in which you participate in April of each year at your request.

Computer System:

You must obtain and use in your Studio one laptop computer, one printer, and one tablet computer (the "Computer System"). The Computer System will allow you to use web-based software applications, including the customer relationship management and scheduling program, to generate reports on the sales and expenses of the Studio, check in clients, and track progress reports, and currently costs between $1,848-$3,347. You may not use them for any purpose unrelated to your Studio. You may obtain the Computer System from any vendor so long as the Computer System meets our requirements, as set forth in the Operations Manual. You will be solely responsible for the acquisition, operation, maintenance, and upgrading of the Computer System. Neither we, nor any affiliate or third party, is obligated to provide ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades or updates for the Computer System. We currently do not require that you purchase a maintenance, repair, and upgrade or update service contract for the Computer System, but we reserve the right to do so in the future. If we choose to exercise this right in the future, there are no limitations on the cost and frequency of this obligation. The current annual cost of a service contract is about $0. (Franchise Agreement, Section 8.5)

You will purchase, install, and maintain the camera system specified by us, for security as well as quality control and training purposes. The camera system shall be accessible at all times by you and us, via web access. The estimated cost to install the camera system ranges from $594 to $2,039 or more. This cost can vary based on factors like the number of cameras, system complexity, and the size of the studio. (Franchise Agreement, Section 6.10).

We will furnish you with a STRETCHMED® email address that you are required to use. You must use your STRETCHMED® email address on all business correspondence, as we will communicate with you about all franchise-related matters through this account. We reserve the right to change the Computer System at any time. There are no contractual limitations on the frequency and cost of this obligation. We need not reimburse you for any of these costs. We have independent, unlimited access to the information generated by the computer system. We or our affiliates may condition any license of proprietary software to you, or your use of technology that we or our affiliates develop or maintain, on your signing the Software License Agreement or similar document that we or our affiliates prescribe to regulate your use of, and our and your respective rights and responsibilities concerning, the software or technology. We, or our affiliates may charge you a monthly or other fee for any proprietary software or technology that we, or our affiliates license to you and for other maintenance, management, and support services that we, or our affiliates provide during the franchise term. The monthly computer, IT, software, and website management fee is estimated not to exceed $500 per month. Upgrades to either software, websites, or hardware will not exceed $1,000 per year. You will be required to use a web-based software application for Customer Relationship Management and Scheduling, to run your business. We, or a third party may provide this service and you will be charged a reasonable amount for the cost of service in addition to the Computer System and IT Management fees. We will have independent and full electronic access to the information generated and stored and contained in the point of sale or computer system or web-based software application; this information will ensure you are running your Studio properly. There are no contractual limitations on our right to access information about your Franchise Business. You agree that we have the right to retrieve all data and information from your Computer System, as we deem necessary.

You will be required to use QuickBooks Online pursuant to Franchisor's instruction, including but not limited to instructions regarding syncing your QuickBooks Online account or entities, as is required in the Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement, Section 8.1)

ITEM 12: TERRITORY

You will be granted an exclusive Territory within the Franchise Agreement. You will operate the Studio at a specific location within the Territory that we must approve first. You may operate the Studio only at the approved premises and may not relocate the premises without our approval.

We will allow a reasonable relocation of your franchised business to a location within your exclusive Territory. We will consider a relocation to be reasonable if we find that the demographics (as previously discussed in this Agreement) in the current location no longer support the operation of a Studio, or the lease at the current location has been terminated or reached its natural expiration. If we approve your relocation request, we retain the right to approve your new site location in the same manner and under the same terms that are applied to your first site selection.

If you are in compliance with your Franchise Agreement and the Operations Manual, we may consider granting you the right to establish additional franchised outlets in your Territory under further Franchise Agreements. We must approve the locations, which you propose to open additional Studios, but we are under no obligation to grant such approval.

We will describe your Territory in a rider to your Franchise Agreement when you sign it. We will determine the size and boundaries of your Territory in our discretion, based on factors such as population density, character of neighborhood, location and number of competing businesses and other factors. While there is no minimum Territory size, we typically will define a Territory to include a certain number of people (residents and/or workers). Your Territory may be defined by 5-digit ZIP Codes, county or city boundaries, or fixed geographical boundaries such as rivers, streets, or highways, or may be identified by a map. When determining the Territory, we generally use demographic statistics provided by the U.S. Census Bureau.

Except as limited below, and provided that you are in full compliance with the Franchise Agreement, we, and our affiliates will not operate or grant a franchise for the operation of another STRETCHMED® Studio at a location within your Territory during the term of the Franchise Agreement. Except as expressly limited by the previous sentence, we and our affiliates retain all rights with respect to STRETCHMED® Studios, the Marks, the sale of similar or dissimilar products and services, and any other activities we deem appropriate whenever and wherever we desire, including, but not limited to:

1. the right to establish and operate, and to grant to others the right to establish and operate similar businesses or any other businesses offering similar or dissimilar products and services through similar or dissimilar channels of distribution, at any locations inside or outside your Territory under trademarks or service marks other than the STRETCHMED® Marks, and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate;
2. the right to provide, offer and sell and to grant others the right to provide, offer and sell goods and services that are identical or similar to and/or competitive with those provided at STRETCHMED® Studios, whether identified by the Marks or other Trademarks or Service Marks, through dissimilar channels of distribution (including the internet or similar electronic media) both inside and outside your Territory and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate;
3. the right to establish and operate, and to grant to others the right to establish and operate, businesses offering dissimilar products and services, both inside and outside your Territory under the Marks and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate;
4. the right to operate, and to grant others the right to operate STRETCHMED® Studios located anywhere outside your Territory under any terms and conditions we deem appropriate and regardless of proximity to the Studio, even if they compete with your Approved Location for members;
5. the right to operate and grant others the right to operate STRETCHMED® Studios at “non-traditional sites” within and outside your Territory on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate. “Non-traditional sites” are sites that generate customer traffic flow which is independent from the general customer traffic flow of the surrounding area, including military bases, shopping malls, airports, stadiums, major industrial or office complexes, hotels, school campuses, train stations, travel plazas, toll roads, casinos, hospitals, and sports or entertainment venues;

6. the right to acquire the assets or ownership interests of one or more businesses providing products and services similar to those provided at STRETCHMED® Studios, and franchising, licensing or creating similar arrangements with respect to these businesses once acquired, wherever these businesses (or the franchisees or licensees of these businesses) are located or operating (including in your Territory); and
7. the right to be acquired (whether through acquisition of assets, ownership interests or otherwise regardless of the form of transaction), by a business providing products and services similar to those provided at STRETCHMED® Studios, or by another business, even if such business operates, franchises and/or licenses competitive businesses in your Territory.

We are not required to pay you if we exercise any of the rights specified above inside your Territory.

Upon renewal or transfer of a franchise, the Territory may be modified. Depending on the then-current demographics of the Territory, and on our then-current standards for territories, if the Territory is larger than our then-current standard Territory, we may require you or the transferee to accept a renewal Territory or a transfer Territory smaller than the then-current Territory.

You have no options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

Although we and our affiliates have the right to do so (as described above), we and our affiliates have not operated or franchised, and have no plans to operate or franchise, other businesses selling or leasing similar products or services under different trademarks.

Continuation of your franchise or territorial rights does not depend on your achievement of a certain sales volume, market penetration, or other contingency.

We do not restrict you from soliciting or accepting orders from outside your Territory, including using other channels of distribution, such as the Internet or direct marketing. However, you must obtain our written approval of all advertising and media prior to its use. You can accept business from another Territory. You cannot solicit business in a Territory where there is an open Studio occupied by another franchisee.

We may choose, in our sole discretion, to evaluate your Studio for compliance with the System Standards using various methods (including, but not limited to, inspections, field service visits, surveillance camera monitoring, member comments/surveys, and secret shopper reports). You must meet minimum standards for cleanliness, equipment condition, repair and function, and customer service. Your employees, including independent contractors, must meet minimum standards for courteousness and customer service.

Internet Sales/Alternative Channels of Commerce

Any use of social media by you pertaining to the Studio must be conducted in a respectful and professional manner, and not linked to controversial, unethical, immoral, illegal or inappropriate content. At our request, you will promptly modify or remove any online communication pertaining to the Studio that does not comply with the Franchise Agreement or the Operations Manual. You are strictly prohibited from promoting your Franchised Business or using the Proprietary Marks without our prior written approval in any manner on the Internet, including social and networking websites such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram, Pinterest, X, Groupon, TikTok, and/or YouTube.

ITEM 13: TRADEMARKS

We give you the right to use the trademark “STRETCHMED®,” and other trade names, trademarks, service marks, trade dress and logos we currently use or which we may adopt or approve (the “Marks”) in the Licensed Business free of charge as long as you have an active franchise agreement with us. You must follow our rules when you use the marks, which may change from time to time and will be updated in our Operations Manual. You may only use the marks exactly as we specify. You may not use any of the marks in connection with the offer or sale of any unauthorized product or service.

We have exclusive license right to use the name and service mark “STRETCHMED®”. You do not have the right to sublicense or otherwise give any third party permission to use any Mark (or any portion of any Mark). Any such permission must come directly from us. In addition, we have secured federal trademark registrations as follows:

MARK	REGISTRATION NUMBER	REGISTRATION DATE	REGISTER
STRETCH MED	6125552	August 11, 2020	PRINCIPAL
 STRETCHMED®	6172564	October 13, 2020	PRINCIPAL

The Licensed Mark is owned by StretchMed Franchise, LLC. Trevor A. Caudle, Esq. has registered the Licensed Marks listed above on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO"). Required affidavits have been filed in connection with several of the registrations, as well as renewal filings for certain of these registrations.

You will not acquire any proprietary rights in the Licensed Marks by virtue of the license granted to you in the Franchise Agreement or otherwise. All goodwill established by your use of the Licensed Marks will inure to the sole and exclusive benefit of StretchMed Franchise LLC. You agree not to contest at any time either the validity, or StretchMed Franchise LLC’s ownership, of any of the Licensed Marks. Any unauthorized use of the Licensed Marks by you will constitute an infringement of our and StretchMed Franchise LLC’s rights in and to the Licensed Marks.

You must follow our rules when you use the Marks, including giving proper notices of STRETCHMED® and service mark registration and obtaining fictitious or assumed name registrations required by law. You may not use any Mark in your corporate or legal business name; with modifying words, terms, designs, or symbols (except for those we license to you); in selling any unauthorized services or products; or as part of any domain name, homepage, electronic address, or otherwise in connection with a website. "Website" means any part of the Internet (including social media platforms) used as a commercial computer network by the public, and any successor technology, whether now existing or developed after the date of your Franchise Agreement, that enables the public to purchase services or goods by means of electronic commerce.

There are no currently effective material determinations of the USPTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the administrator of any state, or any court, and no pending infringement, opposition, or cancellation proceedings or material litigation, involving the principal Marks and there is no pending material federal or state court litigation regarding our rights in the trademark. We are not aware of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Marks in any state.

You must notify us immediately of any apparent infringement or challenge to your use of any Mark, or of any person's claim of any rights in any Mark, or of any mark that is confusingly similar to our Marks, and you may not communicate with any person other than us, our attorneys, and your attorneys, regarding any infringement, challenge, or claim. We may take the action we deem appropriate (including no action) and control exclusively any litigation, USPTO proceeding, or other administrative proceeding arising from any infringement, challenge, or claim. You must assist us in protecting and maintaining our interests in any litigation or USPTO or other proceeding. We will reimburse you for your costs of taking any action that we ask you to take.

If it becomes advisable at any time for us and/or you to modify or discontinue using any Mark and/or to use one or more additional or substitute trade or service marks, you must comply with our directions within a reasonable time after receiving notice. We need not reimburse you for your direct expenses of changing the Studio's signs, for any loss of revenue due to any modified or discontinued Mark, or for your expenses of promoting a modified or substitute STRETCHMED® or service mark.

We will reimburse you for all damages and expenses that you incur in any STRETCHMED® infringement or unfair competition proceeding disputing your authorized use of any Mark under the Franchise Agreement if you have timely notified us of, and comply with our directions in responding to, the proceeding. At our option, we may defend and control the defense of any proceeding arising from your use of any Mark.

ITEM 14: PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

We do not own any rights in, or licenses to, patents that are material to the franchise. We do not own or claim any rights in any registered copyrights, but we claim copyright protection for the Operations Manual, advertising, and promotional materials, forms and other materials that we produce and give you for your use or for public dissemination, but we have not registered these materials. These materials are proprietary and confidential.

There are no currently effective adverse determinations of the USPTO, the Copyright Office (Library of Congress), or any court regarding the copyrighted materials. There are no agreements in effect that limit our right to use or allow others to use the copyrighted materials. We are not aware of any infringing uses of these materials that could materially affect your use of the materials in any state.

We need not protect or defend copyrights, although we intend to do so if it is in the system's best interests. You must notify us of any known infringements. We may control any action we choose to bring, even if you voluntarily bring the matter to our attention. We need not participate in your defense and/or indemnify you for damages or expenses in a proceeding involving a copyright.

Our Operations Manual and other materials contain our confidential information (some of which constitutes trade secrets under applicable law). This information includes site selection criteria; training and operations materials; methods, formats, specifications, standards, systems, procedures, sales and marketing techniques, knowledge, and experience used in developing and operating STRETCHMED® Studios; marketing and advertising programs for STRETCHMED® Studios; any computer software or similar technology that is proprietary to us or the system; knowledge of specifications for and suppliers of Operating Assets, Trade Secret Products, and other products and supplies; knowledge of the operating results and financial performance of STRETCHMED® Studios other than your Studio; and graphic designs and related intellectual property.

All ideas, concepts, techniques, or materials concerning a STRETCHMED® Studio, whether or not protectable intellectual property and whether created by or for you or your owners or employees, must be promptly disclosed to us and will be deemed to be our sole and exclusive property, part of the system, and works made-for-hire for us. To the extent any item does not qualify as a "work made-for-hire" for us, you assign ownership of that item, and all related rights to that item, to us and must take whatever action (including signing assignment or other documents) we request to show our ownership or to help us obtain intellectual property rights in the item. You may not use our copyright, proprietary and/or confidential information in an unauthorized manner. You must take reasonable steps to prevent improper disclosure to others and use nondisclosure and non-competition agreements with those having access. We may regulate the form of agreement that you use and will be a third-party beneficiary of that agreement with independent enforcement rights. You may use the above materials, in the manner we approve, during the term of your Franchise Agreement. We reserve the right to modify or discontinue your use of these materials if we deem, in our reasonable discretion, that it is in the best interests of STRETCHMED®.

We may revise any of our copyrighted materials in our sole discretion and may require that you cease using any outdated copyrighted material. You will be responsible for printing any revised or new advertising, marketing or other business materials.

ITEM 15: OBLIGATION OF THE FRANCHISEE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

Under the Franchise Agreement, either you or your manager, who has completed the initial Training Program and has been approved by us, is responsible for direct, on-premises supervision of the Studio. We do not place limits on whom you can hire as an on-premises supervisor, nor do we recommend that on-premises supervision is better if done by you; we only require that the on-premises supervisor successfully complete Franchise School and receive our approval.

We have the right to require you (and any member of your immediate family or household), any holder of a legal or beneficial interest in you (if you are a legal entity), and any officer, director, executive, or Designated Manager, as well as any other individuals having access to Trade Secrets or other Confidential Information, to sign nondisclosure and non-competition agreements in a form attached to the Franchise Agreement. We will be a third-party beneficiary with the independent right to enforce the agreements.

Moreover, we also have the right to take and use photographs, audio and/or video of the Franchise Business or testimonials from customers of the Franchise Business for publicity and/or advertising purposes, without charge or compensation to you. The photographs, videos, and/or testimonials are our sole property. You acknowledge that we own all right, title and interest and any other rights, as permitted under applicable law, to these photos, audio and video recordings. You agree that we may use your and your Franchise Owners' names, likeness and voices in promoting the Franchise Businesses and the Business System. You consent and assign to us all right, title and interest to our use of these names, likenesses and voices. You will cooperate with us in obtaining these audio, video, photographs, testimonials, and the consent of any persons included in these materials.

You or your managing owner must devote full time on-premises efforts to the management and supervision of the Studio. You must at all times faithfully, honestly, and diligently perform your contractual obligations and use best efforts to promote and enhance the Studio. System Standards may regulate the Studio's staffing levels; identify the Studio's personnel and employee qualifications, training, dress, and appearance. If you are a legal entity, you must appoint a majority shareholder, member, or partner (as applicable) to be your "Managing Owner," responsible for overseeing and supervising the Studio's operation. Full-time efforts shall be defined as working on premises in a full-time capacity and not being employed elsewhere.

If your managing owner is terminated or leaves his/her employment with you, you must designate a replacement for that person within 30 days after the employment of the previous employee ends. The replacement must be trained to our satisfaction as soon as practicable after hiring, which may require sending the replacement to our training program at your expense.

You must keep us informed at all times of the identity of any supervisory employees acting as managers of the Studio. Your managers need not have an equity interest in the Studio or you. We may regulate the form of agreement that you use and be a third-party beneficiary of that agreement with independent enforcement rights. You and your employees must not disclose our confidential information, except to the extent necessary in order to operate your Studio.

Prior to there being any change in your manager, you must provide us with advance written notice of this change, and we must confirm that your proposed replacement manager meets our then-current standards and requirements, and successfully completes Franchise School training. If your Studio fails to meet or exceed our standards, we may state that your manager no longer meets our standards and requirements and must successfully complete Franchise School again.

If you are a corporation, limited liability company, or partnership, your owner(s) must personally guarantee your obligations under the Franchise Agreement and agree to be bound personally by every contractual provision, whether containing monetary or non-monetary obligations, including the covenant not to compete. This "Guaranty" is included as "Attachment 6" contained in "Attachment 6" of the Franchise Agreement.

ITEM 16: RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must offer and sell all approved items and perform all approved services that we periodically require for STRETCHMED® Studios. You may not offer or sell any products or perform any services that we have not authorized through prior written consent. Our System Standards may regulate required and/or authorized Items and Trade Secret Products; unauthorized and prohibited products, and services; purchase, storage, preparation, handling, and packaging procedures and techniques for Items and Trade Secret Products; and inventory requirements for Trade Secret Products and other products and supplies so that your Studio operates at full capacity. We may periodically change required and/or authorized Items and Trade Secret Products. There are no limits on our right to do so. You must refrain from any deviation from our standards and specifications without our written consent and must discontinue selling and offering for sale any services or products that we disapprove or discontinue. Franchisor has the right to change the types of authorized goods and services, and there are no limits on our right to make changes, or to require you to sell all goods or services which are authorized by us. If we modify the System, you may have to add or replace equipment, signs, and fixtures, and you may have to make improvements or modifications as necessary to maintain uniformity with our current standards and specifications. Furthermore, You must comply with the reciprocity, membership, and transfer programs we implement, as we periodically modify them. We do not generally limit the persons to whom you may sell memberships. However, we can impose minimum age restrictions and other requirements we deem appropriate, either for safety reasons, or to preserve the goodwill of our Marks for the benefit of all franchisees. Also, because our business model is based on the concept of local memberships, we do not allow you to solicit businesses or organizations for the sale of memberships that would enable persons to join your STRETCHMED® Studio when that is not the facility they would principally use.

ITEM 18: PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchise.

ITEM 19: FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC’s Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

BACKGROUND

As of December 31, 2024, there were 31 open and operating StretchMed Studios. The Historical unaudited financial performance representation includes a variety of performance data, including Gross Revenue, Net Profit, and Number of Active Members of Studios. We do not provide any data for company or affiliate-owned Studios. We have utilized different groups measured sharing similar characteristics to show the historical financial performance of the Studios. All the groups measured offer substantially the same products and services to the public. None of the Studios received services that were not generally available to our franchisees, and substantially the same services will be offered to new franchisees.

Explanatory Notes to Item 19 Tables above:

1. The term “Gross Revenue” means the total revenue generated by a Studio in the given time period.
2. The Gross Revenue in the preceding tables were reported to us by each franchise owner, we did not independently audit or verify this information.
3. The Expenses information was reported to us by each franchise owner, we did not independently audit or verify this information.
4. Profit was calculated by subtracting Expenses from Gross Revenue, we did not independently audit or verify this information.
5. The figures contained herein do not account for interest on debt, any tax liability, amortization, or depreciation.
6. For each Calendar Year in the Measurement Period, “Average Year Gross Revenue Reported” was calculated by (a) taking the sum of all Yearly Gross Revenue generated by the franchised studios that completed the Operational Year, and (b) dividing that figure by the number of franchised Studios in that subset.
7. For each Operational Year, the “Median Reported” is determined by (a) taking the middle value reported amongst the franchised studios that were open for that Operational Year if the subset has an odd number of Studios, or (b) taking the average of the two (2) middle reported values from those franchised studios if there is an even number of Studios in the applicable subset.

Written substantiation for the unaudited financial performance representation will be made available to the prospective franchisee upon reasonable request. The Disclosed Studios have sold these amounts. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you’ll sell as much.

The revenues and expense of your Studio will depend on many factors, we suggest you speak to your business advisors and/or current franchise owners regarding the financial aspects of the business. The revenues and expenses of your business will be directly affected by many factors, such as: (a) your Approved Territory’s geographic location and population demographics; (b) advertising effectiveness based on market saturation; (c) whether you operate the business personally or hire a third party to serve as your Designated Manager; (d) your product and service pricing; (e) vendor prices on materials, supplies and inventory; (f) personnel salaries and benefits (life and health insurance, etc.); (g) insurance costs; (h) weather conditions; (i) ability to generate customers; (j) customer loyalty; (k) employment conditions in the market; and (l) the efforts you and your personnel put into your Franchised Business.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, we do not make any representations about a franchisee's future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised outlets, we also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. B. We operate and grant to qualified individuals the right to operate STRETCHMED® franchises using the System.

C. You desire to use the System at a location that you select and we approve (“Studio” or “Territory”). This Agreement does not grant you the right to own or operate additional STRETCHMED® Studios, nor are we required to sell you additional franchises or consent to your purchase of existing franchises.

D. You recognize the benefits to be derived from a license by us to use the System and you understand and acknowledge the importance of the System’s high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance, and service and the necessity of operating the Studio in conformity with the System.

E. You acknowledge that you received our Franchise Disclosure Document, including this Agreement and any exhibits or attachments, at our first personal meeting or at least fourteen (14) days prior to signing the Agreement or making payment to us in connection with the franchise sale, and had sufficient time to review the documents and evaluate the System prior to signing this Agreement or making a payment to us in connection with this sale.

F. You acknowledge that the only representations, warranties and obligations that you should rely upon are those specifically set forth in the Franchise Disclosure Document and this Agreement. You must not rely on, and the parties do not intend to be bound by, any statement or representation not contained herein. You acknowledge that you have read and understand this Agreement, the Attachments hereto, and any agreements relating thereto.

G. You represent that you have conducted an independent investigation of our business and System and recognize that the business venture contemplated by this Agreement involves business risks and you are able to bear such risks. Such risks include, but are not limited to, your ability as a business owner, competition, demographic patterns, consumer trends, economic conditions, and other risks that are not within your or our control and may be difficult to anticipate or identify. You further acknowledge that, at your option, you consulted with an attorney, accountant or professional advisor; or that you are satisfied with using your own personal knowledge, education and experience to evaluate this franchise offering.

H. We expressly disclaim the making of, and you acknowledge that you have not received, any warranty or guarantee, express or implied, as to the potential volume, profits or success of the business contemplated by this Agreement. You acknowledge that no employee, agent, or representative of ours, made any oral, written, or visual representation or projection to you of actual, average, projected or forecasted sales, earnings, profits, or likelihood of success, except as set forth in the Franchise Disclosure Document. You acknowledge that the only actual, average, projected or forecasted sales that you relied upon in making this decision, if any, were those disclosed in the Franchise Disclosure Document.

I. You acknowledge that we will not provide or designate locations for you, we will not provide financial assistance to you, and we have made no representation that we will buy back from you any products, supplies or equipment purchased by you in connection with the Studio, and that you are subject to all federal, state, and local laws pertaining to the franchise business.

J. You acknowledge that you are subject to all federal, state, and local laws pertaining to the franchise business.

AGREEMENT:

In consideration of the foregoing recitals and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby mutually acknowledged, the parties, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. FRANCHISE GRANT:

Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, Franchisor hereby grants to Franchisee, and Franchisee hereby accepts, a franchise license to operate a STRETCHMED® Studio (the "Studio") in conformity with the System at the Location set forth on Attachment 6 to this Agreement (the "Approved Location"). You accept the license to franchise and agree to operate your Studio using the System and agree to use the System, including the Names and Marks, solely in connection therewith.

2. EXCLUSIVE TERRITORY

2.1. Exclusive Territory. The Exclusive Territory shall consist of the map or described area named in Attachment 6 to the Agreement. We will determine the size and boundaries of your Exclusive Territory at our discretion, based on factors such as population density, character of neighborhood, location and number of competing businesses and other factors. While there is no minimum Exclusive Territory size, we typically will define an Exclusive Territory to include a certain number of people (residents and/or workers). Your Exclusive Territory may be defined by 5-digit zip codes, county or city boundaries, or fixed geographical boundaries such as rivers, streets or highways, or may be identified by a map. When determining the Exclusive Territory, we generally use demographic statistics provided by the U.S. Census Bureau.

2.2. Site Selection Criteria and Timeframe. Unless otherwise agreed by us in writing, you must select a franchise location within the Exclusive Territory and receive our approval by the sooner of 180 days from signing this Agreement or 30 days from Franchisor's finding of a suitable location on your behalf (although Franchisor is under no obligation to do so) ("Approved Location"). We will give you our site selection criteria for finding your Approved Location. We will not locate the site, nor negotiate the purchase or lease of the site for you. However, we reserve the right to assist in locating a site for you to develop in a manner we deem appropriate and at our sole discretion. In the event we are able to find a location suitable for development by you, you must develop said location. Neither we, nor any affiliate, owns any premises that will be leased to you or any other franchisee. The site must meet our criteria for demographic characteristics; traffic patterns; availability of parking; character of neighborhood; competition from, proximity to, and nature of other businesses; size (approximately 300-400 square feet for a 1-Table STRETCHMED® Studio; approximately 500-700 square feet for a 2-Table STRETCHMED® Studio; approximately 800-900 square feet for a 3-Table STRETCHMED® Studio; and approximately 1,000-1,200 square feet for a 4-Table STRETCHMED® Studio); appearance; visibility; and other physical and commercial characteristics that we deem appropriate in our criteria. We will approve or disapprove a location you propose within 30 business days after receiving your description of, and evidence confirming your favorable prospects for obtaining, the proposed site. Franchisor's acceptance of a site does not constitute a guarantee by Franchisor that the Studio will be profitable at that site. We will use reasonable efforts to help analyze your market area, to help determine site feasibility, and to assist in designating the Approved Location, although we will not conduct site selection activities for you. You must submit photos of prospective site locations to us, which must meet our approval in order to become your Approved Location. Prior to purchasing or leasing a site, you must submit the sales agreement or lease agreement to Franchisor for approval. Franchisor's acceptance of a site may be contingent upon your lease or sales agreement containing certain provisions pertaining to Franchisor's rights under this Agreement.

Franchisee must use a real estate broker approved or designated by Franchisor for site identification, lease negotiation, and documentation. Franchisor may designate Everest CRE, LLC (or another affiliate) to act as the real estate broker for Franchisee's site selection and leasing activities. Franchisee agrees to fully cooperate with the designated broker during the site selection, negotiation, and lease execution process.

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor and its affiliates, including Everest CRE, LLC, may receive commissions, fees, or other compensation from third parties, including landlords, in connection with services provided to Franchisee, including but not limited to real estate brokerage services. Franchisee waives any conflict of interest arising from such arrangements and acknowledges that any such compensation is separate from Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement.

2.3. Cooperation Required. Franchisee shall cooperate reasonably with Franchisor to ensure that the various actions occur which are necessary to obtain acceptance by Franchisor of the Approved Location, including, but not limited to, adding franchise-specific language to any lease executed by Franchisee, which language shall be provided by Franchisor. Also, Franchisee shall furnish any pertinent information as may be reasonably requested by Franchisor regarding Franchisee's business and finances. We will approve or disapprove your Studio's lease. Approval may be conditioned upon your lease containing certain franchise-specific language, which we will provide to you and a Collateral Assignment of Lease (see Attachment 7).

2.4 Time frame for Opening the Studio. Once you have an Approved Location, you must submit your proposed floor plan to Franchisor for approval. Franchisor will assist Franchisee with the layout and design of the Studio, including location of walls, counters and the location of equipment and fixtures within two weeks following delivery of the floor plan to Franchisor for approval ("Approved Floor Plan"). The costs of leasehold improvements, signs, furniture and fixtures for building out a Studio are the responsibility of the Franchisee.

Franchisee shall complete the construction of the Studio in accordance with System specifications and the Approved Floor Plan provided to Franchisee and shall open the Studio for business within two hundred and seventy (270) days from the date of execution of this Franchise Agreement (the "Opening Date"); provided, however, that Franchisee shall have the right to substitute a different site, if such different site is acceptable to Franchisor, within sixty days (60) days of execution of this Agreement, and, in any case, a lease for the selected site must be signed within one hundred eighty (180) days, of the execution of this agreement.

Provided that the Franchisee has made full and complete application for all building permits, licenses, and all other permits required to open a STRETCHMED® Studio, within sixty (60) days of the execution date of this Agreement, Franchisor may agree to grant up to three (3) thirty (30) day extensions to obtain all necessary permits if the delay was due to causes beyond the reasonable control of Franchisee, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld. Franchisee must submit documentation of the status of the application(s) ten (10) days prior to the date of each thirty (30) day extension requested. Upon the grant of such extension(s) by Franchisor, the Opening Date will be commensurately extended.

Should the Franchisee be unable to obtain all necessary permits and licenses during the stated period and extension time period or periods as a result of causes beyond the reasonable control of Franchisee (unless the requirement for the issuance of such permits and licenses is waived in writing by Franchisor), or fail to secure a premises and sign a lease within 180 days or 30 days from Franchisor's finding of a suitable location on your behalf, this Agreement shall be deemed terminated upon written notice from either Franchisee or Franchisor to the other, without the necessity of further action by either party or further documentation. Upon such termination, the Franchisor shall retain One Hundred Percent (100%) of the Franchise Fee as a Termination Fee.

During the term of this Agreement, the Approved Location shall be used exclusively for the purpose of operating a franchised STRETCHMED® Studio. In the event the building shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, or be required to be repaired or reconstructed by any governmental authority, Franchisee shall commence the required repair or reconstruction of the building within ninety (90) days from the date of such casualty or notice of such governmental requirement (or such lesser period as shall be designated by such governmental requirement) and shall complete all required repair or reconstruction as soon as possible thereafter, in continuity, but in no event later than one hundred eighty (180) days from the date of such casualty or requirement of such governmental notice. The minimum acceptable appearance for the restored building will be that which existed just prior to the casualty; however, every effort should be made to have the restored building include the then-current system specifications of STRETCHMED®. If the building is substantially destroyed by fire or other casualty, Franchisee may, with Franchisor's agreement and upon payment of an amount equal to twenty five percent (25%) of all insurance proceeds as a consequence of such casualty to the Franchisor as a service fee, terminate this Agreement in lieu of Franchisee's reconstructing the building.

It is understood and agreed that, except as expressly provided herein, this franchise is non-exclusive and includes no right of Franchisee to sub franchise.

You may not open the Studio until: (1) we notify you in writing that the Studio meets our standards and specifications (you must send pictures, which will need to meet our approval before opening); (2) you complete pre-opening training to our satisfaction; (3) you pay the initial franchise fee and other amounts then due us; and (4) you give us certificates for all required insurance policies; and (5) you have scheduled at least two hundred fifty (250) Free Intro Stretches. Subject to these conditions, you must open the Studio within 270 days after the Franchise Agreement's effective date. (Franchise Agreement – Section 2.5).

Franchisee shall not relocate the Approved Location without the express prior written consent of Franchisor. We will allow a reasonable relocation of your franchised business to a location within your Exclusive Territory. We will consider a relocation to be reasonable if we find that the demographics in the current location no longer support the operation of a Studio, or the lease at the current location has been terminated or reached its natural expiration.

If you are in compliance with your Franchise Agreement and the Operations Manual, we may consider granting you the right to establish additional franchised outlets in your Exclusive Territory under further Franchise Agreements. We must approve the locations which you propose to open additional Studios, but we are under no obligation to grant such approval.

2.5 Our Rights Within Your Exclusive Territory. Except as limited below, and provided that you are in full compliance with the Franchise Agreement, we and our affiliates will not operate or grant a franchise for the operation of another STRETCHMED® Studio at a location within your Exclusive Territory during the term of the Franchise Agreement. Except as expressly limited by the previous sentence, we and our affiliates retain all rights with respect to STRETCHMED® Studios, the Marks, the System, the sale of similar or dissimilar products and services, and any other activities we deem appropriate whenever and wherever we desire, including, but not limited to:

- a. the right to establish and operate, and to grant to others the right to establish and operate similar businesses or any other businesses offering similar or dissimilar products and services through similar or dissimilar channels of distribution, at any locations inside or outside your Exclusive Territory under trademarks or service marks other than the STRETCHMED® Marks and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate;
- b. the right to provide, offer and sell and to grant others the right to provide, offer and sell goods and services that are identical or similar to and/or competitive with those provided at STRETCHMED® Studios, whether identified by the Marks or other Trademarks or Service Marks, through dissimilar channels of distribution (including grocery stores and the internet or similar electronic media) both inside and outside your Exclusive Territory and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate;
- c. the right to establish and operate, and to grant to others the right to establish and operate, businesses offering dissimilar products and services, both inside and outside your Exclusive Territory under the Marks and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate;
- d. the right to operate, and to grant others the right to operate STRETCHMED® Studios located anywhere outside your Exclusive Territory, under any terms and conditions we deem appropriate, regardless of proximity to your Approved Location, even if they compete with your Approved Location for members;
- e. the right to operate and grant others the right to STRETCHMED® Studios at “non-traditional sites” within and outside your Exclusive Territory on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate. “Non-traditional sites” are sites that generate customer traffic flow which is independent from the general customer traffic flow of the surrounding area, including military bases, shopping malls, airports, stadiums, major industrial or office complexes, hotels, school campuses, train stations, travel plazas, toll roads, casinos, hospitals, and sports or entertainment venues;

- f. the right to acquire the assets or ownership interests of one or more businesses providing products and services similar to those provided at STRETCHMED® Studios, and franchising, licensing or creating similar arrangements with respect to these businesses once acquired, wherever these businesses (or the franchisees or licensees of these businesses) are located or operating (including in your Exclusive Territory); and
- g. the right to be acquired (whether through acquisition of assets, ownership interests or otherwise regardless of the form of transaction), by a business providing products and services similar to those provided at STRETCHMED® Studios, or by another business, even if such business operates, franchises and/or licenses competitive businesses in your Exclusive Territory.

We are not required to pay you if we exercise any of the rights specified above inside your Exclusive Territory.

Upon renewal or transfer of a franchise, the Exclusive Territory may be modified. Depending on the then-current demographics of the Exclusive Territory, and on our then-current standards for territories, if the Exclusive Territory is larger than our then-current standard Exclusive Territory, we may require you or the transferee to accept a renewal Exclusive Territory or a transfer Exclusive Territory smaller than the then-current Exclusive Exclusive Territory.

You have no options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

Although we and our affiliates have the right to do so (as described above), we and our affiliates have not operated or franchised, and have no plans to operate or franchise, other businesses selling or leasing similar products or services under different trademarks.

Continuation of your franchise or territorial rights does not depend on your achievement of a certain sales volume, market penetration, or other contingency.

We do not restrict you from soliciting or accepting orders from outside your Exclusive Territory, including using other channels of distribution, such as the Internet or direct marketing. However, you must obtain our written approval of all advertising and media prior to its use. You can accept business from another Exclusive Territory. You cannot solicit business in an Exclusive Territory where there is an open Studio occupied by another franchisee.

3. TERM AND RENEWAL OF AGREEMENT

3.1 Initial Term. The term of this Agreement shall be for ten (10) years from the date of execution and acceptance by Franchisor of this Agreement (the “Effective Date”), subject to earlier termination as herein provided.

3.2 Renewal. Franchisee may, at its option, renew this Franchise for two (2) additional periods of five (5) years (“Renewal Periods”), provided all of the following conditions are met for each respective Renewal Period:

- a. Franchisor is still offering franchises at the time of each Renewal Period;
- b. Franchisee shall give the Franchisor written notice of its election to renew no less than six (6) months' notice or more than nine (9) months' notice prior to the end of the then current term;
- c. Franchisee must not be in default under any provision of the Agreement, any amendment hereof or successor hereto, or any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee, and Franchisee shall have complied with all the terms and conditions of all such agreements during the terms thereof;
- d. Franchisee shall complete to Franchisor's satisfaction such maintenance and renovation of the Studio as Franchisor may reasonably require in writing in order to reflect the then-current standards associated with the System, including, without limitation, signage, equipment, furnishings, décor, etc.;
- e. Franchisee shall have satisfied all monetary obligations owed by Franchisee to Franchisor and its affiliate, and shall have timely met these obligations throughout the previous term;
- f. Franchisee shall execute, before the renewal term, the Franchisor's then-current form of Agreement, which agreement shall supersede this Agreement in all respects, and the terms of which may differ from the terms of this Agreement, including higher fees and a modification of your Territory. Franchisor shall charge Franchisee a renewal fee of 50% of the then-current franchise fee for us to consult you in a manner we deem appropriate and at our sole discretion, in identifying a new Territory to open in, site selection, lease negotiation, updated studio design, floor plan and or architectural renderings, construction management, updated marketing strategy, graphic design, social media, website landing page development, advertising and public relations, to update a single studio under a franchise agreement. This payment is fully earned by us and due in lump sum when you sign the Franchise Agreement. The Renewal Franchise Fee is not refundable under any circumstance; Franchisee must also sign a release (if law allows) which shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, and other documents we use to grant franchises
- g. Franchisee and its employees shall successfully complete Franchisor's then-current qualification and training requirements;
- h. Franchisee delivers reasonable evidence demonstrating that Franchisee has the right to remain in possession of the Approved Location during the Renewal Period; and
- i. Franchisee must execute a general release, in a form prescribed by Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor and its affiliate, and their respective officers, directors, agents and employees, if such release is not in conflict with any local, state or federal laws.

3.3 Franchisor's Refusal to Renew Franchisee. If the franchisee does not complete any of the foregoing renewal conditions or is in default of this agreement or any other agreement with Franchisor or its affiliates, Franchisor may refuse to renew this franchise agreement. In the event of non-renewal of the Franchise Agreement, the Franchisor shall have the absolute right to buy all the studio assets of the Franchisee valued at fair market at the time of acquisition. The Franchisor shall exercise said right within thirty (30) days upon notice to the Franchisee of its refusal to renew the franchise agreement.

3.4 Notice of Expiration Required By Law. If Franchisor does not give required notice prior to the expiration of the initial term, then this Agreement shall remain in effect on a month-to-month basis until Franchisee has received such required notice.

4. FRANCHISEE'S INITIAL INVESTMENT

The Franchisee's initial investment will vary depending upon the size of the Studio, its geographical location, leasehold improvements required, the number of Studios selected by the Franchisee, and other factors.

Franchisee hereby certifies that he or she has reviewed the estimated start-up costs detailed in the Franchise Disclosure Document and has sufficient cash resources available to meet said expenses. These start-up costs are in addition to the franchise fee.

5. FRANCHISEE'S INITIAL AND ONGOING FEES

5.1 Initial Franchise Fee. By executing this Agreement, Franchisee agrees to become a Franchisee and pay an initial franchise fee in the amount of Forty-Nine Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($49,500) for a STRETCHMED® Franchise ("the "Initial Franchise Fee"), which is due upon signing of this Agreement and receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by Franchisor.

The Initial Franchise Fee shall be paid in a lump sum in U.S. funds and shall be deemed fully earned and nonrefundable in consideration of administrative and other expenses incurred by Franchisor in granting this franchise and for Franchisor's lost or deferred opportunity to franchise others, except as described above in Section 3(e), and for us to consult with you in a manner we deem appropriate and at our sole discretion, in identifying a Territory to open in, site selection, construction management, pre-opening marketing strategy, graphic design, social media, website landing page development, advertising and public relations, establish a single studio under a franchise agreement. However, if we determine that you (or your managing owner) cannot satisfactorily complete initial training, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement and keep ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars of the initial franchise fee. We will return the remaining thirty thousand ($30,000.00) dollars if you sign our Confidentiality Agreement, and General release, releasing us from any further responsibility under the franchise agreement.

5.2 Base Service Fees. In addition to the Initial Franchise Fee described in Section 5.1 above, the following recurring or isolated payments are required to be made by the Franchisee.

The Franchisee pays to Franchisor a Base Service Fee of Six Percent (6%) on total Gross Sales of the Franchised Business.

As used in this Agreement, "Gross Sales" shall include all revenue accrued from the sale of all products and performance of services in, at, upon, about, through or from the Studio, whether for cash or credit and regardless of collection in the case of credit, and income of every kind and nature related to the Studio including insurance proceeds and/or condemnation awards for loss of sales, profits or business; provided, however, that "Gross Sales" shall not include revenues from any sales taxes or other add on taxes collected from customers by Franchisee for transmittal to the appropriate taxing authority, (the retail value of any complimentary services or trade-outs from Gross Sales up to a maximum of 2% of Gross Sales in the aggregate), and the amount of cash refunds to, and coupons used by, customers provided such amounts have been included in gross sales. The sale and delivery of products and services away from the Studio is by written approval of Franchisor only. Should Franchisor approve such sales in writing; these sales will be included in computing Gross Sales.

The Service Fee is uniform as to all persons currently acquiring a Franchise, nonrefundable, and is not collected on behalf of nor paid to any third party. The Service Fee shall be payable by the Franchisee and actually available to the Franchisor when due. The Service Fee shall be due at any time within three (3) business days after the close of the business week.

Further, You and we acknowledge and agree that the Service Fee represents compensation paid by you to us for the guidance and assistance we provide and for the use of our Names and Marks, Confidential Information (as defined herein), know-how, and other intellectual property we allow you to use under the terms of this Agreement. The Service Fee does not represent payment for the referral of customers to you, and you acknowledge and agree that the services we offer to you and our other STRETCHMED® franchisees do not include the referral of customers.

For any interruption in the operation of your business (except for an interruption due to a remodel or refurbish of the business), you must continue to pay us, during such period of interruption, continuing Service fees based on the average monthly Service fees paid by you during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the period of interruption. However, if (a) this interruption is due to force majeure, (b) you have obtained the insurance coverage we require or reasonably recommend, and (c) you properly and timely submit all applicable insurance claims, the Service fees payable to us during this period of interruption will be based on the insurance payments, if any, you receive. Your insurance must also cover identity theft and theft of personal information, including the costs of notifying members whose information has been compromised.

5.3 Electronic Depository Transfer Account. Before a Studio opens, Franchisee must sign and deliver to Franchisor the "ACH Checking Account Deduction Document" or "ACH" (see Exhibit E) required to authorize the Franchisor to debit the Franchisee's business checking account (the "Electronic Depository Transfer Account" or "EDTA") automatically for the Service Fee payments and other fees when due to franchisor. Franchisor will debit the EDTA for the Service Fee and other fees on the applicable due date. Franchisor will debit the EDTA up to Five hundred dollars ($500.00) plus any applicable attorney fees for each notice of default we send to you for violations of the Franchise Agreement. Funds must be available in the EDTA for withdrawal. The Franchisor may require payment other than by automatic debit, and the Franchisee must comply with such payment instructions.

Any payment or report not actually received by, or available to, Franchisor on or before the specified date shall be deemed overdue. If any payment is overdue, in addition to the right to exercise all rights and remedies available to Franchisor under this Agreement, Franchisee shall pay Franchisor, in addition to the overdue amount, interest on such amount, from the date it was due until paid, at the lesser of the rate of eighteen (18%) percent per annum and the maximum rate allowed by the laws of the State in which Franchisee's business is located or any successor or substitute law (hereinafter the "Default Rate"), until paid in full. There is a Seventy-five-dollar ($75.00) charge per occurrence if you have insufficient funds in your ACH to cover a payment, or if you pay by check, the check is returned for insufficient funds. We reserve the right to require you to pay an administrative fee of $50 for each late payment or late report in connection with payment of all amounts due under your Franchise Agreement.

5.4 Advertising and Development Fund. We have established a formal Advertising and Development Fund (the "Fund") for advertising, marketing, and public relations programs and materials we deem appropriate. You must contribute to the Fund in amounts that we periodically require, which is currently up to 2% of weekly gross sales (See Item 6). We, STRETCHMED®, LLC, or our other affiliates that own STRETCHMED® locations will contribute to the Fund on the same basis as franchisees. We have the right to collect, for deposit into the Fund, any advertising, marketing, or similar allowances paid to us by suppliers who deal with STRETCHMED® Studios and with whom we have agreed that we will deposit these allowances.

We will direct all programs that the Fund finances, with sole control over the creative concepts, materials, and endorsements used and their geographic, market, and media placement and allocation. We reserve the option of using an in-house advertising department and/or a national or regional advertising or creative agency. The Fund may pay for preparing and producing video, audio, and written materials and electronic media; developing, implementing, and maintaining an electronic commerce Website and/or related internet and social media strategies; administering regional and multi-regional marketing and advertising programs, including purchasing trade journal, direct mail, and other media advertising; using advertising, promotion, and marketing agencies and other advisors to provide assistance; and supporting public relations, market research, and other advertising, promotion, job posting platforms such as Indeed.com, and marketing activities to attract STRETCHMED® customers and employees. In the event of employee recruitment, we will not maintain a database but will forward all applicants to your franchise location website landing page. We will not advise you in any manner on HR-related items. The Fund may advertise locally, regionally, and/or nationally in printed materials, on radio, television, on the Internet, and/or by any other media sources as we see fit in our sole discretion. The Fund periodically will give you samples of advertising, marketing, and promotional formats and materials at no cost. We will sell you multiple copies of these materials at our direct cost of producing them, plus any related shipping, handling, and storage charges.

We will account for the Fund separately from our other funds and not use the Fund for our general operating expenses. However, in our sole discretion, we may charge the fund a management fee and use the Fund to pay the reasonable salaries and benefits of personnel who manage and/or administer the Fund, the Fund's other administrative costs, travel expenses of personnel while they are on Fund business, meeting costs, overhead relating to Fund business, and other expenses that we incur in activities reasonably related to administering or directing the Fund and its programs, including conducting market research; public relations; preparing advertising, promotion, and marketing materials; and collecting and accounting for Fund contributions. We are currently managing the Fund but reserve the right to allocate this task to a third party. We currently charge the fund a five thousand ($5,000) dollar per month management fee.

The Fund is not our asset. The Fund also is not a trust. We have a contractual obligation to hold all Fund contributions for the benefit of the contributors and to use contributions only for their permitted purposes (described above). We have no fiduciary obligation to you for administering the Fund. The Fund may spend in any fiscal year more or less than the total Fund contributions in that year, borrow from us or others (paying reasonable interest) to cover deficits, or invest any surplus for future use. If not all of the advertising funds are spent in the year they accrue, we will carry the balance over into the next year. We will use interest earned on Fund contributions to pay costs before spending the Fund's other assets. We will not use Fund contributions for advertising that principally is a solicitation for the sale of franchises. We will prepare an annual, unaudited statement of Fund collections and expenses and give it to you upon written request in April of each year. We may have the Fund audited annually, at the Fund's expense, by an independent certified public accountant. We may incorporate the Fund or operate it through a separate entity when we think best. The successor entity will have all of the rights and duties described here.

The Fund is intended to maximize recognition of the Marks and patronage of STRETCHMED® Studios by employees and customers. Although we will try to use the Fund to develop advertising and marketing materials and programs that will benefit all STRETCHMED® Studios, we need not ensure that Fund expenditures in or affecting any geographic area are proportionate or equivalent to Fund contributions by STRETCHMED® Studios operating in that geographic area or that any STRETCHMED® Studio benefits directly or in proportion to its Fund contributions from the development of advertising and marketing materials or the placement of advertising. We may use collection agents and institute legal proceedings to collect Fund contributions at the Fund's expense. We also may forgive, waive, settle, and compromise all claims by or against the Fund. We assume no other direct or indirect liability or obligation to you for collecting amounts due to, maintaining, directing, or administering the Fund. The Fund materials may mention "Career & Franchise Opportunities Available", and brief statements about availability of information regarding the purchase of a STRETCHMED® franchise.

We may at any time defer or reduce a franchisee's Fund contributions and, upon 30 days' prior written notice to you, reduce or suspend Fund contributions and operations for one or more periods of any length and terminate (and, if terminated, reinstate) the Fund. If we terminate the Fund, we will distribute all unspent monies to franchisees, and to us and our affiliates, in proportion to their, and our, respective Fund contributions during the preceding 12-month period. We do not currently have a franchisee advisory council or advertising council that advises us on advertising policies.

5.5 Local Advertising Plan and Expenditures. In addition to your Fund contributions and your grand opening advertising obligation, you must spend at least two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) each month to advertise and promote your Studio. We may require you to increase your monthly local marketing spend up to $5,000 if your Studio has not achieved 80% utilization. Utilization is defined as all tables fully booked from 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM, seven (7) days a week. Once 80% utilization is achieved and maintain it for 90 days, you may reduce your local marketing spend to $1,500 per month. If utilization later falls below this threshold, we may again require increased marketing expenditures. Within 30 days after the end of each month, you must send us, in the manner we prescribe, an accounting of your expenditures for local advertising and promotion during the preceding month. Your local advertising and promotion must follow our guidelines, which may change from time to time and use our approved suppliers. All advertising and promotional materials developed for your Studio must contain notices of our Website's domain name in the manner we designate. You may not develop, maintain, or authorize any Website or any web-related or mobile web material that mentions or describes you or the Studio or displays any of the Marks.

Each franchise location is required to have a photo and video shoot at their Studio no less than one (1) every six (6) months. Each Franchisee is required to provide a minimum of twelve (12) photos, three (3) customer video testimonials, one (1) employee video testimonial, and twelve (12) video reels per quarter. The cost of the photo and video shoot is approximately $3,000. The photo and video shoot must be done in accordance with the system laid out in the Operations Manual.

All advertising, promotion, and marketing must be completely clear, factual, and not misleading, and must conform to both the highest standards of ethical advertising and marketing and the advertising and marketing policies that we periodically require. You will be charged $250 per day when you post promotions on daily deal sites in violation of the terms of this Franchise Agreement. This fee will be assessed until You demonstrate the promotion is completely removed, including from any search engines.

5.6 Cooperative Advertising Programs. We may designate an advertising coverage area (“ACA”) – local or regional – in your designated market area (“DMA”) in which two or more STRETCHMED® Studios are located, in order to seek to establish a cooperative advertising program (“Cooperative Program”). An ACA is the area covered by the particular advertising medium recognized in the industry. DMA is a recognized marketing medium by Arbitron. We will require all franchisees in the ACA to participate. Each STRETCHMED® Studio operating in the ACA will have one vote, including each Studio we or our affiliates operate.

If a Cooperative Program is established for your ACA, your Studio and each other Studio in the ACA (whether franchised or owned by us or an affiliate) must contribute up to 2% of Gross Sales to the Cooperative Program weekly. Any amounts you contribute to a Cooperative Program will count toward the $2,500 you are required to spend on local advertising each month. The funds will be used for advertising for customers and/or recruitment of employees and recruitment in your advertising coverage area and/or your designated market area. In the event of employee recruitment, we will not maintain a database but will forward all applicants to your franchise location website landing page. We will not advise you in any manner on HR-related items.

We have the power to form, change, dissolve, or merge any Cooperative Program. Cooperative Programs will not operate from any written governing documents. However, in the event Studios in the ACA cannot agree, we shall have final control over advertising decisions.

We are responsible for administering the Cooperative Program funds and reserve the right to allocate this task to a third-party advertising agency. We will account for the Cooperative Program funds separately from our other funds and not use the Cooperative Program Funds for our general operating expenses. However, in our sole discretion, we may charge a management fee and use the Cooperative Program funds to pay the reasonable salaries and benefits of personnel who manage and/or administer Cooperative Program, the Cooperative Program Fund’s other administrative costs, travel expenses of personnel while they are on Cooperative Program Fund business, meeting costs, overhead relating to Cooperative Program business, and other expenses that we incur in activities reasonably related to administering or directing the Cooperative Program, including conducting market research; public relations; preparing advertising, promotion, and marketing materials; and collecting and accounting for Cooperative Program contributions. We assume no other direct or indirect liability or obligation to you for collecting amounts due to, maintaining, directing, or administering the Cooperative Program Funds. We will make available for your review any records showing payments to and expenses of any Cooperative Program in which you participate. We currently charge the fund a zero dollar ($0) per month management fee.

We do not currently have a franchisee advisory council or advertising council that advises us on advertising policies.

5.7 Mandatory Annual Convention. You must attend an annual meeting for all franchisees at a date, time and location we designate; we will not require attendance at the annual meeting for any more than 4 calendar days of the Annual Convention scheduled dates per year. We reserve the right to require your managers to attend and/or any of your Therapists.

5.8 Customer Relationship Management and Scheduling Program. You must install and use the customer relationship management and scheduling program that we require. We or a third party may provide this service and you will be charged a reasonable amount for the cost of service in addition to the Computer System and IT Management fees. We will collect the monthly fee from you on behalf of the third party. We will have full access to the information stored and contained in this web-based software application; this information will ensure you are running your Studio properly. 5.9 Computer Systems and IT Management. We or a third party may charge you a fee for any proprietary software or technology that we, our affiliates or a third-party license to you and for other maintenance, management and support services that we or a third party might provide in the future. Then-current fee, which is currently $200/mo for maintenance and management services, and $1,000 per year for upgrades.

5.10 Credit Card Processing Fee. You shall pay to Franchisor a 3% credit card processing fee for any payments made by you to Franchisor and/or any purchases made by you from Franchisor.

5.11 Sales Development Representative (SDR). We or a third party vendor may charge you a fee to cover the cost of an SDR vendor which will not exceed $1,200 per month. The Sales Development Representative (“SDR”) shall be responsible for identifying potential customers, initiating contact, assessing and qualifying leads, and scheduling appointments with qualified prospects. The SDR shall also be responsible for Customer Relationship Management (“CRM”) activities, including, but not limited to, logging lead-related activities, tracking interactions with prospective clients, and ensuring that all records are accurately maintained and kept current within the Company’s CRM system.

5.12 Studio Manager Training. Your Studio Manager is required to participate in a training program, which is estimated not to exceed $400mo, from an independent third party until your Studio reaches the minimum monthly sales level per studio model over a single entire quarter.

We or an approved supplier will charge you a CST Certification Fee amounting to $495 per therapist payable to us or an approved supplier before the start of the program to be held at our corporate headquarters in Puerto Rico or at any place designated by us. All staff stretching in any STRETCHMED® location, pop-up, or event, must be trained on the STRETCHMED® protocols, as well as have a degree, license, or certification in an exercise science related field. This includes managers. Training up a new stretch therapist to be proficient with the various protocols we use should take between 2 to 4 weeks.

In the event the designated manager will not stretch and/or is not qualified to be a CST, you must have an additional full-time staff member, who is qualified to be a CST, to attend the Training Program at our corporate headquarters in Puerto Rico or any other location we designate. We reserve the right to modify the CST Certification Fee upon 30 days' prior written notice.

5.14 Music Licensing. We may require that this amount be paid to our then-current Approved Supplier, which may be us or our affiliate, that determines to handle and manage these licenses for System franchises.

5.15 LOI and Lease Review Fee. We, or an approved third-party vendor, will review the Letter of Intent (LOI), lease agreement, and any related documents pertaining to your proposed studio site, including but not limited to any assignment, sublease, or transfer agreements. Approval of these associated agreements is expressly contingent upon the inclusion of specific provisions required by the Franchisor. We currently charge $1,500 for review of associated documents per proposed studio site.

5.16 CAD Design and Virtual Rendering Fee. After you send us completed pre-construction forms and “as-built” drawings of the existing premises to be developed as your studio, we will prepare and send you a design plan for your studio that includes a floor plan, flooring specifications, ceiling specifications and renderings (including location of walls, retail displays, fixtures and equipment) (a “Studio Design”).

Upon invoice, you must pay the Franchisor a non-refundable studio design fee in the amount of: (a) $1,000 for the Studio Design of your studio or for the Studio Design of your new studio in case of relocation; or (b) $500 if the Franchisor requires you to refurbish an existing studio. You must submit the final construction plans to us for approval. The limited purpose of our review is to verify the plans are consistent with our Studio Design and system standards. We do not review them for compliance with applicable Laws. We may require that you obtain our approval of your architect.

- k. - l. Not to install or permit to be installed on or about the Studio premises, without Franchisor's prior written consent, any fixtures, furnishings, signs, equipment, or other improvements not previously approved by Franchisor.

- n. Not engage in any trade practice or other activity or sell any product or literature which Franchisor has not expressly approved.

If you in any way compromise the secure access to the online version of our Operations Manual, proprietary training videos including but not limited to allowing unauthorized users to access this material, you will be required to pay us liquidated damages in the amount of $10,000.

6.2. Operate Franchise Business Only. Franchisee shall use the System and the Names and Marks provided to Franchisee by Franchisor for the operation of the Studio and shall not use them in connection with any other line of business or any other activity. Neither Franchisee, nor any of its employees, may conduct any business at the Studio or in connection therewith, including representing STRETCHMED® at outside events or activities, other than that authorized pursuant to this Agreement, without the prior written approval of Franchisor. Neither Franchisee, nor any of its employees, may conduct any activity at the Studio or in connection therewith which is illegal, or which could result in damage to the System or the reputation and goodwill of Franchisor.

6.3. Comply With Laws. Franchisee shall comply with all federal, state and local laws and regulations. Franchisee shall obtain and at all times maintain any and all permits, certificates, or licenses necessary for full and proper operation of the Studio franchised under this Agreement. Franchisor's standards may exceed any and all of the requirements of said laws.

6.4. Maintain Confidentiality of Proprietary Information. Neither Franchisee nor any of its partners, officers, directors, agents, or employees shall, except as required in the performance of the duties contemplated by this Agreement, disclose or use at any time, whether during the terms of this Agreement or thereafter, any information disclosed to or known by Franchisee or any such person as a result of this Agreement. Such information includes, but shall not be limited to, information conceived, originated, discovered, or developed by Franchisee or by any employee of Franchisee which is not generally known in the trade or industry about Franchisor's products, services, or licenses, including information relating to discoveries, ideas, manufacturing, purchasing, accounting, engineering, marketing, merchandising, selling or the System.

6.5. Maintain and Renovate Business. Franchisee shall at all times maintain the Studio in a clean, orderly condition and in first class repair and condition in accordance with all maintenance and operating standards set forth in the Manual or otherwise. Franchisee shall make, at Franchisee's expense, all additions, repairs, replacements improvements and alterations that may be deemed necessary by Franchisor so that the facilities, which are viewed by the public, will conform to the System's image, as may be prescribed by Franchisor from time to time. Franchisee shall undertake and complete such additions, repairs, replacements, improvements and alterations within the time and under the terms and conditions, which may be reasonably specified by Franchisor.

At Franchisor's request, which shall not be more often than once every three (3) years, Franchisee shall refurbish the entire Studio at its own expense, to conform to the building design, trade dress, color schemes, and presentation of Trademarks and service marks consistent with the Trademarks designated image, including, without limitation, remodeling, redecoration, and modifications to existing improvements, so as to conform to the then-current System.

If, after we notify you, you do not undertake efforts to correct deficiencies in the Studio's appearance, then we can undertake the repairs and you must reimburse us.

6.6. Maintain Competent Staff. Franchisor will create and make available to Franchisee and its employees training programs and other selected training materials as Franchisor deems appropriate. Franchisor, at its discretion, may make training programs and other training materials mandatory. Additional training programs may include, but not be limited to, webinars, video conference calls and in-person meetings that may be performed weekly, monthly, quarterly and annually, at a location we designate at our sole discretion Franchisee shall maintain a fully trained competent staff capable of rendering courteous quality service in a manner in keeping with the System set by Franchisor. Franchisor shall be permitted to charge a reasonable fee for any training made available or mandatory to Franchisee and its employees (see Item 6). Training at our designated location may mean our corporate office or another location that we designate that can accommodate the training program and all participants.

6.7. Open Studio Within Time Limit. Within one hundred eighty (180) days after execution of this Agreement, Franchisee must sign a lease for a Studio location. We will approve or disapprove your Studio's lease. Approval may be conditioned upon your lease containing certain franchise-specific language, which we will provide to you and a Collateral Assignment of Lease (see Attachment 7). Franchisee shall have obtained Franchisor's approval to open and shall have opened the Studio within nine (9) months of Execution of this Agreement. Time is of the essence. Franchisor's acceptance of a site does not constitute a guarantee by Franchisor that the Studio will be profitable at that site. Prior to opening, Franchisee shall complete to Franchisor's satisfaction all preparations of the Studio, in accordance with the System, and as required by local governmental agencies, including the installation of fixtures, furnishings, and equipment and the acquisition of supplies and inventory.

6.8. Operate Studio in Strict Conformity to Requirements. Franchisee shall operate the Studio in strict conformity with such standards, techniques, and procedures as Franchisor may from time to time prescribe in the Operations Manual, which contains mandatory and suggested specifications, standards, operating procedures, and rules "System Standards", or otherwise in writing, and shall not deviate there from without Franchisor's prior written consent. Franchisee further agrees to offer its customers all products and services, which Franchisor may, from time to time, prescribe. Franchisee may offer its customers only those products and services, which Franchisor has expressly approved in writing to be offered in connection with the Studio's operations, and to discontinue offering any products or services which Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, disapprove in writing at any time.

To the extent System Standards, or other resources in the Manuals, address personnel or employment matters, those are not mandatory but are merely recommendations, suggestions or guidelines. System Standards do not include any mandatory requirements on your employee's wages, working conditions, hours, staffing levels, shift timing or other terms of employment, but may specify uniforms and appearance to meet brand standards.

6.9. Use Approved Supplies and Products.

- i. Franchisee shall sell, serve, or otherwise dispense, only STRETCHMED® items and related products which have been approved for sale by Franchisor. The proprietary products listed in the operations manual are developed by Franchisor. The retail goods, which include bags, water bottles, t-shirts, etc., are a special product using the Names and Marks for STRETCHMED®. The "Proprietary Products" and "Retail Goods" developed by Franchisor are the only products and retail goods approved for use by Franchisee. The "Proprietary Products" and "Retail Goods" must be purchased by the Franchisee directly from Franchisor, unless Franchisor makes other arrangements, which shall be given to Franchisee in writing, such as an approved supplier that may purchase the products from the Franchisor and resell them to the Franchisee or may sell the products to Franchisee directly.
- ii. To ensure the consistent high quality and uniformity of products sold by STRETCHMED® Studios, Franchisee shall purchase all equipment, inventory, and other supplies, products, and materials used in the operation of the Studio as Franchisor may specify from time to time, solely from suppliers who demonstrate to Franchisor's continuing satisfaction an ability to meet Franchisor's standards and specifications. In approving any supplier, Franchisor may consider factors such as the supplier's financial strength, quality control, consistency with products sold by approved suppliers, scalability, and capacity to supply Franchisee's needs promptly and reliably. All suppliers must be expressly approved in writing by Franchisor and not thereafter disapproved. Franchisor shall have the right to require, as a condition of its approval and review, that its representatives be permitted to inspect the facilities of any proposed supplier and that the proposed item be delivered to Franchisor or its designee for testing. The cost of such inspection and testing shall be paid by Franchisee or supplier, and Franchisor shall not be liable for damage to or for the return of any sample. Franchisor reserves the right to re-inspect the facilities and to retest the product of any approved supplier and to revoke any approval if the supplier fails to continue to meet Franchisor's high standards.

- iii. Franchisor reserves the right to require Franchisee to purchase designated proprietary items and products, and products bearing the Names and Marks, as specified in the Operations Manual from time to time, from Franchisor or its related or affiliated entities or from sources designated or approved by Franchisor, to the extent permitted by law.
- iv. If you fail to make any payment when due to an approved supplier, or if we (in our reasonable discretion) determine that it is the most efficient method to remit payment to any supplier, We may also act as a pass-through for remitting payments to approved suppliers that we designate, in which case we would collect your supplier payments and remit payment to the approved supplier. We will not collect payments subject to a bona fide dispute, provided that you notify us of the dispute at least seven (7) days prior to the date of collection, or, if later, five (5) Business Days after you are informed of our collection. You hereby acknowledge that approved suppliers may regularly share your account information with us and you agree to facilitate your suppliers' sharing of information with us. We may request or direct your suppliers not to perform certain services or supply certain products if the requested products or services would violate our Operation Manual or applicable law.
- v. Under limited, infrequent, emergency circumstances, we may purchase items on your behalf and you will be required to reimburse us for such purchases, provided that (i) such items are purchased on behalf of all similarly situated StretchMed Studio, including those owned by our Affiliates and us, and (ii) we determine that such purchase is reasonably necessary both in light of the current emergency and for you to operate the Studio.

We may periodically change required and/or authorized Items and Trade Secret Products. There are no limits on our right to do so. Furthermore, You must comply with the reciprocity, membership, and transfer programs we implement, as we periodically modify them. We do not generally limit the persons to whom you may sell memberships. However, we can impose minimum age restrictions and other requirements we deem appropriate, either for safety reasons, or to preserve the goodwill of our Marks for the benefit of all franchisees. Also, because our business model is based on the concept of local memberships, we do not allow you to solicit businesses or organizations for the sale of memberships that would enable persons to join your STRETCHMED® Studio when that is not the facility they would principally use.

6.10. Use Approved Equipment. In operating the Studio, Franchisee shall install equipment, signs, furnishings, supplies and fixtures in accordance with the System set by Franchisor, as delineated in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing, and may be changed over time by Franchisor.

- i. You will purchase, install and maintain the camera system specified by us, for security as well as quality control and training purposes. The camera system shall be accessible at all times by you and us, via web access. The estimated cost to install the camera system ranges from $594 to $2,039 or more. This cost can vary based on factors like the number of cameras, system complexity, and the size of the studio. (Franchise Agreement, Section 6.10).
- ii. You will purchase, install and maintain the phone recording system specified by us, for quality control and training purposes. The phone recording system shall be accessible at all times by you and us, via web access.

6.11. Full-Time Manager Required. Franchisee agree to maintain a competent, conscientious, trained staff, including one (1) fully trained, full-time Manager, and to take such steps as are necessary to ensure that its employees preserve good customer relations and follow Franchisor's System. If you are a legal entity, you must appoint a majority shareholder, member, or partner (as applicable) to be your "Managing Owner," responsible for overseeing and supervising the Studio's operation.

Under the Franchise Agreement, either you or your managing owner, who has completed Franchise School and been approved by us, is responsible for direct, on-premises supervision of the Studio. As the owner, you must devote full time efforts to the management and supervision of the Studio. You must at all times faithfully, honestly, and diligently perform your contractual obligations and use best efforts to promote and enhance the Studio. Full time efforts shall be defined as working on premises in a full-time capacity and not being employed elsewhere.

You may hire an on-premises supervisor to act as Manager of the Studio to assist you with the everyday operation of the Studio. We do not place limits on whom you can hire as an on-premises supervisor, nor do we recommend that on-premises supervision is better if done by you; we only require that the on-premises supervisor successfully complete Franchise School and receive our approval. Please be advised that even if you choose to hire an on-premises supervisor, as owner you must still devote full time efforts to the management and supervision of the Studio. If you hire a manager to be your on-premises supervisor, he/she must sign a Confidentiality & Non-Disclosure Agreement, and a Non-Compete Agreement, that are subject to state law, attached as Exhibit G and Attachment 9, respectively.

You must keep us informed at all times of the identity of any supervisory employees acting as managers of the Studio. Your managers need not have an equity interest in the Studio or you, but all employees must sign non-competition and confidentiality covenants (attached as Attachment 9). We may regulate the form of agreement that you use and be a third-party beneficiary of that agreement with independent enforcement rights. You and your employees must not disclose our confidential information, except to the extent necessary in order to operate your Studio.

Prior to there being any change in your manager, you must provide us with advance written notice of this change, and we must confirm that your proposed replacement manager meets our then-current standards and requirements, and successfully completes Franchise School training. If your Studio fails to meet or exceed our standards, we may state that your manager no longer meets our standards and requirements and must successfully complete Franchise School again.

6.12. Use Approved Signs. Franchisee shall purchase or lease, subject to local building codes and regulations, such Franchisor approved signs, so as to provide maximum displays of the Names and Marks of Franchisor. Franchisee acknowledges that such approved signs may be altered by Franchisor throughout the term of this Agreement, and Franchisee shall be required to update, at its sole cost and expense, its signage, so as to comply with the then-current System. The color, size, design and location of said signs shall be as specified and/or approved by Franchisor. Franchisee shall not place additional signs, posters or other décor items in, on or about the Approved Location without the prior written consent of Franchisor.

6.13. Use Approved Uniforms. Franchisee shall require its employees to wear uniforms while working at the Studio and such uniforms shall be of such design and color as Franchisor may prescribe from time to time, as set forth in the Operations Manual.

6.14. Maintain Regular Business Hours. Franchisee shall keep the Studio open and in normal operation, in accordance with the Operations Manual. Such minimum hours and days of operation may be changed as Franchisor may from time to time specify in the Operations Manual.

6.15. Maintain Uniform Operating Standards. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that every detail of the design and operation of the Studio is important to Franchisee, Franchisor and other franchisees in order to develop and maintain uniform operating standards, to increase brand recognition and the demand for the products and services sold by the Studio under the System, and to protect Franchisor's reputation and goodwill. Franchisee acknowledges that it will not deviate from the System, including operating standards, without Franchisor's written approval.

In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of Franchisor and STRETCHMED®, and to maintain high standards of operation under Franchisor's Proprietary Marks, Franchisee shall conduct its business in accordance with this Agreement and Operations Manual and Training and/or Checklist Manuals and/or Videos, described herein as the "Manuals" (one copy of which Franchisee shall acknowledge in writing upon receipt has been received on loan from Franchisor, or is available to Franchisee via the web-based application, for the term of this Agreement), other written directives which Franchisor may issue to Franchisee from time to time, whether or not such directives are made part of the Manuals, and any other manuals, videos, and materials created or approved for use in the operation of the Studio by Franchisor, from time to time.

Franchisee shall at all times treat the Manuals, any written directives of Franchisor, any business plans and specifications, and any other manuals created for or approved for use in the operation of the Studio, and any supplements thereto, and the information contained therein, in trust and as confidential information, and shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential. Franchisee shall not at any time copy, duplicate, record, distribute, or otherwise reproduce the foregoing materials, in whole or in part, nor otherwise make the same available to any unauthorized person.

The Manuals, written directives, other manuals and materials, and any other confidential communications provided or approved by Franchisor, shall at all times remain the sole property of Franchisor and shall at all times be kept and maintained in a secure place on the Studio premises.

Franchisor may from time to time revise the contents of the Manuals and the contents of any other manuals and materials created or approved for use in the operation of the Studio, and Franchisee expressly agrees that each new or changed standard shall be deemed effective upon receipt by Franchisee or posting of the change on the web-based application, or as specified in such standard.

Franchisee shall at all times ensure that its copy of the Manuals is kept current and up to date; and, in the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Manuals, the master copy of the Manuals maintained by Franchisor at Franchisor's headquarters shall be controlling.

Any suggestions Franchisee may have concerning the improvement of products, equipment, uniforms, business facilities, service format and advertising are encouraged and shall be considered by Franchisor when adopting or modifying the standards, specifications and procedures for the System.

6.16. No Vending Machines Without Franchisor Approval. Jukeboxes, games of chance, video games, newspaper racks, children's rides, telephone booths, and cigarette, gum, candy, hand drying machines or other vending machines may not be installed in or at the Studio without the express written consent of Franchisor, and only then, in such manner as prescribed by Franchisor for all of its Franchisees.

6.17. Telephone Number of Business. Franchisee understands and agrees that the telephone number(s) for the Studio constitute a part of the System and is subject to the restrictions of this Agreement. Accordingly, Franchisee shall not change the telephone number(s) for the Studio without prior notice and written approval by Franchisor. Franchisee shall advertise and publicize the telephone number(s) for the Studio in the manner prescribed by Franchisor.

6.18. Disclose Discoveries and Ideas to Franchisor. Franchisee shall promptly disclose to Franchisor all discoveries, inventions or ideas, whether patentable or not, relating to Franchisor's business, which are conceived or made by Franchisee or any partner, officer, director, agent, or employee of Franchisee solely or jointly with others, during the term of this Agreement, whether or not Franchisor's facilities, materials, or personnel are utilized in the conception or making of such discoveries or ideas. Franchisee hereby acknowledges and agrees that all such discoveries, inventions or ideas are the exclusive property of Franchisor, and that Franchisor shall have no obligation to Franchisee with respect thereto. The purpose of this clause is to ensure that ideas for improvements to the System that may be generated by franchisees within the System will be distributed to the other franchisees as a benefit of belonging to the System.

All ideas, concepts, techniques, or materials concerning a STRETCHMED® Studio, whether or not protectable intellectual property and whether created by or for you or your owners or employees, must be promptly disclosed to us and will be deemed to be our sole and exclusive property, part of the system, and works made-for-hire for us. To the extent any item does not qualify as a “work made-for-hire” for us, you assign ownership of that item, and all related rights to that item, to us and must take whatever action (including signing assignment or other documents) we request to show our ownership or to help us obtain intellectual property rights in the item. You may not use our copyright, proprietary and/or confidential information in an unauthorized manner. You must take reasonable steps to prevent improper disclosure to others and use nondisclosure and non-competition agreements with those having access. We may regulate the form of agreement that you use and will be a third-party beneficiary of that agreement with independent enforcement rights. In the event Franchisee fails or refuses to correct immediately any deficiency detected during such inspection, Franchisor shall have the right to make or cause to be made such changes as may be required, at the expense of Franchisee, which expense Franchisee agrees to pay upon demand. Franchisee shall not make any binding commitment to a prospective vendor or lessor of real estate with respect to the Approved Location for the Studio unless such Approved Location has been approved by Franchisor, which approval shall be contingent upon the lease or sales agreement containing certain provisions ("Lease Contingencies") regarding Franchisor's rights, including but not limited to, (a) thirty (30) days prior written notice of any default there under specifying such default and the right (but with no obligation) of Franchisor to cure any such default within said period, and (b) approval of the Franchisor as an assignee of Franchisee's interest there under. The Lease Contingencies shall be provided to Franchisee in writing during the Site Selection process.

FRANCHISEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT FRANCHISOR'S ACCEPTANCE OF A PROSPECTIVE SITE AND THE RENDERING OF ASSISTANCE IN THE SELECTION OF

A SITE DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A REPRESENTATION, PROMISE, WARRANTY, OR GUARANTEE BY FRANCHISOR THAT A STRETCHMED® STUDIO OPERATED AT THAT SITE WILL BE PROFITABLE OR OTHERWISE SUCCESSFUL.

Before commencing the construction of the Studio, Franchisee, at its expense, shall comply, to Franchisor's satisfaction, with all of the following requirements:

- i. Franchisee shall submit a site plan to Franchisor, including a footprint of the proposed building, and architectural, and signage drawings for approval by Franchisor. 6.22. Training. Training will occur after you sign the Franchise Agreement and while you are developing the Studio. These training classes will be held at our Corporate Headquarters in San Juan, PR, virtually, or any location we designate. We or an approved supplier will train you (or your managing owner) at our expense, before the Studio opens. Additional people beyond the first two (2) may attend initial training if you pay our then-current training charge for each additional person (See Item 6). Initial training is defined as training received prior to the Studio opening. In the event of a Studio transfer, we will offer training to one (1) new owner at our expense. If you require additional/future employees to attend initial training, you must pay our then current training charge for each additional person (See Item 6). Franchisee shall give Franchisor notice of new employees, who shall receive training within a reasonable amount of time at the discretion of Franchisor. You must also pay for all travel and living expenses that you and your employees incur and for your employees' wages and workers' compensation insurance while they train.

We or an approved supplier will provide about one (1) week of training (although the specific number of days depends on our opinion of your experience and needs and may be broken down at the sole discretion of STRETCHMED®) online, at our corporate headquarters, virtually, or another location we designate and/or at an operating STRETCHMED® Studio. If you (or your managing owner) or one of your manager-level employees cannot complete initial training to our satisfaction, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

Franchisee must have one fully trained, full-time Manager operating the Studio during the entire term of the Agreement unless Franchisee is acting as full-time Manager. Both the Franchisee and Franchisee's Manager must attend the training sessions. Any person subsequently employed, as a full-time manager of the Studio shall be required by Franchisor to complete the initial training program at Franchisee's expense. Satisfactory completion of all mandatory training sessions is required. Failure to do so shall result in a breach of this Agreement.

Franchisor may, at any time, discontinue Franchise School and/or decline to certify Franchisee and/or Franchisee's designated individual(s) who fail to demonstrate an understanding of the management training acceptable to Franchisor. If Franchisee or Franchisee's designated individual's Franchise School is discontinued by Franchisor, Franchisee shall have thirty (30) days to present an alternative acceptable candidate for Franchise School to Franchisor. If Franchisee's new candidate does not adequately complete Franchise School, then Franchisor has the option of terminating this Agreement. Franchisor shall provide instructors and training materials for all required training programs; and Franchisee or its employees shall be responsible for all other expenses incurred by Franchisee or its employees in connection with any training programs, including, without limitation, the cost of transportation, lodging, meals, wages and training videos.

Franchisor may, at its sole discretion, or an approved supplier provide mandatory additional training programs, seminars, as well as refresher courses to Franchisee and/or Franchisee's designated individual(s) from time to time, for which Franchisor or an approved supplier shall be permitted to charge a fee. Additional training programs may include, but not be limited to, webinars and in-person meetings that may be performed weekly, monthly, quarterly and annually.

Franchisor offers training at its designated location and currently charges $400 per day plus expenses, and $100 to $300 per webinar session. (See Item 6)

Franchisee will promptly file and publish, in all states and counties in which Franchisee does business, a certificate of doing business under an assumed or fictitious name. Franchisee will indicate in each certificate that it is doing business as "STRETCHMED®" under a Franchise from Franchisor. Franchisee will furnish a certified copy of each certificate to Franchisor promptly after its filing.

6.24. Customer Service Non-Compliance Fee. You will be charged up to $1,000 per incident if you fail to timely resolve customer service disputes after receiving notice of dispute such that Franchisor finds it necessary to intervene.

6.25. Relocation. Franchisee may not relocate the Studio from the Approved Location without Franchisor's prior written approval, which Franchisor may provide in its sole discretion. Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that: (i) it must pay Franchisor a $5,000 relocation fee at the time Franchisee makes any relocation request; and (ii) Franchisor is not likely to approve any relocation request unless (a) due to extreme circumstances that are beyond Franchisee's control, and (b) Franchisee is in full compliance with this Agreement.

6.26. Miscellaneous. Franchisee shall give Franchisor advance written notice of Franchisee's intent to institute legal action against Franchisor, specifying the basis for such proposed action, and shall grant Franchisor thirty (30) days from receipt of said notice to cure the alleged act upon which such legal action is to be based.

We reserve the right to change the Computer System at any time. There are no contractual limitations on the frequency and cost of this obligation. We need not reimburse you for any of these costs. We have independent, unlimited access to the information generated by the computer system. We or our affiliates may condition any license of proprietary software to you, or your use of technology that we or our affiliates develop or maintain, on your signing the Software License Agreement or similar document that we or our affiliates prescribe to regulate your use of, and our and your respective rights and responsibilities concerning, the software or technology. 10.2. Franchisee's Employees Will Not Disclose Proprietary Information. The Franchisee may disclose Proprietary Information only to such of its employees, agents and representatives, as must have access to it in order to operate the Studio. Franchisee shall obtain from each such employee, representative or agent, an agreement that such person shall not during the course of his employment, representation, or agency with Franchisee, or anytime thereafter, use, divulge, disclose or communicate, directly or indirectly, in any form or manner, to any person, firm or corporation, any of the Proprietary Information of Franchisor.

10.3. Injunctive Relief is Available to Franchisor. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Section 10 by Franchisee or its employees will cause Franchisor irreparable injury, and Franchisor shall be entitled to obtain specific performance of, or an injunction against any violation of, such requirements; Franchisee waives any requirements for the posting of any bond(s) relating thereto. Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against, violation of requirements of this Section 10. The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to any other legal or equitable remedies, which Franchisor may have.

10.4. Franchisor's Patent Rights and Copyrights. Franchisor does not own rights in or to any patents that are material to the Franchise. However, Franchisor intends to obtain copyright protection for the Operations Manual and certain marketing, sales, and operations literature. Furthermore, Franchisor claims rights to certain trade secrets and confidential information as discussed above.

11. SPECIFIC OBLIGATIONS OF FRANCHISEE RELATING TO TAXES,

PERMITS AND LAWSUITS

11.1. Franchisee Must Notify Franchisor of Lawsuits. Franchisee shall notify Franchisor in writing within five (5) days of notice of the commencement of any action, suit, or proceeding against Franchisee, and of the issuance of any inquiry, subpoena, order, writ, injunction, award or decree of any court, agency, or other governmental instrumentality, which arises out of, concerns, or may affect the operation or financial condition of the Studio, including, without limitation, any criminal action or proceedings brought by Franchisee against its employees, customers, or other persons.

11.2. Franchisee Must Comply With Laws. Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, comply with all federal, state, and local laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances. Franchisee shall timely obtain and keep in force throughout the term of this Agreement all permits, certificates, and licenses necessary for the full and proper conduct of the Studio, including, without limitation, any required permits, business licenses, fictitious name registrations, sales tax permits, fire clearances, and any specific state-mandated bonds required for accepting pre-payments from clients or customers.

11.3. Franchisee Must Pay Taxes Promptly. Franchisee shall promptly pay when due all taxes levied or assessed, including, without limitation, unemployment and sales taxes, and all accounts and other indebtedness of any kind incurred by Franchisee in the conduct of the Studio. Franchisee shall pay Franchisor an amount equal to any sales tax, gross receipts tax or similar tax imposed on Franchisor with respect to any payments to Franchisor required under this Agreement, unless tax is credited against income tax otherwise payable by Franchisor.

11.4. Franchisee May Contest Tax Assessments. In the event of any bona fide dispute as to any liability for taxes assessed or other indebtedness, Franchisee may contest the validity or the amount of the tax or indebtedness in accordance with procedures of the taxing authority or applicable law. However, in no event shall Franchisee permit a tax sale or seizure by levy of execution or similar writ or warrant, or attachment by a creditor to occur against the premises of the Studio, or any improvements thereon.

13. MISCELLANEOUS COVENANTS OF FRANCHISEE

13.1. Covenants are Independent. The parties agree that each covenant herein shall be construed to be independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Agreement is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by a court or agency having competent jurisdiction in any final decision to which Franchisor is a party, Franchisee expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resultant covenant was separately stated in, and made a part of, this Agreement.

13.2. Franchisee Will Not Compete Against Franchisor. Franchisee specifically acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee will receive valuable specialized training and confidential information, including, without limitation, information regarding the operational, sales, promotional and marketing methods and techniques of Franchisor and the System. Subject to state law, all of Franchisee's employees must sign a Confidentiality & Non-Disclosure Agreement, and a Non-Compete Agreement attached as Exhibit G and Attachment 9, respectively. Further, Franchisee covenants that, during the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee shall not, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with, any person, persons, or legal entity, employ or seek to employ any person who is at that time employed by Franchisor or by any other STRETCHMED® franchisee or affiliate of Franchisor, or otherwise directly or indirectly induce such person to leave his or her employment.

Franchisee covenants that, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee shall not, during the term of this Agreement and for a continuous uninterrupted period commencing upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause for termination, and continuing for two (2) years thereafter, either directly or indirectly for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with, any person, persons, or legal entity, own, maintain, operate, engage in, be employed by, or have any interest in any stretching center, fitness center, health club, personal training Studio, or any other business concepts that compete with STRETCHMED® at the Studio location, within a eight (8) mile radius of the Studio location designated hereunder, or within a eight (8) mile radius of any other STRETCHMED® Studio in existence, under construction or planned as of the time of termination or expiration of this Agreement, as identified in the Franchise Disclosure Document of STRETCHMED® in effect as of the date of expiration or termination of this Agreement.

The above provisions include, but are not limited to:

1. Directly or indirectly competing with Franchisor, including starting any new business in competition with Franchisor or STRETCHMED®;
2. Assisting in starting any new business in competition with Franchisor or STRETCHMED®;
3. Assisting in any way, including but not limited to acting as an employee or franchisee, in any existing Competing Business which is in competition with Franchisor or STRETCHMED®;
4. Assisting any existing competing business in the design, development or enhancement of any existing competing business by adding or incorporating any methods, practices, designs, concepts, configurations, techniques, or principles that were utilized by Franchisor or STRETCHMED®. ‘Competing Business’ shall be defined herein as any business involved in the sale or servicing of same or similar products sold by Franchisor or STRETCHMED® Studios.
5. Soliciting franchisees or clients from Franchisor or any STRETCHMED® Studio, including but not limited to, soliciting or engaging in any activities outside of a STRETCHMED® Studio with STRETCHMED® clients.
6. Subject to state law, Franchisee must undertake legal action to enforce the non-compete agreement against all of Franchisee's employees who are in breach of the non-compete agreement. In the event of a Studio transfer, the new Franchisee must undertake legal action to enforce the non-compete agreement the former Franchisee signs at the sale if the former Franchisee is in breach of the non-compete agreement.

In the event an employee is uncertain as to the meaning of any provision of this section or its application to any particular information, item, or activity, Franchisee will inquire in writing to Franchisor, specifying any areas of uncertainty. Franchisor will respond in writing within a reasonable time, and will endeavor to clarify any areas of uncertainty, including such matters as whether it considers particular information to be in violation of this Agreement, and will explain any provision of this Agreement.

The obligations of the parties under this Agreement are unconditional and do not depend upon the performance of an agreement, duties, obligations, or outside this Agreement. Franchisor reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to limit the scope of any covenants in this Section 13.

13.3. Exception to Covenant Not to Compete. Section 13.2 hereof shall not apply to ownership by Franchisee of less than a five percent (5%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any Publicly Held Corporation.

13.4. Franchisee Will Not Divert Business. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of two (2) years following the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Franchisee covenants that it will not, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, or legal entity:

- i. Divert or attempt to divert business or customers of the Studio or any other STRETCHMED® Studio to any competitor by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise; or
- ii. Do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Names and Marks or the System or both; or
- iii. Induce, directly or indirectly, any person who is at that time employed by Franchisor or by any other Franchisee of Franchisor, to leave his or her employment.

13.5. Franchisor Is Entitled to Injunctive Relief. Franchisee acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Section 13 will cause Franchisor irreparable injury for which no adequate remedy at law is available and Franchisee hereby accordingly consents to the issuance by a court of competent jurisdiction of an injunction as specified in section 19.6, prohibiting any conduct by Franchisee in violation of the terms of this Section 13 and waives any requirement for the posting of any bond(s) relating thereto. Franchisor may further avail itself of any legal or equitable rights and remedies which it may have under the Agreement or otherwise.

13.6. Covenants Are Enforceable Independent of Claims. Franchisee expressly agrees that the existence of any claim it may have against Franchisor, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Franchisor of the covenants of this Section 13. Franchisee further agrees that Franchisor shall be entitled to set off any amounts owed by Franchisor to Franchisee against any loss or damage to Franchisor resulting from Franchisee's breach of this Section 13.

13.7. No Right of Set-Off. Franchisee expressly agrees that the existence of any claims it may have against Franchisor, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Franchisor of the covenants in this Section 13. Franchisee agrees to pay all damages, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) incurred by Franchisor in connection with the enforcement of this Section 13.

13.8. Spousal Consent. Franchisee's spouse, or if Franchisee is a legal entity, each owner's spouse, personally and unconditionally guarantees without notice, demand, or presentment the payment of all of the Franchisee's monetary obligations under this Agreement as if each spouse were an original party to this Agreement in his or her individual capacity. All such spouses further agree to be bound by the restrictions upon Franchisee's activities upon transfer, termination or expiration of this Agreement as if each were an original party to this Agreement in his or her individual capacity. All such spouses must execute a spousal consent in the form attached hereto as Attachment 8. In the event of a divorce and remarriage, or subsequent marriage, Franchisee, or if Franchisee is a legal entity, its owners, covenant and agree to provide Franchisor with a properly executed spousal consent, in the form prescribed by Franchisor.

I have read and understand Article 13 and agree to comply with its Sections.

14. OBLIGATIONS OF THE FRANCHISOR: SUPERVISION, ASSISTANCE OR SERVICES

The Franchisor shall provide the Franchisee with the following assistance and services:

14.1. The Training Program

- i. The Franchisor will provide an initial training program concerning the operation of the Studio consisting of approximately twenty-six (26) hours of training delivered at our Corporate HQ in San Juan, Puerto Rico, virtually, or any location we designate. Initial training is defined as training received prior to the Studio opening to the public. Training is generally offered during the first full week of every month if Franchisor elects to offer it in person. The exact days will be selected by Franchisor at the Franchisor's discretion. Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is a Corporation or LLC or partnership, a principal of Franchisee) and one (1) management personnel of Franchisee shall attend such training program at no charge to the Franchisee, if completed prior to Studio opening. If you require additional/future employees to attend initial training you must pay our then current training charge for each additional person. Franchisee shall be responsible for any travel, lodging, meal or other costs for the attendee(s) of the training program at the Franchisor's Home Office, or at such other location designated by Franchisor. In the event of a Studio transfer, we will offer training of one (1) new owner at our expense. Franchisee must have one fully trained, full-time Manager operating the Studio during the entire term of the Agreement unless Franchisee is acting as full-time Manager. Both the Franchisee and Franchisee's Manager must attend the training sessions. Any person subsequently employed, as a full-time manager of the Studio shall be required by Franchisor to complete the initial training program at Franchisee's expense. Satisfactory completion of all mandatory training sessions is required. Failure to do so shall result in a breach of this Agreement.
- ii. Franchisor shall provide such continuing advisory assistance to Franchisee in the operation, advertising and promotion of the Studio, as Franchisor deems advisable. Franchisor shall also provide refresher-training programs for Franchisee and to Franchisee's employees, as Franchisor deems appropriate. Franchisor shall be permitted to charge a reasonable fee for such continuing assistance, which is currently $100 - $300 per 1-2 hour webinar session, $400 per day plus expenses for training received at our location, or a location we designate, and $600 per day plus travel expenses for training at your Studio. Additional training programs may include, but not be limited to, video conference, teleconference, webinars and in-person meetings that may be performed weekly, monthly, quarterly and annually.

- iii. The Franchisor may conduct additional seminars or other training programs for the benefit of the Franchisee. Franchisor reserves the right to make such additional seminars or other training mandatory for owners and managers. Additional training programs may include, but not be limited to, webinars and in-person meetings that may be performed weekly, monthly, quarterly and annually. Franchisor may charge a reasonable fee for such a seminar or program if it is deemed appropriate. Such fee shall be due and payable at the outset of the training, seminar, or program. Any and all traveling, living and other expenses incurred by anyone attending training shall be paid by Franchisee.
- iv. Franchisee may make a reasonable request for training in addition to that specified above, and Franchisor shall provide such training, at Franchisee's expense, including without limitation, any travel, lodging, meals and other related costs.
- v. Franchisee shall complete and/or shall cause its employees to complete, to Franchisor's satisfaction, such other additional training as Franchisor may reasonably require from time to time.
- vi. Franchisor may provide such periodic individual or group advice, consultation and assistance, rendered by personal visit or telephone, or by newsletter or bulletins made available from time to time to all STRETCHMED® franchisees, as Franchisor may deem necessary or appropriate.
- vii. Franchisor may, at its discretion, send one representative to your Studio after you open in order to provide operational support and additional training, evaluate the Studio, evaluate Franchisee and Franchisee's employees, and provide feedback.

14.2. Approved Suppliers. You must operate the Studio according to our System Standards. System Standards, as outlined in this agreement and other confidential materials, may regulate, among other things: the types, models, and brands of fixtures, furniture, equipment, furnishings, and signs (collectively, "Operating Assets"); products, supplies and services you must use in operating the Studio; unauthorized and prohibited products, and services you must not use; inventory requirements; and designated and approved suppliers of Operating Assets, Trade Secret Products and other products, supplies and services.

In the case of Trade Secret Products, suppliers will be limited to us, our affiliates or other specified exclusive sources, and you must buy Trade Secret Products during the franchise term only from us, our affiliates or the other specified exclusive sources at the prices we and they decide to charge. We restrict your sources of Trade Secret Products in order to protect our trade secrets, assure quality, assure a reliable supply of products that meet our standards, achieve better terms of purchase and delivery service, control usage of the Names and Marks by third parties, and monitor the manufacture, packaging, processing, and sale of these items.

In the case of Operating Assets and items other than Trade Secret Products, suppliers could, at our option, be limited to us, our affiliates or other specified exclusive sources, in which case you would have to buy the Operating Assets and other items only from us, our affiliates or the other specified exclusive sources at the prices we or they decided to charge. We have the absolute right to limit the suppliers with whom you may deal.

We will identify all designated and approved suppliers in the Operations Manual or other written communications. You currently must buy all of Stretching Equipment, tables, business cards, stationary, misc. handouts, uniforms/apparel, promotional products, build out materials, advertising and marketing material, office furniture and supplies, Studio furniture and décor, and your Customer Relationship Management and Scheduling program from designated suppliers. You must also purchase specific products, e.g., the Computer System (see Item 11), without reference to specific suppliers. Any purchases from us and our affiliates, whether required or voluntary, may be at prices exceeding our costs. We may also purchase items in bulk and resell them to you at our cost plus a reasonable markup.

Under emergency circumstances, we may purchase items for you that we determine are necessary for you to operate your business. You must reimburse us for these purchases.

If you fail to make any payment when due to a designated supplier, or if we (in our reasonable discretion) determine that it is the most efficient method to remit payment to any supplier, we may act as a pass through by collecting payments (past due, current and future) for the specific product or service and remitting those payments to the supplier, who ultimately provides the product or the service to you. Products and services for which we may act as a pass through may include equipment, fixtures, goods, merchandise, inventory, marketing campaigns or materials, lending services, computer hardware and software, supplies, uniforms and other categories of products and services that you may purchase from designated suppliers. Although we do not currently do so, we and our affiliates may receive commissions or other consideration for acting as a pass through between you and any supplier.

If you want to use any item or service that we have not yet evaluated or to buy or lease from a supplier that we have not yet approved or designated, you must first send us sufficient information, specifications, and samples so that we can determine whether the item or service complies with System Standards, or the supplier meets approved supplier criteria. We may charge you or the supplier our then-current fee in the amount of $500/day plus any travel, accommodations, and meal expenses incurred for each personnel who shall evaluate and determine within a reasonable time (generally no more than 30 days) whether or not the supplier is approved. We periodically will establish procedures for your requests and may limit the number of approved items, services or suppliers, as we think best.

Supplier approval might depend on product quality, delivery frequency and reliability, service standards, financial capability, customer relations, concentration of purchases with limited number of suppliers to obtain better prices and service, scalability in the franchise system, and/or a supplier's willingness to pay us or our affiliates for the right to do business with our system. Supplier approval might be temporary until we evaluate the supplier in more detail and our approval may be revoked at any time. We may inspect a proposed supplier's facilities during and after the approval process to make sure that the supplier meets our standards. If it does not, we may revoke our approval by notifying the supplier and you in writing. We have no obligation to approve any request for a new supplier, product, or service.

14.3. Set Price Schedules. Franchisor shall set all prices for services, memberships, goods, products and the like, offered or sold at all STRETCHMED® Studios. Franchisor and Franchisee agree that any list or schedule of prices furnished to Franchisee by Franchisor is a set list of retail prices and that no prices for any such services, memberships, goods and products sold or offered at any STRETCHMED® Studio can deviate from said list or schedule, unless state law permits franchisee to do so.

14.4. Advertising and Promotion. The Franchisor shall develop and provide creative materials for local and regional advertising and make such advertising materials available to its Franchisees for publication or distribution in the Franchisee's market area at Franchisee's own expense. The Franchisor may be reimbursed for the creative and production costs for such items as billboard design, radio and video production, public relations campaigns, copy for newspaper, magazine advertisements, flyers and other promotional material. The Franchisor shall provide specific guidelines for advertising initiated by individual Franchisees and shall reserve the right to disapprove any advertising, which, in the Franchisor's opinion, is not in accordance with these guidelines. However, no approval shall be unreasonably withheld or denied. Immediately upon notification to do so, Franchisee shall discontinue any advertising that would, in the Franchisor's opinion, be detrimental.

14.5. Miscellaneous Obligations or Assistance.

- i. Franchisor may provide Franchisee, from time to time, as Franchisor deems appropriate, such merchandising, marketing and other data and advice as may from time to time be developed by Franchisor and deemed by Franchisor to be helpful in the managing and operation of the Studio.
- ii. Franchisor may, from time to time, provide to Franchisee, at Franchisee's expense, such advertising and promotional plans and materials for local advertising as described in Section 5.5 of this Agreement and may direct the discontinuance of such plans and materials, from time to time. All other advertising and promotional materials, which Franchisee proposes to use, must be reviewed and approved by Franchisor, pursuant to Section 5.5 hereof.
- iii. Franchisor may provide such bulletins, brochures, manuals and reports, if any, as may from time to time be published by or on behalf of Franchisor regarding its plans, policies, developments and activities. In addition, Franchisor may provide such communication concerning new developments; techniques and improvements, which Franchisor feels are relevant to the operation of the Studio.

- iv. Franchisor shall loan you one copy of the Operations Manual, the current table of contents of which is in Exhibit E of the Franchise Disclosure Document, or give you access to our internal document sharing website to access the Operations Manual. If we agree to provide a hard copy of the Operations Manual and any part of the Operations Manual becomes lost or damaged, you must obtain a replacement copy from us. Cost of the replacement manual is $250, plus shipping costs. Franchisor shall also loan you other sample documents, such as marketing pieces and employee hiring documents. We may loan these to you by providing you with a username and password to our website, which will give you access to the manual and sample documents.
- v. Franchisor shall provide the minimum requirements for the computer system with a web-based software program for accounting, cost control and inventory control. Franchisor or a third party may charge you for the cost of service for the web-based software application program.
- vi. Franchisor shall seek to maintain the high standards of quality, appearance, and service of the System, and to that end shall conduct, as it deems advisable, inspections of the Studio franchised hereunder, and evaluations of the products sold, and services rendered therein. Inspections may be done by an independent, third-party consultant, or Secret Shopper, for which Franchisor may charge a reasonable fee, not to exceed $250.00 per inspection, not more than one (1) time per quarter, unless we determine you are not in compliance with our systems and standards, in that event, not more than 1 time per month.
- vii. Franchisor is obligated to take any appropriate action to preserve the Names and Marks against unauthorized operations, which infringe on such Names and Marks.
- viii. All obligations of Franchisor under this Agreement shall benefit only the Franchisee, and no other party is entitled to rely on, enforce, benefit from or obtain relief for breach of such obligations, either directly or by subrogation.

15 VARYING STANDARDS

Because complete and detailed uniformity under many varying conditions may not be possible or practical, Franchisor specifically reserves the right and privilege, at its sole and absolute discretion and as it may deem in the best interests of all concerned in any specific instance, to vary standards for any franchisee based upon the peculiarities of a particular site or circumstance, density of population, business potential, population or trade area, existing business practices, or any other condition which Franchisor deems to be of importance to the successful operation of such Franchisee's business. Franchisee shall not have any right to complain about a variation from standard specifications and practices granted to any other Franchisee and shall not be entitled to require Franchisor to grant to Franchisee a like or similar variation.

16. SALE OF FRANCHISE

16.1. Assignment by Franchisee. This Agreement restricts Franchisee's right to assign the Agreement to a third party. Neither this Agreement, nor any of Franchisee's rights or privileges, shall be assigned, transferred, shared, redeemed or divided by operation of law or otherwise, in any manner, without the prior written consent of Franchisor. The Franchisor's written consent can be withheld, conditioned or delayed in the Franchisor's sole discretion, most especially if the assignment will have a negative impact in its system. "Assignment" shall include, but not be limited to, any transfer in interest in Franchisee, including the sale of stock, change in limited liability company membership interest, change in partnership, or any other transfer of interest in Franchisee, or any restructuring by the Franchisee. In granting any such consent, the Franchisor may impose reasonable conditions, including, without limitation, the following:

- i. Franchisee must be in full compliance with the terms of this Franchise Agreement, including being paid in full on all fees due and payable to us or our affiliates;
- ii. The proposed assignee (or its partners, managers, directors, officers, or controlling shareholders, if it is a corporation or partnership) must meet the then applicable standards of Franchisor as disclosed in the operations manual, which may be amended from time to time;
- iii. The proposed assignee must not operate a franchise, license or other business offering services similar to those offered by the Studio;
- iv. The assignee must execute and agree to be bound by the then current form of this Agreement, which form may contain provisions, which materially alter the rights or obligations of Franchisee under this Agreement;
- v. Franchisor shall not charge such assignee an Initial Franchise Fee for the Franchise if the Studio is open but will charge existing Franchisee or transferee a transfer fee of Fifty Percent (50%) of the then current initial franchise fee charged by Franchisor, to consult assignee in a manner we deem appropriate and at our sole discretion, in marketing strategy, graphic design, social media, website landing page development, advertising and public relations, and we will offer training to one (1) new owner at our expense. This payment is fully earned by us and due in lump sum when you sign the Franchise Agreement. The Transfer Fee is not refundable under any circumstance.
- vi. Franchisee shall have substantially complied with all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement, any amendment hereof or successor hereto, or any other agreements between the Franchisee and Franchisor, its subsidiaries or affiliates and, at the time of transfer, shall not be in default thereof;
- vii. The transferor shall have executed a general release under seal, in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor and its officers, directors, shareholders, and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state, and local laws, rules, and ordinances;

- viii. The transferee (and, if the transferee is other than an individual, such principals and/or owners of a beneficial interest in the transferee as Franchisor may request) shall enter into a written assumption agreement, in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, assuming and agreeing to discharge all of Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement and/or any new franchise agreement, as hereinafter provided;
- ix. The transferee shall demonstrate to Franchisor's satisfaction that the transferee meets Franchisor's educational, managerial, and business standards; possesses a good moral character, business reputation, and credit rating; has the aptitude and ability to conduct the Studio (as may be evidenced by prior related business experience or otherwise); and has adequate financial resources and capital to operate the Studio;
- x. Transferee (and, if the transferee is other than an individual, such principals and/or owners of a beneficial interest in the transferee as Franchisor may request) shall execute, for a term ending on the expiration date of this Agreement and with such renewal term, if any, as may be provided by this Agreement, the standard form franchise agreement then being offered to new System franchisees and such other ancillary agreements as Franchisor may require for the Studio, which agreements shall supersede this Agreement in all respects (with the exception of the length of the Agreement, as discussed above) and the terms of which agreements may differ from the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, a higher percentage service fee rate, advertising contribution, and service charge for goods; provided; however, that the transferee shall not be required to pay an initial franchise fee;
- xi. The transferee, at its expense, shall upgrade the Studio to conform to the then-current standards and specifications of the System and shall complete the upgrading and other requirements within the time specified by Franchisor;
- xii. Franchisee shall remain liable for all of the obligations to Franchisor in connection with the Studio prior to the effective date of the transfer and shall execute any and all instruments reasonably requested by Franchisor to evidence such liability;
- xiii. Franchisee shall agree to remain obligated under the covenants against competition of this Agreement as if this Agreement had been terminated on the date of the transfer;
- xiv. At the transferee's expense, the transferee and, if applicable, the transferee's designated individual manager shall complete any training programs then in effect for franchisees upon such terms and conditions as Franchisor may reasonably require; and
- xv. The transferee shall agree to a sublease or to a transfer and assignment, and assumption of the lease of the Studio site from the original franchisee and shall obtain the landlord's approval if required prior to any transfer or sublease, if applicable.

- xvi. The transferee (including any owners in a corporation, members in a limited liability company, or partners in a general partnership), shall be required to execute a personal guaranty, in the form attached as Attachment 5, upon such transfer.
- xvii. Transferee is only granted the remaining Term under this Franchise Agreement;
- xviii. No default during 60-day period before transfer request or during period between request and transfer's proposed effective date;

16.2. Assignment by Franchisor. Franchisor has an unrestricted right to transfer or assign all or part of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any assignee or other legal successor to the interests of Franchisor.

16.3. Transfer Upon Death or Mental Incapacity. Upon the death or mental incapacity of any person with an interest in the Studio, with Franchisor's approval, the executor, administrator, or personal representative of that person must transfer his/her interest to a third party approved by Franchisor within six (6) months after death or mental incapacity. These transfers, including, without limitation, transfers by devise or inheritance, will be subject to the same restrictions and conditions as any inter vivos transfer. However, in the case of a transfer by devise or inheritance, if the heirs or beneficiaries of any deceased person are unable to meet the conditions of this Agreement, the personal representative of the deceased Franchisee shall have a reasonable time to dispose of the deceased's interest in the Studio, which disposition will be subject to all the terms and conditions for transfer contained in this Agreement. If the interest is not disposed of within a reasonable time, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement.

Upon the death of the Principal, or in the event of any temporary or permanent mental or physical disability of the Principal, pending assignment (if permitted by Franchisor), a manager shall be employed for the operation of the Studio who has successfully completed Franchisor's training program to operate the Studio for the account of Franchisee. If after the death or disability of the Principal, the Studio is not being managed by such trained manager or such trained manager fails to adequately manage the Studio in accordance with this Agreement, Franchisor is authorized to appoint a manager to maintain the operation of the Studio until an approved assignee will be able to assume the management and operation of the Studio. Such manager shall be deemed an employee of the Franchisee. All funds from the operation of the Studio during the period of management by such appointed or approved manager shall be kept in a separate fund and all expenses of the Studio, including compensation of such manager, other costs and travel and living expenses of such appointed or approved manager (the "Management Expenses"), and any fees due and payable under this Agreement shall be charged to such fund. As compensation for the management services provided, in addition to the Fees due hereunder, Franchisor shall charge such fund the full amount of the direct expenses incurred by Franchisor during such period of management for and on behalf of Franchisee, provided that Franchisor shall only have a duty to utilize reasonable efforts and shall not be liable to Franchisee, the Principal or personal representative of the Principal, the Entity or any person or entity having an interest therein for any debts, losses or obligations incurred by the Studio, or to any creditor of Franchisee or the Principal during any period in which it is managed by a Franchisor appointed or approved manager.

16.4. Sale of Franchised Business. If the Franchisee (or its owners) desires to sell the Studio, or part or all of the ownership of the Studio, then Franchisor will reasonably assist Franchisee (or its owners) in connection therewith. If Franchisee (or its owners) shall obtain a bona fide written offer to purchase the Studio, or ownership, such offer shall be submitted promptly to Franchisor. For a period of thirty (30) days from the date of Franchisor's receipt of such offer, Franchisor shall have the right, exercisable by written notice to Franchisee (or its owners), to purchase the Studio, or such ownership, for the price and on the same terms and conditions contained in such offer, provided that Franchisor may substitute cash for any form of payment proposed in such offer. To enable Franchisor to determine whether it will exercise its option, Franchisee and the seller shall provide such information and documentation, including financial statements, Franchisor may require. In the event that Franchisor elects to purchase said interest, closing on such purchase must occur within ninety (90) days from the date of notice to the Franchisee and seller of the election to purchase said Interest by Franchisor. Failure of Franchisor to exercise the option afforded by this Section shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of this Section 16, with respect to a proposed transfer of any Interest. Any subsequent change in the terms of any offer prior to closing shall constitute a new offer subject to the same rights of first refusal by Franchisor as in the case of an initial offer.

If Franchisor does not exercise its right of first refusal, the bona fide written offer may be accepted by Franchisee or its owners, subject to the prior written approval of Franchisor. Franchisor may reasonably withhold its approval if it deems, in its sole discretion, that such transfer would not be in the best interests of either party, the Studio and/or STRETCHMED®. Factors in determining Franchisor's approval may include, but shall not be limited to, the proposed transferee's creditworthiness and financial strength, the proposed transferee's business experience, the proposed transferee's track record as a franchisee if proposed transferee owns other Studios, and whether the proposed sale price is deemed by Franchisor to be reasonable based on such considerations as the number of clients enrolled at the Studio, past performance of the Studio, the ability of the Studio's employees, if any, etc. In any event, all sales of the Studio must comply with Section 16.1 herein.

Franchisee understands that in no way can it sell its franchised business to anyone other than another approved STRETCHMED® Franchisee. Doing otherwise would be a default of this agreement and cause irreparable harm to the Franchisor, and Franchisee shall pay Franchisor liquidated damages in the amount equal to the sum of service fees paid to the Franchisor for the Sixty (60) months prior to the termination of this agreement, or One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), whichever is greater, provided, however exercise of this right shall not preclude Franchisor's right to seek injunctive relief as outlined in Section 19.5. Franchisee's payment to Franchisor would not be a penalty for breaching this Franchise Agreement, but rather a reasonable estimate of the losses Franchisor would incur in losing future service fees from this location. Should Franchisor elect to enforce its right to liquidated damages under this Section, Franchisee's obligations to pay such damages would be in addition to Franchisee's obligations to (i) pay all amounts still owed to Franchisor, and (ii) adhere to Franchisee's other post-termination obligations. Franchisor's right to payment of liquidated damages would be in addition to all other post-termination remedies available to Franchisor under the law.

I have read and understand Article 16 and agree to comply with its Sections.

17. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION OF FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

17.1. Termination of Franchise by Franchisor With Notice. Franchisee acknowledges that the strict performance of all of the terms of this Agreement is necessary not only for protection of Franchisor, but also the protection of Franchisee and other franchisees of Franchisor. As a result, Franchisee therefore acknowledges and agrees that strict and exact performance by Franchisee of each of the covenants and conditions contained herein is a condition precedent to the continuation of this Agreement. If we give you ten (10) days written notice (or such longer period as applicable law may require) and you fail to correct the following defaults, then we may, at our option and without prejudice to any other right or remedies available to Franchisor under this Agreement or otherwise, terminate your Franchise Agreement:

17.2. Termination of Franchise by Franchisor Without Notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee shall be deemed to be in breach and Franchisor, at its option, may terminate this Agreement and all rights granted under it, without affording Franchisee notice and opportunity to cure the breach, effective immediately upon Franchisor notifying

Franchisee in writing of such breach, if Franchisee does any of the following:

- i. Abandons, surrenders, or takes material steps in abandoning the operation of the Studio or fails to continuously and actively operate the Studio for a period in excess of two (2) days, unless precluded from doing so by damage to the premises of the Studio due to war, act of God, civil disturbance, natural disaster, labor dispute or other events beyond Franchisee's reasonable control; or sells the assets or transfers control of the assets or operation of the Studio to someone other than an approved STRETCHMED® franchise owner.

Fails or refuses to comply with any provision of this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee relating to the Studio or the Franchise, and does not correct such failure or refusal within ten (10) days after written notice of such failure or refusal to comply is delivered to Franchisee, or such longer period as specified by Franchisor or as law may require;
- xi. Is convicted of a crime or felony or has pleaded nolo contendere, or the legal equivalent, to a crime or felony or other offense that we believe is injurious to the System or the goodwill associated therewith;

- xxiv. If any inspection of Franchisee's records discloses an understatement of payments due to Franchisor of four percent (4%) or more.

- xxviii. Death or incapacity of Franchisee;
- xxix. Violation of any anti-terrorism laws;
- xxx. Violation of the non-competition provisions contained in Section 14.

17.3. Waiver. Our waiver of any defaults does not constitute a waiver of any other defaults under this Agreement, nor does it prevent us from enforcing strict compliance with this Agreement.

17.4. Franchisor's Rights and Remedies in Addition to Termination.

- i. If Franchisee shall be in default in the performance of any of its obligations or breach any term or condition of this Agreement, in addition to Franchisor's right to terminate this Agreement, and without limiting any other rights or remedies to which Franchisor may be entitled at law or in equity, Franchisor may, at its election, immediately or at any time thereafter, and without notice to Franchisee cure such default for the account of and on behalf of Franchisee including, without limitation, entering upon and taking possession of the Studio and to taking in the name of Franchisee, all other actions necessary to affect the provisions of this Agreement and any such entry or other action shall not be deemed a trespass or other illegal act, and Franchisor shall not be liable in any manner to Franchisee for so doing, and Franchisee shall pay the entire cost thereof to Franchisor on demand, including reasonable compensation to Franchisor for the management of the Studio.
- ii. In the event of a premature termination of this Agreement, Franchisee shall pay Franchisor liquidated damages in an amount equal to the sum of the service fees paid to Franchisor for the thirty-six (36) months prior to the termination of this Agreement or forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000) whichever is greater; provided, however exercise of this right shall not preclude Franchisor's right to seek injunctive relief as outlined in Section 19.5. Franchisee's payment to Franchisor would not be a penalty for breaching this Franchise Agreement, but rather a reasonable estimate of the losses Franchisor would incur in the event of the closure of Franchisee's franchised business. Should Franchisor elect to enforce its right to liquidated damages under this Section, Franchisee's obligations to pay such damages would be in addition to Franchisee's obligations to (i) pay all amounts still owed to Franchisor, and (ii) adhere to Franchisees other post-termination obligations. Franchisor's right to payment of liquidated damages would be in addition to all other post-termination remedies available to Franchisor under the law.

- iii. Franchisee understands that in no way can it sell its franchised business to anyone other than another approved STRETCHMED® Franchisee. Doing otherwise would be a default of this agreement and cause irreparable harm to the Franchisor, and Franchisee shall pay Franchisor liquidated damages in the amount equal to the sum of service fees paid to the Franchisor for the Sixty (60) months prior to the termination of this agreement, or One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), whichever is greater, provided, however exercise of this right shall not preclude Franchisor's right to seek injunctive relief as outlined in Section 19.5. Franchisee's payment to Franchisor would not be a penalty for breaching this Franchise Agreement, but rather a reasonable estimate of the losses Franchisor would incur in losing future service fees from this location. Should Franchisor elect to enforce its right to liquidated damages under this Section, Franchisee's obligations to pay such damages would be in addition to Franchisee's obligations to (i) pay all amounts still owed to Franchisor, and (ii) adhere to Franchisee's other post-termination obligations. Franchisor's right to payment of liquidated damages would be in addition to all other post-termination remedies available to Franchisor under the law.
- iv. The Franchisee understands that the Franchisor shall have exclusive right and ownership overall customer lists, records, and files within the Franchisee's possession, custody, or control, or found in each studio location owned by the Franchisee and that were obtained during the existence of this agreement. The Franchisor shall have unrestricted authority to contact any and all customers of each studio location at any given time and day in order to solicit their feedback, assessment, evaluation, and observation on the services provided by each studio location. In the event of termination, the Franchisee understands that the Franchisor can rightfully communicate with all of the customers of the franchise location regarding the termination and, if applicable, that the Territory and/or assets are for sale.
- v. The Franchisor shall have the absolute right to buy all the studio assets of the Franchisee valued at fair market at the time of acquisition. The Franchisor shall exercise said right within thirty (30) days upon expiration and/or termination of the franchise agreement and upon notice to the Franchisee of its decision to exercise said right.

17.5. Cross-Default. If Franchisee shall default under this or any other agreement with Franchisor or its affiliates, at the option of Franchisor, shall constitute a default under all such agreements.

I have read and understand Article 17 and agree to comply with its Sections.

18. FRANCHISEE'S OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

18.1. Franchisee Shall Cease Using the System, Names and Marks. Franchisee agrees that, upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, Franchisee shall immediately and permanently cease to use the System in any manner whatsoever, including any confidential methods, procedures, descriptions of products, and techniques associated with Franchisor and the Names and Marks and any proprietary marks and distinctive forms, slogans, symbols, signs, logos or devices associated with the System. In particular, Franchisee shall cease to use, without limitation, all signs, advertising materials, stationery, forms, and any other articles, which display the Names and Marks. Franchisee shall comply with the covenant not to compete, including the non-solicitation of clients and employees, and the agreement to maintain the confidentiality of proprietary information.

18.2. Franchisee Shall Cease Operating Studio. Franchisee shall immediately cease to operate the Studio under this Agreement, and shall not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent itself to the public or hold itself out as a present or former Franchisee of Franchisor. Franchisor shall have the right to enter the Studio premises and operate the business.

18.3. Franchisee May Not Adopt Confusingly Similar Names and Marks. Franchisee agrees, in the event it continues to operate or subsequently begins to operate any other business, not to use any reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation of the Names and Marks, either in connection with such other business or in the promotion thereof, which is likely to cause confusion, mistake or deception, or which is likely to dilute Franchisor's exclusive rights in and to the Names and Marks, and further agrees not to utilize any designation of origin or description or representation which falsely suggests or represents an association or connection with Franchisor or a former association or connection with Franchisor.

18.4. Franchisee Shall Cancel Assumed Names and Transfer Phone Numbers. Franchisee further agrees that upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, it will take such action that may be required to cancel all assumed names or equivalent registrations relating to its use of any Names or Marks and to notify the telephone company and listing agencies, including any website listings, of the termination or expiration of Franchisee's right to use any telephone number in any classified ad and any other telephone directory listings associated with the Names and Marks or with the Studio and to authorize transfer of same to Franchisor or transferee approved by Franchisor. Franchisee acknowledges that as between Franchisor and Franchisee, Franchisor has the sole rights to and interest in all telephone number and directory, or website, listings associated with any Names or Marks of the Studio. Franchisee further authorizes Franchisor, and hereby appoints Franchisor as its attorney in fact, to direct the telephone company and all listing agencies to transfer same to Franchisor, should Franchisee fail or refuse to do so, and the telephone company and all listing agencies may accept such direction in this Agreement as conclusive evidence of the exclusive rights of Franchisor in such telephone numbers and directory listings and its authority to direct their transfer.

18.5. Franchisee Must Return Operations Manual and Other Materials. Franchisee further agrees that upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, it will immediately return to Franchisor all copies of the Operations Manual, training aids and any other manuals, checklists, or materials which have been loaned to it by Franchisor. Franchisee further agrees to turn over to Franchisor any other manuals, computer programs, software, customer lists, records, files, instructions, correspondence and brochures, and any and all other confidential and proprietary materials relating to the operation of the Studio in Franchisee's possession, custody, or control, and all copies thereof (all of which are acknowledged to be Franchisor's property), and only Franchisee's copy of this Agreement and any correspondence between the parties, and any other document, copies which Franchisee reasonably needs for compliance with any provision of law, may be retained by Franchisee.

18.6. Franchisor May Purchase Inventory and Equipment. Franchisor shall have the right (but not the duty), to be exercised by notice of intent to do so within thirty (30) days after termination or expiration, to purchase any or all inventory, equipment, supplies, signs, advertising materials and items bearing Franchisor's Names and Marks, at fair market value (less the amount of any outstanding liens or encumbrances). If the parties cannot agree on a fair market value within a reasonable time, an independent appraiser shall be designated by Franchisor, and determination of such appraiser shall be binding. If Franchisor elects to exercise any option to purchase as herein provided, it shall have the right to set off all amounts due from Franchisee, and the cost for the appraisal, if any, against any payment, therefore.

18.7. Franchisor May Assume the Lease for the Approved Location. Franchisor shall have the right (but not the obligation), to be exercised by notice of intent to do so within thirty (30) days after termination or expiration, to assume the Lease for the Approved Location by an assignment of lease from Franchisee to Franchisor. Franchisee agrees to cooperate with Franchisor in executing such assignment and further authorizes Franchisor, and hereby appoints Franchisor as its attorney in fact, to execute such an assignment on Franchisee's behalf.

18.8. Franchisee Must Pay Monies Owed to Franchisor. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor, within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement, such Base Service Fees, National Fund contributions, payments for inventory, equipment or merchandise, or any other sums owed to Franchisor by Franchisee, which are then unpaid. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred by Franchisor in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any provisions of Section 18.

I have read and understand Article 18 and agree to comply with its Sections. Your Initials: _____ / _____

19. ENFORCEMENT, MEDIATION, ARBITRATION AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

19.1. Franchisee May Not Withhold Payments Due Franchisor. Franchisee agrees that it will not withhold payments of any Base Service Fees or any other amounts of money owed to Franchisor for any reason, on grounds of alleged nonperformance by Franchisor of any obligation hereunder. All such claims by Franchisee shall, if not otherwise resolved by Franchisor and Franchisee, be submitted to arbitration as provided in this Agreement.

19.2. Severability and Substitution of Valid Provisions. All provisions of this Agreement are severable, and this Agreement shall be interpreted and enforced as if all completely invalid or unenforceable provisions were not contained herein, and any partially valid and enforceable provisions shall be enforced to the extent valid and enforceable. If any applicable law or rule requires a greater prior notice of the termination of this Agreement than is required hereunder or requires the taking of some other action not required hereunder, the prior notice or other action required by such law or rule shall be substituted for the notice or other requirements hereof.

19.3. Mediation. We and you acknowledge that during the term of this Agreement disputes may arise between the parties, you must first submit all disputes arising out of the Franchise Agreement to our management, so both parties can make every effort to resolve the matter internally. If we cannot resolve the dispute, then we may require to try and resolve it through non-binding mediation. To facilitate such resolution, we and you agree that, prior to the filing of any judicial or arbitration proceeding, except injunctive and related relief as provided in Section 19, each party shall submit the dispute between them for non-binding mediation at our then-current headquarters. The mediation will be conducted by one (1) mediator, who is appointed under the American Arbitration Association's Commercial Mediation Rules and who shall conduct the mediation in accordance with such rules. We and you agree that statements made by us, you or any other party in any such mediation proceeding will not be admissible in any arbitration or other legal proceeding. Each party shall bear its own costs and expenses of conducting the mediation and share equally the costs of any third parties who are required to participate in the mediation. If any dispute between the parties cannot be resolved through mediation within 45 days following the appointment of the mediator, the parties agree to submit such dispute to arbitration subject to the terms and conditions of Section 19.

19.4. Arbitration. Except insofar as Franchisor elects to enforce this Agreement by judicial process, injunction, or specific performance (as hereinabove provided), all disputes and claims relating to any provision hereof, any specification, standard or operating procedure, or any other obligation of Franchisee prescribed by Franchisor, or any obligation of Franchisor, or the breach thereof (including, without limitation, any specification, standard or operating procedure or any other obligation of Franchisee or Franchisor, which is illegal or otherwise unenforceable or voidable under any law, ordinance, or ruling) shall be settled by mandatory binding arbitration in San Juan, Puerto Rico, or if the corporate headquarters is no longer in Puerto Rico, the city where the corporate headquarters is then located, in accordance with the U.S. Arbitration Act, if applicable, and the Rules of the American Arbitration Association (in accordance with the rules relating to the arbitration of disputes arising from franchise and license agreements, if any, or otherwise in accordance with the general rules of commercial arbitration), provided that at the option of Franchisor or Franchisee the arbitrator shall be selected from a list of retired federal or state judges supplied by the American Arbitration Association (if obtainable, or otherwise in accordance with the customary procedures for selecting an arbitrator). The arbitrator shall allow discovery in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and may apply the sanctions relating to noncompliance with discovery orders therein provided. The arbitrator shall issue a written opinion explaining the reasons for his or her decision and award and the arbitrator shall have the right to award or include in the award the specific performance of this Agreement. Judgment upon the award of the arbitrator will be entered in any court having competent jurisdiction thereof or of the Franchisor or Franchisee. During the pendency of any arbitration proceeding hereunder, Franchisee and Franchisor shall fully perform their respective obligations pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. All arbitration proceedings will be individual proceedings between you and us and will not be conducted on a “class” basis, or include any other of our franchisees as named parties unless you and we each agree.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 19, we have the right in a proper case to seek temporary restraining orders and temporary or preliminary injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction. In that case, we and you agree to contemporaneously submit our dispute for arbitration on the merits according to this Section 19. The provisions of Section 19 will continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the termination or expiration of this Agreement and are intended to benefit and bind certain third-party non-signatories.

19.5. Security Interest. To secure your performance under this Agreement and indebtedness for all sums due us or our affiliates, we shall have a lien upon, and you hereby grant us a first priority security interest in, the following collateral and any and all additions, accessions, and substitutions to or for it and the proceeds from all of the same: (a) all inventory now owned or after-acquired by you and the Franchise, including but not limited to all inventory and supplies transferred to or acquired by you in connection with this Agreement; (b) all accounts of you and/or the Franchise now existing or subsequently arising, together with all interest in you and/or the Franchise, now existing or subsequently arising, together with all chattel paper, documents, and instruments relating to such accounts; (c) all contract rights of you and/or the Franchise, now existing or subsequently arising; (d) all general intangibles of you and/or the Franchise, now owned or existing, or after-acquired or subsequently arising; and (e) all assets used to operate the Franchise Business. You agree to execute such financing statements, instruments, and other documents, in a form satisfactory to us, that we deem necessary so that we may establish and maintain a valid security interest in and to these assets.

19.6. Rights of Parties Are Cumulative. The rights of Franchisor and Franchisee are cumulative, and the exercise or enforcement by Franchisor or Franchisee of any right or remedy shall not preclude the exercise or enforcement by Franchisor or Franchisee of any other right or remedy hereunder which Franchisor or Franchisee is entitled by law to enforce by the provisions of this Agreement or of the Operations Manual.

19.7. Judicial Enforcement, Injunction and Specific Performance. Franchisor shall have the right to enforce by judicial process its right to terminate this Agreement for the causes enumerated in Section 17 of this Agreement, to collect any amounts owed to Franchisor for any unpaid Base Service Fees, or other unpaid charges due hereunder, arising out of the business conducted by Franchisee pursuant hereto, and to pursue any rights it may have under any leases, subleases, sales, purchases, or security agreements or other agreements with Franchisee. Franchisor shall be entitled, without bond, to the entry of temporary or permanent injunctions and orders of specific performance enforcing any of the provisions of this Agreement. Franchisee agrees to pay to Franchisor an amount equal to the aggregate costs of obtaining such relief, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of investigation, court costs, and other litigation expenses, travel and living expenses, and any damages incurred by Franchisor as a result of the breach of any provision of this Agreement.

19.8. Construction. Any other agreements or instruments referred to herein or which relate to the purchase or lease by Franchisee from Franchisor of any fixtures, signs, equipment, merchandise, or the like, constitutes the entire agreement of the parties, and there are no other oral or written understandings or agreements between Franchisor or Franchisee relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. The headings of the several sections and paragraphs hereof are for convenience only and do not define, limit, or construe the contents of those sections or paragraphs. The term "Franchisee" as used herein is applicable to one or more persons, a corporation or partnership, as the case may be, the singular usage includes the plural, and the masculine and neuter usages include the other and the feminine. References to "Franchisee" applicable to an individual or individuals shall mean the principal owner or owners of the equity or operating control of Franchisee if Franchisee is a corporation or partnership.

19.9. Puerto Rico Law Applies. Except to the extent governed by the U.S. Trademark act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C., Section 1051 et. seq.) or the U.S. Arbitration Act, this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the venue shall lie in San Juan, Puerto Rico, or the venue where Franchisor then has its principal place of business.

19.10. Costs and Attorney Fees. Franchisor will debit the EDTA up to Five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each notice of default Franchisor sends to you for violations of the Franchise Agreement. In addition to Franchisor's fees for default notices, if a claim for amounts owed by you to us or our Affiliates is asserted in any legal or arbitration proceeding or if either you or we are required to enforce this agreement in a judicial or arbitration proceeding, and we prevail, you will reimburse us for costs and expenses, including reasonable accounting and attorney fees. Attorney fees will include, without limitation, reasonable legal fees charged by attorneys, paralegal fees, and costs and disbursements, whether incurred prior to, or in preparation for, or in contemplation of, the filing of written demand or claim, action, hearing or proceeding to enforce the obligations of the parties.

19.11. Binding Effect. This Agreement is binding upon the parties hereto and their respective permitted assigns and successors in interest.

19.12. There Are No Unwritten Agreements, Operations Manual and Other Manuals Subject to Change. This instrument contains the entire Agreement between the parties relating to the rights herein granted and the obligations herein assumed. Any oral representations or modifications concerning this Agreement shall be of no force or effect unless a subsequent modification in writing is signed by the parties hereto. However, the manuals may be amended at any time by Franchisor, and Franchisee shall adapt its methods or procedures to comply with the requirements thereof.

19.13. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the documents referred to herein, and the attachments hereto, if any, constitute the entire, full, and complete Agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersede all prior agreements. Except for those acts permitted to be made unilaterally by Franchisor hereunder, no amendment, change, or variance from this Agreement shall be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and executed by their authorized officers or agents in writing.

19.14. Force Majeure. Such replacement tenant shall execute such documents requested by Landlord in order to give effect thereto including, without limitation, an agreement assigning the lease to the replacement tenant and a personal guaranty of the obligations of the tenant under the lease.

Landlord agrees to immediately give Assignee notice of any default of Tenant under said lease, and Assignee shall have the same period to cure said default as is granted to Tenant under said lease. If Tenant fails to make any payment when due, Landlord shall immediately notify the Assignee in writing and shall take all necessary steps to enforce the Lease, including, but not limited to, issuing a notice of default to the Tenant in accordance with the Lease terms. Assignee may pay and expend such sums of money as Assignee, in its sole discretion deems necessary for any such purpose, and Tenant hereby agrees to pay to Assignee, immediately and without demand, all such sums so paid and expended by Assignee. All sums so paid and expended by Assignee and the interest thereon shall be added to and be part of the Obligations of Tenant.

Assignee further agrees that in exercising its rights hereunder, Assignee or its replacement tenant shall cause a minimum of interference with the business of Landlord or any other tenant of the shopping center of which the demised premises are a part.

Tenant covenants and agrees that, notwithstanding the assignment of the lease to the replacement tenant or the taking possession by Assignee or replacement tenant of the demised premises pursuant hereto, or the termination of the lease pursuant to its terms or as otherwise set forth herein, Tenant shall nevertheless remain liable to Assignee and Landlord for all damages and expenses including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Assignee and Landlord in connection with such taking. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the venue shall lie in San Juan, Puerto Rico, or the venue where Franchisor then has its principal place of business. In the event of a dispute between the assignee and the Landlord, the prevailing party shall be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees and any damages incurred as a result of the breach of any provision of this Agreement.

Landlord's consent hereto shall not be deemed a consent to any further assignment or subletting of the demised premises without the written consent of Landlord and shall not operate to relieve Tenant from liability under the lease.

This Collateral Assignment shall remain in full force and effect throughout the initial lease term and any extensions. It shall not be terminated without the written consent of the assignee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Tenant, Assignee and Landlord have caused this Collateral Assignment of Lease to be executed as a sealed instrument made effective as of the day and year of the Lease Agreement.

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT AND FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Agreement, the following provisions will supersede and apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of California:

1. California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code sections 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law. .

2. To the extent that Sections of the Agreement would otherwise violate California law, these sections are amended by providing that all litigation by or between you and us, involving a Development Business in the State of California, which arises directly or indirectly from the Agreement will be commenced and maintained in the state courts of California or the United States District Court for California, with the specific venue in either court system determined by appropriate jurisdiction and venue requirements.

3. The Franchisor, and/or any person listed in Item 2 of the FDD is not subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling persons from membership in such association or exchange.

4. The California Franchise Investment Law requires a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise be delivered together with the Franchise Disclosure Document.

5. Our website has not been reviewed or approved by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation. Any complaints concerning the content of this website may be directed to the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation at www.dfpi.ca.gov.

6. Item 17 of the FDD shall be supplemented to include the following:

California Business and Professions Code sections 20000 through 20043 (the Franchise Relations Act) provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control. In particular, Business and Professions Code section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act.

The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law. (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.).

The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

The Franchise Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at San Juan, Puerto Rico, or if the corporate headquarters is no longer in Puerto Rico, the city where the corporate headquarters is then located with the costs being borne by each party being responsible for their own legal fees. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. This provision may not be enforceable under California law. You may want to consult an attorney to understand the impact of out-of-state governing law on the Franchise Agreement.

You must sign a general release if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code §31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code §§31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code §20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code §§20000 through 20043).

7. Section 31125 of the California Corporation Code requires us to provide you with a disclosure document before asking you to agree to a material modification of an existing franchise.

8. Late Fees: The highest interest rate allowed by law in California is 10% annually.

9. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

10. The Department has determined that we, the franchisor, have not demonstrated we are adequately capitalized and/or that we must rely on franchise fees to fund our operations. The Commissioner has imposed a fee deferral condition, which requires that we defer the collection of all initial fees from California franchisees until we have completed all of our pre-opening obligations and you are open for business. For California franchisees who sign a development agreement, the payment of the development and initial fees attributable to a specific unit in your development schedule is deferred until that unit is open.

This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed with the franchise.

NEW YORK ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Agreement, the following provision will supersede and apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of New York:

1. The following information is added to the cover page of the Franchise Disclosure Document:

INFORMATION COMPARING FRANCHISORS IS AVAILABLE. CALL THE STATE ADMINISTRATORS LISTED IN EXHIBIT A OR YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR SERVICES OR INFORMATION. REGISTRATION OF THIS FRANCHISE BY NEW YORK STATE DOES NOT MEAN THAT NEW YORK STATE RECOMMENDS IT OR HAS VERIFIED THE INFORMATION IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. IF YOU LEARN THAT ANYTHING IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT IS UNTRUE, CONTACT THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION AND THE APPROPRIATE STATE OR PROVINCIAL AUTHORITY. THE FRANCHISOR MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, THE FRANCHISOR CANNOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE TO ACCEPT TERMS WHICH ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. The following is to be added at the end of Item 3:

With the exception of what is stated above, the following applies to the franchisor, its predecessor, a person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate offering franchises under the franchisor's principal trademark:

- A. No such party has an administrative, criminal, or civil action pending against that person alleging: a felony, a violation of a franchise, antitrust, or securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, misappropriation of property, unfair or deceptive practices, or comparable civil or misdemeanor allegations.
- B. No such party has pending actions, other than routine litigation incidental to the business, which are significant in the context of the number of franchisees and the size, nature, or financial condition of the franchise system or its business operations.
- C. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or, within the 10-year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law; fraud; embezzlement; fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property; or unfair or deceptive practices or comparable allegations.

D. No such party is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order or decree relating to the franchise, or under a Federal, State, or Canadian franchise, securities, antitrust, trade regulation or trade practice law, resulting from a concluded or pending action or proceeding brought by a public agency; or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange; or is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to any other business activity as a result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including, without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales agent.

3. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled “Requirements for a franchisee to renew or extend,” and Item 17(s), entitled “Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer”:

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by franchisee”: You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(aa), titled “Choice of forum,” and Item 17(bb), titled “Choice of law”:

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements - No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

7. Receipts - Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. § 680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. There may also be court decisions, which supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor, including areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration shall be either the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration, or as determined by the arbitrator.
