Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit B.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

What You Need to Know About Franchising in General

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation and/or litigation only in the state of Nevada. Out-of-state mediation or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate or litigate with the franchisor in Nevada than in your own state.
2. Short Operating History. The franchisor is at an early stage of development and has a limited operating history as a franchisor. This franchise is likely to be a riskier investment than a franchise in a system with a longer operating history.
3. Financial Condition. The Franchisor's financial condition as reflected in its financial statements (see item 21) calls into question the Franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.
4. Supplier Control. You must purchase all or nearly all the inventory or supplies that are necessary to operate your business from the franchisor, its affiliates, or suppliers that the franchisor designates, at prices the franchisor or they set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchise business

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES REQUIRED
BY THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

1. A prohibition of the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
2. A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in the Michigan Franchise Investment Law. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
3. A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
4. A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) The term of the franchise is less than 5 years; and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
5. A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
6. A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
7. A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - a. The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - b. The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.
 - c. The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

- d. The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.
- 8. A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchisee on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchisee for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).
- 9. A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Any questions regarding this Notice shall be directed to the Attorney General's Office, Consumer Protection Division, G. Mennen Williams Building – 1st Floor, 525 West Ottawa Street, Lansing, Michigan 48913, (517) 373-7117.

The Franchise

We offer franchises for businesses operated under the name “Another Side Tours” (“Another Side Tours Businesses”), which are established and operated using the format and system we developed (the “System”). Some of the features of our System include the common use and promotion of the name “ANOTHER SIDE TOURS™” and other service marks, trademarks, trade names, logos, emblems, signs, slogans, insignia and other commercial symbols that we may designate from time to time for the operation of Another Side Tours Businesses using the System (collectively, the “Marks”). We offer to enter into franchise agreements (“Franchise Agreement” included as Exhibit D to this Disclosure Document) with qualified legal entities and persons that wish to establish and operate an Another Side Tours Business.

Industry-Specific Regulations

The average customer of your Another Side Tours Business will be both adults and families who want to see the other side of your city or town.

Your Another Side Tours Business may be seasonal depending on your location or territory, but sales of corporate and private tours can help to alleviate seasonality. Your Another Side Tours Business will compete with other forms of tour and entertainment businesses, some of which may offer the same or similar services and products to those offered by Another Side Tours Businesses. You may also experience indirect competition from transportation network companies. The competitors may range from franchise systems, independent operators, chains and other businesses, which may include other businesses owned by us or our affiliates. In addition, many of these competitors may have substantial financial, marketing and other resources and they may already be established in your market. The ability of each Another Side Tours Business to compete depends on its geographic location or territory, sales program, customer service, overhead costs, economic conditions, weather, and many other factors both within and outside your or our control.

To ensure that vehicles continue to present a professional appearance, franchisees will be required to provide AST a mobile-phone video of the vehicle at least once each year.
2. You will need to employ an attorney, an accountant, and other consultants to assist you in establishing your Another Side Tours Business. These fees may vary depending upon the prevailing rates of local attorneys, accountants and consultants. These fees are typically non-refundable. You should inquire about the refund policy of the attorney, accountant or consultant at or before the time of hiring.
3. Franchisee is required to successfully complete the initial training program within thirty (30) days of executing the franchise agreement. Initial training will be held in Las Vegas, Nevada unless otherwise specified by One Tour At A Time, LLC in writing.

4. Franchisee is required to acquire equipment, set up partnerships with livery companies and establish a concierge referral program within forty-five (45) days of completing initial training. The minimum amount of $4,000 to $8,000 depending on Franchisor's requirement must be spent prior to and during the first three (3) months of the opening of your Another Side Tours Business.
5. Additional funds may be required in your first 6 months of operations to support ongoing costs of your Another Side Tours Business such as taxes, advertising, salaries and other expenses to the extent that revenues do not cover business costs. New businesses franchised or not, often have larger expenses than revenues.
6. Given that each Another Side Tours Business has different costs and sales in the start-up months, this is only an estimate of the additional funds you may need. We have relied on the over 17 years of applicable experience of us and our affiliates in compiling these estimates. They are, however, only estimates and include no warranty or representation, express or implied, that the estimated amounts will be sufficient for your specific franchise. You should review these estimates carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase the franchise.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Purchases from Approved or Designated Suppliers

You must use in the operation of your Another Side Tours Business and in the offering of services and/or products only the proprietary and non-proprietary techniques, processes, supplies, materials and other goods we designate, and offer or use them, all as we specify in our Electronic Operations Manual or otherwise in writing. We may change these periodically and that you are obligated to conform to the requirements. All vehicles, supplies, materials and other goods, and all other customer service materials of all descriptions and types must meet our standards of uniformity and quality.

You must only use approved supplies, trademarked retail items, equipment, materials, services or products, inventory, signage, advertising materials, trademarked items and novelties, and other items or services (collectively, "Approved Supplies") in connection with the operation of your Another Side Tours Business as set forth in the Approved Supplies lists, as we may amend from time to time. Although we do not do so for every item, we have the right to choose and designate the manufacturer, distributor, provider and/or supplier of Approved Supplies (an "Approved Supplier"). Some or all Approved Supplies may only be available from one Approved Supplier source, and we, or our affiliates, may be that source.

All inventory, products, materials and other items and supplies used in the operation of your Another Side Tours Business that are not then included in the Approved Supplies or Approved Suppliers lists must conform to the specifications and standards we establish from time to time. Except where there is a legitimate issue, as determined by us, with respect to an Approved Supplier's ability to provide an item that satisfies your obligations under applicable laws and administrative rules, regulations and policies relating to promotional issues, you do not have the right to use nor require us to consider alternative Approved Supplies or alternative suppliers, including without limitation, alternative approved manufacturers, suppliers, providers and distributors or alternative approved products, material, equipment, signage, stationery, supplies and other items or services necessary to operate your Another Side Tours Business.

Approval of Alternative Suppliers

Where there is a legitimate issue under applicable laws and administrative rules, regulations and policies relating to promotional issues, you shall identify an alternative supplier for our approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, that can provide the item that will comply with applicable laws, which supplier shall be deemed an “Approved Supplier” for the sole purpose of the provision of such item. Approval requests should be made in writing to info@onetouratatime.com. For physical materials requiring approval, a sample might be requested before distribution. It will be at your sole cost to mail us any sample supplies. We have Thirty (30) business days to review the request from the date we receive the email or the sample, whichever is later. Upon our response approving the request or if after Thirty (30) business days we have not approved the request you may consider the request approved.

Purchasing or Distribution Cooperatives

We do not currently have any purchasing or distribution cooperatives. We may attempt to negotiate discounted prices and favorable terms from suppliers for your benefit. We may also negotiate with various vendors to obtain for all our franchisees and us and our affiliates various advertising related discounts and/or cooperative advertising programs. If we negotiate these programs, you will have the right to participate in the programs, but will not be obligated to do so, unless we make it a requirement. These optional advertising programs in no way affect your obligations to use only approved suppliers and all required suppliers.

Revenue Derived from Franchisee Purchases

We and our affiliates may derive revenue from your required purchases in connection with the operation of your Another Side Tours Business. As of the issuance date of this disclosure document, neither we nor our affiliate received any revenue from required purchases or leases by franchisees, but we retain the right to do so in the future.

Estimated Proportion of Required Purchases and Leases

We estimate that your purchases from us or approved suppliers, or that must conform to our specifications, will represent approximately 40% to 45% of your total purchases in establishing your Another Side Tours Business, and approximately 35% to 40% of your total annual purchases in the continuing operation of your Another Side Tours Business.

No Material Benefits

We do not provide material benefits to franchisees (for example, renewal or granting additional franchises) based on purchases of specific products or services or use of particular suppliers, but you must use only suppliers we approve.

Insurance

You must purchase and maintain in full force and effect, at your expense and from an insurer we may designate or, if we have not designated such an insurer, from an insurer we accept, insurance that insures both you and us, and any other persons we designate by name. The insurance policy or policies must be written in accordance with the standards and specifications (including minimum coverage amounts) set forth in writing by us from time to time, and, at a minimum, must include the following (except as different coverages and policy limits may be specified for all franchisees from time to time in writing):

- (i) Automobile liability insurance in an amount not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence (combined single limit per accident) and one million dollars ($1,000,000) aggregate.
- (ii) Comprehensive general liability insurance in an amount not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence, two million dollars ($2,000,000) general aggregate, five thousand ($5,000) medical expense (any one person) and three hundred thousand ($300,000) for damage to rented premises per occurrence.
- (iii) Tour operator liability insurance that includes host liquor liability if alcohol will be present on any tour.
- (iv) Workers' compensation insurance covering all your employees which meets any federal, state or local requirements.
- (v) Commercial motor vehicle insurance included uninsured/underinsured motorist coverage.
- (vi) We are named as additional insured on all liability policies required by this paragraph.
- (vii) Severability of interests and/or separation of insured provisions must be included in the liability policies and all policies must be primary and non-contributing with any insurance policy carried by us; and
- (viii) Any other such insurance coverage or amounts as required by law or other agreement related to the Another Side Tours Business.

If you do not have a physical location, you are not required to procure both general liability and tour operator liability insurance, as noted above, but you must secure one type or the other. However, if you maintain a physical location, we require that you secure both types of insurance that includes liquor liability as a part of your coverage.

The insurance coverage referenced in (i,) (ii,) and (iv) above must commence at the latest 30 days before the first tour is operated. You must deliver to us upon reception by you a proper certificate evidencing the existence of such insurance coverage and your compliance with the provisions of this paragraph. The insurance certificate must show our status as additional insured and provide that we will be given 30 days' prior written notice of a material change in or termination or cancellation of the policy. We also may request copies of all policies. We may from time to time modify the required minimum limits and require additional insurance coverage, by providing written notice to you, as conditions require, to reflect changes in relevant circumstances, industry standards, experiences in the Another Side Tours System, standards of liability and higher damage awards. If you do not procure and maintain the required insurance coverage required by this Agreement, we have the right, but not the obligation, to procure insurance coverage and to charge the costs to you, together with a reasonable fee for the expenses we incur. You must pay these amounts to us immediately upon written notice.

The manual may be in a downloadable PDF accessible through Adobe Acrobat (available for free online) or through a different electronic medium. The Operations Manual includes descriptions of marketing techniques, operational procedures, business practices, and management methods for our Another Side Tours System. There are approximately 92 pages in the Operations Manual with approximately an equal number of pages supplied as appendices, but this may differ depending on your computer system and the hardware and software you are using. The purpose of the Operations Manual is to protect our reputation and goodwill and to maintain uniform standards under the marks and the Another Side Tours System. You must operate your Another Side Tours Business in accordance with the standards, methods, policies, and procedures in the Operations Manual. The table of contents of the Operations Manual is Exhibit E to this disclosure document.

Generally, you must use only such marketing materials (including any print, radio, television, electronic, or other media forms that may become available in the future) as we furnish, approve or make available, and the materials must be used only in a manner that we prescribe. Any promotional activities you conduct with respect to your Another Side Tour Business are subject to our approval. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 9)

Internet and Social Media

We may require you, at your expense, to participate in our website, on our Internet, intranet system or extranet system, third party social media sites or other online communications as we may require. We have the right to determine the content and use of the website and intranet or extranet system, social media sites or other online communications and will establish the rules under which Another Side Tours Businesses may or must participate or are prohibited or restricted from participating. Such rules and/or policies shall be set out from time to time in the Electronic Operations Manual or otherwise communicated to you in writing from time to time. You may not separately register any domain name containing any of our marks, participate in any website that markets goods and services similar to an Another Side Tours Business, or operate a website for your Another Side Tours Business that does not link to our website. We retain all rights relating to our website and intranet system and may alter or terminate the website, extranet system or intranet system. (Franchise Agreement, Section 9).

Brand Development Fund

You must pay to us a monthly brand development fee of an amount representing two to three percent (2 to 3%) of Gross Sales (the “Brand Development Fees”). We or our designee will administer the Another Side Tours Brand Development Fund (the “Brand Development Fund”) as follows (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.4):

We will direct all advertising programs with sole control over the strategic direction, creative concepts, materials and media used in the programs, and the geographic, market and media placement and allocation of advertising. You acknowledge that the Brand Development Fund is intended to further public recognition and acceptance of the Trademarks for the benefit of the Another Side Tours System. You further acknowledge that we and our designees undertake no obligation in administering the Brand Development Fund to make expenditures for you which are equivalent or proportionate to your contributions, or to ensure that you benefit directly or proportionately from the placement of advertising or any other marketing or advertising activities, or to ensure that such advertising or marketing impacts or penetrates your market area. If we receive any promotional allowances with respect to your purchase of goods or services from vendors other than us or our affiliates, then we will be under no obligation to contribute the promotional allowances to the Brand Development Fund. The Brand Development Fund is not a trust and neither we nor our affiliates are a fiduciary with respect to the Brand Development Fund.

The Brand Development Fund may, but is not required to, be used to meet all costs of administering, directing, preparing, placing and paying for sales, advertising and marketing initiatives or programs on a national, regional, or local basis. We may use Brand Development Fund contributions in our sole discretion for the cost of developing, preparing, placing, distributing and conducting television, radio, magazine, newspaper or other advertising campaigns, public relations activities, engaging in telemarketing/Internet activities, Search Engine Optimization on the Internet, establishing, maintaining, updating and upgrading one or more Web sites, obtaining sponsorships and endorsements, brand research and development and new marketing initiatives. Advertising and promotional materials developed with Brand Development Fund contributions may be either created in-house by our marketing department, or we may retain the services of a national or regional advertising agency. The Brand Development Fund will not be used to defray any of our general operating expenses, except for reasonable salaries, administrative costs and overhead we may incur in activities related to the administration of the Brand Development Fund and its programs, including preparing advertising and marketing materials and collecting and accounting for contributions to the Brand Development Fund; the cost of employing advertising agencies and/or in-house marketing support; paying interest on monies borrowed by the Brand Development Fund from third parties unaffiliated with us; providing customer service comment cards to you and other Another Side Tours franchisees; and, sponsoring sporting, charitable or other special promotional events, if we choose to do so at our sole discretion.

We expect to expend most contributions to the Brand Development Fund for brand research and development and marketing initiatives during the fiscal year when the contributions are made. If we expend less than the total sum available in the Brand Development Fund during any fiscal year, then we may expend the unused sum during the following fiscal year. If we expend an amount greater than the amount available in the Brand Development Fund in any fiscal year (not including any sum required to be expended because we did not expend all the sums in the Brand Development Fund during the preceding year), we will be entitled to reimburse ourselves from the Brand Development Fund during the next fiscal year for all excess expenditures made during the preceding fiscal year. No money will be spent by the Brand Development Fund to primarily solicit new franchisees. Some media placements may advertise that franchises are available to be purchased, but it will be done in conjunction with the program of the Another Side Tours brand.

Although the Brand Development Fund is intended to be of perpetual duration, we maintain the right to terminate the Brand Development Fund at any time. We will not terminate the Brand Development Fund, however, until it has expended all money in the Brand Development Fund for marketing, advertising and promotional purposes.

The Brand Development Fund is not audited. The Franchisor will provide an annual accounting of the fund to Franchisees upon request.

The Another Side Tours locations owned and operated by our Corporate Entities participate equally with franchisees in contributing to the Brand Development Fund.

There is no current estimate on use of Brand Development Fund monies because it did not exist last year. We do not use any Brand Development Fund monies to solicit new franchise sales.

Cooperatives

We do not have advertising cooperatives and, as of the date of this disclosure document, do not intend to establish any.

Factors affecting this length of time usually include obtaining a vehicle and permits, financing arrangements, completing training, local ordinance compliance questions and delivery/installation of equipment, materials, products and signs.

Some outlets have earned this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance you will earn as much.

Written substantiation of the data used in preparing this information will be made available upon reasonable request.

You should make your own independent investigation to determine whether or not the franchise may be profitable to you. Item 17 of the disclosure document is supplemented by the following:

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, we will comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, Subds. 3, 4 and 5 which require, except in certain specified cases, that (1) a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the Agreement and (2) that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

To the extent that any condition, stipulation, or provision contained in the Franchise Agreement (including any choice of law provision) purports to require any person who, at the time of acquiring a franchise is a resident of Minnesota, or, in the case of a partnership or corporation, organized or incorporated under the laws of Minnesota, or purporting to bind a person acquiring any franchise to be operated in Minnesota, to waive compliance with the Minnesota Franchises Law, such condition, stipulation, or provision may be void and unenforceable under the non-waiver provision of the Minnesota Franchises Law.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.21 and Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(J) prohibit the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Franchise Disclosure Document or agreement(s) can abrogate or reduce any of franchisee's rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or franchisee's rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction. Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(D) prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release.

The Limitations of Claims section must comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5.

5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled “Requirements for franchisee to renew or extend,” and Item 17 (m), entitled “Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer”.

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687.4 and 687.5 be satisfied.

6. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by franchisee”.

You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

7. The following is added the end of the “Summary” section of Item 17(j), titled “Assignment of contract by franchisor”.

However, no assignment will be made except to an assignee who in good faith and judgment of the franchisor, is willing and financially able to assume the franchisor’s obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

8. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17.3, titled “Choice of forum”, and Item 17.2, titled “Choice of law”.

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or upon the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York.

WHEREAS, Potential Franchisee has already signed a Confidentiality Agreement with ONE TOUR, which agreement remains in full force and effect according to its terms;

WHEREAS, Potential Franchisee and ONE TOUR wish to agree upon the conditions of the granting of a Another Side Tours franchise to Potential Franchisee; and

CONSEQUENTLY, the parties hereof agree as follows:

PREAMBLE

The preamble forms an integral part of this Deposit Agreement (“Agreement”) to reflect the intention of the parties hereto.

ANOTHER SIDE TOURS FRANCHISE

Potential Franchisee offers to purchase from ONE TOUR a license to obtain a Another Side Tours franchise to operate a business specialized in guided tours and events under the name « Another Side Tours » according to the following terms and conditions.

AUTHORIZED TERRITORY

The franchise that Potential Franchisee wishes to obtain is for a territory that Potential Franchisee and ONE TOUR will agree upon within thirty (30) days of the signature hereof. The Authorized Territory (as defined in the Franchise Agreement) is to be situated in the City described as follows:

NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

The nature of the activities of the franchise consists of a business specialized in guided tours and other special events for sale to the public under the name « Another Side Tours » operated in a way similar to other Another Side Tours businesses operated by ONE TOUR and/or its affiliated corporations.

TERM

The Franchise Agreement will have an initial term of seven (7) years and may be extended for two (2) additional periods of seven (7) years, subject to certain terms and conditions stated in the Franchise Agreement.

DEPOSIT

At the time of the execution of this Agreement, and in order to cover the costs and expenses that ONE TOUR will incur to examine this Agreement, review Franchisee's background, and to discuss the modalities of the new franchise, including the choice of territory and related services, Potential Franchisee shall pay to ONE TOUR an amount of Three Thousand Eight Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($3,800.00) plus the applicable taxes, which deposit shall be utilized as provided for in the following section. This amount will be applied to the Initial Franchise Fee if ONE TOUR accepts Potential Franchisee's application and Potential Franchisee purchases a Another Side Tours franchise.

USE OF DEPOSIT

It is specifically understood and agreed between Potential Franchisee and ONE TOUR that part of the deposit, an amount of One Thousand Five Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($1,500.00), shall not be reimbursed to Potential Franchisee for any reason whatsoever and that this amount is considered as completely earned by ONE TOUR upon its payment.

Subject to the requirements further described below, ONE TOUR shall remit to Potential Franchisee the balance of the deposit in the amount of Two Thousand Three Hundred and 00/100 dollars ($2,300.00) if any of the following should occur:

- (i) Potential Franchisee decides not to purchase a ONE TOUR franchise within seven (7) days of the signing of this Agreement by giving written notice thereof to ONE TOUR; or
- (i) Potential Franchisee fails to obtain financing for the purchase of a ONE TOUR franchise.

In any and all other instances, including, without limiting the foregoing, if Potential Franchisee fails, for any reason whatsoever, to sign the Franchise Agreement when requested or as required by ONE TOUR, then ONE TOUR shall retain, to compensate it for its investment of time and money, the balance of the deposit. It is understood and agreed that ONE TOUR shall have the full right to retain the balance of the deposit amount.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, any amount due to Potential Franchisee by ONE TOUR relating to the aforementioned deposit will be remitted to Potential Franchisee only if and when it has returned to ONE TOUR all originals and copies of all the documents provided to it by ONE TOUR (including the Franchise Disclosure Document). Potential Franchisee also represents and acknowledges under this Agreement and thereafter that it will not retain any document provided by ONE TOUR.

DELAYS

Time is of the essence with respect to the covenants and obligations of Potential Franchisee under this Agreement. The mere lapse of time to accomplish any obligation under this Agreement shall constitute Potential Franchisee in default, without the necessity for notice or demand.

NOTICES

All notices, demands, claims, documents or communication that a party must or can give or remit to the other party under this agreement, must be given in writing and remitted to the other party in person, sent by certified mail, priority post or by e-mail.

PERSONAL GUARANTEE

By executing this Agreement, Potential Franchisee represents and warranties to ONE TOUR that all directors, officers and shareholders of the eventual Another Side Tours franchise (the latter having to be a corporation) shall sign a personal guarantee to secure all and every obligation of the eventual franchise under the Franchise Agreement. Any failure by any of these persons to sign the personal guarantee shall constitute a refusal by Potential Franchisee to sign the Franchise Agreement.

This Agreement is governed by and will be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada. Nothing in this Section is intended, or will be deemed, to make any Nevada law regulating the offer or sale of franchises or the franchise relationship applicable to this Agreement if such law would not otherwise be applicable. To the extent any dispute cannot be resolved directly between ONE TOUR and Potential Franchisee, Potential Franchisee must file any suit against ONE TOUR only in the federal or state court having jurisdiction where ONE TOUR's principal offices are located at the time suit is filed. ONE TOUR may file suit in the federal or state court located in the jurisdiction where its principal offices are located at the time suit is filed or in the jurisdiction where Potential Franchisee resides or does business or where the claim arose. Potential Franchisee consents to the personal jurisdiction of those courts over it and to venue in those courts.

NEGOTIATION, COMPREHENSION AND EXPLANATIONS

Potential Franchisee recognizes and declares that ONE TOUR advised it that, in the event it has any difficulty understanding any of the obligations contained in this Agreement or in the Franchise Agreement or any other obligation that it may incur towards ONE TOUR, it should immediately advise ONE TOUR so that the latter can provide Potential Franchisee with all reasonable and sufficient explanations in order for it to understand, upon or before the signature of the franchise agreement.

Potential Franchisee also agrees and recognizes that ONE TOUR advised it that the obligations and duties set forth in the Franchise Agreement are not negotiable.

NO OBLIGATION FOR THE FRANCHISOR

By signing below and depositing or cashing the above-noted deposit, ONE TOUR does not accept nor assume any obligation, of any nature whatsoever, to grant Potential Franchisee a franchise or enter into a Franchise Agreement. Franchisor shall have the right, at all times, to put an end to any ongoing discussions and negotiations until the execution of the Franchise Agreement by reimbursing Potential Franchisee the total amount of the deposit mentioned in Section 6 above and, upon reimbursing the aforementioned amount, ONE TOUR will be released from any responsibility of any nature whatsoever towards Potential Franchisee.

We assume no direct or indirect liability or obligation to you for collecting amounts due to the Brand Development Fund. We have the sole right to enforce the obligations of franchisees who contribute to the Brand Development Fund, and neither you nor any other franchisees who contribute to the Brand Development Fund will be deemed a third-party beneficiary with respect to the Brand Development Fund obligations of other franchisees or have any right to enforce the obligation of any franchisee to contribute to the Brand Development Fund.

(7) We may at any time defer or reduce contributions of a Another Side Tours Business franchisee to the Brand Development Fund and, upon 30 days' prior written notice to you, reduce or suspend Brand Development Fund contributions and operations for one or more periods of any length and terminate (and, if terminated, subsequently reinstate) the Brand Development Fund. If we terminate the Brand Development Fund, we will spend all monies in the fund for advertising and/or promotional purposes or distribute all unspent monies to our franchisees, and to us and our affiliates, in proportion to their, and our, respective Brand Development Fund contributions during the preceding 12-month period.

We and our affiliates may be reimbursed by the Search Engine Marketing Fee for administrative expenses directly related to the Search Engine Marketing Fee's marketing programs, including without limitation, conducting market research, preparing advertising and marketing materials, and collecting and accounting for contributions to the Search Engine Marketing Fee. We may use the Search Engine Marketing Fee to pay the administrative costs of the Search Engine Marketing Fee including managing the advertising, marketing, and promotional programs and payment of outside suppliers utilized by the Search Engine Marketing Fee, and we may use the Search Engine Marketing Fee to pay the reasonable salaries and benefits of personnel (including our personnel and our affiliates' personnel) who manage and administer the Search Engine Marketing Fee. We may use the Search Engine Marketing Fee to pay for other administrative costs, travel expenses of personnel while they are on Search Engine Marketing Fee business, meeting costs, overhead relating to Search Engine Marketing Fee business, and other expenses that we incur in activities reasonably related to administering or directing the Search Engine Marketing Fee and its programs.

(3) The Search Engine Marketing Fee will not be our asset. Although the Search Engine Marketing Fee is not a trust, we will hold all Search Engine Marketing Fee contributions for the benefit of the System and use contributions only for the purposes described in this Section 9.B. We do not owe any fiduciary obligation to you for administering the Search Engine Marketing Fee or for any other reason. The Search Engine Marketing Fee may spend in any fiscal year more or less than the total Search Engine Marketing Fee contributions in that year, borrow from us or others (paying reasonable interest) to cover deficits, or invest any surplus for future use. We will use all interest earned on Search Engine Marketing Fee contributions to pay for the administrative costs of the Search Engine Marketing Fee before using the Search Engine Marketing Fee's other assets.

(4) Upon your written request, we will prepare an annual, unaudited statement of Search Engine Marketing Fee collections and expenses within 90 days after our fiscal year end. We may also, in our sole discretion, prepare such financial statements. We may have the Search Engine Marketing Fee audited annually, at the Search Engine Marketing Fee's expense, by an independent certified public accountant. We may incorporate the Search Engine Marketing Fee or operate it through a separate entity whenever we deem appropriate. The successor entity will have all of the rights and duties specified in this Section 9.B.

(5) We intend the Search Engine Marketing Fee to maximize and enhance public, franchisee, and employee recognition of the System and the Marks. Although we will use the Search Engine Marketing Fee to create, develop, use and/or place online advertising and promotional marketing materials and programs, and we may try to engage in brand enhancement activities that will benefit all Another Side Tours Business, we cannot and do not ensure that Search Engine Marketing Fee expenditures will be made in or affecting any geographic area, or will be proportionate or equivalent to Search Engine Marketing Fee contributions by Another Side Tours Business operating in that geographic area. We do not guarantee or assure that you, your Another Side Tours Business or any Another Side Tours Business will benefit directly or in proportion to your Search Engine Marketing Fee contribution from the brand enhancement activities of the Search Engine Marketing Fee or the development of advertising and marketing materials or the placement of advertising and marketing.

(6) We have the right, but no obligation, to use collection agents and institute legal proceedings to collect Search Engine Marketing Fee contributions at the Search Engine Marketing Fee's expense. (2) If you are an individual, a group of individuals, or a partnership comprised solely of individuals, you make the following additional representations and warranties: (a) each individual has signed this Agreement; (b) each individual will be jointly and severally bound by, and personally liable for the timely and complete performance and breach of, each and every provision of this Agreement; and (c) notwithstanding any transfer for convenience of ownership, each individual will continue to be jointly and severally bound by, and personally liable for the timely and complete performance and breach of, each and every provision of this Agreement.

B. Governing Documents. If you are an Entity, then you must provide to us copies of your organizational and governing documents (“Governing Documents”). When any of these governing documents are modified or changed, you must promptly provide copies to us. You must maintain a current list of all of your owners, members or partners (and the percentage ownership of each owner, member or partner). You must comply with Section 16.B prior to any change in ownership interests and sign and deliver to us a revised Exhibit 4 to reflect any permitted changes in the information that Exhibit 4 now contains. If you are an Entity, you must maintain stop -transfer instructions against the transfer on your records of any voting securities, membership interests or ownership interests. If you are a publicly held corporation, these requirements will apply only to the stock owned by your shareholders who have an ownership interest in you in excess of 10%.

C. Personal Guaranty. Each of your owners who hold an ownership interest in you of more than 5% at any point during the Term of this Agreement must sign a guaranty in the form we prescribe undertaking personally to be bound, jointly and severally, by all provisions of this Agreement and any ancillary agreements between you and us. Our current form of guaranty is attached as Exhibit 5.

D. Operating Principal.

(1) If you are owned by more than one individual or you are an Entity, you must designate and retain an individual (which may be one of your owners) to serve as your Operating Principal. The Operating Principal as of the date of this Agreement is identified in Exhibit 4. The Operating Principal, at all times, must have at least a 10% equity ownership interest in you and must be responsible for overseeing and supervising the operation of your Another Side Tours Business. The Operating Principal will be the person with whom we will communicate on all major policy, financial, management, and operational matters, and the only person that we will recognize as having authority to communicate for and on your behalf. You may not change the Operating Principal without our prior written consent.

(2) If the Operating Principal does not meet our qualifications and requirements regarding experience in the industry, you will be required, prior to opening your Another Side Tours Business for business, to retain a Business Manager that meets our qualifications and requirements. Our qualifications and requirements are identified in our Confidential Operations Manual.

(3) The Operating Principal and Business Manager must successfully complete the Initial Training Program and any additional training that we require. The Operating Principal or Business Manager must be the primary manager of your Another Side Tours Business. He or she may not engage in any other business or other activity, directly or indirectly, that requires any significant management responsibility or time commitments, or that may otherwise conflict with the Operating Principal’s obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

(4) If the relationship of the Business Manager terminates or materially changes, you agree to promptly designate a replacement Business Manager, and the Operating Principal must assume all of the obligations of the Business Manager during the interim period. The initial Business Manager must successfully complete our New Owner Training Program before your Another Side Tours Business opens for business.

Any replacement Business Manager must complete our initial training program before engaging in any business pertaining to your Another Side Tours Business. The Operating Principal must maintain his or her primary residence within a reasonable driving distance of your Another Side Tours Business.

(5) If the Operating Principal no longer qualifies as such, you must designate another qualified person to act as Operating Principal within 30 days after the date the prior Operating Principal ceases to be qualified. Your designee to become the Operating Principal must successfully complete the Initial Training Program and any additional training we require within 30 days after being designated as your Operating Principal.

15. TRANSFER BY US. We have the absolute, unrestricted right, exercisable at any time, to change our ownership or form and/or transfer and assign all or any part of our rights and obligations under this Agreement to any person or legal entity without your consent. After our transfer or assignment of this Agreement to a third party who expressly assumes the obligations under this Agreement, we no longer will have any performance or other obligations under this Agreement.

16. TRANSFER BY YOU

A. Transfer Generally. You understand and acknowledge that the rights and duties this Agreement creates are personal to you (or, if you are an Entity, to your owners) and that we have granted the Franchise to you in reliance upon our perceptions of your (or your owners') individual or collective character, skill, aptitude, attitude, business ability, and financial capacity. Accordingly, neither you nor any immediate or remote successor to any part of your interest in this Agreement, nor any individual or Entity which directly or indirectly controls you may sell, assign, transfer, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage, or otherwise encumber any interest in you, this Agreement, the Franchise, your Another Side Tours Business, the Primary Assets of your Another Side Tours Business, the Operating Area, any leases for Primary Assets or any other assets pertaining to your operations under this Agreement (collectively "Transfer") without our prior written consent. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any purported Transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, not having our prior written consent will have no effect with regard to us and will constitute a material breach of this Agreement, for which we may terminate this Agreement without providing you an opportunity to cure the breach.

B. Conditions for Approval of Transfer.

(1) You must advise us in writing of any proposed Transfer, submit (or cause the proposed transferee to submit) a franchise application for the proposed transferee, a copy of all contracts and all other agreements or proposals, and all other information requested by us, relating to the proposed Transfer. Along with that required information, you must pay to us a transfer fee described below in Section 16.B.2 ("Transfer Fee"). The Transfer Fee is non-refundable, however, if the proposed transfer transaction does not close, then we shall apply the Transfer Fee against the transfer fee for any subsequent transfer that you close within the 12-month period following your initial transfer application. If we do not exercise our right of first refusal (as set forth in Section 16.G), the decision as to whether or not to approve a proposed Transfer will be made by us in our sole discretion and will include numerous factors deemed relevant by us. These factors may include, but will not be limited to, the following:

(a) the proposed transferee meets our then-current standards for new franchisees and has sufficient business experience, aptitude, and financial resources to operate your Another Side Tours Business; required reports and statements and are not in violation of this Agreement.

(b) you have paid all amounts owed to us, our affiliates, and third-party vendors and suppliers, have submitted all required reports and statements, and are not in violation of this Agreement.

(c) neither the proposed transferee nor its owners or affiliates have an ownership interest (direct or indirect) in or perform services for a Competing Business (as defined in Section 3.C);

(d) the proposed transferee (or its Operating Principal) satisfactorily completes the Initial Training Program (and any other required training programs we require) and pays any then-current training fees.

(e) the proposed transferee has demonstrated an ability to obtain possessory rights in the Operating Area.

(f) you have corrected any existing deficiencies of your Another Side Tours Business of which we have notified you, and/or the proposed transferee agrees to upgrade, renovate, and refurbish your Another Side Tours Business in accordance with our then current requirements and specifications for Another Side Tours Business within the time period we specify following the effective date of the Transfer (we will advise the proposed transferee before the effective date of the Transfer of the specific actions that are required and the time period within which such actions must be taken);

(g) if you or your owners finance any part of the purchase price, you and/or your owners agree that all of the transferee's obligations under promissory notes, agreements, or security interests reserved in your Another Side Tours Business are subordinate to the transferee's obligation to pay Royalties, Brand Development Fund contributions, and other amounts due to us, our affiliates, and third party suppliers and vendors and otherwise to comply with this Agreement; and

(h) you (and your transferring owners) must sign a general release, in a form satisfactory to us, of any and all claims against us and our affiliates, officers, directors, employees, and agents.

(i) you modify and/or upgrade certain fixtures, equipment, features, and computer hardware or software to our then current standards prior to the closing of the proposed transfer.

(2) If we approve a proposed Transfer, prior to the Transfer becoming effective:

(a) you or the proposed transferee must pay to us the balance of the nonrefundable Transfer Fee, to reimburse us for reasonable expenses associated with reviewing the Transfer. The Transfer Fee will be waived if the proposed transferee: (1) is an Entity formed by you for the convenience of ownership as set forth in Section 16.C; or (2) has obtained your Another Side Tours Business as a result of your death or permanent incapacity as provided in Section 16.D.

(i) Transfer Fee for Current Franchisee to New Entity is one thousand, five hundred dollars ($1,500) per transfer.

(ii) Transfer Fee to Transfer Ownership to an Existing Another Side Tours Franchisee is fifty percent (50%) of the current franchise fee per transfer with a five thousand dollar ($5,000) non-refundable deposit.

(iii) Transfer Fee to a New Owner is seventy-five percent (75%) of the current franchise fee per transfer with a five thousand dollar ($5,000) non-refundable deposit.

(b) if the franchise candidate for the Transfer comes through the investigation process with a franchise sales broker that we have retained, then the transferee must pay our then-current Initial Franchise Fee. This enables us to pay the additional costs we incur, including the payment of the broker's commission.

(c) you and the proposed transferee must sign, at our election, either an assignment agreement and any amendments to this Agreement deemed necessary or desirable by us to reflect the Transfer or our then-current standard form of franchise agreement for a term ending on the expiration date of the Initial Term or Successor Term, as the case may be, of this Agreement. In either event, if the proposed transferee is an Entity, the transferee must complete Exhibit 4 as required by Section 14.B and all individuals who hold or will hold an ownership interest in Franchisee of more than 5% must sign the guaranty attached as Exhibit 5;

(d) the proposed transferee must sign our then-current license agreements or service agreements related to the Technology System; and

(e) you (and all of your owners) must, at our request, sign a written guaranty pursuant to which you will remain liable for all obligations to us incurred before the date of the Transfer.

(3) Following the effective date of the Transfer:

(a) you and your transferring owners agree not to engage in any of the activities proscribed Section 18.B below, for the Restricted Period in the Restricted Area; and

(b) you and your transferring owners will not directly or indirectly at any time or in any manner (except with respect to other Another Side Tours Business you own and operate) identify yourself or themselves or any business as a current or former Another Side Tours Business or as one of our franchisees; use any Mark, any colorable imitation of a Mark, or other indicia of a Another Side Tours Business in any manner or for any purpose; or utilize for any purpose any trade name, trade or service mark, or other commercial symbol that suggests or indicates a connection or association with us.

C. Transfer for Convenience of Ownership. If you are an individual or a partnership and you would like to Transfer this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company formed exclusively for the convenience of ownership, the requirements of Section 16.B will apply to such a Transfer; however, you will not be required to pay a Transfer Fee. Our approval also will be conditioned on the following: (1) the corporation or limited liability company must be newly organized; (2) prior to the Transfer, we must receive a copy of the documents specified in Section 14.B and the transferee must comply with the remaining provisions of Section 16; (3) you must own all voting securities of the corporation or membership interests of the limited liability company or, if you are owned by more than one individual, each person must have the same proportionate ownership interest in the corporation or the limited liability company as prior to the Transfer; and (4) you and your owners must agree to remain personally liable under this Agreement as if the Transfer to the corporation or limited liability company did not occur.

D. Transfer upon Your Death or Permanent Incapacity. If the Transfer is a transfer of ownership interests in you following the death or permanent incapacity (as reasonably determined by us) of one of your owners, that person's executor, administrator or other personal representative must apply to us in writing within 90 days after death or declaration of disability for consent to Transfer this person's interest to a third party that we have approved. We do not charge a Transfer fee under this Section 16.D. That Transfer must be completed within a reasonable time, not to exceed 6 months from the date of death or disability, and is subject to all of the terms and conditions in this Section 16. A failure to Transfer your interest in this Agreement or the Operating Principal's ownership interest in you within this time period will constitute a breach of this Agreement.

E. No Rights to Grant a Security Interest. You may not grant any security interest in your business entity, your Another Side Tours Business, the Operating Area or the Primary Assets without our prior written approval. Our approval may be conditioned, in our sole discretion, on the written agreement by the secured party that, in the event of a default by you under any agreement related to the security interest, we will have the right and option (but not the obligation) to purchase the rights of the secured party upon payment of the fair market value of the secured assets.

F. Effect of Consent to Transfer. Our consent to any Transfer is not a representation of the fairness of the terms of any contract between you and the transferee, a guarantee of your Another Side Tours Business' or the transferee's prospects of success, or a waiver of any claims we have against you (or your owners) or of our right to demand your and your transferee's full compliance with this Agreement.

G. Our Right of First Refusal.

(1) We have the right, exercisable within 10 days after receipt of the notice specified in Section 16.B(1) to send written notice to you that we intend to purchase the interest proposed to be transferred. We may assign our right of first refusal to someone else either before or after we exercise it. Our right of first refusal will not apply with regard to Transfers for Convenience of Ownership under Section 16.C. If the Transfer is proposed to be made pursuant to a sale, we or our designee may purchase the interest proposed to be transferred on the same economic terms and conditions offered by the third-party. Closing on our purchase must occur within 60 days after the date of our notice to the seller electing to purchase the interest. If we cannot reasonably be expected to furnish the same consideration as the third-party, then we may substitute the reasonable equivalent in cash. If the parties cannot agree within 30 days on the reasonable equivalent in cash, we will designate, at our expense, an independent appraiser, and the appraiser's determination will be final. Any material change in the terms of the offer from a third party after we have elected not to purchase the seller's interest will constitute a new offer subject to the same right of first refusal as the third party's initial offer.

(2) If a Transfer to which our right of first refusal applies is proposed to be made by gift, we will designate, at our expense, an independent appraiser to determine the fair market value of the interest proposed to be transferred. We may purchase the interest at the fair market value determined by the appraiser. Closing on the purchase will occur within 30 days after our notice to the transferor of the appraisers' determination of fair market value.

(3) If we elect not to exercise our rights under this Section 16.G, the transferor may complete the Transfer after complying with this Section 16. Closing on the Transfer must occur within 60 days of our election (or such longer period as applicable law may require); otherwise, the third-party's offer will be treated as a new offer subject to our right of first refusal. The Transfer is conditional upon our determination that the Transfer was completed on terms substantially the same as those offered to us. You must provide to us copies of all fully executed agreements and any other information we request relating to the Transfer.

H. Public Offering. Securities or partnership interests in you may be sold, by private or public offering, only with our prior written consent (whether or not our consent is required under any other provision of this Section), which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. In addition to the requirements of Section 16.B, prior to the time that any public offering or private placement of securities or partnership interests in you is made available to potential investors, you at your expense, must deliver to us a copy of the offering documents. You, at your expense, also must deliver to us an opinion of your legal counsel and an opinion of one other legal counsel selected by us (both of which shall be addressed to us and in a form acceptable to us) that the offering documents properly use the Marks and accurately describe your relationship with us and/or our affiliates. The indemnification provisions of Section 23 shall also include any losses or expenses incurred by us and/or our affiliates in connection with any statements made by or on behalf of you in any public offering or private placement of your securities, ordinances, and Claims arising out of, or relating to this Agreement and all other agreements between you or any Franchisee Releasor and any One Tour At A Time Releasee, the sale of a franchise to you or any Franchisee Releasor, the development and operation of your Another Side Tours Business and the development and operation of all other Another Side Tours Business operated by you or any Franchisee Releasor that are franchised by any One Tour At A Time Releasee. This General Release does not release any claims arising from representations made in our Franchise Disclosure Document or its exhibits or otherwise impair or affect any claims arising after the date of this Agreement. You (on behalf of the Franchisee Releasors) expressly agree that, with respect to this release, any and all rights granted under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code are expressly waived, to the extent applicable. That Section reads as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, AND THAT IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

17. COVENANTS

A. Confidential Information. During and after the Term, you may not communicate, divulge or use for any purpose other than the operation of your Another Side Tours Business any confidential information, knowledge, trade secrets or know-how which may be communicated to you or which you may learn by virtue of your relationship with us (“Confidential Information”). You may divulge Confidential Information only to your professional advisers and to your employees who must have access to the information to operate your Another Side Tours Business. All Confidential Information, relating to us, our business plans, or the System are deemed confidential for purposes of this Agreement, except information that you can demonstrate came to your attention by lawful means prior to our disclosure; or which, at the time of our disclosure to you, had become a part of the public domain. You must require your Operating Principal and key employees and any other person or entity you wish to disclose any Confidential Information to sign agreements, in a form acceptable to us, that they will maintain the confidentiality of the disclosed information. The agreements must identify us as a third-party beneficiary with the independent right to enforce the agreements.

B. Restrictions.

(1) You acknowledge and agree that: (a) pursuant to this Agreement, you will have access to the Confidential Information; (b) the System and the opportunities, associations and experience established by us and acquired by you under this Agreement are of substantial and material value; (c) in developing the System, we and our affiliates have made and continue to make substantial investments of time, technical and commercial research, and money; (d) we would be unable to adequately protect the System and the Confidential Information against unauthorized use or disclosure and would be unable to adequately encourage a free exchange of ideas and information among Another Side Tours Business if our franchisees were permitted to hold interests in “Competing Businesses” (defined in Section 3.C), unless you already owned and operated such business activity prior to joining the franchise and disclosed such prior operations to us in writing. Such prior operations shall not be deemed a Competing Businesses provided that you have disclosed such business activity in writing to us and received our written acknowledgment that such business activity shall not be deemed a Competing Business. You acknowledge that restrictions on your right to hold interests in, or perform services for Competing Businesses will not hinder your activities. You and your owners expressly acknowledge that you possess skills and abilities of a general nature and have other opportunities for exploiting these skills. Consequently, our enforcing the restrictions contained in this Section will not deprive you of your personal goodwill or ability to earn a living.

(2) You therefore agree that, during the Term of this Agreement and for the “Restricted Period” following the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, you and your owners will not, either directly or indirectly, for yourself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with, any person, firm, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or other entity:

(a) own, maintain, operate, engage in, franchise or license, advise, help, make loans to, or have any direct or indirect controlling or non-controlling interest as an owner (whether of record, beneficially, or otherwise) or be or perform services as a partner, director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, representative, or agent in any Competing Business; or

(b) divert or attempt to divert, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, any actual or potential business or customer of any Another Side Tours Business to a Competing Business.

(3) For purposes of this Agreement, the term “Restricted Period” shall be two (2) years from the date the Agreement expires or is terminated; provided however, that if a court determines that such period is unenforceable, the Restricted Period shall end one (1) year from the date the Agreement expires or is terminated; provided however, that if a court determines that such period is unenforceable, the Restricted Period shall end six (6) months from the date the Agreement expires or is terminated.

(4) During the Term of this Agreement, there is no geographical limitation on the restrictions contained in this Section 18.B. During the Restricted Period, these restrictions will apply in the Operating Area; within the Protected Area; within a 5-mile radius of the outer boundaries of the Protected Area; and within 5 miles of the outer edge of any other Another Side Tours Business Protected Area, in operation or under construction on the later of: (i) the date of the termination or expiration of this Agreement; or (ii) the date on which all persons restricted by Section 18.B begin to comply with Section 18.B (the “Restricted Area”).

(5) If, at any time during the Restricted Period, you or your owners fail to comply with your obligations contained in this Section 18.B, that period of noncompliance will not be credited toward the satisfaction of your obligations under this Section 18.B. These restrictions also apply after Transfers, as provided in Section 16.B(3) above. Equity ownership of less than 2% of a Competing Business whose stock or other forms of ownership interest are publicly traded on a recognized United States stock exchange will not be deemed to violate this Section 18.B.

(6) If any restriction in this Section 18.B is deemed unenforceable by virtue of its scope in terms of area, business activity prohibited, and/or length of time, but would be enforceable if modified, you and we agree that the covenant will be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in the jurisdiction whose law determines the covenant’s validity. Specifically, if any part of these restrictions is found to be unreasonable in time or distance, each month of time or mile of distance may be deemed a separate unit so that the time or distance may be reduced by appropriate order of the court to that deemed reasonable.

(7) You agree to obtain similar covenants from the personnel and persons we specify, including your officers, directors, managers and other employees who attend our training programs or have access to Confidential Information and your immediate family members (which include spouses and domestic partners and such other persons as we may specify following our review of your franchise application and proposed operations and ownership structure). We have the right to regulate the form of agreement that you use and to be a third-party beneficiary of that agreement with independent enforcement rights.

18. TERMINATION

A. Termination by You. Franchisee may terminate this Agreement:

(1) upon the material default by Franchisor of one or more provisions of this Agreement provided that the Franchisee provides written notice of the default to Franchisor along with no less than sixty (60) days to cure the default. If the default outlined in Franchisee's notice of default cannot be cured within sixty (60) days and Franchisor is making commercially reasonable efforts to cure the default, the cure period shall be extended for an additional sixty (60) days. If you terminate this Agreement, you must still comply with your post-termination obligations described in Section 20 and all other obligations that survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement; or

(3) you become insolvent; you make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or admit in writing your insolvency or inability to pay your debts generally as they become due; you consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, or liquidator of all or the substantial part of your property; your Another Side Tours Business is attached, seized, subjected to a writ or distress warrant, or levied upon, unless the attachment, seizure, writ, warrant, or levy is vacated within 30 days; or any order appointing a receiver, trustee, or liquidator of you or your Another Side Tours Business is not vacated within 30 days following the order's entry;

(4) there is a material breach by you of any covenant or obligation set forth in Section 18;

(5) any Transfer that requires our prior written approval occurs without your having obtained that prior written approval.

(6) we discover that you made a material misrepresentation or omitted a material fact in the information that you provided to us in connection with our decision to grant a Franchise to you;

(9) you lose the right to operate in your Territory and you are unable to regain the right to operate in your Territory within 6 (six) months.

(10) you, the Operating Principal, your Business Manager or any of your owners are convicted of, or plead no contest to, a felony charge, a crime involving moral turpitude, or any other crime or offense that is reasonably likely, in our sole opinion, to adversely affect us, our affiliates, the goodwill associated with the Marks, or the System.

(11) you, or your Operating Principal, do not satisfactorily complete the Initial Training Program (after we provide a second opportunity as provided in Section 11.A(3));

(12) you understate the Gross Sales of your Another Side Tours Business for any period by 2% or more 3 or more times during any 3-year period.

(13) your or any of your owners' assets, property, or interests are blocked under any law, ordinance, or regulation relating to terrorist activities, or you or any of your owners otherwise violate any such law, ordinance, or regulation; you or your owners: (a) remain in default beyond the applicable cure period under, or we terminate, any other agreement with us or our affiliates (provided that, if the default is not by you, we will provide to you written notice of the default and a 30-day period to cure the default); (b) remain in default beyond the applicable cure period under any real estate lease, equipment lease, or financing instrument relating to your Another Side Tours Business; (c) remain in default beyond the applicable cure period under any contract with any vendor or supplier to your Another Side Tours Business; or (d) fail to pay when due any taxes or assessments relating to your Another Side Tours Business or its employees, unless you are actively prosecuting or defending the claim or suit in a court of competent jurisdiction or by appropriate government administrative procedure or by arbitration or mediation conducted by a recognized alternative dispute resolution organization;

C. Termination Following Expiration of Cure Period

(1) Except for those items listed in preceding Section 19.B or 19.C(2), you will have 30 days after written receipt of notice of default from us within which to remedy any default and provide evidence of that remedy to us. If any default is not cured within that time, this Agreement will terminate without further notice to you effective immediately upon expiration of that time, unless we notify you otherwise in writing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the default cannot be corrected within 30 days, you will have such additional time to correct the default as reasonably required (not to exceed 90 days) provided that you promptly begin taking the actions necessary to correct the default during the 30-day cure period and diligently and in good faith pursue those actions to completion. You will be in default under this Section 19.C(1) for any failure to materially comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, the Manual or otherwise in writing, or to carry out the terms of this Agreement in good faith.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of preceding Section 19.C(1), if you default in the payment of any monies owed to us or our affiliates when such monies become due and payable and you fail to pay such monies within 5 days after receiving written notice of default or immediately if payment has not been made within 30 days of its due date, then this Agreement will terminate effective immediately upon expiration of that time, unless we notify you otherwise in writing.

(3) If you have received two (2) or more notices of default within the previous 12-month period, we may send you a notice of termination upon your next default within that 12-month period without providing you an opportunity to remedy the default.

D. Termination Following Inspection. We (or our designee) may periodically conduct inspections of your Another Side Tours Business to evaluate your compliance with the System and this Agreement. Following each Inspection, we will provide to you an Inspection report and Inspection score on the Inspection and those conditions at your Another Side Tours Business that must be rectified. If you fail to achieve a passing score on an Inspection, the Inspection report will constitute a notice of default. If you fail to achieve a passing score on the next Inspection (which we will conduct at least 30 days after your receipt of the Inspection report for the prior Inspection), we may terminate this Agreement, without opportunity to cure, by providing you written notice of termination along with the Inspection report.

19. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

A. Your Obligations. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement:

(1) The rights granted to you in the Protected Area immediately will terminate, and we will have the right to operate, or license others to operate, Another Side Tours Business anywhere in the Protected Area.

(2) You and your owners must continue to abide by the covenants in Section 18;

(3) Within 15 days, or on any later date that we determine the amounts due to us and our affiliates, you must pay to us and our affiliates all sums due and owing to us and our affiliates.

(4) You must immediately discontinue all use of the Marks in connection with your Another Side Tours Business and of any and all items bearing the Marks; remove the Marks from your Another Side Tours Business and from clothing, signs, materials, motor vehicles and other items owned or used by you in the operation of your Another Side Tours Business; cancel all advertising for your Another Side Tours Business that contains the Marks; and take such action as may be necessary to cancel any filings or registrations for your Another Side Tours Business that contain any Marks. You must comply with this Section 20.A before any items bearing the Marks are offered for sale or auction by you or your Franchisors or lienholders.

(5) You must immediately cease using any of our Confidential Information (including the Technology System or similar technology and digital passwords and identifications that we have licensed or loaned to you or that otherwise are proprietary to us or the System) in any business or otherwise and return to us the Technology System, your client list, your telephone numbers, your email addresses, your social media pages, all copies of the Manual, and any other confidential materials that we have loaned you;

(6) Within 30 days, you must deliver to us all signs, sign-faces, sign-cabinets, marketing materials, forms, and other materials containing any Mark, or otherwise identifying or relating to a Another Side Tours Business that we request and allow us, without liability to you or third parties for trespass or any other claim, to enter the Operating Area and remove these items from Another Side Tours Business;

(7) You agree to promptly notify the telephone company, all telephone directory publishers, and all domain name registries, social media platforms, and internet service providers of the termination or expiration of your right to use any telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, URLs and domain names, or other numbers, names and telephone directory listings associated with any Mark; to authorize the transfer of these numbers, names and directory listings to us or to a third party, at our direction; and/or to instruct the telephone company, domain name registries and internet service providers to forward all calls, e-mails and electronic communications made to your names, numbers or addresses to names, numbers or addresses we specify. If you fail to do so, we may take whatever action and sign whatever documents we deem appropriate on your behalf to effect these events.

(8) If we do not have or do not exercise an option to purchase the Assets (as defined in Section 21) of Another Side Tours Business under Section 21 below, you agree promptly and at your own expense to make the alterations we specify in our Manual (or otherwise) to distinguish your Another Side Tours Business clearly from its former appearance and from other Another Side Tours Business in order to prevent public confusion. If you fail to promptly make these alterations and modifications, we will have the right (at your expense, to be paid upon your receipt of an invoice from us) to do so without being guilty of trespass or other tort; and

(9) If you are a party to any lease agreements for any Equipment from us or any of our affiliates, you agree to return all Equipment promptly in accordance with such lease agreements and comply with all other obligations contained therein.

B. Evidence of Compliance. You must furnish to us, within 30 days after the effective date of termination or expiration, evidence (certified to be true, complete, accurate and correct by you or by your chief executive officer if you are a corporation; by your manager, if you are a limited liability company; or by your general partner, if you are a partnership) satisfactory to us of your compliance with Sections 20.A.

C. Prohibition from Engaging in Future Conduct. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement and your satisfaction of the covenants set forth in Section 18, you agree that you will not, except with respect to a business franchised by us or our affiliates which is then open and operating pursuant to an effective franchise agreement: (1) operate or do business under any name or in any manner that might tend to give the public the impression that you are connected in any way with us or our affiliates or have any right to use the System or the Marks; (2) make, use or avail yourself of any of the materials or Confidential Information furnished or disclosed by us or our affiliates under this Agreement or disclose or reveal any such materials or Confidential Information or any portion of those materials or Confidential Information to anyone else; or (3) assist anyone not licensed by us or our affiliates to construct or equip a business substantially similar to a Another Side Tours Business.

D. Continuing Obligations. All of our and your (and your owners') obligations which expressly or by their nature survive this Agreement's expiration or termination will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination and until the obligations are satisfied in full or by their nature expire.

E. No Exclusive Remedy. No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to us in this Section 20 is exclusive of any other right or remedy provided or permitted by law or equity.

20. OUR OPTION TO PURCHASE CERTAIN ASSETS OF YOUR ANOTHER SIDE TOURS BUSINESS

A. Scope. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, we will provide written notice to you, within 30 days after the effective date of termination or expiration, if we intend to exercise our option to purchase from you some or all of your Assets used in your Another Side Tours Business. As used in this Agreement, the term "Assets" means and includes, without limitation, leasehold improvements, equipment, vehicles, furnishings, fixtures, signs and inventory (non-perishable products, materials and supplies) used in your Another Side Tours Business, real or personal property leases, and any licenses necessary to operate your Another Side Tours Business. We will have the unrestricted right to assign this option to purchase the Assets. We or our assignee will be entitled to all customary representations and warranties that the Assets are free and clear (or, if not, accurate and complete disclosure) as to: (1) ownership, condition and title; (2) liens and encumbrances; (3) environmental and hazardous substances; and (4) validity of contracts and liabilities inuring to us or affecting the Assets, whether contingent or otherwise.

B. Purchase Price. The purchase price for the Assets ("Purchase Price") will be their fair market value, determined as of the effective date of purchase in a manner that accounts for customary depreciation and condition of the Assets; provided, however, that the Purchase Price will take into account the termination of this Agreement. Further, the Purchase Price for the Assets will not contain any factor or increment for any of the Marks, or other trademarks, service marks or commercial symbols used in connection with the operation of your Another Side Tours Business nor any goodwill or "going concern" value for your Another Side Tours Business. We may exclude from the Assets purchased in accordance with this Section any equipment, vehicles, furnishings, fixtures, signs, and inventory that are not approved as meeting then-current standards for a Another Side Tours Business or for which you cannot deliver a Bill of Sale in a form satisfactory to us.

C. Certified Appraisers. If we and you are unable to agree on the fair market value of the Assets within 30 days after your receipt of our notice of our intent to exercise our option to purchase the Assets, the fair market value will be determined by two professionally certified appraisers, one selected by you and one selected by us. If the valuations set by the two appraisers differ by more than 10%, the two appraisers will select a third professionally certified appraiser who also will appraise the fair market value of the Assets. The Appraiser shall consider, among other things: (1) the ownership, condition and title of the Assets; (2) liens and encumbrances on the Assets; (3) environmental and hazardous substances at or upon the Operating Area; and (4) the validity of contracts and liabilities inuring to us or affecting the Assets, whether contingent or otherwise. The average value set by the appraisers (whether two or three appraisers as the case may be) will be conclusive and will be the Purchase Price. The appraisers will be given full access to your Another Side Tours Business, the Operating Area and your books and records during customary business hours to conduct the appraisal and will value the Assets to be purchased in accordance with the standards of this Section 21. The appraisers' fees and costs will be borne equally by you and us.

D. Exercise of Option. Within ten (10) days after the Purchase Price has been determined, we may exercise our option to purchase the Assets by so notifying you in writing ("Purchase Notice"). The Purchase Price will be paid in United States Dollars. You will give us and our representatives access to your Another Side Tours Business and the Operating Area at all reasonable times for the purpose of conducting inspections of the Assets, provided that such access does not unreasonably interfere with your operations of your Another Side Tours Business. Prior to the end of the Due Diligence Period, we will notify you in writing of any objections that we have to any finding disclosed in any title search, lien search, survey, environmental assessment or inspection. If you cannot or elect not to correct any such title defect, environmental objection, defect in the working condition of the Assets or any other objection, we will have the option to either accept the condition of the Assets as it exists or rescind our Purchase Notice, on or before the Closing.

E. Site Leases. If a storage unit or area, storefront, or other location is leased, you agree to use reasonable efforts to effect a termination of the existing lease. If the lease is assigned to us or we sublease the site from you, we will indemnify and hold you harmless from any ongoing liability under the lease from the date we assume possession of the site, and you will indemnify and hold us harmless from any liability under the lease prior to and including that date.

21. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

A. Independent Contractors. You and we agree and acknowledge that this Agreement is intended solely to create an independent contractor relationship between us. Nothing in this Agreement is deemed or construed to create a joint venture, partnership or agency relationship between you and us for any purpose.

B. Except as otherwise explicitly set forth herein, you and we do not have any authority to bind or commit the other to any agreement, commitment, or obligation. You and we agree and acknowledge that you and only you shall possess and/or exercise substantial direct and immediate control over the essential terms and conditions of employment of your employees. You are, subject to compliance with applicable local, state, and federal laws, solely responsible for: (1) setting the wages, benefits, and related compensation of your employees; (2) setting the work schedules and hours requirements for your employees; (3) assigning work duties to your employees; (4) establishing, communicating, and enforcing rules, directions, means and methods of performance, and employee discipline to your employees; (5) hiring and firing your employees; and (6) establishing and maintaining safety standards for your employees. You shall defend, indemnify, and hold us harmless against any and all damages, costs, fees, expenses, settlements, payments, or liabilities incurred by us as a result of or in connection with claims, investigations, demands, suits, actions, inquiries, or allegations made by one or more of your employees, contractors, or subcontractors, or by a governmental authority that we are, in any manner for any purpose, an employer or joint employer of one or more of your employees, contractors, or subcontractors.

C. Taxes. We will have no liability for any sales, use, service, occupation, excise, gross receipts, income, property, or other taxes, whether levied upon you or your Another Side Tours Business, due to the business you conduct (except for our income taxes). You are responsible for paying these taxes and must reimburse us for any taxes that we must pay to any state taxing authority on account of either your operation or payments that you make to us.

22. INDEMNIFICATION

A. You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless us, our affiliates, and our and their respective shareholders, members, owners, managers, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors, and assignees (“Indemnified Parties”) against, and to reimburse any one or more of the Indemnified Parties for, all claims, obligations, and damages directly or indirectly arising out of the operation of your Another Side Tours Business, the business you conduct under this Agreement, or your breach of this Agreement, including, without limitation, those claims alleged to be or found to have been caused by the Indemnified Party’s negligence, unless (and then only to the extent that) the claims, obligations, or damages are determined to be caused solely by our own gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct, or pursuant to strict liability, in a final, unappealable ruling issued by a court with competent jurisdiction.

B. For purposes of this Section 23, “claims” include all obligations, damages (actual, consequential, or otherwise), and costs that any Indemnified Party reasonably incurs in defending any claim against it, including, without limitation, reasonable accountants’, attorneys’, and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, travel and living expenses, and other expenses of litigation or alternative dispute resolution, regardless of whether litigation or alternative dispute resolution is commenced. Each Indemnified Party may defend any claim against it at your expense and agree to settlements or take any other remedial, corrective, or other actions. We have the right to designate attorneys that you must retain to defend any claims subject to this Section 23.

C. This indemnity will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement. An Indemnified Party need not seek recovery from any insurer or other third party, or otherwise mitigate its losses and expenses, in order to maintain and recover fully a claim against you under this Section 23. You agree that a failure to pursue a recovery or mitigate a loss will not reduce or alter the amounts that an Indemnified Party may recover from you under this Section 23.

23. SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

A. Severability. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, each section, paragraph, term, and provision of this Agreement is severable, and if, for any reason, any part is held to be invalid or contrary to or in conflict with any applicable present or future law or regulation in a final, unappealable ruling issued by any court, agency, or tribunal with competent jurisdiction, that ruling will not impair the operation of, or otherwise affect, any other portions of this Agreement, which will continue to have full force and effect and bind the parties.

B. Alteration to Agreement by Rule of Law. If any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction requires more notice than this Agreement requires of this Agreement’s termination or some other action that this Agreement does not require, or if, under any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction, any provision of this Agreement or any System Standard is invalid, unenforceable, or unlawful, the notice and/or other action required by the law or rule will be substituted for the comparable provisions of this Agreement, and we may modify the invalid or unenforceable provision or System Standard to the extent required to be valid and enforceable or delete the unlawful provision in its entirety. You agree to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty the law permits which is subsumed within any provision of this Agreement, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement.

C. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as otherwise provided in Section 23, nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer upon any person or legal entity other than us and you as the parties to this Agreement and our affiliates and such of our heirs, successors and assigns, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

D. Interpretation. No provision of this Agreement should be interpreted in favor of, or against any party because of the party that drafted this Agreement.

E. Our Discretion. Whenever we have expressly reserved in this Agreement a right and/or discretion to take or withhold an action, or to grant or decline to grant you a right to take or withhold an action, except as otherwise expressly and specifically provided in this Agreement, we may make such decision or exercise our right and/or discretion on the basis of our judgment of what is in our best interests. This also applies if we are deemed to have a right and/or discretion. Our judgment of what is in the best interests of the System, at the time our decision is made or its right or discretion is exercised, can be made without regard to whether: (1) other reasonable alternative decisions or actions, or even arguably preferable alternative decisions or actions, could have been made by us; (2) our decision or the action taken promotes our financial or other individual interest; (3) our decision or the action taken applies differently to you and one or more other franchisees or our company-owned or affiliate-owned operations; or (4) our decision or the action taken is adverse to your interests. We will have no liability to you for any such decision or action. We and you intend that the exercise of our right or discretion will not be subject to limitation or review. If applicable law implies a covenant of good faith and fair dealing in this Agreement, we and you agree that such covenant will not imply any rights or obligations that are inconsistent with a fair construction of the terms of this Agreement and that this Agreement grants us the right to make decisions, take actions and/or refrain from taking actions not inconsistent with your rights and obligations under this Agreement.

24. CONSENTS, APPROVALS AND WAIVERS

A. Consents. Whenever this Agreement requires our prior approval or consent, you must make a timely written request to us for that approval or consent, and any approval or consent received, in order to be effective and binding upon us, must be obtained in writing and be signed by one of our authorized officers.

B. Waivers. We and you may by written instrument unilaterally waive or reduce any obligation of or restriction upon the other under this Agreement, effective upon delivery of written notice to the other or another effective date stated in the notice of waiver. Any waiver granted will be without prejudice to any other rights we or you have, will be subject to continuing review, and may be revoked at any time and for any reason effective upon delivery of 10 days' prior written notice. We and you will not waive or impair any right, power, or option this Agreement reserves (including, without limitation, our right to demand exact compliance with every term, condition, and covenant or to declare any breach to be a default and to terminate this Agreement before the expiration of its Term) because of: any custom or practice at variance with this Agreement's terms; our or your failure, refusal, or neglect to exercise any right under this Agreement or to insist upon the other's compliance with this Agreement, including, without limitation, any System Standard; our waiver of or failure to exercise any right, power, or option, whether of the same, similar, or different nature, with other Another Side Tours Business; the existence of agreements for other Another Side Tours Business which contain provisions different from those contained in this Agreement; or our acceptance of any payments due from you after any breach of this Agreement. No special or restrictive legend or endorsement on any check or similar item given to us will be a waiver, compromise, settlement, or accord and satisfaction.

C. Variance by Reason of Force Majeure. If the performance of any obligation by any party under this Agreement is prevented, hindered or delayed by reason of Force Majeure, which cannot be overcome by reasonable commercial measures, the parties will be relieved of their respective obligations (to the extent that the parties, having exercised best efforts, are prevented, hindered or delayed in such performance) during the period of such Force Majeure. The party whose performance is affected by an event of Force Majeure must give prompt written notice of such Force Majeure event to the other party by setting forth the nature of the Force Majeure and an estimate as to its duration. As used in this Agreement, the term “Force Majeure” means any act of God, strike, lock-out or other industrial disturbance, war (declared or within the control of the party affected thereby; provided, however, that epidemics, diseases, pandemics (including but not limited to COVID-19), and any would-be Force Majeure caused by the foregoing exceptions, directly or indirectly, shall not be included within this definition. Additionally, your inability to obtain financing (regardless of the reason) may not constitute Force Majeure.

25. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. We and you acknowledge that each element of this Agreement is essential and material and that, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, you and we will deal with each other in good faith. This Agreement and its attachments, the Manual, and the documents referred to in this Agreement constitute the entire, full and complete agreement between the parties concerning your rights, and supersede any and all prior or contemporaneous negotiations, discussions, understandings or agreements. There are no other representations, inducements, promises, agreements, arrangements, or undertakings, oral or written, between the parties relating to the matters covered by this Agreement other than those set forth in this Agreement and its attachments, the Manual, and the documents referred to in this Agreement (including our Franchise Disclosure Document). No obligations or duties that contradict or are inconsistent with the express terms of this Agreement may be implied into this Agreement. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, no amendment, change or variance from this Agreement will be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by you and us and executed in writing. Nothing in the agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made in the Franchise Disclosure Document.

26. ENFORCEMENT

A. Mediation. Before you or we may bring an action in court, against the other, you and we must first meet to mediate the dispute (except as otherwise provided below). Any such mediation will be non-binding and will be conducted by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its then-current rules for mediation of commercial disputes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this Section 27.A will not bar you or us from obtaining judicial or injunctive relief for claims that are based solely on demands for monies owed, or from obtaining injunctive relief against threatened conduct that will cause us loss or damages, under the usual equity rules, including the applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and preliminary injunctions, without having to engage in mediation; including, without limitation, claims involving the Marks. The mediation proceeding will be conducted within 30 miles of our then-existing principal business location.

B. Governing Law. Except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.) or other federal law, this Agreement, the Franchise, and all claims arising from the relationship between you and us will be governed by the laws of the State of Nevada, without regard to its conflict of laws rules, provided, however, that: (1) the provisions of Section 18 shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the jurisdiction in which your Another Side Tours Business is located.

C. Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue. You and we agree that, to the extent any disputes cannot be resolved directly between us, you will file any suit against us only in the federal or state court having jurisdiction where our principal offices are located at the time suit is filed. We may file suit in the federal or state court located in the jurisdiction where our principal offices are located at the time suit is filed or in the jurisdiction where you reside or do business, where your Another Side Tours Business is or was located, or where the claim arose. You consent to the personal jurisdiction of those courts over you and to venue in those courts.

D. Waiver of Certain Damages and Rights. You and we waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right or claim of any punitive or exemplary damages against each other and agree that, in the event of a dispute between us, we each will be limited to the recovery of actual damages sustained. You and we waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the right to bring, or be a class member in, any class action suits and the right to trial by jury.

E. Reimbursement of Costs and Expenses. If either party brings an action to enforce this Agreement in a judicial proceeding, the party prevailing in that proceeding will be entitled to reimbursement of costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, reasonable accountants', attorneys', attorneys' assistants' and expert witness fees, the cost of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, other litigation expenses, and travel and living expenses, whether incurred prior to, in preparation for, in contemplation of or subsequent to the filing of, the proceeding. If we utilize legal counsel (including in-house counsel employed by us) in connection with any failure by you to comply with this Agreement, you agree to reimburse us for any of the above-listed costs and expenses incurred by us. In any judicial proceeding, the amount of these costs and expenses will be determined by the court and not by a jury.

F. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to us or you by this Agreement is intended to be, nor shall be deemed, exclusive of any other right or remedy in this Agreement or by law or equity provided or permitted, but each shall be cumulative of every other right or remedy. The provisions of this Section 27 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

G. Limitations of Claims. Any and all claims and actions arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the relationship between you and us, or your operation of your Another Side Tours Business, must be brought or asserted before the expiration of the earlier of: (1) the time period for bringing an action under any applicable state or federal statute of limitations; (2) 1 year after the date upon which a party discovered, or should have discovered, the facts giving rise to an alleged claim; or (3) 2 years after the first act or omission giving rise to an alleged claim; or it is expressly acknowledged and agreed by all parties that such claims or actions will be irrevocably barred. Our claims attributable to underreporting of sales, and claims of the parties for failure to pay monies owed and/or indemnification will be subject only to the applicable state or federal statute of limitations.

H. Injunctive Relief. You recognize that your failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, your failure to fully comply with all post-termination obligations, is likely to cause irreparable harm to us, our affiliates and the System. Therefore, you agree that, in the event of a breach or threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by you, we will be entitled to injunctive relief (both preliminary and permanent) restraining that breach and/or to specific performance without showing or proving actual damages and without posting any bond or security. Any equitable remedies sought by us will be in addition to, and not in lieu of, all remedies and rights that you otherwise may have arising under applicable law or by virtue of any breach of this Agreement.

27. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Gender and Number. All references to gender and number will be construed to include such other gender and number as the context may require.

B. Captions. All captions in this Agreement are intended solely for the convenience of the parties and none will be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement.

C. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, and each copy so executed and delivered will be deemed an original.

D. Time. Time is of the essence of this Agreement for each provision in which time is a factor. Whenever this Agreement refers to a period of days or months, the first day or month to be counted will be the day or month of the designated action, event or notice. Days will be measured by calendar days, except that if the last day of a period is a Saturday, Sunday or national holiday, the period automatically will be extended to the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or national holiday.

E. Delegation of Performance. You agree that we have the right to delegate the performance of any portion or all of our obligations under this Agreement to third-party designees, whether these designees are our agents or independent contractors with whom we have contracted to perform these obligations. If we do so, such third-party designees will be obligated to perform the delegated functions for you in compliance with this Agreement.

F. Compliance with Anti-Terrorism Laws. You and your owners agree to comply, and to assist us to the fullest extent possible in our efforts to comply, with Anti-Terrorism Laws (defined below). In connection with that compliance, you and your owners certify, represent, and warrant that none of your property or interests is subject to being blocked under, and that you and your owners otherwise are not in violation of, any of the Anti-Terrorism Laws. The term “Anti-Terrorism Laws” means Executive Order 13224 issued by the President of the United States, the USA PATRIOT Act, the rules, orders and guidelines promulgated by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (“OFAC”) and all other present and future federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, regulations, policies, lists, and other requirements of any governmental authority addressing or in any way relating to terrorist acts and acts of war. Any violation of the Anti-Terrorism Laws by you or your owners, or any blocking of your or your owners’ assets under the Anti-Terrorism Laws, will constitute good cause for immediate termination of this Agreement, as provided in Section 19.B(13) above.

28. NOTICES AND PAYMENTS. No notice, demand, request or other communication to the parties will be binding upon the parties unless the notice is in writing, refers specifically to this Agreement and: (A) if to us, is sent to 11700 W. Charleston BLVD, #170-001, Las Vegas, Nevada 89135 (Attn: Kenneth Lippman); or (B) if to you, is sent to the address and to the individual specified on Exhibit 4 or is sent to the Operating Area of your Another Side Tours Business. Any party may designate a new address for notices by giving written notice of the new address pursuant to this Section. Notices will be effective upon receipt (or first refusal of delivery) and may be: (1) delivered personally; (2) transmitted by facsimile or electronic mail to the e-mail address(es) or number(s) set forth above (or in Exhibit 4) with electronic confirmation of receipt; (3) mailed in the United States mail, postage prepaid, certified mail, return receipt requested; or (4) mailed via overnight courier.

TO THE ONE TOUR AT A TIME LLC AGREEMENT FORM OF COLLATERAL ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE

THIS COLLATERAL ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE (“Assignment”) is entered on _____, 20____ between One Tour At A Time, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Franchisor”), and _____ (“Franchisee”) located at _____, and _____ (“Landlord”), located at _____.

Subject to the provisions of this Assignment, Franchisee, to secure its obligations to Franchisor to affect various provisions of the Agreement dated _____ between Franchisor and Franchisee (“Franchise Agreement”), and for other reasons, hereby assigns, transfers and sets over unto Franchisor and/or such person(s)/entity(ies) as Franchisor may from time-to-time designate, all of Franchisee’s right, title and interest, whether as tenant or otherwise, in, to, and under that certain lease dated _____, (“Lease”), as attached to this Assignment for the Operating Area located at _____, between Franchisee and Landlord, respecting that property commonly known as the Another Side Tours Business (“Another Side Tours Business”). Franchisor shall have no liabilities or obligations of any kind arising from, or in connection with, this Assignment, the Lease, or otherwise (including, but not limited to, any obligation to pay rent and/or other amounts) until and unless Franchisor, in its reasonable discretion, takes possession of the Another Side Tours Business pursuant to the terms hereof and expressly (and in writing) assumes the rights and obligations of Franchisee under the Lease, Franchisor only being responsible for those obligations accruing after the date of such assumption.

Franchisor will not take possession of the Another Side Tours Business until and unless Franchisee defaults, and/or receives notice of default, (and/or until there is a termination, cancellation or rescission of Franchisee’s rights) under the Lease, any sublease, Franchise Agreement, any other document or instrument, or otherwise. In such event, Franchisor (or its designee) shall have the right (but not the obligation) to take possession of the Another Side Tours Business, expel Franchisee from the Another Side Tours Business, and, in such event, Franchisee shall have no further right, title or interest in or under the Lease or to the Another Side Tours Business, all such rights thereby passing to Franchisor or its designee, in each case without Landlord’s further consent. Franchisee agrees to do all acts necessary or appropriate to accomplish such assignment on Franchisor’s request.

Franchisee agrees that it will not suffer or permit any surrender, termination, amendment or modification of the Lease without the prior written consent of Franchisor. Throughout the Term of the Agreement, Franchisee agrees that it shall elect and exercise all options to extend the Term of, or renew or assume in bankruptcy, the Lease not less than 30 days prior to the last day that any option must be exercised, unless Franchisor otherwise agrees in writing. If Franchisee fails to extend, renew, or assume the Lease, Franchisee hereby appoints Franchisor as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact to exercise such options for the sole purpose of effecting any extension, renewal or assumption, in each case for the account of Franchisee and without any liability or obligation of Franchisor.

Franchisor’s failure to exercise any remedy hereunder shall not be construed or deemed a waiver of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies of Franchisor under this Assignment are cumulative and are not in lieu of, but are in addition to, any other rights and remedies which Franchisor shall have under or by virtue of the Agreement or otherwise. The terms, covenants, and conditions contained herein shall bind Franchisee, and inure to the benefit of Franchisor, and their respective successors and assigns. In the event of any dispute between the parties regarding this Assignment, or any matter related in any way to it, the dispute resolution provisions (including, but not limited to, mediation, binding arbitration, waiver of jury trial and limitation of damages) of the Agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee shall apply. If there is more than one Franchisee, their obligations hereunder will be joint and several.

This document may be recorded by, and at the expense of, Franchisor.

TO THE ANOTHER SIDE TOURS BUSINESS FRANCHISE AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND AND TO GUARANTEE

This Agreement to Be Bound and to Guarantee (“Guarantee”), dated as of the date stated at the end of this Guaranty, executed by the guarantors identified in Section 19 of this Guaranty (each a “Guarantor”) in favor of One Tour At A Time, LLC (“Franchisor”).

WHEREAS, as an inducement for Franchisor to execute and deliver, and to perform its obligations under, that certain Franchise Agreement (“Franchise Agreement”), dated as of the date stated in Section 19 of this Guaranty, by and between Franchisor and the Franchisee identified in Section 19 of this Guaranty (“Franchisee”), Guarantor has agreed to jointly and severally guarantee the obligations of Franchisee to Franchisor and its affiliates (including, without limitation, obligations under the Franchise Agreement (and any equipment leases or leases between Franchisee and Franchisor or any of Franchisor’s affiliates, if applicable) and to be bound by certain of the provisions contained in the Franchise Agreement.

WHEREAS Guarantor owns, directly or indirectly, a 5% or greater equity interest in Franchisee.

WHEREAS Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor will materially rely upon Guarantor’s obligations under this Guaranty.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the execution and delivery of the Franchise Agreement by Franchisor, and the performance of Franchisor’s obligations thereunder, Guarantor agrees, for the benefit of Franchisor and its affiliates, as follows:

1. Guaranty. Guarantor unconditionally guarantees and promises to pay to Franchisor and/or its affiliates and to perform, for the benefit of Franchisor and/or its affiliates, on demand, any and all obligations and liabilities of Franchisee in connection with, with respect to or arising out of the Franchise Agreement as well as any other agreements executed by Franchisee in conjunction with the Franchise Agreement, if applicable and including but not limited to any equipment lease or similar agreements with any affiliate of Franchisor, executed in connection therewith and/or any other agreement with Franchisor or its affiliates.

2. Confidentiality.

A. Guarantor acknowledges that Franchisor is engaged in a highly competitive business, the success of which is dependent upon, among other things, trade secrets and other confidential and proprietary information, processes, materials and rights relating to the development, promotion and operation of the Another Side Tours Business (as defined in the Franchise Agreement), including, without limitation, Franchisor’s Confidential Operations Manual, method of operation, processes, techniques, formulae and procedures (collectively, the “Proprietary Information”). Guarantor further acknowledges that the Proprietary Information constitutes valuable trade secrets.

B. Guarantor agrees not to use for any purpose, or disclose or reveal (and must cause all of Franchisee’s directors, officers and employees not to use for any purpose, or disclose or reveal), during the Term of this Guaranty or forever thereafter, to any person any contents of Franchisor’s Confidential Operations Manual, any Proprietary Information or any other information relating to the operation of the Another Side Tours Business. Guarantor must fully and strictly comply with all security measures prescribed by Franchisor for maintaining the confidentiality of all Proprietary Information.

C. Guarantor acknowledges that to breach her or her obligations under this Section 2 would cause damage to Franchisor and to Franchisor's other franchisees and that Guarantor would be liable for this damage.

D. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Guarantor may disclose Proprietary Information to a person who is bound by the confidentiality obligations to Franchisor and the covenants contemplated by Section 18 of the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that that disclosure is necessary in connection with that person's capacity with Franchisee.

E. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following will not be subject to the provisions of this Section 2:

- (1) Information which is in the public domain as of the date of receipt by Franchisee.
- (2) Information which is known to Franchisee prior to the date of receipt by Franchisee.
- (3) Information which becomes known to the public without a breach of the provisions of this Section 2 of the Guaranty or any other agreement executed in connection with the Franchise Agreement; and
- (4) Information which is required by law to be disclosed or revealed, but only strictly to the extent required by law.

3. Covenant Not to Compete. Guarantor acknowledges and agree that: (1) pursuant to this Guaranty, you will have access to the Confidential Information; (2) the System and the opportunities, associations and experience established by us and acquired by you under this Guaranty are of substantial and material value. (3) in developing the System, we and our affiliates have made and continue to make substantial investments of time, technical and commercial research, and money; (4) we would be unable to adequately protect the System and the Confidential Information against unauthorized use or disclosure and would be unable to adequately encourage a free exchange of ideas and information among Another Side Tours Business if our franchisees were permitted to hold interests in "Competing Businesses" (which are defined in Section C). Guarantor acknowledges that restrictions on his/her right to hold interests in or perform services for Competing Businesses will not hinder his/her activities. Guarantor expressly acknowledges that he/she possess skills and abilities of a general nature and have other opportunities for exploiting these skills. Consequently, our enforcing the restrictions contained in this Section will not deprive Guarantor of the ability to earn a living. Guarantor therefore agrees that, during the Term of the Guaranty and for the "Restricted Period" following the expiration or earlier termination of this Guaranty, Guarantor will not, either directly or indirectly, for yourself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with, any person, firm, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or other entity:

A. own, maintain, operate, engage in, franchise or license, advise, help, make loans to, or have any direct or indirect controlling or non-controlling interest as an owner (whether of record, beneficially, or otherwise) or be or perform services as a partner, director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, representative, or agent in any Competing Business.

B. knowingly employ or seek to employ any person then employed by us or employed by any One Tour At A Time franchisee as a manager or higher, or otherwise directly or indirectly induce such person to leave his or her employment: or

C. divert or attempt to divert, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, any actual or potential business or customer of any Another Side Tours Business to a Competing Business.

D. For purposes of this Guaranty, the term “Restricted Period” shall be two (2) years from the date the Guaranty expires or is terminated; provided however, that if a court determines that such period is unenforceable, the Restricted Period shall end one (1) year from the date the Guaranty expires or is terminated; provided however, that if a court determines that such period is unenforceable, the Restricted Period shall end six (6) months from the date the Guaranty expires or is terminated.

E. During the Term of the Guaranty, there is no geographical limitation on the restrictions contained in this Section 3. During the Restricted Period, these restrictions will apply in the Operating Area; within the Protected Area; within a 5-mile radius of the outer boundaries of the Protected Area; and within 5 miles of any other Another Side Tours Business in operation or under construction on the later of: (i) the date of the termination or expiration of this Guaranty; or (ii) the date on which you begin to comply with Section 3 (the “Restricted Area”).

F. If, at any time during the Restricted Period, you fail to comply with your obligations contained in this Section 3, that period of noncompliance will not be credited toward the satisfaction of your obligations under this Section 3. These restrictions also apply after Transfers, as provided in the Franchise Agreement. Equity ownership of less than 2% of a Competing Business whose stock or other forms of ownership interest are publicly traded on a recognized United States stock exchange will not be deemed to violate this Section 3.

G. If any restriction in this Section 3 is deemed unenforceable by virtue of its scope in terms of area, business activity prohibited, and/or length of time, but would be enforceable if modified, you and we agree that the covenant will be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in the jurisdiction whose law determines the covenant’s validity. Specifically, if any part of these restrictions is found to be unreasonable in time or distance, each month of time or mile of distance may be deemed a separate unit so that the time or distance may be reduced by appropriate order of the court to that deemed reasonable.

4. Use of Name and Likeness. Franchisor will be entitled to use the name, likeness and voice of Guarantor for purposes of promoting the franchise, Franchisor and its products, including, without limitation, all photos and audio and video recordings, and Guarantor hereby irrevocably consents thereto. Guarantor acknowledges that Franchisor will own all right, title and interest, to the extent allowed by law, in all rights of integrity, disclosure and publication and any other rights that may be known as or referred to as moral rights, artist’s rights, publicity rights or the like associated with such photos and audio and video recordings, and assigns and transfers unto Franchisor the full and exclusive right, title, and interest to such publicity rights.

5. Innovations. Guarantor may conceive, invent, create, design and/or develop various ideas, techniques, methods, processes and procedures, services, equipment, formulae, products, packaging or other concepts and features relating to the manufacturing, production, marketing and sale of products or services in connection with the Another Side Tours Business (the “Innovations”). Guarantor assigns any and all of its rights, title and interest in the Innovations, including, without limitation, any intellectual property rights, to Franchisor, and also agrees to cooperate with Franchisor and its counsel in the protection of the Innovations, including, without limitation, the perfecting of title thereto.

6. Copyrights; Works-for-Hire; Solicitation. All advertising and promotional materials generated by or for Franchisee or its officers, managers or employees for the Another Side Tours Business will be deemed a work- made-for-hire, and all ownership rights, including, without limitation, any copyrights, in such advertising and promotional materials are hereby assigned to Franchisor. In addition, Guarantor will cooperate in the protecting any items or materials suitable for copyright protection by Franchisor. Guarantor must not solicit other franchisees or Franchisees, or use the lists of franchisees and Franchisees, for any commercial or other purpose other than purposes directly related to the operation of the Another Side Tours Business.

7. Guaranty of Payment. This is a guaranty of payment and not of collection. This Guaranty will remain in full force and effect until all amounts payable by Guarantor shall have been validly, finally and irrevocably paid in full and all obligations to be performed by Guarantor shall have been validly, finally and irrevocably performed in full.

8. Waiver. Guarantor waives: (a) Any right to require Franchisor to (i) proceed against any other person; (ii) proceed against or exhaust any security; or (iii) pursue any other remedy. Franchisor may exercise or not exercise any right or remedy it has against Franchisee or any security it holds (including the right to foreclose by judicial or non-judicial sale) without affecting Guarantor's liability hereunder; (b) any defenses from disability or other defense of Franchisee or from the cessation Franchisee's liabilities; (c) any setoff, defense or counterclaim against Franchisor; (d) any defense from the absence, impairment or loss of any right of reimbursement or subrogation or any other rights against Franchisee. Until Franchisee's obligations (except inchoate indemnification obligations) to Franchisor have been paid in full, Guarantor has no right of subrogation or reimbursement or other rights against Franchisee; (e) Any right to enforce any remedy that Franchisor has against Franchisee; (f) any rights to participate in any security held by Franchisor; (g) any demands for performance, notices of nonperformance or of new or additional indebtedness incurred by Franchisee to Franchisor. Guarantor is responsible for being and keeping itself informed of Franchisee's financial condition; (h) the benefit of any act or omission by Franchisor which directly or indirectly results in or aids the discharge of Franchisee from any of the obligations by operation of law or otherwise; (i) the benefit of California Civil Code Section 2815 permitting the revocation of this Guaranty as to future transactions and the benefit of California Civil Code Sections 2809, 2810, 2819, 2839, 2845, 2848, 2849, 2850, 2899 and 1432 with respect to certain suretyship defenses.

9. Subrogation. Guarantor hereby agrees that he will not exercise any rights of subrogation which he may acquire due to any payment or performance of the obligations of Franchisee pursuant to this Agreement unless and until all amounts payable to Franchisor or its affiliates, and all obligations for the benefit of Franchisor or its affiliates, shall have been validly, finally and irrevocably paid and performed in full.

10. Reasonable Restraints; Remedies. Guarantor acknowledges that the covenants contained in this Guaranty (including, without limitation, the territorial and time restraints) are reasonable and necessary and agrees that their failure to adhere strictly to the restrictions contained herein will cause substantial and irreparable damage to Franchisor, Franchisee and to Franchisor's other franchisees. In the event of any breach by Guarantor of any of the terms of this Guaranty, Franchisor and/or Franchisee will be entitled to institute and prosecute proceedings, at law or in equity, in any court of competent jurisdiction, to obtain an injunction to enforce the provisions of this Guaranty and to pursue any other remedy to which Franchisor and/or Franchisee may be entitled. Guarantor agrees that the rights conveyed by this Guaranty are of a unique and special nature and that Franchisor's and Franchisee's remedy at law for any breach would be inadequate and agrees and consents that temporary or permanent injunctive relief may be granted in any proceeding which may be brought to enforce any provision hereof, without the necessity of posting bond therefor or proof of actual damages.

11. Enforceability. If the scope of any restriction contained in this Guaranty is too broad to permit the enforcement of such restriction to its fullest extent, then such restriction will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and Guarantor hereby consents and agrees that such scope may be judicially limited or modified accordingly in any proceeding brought to enforce such restriction. Each covenant contained in this Guaranty is independent and severable and, to the extent that any such covenant shall be declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, such declaration will not affect the legality, validity or enforceability of any other provision contained herein or the legality, validity or enforceability of such covenant in any other jurisdiction.

12. No Waiver. No failure or delay on the part of Franchisor or its affiliates in exercising its rights hereunder will operate as a waiver of, or impair, any such right. No single or partial exercise of any such right will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right. No waiver of any such right will be effective unless given in writing, specifying with particularity the nature of the waiver. No waiver of any such right will be deemed a waiver of any other right hereunder. The rights provided for herein are cumulative and are not exclusive of any other rights, powers, privileges or remedies provided by law.

13. Attorneys' Fees. Guarantor will pay reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and all other costs and expenses that may be incurred by Franchisor or its affiliates in connection with enforcing this Guaranty.

14. Nevada law to Govern; Jurisdiction; Right to Jury Trial and Class Action Waived; Certain Damages Waived; Statute of Limitations.

A. This Guaranty will be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the law of Nevada, regardless of any conflict-of-law provisions to the contrary. Each party agrees that any litigation between the parties will be commenced and maintained only in the courts located in Las Vegas, Nevada, and each party consents to the jurisdiction of those courts; provided, however, that Franchisor may seek to obtain injunctive relief in any court that Franchisor may select.

B. GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES THE RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL, WAIVES THE RIGHT TO INITIATE OR PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION IN ANY FORUM, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ARBITRATION, AND WAIVES THE RIGHT TO SEEK OR COLLECT PUNITIVE, CONSEQUENTIAL AND SPECIAL DAMAGES IN ANY FORUM, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ARBITRATION. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING CONTAINED IN THIS AGREEMENT TO THE CONTRARY, GUARANTOR AGREES THAT ANY CLAIMS UNDER, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT MUST BE BROUGHT WITHIN TWO YEARS OF THE DATE ON WHICH THE UNDERLYING CAUSE OF ACTION ACCRUED, AND GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO BRING ANY SUCH ACTION AFTER SUCH TWO-YEAR PERIOD.

15. Binding Nature of Agreement. This Guaranty will be binding upon Guarantor and her respective successors, heirs and assigns and will inure to the benefit of Franchisor, its affiliates and their respective successors and assigns.

16. Joint and Several. If more than one person signs this Guaranty as a Guarantor, her, her or its obligation will be joint and several.

17. Entire Agreement; Amendment. This Guaranty contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, inducements and conditions, express or implied, oral or written, of any nature whatsoever with respect to the subject matter hereof. The express terms hereof control and supersede any course of performance or usage of the trade inconsistent with any of the terms hereof. This Guaranty may not be modified or amended other than by an agreement in writing signed by each of the parties. The provisions of Section 18 are not intended to, nor will they, act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

Franchise Applicant and Employees shall at all times treat the Confidential Information in accordance with this Agreement.

No license, express or implied, in the Confidential Information is granted to Franchise Applicant or Employees other than to use the Confidential Information in the manner and to the extent authorized by this Agreement.

2. Covenants of Franchise Applicant and Employees. As a consequence of Franchise Applicant's and Employees' acquisition or anticipated acquisition of Confidential Information, Franchise Applicant and Employees will occupy a position of trust and confidence with respect to One Tour At A Time's affairs and business. In view of the foregoing, Franchise Applicant and Employees agree that it is reasonable and necessary that Franchise Applicant and Employees agree, while this Agreement is in effect, to the following:

A. Limited Use. Franchise Applicant and Employees shall use the Confidential Information solely for purposes of evaluating whether or not Franchise Applicant will invest in a Another Side Tours Business franchise. C. No Use, Copying or Transfer. Franchise Applicant and Employees shall not use, copy or transfer Confidential Information in any way and shall protect the Confidential Information against unauthorized use, copying or transfer using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as Franchise Applicant and Employees use to protect Franchise Applicant's Confidential Information.

Exhibit D Confidentiality Agreement

D. This prohibition against use, copying, or transfer of Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to, selling, licensing or otherwise exploiting, directly or indirectly, any products or services which embody or are derived from Confidential Information. Franchise Applicant and Employees further agree not to remove, overprint, or deface any notice of copyright, trademark, logo, or other notices of ownership from any Confidential Information.

E. Applicability. These covenants shall apply to all Confidential Information disclosed to Franchise Applicant or Employees by One Tour At A Time prior to the date of this Agreement.

F. Solicitation. Franchise Applicant and Employees agree that neither they nor any of their agents, employees or representatives shall knowingly employ or seek to employ any person then employed by One Tour At A Time or any affiliate, subsidiary or franchisee of One Tour At A Time, or otherwise directly or indirectly induce such person to leave his or her employment without One Tour At A Time's prior written consent.

3. Return of Confidential Information. Nothing in this Agreement obligates either One Tour At A Time or Franchise Applicant to enter into a franchise agreement for the operation of a Another Side Tours Business. Franchise Applicant acknowledges that One Tour At A Time's decision to consider Franchise Applicant for any franchise opportunity, as well as the location and type of franchise opportunity to be offered, if any, and the terms of any contracts, will be made by One Tour At A Time in its sole discretion. If, at any time, One Tour At A Time determines that it does not wish for Franchise Applicant to become a franchisee, or Franchise Applicant determines that it does not wish to invest in a One Tour At A Time Shop franchise, or if One Tour At A Time requests, at any time and for any reason, that Franchise Applicant and Employees do so, Franchise Applicant and Employees agree to: (A) immediately cease to use the Confidential Information; (B) immediately return to One Tour At A Time the Confidential Information and all copies thereof (whether or not such copies were authorized) and cause any third party to whom disclosure was made to do the same; and (C) at the request of One Tour At A Time, certify in writing that Franchise Applicant, Employees and all others to whom Franchise Applicant has provided such Confidential Information, have complied with Subsections (A) and (B) above.

4. Notice to One Tour At A Time. Franchise Applicant and Employees shall immediately notify One Tour At A Time of any information that comes to their attention that indicates that there has been or may be a loss of confidentiality of any of the Confidential Information or a breach of this Agreement.

5. Waiver. Franchise Applicant and Employees acknowledge that no waiver by One Tour At A Time of any breach by Franchise Applicant or Employees of any provision of this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of any preceding or succeeding breach of the same or any other provision of this Agreement. No such waiver shall be effective unless in writing and then only to the extent expressly set forth in writing.

6. Enforcement.

A. Governing Law. This Agreement and any claim or controversy arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada without regard to conflicts of laws principles.

B. Forum. To the extent any disputes cannot be resolved directly between Franchise Applicant, Employees and One Tour At A Time, Franchise Applicant and Employees agree to file suit against One Tour At A Time only in the federal or state court having jurisdiction where One Tour At A Time's principal offices are located at the time suit is filed. Franchise Applicant and Employees acknowledge that One Tour At A Time may file suit in the federal or state court located in the jurisdiction where Franchise Applicant's principal offices are located at the time suit is filed or in the jurisdiction where Franchise Applicant resides or does business or where the claim arose. Franchise Applicant and Employees consent to the personal jurisdiction of those courts and to venue in those courts.

C. Injunctive Relief. It is hereby understood and agreed that: (1) a breach of this Agreement by Franchise Applicant or Employees would result in irreparable harm to One Tour At A Time, the extent of which would be difficult to ascertain; (2) monetary damages would be an inadequate remedy for such a breach; and (3) One Tour At A Time shall be entitled to specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief as a court may deem appropriate in the event of such a breach without posting a bond or other security and without waiving any additional rights or remedies otherwise available to One Tour At A Time at law or in equity or by statute.

D. Liquidated Damages. Upon wrongful termination of this Agreement by the Franchisee, Franchisee will pay to Franchisor a lump sum equal to Royalties, Brand Development fees, Search Engine Marketing Fees and any other marketing fees payable for the thirty-six (36) months immediately preceding termination or for the length of time the franchise has been operating. This is payable as incurred.

E. Temporary Management Assistance. Upon breach, death or temporary incapacity of Franchisee, Franchisee will pay a Temporary Management Assistance Fee to allow Franchisor to operate the Franchise and prevent a disruption in business. The fee amount will be maintained in the Operations Manual and will be payable as incurred and invoiced.

7. Reimbursement of Costs and Expenses. In any judicial proceeding, the amount of these costs and expenses will be determined by the court and not by a jury.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Member
One Tour At A Time LLC
Las Vegas, Nevada

Report on the Financial Statement

Opinion

We have audited the financial statement of One Tour At A Time LLC (the "Company"), which comprises the balance sheet as of February 28, 2025 and related notes to the financial statement.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of February 28, 2025, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statement section of our report. We are required to be independent of One Tour At A Time LLC and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statement, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about One Tour At A Time LLC's ability to continue as a going concern within one year from the date the financial statement is issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statement

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of this financial statement.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of One Tour At A Time LLC's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used, and the reasonableness of, significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statement.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about One Tour At A Time LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control–related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. Organization and Operations

Description of Business

One Tour At A Time LLC, a Nevada limited liability company, was formed on August 22, 2024 ("Inception"). References in the financial statement footnotes to "Company", "we", "us" and "our" refer to the business of One Tour At A Time LLC.

The Company is a limited liability company, and therefore, the member is not liable for the debts, obligations or other liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, unless the member has signed a specific guarantee.

The Company was formed for the purpose of granting franchises the right to operate a tour business under the name "ANOTHER SIDE TOURSTM" ("Another Side Tours Business") which offers entertainment and tourism experiences using passenger vehicles, walking, and personal transport devices and other tourism-related equipment, programing, products, and services.

Another Side Tours, Inc., our affiliate, owns the trademarks and other intellectual property related to the ANOTHER SIDE TOURS franchise system. Another Side Tours, Inc. has licensed the trademarks and other intellectual property to the Company under a perpetual license agreement (the "License") dated January 29, 2025. The License grants the Company the right to use these trademarks and other intellectual property to sublicense them to franchisees of the Company.

As of February 28, 2025, there were 0 franchised outlets, and 1 affiliate-owned outlet in operation.

Going Concern

The accompanying financial statement has been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company is in the start-up phase of its business plan and has sustained losses from operations for the period from inception to February 28, 2025 and may be dependent upon additional funding from its member and affiliate. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's member and affiliate have committed to providing the necessary funding to ensure the Company has sufficient liquidity to satisfy its obligations for at least twelve months following the issuance of the financial statement.

After considering the financial wherewithal of its member and affiliate to provide financial support to the Company to ensure the continued financial viability of the Company for at least twelve months following the issuance of the financial statement, management concluded that substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern has been alleviated. Accordingly, the financial statement does not include any adjustments that would be required were the Company not be able to continue as a going concern.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The Company uses the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("U.S. GAAP"). Under this method, revenue is recognized when earned and expenses are recognized as incurred.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statement and accompanying notes in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reported period. Estimates are used for the revenue recognition, among other. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

See independent auditor's report

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less are considered cash equivalents.

Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Company's financial instrument consists of cash and cash equivalents. The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents is considered to be representative of its respective fair value due to the short-term nature of this instrument.

Assets and liabilities that are carried at fair value are classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

Level 1: Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2: Observable market-based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs that are not corroborated by market data.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company and as such is considered a disregarded entity under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. Under those provisions, the Company does not pay federal corporate income taxes on its taxable income. Instead, the member is taxed on the Company's taxable income. Therefore, no provision or liability for federal income taxes has been included in the financial statement. The company recognizes income tax related interest and penalties in interest expense and other general and administrative expenses, respectively.

The Company's sole member files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the state jurisdictions in which the Company operates. The Company is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions from the inception, August 22, 2024, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

In accordance with FASB ASC 740-10, Income Taxes, the Company is required to disclose uncertain tax positions. Income tax benefits are recognized for income tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, only when it is determined that the income tax position will more-likely-than-not be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. The Company has analyzed tax positions taken for filing with the Internal Revenue Service and all state jurisdictions where it operates. The Company believes that income tax filing positions will be sustained upon examination and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. Accordingly, the Company has not recorded any reserves, or related accruals for interest and penalties for uncertain income tax positions at February 28, 2025.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

We reviewed significant newly-issued accounting pronouncements and concluded that they either are not applicable to our operations or that no material effect is expected on our financial statement as a result of future adoption.

Subsequent Events

In accordance with FASB ASC 855, Subsequent Events, the Company has evaluated subsequent events through April 28, 2025, the date on which the financial statement was available to be issued. There were no material subsequent events that required recognition or additional disclosure in the financial statement.

See independent auditor's report

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

3. Certain Significant Risks and Uncertainties

The Company maintains its cash in a bank deposit account that at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant risk on cash or cash equivalents. The Company maintains its deposits in one financial institution.

4. Related Party TransactionsTransactions with Affiliate

The Company and its affiliate, Another Side Tours, Inc. frequently advance funds and pay expenses on behalf of one another for payment of general and administrative expenses. As of February 28, 2025, the Company had an amount due to its affiliate of $12,325. The amount due to its affiliate is unsecured, bears no interest, and is due on demand.

5. Commitments and ContingenciesLitigation

The Company may be party to various claims, legal actions and complaints arising in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of the management, all matters are of such nature, or involve such amounts, that unfavorable disposition, if any, would not have a material effect on the financial position of the Company.

RIDER TO THE ONE TOUR AT A TIME, LLC
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT FOR USE IN ILLINOIS

THIS AMENDMENT TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT (“Amendment”) dated _____, 20__ is intended to be a part of, and by this reference is incorporated into that certain Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) dated _____, 20__, by and between One Tour At A Time, LLC (or “Franchisor”), and _____ (“you” or “Franchisee”). Defined terms contained in the Franchise Agreement shall have the identical meanings in this Amendment.

Illinois law governs the Franchise Agreement.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Section 19 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act sets forth the conditions and notice requirements for termination of a franchise agreement. Section 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act sets forth the conditions of non-renewal of a franchise agreement, along with the compensation requirements.

In conformance with section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on behalf of the Franchisor.

This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed and delivered this Rider effective on the date stated on the first page above.

2. Section 7 of the Franchise Agreement is amended so that Sub-section G is added and will state:
The franchisor will protect the franchisee’s rights to use the trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes or other commercial symbols (“Marks”) or indemnify the franchisee from any loss, costs or expenses arising out of any claim, suit or demand regarding the use of the name.
As required by the Minnesota Franchise Act, Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.12(g), we will reimburse you for any costs incurred that you incur in the defense of your right to use the Marks, so long as you were using the Marks in the manner that we authorized, and so long as we are timely notified of the claim and given the right to manage the defense of the claim including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, and to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Sec. 80C.14, Subds. 3, 4 and 5 which require, except in certain specified cases, that (1) a franchisee be given 90 days’ notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days’ notice for non-renewal of the Agreement and (2) that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.
To the extent that any condition, stipulation, or provision contained in the Franchise Agreement (including any choice of law provision) purports to require any person who, at the time of acquiring a franchise is a resident of Minnesota, or, in the case of a partnership or corporation, organized or incorporated under the laws of Minnesota, or purporting to bind a person acquiring any franchise to be operated in Minnesota, to waive compliance with the Minnesota Franchises Law, such condition, stipulation, or provision may be void and unenforceable under the non-waiver provision of the Minnesota Franchises Law.
Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.21 and Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(J) prohibit the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Franchise Disclosure Document or agreement(s) can abrogate or reduce any of franchisee’s rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or franchisee’s rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.
Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(D) prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release.

The Limitations of Claims section must comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5.

RIDER TO THE ONE TOUR AT A TIME, LLC
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT FOR USE IN WASHINGTON

This Rider (the “Rider”) is made and entered into as of this _____ day of _____, 20__ (the “Agreement Date”), between ONE TOUR AT A TIME, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company, with its principal mailing address at 11700 W. Charleston BLVD, #170-001 Las Vegas NV 89135 (“Franchisor”), and _____, whose principal business address is _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Background. Franchisor and Franchisee are parties to that certain Franchise Agreement that has been signed concurrently with the signing of this Rider (the “Franchise Agreement”). This Rider is annexed to and forms part of the Franchise Agreement. This Rider is being signed because (a) the ANOTHER SIDE TOURS franchise that Franchisee will operate under the Franchise Agreement will be located in Washington; and/or (b) any of the franchise offering or sales activity with respect to the Franchise Agreement occurred in Washington.

2. Washington Law. The following paragraphs are added to the end of the Franchise Agreement:

The state of Washington has a statute, RCW 19.100.180 which may supersede the Franchise Agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the Franchise Agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

In the event of a conflict between the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act (the “Act”) and the law chosen in the Franchise Agreement, the provisions of the Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW, shall prevail.

To the extent required by the Act, a release or waiver of rights executed by a Franchisee shall not include rights under the Act except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the Franchise Agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, rights or remedies under the Act, such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

To the extent required by the Act, transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the Franchisor’s reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

You have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement on any grounds permitted by law.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed and delivered this Rider effective on the date stated on the first page above.
