What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the Franchise Agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your Franchise Agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The Franchise Agreement and development agreement require you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Ohio. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Ohio than in your own state.
2. Spousal Liability. Your spouse will be liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. The guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT FOR THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

The State of Michigan prohibits certain unfair provisions that are sometimes in franchise documents. If any of the following provisions are in the franchise documents, the provisions are void and cannot be enforced against you to the extent required by law:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least six months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

- (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.
 - (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.
 - (iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the Franchise Agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.
- (h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. The subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).
- (i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

The fact that there is a notice of this offering on file with the attorney general does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the attorney general.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000.00, the franchisee may request the franchisor to arrange for the escrow of the initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations, if any, to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

The escrow agent may be a financial institution authorized to do business in Michigan. The escrow agent may release to the franchisor those amounts of the escrowed funds applicable to a specific franchisee upon presentation of an affidavit executed by the franchisee and an affidavit executed by the franchisor stating that the franchisor has fulfilled its obligation to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training or other items. Partial releases of escrowed funds upon receipt of affidavits of partial fulfillment of franchisor's obligations are permitted.

Questions regarding this notice should be directed to the Michigan Attorney General's Office, Consumer Protection Division, Attn: Franchise Section, 525 W. Ottawa Street, Williams Building, Lansing, Michigan 48909, (517) 373-7117.

THE FRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this Franchise Disclosure Document, “Escape” means Escape Enterprises, Ltd., the franchisor. “You” means the person who buys the franchise. If the person who buys the franchise is a corporation, partnership or other entity, “you” does not generally include the entity’s owners, although certain of the owners and their spouses will guarantee the obligations of the entity as discussed in Item 15 and will be bound by certain confidentiality requirements and restrictions on competition as discussed in Items 14 and 17. Escape is an Ohio limited liability company, organized on September 30, 1996. Escape has offered, sold and supported STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL franchises continuously from August 2012 and franchises under similar concepts under the name “STEAK ESCAPE®” or a variation thereof from October 1996.

Escape is majority-owned and controlled by its parent company, Escape Enterprises, Inc., an Ohio corporation (“EEI”). Escape has no predecessors or affiliates which either offer franchises in any line of business or will provide products or services to you except as described below. Escape does not do business under any name other than Escape Enterprises, Ltd. or “STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL®” and “STEAK ESCAPE®”. The principal business address for Escape and EEI is 1099 Sullivant Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43223. Escape’s agent for service of process in your state, if any, is disclosed in Exhibit D.

Escape currently franchises the right to operate restaurants under Escape’s “STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL®” system but has in the past offered franchises under the operating names “STEAK ESCAPE”, “STEAK ESCAPE GRILLE” and “STEAK ESCAPE EXPRESS” (collectively the “System”). Escape, through its wholly-owned or affiliate companies, operated three System restaurants at the end of the previous year. (See also Item 12.) Escape has determined to cease selling franchises for System restaurants under the names “STEAK ESCAPE”, “STEAK ESCAPE GRILLE” or “STEAK ESCAPE EXPRESS”, but existing restaurants will continue to operate under those names and are included in the information provided in this FDD regarding System restaurants. Escape also currently licenses the right to use the “STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL®” and “STEAK ESCAPE®” marks to Vessel Global LLC d/b/a Reef Kitchens (“Reef Kitchens”) pursuant to a Trademark and Brand License Agreement, for Reef Kitchens to prepare, sell and deliver certain “Steak Escape” branded food and beverage items in certain specific territories. These Reef Kitchens units are not considered franchises or company-owned units, but are reported in a separate Item 20 table for your reference.

You must operate your restaurant in conformity with the System. You will have to compete with other businesses selling food items in the neighborhood where your restaurant is located. Your sales will be affected by seasonal fluctuations of traffic at your location. You are responsible for investigating and complying with the national, state and local health and sanitation regulations for your restaurant. You should consider that certain aspects of any restaurant business are regulated by federal, state and local laws, rules and ordinances in addition to the laws, regulations and ordinances applicable to businesses generally, such as the Americans with Disabilities Act, Federal Wage and Hour Laws and the Occupation, Health and Safety Act. The U.S. Food and Drug Administration, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, as well as state and local departments of health and other agencies have laws and regulations concerning the preparation of food and sanitary conditions of restaurants. State and local agencies routinely conduct inspections for compliance with these requirements. Under the Clean Air Act and state implementing laws, certain state and local areas are required to obtain, by applicable statutory guidelines, national quality standards for ozone, carbon monoxide and particulate matters. Certain provisions of these laws impose limits on emissions resulting from commercial food preparation. You will need to understand and comply with these laws in operating the Restaurant. There may be other laws applicable to your business. We urge you to make further inquiries about these laws.

Except for the sale of System franchises and the license to Reef Kitchens as discussed above and limited past and present operation of a few System restaurants from time-to-time, Escape has no other prior business experience, has never conducted a business of the type to be franchised, has not previously offered franchises for the same type of business as those offered under this Franchise Disclosure Document and has never offered franchises in other lines of business. Escape has no business activities other than selling System franchises. Certain Escape affiliates, managers, officers and employees have experience in the business, both as owners of or investors in restaurants operating under the System and with other systems as described in this Franchise Disclosure Document. Neither Escape nor any of its affiliates offer franchises in any other line of business.

Escape may, in its sole discretion, offer to developers the opportunity to enter into Development Agreements with Escape for development and the grant of exclusive rights to open and operate restaurants in a particular territory through separate Franchise Agreements for reduced initial franchise fees in consideration of the developer's agreement to open and operate a specific number of restaurants within the territory, subject to a development schedule. For the first unit under the Development Agreement, a developer will sign the Franchise Agreement attached as an exhibit to this disclosure document. Upon establishing each additional outlet under the Development Agreement, a developer may be required to sign a then current franchise agreement, which may differ from the current franchise agreement included within this Franchise Disclosure Document.

INITIAL FEES

An initial franchise fee is payable upon signing of the Franchise Agreement. The initial franchise fee is generally $25,000. If a Franchise Agreement is entered into under a Development Agreement, the terms will be negotiated at the time the Development Agreement is entered into and the initial franchise fee may be less (in consideration of the developer's agreement to open and operate a specific number of restaurants within the territory, subject to a development schedule) and may be payable in two installments, a negotiated amount upon signing of the Development Agreement and the balance upon the signing of the Franchise Agreement. The initial franchise fee is nonrefundable. In the 2024 fiscal year, the amount of initial franchise fees actually paid for each single new franchise to be located in the United States was $25,000 and there were no franchise units developed under a Development Agreement.

If you enter into a Development Agreement with Escape, you must pay to Escape a nonrefundable fee at the time of signing your Development Agreement. The development fee is calculated as follows: for a three (3) store development, $65,000; for a five (5) store development, $100,000. The minimum number of units required to be opened under a Development Agreement is three (3).

In certain states, as required by state authorities based on a review of our financial statements, we may defer our receipt of the Initial Franchise Fee and all other initial payments or deposit them into escrow until we have met our initial obligations to you; see state addenda in Exhibit C.

You must pay all costs and expenses of establishing and maintaining a letter of credit.

Note 3: In some Franchise Agreements, the royalty fees have ranged from 0% to 6% for some restaurants.

Note 4: "Gross Sales" are defined in the Franchise Agreement, Section 5.B(iii) as follows: The term "Gross Sales" shall mean gross receipts of every kind and nature which arise from or are derived by Franchisee or any other person from business conducted or which originated in, on, from or through the restaurant premises, or from the sale of any products associated with the Trademarks or the System, whether such business is conducted in compliance with or in violation of the terms of this Agreement, on the Restaurant premises or off, whether upon credit or for cash, without reserve or deduction for inability or failure to collect or for any amount required under this Agreement or otherwise expended by Franchisee to advertise or promote the restaurant. Gross Sales shall not include the amount of any sales tax levied upon retail sales and paid to the appropriate governmental authority.

Note 5: No advertising cooperatives currently exist, however, at Escape's option, you may be required to join local, regional and/or national advertising cooperatives with other franchisees and possibly contribute additional amounts (up to 4% of Gross Sales), which amounts will be credited towards your local marketing expenditure requirement. Escape is not required to contribute to any cooperative for its company-owned stores, but intends to do so if any are established inclusive of such territories. Also, in the event of franchisor-owned outlets in such cooperative, it shall have a single vote with respect to these imposed by franchisee cooperatives; however, such franchisor-outlets do not have controlling power to determine such fees.

The estimate does not include the cost of transporting equipment from the supplier to the restaurant. The cost of transportation will vary with the distance over which equipment must be shipped, the method of shipping, the weight of equipment and other factors and cannot be estimated with any accuracy.

Note 6: This estimate covers the cost of exterior signs. Actual costs may vary depending on landlord requirements and local sign ordinances regarding the size and permitted use of certain signs.

Note 7: In addition to the POS system and related hardware, there may be either a subscription fee or a support contract that may vary, depending on how many terminals you purchase and services elected or required. These fees can range from $100 - $400 per month.

Note 8: This estimate covers your cost of securing architectural and/or engineering services to convert Escape's design drawings into construction plans suitable for permitting and securing construction cost estimates for your restaurant. The amount may vary from region to region, depending on local building codes and ordinances.

Note 9: You must spend a minimum amount on advertising, based on your Gross Sales. (See Item 11.) This estimate does not reflect such minimum requirement but only the actual amount anticipated for pre-opening advertising.

Note 10: These expenses include payroll costs and anticipated post-opening advertising expenses but do not include rent, which varies too greatly to be estimated with any accuracy, nor royalty fees or marketing fund fees payable to Escape since those are dependent upon Gross Sales, which Escape cannot predict. Escape has based its estimate of necessary additional funds on the experience of its affiliates which own and operate restaurants and also on the experience of its franchisees.

Note 11: These figures are estimates and Escape cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses. Escape relied on its experience in compiling these estimates.

YOUR ESTIMATED INITIAL INVESTMENT – DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

Type of Expenditure	Low Amount	High Amount	Method of Payment	When Due	To Whom Payment is to be Made
Development Fee (See Note 1)	$65,000	$100,000	Lump Sum	At signing of Development Agreement	Franchisor See Note 1 and Item 5.
Initial Investment (for 1 st Unit) (See Note 2)	$239,500	$828,500	Varies.	Varies.	Varies.
TOTAL	$304,500	$928,500			See Note 2.

Note 1: The amounts listed in this row represent the total amounts due as the Development Fee for the number of units indicated. The minimum number of units required to be opened under a Development Agreement is three (3) units, and is reflected in the “Low Amount”; the “High Amount” reflects a development of five (5) units.

Note 2: Please refer to the Item 7 Table for the Estimated Initial Investment for a single unit franchise for the expenses associated with opening a Steak Escape Business under a Franchise Agreement pursuant to a Development Agreement. Note that this row does not include all of the Initial Franchise Fee for the three (3) franchise units or the five (5) franchise units, respectively, as part of such fee is included in the first row of this chart and is what comprises the Development Fee.

Competitive conditions described in Item 1 will affect these costs. This estimate of startup costs is calculated for a period of three (3) months (except as stated otherwise), with additional operating capital to be available as may be needed during the initial phase. These costs do not include your Royalty fee and Marketing Fund fees which begin immediately after the opening of your restaurant. These costs should be included in your projections of overall operations costs beginning with your first month of operation. We acknowledge that you may choose to invest additional funds into your business during the first three (3) months of operation, and sometimes longer.

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

All food and beverage ingredients, products, equipment, software, computer and POS systems, marketing and advertising materials and all paper and other goods bearing the STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL or other proprietary designation purchased for the restaurant must conform to Escape's specifications and standards, which will be provided to you, and must be purchased from approved suppliers, if these suppliers are so designated. The cost of these items, purchased in accordance with Escape's specifications, will represent approximately 72% of your total purchases for the establishment of your business, and 95% of your total purchases for the establishment and operation of your restaurant. Generally, product specifications are included in the STEAK ESCAPE® Management Development Guide and equipment specifications are located on the System website or provided by Escape's design and construction department. Neither Escape nor its affiliates are the only approved supplier for marketing materials. A list of approved suppliers is provided by our Purchasing Department during initial training. Approved suppliers receive the specifications directly from Escape. These specifications include standards for quality, taste, design, appearance and performance. Escape may, by notice to you, issue additional specifications or alter existing specifications for these items and add or delete approved suppliers. Escape does not provide material benefits to franchisees based upon a franchisee's purchase of particular products or services, or use of particular supplies, nor make any express or implied warranties about any items recommended for your use.

If you want to purchase or lease equipment, supplies, products or services from a supplier that has not been approved by Escape, Escape may require you to reimburse our expenses to visit the proposed supplier and submit specifications, drawings, photographs, samples and other relevant information for examination or testing. Escape reviews proposed suppliers of various products based on factors like the utility of the product, quality of the product, capability of the supplier, compatibility with Escape's established distribution system and other relevant factors. Escape's criteria for supplier approval are available to franchisees. Other than the reimbursement of our expenses in reviewing a potential supplier, there is no fee to apply for approval of a new supplier. You must present Escape with information about the proposed supplier and a prototype of the product to be supplied. Escape will approve or disapprove a proposed supplier within 60 days of receipt of the prototype and all requested information. Escape and its affiliates are not approved suppliers of any goods or services except for marketing materials discussed in Item 11. No officer of Escape owns an interest in any approved supplier.

We use our best efforts to negotiate special purchase arrangements (such as pricing terms) with suppliers for approved products for the benefit of franchisees. However, some suppliers provide additional assistance in the form of payments to us based on sales made or direct contributions. In 2024, Escape's total revenue was approximately $1,066,937.00 and Escape received rebates and contributions of approximately $109,308.28 (approximately 10.25% of total revenues) from certain suppliers, all of which was based on amounts of purchases by all franchisees of the System on a contribution per gallon, per case or per pound basis, as applicable. Escape applied all such rebates and contributions to the marketing fund, and to the provision of training and support materials for franchisees. Escape does not maintain a purchasing or distribution cooperative for its franchisees. Escape has established national pricing programs with certain suppliers who provide the sale of certain goods to its franchisees within certain guidelines. You are encouraged, but not required to purchase from approved suppliers with national pricing programs. However, you may purchase from an alternative supplier if it meets our specifications and has been approved by Escape.

You must purchase a POS system and related software as specified periodically for your restaurant as discussed in Item 11. The POS systems must be purchased from the current approved POS vendor of Escape.

Insurance. Before you open your restaurant and at all times thereafter, you shall maintain the insurance that may be required by the terms of any lease for the Restaurant premises and, in addition, you agree to carry the following insurance:

(i) Commercial Liability Insurance under a comprehensive general liability form that includes coverage for bodily injury and property damage on an occurrence basis with coverage that includes product/completed operations with policy limits of at least $1,000,000 primary and $2,000,000 umbrella/excess liability.

(ii) Employer's Liability Insurance and Worker's Compensation with coverage equal to the greater of (a) $100,000; or (b) the amount required by law in the state in which your Restaurant is located. This coverage shall be in effect for all of your employees who participate in the training program referred to in Section 6.A of this Agreement.

(iii) Builder's Risk Insurance with coverage equal to the greater of replacement costs of your Restaurant structure and improvements, based on current market value or the amount required by your lending institution.

(iv) Fire, Vandalism and Extended Coverage Insurance with limits of insurance of at least the full replacement value of your Restaurant, its furniture, fixtures and equipment.

The insurance coverage shall reflect that we are listed as an additional insured under the commercial general liability coverage; and, if we have an insurable interest, that we are an additional insured, as our interests may appear, under the fire, vandalism and extended coverage insurance. We may reasonably increase the minimum coverage required and require different or additional kinds of insurance to reflect inflation, changes in standards of liability, higher damage awards or other relevant changes in circumstances. You agree to furnish certificates of insurance or, if we so request, copies of the insurance policies, to us, both before opening within the time period as provided in the Franchise Agreement and at least annually thereafter. All policies of insurance must be renewed at least 30 days before expiration. All policies of insurance must contain endorsements requiring the insurer to give us at least 10-day advance written notice before terminating, cancelling, or making changes in any policy. All policies of insurance shall be written by an insurance company with an "A" or better rating by the latest edition of Best's Insurance Rating Service. No policy of insurance shall provide for a deductible amount which exceeds $10,000 and your co-insurance, under any policy of insurance, shall be 80% or greater.

FINANCING

Escape does not offer direct or indirect financing. Escape does not guarantee your note, lease or obligation.

ITEM 11

FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, Escape is not required to provide you with any assistance.

Before you open your business, Escape will:

- Train your required individual managers according to the following chart. Escape reserves the right to modify the standard training program to reflect specific situations. In addition, we may require that training include attending a System restaurant opening. Escape requires two trained and Escape-certified managers per restaurant. These managers must complete the training to Escape's satisfaction before the opening of your restaurant. In addition, if a principal owner of the restaurant will not be one of the required trained managers, then a principal owner may be required to complete an abbreviated training course for non-manager owners. Any other manager for your restaurant may attend the initial training. There is no fee payable to Escape for initial training. However, you must pay for the travel and certain living costs of your own personnel involved in training, estimated at between $2,000 and $4,000. The principal instructional materials used in training are discussed in Item 14. In addition, Escape may use incidental materials including videos where special presentations may be helpful. All training is performed at Escape's headquarters in Columbus, Ohio. Escape conducts initial training programs on a restaurant-by-restaurant basis as needed. Management training is generally finished at least 10 days before the scheduled opening of a restaurant. Escape may require additional training at any time during your operation of the restaurant for which a fee may be charged². Escape's training instructor has been employed by Escape since May of 2013, and has over 35 years of experience in the field of restaurant training. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 6.A.)

TRAINING PROGRAM

Subject	Hours of Classroom Training	Hours of On the Job Training	Location
Phase 1: Restaurant operations, management and role training.	60	62	Escape's headquarters plus training store in Columbus, Ohio
Phase 2: New franchisee opening, staff and management training	0	80	Franchisee's Restaurant
Manager food safety certification training.	10	0	Escape's headquarters in Columbus, Ohio

² If additional training is required at your facility or location, you must pay for actual costs for the facility, shipment, training materials and costs for trainers' food, lodging and transportation plus a per diem training cost of $200, all of which shall be capped at no more than $600 per day.

- Loan to you the publications listed at Item 14, and other manuals, guidelines and materials revised or developed. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 6.B.) These publications are confidential and remain the property of Escape. See Exhibit B-5 for a copy of the Table of Contents of the STEAK ESCAPE® Management Development Guide. The Table of Contents lists the number of pages about each subject. The total number of pages in the Management Development Guide is 220.
- Cause our Design Criteria Guide (standard, non-customized, design overview drawings) and customized, preliminary layout drawings for the restaurant to be provided to you. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 6.C.)
- Agree with you on the location of your restaurant by a date negotiated on a case by case basis and specified in your Franchise Agreement. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 7.B(i).) If we cannot agree on a site before the outside date that is negotiated between us, unless the failure is caused solely by our act or omission, then Escape may terminate the Franchise Agreement and, in such case, the initial franchise fee will not be refunded. (See Franchise Agreement, Sections 10.A(xii) and 10.B.) In evaluating a potential location, Escape takes into account many factors including location, traffic patterns, co-tenants and occupancy history. For locations of future units, both under the Franchise Agreement and the Development Agreement, Escape will utilize its then-current standards for site approval. You may be required to submit to Escape a completed Request for Site Review for any site you wish to propose for the restaurant. See Exhibit B-6. Historically, Escape has not required such a Request in connection with mall sites but reserves the right to do so. Escape will respond to your request for approval of a specific location within 30 days of your submission of a complete site acceptance request. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 7.B(i).) Escape does not typically own the premises which is leased to you.
- Provide a list of preferred vendors, list of smallwares and an equipment list.

During the operation of your restaurant, Escape will:

- Consult with and advise you periodically regarding the development and operation of your restaurant. Escape shall communicate to you its know-how, new developments, techniques and improvements in the areas of restaurant management, food preparation and services which are pertinent to the operation of your restaurant. While Escape may provide guidance on establishing prices on products and services, Escape is under no obligation to do so, nor does Escape set minimum or maximum prices for products or services. Escape does not directly provide equipment, signs, fixtures, opening inventory or supplies, but provides the names of approved suppliers. Escape provides written specifications for these items but does not install them. Escape shall also make available to you all additional services, facilities, rights and privileges which Escape makes generally available to all of its franchisees. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 6.B.)

The Franchise Agreement does not require Escape to provide you with any advertising programs. However, Escape approves and produces certain marketing and advertising materials which it may distribute at cost and other materials from an approved supplier that are provided at a nominal cost. You must buy these materials only from Escape's approved suppliers. You must not produce or use your own advertising materials without Escape's prior consent. Historically, Escape has used print advertising distributed at the point of sale and, on a limited basis, radio, direct mail, internet and newspaper advertising. Escape does not currently maintain an advertising council composed of franchisees to advise Escape on advertising policies. You have no right to engage in mail order, telemarketing, internet marketing or other direct marketing activities.

The Franchise Agreement does not require Escape to spend any amount on advertising in your area or territory. Escape currently maintains a marketing fund which it uses to provide marketing assistance and materials. In addition to franchisees, Escape encourages its suppliers to contribute to the fund. Escape has also in the past made discretionary contributions to the fund. Currently, new franchisees, including affiliates of Escape, must contribute to the fund at the same rate although the rate is different for mall and non-mall outlets. However, franchisees that have earlier agreements may have different rates of contributions to the marketing fund. Escape administers the marketing fund. In 2024, 46% of the fund's payments were spent on production, 0% on a portion of the salary of Escape's marketing personnel, 0% for new restaurant opening promotion and 24% on other administrative expenses. In 2024, none of the total advertising expenditures from the marketing fund were used for soliciting new franchise sales. Any marketing fund fees not spent in the year accrued are rolled forward and used in the following years.

We administer the fund, which is not audited. Fund contributions are not used to sell additional franchises. We will prepare an annual unaudited statement of monies collected and costs incurred by the fund and furnish it to you upon written request. All financial statements will be available one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of our fiscal year. We reserve the right not to spend all of the amounts in the fund in any one (1) year and such funds may be accrued into the next year.

You must follow additional advertising requirements. Specifically, you must spend at least two percent of your Gross Sales on local and regional advertising, on a monthly basis. Advertising expenditures which will be credited against your local marketing expenditure requirement include: (a) amounts paid to advertising cooperatives, as discussed, below; (b) print and internet advertising expenditures; and (c) amounts spent for advertising media, including television, radio, newspaper, billboards, posters, direct mail, promotional items and advertising on public vehicles (transit and aerial); and, if not provided by Escape, the cost of producing approved materials necessary to participate in these media. Advertising expenditures to be credited against your local advertising expenditure requirement do not include amounts spent for items which Escape, in its reasonable judgment, deems inappropriate for meeting the minimum advertising requirement. Although no advertising cooperatives currently exist, at Escape's option, you may be required to join local, regional and/or national advertising cooperatives with other franchisees and possibly contribute additional amounts (up to 4% of Gross Sales) towards the activities of these cooperatives, which amounts will be credited towards your local marketing expenditure requirement, discussed above. Escape is not required to contribute to any cooperatives for its company owned stores, but intends to do so if any are established inclusive of such territories. Escape reserves the right to form, change, dissolve or merge any such advertising cooperatives but currently intends to create such cooperatives only at the request of the majority of franchisees in the applicable market.

You must purchase and may use only our specified model of POS system in your restaurant. The POS system costs between $3,500 and $15,000. These machines provide both cash register and sales polling functions. In addition to processing customer transactions, the POS systems collect sales information (including products sold and times of sale). There are no contractual limits on Escape's rights to access your information via this equipment and software and you agree Escape shall have independent access to your information through your POS system. The POS system will require you to have internet access via high speed connectivity and a computer on site that will provide capability for Escape to communicate electronically with the location via e-mail. You must purchase the POS systems from a vendor approved by us. The POS systems must be programmed, configured and operated in accordance with Escape's specifications. Escape may require you to update or change your POS system equipment and any related software during your operation of the restaurant, such cost to be at your expense. There are no contractual limitations on the cost or frequency of this obligation.

In addition to the costs of the POS system and related equipment, you will also be required to acquire related software. Currently, necessary software is included in the initial cost of the POS system. However, in the future you may be required to acquire additional software. This could result in additional licensing, service and other fees estimated to range from $100 to $200 per month, depending upon services elected or required, in addition to service fees if you require additional technical assistance. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.B(ii) and Section 5.I.)

The typical length of time between the earlier of the signing of the Franchise Agreement or your first payment of any consideration for the franchise and the opening of a restaurant is approximately two to six months. This period may vary in the case of a particular restaurant depending on its venue, the length of time necessary to negotiate your lease or otherwise acquire your site, obtain financing and building permits, complete construction of the restaurant, ship products and equipment, and other factors unique to a particular restaurant.

TERRITORY

You will not receive an exclusive territory, nor a minimum territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. Escape may establish other franchised, company-owned or affiliated outlets that may compete with your location, regardless of their proximity to your restaurant. Your franchise will be granted either for a specific location or for a location to be determined, subject to Escape's approval. Escape is not required to compensate you for a franchisee conducting business near to you. You must operate only from your approved location and must receive Escape's permission before relocating. Escape has no obligation to approve any relocation of your location. Historically Escape has approved relocation in the case of severe economic shift in the local trade area and if the landlord refuses to renew the restaurant lease. Upon any approved relocation, you will be required to pay a relocation fee of 50% of the then current Initial Franchise Fee, sign the then current form of Franchise Agreement which will provide for a renewal term of ten years to begin upon the relocation, and pay a renewal fee as described in Item 6. The renewal fee will be prorated to reflect any years left in your then current franchise term at the time of relocation. You do not receive the right to acquire additional franchises. You have no right to engage in direct sales of products, whether through mail order, telemarketing, Internet marketing or other direct marketing activities either within or without any territory. If you violate these obligations, Escape may sue you for damages. Escape and its affiliates retain the right, in their sole discretion and without granting any rights to you, to themselves sell, or grant others the right to sell, the products and services authorized for sale at the restaurant, through other channels of distribution (including mail order, telemarketing, the Internet or other direct marketing or distribution activities), under Escape's trademarks or otherwise, on terms and conditions as Escape may deem appropriate. Escape is not required to pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders near to your outlet (as you will not receive a minimum nor exclusive territory). You are not restricted from soliciting or accepting orders from consumers in any geography.

Escape and its affiliates do not currently, nor have any plans, to operate or conduct a business similar to that being offered under this Franchise Disclosure Document.

Escape may, in its sole discretion, offer to you the opportunity to enter into Development Agreements and become a "developer" with Escape by granting you exclusive rights to open and operate multiple restaurants in a particular territory for reduced initial franchise fees in consideration of you, as developer, agreeing to develop, open and operate, through separate Franchise Agreements, a specific number of restaurants within the territory, under a development schedule. Escape is not obligated to offer you the opportunity to enter into a Development Agreement. We will evaluate each proposed future site under the Development Agreement as set forth in Item 11 utilizing our then current standards for site selection. Any particular territory granted will be subject to negotiation; there is no guaranteed minimum territory for Development Agreements. Upon signing a Development Agreement, you, as developer, must pay Escape a nonrefundable fee in the amount of $65,000 (for a three unit development) or $100,000 (for a five unit development). Concessions granted to developer during the term of a Development Agreement, including the right to exclusive territory, generally do not survive after development is complete. If you fail to meet your obligations under a Development Agreement, including your failure to open the minimum number of restaurants required on schedule or to continue operating the minimum number of restaurants required, we may terminate the Development Agreement, keep any remaining portion of the development fee paid, restrict you from opening additional restaurants, and revoke your exclusivity rights. If you enter into a Development Agreement, your Principal Owners (as defined in the Franchise Agreement) and their spouses must sign a Guaranty Agreement in which they assume and agree to honor all obligations of the developer under the Development Agreement. In addition, if the Franchise Agreement is signed by an affiliate of developer, as permitted under the Development Agreement, the developer and its Principal Owners and their spouses must also sign a Guaranty Agreement to assume and agree to honor all obligations of the franchisee under the affiliate's Franchise Agreement. For Escape's form of Development Agreement and related Development Agreement Guaranty, see Exhibits B-3 and B-4. For our form of Franchise Agreement and related Franchise Agreement Guaranty, see Exhibits B-1 and B-2. The continuation of a developer's territorial exclusivity does not depend on achieving a certain sales volume, market penetration, or other contingency.

However, if the franchisee fails to meet the requirements set forth in the development agreement regarding the development schedule, the franchisor may terminate the development agreement. The termination of the development agreement also permits Escape to terminate all franchise agreements with the developer.

TRADEMARKS

All rights in Escape’s trademarks are owned by Escape. Escape may change its trademarks and you must use the new or modified trademarks exclusively, all at your expense. By “trademarks” Escape means trade names, trademarks, service marks and logos used in the operation of your restaurant. Under the Franchise Agreement, Escape grants to you the right to operate a restaurant under the name “STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL” or a variation designated by Escape. The following is a listing of the System’s principal trademarks. All trademarks registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“Trademark Office”) are registered on the principal register. All affidavits of use due to be filed to maintain these registrations have been timely filed to date. Escape has also registered, or has registration applications pending, for certain marks in various foreign countries, including Canada and Mexico.

Mark	Registered with Trademark Office	Date of Registration	Registration Number	Initial or Renewal Term
STEAK ESCAPE	Yes	10/06/98	2,193,800	Renewal
	Yes	12/30/14	4,662,608	Renewal

You must follow Escape’s rules when you use these trademarks. You may not use Escape’s marks for the sale of an unauthorized product or service or in a manner not authorized by Escape. There are no agreements currently in effect that significantly limit the rights of Escape to use or license the use of its trademarks in any material manner. Escape is not obligated to protect any of its or your rights to use the trademarks, service marks or other commercial symbols of Escape nor to protect, indemnify or defend you against claims respecting any of Escape’s trademarks. Escape knows of no superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of Escape’s principal trademarks. You must notify Escape of any infringement of or challenge to your use of any of Escape’s trademarks and Escape will have sole discretion to take any action or no action as it deems appropriate. Escape has the right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed to you.

There are no currently effective material determinations of the Trademark Office, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the trademark administrator of any state or any court; no pending actions for infringement, opposition or cancellation; and no pending material litigation involving Escape’s principal trademarks.

PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

Escape has no rights in or licenses to any patent or pending patent application. Escape claims common law copyrights on its materials, including the STEAK ESCAPE® Management Development Guide, the STEAK ESCAPE® Critical Path, the Cast Member Development Guide and the Design Criteria Guide, all training manuals and materials, charts, films, videos and printed materials. Escape has not registered any of its current publications with the United States Copyright Office. Escape may change such materials at any time and you must use the new or modified materials exclusively, all at your expense.

The Franchise Agreement grants you the right to use the listed material and other intellectual property of Escape. You must follow Escape's rules when you use these materials. You will also be granted the right to use certain trade secrets of Escape under the terms of the STEAK ESCAPE® Management Development Guide and Cast Member Development Guide, including certain recipes and procedures used in the preparation of products. All ideas, concepts, techniques and materials relating to the System, by whoever created, will be the exclusive property of Escape. Escape may require you, certain of your owners, your managers and your or their spouses to sign a confidentiality agreement for the benefit of Escape.

Escape is not obligated to protect its or your rights to use the copyrighted and other proprietary materials nor to protect, indemnify or defend you against claims of infringement. Escape may change its copyrighted material, apply for copyright protection of additional material and require you to cease use of any existing material, all at your cost. You must notify Escape of any infringement of or challenge to your use of any copyrighted or other proprietary material and Escape will have sole discretion to take any action it deems appropriate. Escape has the right to control any litigation involving its intellectual property.

No agreements are currently in effect that significantly limit Escape's rights to use or license the copyrights in any material manner. There are no currently effective determinations of any authority or any court, no pending actions for infringement, opposition or cancellation, and no pending litigation regarding Escape's copyrights in these materials and Escape knows of no infringing uses which could materially affect your use of these materials.

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

No particular individual must devote full time to the franchised business although Escape recommends that at least one of the principal owners of the franchisee participate actively in the business. However, the restaurant must be directly supervised at all times by one of two "on-premises" managers who have been certified by Escape as having successfully completed Escape's training program. Except as identified in this Item 15, Escape does not impose any limitations on who you can hire as an on-premises manager. The on-premises managers need not own any equity interest in the franchisee. You must appoint an individual acceptable to us who has successfully completed training to serve as your liaison in dealing with us. In addition, you must devote sufficient time to the management of the restaurant to meet your obligations to Escape. Each individual franchisee, certain individual owners of a franchisee entity and each non-owner manager and their spouses are subject to restrictions on confidentiality and competitive behavior both during and after the term of the Franchise Agreement. In addition, each individual franchisee and certain individual owners of a franchisee entity and their spouses must sign a Guaranty Agreement in which they assume and agree to honor all obligations of the franchisee under the Franchise Agreement. Escape’s form of Guaranty Agreement for the franchise is attached as Exhibit B-2.

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must sell only the products and services approved by Escape. All franchisees are currently required to sell a “core” menu of items and may elect to sell one or more items from the System’s full menu. The additional training required for additional menu items is included in the initial training at no additional cost. Additional menu items may require an additional investment. Escape may, in its discretion, add additional authorized products and services that you must offer in the future or may delete or change products or services currently sold, all at your sole expense. Escape may designate certain products and services for sale by restaurants located in particular sites. For example, Escape may classify certain products for sale only by restaurants located in malls.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

We do not make any representations about a franchisee’s future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised outlets. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representation either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we or the selling franchisee may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor’s management by contacting Kennard M. Smith at 1099 Sullivant Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43223, 614/224-0300, Ext. 1002, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

ESCAPE ENTERPRISES, LTD.
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

THIS FRANCHISE AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is made between and among ESCAPE ENTERPRISES, LTD., an Ohio limited liability company, with headquarters located at 1099 Sullivant Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43223 (“Franchisor”, “we”, “us”, or “our”), and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”, “you”, or “your”). Collectively the Franchisor and Franchisee are referred to as the “parties”. This Agreement is entered into as of _____ (the “Effective Date”).

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, we have expended a considerable amount of time, effort and money to devise, and are continuing to develop, a restaurant system (the “System”) which includes proprietary rights and certain trade names, service marks and trademarks, including “STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL™” (collectively, the “Trademarks”), and certain distinctive policies (the “Policies”) for the establishment, construction, development, and operation of restaurants specializing in the sale of System products, services, and related items; and you recognize that we have developed and own these rights; and

WHEREAS, you are also known as Developer’s Affiliate or the Developer identified in the attached Exhibit A and are a party to a Development Agreement with us, the date of which is identified in Exhibit A, for the Development Area described in Exhibit A; and

WHEREAS, we desire to grant you the right to operate a restaurant franchise at a location referenced in Section 7.B(i) and listed in Exhibit A and under the Trademark identified on Exhibit A (the “Restaurant”), in accordance with, and under, the System; and

WHEREAS, you recognize that the System has established an excellent reputation and goodwill with the public; and, you want to acquire the right to use the System in the operation of the Restaurant; and

WHEREAS, we desire to maintain uniform methods of operations and procedures among our franchisees in order to promote efficiency and ensure the high standards of conformity, quality, and service associated with the operation of a Restaurant as part of the System;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained in this Agreement, the parties agree as follows:

1. THE FRANCHISE.

A. Grant of Franchise. We grant you, and you accept from us, (i) the right to franchise and to operate the Restaurant, (ii) the right to utilize the System in operating your Restaurant, and (iii) a license to use the Trademarks solely in connection with the operation and promotion of your Restaurant, but only at the single location listed in Exhibit A. You have no rights to utilize the System or the Trademarks, or to operate the Restaurant at any other location without our prior written consent which may be withheld in our sole discretion. We (for ourselves and our affiliates) retain the right, in our sole discretion and without granting any rights to you, to (a) ourselves operate, or grant other persons the right to operate, System restaurants at any location and on the terms and conditions as we determine, and (b) ourselves sell, or grant others the right to sell, the products and services authorized for sale at the Restaurant, through other channels of distribution, including mail order, internet sales, or other direct marketing channels, under the Trademarks or otherwise, on the terms and conditions that we determine.

B. Relocation. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, you may give us at least 60 days' prior written notification that you want to relocate your Restaurant to a location approved by us located at any time (i) if you lose your right to occupy the location of the Restaurant designated in this Agreement by reason of appropriation by any applicable government entity; or (ii) if your landlord at a mall location requires that you relocate within this mall; or (iii) within three years after the Effective Date if you reasonably anticipate that this relocation will result in substantially higher Gross Sales. Upon our approval of any relocation, you will be required to pay a relocation fee that is equal to 50% of the then-current System standard initial franchise fee charged to new franchisees, sign the then current form of Franchise Agreement which will provide for a term of ten years to begin upon the relocation, and pay a renewal fee as described in Section 4.B(vii). The renewal fee will be ratably prorated to reflect any years left in your then current franchise term at the time of relocation.

2. THE SYSTEM.

A. Products. The System is a comprehensive food service operation that specializes in the retail sale (including catering sales) of specialty sandwiches, specialty salads, specialty potatoes, fresh-cut french fries and fresh made lemonade and utilizes certain unique in-store merchandising techniques, with a strict adherence to uniform procedures to offer products of the highest quality.

B. Standards. The foundation of the System, and the essence of the franchise granted by this Agreement, is the adherence by you to our Policies and to our standards of providing for the uniform operation of all restaurants within the System (the "Standards") including, but not limited to, serving only designated food and beverage products; utilizing only required or approved equipment, layouts and designs; emphasizing prompt, courteous service in a clean and wholesome atmosphere; strictly adhering to the designated food and beverage specifications and to our required standards of quality, service and cleanliness in your operation of your Restaurant; and causing the Restaurant to be managed by qualified, trained management personnel who ensure that customers are served an excellent product in an efficient manner with appropriate interaction between the Restaurant employees and customers in order to achieve maximum sales at the Restaurant and overall customer satisfaction with the products and services. Strict compliance by you and our other franchisees with our Standards and our Policies provides the basis for the valuable goodwill and community acceptance of our System ("Goodwill") and is a material consideration for our grant of the franchise to you.

C. Interpretation. The provisions of this Agreement shall be interpreted to manifest the intent of the parties that the Restaurant shall be operated in conformity with our System through strict adherence to the Standards and Policies, as they exist now, and as they may be modified by us.

3. NATURE OF FRANCHISE.

A. General. The franchise granted is a franchise to utilize the System, including our Trademarks, Policies, Goodwill and Standards, and to benefit from our trade secrets at the single location listed in Exhibit A. No provision in this Agreement shall be construed to authorize or permit you to use our Goodwill, Policies, Trademarks, or Standards at any other location or for any other purpose. No provision in this Agreement shall be construed to require us to divulge any secrets, processes, formulae or ingredients to you or anyone. It is expressly agreed that the ownership of all rights, title, and interest in and to our Goodwill, Trademarks, Standards, and Policies are and shall remain solely ours, and all use by you shall inure to us.

B. Confidentiality. You, and all persons controlling, controlled by or under common control with you (your “Affiliates”) shall, during and after the term hereof, keep all of our Confidential Information confidential and use the Confidential Information only as necessary to perform your obligations hereunder. “Confidential Information” means the terms of this Agreement and all other of our proprietary and confidential information relating to the development and operation of the System including (i) ingredients, recipes and methods of preparation and presentation of authorized food products; (ii) site selection criteria for System restaurants and plans and specifications for the development of System restaurants; (iii) sales, marketing and advertising programs and techniques for System restaurants; (iv) identity of suppliers and knowledge of specifications, processes, procedures and equipment, and pricing for authorized food products, materials, supplies and equipment; (v) knowledge of operating results and financial performance of System restaurants other than the Restaurant; (vi) methods of inventory control, storage, product handling, training and management relating to System restaurants; (vii) computer systems and software programs used or useful in System restaurants; and (viii) any and all other information that we provide you that is labeled proprietary or confidential. “Confidential Information” includes the contents of all operations manuals, other manuals and materials designed by us for use with the System. All Confidential Information shall at all times be deemed to be, and shall remain, our sole property; and you shall acquire no right, title or interest by virtue of our authorization pursuant to this Agreement to possess and use our Confidential Information. We will disclose parts of our Confidential Information to you solely for your use in the operation of your Restaurant. The Confidential Information is proprietary and includes our trade secrets. During the term hereof and thereafter (a) you and your Principal Owners (as defined in Section 11.D hereof) may not use the Confidential Information in any other business or capacity (you and your Principal Owners acknowledge such use is an unfair method of competition); (b) you and your Principal Owners must exert your best efforts to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information; (c) you and your Principal Owners may not make unauthorized copies of any portion of the Confidential Information disclosed in written, electronic or other form; and (d) you and your Principal Owners must implement all reasonable procedures we prescribe from time to time to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information, including the use of nondisclosure agreements with your Principal Owners, officers, directors, and managers. At the end of the term hereof, you and your Principal Owners must deliver to us all such Confidential Information in your possession. Your restrictions on disclosure and use of Confidential Information do not apply to information or techniques which are or become generally known in the restaurant industry (other than through your own disclosure).

4. TERM OF AGREEMENT.

A. Term.

(i) The term of this Agreement shall begin upon the Effective Date, which shall be the date we sign this Agreement in Columbus, Ohio. The term “Operations Commencement Date” shall mean the earlier of the date required for the beginning of operations of the Restaurant as referenced in Section 7.B and as designated in Exhibit A or the date upon which the Restaurant actually opens for business to the public (the “Opening Date”). The Opening Date will be confirmed in Exhibit B. Unless extended or earlier terminated under the terms of this Agreement, the initial term of this Agreement shall expire on the date that is ten years after the Operations Commencement Date (the “Expiration Date”).

(ii) If your franchise was acquired pursuant to a permitted transfer, your first day of operations shall be designated as the “Transfer Date”. The term of your Franchise Agreement begins upon the Transfer Date and expires on the last day of the term as determined by your assignor’s Franchise Agreement. The Transfer Date and Expiration Date shall be memorialized in Exhibit B to the Franchise Agreement that you sign.

B. Renewal Term Option. You may renew your franchise for your Restaurant for an unlimited number of additional successive ten-year terms, provided that before the expiration of the initial or renewal term, whichever applies:

(i) You give us written notice of your election to renew at least six months, but not more than 12 months, before the end of the current term of your Agreement;

(ii) Neither you nor any of your Affiliates are in default of any material term of this Agreement or any other agreement between you or any of your Affiliates and us or any of our affiliates and you and your Affiliates have substantially complied with the material terms and conditions of all such agreements during the term of your Agreement;

(iii) You execute the current standard form of our Franchise Agreement and related documentation provided that we agree to waive the initial franchise fee provided for in such agreement; you and each of your “Principal Owners” (as defined in Section 11.D), execute a release, in a form satisfactory to us, of any and all claims you or they may have against us and our owners, members, managers, affiliates, agents and employees in all their capacities and including all claims arising under any federal, state or local law, rule or ordinance;

(iv) You provide us a copy of your lease, sublease, or other written evidence satisfactory to us that you maintain in good standing a right to occupy the Restaurant premises for at least five years from the anticipated renewal date;

(v) Before the beginning of your renewal term, you, at your sole cost and expense, complete or undertake to complete remodeling, repairs, replacements, and redecoration as we may require, in our sole discretion, to cause your Restaurant, including the equipment, fixtures, furnishings, and furniture, to conform to our design, operation, equipment, structural, sign, graphic, and other applicable standard requirements at the time that you exercise your renewal option;

(vi) You, or a representative approved in writing by us, and all supervisory personnel at your Restaurant, attend and satisfactorily complete any retraining or refresher training program that we may require in our sole discretion; and

(vii) You pay our renewal fee concurrently with your execution of the Franchise Agreement referenced in Section 4.B(iii). For timing of renewals, see Section 4.B(i) and Exhibit B. The renewal fee shall equal 50% of the current System standard initial franchise fee charged to new franchisees.

C. Death, Etc. We may elect to terminate your Agreement on the death, insanity, or appointment of a conservator or guardian of the person or estate of: (i) any Franchisee, if Franchisee is one or more individuals, or (ii) any Principal Owner of Franchisee if Franchisee is not an individual, unless the successor to Franchisee or to the interest of any Principal Owner of Franchisee complies with the terms and conditions in Section 8.B. If you reimburse our reasonable, out-of-pocket costs incurred in connection with this event, you do not have to pay the transfer fee listed in Section 8.B.

5. FRANCHISE AND ROYALTY FEES; INTEREST.

A. Initial Franchise Fee. You must pay us an initial franchise fee of $25,000 in immediately available funds, (e.g., wire transfer, certified funds, or as otherwise directed by us) when you sign the Agreement unless otherwise provided in the applicable Development Agreement. The initial franchise fee is non-refundable.

B. Royalty Fees.

(i) For each calendar month during this Agreement, you must pay us the monthly royalty fee listed in Exhibit A or, if applicable, the monthly royalty fee equal to the percentage of Gross Sales listed in the Development Agreement, provided a Development Agreement is in effect. If the Development Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason, you shall pay the standard royalty fees charged for new franchisees under the current Franchise Agreement. Your payment is due, and you must pay us the payment which must be received by us on or before the close of business on the 15th day after the end of each month. We may establish payment systems, as we deem appropriate, for the timely payment of royalty fees and any other payments due in this Agreement, including debit payment programs, credit card payment programs, or electronic fund transfer programs. You must cooperate with us in implementing any system. If the royalty fee provided for in Exhibit A is less than our current or future standard royalty fee for new franchisees, you acknowledge that the royalty fee is not transferable; and, upon any Transfer, as defined in Section 8.A, the royalty fee shall be automatically increased to equal the current standard royalty fee for new franchisees. Our current standard royalty fee for new franchisees is 6% of Gross Sales.

(ii) You shall submit a monthly written report of your Gross Sales from the reported month's operation and any additional information which we may reasonably request on our required forms, certified as correct by you. This report and information must be received by us, together with payment of the royalty fees for the fiscal period described in this Section 5.B, on or before the 15th day of the next succeeding period. We may establish other sales reporting systems, as we deem appropriate, for the accurate and expeditious reporting of Gross Sales. You shall fully cooperate with us in implementing any specified system at the Restaurant and shall, at your expense, equip the Restaurant with the sales recording devices as we may require in connection with the Restaurant, including sales recording devices which will automatically communicate Gross Sales and other information directly to us on at least a daily basis. If you repeatedly fail to cooperate with our automatic communication program to obtain Gross Sales and other sales information, after a written notice from us and the passage of 10 business days, we may assess you a $25.00/day service charge (“Service Charge”) until your Restaurant begins to electronically transmit the information as required. This Service Charge is payable upon demand and is in addition to any other remedies in this Agreement.

(iii) As used in this Agreement, the term “Gross Sales” shall mean gross receipts of every kind and nature which arise from or are derived by you or any other person from business conducted or which originated in, on, from or through the Restaurant premises, or from the sale of any products associated with the Trademarks or the System, whether the business is conducted in compliance with or in violation of the terms of this Agreement, on the Restaurant premises or off, whether upon credit or for cash, without reserve or deduction for inability or failure to collect or for any amount required under this Agreement or otherwise expended by you to advertise or promote the Restaurant. Gross Sales shall not include the amount of any sales tax levied upon retail sales and paid to the appropriate governmental authority.

C. Training Fees and Expenses. The training provided by us and the fees payable for the training are described in Section 6.A below.

D. Marketing Fund Fees. For each calendar month during this Agreement, you shall pay us a monthly marketing fund fee of one-half of one percent of Gross Sales for locations in a mall /OR/ one and one-half percent of Gross Sales for locations not in a mall. This marketing fund fee shall be due, and you shall pay this fee which must be received by us by the close of business on or before the 15th day after the end of each month. Upon 90 days’ notice, we may increase the marketing fund fee to equal up to 2% for locations located in a mall /OR/ 3% for locations not located in a mall of Gross Sales.

E. Interest and Late Fee. If you fail to pay the initial franchise fee or the royalty fees or any other sum due us, as provided in this Agreement when due, interest computed at the rate of 5% over the prime rate announced by JP Morgan Chase Bank, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less, shall be payable on the unpaid amount from the date due until the date paid. If we do not receive this fee or other sum when due, you will be in default (See Section 10). If you fail to pay the royalty fee for any month when due, your royalty fee for this month, and for each subsequent month until your royalty fees are current, shall be increased to 1% over the royalty fee otherwise payable for this month under Section 5.B.

F. Accord and Satisfaction. All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument indicating that the payment constitutes “payment in full” of the amount owed or that it is tendered with other conditions or limitations or as full satisfaction of a disputed amount, must be mailed or delivered to Escape Enterprises, Ltd., ATTN: Accord and Satisfaction Payments Department at our address designated for delivery of notices under this Agreement. If you send a payment with the payment marked “paid-in-full”, “without recourse”, or similar language, we may accept it without losing any of our rights to collect the full amount owed and you will remain obligated to pay any amount owed to us regardless of the utilization of such language.

G. Letter of Credit. At any time when you have failed for two consecutive months to pay the royalty fee due to us within five days of when due, you shall, within five business days of our demand, deliver to us an irrevocable letter of credit (the “Letter of Credit”) as security for all of your future monetary obligations to us under this Agreement (the “Obligations”). The Letter of Credit shall be in an amount equal to six times the average monthly payments payable by you to us for the preceding 12 months (or for a shorter time if the Restaurant has been operational less than 12 months). You must maintain the Letter of Credit in our favor until the Obligations are performed in full. The Letter of Credit must be issued by an issuer acceptable to us, must conform to the requirements in this Section and shall be in form and substance reasonably acceptable to us. The Letter of Credit must have a term ending at least one month after the last day of the term of this Agreement. The Letter of Credit shall permit partial draws and shall provide for drawing upon presentation by us to issuer of a draft drawn on the issuer and a certificate signed by us stating that you have failed to make timely payment of an Obligation. If you fail to make timely payment of an Obligation, we may draw on the Letter of Credit in an amount not to exceed the amount of this Obligation. Upon any draw, you shall, within 10 days after notice of such draw from us, cause the amount of the Letter of Credit to be reinstated to the amount in effect before a draw. Our rights under this Section are in addition to, and not in limitation of, any other rights or remedies we have.

H. License and Other Fees. With respect to any required POS systems, software licensing, and/or other technical services or provide help or other technical support services for our System, we may, by separate license agreement, make licenses, software, maintenance and/or technical services available at a reasonable and market-competitive fee to you. You must pay us in accordance with the terms of the separate license, maintenance and/or support agreements. If you procure any such required equipment and/or software from third party providers, you must promptly purchase or lease the equipment and secure the software and pay related license, software, maintenance, and/or technical services fees as may be required.

I. Automatic Withdrawal Program. You shall initiate and maintain an automatic withdrawal mechanism whereby we may withdraw amounts due to us hereunder from your depository accounts and shall, from time to time, as we request, provide us with such information and materials as is necessary for us to utilize such mechanism to satisfy obligations hereunder. You shall maintain in the applicable depository accounts funds sufficient to meet your obligations to us hereunder.

6. OBLIGATIONS OF FRANCHISOR.

A. Training.

(i) Director's Training. We will make available to you and your approved personnel our customary management training and indoctrination course (the "Director Certification Program") concerning the operation and management of your Restaurant. At our option the Director Certification Program may include a requirement that each participant attend the opening of a System restaurant. You are required to employ at each Restaurant, at all times, at least two persons who have completed the Director Certification Program to our satisfaction ("Directors"). At least one Director must be present at your Restaurant during all hours that your Restaurant is open or operating. During the course of opening your Restaurant, all Directors must be present at the Restaurant pursuant to a schedule acceptable to us. The Director Certification Program must be completed by all required Directors to our satisfaction at least 10 days before the public opening of the Restaurant. The Director Certification Program is conducted at our headquarters in Columbus, Ohio. We may, in our discretion, require you and your management personnel to participate in additional training programs or refresher courses. Depending upon the nature and extent of the additional training that we determine is required, the additional training and refresher courses may be conducted, at our option, at our Columbus, Ohio training restaurant or at your Restaurant. We reserve the right to dismiss from the training program any person whom we do not believe will perform acceptably in a management position.

(ii) Franchisee Training Program. An individual Franchisee or a Principal Owner of a non-individual Franchisee who will not be personally managing the Restaurant on a daily basis for at least the first three full months of its operation will not be considered as one of the required Directors. Such a person may, at our election, be required to participate in, and complete to our satisfaction, our customary training program for non-Director Franchisees ("Franchisee Training Program").

(iii) On-Site Staff Training. Before the public opening of the Restaurant, our training personnel will supervise a staff-training program conducted by you at the Restaurant. The on-site staff-training program continues until the training has been completed to our satisfaction. We may require, as a prerequisite to any on-site staff-training, that your Restaurant be substantially completed and that a Certificate of Occupancy be issued. See Section 6.A(iv) for provisions regarding payment for training.

(iv) Training Fees and Expenses. Other than your travel and living expenses, as set forth below, there is no fee for customary initial training required in connection with the opening of a Restaurant. However, you will pay to us our standard training fees in connection with any non-customary initial training (including repeated courses for individuals who do not complete training to our satisfaction) and any refresher or remedial training required by us. You shall also be responsible for all travel and living expenses incurred by us and our personnel in connection with any training program conducted outside of Columbus, Ohio for your Restaurant opening or otherwise. If we elect to provide any additional training at a site other than Columbus, Ohio, you shall be responsible for all travel and living expenses incurred by us and our personnel involved in providing any additional training. All training fees and related expenses for which you are required to reimburse us are payable by you within 30 days after our invoice. Neither you nor any of your personnel shall receive any compensation or reimbursement for any service performed or expenses incurred by you or your personnel as a result of any training provided or required by us.

B. Manuals and Other Materials. We shall loan to you our STEAK ESCAPE® Management Development Guide and other manuals and guidelines as revised or developed by us from time to time. You shall return all manuals and guidelines which have been superseded. We shall consult with and advise you periodically in connection with the development and operation of the Restaurant. We shall communicate to you our know-how, new developments, techniques and improvements in the areas of restaurant management, food preparation and services, which are pertinent to the operation of the Restaurant in accordance with the System. We shall also make available to you all additional services, facilities, rights and privileges which we make generally available to all of our franchisees operating under the System.

C. Drawings and Construction. We will provide you with our Design Criteria Guide (standard, non-customized, System design overview drawings) and a customized preliminary layout drawing of the Restaurant to aid you in the design of the Restaurant. We will not provide architectural plans or construction drawings. See Section 5.F regarding payment obligations. You shall reimburse us, within 30 days of our request, for any fees charged by our architect in performing the services specified in this Section 6.C.

7. OBLIGATIONS OF FRANCHISEE.

After we execute this Agreement, you agree to perform the following, in addition to your other obligations in this Agreement:

A. Infringement. You acknowledge and recognize our interest in and exclusive right to the System, including our Trademarks, including the name, distinguishing characteristics and style of “STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL™” and our other marks, the unique decor of the restaurants within the System, stylized literature, display graphics and promotional materials, marketing methods, operating procedures and training programs. You agree not to infringe upon, use, nor imitate our System or any of our System’s distinguishing characteristics, or cause or allow any other person to infringe upon, use, or imitate our System, or any of our distinguishing characteristics, except in connection with the operation of the Restaurant during the term of this Agreement except if we give our prior written consent which we may withhold at our sole discretion. You accept the franchise granted by this Agreement subject to the covenants, terms, and conditions in this Agreement, including those in Section 11, and you agree to conduct the operation of your Restaurant only at the location identified in Exhibit A and to operate your Restaurant in accordance with our System. You also agree to operate the Restaurant under the name “STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL” or other name as we, in our sole discretion, may designate for other restaurants in our System. You shall not use the name “STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL” or any other name confusingly similar as a component of your corporate or entity name or with any prefix, suffix, or other modifying words, terms, designs, or symbols. Without limiting the preceding provisions in this Section, you agree that you will not use any Trademark (or any abbreviation, modification or imitation of any Trademark) in any manner (including any Internet related use such as an electronic media identifier, web site name, web page name, or domain name) not expressly authorized by us in writing.

B. Commencement.

(i) The location for the Restaurant shall be identified in Exhibit A. However, if no location for the Restaurant is identified in Exhibit A at the Effective Date, then, on or before the date identified in Exhibit A, you and we shall mutually agree, in writing, as to the location of the Restaurant. We shall respond to your request for approval of a specific location within 30 days of your submission of a complete site acceptance request. Your contribution to these advertising cooperatives shall be credited against your obligations to pay the Pre-Opening Advertising Amount or the Minimum Advertising Amount under Section 7.X(iii) hereof.

(v) Upon request and subject to your reimbursement to us for our costs related thereto, we agree to provide to you our normal and customary advertising materials suitable for the production of handbills, bag attachments, and newspaper advertising. Z. Franchisee Liaison. You shall at all times designate an individual satisfactory to us to serve as your liaison with us for all matters arising under or pursuant to this Agreement or relating to the franchise granted. (i) For the purposes of this Section 7.AA, “Anti-Terrorism Laws” means Executive Order 13224 issued by the President of the United States, the Terrorism Sanctions Regulations (Title 31, Part 595 of the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations), the Foreign Terrorist Organizations Sanctions Regulations (Title 31, Part 597 of the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations), the Cuban Assets Control Regulations (Title 31, Part 515 of the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations), the USA PATRIOT Act, and all other present and future federal, state and local laws, ordinances, regulations, policies, lists and any other requirements of any governmental authority (including without limitation, the United States Department of Treasury Office of Foreign Assets Control) addressing or in any way relating to terrorist acts and acts of war.

(ii) You, the Principal Owners and your Affiliates certify that none of you, the Principal Owners and your Affiliates, employees, or anyone associated with you is listed in the Annex to Executive Order 13224. (The Annex is available at <http://www.treasury.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/sanctions/terrorism.html>.) You agree not to hire any individual who is listed in the Annex.

(iii) You, the Principal Owners and your Affiliates certify that you have no knowledge or information that, if generally known, would result in you, the Principal Owners, your Affiliates, your employees, or anyone associated with you to be listed in the Annex to Executive Order 13224.

(iv) You, the Principal Owners and your Affiliates are solely responsible for ascertaining what actions must be taken by you to comply with the Anti-Terrorism Laws, and you specifically acknowledge and agree that your indemnification responsibilities set forth in Section 7.S of this Agreement pertain to your obligations under this Section 7.AA.

(v) Any misrepresentation by you under this Section 7.AA or any violation of the Anti-Terrorism Laws by you, the Principal Owners, your Affiliates or your employees shall constitute grounds for immediate termination of this Agreement and any other Agreement you have entered with Franchisor or its affiliates.

8. TRANSFER AND ASSIGNMENT.

A. General.

(i) You shall neither sell, assign, transfer, pledge, or encumber, by operation of law or otherwise, (a) this Agreement, (b) the franchise granted under this Agreement, (c) your fee or leasehold interest in the real estate upon which the Restaurant is located, with or without this Agreement, (d) substantially all of the assets used in the operation of your Restaurant, with or without this Agreement, (e) the Franchisee, (f) a Controlling Percentage of the ownership interest in Franchisee, or (g) any another interest under this Agreement (in each case, a “Transfer”), nor suffer or permit any Transfer to occur, without our prior written consent. Any merger by, with or into Franchisee, any consolidation, reorganization, or dissolution involving Franchisee, or any pledge, hypothecation, sale or other transfer, singly or in the aggregate, of equity interests constituting a Controlling Percentage (as defined below) of the equity interests of Franchisee or the issuance of additional equity interests representing in the aggregate a Controlling Percentage of the equity interests of Franchisee, or any change in the general partners of Franchisee, shall constitute a Transfer for all purposes of this Section 8. The term “Controlling Percentage”, as used in this Agreement shall mean the ownership of stock or other equity interest possessing, and of the right to exercise, at least 33% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock or other equity interest of such entity, issued, outstanding and entitled to vote, whether this ownership is direct or indirect through ownership of another entity or otherwise. Any Transfer not having our prior written consent shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

(ii) Our consent to any Transfer shall not be deemed a consent to any subsequent Transfer.

B. Consent. We shall not unreasonably withhold consent to a Transfer; provided, however, that our consent to any Transfer shall be subject to such terms and conditions, as we may impose in our sole discretion including, but not limited to, each of the following:

- (i) The transferee agrees to operate the Restaurant as a System franchise;
- (ii) All obligations of Franchisee created by this Agreement and all other related franchise documents and the relationship created under this Agreement are assumed by the transferee;
- (iii) All ascertained or liquidated debts of Franchisee and your Affiliates to us or any of our affiliates are paid in full to us before any Transfer;
- (iv) Neither Franchisee nor any of your Affiliates are in default of any provision of this Agreement or any other agreement between you or any of your Affiliates and us or any of our affiliates;
- (v) The transferee satisfactorily completes the training required of new franchise owners on our current terms before the effective Transfer Date (note that training will not begin until you have provided us with evidence reasonably satisfactory to us that all preconditions to our consent to the Transfer have been met, including execution by transferee of the Franchise Agreement anticipated by clause (vii));
- (vi) We are satisfied that transferee meets all the requirements of our new franchise owners including, but not limited to, good reputation and character, business experience, operational ability, financial strength, and other business considerations. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that (y) among the business factors that are deemed to be reasonable for us to consider with regard to a request for consent to a Transfer is the direct or indirect involvement by the proposed transferee, or its owners, in any manner with any business that Franchisor, in its sole discretion, deems to be competitive with the System's business, and (z) it is deemed to be reasonable for us, on a case-by-case basis, to object to a proposed transfer by you to a transferee which is itself involved or which is owned by parties which are involved, directly or indirectly, in any manner with any business that we, in our sole discretion, deem to be competitive with the System's business;
- (vii) The transferee executes or, in appropriate circumstances, causes all necessary parties to execute our then-current standard form of franchise agreement for the Restaurant and the other ancillary franchise agreements being required by us for new franchise owners on the date of Transfer, including guaranties by the Principal Owners of transferee;
- (viii) You and all Principal Owners and, if there has been a transfer of equity ownership of Franchisee, the transferor(s) of the equity ownership, execute a mutual general release, in a form satisfactory to us, of any and all claims against us, and our members, managers, affiliates, employees and agents; provided that such release shall not release any such person from its obligations hereunder or under the Guaranty with respect to the operation of the Restaurant after the Transfer;

(ix) Except as provided in Section 4.C of this Agreement, upon execution of the Franchise Agreement anticipated by clause (viii), you will pay to us a non-refundable transfer fee in the amount of $10,000 (or, if the Transfer is among the then existing owners of Franchisee as set forth on Exhibit C, $2,000); and

(x) The transferee provides us documentary evidence satisfactory to us that transferee has the continuing right to occupy the Restaurant premises for a term corresponding with the term of the franchise granted to transferee or at least five years.

C. First Refusal. If you receive a bona-fide offer for, and wish to consummate, any Transfer requiring our consent pursuant to this Section 8, you shall first provide us with a written copy of such offer, and we shall have the option, exercisable within 30 days after written notice and receipt of a copy of the offer and the other information required pursuant to this Section, to purchase the same interests identified in the offer free and clear of all liens or adverse claims, on terms and conditions substantially identical to the terms and conditions in the offer of the third party. In order that we have information sufficient to enable us to determine whether to exercise our option, you agree to deliver to us, with the notice, true and correct financial statements as of the end of your most recent fiscal year and such other information about your business and operations that you have provided to the third party. If we do not exercise our option, you may, within 90 days from the expiration of the option, consummate the Transfer to the third party, provided we have consented to this Transfer as required by this Section 8. Any material change in the terms of the offer from the third party before closing of the Transfer shall constitute a new offer, subject to the same right of first refusal to us as in the case of the initial offer. Failure by us to exercise this option shall not constitute our waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of this Section 8, for the proposed Transfer.

D. Advertising. You shall not, without our prior written approval, refer to “STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL” in any advertising for the sale of the franchise granted under this Agreement.

E. Franchisor. We shall have the right to sell, assign, or transfer all or any part of our rights herein to any person or legal entity.

9. OPERATION IN CERTAIN EVENTS.

Subject to the provisions of Section 10.E, in order to prevent any interruption in the business of your Restaurant which would cause harm to your business and depreciate the value of your business and of the System, you authorize us, in the case of your death or incapacity, or if we elect to manage the Restaurant as provided in Section 10.E, to operate your Restaurant for the time we deem necessary and practical, up to six months, and without waiver of any other rights or remedies we may have under this Agreement. All monies from the operation of your Restaurant, during this period of operation by us, shall be kept in a separate account, and the expenses of the Restaurant, including reasonable compensation and expenses for our representatives, shall be charged to this separate account. If we, in our sole discretion, temporarily operate the Restaurant, as provided in this Section, you agree to save harmless and fully indemnify us and any of our representatives who may act under this Agreement from and against all costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, losses, liabilities, damages, claims and demands arising from or related to this operation.

10. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION.

A. Events of Default. The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute a default under this Agreement:

(i) If you misuse the System or the Trademarks, or otherwise materially impair the Goodwill, or if you use at the Restaurant, any names, marks, systems, insignia or symbols not authorized by us.

(ii) If you fail to remit to us any payments required under this Agreement when due.

(iii) If you fail to construct your Restaurant in accordance with our plans and specifications, to equip your Restaurant in accordance with our standards and specifications, to remodel your Restaurant as required or to maintain your Restaurant in accordance with the standards and policies of the System.

(iv) If you fail to operate your Restaurant as a System restaurant, or otherwise fail to operate your Restaurant in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, our Standards and Policies and our operations manual, technical manual, or any other manuals designated by us, or fail to use products, ingredients and methods of preparation which conform to our designated specifications and standards, or shall fail in any way to maintain our standards of quality, appearance and service in the operation of your Restaurant or otherwise fail to comply with your obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that the terms of any manual shall not supersede any provision contained in this Agreement.

(v) If you attempt to effect any Transfer other than in accordance with Section 8 of this Agreement.

(vi) If you are in default under any lease or sublease of your Restaurant site or you lose the right to possession of your Restaurant for any reason.

(vii) If you make, or have made, any material misrepresentation to us in connection with obtaining this Agreement or in conducting the business franchised and licensed under this Agreement.

(viii) If you fail to obtain our prior written consent or approval where this is expressly required by this Agreement.

(ix) If you “abandon” your Restaurant. For purposes of this Agreement, “abandon” shall mean your failure, at any time during the term of this Agreement, to keep your Restaurant open and operating for business during the minimum days and hours specified by us, for an aggregate of four days in any 30-day period.

(x) If you, or any person controlling, controlled by or under your common control with you, (a) shall become insolvent by reason of an inability to pay its debts as they mature; (b) shall be adjudicated bankrupt; (c) shall file or have filed against it a petition in bankruptcy, reorganization or similar proceeding under the bankruptcy laws of the United States; (d) shall have a receiver, permanent or temporary, of its business, assets or property (the “Business”), or any part thereof, appointed by a court of competent authority; (e) shall request the appointment of a receiver; (f) makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; (g) has a final judgment against it in the amount of $10,000 remain unsatisfied of record for 30 days or longer; or (h) has its bank accounts or property attached and the attachment proceedings are not dismissed within a 30-day period; (i) has an execution levied against its Business or property; or (j) has a suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the Restaurant, the premises of your Restaurant or the equipment on the premises instituted and not dismissed within 30 days.

(xi) If you fail to conduct and govern your business according to the laws, ordinances and regulations of any federal, state, county, or city government having jurisdiction over the franchise business.

(xii) If the parties fail to agree as to the location of your Restaurant by the date specified in Exhibit A, unless this failure is caused solely by our act or omission, or if you fail to open your Restaurant for business by the date specified in Exhibit A except as provided for in Section 14.A of this Agreement.

(xiii) If you or any of your Affiliates are in default under any other franchise or other agreement among us or any of our affiliates and you or any of your Affiliates.

(xiv) If you fail without reasonable cause to timely pay any third party creditor, including, without limitation, any lender or supplier.

(xv) If your sales polling equipment ceases to properly report sales to us.

(xvi) If you breach your obligations listed in Section 5.H, Section 7.A, Section 7.AA or Section 11 of this Agreement.

(xvii) If you breach any other of your obligations in this Agreement.

Without limiting any other rights we may have pursuant to this Agreement; and in addition to the provisions of Section 7.Y of this Agreement, we may require, at any time when you are in default of your obligations under this Agreement, as a prerequisite to the continuation of the term of this Agreement, that you meet with us at a location designated by us to discuss this situation.

B. Remedies. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 10.A, we may, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies contained in this Agreement or provided by law or equity, terminate this Agreement as follows:

(i) Termination shall be effective 10 days after we give written notice to you of any event listed in Sections 10.A(ii), (xiv) or (xv), if the default is not cured within this 10-day period. In addition to our option to terminate this Agreement upon the occurrence of an event described in Section 10.A(xv), we are authorized to take whatever steps are reasonably necessary to repair or replace your sales polling equipment including, without limitation, engaging an appropriate person to make all necessary repairs and replacements; and, in this event, you agree to reimburse us for all of our costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement within 30 days after invoice.

(ii) Termination shall be effective 30 days after written notice is given by us to you of any of the events listed in Sections 10.A(iii), (iv), (xi) or (xvii), if the default is not cured within this 30-day period. If the nature of any default arising from the events in Sections 10.A(iii), (iv), (xi) or (xvii) cannot reasonably be cured within 30 days after notice, you shall have additional time to cure this default as is reasonably required; provided, however, that you promptly begin to cure within this 30-day period and diligently pursue the cure to completion within 90 days after this notice.

(iii) Termination shall be effective immediately and without prior notice upon occurrence of any of the events specified in Sections 10.A(i), (v), (vi), (vii), (viii), (ix), (x), (xii), (xiii) or (xvi), unless notice is required by law, in which event termination shall be effective after this notice required by law is given by us to you.

(iv) Unless there is another provision in this Agreement to the contrary, termination shall be effective immediately upon notice, for the fourth notice given in any 12-month period for any of the events specified in Section 10.A, unless notice of termination is required by law to be given by us to you; and in this case, termination is effective upon giving the required notice.

C. Termination Responsibilities. If this Agreement terminates for any reason, or upon expiration of this Agreement, or upon any Transfer:

(i) You agree to immediately and permanently discontinue your use of all trade names, trademarks, signs, menu boards, graphics, structures, and forms of advertising depicting us, our symbols, trademarks, business and products; shall change your name to one not including or similar to the name "STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL" and shall cease the sale of grilled sandwiches, freshly made lemonade and freshly-cut french fries.

(ii) So far as you may lawfully do so, you agree to immediately cause the removal of or changes in signs, menu boards, graphics, buildings and structures as we shall reasonably direct to eliminate our name and Trademarks from your Restaurant and to effectively distinguish your Restaurant from its former appearance and from any other restaurant in the System. If you, on request, fail or omit to make or cause the changes to be made, then we shall have the right to enter upon your Restaurant's premises without the necessity of legal process, and without being guilty of trespass or any other tort, and without prejudice to our other rights and remedies, for the purpose of making or causing the changes to be made at your expense.

(iii) You shall, at our option, also remove and deliver to us, at your expense, all or any part of the paper products and other articles bearing any of our Trademarks.

(iv) You agree to immediately return to us the STEAK ESCAPE® Management Development Guide, and all other manuals, materials, brochures, forms, charts, films, tapes and other materials pertinent to the operation of the Restaurant, which have been furnished by us.

(v) You shall cancel your listing in the Yellow Pages or any other directory or listing indicating an affiliation with us and, if so directed by us, you agree to notify the local telephone company that all calls placed to the Restaurant premises are to be forwarded to us.

The rights in this Section shall be in addition to any other rights or remedies that we may have under this Agreement or otherwise.

D. Liquidated Damages. If this Agreement terminates for any reason, other than expiration of the term hereof or termination by you as a result of our default hereunder, you must pay us liquidated damages equal to the average monthly royalty fees payable during the 12 months immediately preceding termination (or such shorter period as the Restaurant may have been operational), multiplied by the lesser of (a) 24 or (b) the number of months remaining during the term of this Agreement. We both acknowledge and agree that it will be impracticable to determine precisely the damages Franchisor would incur from this Agreement's termination and the loss of cash flow from royalty fees due to, among other things, the complications of determining what cost, if any, Franchisor might have saved and how much the royalty fees would have grown over what would have been this Agreement's remaining term. We both consider this liquidated damages provision to be a reasonable, good faith, pre-estimate of those damages. This liquidated damages provision pertains only to Franchisor's damages from the loss of cash flow attributable to the non-payment of future royalty fees. It does not cover any other damages, including past due amounts, damages to Franchisor's reputation with the public and landlords and damages arising from any violation of any provision of this Agreement. You and each of your Principal Owners agree that the liquidated damages provision alone does not give Franchisor an adequate remedy at law for any default under, or for the enforcement of, any provision of this Agreement and that the payment of liquidated damages hereunder will be in addition to any other rights and remedies we may be entitled to pursue.

E. Our Option to Manage Your Restaurant. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 10.A or upon your failure to exercise any option to renew the term hereof, we may, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies contained in this Agreement or provided by law or equity, elect to manage the Restaurant on your behalf for a period of up to six months under the terms set forth in Section 9 hereof. The term hereof shall, if applicable, be deemed extended to cover the term of our management hereunder. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 10.E or the provisions of Section 9 hereof to the contrary, at any time when the Restaurant is subject to a Small Business Administration loan, (i) we shall exercise our election hereunder to manage the Restaurant on your behalf only (a) upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 10.A, or (b) upon your death or incapacity; (ii) upon any such election, we shall consult with you as requested by you from time to time as to your ability to resume management of the Restaurant; and (iii) we shall allow you to resume management of the Restaurant once the circumstances triggering our election have been resolved to our reasonable satisfaction.

F. Our Option to Purchase Your Restaurant. Upon termination of this Agreement (but not upon expiration of the term hereof at the end of the initial or any renewal term hereunder), we shall have the right, exercisable by giving notice thereof (“Appraisal Notice”) within 10 days after the date of such termination, to require that a determination be made of the “Fair Market Value” (as defined below) of all the assets of your Restaurant which you own or control, including inventory of non-perishable products, materials, supplies, furniture, equipment, signs and any and all improvements, and fixtures, but excluding the leasehold or fee interest in the real estate on which the Restaurant is located, any cash and short-term investments and any items not meeting our specifications for the System (the “Purchased Assets”).

Upon delivery of the Appraisal Notice, you may not sell or remove any of the assets of your Restaurant from the premises (other than in the ordinary course of business) and must give us, our designated agents and the “Appraiser” (as defined below) full access to your Restaurant and all of your books and records at any time during customary business hours in order to conduct inventories and determine the purchase price for the Purchased Assets.

The fair market value of the Purchased Assets (the “Fair Market Value”) shall be determined by consultation between you and us to establish the amount which an arm’s length purchaser would be willing to pay for the Purchased Assets, assuming that the Purchased Assets would be used for the operation of a System restaurant under a valid franchise agreement reflecting the then-current (or if we are not offering franchises at that time, then the most recent) standard terms upon which we offer franchises for System restaurants. Under no circumstances will any value be attributed to any goodwill associated with the Marks or any value attributed to the System (all of which you acknowledge to be owned by us), provided, however, value may, if appropriate, be attributed to the going concern value of your Restaurant. If you and we are unable to agree on the Fair Market Value within 15 days after the Appraisal Notice, then Fair Market Value will be determined by a member of a nationally recognized accounting firm (other than a firm which conducts audits of our or your financial statements) mutually selected by you and us who has experience in the valuation of restaurant businesses (the “Appraiser”). If we are unable to agree on the Appraiser within 30 days after the Appraisal Notice, either party may demand the appointment of an Appraiser be made by the director of the Regional Office of the American Arbitration Association located nearest to Columbus, Ohio and such person shall be the Appraiser.

The Appraiser will make his or her determination and submit a written report (“Appraisal Report”) to you and us as soon as practicable, but in no event more than 60 days after his or her appointment. Each party may submit in writing to the Appraiser its judgment of Fair Market Value (together with its reasons therefor); however, the Appraiser shall not be limited to these submissions and may make such independent investigations as he or she reasonably determines to be necessary. The Appraiser’s fees and costs shall be borne equally by the parties.

We have the option, exercisable by delivering notice thereof within 30 days after submission of the Appraisal Report (or the date that an agreement is reached, if the parties agree to the Fair Market Value), to purchase the Purchased Assets at the Fair Market Value and assume occupancy of the Restaurant premises. We shall have the unrestricted right to assign this option separate and apart from the remainder of this Agreement.

If we exercise our option as set forth in the preceding paragraph, the purchase price of the Purchased Assets will be paid in cash at the closing, which will occur at the place, time and date we designate, but not later than 60 days after the exercise of our option to purchase the Purchased Assets. At the closing, we will be entitled to all warranties and other closing documents and post-closing indemnifications as we reasonably require, including: (a) instruments transferring good and marketable title to the Purchased Assets, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and liabilities, to us or our designee, with all sales and other transfer taxes paid by you; and (b) an assignment of all leases of assets used in the operation of your Restaurant, including land, building and/or equipment (or if an assignment is prohibited, you shall provide us with a sublease to us or our designee for the full remaining term and on the same terms and conditions as your lease, including renewal and/or purchase options). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if you or any of your Principal Owners or Affiliates directly or indirectly owns the land, building and/or equipment of your Restaurant, you will, at our option, grant or cause such Principal Owner or Affiliate to grant to us a lease therefor for the remainder of the then current term hereof at reasonable and customary rental rates and other terms prevailing in the community where your Restaurant is located. Any dispute concerning the rental rates and terms of such lease shall be resolved by the Appraiser.

If you cannot deliver clear title to all of the Purchased Assets or a clear leasehold interest in the Restaurant premises and leased equipment, or if there are other unresolved issues, the closing of the sale may, at our option, be accomplished through an escrow on such terms and conditions as we deem appropriate, including the making of payments, to be deducted from the purchase price, directly to third parties in order to obtain clear title to all of the Purchased Assets and clear leasehold interests. Further, you and we shall comply with any applicable Bulk Sales provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code as enacted in the state where the Restaurant is located and all applicable state and local sales and income tax notification and/or escrow procedures. We have the right to set off against and reduce the purchase price by any and all amounts owed by you or any of your Principal Owners or Affiliates to us or any of our affiliates.

Upon delivery of the Appraisal Notice and pending (a) determination of Fair Market Value, (b) our option period, and (c) the closing of the purchase, we may authorize continued temporary operations of your Restaurant pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, subject to the supervision and control of one or more of our appointed managers.

11. NONCOMPETITION AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS.

A. During the Term. During the term of this Agreement, you agree that you shall not, and shall not allow any of your Affiliates, any of your or your Affiliates' management personnel, any Principal Owners (as defined in Section 11.D) of Franchisee, nor any spouse of any of the above to, without our prior written approval, (i) engage in any business or other activity that will conflict with any of your obligations under this Agreement, (ii) divert or attempt to divert elsewhere any trade or business which ordinarily would be transacted at your Restaurant, (iii) engage as an owner (except of publicly-traded securities), member, manager, partner, director, officer, employee, consultant, agent or in any other capacity in any other business selling goods or services the same as or similar to the goods and services sold by System Restaurants (including, but not limited to, grilled sandwiches, freshly made lemonade and freshly-cut french fries), (iv) employ or seek to employ any person who is employed by us or our affiliates or any other business operated under the System by a franchisee of ours or otherwise, (v) communicate or divulge to, or use for the benefit of, any person, partnership, association or corporation any information or knowledge concerning the method of operation, promotion, purchasing, preparation or sale, used or employed in the System, (vi) interfere or attempt to interfere with any contractual relationship between us and any third party, or (vii) disparage, by any means and to any person, the System, or us.

B. After the Term. For two years after the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, you shall not, and shall not allow any of your Affiliates, any of your or your Affiliates' management personnel, any Principal Owner of yours, nor any spouse of any of the above, without our prior written approval, (i) to engage as an owner (except of publicly-traded securities), member, manager, partner, director, officer, employee, consultant, agent or in any other capacity in any business selling goods and services the same as or similar to the goods and services sold by System Restaurants (including, but not limited to, grilled sandwiches, freshly made lemonade and freshly-cut french fries) which is located within a three mile radius from the location of the Restaurant or any other System restaurant; (ii) to employ or seek to employ any person who is employed by us or our affiliates or any other business operated under the System by a franchisee of ours or otherwise; (iii) to directly or indirectly induce any person to leave his or her employment without our prior approval; (iv) to communicate or divulge to, or use for the benefit of, any person, partnership, association or corporation, any information or knowledge, concerning the method of operation, promotion, purchasing, preparation or sale used or employed in the System; (v) to divert or attempt to divert elsewhere any trade or business which ordinarily would be transacted at the Restaurant; (vi) to interfere or attempt to interfere with any contractual relationship between us and any third party; or (vii) to disparage, by any means and to any person, the System, or us.

C. Restaurant Location. For two years after the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, you agree not to, and shall not allow any of your Affiliates, any of your or your Affiliates' management personnel, any Principal Owner of Franchisee, nor any spouse of any of the above to occupy, directly or indirectly, as an owner (except of publicly-traded securities), member, manager, partner, director, officer, employee, consultant, or in any other capacity, whether under a lease, license or otherwise, any space in the shopping center or building in which the Restaurant has been located for the operation of a business selling any product which is the same as or similar to any of the products sold in System Restaurants (including, but not limited to, grilled sandwiches, freshly made lemonade and freshly-cut french fries).

D. Definition. A “Principal Owner” of Franchisee is defined as an individual who, at the date of execution of this Agreement or at any time during the term of this Agreement, was or is, directly or indirectly:

(i) If Franchisee is a corporation, the beneficial owner of 10% or more of the corporate stock of such corporation; or

(ii) If Franchisee is a general partnership or a limited liability company, the beneficial owner of a partnership or membership interest representing 10% or more of the profits and losses, or of the capital of such partnership or limited liability company; or

(iii) If Franchisee is a limited partnership, a general partner of such partnership, or, if a general partner of such limited partnership is not a natural person, a Principal Owner of such general partner.

E. Remedies. The remedies below shall be deemed cumulative and may be exercised successively or concurrently by us, at our sole option:

(i) You specifically acknowledge and agree that the remedy at law for any breach of the provisions of Sections 11.A, 11.B, and 11.C will be inadequate, notwithstanding the provision for liquidated damages contained in Section 11.E(ii) below of this Agreement, and that we, in addition to any other relief available to us, shall be entitled to temporary and permanent injunctive relief without the necessity of proving actual damages or the posting of any bond, which rights are waived by you and any Principal Owner.

(ii) If you or any other person breaches any of the covenants contained in Section 11.A(iii), Section 11.B(i) or Section 11.C, then, in addition to any other right or remedy which we may have under this Agreement or otherwise, while such business is in operation, you agree to, or shall cause the breaching party to, pay to us while this breach shall exist and continue, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, 10% of the monthly Gross Sales generated by such business, payable on the 10th day of the next succeeding month and the provisions of Sections 5.B(ii) and (iii), Section 5.E and Section 7.V of this Agreement shall apply to this competing business.

F. Interpretation. To the extent that this Section 11 is deemed unenforceable by virtue of its scope in terms of area or length of time, but may be made enforceable by reduction of either or both, the parties agree that the provisions in this Agreement shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in the jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Section 14.K below notwithstanding, we shall have the right, upon written notice to you, to reduce the terms of area or length of time in this Section 11.

G. Additional Acts. You acknowledge that this Section 11 is intended to be binding upon you, your management personnel and any Principal Owner of Franchisee and their spouses. You agree that you will deliver a copy of this Section 11 (relating to confidential information and non-competition provisions) to all of your management personnel and Principal Owners and their spouses, and shall procure from them and deliver to us a signed agreement on a form to be provided to you by us, indicating that each has received a copy of Section 11, read it and that each agrees to be bound by the terms of this entire Section 11.

12. REPRESENTATIONS.

You acknowledge that you received our franchise disclosure document by 14 calendar days before the earlier of: (i) your execution of this Agreement or any other binding agreement relating to the franchise granted under this Agreement, or (ii) your payment of any moneys to us or our affiliates relating to the franchise granted under this Agreement. You acknowledge that you received a copy of a franchise agreement containing all material terms set forth in this final Agreement at least five business days before the date of execution of this Agreement. You acknowledge that you have had an opportunity to read our franchise disclosure document and that no representations have been made to you which are inconsistent with information presented in such franchise disclosure document and that you have not relied upon any representations inconsistent with or not contained in such franchise disclosure document. You acknowledge that you have had the opportunity to conduct an independent investigation of the franchise offered and to seek independent counsel concerning the franchise. You acknowledge that the franchised business involves risks and the possible success of the Restaurant will depend largely upon your ability. You acknowledge that you have not received any warranty or guarantee, expressed or implied, as to the actual or potential volume, earnings, profits or success of the Restaurant. No representation, promise, guarantee or warranty was made to induce the execution of this Agreement or in connection with this Agreement, which is not expressly contained in this Agreement. You recognize that neither Franchisor nor any other person can guarantee your success in the franchised business. By the execution and acceptance of this Agreement, the parties to this Agreement acknowledge that they have read the same and understand each provision. This Agreement, although written by us, shall be construed fairly and reasonably, and not more strictly against one party than against the other party to this Agreement.

13. RESTAURANT PREMISES.

A. Franchisee to Lease Restaurant. You agree to use your best efforts to conclude a fully executed lease for the Restaurant premises directly with the landlord within the contingency period in Section 13.C. You shall deliver a copy of this lease to us for our approval before execution. Concurrently with the execution of your lease, you shall provide to the Landlord a completed and signed Permission Form in the form attached hereto as Exhibit D. Any lease for the Restaurant must include all provisions identified on Exhibit E (the Conditional Assignment of Lease) hereto and must be executed by all of the parties identified thereunder.

You may not execute a lease or any amendment to the lease without our approval. Our approval of the lease does not constitute a warranty or representation of any kind, express or implied, as to its fairness or suitability or as to your ability to comply with its terms. We do not, by virtue of approving the lease, assume any liability or responsibility to you or to any third parties. You must deliver a copy of the fully signed lease or any amendment to the lease to us within five days after its execution.

B. Before the Lease. Before any lease for the Restaurant premises has been signed by you and the landlord, we may, but shall not be required to, perform any of your obligations under Section 6. If we take any action in connection with the operation or construction of the Restaurant, including, without limitation, preparing drawings and conducting any management or other training program, purchasing or ordering any equipment for use at the Restaurant premises, or undertaking any obligation for the construction of the Restaurant premises, and this Agreement is subsequently cancelled pursuant to Section 13.C or otherwise, you agree to reimburse us, upon demand, for all costs and expenses incurred by us in connection with the lease and we agree to be solely responsible for all additional costs and expenses in connection with the lease.

C. Timing. If we do not receive a fully executed counterpart of the lease for the Restaurant premises within the timeframe set forth herein, we may terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to you of the termination and, upon this notice being given, the parties shall be released from all obligations and liabilities under this Agreement, except as provided in Section 13. If we elect pursuant to Section 13.B above to perform any of your obligations under Section 6 before the expiration of the contingency period in this Section 13.C, we may require, as a condition to performing any of these obligations, that you, all Principal Owners and any personnel undergoing management training enter into a confidentiality agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to us. You agree that you shall advise us, upon our request, about the status of your lease negotiations.

D. Return of Materials; Franchise Fee. If this Agreement is cancelled by us pursuant to Section 13.C, you shall promptly return to us, as our property, all manuals and other materials about the System and the operation of the Restaurant, including, without limitation, any franchise development handbook, training manuals and materials, brochures, forms, charts, films, tapes and other materials which have been furnished by us, in whatever form they exist and by whomever prepared, which are in the custody, possession or control of you or any Principal Owner, or any of their respective agents or employees. Upon the return of all of these materials, we shall refund to you any portion of the initial franchise fee previously paid by you; provided, however, we may retain the amount necessary to reimburse us for all costs and expenses for which you are responsible under Section 13.C.

E. No Representations. You acknowledge that we have made no representations regarding your ability to consummate a lease for the Restaurant premises or regarding the terms of any lease, and expressly agree that we shall have no liability to you as a result of your inability to consummate a lease for the Restaurant premises.

F. Survival of Obligations. The obligations of Franchisee under this Section 13 shall survive any expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

14. MISCELLANEOUS.

A. Unavoidable Delays. Delays in the performance of any duties under this Agreement which are not the fault of, or within the reasonable preventive control of, the party due to perform, including delays due to fire, flood, labor disputes, natural disasters, acts of God, civil disorders, riots, insurrections, work stoppages, slow-downs or disputes, or other similar events, shall extend the time of performance for time equivalent to the length of delay, or for a reasonable period of time as agreed to between the parties; provided, however, that no delay shall excuse you from your obligations to pay us any royalty or other fee or any other sum due us under this Agreement.

B. Successors and Assigns. The rights of each party under this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of its permitted successors and assigns.

C. Effective State Laws; Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or its application to any person, entity or circumstance, is invalid or unenforceable, then the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to other persons, entities, or circumstances shall not be affected.

D. Relationship Between Parties. This Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship among the parties. You are an independent contractor with entire control and direction of your operations, subject to the conditions and covenants established by this Agreement. No agency, employment, or partnership, is created or implied by the terms of this Agreement, and you shall not hold yourself out as an agent, legal representative, partner, subsidiary, joint venturer or employee of ours. You shall have no right or power to, and shall not, bind or obligate us in any manner, nor represent that you have any right to do so. The sole relationship between you and us is a commercial, arm's length business relationship; and, except as provided in Section 7.S, there are no third party beneficiaries to this Agreement. Your business is, and shall be kept, totally separate and apart from any that may be operated by us. In all public records, in relationships with other persons, and on letterheads and business forms, you shall indicate your independent ownership of your Restaurant.

E. Approval and Waivers. No failure by either party to this Agreement to exercise any power given to it under this Agreement, or to insist on strict compliance by the other party with any obligation or condition under this Agreement, and no custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms of this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of your or our rights to demand exact compliance with the terms of this Agreement. Acceptance by either you or us of any sums due such party under this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver by the other of any provision of this Agreement. Waiver by either you or us of any particular default by the other shall not affect or impair your or our rights with respect to any subsequent or additional default, whether the same or of a different nature; nor shall any delay or omission by either you or us to exercise any rights arising from a default affect or impair either of our rights as to such default or any additional default. Your or our consent to, or approval of, any act shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of your or our consent to or approval of any subsequent act.

F. Notices. Any notice, request, or demand permitted or required to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and sent by United States certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or by any national overnight delivery service utilizing a return receipt, addressed to us to the attention of the Chairman with a copy to the Legal Department at 1099 Sullivant Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43223; and to you at the notice address identified in Exhibit A, or at another address as either of the parties may designate by written notice from time to time and given in the manner as provided in this Agreement. All such notices, requests, and demands shall be deemed given upon the earliest of (a) receipt; (b) refusal of the addressee to receive the same, as indicated on the return receipt; (c) three business days after mailing with proof of mailing receipt or tracking slip if sent certified mail; or (d) one business day after overnight mailing with a proof of mailing receipt or tracking slip.

G. Rights and Remedies.

(i) Injunctive Relief. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, we shall be entitled, without bond, to the entry of temporary and permanent injunctions and orders of specific performance enforcing the provisions of this Agreement to compel conduct, or to prohibit conduct or threatened conduct, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available or which may cause us irreparable harm, including, without limitation, breaches by you or your Affiliates of your obligations under Section 2 (The System); Section 3 (Nature of Franchise); Section 7.A (Infringement); Section 8 (Transfer and Assignment); Section 10 (Default and Termination); Section 11 (Noncompetition and Other Restrictions); and Section 13 (Restaurant Premises). Pursuant to the preceding sentence, we are entitled to bring an action seeking temporary or preliminary injunctive relief to compel specific performance of this Agreement and we shall be entitled to bring any action described in this Section 14G(i) for injunctive relief as an alternative or supplement to dispute resolution, without first conducting the dispute resolution procedure set forth in Section 14.G(vi) below.

(ii) Venue. Except to the extent prohibited by applicable state law, you and we agree that any legal action, arbitration, dispute resolution or litigation between or among you, us, and your and our affiliates shall be conducted in Columbus, Ohio or, if our principal place of business is not then located in Columbus, Ohio, the city where we then have our principal place of business. All lawsuits initiated shall be filed in the Federal District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Eastern Division, or the Common Pleas Court of Franklin County, Ohio (or, if our principal place of business is not then located in Columbus, Ohio, in the Federal District Court or appropriate state court located in or closest to the city where we have our principal place of business). Subject to the provisions of Section 14.G(vi) hereof, you and your Affiliates hereby consent to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue to such courts.

(iii) Franchisor's Right to Pursue Rights and Remedies on Collection Matters. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, including the provisions of Section 14(G)(vi) hereof, nothing shall restrict our ability to pursue our rights and remedies against you to collect amounts owed to us hereunder or under any other agreements or arrangements between us (including but not limited to, conditional assignments of lease, subleases, guarantees under your Franchise and/or Development Agreements, promissory notes, settlement agreements) in such manner as we may elect. Without limiting the foregoing, we are entitled to bring an action against you in court to pursue any or all such rights and remedies, involving the collection of amounts owed us, hereunder or otherwise. We are entitled to bring any such action as an alternative or supplement to dispute resolution initiated by you or us under Section 14.G(vi), without first initiating or completing the dispute resolution procedure set forth in Section 14.G(vi).

(iv) Applicable Law. Except to the extent governed by the U.S. Trademark Act of 1946 (as amended), the validity, terms, performance, and enforcement of this Agreement and any issues related in any way to this Agreement or to a breach or alleged breach of this Agreement shall be governed by, and this Agreement shall be deemed to have been entered into under, the laws of the State of Ohio applicable to agreements that are negotiated, executed, delivered and performed solely in the State of Ohio.

(v) Waiver. Each party hereto waives its right to demand a trial by jury in any action or proceeding arising out of or related to the negotiation, execution, delivery, performance, or breach of this Agreement or any relationship or transaction between you and us, regardless of the framing of any cause of action as lying in contract or tort or arising out of a statute.

(vi) Dispute Resolution.

- (a) Subject to the provisions hereof, you and we (including also your and our respective affiliates, owners, officers, directors, agents and employees) will attempt to resolve promptly by good faith negotiations, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedures provided in this sub-section, any controversy, dispute or claim between or among you and us and our respective affiliates (the “Dispute”). If a Dispute arises, the disputing party must give the other party written notice describing the Dispute. Within 20 days after receipt of any such notice, the receiving party must submit to the other a written response. The notice and response must include a statement of the submitting party’s position and a summary of the evidence and arguments supporting its position. You and we agree to meet, and to cause our respective affiliates to meet, at Franchisor’s headquarters on a mutually agreeable date within 30 days of the receiving party’s receipt of the notice of Dispute to attempt to resolve the Dispute. At such meeting, each party will be represented by a person authorized to settle the Dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we are not required to follow this Dispute resolution procedure before: terminating this Agreement; commencing any action for injunctive relief pursuant to the provisions of Section 14.G(i); commencing any legal action for collection of amounts owed to us pursuant to the provisions of Section 14.G(iii); or commencing legal action related to other agreements between you and us relating to the Restaurant, including but not limited to, conditional assignment of lease, sublease (including repossession), guarantees under your Franchise and/or Development Agreements, promissory notes, settlement agreements, or any other agreements the parties may have.
- (b) Except as provided in Section 14.G(i) or (iii), all Disputes that are not resolved by negotiation within 30 days of the receiving party’s receipt of the notice of Dispute as provided in Section 14.G(vi)(a), above, shall be resolved by arbitration pursuant to the following provisions. The arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”). The arbitration shall be governed exclusively by the United States Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §1, et seq.), without reference to any state arbitration statutes. Each party shall submit or file any claim that could constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. Any claim that is not submitted or filed in this proceeding shall be barred. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted by one arbitrator in accordance with the then-current commercial arbitration rules of the AAA, except the parties shall be entitled to limited discovery at the discretion of the arbitrator who may, but is not required to, allow depositions. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted on an individual basis and not on a multi-plaintiff, consolidated, collective or class-wide basis. The arbitrator shall have the right to award the relief that he or she deems proper, consistent with the terms of this Agreement, including compensatory damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from date due), specific performance, injunctive relief, legal fees and costs. The award and decision of the arbitrator shall be conclusive and binding on all parties, and judgment upon the award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. Any right to contest the validity or enforceability of the award shall be governed exclusively by the United States Arbitration Act. No arbitration findings, conclusions, orders or awards may be used to collaterally estop either party from raising any like or similar issue in any other arbitration, litigation, court hearing, or other proceeding involving third parties or other franchisees.

- (c) Each party waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right or claim to any punitive or exemplary damages against the other.

(vii) Survive Expiration Or Termination. The provisions of this Section 14.G shall continue in full force and effect after the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

H. Terminology. All terms and words used in this Agreement, regardless of the number and gender in which they are used, shall be deemed and construed to include any other number, singular or plural, and any other gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, as the context or sense of this Agreement or any Section or clause herein may require, as if this word had been fully and properly written in the appropriate number and gender.

I. Acceptance. This Agreement shall not be binding until it is executed by us.

J. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, and the exhibits attached and incorporated into this Agreement, contain the entire agreement of the parties about the Restaurant, the franchise, and the franchise relationship, and there are no representations, inducements, promises, agreements, arrangements or undertakings, oral or written, among the parties other than those so set forth and duly executed in writing. No modification or agreement of any kind shall be binding upon either party unless and until the same has been made in writing and executed by the duly authorized parties. Upon execution of this Agreement by us, all previous agreements, contracts, arrangements or undertakings of any kind relative to the franchise granted are canceled, and all claims and demands of yours are fully satisfied. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement or in any related agreement to the contrary, nothing herein or therein is intended to disclaim the representations made by us in the franchise disclosure document previously delivered to you, to the extent prohibited by law.

K. Amendment of Agreement. This Agreement shall not be modified or amended except by written agreement executed by the parties.

L. Costs and Expenses of Enforcement. If you fail to comply with any provision of this Agreement, you shall pay to us, upon demand, the reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by us in connection with any enforcement of any such provision.

M. Headings. The Section headings ("Headings") throughout this Agreement are for convenience and reference only, and the words contained in the Headings shall not be held to expand, modify, amplify or aid in the interpretation, construction or meaning of this Agreement.

N. All Consents. You represent that you have all necessary consents and approvals to enter into this Agreement and that the signing of the Agreement by you shall not cause you to be in default or violation of any other agreement with us or others; and that you are duly authorized to sign and enter into the Agreement and related franchise documents.

O. Facsimile, PDF and Counterparts. This document may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which, taken together, shall constitute a single instrument. Facsimile or pdf signatures shall be deemed to be original and may be used as permitted under Ohio Law.

EXHIBIT E – CONDITIONAL ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE

CONDITIONAL ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE

Franchisee: _____

Franchisor: Escape Enterprises, Inc.

Date of this Conditional Assignment of Lease (the “Assignment”): _____

The Franchisee, to effect various provisions of that certain Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20 __, by and between Franchisee and Franchisor (the “Franchise Agreement”), hereby collaterally assigns to Franchisor (subject to the terms and conditions below) all of Franchisee’s right, title and interest in, to and under that certain lease (the “Lease”) dated _____ 20__, between Franchisee and _____ (“Landlord”), for that property commonly known as: _____ (the “Premises”), a copy of which Lease is attached to this Assignment.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) and other good and valuable considerations, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, it is hereby agreed as follows:

No renewal or material modification or amendment of the Lease shall occur or be effective without the prior written consent of Franchisor.

Except as provided in the Franchise Agreement, the Franchisor will not take possession of the Premises under this Assignment until and unless there is a default by Franchisee under the Lease or a termination, cancellation, rescission or expiration of the Franchisee’s rights, or a default by Franchisee, under the Franchise Agreement. In such event(s), the Franchisor (or its designee) may (but has no obligation to) take possession of the Premises and assume the Franchisee’s rights under the Lease, and, in such event, Franchisee will have no further right, title or interest in or under the Lease or to the Premises, all such rights thereby passing to the Franchisor or its designee, without the Landlord’s further consent. The Franchisee will fully cooperate therewith, and do all acts necessary or appropriate thereto. The Franchisor will have no liabilities or obligations of any kind arising from, or in connection with, this Assignment, the Lease, the Premises or otherwise until and unless the Franchisor takes possession of the Premises pursuant to this Assignment and, in any event, the Franchisor will only be responsible for those obligations accruing with respect to the Lease after the date of such express assumption. Upon taking possession of the Premises, Franchisor shall be obligated from that date forward to perform all of the duties and obligations of Franchisee under the Lease. Franchisor shall notify Landlord, in writing, within five (5) days of taking possession of the Premises that it has taken such possession.

The Franchisee will not permit any surrender, termination, amendment or modification of the Lease and will elect and exercise all options to extend the term of or renew, or assume in bankruptcy, the Lease not less than thirty (30) days prior to the last day that said rights must be exercised. If the Franchisee does not do so, Franchisor may to the extent consistent with the United States Bankruptcy Code (but has no obligation to) do such acts for the account of Franchisee and without any liability or obligation of the Franchisor. Failure of the Franchisor to exercise any remedy hereunder shall not be a waiver of any of its rights. The rights and remedies of the Franchisor under this Assignment are in addition to those which the Franchisor has under the Franchise Agreement or otherwise. This Assignment shall bind, and benefit, Franchisor and Franchisee, and their respective successors and assigns. With respect to Franchisor and Franchisee the dispute resolution provisions (including, but not limited to, mediation, binding arbitration, waiver of jury trial and limitation of damages) of the Franchise Agreement shall apply to this Assignment, and/or any matter related in any way to it, but the Franchisor may, in any event and at its option, proceed with any action in court for possession of the Premises and any related remedies. If there is more than one Franchisee, their obligations are joint and several. As between Landlord and Franchisor and/or Franchisee, the dispute resolution provisions of the Lease shall apply.

In the event Franchisee shall fail to perform or observe any of the terms, conditions or agreements in the Lease, Landlord shall give written notice thereof to Franchisor and Franchisor shall have the right (but not the obligation) to cure such default. Landlord shall not take any action with respect to such default under the Lease, including without limitation any action in order to terminate, rescind or avoid the Lease, for a period of fifteen (15) days following expiration of any cure period Franchisee may have under the Lease with respect to such default; provided, however, that in the case of any default which cannot with diligence be cured within said additional fifteen (15) day period, if Franchisor shall proceed promptly to cure such default and thereafter prosecute the curing of such default with diligence and continuity, the time within which such default may be cured shall be extended for such period as may be necessary to complete the curing of such default with diligence and continuity.

Landlord will recognize and accept the performance by Franchisor of any act or thing required to be done by Franchisee under the terms of the Lease and will accept such performance as if it were performed by Franchisee.

Landlord agrees that in any case commenced by or against Franchisee under the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Franchisor shall have standing to appear and act as a party to the Lease for purposes of the Bankruptcy Code, (but shall not have any obligations under the Lease unless Franchisor expressly assumes the Lease). Landlord shall, during Franchisee's bankruptcy case, serve on the Franchisor a copy of all notices, pleadings or documents which are given to Franchisee, and service shall be in the same manner as given to Franchisee. If the Lease or Franchisee's rights under the Lease are terminated, whether by reason of default of Franchisee or Landlord, rejection of the Lease in any bankruptcy case, voluntary surrender and acceptance, or otherwise, then Landlord shall give written notice of such termination to Franchisor. Franchisor or its nominee shall have the option, exercisable by written notice to Landlord delivered not later than the 30th day after written notice that the termination has occurred, to receive from Landlord a new lease of the Premises on the same terms and conditions as the Lease, for the remaining term of the Lease (that is, the portion of the term that would remain absent the termination and the conditions or events causing the same), and such same terms and conditions shall include any extension rights provided for in the Lease.

Landlord and Franchisee hereby acknowledge that Franchisee has agreed under the Franchise Agreement that Franchisor and its employees or agents shall have the right to enter the Premises for certain purposes. Landlord hereby agrees not to interfere with or prevent such entry by Franchisor, its employees or agents. Landlord and Franchisee hereby further acknowledge that, in the event the Franchise Agreement expires (without renewal) or is terminated, Franchisee is obligated to take certain steps under the Franchise Agreement to de-identify the location as a restaurant under Franchisor's system. Landlord agrees to permit Franchisor, its employees or agents, to enter the Premises and remove signs, décor and materials displaying any marks, designs or logos owned by Franchisor, provided Franchisor shall bear the expense of repairing any damage to the Premises as a result thereof.

Landlord and Franchisee agree that if Landlord is a Principal Owner or an affiliate of Franchisee, as defined in the Franchise Agreement, and Landlord proposes to sell the Premises, prior to the sale of the Premises, the Lease shall be amended to reflect a rental rate and other terms that are the reasonable and customary rental rates and terms prevailing in the community where the Premises are located.

Landlord and Franchisee hereby acknowledge that Franchisee has agreed under the Franchise Agreement that Franchisor and its employees or agents shall have the right to manage the restaurant located on the Premises in certain circumstances. Landlord hereby agrees not to interfere with or prevent such management by Franchisor, its employees or agents and acknowledges that, by so managing the restaurant, Franchisor does not assume tenant's obligations under the Lease.

Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Assignment shall be in writing and addressed to the respective party as set forth below. Notices shall be effective (i) on the next business day if sent by a nationally recognized overnight courier service, (ii) on the date of delivery by personal delivery and (iii) on the date of transmission if sent by facsimile during business hours on a business day (otherwise on the next business day) (with receipt of confirmation). Any party may change the address at which it is to receive notices to another address in the United States at which business is conducted (and not a post-office box or other similar receptacle), by giving notice of such change of address in accordance with this provision.

This Assignment may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

If any portion or portions of this Assignment shall be held invalid or inoperative, then all of the remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect, and, so far as is reasonable and possible, effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion or portions held to be invalid or inoperative.

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Assignment under as of the date first above written.

UNCONDITIONAL CONTINUING GUARANTY OF FRANCHISE AGREEMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND BY RESTRICTIVE COVENANT (The “Guaranty”)

FOR VALUE RECEIVED and in consideration for and as an inducement to ESCAPE ENTERPRISES, LTD., an Ohio limited liability company, located at 1099 Sullivant Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43223 (“Franchisor”), to enter into a Franchise Agreement of even date herewith (the “Franchise Agreement”) granting a franchise for a STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL® restaurant to be located at _____ (the “Restaurant”) to Franchisee (such term and all other capitalized terms used in this Guaranty having the respective meanings attributed to the terms in the Franchise Agreement unless otherwise defined in this Guaranty) under the terms of the Franchise Agreement, each of the undersigned (collectively referred to as the “Guarantors” and, individually referred to as a “Guarantor”) does jointly and severally as of the ___ day of _____, 20__:

(a) Represent and warrant to Franchisor that Guarantor has financial interest in Franchisee that Guarantor expects to derive economic benefit from the execution, delivery and performance of the Franchise Agreement;

(b) Unconditionally and absolutely guarantee to Franchisor the full and timely payment, and the due and punctual performance and observance of all liabilities and obligations of Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement or under any other contract or agreement entered into in connection therewith including, if applicable, any Sublease Agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee for the Restaurant (the “Guaranteed Obligations”); and

(c) Indemnify and hold Franchisor, its successors and assigns, harmless from and against any and all liability, loss, damage or expense, including attorneys’ fees and court costs (including those incurred in the enforcement hereof), which Franchisor, its successors or assigns, may incur or sustain by reason of the failure of Franchisee to fully perform and observe the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement or the other Guaranteed Obligations (the “Damages”).

Section 1 Absolute and Unconditional Obligation of Guarantor. All obligations of each Guarantor under this Guaranty shall be absolute, unconditional and continuing and shall remain in full force and effect until all of the Guaranteed Obligations and other obligations of Guarantors under this Guaranty (whether existing or hereafter incurred) shall have been paid and discharged in full or otherwise satisfied. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligations of Guarantor hereunder shall be deemed released with respect to any Guaranteed Obligations relating to the operation of the Restaurant from and after the date that is 24 months after a Transfer of the Franchise Agreement to a new franchisee in which Guarantor does not have any interest so long as, on such date, there is no event of default in existence under the Franchise Agreement. The obligations of any Guarantor under this Guaranty shall not be released, discharged, affected, modified or impaired by reason of the happening from time to time of any event, including, without limitation, any one or more of the following:

1.1 Compromise, etc. The compromise, settlement, release, discharge or termination of any or all of the Guaranteed Obligations, by operation of law or otherwise, except by payment and performance in full of the Guaranteed Obligations pursuant to the terms of the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement, document or instrument pursuant to which Franchisee or any other person is obligated to Franchisor (collectively with the Franchise Agreement, the “Documents”);

1.2 Failure to Give Notice. The failure of Franchisor to give notice to Guarantors of the occurrence of any default under any of the Documents;

1.3 Waiver. The waiver by Franchisor of the payment, performance or observance of any of the Guaranteed Obligations;

1.4 Extension. The extension of the time (whether one or more) for payment of any sum constituting Guaranteed Obligations or of the time for performance of any other Guaranteed Obligation, or the extension or the renewal of any Guaranteed Obligation;

1.5 Modification. The modification or amendment (whether material or otherwise) of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, whether set forth in the Franchise Agreement or any other Document, in accordance with the provisions thereof or otherwise;

1.6 Action or Inaction. The taking of or omission to take any action under any Document;

1.7 Invalidity, etc. The invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of any Document, or any loss or release or substitution of, or other dealing with, any of the payments due under the Documents constituting Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise;

1.8 Delay. Any failure, omission or delay on the part of Franchisor to enforce, assert or exercise any right, power or remedy conferred in any Document, or any other act or acts on the part of Franchisor;

1.9 Bankruptcy. The voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets, marshaling of assets and liabilities, receivership, insolvency, bankruptcy, assignment for the benefit of creditors, arrangement, composition with creditors or readjustment of, or other similar proceedings affecting Franchisee or its assets, or any allegation of invalidity or contest of the validity of this Guaranty in any of these proceedings;

1.10 Default by Guarantor. The default or failure of any Guarantor to fully perform any of its obligations set forth in this Guaranty, the occurrence of any event of default under the Franchise Agreement, or the default or failure of any other person to fully perform any of its obligations set forth in this Guaranty or in any Document;

1.11 Missing Agreements. The failure of any agreement, instrument, certificate, or other document to be executed or delivered in connection with the Franchise Agreement; or

1.12 Miscellaneous. Any other event, circumstance, right, claim or defense of any character whatsoever, whether or not similar to the foregoing.

Section 2 No Consent or Notice. Franchisor may, at any time and from time to time, without consent of, or notice to, Guarantors, do any, some, or all of the following without thereby impairing or releasing the obligations of any Guarantor under this Guaranty:

2.1 Amendments. Change the manner, place or terms of payment, or change or extend the time of payment of, or renew or alter, the terms of any obligations of payment of Franchisee to Franchisor, and the guarantee made in this Guaranty shall apply to the obligations of payment of Franchisee to Franchisor as so changed, extended, renewed or altered;

2.2 Actions or Inaction. Exercise or refrain from exercising any rights against Franchisee, any other guarantor of the Franchise Agreement or of any other Guaranteed Obligations, or any other person, or otherwise act or refrain from acting; or

2.3 Settle or Compromise. Settle or compromise any obligations of payment of Franchisee, or any other Guarantor of the obligations of Franchisee to Franchisor or subordinate the payment of all or any part thereof to the payment of any liability (whether due or not) to creditors of Franchisee other than Franchisor.

Section 3 Rights of Franchisor and Related Matters.

3.1 Enforcement. Each Guarantor agrees that this Guaranty may be enforced by Franchisor without first resorting to or exhausting any other remedy available under the Franchise Agreement, any other guaranty of the Franchise Agreement, any other Document, or otherwise; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Guaranty shall prevent Franchisor from resorting to any right or remedy available to it.

3.2 Benefit. Each Guarantor agrees that this Guaranty will inure to the benefit of and may be enforced by Franchisor, its successors and assigns, any duly authorized agent of Franchisor, and any subsequent holder of any instrument evidencing any of the Guaranteed Obligations, and shall be binding on and enforceable against each Guarantor, its heirs, representatives, successors and assigns. If any of the Guaranteed Obligations are assigned by Franchisor, this Guaranty will inure to the benefit of Franchisor's assignee, and to the benefit of any subsequent assignee, to the extent of the assignment or assignments; provided, however, that no assignment will operate to relieve any Guarantor from any duty to Franchisor under this Guaranty regarding any unassigned obligation.

3.3 Waiver of Notice, Event of Default under the Agreement, etc. Each Guarantor waives notice of any event of default under any Document and presentment, protest, notice of dishonor and demand for payment of or regarding any obligation of payment of Franchisee to Franchisor or any instrument or other writing evidencing or securing any obligation of payment of Franchisee to Franchisor.

3.4 Subordination as to Guarantor. Each Guarantor subordinates any and all claims which it now has, or in the future may acquire, as creditor, employee, contributor to the capital of Franchisee or otherwise, to the prior payment and performance in full of any and all of the Guaranteed Obligations to the extent set forth in this Section 3.4. If, before the payment and performance of all of the Guaranteed Obligations, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an event of default under the Franchise Agreement or any other Guaranteed Obligation, any Guarantor would, without reference to the provisions of this Section 3.4, be entitled to receive any payment on account of any claim of such Guarantor against Franchisee, in insolvency proceedings or otherwise, all of these payments shall be made instead to Franchisor until all of the Guaranteed Obligations have been paid and performed in full, and each Guarantor so directs. If, following the occurrence and during the continuation of an event of default under the Franchise Agreement or any other Document, any Guarantor receives any payment on account of any claim of such Guarantor against Franchisee, such Guarantor shall immediately pay the same over to Franchisor to be applied to the payment and performance of all of the Guaranteed Obligations.

3.5 No Defense Limits Guarantor's Obligations. No setoff, counterclaim, reduction, or diminution of any obligation, or any other defense of any kind or nature (excepting payment or performance in fact) which Franchisee or any Guarantor has or may have against Franchisor shall limit or in any way affect any Guarantor's obligations under this Guaranty.

3.6 Waiver of Rights to Subrogation and Reimbursement. Each Guarantor waives any right of subrogation to the rights of Franchisor against Franchisee, any right of reimbursement by Franchisee or any other right of recovery that any Guarantor may have against Franchisee if any Guarantor makes any payment under this Guaranty. Each Guarantor represents and warrants that it has not received any promissory note from Franchisee or entered into any other written or oral agreement with Franchisee to the effect that such Guarantor will be reimbursed by Franchisee if it makes any payments under this Guaranty and has not received any property of Franchisee as security for any such reimbursement. Each Guarantor covenants and agrees that such Guarantor will not, at any time, accept any promissory note or enter into any written or oral agreement with Franchisee which has the effect of reimbursing any Guarantor for any payments that it may make under this Guaranty, accept any property of Franchisee as security for any such reimbursement, or make any claim for reimbursement or that any Guarantor should be subrogated to the rights of Franchisor against Franchisee. The waivers, representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this paragraph are for the benefit of and may be enforced by Franchisor and Franchisee and their respective successors and assigns, including, without limitation, any trustee in bankruptcy of Franchisee.

3.7 Waiver of Notice of Acceptance. Each Guarantor expressly waives notice from Franchisor of its acceptance of and reliance upon this Guaranty, and of any future creation, renewal or accrual of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, and any and every obligation of payment and performance of Franchisee to Franchisor shall conclusively be presumed to have been created, contracted or incurred in reliance upon this Guaranty.

Section 4 Restrictive Covenant and Confidentiality. Each Guarantor acknowledges that it has received and reviewed a copy of Sections 3.B and 11 of the Franchise Agreement (relating to confidential information and non-competition provisions) and agrees to be bound by the terms of these Sections as though it were a party to the Franchise Agreement.

Section 5 Miscellaneous.

5.1 Notices. Any notice, request or demand permitted or required to be given under this Guaranty shall be in writing and sent by United States certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or by any national overnight delivery service utilizing a return receipt, addressed to Franchisor to the attention of the Chairman with a copy to the Legal Department at 1099 Sullivant Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43223; and to Guarantor at the notice address identified on Exhibit A in the Franchise Agreement, or at another address as either of the parties may designate by written notice from time to time and given in the manner as provided in this Guaranty. All such notices, requests and demands shall be deemed given the earliest of: (a) upon receipt; or (b) upon refusal of the addressee to receive the same, as indicated on the return receipt; or (c) three business days after mailing with proof of mailing receipt or tracking slip if certified mail; or (d) one business day after overnight mailing with a proof of mailing receipt or tracking slip.

5.2 Agreement to Pay Fees and Expenses. If Guarantor should fail in the payment or performance of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or should fail to comply with any provision of this Guaranty, Guarantor shall pay to Franchisor, upon demand, the reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Franchisor in connection with any enforcement of Franchisor's rights regarding this failure.

5.3 Waiver. No delay on the part of Franchisor in exercising any of its options, powers or rights under this Guaranty, or any partial or single exercise of this Guaranty, shall constitute a waiver thereof. No waiver of any of the respective rights or obligations of Franchisor under this Guaranty, and no modification or amendment of this Guaranty, will be deemed to be effective unless the same shall be in writing, duly signed on behalf of Franchisor and Guarantors. Each waiver, if any, will apply only regarding the specific instance and for the specific purpose given, and will in no way impair the rights of Franchisor or the obligations of Guarantors to Franchisor in any respect at any other time. No notice to or demand on Guarantors in any case will entitle Guarantors to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

5.4 Amendment. This Guaranty shall not be deemed to be amended, modified or limited orally or by any course of conduct or dealing or any manner other than by a writing signed by the party against which this amendment, modification or limitation is sought to be charged.

5.5 No Release. The provisions of this Guaranty notwithstanding, no rights or privileges of Franchisor under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement, document or instrument pursuant to which Franchisee is obligated to Franchisor shall in any way be diminished or released by this Guaranty.

5.6 Severability. In case any clause, provision or section of this Guaranty, or any covenant, stipulation, obligation, agreement, act, or action, or part of this Guaranty, made, assumed, entered into, or taken under this Guaranty, or any application thereof, is for any reason held to be illegal, invalid or inoperable, this illegality, invalidity, or inoperability shall not affect the remainder of this Guaranty or any other clause, provision or section or any other covenant, stipulation, obligation, agreement, act or action or part thereof, made, assumed, entered into, or taken under this Guaranty, which shall at the time be construed and enforced as if such illegal or invalid or inoperable portion were not contained in this Guaranty, nor shall this illegality or invalidity or inoperability or any application thereof affect any legal and valid and operable application of this Guaranty, from time to time, and each such clause, provision or section, covenant, stipulation, obligation, agreement, act, or action, or part thereof shall be deemed to be effective, operative, made, entered into or taken in the manner and to the full extent from time to time permitted by law.

5.7 Captions. The captions or headings in this Guaranty are for convenience only and in no way define, limit or describe the scope or intent of any provision or section of this Guaranty.

5.8 Entire Agreement. This Guaranty sets forth the entire understanding of the parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements, arrangements, and understandings relating to the subject matter of this Guaranty.

5.9 Separate Instrument. This Guaranty constitutes a separate instrument, enforceable in accordance with its terms, and neither this Guaranty nor the obligations of Guarantors under this Guaranty shall, under any circumstance or in any legal proceedings, be deemed to have merged into or with any other agreement or obligation of Guarantors.

5.10 Third Parties. Nothing in this Guaranty expressed or implied is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give any person other than the parties to this Guaranty and their successors or assigns, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Guaranty.

5.11 Rights and Remedies.

(i) Injunctive Relief. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, Franchisor shall be entitled, without bond, to the entry of temporary and permanent injunctions and orders of specific performance enforcing the provisions of this Guaranty to compel conduct, or to prohibit conduct or threatened conduct, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available or which may cause Franchisor irreparable harm, including, without limitation, breaches by Guarantor or Guarantor's affiliates of Guarantor's obligations under Section 4 (Restrictive Covenant and Confidentiality) hereof. Pursuant to the preceding sentence, Franchisor is entitled to bring an action seeking temporary or preliminary injunctive relief to compel specific performance of this Guaranty and Franchisor shall be entitled to bring any action described in this Section 5.11(i) for injunctive relief as an alternative or supplement to dispute resolution, without first conducting the dispute resolution procedure set forth in Section 5.11(vi) below.

(ii) Venue; Jurisdiction. Except to the extent prohibited by applicable state law, Guarantor and Franchisor agree that any legal action, arbitration, dispute resolution or litigation between or among Guarantor, Franchisor and our respective affiliates shall be conducted in Columbus, Ohio or, if Franchisor's principal place of business is not then located in Columbus, Ohio, the city where Franchisor then has its principal place of business. All law suits initiated shall be filed in the Federal District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Eastern Division, or the Common Pleas Court of Franklin County, Ohio (or, if Franchisor's principal place of business is not then located in Columbus, Ohio, in the Federal District Court or appropriate state court located in or closest to the city where Franchisor then has its principal place of business). Subject to the provisions of Section 5.11(vi) hereof, Guarantor and Guarantor's affiliates hereby consent to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue to the courts or arbitration location as provided above.

(iii) Franchisor's Right to Pursue Rights and Remedies on Collection Matters. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, including the provisions of Section 5.11(vi) hereof, nothing shall restrict Franchisor's ability to pursue its rights and remedies against Guarantor to collect amounts owed to Franchisor hereunder or under any other agreements or arrangements between Guarantor and Franchisor relating to the Restaurant (including but not limited to, conditional assignments of lease, subleases, guarantees under Guarantor's Franchise and/or Development Agreements, promissory notes, settlement agreements) in such manner as Franchisor may elect. Without limiting the foregoing, Franchisor is entitled to bring an action against Guarantor in court to pursue any or all such rights and remedies, involving the collection of amounts owed Franchisor, hereunder or otherwise. Franchisor is entitled to bring any such action as an alternative or supplement to dispute resolution initiated by Franchisor or Guarantor under Section 5.11(vi), without first initiating or completing the dispute resolution procedure set forth in Section 5.11(vi).

(iv) Applicable Law. Except to the extent governed by the U.S. Trademark Act of 1946 (as amended), the validity, terms, performance and enforcement of this Guaranty and any issues related in any way to this Guaranty or to a breach or alleged breach of this Guaranty shall be governed by, and this Guaranty shall be deemed to have been entered into under, the laws of the State of Ohio applicable to guaranties that are negotiated, executed, delivered and performed solely in the State of Ohio.

(v) Waiver. Guarantor and Franchisor each waive Guarantor's and Franchisor's rights to demand a trial by jury in any action or proceeding arising out of or related to the negotiation, execution, delivery, performance or breach of this Guaranty or any relationship or transaction between Guarantor and Franchisor, regardless of the framing of any cause of action as lying in contract or tort or arising out of a statute.

(vi) Dispute Resolution.

- (a) Subject to the provisions hereof, Guarantor and Franchisor (including also Guarantor's and Franchisor's respective affiliates, owners, officers, directors, agents and employees) will attempt to resolve promptly by good faith negotiations, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedures provided in this paragraph, any controversy, dispute or claim between or among Guarantor and Franchisor and our respective affiliates (the “Dispute”). If a Dispute arises, the disputing party must give the other party written notice describing the Dispute. Within 20 days after receipt of any such notice, the receiving party must submit to the other a written response. The notice and response must include a statement of the submitting party’s position and a summary of the evidence and arguments supporting its position. Guarantor and Franchisor agree to meet, and to cause our respective affiliates to meet, at Franchisor’s headquarters on a mutually agreeable date within 30 days of the receiving party’s receipt of the notice of Dispute to attempt to resolve the Dispute. At such meeting, each of Guarantor and Franchisor will be represented by a person authorized to settle the Dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisor is not required to follow this Dispute resolution procedure before: terminating this Guaranty; commencing any action for injunctive relief pursuant to the provisions of Section 5.11(i); commencing any legal action for collection of amounts owed to Franchisor pursuant to the provisions of Section 5.11(iii); or commencing legal action related to other agreements between Guarantor and Franchisor relating to the Restaurant, including but not limited to, conditional assignment of lease, sublease (including repossession), guarantees under the Franchise and/or Development Agreements, promissory notes, settlement agreements or any other agreements Guarantor and Franchisor may have.

- (b) Except as provided in Section 5.11(i) or (iii), all Disputes that are not resolved by negotiation within 30 days of the receiving party’s receipt of the notice of Dispute as provided in Section 5.11(vi)(a), above, shall be resolved by arbitration pursuant to the following provisions. The arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”). The arbitration shall be governed exclusively by the United States Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §1, et seq.), without reference to any state arbitration statutes. Each party shall submit or file any claim that could constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. Any claim that is not submitted or filed in this proceeding shall be barred. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted by one arbitrator in accordance with the then-current commercial arbitration rules of the AAA, except the parties shall be entitled to limited discovery at the discretion of the arbitrator who may, but is not required to, allow depositions. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted on an individual basis and not on a multi-plaintiff, consolidated, collective or class-wide basis. The arbitrator shall have the right to award the relief that he or she deems proper, consistent with the terms of this Guaranty, including compensatory damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from date due), specific performance, injunctive relief, legal fees and costs. The award and decision of the arbitrator shall be conclusive and binding on all parties, and judgment upon the award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. Any right to contest the validity or enforceability of the award shall be governed exclusively by the United States Arbitration Act. No arbitration findings, conclusions, orders or awards may be used to collaterally estop either party from raising any like or similar issue in any other arbitration, litigation, court hearing, or other proceeding involving third parties or other franchisees.

(c) Each party waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right or claim to any punitive or exemplary damages against the other.

(vii) Survive Expiration Or Termination. The provisions of this Section 5.11 shall continue in full force and effect after the expiration or termination of this Guaranty.

5.12 Accord and Satisfaction. Guarantor shall not send to Franchisor payments marked “paid-in-full”, “without recourse”, or similar language. If Guarantor sends such a payment, Franchisor may accept it without losing any of Franchisor’s rights to collect the full amount owed, and Guarantor shall remain obligated to pay any amount owed to Franchisor, regardless of the utilization of this language. All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument indicating that the payment constitutes payment-in-full of the amount owed or that it is tendered with other conditions or limitations or as full satisfaction of a disputed amount, must be mailed or delivered to Escape Enterprises, Ltd., ATTN: Accord and Satisfaction Payments Department, at Franchisor’s address designated for delivery of notices hereunder.

5.13 Facsimile, PDF and Counterparts. This document may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which, taken together, shall constitute a single instrument. Facsimile or pdf signatures shall be deemed to be original and may be used as permitted under Ohio Law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Guarantor(s) represents that he/she/they have read this Guaranty and the related Documents, have had the opportunity to consult with their financial and legal advisors and have knowingly waived the same, and have duly executed this Guaranty as of the date first above written.

ESCAPE ENTERPRISES, LTD.
DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

THIS DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”), made and entered into as of the ___ day of _____, 20__, at Columbus, Ohio by and among ESCAPE ENTERPRISES, LTD., an Ohio limited liability company with its corporate headquarters located at 1099 Sullivant Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43223 (“EEL”, “we”, “us” or “our”), _____, a _____ located at (“Developer”, “you”, or “your”), and _____ residing at _____ (“Operating Principal”). Collectively EEL, Developer, and Operating Principal are referred to as the “parties”. The “Effective Date” of this Agreement shall be [the date set forth above or insert date].

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, as a result of the expenditure of time, skill, effort and money, we have developed and operate a unique system of quick-service restaurants which specialize in the sale of high quality, moderately-priced grilled sandwiches, freshly-squeezed lemonade, freshly-cut french fries, baked potatoes and salads topped with grilled meats and vegetables, all served in a quick, friendly and interactive environment (the “System”) which has acquired valuable goodwill and a favorable reputation; and

WHEREAS, we have established, through our own development and continue to develop and operate, and franchise, a chain of STEAK ESCAPE SANDWICH GRILL restaurants utilizing the System which are distinctive and similar in appearance, design, decor, operation, menu and product quality (“Franchised Units” or “Restaurants”); and

WHEREAS, you desire to obtain a license for a limited geographic area to develop Franchised Units that utilize the System; and

WHEREAS, we are willing to grant you a license, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements in this Agreement, the parties agree as follows:

1. DEVELOPMENT.

A. Development Term and Area. The term of this Agreement (the “Development Term”) begins on the Effective Date of this Agreement and terminates on the expiration date designated in Appendix A (unless terminated earlier) (the “Expiration Date”). You shall have no right to renew the term of this Agreement. During the Development Term we grant you the right to develop Franchised Units within the geographic area described in Appendix A (the “Development Area”) pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. The grant of rights under this Agreement is specific and limited to you. You are granted no rights under this Agreement to license, sublicense or subfranchise to others the rights to operate Franchised Units or utilize the System, subject to the provisions of Section 4.B of this Agreement regarding your rights to cause entities controlled, controlling or under common control with you (“your affiliates”) to themselves enter into Franchise Agreements to operate Franchised Units.

B. Development Schedule. You agree that during the Development Term, you shall faithfully, honestly and diligently promote, enhance and expand the development of Franchised Units within the Development Area and during each period of the Development Term, as identified on Appendix A (the “Period”), you shall develop in the Development Area, at a minimum, the number of Franchised Units in Appendix A, developed in accordance with the “Development Schedule” for such period specified in Appendix A. In addition, at the end of each Period, you shall have in operation in the Development Area, at a minimum, the cumulative number of Required Franchised Units designated in Appendix A. Each Franchised Unit developed hereunder shall be referred to in this Agreement as a “Required Franchised Unit”. You are not prohibited, during the Development Term, from developing Franchised Units in the Development Area in addition to the Required Franchised Units. However, for purposes of determining whether you are in compliance with your obligations under the first sentence of this Section 1.B for a particular Period, Required Franchised Units developed during preceding Periods in excess of the minimum required shall not be counted.

You shall be required to begin construction on each Required Franchised Unit two months before the date that the Required Franchised Unit is required to be opened. As used in this Agreement, “Begin Construction” or “Begun Construction” means that construction shall be deemed to have begun only after you have obtained all required permits and (i) for new construction of a freestanding Franchised Unit, when you have begun the installation of building footings with the intent to maintain reasonably continuous construction; or (ii) for a non-freestanding Franchised Unit or a Franchised Unit being converted from a prior use, when you have begun the installation of sub-floor plumbing with the intent to maintain reasonably continuous construction.

For purposes of this Agreement, a Franchised Unit shall be deemed to be established prior to the end of a Period, if and only if, you or your affiliates has commenced normal business operations pursuant to an executed Franchise Agreement with us prior to the end of such Period. If the number of Franchised Units established in any Period and the cumulative minimal number is in excess of the respective numbers specified for such Periods, the excess may be credited against the Required Franchised Units to be established and in operation in the subsequent Period.

STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH THE DEVELOPMENT SCHEDULE SPECIFIED IN APPENDIX A OF THIS AGREEMENT IS OF THE ESSENCE. If you fail to fulfill your specified development obligation for any Period during the Development Term, as provided in Appendix A of this Agreement, this Agreement shall terminate immediately upon written notice from us to you of the failure. If this Agreement terminates for reasons described in this Section 1.B, we shall retain any unapplied portion of the Development Deposit described in Section 3, and you shall have no additional development or monetary obligations to us with regard to Franchised Units scheduled to be developed pursuant to Appendix A, but not yet developed by you.

2. EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS.

A. Grant. If you and your affiliates are in compliance with the terms of this Agreement and any other agreements with us or our affiliates and are current on all obligations due to us and our affiliates, we will not operate or license others to operate Franchised Units in the Development Area during the Development Term, except for (i) Franchised Units acquired by us from you; (ii) Franchised Units already subject to a Franchise Agreement at the time of execution of this Agreement; and (iii) Franchised Units developed at certain locations where we are not free to designate you as the Developer or franchisee, such as military bases, universities, airports, sports and entertainment arenas, and other locations where the developer of the location will not accept you as an operator of a Franchised Unit. The parties acknowledge and agree that the actual damages that may be sustained by you for any breach by us under this Section 2.A are not now and will not in the future be subject to exact calculation and, therefore, you agree that your sole and exclusive remedy for any breach under this Section 2.A shall be limited to the grant by us to you of a credit equal to the lesser of (i) $25,000, or (ii) the initial franchise fee to be paid by you for the next Franchised Unit developed and opened by you under this Agreement to be taken against the next initial franchise fee to be paid under this Agreement.

B. Alternative Channels. Except as expressly set forth in this Section 2, we (on behalf of ourself and our affiliates) retain the right, in our sole discretion and without granting any rights to you, to (i) ourself operate, or grant other persons the right to operate, restaurants of a different use, trade dress, banner and character at any location and on the terms and conditions as we may deem appropriate; and (ii) ourself sell, or grant other persons the right to sell, the products and services authorized for sale at Franchised Units, through other channels of distribution, including mail order, internet sales or other direct marketing channels, under the System trademarks or otherwise, on the terms and conditions as we may deem appropriate.

3. DEVELOPMENT DEPOSIT.

Simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, you are paying to us, by certified check or wire transfer, a deposit against initial franchise fees payable for the Required Franchised Units (the “Development Deposit”) equal to $_____ [to be negotiated between us]. The Development Deposit shall be nonrefundable but shall be credited against the first _____ [to be negotiated between us] of the initial franchise fee payable for each Required Franchised Unit developed during the Development Term pursuant to this Agreement and in conformity with the Development Schedule. You shall pay the remaining balance of the initial franchise fees for each Required Franchised Unit upon execution of the Franchise Agreement for that Franchised Unit. The initial franchise fees for any Franchised Units other than Required Franchised Units developed during the Development Term shall be paid in full upon execution of a Franchise Agreement. We shall apply the Development Deposit only against your obligation to pay initial franchise fees for those Required Franchised Units which are developed in conformity with the “Development Schedule” in Appendix A. At the end of each Period, any amounts not so applied shall be forfeited by you to us.

4. FRANCHISE AGREEMENTS.

A. General. This Agreement is not a Franchise Agreement and does not itself grant you any rights to operate Franchised Units or utilize the System. Franchise license rights will be granted only through Franchise Agreements to be entered into between the franchisee of each Franchised Unit and us. You shall have no right to open or operate any Franchised Unit except pursuant to the terms of an executed Franchise Agreement. If you are in compliance with your obligations under this Agreement and upon approval of a site for the proposed Franchised Unit by us, we will prepare and forward to you a Franchise Agreement and related documentation for the Franchised Unit to be located at the approved site. Promptly upon receipt of this Franchise Agreement and related documentation, but in any event before to the earlier of (i) the start of any construction on the site; or (ii) 90 days before the scheduled opening of your Franchised Unit, you shall execute the Franchise Agreement and related documentation and return the signed documentation to us.

B. Developer's Affiliate. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1.A of this Agreement, you may meet your obligations by causing an “affiliate” of yours to enter into the Franchise Agreement with us for any Franchised Unit, subject to our normal standards of approval for new franchisees (also known as “Developer's affiliate” or “Franchisees' affiliates” or “your affiliates”). (The term “affiliate” as used in this Agreement shall have the definition in Section 1.A of this Agreement.) Each Operating Principal and you shall cause the members of your Control Group (as defined in Section 9.E below), at any time upon our request, to sign and deliver to us one or more Guaranties in form and substance acceptable to us, guaranteeing the obligations of your franchise to us under any of your Franchise Agreements.

C. Economic Terms. The form of the Franchise Agreement and related documentation to be signed by the parties for each Franchised Unit developed under this Agreement shall be our current standard form of each document. You acknowledge receipt of a copy of our current standard form of Franchise Agreement and related documents. Each Franchise Agreement executed for a Franchised Unit shall provide for monthly payment to us of royalty fees and marketing fund fees at our current standard terms for new franchisees entering the System and an initial franchise fee in the amount as provided for in Appendix A.

5. SITE SELECTION AND APPROVAL.

A. Developer's Responsibility. You assume all cost, liability, expense and responsibility for locating, obtaining and developing sites for Franchised Units and for constructing and equipping Franchised Units at approved sites. You shall not make any binding commitments to purchase or lease a site until after we have approved the site.

B. Request for Site Review and Approval. For each site at which you desire to develop a Franchised Unit, you shall submit to us a written request for our approval of the site. This request shall consist of a preliminary site plan (showing dimensions, building location, ingress and egress and, if parking is to be provided, a parking layout), photographs, a marked map, a demographic analysis on the proposed location, completed forms as designated by us, and, if an existing building or building space is to be utilized, preliminary drawings showing both the interior and exterior proposed remodeling. At our request, you also shall submit to us a copy of our then-current de-identification policy signed by your landlord and any lender with a security interest in the Franchised Unit pursuant to which these parties agree to permit the modification and alterations required by our de-identification policy.

C. Site Approval. We shall advise you in writing whether a particular site has been approved or disapproved. Approval of any site is at our sole discretion, and we have no obligation to approve any site. Approval of a site may be subject to reasonable conditions imposed by us. Approval of a site by us is effective for 180 days, during which time you must sign a Franchise Agreement for the site and begin construction or the site approval will lapse. However, if you are diligently pursuing obtaining control of a site and obtaining the required permits you shall be entitled to an automatic 90-day extension of the effectiveness of site approval. Our approval of a site is not a representation or a promise by us that a Franchised Unit at that site will achieve a certain sales volume or profitability.

D. Reimbursement of EEL Expenses. We may make various expenditures for the development of prospective Franchised Unit sites by you, including expenditures for travel, lodging, meals, obtaining information about prospective sites including demographic information, traffic counts and local laws and ordinances. You shall promptly notify us of a decision to cease development of a prospective Franchised Unit. If you fail to open a Franchised Unit at any approved site, we, in our sole discretion, may require you to reimburse us for our expenditures for that site. In this event, we shall provide you with an itemized list of our expenditures for that site, and you shall reimburse us for these costs within 30 days after receiving the list.

6. TRAINING.

Before construction of the first Franchised Unit to be opened under this Agreement has been completed, your Operating Principal and, if applicable, your Director of Operations, shall complete, to the satisfaction of us, our current management training program. The provisions of this Agreement shall not limit your obligations to meet any additional training required in any Franchise Agreement for any Franchised Unit.

7. INSURANCE.

You shall be responsible for all loss or damage originating in, or incurred in connection with, the operation or construction of Franchised Units and for all claims or demands for damages to property or for injury, illness, or death of persons directly or indirectly resulting from the operation or construction of the Franchised Units. You shall at all times carry or cause your affiliates to carry the insurance that may be required by the terms of any lease and applicable Franchise Agreements for your Franchised Units, and, in addition, you shall carry the following insurance at all times:

A. Commercial Liability. Commercial liability insurance under a comprehensive general liability form that includes coverage for bodily injury and property damage on an occurrence basis with coverage that includes product/completed operations with policy limits not less than $1,000,000 primary and $2,000,000 umbrella/excess liability.

B. Employer's Liability. Employer's Liability Insurance and Worker's Compensation with coverage equal to the greater of: (i) $100,000; or (ii) the amount required by law in each state in which a Franchised Unit is located. This coverage shall be in effect for all of your employees who participate in the training program referred to in Section 6.

C. Builder's Risk. Builder's Risk Insurance with coverage equal to the greater of replacement cost of the structure and improvements based on current market value or the amount required by your lending institution.

D. Fire. Fire, vandalism and extended coverage insurance with limits of insurance of at least the full replacement value of each Franchised Unit, its furniture, fixtures and equipment.

This insurance coverage shall reflect that we are an additional insured under the commercial general liability coverage and, if we have an insurable interest, that we are an additional insured, as our interests may appear under the fire, vandalism and extended coverage insurance. We may reasonably increase the minimum coverage required and require different or additional kinds of insurance to reflect inflation, changes in standards of liability, higher damage awards or other relevant changes in circumstances. You will deliver to us certificates of insurance and updates or, if we request, copies of the insurance policies.

All policies of insurance must be renewed at least 30 days before expiration. All policies of insurance must contain endorsements requiring the insurer to give us at least 10 days' advanced written notice before terminating, canceling or making changes in any policy. All policies of insurance shall be written by an insurance company that has received an "A" or better rating by the latest edition of Best's Insurance Rating Service. No policy of insurance shall provide for a deductible amount which exceeds $10,000 and your co-insurance under any policy of insurance shall be 80% or greater.

8. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES.

This Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship among the parties. You are an independent contractor with entire control and direction of your operations, subject to the conditions and covenants established by this Agreement. No agency, employment, or partnership is created or implied by the terms of this Agreement, and you are not and shall not hold yourself out as an agent, legal representative, partner, subsidiary, joint venturer or employee of ours. You shall have no right or power to, and shall not, bind or obligate us in any way or manner, nor represent that you have any right to do so. The sole relationship between you and us is a commercial, arms' length business relationship and, except as provided in Section 16, there are no third-party beneficiaries to this Agreement. Your business is, and shall be kept, totally separate and apart from any that may be operated by us. In all public records, in relationships with other persons, and on letterheads and business forms you shall indicate your independent ownership of all Franchised Units and that you are solely a developer and franchisee of ours.

9. ORGANIZATION OF DEVELOPER.

A. Representations. If Developer is a corporation, a partnership or other legal entity, Developer makes the following representations and warranties: (i) it is duly organized and validly existing under the law of the state of its formation; (ii) it is qualified to do business in the state(s) encompassed in the Development Area; and (iii) execution of this Agreement and the development and operation of Franchised Units are permitted by its charter documentation.

B. Governing Documents. If Developer is a corporation, copies of its Articles of Incorporation, including the resolution of the Board of Directors authorizing entry into and performance of this Agreement, and all shareholder agreements, including buy/sell agreements, have been furnished to us. If Developer is a partnership, limited liability company, or other entity, copies of Developer's written partnership, operating, or other founding agreement, other governing documents and any amendments and all agreements, including buy/sell agreements, among the owners have been furnished to us, including evidence of consent or approval of the entry into and performance of this Agreement by the requisite number or percentage of owners, if this approval or consent is required by Developer's written agreements.

C. Ownership Interests. If Developer is a corporation, a partnership, a limited liability company or other legal entity, all interests in Developer are owned as listed in Appendix B. In addition, if Developer is a corporation, Developer shall maintain a current list of all owners of record and all beneficial owners of any class of voting securities of the corporation. If Developer is a partnership, a limited liability company or other legal entity, Developer shall maintain a current list of all owners of an interest in the entity. Developer shall execute addenda to Appendix B as changes occur in order to ensure the information contained in Appendix B is true, accurate and complete at all times.

The requirements of this Section shall not apply if, as of the date of this Agreement, Developer is a publicly-held corporation (i.e., a corporation which has a class of securities traded on a recognized securities exchange). If Developer becomes a publicly-held corporation after the date of this Agreement, it shall not be required to execute addenda to Appendix B, except for changes in ownership interest of members of the Control Group (defined in Section 9.E).

D. Restrictive Legend. If Developer is a corporation, Developer shall maintain stop-transfer instructions, conspicuously endorsed upon the face of its stock certificates, incorporating the following statement: "This stock is held subject to, and assignment or transfer of this stock is subject to, the restrictions imposed on assignment by our Development Agreement and our Franchise Agreement(s) to which the corporation is a party." These requirements shall not apply to a publicly-held corporation. If Developer is a partnership, limited liability company or other legal entity, your written partnership agreement, operating agreement or other organization documentation shall provide that ownership of an interest in the entity is held subject to, and that assignment or transfer is subject to, all restrictions imposed on assignment by this Agreement.

E. Control Group. If Developer is a corporation, a partnership, a limited liability company or other legal entity, Appendix B lists those persons designated by EEL and Developer as Developer's "Control Group". If there are any changes in the Control Group or in the ownership interests of any member of the Control Group, Developer shall execute addenda to Appendix B to reflect the change. All persons in the Control Group shall jointly and severally guarantee Developer's performance under this Agreement pursuant to a Guaranty in form and substance acceptable to EEL. Additionally, all persons who become part of the Control Group after this Agreement is signed shall execute such a Guaranty at the time they become part of the Control Group. Only if Developer is a publicly-held corporation or a wholly-owned subsidiary of a publicly-held corporation as of the date of this Agreement, members of the Control Group shall not be required to execute a Guaranty.

F. Operating Principal. Developer shall designate and retain an individual to serve as Operating Principal of Developer. The original Operating Principal is identified in Appendix B attached and made a part of this Agreement. The Operating Principal shall meet all of the following qualifications:

(1) If Developer is a corporation, Operating Principal shall, at all times during which he/she serves as Operating Principal, own at least 20% of Developer's outstanding voting securities. If Developer is a partnership, a limited liability company or other legal entity, Operating Principal shall, at all times during which he/she serves as Operating Principal, own at least a 20% interest in the operating profits and operating losses of the entity as well as a 20% ownership interest in the entity. This paragraph shall not apply if Developer is a publicly-held corporation or a wholly-owned subsidiary of a publicly-held corporation as of the date of this Agreement.

(2) Operating Principal, at all times, shall be a member of the Control Group and, at a minimum, have full control over the day-to-day activities of the Franchised Units, including control over the Director of Operations, standards of operation and the financial performance of the Franchised Units.

(3) Subject to the provisions of Section 9.G hereof, Operating Principal shall devote full time to Developer's restaurant businesses and substantial time to the supervision and conduct of the development activities contemplated and the operation of the Franchised Units and, unless Developer is a publicly-held corporation or wholly-owned subsidiary of a publicly-held corporation as of the date of this Agreement, shall execute this Agreement and be individually bound by all obligations of Developer under this Agreement.

(4) Operating Principal shall have successfully completed the training referred to in Section 6 and any additional training required by us.

(5) Operating Principal shall have been approved by us.

(6) If Operating Principal no longer qualifies, Developer promptly shall designate another person acceptable to us to act as Operating Principal. Following our approval of a new Operating Principal, this Operating Principal shall execute an addendum to this Agreement pursuant to which he/she shall be subject to the same obligations and restrictions as the prior Operating Principal.

G. Director of Operations. If Operating Principal devotes less than full time to the supervision and conduct of the development activities contemplated and the operation of the Franchised Units, Developer shall designate and retain an individual to serve as Director of Operations of Developer. The original Director of Operations, if any, is identified in Appendix B, attached and made a part of this Agreement. The Director of Operations also may serve as the Director of a Franchised Unit if Developer operates fewer than four Franchised Units in the Development Area. The Director of Operations shall meet all of the following qualifications:

(1) The Director of Operations shall devote full time and best efforts to the supervision and conduct of the development activities contemplated under this Agreement and the operation of the Franchised Units.

(2) The Director of Operations shall have successfully completed the training referred to in Section 6 and any additional training required by us.

(3) The Director of Operations shall have been approved by us.

If the Director of Operations no longer qualifies to be the Director, Developer shall promptly designate another person acceptable to us to act as Director of Operations.

H. Director. In lieu of appointing a Director of Operations, Developer may appoint, in accordance with Section 9.G under this Agreement, a Director for each of its first three Franchised Units operated pursuant to this Agreement.

I. Supervisors. If Developer desires to designate an employee (in addition to the Director of Operations) who will have supervisory authority over the development and operation of more than one Franchised Unit within the Development Area, Developer's designation of this supervisory employee shall be subject to our written approval, which approval shall not be arbitrarily withheld. We shall notify Developer in writing within 14 business days of receipt of Developer's request if we disapprove of this person. Failure by us to so notify Developer within that period shall be deemed to constitute our approval of this person. Developer shall require that any supervisory employee maintain his/her principal personal residence in the Development Area.

10. TRANSFER BY EEL.

We shall have the right to sell, assign or transfer all or any part of its rights or obligations in this Agreement to any person or legal entity.

11. TRANSFERS BY DEVELOPER.

A. EEL Consent Required.

(1) Developer understands and acknowledges that we have entered into this Agreement in reliance on Developer's experience in operating specific businesses, experience in operating high quality restaurants, financial capacity and the specific character and management culture of Developer and its Control Group. Accordingly, Developer shall not, nor shall it allow the Control Group to, sell, assign, transfer, pledge or encumber, by operation of law or otherwise, (i) a Controlling Percentage of the ownership interest in Developer, or any affiliate of Developer who becomes a party to a Franchise Agreement for a Franchised Unit, (ii) this Agreement or any of the rights granted under this Agreement, or any Franchise Agreements for a Franchised Unit, (iii) the fee or leasehold interest in the real estate upon which the Franchised Unit is located, with or without the Franchise Agreement, or (iv) substantially all of the assets used in the operation of a Franchised Unit, with or without the Franchise Agreement (in each case, a "Transfer") without our prior written consent. Any merger by, with or into an entity, any consolidation, reorganization, or dissolution involving an entity, or any pledge, hypothecation, sale or other transfer, singly or in the aggregate, of equity interests constituting a Controlling Percentage (as defined below) of the equity interests of any entity or the issuance of additional equity interests representing in the aggregate a Controlling Percentage of the equity interests of any entity; or any change in the general partner(s) of an entity, shall constitute a Transfer of such entity for all purposes of this Section 11. The term “Controlling Percentage”, as used in this Agreement, shall mean the ownership of stock or other equity interest possessing, and of the right to exercise, at least 33% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock or other equity interests of such entity, issued, outstanding and entitled to vote, whether the ownership be direct or indirect through ownership of another entity or otherwise.

(2) You, as Developer, shall advise us in writing of a proposed Transfer, submit a copy of all contracts and other proposals about the proposed Transfer and all other information requested by us, and pay a nonrefundable transfer fee of $10,000 to reimburse us for our costs in reviewing and evaluating the Transfer request. If we exercise our right of first refusal pursuant to Section 11.B, the amount of the transfer fee shall be subtracted from the consideration to be paid by us. If we do not exercise our right of first refusal, the decision whether or not to consent to a proposed Transfer shall be made by us in our sole discretion and shall include numerous factors deemed relevant by us. These factors may include, but will not be limited to, the following:

(a) The proposed transferee must have extensive experience in high quality multiple unit restaurant operations of a character and complexity similar to the System; meet our managerial, operational, experience, quality, character and business standards for a developer; possess a good moral character, business reputation and credit rating; have adequate financial resources and capital to comply with all development schedules under this Agreement; have an organization the management culture of which is compatible with our management culture; and have adequate financial resources and capital to operate the Franchised Units required to be developed in the Development Area. Developer acknowledges and agrees that (i) among the business factors that are deemed to be reasonable for us to consider regarding your request for consent to a proposed Transfer is the direct or indirect involvement by the proposed transferee, or its owners, in any manner with any business that we, in our sole discretion, deem to be competitive with the System business, and (ii) it is deemed to be reasonable for us, on a case-by-case basis, to object to a proposed Transfer, by you to a transferee which is itself involved, or which is owned by parties which are involved, directly or indirectly, in any manner with any business that we, in our sole discretion, deem to be competitive with the System business.

(b) All of Developer’s and Developer’s affiliate’s monetary obligations to us and our affiliates and all other outstanding obligations related to this Agreement and to Franchise Agreements executed under this Agreement (including, but not limited to, bills from suppliers, taxes, judgments and any required governmental reports, returns, affidavits or bonds) have been satisfied. We reserve the right to require that a reasonable sum of money be placed in escrow to ensure that all the obligations are satisfied.

(c) You, as Developer, and your affiliates must execute a general release, in a form satisfactory to us, of any and all claims against us and our affiliates and their respective past and present members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, agents and employees, in their representative and individual capacities, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state and local laws, rules and ordinances, and claims arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement, any other agreements between you and your affiliates and us or our affiliates and the operation of the Franchised Units, but excluding any claims the release of which is prohibited by applicable law.

(d) The proposed transferee's Operating Principal and, if applicable, its Director of Operations must complete our initial training program. There will be no tuition charge, but the proposed transferee will be required to pay all travel, living and other expenses incurred by us or Operating Principal and Director of Operations while they are attending training.

(3) If we consent to a proposed Transfer, before the Transfer becomes effective: (a) you shall pay to us an additional nonrefundable transfer fee described in the Franchise Agreement for each Franchised Unit being transferred to reimburse us for additional expenses incurred in providing required training and integrating the transferee into the System; and (b) you and the proposed transferee shall execute any amendments to this Agreement deemed necessary or desirable by us to reflect the transfer of interest.

(4) Our consent to a Transfer will not constitute a waiver of any claims we may have against you, nor will it be deemed a waiver of our right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement or any Franchise Agreement by the transferee, nor will it be deemed a waiver of our right to give or withhold consent to future transfers. Any Transfer not having our prior written consent shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement, for which we may terminate this Agreement, without opportunity to cure, upon notice to you.

(5) This Section 11.A shall not be applicable to the Transfer of ownership interests in Developer if, as of the date of this Agreement, Developer is a publicly-held corporation.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 11.A, the issuance of options or the exercise of options pursuant to a qualified stock option plan or a qualified employee stock ownership plan shall not be considered a Transfer and shall not require our prior written consent provided no more than a total of 10% of Developer's outstanding voting securities are subject to the qualified stock option plan or qualified employee stock ownership plan.

B. EEL Right of First Refusal. If at any time, you, as Developer, or your Control Group desire to consummate a Transfer, you shall notify us of that desire, in writing, 30 days before announcing that fact publicly or engaging the services of a broker or sales agent.

If you or your Control Group receives a bona fide offer and desire to undertake any Transfer requiring our consent pursuant to Section 11.A, you shall first offer to sell the same interests to us at the same price and on the same terms, which offer we may accept at any time within 30 days after our receipt from you of the terms of the bona fide offer. The offer to us shall state the cash value of the offer received by you or your Control Group, and we may exercise our purchase option by paying you or your Control Group the equivalent cash value.

Our failure to exercise our right of first refusal shall not constitute our consent to the proposed Transfer. If we do not exercise our right of first refusal, neither you nor your Control Group may consummate the Transfer at a lower price or on more favorable terms than have been offered to us. We shall again be given a right of first refusal if a transaction does not take place within 180 days after we elect not to exercise our right of first refusal. Neither you nor your Control Group shall ever offer its interest for sale or transfer at public auction, nor at any time shall an offer be made to the public to sell, transfer or assign, through any advertisement, either in the newspapers or otherwise, without first having obtained our written consent to the auction or advertisement.

C. Public Offerings and Private Placements. In addition to the requirements of Section 11.A, before the time that any public offering or private placement of Developer's securities is made available to potential investors, you, at your expense shall deliver to us the offering documents and an opinion of your counsel (addressed to us and in a form acceptable to us) that the offering documents properly use the System trademarks and accurately describe your relationship with us.

12. RESTRICTIONS.

You acknowledge and agree that a breach of this Section by you would cause irreparable injury to us and that it would be without an adequate remedy at law. Accordingly, and in addition to any other relief available to it, we shall be entitled to obtain temporary and permanent injunctive relief without the necessity of proving actual damages or the posting of any bond, which rights are waived by you. To the extent that this Section 12 is deemed unenforceable by virtue of its scope in terms of area or length of time but may be made enforceable by reduction of either or both, the parties agree that the provisions shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in the jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. We shall have the right, upon written notice to you, to reduce the terms of area or length of time in this Section 12.

A. In-Term Noncompetition. In addition to and not as a limitation on any other restrictions contained in this Agreement, you will not, and will not allow any of your affiliates to, during the term of this Agreement, directly or indirectly, engage in, develop or acquire any interest in, any restaurant business whose menu, method of operation or trade dress is substantially similar to that employed in the System. For purposes of this Agreement, a restaurant that prepares food in exhibition style and sells any grilled sandwiches together with the sale of freshly-squeezed lemonade and freshly-cut french fries will be considered to be substantially similar; but this does not in any way limit the definition of a substantially similar restaurant. This restriction shall not apply to any of your existing restaurant operations which are identified in Appendix C.

B. Post-Term Noncompetition. In addition to and not as a limitation on any other restrictions contained in this Agreement, you will not, and will not allow any of your affiliates to, upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and for 60 months afterwards, directly or indirectly, engage in, develop or acquire any interest in any restaurant business operating in the Development Area whose menu, method of operation or trade dress is substantially similar to that employed in the System. This restriction shall not apply to any of your existing restaurant operations which are identified in Appendix C.

C. Confidentiality. You acknowledge that we own the System, which constitutes trade secrets of EEL, and that all material or other information now or hereafter provided or disclosed to you regarding the System is disclosed in confidence, and you have no right to use the materials and information except as permitted in this Agreement, or disclose any part of it to anyone who is not an employee of yours.

You agree not to disclose any of EEL's trade secrets or to divert or attempt to divert any business or customers to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other acts injurious or prejudicial to the System during the term of this Agreement or after the term.

You and each Operating Principal acknowledge that the existence and terms of this Agreement are confidential and agree to not disclose or allow the disclosure of the same to anyone, including EEL's existing or potential franchisees, at any time from and after the date of this Agreement for any reason; but the information may be disclosed to your banks and attorneys on a need to know basis, subject to the confidentiality provisions. In no case will you or any Operating Principal disclose or allow the disclosure of the information to any other of EEL's existing or potential franchisees or EEL's existing or potential franchisee's employees, owners, officers, directors or agents. You and each Operating Principal acknowledge and agree that if there is any breach of the obligations imposed by this Section 12, we would be irreparably and immediately harmed and could not be made whole by monetary damages. It is accordingly agreed that we, in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled in law or equity, shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions or other comparable relief to prevent or halt the breach of this Section and to compel specific performance. Without limiting the preceding provisions or limiting the rights and remedies otherwise available to us, if you or any Operating Principal, officer or affiliate discloses or allows the disclosure of the terms contained in this Agreement to any outside third party, including, but not limited to any existing or potential System franchisee, the royalty fees for all Franchised Units developed pursuant to this Development Agreement will immediately increase to the then current rate charged all new System franchisees.

D. Application of Restrictions. The restrictions in this Section 12 shall apply to you, Operating Principal and the Control Group, unless Developer is a publicly-held corporation. For Operating Principal and the Control Group (unless Developer is a publicly-held corporation), these restrictions also shall apply for a 30-month period after Operating Principal ceases to act in such capacity and for a 30-month period after any person ceases to be a member of the Control Group. These restrictions shall not apply to the ownership by you, Operating Principal and any member of the Control Group of less than 1% of the stock of a publicly-held corporation engaged in a business similar in any material respect to a Franchised Unit.

13. TERMINATION.

A. Termination Without Cure Period. In addition to the grounds for termination stated elsewhere in this Agreement, we may terminate this Agreement, and the rights granted by this Agreement, upon notice to you without opportunity to cure if:

(1) You or your affiliates Begin Construction (as defined in Section 1.B) of a Franchised Unit at a site before obtaining our approval of the site, or you or your affiliates open a Franchised Unit for business before your receipt of written authorization from us permitting the opening of the Franchised Unit; or

(2) You or your affiliates file a petition in bankruptcy, an arrangement for the benefit of creditors or a petition for reorganization; there is filed against you or your affiliates a petition in bankruptcy, an arrangement for the benefit of creditors or petition for reorganization which is not dismissed within 60 days of the filing; you or your affiliates make an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or a receiver or trustee is appointed for you or your affiliates and not dismissed within 60 days of the appointment; or

(3) You breach your obligations under Section 12; or

(4) Any Transfer occurs without your having obtained our prior written consent; or

(5) Operating Principal, you or your affiliates, an officer or representative of yours or your affiliates or any member of the Control Group is convicted of, or pleads no contest to, a felony charge as defined in the applicable law; a crime involving moral turpitude; or any other crime or offense that is reasonably likely, in the sole opinion of ours, to adversely affect us or the System; or

(6) You or your affiliates remain in default beyond the applicable cure period under any Franchise Agreement or other agreement with us or our affiliates; or

(7) Failure by you to employ a Director of Operations approved by us in accordance with Section 9.G within 90 days of the date of this Agreement or, for a replacement Director of Operations, failure by you to employ the replacement who is approved by us in accordance with Section 9.G within 180 days of the date on which the last Director of Operations who was approved by us ceased to be employed by you in that capacity.

B. Termination Following Expiration of Cure Period.

(1) Except for those items listed in preceding Section 13.A, you shall have 30 days after written notice from us of default in the performance or observance of any of your obligations under this Agreement within which to remedy the default and provide evidence of the remedy to us (the “Cure Period”). If any default is not cured within the Cure Period, this Agreement shall terminate without any additional notice to you effective immediately upon expiration of that time, unless we notify you otherwise in writing. Except for monetary defaults and failure to comply with any Development Schedule, if the default cannot be corrected within 30 days, you shall have additional time as reasonably required (not to exceed 60 days) to correct the default if you begin taking the actions necessary to correct the default during the 30-day Cure Period and diligently and in good faith pursues those actions to completion.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of preceding Section 13.B(1), if you default in the payment of any monies owed to us when the monies become due and payable and you fail to pay the monies within 10 days after receiving written notice of default, then this Agreement will terminate effective immediately upon expiration of that time, unless we notify you otherwise in writing.

(3) If you have received three or more notices of default within the previous 12 months, we shall be entitled to send you a notice of termination upon your next default under this Section 13.B within that 12-month period without providing you an opportunity to remedy that default.

C. Statutory Limitations. If any valid, applicable law or regulation of a competent governmental authority with jurisdiction over this Agreement requires a notice or cure period prior to termination longer than as provided in this Section, this Agreement will be deemed amended to conform to the minimum notice or cure period required by the applicable law or regulation.

14. EFFECT OF TERMINATION.

In the event of termination or expiration of this Agreement, the following shall apply:

A. No Further Development. You shall have no further right to develop and/or open Franchised Units in the Development Area, except you shall be entitled to complete (in accordance with this Agreement) and open a Franchised Unit that has Begun Construction (as defined in Section 1.B) for which a Franchise Agreement has been fully executed provided you have paid us the initial franchisee fee. Termination or expiration of this Agreement shall not affect your right to continue to operate Franchised Units that were open and operating as of the date this Agreement terminated or expired; and

B. No Exclusivity. The exclusivity rights granted to you in the Development Area, if any, shall terminate and we shall have the right to operate or license others to operate System restaurants anywhere in the Development Area; and

C. Return of Materials. You shall promptly return to us all materials and information furnished by us including, without limitation, design and construction specifications and all training materials, but not including materials and information furnished for a Franchised Unit which is then open and operating pursuant to an effective Franchise Agreement; and

D. Payments. You immediately shall pay to us all sums due and owed to us pursuant to this Agreement; and

E. De-Identification. You shall promptly make the modifications or alterations to any building or space that has been partially or fully constructed or remodeled pursuant to this Agreement (other than Franchised Units then open and operating pursuant to effective Franchise Agreements and Franchised Units not yet opened if the Franchise Agreements for the units have been fully executed provided you have paid us the initial franchise fees) as may be necessary to distinguish the building or space from a Franchised Unit and make the specific additional changes as we may request for that purpose; and

F. Infringement. You will not, except for a Franchised Unit which is then open and operating pursuant to an effective Franchise Agreement and a partially constructed Franchised Unit for which a Franchise Agreement has been fully executed provided you have paid us the initial franchise fee: (i) operate or do business under any name or in any manner that might tend to give the general public the impression that you are connected in any way with us or have any right to use the System or the System trademarks; (ii) make use or avail yourself of any of the materials or information furnished or disclosed by us under this Agreement or disclose or reveal any materials or information or any portion of these materials or of this information to anyone else; or (iii) assist anyone not licensed by us to construct or equip a restaurant substantially similar to a Franchised Unit; and

G. Economic Benefits. If this Agreement terminates for reason of your default of your obligations under this Agreement, then, in addition to any and all other rights which we may have as a result, (i) we shall retain any and all previously unapplied deposits and prepayments described in Section 3; and (ii) the royalty rates applicable to all Franchised Units shall automatically increase to the then standard rate imposed by us on new franchises; and

H. No Release. The expiration or termination of this Agreement shall not otherwise discharge or release you, as Developer, or any Operating Principal from any liability or obligation then accrued, or any liability or obligation continuing beyond the termination of this Agreement.

15. APPROVALS AND WAIVERS.

No failure by any party to this Agreement to exercise any power given to it under this Agreement, or to insist on strict compliance by any other party with any obligation or condition under this Agreement, and no custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms shall constitute a waiver of this party's right to demand exact compliance with the terms. Acceptance by any party of any sums due this party under this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver by this party of any provision. Waiver by any party of any particular default by any other party shall not affect or impair this party's rights, for any additional default of the same or of a different nature; nor shall any delay or omission by any party to exercise any rights from a default that affects or impairs this party's rights as to this default or any subsequent default. Any party's consent to, or approval of, any act shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of any other party's consent to or approval of any subsequent act.

16. INDEMNIFICATION.

A. General. You shall, at all times, indemnify, defend (with counsel approved by us), and hold harmless (to the fullest extent permitted by law) us, our subsidiaries, affiliates, successors and assigns and our and their respective past and present members, managers, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives (collectively "Indemnitees") from and against all "Losses and Expenses" (as defined in Section 16.B below) incurred for any action, suit, proceeding, claim, demand, investigation or inquiry (formal or informal) by or against Indemnitees (as defined above in this Section 16.A) or any settlement (whether or not a formal proceeding or action had been instituted), arising out of or resulting from or connected with the development, construction, use or operation of Franchised Units or any fixture, equipment, goods, merchandise or products used or sold in or at the Restaurants; but you shall have no obligation to indemnify us from and against any of these costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, losses, liabilities, damages, claims and demands to the extent the same arises from or relates to any defect in a product or the design of a product manufactured and directly supplied by EEL or if caused directly by our gross negligence or willful or reckless misconduct. We shall give you notice of any action, suit, proceeding, claim, demand, inquiry or investigation filed or instituted against us ("Claim"); and upon request, shall furnish you with copies of any documents about these matters as you may reasonably request.

B. Losses and Expenses. As used in this Section 16, the phrase “Losses and Expenses” shall include, but not be limited to, all losses, compensatory, exemplary and punitive damages, fines, charges, costs, expenses, attorneys’ fees, court costs, settlement amounts, judgments, compensation for damages to our reputation and goodwill, costs of or resulting from delays, financing; costs of advertising material and media time/space and the costs of changing, substituting or replacing the same, and any and all expenses of recall, refunds, compensation, public notices and other such amounts incurred for the matters described.

17. ENTIRE AGREEMENT.

This Agreement and the Appendices attached and incorporated as part of this Agreement, if any, contain the entire agreement of the parties about the subject matter of this Agreement, and there are no oral or written representations, inducements, promises, agreements, arrangements or undertakings among the parties to this Agreement other than those set forth and duly executed in writing. No agreement of any kind shall be binding upon any party unless and until the same has been made in writing and duly executed by all parties. This Agreement shall not be modified or amended except by written agreement executed by all parties to this Agreement. Upon execution of this Agreement by us, all previous oral or written agreements, contracts, arrangements or undertakings of any kind relative to the rights granted are canceled, and all claims and demands of Developer are fully satisfied. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement or in any related agreement to the contrary, nothing herein or therein is intended to disclaim the representations made by us in the franchise disclosure document previously delivered to you, to the extent prohibited by law.

18. DISPUTE RESOLUTION: INJUNCTIVE RELIEF; VENUE; CONSENT TO JURISDICTION; ARBITRATION; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL; ENFORCEMENT; SURVIVAL.

A. Injunctive Relief. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, we shall be entitled, without bond, to the entry of temporary and permanent injunctions and orders of specific performance enforcing the provisions of this Agreement to compel conduct, or to prohibit conduct or threatened conduct, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available or which may cause us irreparable harm including, without limitation, breaches by you or your affiliates of your obligations under Section 1 (Development), Section 2 (Exclusive Rights); Section 11 (Transfers by Developer); Section 12 (Restrictions); Section 13 (Termination); Section 14 (Effect of Termination); Section 16 (Indemnification); and Section 18 (Dispute Resolution, Etc.). Pursuant to the preceding sentence, we are entitled to bring an action seeking temporary or preliminary injunctive relief to compel specific performance of this Agreement, and we shall be entitled to bring any action described in this Section 18.A for injunctive relief as an alternative or supplement to dispute resolution, without first conducting the dispute resolution procedure set forth in Section 18.F below.

B. Venue. Except to the extent prohibited by applicable state law, you and we agree that any legal action, arbitration, dispute resolution or litigation between or among you, us and your affiliates shall be conducted in Columbus, Ohio or, if our principal place of business is not then located in Columbus, Ohio, the city where we then have our principal place of business. All lawsuits initiated shall be filed in the Federal District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Eastern Division, or the Common Pleas Court of Franklin County, Ohio (or, if our principal place of business is not then located in Columbus, Ohio, in the Federal District Court or appropriate state court located in or closest to the city where we have our principal place of business). Subject to the provisions of Section 18.F hereof, you and your affiliates hereby consent to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue to the courts.

C. EEL's Right to Pursue Rights and Remedies on Collection Matters. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, including the provisions of Section 18F hereof, nothing shall restrict our ability to pursue our rights and remedies against you to collect amounts owed to us hereunder or under any other agreements or arrangements between us (including but not limited to, conditional assignments of lease, subleases, guarantees under your Franchise and/or Development Agreements, promissory notes, settlement agreements) in such manner as we may elect. Without limiting the foregoing, we are entitled to bring an action against you in court to pursue any or all such rights and remedies, involving the collection of amounts owed us, hereunder or otherwise. We are entitled to bring any such action as an alternative or supplement to dispute resolution initiated by you or us under Section 18.F, without first initiating or completing the dispute resolution procedure set forth in Section 18.F.

D. Applicable Law. Except to the extent governed by the U.S. Trademark Act of 1946 (as amended), the validity, terms, performance and enforcement of this Agreement and any issues related in any way to this Agreement or to a breach or alleged breach of this Agreement shall be governed by, and this Agreement shall be deemed to have been entered into under, the laws of the State of Ohio applicable to agreements that are negotiated, executed, delivered and performed solely in the State of Ohio.

E. Waiver. Each waives their rights to demand a trial by jury in any action or proceeding arising out of or related to the negotiation, execution, delivery, performance or breach of this Agreement or any relationship or transaction between you and us, regardless of the framing of any cause of action as lying in contract or tort or arising out of a statute.

F. Dispute Resolution.

(1) Subject to the provisions hereof, you and we (including also your and our respective affiliates, owners, officers, directors, agents and employees) will attempt to resolve promptly by good faith negotiations, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedures provided in this sub-section, any controversy, dispute or claim between or among you and us and our respective affiliates (the "Dispute"). If a Dispute arises, the disputing party must give the other party written notice describing the Dispute. Within 20 days after receipt of any such notice, the receiving party must submit to the other a written response. The notice and response must include a statement of the submitting party's position and a summary of the evidence and arguments supporting its position. You and we agree to meet, and to cause our respective affiliates to meet, at EEL's headquarters on a mutually agreeable date within 30 days of the receiving party's receipt of the notice of Dispute to attempt to resolve the Dispute. At such meeting, each party will be represented by a person authorized to settle the Dispute.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we are not required to follow this Dispute resolution procedure before: terminating this Agreement; commencing any action for injunctive relief pursuant to the provisions of Section 18A; commencing any legal action for collection of amounts owed to us pursuant to the provisions of Section 18C; or commencing legal action related to other agreements between you and us relating to the Restaurant, including but not limited to, conditional assignment of lease, sublease (including repossession), guarantees under your Franchise and/or Development Agreements, promissory notes, settlement agreements or any other agreements you and we may have.

(2) Except as provided in Section 18.A and 18C, all Disputes that are not resolved by negotiation within 30 days of the receiving party's receipt of the notice of Dispute as provided in Section 18.F(1), above, shall be resolved by arbitration pursuant to the following provisions. The arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The arbitration shall be governed exclusively by the United States Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §1, et seq.), without reference to any state arbitration statutes. Each party shall submit or file any claim that could constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. Any claim that is not submitted or filed in this proceeding shall be barred. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted by one arbitrator in accordance with the then current commercial arbitration rules of the AAA, except the parties shall be entitled to limited discovery at the discretion of the arbitrator who may, but are not required to, allow depositions. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted on an individual basis and not on a multi-plaintiff, consolidated, collective or class-wide basis. The arbitrator shall have the right to award the relief that he or she deems proper, consistent with the terms of this Agreement, including compensatory damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from date due), specific performance, injunctive relief, legal fees and costs. The award and decision of the arbitrator shall be conclusive and binding on all parties, and judgment upon the award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. Any right to contest the validity or enforceability of the award shall be governed exclusively by the United States Arbitration Act. No arbitration findings, conclusions, orders or awards may be used to collaterally estop either party from raising any like or similar issue in any other arbitration, litigation, court hearing, or other proceeding involving third parties or other franchisees.

(3) Each party waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right or claim to any punitive or exemplary damages against the other.

G. Survive Expiration or Termination. The provisions of this Section 18 shall continue in full force and effect after the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

19. EFFECT OF STATE LAWS; SEVERABILITY.

If any provision of this Agreement, or its application to any person, entity or circumstance, is invalid or unenforceable, then the remainder of this Agreement or the application of this provision to other persons, entities or circumstances shall not be affected. Headings are for convenience and reference only. The words contained in the headings shall not be held to expand, modify, amplify or aid in the interpretation, construction or meaning of this Agreement. All terms and words used in this Agreement, regardless of the number and gender in which they are used, shall be deemed and construed to include any other number, singular or plural, and any other gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, as the context or sense of this Agreement or any section or clause in this Agreement may require, as if this word had been fully and properly written in the appropriate number and gender.

20. NOTICES.

Any notice, request or demand permitted or required to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and sent by United States certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or by any national overnight delivery service utilizing a return receipt, addressed to us to the attention of the Chairman with a copy to the Legal Department at 1099 Sullivant Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43223, and to Developer or Operating Principal at the notice address in Appendix A, or at another address as either of the parties may designate by written notice from time to time and given in the manner as provided in this Agreement. 21. COSTS AND EXPENSES OF ENFORCEMENT.

If you fail to comply with any provision of this Agreement, you shall pay to us, upon demand, the reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by us for any enforcement of any provision.

You recognize that neither we nor any other person can guarantee your success. By the execution and acceptance of this Agreement, the parties to this Agreement acknowledge that they have read the same and understand each provision. This Agreement, although drafted by us, shall be construed fairly and reasonably, and not more strictly against one party than against the other party to this Agreement.

D. All Consents. You represent that you have all necessary consents and approvals to enter into this Agreement and that the signing of this Agreement by you shall not cause you to be in default or violation of any other agreement with others and that you are duly authorized to sign and enter into this Agreement and related franchise documents.

23. ACCORD AND SATISFACTION.

You shall not send to us payments marked “paid-in-full”, “without recourse”, or similar language. If you send a payment, we may accept it without losing any of our rights to collect the full amount owed and you will remain obligated to pay any amount owed to us regardless of the utilization of this language. All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument indicating that the payment constitutes payment in full of the amount owed or that it is tendered with other conditions or limitations or as full satisfaction of a disputed amount, must be mailed or delivered to Escape Enterprises, Ltd., ATTN: Accord and Satisfaction Payments Department, at our address designated for delivery of notices under this Agreement.

24. BINDING AGREEMENT.

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts and delivered by facsimile or pdf, but all of which taken together shall constitute a signed instrument and shall be accepted when signed by us. (c) Indemnify and hold EEL, its successors and assigns, harmless from and against any and all liability, loss, damage or expense, including attorneys’ fees and court costs (including those incurred in the enforcement hereof), which EEL, its successors or assigns, may incur or sustain by reason of the failure of Developer or its affiliates to fully perform and observe the terms and conditions of the Development Agreement or the other Guaranteed Obligations (the “Damages”).

Section 1 Absolute and Unconditional Obligation of Guarantor. All obligations of each Guarantor under this Guaranty shall be absolute, unconditional and continuing and shall remain in full force and effect until all of the Guaranteed Obligations and other obligations of Guarantors under this Guaranty (whether existing or hereafter incurred) shall have been paid and discharged in full or otherwise satisfied. The obligations of any Guarantor under this Guaranty shall not be released, discharged, affected, modified or impaired by reason of the happening from time to time of any event, including, without limitation, any one or more of the following:

1.2 Failure to Give Notice. The failure of EEL to give notice to Guarantors of the occurrence of any default under any of the Documents;

1.3 Waiver. The waiver by EEL of the payment, performance or observance of any of the Guaranteed Obligations;

1.9 Bankruptcy. The voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, sale or other disposition of all or substantial all of the assets, marshaling of assets and liabilities, receivership, insolvency, bankruptcy, assignment for the benefit of creditors, arrangement, composition with creditors or readjustment of, or other similar proceedings affecting Developer or its affiliates or its or their assets, or any allegation of invalidity or contest of the validity of this Guaranty in any of these proceedings;

1.11 Missing Agreements. The failure of any agreement, instrument, certificate, or other document to be executed or delivered in connection with the Development Agreement; or

1.12 Miscellaneous. Any other event, circumstance, right, claim or defense of any character whatsoever, whether or not similar to the foregoing.

Section 2 No Consent or Notice. EEL may, at any time and from time to time, without consent of, or notice to, Guarantors, do any, some, or all of the following without thereby impairing or releasing the obligations of any Guarantor under this Guaranty:

2.1 Amendments. Change the manner, place or terms of payment, or change or extend the time of payment of, or renew or alter, the terms of any obligations of payment of Developer or its affiliates to EEL, and the guarantee in this Guaranty shall apply to the obligations of payment of Developer or its affiliates to EEL as so changed, extended, renewed or altered;

2.2 Action or Inaction. Exercise or refrain from exercising any rights against Developer, any other guarantor of the Development Agreement or of any other Guaranteed Obligations, or any other person, or otherwise act or refrain from acting; or

2.3 Settle or Compromise. Settle or compromise any obligations of payment of Developer or its affiliates, or any other Guarantor of the obligations of Developer or its affiliates to EEL or subordinate the payment of all or any part thereof to the payment of any liability (whether due or not) to creditors of Developer or its affiliates other than EEL.

Section 3 Rights of EEL and Related Matters.

3.1 Enforcement. Each Guarantor agrees that this Guaranty may be enforced by EEL without first resorting to or exhausting any other remedy available under the Development Agreement, any other guaranty of the Development Agreement, any other Document, or otherwise; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Guaranty shall prevent EEL from resorting to any right or remedy available to it.

3.2 Benefit. Each Guarantor agrees that this Guaranty will inure to the benefit of and may be enforced by EEL, its successors and assigns, any duly authorized agent of EEL, and any subsequent holder of any instrument evidencing any of the Guaranteed Obligations and shall be binding on and enforceable against each Guarantor, its heirs, representatives, successors and assigns. If any of the Guaranteed Obligations are assigned by EEL, this Guaranty will inure to the benefit of EEL's assignee, and to the benefit of any subsequent assignee, to the extent of the assignment or assignments; provided, however, that no assignment will operate to relieve any Guarantor from any duty to EEL under this Guaranty regarding any unassigned obligation.

3.3 Waiver of Notice, Event of Default under the Agreement, etc. Each Guarantor waives notice of any event of default under any Document and presentment, protest, notice of dishonor and demand for payment of or regarding any obligation of payment of Developer or its affiliates to EEL or any instrument or other writing evidencing or securing any obligation of payment of Developer or its affiliates to EEL.

3.4 Subordination as to Guarantor. Each Guarantor subordinates any and all claims which it now has, or in the future may acquire, as creditor, employee, contributor to the capital of Developer or its affiliates or otherwise, to the prior payment and performance in full of any and all of the Guaranteed Obligations to the extent set forth in this Section 3.4. If, before the payment and performance of all of the Guaranteed Obligations, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an event of default under the Development Agreement or any other Guaranteed Obligation, any Guarantor would, without reference to the provisions of this Section 3.4, be entitled to receive any payment on account of any claim of such Guarantor against Developer or its affiliates, in insolvency proceedings or otherwise, all of these payments shall be made instead to EEL until all of the Guaranteed Obligations have been paid and performed in full, and each Guarantor so directs. If, following the occurrence and during the continuation of an event of default under the Development Agreement or any other Guaranteed Obligation, any Guarantor receives any payment on account of any claim of such Guarantor against Developer or its affiliates, such Guarantor shall immediately pay the same over to EEL to be applied to the payment and performance of all of the Guaranteed Obligations.

3.5 No Defense Limits Guarantor's Obligations. No setoff, counterclaim, reduction, or diminution of any obligation, or any other defense of any kind or nature (excepting payment or performance in fact) which Developer or any Guarantor has or may have against EEL shall limit or in any way affect any Guarantor's obligations under this Guaranty.

3.6 Waiver of Rights to Subrogation and Reimbursement. Each Guarantor waives any right of subrogation to the rights of EEL against Developer, any right of reimbursement by Developer or its affiliates or any other right of recovery that any Guarantor may have against Developer or its affiliates if any Guarantor makes any payment under this Guaranty. Each Guarantor represents and warrants that it has not received any promissory note from Developer or its affiliates or entered into any other written or oral agreement with Developer or its affiliates to the effect that such Guarantor will be reimbursed by Developer or its affiliates if it makes any payments under this Guaranty and has not received any property of Developer or its affiliates as security for any such reimbursement. Each Guarantor covenants and agrees that such Guarantor will not, at any time, accept any promissory note or enter into any written or oral agreement with Developer or its affiliates which has the effect of reimbursing any Guarantor for any payments that it may make under this Guaranty, accept any property of Developer or its affiliates as security for any such reimbursement, or make any claim for reimbursement or that any Guarantor should be subrogated to the rights of EEL against Developer or its affiliates. The waivers, representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this paragraph are for the benefit of and may be enforced by EEL and Developer or its affiliates and their respective successors and assigns, including, without limitation, any trustee in bankruptcy of Developer or its affiliates.

3.7 Waiver of Notice of Acceptance. Each Guarantor expressly waives notice from EEL of its acceptance of and reliance upon this Guaranty, and of any future creation, renewal or accrual of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, and any and every obligation of payment and performance of Developer or its affiliates to EEL shall conclusively be presumed to have been created, contracted or incurred in reliance upon this Guaranty.

Section 4 Restrictive Covenant and Confidentiality. Each Guarantor acknowledges that it has received and reviewed a copy of Section 12 of the Development Agreement (relating to confidential information and non-competition provisions) and agrees to be bound by the terms of this Section as though it were a party to the Development Agreement.

Section 5 Miscellaneous.

5.1 Notices. Any notice, request or demand permitted or required to be given under this Guaranty shall be in writing and sent by United States certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or by any national overnight delivery service utilizing a return receipt, addressed to EEL to the attention of the Chairman with a copy to the Legal Department at 1099 Sullivant Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43223; and to Guarantor at the notice address in Exhibit A of the Development Agreement, or at another address as either of the parties may designate by written notice from time to time and given in the manner as provided in this Guaranty. All such notices, requests and demands shall be deemed given the earliest of: (a) upon receipt; or (b) upon refusal of the addressee to receive the same, as indicated on the return receipt; or (c) three business days after mailing with proof of mailing receipt or tracking slip if certified mail; or (d) one business day after overnight mailing with a proof of mailing receipt or tracking slip.

5.2 Agreement to Pay Fees and Expenses. If Guarantor should fail in the payment or performance of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or should fail to comply with any provision of this Guaranty, Guarantor shall pay to EEL, upon demand, the reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by EEL in connection with any enforcement of EEL's rights regarding this failure.

5.3 Waiver. No delay on the part of EEL in exercising any of its options, powers or rights under this Guaranty, or any partial or single exercise of this Guaranty, shall constitute a waiver thereof. No waiver of any of the respective rights or obligations of EEL under this Guaranty, and no modification or amendment of this Guaranty, will be deemed to be effective unless the same shall be in writing, duly signed on behalf of EEL and Guarantors. Each waiver, if any, will apply only regarding the specific instance and for the specific purpose given, and will in no way impair the rights of EEL or the obligations of Guarantors to EEL in any respect at any other time. No notice to or demand on Guarantors in any case will entitle Guarantors to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances. See also Section 5.11(v).

5.4 Amendment. This Guaranty shall not be deemed to be amended, modified or limited orally or by any course of conduct or dealing or any manner other than by a writing signed by the party against which this amendment, modification or limitation is sought to be charged.

5.5 No Release. The provisions of this Guaranty notwithstanding, no rights or privileges of EEL under the Development Agreement or any other agreement, document or instrument pursuant to which Developer is obligated to EEL shall in any way be diminished or released by this Guaranty.

5.6 Severability. In case any clause, provision or section of this Guaranty, or any covenant, stipulation, obligation, agreement, act, or action, or part of this Guaranty, made, assumed, entered into, or taken under this Guaranty, or any application thereof, is for any reason held to be illegal, invalid or inoperable, such illegality, invalidity, or inoperability shall not affect the remainder of this Guaranty or any other clause, provision or section or any other covenant, stipulation, obligation, agreement, act or action or part thereof, made, assumed, entered into, or taken under this Guaranty, which shall at the time be construed and enforced as if such illegal or invalid or inoperable portion were not contained in this Guaranty, nor shall such illegality or invalidity or inoperability or any application thereof affect any legal and valid and operable application of this Guaranty, from time to time, and each such clause, provision or section, covenant, stipulation, obligation, agreement, act, or action, or part thereof shall be deemed to be effective, operative, made, entered into or taken in the manner and to the full extent from time to time permitted by law.

5.7 Captions. The captions or headings in this Guaranty are for convenience only and in no way define, limit or describe the scope or intent of any provision or section of this Guaranty.

5.8 Entire Agreement. This Guaranty sets forth the entire understanding of the parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements, arrangements, and understandings relating to the subject matter of this Guaranty.

5.9 Separate Instrument. This Guaranty constitutes a separate instrument, enforceable in accordance with its terms, and neither this Guaranty nor the obligations of Guarantors under this Guaranty shall, under any circumstance or in any legal proceedings, be deemed to have merged into or with any other agreement or obligation of Guarantors.

5.10 Third Parties. Nothing in this Guaranty expressed or implied is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give any person other than the parties to this Guaranty and their successors or assigns, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Guaranty.

5.11 Rights and Remedies.

(i) Injunctive Relief. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, EEL shall be entitled, without bond, to the entry of temporary and permanent injunctions and orders of specific performance enforcing the provisions of this Guaranty to compel conduct, or to prohibit conduct or threatened conduct, for which no adequate remedy at law may be available or which may cause EEL irreparable harm, including, without limitation, breaches by Guarantor or Guarantor's affiliates of Guarantor's obligations under Section 4 (Restrictive Covenant and Confidentiality) hereof. Pursuant to the preceding sentence, EEL is entitled to bring an action seeking temporary or preliminary injunctive relief to compel specific performance of this Guaranty and EEL shall be entitled to bring any action described in this Section 5.11(i) for injunctive relief as an alternative or supplement to dispute resolution, without first conducting the dispute resolution procedure set forth in Section 5.11(vi) below.

(ii) Venue; Jurisdiction. Except to the extent prohibited by applicable state law, Guarantor and EEL agree that any legal action, arbitration, dispute resolution or litigation between or among Guarantor, EEL and our respective affiliates shall be conducted in Columbus, Ohio or, if EEL's principal place of business is not then located in Columbus, Ohio, the city where EEL then has its principal place of business. All law suits initiated shall be filed in the Federal District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Eastern Division, or the Common Pleas Court of Franklin County, Ohio (or, if EEL's principal place of business is not then located in Columbus, Ohio, in the Federal District Court or appropriate state court located in or closest to the city where EEL then has its principal place of business). Subject to the provisions of Section 5.11(vi) hereof, Guarantor and Guarantor's affiliates hereby consent to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue to the courts or arbitration location as provided above.

(iii) EEL's Right to Pursue Rights and Remedies on Collection Matters.

Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, including the provisions of Section 5.11(vi) hereof, nothing shall restrict EEL's ability to pursue its rights and remedies against Guarantor to collect amounts owed to EEL hereunder or under any other agreements or arrangements between Guarantor and EEL (including but not limited to, conditional assignments of lease, subleases, guarantees under Guarantor's Franchise and/or Development Agreements, promissory notes, settlement agreements) in such manner as EEL may elect. Without limiting the foregoing, EEL is entitled to bring an action against Guarantor in court to pursue any or all such rights and remedies, involving the collection of amounts owed EEL, hereunder or otherwise. EEL is entitled to bring any such action as an alternative or supplement to dispute resolution initiated by Guarantor or EEL under Section 15.11(vi), without first initiating or completing the dispute resolution procedure set forth in Section 15.11(vi).

(iv) Applicable Law. Except to the extent governed by the U.S. Trademark Act of 1946 (as amended), the validity, terms, performance and enforcement of this Guaranty and any issues related in any way to this Guaranty or to a breach or alleged breach of this Guaranty shall be governed by, and this Guaranty shall be deemed to have been entered into under, the laws of the State of Ohio applicable to guaranties that are negotiated, executed, delivered and performed solely in the State of Ohio.

(v) Waiver. In addition to Section 5.3 above, Guarantor and EEL each waive Guarantor's and EEL's rights to demand a trial by jury in any action or proceeding arising out of or related to the negotiation, execution, delivery, performance or breach of this Guaranty or any relationship or transaction between Guarantor and EEL, regardless of the framing of any cause of action as lying in contract or tort or arising out of a statute.

(vi) Dispute Resolution.

(a) Subject to the provisions hereof, Guarantor and EEL (including also Guarantor's and EEL's respective affiliates, owners, officers, directors, agents and employees) will attempt to resolve promptly by good faith negotiations, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedures provided in this paragraph, any controversy, dispute or claim between or among Guarantor and EEL and our respective affiliates (the "Dispute"). If a Dispute arises, the disputing party must give the other party written notice describing the Dispute. Within 20 days after receipt of any such notice, the receiving party must submit to the other a written response. The notice and response must include a statement of the submitting party's position and a summary of the evidence and arguments supporting its position. Guarantor and EEL agree to meet, and to cause our respective affiliates to meet, at EEL's headquarters on a mutually agreeable date within 30 days of the receiving party's receipt of the notice of Dispute to attempt to resolve the Dispute. At such meeting, each of Guarantor and EEL will be represented by a person authorized to settle the Dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, EEL is not required to follow this Dispute resolution procedure before: terminating this Guaranty; commencing any action for injunctive relief pursuant to the provisions of Section 15.11(i); commencing any legal action for collection of amounts owed to EEL pursuant to the provisions of Section 15.11(iii); or commencing legal action related to other agreements between Guarantor and EEL relating to the Developer, including but not limited to, conditional assignment of lease, sublease (including repossession), guarantees under the Franchise and/or Development Agreements, promissory notes, settlement agreements or any other agreements Guarantor and EEL may have.

- (b) Except as provided in Section 5.11(i) and (iii), all Disputes that are not resolved by negotiation within 30 days of the receiving party's receipt of the notice of Dispute as provided in Section 5.11(vi)(a), above, shall be resolved by arbitration pursuant to the following provisions. The arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The arbitration shall be governed exclusively by the United States Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §1, et seq.), without reference to any state arbitration statutes. Each party shall submit or file any claim that could constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. Any claim that is not submitted or filed in this proceeding shall be barred. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted by one arbitrator in accordance with the then-current commercial arbitration rules of the AAA, except the parties shall be entitled to limited discovery at the discretion of the arbitrator who may, but is not required to, allow depositions. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted on an individual basis and not on a multi-plaintiff, consolidated, collective or class-wide basis. The arbitrator shall have the right to award the relief that he or she deems proper, consistent with the terms of this Guaranty, including compensatory damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from date due), specific performance, injunctive relief, legal fees and costs. The award and decision of the arbitrator shall be conclusive and binding on all parties, and judgment upon the award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. Any right to contest the validity or enforceability of the award shall be governed exclusively by the United States Arbitration Act. No arbitration findings, conclusions, orders or awards may be used to collaterally estop either party from raising any like or similar issue in any other arbitration, litigation, court hearing or other proceeding involving third parties or other franchisees.

(c) Each party waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right or claim to any punitive or exemplary damages against the other.

(vii) Survive Expiration or Termination. The provisions of this Section 5.11 shall continue in full force and effect after the expiration or termination of this Guaranty.

5.12 Accord and Satisfaction. Guarantor shall not send to EEL payments marked “paid-in-full”, “without recourse”, or similar language. If Guarantor sends such a payment, EEL may accept it without losing any of EEL’s rights to collect the full amount owed, and Guarantor shall remain obligated to pay any amount owed to EEL, regardless of the utilization of this language. All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument indicating that the payment constitutes payment-in-full of the amount owed or that it is tendered with other conditions or limitations or as full satisfaction of a disputed amount, must be mailed or delivered to Escape Enterprises, Ltd., ATTN: Accord and Satisfaction Payments Department, at EEL’s address designated for delivery of notices hereunder.

5.13 Facsimile, PDF and Counterparts. This document may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which, taken together, shall constitute a single instrument. Facsimile or pdf signatures shall be deemed to be original and may be used as permitted under Ohio Law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Guarantor(s) represents that he/she/they have read this Guaranty and the related Documents, have had the opportunity to consult with their financial and legal advisors and have knowingly waived the same, and have duly executed this Guaranty as of the date first above written.

STATE ADDENDUM: CALIFORNIA

THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

1. Item 6 of the Franchise Disclosure Document states that the cost of “Review of Proposed New Supplier” varies. While this cost does vary and is not imposed without your request for our review of a new supplier, experience indicates that, if such review is requested by you and this cost imposed, the cost will run between $500 and $1,500.
2. Item 8 of the Franchise Disclosure Document discusses required purchases and leases. For 2023, the percentage of our and our affiliates’ total revenues that were derived from required purchases and leases (including payments to us from suppliers based on sales made to our franchisees) was 12%.
3. Item 11 of the Franchise Disclosure Document discusses training generally. Additional and refresher training is generally provided at your restaurant site but such training is completely dependent upon the circumstances around that specific store/issue. Duration, frequency, range of costs and content will vary with each specific circumstance. Some remedial training may take one day, cost $100, and never need to be repeated. Some may take a week, cost up to $5,000, and may need to be repeated if the franchisee doesn’t successfully complete the training.
4. Notwithstanding the provisions of Item 17(t) of the Franchise Disclosure Document, nothing in your Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement or any related document is intended to disclaim any representation made in the Franchise Disclosure Document.
5. All modifications or changes in the Franchise Agreement must be in writing signed by you and by an officer of Escape. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires Escape to give you a disclosure document approved by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation Commissioner before we ask you to consider a material modification of an existing Franchise Agreement.
6. THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT REQUIRES APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF OHIO. THIS PROVISION MAY NOT BE ENFORCEABLE UNDER CALIFORNIA LAW.
7. The California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to you concerning termination, transfer or nonrenewal of the franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the California law will control.
8. The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.).
9. The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

10. The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable under California law.

11. The Franchise Agreement requires a forum of Ohio. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

12. The Franchise Agreement requires you to sign a general release of claims upon renewal or transfer of the Franchise Agreement. California Corporations Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order is void. Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Sections 31000 31516). Business and Professions Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 20043).

13. Neither the franchisor nor any person or franchise broker listed in Item 2 of the Franchise Disclosure Document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national security exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. §78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.

14. The Franchise Agreement and/or Development Agreement contains a provision requiring binding arbitration of disputes. The arbitration will be in Franklin County, Ohio, applying Ohio law in accordance with the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association. You are responsible for the costs of arbitration, if you are in default. If you are not in default, the arbitrator will determine who is responsible for costs. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

15. The terms of Items 5, 6 and 7 of this Franchise Disclosure Document have been negotiated with other franchisees. See Exhibit C 1.A for a copy of all Negotiated Sales Notices filed in California in the last 12 months.

16. Note that you will not receive any right to any exclusive territory when purchasing a franchise from us.

17. OUR WEBSITE HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF OUR WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT www.dfpi.ca.gov.

18. The highest applicable interest rate in California is ten percent (10%).

19. No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

20. In addition to the Franchise Agreement, in the form attached as Exhibit B-1, and, if applicable, the Development Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit B-3, California franchisees will sign the appropriate California Addenda, in the forms attached.

Code §23-2-2.7-1(10), the remedy at law for any breach of the provisions of Sections 11.A, 11.B and 11.C will be inadequate, notwithstanding the provision for liquidated damages contained in Section 11.E(ii) hereof, and that Franchisor, in addition to any other relief available to it, shall be entitled to temporary and permanent injunctive relief without the necessity of proving actual damages or the posting of any bond, which rights are waived by Franchisee and any Principal Owner. Franchisor's right to collect liquidated damages is restricted by certain provisions of current Indiana law.

Code Section 23-2-2.7-1(10). Further, the Franchisee cannot currently be required to recognize the adequacy or inadequacy of any remedy. The waiver or release of any rights with regard to this Agreement is currently prohibited pursuant to Ind. Code Section 23-2-2.7-1(5). However, to the extent that applicable Indiana law may hereafter allow enforcement of any provision hereof, Franchisor reserves the right to so enforce it.

This factor should be taken into account in determining whether or not to purchase this franchise.

THIS OFFERING PROSPECTUS DOES NOT KNOWINGLY OMIT ANY MATERIAL FACT OR CONTAIN ANY UNTRUE STATEMENT OF A MATERIAL FACT.

Either the term “Franchise Disclosure Document” or “Offering Prospectus” used herein shall mean this document.

THE FRANCHISOR MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, THE FRANCHISOR CANNOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE TO ACCEPT TERMS WHICH ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. The following language is added to Item 5:

Except as set forth in this Franchise Disclosure Document, an identical Initial Franchise Fee is charged to each Franchisee.

3. The following language is added to Item 13:

4. The following language is added to the end of the “Summary” section of Item 17(c):

To the extent required by applicable law, all rights enjoyed by the Franchisee and any causes of action arising in its favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York (“GBL”) and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of GBL Sections 687.4 and 687.5 be satisfied.

6. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(m):

Franchisee may not assign its rights under the Franchise Agreement without the prior written consent of Franchisor, except as noted below. If Franchisee is a partnership or corporation, any change in control of Franchisee is deemed to be an assignment of its rights under the Franchise Agreement. If Franchisee desires to assign its franchise, Franchisee shall first give Franchisor written notice setting forth all the terms and conditions of the proposed assignment, along with a financial statement prepared by the proposed assignee and all other pertinent data required by Franchisor concerning the proposed assignee. Within 30 days after receipt of such notice, Franchisor may either consent to the assignment, refuse to consent to the assignment, or, at its option, accept the assignment to itself upon the same terms and conditions specified in the notice. Whether there is to be a recognition of the goodwill or other intangibles depends on the terms specified by the proposed assignee.

Franchisor’s consent to assignment may be conditioned upon (a) the assumption by the proposed assignee of all of Franchisee’s obligations under the Franchise Agreement and any related or similar agreements, (b) payment of all outstanding debts by Franchisee including full payment of any outstanding Initial Franchise Fees, Continuing Franchise Fees, or other amounts, (c) the absence of a default by Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with Franchisor, (d) the satisfactory completion by the assignee of the training courses required of new franchise owners on Franchisor’s then-current terms, (e) its satisfaction with the character, business experience and credit rating of the proposed assignee, (f) execution of the then-current form of Franchise Agreement by the assignee, (g) a general release of all claims by Franchisee, provided, however, to the extent required by applicable law, that all rights enjoyed by the Franchisee and any causes of action arising in its favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York (“GBL”) and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of GBL Sections 687.4 and 687.5 be satisfied and (h) payment of a transfer fee equal to $10,000, or, if the transfer is among then-existing owners of the franchisee, $2,000. EXHIBIT C-8

STATE ADDENDUM: NORTH DAKOTA

RIDER TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT – NORTH DAKOTA

1. Item 17(c) of the Franchise Disclosure Document and Section 4B of the Franchise Agreement require the franchisee to sign a release of claims upon renewal of the franchise agreement. These provisions may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

2. Item 17(i) of the Franchise Disclosure Document and Section 10 of the Franchise Agreement require the franchisee to consent to termination or liquidated damages. The Commissioner has determined this to be unfair, unjust, and inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. These provisions regarding consent to termination or liquidated damages are deleted.

3. Item 17(r) of the Franchise Disclosure Document, Section 11 of the Franchise Agreement and Section 12.B of the Development Agreement disclose or contain the existence of certain covenants restricting competition to which franchisees must agree. Covenants not to compete are subject to applicable state law and generally considered unenforceable in the State of North Dakota.

4. Section 14.G of the Franchise Agreement and Section 18.F of the Development Agreement provide that the franchisee must agree to the arbitration or mediation of disputes, such arbitration or mediation to be held in Ohio. The Commissioner has determined that franchise agreements, which provide that parties agree to the arbitration or mediation of disputes at a location that is remote from the site of the franchisee's business, are unfair, unjust, or inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. The site of arbitration or mediation shall be agreement to all parties and may not be remote from the franchisee's place of business.

5. Item 17(w) of the Franchise Disclosure Document, Section 14.G of the Franchise Agreement and Section 18 of the Development Agreement require application of the laws of the State of Ohio. These provisions may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

6. Section 14.G of the Franchise Agreement and Section 18.E of the Development Agreement require the franchisee to consent to a waiver of trial by jury. This provision may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

7. Section 14.G of the Franchise Agreement requires the franchisee to consent to a waiver or exemplary and punitive damages. These provisions may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

8. Item 17(v) of the Franchise Disclosure Document, Section 14.G of the Franchise Agreement and Section 18.B of the Development Agreement provide that franchisees must consent to the jurisdiction of courts in Ohio. The Commissioner has held that requiring franchisees to consent to the jurisdiction of courts outside of North Dakota is unfair, unjust, or inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. Any provision regarding consent to the jurisdiction of courts in Ohio is deleted.

9. Section 14.L of the Franchise Agreement and Section 21 of the Development Agreement stipulate that the franchisee shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by the franchisor in enforcing the agreement. The Commissioner has determined this to be unfair, unjust, and inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. The prevailing party in any enforcement action is entitled to recover all costs and expenses including attorney's fees.

10. No Statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

STATE ADDENDUM: WASHINGTON

RIDER TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT – WASHINGTON

1. Item 5. The following is added to Item 5 of the Franchise Disclosure Document:

Franchisor may change its fee schedule for Franchisees located in the State of Washington at some time in the future by an amendment to this Franchise Disclosure Document or by specific permission from the State of Washington pursuant to applicable law. If Franchisor determines that its expenses in establishing a particular Steak Escape Sandwich Grill franchise outside of the State of Washington will be significantly lower than the currently anticipated average expense, Franchisor may, in its discretion, waive or modify the Initial Franchise Fee.

2. Item 6. The following is added to certain remarks in Item 6 of the Franchise Disclosure Document:

- (i) Transfer and Training. Transfer fees are subject to state law.
- (ii) Liquidated Damages. In the event there are fewer than 24 months remaining in the Franchise Agreement, the franchisee will pay a lessor amount.

3. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

4. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

5. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

6. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

7. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

8. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

9. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

10. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

11. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

12. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

13. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

14. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

15. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

16. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

17. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor.

As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

18. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

19. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

20. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

21. Attached is a copy of Escape's current form of general release referenced in the Franchise Disclosure Document. Any release to be signed by a franchise or developer will not apply to claims arising under the Washington Franchise Investment Production Act. RCW 19.100 and the rules adopted thereunder.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members' of
Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Columbus, Ohio

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Escape Enterprises, Ltd. (the Company), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of operations and members' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations

Escape Enterprises, Ltd. (EEL) franchises independently owned quick service restaurants under the brand name “The Steak Escape.” EEL has approximately 21 and 25 franchised restaurants open in 9 states as of December 31, 2024 and 2023. Furthermore, the Company is a majority-owned (96%) subsidiary of Escape Enterprises, Inc. (EEI).

Concentration Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash. The Company places its temporary cash investments with financial institutions. At times, amounts may exceed federally insured limits. The Company’s results of operations are affected by a wide variety of factors, including general economic conditions, the ability to attract new franchisees, and the ability to enter into new markets.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts Receivable-Trade

Accounts receivable consists primarily of royalty and marketing fees charged to franchisees based on sales. Interest on past due balances may be charged at 5% above the current prime interest rate. The Company reports trade receivables at net realizable value. The Company recognizes an allowance for losses on accounts receivable in an amount equal to the estimated probable losses net of recoveries. The allowance is based on an analysis of historical bad debt experience, current receivables aging, and the expected future write-offs, as well as an assessment of specific identifiable customer accounts considered risky or uncollectible. The expense associated with the allowance for doubtful accounts is recognized as general and administrative expense. The Company recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts of $0 and $40,000 at December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Accounts Receivable, Other

Accounts receivable, other, consists of various receivables from employees, affiliated entities and others (see Note 2). The Company recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts of $50,000 and $0 at December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Allowance for Credit Losses

In June 2016, the FASB issued guidance (FASB ASC 326) which significantly changed how entities will measure credit losses for most financial assets and certain other instruments that aren’t measured at fair value through net income. The most significant change in this standard is a shift from the incurred loss model to the expected loss model. Under the standard, disclosures are required to provide users of the financial statements with useful information in analyzing an entity’s exposure to credit risk and the measurement of credit losses. Financial assets held by the company that are subject to the guidance in FASB ASC 326 were trade accounts receivable.

The Company adopted the standard effective January 1, 2023. The impact of the adoption was not considered material to the financial statements and primarily resulted in new/enhanced disclosures only.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

Property and Equipment

Leasehold improvements are stated at cost and are depreciated using the straight-line method over the lesser of the life of the lease or the estimated useful life of the assets, which currently range from 5 to 39 years. Furniture and fixtures and equipment are stated at cost and are depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which is 5 years. Depreciation expense from continuing operations for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 was $6,859 and $4,539, respectively.

Management reviews long-lived assets for impairment when circumstances indicate the carrying amount of an asset. If the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable, write-down to fair market values, or external appraisals, as applicable. Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment at the individual asset or the asset group level for which the lowest level of independent cash flows can be identified. No impairment was identified for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Routine expenditures for repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred.

Revenue Recognition Significant Accounting Policies under ASC 606

Royalty Fees

The Company derives its revenues primarily from the collection of royalty fees from franchisees. Revenues are recognized when control of these services is transferred to its customers, in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for those products and services. Sales and other taxes the Company collects concurrent with revenue-producing activities are excluded from revenue. Incidental items that are immaterial in the context of the contract are recognized as expense. The Company does not have any significant financing components as payment is received at or shortly after the point of sale. Costs incurred to obtain a contract will be expenses as incurred when the amortization period is less than a year.

The Company collects a franchise fee of 6% of gross sales (royalty fee) that is charged to the franchisees for the use of the brand name “The Steak Escape” and related system. Under special circumstances, the Company may, at its discretion, reduce the percentage of royalty fees to less than 6%. The royalty fee is recognized as revenue in the same month of the related franchisee’s gross sales. The Company collects a marketing fee of 0.5% of gross sales that is charged to franchisees. Once the amount is collected, it is passed on to Escape Enterprises, Inc. (EEL), the majority owner, which maintains the marketing fund.

Franchise and Transfer fees

The Company also at times executes franchise and development territory agreements for franchise restaurants, which define the terms of the agreement with the franchisee. The Company’s franchise and developmental territory agreements require that franchisees pay an initial, non-refundable fee and a continuing fee based on a percentage of sales. The Company recognizes initial and optional franchise fees and development territory fees as revenue after performing substantially all initial services or conditions required by the franchise agreements, which is generally upon the opening of the restaurant.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

Deferred revenue (contract liabilities) represents franchise fees which have been received, but for which the prescribed services have not yet been completed. These fees will be recognized as revenue when these services are completed. Management has adopted the practical expedient whereby costs to obtain these contracts are not capitalized.

In addition, the Company periodically sells the limited rights to develop restaurants in certain geographical territories to select franchisees. Fees received, net of related direct costs, are recorded as deferred revenue and recognized as income upon completion of services. An analysis of deferred revenue, net is as follows:

	2024	2023
Balance, beginning of year	$ 0	$ 0
Initial deposits received for international development agreements	0	0
Initial franchise fee deposits received	0	25,000
Transfer and renewal fee deposits received	69,744	13,108
Initial franchise fee revenue recognized for stores opened during year	0	0
Revenue recognized for international development agreements during the year	0	0
Transfer and renewal fee revenue recognized during the year	(69,744)	(38,108)
Balance, end of year	$ 0	$ 0

Advertising

The Company expenses the costs of advertising not covered under the Company's marketing fee assessment at the time the advertising cost is incurred.

Income Taxes

The Company is organized as a partnership and therefore is not subject to federal or state income taxes at the corporate level, but rather such income is included in the members' taxable income. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal and state income taxes in the accompanying financial statements.

The Company accounts for uncertainty in income taxes using the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification 740, Income Taxes. Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the positions will be sustained upon the examination by the tax authorities. A recognized tax position is then measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement. Management believes that there are no uncertain tax positions as of December 31, 2024 and 2023.

The Company's income tax filings are subject to audit by various taxing authorities. In evaluating the Company's activities, the Company believes its tax position is current based on current facts and circumstances.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

It is the policy of the Company to include in its statements of operations penalties and interest assessed by income taxing authorities. There are no penalties or interest from taxing authorities included in the statements of operations and members' equity for 2024 and 2023.

Taxes Collected from Customers

The Company collected sales tax from its customers on product sales that is remitted to various state governmental authorities when due. The Company's policy is to record taxes collected from customers as a component of accrued expenses on its balance sheets and not in its statements of operations and members' equity.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Leases

The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Right of Use (ROU) assets represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liabilities represent the Company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. Material ROU assets and liabilities are recognized at the commencement date based on the present value of the lease payments over the lease term. Lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise that option. Lease expense for operating lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The Company has elected to recognize payments for short-term leases with a lease term of 12 months or less as an expense as incurred and these leases are not included as lease liabilities or right of use assets on the accompanying balance sheet.

The individual lease contracts do not provide information about the discount rate implicit in the lease. Therefore, the Company has elected to use their average borrowing rate for computing the present value of the lease liabilities.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This new standard increases transparency and comparability among organizations by requiring the recognition of ROU assets and lease liabilities on the statement of financial position. Most prominent among the changes in the standard is the recognition of ROU assets and lease liabilities by lessees for those leases classified as operating leases. Under the standard, disclosures are required to meet the objective of enabling users of financial statements to assess the amount, timing, and uncertainty of cash flows arising from leases.

The Company adopted the requirements of the guidance effective January 1, 2022, and has elected to apply the provisions of this standard to the beginning of the period of adoption for material leases significant to the consolidated financial statements. The Company has elected to adopt the package of practical expedients available in the year of adoption. The Company has elected to adopt the available practical expedient to use hindsight in determining the lease term and in assessing impairment of the Company's ROU assets.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

2. Related Party Transactions

The Company paid approximately $254,000 to EEI for fees and services for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, which is included in general and administrative expenses in the statements of operations and members' equity.

The Company recorded royalties from franchises in which certain shareholders' of EEI have direct financial interests totaling approximately $114,000 and $132,000 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Accounts receivable from affiliated companies, included in accounts receivable and accounts receivable, other on the balance sheets, totaled approximately $145,319 and $140,539 as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

3. Commitments

Operating Leases

Copier Lease

The Company has a 60-month lease for a copy machine, which was entered into in November 2017. In January 2022, this lease was cancelled, and the Company entered into a new 60-month copier lease. As this operating lease is not significant to the financial statements, the Company did not capitalize this lease on the balance sheet.

As of December 31, 2024, the future minimum lease payments (excluding executory costs) under this new copier lease were as follows:

2025	$ 9,792
2026	9,792

Administrative Facility Lease

In January 2013, the Company entered into a lease with an affiliated corporation that was owned by certain shareholders of EEI for the administrative facility.

During June 2018, the administrative facility was sold to an outside third party (and the lease agreement mentioned above was terminated) and the affiliated corporation purchased a new facility and office space in November 2018. As of December 31, 2024 and 2023, the Company and the affiliated corporation are on a month-to-month lease for the new facility and office space. The affiliated corporation charges the Company a monthly lease fee for the use of the office space.

During the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, the Company incurred approximately $35,000 and $39,000, respectively, in administrative facility and copier rent costs.

4. Retirement Plan

The Company has a defined contribution 401(k) plan covering substantially all employees. Employer contributions are discretionary. There were no employer contributions in 2024 and 2023.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

5. Contingencies

From time to time the Company may be subject to lawsuits and other charges from franchisees, guests and employees, which are typical within the industry. In the opinion of management, any open matters will not have a material effect upon the financial position of the Company.

The Company also may, from time to time, place charges and lawsuits against certain franchisees who may have terminated franchisee contracts early, and the Company is entitled to compensation. The ultimate outcomes of these charges cannot be reasonably determined; therefore, no amounts have been recognized for possible collection.

6. Revenue Recognition under ASC 606

DISAGGREGATION OF REVENUE FROM CONTRACTS WITH CUSTOMERS

The following table disaggregates the Company's revenue based on the timing of satisfaction of performance obligations for the years ended December 31:

	2024	2023
Revenue Recognized at a Point in Time:
Royalty Fees	$ 997,193	$ 994,840
Revenue Recognized Over Time:
Franchise and Transfer Fees	69,744	38,108
Total Revenue Recognized	$ 1,066,937	$ 1,032,948

Revenue from performance obligations satisfied at a point in time consists of royalty fees from franchisees.

Revenue from performance obligations satisfied over time consists of the franchise and transfer fees from franchisees.

PERFORMANCE OBLIGATIONS

For performance obligations related to the sale of royalty fees, control transfers to the customer at a point in time. Revenues are recognized when control of these services is transferred to its customers, in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for those products and services.

For performance obligations related to franchise and transfer fees, control transfers to the customer over time. The Company recognizes initial and optional franchise fees and development territory fees as revenue after performing substantially all initial services or conditions required by the franchise agreements, which is generally upon the opening of the restaurant.

VARIABLE CONSIDERATION

The nature of the Company's business gives rise to variable consideration, including rebates, allowances, and returns that generally decrease the transaction price that reduces revenue. These variable amounts are generally credited to the customer, based on achieving certain levels of sales activity, product returns or price concessions.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

Variable consideration is estimated at the most likely amount that is expected to be earned. Estimated amounts are included in the transaction price to the extent it is probable that a significant reversal of cumulative revenue recognized will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is resolved. Estimates of variable consideration are estimated based upon historical experience and known trends.

7. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated events through March 24, 2025, which is the date that the financial statements were available to be issued.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members' of
Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Columbus, Ohio

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Escape Enterprises, Ltd. (the Company), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statements of operations and members' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2023 and 2022

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations

Escape Enterprises, Ltd. (EEL) franchises independently owned quick service restaurants under the brand name “The Steak Escape.” EEL has approximately 36 franchised restaurants open in 14 states and 3 countries as of December 31, 2023 and 2022. Furthermore, the Company is a majority-owned (96%) subsidiary of Escape Enterprises, Inc. (EEL).

Concentration Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash. The Company places its temporary cash investments with financial institutions. At times, amounts may exceed federally insured limits. The Company’s results of operations are affected by a wide variety of factors, including general economic conditions, the ability to attract new franchisees, and the ability to enter into new markets.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable consists primarily of royalty and marketing fees charged to franchisees based on sales. Interest on past due balances may be charged at 5% above the current prime interest rate. The Company reports trade receivables at net realizable value. The Company recognizes an allowance for losses on accounts receivable in an amount equal to the estimated probable losses net of recoveries. The allowance is based on an analysis of historical bad debt experience, current receivables aging, and the expected future write-offs, as well as an assessment of specific identifiable customer accounts considered risky or uncollectible. The expense associated with the allowance for doubtful accounts is recognized as general and administrative expense. The Company recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts of $40,000 at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Accounts Receivable, Other

Accounts receivable, other consists of various receivables from employees, affiliated entities and others (see Note 2). Management considers all fully collectible.

Allowance for Credit Losses

In June 2016, the FASB issued guidance (FASB ASC 326) which significantly changed how entities will measure credit losses for most financial assets and certain other instruments that aren’t measured at fair value through net income. The most significant change in this standard is a shift from the incurred loss model to the expected loss model. Under the standard, disclosures are required to provide users of the financial statements with useful information in analyzing an entity’s exposure to credit risk and the measurement of credit losses. Financial assets held by the company that are subject to the guidance in FASB ASC 326 were trade accounts receivable.

The Company adopted the standard effective January 1, 2023. The impact of the adoption was not considered material to the financial statements and primarily resulted in new/enhanced disclosures only.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2023 and 2022

Property and Equipment

Leasehold improvements are stated at cost and are depreciated using the straight-line method over the lesser of the life of the lease or the estimated useful life of the assets, which currently range from 5 to 39 years. Furniture and fixtures and equipment are stated at cost and are depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which is 5 years. Depreciation expense from continuing operations for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 was $4,539, respectively.

Management reviews long-lived assets for impairment when circumstances indicate the carrying amount of an asset. If the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable, write-down to fair market values, or external appraisals, as applicable. Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment at the individual asset or the asset group level for which the lowest level of independent cash flows can be identified. No impairment was identified for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Routine expenditures for repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred.

Revenue Recognition Significant Accounting Policies under ASC 606

Royalty Fees

The Company derives its revenues primarily from the collection of royalty fees from franchisees. Revenues are recognized when control of these services is transferred to its customers, in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for those products and services. Sales and other taxes the Company collects concurrent with revenue-producing activities are excluded from revenue. Incidental items that are immaterial in the context of the contract are recognized as expense. The Company does not have any significant financing components as payment is received at or shortly after the point of sale. Costs incurred to obtain a contract will be expenses as incurred when the amortization period is less than a year.

The Company collects a franchise fee of 6% of gross sales (royalty fee) that is charged to the franchisees for the use of the brand name “The Steak Escape” and related system. Under special circumstances, the Company may, at its discretion, reduce the percentage of royalty fees to less than 6%. The royalty fee is recognized as revenue in the same month of the related franchisee’s gross sales. The Company collects a marketing fee of 0.5% of gross sales that is charged to franchisees. Once the amount is collected, it is passed on to Escape Enterprises, Inc. (EEL), the majority owner, which maintains the marketing fund.

Franchise and Transfer fees

The Company also at times executes franchise and development territory agreements for franchise restaurants, which define the terms of the agreement with the franchisee. The Company’s franchise and developmental territory agreements require that franchisees pay an initial, non-refundable fee and a continuing fee based on a percentage of sales. The Company recognizes initial and optional franchise fees and development territory fees as revenue after performing substantially all initial services or conditions required by the franchise agreements, which is generally upon the opening of the restaurant.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2023 and 2022

Deferred revenue (contract liabilities) represents franchise fees which have been received, but for which the prescribed services have not yet been completed. These fees will be recognized as revenue when these services are completed. Management has adopted the practical expedient whereby costs to obtain these contracts are not capitalized.

In addition, the Company periodically sells the limited rights to develop restaurants in certain geographical territories to select franchisees. Fees received, net of related direct costs, are recorded as deferred revenue and recognized as income upon completion of services. An analysis of deferred revenue, net is as follows:

	2023	2022
Balance, beginning of year	$ 0	$ 48,700
Initial deposits received for international development agreements	0	0
Initial franchise fee deposits received	25,000	0
Transfer and renewal fee deposits received	13,108	0
Initial franchise fee revenue recognized for stores opened during year	0	0
Revenue recognized for international development agreements during the year	0	0
Transfer and renewal fee revenue recognized during the year	(38,108)	(48,700)
Balance, end of year	$ 0	$ 0

Advertising

The Company expenses the costs of advertising not covered under the Company's marketing fee assessment at the time the advertising cost is incurred.

Income Taxes

The Company is organized as a partnership and therefore is not subject to federal or state income taxes at the corporate level, but rather such income is included in the members' taxable income. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal and state income taxes in the accompanying financial statements.

The Company accounts for uncertainty in income taxes using the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification 740, Income Taxes. Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the positions will be sustained upon the examination by the tax authorities. A recognized tax position is then measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement. Management believes that there are no uncertain tax positions as of December 31, 2023 and 2022.

The Company's income tax filings are subject to audit by various taxing authorities. In evaluating the Company's activities, the Company believes its tax position is current based on current facts and circumstances.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2023 and 2022

It is the policy of the Company to include in its statements of operations penalties and interest assessed by income taxing authorities. There are no penalties or interest from taxing authorities included in the statements of operations and members' equity for 2023 and 2022.

Taxes Collected from Customers

The Company collected sales tax from its customers on product sales that is remitted to various state governmental authorities when due. The Company's policy is to record taxes collected from customers as a component of accrued expenses on its balance sheets and not in its statements of operations and members' equity.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Leases

The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Right of Use (ROU) assets represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liabilities represent the Company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. Material ROU assets and liabilities are recognized at the commencement date based on the present value of the lease payments over the lease term. Lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise that option. Lease expense for operating lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The Company has elected to recognize payments for short-term leases with a lease term of 12 months or less as an expense as incurred and these leases are not included as lease liabilities or right of use assets on the accompanying balance sheet.

The individual lease contracts do not provide information about the discount rate implicit in the lease. Therefore, the Company has elected to use their average borrowing rate for computing the present value of the lease liabilities.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This new standard increases transparency and comparability among organizations by requiring the recognition of ROU assets and lease liabilities on the statement of financial position. Most prominent among the changes in the standard is the recognition of ROU assets and lease liabilities by lessees for those leases classified as operating leases. Under the standard, disclosures are required to meet the objective of enabling users of financial statements to assess the amount, timing, and uncertainty of cash flows arising from leases.

The Company adopted the requirements of the guidance effective January 1, 2022, and has elected to apply the provisions of this standard to the beginning of the period of adoption for material leases significant to the consolidated financial statements. The Company has elected to adopt the package of practical expedients available in the year of adoption. The Company has elected to adopt the available practical expedient to use hindsight in determining the lease term and in assessing impairment of the Company's ROU assets.

December 31, 2023 and 2022

2. Related Party Transactions

The Company paid approximately $254,000 and $263,000 to EEI for fees and services for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, which is included in general and administrative expenses in the statements of operations and members' equity.

The Company recorded royalties from franchises in which certain shareholders' of EEI have direct financial interests totaling approximately $132,000 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Accounts receivable from affiliated companies, included in accounts receivable and accounts receivable, other on the balance sheets, totaled approximately $140,539 and $28,000 as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

3. Commitments

Operating Leases

Copier Lease

The Company has a 60-month lease for a copy machine, which was entered into in November 2017. In January 2022, this lease was cancelled, and the Company entered into a new 60-month copier lease. As this operating lease is not significant to the financial statements, the Company did not capitalize this lease on the balance sheet.

As of December 31, 2023, the future minimum lease payments (excluding executory costs) under this new copier lease were as follows:

2024	$ 9,792
2025	9,792
2026	9,792

Administrative Facility Lease

In January 2013, the Company entered into a lease with an affiliated corporation that was owned by certain shareholders of EEI for the administrative facility.

During June 2018, the administrative facility was sold to an outside third party (and the lease agreement mentioned above was terminated) and the affiliated corporation purchased a new facility and office space in November 2018. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company and the affiliated corporation are on a month-to-month lease for the new facility and office space. The affiliated corporation charges the Company a monthly lease fee for the use of the office space.

During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company incurred approximately $39,000, respectively, in administrative facility and copier rent costs.

4. Retirement Plan

The Company has a defined contribution 401(k) plan covering substantially all employees. Employer contributions are discretionary. There were no employer contributions in 2023 and 2022.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2023 and 2022

5. Contingencies

From time to time the Company may be subject to lawsuits and other charges from franchisees, guests and employees, which are typical within the industry. In the opinion of management, any open matters will not have a material effect upon the financial position of the Company.

The Company also may, from time to time, place charges and lawsuits against certain franchisees who may have terminated franchisee contracts early, and the Company is entitled to compensation. The ultimate outcomes of these charges cannot be reasonably determined; therefore, no amounts have been recognized for possible collection.

6. Revenue Recognition under ASC 606

DISAGGREGATION OF REVENUE FROM CONTRACTS WITH CUSTOMERS

The following table disaggregates the Company's revenue based on the timing of satisfaction of performance obligations for the years ended December 31:

	2023	2022
Revenue Recognized at a Point in Time:
Royalty Fees	$ 994,840	$ 1,013,585
Revenue Recognized Over Time:
Franchise and Transfer Fees	38,108	48,700
Total Revenue Recognized	$ 1,032,948	$ 1,062,285

Revenue from performance obligations satisfied at a point in time consists of royalty fees from franchisees.

Revenue from performance obligations satisfied over time consists of the franchise and transfer fees from franchisees.

PERFORMANCE OBLIGATIONS

For performance obligations related to the sale of royalty fees, control transfers to the customer at a point in time. Revenues are recognized when control of these services is transferred to its customers, in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for those products and services.

For performance obligations related to franchise and transfer fees, control transfers to the customer over time. The Company recognizes initial and optional franchise fees and development territory fees as revenue after performing substantially all initial services or conditions required by the franchise agreements, which is generally upon the opening of the restaurant.

VARIABLE CONSIDERATION

The nature of the Company's business gives rise to variable consideration, including rebates, allowances, and returns that generally decrease the transaction price that reduces revenue. These variable amounts are generally credited to the customer, based on achieving certain levels of sales activity, product returns or price concessions.

Escape Enterprises, Ltd.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2023 and 2022

Variable consideration is estimated at the most likely amount that is expected to be earned. Estimated amounts are included in the transaction price to the extent it is probable that a significant reversal of cumulative revenue recognized will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is resolved. Estimates of variable consideration are estimated based upon historical experience and known trends.

7. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated events through March 15, 2024, which is the date that the financial statements were available to be issued.
