What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Delaware. Out-of-state arbitration or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Delaware than in your own state.
2. Financial Condition. The franchisor's financial condition, as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21), calls into question the franchisor's ability to provide services and support to you.
3. Sales Performance Requirement. You must maintain minimum sales performance levels. Your inability to maintain these levels may result in loss of any territorial rights you are granted, termination of your franchise, and loss of your investment.
4. Supplier Control. You must purchase all or nearly all of the inventory or supplies that are necessary to operate your business from the franchisor, its affiliates, or suppliers that the franchisor designates, at prices the franchisor designates or they set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchise business.
5. Mandatory minimum payments. You must make minimum royalty or advertising fund payments regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. If so, check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT PURSUANT TO THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW

The State of Michigan prohibits certain unfair provisions that are sometimes in franchise documents. If any of the following provisions are in these franchise documents, the provisions are void and cannot be enforced against you:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in the Michigan Franchise Investment Act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.
 - (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000, the franchisor shall, at the request of a franchisee, arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Franchise Offered

Garage Living Businesses are businesses providing design, supply and installation of residential garage organizers, cabinetry, concrete floor coatings, car lifts, garage doors, garage door operators, renovations services and additional products and services related to residential garage renovations (the “Products and Services”). Our System includes interior design, layout, color scheme, fixtures and furnishings; specific equipment, materials and supplies; methods, uniform standards, specifications and procedures for operations; procedures for management control; training and assistance; and merchandising, advertising and promotional programs, all of which may be changed, improved and further developed by us (the “System”). The System is identified by certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems and indicia of origin, including the mark “Garage Living” as are now designated and together with any other proprietary marks as we may designate in writing in the future for use with the System (the “Proprietary Marks”).

A Garage Living Business in a primary market is operated from a light industrial, commercial or retail space with 3,000 to 4,000 square feet of space total, including approximately 800 to 1,000 square feet for a showroom, 400 to 500 square feet for office space, and the remainder for warehouse space. Your leased space must include sufficient parking for customers and service vehicles, and must have a loading dock or a drive-in door – ideally having both types of doors is optimal. A Garage Living Business in a secondary market is operated from a light industrial or commercial space with 1,000 to 2,000 square feet of space total, including approximately 200 to 600 square feet for office, a portion of which may be used for a small showroom space, and the remainder for warehouse space. Your leased space must include sufficient parking for customers and service vehicles and must have a loading dock or a drive-in door.

We offer you a franchise agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) which gives you the right to establish and operate one Business within an assigned Designated Territory and the right to use the Proprietary Marks and the System solely with the operation of the Franchised Business. Your Business must at all times be under the direct, on-site supervision of a “Designated Operator”. Your Designated Operator must have a 75% ownership interest in you and must have decision making authority with respect to your Business.

Market and Competition

You will provide the Products and Services to residential and commercial customers in your Designated Territory. Your target market includes residential customers with above average income demographics. Your target market does not include do-it-yourself consumers, but you may sell products for consumers to pick up at your Business.

The market for the Products and Services is growing, and you will be competing against other companies that provide similar products and services, including local, regional and national companies, some of which may be franchise systems. The Business may be seasonal, depending on where your Business is located.

Industry Specific Laws

You must comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations applicable to a Garage Living Business, and you may have to obtain certain licenses and/or certifications to operate the Business. The Business may be subject to state and local licensing requirements, permitting and certification laws and ordinances. For example, in certain states franchisees will be required to obtain a state contracting license in a specified class. Also, franchisees may be required to comply with regulations of state home improvement commissions which require the submission of an application evidencing prior experience in the home improvement field, the completion of an exam and/or the payment of fee for a license. In some instances, state contracting and home improvement licenses are only available with proof of several years prior relevant industry experience by an individual applicant or the employee of a corporate applicant. The operation of the Business is affected by OSHA regulations and state and local laws which govern dust collection processes.

You should consult with your attorney concerning those and other local laws and ordinances that may affect the operation of your Franchised Business, as well as the licenses you may need to obtain.

1. "Gross Revenue" means the total amount of all sales and other income (whether sales are of a retail, wholesale or other nature) derived from conducting the Business or any other activities at or from the Premises and otherwise within the Designated Territory, whether or not amounts are collected and whether payment is made by way of cash, credit or otherwise. No allowance shall be made for bad debts. Gross Revenue shall include all sales made by telephone and other electronic means, all sales generated from the Premises and all sales of any kind made in the Designated Territory. Gross Revenue shall not include any sales tax, provided that sales tax is collected by you from customers and provided the amount of the sales tax is in fact paid by you to the applicable governmental authority. If you conduct business in any manner outside of the Designated Territory, any revenue of any kind generated from conducting business outside of the Designated Territory shall be included in Gross Revenue. In jurisdictions where Use Tax is collected on the cost of materials, a calculation will be done to reduce revenue by this amount prior to the submission of a monthly report.

If you do not report your Gross Revenue when required, we may debit your account 120% of the last Royalty and Marketing Fee that we debited. If the Royalty and Marketing Fee we debit are less than the Royalty and Marketing Fee, you actually owe us, once we have been able to determine your true and correct Gross Revenue, we will debit your account for the balance on a day we specify. If the Royalty and Marketing Fee we debit are greater than the Royalty and Marketing Fee you actually owe us, we will credit the excess against the amount we otherwise would debit from your account for the next payment due.

If any state imposes a sales or other tax on the Royalty Fee, then we have the right to collect this tax from you.

2. Businesses owned and operated by us and/or our affiliates may, but are not required to, participate in marketing cooperatives along with our franchisees and if they do participate they will have the same voting rights as our franchisees. No Business (or commonly controlled group of Businesses) will have more than 25% of the total vote on marketing cooperative matters.
3. If we terminate your Franchise Agreement for cause, you must pay us within 15 days after the effective date of termination liquidated damages equal to the average monthly Royalty Fees you paid or owed to us during the 12 months of operation preceding the effective date of termination multiplied by (a) 24 (being the number of months in two full years), or (b) the number of months remaining in the Agreement had it not been terminated, whichever is lower.

In general, none of the expenses listed in the above chart are refundable, except any security deposits you must make may be refundable. We do not finance any portion of your initial investment.

1 Initial Franchise Fee. The initial franchise fee is discussed in Item 5.

2 Rent. If you do not own adequate or appropriate space, you must build or lease the space for your Business. Our estimates assume that you will lease the space for your Business. The typical space for a Garage Living Business in a primary market ranges from 3,000 to 5,000 square feet of space in a light industrial, commercial or retail space. The typical required space for a Garage Living Business in a secondary market ranges from 1,000 to 2,000 square feet in a light industrial, commercial or retail space. Landlords may vary the base rental rate and charge rent based on a percentage of Gross Revenue. In addition to base rent, your lease may require you to pay common area maintenance charges (“CAM Charges”) for your pro rata share of the real estate taxes and insurance, and your pro rata share of other charges. The actual amount you pay under the lease will vary depending on the size of the Business, the types of charges that are allocated to tenants under the lease, your ability to negotiate with landlords and the prevailing rental rates in the geographic region. If you choose to purchase real property on which to build your Business, your initial investment will be higher than what we estimate above. If you purchase real property, we cannot estimate how this purchase will affect your total initial investment.

- 3 Leasehold Improvements. Your leased space will need leasehold improvements to meet our then-current image for all Garage Living Businesses. The leasehold improvements may include flooring, wall covering, and the like, and will include the build-out of your showroom according to our specifications. The actual cost of your leasehold improvements will depend on labor rates for the area in which your Business is located, whether you must use union labor, the condition of the leased premises and how much the premises must be renovated. These costs may vary depending on whether certain of these costs will be incurred by the landlord or through landlord tenant improvement contributions, and the condition of the space before you take possession of the premises. Our estimate does not include any tenant improvement allowance that you may negotiate.
- 4 Furniture and Fixtures. The furniture and fixtures you will need includes basic office furniture, salesmen desks, guest chairs and décor items. You must also include the product displays in your showroom that we require. We estimate the total cost of fixtures and displays for the showroom purchased from our affiliate will be between $20,000 and $30,000 for a primary market and between $5,000 and $10,000 for a secondary market.
- 5 Equipment - The equipment you will need includes concrete grinders, generators, dust collectors, ladders, power tools, hand tools, and the like. Our affiliate has established volume discounts with various equipment suppliers for the grinding equipment. This includes the large grinder and vacuums. The approximate discounted price for this equipment depending on the package chosen ranges from $35,000 to $45,000. Should you choose to lease this equipment through a third party, our affiliate may still facilitate the sale at the discounted prices.
- 6 Vehicle. You must have a service vehicle that must have the lettering, graphics and/or vehicle wrap that we require. Your installation vehicle must be a 16-foot cube truck with an electric lift. The service vehicle is typically a GMC 2500 Savanna or similar and may be new or used. If you purchase or lease a used vehicle, it must be less than three years old and have no visible body damage or rust. Your vehicle must be approved by us before you purchase or lease it.

We recommend leasing or financing the vehicle. If the vehicle is purchased, you would have to pay a substantial amount which could be $50,000 or higher depending upon the vehicle you purchase. Our estimate assumes you will lease or finance the vehicle, and our estimate includes a down payment of $3,000 to $5,000, plus lettering, graphics and/or vehicle wrap of approximately $2,000 to $3,500, plus three months of lease payments at $1,500 to $2,000 per month.
- 7 Computer System. You must have the computer system with the software that we require. Additional information regarding the required computer system is in Item 11.
- 8 Licenses and Permits. Before you open your Franchised Business, you must obtain any required licenses and business permits. You must verify all of the licenses and permits that you need for your Business.
- 9 Professional Fees. You may need legal assistance in forming a corporate entity to purchase the franchise.
- 10 Initial Inventory. Your initial inventory includes materials for projects, hardware and other consumables for project installations, and basic office supplies.

- 11 Insurance. The figures in the chart represent the estimated annual premium for the insurance you must have. You will generally pay your premiums monthly, quarterly or semi-annually. Our insurance requirements are included in Item 8.
- 12 Training Expenses. We will provide our initial training program to you and two additional trainees for no additional fee. If you wish to have additional people attend our initial training program, you must pay our then-current training fee for each additional trainee. Our estimate includes the expenses your three trainees will incur while attending the training program, including travel, lodging, meals and applicable wages. The cost of travel and living expenses will vary depending on the number of people attending training, the distance you must travel and the accommodation you choose.
- 13 Grand Opening Promotional Campaign. You must budget $4,500 for your grand opening promotional campaign and we will plan the campaign with you.
- 14 “Micro-site” Website Development Fee. You must pay us $4,500 for the development of your “micro-site” website that will be designed and deployed for your specific franchised territory.
- 15 Additional Funds. You will need capital to support ongoing expenses, such as payroll, supplies, utilities, Royalty Fees and Marketing Fees, if these costs are not covered by sales revenue for your first three months of operation. We estimate that the amount given will be sufficient to cover ongoing expenses for the start-up phase of the business, which we calculate to be three months, and does not include any sales you may generate during this period. This is only an estimate and there is no guarantee that additional working capital will not be necessary during this start-up phase or after.
- 16 16. Total. We relied upon our Affiliate’s experience in operating a similar business since 2005 when preparing these figures. However, these figures are merely estimates.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Our reputation and goodwill is based on, and can be maintained only by, the sale of high-quality Products and Services and the presentation, packaging, service and sale of those services, products and materials in an efficient and appealing manner. We have developed standards and specifications for various services, products, materials and supplies sold at or used in the operation of our Businesses. You must operate your Business according to these standards. These standards will regulate the types, models and brands of required fixtures, furnishings, equipment, computer hardware and software, signs, materials and supplies to be used in operating your Business, required or authorized equipment, products and services offered to customers and product categories and designated or approved suppliers of these items (which may be limited to or include us).

We will provide you a list of approved products and suppliers. We reserve the right to earn a profit from the sale of these items to our franchisees. Currently our second affiliate, Garage Living Franchise Systems Inc. (Canada) is the sole approved supplier for Wall Organizers, Overhead Storage, GL Signature Cabinetry and GL Premium Cabinetry, GL Tecnica Cabinetry, GL Vantage Cabinetry, and Floortex Coating products. During the fiscal year ending December 31, 2024, our second affiliate generated revenue of $14,720,831 USD from the sale of products to our franchisees. Our second affiliate, Garage Living of Ontario (Formerly Garage Living Inc.) did not earn any revenue from the sale of items to our franchisee during the fiscal year ending December 31, 2024.

Aaron Cash and Daniel Albo own an interest in our first and second affiliates. None of our officers have an ownership interest in any other approved supplier.

If you want to use any product, material or render any service that does not comply with the standards of the System or is to be purchased from a supplier that has not yet been approved, you must first submit a written request for approval of the proposed product or supplier and obtain our approval of the product or supplier before purchasing the product or any items from this supplier. We will, within a reasonable time (within 15 days), notify you in writing (including by e-mail or updates to the Operations Manual) of our decision. We will establish procedures for submitting requests for approval of items and suppliers and may impose limits on the number of approved items and suppliers. Approval of a supplier may be conditioned on requirements relating to product quality, production and delivery capabilities, ability to meet our supply commitments, financial stability, integrity of standards of service, familiarity with our System and ability to negotiate favorable terms for our franchisees. We do not generally make available our criteria for product or supplier approval. You must reimburse the expenses we incur in evaluating the product or supplier you suggest, but not more than $1,000.

We are not obligated to approve any product, material or supplier that you suggest. We reserve the right to disapprove any product, material or supplier if we believe, using our best business judgment, that approval would not be in the best interests of the System. We may also restrict the number of approved suppliers in an effort to standardize our System and to achieve the best prices for all Garage Living Businesses.

All of your required purchases and leases made from us, our affiliates or according to our specifications represent approximately 50% to 55% of your total purchases and leases in connection with the establishment of your Business and approximately 90% to 95% of your overall purchases and leases in operating the Business.

We may negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers, including price terms, for the benefit of all Garage Living Businesses in the System. There are currently no purchasing or distribution cooperatives, but we reserve the right to establish these in the future. We do not provide you with material benefits, such as renewal of the franchise or the grant of additional franchises, based on your purchases of particular products or suppliers or purchases from designated suppliers.

We have the right to collect and retain any and all allowances, rebates, credits, incentives, or benefits (collectively, "Allowances") offered by manufacturers, suppliers, and distributors to you, to us, or to our affiliates, based upon your purchases of products and services from manufacturers, suppliers, and distributors. We or our affiliates will have all of your right, title, and interest in and to any and all of these Allowances. We or our affiliates may collect and retain any or all of these Allowances without restriction (unless otherwise instructed by the manufacturer, supplier, or distributor). During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024, we did not earn any Allowances based on purchases by our franchisees from approved suppliers.

You must purchase all equipment, products and items used or offered for sale at your Business for which we have established standards or specifications solely from suppliers (including manufacturers, distributors and other sources) who demonstrate, to our continuing reasonable satisfaction, the ability to meet our standards and specifications, who possess adequate quality controls and capacity to supply your needs promptly and reliably, and who have been approved by us in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing. In the future, either we or an affiliate may develop and be a supplier of proprietary items that you must purchase for use in the operation of your Business and we reserve the right to earn a profit on sales of these items to our franchisees. We may revoke our approval of particular products or suppliers when we determine, in our sole discretion, that the products or suppliers no longer meet our standards. Notice of revocation of any previously approved product or supplier will provide to you in writing, including e-mail. Upon receipt of the written notice of revocation, you must stop selling any disapproved products and stop purchasing from any disapproved supplier.

You must at all times maintain an inventory of approved supplies sufficient in quantity and variety to be in compliance with the Operations Manual and to provide efficient services to your customers.

We may conduct market research and testing to determine consumer trends and the salability of new products, materials and services. You must cooperate by participating in our market research programs, test marketing new products and services and providing reports and other relevant information regarding marketing research. In connection with any test marketing, you must purchase a reasonable quantity of products to be tested and effectively promote and make a reasonable effort to sell the products, materials and services.

You must select a site that you propose to use for your Business and you must submit to us all information we require to evaluate the site you propose. You may not obtain the site (by lease, sublease or purchase agreement) until the site has been approved by us. We reserve the right to review any lease, sublease or purchase agreement for the approved site before you sign it. In addition, we reserve the right to require you and your landlord to sign our form of Collateral Assignment of Lease, attached to the Franchise Agreement as Schedule K, which permits us to assume your lease in certain circumstances.

You must arrange for blueprints and/or construction plans to be prepared for the build-out of your Business. We reserve the right to designate the architect or design firm that you must use. We will provide you with our requirements for the layout of your Business. Any blueprints or construction plans must be submitted to us for our approval before you may begin construction. Our review is only meant to verify compliance with our standards and presentation of the Proprietary Marks. You must make sure that the plans are in compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances and building codes. You may not open your Business until we have approved it for opening.

You must purchase or lease the computer system with the software that we require, as well as certain equipment needed to install Approved Products. We reserve the right to designate the supplier for the required computer system and any equipment.

You must have an installation vehicle that must have the lettering, graphics and/or vehicle wrap that we require. Your service vehicle must be a 16-foot cube truck with step bumper and pull-out ramp. The service vehicle is typically a GMC 2500 Savanna or Isuzu Diesel or similar and may be new or used. If you purchase or lease a used vehicle, it must be less than three years old and have no visible body damage or rust. Your vehicle must be approved by us before you purchase or lease it.

Any marketing materials that you wish to use and that have not been developed by us or approved by us within the immediately preceding 12-month period must be submitted to us for our review not later before you may use the marketing materials. If we do not notify you that the materials have been approved within 15 days after we receive them, then the materials are deemed not approved. We reserve the right to require you to include certain language in your marketing materials, such as "Franchises Available" and our website address and telephone number.

In addition to the purchases or leases described above, you must obtain and maintain, at your own expense, the insurance coverage that we require. We may regulate the types, amounts, terms and conditions of insurance coverage required for your Business and standards for underwriters of policies providing required insurance coverage. Your insurance must be written by an insurance company authorized to do business in the state where your Business is located. You must provide us with a copy of your insurance certificate and your insurance policies must name us as “hold harmless” and as an additional named insured. The certificate of insurance must be provided to us before you will be permitted to begin operating your Business and must be provided to us upon the renewal of each policy. In addition, we may also regulate one or more of the following: required or impermissible insurance contract provisions; assignment of policy rights to us; periodic verification of insurance coverage that must be furnished to us; our right to obtain insurance coverage at your expense if you fail to do so; our right to defend claims; and similar matters relating to insured and uninsured claims.

You currently must maintain, in the amounts we prescribe, unless otherwise approved in writing, the following insurance coverages: (1) comprehensive general liability insurance with a minimum coverage of $2,000,000 per occurrence; (2) worker’s compensation and employers liability insurance as required by applicable state law; (3) automobile liability insurance with a minimum of $1,000,000 per occurrence for any vehicles used with the Franchised Business; (4) third party liability insurance with a minimum coverage of $1,000,000; (5) property insurance for the leased premises at 100% replacement coverage; (6) any other insurance required by the terms of your lease; and (7) any other insurance that you must have according to your state’s laws and/or regulations. You must also obtain any additional insurance coverages that we may require in the future.

You must maintain all required policies in force during the entire term of the Franchise Agreement and any renewal terms. We may periodically increase or decrease the amounts of coverage required under these insurance policies and require different or additional kinds of insurance at any time, including excess liability insurance, to reflect inflation, identification of new risks, changes in law or standards of liability, higher damage awards, or other relevant changes in circumstances. Each insurance policy must name us (and, if we request, our directors, employees or shareholders) as additional insureds and must provide us with 30 days’ advance written notice of any material modification, cancellation or expiration of the policy. If you fail to obtain the insurance coverages that we require, we may (but are not obligated to) obtain coverage on your behalf. You must reimburse any costs we incur related to obtaining insurance coverage for you, plus a 10% administrative fee.

ITEM 11
FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, Garage Living Franchise Systems USA, Inc. is not required to provide you with any assistance.

Pre-Opening Obligations

Before you open your Business, we will:

1. Approve the location for your Franchised Business and identify the boundaries of your Designated Territory (Franchise Agreement – Section 5.01).
2. Provide you with a design plan for the build-out of your Business, including the showroom (Franchise Agreement – Section 5.01). You must have your architect or design professional adapt our standard design plan for the size and layout of your premises. We reserve the right to designate the architect or design professional you must use. We also must approve of your construction plans before build-out of your Business begins. Our review of your construction plans will only relate to compliance with our requirements and presentation of the Proprietary Marks.
3. Provide an initial training program for up to three people in the operation of a Franchised Business, the cost of which is included in your initial franchise fee (Franchise Agreement – Section 6.01). This training is described in detail later in this Item.
4. Lend you one copy of the Operations Manual after you have completed our initial training program to our satisfaction (Franchise Agreement – Section 8.01(b)). We may provide the Operations Manual to you electronically. This Manual remains our property.
5. Provide you with a Design Plan which includes specifications for the vehicle, equipment, tools, initial inventory and computer system you will need to purchase or lease for the Franchised Business (Franchise Agreement – Section 5.02). We do not provide, purchase, deliver, or install any of these items for you. These items would all be purchased from approved vendors with designs or plans provided by us, and certain inventory items, showroom displays and fixtures must be purchased from us.
6. Plan your grand opening promotional campaign with you (Franchise Agreement – Section 11.01).

Continuing Obligations

During the operation of your Business, we will:

1. If we establish one or more websites accessible through one or more uniform resource locators (“URLs”), we may design and provide for the benefit of your Business a “micro-site” website for the promotion of your Business (Franchise Agreement – Section 8.01 (bb)).
2. Provide guidance and assistance in the operation of your Business. This guidance may be provided in the form of periodic correspondence, including telephone, e-mail or written communications, and periodic visits and will cover topics such as products or services to be offered to customers; improvements and developments in your Business; pricing; administrative, bookkeeping, accounting and inventory control procedures; and operating problems encountered by you (Franchise Agreement – Section 7.01).
3. Provide periodic refresher training (Franchise Agreement – Sections 6.03 and 6.04).

5. Suggest pricing to you for the Products and Services, and we may determine the maximum prices you may charge (Franchise Agreement – Section 8.01(t)). You do not have to accept our suggested pricing but you must comply with any maximum prices we set, if we choose to set a maximum. If you choose to vary your prices from the pricing structure we suggest, we must approve of the prices you set.

6. Hold franchisee conventions at our headquarters or at another location to provide additional training, recertification, and to introduce new products or services. We do not have to hold a convention until we believe it is beneficial to do so (Franchise Agreement – Section 6.04).

8. Periodically introduce new products and/or services that your Franchised Business will offer to your customers (Franchise Agreement – Section 11.04(b)).

9. Administer the Marketing Fund (Franchise Agreement – Section 11.02).

Site Selection and Opening

You must select the site for your Business, and you must obtain our written approval of any proposed site in accordance with our procedures. Our written approval will not be unreasonably withheld if the site meets our minimum qualifications. Within 60 days after you sign the Franchise Agreement, you must submit to us the information we require to evaluate your proposed site. In evaluating a site we may consider the factors we deem material, including demographic characteristics, traffic patterns, parking, the predominant character of the neighborhood, competition within the area, rental obligations, and the site's size, appearance and other physical characteristics. We will have 30 days after receipt of all of the information we need to advise you whether the site is approved. Unless we provide our specific approval of a site, the site is deemed not approved. Our approval only indicates that the site meets our then-current minimum criteria for a Garage Living Business. If you are not able to locate a site within 60 days after you sign the Franchise Agreement, we may either provide you with an extension of this timeframe or we may terminate your Franchise Agreement.

Once we approve a proposed site, you must sign a lease for the site. The terms of your lease must not conflict with the terms of your Franchise Agreement, and the length of the lease should not be longer than the term length of your Franchise Agreement. You must submit the lease to us for our approval before you sign it. At our request, you and your landlord must sign our form of Collateral Assignment of Lease, attached as Schedule K to the Franchise Agreement.

We estimate that between three to six months will elapse from the date you sign the Franchise Agreement to the opening of your Business. Your Business must be opened for business not later than six months after the Franchise Agreement is signed. You may not open your Business for business until: (1) the initial training program we provide has been completed to our satisfaction by all required persons; (2) the initial franchise fee and all other amounts due to us have been paid; (3) you have furnished us with all certificates of insurance required by the Franchise Agreement; (4) you have obtained all required governmental permits, licenses and authorizations necessary for the operation of your Business; (5) your Business has been developed, constructed, equipped and stocked according to our specifications; (6) you are in full compliance with all the terms of the Franchise Agreement; and (7) we have approved your Business to open. Factors that may delay your opening the Franchised Business include shortages of required equipment, delays in delivery, construction delays, and whether you can complete the initial training program to our satisfaction without having to re-take any portion of the training. If your Business is not opened within six months after you sign the Franchise Agreement, we may grant you an extension of this timeframe or we may terminate your Franchise Agreement.

Marketing Fund

We have established a Marketing fund (“Fund”) to promote the System, Franchised Businesses and the Products and Services. You must pay a Marketing Fee in an amount equal to 2% of Gross Revenue each month for a primary market and $1,400 per month for a secondary market. With 30 days’ prior written notice to you, we may increase the Marketing Fee to a maximum of 3% of Gross Revenue for a primary market and up to a maximum of $1,600 for a secondary market. Businesses owned by us and our affiliates may, but are not required to, pay the Marketing Fee into the Fund.

The Fund will be used for national and regional marketing, publicity and promotion relating to our business. We will determine, in our fully unrestricted discretion, the manner in which the Fund will be spent. Some portion of the Fund may be used for creative concept production, marketing surveys, test marketing and related purposes, and social media initiatives. We may use a portion of the Fund for the lead generation of new customers. We have the right to direct all marketing activities with sole discretion over creative concepts, materials and media used, as well as their placement and allocation.

We also have the right to determine, in our sole discretion, the composition of all geographic and market areas for the implementation of these marketing and promotional activities. The Fund is intended to maximize general public recognition in all media of the Proprietary Marks and patronage of Franchised Businesses and we have no obligation to make sure that expenditures of the Fund in or affecting any geographic area are proportionate or equivalent to payments of the Marketing Fee by franchisees operating in that geographic area, or that any Franchised Business will benefit directly or in proportion to the Marketing Fees paid for the development of advertising and marketing materials or the placement of advertising. We may use up to 25% of the Fund for marketing that is principally a solicitation for the sale of franchises.

We have the right to reimburse ourselves out of the Fund for the total costs (including indirect costs such as salaries for our employees who devote time and effort to Fund related activities) of developing, producing and distributing any marketing materials and collecting the Marketing Fee (including attorneys’, auditors’ and accountants’ fees and other expenses incurred in connection with collecting any Marketing Fee).

Funds from the Marketing Fees paid will be kept separate and distinct and will be accounted for separately from our other funds. These funds will not be used to defray any of our general operating expenses, except as described in the paragraph above. Any sums paid to the Fund that are not spent in the year they are collected will carry over to the following year. We will prepare, and furnish to you upon a written request, an annual, unaudited statement of funds collected, and costs incurred.

You authorize us to collect for a deposit into the Marketing Fund any advertising or promotional monies or credits offered by any supplier based upon your purchases from that supplier. Any advertising or promotional monies or credits we collect from any supplier based upon your purchases will not count toward your required payment of the Marketing Fee.

In the fiscal year ending December 31, 2024, 100% of the 2% marketing fund was spent on digital marketing programs. The fund allocates a fixed amount per month per franchisee to cover SEO, PPC Management, Website Maintenance and a digital reputation management program in addition to national marketing programs. Any contribution over this fixed amount is allocated to local digital marketing budgets. In the fiscal year ending December 31, 2024, 56.73% of all Marketing Fund dollars collected were redirected to local digital marketing campaigns, 31.85% was directed to the fixed expenses to manage the digital marketing program and 11.42% of funds were allocated to national marketing initiatives.

Advisory Councils

We may establish one or more advisory councils to advise us on matters relating to the System, marketing, new products and services, or other matters. If we establish an advisory council, members will include our representatives and franchisee representatives. The franchisee representatives may be selected by us or may be selected by other franchisees. If formed, the advisory council will act in an advisory capacity only and will not have decision-making authority. We will have the right to form, merge, change or dissolve any advisory council. If you participate on an advisory council, you will pay all of your expenses related to your participation, such as travel and living expenses you incur to attend council meetings. In the year ending 2023 Garage Living had one Franchise Advisory Council consisting of six (6) franchisees/designated operators. The council met two times in person and two times by video conference. The council will be rotating members each year and will continue to meet quarterly.

Local Marketing

You must conduct local marketing to promote your Franchised Business in your Designated Territory and you must spend 6% of Gross Revenue each month for local marketing during your first year of operation. After your first year of operation, we may adjust the amount you must spend for local marketing based on your individual circumstances, but the amount requires you to spend will not be more than 6% of Gross Revenue. If we choose to reduce a franchisee's local marketing requirement based on that franchisee's individual circumstances, we are not required to grant you a similar reduction.

Any marketing or promotional materials produced by you or on your behalf, or that we have not approved of within the preceding 12-month period, may not be used until they have been approved of by us. You must submit the proposed materials to us before you intend to use them, and we will have 15 days to notify you whether the materials are approved. If we do not notify you within this 15-day period that the materials are approved, then they are deemed not approved. Any marketing materials submitted to us for our review will become our property and there will be no restriction on our use or distribution of these materials. You must periodically provide us with verification of all expenditures for local marketing and promotion within 30 days after we request it.

All marketing you conduct must include the trademark and/or copyright symbols we specify. We reserve the right to require you to include certain language in your marketing, such as "Franchises Available" and our website address and telephone number. You must report to us any misuse or unauthorized use of any promotional or advertising materials of which you become aware.

While you may place advertisements in printed media and on television and radio that are targeted to customers and prospective customers located within your Designated Territory, you will not be deemed to be in violation of the Franchise Agreement if those advertisements, because of the natural circulation of the printed media or reach of television and radio, are viewed by prospective customers outside of your Designated Territory. You may not directly solicit customers outside of your Designated Territory.

As part of any local marketing initiatives you may undertake, an important method to market the Business is through appearances at "home shows", "car shows" and other similar type shows which may occur within your Designated Territory. You must determine if, where and when these shows may be taking place within your Designated Territory, and you must use your best efforts to participate in these shows. Any costs you incur to participate in these shows will be applied against your annual local marketing requirement.

We reserve the right to take over and conduct your local marketing. If we do this, the marketing may be carried out for the Business itself and/or in co-operation with marketing being conducted by us for other businesses using the System and the Proprietary Marks (whether operated by us, an affiliate or another of our franchisees) in your Designated Territory and/or a regional market area as designated by us. If we take over your local marketing, we shall have no liability or obligation to you with respect to the conduct of local marketing for you, and all costs are payable by you and shall be paid immediately upon receipt of an invoice. We have no obligation to spend any amount on advertising in your area or Designated Territory.

Cooperative Marketing

We may form a marketing cooperative for an area where there are two or more Franchised Businesses, or we may approve of the formation of a marketing cooperative by our franchisees. If a cooperative is established for an area that includes your Designated Territory, you must become a member of the cooperative and contribute to the cooperative that amount agreed upon by the majority of the cooperative members at the times agreed upon by the majority and abide by the cooperative's rules. If the cooperative will operate from written governing documents, you may review those documents before you join the cooperative. Any amount that you contribute to a cooperative will count toward your local marketing requirement, but if the amount you contribute to a cooperative is less than the amount you must spend on local marketing you must still spend the difference locally. Combined, you will not spend more than 3%-6% of Gross Revenue. If we or our affiliates have a Business in the cooperative's area, that Business may, but is not obligated to, participate in the cooperative on the same basis as our franchisees.

Cooperatives are not required to prepare annual or periodic financial statements, but if they are prepared, they may be reviewed by you. We will have the power to require cooperatives to be formed, changed, dissolved or merged. Each Business in the cooperative will have one vote on all cooperative matters, but no one Business or commonly controlled group of Businesses may have more than 25% of the overall vote. If a Business owned by us or our affiliates participates in a cooperative, it will have the same voting rights as franchisee members.

Grand Opening Promotional Campaign

You must budget $3,500 for your grand opening promotional campaign and we will plan the campaign with you.

Website

We alone may establish, maintain, modify or discontinue all internet, worldwide web and electronic commerce activities pertaining to the System. We may establish one or more websites accessible through one or more uniform resource locators ("URLs") and, if we do, we may design and provide for the benefit of your Business a "micro-site" website for the promotion of your Business. The development cost for your "micro-site" website is $4,500. If we establish one or more websites or other modes of electronic commerce and if we provide a "micro-site" website for the promotion of your Business, you must routinely provide us with updated copy, photographs and news stories about your Business suitable for posting on your "micro-site" website. We reserve the right to specify the content, frequency and procedure you must follow for updating your "micro-site" website.

Any websites or other modes of electric commerce that we establish or maintain may – in addition to advertising and promoting the products and services available at Garage Living Businesses – also be devoted in part to offering Garage Living franchises for sale and be used by us to exploit the electronic commerce rights which we alone reserve.

In addition to these activities, we may also establish an intranet through which downloads of operations and marketing materials, exchanges of franchisee e-mail, System discussion forums and system-wide communications (among other activities) can be done. You may not maintain your own website; otherwise maintain a presence or advertise on the internet or any other mode of electronic commerce in connection with your Business; establish a link to any website we establish at or from any other website or page; or at any time establish any other website, electronic commerce presence or URL which in whole or in part incorporates “Garage Living” name or any name confusingly similar to the Proprietary Marks without our prior written consent.

You are not permitted to promote your Business or use any of the Proprietary Marks in any manner on any social or networking websites, such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram, FourSquare or Twitter, without our prior written consent. We will control all social media initiatives. You must comply with our System standards regarding the use of social media in your Business’s operation, including prohibitions on your and the Business’s employees posting or blogging comments about the Business or the System, other than on a website established or authorized by us (“social media” includes personal blogs, common social networks like Facebook and MySpace, professional networks like LinkedIn, live-blogging tools like Twitter, virtual worlds, file, audio and video-sharing sites, and other similar social networking or media sites or tools). We will provide access to branded social media pages/handles/assets, and you must update these regularly. We reserve the right to conduct collective/national campaigns via local social media on your behalf.

We alone will be, and at all times will remain, the sole owner of the copyrights to all material which appears on any website we establish and maintain, including any and all material you may furnish to us for your “micro-site” website.

Computer System

You must purchase the computer system we require, and our current specifications are included in our Operations Manual. The computer system you will need includes a Windows based computer with the following software: Cabinetvision. With our prior written consent only, you may use the existing computer system that you own. You may purchase your computer system from the vendor of your choice, unless we designate that you must use an approved supplier. Your computer system will provide you with the following functions: accounting, reporting, customer relationship management, inventory management, and project design. You must at all times maintain a high-speed internet connection for your computer system, such as a T-1 line, DSL or cable modem. We expect that the initial cost for your computer system, including all required software, will be between $5,500 and $7,500.

We strongly recommend, but do not require, that you have a maintenance contract for your computer system. If you choose to have a maintenance contract, we estimate that the cost will be up to $1,500 per year. You will also have expenses to keep your software current, which we expect will be $500 to $1,000 annually.

In addition to the upfront investment in the computer system, you will be required to pay recurring monthly software licensing fees for accounting, CRM (customer relationship management), quoting and inventory as part of the GLMS platform. We expect the costs of this ongoing software licensing fees to be $3,600 - $5,000 annually. This cost will be applicable in both primary and secondary markets but will vary based on the size of the business and number of users that require access to the system.

We may require you, during the term of your Franchise Agreement, to update and/or upgrade your computer system and software, or purchase new computer hardware or software, for use in your Franchised

Business. There is no contractual limitation on either our ability to require you to purchase updates, upgrades or new components or the cost of any updates, upgrades or new components. Neither we nor any affiliate of ours will provide you with any maintenance, updates or upgrades for any other part of your computer system.

We will have independent access to the information and data you collect at all times. There are no limits regarding the information and data we may obtain from your computer system. There are no contractual limits on our access to information and data on your system. All data will become our property. You must make sure that we have access to your computer system and its data at all times.

Confidential Operations Manual

You must operate your Business according to the standards, methods, policies and procedures specified in the Manual. One copy of the Manual is loaned to you by us for the term of the Franchise Agreement after you complete our initial training program to our satisfaction. The Manual may be in paper or electronic format.

You must treat the Manual, any other of our manuals which are used in the operation of your Business, and the information in them as confidential, and must use all reasonable efforts to maintain this information as secret and confidential. You must not copy, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce these materials, in whole or in part, or otherwise give them to any unauthorized person. The Manual will remain our sole property and must be kept in a secure place at your Business.

We may revise the contents of the Manual, and you must comply with each new or changed standard. You must make sure that the Manual is kept current at all times. In the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy maintained by us at our home office will be controlling.

The Table of Contents of the Confidential Operations Manual is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit F. Our Confidential Operations Manual includes approximately 312 pages.

Training Programs

Before your Franchised Business opens, we will provide you and up to two additional people (for a total three trainees) with a mandatory initial training program in the operation of your Business, which must be completed to our satisfaction not later than 30 days before your Business opens. Our training program is conducted at our headquarters in Vaughan, Ontario, Canada, at one of our Affiliate's businesses in Ontario, Canada or another location that we designate. The cost to provide the initial training program for the first three trainees is included in the initial franchise fee. If you wish to send additional trainees to our training program, you must pay our then-current training fee. You must also pay for all costs of travel, food, lodging, wages and other incidental expenses incurred by you and your trainees. (Franchise Agreement – Section 6.01.) Our training program lasts for approximately two weeks and must be completed to our satisfaction by all trainees. If you or your Designated Operator fail to complete the initial training program to our satisfaction, we may offer you or your Designated Operator the opportunity to re-take the training program, at your expense, or we may terminate your Franchise Agreement. In addition to the training that will be conducted at our headquarters, a third week of training will be provided at your Business immediately before it opens for business. This last week of training will ensure that all of the software systems, equipment and operating procedures are established for the three individuals that attended the head office training, in addition to any staff at your location.

We do not have a set schedule for offering our training program. The training program will be provided on an as-needed basis as new franchisees enter the System and new Franchised Businesses are scheduled to open. We reserve the right to train multiple franchisees and their trainees at any one session. We also reserve the right to modify our training program based on the individual needs and/or experience of a trainee.

The materials we use in our training program include our Operations Manual and any other materials that we believe will be beneficial to our franchisees in the training process. We project the following training schedule:

TRAINING PROGRAM

Subject	Hours of Online Learning	Hours of Classroom Training	Hours of Hands-on Training	Location
Business Planning	7	7	0	Vaughan/Your Business Location
Sales & Product Knowledge	4	4	15	Vaughan/Your Business Location
Administration/Accounting	20	2	2	Vaughan/Your Business Location
Marketing	0	3	0	Vaughan, ON
Installation	0	5	35	Vaughan, ON
In Market Support	0	0	30	Your Business Location

Our training program is conducted by Gary Distefano Jr. Nicolas Latina, Kevin Lamb, Aaron Cash, Sue Hall, Sandy Liu Daniel Albo, Daniele Chiarlitti, and others. The minimum experience of the instructors in the field that is relevant to the subject taught and our or our Affiliate's operations is from 5 to 25 years.

We reserve the right to require you and certain of your employees to attend refresher training at a location determined by us. We may designate that attendance at refresher training is mandatory. We do not charge a fee for refresher training, but you must pay all expenses you and your trainees incur while attending any refresher training courses, including travel, lodging, meals and applicable wages.

We reserve the right to hold a meeting or convention of our franchisees, which may be held on a regional or national basis. We may specify that attendance at any franchisee meeting is mandatory unless the absence is excused by us. We may use a franchisee meeting to discuss new products or services, to discuss concerns with our franchisees, and/or to provide additional training. We will determine the location of the franchisee meeting, but we will not designate an unreasonably expensive location. We do not charge a separate fee for the franchisee meeting, but you must pay all expenses that you and your attendees incur, including travel, lodging, meals and applicable wages.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

The Franchise Agreement grants you the right to operate your Business only within a Designated Territory, which will be designated in Schedule B to the Franchise Agreement (“Designated Territory”). This is your exclusive territory. Your Designated Territory includes an area that contains a minimum of 75,000 and a maximum of 170,000 qualified households. Qualified Households are households that are determined by household income, home values as they relate to the community, postal codes, shopping patterns, age of occupants, and other factors. A secondary market territory contains a minimum of 25,000 and maximum of 75,000 qualified households

There are minimum gross sales, market penetration or other contingencies that you must meet to maintain your interest in your Designated Territory. If you operate a primary market, you must meet the following average Gross Revenue amounts during the term of your Franchise Agreement:

Period	Average Gross Revenue
First Year of Operation	$50,000 per month
Second Year of Operation	$83,000 per month
Third Year of Operation	$125,000 per month
Fourth Year of Operation	$166,000 per month
Fifth Year of Operation	$208,000 per month

If you operate a secondary market, you must meet the following average Gross Revenue amounts during the term of your Franchise Agreement:

Period	Average Gross Revenue
First Year of Operation	$30,000 per month
Second Year of Operation	$40,000 per month

If you do not meet the average Gross Revenue requirement the first time, you must take the remedial action that we require, which may include additional on-site training at your expense, additional local advertising or other measures, and you will have three months to achieve the required average Gross Revenue. If you do not meet the average Gross Revenue requirement a second time, we may reduce the size of your Designated Territory and we may require the additional remedial actions described above. If you do not meet the average Gross Revenue requirement a third time, we may terminate your Franchise Agreement.

You may not provide the Products and Services outside of your Designated Territory unless that customer is in an area that is not assigned to a franchisee. If you do provide Products and Services outside of your Designated Territory, then when the area is sold to another franchisee you must stop providing Products and Services to those customers. Franchisees are encouraged to participate in referral of business from adjoining territories.

You may relocate your Business only with our prior written approval and if you are in compliance with your Franchise Agreement. We will use our then-current site selection criteria to evaluate the new site for your Business that you propose. If we permit you to relocate your Business we may require you to sign a new Franchise Agreement (with a term equal to the remaining term under your original Franchise Agreement), but you will not have to pay a new initial franchise fee.

We (and any affiliates that we periodically might have) have the right:

- (1) To establish and operate, and grant rights to other franchise owners to establish and operate, Garage Living Businesses or similar businesses at any locations anywhere outside of your Designated Territory and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate;
- (2) To sell services and products identical or similar to, or dissimilar from, those your Business sells, whether identified by the Proprietary Marks or other trademarks or service marks through alternative distribution channels (as defined below), anywhere outside of your Designated Territory;
- (3) To purchase or otherwise acquire the assets or controlling ownership of one or more businesses identical or similar to your Business (and/or franchise, license, and/or similar agreements for these businesses), some or all of which might be located anywhere;
- (4) To be acquired (regardless of the form of transaction) by a business identical or similar to Garage Living Businesses, even if the other business operates, franchises and/or licenses competitive businesses near your Business; and
- (5) To engage in any other business activities not expressly prohibited by the Franchise Agreement.

You may offer and sell the Products and Services and related products only from your Business and within your Designated Territory. You may not engage, without our prior written approval, in promotional activities or sell any products or services, whether directly or indirectly, through or on the Internet, the World Wide Web, or any other similar proprietary or common carrier electronic delivery system; through catalogs or other mail order devices sent or directed to customers or prospective customers located anywhere without our prior written approval; or by telecopy or other telephonic or electronic communications, including toll-free numbers, directed to or received from customers or prospective customers located anywhere. While you may place advertisements in printed media and on television and radio that are targeted to customers and prospective customers located within your Designated Territory, and you will not be deemed to be in violation of the Franchise Agreement if those advertisements, because of the natural circulation of the printed media or reach of television and radio, are viewed by prospective customers outside of your Designated Territory, you may not make any sales or deliver any products to customers located outside of your Designated Territory unless the customer is located in an area where there is not another Garage Living Business in operation. You may not directly solicit customers outside of your Designated Territory. You have no options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises. You are not permitted to sell any products at wholesale. The boundaries of your Designated Territory will not change during the term of your Franchise Agreement unless you fail to meet the average Gross Revenue requirements described above.

We and our affiliates may sell products and services under the Proprietary Marks within and outside your Designated Territory through any method of distribution other than a dedicated Garage Living Business, including sales through channels of distribution such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing or other direct marketing sales (together, “alternative distribution channels”). You may not use alternative distribution channels to make sales outside or inside your Designated Territory. We intend to forward all the leads generated from our Website to the Franchised Business closest to the customer. We will own all the leads generated from our Website.

If we choose to establish an on-line store or e-commerce business and if we receive orders for products and/or services placed through our website or other alternative distribution channels, then we or one of our affiliates will fulfill the order and you will not be entitled to any portion of the revenue from this order, even if the order originates from or is delivered to an address within your Designated Territory.

Except for the Businesses owned and operated by our affiliates, we have not established other franchised or company-owned Businesses or another distribution channel selling or leasing similar products or services under a different trademark. We describe earlier in this Item 12 what we may do anywhere.

As part of the process of renewing your Franchise Agreement, we reserve the right to re-evaluate your then-existing Designated Territory according to certain demographics, including population and number of households. Since your Designated Territory includes a certain minimum population and number of households, your Designated Territory under the Successor Franchise Agreement will be modified to accommodate shifts and changes in these demographics. Our intent is to make the target demographics of your successor Designated Territory similar to the target demographics of your original Designated Territory. A re-evaluation of your Designated Territory may result in your successor Designated Territory being smaller or larger than your original Designated Territory.

ITEM 13 TRADEMARKS

We grant to you the right to use certain trademarks, service marks and other commercial symbols in connection with the operation of your business under the Franchise Agreement. Our Affiliate, Garage Living of Ontario Inc., has registered the following principal marks on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”):

Proprietary Mark	Registration Date	Registration Number	Register
Garage Living (word mark)	4/5/2016	4,932,779	Principal
Garage Living (logo mark)	4/5/2016	4,932,780	Principal
OPEN UP TO AN ORGANIZED GARAGE (word mark)	3/29/2016	4,927,853	Principal

Our Affiliate intends to file all required documents to maintain its interests in and rights to the Proprietary Marks. We have filed all the required affidavits.

There are no currently effective determinations of the USPTO, the trademark administrator of this state or any court, nor is there any pending interference, opposition, or cancellation proceeding, nor any pending material litigation involving the Proprietary Marks which may be relevant to their use in this state or in any other state.

There are no agreements currently in effect which limit our right to use or to license others to use the Proprietary Marks, except for the perpetual, non-cancelable trademark license agreement between us and our Affiliate dated December 4, 2014.

You must promptly notify us of any suspected unauthorized use of the Proprietary Marks, any challenge to the validity of the Proprietary Marks, or any challenge to our ownership of, our right to use and to license others to use, or your right to use, the Proprietary Marks. We have the sole right to direct and control any administrative proceeding or litigation involving the Proprietary Marks, including any settlement. We have the right, but not the obligation, to take action against uses by others that may constitute infringement of the Proprietary Marks. We may defend you against any third-party claim, suit or demand arising out of your use of the Proprietary Marks. If we, in our sole discretion, determine that you have used the Proprietary Marks in accordance with the Franchise Agreement, the cost of the defense, including the cost of any judgment or settlement, will be borne by us. If we determine that you have not used the Proprietary Marks in accordance with the Franchise Agreement, the cost of the defense, including the cost of any judgment or settlement, will be yours. In the event of any litigation relating to your use of the Proprietary Marks, you must sign any and all documents and do the acts as may, in our opinion, be necessary to carry out the defense or prosecution, including becoming a nominal party to any legal action. Except if this litigation is the result of your use of the Proprietary Marks in a manner inconsistent with the terms of your Agreement, we will reimburse you for your out-of-pocket costs in doing these acts.

There are no infringing uses actually known to us that could materially affect your use of the Proprietary Marks in this state or elsewhere.

We reserve the right to substitute different proprietary marks for use in identifying the System and the businesses operating under it, at our sole discretion, and you must incorporate any changed or substitute proprietary marks at your expense. We will have no obligation or liability to reimburse you for any costs you may incur as a result of any change or substitution.

ITEM 14 PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

Patents and Copyrights

We do not have an ownership interest in any patent or copyright that is material to the franchise. You do not receive the right to use an item covered by a patent or copyright, but you can use the proprietary and confidential information that is in our Operations Manual. The Operations Manual is described in Item 11. Although we have not filed an application for copyright registration for the Operations Manual, we claim a copyright and the information in it is proprietary and confidential. You must also promptly tell us when you learn about unauthorized use of this proprietary and confidential information. We are not obligated to take any action, but we will respond to this information as we think appropriate.

Confidential Information

You must not, during the term of your Agreement or after the Agreement expires or is terminated, communicate, divulge or use for the benefit of any other person, partnership, association, or corporation any confidential information, knowledge or know-how concerning the methods of operation of the Franchised Business which may be communicated to you or which you may learn because of your operation under the terms of your Franchise Agreement. Confidential information includes System standards, market research, advertising and promotional campaigns, approved suppliers, operating results of Businesses, the negotiated terms of your Agreement with us, the Operations Manual, graphic designs and other intellectual property, and your customer list. You may divulge this confidential information only to those of your employees who have access to and who operate your Business. Any and all information, knowledge, know-how, techniques and other data which we designate as confidential will be deemed confidential for purposes of the Agreement.

At our request, you must have your Designated Operator and any personnel having access to any of our confidential information sign agreements that say that they will maintain the confidentiality of information they receive in connection with their employment by you at your Business. The agreements must be in a form satisfactory to us, including specific identification of us as a third-party beneficiary of the covenants with the independent right to enforce them and that they prohibit any direct or indirect ownership in a competing business.

Our ownership Rights

Any improvements and/or techniques and/or information developed by you or your employees during the Term of the Franchise Agreement and relating to the System or the Business, whether developed separately or with us, shall be considered modifications to the System, all of which shall become our property and/or property of our Affiliate.

ITEM 15 OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

You must attend and complete our initial training program, and you must devote full time and best efforts to the management and operation of the Franchised Business. If you own multiple Businesses, then each Franchised Business must have on-premises supervision of a Designated Operator who has satisfactorily completed our training program and who has been approved by us. Even if you have a Designated Operator oversee the daily operation of your Business, you must make sure that the Business is operated in compliance with the terms of your Franchise Agreement and the Operations Manual. Your Designated Operator must have a 75% ownership interest in you.

If you have a Designated Operator supervise your Business, the Designated Operator and other key employees must sign an agreement not to compete with businesses under the System while employed by you and for two years after their employment ends, and an agreement not to reveal confidential information they learned during their employment with you.

If you are a corporation, limited liability company, or partnership, your owners must personally guarantee your obligations under the Franchise Agreement and must be bound personally by every contractual provision, whether containing monetary or non-monetary obligations, including the covenant not to compete. If we do not require one of your owners to sign the full Guaranty, that owner still must comply with all non-monetary obligations, including the covenant not to compete, as if he or she were the franchise owner.

ITEM 16 RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must use the Business solely for the operation of the Franchised Business. You must keep your Business open and in normal operation for the minimum hours and days as we specify, subject to applicable law. You must not use or permit the use of the Business for any other purpose or activity at any time without first obtaining our written consent. You must operate the Franchised Business in strict conformity with the methods, standards and specifications we may require in the Operations Manual or in writing. You must not change the standards, specifications and procedures without our prior written consent.

You must sell or offer for sale only those products and those services that we have approved for sale in writing; you must sell or offer for sale all types of services and products specified by us; you may not change our standards and specifications without our prior written consent; and you must stop selling and offering for sale any services or products which we may, in our discretion, disapprove in writing at any time. We have the right to change the types of authorized goods and services and there are no limits on our right to make changes.

The System may be periodically supplemented, improved or modified by us. You must comply with all of our reasonable requirements in that regard, including offering and selling new or different Products and Services as specified by us. If you develop products or services for your Business that we believe will benefit the System generally, you must, at our request, assign your rights to these products or services to us.

We may suggest pricing to you for the Products and Services, and we may determine the maximum prices you may charge. You do not have to accept our suggested pricing, but you must comply with any maximum prices we set. If you choose to vary your prices from the pricing structure we suggest, we must approve of the prices you set.

You are restricted by the Franchise Agreement, the Operations Manual and any other practice or custom with respect to the Products and Services which you may offer, which must be approved by us.

For a description of your restrictions on some purchases, see Item 8 of this Disclosure Document. For a description of your restriction on the customers whom you may solicit and service, see Item 12 of this Disclosure Document.

PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchise.

ITEM 19
FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC’s Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned Businesses, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing business you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

This Item contains a historical financial performance representation of our U.S. franchised operations, which opened on December 31, 2024, our fiscal year end.

As of December 31, 2024, 35 franchise business operations operated 41 U.S. franchise territories in the system, including 2 corporately owned territories operated as 1 franchise business operation.

The table below represents data for 2024 Average Annual Gross Sales, Average Annual Costs of Goods Sold, Average Annual Gross Profit and Average Labor Costs of 29 franchise business operations that operate 37 territories that had been open and operating for a full 12 months ending December 31, 2024. In 2024, 3 additional franchise operations were open for less than 12 months ending December 31, 2024. We have excluded the performance of 3 non-conforming franchise operations. This data also excludes our franchise operations and our single corporately owned operation in Canada.

Note 3 – “Cost of Goods Sold” is the total cost of materials, freight, inventory adjustments, use tax, consumables and supplies expensed to provide the products/services resulting in the generation of gross sales. This percentage is a blended average of all product categories sold under the trademark.

Note 4 – “Labor Costs” is the total cost of labor – direct and indirect required to generate gross revenue. This percentage excludes the amount/percentage drawn by the owner of the franchise regardless of their role in the operation.

Note 5 – “Gross Margin” average gross margin is the Average Gross Sales less the Average Cost of Goods Sold and the Labor Costs.

Note 6 – “Average Annual Growth Rate” includes the 25 business operations that were open and operating for a full 12 months in the previous year ending December 31, 2023, excluding 6 units not operating for a full 12 months ending December 31, 2023 and the 4 non-conforming units.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, we do not make any representations about a franchisee’s future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised Businesses. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing Business, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that Business. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor’s management by contacting Aaron Cash at 201 Chrislea Road, Vaughan, Ontario, Canada L4L 8N6 and (905) 856-7175, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

5. Neither the franchisor, any person or franchise broker in Item 2 of the Disclosure Document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 79a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.
6. The Franchise Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur in Delaware with the costs being borne by the franchisee and franchisor. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
7. The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of Delaware. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.
8. You must sign a general release if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporation Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
9. THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.
10. The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
11. OUR WEBSITE, www.garageliving.com, HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION at www.dfpi.ca.gov.

12. The Antitrust Law Section of the Office of the California Attorney General views maximum price agreements are per se violations of the Cartwright Act.
13. Franchisee must check the California Code of Regulations to ensure compliance with Title 8 regulations for Spray Coating Operations in residential garages.
14. The interest rate shall not exceed 10% annually.
15. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchise in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
16. The Department has determined that we, the franchisor, have not demonstrated we are adequately capitalized and/or that we must rely on franchise fees to fund our operations. The Commissioner has imposed a fee deferral condition, which requires that we defer the collection of all initial fees from California franchisees until we have completed all of our pre-opening obligations and you are open for business. For California franchisees who sign a development agreement, the payment of the development and initial fees attributable to a specific unit in your development schedule is deferred until that unit is open.
17. The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.
18. For franchisees operating outlets located in California, the California Franchise Investment Law and the California Franchise Relations Act will apply regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the Franchise Agreement or any amendment thereto or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
19. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
20. Section 20.02 of the Franchise Agreement is deleted in its entirety as it violates California Corporations Code sections 31521 and 31512.1.

ADDENDUM REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Illinois law governs the agreements between the parties to this franchise.

Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act provides that any provision in the franchise agreement which designates jurisdiction or venue outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration outside of Illinois.

Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act provides that any condition, stipulation, or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

Your right upon termination and non-renewal of a franchise agreement are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

In Illinois, payment of Initial Franchise Fees owed to Franchisor/affiliate will be deferred until Franchisor has met its initial obligations to franchisee, and franchisee has commenced doing business. This financial assurance requirement was imposed by the Office of the Illinois Attorney General due to Franchisor's financial condition.

DISCLOSURE REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchises.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than thirty (30) days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than five (5) years, and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least six (6) months' advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) Failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then-current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.
 - (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000, franchisee has the right to request an escrow arrangement.

4. The following is added to the end of Item 5:

ADDENDUM REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

This addendum to the Disclosure Document and Franchise Agreement effectively amends and revises said documents as follows:

1. Item 17(c) of the Disclosure Document and Sections 4 and 16 of the Franchise Agreement are hereby amended to indicate that a franchisee shall not be required to sign a general release.
2. Covenants not to compete are generally considered unenforceable in the State of North Dakota, in accordance with Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. Item 17(r) of the Disclosure Document and Section 13 of the Franchise Agreement are amended accordingly.
3. Item 6 and Item 17(i) of the Disclosure Document and Section 15 of the Franchise Agreement requires the franchisee to consent to termination or liquidated damages. Since the Commissioner has determined this to be unfair, unjust and inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, these provisions are hereby deleted in each place they appear in the Disclosure Document and Franchise Agreement used in North Dakota.
4. Item 17(u) of the Disclosure Document and Section 20 of the Franchise Agreement are amended to provide that arbitration shall be held at a site that is agreeable to all parties.
5. Item 17(v) of the Disclosure Document and the provisions of Section 20 of the Franchise Agreement which require jurisdiction of courts in Delaware are deleted.
6. Item 17(w) of the Disclosure Document and Section 20 of the Franchise Agreement are amended to indicate that the agreements are to be construed according to the laws of the State of North Dakota.
7. Apart from civil liability as set forth in Section 51-19-12 N.D.C.C., which is limited to violations of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law (registration and fraud), the liability of the franchisor to a franchisee is based largely on contract law. Despite the fact that those provisions are not contained in the franchise investment law, those provisions contain substantive rights intended to be afforded to North Dakota residents. Therefore, North Dakota franchisees will not be required to waive their rights under North Dakota law.
8. The provisions of Section 20 of the Franchise Agreement which require a franchisee to consent to (1) a waiver of trial by jury and (2) a waiver of exemplary and punitive damages are contrary to Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law and are hereby deleted.
9. The provisions of Section 20 of the Franchise Agreement which require a franchisee to consent to a limitation of claims are hereby amended to state that the statute of limitations under North Dakota law applies.

“A provision in a franchise agreement restricting jurisdiction or venue to a forum outside of this state or requiring the application of the laws of another state is void with respect to a claim otherwise enforceable under this Act.”

1. The following statement is added to the Special Risks Page:

Estimated Initial Investment. The franchisee will be required to make an estimated initial investment ranging from $221,750 to $305,000. This amount exceeds the franchisor's stockholder's equity as of December 31, 2020, which is $(31,078).

2. The following statement is added to Item 5:

3. Additional Disclosure: The following statements are added to Item 17.h:

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him under the franchise. If any provision of the Franchise Agreement involves the use of undue influence by the franchisor to induce a franchisee to surrender any rights given to him under the franchise, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND RELATED AGREEMENTS

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

The collection of the initial franchise fee will be deferred until the franchisor has fulfilled its initial pre-opening obligations and the franchisee is open for business.

Any Products and/or Services provided by franchisor and/or any associate of franchisor shall have a price to franchisee marked up at a fair and reasonable amount above cost (Money Mailer, LLC v. Brewer, 449 P.3d 258 (2019)).

The non-competition covenants shall apply except as follows: (a) if the employee's annual earnings are less than $100,000 and (b) the duration exceeds 18 months.

Paragraph 6 (Recital) of the Franchise Agreement is hereby amended to delete "or relied upon".

Section 8.01 (p) of the Franchise Agreement is modified by deleting the sentence: "Notwithstanding the foregoing, although you shall pay for such cameras and technology, title to ownership thereof shall remain with us."

Section 15.01 of the Franchise Agreement is modified by deleting "less fifty percent (50%)" from this Section.

Section 16.01 of the Franchise Agreement is modified by deleting "and any new agreement(s) we enter into with the Purchaser, if we so require" from this Section.

Section 18.01 (c) of the Franchise Agreement is modified by deleting "less twenty-five percent (25%)" from this Section.

Clause (b) of Section 20.02 of the Franchise Agreement is hereby deleted.

Section 20.14 of the Franchise Agreement is modified by deleting "(i) your sole and exclusive remedy shall be against the entity then constituting us and the amount of any liability shall be limited to the lesser of the value of our assets located within the state in which the Premises is located, or the amount equal to the amount paid by you on account of the acquisition and initial setting up of the Business" from this Section.

Section 20.20 of the Franchise Agreement is modified by deleting "one hundred eighty (180) days after the date upon which the state of facts giving rise to the cause of action comes to the attention of, or should reasonably have come to the attention of, such party;" from this Section.

Use of Franchise Brokers. The franchisor may use the services of franchise brokers to assist it in selling franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. Do not rely only on the information provided by a franchise broker about a franchise. Do your own investigation by contacting the franchisor's current and former franchisees to ask them about their experience with the franchisor.

To comply with the NSAA Statement of Policy Regarding the Use of Questionnaires and Acknowledgements, Paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Franchise Agreement do not apply in Washington.

Section 8.04 of the Franchise Agreement is amended to state that: "Franchisees have no obligation to indemnify or hold harmless an indemnified party for losses to the extent of fraud."

The parties hereto have duly executed, sealed and delivered this Multi-State Addendum dated this day of _____.

ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

The collection of the initial franchise fee will be deferred until the franchisor has fulfilled its initial pre-opening obligations and the franchisee is open for business.

Any Products and/or Services provided by franchisor and/or any associate of franchisor shall have a price to franchisee marked up at a fair and reasonable amount above cost (Money Mailer, LLC v. Brewer, 449 P.3d 258 (2019)).

The non-competition covenants shall apply except as follows: (a) if the employee's annual earnings are less than $100,000 and (b) the duration exceeds 18 months.

The franchisor [uses/may use] the services of franchise brokers to assist it in selling franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. Carefully evaluate any information provided by a franchise broker about a franchise. Do your own investigation by contacting the franchisor's current and former franchisees to ask them about their experience with the franchisor.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Garage Living Inc. (the “Owner”) has developed the System providing for the operation of a business specializing in the design and upgrade of garage spaces, including cabinetry, flooring, organizers, lifts, garage doors and related products and services;

WHEREAS, we have obtained the right from the Owner within the United States to use and grant others the right to use the System and in association therewith the Mark; and

WHEREAS, you are aware of the foregoing and have expressed your desire to obtain the non-exclusive right to use the System and in association therewith the non-exclusive right to use the Mark, subject to the provisions of this Agreement, and we have agreed to grant you such non-exclusive rights, subject to the provisions of this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, you have had a full and adequate opportunity to be thoroughly advised of the terms and conditions of this Agreement by counsel of your own choosing and represent and warrant that you have the business experience and financial ability to operate a Business; and

WHEREAS, you acknowledge that you have read this Agreement and our Franchise Disclosure Document and that you understand and accept the terms, conditions and covenants contained in this Agreement as being reasonably necessary to maintain uniform high standards of quality at all Businesses and to protect the goodwill of the Mark; and

WHEREAS, we expressly disclaim the making of any warranty or guarantee, express or implied, oral or written, regarding the potential revenues, profits or success of the business venture contemplated by this Agreement. You acknowledge that you have not received or relied upon any such warranty or guarantee; and

WHEREAS, you acknowledge that you have no knowledge of any representations by us, our officers, directors, shareholders or representatives about the franchise offered hereunder, about us or our franchising programs and policies that are contrary to the statements in our Disclosure Document or to the terms of this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, you acknowledge that this Agreement places detailed and substantial obligations on you, including strict adherence to our reasonable present and future requirements regarding facilities, equipment, suppliers, operating procedures, management methods, merchandising strategies, sales promotion programs and related matters. You acknowledge that future improvements, changes and developments in the System may require additional expenses to be undertaken by you.

BEFORE SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT, YOU SHOULD READ IT CAREFULLY WITH ASSISTANCE OF LEGAL COUNSEL.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

SECTION 1 DEFINITIONS

Where used in this Agreement or in any Schedules or amendments, the terms defined in Schedule “A” shall have the meanings so indicated.

SECTION 2 GRANT

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, we hereby grant to you for the Term the exclusive right to operate from one (1) Premises within the Designated Territory and to carry on the Business therefrom, and in conjunction therewith, the non-exclusive right to use the System and the non-exclusive right to use the Mark. The Premises shall be located at the location identified in Schedule “B” annexed hereto. You shall not carry on any business or other activity from the Premises other than the Business. Provided you are not in default under the provisions of this Agreement, we shall not, directly or indirectly, operate or authorize any other Person to operate a “Garage Living” physical location within the Designated Territory; however, the rights granted to you herein are subject to (a) the average Gross Revenue requirements described in Section 8.07 herein; (b) the reservation of rights set forth in Schedule “G” of this Agreement; and (c) the restrictions respecting your operation of the Business set forth in Schedule “H” of this Agreement.

SECTION 3 FEES

3.01 Initial Franchise Fee; Micro-Site Development Fee

You shall pay to us, upon the execution of this Agreement by you, an initial franchise fee of Sixty Thousand Dollars ($60,000); the said amount is fully earned by us upon the execution of this Agreement, and is not refundable under any circumstances.

You shall pay to us, upon the execution of this Agreement by you, the Micro-Site Development Fee of Four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($4,500) for the development of your “micro-site” website that will be designed and deployed for your specific franchised territory. This amount is not refundable under any circumstances.

3.02 Continuing Fees

In addition to the initial franchise fee described above, you agree to pay to us the following continuing fees:

(a) A continuing and non-refundable royalty fee equal to six- and one-half percent (6½%) of Gross Revenue. The Royalty Fee is payable by monthly installments or at any other time(s) determined by us. Unless otherwise required, you shall pay each Royalty Fee on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of each calendar month based on Gross Revenue for the previous calendar month.

(i) The Royalty Fee, and any other continuing fees payable to us, shall be payable by electronic funds transfer unless we designate another payment method. You agree to execute any documents required by us, our bank and/or your bank to permit us to collect continuing fees and other payments owed to us by electronic funds transfer.

(ii) If any withholding, sales, excise, use, privilege or other tax (excepting Franchisor's income tax obligation) ("Tax Charge") is imposed or levied by any government or governmental agency on Franchisor or Franchisee for any fee due and payable under this Agreement, including but not limited to, the Royalty Fee and Brand Fund Contribution (for the purpose of this Section, such fee shall be referred to as a "Taxable Payment"), then Franchisee shall pay Franchisor a sum equal to the amount of the Tax Charge, together with the Taxable Payment, such that the net sum received by Franchisor equals the amount of the Taxable Payment without deduction, withholding, payment or application of the Tax Charge.

(iii) If you do not report your Gross Revenue, we may debit your account for one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the last Royalty Fee and Marketing Fee that we debited. If the Royalty Fee and Marketing Fee we debit are less than the Royalty Fee and Marketing Fee you actually owe us, once we have been able to determine your true and correct Gross Revenue, we will debit your account for the balance on the day we specify. If the Royalty Fee and Marketing Fee we debit are greater than the Royalty Fee and Marketing Fee, you actually owe us, we will credit the excess against the amount we otherwise would debit from your account for the next payment due.

(b) A continuing and non-refundable Marketing Fee in the greater of a fixed amount of One Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($1,200) or an amount equal to two percent (2%) of Gross Revenue for a Primary Market and a fixed amount of One Thousand Four Hundred Dollars for a Secondary Market, payable at the same time and in the same manner as the Royalty Fee. You understand and acknowledge that upon thirty (30) days' written notice prior to you, we may increase the Marketing Fee to a maximum of three percent (3%) of Gross Revenue.

(c) If we elect to establish a Call Center and we determine that participation in the Call Center is mandatory for all Garage Living Businesses, you agree to pay to us a fee related to use of the Call Center in an amount to be determined by us in our discretion.

3.03 Interest on Overdue Amounts

All amounts payable by you pursuant to this Agreement shall be paid without any demand, set-off, abatement or deduction whatsoever. If you fail to pay any amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement and any agreements entered into pursuant hereto, any unpaid amounts shall bear interest at a rate of fifteen percent (15%) per annum, calculated monthly in arrears, from the date such payment was payable until repayment in full, before and after default and judgment. You acknowledge that this Section 3.03 shall not constitute our agreement to accept such payments after same are due or a commitment by us to extend credit to or otherwise finance your Business. You shall also pay any applicable collection costs, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, court costs and collection firm fees, related to the collection of any overdue amount. Further, you acknowledge that your failure to pay all amounts when due shall constitute grounds for termination of this Agreement, notwithstanding this Section.

SECTION 4 TERM AND SUCCESSOR OPTION

4.01 Term of Agreement

Unless otherwise terminated by us prior to the period set forth hereafter, this Agreement shall commence on the date of this Agreement and shall expire on the close of business on the last day of the fifth (5th) year following the date Franchisee had opened the Business in accordance with Section 5.02.

4.02 Successor Option

You shall have the right to enter into a new franchise agreement and other agreements and legal instruments and documents then customarily employed by Us in the form then generally being offered to prospective franchisees in the state in which the Business is located (the "Successor Franchise Agreement") for up to two (2) additional terms of five (5) years each. Such successor terms shall be subject to each of the following conditions being complied with prior to the end of the Term or the end of the period of the first successor term, as the case may be:

(a) you must give us, not more than twelve (12) months and not less than nine (9) months before the end of the Term and before the end of the period of the first successor term, as the case may be, written notice of your intention to enter into a successor term with us;

(b) within thirty (30) days of delivery of your notice, you must execute and deliver to us our then current form of franchise agreement which may include, among other things, provisions substantially different from those set forth in this Agreement and the franchise agreement covering the period of the first successor term, as the case may be (including without limitation, higher fees and costs);

(c) you shall not, at the time your notice is given or at the end of the Term or at the end of the first successor term, as the case may be, be in default of any provisions of this Agreement or the franchise agreement covering the period of the first successor term, as the case may be;

(d) you must have the right to continue to occupy the Premises for each of the five (5) year periods of the successor terms, or you must have located another location from which to operate the Business upon which we agree and which is located within the Designated Territory;

(e) if you are to remain in the Premises, you must complete such repairs and renovations to the Premises and acquire such new equipment, service vehicles, and/or Computer Hardware and Software as may be required by us in order to conform to our then current standards. If you are relocating the Business to another location of which we have approved, you must have commenced to complete the improvements to the relocated premises to our then current standards. In each case, you understand and acknowledge that such costs with respect thereto may be substantial;

(f) you must pay our reasonable legal fees and disbursements;

(g) you must attend and successfully complete prior to the expiry of the Term or the period of the first successor term, as the case may be, any further training program required by us;

(h) you shall provide us with a form of general release in such form as we shall determine, releasing us and our Associates and our and their officers, directors shareholders, employees and representatives from all liabilities, damages, losses, suits, claims, demands and costs which have been or may be incurred by you, in respect of any matters arising out of this Agreement and the franchise agreement covering the period of the first successor term, as the case may be; and

(i) as part of the process of entering into a Successor Franchise Agreement, we reserve the right to re-evaluate your then-existing Designated Territory according to certain demographics, including population and number of households. Since your Designated Territory includes a certain minimum population and number of households, your Designated Territory under the Successor Franchise Agreement will be modified to accommodate shifts and changes in these demographics. Our intent is to make the target demographics of your successor Designated Territory similar to the target demographics of your original Designated Territory. A re-evaluation of your Designated Territory may result in your successor Designated Territory being smaller or larger than your original Designated Territory. We cannot guarantee that you will achieve any particular level of success with the successor Designated Territory or that your results will be the same as or similar to your results from operating in the original Designated Territory. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, we reserve the right not to enter into a successor franchise agreement for your franchise as a result of a decision to withdraw from a marketing area or the Designated Territory in which your Business is located.

If the foregoing conditions have not been complied with, notwithstanding the exercise of your right, your right for a successor term and notice shall be null and void and of no further force or effect.

4.03 Refusal to Grant Successor Term

We can refuse to grant a successor term for your franchise under circumstances that include, but are not limited to, your failure to substantially comply with the terms of this Agreement, your failure to pay amounts owed to us when due, or your failure to cure of any defaults incurred during the initial term of this Agreement, if applicable.

4.04 Successor Term Under Law

Even though we decline to grant you a successor term for your franchise, it is possible that we can be required to grant you a successor term under a law, rule, regulation, statute, ordinance, or legal order that is applicable at the time. If that happens, to the extent it is allowed by the concerned law, rule, regulation, statute, ordinance or order, your successor term will be subject to the conditions of the Franchise Agreement we are using for new franchisees at the time the successor term begins. If we are not then offering new franchises, your successor term will be subject to the terms in the Franchise Agreement that we indicate. If for any reason that is not allowed, the successor term will be governed by the terms of this Agreement.

4.05 Your Election Not to Sign a Successor Franchise Agreement

For the purposes hereof, you shall be deemed to have irrevocably elected not to sign a Successor Franchise Agreement hereunder (and the option to do so shall thereupon terminate) if you fail to execute and return to us our then-standard Successor Franchise Agreement and other ancillary documents required by us for a successor franchise, together with reimbursement of our legal fees and disbursements, within thirty (30) days after we have delivered them to you.

SECTION 5 LOCATION; DEVELOPMENT OF THE PREMISES

5.01 Location for Business

You are responsible to locate and lease the Premises from which you are to operate and carry on the Business. If requested by you, we will provide you with our input as to the suitability of the Premises; however, the decision to lease such Premises at the location you choose and the terms upon which you choose to lease the Premises including rental and other payments is your sole decision and neither we nor any representatives shall be responsible in any manner for your choice or the terms upon which you choose to lease the Premises; any input we may provide is strictly in an advisory capacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing however, you do require our prior written approval to the location of the Premises and if we do not approve of such location, you shall not enter into any Lease arrangement for such location. You must pay all rental and other occupancy costs and comply with all obligations under the Lease.

Within sixty (60) days after you sign this Agreement, you must submit to us the information we require to evaluate your proposed site. In evaluating a site we may consider the factors we deem material, including demographic characteristics, traffic patterns, parking, the predominant character of the neighborhood, competition within the area, rental obligations, and the site's size, appearance and other physical characteristics. We will have thirty (30) days after receiving all of the information we need to advise you whether the site is approved. Unless we provide our specific approval of a site, the site is deemed not approved. Our approval of your site is not a warranty or guarantee that you will be successful at that site. Our approval only indicates that the site meets our then-current minimum criteria for a Garage Living Business. If you are not able to locate a site within sixty (60) days after you sign this Agreement, we may either provide you with an extension of this timeframe or we may terminate this Agreement.

5.02 Development of the Premises; Opening

You are responsible at your cost to construct, fixture, equip, furnish and otherwise complete the Premises from which you are to conduct the Business; in this regard, you shall follow the guidelines, specifications and standards required by us. We shall provide you with the Design Plan and you comply with the specific design and construct, equip, furnish and otherwise complete the Premises following the Design Plan and the layout thereof (including colors and materials and minimum plumbing, electrical, mechanical and other utility requirements) of the Design Plan. Using our template Design Plan, you shall engage an architect and/or design professional to prepare construction plans suitable for the size and layout of the Premises for the build-out of your Business. We reserve the right to designate the architect and/or design professional that you must use. Prior to your commencing to construct the Premises, you shall submit your specific design to us for our approval, setting forth the layout (including colors and materials) you intend to use. You shall not commence any construction until we have approved in writing of your design. You understand and acknowledge that our approval of your construction plans only indicates our approval that our specifications for design and presentation of the Mark have been met. Our approval is not intended in any manner to designate compliance with any applicable laws, ordinances or building codes. You are responsible for complying with all governmental and other laws, rules and regulations respecting construction of the Premises, including you are responsible for determining that the use of the Premises is in compliance with the applicable zoning requirements of the Business. We shall have the right, without notice, to attend the Premises and examine the manner in which construction, fixturing, equipping, furnishing and other completion of the Premises is being carried out. You shall correct any deficiencies or items of non-compliance required by us, forthwith upon notice to you. Our determination shall be final and binding on you with respect to all matters regarding any work carried out by you at the Premises including, without limitation, the state of completion of the work, whether or not the work was completed in a good and workmanlike manner and in accordance with our guidelines, specifications, standards and the approved design. You shall not open the Premises to the public for business until you receive our prior written approval to do so.

You are also aware that if for any reason you have not located and completed the improvements to the Premises and opened the Business to the public for business within a period of six (6) months of the date of this Agreement or within such extended period of time we may agree to, this is an event of default of your franchise obligation which can lead to termination of this Agreement.

5.03 Indemnification

You agree that we, our Associates and our and their officers, directors, shareholders, employees and representatives have no responsibility nor do we or they make or give any representations, warranties, promises, commitments, covenants or guarantees (oral or written) of any kind to you or to any other Persons as to the costs which may be incurred by you to design, construct, fixture, equip and otherwise complete the improvements to the Premises. Under no circumstances shall we, any Associate and our and their officers, directors, shareholders, employees and representatives be responsible for or have any liability with respect to the design, construction, equipping, furnishing or other completion of the Premises including where changes may be required to be made from the approved design for any reason, or where costs change because of changes to the design plans or where disruptions occur in the carrying out of any work, or where the Business to be carried on at the Premises does not comply with applicable zoning or other laws, rules and regulations.

5.04 No Modifications to the Premises Without Our Approval

After the initial opening of the Business to the public, you shall not make any modifications, additions or other alterations to the Premises or acquire any new equipment, trade fixtures, fixtures or furnishings, without our prior written approval.

5.05 Relocation

If for any reason during the Term, and provided you are not in default of any provisions of this Agreement or in default of any of your obligations under the Lease, you may relocate the Premises to another location within the Designated Territory if first approved of by us in writing. You must relocate and commence business from the new location within four (4) months of your receipt of our approval of your relocation request. You are responsible to pay all costs of such relocation as well as you must comply with the provisions of this Section 5 set forth above as if you were initially opening your Premises for the first time. If we permit you to relocate your Business we reserve the right to require you to sign a new franchise agreement (with a term equal to the remaining term under this Agreement), but you will not have to pay a new initial franchise fee.

SECTION 6 TRAINING

6.01 Initial Training Program

Prior to your initial opening of the Business to the public, we shall provide to the Designated Operator and up to two (2) of your other employees, for a maximum of three (3) trainees, an initial training program of such duration as we deem necessary, covering the various aspects of the System, at such location(s) determined by us. The period of time the Designated Operator and such employees will train will vary depending upon the function to be performed by each such individual. Although we shall have the right to change same, you should be aware it is intended that the initial training program to be taken by the Designated Operator will cover a period up to three (3) weeks, which includes approximately two (2) weeks of training at our headquarters, an operating Garage Living Business or another location designated by us and one (1) week of on-site training at the Premises immediately before your Business opens. If you request that we provide our training program to additional trainees, either initially or during the term of this Agreement, you agree to pay our then-current training fee for each additional trainee. You understand and acknowledge that the training fee may vary depending on the job functions of the individual being trained.

The Designated Operator must successfully complete his or her initial training program to our satisfaction. Any determination as to whether or not the initial training program has been successfully completed shall be within our sole discretion; without limiting any other basis upon which we shall make such determination, we will consider factors such as, by way of example, how you relate to and work with us and our staff, how you are able to communicate and work with employees and customers, how you are able to grasp our methods of operation and use of our technology, whether or not you attend all training, and how you complete any tests we may give you. If an employee does not successfully complete his or her initial training, such individual shall at our discretion repeat such training until same is successfully completed or you shall dismiss such employee from your employment; if such is the case, you shall be responsible to meet all employment responsibilities to such employees at your cost; we do not have any liability to you or your employees as a result of any termination of employment or otherwise. There is no training fee for the Designated Operator and up to two (2) of your employees who attend the initial training program but you shall be responsible to pay all transportation, accommodation and meal costs of such training; in addition, you shall be responsible to pay the employees a reasonable salary during such period that the employees attend training. Training shall be held at such location(s) we specify. You shall not be entitled to open the Business to the public unless the Designated Operator has successfully completed the initial training program.

6.02 Failure of the Designated Operator to Complete Training Program

If for any reason the Designated Operator does not successfully complete the initial training program to our satisfaction, we shall permit the Designated Operator to re-take the initial training program, at your expense including payment of our then-current training fee. If the Designated Operator does not successfully complete the initial training program a second time, we shall have the right, without prior notice to you, to terminate this Agreement and all agreements entered into pursuant hereto, and in such event the following provisions shall apply:

(a) except for the provisions set forth in subsection (b) below, this Agreement and all rights granted you hereunder as well as all agreements entered into pursuant to this Agreement, shall be null and void and of no further force or effect;

(b) you shall continue to be responsible subsequent to termination to comply with all of the provisions of Section 8.01(b) respecting our ownership of the Manual and your maintaining the confidentiality thereof, Section 8.01(p) respecting ownership of cameras, technology and information so generated, Section 8.01I respecting our ownership of the telephone lines and telecommunication systems and your obligation to pay for same, Section 8.01(bb) respecting web-sites, Section 8.01(dd) respecting advising us of legal actions, Section 8.01(ee) respecting the giving of interviews, Section 8.01(ff) respecting de-identifying the Premises and business vehicle, Section 8.04 respecting the indemnity, Section 8.05 respecting ownership of the copyright, Section 9 respecting our ownership and other rights respecting the Software, access to the Computer Hardware and Software, and you not using or disclosing any data or information generated therefrom, Section 12 respecting our ownership of the Marks including specifically subsections (a) through (g) inclusive and subsection (o) as well as the last paragraph thereof, Sections 13.02 respecting non-competition, 13.03 respecting the Manual and confidentiality, 13.04 respecting improvements to the System, 13.05 respecting not using or duplicating the System, 13.06 respecting reasonableness of non-competition and non-disclosure provisions, Section 15.01(a) through (d) inclusive respecting loss on rights of termination, Sections 20.02 respecting no representations, 20.03 respecting independent contractors, 20.04 respecting joint and several obligations, 20.05 respecting separate provisions, 20.07 respecting applicable laws, 20.08 respecting time of essence, 20.09 respecting waiver, 20.10 respecting right to sell interest, 20.11 respecting cross default, 20.12 respecting no exclusive remedies, 20.15 respecting limited liability, 20.16 respecting entire agreement, 20.17 respecting no amendment, and Sections 21.01 respecting consents as we determine, 21.02 respecting no liability of our Associates, as well as such of your other obligations under this Agreement which by their nature would survive termination;

(c) except for the provisions set forth in subsection (b) above, we and you release each other and you release our Associates and our and their officers, directors, shareholders, employees and representatives, from all claims, losses, liabilities, actions, damages and costs of any kind which have been or may be suffered or incurred by any of the Persons referred to above in respect of any matters arising out of this Agreement and the termination thereof.

In the event of any conflict between the specific provisions of this Section 6.02 and Section 14, the provisions of this Section 6.02 shall apply.

6.03 Replacement Designated Operator and Employees

Subsequent to your initial opening of the Business to the public, no new or replacement Designated Operator shall work in the Business unless first approved by us in writing and unless such individual has successfully completed to our satisfaction our initial training program; in such circumstance, our then-current training fee will be payable by you to have the Designated Operator trained. As for any employee you wish to take training subsequent to completion by you of your initial training program, if agreed to by us, we will conduct a training program for such employee for such period we determine, taking into account the function of such employee; our then-current training fee will be payable by you for each employee taking training. Payment shall be made prior to the commencement of training. You must submit your grand opening advertising campaign for our approval at least sixty (60) days before you intend to open the Business. The grand opening promotional program may take place for a number of months prior to or following your opening of the Business to the public. For the purposes hereof, the “grand opening” of the Business shall be deemed to commence on the date designated by us and shall cover such duration of time as we determine.

11.02 Marketing Fund

(a) You must pay the Marketing Fee described in Section 3.02(b) as a contribution to the Marketing Fund. Businesses owned by us and our affiliates may, but are not required to, pay the Marketing Fee into the Marketing Fund. We shall maintain, administer and expend funds from the Marketing Fund for national and/or regional and/or local marketing programs as we determine in our sole discretion; without limiting the foregoing, we have the absolute right to determine the type, quality, quantity, geographic location, timing and placing of all marketing programs as well as to select any marketing agency to assist with the Marketing Fund. All costs in any way connected with the Marketing Fund including, without limitation, costs incurred with respect to the internet, any web-site and other means of electronic advertising and commerce, costs expended for media including creative and production costs and fees, costs expended for public relations, costs expended for initiatives to enhance, support and protect the brand, training program costs, costs to pursue and enter into strategic partnerships, costs to conduct customer surveys, costs to measure performance standards, costs to sponsor and donations to a designated charity or charities, market research costs, program development costs, product development and launch costs, costs to obtain regulatory approvals, costs to print printed materials including brochures and direct mail items, costs to advertise in newspapers and magazines, costs to produce and carry out Internet, web-based, social media and other like activities, costs to appear in home shows and other site events including booth and signage costs, our out-of-pocket costs, statement preparation costs, a reasonable allocation for office costs for use of our office space, costs to conduct franchisee meetings, and salaries paid to any Persons working in connection with the Marketing Fund, whether working part-time or full-time and whether employed by us or a third party, shall be paid out of the Marketing Fund. The Marketing Fund is intended for the benefit generally of the System and the Marks but we do not undertake any obligation in dealing with the Marketing Fund to ensure that any particular franchisee including you, will benefit directly or pro-rata from any expenditures made therefrom. We assume no direct or indirect liability or obligation to you with regard to the Marketing Fund and you understand that all efforts expended with respect to the Marketing Fund will not be successful.

(b) Funds from the Marketing Fees paid will be kept separate and distinct and will be accounted for separately from our other funds. Any sums paid to the Marketing Fund that are not spent in the year they are collected will carry over to the following year. Upon your request, we shall provide to you, within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the fiscal year end of the Marketing Fund a written statement in our form setting out in brief detail the total amounts paid into and disbursements made from the Marketing Fund for the applicable period. We are not required to have this statement or the Marketing Fund audited.

(c) You understand and acknowledge that we may use up to twenty-five percent (25%) of the Marketing Fund to prepare and place marketing that is principally a solicitation for the sale of franchises.

11.03 Local Marketing

(a) In addition to any other amounts you are required to expend pursuant to this Section 11, you must spend on local marketing of the Business an amount equal to six percent (6%) of Gross Revenue during your first year of operation. After your first year of operation, and annually thereafter, we shall have the option to adjust the amount you must spend on local marketing to reflect your individual circumstances, including competition for the Products and Services in your Designated Territory; provided, however, that in no event shall your local marketing requirement exceed six percent (6%) of Gross Revenue. You understand and acknowledge that in the event we reduce another franchisee's local marketing requirement based on such franchisee's individual circumstances, we shall not be required to grant to you a similar, or any, reduction. You acknowledge and agree you have been advised that initial and continuous marketing of the Business is an integral part of any reasonable opportunity you may have to succeed, if such is to be the case, and without such marketing your opportunity to succeed will be limited. It is imperative you make the public aware of the Products and Services so offered by you as part of the Business. You must periodically provide us with verification of all expenditures for local marketing and promotion within thirty (30) days after we request it.

(b) Prior to your conducting any local marketing, you must obtain our prior written approval to all marketing materials you intend to use. All marketing materials must (i) display the Marks only in the form, style, format and print authorized by us, (ii) not be deceptive, untrue, misleading, or inconsistent with any marketing programs conducted by us or another franchisee, and (iii) comply with any criteria we may establish. We reserve the right to require you to include certain language in your marketing, such as "Franchises Available" and our website address and telephone number. You shall not direct any marketing activities outside of the Designated Territory or to any geographic area which we determine is not within the local trading area (as designated by us) of the Business. All marketing material used by you shall state that you are an authorized user of the Marks which are in fact owned by the Owner. You will not use, display, publish, broadcast or in any manner disseminate any marketing material which has not received our prior written approval. Any marketing or promotional materials produced by you or on your behalf, or that we have not approved within the preceding twelve (12) month period, may not be used until they have been approved by us. You must submit the proposed materials to us before you intend to use them, and we will have fifteen (15) days to notify you whether the materials are approved. If we do not notify you within this fifteen (15) day period that the materials are approved, then they are deemed not approved. Any marketing materials submitted to us for our review will become our property and there will be no restriction on our use or distribution of these materials. You shall discontinue any local marketing activity we determine does not meet our requirements, or which we otherwise require, forthwith upon receipt of written notice. You shall report to us any misuse or unauthorized use of any promotional or advertising materials of which you become aware.

(c) While you may place advertisements in printed media and on television and radio that are targeted to customers and prospective customers located within your Designated Territory, you will not be deemed to be in violation of this Agreement if those advertisements, because of the natural circulation of the printed media or reach of television and radio, are viewed by prospective customers outside of your Designated Territory. You may not directly solicit customers outside of your Designated Territory.

(d) As part of any local marketing initiatives you may undertake, you have been advised and are aware an important method to market the Business is through appearances at “home shows”, “car shows” and other similar type shows which may occur within your Designated Territory. In this regard, you agree to use your best efforts to determine if, where and when such shows may be taking place within your Designated Territory and to use your best efforts to participate in these shows. Any costs incurred by you to participate in these shows will be applied against your annual local marketing requirement.

(e) You shall not conduct any Internet, web-based, social media or other like activities whatsoever respecting us, yourself, the Premises, the System, the Products or Services, the Marks, the Business or otherwise in any manner without our prior written approval.

(f) Notwithstanding anything set forth above, we shall be entitled to take over and conduct the local marketing of the Business being conducted by you, and in such event, such marketing may be carried out for the Business itself and/or in co-operation with marketing being conducted by us for other businesses using the System and the Marks (whether operated by us, any Associate or other of our franchisees) in your Designated Territory and/or such regional market area as designated by us. If we take over your local marketing, we shall have no liability or obligation to you with respect to the conduct of such local marketing, and all costs are payable by you and shall be paid forthwith upon receipt of invoice.

11.04 Marketing Initiatives

(a) You must participate in all marketing initiatives we require. You are responsible to pay all of your costs of such initiatives; without limitation but by way of example, initiatives may include prize contests, gift cards, special product offers and coupons. Marketing initiatives may be conducted nationally, regionally and locally and may vary from region to region and all other franchisees using the System shall not necessarily be required to participate in the initiatives in which you must participate.

(b) You must participate in the launch of all new Products and Services we require, including whether or not same are proprietary to us, or are conducted as a cross-promotion with other Persons, or otherwise. If any fees or other consideration are payable in connection with any launch and/or marketing program, we (and any Associate if such is the case) shall be entitled to maintain same for our or their own account.

(c) You must at your cost, honor all coupons, gift certificates and other promotional offers authorized by us including, without limitation, you must honor all coupons, certificates and promotional offers presented to you notwithstanding same were initiated from business conducted at our or another franchisee’s location. Upon our request, you agree to provide a written report to us of the details of all coupon, gift certificate and other promotional offers sold by you as well as those accepted by you as payment. You shall not sell or issue any coupon, gift certificate or other promotional offer except as we may authorize in writing. Under no circumstances shall you produce, print or otherwise use any coupon, gift certificate or other promotional offers other than those obtained from us or those authorized in writing by us. We reserve the right to alter the terms and conditions of any gift card or loyalty programs, including reserving the right to apply changes retroactively to benefits already accrued under such programs.

11.05 References to Marketing

For the purposes of this Agreement, any reference to “marketing” shall also mean all advertising and promotions conducted in respect of the Business.

11.06 Cooperative Marketing

We may, in our discretion, create a regional advertising cooperative in any area where two (2) or more Businesses are located, and establish the rules and regulations therefor. Immediately upon our request, you must become a member of the Cooperative for the area in which your Business is located. In no event may the Business be required to be a member of more than one (1) Cooperative. The Cooperative must be governed in the manner we prescribe. Each member of the Cooperative shall make monthly contributions thereto in an amount as determined by a majority vote of the members of the Cooperative. Any amounts that you contribute to a Cooperative will count toward your local marketing requirement, but if the amount you contribute to a Cooperative is less than the amount you must spend on local marketing you shall nevertheless spend the difference locally. The following provisions apply to each Cooperative:

(a) the Cooperative must be organized and governed in a form and manner, and commence operation on a date that we approve in advance in writing;

(b) the Cooperative must be organized for the exclusive purpose of administering marketing programs; developing, subject to our approval, standardized promotional materials for the members’ use in local marketing within the Cooperative’s area;

(c) the Cooperative may adopt its own rules and procedures, but such rules or procedures must be approved by us and must not restrict or expand your rights or obligations under this Agreement;

(d) except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, and subject to our approval, any lawful action of the Cooperative (including, without limitation, imposing assessments for local marketing) at a meeting attended by members possessing more than fifty percent (50%) of the total voting power in the Cooperative is binding upon you if approved by members possessing more than fifty percent (50%) of the total voting power possessed by members in attendance, with each Business having one (1) vote, but no franchisee (or commonly controlled group of franchisees) may have more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the vote in the Cooperative regardless of the number of Businesses owned. Businesses owned by us and/or our affiliates may, but are not required to, participate in a marketing Cooperative, and if they participate in the Cooperative they will have the same voting rights as other Businesses in the Cooperative;

(e) without our prior written approval, the Cooperative may not use, nor furnish to its members, any advertising or promotional plans or materials; all such plans and materials must be submitted to us for our approval in accordance with the procedure set forth in Section 11.03(b);

(f) no later than the fifteenth (15th) day of each month, each member/franchisee must submit its contribution to the Cooperative, together with such other statements or reports as we or the Cooperative may require, with our prior written approval; and

(g) if an impasse occurs because of a Cooperative members’ inability or failure, within forty-five (45) days, to resolve any issue affecting the Cooperative’s establishment or effective functioning, upon request of any Cooperative member, that issue must be submitted to us for consideration, and our resolution of such issue is final and binding on all Cooperative members.

11.07 Advisory Councils

We may establish one or more advisory councils to advise us on matters relating to the System, marketing, new products and services, or other matters. If we establish an advisory council, members will include our representatives and franchisee representatives. The franchisee representatives may be selected by us or may be selected by other franchisees. If formed, the advisory council will act in an advisory capacity only, and will not have decision-making authority. We will have the right to form, merge, change or dissolve any advisory council. If you participate on an advisory council, you will pay all of your expenses related to your participation, such as travel and living expenses you incur to attend council meetings.

11.08 Website

We alone may establish, maintain, modify or discontinue all internet, worldwide web and electronic commerce activities pertaining to the System. We may establish one or more websites accessible through one or more uniform resource locators (“URLs”) and, if we do, we may design and provide for the benefit of your Business a “micro-site” website for the promotion of your Business. If we establish one or more websites or other modes of electronic commerce and if we provide a “micro-site” website for the promotion of your Business, you must routinely provide us with updated copy, photographs and news stories about your Business suitable for posting on your “micro-site” website. We reserve the right to specify the content, frequency and procedure you must follow for updating your “micro-site” website.

Any websites or other modes of electric commerce that we establish or maintain may – in addition to advertising and promoting the products and services available at Garage Living Businesses – also be devoted in part to offering Garage Living franchises for sale and be used by us to exploit the electronic commerce rights which we alone reserve.

In addition to these activities, we may also establish an intranet through which downloads of operations and marketing materials, exchanges of franchisee e-mail, System discussion forums and system-wide communications (among other activities) can be done. You may not maintain your own website; otherwise maintain a presence or advertise on the internet or any other mode of electronic commerce in connection with your Business; establish a link to any website we establish at or from any other website or page; or at any time establish any other website, electronic commerce presence or URL which in whole or in part incorporates “Garage Living” name or any name confusingly similar to the Proprietary Marks without our prior written consent.

You are not permitted to promote your Business or use any of the Proprietary Marks in any manner on any social or networking websites, such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram, FourSquare, TikTok or Twitter, without our prior written consent. We will control all social media initiatives. You must comply with our System standards regarding the use of social media in your Business’s operation, including prohibitions on your and the Business’s employees posting or blogging comments about the Business or the System, other than on a website established or authorized by us (“social media” includes personal blogs, common social networks like Facebook and MySpace, professional networks like LinkedIn, live-blogging tools like Twitter, virtual worlds, file, audio and video-sharing sites like TikTok, and other similar social networking or media sites or tools). We will provide access to branded social media pages/handles/assets, and you must update these regularly. We reserve the right to conduct collective/national campaigns via local social media on your behalf.

We alone will be, and at all times will remain, the sole owner of the copyrights to all material which appears on any website we establish and maintain, including any and all material you may furnish to us for your “micro-site” website.

You agree that (i) the Owner is the owner of the Mark, (ii) your right to use the Mark is derived solely from this Agreement and solely in connection with the Business, (iii) you must use the Mark only as authorized by us and/or the Owner and not in any manner calculated to represent that you are the owner, (iv) you do not have any right, title or interest whatsoever in the Mark or the System, and all goodwill associated with the Mark and the System (including, without limitation, any goodwill which may occur because of your use of the Mark) shall inure exclusively to the benefit of the Owner. You shall not communicate with any other Person, other than us and the Owner, in connection with any of the matters set forth above. Any damages and other benefits arising out of any such infringement, challenge or other claim shall accrue exclusively to the Owner;

(g) discontinue use of any Mark and/or use any new, modified or substituted Mark as required by us and/or the Owner for any reason. (p) allow us, the Owner and each of our representatives to attend at the Premises (i) to inspect the Products and Services being offered, and the procedures used in your carrying on of the Business to ensure that the standards, policies, rules and requirements of us and/or the Owner have been complied with by you, and (ii) generally, inspect the manner in which the Mark is used or displayed by you. In addition, we, the Owner and each of our representatives shall have the right at any time to take samples of Products used in the Business and photographs of the Premises.

14.04 Amendment Pursuant to Applicable Law

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article, if any valid, applicable law or regulation of a competent governmental authority having jurisdiction over this franchise and the parties hereto shall limit our rights of termination under this Agreement or shall require longer notice periods than those set forth above, this Agreement is deemed amended to satisfy the minimum notice periods or restrictions upon such termination required by such laws and regulations; provided, however, that such constructive amendment shall not be deemed a concession by us that the grounds for termination set forth in this Agreement do not constitute “good cause” for termination within the meaning ascribed to that term by any applicable law or regulation. We shall not be precluded from contesting the validity, enforceability or application of such laws or regulations in any action, hearing or proceeding relating to this Agreement or the termination of this Agreement.

SECTION 15 EFFECT OF EXPIRATION OR TERMINATION

15.01 Your Duties

If this Agreement is terminated for any reason, the following provisions shall apply. Any reference to termination in this Agreement shall include termination of this Agreement resulting from natural expiration of the Term or otherwise and all of your obligations respecting termination as set forth in this Agreement shall apply.

(a) you lose all rights under this Agreement including without limitation, your rights to use the System and the Mark, to conduct the Business, and to use any materials displaying the Mark;

(b) you must deliver the Manual, the Software and all material containing information respecting the System and otherwise displaying the Marks as well as all copies thereof to us, and you must not use or disclose any confidential information gained by you pursuant to this Agreement, the Manual, the System, the Software or otherwise;

(c) you must cease use of all telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, listing services, web-sites, domain names and other electronic devices used by you in connection with the Business. If required by us, you must cause all or such of the foregoing as we designate to be assigned to us at no cost and, in connection therewith, you shall execute any documents we require to evidence such assignment. You must, at your cost cancel all registrations indicating you carried on the Business or used the Marks;

(d) without limiting any of our other rights and remedies, you must pay us and any Associate, as well as all suppliers of Products and Services to you, all amounts owing up to termination;

(e) subject to applicable laws, you must cease all dealings with suppliers of Products and Services to you in connection with the Business for a period of two (2) years following termination;

(f) you must not, without our prior written consent, remove any Products from the Premises for a period of thirty (30) days following termination. We shall have the right (but not the obligation) for such thirty (30) day period, such right to be exercised by us giving you written notice within such period, to purchase all or any part of the Products for a purchase price equal to the invoiced cost to you less fifty percent (50%). We shall be entitled to deduct from the purchase price all applicable delivery, freight, insurance and brokerage charges which would be applicable for delivery of the Products to our head office in the Province of Ontario, Canada, and we may deduct from the purchase price any amounts you then owe to us and/or an Associate;

(g) you must remove all signage (both exterior and interior) and advertising material from the Premises which displays the Marks and our name;

(h) you must remove all signage and advertising from the vehicle(s) used by you in the Business as well as any other identifying marks so that no one would be able to identify the vehicle(s) you used in the Business as having been used in the Business;

(i) you must de-identify the Premises including repaint and otherwise change the character of the Premises so that so that no-one would be able to identify that you carried on the Business from the Premises; in this regard, we shall have the right at any time upon twenty four (24) hours prior notice to you, to enter the Premises during business hours to examine whether or not you have complied with the foregoing requirement, provided if you have not done so to our satisfaction, we and our representatives shall have the right at your cost to carry out such de-identification and we and our representatives shall not be liable for any tort, trespass or otherwise as a result of such actions. In addition to anything otherwise contained above, all other provisions of this Agreement which by their nature would survive termination shall continue to apply including without limitation, all covenants respecting technology as set forth in Section 9 hereof, the Marks as set forth in Section 12 hereof, and engagement in a similar business and non-disclosure and confidentiality as set forth in Section 13 hereof.

15.02 Liquidated Damages

Upon termination of this Agreement for cause, you agree to pay to us within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of this Agreement's termination, in addition to the amounts owed hereunder, liquidated damages equal to the average monthly Royalty Fees you paid or owed to us during the twelve (12) months of operation preceding the effective date of termination multiplied by (a) twenty-four (24) (being the number of months in two (2) full years), or (b) the number of months remaining in the Agreement had it not been terminated, whichever is lower.

The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that it would be impracticable to determine precisely the damages we would incur from this Agreement's termination and the loss of cash flow from Royalty Fees due to, among other things, the complications of determining what costs, if any, we might have saved and how much the Royalty Fees would have grown over what would have been this Agreement's remaining term. The parties hereto consider these liquidated damages provision to be a reasonable, good faith pre-estimate of those damages.

The liquidated damages provision only covers our damages from the loss of cash flow from the Royalty Fees. It does not cover any other damages, including damages to our reputation with the public and landlords and damages arising from a violation of any provision of this Agreement other than the Royalty Fee section. You and each of your owners agree that the liquidated damages provision does not give us an adequate remedy at law for any default under, or for the enforcement of, any provision of this Agreement other than the Royalty Fee section.

SECTION 16 SALE; ASSIGNMENT

16.01 Sale by You; Our Right of First Refusal

You must not, directly or indirectly, effect a Sale of all or any part of your interest in this Agreement or the assets of the Business to any Person without our prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any Sale shall not include any rights whatsoever with respect to the Marks. In seeking out any Purchaser, you must not in any advertisement or other material you give out make reference to the Mark, and you must not place any sign indicating you desire to affect a Sale anywhere in or on the Premises. If you have reached an agreement with a Purchaser to effect a Sale, you must first submit an application in writing to us in our required form; the application shall also include a copy of the offer relating to the proposed Sale, information relating to the net worth, credit rating, character and business background and experience of the Purchaser and such other information we may require. We shall be entitled to carry out such credit and other reviews we require and both you and the Purchaser, by your request for our consent to a Sale, irrevocably agree we may carry out such credit and other reviews we so determine; any costs to carry out such credit and other reviews shall be payable by you. We shall not be required to consider any application if you are under any notice of default.

Upon receipt of your application, we shall have twenty one (21) days therefrom to exercise a right of first refusal and purchase the Business upon the same terms as set out in the offer, except that we shall be entitled to deduct from the purchase price an amount equal to the amount of any sales commission and other fees which would be payable had the Sale been completed with the Purchaser, plus the amount set out in subparagraph (d)(iv) below, plus any money you then owe to us and/or any Associate. We may substitute cash for any other consideration. If we do not exercise our right of first refusal as described herein, we shall then determine whether or not we will consent to the Sale. If we do not notify you of our consent to the Sale in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of your original application, we shall be deemed to have refused our consent. If we consent to the Sale, any Sale shall only be affected if all conditions imposed by us are complied with. Without limiting any other conditions we may impose, the following conditions must be complied with prior to completion of the Sale:

(a) you must pay us at the time you submit the application, a non-refundable amount of Four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($4,500) to cover and/or defray any costs we may incur in connection with the Sale, whether or not the Sale is completed; until such sum is received, we shall not be required to consider your application and no time periods set forth in this Section shall be deemed to have commenced;

(b) the Purchaser must (i) personally meet with us at our principal business office and be accepted as being an individual able to work with us within the System; (ii) successfully complete to our satisfaction, our initial training program or such other training in the operations of the System as we may require at such time(s) and location(s) we designate, at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense; (iii) enter into our then current form of franchise agreement (which said agreement may contain higher royalty and other fees and amounts payable than those presently set forth in this Agreement) and other agreements to be entered into pursuant thereto, but the term of such franchise agreement shall not exceed the remaining Term hereunder at the closing of the Sale; (iv) not have any interest in a business the same or similar to or in competition with any of our businesses; and (v) provide such personal guarantees as we determine guaranteeing his or her franchise obligations and obligations under the Lease;

(c) prior to the Purchaser commencing training, the Purchaser must (i) execute and deliver such form of secrecy agreement and agreement of non-competition required by us, and (ii) pay our then-current nonrefundable training fee. You understand and acknowledge that a substantial period of time may pass between the time that you submit your application to us for our approval of the Sale and any completion of a Sale;

(d) you must (i) discharge all of your obligations to us and any other Persons to whom you are obligated pursuant to this Agreement and otherwise in respect of the Business; (ii) repair the Premises to a first class condition, as required by us and carry out same to our satisfaction; (iii) deliver to us, a general release in the form we require; (iv) pay us an amount of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) as a transfer fee; (v) return the Manual and any copies thereof and all Software to us, or if directed, to the Purchaser; (vi) cancel all registrations evidencing you carried on the Business as our franchisee and used the Marks; (vii) deposit with us as security to meet any of your obligations in respect of the Business which may become known subsequent to closing, an amount of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) for a period up to six (6) months following completion of the Sale, and in this regard, you irrevocably authorize us to use all or part of such amount to discharge such obligations as we determine. At the end of such six (6) month period any money remaining from this deposit shall be returned to you;

(e) the Sale must comply with all conditions of the Lease respecting any sale or transfer, including you must pay any costs required by the Landlord. You must assign your interest in the Lease to the Purchaser, if permitted by the terms of the Lease;

(f) you shall continue to be personally liable for all obligations under this Agreement, and any new agreement(s) we enter into with the Purchaser, if we so require;

(g) the date of the completion of the Sale must be approved by us;

(h) unless otherwise agreed by us in writing, any Sale must be of all and not a portion of your interest in this Agreement or the assets of the Business.

Assuming we do not exercise our right of first refusal as set forth above, any Sale must be completed upon the terms set forth in your application originally submitted to us. If there is any change to the terms of the offer before completing any Sale, we shall again be offered our right of first refusal, and you must again make application in the manner set out above and the provisions of this Section shall continue to apply. If there is more than one (1) of you and we agree to consent to a Sale which represents less than the whole interest in this Agreement or all of the assets of the Business, without limiting any other conditions we may impose, all of the amounts to be paid and other conditions set out above will apply including our first option to purchase.

16.02 Our Right to Assign

We shall have the right to assign this Agreement and all of our attendant rights and privileges to any person, firm, corporation or other entity provided that, with respect to any assignment resulting in the subsequent performance by the assignee of our functions: (i) the assignee shall, at the time of such assignment, be financially responsible and economically capable of performing our obligations; and (ii) the assignee shall expressly assume and agree to perform such obligations.

You expressly affirm and agree that we may sell our assets, our rights to the Proprietary Marks or to the System outright to a third party; may go public; may engage in a private placement of some or all of our securities; may merge, acquire other corporations, or be acquired by another corporation; may undertake a refinancing, recapitalization, leveraged buyout or other economic or financial restructuring; and, with regard to any or all of the above sales, assignments and dispositions, you expressly and specifically waive any claims, demands or damages arising from or related to the loss of said Proprietary Marks (or any variation thereof) and/or the loss of association with or identification of “Garage Living Franchise Systems USA, Inc.” as Franchisor. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall require us to remain in the same business or to offer the same products and services, whether or not bearing the Proprietary Marks, in the event that we exercise our right to assign our rights in this Agreement.

SECTION 17 SECURITY INTEREST

17.01 Collateral

You grant to us a security interest (“Security Interest”) in all of the furniture, fixtures, equipment, signage, and realty (including your interests under all real property and personal property leases) of the Business, together with all similar property now owned or hereafter acquired, additions, substitutions, replacements, proceeds, and products thereof, wherever located, used in connection with the Business. All items in which a security interest is granted are referred to as the “Collateral”.

17.04 Possession of Collateral

Upon default and termination of your rights under this Agreement, we shall have the immediate right to possession and use of the Collateral.

17.05 Our Remedies in Event of Default

You agree that, upon the occurrence of any default set forth above, the full amount remaining unpaid on the Indebtedness secured shall, at our option and without notice, become due and payable immediately, and we shall then have the rights, options, duties, and remedies of a secured party under, and you shall have the rights and duties of a debtor under, the Uniform Commercial Code of state where the Business is located (or other applicable law), including, without limitation, our right to take possession of the Collateral and without legal process to enter any premises where the Collateral may be found. Any sale of the Collateral may be conducted by us in a commercially reasonable manner. Reasonable notification of the time and place of any sale shall be satisfied by mailing to you pursuant to the notice provisions set forth above.

17.06 Special Filing as a Financing Statement

This Agreement shall be deemed a Security Agreement and a Financing Statement. This Agreement may be filed for record in the real estate records of each county in which the Collateral, or any part thereof, is situated and may also be filed as a Financing Statement in the counties or in the office of the Secretary of State, as appropriate, in respect of those items of Collateral of a kind or character defined in or subject to the applicable provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in the appropriate jurisdiction.

SECTION 18 DEATH OR PERMANENT DISABILITY

18.01 In the event of death or permanent disability, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) where there is the death or permanent disability of the Designated Operator, the interest of the Designated Operator in this Agreement may be transferred to an Authorized Heir or sold to the remaining franchisee(s), provided the following conditions are met:

(i) if the Designated Operator's interest is transferred to an Authorized Heir, the Authorized Heir must in our opinion, be capable of operating the Business on a full time basis and successfully complete our initial training program,

(ii) if the Designated Operator's interest is to be sold to the remaining franchisee(s), such franchisee(s) must propose an individual who must be accepted by us as an individual capable of becoming the Designated Operator and who must own a minimum fifty one percent (51%) ownership interest in the Business, and such individual must successfully complete our initial training program;

In each of the instances set forth in subsections (i) and (ii) above, our then-current training fee shall be payable to us; until such training is completed, we shall have the right to take over the operation and management of the Business and charge a reasonable fee for providing our services as well as pay all monies payable to us pursuant to this Agreement;

(b) where there is more than one (1) franchisee and the death of the franchisee occurs who is not the Designated Operator, such franchisee's interest in this Agreement may be transferred to an Authorized Heir provided the Authorized Heir agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement;

(c) where the provisions of subsections (a) or (b) have not been complied with, the franchisee's estate or representative (as the case may be), shall have a period of one (1) year from the date of death or establishment of permanent disability (as the case may be) in which to sell the Designated Operator's or franchisee's interest in this Agreement, subject to the provisions of Section 16 hereof. If the estate or representative (as the case may be) do not sell such interest within the said one (1) year period, we shall have the right for a period of ninety (90) days following the end of the said one (1) year period to purchase the said interest for a purchase price equal to the fair market value of the portion of the Business to be sold less twenty five percent (25%) and less, further, any amounts owed to us and/or an Associate. Fair market value shall be determined by a qualified independent valuator or chartered accountant appointed by us. If we do not exercise such option and the estate or representative (as the case may be) do not otherwise sell such interest, same shall be deemed to be an event of default under this Agreement, entitling us to terminate this Agreement and all agreements entered into pursuant hereto without further notice.

18.02 For the purposes of this Section 18, the Designated Operator shall be deemed to have a "permanent disability" if his or her usual, active participation in the Business is for any reason curtailed for a continuous period of three (3) months; in calculating such period, unless such individual has returned to his or her usual, active participation in the Business for thirty (30) consecutive working days, then the said three (3) month period shall be deemed to have continued without interruption.

SECTION 19 ASSIGNMENT TO ASSIGNEE CORPORATION

We agree to consent to an assignment of this Agreement by you to an Assignee Corporation, provided (a) at the time of the assignment you are not in default of any provisions of this Agreement or any agreements entered into pursuant hereto, (b) unless such assignment occurs on the same date as the execution of this Agreement by you, you give us at least seven (7) days prior written notice of your intention to assign, (c) you do not include all or any part of the Mark as part of the name of the Assignee Corporation, (d) the Assignee Corporation agrees in writing to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement and any agreements entered into pursuant hereto on our required form, (e) you continue to remain personally liable

Nothing in this Agreement may be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, agency, employment or fiduciary relationship of any kind. None of your employees will be considered to be our employees. We will not have the power to hire or fire your employees. You acknowledge and agree, and will never contend otherwise, that you alone will exercise day-to-day control over all operations, activities and elements of your Business and that under no circumstance shall we do so or be deemed to do so. You further acknowledge and agree, and will never contend otherwise, that the various requirements, restrictions, prohibitions, specifications and procedures of the System which you are required to comply with under this Agreement, whether set forth in our Manual or otherwise, do not directly or indirectly constitute, suggest, infer or imply that we control any aspect or element of the day-to-day operations of your Business, which you alone control, but only constitute standards you must adhere to when exercising your control of the day-to-day operations of your Business.

You may not, without our prior written approval, have any power to obligate us for any expenses, liabilities or other obligations, other than as specifically provided in this Agreement. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, we may not control or have access to your funds or the expenditure of your funds or in any other way exercise dominion or control over your Business. Except as otherwise expressly authorized by this agreement, neither party will make any express or implied agreements, warranties, guarantees or representations or incur any debt in the name of or on behalf of the other party, or represent that the relationship between us and you is other than that of franchisor and franchisee. We do not assume any liability, and will not be considered liable, for any agreements, representations, or warranties made by you which are not expressly authorized under this Agreement. We will not be obligated for any damages to any person or property which directly or indirectly arise from or relate to your operation of the Garage Living Business.

20.04 Joint and Several Obligations

If there is more than one of you, the obligations of each of you shall be joint and several.

20.05 Unenforceability

If any provision of this Agreement shall be invalid or unenforceable, all other provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected and shall be separately valid and enforceable.

20.06 Grammar

The necessary grammatical changes to make the provisions of this Agreement apply in the plural sense, where there is more than one of you shall be assumed in each case as if fully expressed. The words, “hereof”, “herein”, “hereunder” and similar expressions used in this Agreement relate to the whole of this Agreement and not to any particular section or subsection, unless otherwise expressly provided for or the context clearly indicates to the contrary. Headings preceding the text are inserted for convenience of reference and shall not affect the meaning of this Agreement. Any reference to “our” shall mean only “we” and shall not include “you”, and for the purposes of clarity, any reference to “us” means only “we” and not “you”.

20.07 Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, and only the courts of the said state shall have jurisdiction in any matter arising out of this Agreement.

20.08 Time is of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

20.09 Waivers Only in Writing

The waiver by you or us of a breach of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver unless such waiver shall be in writing. No failure by us to exercise any right to demand exact compliance at any time and no custom of practice at variance with the provisions of this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of our right to demand exact compliance. The acceptance by us of any amount payable by you shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any breach of this Agreement by you other than for the failure to pay the amount so accepted and if you fail to pay any amounts owing pursuant to this Agreement, we may deduct any unpaid amounts from monies or credits held by us for your account. We may at our option, apply or allocate any monies received from you or on your behalf against any amounts owing by you pursuant to this Agreement.

20.10 Our Right to Sell

We may sell any interest we have in this Agreement and the Owner may sell any interest it may have in the System and the Marks without your consent, and we and the Owner shall be relieved of any liability to you subsequent to any sale.

20.11 Cross Default

If you have an ownership interest in another franchise using the System or in any other franchise business of us or any Associate, whether such interest is held directly or indirectly, and there shall be a default under this Agreement or any other agreement governing the operation of the other franchise using the System or in any other franchise business of us or any Associate, any such default shall be deemed to be a default under this Agreement and all of the other agreements, and we and/or the Associate shall be entitled to pursue all rights and remedies to which we and/or the Associate may be entitled under this Agreement and such other agreements.

20.12 Rights and Remedies Cumulative

The mention in this Agreement of any particular right or remedy we or any Associate may have because of any breach by you under this Agreement shall not prevent us or the Associate from exercising any other right or remedy, whether available at law or in equity or by statute or expressly provided for herein. No right or remedy shall be exclusive or dependent upon any other and we and the Associate may exercise any one or more rights or remedies generally or in combination, same being cumulative and not alternative.

20.13 Further Agreements

We and you shall execute and deliver such further agreements and do such further acts and things as may be necessary or desirable to give full effect to this Agreement.

20.14 Your Remedy

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement but subject to any applicable laws, you agree that in the event of any actual or alleged failure, breach or default under this Agreement by us or any Associate (i) your sole and exclusive remedy shall be against the entity then constituting us and the amount of any liability shall be limited to the lesser of the value of our assets located within the state in which the Premises is located, or the amount equal to the amount paid by you on account of the acquisition and initial setting up of the Business; (ii) no partner, officer, director, shareholder, employee or representative of us or any Associate shall be sued or named as a party to any suit or action; (iii) no judgment shall be taken against any partner, officer, director, shareholder, employee or representative of us or any Associate; (iv) no writ of execution shall be levied against the assets of any partner, officer, director, shareholder, employee or representative of us or any Associate; and (v) these covenants shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason and any Sale.

20.15 Amendments to this Agreement

No subsequent amendment, change or addition to this Agreement shall be binding upon us or you unless same shall be in writing and signed by us and you.

20.16 Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of us and you and all prior negotiations, commitments, representations, warranties and undertakings made prior hereto (if any and whether oral or written) are hereby merged; provided, however, that nothing in this or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made by us in the Disclosure Document that was furnished to you by us. There are no other inducements, representations, warranties, undertakings, agreements or promises, oral or otherwise, between us and you relating to the subject matter of this Agreement.

20.17 Binding Effect

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of us and you and each of our and your heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

20.18 Dispute Resolution by Mediation and Arbitration

(a) We and you acknowledge that during the term of this Agreement disputes may arise between us that may be resolvable through mediation. To facilitate such resolution, we and you agree that each party shall submit the dispute between us for non-binding mediation at a mutually agreeable location before commencing an arbitration proceeding under Section 20.18(c). If we and you cannot agree on a location, the mediation will be conducted in the State of Delaware. The mediation will be conducted by one (1) mediator who is appointed under the American Arbitration Association's Commercial Mediation Rules and who shall conduct the mediation in accordance with such rules. We and you agree that statements made by us, you or any other party in any such mediation proceeding will not be admissible in any arbitration or other legal proceeding. Each party shall bear its own costs and expenses of conducting the mediation and share equally the costs of any third parties who are required to participate in the mediation.

(b) If any dispute between the parties cannot be resolved through mediation within forty-five (45) days following the appointment of the mediator, the parties agree to submit such dispute to arbitration subject to the terms and conditions of Section 20.18(c).

(c) Except to the extent we elect to enforce the provisions of this Agreement by judicial process and injunction in our sole discretion, all disputes, claims and controversies between the parties arising under or in connection with this Agreement or the making, performance or interpretation thereof (including claims of fraud in the inducement and other claims of fraud and the arbitrability of any matter) which have not been settled through negotiation or mediation will be settled by binding arbitration in Delaware under the authority of Delaware Statutes. The arbitrator(s) will have a minimum of five (5) years of experience in franchising or distribution law and will have the right to award specific performance of this Agreement. If the parties cannot agree upon a mutually agreeable arbitrator, then the arbitration shall be conducted as per the selection method set forth in the Delaware Statutes. The proceedings will be conducted under the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association; to the extent such rules are not inconsistent with the provisions of this arbitration provision or the Delaware Statutes. The decision of the arbitrator(s) will be final and binding on all parties. This Section will survive termination or any non-extension or refusal of a successor term under any circumstances. Judgment upon the award of the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. During the pendency of any arbitration proceeding, you and we shall fully perform our respective obligations under this Agreement.

20.19 Litigation, Waiver of Jury Trial; Limitation of Damages, etc.

Without in any way limiting or otherwise affecting the parties' obligations regarding binding arbitration, the parties agree that any litigation between you and us (and/or involving any of your principals or which could be brought by you or on your behalf and including matters involving any of our related entities or otherwise), whether to enforce an arbitration award or involving any litigation, dispute, controversy, claim, proceeding or otherwise between or involving you and us which is not subject to the foregoing agreement regarding arbitration (or in the event that a court having jurisdiction should hold that the foregoing agreement regarding arbitration is not enforceable) or otherwise, will be held exclusively before a court in the most immediate state judicial district and court encompassing our headquarters and having subject matter jurisdiction or (if a basis for Federal jurisdiction is present) the applicable United States District Court, the parties consenting to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court(s) and WAIVING ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY.

So as to achieve many of the advantages which would normally be associated with arbitration (such as lower expense, more rapid resolution of controversies, fewer protracted and complex proceedings, reduced instances of costly and time-consuming appeal, use of a more sophisticated and experienced trier of fact and law, etc.) and for the parties' mutual benefit, THE PARTIES AGREE THAT IN ANY LITIGATION BETWEEN US AND YOU (AND/OR ANY OF YOUR PRINCIPALS OR WHICH COULD BE BROUGHT BY YOU OR ON YOUR BEHALF) THE PARTIES KNOWINGLY WAIVE ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY. IN ANY ARBITRATION, LITIGATION OR OTHERWISE, THE PARTIES WAIVE ALL RIGHTS TO PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, MULTIPLE, PAIN-AND-SUFFERING, MENTAL DISTRESS OR SIMILAR DAMAGES AND AGREE THAT THE PARTIES MAY ONLY RECOVER ACTUAL FINANCIAL LOSSES.

20.20 Periods in Which to Make Claims

(a) The parties agree that, except as provided below, no arbitration proceeding, action or suit (whether by way of claim, counterclaim, cross-complaint, raised as an affirmative defense or otherwise) by either party will lie against the other (nor will any action or suit by you against any person and/or entity affiliated with us), whether for damages, rescission, injunctive or any other legal and/or equitable relief, in respect of any alleged breach of this Agreement, or any other claim of any type, unless such party will have commenced such arbitration proceeding, action or suit before the expiration of the earlier of (i) one hundred eighty (180) days after the date upon which the state of facts giving rise to the cause of action comes to the attention of, or should reasonably have come to the attention of, such party; or (ii) one (1) year after the initial occurrence of any act or omission giving rise to the cause of action, whenever discovered.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations, where any federal, state or provincial law provides for a shorter limitation period than above described, whether upon notice or otherwise, such shorter period will govern.

(c) The foregoing limitations may, where brought into effect by our failure to commence an action within the time periods specified, operate to exclude our right to sue for damages but will in no case, even upon expiration or lapse of the periods specified or referenced above, operate to prevent us from terminating your rights and our obligations under this Agreement as provided herein and under applicable law nor prevent us from obtaining any appropriate court judgment, order or otherwise which enforces and/or is otherwise consistent with such termination.

(d) The foregoing limitations shall not apply to our claims arising from or related to: (1) your under-reporting of Gross Revenue; (2) your under-payment or non-payment of any amounts owed to us or any affiliated or otherwise related entity; (3) indemnification by you; (4) your confidentiality, non-competition or other exclusive relationship obligations; and/or (5) your unauthorized use of the Marks.

20.21 Costs and Legal Fees

If we are required to enforce this Agreement in a judicial or arbitration proceeding, you shall reimburse us for our costs and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable accountants', attorneys', attorney assistants', and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses, whether incurred prior to, in preparation for or in contemplation of the filing of any such proceeding. If we are required to engage legal counsel in connection with any failure by you to comply with this Agreement, you shall reimburse us for any of the above-listed costs and expenses incurred by us.

20.22 Step-In Rights

If we determine in our sole judgment that the operation of your Business is in jeopardy, or if a default occurs, then in order to prevent an interruption of the Business which would cause harm to the System and thereby lessen its value, you authorize us to operate your Business for as long as we deem necessary and practical, and without waiver of any other rights or remedies which we may have under this Agreement. In our sole judgment, we may deem you incapable of operating the Business if, without limitation, you are absent or incapacitated by reason of illness or death; you have failed to pay when due or have failed to remove any and all liens or encumbrances of every kind placed upon or against your Business; or we determine that operational problems require that we operate your Business for a period of time that we determine, in our sole discretion, to be necessary to maintain the operation of the Business as a going concern.

We shall keep in a separate account all monies generated by the operation of your Business, less the expenses of the Business, including reasonable compensation and expenses for our representatives. In the event of our exercise of the step-in rights, you agree to hold harmless us and our representatives for all actions occurring during the course of such temporary operation. You agree to pay all of our reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred as a consequence of our exercise of the step-in rights. Nothing contained herein shall prevent us from exercising any other right which we may have under this Agreement, including, without limitation, termination.

SECTION 21 SPECIAL PROVISIONS

21.01 Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement, any determination to be made and/or consent and/or approval to be given by us and/or where we may act in our discretion, may be made, given and acted upon by us solely on any basis and in accordance with any requirements solely determined by us and you agree we may act in an arbitrary manner and make any decision taking into account only our business judgment and interests.

21.02 You agree that certain provisions of this Agreement are intended to protect an Associate, and accordingly, such provisions may be enforced by the Associate even though the Associate is not a party to this Agreement. No Associate has any obligations to you.

The parties hereto have executed this agreement as of the day and year first above written.

For each order processed through the Call Center in which you will be providing the Product or Service, you will be required to pay us the amount we so determine from time to time. We and/or any Associate have the right to set guidelines in our and/or our Associate's discretion. Provided you are not in default of any provisions of this Agreement or any agreement entered into pursuant hereto, we and our Associates will use our best efforts to determine the orders of customers located within the Designated Territory and made through the Call Center will be forwarded to you; however, we and any Associate do not make or give you any promise, representation or guarantee that there will not be an error and an order, even where the customer is located within your Designated Territory, will be processed through your Premises. We and any Associate shall not be liable or otherwise responsible in the event of an error. You agree that we and any Associate may discontinue the use of and close the Call Center on a temporary or permanent basis at any time we so determine.

All orders processed by you at the Premises will be processed and delivered in accordance with the guidelines we and any Associate may establish. By way of example but without limitation, guidelines may include reference to time of delivery, packaging, driver behavior and how to deal with incorrect and missing orders. If it is determined by us and/or our Associate that orders are not being processed and delivered by you in accordance with the guidelines, you shall take immediate steps to comply with such guidelines, failing which we and such Associate shall have the right, without limiting any other of our and/or such Associate's rights and remedies, to exclude you from participation in the Call Center or in processing any orders until such time as you demonstrate you have taken the remedial steps required by us and/or such Associate. As well, you must ensure that all individuals employed by you and who are involved in any manner in the processing of orders through the Call Center are fully qualified in accordance with our required standards; in this regard, the Designated Operator and any of your employees who are involved in such process must complete our required training. If there is no individual at the Premises who has successfully completed such training, we shall have the absolute right not to consider processing or process any Call Center orders to you. In addition, if we determine in our discretion that any of these individuals do not meet our standards, you shall cease allowing such individuals to be involved in this process until such time as the individual qualifies in accordance with our required standards. If we and/or such Associate receive a complaint from a customer as to how you processed or delivered an order, we and/or such Associate shall make a determination as to whether the customer's complaint was caused because of the mistake of the Call Center or on account of how you processed and/or delivered the order. In making such an assessment, we and such Associate will act on a reasonable basis but any finding we and/or such Associate may make is final in determining how the complaint is dealt with. With respect to the customer, we, any Associate and you will act on the basis of the policy that the "customer is always right".

We shall have the right at any time during the Term to institute, and you shall be required to pay us, a reasonable processing charge for each order processed and/or a reasonable monthly charge for the right to access the Call Center, at such time as we shall determine.

Notwithstanding anything otherwise contained herein, and as stated, without limiting any other rights and remedies to which we may be entitled, if you are in default under any of your obligations under this Agreement or any agreements entered into pursuant hereto, we and an Associate shall have the right to cease referring any orders to you for processing through the Call Center. If at the time you are in default of any of your obligations under this Agreement or any agreements entered into pursuant hereto, notwithstanding your right to access the Call Center has been suspended, if at such time a fee for Call Center processing has been established, you shall continue to be responsible to pay any then required fee.

SCHEDULE “J” – CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT
(for trained employees, shareholders, officers, directors, general partners, members and managers of Franchisee)

In consideration of my being a _____ of _____ (“Franchisee”), and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, I hereby acknowledge and agree that:

1. Pursuant to a Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20__ (the “Franchise Agreement”), Franchisee has acquired the right and franchise from Garage Living Franchise Systems USA, Inc. (the “Company”) to establish and operate a Garage Living business (the “Business”) and the right to use in the operation of the Business the trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin designated by the Company (the “Marks”), as they may be changed, improved and further developed from time to time in the Company’s sole discretion, only at the following authorized and approved location: _____ (the “Premises”).

2. The Company, as the result of the expenditure of time, skill, effort and resources has developed and owns a distinctive format and system (the “System”) relating to the establishment and operation of Businesses, which provide design, supply and installation of residential garage organizers, cabinetry and concrete floor coatings. The Company possesses certain proprietary and confidential information relating to the operation of the System, which includes certain proprietary trade secrets, methods, techniques, formats, specifications, systems, procedures, methods of business practices and management, sales and promotional techniques and knowledge of, and experience in, the operation of the Business (the “Confidential Information”).

3. Any and all information, knowledge, know-how, and techniques which the Company specifically designates as confidential shall be deemed to be Confidential Information for purposes of this Agreement.

4. As _____ of the Franchisee, the Company and Franchisee will disclose the Confidential Information to me in furnishing to me training programs, the Company’s Confidential Operations Manuals (the “Manuals”), and other general assistance during the term of the Franchise Agreement.

5. I will not acquire any interest in the Confidential Information, other than the right to utilize it in the operation of the Business during the term of the Franchise Agreement, and the use or duplication of the Confidential Information for any use outside the System would constitute an unfair method of competition.

6. The Confidential Information is proprietary, involves trade secrets of the Company, and is disclosed to me solely on the condition that I agree, and I do hereby agree, that I shall hold in strict confidence all Confidential Information and all other information designated by the Company as confidential. Unless the Company otherwise agrees in writing, I will disclose and/or use the Confidential Information only in connection with my duties as _____ of the Franchisee, and will continue not to disclose any such information even after I cease to be in that position and will not use any such information even after I cease to be in that position unless I can demonstrate that such information has become generally known or easily accessible other than by the breach of an obligation of Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement.

7. Except as otherwise approved in writing by the Company, I shall not, while in my position with the Franchisee, either directly or indirectly for myself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, or corporation, own, maintain, operate, engage in, act as a consultant for, perform services for, or have any interest in any retail business or e-commerce business which: (a) is the same as, or substantially similar to, a Business; or (b) offers to sell or sells any products or services which are the same as, or substantially similar to, any of the products offered by a Business (a “Competitive Business”); and for a continuous uninterrupted period commencing upon the cessation or termination of my position with Franchisee, regardless of the cause for termination, or upon the expiration, termination, transfer, or assignment of the Franchise Agreement, whichever occurs first, and continuing for two (2) years thereafter, either directly or indirectly, for myself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, or corporation, own, maintain, operate, engage in, act as a consultant for, perform services for, or have any interest in any Competitive Business that is, or is intended to be, located at or within:

7.1 Franchisee’s Designated Territory, as defined in the Franchise Agreement (“Franchisee’s Designated Territory”);

7.2 Twenty-five (25) miles of Franchisee’s Designated Territory; or

7.3 Twenty-Five (25) miles of any Business operating under the System and the Marks.

The prohibitions in this Paragraph 7 do not apply to my interests in or activities performed in connection with a Business. This restriction does not apply to my ownership of less than five percent (5%) beneficial interest in the outstanding securities of any publicly held corporation.

8. I agree that each of the foregoing covenants shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Agreement is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in an unappealed final decision to which the Company is a party, I expressly agree to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Agreement.

9. I understand and acknowledge that the Company shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in this Agreement, or any portion thereof, without my consent, effective immediately upon receipt by me of written notice thereof; and I agree to comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified.

10. The Company is a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement and may enforce it, solely and/or jointly with the Franchisee. I am aware that my violation of this Agreement will cause the Company and the Franchisee irreparable harm; therefore, I acknowledge and agree that the Franchisee and/or the Company may apply for the issuance of an injunction preventing me from violating this Agreement, and I agree to pay the Franchisee and the Company all the costs it/they incur(s), including, without limitation, legal fees and expenses, if this Agreement is enforced against me. Due to the importance of this Agreement to the Franchisee and the Company, any claim I have against the Franchisee or the Company is a separate matter and does not entitle me to violate, or justify any violation of this Agreement.

11. This Agreement shall be construed under the laws of the state where the Business is located. The only way this Agreement can be changed is in writing signed by both the Franchisee and me.

SCHEDULE “L” – CONTINUING GUARANTY

(To be used to guaranty the obligations of a corporate or limited liability company you or to guaranty the obligations of a franchisee other than the guarantor)

_____ (hereinafter referred to as “Guarantor”) whose address is _____, as a material inducement to and in consideration for GARAGE LIVING FRANCHISE SYSTEMS USA, INC. (hereinafter referred to as “we”, “us” or “our”) entering into a Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) with _____ (hereinafter referred to as “Franchisee”), dated _____, 20____, unconditionally guarantees and promises to and for our benefit that Franchisee shall perform faithfully and completely all of the provisions, obligations and duties that Franchisee has agreed to perform under the Franchise Agreement and/or any other obligations undertaken or to be undertaken by Franchisee in favor of us or our parent, subsidiary, or affiliated corporation, corporations, individuals or other entities.

If Guarantor is more than one (1) person, Guarantor’s obligations are joint and several. Guarantor’s obligations are also independent of Franchisee’s obligations. A separate action may be brought or prosecuted against any Guarantor whether or not the action is brought or prosecuted against any other Guarantor or against Franchisee, or any or all of them, or whether any other Guarantor or Franchisee is or are jointed in the action.

Guarantor waives the benefit of any statute of limitations or other provision of law which in any way affects or limits Guarantor’s liability under this Guaranty.

The provisions of the Franchise Agreement or other obligation involving Franchisee may be changed between us or other concerned party or entity and Franchisee at any time and in any manner, either by written or oral agreement, by operation of law, by course of conduct, or otherwise, without the consent of or notice to Guarantor. This Guaranty shall continue to guaranty the performance of Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement and/or other obligation as so modified without further agreement or act of Guarantor being required.

Assignment by Franchisee or by us of the Franchise Agreement or other obligation as permitted in that Agreement or other obligation shall not affect this Guaranty and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder shall carry over to the transferee of either party to the Franchise Agreement or other obligation.

This Guaranty shall not be affected nor the obligations of Guarantor hereunder limited in any way by our delay in enforcement or failure to enforce any of our rights under the Franchise Agreement, other guaranteed obligation, or under this Guaranty.

If Franchisee commits a breach of the Franchise Agreement, or other guaranteed obligation, we can proceed immediately against Guarantor or Franchisee, or both, or we can enforce against Guarantor or Franchisee, or both, any rights which we have under the Franchise Agreement, other obligation, or pursuant to applicable law, or both. If the Franchise Agreement or other obligation terminates, we can enforce any rights we have following such termination against Guarantor, Franchisee, or both, without giving prior notice to Guarantor, Franchisee, or either, and/or without making demand on Guarantor, Franchisee, or either.

Guarantor waives the right to require us to proceed against Franchisee before proceeding against Guarantor, to proceed against or exhaust any security that we hold from Franchisee, Guarantor, or any other source, and/or to pursue any other remedy available to us prior to proceeding against Guarantor, Franchisee, or either. Guarantor further waives any defense available to Guarantor, Franchisee, or either, by reason of any disability of Franchisee, and further waives any other defense based on the termination or limitation of Franchisee's liability by reason of any cause, event, term or condition, including any defense or limitation available by operation of law.

Until all of Franchisee's obligations to us have been satisfied and discharged in full, Guarantor waives any right of subrogation against Franchisee. Guarantor waives any right it may have to enforce any remedies that we may now have against Franchisee, or may have at a later time. Guarantor further waives all presentments, protests, demands of any type, notices of any type, including notices of protest, notices of dishonor, and notices of acceptance of this Guaranty. Guarantor waives the foregoing as to present and/or future obligations and specifically waives any and all notices of the existence, creation or incurrence of any new or additional obligations of Franchisee to us.

If we are required, in our discretion, to enforce Guarantor's obligations under this Guaranty by legal proceedings, and/or by the employment of an attorney, or are required to take any other or additional collection or other action to enforce our rights hereunder, Guarantor agrees to pay to us all costs incurred by us in such proceedings, action and/or employment, including court costs, costs of suit, and attorneys' fees.

This Guaranty shall be binding upon Guarantor, and each and all of them, if more than one (1), and upon his, her, its or their successors, representatives and assigns.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Shareholders of
Garage Living Franchise Systems USA, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Garage Living Franchise Systems USA, Inc. which comprises the balance sheets as of December 31, 2024 and 2023 and the related statements of operations, statement of shareholders' equity (deficit), and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Garage Living Franchise Systems USA, Inc. as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Garage Living Franchise Systems USA, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Garage Living Franchise Systems USA, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

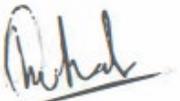

Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Garage Living Franchise Systems USA, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Garage Living Franchise Systems USA, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

GARAGE LIVING FRANCHISE SYSTEMS USA, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. THE COMPANY

Garage Living Franchise Systems USA, Inc. (“the Company”) is Delaware corporation that was incorporated in July 2014 to offer franchises for the operation of a business that provides design, supply and installation of residential garage organizers, cabinetry, concrete floor coatings, car lifts, garage doors, garage door operators, renovations services and additional products and services related to residential garage renovations under the name “Garage Living.”

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting-The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under the accrual method, revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when a liability is incurred, without regard to disbursement of cash.

Franchise Arrangements-The company's franchise agreements generally include a license which provides for payments of initial fees as well as continuing royalties to the company based upon a percentage of sales. Under this arrangement, franchisees are granted the right to operate Garage Living franchises for a specified number of years.

Concentration of Credit Risk-Financial instruments that potentially expose the Company to concentration of credit risk primarily consist of cash and cash equivalents. The balances in the Company’s cash accounts did not exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Company’s (FDIC) insurance limit of $ 250,000. The Company maintains its cash and cash equivalents with accredited financial institutions.

Use of Estimates-The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could vary from those estimates.

3. ACCOUNTS & ROYALTIES RECEIVABLE

Accounts and royalty receivables are non-interest-bearing franchisee obligations due under normal trade terms. Accounts and royalty receivables are stated at the amount billed to the franchisee. Payments of accounts receivable are allocated to the specific invoices identified on the franchisee’s remittance advance, or, if unspecified, are verified with the franchisee with any unknown residual applied on account.

The Company maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts. This allowance reflects the Company’s estimate of the amount of its receivables that it will be unable to collect. Receivables past due are specifically analyzed by management and, if necessary, a reserve is established. The allowance for doubtful accounts was $288,341 and $180,328 at December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

GARAGE LIVING FRANCHISE SYSTEMS USA, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

As of December 31, 2024 the outstanding balance is $218,388.

5. REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company records revenue in accordance Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") and Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). The transaction price attributable to performance obligations are recognized as the performance obligations are satisfied. 7. TAXES ON INCOME

The Company is a "C" corporation for income tax purposes. We account for income taxes in accordance with the relevant authoritative guidance. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are computed for temporary differences between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are reflected on the balance sheet when it is determined that it is more likely than not that the asset will be realized.
