How to Use This Franchise Disclosure Document

Here are some questions you may be asking about buying a franchise and tips on how to find more information:

QUESTION	WHERE TO FIND INFORMATION
How much can I earn?	Item 19 may give you information about outlet sales, costs, profits or losses. You should also try to obtain this information from others, like current and former franchisees. You can find their names and contact information in Item 20 or Attachments G and H.
How much will I need to invest?	Items 5 and 6 list fees you will be paying to the franchisor or at the franchisor's direction. Item 7 lists the initial investment to open. Item 8 describes the suppliers you must use.
Does the franchisor have the financial ability to provide support to my business?	Item 21 or Attachment I includes financial statements. Review these statements carefully.
Is the franchise system stable, growing, or shrinking?	Item 20 summarizes the recent history of the number of company-owned and franchised outlets.
Will my business be the only Crestcom business in my area?	Item 12 and the "territory" provisions in the franchise agreement describe whether the franchisor and other franchisees can compete with you.
Does the franchisor have a troubled legal history?	Items 3 and 4 tell you whether the franchisor or its management have been involved in material litigation or bankruptcy proceedings.
What's it like to be a Crestcom franchisee?	Item 20 or Attachment G and H list current and former franchisees. You can contact them to ask about their experiences.
What else should I know?	These questions are only a few things you should look for. Review all 23 Items and all Exhibits in this disclosure document to better understand this franchise opportunity. See the table of contents.

What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Attachment J.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Colorado. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Colorado than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

INFORMATION FOR PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEES IN MICHIGAN

The State of Michigan prohibits certain unfair provisions that are sometimes in franchise documents. If any of the following provisions are in these franchise documents, the provisions are void and cannot be enforced against you.

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

- (A) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (B) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (C) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of franchisee to comply with any lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (D) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration, of franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than five years; and (ii) franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or franchisee does not receive at least six months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (E) A provision that permits franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (F) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state. (The above language has been included in this Disclosure Document as a condition for registration. We and you do not agree that the parties are restricted from choosing to conduct arbitration outside of Michigan and believe that each of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement, including each of the arbitration provisions, is fully enforceable. We and you intend to rely on the federal pre-emption under the Federal Arbitration Act.)
- (G) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed franchisee to meet franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.

- (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of franchisor or subfranchisor.
- (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.
- (iv) The failure of franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(H) A provision that requires franchisee to resell to franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (C).

(I) A provision which permits franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

The fact that there is a notice of this offering on file with the Attorney General does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the Attorney General.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000, the franchisor shall, at the request of a franchisee, arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by franchisee or subfranchisor until the obligations to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

ITEM 1
THE FRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS, AND AFFILIATES

The Franchisor, its Predecessors and Affiliates. The Franchisor is Crestcom International, LLC. For ease of reference, Crestcom International, LLC is referred to as “we,” or “us” in this Disclosure Document. The person who buys the franchise is referred to as “you” throughout this Disclosure Document. If you are a business entity, certain provisions of the Franchise Agreement also apply to the owners of the business entity and will be noted.

We are a Delaware limited liability company organized on December 21, 2007. We do business under our company name and no other name. We offer and sell franchises that operate under the name “Crestcom.” Our principal place of business is located at 6900 East Belleview Avenue, Suite 100, Greenwood Village, Colorado, U.S.A. 80111. Our agents for service of process are disclosed in Attachment J.

We are owned by a holding company called Crestcom International Holdings, LLC (“Holdings”), a Delaware limited liability company formed on October 21, 2013. It acquired all of our ownership interest as of November 15, 2013. Under the FTC’s Franchise Rule, Holdings is considered to be our parent. The principal business address for Holdings is the same as ours.

The Business. We are in the business of developing, producing, and distributing management, sales and personnel development training programs and conducting training seminars. We also offer franchises for management, sales and personnel development training businesses under the marks “CRESTCOM®” and “CRESTCOM TRAINERS TO THE WORLD®,” and related service marks, trademarks and trade names (“Marks”) using our system for operating the businesses and related licensed methods of doing business (“Licensed Methods”). We have developed a combination of live and video media training programs, including the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program, previously referred to as the BULLET PROOF Manager training program, a video media-based, live facilitated training program which is typically provided over a 12-month period, and Crestcom L.E.A.D.R.+ , a video media-based, live facilitated subscription program. Additionally, we and our predecessors have developed and copyrighted stand-alone video media, audio media, online media, and written training programs which are marketed to individuals and groups.

The Franchise. The franchise offered is for the operation of a management, sales and personnel development training business (“CRESTCOM Business”) using the Marks and the Licensed Methods. The Licensed Methods feature the sale or use for a fee of written materials, visual aids, and audio, video, and online media designed to be used as stand-alone training programs or in conjunction with specialized live in-person instruction seminars (“Live Instruction”) to instruct individuals, companies or other organizations (“clients”) in a variety of areas, including business, sales, motivation, customer service and management skills and development. We will refer to all written materials, visual aids, audio media, video media, online media, and related marketing aids, and any substitutes for, or items that are a technological evolution of, any of the foregoing items, whether used in stand-alone training programs or Live Instruction, as “Materials” in this Disclosure Document. You may market the Materials from your residence or another approved franchise location.

Our CRESTCOM Business franchise program involves the licensing by us of the right to use our Marks and Licensed Methods in the operation of a management, sales and personnel development training business. Under our CRESTCOM Business franchise program, you are required to pay us an initial franchise fee, sign our standard franchise agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”), and operate your CRESTCOM Business according to our standards and specifications. A copy of our Franchise Agreement is attached to this Disclosure Document as Attachment A. Persons who execute a Franchise Agreement are sometimes referred to in this Disclosure Document as “Franchisees.”

When you purchase a CRESTCOM Business franchise, you will receive, on payment of your initial franchise fee, an “Initial Inventory” of training and sample documents. We can change the product mix of the Initial Inventory at any time, without notice, and may provide some or all of the materials digitally. You will also be given access to the Franchise Network portion of our intranet Crestcom Operations and Communications Hub (“C.O.A.C.H.”) where we electronically place portions of our Procedures Manual, defined in Item 8 below, agreements you will use, and other information reserved to our Franchisees and clients.

As a Franchisee of ours, you also are granted the right to acquire Materials from us and our approved suppliers. You pay us a fixed monthly Distribution Fee and, when you sell the Materials to a client, you pay us a Royalty Fee based on your Gross Revenues. See Item 6 for a more detailed discussion of the Distribution Fee, Royalty Fee and your Gross Revenues.

Under our CRESTCOM Business franchise program, you will specialize in marketing video media-based, live-facilitated management and sales training programs, the most popular of which is the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training series. The Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training participants typically attend half-day sessions conducted by a facilitator (“Facilitator”) once a month for 12 consecutive months, and if participants choose to continue, once a quarter after the first 12 months under the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R.+ program. The Facilitator may be you or a person designated by you to conduct the training sessions. Participation in this and other authorized training programs enables participants to enhance their management or sales skills while simultaneously learning how to incorporate the same training within their own company.

We also offer a sales training program which established Franchisees may target to existing clients (the “Crestcom Next Generation Sales Academy Program” or the “Crestcom Sales Academy”), an ongoing advanced training program (the “Crestcom L.E.A.D.R.+ Program”), and an abbreviated version of the leadership and management program which established Franchisees may target to existing clients (the “Crestcom International Supervisor Program”). Additionally, we have updated and adapted certain earlier iterations of our leadership and management programs to an online format which you may sell as an add-on to the standard Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program (the “Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. Catalogue”). You must meet our qualification requirements before marketing the Crestcom Next Generation Sales Academy Program, the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R.+ Program, the Crestcom International Supervisor Program, or the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. Catalogue. Franchisees who choose to market the Crestcom Next Generation Sales Academy Program must pay us an additional surcharge. We may also impose a surcharge on offering the Crestcom International Supervisor Program, the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R.+ Program, and the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. Catalogue, but we do not do so as of the date of this Disclosure Document. We may offer you the option to acquire other optional training programs in the future. If we do so, we will notify you of the terms and conditions under which you may acquire the optional training program, which may include additional franchise, license, access and other introductory fees or surcharges, other additional fees or surcharges, qualification requirements, additional training, and different operating specifications and standards. We may offer the optional training programs under a separate franchise agreement, an addendum to the Franchise Agreement, or another agreement, in our sole discretion, containing the terms and conditions for the relevant optional training program. We reserve the right to discontinue the Crestcom Next Generation Sales Academy Program, the Crestcom International Supervisor Program, the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R.+ Program, the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. Catalogue, and any other optional training programs at any time in our sole discretion upon notice to you.

As stated in Item 15 below, you will have a limited right to retain up to two salespersons (“Salespersons”) to operate within your Assigned Area (defined in Item 12). If we have created a PMA Program (defined in Item 12) for your Assigned Area and designated a Principal Marketing Area (defined in Item 12) for you, then there is no limitation on the number of Salespersons you may retain in your Principal Marketing Area.

We also enter into area representative agreements (“Area Representative Agreements”) with third parties who agree to introduce potential Franchisees within designated geographic areas. Persons who enter into Area Representative Agreements with us (“Area Representatives”) sometimes provide certain assistance and support to our Franchisees within their geographic area. Prior to 2015, we referred to our Area Representatives as Area Developers. We may delegate or assign some of our obligations to you to an Area Representative whose territory includes or is close to your Assigned Area. We may also pay the Area Representative a portion of the initial franchise fee and other fees paid by you to us, in exchange for performing these obligations. We do not grant Area Representatives any management responsibility relating to the sale or operation of CRESTCOM Businesses. Area Representative Agreements are only offered in selected geographic regions. Area Representative Agreements are offered with a separate disclosure document. Area Representatives who also acquire a CRESTCOM Business franchise from us will be disclosed with this Disclosure Document and will sign a copy of the Franchise Agreement for that CRESTCOM Business franchise.

If you introduce a prospective Franchisee or Area Representative to us who was not previously known to us, and that person becomes a Franchisee or Area Representative of ours, we will provide you with a credit to acquire Materials or other items from us equal to the lesser of (i) 15 percent of (a) the initial franchise fee, or (b) the initial area representative fee, as paid by the person or entity referred by you, or (ii) $10,000. If the new Franchisee or Area Representative pays its initial franchise fee, or its initial area representative fee, in installments, the credit will be provided on a pro rata basis by the last day of the month in which funds are received. Otherwise, the credit will be provided to you when the initial franchise fee, or initial area representative fee, is paid in full.

Market for the Franchise Services. The market for management, sales and personnel development training consists of individuals, companies and other organizations that have a desire to improve the skills of their management, sales and personnel staff. The Materials are designed to be marketed to a range of businesses, from those with two or more managers to Fortune 500 companies. The market is generally established and developed, but is growing as new businesses are established and existing businesses learn about the advantages of improving their management and sales techniques and personnel development. The sales of the services are not seasonal.

Competition. You may be in competition with other Franchisees and Area Representatives of ours located in your Assigned Area, as well as other companies which market management, sales and other types of training programs and/or video media, some of whom conduct management, sales or personnel development seminars. You will also compete with other organizations and business consultants who focus on management, sales and other business related subjects or skills.

Regulations. We know of no current federal, state or local regulations specific to the marketing of our Materials. However, you should familiarize yourself with federal, state or local laws of a more general nature, which may affect the operation of your CRESTCOM Business. It will be your responsibility to inquire into and comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to the operation of your CRESTCOM Business, including employment, worker’s compensation, insurance, corporate, taxing and licensing laws and regulations.

Business History of Us and Our Predecessors and Affiliates. Through a business operated by a former officer of ours, Crestcom International, Ltd., our predecessor (“CIL”), participated in a prototype operation of a CRESTCOM Business from 1990 to 1997, originally in the State of Illinois and later in the State of Arizona, U.S.A. This prototype operation was converted to a franchised CRESTCOM Business in 1997.

Since 1989, CIL and we have had licensed Franchisees outside of the United States for the operation of businesses similar to a CRESTCOM Business offered in this Disclosure Document. CIL first began offering franchises for CRESTCOM Businesses in the United States in April 1992. We first began offering franchises for CRESTCOM Businesses in January 2008, following our acquisition of substantially all of the assets of CIL. Neither we, nor any of our affiliates currently offer franchises in any other lines of business, although we may do so in the future. As of December 31, 2024, there were 170 franchises operating in 65 countries, including the United States of America.

Except as described above, none of our predecessors, affiliates or parents have conducted business or offered franchises in any other line of business.

ITEM 3 LITIGATION

No litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 4 BANKRUPTCY

No bankruptcy information is required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 5 INITIAL FEES

The initial franchise fee for one CRESTCOM Business franchise is $75,000. The initial franchise fee is customarily paid in two installments. In most cases a refundable deposit (“Deposit”) of $2,500 is paid with the signing of the Confidentiality/Application Agreement (“Application Agreement”), a copy of which is attached to this Disclosure Document as Attachment B. Once the Deposit has been paid, you may attend the initial training program, which is a classroom training program that lasts approximately two days (the “Initial Training Program”). If after the Initial Training Program you and we agree to proceed with signing a Franchise Agreement, then the Deposit is converted to a down payment toward your initial franchise fee. The remaining amount due is typically paid in full with the signing of the Franchise Agreement. If either you or we elect not to proceed with the signing of the Franchise Agreement immediately after the completion of the Initial Training Program, then we will refund your Deposit.

If you have served as a veteran of the armed forces of the United States, you may be eligible to receive a discount of 10 percent off of the initial franchise fee that would otherwise be due.

We may, in our discretion, agree to finance a portion of your initial franchise fee. For information regarding financing, see Item 10 of this Disclosure Document.

Except as described above related to the Deposit, no portion of any initial fees or other amounts paid to us as described in this Item 5 are refundable under any circumstances once paid.

If applicable, a portion of your initial franchise fee may be paid by us to the Area Representative located in your Assigned Area or to another Franchisee or Area Representative who has referred you to us or provided us services related to your introduction to the Crestcom system.

Except as is provided in this Item 5, all initial franchise fees for U.S. Franchisees are uniform as to all persons currently acquiring a CRESTCOM Business franchise, except that we may in certain circumstances modify the fees and payment terms for certain franchisees and areas in our discretion.

² The Distribution Fee represents a fixed portion of our income, which we realize from the first month after you sign the Franchise Agreement. The Distribution Fee is paid in exchange for certain ongoing services that we provide to our Franchisees, including (i) the ongoing consultation we will provide by telephone or other electronic methods, on a Franchisee's reasonable request, regarding the continued operation and management of a CRESTCOM Business; (ii) the market information we will periodically provide; (iii) support services in a Franchisee's efforts to engage qualified Salespeople; (iv) our services in preparing and distributing our newsletter, best practices guidelines, and other resources and maintaining our C.O.A.C.H. site; and (v) other ongoing services that we provide periodically which are not covered by a separate fee.

³ Franchisees pay us an introductory surcharge when we produce or obtain a new, revised, or updated training program that may be provided in audio, video, online, or other media format that was not available on the effective date of the Franchisee's Franchise Agreement ("New Materials"). Franchisees must begin marketing the new program within 30 days after it becomes available. The current amount of the introductory surcharge is $500 per new media unit or module of the New Materials for the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program. We may change the introductory surcharge by amending the Procedures Manual. You must be in compliance with your surcharge obligations as a condition of the exercise of the successor franchise rights or transfer of your Franchise Agreement. We may, in our discretion, agree to finance a portion of your New Materials surcharge as discussed in Item 10.

L.E.A.D.R.+ Program, and the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. Catalogue may only be marketed to existing clients in your Assigned Area. We reserve the right to modify or discontinue the Crestcom Next Generation Sales Academy, the Crestcom International Supervisor Program, the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R.+ Program, or the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. Catalogue at our sole discretion. We may, in our discretion, agree to finance a portion of your Crestcom Next Generation Sales Academy Program surcharge as discussed in Item 10. Similarly, the 360 Assessment is an optional assessment service you may offer to your clients. Currently, your revenues from the 360 Assessment will not be included in your Gross Revenues subject to Royalty Fees so long as the criteria set forth in the Procedures Manual are met, although we may change these terms in the future. You must pay the supplier for each assessment and report provided. We may introduce additional optional training programs and services in the future and offer you the rights to those programs for additional fees or surcharges.

⁵ We may charge any fees against your credit card or bank account, at our option. Before you commence operations of your CRESTCOM Business, you must sign and deliver to us a credit card authorization permitting us to charge your credit card for all Royalty Fees, Distribution Fees, and other payments due to us under the Franchise Agreement or otherwise. You must also sign and deliver to us and your bank all documents needed to permit us to debit your bank account (“ACH Withdrawal”) for the Royalty Fees, Distribution Fees, and other payments due to us under the Franchise Agreement or otherwise. As of the date of this Disclosure Document, we charge Distribution Fees by ACH Withdrawal, and other fees via credit card, although we may change how the various fees are charged in the future. The credit card and bank account must be dedicated exclusively to the CRESTCOM Business and not used for any other business or non-business purpose. If you change your credit card or if you change your account or transfer your account to a different bank, you must notify us within one day, and sign and deliver to us, and your bank if applicable, new documents to permit us to charge your credit card and debit your bank account within three days. You must also execute and deliver to us any replacement or additional credit card or ACH Withdrawal authorizations we request. These authorizations may be in electronic form, and the payments may be administered through an online system. You must maintain at least $5,000 in your bank account for the ACH Withdrawal and have a credit limit of at least $5,000 on your credit card. We may require you to pay all amounts due by means other than credit card or ACH Withdrawal whenever we deem appropriate, and may require that you execute the forms and complete the procedures we may establish to permit us to charge your fees to a bank account or credit card.

Explanatory Notes

NOTE 1: Initial Franchise Fee. The initial franchise fee for our CRESTCOM Business franchise is $75,000. See Item 5 for a discussion of our initial franchise fee.

NOTE 2: Distribution Fees. You are required to pay us a Distribution Fee of $875 each month. This estimate includes the Distribution Fee for your first three months following execution of your Franchise Agreement.

NOTE 3: Lease Costs. Most current Franchisees maintain an office in their residence. However, you may elect to lease office space from which to conduct your business. You will only need a 100 square foot office in an executive suite with a shared receptionist. The office will not need to be located in a central business district. The estimates in the table include the first three months' lease payment and a security deposit equal to one month's rent. However the lease rate and required deposit for leased office space will vary considerably from area to area.

NOTE 4: Initial Inventory. Upon payment of your initial franchise fee, we will provide you with our Initial Inventory at no further charge to you. Our Initial Inventory contains training materials and sample documents to promote your CRESTCOM Business. Some or all of the items included in the Initial Inventory may be provided in digital form.

NOTE 5: Equipment and Supplies. The initial cost for equipment is estimated to be from $575 to $2,000, based on the following:

Equipment	Minimum Amount	Maximum Amount
Video Projector	$500	$500
Phone System	$75	$100
Computer System	-0-	$1,400
Total	$575	$2,000

You may already own some of the items contained in the equipment listed above. In that event you will only need to obtain the remaining items listed. The projection screen used to conduct your training sessions is often provided by the hotel or other meeting place where you hold your training sessions. Therefore, we have not included this item in these estimates. You may also be able to find a source that will allow you to lease your equipment.

NOTE 6: Insurance. General liability insurance varies in each assigned area. We recommend that a Franchisee maintain insurance on the Materials in its possession or control. No estimate is given for the cost of that insurance. You should consult an attorney or insurance advisor for recommended coverage. You may need to increase any existing automobile insurance coverage that you presently have due to the increased amount of usage of your automobile. Estimates for automobile insurance are shown in the table.

NOTE 7: Initial Training Expenses. An Initial Training Program is provided at no additional charge to you for up to three persons, and an initial LaunchPad to Success training program (as defined in Item 11) is provided at no additional charge to you for up to two persons, although only one person is required to attend and complete both programs. You are responsible for the travel, lodging and living expenses of each person you select to attend the training programs. However, either or both of these programs may be offered virtually at our discretion. The table lists the estimated costs for travel, lodging and living expenses in connection with one person attending the training programs, with the low end assuming that the training is conducted virtually and there are no travel, lodging and living expenses. We will reimburse you for one-half of the hotel accommodation cost for one person at the Initial Training Program or, at our discretion, one-half of the cost of transportation to and from the training site by the most economical means for one person's attendance at the Initial Training Program, except if you are acquiring your CRESTCOM Business as the result of a transfer or if you attend a virtual Initial Training Program.

NOTE 8: Seminar Expenses. You may decide to conduct management training and hold monthly Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. courses in area hotels or meeting rooms. The estimated cost for one month's training is approximately $0 to $1,250, representing costs for the meeting room depending on where your seminars are held. You may be able to reduce this cost by offering to train hotel personnel in exchange for the use of the facilities. We agree to waive your Royalty Fees for one such exchange per year. The numbers in the chart assume that you will serve as the Facilitator.

NOTE 9: Legal and Accounting. You are encouraged to consult with legal counsel and an accountant in connection with your investment in this CRESTCOM Business and with start-up business concerns. Franchisees must maintain accurate books and records. At our request, Franchisees must provide us with their annual financial statements, which may be unaudited but be compiled or reviewed by an independent certified public accountant, and their state and federal income tax returns within 120 days after the end of each applicable fiscal year. We cannot accurately estimate the amount of fees that you will pay to an accountant to assist you in preparing your financial statements and tax returns. You should consult with your own accountant in order to determine the initial and continuing costs of complying with our administration and accounting requirements.

NOTE 10: Marketing Program. Unless otherwise agreed to by us, Franchisees must follow our proprietary prescribed marketing plan, which is provided in the Procedures Manual, for generating leads for their CRESTCOM Businesses, including mailing to bona fide prospective clients a minimum number of our proprietary mailing instruments each month for a designated period of time. You will be responsible for all costs associated with acquiring, preparing and mailing our proprietary mailing instrument to your prospective clients.

We may provide telemarketing services to you under such terms and conditions as we may determine, and if you choose to use those telemarketing services, the amounts you pay to us for those services are nonrefundable, but will be credited toward your required expenditures under our proprietary prescribed marketing plan. The details of our proprietary prescribed marketing plan are found in the Procedures Manual.

NOTE 11: Additional Funds. The disclosure laws require us to include this estimate of all additional expenses to operate your CRESTCOM Business during the "initial period" of the business, which is defined as three months or a longer period if "reasonable for the industry." We are not aware of any established longer "reasonable period," so our disclosures cover a three-month period. This amount is an estimate and includes a Franchisee's pre-operational expenses which are not listed above, as well as estimated additional funds necessary for the first three months of business operations. It includes travel, freight, rent, permits, taxes, utilities, advertising, and other operational expenses, but does not include a salary or draw for the Franchisee or others, including any Salespersons, Facilitators or telemarketers employed by the Franchisee. You are not required to employ any of these persons. You may have additional expenses starting your business. Your costs depend on several factors and may vary beyond the range noted above.

NOTE 12: Total Estimated Initial Investment. In compiling these figures, we have relied on the more than 30 years of experience of our predecessor and us in this business and the cumulative years of similar experience of our individual management personnel. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase a franchise. Except as stated in this Item 7, we do not provide an estimate of operating costs for your CRESTCOM Business over any period.

NOTE 13: Refunds. Except for the Deposit described in Item 5 above, no other payments to us are refundable under any circumstances. Payments to third parties may or may not be refundable depending on your agreement with such third parties; however, usually such payments are nonrefundable.

ITEM 8

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Franchisees must establish and operate their CRESTCOM Businesses in compliance with our Franchise Agreement and with the standards and specifications contained in the manuals, technical bulletins, and other supplemental written materials that we make available to Franchisees (collectively, the “Procedures Manual”). We will provide you with a copy of the Procedures Manual for use during training, and will make available to you the Procedures Manual through our proprietary, restricted, and confidential licensee’s intranet C.O.A.C.H. site, or via any other written, audio, video, or online source that we choose. You must read and learn the Procedures Manual and comply with it in the development and operation of your CRESTCOM Business as an essential aspect of your obligations under the Franchise Agreement. Our Procedures Manual may be modified by us. If any inconsistencies exist between the provisions in any Procedures Manual we make available to you and our master Procedures Manual we maintain at our office, regardless of whether it is in electronic or other form, our master Procedures Manual will control. The Procedures Manual is designed to protect our reputation and the goodwill of the Marks, it is not designed to control the day-to-day operations of your CRESTCOM Business.

We will provide Franchisees standards and specifications for Materials, Live Instruction and related materials and services that they may offer through their CRESTCOM Businesses. We also provide sales and management training techniques, forms and business methods to be used in a CRESTCOM Business. We may change our standards and specifications on 10 days prior written notice.

One of our primary methods of communication with our Franchisees, distributors, and Area Representatives is through our proprietary, restricted, and confidential intranet, C.O.A.C.H. site. You are responsible for knowing all of the information contained in our C.O.A.C.H. site, best practices guidelines, and newsletters, and complying with any standards and specifications provided in them. We may establish and change the standards and specifications for the operation of a CRESTCOM Business through our C.O.A.C.H. site, best practices guidelines, and newsletters.

Unless otherwise agreed to by us, Franchisees must comply with our proprietary prescribed marketing plan.

Franchisees must purchase or otherwise acquire all items used in their CRESTCOM Businesses from suppliers designated or approved by us. If you want to utilize any materials or services in your CRESTCOM Business, or use any new suppliers that have not previously been approved by us, you must first obtain our approval. We may, in our discretion, withhold our approval. We do not have written criteria for supplier approval, and therefore such criteria are not provided to any of our Franchisees. However, we may require that you submit specifications, information or samples of the items for our review to determine if they meet our specifications and standards as to quality, content, composition and service. We will advise you within 30 days after we receive the required information whether the items or proposed suppliers meet our specifications. We do not require that a fee be paid to us to secure supplier approval; however, we may require you or the supplier to reimburse us for any expenses we incur in determining if the supplier meets our specifications and standards. We may revoke our approval of any supplier previously approved by written notice to you or the supplier. No person or company affiliated with us is currently an approved supplier for any of the items used in your CRESTCOM Business. Some of our officers have an indirect ownership interest in us. Otherwise, no officer of ours owns any interest in any of our approved suppliers.

You must purchase the Materials only from us and our approved suppliers. We are currently the sole approved supplier of all of the audio, video, and online media included in the Materials. We estimate that the purchase of Materials to be used in your CRESTCOM Business will be zero percent of the total cost to establish your CRESTCOM Business because, with the payment of your initial franchise fee, we provide you with our Initial Inventory (or, in our discretion, a credit to be used toward the acquisition of products and Materials from us). Because we do not typically require Franchisees to provide us with their financial statements, we cannot accurately estimate what the percentage of your ongoing acquisition of Materials to the total of all recurring operating expenses of your CRESTCOM Business will be. However, we estimate that acquiring Materials and other items in accordance with our standards and specifications will comprise 90 to 95 percent of the product purchase requirements for both the initial investment and ongoing operations.

You are solely responsible for any claims or liability arising from or related to products used in your CRESTCOM Business, including any strict product liability claims.

You cannot buy or sell Materials from or to any other current or former Franchisee or distributor without our written consent. We may withhold our consent in our discretion.

Franchisees must comply with all agreements with third parties related to their CRESTCOM Businesses, including all provisions of any agreement related to the marketing of the Materials or the marketing or conduct of the Live Instruction, or any commitments to lease premises, including a facility to conduct the Live Instruction.

Franchisees are prohibited from contacting any of the individuals featured in the Materials for the purpose of directly or indirectly engaging or utilizing those individuals in their CRESTCOM Businesses or in any competing business, entering into any business dealings or arrangements with those individuals, or brokering any business dealings or arrangements involving the services or products, other than the Materials, of such individuals.

Franchisees may not modify the Materials or any aspect of the Materials in any manner without our prior written consent, which we may withhold for any reason. A Franchisee must obtain our written consent before adding any additional logos, stickers, graphics, or other information to any of the Materials, cover or conceal any part of the Materials, or change the appearance or content of the Materials.

You or your Principal Representative (defined in Item 11) may also choose to take an assessment provided by a third party supplier designated by us.

If you elect to offer to your clients the optional assessment services we have approved, currently the 360 Assessment, you must acquire the assessments and corresponding reports from our designated supplier.

We and our designated representatives will be entitled to monitor or record the Live Instruction conducted by you to evaluate the Facilitator and to obtain other information, including the number, names and addresses of the attendees.

You will need a computer system as described in Item 11. You may already own one meeting our minimum requirements. You must acquire customer relationship management software for use with your computer system from a supplier we designate. We will pay the license fees for this software for the first 12 months, as described in Item 6, and after that period you will pay us the ongoing fee for that software which we will then pay to the supplier. You must also acquire the Crestcom Learning Portal (CLP) software from a supplier we designate and use it with your computer system. We currently pay the license fee for this software for you and your client participants, but we may charge a fee for this in the future which we will in turn pay to the supplier of the software. We may require you to obtain additional and new computer systems and software in the future, as described in Item 11.

You must also acquire digital and e-mail marketing services from a supplier we designate.

Franchisees must procure, maintain and provide evidence of comprehensive general liability insurance for their Franchise Locations, as defined in Item 12, and their operations, with a limit of not less than $1 million combined single limit, and other insurance for their CRESTCOM Businesses in the amounts and types as set forth in the Procedures Manual.

If you desire assistance in finding a potential purchaser to acquire your CRESTCOM Business or other assistance with the sale of your CRESTCOM Business, the Area Representative for your Assigned Area may agree to provide this assistance to you. You will be required to compensate the Area Representative $12,500 for these services, which will be reduced to $10,000 if the transferee is first identified by you rather than the Area Representative.

Other than the requirements above, you are not obligated to purchase or lease any goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory or real estate from us or any other specifically designated source.

Currently, we do not negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers for the benefit of Franchisees and Area Representatives, nor do we derive revenue from your purchases through third party suppliers, although we and our affiliates reserve the right to do so in the future. We will derive revenues from acquisitions of Materials and other items through us. During the fiscal year ending on December 31, 2024, we had revenues of $5,338,904. Of this amount, $44,781 (approximately 0.8 percent of the total revenues) consisted of revenues derived from Materials and other items sold to Franchisees and Area Representatives in the United States. This information was compiled based on our financial statements, described in Item 21. Neither we nor our affiliates derive revenues from real estate leases. No other affiliated company of ours derived revenues from the sale of any products or services to our Franchisees or Area Representatives.

We are not aware of any rebates received by Area Representatives of ours from any suppliers based on purchases made by our Franchisees or other Area Representatives.

Except as is described in this Item 8, you do not receive a material benefit from us based on your use of any particular designated or approved source.

ITEM 10 FINANCING

Except as described below, neither we nor any agent or affiliate of ours offer any direct or indirect financing to Franchisees. We do not guarantee any notes, leases or other obligations of our Franchisees. Furthermore, we cannot predict if you will be able to obtain financing for any part of your investment in your franchise and, if so, the terms of the financing.

We may agree to finance a portion of your initial franchise fee. The maximum amount we finance is generally 50 percent of your initial franchise fee. We may also agree to finance some or all of the New Materials surcharge and Crestcom Next Generation Sales Academy Program surcharge. Whether we will provide you any financing and the amount of financing we will provide are dependent on your location, your experience in marketing or conducting training programs, your creditworthiness, the funds available to us, the collateral available to secure the loan and various market considerations.

If we decide to finance a portion of these payments, you must execute a Promissory Note substantially in our then current form. Our current form of Promissory Note is attached to this Disclosure Document as Attachment D. The Promissory Note will be payable within 60 days of executing the Franchise Agreement and will bear interest at a rate between 9 and 12 percent per annum, all as determined by us based on the factors discussed above. The Promissory Note will be secured with collateral acceptable to us, including your franchise, or guaranteed by persons acceptable to us, or both. The persons who are acceptable to us to execute this guaranty may include each of your officers, directors, partners, or shareholders, and any member of your or their immediate families, and any Authorized Representatives, as defined in Item 15. The Promissory Note may be prepaid in whole or in part without penalty.

If you execute a Promissory Note, it will provide that if you fail to make any payment when due, we may accelerate the entire unpaid balance, which will become due at once. If the default is not cured within 10 days after notice of default to you, the entire principal balance will accrue default interest at the lesser of 18 percent per annum or the highest rate permitted by applicable law. On default, we may pursue the following remedies: (i) sue you for the default amount; (ii) proceed against any collateral pledged to secure the Promissory Note, which may involve you losing your franchise; (iii) sue any guarantor of the Promissory Note; or (iv) pursue any combination of these remedies. If there is a default, in addition to the amount due on the Promissory Note, you may be liable for our costs and expenses of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees. We do not offer financing that requires you to confess judgment, but you will have to waive presentment, notice of protest, and protest. Legal actions by us related to the Promissory Note will be litigated in the courts of, or arbitrated in, the City and County of Denver, Colorado, at our option. Pursuant to the Promissory Note, Franchisees agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction of these courts and to binding arbitration, and agree to waive their rights to a jury trial.

Except for payments made to us for financing the initial franchise fee, we and our affiliates do not receive payments for the placement of financing or providing financing. We and our affiliates do not guarantee your obligations to third parties.

In the past, we have not sold, assigned or discounted to a third party any note, contract or other instrument executed by a Franchisee, although we reserve the right to do so in the future.

ITEM 11

FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

Pre-Opening Assistance. Prior to your commencing operation of your CRESTCOM Business, we (or our designee) provide the following assistance and services to you (Section 7.1, Franchise Agreement ("FA")):

1. We will provide an Initial Training Program as described below.
2. We will advise you regarding the selection of suppliers of equipment and other items used and Materials offered for sale in connection with your CRESTCOM Business. After execution of the Franchise Agreement, we will make available to you a list of approved suppliers, if any, of the equipment, items and Materials.
3. We may, in our discretion, make recommendations to you or establish requirements for you related to accounting and reporting systems to be used in your CRESTCOM Business.
4. We will provide you with our Initial Inventory containing training materials and sample documents, which may be provided digitally.
5. We will make available to you, electronically or by any other means we choose, a copy of the Procedures Manual covering the proper operating and marketing techniques of a CRESTCOM Business and our standards and specifications.

Continuing Obligations. During the operations of your CRESTCOM Business, we (or our designee) must provide the following assistance and services to you (Section 9.1, FA):

1. We will permit you to use our Marks, Licensed Methods, and various designs and logotypes associated with our management, sales and personnel development training programs and materials, as they may be modified, on a non-exclusive basis in your Assigned Area (Sections 2.1, 13.1, and 13.3, FA).
2. Approximately 30 days after you commence the operation of the CRESTCOM Business, we will provide the LaunchPad to Success training program described below.
3. Within 180 days after you commence the operation of the CRESTCOM Business, we will provide you the PRO Facilitation Certification training program described below.
4. On your reasonable request, we will consult with you by telephone or other electronic means regarding the continued operation and management of your CRESTCOM Business and advise you regarding sales and training techniques and the marketing of the Materials.

5. We will make available to you the advertising and promotional materials or other marketing information that we may periodically develop. We may pass the cost of these materials on to you by charging for the use or acquisition of the materials or information.

6. We will periodically provide sales leads and market information, as and if they become available to us.

7. In our discretion, we will provide you with on-going updates of information and ideas regarding the sales and management training techniques and other information related to the Licensed Methods, including information about new Live Instruction techniques which are developed by us. We may charge a fee for some or all of these services.

8. We will provide a newsletter and best practices guidelines to you that we may publish periodically, which may be made available on the Internet through our C.O.A.C.H. site or elsewhere.

9. We will make our training programs available to your employees, agents and representatives during the term of your Franchise Agreement as long as they execute our standard Nondisclosure and Noncompetition Agreement, the current form of which is attached as Attachment C. We may charge a fee for this training.

10. We will support your efforts in engaging qualified Salespersons in your Assigned Area (Section 6.5, FA).

11. We or our approved supplier(s) will supply you with the Materials, subject to the availability of the Materials within our or our approved supplier's inventory. Our inventory of available Materials may be changed or discontinued by us. The terms of pricing, shipment, allocation, return, restocking, substitution, inventory mix of Materials and Materials inventory level requirements are provided in the Procedures Manual or other written information that we will provide to you (Section 9.3, FA).

12. You may, at your option, participate in our mentoring program. Under our mentoring program you will receive assistance in the development of your CRESTCOM Business from an existing Franchisee/mentor of ours for a designated period of time. We select the existing Franchisee/mentor to assist you. In order to participate in our mentoring program, you must fully comply with our learning procedures and any other prerequisites that we may impose. (Section 5.4, FA). We may discontinue this mentoring program at any time in our discretion.

13. At our discretion, we may establish recommended prices for the products and services offered by your CRESTCOM Business. You may charge prices that are higher or lower than our recommended prices.

14. You may be offered other mentoring opportunities in the form of working with an Area Representative (if applicable), Director of Operations, or an accountability partner.

Advertising Programs. Franchisees must advertise and promote their CRESTCOM Businesses, although we do not require a Franchisee to expend a specific percentage of its gross revenues on advertising. Unless otherwise agreed to by us, you must follow and abide by our proprietary prescribed marketing plan, which is provided in our Procedures Manual. You must also acquire digital and e-mail marketing services from a supplier we designate, as described in Item 6. The fee for these services currently ranges from $0 to $299, and most Franchisees utilize the free account. We do not collect an advertising fee and we are not required to spend any amount on advertising in the geographical area where you are or will be located.

You must abide by the advertising requirements in the Procedures Manual. Before conducting advertising of any kind, we must first approve your proposed advertising or promotional materials, including any advertising and promotional materials related to (a) your CRESTCOM Business, (b) the marketing of Materials or the marketing or conducting of Live Instruction, (c) the solicitation and promotion of Authorized Representatives, (d) the promotion and marketing of your CRESTCOM Business, and (e) the solicitation and promotion of any brokers or intermediaries you engage to promote or market your CRESTCOM Business. Any web pages and websites on the Internet constitute advertising requiring our approval. Modifications to any advertising, including any web pages or websites, require our approval. Our approval of any advertising or promotional materials may be withheld and withdrawn in our sole discretion.

We do not require Franchisees to participate in a local or regional advertising cooperative, although we reserve the right to do so in the future. We have not established any rules or regulations related to local or regional advertising cooperatives. We do not require Franchisees to participate in any other advertising fund program.

Computer and Electronic Systems. Franchisees must use a computer system in the operation of their CRESTCOM Businesses. We do not require any specific type or brand of computer and you may use a computer system that you currently own if it meets our requirements. The only current requirements for the computer system are that it must be capable of videoconferencing and connecting to the Internet for the purpose of sending and receiving e-mail and compatible with any software or programs we require you to use. If you do not have a computer system that meets our requirements, then you must acquire one.

As of the date of this Disclosure Document, we do not have independent access to your computer system; however, no contractual restrictions exist concerning our ability to require you to give us independent access in the future. We do not require that you obtain any maintenance, servicing, updating or upgrading contracts for your computer system at this time, although we recommend that you do so and may require you to do so in the future. Neither we nor any third party acting on our behalf, including any affiliates of ours, are obligated to provide any ongoing maintenance, repairs, updates or upgrades for your system. The estimated cost of acquiring the required computer system and software ranges from $0, if you already possess a computer system meeting our requirements, to $1,400, if you will be purchasing the computer system.

You must acquire customer relationship management software that we designate. We pay for the license for this software for the first 12 months. After that time you will pay us the license fee charged by the supplier, currently in the range of $45 to $48 per month, and we will pay that amount to the supplier. You must also acquire the Crestcom Learning Portal (CLP) software that we designate. We currently pay for this license for you. However, we may in the future upon 30 days' notice to you require you to pay us a license fee for this software, which we will pay to the supplier of the software. The supplier may change its fees for the license in the future.

We can in the future without any contractual limitation establish additional minimum specifications for the required computer system, software, and online programs, and require Franchisees to obtain at their cost and use additional types of computer equipment, software, and online programs ("Mandatory Computer Systems and Programs"), including software providing reporting, tracking, or accounting functions, which may be developed for and proprietary to us or offered by a third party. We may require you to pay us a fee for any Mandatory Computer Systems and Programs we provide, or you may be required to make payments to a third party for other Mandatory Computer Systems and Programs. We also may require you to submit to us all information required by us that is created or generated by any Mandatory Computer Systems and Programs. We reserve the right to modify, upgrade, or discontinue any Mandatory Computer Systems and Programs, and to require different or new software programs that may be replacements of or additions to the Mandatory Computer Systems and Programs.

We will provide you an e-mail account with the domain name “crestcom.com.” For consistency throughout the system, Franchisees are required to use only the e-mail account provided by us in the operation of their CRESTCOM Businesses. The e-mail account we provide you cannot be used for any purpose not related to the operation of your CRESTCOM Business. Franchisees must check their e-mail account at least daily for incoming messages, and respond promptly and appropriately to all messages. We have the right to monitor and access your CRESTCOM Business e-mail account and messages sent to and from that account. We can discontinue your e-mail account or our website in the future, in which event you will need to obtain and maintain another e-mail account to be used exclusively in the operation of your CRESTCOM Business. We can modify the e-mail account, our website, and our policies with respect to both. We may charge a fee for providing the e-mail account and for operating our website.

You will need to have a dedicated telephone line and number for your business telephone, with a voice mail system, which you check at least daily for incoming messages. You must respond promptly and appropriately to all messages.

Site Selection Assistance. We consider a CRESTCOM Business to be a home-based business and most of our Franchisees operate their CRESTCOM Businesses from their homes. If you want to operate your CRESTCOM Business from an office separate from your home, you may do so. We have no requirements for such an office space except that it must be located in your Assigned Area, and you must have selected your site and notified us of your business address prior to conducting the first training seminar or selling Materials through your CRESTCOM Business. Aside from designating your Assigned Area, we do not select or approve the area in which you select your site. We are not responsible for selecting and acquiring the premises for your CRESTCOM Business location.

Time for Commencement of Operations. You are considered to have commenced operations upon the later of the date of execution of your Franchise Agreement or the date of your completion of the Initial Training Program, discussed below. Therefore, we estimate that the typical length of time between the signing of the Franchise Agreement and the opening of a CRESTCOM Business is approximately zero to ten days. Some factors that may affect this timing are pre-existing obligations, completion of training, and a Franchisee’s ability to secure financing. Once you commence operations of your CRESTCOM Business, you must remain active in the business. You are considered to be active so long as you continue to conduct monthly Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training seminars, and after the third full calendar quarter of your Franchise Agreement you personally generate gross revenues of not less than the Monthly Production Goal, which is the amount that would be earned from the enrollment of at least two attendees paying our then suggested U.S. minimum retail price per each calendar month.

Additional Training Information. The Initial Training Program is a classroom or virtual training program lasting approximately two days. The Initial Training Program will typically be conducted after execution of the Application Agreement, before the execution of the Franchise Agreement, and prior to the commencement of operation of the CRESTCOM Business.

On completion of the Initial Training Program, you will be allowed a period of approximately 30 days to execute your initial business start-up activity and familiarize yourself with all scripts and procedures, after which you will be expected to attend “LaunchPad to Success” training. LaunchPad to Success is an intensive three or four-day training program that examines the skills required to execute all aspects of the Crestcom sales process, including role play exercises, objection handling, and live delivery of parts of the sales process. LaunchPad to Success training will only be held once all administrative actions conducted as part of commencement of your operations are complete.

The LaunchPad to Success training, like the Initial Training Program, may be conducted virtually rather than in-person. Whether the training programs are conducted virtually (via the internet, telephone, or similar communication method) or in-person will be decided by us in our discretion.

The actual length of your training programs and your training schedule may be adjusted or waived by us based on your prior experience or training.

You, or, if you are an entity Franchisee, the principal owner of you responsible for the management of the CRESTCOM Business or another person you designate (the "Principal Representative"), and up to two additional individuals designated by you, may participate in our Initial Training Program without charge of a tuition or fee, except that if you are acquiring your CRESTCOM Business as the result of a transfer, you will be required to pay a transferee training fee of $3,500. You or your Principal Representative, and up to one additional individual designated by you, may participate in our LaunchPad to Success training program without charge of a tuition or fee. You are responsible for the transportation and living expenses of these individuals while attending the training programs, although, as long as you are not receiving your CRESTCOM Business as the result of a transfer or attending virtually, we will reimburse you for one-half of the hotel accommodation cost for one individual at the Initial Training Program or, at our discretion, one-half of the cost of transportation to and from the training site by the most economical means of travel for one individual for the Initial Training Program. You or your Principal Representative, as applicable, must successfully complete the Initial Training Program to our satisfaction prior to you commencing operation of your CRESTCOM Business. You or your Principal Representative, as applicable, must also successfully complete the LaunchPad to Success training program to our satisfaction after commencing operation of your CRESTCOM Business.

If you fail to complete the Initial Training Program or LaunchPad to Success training program to our satisfaction, the Franchise Agreement may be terminated and no portion of the initial franchise fee will be refunded to you.

Training is supervised by our training supervisor, Eduardo Pinzon. Mr. Pinzon has over eight years of experience with us and over 24 years of experience in the field. Each of our instructors has demonstrated to us satisfactory knowledge of the topics they instruct, has at least two years' experience with us and in the fields of their topics, and is overseen and reviewed by Mr. Pinzon. On occasion, we may have one of our Franchisees or Area Representatives, who has demonstrated to us their knowledge of operating a CRESTCOM Business, conduct some portions of our training programs.

The instruction materials for the training programs include the Procedures Manual, handouts and video media presentations. The subjects covered in each of the training programs, and the general time devoted to each subject, are described below. Each of these programs may be modified in our discretion to meet the special needs of any individual trainee.

The LaunchPad to Success training may also be conducted virtually at our discretion.

Later Training and Meetings. You must have a Facilitator who is qualified to conduct all Live Instruction for your clients. You or your Principal Representative may serve as your Facilitator. Each of your Facilitators is required to complete the “PRO Facilitation Certification” program within 180 days of the commencement of operation of your CRESTCOM Business. If you hire a Facilitator after that date, they must complete the PRO Facilitation Certification program prior to conducting Live Instruction. The PRO Facilitation Certification is a four-part training program designed to provide Crestcom facilitators a personalized training experience in order to effectively deliver the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program. The PRO Facilitation Certification program is currently offered online, but may be conducted in person or in another manner in the future. The PRO Facilitation Certification is provided to you or your Principal Representative and up to two of your other Facilitators without charge of a tuition or fee, as of the date of this Disclosure Document, although we may charge a fee for this training in the future. We may also charge a fee for later PRO Facilitation Certification programs conducted for new Facilitators you engage. You are responsible for the transportation and living expenses of these individuals while attending the PRO Facilitation Certification training program, if any. If you fail to have a Facilitator complete the PRO Facilitation Certification training program to our satisfaction, the Franchise Agreement may be terminated and no portion of the initial franchise fee will be refunded to you.

You must ensure that all of your Facilitators are qualified to conduct the Live Instruction in accordance with our minimum standards and specifications. Live Instruction must be conducted in a manner specifically authorized by us. In our discretion, we or our designee may periodically evaluate any Facilitator to determine his or her qualifications. If we determine or have reason to believe that any of your Facilitators is not qualified to provide Live Instruction, we will notify you in writing and the Facilitator will need to attend and successfully complete additional training, which may include re-certification through the PRO Facilitation Certification program, at your sole expense. We reserve the right to establish additional certification programs for Facilitators, the terms, conditions, and requirements of which will be in the Procedures Manual, which you must comply with. These additional certification programs may require that, at your sole expense, your Facilitators attend and complete additional training programs for which we may charge tuition or a fee in accordance with our then current published rates.

We also conduct from time to time seminars, international or regional conventions, continuing development programs or other meetings (the “Additional Meetings”). You or your Principal Representative must attend any mandatory Additional Meetings we conduct, including our international convention each year. We may require you to attend up to one more mandatory Additional Meeting each year. As of the date of this Disclosure Document, we have never required any Franchisee to attend more than two mandatory Additional Meetings in any one year. Our experience shows that those Franchisees who attend our Additional Meetings perform better than those who do not.

We will give you at least 30 days prior written notice of any Additional Meeting that we deem mandatory, unless your attendance is waived by us. We have the right to waive the requirement for you or any other Franchisee, distributor, or Area Representative to attend any Additional Meeting. Our waiver of this requirement for any other Franchisee, distributor, or Area Representative does not in any way affect your obligation to attend.

We may allocate some or all of the costs incurred in holding the Additional Meetings, including expenses for the facility, travel and lodging expenses for the presenters, materials, food, activities and all other direct and indirect costs which are associated with holding these Additional Meetings, equally among the attendees. If we incur expenses for items or services specifically for the benefit of only a particular Franchisee, distributor, or Area Representative, or a particular group of Franchisees, distributors, or Area Representatives, such as costs of an interpreter to translate communications into a language spoken by the Franchisee, distributor, Area Representative, or group (the “Limited Group Expenses”), then we may allocate some or all of those Limited Group Expenses to the particular Franchisee, distributor, or Area Representative, or equally among all members of the relevant group, to which they apply. Unless we agree otherwise, you must pay your pro-rata share of all of these costs if you or your Principal Representative attend a mandatory Additional Meeting. If you do not attend a mandatory Additional Meeting, unless we agree otherwise, you will be required to pay an amount equal to 125 percent of the pro rata amount attributable to each of the attendees of the mandatory Additional Meeting. We will waive your obligation to pay a pro-rata share of the costs for your first international convention following your execution of the Franchise Agreement, but you will still be required to pay an amount equal to 125 percent of the pro rata amount attributable to each of the attendees if you fail to attend. At our sole option, we may choose to waive all or a portion of the costs of attendance for any attendees or non-attendees of any mandatory Additional Meeting without being obligated to waive any costs for other attendees or non-attendees of the same Additional Meeting. Our waiver of this requirement for any other Franchisee, distributor, or Area Representative does not in any way affect your payment obligation.

A single mandatory Additional Meeting may be held as multiple seminars, conventions, programs, or meetings at various locations or times, such as the annual regional meetings where a separate meeting is held in several different regions (the “Multiple Event Meetings”). For these Multiple Event Meetings, you will only need to attend that meeting or event in your region or as otherwise designated by us. Further, for each of these Multiple Event Meetings, an attendees’ pro rata share of the total cost, other than the Limited Group Expenses, may be determined by either (i) taking the total cost of holding all of the meetings and events included in the Multiple Event Meeting worldwide, and dividing that cost by the total number of Franchisees, distributors, and Area Representatives who attended all of the meetings and events included in the Multiple Event Meeting worldwide; or (ii) taking the cost of holding only the single meeting or event that the relevant Franchisee attended, and dividing that cost by the number of Franchisees, distributors, and Area Representatives who attended that single meeting or event.

You are responsible for the cost of all transportation and living expenses or related activities incurred while attending these programs, including your first annual international convention. During our annual international convention and regional meetings, you are required to stay at the hotel where the primary functions are held, unless we agree otherwise, in which case, we may assess additional fees to you. Franchisees who fail to attend a program at which attendance is deemed mandatory may be required to attend and complete a make-up or alternative program at a location determined by us and be responsible for all costs associated with attending the make-up program.

We may periodically conduct videoconference, virtual, and online training programs. You must participate in any mandatory videoconference, virtual, and online training programs. We may also offer certain optional videoconference, virtual, and online training programs. These may include the PERFORM Facilitation Training program, a video training program being developed to share best practice training delivery insights, re-framing techniques, additional exercises, and localization opportunities for Facilitators. We reserve the right to charge a fee for Facilitators and others participating in this optional training program as described in Item 6.

We offer a mentoring program to assist our Franchisees which you may participate in at your option, as described above in this Item 11.

If during any calendar month you fail to, on average, meet the Monthly Production Goal (defined in Item 12), then we may require you to attend and complete additional training. You will be responsible for all expenses associated with the additional training, including paying our then current fee for the additional training.

Procedures Manual. You will be given the opportunity to review the Procedures Manual before you sign the Franchise Agreement. Before you review the Procedures Manual, you must execute an Application Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this Disclosure Document as Attachment B.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

The Franchise Location. You will operate your CRESTCOM Business from a specific location that is designated as the “Franchise Location” in the Franchise Agreement. The Franchise Location can be relocated within the Assigned Area upon prior written notice to us.

The Assigned Area. You must concentrate your efforts on marketing the Materials within the geographic area described in the Addendum to the Franchise Agreement as it is currently constituted (“Assigned Area”). An Assigned Area is usually part of a state where a CRESTCOM Business is located. You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other Franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. You cannot conduct any marketing activities (including marketing through other channels of distribution such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing) outside of your Assigned Area or market the Materials in your Assigned Area for use outside of your Assigned Area without our approval, which may be withheld for any reason.

Without our prior written consent, you may not market the Materials or conduct, directly or indirectly, Live Instruction outside of your Assigned Area. We will typically give our consent unless the “Threshold Number” of “Qualifying Businesses,” as defined below, has already been reached in the assigned area where you seek to market the Materials or conduct Live Instruction. We may also withhold our consent if, in our determination, it would be detrimental to the interests of our other Franchisees, distributors, Area Representatives, or us.

The Threshold Number of Qualifying Businesses. Your rights to market the Materials and to market and conduct Live Instruction in the Assigned Area will not prevent us or another Franchisee or distributor of ours from marketing the Materials or marketing or conducting Live Instruction within the Assigned Area. However, when the number of Qualifying Businesses (defined below) in the Assigned Area reaches the Threshold Number (defined below), we will refrain from adding additional CRESTCOM Business franchises or our own CRESTCOM Businesses in the Assigned Area. A “Qualifying Business” is a CRESTCOM Business that in each calendar quarter generates gross revenues equal to the dollar amount that would be realized from the enrollment of at least 18 attendees in the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program at our then recommended U.S. minimum retail price. The recommended U.S. minimum retail price for attendees of the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program is currently $5,250. This recommended retail price is stated in the Procedures Manual and is subject to change. The sales made by any Salespersons directly employed by a Franchisee will be included in that CRESTCOM Business’ sales results for purposes of determining if that CRESTCOM Business is a Qualifying Business. The “Threshold Number” is equal to one Qualifying Business for each 1 million or fraction thereof in population in a Franchisee’s assigned area.

If, after attaining the Threshold Number, the number of Qualifying Businesses in the Assigned Area falls below the Threshold Number, then without further notice to you we may resume adding franchised CRESTCOM Businesses or our own CRESTCOM Businesses in the Assigned Area. We may continue to do so until the number of Qualifying Businesses in the Assigned Area again equals or exceeds the Threshold Number. We do not warrant that you or other Franchisees in your Assigned Area, or elsewhere, will achieve or maintain Qualifying Businesses status.

Principal Marketing Areas. In regions where multiple Franchisees of ours share the same assigned area, or in areas where multiple Franchisees of ours otherwise market the Materials in close proximity to each other, we have created programs granting limited, semi-exclusive protected territories called “Principal Marketing Areas” within the assigned area. We call these marketing programs “PMA Programs.” The terms, conditions, policies, and procedures of any PMA Program established by us shall be stated in the Procedures Manual or in other written materials that we will provide. We may modify the PMA Program in our discretion. If we have already created a PMA Program with your Assigned Area, you must abide by the terms, conditions, policies, and procedures of that program. If following the execution of the Franchise Agreement we create a PMA Program in your Assigned Area, or in an area with different assigned areas that include some or all of your Assigned Area, you must participate in the PMA Program, and cooperate and comply with all of the terms, conditions, policies, and procedures instituted by us related to that PMA Program. The terms, conditions, policies, and procedures of different PMA Programs may vary from one another. The Principal Marketing Areas and their geographical boundaries may be changed by us periodically. Under the PMA Program, you will not receive an exclusive territory. In certain situations, you may face competition from other Franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Monthly Production Goal. After the third full calendar quarter following the execution of your first Franchise Agreement, you will be required to meet and maintain minimum production goals. Beginning with the first month of the fourth full calendar quarter after execution of the Franchise Agreement, you are required to achieve Gross Revenues on a monthly basis that would be realized from at least two attendees of the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program paying our then suggested U.S. minimum retail price. The applicable requirement will be referred to as the “Monthly Production Goal” in this Disclosure Document. The recommended U.S. minimum retail price for attendees of the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program is currently $5,250. You may charge a fee for attendance at the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program that is higher or lower than our recommended U.S. minimum retail price, but the Monthly Production Goal is based on our then current recommended price. This recommended retail price is stated in the Procedures Manual and is subject to change. Any sales of Materials made by Salespersons retained by you shall be credited toward your sales of Materials for purposes of determining whether your CRESTCOM Business has satisfied its minimum sales requirements.

If during any calendar month, you fail to meet the Monthly Production Goal, then we or, if applicable, the Area Representative in your Assigned Area, has the right to require you to participate in a remedial action plan of our or the Area Representative’s choosing, which may include attending additional training at your expense. If you (i) fail to follow the remedial action plan, as determined by us or the Area Representative, (ii) fail to meet the Monthly Production Goal on average over the six months of any two consecutive calendar quarters, or (iii) fail to meet the Monthly Production Goal more than four times in any 24 month period, we will have the right to revoke any semi-exclusive protections that are granted related to your Principal Marketing Area (if one has been assigned to you), and operate or authorize third parties to operate a CRESTCOM Business anywhere within that Principal Marketing Area without restriction. If you (i) fail to meet the Monthly Production Goal on average over the six months of any two consecutive calendar quarters, fail to meet the Monthly Production Goal more than four times in any 24 month period, or fail to comply with the remedial action plan established by us or the Area Representative, and (ii) have failed to, on average, meet the Monthly Production Goal for the previous 12 months, then we will have the right in our discretion to terminate the Franchise Agreement.

We have the right, in our sole discretion and on a case-by-case basis, to waive the obligation of you or any other Franchisee to meet the Monthly Production Goal or pay the Royalty and Distribution Fees in any month. A waiver by us of this obligation for one or more other Franchisees does not in any way affect your obligation to meet the Monthly Production Goal or pay the Royalty and Distribution Fees.

Other Rights. Except as described above with respect to the performance requirements, the continuation of your rights described in this Item 12 during the term of the Franchise Agreement is not dependent on achieving any certain sales volume, market penetration or similar contingency or other circumstances.

The Franchise Agreement gives you no options, rights of first refusal, or similar options to acquire any additional franchises from us, although we may in our discretion offer you the right to acquire additional franchises in the future.

Our Reserved Rights. Your franchise rights are nonexclusive. We may do any or all of the following, without any compensation to you: (1) use and license the use of the Marks and Licensed Methods (a) for the operation of CRESTCOM Businesses anywhere, including in your Assigned Area, subject only to Threshold Number of Qualifying Business restrictions described above; (b) for the operation of Area Representative businesses anywhere, including in your Assigned Area; or (c) in connection with the production and sale of new or additional Materials, Live Instruction, or other promotional, marketing, or related items for use in a CRESTCOM Business, without regard to location; (2) establish alternative channels of distribution, which include marketing and distribution of the Materials via the Internet, the Electronic Transmission methods defined in Item 16 or other electronic transmissions, catalog sales, social media, telemarketing and other direct marketing sales channels, which may or may not use the Marks; (3) establish alternative channels of delivery, which include the Electronic Transmission methods, webinars, social media, and other electronic transmissions, other than electronic transmissions in conjunction with Live Instruction, for the Materials or any training programs of ours, which may or may not use the Marks, and in conjunction with any alternative channel of delivery, authorize the marketing and sale of such Materials or any training programs through other distribution systems at any location, including in your Assigned Area; (4) retire, cease to produce, cease to offer, or otherwise terminate the right to market, distribute, sell or otherwise offer to third parties any older versions of the Materials, while continuing to offer such older versions of the Materials through alternative channels of distribution or by alternative channels of delivery; (5) create, produce, market and sell products or services of any kind, which may be the same as, similar to, or different from those offered by a CRESTCOM Business, utilizing proprietary marks that are not the same as or confusingly similar to the Marks, and not now or in the future designated as part of the Crestcom system licensed under the Franchise Agreement or otherwise used in a CRESTCOM Business, and authorize the marketing and sale of these other products and services through other distribution systems at any location, including in your Assigned Area, whether or not in alternative channels of distribution or using alternative channels of delivery; and (6) grant training personalities appearing on the Materials the right to market or use the Materials or similar materials in the conduct of their businesses, in their live presentations, or in connection with their personal appearances, at any location, including in your Assigned Area. All of these rights may be exercised on any terms and conditions as we deem advisable, without granting you any rights in them.

We can acquire or be acquired by, or engage in any other transaction with, other companies, which may be competitive or not with us or a CRESTCOM Business. These arrangements may include converting other companies to the Crestcom system, or converting company-owned, franchised or other businesses (including your CRESTCOM Business) to another format (whether competitive or not), or both. The other companies and CRESTCOM Businesses may be maintained as the same concept, as a new concept, or as a separate concept. These concepts may be located anywhere, including in your Assigned Area. You must fully cooperate with any of these conversions, at your sole expense.

ITEM 13 TRADEMARKS

The Franchise Agreement grants you the nonexclusive right to use our Marks and various designs and logotypes associated with our management, sales and personnel development training programs and materials. The term “Marks” means trademarks, trade names, service marks and logos used to identify CRESTCOM Businesses.

We own the following principal Marks, which are registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office on the Principal Register:

Mark	Effective Date	Registration No.
CRESTCOM®	July 20, 1993	1,783,133
BULLET PROOF®	November 5, 1996	2,013,084
TRAINERS TO THE WORLD®	October 28, 1997	2,108,719

The registration of each of these Marks has been renewed. We intend to further renew the registrations of some or all of these Marks at the appropriate time. We have filed all required affidavits related to the registration of these Marks.

In addition to those Marks listed above, we claim common law service or trademark rights to a number of other words, phrases, or designs that you may use in your CRESTCOM Business. The following statements apply solely to any unregistered trademarks and service marks: We do not have a federal registration for these trademarks. Therefore these trademarks do not have as many legal benefits and rights as federally registered trademarks. If our right to use these trademarks is challenged, you may have to change to an alternative trademark, which may increase your expenses.

You must use all of our Marks in compliance with the terms of the Franchise Agreement. You cannot use the words, “CREST,” “INTERNATIONAL,” “CRESTCOM,” “THE BULLET PROOF MANAGER,” “CRESTCOM L.E.A.D.R.,” “BULLET PROOF,” “BPM,” “KREST” or “KRESTCOM” or any portions or variations of them, as part of your business name. You cannot use any of our Marks or the words above, or variations of them, as part of an electronic mail address, domain name, or on any websites on the Internet including social networking websites, or otherwise display them on the Internet in any manner, without our prior written consent. You cannot use any of our Marks or the words above, or any variations of them, with modifying words, designs, or symbols except as we may license to you, without our prior written consent. You may not use our Marks with an unauthorized product or service, or in a manner not authorized in writing by us. You must modify or discontinue your use of our Marks if we require the modification or discontinuance of them, at your own expense.

To our knowledge, there are no agreements in effect that significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of our Marks in any manner. To our knowledge, there are no presently effective determinations of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the trademark administrator of any state or any court, any pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceedings or any pending material litigation involving any of our Marks which are relevant to their use in this state.

We will protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition involving the Marks, when you are using the Marks in compliance with your Franchise Agreement, if, in the opinion of our counsel, the circumstances justify our intervention. If we decide to protect you, we will reimburse you for your costs, including attorney's fees and court costs, associated with any litigation we commence or defend on your behalf to protect the licensed Marks and your rights to use them, from amounts we recover in the litigation (if any), which are in excess of our costs. You are obligated to fully cooperate with us in any litigation we commence or defend for your benefit. If we do not elect to protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition, you may take steps to protect yourself at your own expense. We will control all proceedings and litigation involving our Marks, except that you will control your defense if we have elected not to protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition.

We are not aware of any superior prior rights or infringing use of our names or Marks that could materially affect your use of them.

These copyrighted items are among the Materials you will market throughout the term of the Franchise Agreement. The Franchise Agreement does not provide you a promise or guarantee that any particular item within our current inventory of Materials will continue to exist. If any of the Materials become unavailable or obsolete, or should we desire to change the Materials for any reason, we may eliminate any of our Materials from our inventory. Some training personalities featured in the Materials may have reserved the right to market a limited number of those portions of the Materials that feature them.

We know of no effective determinations by any administrative office or court, or any pending administrative or judicial proceedings respecting our copyright which is material to you, nor are there any agreements affecting our or your use of any Materials in which we have a copyright. We have no

There are no infringing uses actually known to us which could materially affect your use of any Materials in which we have or may claim a copyright. We intend to renew the copyright registration, if appropriate, at the time of expiration. We may, at our discretion, substitute for, or discontinue the usage of any Materials.

Confidential Procedures Manual and Other Information. Our Procedures Manual and related materials are proprietary and confidential. They are our property to be used by you only as described in and during the term of the Franchise Agreement. The Procedures Manual, Materials, and other materials that contain our Marks or are otherwise proprietary to us must be returned to us, or deleted if stored electronically, if your Franchise Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason. You may not use our confidential information in any unauthorized manner and you must take reasonable steps to prevent its disclosure to others. We may, in our discretion, require you and each of your officers, partners, directors and beneficial owners who become aware of or have access to our confidential information to execute our Nondisclosure and Noncompetition Agreement in the form attached to this Disclosure Document as Attachment C.

ITEM 15

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

Franchisees or their Principal Representatives must devote their best, full time efforts toward the management and operation of their CRESTCOM Businesses.

If you are an entity Franchisee, your principal owner must be approved by us in writing prior to serving as your Principal Representative. You, or if applicable, your Principal Representative, is required to successfully complete our mandatory Initial Training Program and our LaunchPad to Success training program.

Franchisees are responsible for recruiting, hiring, appointing, firing, and supervising their employees, independent agents, Facilitators, telemarketers and other representatives (collectively referred to as the “Authorized Representatives”).

Facilitators must be qualified to conduct Live Instruction and must successfully complete our PRO Facilitation Certification training program.

In addition to yourself or your Principal Representative, as applicable, you may, at your option and with our prior written consent, engage up to two individuals who are acceptable to us as Authorized Representatives who are authorized to market the Materials in your Assigned Area. These persons may be employees or independent contractors of your CRESTCOM Business acting as Salespersons. We recommend you consult your attorney or another person who can advise you of the proper relationship for any Salesperson you engage in your Assigned Area. If you elect to retain a Salesperson to market the Materials in the Assigned Area, you may pay him or her on such terms as the two of you shall agree. You may negotiate the terms of that relationship, except that all agreements between you, or your CRESTCOM Business, and the Salesperson must be approved by us and must provide that we are allowed to enforce the agreements directly against the Salesperson. The maximum number of Salespersons you may engage at any time in your Assigned Area is two unless you have our prior consent to engage additional Salespersons, which may be granted or withheld in our sole discretion. However, if we have created a PMA Program for your Assigned Area and designated a Principal Marketing Area for you, then there is no limitation on the number of Salespersons that you can retain in your Principal Marketing Area. Salespersons are retained directly by you and are not Franchisees of ours.

You may also employ up to two additional telemarketing personnel. Other Franchisees in your Assigned Area will also have the right to engage Salespersons and telemarketing personnel to market the Materials.

All Authorized Representatives must be screened to ensure that they will not reflect adversely on the reputation of our image and system. All of your Authorized Representatives must be approved in advance by us. We will approve an individual to serve as an Authorized Representative if that individual demonstrates to us that he or she has the skill set for the particular position, reflects the professionalism of the Crestcom system, is of good character, and, if applicable, has satisfactorily completed our training program. You are solely responsible for implementing training and other programs for your Authorized Representatives related to the legal, safe, and proper performance of their work, regardless of the fact that we may provide advice, suggestions, and certain training programs. The advice, suggestions, and training we provide are to protect our brand and the Marks and not to control the day-to-day operation of your CRESTCOM Business. You will have sole authority and control over the day-to-day operations of the CRESTCOM Business and its employees and other representatives. The Procedures Manual contains forms of agreements that you must execute with your Authorized Representatives. All of your agreements with your Authorized Representatives, including your Salespersons, must be in a form furnished by us or otherwise approved by us and must provide that we are allowed to enforce the agreements directly against the Authorized Representative. You must keep us informed of the names, addresses, e-mail contact information and telephone numbers of all Authorized Representatives. The number of people associated with any one CRESTCOM Business authorized to engage in the marketing and telemarketing of the Materials may be changed in our discretion, by change to the Procedures Manual. We may also, at our discretion, make other changes to the Procedures Manual.

We may require you to cause each of your officers, directors, partners or shareholders, and any member of your or their immediate families, and any Authorized Representatives, to execute our standard Nondisclosure and Noncompetition Agreement (a copy of which is attached to this Disclosure Document as Attachment C), and our standard Personal Guaranty (a copy of which is attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit III). You must provide us a copy of each Nondisclosure and Noncompetition Agreement at the time it is signed and upon our request. In addition, all of your customers, clients, purchasers or others acquiring rights to attend Live Instruction or use the Materials by or through you, will be required to execute a contract substantially in the form provided in our Procedures Manual (the "Training Agreement"). Any changes to the Training Agreement require our prior written consent. In no event will you permit any third party, including any client, to attend any Live Instruction or other training sessions, or acquire, observe, or use any of the Materials, without having first obtained a signed Training Agreement or other document approved by us from that third party. You must keep copies of all executed Training Agreements and make those copies available to us for review upon our request. Upon our request, you must cooperate with us in enforcing the obligations under the Training Agreement against any of your clients or other parties acquiring access to the Materials by or through you. We may require you to cause Authorized Representatives to execute contracts provided by us.

Other than the requirements above, we make no recommendations and have no requirements regarding written employment or other written agreements between you and your employees.

ITEM 16

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

In order to maintain uniformity throughout the system, Franchisees must operate their CRESTCOM Businesses in conformity with our standards and specifications provided in the Procedures Manual or otherwise provided in writing. The Procedures Manual is described in Items 8 and 11 of this Disclosure Document. Franchisees may not deviate from our standards and specifications without our prior written consent. Unless we agree otherwise, Franchisees can only offer the Materials and Live Instruction that we approve and may not offer or engage in any other business activity, including conducting any competitive business in violation of the covenant against competition in the Franchise Agreement. In particular, and unless otherwise authorized by us to do so, Franchisees are restricted from offering, marketing or conducting other audio, video, virtual, or online media-based or other visually transmitted sales, motivational, or management training, personal development or consulting services, or conducting any other training sessions or participating in any other training that is transmitted by audio media, video media, online media, or other visual transmission methods. Involvement in such other activities can decrease the time and effort Franchisees have to devote to their CRESTCOM Businesses, and decrease the chances of success for those CRESTCOM Businesses. Because our relationships with our video faculty and other talent used in the Materials are vitally important to us and the franchise system, Franchisees cannot solicit the services of or otherwise have contact with any of the talent used in the Materials without our prior written consent, which consent may be withheld for any reason.

If you engage in another type of business or profession or offer any other types of services or products in addition to your CRESTCOM Business, whether or not we have granted our prior written approval to such actions, you will be required to pay us Royalty Fees based on the Gross Revenues that you realize not only from your sale of the Materials and conduct of Live Instruction, but also, the Gross Revenues that you realize from the operation of the other business activities.

Franchisees are not allowed without our written approval (which approval may be withheld for any reason) to display any part of the Materials or conduct any instruction or other training via television broadcast, cable, network, closed circuit or satellite transmission, on the Internet, or by similar technological means and methods in use now or developed in the future (“Electronic Transmissions”), or to market or sell any Materials, instruction or training that are to be delivered or displayed to clients via Electronic Transmissions, including any on-demand training system we may establish. This does not restrict you from displaying the Materials using electronic technology in an in-person session of the Live Instruction. We may, in our sole discretion, grant you or third parties the rights to display the Materials or conduct instruction or other training via Electronic Transmission methods, or to market and sell the Materials, instruction or other training to be delivered or displayed via these Electronic Transmission methods, under terms and conditions we determine, including payment of an additional initial fee or other fees, which may be substantially different than the terms and conditions stated in your Franchise Agreement. In particular, we currently may permit you to offer the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. Catalogue via Electronic Transmission methods in accordance with our Procedures Manual. You may not promote your CRESTCOM Business on the Internet, without prior written approval from us, which approval may be withheld for any reason.

Live Instruction may be conducted only in a manner specifically authorized by us, as described in the Procedures Manual. Without our written approval, you are not allowed to conduct Live Instruction or sell Materials outside of your Assigned Area.

You must participate in and abide by the Multiple Area Sales Program described in the Procedures Manual, related to sales and servicing of clients with multi-area needs. In the event of a dispute between you and another Franchisee, distributor, or Area Representative, or any other party related to the Multiple Area Sales Program, you must submit the dispute to us for our final and binding decision.

Franchisees may not reship, transship, give, loan, sell or purchase any part of the Materials to or from any other current or former CRESTCOM Franchisee or any reseller of the Materials, whether within or outside of the Assigned Area. Franchisees may sell the Materials only through their CRESTCOM Business and only to clients who are the actual end users of the Materials.

All of your clients or others acquiring the use of the Materials through you will be required to execute a form containing language that is substantially similar to the language in the Training Agreement.

Financial performance information that differs from that included in this Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided by this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

FOOTNOTES:

- (1) Each of the first four charts above is a historic financial performance representation reflecting information related to sales in the most recent fiscal year of January 1, 2024 through December 31, 2024.
- (2) The first two charts above show the average and median of Franchisee Gross Sales on an annual basis. "Gross Sales" or "Sales" as used in the first two charts and in the fourth chart means the amounts agreed to be paid by a Franchisee's clients to the Franchisee under the contracts entered into through the Franchisee's CRESTCOM Businesses, exclusive only of sales tax. "Gross Sales" is not equivalent to "Gross Revenues" as that term is used in this Disclosure Document, as "Gross Sales" does not account for bad debt or contract amounts otherwise not collected by Franchisees.
- (3) In computing these figures, the first chart shows the yearly average and median of the Gross Sales of those Franchisees that fell into the top 75th to 99.99th percentile (or top 1/4) of all Franchisees in terms of Gross Sales, the 50th to 74.99th percentile (or second 1/4) of all Franchisees, the 25th through 49.99th percentile (or third 1/4) of all Franchisees, and the bottom 0 to 24.99th percentile (or lower 1/4) of all Franchisees. The average and median Gross Sales for all Franchisees in all percentile groups combined is also included. The second chart shows the Gross Sales information of Franchisees grouped by continent. Additionally, we included the high and the low Gross Sales figure for every category.

- (4) The third chart shows the yearly average and median number of seats for attendance at training programs sold by Franchisees on an annual basis, for all training programs conducted during the year. It also includes the number of “Scholarships” that a Franchisee has on average. “Scholarships” are seats given to a client for no extra charge and are typically accompanied by other paid seats.
- (5) The fourth chart shows the average contract value of each transaction reported by Franchisees in the year 2024, along with the median Sales value, high and low Sales value, and number and percentage of contracts that attained or exceeded the average shown.
- (6) Only U.S. and international Franchisees that were active on a full-time basis during the fiscal year January 1, 2024 through December 31, 2024 have their Gross Sales and seat sales included in the computations used in the first four charts. For purposes of these charts, a Franchisee is deemed “active on a full-time basis” if it conducted at least one Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. program training seminar during every month of the year 2024 and had at least one sale reported during the year 2024. Of the total contracts entered into by Franchisees, 71% were the result of repeat and add-on business for existing clients during the fiscal year 2024. During the fiscal year 2024, we had 61 Franchisees that were active on a full time basis operating 83 CRESTCOM Business outlets. Of these Franchisees, 27 were located in the United States. Franchisees that did not qualify as active on a full-time basis are not shown. The charts also do not include (i) new Franchisees that did not commence operations by the beginning of the year 2024, (ii) Franchisees that ceased operations in the year 2024, and (iii) Franchisees that were otherwise inactive for a portion of the year due to sickness, health issues, or other personal reasons. As described in Item 20, there were 9 outlets that closed permanently for various reasons during the year 2024, and none of these had been open less than 12 months. Some of our Franchisees own and operate more than one franchise. We have grouped the results in these charts by Franchisee rather than by individual CRESTCOM Business franchise because the results that we collect for CRESTCOM Business Franchisees operating multiple CRESTCOM Businesses are combined into a single report for each Franchisee, and we do not have Gross Sales or seat sales data for each individual CRESTCOM Business that may be operated by these Franchisees. The total number of individual CRESTCOM Business franchises as of the end of the year 2024, including Franchisees who joined during the course of the year, was 170, 61 of which were located in the United States.
- (7) No attempt is made to estimate potential profits, income or earnings in the first four charts. We cannot accurately determine expenses because some of our Franchisees have other business interests or investment holdings in addition to their CRESTCOM Business. However, as discussed below, the fifth chart includes certain gross margin information.
- (8) For the Franchisees included in the first chart, there are 15 Franchisees included in the top 1/4, of which 5 (or 33.33 percent) exceed the average Gross Sales of that group, there are 16 Franchisees in the second 1/4, of which 8 (or 50 percent) exceed the average Gross Sales of that group, there are 15 Franchisees in the third 1/4, of which 7 (or 46.67 percent) exceed the average Gross Sales of that group, and there are 15 Franchisees in the lower 1/4, of which 7 (or 46.67 percent) exceed the average Gross Sales of that group. Out of the 61 total Franchisees included in the first chart, 23 Franchisees (or 37.70 percent) exceed the combined average of Gross Sales stated. For the Franchisees included in the continent-specific chart (the second chart), there are 20 Franchisees included from Europe, of which 5 (or 25 percent) exceed the average Gross Sales of that group, there are 34 Franchisees included from North America, of which 14 (or 41.18 percent) exceed the average Gross Sales of that group, there is 1 Franchisee included from South America and the Caribbean, so they are included as the average, median, high, and low figure, there are 4 Franchisees included from Asia, of which 1 (or 25 percent) exceed the average Gross Sales of that group, and there are 2 Franchisees included from Africa, of which 1 (or 50 percent) exceed the average Gross Sales of that group. For the third chart, there are 61 Franchisees included, of which 18 (or 29.5 percent) exceed the average Number of Seats Sold for that group.

- (9) The information in the first four charts was compiled based on Gross Sales and seat sales reported by our existing U.S. and international Franchisees during the calendar year 2024 in reports provided by the Franchisees to us. We have not audited these sales reports and we cannot guarantee their accuracy. We do not require our Franchisees to provide us with financial statements. Some of our Franchisees provide other services to their clients in addition to the management, sales and personnel development training programs we offer. Those sales are not included in the sales numbers shown in the charts.
- (10) The contract value per transaction reported in the fourth chart and the estimated gross revenue margins reflected in the fifth chart above relate only to Franchisees' sale of Materials and enrollments of participants in the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. programs (the "L.E.A.D.R. Programs") and exclude sales of other Materials or enrollments in other programs Franchisees can offer. We offer other programs and Materials that may have greater or lesser margins. We estimate that more than 95% of all Franchisee sales are derived from the L.E.A.D.R. Programs.
- (11) The term "Gross Revenue Margin" as used in the fifth chart refers to the amount or percentage, as indicated, of the applicable total revenues that remain after deduction of only those costs specifically identified in the fifth chart. A Franchisee will have other costs as well.
- (12) The recommended retail price for the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program for the 2024 calendar year was $5,250 per participant. This recommended retail price is stated in the Procedures Manual and is subject to change. In prior years, the recommended retail price may have been lower. Franchisees may charge a fee that is higher or lower than our recommended retail price. They sometimes will reduce the per participant fee they charge for clients who enroll multiple managers to attend the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. Programs. Market conditions, such as competition, market recognition, quality of a Franchisee's training skills and location may affect a Franchisee's actual retail pricing.
- (13) The costs shown in the fifth chart are based on the costs in effect as of the date of this Disclosure Document and are subject to change. The fifth chart shows certain costs incurred in marketing the Materials and conducting the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. Programs only. They do not include all of the expenses a Franchisee will incur during the term of its franchise agreement, including the initial investment in the franchise, start-up costs, overhead, distribution fees, and certain operating expenses. Operating expenses vary substantially and are based on particular factors relevant to each Franchisee. A Franchisee may incur operating expenses for a computer, iPad, tablet computer, projector, or other equipment, automobile, telephone and voice mail system or service, marketing and advertising, direct mail, special incentive offers, Facilitator's or other instructional items or materials, amounts paid to Facilitators for those Franchisees who do not conduct their own Live Instruction programs, amounts paid to telemarketers for those Franchisees who elect to employ telemarketers, New Materials introductory surcharges (discussed below), and other isolated and/or recurring expenses. It also does not include amounts representing the Franchisee's (and its Authorized Representatives') time or effort, or account for interest expense, appreciation or depreciation of assets, capital expenses and carrying costs which will vary from Franchisee to Franchisee. Franchisees may operate from an office location, in which case there may be office lease and other related expenses, although most of our Franchisees operate out of their homes. Franchisees will also incur costs related to the attendance at our annual international convention and other Additional Meetings. You should refer to Items 5, 6 and 7 of this Disclosure Document for a discussion of other initial franchise fees, other fees and expenses, and initial investment considerations.

- (14) The actual cost of the Materials for participants in the L.E.A.D.R. Programs or other programs we offer varies. Depending on the number of participants a client enrolls, the mix of Materials the client receives is different. Further, many Franchisees purchase additional Materials to give to clients as a bonus for early payment. Some Franchisees also offer free or "scholarship" enrollments as a bonus for clients who enroll a specified number of their managers in the L.E.A.D.R. Programs. The expenses shown in the fifth chart assume these incentive Materials come from the Franchisee's own inventory and the costs of any free enrollments or bonus Materials are not reflected in the fifth chart. Franchisees are not required to offer free enrollments or give bonus Materials. Based on our estimates, the average expense for required Materials for one participant in a L.E.A.D.R. Program owed to us for any Materials that we grant you the right to access and market is approximately $38.85 or 0.74 percent of the current recommended retail price of $5,250. This recommended retail price is stated in the Procedures Manual and is subject to change.
- (15) The Royalty Fee paid to us when a Franchisee sells the Materials is generally 19.75 percent of the Franchisee's Gross Revenues. The gross revenue margins shown on the fifth chart assume that the standard Royalty Fee of 19.75 percent is paid on all Gross Revenues. The Royalty Fees due us are paid as a Franchisee receives the proceeds from L.E.A.D.R. Programs, which may not always be at the time of the sale. We recommend that Franchisees require enrollment fees and other amounts paid by a client be paid on a cash basis or on a basis of 25 percent down, with the balance payable in 30, 60, and 90 days. You may agree to other terms. The gross revenue margins shown on the fifth chart assume that all amounts owed by clients are collected at the time of the sale, and that all Royalty Fees, and any other fees or amounts owed to us by Franchisees are paid at the time of the sale. As the Distribution Fee is a monthly charge of a fixed dollar amount, we have not included it in the fifth chart as the percentage effect would constantly vary as revenue is generated by the Franchisee.
- (16) We estimate shipping costs at 0.1 percent of the retail price of the Materials. This may be higher depending on the location of a Franchisee and other factors, particularly for shipments of small quantities of Materials.
- (17) We periodically introduce New Materials or programs to our inventory of Materials available to franchises. There is a one-time introductory surcharge to offset our production costs of these Materials at the earlier of (i) the first order of any unit of the New Materials; or (ii) 30 days from the date the New Materials become available. The current introductory surcharge is $500 per new training program unit. Franchisees are required to acquire the rights to access and market any New Materials within 30 days of their availability. Since the introductory surcharge is a one-time charge, we have not included it in the fifth chart as the percentage effect would constantly vary as rights to more of these New Materials are acquired over the life of a franchise.

- (18) The data in the fifth chart has been compiled based on the experience of our U.S. and international Franchisees, provided that the recommended retail price is based on our recommended retail price in the U.S. Our system is comprised of Franchisees operating within the United States and Franchisees and distributors operating in other countries.

Some outlets have sold this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance you will earn or sell as much.

You will have other expenses as noted above.

The information in the first four charts is limited to averages and medians of certain results reported to us by Franchisees that operated on an active full-time basis during the year 2024. The information in the fifth chart is limited to an estimate of Gross Revenue Margins before operating expenses that could be derived by a Franchisee from the enrollment of one Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. participant at our current recommended retail price.

You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your CRESTCOM Business. Franchisees or former Franchisees listed in Attachments G and H may be one source of this information.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to you at our Greenwood Village office upon reasonable request.

Other than the preceding charts, we do not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing CRESTCOM Business, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that CRESTCOM Business outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Tammy Berberick at 6900 East Bellevue Avenue, Suite 100, Greenwood Village, Colorado 80111 and (303) 267-8200, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

A list of the names of all Franchisees and the addresses and telephone numbers of their CRESTCOM Businesses are listed in Attachment G to this Disclosure Document. CRESTCOM INTERNATIONAL, LLC
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) is made effective as of the date set forth on the signature page hereof, between CRESTCOM INTERNATIONAL, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, located at 6900 East Belleview, Suite 100, Greenwood Village, Colorado 80111 (“Crestcom”) and the undersigned franchisee (“Franchisee”), who, on the basis of the following understandings and in consideration of the following promises, agree as follows:

1. BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

1.1. Crestcom has developed methods for establishing, operating and marketing businesses that provide sales and management training (“CRESTCOM Businesses”), which methods include the use and license of the trademarks “CRESTCOM®,” “CRESTCOM TRAINERS TO THE WORLD®,” and “CRESTCOM L.E.A.D.R.™” and certain other service marks and trademarks (all referred to in this Agreement as the “Marks”), and Crestcom’s proprietary system and concepts for the establishment, operation and promotion of sales and management training businesses and related methods of doing business (the “Licensed Methods”). The Licensed Methods feature the sale or use for a fee of written materials, visual aids, and audio, video, and online media designed to be used as stand-alone training programs or in conjunction with specialized live in-person instruction seminars (“Live Instruction”) to instruct individuals, companies or other organizations (“Clients”) in a variety of areas, including business, sales, motivation and management skills and development. All written materials, visual aids, audio media, video media, online media, and marketing aids related thereto, and any substitutes for, or items that are a technological evolution of, any of the foregoing items, whether used in stand-alone training programs or Live Instruction, are collectively referred to in this Agreement as the “Materials.”

1.2. Crestcom grants the right and license to qualified individuals and entities to use the Marks and Licensed Methods to establish and operate CRESTCOM Businesses. They sign a franchise agreement in the form of this Agreement along with the Addendum to Franchise Agreement attached as Exhibit I (“Addendum”).

1.3. Franchisee desires to establish a CRESTCOM Business and Crestcom desires to grant Franchisee the right and license to operate a CRESTCOM Business under the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement and in the Addendum. Franchisee shall operate its franchise in accordance with and pursuant to the terms set forth in this Agreement and in the Addendum.

2. GRANT OF FRANCHISE

2.1. Grant of Franchise. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Crestcom grants to Franchisee, and Franchisee accepts from Crestcom, the right and license to use the Marks and Licensed Methods in connection with the establishment and operation of a CRESTCOM Business, offering sales, management and other training utilizing the Materials. Upon signing this Agreement, Franchisee and Crestcom shall also execute the Addendum providing additional terms that modify this Agreement. Franchisee agrees to use the Marks and Licensed Methods, as they may be changed, improved or further developed by Crestcom from time to time, only in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

2.2. Scope of Franchise Operations. Franchisee acknowledges that its continued rights to operate its CRESTCOM Business are dependent on Franchisee’s continued compliance with all terms and conditions of this Agreement and in the manuals or technical bulletins or other supplemental written materials covering the proper operating and Marketing techniques of a CRESTCOM Business. The manuals, technical bulletins and other supplemental written materials are referred to in this Agreement collectively as the “Procedures Manual,” and is more fully discussed in Article 8 of this Agreement. Franchisee shall use its best, full time efforts to promote its CRESTCOM Business through the offer, sale, transfer, rental, lending, display, performance or other provision (all referred to in this Agreement as “Marketing”) of the Materials and the Live Instruction in accordance with the Procedures Manual.

3. ASSIGNED AREA

3.1. Franchise Location. Franchisee’s CRESTCOM Business will be operated from a location selected by Franchisee (“Franchise Location”), which must be located within Franchisee’s Assigned Area (as defined in Section 3.2 below) and may be Franchisee’s residence. The Franchise Location is designated in the Addendum. Franchisee may relocate the Franchise Location anywhere within the Assigned Area. Franchisee shall provide written notice to Crestcom of any change in the Franchise Location within 10 days of a change.

3.2. Assigned Area. Franchisee will concentrate its Marketing of the Materials and its Marketing and conducting of Live Instruction within the geographic area described in the Addendum as it is currently constituted (“Assigned Area”). Franchisee is prohibited from conducting any Marketing activities (including marketing through channels of distribution such as the Internet or other electronic transmission, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing) or conducting Live Instruction outside of the Assigned Area or from Marketing any of the Materials or Marketing or conducting Live Instruction in the Assigned Area for use outside of the Assigned Area without the written approval of Crestcom, which may be withheld for any reason. Conditions under which Crestcom will generally consent to the Marketing or conducting of Live Instruction outside the Assigned Area are set forth in the Procedures Manual.

3.3. Threshold Number in Assigned Area. Franchisee acknowledges that its rights to Market the Materials and to Market and conduct Live Instruction in the Assigned Area will not prevent Crestcom or another franchisee or distributor from Marketing the Materials or Marketing or conducting Live Instruction within the Assigned Area; provided, however, that when the number of Qualifying Businesses (defined below) in the Assigned Area reaches the Threshold Number (defined below), Crestcom shall refrain from adding additional franchised CRESTCOM Businesses or its own CRESTCOM Businesses in the Assigned Area. A “Qualifying Business” is a CRESTCOM Business that, in each calendar quarter, generates gross revenues equal to the dollar amount that would be realized from the enrollment of at least 18 attendees of the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program at Crestcom’s then suggested U.S. minimum retail price. The gross revenues of any of a franchisee’s Salespeople, as defined in Section 6.5 below) are added to the gross revenues of that franchisee for purposes of calculating the revenues required for determining whether the franchisee’s CRESTCOM Business is a Qualifying Business. The “Threshold Number” is equal to one Qualifying Business for each 1 million or fraction thereof of population in a franchisee’s assigned area. If, after attaining the Threshold Number of Qualifying Businesses in the Assigned Area, the number of Qualifying Businesses thereafter falls below the Threshold Number, Crestcom may, without further notice to Franchisee, resume adding franchised CRESTCOM Businesses and its own CRESTCOM Businesses in the Assigned Area until the number of Qualifying Businesses in the Assigned Area again equals or exceeds the Threshold Number. Crestcom makes no representation, express or implied, that Franchisee or any other franchisee in the Assigned Area may or is likely to achieve the gross revenue goals in connection with the operation of its CRESTCOM Business to attain or maintain it as a Qualifying Business.

3.4. PMA Marketing Areas. In regions where multiple franchisees share the same assigned area, or in areas where multiple franchisees otherwise Market the Materials in close proximity to each other, Crestcom has created programs granting limited, semi-exclusive protected territories called “Principal Marketing Areas” within the assigned area. These marketing programs are called “PMA Programs.” The terms, conditions, policies, and procedures of any PMA Program established by Crestcom shall be set forth in the Procedures Manual or in other written materials provided by Crestcom, and may be modified by Crestcom in its sole discretion. If Crestcom has already created a PMA Program within Franchisee’s Assigned Area, Franchisee shall abide by the terms, conditions, policies, and procedures of that program. If subsequent to the execution of this Agreement, Crestcom creates a PMA Program in Franchisee’s Assigned Area, or in an area with different assigned areas that include some or all of Franchisee’s Assigned Area, Franchisee agrees that it will participate in the PMA Program, and cooperate and comply with all of the terms, conditions, policies, and procedures instituted by Crestcom related to that PMA Program. As set forth in Section 11.6 below, Franchisee must meet the Monthly Production Goal (defined Section 11.6) in order to maintain the “semi-exclusivity” associated with a Principal Marketing Area. Franchisee acknowledges that the terms, conditions, policies, and procedures of different PMA Programs may vary from one another. The Principal Marketing Areas and their geographical boundaries may be changed by Crestcom from time to time.

3.5. Crestcom’s Reservation of Rights. Franchisee acknowledges that all rights not specifically set forth in this Agreement are reserved to Crestcom, including the right to: (a) use and license the use of the Marks and Licensed Methods (i) for the operation of CRESTCOM Businesses anywhere, including in the Assigned Area, subject only to Threshold Number of Qualifying Business restrictions described above, (ii) for the operation of Area Representative (defined in Section 9.2 below) or area developer businesses anywhere, including in the Assigned Area, or (iii) in connection with the production and sale of new or additional Materials, Live Instruction, or other promotional, marketing, or related items for use in a CRESTCOM Business, without regard to location; (b) establish alternative channels of distribution, which include marketing and distribution of the Materials via the Internet or other electronic transmissions, catalog sales, social media, telemarketing and other direct marketing sales channels, which may or may not use the Marks; (c) establish alternative channels of delivery, which include the electronic transmission methods, webinars, social media, and other electronic transmissions, other than electronic transmissions in conjunction with Live Instruction, for the Materials or any training programs of Crestcom, which may or may not use the Marks, and in conjunction with any alternative channel of delivery, authorize the marketing and sale of such Materials or any training programs through other distribution systems at any location, including in the Assigned Area; (d) retire, cease to produce, cease to offer, or otherwise terminate the right to market, distribute, sell or otherwise offer to third parties any older versions of the Materials, while continuing to offer such older versions of the Materials through alternative channels of distribution or by alternative channels of delivery; (e) create, produce, market and sell products or services of any kind, which may be the same as, similar to, or different from those offered by a CRESTCOM Business, utilizing proprietary marks that are not the same as or confusingly similar to the Marks, and not now or in the future designated as part of the Crestcom system licensed under this Agreement or otherwise used in a CRESTCOM Business, and authorize the marketing and sale of these other products and services through other distribution systems at any location, including in the Assigned Area, whether or not in alternative channels of distribution or using alternative channels of delivery; and (f) grant training personalities appearing on the Materials the right to market or use the Materials or similar materials in the conduct of their businesses, in their live presentations, or in connection with their personal appearances, at any location, including in the Assigned Area.

All of these rights may be exercised on any terms and conditions as Crestcom deems advisable, without granting Franchisee any rights to the businesses or activities of Crestcom or the relevant third party. Franchisee acknowledges that the businesses and activities of Crestcom or the relevant third party as permitted under this Section 3.5 will include businesses and activities that are the same as, similar to, and different from the business and activities of a CRESTCOM Business. Crestcom can acquire or be acquired by, or engage in any other transaction with, other companies (competitive or not), including arrangements where other companies are (or are not) converted to the Crestcom franchise system, or in which company-owned, franchised or other businesses (including CRESTCOM Businesses) are (or are not) converted to another format (whether competitive or not), or both, and is maintained as the same concept, as a new concept, or as a separate concept and is located anywhere, including in the Assigned Area. Franchisee must fully cooperate with any of these conversions, at Franchisee's sole expense. In addition, Franchisee acknowledges that Hal Krause, who developed certain of Crestcom's Marks and Licensed Methods and assigned them to Crestcom, reserved the right to use the Mark "THE BULLET PROOF MANAGER™" in the title and contents of a book and related materials.

4. INITIAL FEES

4.1. Initial Franchise Fee. Franchisee will pay to Crestcom an initial franchise fee in the amount and manner set forth in the Addendum. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the initial franchise fee represents payment for the initial grant of the rights to use the Marks and Licensed Methods, that Crestcom has earned the initial franchise fee upon receipt thereof and that the fee is under no circumstances refundable to Franchisee once it is paid.

5. TRAINING

5.1. Initial Training Program. Except as set forth in the Procedures Manual, Franchisee or, if Franchisee is not an individual, the principal owner of Franchisee responsible for the management of the CRESTCOM Business or such other person designated by Franchisee, who must be approved in writing by Crestcom (the "Principal Representative"), is required to attend and successfully complete the initial training program, which is a classroom training program. Franchisee may designate up to two other individuals, in addition to Franchisee or the Principal Representative, to participate in the initial training program without tuition charged by Crestcom other than the initial franchise fee. Franchisee is responsible for all travel and living expenses incurred in connection with attendance at the initial training program. The initial training program may be conducted virtually, via the internet, telephone, or similar communications method, in Crestcom's sole discretion. Additional terms regarding the initial training program are set forth in the Procedures Manual.

5.2. Third Party Assessment Program. As part of the initial training program, Franchisee at its option may elect for it or its Principal Representative to undertake an assessment program offered by a third party designated by Crestcom.

5.3. LaunchPad to Success Training Program. Franchisee or its Principal Representative is required to attend and successfully complete Crestcom's follow-up sales process training program referred to as "LaunchPad to Success," which will be conducted at a time scheduled by Crestcom following Franchisee's completion of the initial classroom training program under Section 5.1 and the commencement of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business. Franchisee may designate up to one other individual, in addition to Franchisee or the Principal Representative, to participate in the LaunchPad to Success training program without tuition charged by Crestcom. Franchisee is responsible for all travel and living expenses incurred in connection with attendance at the LaunchPad to Success training program. The LaunchPad to Success training program may be conducted virtually, via the internet, telephone, or similar communications method, in Crestcom's sole discretion. Additional terms regarding the LaunchPad to Success training program may be set forth in the Procedures Manual.

5.4. PRO Certification Program. At least one Facilitator (as defined in Section 6.4 below) of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business is required to complete Crestcom's online facilitation certification program referred to as "PRO" or "PRO Certification" within 180 days of the commencement of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business, or prior to performing any Live Instruction if engaged at a later date. Crestcom, at its discretion, may require Franchisee to pay its then current tuition or fee for participation in the PRO Certification program. Franchisee is responsible for all travel and living expenses incurred in connection with attendance at the PRO Certification training program. Additional terms regarding the PRO Certification training program may be set forth in the Procedures Manual.

5.5. Additional Training. From time to time, Crestcom may conduct training programs (the "Additional Meetings") in addition to the initial training program, LaunchPad to Success training program, and PRO Certification training program. In addition to the Additional Meetings, Franchisee is required to participate in any videoconference, virtual, and online training programs designated as mandatory by Crestcom. Crestcom may also offer optional videoconference and online training programs. Crestcom's and Franchisee's, or its Principal Representatives', obligations, duties, requirements and conditions of attending and participating in Additional Meetings and videoconference and online training are set forth in the Procedures Manual.

5.6. Mentoring Program. Following Franchisee's completion of the initial training program in accordance with Section 5.1 above, Franchisee may elect, at its sole option, to participate in the Crestcom's mentoring program ("Mentoring Program"). Franchisee shall make its election to participate in the Mentoring Program pursuant to the requirements set forth in the Procedures Manual. If Franchisee elects to participate in the Mentoring Program, then Franchisee agrees to abide by all of the rules applicable to the Mentoring Program at the time of Franchisee's election, as set forth in the Procedures Manual. Crestcom may discontinue the Mentoring Program at any time in its discretion.

5.7. Missed Training Fee. If Franchisee or its Principal Representative fail to attend any scheduled training program after the initial classroom training program, such as the LaunchPad to Success Training, PRO Certification training, or Additional Meetings, without providing Crestcom with at least 48 hours' advance written notice, then Franchisee must pay Crestcom a fee of $200.00 per missed appointment, which fee is due immediately upon invoice from Crestcom.

6. FRANCHISEE'S DEVELOPMENT OBLIGATIONS

6.1. Initial Inventory. If Franchisee is acquiring its first franchise, upon full execution of this Agreement and payment in full of the initial franchise fee, Crestcom will make available to Franchisee, without further charge, an initial inventory of training materials and sample documents ("Initial Inventory"). Franchisee will be responsible for paying all costs of shipping and all taxes incurred in connection with the sale and shipment of the Initial Inventory. Crestcom reserves the right to change the mix of materials within the Initial Inventory at any time after the date of this Agreement without notice or obligation to provide any new items included therein to Franchisee. Some or all of the items included in the Initial Inventory may be provided in digital form, at Crestcom's discretion.

6.2. Equipment and Telephones. Franchisee will acquire and maintain a telephone system with voice mail, a computer system, a video projector, and such other equipment as shall be required from time to time by Crestcom for use in the CRESTCOM Business. All of this equipment must be consistent with and operated in accordance with the minimum standards and specifications of Crestcom, which are set forth in the Procedures Manual. Crestcom reserves the right to establish new and additional minimum specifications for the required equipment by modification to the Procedures Manual. Crestcom will provide an e-mail account to Franchisee. Franchisee is required to use only the e-mail account provided by Crestcom in the operation of its CRESTCOM Business, and Franchisee may not use the e-mail account for any purpose not related to the operation of its CRESTCOM Business. Franchisee is required to check such e-mail account at least daily for incoming messages, and respond promptly to all messages. Crestcom reserves the right to discontinue providing the e-mail account in the future, in which event Franchisee will be required to maintain an e-mail account to be used in the operation of the CRESTCOM Business. Crestcom has the right to monitor and access Franchisee's e-mail account and the messages sent to and from that account. Crestcom can modify the e-mail account, its website, and its policies with respect to both. Crestcom may charge a fee to Franchisee for providing the e-mail account and for operating the website.

6.3. Authorized Representatives. Franchisee will be solely responsible for recruiting, hiring, appointing, firing, and supervising its employees, independent agents, Principal Representatives, Facilitators, a maximum of two telemarketers, and Salespersons (as defined in Section 6.5 below) (collectively referred to as "Authorized Representatives"). These Authorized Representatives will be employees or agents of Franchisee. They are not employees or agents of Crestcom and Crestcom is not the joint employer of those persons. Franchisee will have sole authority and control over the day-to-day operations of the CRESTCOM Business and its Authorized Representatives. Crestcom will have no right or obligation to direct Franchisee's Authorized Representatives or to operate the CRESTCOM Business. It is Franchisee's responsibility to determine compensation of Authorized Representatives, terms of employment, safety regulations, work assignments, work schedules, and working conditions. Any information regarding any of those issues provided to Franchisee by Crestcom are mere suggestions and Franchisee shall have the sole discretion to utilize such information or not. Franchisee may negotiate the terms under which it will employ any Authorized Representative, including any Salespersons. Franchisee must obtain Crestcom's prior written approval of all Authorized Representatives before appointing or hiring them. The number of people associated with Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business, including telemarketers and Salespersons may be changed by Crestcom in its sole discretion, by a change to the Procedures Manual. Franchisee shall screen all of its Authorized Representatives to ensure that they will not reflect adversely on the reputation of Crestcom's image and system. Franchisee is solely responsible for implementing training and other programs for its Authorized Representatives related to the legal, safe, and proper performance of their work, regardless of the fact that Crestcom may provide advice, suggestions, and certain training programs as described in this Agreement. Such advice, suggestions, and training by Crestcom are provided to protect Crestcom's brand and the Marks and not to control the day-to-day operation of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business. Franchisee will keep Crestcom informed of the names, addresses, e-mail contact information and telephone numbers of all Authorized Representatives. Crestcom has the right to require Franchisee to cause its Authorized Representatives to sign such contracts as Crestcom shall require. All agreements between Franchisee and its Authorized Representatives must be in a form provided by Crestcom or otherwise approved by Crestcom and shall provide that Crestcom, as a third party beneficiary, may enforce the agreements directly against the Authorized Representatives.

6.4. Facilitators. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee or an Authorized Representative must be qualified, in accordance with Crestcom's specifications and standards, to act as the facilitator ("Facilitator") of the Live Instruction conducted on behalf of Clients and must complete the PRO Certification program within 180 days of the commencement of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business. All Live Instruction will be conducted only in a manner specifically authorized by Crestcom, as may be described in the Procedures Manual. Crestcom reserves the right to establish additional certification programs for Facilitators, the terms, conditions and requirements of which shall be set forth in the Procedures Manual. If established, Franchisee shall comply with the terms of the additional certification programs, which may include the requirement that Franchisee's Facilitators attend and complete additional training programs at Franchisee's sole expense. Crestcom reserves the right to charge a tuition or fee, in accordance with its then current published rates, to train and certify Franchisee's Facilitators, if training and certification are required.

6.5. Salespersons. Franchisee may employ or engage up to a total of two Authorized Representatives ("Salespersons"), in addition to Franchisee, to Market the Materials in the Assigned Area. At no time during the term of this Agreement may Franchisee have more than two Salespersons at the same time, without the prior written consent of Crestcom, which consent may be withheld in Crestcom's sole and absolute discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Crestcom has established a PMA Program for Franchisee's Assigned Area and designated a Principal Marketing Area for Franchisee, then there is no limitation on the number of Salespersons that can be engaged by Franchisee.

6.6. Commencement of Operations. The commencement of operation of the CRESTCOM Business shall be deemed to occur upon the later of the date that this Agreement is executed or the date that Franchisee completes the initial classroom training program described in Section 5.1.

6.7. Active Operations. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Crestcom and Franchisee, once Franchisee has commenced operations in accordance with Section 6.6 above, Franchisee must actively promote and maintain its CRESTCOM Business for the entire term of the Franchise Agreement. Franchisee shall be deemed to be an active franchisee so long as Franchisee continues to conduct Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training seminars each month during the term hereof, and, after the third full calendar quarter of this Agreement, Franchisee generates Gross Revenues equal to or greater than the Monthly Production Goal (as defined in Section 11.3 below).

7. DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE

7.1. Crestcom's Development Assistance. Prior to or simultaneously with the opening of the CRESTCOM Business, Crestcom will provide Franchisee with the following assistance:

After execution of this Agreement, Crestcom will make available to Franchisee a list of approved suppliers, if any, of such equipment, items and Materials.

c. The Initial Inventory made available as described in Section 6.1 above.

d. Access to Crestcom's Procedures Manual in accordance with Article 8 below.

e. In Crestcom's discretion, Crestcom may also make recommendations or establish requirements regarding the accounting and reporting systems to be used in the CRESTCOM Business.

8. PROCEDURES MANUAL

8.1. Procedures Manual. The primary source and guide to the proper operating and Marketing techniques of a CRESTCOM Business is the Procedures Manual. Crestcom will provide to Franchisee a copy of the Procedures Manual for use during training, and thereafter will make available to Franchisee the Procedures Manual through Crestcom's proprietary, restricted, and confidential licensee's support website, or via another written, audio, video, or online source. The Procedures Manual is designed to protect Crestcom's reputation and the goodwill of the Marks, it is not designed to control the day-to-day operations of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business. Franchisee agrees that it will read and learn the Procedures Manual and will comply with it in the development and operation of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business as an essential aspect of its obligations under this Agreement. Franchisee also agrees to use the Marks and Licensed Methods, any translations of them, and any substitutes for, items that are a technological evolution of, or any part of them, only as specified in the Procedures Manual. Failure of Franchisee to substantially comply with the Procedures Manual may be considered by Crestcom to be a breach of this Agreement. The Procedures Manual will be in the English language. Franchisee may not translate the Procedures Manual without Crestcom's prior written consent, which may be withheld for any reason. Crestcom's consent may be conditioned on Franchisee executing Crestcom's then current form of translation agreement.

8.2. Confidentiality of Procedures Manual Contents. Franchisee agrees to use the Marks and Licensed Methods, any translations of them, and any substitutes for, items that are a technological evolution of, or any part of them, only as specified in the Procedures Manual. The Procedures Manual is the sole property of Crestcom and will be used by Franchisee only during the term of this Agreement and in strict accordance with the terms and conditions hereof and in the Procedures Manual. Franchisee may download and print a copy of the Procedures Manual solely for Franchisee's use in its CRESTCOM Business. Otherwise, Franchisee will not duplicate the Procedures Manual nor disclose the contents thereof to persons other than its Authorized Representatives or officers who have signed a confidentiality and noncompetition agreement in a form approved by Crestcom. Franchisee will return all items comprising the Procedures Manual, or any part thereof, to Crestcom immediately upon the expiration, termination or transfer of this Agreement, or at an earlier date upon written request by Crestcom, by prepaid, insured air freight or other prepaid, insured freight as is pre-approved by Crestcom in writing. If the Procedures Manual or any part thereof is held in any electronic form, Franchisee will immediately delete that information upon expiration, termination, or transfer of this Agreement.

8.3. Changes to Procedures Manual. Since the Procedures Manual is used by all franchisees, distributors, Area Representatives, and area developers of Crestcom, Crestcom may determine that changes are necessary to improve Crestcom's entire system. Therefore, Crestcom reserves the right to revise the Procedures Manual from time to time as it deems necessary. Franchisee, within 10 days of receiving any updated information, will in turn update its copy of the Procedures Manual as instructed by Crestcom and will conform its operations to the updated provisions. A master copy of the Procedures Manual maintained by Crestcom at its principal office, regardless of whether it is in electronic or other form, will be controlling in the event of a dispute regarding the content of any Procedures Manual.

9. OPERATING ASSISTANCE

9.1. Crestcom's Available Services. Crestcom agrees that, during Franchisee's operation of its CRESTCOM Business, Crestcom will provide to Franchisee the following assistance and services:

a. The LaunchPad to Success training program and the PRO Certification training program, as described in Article 5 above.

The International Account List will be maintained by Franchisee as confidential and a trade secret of Crestcom, will not be duplicated, and will be returned to Crestcom upon request.

f. On-going updates of information and ideas regarding the sales and management training techniques and other information related to the Licensed Methods, including, without limitation, information about special or new Materials or any Live Instruction techniques, all of which may be developed and made available to franchisees, in the sole discretion of Crestcom. Crestcom reserves the right to charge a fee for any such new Materials or support developed and made available to franchisees.

Further, the availability of the training programs will be subject to space considerations and prior commitments.

i. From time to time, the Additional Meetings described in Section 5.3 and the Procedures Manual.

9.2. Referral of Other Franchisees and Area Representatives. If Franchisee refers a prospective franchisee or area representative ("Area Representative") to Crestcom who was previously unknown to Crestcom, and that person or entity subsequently becomes a franchisee or Area Representative of Crestcom, then Crestcom will provide Franchisee a credit, which may be used to acquire Materials or other items from Crestcom, equal to the lesser of (i) 15 percent of the initial franchise fee or initial area representative fee, as paid by the person or entity referred by Franchisee, or (ii) $10,000.00. If the new franchisee or Area Representative pays its initial franchise fee or its initial area representative fee in installments, the credit will be provided on a pro rata basis by the last day of the month in which funds are received. Otherwise, the credit will be provided when the initial franchise fee or initial area representative fee, is paid in full. This Section shall not apply if Franchisee is also an Area Representative or area developer of Crestcom.

9.3. Supply of Materials. Subject to Section 10.2 below, Crestcom agrees to supply and distribute to Franchisee such Materials that Franchisee orders, subject to availability of such Materials within Crestcom's own inventory. Certain materials may be made available through an approved supplier of Crestcom. The inventory of available Materials may be changed or discontinued from time to time by Crestcom, in its sole discretion. The supply and distribution of the Materials to Franchisee will be subject to all terms and conditions related to shipment, allocation, return, restocking, substitution, shipping and handling costs, inventory mix and Materials inventory level requirements as may be described in this Agreement, the Procedures Manual, or other written information made available to Franchisee by Crestcom. Nothing in this Agreement will be construed by Franchisee to be a promise or guarantee as to the continued existence of any particular item within Crestcom's current inventory of Materials. No provision herein shall be deemed to imply or establish an obligation on the part of Crestcom to sell or otherwise deliver Materials to Franchisee if Franchisee is in arrears on any payment or reporting obligations to Crestcom or otherwise in default under this Agreement.

9.4. No Obligation to Repurchase Materials. Crestcom has no obligation to repurchase any Materials from Franchisee, whether provided to Franchisee in the initial supply or a subsequent order, nor to refund all or any part of Franchisee's purchase price for any Materials purchased by Franchisee.

10. FRANCHISEE'S OPERATIONAL COVENANTS

10.1. Orders of Materials. All orders for Materials made by Franchisee during the term of this Agreement will be shipped directly to Franchisee in minimum quantities established by Crestcom or its approved supplier from time to time and as set forth in the Procedures Manual. All orders for Materials must be paid for by Franchisee in full prior to the shipment thereof unless Crestcom or its approved supplier, as applicable, agrees to other payment terms, in its sole discretion. The Materials ordered will be shipped F.O.B., Denver, Colorado U.S.A. and Franchisee will be responsible for paying all costs of shipping and all taxes incurred in connection with the sale and shipment of Materials. These costs and taxes will vary and Crestcom reserves the right to charge additional fees and costs for special shipping services that are necessary or that may be requested by Franchisee. The actual charge to Franchisee for all orders of Materials, other than the Initial Inventory, will be in an amount set forth in Crestcom's then current published price list, as may be changed from time to time. Franchisee understands that Crestcom may change the price charged for Materials upon 30 days prior notice to Franchisee.

10.2. New Materials Surcharge. Crestcom may from time to time produce or acquire new, revised, or updated training programs, which may be provided in audio, video, online, or other media format, that are not part of the Materials existing as of the execution date of this Agreement ("New Materials") and make these New Materials available to its franchisees. Franchisee must, within 30 days from the date any New Materials become available, acquire access and rights to New Materials by paying an introductory surcharge of $500.00 per each new unit or module of the New Materials (the "New Materials Surcharge") and begin Marketing the New Materials to Clients. The New Materials Surcharge is due on the earlier of (i) the first order of any unit or module of the New Materials; or (ii) 30 days from the date the New Materials become available. As used herein, the term "Materials" shall not include any New Materials until Franchisee has paid the New Materials Surcharge in full, and Franchisee shall have no rights to the New Materials until Franchisee pays the New Materials Surcharge in full.

10.3. Optional Training Programs. In addition to the standard selection of sales and management training programs offered through a CRESTCOM Business, Crestcom may from time to time in its discretion offer franchisees the option to acquire rights to offer and conduct certain optional sales and management training programs in their CRESTCOM Businesses (the "Optional Training Programs"). Crestcom has no obligation to grant Franchisee those rights. If Franchisee is given the opportunity to acquire rights to offer and conduct an Optional Training Program through its CRESTCOM Business, Crestcom will notify Franchisee of the terms and conditions under which Franchisee may acquire the rights to the applicable Optional Training Program, which may include but are not limited to additional franchise, license, access and other introductory fees or surcharges, other additional fees or surcharges, qualification requirements, additional training, and different operating specifications or standards. Crestcom may offer each Optional Training Program under a separate franchise agreement, an addendum to this Agreement, or another agreement, in Crestcom's sole discretion, setting forth the terms and conditions for the relevant Optional Training Program. Franchisee must be in good standing under this Agreement to be afforded the opportunity to acquire rights to any Optional Training Programs. Any Optional Training Program may be discontinued by Crestcom in its sole discretion.

10.4. Return of Materials. If Crestcom recalls any Materials or replaces existing Materials with new versions of such Materials, then Franchisee shall, at its sole cost and expense, return to Crestcom such recalled or replaced Materials within 10 days of request by Crestcom.

10.5. Business Operations. Franchisee acknowledges that it is solely responsible for the successful operation of its CRESTCOM Business and that the continued successful operation thereof is, in part, dependent upon Franchisee's compliance with this Agreement and the Procedures Manual. In addition to all other obligations contained in this Agreement and in the Procedures Manual, Franchisee covenants that:

a. Franchisee will maintain a professional and ethical CRESTCOM Business operation and will operate the business in accordance with the Procedures Manual and in such a manner as not to detract from or adversely reflect upon the name and reputation of Crestcom and the goodwill associated with the Marks.

b. Franchisee will conduct itself and operate its CRESTCOM Business in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations and will be solely and fully responsible for obtaining any and all licenses to carry on its CRESTCOM Business. Franchisee will promptly forward to Crestcom copies of all necessary licenses, as and when they become available. Franchisee acknowledges that its federal, state, provincial, regional or local government may have laws and regulations specific to the operation of its CRESTCOM Business. Franchisee further acknowledges that there are laws of a more general nature that may apply to its CRESTCOM Business. In particular, Franchisee acknowledges that certain jurisdictions may have laws that may be applicable in relation to (i) the regulation of training programs, instructional courses, or associated materials, in general or of the specific kind provided by CRESTCOM Businesses, (ii) licensing and permit requirements for the operation of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business, (iii) the import and export of goods including the Materials, (iv) restrictions or conditions for transferring money out of the country or to Crestcom, (v) the rights of a buyer to cancel a contract if goods or services are not delivered within a certain period of time after the delivery date in the contract, (vi) the regulation of sales and marketing activities, including telemarketing, (vii) requirements for contracts of specific types and in general, (viii) employment of any employees or hiring of any independent contractors, (ix) minimum insurance requirements, (x) taxes imposed based on any activities related to Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business and any related required government filings, (xi) providing products and services to disabled individuals, (xii) privacy and data protection, and (xiii) bribery of or other illegal payments to any government, government agency, public international organization, or political party, or any of their officials, employees, candidates, or other representatives. Crestcom has no obligation to advise Franchisee of any legislative or other legal developments that may affect its CRESTCOM Business. Franchisee is solely responsible for inquiring about and becoming familiar with all applicable laws and regulations, and determining those actions required for compliance. Any information Crestcom provides to Franchisee regarding applicable laws or regulations does not relieve Franchisee of its responsibility to consult with its own legal advisor and otherwise take appropriate action to inquire about and comply with applicable laws and regulations.

c. Franchisee or a designated Principal Representative who has completed Crestcom's initial classroom training program and LaunchPad to Success training program will be responsible for the management of its CRESTCOM Business and for expending his or her best, full time efforts toward the management and operations of the business. A qualified Facilitator shall conduct all Live Instruction.

d. Unless Franchisee receives the written approval of Crestcom, Franchisee will promote and Market only the Materials and Market and conduct only the Live Instruction as from time to time may be approved by Crestcom to assure uniformity of presentation, quality and range of the Crestcom image and system. Unless Franchisee receives the written approval of Crestcom, Franchisee will refrain from offering or engaging in the Marketing of any other business activity, including conducting any business in violation of Section 19.1 of this Agreement. If Franchisee engages in another type of business or profession or offers any other types of services or products in addition to Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business, whether or not Crestcom has granted its prior written approval to such actions, Franchisee is required to pay to Crestcom Royalty Fees based on the Gross Revenues derived by Franchisee not only from Franchisee's sale of the Materials and Live Instruction, but also, the Gross Revenues derived by Franchisee from such other approved business or activities. If Franchisee operates any other type of business or profession in addition to Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business, whether or not Crestcom has granted its prior written approval to such actions, and Franchisee fails to report to Crestcom the Gross Revenues derived by Franchisee from such other business, profession, or sale, then upon discovery of such non-reporting or under-reporting Franchisee shall immediately pay to Crestcom all of the Royalty Fees with respect to such non-reported or under-reported Gross Revenues, together with an Administrative Fee and Late Charge (as defined in Section 11.7 below) and interest.

e. Franchisee will promptly pay when due all taxes and other obligations due to governmental or quasi-governmental entities or other third parties in the operation of its CRESTCOM Business, including without limitation, unemployment and sales and use taxes, and any and all accounts or other indebtedness of every kind incurred by Franchisee in the conduct of its CRESTCOM Business.

f. Franchisee will comply with all agreements with third parties related to its CRESTCOM Business, including, in particular, all provisions of any agreement related to the Marketing of the Materials or the Marketing or conducting of Live Instruction and any related commitments, such as the commitment to lease premises, including a facility to conduct the Live Instruction.

g. Franchisee will at all times during the term of this Agreement own and control its CRESTCOM Business. Upon request of Crestcom, Franchisee will promptly provide satisfactory proof of such ownership to Crestcom, and, if applicable, the ownership of Franchisee. Franchisee represents that the Statement of Ownership, attached hereto as Exhibit II and by this reference incorporated herein, is true, complete, accurate and not misleading. Franchisee will promptly notify Crestcom of any change in the information contained in the Statement of Ownership, and if requested by Crestcom, execute and deliver a new Statement of Ownership to Crestcom.

h. Franchisee shall participate in and abide by the Multiple Area Sales Program set forth in the Procedures Manual (the "MAS Program"), related to sales and servicing of Clients with multi-area needs. Franchisee agrees that in the event of a dispute between Franchisee and another franchisee, distributor, Area Representative, or area developer, or any other party related to the MAS Program, the dispute shall be submitted to Crestcom, whose decision shall be final and binding on Franchisee.

i. All Live Instruction scheduled and conducted by Franchisee will be the sole responsibility of Franchisee. If for any reason Franchisee is unable to conduct any scheduled Live Instruction for any reason, Crestcom will have the right but not the obligation to assume Franchisee's responsibilities in connection with the conduct of the Live Instruction. In such event, Franchisee agrees to abide by the policies and procedures set forth in the Procedures Manual related to Crestcom conducting Franchisee's Live Instruction.

j. Franchisee will conduct all communications with Crestcom, whether in writing or verbal, only in the English language.

k. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee is solely responsible for all claims and liability related to any products used in its CRESTCOM Business, and that any claims or liability related to such products, including any strict product liability, constitute Claims arising out of the operation of its CRESTCOM Business for which Franchisee is obligated to indemnify Crestcom in accordance with Section 18.3.

l. Franchisee must acquire digital and e-mail marketing services from a supplier designated by Crestcom and pay any fees associated with those services to the supplier or Crestcom, as specified by Crestcom.

m. Franchisee shall use any software or online programs required by Crestcom, and comply with all agreements, restrictions, and conditions of any kind, including any software or online programs that provide reporting, tracking, or accounting functions, whether now in existence or hereafter developed or acquired by Crestcom that Crestcom requires Franchisee to obtain or use, and to comply with all agreements, restrictions, and conditions thereof (the "Mandatory Computer Systems and Programs"). Franchisee shall pay any fees associated with any Mandatory Computer Systems and Programs, and submit all reports required by Crestcom that are created or generated by such Mandatory Computer Systems and Programs as Crestcom shall require. Crestcom reserves the right during the term of this Agreement, in its sole discretion, to modify, change, alter, and/or otherwise provide Franchisee enhancement and maintenance upgrades to any Mandatory Computer System and Program and/or offer and require different or new programs that may be replacements of or additions to the Mandatory Computer Systems and Programs then being offered, or to discontinue any and all Mandatory Computer Systems and Programs of any kind that may be required by Crestcom.

n. In all communications with Crestcom's representatives, Franchisee and its representatives must conduct themselves in a dignified, respectful, courteous, and professional manner. No hostile, threatening, or offensive statements or behavior toward any Crestcom representative is permitted.

o. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that certain associations between its CRESTCOM Business, the Marks, and/or the Crestcom system, on the one side, and a political (including a political party or candidate), religious, social, cultural or similar group, member, cause, and/or activities (collectively, a "Political or Social Cause"), on the other side, may result in adverse publicity and other adverse impacts on the Marks and/or Crestcom system with certain segments of the public. As such, Franchisee agrees that it will not, without Crestcom's prior written consent, make any statement or take any other action (including posting signs) that could be perceived as promoting, approving, disapproving, publicizing, or otherwise commenting on a Political or Social Cause in any manner that is connected to or associated with the CRESTCOM Business, the Marks, and/or the Crestcom system.

10.6. Continuing Qualification to Conduct Live Instruction. Franchisee will be responsible for ensuring that all Facilitators at all times meet the minimum standards and specifications of Crestcom with respect to continued qualification, and, if required by Crestcom, are certified, as a Facilitator. In its sole discretion, Crestcom or its designee may periodically evaluate any Facilitator to determine his or her qualification to conduct Live Instruction. If Crestcom determines or has reason to believe that any of Franchisee's Facilitators are not qualified to provide Live Instruction, Crestcom will notify Franchisee in writing and the Facilitator will be required to attend and successfully complete additional training at Franchisee's sole expense before conducting any further Live Instruction.

10.7. Live Instruction Monitoring and Responsibility. Crestcom or its designated representatives will at all times be entitled to monitor or record the Live Instruction conducted by Franchisee, to evaluate the Facilitator, and to otherwise obtain and maintain information from such Live Instruction and from Franchisee regarding such Live Instruction. Upon request, Franchisee shall furnish Crestcom the number, names, addresses and telephone numbers of all attendees of Franchisee's Live Instruction programs. Franchisee agrees that such information constitutes the confidential, proprietary information of Crestcom, and that information related to Franchisee's attendees can be added to and become a part of Crestcom's International Account List and otherwise used by Crestcom as it deems proper. Crestcom may, in its sole discretion, contact any attendee to determine levels of satisfaction, to conduct internal studies, and for such other purposes as Crestcom deems proper.

10.8. Clients With Disabilities. Franchisee agrees that if Franchisee sells any Materials to, or conducts Live Instruction for any individuals who are blind, hearing impaired, or who have other similar physical conditions which may require special equipment or modification of the format of such Materials or Live Instruction, Franchisee shall obtain Crestcom's prior consent to any such modification of the Materials. Franchisee shall be solely responsible for all costs and expenses associated or incurred in the acquisition and use of any special equipment required to be obtained, or in making any approved modifications to the format of the Materials.

10.9. Requirements for Entity Franchisees. If Franchisee is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other business entity, Franchisee agrees that it and its Principal Representatives will abide by the additional conditions related to entity franchisees that are set forth in the Procedures Manual.

10.10. C.O.A.C.H. Site and Newsletters. Franchisee acknowledges that one of Crestcom's primary methods of communication with Crestcom franchisees, distributors, Area Representatives, and area developers is through its proprietary, restricted, and confidential support website/portal, Crestcom Operations and Communications Hub ("C.O.A.C.H."). Franchisee is responsible for knowing all of the information contained in Crestcom's C.O.A.C.H. site, best practices guidelines, and newsletters, and complying with any standards and specifications set forth therein. Crestcom may establish and change the standards and specifications for the operation of a CRESTCOM Business through the C.O.A.C.H. site, best practices guidelines, and newsletters.

11. CONTINUING FEES AND PAYMENTS

11.1. Royalty. Franchisee agrees to pay Crestcom, in addition to payment of any other amounts payable under this Agreement, a continuing royalty ("Royalty Fee") in the amount of 19.75 percent of the total amount of Franchisee's Gross Revenues generated from or through its CRESTCOM Business (including any Gross Revenues derived from any other business or profession operated by or through the CRESTCOM Business, whether or not approved by Crestcom in accordance with Section 10.5.d above).

11.2. Distribution Fee. Franchisee agrees to pay Crestcom, in addition to payment for the Materials and any other amounts payable hereunder, a distribution fee of $875.00 per month ("Distribution Fee").

11.3. Gross Revenues. “Gross Revenues” is all receipts and income of any kind generated through Franchisee’s CRESTCOM Business or otherwise from the sale, transfer, rental, lending, display, performance or provision of the Materials and the conduct of Live Instruction, other use or sale of the Materials, speaking services, or other materials or services sold or provided by Franchisee, whether or not approved by Crestcom in accordance with Section 10.5.d above, including the provision of any products, services or materials for cash or upon credit, or partly for cash and partly for credit, exclusive only of applicable sales taxes. “Gross Revenues” also includes the fair market value of any products, services or materials received by Franchisee in barter or exchange for its products, services and materials; provided, however, that Franchisee may exclude from its Gross Revenues for the purposes of determination of the Royalty Fee the fair market value of any barter or exchange arrangement with a Client, pursuant to which the Client is to provide a facility for the conduct of the Live Instruction in exchange for all or a part of the fees which would otherwise be due for the Live Instruction, for one such exchange per calendar year. From time to time, Crestcom may at its sole discretion designate certain programs and services for which the receipts and income will be deemed to be excluded from Franchisee’s Gross Revenues for purposes of calculating fees.

11.4. Client Access Fee. Crestcom reserves the right, upon 30 days prior written notice to Franchisee, to require Franchisee to pay Crestcom, in addition to payment of any other amounts payable under this Agreement, a client access fee (“Client Access Fee”) in an amount set forth in Crestcom’s then current published price list, as may be changed from time to time. The Client Access Fee permits Franchisee’s Clients to view and utilize the Materials at Client’s offices or elsewhere through an online streaming system established and utilized by Crestcom. Franchisee understands that Crestcom may change the price charged for the Client Access Fee upon 30 days prior notice to Franchisee. The Client Access Fee, once due, will be payable at the times and in the manner specified by Crestcom.

11.5. Payments to Crestcom.

a. Franchisee agrees that all fees and other charges due hereunder will be paid by Franchisee in accordance with the payment terms that are set forth in the Procedures Manual, which may be by credit card or ACH as described in Section 11.5.b below. Franchisee agrees that Royalty Fee payments will be paid to Crestcom on a weekly basis. Royalty Fee payments will be made no later than Monday of each week based on Gross Revenues for the funds received in the immediately preceding week. For purposes of this Agreement, each week will be considered to start on Monday and end on Sunday. Royalty Fee payments will be accompanied by weekly reports containing information regarding Franchisee’s Gross Revenues and such additional information as may be requested by Crestcom. Crestcom will have the right to verify, audit or confirm such Royalty Fee payments from time to time in accordance with Section 14.3 below, and Franchisee agrees to fully cooperate with Crestcom as related thereto. Franchisee agrees that Distribution Fee payments will be paid to Crestcom on a monthly basis, on or before the fifth day of every calendar month beginning with the first full calendar month following the date of this Agreement.

b. Contemporaneously with the execution of this Agreement and at any later time upon the request of Crestcom, Franchisee shall accurately complete, execute, and deliver to Crestcom (i) a fully completed and executed credit card authorization, which is attached to this Agreement as Exhibit IV (the “Credit Card Authorization”); and (ii) an Authorization Agreement for preauthorized payment of any amounts due under this Agreement by electronic transfer of funds from Franchisee’s bank account to Crestcom’s bank account (“ACH Withdrawal”), which is attached to this Agreement as Exhibit V (the “ACH Authorization”). Franchisee must also deliver the ACH Authorization to its applicable bank. Franchisee will execute and deliver any replacement or additional Credit Card Authorizations and ACH

Authorizations requested by Crestcom from time to time. These authorizations may be in electronic form, and the payments may be administered through an online system. Crestcom may charge Franchisee's credit card or bank account, at Crestcom's option, each month for the Royalty Fee, Distribution Fee, and/or any other fees or amounts owed to Crestcom when due, including Administrative Fees and Late Charges (as defined in Section 11.7). Crestcom may require Franchisee to pay by means other than credit card payment or ACH Withdrawal, whenever Crestcom deems appropriate, and Franchisee agrees to comply with Crestcom's payment instructions and to execute any documents in conjunction with such payment means.

c. Franchisee must at all times during the term of this Agreement (including any renewal terms) maintain at least $5,000.00 in its bank account subject to the ACH Withdrawal and at least one credit card account in good standing and with a minimum available credit line of $5,000.00 covered by the Credit Card Authorization. The bank account and credit card must be dedicated exclusively to the CRESTCOM Business and not used for any other business or non-business purpose. Franchisee agrees to advise Crestcom, within one business day thereafter, if Franchisee changes its bank account or transfers its bank account to another bank, or if any credit card listed in a Credit Card Authorization expires, if Franchisee or the issuer of the card closes the account, or if other changes are made to the credit card account. Franchisee further agrees, within three business days of such change or transfer, to execute and return to Crestcom, and Franchisee's bank if applicable, a replacement ACH Authorization or Credit Card Authorization for a bank account or credit card meeting the requirements of this Agreement, listing the new bank account information or credit card information and all other information required. Franchisee agrees to abide by Crestcom's policies related to the maintenance and use of its credit card as set forth in the Procedures Manual.

d. Upon Crestcom's request, Franchisee will immediately notify its Clients and instruct them to make all payments owed to Franchisee related to the CRESTCOM Business to Crestcom directly, and Franchisee will assign Crestcom those payment rights. Franchisee will provide such additional assistance and cooperation as Crestcom may request in order to arrange for the direct payments to Crestcom. If Franchisee fails to promptly instruct its Clients or take other action requested by Crestcom, Crestcom may notify the Clients directly. When Crestcom receives the direct payments from Clients, Crestcom will deduct any fees or other amounts owed to it by Franchisee, and then deliver the remaining amount to which Franchisee is entitled, if any, to Franchisee within 48 hours of Crestcom's receipt of the good funds from the Clients. Franchisee shall remain responsible for fulfilling any obligations owed by Franchisee to its Clients.

11.6. Monthly Production Goal. Beginning with the first month of the fourth full calendar quarter after execution of this Agreement, Franchisee is required to achieve Gross Revenues on a monthly basis that would be realized from at least two attendees of the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training program paying Crestcom's then suggested U.S. minimum retail price (the "Monthly Production Goal").

Sales made by Salespersons directly retained by Franchisee shall be credited toward Franchisee's Gross Revenues for purposes of determining if Franchisee has satisfied its Monthly Production Goal.

If during any calendar month, Franchisee fails to meet the Monthly Production Goal, then Crestcom or, if applicable, the Area Representative in Franchisee's Assigned Area, has the right to require the Franchisee to participate in a remedial action plan of Crestcom's and/or the Area Representative's choosing, which may include attending additional training at Franchisee's expense. Franchisee shall be responsible for paying all expenses associated with the additional training, including Crestcom's then-current fee for the additional training, if applicable. If Franchisee (i) fails to follow the remedial action plan, as determined by Crestcom and/or the Area Representative, (ii) fails to meet the Monthly Production Goal on average over the six months of any two consecutive calendar quarters, or (iii) fails to meet the Monthly Production Goal more than four times in any 24 month period, Crestcom will have the right to revoke any semi-exclusive protections that are granted related to Franchisee's Principal Marketing Area (if one has been assigned to Franchisee), and operate or authorize third parties to operate a CRESTCOM Business anywhere within that Principal Marketing Area without restriction.

If Franchisee (i) fails to meet the Monthly Production Goal on average over the six months of any two consecutive calendar quarters, fails to meet the Monthly Production Goal more than four times in any 24 month period, or fails to comply with the remedial action plan established by Crestcom or the Area Representative, and (ii) has failed to, on average, meet the Monthly Production Goal for the previous 12 months, then Crestcom, in its discretion, will have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement.

Crestcom has the right, in its sole discretion and on a case-by-case basis, to waive the obligation of Franchisee or any other franchisee of Crestcom to meet the Monthly Production Goal or pay any fees in any month. A waiver of this requirement by Crestcom for any other franchisee will not in any way affect Franchisee's obligation to meet the Monthly Production Goal or pay fees in accordance with this Section.

11.7. Late or Insufficient Payments or Reports. If Franchisee fails to pay any fees or other amounts due Crestcom when due, or deliver any report in accordance with Article 14 below when due, Franchisee shall, in addition to the payment of such fees or other amounts, pay an "Administrative Fee" of $10.00 per late fee or payment, plus a "Late Charge" of 3 percent of the actual past due amount. If any payment required to be made by Franchisee is seven or more days late, Franchisee shall also pay interest on any past due amounts at the lesser of 18 percent per annum, or the highest rate allowable per law, accruing from the date of default. This same interest rate shall apply as the post-judgment interest rate, regardless of the applicable statutory rate, in the event of any legal actions related to this Agreement. Crestcom may charge the Administrative Fee, Late Charge, and interest to Franchisee's credit card account, with or apart from the actual past due fees or other amounts owed to Crestcom. If Franchisee fails to pay any fees or other amounts in furtherance of an Act of Deception (as defined in Section 14.5 below), then the interest due shall be computed in accordance with the terms of Section 14.5 below.

12. QUALITY CONTROL

12.1. Standards and Specifications. Crestcom will make available to Franchisee standards and specifications for Materials, Live Instruction and related materials and services offered at or through the CRESTCOM Business and the sales and management training techniques, forms, and business methods used in connection with the CRESTCOM Business, which standards and specifications Crestcom reserves the right to change upon 10 days prior written notice to Franchisee. The primary sources for such standards and specifications are the Procedures Manual and The Crestcom Operations and Communications Hub (C.O.A.C.H.) support website/portal. Franchisee acknowledges that the Materials, the Live Instruction techniques, and the related business methods are of a dynamic nature and may change, evolve and be enhanced from time to time as deemed necessary and appropriate by Crestcom.

12.2. Approval of Advertising or Promotional Materials. Franchisee will abide by the advertising requirements set forth in the Procedures Manual. Franchisee will obtain Crestcom's prior written approval of all advertising of any kind, including any advertising and promotional materials related to (a) its CRESTCOM Business, (b) the Marketing of Materials or the Marketing or conducting of Live Instruction, (c) the solicitation and promotion of Authorized Representatives, (d) the promotion and marketing of its CRESTCOM Business, and (e) the solicitation and promotion of any brokers or intermediaries engaged by Franchisee to promote or market its CRESTCOM Business. Franchisee acknowledges that web pages and websites on the Internet constitute advertising. Franchisee shall not establish or create any web pages or websites on the Internet without Crestcom's prior written approval and then only in accordance with the standards and specifications set forth in the Procedures Manual. Modifications to any advertising, including any web pages or websites, must also be approved by Crestcom. Franchisee acknowledges that advertising and promoting its CRESTCOM Business and the Materials in accordance with Crestcom's standards and specifications is an essential aspect of the Licensed Methods, and Franchisee agrees to comply with all advertising standards and specifications. Crestcom's approval of any advertising or promotional materials may be withheld or withdrawn in Crestcom's sole discretion.

12.3. Restrictions on Services and Materials. If Franchisee proposes to offer, use or Market any services, products, materials, forms, supplies or other items in connection with its CRESTCOM Business that have not previously been approved by Crestcom as meeting its specifications, Franchisee will first notify Crestcom in writing requesting approval. Crestcom may, for any reason whatsoever, elect to withhold such approval. In order to make such determination, Crestcom may require submission of specifications, information, or samples of such services, products, materials, forms, supplies or other items. Crestcom will advise Franchisee within a reasonable time whether such services, products or other items meet its specifications or are otherwise acceptable.

12.4. Approved Suppliers. Franchisee will purchase all items or services used in the operation of its CRESTCOM Business from suppliers designated by Crestcom or from such other suppliers who meet all of Crestcom's specifications and standards as to quality, content, composition and service, and who will adequately demonstrate to Crestcom their capacity and facilities to supply Franchisee. Crestcom will not require any fee to be paid to it to secure supplier approval; provided, however, that Crestcom may, in its sole discretion, require the subject supplier or Franchisee to reimburse Crestcom for any expenses Crestcom incurs in determining if the supplier meets Crestcom's specifications and standards. Crestcom reserves the right to revoke its approval of any supplier by delivery of written notice to Franchisee and supplier, if Franchisee is using that supplier.

12.5. No Modifications to Materials. Franchisee may not modify the Materials or any aspect of the Materials in any manner without the prior written consent of Crestcom. A modification for purposes of this Section shall include, but not be limited to, an addition of any logos, stickers, graphics, or other information to any of the Materials, a covering or concealment of any part of the Materials, or a change in the appearance or content of the Materials. Crestcom may, for any reason whatsoever, elect to withhold its consent to any such modification. In order to make such determination, Crestcom may require submission of specifications, information, or samples of such modified Materials.

13. TRADEMARKS, TRADE NAMES AND PROPRIETARY INTERESTS

13.1. Marks. Franchisee acknowledges that Crestcom has the sole right to license and control Franchisee's use of the Marks and that the Marks will remain under the sole and exclusive control of Crestcom. Franchisee acknowledges that it has not acquired any right, title or interest in the Marks except for the right to use the Marks in the operation of its CRESTCOM Business as it is governed by this Agreement.

13.2. No Use of Other Marks. Franchisee agrees that no trademarks or service marks other than "CRESTCOM®," "CRESTCOM TRAINERS TO THE WORLD®," "CRESTCOM L.E.A.D.R.™," "THE BULLET PROOF MANAGER™," "BULLET PROOF®," or such other Marks as may be specified by Crestcom, will be used in the Marketing, promotion or operation of its CRESTCOM Business.

13.3. Licensed Methods. Franchisee acknowledges that Crestcom owns and controls the distinctive plan for the establishment, operation and promotion of CRESTCOM Businesses and all related licensed methods of doing business, defined in this Agreement as the “Licensed Methods,” which include, but are not limited to, (1) all proprietary information concerning Crestcom’s business and the CRESTCOM Businesses; (2) all of Crestcom’s financial information other than such financial information as may be filed with government regulatory agencies; (3) franchise and distributorship sales processes and promotional methods and materials; (4) Materials and Live Instruction Marketing methods; (5) sales, motivational and management training techniques; (6) all nonpublic statistical information regarding Crestcom and CRESTCOM Businesses; (7) International Account Lists; (8) the strategic plan, budgets and projections for Crestcom; (9) all information concerning negotiations of any kind conducted by Crestcom whether pending or completed; (10) all marketing research data and marketing plans; (11) all lead generation or prospecting methods; (12) all information contained in Crestcom’s Procedures Manual, and any other manual or nonpublic written information about Crestcom, its Materials or Live Instruction; (13) Crestcom’s written, video medium, audio medium, online medium, and related documentation and information including that contained on websites or on the Internet which relate to conducting live training programs; and (14) internal lists of Crestcom’s current and former franchisees, distributors, Area Representatives, area developers, and Clients, including contact information such as physical addresses and e-mail addresses thereof; all of which constitute trade secrets of Crestcom. Franchisee acknowledges that Crestcom has valuable rights in and to such trade secrets. Franchisee further acknowledges that it has not acquired any right, title or interest in the Licensed Methods except for the right to use the Licensed Methods in the operation of its CRESTCOM Business as it is governed by this Agreement.

13.4. Crestcom’s Rights to Modifications and Innovations. In order to maintain the uniformity of the Licensed Methods, if, in the course of operating its CRESTCOM Business, Franchisee develops or improves any aspect of the Licensed Methods, any and all plans, methods, ideas and systems and materials related to such development or improvement shall inure to the benefit of Crestcom, shall be owned by Crestcom as a part of the Licensed Methods, and may, in Crestcom’s sole discretion, be made available to other franchisees, distributors, Area Representatives, and area developers of Crestcom.

13.5. Copyrights. Franchisee acknowledges that Crestcom is the owner of the Materials in which it claims a copyright. Franchisee is not acquiring any rights hereunder to make copies or replications of any of the Materials, or any part thereof, or to prepare derivative works therefrom and agrees to refrain from doing so, both directly and indirectly. Franchisee agrees not to register or attempt to register such copyrights in any manner whatsoever.

13.6. Infringement. Franchisee agrees to notify Crestcom in writing of any possible infringement or illegal use by others of a name, symbol, trademark, material or method of operations which is the same as or confusingly similar to any of the Marks, or any copyrighted Materials, or the Licensed Methods, or any part thereof, which comes to its attention. Franchisee acknowledges that Crestcom will have the right, in its sole discretion, to determine whether any action will be taken on account of any possible infringement or illegal use. Crestcom may commence or prosecute such action in Crestcom’s own name or may join Franchisee as a party to the action, in either event at Crestcom’s expense, if Crestcom determines it to be appropriate or necessary for the continued protection and quality control of the Marks, Licensed Methods or copyrights. Franchisee agrees that, without a fee or other charge to Crestcom, it shall fully cooperate and participate with Crestcom in any such litigation. If Crestcom decides to protect Franchisee related to any infringement, Crestcom will reimburse Franchisee for its costs, including attorney’s fees and courts costs, associated with any litigation commenced or defended on Franchisee’s behalf, from amounts Crestcom recovers in litigation (if any), which are in excess of Crestcom’s costs.

13.7. Franchisee's Business Name. Franchisee acknowledges that Crestcom has a prior and superior claim to the Marks and Crestcom's corporate name and trade names. Franchisee will not use the designations "CREST," "INTERNATIONAL," "CRESTCOM," "L.E.A.D.R.," "THE BULLET PROOF MANAGER," "BULLET PROOF," "BPM," "KREST" or "KRESTCOM" or any portion or variation thereof, in the legal name of its corporation, partnership or other business entity used in conducting its CRESTCOM Business, nor use any of such Marks or trade names or any portion or variation thereof as part of an electronic mail address or on any websites including social networking websites, or otherwise display them on the Internet in any manner, without the prior written consent of Crestcom, which consent may be withheld for any reason, or which may be conditioned upon Franchisee conditionally assigning the name, e-mail address, or website to Crestcom exercisable upon a default by Franchisee under, or termination or expiration of, this Agreement. Franchisee also agrees not to register or attempt to register any of the Marks or trade names, or any portion or variation thereof, as a domain name on the Internet, nor register or attempt to register a trade name using the designations "CREST," "INTERNATIONAL," "CRESTCOM," "L.E.A.D.R.," "THE BULLET PROOF MANAGER," "BULLET PROOF," "BPM," "KREST" or "KRESTCOM" or any portion or variation thereof, in Franchisee's name or that of any other person or business entity, without the prior written consent of Crestcom, which consent may be withheld for any reason. During the term of this Agreement, Franchisee may reference that it is an "authorized licensee," "franchisee," or similar reference, of Crestcom.

13.8. Change of Marks. If Crestcom, in its sole discretion, determines it necessary to modify or discontinue use of any proprietary Marks, or to develop additional or substitute marks, Franchisee shall, within a reasonable time after receipt of written notice of such a modification or discontinuation from Crestcom, take such action, at Franchisee's sole expense, as may be necessary to comply with such modification, discontinuation, addition or substitution.

14. REPORTS, RECORDS AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

14.1. Franchisee Reports. Franchisee will establish and maintain at its own expense a bookkeeping and accounting system, which conforms to the specifications that Crestcom may prescribe from time to time. Franchisee will supply to Crestcom such reports in a manner and form as Crestcom may from time to time require, including weekly reports that are to be completed on a form and in a format as may be prescribed by Crestcom. In particular, Crestcom may require Franchisee to submit its reports electronically through the C.O.A.C.H. site or another software or online program designated by Crestcom. Weekly reports are to be sent to Crestcom in a manner specified by Crestcom, on Monday of each week, with the information relative to the previous week's operations, including but not limited to the names, company names, addresses and telephone numbers for each person who attends a Live Instruction conducted by or for Franchisee. Franchisee shall, upon request by Crestcom, provide to Crestcom annual financial statements. All reports and financial information to be furnished to Crestcom will be signed and verified by Franchisee. Franchisee expressly authorizes Crestcom to use its reported financial information in financial performance representations or other data compilations. Franchisee shall be responsible for any inaccuracies, errors, or omissions in the reports and financial information furnished.

14.2 Accounts; Books and Records. Franchisee must have no more than two operating bank accounts for its CRESTCOM Business, into which all revenues of the CRESTCOM Business are deposited. Franchisee will maintain all books and records for its CRESTCOM Business in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles acceptable to Crestcom and consistently applied, and preserve these records for at least five years after the fiscal year to which they relate.

14.3. Audit of Books and Records. Franchisee shall maintain its books and records relating to its CRESTCOM Business for at least five years after the fiscal year to which they relate. Crestcom or its designated representatives may inspect and/or audit such records, or any other records of Franchisee or any party affiliated with Franchisee, including but not limited to Franchisee's Principal Representatives, other owners, guarantors, officers, directors, or Authorized Representatives, any immediate family members of Franchisee or of such affiliated parties, or any companies or entities associated with Franchisee or such affiliated parties, that Crestcom in its sole discretion determines may be relevant in determining the business results of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business; such as verifying that Franchisee has paid all fees and other amounts owed to Crestcom based on the revenues of Franchisee or otherwise. Any such inspection or audit shall be conducted at Crestcom's expense, except that Franchisee will be responsible for any expenses associated with collecting and delivering any documents requested by Crestcom for its inspection or audit. Inspections and audits conducted at the Franchise Location may take place without prior notice, during normal business hours. Crestcom may also require at any time the records from Franchisee or its affiliated parties be sent to Crestcom's offices or another location to permit the inspection or audit of such records to be conducted at Crestcom's place of business or the other location. If Crestcom notifies Franchisee that documents are to be sent to a location other than the Franchise Location for the purpose of conducting an inspection or audit at that location, Franchisee shall provide the requested documents to Crestcom within the time period set forth in Crestcom's notice. Franchisee agrees that Crestcom will have the right to inspect and audit any records of Franchisee or any affiliated party that Crestcom determines to be relevant in its sole discretion, which records may include but are not limited to (i) tax returns; (ii) quarterly and/or annual financial statements, including profit and loss statements and balance sheets; (iii) copies of check ledgers and bank statements for checking and savings accounts; (iv) copies of any checks or other evidence of payments; (v) all contracts or agreements entered into by Franchisee and any third parties related to its CRESTCOM Business, including but not limited to enrollment contracts entered with Clients; and (vi) any other documents requested by Crestcom. Crestcom may audit and inspect documents covering a period beginning with the date on which Franchisee first acquired its CRESTCOM Business and ending on the date such audit is concluded. All documents provided for Crestcom's inspection or audit must be certified by Franchisee and the appropriate affiliated party, if applicable, as true, complete and correct. Inspections and audits may be conducted following the termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason. If any inspection or audit discloses a deficiency in amounts of payments owed to Crestcom pursuant to this Agreement then such amounts will become immediately payable to Crestcom by Franchisee, with Administrative Fees, Late Charges and interest from the date such payments were due in accordance with Section 11.7 hereof, except for Acts of Deception which shall be governed by the provisions of Section 14.5 hereof. In addition, if it is found by any inspection or audit that the Gross Revenues of its CRESTCOM Business have been understated by 2 percent or more during the period audited, or if Franchisee has failed for three or more consecutive reporting periods to submit to Crestcom any required statement or report, Franchisee must pay all reasonable costs and expenses Crestcom incurred in connection with the inspection or audit, including the costs and fees of any independent accountant and the travel and living expenses and compensation of any of Crestcom's employees or agents conducting such inspection or audit.

14.4. Failure to Comply with Reporting Requirements. If Franchisee fails to prepare and submit any statement or report as required under this Article, Crestcom shall have the right to charge the Administrative Fee and Late Charge set forth in Section 11.7 above. In addition, if Franchisee's failure constitutes an Act of Deception then Crestcom will have the right to proceed in accordance with Section 14.5. Crestcom's rights to conduct inspections and audits as provided in Section 14.3 above may be exercised at any time Crestcom chooses, including at any time Franchisee fails to prepare and submit any statement or report required under this Article 14. Crestcom's right to conduct inspections and audits shall be in addition to all other remedies that are available to Crestcom.

14.5. Act of Deception. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article, if a breach occurs under Sections 10.5.d, 11.1, 11.2, 11.4, 11.5, 14.1, 14.2, 14.3 and/or 14.4 due to Franchisee failing to pay or report to Crestcom any sales pursuant to the terms established hereunder; or if Franchisee fails to provide any contracts between Franchisee and its Clients to Crestcom; or underpays any amounts owed to Crestcom, including amounts discovered in an audit of Franchisee's books and records; or provides reports to Crestcom that are incomplete, inaccurate or misleading in any respect, and said breach remains uncured for 25 days or more following notice, said act shall be deemed a deceptive act by Franchisee to prevent Crestcom from receiving its fees based on the sale (an "Act of Deception"). The occurrence of an Act of Deception would result in serious damage to Crestcom and the Crestcom system in that it would (i) result in Crestcom receiving less compensation than it is entitled; (ii) result in substantial costs to Crestcom in responding to the Act of Deception, based on the need to research Franchisee's activities, contact third parties, coordinate an audit, and/or take other actions; (iii) demand substantial effort and attention of Crestcom's representatives, in turn diverting their attention from their ordinary duties devoted to Crestcom and its services for the Crestcom system; and (iv) encourage other franchisees, distributors, Area Representatives, or area developers of Crestcom to engage in similar acts, thereby contributing to a general atmosphere of noncompliance within the Crestcom system. At the same time, Crestcom and Franchisee acknowledge and agree that these damages, due to their nature, would be difficult to quantify. Therefore, upon discovery of an Act of Deception by Crestcom, Franchisee shall pay Crestcom as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, 100 percent of Franchisee's gross amount of the entire applicable sale or sales involved in the Act of Deception, together with any Administrative Fees and Late Charges in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, plus interest at the highest rate allowable by applicable law on such amount from the first date any fees arising from such sale were due to Crestcom. With respect to an Act of Deception, this interest provision shall supersede any other interest provision in this Agreement. This same interest rate shall apply as the post-judgment interest rate, regardless of the applicable statutory rate, in the event of any legal actions related to an Act of Deception under this Agreement. Additionally, once an Act of Deception is discovered, Crestcom or its designated representatives may conduct an inspection or audit of the records of Franchisee or any of its affiliated parties as stated in Section 14.3, provided, however, that any inspection or audit conducted as a result of the discovery of an Act of Deception shall be performed at Franchisee's sole cost and expense and shall be conducted at any time of Crestcom's choosing. Crestcom shall provide written notice to Franchisee of its election to conduct an audit of Franchisee's books and records pursuant to this Section and upon receipt of such written notice, Franchisee shall immediately pay to Crestcom $25,000.00 (the "Audit Fee"), which Audit Fee shall be utilized by Crestcom to offset the cost and expenses incurred by Crestcom or its designated representatives in conducting such audit. If the final costs and expenses of the audit are less than the Audit Fee, Crestcom shall either, in its sole discretion, refund the excess portion of the Audit Fee to Franchisee or offset such excess portion of the Audit Fee against other amounts determined to be due to Crestcom. If the actual cost of the audit exceeds the Audit Fee, Franchisee shall pay Crestcom the excess amount within 10 days of written notice of the deficiency and demand for payment. Failure on the part of Franchisee to pay the excess amount shall be deemed a continuing default of Franchisee under this Agreement.

15. TRANSFER

15.1. Transfer by Franchisee. The franchise granted herein is personal to Franchisee and, except as stated below, Crestcom will not allow or permit any Transfer, as defined below, by Franchisee or any owner of Franchisee. The term "Transfer," as used in this Agreement, means and includes the voluntary, involuntary, direct or indirect assignment, sale, gift or other similar disposition.

15.2. Pre-Conditions to Franchisee's Transfer. Franchisee will not sell, transfer, sublicense, assign, subfranchise or convey its rights under this Agreement or any interest in it, or all or any part of any business entity that owns it, or all or a substantial portion of the assets of its CRESTCOM Business (in each case, a “Transfer”), unless Franchisee and the transferee obtain Crestcom’s written consent and they comply with all of the following requirements:

a. Franchisee provides Crestcom written notice of the proposed Transfer not less than 30 days prior to the proposed effective date of the Transfer, such notice to contain information sufficiently detailed to enable Crestcom to evaluate the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer.

b. Franchisee has paid all amounts due to Crestcom or, if applicable, to Crestcom’s affiliates pursuant to this Agreement, and to third parties whose debts or obligations Crestcom has guaranteed on behalf of Franchisee, and is otherwise not in default to Crestcom under this or any other agreement.

c. The transferee satisfactorily completes Crestcom’s then current initial franchisee training program, which must be completed by the transferee prior to the effective date of the Transfer. The transferor or the transferee shall be required to pay to Crestcom, at Crestcom’s option, a franchisee training fee of $3,500.00 (the “Transferee Training Fee”), which shall be payable even if the transferee is experienced in management, sales and personnel development training, and as a result, all or portions of the training program are waived, or if Crestcom authorizes a third party to conduct the training. The Transferee Training Fee will be refunded to the transferee if Crestcom determines that the transferee does not meet Crestcom’s qualification requirements or fails to successfully complete Crestcom’s initial classroom training program.

d. The transferee assumes in writing all of Franchisee’s obligations pursuant to this Agreement, or at the option of Crestcom, the transferee executes a new Franchise Agreement in a form then currently offered by Crestcom, the term of which may end on the expiration date of this Agreement, and which will supersede this Agreement in all respects. If a new Franchise Agreement is signed, the terms thereof may differ from the terms of this Agreement; provided, however, the transferee will not be required to pay any additional initial franchise fee and will not be entitled to receive the Initial Inventory, but the transferee will be required to pay any applicable New Materials Surcharges at or prior to the time of the Transfer.

e. The proposed transferee must be an individual or entity whom Franchisee initially contacted in regard to its CRESTCOM Business (as opposed to an individual or entity who became aware of Franchisee’s CRESTCOM Business through the promotional efforts or contacts of Crestcom, through other Crestcom franchisees, distributors, Area Representatives, or area developers, or otherwise learned about Franchisee’s CRESTCOM Business by means other than a direct introduction by Franchisee). The proposed transferee shall provide information to Crestcom sufficient for Crestcom to assess the proposed transferee’s business experience, aptitude and financial qualifications, and Crestcom will have ascertained that the proposed transferee meets such qualifications.

f. Franchisee executes a consent or transfer agreement, in the form established by Crestcom, which (unless prohibited by law) shall include a general release of any and all claims against Crestcom, its affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees and agents.

g. Franchisee or the proposed transferee pays Crestcom a transfer fee in the amount of $16,500.00 (“Transfer Fee”). The Transfer Fee will be refunded only if the proposed transferee is not approved in accordance with this Article or does not complete Crestcom’s training program to Crestcom’s satisfaction.

h. Franchisee agrees to abide by the post-termination covenants set forth in Article 19 below and elsewhere in this Agreement.

15.3. Crestcom's Approval of Transfer. Crestcom has 15 days from the date of the proposed transferee's successful completion of Crestcom's initial training program to give written approval or disapproval of Franchisee's proposed Transfer. Franchisee acknowledges that the proposed transferee will be provided, if appropriate, with such disclosure documents and other information as may be required by applicable law. If Franchisee and its proposed transferee comply with all conditions for a Transfer as set forth herein and Crestcom has not given Franchisee notice of its approval or disapproval within such period, approval is deemed granted. Crestcom's prior approval of advertising (as specified in Section 12.2 above and the Procedures Manual) is also required for any advertising related to Franchisee's attempt to sell or to otherwise Transfer its CRESTCOM Business.

15.4. Waiver of Transfer Fee. Crestcom will waive the Transfer Fee set forth in Section 15.2.g in regard to the following Transfers, although all other requirements set forth in this Article 15 shall apply:

a. If Franchisee is a business entity, a Transfer of less than 25 percent of the ownership interest in the Franchisee business entity. If there are multiple Transfers that result in a total Transfer of 25 percent or more of the ownership interest in the Franchisee business entity, then this Section 15.4 will not apply and Franchisee shall pay the Transfer Fee at such time as the 25 percent level is reached.

b. If Franchisee is one or more individuals, a Transfer from such individual or individuals to a business entity wholly owned and controlled by them, so long as this Agreement is not signed as part of Franchisee's exercise of successor franchise rights and such Transfer occurs no later than 90 days following the date of this Agreement. Any entity transferee shall comply with the terms of Section 10.9 and the Procedures Manual.

15.5. Franchisee's Death or Disability. Upon the death or permanent disability of Franchisee (or an individual owning more than a 25 percent interest in the Franchisee entity), the executor, administrator, conservator, guardian or other personal representative of such person will Transfer Franchisee's interest in this Agreement (or such interest in the Franchisee entity) to a third party approved by Crestcom. Such Transfer of this Agreement (or such interest), including, without limitation, Transfer by bequest or inheritance, will be completed within a reasonable time, not to exceed 120 days from the date of death or permanent disability, and will be subject to all terms and conditions applicable to Transfers contained in this Article. However, in a Transfer under this Section, there will be no Transfer Fee charged by Crestcom but the proposed transferee will be responsible for attending and completing, at the proposed transferee's sole expense, the initial training program and paying the Transferee Training Fee set forth in Section 15.2.c above. Failure to Transfer the interest in this Agreement or such interest in the Franchisee entity within the given period of time shall, at the option of Crestcom, constitute a breach of this Agreement. For the purposes hereof, the term "permanent disability" will mean a mental or physical disability, impairment or condition that is reasonably expected to prevent or actually does prevent Franchisee or the owner of more than a 25 percent ownership interest in Franchisee entity from supervising the management and operation of the CRESTCOM Business for a period of 120 days from the onset of such disability, impairment or condition.

15.6. Transfer by Crestcom. This Agreement is fully assignable by Crestcom and will inure to the benefit of any assignee or other legal successor in interest. If Crestcom assigns this Agreement to a third party who expressly assumes Crestcom's obligations under this Agreement, Crestcom will be relieved from any performance or other obligations under this Agreement.

16. TERM AND EXPIRATION

16.1. Term. The term of this Agreement is for a period of seven years from the date of this Agreement, unless sooner terminated as provided herein. Franchisee agrees to actively operate the CRESTCOM Business for the entire term of this Agreement.

16.2. Continuation. If Franchisee continues to operate its CRESTCOM Business with Crestcom's express or implied consent following the expiration or termination of this Agreement, the continuation will be a month-to-month extension of this Agreement. This Agreement will then be terminable by either party on 30 days written notice. Otherwise, all provisions of this Agreement will apply while Franchisee continues to operate its CRESTCOM Business.

16.3. Rights Upon Expiration. At the end of the term hereof, provided Franchisee is not in default hereunder either at the time of notice of exercise of its successor franchise rights or at the time of the grant of successor franchise rights, Franchisee will have the option to obtain a successor franchise for three additional terms of seven years each, by acquiring successor franchise rights, unless Crestcom declines to offer a successor franchise in accordance with Section 16.5 below, provided that Franchisee:

a. At least 30 days prior to expiration of the term of this Agreement, executes the form of Franchise Agreement then in use by Crestcom, which may have terms substantially different than those set forth in this Agreement.

b. Has maintained compliance with all provisions of this Agreement, including the payment on a timely basis of all fees and other payments due hereunder. "Compliance" means, at a minimum, that Franchisee has not received written notification from Crestcom of breach hereunder more than three times during the term hereof.

c. Maintains or modifies the CRESTCOM Business and its operations at Franchisee's sole expense (the necessity of which will be in the sole discretion of Crestcom) to conform with the then current Procedures Manual and Licensed Methods.

d. Executes a successor franchise rider in the form then in use by Crestcom.

e. Pays Crestcom a successor franchise fee in the amount of $3,500.00 ("Successor Franchise Fee") upon each exercise of the successor franchise rights. The Successor Franchise Fee will be due and payable upon execution of Crestcom's then current Franchise Agreement and will be nonrefundable under all circumstances once paid. The Successor Franchise Fee is paid in lieu of an additional initial franchise fee.

f. Pays Crestcom all New Materials Surcharges that are required to obtain the then existing Materials available under the new Franchise Agreement, if Franchisee has not paid the New Materials Surcharges for such Materials under this Agreement. The New Materials Surcharges will be due and payable upon execution of Crestcom's then current Franchise Agreement and will be nonrefundable under all circumstances once paid.

16.4. Exercise of Option for Successor Franchise. Franchisee may exercise its option for a successor franchise by giving written notice of such exercise to Crestcom not less than 120 days prior to the scheduled expiration of this Agreement. Franchisee's successor franchise rights will become effective by signing the Franchise Agreement then currently being offered to new franchisees of Crestcom and a successor franchise rider, and by paying the Successor Franchise Fee as described in Section 16.3 above. If Franchisee fails to give Crestcom timely notice in accordance with this Section 16.4, then this Agreement will, at Crestcom's option, expire in accordance with its terms and Crestcom shall have no obligation to grant any additional or successor franchise rights pursuant to Section 16.3 above.

16.5. Conditions of Refusal. Crestcom will not be obligated to offer Franchisee a successor franchise upon the expiration of this Agreement if Franchisee fails to comply with any of the above conditions of exercising a successor franchise. Upon the expiration of this Agreement, Franchisee will comply with the provisions of Section 17.5 below.

17. TERMINATION AND DEFAULT

17.1 Termination by Crestcom - Effective Upon Notice. Crestcom will have the right, at its option, to terminate this Agreement and all rights granted Franchisee under this Agreement, without affording Franchisee any opportunity to cure any default, except as set forth in any applicable laws to the contrary which cannot be modified by agreement, effective upon written notice to Franchisee, upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

e. Criminal Conviction. Franchisee or any of its Principal Representatives are convicted of a felony, or a crime involving moral turpitude, or any other crime or offense that is reasonably likely, in the sole opinion of Crestcom, to materially and unfavorably reflect on the Licensed Methods, Marks, goodwill or reputation of Crestcom.

Franchisee defaults under any term of any agreement with a Client or any other agreement material to its CRESTCOM Business or any other agreement between Crestcom or any of its affiliates, Area Representatives, area developers, distributors, or other franchisees and Franchisee, and such default is not cured within the time specified in such other agreement; provided, however, so long as any financing from the United States Small Business Administration remains outstanding that is secured by the assets of its CRESTCOM Business, Franchisee will be given the same opportunity to cure defaults under any agreement between Crestcom or its affiliates and Franchisee, as Franchisee is given under this Agreement.

17.2. Termination by Crestcom - Ten Days’ Notice. Crestcom will have the right to terminate this Agreement, effective upon 10 days written notice to Franchisee, except as set forth in any mandatory applicable laws, if Franchisee breaches any other provision of this Agreement and fails to cure the default during such 10-day period; provided if the breach is curable, but is of a nature which cannot be reasonably cured within such 10-day period and Franchisee has commenced and is continuing to make good faith efforts to cure the breach during such 10-day period, Franchisee will be given an additional reasonable period of time not to exceed 90 days to cure the same, and this Agreement will not terminate. Unless cured, this Agreement will, at Crestcom’s option, terminate without further notice to Franchisee, effective upon expiration of the 10-day period, or such longer period. If Crestcom has provided Franchisee with a notice of any default pursuant to this Article 17, in addition to Crestcom's other remedies, Crestcom reserves the right, on behalf of itself and the Crestcom Affiliates, to suspend any services to be provided by Crestcom or any Crestcom Affiliate or the sales of any products to Franchisee by Crestcom or any Crestcom Affiliate until such time as Franchisee cures the default. The services that may be suspended include but are not limited to any services related to advertising or promotion of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business such as the listing of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business on any website. The suspension may continue until Franchisee has cured each default identified in the default notice from Crestcom and Franchisee is deemed to be in good standing. Franchisee is not relieved of any obligation to pay any fees during the term of any suspension. The rights afforded to Crestcom in this Section 17.2 are in addition to any other rights of Crestcom upon a default by Franchisee.

17.4. Termination by Crestcom - Continuing Force Majeure Event. Crestcom will have the right, at its option, to terminate this Agreement and all rights granted Franchisee under this Agreement, except as set forth in any applicable laws to the contrary which cannot be modified by agreement, effective upon written notice to Franchisee, in the event of a force majeure event as described in Section 22.16 below that continues for a period of six consecutive months or longer and which prevents Crestcom from performing its obligations hereunder.

17.5. Termination by Franchisee. Franchisee shall have the following rights of termination:

a. Provided Franchisee is not in default hereunder at the time of notice of termination or on the effective date of termination, Franchisee may terminate this Agreement at any time after the first anniversary of this Agreement, by providing Crestcom with written notice of termination not less than one year prior to the effective date of termination and complying with the post termination obligations set forth in Section 17.6 hereof.

b. Franchisee shall have the right to terminate this Agreement due to a material breach of this Agreement by Crestcom, provided Franchisee provides Crestcom with written notice of the breach within 30 days of the breach and a reasonable opportunity to cure such breach, which shall in no event be less than 90 days. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the breach is curable, but is of a nature which cannot be reasonably cured within a 90-day or other given period and Crestcom has commenced and is continuing to make good faith efforts to cure the breach during the given period, Crestcom will be given an additional reasonable period of time to cure the breach.

17.6. Obligations of Franchisee Upon Termination or Expiration. Franchisee is obligated upon termination or expiration of this Agreement to immediately do all of the following:

a. Pay to Crestcom all fees and any and all amounts or accounts payable then owed to Crestcom or its affiliates pursuant to this Agreement, or pursuant to any other agreement, whether written or oral, between the parties. In the event of a termination due to a default by Franchisee, the amounts due to Crestcom shall include an amount equal to the Royalty Fees that would have been payable based on Gross Revenues meeting the Monthly Production Goal and the Distribution Fees for each month from the date of termination through the remainder of the term of the Agreement had it not been terminated.

b. Cease to identify itself as a Crestcom franchisee or publicly identify itself as a former Crestcom franchisee, except as provided in Section 17.6.i below.

c. Cease to identify itself or its former CRESTCOM Business as being, or having been, associated with Crestcom.

d. Cease using any of the Licensed Methods and Marks, trade names, trade secrets, Materials and Live Instruction or any items identified with the CRESTCOM Business, except as provided in Section 17.6.i below.

e. Cease the Marketing of all Materials and the use or display of all advertising (including websites, social media sites, or other sites on the Internet), training or operations audio, video, or online media, forms or other items bearing any of the Marks or otherwise identified with Crestcom and obtained by and in connection with this Agreement.

f. Deliver to Crestcom at Franchisee's expense, by prepaid insured air freight or other means of delivery acceptable to Crestcom, the Materials, or any part thereof, and all related materials provided by Crestcom or its approved supplier, the Procedures Manual, the International Account List and all other materials, documents or written information that contain any of the Marks or that Crestcom considers proprietary, together with all copies thereof, along with Franchisee's written certification that all copies thereof have either been returned or destroyed. Any such items held in electronic format shall be deleted. If Crestcom is required by applicable law to repurchase any Materials from Franchisee, then the purchase price payable by Crestcom to Franchisee for such Materials shall be equal to the wholesale price of such Materials discounted by 3 percent for each month that such Materials are in Franchisee's possession or control. If all of these items are not returned to Crestcom within two weeks of the date of termination or expiration of this Agreement, Franchisee will be obligated to pay to Crestcom a weekly late return fee of $250.00 for each week that Franchisee does not return all of these items to Crestcom.

g. Take such action as is required to cancel all fictitious or assumed names or equivalent registrations relating to its use of any Marks, or, at the option of Crestcom, assign the Marks, without remuneration, to Crestcom.

h. Notify the telephone company, all telephone directory publishers, domain name registration companies, and social media website operators, of the termination or expiration of Franchisee's right to use any telephone number, domain name, social media websites or accounts, and any regular, classified or other telephone directory listings associated with any Mark and complete all forms, and provide other necessary notification to authorize the transfer of all such telephone and fax numbers, domain name registrations, social media websites or accounts, and directory listings to Crestcom or its designee. Franchisee acknowledges that, as between Franchisee and Crestcom, Crestcom has the sole rights to and interest in all telephone, telecopy or facsimile machine numbers and directory listings, all domain names, and social media websites or accounts associated with any Mark.

i. If required by Crestcom, conduct any Live Instruction that is already scheduled but which is to be conducted after the effective date of termination or expiration, including any Live Instruction scheduled pursuant to the MAS Program, but only at the written directive of Crestcom. Franchisee, on or prior to the effective date of termination or expiration, will provide to Crestcom information regarding any scheduled Live Instruction and Crestcom will notify Franchisee within five days thereafter as to the scope of Franchisee's responsibility for completing the scheduled Live Instruction.

j. If required by Crestcom, notify any Clients who owe payments to Franchisee and instruct them to make those payments directly to Crestcom, in accordance with Section 11.5.d.

k. Execute a termination agreement in a form required by Crestcom.

l. Abide by all restrictive covenants set forth in Article 19 of this Agreement.

17.7. Exercise of Rights. Crestcom's rights hereunder are cumulative and no exercise or enforcement by Crestcom of any right or remedy hereunder shall preclude the exercise or enforcement by Crestcom of any other right or remedy which Crestcom is entitled to enforce by law.

17.8. Terminology. For purposes of this Agreement, wherever the term "expiration" or "termination" is used, it is intended to refer to both situations, unless the context indicates otherwise. Any terms herein that apply upon expiration or termination shall also apply to a transferor upon a Transfer.

17.9. Conflicting Laws. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT IF THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT REGARDING TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION ARE INCONSISTENT WITH APPLICABLE LAW, SUCH LAW WILL GOVERN FRANCHISEE'S RIGHTS REGARDING TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION OF THIS AGREEMENT.

18. BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP

18.1. Business Relationship. The parties agree that each of them is an independent businessperson or entity, their only relationship is by virtue of this Agreement and that no fiduciary relationship is created hereunder. Neither party is liable or responsible for the other's debts or obligations, nor will either party be obligated for any damages to any person or property directly or indirectly arising out of the operation of the other party's business authorized by or conducted pursuant to this Agreement. Crestcom and Franchisee agree that neither of them will hold itself out to be the agent, employer or partner of the other and that neither of them has the authority to bind or incur liability on behalf of the other. Franchisee will include a standard signature block in all e-mail communications identifying itself as an independent franchisee of Crestcom. Neither this Agreement nor the course of conduct between Crestcom and Franchisee is intended, nor may anything in this Agreement (or the course of conduct) be construed, to state or imply that Crestcom is the employer of Franchisee's Authorized Representatives, or vice versa. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement, Crestcom shall not be responsible for supervising the activities of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business or ensuring that the CRESTCOM Business is operated in compliance with applicable laws.

18.2. Third Party Obligations. Crestcom will have no liability for Franchisee's obligations to pay or otherwise fulfill Franchisee's obligations to any third parties, including without limitation, obligations to provide Live Instruction, payments owed to any product vendors, or liability for any sales, use, service, occupation, excise, gross receipts, income, property or other tax levied upon Franchisee, Franchisee's property, Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business or upon Crestcom in connection with the sales made or business conducted by Franchisee, except any taxes Crestcom is required by law to collect from Franchisee with respect to purchases from Crestcom.

18.3. Indemnification. Franchisee agrees to indemnify, release, defend and hold harmless Crestcom, its subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assignees, (the "Indemnified Parties") against, and to reimburse them for all Claims, defined below, based on (a) any and all third party obligations described in Section 18.2, and (b) any and all claims, obligations and liabilities directly or indirectly arising out of (i) the operation of the CRESTCOM Business, (ii) the use of the Marks and Licensed Methods in any manner not in accordance with this Agreement, or (iii) the violation of any laws including labor and employment laws. This indemnity includes any Claims arising from the acts or omissions of Franchisee's Authorized Representatives. For purposes of this indemnification, "Claims" include all obligations, actual and consequential damages and costs reasonably incurred in the defense of any claim against the Indemnified Parties, including, without limitation, reasonable accountants', attorneys' and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses. Crestcom will have the right to defend any such Claim against it. This indemnity will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

19. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

19.1. Non-Competition During Term. Franchisee acknowledges that, in addition to the license of the Marks hereunder, Crestcom has also licensed commercially valuable information which comprises and is a part of the Licensed Methods, including without limitation, operations, Marketing, advertising and related information and materials and that the value of this information is derived not only from the time, effort and money which went into its compilation, but from the usage of the same by all the franchisees, distributors, Area Representatives, and area developers of Crestcom using the Marks and Licensed Methods. Franchisee therefore agrees that other than its CRESTCOM Business licensed herein, neither Franchisee nor any of Franchisee's officers, directors, shareholders, partners, or members, nor any member of his, her or their immediate families, nor any Authorized Representative, will during the term of this Agreement and any extensions hereto:

a. have any direct or indirect controlling interest as a disclosed or beneficial owner in a "Competitive Business," as defined below; or

b. perform services as a director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, representative, agent or otherwise for a Competitive Business.

The term “Competitive Business” as used in this Agreement means any business operating, or granting franchises, licenses or distributorships to others to operate, a business that offers sales, motivational, office professional or personnel profiling or evaluation, personnel development, recruiting, customer service, or management training or consulting, or other business or personnel development advice, aptitude, personnel assessment services or materials or training to individuals, companies or other organizations; or that sells or provides training or instruction, books, manuals, written materials, audio media, video media, online media, or similar materials of any kind transmitted by any form of electronic medium providing instruction and advice in sales, motivational, office professional or personnel development, recruiting, customer service, management training, personnel profiling or evaluation, or other business or personnel development advice or training. However, Franchisee will not be prohibited by this Agreement from owning securities, on a passive basis, in a Competitive Business if such securities are listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market and represent 2 percent or less of that class of securities issued and outstanding.

19.2. Post-Termination Covenant Not to Compete. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason, Franchisee and its officers, directors, shareholders, partners and/or members agree that, for a period of 30 months commencing on the effective date of termination or expiration, or the date on which Franchisee ceases to conduct business, whichever is later, neither Franchisee nor its officers, directors, shareholders, partners, members, or any Authorized Representative will have any direct or indirect interest, whether through a member of any immediate family or otherwise, as a disclosed or beneficial owner, investor, partner, director, officer, employee, consultant, representative or agent or in any other capacity in any Competitive Business, defined above, located or operating within the Assigned Area or within the Assigned Area of any other franchised, licensed or company-owned CRESTCOM Business. Franchisee and its officers, directors, shareholders, partners and/or members expressly acknowledge that they possess business and career skills and abilities of a general nature and have other opportunities for exploiting such skills. Consequently, enforcement of the covenants made in this Section will not deprive them of their personal goodwill or ability to earn a living. If Franchisee, or any of its officers, directors, shareholders, members, partners or Authorized Representatives, breaches this Section, the 30-month period shall start on the date that such person is enjoined from competing or stops competing, whichever is later.

19.3. No Diversion of Businesses or Employees. Franchisee and its officers, directors, shareholders and/or partners agree that, during the term of this Agreement and for a period of 30 months commencing on the effective date of termination or expiration, or the date on which Franchisee ceases to conduct business, whichever is later, neither Franchisee nor its officers, directors, shareholders and/or partners will directly or indirectly, through a member of any immediate family or otherwise, divert or attempt to divert any business related to Crestcom’s business or any other Crestcom franchisee’s, distributor’s, Area Representative’s, or area developer’s business, or any customer or account of any CRESTCOM Business, Area Representative’s business, or area developer’s business, or divert or attempt to divert the employment of any employee or other Authorized Representative of Crestcom or another franchisee, distributor, Area Representative, or area developer licensed by Crestcom to use the Marks and Licensed Methods, to any CRESTCOM Business operated by Franchisee or to any Competitive Business by any direct inducement or otherwise.

19.4. Prohibition Against Redistribution. Franchisee will not in any manner reship, transship, lend, distribute or sell any of the Materials purchased or otherwise acquired from or through Crestcom or its approved supplier to another current or former Crestcom franchisee, distributor or any other reseller of the Materials, either within or outside of the United States. Franchisee will sell the Materials purchased through Crestcom only from or through its CRESTCOM Business and only to Clients who are the actual end users of the Materials. In addition, Franchisee will not purchase nor accept Materials from any other current or former Crestcom franchisee or distributor, without the prior written consent of Crestcom.

19.5. Prohibition Against Relationships With Talent. During the term of this Agreement, and for a period of 30 months after the termination or expiration of this Agreement, Franchisee agrees not to contact any of the talent or video faculty members who appear in the Materials for the purpose of directly or indirectly engaging or utilizing such talent in Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business or in any Competitive Business, to enter into any business dealings or arrangements with such persons, or to broker any business dealings or arrangements involving the services of such individuals. The term "talent" shall mean the video faculty members who have contracted with Crestcom, either as of the date of this Agreement or at any time during the term of this Agreement and any successor franchise terms, to present their areas of expertise in the Materials for use by Crestcom and its franchisees, distributors, Area Representatives, and area developers.

19.6. Post-Termination Prohibition Against Relationships With Franchisees. For a period of 30 months after the termination or expiration of this Agreement, Franchisee agrees not to hire, attempt to hire or otherwise enter into any business dealings or arrangements with any current or former Crestcom franchisees, distributors, Area Representatives, or area developers for the purpose of using such current or former franchisee's, distributor's, Area Representative's, or area developer's services or materials in any Competitive Business.

19.7. Non-Interference. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of 30 months thereafter, neither Franchisee nor its officers, directors, partners, members, managers, employees, agents, or representatives shall interfere with the business of Crestcom by interfering with or disrupting, or attempting to interfere with or disrupt, the relationship, contractual or otherwise, between Crestcom and any of its existing or prospective franchisees, distributors, Area Representatives, area developers, customers, talent, suppliers, partners or joint venturers. If Franchisee breaches the terms of this Section, Franchisee agrees to pay Crestcom, as liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, an amount equal to the then current initial franchise fee due for the type of franchise originally sold by Crestcom to Franchisee per occurrence.

19.8. Confidentiality of Proprietary Information. Franchisee will treat as proprietary and confidential all information it receives that is a part of the Licensed Methods licensed hereunder, including but not limited to the sales process and methodology and the Materials used in its CRESTCOM Business. Franchisee will not use or duplicate such information in any unauthorized manner nor disclose the information to any unauthorized person, including in any business that may be competitive with Crestcom, without first obtaining Crestcom's written consent. Franchisee acknowledges that the Marks and the Licensed Methods have valuable goodwill attached to them, that the protection and maintenance thereof is essential to Crestcom and that any unauthorized use or disclosure of the Marks and Licensed Methods will result in irreparable harm to Crestcom.

19.9. Confidentiality Agreements and Training Agreements. Crestcom reserves the right to require that Franchisee cause each of its officers, directors, shareholders, partners or members, and any member of his, her or their immediate families, and any Authorized Representatives, to execute a nondisclosure and noncompetition agreement in a form approved by Crestcom containing the restrictive covenants of this Article. If Crestcom requires any immediate family member to execute a nondisclosure and noncompetition agreement subsequent to the execution of this Agreement by Franchisee, Franchisee must use its best efforts to cause that immediate family member to execute the nondisclosure and noncompetition agreement. Franchisee must provide Crestcom a copy of each nondisclosure and noncompetition agreement at the time it is signed and thereafter upon Crestcom's request. In addition, all Clients of Franchisee and/or its Authorized Representatives, or any others acquiring the use of the Materials by or through Franchisee and/or its Authorized Representatives, will be required to execute a contract substantially in the form set forth in the Procedures Manual (the "Training Agreement"). Any changes to the Training Agreement shall require Crestcom's prior written consent. In no event shall Franchisee permit any third party, including any Client of Franchisee, to attend any Live Instruction or other training sessions, or acquire, observe, or use any of the Materials, without first having obtained a signed Training Agreement or other document approved by Crestcom from that third party. If requested by Crestcom, Franchisee will cooperate with Crestcom in enforcing the obligations under any Training Agreement or other approved document signed by a Client of Franchisee or another party who has acquired access to the Materials through Franchisee, including but not limited to the obligation to provide information requested by Crestcom. Notwithstanding Franchisee's efforts, in the event any signature required by Crestcom pursuant to this Section is not obtained within a reasonable time, Crestcom may, in its sole option, terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 17.2 of this Agreement.

19.10. Claims Are Not Defenses to Covenants. Franchisee expressly agrees that the existence of any claim it may have against Crestcom, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Crestcom of the covenants of this Article 19. Franchisee further agrees that Crestcom shall be entitled to set off from any amount owed by Crestcom to Franchisee any loss or damage to Crestcom resulting from Franchisee's breach of this Article 19.

20. INSURANCE

20.1. Insurance Coverage. If the Assigned Area is in the United States, Franchisee shall procure, maintain and provide evidence of comprehensive general liability insurance for the Franchise Location and its operations with a limit of not less than $1 million combined single limit and other insurance for Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business in the amount and types as set forth in the Procedures Manual. If the Assigned Area is outside of the United States, Franchisee shall procure, maintain, and provide evidence of insurance coverage for Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business in the amount and types reasonable and customary in the Assigned Area for a business similar to the CRESTCOM Business and in accordance with the requirements of the laws and regulations of the Assigned Area. Franchisee shall provide proof of insurance for all insurance to be carried hereunder and otherwise comply with all terms and conditions related to insurance as set forth in the Procedures Manual.

21. ARBITRATION

21.1. Arbitration. All controversies, disputes claims, causes of action and/or alleged breaches or failures to perform between Crestcom, its subsidiaries and affiliated companies or their shareholders, officers, directors, agents, employees and attorneys, in their representative capacity, and Franchisee, and its employees, officers, directors, owners, guarantors or Authorized Representatives, if applicable, arising out of or related to: (1) this Agreement; (2) the relationship of the parties; (3) the validity of this Agreement; or (4) any Licensed Methods will be submitted for binding arbitration to either the Judicial Arbitrator Group ("JAG") or the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), as selected by the party submitting the demand; except for actions brought which are related to or based on the Marks or the copyrights in the Materials or to enforce the provisions of Article 19 of this Agreement, which actions Crestcom, at its option, may bring either in a court of competent jurisdiction or in arbitration. Notwithstanding the language above, if the action is based on a separate agreement or instrument between Franchisee or any party affiliated with Franchisee and Crestcom or any party affiliated with Crestcom, such as a promissory note or lease, the dispute resolution procedure in that agreement or instrument will control rather than this Section 21.1; provided, that, at Crestcom's sole option, any claim of Crestcom or its affiliate against Franchisee or its affiliate based on such other agreement or instrument may be brought in arbitration in conjunction with a dispute between the parties that is subject to arbitration under this Section, regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in that other agreement or instrument. Arbitration proceedings will be conducted in Denver, Colorado, U.S.A. and will be heard by one arbitrator in accordance with the then current rules of AAA that apply to commercial arbitration. The decision as to whether a claim is subject to mandatory arbitration shall be made by an arbitrator, not a court, except that the decision whether arbitration may proceed as a class action shall be made by the court. The arbitrator shall be a resident of the State of Colorado U.S.A. knowledgeable of Colorado law and fluent in English. The arbitration proceeding and all other hearings shall be conducted in English only, although Franchisee shall have the right, at Franchisee's option and sole expense, to have a translator present at the proceeding or other hearings. The expense of a translator shall not be considered a cost or expense related to an action pursuant to Section 22.9 of this Agreement. The parties further agree that, in connection with any arbitration proceeding, each will file any compulsory counterclaim, as defined by Rule 13 of the U.S. Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, within 30 days after the date of the filing of the claim to which it relates. Any party to an arbitration proceeding may apply to the arbitrator for reasonable discovery from the other. In this Agreement "reasonable discovery" means a party may submit no more than 10 interrogatories, including subparts, 25 requests for admission, 25 document requests, and three depositions per side of the dispute. The foregoing discovery rights and limitations shall control over any contradictory discovery rules of AAA, unless the parties agree otherwise.

21.2. Arbitration Award. Subject to Sections 21.6 and 21.7 below, the arbitrator will have the right to award or include in the award any relief available and appropriate under the applicable law (as set forth in Section 21.5) and this Agreement. Any award shall be based on established law as opposed to broad principles of justice and equity. The award and decision of the arbitrator will be conclusive and binding upon all parties hereto and judgment upon the award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. This Section will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

21.3. Limitations on Proceedings.

a. Crestcom and Franchisee agree that arbitration will be conducted on an individual basis only. Neither party shall commence any arbitration with a third party against the other, or join with any third party in any arbitration involving Crestcom and Franchisee. Further, neither Crestcom nor Franchisee shall attempt to consolidate or otherwise combine in any manner an arbitration proceeding involving Crestcom and Franchisee with another arbitration of any kind, nor shall Crestcom or Franchisee attempt to certify a class or participate as a party in a class action against the other.

b. The foregoing notwithstanding, in the event Franchisee controls, is controlled by or is in active concert with another franchisee, distributor, Area Representative, or area developer of Crestcom, or there is a guarantor of some or all of the Franchisee's obligations to Crestcom, then the joinder of those parties to any arbitration between Crestcom and Franchisee shall be permitted, and in all events, the joinder of an owner, director, officer, manager, partner or other representative or agent of Franchisee shall be permitted.

c. Franchisee agrees that no claims may be brought on its behalf or on behalf of any of Franchisee's owners by any third party, including but not limited to any association representing Franchisee.

21.4. Injunctive Relief. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article, Crestcom and Franchisee will each have the right in a proper case to obtain temporary or preliminary injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction. Each party agrees that the other party may have such temporary or preliminary injunctive relief, without bond, but upon due notice, and with the sole remedy in the event of the entry of such injunctive relief being the dissolution of such injunctive relief, if warranted, upon hearing duly held (all claims for damages by reason of the wrongful issuance of such injunction being expressly waived by each party). Any such action will be brought as provided in Section 21.5 below.

21.5. Governing Law/Consent to Jurisdiction/Waiver of Jury Trial. The United States Federal Arbitration Act shall govern all questions about the enforceability of Sections 21.1 and 21.2 and the confirmation of any arbitration awards pursuant to such procedures, and no arbitration issues are to be resolved pursuant to any other statutes, regulations or common law. Otherwise, except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.) or applicable international trademark law, this Agreement shall be interpreted under the laws of the State of Colorado U.S.A. and any dispute between the parties shall be governed by and determined in accordance with the internal substantive laws, and not the laws of conflict, of the State of Colorado U.S.A., which laws shall prevail in the event of any conflict of law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties agree that the Colorado Consumer Protection Act (COLO. REV. STAT. ANN. Sections 6-1-101, et seq.) shall not apply to this Agreement or any disputes between the parties. Franchisee and Crestcom have negotiated regarding a forum in which to resolve any disputes that arise between them and have agreed to select a forum in order to promote stability in their relationship. Therefore, if a claim is asserted in any legal proceeding not subject to mandatory arbitration, as specified in Section 21.1, involving Franchisee, its employees, officers, directors, or guarantors (collectively, “Franchisee Affiliates”) and Crestcom, its employees, officers or directors (collectively, “Crestcom Affiliates”), both parties agree that the exclusive venue for disputes between them shall be in the state and federal courts of Colorado U.S.A., and each waive any objection either may have to the personal jurisdiction of or venue in the state and federal courts of Colorado U.S.A. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any legal proceeding by Crestcom or any Crestcom Affiliate not subject to mandatory arbitration may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the country, state, province, or other geographic area in which the CRESTCOM Business is located or in which Franchisee or any Franchisee Affiliate resides or owns assets. IF A CLAIM MAY BE BROUGHT IN COURT, THEN CRESTCOM, THE CRESTCOM AFFILIATES, FRANCHISEE AND THE FRANCHISEE AFFILIATES EACH WAIVE THEIR RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY.

21.6. No Punitive or Consequential Damages. Except as specifically permitted elsewhere in this Agreement or as may be required by statute, neither Crestcom or any of the Crestcom Affiliates, on the one side, nor Franchisee or any of the Franchisee Affiliates, on the other side, shall be liable to the other for punitive or other damages not measured by the other party’s actual damages in any action between the parties.

21.7. No Recourse Against Others. Franchisee agrees that its sole recourse for claims (whether in contract or in tort, in law or in equity, or granted by statute) arising between the parties shall be against Crestcom or its successors and assigns. Franchisee agrees that the shareholders, directors, officers, employees, managers, members and agents of Crestcom and its affiliates (the “Nonparty Affiliates”) shall not be personally liable nor named as a party in any action between Crestcom and Franchisee. To the maximum extent permitted by law, Franchisee waives any such claims against such Nonparty Affiliates.

22. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

22.1. Nonrefundability. Except as expressly stated otherwise herein, all fees and other amounts paid by Franchisee to Crestcom under this Agreement are nonrefundable once they are paid.

22.2. Modification.

a. This Agreement may only be modified upon execution of a written agreement between Crestcom and Franchisee or, at Crestcom's option, upon notice of the approval of a Super-Majority as defined in Section 22.2.b below. Unless prohibited by law or waived by Crestcom, Franchisee must provide a general release of any and all claims against Crestcom if Franchisee requests and Crestcom consents to modify any provisions of this Agreement after it has been signed. Franchisee acknowledges that Crestcom may modify its standards and specifications and operating and Marketing techniques set forth in the Procedures Manual and the Materials and Live Instruction sold through the CRESTCOM Business unilaterally under any conditions and to the extent in which Crestcom, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to protect, promote, or improve the Marks and the quality of the Materials or other of the Licensed Methods. These modifications may include regional and local variations. Franchisee shall be bound by, and incorporate into its CRESTCOM Business, these modifications. Franchisee may be obligated to invest additional capital in Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business and incur higher operating costs based on these periodic modifications. Crestcom has the right to vary the franchise agreement and any standards, specifications, and techniques for a particular Crestcom franchisee based on the circumstances related to the franchisee, its Assigned Area, or any other condition. Franchisee shall not be entitled to require Crestcom to grant Franchisee a similar variation.

b. This Agreement may be modified by Crestcom at its option whenever Crestcom and a Super-Majority, as hereinafter defined, of franchisees and distributors of Crestcom agree to any such modification. A "Super-Majority" of Crestcom franchisees and distributors shall consist of the owners of at least 75 percent of all CRESTCOM Businesses and Crestcom distributorship businesses in good standing, or if only a portion of CRESTCOM Businesses and Crestcom distributorship businesses are affected by the modification, at least 75 percent of those CRESTCOM Businesses and Crestcom distributorship businesses affected by the modification. Whenever a modification is approved by a Super-Majority, Crestcom may elect to treat the modification as effective to all franchisees and distributors or the applicable group thereof, including Franchisee, to the same extent and in the same manner if the modification was unanimously approved by them, and regardless of whether Franchisee may or may not desire to be bound by the modification. Crestcom shall provide Franchisee with notice of any modification to this Agreement based on a Super-Majority approval at least 30 days prior to the date such modification is to be effective. By signing this Agreement, Franchisee appoints the officers of Crestcom as its attorneys in fact with irrevocable power and authority to execute and such modification so approved.

22.3. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, which includes the attachments and exhibits to this Agreement, contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements concerning the subject matter hereof. Crestcom does not authorize and will not be bound by any representation of any nature other than those expressed in this Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that no representations have been made to it by Crestcom or its representatives regarding projected sales volumes, market potential, revenues, or profits of Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business, or operational assistance other than as stated in this Agreement or in any applicable franchise disclosure document or advertising or promotional materials provided by Crestcom. Additionally, Franchisee hereby acknowledges and agrees that, in entering into this Agreement, it is not relying on the existence or non-existence of any particular fact or matter not set forth in this Agreement or in the franchise disclosure document provided to Franchisee. Franchisee agrees and understands that Crestcom will not be liable or obligated for any oral representations or commitments made prior to the execution hereof, for claims of negligent or fraudulent misrepresentation based on any such oral representations or commitments, or for claims of negligent or fraudulent omissions or nondisclosure of facts or information. Nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim any representations made by Crestcom in the franchise disclosure document provided to Franchisee.

22.4. Delegation by Crestcom. From time to time, Crestcom will have the right to delegate the performance of any portion or all of its obligations and duties under this Agreement to third parties, whether they are agents of Crestcom or independent contractors with whom Crestcom has contracted to provide such services. Franchisee agrees in advance to any such delegation by Crestcom of any portion or all of its obligations and duties hereunder.

22.5. Consent; Business Judgment. Wherever Crestcom's consent or approval is required in this Agreement, unless the provision specifically indicates otherwise, Crestcom has the right to withhold its approval at its option, in its business judgment, taking into consideration its assessment of the long-term interests of the Crestcom system overall. Crestcom may withhold any and all consents or approvals required by this Agreement if Franchisee is in default or breach of this Agreement, and all approvals and consents must be in writing and signed by one of Crestcom's duly authorized representatives. In no event may Franchisee make any claim for money damages based on any claim that Crestcom has unreasonably withheld or delayed any consent or approval to a proposed act by Franchisee under the terms of this Agreement. Franchisee's sole remedy for the claim will be an action or proceeding to enforce the provisions of this Agreement by specific performance or by declaratory judgment.

22.6. Effective Date. This Agreement will not be effective until accepted by Crestcom as evidenced by dating and signing by an authorized officer of Crestcom.

22.7. Limitation on Actions. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, any and all claims and actions by Franchisee arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the relationship between Franchisee and Crestcom, or Franchisee's operation of its CRESTCOM Business must be commenced within one year from the occurrence of the facts giving rise to the claim or action.

22.8. Review of Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges that it had a copy of this Agreement in its possession for a period of time not less than that required by applicable law and has been given sufficient time to seek, and to submit this Agreement for, professional review and advice of Franchisee's choosing prior to freely executing this Agreement.

22.9. Attorneys' Fees. The prevailing party in any action arising out of, or related to this Agreement (including an action to compel arbitration) is entitled to recover from the other party all costs and expenses related to the action, including reasonable attorneys' fees, and all costs of collecting monies owed. If both parties are awarded a judgment in any dollar amount, the court or arbitrator, as applicable, shall determine the prevailing party taking into consideration the merits of the claims asserted by each party, the amount of the judgment received by each party and the relative equities between the parties.

22.10. Incorporation of Riders. To the extent that any of the Riders to Franchise Agreement for Specific States or Countries attached as Exhibit VI is applicable, such rider is incorporated herein and this Agreement is modified accordingly. The provisions in any applicable rider are included as a condition to registration or use in certain jurisdictions, and Crestcom is not precluded from contesting the validity, enforceability, or applicability of such provisions in any action relating to this Agreement or its rescission or termination.

22.11. No Waiver. No waiver of any condition or covenant contained in this Agreement or failure to exercise a right or remedy by Crestcom or Franchisee will be considered to imply or constitute a further waiver by Crestcom or Franchisee of the same or any other condition, covenant, right, or remedy.

22.12. Rights to Set Off. Franchisee will not be allowed to set off amounts owed to Crestcom for any fees or other amounts due hereunder, against any monies owed to Franchisee, which right of set off is expressly waived by Franchisee. Crestcom has the right, in its sole discretion, to apply any amounts owed by Crestcom to Franchisee against any amounts that are currently due from Franchisee to Crestcom.

22.13. Survival of Terms. Every article and section of this Agreement that by its terms is intended to survive expiration and/or termination of this Agreement shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

22.14. Invalidity; Authority to Reform. In the event that any arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision of this Agreement, including but not limited to any of the restrictive covenants contained in Article 19 hereof, are unenforceable as written for any reason, including for purposes of the restrictive covenants, reasons that the areas of restriction exceed the reasonable maximum time period, geographic area or scope, then the parties hereby request and authorize the arbitrator or court to “blue pencil” such provision so as to make it enforceable and to best carry out the intent of the parties, or to deem such provision severed from this Agreement if it cannot be so modified. The holding, declaration or pronouncement shall not adversely affect any other provisions of this Agreement, which shall otherwise remain in full force and effect.

22.15. Notices. All notices required to be given under this Agreement will be given in writing, by personal delivery, certified mail, return receipt requested, e-mail or an overnight delivery service providing documentation of receipt, at the address set forth in the first paragraph of this Agreement in the case of Crestcom, at the Franchise Location set forth in the Addendum in the case of Franchisee, at the e-mail address set forth on the signature page of this Agreement, or at such other addresses as Crestcom or Franchisee may designate from time to time. Notice will be effectively given when personally delivered or delivered by e-mail to the proper e-mail address. If the Assigned Area is in the United States, notice will be effectively given three days after being deposited in the United States mail, with proper address and postage prepaid, or one day after being deposited with the overnight delivery service, as may be applicable. If the Assigned Area is outside of the United States, notice will be effectively given seven days after being deposited in the United States mail, with proper address and postage prepaid, or three days after being deposited with the overnight delivery service, as may be applicable.

22.16. Force Majeure. Crestcom will not be liable to Franchisee, nor will Crestcom be deemed to be in breach of this Agreement, if it exercises best efforts to perform its obligations to supply Materials and perform other obligations as may be due to Franchisee hereunder and its failure to supply Materials or perform its obligations results from: (i) transportation shortages, inadequate supply of labor, material or energy, or the voluntary foregoing of the right to acquire or use any of the foregoing in order to accommodate or comply with the orders, requests, regulations, recommendations or instructions of any government or any governmental department or agency; (ii) compliance with any law, ruling, order, regulation, requirement or instruction of any government or any governmental department or agency; (iii) viral or bacterial epidemic, pandemic, or other public health crisis; (iv) acts of God; or (v) fires, strikes, terrorism, embargoes, war or riot. Any delay resulting from any of these causes will extend performance by Crestcom accordingly or excuse performance by Crestcom in whole or in part, as may be necessary.

22.17. Taxes. All taxes or withholdings imposed on products or services, on any payments due Crestcom by Franchisee, or any other taxes or withholdings imposed by governmental or quasi-governmental entities and assessed against Franchisee's CRESTCOM Business shall be borne exclusively by Franchisee, and payments of any fees or other consideration which is payable by Franchisee to Crestcom hereunder shall not, in any way, be reduced or affected by any such taxes or withholdings.

22.18. Estoppel Certificates. Franchisee agrees at any time and from time to time within 10 days after notice from Crestcom, to execute, acknowledge and deliver to Crestcom a statement in writing, form and substance acceptable to Crestcom, verifying that this Agreement is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the Agreement is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications), and whether or not there exists any default in the performance of any term, condition or covenant of this Agreement and, if so, specifying each such default, it being intended that any such statement delivered pursuant hereto may be relied upon by Crestcom and by any lenders of Crestcom, or any prospective investors in or purchasers of all or any part of Crestcom's business.

22.19. Cross-Default and Cross Termination Provisions.

a. A default by Franchisee under this Agreement will be deemed a default of all agreements between Franchisee and/or any company(ies) affiliated with Franchisee, on the one hand, and Crestcom and/or any company(ies) affiliated with Crestcom, on the other hand (the "Other Agreements"). A default by Franchisee and/or any company(ies) affiliated with Franchisee under any of the Other Agreements will be deemed a default under this Agreement. A default by any guarantor(s) of this Agreement or of any of the Other Agreements will be deemed a default of this Agreement.

b. If this Agreement is terminated as a result of a default by Franchisee, Crestcom may, at its option, elect to terminate any or all of the Other Agreements. If any of the Other Agreements is terminated as a result of a default by Franchisee and/or any company(ies) affiliated with Franchisee, Crestcom may, at its option, elect to terminate this Agreement. It is agreed that an incurable or uncured default under this Agreement or any of the Other Agreements will be grounds for termination of this Agreement and/or any and all of the Other Agreements without additional notice or opportunity to cure.

22.20. Charges and Taxes. All provisions in this Agreement stating that Franchisee will pay or be responsible for any costs, charges or taxes includes all customs or duty charges, foreign currency purchase levies, import and export fees and levies, and other similar costs, charges and taxes.

22.21. Translations. If Franchisee is required to translate the Materials to use them in the Assigned Area, it will do so in accordance with the terms of Crestcom's then current form of translation agreement. Crestcom shall have the right to copyright the translated or adapted materials in any other country or territory, and shall own the United States and all foreign copyrights of all translations, adaptations and/or derivative versions of the Materials and shall have the right to market the Materials, including the translated or adapted versions of the Materials in any manner Crestcom might choose in all countries of the world.

22.22. Approval Within Assigned Area. Any approval of this Agreement by the appropriate authorities in the Assigned Area that is required to enable Franchisee to enter into this Agreement, perform under the terms of this Agreement, do business with Crestcom, or to make payments to Crestcom in United States Dollars in the United States of America will be the sole responsibility and at the sole expense of Franchisee.

22.23. Manner of Payment. All payments provided for herein shall be paid to Crestcom in the United States in U.S. Dollars net of any taxes or withholdings. The exchange rate for calculating payments due hereunder shall be the exchange rate published in The Wall Street Journal on the day the payment is due. If, for any reason whatsoever, a payment that is due to Crestcom under this Agreement is not paid on the date that such payment is due, the exchange rate to be used shall be either the exchange rate published on the due date or the exchange rate published on the date that the payment is actually made, whichever results in a greater amount to Crestcom. If The Wall Street Journal is not published on the date of conversion, the applicable exchange rate shall be that rate published in The Wall Street Journal on the nearest date of publication prior to the date of conversion, or by a successor or equivalent publication to be designated by Crestcom in the event The Wall Street Journal ceases to be published or ceases to publish the applicable exchange rates. Crestcom may designate and change payment instructions at any time on prior written notice to Franchisee. Franchisee shall be solely responsible for the payment of any costs and charges incurred in connection with the transfer and exchange of currency over and above any fees due or paid.

22.24. Translation of Agreement. The English language will be regarded as the authoritative and official text of this Agreement; however, this Agreement may be translated into the language in dominant use in the Assigned Area, at Franchisee's expense, in the event that translation is necessary for any reason, including for the purpose of registration of this Agreement with the applicable governmental authority. Nevertheless, in the event that any discrepancies exist between the English text and the translated text, the English text will be considered the official text of this Agreement.

22.25. Electronic Communications. Franchisee expressly consents to (i) receiving electronic or other communications from Crestcom, the Crestcom Affiliates, and Crestcom's approved suppliers, and (ii) Crestcom disclosing Franchisee's e-mail address and other contact information to any of the Crestcom Affiliates and Crestcom's approved suppliers. Franchisee acknowledges that these communications are necessary to facilitate and keep Franchisee updated regarding the ongoing franchise relationship.

22.26. Counterparts and Electronic Signature. This Agreement and all riders and addenda hereto may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but such counterparts shall constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement, any riders or addenda hereto, and any other agreements entered into with Crestcom by facsimile or in electronic format shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement or such other document. The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of similar meaning in this Agreement shall be deemed to include electronic or digital signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same effect, validity, and enforceability as manually executed signatures or a paper-based recordkeeping system to the extent and as provided for under applicable laws.

22.27. Crestcom's Reserved Rights. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Crestcom shall have the right to exchange Materials for transport, travel, or lodging within the Assigned Area where the intent of such exchange for transport, travel, or lodging is related to aiding Franchisee's activities within the Assigned Area. Crestcom also reserves the right to sell or exchange the Materials in conjunction with live appearances by any officer of Crestcom.

22.28. Acknowledgment. BEFORE SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT, FRANCHISEE SHOULD READ IT CAREFULLY WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF LEGAL COUNSEL. FRANCHISEE REPRESENTS AND WARRANTS THAT IT HAS INDUCED CRESTCOM TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BASED ON THE REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES MADE TO CRESTCOM AND SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING THE

UNITED STATES RIDERS TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

CALIFORNIA RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

1. The following language is added to the end of Article 4:

The Department of Financial Protection and Innovation has determined that we, the franchisor, have not demonstrated we are adequately capitalized and/or that we must rely on franchise fees to fund our operations. The Commissioner has imposed a fee deferral condition, which requires that we defer the collection of all initial fees from California franchisees until we have completed all of our pre-opening obligations and you are open for business. For California franchisees who sign a development agreement, the payment of the development and initial fees attributable to a specific unit in your development schedule is deferred until that unit is open.

2. Section 21.5 is deleted and replaced with the following language:

21.5. Governing Law/Consent to Jurisdiction/Waiver of Jury Trial. The United States Federal Arbitration Act shall govern all questions about the enforceability of Sections 21.1 and 21.2 and the confirmation of any arbitration awards pursuant to such procedures, and no arbitration issues are to be resolved pursuant to any other statutes, regulations or common law. Otherwise, except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.) or applicable international trademark law, this Agreement shall be interpreted under the laws of the State of Colorado U.S.A. and any dispute between the parties shall be governed by and determined in accordance with the internal substantive laws, and not the laws of conflict, of the State of Colorado U.S.A., which laws shall prevail in the event of any conflict of law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties agree that the Colorado Consumer Protection Act (COLO. REV. STAT. ANN. Sections 6-1-101, et seq.) shall not apply to this Agreement or any disputes between the parties. If a claim is asserted in any legal proceeding not subject to mandatory arbitration, as specified in Section 21.1, involving Franchisee, its employees, officers or directors (collectively, “Franchisee Affiliates”) and Crestcom, its employees, officers or directors (collectively, “Crestcom Affiliates”), both parties consent to jurisdiction and venue for disputes between them in the state and federal courts of Colorado U.S.A., and each waive any objection either may have to the personal jurisdiction of or venue in the state and federal courts of Colorado U.S.A. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any legal proceeding by Crestcom or any Crestcom Affiliate not subject to mandatory arbitration may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the country, state, province, or other geographic area in which the CRESTCOM Business is located or in which Franchisee or any Franchisee Affiliate resides or owns assets. IF A CLAIM MAY BE BROUGHT IN COURT, THEN CRESTCOM, THE CRESTCOM AFFILIATES, FRANCHISEE AND THE FRANCHISEE AFFILIATES EACH WAIVE THEIR RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY.

2. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

If Crestcom refuses to renew a Franchise for the purpose of converting Franchisee's business to one owned and operated by Crestcom, Crestcom, in addition to the remedies provided above, shall compensate Franchisee for the loss of goodwill. Crestcom may deduct from such compensation reasonable costs incurred in removing, transporting and disposing of Franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment and furnishings pursuant to this requirement, and may offset from such compensation any monies due Crestcom.

3. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

INDIANA RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

The following modifications are made to the Franchise Agreement only to the extent required by the Indiana Franchises Act, IND. CODE § 23-2-2.5, and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act, IND. CODE § 23-2-2.7:

1. The following statement is added to Section 3.5:

Indiana law prohibits Crestcom from establishing a Crestcom-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business within Franchisee's territory, or if no exclusive territory is designated, that competes unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

2. The following language is added to the end of Sections 15.2.f, 16.3.d and 22.2:

3. The words, "or within the Assigned Area of any other franchised, licensed or company-owned CRESTCOM Business," are deleted from Section 19.2.

4. Section 21.5 is deleted and replaced with the following language:

21.5. Governing Law/Consent to Jurisdiction/Waiver of Jury Trial. The United States Federal Arbitration Act shall govern all questions about the enforceability of Sections 21.1 and 21.2 and the confirmation of any arbitration awards pursuant to such procedures, and no arbitration issues are to be resolved pursuant to any state statutes, regulations or common law. Otherwise, except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.) or applicable international trademark law, disputes related to a violation of the Indiana Franchises Act or the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act shall be governed thereby, and all other matters regarding this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Colorado. Subject to the foregoing, Franchisee and Crestcom have negotiated regarding a forum in which to resolve any disputes that arise between them and have agreed to select a forum in order to promote stability in their relationship. Therefore, if a claim is asserted in any legal proceeding involving Franchisee, its employees, officers or directors (collectively, "Franchisee Affiliates") and Crestcom, its employees, officers or directors (collectively, "Crestcom Affiliates"), both parties agree that the exclusive venue for disputes between them shall be in the state and federal courts of Colorado and each waive any objection either may have to the personal jurisdiction of or venue in the state and federal courts of Colorado. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any legal proceeding by Crestcom or any Crestcom Affiliate not subject to mandatory arbitration may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the country, state, province, or other geographic area in which the CRESTCOM Business is located or in which Franchisee or any Franchisee Affiliate resides or owns assets. IF A CLAIM MAY BE BROUGHT IN COURT, THEN CRESTCOM, THE CRESTCOM AFFILIATES, FRANCHISEE AND THE FRANCHISEE AFFILIATES EACH WAIVE THEIR RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY.

5. The following sentence is added at the end of Section 22.3:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this provision, Franchisee does not waive any right under the Indiana Franchises Act or the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act with regard to prior representations made by Crestcom.

6. Section 22.7 is deleted, and replaced with the following language:

22.7 Limitation on Actions. Any and all claims and actions of Franchisee arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the relationship between Franchisee and Crestcom, or Franchisee's operation of its CRESTCOM Business shall be commenced within the time period specified in Indiana Law.

4. The second through fifth sentences in Section 22.3 are deleted.

4. The following sentence is added to Section 21.4:

5. The following paragraph is added to Section 21.5:

Minnesota Statute §80C.21 and Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(J) prohibit Crestcom from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring Franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Disclosure Document or this Agreement can abrogate or reduce (1) any of Franchisee's rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or (2) Franchisee's rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction. The above language has been included in this Agreement as a condition to registration. Crestcom and Franchisee do not agree with the above language and believe that each of the provisions of this Agreement, including all choice of law provisions, are fully enforceable. Crestcom and Franchisee intend to fully enforce all of the provisions of this Agreement and all other documents signed by them, including but not limited to, all venue, choice-of-law, arbitration provisions and other dispute avoidance and resolution provisions and to rely on federal pre-emption under the Federal Arbitration Act.

6. The following sentence is added to Section 22.7:

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any claims and actions based on a violation of Chapter 80C of the Minnesota statutes or any rule or order thereunder shall be commenced within three years from the occurrence of the facts giving rise to such claim or action pursuant to Minn. Stat. §80C.17, subd. 5.

7. Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(D) prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release from liability imposed by Minnesota Statutes, Sections 80C.01 to 80C.22, provided, it does not bar the voluntary settlement of disputes. All applicable provisions are deemed hereby amended.

RHODE ISLAND RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

1. The following paragraph is added at the end of Section 21.5:

Section 19-28.1-14 of the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act provides that "A provision in a franchise agreement restricting jurisdiction or venue to a forum outside this

VIRGINIA RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

1. Section 22.19 of the Agreement will not be applicable to the Agreement signed by a Virginia franchisee entering into the attached Agreement.
2. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

WASHINGTON RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

1. The following is added at the end of Article 4:

All initial franchise fees payable to Crestcom shall be deferred until the day that Crestcom has fulfilled all of Crestcom’s initial pre-opening obligations to Franchisee and Franchisee is open for business.
2. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
3. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.
4. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
5. A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

8. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

9. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

10. The franchisor uses the services of franchise brokers to assist it in selling franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. Do not rely only on the information provided by a franchise broker about a franchise. Do your own investigation by contacting the franchisor's current and former franchisees to ask them about their experience with the franchisor.

11. The following sentence is added to Section 18.3:

Franchisees have no obligation to indemnify or hold harmless an indemnified party for losses to the extent that they are determined to have been caused solely and directly by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

12. The fourth sentence in Section 22.3 of the Agreement is hereby deleted.

13. Section 22.28 is deleted in its entirety.

16. Entire Agreement. This instrument contains the entire agreement of Recipient, Company and Crestcom relating to the matters set forth herein. INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors and Member
Crestcom International, LLC and Subsidiary
Greenwood Village, Colorado

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Crestcom International, LLC and Subsidiary (the Company), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, and the related consolidated statements of operations, members' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Nature of Operations

Crestcom International, LLC (Crestcom) is located in Greenwood Village, Colorado. Crestcom produces and distributes a blended, live-facilitated leadership development experience including videos featuring subject matter experts. The program is delivered to end-users by appointed franchisees located in numerous countries including the United States. Franchisees pay for the right to acquire franchises. In addition, Crestcom receives distribution fees and royalties as a percentage of revenues derived by franchisees from the sale or use of the materials.

Crestcom South Africa, Limited (Crestcom SA), a company formed under the laws of South Africa, is a wholly owned subsidiary of Crestcom. Crestcom SA was formed to collect franchise fees and royalties from franchisees in South Africa. The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Crestcom and Crestcom SA (collectively referred to as the Company). Crestcom SA is included in these consolidated financial statements under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP). Intercompany transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The Company is owned by Crestcom International Holdings, LLC (Crestcom Holdings).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The more significant areas requiring the use of management estimates and assumptions relate to the valuation allowance for accounts receivable, useful lives and recoverability of long-lived assets, valuation of intangible assets and goodwill. The Company bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Accordingly, actual results may differ significantly from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. The Company maintains its cash and cash equivalents in accounts with various financial institutions. These accounts at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in these accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Credit Losses

Accounts receivable reflect amounts billed to franchisees, net of an allowance for credit losses. The Company establishes an allowance for credit losses to present the net amount of accounts receivable expected to be collected. The allowance represents the estimate of expected credit losses based on historical experience, current economic conditions, and certain forward-looking information. The Company also considers any specific customer collection issues. Since the Company's trade receivables are largely similar, the Company evaluates its allowance for credit losses as one portfolio segment. At origination, the Company evaluates credit risk based on a variety of credit quality factors including prior payment experience, customer financial information, credit ratings, probabilities of default, industry trends and other internal metrics. On a continuing basis, data for each major customer is regularly reviewed based on past-due status to evaluate the adequacy of the allowance for credit losses; actual write-offs are charged against the allowance. Management writes off uncollectible receivables when all attempts to collect have failed; collection efforts, however, may continue. The allowance for credit losses was $1,162,617, $1,074,608, and $1,625,991 at December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, respectively.

The Company charges interest on past due amounts in accordance with franchise agreement terms. The Company may grant promissory notes to franchisees for the purchase of licenses. Payment terms on the notes receivable are generally 60 days or less.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. Office furniture and equipment are depreciated over 3 to 7 years. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of their useful lives or the lease term. Expenditures for major renewals and betterments, which extend the useful lives of property and equipment, are capitalized; expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may not be recoverable. Impairment is recognized when the estimated undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use of the asset and its eventual disposition is less than its carrying amount. Impairment is measured as the amount an asset's net book value exceeds its estimated fair value. The Company continually evaluates the carrying value and the remaining economic useful life of all long-lived assets and will adjust the carrying value and the related depreciation and amortization period if and when appropriate. The Company determined that no impairment loss needed to be recognized at December 31, 2024, 2023 and 2022.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are recorded at cost. Product development costs consist primarily of costs to produce and translate audio and video training programs, including related training materials. Amortization of capitalized product development costs begins when the product is available for general release and marketing. Unamortized product development costs determined to be in excess of net realizable value of the product is expensed immediately.

Amortization of intangible assets is provided using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Franchise Agreements	5 Years
Trademarks and Product Development Costs	5 Years
Copyrights	5 Years

Research and development costs for new products are charged to expense as incurred. However, the costs incurred for the development or translation of new audio and video training programs, including related training materials, that will be sold, leased, or otherwise marketed are capitalized when technological feasibility has been established. These capitalized costs are subject to an ongoing assessment of recoverability based on anticipated future revenues.

Intangible assets with estimable useful lives are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognized when the estimated future undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use of the asset and its eventual disposition is less than its carrying amount.

The Company continually evaluates the carrying value and the remaining economic useful life of all intangible assets and will adjust the carrying value and the related amortization period if and when appropriate. The Company would also vigorously defend any copyright infringement. The Company determined that no impairment loss needed to be recognized for intangible assets at December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed. Goodwill is not amortized, but instead tested for impairment at least annually. Measurement of goodwill impairment is based on the excess of the carrying amount of the asset over the fair value calculated using discounted expected future cash flows and a market analysis of other training companies. As a result of the annual impairment analysis, the Company concluded goodwill was not impaired as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2024, 2023, AND 2022

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Deferred Financing Costs

Debt issuance costs are presented in the consolidated balance sheets as a deduction from the carrying amount of the related liability, rather than as a deferred asset. As of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, the gross amount of debt issuance costs was $437,807, $427,775, and $427,775, respectively, which is related to financing fees associated with the Company's long-term debt (see Note 6).

Amortization related to the deferred financing costs was $55,319, $83,731, and $83,039, and is included in interest expense for the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, respectively. Accumulated amortization was $420,260, $364,942, and $281,211, respectively, at December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when its franchisees obtains control of promised goods or services in an amount that reflects the consideration which the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. To determine revenue recognition for the arrangements that are within the scope of ASC 606, the Company performs the following five steps: (1) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (2) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (3) determine the transaction price, (4) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (5) recognize revenue when (or as) the Company satisfies a performance obligation.

Under ASC 606, initial franchise and area franchise fees have been recognized as the Company satisfies the performance obligation over the franchise term on a straight-line basis, which is generally seven years. The unrecognized portion of the initial franchising and area franchise fees are recorded as deferred revenue. Similarly, commissions are an incremental cost of obtaining a contract under ASC 606, which are capitalized as deferred expenses and amortized over the term of the franchise agreement.

In 2022, the Company adopted FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2021-02 Franchisors – Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606). ASU 2021-02 provides a practical expedient for franchisors to account for certain pre-opening services as distinct from the franchise license when identifying performance obligations under ASC 606. The Company has elected to treat the pre-opening services as a single performance obligation. The Company elected to apply ASU 2021-02 retroactively to the financial statements presented. See Note 12 for further information about the adoption of the new guidance and the cumulative effect of the adjustments.

Upon the sale of initial franchise, the Company is obligated to provide franchisees the right to proprietary programs, copyrighted materials and trademarks, tools, and support associated with their franchise business. These pre-opening services provided by the Company are a single performance obligation and the franchise fee is recognized upon satisfaction and completion of the pre-opening services by the Company. Generally pre-opening services are complete upon the opening of the franchisee's location. If the pre-opening services are not complete or are in process, the Company records the franchise fee received as a contract liability.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Revenue Recognition (Continued)

Upon the sale of an area franchise, the Company is obligated to provide the area franchise representative the right to proprietary programs, copyrighted materials and trademarks, tools, and support associated with the area purchased. These services provided by the Company are a single performance obligation and a portion of the fees is recognized upon satisfaction and completion of these services by the Company. Any remaining area franchise fees allocable to the license is reported as deferred revenue, with revenue being recognized on a straight line basis over the term of the area franchise agreement.

The Company recognizes distribution fees and royalties as earned when the franchises report the associated revenue to the Company. The Company recognizes revenue associated with product sales when the product is shipped to the franchisees.

In 2016, the Company implemented its new product development strategy of releasing one new module of Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. (previously called Bullet Proof Manager) each quarter. Concurrently, using the updated modules, the Company launched the Crestcom Continuing Education Program which enabled franchisees to offer the new content as continuing education subscriptions to those participants who had already completed the Crestcom L.E.A.D.R. training. Franchisees are required to pay a material surcharge in order to access each new module. Revenue related to surcharge fees is recognized once access to a new module is granted. For the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, the Company recognized revenue of $75,850, $168,000, and $162,600 in product surcharge fees, respectively, which is included in product sales.

Grant Revenue

The Company recognizes revenue from grants in accordance with ASC 958, Not-for-Profit Entities. Grants from the government are recognized when all conditions of such grants are fulfilled or there is reasonable assurance that they will be fulfilled. Revenue is recognized as the related expenses are incurred or as the grant funds are received, depending on the terms of the grant agreement. Any unearned revenue is recorded as deferred revenue until the related expenses are incurred or the funds are used for the specified purpose.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company and is considered a disregarded entity for tax purposes. As a result, the Company does not file a federal or Colorado income tax return. The Company is a pass-through entity for income tax purposes whereby any income tax liabilities or benefits are attributable to the Company's owner. Therefore, no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements. Instead, the members are liable for income taxes on their pro rata share of the Company's income, deductions, losses, and credits.

The Company is required to remit foreign taxes to certain countries based upon amounts received from its franchises in those countries.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. The Company incurred approximately $75,000, $122,000, and $120,000 in advertising costs for the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, respectively.

Leases

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update 2016-02, Leases (ASC 842). The standard increased transparency and comparability among organizations by requiring the recognition by lessees of right-of-use assets (ROU) and lease liabilities on the balance sheet.

The Company adopted the requirements of the standard effective January 1, 2022, including electing to adopt the package of practical expedients available for the year of adoption.

In evaluating contracts to determine if they qualify as a lease, the Company considers factors such as if the Company has obtained substantially all of the rights to the underlying asset through exclusivity, if the Company can direct the use of the asset by making decisions about how and for what purpose the asset will be used and if the lessor has substantive substitution rights. This evaluation may require significant judgment.

In determining the discount rate used to measure the ROU Assets and lease liabilities, the Company uses rates implicit in the lease, or if not readily available, the Company elects by class of underlying assets to use either the incremental borrowing rate or the risk-free interest rate. The interest rate used to determine the present value of the lease payments is based on the information available at commencement date.

The Company's incremental borrowing rate is the rate of interest that a lessee would have to pay to borrow on a collateralized basis over a similar term an amount equal to the lease payments in a similar economic environment and is based on an estimated secured rate comprised of a risk-free rate plus a credit spread as secured by Company assets. Determining a credit spread secured by Company assets may require significant judgment.

The Company has elected to recognize payments for short-term leases with a lease term of 12 months or less as expense as incurred and these leases are not included as lease liabilities or ROU assets on the accompanying balance sheets.

The Company has elected not to separate nonlease components from lease components and instead accounts for each separate lease component and the nonlease component as a single lease component.

Subsequent Events

In preparing these consolidated financial statements, the Company has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through March 28, 2025, the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 12 ADOPTION OF NEW ACCOUNTING STANDARD

The Company adopted ASC 606 effective January 1, 2019, using the modified retrospective method. In 2021, the FASB issued ASU 2021-02, Franchisors – Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606) – Practical Expedient. FASB Subtopic 952-606 creates a practical expedient allowing franchisors that are not public business entities to account for certain pre-opening services enumerated in FASB ASC 952-606-25-2 as distinct from the franchise license when identifying performance obligations under ASC 606. The Company has elected to treat the pre-opening services as a single performance obligation.

The Company adopted the requirements of the ASU 2021-02 guidance in 2022 retroactively to the date ASC 606 was adopted and elected to recognize certain pre-opening services as a single performance obligation. The adoption of the new guidance resulted in changes to the accounting policies for revenue recognition related to initial franchise sales and deferred initial franchise sales.

4. The following statements are added at the end of Item 17:

Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(D) prohibits us from requiring you to assent to a general release from liability imposed by Minnesota Statutes, Sections 80C.01 to 80C.22, provided, it does not bar the voluntary settlement of disputes.

We will comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.14, Subd. 3-5, which require (except in certain specified cases) (1) that you be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the Franchise Agreement and (2) that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

The above language has been included in this Disclosure Document as a condition to registration. We and you do not agree with the above language and believe that each of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement, including all choice of law provisions, are fully enforceable. We and you intend to fully enforce all of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement, and all other documents signed by us, including but not limited to, all venue, choice-of-law, arbitration provisions and other dispute avoidance and resolution provisions and to rely on federal pre-emption under the Federal Arbitration Act.

You cannot consent to us obtaining injunctive relief. We may seek injunctive relief. See Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(J). Also, a court will determine if a bond is required.

Any such restrictions in the Franchise Agreement are deemed deleted.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. We and you intend to fully enforce all of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement, and all other documents signed by us, including but not limited to, all venue, choice-of-law, arbitration provisions and other dispute avoidance and resolution provisions and to rely on federal pre-emption under the Federal Arbitration Act.
