What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit B.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out of State Dispute Resolution. The Franchise Agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the Franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Tennessee. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate the Franchisor in Tennessee than in your own state.
2. Short Operating History. This franchisor is at an early stage of development and has a limited operating history. This franchise is likely to be a riskier investment than a franchise in a system with a longer operating history.
3. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty or advertising fund payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment. Franchise Disclosure Document [FDD]
Open Doors, Inc.
4. General Financial Condition. The franchisor's financial condition, as reflected in its financial statements (see item 21), calls into question the franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.

We may authorize you to offer additional products and/or services in the future such as: commercial garage door services, gate entry services and products, garage door painting services, garage space design and/or organization services, garage floor coating services, sale and installation of garage shelving and racking systems, garage flooring products, entry door products in addition to other garage related services and products approved by us.

The Access Garage Doors® Business and System (hereafter defined) are characterized by our: business format that is simple and efficient offering a variety different products (including privately labeled products which are products developed by a third-party vendor and carry our brand) and services; specific methods, processes, techniques and procedures when selling products or providing services; our proprietary service guarantee program and warranty programs, operational procedures, service standards and methods for quality control; specifications for all equipment, products and supplies used and strategies for purchasing such items; relationships with vendors and suppliers, inventory tracking and management systems, cost control and pricing strategies; vehicle specifications and appearance standards with unique and recognizable signage; a franchise website housed within our national website with access to our intranet system that includes access to our proprietary educational platform that contains our video library with training modules to complement your ongoing training efforts; third-party software, photographs, video presentations, contracts and forms; guidelines for hiring, training and retaining employees and independent contractors (if you choose to hire independent contractors); proprietary sales presentations, customer and account acquisition programs; advertising, marketing, social media and promotional strategies and materials; management and record keeping procedures; our confidential operations manual (“Operations Manual” or “Manuals”) and other worksheets and materials which are made available either in hard copy or electronically; all of which may be changed, improved and further developed by us periodically (collectively referred to as the “System”).

The System is identified by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, slogans, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin, including the design and word mark “Access Garage Doors®” which is registered on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”), bearing the registration number 6197951. The word mark “Access Garage Doors®” is registered on the Principal Register of the USPTO, bearing the registration number 6197950. The word mark “Access Garage Doors ‘Garage Doors. . . It’s What We Do.’” is registered on the Principal Register of the USPTO, bearing the registration number 6670478. Other Trademarks and Copyrights such as “Don’t Stress. Call Access” are identified and described in Items 13 and 14 of this Disclosure Document. You will be licensed to use not only these marks and designs, but also all other service marks, trademarks, slogans, logos and emblems as we may designate for use in connection with the System (collectively, the “Marks” and each a “Mark”).

You should consider the following when establishing and operating your Business: changing market conditions, competition, cost of products and services, sales tax, real estate market, capital, labor, your own health, continuity of your management, continuation of sources of supply, availability of financing, recession or depression locally or nationally, wars, strikes, acts of terrorism, emergencies whether natural or manmade, litigation, liability and casualty losses. The purchase of an Access Garage Doors® (or any other) franchise is speculative, and a significant investment beyond that outlined in this Disclosure Document may be required to succeed. There are no guarantees for success and the most important factors in the success of any Access Garage Doors® franchise, including yours, are your personal business, marketing, management, judgment, other skills and your willingness and commitment to work hard and diligently in your Business and incorporating our System.

General Market and Competition:

Competition includes national and local businesses that sell garage door systems and parts and/or offer installation services operated by national chains, local chains, independent operators and to some extent manufacturers, distributors, home improvement stores and/or online selling products and offering services similar to those found in an Access Garage Doors® business. Your customers are typically residential property owners seeking to replace, upgrade or repair their garage door system. Generally, there is no seasonality to this business. There is a demand for garage door replacement, upgrade and repair services throughout the United States as the market is growing, changing and evolving. We believe that our competitive position in the marketplace is attributed to our wide selection of garage door products and solutions enhanced by our services and operational format places Access Garage Doors® businesses in a unique class of its own.

Laws and Regulations:

In addition to laws and regulations that apply to businesses generally, currently there are no specific federal regulations governing the sale, repair and installation of garage door products and systems that apply to your Business. You are responsible for checking the laws of the state, and local government in which you intend to conduct business to determine if you are required to obtain any permits or if there are any licensing or registration requirements and other statutes, codes, rules, regulations or ordinances specific to your Business or necessary for you to perform services. Some states may require you to have a local contractor’s license which may include bonding requirements. You understand that it is your responsibility to ensure that you, any Owners, employees and independent contractors (if you choose to hire independent contractors) or anyone performing services has obtained any licenses or certifications as required by your state. You are responsible for knowing all laws, regulations and bonding requirements and for obtaining all certifications, licenses, permits and bonds required by your locality.

In addition to laws and regulations that apply to businesses generally, there are consumer protection laws that exist in several states. Certain requirements, including compliance with federal and/or state solicitation, telemarketing (for example, the “do not call” registry), email solicitation, privacy and consumer credit and collection laws are generally applicable to all businesses that sell directly to the end-user. You must comply with all local, state and federal laws that apply to your Business and to the public. Those laws include Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”), Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”), occupational hazards and health, including the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (“OSHA”), pricing laws and employment laws. Such employment laws include regulations concerning wage rates, mandated employee benefits, employment taxes, worker safety, unemployment compensation, workers’ compensation, child labor practices, disabled employees and discrimination in employment practices. There are also many state and local laws and regulations detailing how to define independent contractors for different purposes, such as tax, effect of applicable employment laws, unemployment compensation and workers’ compensation that you are responsible for knowing. You will be subject to the Americans with Disabilities Act which prohibits practices that discriminate against physically and mentally challenged individuals regarding access to public accommodations and employment opportunities. There may be other laws and codes applicable to your business and we urge you to make further inquiries about those laws and codes.

It is your sole responsibility, to investigate, satisfy and remain in compliance with all local, state and federal laws and regulations in addition to obtaining and keeping in force all necessary certifications, licenses, permits and registrations required by public authorities, since they vary from place to place and can change over time. You must know all laws and regulations in your locality and must make sure that you and all your employees who work in your Business comply with such laws and regulations as well as obtain any certifications, licenses, permits or registrations required by your locality for performing work in your Business. You should consider both their effect on your Business and the cost of compliance. Although we monitor legal requirements that affect our franchisees and we make our information available to you, because of the number of potential state and local issues we cannot guarantee that it will be complete, current and accurate. Therefore, we recommend that you consult with your attorney and/or tax advisor for an understanding of all the laws and regulations applicable to your specific Business and in complying with them.

We have not offered franchises in other lines of business in the past. We do not engage in any business other than the offer of franchises.

Note 1: Gross Revenue is defined in the Franchise Agreement as the gross amount, in money or other forms of consideration, that you earn or receive from any source-related to, or in connection with, the operation of your Franchised Business or with this Franchise, whether on or off your premises. Gross Revenue also includes fair market value for any product or service you receive in barter or exchange for your services or products, the retail value of any discounted and/or complementary (free) services or products given or provided to customers and all insurance proceeds that you receive for the loss of the Business due to a casualty to or similar event at the Business. We exclude only gratuities paid by customers to employees of the Business, service fees for credit card transactions, sales tax receipts that you must by law collect or pay and any reasonable customer refunds of previous payments you actually make in good faith.

The royalty obligation begins immediately once your Business is open for operation and continues for the term of your Franchise. Your Business is deemed open for operation immediately after you complete the initial training program. The royalty is due and payable monthly on the 10th day of per calendar month based on your Royalty Month for the entire term of your Franchise Agreement (see chart below) and is to be received how we specify. The term “Royalty Month” shall be defined as starting the calendar month in which you complete the initial training program and is used as the baseline for each calendar month thereafter. If your Franchise Agreement is terminated, you may be required to continue such royalty payments for the term of your Franchise Agreement.

Royalty Month:	Your Royalty Payment Will Be:
Months 1-12	The greater of 4% of your Gross Revenues or $500 monthly
Months 13-24	The greater of 4.5% of your Gross Revenues or $1,000 monthly
Month 25 through the remainder of your Franchise Agreement	The greater of 5% of your Gross Revenues or $2,000 monthly

Royalty Fees must be paid by direct deposit from Franchisee's account to us, and all Royalty Fees are imposed by us only. See Direct Deposit Agreement attached as Schedule 1 of the Franchise Agreement. We reserve the right to change the time and manner of payment upon written notice to you. All Royalty Fees are non-refundable. All Royalty Fees are uniformly imposed.

Note 2: You will pay us a System Advertising Fee contribution equal to ½% of Gross Revenues per calendar month as defined in the Franchise Agreement. The System Advertising Fee is collected by us and all System Advertising Fees are non-refundable. The payment of the System Advertising Fee begins immediately once your Business deemed open for operation (as defined in Note 1) and is due on the 10th day of each month, then continues for the term of the Franchise Agreement. We may raise, discontinue, or reduce the contribution, but your total contribution will not exceed 3% per month of your Gross Revenues in any calendar year. Gross Revenue is defined in the Franchise Agreement and in Note 1 above. You pay the System Advertising Fee contribution at the same time and under the same terms as the Royalty Fee described above. System Advertising Fees are uniformly imposed on all franchisees.

We will place the System Advertising Fee contribution in a separate bank account. We may use this fund for marketing, local, regional, national, or international advertising, public relations, promotions, surveys, test marketing, research and development administration (including all related expenses such as our salaries, accounting, collection, legal, and other costs), and any media costs (including media production costs). We make the expenditures at our discretion. We do not represent that any particular level of expenditure will be made for particular programs or to benefit particular franchisees or franchised locations. We are not required to spend any amount on advertising in the area where you are located. We will not spend advertising funds from this account for activities that are principally a solicitation for the sale of franchises. There is no fiduciary relationship between us and you concerning any System Advertising Fee contribution. System Advertising Fees must be paid by direct deposit from Franchisee's account to us. All System Advertising Fees are payable only to us and collected only by us. System Advertising Fees are uniformly imposed on all franchisees. System Advertising Fees are non-refundable.

Note 3: Interest and late charges begin to accrue from the due date of payment. You must also pay any damages, expenses, collection costs and reasonable attorney fees we incur when you do not make the required payments, provided no interest shall exceed the maximum legal rate. All interest and late charges are: payable only to us, uniformly imposed and non-refundable.

Note 4: You must protect, defend, indemnify and hold us harmless against any claims, lawsuits or losses arising out of your operation of the Franchised Business. If you default under the Franchise Agreement and we engage an attorney for collection or enforcement, you must pay all our damages, legal fees and costs to the extent permitted by law. All indemnification costs are payable only to us and collected only by us. Indemnification costs will vary depending on the amount of damages, and attorneys' fees that we incur to collect any amounts due and owing by you according to the Franchise Agreement or enforce the Franchise Agreement. Indemnification costs are non-refundable (Franchise Agreement Section XVIII).

Note 5: We, our affiliates and/or our approved vendors will complete all changes, updates and promotions to your website. Any requests for changes or updates to the content of your website and/or any type of website promotion you wish to do must be approved by us in writing and performed by us, our affiliates and/or our approved vendors. We will respond to you in writing within thirty (30) days of our receipt of your request for all website changes. The website maintenance and promotion fee is currently $65-$125 per hour and is payable to us, our affiliates, or our approved vendors. We will provide you with one hour of website editing monthly without charge. The hourly fee noted above applies to all times. We may change our website maintenance and promotion fee requirement upon ninety (90) days' notice to you and you will be required to adhere to our new website maintenance and promotion fee requirements at your own expense. The fees may be changed in response to any increase in the United States Consumer Price Index, if we choose to offer additional features, if we choose to provide additional web pages or if we believe that conditions in the overall economy or in the market for services warrant any change in fees. Website maintenance and promotion fees are non-refundable and are uniformly imposed and collected only by us, our affiliates, or our approved vendors (Franchise Agreement Section X.E).

Your initial franchise fee includes the issuance of up to three e-mail addresses at no additional cost. You will be charged our cost for any additional e-mail addresses requested beyond the first three (Franchise Agreement Sections IX.A and X.E).

Note 5a: We currently mandate that you use our designated vendor for operations software. Neither we nor our affiliates have any ownership interest in the operations software vendor. Currently, the monthly fee is $299, plus tax. The monthly cost permits franchisees unlimited users. This fee is subject to change. (Franchise Agreement Section X.H).

Note 6: You will be required to obtain our written approval for any product, piece of equipment, vendor and/or supplier that you wish to use or sell in the operation of your Business (as described in Item 8) and you will be responsible for paying us an assessment fee. This fee is $100 for any single product, vendor and/or supplier you wish to use, sell and/or substitute in your Business. The fee for equipment testing is a minimum of $300 per piece or the actual cost incurred by us. We may waive these fees if the products, equipment, vendors and/or suppliers you select meet our requirements and are added to our approved list of products, equipment, vendors and/or suppliers for all franchise locations. All product, equipment and vendor assessment fees are payable only to us, are non-refundable and are uniformly imposed (Franchise Agreement Section X.F).

Note 1: You must purchase computers or laptops, tablets, software, router, modem, printers, mobile phones and a telephone system for the operation of your Business as specified in the operations manual. The low end of the estimate represents using a computer or laptop, software router, modem, printer and phone from your home, with the exception of having to purchase some software. The high end represents current costs for: one computer or laptop, one tablet, software, merchant service equipment, one printer combination machine, modem, routers, one mobile phone, one multi-line phone system and one sound system if you choose to operate out of a location. You use and must purchase only approved technology items that meet our specifications, which may change from time to time and such items must be purchased through us, our affiliates and/or vendors or suppliers approved by us. All such items may not be refundable depending on the terms of the invoice or purchase agreement (Franchise Agreement Sections XII.H, XII.I and XX.I). We require you to purchase operations software and service from our approved vendor. The current monthly cost is $299, plus tax. The monthly cost permits franchisees unlimited users. (Franchise Agreement Section X.H).

Note 2: This is an estimate for equipment, furniture and fixtures we would expect you to need in order to operate your Business. The equipment you will need for the operation of your Business includes: electric hammer drills, electric impact drills, air compressor, air guns, different electric powered saws (such as: skill saws, sawzalls, miter saws, etc.), angle cutters and various size ladders. The furnishings and fixtures necessary to operate your Business includes but is not limited to: desks, chairs, display systems and filing cabinets. The estimate provided for the low end takes into account that you purchase the equipment listed above and are able to use your existing furnishings and fixtures. The high estimate takes into account you operate your Business out of a small industrial or retail space of approximately 1,000 square feet and purchasing all new equipment, furnishings and fixtures. We base our estimates on the costs that our affiliates incurred when setting up their company-owned locations. You must purchase all equipment, furniture and fixtures that meet our specifications, which may change from time to time. You must purchase all equipment, furniture and fixtures directly from us, our affiliates or approved vendors and suppliers. If applicable, you must also pay state and local sales tax on purchases of equipment, furnishings and fixtures. The sales taxes may range from 3% to 10% of the purchase price and are not included in these estimates. Expenses for equipment, furniture and fixtures do not include shipping or delivery costs and may not be refundable depending on the terms of the invoice or purchase agreement.

Note 3: You can choose to operate your Business out of your home or out of a location (such as a small industrial or retail space with a showroom). The low estimate represents a home-based business and the high end of this estimate represents leasing a small industrial or retail space with 1,000 square foot at approximately $1.35 per square foot (cost per square foot will depend on your geographic area). The high end estimate also includes first month's rent and a security deposit. We do not expect that you lease a retail space with high visibility for your Business however if you do so, upon our approval, your real estate expenses will be significantly higher than the above estimate. Real estate costs will also depend on location, size, visibility, economic conditions, accessibility and competitive market conditions. These sums do not include common area maintenance fees, which if applicable, will vary depending on your location or any sums for the purchase of real property, as we do not expect that you will buy real property. We base our estimate on the costs that our affiliates incur in operating their respective company-owned locations. You may be able to reduce this expense if you are able to occupy a space in an existing location that compliments another business. The space must be enclosed and separate from other businesses with its own locking door. Lease payments for periods of time that you occupy your premises may not be refundable. In the event you leave your leased premises before the termination of your lease, you may owe the landlord payment for the entire lease term depending on the terms and conditions of your lease (Franchise Agreement Sections XII.S, XII.T and XX.C).

Note 4: If operating out of your home, we expect that you will not need any leasehold improvements. If you choose to lease a space, we suggest you find a space needing minimal leasehold improvements. When you choose to operate your Business out of a location, in most cases you may not need to alter the interior of your Business before you open for operation. A typical Access Garage Doors® business located in an industrial or retail space has a showroom, one large storage/work area and a unisex bathroom. Leasehold improvement costs will vary widely and may be significantly higher than what is projected in the table above depending on factors such as whether the space you are leasing has proper electricity and plumbing and/or if the space needs to be divided into different work areas. The high end of the estimate reflecting leasehold improvement costs when operating out of an industrial or retail space, however, does not reflect the potential need to add bathrooms, fire sprinklers, fire alarms and add or modify an HVAC system that entail mechanical, electrical and plumbing costs. We base our leasehold improvement estimates (if not operating a home-based business) on the costs that our affiliates incurred when building out their company-owned locations. In addition, we assume that your landlord will provide connections to adequate electrical, gas, water and sewage service and your landlord may provide tenant improvement allowances. You should investigate all these costs in the area in which you wish to establish an Access Garage Doors® Business. We will provide you with standard layouts and design options for your Business; however, it is your responsibility to hire an architect (if necessary) to create a complete set of drawings based on the size of your facility and local permitting requirements. Architect and permitting costs are not included in this estimate. You may incur greater or lesser leasehold improvement costs depending on your ability to negotiate leasehold improvements with your landlord. Whether or not any leasehold improvement expenses are refundable depend on the terms and conditions of your contracts with construction and mechanical contractors, as well as your lease agreement (Franchise Agreement Section XII.S and XII.T).

Note 5: You must purchase a variety of products and supplies for the general operation of your Business as specified in the Operations Manual. You must purchase only approved products and supplies, and you must purchase such items that meet our specifications, which may change from time to time. The types of products and supplies include, but is not limited to: various hand tools (such as: hammers, cutting tools, screw drivers, tape measures, wire snippers, etc.), buckets, extension cords, yard signs, lubricants, solvents, garage door parts (such as: tracks, hinges, seals, rollers, different size chain rails and springs, etc.), garage door automation parts (such as keypads, remotes, logic boards, etc.), supplies (such as: bolts, screws, staples, hoses, clamps, etc.), shop cloths, personal protection equipment (such as: gloves, goggles, safety vests, etc.), fire extinguisher, a first aid kit, cleaning supplies, general office supplies in addition to brochures, flyers, miscellaneous forms, presentation folders and other products or supplies as specified by us. Regardless of how you operate your Business (whether from home or out of a location) you will have to purchase an inventory of products and supplies however if operating out of your home there is no need to purchase and inventory of garage door systems, motors and parts because such items are expected to be purchased on an as-needed basis. The high-end estimate takes into account operating out of a small industrial or retail space and having an inventory of garage door systems, motors and parts (purchasing only limited garage door systems or motors when starting your Business because all such items can be purchased on an as-needed basis moving forward). Your initial inventory of products and supplies will vary depending on whether you operate from home and if operating out of a small industrial or retail space then according to the size of your space, availability of products, your decisions regarding the appropriate mix of products for your market, anticipated sales volume and current market prices. You must purchase products and supplies that meet our specifications, which may change from time to time. We will provide you with written lists of approved products and supplies during training. All products and supplies must be purchased through us, our affiliates or approved vendors and/or suppliers, except all marketing and promotional materials and miscellaneous forms must be purchased directly from us. Whether or not any of the purchases for products and supplies are refundable depends on the terms of the invoice or purchase agreement with suppliers (Franchise Agreement Sections XII.I and XX.I).

Note 6: You must have a reliable white, black or red colored long bed truck with bed boxes and a ladder rack or a van with a ladder rack (“Vehicle”) for your Business to transport equipment, products, supplies and service customers. You can use or purchase any type of used or new Vehicle for your Business. However, we require that your Vehicles meet our appearance standards. We will provide you with a written list of Vehicle appearance standards during your initial training program. For the low end, the estimate is taking into account that you may be able to use your existing Vehicle so long as such Vehicle meets our color and appearance standards. For the high end, the estimate is an estimated down payment for purchasing a used or new Vehicle which is approximately $10,000 per Vehicle. Your costs for a new Vehicle may be reduced if you choose to lease rather than purchase. The purchase agreement price will vary from dealer to dealer, and the terms of your loan, including the interest rate and term, may vary depending on your credit worthiness, changes in credit markets and other factors which are not under our control. We cannot give you any guarantees or make any representations as to the terms, conditions or otherwise of any financing for your Vehicle. You may elect to purchase additional Vehicles to keep up with the growth of your Business. Whether or not payments made for the purchase of your Vehicle are refundable depends on the terms and conditions offered by your dealer (Franchise Agreement Sections XII.H, XII.U and XX.H).

Note 7: You must place our approved graphics on your Vehicle and we will provide you with specifications for all vehicle graphics during the training program. Whether or not payments made for vehicle graphics are refundable depends on the terms and conditions offered by the vendor (Franchise Agreement Sections XII.U and XX.H).

Note 8: You must purchase and maintain an inventory of approved uniforms for the operation of your Business. All uniforms must meet our specifications, which may change from time to time. You will need a minimum inventory of t-shirts for your technicians and polo shirts for your salespeople that incorporate our logo for your first month of operation. The number of t-shirts and polo shirts you will need will vary depending upon the number employees you hire. You are required to purchase all t-shirts and polo shirts either from us, our affiliates or our approved vendors. This estimate does not include any shipping costs which (if applicable) are your responsibility. Expenses for uniforms may not be refundable depending on the terms of your invoice or the purchase agreement (Franchise Agreement Sections XII.F, XII.I, XX.H and XX.I).

Note 9: This estimated amount represents your first year of pre-paid insurance premiums that does not take into account workers’ compensation insurance which may vary greatly by state, payroll and classification. You must obtain and keep general liability and product liability insurance (covers you for damages that result in injury from products that you distribute) with a minimum policy limit of $1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 aggregate or in amounts as we may require that reflects inflation, identification of new risks, changes in law or other relevant changes in circumstances. You must obtain All Risk property insurance that covers the assets of the Business, business interruption insurance and automotive liability insurance that includes hired and non-owned coverage with a minimum policy limit of $500,000 including uninsured motorist/minimum of $100,000 or what is in accordance with your state guidelines or an amount we reasonably specify. Due to varying factors that affect the cost of workers compensation and auto insurance, the cost of workers compensation and auto insurance is not included in this estimate. We may change insurance requirements on reasonable notice to you. Whether or not insurance premiums are refundable depend on the terms of your insurance policies. In general, the cost of insurance coverage will vary depending on the carrier's charges, terms of payment and your claims history (Franchise Agreement Section XIII).

You may need other insurance such as tenant's liability, statutory workers' compensation insurance (if applicable), employer's liability insurance with minimum policy limits of $1,000,000 or an amount we reasonably specify, professional liability insurance (covers you for damages that you create that do not result in property or bodily injury), employee dishonesty insurance, employment practices liability insurance and property insurance are optional however we may require you to obtain this coverage in the future with liability limits of amounts we specify. We may change these insurance requirements on reasonable notice to you. There are no other insurance requirements. Whether or not any insurance premiums are refundable depends on the terms and conditions of your insurance policies.

Note 10: Competitive conditions described in Item 1 will affect these costs. Estimate includes minimum working capital for the start-up of your Business. This also includes estimates of miscellaneous start-up costs such as: rent for an additional two months (not applicable if operating out of your home, however if you are leasing a space your first months' rent is already included in the high estimate above), purchasing additional equipment, product and supplies; shipping and delivery expenses, fuel expenses, Vehicle maintenance, workers compensation insurance payments, taxes, prepaid expenses, additional permits, legal fees, accounting fees and other miscellaneous costs.

Note 11: The Initial Franchise Fee is $20,000 for a defined territory which includes a self-study program, initial training and website setup with access to our intranet portal. This is non-refundable.

Note 12: The utility costs will vary due to policies of local utilities and this estimate includes a utility deposit. The low end reflects operating a home-based business in which there will be no utility deposit required.

Note 13: The estimated cost for interior and exterior signage may vary. We specify and provide you with guidelines in the operations manual. All signage expenses are non-refundable.

Note 14: You must have a minimum of one full-time salesperson and will need to hire part-time technicians. Some franchisees may also need to hire an operations manager. The low end of the estimate takes into account that you are the salesperson and the technician, and you are the operations manager. The high end of the estimate takes into account you hire two part time technicians and you are the salesperson and operations manager.

Note 15: Training is held at corporate headquarters. You are responsible for all costs associated with attending such as travel, room and board. Estimate provided is for one person. Additional training is available at your request for which an additional training fee of up to the lesser of $150 per hour per person per day or $500 per person per day plus any third-party charges may be required.

Note 16: Licenses may be required to operate your Business, and you may incur professional, legal and accounting fees associated with these licenses.

Total Estimated Initial Investment. The total estimated initial investment is an estimate only of the range of start-up expenses you may incur. We relied on our principals' combined expertise when preparing these figures. The actual amount of funds you will need depends on a variety of factors, including: the size of your facility, if you choose to lease a space rather than operate home-based,, amount of leasehold improvements you have to make to your facility (if applicable), the time of year when you start your Business; the amount of products and supplies you purchase, if you purchase additional equipment, furniture or fixtures; if you purchase a used or new Vehicle; the number of employees you hire, prevailing wage rates, implementation of a marketing plan, your own management skill, economic conditions, competition in your area and other factors. The estimate of initial investment funds is based on owner-operated business incorporating operations in your home or out of a small industrial or retail space and does not include salaries or benefits for full-time employees.

These figures are just estimates, and we cannot guarantee that you will not have higher costs. Competitive conditions described in Item 1 will affect these costs. This estimate of startup costs is calculated for a period of one month (except as stated otherwise), with additional operating capital to be available as may be needed during the initial phase. These costs do not include your Royalty Fee payments and System Advertising Fee payments, which begin immediately once your Business is deemed open for operation (as described in Item 6). Royalty Fee and System Advertising Fee payments should be included in your projections of overall operations costs beginning with your first month of operation. We acknowledge that you may choose to invest additional funds into your Business during the first three months of operation, and sometimes longer, but we cannot estimate or promise when, or whether, you will achieve positive cash flow or profits. These amounts are estimates only and specific amounts will vary with local market conditions, which are outside our control. You should review the figures carefully with a business advisor and identify your individual expenses along with cash flow projections before making any decision to buy the franchise.

We do not offer financing, directly or indirectly, for any part of the initial investment for a Franchise. The availability and terms of third-party financing will depend on factors such as the availability of financing generally, your creditworthiness, collateral you may have, and the lending policies of financial institutions. The estimate does not include any finance charges, interest, or debt service obligation, or your living expenses. You should have sufficient capital or other means to pay for your living expenses for at least twelve months.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

We may offer or designate others to offer equipment, products, supplies or services, and we may become approved suppliers or the only approved supplier(s) for these and other products, equipment and services. The equipment, products, supplies or services include: equipment (such as electric hammer drills, electric impact drills, air compressor, air guns and different electric powered saws as described in Item 7), furniture and fixtures, technology items (such as computer, laptops, printers, modems, operations software, etc.), products (such as: various hand tools, lubricants, solvents, garage door parts, etc. as described in Item 7), privately labeled products (which are products developed by a third-party vendor and carry our brand such as our lubricants), supplies (such as: hardware, hoses, clamps, cleaning supplies, office supplies etc.), software, uniforms, Vehicle, signage (including vehicle graphics), promotional and printed marketing materials, call stickers, yard signs, rack cards, merchant service providers, technology support providers, shows and event marketing opportunities and vendor, co-branding, affinity programs. You cannot purchase unapproved equipment, products, supplies and services from any vendors and/or suppliers that are not on our pre-approved list without our written permission. We will provide you with: a written list of approved equipment, product and supplies you can use and offer for sale in your Business; recommended procedures and strategies when purchasing such items for your Business; and a written list of approved vendors and/or suppliers to purchase equipment, products, supplies and services from during our initial training program. Currently we are not the only approved supplier of any equipment, products or supplies that you are required to use for the operation of your Business, except call stickers, yard signs, rack cards, and other onsite marketing materials. You must purchase all advertising, marketing and promotional materials and miscellaneous forms from us or our affiliates. As of the Effective Date of this Disclosure Document, all updates to such promotional and marketing materials are optional, but we may in the future mandate that you purchase certain updates at your expense. We do not require you to maintain a specified inventory of equipment, products or supplies to operate your Business, although we retain our rights to do so in the future. If we develop proprietary equipment, software or additional products in the future, you must purchase such items from our approved suppliers, affiliates or us. We may become approved suppliers or the only approved supplier(s) for other equipment, products, supplies and services. We have negotiated purchase agreements with vendors on the approved suppliers list for your benefit in the areas of cost and customer support. There are no supply contracts at this time. None of our officers or directors owns any interest in any vendor or supplier other than us.

You are required to adhere to the standards and specifications established periodically by us with respect to your Business, equipment, products and services used, sold and offered; operational procedures, cleanliness standards, uniforms, your website, Vehicle appearance, vehicle graphics, advertising, vendors and suppliers used in the operation of your Business. You must operate the Business in strict conformity with the methods, standards and specifications that we prescribe in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing. You must maintain in sufficient supply, use, sell and offer at all times only the equipment, products and services that meet our standards and specifications which may be amended by us periodically. All equipment, products and services must be purchased, used, sold and offered in accordance with the standards and specifications as specified in the Operations Manual or other written materials. You must not deviate from these standards and specifications by using non-conforming equipment and/or selling or offering non-conforming products or services, without obtaining our prior written consent. You are not permitted to: use any equipment, products, supplies or services of an unapproved vendor; purchase equipment, products and supplies from an unapproved supplier; or sell and/or use any other products or services or items not approved by us, unless you first submit a written request to us for approval and agree to be responsible for all product, vendor and equipment testing fees as described in Item 6. We will use our best efforts to advise you within 30 days whether such equipment, products, supplies, vendors or suppliers are approved as further described in Item 8 below.

We base our specifications for equipment, products, supplies, vendor and supplier approvals on our discretionary determination of demand, relevance to the System, price, value, quality, reliability, accuracy of product claims, safety, installation requirements, warranty, prompt attention to complaints, financial stability, litigation against supplier, recall history, reputation, frequency of delivery, appearance and contributions or other benefits to us and/or any marketing fund. A list of approved vendors and suppliers from whom all equipment, products, supplies and services may be purchased from will be provided to you and may be amended by us periodically. We may require vendors and/or suppliers to provide certain information, sign a nondisclosure agreement, and agree to guarantee our level of quality and produce sufficient samples to allow us to test the sample at your expense. We may require you to submit to us sufficient specifications, photographs, drawings or other information and samples to determine whether the items meet our specifications. We may require third party testing, in which case you will pay the actual cost of the tests in addition to the product, vendor and equipment testing fee as described in Item 6. We may issue specifications in manuals or directives, in writing or orally, and we may modify them at any time. Our response to an adequate request to approve equipment, products, supplies, vendors and/or suppliers will be made within 30 days after we receive it in writing or by email. Approval may be revoked in our sole discretion where an approved piece of equipment, product, supply, vendor or supplier does not adhere to the specifications described above. We will notify you either by email or any other written form of communication of our approval, disapproval of or revocation of any prior approval of any product, supply, equipment, vendor or supplier.

You must purchase and use only the equipment, products and services that we specify in writing which may be amended or modified by us periodically. If any piece of equipment, product, service, vendor or supplier is not authorized by us, you are prohibited from using, selling or using it in your Business. You are not required to maintain a minimum inventory of equipment or products in your Business. If we require you to maintain a minimum inventory of equipment or products, we will notify you by email or any other form of written communication. You will be given 90 days to comply with such requirements at your costs. We will provide you with a written list of: approved equipment, products and services you are authorized to use, sell and/or use in your Business after signing the Franchise Agreement and during the initial training program. We will enforce these limitations by using “secret shoppers” or unannounced on-site visits to your Business on a regular basis. When we make visits to your Business, such as to assist you, we may also take that opportunity to visibly inspect your inventory and determine if unauthorized equipment or products are being used or sold or unauthorized services are being offered and/or performed. In addition, we expect to receive information from other Access Garage Doors® businesses or customers reporting that unauthorized equipment, products or services are being used, sold, offered or performed in your Business. You must permit us or our agents, at any reasonable time, to remove any product or piece of equipment from your Business free of charge for testing by us or by an independent laboratory, to determine whether such items meet our then-current standards and specifications. Besides any other remedies we may have, we may require you to pay for the testing, as described above, if we have not previously approved the supplier of the item or if the product or piece of equipment fails to conform to our specifications. We reserve the right to take whatever action we deem necessary in our absolute and sole discretion to prevent you from using, selling, offering or performing unauthorized equipment, products or services, including seeking injunctive relief or terminating your Franchise Agreement.

We may derive profit through markups of the prices charged to you for equipment, products, supplies, or services (as described above) we supply. We may derive revenue through license fees, commissions, promotional fees, advertising allowances, rebates or other monies paid by approved suppliers. If we require you to buy such items from us, we believe that the price and quality will be comparable to similar equipment and products from other sources. We may take a portion of that revenue to spend on advertising or place in a separate franchise advertising account. If we require you to buy equipment, products, supplies or services from a vendor that pays such allowances, we may spend all such fees on related advertising or place them in the separate franchisee advertising account, described in Item 11 below. If we do not require the purchase, we need not place such fees in a separate account or use them on advertising. We are not required to apply these funds to advertising or place them in a separate franchise advertising account but will use our reasonable discretion in making such decision.

None of our affiliates are approved suppliers of products and services to franchisees. Our total revenue for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2023 was $576,118 of which $0 is attributable to required purchases by franchisees.

To maintain uniform quality standards all equipment, products, services, signage, vehicle graphics, advertising, trademark usage, trade dress, dress code and other products and services you use to operate the Franchised Business must meet our standards and specifications as set forth in our Operations Manual. In addition, you must participate in and cooperate with warranty programs, promotional programs, gift certificate or gift card programs we may establish and follow our requirements and guidelines. We will require you to use specific software, operational forms, contracts, checklists and promotional items; and we may require you to use or contribute to specific merchant service providers, technology support providers, promotional items, vendor discounts, allowances and rebates.

If you choose to operate out of a location (rather than home-based), we maintain specifications for the construction and build out of your Business, leasehold improvements, storage, signage, vehicle graphics and décor to be used for the interior and exterior of your Business. You may not install or permit to be installed on the Business premises any décor items, signage, games, vending machines or other items without our written consent or that do not comply with our specifications. These specifications may include minimum standards for quality, performance, delivery, safety, durability, appearance, size, color, design, material and other characteristics. Some of these specifications are contained in our Operations Manual and others will be set forth in periodic written notices or email notices to our franchisees. In some cases, our specifications may involve confidential and proprietary information regarding the specifications of a piece of equipment and/or product specifications and such detail will only be made available to a supplier who agrees to sign a confidentiality agreement with us. We develop these specifications either through our research and development staff or with a particular manufacturer and these specifications may be modified periodically, through periodic written notices to our franchisees.

One of our primary methods of communication with franchisees is through emails, announcements and/or newsletters we may periodically publish and an intranet system that we will provide to franchisees on our website. You are responsible for knowing all of the information contained in the emails, announcements and/or newsletters and the intranet system and complying with any standards and specifications provided within them. We may establish and change the standards and specifications for the operation of your Business through such emails, announcements or newsletters and intranet system as well as by written notices and emails described above.

All marketing and promotion of your Franchise by you in any medium must be conducted in a professional and dignified manner and must conform to our specified standards and requirements that we prescribe in our Operations Manual. You must submit samples of all advertising or promotional plans and materials (including photographs and videos) that you desire to use to us for approval if such has not been prepared or previously approved by us. You may not use any marketing or promotional materials (including photographs or video presentations) that we have disapproved. This includes any media or website promotion over the Internet to promote your Business. You must submit a request to us for any type of media or website and/or Internet promotion you wish to do in addition to any edits, changes or updates to your website. Internet promotions, edits, changes or updates to your website must be done by us, our affiliates or approved vendors with our consent. We will charge a fee for this approval (as described in Item 6). Upon approval of your request, you may be responsible for any website maintenance cost. Our response to your request for such advertising or promotional plans and materials (including video presentations) and Internet promotions, edits, changes or updates to your website will be made within 30 days after we receive it. We will notify you by email or any other written form of communication of our approval or disapproval. In addition, you must not conduct any advertising without our written permission, in any Social Media such as Yelp, Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, Pinterest and others (currently franchisees are authorized to participate on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Yelp). You must also supervise your employees to assure they do not post any material on the Social Media sites or any internet sites, regarding us or Franchise System whatsoever. We will provide you with our written standards and guidelines for using social networking sites during the initial franchise training program.

For your Business, you must have and/or purchase equipment, technology items, furniture and fixtures, products, supplies, uniforms, signage, a Vehicle and vehicle graphics for the operation of your Business. If you operate out of your home, we expect you to be able to use your existing technology items, furniture and fixtures. Regardless of how you operate your Business you will have to purchase equipment and some products and supplies, however if operating from your home there is no need for you to purchase an inventory of garage door system, motors or parts as such items can be purchased on an as-needed basis. You may also be able to use your existing Vehicle so long as such Vehicle meets our Vehicle appearance standards, otherwise you will need to purchase a new or used Vehicle for your Business. We will provide you with a written list of Vehicle appearance standards (including vehicle graphic specifications) during the initial training program. Vehicle appearance standards are outlined in the Operations Manual and are based on our sole judgment and discretion based on the experience of our company owned businesses. Failure to adhere to our Vehicle appearance standards and vehicle graphic specifications may put you in default under your Franchise Agreement. It is estimated that all of your initial expenditures from us, our affiliates or the vendors that we specify and/or approve that meet our standards and specifications will be approximately 20%-35% of your total initial purchases depending on whether you are operating your Business out of your home or if you choose to operate out of a small industrial or space and whether you choose to purchase a Vehicle. It is anticipated that during the operation of your Business, required purchases from us, our affiliates or the vendors that we specify and approve (not including royalties or labor costs) are estimated to represent approximately 80%-90% of your total monthly purchases in the continuing operation of your Business (depends on quantity of items you initially purchase, the number of customers and/or accounts you have secured and the number of jobs you secure).

We do not provide material benefits (for example renewal or additional franchises) to you based solely on your use of designated or approved sources. We do not belong or require you to belong to any purchasing or distribution cooperatives, although we retain the right to establish them and require your membership therein.

If you decide to open a location for your franchise under a lease (rather than operate from home), per the Franchise Agreement, you must submit the proposed lease to us for approval before it is signed. We have the option to require that the lease (i) be collaterally assigned to us by a collateral assignment agreement in a form and substance reasonably acceptable to us in order to secure performance of your liabilities and obligations to us or (ii) contain the following terms and conditions:

- (1) The lessor must agree that without its further consent, the lease and your right, title and interest under the lease may be assigned by you to our designee or us (provided such assignment shall not relieve you of your obligations under the lease or cause us or our designee to have any obligations or liability under the lease).
- (2) The lessor must provide written notice to us (at the same time it gives such notice to you) of any default by you under the lease, and we must have, after the expiration of the period during which you may cure such default, an additional fifteen (15) days to cure, at our sole option, any such default and, upon the curing of such default, the right to enter upon the leased premises and assume your rights under the lease as if the lease had been assigned by you to us.
- (3) You are required to furnish copies of all insurance policies required by the Franchise Agreement and by the lease to us, or such other evidence of insurance coverage and payment of premiums as we request or permit or under the lease.

Regardless of how you operate your Business, before you begin operating an Access Garage Doors® business, you must obtain the insurance coverage for the Business as specified below. The insurance coverage must be maintained during the term of the Franchise Agreement and provide evidence of insurance to us that insurance has been obtained from a responsible carrier or carriers acceptable to us.

- (1) General Liability Insurance, including broad form contractual liability, broad form property insurance, personal injury, advertising injury, completed operations and fire damage coverage, in the amount of $1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 aggregate;
- (2) Property and casualty insurance that covers you for damages or losses to the Business with a minimum policy limit of $1,000,000 per occurrence or an amount we reasonable specify;
- (3) “All Risks” coverage for the full cost of replacement of the Business premises and all other property in which we may have an interest with no coinsurance clause;
- (4) Automobile liability coverage, including coverage of owned, non-owned and hired vehicles, with coverage in amounts not less than $500,000 for hired and non-owned coverage including uninsured motorist with a minimum of $100,000 limit or what is in accordance with your state guidelines;
- (5) Product Liability Insurance that covers you for damages that result in injury from products that you distribute with a minimum policy limit of $1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 aggregate or an amount we reasonably specify;
- (6) Business Interruption insurance in such amount as will reimburse you for direct or indirect loss of earnings attributed to all perils commonly insured against by prudent business owners (including lost royalties, system advertising and other fees due to us and/or our affiliates), or attributable to prevention of access to the Business, with coverage for a period of interruption of one hundred eighty (180) days and such longer period as we may specify periodically. Business interruption insurance is required with liability limits of amounts we may reasonably specify which will relate to the right to be reimbursed for direct or indirect loss of earnings attributed to all perils commonly insured against by prudent business owners;
- (7) Professional Liability Insurance (optional) that covers you for damages that you create that do not result in property or bodily injury with a minimum policy limit of $500,000 or an amount we reasonably specify;
- (8) Crime insurance (optional) for employee dishonesty in the amount of $10,000 combined single limit;
- (9) Workers’ compensation insurance in amounts provided by applicable law or, if permissible under applicable law, any legally appropriate alternative providing substantially similar compensation to injured workers, subject to the conditions set forth in the Franchise Agreement;
- (10) Employment practices liability insurance (optional) that covers you and your Business against claims made by employees, former employees or potential employees for discrimination, wrongful termination, sexual harassment and other employment related obligations;
- (11) Tenant’s liability insurance;
- (12) Any other Insurance required by the state or locality in which the Business is located and operated, in such amounts as required by statute; and

- (13) Other insurance coverage, as we or the landlord may reasonably require.

With regard to any construction, renovation or remodeling of the Business (if applicable), you may be required to maintain builder’s risk insurance and performance and completion bonds in forms and amounts and written by a carrier or carriers satisfactory to us. All of the policies must name us and our affiliates, as additional insureds and must include a waiver of subrogation in favor of all those parties.

All insurance coverage shall be taken out in your name and shall name us an additional insured and be placed with insurers designated by us or acceptable by us. You must furnish us with certified copies of each of the insurance policies described above no later than when your Business is deemed open for operation (as described in Item 6) or no later than 60 days following the date that the Franchise Agreement is executed (whichever comes first). You must purchase “A” rating insurance policies. Each such policy shall provide that it cannot be canceled without 30 days’ prior written notice to us and that we shall receive at least 30 days’ prior written notice of its expiration or possible earlier termination. You shall promptly refer all claims or potential claims against you or us to each of us and our insurer.

The cost of insurance purchased in accordance with our specifications will represent less than 5% of your total purchases in connection with the establishment of your Business and approximately 2% of your total purchases in connection with the operation of your Business. These percentages do not include workers’ compensation insurance that will vary with the payroll amount and category of employees.

ITEM 11
FRANCHISOR’S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS & TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

Before you open your Business, we will:

- (1) Provide you with written guidelines for site selection. You must on your own initiative and at your own expense, obtain and occupy the site and negotiate the lease for your Business. Whether you choose to operate the Business out of your home or if you choose to open a location (such as a small industrial or retail space), you must select the site for your Business within the protected territory provided in the Franchise Agreement. Currently, we do not generally own the site and lease it back to you; however, we retain the rights in the future to do so. You may not sign a lease for the site (or contract to purchase the premises, if applicable) in which you wish to operate your Business until you have obtained our written acceptance. Additionally, you must not invest any money for the site in which you have not received our written acceptance. We must accept the site if we feel in our total discretion that it meets or exceeds our standards, but our acceptance does not ensure that your Business will be profitable at the accepted location. If we do not accept the site, you will be given a second opportunity to locate a site. If we do not accept the second site, we may terminate the Franchise. The factors that we consider in acceptance of the site include cost, competition, population density, demographics, traffic patterns, freeway access, available parking, neighborhood and physical characteristics of the premises such as size and layout. We evaluate each proposed site and accept, or do not accept, each one on a case-by-case basis and will notify you by email or any other form of written communication of our acceptance or rejection of any proposed site within 30 days after we receive your request (Franchise Agreement, Sections XII.S and XX.C).

Neither we nor any of our employees have special expertise in selecting sites; we make no representations that your Business will be profitable or successful by being located at the accepted site. Any acceptance is intended only to indicate that the proposed site meets our minimum criteria based upon our general business experience.

- (2) Insert the accepted site where you intend to operate your Business in your Franchise Agreement. However, the acceptance of a location and entering it on your Franchise Agreement by us is conditioned upon our determination, in our reasonable judgment, that:
 - (i) The site which you have submitted for the Business is within your allocated territory and is suitable based on criteria we establish periodically; and
 - (ii) You and your Owners are in compliance with the Franchise Agreement.
- (3) Approve your execution of the lease for your Business, if applicable. You must submit the lease to us for our approval at least 10 days before you sign the lease agreement. You must send us a signed copy of the lease within 5 days of both parties signing the lease. We do not offer legal service to you and you should consult your independent legal counsel for a legal review of the lease. The Franchise Agreement does not provide any time period for our approval or disapproval of your lease (Franchise Agreement, Sections XII.S and XX.C).
- (4) Offer you guidance when obtaining licenses, certifications and applying for permits if required by your locality to operate the Business. It is your responsibility to comply with all laws, ordinances and regulations as you are ultimately responsible for obtaining all necessary approvals, certifications, licenses and permits to operate your Business (Franchise Agreement, Sections XII.C, XII.T, and XX.A).
- (5) If you choose to lease a space for your Business, we will inform you of any of our mandatory specifications, architectural and design plans, floor plans, interior and exterior signage, décor, designs and layouts for the Business at the accepted location. We will provide you with guidelines for the design and layout of your Business, and you may need to hire an architect to create a complete set of drawings based on your building size and local permitting requirements. You will be required to confirm that your Business satisfies all state and local zoning ordinances, regulations, fire, health, and building codes. We may, if needed, review your set of drawings. It is your responsibility to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, zoning and building codes for your Business (Franchise Agreement, Section XII.T).
- (6) Provide you with a written list of Vehicle appearance standards (which include our vehicle graphic specifications). You are responsible for the cost of the Vehicle in addition to the purchase, installation and cost of all vehicle graphics. We do not install any graphics on your Vehicles (Franchise Agreement, Sections XII.H, XII.I, XII.U, XX.A and XX.H).
- (7) Provide you with: a written list of approved equipment, products, supplies and services you are authorized to use, sell and offer (as described in Item 8); a written list of approved vendors and suppliers to purchase equipment, products, supplies and services from. We will also train you on strategies for purchasing such items for the operation of your Business. You are responsible for the cost, delivery, installation and maintenance of these items as they are necessary for the operation of your Business. You are required to purchase all items listed above either from us, our affiliates and/or our approved vendors (Franchise Agreement, Sections XII.H, XII.I, XX.A, XX.H, and XX.I).

- (8) Provide you with specifications for all technology items (as described in Item 8) necessary to operate the Business. You are obligated to purchase, use and upgrade all technology items and any third-party software necessary for the operation of your Business. We will deliver the specifications, but not the above items, and you are responsible for purchasing and installing these items (Franchise Agreement Sections XII.H, XII.I, XX.A and XX.H).
- (9) Provide you with recommended guidelines for hiring employees and independent contractors (if you choose to use independent contractors) in addition to general guidance. You are responsible for all day-to-day activities including hiring, training and/or firing your employees and independent contractors. At no time will you, your employees, independent contractors or agents be deemed an employee of ours. You are still responsible for all employees and independent contractors you hire, determining their compensation, determining their benefits, tax withholding social security contribution withholding, medicare withholding, and their behavior during the operation of your Business (Franchise Agreement, Sections IV.B, XII.F, XX.A and XX.E).
- (10) Offer certain training programs designed to assist you and your business management staff in the operation of your Business as further described below. We may provide continuing education to any new manager of your Business. We may require that you, any Owner and any manager(s) of your Business complete supplemental and refresher training programs during the term of the Franchise Agreement.
- (11) Provide you with a self-study program (and related materials) immediately after executing the Franchise Agreement intended to help you prepare for our initial training program. We will provide an initial training program within 60 days after signing the Franchise Agreement, designated to assist you and your management staff in the operation of your Business, at no additional charge. The initial training program is designated for a maximum of three people per Franchise. If more than three people attend the training, we may impose a training fee of the lesser of $150 per hour per person per day or $500 for each day of training plus any third-party charges (Franchise Agreement, Sections IX.A, XII.V and XX.A).

We may furnish to you such guidance and assistance in connection with the operation of your Franchise, as we deem appropriate. Additional guidance and assistance may be made available to you at your written request and in our sole discretion at fees and charges established by us (Franchise Agreement, Sections XX.A, XX.E, XX.J, and XX.K).

- (13) Loan to you during the term of the Franchise Agreement one copy of our confidential Operations Manual, which may include one or more Manuals and other written materials for the operation of an Access Garage Doors® Business, containing mandatory and suggested specifications, standards and operating procedures required by us and information relative to your other obligations under the Franchise Agreement. We have the right to add to, and otherwise modify, the Operations Manual to reflect changes in authorized equipment, products and services you can use, sell and offer as well as changes in equipment and product, specifications, standards and operating procedures of an Access Garage Doors® business. You must keep the Operating Manual confidential and current, and may not copy any part of the Operating Manual. The Operations Manual currently contains 227 pages and the table of contents of the Operations Manual that applies to both the Complementary Model and the Standard Model as of our last fiscal year end is included with this Disclosure Document as Exhibit E (Franchise Agreement, Section XX.G).

- (17) Provide up to three days of either pre-opening or grand opening assistance to you and your staff at your Business. Such assistance will be provided to you as part of our initial franchise training program and at our cost (Franchise Agreement Section XX.A).

During your operation of the Business, we may:

Additional visits are for the purpose of advising you with respect to our: products, service standards, operational and sales matters related to an Access Garage Doors® Business. - (3) Conduct quarterly meetings or an annual convention at such place as shall be designated by us (Franchise Agreement, Section XX.A).
- (4) Establish a franchisee elected peer group whose main purpose is to mentor and support each other.

During your operation of the Business we will:

We will offer assistance, advice, guidance and experience to you to resolve operational problems that you may encounter outside the scope of the Operations Manual (Franchise Agreement, Sections XII.W and XX.A).
- (2) Provide you with updated and approved lists of: equipment, products and services that you are authorized to use, sell and offer in your Business (as described in Item 8); approved vendors and suppliers that you are allowed to purchase such items from; and updated Vehicle appearance standards (including updated vehicle graphic specifications). We will provide you with such specifications and guidelines, but not the actual items as you are responsible for purchasing these items. We will continue to review and approve or disapprove any piece of equipment, product, supply, service, vendor or supplier you wish to use, sell or offer in the operation of your Business (Franchise Agreement, Sections XII.H, XII.I, XX.H and XX.I).
- (3) Provide you with a list of updated minimum inventory requirements (currently not in effect) and you with suggested pricing for products and rates for services. - (7) Offer assistance in establishing and using administrative, record keeping and accounting procedures in accordance with our Operations Manual, and various policies communicated by us to you in writing from time to time (Franchise Agreement, Sections XIV.A and XX.A).

- (8) Provide you with all update and upgrade requirements for your technology items (as described in Item 8) and related software or changes in our policies that are communicated to you in writing. You are required to purchase such items to operate your Business. The costs for such items are approximately $500 to $3,800 (see Item 7). We estimate that the annual cost of technology items and related software and/or hardware upgrades to be approximately $250 per year. If we develop proprietary software in the future, we will provide you with update and upgrade requirements; however, we are not obligated to provide any upgrades to any third-party software programs. We are not obligated to provide maintenance or repairs to any technology item, hardware or software that you use in the operation of your Business. We do not install any software that you purchase or license. We reserve the right to have independent access to all information that you store in any computer, laptop, tablet, phone system or software used for the Business (Franchise Agreement, Sections XII.H, XII.I, XX.A and XX.H).
- (9) Reserve the right at our discretion to institute, maintain, and administer a System Advertising Fund (referred to as the “Fund”) to support the development of ongoing technology, new equipment, products or services to be made available to all franchisees, and such national advertising (including media production costs) as we, in our sole discretion, may deem appropriate to promote Access Garage Doors® name to benefit all franchised businesses as described in Item 6. But, we do not use any monies in the Fund to solicit new franchisees. We will direct all such programs and will have sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials and endorsements and media used in such programs, and the placement or allocation of such programs. The source of the advertising will come from our in-house advertising department or may in the future from a national or local advertising agency. We reserve the right to determine in our sole discretion the composition of all geographic territories and market areas for the implementation and development of such programs. The advertising programs may be either national, regional or local at our sole discretion. We are not obligated to spend a specific dollar amount on advertising in your Territory (Franchise Agreement, Section X.B).
- (i) You will pay us ½ % of Gross Revenues per calendar month for the Fund contribution, paid to us, as designated in the Franchise Agreement. We may raise, discontinue or reduce the contribution, but your total contribution will not exceed 3% of your Gross Revenue per month in any calendar year for the term of the Agreement. Contributions are due by the tenth day of the month (for the prior month) which will start immediately once your Business is deemed open for operation then continues for the term of your franchise (as described in Item 6). Refer to Item 6 for the definition of Gross Revenue.
- (ii) The contributions to the Fund will be accounted for separately from our other funds and will not be used to defray any of our general operating expenses, except for such reasonable salaries, administrative costs, travel expenses and overhead as we may incur in activities related to the administration of the Fund and its programs, including conducting evaluation of new technologies, products, equipment, services, market research, media production costs, preparing advertising, promotion and marketing materials, and collecting and accounting for contributions to the Fund. Usage of the Fund will include ongoing development of the national website and development of new equipment, products, supplies and services to be made available to franchisees. The media in which advertisements may be disseminated include print ads, signs, billboards, internet, radio and television and may be conducted on a regional or national basis. We may spend, on behalf of the Fund, in any fiscal year an amount greater or less than the aggregate contribution of all Access Garage Doors® franchises in that year, and the Fund may borrow from us or others to cover deficits; or invest any surplus for future use.

- (iii) The fund spent 53% of its income on the production of advertisements and other promotional materials, 0% on media placement, 2% on general and administrative expenses and 45% on other expenses.
- (iv) In the future, we may form a franchisee-elected Franchisee Advisory Council or cooperative whose sole purpose is to advise on Fund usage and advertising policies. We retain all operational and decision-making authority concerning advertising and the Franchise Advisory Council will serve only in an advisory capacity. The membership of any Franchise Advisory Council will be national in scope. The Franchise Advisory Council will not be separately incorporated and, therefore, it will not have any written entity organizational documents. If one is formed, we will have the power to select and approve the members and to form, change, dissolve or merge the Franchise Advisory Council as described below.
- (v) Neither we nor any Franchisee Advisory Council undertake any obligation to ensure that expenditures by the Fund in or affecting any geographic area are proportionate or equivalent to contributions to the Fund by franchisees operating in such geographic area or that you or your Business will benefit directly or in proportion to your contribution to the Fund. Neither the Fund nor we shall be liable to you with respect to the maintenance, direction, or administration of the Fund, including without limitation, with respect to contributions, expenditures, investments or borrowings, except for acts constituting willful misconduct. When the Fund is established and activated, all Access Garage Doors® businesses owned by us, or any Owners must contribute to the Fund in the same proportion as all franchisees.
- (vi) Any businesses we own will vote in the same manner as franchisee members. We administer the Fund, which is not audited. If contributions paid into the Fund are not spent in the fiscal year in which they accrue, we can use the remaining amounts for the same purposes in future years. All interest earned on monies contributed to the Fund may be used to pay advertising and technology development costs before other assets of the Fund are expended. Fund contributions are not used to sell additional franchises. We will prepare an annual un-audited statement of monies collected and costs incurred by the Fund and furnish it to you upon written request. All financial statements will be available one hundred twenty (120) days after the end of our fiscal year. We reserve the right not to spend all of the funds in the Fund in any one year and such funds may be accrued into the next year. The Fund has not been established before the date of this Disclosure Document.
- (vii) We expect to receive advertising and promotional allowances and fees from third party vendors and advertisers who enter into cooperative advertising programs with franchisees and us. For example, suppliers may pay promotional allowances for joint advertising promotional material. We may disclose the identity of vendors who pay the promotional allowances to you upon request. In addition, if we require you to buy items from a vendor who pays these allowances, we may place the funds in the Fund or spend it on related promotions. Our obligation to provide advertising and marketing will be limited in cost to the amount of contributions and promotional allowances from third parties actually paid into the Fund.

- (10) We do not now, but may require you to join, participate in and pay into, one or more franchisee marketing councils for your region, determined by the penetration area of local advertising media used (for example, the area of a regional newspaper's circulation). Because we have not yet formed any franchisee marketing councils, we do not know how the area or the membership of any franchisee marketing council will be determined, nor have we determined whether or not any of our company-owned businesses will be contributing to any advertising spent by any franchisee marketing council. In the event that we choose to establish a franchisee marketing council, we will be responsible for administering it. If we do create any franchisee marketing councils, they must operate in accordance with bylaws (or an operating agreement if it is a limited liability company), and the franchisee marketing council will prepare annual financial statements that you can review. We will have the right to form, dissolve, and merge any specific franchisee advisory council. Even though we have not yet formed any franchisee marketing councils, we may require that all franchisees within close proximity to a consumer show, convention or exhibition where health or mobility-related products and services are being sold or offered to participate in the cost and benefit of the event.
- (11) You must spend a minimum of $1,500 per calendar month on local advertising and promotion for your Business, in addition to the ½ % per month System Advertising Fee contribution you pay to us. Your local advertising requirement starts immediately after you complete the initial training program. You must report your local advertising expenditures to us by the tenth day after the end of each month, or at times, on forms, and in a manner we determine.

You will not use any independent advertising or sales promotion programs in any media (including electronic) without our prior review and written approval. We will approve the materials you submit to us within 30 days, if we do not respond within such period all such materials will be deemed automatically disapproved. You will make reasonable efforts to participate in and cooperate with all advertising programs selected by us or by any approved group of franchisees, except that you need not follow or maintain any sales price or suggested pricing. You are responsible for any expenses of this independent advertising.

Unless we approve otherwise in writing, you may not establish a separate Website, and you will only have one Website, as we designate and approve, within our website. The term "Website" includes: anything on the Internet as well as other electronic sites (such as business citations, Google and Bing business listings, social networking sites like Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Pinterest, Yelp, blogs and other applications, etc.). You must comply with our requirements regarding selling, advertising, discussing or disseminating any information, or otherwise having a presence on a Website, regarding the Business. If we approve a separate Website for you (currently franchisees are authorized to participate in Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Yelp), we will provide you with guidelines for establishing and maintaining such Websites and each of the following provisions will apply: (i) you may neither establish nor use any Website without our prior written approval; (ii) before establishing any Website, you must submit to us, for our prior written approval, a sample of the proposed Website, including its domain name, format, visible content (including, without limitation, proposed screen shots), and non-visible content (including meta-tags), in the form and manner we may require and all such work (except for social networking sites) must be performed by us, our affiliates or approved vendors (as described in Item 8); (iii) you must not use or modify a Website (except for social networking sites) without our prior written approval; (iv) you must comply with the standards and specifications for Websites that we may periodically prescribe in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing; (v) if we require, you must establish hyperlinks to our website and other Websites; and (vi) we may revoke our approval at any time by providing written or email notice to you of such revocation.

- (12) Your Business is deemed open for operation the day after completing our initial training program which must be completed within 60 days of signing the Franchise Agreement. Factors that may affect this length of time include: obtaining any licenses, certifications or permits as required by your state to operate your Business (as described in Item 1), securing a location for your Business that is approved by us, negotiation of a lease agreement (if applicable), construction and build-out (if you choose to lease a space rather than operate from home), time of year you open the Business, completion of our initial training program by you (or your Owners) and availability of equipment, products and supplies necessary for you to begin operating your Business. If you choose to open a location (such as a small industrial or retail space) for your Business, you must acquire or lease, at your expense, commercial real estate that is properly zoned for the use of your Business under the Franchise Agreement within the timeframe mentioned above (not applicable if home-based). If opening a location, must submit to us, in the form we specify, a copy of the location plan and other such information or materials we may require, together with an option contract, letter of intent, or other evidence satisfactory to us which confirms your affirmative prospects for obtaining the location. We will have 30 days following receipt of this information and materials from you to approve or disapprove the proposed location of your Business and will notify you of the same by e-mail or other form of written communication. Failure to open your Business for operation within 60 days from signing the Franchise Agreement (as mentioned above) will constitute a default under the Franchise Agreement, for which we may terminate the Franchise Agreement. Such default notice, under which we may terminate the Franchise Agreement, shall be given to you in writing.
- (13) Before the opening of your Franchise, yourself, any Owner and proposed manager you designate are required to attend our ten-day Franchisee training program at our corporate headquarters in Hixson, Tennessee unless headquarters is moved. We maintain a regular calendar for the training program and the trainings are held approximately six to twelve times per year (or more frequent if needed). The training program is included in your Initial Franchise Fee for up to three individuals. You are responsible for all costs associated with attending the program such as travel, room and board.
- (i) If any proposed manager does not satisfactorily complete our training program, we will notify you and you may then select and enroll a substitute manager in our training program. If, during the training program we determine, in our sole discretion, that you (or your managing partner, member or shareholders) are not qualified to manage an Access Garage Doors® Business, you can appoint someone else to be trained at your expense. If that person does not satisfactorily complete our training, we have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement. The criteria that we will use to determine whether or not we deem you (or your managing partner, member or shareholders) qualified to manage an Access Garage Doors® Business includes, but is not limited to, lack business experience, if it is determined that personality makes it difficult for you to obtain customers and/or accounts; or you are unable to obtain the appropriate licenses, permits or certifications to operate an Access Garage Doors® business. We will send you a written termination notice upon our determination of qualification.

- (ii) After the completion of our training program by you and your management team, we can upon your request provide training to any new manager of your Business for which an additional training fee of up to the lesser of $150 per hour per person per day or $500 per person per day plus any third- party charges may be required. The trainee(s) will be responsible for all costs related to attending training such as travel, room and board. In addition, we have the right to require that you (or such managing partner, member or shareholder) and any manager(s) complete supplemental and refresher training programs during the term of the Franchise Agreement, to be furnished at our corporate headquarters (currently in Hixson, Tennessee). There may be an additional cost for a supplemental and refresher training program. You are responsible for all costs associated with attending such training opportunities we may provide for you such as travel, room and board.
- (iii) After the opening of your Business, we will provide to you and your personnel, access to information and support through our intranet system. Support may also be available from our professionals, and we may provide refresher training or continuing education programs either through phone, web based (“webinars”), video or at locations designated by us (most likely at our headquarters). Such refresher or continuing education sessions (other than by phone, webinars or video) may have a registration charge to you which will not exceed more than the lesser of $150 per hour per person per day or $500 per person per day plus our expenses and third-party charges. You are responsible for costs associated with you attending the programs such as travel, room, board and related expenses or our expenses if we come to you. The programs will normally not exceed two (2) days and we expect to have quarterly programs subject to special need. The content will cover particular aspects including but not limited to: new products or services; sales methods; processes, procedures and techniques when performing services; best practices for hiring employees and independent contractors (if you choose to hire independent contractors); service standards, trends in the industry, operational guidelines, safety, website and software developments, advertising, marketing, and administration. We may conduct an annual convention at such place as shall be designated by us for all franchisees but will most likely be at our headquarters. A registration fee for each participant may be required which we will work in good faith to maintain at our cost and you will be responsible for costs associated with attending the convention such as travel, room and board. The registration fee for conferences will not exceed $500 per person. The fees charged above may be increased a reasonable amount based on the increase of actual costs incurred by us.
- (iv) We will immediately schedule our initial training program and you must complete our initial training program within 60 days after signing the Franchise Agreement., We will provide training for you as noted in the following training schedule. This training curriculum is fully detailed in the Operations Manual and will change periodically. Our training team will include directors from our Hixson corporate office, members of our website development team, members from our approved suppliers and service providers.

ITEM 12
TERRITORY

You must operate your single Access Garage Doors® Business within the specific location identified in your Franchise Agreement. You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchises, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands we control. You are awarded a protected territory (“Territory”) of a defined population as much as 600,000 persons which means it may be less than such amount. We reserve the right to grant a territory that is larger or smaller than the population area defined above, in order to account for more densely or sparsely populated areas. We will determine your Territory based on the most recently published data from the U.S. Census Bureau (or other sources as we may indicate to you), for the zip codes listed in the Franchise Agreement. You will have the only Access Garage Doors® Business within your Territory. You can sell products and perform services to anyone who comes from anywhere so long as the products you sell are from your Business and the services you perform are within your Territory and such sales and services do not result in any Target Marketing activities by you (as defined below). You can also conduct business at special events (such as: community events, home shows, trade shows, expos, etc.) to sell products and promote services as long as such events are within your Territory. You may conduct business at special events and perform services in other geographical areas outside your Territory provided there is not another Access Garage Doors® franchise or company owned location in that area only after providing notice to us and after obtaining our written approval. We shall approve or deny your request, which approval is in our sole discretion, within three business days of receipt of your written request and will respond by email or any other form of written communication (as described below). If we approve your request to conduct business at special events or perform services in another geographical area, you must be prepared to immediately refrain from performing services and lose any accounts you have established when that area is purchased and immediately refrain from conducting business at such special events. You can directly market and solicit for customers only within the accepted Territory that has been entered in your Franchise Agreement or made part of by an addendum attached to your Franchise Agreement. You may also sell and ship products to anyone located outside your Territory so long as your sales do not result from any Target Marketing (as defined below) activities by you.

We cannot establish either a company-owned business, franchise nor license another to locate an Access Garage Doors® business within your Territory identified in your Franchise Agreement during the term of the Franchise Agreement.

Your licensed Territory is determined by population, household incomes, demographics of the surrounding area, competition, our own assessment of business potential (such as: number of residential homes, number of multi-family homes, age of residential homes and amount of new construction in the area), market penetration or other conditions important to the successful operation of an Access Garage Doors® Business, as we deem appropriate and as identified in your Franchise Agreement. Your licensed Territory is determined by us once a location is chosen and will not be altered even if there is a population increase or decrease. It will also not be affected by your number of customers, revenue, sales volume or market penetration. Certain locations, such as major metropolitan areas may have smaller protected territories of densely populated areas. Whether you operate out of your home or a small industrial or retail space, we must have consented to the location for the Access Garage Doors® Business within your defined Territory in writing before you begin operating the Business. You have no rights to operate your Business out of any other location other than the location accepted by us (however your salespersons are authorized to operate out of their home office as described below). You may not relocate your Business without our written consent, which we will not unreasonably withhold or delay. We base our approval of your proposed relocation using the same factors used described above.

Establishment of additional Access Garage Doors® Businesses requires our written acceptance. If other geographical areas are unassigned, we have the right to sell or assign it, or part of it, at any time, without notice to you and you might not have the right of first refusal or option to buy the territory that was formally unassigned. You must submit a separate application for each Franchised Business to be established by you. You must pay the fee for each additional acquisition mentioned in Item 5 and must be in compliance with all of the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement. We will evaluate your proposed location of any additional Access Garage Doors® Business based on the criteria mentioned in Items 11 and 12 above.

The Territory described above will affect where you and our other franchisees may solicit business, sell products and promote services. You are encouraged to directly advertise and market for customers within your Territory. You can sell products and provide to anyone from anywhere so long as your sales do not result from any direct solicitation activities by you, the products that you sell are sold and shipped from your Business and/or sold at special events as described below and the services you provide are being performed within your Territory. We, other franchisees and company-owned businesses reserve the same right to sell products to anyone from anywhere and provide services to anyone within its respective territories without compensation to you. If you asked to perform services in geographical areas in which there is another franchise or company-owned business, you must immediately refer that request to the Access Garage Doors® business in that geographical area. If the other franchisee or company-owned business gives you permission to perform such services because it is in the best interest of the person or business, then you can then immediately proceed. If there is not an Access Garage Doors® business in the geographical area in which the person or business wants services then you must submit a request to us asking permission to perform services and upon our written approval you can proceed. We shall approve or deny your request to perform services in other areas not owned by other franchisees or us, which approval is in our sole discretion, within three business days of your written request. Our response to your request will be made by email or any other form of written communication. Approval may be revoked in our sole discretion. However, you must be prepared to immediately refrain from performing services in that other geographical area when that unassigned area is purchased. We and other franchisees must refer persons and businesses who request services and are within your Territory to you and also reserve the same right to provide services to persons or businesses that are within your defined Territory if it is determined to be in the person's or business's best interest. You are prohibited from soliciting and marketing in general to anyone by any means outside of your respective Territory and you must not specifically engage in target marketing ("Target Marketing") within the Territory of another Access Garage Doors® business (franchise and/or a company/affiliate owned business). Target Marketing means a concerted effort by a franchisee to solicit and obtain customers and/or accounts through any type of advertisement or marketing, directed at all or a portion of another franchisee's territory. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to enforce this requirement regarding Target Marketing if you or any other franchisee violates it.

If you asked to conduct business at special events in geographical areas in which there is another franchisee or company owned business, you must refer that request to the Access Garage Doors® business in that geographical area. Whether the other Access Garage Doors® business is a franchise or company-owned business, you must not conduct business at special events in that geographical area unless the other Access Garage Doors® business consents in writing for you to conduct business at such special event. If the other franchise or company-owned business gives you permission to conduct business at such special events, then you must immediately inform us in writing and you can then proceed to conduct business at such special event. If there is not an Access Garage Doors® business in that geographical area, then you must submit a written request to conduct business at such special event to us and upon our written approval you can proceed. We shall approve or deny your request to conduct business at special events in other geographical areas not owned by us, our affiliates or other franchisees, which approval is in our sole discretion, within three business days of your written request. Our response to your request will be made by email or any other form of written communication. Approval may be revoked in our sole discretion. However, you must be prepared to immediately cease conducting such events in that other geographical area when that unassigned area is purchased. We may allow you and other franchisees or company-owned businesses to sell products and promote services through an alternative channel of distribution (such as on the Internet or Websites, but not telemarketing or direct mail as we consider that to be Target Marketing). If you are granted permission to sell products or promote your services through an alternative channel of distribution, per our written approval, you may sell products to anyone without compensation to the other franchisee or company-owned business. However, all products must be sold and shipped from your Business; and all services must be performed within your Territory. We, other franchisees and company-owned businesses reserve the same right to sell and ship products to anyone without compensation to you.

If during the time of the Franchise Agreement, you are unable to promptly and properly provide products or services to any of your customers and/or accounts, you must refer that customer or account to another franchise in the System, company-owned location or to us. If you fail to refer special events or customers and/or accounts as set forth herein, we will have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement. For any default of the Franchise Agreement, as an alternative to termination, we may modify or completely eliminate any rights that you may have with respect to your protected status of the Territory, effective ten (10) days after delivery of written notice to you. In addition, we may modify or completely eliminate the Territory (Franchise Agreement Sections VI, XII.H and XXIII.F).

Your salespersons are authorized to have a home office. A salesperson's home office is defined as a secondary workspace located in a salesperson's principal residence from which the salesperson conducts business and communications. Your salesperson's home office is not considered a Business location or site so long as the salesperson does not advertise the home office in any way as an authorized Access Garage Doors® location and does not meet any customer and/or third party at their home. Your salespersons, unless otherwise approved by us, are prohibited from listing their respective mobile phone number on their business cards, stationery and other business forms. However, your salespersons will be required to have your Business telephone number and your Business address on their business cards, stationery and other business forms as a direct contact so long as such information meets our standards and guidelines.

We encourage all Access Garage Doors® businesses, when owned by different individuals, to work out a referral relationship and an advertising strategy if they are within close proximity of each other (defined as being within a twenty (20) mile radius of each other). We must be notified of all such arrangements.

We have the exclusive right to negotiate and enter into agreements or approve forms of agreements to sell products and perform services to any business or organization which owns, manages, controls or otherwise has responsibility for locations in more than one area whose presence is not confined within any one particular franchisee's territory regardless of the contract amount of products to be provided or services to be performed (a "National Account"). After we sign a contract with a National Account, we may, at our option, provide you the option to provide products or perform services to businesses under the National Account contract. If we choose, or if you choose not to provide products or perform services to the National Account, we may direct the National Account to seek such products and services from another franchisee or company-owned location even if the National Account is located within your Territory without compensation to you.

We reserve the right to issue binding policies to coordinate marketing councils and/or advertising cooperative programs. For example, we may require that all franchisees within close proximity to a home show, consumer show, convention or exhibition where home improvement-related products or services are being offered or sold to participate in the cost and benefit of the show. We intend to direct and coordinate all franchisee Internet advertising. All such programs and policies are our proprietary trade secrets. In such programs, we may require the customer and/or account that is acquired through such programs, to be served by the closest or other franchisee and you will not be charged or receive any type of referral fee.

Any rights not expressly granted to you are reserved to us. Such rights reserved to us include, but are not limited to the right to:

- (1) Advertise, market and sell Access Garage Doors® branded and trademarked products, services and equipment (if we choose to develop equipment in the future) in your Territory;
- (2) Advertise, offer and promote products, services or equipment (if we choose to sell equipment in the future) in an effort to promote the System through the Internet and/or other similar venues no matter where the person is based to fulfill the demand in your Territory;

ITEM 13 TRADEMARKS

Under the Franchise Agreement, we grant you the nonexclusive right to use the Marks in connection with the operation of your Franchise. Our principal trademark is “Access Garage Doors” along with the design, as it appears on the first page of this Disclosure Document. We have the right to use and to license others to use the Marks and under any other trade name, trademarks, service marks and logos currently used or that may hereafter be used in the operation of the Business. You must use the Marks only for the operation of your Franchise and in the manner authorized by us.

The design and word mark “Access Garage Doors®” is registered on the Principal Register of the USPTO bearing the registration number 6197951 dated November 17, 2020 owned by Aaron Jesse Cox and is licensed to us to sublicense to you. The word mark “Access Garage Doors®” is registered on the Principal Register of the USPTO bearing the registration number 6197950 dated November 17, 2020 also owned by Aaron Jesse Cox and licensed to us to sublicense to you. The word mark “Access Garage Doors ‘Garage Doors. . . It’s What We Do.™’” is registered on the Principal Register of the USPTO bearing the registration number 6670478 dated March 15, 2022 also owned by Aaron Jesse Cox and licensed to us to sublicense to you. The word mark “Don’t Stress. Call Access.®” is registered on the Principal Register of the USPTO bearing the registration number 7088512 dated June 20, 2023 also owned by Aaron Jesse Cox and licensed to us to sublicense to you. We also claim common law rights in our trademarks based on our prior use.

There are no presently effective determinations of the USPTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the trademark administrator of any state or any court, nor any other pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceeding or material litigation involving the Marks.

There are no agreements that limit our right to sublicense you the Marks, other than a perpetual, exclusive, non-transferable, worldwide, royalty free license to use, sub-license, and display the Marks from Aaron Jesse Cox pursuant to an intellectual property license agreement. The intellectual property license agreement may be modified or terminated if we fail to follow the operating, merchandising and advertising policies and such other quality standards that are established by Aaron Jesse Cox. In addition, Aaron Jesse Cox has the right to substitute alternative trademarks for license at any time. Therefore, you may have to change the trademarks that you use in operating your franchise business at your expense. The intellectual property agreement will remain in effect for as long as we offer franchises, unless we are in default of the intellectual property license agreement.

Upon termination of the intellectual property license agreement for any reason, we and franchisees must discontinue all use of the Marks in any form, remove the Marks from our website and any of our franchisees websites, modify any and all identification of the Franchised Business with, or reference to, the Marks, and refrain from making any subsequent representation, advertisement or published statement or product sales using or in reference to the Marks, or the business previously conducted using the Marks, and take such action as shall be necessary to change any corporate name, assumed name or equivalent registration which mentions or refers to the Marks, or any mark similar thereto.

You must notify us immediately in writing of any apparent infringement of or challenge to your use of any Marks or claim by any person of any rights in any Mark or any similar trade name, trademark or service mark of which you become aware. We have the sole discretion to take such action as we deem appropriate and the right to exclusively control any litigation, USPTO proceeding or other administrative proceeding.

We are not obligated by the Franchise Agreement to protect any rights granted to you to use the Marks or protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition with respect to them. The Franchise Agreement does not require that we participate in your defense or indemnify you for expenses or damages if you are a party to a judicial or administrative proceeding involving one of the Marks or if the proceeding gets resolved unfavorably to you. Although we are not contractually obligated to protect the Marks of your right to use them, as a matter of corporate policy, we intend to defend the Marks vigorously (Franchise Agreement Section XV.B).

You may not, without our written consent which is in our sole discretion, commence or prosecute, or seek leave to intervene in, any litigation or other proceeding, including any arbitration proceeding, in which you purport to enforce any right or recover any element of damage arising from the use or infringement of any of the Marks or unfair competition.

If it becomes advisable at any time, in our sole discretion, to modify or discontinue use of any Mark, and/or use one or more additional or substitute trademarks or service marks, you must comply with our directions with respect to a reasonable time after notice by us. You, in connection with the use of a new or modified Mark, may be required, at your own expense, to remove existing signs from your Business and to purchase and install new signs including all signage and graphics on your Vehicles in addition to all marketing and advertising materials. We have no liability to you.

There are no infringing uses actually known to us as of the Issuance Date of this Disclosure Document that could materially affect your use of the Marks in the State of Tennessee or in any other state. You should understand that there could be other businesses using trademarks, trade names or other symbols similar to our Marks with superior rights to our rights. Before starting business, you should research this possibility, using telephone directories, trade directories, Internet directories, or otherwise in order to avoid the possibility of having to change your business name.

All your usage of the Marks granted under the Franchise Agreement is nonexclusive, and we retain the right, among others: (a) to use the Marks in connection with selling products and offering services; (b) to grant other licenses for the Marks, in addition to those licenses already granted to existing franchisees; (c) to develop and establish other systems using the same or similar Marks, or any other proprietary marks, and to grant licenses or franchises in those systems without providing any rights to you as described Item 12.

All your usage of the Marks and any goodwill you establish are to our exclusive benefit and you retain no right or rights in the Marks on the termination or expiration of your Franchise Agreement. You may not use the Marks as a part of any corporate or trade name, nor may you use any trade name, trademark, service mark, emblem or logo other than the Marks, as we may designate periodically. You must prominently display the Marks on such items and in the manner we designate. You must obtain such fictitious or assumed name registrations as we require or under applicable law. You must also prominently display in your Business that we are not a joint employer of you and that you are solely responsible for all employment-related decisions and matters. You must identify yourself as the owner of your Franchise by placing your name on the Business and on all Vehicles, checks, invoices, receipts, contracts and other documents that bear any of the Marks, and on all printed materials your name must be followed by the phrase “A franchise of Access Garage Doors®” or such other phrase as we occasionally direct.

ITEM 14 PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

We do not own any registered patents or copyrights or have any pending patent or copyright applications which are material to this Franchise; however, we claim common law trade secret and copyright protection for several aspects of our System, products, services, methods, strategies, techniques, forms and operational procedures; our equipment, product and supply specifications, business procedures, photographs, video presentations, website, our proprietary educational platform, third-party software, design, décor, signage, Vehicle appearance standards and graphics contained on your Vehicle; Operations Manuals, workbooks and all related materials including advertising and promotional materials although such materials may not have been registered with the United States Copyright Office. If we do obtain copyright registration on any of the above materials, we intend to renew our registrations. These materials are considered proprietary and confidential and are considered our property and may be used by you only as provided in your Franchise Agreement. We reserve the right to register any of our copyrighted materials at any time we deem appropriate.

There currently are no effective determinations of the United States Copyright Office or any court regarding any of the copyrighted materials. There are no effective agreements that limit our right to sublicense you the copyrights and trade secrets, other than a sublicense to use the intellectual property for our educational platform that has proprietary training modules and courses (all housed within our intranet system and owned by Aaron Jesse Cox) from Aaron Jesse Cox. The license agreement with Aaron Jesse Cox may be terminated if we fail to follow the quality standards of Aaron Jesse Cox. Our rights to use and sublicense to you our educational platform will be terminated in 90 days, if we fail to follow the operating policies and such other quality standards that are established by Aaron Jesse Cox. Other than as provided in the previous sentence, our agreement with Aaron Jesse Cox can only be terminated in writing, if agreed to by us and both parties. In addition, Aaron Jesse Cox has the right to substitute alternative copyrights and/or other intellectual property for license at any time. Therefore, you may have to change some, most, or all of the copyrights and/or other intellectual property that you use in operating your Franchise Business at your expense. The intellectual property license agreement with Aaron Jesse Cox will remain in effect for as long as we offer franchises, unless we are in default of the intellectual property license agreement.

There are no infringing uses actually known to us, which could materially affect your use of the copyrighted materials in any state. We are not required by any agreement to protect or defend any patent, trade secret, copyright or to participate in your defense or indemnify you.

You must notify us immediately in writing of any apparent infringement of or challenge to your use of our copyrighted materials or trade secrets or claim by any person of any rights in any copyright or trade secret which you become aware. We have the sole discretion to take such action, as we deem appropriate and the right to exclusively control any litigation, United States Copyright Office proceeding or other administrative proceeding. We may require you to discontinue use or modify any materials that may in our opinion infringe on the copyright, trade secret, or patent rights of any other person or business.

If it becomes advisable at any time, in our sole discretion, to modify or discontinue use of any copyrighted materials or trade secrets, and/or use one or more additional or substitute copyrighted materials or trade secrets, you must comply with our directions with respect to such modification, substitution, or discontinuation within a reasonable time after notice by us. We have no liability to you concerning substitution or modification of copyrighted materials or trade secrets.

You and if you are an Entity, then one of your Owners acknowledges that any such new service, product, piece of equipment, program, video presentation, photograph, concept, technique, formula, method, process or improvement will become our property and we may use or disclose such information to other franchisees as we deem appropriate.

The Franchise Agreement provides that you will not acquire any interest in the Confidential Information other than the right to utilize it in the development and operation of your Access Garage Doors[®] Business during the term of your Franchise Agreement, and that the use or duplication of the Confidential Information in any other business would constitute unfair competition. You also agree that the Confidential Information is proprietary to us and is disclosed to you solely on the condition that you (1) will not use the Confidential Information in any other business or capacity; (2) will maintain the absolute confidentiality of the Confidential Information during and after the term of your Franchise Agreement; (3) will not make unauthorized copies of any portion of the Confidential Information disclosed in written or electronic form; and (4) will adopt and implement all reasonable procedures required by us to prevent unauthorized use or

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

The Franchise Agreement provides that your Business must at all times be under your direct, day-to-day, full-time supervision (or if you are an Entity such as a limited liability company, partnership or corporation, then a managing Owner of such Entity, approved by us) or the non-owner manager of your Business who is approved by us. This person must have successfully completed our training program and must use his/her best efforts in the operation of an Access Garage Doors® Business.

You are required to retain a manager (“Operations Manager”) for the operation and management of your Business, and you must retain a minimum of one full-time salesperson within thirty (30) days once your Business is deemed open for operation. You must have such Operations Manager and a minimum of one full-time salesperson on staff for the entire term of the Franchise Agreement. The Operations Manager and salesperson may, but need not, be you or one of the Owners of the Business. The Operations Manager must meet all of our standards and criteria for such positions as set forth in the Operations Manual. The Operations Manager need not have any set percentage of the equity of the Franchised Business. Your Operations Manager must devote all of his or her time and effort to the personal supervision of the Business. These individuals and their replacements must also satisfy the applicable training requirements as outlined in the Franchise Agreement (Franchise Agreement Section XII.F).

If we, in our sole discretion, find that your Operations Manager is not properly performing his or her duties, we will advise you and you must immediately take steps to correct the situation. However, we are not responsible for the hiring, discipline, or termination of any Operations Manager that you employ. Upon termination of employment of your Operations Manager or salesperson, you must appoint a successor Operations Manager within 60 days and a successor salesperson within 30 days. Any replacement Operations Manager (who we may disapprove in our sole and absolute discretion) and salesperson must be trained by you in accordance with our standards. To clarify, any replacement Operations Manager and salesperson is to be trained by you at your expense.

Our approval of an Operations Manager other than you is conditioned upon the Operations Manager entering into a confidentiality and restriction of like business agreement containing provisions like those contained in the Franchise Agreement and Schedule 8 of the Franchise Agreement against engaging in competing businesses and use/disclosure of our confidential business information during the tenure of employment with you and for a period of three years following employment by you. You will provide us with executed copies of the same upon request.

If you are an Entity, each of your Owners that holds more than 10% interest in the Franchise Business must personally guarantee your obligations under the Franchise Agreement and also agree to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, every provision of the Franchise Agreement, agree to be bound by the confidentiality provisions and non-competition provisions of the Franchise Agreement and agree to certain restrictions on their ownership interests. The required Guaranty of Obligations is attached as Schedule 5 of the Franchise Agreement.

The median gross revenues for franchised units in 2023 was $464,450.67, 2022 was $740,643.21, and 2021 was $158,719.95; and the median monthly was $38,704.22 in 2023, $61,720.27 in 2022, and $13,225.67 in 2021. Two franchisees (or 40% in 2023, 50% in 2022, and 40% in 2021) met or exceeded the median annual gross sales and median monthly average gross sales. The highest annual gross sales among franchisees were $1,621,401.32 in 2023, $1,555,676.09 in 2022, and $537,409.20 in 2021; and the lowest were $352,363.61 in 2023, $164,301.83 in 2022, and $14,639 in 2021. The highest monthly gross sales were $135,116.78 in 2023, $129,639.67 in 2022, and $44,784.10 in 2021, and the lowest were $29,363.63 in 2023, $13,691.82 in 2022, and $2,091.29 in 2021.

The average annual gross sales for the affiliate were $5,288,656.99 in 2023, $4,619,986.80 in 2022, $3,631,091.11 in 2021 and $3,250,156.74 in 2020. The average monthly gross sales for the affiliate were $440,721.42 in 2023, $384,998.91 in 2022, $302,590.93 in 2021, and $270,846.39 in 2020. Given that only one territory is reported, the one territory matched the average in 2023, 2022, 2021 and 2020. The median gross sales were $5,288,656.99 in 2023, $4,619,986.80 in 2022, $3,631,091.11 in 2021, and $3,250,156.74 in 2020; and the one territory reported matched the median gross sales in 2023, 2022, 2021, and 2020. Company owned outlets do not pay a royalty. Franchisees are subject to a royalty fee of 4-5% per month. In the case of both the average and median gross sales above, both would be subject to the royalty fees if operated by a franchisee. The company owned outlet does pay a system advertising fee of 1/2% like franchisees. These adjustments to the above company owned operations at a 5% royalty fee would make the average annual gross sales and median gross sales from a franchisee's perspective $5,024,224.14 in 2023, $4,388,987.46 in 2022, $3,449,536.55 in 2021, and $3,087,648.90 in 2020; and it would make the average monthly gross sales $440,721.42 in 2023, $365,748.96 in 2022, $287,461.38 in 2021, and $257,304.07 in 2020.

Assumptions

Our study measured Access Garage Doors® company owned outlet operated by an affiliate in Chattanooga, Tennessee and surrounding areas. The market where your Access Garage Doors® franchised location is located, however, may be in a smaller urban or suburban area. Accordingly, the results achieved by this company owned outlet may not be typical for those in your area.

Further, the company owned outlet studied has been in business since 2005. The sales figures for the company owned outlet were derived from our own financial books and records.

We have relied on gross sales figures provided by our franchisees for any figures reported by franchisees and have not audited those figures.

Our study and other financial information that forms the bases for our financial performance representation are available to you upon reasonable request.

WHEREAS, Franchisee recognizes the benefits to be derived from being identified with and licensed by us, and Franchisee understands and acknowledges the importance of our high standards of quality, appearance, and service and the necessity of operating the Business in conformity with our standards and specifications.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby mutually acknowledged, the Parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, do hereby agree as follows:

I. FRANCHISEE'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF BUSINESS RISK AND ABSENCE OF GUARANTEE

Franchisee (and each Owner) hereby represents that it has conducted an independent investigation of our Business and System and recognizes that the business venture contemplated by this Agreement involves business risks, and that its success will depend upon Franchisee's abilities as an independent businessperson. We expressly disclaim the making of, and Franchisee acknowledges that it has not received any, warranty or guarantee, express or implied, as to the potential volume, revenues, gross income, margins, profits or success of the Business contemplated by this Agreement. Franchisee further acknowledges that none of our employees, or agents has any authority to make any statement, warranty, or guaranty of the potential volume, revenues, gross income, margins, profits or success of the Business contemplated by this Agreement, and that we have expressly instructed all of our employees not to make any warranty, guaranty, statement, or representation regarding the potential volume, revenues, gross income, margins, profits or success of the Business contemplated by this Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee has been given the opportunity to clarify any provision of this Agreement that Franchisee may not have initially understood and that we have advised Franchisee to have this Agreement reviewed by an attorney. Franchisee hereby releases us, our employees, shareholders, members, directors, managers, our affiliated companies and agents from liability based on such representations or agreements, to the extent permitted by law or regulation.

Franchisee acknowledges that we have not made, and do not hereby make, any representation or warranty as to potential revenues, income, margin, gross income, profits, volume or success of the Franchise or merchantability, performance, accuracy of informational content, system integration, quality of any computer programs that we may provide the Franchisee, condition, fitness or suitability for the Franchisee's purposes of any component of the System, or any other representation or warranty with respect to the System. We shall not be liable to Franchisee for, nor shall Franchisee's obligations hereunder be affected by, any loss, claim, liability, cost, damage or expense of any kind caused, or alleged to be caused, directly or indirectly, by the System, or by an inadequacy of the System for any purpose, or by any defect in, the use or maintenance of, any repairs, servicing or adjustments of, or any interruption or loss of service or use of, the Business, or any loss of business, profits, consequential or other damages of any nature.

II. FRANCHISEE'S ACKNOWLEDGMENTS CONCERNING RECEIPT AND THOROUGH EVALUATION OF AGREEMENT

Franchisee acknowledges having received, read, and understood this Agreement, the Franchise Disclosure Document and attachments to each. Franchisee further acknowledges that we have accorded Franchisee with ample time and opportunity to consult with independent legal counsel and other advisors of its own choosing concerning the potential benefits and risks of entering into this Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee has received a completed copy of this Agreement, attachments and schedules (collectively referred to as the "Schedules") referred to herein, and agreements relating hereto, as well as the entire Franchise Disclosure Document, at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the date on which this Agreement was executed or money was paid by Franchisee for the franchise.

Franchisee acknowledges that it has read and understands this Agreement, the Schedules and any agreements relating thereto, and that Franchisee has been advised by our representative to consult with an attorney or advisor of Franchisee's own choosing about the potential benefits and risks of entering into this Agreement prior to its execution.

Franchisee acknowledges that any statements, oral or written, by us or our agents preceding the execution of this Agreement were for informational purposes only and do not constitute any representation or warranty by us. The only representations, warranties and obligations we have made are those specifically set forth in the Franchise Disclosure Document and this Agreement. Franchisee must not rely on, and the Parties do not intend to be bound by, any statement or representation not contained therein.

Franchisee acknowledges that we will not provide or designate locations for Franchisee (this Business can be operated home-based or out of a small industrial or retail space), will not provide financial assistance to Franchisee and we have made no representation that we will buy back from Franchisee any equipment, products, supplies, technology items (such as computer, laptops, printers, modems, etc.), furnishing and fixtures, vehicle (including vehicle graphics) and signage (if applicable), purchased by Franchisee in connection with the Business, except where we are otherwise required by law or regulation to buy back such items upon expiration or termination of this Agreement.

III. NO PROJECTED OR FORECASTED FRANCHISE SALES, PROFITS OR EARNINGS

Franchisee, and each Party executing this document hereto, acknowledges that neither we nor any of our officers, directors, employees or agents have made, and Franchisee has not received or relied upon, any express or implied oral, written, or visual information, representations, assurances, warranties, guarantees, inducements, promises or agreements concerning the actual, average, projected or forecasted franchise sales, revenues, profits, earnings or likelihood of success that Franchisee might expect to achieve from operating the Business (defined as “Financial Performance Representations”). Furthermore, we do not authorize any agent, officer, director or employee of ours to make any Financial Performance Representations.

IV. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

A. Franchisee is an Independent Contractor

During the term of this Agreement, and any renewals or extensions hereof, the Franchisee shall hold itself out to the public as an independent contractor operating its business pursuant to a franchise from us. Franchisee agrees to take such affirmative action as may be necessary, including, without limitation, exhibiting multiple public notices of that fact, the content and display of which we shall have the right to specify. For example, such notices shall be provided on letterhead, business cards, bank account names, bank checks, and signs at the place of business. Franchisee is responsible for collecting and remitting Social Security, Medicare, unemployment contributions and/or any other mandated county, state or federal obligations on behalf of its employees. Franchisee acknowledges that we have no responsibility to ensure that Franchisee’s Business is developed and operated in compliance with all application of laws, ordinances, and regulations, and that we shall have no liability in the event the development or operation of the Business violates any law, ordinance, or regulation.

B. Franchisor Is Not in A Fiduciary Relationship with Franchisee

It is understood and agreed by the Parties hereto that this Agreement does not establish a fiduciary relationship between them, and that nothing in this Agreement is intended to constitute either Party as an agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venture, partner, employee, or servant of the other for any purpose whatsoever. In addition, we shall not have any fiduciary relationship to the Franchisee by virtue of the facts that we may operate a System Advertising Fund (as defined in Section X.B of this Agreement).

It is understood and agreed that nothing in this Agreement authorizes the Franchisee, and the Franchisee shall have no authority, to make any contract, agreement, warranty, or representation on our behalf, or to incur any debt, bond, indenture, promissory note or other obligation in our name; and that we shall in no event assume liability for, or be deemed liable hereunder or thereunder as a result of any such action; nor shall we be liable by reason of any act or omission of the Franchisee in its conduct of the Business or for any claim or judgment arising therefrom against the Franchisee or us.

The Franchisee represents, warrants and agrees as follows: the Franchisee is duly organized and is in good standing in all jurisdictions where legally required in order to carry on its business, has duly authorized the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and all other documents contemplated hereby, which are, or upon signing, will be binding on the Franchisee, do not and will not contravene any other instrument or agreement to which the Franchisee is a party, and there is no pending litigation, tax claim, lien, encumbrance or mortgage, proceeding or dispute that may adversely affect the Franchisee’s financial condition or impair its ability to perform its obligation under the terms of this Agreement.

It is understood that Franchisee will have sole responsibility for its employees and independent contractors (if Franchisee chooses to hire independent contractors) and all acts of its employees and independent contractors in addition to all employment-related decisions involving wages, benefits, hours of work, scheduling, hiring, firing, discipline, supervision, record keeping, withholding income tax, Social Security contributions, Medicare contributions, unemployment fund contributions and all other terms and conditions of employment (as described in Section XII.F). Franchisee must disclose to each of its employees and independent contractors in writing, in a form approved by us in advance, that we are not a “joint employer” of the Franchisee’s employees. The Franchisee acknowledges that we do not control the Franchisee’s personnel policies, including establishing wage and hour requirements, hiring, firing, setting wages, disciplining, supervising and record keeping of employees (and independent contractors).

V. FRANCHISE GRANT

We hereby grant to Franchisee, upon the terms and conditions herein contained and subject to this Agreement, the right, license, and privilege, and Franchisee hereby accepts a franchise under the terms and conditions set forth herein for the right to operate an Access Garage Doors® Business that has been assigned a protected territory (referred to as the “Territory”) for the entire term of this Agreement, with the right to use solely in connection therewith our Names and Marks, Products, Services, advertising and marketing methods, and our System, as all may be changed, improved and further developed from time to time only in the accepted territory as set forth in Section VI and provided the Franchisee shall adhere to the terms and conditions hereof.

It is understood and agreed that, except as expressly provided herein or any other agreement is executed, this franchise grant does not include the right of Franchisee to sub franchise.

Except as provided in this Agreement, Franchisee shall be free to use the materials provided by us in the manner that Franchisee, in Franchisee’s sole and absolute discretion, deems most appropriate for the operation of an Access Garage Doors® Franchise, provided that Franchisee shall not violate any applicable law, regulation, or provision of this Agreement in exercising such discretion.

VI. TERRITORY

Franchisee is not granted an exclusive territory. The Territory is a protected marketing territory as defined in this Agreement. The Franchise Business shall be: within the state of _____ in the county(ies) of _____. If the actual Franchise Business address has not yet been chosen, the initial Territory will be defined from the following crossroads: _____ and _____. The final Territory will be defined from the actual Franchise Business address once chosen.

The specific location (“Accepted Location”) from where the Business will be operated will be:

The Territory is defined by the following numbered zip codes:

The total population for the above zip codes is: _____

Franchisee must operate the Business, offer and sell all Products and perform all Services within the Franchisee’s Territory. If the Parties do not select a Territory (area in which franchise wants to conduct business) prior to the signing of this Franchise Agreement, then they shall agree to it at a later date, under the terms of this Agreement. Failure to agree on a Territory and/or failure of Franchisee to open the Business for operation within sixty (60) days after the execution of this Agreement will permit us to terminate this Agreement, as provided in Section XXIII.C. The Territory, under the terms of this Agreement, is a defined population with as many as six hundred thousand (600,000) persons, but it could be less. We reserve the right to, in our sole discretion, change, modify or grant a territory that is larger or smaller than the population described above, in order to account for more densely or sparsely populated areas. The Territory will be determined with the approval of us at the time of the execution of the Agreement. Franchisee can sell Products to anyone from anywhere, however all Services must be performed within Franchisee’s Territory (as defined above) and under unique circumstances, Franchisee may be able to perform Services in other geographic areas outside its Territory with written permission by us (as described below). Franchisee may conduct business at special events (such as: community events, home shows, trade shows, promotional events, festivals, etc.) to sell Products and promote Services as long as such events are within Franchisee’s Territory. However, Franchisee may be able to conduct business at special events or perform Services in unassigned geographic areas outside its Territory with written permission by us as further discussed below. The Territory includes the specific location where the Business is based (referred to as “Premises”).

The term “Premises” means the location or locations of the Business from which one or more of the following are being performed:

- a) The storage of any equipment, products, supplies and/or vehicles used in association with the Business;
- b) Where Franchisee’s employees and/or independent contractors (if Franchisee chooses to use independent contractors) might meet at the beginning of the day before they go to service customers and/or accounts;
- c) Franchisee maintains one or more of the following: a telephone, fax, email or postal address of the Business at this location;
- d) Franchisee advertises the address, telephone, fax or email address or any other contact information for the location;
- e) Franchisee keeps accounting records for all or any part of the Business (excluding any home office or office space of any independent contractor, salesperson, accountant, or payroll service used by the Franchisee); and
- f) The location is responsible for generating more than fifty percent (50%) of the Gross Revenues. As defined in the Agreement, “Gross Revenue” shall include all revenue accrued from the sale of all Products and performance of Services in, at, upon, about, through or from the Business, whether for cash, credit or for barter and regardless of collection in the case of credit, and income of every kind and nature related to the Business. Gross Revenue also includes fair market value for any service or product Franchisee receives in barter or exchange for its Products and/or Services, the retail value of any discounted and/or complementary (free) Product and/or Service given or provided to customers in addition to all insurance proceeds and/or condemnation awards for loss of sales, profits or business. However, Gross Revenue shall not include: (i) service fees for credit card transactions; (ii) revenues from any sales taxes or other add on taxes collected from customers by Franchisee for transmittal to the appropriate taxing authority, (iii) gratuities paid to Franchisee's employees; (iv) and the amount of cash refunds the Franchisee in good faith provides to its customers. The sale of all Products on any alternative channel of distribution (such as on the Internet, mobile devices, etc. if we authorize you to sell Products on an alternative channel of distribution in the future) or Services performed outside its Territory (all of which need our approval) is included in computing Gross Revenue.

If not determined when this Agreement is executed, Franchisee is responsible for selecting the location for the Premises within the designated Territory specified above and in accordance with this Agreement.

The Territory will be determined by population, demographics of the surrounding area, competition, business potential (such as: number of residential homes, number of multi-family homes, age of residential homes and amount of new construction in the area), availability of appropriate sites, reasonable rents or other conditions important to the successful operation of a Franchised Business as we deem appropriate. The Territory is determined once a location is chosen and approved by us and will not be altered even if there is a population increase or decrease during the term of this Agreement. The Territory is not dependent upon achievement of certain revenues, sales volume, profitability, market penetration or any other contingency. The boundaries of the Territory described above shall be determined by major topographical features which clearly define contiguous areas such as: Streets, highways, freeways or other roadways, rivers, streams, mountains and underdeveloped land. We determine the size and boundaries of the protected Territory.

Franchisee must operate its Business within the specific Territory as identified in this Section VI. If not determined when this Agreement is executed, Franchisee is responsible for selecting the site for the Accepted Location within the designated Territory specified above and in accordance with this Agreement. Whether Franchisee chooses to operate the business from home or out of a location (such as a small warehouse or industrial space) we must approve the location of Premises within the Territory in writing, especially prior to Franchisee becoming obligated on a lease (if applicable). Franchisee may not operate the Business from any other location including any business other than an Access Garage Doors® Business within the accepted Territory that has been set forth in this Agreement or made part hereof by an addendum attached to this Agreement. However, Franchisee's salespersons are authorized to operate out of their home office. A salesperson's home office is defined as a secondary work space located in the salesperson's principal residence from which the salesperson conducts business and communications. A salesperson's home office is not considered a Business Premises so long as the salesperson does not advertise its home office in any way as an authorized Access Garage Doors® location and does not meet any customer or third party at its home. Franchisee's salespersons will be required to have Franchisee's Business telephone number and Business addresses on their business cards, stationery and other business forms so long as such information meets our standards and guidelines as outlined in our manuals and other written materials.

Franchisee shall not relocate the Premises within its Territory, without our prior written consent (specified in Section XXII.A). We shall not establish, nor license another party or entity to establish, an Access Garage Doors® business within Franchisee Territory outlined above. If Franchisee decides to open additional Businesses and buys the rights to additional Franchises, then those separate franchise agreement(s) will dictate the terms of the applicable territory (a separate Franchise Agreement is required for each additional Business as defined in Section IX.D of this Agreement). If a geographical area is unassigned, we have the right to sell or assign it, or part of it, at any time, without notice to Franchisee and Franchisee might not have right of first refusal or the option to buy the territory that was formally unassigned

Franchisee is encouraged to directly advertise and market Products and promote Services within its Territory. Franchisee may accept business, sell Products (which includes shipping Products) and perform Services to anyone so long as: (i) such sales do not result from any direct solicitation activities by Franchisee; (ii) the Products Franchisee sells are sold or shipped from the Accepted Location and/or sold at special events within its Territory (as described below); and (iii) all Services are performed within its Territory. Franchisee is encouraged to conduct special events to promote its Business (such as: community events, home shows, trade shows, promotional events, festivals, etc.) so long as such special events are performed within its Territory. Under certain circumstances, Franchisee may be granted permission to conduct business at special events in other geographical areas outside its Territory (as further described below). We, company-owned locations and other franchisees also reserve the same right to sell and ship Products to anyone who comes from anywhere and provide Services within its respective territories without compensation to Franchisee. Franchisee is prohibited from soliciting and marketing in general to anyone by any means outside Franchisee's Territory and cannot perform any target marketing ("Target Marketing") into any other territory of another franchisee. The term "Target Marketing" means a concerted effort by a Franchisee to solicit and obtain customers and/or accounts by any type of advertising or marketing directed at all or a portion of another franchisee's territory, company-owned business or unassigned area. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee cannot perform any type of Target Marketing outside Franchisee's Territory. We shall use commercially reasonable efforts to address any Franchisee that violates this policy. Failure of Franchisee to refrain from Target Marketing, as described above, may result in termination of this Agreement as specified in Section XXIII.C.

Franchisee is prohibited from selling Products and promoting Services through any alternative channels of distribution (such as Websites as defined below) without our written approval. If Franchisee is granted permission to sell Products or promote its Services through an alternative channel of distribution in the future, per our written approval, Franchisee may sell Products to anyone from anywhere without compensation to other franchisees or company-owned businesses so long as all Products are sold and shipped from its Business and all Services are performed within its Territory. We, other franchisees and company-owned businesses reserve the same right to sell and ship Products to anyone even if within Franchisee's Territory without compensation to Franchisee. Our response to Franchisee's request to offer Products and promote Services through an alternative channel of distribution will be made by email or any other form of written communication within thirty (30) days after we receive it. Approval may be revoked in our sole discretion.

If Franchisee is asked to conduct special events (such as: community events, home shows, trade shows, promotional events, festivals, etc.) or perform Services in geographical areas in which there is another franchisee, Franchisee must refer that request to the Access Garage Doors® business in that geographical area or directly to us. Whether the other Access Garage Doors® business is a franchise or company-owned business, Franchisee must not conduct business at special events or perform Services in that geographical area unless the other Access Garage Doors® business consents in writing for Franchisee to conduct business at such special event or to perform such Services and when that is the case Franchisee must inform us in writing then can immediately proceed. If there is not an Access Garage Doors® business in that geographical area, then Franchisee must submit a written request to us to conduct business at such special event or perform Services and upon our written approval can proceed. We shall approve or deny Franchisee's request to conduct business at special events in other geographical areas not owned by us, our affiliates or other franchisees, which approval is in our sole discretion, within three (3) business days of your written request. Our response to Franchisee's request will be made by email or any other form of written communication. Approval may be revoked in our sole discretion. However, Franchisee must be prepared to immediately cease conducting business at such special event and/or cease performing Services in that other geographical area when that unassigned area is purchased or assigned to someone else. We and other franchisees and company-owned businesses must refer special events and customers that request Services within Franchisee's Territory to Franchisee and also reserve the same right to perform Services to customers and/or accounts who are within Franchisee's Territory if it is determined to be in the customer's and/or account's best interest.

If during the term of the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee is unable to promptly and properly provide Products and/or perform Services, Franchisee must refer that customer and/or account to another franchise, company-owned business or us. If Franchisee fails to refer customers and/or accounts and special events, as described herein, we will have the right to terminate this Agreement, Section XXIII.C. For any default of this Agreement which triggers our ability to terminate, as an alternative to termination, we have the right, in our sole discretion, to modify or completely eliminate any rights Franchisee may have with respect to the protected status of the Territory, effective ten (10) days after delivery of written notice to Franchisee.

We encourage Access Garage Doors® franchises, when owned by different individuals, to work out a referral relationship and an advertising strategy if they are within close proximity of each other (generally defined as being within a twenty (20) mile radius of each other). We must be notified in writing of all such arrangements and give our approval.

We may, from time to time, establish certain programs for the benefit of franchisees and the System whereby Access Garage Doors® franchisees will be permitted to offer Products and Services in accordance with the specifications described in any particular program established by us. Currently in effect is our proprietary Service Guarantee Program and National Account program. The National Account program is defined as follows:

- a) The term "National Account" means a special class of customers which may include but are not limited to large businesses, national organizations or non-profit organizations with outlets located in multiple territories and government agencies who on their own behalf or through agents, franchisees or other third parties owns, manages, controls or otherwise has responsibility for buildings or common-services in more than one location whose presence is not confined within any one particular franchisee's Territory regardless of the aggregate contract amount of Products and/or Services the Franchisee provides and/or performs. Any dispute as to whether a particular customer is a National Account shall be determined by us in our sole and absolute discretion and our determination shall be final and binding;
- b) We shall have the exclusive right, unless otherwise specifically delegated in writing, on behalf of ourselves, Franchisee and/or any other franchisees utilizing our Marks, to negotiate and enter into agreements or approve forms of agreement to use the facilities of a National Account or to offer Products and Services to National Account customers, including any affiliate, company owned or franchised locations within the Territory;
- c) Following the execution of a contract with or the acceptance of a bid by a National Account customer which contemplates the provision of Products or Services to one or more National Account locations within the Territory, we will, if Franchisee is qualified and not in default under any terms of this Agreement and any Schedules, provide Franchisee the option to offer Products and/or perform Service pursuant to the terms and conditions of the National Account contract or on such terms and conditions as we in our sole discretion determine;

- d) If Franchisee elects not to provide Products and/or Services to a National Account customer in conformity with the terms and conditions of the National Account bid or contract, or fails to make an election within the time specified by us, of being offered the opportunity by us, we shall have the right, exercisable in our sole discretion, to:
 - i. Provide directly or through any other affiliate, franchisee or company-owned business utilizing our proprietary marks, Products and/or Services to the National Account customer location(s) within the Territory on the terms and conditions contained in the National Account bid or contract; and/or
 - ii. Contract with another party to provide such Products and/or Services to the National Account customer location(s) within the Territory on the terms and conditions contained in the National Account bid or contract between us and the National Account customer, utilizing our proprietary marks or any trademarks, service marks or trade names.
- e) Neither the direct provision by us (or a franchisee, affiliate or agent of ours) of Products or Services to National Accounts as authorized in (i) above, nor if we contract with another party to provide such Products and/or Services as authorized in (ii) above, shall constitute a violation of Section VI of this Agreement relating to the protected status of the Territory, even if such Products are sold and delivered and/or Services are performed within the Territory. Franchisee disclaims any compensation for Products sold or Services performed by others in the Territory pursuant to this section.

Franchisee's rights in the Territory are exactly (and only) as expressly set forth in this Section VI. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, Franchisee has no right to exclude, control or impose conditions on any specific locations, operation, or otherwise of present or future Access Garage Doors[®] (or any other brand) units or distribution channels of any type, franchised or company-owned, regardless of their location or proximity to the Business and whether or not they provide Products or Services within the Territory. Franchisee does not have any rights with respect to other and/or related businesses, Products and/or Services, in which we or any of our related persons or entities may be involved, now or in the future.

Any rights not expressly granted to the Franchisee are reserved to us. Such rights reserved to us include but are not limited to the following:

- 1) Own and/or operate ourselves, and/or authorize others to own and/or operate:
 - a) Any kind of business in the Territory which is not substantially similar to an Access Garage Doors[®] business, whether or not using Marks and System and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate; and
 - b) Any kind of business outside of the Territory, including, without limitation, Access Garage Doors[®] businesses, whether or not using Access Garage Doors[®] Marks and System and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate;
- 2) Develop, manufacture, distribute and sell Access Garage Doors[®] labeled and branded (or any other brand) products or equipment (whether or not competitive) to anyone located anywhere (including within the Territory) using any channel of distribution (including, but not limited to, home improvement stores, discount retail stores or other similar venues and other channels of distribution such as television, mail, catalog sales, wholesale to unrelated retail outlets or over the Internet);

- 3) Develop or become associated with other concepts (including dual branding and/or other franchise systems), whether or not using Access Garage Doors® System and/or the Marks, and award franchises under such other concepts for businesses located and/or operating anywhere. If we become associated with a business within Franchisee's Territory that uses our Marks and System, we will make commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the protected status of Franchisee's Territory;
- 4) Acquire, be acquired by, sell our assets, sell our stock, membership interests or units, or partnership units to, merge, affiliate with or engage in any transaction with other businesses (whether competitive or not), located anywhere. Such transactions may include (but are not limited to) arrangements involving competing businesses and brand conversions (to or from Access Garage Doors® Marks and System). Franchisee agrees to participate at your expense in any such conversion as instructed by us. However, if we acquire or merge with a business within Franchisee's Territory that is similar to an Access Garage Doors® business, we will make commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the protected status of Franchisee's Territory;
- 5) We may choose in our Business Judgment (as defined in Section XXI of this Agreement) to advertise and sell Products and offer Services through the Internet and other similar venues (no matter where the customer is located) to promote the System. The Internet is a channel of distribution we reserve to ourselves exclusively, and Franchisee may not independently market on the Internet or conduct e-commerce without our prior written consent;
- 6) Acquire any Websites utilizing a domain name incorporating our Marks and one or more of the words: access, affordable, easy, elite, deliver, door, durable, garage, home, install, repair, residential, sell, service, solution, system, trust or value. The term "Website" includes: the Internet as well as other electronic sites (such as social networking sites including, but not limited to, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, Pinterest, Yelp, and blogs). Currently Franchisee is required to participate on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Yelp. Other than Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Yelp Franchisee shall not establish a Website on the Internet using any domain name containing the words listed above or any variation thereof. Franchisee acknowledges that we have all right, title and interest in and to such domain names, websites, and content, as we shall designate in the Operations Manual. Franchisee must comply with our requirements regarding discussing, advertising or disseminating any information, or otherwise having a presence on a Website, regarding the Business. If we approve a separate Website (which we are not obligated to do), then each of the following provisions will apply: (i) Franchisee may neither establish nor use any Website without our prior written approval; (ii) before establishing any Website, Franchisee must submit to us, for our prior written approval, a sample of the proposed Website, including its domain name, format, visible content (including, without limitation, proposed screen shots), and non-visible content (including meta-tags), in the form and manner we may require and all such work must be performed by us, our affiliates or approved vendors; (iii) Franchisee must not use or modify a Website without our prior written approval; (iv) Franchisee must comply with the standards and specifications for Websites that we may periodically prescribe in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing; and (v) if we require, you must establish hyperlinks to our website and other

Websites; and (vi) neither Franchisee nor any of its employees shall post any information regarding us or the System, on any Website or any internet site, without our prior written approval, nor any disparaging statement either during or after termination or expiration of the Agreement. Further Franchisee shall monitor its employees to avoid them making any such postings. We retain the right to pre-approve Franchisee's use of linking and framing between the Franchisee's website and all other Websites. The Franchisee shall within five (5) days, dismantle any blogs, frames and links between the Franchisee's website and any other Websites, if and as requested by us; and

- 7) We reserve the right to designate the social media platform(s) to be used by Franchisee, and we also reserve the right to establish protocols for use, all of which may be updated by us from time to time. Franchisee shall manage its designated social media page or portion on any platform designated by Franchisor pursuant to guidelines provided by Franchisor. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor shall be the sole owner of all social media content generated on any of the approved platforms.

We may provide Franchisee with options, rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional franchises in other areas or areas contiguous to the Territory. Franchisee's Territory may be altered during the initial term, but only: (i) by mutual consent in writing from both Franchisee and us; (ii) at the time of transfer or renewal as a condition to transfer or renewal; or (iii) for any default of this Agreement which triggers our ability to terminate as described above.

VII. TERM AND RENEWAL OF AGREEMENT

A. Term

The franchise herein granted for an Access Garage Doors® Franchise, shall be for a term of five (5) years commencing from the date of execution and acceptance (the "Effective Date") of this Agreement by us and subject to earlier termination as herein provided.

B. Renewal

Franchisee shall have the option to renew this Agreement for up to two additional terms of five (5) years each, provided we are still offering franchises at that time, and further subject to the following conditions, all of which must be met prior to renewal:

1. Franchisee shall give us written notice of its election to renew not more than twelve (12) months and not less than six (6) months prior to the end of the then current term. We will respond to Franchisee's written notice to renew no later than thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice by email or any other form of written communication;
2. Franchisee must not be in default under any provision of the Agreement, any amendment hereof or successor hereto, or any other agreement between us and Franchisee, and Franchisee shall have complied with all the terms and conditions of all such agreements during the terms thereof;
3. Franchisee's right to renew is contingent on satisfactory performance of and full compliance with this Agreement and any renewal agreement. We may refuse to renew or extend the franchise if: (a) Franchisee has failed to use its best efforts to operate the Franchised Business to our satisfaction, as determined by us at our sole discretion; (b) the Franchise is terminable by law, regulation, or under this Agreement; (c) Franchisee fails to

Franchisee shall execute, before the renewal term, our then-current form of Agreement, which agreement shall supersede this Agreement in all respects, and the terms of which may differ from the terms of this Agreement. We will not charge Franchisee any type of renewal fee for the same protected area outlined in Section VI or Territory above;
6. Franchisee's royalty rates will not start over after renewal. Franchisee hereby certifies that he or she has reviewed the estimated initial investment and start-up costs as detailed in the Franchise Disclosure Document and has sufficient cash resources available to meet said expenses. These start-up costs include the initial franchise fee.

IX. FRANCHISEE'S INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE / TIMING FOR OPENING

A. Initial Franchise Fee and Payment

By executing this Agreement, the applicant agrees to become a Franchisee and pay an "Initial Franchise Fee" in the amount of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for an Access Garage Doors® business. This Initial Franchise Fee includes the right to operate an Access Garage Doors® Franchise within a protected territory that serves a population of up to six hundred thousand (600,000) persons, determined by zip code and census (with the final agreed upon Territory as described in Section IV of this Agreement). The Initial Franchise Fee includes a website housed within our national website that includes scheduling functionality and access to our intranet system that houses our proprietary educational platform and provides ongoing announcements and templates for print and marketing materials to support the Business; access to a self-study program (and related materials) to be completed prior to Franchisee attending our initial training program; our proprietary operations manual (and other materials), a comprehensive ten (10) day initial training program at our corporate headquarters and up to three (3) days of onsite assistance and guidance at Franchisee's location for either pre-opening or grand opening assistance. The Initial Franchise Fee includes the issuance of up to three (3) electronic mail addresses for the Business. Additional electronic mail addresses may be issued, and Franchisee will be charged Franchisor's cost for issuance of additional electronic mail addresses.

The Initial Franchise Fee is due upon execution of this Franchise Agreement. The Initial Franchise Fee is uniform as to all persons currently acquiring a Franchise, and is non-refundable. The Initial Franchise Fee shall be paid in a lump sum in United States funds and shall be deemed fully earned upon the opening of the Business for the deliverables as described above in Section IX.A.

B. Time Limit for Opening the Business

Franchisee shall maintain its Business in accordance with the provisions and requirements of Section XII hereof, must complete our initial training program and have the Business operational to start selling Products and/or performing Services (the "Opening") within sixty (60) days of the date of execution of this Agreement (the "Opening Date"). This includes securing a lease that has been approved by us (if Franchisee chooses to open a location such as a small warehouse or industrial space for the Business as described in Section XII.S). Prior to the Opening, it is Franchisee's responsibility to obtain all necessary licenses and permits needed to perform the Services. We may, in our discretion, grant Franchisee one thirty (30) day extension past the allotted time within which to have Business operational and to start selling Products and/or performing Services.

Upon Franchisee's failure to complete our initial training program and/or satisfy the Opening requirement within sixty (60) days from the Effective Date, or if Franchisee, its Owner or manager fails to complete the initial training program to our satisfaction we may, at our sole discretion, terminate the Franchise and this Agreement and retain all fees paid by Franchisee, without breach of this Agreement by us as specified in Section XXIII.C.

During the term of this Agreement, the Accepted Location shall be used exclusively for the purpose of operating a franchised Access Garage Doors® business. In the event the Premises shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, or be required to be repaired, Franchisee shall commence the required repair of the Premises within thirty (30) days from the date of such casualty or notice of such governmental requirement (or such lesser period as shall be designated by such governmental requirement), and shall complete all required repairs as soon as possible thereafter, in continuity, but in no event later than ninety (90) days from the date of such casualty or requirement of such governmental notice. The minimum acceptable appearance for the restored Premises will be that which existed just prior to the casualty; however, every effort should be made to have the restored Premises include the then-current image, design and specifications of an Access Garage Doors® business.

As between us and the Franchisee, the Franchisee shall bear the entire risk of any damage, loss, theft or destruction to the Premises from any cause whatsoever or requisition of the Premises by any governmental entity or the taking of title to the Premises by eminent domain or otherwise (collectively, “Loss”). The Franchisee shall advise us in writing within ten (10) days of any such Loss. No such Loss shall relieve the Franchisee of the obligation to pay Royalty Fees and all other amounts owed hereunder. In the event of any such Loss, we, at our option, may: (a) if the Loss has not materially impaired the Premises (in our reasonable Business Judgment), require that the Franchisee, upon our demand, place the Premises in good condition and repair reasonably satisfactory to us as mentioned above; or (b) if the Loss has materially impaired the Premises and is substantially destroyed (in our sole judgment), we may require the Franchisee to repair the existing Premises or find an alternative location within the Territory within thirty (30) days. We may extend this period an additional thirty (30) days at our discretion and failure of Franchisee to comply may result in termination of this Agreement. We may choose at our option if the Loss materially impairs the Franchised Business, to relieve the Franchisee of all obligations under this Agreement, and the Franchisee must return to us all items related to the System (including all materials) and we have the first right of refusal to purchase all Assets (as described in Section XXIV.G), but any such purchase price will be reduced to account for the Loss the Franchisee incurred.

It is understood and agreed that, except as expressly provided herein or pursuant to a separate executed agreement, this Agreement includes no right of Franchisee to sub-franchise.

C. Cooperation Required

Franchisee shall cooperate reasonably with us to ensure that the various actions occur, which is necessary to obtain acceptance by us of the Business location. In particular, Franchisee shall furnish any pertinent information as may be reasonably requested by us regarding Franchisee’s business and finances.

D. Establishing Additional Franchise Businesses

If Franchisee desires to establish and operate additional Access Garage Doors® businesses, we may in our sole discretion, grant Franchisee the right to operate additional Businesses for a reduced Franchise Fee of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per each additional Business subject to the payment of an option fee discussed elsewhere in this Agreement. Franchisee must meet minimum conditions: (a) Franchisee must satisfy our then-current qualifications and training requirements; and (b) Franchisee must execute our then-current franchise agreement.

X. OTHER FEES

A. Royalty Fees

In addition to the Initial Franchise Fee described in Section IX above, the following recurring or isolated payments are required to be made by the Franchisee. The Franchisee shall pay to us a “Royalty Fee” of four to five percent (4%-5%) of Gross Revenues, with a minimum of $500, (Gross Revenues as defined in Section VI) per calendar month based on Franchisee’s “Royalty Month” which payment begins immediately once the Franchisee’s Business is deemed open for operation and continues for the term of this Agreement (see chart below). The term “Royalty Month” shall be defined as starting the calendar month in which the Business is deemed open for operation and is used as the baseline for each calendar month thereafter. The Business is deemed open for operation immediately after Franchisee completes our initial training program (which must be completed within sixty (60) days after executing this Agreement). The Royalty Fee is due on the tenth (10th) day of each month (for the prior month) and is to be received as we specify in writing. The Royalty Fee must be paid by direct deposit from Franchisee’s bank account to a bank account designated in writing by Franchisor. The Royalty Fee is uniform as to all to all persons acquiring an Access Garage Doors® Franchise and is nonrefundable. If the Franchise Agreement is terminated, Franchisee may be required to continue such royalty payments as described in Section XXIV.H.

Royalty Month:	Franchisee’s Royalty Payment Will Be:
Months 1-12	The greater of 4% of your Gross Revenues or $500 monthly
Months 13-24	The greater of 4.5% of your Gross Revenues or $1,000 monthly
Month 25 through the remainder of your Franchise Agreement	The greater of 5% of your Gross Revenues or $2,000 monthly

Any payment or report not actually received by us on or before the specified date shall be deemed overdue. If any payment is overdue, in addition to the right to exercise all rights and remedies available to us under this Agreement, Franchisee shall pay us, in addition to the overdue amount, interest on such amount from the date it was due until paid at the lesser of the rate of one and a half percent (1.5%) per month or the maximum rate allowed by the laws of the State in which Franchisee’s business is located or any successor or substitute law (referred to as the “Default Rate”), until paid in full.

B. System Advertising Fee

Franchisee will pay a System Advertising Fee equal to one half percent (1/2 %) of Gross Revenues per calendar month to be paid in the same manner as the royalty obligation that begins at the same time as the royalty obligation (as defined above in Section X.A) and continues for the term of the Agreement. The System Advertising Fee can be increased by us and such increase will not exceed more than three percent (3%) of Franchisee’s Gross Revenue per month in any calendar year. If we increase the System Advertising Fee, Franchisee will be given ninety (90) days’ notice prior to such increase.

The System Advertising Fee is to be received by us on or before the tenth (10th) day of each month for the prior month. The System Advertising Fee must be paid by direct deposit from Franchisee’s bank account to a bank account designated in writing by Franchisor. This fee will be deposited into our System Advertising Fund (the “Fund”) for ongoing technology, new equipment and product development, and such national advertising (including media production costs) or public relations programs as we, in our sole discretion, may deem appropriate to promote our Marks. The Fund may also be used for local franchisee group advertising or marketing and Franchisee advisory council expenses; local, regional, national or international advertising or marketing; administration of advertising and marketing (including salaries, accounting, collection, legal and other costs), related expenses and any media (including media production costs) or agency costs. We will direct all such programs, and will have sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials, endorsements and media used in such programs, and the placement or allocation of such programs. We reserve the right to determine in our sole discretion the composition of all geographic territories and market areas for the implementation and development of such programs. Access Garage Doors® businesses owned or operated by us will contribute to the same basis to the Fund.

We may disclose the identity of vendors who pay promotional allowances to us upon request and only after Franchisee's signing an appropriate non-disclosure agreement. If we require Franchisee to buy items from a vendor who pays these allowances, we may do one of the following: (i) place all or some of the allowances in the Fund or (ii) spend them directly on related advertising. This does not apply to fees we receive from purchases that are not required to be made by Franchisee from a specified source. We are not obligated to spend more on advertising and marketing than the amount of the Fund. Any unspent balance in the Fund at the end of the year may be carried over to later years and used for the purposes described in this Agreement. Neither we nor any of our shareholders, members, managers or directors has any fiduciary duty to the Franchisee regarding any System Advertising Fund.

Franchisee's failure to pay required advertising contributions is a material breach of this Agreement, subjecting Franchisee to all remedies at law and as set forth in this Agreement. We may delete Franchisee from advertising or marketing without notice if Franchisee fails to timely remit its System Advertising Fee.

C. Local Advertising Requirement

Franchisee must spend a minimum of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) per calendar month on local advertising and promotion, in addition to payment of the System Advertising Fee required outlined in Section X.B. This local advertising requirement starts either immediately after the Franchisee's Business is deemed open for operation (as defined in Section X.A). We shall have the right to approve or disapprove any advertising proposed for use by Franchisee. Franchisee may choose to advertise its Business any way it chooses so long as such advertisements and marketing materials are approved by us (as described in Section XII.L) and are in the format as specified in our operations manual.

D. Electronic Funds Transfer

We require Franchisee to remit fees and other amounts due to us hereunder via electronic funds transfer or other similar means utilizing our approved computer system or otherwise. Franchisee agrees to comply with procedures specified by us and/or perform such acts and deliver and execute such documents including the attached Schedule 1 "Authorization Agreement for Prearranged Payments" for direct debits from Franchisee's business bank operating account, as may be necessary to assist in or accomplish payment by such method. Under this procedure, Franchisee shall authorize us to initiate debit entries and/or credit correction entries to a designated checking or savings account for payments of fees and other amounts payable to us and any interest and related processing fees charged due thereon. Franchisee shall make funds available to us for withdrawal by electronic transfer no later than the due date for these payments. If Franchisee has not timely reported the Business's Gross Revenue to us (as defined in Section X.A) for any reporting period, then we shall be authorized, at our option, to debit Franchisee's account in an amount equal to (a) the fees transferred from Franchisee's account for the last reporting period for which a report of the Business's Gross Revenue was provided to us as required hereunder or (b) the amount due based on information retrieved from our approved computer system (whichever is greater).

E. Website Edits, Updates, Changes, Maintenance and Promotion Fee

We, our affiliates and/or approved vendors will perform all website changes, updates, content revision and perform all website promotions over the Internet for Franchisee. Any requests for changes, edits or updates to Franchisee's website or any type of website promotion over the Internet must be approved by us in writing and the work is to be performed by either us, our affiliates or approved vendors. We shall approve or deny Franchisee's request, which approval is in our sole discretion, within thirty (30) days of receipt of Franchisee's written request by email or any other form of written communication. We may change such website maintenance, update and promotion requirements, at our sole discretion, and Franchisee shall have ninety (90) days after receipt of our written notice within which to adhere to the new website maintenance, update and promotion requirements at Franchisee's expense, without any liability to us. If Franchisee fails to comply with our website maintenance, update and promotion requirements within the timeframe mentioned above, such failure may be deemed a material breach of this Agreement subjecting Franchisee to all remedies at law and as set forth in this Agreement.

The Initial Franchise Fees includes the issuance of up to three (3) electronic mail addresses for the Business. Franchisor may grant Franchisee additional electronic mail addresses, and Franchisor may charge Franchisee its cost for issuance of additional electronic mail addresses.

F. Product, Vendor and Equipment Testing Fee

Franchisee will pay a fee for our approval for any type of equipment, products, supplies, services or vendors to be used or sold in the Business (to the extent not then on our list of approved products, vendors, suppliers or equipment) which may also require third party testing. The fee is one hundred dollars ($100) for a single product, vendor and/or supplier that Franchisee wishes to use, sell and/or substitute in the Business. The fee is three hundred dollars ($300) or the actual cost incurred by us for any piece of equipment that Franchisee wishes to use or implement in its Business. We may waive these fees if the products, vendors, suppliers or equipment that the Franchisee selects meet our requirements and make it on our approved list of products, vendors, suppliers or equipment for all franchise locations. Franchisee also acknowledges that any additional cost for third party testing is Franchisee's responsibility.

Franchisee must obtain our written approval for any equipment, products, supplies, vendors or suppliers Franchisee desires to use, offer or sell in its Business that has not already been approved by us (Section XII.I of this Agreement). Franchisee also acknowledges that the cost for third party testing is Franchisee's responsibility.

Currently the fee is up to five hundred dollars ($500) per person per day plus Franchisee's expenses and any third-party charges as described in Section XX.A of this Agreement. Franchisee or its Operations Manager is responsible for all travel, room, board and food. We have the right to require that Franchisee's Operations Manager be at the Business for any inspection we, our affiliates or third parties conduct.

Franchisee acknowledges that it is Franchisee's sole and absolute responsibility to hire and train all salespersons, technicians, administrative staff, etc. ("Employees") to sell Products and perform Services according to our standards as outlined in the Operations Manual and Section XX.E of this Agreement. Franchisee, any Employee and independent contractor Franchisee uses (if Franchisee chooses to hire independent contractors) are prohibited from providing any type of service that require certain certifications or licenses that have not been approved by us in writing. If required by us, Franchisee must ensure that either Franchisee, any Owner, Operations Manager or technician (at least one person in its Business) have and maintain a lead-based paint certification by an accredited Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") or any other state approved lead-based paint certification program as described in Section XII.C. Franchisee is also required to hire a minimum of one full time salesperson within thirty (30) days once the Business is deemed open for operation (as described in Section X.A) and must keep one full time salesperson on staff for the entire term of this Agreement. The salesperson may, but need not, be the Franchisee or one of the Owners of the Business. Franchisee will keep us advised, in writing, of any changes to its full-time salesperson involved in the Business. Upon termination of Franchisee's full-time salesperson, Franchisee must hire another full-time salesperson within thirty (30) days. Franchisee must replace and train a replacement full time salesperson at its expense. Failure of Franchisee to have one dedicated salesperson that is either the Franchisee or one of its Owners or to hire and maintain a minimum of one full time salesperson as described above may result in termination as described in Section XXIII.C. As Franchisee hires Employees and independent contractors (if Franchisee chooses to use independent contractors), Franchisee can negotiate any rate for such services that is consistent with applicable federal and state laws and regulations. Franchisee is solely responsible for all employment decisions and functions including hiring, firing, establishing wage and hour requirements, disciplining, supervising and record keeping. Franchisee acknowledges that at no time will Franchisee or any of its Employees or independent contractors be deemed to be employed by us.

Franchisee must not use unethical tactics to recruit Employees or independent contractors. Franchisee shall properly hire Employees (subject to applicable employee protection laws) and independent contractors (if Franchisee chooses to use independent contractors) which include carefully screening Employees and independent contractors by the use of background checks, before employing them or before sending them to customers to perform Services (specifically that go to job sites), to ascertain fitness for employment. Specifically, Franchisee is strongly encouraged to use its best efforts, including taking every action required by applicable laws related to background checks of persons working in the Business, to ensure that no person is employed who has a record of child molestation or abuse, fraud, embezzlement, theft, immoral conduct, drug, alcohol or substance abuse; criminal behavior or any other pattern of conduct which might jeopardize the welfare of the customers or reflect adversely on the reputation of us or the System. Franchisee will indemnify us (as described in Section XVIII) for all claims arising out of or relating to Franchisee's use of independent contractors, its Employees and Franchisee's hiring, firing and discipline decisions regarding employees including payment of wages, overtime and any applicable benefits.

Franchisee will require its Employees and independent contractors (if Franchisee chooses to use independent contractors) to wear uniform dress bearing our Names and Marks while working at the Business and while servicing customers and accounts. Such uniform dress shall be of the design and color as we may prescribe from time to time, as set forth in the Operations Manual.

Franchisee shall operate the Business, offer and sell all Products and perform all Services in strict conformity with such standards, techniques, and procedures as we may from time to time prescribe in the Operations Manual, or otherwise in writing, and shall not deviate without our prior written consent. In addition, Franchisee agrees to purchase all equipment (as defined in Section XII.I) and technology items (such as computer, laptops, printers, modems, etc.) and agrees to operate, service, repair, maintain and clean all such items according to our standards as outlined in the Operations Manual. Franchisee must keep all equipment and technology items in clean and good working order at all times and purchase only approved parts to repair its equipment and technology items from our approved vendors and suppliers. All maintenance to the equipment and technology items that cannot be completed by Franchisee must be performed by our approved vendors. Unless otherwise agreed by us in writing, in no event shall Franchisee use any piece of equipment that is more than ten (10) years old; and technology items that are more than ten (10) years old. Franchisee agrees to replace all equipment and technology items at Franchisee's expense as such items (i) become obsolete or inoperable; or (ii) if, in our sole discretion, replacement is necessary because of new functionality, change in software, change in methods of service or because of health or safety considerations. Franchisee has ninety (90) days after Franchisee receives written notice from us to either remove or replace such equipment and/or technology items. Failure of Franchisee to remove, replace and/or maintain its equipment and technology items as described above may result in termination as described in Section XXIII.C of this Agreement.

Franchisee is required to use, offer, sell and perform only approved Products and Services in the manner and style we specify, which may, from time to time, be amended or modified in writing, designated and approved by us. Franchisee acknowledges that: (i) all Products can be sold to anyone from anywhere so long as such Products are sold from Franchisee's Accepted Location or at special events within its Territory; and (ii) all Services must be executed according to our standards and performed only within the Franchisee's Territory as described in Section VI. Prior to opening the Business for operation, Franchisee must adequately supply its Business with an assortment of equipment, products and supplies; and use all such equipment, products and supplies in accordance with our specifications (as described in Section XII.I). Franchisee will also be required to offer all programs, such as our proprietary service guarantee program ("Service Guarantee Program") and warranty program ("Warranty Program"), and abide by the policies for such programs as developed by us. The term "Service Guarantee Program" is defined as a promise to redo Services for the customer at no charge under pre-defined circumstances as determined by us. The term "Warranty Program" is defined as a manufacturer's warranty for specific products used to perform Services that warrants against material defects with a promise to replace the specific product at no cost as determined by the manufacturer.

We will provide Franchisee with a written list of all Products, Services and programs Franchisee is required to offer in its Business during the initial training program. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to be a promise or guarantee by us as to the continued existence of a particular Product, Service or program; nor shall any provision herein imply or establish an obligation on our part to reinstate any Product, Service or program discontinued by us or for any liability to Franchisee for any loss of revenue incurred by Franchisee as a result of our decision to discontinue a particular Product, Service or program. Franchisee agrees that we have the right, in our sole discretion, to change, modify, add or discontinue any approved Product, Service or program and specifications at any time, in our sole discretion. Franchisee promises to promptly accept and implement, in the operation of the Business, all such additions, modifications and changes at Franchisee's expense within ninety (90) days of receiving such notice. Additional products, services or programs Franchisee desires to sell and/or offer in its Business must be authorized in writing by us (as described in Section XII.I). Failure of Franchisee to adhere to our approved Products, Services and programs that Franchisee is authorized to sell, offer and perform according to our standards and specifications and/or to adhere to any additions, modifications or changes to such standards and specifications after receiving written notice from us (as described above) will be considered to be in breach of this Agreement and we, in our sole discretion, may terminate this Agreement as described in Section XXIII.C.

Franchisee cannot implement, offer or sell any other product, service or program unless approved by us in writing. We will respond to Franchisee's request to implement, sell or offer a new product, service or program by email or any other form of written communication within thirty (30) days from the date the request is received. Such approval or disapproval shall be made by e-mail or any other form of written communication. We shall have the right to require, as a condition of our approval and review, that Franchisee submit to us all materials and supporting documentation describing the product, service or program Franchisee wishes to implement, offer and/or sell in its Business. The cost of such investigation for approval shall be paid by the Franchisee (if applicable), and we shall have no liability for denying Franchisee's request. Failure of Franchisees to adhere to these guidelines will result in termination of this Agreement as specified in Section XXIII.C.

Franchisee must have a reliable white, black or red colored long bed truck with bed boxes and a ladder rack or a van with a ladder rack (referred to as "Vehicle") to perform Services and travel to job sites. Franchisee can purchase any type of used or new Vehicle for its Business; however, we require that all Vehicles meet our vehicle appearance standards (which include vehicle graphic specifications). Franchisee can use its existing Vehicle so long as such Vehicle meets our appearance standards. Our Vehicle appearance standards will be given to Franchisee during the initial training program. Unless otherwise approved by us, we require that any Vehicle Franchisee operates must not be more than twenty (20) years old and must meet our appearance standards as outlined in the Operations Manual. Franchisee is responsible for the cost of the Vehicle and installation of all vehicle graphics. Vehicle graphics must be purchased from us, our affiliates or approved vendors or suppliers. Franchisee must maintain the Vehicle as outlined in Section XII.U of this Agreement.

Franchisee must accept credit and debit cards and may choose to use other payment systems and check verification services as specified by us, which we may change from time to time. Franchisee will honor any incentive, coupon, rewards or loyalty programs, which we may institute from time to time, and Franchisee shall do so in compliance with our standards and procedures for such programs to the extent permitted by the laws of Franchisee's state. These programs may include, without limitation, membership programs, repetitive use for service and/or product programs, co-op programs and other local and national activities. Franchisee's full and complete participation in such programs are required. Except as otherwise provided herein, compliance and participation shall be at Franchisee's expense

Franchisee agrees to fully comply with all mandatory specifications, standards, operating procedures and rules in effect which may change from time to time relating to: offering and selling Products and performing Services and programs (such as our Service Guarantee and Warranty Programs); safety, maintenance, cleanliness, sanitation, function, Vehicle appearance standards (including vehicle graphics) and appearance of the Business including all furnishings, fixtures, floor displays, décor and signage (if operating out of a location such as an industrial or retail space); usage of: equipment, technology items and third-party software. Franchisee must comply with our required procedures for selling Products, executing Service and must purchase all equipment and products only from our approved vendors (as described in Section XII.I). Additional equipment, products and vendors Franchisee desires to purchase, use or offer for sale in its Business must be authorized in writing by us (as described in Section XII.I). Franchisee is prohibited from selling Products and promoting Services through alternative channels of distribution (such as on Websites); however, if given permission to do so, as described in Section VI, Franchisee must adhere to our Website standards as outlined in the Operations Manual. If Franchisee is given permission, which we are not obligated to grant, to sell Products and promote Services through an alternative channel of distribution, all Products can be sold to anyone from anywhere so long as such Products are sold from the Accepted Location or special events within Franchisee's Territory; and all Services must be performed only within Franchisee's Territory. Other than having a presence on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Yelp, Franchisee is not permitted to sell Products or promote Services in any other media or alternative channels of distribution, whether known or hereinafter invented. If Franchisee attempts to sell Products or promote Services through any alternative channel of distribution (other having a presence on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Yelp as described above) without our prior written permission such action will be considered a breach of this Agreement and may result in termination of this Agreement as described in Section XXIII.C.

Franchisee is encouraged to accept the referral of any customer or account from another franchisee, company-owned business or us who desires to receive Products or Services from Franchisee. If Franchisee chooses not to accept the referral, then we may provide such Products and/or Services directly or through another franchisee or third party without compensation to Franchisee. We encourage all Access Garage Doors® businesses, when owned by different individuals, to work out a referral arrangement. Franchisee can perform Services and provide Products to anyone, as described in Section VI of this Agreement.

Franchisee must respond promptly to all inquiries and complaints in order to achieve customer satisfaction. If Franchisee does not provide its customers or accounts with satisfactory service and/or fails to resolve complaints at the time complaint is registered; or if Franchisee violates operating standards or this Agreement, we may, in addition to its other remedies, complete the services and bill the Franchisee or Franchisee's customer and/or account for our services. Franchisee shall reimburse us for any expense incurred. In addition, there may be other System oriented programs designed to promote to the public the quality care and service provided by an Access Garage Doors® business that we may wish to implement on a system-wide basis and advertise and market. Franchisee shall be required to participate in the then-current specials or promotions as may be developed by and as may be modified periodically by us, in our sole discretion.

We may institute various programs designed to verify customer satisfaction and/or Franchisee's compliance with all operational and other aspects of the System, including (but not limited to) a toll-free number, online surveys, comment cards, secret shoppers or otherwise. We will share results of such programs with Franchisee as they pertain to Franchisee's Business and Territory and Franchisee will reimburse us for all costs associated with any and all such programs provided that Franchisee is not in compliance with this Agreement and the System.

Franchisee recognizes that one of our primary methods of communication with Franchisees is through emails, text messages, announcements and/or memos we may periodically publish and distribute through our intranet system provided to Franchisees on our website. Franchisee is responsible for knowing all of the information contained in the emails, text messages, announcements, memos and the intranet system and complying with any standards and specifications provided within them. We may establish and change the standards and specifications for the operation of Franchisee's Business through such emails, text messages, announcements, memos and intranet system. The intranet system houses our online educational platform that houses our video vault and proprietary training modules and courses (including curriculum, lesson plans and workshops) intended to complement Franchisee's efforts in training its Employees. All training modules and courses within our educational platform are owned by Aaron ("Jesse") Cox and licensed to us. Franchisee will be provided with access to our online educational platform during the initial training program and there will be no ongoing usage fees. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to be a promise or guarantee by us as to the continued existence of our online educational platform or a particular training module or course; nor shall any provision herein imply or establish an obligation on the part of us to reinstate our online educational platform or any type of training module and/or course if discontinued by us or for any liability to Franchisee for any loss revenue incurred by Franchisee as a result of our decision to discontinue our online educational platform or a particular training module or course. Franchisee agrees that we have the right, in our sole discretion, to change, modify, add or discontinue our online educational platform or any training module or course at any time, in our sole discretion. We will have no obligation for the hosting of the intranet system (for example if hosting company goes down or shuts down the intranet system for maintenance or security reasons) or to maintain the intranet system indefinitely and may dismantle it at any time without notice and liability to Franchisee and the following will apply

1. We have established policies and procedures for use of the intranet system. These policies, procedures and other terms of use may address the issues such as (i) restrictions on the use of abusive, slanderous or otherwise offensive language in electronic communications; (ii) restrictions on communications between or among franchisees that endorse or encourage breach of any agreement with us; (iii) confidentiality of materials that we transmit; (iv) password protocols and other security procedures; (v) grounds for suspending, or revoking Franchisee's access to the intranet system; (vi) restrictions on copyright and other intellectual property infringement matters; and (vii) a privacy policy governing our access to and use of electronic communications that franchisees submit on the intranet system. Franchisee acknowledges that as administrator of the intranet system, we can access and view any communication that anyone posts on the intranet system. Franchisee further acknowledges that the intranet system and all communications that are posted to it will become our property, free of any claims of privacy or privilege that Franchisee or any other person may assert.
2. Franchisee agrees to purchase and install all necessary additions to its computers and/or laptops and to establish and to continuously maintain an electronic connection with our intranet system to allow us to send messages to and receive messages from Franchisee. Franchisee's obligation to maintain connectivity with the intranet system will continue until expiration or termination of this Agreement.
3. We may use part of the System Advertising Fund that we collect under this Agreement to develop, maintain and further develop the intranet system and our educational platform.

We may require Franchisee to join and participate in industry specific, local or national associations. Such associations may include, but are not limited to, Franchisee's local Chamber of Commerce or Better Business Bureau. We may deem participation in such associations to be invaluable and necessary for the operation and continued growth of the Business. Currently we have no such requirements. We reserve the right to require Franchisee to join and participate in other professional organizations as we deem appropriate in our sole discretion. Franchisee will be responsible for all membership fees and any related costs if we require such participation in the future. Franchisee's full and complete participation in such programs and associations are required. Except as otherwise provided herein, compliance and participation shall be at Franchisee's expense.

In the marketing and operation of a Franchisee's Business, Franchisee will use each of, and only, the contracts, waivers and/or other forms and/or materials as are designated by us periodically. However, if Franchisee chooses to operate out of a location (rather than home-based), Franchisee may lease a space subject to the landlord's lease, as long as the lease contains all of the terms and conditions required by this Agreement; the lease is adjusted to accommodate this Agreement (ideally the lease is coterminous with this Agreement but not required); and the Franchisee may execute its lender's standard promissory note, personal guaranty and security agreement provided that the terms and conditions of any promissory note, personal guaranty and security agreement do not affect or impair this Agreement, or any of our rights or remedies under this Agreement. If the Franchisee has two or more Owners or it is an Entity, then the Franchisee must submit a copy of its Operating Agreement, Partnership Agreement, Business Trust Agreement, or Shareholders Agreement and bylaws, as applicable for our review prior to execution as specified in Section XII.R of this Agreement.

All advertising and promotions by Franchisee in any medium shall be conducted in a dignified manner and shall conform to our standards and requirements as set forth in the Operations Manual. Franchisee shall have the right to sell and offer Products and Services at any prices and rates Franchisee may determine, except that we reserve the right to establish minimum and maximum prices and/or rates for any given Product or Service nationwide to the extent allowed by federal and state laws. To clarify, Franchisee agrees that we have the right, in our sole discretion, to establish minimum and maximum prices for Products and rates for Services so long as such decisions are made with the honest belief that the measure we are adopting will help everyone in the System meet competition and succeed in the marketplace. Franchisee is prohibited from heavily discounting Products and Services offered and must adhere to our minimum and maximum pricing guidelines, except as otherwise provided by applicable federal or state laws. If Franchisee elects to offer or sell any Product and/or Service at any price or rate recommended by us, Franchisee acknowledges that we have made no guarantee or warranty that offering such Products and Services at the recommended price or rate will enhance Franchisee's sales or profits. Franchisee shall participate in and comply with all sales and promotional programs and/or product promotions promulgated by us periodically.

I. Use of Approved Equipment, Products and Vendors

Franchisee acknowledges that we have spent considerable time in determining what equipment, products, supplies, processes, methods and vendors to use in the operation of an Access Garage Doors® business. Accordingly, Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee is to use only approved equipment, products, supplies, services, vendors and suppliers that includes but is not limited to: equipment (such as electric hammer drills, electric impact drills, air compressor, air guns and different electric powered saws, etc.), furniture and fixtures, technology items (such as computer, laptops, printers, modems, etc.), products (such as: various hand tools, lubricants, solvents, garage door parts, etc.), privately labeled products (which are products developed by a third-party vendor and carry our brand such as our lubricants), supplies (such as: hardware, hoses, clamps, cleaning supplies, office supplies etc.), software, uniforms, Vehicle, signage (including vehicle graphics), merchant service providers, technology support providers, promotional merchandise, marketing materials and printed advertising materials, shows and event marketing opportunities, and vendor, co-branding, affinity programs. We will provide Franchisee with a written list of approved vendors and/or suppliers for all equipment, products, supplies and services that Franchisee is authorized to use in its Business. We may derive income through license fees, promotional fees, advertising allowances, rebates or other monies paid by approved vendors and/or suppliers. We do not know the precise basis of these payments because we have never previously collected them. If we require Franchisee to buy from us, we will exercise commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that such equipment and/or product price and quality will be comparable to similar equipment and products from other sources. We may take a portion of income earned from license fees, promotional fees, advertising allowances or rebates to spend on advertising or place in a separate franchise advertising account. If we require Franchisee to buy equipment, products, supplies or services from a vendor that pays such allowances, we may spend all such fees on related advertising or place them in the advertising account Fund as described in Section X.B of this Agreement. If we do not require the purchase, we do not need to place such funds in a separate account or use them on advertising. Franchisee, agrees that we may periodically and upon written notice, add to, modify or change such approved equipment, products, supplies, services, vendors and suppliers. Franchisee promises to promptly accept and implement, in the operation of the Business, all such additions, modifications and changes at Franchisees expense. In addition, Franchisee acknowledges that:

1. If Franchisee chooses to operate out of a location (rather than home-based) Franchisee acknowledges that we have spent considerable time designing the decoration and outfitting of an Access Garage Doors® business with equipment, furnishing, fixtures, floor displays, décor items and signage. This is part of our trade dress. If operating out of a location, Franchisee must purchase such items from us and/or our affiliates or approved vendors as specified in the Operations Manual and Section XII.T of this Agreement.
2. To insure the consistent high quality and uniformity of Products offered and Services provided by Access Garage Doors® franchised businesses, Franchisee must purchase and use equipment, products, supplies and services (as described above) from us, our affiliates or those approved vendors who demonstrate to our continuing satisfaction an ability to meet our standards and specifications. We are not liable to Franchisee for any loss or damage, or deemed to be in breach of this Agreement, if we, our affiliates or approved vendors and/or suppliers cannot deliver, or cause to be delivered, Franchisee's order of the items mentioned above where such items are out-of-stock or discontinued. Franchisee is prohibited from purchasing and using equipment, products, supplies and services from unapproved vendors and/or suppliers who are not on our approved list without our written approval. All vendors and suppliers that Franchisee purchases from must be approved in writing by us and may be disapproved by us anytime thereafter. We shall approve or deny Franchisee's request, which approval is in our sole discretion, within thirty (30) days of receipt of Franchisee's written request. Such approval or disapproval shall be made by e-mail or any other form of written communication. If Franchisee purchases or uses any equipment, products, supplies or services from any unapproved vendor or supplier without our permission, as described above, it may result in termination of this Agreement as specified in Section XXIII.C.
3. In approving any vendor or supplier, we may consider factors such as: price, quality, composition, performance, accuracy of product claims, durability, safety, technical specifications, frequency of delivery, design, service maintenance programs, determination of quality control, value, customer service, prompt attention to complaints, litigation against the supplier, reputation of supplier, any product recalls instituted by the United States Consumer Product Safety Commission, the supplier's financial strength and capacity to supply Franchisee needs promptly, reliably, and cost effectively. All vendors and suppliers must be approved in writing by us and may be disapproved by us anytime thereafter. If Franchisee desires to purchase unapproved equipment, products or supplies from unapproved vendors, Franchisee must submit to us a written request for such approval. We will respond to Franchisee request within thirty (30) days from the date the request is received by email or any other form of written communication. We shall have the right to require, as a condition of its approval and review, that its representatives be permitted to inspect the facilities of the proposed vendor or supplier and that the proposed item is delivered to us or our designee for testing. The cost of such inspection and testing shall be paid by Franchisee, vendor or supplier and we shall not be liable for damage to or for the return of any sample. We may require Franchisee's vendors to sign our pre-approved Confidentiality and Nondisclosure Agreement, guarantee our level of quality. We reserve the right to re-inspect the facilities and to re-test the equipment, products and supplies of any approved vendor or supplier and to revoke any approval if the vendor fails to continue to meet our high standards.

4. Franchisee will not make any claims against us with respect to any vendor and/or related supplier (including our affiliates) for equipment, products, supplies or services (as described above) necessary for the operation of the Business (and/or our designation of, or our relationship with, any vendor or supplier). WE MAKE NO WARRANTIES REGARDING ANY VENDOR EQUIPMENT, PRODUCTS OR SUPPLIES AND HEREBY DISCLAIM THE IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, THE IMPLIED WARRANTY OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, THE IMPLIED WARRANTY OF QUALITY OF COMPUTER PROGRAMS, THE IMPLIED WARRANTY OF SYSTEM INTEGRATION, AND THE IMPLIED WARRANTY OF INFORMATION CONTENT. FRANCHISOR MAKES NO WARRANTY THAT ANY VENDOR PROVIDED SOFTWARE WILL BE BUG FREE, VIRUS FREE, OR FREE OF TROJAN HORSES OR WORMS. FRANCHISEE HEREBY AGREES THAT SUCH DISCLAIMER IS AN ESSENTIAL PART OF THE BARGAIN, AND THAT WE WOULD NOT HAVE ENTERED INTO THIS TRANSACTION ABSENT SUCH DISCLAIMER. Any claim with respect to any vendor-related and/or similar matters shall be made only against the vendor in question. Franchisee will provide us with written notice prior to taking any action in connection with such a claim. We will use diligent efforts to assist Franchisees in resolving any disputes with vendors approved and/or designated by us.
5. Franchisee will be required to purchase, use and sell all branded merchandise or proprietary products developed by us, which will be listed in the Operations Manual. The term "Proprietary Products" is defined as all products and equipment developed and manufactured for us pursuant to proprietary processes, supplies, marketing materials and other Access Garage Doors® branded products or equipment all of which must be purchased by the Franchisee directly either from us, our affiliates or approved vendors, unless the Franchisee has submitted and received written approval from us to use an alternate supplier. Failure of Franchisee to purchase, use and/or offer for sale Proprietary Products will result in termination of this agreement as specified in Section XXIII.C of this Agreement.
6. Franchisee acknowledges that we do not now, but may in the future require Franchisee to maintain in inventory a minimum representation of products and Proprietary Products in its Business "Minimum Representation" shall be defined as the continuous maintenance of an amount of products and/or Proprietary Products meeting requirements as defined in the Operations Manual. If this requirement is implemented, Franchisee shall at all times comply with our Minimum Representation requirements and the terms of any auto-ship requirements (currently we do not have any auto-ship requirements; however, we do require that Franchisee purchase updates for all advertising, promotional and marketing materials and miscellaneous forms when designated as mandatory by us and as specified in the Operations Manual).

7. Franchisee shall not make changes to any equipment, products or Proprietary Products including making modifications, changing containers, packaging, labeling, promotional materials, advertising, cartons or the like without our or the manufacturer's prior written approval, which may be withheld in our or the manufacturer's sole discretion. Failure to adhere to these guidelines will result in termination of this Agreement as specified in Section XXIII.C.
8. Franchisee may not independently act as an exclusive distributor for any third-party vendor or secure any exclusive rights to distribute any equipment, products and/or Proprietary Products inside or outside of Franchisee's Territory without our written consent. We shall approve or deny Franchisee's request, which approval is in our sole discretion, within thirty (30) days of receipt of Franchisee's written request. Failure to adhere to these guidelines will result in termination of this Agreement as specified in Section XXIII.C of this Agreement.
9. Franchisee shall not manufacture or produce any piece of equipment, product or supply that is similar to, or competes with any of our equipment, products, Proprietary Products or third-party products, or any piece of equipment used or offered in an Access Garage Doors® business without the advanced written consent of us or manufacturer, which may be granted or denied in ours or the manufacturer's sole discretion. Violation of this shall be grounds for immediate termination as specified in Section XXIII.C of this Agreement.
10. Franchisee must inspect all products and equipment promptly upon receipt and may reject any piece of equipment or product that fails in any material respect to conform to manufacturer's description. Any product that has not been rejected within five (5) business days upon receipt shall be considered accepted. Rejected products or equipment must be returned to the manufacturer within three (3) days of the date on which manufacturer authorizes the return or as manufacturer specifies;
11. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that, at our sole option, we may establish one or more strategic alliances or preferred vendor programs with one or more nationally or regionally-known suppliers who are willing to supply all or some Access Garage Doors® businesses with some or all of the equipment, products and supplies that we require for use and/or sale in the development and/or operation of the Business. In this event, we may limit the number of approved vendors with whom Franchisee may deal, designate sources that Franchisee must use for some or all equipment, products, supplies and other products and services, and/or refuse any of Franchisee's requests if we believe that this action is in the best interests of the System. We shall have unlimited discretion to approve or disapprove the vendors or suppliers who may be permitted to sell equipment, products and supplies to franchisees;
12. Franchisee agrees to purchase, use, maintain and update at Franchisee's expense all technology items and software meeting our specifications, as we may modify them. Franchisee will be required to such items from us, our affiliates or our approved vendors. We reserve the right to have independent access to all information that Franchisee stores in any computer, laptop, tablet, phone system or software used for the Business. Franchisee agrees to comply with our then-current Terms of Use and Privacy Policies and any other upgrade requirements regarding all technology items and software, including Internet usage. Supplier and/or licensor charges for use, maintenance, support and/or updates of such required items are the Franchisee's responsibility.

13. Franchisee may be required to use our proprietary software for the operation of the Business (currently not in effect). If we develop proprietary software and require Franchisee to use such software, we will provide Franchisee with a ninety (90) day written notice to purchase (if applicable) and use such software for the operation of its Business. If developed, we will provide all update and upgrade requirements for the proprietary software as necessary. The installation, maintenance, repairs and upgrade costs for the proprietary software will be the responsibility of the Franchisee. Usage of any proprietary software ("Software"), if developed, will be subject to the following terms:
 - a. Franchisee will use our Software on a computer system or device that: (i) meets our computer hardware specifications; and (ii) is located at the Premises or on a backup system if the original computer is inoperable. Franchisee will be licensed to use our Software only for Franchisee's internal, in-house data processing and data communications purposes and only in connection with the Business and not for re-marketing or redistribution under any circumstances;
 - b. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that we (or any of our affiliates) will be the sole and exclusive owner of all right, title and interest in and to our Software, including all trade secrets and copyrights related to the Software, subject only to the rights we expressly license to Franchisee in this Agreement. This license will not provide Franchisee with title or ownership of the Software, but only a limited right of use. Franchisee agrees that Franchisee will not contest or otherwise seek to share, diminish or invalidate our ownership rights in our Software;
 - c. Franchisee will not modify the Software in any way without our prior written consent. Franchisee will promptly disclose to us all ideas and suggestions for modifications or enhancements to the Software that Franchisee conceives or develops, and we will have the right to use such ideas and suggestions. We shall own all copyrights and other intellectual property rights to all modifications and suggestions proposed by Franchisee. The term "all copyrights and other intellectual property rights" shall mean all means, methods, and process, by all media whether now known or hereinafter invented, including complete and entire interactive rights and rights to derivative works. Franchisee agrees that Franchisee will not: (i) copy the Software except as necessary for use in the Business; (ii) translate, reverse engineer, reverse compile, modify, alter, disassemble or create derivative works based on the Software; (iii) sublicense, rent, lease, sell or otherwise transfer the Software or any portion thereof, or any rights therein, to any person or entity. Failure to adhere to these guidelines or allowing unauthorized usage of the Software will result in termination of this Agreement as specified in Section XXIII.C of this Agreement;
- f. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the Software, if developed, will be our valuable, proprietary product, the design and development of which took the investment of considerable time, money and effort of skilled computer programmers. Franchisee will keep the Software and any data generated by the use of the Software confidential during and after the term of this Agreement and will maintain security precautions to maintain the secrecy of the Software and to prevent unauthorized access or use of the Software. Franchisee agrees that it will treat the Software as confidential and that the Software will contain substantial trade secrets of ours that we have entrusted to Franchisee in confidence to use only as we authorize under this Agreement. WE WILL NOT WARRANT THAT THE FUNCTIONS CONTAINED IN THE SOFTWARE MEET FRANCHISEE'S REQUIREMENTS OR THAT THE USE OF THE SOFTWARE WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR FREE. WE MAKE NO WARRANTIES REGARDING ANY OPEN SOURCE SOFTWARE. In no event will we be liable to Franchisee for damages, including any lost profits, lost savings, or other incidental or consequential damages, relating to the use of or inability to use the Software, even if we have been advised of the possibility of such damages, or for any claim by any other party. The foregoing limitations of liability are intended to apply without regard to whether other provisions of this Agreement have been breached or proven ineffective;

- h. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee's license to the Software will terminate immediately should Franchisee fail to adhere to any of Franchisee's obligations under this license or if this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason;
 - i. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that any violation by Franchisee of the provisions of the Software license would cause us irreparable harm for which we would not have an adequate remedy at law; and that, in addition to other remedies available to us, we will be entitled to seek injunctive relief against any such violation;

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee is solely responsible for protecting themselves from these problems. Franchisee must also take reasonable steps to verify that information about Franchisee's vendors, suppliers, lenders, landlords, customers and governmental agencies on which Franchisee rely, are reasonably protected. This may include taking reasonable steps to secure Franchisee's systems, including, but not limited to, firewalls, access code protection, anti-virus systems and use of backup systems.

If Franchisee chooses to operate out of a location, we have set standards and specifications for the construction and build-out of the Business; and equipment, furniture, fixtures, floor displays, décor items and signage (including vehicle graphics) used, including our subjective determinations relating to quality, value and appearance.

If Franchisee fails to pay in advance in full for each shipment of items purchased (if applicable) or services to be performed (if applicable), we or our affiliates shall not be obligated to sell such items or perform such services for Franchisee.

J. Use Approved Design and Signage for the Premises

In operating an Access Garage Doors® business, and if Franchisee chooses to operate out of a location (rather than home-based) Franchisee must adhere to our signage standards and utilize signage designs in accordance with the standards and specifications recommended by us, or that which will continue to be recommended by us. Franchisee must purchase signage (including vehicle graphics) from us, our approved suppliers, or submit an alternate supplier to us for approval. Franchisee shall purchase or lease, subject to local building codes and regulations, such signs that provide maximum displays of our Names and Marks. Upon renewal of this Agreement, Franchisee shall be totally responsible for obtaining and equipping the Premises and all Vehicles with the signage (including vehicle graphics) that is approved for use by us at the time of the renewal of this Agreement. The color, size, design and location of said signage shall be as specified and/or approved by us. Franchisee shall not place additional signs, posters, newspaper racks, video games, juke boxes, gaming machines, gum machines, any type of games or rides, vending machines or other similar devices and décor items in the Business without our prior written consent.

K. Participation in the Operation of the Business

Franchisee acknowledges that an Access Garage Doors® business involves hard work and sometimes long hours, similar to most small businesses that are owner operated. Franchisee acknowledges that we have not represented that this business is going to be easy for Franchisee (or any of its Owners) and agrees to participate in the day-to-day operation of the Business. Franchisee may assign the supervision of the Business to an Owner or Operations Manager once approved by us. Franchisee agrees that the Operations Manager will supervise all Employees and independent contractors (if Franchisee chooses to hire independent contractors). The Operations Manager will also be responsible for providing continuing guidance, oversight, day-to-day management, instruction and properly process all reports or complaints.

L. Advertising the Business

Franchisee agrees to create a local advertising and marketing plan by which Franchisee shall place local advertising in any media it desires, provided that such advertising conforms to our standards and requirements as set forth in the Operations Manual or otherwise designated by us. Such advertising may include but is not limited to: Any type of media (media advertising is further described below), telephone, email, Internet, domain name, electronic network, directory and listings of the Business per our written approval. All items mentioned are our property and on termination will revert to us. Franchisee agrees to execute any and all documents needed to perfect such reversions. Franchisee shall not advertise the Business in connection with any other business, except with our prior written approval. Franchisee shall obtain our prior approval of all unapproved advertising and promotional plans and materials that Franchisee desires to use thirty (30) days before the start of any such plans. Franchisee shall submit such unapproved plans and materials to us (by personal delivery, through the mail with return receipt if requested or any method we prescribe). Franchisee shall not use such plans or materials until they have been approved by us and shall promptly discontinue use of any advertising or promotional plans and material upon our request. Any plans or materials submitted by Franchisee to us, which have not been approved or disapproved in writing, within thirty (30) days of receipt, by us, shall be deemed not approved.

Franchisee will not independently advertise or promote the Business in any media (including on any Websites as defined in Section VI) without our prior written approval. If given permission, Franchisee can use any materials previously approved by us. Franchisee must submit a request to us to use unapproved materials (such as photographs or video presentations) for any type of media promotion in addition to any edits, changes or updates to Franchisees website and all such edits, changes or updates must be performed by us, its affiliates or approved vendors. We shall approve or deny Franchisee's request, which approval is in its sole discretion, within thirty (30) days of receipt of Franchisee's written request. If we fail to respond to Franchisee's request within said thirty (30) day period, Franchisee's request shall be deemed denied. Franchisee will participate in, at its own expense, and cooperate with all advertising and promotional programs we or any advertising group of franchisees selects, including any franchise marketing council we may implement. Franchisee is not required to follow or maintain any special pricing for Products or rates for Services, except that we will set minimum and maximum prices and/or rates and will suggest rates and prices, to the extent allowed by federal or state law.

Franchisee shall at all times use its best efforts to promote and increase recognition of the Products and Services offered by the Business pursuant to the System and Operations Manual, to effect the widest and best possible distribution of Products and Services from the Business and to devote its best efforts to growing the Business.

M. Maintain Regular Business Hours

We require that Franchisee's Business must be open for operation at a minimum of five days a week, which could be any five days with minimum hours of 8am to 5pm on weekdays, except holidays as specified in the Operations Manual; or the hours otherwise approved in writing by us; or as required by the lease of the Premises(if applicable). Weekends are optional. It is also required that the Franchisee has its phone answered after hours (Franchisee is encouraged to utilize an answering service or call center for its Business), respond to after hour inquiries and service calls immediately or within twenty-four (24) hours of the initial inquiry (as further described in the Operations Manual) and maintain an e-mail address for the Business to take messages and respond to customers outside of regular business hours.

N. Maintain Uniform Operating Standards

Franchisee understands and acknowledges that every detail of the operation of the Business is important to the Franchisee, us and other franchisees in order to develop and maintain uniform operating standards, to increase the demand for Services offered and Products sold by the Business under our System and to protect our reputation, quality standards, and goodwill.

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the System must continue to evolve in order to reflect changing market conditions and meet new and changing consumer demands. As a consequence, changes, modifications and variations to the System's standards, Products, Services and programs (such as our proprietary Service Guarantee Program and Warranty Programs) offered may be required from time to time to preserve and enhance the public image of the System and enhance the operational efficiency of all franchises.

Franchisee therefore agrees that we may periodically and upon written notice, add to, modify or change the System, including without limitation making changes to approved Products, Services and programs Franchisee is authorized to offer, sell and perform; equipment, products, supplies, methods, strategies and techniques as used in the operation of the Business; the adoption and use of new or modified trademarks, uniform dress requirements, Vehicle appearance standards (including vehicle graphics), floor displays signage (if applicable), software, operations software, educational platform, sales, advertising, promotion and marketing materials. Franchisee will not sell any product or engage in any services, trade practices, abusive, excessive, or illegal collection techniques or other activity that we determine to be harmful to the goodwill, quality standards, or to reflect unfavorably on the reputation of Franchisee or us, the Franchised Business, or the Products and Services sold thereof; or which constitutes deceptive or unfair competition, results in unfounded litigation against Franchisee's customers or otherwise is in violation of any applicable laws. The above limitations are closely related to our business image, purpose and marketing strategy of the System, and therefore any change therefrom would fundamentally change the nature of the business;

We will not require Franchisee to make any changes, modifications and variations to the System that are not required of all franchisees (unless such change, modification or variation relates only to certain franchisees due to one or more unique factors such as geographic location, local laws, regulations or customs); furthermore, we may periodically meet with representative groups of franchisees and solicit their input prior to the implementation of any material change or modification. Franchisee's failure to comply with modifications to the System within ninety (90) days of such written notice is an incurable default as described in Section XXIII.C of this Agreement.

O. Telephone Number of Business and Website

Franchisee understands and agrees that the telephone number(s), URL address, website and if permitted, Website for the Business (and any mobile phone numbers) constitute a part of the System and are subject to the restrictions of this Agreement. Accordingly, Franchisee shall not change the telephone number(s), URL address, website or Website for the Business without prior notice and our written approval. Franchisee shall advertise and publicize the telephone number(s), URL address, website and Website for the Business in the manner prescribed by us. As stated above, all telephone numbers, URL addresses, website, Websites, Internet or similar connections, directory and listings for the Franchised Business are our property and upon termination will revert to us.

Franchisee shall promptly disclose to us all products, equipment, discoveries, methods, techniques, formulas, processes, programs, video presentations, photographs, concepts, operational procedures, inventions or ideas, whether patentable or not, relating to our business, which are conceived or made by Franchisee or any Owner, agent, or employee of Franchisee solely or jointly with others, during the term of this Agreement, whether or not our facilities, materials, or personnel are utilized in the conception or making of such discoveries or ideas. Franchisee hereby acknowledges and agrees that all such products, equipment, discoveries, methods, techniques, formulas, processes, programs, video presentations, photographs, concepts, operational procedures, inventions or ideas are our exclusive property and that we shall have no obligation to compensate the Franchisee for any such discovery or idea. However, as a matter of corporate policy, we may, in our sole discretion, create an incentive program to reward Franchisee, its owners, employees or agents for any such new product, equipment, method, technique, formula, process, program, video presentation, photograph, concept, invention or improvement that we implement throughout the System. Franchisee, its officers, directors, managers, members, partners and shareholders agree to execute all documents deemed reasonably necessary by us to assign all such patent, trade secret, trademark, copyright and intellectual property rights in any Franchisee discovery or idea to us. The term "all copyright and intellectual property rights" shall mean all means, methods, and process, by all media whether now known or hereinafter invested, including complete and entire interactive rights and rights to derivative works. The purpose of this clause is to ensure that ideas for improvements to the System that may be generated by franchisees within the System will be distributed to the other franchisees as a benefit of belonging to the System. The Franchisee agrees to execute all documents that we deem are reasonably necessary to carry out such transfer of intellectual property rights to us.

Q. Permit Franchisor to Enter the Premises

Franchisee shall permit us and our agents or representatives to enter the Premises during normal business hours for the purpose of conducting inspections with twenty-four (24) hour notice to Franchisee and inspect the operations of the Business, review business operations (which includes visiting job sites in addition to photographing and taking video or digital recordings of the operations of the Business for observation purposes) and to remove equipment or samples of products, without payment, for our review to determine if such equipment or samples meet our then-current standards and specifications. We have the right to require that Franchisee's Operations Manager be at the Business for any inspection we, our affiliates or third parties conduct. In addition, we may use secret shoppers to inspect and ensure that unauthorized equipment, products or services are not being used, offered, sold or performed. Franchisee shall cooperate fully with our representatives in such inspections by rendering such assistance as they may reasonably request, and, upon notice from us or our agents, and without limiting our other rights under this Agreement, shall take such steps as may be deemed necessary to immediately correct any deficiencies detected during such inspections. In the event Franchisee fails or refuses to promptly correct immediately any deficiency detected during such inspection, we shall have the right to make or cause to be made such changes as may be required, at the expense of Franchisee, which expense Franchisee agrees to pay upon demand. The foregoing shall be in addition to any other remedies we may have pursuant to this Agreement.

T. Development and Construction of the Premises

If Franchisee chooses to operate out of a location, rather than home-based, Franchisee must select and employ licensed contractors reasonably acceptable by us for the complete build out and/or any leasehold improvements. Franchisee is solely responsible for the selection and work of any contractor selected and/or employed by Franchisee, even if referred by us, and for the preparation of working drawings necessary to complete construction and/or build out at the approved Premises. Franchisee will be provided with mandatory requirements and specifications (interior and exterior) for the build out of the Premises which includes specifications for layout, storage, furnishings, fixtures, floor displays, décor and signage. Franchisee shall be responsible for obtaining all zoning classifications, clearances, permits and certifications which may be required by state or local laws, ordinances or regulations or which may be necessary or advisable owing to any restrictive covenants relating to the Premises. After having obtained such approvals and clearances, Franchisee shall submit to us, for our approval, final plans for construction based upon the preliminary plans and specifications. Once approved by us, such final plans shall not thereafter be changed or modified without the prior written permission of us. Any such change made without our prior written permission shall constitute a material default under this Agreement and we may withhold our authorization to open the Business until the unauthorized change is rectified (or reversed) to our reasonable satisfaction.

Franchisee shall comply with all federal, state and local laws, codes and regulations, including without limitation, the applicable provisions of the ADA regarding the construction, design and operation of the Premises. If Franchisee receives any complaint, claim or other notice alleging a failure to comply with the ADA or other law or regulation related to health or safety, Franchisee agrees that it shall provide us with a copy of such notice within five (5) days after receipt thereof. Franchisee shall remedy the problem within the required time frame or review with us the matter and comply with our direction regarding the timing and nature of the remedy.

Except as provided in Section IX.B of this Agreement, Franchisee shall construct, furnish and open the Business according to the requirements contained herein, and Franchisee shall open the Business for operation no later than sixty (60) days after executing this Agreement. Time is of the essence. Prior to opening for operation, Franchisee shall provide us with evidence of lien-free completion of all work (including, without limitation, any and all mechanic liens) and to comply with all pre-opening requirements set forth in this Agreement (including without limitation those with respect to any grand opening advertising and marketing strategies), the Operations Manual and/or elsewhere in writing by us.

If Franchisee operates out of a location, Franchisee may be required not to open the Business for operation until we have determined that all construction has been substantially completed, and that such construction conforms to our standards including, but not limited to: materials, quality of work, furnishings, fixtures, floor displays, signage, decor, paint and we have given Franchisee written approval to open, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Our approval to open the Business for operation does not constitute a waiver of our right to require Franchisee to conform the Business to our standards.

XIII. SPECIFIC OBLIGATIONS OF FRANCHISEE RELATING TO INSURANCE

A. Overall Coverage Required

Before Franchisee opens its Business, Franchisee must purchase insurance coverage from a responsible carrier with a performance rating of A or higher as rated in the most recent edition of Best Insurance Reports (or comparable criteria as we may specify). Franchisee must maintain such insurance throughout the duration of the initial term of the Franchise Agreement and any renewal terms. Franchisee will procure and maintain general liability insurance and product liability insurance (covers Franchisee for damages that result in injury from products that Franchisee distributes) with minimum policy limits of one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence and two million dollars ($2,000,000) aggregate or in amounts specified by us. Franchisee must also procure and maintain “All Risks” or “Special Form” insurance (coverage for the full cost of replacement of the Premises and all other property); business interruption insurance to fully insure loss of earnings for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days or longer as we may specify; and automobile liability insurance that includes hired and non-owned coverage with a minimum policy limit of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) including uninsured motorist/minimum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or what is in accordance with Franchisee’s state guidelines. Franchisee may also need to procure and maintain statutory workers’ compensation insurance with limits of greater than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or the minimum limits required by law. Each insurance policy that we require under this Agreement must contain a provision that the policy cannot be canceled without thirty (30) days’ written notice to us.

For any construction, renovation, refurbishment or remodeling of the site, Franchisee may be required by us to require that its general contractor maintain, with an approved insurer, commercial general liability insurance (with comprehensive automobile liability coverage for both owned and non-owned vehicles, builders’ risk and independent contractor’s coverage) with limits of no less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) per claim, naming Franchisee and us as additional insureds, as their interests may appear, together with workers’ compensation and employer’s liability insurance as required by law. It is Franchisee’s responsibility to obtain certificates of insurance from the contractor prior to the initiation of any construction.

To the extent available, we may require Franchisee to obtain: professional liability insurance (covers Franchisee for damages that do not result in property or bodily injury), employer’s liability insurance, employment practices liability insurance, employee dishonesty insurance and crime insurance as well as other disability benefits type insurance as may be required by the statute or rule of each state, with policy limits of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or in the amount we specify.

All insurance policies will name Franchisee as certificate holder and us and our affiliates as an additional named insured with waiver of subrogation by Franchisee for the benefit of us. We may establish minimum standards for coverage to be met by underwriters for insurance and we have the right to audit Franchisee’s insurance policies at any reasonable time without notice. Prior to getting the Business operational, selling Products and/or performing Services, Franchisee will obtain required insurance as described above along with any other liability insurance required by law; provide us with certificates of insurance within ten (10) days of issuance; and maintain all required insurance during the term of this Agreement. Franchisee shall also furnish us with certificates and endorsements evidencing insurance coverage within ten (10) days after each of the following events: (i) at all policy renewal periods, no less often than annually and (ii) at all instances of any change to, addition to or replacement of any insurance. Lapses, alterations, or cancellations require immediate notice to us and may be deemed a material breach of this Agreement as set forth in Section XXIII.C. If Franchisee fails to obtain the required insurance and to keep the same in full force and effect, we may, but shall not be obligated to, pay the premiums or acquire insurance and bill Franchisee. Franchisee shall reimburse us for the full cost of such insurance, along with a reasonable service charge to compensate us for the time and effort expended to secure such insurance. We may change these insurance requirements on reasonable notice to Franchisee.

Franchisee's insurance will cover all claims for injury, damage and death or otherwise, arising directly or indirectly out of the Franchised Business.

Franchisee shall notify us immediately in writing of the occurrence of any material event that does or could give rise to an insurable claim by Franchisee or the Franchised Business, and no later than the date on which Franchisee notifies its insurance carrier.

We reserve the right to change or modify (including increasing) the required minimum coverage limits. We make no representation or warranty to Franchisee that the amount of insurance to be carried by Franchisee under the terms of this Agreement is adequate to fully protect Franchisee's interest. If Franchisee believes that the amount of any such insurance is insufficient, Franchisee is encouraged to obtain, at its sole cost and expense, such additional insurance as it may deem desirable or adequate. Franchisee agrees to seek the advice of its insurance advisor regarding the appropriate types of coverage and coverage limits Franchisee may need to sufficiently protect its Business. Franchisee acknowledges that we shall not, by the fact of approving, disapproving, waiving, accepting, or obtaining any insurance, incur any liability for or with respect to the amount of insurance carried, the form or legal sufficiency of such insurance, the solvency of any insurance companies or the payment or defense of any lawsuit in connection with such insurance coverage, and Franchisee hereby expressly assumes full responsibility therefore and all liability, if any, with respect thereto. Franchisee agrees to seek the advice of its insurance advisor regarding the appropriate types of coverage and coverage limits Franchisee may need to sufficiently protect its Business.

Franchisee's compliance with insurance requirements shall not relieve Franchisee of its liability under the indemnity provisions of this Agreement, Section XVIII. Obligations to maintain insurance coverage will not be affected by reason of any separate insurance maintained by us, nor will the maintenance of such insurance relieve Franchisee of any obligations under this Agreement.

Franchisee shall also acquire tenant's liability insurance (if applicable); any other insurance required by the state or locality in which the Business is located and operated, in such amounts as required by statute; and other insurance coverage, as we or the landlord may reasonably require.

Franchisee shall furnish us with certified copies of each of the insurance policies described above on either the earlier of Business being deemed open for operation (as defined in Section X.A) or sixty (60) days following the date this Agreement is executed.

Franchisee may be provided with a recommended rate or wage schedule and may elect to use, subject to applicable laws, these rates or wages as a guide when hiring Employees and independent contractors. Franchisee acknowledges that we have made no guarantee or warranty that using such recommended or suggested rates or wages will enhance Franchisee's sales or profits. Rate or wage negotiations with Employees and independent contractors are the sole responsibility of the Franchisee. Franchisee acknowledges that it is fully in charge of hiring of all its Employees and independent contractors (if Franchisee chooses to hire independent contractors) and for managing such individuals on an on-going basis. Our input as to hiring and management of Employees and bringing on independent contractors are suggestions and guidelines which we believe are important, and except for specific requirement set forth in this Agreement or the Manual, Franchisee is responsible for making all employee related decisions.

Failure of Franchisee to adhere to our guidelines and standards when hiring Employees, which may include the requirement of criminal background checks for all prospective Employees and independent contractors that go to job sites (if Franchisee chooses to hire independent contractors) may be considered a breach of this Agreement, and we may terminate, in our sole discretion the Agreement, except where the Franchisee has reasonable cause to deviate from our standards as described in Section XXIII.C of this Agreement.

F. No Warranties Other than in Writing

With respect to any equipment, products, supplies and/or services (as defined in Section XII.I) provided by us or our affiliates and/or any person/company referred/approved by us or our affiliates, other than specific written warranties expressly provided in connection with such items, such items are provided without any warranties, express or implied, the warranties of merchantability and suitability for a particular purpose being expressly disclaimed. In addition, we make no warranties regarding any open source code contained in any software that we may provide to the Franchisee. We do not warrant that any such software shall be free of bugs, viruses, worms, or Trojan horses.

We are not liable for any guarantee or warranty the Franchisee, its Owners, Operations Manager or Employee of the Franchisee makes to a customer, account or to any third party. Franchisee will fully comply with our proprietary Service Guarantee Program and Warranty Program and any rewards or loyalty program, gift certificate, gift card or promotional programs developed and designed by us (as described in Section XII.H of this Agreement). Franchisee will not misrepresent or omit or fail to state any warranty or guarantee to its customers or third parties.

G. Operations Manual

We will revise the Operations Manual and the contents of any other manuals and materials created or approved for use in the operation of the Business, from time to time as we deem necessary to improve on the methods of operations. Franchisee expressly agrees that each new or changed standard shall be deemed effective upon receipt by Franchisee or as specified in such standard. We will lend Franchisee the confidential Operations Manual for the initial training program and if Franchisee satisfactorily completes training, for the term of this Agreement. If the copy of the Operations Manual loaned to Franchisee is lost, stolen or destroyed before Franchisee returns it to us, Franchisee must replace the Operations Manual at its own expense.

The Operations Manual is designed to protect the System and the Names and Marks associated with the System, and not to control the day-to-day operation of the Business. Franchisee at all times will remain responsible for the operation of the Business, and all activities occurring at the Premises.

Franchisee shall at all times treat the Operations Manual, and any of our written directives, any business plans and specifications, and any other manuals created for or approved for use in the operation of an Access Garage Doors® business, and any supplements thereto, and the information contained therein, in trust and as confidential information, and shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential. Franchisee shall not at any time copy, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce the foregoing materials, in whole or in part, nor otherwise make the same available to any unauthorized person.

The Operations Manual, written directives, other manuals and materials, and any other confidential communications provided or approved by us, shall at all times remain our sole property and shall at all times be kept and maintained in a secure place at the Business.

Franchisee shall at all times ensure that its copy of the Operations Manual is kept current and up-to-date; and, in the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Operations Manual, the master copy of the Operations Manual maintained by us at the corporate offices shall be controlling.

Any suggestions the Franchisee may have concerning the improvement of our website or Franchisee's website, Products, Services, programs, vendors and suppliers, equipment, products or supplies; recommended procedures, service format and methods, advertising, promotional and marketing materials are encouraged and shall be considered by us when adopting or modifying the standards, specifications and procedures for the System.

H. Vendors, Suppliers and Vehicle Appearance Standards

We will provide Franchisee a written list of approved vendors and suppliers that may include or be limited to us or our affiliates for all equipment, products, supplies and services (as described in Section XII.I) necessary for the operation of the Business. We will provide Franchisee with a list of all approved vendors and suppliers to purchase equipment, products, supplies and services from during the initial training program. Franchisee understands that such vendor lists will be updated and may change periodically at our discretion and Franchisee agrees to implement such updates at Franchisee's expense as described in Section XII.I of this Agreement. We will train Franchisee on strategies for purchasing and tracking such items during the initial training program. Franchisee will be required to submit in writing alternate vendors or suppliers to us for approval as described in Section XII.I of this Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges that we may receive royalties and/or other payments from some or all of the approved vendors.

We will also provide Franchisee with a written list of Vehicle appearance standards (including vehicle graphics) necessary for the operation of the Business. Franchisee is encouraged to use its own Vehicle or can purchase a used or new Vehicle or enclosed for the operation of the Business as specified in Section XII.H of this Agreement. All costs associated with obtaining and maintaining the Vehicle is the sole responsibility of the Franchisee.

I. Availability of Equipment, Products and Supplies

We will use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that authorized vendors and suppliers, which may include or be limited to us and our affiliates, maintain a reasonable supply of equipment, products, supplies and services (as described in Section XII.I) for purchase by Franchisee. We require that the Franchisee purchase such items from us, our affiliates or approved vendors and/or suppliers. We will provide Franchisee with a list of written specifications for such items along with a list of our approved vendors and Franchisee is responsible for acquiring all such items as they are necessary for the operation of the Business. All items that are provided by us will be competitively priced, taking into account equivalent quality and other reasonable considerations.

We reserve the right to establish suggested retail prices for Products and rates for Services from time to time based on competition or what is prevalent within the industry (as further described in Section XX.K). We shall publish inventory and Minimum Representation requirements in the Operations Manual and such requirements may be amended from time to time by us in our sole discretion.

We also reserve the right to implement a centralized purchasing system for franchisees and to negotiate prices and terms with vendors and suppliers and to receive rebates or other financial incentives from such purchases by franchisees. We may utilize such rebated funds in any manner it chooses in our sole discretion as more fully described in Section XII.I. If developed, we reserve the right to require Franchisee and other franchisees to purchase all equipment, products, supplies and services through our proprietary intranet system.

J. Advertising and Promotion

We shall develop and provide creative materials (at our expense) that could be used for local and regional advertising and make such advertising and promotional materials available to our franchisees. Publication or distribution of such materials in the Franchisee's market area shall be at Franchisee's own expense. We will provide specific guidelines for advertising, marketing and promotions initiated by individual franchisees and shall reserve the right to disapprove any advertising, marketing and promotions, which, in our opinion, are not in accordance with our guidelines. However, no such approval shall be unreasonably withheld or denied. Immediately upon notification to do so, Franchisee shall discontinue any advertising that would, in our opinion, be detrimental to any franchisee or any part of the System or the Franchise.

K. Suggested Pricing for Products and Rates for Services

We shall provide Franchisee with guidance and suggested pricing for Products and rates for Services. Franchisee shall have the right to offer and sell all Products and perform Services at any price or rate Franchisee may determine, except that we reserve the right to establish minimum and maximum pricing and rates for any given Product or Service nationwide to the extent allowed by federal and state laws as explained in Sections XII.H and XII.I of this Agreement. Suggested pricing for Products and/or rates for Services may vary from region to region to the extent necessary in order to reflect differences in costs and other factors applicable to such regions. If Franchisee elects to offer any Product and/or Service at any price or rate recommended by us, Franchisee acknowledges that we have made no guarantee or warranty that offering such Products or Services at the recommended prices and/or rates will enhance Franchisee's sales or profits.

We will provide Franchisee with recommended procedures when providing refunds in addition to a sample set of forms including contracts, waivers, customer agreements, marketing materials and various operational forms for use in the Business. We do not warrant the completeness, legality or enforceability of any agreements or forms. Franchisee must retain its own counsel to review and revise such agreements and forms to comply with applicable federal and state laws. At our discretion, any and all forms used by Franchisee shall be subject to our review and approval and our decision of such approval will be provided within thirty (30) days after such forms are received by us.

We will continue to research and develop new Products, Services and programs as we deem appropriate and in our sole discretion. We may conduct market research and testing to determine consumer trends and salability of new Products and Services. If we choose Franchisee, Franchisee will participate in a market research program to test new Products, Services and/or programs in the Business and provide us with timely reports and other relevant information regarding that market research. We will own all copyright and other intellectual property rights to all such reports provided by the Franchisee pursuant to this Section, in all media whether now known or hereinafter invented, by all means, methods, and processes, whether now known or hereinafter invented, including complete and entire derivative rights and rights to interactive works. If Franchisee participates in any test marketing, Franchisee agrees to purchase, at Franchisee's expense, a reasonable quantity of products and/or equipment being tested, effectively promote such products and make a good faith effort to use and/or sell them. Franchisee shall participate in and comply with all sales and promotional programs and/or Product promotions established by us periodically.

L. Business Planning Assistance

After Franchisee signs this Agreement, we may review and comment on any business plan and pro forma financial projections Franchisee prepares. We do not represent that we have any special expertise in reviewing or developing business plans or that any business plan reviewed by us will result in any profits, revenues, incomes, margins, or sales. Our review and commentary of a business plan or financial pro-forma is not a representation or warranty that the Franchisee's business will be profitable, that the Franchisee will earn any revenues, or that Franchisee's sales will attain any pre-determined sales levels. Our review and commentary is intended only to provide information sharing to Franchisee and Franchisee agrees that such review and commentary does not impose any liability on us. Franchisee specifically acknowledges that we have not reviewed or commented on any business plan or pro-forma prior to the Effective Date of this Agreement.

XXI. VARYING STANDARDS

Because complete and detailed uniformity under many varying conditions may not be possible or practical, we specifically reserve the right and privilege, in our sole and absolute discretion and as we may deem to be in the best interests of all concerned in any specific instance, to vary standards for any franchisee based upon the peculiarities of a particular Business or circumstance, physical characteristics, freeway access, density of population or trade area, existing business practices, or any other condition which we deem to be of importance to the successful operation of such Franchisee's Business. Franchisee shall not have any right to object to a variation from standard specifications and practices granted to any other franchisee and shall not be entitled to require us to grant to Franchisee a like or similar variation, unless the laws of the Franchisee's state expressly require us to grant such a similar variation.

Franchisee acknowledges that when we use the phrases "sole and absolute discretion", "sole discretion" and/or "Business Judgment", whether in this Agreement or another context, you and we agree that we have the wholly unrestricted right to make decisions and/or take (or refrain from taking) actions except that we will not do so arbitrarily. We shall use our judgment in exercising such discretion based on our assessment of the interests we consider appropriate and will not be required to consider Franchisees individual interests or the interests of any other franchisee(s). Franchisee, we and all other franchisees have a collective interest in working within a franchise system with the flexibility to adjust to business conditions, including but not limited to the competitive environment, new regulatory developments and emerging business opportunities. Therefore, you and we agree that the ultimate decision-making responsibility for the System must be vested in us. So long as we act in compliance with the requirements of this Agreement, we will have no liability for the exercise of our discretion in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

XXII. RELOCATION, ASSIGNMENT, TRANSFER, SALE OR REPURCHASE OF FRANCHISED BUSINESS

A. Relocation

Any relocation of the Premises (1) shall be to a location within the Territory (unless waived by us), (2) requires our prior written consent, which we may grant, condition or withhold in our Business Judgment (and may be withheld, in any case, if you are not in good standing), (3) will be at Franchisee sole expense and (4) may require that Franchisee (and each Owner) sign the general release.

B. General Requirements for Assignment by Franchisee

Franchisee shall not voluntarily or involuntarily transfer, sell, assign or encumber any interest in or ownership or control of Franchisee, the Franchised Business, and/or its assets, the Business or this Agreement (however Franchisee is allowed to transfer up to twenty percent (20%) of its shares or other ownership interests as described below), except in the ordinary course of business, or make any lease or sublease of any property Franchisee is leasing or subleasing in connection with the Business, without our prior written consent. Any attempted sale, assignment or transfer of any interest in Franchisee, the Franchised Business, and/or its assets, the Business or this Agreement without our prior written consent will be a default under the terms of this Agreement, and will be voidable by us. In granting any such consent, we may impose reasonable conditions, including, without limitation, the following:

1. Franchisee must be in full compliance with the terms of this Franchise Agreement, including being paid in full on all fees due and having settled all outstanding accounts with us, our affiliates and all suppliers;
2. The proposed transferee (or its partners, members, managers, directors, officers, or controlling shareholders, if it is a corporation, limited liability company or partnership) must meet our then-applicable standards;
3. The proposed transferee (or its owners if an Entity, managers, directors or officers) must not operate a franchise, license another or operate any other business offering Products and Services similar to those offered by an Access Garage Doors® business without our permission;

4. We shall charge a flat transfer fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) to Franchisee when transferring a part of its Franchise Business (defined as up to 49% of the stock, membership units, partnership units or share of any business trust); or a flat transfer fee of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) when Franchisee transfers its entire Franchise Business upon our written consent (defined as all other transfers). The term “flat transfer fee” means that Franchisee shall pay this amount regardless of whether our actual cost to process the transfer is higher or lower than such amount. The flat transfer fee will include, but not be limited to, reasonable attorney’s fees actually incurred, the cost of investigating the transferee and our administrative expenses (including employee salaries, sales staff commissions, travel costs, out of pocket costs properly attributable to the transfer). In addition, if the transferee was already in our lead database at the time of first contact between Franchisee and the transferee, we may require Franchisee to pay a referral fee (which amount will be customary for the transaction), in addition to the flat two thousand five hundred dollar ($2,500) or ten thousand dollar ($10,000) fee described above, plus the amount of any broker fees that we are responsible for paying to third parties (does not include our employees);
5. Transferee must pay for and successfully complete the training programs then required of new Franchisees at a cost of up to five hundred dollars ($500) per person per day plus any third-party charges and our expenses, subject to increase from time to time;
6. Franchisee shall have substantially complied with all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement, any amendment hereof or successor hereto, or any other agreements between the Franchisee and our subsidiaries or affiliates and, at the time of transfer, shall not be in default;
7. Franchisee shall have executed a general release, in a form satisfactory to us, of any and all claims against us and our officers, directors, managers, members, shareholders, and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state, and local laws, rules, and ordinances;
8. The transferee (and, if the transferee is other than an individual, such principals and/or owners of a beneficial interest in the transferee as we may request) shall enter into a written assumption agreement, in a form satisfactory to us, assuming and agreeing to discharge all of Franchisee’s obligations, known by transferee after reasonable inquiry, under this Agreement;
9. The transferee must meet our subjective and objective standards, including experience, talent, skills, educational, managerial, business, and financial capacity; has the aptitude and ability to conduct an Access Garage Doors® business; and has adequate financial resources and capital to operate the Business; and the transferee’s Operations Manager must complete the training program to our satisfaction;
10. The transferee (and, if an Entity its Owners of a beneficial interest in the transferee as we may request) shall execute and agree to be bound by the then current form of this Agreement, which form may contain provisions that materially alter the rights or obligations under this Agreement. Alternatively, we may in our sole discretion require the transferee to sign the then current form of this Agreement then being used by us, but where the term will end on the expiration date of this Agreement and with such renewal term, if any, as may be provided by this Agreement and the following requirement apply: (i), the transferee shall sign all other ancillary agreements as we may require for the Franchise

Business as required under the then current form of this Agreement, which agreements shall supersede this Agreement in all respects, and (ii) additional changes to the terms of the Agreement may be made at our sole discretion, which include, without limitation, higher royalty fee payments, advertising contributions and renewal rights;

11. The transferee's royalty payments will not start over. For all transfers, royalty payments will continue at the Franchisee's current tier level based on Franchisee's Royalty Month (as defined in Section X.A) and the corresponding then current royalty structure;
12. The transferee, at its expense, shall upgrade the Business (including all Vehicles) to conform to the then-current standards and specifications of the System and shall complete the upgrading and other requirements within the time specified by us;
13. Franchisee shall remain liable for all of the obligations to us in connection with the Business incurred prior to the effective date of the transfer and shall execute any and all instruments reasonably requested by us to evidence such liability;
14. Franchisee must obtain and submit satisfactory evidence of transfer or consent of lenders, lessors and governmental authorities for all material permits, approvals and licenses;
15. Franchisee may transfer up to twenty percent (20%) of its shares or other ownership interests to any person or entity, in the aggregate, without invoking this provision, provided that in connection with any such transfer of more than ten percent (10%) ownership the transferee executes the same Guaranty and other agreements which would be required upon execution of this Agreement by Franchisee, if such transferee had then been the owner of such percentage of Franchisee's ownership interests. Franchisee's transfer of an ownership interest without complying with the foregoing, or transfers of more than twenty percent (20%) ownership in the Franchisee's entity, in one or more transfers, without our prior written approval is a material breach of this Agreement;
16. The transferee shall agree to a sublease or to a transfer and assignment, and assumption of the lease of the Business from the original Franchisee, and shall obtain the landlord's approval if required prior to any transfer or sublease, if applicable;
17. The transfer must be completed in compliance with the terms of any applicable leases and other agreements and with all applicable laws, including but not limited to licensing and operations-related laws and/or laws governing franchise sales;
18. Franchisee agrees that we may (but are not required to) discuss with Franchisee and/or the proposed transferee any matters related to any transfer and/or proposed transfer at any time which we consider to be appropriate in our Business Judgment without liability (including our opinion of the terms of sale, performance of the Franchise, etc.). Franchisee expressly consents to any such discussions by us and we may contact any proposed transferee directly regarding such matters or otherwise;
19. Neither Franchisee nor any transferee shall rely on us to assist in the evaluation of the terms of any proposed transfer. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that an approval of a proposed transfer shall not be deemed to an approval of the terms, nor any indication as to any likelihood of success or economic viability;

20. Franchisee and its Owners and/or Principals will agree not to compete, not to divert customers or accounts, or attempt to hire employees, after the transfer in accordance with restrictions acceptable to us and substantially similar to those described in Sections XIX.C and XIX.E of this Agreement; and
21. Franchisee and its Owners and/or Principals will not directly or indirectly at any time or in any manner (except with respect to other Access Garage Doors® business that Franchisee or its Principals own and operate) identify itself or any business as a current or former Access Garage Doors® business or as one of our franchise owners; use any Mark, any colorable imitation of a Mark, or other indicia of an Access Garage Doors® business in any manner or for any purpose; or utilize for any purpose any trade name, trade or service mark or other commercial symbol that suggest or indicates a connection or association with us as described in Sections XXIV.A and XXIV.C of this Agreement.

In addition, the Franchisee must submit copies of the draft Asset Purchase Agreement or Stock (Membership Unit) (Partnership Unit) Purchase Agreement, all draft Promissory Notes, and Security Agreements, with the transferee, regardless of whether they are Franchisee financed or lender financed. In addition to all other grounds for rejection, we have the right to reject any proposed purchase of the assets of the Franchised Business or the stock, membership units, or partnership units of the Franchised Business on the grounds that the proposed Franchisee has in our sole opinion taken on too much debt.

C. Transfer, Sell or Assignment by Franchisor and Franchisor's Right of First Refusal Franchisee acknowledges that we have an unrestricted right to purchase, transfer or assign our rights or obligations under this Agreement to any transferee or other legal successor of ours.

We will have a right of first refusal regarding any proposed transfer, by Franchisee or an Owner of Franchisee, subject to this Agreement. During the term of this Agreement, if Franchisee, any of its Owners wish to sell, assign or otherwise transfer an interest in this Agreement, the Franchised Business and/or its assets, or an ownership interest in Franchisee (collectively the "Interest"), then Franchisee will comply with the requirements of Sections XXII.B, XXII.C, XXII.E and XXIV.G of this Agreement.

Franchisee will notify us within ten (10) days after Franchisee has commenced discussions or communications even if preliminary, regarding such a proposed transfer and then send us written updates of the status of such discussions or communications every thirty (30) days thereafter unless and until such discussions or communications have ceased, in which case Franchisee must notify us in writing within five (5) business days that such discussions or communications have ceased. Whether the discussions have ceased or not, at our option, we may require Franchisee to send us, by certified mail or other receipted delivery, copies of any materials or information sent to the proposed buyer or transferee regarding the possible transaction as well as any materials Franchisee sends to the buyer or transferee. Before agreeing to any such transaction, Franchisee and its Owners agree to obtain from a responsible and fully disclosed buyer, and then send us, a true and complete copy of a bona fide, executed written offer (which may include a letter of intent) relating to any proposed transfer. The offer must include details of the payment terms of the proposed sale and the sources and terms of any financing for the proposed purchase price. The bona fide offer with the proposed purchase price must be in a dollar amount, and the proposed buyer must submit with its offer a ten thousand dollar ($10,000) earnest money deposit (if a proposed disposition is part of a transaction involving additional Franchised Businesses, operating under other Franchise Agreements or license agreements with us, the proposed buyer must pay Franchisee this earnest money deposit for each Access Garage Doors® business, involved).

To enable us to determine whether we will exercise our option, Franchisee or its Owners, shall provide such information and documentation, including financial statements, as we may require (as noted below). In the event that we elect to purchase said Interest, closing on such purchase must occur within ninety (90) days from the date of notice to the Franchisee of the election to purchase said Interest by us. Failure of us to exercise the option afforded by this Section XXII.C shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of Section XXII.B, with respect to a proposed transfer of any Interest. Any later change in the terms of any offer prior to closing shall constitute a new offer subject to the same rights of first refusal by us as in the case of an initial offer.

We may, by delivering written notice to Franchisee or its Owners within thirty (30) days after we receive both an exact copy of the offer and the Preliminary Due Diligence Package (the date on which we have received the exact copy of the offer and the Preliminary Due Diligence Package is called the “Trigger Date”), notify Franchisee of our non-binding preliminary intent to purchase or not to purchase the interest proposed to be sold. The “Preliminary Due Diligence Package” is information and copies of documents (where applicable) that Franchisee supplies to us which consists of Franchisee’s financial statements (including monthly revenue information) for the preceding three (3) years, a copy of the Business’s current lease or sublease (if applicable), information about the number and compensation of employees working at the Business, payroll tax records for the past three (3) years, business income tax records for the past three (3) years, customer records and the Franchisee’s merchant account printouts for the past three (3) years, the Franchisee’s bank deposits for the past three (3) years, and a description of competing garage door installation, parts and service-related businesses and/or any other type of businesses offering similar Products and Services operating within the Territory. If we notify Franchisee within thirty (30) days after the Trigger Date (the “First Notice Deadline”) that we are preliminarily interested in exercising our right of first refusal, we will have an additional thirty (30) days after the First Notice Deadline both to conduct our due diligence and then to notify you of either our binding intent to exercise our right of first refusal or our decision not to exercise this right. This additional period is called the “Due Diligence Deadline.” If we elect to purchase the Interest proposed to be sold for the price and on the terms and conditions contained in the offer:

- 1) We may substitute cash for any other form of payment proposed in the offer (such as ownership interests in a privately-held entity);
- 2) Our credit will be deemed equal to the credit of any proposed buyer, meaning that, if the proposed consideration includes promissory notes, we may provide promissory notes with the same terms as those offered by the proposed buyer, except as to subordination. Regarding subordination, you acknowledge and agree that our obligations under the promissory notes then outstanding to any and all lenders, although senior to the equity rights of our owners will also be senior to the promissory notes given to you;
- 3) We will have an additional thirty (30) days after the Due Diligence Deadline to close; and
- 4) We must receive, and Franchisee agrees to provide, all customary representations and warranties given a seller of assets of a similar business or the ownership interests in a similar legal entity, as applicable, including, without limitation, representations and warranties regarding:
 - i. Ownership and condition of and title to ownership interests and/or;
 - ii. Liens and encumbrances relating to ownership interests and/or assets;

- iii. Validity of contracts and the liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of the entity whose ownership interests are being purchased;
- iv. All equipment, products, supplies, technology items, software, Vehicles are in good working condition and suitable for use;

- x. There are no tax or employee claims or issues; and
- xi. The Franchisee will not enter into any transaction between the date of signature and the date of settlement other than in the ordinary course of business.

These transfers, including, without limitation, transfers by devise or inheritance, will be subject to the same restrictions and conditions as any inter vivos transfer. However, in the case of a transfer by devise or inheritance, if the heirs or beneficiaries of any deceased person are unable to meet the conditions of this Agreement, the personal representative of the deceased Franchisee shall have six (6) months to dispose of the deceased's interest in the Business, which disposition will be subject to all the terms and conditions for transfer contained in this Agreement. If the interest is not disposed of within six (6) months, we may terminate this Agreement.

If after the death or disability of the named Owner, the Business is not being managed by such trained manager, we are authorized to appoint a manager to maintain the operation of the Business until an approved transferee will be able to assume the management and operation of the Business, but in no event for a period exceeding ninety (90) days without the approval of the personal representative of the Principal; such manager shall be deemed an employee of the Franchisee. All funds from the operation of the Business during the period of management by such appointed or approved manager shall be kept in a separate fund and all expenses of the Business, including compensation of such manager, other costs and travel and living expenses of such appointed or approved manager, shall be charged to such fund. As compensation for the management services provided, in addition to the fees due, we shall charge such fund the full amount of the direct expenses incurred by us during such period of management for and on behalf of Franchisee, provided that you shall only have a duty to utilize reasonable efforts and shall not be liable to Franchisee, the Principal or personal representative of the Principal, or any person or entity having an interest therein for any debts, losses or obligations incurred by the Business, or to any creditor of Franchisee or the Principal during any period in which it is managed by our appointed or approved manager.

Within thirty (30) days after any transfer to Franchisee's heirs or successors or the heirs or successors of Franchisee's Owners, the heirs or successors must notify us in writing and make application for approval of assignment of the franchise. The application for assignment is subject to the same conditions, procedures and costs as assignment of any other franchise except that there will be no transfer fee.

E. Transfer, Sale or Assignment to a Third Party

If we do not exercise our right to purchase within thirty (30) days pursuant to Section XXII.C, Franchisee may thereafter transfer, sell or assign the Interest to a third party, but not at a lower price or on more favorable terms than disclosed to us in writing. The sale is subject to our prior written approval as specified in this Agreement.

If Franchisee does not complete the sale to the proposed buyer within ninety (90) days after we notify Franchisee that we do not intend to exercise its right of first refusal (whether or not the First Notice Deadline or the Due Diligence Deadline has expired), or if there is a material change in the terms of the sale (which Franchisee must communicate promptly to us), we will have an additional right to accept the sale during the thirty (30) day period following either the expiration of that ninety (90) day period or our receipt of notice of the material change(s) in the sale's terms, either on the terms originally offered or the modified terms, at our option. If Franchisee does not complete the sale to the proposed buyer within an additional ninety (90) days, then any proposed sale or transfer thereafter once again must comply with all of the provisions Sections XXII.B, XXII.C and XXII.E, as though there had not previously been a proposed sale or transfer.

In addition to its other obligations, such as obtaining our prior written approval, if Franchisee sells or offers to sell ownership interests, the sale of which is regulated by any applicable law, Franchisee must: (i) fully comply with all applicable laws, (ii) disclose to offerees and purchasers that neither us nor our employees, affiliates or agents are an issuer or underwriter, or are in any way liable or responsible for the offering, (iii) ensure that we have reasonable time to review any reference to us or our franchisees in any prospectus or offering documents before their distribution or use, (iv) pay us actual legal costs incurred for our review, (v) indemnify us, our officers, owners, directors, employees, affiliates, and agents from any liability, cost, damage, claim, and expense and from any and all obligations to any person, entity or governmental agencies arising out of or relating to the offer, sale or continuing investment, (vi) sign such further indemnities and provide such further assurances as we may reasonably require and (vii) disclose our ownership rights to all trademarks, service marks, trade names, logos, trade secrets, copyrights, and patents.

If any provision of this Agreement is inconsistent with a valid applicable law, the provision will be deemed amended to conform to the minimum standards required. We and Franchisee may execute an addendum setting forth certain of these amendments applicable in certain jurisdictions, so long as and to the extent that then applicable laws referred to in the addenda remain in effect.

F. Resale Assistance of Franchised Business

Franchisee may, at any time, request our assistance in locating a buyer for its Business. This right is governed by time limits and procedures described in this Agreement with respect to our right of refusal in the event of an assignment. If Franchisor exercises its right of first refusal, Franchisee must transfer Franchisee's interest in the Franchised Business and in the Assets.

If Franchisee is selling its Assets, we shall have the right (but not the duty), to be exercised by notice of intent to do so within thirty (30) days after termination or expiration, to purchase any or all Assets and items bearing our Names and Marks, at fair market value (less the amount of any outstanding liens or encumbrances). If the difference between the appraisal of the Franchisee's appraiser is greater than the difference between the appraisal of our appraiser and the independent appraiser, the Franchisee shall pay all costs and expenses of the three appraisers. Otherwise all expenses of the third appraiser shall be equally shared by us and we and the Franchisee shall each be responsible for the expenses incurred by their respective appraisers. Franchisor's request to Franchisee any amounts paid by customers for work still outstanding on the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

In the event of termination of this Agreement prior to its expiration date, Franchisee acknowledges that the Parties have considered the following in determining the amount of Liquidated Damages ("Damages"): (1) that the amount of the Damages is reasonable under the circumstances existing at the time this Agreement is made; (2) that the amount of Damages bear a rational relationship to the damages the Parties anticipate would flow from the breach of this Agreement; (3) the agreement to the amount of the Damages is necessary because actual damages are difficult to prove; and (4) the amount of the Damages are not so large that they act as a penalty. Franchisee accordingly agrees that in such event it shall be obligated to pay to us, the amount of the Damages which is a total of all Royalty Fees and System Advertising Fees payments that we would have received, if this Agreement remained in effect until its scheduled expiration date. The amount of the Damages shall be calculated based on the average monthly Royalty Fee payment and the average System Advertising Fee paid to us during the previous twelve (12) months for either the remaining term of this Agreement or two (2) years (whichever comes first). If the Franchisee has not made twelve (12) months of payments, then the number of payments it has made will be used to calculate the average of Royalty Fee and System Advertising Fund Fee payments. Such payments shall be due to us within thirty (30) days after the effect date of termination or expiration of this Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, Franchisee shall retain whatever interest it may have in the Assets of the Franchised Business.

C. Mediation

The Parties agree to mediate any dispute or claim arising between them out of this Agreement, or any resulting transaction before resorting to arbitration as set forth in Section XXV.D. Any Party to this Agreement may initiate mediation by serving a written demand on the other party stating the particulars of the demand being served. Mediator fees and administrative fees assessed by mediator shall be divided equally among the parties involved. Before any mediation commences, the parties will agree to a date and/or certain event which will constitute a completion of the mediation process. All mediations shall be held in Hamilton County, Tennessee. If, for any dispute or claim to which this paragraph applies, any party commences an action without first attempting to resolve the matter through mediation or refuses to mediate within ninety (90) days after a request has been made, then the other party (“Mediating Party”) shall be entitled to recover attorney’s fees and costs, even if such Mediating Party was not otherwise entitled to recover its attorney fees and cost in any arbitration or legal action between the parties pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. This mediation provision applies whether or not the arbitration provision is initiated. The requirement to pay the Mediating Party’s attorney’s fees and costs apply regardless of whether the other party waits until the expiration of the ninety (90) day period to file the arbitration and applies as long as said party refuses to attend mediation. Mediation shall be held at the same venue as for arbitration as described in Section XXV.D.

The Parties agree that, in connection with any such arbitration proceeding, each will submit or file any claim which would constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 1-3 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. The Parties further agree that arbitration will be conducted on an individual and not a class-wide or multiple plaintiff basis.

The Party discovering an arbitrable claim will have one (1) year from the date of discovery but not to exceed two (2) years from the date the claim occurred, in which to settle the claim or to commence arbitration on the claim. Otherwise the claim or demand will be deemed abandoned and shall be barred. The arbitrator shall allow discovery in accordance with the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure and may apply the sanctions relating to noncompliance with discovery orders therein provided. The arbitrator shall issue a written opinion explaining the reasons for his or her decision and award and the arbitrator shall have the right to award or include in the award the specific performance of this Agreement. Unless specifically provided for by applicable statute, no punitive or exemplary damages shall be awarded against either us or Franchisee, or entities related to them, in an arbitration proceeding or otherwise, and are hereby waived. Judgment upon the award of the arbitrator will be entered in any court having competent jurisdiction thereof or of the Franchisor or Franchisee. During the pendency of any arbitration proceeding hereunder, Franchisee and we shall fully perform their respective obligations pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Arbitration fees shall be shared equally, and the prevailing Party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees from the other Party, provided should there be no prevailing Party each Party shall pay their own attorney fees.

The requirement to arbitrate under this arbitration provision as well as to mediate under the mediation provision in Section XXV.C shall not apply to any of the following disputes or controversies: any action for injunctive or other provisional relief including but not limited to enforcement of liens, security agreements, or attachment, as we deem to be necessary or appropriate to compel Franchisee to comply with Franchisee’s obligations to us and/or to protect the Names and Marks or any claim or dispute involving or contesting the validity of any of the Names and Marks, or any claim or dispute involving any

SCHEDULE 7
OPEN DOORS, INC.
COLLATERAL ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE

Franchisee: _____

Franchisor: Open Doors, Inc.

Date of this Collateral Assignment of Lease (the "Assignment"): _____

The Franchisee, to effect various provisions of that certain Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20 __, by and between Franchisee and us (the "Franchise Agreement"), hereby collaterally assigns to Franchisor (subject to the terms and conditions below) all of Franchisee's right, title and interest in, to and under that certain lease (the "Lease") dated _____ 20__, between Franchisee and _____, ("Landlord"), for that property commonly known as: _____ (the "Premises"), a copy of which Lease is attached to this Assignment.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) and other good and valuable considerations, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, it is hereby agreed as follows:

No material modification or amendment of the Lease shall occur or be effective without the prior written consent of us.

Except as provided in the Franchise Agreement, we will not take possession of the Premises under this Assignment until and unless there is a termination, cancellation, rescission or expiration of the Franchisee's rights, or a default by Franchisee, under the Lease, any sublease and/or the Franchise Agreement. In such event(s), we (or its designee) may (but has no obligation to) take possession of the Premises and assume the Franchisee's rights under the Lease, and, in such event, Franchisee will have no further right, title or interest in or under the Lease or to the Premises, all such rights thereby passing to us or our designee, without the Landlord's further consent. The Franchisee will fully cooperate therewith, and do all acts necessary or appropriate thereto. We will have no liabilities or obligations of any kind arising from, or in connection with, this Assignment, the Lease, the Premises or otherwise until and unless we take possession of the Premises pursuant to this Assignment and, in any event, we will only be responsible for those obligations accruing with respect to the Lease after the date of such express assumption. Upon taking possession of the Premises, we shall be obligated from that date forward to perform all of the duties and obligations of Franchisee under the Lease. We shall notify Landlord, in writing, within three days of taking possession of the Premises that has been taken such possession.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, upon us taking possession of the Premises, Franchisee shall not be relieved of any of its obligations under the lease.

The Franchisee will not permit any surrender, termination, amendment or modification of the Lease and will elect and exercise all options to extend the term of or renew, or assume in bankruptcy, the Lease not less than thirty (30) days prior to the last day that said rights must be exercised. If the Franchisee does not do so, We may to the extent consistent with the United States Bankruptcy Code (but has no obligation to) do such acts for the account of Franchisee and without any liability or obligation of us. Failure of us to exercise any remedy hereunder shall not be a waiver of any of its rights. Our rights and remedies of under this Assignment are in addition to those which the Franchisor has under the Franchise Agreement or otherwise. This Assignment shall bind, and benefit, us and Franchisee and their respective successors and assigns. With respect to the us and Franchisee the dispute resolution provisions (including, but not limited to, mediation, binding arbitration, waiver of jury trial and limitation of damages) of the Franchise Agreement shall apply to this Assignment, and/or any matter related in any way to it, but we may, in any event and at its option, proceed with any action in court for possession of the Premises and any related remedies. If there is more than one Franchisee, their obligations are joint and several. As between Landlord and us and/or Franchisee, the dispute provision of the Lease shall apply.

In the event Franchisee shall fail to perform or observe any of the terms, conditions or agreements in the Lease, Landlord shall give written notice thereof to us and we shall have the right (but not the obligation) to cure such default. Landlord shall not take any action with respect to such default under the Lease, including without limitation any action in order to terminate, rescind or avoid the Lease, for a period of fifteen (15) days following expiration of any cure period Franchisee may have under the Lease with respect to such default; provided, however, that in the case of any default which cannot with diligence be cured within said additional fifteen (15) day period, if we shall proceed promptly to cure such default and thereafter prosecute the curing of such default with diligence and continuity, the time within which such default may be cured shall be extended for such period as may be necessary to complete the curing of such default with diligence and continuity.

Landlord will recognize and accept the performance by us of any act or thing required to be done by Franchisee under the terms of the Lease and will accept such performance as if it were performed by Franchisee.

Landlord agrees that in any case commenced by or against Franchisee under the United States Bankruptcy Code, we shall have standing to appear and act as a party to the Lease for purposes of the Bankruptcy Code, (but shall not have any obligations under the Lease unless we expressly assumes the Lease). Landlord shall, during Franchisee's bankruptcy case, serve on us a copy of all notices, pleadings or documents which are given to Franchisee, and service shall be in the same manner as given to Franchisee. If the Lease or Franchisee's rights under the Lease are terminated, whether by reason of default of Franchisee or Landlord, rejection of the Lease in any bankruptcy case, voluntary surrender and acceptance, or otherwise, then Landlord shall give written notice of such termination to us. We or our nominee shall have the option, exercisable by written notice to Landlord delivered not later than the 30th day after written notice that the termination has occurred, to receive from Landlord a new lease of the Premises on the same terms and conditions as the Lease, for the remaining term of the Lease (that is, the portion of the term that would remain absent the termination and the conditions or events causing the same), and such same terms and conditions shall include any extension rights provided for in the Lease.

Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Assignment shall be in writing and addressed to the respective party as set forth below. Notices shall be effective (i) on the next business day if sent by a nationally recognized overnight courier service, (ii) on the date of delivery by personal delivery and (iii) on the date of transmission if sent by facsimile during business hours on a business day (otherwise on the next business day) (with receipt of confirmation). Any party may change the address at which it is to receive notices to another address in the United States at which business is conducted (and not a post-office box or other similar receptacle), by giving notice of such change of address in accordance with this provision.

Notices to us, Franchisee or Landlord shall be addressed as follows:

[Insert applicable notice addresses].

This Assignment may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

If any portion or portions of this Assignment shall be held invalid or inoperative, then all of the remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect, and, so far as is reasonable and possible, effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion or portions held to be invalid or inoperative.

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of _____.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Assignment under as of the date first above written.

In accordance with Minnesota Rule 2860.4400J, and to the extent required by law, the Disclosure Document and the Franchise Agreement are modified so that the Franchisor cannot require a franchisee to waive his or her rights to a jury trial or to waive rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction, or to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties, or judgment notes; provided that this part shall not bar an exclusive arbitration clause.

Pursuant to Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.12, to the extent required by this Minnesota law, the Franchise Agreement and Item 13 of the Disclosure Document are amended to state that the Franchisor will protect your right to use the primary trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype or other commercial symbol or indemnify our from any loss, costs or Seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et. seq.)

The Franchise Agreement may contain a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur in Hamilton County, Tennessee with the costs being borne by the prevailing party. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

The Franchise Agreement requires application of the law of Tennessee. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

The governing law or choice of law clause described in the Disclosure Document (including a risk factor on the cover page) and contained in the Franchise Agreement may not be enforceable under Illinois law. This deferral requirement has been imposed by the Illinois Attorney General’s Office based upon Franchisor’s financial condition. A financial assurance is not required as a condition of registration.

Illinois law requires that the Franchisor give you a copy of the Disclosure Document as registered with the Attorney General together with a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise before the earlier of:

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

- A. A prohibition of the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- B. A requirement that a Franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a Franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a Franchisee, after entering into a Franchise Agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- C. A provision that permits a Franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the Franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the Franchise Agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- D. A provision that permits a Franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the Franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the Franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the Franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applied only if:
 - 1. The term of the franchise is less than 5 years; and

2. The Franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of Franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- E. A provision that permits the Franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other Franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- F. A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the Franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- G. A provision which permits a Franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
1. The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the Franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 2. The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the Franchisor or Sub-Franchisor.
 3. The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.
 4. The failure of the Franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the Franchisor or to cure any default in the Franchise Agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.
- H. A provision that requires the Franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the Franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a Franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a Franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bon fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the Franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the Franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the Franchise Agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).
- I. A provision that permits the Franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

D. Section XXV to the extent it provides for a waiver of punitive or exemplary damages, and a waiver of jury trial, is deleted.

VI. The Arbitration section shall be deleted and amended to read as follows:

Except as specifically otherwise provided in this Agreement, the parties agree that all contract disputes that cannot be amicably settled shall be determined by arbitration under the Federal Arbitration Act as amended and in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association or any successor thereof. Arbitration shall take place at an appointed time and place in the County and State in which Franchisee's franchised business is located. However, nothing contained herein shall be construed to limit or to preclude the parties from bringing any action in any court of competent jurisdiction for injunctive or other provisional relief as the parties deem to be necessary or appropriate to compel either party to comply with its obligations hereunder or to protect the marks or other property rights of franchisor.

VII. The Acknowledgement section is amended to add the following:

Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee received a copy of this Franchise Agreement, the attachments hereto, if any, and agreements relating thereto, if any, at least seven (7) days prior to the date on which this Agreement was executed.

A provision in a Franchise Agreement restricting jurisdiction of venue to a forum outside this state or requiring the application of the laws of another state are void with respect to a claim otherwise enforceable under this Act.

VIRGINIA

In recognition of the restrictions contained in 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Open Doors, Inc. for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

Additional Disclosure: The following statements are added to Item 17.h.

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON

This section operates as an addendum to the Franchise Agreement.

The state of Washington has a statute, RCW 19.100.180 which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee shall not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectible to the extent that they reflect the franchisor’s reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW shall prevail.

In any arbitration involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration site shall be either in the state of Washington, in a place as mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration, or as determined by the arbitrator.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The undersigned does hereby acknowledge receipt of this addendum and further agrees that the applicable Washington state law addendum, if any supersedes any inconsistent portion of the Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20__, and of the Franchise Disclosure Document.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholder of
Open Doors Inc.
Hixson, TN

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Open Doors Inc. (a Tennessee Corporation), which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Open Doors, Inc. as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Open Doors, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Open Door Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Open Doors, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Open Doors, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information on page 12 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

OPEN DOORS, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2023 AND 2022

NOTE 1 – BUSINESS ACTIVITY

Open Doors, Inc. was formed in the state of Tennessee on March 21, 2019; the Company is in the business of offering franchises to operate a garage door sales, installation, repair and service business for residential properties. Unless otherwise indicated, the terms “we,” “us,” “our,” and “Company” refer to Open Doors, Inc.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The Company’s policy is to prepare its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting; consequently, revenues are recognized when earned rather than when received, and expenses are recognized when the obligation is incurred rather than when cash is disbursed.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable and Bad Debts

Accounts receivable represent royalty receivables due from franchisees. Accounts are written off as uncollectible after management reviews the specific circumstances related to each account. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, management has not deemed a reserve necessary.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation and amortization are generally provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets which ranges between 3 to 10 years. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company did not own any fixed assets.

Income Taxes

Certain transactions of the Company may be subject to accounting methods for income tax purposes that differ significantly from the accounting methods used in preparing the financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, the taxable income of the Company reported for federal and state income tax purposes may differ from net income in these financial statements.

The Company has elected to be taxed as an S corporation under the internal revenue Code and applicable state statutes. Under an S Corporation election, the income of the Company flows through to the members to be taxed at the individual level rather than the corporate level. Accordingly, no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes has been included in the financial statements. Generally, the Company will distribute cash to the shareholder to pay his share of the federal and state taxes. The Company’s tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities. For federal income tax purposes, the tax returns essentially remain open for possible examination for a period of three years after the respective filing deadlines of those returns.

The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. ASC 740-10 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. ASC 740-10 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, and disclosure and transition accounting. The Company has concluded that no liability for uncertain tax positions is required at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Compensated Absences

Employees compensated absences are not accrued as of December 31, 2023 or 2022, because no reasonable estimate of the amount can be made.

Accounts Payable

Accounts Payable consists of vendor bills payable at various terms based on the individual vendor invoice. The Accounts Payable balance in the financial statements agree to the detailed vendor accounts payable schedule as of December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains cash in bank and deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenue recognition policies are in compliance with accounting standards ASC Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The new guidance includes the following five-step revenue recognition model:

- Identify the contract with the customer
- Identify the performance obligation in the contract
- Determine the transaction price
- Allocate the transaction price to performance obligations
- Recognize revenue when (or as) each performance obligation is satisfied

In 2020, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FAB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU), Franchisors-Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606) Practical Expedient. This new practical expedient will allow franchisors that are not public business entities to account for pre-opening services provided to a franchise as a single performance obligation if the services are in line with the services listed within the guidance, and they meet certain other conditions.

The Company recognizes franchise royalties and system advertising on a monthly basis, which are generally based upon a percentage of sales made by the Company's franchises, when they are earned and deemed collectible.

The following services are provided by the Company prior to the opening of a franchised location:

- A website housed within our national website that includes scheduling functionality and access to our intranet system that houses our proprietary educational platform and provides ongoing announcements and templates for print and marketing materials to support the Business.
- Access to a self-study program and related materials to be completed prior to attending our initial training program.
- Copy of proprietary operations manual (and other materials).
- Comprehensive ten-day training program at our corporate headquarters and up to three days of assistance and guidance pre-opening or grand opening on site.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed when incurred and amounted to $56,584 and $55,925 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

OPEN DOORS, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2023 AND 2022

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates made by the Company's management include, but are not limited to, allowances for doubtful accounts and contracts receivable, the allowance for losses on contracts in process and the percentage of completion on uncompleted contracts. Actual results could materially differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities

We measure and disclose certain financial assets and liabilities at fair value. ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. ASC Topic 820 also establishes a fair value hierarchy which requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The standard describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

We utilize the active market approach to measure fair value for our financial assets and liabilities. We report separately each class of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis and include assets and liabilities that are disclosed but not recorded at fair value in the fair value hierarchy.

Leases

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") established Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 842, Leases ("ASC 842"), by issuing Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2016-02 ("ASU 2016-02"). The standard, as amended, establishes a right-of-use ("ROU") model that requires a lessee to recognize a right-of-use ("ROU") asset and lease liability on the balance sheet for all leases with a term longer than 12 months. Leases are now classified as finance or operating, with classification affecting the pattern and classification of expense recognition in the statement of operations. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had no lease agreements in place.

NOTE 4 – RELATED PARTIES

These two subsidiaries operate two businesses that offer similar products and services to the Access Garage Doors Franchise being offered. The affiliate companies are owned by the majority owner of Open Doors, Inc. The affiliate companies do not offer franchises in any business, are independent entities and do not assume any legal or other obligations of Open Doors, Inc., nor does Open Doors, Inc, assume any of the affiliates legal or other obligations.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholder of
 Open Doors Inc.
 Hixson, TN

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Open Doors Inc. (a Tennessee Corporation), which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Open Doors, Inc. as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Open Doors, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Open Door Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Open Doors, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Open Doors, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information on page 12 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued

Compensated Absences

Employees compensated absences are not accrued as of December 31, 2022 or 2021, because no reasonable estimate of the amount can be made.

Accounts Payable

Accounts Payable consists of vendor bills payable at various terms based on the individual vendor invoice. The Accounts Payable balance in the financial statements agree to the detailed vendor accounts payable schedule as of December 31, 2022 and 2021.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains cash in bank and deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenue recognition policies are in compliance with accounting standards ASC Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The new guidance includes the following five-step revenue recognition model:

- Identify the contract with the customer
- Identify the performance obligation in the contract
- Determine the transaction price
- Allocate the transaction price to performance obligations
- Recognize revenue when (or as) each performance obligation is satisfied

In 2020, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FAB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU), Franchisors-Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606) Practical Expedient. This new practical expedient will allow franchisors that are not public business entities to account for pre-opening services provided to a franchise as a single performance obligation if the services are in line with the services listed within the guidance, and they meet certain other conditions.

The Company recognizes franchise royalties and system advertising on a monthly basis, which are generally based upon a percentage of sales made by the Company's franchises, when they are earned and deemed collectible.

The following services are provided by the Company prior to the opening of a franchised location:

- A website housed within our national website that includes scheduling functionality and access to our intranet system that houses our proprietary educational platform and provides ongoing announcements and templates for print and marketing materials to support the Business.
- Access to a self-study program and related materials to be completed prior to attending our initial training program.
- Copy of proprietary operations manual (and other materials).
- Comprehensive ten-day training program at our corporate headquarters and up to three days of assistance and guidance pre-opening or grand opening on site.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed when incurred and amounted to $55,925 and $54,633 for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP”) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates made by the Company’s management include, but are not limited to, allowances for doubtful accounts and contracts receivable, the allowance for losses on contracts in process and the percentage of completion on uncompleted contracts. Actual results could materially differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities

We measure and disclose certain financial assets and liabilities at fair value. ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. ASC Topic 820 also establishes a fair value hierarchy which requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The standard describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

We utilize the active market approach to measure fair value for our financial assets and liabilities. We report separately each class of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis and include assets and liabilities that are disclosed but not recorded at fair value in the fair value hierarchy.

Recently Issued and Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

The Company’s management has evaluated recently issued accounting pronouncements through the date of this report and concluded that they will not have a material effect on the financial statements as of December 31, 2022.

In February 2016, the FASB issued a new accounting standard on leases. The new standard, among other changes, will require lessees to recognize a right-of-use asset and a lease liability on the balance sheet for all leases. The lease liability will be measured at the present value of the lease payments over the lease term. The right-of-use asset will be measured at the lease liability amount, adjusted for lease prepayments, lease incentives received and the lessee’s initial direct costs (e.g., commissions). The new standard is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2021, including interim reporting periods within those annual reporting periods. The adoption will require a modified retrospective approach for leases that exist or are entered into after the beginning of the earliest period presented. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this new accounting standard on its consolidated financial position and results of operations.

NOTE 3 – DEFERRED REVENUE

Deferred revenue represents initial franchise sales for which substantially all the services to be provided by the Company have not yet been performed. The amounts deferred as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 were $0 and $0, respectively.

NOTE 4 – RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain balances from the 2021 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2022 financial statement presentation. Such reclassifications had no effect on the previously reported net income for the year ended December 31, 2021.

NOTE 5 – RELATED PARTIES

The Company has one affiliate parent company that owns two subsidiary companies. These two subsidiaries operate two businesses that offer similar products and services to the Access Garage Doors Franchise being offered. The affiliate companies are owned by the majority owner of Open Doors, Inc. The affiliate companies do not offer franchises in any business, are independent entities and do not assume any legal or other obligations of Open Doors, Inc., nor does Open Doors, Inc, assume any of the affiliates legal or other obligations.

NOTE 6 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through March 20, 2023, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued and nothing has occurred that would require disclosure.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholder of
Open Doors Inc.
Hixson, TN

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Open Doors Inc. (a Tennessee Corporation), which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related statements of income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Open Doors, Inc. as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Open Doors, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Open Doors, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information on page 12 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

OPEN DOORS, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Years Ended December 31, 2021 and 2020

NOTE 1 – BUSINESS ACTIVITY

Open Doors, Inc. was formed in the state of Tennessee on March 21, 2019; the Company is in the business of offering franchises to operate a garage door sales, installation, repair and service business for residential properties. Unless otherwise indicated, the terms “we,” “us,” “our,” and “Company” refer to Open Doors, Inc.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The Company’s policy is to prepare its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting; consequently, revenues are recognized when earned rather than when received, and expenses are recognized when the obligation is incurred rather than when cash is disbursed.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

Customer accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect on balances. The Company uses the direct write-off method for bad debts; management closely monitors outstanding balances and writes off, as of year-end, any balances that are considered to be uncollectible. Accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation and amortization are generally provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets which ranges between 3 to 10 years. At December 31, 2021 and 2020, the Company did not own any fixed assets.

Income Taxes

Certain transactions of the Company may be subject to accounting methods for income tax purposes that differ significantly from the accounting methods used in preparing the financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, the taxable income of the Company reported for federal and state income tax purposes may differ from net income in these financial statements.

The Company has elected to be taxed as an S corporation under the internal revenue Code and applicable state statutes. Under an S Corporation election, the income of the Company flows through to the members to be taxed at the individual level rather than the corporate level. Accordingly, no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes has been included in the financial statements. Generally, the Company will distribute cash to the shareholder to pay his share of the federal and state taxes. The Company’s tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities. For federal income tax purposes, the tax returns essentially remain open for possible examination for a period of three years after the respective filing deadlines of those returns.

The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. ASC 740-10 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. ASC 740-10 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, and disclosure and transition accounting. The Company has concluded that no liability for uncertain tax positions is required at December 31, 2021 and 2020.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed when incurred and amounted to $11,846 and $5,457 for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains cash in bank and deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenue recognition policies are in compliance with accounting standards ASC Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The new guidance includes the following five-step revenue recognition model:

- Identify the contract with the customer
- Identify the performance obligation in the contract
- Determine the transaction price
- Allocate the transaction price to performance obligations
- Recognize revenue when (or as) each performance obligation is satisfied

In 2020, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU), Franchisors-Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606) Practical Expedient. This new practical expedient will allow franchisors that are not public business entities to account for pre-opening services provided to a franchise as a single performance obligation if the services are in line with the services listed within the guidance, and they meet certain other conditions.

The Company recognizes franchise royalties and system advertising on a monthly basis, which are generally based upon a percentage of sales made by the Company's franchises, when they are earned and deemed collectible.

The following services are provided by the Company prior to the opening of a franchised location:

- A website housed within our national website that includes scheduling functionality and access to our intranet system that houses our proprietary educational platform and provides ongoing announcements and templates for print and marketing materials to support the Business.
- Access to a self-study program and related materials to be completed prior to attending our initial training program.
- Copy of proprietary operations manual (and other materials).
- Comprehensive ten-day training program at our corporate headquarters and up to three days of assistance and guidance pre-opening or grand opening on site.

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Compensated Absences

Employees compensated absences are not accrued as of December 31, 2021 or 2020, because no reasonable estimate of the amount can be made.

Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities

We measure and disclose certain financial assets and liabilities at fair value. ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. ASC Topic 820 also establishes a fair value hierarchy which requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The standard describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

We utilize the active market approach to measure fair value for our financial assets and liabilities. We report separately each class of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis and include assets and liabilities that are disclosed but not recorded at fair value in the fair value hierarchy.

Recently Issued and Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

The Company's management has evaluated recently issued accounting pronouncements through the date of this report and concluded that they will not have a material effect on the financial statements as of December 31, 2021.

In May 2014, the FASB issued a new accounting standard that attempts to establish a uniform basis for recording revenue to virtually all industries financial statements, under U.S. GAAP as amended in March 2016 and April 2016. The revenue standard's core principle is built on the contract between a vendor and a customer for the provision of goods and services. It attempts to depict the exchange of rights and obligations between the parties in the pattern of revenue recognition based on the consideration to which the vendor is entitled. In order to accomplish this objective, companies must evaluate the following five basic steps: (i) identify the contract with the customer, (ii) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (iii) determine the transaction price, (iv) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (v) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation. There are three basic transition methods that are available - full retrospective, retrospective with certain practical expedients, and a cumulative effect approach. Under the third alternative, an entity would apply the new revenue standard only to contracts that are incomplete under legacy U.S. guidance at the date of initial application and recognize the cumulative effect of the new standard as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings. Prior years would not be restated and additional disclosures would be required to enable users of the financial statements to understand the impact of adopting the new standard in the current year compared to prior years that are presented under legacy U.S. guidance.

OPEN DOORS, INC.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In February 2016, the FASB issued a new accounting standard on leases. The new standard, among other changes, will require lessees to recognize a right-of-use asset and a lease liability on the balance sheet for all leases. The lease liability will be measured at the present value of the lease payments over the lease term. The right-of-use asset will be measured at the lease liability amount, adjusted for lease prepayments, lease incentives received and the lessee's initial direct costs (e.g., commissions). The new standard is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2021, including interim reporting periods within those annual reporting periods. The adoption will require a modified retrospective approach for leases that exist or are entered into after the beginning of the earliest period presented. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this new accounting standard on its consolidated financial position and results of operations.

The Company does not believe that any other recently issued but not yet effective accounting pronouncements, if adopted, would have a material effect on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 3 – DEFERRED REVENUE

Deferred revenue represents initial franchise sales for which substantially all the services to be provided by the Company have not yet been performed. The amounts deferred as of December 31, 2021 and 2020 were $0 and $22,500, respectively.

NOTE 4 – RISK AND UNCERTAINTIES

In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared the novel strain of the coronavirus (COVID-19) a global pandemic and recommended containment and mitigation measures worldwide. As of the date of these financial statements, the Company is unable to determine if COVID-19 disruption will materially impact Results of operations or financial position. The Company cannot reasonably estimate the overall length or severity of this pandemic, which if prolonged for a longer duration, could potentially have material impact to the Company's financial position or results of operations.

NOTE 5 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through March 8, 2022, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued and nothing has occurred that would require disclosure.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Years Ended December 31, 2020 and 2019

NOTE 1 – BUSINESS ACTIVITY

Open Doors, Inc. was formed in the state of Tennessee on March 21, 2019; the Company is in the business of offering franchises to operate a garage door sales, installation, repair and service business for residential properties. Unless otherwise indicated, the terms “we,” “us,” “our,” and “Company” refer to Open Doors, Inc.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The Company’s policy is to prepare its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting; consequently, revenues are recognized when earned rather than when received, and expenses are recognized when the obligation is incurred rather than when cash is disbursed.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation and amortization are generally provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets which ranges between 3 to 10 years.

Income Taxes

Certain transactions of the Company may be subject to accounting methods for income tax purposes that differ significantly from the accounting methods used in preparing the financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, the taxable income of the Company reported for federal and state income tax purposes may differ from net income in these financial statements.

The Company has elected to be taxed as an S corporation under the internal revenue Code and applicable state statutes. Under an S Corporation election, the income of the Company flows through to the members to be taxed at the individual level rather than the corporate level. Accordingly, no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes has been included in the financial statements. Generally, the Company will distribute cash to the shareholder to pay his share of the federal and state taxes. The Company’s tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities. For federal income tax purposes, the tax returns essentially remain open for possible examination for a period of three years after the respective filing deadlines of those returns.

The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. ASC 740-10 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. ASC 740-10 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, and disclosure and transition accounting. The Company has concluded that no liability for uncertain tax positions is required at December 31, 2020 and 2019.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed when incurred. Advertising expense amounted to $5,457 and $0 for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains cash in bank and deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenue recognition policies are in compliance with accounting standards ASC Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The new guidance includes the following five-step revenue recognition model:

- Identify the contract with the customer
- Identify the performance obligation in the contract
- Determine the transaction price
- Allocate the transaction price to performance obligations
- Recognize revenue when (or as) each performance obligation is satisfied

In 2020, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FAB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU), Franchisors-Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606) Practical Expedient. This new practical expedient will allow franchisors that are not public business entities to account for pre-opening services provided to a franchise as a single performance obligation if the services are in line with the services listed within the guidance, and they meet certain other conditions.

The Company recognizes franchise royalties and system advertising on a monthly basis, which are generally based upon a percentage of sales made by the Company's franchises, when they are earned and deemed collectible.

The following services are provided by the Company prior to the opening of a franchised location:

- A website housed within our national website that includes scheduling functionality and access to our intranet system that houses our proprietary educational platform and provides ongoing announcements and templates for print and marketing materials to support the Business.
- Access to a self-study program and related materials to be completed prior to attending our initial training program.
- Copy of proprietary operations manual (and other materials).
- Comprehensive ten-day training program at our corporate headquarters and up to three days of assistance and guidance pre-opening or grand opening on site.

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP). The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates made by the Company's management include, but are not limited to, allowances for doubtful accounts and contracts receivable, the allowance for losses on contracts in process and the percentage of completion on uncompleted contracts. Actual results could materially differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities

We measure and disclose certain financial assets and liabilities at fair value. ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. ASC Topic 820 also establishes a fair value hierarchy which requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The standard describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

We utilize the active market approach to measure fair value for our financial assets and liabilities. We report separately each class of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis and include assets and liabilities that are disclosed but not recorded at fair value in the fair value hierarchy.

Recently Issued and Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

The Company's management has evaluated recently issued accounting pronouncements through the date of this report and concluded that they will not have a material effect on the financial statements as of December 31, 2020. However, for purpose of financial reporting the Company has elected early adoption of Accounting Standards Update No. 2014-10, issued June 10, 2014, which removes the definition of a development stage entity from ASC Topic 915 and all distinction between development stage entities and other reporting entities under GAAP. As a result, we no longer report financial results showing inception to date.

In May 2014, the FASB issued a new accounting standard that attempts to establish a uniform basis for recording revenue to virtually all industries financial statements, under U.S. GAAP as amended in March 2016 and April 2016. The revenue standard's core principle is built on the contract between a vendor and a customer for the provision of goods and services. It attempts to depict the exchange of rights and obligations between the parties in the pattern of revenue recognition based on the consideration to which the vendor is entitled. In order to accomplish this objective, companies must evaluate the following five basic steps: (i) identify the contract with the customer, (ii) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (iii) determine the transaction price, (iv) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (v) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation. There are three basic transition methods that are available - full retrospective, retrospective with certain practical expedients, and a cumulative effect approach. Under the third alternative, an entity would apply the new revenue standard only to contracts that are incomplete under legacy U.S. guidance at the date of initial application and recognize the cumulative effect of the new standard as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings. Prior years would not be restated and additional disclosures would be required to enable users of the financial statements to understand the impact of adopting the new standard in the current year compared to prior years that are presented under legacy U.S. guidance.

In February 2016, the FASB issued a new accounting standard on leases. The new standard, among other changes, will require lessees to recognize a right-of-use asset and a lease liability on the balance sheet for all leases. The lease liability will be measured at the present value of the lease payments over the lease term. The right-of-use asset will be measured at the lease liability amount, adjusted for lease prepayments, lease incentives received and the lessee's initial direct costs (e.g., commissions). The new standard is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2020, including interim reporting periods within those annual reporting periods. The adoption will require a modified retrospective approach for leases that exist or are entered into after the beginning of the earliest period presented. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this new accounting standard on its consolidated financial position and results of operations.

The Company does not believe that any other recently issued but not yet effective accounting pronouncements, if adopted, would have a material effect on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 3 – STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

During the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, the Company's stockholder contributed $0 and $14,900, respectively.

NOTE 4 – INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE REVENUE

Deferred revenue represents initial franchise sales for which substantially all the services to be provided by the Company have not yet been performed. The amounts deferred as of December 31, 2020 and 2019 were $22,500 and $0, respectively.

NOTE 5 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through March 29, 2021, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued and nothing has occurred that would require disclosure.

In March 2020, the World Health Organization made the assessment that the outbreak of a novel coronavirus (COVID-19) can be characterized as a pandemic. As a result, uncertainties have arisen that may have a significant negative impact on the operating activities and results of the Organization. The extent of the impact of COVID-19 on our operational and financial performance will depend on certain developments, including the duration and spread of the outbreak, impact on our customers, employees and vendors all of which are uncertain and cannot be predicted. At this point, the extent to which COVID-19 may impact our financial condition or results of operations is uncertain.

NOTE 1 – BUSINESS ACTIVITY

OPEN DOORS INC. was formed in the state of Tennessee on March 21, 2019; the Company is in the business of offering franchises to operate a garage door sales, installation, repair and service business for residential properties. Unless otherwise indicated, the terms “we,” “us,” “our,” and “Company” refer to OPEN DOORS INC.

The Company is in its initial start-up phase and is currently in the process of acquiring franchisees to operate in various states.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The Company’s policy is to prepare its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting; consequently, revenues are recognized when earned rather than when received, and expenses are recognized when the obligation is incurred rather than when cash is disbursed.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The company may receive an initial franchise fee from each franchise sale and will receive continuing royalty fees from operating franchises over the life of the franchise. Initial franchise fees are recognized as revenue when all material services or conditions relating to the sale has been substantially performed or satisfied. Continuing royalty fees are considered earned when they become due from the franchisee.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains cash in bank and deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Long-Lived Assets

The Company reviews long-lived assets to be held and used by an entity for impairment whenever changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. As there are no owned assets for the period ended December 31, 2019, no impairment of the carrying values of its long-lived assets existed at December 31, 2019. There can be no assurance, however, that demands for the Company’s products or market conditions will not change which could result in impairment losses in the future.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation and amortization are generally provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets which ranges between 3 to 10 years. At December 31, 2019, the Company did not own any fixed assets.

Income Taxes

The Company is treated as an S corporation for federal income tax purposes. In lieu of corporate income taxes, the shareholders are taxed on their personal return for their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. Therefore, no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes has been included in the financial statements. Generally, the Company will distribute cash to the shareholder to pay his share of the federal and state taxes.

The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. ASC 740-10 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. ASC 740-10 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, and disclosure and transition accounting. The Company has concluded that no liability for uncertain tax positions is required at December 31, 2019.

The Company's tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities. For federal income tax purposes, the tax returns essentially remain open for possible examination for a period of three years after the respective filing deadlines of those returns.
