What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration, and/or litigation only in Colorado. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Colorado than in your own state.
2. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty or marketing fund payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payment may result in the termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
3. Spousal Liability. We reserve the right to require a spouse, significant other, or similar domestic partners to sign a personal guaranty. If we require your spouse to sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement, even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk, if your franchise fails.
4. Financial Condition. The franchisor's financial condition, as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21), calls into question the franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State-Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

NOTICE REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF MICHIGAN (THE FOLLOWING APPLIES TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

A prohibition of the right of a Franchisee to join an association of Franchisees.

A requirement that a Franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel that deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This does not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a Franchise Agreement, from settling any and all claims.

A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the Franchise Agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.

A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials that have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (a) the term of the franchise is less than five years, and (b) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, marketing or other commercial symbols in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least six months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.

A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.

A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This will not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration or litigation, to conduct arbitration or litigation at a location outside this state.

A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. The subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then-current reasonable qualifications or standards.

The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

The franchisee's failure or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the Franchise Agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third-party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

A provision that permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless a provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000, the franchisee may request the franchisor to arrange for the escrow of the initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations, if any, of the franchisor to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENFORCEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Any questions regarding this notice should be directed to the Department of Attorney General, State of Michigan, Department of the Attorney General, G. Mennen Williams Building, 7th Floor, 525 W. Ottawa Street, P.O. Box 30212, Lansing, MI 48909, and telephone (517) 335-7622.

ITEM 8

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Required Purchases and System Changes

You must open and operate your Business under the System. The specifications necessary to operate under the System include standards for delivering services to the Client, professional standards for operation, criteria for performance, and purchases of required goods and services. These specifications were formulated by us. We may modify any specification as to any good, service, supply, fixture, equipment, inventory, computer hardware, software, software supplier, or the like, at any time and on a local, regional, or national basis. We may also add and remove vendors at any time.

We may communicate our standards, specifications, and purchase requirements directly to suppliers who wish to supply goods or services to you. We will communicate our standards and specifications to you during training, before you open, during periodic visits to your Business, and through the Franchisee Manuals and periodic bulletins. We may issue new standards and specifications through written notices. Once you are notified, you must make the change that is specified. We may also add and remove vendors at any time.

We have the right, in our sole discretion and as we may deem in the best interests of the system or a specific franchisee, to vary required purchases, standards, or specifications based upon that franchisee's qualifications, special circumstances, the demographics of a particular territory, business potential, or any other condition which we deem to be of importance to the successful operation of any particular Business. We will not be required to disclose or grant you a similar variance.

You are also required to maintain all of the QSP Package equipment to keep each piece operational. You may be required to replace all of the durable tools and equipment supplied with the original QSP Package no more often than one time every five years at our then-current QSP Package Maintenance and Renewal Fee. We will notify you 60 days before a new fee is to be collected. The content of the QSP

Package used for maintenance or renewal will be available only from an approved supplier, an Affiliate, or us.

The QSP Consumables must be purchased from our approved vendor, an Affiliate, or us only.

Our approved vendor or we are the only supplier of the services for which the Technology Maintenance Fee is paid.

If you breach the Franchise Agreement, we may step in and temporarily manage your business. If we do, you will pay us the Temporary Management Fee. We are the only supplier of these services.

Your Business Vehicle must meet our criteria and standards and must be maintained and replaced as required by the Franchise Agreement and Manuals. It may be purchased or leased from any person or dealer. If the Business Vehicle exceeds 15 years of age at any time during the Initial Term or any Successor Franchise Term, or if we determine that it has not been properly maintained, you may be required to replace it with the then-current Business Vehicle we require of all new franchisees.

You must purchase and maintain the Computer System, which may be purchased from a reputable dealer. You may already own the hardware and software that we require. We may, as outlined in the Operations Manual, require you to use certain designated software for accounting or bookkeeping purposes. Your use of such software is a condition to your franchise, and in connection with such use, you must furnish to us no less than Viewing access to such software, together with all required reports as set forth herein. You may be required to obtain certain services, including call center, call tracking, telephone number, and software services set forth in the Operations Manual, some from our Affiliate and others from third parties, and for some of whom we will collect the funds. When such a service is set forth in the Operations Manual as a mandatory service, you must obtain it from an approved or designated vendor outlined in such manual. During fiscal year 2022, we received $1,087,411 from our franchisees' required purchases, representing 17.6% of our total revenue of $6,173,433. Our affiliate, ProNexis, received no revenues from our franchisees for required purchases.

In the future, we may require all franchisees and you to add new goods, services, software services, and technology to those already sold through or used in the Business. If we do this, you may incur additional expenses, costs, and fees, some of which may be due to an affiliate, a third party for whom we collect the funds, an approved vendor, or us. If we introduce new lines of goods, services, and technology, we will notify you in writing and give you a reasonable time to comply with the changes, which will not exceed 60 days. If we are informed of such an approved vendor, third party, or affiliate making a change in terms or prices, we will likewise inform you as soon after we learn of such a change as we are reasonable able to do so.

You may purchase any other equipment or materials from an approved source. The list of approved products and suppliers is published in the Franchisee Manuals.

Except for the goods and services that must be purchased from an affiliate or us, our principals own no interest in any other supplier. Except as stated here, our Affiliate and we are not approved suppliers.

Insurance

Before opening the Business, you will purchase and maintain in full force and effect the following insurance with the following minimum limits:

- a. General liability insurance having a combined annual single limit for any form of injury and property damage of $1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 in the aggregate;
- b. Automobile liability insurance in reference to the vehicle or vehicles that are used in the operation of the Business, and automobile liability coverage for owned, non-owned, scheduled, and hired vehicles having limits for bodily injuries of $500,000 per person and $1,000,000 per accident, and property damage limits of $50,000 per occurrence;
- c. Employer's liability and worker's compensation Insurance is mandatory regardless of being required by state law in the state in which the Business is found. If your state does not require you to carry such insurance (such as Mississippi or Texas), you must still obtain it, in which case the minimum amount will be $1,000,000/$1,000,000/$1,000,000. You or your equity owners that operate the Business must be covered; no exclusions are allowed. A "Stop Gap" endorsement or similar coverage is required in North Dakota, Ohio, Washington, and Wyoming. This policy must provide primary coverage.
- d. Business interruption insurance of not less than $30,000.00 per month for loss of income and other expenses with a limit of not less than nine months of coverage.
- e. Professional liability insurance with coverage of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence and $1,000,000 annual aggregate.
- f. Excess liability umbrella coverage for general and automobile liability coverage of not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 in the aggregate.

The insurance will insure us, you, and our respective subsidiaries, owners, officers, directors, partners, members, employees, servants, and agents against any loss, liability, products liability, personal injury, death or property damage that may accrue due to your operation of the Franchise. Your policies of insurance, will contain a separate endorsement naming us as an additional named insured. The insurance will not be limited in any way because of any insurance we maintain, and will be the primary, non-contributory insurance for claims made thereunder. The insurance will not be subject to cancellation except upon 20 days' written notice to us. Certificates of your insurance policies will be kept on deposit with us. Maintenance of the required insurance will not diminish your liability to us under the indemnities contained in this Agreement. The policy or policies will insure against our vicarious liability for actual and (unless prohibited by applicable law) punitive damages assessed against you.

All insurance policies you obtain will contain a blanket waiver of the insurer's rights of subrogation in respect of or against us and our officers, agents, employees and representatives; and will not contain any insured vs. insured exclusion clause, but will contain a severability clause providing that each the policy will be treated as though a separate insurance policy had been issued to each named insured.

We may require you to increase the minimum limits of and types of coverage to keep pace with regular business practice and prudent insurance custom.

If you fail to comply with any of the requirements of this Subsection, we may, but are not obligated to, purchase insurance at your expense to protect our interests. This insurance may, but need not, also protect your interest. The coverage we obtain might not pay any claim you make or any claim made against you. You may later cancel the insurance we obtain by providing evidence that you have obtained proper coverage elsewhere. You are responsible for the cost of any insurance purchased by us pursuant to this paragraph. This coverage may be considerably more expensive than insurance you can obtain on your own and might not satisfy your needs. You will pay us upon demand the premium cost of this insurance with a late payment charge on the unpaid balance at the rate established in this Agreement.

You will promptly report all claims or potential claims against you, the Business or us in writing when you become aware of them. You will give immediate written notice to us of any claims or potential claims you make to your insurers.

We may, at our sole discretion, upon not less than 90 days prior written notice to you, secure a policy of insurance which will provide defined insurance coverage to all or any part of the ~~Five Star Bath Solutions~~Bio-One system. This policy may replace or supplement the insurance coverage you are required to maintain. You will pay the relevant insurance premium to us or the designated insurance provider, as we direct.

Nothing contained in this Agreement will be construed as a representation or warranty by us that the insurance coverage we specify will insure you against all insurable risks or amounts of loss which may or can arise out of or in connection with the operation of your franchise business. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that adequate insurance coverage is obtained for your business.

Your procurement and maintenance of the insurance specified above will not relieve you of any liability to us under any indemnity requirement of this Agreement.

Although we require certain insurance coverage and may recommend other coverages, we do not guarantee that the required or recommended insurance will be adequate to protect your assets fully. You should consult with an insurance professional to determine what coverage, in addition to the minimum required coverage, may be needed for you and your Business.

Approval of Alternative Suppliers

In some cases, you may wish to purchase a required good or service from a supplier that has not been previously approved by us. There is no charge for this service though we reserve the right at any time to charge for this service. We do not maintain written criteria for approving suppliers, and thus, these criteria are not available to you or your proposed supplier. To obtain our approval, you must submit such information as we may reasonably require to evaluate the prospective supplier. We will evaluate the submitted information and provide written notice of our decision within 15 days. If, however, no written response is received, the approval is denied. We may grant or deny approval for any reason or no reason at all. Other than as stated here, we have no other process for approving suppliers.

Approval of alternative suppliers may be revoked if we determine in good faith that their goods or services no longer meet our quality standards.

Revenue from Franchisee Purchases

~~We received revenue and material considerations because of the required purchases. In the year ending December 31, 2021 we earned $590,500 in gross revenue from the sale of the QSP Package, which represents approximately 9.2% of our total revenue of $6,440,877 for that period. This figure was derived from our audited financial statements found in Exhibit G.~~

The cost of equipment and supplies purchased through us will represent 50% to 60% of your total purchases to establish the Business and approximately 40% to 60% of your total purchases during the operation of the business.

We do not now, but may in the future, receive rebates and material benefits from vendors with whom you are to do business. We may share the rebates or material benefits or not in our sole discretion.

Cooperatives

Though there is none at this time, we may, in the future, develop a regional purchasing cooperative in your area. The purpose of the purchasing cooperative will be to obtain all goods and services at a more competitive price. Upon the creation of the same, you must participate in the program. Any item carried by the cooperative will be of the same quality as then required by us by any other franchisees.

Negotiated Prices

We have ~~not~~ negotiated prices with ~~some-certain~~ of our vendors for the benefit of the franchisees ~~though-and~~ we may continue to do so in the future with others.

Material Benefits

We do not provide or withhold material benefits to you (including renewal rights or the right to open additional businesses) based on whether you purchase through the sources we designate or approve. However, purchases of unapproved services, the use of unapproved vendors, or supplying unapproved services will be a violation of the Franchise Agreement, and you may be terminated as a result.

(Opening Date). You will be required to attend Initial Training (as described below in this Item 11) before you open. We may extend the Opening Date for a reasonable time (not to exceed 20 days) in the event factors beyond your reasonable control prevent you from meeting the Opening Date, and you request an extension of time from us. The factors that affect the period required to open the Business may include your ability to obtain financing, permits, and licensing. Advertising

Local Advertising and Web Presence

You are required to spend the greater of $1,500 or 5% per month of Gross Sales (Local Advertising Fee) on local marketing (Local Advertising) ~~using vendors of your choice~~. Except as stated below, Local Advertising may take any form you choose, and you may spend any additional amount you choose.

As part of your Local Advertising, you must purchase internet marketing from Google, Bing, Yahoo, or similar search engine businesses. ~~As you do so, you will be required to define certain search areas (which may include neighborhoods, cities, or other regions), and for each such area you list to the public as being one of your business's areas of service, you will be required to allocate certain per-household amounts as will be set forth in the brand standards manual. The current rate set for such search areas is $0.15 per household located within such area.~~ Before you open, you will inform us of the search engine you choose, and we will set up your account with them. We ~~will provide advise~~ you ~~guidelines in our brand standards manual regarding the scope and boundaries to make use of for-to make~~ your search areas, ~~with required allocations of your local advertising spending to be within certain degrees of proximity to your business location's radius equal to 50 miles from your Franchised Location.~~ You then have the right to control the cost each month paid to the search engine provider. With your permission, we have the option in our sole discretion to monitor your account to determine how your Local Advertising Fee is used. This is not required, and if we agree to this, we may cease the monitoring at any time. You do not pay us for this service.

We must approve any marketing regardless of the medium into which it is inserted before it is placed. You will deliver the proposed marketing to us no less than 15 calendar days before its insertion into any medium. If you do not receive written notice within the 15 calendar days, the marketing is disapproved.

Unless otherwise approved in writing by us or outlined in the Manual, you will not establish a separate website on the internet. Any uniform resource locator (URL) addresses, email addresses, any blog, vlogs, social media sites, and the like that you create for the Business also require our approval. Upon expiration or the earlier termination of the Franchise Agreement, the URLs, email addresses, blogs, vlog, social media sites, and the like will belong to us, and you will transfer each to us as we may require.

Regional Advertising

Upon 30 days prior written notice, we reserve the right to allocate all or a portion of your Local Advertising Fee to a regional marketing program (Regional Advertising Cooperative) for the benefit of Businesses located within a market area. We have the right to determine the composition of all market areas included in a particular Regional Advertising Cooperative. If a market region is formed, we will require all franchisees and company-owned and affiliate-owned Businesses to participate. The Regional Advertising Cooperative will be administered by the contributors to it. There will be no governing documents. All marketing for the Regional Advertising Cooperative will be prepared by a local, national or international marketing agency or by us. The Regional Advertising Cooperative will prepare unaudited financial statements and will make them available to all Cooperative participants within 120 days of the year-end. We have the right to change, dissolve, reinstate, or merge any Regional Advertising Cooperatives.

Marketing Fee

We collect 2% of your monthly Gross Sales for national marketing (Marketing Fee), with a monthly minimum of $145. The Marketing Fee will be due at the same time as your Royalty.

The Marketing Fees will be deposited in a separate checking account, savings account, or any other account of our determination (National Branding Account). The National Branding Account is not a trust, and we assume no fiduciary duty in administering it. Any monies not used in any year will be carried to the next year.

We will administer the National Advertising Account at our sole discretion. The proceeds may be used for the creation, production, and placement of marketing reasonably intended to benefit some or all franchisees in any local, regional, or national medium, in-house or outside agency costs and commissions, costs associated with the preparation of and presentation of an annual convention, creation and production of the Internet, video, audio, and written advertisements, for the payment to us of costs related to administering the National Advertising Account such as reasonable salaries, administrative costs, costs allocated to any conferences, travel expenses, and overhead, and for any other commercially reasonable purpose consistent with this paragraph.

We make no guarantee that marketing expenditures from the National Branding Account will benefit you or any other franchisee directly, indirectly, or on a pro-rata basis and are not obligated to spend any amount on advertising in your territory. We will assume no other direct or indirect liability or obligation to you concerning collecting amounts due to the National Branding Account or with respect to maintaining, directing, or administering the National Branding Account.

Any company-owned Businesses will participate in any national or regional marketing programs on the same basis as franchisee-owned Businesses.

The marketing will be produced by a local, national, or international marketing agency or by us.

Upon your prior written request, we will make an annual unaudited financial statement available no later than 120 days after our year-end. The National Branding Account is audited.

Though we have no plans now, we reserve the right to increase the Marketing Fee amount to no more than 3% of the Gross Sales. We will give you notice of our intent to do this and 60 days to comply.

We intend for the Marketing Fee to be continual and perpetual, but we have the right to form, change, suspend (and subsequently reinstate), merge or terminate it if necessary. We will not close the National Branding Account, however, until all contributions and earnings have been used for the purpose for which they were collected.

For the year ending December 31, 2020~~1~~, we used the Marketing Fees as follows: approximately ~~23.7% on marketing and placement; 24.2% on administrative costs; and 52% on software and support~~~~5.0% on promotional products, sponsorship events, online marketing and print, press, and media marketing;~~~~51.0% on national service providers and national marketing opportunities; 28.0% on administrative costs including taxes and fees; 15% on the Conference; and approximately 1% on miscellaneous costs.~~ The balance was carried over to the next calendar year. No money was used for marketing for new franchisees.

Franchise Advisory Council

We ~~do~~ have a Franchise Advisory Council, ~~but may form one in the future~~. All franchisees are eligible to join our then-current Franchise Advisory Council. Currently, five franchisees that receive the greatest number of votes of all franchisees are placed on the council. The Franchise Advisory Council serves in an advisory capacity only, and we have the right at any time to form, change or dissolve (and then reinstate) Franchise Advisory Council.

Computer Requirements

You will be required to own or purchase the following computer hardware and software to operate your Business:

- a. A notebook or desktop computer from any manufacturer that runs on the latest Microsoft Windows platform and has sufficient memory to perform ordinary business functions;
- b. A laser or inkjet printer of any make or model;
- c. The online version of Microsoft 365 Personal that currently costs about $7 per month; and,
- d. The latest version of Internet Explorer or another Internet browser that we approve.

Computer hardware and software are referred to as the “Computer System.” You may already have an adequate Computer System. If not, the Computer System could cost approximately $2,000. We have no control over the monthly fees charged for Microsoft 365, and they may change at any time.

You will be required to maintain each component of the Computer System to keep it operational. The cost of and the frequency of such maintenance cannot be estimated as various factors, such as the age of the entire Computer System and its treatment while in operation, cannot be determined.

We may also require you to update the Computer System no more often than once every five years. We estimate the cost to be approximately $2,000. The cost of any such update will vary depending upon your location in the country, the make and model of computer hardware you choose, and the then-current cost of the required computer software. We may, however, change the configuration of the Computer System (by moving to a tablet or laptop-only configuration, for example) at any time, and if we do, you will be required to comply within 60 days of the date you receive written notice from us.

You are not required to enter into any Computer System maintenance contract.

Your Computer System must at all times be connected to the internet through a high-speed internet portal.

We each also acknowledge and agree that changes to technology are dynamic and not predictable within the term of the Franchise Agreement. To provide for inevitable but unpredictable changes to technological needs and opportunities, you agree that we will have the right to establish, in writing, reasonable new standards and fees for implementing new technology in the System; and you agree to comply with those reasonable new standards. You will be required to use certain designated software services, provided through approved suppliers and to obtain such software services on the terms available from the approved suppliers.

In the future, we may offer proprietary software or web-based programs that may include accounting, word processing, and other features. This will be delivered to you at no cost. All programs will be compatible with the Windows operating systems.

In the future, we may also require you to purchase a POS System from our approved vendor, an affiliate, or us. We currently have no criteria for the POS System hardware or software and cannot estimate its cost to purchase or maintain. We will give you no less than 60-days prior written notice before requiring you to purchase the POS System.

We will have independent access to your Computer System, except we will never disclose a Client's personal information. If your databases are passcode protected, you will provide the code to us upon request. The information accessed, and data to be generated or stored through your use of the POS System and the Computer System will include scheduling information, attendees, and the identity of venues at which your services are offered. There are no other contractual limitations on our right to access such information.

Franchisee Manual and Table of Contents

We will loan you one copy of the Franchisee Manual though it will always remain our property. It is part of the System, and it contains our confidential, proprietary, and trade secret information. The Table of Contents of the Franchisee Manual is found in Exhibit C to this Disclosure Document. The Franchisee Manual contains approximately 32 pages.

Location Selection

It is anticipated and expected that you will operate the business out of your home (Franchised Location). We have no criteria or requirements for your Franchised Location, and we provide no other guidance concerning it. You may decide to lease space for which we have no criteria and will review no lease.

Training

Initial Training Program

For the first franchise that you buy, your "Designated Manager," you, or if you are a business entity, your "Principal Operator," must attend and complete initial training (Initial Training) to our reasonable satisfaction. You may also have one additional trainee (for a total of two). At least one of the two must complete Initial Training before you open. You will then have no more than 365 days after the Opening Date to send a second trainee to Initial Training. If each Person completes Initial Training within that time, there will be no tuition. If, however, you send a person after the 365 days, Initial Training will be offered at our then-current Additional Training Fee. The “Principal Operator” is the person designated by your business entity to receive our training and to operate the business from day-to-day. The “Designated Manager” is defined as the person, besides your Principal Operator or you, who acts as the general manager of the Business, has been trained by us, and who will operate the Business from day to day.

If one of the two people that attend Initial Training before opening fails to pass Initial Training, the person will be allowed to take it again at the next available class. There will be no tuition charged for this, but you will pay for travel, room, and board. If the trainee fails to pass the second time, the person will not be permitted to provide any Services requiring completion of the Initial Training. If the two people that take Initial Training before opening fail to complete the training to our reasonable satisfaction, both will be permitted to take it the second time for no additional tuition. If they both fail to pass Initial Training the second time, we have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement, except that all restrictive and other covenants of the Franchise Agreement that must survive termination to remain enforceable will so survive. The IFF will not be refunded.

If one person passes Initial Training before opening and the second person attends training within 365 days of the Opening Date, that person must pass Initial Training to our satisfaction. If the person does not pass, the person will be allowed to take it again at the next available class. There will be no tuition charged for this, but you will pay for travel, room, and board. If this person does not pass the second time, the person will not be permitted to provide any Services requiring completion of the Initial Training. Though the person may take the course for the third time, we will charge the then-current Additional Training Fee, and the person will pay for travel, room, and board.

If you wish for more than two people to attend Initial Training, you will pay our then-current Additional Training Fee plus their travel, room, and board.

Initial Training consists of approximately five days of instruction, of which approximately 30 hours are classroom instruction and 10 hours are on-the-job training. Initial Training is held as needed at our then-current headquarters or at another facility that we designate. You must pay all of your costs for attending training, including travel, lodging, food, and wages.

If you replace your Principal Operator or Designated Manager, the replacement must attend our Initial Training. You will pay the then-current Designated Manager Training Fee for such training, and you will be responsible for travel, room, board, and wages of the attendee.

The training materials include the Manuals and handouts.

OSHA Training

To refresh and emphasize the safety procedures taught to you during Initial Training, you (if you are a sole proprietor or are the sole equity owner of the business-entity franchisee) or one of your equity owners (if you are a business entity that has two or more equity owners) must attend and also pass OSHA Training. You will pay our then-current fees for such training, and you will be responsible for travel, room, board, and wages of the attendee.

Conference and Training Attendance

We do have a conference, and attendance is ~~not currently~~ mandatory. ~~We may change this at any time after giving you no less than 60 days prior written notice.~~ You must pay the then-current Conference Fee, and you are responsible for your travel, accommodations, food, and other expenses. When it is known, you will be provided with the duration of such meeting, as well as its location, the identities of those who will present information at the meeting, and the content of any information that will be delivered at that time. The conference will be held in a location to be determined by us.

In addition to the conference, we have the right in the future to require your Principal Operator, Designated Manager, and you to attend a local or regional meeting up to two times per year. Though none is now charged, we reserve the right to charge tuition in the future. However, you are always responsible for all travel and living expenses associated with attendance at the same. When it is known, you will be provided with the duration of such meeting, as well as its location, the identities of those who will present information, and a statement of the content to be presented. The meetings will be held in a location to be determined by us.

If attendance at any conference or meeting is mandatory, we may charge you our then-current Mandatory Non-Attendance Fee if you fail to attend.

Your Franchise Agreement will also specify a designated territory that will provide you limited territory protection (the “Territory”) related to your marketing activities. The Franchise Agreement does not grant you any territorial rights beyond the Territory. You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

A typical Territory will have a population in excess of 500,000 people; however, we reserve the right to grant a Territory with a population of less than 500,000. You will maintain rights to your Territory throughout the term of your Franchise Agreement, even if the population in your Territory increases. Your Principal Operator and Designated Manager are not required to own any minimum amount of equity.

Your Designated Manager, if you have one, must abide by all confidentiality requirements of the franchise agreement and may, in the future, be required to sign a confidentiality and non-competition agreement.

If you purchase the Franchise Agreement through a business entity, or if you convert to a business entity other than a sole proprietorship, each individual who owns an interest in the business entity must sign a personal guaranty that includes an agreement that each signor will abide by all restrictive covenants and discharge all obligations of the franchisee under the Franchise Agreement. We do not currently require a spouse, significant other, or similar domestic partners to sign a personal guaranty though we reserve the right to do so in the future.

ITEM 16

FEES, ADVERTISING, and REPORTING

3.1 Initial Fees and Payments to Us Before Opening

- a. The IFF is stated in Exhibit 1 and is due when you sign this Franchise Agreement. You acknowledge that the IFF represents payment for the training and the initial grant of the rights to use the Marks and Systems and that we have earned the initial franchise fee upon receipt thereof.
- b. Before opening, you will also pay us,
- i. the QSP Cost for the QSP Package;
- ii. our then-current Technology Startup Fee;
- iii. the Annual Conference Registration Fee; and,
- iv. the OSHA Training Fee.
- c. Unless stated elsewhere in this Franchise Agreement, all fees are uniform, fully earned by us, payable in one lump sum, and are non-refundable.

3.2 Technology Maintenance Fee and New Technology Fees

a. You will pay us our then-current Technology Maintenance Fee. We may increase this fee at any time without limitation after first giving you no less than 60 days' written notice. We may change the suppliers of these services at any time.

b. We each also acknowledge and agree that changes to technology are dynamic and not predictable. To provide for inevitable but unpredictable changes to technological needs and opportunities, you agree that we will have the right to establish, in writing, reasonable new standards and fees for implementing new technology in the System; and you agree to comply with those reasonable new standards.

3.3 Royalty

a. You will pay the greater of the Minimum Royalty or the Percentage Royalty monthly (Royalty), which is collected in the manner more fully stated below. We will start billing for Royalties and all other fees collected with the Royalty 45 days after your Opening Date.

b. The Minimum Royalty will ~~never be less than~~ $5600 from the Effective Date through the 12th month; beginning in the 13th month and through the 24th month, the Minimum Royalty will be $1,200; beginning in the 25th month, and through the remainder of the Initial Term, the Minimum Royalty will be $1,800.

i. It may be increased no more often than once every 36 months during the Initial Term (as measured from the Effective Date), to reflect an increase in the "Consumer Price Index" for all urban consumers, all items seasonally adjusted (base 1982-1984) (CPI-U) that is quoted by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, or its successor.

ii. To determine if there is an increase in the CPI-U, we will first determine a baseline CPI-U (Base CPI-U) on the Effective Date. If the Effective Date is other than the first day of a month, then the Base CPI-U will be determined on the first day of the first month following the Effective Date. Then on the 36th-month anniversary of the Effective Date and again on the seventy-second month anniversary (or the first day of the month following the 36th or 72nd-month anniversary, if that date is other than the first day of a month), we will determine the then-current CPI-U. (Current CPI-U). We will calculate the increase (if any) in the Minimum Royalty by multiplying the then-current Minimum Royalty by a fraction, the denominator of which is the Base CPI-U and the numerator of which is the Current CPI-U.

c. The Minimum Royalty and Percentage Royalty may increase to the then-current amount if you are awarded Successor Franchise Rights.

3.4 Advertising and Advertising Fees

a. Local Advertising, Grand Opening, and Web Presence:

i. You must spend the greater of $1,500 or 5% per month of Gross Sales (Local Advertising Fee) on local marketing (Local Advertising) using vendors of your choice. Except as stated below, Local Advertising may take any form you choose, and you may spend any additional amount you choose.

ii. As part of your Local Advertising, you must purchase internet marketing from Google, Bing, Yahoo, or similar search engine businesses. As you do so, you will be required to define certain search areas (which may include neighborhoods, cities, or other regions), and for each such area

~~you list to the public as being one of your business's areas of service, you will be required to allocate certain per-household amounts as will be set forth in the brand standards manual. The current rate set for such search areas is $0.15 per household located within such area. Before you open, you will inform us of the search engine you choose, and we will set up your account with them. We will provide you guidelines in our brand standards manual regarding the scope and boundaries to make use of for your search areas, with required allocations of your local advertising spending to be within certain degrees of proximity to your business location. Before you open, you will inform us of the search engine you choose, and we will set up your account with them. We advise you to make your search area's radius equal to 50 miles from your Franchised Location. You may choose an area with more or less territory.~~ You then have the right to control the cost each month paid to the search engine provider. With your permission, we have the option in our sole discretion to monitor your account to determine how your Local Advertising Fee is used. This is not required, and if we agree to monitor it, we may cease doing so at any time. You do not pay us for this service.

iii. We must approve any marketing regardless of the medium into which it is inserted before it is placed. You will deliver the proposed marketing to us no less than 15 calendar days before its insertion into any medium. If you do not receive written notice within the 15 calendar days, the marketing is disapproved.

Any uniform resource locator (URL) addresses, email addresses, blogs, vlogs, social media sites, and the like you create for the Business also require our approval. Upon expiration or the earlier termination of the Franchise Agreement, the URLs, email addresses, blogs, vlog, social media sites, and the like will belong to us, and you will transfer each to us as we may require.

b. Regional Advertising

We reserve the right, upon 30 days prior written notice, to allocate all or a portion of your Local Advertising Fee to a regional marketing program (Regional Advertising Cooperative) for the benefit of Businesses located within a market area. We have the right to determine the composition of all market areas included in a particular Regional Advertising Cooperative. If a market region is formed, we will require all franchisees and company-owned and affiliate-owned Businesses to participate. The Regional Advertising Cooperative will be administered by the contributors to it. There will be no governing documents. All marketing for the Regional Advertising Cooperative will be prepared by a local, national or international marketing agency or by us. The Regional Advertising Cooperative will prepare unaudited financial statements and will make them available to all Cooperative participants within 120 days of the year-end. We have the right to change, dissolve, reinstate, or merge any Regional Advertising Cooperatives.

ii. The Marketing Fees will be deposited in a separate checking account, savings account, or any other account of our determination (National Branding Account). The National Branding Account is not a trust, and we assume no fiduciary duty in administering it. Any monies not used in any year will be carried to the next year.

iii. The National Branding Account will be administered by us in our sole discretion. The Marketing Fees may be used for all marketing expenditures reasonably intended to benefit some or all franchisees and for the payment to us of costs related to administering the National Branding Account. (National Branding).

iv. We make no guarantee to you or any other franchisee that National Branding or any marketing expenditures from the National Branding Account will benefit you or any other franchisee directly or on a pro-rata basis.

v. We assume no other direct or indirect liability or obligation to you concerning collecting amounts due to the National Branding Account or concerning maintaining, directing, or administering the National Branding Account.

vi. Any company-owned Businesses will participate in any national or regional marketing programs on the same basis as franchisee-owned Businesses.

vii. The marketing will be produced by a local, national, or international marketing agency or by us.

viii. Upon your prior written request, we will make available to you an annual unaudited financial statement no later than 120 days after our year-end.

ix. Though we have no plans now, we reserve the right to increase the Marketing Fee to no more than 3% of the Gross Sales. We will give you notice of our intent to do this and 60 days to comply.

x. We intend for the Marketing Fees to be continual and perpetual, but we have the right to form, change, suspend (and subsequently reinstate), merge or terminate it if necessary. We will not close the National Branding Account, however, until all contributions and earnings have been used for the purpose for which they were collected.

d. Franchise Advisory Council

All franchisees are eligible to join our then-current Franchise Advisory Council. Currently, five franchisees that receive the greatest number of votes of all franchisees are placed on the council. The Franchise Advisory Council serves in an advisory capacity only, and we have the right at any time to form, change or dissolve (and then reinstate) Franchise Advisory Council.

When you have made delivery of the requested records or reports, such fee shall cease to be incurred.

f. We will charge you the Transfer Fee.

g. If you wish for more than two persons to attend Initial Training (Article 7), you will pay our then-current Additional Training Fee per person.

j. If your state assesses them, and except for our income taxes, you will reimburse us for all taxes we pay for products or services we furnish you, or on our collection of the Initial Franchise Fee, the Royalties, marketing contributions, or other fees. We will give you written notice if such a tax is levied and provide commercially reasonable proof of the tax calculation.

k. Other fees you must pay are identified elsewhere in this Franchise Agreement.

l. We may, from time and in our sole discretion, assess other fees or costs to operate the Business more efficiently or that may be assessed for other reasonable purposes. We will notify you of these fees and costs, and you will have a reasonable time within which to comply unless an earlier time for compliance is required elsewhere in this Franchise Agreement.

m. We may, in the future, require all franchisees and you to add new goods, services, and technology to those already sold through or used in the Business. If we do this, you may incur additional expenses, costs, and fees, some of which may be due to an approved vendor, an Affiliate, a third party for whom we collect the funds, or us. If we introduce new lines of goods, services, and technology, we will notify you in writing and give you a reasonable time to comply with the changes.

3.6 Method of Payment, Reports and Audits

All such fees will be deposited into your operating account no later than 3:00 p.m. Mountain Time by the 15th day of the month following the prior month's end. If the 16th falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or federal or state holiday, the Royalty will be due on the next business day.

b. We have the right to change the method of collection of the Royalties and any other fees at any time after giving you reasonable notice. If we decide to use the ACH method, you will no later than ten days after receiving notice from us execute an authorization agreement for ACH transactions from your account to our account in the form that your bank may require.

c. No later than the 10th day of the month following the month in which the Royalty is due, you will report to us by such means as we direct, such information under standard transmittal procedures established by this Agreement regarding the calculation of the Royalty, and such additional information as we may request.

d. You agree to record all Gross Sales of the Business at the time of the sale in your Computer System. You agree to retain all computer records, charge account records, sales slips, orders, return vouchers, sales tax reports, and all of your other business records and related background material for at least seven years following the end of the year in which the items were or should have been generated.

e. In our discretion, we may require you to, and you will provide us with monthly or quarterly financial statements (or both), including a profit and loss statement and balance sheet by the 10th of each month for the previous month or quarter (or both). We may, as outlined in the Operations Manual, require you to use certain designated software for accounting or bookkeeping purposes. Your use of such software is a condition to your franchise, and in connection with such use, you must furnish to us no less than Viewing access to such software, together with all required reports as set forth herein. If we designate required accounting software, you must use such software from any designated vendor(s) as set forth in the Operations Manual. Such software use may include fees paid directly to such vendor(s), on such terms that they set.

f. In addition, you will submit to us within ten days after the end of each calendar year a complete financial statement for the preceding calendar year, including profit and loss statements and your balance sheet.

g. You will also provide us with your year-end business tax returns within ten days of the date that they are filed with the federal and state governments but no later than October 15 of each calendar year.

h. The monthly, quarterly, and yearly financial statements must be prepared using generally accepted accounting principles and must be based upon the accrual method of accounting. All bookkeeping and accounting must be completed by an employee, independent contractor, bookkeeper, accountant, or certified public accountant that is not you or a family member. You must provide us with reasonable proof at the end of each calendar year that your bookkeeping and accounting have met this requirement. We may, as outlined in the Operations Manual, require you to use certain designated software for accounting or bookkeeping purposes. Your use of such software is a condition to your franchise, and in connection with such use, you must furnish to us no less than Viewing access to such software, together with all required reports as set forth herein.

i. All financial statements must be accompanied by a statement certified under penalty of perjury from the employee, independent contractor, bookkeeper, accountant, or certified public accountant that the documents are true and accurate.

j. If you fail to timely deliver any records required under this Franchise Agreement, we have the right to collect the then-current Report Late Fee for each separate late report in addition to any other rights we may have. We may increase this fee by any amount after giving you no less than 60 days' prior written notice.

k. If you fail to timely pay any Royalties or other fees due under this Franchise Agreement, have underreported Gross Sales, or for another breach for which the fee can be collected, you will owe the then-current Late Fee and Default Interest in addition to such Royalties and other fees. This will be automatically assessed and debited or paid along with the late payment fees due to us.

l. You acknowledge that this Section does not constitute our agreement to accept such payments after the Due Date or a commitment to extend credit to or otherwise finance the operation of the Business. In no event will you be required to pay interest at a rate greater than the maximum interest rate permitted by applicable law. The collection of any Late Fee, Default Interest, or Report Late Fee and the acceptance of any late payment will not diminish our right to any other remedies available under this Franchise Agreement.

m. We have the right to audit and copy your books and records at any time. We also have the right at any time to have an independent audit made of the books of the Business. If we discover that you have underreported your Gross Sales by 2% or less, you will have breached this Franchise Agreement and will (i) pay Royalties and all other fees calculated from Gross Sales, plus Late Fees and Default Interest; (ii) pay the then-current Audit Fee; (iii) if we decide, you will have your record-keeping done by a third-party bookkeeper; and, (iv) take other remedial measures we decide. If it is determined that you have understated your Gross Sales by more than 2%, you will have breached this Franchise Agreement, and we have the right to (1) require all of the above; (2) take other remedial action, including requiring you to provide audited financial statements; or, (3) terminate this Franchise Agreement without any right to cure. If any underreporting has been intentional, then regardless of the percentage of your Gross Sales that the underreporting represents, we have the right to terminate this Franchise Agreement without any right to cure.

n. Within five (5) days of your receipt, you must provide us a copy of any legal notices, legal claims, legal demands, legal proceedings, legal actions, or other litigation, regulatory or administrative proceedings, or similar matters involving you or potentially relating to or relevant to us.

3.7 Application of Payments

a. Notwithstanding any designation by you regarding the application of any payment to us, we will allocate any payments first to any Late Fees, Report Late Fees, and Default Interest, then to any Royalties or other fees that are past due, and then to the current Royalties and other fees owed. The allocation set forth above does not postpone any payments due on any current or future due date.

ARTICLE 4

TERM and SUCCESSOR FRANCHISE RIGHTS

4.1 Effective Date and Term

a. This Agreement is effective on the Effective Date. There is no agreement, and this is not a contract between us until that date.

b. Unless earlier terminated, the Initial Term of this Franchise Agreement is 10 years from the Effective Date. If we are required by law to give you notice before the expiration or earlier termination of this Franchise Agreement, and if we fail to do so, this Franchise Agreement will remain in effect until we have given the required notice.

4.2 Successor Franchise Rights

At the end of the Initial Term, you have the option to renew your franchise rights for one additional ten-year term (Successor Franchise Term) by acquiring Successor Franchise Rights under the following conditions:

b. you are in Compliance at the time you apply for the first Successor Franchise Term;

c. you sign the then-current franchise agreement for each Successor Franchise Term, which franchise agreement may contain materially different terms and conditions than the franchise agreement you signed for a prior Term. Under the new franchise agreement, the Royalty, marketing fees, and other fees will be no more than are charged to new franchisees who sign the franchise agreement at that time. The franchise agreement must be signed and delivered to us no later than 45 days before the end of the then-current Term. If it is not so delivered, then you will have withdrawn your decision to purchase Successor Franchise Rights, and such rights will no longer be available to you;

d. you sign the most current form of General Release. A copy of the current form is found in Exhibit 4. Notwithstanding the preceding, to the extent that the law of the state in which the Business is located has determined that the requirement that a franchisee sign a general release be unenforceable, then this requirement will be deleted, and you will not be required to sign the same; or if signed, then such general release will not be enforceable. If, however, the law of the state in which the Business is located permits you to sign such general release, or if by agreeing to the alternative dispute resolution covenants and choice-of-law provisions of Article 16, we are able to enforce this requirement, then you will sign such a release as part of the process described in this Section. Notwithstanding the preceding, excluded from any release are claims arising from representations in the FDD.

e. you pay the Successor Franchise Fee. The Successor Franchise Fee is earned when you pay it and is not refundable under any circumstances;

f. you exercise the option for Successor Franchise Rights by giving written notice of such exercise to us not earlier than one year or later than 180 days before the scheduled expiration of this Franchise Agreement; and

g. the Successor Franchise Rights under the new Franchise Agreement begins on the day following the end of the then-current Term.

ii. fail to comply with any of the conditions necessary to obtain Successor Franchise Rights as described in Section 4.2 above;

iii. are in breach of this Franchise Agreement at the time you attempt to exercise your right to purchase Successor Franchise Rights, even if such breach is not the fifth breach and even if such breach is timely cured; or

iv. we have determined in good faith, and after using our Reasonable Business Judgment, not to grant Successor Franchise Rights.

b. If we do not grant you Successor Franchise Rights, we will give notice of expiration at least 60 days before the expiration of the Term, and such notice will set forth the reasons for such refusal to offer Successor Franchise Rights.

4.6 Expiration at the End of a Term and Holdover

a. Unless it is terminated earlier, if you fail to elect to purchase Successor Franchise Rights, or if Successor Franchise Rights are not granted to you, this Franchise Agreement will expire at midnight Mountain Time on the last day of the then-current Term.

b. Upon expiration, we may permit you to continue operating your Business. During such period, the provisions of this Franchise Agreement will apply except that the Term will be only from month-to-month, and you will pay a Royalty equal to 150% of the Royalty identified above.

TRAINING

7.1 Initial Training, OSHA Training, and Training of Designated Manager

a. Initial Training

i. For the first franchise that you buy, your Designated Manager, or your Principal Operator, must attend and complete Initial Training to our reasonable satisfaction. You may also have one additional trainee attend (for a total of two Persons). At least one of the two must complete Initial Training before you open. You will then have no more than 365 days after the Opening Date to send a second trainee to Initial Training. If each Person completes Initial Training within that time, there will be no tuition. If, however, you send a Person after the 365 days, Initial Training will be offered at our then-current Additional Training Fee.

ii. If one of the two people that attend Initial Training before opening fails to pass Initial Training, the Person will be allowed to take it again at the next available class. There will be no tuition charged for this, but you will pay for travel, room, and board. If the training fails to pass the second time, the Person will not be permitted to provide any Services that require completion of the Initial Training. If the two people that take Initial Training before opening fail to complete training to our reasonable satisfaction, both will be permitted to take it the second time for no additional tuition. If they both fail to pass Initial Training the second time, we have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement, except that all restrictive and other covenants of the Franchise Agreement that must survive termination to remain enforceable will survive. The IFF will not be refunded.

iii. If one Person passes Initial Training before opening and the second person attends training within 365 days of the Opening Date, that Person must pass Initial Training to our satisfaction. If the trainee does not pass, the Person will be allowed to take it again at the next available class. There will be no tuition charged for this, but you will pay for travel, room, and board. If the Person does not pass the second time, the Person will not be permitted to provide any Services that require completion of the Initial Training. Though the Person may take the course for the third time, we will charge the then-current Additional Training Fee, and the Person will pay for travel, room, and board.

iv. Training participants will not receive any compensation from us while attending the training. If you wish more than two people to attend training, you will pay our then-current fee for each additional trainee.

b. WE DO NOT PROVIDE TRAINING ON CLEANING OR REMOVAL OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES SUCH AS FENTANYL. YOU CANNOT ACCEPT SUCH JOBS UNLESS YOU HAVE RECEIVED APPROPRIATE TRAINING FROM A THIRD-PARTY SOURCE AND HAVE OBTAINED THE NECESSARY FEDERAL OR STATE LICENSES.

c. OSHA Training

In order to refresh and emphasize the safety procedures taught to you during Initial Training, you (if you are a sole proprietor or are the sole equity owner of the business-entity franchisee) or one of your equity owners (if you are a business entity that has two or more equity owners) must attend and also pass OSHA Training. If you have a manager or managers, they must also attend and pass OSHA Training. The training is given quarterly, so there is no guarantee that the attendee will take it before opening. In that case, you will take it at the next available time. You will pay the then-current OSHA Training Fee, and you will be responsible for your travel, room, and board. This training must be completed to our reasonable satisfaction. If the attendee fails to pass the OSHA Training, the person will be required to take it again until it is passed. In this case, however, you will pay the then-current OSHA Training Fee and your costs for travel, room, and board each time the training is taken.

d. If you replace your Principal Operator or Designated Manager, the replacement must attend our training. You will pay the then-current fee Designated Manager Training Fee for such training, and you will be responsible for travel, room, board, and wages of the attendee.

We reserve the right to change the Conference Fee at any time and in any amount after giving you no less than 60 days prior written notice before the Conference. You must pay us a $1,000 Annual Conference Registration Deposit, due within seven (7) days of signing this Agreement, which will be applied to the actual attendance fee for your first attendance at the first annual conference available to you after you have completed your training. If any portion of this deposit is not required as part of that annual conference attendance or registration fee, it will be credited to you on your invoice following the annual conference.

You or your manager must attend the regularly scheduled huddles, meetings, and conferences which are identified and scheduled by us as set forth in the Operations Manual. These are offered to provide, at no cost, additional and ongoing training aimed at your business performance and improvement. If any are rescheduled without at least 2 business days' notice, your absence will be regarded as excused. Likewise, if you obtain prior permission to be absent, such will not impact your compliance with these requirements.

b. If you request additional, extraordinary, advanced, or refresher courses or training, or if we require you to take the same, we may, at our option, charge our then-current Additional Training Fee. You will pay your costs for travel, lodging, and food.

c. In addition to the conference, we have the right in the future to require your Principal Operator, Designated Manager, and you to attend a local or regional meeting up to two times per year. Though none is now charged, we reserve the right to charge tuition in the future. You, however, are always responsible for all travel and living expenses that are associated with attendance at the same.

d. If attendance at any conference or meeting is mandatory, we may charge you our then-current Mandatory Non-Attendance Fee if you fail to attend.

a. This Franchise Agreement is personal as to you and has been signed by us in reliance on and in consideration of your qualifications and representations. Therefore, this Franchise Agreement, any of its rights or privileges, or any equitable, capital, voting, non-voting, or other interest in you may be assigned, sold, transferred, or divided in any manner by you or anyone else only with our express written permission.

b. To obtain such written approval, you will provide us with all documentation relating to the “Proposed Transfer” (as defined in this Article). We will notify you of our approval within 30 days after we receive all of the information that we may request from you. If we do not respond within the 30 days, the proposed transfer is disapproved by us.

c. The term “Transfer” includes the voluntary, involuntary, direct, or indirect assignment, sale, gift, or other disposition by you of any interest in (i) this Franchise Agreement; (ii) your equity ownership as stated in Exhibit 1; or (iii) any assets of the Business (other than in the normal course of business). d. If a proposed Transfer is only among existing natural-person franchisees, existing shareholders or members of a corporate or limited liability company franchisee, or among existing partners of a partnership franchisee, and if there is no Change of Control, then there will be no Transfer Fee, and we will not be entitled to exercise our “Right of First Refusal” which is described below. All other conditions to the approval of a proposed Transfer will, however, apply.

e. If the proposed Transfer could result in a Change in Control, then all of our rights apply, and such Transfer will be subject to our approval

f. Each certificate of a corporate or limited-liability-business-entity franchisee will have endorsed upon its face a legend stating that assignment or transfer thereof is subject to the restrictions of this Agreement. You agree to provide us with a copy of each such certificate to ensure compliance with this provision.

9.3 Conditions to Approval of any Transfer

a. In determining the acceptability of the Proposed Transferee, we will consider, among other things, our then-current standards for new franchisees, including the net worth, creditworthiness, background, training, personality, reputation, and business experience of the Proposed Transferee, the terms and conditions of the proposed transfer, and any circumstances that would make the transfer contrary to our Reasonable Business Judgment or the best interests of the System.

b. We may meet with the Proposed Transferee and candidly discuss all matters relating to the Franchise Agreement and the Franchised Business. In no case will you or a Proposed Transferee rely on us to review or evaluate any proposed transfer. We will not be liable to you or the Proposed Transferee or any other person or entity relating to the transfer.

c. As a condition of any Transfer otherwise permitted under this Franchise Agreement, you agree as follows,

i. you will notify us of a proposed Transfer by sending a written notice to us and enclosing a copy of the written offer from the Proposed Transferee;

vii. the Proposed Transferee must attend training and will pay tuition (if any) that is then being charged to new franchisees. The Proposed Transferee will also pay for his travel, room and board expenses for such training;

viii. the Transferee or you must pay the Transfer Fee upon execution of the franchise agreement by the Proposed Transferee;

ix. you (and if we deem it necessary, any other Person defined as the Franchisee under Article 1) must execute the then-current form of General Release to us. A copy of the current form of General Release is attached as Exhibit 4.

x. all covenants found in this Franchise Agreement, including any post-term covenant not-to-compete, any indemnification covenants, confidentiality obligations, and the provisions relating to dispute resolution, will survive any Transfer and will continue to be your obligation.

9.4 Invalidity of Transfers

a. Any Involuntary Transfer by you, such as by legal process including bankruptcy, assignment for the benefit of creditors, assignment as security for any financial or non-financial matter or otherwise, are not permitted, are not binding on us, and are grounds for the termination of this Franchise Agreement without the right to cure.

b. You agree that using this Franchise Agreement as security for a loan or otherwise encumbering this Franchise Agreement is prohibited unless we specifically consent to any such action in writing before the proposed transaction.

c. You agree not to grant a sub-franchise under this Franchise Agreement, nor to otherwise seek to license or permit others to use this Franchise, the Franchised Business, or any of the rights derived by you under this Franchise Agreement and any manner that violates the provisions herein.

d. Any attempt to complete a Transfer without our express permission will be considered a breach of this Franchise Agreement for which no cure will be provided.

9.5 Death or Permanent Disability ~~and Franchisee Life Insurance Policy~~

a. Subject to subparagraph 9.5(b), upon your death or Permanent Disability or upon the death or Permanent Disability of your Principal Operator or the owner of a controlling interest in the business-entity Franchisee, the executor, administrator, conservator, guardian or another personal representative of such person will transfer your interest in this Franchise Agreement or such interest in the business-entity Franchisee to an approved third party who may be the heirs or successors of the deceased or disabled individual. Such disposition of this Franchise Agreement or such interest (including, without limitation, transfer by operation of law, intestacy, bequest or inheritance) must be completed within a reasonable time, not to exceed 180 days from the date of death or Permanent Disability, and will be subject to all terms and conditions applicable to transfers contained in this Article as though the transferee was being introduced to us by the deceased or disabled Franchisee, provided, however, that no transfer fee will be charged.

~~b. We purchase the Franchisee Life Insurance Policy using the then-current Franchisee Life Insurance Policy Fees that you pay. Upon your death, we will use the proceeds from this policy to operate your Business until you sell it (with our approval) or allow your estate to assume this Franchise Agreement. Any proceeds from the policy that remain after the sale or assignment will be retained by us.~~

~~b.e.~~ Failure to transfer the interest in this Agreement or such interest in the business-entity Franchisee within 180 days constitutes a breach of this Agreement for which no additional cure may be granted.

9.6 Right of First Refusal

In the event of a Transfer, you agree the same is subject to our 30-day right of first refusal (Right of First Refusal) to purchase such rights, interest, or assets on the same terms and conditions as are contained in the written offer for the Transfer, except that the following additional terms and conditions will apply:

a. you will notify us of such offer by sending a written notice to us (which notice may be the same notice as required by Section 9.3 above), enclosing a copy of the written offer from the Proposed Transferee;

b. the 30-day Right of First Refusal period will run concurrently with the period that we have to accept or not accept the Proposed Transferee;

c. such Right of First Refusal is effective for each proposed transfer and upon any material change in the terms or conditions of the proposed transfer will be a separate offer on which a new 30 day right of first refusal will be given to us;

d. if the consideration or manner of payment offered by a Proposed Transferee is such that we may not reasonably be required to furnish the same, then we may purchase the interest which is proposed to be sold for the reasonable cash equivalent. If the Parties cannot agree within a reasonable time on the cash value of the consideration proposed to be paid by the Proposed Transferee, an independent appraiser will be designated by us, whose determination will be binding upon you and us. All expenses of the appraiser shall be paid for equally between you and us; and

e. if we choose not to exercise the Right of First Refusal, you will be free to complete the Transfer, subject otherwise to your compliance with this Franchise Agreement. Our failure to reply to your notice of a proposed sale within the 30 days is a waiver of such Right of First Refusal.

b. You become insolvent, as that term is commonly defined using generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied; are adjudicated a bankrupt; if any action is taken by you, or by others against you under any insolvency, bankruptcy, or reorganization act; or if you make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or a receiver is appointed by you. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq. We have the prior right and option, to be exercised by notice given at any time before the effective date of such proposed assignment and assumption, to accept an assignment of this Franchise Agreement to us upon the same terms and conditions and for the same consideration, if any, as in the bona fide offer made by the proposed assignee, less any brokerage commissions which may be payable by you out of the consideration to be paid by such assignee for the assignment of this Franchise Agreement.

e. Any credit background check determines that your status as a debtor has materially negatively changed from any prior report so that your ability to continue to operate the Business is commercially substantially in doubt.

f. You fail to pay any Royalties, marketing fees, Late Fees, Default Interest Report Late Fees, or any other amounts due us, including any amounts which may be due as a result of any other agreements between you and us within five days after receiving notice that such fees or amounts are due.

You misuse or fail to follow our direction and guidelines concerning use of the Marks or any component of the Proprietary Information, and fail to correct the misuse or failure within five days after notification from us; except that if your violation of this subparagraph (g) is intentional, there will be no 5-day right to cure and default and termination will be immediate.

h. You disclose to any unauthorized person any component of the Proprietary Information or the System.

i. During the Initial Term of this Franchise Agreement (or during any Successor Franchise Rights Term), you have received from us three written notices of default as to any term, covenant, or condition (or a combination thereof) of this Franchise Agreement, each of which has been timely cured (if cure is available), and you are again in default of the same or any other portion, term, or covenant of this Agreement, even if all prior breaches were timely cured.

j. During any Successor Franchise Term, you receive one written notice of default as to any term, covenant, or condition (or combination of them) of this Franchise Agreement and are again in default of the same or any other term, covenant, or covenant of this Agreement, even if the breach was timely cured.

k. You violate a term of Article 9, or suffer an Involuntary Transfer.

l. You violate any Applicable Law and then fail to cure (if cure is provided).

m. You make any material misrepresentations relating to the acquisition of your rights under this Franchise Agreement.

n. You violate any covenant or condition of 1.6(d)(v).

p. You have employees, and you fail to pay the Person's wages or withholding taxes.

q. You fail, refuse, or neglect to obtain any prior written approval or consent required by this Agreement.

r. You engage in any unauthorized business or practice or sell any unauthorized product or service from the Business.

x. There is a “Cross-Default” under Section 10.3 below; or,

y. You fail to add new lines of goods, services, or technology after we have notified you in writing and have given you reasonable time to comply, which will be no longer than 60 days.

10.2. Termination by Franchisor – Thirty-Days Notice

We have the right to terminate this Franchise Agreement (subject to any state laws to the contrary, in which case such state law will prevail) effective upon 30 days’ written notice to you if you breach any other term, covenant, or condition of this Franchise Agreement that does not have its own cure period or is not identified in Section 10.1 and fail to cure within the 30 days

a. If you are a party to any other Franchise Agreements with us or are a party to any agreements with an Affiliate, and if such agreement is breached and not timely cured within the time permitted in such document with the result being that that agreement is terminated, then we have the right to terminate this Franchise Agreement without affording you any additional right to cure.

b. If you violate the terms, covenants, or conditions of any other contract or agreement with a third party that is unrelated to us but which is material to the operation of the Business including any real property or equipment lease (Third Party Contract) and fail to cure any such breach within the time permitted under such Third Party Contract, and as a result, you are unable (i) to operate this Business in the manner you were able to before the breach of the other agreement; or, (ii) to operate any other Business under a separate franchise agreement (Cross-Default); or, (iii) operate the Business under the terms of this Agreement, then upon termination of said Third Party Contract, this and all other franchise agreements with us may, in our sole and exclusive discretion, also be terminated at the same time as the Third Party Contract terminates. You will provide us immediate notice in the event of the termination of such a material agreement.

10.4 Diligent Pursuit of Cure and Discontinuation of Services

a. If the breach is one for which cure is provided, and if you undertake the cure within three days of the date you receive our notice, and if you continue to pursue such cure in good faith but are unable to complete it within the cure period, we will give you up to an additional 30 days after the end of the first cure period within which to complete such cure. If you fail to pursue the cure during this additional time or are unable to complete such cure within this additional time, we have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement without further notice to you.

b. We also have the right, in our sole discretion, to grant you extended time to cure. In such an event, however, we will not have waived our rights to later strictly enforce any right to cure, to deny you the right to cure a future breach for which no cure is provided, or to take such action as is allowed to us by this Franchise Agreement if you fail to cure during the extended period granted to you.

c. As to any breach of this Franchise Agreement for which cure is granted, during the period of cure, we have the right to suspend our performance of any of our obligations under this Franchise Agreement, including the supply of any online services, online marketing, web-page hosting or the sale or delivery of any services or products until you correct the breach.

10.5 Temporary Management, Temporary Management Fee and Discontinuation of Service

a. If you breach this Franchise Agreement, whether or not the breach is one for which cure is provided, we have the option but not the obligation to temporarily manager your Business until (i) the breach is time cured (if cure is permitted); (ii) until the termination process is complete, and you are no longer a Franchisee; or (iii) we determine our temporary management should cease.

b. During this period, we have the right to operate your business as though we were your Designated Manager, and we will perform all duties required to operate the Business, will service all Clients, will collect all Gross Sales revenue, will make all tax payments, will make all commercially reasonable payments to employees, will pay the then-current Temporary Management Fee, will pay accounts payable, and will take all other reasonable actions necessary to operate your Business.

c. You will indemnify us and hold us harmless from any claim, cause of action, damage, loss, fee, cost, wage, award, and the like that may be incurred by us unless the same is caused by our gross negligence.

d. To the extent we deem it necessary, you will amend any insurance policies to ensure that we are covered by such insurance.

e. Further, and as to any breach of this Franchise Agreement for which cure is granted, during the period of cure, we have the right to suspend our performance of any of our obligations under this Franchise Agreement, including the supply of any online services, online marketing, web-page hosting or the sale or delivery of any services or products until you correct the breach.

10.6 Our Rights to Damages

Upon your failure to cure any Event of Default (if cure is provided), we may proceed to enforce any or all of the following non-exclusive remedies or any other remedy, claim, cause of action, award, or damages allowed by law or equity, with the understanding that the pursuit of one remedy is not an election or waiver by us to pursue additional remedies, as all remedies are cumulative and are not exclusive:

a. Bring one or more actions for lost profits as measured by the Royalties and other fees that would have been due and payable had breach and default not occurred (less however any amounts necessary to ensure that we are receiving only the net amount of such Royalties or fees;) penalties and interest as provided for in this Franchise Agreement; and for all other damages sustained by us as a result of your breach of this Franchise Agreement.

b. Accelerate the balance of any outstanding installment obligation due hereunder and bring an action for the entire accelerated balance.

c. Bring an action for temporary or permanent injunctions and orders of specific performance enforcing the provisions of this Franchise Agreement and otherwise stop you from engaging in actions prohibited hereby, including, without limitation: (i) improper use of the Marks or System; (ii) unauthorized assignment of the Franchise Agreement; (iii) violation of any of the restrictive covenants; and (iv) your failure to meet or perform your obligations upon the Transfer, termination or expiration of this Franchise Agreement.

d. Terminate this Franchise Agreement and proceed to enforce our rights under the appropriate provisions.

e. We also have the right to refrain from terminating this Franchise Agreement, but to enforce our rights to deny you use of the Proprietary Information; the operation of the business; and any other legal or equitable rights and to bring an action for any damages, costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees and arbitration costs) or losses suffered by us.

f. If you operate the Business after Transfer, repurchase, termination, or expiration; use any of the Marks, Proprietary Information, or any component of the System; violate any surviving covenants after a Transfer, any termination or expiration, then, in addition to any remedies provided above, and in addition to any other remedies in law or equity (all of which are cumulative and not an election of remedies to the exclusion of other remedies), our remedies will include recovery of the greater of, (i) all profits earned by you in the operation of the business using our Marks or System after such Transfer, Assignment, repurchase, termination, or expiration; (ii) all Royalties, marketing contributions, and other amounts that would have been due to us if such Transfer, repurchase, termination, or expiration had not occurred; or (iii) any other amount that may be proven.

10.7 Waiver of Jury Trial and Waiver of Punitive, Exemplary, or Consequential Damages

a. YOU AND WE AGREE TO WAIVE THE RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL AND AND INSTEAD ELECT TO USE THE ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE OF ARTICLE 16.

b. Each Party agrees that it has the right to seek damages that are in addition to the actual monetary loss that can be proven, including consequential, exemplary, and punitive damages, even if a Party is made aware of the right to such damages. Being advised of the same, we each waive such damages that may be in addition to any actual monetary damages suffered; except if you must indemnify us under Article 14 and if, as a result of the action underlying the indemnification, such damages are awarded to the injured party, then you agree that indemnification will cover such damages. If in some event the arbitrator awards such damages and if such award is not deemed to be outside the scope of what is permitted by this Franchise Agreement, then any constitutional or statutory limitations on punitive, exemplary, multiple, or similar damages will apply.

10.8 State or Federal Law Prevails

If any mandatory provisions of governing state law prohibit termination of the franchise agreement as described herein, or if the same otherwise limits our rights to terminate by imposing different rights or obligations as are found herein, then such mandatory provisions of state law will be incorporated into the agreement by reference and will prevail over any inconsistent terms in the agreement. If no such law exists, or if such law exists but permits you to agree to abide by the termination provisions set forth here instead of the state law, then you agree that the terms of this Franchise Agreement will prevail. If by electing the alternative dispute resolution provisions and choice-of-law provisions of Article 16, it is determined that the terms of this Franchise Agreement preempt or prevail over the application of any state law to the contrary, then the choices made by the Parties will prevail to permit the limitations identified in this Article.

10.9 Payment of Fees is an Independent Covenant

You agree that you will not withhold payments of Royalties, Marketing Fees, regional marketing contributions, or any other amounts of money owed to us for any reason, even including a claim by you of the alleged nonperformance by us of any obligation hereunder. All such claims by you will, if not otherwise resolved by us, be resolved as permitted in this Agreement. All covenants are independent of each other.

10.10 Action Against the Franchisor

Subject to the limitations of actions as found in Article 16, before starting any dispute resolution procedure against us or any of our officers, agents, or employees, you agree to give our officers, agents, employees, or us 60 days prior written notice and an opportunity to cure any alleged act or omission within that time. If such act or omission cannot be cured within 60 days and we or our officers, agents, or employees are diligently pursuing cure, you will give us or our officers, agents, or employees such additional time as is reasonably necessary to cure which time will not exceed an additional 30 days. If we fail to complete such a cure in a timely fashion, you have such rights as are permitted in this Franchise Agreement.

c. If we have not notified you of our election to exercise this option within the 30 days, it is conclusively presumed that we have elected not to exercise our option, and you are then free to sell or transfer such assets to any person or entity on such terms as you may so choose.

b. Therefore, during each Term of this Franchise Agreement, you will refrain in any capacity or at any location from owning; operating; leasing; franchising; conducting; consulting with; engaging in; having any interest in; assisting any Person in; or acting as an employee, consultant, partner, officer, director or shareholder of any other Person in any Competitive Business or in any other business which in our discretion is likely to diminish your ability to operate the franchised business in accord with the systems and processes set forth herein and in the Operations Manual, except with our prior written consent that may be granted or withheld for any reason or no reason at all.

15.2 Post-Term Covenant Not to Compete

Upon the Transfer of, or termination, or expiration of this Franchise Agreement for any reason, or the occurrence of any Transfer, and for of 36 full months after that, you agree you will refrain from owning; operating; leasing; franchising; conducting; consulting with; engaging in; having any interest in; assisting any Person; or acting as an employee, consultant, partner, officer, director or shareholder in a Competitive Business that is within 50 miles of your Franchised Location, or within 50 miles of the Franchised Location of any other franchisee or Business owned by an Affiliate or us.

15.3 No Disclosure

You agree that during the Term of this Franchise Agreement, during any Successor Franchise Term or at any other time after the Transfer, expiration, or earlier termination of this Franchise Agreement (or any franchise agreement signed under the Successor Franchise Term), each will refrain from making any unauthorized disclosure or use the Marks, any component of the System, or any portion of the Proprietary Information.

15.4 Other Protection

During the Term of this Agreement, for two years following the Transfer, expiration, or termination of this Agreement, and in the area described in Section 15.2 above, you covenant that you will refrain either directly or indirectly, for yourself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, or legal entity from:

- a. diverting or attempting to divert to any competitor of the Business (by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise) any business or Clients of the Business; or
- b. doing or performing, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Marks or the System.

15.5 Application and Survival

- a. This Article applies to all participants in the Franchised Business including the Principal Operator, any equity holder, any Person that has a manager or higher position, any Person that is a spouse or civil partner of you, of the Principal Operator or the equity holder, any Guarantor, and all others that take an active role in the operation of the Business that holds a manager or higher position.
- b. The restrictive covenants of this Article and all other restrictive covenants in this Franchise Agreement (including those in Article 6) survive its Transfer, expiration, or earlier termination and will continue to bind those Persons subject to these terms.

15.6 Reasonable Restriction and Savings Clause

- a. The covenants found in this Article are intended to be a reasonable restriction on you and others identified above. You and we agree that the purpose of these restrictions is to protect the entire franchise system from unfair competition and to protect the goodwill, and time and effort spent by us in creating the Marks, the System, and the Proprietary Information. In fact, we would not have shared such information with you unless you agreed to be bound by the terms of this Article 15.

b. You further agree you (and each Person identified as a Franchisee under Article 1) have skills of a general and specific nature and has other opportunities, or will have other opportunities, to use such skills, and that the enforcement of these covenants will not unduly deprive you of the opportunity to earn a living.

c. To ensure that the covenants found in this Article are and will remain enforceable, every location of a Business, every month, each mile of distance, or any other restriction may be amended by the arbitrator in the most limited manner possible to reduce any spatial, temporal, or other limitation considered to be overly broad to create a reasonably enforceable covenant that upholds the restrictive nature of this Article specifically and this Franchise Agreement generally.

d. You expressly agree that the existence of any claim you may have against us, whether or not arising from this Franchise Agreement, does not constitute a defense to the enforcement by us of any covenants of this Article specifically and this Franchise Agreement generally. You further agree that we are entitled to set off any loss or damage we suffer against any amounts owed to you.

15.7 Tolling of Time and Injunctive Relief

a. You acknowledge that any failure to comply with this Article will cause us irreparable injury for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and you, therefore, understand that we may apply for an injunction to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect our rights. If permitted by law, you agree to waive any requirement that we post a bond. Further, you and we understand that to obtain injunctive relief, you and we are not required first to meet face-to-face or to mediate under Article 16. If the temporary injunction is granted, we must begin the alternative dispute resolution process under Article 16. We may further avail ourselves of any legal or equitable rights and remedies which it may have under this Franchise Agreement or otherwise.

b. If at any time during a period of non-competition, you fail to comply with your obligations under this Article, under Article 6, or under any other covenant that has survived expiration, termination, or a Transfer, the period of noncompliance will not be credited toward your satisfaction of the non-competition requirement. Instead, the counting of the period of non-competition will be tolled until you are again in compliance.

ARTICLE 16

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

16.1 Intent, Meeting, and Mediation

You and we believe that it is important to resolve disputes amicably, quickly, cost-effectively, and professionally and return to business as soon as possible. You and we agree that the provisions of this Article support these mutual, practical business objectives, and, therefore, agree as follows:

a. All provisions of this Franchise Agreement (including the language of this Article) will be fully enforced, including those relating to arbitration, waiver of jury trial, limitation of damages, venue, choice of laws, and shortened periods in which to bring claims.

b. All of the terms, covenants, and conditions of this Article, including the choice of law, choice of venue, and use of arbitration are mandatory and not permissive.

c. The Parties rely on the federal preemption of state laws under the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §1 et seq.) (FAA) with the understanding that the FAA and not state law will control any matters concerning mediation and arbitration and, as a result, the provisions of this Franchise Agreement will be enforced only according to its terms and through the alternative dispute mechanism found in this Article. The Parties further agree that each Party intends that any state law attempting to prohibit arbitration or attempting to void out-of-state forums for arbitration are preempted by the Federal Arbitration Act and that arbitration will be held as provided in this Article.

d. Except as expressly provided in this Franchise Agreement, EACH PARTY KNOWINGLY WAIVES ALL RIGHTS TO A COURT OR JURY TRIAL AND, INSTEAD, SELECTS FACE-TO-FACE MEETINGS, MEDIATION AND FINALLY BINDING ARBITRATION AS THE SOLE MEANS TO RESOLVE DISPUTES UNDERSTANDING THAT FACE-TO-FACE MEETINGS, MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION MAY BE LESS FORMAL THAN A COURT OR JURY TRIAL, MAY USE DIFFERENT RULES OF PROCEDURE AND EVIDENCE, THAT AN APPEAL PROCESS IS GENERALLY LESS AVAILABLE, AND THAT THE FEES AND COSTS ASSOCIATED WITH MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION MAY BE SUBSTANTIALLY GREATER THAN IN CIVIL LITIGATION.

e. Notwithstanding the fact that a Party is or may become a party to a court action or special proceeding with a third party or otherwise, and whether or not such pending court action or special proceeding: (i) may include issues of law, fact, or otherwise that arise out of the same transaction (or series of related transactions) as any arbitrable matter between or involving the Parties; (ii) involves a possibility of conflicting rulings on issues of law, fact, or otherwise; and (iii) such pending court action or special proceeding may involve a third party who cannot be compelled to arbitrate the terms, covenants, and conditions of this Franchise Agreement, the Parties still agree any dispute between the Parties to this Franchise Agreement will be enforced according to the terms found herein, including the obligation to perform under this Article.

f. Before arbitration, each Party agrees to adhere to the following procedure:

i. First, in the event of a disagreement between us, we agree to meet face-to-face within 30 days after one Party gives written notice to the other;

ii. Second, if the issues between us cannot be so resolved, then the disagreement must be submitted to non-binding mediation before the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Service (JAMS) or its successor (or an organization designated by JAMS or its successor). If JAMS is unable or unwilling to conduct such proceedings, and the Parties to the dispute cannot agree on an appropriate organization or person to conduct such proceedings, mediation will be heard by the American Arbitration Association. (AAA).

A. You and we will agree upon a single mediator. If we cannot agree upon the mediator, then the senior-most officer, director, or manager of the association under which the mediation is to take place will choose a neutral and disinterested mediator, and such choice will be final and binding.

B. Mediation must begin 30 days after the face-to-face meeting. Any Party may be represented by counsel and may bring persons appropriate to the proceeding with permission of the mediator.

iii. Each Party will bear the Person's costs associated with attending mediation. Each Party will equally split the cost of the mediator.

iv. If mediation does not resolve the matter, you and we agree that the disagreement will be submitted to and finally resolved by binding arbitration.

16.2 Resolution under Arbitration

a. Subject to the terms of this Article, Arbitration must begin by the earlier of 90 days after the end of mediation or the last day of the one year identified in this Article.

b. Arbitration will be held before and under the arbitration rules of JAMS or its successor (or an organization designated by JAMS or its successor). If JAMS is unable or unwilling to conduct such proceedings, and the Parties cannot agree on an appropriate organization or person to conduct such proceedings, the arbitration will be heard by a single arbitrator from the AAA. The arbitrator must be experienced in franchising. If the Parties cannot agree upon the arbitrator, the senior-most officer, director, or manager of the association under which the arbitration is to take place will choose a neutral and disinterested arbitrator, and such choice will be final and binding upon the Parties.

c. Any Party may be represented by counsel and may, with permission of the arbitrator, bring persons appropriate to the proceeding.

d. The arbitrator's judgment on any preliminary matter and the final arbitration award will be final and binding and may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

e. The arbitrator's award will be in writing. On request by any party to the arbitration, the arbitrator will provide to all disputants a reasoned opinion with findings of fact and conclusions of law, and the Party so requesting will pay the arbitrator's fees and costs.

f. There will be no right to appeal any preliminary finding or ruling, and there is no right to appeal the final award.

g. The Parties agree that they will equally split the fees paid to start arbitration and the fees paid to the arbitrator until the arbitrator awards fees and other costs to the Prevailing Party.

16.3 Confidentiality:

The Parties to any meeting, mediation, or arbitration will sign confidentiality agreements, excepting only public disclosures and filings as are required by law.

16.4 Choice of Law, Venue and Jurisdiction

a. Any meeting, mediation, or arbitration will be conducted exclusively at a neutral location within 15 miles of our then-current headquarters without regard to conflict of law provisions or forum non-conveniens demand to the contrary.

b. The arbitrator will apply all applicable laws and equity permitted under the laws of the state ~~in which our headquarters is then located~~ of Utah, without regard to conflicts of law provisions. Any dispute requiring resolution before a court shall be brought in the appropriate state or federal court situated in Utah County, Utah, or the most proximate thereto, with the parties hereby irrevocably consenting to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue therein.

c. The terms of this Section and the terms of this Article generally are mandatory and not permissive and will control any matters of jurisdiction, venue, and choice of law; and by initialing below, you and we have agreed to the mandatory terms of this Article generally and to the mandatory terms of this Section specifically.

16.5 Scope, Discovery, other Procedural Matters, Fees, and Costs

a. The arbitrator will decide any factual, procedural, or legal questions relating to the dispute, including any decision as to whether there is a franchise contract between the Parties; whether this Article is applicable and enforceable; and all other matters, including issues relating subject matter, timeliness, scope, remedies, unconscionability, and any alleged fraud in the inducement.

b. The Parties to the dispute have the same discovery rights as are available under the rules of the arbitration association hosting the arbitration.

c. Each participant must submit or file any claim which would constitute a “compulsory counter-claim” (as defined by the applicable rule under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. Any such compulsory counter-claim that is not submitted or filed in such proceeding will be forever barred.

d. The arbitrator may issue summary orders disposing of all or part of a claim and provide for temporary restraining orders, preliminary injunctions, injunctions, attachments, claim and delivery proceedings, temporary protective orders, receiverships, and other equitable, interim or final relief.

e. Each Party consents to the enforcement of such orders, injunctions, etc., by any court having jurisdiction.

f. The arbitrator has subpoena powers limited only by the laws of the state ~~in which our headquarters is then located~~ of Utah.

g. In addition to any other remedy, the arbitrator will award the “Prevailing Party” their costs, fees, reasonable attorney’s fees, expert witness fees, and the like that Party expended in preparation for and the prosecution of the case at arbitration. The Prevailing Party will be the Party that has obtained the greatest “net judgment” in terms of money or money equivalent. If money or money equivalent has not been awarded, then the Prevailing Party will be that Party that has prevailed on a majority of the material issues decided. The “net judgment” is determined by subtracting the smallest award of money or money equivalent from the largest award. If there is a mixed decision involving an award of money or money equivalent and equitable relief, or if the arbitrator deems it to be in the best interest of justice, the arbitrator using their reasonable judgment, will award the above fees to the Party that it deems has prevailed over the other Party. This award applies to all matters decided by the arbitrator, including matters concerning misrepresentation or fraud.

16.6 Disputes Not Subject to the Mediation or Arbitration

a. Claims or disputes relating primarily to the Marks, to any intellectual property licensed to you, to any matter governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051 et seq.), are subject to court proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction. Only the portion of any claim or dispute identified in this Section is subject to court action, but only to the extent that such action is necessary to protect the Marks, the intellectual property, and any matters governed by the Lanham Act.

b. Matters relating solely to the collection of money by one Party against the other are not subject to a face-to-face meeting, mediation, or arbitration. Such matters include collection efforts against you or us solely for the failure to make timely payment of any amount due to the other. In such an event, such matter may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction and venue. If, however, one Party to such action pleads another claim, cross-claim, counter-claim or affirmative defense based on anything other than the mere collection of money, or if the other Party alleges facts concerning fraud or any other equitable defense, then the entire matter, including the collection-of-money effort will be subject to the alternative dispute resolution procedures of this Article.

c. To the extent that either of us seeks injunctive relief before the face-to-face meeting or mediation, the same may be applied to a court of competent jurisdiction. The court will hear only the application for injunctive relief, and the mere fact that the court exercised jurisdiction in considering the injunction will not serve to eliminate the alternative dispute resolution requirements of this Article. If the temporary injunction is granted, then the Party that made the application must begin the alternative dispute resolution process under this Article.

16.7 Other Matters

We each understand and specifically agree that any matters concerning the relationship between us and any dispute arising, as a result, will be determined on an individual basis and will not be brought as a class action or with multiple unrelated franchisees (whether as a result of attempted consolidation, joinder, or otherwise). This is prudent from a business standpoint because (a) the mediation and arbitration procedures function most effectively on an individual case basis; (b) there are significant factors present in each individual franchisee’s situation which should be respected; and (c) class-wide or multiple plaintiff disputes do not foster quick, amicable, and economic dispute resolutions.

16.8 One Year Limitation of Action

a. Except for an alleged violation of the Marks or any intellectual property licensed to you (which may be brought at any time), and except for the enforcement of our right to indemnification under Article 14 and subsection (c) just below, YOU AND WE ARE LIMITED TO BRINGING ANY ARBITRATION AGAINST THE OTHER WITHIN ONE YEAR OF THE DATE THAT THE FACTS WHICH GIVE RISE TO THE CLAIM WERE DISCOVERED, OR ONE YEAR FROM THE DATE THAT SUCH FACTS REASONABLY SHOULD HAVE BEEN DISCOVERED. The one-year period begins to run and will not be tolled merely because the claiming party was unaware of legal theories, statutes, regulations, or case law upon which the claim might be based. If the Parties have begun mediation on the day that the one-year expires, then the one-year will be extended by 90 days from the unsuccessful end of mediation within which a Party must bring arbitration. If arbitration is not brought by 5:00 p.m. Mountain Time on the 90th day after mediation ends, then the right to bring arbitration expires, and the Parties will have no other opportunity to try, arbitrate or receive any other relief because of the action, matter, dispute, or disagreement underlying the claim.

b. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any federal or state law provides for a shorter limitation period than is described in this Section, then such a shorter period will govern.

c. This Section will not apply to issues of indemnification, and such actions under the indemnification covenant may be brought within the period provided by any limitation-of-action statute under the laws of the state in which our headquarters is then located.

16.9 Survival of Obligations

Each provision of this Article 16 is self-executing and will continue in full force and effect after a Transfer, expiration, termination, rescission, or finding of unenforceability of this Agreement (or any part of it).

ARTICLE 17

INSURANCE

17.1 Insurance is Required and Minimum Coverage

a. Before you open, and then no later than 30 days before each renewal or expiration date of a policy, you will purchase and maintain in full force during each Term, an insurance policy or policies protecting you and us, and the officers, directors, partners, and employees of both you and us against any loss, liability, personal injury, death, property damage or expense whatsoever arising or occurring upon or in connection with the operation of the Business. We and our officers, directors, members, partners, and employees will be named as an additional insured on all such policies using the latest version of ISO endorsement CG 20 10 or the latest version of ISO endorsements CG 20 42 or CG 20 43 (or their combined equivalent). The coverage afforded to the additional insureds must be written on a primary basis and will not require or contemplate contribution by any other policy or policies obtained by, or available to, an additional insured.

b. You will deliver to us the actual policy or policies of insurance or endorsements issued by the insurer (and not the broker) evidencing the proper coverage with limits not less than those required hereunder.

c. All policies must expressly provide that not less than 30 days prior written notice must be given to us in the event of a material alteration to termination, non-renewal, or cancellation of the coverage evidenced by such policies.

d. You will obtain the following insurance with the following minimum coverages. You can elect to purchase insurance with greater coverage or limits:

i. General liability insurance having a combined annual single limit for any form of injury and property damage of $1,000,000 per occurrence and 2,000,000 in the aggregate.

ii. Automobile liability insurance for the vehicle or vehicles that are used in the operation of the Business, and automobile liability coverage for owned, non-owned, scheduled, and hired vehicles having limits for bodily injuries of $500,000 per person and $1,000,000 per accident, and property damage limits of $50,000 per occurrence.

iii. Employer's liability and worker's compensation insurance is mandatory regardless of being required by state law in the state in which the Business is found. If your state does not require you to carry such insurance (such as Mississippi or Texas), you must still obtain it, in which case the minimum amount will be $1,000,000/$1,000,000/$1,000,000. You or your equity owners that operate the Business must be covered; no exclusions are allowed. A "Stop Gap" endorsement or similar coverage is required in North Dakota, Ohio, Washington, and Wyoming. This policy must provide primary coverage.

iv. Business interruption insurance of not less than $30,000.00 per month for loss of income and other expenses with a limit of not less than nine months of coverage.

v. Professional liability insurance with coverage of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence and $1,000,000 annual aggregate.

vi. Excess liability umbrella coverage for general and automobile liability coverage in an amount of not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 in the aggregate.

e. Such policy or policies must be written by an insurance company rated A-minus or better, in Class 10 or higher, by Best Insurance Ratings Service and satisfactory to us under standards and specifications outlined in the Franchisee Manuals or otherwise in writing, from time to time, and will include, at a minimum, the coverage found above. The insurance will insure us, you, and our respective subsidiaries, owners, officers, directors, partners, members, employees, servants, and agents against any loss, liability, products liability, personal injury, death or property damage that may accrue due to your operation of the Franchise. Your policies of insurance, will contain a separate endorsement naming us as an additional named insured. The insurance will not be limited in any way because of any insurance we maintain, and will be the primary, non-contributory insurance for claims made thereunder. The insurance will not be subject to cancellation except upon 20 days' written notice to us. Certificates of your insurance policies will be kept on deposit with us. Maintenance of the required insurance will not diminish your liability to us under the indemnities contained in this Agreement. The policy or policies will insure against our vicarious liability for actual and (unless prohibited by applicable law) punitive damages assessed against you.

All insurance policies you obtain will contain a blanket waiver of the insurer's rights of subrogation in respect of or against us and our officers, agents, employees and representatives; and will not contain any insured vs. insured exclusion clause, but will contain a severability clause providing that each the policy will be treated as though a separate insurance policy had been issued to each named insured.

We may require you to increase the minimum limits of and types of coverage to keep pace with regular business practice and prudent insurance custom.

If you fail to comply with any of the requirements of this Subsection, we may, but are not obligated to, purchase insurance at your expense to protect our interests. This insurance may, but need not, also protect your interest. The coverage we obtain might not pay any claim you make or any claim made against you. You may later cancel the insurance we obtain by providing evidence that you have obtained proper coverage elsewhere. You are responsible for the cost of any insurance purchased by us pursuant to this paragraph. This coverage may be considerably more expensive than insurance you can obtain on your own and might not satisfy your needs. You will pay us upon demand the premium cost of this insurance with a late payment charge on the unpaid balance at the rate established in this Agreement.

You will promptly report all claims or potential claims against you, the Business or us in writing when you become aware of them. You will give immediate written notice to us of any claims or potential claims you make to your insurers.

We may, at our sole discretion, upon not less than 90 days prior written notice to you, secure a policy of insurance which will provide defined insurance coverage to all or any part of the Five Star Bath Solutions system. This policy may replace or supplement the insurance coverage you are required to maintain. You will pay the relevant insurance premium to us or the designated insurance provider, as we direct.

Nothing contained in this Agreement will be construed as a representation or warranty by us that the insurance coverage we specify will insure you against all insurable risks or amounts of loss which may or can arise out of or in connection with the operation of your franchise business. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that adequate insurance coverage is obtained for your business.

Your procurement and maintenance of the insurance specified above will not relieve you of any liability to us under any indemnity requirement of this Agreement.

17.2 No Limitations on Coverage and Primacy of Your Insurance

a. Your obligation to obtain and maintain the preceding policy or policies in the amounts specified, which will not be limited in any way because of insurance that may be maintained by us, nor will your performance of these obligations relieve you of liability under the indemnity provisions set forth herein.

b. Although we require certain insurance coverage and may recommend other coverages, we do not guarantee that the required or recommended insurance will be adequate to protect all of your assets. You should consult with an insurance professional to determine what coverage, in addition to the minimum required coverage, may be needed for you and your Business.

c. Your insurance policies will contain a provision stating that your insurance coverage is primary to any coverage maintained by us, and we will be entitled to recover under your policies for any loss sustained by us.

17.3 Franchisor May Procure Insurance Coverage

Should you, for any reason, fail to procure or maintain the insurance required by this Agreement, as described from time to time by the Franchisee Manuals or otherwise in writing, we have the right and authority (but no obligation) to procure such insurance and to charge the same to you; said charges, together with a reasonable fee for our expenses in so acting, will be immediately payable to us by you.

ARTICLE 18

18.5 No Waiver

A waiver by a Party of any term, covenant, or condition contained in this Agreement is not a waiver in the future of the enforcement of such term, covenant or condition, and the failure of a Party to exercise a right or remedy granted to it under this Agreement will not constitute or be considered to imply a further waiver by a Party of enforcement of the same or any other condition, covenant, right, or remedy. No custom, usage, concession, or practice on the part of a Party that varies from the literal terms of this Franchise Agreement will preclude at any time the strict enforcement of this Agreement (upon due notice) under its terms.

18.7 Invalidity

If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid, and if the arbitrator modifies such provision to eliminate the invalid element, then the provision as modified will be a part of this Franchise Agreement as though originally included. The remaining provisions of this Franchise Agreement will not be affected by such modification. If any provision cannot be modified, it will be stricken, and the rest of the Franchise Agreement will remain in full force and effect.

STANDARD LEASE RIDER

This Standard Lease Rider (this “Rider”) is made and entered into on _____, 20____ by and among _____ (the “Landlord”), _____ (the “Tenant”), and Ringside Development Company d/b/a Bio-One, (“Bio-One”).

RECITALS

A. This Rider supplements and forms part of the attached Lease Agreement between Landlord and Tenant dated _____, 20____ (the “Lease”) for the premises located at _____ (the “Premises”) to be used by the Tenant as a Bio-One business.

B. This Rider is entered into in connection with Bio-One’s approval of the location of the Premises as a “Bio-One” business and the grant of a franchise to the Tenant pursuant to a Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Franchise Agreement”).

C. As a condition to BIO-ONE granting a franchise to a franchisee, BIO-ONE requires certain provisions to be contained in the leases entered into by its franchisees, and to evidence Landlord and Tenant’s agreement to these terms, the parties hereby enter into this Rider.

THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE:

1. BIO-ONE’S NOTICE AND CURE RIGHTS Concurrently with giving any Notice of Default to Tenant, Landlord also agrees to send a copy of such Notice to BIO-ONE. In the event Tenant fails to cure any default within the time required in the Lease, Landlord shall promptly give written notice to BIO-ONE specifying the nature of Tenant’s defaults and granting BIO-ONE an additional thirty (30) days from the date BIO-ONE receives such notice to exercise its right, in BIO-ONE’s sole discretion, to either (a) accept an assignment of the Lease upon the same terms (including all renewals) as apply to this Rider; or (b) assign the Lease to an authorized franchisee of BIO-ONE (provided that such franchisee shall be required to execute any such documentation as required by Landlord).

2. ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, Landlord agrees that the Lease and the right, title and interest (including all renewal rights) of the Tenant and any subsequent or successor Tenant thereunder, may be assigned to BIO-ONE or its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates (BIO-ONE, its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates are collectively referred to as “BIO-ONE Entities”), or to an authorized franchisee of BIO-ONE (provided that such franchisee shall be required to execute any such documentation as required by the Landlord). In the event of an assignment to an BIO-ONE entity, BIO-ONE shall at all times have the right to reassign the Lease, without charge and without Landlord’s consent being required to an authorized franchisee of BIO-ONE (provided that such franchisee shall be required to execute any such documentation as required by the Landlord) and Bio-One shall thereupon be released from any further liability under the Lease. The Tenant shall be and remain liable to the Landlord for all of its obligations under the Lease, notwithstanding any assignment of the Lease to BIO-ONE or to an authorized franchisee.

3. USE CLAUSE Tenant shall only use the Premises for the purpose of operating a “Bio-One” facility that engages in the services authorized in the Franchise Agreement. Landlord agrees that throughout the term of the Lease, including any renewals and extensions and provided Tenant has not experienced any condition of default of the Lease, Landlord shall not permit directly or indirectly, another similar facility to be operated in the surrounding premises owned by Landlord, if any. In the event Landlord breaches such covenant, then Tenant shall be entitled to an immediate reduction of its Rent to One Dollar ($1.00) per month until such time as this breach is cured if possible or for the remainder of the Lease Term and any renewals if such breach cannot be cured.

4. SIGNAGE Tenant has the right to install the customary and usual display signs of Bio-One on the building façade as detailed in the signage criteria of the Lease, subject to Landlord’s approval which shall not be unreasonably withheld, and subject to applicable government ordinances and restrictive covenants and the shopping center signage criteria attached as an exhibit to the Lease. All signage requires Landlord’s prior review and approval before fabrication and installation. Tenant shall be permitted to display signs and promotional items on the inside of the Premises consistent with BIO-ONE’s national standards.

5. PARKING. Landlord shall provide adequate parking to serve the Premises in accordance with applicable local ordinances and required parking ratios.

6. NOTICES. Landlord agrees to return a fully executed original Lease and this Rider within ten (10) days of execution to BIO-ONE. All notices pursuant to this Rider shall be in writing and shall be personally delivered, sent by registered mail or reputable overnight delivery service or by other means which afford the sender evidence of delivery or rejected delivery to the address as any party to this Rider may, by written notice, instruct that notices be given.

7. BY EXECUTING THIS RIDER TO LEASE, BIO-ONE DOES NOT ASSUME ANY LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO THE PREMISES OR ANY OBLIGATION AS TENANT UNDER THE LEASE UNLESS AND UNTIL BIO-ONE EXPRESSLY, AND IN A SEPARATE WRITING, AGREES TO ASSUME SUCH LIABILITY AND/OR OBLIGATION AS DESCRIBED ABOVE.

I authorize you to make a criminal background investigation and other such investigations as are necessary for arriving at the decision to permit me to purchase a franchise or to retain my rights as a franchisee.

I further understand and agree that should any criminal or credit background checks be done during the Term of the franchise agreement, disclose any material change in my status, the same may result in the termination of my franchise.

7. If any mandatory provisions of the governing state law limit or prohibit the use of this Release, or which in any manner impose different rights or obligations as are found herein, then such mandatory provisions of state law are incorporated in the Franchise Agreement and this Release by reference and shall prevail over any inconsistent terms in this Release. If no such law exists, or if such law exists but permits the Franchisee to agree to abide by the terms of this Release, or if by accepting the alternative dispute resolution covenants of the Franchise Agreement found in Article 16, the state law is preempted by the federal law applicable to such dispute resolution, then the Franchisee for itself and on behalf of the Franchisee Parties and Guarantor each agree to abide by the terms of this Release. Notwithstanding the preceding, excluded from this release are claims arising from representations in the FDD.

8. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary:

“A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release which, if known by him, must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.”

Franchise, Franchisee Parties, and each Guarantor waives and relinquishes every right or benefit which they have, or may have, under Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California and any similar provisions of any other law (as may apply to this Release), to the fullest extent that the Franchisee, Franchisee Parties, and Guarantors, may lawfully waive such right or benefit concerning the subject matter of this Release. In connection with such waiver and relinquishment, concerning the Released Claims, the Franchisee, Franchisee Parties, and Guarantors each acknowledge that they are aware and informed that they may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those that they now know or believe to be true concerning the subject matter of this Release, but that it is the Franchisee’s, Franchisee Party’s, and Guarantor’s intention to settle and release fully, finally and forever, all claims, disputes, and differences, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which now exist, may exist or previously existed, and in furtherance of such intention, the release given herein shall be and remain in effect as a full and complete release, notwithstanding the discovery or existence of any such additional or different facts that would have affected the release of all Released Claims. Franchisee and each Franchise Party and Guarantor agree to defend and indemnify Franchisor from all claims arising out of, directly or indirectly, the assertion by Franchisee, each Franchisee Party, and each Guarantor (or any person or entity by, through, or on their behalf) of any Released Claims, positions, defenses, or arguments contrary to this Section 6(a) above.

b. Release of Unknown Claims and Waiver of South Dakota Law. The Franchisee and each Franchisee Party and Guarantor acknowledge that each is aware and informed that the laws of South Dakota may purport to limit or reduce the effect of a general release concerning claims not known or suspected by them at the time of execution of the release, such as South Dakota Codified Laws§ 20-7-11, which provides as follows:

Franchisee and each Franchisee Party and Guarantor, waive and relinquish every right or benefit which they have, or may have, under § 20-7-11 of the South Dakota Codified Laws, and any similar provisions of any other law (as may apply to this Release), to the fullest extent that they may lawfully waive such right or benefit concerning the subject matter of this Release. In connection with such waiver and relinquishment and concerning the Released Claims, Franchisee and each Franchisee Party and Guarantor acknowledge that they are aware and informed that they may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those that Franchisee and each Franchisee Party and Guarantor now know or believe to be true concerning the subject matter of this Release, but that they intend to settle and release fully, and finally and forever, all Released Claims, disputes and differences, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which now exist, may exist or previously existed, and in furtherance of such intention, the release given herein shall be and remain in effect as a full and complete release, notwithstanding the discovery or existence of any such additional or different facts that would have affected the release of all Released Claims. Franchisee and each Franchisee Party and Guarantor agree to defend and indemnify Franchisor and the Franchisor Affiliates from all Released Claims arising out of, directly or indirectly, the assertion by the Franchisee and the Franchisee Affiliates (or any person or entity by, through, or on behalf of Releasor) of any Released Claims, positions, defenses, or arguments contrary to this Section 1 (b) of this Release.

9. Additional Provisions

a. Each such Party represents that the execution and delivery of this Release is the duly authorized and binding act of such Party.

b. The Recitals are incorporated herein by this reference.

c. This Release shall be interpreted under the laws of the state of Colorado without regard to any conflict of laws provision to the contrary. Enforcement of this Release is to be under the alternative dispute resolution provisions of the Franchise Agreement found at Article 16 as though such Article was incorporated in its entirety herein.

d. Each Party shall fully cooperate with all other Parties concerning the performance of this Release. Each Party will execute, acknowledge, and deliver such further documents that may reasonably be required to perform this Release effectively and evidence the release of all obligations and liabilities of the Parties as more fully stated herein.

e. This Release may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original, but all of which together will constitute the same instrument, without the necessity of production of the others. STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

Section 31125 of the Franchise Investment Law requires us to give you a disclosure document approved by the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation before we ask you to consider a material modification of your Franchise Agreement.

THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

ITEM 1 is amended to provide the following:

In California, you must obtain a Trauma Scene Waste Management Practitioner (TSW) permit from the California Department of Health. This requires the filing of a form and fee. See generally, <https://www.cdph.ca.gov/Programs/CEH/DRSEM/Pages/EMB/MedicalWaste/Trauma-Scene.aspx>, which is the page from the California Department of Public Health that describes this procedure.

ITEM 2 is amended to provide the following:

The franchisor, any person or franchise broker listed in Item 2 of the disclosure document are not subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.

ITEM 3 is amended to state the following:

The franchisor, any person or franchise broker in Item 2 of the UFDD is not subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.

ITEM 4 is amended to state the following:

No person previously identified in Item 2 of this Disclosure Document has been involved as a debtor in proceedings under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

ITEM 5 is amended to state the following:

We will refrain from collecting the IFF or any other fees from you until we have delivered all of our pre-opening services (Item 11) and you are open for business. At that time, we will collect all pre-opening fees that are due to us.

ITEM 12 is amended to state that we reserve the right to establish alternative channels of distribution without compensation to the franchisee.

ITEM 17 of the Disclosure document is amended to add the following:

The California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise if the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

Franchise Agreement:

The Franchise Agreement is amended to delete Section 18.1(b) and Section 18.13(b).

The Franchise Agreement is further amended to add the following provision:

“No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.”

The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A., Sec. 101 et seq.)

The Franchise Agreement requires Franchisee to sign a general release as a condition of transfer. This general release excludes claims arising under California law and will exclude any claims arising from representations in the FDD.

The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete, which extends beyond the term of the agreement. This provision might not be enforceable under California law.

The Franchise Agreement requires litigation to be conducted by arbitration held in Denver, Colorado. This provision might not be enforceable for any cause of action arising under California law.

The Franchise Agreement requires the application of the laws of the state of Colorado. This provision might not be enforceable under California law.

The Franchise Agreement may contain a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

You must sign a general release of claims if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Sections 31000 through 31516).

Business and Professions Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professional Code Sections 2000 through 20043).

The Franchise Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur no further than 15 miles from our then-current headquarters that now is ~~Littleton~~Greenwood Village, Colorado, with the costs being borne by the prevailing party. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of the Franchise Agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

The franchise agreement contains provisions shortening the statute of limitations to bring claims and requiring you to waive your right to punitive or exemplary damages against the franchisor, limiting your recovery to actual damages for any claims related to your franchise. Under California Corporations Code section 31512, these provisions are not enforceable in California for any claims you may have under the California Franchise Investment Law.

STATE OF WASHINGTON

The Franchise Disclosure Document and the Franchise Agreement are amended as follows:

The following RISK FACTOR is added to the Special Risks to Consider About *This Franchise page:

Use of Franchise Brokers. The franchisor may use the services of franchise brokers to assist it in selling franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. Do not rely only on the information provided by a franchise broker about a franchise. Do your own investigation by contacting the franchisor's current and former franchisees to ask them about their experience with the franchisor.

Item 8 of the Disclosure Document is amended to provide that any markups charged on revenue from purchases that franchisee is required to buy from an affiliate or us are fair and reasonable in compliance with RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

Item 17 of the Disclosure Document is amended to add the following:

a. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW, will prevail.

b. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor, including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor, including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

c. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

d. A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act, such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

e. Transfer fees are collectible to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

f. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

g. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

h. Item 5 is amended to provide that in Washington, we will defer collecting the IFF and any other fees that are described in this Article until we have provided you with all of our pre-opening services (Item 11) and you are open for business. At that time, all fees to us will be due.

STATE OF WISCONSIN

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Prior Period Financial Statements

The financial statements of the Company as of December 31, 2021 and for the period from inception (April 9, 2021) through December 31, 2021, were audited by other auditors whose report dated December 5, 2022, expressed an unmodified opinion on those financial statements. We were not engaged to audit, review, or apply any procedures on the 2021 financial statements of the Company, accordingly, we do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance on the 2021 financial statements as a whole.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

3300 N. Triumph Blvd., Suite 410, Lehi, UT 84043

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Description of Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

FS PEP Holdco, LLC is a holding company established for the purpose of acquiring and operating home services related franchisor companies. Through its franchisor entities located throughout the United States, the Company seeks to establish profitable and sustainable franchise systems that provide franchise partners the tools to profitably operate and own a successful home service business.

Basis of Presentation and Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements presented in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAP) and include the accounts of FS PEP Holdco, LLC and its wholly owned subsidiaries: Five Star Connect, Inc.; Gotcha Covered Franchising, LLC; Ringside Development Company; Bio-One IP Group; LLC, Ringside Group, LLC; Mosquito Shield Franchise, LLC; 1-800-Packouts Holdco, LLC; and Five Star Franchising, LLC and its wholly owned subsidiary Five Star Bath, LLC.

FS PEP Holdco, LLC was formed on April 9, 2021 (date of inception) and during 2021 began acquiring operating companies. The consolidated financial statements reflect the operations of FS PEP Holdco, LLC and all of its subsidiaries (collectively the Company). All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates. Key management estimates include allowances for doubtful accounts, useful lives for property and equipment and intangible assets, fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in acquisitions, and the income tax provision for net deferred taxes.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts which, at times, exceed federally insured limits. To date, the Company has not experienced a loss or lack of access to its invested cash and cash equivalents; however, no assurance can be provided that access to the Company's invested cash will not be impacted by adverse conditions in the financial markets.

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash balances relate to cash franchisees contribute to the Company's national branding funds. Cash contributed by franchisees to the national branding funds are to be used in accordance with the franchise agreements with a focus on marketing and advertising.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable consist of amounts due on franchisee accounts for various fees including royalties, support fees, branding fees, insurance, training, and expendable equipment. The allowance for bad debts and other reserves are based upon the Company's historical experience with franchisees and considers the age of the receivable and the franchisees' ability to pay. Accounts are written-off when determined to be uncollectible and all reasonable efforts to collect the receivable have been exhausted. Accounts receivable do not include any amounts for interest. An allowance for doubtful accounts of $58,660 and $32,710 was accrued as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Notes Receivable

Some franchise agreements allow for the financing of initial franchising fees over a term of one to five years. These receivables bear interest ranging from 4.00% to 10.00% and are reviewed for collectability by assessing the franchisee's completion of training, commencing operations, and revenue generation. As of December 31, 2022 and 2021, the Company had $436,865 and $293,037 outstanding on notes receivable, which have been included in the other assets account on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Contract Assets

The Company incurs broker or sales commission expenses paid to third parties to obtain franchise agreements with franchisees. The commissions are related to franchise fee revenue and are capitalized and recognized over the term of the respective franchise agreement.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets

Goodwill represents the excess purchase price over fair value of net assets acquired that is not allocable to separately identifiable intangible assets. Other identifiable intangible assets primarily consist of trade names and franchise agreements in place. These assets are amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the asset acquired.

The Company amortizes goodwill over a period of ten years. The Company evaluates the recoverability of the carrying amount of goodwill at the entity level whenever events or circumstances indicate the carrying amount may not be recoverable. Management has determined there was no impairment as of December 31, 2022 and 2021.

Investment in Unconsolidated Subsidiary

The Company's investment in Joe Homebuyer Franchising, LLC, was owned 50% by Five Star Franchising, LLC and 50% by an outside party. The investment was accounted for under the equity method of accounting. On March 9, 2022, the Company completed the sale of its equity interests in Joe Homebuyer Franchising, LLC to the existing equity partner for $1,623,174. As a result of this sale, the Company recognized a gain of $1,025,637.

Deferred Issuance Costs

The Company defers costs related to issuing debt and amortizes the costs using the effective interest method, to interest expense over the term of the related debt.

Revenue Recognition

The Company primarily derives revenue from royalties, call center services, franchise and license fees, equipment and product sales, and advertising services. Revenue is recognized from these contracts with customers by applying the following steps:

- Identification of the contract, or contracts, with a customer.
- Identification of the performance obligations in a contract.
- Determination of the transaction price.
- Allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract.
- Recognition of revenue when, or as, performance obligations are satisfied.

Royalties

The Company sells individual franchises as well as territory agreements (Franchise Agreements) that grant the right to operate a location, using the Company's software and trademarks, generally for a period of five or ten years. The franchisees are equipped with certain equipment and samples and are trained at the Company's facilities. The Franchise Agreements require franchisees to pay continuing fees, or royalties, on a monthly basis based on the terms of the Franchise Agreement. Royalty income is based on either a percentage (generally ranging from 2% to 7%) of franchisee gross sales, minimum monthly payments, or other calculated amounts as defined in the Franchise Agreement and is recognized as the royalties are at the franchisees' point of sale.

Amounts recognized as royalties revenue for year ended December 31, 2022 and for the period from inception (April 9, 2021) through December 31, 2021 were $10,191,623 and $2,867,475, respectively.

Call Center Services

The Company provides certain sales and marketing support services for franchisees, including the operation of a call center for inbound-customer and marketing related calls. The fees associated with the call center are structured as either a fixed monthly fee or a variable fee based on the monthly usage of the call center. Revenue for call center services are recognized during the month that the services are performed.

Amounts recognized as call center services revenue for year ended December 31, 2022 and for the period from inception (April 9, 2021) through December 31, 2021 were $2,977,806 and $2,260,582, respectively.

Franchise Fees

The Franchise Agreements require the franchisee to pay an initial fee to obtain the rights associated with the Franchise Agreements. Initial franchise fee revenue is partially recognized upon substantial completion of the startup services required of the Company. The remainder of the franchise fee revenue is recognized over the term of the Franchise Agreement. All fees collected in advance are deferred until performance obligations are met, and revenue is earned. Deferred amounts are classified as contract liabilities in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

Franchise sales resulting from leads furnished by independent franchise brokers are subject to a sales commission. The costs of commissions paid to franchise brokers are capitalized and recognized over the same period as the related revenue.

Amounts recognized as franchise fee revenue for the year ended December 31, 2022 and for the period from inception (April 9, 2021) through December 31, 2021 were $3,823,573 and $655,100, respectively.

Equipment and Product Sales

Revenue from the sale of equipment and products is recognized when title and risk of loss transfers to the buyer, which is generally upon shipment.

Amounts recognized as equipment and product sales revenue for the year ended December 31, 2022 and for the period from inception through December 31, 2021 were $3,830,583 and $585,520, respectively.

Advertising Services

Under the terms of the Franchise Agreements, the Company may establish national branding funds and charge a fee of up to 3% of the franchisees' gross receipts to pay for marketing costs that benefit multiple franchises and are used to promote the brands. Marketing revenues and expenses are recognized in equal amounts as marketing expenses are incurred. Any amounts collected but unspent at the end of the year are accrued for as a liability on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets until the related expense has been incurred.

Amounts recognized as advertising services revenue for the year ended December 31, 2022 and for the period from inception (April 9, 2021) through December 31, 2021 was $3,683,755 and $467,575, respectively.

Other Revenues

Other revenues include vendor rebates, fees generated by consulting services, monthly technology access fees and other miscellaneous fees allowable under the terms of the Franchise Agreements. Consulting and other fees are recognized as revenue once the consulting or other services have been performed, these services are short term in nature and provided on a month-to-month basis. Monthly technology access fees are recognized during the month that services are performed.

Amounts recognized as other revenue for the year ended December 31, 2022 and for the period from inception (April 9, 2021) through December 31, 2021 were $1,519,184 and $621,110, respectively.

Contract Liabilities

Contract liabilities represent billings made to or payments received from franchisees for which the related performance obligation has not yet been fulfilled. This primarily consists of franchise fees that have been received but are deferred to be recognized over the term of the franchise agreement. Deposits for conferences and trainings are also deferred until the point at which the service has been provided.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (ASC Topic 842). This guidance replaces the prior lease accounting guidance in its entirety. The underlying principle of the new standard is the recognition of lease assets and liabilities by lessees for substantially all leases. The Company has elected the package of practical expedients permitted in ASC Topic 842. Accordingly, the Company accounted for its existing operating leases as operating leases under the new guidance, without reassessing (a) whether the contracts contain a lease under ASC Topic 842, (b) whether classification of the leases would be different in accordance with ASC Topic 842, or (c) whether the unamortized initial direct costs before transition adjustments (as of December 31, 2021) would have met the definition of initial direct costs in ASC Topic 842 at lease commencement.

On January 1, 2022, the Company recognized $1,175,322 in operating lease liabilities and right-of-use (ROU) assets. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on net loss.

Leases

Management determines if a contract is or contains a lease at inception or modification of a contract. A contract is or contains a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period in exchange for consideration. Control over the use of the identified asset means the lessee has both (a) the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from the use of the asset and (b) the right to direct the use of the asset. Such assets are classified as ROU assets with a corresponding lease liability.

For all arrangements where it is determined that a lease exists, the related ROU assets and lease liabilities are recorded as either operating or finance leases. At inception or modification, the Company calculates the present value of lease payments using the implicit rate determined from the contract or the Company's incremental borrowing rate applicable to the lease, which is determined by estimating what it would cost the Company to borrow a collateralized amount equal to the total lease payments over the lease term based on the contractual terms of the lease and the location of the leased asset. The present value is adjusted for prepaid lease payments, lease incentives, and initial direct costs. Lease expense is recognized for these leases on a straight-line basis over the expected lease term. Non-lease costs, such as common-area maintenance costs, taxes, and insurance, are not included in the measurement of the ROU assets and lease liabilities. The depreciable life of assets and leasehold improvements are limited by the expected lease term.

Sales Tax

The Company accounts for sales tax on a net basis and excluded from revenues.

Shipping and Handling Costs

The Company classifies freight billed to customers as sales revenue and the related freight costs as cost of sales.

Advertising and Marketing

Advertising and marketing costs included in operating expenses primarily consist of collateral marketing materials and are expensed as incurred. These costs are included in general and administrative expenses and were $2,153,360 and $368,136 during the year ended December 31, 2022 and for the period from inception (April 9, 2021) through December 31, 2021, respectively.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company under provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and has elected to be treated as a partnership for income tax purposes. As such, the payment and recognition of income taxes are the responsibility of the members of the Company.

The Company files income tax returns in the US federal and state jurisdictions. The Company is generally subject to US federal, state and local income tax examination by tax authorities for a period of three years from the date of filing. The Company is not currently under examination in any jurisdiction in which it operates.

The Company is required to determine whether its tax positions are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized are measured as the largest amount of benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant taxing authorities. Based on its analysis, the Company has determined that it has not incurred any liability for unrecognized tax benefits as of December 31, 2022. The Company does not expect that its assessment regarding unrecognized tax benefits will materially change over the next 12 months.

Certain subsidiaries of the Company recognize deferred income tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the subsidiary financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using estimated tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are recognized only if it is more likely than not that the asset will be realized in future years.

Reclassifications

Certain amounts in the 2021 consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform with the current year presentation.

Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through April 30, 2023, which is the day the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

2. Acquisitions of Subsidiary Entities

During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company entered into the following acquisition agreements:

On January 31, 2022, the Company entered into a securities purchase agreement to acquire 100% of the equity interests in 1-800-Packouts, LLC (Packouts). The securities purchase agreement included payment of rollover interest of $4,230,000 wherein the former owner was granted an ownership interest in the Company, which was included in the total consideration paid for the acquisition. The securities purchase agreements also included two delayed cash payments of $1,000,000 each to be made in June 2023 and December 2023. These payments were valued at present value of $1,795,418 as of the acquisition date. This amount was accrued and included in the 2022 issued financials.

On March 11, 2022, the Company entered into a securities purchase agreement to acquire 100% of the equity interests in Mosquito Shield Finance Corporation (Mosquito Shield). The securities purchase agreement included payment of rollover interest of $2,000,000 wherein the former owner was granted an ownership interest in the Company, which was included in the total consideration paid for the acquisition.

In relation to these acquisitions, the Company elected to early adopt Accounting Standards Update 2021-08, Business Combinations (ASU 2021-08). ASU 2021-08 allows a Company to recognize and measure contract assets and contract liabilities in accordance with ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Accordingly, the contract assets and contract liabilities were recognized at carryover value from the predecessor, rather than at fair value.

The following is a summary of the estimated fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed with each acquisition during the year ended December 31, 2022:

	Packouts	Mosquito Shield
Cash	$ 5,966	$ 118,452

The securities purchase agreement also includes provisions for the payment of earn-out payments upon reaching certain Royalty Revenue thresholds for the period from January 1, 2021 through December 31, 2021. The contingent consideration of 25,000 Class B units of FS PEP Holdco, LLC had an estimated value of $2,349,000 as of the acquisition date. On July 23, 2021, the Company entered into a securities purchase agreement to acquire 100% of the equity interests in Gotcha Covered Franchising, LLC (Gotcha Covered). The securities purchase agreement included payment of rollover interest of $824,125 wherein the former owner was granted an ownership interest in the Company, which was included in the total consideration paid for the acquisition. The securities purchase agreement also included provisions for the payment of earn-out payments upon reaching certain Royalty Revenue thresholds for a twelve-month period commencing on the closing date and ending on the one-year anniversary of the closing date. The contingent consideration called for payments of up to $1,200,000 and issuance of $300,000 worth of FS PEP Holdco, LLC. The contingent consideration had an estimated value of $1,500,000 as of the acquisition date. This amount was accrued and included in the total consideration paid for the acquisition. The full amount of cash was paid and the units issued during 2022.

On September 3, 2021, the Company entered into a securities purchase agreement to acquire 100% of the equity interests in Ringside Development Company, Ringside Group, LLC and Bio-One IP Group, LLC (collectively Bio-One).

	Five Star	Connect	Gotcha Covered	Bio One
Cash	$ 184,570	$ 230,525	$ 344,031	$ 25,815
Accounts receivable	163,663	97,386	248,099	465,507
Contract assets	333,973	-	25,960	111,755
Other assets	605,948	389,315	-	4,192
Trade name	2,020,000	-	2,050,000	12,500,000
Franchise agreements	1,630,000	-	1,280,000	15,000,000
Goodwill	5,327,767	9,233,140	2,107,506	24,292,677
Liabilities assumed	(764,309)	(101,366)	(32,010)	(7,393,447)
Total purchase price	$ 9,501,612	$ 9,849,000	$ 6,023,586	$ 45,006,499

Each of these transactions have been accounted for as a business combination using the acquisition method and the operations of the acquired entities have been consolidated with the operations of the Company as of the respective dates of the transactions. The Company has made certain measurement period adjustments to the valuation of purchase consideration for the 2021 acquisitions of Gotcha Covered and Bio One resulting in an approximately $1,500,000 increase and a $25,000 decrease to goodwill, respectively. These measurement period adjustments have been made in 2022.

The assets acquired and liabilities assumed were recorded based on their estimated fair values as of the date of acquisition as determined by management. The excess of the purchase price over the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed was recorded as goodwill. The value of goodwill recognized in connection with the transactions can be attributed to a number of business factors including, but not limited to, the ability of the Company to grow given the additional capital and strategic expertise brought to the Company by the new ownership group.

Trade names were valued using a relief from royalty discounted cash flows method. Franchise agreements were valued using an excess of earnings discounted cash flows method. The estimated useful lives of trade names is 15 years, franchise agreements is 13 to 15 years, and goodwill is 10 years.

6. Commitments and Contingencies

Litigation

The Company is involved in legal proceedings from time to time arising in the normal course of business. Management, after consultation with legal counsel, believes that the outcome of these proceedings will not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations, or liquidity.

Employee Agreements

The Company has entered into employment agreements with certain officers and employees of the Company, which require that certain severance payments are made in the event of termination without cause.

Indemnification Agreements

Under the Company's organizational documents, the Company's officers, employees and directors are indemnified against certain liabilities arising out of the performance of their duties. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Company that have not yet occurred. However, based on experience, the Company expects any risk of loss to be remote. The Company also has an insurance policy for its directors and officers to insure them against liabilities arising from the performance of their duties in their positions with the Company or its subsidiaries.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company pays a management fee to a certain member of the Company on an annual basis based on revenues. The Company made payments of management fees of $1,613,745 and $1,344,448 for services rendered during the year ended December 31, 2022 and for the period from inception (April 9, 2021) through December 31, 2021, respectively.

The Company provides call center and other management services to another franchisor that is under common ownership. Additionally, the Company incurs certain expenses on behalf of that related franchisor and bills them for costs incurred. Amounts charged for services performed during the year ended December 31, 2022 and for the period from inception (April 9, 2021) through December 31, 2021 amounted to $86,101 and $0, respectively, and are included in revenues. As of December 31, 2022 and 2021, accounts receivable due from this related party were $86,101 and $0, respectively.

8. Income Taxes

The benefit (provision) for income taxes consists of the following for the year ended December 31, 2022 and for the period from inception through December 31, 2021:

	2022	2021
Current:
Federal	$ 8,833	$ (121,208)
State	2,662	(21,112)
Total current	11,495	(142,320)
Deferred:
Federal	1,048,721	408,225
State	220,460	108,516
Total deferred	1,269,181	516,741
Total benefit (provision) for income taxes	$ 1,280,676	$ 374,421

Significant components of the Company's deferred income tax assets (liabilities) are as follows as of December 31:

	2022	2021
Deferred income tax assets (liabilities):
Intangible assets	$ (5,340,652)	$ (7,067,500)
Deferred costs	(62,708)	(17,109)
Fixed Assets	(35,068)	-
Deferred revenue	30,312	23,736
NOL carryforwards	290,452	708,542
Other	34,514	-
	$ (5,083,150)	$ (6,352,331)

Associated with the acquisition of Ringside Development Company, there were $27.5 million of identifiable intangible assets that were acquired. Ringside Development Company is structured as a C-Corporation for income tax purposes and thus is responsible for accruing the provision (benefit) for income taxes attributable to operations. This transaction was not a taxable transaction for income tax purposes and thus the tax liabilities associated with intangible assets are classified as permanent differences because they are not timing differences that will eventually be recognized in the tax return. This liability is recorded to accrue for the future tax effect that would occur if the intangible assets were to be recovered at the recorded carrying value as there is an assumption that all assets will be used in service or sold, thus a deferred tax liability is established to account for the future tax effect of recovery.

The benefit (provision) for income taxes attributable to income before benefit (provision) for income taxes differed from the amount obtained by applying the federal statutory income tax rate to income (loss) before income taxes due to tax rate adjustments, state taxes, prior period true-up, setting up the initial deferred tax assets, and use of a net operating loss carry back.

Note that for U.S. Federal income tax purposes, given the change in control that occurred pursuant to the acquisition of Five Star Connect, Inc. and Ringside Development Company, the Company's net operating loss carryforwards are subject to Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 382 which, as determined by IRC Section 382, the net operating loss carryforwards and tax credits generated as of the acquisition date may be limited in their annual usage in the future.

As the acquisitions that occurred in 2021 were structured as a stock purchase, the resulting definite-lived intangible assets recognized carried a tax basis of $0. Accordingly, the amortization expense recognized for U.S. GAAP purposes is not deductible for income tax purposes and is considered a permanent difference.

The Company has concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions requiring disclosure, and there are no material amounts of unrecognized tax benefits.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate to those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

(1) Description Of The Business

Ringside Development Company dba Bio-One, Inc. (the "Company"), an Arizona corporation, was incorporated on May 27, 2010. (2) Summary Of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principals generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties

The global community has been under a significant threat from coronavirus ("COVID-19"). The extent to which the COVID-19 pandemic impacts the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition will depend on future developments, which are still uncertain and cannot be predicted. Even after the COVID-19 pandemic has subsided, the Company may continue to experience adverse impacts to its business as a result of any economic recession or depression that has occurred or may occur in the future. Therefore, the Company cannot reasonably estimate the impact at this time.

Intangibles	Useful Life - Years

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company grants credit in the normal course of business to franchises in the United States. The Company periodically performs credit analysis and monitors the financial conduction of its franchises to reduce credit risk. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its franchises but generally does not require collateral to support accounts receivable.

The Company considers any franchise with a balance in excess of 10% of accounts receivable or revenue to be a concentration. There were no concentrations of accounts receivable or revenue for the years ended December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019.

Advertising Expenses

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. Such advertising is used to recruit qualified potential franchise candidates. Advertising expense for the years ended December 31, 2021, 2020 and 2019 was $29,485, $20,510 and $21,787, respectively.

Revenue and Revenue Recognition

Franchise Fees QSP Fees and Related Franchise Costs

Franchise fees paid by franchises are recognized as revenue when all performance obligations are satisfied and material services and conditions required to be performed by the Company have been substantially completed. This is generally when the franchise opens and commences operations. QSP fees are recognized when the start-up equipment has been shipped which is the point in time that the performance obligation is satisfied. Franchise fees collected by the Company before all material services and conditions are substantially performed are recorded as deferred revenue. These franchise fees are non-refundable except in certain circumstances.

Prepaid commissions and referral fees represent certain costs incurred to develop new franchises and are expensed when the related revenue is recognized, generally when the franchise commences operations.

Franchise Royalties

Pursuant to the current franchise agreements, franchises are required to pay royalty fees which are charged at the franchise level and determined based on a fixed 7% of monthly gross sales. If the minimum levels of revenues are not achieved, a fixed fee is charged. These fees are billed and recognized when earned on a monthly basis.

National Branding Fund

Under the terms of the franchise agreements, the Company may establish a National Branding Fund (the "Fund") and charge a fee of up to 2% of each franchises' gross receipts to pay for marketing costs that benefit multiple franchises. The Fund is used to promote the brand. Fund revenues and expenses are recognized in equal amounts as marketing expenses are incurred. Any amounts collected but unspent at the end of the year are recorded as deferred revenue on the balance sheet. Fees collected are deferred until a related expense has been incurred, at which time revenue is recognized.

Master Franchise Agreements/Area Director Marketing Agreements - License Fees

In the past, the Company offered area director marketing agreements that provided the area director a non-exclusive right to sell and open franchises in a defined geographic territory in the U.S. and required that the area director be responsible for advertising, soliciting, and screening prospective franchisees. The agreements stipulate a minimum number of new franchised locations to be opened each year. In addition, the area director was responsible for providing on-site opening assistance and providing quality assurance services to franchises in the defined area. The Company agreed to pay the area director a portion of the initial franchise fee as defined by the agreement for each new franchised location sold by the area director and 50% of the royalties received by the Company from each franchise within a defined area. The agreement was for a period of 10 years, with the option to extend for an additional 10 years after certain restrictive performance criteria are met. All franchised locations opened by the area director were required to pay the Quick Start Package ("QSP") fee, as defined in the agreement, to the Company. The license fee collected by the Company was recorded as deferred revenue and was recognized over the term of the area director marketing agreement, initially a period of 10 years. These agreements are no longer offered as of January 2018.

During the year ended December 31, 2021, the area director marketing agreement was terminated and the remaining license fee of $121,875 was fully recognized. As a condition of the termination and release agreement, a one time settlement payment of $175,000 was paid to the area director.

(3) Income Taxes

The Company recognizes deferred tax liabilities and assets based on the differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their reported amounts in the financial statements that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in future years.

The Company evaluates its tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions will more likely than not be sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not-threshold are not recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current year. Interest and penalties, if applicable, are recorded in the period assessed as general and administrative expenses. However, no interest or penalties have been assessed for the years ended December 31, 2021, 2020, and 2019.

The Company's temporary differences are comprised mainly of deferred revenue and deferred franchise costs. The Company's effective tax rate differs from the U.S. federal statutory tax rate due to a graduated federal tax rate adjustment, state taxes, and permanent differences.

(1) Description Of The Business

Ringside Development Company dba Bio-One, Inc. (the "Company"), an Arizona corporation, was incorporated on May 27, 2010. The following table summarizes the franchise activity for the Company's overall system for the year ended December 31, as follows:

	2020	2019	2018

Franchises at the end of year	105	90	74

(2) Summary Of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principals generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties

The global community has been under a significant threat from coronavirus ("COVID-19"). The extent to which the COVID-19 pandemic impacts the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition will depend on future developments, which are still uncertain and cannot be predicted. Even after the COVID-19 pandemic has subsided, the Company may continue to experience adverse impacts to its business as a result of any economic recession or depression that has occurred or may occur in the future. Therefore, the Company cannot reasonably estimate the impact at this time.

Cash and Restricted Cash

The Company continually monitors its positions with, and the credit quality of, the financial institutions with which it invests. As of the balance sheet date, and periodically throughout the year, the Company has maintained balances in accounts with financial institutions in excess of federally insured limits. As of December 31, 2020, the Company held deposits of $2,463,452 that exceeded federally insured limits.

Restricted cash relates to cash franchisees contribute to the Company's national branding fund. Cash contributed by franchisees to the national branding fund is to be used in accordance with the Franchise Disclosure Document with a focus on marketing and advertising.

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, cash includes cash on hand and demand deposit accounts. The Company considers all cash and other highly liquid investments with initial maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Company does not have any cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable consist of amounts due from franchises for various fees including royalties, support fees, branding fees, insurance, training, and expendable equipment. Interest and late fees may also be charged on overdue accounts. Accounts receivable are stated at net invoice amounts. The Company has not experienced significant losses related to receivables from individual franchises and believes all accounts to be collectible. Therefore, the Company has not provided an allowance for doubtful accounts for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2019, and 2018.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company grants credit in the normal course of business to franchises in the United States. The Company periodically performs credit analysis and monitors the financial conduction of its franchises to reduce credit risk. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its franchises but generally does not require collateral to support accounts receivable.

The Company considers any franchise with a balance in excess of 10% of accounts receivable or revenue to be a concentration. There were no concentrations of accounts receivable or revenue for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2019, and 2018.

Fair Value Measurements

The Company follows Fair Value Measurements, which among other things requires enhanced disclosures about investments that are measured and reported at fair value and establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under the standard are described below:

RINGSIDE DEVELOPMENT COMPANY DBA BIO-ONE, INC.

Notes To Financial Statements

- Level 1 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Company has the ability to access.
- Level 2 Inputs to the valuation methodology include:
- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
 - Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
 - Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

- Level 3 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value.

Life insurance policy: Valued at the cash surrender value as reported by the insurance company.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Company believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

In general, investments are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit and overall market volatility risk. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investments, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of the investments will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the investment balances and the amounts reported in the statement of financial position.

The carrying amount reported in the balance sheet for cash, accounts receivable, inventory, accrued liabilities and income taxes payable approximate fair value because of the immediate or short-term maturities of these financial instruments.

Advertising Expenses

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. Such advertising is used to recruit qualified potential franchise candidates. Advertising expense for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2019 and 2018 was $20,510, $21,787 and $23,791, respectively.

Revenue and Revenue Recognition

On January 1, 2019, the Company adopted Topic 606 and ASU 2014-09 Revenue from Contracts with Customers and all subsequent amendments to the ASU (collectively, "ASC 606").

Franchise Fees QSP Fees and Related Franchise Costs

Franchise fees paid by franchisees are recognized as revenue when all performance obligations are satisfied and material services and conditions required to be performed by the Company have been substantially completed. This is generally when the franchise opens and commences operations. QSP fees are recognized when the start-up equipment has been shipped which is the point in time that the performance obligation is satisfied. Franchise fees collected by the Company before all material services and conditions are substantially performed are recorded as deferred revenue. These franchise fees are non-refundable except in certain circumstances.

Prepaid commissions and referral fees represent certain costs incurred to develop new franchisees and are expensed when the related revenue is recognized, generally when the franchise commences operations.

Franchise Royalties

Pursuant to the current franchise agreements, franchisees are required to pay royalty fees which are charged at the franchise level and determined based on a fixed 7% of monthly gross sales. If the minimum levels of revenues are not achieved, a fixed fee is charged. These fees are billed and recognized when earned on a monthly basis.

National Branding Fund

Under the terms of the franchise agreements, the Company may establish a National Branding Fund (the "Fund") and charge a fee of up to 2% of each franchisees' gross receipts to pay for marketing costs that benefit multiple franchisees. The Fund is used to promote the brand. Fund revenues and expenses are recognized in equal amounts as marketing expenses are incurred. Any amounts collected but unspent at the end of the year are recorded as deferred revenue on the balance sheet. Fees collected are deferred until a related expense has been incurred, at which time revenue is recognized.

Master Franchise Agreements/Area Director Marketing Agreements - License Fees

In the past, the Company offered area director marketing agreements that provided the area director a non-exclusive right to sell and open franchises in a defined geographic territory in the U.S. and required that the area director be responsible for advertising, soliciting, and screening prospective franchisees. The agreements stipulate a minimum number of new franchised locations to be opened each year. In addition, the area director was responsible for providing on-site opening assistance and providing quality assurance services to franchises in the defined area. The Company agreed to pay the area director a portion of the initial franchise fee as defined by the agreement for each new franchised location sold by the area director and 50% of the royalties received by the Company from each franchise within a defined area. The agreement was for a period of 10 years, with the option to extend for an additional 10 years after certain restrictive performance criteria are met. All franchised locations opened by the area director were required to pay the Quick Start Package ("QSP") fee, as defined in the agreement, to the Company. The license fee collected by the Company was recorded as deferred revenue and is recognized over the term of the area director marketing agreement, initially a period of 10 years. These agreements are no longer offered as of January 2018.

Shipping and Handling

Costs associated with the shipping and handling of the Company's product are included in general and administrative expenses.

Subsequent Events

The Company has performed an evaluation of subsequent events through March 24, 2021, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and has considered any relevant matters in the preparation of the financial statements and footnotes.

(3) Income Taxes

The Company recognizes deferred tax liabilities and assets based on the differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their reported amounts in the financial statements that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in future years.

The Company evaluates its tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions will more likely than not be sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not-threshold are not recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current year. Interest and penalties, if applicable, are recorded in the period assessed as general and administrative expenses. However, no interest or penalties have been assessed for the years ended December 31, 2020, 2019, and 2018.

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act ("Tax Act") was signed into law on December 22, 2017. The Tax Act includes significant changes to the U.S. corporate income tax system, including a federal corporate rate reduction from 35% to 21%; limitations in the deductibility of interest expense and executive compensation; eliminating the corporate alternative minimum tax("AMT") and changing how existing AMT credits can be realized; changing the rules related to uses and limitations of net operating loss carryforwards created in tax years beginning after December 31, 2017; and the transition of U.S. international taxation from a worldwide tax systems to a territorial tax system.

The Company's temporary differences are comprised mainly of deferred revenue and deferred franchise costs. The Company's effective tax rate differs from the U.S. federal statutory tax rate due to a graduated federal tax rate adjustment, state taxes, and permanent differences.

Components of income tax expense (benefit) reflected on the statements of operations are as follows:

Current	$ 628,724	$ 4,906	$ 204,374
Deferred	(22,089)	26,361	(26,802)
	$ 606,635	$ 31,267	$ 177,572

The Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal tax audits on its Form 1120 by taxing authorities for years ending prior to December 31, 2017. The Company is no longer subject to state tax audits on its Arizona Form 120 and Colorado Form 112 state tax returns by taxing authorities for years ending prior to December 31, 2016. The years subsequent to this year contain matters that could be subject to differing interpretations of applicable tax laws and regulations. Although the outcome of tax audits is uncertain, the Company believes no issues would arise.

(4) Investments

The Company considers the life insurance policies of its owners and franchise owners to be a Level 3 investment measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2020.

Following is the reconciliation of its Level 3 investment as of December 31:

	2020	2019	2018
Beginning balance	$ 312,462	$ 170,956	$ 90,903
Purchase of investment	125,214	98,948	75,343
Increase in surrender value	45,338	42,558	4,710
Ending balance	$ 483,014	$ 312,462	$ 170,956

The fair value of the life insurance policies is based upon the cash surrender value, which is the cash amount that would be offered to the Company from the issuing life carrier upon cancellation of the contract. Management believes that the sensitivity in the fair value measurement of the life insurance is related to market fluctuations, as the investments held in the life insurance are primarily marketable securities.

In 2016, the Company amended the Plan to add a 3% employer safe-harbor contribution to be effective January 1, 2017. Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2019

Note 1 - Description of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Ringside Development Company dba Bio-One Inc. (the "Company"), an Arizona corporation, was incorporated on May 27, 2010. On March 24, 2016, the Company registered as a foreign corporation in Colorado as Bio-One Colorado, Inc. The Company is engaged in the business of franchising Bio-One franchises across the United States. Bio-One provides crime and trauma scene services.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents as of December 31, 2019, 2018, and 2017. The Company continually ~~monitors its positions with, and the credit quality of, the financial institutions with which it invests. As of the balance sheet~~ date, and periodically throughout the year, the Company has maintained balances in various operating accounts in excess of federally insured limits of 250,000.

Restricted Cash

The Company established and has collected contributions for a National Branding Fund pursuant to the Franchise Disclosure Document and individual franchise agreements, which are segregated in a separate bank account.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable primarily consist of amounts due from franchisees for royalties and National Branding Fund fees earned by the Company but not yet collected as well as unbilled miscellaneous billings for items such as insurance, training, and expendable equipment. Interest and late fees may also be charged on overdue accounts. An account is considered past due based on stated invoice terms. The Company has not experienced significant losses related to receivables from individual franchisees and believes all accounts to be collectible. Therefore, the Company has not provided an allowance for uncollectible accounts as of December 31, 2019, 2018, and 2017.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company grants credit in the normal course of business to franchisees in the United States. The Company periodically performs credit analysis and monitors the financial condition of its franchisees to reduce credit risk. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its franchisees but generally does not require collateral to support accounts receivable.

The Company considers any franchisee with a balance in excess of 10% of accounts receivable or revenue to be a concentration. There were no concentrations of accounts receivable or revenue as of and for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided utilizing the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives for owned assets and the shorter of the estimated economic life or related lease terms for leasehold improvements. Construction in progress is included in property and equipment. These assets begin depreciating when placed in service.

Life Insurance Policies

The Company has recorded the amount that would be realized upon discontinuance and surrender of various insurance contracts for franchise owners and employees as a non-current asset. Premiums paid and changes in the net cash surrender value are recorded in operating expenses. Variations between individual contracts are minimal.

Income Taxes

The Company recognizes deferred tax liabilities and assets based on the differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their reported amounts in the financial statements that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in future years.

The Company evaluates its tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions will more likely than not be sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold are not recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current year. Interest and penalties, if applicable, are recorded in the period assessed as general and administrative expenses. However, no interest or penalties have been assessed as of December 31, 2019, 2018, and 2017.

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act ("Tax Act") was signed into law on December 22, 2017. The Tax Act includes significant changes to the U.S. corporate income tax system, including a federal corporate rate reduction from 35% to 21%; limitations on the deductibility of interest expense and executive compensation; eliminating the corporate alternative minimum tax ("AMT") and changing how existing AMT credits can be realized; changing the rules related to uses and limitations of net operating loss carryforwards created in tax years beginning after December 31, 2017; and the transition of U.S. international taxation from a worldwide tax system to a territorial tax system.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1 - Description of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

As a result of the reduction in the federal tax rate, the Company is required to revalue its ending deferred tax liabilities and assets as of December 31, 2017, as well as evaluate whether a valuation allowance is needed for deferred tax assets. The impact of the change in federal tax rate is included in income tax expense (benefit) on the statements of operations. During the year ended December 31, 2017, approximately $44,000 of the change in deferred tax asset on the balance sheets and the related income tax expense (benefit) on the statements of operations was due to the change in the federal statutory rate.

Shipping and Handling

Costs associated with the shipping and handling of the Company's product are included in general and administrative expenses.

Franchise Operations

The Company enters into franchise agreements with unrelated third parties to build and operate crime scene clean-up companies using the Bio-One brand. The franchisees are required to operate their companies in compliance with their franchise agreements, which includes adherence to operating and quality control procedures established by the Company.

As of January 1st of 2019, 2018, and 2017, the number of franchised locations was 74, 50, and 24, respectively. As of December 31st of 2019, 2018, and 2017, the number of franchised locations was 95, 74, and 50, respectively.

Initial Franchise Fees and Related Franchise Costs

Initial franchise fees paid by franchisees are recognized as revenue when all material services and conditions required to be performed by the Company have been substantially completed, which is generally when the franchise commences operations. Initial franchise fees collected by the Company before all material services and conditions are substantially performed are recorded as deferred franchise revenue. These franchise fees are non-refundable except in certain circumstances. In 2016, the Company determined that the Federal Trade Commission could potentially assert that the Company was out of compliance with certain Federal Trade Commission requirements for franchisors. No such assertion was ultimately made by the Federal Trade Commission. Regardless, the Company offered all current franchisees as of November 2016 the opportunity to rescind their franchise agreement in exchange for a refund of their initial franchise fee. During the year ended December 31, 2017, the Company paid $156,541 in rescissions fees, which are presented as a reduction of total revenues on the statements of operations. In conjunction with the rescissions, for franchisees that chose not to rescind, the Company offered a one percentage point discount in royalty payments and a 20% discount on other purchased goods from the Company for the year ended December 31, 2017.

Deferred franchise costs represent certain costs incurred to develop new franchises and are expensed when the related revenue is recognized, generally when the franchise commences operations. Franchise costs will not be deferred in excess of the amount to be recognized.

License Fees

License fees provide third parties the right to use the Company's brand over an agreed-upon term. License fees collected by the Company are recorded as deferred franchise fee revenue and recognized ratably over the term. These license fees are non-refundable.

Area Director Marketing Agreements

In the past, the Company offered area director marketing agreements that provided the area director a non-exclusive right to sell and open franchises in a defined geographic territory in the U.S. and required that the area director be responsible for advertising, soliciting, and screening prospective franchisees. The agreements stipulate a minimum number of new franchised locations to be opened each year. In addition, the area director was responsible for providing on-site opening assistance and providing quality assurance services to franchisees in the defined area. The Company agreed to pay the area director a portion of the initial franchise fee as defined by the agreement for each new franchised location sold by the area director and 50% of the royalties received by the Company from each franchise within the defined area. The agreement was for a period of 10 years, with the option to extend for an additional 10 years after certain restrictive performance criteria are met. All franchised locations opened by the area director were required to pay the Quick Start Package ("QSP") fee, as defined in the agreement, to the Company. The Company agreed that it would defer revenue associated with the area director marketing agreement, recognizing it ratably over the term of the agreements. These agreements are no longer offered as of January of 2018.

QSP Revenues

In some instances, franchisees are required by the Company to purchase from the Company an intimal package of equipment, tools, and supplies needed to open a franchised location. This package of equipment is described as a QSP. The revenue from the sale of a QSP is recognized by the Company when the QSP is shipped to franchisees.

Franchise Royalties

Pursuant to the various franchise agreements, U.S. franchisees are required to pay the Company royalties based on a percentage of sales of 7%, which are recognized when earned.

National Branding Fund

Under the terms of the standard franchise agreement, the Company may establish a National Branding Fund (the "Fund") and charge a fee of up to 2% of each franchisee's gross receipts to pay for marketing costs that benefit multiple franchisees. The Fund is used to promote the brand. Fund revenues and expenses are recognized in equal amounts as marketing expenses are incurred. Any amounts collected but unspent at the end of the year are recorded as deferred revenue - marketing fees on the accompanying balance sheets. The Company recognizes national branding fees collected as deferred revenue - marketing fees until a related expense has been incurred, at which time revenue is recognized. The Company records related advertising expenses as they are incurred.

Accounting Pronouncements issued but Not Yet Adopted or Currently in Effect Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606)

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), which is a comprehensive new revenue recognition standard that will supersede existing revenue recognition guidance. The core principle of the guidance is that an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customer in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. FASB issued ASU 2015-14 that deferred the effective date for the Company until annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018 which is December 31, 2019. Earlier adoption is permitted subject to certain limitations. The amendments in this update are required to be applied retrospectively to each prior reporting period presented or with the cumulative effect being recognized at the date of initial application. The Company has implemented the comprehensive new revenue standard.

In November 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-17, Income Taxes (Topic 740), Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes. The amendments under the new guidance require that deferred tax liabilities and assets be classified as non-current in a classified statement of financial position. The guidance is effective for financial statements issued for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017, and interim period within those annual periods. The amendments in this ASU may be applied either prospectively to all deferred tax liabilities and assets or retrospectively to all periods presented. The Company adopted this guidance effective December 31, 2017 on a retrospective basis.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated all subsequent events through the auditors' report date, which is the date the financial statement were available to be issued. There were no material subsequent events that required recognition or additional disclosure in these financial statements.

Note 2: Income Taxes

The Company's temporary differences are comprised mainly of deferred revenue and deferred franchise costs. The Company's effective tax rate differs from the U.S. federal statutory tax rate due to a graduated federal tax rate adjustment, state taxes, and permanent differences.

Components of income tax expense (benefit) reflected on the statements of operations are as follows:

Current	$ 4,906	$ 204,374	$ 26,057
Deferred	26,361	(26,802)	103,845

Litigation

In the normal course of business, the Company may be party to litigation. The Company has not been party to any litigation as of the auditors' report date, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued. The Company maintains insurance to cover certain actions.

Note 4: Employee Benefit Plan

Effective January 1, 2015, the Company adopted the Ringside Development Company Profit Sharing Plan (the "Plan") to provide retirement benefits for its employees. The Plan provides for employee elective deferrals and discretionary employer profit sharing contributions. In 2016, the Company amended the Plan to add a 3% employer safe-harbor contribution to be effective January 1, 2017. The total profit sharing contribution to the Plan for the year ended December 31, 2019 was $140,713, of which $119,383 was contributed to the Plan, and $21,330 was payable as of December 31, 2019.

SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

The Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer-reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender

- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.

However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer-reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer-reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need --usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.
