WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT FRANCHISING GENERALLY

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The Area Representative Agreement may allow the Franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the Franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the Franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The Area Representative Agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from Franchisor. Even if the Area Representative Agreement grants you a Territory, the Franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your Territory.

Renewal. Your Area Representative Agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The Area Representative Agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

SOME STATES REQUIRE REGISTRATION

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires Franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit C.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your Area Representative Agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The Area Representative Agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the Franchisor by mediation, arbitration, and/or litigation only in Virginia. Out-of-State mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement to disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the Franchisor in Virginia than in your own state.
2. Minimum Development Schedule. The Area Representative Agreement requires an area representative to ensure that a minimum number of franchises are opened and continue operating in the franchised territory according to a schedule that is part of the Area Representative Agreement. Failure to open or maintain the minimum number of franchises required under the development schedule may result in termination of the area representative agreement and loss of the franchised territory.
3. Short Operating History. The Franchisor is at an early stage of development and has a limited operating history. This franchise is likely to be a riskier investment than a franchise in a system with a longer operating history.
4. Financial Condition. The Franchisor's financial condition as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21) calls into question the Franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.
5. Litigation History. The litigation history of certain members of the management team may increase the risk of your investment. You may wish to further review the litigation history, whether or not it has been required to be disclosed in the FDD.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted, Check the "State Specific Addenda" to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

Industry-Specific Laws and Regulations

The offer of a franchises is primarily governed by Federal Trade Commission regulation and corresponding state laws. These laws generally require that a prospective franchisee receive a Franchise Disclosure Document at least fourteen (14) calendar days before signing of a binding agreement or making any payment. Franchisor is responsible for the preparation and related costs of the Franchise Disclosure Document that a Franchise Seller or Area Representative must give to a prospective franchisee. As an Area Representative, you may not solicit, and Franchisor will not offer, a franchise opportunity in any franchise registration state until we have an effective registration in the respective state.

In addition, certain states have laws governing the sale of franchises and the relationship between Franchisors and franchisees. In general, as to state franchise sales laws, we must engage in truthful advertising and avoid making false claims or financial performance representations, except as stated in the Franchise Disclosure Document.

Typically, state relationship laws mandate fair dealing between a Franchisor and franchisee, require that a franchisee not be terminated or otherwise lose rights as a franchisee absent good cause, and require that reasonable standards be applied in determining whether to approve the sale or transfer of an existing franchise to a new franchise owner.

Under certain state laws (Illinois, New York, and Washington State) you may be required to register as a franchise broker before you may offer or sell franchises to residents of those states or as to a territory located in those states.

At the current time there are no known Federal laws or regulations specific to pet grooming and pet care industries. We recommend that you consult with your attorney regarding the application of any State or local laws or regulations regarding pet grooming and pet care industries, including, without limitation, State licensing requirements.

You should investigate the application of these laws further.

The Business We Offer

You may enter into an Area Representative Agreement in the form attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit B (the “Area Representative Agreement” or “Franchise Agreement”) to develop and operate a Zoomin Groomin business (an “Area Representative Business” or “Franchised Business”) within a designated Area Representative Territory. You (the “Area Representative”) will find, solicit, and recruit prospective franchisees on our behalf to operate a unit franchise outlet (each a “Unit Franchisee”) within a designated territory (each a “Unit Territory”) using the Zoomin Groomin® model (“System”) within your Area Representative Territory. Our unit franchise opportunity is offered through a separate disclosure document and involves delivering pet grooming services and related products (collectively “Services”) from a mobile outlet (“Vehicle”) in an exclusive territory. The Area Representative Agreement conveys no right to deliver the Services or otherwise operate a unit franchised business, which is exclusively reserved to Unit Franchisees.

As Area Representative, you will find, solicit, and recruit Unit Franchisees within the Area Representative Territory and then support each Unit Franchisee by providing marketing and operating assistance. The Unit Franchisees will serve all customers within their territory, and you will not have management control over their sales or operations. As an Area Representative, subject to the terms of your Area Representative Agreement, you will receive the following compensation from us:

Franchise Fee Compensation – For each Unit Franchise that we authorize and approve for development and operation within your designated Area Representative Territory during the initial term of your Area Representative Agreement we will pay to you a one-time payment / amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the “Net Initial Franchise Fee” that is unconditionally paid to us and received by us (the “Franchise Fee Compensation”).

The Net Initial Franchise Fee is calculated by taking the initial franchise fee paid by a prospect purchasing a Unit Territory within your Area Representative Territory (each a “Unit Franchisee”) and then deducting any brokerage and certain other fees that are imposed, paid, or owed by us. For example, if a $40,000 initial fee is paid to us by a Unit Franchisee and the Unit Franchisee was introduced to you or us by a broker with a $20,000 referral fee, the Net Initial Franchise Fee would be $20,000, and you would receive $10,000 (50% of the $20,000 Net Initial Franchise Fee). Certain other fees are incurred solely by you and are not accounted for when calculating the Net Initial Franchise Fee. For example, if you used our internal sales team on the same deal, you would only receive $5,000, because the Internal Sales Fee is solely incurred by you ($10,000 minus the Internal Sales Fee) (See Item 6 for further details on fees imposed). The Franchise Fee Compensation will vary by deal. Further, you will not receive any Franchise Fee Compensation until after the Unit Franchise fee is unconditionally paid to us and received by us.

Royalty Compensation – For each Unit Franchise that is developed and first opened within your Area Representative Territory during the initial term of your Area Representative Agreement, we will pay to you fifty percent (50%) of the net royalty fees paid to us by each Unit Franchisee for unit outlets located within your Area Representative Territory, during the initial term of your Area Representative Agreement and, if applicable, the renewal term of your Area Representative Agreement (the “Royalty Compensation”).

The Royalty Compensation is calculated based on net royalty fees paid to us from authorized franchisees of Unit Franchises with Zoomin Groomin approved Unit Franchise designated territories located within your Area Representative Territory. The Royalty Compensation does not include and is not calculated based on any other fees paid to us from Unit Franchisees including, without limitation, brand development fund fees, renewal fees, transfer fees, training fees, technology fees, interest fees, audit fees, attorney fees, or any other fees paid to us or our affiliates by Unit Franchisees.

As an Area Representative you are not be authorized to sign any documents on our behalf or on behalf of the System. You will refer all qualified franchisee candidates to us and we may, in our sole and absolute discretion, determine whether or not we approve or disapprove of each respective franchisee candidate. If we reject a franchisee candidate or elect to not enter into a Unit Franchise Agreement with a franchisee candidate, you will not receive any compensation. As an Area Representative, as to your Area Representative Territory and Unit Franchisees located within your Area Representative Territory, you will have the following on-going responsibilities, all subject to our then current standards, specifications, and requirements: (a) to solicit, screen, and recruit franchisee candidates that meet our qualifications and requirements; (b) to refer qualified franchisee candidates to us; (c) to provide on-going operational support and training support to franchisees in accordance with our System; (d) to provide marketing assistance in accordance with our System; (e) to conduct recurring performance and quality control assessments; and (f) to monitor and maintain franchisee relations.

As an Area Representative you will be responsible for complying with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations related to the offer and sale of franchises including the proper disclosure of our Unit Franchise Disclosure Document, the disclosure and registration of your activities as a franchise seller, and adherence to all laws, rules, and regulations related to the offer and sale of franchises.

Market and Competition.

These customers are typically either business professionals, pet industry veterans, or individuals with a passion for pets. The general market for mobile pet grooming is highly developed and very competitive. The primary competition for Unit Franchisees are local, regional,

Area Representatives will face competition from comes other franchisors, franchise brokers, and other Area Representatives who also recruit individuals looking to purchase franchise opportunities similar to the Unit Franchise Offering.

Pending Actions:

There are no pending actions.

Concluded Actions:

JTH Tax LLC d/b/a Liberty Tax Service v. John T. Hewitt, Loyalty LLC, ATAX LLC, ATAX Franchise, Inc. and Yneva Marte (Case No.2:21-cv-00076-RBS-LRL) filed February 4, 2021 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. Plaintiff filed the action alleging that ATAX franchisees maintained signage that is confusingly similar to trade dress and logos of the plaintiff. The Plaintiff also alleges that Mr. Hewitt tortiously interfered with certain contractual relations by discussing with existing and former franchisees of the Plaintiff opportunities at ATAX. The complaint alleges that Mr. Hewitt breached his employment agreement by sharing and using trade secrets, confidential and proprietary information for his own benefit or the benefit of a third party by convincing existing and prospective franchisees of the Plaintiff to leave and instead open ATAX franchises. Lastly, the complaint alleges that Mr. Hewitt engaged in a conspiracy to unfairly compete against and damage Liberty Tax by convincing customers and prospective customers to pick ATAX over Liberty Tax. Plaintiffs sought $20 million in actual damages, treble damages, costs, and legal fees along with injunctive relief. The Defendants have denied the allegations. The matter was settled on December 31, 2021. Under the Settlement Agreement, Defendants agreed to pay the Plaintiff $545,000 over 6 years, and to refrain from: (1) unfairly competing with Liberty Tax by tortiously interfering with its franchise agreements; (2) diverting or attempting to interfere with or divert any leases from Liberty; (3) palming off any of ATAX's products or services as those of Liberty; (4) any action or statement that could reasonably cause likelihood of confusion that any ATAX location is associated with Liberty; (5) possessing, misappropriating, using or disclosing Liberty's confidential information; and (6) accessing any of Liberty's computer systems or databases. ATAX agreed to permanently close three specific ATAX locations and use their best efforts to assign leases for those locations to Liberty. The Court retained jurisdiction to enforce the final consent order.

Rose Mauro, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated v. Liberty Tax, Inc. Edward L. Brunot, John T. Hewitt, and Kathleen Donovan, (Case No. 18 CV 245) filed on January 12, 2018 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. Plaintiff filed a securities class action asserting violations of Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 against all defendants and a second count for violations of Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act against the individual defendants. According to the complaint, throughout the class period, Liberty Tax, Inc. allegedly issued materially false and misleading statements and/or failed to disclose that: (1) Hewitt created an inappropriate tone at the top; (2) the inappropriate tone at the top led to ineffective entity level controls over the organization; and (3) as a result, defendants' statements about the operations and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times. This case was consolidated with the Patrick Beland matter listed below and then further information on this case is reported below under the caption In Re: Liberty Tax, Inc., Securities Litigation Case No. 27 CV 07327 (E.D.N.Y.).

Patrick Beland, individually and on behalf of all others, similarly, situated v. Liberty Tax, Inc., Edward L. Brunot, John T. Hewitt, and Kathleen E. Donovan, (Case No. 17 CV 7327) filed on December 15, 2017 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. Plaintiff filed a securities class action asserting violations of Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 against all defendants and a second count for violations of Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act against the individual defendants. According to the complaint, throughout the class period, Liberty Tax, Inc. allegedly issued materially false and misleading statements and/or failed to disclose that: (1) Hewitt created an inappropriate tone at the top; (2) the inappropriate tone at the top led to ineffective entity level controls over the organization; and (3) as a result, defendants' statements about the business, operations and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

The two above referenced shareholder actions were consolidated under the caption In Re: Liberty Tax, Inc., Securities Litigation, (Case No. 27 CV 07327) (E.D.N.Y.). On June 12, 2018, the Lead Plaintiff, IBEW Local 98 Pension Fund, filed its Consolidated Class Action Amended Complaint, which removed Ed Brunot as a defendant and added additional securities claim based on Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act and Rules 14-a3 and 14a-9. The Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint, among other things, asserted that LT Inc.'s SEC filings over a multi-year period failed to disclose the alleged misconduct of the individual defendants and that disclosure of the alleged misconduct caused LT Inc.'s stock price to drop and, thereby harm the purported class of shareholders. The Class Period is alleged to be October 1, 2013 through February 23, 2018. The defendants filed a joint motion to dismiss the Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint on September 17, 2018. The Lead Plaintiff served their opposition on November 1, 2018 and the defendants filed their reply brief on November 27, 2018. A mediation took place on November 12, 2018 but did not result in a resolution. On January 16, 2020, the case was dismissed for failure to state a claim. The Plaintiff filed a Notice of Appeal on February 19, 2020. The dismissal was affirmed on appeal.

Kenneth Martin et al. v JTH Tax, Inc. d/b/a Liberty Tax Service, John Hewitt and Danny Hewitt, (Case No. 9:10-3016-CWH) filed on November 22, 2010 in the U.S. District Court for the District of South Carolina. The plaintiffs, former clients of two Liberty Tax franchised offices, filed suit claiming that, pursuant to a plan or scheme, JTH fraudulently increased their tax refunds when preparing their income tax returns. The plaintiffs brought the case as a class action seeking to represent all Liberty Tax customers that were charged additional fees for the filing of schedules or forms which accompanied a federal income tax return, but the Court denied class action status in February 2013. The plaintiffs also brought a RICO claim against John and Danny Hewitt individually, a breach of contract claim against us, a breach of fiduciary duty claim against us, and an unjust enrichment claim against all defendants. The plaintiffs sought at least $5,000,000 in actual damages, treble damages under the RICO claim, punitive damages against us, restitution against all defendants, reasonable attorney's fees, accountants' fees, experts' fees, costs, and an incentive payment to the class representatives.

In January 2011, JTH filed an answer denying these claims and filed third-party claims against Annie Fuller, a former Liberty Tax franchisee, claiming that she had committed defamation by providing false information to the plaintiffs' attorneys and possibly others about JTH, breached her franchise agreement and a purchase and sale agreement, and that she owed indemnity. JTH also asked for declaratory judgment finding that, as a result of Fuller's breaches, it had no further duty to pay sums to her from a purchase and sale agreement and should be refunded monies already paid. On May 31, 2011, Fuller filed a counterclaim against JTH alleging that JTH breached a purchase and sale agreement, breached the purchase and sale agreement with a fraudulent intent, violated the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, and breached her franchise agreement. Fuller sued for unspecified damages, costs, and attorney's fees. JTH denied the allegations. The Court granted summary judgment for Danny Hewitt on all claims and for John Hewitt on unjust enrichment. In June 2013, the plaintiffs and Liberty settled all remaining matters in controversy with Liberty agreeing to pay the plaintiffs $300,000. The plaintiffs signed releases and, on June 28, 2013, all claims were dismissed with prejudice. In May 2013, both Fuller and Liberty dismissed their claims without prejudice.

K&A Publicidad, Inc. v. JTH Tax, Inc., d/b/a Liberty Tax Service, Liberty Tax, Inc. d/b/a Siempre Tax and John Hewitt, (Case No. CL17-4169), filed on September 5, 2017 in the Virginia Beach Circuit Court. Plaintiff is a company owned and controlled by Kirke Franz Szawronski. Plaintiff alleges that it entered into a contract with Liberty to provide promotional and strategic relationship services to help grow the SiempreTax brand. Plaintiff alleged that defendants breached the contract for failure to pay for services and seeks damages. This matter, along with the Kirke Franz Szawronski matter described below, settled on January 26, 2019, with Liberty agreeing to pay plaintiff $50,000 to settle both matters, in exchange for a release.

Kirke Franz Szawronski v. JTH Tax, Inc., d/b/a Liberty Tax Service, Liberty Tax, Inc., d/b/a Siempre Tax and John Hewitt, (Case No. CL17-4170), filed on September 5, 2017 in the Virginia Beach Circuit Court. Plaintiff was a former employee and filed a lawsuit claiming breach of employment agreement with Plaintiff by failing to pay 6-months' severance. Plaintiff also asserted a claim for defamation. This matter, along with the KK&A Publicidad, Inc. matter described above, settled on January 26, 2019, with Liberty agreeing to pay plaintiff $50,000 to settle both matters, in exchange for a release.

Asbestos Workers' Philadelphia Pension Fund, derivatively on behalf of Liberty Tax, Inc., v. John Hewitt. Defendant, and Liberty Tax, Inc., Nominal Defendant, (Case No. 2017-0883), filed on December 12, 2017 in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware. Plaintiff alleged that Liberty's former CEO, John T. Hewitt ("Hewitt"), breached his fiduciary duties as an officer based upon certain allegations of misconduct on his part. The Plaintiff also alleged breach of fiduciary duty against Hewitt in his capacity as a director of LT Inc. The Complaint sought compensatory damages and attorney's fees. On December 27, 2017, this action was consolidated with the Erie County matter described just below and then continued under the caption In Re: Liberty Tax, Inc. Stockholder Litigation.

Erie County Employees Retirement. System, on behalf of Liberty Tax, Inc. v. John T. Hewitt. Defendant, and Liberty Tax, Inc. Nominal Defendant, Case No. 2017-0914, was filed the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware on December 22, 2017. Plaintiff also alleged that Hewitt breached his fiduciary duties as an officer based upon certain allegations of misconduct on his part. The Plaintiff also alleged breach of fiduciary duty against Hewitt in his capacity as a director of LT Inc. The Complaint sought to enjoin Hewitt from managing LT's business operations and seeks compensatory damages and attorney's fees. On December 27, 2017, this action was consolidated with another action into In Re: Liberty Tax, Inc. Stockholder Litigation (see below).

On December 27, 2017, the two above referenced shareholder matters were consolidated with the caption In Re: Liberty Tax, Inc. Stockholder Litigation, (Case No. 2017-0883). The Complaint asserted claims for breach of fiduciary duty and breach of fiduciary duty by violation of the nominating committee charter. A mediation took place on November 12, 2018 but did not result in a resolution. On March 15, 2019, the parties entered into a stipulation of settlement of which the material terms of the settlement are as follows: (i) Liberty Tax agreed to implement an anti-harassment policy; (ii) Liberty Tax will conduct yearly code of conduct training; (iii) Liberty Tax will terminate for cause any employee who violates the anti-harassment policy that has been substantiated as such; (iv) Liberty Tax will revise its audit committee charter to reflect that SEC filings must be pre-approved by the Audit Committee; (v) Liberty Tax will take reasonable steps to be listed on NASDAQ or NYSE; (vi) Hewitt agrees not to solicit company employees; and (vii) No party admits any liability. On June 28, 2019, the Court of Chancery approved a Derivative and Class Action Settlement. All issues have been resolved and the Delaware derivative actions were dismissed with prejudice in 2019 without any finding of liability on the part of the Defendants.

RSL Senior Partners, LLC, derivatively and on behalf of Liberty Tax, Inc. v Brunot et al, (Case No. 2:18-cv-00127-HCM-DEM), filed on March 7, 2018, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. This purported shareholder derivative action was filed on behalf of LT Inc. seeking to address the alleged wrongs of LT Inc.'s directors and officers. The Complaint claimed that certain conduct created an inappropriate tone at the top, resulting in the loss of key executives, employees, directors and otherwise harmed LT Inc. The Complaint asserted claims under Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5 and Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, breach of fiduciary duty, unjust enrichment, abuse of control, gross mismanagement, and waste of corporate assets. The Complaint sought the following relief: (a) declaring that the Plaintiff may maintain this action on behalf of LT Inc., and that the Plaintiff is an adequate representative of LT Inc.; (b) declaring that the Individual Defendants have breached and/or aided and abetted the breach of their fiduciary duties to LT Inc.; (c) determining and awarding to LT Inc. the damages sustained by it as a result of the violations set forth above from each of the Individual Defendants, jointly and severally, together with pre-judgment and post-judgment interest thereon; (d) directing LT Inc. and the Individual Defendants to take all necessary actions to reform and improve its corporate governance and internal procedures to comply with applicable laws and to protect LT Inc. and its shareholders from a repeat of the damaging events (e) awarding LT Inc. restitution from Individual Defendants; and (f) awarding the Plaintiff the costs and disbursements of the action, including reasonable attorneys' and experts' fees, costs, and expenses. The parties to this action have agreed that all claims have been settled and agreed to dismiss the action within five business days of the In Re: Liberty Tax, Inc. Stockholder Litigation action in Delaware Chancery Court becoming final. On September 11, 2019, the Court conducted a hearing for approval of the settlement and for attorney's fees. On September 12, 2019, the Court found the shareholder notice to be adequate and in compliance with the requirements of rule 23.1(c). The Court approved the settlement ordered in the In Re: Liberty Tax, Inc. Stockholder Litigation which incorporated the Plaintiff's claims in this action and approved the $295,000 in attorneys' fees, including the case contribution award of $2,000 to Plaintiff. This matter was dismissed with prejudice.

Bablu Shahabuddin v. JTH Tax, Inc., Siempre Tax, and John Hewitt, (Case No. 2:18-cv-00016-MDS-DEM) filed on January 11, 2018 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. The plaintiff filed suit which, as amended, claimed that JTH Tax and Siempre Tax failed to pay to him certain monies owed under various Purchase and Sale Agreements, that a constructive trust should be imposed on certain monies received by Liberty Tax and Siempre for the subsequent sale of those territories, that the defendants committed fraud in the inducement, and that Hewitt orally guaranteed the Purchase and Sale obligations. Shahabuddin sued for $600,000 in compensatory damages, $350,000 in punitive damages, plus pre-judgment and post-judgment interest. The parties reached a settlement of all claims whereby JTH Tax paid $775,000 and a portion of certain upcoming Net Revenue at offices previously owned by the plaintiff to him. The case was dismissed on November 14, 2018.

Governmental Actions Against John T. Hewitt:

In the Matter of a Consent Order between The Commissioner of Financial Protection and Innovation and John T. Hewitt, before the Commissioner of Financial Protection and Innovation for the State of California. The Commissioner is the head of the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation (Department) and is responsible for administering and enforcing the Franchise Investment Law (FIL) (Corp. Code, § 31000 et seq.), The Commissioner has determined pursuant to her authority under the FIL that John T. Hewitt is "subject to" the Final entered in the matter of United States of America v. Franchise Group Intermediate L 1, LLC d/b/a Liberty Tax Service (Case No. 2:19-cv-00653-RAJ-DEM) filed on or around December 3, 2019 in the United States District Court for the Eastern 25 District of Virginia (the Final Order). John T. Hewitt agreed that he is required to disclose the Final Order in Item 3 of any Franchise Disclosure Document filed by any present or future Franchisor where John T. Hewitt is a director, trustee, general partner, principal officer, or maintains management responsibility relating to the sale or operation of the respective Franchisor, along with disclosure of this governmental action.

Governmental Actions against Unrelated Entities:

United States of America v. Franchise Group Intermediate L 1, LLC d/b/a Liberty Tax Service, (Case No. 2:19-cv-00653-RAJ-DEM) filed on or around December 3, 2019 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. The Department of Justice (DOJ) filed a complaint asserting that Liberty Tax failed to maintain adequate controls over the tax returns prepared by its franchisees and failed to take steps to prevent the filing of potentially false or fraudulent returns prepared by its franchises despite notice of fraud at some of its franchisee stores. The primary focus of the DOJ's investigation that preceded the complaint related to the alleged operational wrongdoing of 12 franchisees. Also on December 3, 2019, the DOJ and Liberty Tax filed a joint motion asking the court to approve a proposed settlement order setting forth certain enhancements to the Liberty Tax service compliance program and requiring Liberty Tax to retain an independent monitor to oversee the implementation of the required enhancements to the compliance program; and work with Liberty Tax to make further enhancements to improve the compliance program. As part of the proposed order, Liberty Tax agreed not to rehire John T. Hewitt, under whose supervision the alleged conduct at issue occurred. Liberty Tax further agreed not to grant John T. Hewitt any options or other rights to acquire equity in Liberty Tax or to nominate him to the company's board of directors. On December 20, 2019, the court granted the joint motion and the motion to seal, which fully resolved the legal proceedings initiated by the DOJ. Although he is referenced in the court's order, John T. Hewitt was not a named party to this case.

Other than these actions, no litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 4. BANKRUPTCY

No bankruptcy is required to be disclosed in this item.

ITEM 5. INITIAL FEES

The Initial Fees depend on the size and composition of the Area Representative Territory you select. We calculate this initial fee (the "Initial Area Representative Fee") based on (i) the number of Unit Territory's that can fit within the geographic boundaries of the Area Representative Territory and (ii) a determination of whether any Unit Territories have already been developed by a Unit Franchisee of ours within the geographical boundaries of the Area Representative Territory.

When purchasing area representative rights over an Area Representative Territory with no developed Unit Franchises, the Initial Area Representative Fee will be calculated at a rate of 9.5 cents per resident. Typically, an Area Representative will purchase area representative rights over a geographical region that can fit 15-30 Unit Territories. Each Unit Territory will contain a minimum population of 125,000 residents. Therefore, the typical Initial Area Representative Fee will be approximately $178,125 to $356,250.

When purchasing an Area Representative Territory with existing developed Unit Territories, the precise amount will be negotiated based upon pertinent factors such as: how many existing Zoomin Groomin® Unit Territories are already in your Territory and how much royalty revenue they generate, demand for Services and the level of competition in your area, population density, geographic layout, road layouts and traffic patterns, and demographic factors.

The purchase of an Area Representative Territory and payment of an Initial Area Representative Fee conveys no right to operate any Unit Territory which can only be offered and granted through a separate disclosure document.

You must submit the Initial Area Representative Fee to us before attending the Initial Area Representative Training. We will refund to you the Initial Area Representative Fee if we do not approve your application or if you do not pass our Initial Area Representative Training in accordance with our current passing standards for training provided that you return to us all materials which we distributed to you during training.

We do not finance the Initial Area Representative Fee.

We offer a 10% discount to all qualified veterans and first responders who purchase a Territory. We may offer limited incentive programs as part of our franchise development efforts. We reserve the right to offer, modify, or withdraw any such incentive program without notice to you.

In the event that an area representative does not meet certain minimum sales requirements, we have the right to delete certain undeveloped Unit Territory's from the Area Representative Territory and pay or credit 80% of the initial fees paid to us.

Except as described in this Item 5, the Initial Fees are uniformly imposed and non-refundable.

ITEM 6. OTHER FEES

Type of Fee (Note 1)	Amount	Due Date	Remarks
Fee for Franchisee Prospects (Note 2)	Typically $100 - $150/ per lead.	Within 30 days of transaction	Help with lead generation.
Late Fees	Lesser of 1% per month or the highest rate allowable by law of the state where you are located.	As incurred	Apply to amounts owed to us that are five (5) days past due.
Technology Fee	Up to $200 per month (Not imposed as of the Issuance Date)	Monthly	We reserve the right to require use of certain software and services offered by third parties and to collect the fee from you.
Internal Sales Fee (Note 3)	$5,000 per Unit Franchise	At the time of sale	If our internal franchise sales staff or representative assists in the sale of a Unit Franchise within your Territory, you will pay this fee to us.
Transfer Fee (Note 4)	$10,000	Prior to acceptance of transferee	Payable at closing and subject to state law.
Franchise Broker Fee (Note 5)	Will vary under circumstances. We will deduct the actual amount of a broker's fee before calculating any initial fee commission to you.	At the time of sale	Shared expense deducted from any initial fee commission due to you.
Indemnification	Will vary under circumstances	As incurred	Payable if we incur on your behalf.
Attorney Fees and Costs	Will vary under circumstances	As incurred	Each party will bear their own cost.
Third Party Charges	Will vary under circumstances	As incurred	Payable if we incur on your behalf.

Note 1: Fees-All of the listed fees are uniformly imposed payable to us, unless otherwise noted and are non-refundable. We reserve the right to set off amounts owed to use against amounts owed to you.

Note 2: Fee for Franchisee Prospects: Lead Generation-We may generate leads and offer them to you but you are under no obligation to purchase them from us, except that you will pay the Internal Sales Fee if a lead generated by us purchases a Unit Franchise within your Territory as described below. The cost will vary depending upon cost and difficulty of obtaining the prospects.

Note 3: Internal Sales Fees – As of the Issuance Date, our parent, Loyalty, LLC, maintains a sales team (our “Internal Sales Team”) to generate, develop, and close qualified leads. We also actively advertise the brand and our franchise offering to generate interest. A representative from our Internal Sales Team typically ensures a prospect is disclosed with the then-current unit disclosure document, works with the prospect throughout the sales process to select a territory, and coordinates with the operations and legal teams through execution of a franchise agreement. You will incur this fee on the sale of a Unit Franchise in your Territory unless you fully generate, develop, and close the transaction without the assistance of a representative from the Internal Sales Team. We will deduct the Internal Sales Fee from any Initial Fee Commission otherwise due to you. This fee is paid by you and is not a shared expense.

Note 4: Transfer-For the protection of both buyer and seller, Zoomin Groomin USA LLC may serve as the settlement agent on transfers of ownership. In addition, prior to transfer, all outstanding amounts due to ZOOMIN GROOMIN® must be paid. If you transfer your Area Representative Territory to an entity in which you are the majority owner, or if you transfer the Outlet to your child, parent, sibling, or spouse, you will not pay this fee.

Note 5: Broker Fees- We may utilize an independent franchise broker to develop leads. Brokers are typically paid a commission based on a successful referral. Rates vary. If a Unit Franchise located within the geographical boundaries of your Area Representative Territory is sold to an individual or entity referred by a broker, then the amount of the broker’s fee will be shared equally (50/50) between you and us. This amount will be deducted before any Initial Fee Commission is paid to you. For example, if a $40,000 initial fee is paid to us by a Unit Franchisee and the Unit Franchisee was introduced to you or us by a broker with a $20,000 broker/referral fee, the Net Initial Franchise Fee would be $20,000, and you would receive $10,000 (50% of the $20,000 Net Initial Franchise Fee).

A typical territory will contain approximately 15-30 Unit Franchise Territories. Each Unit Franchise Territory will contain a minimum population of 125,000 people. We obtain population data from the U.S. Census Bureau or another service we deem reliable.

You may operate the Franchised Business out of your home or any office location. You are not required to obtain our approval if you relocate your Franchised Business. As an area representative, you will recruit and support Unit Franchisees. You and other franchisees may solicit outside of your territory for franchisees to locate a Unit Franchise in your Territory, including using other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing, pursuant to our guidelines. The Area Representative Agreement does not provide you with any right to operate a Unit Franchise.

You will not receive an exclusive Territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Continuation of your Territorial rights depends on achieving a certain development goal, namely, the Minimum Requirements specified in your Area Representative Agreement. If you fail to meet Minimum Requirements, we reserve the right to terminate your territorial rights under the Area Representative Agreement for the development of additional units. You will still maintain your rights, obligations and share in the Initial Franchise Fees and Royalties for any existing franchise agreements for the term of the Area Representative Agreement so long as you are in compliance with the remaining terms of the Area Representative Agreement; however, we may then freely sell and develop the terminated territory without sharing any of the initial franchise fees or royalties. If we choose to delete a portion of your Territory due to your failure to meet Minimum Requirements, we will issue a credit or pay 80% of your original purchase price back to you. There are no other circumstances that permit us to modify your territorial rights except on expiration or termination of the Area Representative Agreement.

We may grant to you approval to open additional outlets within your Territory if circumstances permit such as the population increases. We may grant you additional franchise territories if we feel you have the time, energy, capital, and management structure to be able to successfully open and operate more outlets. You do not have rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional territories.

Your right to operate a Franchised Business in the Territory are subject to certain rights reserved by us. We, our parent, and our affiliates reserve all rights not expressly granted in the Franchise Agreement. For example, we, our parent, and our affiliates have the right to:

- (a) use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to solicit or accept customers within your Territory using our principal trademarks (or another trademark) without any compensation to you, however, we will direct inquiries for mobile pet grooming services from within your Territory to your Franchised Business;
- (b) to implement cross-territorial protocols and other guidelines applicable to such situations as group advertising buys by multiple franchisees which may extend into multiple territories, solicitation of orders of individuals who may reside in one Territory, yet work in another, and other cross-territorial situations;
- (c) to establish and operate, and grant rights to others to establish and operate a Franchised

Businesses or similar businesses at any locations outside of the Territory and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate;

(d) to own, develop, acquire, be acquired by, merge with, or otherwise engage in any transaction with another businesses (competitive or not), which may offer products and services like your Franchised Business and may have one or more competing outlets within your Territory, however, we will not convert any acquired business in your Territory to a franchise using our primary trademarks during the Term of your Franchise Agreement;

(e) to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark which such business sells or will sell goods or services like those you will offer, anywhere;

(f) to negotiate purchase agreements with vendors and suppliers which we reasonably believe are for the benefit of our franchisees; and,

(g) to engage in any other business activities not expressly prohibited by the Franchise Agreement, anywhere.

Furthermore, we and our parent plan to establish (or acquire) and operate or franchise a business under a different trademark which will sell goods or services similar to those that Unit Franchisees offer. Under our plan, franchisees will offer pet grooming services through brick-and-mortar locations under a different trademark. There will be area representatives with similar rights like yours over these new locations. We plan to begin executing this plan in 2024; however, as of the Issuance Date we have not identified a trademark, established offices, or developed a training program. We plan to establish separate offices and training facilities at the appropriate time. We plan to avoid and resolve conflicts between us and our franchisees and between the franchisees of each system regarding territory, customers, and franchisor support, by establishing limited contractual rights, extending the new opportunity to existing franchisees, and by developing internal systems, processes, and incentives for client referrals. As the new franchise system develops, the new franchisor or its franchisees who use the different trademark will solicit or accept orders within the franchisee's territory.

ITEM 13. TRADEMARKS

The Area Representative Agreement licenses to you the right to use the following principal trademarks (“Marks”) registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”):

Description of Mark	Registration Number	Principal or Supplemental Register of the USPTO	Registration Date
Zoomin Groomin®	3,163,391	Principal	October 24, 2006
(Word Mark)

 Zoomin groomin A Mobile Pet Spa (Design Mark, color is not claimed as a feature of the mark)	Pending Serial Number: 97,888,809		Pending Published for Opposition February 27, 2024 (unopposed)

You must use the Marks in strict compliance with the rules we prescribe and only in connection with the conduct of the Franchised Business. We prohibit you from using the Marks in connection with the sale of any unauthorized service, or in any manner not expressly authorized in writing by us.

We do not have federal registration of our principal trademark (the “Design Mark” identified above). Therefore, our trademark does not have many legal benefits and rights as a federally registered trademark. If our right to use the trademark is challenged, you may have to change to an alternative trademark, which may increase your expenses.

We purchased the right to use the name and Word Mark from the predecessor, ZG Enterprises LLC on or about December 31, 2020. The owner and registrant executed a Trademark Assignment which was accepted by the United States Patent and Trademark office for registration and use by Zoomin Groomin USA LLC.

All required affidavits and renewals have been filed. The first renewal occurred on December 27, 2016. There are currently no effective determinations of the USPTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or any state trademark administrator or any court; or any pending infringement, opposition, or cancellation proceeding in which we unsuccessfully sought to prevent registration of a trademark in order to protect a trademark licensed by the Franchisor. There are no pending material federal or state court litigation regarding our use or ownership rights in a trademark.

There are no currently effective agreements that significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of our trademarks listed in this section.

If you learn of any claim against you for alleged infringement, unfair competition, or similar claims about the Marks, you must promptly notify us. We are not required to take affirmative action when notified of these uses or claims. We have the sole right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed by us to you. The Area Representative Agreement does not require us to participate in your defense or indemnify you for expenses or damages if you are a party to an administrative or judicial proceeding involving a trademark licensed by us to you or if the proceeding is resolved unfavorably to you.

If any third party establishes, to our satisfaction and in our sole discretion, that its rights to the Marks are, for any legal reason, superior to any of our rights, then we will modify and/or replace the Marks and you must use the variances or other service marks, trademarks or trade names required by and as reasonably determined by us. If this occurs, you will have no further right to continue using such Marks.

If we otherwise replace, modify, or add additional Marks, you will update or replace your supplies and advertising materials to reflect the new Marks, at your expense, in the time frame we reasonably provide at the time of such an update. Any expenses you incur because of adopting and using these Marks are your responsibility.

We do not know of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of our Marks anywhere.

ITEM 14. PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

At this time, we do not hold any patents. We claim a copyright in our Operations Manual, marketing material such as our website text, and other printed material, although we have not presently filed a registration of those copyrights.

There are no currently effective determinations of the U.S. Copyright Office or any court or any pending litigation or other proceedings, regarding any copyrighted materials. No agreement limits our rights to use or allow others to use the copyrighted materials.

We will protect our patent or copyrights as necessary. We will remain in control of any such litigation. We may modify or change the copyrighted materials and compel you to accept and adopt such modifications or changes at your expense. We know of no superior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the copyrighted materials. We claim proprietary rights in our Manual and business methods. You must use these items per the terms of your Area Representative Agreement. We are not required to participate in your defense or indemnify you for damages or expenses in a proceeding involving a copyright or patent. If any third party establishes to our satisfaction, in our discretion, that it possesses copyright or patent rights superior to ours, then you must modify or discontinue your use of these materials in accordance with our written instructions.

You will not directly or indirectly disclose, publish, disseminate or use our “Confidential Information” except as authorized in the Area Representative Agreement. You may use our Confidential Information to perform your obligations under the Area Representative Agreement, but in doing so you will only allow dissemination of our Confidential Information on a need-to-know basis and only to those individuals that have been informed of the proprietary and confidential nature of such Confidential Information. We may share performance data of your Franchised Business between us, our employees and affiliates, our franchisees and their employees. You agree to keep such performance data confidential.

“Confidential Information” means our information or data (oral, written, electronic or otherwise), including, without limitation, a trade secret, that is valuable and not generally known or readily available to third parties obtained by you from us during the term of the Area Representative Agreement. The Confidential Information of ours includes all intellectual property associated with our Franchise System, all other materials relating to our Franchise System that are not a matter of public record, and all information generated during the performance of the Area Representative Agreement.

“Customer Data” is considered Confidential Information and includes all information about Customers that may be collected in connection with their use of your services including, but not limited to, name, telephone number, address and email address.

Upon termination of your Area Representative Agreement, you must return to us our Operations Manuals and any Confidential Information. You may never - during the initial term, any renewal term, or after the Area Representative Agreement expires or is terminated - reveal any of our Confidential Information to any other person or entity or use it for the benefit of any other person or business.

ITEM 15. OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISED BUSINESS

You or a fully trained and qualified manager must personally supervise and participate in the day-to-day operation of your Franchised Business, unless we permit otherwise in writing. You must devote your time, attention and best efforts to performing the obligations under the Area Representative Agreement.

While you may designate a Business Manager to fulfill your obligations of day-to-day management, you are still responsible. You must inform us in writing of the identity of your Business Manager, furnish information to us regarding the candidate’s background, experience and credentials, and secure our advance written approval before you engage him or her. We will not unreasonably withhold or deny our approval. Your Business Manager is not required to have an equity interest in the Franchised Business.

Your Business Manager must have complete decision-making authority with regard to your Franchised Business and must have authority to act on your behalf in all respects under the Area Representative Agreement. Your Business Manager must successfully complete the Initial Training program, and complete ongoing advance training requirements.

All owners of the Franchised Business must guarantee the obligations under the Area Representative Agreement.

Franchisees and Business Managers are subject to a covenant not to compete along with confidentiality requirements.

ITEM 16. RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must offer and sell only the goods and services that we approve, and you must sell all the goods and services that we authorize.

Area Representatives do not offer or sell any tangible goods. Instead, you will recruit prospects to open and operate a Unit Franchise within the geographical boundaries of their Area Representative Territory. Unit Franchises can only be offered and sold through disclosure of a separate unit disclosure document. You will only be permitted to recruit prospects when we have issued a current unit disclosure document and obtained any required state registration. We will take commercially reasonable efforts to keep our disclosure document current and to disclose any prospect as soon as practicable after receiving your request. As an Area Representative you are not be authorized to sign any documents on our behalf or on behalf of the System. You will refer all qualified franchisee candidates to us and we may, in our sole and absolute discretion, determine whether or not we approve or disapprove of each respective franchisee candidate. If we reject a franchisee candidate or elect to not enter into a Unit Franchise Agreement with a franchisee candidate, you will not receive any compensation.

As long as you meet the Minimum Requirements (see Item 12) and are in substantial compliance with the terms and conditions of the Area Representative Agreement, you will not be limited to who you recruit and refer to us. However, you will be required to utilize our Internal Sales Team to assist in any transaction if the lead was generated by us, our parent, an affiliate of ours, or an existing franchisee of ours. Likewise, we will always establish the price of the Unit Franchise offering in our reasonable judgment, which may vary from time to time. Finally, you will not have management authority or responsibility over the offer or sell of Unit Franchises.

As an Area Representative you will be responsible for complying with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations related to the offer and sale of franchises including the proper disclosure of our Unit Franchise Disclosure Document, the disclosure and registration of your activities as a franchise seller, and adherence to all laws, rules, and regulations related to the offer and sale of franchises.

You will be required to offer certain services with your Area Representative Territory and support Unit Franchisees located within your Area Representative Territory. You will have the following on-going responsibilities, all subject to our then current standards, specifications, and requirements: (a) to solicit, screen, and recruit franchisee candidates that meet our qualifications and requirements; (b) to refer qualified franchisee candidates to us; (c) to provide on-going operational support and training support to franchisees in accordance with our System; (d) to provide marketing assistance in accordance with our System; (e) to conduct recurring performance and quality control assessments; and (f) to monitor and maintain franchisee relations. You will follow our systems, processes, and guidance in delivering these services. You will not have management authority or responsibility over the operation of Unit Franchises. We do not establish staffing requirements or hours of operation for your Franchised Business.

We have the right to change the types of authorized goods and services with reasonable notice, but we do not intend to materially change the nature of the area representative relationship or the authorized goods and services.

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) The term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logo type, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards;
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor;

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations;

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligation to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

VIRGINIA

As to franchises governed by the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, if any of the terms of the Disclosure Document are inconsistent with the terms below, the terms below control.

1. In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document is amended as follows:

Additional Disclosure: The following statements are added to Item 17.h.

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any ground for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

Item 5 of the Disclosure Document is modified to also provide: “The Virginia State Corporation Commission’s Division of Securities and Retail Franchising requires us to defer payment of the initial franchise fee and other initial payments owed by franchisees to the franchisor until the franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement.”

WASHINGTON

The State of Washington has a statute, RCW 19.100.180 which may supersede the Area Representative Agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the Area Representative Agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration site shall be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration, or as determined by the arbitrator, or as determined by the arbitrator at the time of arbitration. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW shall prevail.

A release or waiver or rights executed by a franchisee shall not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisors reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

WISCONSIN

The State of Wisconsin has a statute, the Wisconsin Franchise Investment Law, Wis. Stat. § 553.01, et. seq., and Wis. Adm. Code Chapter DFI-Sec. 31.01, et seq., which may supersede the Area Representative Agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the Area Representative Agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Wisconsin Franchise Investment Law, Wis. Stat. § 553.01, et. seq., and Wis. Adm. Code Chapter DFI-Sec. 31.01, et seq., shall prevail.

1. The Franchise Disclosure Document and Area Representative Agreement require a Franchisee to sue in a State other than Wisconsin, and are hereby amended to expressly permit a Franchisee to file a civil lawsuit in Wisconsin for claims arising under the Wisconsin Franchise Investment Law.

FDD: Item 17

FA: Sections 8.9, 8.10

2. Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document and Section 7 of the Area Representative Agreement permit Franchisor to terminate, cancel, not renew or make a substantial change in competitive circumstances in the Area Representative Agreement, without cause under certain circumstances. These provisions are prohibited by the Wisconsin Fair Dealership Law, § 135.04. Accordingly, Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document and Section 7 of the Area Representative Agreement are hereby amended to prevent the termination, cancellation, non-renewal or substantial change in competitive circumstances of the Area Representative Agreement without good cause.

FDD: Item 17

FA: Section 7

3. Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document and Section 7 of the Area Representative Agreement permit the Franchisor to terminate the Area Representative Agreement without providing the Franchisee ninety (90) days prior notice of the proposed termination or sixty (60) days to cure the deficiency. These provisions are prohibited by the Wisconsin Fair Dealership Law, § 135.04. Accordingly, Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document and Section 7 of the Area Representative Agreement are hereby amended to require that prior to the termination of the Area Representative Agreement Franchisor must provide Franchisee ninety (90) days written notice of a proposed termination, which states all the reasons for the termination, cancellation, non-renewal or substantive change in circumstances, and the Franchisee shall be given sixty (60) days from the date of delivery or posting of such notice to rectify any claimed deficiency. If the deficiency is rectified within the sixty (60) days the notice shall be void. The notice provisions shall not apply if the reason for termination, cancellation or non-renewal is insolvency, the occurrence of an assignment for the benefit of creditors or bankruptcy. If the reason for termination, cancellation or non-renewal or substantial change in competitive circumstances is nonpayment of sums due under the Area Representative Agreement, Franchisee shall still be entitled to (90) days written notice, as referenced above, however, Franchisee shall only have ten (10) days in which to remedy such default from the date of delivery or post of such notice.

FDD: Item 17

FA: Section 7

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

It is agreed that the applicable foregoing State-Specific Addendum, if any, supersedes any inconsistent portion of the Franchise Agreement and of the Franchise Disclosure Document, but only to the extent they are then valid requirements of an applicable and enforceable state law, and for only so long as such state law remains in effect, and the parties further acknowledge and agree that this State-Specific Addendum is applicable only to those persons specifically subject to the protections of the state laws referenced in this State-Specific Addendum.

This Acknowledgment is inapplicable to Washington area developers and franchisees and the Washington Addendum applies for Washington area developers and franchisees.

This contract ("Agreement") is between Zoomin Groomin USA LLC ("Zoomin Groomin®", "we", "us", or "our") and entity and all Signators identified on the signature page, in your personal capacity, (collectively "Area Representative", "you", or "your").

RECITALS

Zoomin Groomin® has developed a system ("Franchise System") to deliver pet grooming services using the Zoomin Groomin® system. The Franchise System utilizes prescribed marketing techniques and operating procedures to deliver outstanding service to customers ("Clients").

Area Representative desires to identify and recruit qualified individuals ("Candidates") willing to own and operate one or more unit locations (each a "Unit Franchise" as a "Unit Franchisee") to serve Clients within the Area Representative's designated territory.

Zoomin Groomin® will compensate Area Representative for identifying and recruiting Candidates while also provide continuing support (collectively "Services") on our behalf to Candidates.

For mutual promises expressed in this Agreement, along with other valuable consideration, the receipt of which is acknowledged, Zoomin Groomin® and Area Representative (collectively "the Parties") will be bound as follows:

1. Scope

1.1. Grant of Franchise

Zoomin Groomin® grants to you the right to operate an area representative business ("Area Representative Business" or "Franchised Business") using our System and our Marks to recruit Candidates to open and operate a Unit Franchise within the geographical boundaries identified in Schedule 1 (the "Territory" or "Area Representative Territory") and then support such unit franchisees, by and through the Franchisee Business Entity identified on the Summary Page and signature page of this Agreement (or as a sole proprietor or partnership if you have no business entity).

1.2. Term and Renewal

A. Term.

This Agreement will commence upon its Effective Date and will last for a term of ten (10) years (the "Term").

B. Renewal.

Upon the completion of the Term, if you are in compliance with all material terms and conditions in this Agreement, then you may enter into a new agreement, on the then-current form, for an additional ten-year term. We will not make material changes to your agreement including your Territory or the Area Representative Commissions in your renewals. If you wish to renew this Agreement, you must:

- a. notify us in writing at least one hundred twenty (120) days before the expiration of this Agreement, and
- b. execute a general release of all claims you may have against us similar to the one in Schedule 6;

C. Subsequent Renewals

You may renew future Area Representative Agreements if you are in compliance with its terms and qualify for renewal.

1.3.Territory

Schedule 1 defines the “Territory” by zip codes, political, or geographic boundaries. You may only recruit Franchisees to locate a Unit Franchise in your Territory. This Agreement conveys no right to operate a Unit Franchise within the Territory.

1.4.Office Location

You may work out of your home or any office location. You are not required to obtain our approval if you relocate your Franchised Business.

1.5.Additional Territories

We may grant to you approval to open additional outlets within your Territory if circumstances permit such as the population increases. We may grant you additional franchise territories if we feel you have the time, energy, capital, and management structure to be able to successfully open and operate more outlets. You do not have rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional territories.

1.6.Minimum Requirements

A. Development Requirements.

Area Representative will provide Zoomin Groomin® with a minimum number of Candidates each year that open and operate a Unit Franchise in the Territory. The Territory must be grown as described in Schedule 2 (the “Minimum Requirements”). A year will include each fiscal year (including any partial year) ending on December 31.

B. Failure to Meet Minimum Requirements.

If Area Representative does not meet the Minimum Requirements, then within ninety (90) days after the end of the year in which the Minimum Requirement was not met, Zoomin Groomin® may notify Area Representative that it desires to delete certain Unit Franchise Territories from the Area Representative Territory up to the number of Unit Franchise Territories by which Area Representative failed to meet the Minimum Requirement for that year. The notice will designate which of the Unit Franchise Territories it desires to delete from the Area Representative Territory, and Zoomin Groomin® shall have the sole discretion to determine which then unassigned (meaning unsold) Unit Franchise Territories it chooses to delete.

Those Unit Franchise Territories will be deemed deleted from the Area Representative Territory effective upon Zoomin Groomin® notice, and Area Representative will thereafter not be entitled to any share of Franchise Fees or Royalties paid with respect to Franchisees appointed within those Unit Franchise Territories (“Zoomin Groomin® Franchisees”) and Zoomin Groomin® Franchisees will not be deemed Unit Franchisees for the purposes of this Agreement. This deletion is Zoomin Groomin®’s sole remedy for your failure to meet the Minimum Requirements during the Term so long as you are in compliance with the other terms and conditions of this Agreement.

C. Credit.

Zoomin Groomin®'s notice will be accompanied by a credit to amounts owed by Area Representative to Zoomin Groomin® or a payment to Area Representative, as Zoomin Groomin® selects. The amount of the credit or payment will equal eighty-percent (80%) of the prorated amount actually received by Zoomin Groomin® for the respective Territory. For example, if Zoomin Groomin® received $150,000 cash from Area Representative for 15 undeveloped territories, then Zoomin Groomin® would issue a credit or payment of $8,000 per undeveloped Territory that was deleted from the Area Representative Territory.

D. Duty.

On the event of deletion of a portion of your Territory you will still maintain your obligations and rights; including, but not limited to, the right to share in the Initial Franchisee Fees and Royalties for any existing Unit Franchises in the Territory that you sold or developed during the Term. However, we may freely sell and develop the deleted portions of the Territory without sharing any of the Initial Franchise Fees or Royalties with you.

E. Exclusive Remedy.

There are no other circumstances that permit us to modify your Territorial Rights, except in the event of Termination or Expiration of this Agreement.

1.7.Dual Distribution

No other party will have Zoomin Groomin area representative rights or otherwise receive area representative compensation from Zoomin Groomin in your Territory; however, the Territory you receive is non-exclusive. You may face competition from other franchisees, outlets that we own, other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. We or an affiliate may make sales within your Territory using our principal trademarks, including through the use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales. We or an affiliate may make sales within your Territory using trademarks different from the ones you will use under this Agreement.

We allow and require you to use our trademarks and service marks (“Marks”) to hold out your Area Representative Territory to the public. You will use only our Marks as we develop them for this purpose. Use of our Marks must be in accordance with our Manual. K. Name and Likeness.

You give us permission to use your name and likeness in all forms and media for advertising, trade, and any other lawful purposes.

2. Fees.

2.1. Paid by Zoomin Groomin® (“Commissions”)

We pay to you the following Commissions for your Services under this Agreement:

A. Initial Franchise Fee.

We will pay you 50% of the net Initial Fee (the “Initial Franchise Fee”) we receive from any individual or entity that buys a Unit Franchise with a designated area (each a “Unit Territory”) within the geographical boundaries your Area Representative Territory during the Term. The split of the Initial Franchise Fee will be after reduction for any broker fees or referral fees incurred by us in connection with the transaction.

For example, if a $40,000 initial fee is paid to us by a Unit Franchisee and the Unit Franchisee was introduced to you or us by a broker with a $20,000 referral fee, the Net Initial Franchise Fee would be $20,000, and you would receive $10,000 (50% of the $20,000 Net Initial Franchise Fee). Certain other fees as set forth in Section 2.2 of this Agreement are incurred solely by you and are not accounted for when calculating the Net Initial Franchise Fee. For example, if you used the Internal Sales Team provided by us, our parents, or an affiliate on the same deal, you would only receive $5,000, because the Internal Sales Fee is solely incurred by you ($10,000 minus the $5,000 Internal Sales Fee).

If we choose to finance any part of the Initial Franchise Fee for a Territory in your Area Representative Territory, then we will split any interest collected fifty-fifty on such Initial Franchise Fee financing during the Term.

B. Franchise Royalties.

We will pay you an amount equal to 50% of all ongoing royalties (the “Franchise Royalty”) received by us, if any, from any Zoomin Groomin® Unit Franchise whose Unit Territory is located in your Area Representative Territory except for royalties which were already due and owing before the Effective Date of this Agreement. If a Unit Franchise is assessed any late fees, then we will split such late fee fifty-fifty as collected.

Should Zoomin Groomin® establish a company outlet in your Area Representative Territory, we will pay you 50% of the then-current royalty rate on gross revenue for the company outlet. The royalty rate will be calculated in the same manner as would be assessed on Unit Franchises in your Territory.

C. Exclusions.

We may, in our discretion, require a Unit Franchise to pay fees for other services, including, but not limited to, advertising fees, technology fees, CRM fees, transfer fees, and renewal fees. These fees are not subject to split with you. We may also, in our discretion, grant permission for a Unit Franchise with a Unit Territory located outside of the geographical boundaries of your Area Representative Territory to operate on a limited basis within the geographical boundaries of your Area Representative Territory. You will not receive Franchise Royalties on any revenue generated from such Unit Franchise for services they perform within your Territory on this limited basis.

D. Pay When Paid

Fees paid to you will be paid only as funds are received. For example, in the case of a financed Initial Franchise Fee, the distribution would only be after the funds were actually received by us. You will be entitled to your share of the Initial Franchise Fees and royalties only with respect to amounts actually collected, and we will be entitled to take credits against previous payments to you to the extent that any payments from a Franchisee are subject to a subsequent refund, offset or other credit. Each payment of your share of Franchise Fees or royalties will be accompanied by information in sufficient detail to allow you to determine the basis on which your share of the Franchise Fees and royalties was calculated as well as deductions made for monies owed to us.

E. Payment Terms.

We calculate all Commissions due to you by the last day of each month as to Commissions earned the prior month, and then we remit payment to you by the 15th day of the following month, less any amounts you owe to us, via electronic transfer or other method that we designate. For example, if Commissions is earned for the period of January 1 through January 31, then you will be paid any funds due on or before March 15.

2.2. Paid by You

A. Initial Area Representative Fee.

Upon execution of this Agreement, you will pay us a Franchise Fee of $ _____. The Franchise Fee is fully earned and nonrefundable once we have completed our obligation to provide initial training.

B. Fee for Franchisee Prospects.

From time to time, we may provide to you leads of Candidates interested in buying one of our Unit Franchises within the Territory. If we provide you leads, we will set and publish fees based upon the cost and the difficulty of acquiring the leads. You are under no obligation to purchase these leads. We will offer to you, without cost, any lead in your Territory provided by a Franchise Broker; however, a Broker Fee may apply if the Candidate converts to a Unit Franchisee.

C. Internal Sales Fee.

If a staff or a designated agent of ours, our parent Loyalty, LLC, or any affiliate of ours (our "Internal Sales Team") assists you with the selling process for a Unit Franchisee who buys a unit within your Territory, you will pay us $5,000 per unit sold (the "Internal Sales Fee"). If that Unit Franchisee purchases multiple units, then the Internal Sales Fee will be 5,000 for each unit sold in your Territory. Assistance may come in various degrees, but will typically involve assistance in generating leads, developing leads, or closing qualified leads during the sales process. For example, you will always pay the Internal Sales Fee if we or our Internal Sales Team generate the lead or communicate directly with the lead prior to execution of a franchise agreement. This fee is paid by you and is not a shared expense.

D. Brokers and Agents

We may use the services of franchise brokers to identify Candidates who are potentially interested in becoming Franchisees. If a franchise broker generates a Candidate who becomes a Unit Franchisee in your Territory, you will pay a proportionate share (50%) of the Broker's fee. This fee will be deducted from any amount paid to you.

E. Renewal Fee.

You are not required to pay a Renewal Fee to enter into a further Area Representative Agreement with us at the expiration of the Term of this Agreement.

F. Transfer Fee.

You must pay us a $10,000 Transfer Fee if you wish to transfer ownership, or a majority of ownership interest, of your rights as an Area Representative.

G. Third Party Charges.

If we incur third party charges on your behalf, you will reimburse us for any such charges.

H. Technology Fees.

We may require you to utilize certain software and services to manage your Franchised Business. If we do so, you will be responsible for such fees, up to $200 per month.

I. Sales, Excise, or Gross Receipts Tax.

You must reimburse us if we pay any tax on any fee related to this Agreement.

J. Payment Terms.

We will bill you by the 15th of the month for amounts incurred in the prior month.

K. Monthly Reconciliation

We reserve the right to deduct monies that you owe to us from Commissions that we pay to you and pay you the net amount owed to you or charge you any net amount you may owe to us. You will execute an Automatic Bank Draft Authorization and that we may withdraw fees and other monies you owe to us pursuant to the Authorization from your bank account, and also electronically deposit monies owed to you in the same bank account.

L. Late Fees.

Overdue amounts owed by you are subject to a service charge of 1% per month on the unpaid balance, or if lower, then the maximum rate allowed by law.

M. Demand for Payment.

Except upon our prior written consent, you will not demand any payment due from a Franchisee of ours or any other person or entity to us.

8.7.Limitation of Actions.

You will bring any Claims against us, if at all, within one (1) year of the occurrence of the facts giving rise to such Claims.

8.8. Prior Notice of Claims.

Before commencing an action for a Claim, you must notify us within thirty (30) days after the occurrence of the violation or breach, and failure to timely give such notice will preclude any claim for damages.

8.9. Governing Law

This Agreement is effective upon its acceptance in Virginia by our authorized officer.

Except as to claims governed by federal law, Virginia law governs all claims that in any way relate to or arise out of this Agreement or any of the dealings of the parties ("Claims").

However, no laws regulating the sale of franchises or governing the relationship between franchisor and franchisee will apply unless the jurisdictional requirements of such laws are met independently of this paragraph.

8.10. Jurisdiction and Venue.

Venue and jurisdiction for any Claims will be proper solely in the state and federal court nearest to our corporate headquarters; presently located in Virginia Beach, VA. 8.11. Non-Waiver of Breach

8.12. Jury Waiver.

In any trial between any of the Parties as to any Claims, you and we will waive our rights to a jury trial and instead have such action tried by a judge.

8.13. Class Action Waiver.

You will bring any Claims, if at all, individually and you will not join such Claim with Claims of any other person or entity or bring, join or participate in a class action against us.

8.14. Compensatory Damages.

As to any Claims, you and we will waive our rights, if any, to seek or recover punitive damages.

8.15. Waiver of Bond.

If we are forced to bring suit to enforce any provision of this Agreement, you will waive any requirement that we post bond to obtain a temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunction to enforce these duties.

9. General

9.1. Entire Agreement

This Agreement and all exhibits to this Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the Parties and supersede any and all prior negotiations, understandings, representations, and agreements. Nothing in this or in any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the Franchise Disclosure Document that we furnished to you.

9.2.Modification

No modifications to this Agreement will have any effect unless such modification is in writing and signed by you and by our authorized officer. We may, however, modify the provisions of the Manual, without your consent.

9.5.Severability Clause.

If any covenant or provision in this Agreement is determined to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, it will be deemed severed and removed and will not impair the validity of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement.

9.6.Notices

Any notice, authorization, consent or other communication required or permitted under this Agreement must be made in writing and will be given by mail or courier, postage fully prepaid, or delivered personally or by facsimile, to our CEO, at our corporate office, presently:

9.7.Acknowledgements

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

9.8.Release of Prior Claims

By executing this Agreement, the Area Representative, on behalf of yourselves and your heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns, and each assignee of this Agreement, forever releases and discharges us, our past and present employees, agents, members, officers, and directors, including any of our parent, subsidiary and affiliated entities, their respective past and present

DASH Business Solutions, LLC

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of
Zoomin Groomin USA LLC

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Zoomin Groomin USA LLC, which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2023, and the related statements of operations, members' equity, and cash flows for the three years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Zoomin Groomin USA LLC as of December 31, 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the three years then ended, in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

The audit was conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. The auditor is required to be independent of Zoomin Groomin USA LLC and meet other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to the audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America; and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Zoomin Groomin USA LLC's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

DASH Business Solutions, LLC

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Zoomin Groomin USA LLC's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Zoomin Groomin USA LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters the auditor identified during the audit.

ZOOMIN GROOMIN USA LLC

Notes to the Financial Statements

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Nature of Business

Zoomin Groomin USA LLC (hereinafter “Company”) was formed on December 20, 2020 as a Virginia limited liability company for the purpose of offering franchise opportunities and support for entrepreneurs who want to own a franchise location of Zoomin Groomin, a mobile pet grooming company.

Basis of Accounting

The Company uses the accrual basis of accounting, and their accounting period is the 12-month period ending December 31 of each year.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, and disclosures at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents include all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the date of purchase. Also included with cash equivalents are deposits in-transit from banks for payments related to third-party credit card and debit card transactions.

Financial Instruments

For certain of the Company’s financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, long term notes receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to their short maturities.

Inventory

Inventory is valued at cost when purchased and is accounted for using the specific identification method of valuation. The inventory consists of vehicles and trailers held for future resale to franchises. The Company will recognize future income from the sales as ordinary other income on the date the title is transferred. Subsequent to the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company will no longer hold title to the vehicles and thus, the vehicles will not be recorded as inventory of the Company in subsequent years.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded for amounts due based on the terms of executed franchise agreements for franchise sales, royalty fees, and other revenues. These receivables are carried at original invoice amount less an estimate made for doubtful receivables, based on a review of outstanding amounts. At December 31, 2023, the Company had accounts receivables of $212,876, and all accounts are deemed collectible.

Other Assets

The Company has three intangible assets consisting of contracts valued at $30,000, goodwill valued at $30,000, and trademarks valued at $30,000. The equal allocation for each asset was made by current management and is believed to be an accurate representation of the intangible assets acquired when the Company was purchased. Intangible assets are amortized over a fifteen-year period using the straight-line method, and are measured annually for impairment. The annual amortization is $2,000 per asset per year, beginning with the year ending December 31, 2021, and the assets are presented at net value on the balance sheet as Intangible Assets. The total amortization expense for the intangible assets during the next five years will be $6,000 per year.

The Company has notes receivable from franchises based on financing provided by the Company to fund their initial purchase and/or provide working capital loans. The terms of the promissory note include a fixed interest rate of twelve percent (12%) annually and the notes have various due dates. Total interest income for the Company is reflected in the financial statements and included in income from operations.

Concentration of Risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risks on cash or cash equivalents.

Subsequent Events

Management has reviewed and evaluated subsequent events through March 22, 2024, the date on which the financial statements were issued.

Advertising Costs

The Company expenses advertising costs as they are incurred.

Prepaid Expenses

Prepaid expenses presented on the balance sheet represent amounts paid for employee health benefits that are required to be paid annually in advance.

Notes to the Financial Statements

Revenue Recognition

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued codification Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (ASC 606). Under ASC 606, the franchisor must determine if the pre-opening activities contain any distinct goods or services, known as performance obligations, and then allocate the initial franchise fees to those performance obligations using the stand-alone selling price of the goods or services. The Company has instituted ASC 606 using the full retrospective approach. The franchise fee revenue is recognized equally over a ten-year period, amortized monthly based on the contract signing date.

The Company’s revenues consist of fees from franchises such as initial franchise fees, royalties, marketing fees, area representative fees, and other fees. The franchise fees are initially deferred revenue and recognized monthly. If the contract is signed before the fifteenth day of the month, half of the monthly accrual amount is recognized. If the contract is signed on or after the fifteenth day of the month, the entire month of the accrual is recognized. The royalty revenue and other fees are recognized when earned and are based on a percentage of gross sales of each individual franchise according to the franchise contract. The Company is obligated to provide the franchise with specific performances, including name and trademark use, as outlined in the franchise disclosure document. The initial franchise fee: is not refundable; is typically collected upon contract signing; and, future allocations of the initial franchise fees have no risk of impairment. When a franchise terminates the contract, the remainder of the initial franchise fee may be recognized in the year of termination.

Income Taxes

The entity is structured as a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Virginia. The Company has elected to be treated as a corporation for federal and state income tax purposes. The Company follows the guidance under Accounting Standards Codification Topic 740, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, which prescribes a more-likely-than-not measurement methodology to reflect the financial statement impact of uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the tax return. If taxing authorities were to disallow any tax positions taken by the Company, the additional income taxes, if any, would be imposed on the Company. The Company has not identified any uncertain tax positions for the three years ending December 31, 2023. The Company has a net operating loss carryforward that may be used to offset future income tax expense. At December 31, 2023, Management estimated the benefit of the operating loss and recorded an income tax asset on the balance sheet based on the current federal and state corporate tax rates of twenty-one percent and five percent, respectively. The Company’s income tax returns are subject to examination by taxing authorities for a period of three years from the date they are filed.

NOTE 2 - RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain reclassifications and combinations have been made to allow for conformity and clarity. The updates have not materially changed the financial statement and were completed as part of the audit process.

ZOOMIN GROOMIN USA LLC

Notes to the Financial Statements

NOTE 3 - OTHER INCOME

During the year ending December 31, 2023, the Company has commission income of $48,810, transfer fee income of $50,250, and Employee Retention Credit income of $14,689 as reflected in the Other Income category in the financial statements.

NOTE 4 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company began allocating overhead costs of the managing affiliate for services provided to the Company based on the percentage of time spent on the Company by affiliate through the use of shared labor, utilities, office space, and other overhead costs. The allocation was deemed reasonable by management and the services are allocated by the same allocation method amongst multiple franchisor affiliates. The summary allocations are reflected in the financial statements and the repayment is adjusted through the affiliate loan accounts. The details of the overhead expenses are as follows:

	2023	2022
Marketing Overhead	54,450	37,436
Sales Overhead	688,571	167,602
Total	743,021	205,038
Consulting Overhead	96,872	3,831
Training Overhead	-	8,000
Legal Overhead	76,854	33,897
Operations Overhead	32,226	4,808
IT Overhead	11,708	10,881
Mapping Overhead	55,666	18,386
Event Management Overhead	25,692	9,000
Accounting Overhead	55,900	29,976
Facilities Overhead	31,842	-
Assistant Overhead	8,173	-
Total	394,933	118,779

NOTE 5 - AFFILIATE LOANS

During the ordinary course of business, the Company enters into transactions with related parties primarily due to short term advances and cost reimbursements. The amounts are reflected on the balance sheet as affiliate loan assets and/or affiliate loan liabilities and are expected to be repaid during the subsequent year. There are no written terms of repayment and no interest charged. Any amounts outstanding after the subsequent twelve months will be included in a formal note with an imputed interest rate, if applicable.

ZOOMIN GROOMIN USA LLC

Notes to the Financial Statements

NOTE 6 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company may be subject to various claims, legal actions and complaints arising in the ordinary course of business. In accounting for legal matters and other contingencies, the Company follows the guidance in ASC Topic 450 Contingencies, under which loss contingencies are accounted for based upon the likelihood of incurrence of a liability. If a loss contingency is “probable” and the amount of loss can be reasonably estimated, it is accrued. If a loss contingency is “probable” but the amount of loss cannot be reasonably estimated, disclosure is made. If a loss contingency is “reasonably possible,” disclosure is made, including the potential range of loss, if determinable. Loss contingencies that are “remote” are neither accounted for nor disclosed. In the opinion of management, all matters are of such kind, or involve such amounts, that unfavorable disposition, if any, would not have a material effect on the financial position of the Company.

NOTE 7 - UNEARNED REVENUE

At times, the Company receives deposits from prospective franchises for purchases of a franchise prior to an authorized person signing the contract for the franchise. The funds are held as Unearned Revenue until the contract is executed.

NOTE 8 - DEFERRED REVENUE

As stated in Note 1, under ASC 606, Management has determined that revenue from the initial franchise fee should be recognized equally over a ten-year period monthly beginning when the contract is signed. At December 31, 2023, the amounts in deferred revenue consist of the current portion that will be recognized during the subsequent calendar year, and the long-term portion that will be recognized as previously stated.

NOTE 9 - FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

The terms of the Company’s franchise agreement will be as follows:

- A. The Company will grant the right to use the Company name, trademark and system in the franchisees franchise development business.
- B. The franchisee is obligated to pay a non-refundable initial franchise fee.
- C. The franchisee is obligated to pay a monthly royalty fee and other fees as outlined in the agreement.
- D. All other terms of the Franchise Disclosure Document.
