What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit F.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Minnesota. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Minnesota than in your own state.
2. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY MICHIGAN LAW

To the extent the Michigan Franchise Investment Law, Mich. Comp. Laws §§445.1501 – 445.1546 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

(a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.

(b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.

(c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.

(d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years, and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.

(e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.

(f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.

(g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

(i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then-current reasonable qualifications or standards.

(ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

If the franchisee has any questions regarding this notice, those questions should be directed to the Michigan Department of Attorney General, Consumer Protection Division, Attn.: Franchise, 670 Law Building, Lansing, Michigan 48913, telephone: (517) 373-7117.

ITEM 1
The Franchisor, and any Parents, Predecessors and Affiliates

To simplify the language in this Disclosure Document, “Village Inn”, “Franchisor”, “we”, or “us” means VI BrandCo, LLC, the franchisor. “Franchisee” or “you” means the person or entity who obtains the franchise; it does not include the Franchisee’s owners.

Village Inn, its Parent, Predecessors and its Affiliates

Village Inn

VI BrandCo, LLC is a Delaware limited liability company formed on August 17, 2020. Village Inn began franchising the Village Inn restaurant brand in September 2021. Its principal place of business is 12701 Whitewater Drive, Suite 100, Minnetonka, Minnesota 55343-4164.

Parents

Franchisor’s direct parent is VI OpCo, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company formed on August 17, 2020 (“VI OpCo”) which operates all company-affiliated Village Inn restaurants, and whose parent is Village Inn Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company formed on August 14, 2020 (“VI Holdings”), with both such entities having an address of 12701 Whitewater Drive, Suite 100, Minnetonka, Minnesota 55343-4164. In July 2021, BBQ Holdings, Inc. (“BBQ”), a Minnesota corporation, acquired Franchisor and its affiliated entities by purchasing all membership interests in VI Holdings. BBQ was formed in 2019 to serve as the parent company of Famous Dave of America, Inc., a franchisor of Famous Dave’s® barbecue restaurants and other concepts, and it has never operated franchises in any line of business.

On or about September 27, 2022, BBQ merged with a wholly-owned U.S. subsidiary of MTY Food Group, Inc. (“MTY”) having an address at 8210 Transcanada Road, Saint-Laurent, Québec H4S 1M5. BBQ’s parent company became MTY Franchising USA, Inc. (“MTY USA”), originally known as The Extreme Pita Franchising USA, Inc., and having an address of 9311 E Via De Ventura, Scottsdale, AZ 85258. MTY USA’s parent corporation is MTY Franchising Inc. (“MTY Canada”), a Canadian corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of MTY, formerly known as MTY Tiki Ming Enterprises Inc., and having an address at 8210 Transcanada Road, Saint-Laurent, Québec H4S 1M5, Canada.

Predecessors

Until July 2021, Village Inn was a wholly owned subsidiary of its ultimate parent Cannae Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Cannae”). The principal place of business of Cannae was 1701 Village Center Circle, Las Vegas, Nevada 89134. Cannae’s controlling ownership interest in Village Inn was held through a series of upstream Delaware limited liability companies, particularly VI OpCo, VI Holdings, and VIBSQ Holdco, LLC and RG Group Holdco, LLC. None of these parties had material operations other than their ownership interests in Village Inn and its company-operated restaurants, Legendary Baking (see below), Bakers Square and other related subsidiaries.

Village Inn’s prior predecessor is American Blue Ribbon Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company organized on December 23, 2008 (“ABRH”). ABRH purchased substantially all of the Village Inn restaurant chain assets of VICORP Restaurants, Inc. (“VICORP”) on March 27, 2009. VICORP’s address prior to its sale of assets to ABRH was 400 West 48th Avenue, Denver, Colorado 80216. VICORP used the trade names “Village Inn,” “Bakers Square,” “VICOM”, and “J. Horner’s,” prior to the sale of its assets, and then ABRH and now we use these trade names in conducting business. On April 5, 2010, ABRH implemented the trade name “Legendary Baking” to replace the “VICOM” brand that formerly was used to identify the bakery division of ABRH. (Legendary Baking I, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company formed on August 17, 2020 (“Legendary”), is an affiliate of our predecessors and still offers and sells pies that franchisees are required to purchase, offer and sell in their Village Inn Restaurants.) VICORP first owned and operated Village Inn restaurants in 1959. VICORP granted its first Village Inn franchise on April 1, 1961, and offered and expanded the franchise since that time up to the sale of its assets to ABRH.

On January 27, 2020, ABRH filed for bankruptcy protection as part of a planned restructuring of company-owned or affiliated franchised Village Inn restaurants. See Items 3 and 4 for more information. Effective as of October 2, 2020, ABRH sold all of the Village Inn-related trademarks and existing development agreements and franchise agreements to us through bankruptcy confirmation proceedings described in Item 4 below and sold all of the company-operated Village Inn restaurants and related assets to our affiliate VI OpCo. ABRH franchised the Village Inn restaurant brand from March 2009 to August September 2020. The last known principal place of business of ABRH is 3038 Sidco Drive, Nashville, TN 37204.

Village Inn is a sit-down family dining concept. It features a variety of menu items for all meal periods, but specializes in pancakes, omelets, skilletts, eggs, pies and other popular breakfast items.

We offer franchise agreements (“Franchise Agreements”) which grant the right to construct, own and operate one Restaurant. Our form of Franchise Agreement is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit A. You must operate your Restaurant according to our business methods, designs, arrangements and standards for developing and operating Restaurants (the “System”).

Affiliates of Franchisor’s may provide administrative, legal, IT and accounting services to Franchisor.

As a franchisee, you will compete directly or indirectly with all types of restaurants. The restaurant business is highly competitive and is affected by the competition in your area. You will compete with other dining establishments, some of which will be national chains, fast food establishments, and locally based restaurants offering similar menu items and may be owned by us or an affiliate of ours. You should make every effort to investigate the competition in your area.

The restaurant industry is heavily regulated in the United States. The Affordable Care Act of 2010 and regulations issued by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration require certain restaurants and other retail establishments to disclose to consumers, on the menu, certain nutritional information regarding menu items. Other laws have particular applicability to restaurants, including food safety, health and sanitation laws, liquor license laws, and liquor liability and dram shop laws. Some states and municipalities also might require specific licensure or training in sanitation and safety laws before permitting a restaurant to serve the public.

If you and we determine that your Restaurant will sell alcoholic beverages, you will be required to obtain a liquor license. The difficulty and cost of obtaining a liquor license, and the steps for securing the license, vary greatly from area to area. There is also wide variation in state and local laws and regulations that govern the sale of alcoholic beverages. In addition, state dram shop laws give rise to potential liability for injuries that are directly or indirectly related to the sale and consumption of alcohol.

To operate the Restaurant, you may also need to obtain a beer and wine license. State and local laws, regulations and ordinances vary significantly in the procedures, difficulty and cost associated with obtaining a license to sell beer and wine, the restrictions placed on the manner in which beer and wine may be sold, and the potential liability imposed by dram shop laws involving injuries, directly and indirectly, related to the sale of beer and wine, and its consumption. You will need to understand and comply with those laws in operating the Restaurant.

Many of the laws that apply to business generally, like the Americans with Disabilities Act, federal wage and hour laws, and the Occupation, Health and Safety Act, also apply to restaurants. Your development and operation of the Restaurant will also be subject to compliance with applicable zoning, land use and environmental regulations as well as federal and state minimum wage laws governing such matters as working conditions, overtime and tip credits and other employee matters. It is likely that a significant number of your Restaurant's food service and preparation personnel will be paid at rates related to the federal minimum wage and, accordingly, further increases in the federal, state or local minimum wage will affect your labor costs.

The federal Clean Air Act and various implementing state laws require certain state and local areas to meet national air quality standards that limit emissions of ozone, carbon monoxide and particulate matters, including emissions from commercial food preparation. Some areas have also adopted or are considering proposals that would regulate indoor air quality.

We recommend that you check with your state and local agencies to determine which laws apply to the operation of a Restaurant in your area. You should consider these laws and regulations when evaluating your purchase of a franchise.

On or about February 17, 2015, Koho, Inc. ("Koho") filed a Complaint against Kahala Franchising, L.L.C. ("Kahala") alleging: (i) breach of contract; (ii) unjust enrichment; and (iii) declaratory relief. Koho sought: (i) no less than $540,000 in special and general damages; (ii) litigation costs; (iii) prejudgment interest; (iv) reasonable attorney's fees; and (v) declaratory relief. On or about May 5, 2015, Kahala filed a Cross-Complaint against Koho; Heeyong Kyle Chung; and Hannah Kim; alleging: (i) breach of contract; (ii) unjust enrichment; (iii) disgorgement and restitution; (iv) fraud-deceit and concealment; (v) negligent misrepresentation; (vi) conversion; (vii) negligence; and (viii) declaratory relief. Kahala sought: (i) breach of contract damages in amount according to proof; (ii) disgorgement and restitution on Unjust Enrichment cause of action; (iii) judicial determination that Kahala is permitted and entitled to set off amounts owed to it by Koho with funds in its possession which would otherwise have been due Koho; (iv) costs; (v) attorneys' fees; (vi) punitive damages; and (vii) prejudgment interest; (viii) any other relief the Court deems just and proper. On or about June 15, 2015, Koho filed a Notice of Hearing on Demurrer and Demurrer to Kahala's Cross-Complaint; Memorandum of Points and Authorities; Declaration of Daniel D. Hoffman and Exhibits in Support Thereof. Koho filed its Notice of Motion and Motion to Strike Certain Portions of Kahala's Cross Complaint; Memorandum of Points and Authorities on June 17, 2015. On October 16, 2015, the Court overruled Koho's Demurrer to Kahala's Cross Complaint in its entirety and denied their motion to strike Kahala's punitive damages claims; the Court sustained the Demurrer as to Hannah Kim. Mediation was held on May 3, 2016, which failed to yield a settlement between the two parties. On May 5, 2016, Kahala dismissed the claims against Koho and Kyle Chung because they satisfied the debts owed to Kahala, and, therefore, the claims were moot. Hannah Kim was subsequently awarded attorney's fees on June 15, 2016, in the amount of $10,233. A bench trial commenced on June 15, 2016, and ended on June 16, 2016. Upon the conclusion of Koho's case, Kahala presented its case-in-chief and moved for judgment pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 631.8. The Court granted Kahala's Judgment as Koho failed to establish the requisite elements of "breach" and "damages" on the three causes of action asserted in the Complaint. On July 18, 2016, the Court awarded Kahala attorneys' fees in the amount of $205,000. On September 22, 2016, Koho filed a Notice of Filing of Notice of Appeal and requested that Kahala participate in a mediation to resolve the outstanding award to Kahala. Koho failed to post an appeal bond. On February 13, 2017, Kahala commenced its self-help pursuant to Section 8(i) and (j) of the ARA and began withholding 100% of the Area Representative fees to which Koho would have otherwise been entitled. On June 19, 2017, the parties entered into a settlement agreement whereby Kahala repurchased Koho's Area Developer territory for the sum of $75,000 and forgave the remaining damages owed in the amount of $130,000.

Concluded State Administrative Actions Involving SFF, L.L.C., successor in interest to SweetFrog Enterprises, L.L.C.

In the Matter of SweetFrog Enterprises, L.L.C. f.k.a. Imagination Enterprises, Inc., d/b/a Sweet Frog, Administrative Proceeding Before the Securities Commissioner of Maryland, Case No. 2012-0055.

As a result of an inquiry into the franchise related activities of SweetFrog Enterprises, L.L.C., (“SFE”) the Maryland Securities Commissioner (“Commissioner”) concluded that grounds existed to allege that SFE violated the registration and disclosure provisions of the Maryland Franchise Law in relation to the offer and sale of certain license agreements. SFE acknowledged that those license agreements constituted franchises as defined under the Maryland Franchise Law. SFE represented that it entered into license agreements with eight Maryland licensees during the time it was not registered to offer and sell franchises in Maryland. On August 29, 2012, the Commissioner and SFE agreed to enter into a consent order whereby SFE, without admitting or denying any violations of the law, agreed to: (i) immediately and permanently cease from the offer and sale of franchises in violation of the Maryland Franchise Law; (ii) file and diligently pursue an application for an initial franchise registration in Maryland relating to the license agreements it offered and sold to Maryland licensees; and (iii) to offer to rescind the license agreements of all Maryland licensees to whom it sold unregistered franchises. We are not aware of any licensees that accepted the rescission and have made a good faith effort to obtain that information.

Concluded State Administrative Actions Involving Predecessor Blimpie Associates, Ltd.

In May 1992, Blimpie Associates, Ltd. (“Blimpie”) and Joseph Dornbush (formerly the President of Blimpie) (collectively “Respondents”) responded to a claim by the New York Department of Law that it had sold franchises during a period of time when Blimpie’s prospectus had not been updated by amendment. Without the admission of any wrongdoing, Respondents consented to the entry of an order in which Respondents agreed: (i) to entry of a judgment enjoining them from further violations of the New York Franchise Sales Act; and (ii) to pay the sum of $18,000 to the State of New York as an additional allowance. Respondents paid the $18,000 in May 1992 and executed the consent judgment on August 25, 1992.

Concluded State Administrative Actions Involving Maui Wowi Franchising, Inc., predecessor in interest to Kahala Franchising, L.L.C.

In the Matter of Maui Wowi Franchising, Inc., Before the Securities Commissioner of Maryland, Case No. 2005-0651.

On November 11, 2005, Maui Wowi Franchising, Inc., the predecessor franchisor of the Maui Wowi brand (“MWF”), entered into a Consent Order with the Securities Commissioner of Maryland (“Commissioner”) resulting from MWF inadvertently entering into four franchise agreements with Maryland residents after its registration in Maryland expired on June 9, 2004 (“Maryland Franchisees”). The Consent Order required MWF to cease and desist from the offer and sale of unregistered franchises in Maryland; to diligently pursue the completion of its then pending application; to register its Offering Circular in Maryland; to develop and implement new franchise law compliance procedures to ensure future compliance with the registration and disclosure provisions of Maryland Franchise Law; and to enroll an officer and a franchise compliance person in a franchise law compliance training program. Upon notification by the Commissioner, MWF sent to the Maryland Franchisees the registered Offering Circular, a copy of the Consent Order, and a letter notifying the Maryland Franchisees that they could rescind their franchise agreements. At this time, MWF is in full compliance with the Consent Order.

In the Matter of Maui Wowi Franchising, Inc., Before the Securities Commissioner of Maryland, Case No. 2007-0194.

On September 12, 2007, “MWF” entered into a Consent Order with the Maryland Commissioner resulting from MWF inadvertently entering into two franchise agreements with two Maryland residents (“Second Maryland Franchisees”) without delivering to them the appropriate Offering Circular. MWF was registered in the State of Maryland at the time of the offer and sale with an Offering Circular containing certain specific information required only by Maryland law. At the same time, MWF used a second form of Offering Circular in other states that did not contain all of the information required by Maryland law. Prior to the execution of the franchise agreements with the Second Maryland Franchisees, MWF accidentally delivered to them the Offering Circular that did not contain the Maryland-specific information. We subsequently reported these mistakes to the Commissioner. The Consent Order required MWF to cease and desist from the offer and sale of franchises in Maryland in violation of the Maryland Franchise Law; to diligently pursue the completion of its then pending application to register its Offering Circular in Maryland; to implement additional compliance measures to ensure future compliance with the Maryland Franchise Law; to employ an approved franchise law compliance training program or trainer to monitor MWF’s franchise activities in Maryland for two years; and to reimburse the Maryland Attorney General for its investigation and resolution costs in the total amount of $2,500. Additionally, MWF was required to provide to the Second Maryland Franchisees the registered Offering Circular, a copy of the Consent Order, and a letter notifying the Second Maryland Franchisees that they have a right to rescind their franchise agreements. The Commissioner and MWF subsequently entered into an Amended Consent Order in which MWF elected to withdraw from the State of Maryland instead of employing a compliance monitor, with the agreement to employ a monitor if MWF was to re-register in the State of Maryland. MWF fully complied with the Amended Consent Order, and subsequently employed a compliance monitor and was granted registration in the State of Maryland.

⁶ After operating the Restaurant for at least one full fiscal year, Franchisee is granted the option to annually prepay the Royalty for that year and thereby receive a ten percent (10%) discount on the Royalty due by paying to Franchisor on or before February 1 an amount equal to ninety percent (90%) of that year’s projected royalty (“Prepaid Royalty”). The projected royalty is equal to four percent (4%) of the Gross Sales from the Franchisee’s preceding fiscal year (“Projected Royalty”). In making the calculation of the Projected Royalty, the beginning date for the preceding fiscal year shall be based on the Franchisor’s fiscal period with fiscal year being a 52-week fiscal year consisting of twelve (12) fiscal periods ending on the last business day of the fiscal year of the Franchisor. Franchisor and Franchisee agree to, on or before February 1, reconcile the difference between the Prepaid Royalty and the Royalty due based upon Franchisee’s actual Gross Sales (while still subject to the 10% discount) during the preceding fiscal year. For example, if Franchisee’s Projected Royalty was \$50,000 (based on Gross Sales of \$1,250,000), and thus the Prepaid Royalty was \$45,000, but Franchisee’s actual Gross Sales during the fiscal year were equal to \$1,500,000, Franchisee would owe Franchisor an additional \$9,000. ($\$1,500,000 \times 4\% = \$60,000$ Royalties owed $\times 10\%$ discount = $\$54,000$ less $\$45,000$ prepaid = a remaining owed balance of $\$9,000$).

If Village Inn sells an existing Village Inn Restaurant to the Franchisee, the Franchisee will not be required to pay Village Inn for location assistance.

Landlords typically require a security deposit equal to one or two month's rent depending on your credit.

(3) Construction Costs vary depending upon whether your building is new or if it is a conversion of an existing building, property location, local market conditions, and other factors. Construction Costs include site development, all contractor build-out items like heating, ventilation, and air conditioning systems, wall and floor coverings and installation of furniture, fixtures, and equipment. If you lease the real property and the lessor constructs the restaurant, some or all of the construction costs will be included in your rent payments.

The Prototypical plans and specifications are the architectural, structural, plumbing, mechanical, and electrical drawings; kitchen equipment and dining room layouts; and all required design characteristics. These plans are for franchisee's use to have a local architect and related engineers "site adapt" to the specific location to meet the locally adopted codes, ordinances, and standards for the jurisdiction of authority to obtain the necessary building permit. The selection of an architect and all consultants is the franchisee's choice. Civil, landscape, and utility plans for the specific location will also be required and selected by the franchisee. All final plans shall be submitted to Village Inn for review and written approval of compliance with purely brand standards prior to submitting to the city for permits. All signage exhibits, types, styles, and colors shall also be submitted to Village Inn for review and written approval of compliance with purely brand standards prior to fabrication.

(4) Pre-Opening Costs include management wages and expenses, hourly employee training wages, deposits, business licenses, accounting, and legal fees. Pre-opening costs do not include (i) wages for the franchisee if an individual or, if an entity, the individual responsible for restaurant operations or (ii) costs of financing. If we and you determine that your Restaurant requires a liquor license, we estimate an additional $2,000 - $10,000 in costs to obtain a liquor license, but note that in some instances you may have to pay an amount that is substantially higher due to local laws and regulations. If your Restaurant requires a liquor license, you should check with the local licensing authority to determine costs. You must spend a minimum of $10,000 on the grand opening celebration for your Restaurant.

(5) This estimates your initial start-up expenses. These figures are estimates and Village Inn cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses. Your costs depend on factors such as how well you follow Village Inn's pre-opening and operating methods and procedures; your management skill, experience and business acumen; local economic conditions; the local market for a restaurant such as Village Inn; the prevailing wage rate; competition; and the sales level you achieve.

(6) Liability coverage varies depending on the amount of insurance coverage and deductible, the experience and history of the insured, implementation of risk management procedures, the insurance company, and other factors. You must obtain all insurance we require and obtain it from an insurer having an A.M. Best's financial strength rating of "A-VIII" or better. Your insurance must: (i) insure the particular Franchisee listed on your Franchise Agreement; (ii) name us and our parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, directors, officers, and employees as additional insured; (iii) contain a waiver by the insurance carrier of all subrogation rights against us and our affiliates for casualty losses; (iv) provide that we will receive by an endorsement 30 days' prior written notice of cancellation; and (v) provide that failure by franchisee to comply with any term, condition or provision of the contract, or other conduct by franchisee, will NOT void or otherwise affect the coverage afforded us. Our minimum insurance coverage requirements are subject to change, including to increase. You need to evaluate if your particular business will require greater coverage or other types of insurance. For example, we strongly recommend that you consult with an insurance broker to discuss whether your particular lease/situation requires and/or should obtain additional common types of insurance (including without limitation, business interruption, umbrella insurance and cyber liability/data breach insurance coverage). Such insurance may significantly increase your premiums but may also save you money in the long run. We make no representation that the minimum coverage that we specify will be sufficient for your business.

You must always keep the required insurance coverage in force, and you must comply with any changes we make periodically to our insurance requirements. Upon 30 days' notice to you, we may require you to increase and/or otherwise change the minimum coverage of the insurance referred to above including to reflect identification of special risks, changes in law or standards of liability, higher damage awards or other relevant changes in circumstances. In the event you fail to obtain or maintain the required insurance coverage, we reserve the right, but are not obligated to, obtain the required insurance on your behalf and charge the insurance premium to you.

(7) Property insurance premiums vary depending on the amount of insurance coverage and deductible, current cost of materials and labor, the age and value of the building and contents, location, safety and preventive features (e.g., burglar/fire alarms), the insurance company, and other factors.

(8) You must provide workers' compensation and unemployment insurance with coverage sufficient to meet the requirements of the law where your restaurant is located. State statutes determine the coverages and set the manual rates.

(9) This estimate includes (a) your training costs for a Director of Operations and two managerial persons at a certified training restaurant for a period of 10 to 12 weeks (including attire that conforms with the brand standards, salary, travel, rental car, hotel, meals, and per diem for other living expenses for your personnel) and (b) your reimbursement to us for our costs for our opening assistance team members who travel to your Restaurant before, during and after your Restaurant opening (including travel, rental car, hotel, meals, and per diem for other living expenses for our opening assistance team members during the period they are providing opening assistance to you). This estimate is for your first Restaurant. Your initial training and/or our opening assistance may decrease for additional Restaurants you develop.

(10) This is an estimated average of your initial expenses per month for the first three (3) months of operation. These expenses include payroll, food supplies, utilities, ordinary maintenance, grand opening expenses, advertising, royalties, and other expenses associated with normal restaurant operations.

(11) Village Inn relies on its and its affiliates' experience operating Village Inn Restaurants and on the industry experience of the persons listed in Item 2, above, to compile the estimates. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase the franchise.

(12) Village Inn does not offer, either directly or indirectly, financing to new franchisees.

(13) None of the initial investments, except for some deposits, is refundable.

ITEM 8

Restrictions on Sources of Products and Services

Village Inn requires that your restaurant be constructed, equipped, and operated in accordance with its established requirements. Village Inn will provide you (in hard copy or in Print Document Format (PDF) file) one set of its prototypical architectural plans and specifications. Any cost incurred by Village Inn with respect to a change to the standard plans and specifications, shall be borne by you. Additionally, all signs, graphics, menus, and other similar materials that use any of the Village Inn trademarks or other commercial symbols or slogans must conform exactly to Village Inn's terms and conditions. Furthermore, Village Inn food servers and other personnel are required to comply with our dress code. Logoed or other brand-specific designated attire may be purchased from any supplier, provided that the specifications are followed. Village Inn does not derive any revenue from signs, graphics, or brand-specific designated attire. Most important, you must purchase and sell directly only pies made by a Village Inn approved vendor. In the event the pies provided by the approved vendor do not adhere to the quality and brand standards as Village Inn expects, you shall notify the Franchise Advisory Board and Village Inn in writing of deficiency of quality and brand standards. In the event the Franchise

Advisory Board agrees with the complaint, and we cannot return the pies to the same quality and brand standards within sixty (60) days, either the Franchise Advisory Board or you may request an alternate vendor to source pies. We agree to approve any reasonable alternate vendor. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Village Inn derives revenue from these purchases and sales. “Franchise Advisory Board” means the Associate of Village Inn Franchisees (“AVIF”), so long as such organization represents franchisees owning at least 50% of all franchise Village Inn restaurants and in the event the AVIF fails to represent a sufficient number of restaurants, any successor independent franchisee association meeting such requirement. In the event no such entity exists, the Franchise Advisory Board shall be made up of 5 franchisees appointed by the Franchisor.

We estimate that your purchases or leases from us, from designated and/or approved suppliers, and/or otherwise in accordance with our specifications, will represent, collectively, approximately 25% to 50% of your total purchases in establishing the Restaurant, and approximately 25% to 50% of your total purchases in the continuing operation of the Restaurant.

You must purchase a POS System (as defined in Item 7) that conforms to our standards and specifications. We currently only have one approved POS System and vendor, NCR Corporation.

We are also currently an approved vendor of certain Point of Sale Computer System maintenance and support services. See Item 11 for the types of services we may provide and their related costs.

Except for Legendary Baking and other Village Inn divisional or affiliated pie facilities, Village Inn’s construction plans and specifications and NCR Corporation for the POS System, Village Inn does not maintain a list of approved suppliers or require that you purchase from any specific supplier. Any vendor able to provide goods or services meeting Village Inn’s qualifications is automatically deemed an approved supplier. We reserve the right to establish and institute a restrictive sourcing program for other goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory, computer hardware and software, real estate, or comparable items related to establishing or operating a Village Inn Restaurant. Our Operating Manual, and changes thereto, will identify our standards and specifications for you and (where appropriate) suppliers. If we institute additional restrictive sourcing programs and you want to use any item or service we have not yet evaluated or to buy or lease from a supplier we have not yet approved or designated as meeting our minimum standards and specifications, you may be required to send us sufficient information, specifications and/or samples so we can determine whether the item or service complies with our standards or the supplier meets approved supplier criteria. We will decide within a reasonable time (no more than 30 days) whether the item, service or supplier meets our criteria and we will notify you of our approval (as well as of any subsequent disapproval of the item, service, or supplier) in writing. We do not expect to charge for the evaluation, although we reserve the right to charge you or the supplier a reasonable evaluation fee. We may establish alternative procedures for your requests and may limit the number of approved items, services and/or suppliers as we think best.

Village Inn negotiates purchasing arrangements with certain suppliers that provide volume discounts or vendor allowances based on purchases made by you and other franchisees, usually ranging between 1% and 5%. You can participate in these arrangements, if at all, only to the extent that your restaurant's location is in the geographic area that the supplier services. Participation in any eligible programs is conditioned upon your compliance with Village Inn's requirements. In some cases, franchisees benefit in proportion to the amount of their purchases; in other instances, Village Inn receives the entire amount of the vendor allowances. In some cases, franchisees benefit by receiving a discount on supplies. Such vendor allowances are generally based on a percentage of franchisee purchases and are calculated based on an amount per unit, per case, per gallon, or per pound of product purchased. We may use vendor allowance funds or other non-cash items received from suppliers to us and our franchisees in our sole and absolute discretion. Village Inn has not established purchasing or distribution cooperatives.

Pursuant to the mergers as fully described in Item 1, the total revenues and expenses of Franchisor and its subsidiaries and affiliates have been consolidated with MTY USA's, as reflected in the audited consolidated financial statements presented in this disclosure document. For the year ending November 30, 2024, MTY USA and its subsidiaries, as of such date, derived revenues from the sales of products, services, and vendor allowances in the amount of $51,714,322, which was approximately 8.5% of MTY USA's total consolidated recognized revenue in the amount of $597,538,000.

Various suppliers and vendors of MTY USA and its subsidiaries contribute marketing and other revenues to MTY USA and/or its subsidiaries based upon system-wide purchases from those suppliers and vendors. During our last fiscal year, MTY USA and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis earned a total of $30,372,764 of the $51,714,322 from such vendors. Additional other revenues (for example, revenue from miscellaneous fees and expenses from franchisees) in the amount of $5,680,438 were also received by MTY USA and its subsidiaries during the last fiscal year.

No officers of Village Inn own an interest in any supplier.

Village Inn may use vendor allowance funds or other non-cash items received from Franchisor's suppliers related to the Village Inn brand to benefit the Village Inn brand in our sole and absolute discretion.

Financing

We do not typically offer direct or indirect financing. We do not know whether you will be able to obtain financing for all or part of your investment and, if so, the terms of the financing. We do not typically guarantee your note, lease or other obligation.

ITEM 11
Franchisor's Assistance, Advertising,
Computer Systems, and Training

Except as listed below, Village Inn need not provide any assistance to you.

BEFORE OPENING:

Before you open your Village Inn Restaurant, we (or our designee) are required by the Franchise Agreement to provide the following assistance and services to you. (In the case of a Franchisee purchasing from Village Inn an existing operating Restaurant, the obligations described under this heading, Before Opening, will not apply.)

You select your business site and we evaluate it prior to execution of the Franchise Agreement. In conducting our evaluation, we may consider a variety of factors including demographics, traffic counts, ingress-egress, visibility, residential density, and parking. We do not generally own the site.

We are required to approve or disapprove of any lease you enter into, which determination will be made in our sole discretion. Our approval is not a warranty, representation or guaranty by us that a Village Inn opened at that site will be a financial success or that the site complies with any or all applicable laws, codes, ordinances or regulations (including without limitation, the Americans with Disabilities Act). Regardless of our approval, you are solely responsible for the terms of the lease. (Franchise Agreement, Section 3.1).

We will provide you with one set of Village Inn's prototypical plans and specifications (that you must adapt to local codes) for the construction and/or equipping of a Village Inn Restaurant. We will not be responsible for conforming any premises purchased, leased, or rented by you to local ordinances and building codes, other applicable laws/rules/regulations, or obtain for you required health, sanitation, building, driveway, utility, sign, or any other required permit. You bear sole responsibility to construct, remodel, and/or decorate any premises purchased or leased by you. (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.2).

You will be solely responsible for inspections during construction or renovation to confirm that the Restaurant is being constructed or renovated in a workmanlike manner and according to the specifications established by us. You will be solely responsible for complying with all federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, statutes, and building codes, and for acquiring all licenses and building and other permits required by law in connection with the construction or renovation of your Restaurant at the franchised location. We will have no responsibility to you or any other party. You will not open the Restaurant for business without our prior written approval.

We will not purchase, lease, rent, lend, deliver, or install equipment, signs, fixtures, opening inventory, or supplies for or to you or your premises, although we will provide you general advice regarding the provision of such items.

We will not hire or assist you in hiring or training employees, except for your Director of Operations and two additional managers designated by you as described in this Item 11 below. (Franchise Agreement, Section 10.2(j)).

Promptly upon the full signing of your Franchise Agreement, we will deliver to you one copy of the Operating Manual containing mandatory and suggested specifications, standards, and operating procedures prescribed from time to time by us, as well as information relative to your other obligations under the Franchise Agreement and in connection with the operation of your Village Inn Restaurant. We have the right to add to and modify the Operating Manual from time to time, in our sole discretion, to reflect changes in the specifications, standards, and operating procedures, but no such addition or modification will alter your fundamental status and rights under the Franchise Agreement. To protect our confidential material and methods, we may require that your employees, shareholders, officers, directors, general partners, members, and managers sign a confidentiality agreement.

The System and our Operating Manual do not include any personnel policies or procedures or security-related policies or procedures that we (at our option) may make available to you in the Operating Manual or otherwise for your optional use. You will determine to what extent, if any, these policies and procedures might apply to your operations at the Village Inn Restaurants. We neither dictate nor control labor or employment matters for franchisees and their employees and we are not responsible for the safety and security of the Village Inn Restaurant's employees or customers. We may modify these manuals, but the modification will not alter your status and rights under the Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.1 and 10.2(j)).

We will provide you with general assistance prior to the opening of your Village Inn Restaurant, including approving or disapproving your marketing/advertising and grand opening plans and materials. Village Inn will provide access to a "grand opening celebration" package which will include advertising and promotional materials for your Restaurant (see Article 6 of the Franchise Agreement). You must spend a minimum of $10,000 (or a higher amount as determined by Us) on the grand opening celebration for your Restaurant (see Item 7). We will provide an on-site opening assistance team at your Restaurant before, during and after the opening of your Restaurant. See Item 11. (Franchise Agreement, Section 12.5).

SCHEDULE FOR OPENING:

We estimate that the typical length of time between the signing of the Franchise Agreement and the opening of your Village Inn Restaurant is approximately nine to fifteen months. Some factors which may affect this timing are your ability to locate an acceptable site, the time to acquire the site through lease negotiations, your ability to secure any necessary financing, your ability to comply with local zoning and other ordinances, the timing of the delivery and installation of equipment and signs, and the time to convert, renovate, or build the premises. The conversion of an existing facility to a Franchised Restaurant usually takes 60 to 150 days, depending on the extent of the conversion of the premises, equipment, and operational systems that may be necessary. In any event, your Village Inn Restaurant is required to be opened and operational within 18 months after you execute the Franchise Agreement.

AFTER OPENING:

There is no obligation on Village Inn to provide services to you during the term of the franchise. We may, however, offer the following to you from time to time:

Although we will not hire or assist you in hiring or training employees, we will provide training of your Director of Operations and two additional managers as you may request from time to time so that at all times you employ a Director of Operations and two additional managers who have successfully completed our training program. There are no tuition fees for the training; however, you will be responsible for all costs incurred by your employees to attend the training. (Franchise Agreement, Section 12.4).

We may from time to time provide continuing assistance through operations manuals, supplements, bulletins, and periodicals. Training programs are also offered periodically on various aspects of restaurant operations, which Franchisee may be required to attend, but not more frequently than once a year. We also may make available to you information regarding any new product, service or supplier or any updated method of doing business. There are no separate charges for these services, but you are responsible for the wages and living expenses of those attending such training. (Franchise Agreement, Section 12.3)

Prices to be charged to your customers in connection with your Village Inn Restaurant are solely your responsibility. If we consult with you on costs and prices, or if we or our agents and/or representatives suggest prices to you from time to time, you are under no obligation to adhere to them. If we conduct advertising in which prices for items are indicated or suggested, these prices are not binding on you in any manner. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 10.2(f)). Modifications to the menu are allowed only as a reflection of food and beverage items characteristic of your local area and subject to our testing and prior written approval.

You are solely responsible for the operation of your Village Inn Restaurant in accordance with the requirements of the Franchise Agreement, the Operating Manual, and all other applicable manuals and directives provided to you in writing by us from time to time. We may conduct periodic inspections of your restaurant as we deem necessary to furnish supervision and assistance in the operation of your restaurant and to assure the quality of goods and services being offered by you. At your request, Village Inn, if it deems appropriate after consultation with you, will provide, at your expense, extraordinary operating assistance above that normally furnished, and such assistance may include on-site visits by Village Inn personnel. (Franchise Agreement, Section 10.1).

ADVERTISING:

Village Inn develops, maintains, and administers advertising, public relations, and sales promotion programs intended to help the success of our restaurant brand. We do not, however, use marketing/advertising fees paid by franchisees to advertise the sale of Village Inn franchises.

We have no obligation to ensure that the Marketing Fee is expended so as to be proportionate or equivalent to the fees paid by you or that any particular amount is spent in the Franchised Area.

Each Village Inn franchise granted under this offering must pay to Village Inn a weekly marketing/advertising Marketing Fee of ~~not more than 0.51%~~ 1% of the Gross Sales for that restaurant. Company-owned Restaurants contribute the same rate as other Village Inn franchisees.

Additionally, franchisees must spend a minimum of 1% of their Gross Sales annually in each franchise location for local marketing and advertising promotions. All strategies and productions for local marketing shall require Village Inn's prior approval (which will not be unreasonably withheld) except for promotions or materials already initiated, implemented, or approved by Village Inn.

If a regional marketing/advertising cooperative is established by Village Inn that covers the market in which your Restaurant is located, then you will be required to participate in and contribute up to 1% of your annual Gross Sales to such regional marketing/advertising cooperative.

Also, if Village Inn establishes 300 Village Inn owned and franchised restaurants combined in at least 25 states, each franchisee may in our sole discretion be required to participate in and contribute up to 1% of its annual Gross Sales in each franchise location, to a national cooperative established by Village Inn for which such contributing franchisee will have one vote, for each restaurant owned, in determining how much money should be spent on national advertising or promotions of the Village Inn brand. Village Inn owned restaurants do not contribute to these cooperatives.

Village Inn will use the fees paid by franchisees for marketing studies, creation of promotional materials, and other services (material production, administrative support, etc.) and to purchase advertising time and space in national, regional, or other advertising media (television, radio, and print) to promote Village Inn Restaurants. The fees will also be used to pay the costs and overhead of Village Inn's in-house Village Inn marketing department and advertising agencies. You may develop advertising materials for your own use, at your own cost, but prior to use, we must approve the materials in writing.

The marketing/advertising fees are placed into a bank account, and they are accounted for on Village Inn's books as a separate line item. Village Inn will provide to contributing franchisees within 120 days after the end of Village Inn's fiscal year an accounting of the use of those fees paid by franchisees to Village Inn. If there is a credit balance in that account at the end of any fiscal year, that credit balance shall be retained for future expenditures. During the year ended January 1, 2025, $696,554.04 in marketing/advertising fees were paid by franchisees. Village Inn, out of their general funds, spent a total of $1,324,600 on marketing and advertising programs related to Village Inn Restaurants, which is approximately $6,056.99 per company-operated Village Inn Restaurant (based on number operating at the end of the fiscal year). Of that amount, approximately, $21,891 or 2%, was spent on production; approximately $67,488 or 5%, was spent on media placement, approximately $733,474 or 58% was spent on innovation, and approximately $441,386, or 35% was spent on administration of the fund, which costs were absorbed by Village Inn as overhead. None of the advertising described in this paragraph is principally a solicitation for the sale of franchises.

You are required to pay a Grand Opening Marketing fee of $10,000 for a Traditional store or $5,000 for a Non Traditional store payable to US on the earlier of (i) prior to you executing a lease for the premises where the Franchised Business will be located; or (ii) prior to construction commencing at the premises where the Franchised Business will be located. We or our designated affiliate will create a marketing plan for (i) a grand opening event at your Franchised Business, and (ii) the initial advertising of your Franchised Business, and will work with you to obtain your input on the marketing plan. We or our designated affiliate will use the Grand Opening Marketing to pay for the grand opening and initial advertising, but may, in our sole discretion, reimburse you for some local store marketing expenses that you pay if you received our prior approval. The Grand Opening Marketing should be used within six (6) months of the opening of your Franchised Business to the public. However, if a portion of the Grand Opening Marketing is not used within those six (6) months, we may, in our discretion, spend the remaining portion of the Grand Opening Marketing after six (6) months from the opening of your Franchised Business to the public.n.

TRAINING:

Village Inn requires that the Director of Operations and a minimum of two managers successfully complete and become certified in Village Inn’s management-training program for each franchised restaurant. Village Inn has the right to pre-approve management candidates before the beginning of training, and retains sole discretion over successful training progress and certification. At least two of these individuals must be involved in the daily operation of the restaurant.

We conduct the required franchise training programs throughout the year, as needed. On-the-job training is conducted at a certified training restaurant in Colorado or other training restaurant specified by us. Completion of the training program must occur no less than four weeks before the restaurant’s scheduled opening date. The duration of a training program lasts approximately 10 to 12 weeks. The manager candidate’s background, profile, and performance while in training determine the program’s duration for that candidate. The instructional materials for the training may include binders, printed materials, and online training courses. The Franchise Management Training Program is as follows:

Village Inn staffs its Training and Development Department with instructors that are well versed in restaurant and personnel training, management, and supervision. All training will be ~~conducted under the supervision of Adam Lehr suitable instructor provided by Franchisor. Mr. Lehr has been BBQ's Co-Chief Operating Officer since October 2022 and prior to that was the Senior Vice President of Operations over both corporate and franchise restaurants since January 2020. Since joining BBQ in 2018, he was also involved with various franchise operations as both the Director of Operations and as an FBC. Prior to joining BBQ, Mr. Lehr was the Director of Franchise Operations for the University of Minnesota where we oversaw 18 different franchise operations, including Chick-Fil-A, Papa John's, Subway, Starbucks and more. Mr. Lehr has also owned his own restaurant and has been involved in developing, opening and running profitable restaurant concepts since 2005. All instruction will be conducted by instructors who have experience with Village Inn and/or with restaurant operations. Our instructors have been adequately trained in the ownership and operation of a Village Inn franchise, including having, at a minimum, completed the entire Training Program, and having experience in training each of the subjects listed in the table above.~~

Village Inn does not charge tuition for training of your initial Director of Operations and two managers. However, you are responsible for all costs incurred by you and your employees during training. These costs include wages, benefits, workers compensation insurance, transportation, lodging, meals, and other living expenses.

From time to time, but not more than once a year, Village Inn may require your Director of Operations and your managers, at your cost and expense, to attend and successfully complete refresher or additional courses. Additionally, Village Inn may also provide specific training programs on a space-available basis, at your expense. We encourage your attendance at these supplemental training programs.

For a minimum of 18 business days during the pre- and post-opening period of the Restaurant, we will provide you, at your Restaurant's premises and at your expense, a new restaurant opening assistance team consisting of at least 10 persons for the purpose of facilitating the opening of the Restaurant. During this period, our team members will also assist you in establishing and standardizing procedures and techniques essential to the operation of the Restaurant and will assist in training personnel. You will reimburse us for our opening assistance team members' travel, lodging, meals and other expenses incurred, but we will not charge you for our team members' salaries during such opening assistance period. We may reduce or eliminate our new restaurant opening assistance to you if you or your affiliates have previously opened and are operating Restaurants.

All training and pre- and post-opening programs are subject to change due to COVID-19 restrictions on us and/or your ability to travel for training and pre- and post-opening assistance.

COMPUTER SYSTEMS:

We require that you operate a fully functional POS and back office system (the "Point of Sale Computer System"), including credit card processing, related systems that track sales and other point-of-purchase information, and telecommunications infrastructure that is compatible with our infrastructure and meets all necessary security and compliance requirements.

We recommend you purchase an Aloha Point of Sale Computer System and a Verifone VX-820 card reader to be EMV compliant and to encrypt credit card data from NCR Corporation, or such other Point of Sale System as we may designate from time to time. The Point of Sale Computer System must process all restaurant and beverage orders, track employee hours for payroll, and print customer checks. In addition, the Point of Sale Computer System must be able to perform credit card and gift card processing. All computers at your restaurant must be compliant with the current Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards, as issued by the credit card processing companies, to ensure the security and privacy of your customers' credit card data. Village Inn will have independent access to the information and data contained on your Point of Sale Computer System.

The recommended Point of Sale Computer System costs approximately $27,000 based on our standard configuration for a restaurant and the Verifone VX-820 card reader cost is approximately $420 per terminal with an activation fee of $150 per restaurant and a $55 per month processing fee per restaurant. Installation costs will vary. Kitchen Display System (software and hardware is optional, but recommended for enhanced speed of service. You will be solely responsible for the acquisition, operation, maintenance, and upgrading of the Point of Sale Computer System.

Although we are not obligated to provide ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades, or updates to the Point of Sale Computer System, we do require that you purchase a software support service contract and a hardware support service contract for the Point of Sale Computer System, and we may be a vendor for these services. We currently have four (4) tiers of Point of Sale Computer System services that you may select. Tier 0 is the minimum requirement, includes network security and encryption and will cost approximately $1,300 per year. Tier 1 is the next option, adds incremental Point of Sale Computer System maintenance, support, menu changes and back-office software maintenance, and will cost approximately $7,500 per year. Tier 2 is the next option, adds incremental help desk and depot services, and will cost approximately $10,000 per year. Tier 3 is the most comprehensive option and adds incremental labor scheduling, food cost management, mobility, dashboard reporting and certain analytics, and will cost approximately $12,000 per year.

We recommend a separate computer (aside from the Point of Sale Computer System) with a Windows 7 Professional Operating System (or supported version of MS Windows) for your general office needs. We recommend certain computer software that is of assistance in operating your business. The computer you select must have the capacity to operate the recommended software and the Windows 7 Professional Operating System (or supported version of Microsoft Windows). In addition, because of the rapid advances in computer and communications technology, we may require you to add computer hardware and software not only for Point of Sale transactions but for training, communications, or other systems (at our direction by revising the Village Inn's Operating Manual) to accommodate any advances Village Inn determines are in the best interest of the Village Inn's franchise system which includes, without limitation, that we may require a particular firewall (hardware and/or software. You will incur the cost of the required hardware and software and there are no contractual limitations on the frequency and cost of this obligation, but it is Village Inn's policy not to require significant upgrades more than once every 5 years. In addition, you are required to acquire and maintain a high-speed broadband Internet/DSL/Cable connection to accommodate communication and training systems. You will be solely responsible for the acquisition, operation, maintenance, and upgrading of the computer. Neither we nor any third party is obligated to provide ongoing maintenance, repairs, or updates for the computer. We do not require you to purchase a service contract for this computer.

You are required to report the following data by restaurant on a weekly basis: sales, and guest counts. If you are Tier 1 or higher, Village Inn may perform this function for you.

You are required to install and maintain a Meraki security appliance as specified by Village Inn and connect to the Village Inn Meraki concentrator. The cost of a Meraki security appliance is $1,500 per license for a 3-year term per restaurant. Your Point of Sale Computer System and other computers must follow the Payment Card Industry (PCI) DSS merchant requirements as stated on the <http://www.pcisecuritystandards.org>. The Point of Sale Computer System must be segmented off of other internal business networks. You must use internal or third party IT network resources, which include security shield, threat defender, and breach protection programs. We may suggest third party PCI compliance vendors to you, but you are responsible for your own PCI compliance and general data security at your Restaurant whether or not we provide network security and encryption services as set forth above. Village Inn does not currently have independent access to the information and data collected and generated by your computer system, however, we reserve the right to do so in the future.

Village Inn recommends you purchase the latest version of Microsoft Office. Microsoft Office includes Microsoft Excel and Microsoft Word, which will allow effective communication between the home office and franchise locations. If you elect to purchase a software and hardware support service contract from Village Inn, you must also install the appropriate tool(s) to allow us remote access to the Point of Sale Computer System. Additionally, at your expense, appropriate security precautions must be in place, including a Village Inn-approved antivirus agent, proper encryption for secure data and information, anti-spyware software, and basic security policies that assure data integrity and confidentiality meeting Village Inn minimum specifications. Village Inn reserves the right to scan and monitor your system and audit your system at our sole discretion.

All of the preceding computer system requirements are set forth in the Operating Manual, as may be updated from time to time in our sole discretion. Additional charges for computer, software or licensing fees may be charged in the future if there are changes or updates to the computer system requirements set forth in the Operating Manual.

OPERATING MANUAL:

Before you sign the Franchise Agreement, we will give you the opportunity to review the current Operating Manual for Village Inn Restaurants. The Operating Manual contains approximately 100 pages. The Operating Manual may be subject to revisions or additional requirements at any time.

FRANCHISE ADVISORY BOARD:

Village Inn has a Franchise Advisory Board. Its purpose is to provide a forum for the exchange of information regarding operations, marketing, research and development, and other issues relating to the Village Inn System as a whole. The board members are nominated by the franchisees in their respective regions. The Franchise Advisory Board serves in an advisory capacity only and does not have decision-making power. Village Inn has the power to change or dissolve the Franchise Advisory Board.

ITEM 12

Territory

Franchise Agreement

The Village Inn Restaurant must be established at a specific location of which we approve. If Village Inn approves a franchise for a specific location under a Franchise Agreement, it will not operate another restaurant using the trade name “Village Inn,” or permit another franchisee to establish another Village Inn Restaurant within a three-mile radius of that location (“Franchise Area”). Village Inn also will not alter, modify, or amend the Franchise Area for an existing location without the Franchisee’s consent. However, a Franchisee will not receive the right to acquire additional franchises within the geographic area of his/her/its restaurant. Additionally, Village Inn may own or operate a directly competitive restaurant within the Franchise Area, and may own or operate a Village Inn Restaurant within the Franchise Area if it is acquired as part of a purchase of restaurants which includes at least one restaurant outside the Franchise Area and the Franchisee declines to purchase that restaurant at Village Inn’s cost. However, Village Inn shall not offer whole pies branded as “Village Inn” at any restaurant owned, franchised, or acquired by Village Inn or its affiliates or subsidiaries (except at Village Inn branded restaurants operated in conformance with the Franchise Agreement) within the Franchised Area.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control, including the Internet, and we have no obligation to pay you any compensation for soliciting or accepting orders inside your Franchise Area.

Except as stated above, Village Inn may engage in any business activity or own, operate, develop, franchise, or license other franchises or company-operated outlets selling similar products or services (full-service restaurants) under different trade names or service marks even if such restaurants offer products similar to those which are or may be offered at Village Inn Restaurants. Village Inn has created, and may continue to create, food and merchandise bearing the trademarks and service marks licensed to Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement. Franchisee may sell such food and merchandise only from the Restaurant, only at retail, and only in the manner specified by, and with the prior written consent of, Village Inn. Village Inn reserves to itself the right to sell such food and merchandise through other channels of distribution, such as at retail, on the Internet, and at wholesale to retail outlets (such as grocery stores, discount retailers, convenience stores, and the like), whether such outlets are within the Franchised Area or elsewhere. Village Inn also may license others to prepare and sell such products at retail or wholesale. Franchisor also reserves the right to distribute its products to other restaurants within or outside of the Franchised Area for sale at retail by such restaurants.

Under the terms of the Franchise Agreement, the continuation of a Franchisee’s Franchise Area is not dependent upon the achievement of a certain sales volume, market penetration, or other contingency. However, if a Franchisee wishes to relocate the restaurant, Village Inn’s prior approval is required. In conducting our evaluation of a proposed site for relocation, we may consider a variety of factors including demographics, traffic counts, ingress-egress, visibility, residential density, parking, and governmental regulations concerning setbacks, sign codes, and the terms of the purchase agreement or lease.

As described in Item 1, we and our parent BBQ own and operate and franchise, and our affiliates own and operate and franchise, various restaurant concepts in the United States, including Baker’s Square and Famous Dave’s. As noted in Item 1 some of them share our corporate address and certain personnel, and several of these restaurant concepts promote and offer pies as part of their primary dessert menu through similar means. We, our parent BBQ and our affiliates may in the future acquire and then operate and/or franchise other restaurant concepts. You have no options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises in these existing restaurant concepts or any other concepts we, our parent BBQ or our affiliates may operate or franchise under your Franchise Agreement, and we, BBQ, our affiliates and any franchisees of these other concepts may solicit and accept orders for their products and services in your Franchise Area and/or Growth Area. We do not maintain any formal process to resolve potential conflicts between you and franchisees of our systems that we or our affiliates operate, and expect that we will address any conflicts that may arise on a case-by-case basis as we determine appropriate under the circumstances.

Trademarks

You receive the right to operate a Village Inn Restaurant under the name “Village Inn” and under any other trade names, trademarks, service marks and logos currently used or that may in the future be used in the operation of Village Inn Restaurants. We may change or modify the Marks and you must adopt, use and display the new or modified trade names, service marks, trademarks and copyrighted materials at your expense. We hold registrations for the following principal trademarks on the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office Principal (“USPTO”) Register following assignment from ABRH:

In addition to the above-referenced Marks, Village Inn makes use of other trademarks, service marks, tag lines, and slogans, from time to time, in which it claims intellectual property ownership. We or our predecessor ABRH have filed all required affidavits with regard to the Marks. There are currently no effective material determinations of the Patent and Trademark Office, trademark trial and appeal board, the trademark administrator of any state, or any court involving the principal trade or service marks. There are no pending infringement actions, oppositions, or cancellations or pending material litigation involving the principal trade or service marks. Additionally, Village Inn is not aware of any infringing uses of the service marks which could materially affect your use of them.

There are no agreements currently in effect that significantly limit the rights of Village Inn to use or license the use of its trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes, or other commercial symbols in any manner material to you. Accordingly, Village Inn grants you a non-exclusive right to use the above marks in connection with and at the franchised restaurant location during the term of the Franchise Agreement. However, even during such term, marks other than the Village Inn trade or service marks identified above must require prior written approval of Village Inn before they can be used. The determination as to whether such marks are necessary or required for your franchise restaurant will be at Village Inn's sole discretion.

You acknowledge in the Franchise Agreement that the registered service marks and trade names, the words, "Village Inn", and any artwork, stylized lettering, logo, or design associated with any of the marks are the property of Village Inn and have valuable goodwill attached to them. In using the service marks and trade names, you must identify that you are using them under license from Village Inn and that you are completely separate from Village Inn. You may not use any of the marks or the words, "Village Inn", in the name of your business entity or allow their use by another. You may not sell or provide any products or services under any of the trade or service marks and trade names except in accordance with the system for Village Inn Restaurants offered by Village Inn.

You must notify us immediately if you suspect any unauthorized use or claim relating to the use of any registered marks owned by Village Inn. Village Inn is not obligated to protect your rights to use the marks or to protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition. However, Village Inn has, in the past, taken all legal action it has considered necessary to protect its marks. Further, pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, you agree to cooperate with Village Inn, as reasonably requested and at Village Inn's expense, in the litigation or defense of any infringement, suit, or claim, and you shall not enter into any negotiation or settlement of any such claim or suit without the prior written consent of Village Inn regarding the trademarks.

You must modify or discontinue, at your cost and expense, the use of a mark if Village Inn modifies or discontinues it, provided, however that if it would cost more than $10,000, you must make any such change only if you agree to do so in writing. Additionally, as a condition to the licensing of such marks, you agree not to directly or indirectly contest Village Inn's right to its service marks, trademarks, trade secrets, or business techniques that are a part of Village Inn's business.

Patents, Copyrights, and Proprietary Information

Village Inn possesses certain copyrights and has registered some of them with the United States Copyright Office. Village Inn's copyrights include the Village Inn operations manual, marketing manual, training materials, and other materials of similar nature, none of which has been federally registered. You acknowledge in the Franchise Agreement that these, as well as all other aspects of the Village Inn System, are proprietary. You also agree not to divulge such information and to use your best efforts to prevent them from being disclosed by your employees and agents.

Any unauthorized use of the proprietary information should promptly be reported to Village Inn. However, Village Inn is not required to take action or participate in any litigation with respect to unauthorized use of its copyrighted materials but will respond to unauthorized uses as it deems appropriate. The Franchise Agreement does not grant you the right to control any copyright-related litigation or grant you rights if Village Inn modifies or discontinues using any copyrighted material. Village Inn has no knowledge of any copyright infringement.

Village Inn claims proprietary rights in many aspects of its franchise system including: (i) method and procedures relating to the development and operation of Village Inn Restaurants, (ii) management and personnel training, (iii) product development and testing, (iv) food, menu specifications, and recipes, (v) site selection, (vi) restaurant construction and equipment, (vii) marketing and promotion, (viii) back office accounting systems, (ix) purchasing arrangements and vendor lists, and (x) administrative support. You are permitted to use such proprietary information in the operation of your Village Inn franchise strictly in accordance with the Franchise Agreement and the Village Inn system.

No patents are material to the franchise. We do not have any pending patent applications.

ITEM 15

Obligation to Participate in the Actual Operation of the Franchise Business

Additionally, during the entire term of the franchise, you must designate a Director of Operations who (i) is approved by Village Inn; (ii) successfully completes the required training program; and (iii) is primarily responsible for the operations of your Village Inn Restaurant. You may be the Director of Operations if you satisfy the requirements.

In addition, during the entire term of the Franchise Agreement, you must employ, in addition to the Director of Operations, on a full-time basis, not less than two managers. Village Inn must approve them, and they must pass Village Inn's manager training program.

One of the three above individuals must be designated as the General Manager and be responsible for the direct on-premises day-to-day supervision of your restaurant. One of the other two individuals shall be responsible for the direct on-premises supervision of the restaurant in the General Manager's absence. The Director of Operations may be the General Manager. However, he or she cannot serve as a General Manager for more than one franchise restaurant. Neither the General Manager nor the Director of Operations is required to hold any equity interest in the Franchisee.

If any of the above individuals terminates his or her employment with you or the person's responsibilities change from restaurant operations, you agree to (i) immediately notify Village Inn of the change; (ii) reassign personnel or responsibilities so that there will always be direct on-premises supervision of the restaurant by at least two Village Inn-approved and trained managers; and (iii) within 60 days, either replace such individual(s) with another person(s) Village Inn has approved and who has successfully completed the required training or reinstate the previous individual(s) to their previous operational responsibility.

If the Franchisee is a legal entity, each individual or entity owner must sign a personal guarantee of all of the obligations of the Franchisee. If you are an individual and married, your spouse must also execute and deliver to us a personal guarantee at the same time that you sign the Franchise Agreement unless your spouse is also signing the agreement as an individual. Additionally, Village Inn may require you to have designated employees execute confidentiality agreements with respect to Village Inn’s confidential information. You and all directors, officers, managers, partners, shareholders, members, or other ownership interest in 25% or greater in the franchise are bound by the non-competition provisions of the Franchise Agreement as described in Item 17 below.

Restrictions on What the Franchisee May Sell

You must offer for sale only approved products and menus, which, except as to prices, will generally be uniform with those of other Village Inn Restaurants. You must prepare and serve in accordance with our specifications all of the items on the approved menu. However, we may modify any of our menu specifications, standards, and requirements at any time. If we do, you must promptly modify your operations to comply with the changes, but we normally will provide you a reasonable period of time to exhaust current supplies of products.

Additionally, Village Inn has the right to restrict the sale of any item and to require you to add new items as it develops and adds them to the Village Inn menu. Our right to modify or add to what you must offer is not limited. Also, Village Inn retains the right to prohibit you from offering or selling any product or service not authorized by Village Inn. There are no restrictions or conditions imposed by Village Inn regarding the customers to whom you may sell approved products or services.

*As part of its bankruptcy proceeding, our predecessor ABRH marketed certain company-affiliated Village Inn Restaurants for sale through a bankruptcy-related sale process. As a result of that process, ABRH sold three company-operated Village Inn Restaurants in New Mexico to a new franchisee in April 2020, three company-operated Village Inn Restaurants in Florida to an existing franchisee in June 2020 and thirty-one company-operated Village Inn Restaurants in Arizona, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Utah to an existing franchisee in July 2020.

M. “System” has the definition given to it in Section 1.3, below.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. THE SYSTEM

1.1. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor owns and is continually developing and modifying a system for the operation of restaurants under the service mark, “Village Inn Restaurant” (the “System”). By entering into this Agreement, Franchisee acknowledges that it is undertaking the continuing obligation to utilize the entire System in the operation of its Restaurant, including, but not limited to, Franchisor’s Operating Manuals and Standards and Policies, as the System presently exists and evolves.

1.2. The provisions of this Agreement shall be interpreted to give effect to Franchisee's acknowledgment that the Licensed Location shall always be operated by Franchisee in conformity to the System, through strict adherence to Franchisor's Standards and Policies as they exist now and as they may from time to time be modified.

1.3. The System is a comprehensive uniform restaurant system which includes but is not limited to such factors as reputation for high-quality food and service; distinctive appearance; distinctive interior decor and atmosphere; equipment design and layout; food product, menu, beverage, and recipe specifications; the federally registered service mark, "Village Inn"; other service marks; domain names; distinctive signs; distinctive menu design, format, and content; distinctive dress codes; advertising and marketing plans and materials; emblems; logos and logotypes; trade secrets; training materials; Operating Manuals; Standards and Policies; and other common factors. Franchisee acknowledges that adherence to the System creates significant value for Franchisor, Franchisor's franchisees, and Franchisee such that deviations from the System by Franchisee would cause significant damage to Franchisor and its other franchisees.

1.4. Franchisee agrees to strictly adhere to and not use any part of the System other than in accordance with this Agreement.

1.5. Franchisee acknowledges that aspects of the System, individually and collectively, constitute trade secrets of Franchisor and will always remain the sole and exclusive property of Franchisor, and that they are and will be revealed to Franchisee only in confidence. Franchisee agrees never to divulge such trade secrets and the System, and agrees to use its best efforts to prevent them from being divulged by its employees, shareholders, or agents.

1.6. Franchisee acknowledges that the words, "Village Inn," together with design and artwork used in connection with those words, are the valid and exclusive property of Franchisor and that valuable goodwill is attached to the name, "Village Inn." Franchisee agrees that it will use the words, "Village Inn," only pursuant to this Agreement. However, Franchisee also acknowledges that Franchisor may license others to use this name.

2. GRANT AND LOCATION

2.1. Franchisor grants to Franchisee the right and Franchisee undertakes the obligation to operate a Village Inn Restaurant at the Licensed Location. The right that is granted to Franchisee under this Agreement is for the specific Licensed Location, except as hereinafter provided, and cannot be transferred from such location without Franchisor's prior written approval.

2.2. Franchisee shall open for operation the Village Inn Restaurant at the Licensed Location within eighteen (18) months from the Effective Date of this Agreement.

2.3. Franchisor will not license, franchise, or itself operate another Village Inn Restaurant within the Franchised Area. Additionally, Franchisor will not own or operate a directly competitive restaurant (as defined in Section 17.1, below) in the Franchised Area without the express consent of Franchisee, except as referenced in Section 2.4 below or if such restaurant is acquired by Franchisor in conjunction with the purchase of multiple restaurants at least one of which is located outside the Franchised Area, and Franchisee declines to purchase such restaurant(s) in the Franchised Area from Franchisor within sixty (60) days after notice is provided to Franchisee. Further, the Franchisor shall not offer whole pies branded as “Village Inn” at any restaurant owned, franchised, or acquired by Franchisor or its affiliates or subsidiaries (except at Village Inn branded restaurants operated in conformance with this provision) within the Franchised Area.

2.4. Except as specifically provided in Section 2.3, Franchisor may engage in any business activity, under any name, at any location. Among other things, Franchisor expressly reserves the exclusive and unrestricted right to own, operate, develop, or franchise Village Inn Restaurants anywhere outside the Franchised Area. Further, Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor or Franchisor’s direct or indirect parent, subsidiaries, or affiliated entities may now or hereafter own, operate, develop, franchise, or license other restaurants under different trademarks and trade names or service marks within and outside of the Franchised Area, regardless of whether such restaurants offer products similar to those which are or may be offered at Village Inn Restaurants.

3. TERM

3.1. This Agreement will begin on the Effective Date and shall expire on the earlier of: (a) ten (10) years from the date of the opening of the Village Inn Restaurant at the Licensed Location; or (b) or the expiration of the term of your lease or sublease, as applicable (excluding any option/extension periods thereto of such lease or sublease), subject to Village Inn’s approval, subject to provisions hereinafter set forth (“Initial Term”).

3.2. At the expiration of this Agreement, Franchisee shall have the option to extend the term of this Agreement for a period of five (5) years or a term mutually agreeable between the parties to be coterminous with the Franchisee’s existing lease if Franchisee:

(a) Provides Franchisor with written notice of its intent to renew the franchise at least six (6) months, but not more than twelve (12) months, prior to the expiration of the Initial Term.

(b) Provides Franchisor with evidence of Franchisee’s right to possess the Licensed Location for the extended term.

(c) Executes the form of Village Inn franchise agreement (with the then-existing royalty and marketing fees, and other then-current fees, terms, and conditions) being offered by Franchisor for new franchised locations (or, if Franchisor is not then offering Village Inn franchises, the form most recently offered) at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term. Such agreement, however, shall provide for the payment of a renewal/extension of fifty percent (50%) of the then-current initial franchise fee not including any discounts or reductions payable to us when you renew this Agreement.

(d) Is not in default under this Agreement or any other agreement with Franchisor or its affiliates (i) at the time Franchisee provides Franchisor with its written notice of intent to renew or is eligible to do so, (ii) at the time Franchisee executes the new franchise agreement, or (iii) upon the expiration of the Initial Term.

(e) Has not received a written notice of default under this Agreement or any other agreement with Franchisor or its affiliates in the three (3) calendar year period immediately preceding the receipt of the notice of intent to renew.

(f) Upgrades and/or remodels the Licensed Location and the operations with respect to it, at Franchisee's sole cost and expense (the necessity of which shall be in the sole discretion of Franchisor), to conform with the most current Village Inn Restaurant prototype, design, standards, specifications, and requirements. Such upgrades and/or remodels are to be completed at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term.

(g) Concurrently with the execution of the new franchise agreement, executes a general release of all claims against the Franchisor Indemnitees.

4. INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE

4.1. Franchisee shall pay Franchisor an initial franchise fee of Thirty-Five Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($35,000.00) ("Initial Franchise Fee"), which shall be paid no later than the execution of this Agreement. Except as provided in this Agreement, the Initial Franchise Fee is nonrefundable.

5. ROYALTY FEE

5.1. Beginning with the opening of Franchisee's Restaurant at the Licensed Location ("Royalty Commencement Date"), Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a royalty fee ("Royalty" or "Royalties") equal to four percent (4.0%) of Franchisee's Gross Sales (as defined in Section 5.2, below). Payment shall be made weekly as provided in Section 5.3, below, unless prepaid as permitted in Section 5.4, below.

5.2. "Gross Sales" shall mean the total amount of sales made by Franchisee from all business activities conducted by or through the Restaurant, or taking place at the Licensed Location, in the form of cash, check, credit, or otherwise (without reserve or deduction for inability or failure to collect the same), and includes, without limitation, the sale of food, beverages, goods and services, whether sold for consumption on or off the premises, receipts from food catering, and sales from vending, amusement, or entertainment machines (regardless of whether such business activities are permitted by this Agreement or not). Further, Gross Sales shall be based on the actual price charged by Franchisee. Gross Sales shall not include tips and gratuities for employees or sales taxes actually collected and paid to a governmental agency. Furthermore, for the avoidance of doubt, loyalty redemptions, "Free Pie Wednesdays" discounts, senior discounts, delivery fees, and other customary promotions or discounts shall not be included in Gross Sales. Franchisee shall, by January 21st of each year, provide to Franchisor a written report containing information regarding Franchisee's Gross Sales for the previous Fiscal Year and such additional information as may be required by Franchisor.

5.3. The Royalty under this Agreement shall be paid on Tuesday of each week, or such other day of the week as determined by Franchisor after a thirty (30) day prior written notice is provided to Franchisee (email suffices), during the entire term of this Agreement by pre-authorized debit via the Automated Clearing House (ACH), unless prepaid as permitted in Section 5.4 below.

5.4. After operating the Restaurant for at least one full Fiscal Year, Franchisee is granted the option to annually prepay the Royalty for that year and thereby receive a ten percent (10%) discount on the Royalty due under Section 5.1 by paying to Franchisor on or before February 1 an amount equal to ninety percent (90%) of that year's projected royalty ("Prepaid Royalty"). The projected royalty ("Projected Royalty") is equal to four percent (4%) of the Gross Sales from the Franchisee's preceding fiscal year. In making the calculation of the Projected Royalty, the beginning date for the preceding Fiscal Year shall be based on the Franchisor's fiscal period with Fiscal Year being a 52-week fiscal year consisting of twelve (12) fiscal periods ending on the last business day of the Fiscal Year of the Franchisor. Franchisor and Franchisee agree to, on or before February 1, reconcile the difference between the Prepaid Royalty and the Royalty due based upon Franchisee's actual Gross Sales (while still subject to the 10% discount) during the preceding Fiscal Year. For example, if Franchisee's Projected Royalty was \$50,000 (based on Gross Sales of \$1,250,000), and thus the Prepaid Royalty was \$45,000, but Franchisee's actual Gross Sales during the Fiscal Year were equal to \$1,500,000, Franchisee would owe Franchisor an additional \$9,000. ($\$1,500,000 \times 4\% = \$60,000$ Royalties owed $\times 10\%$ discount = \$54,000 less \$45,000 prepaid = a remaining owed balance of \$9,000).

6. MARKETING

6.1. Franchisor develops and administers marketing, advertising, public relations, and campaigns designed to promote and enhance the Village Inn brand image. These services and their costs include but are not limited to market analyses; public relations studies or services; program direction; production of TV and radio commercials; print advertising materials; direct mail and outdoor materials; internet activities; agency fees; recruiting and retention of marketing personnel; menu development; other costs related to the development, marketing, and testing of advertising; and the purchase of advertising time or space in national, regional, or other advertising vehicles. Accordingly, in each Fiscal Year, Franchisee agrees to pay Franchisor a marketing fee ("Marketing Fee") which will be held by Franchisor in a segregated account ("Marketing Fee Fund"). In addition to all amounts payable to Village Inn by Franchisee pursuant to this Agreement, each Tuesday Franchisee will pay a Marketing Fund Fee equal to a specified percentage of the Revenues generated by Franchisee's Restaurant for the preceding week, unless that day is a non-business day, in which case the Marketing Fund Fee is payable to Village Inn on the next business day. The Marketing Fund Fees will be deposited into one or more local, regional, national or international Marketing Funds (collectively, the "Fund" or the "Marketing Fund"), which will be administered and controlled exclusively by Village Inn. The Marketing Fund Fee amount that Franchisee must pay pursuant to this Article 6.1 is an amount equal to 1% of the Restaurant's weekly Revenues. Village Inn reserves the right to increase this percentage upon 60 days prior written notice to Franchisee; provided however, that Village Inn may not increase the Marketing Fund Fee by more than ½% in any 12-month period. Franchisor is under no obligation to ensure that the Marketing Fee is expended so as to be proportionate or equivalent to the fees paid by Franchisee or that any particular amount is spent in the Franchised Area. Further, Franchisee agrees that Franchisor's decisions on how the Marketing Fee is used for marketing, advertising, public relations, and promotional campaigns, in all forms, phases, and aspects (including, without limitation, the cost, development, type, quantity, timing, placement and choice of media and means, including digital advertising, market areas, advertising agencies, and public relations firms), are entirely at Franchisor's sole discretion, final, and determinative. Franchisor has no fiduciary obligation to Franchisee in connection with the operation of any Marketing Fee Fund. No interest on an unexpended Marketing Fee shall be imputed or otherwise charged for the benefit of, or payable to, Franchisee. Franchisee understands and agrees that the only obligations Franchisor has regarding the collection and spending of the Marketing Fee or the administration of the Marketing Fee Fund are the express contractual obligations in this Section 6.1. Franchisor is not acting as a trustee, fiduciary, agent or in any other special capacity. Franchisor does not give any representation or warranty regarding the quality or effectiveness of the advertising and marketing activities funded by the Marketing Fee or of the Marketing Fee Fund, and Franchisor will have no liability to Franchisee with respect to how these funds are spent.

6.2. In addition to the payment of the fees required in Section 6.1, in each Fiscal Year, Franchisee shall spend money for local marketing/advertising promotions for its Restaurant, in an amount determined by Franchisor but no more than one percent (1%) of the Fiscal Year Gross Sales from the Licensed Location. The means by which Franchisee shall conduct its local marketing/advertising promotions are at Franchisee's discretion but subject to the requirements of Section 6.5.

6.3. Village will provide access to a "grand opening celebration" package that will include advertising and promotional materials for Franchisee's Restaurant. Franchisee will spend a minimum of $10,000 (or such other greater amount determined by Village Inn, in its sole and absolute discretion, and specified in writing by Village Inn) on the grand opening celebration for Franchisee's Restaurant. The grand opening expenditures can be applied toward the local advertising requirements of this Agreement. Village Inn reserves the right to request written documentation from Franchisee sufficient to establish to Village Inn's satisfaction that such expenditures were actually made by Franchisee. Such documentation will be provided to Village Inn within 15 days after Village Inn's request.

6.4. All fees required to be paid pursuant to Sections 6.1 and 6.2 shall be calculated and paid in the same manner and under the same schedule as Franchisee's Royalty. Franchisor may at any time increase the percentage which Franchisee is required to pay to Franchisor or spend for local marketing/advertising under this Article 6, but in no event shall Franchisee be required to spend more than a total of two percent (2%) of the Gross Sales at the Licensed Location in any Fiscal Year on the fees or required expenditures under this Article 6. Franchisor does not represent to Franchisee that such level of advertising is adequate, and Franchisee may make its own determination to increase its spending on advertising in excess of that required in this Agreement, subject to the requirements of Section 6.5.

6.5. Franchisee shall use only approved marketing/advertising media vehicles and materials. Approved marketing/advertising media vehicles are limited to (i) television and radio; (ii) newspapers, magazines, and other such print vehicles; (iii) outdoor, transit, and other signage displayed on billboards or buildings (excluding on-premises signs or lighting); (iv) direct mail flyers, door hangers, and handbills; (v) internet web sites; and (vi) other means approved by Franchisor in advance in writing, which shall be at Franchisor's sole and absolute discretion. All marketing/advertising materials to be used by Franchisee, except those made available and approved for use by Franchisor, shall require Franchisor's written approval prior to their use, and such approval shall be at Franchisor's sole and absolute discretion. Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor, in each instance, all marketing/advertising materials requiring approval by Franchisor prior to use. Franchisor shall notify Franchisee, within ten (10) business days of Franchisee's request, as to whether it approves the use of such materials. Franchisor's failure to notify Franchisee within such ten (10) business days, shall not be deemed as an automatic approval of the request.

7. DEBTS, TAXES, INTEREST AND BREACHING ROYALTIES

7.1. Franchisee will pay when due and without abatement, offset, diminution, or reduction, all of Franchisee's obligations due and payable to Franchisor at the place designated by Franchisor, and to all other suppliers or creditors of Franchisee.

7.2. Franchisee shall promptly pay in full all city, county, state, and federal taxes (including gross receipts, business and occupation or similar taxes assessed against Franchisor) arising in connection with or levied or assessed by any governmental body in connection with any part of this Agreement, the operation of the Restaurant, or any of the merchandise or assets at the Licensed Location.

7.3. In the event that Franchisee fails to pay any sum which it is obligated to pay to Franchisor for any reason whatsoever, a late fee of 5% of the amount due and owing shall be assessed if not made within five (5) days after the obligation is due and owing. Thereafter, interest at the rate of three percent (3%) over the publicly announced prime rate of Franchisor's prime lender, adjusted annually on April 1 each year, per annum (but not to exceed the lawful maximum rate within the jurisdiction of the Licensed Location), will accrue on all such unpaid amounts until paid in full. The late fee and interest, however, shall not prohibit Franchisor from declaring a default as provided elsewhere in this Agreement.

7.4. Franchisor has the absolute right to increase the Royalty up to eighteen percent (18%) of Gross Sales, with respect to any period during which Franchisee is in breach or default of Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement without providing Franchisee advance notice or right to cure. The Royalty Fee paid or owing to Franchisor with respect to the period during which Franchisee is in breach or default are referred to as "Breaching Royalties." Breaching Royalties will be charged for a minimum fourteen (14)-day period, regardless of the length of the actual breach or default. In the event Franchisee prepaid Royalties pursuant to Section 5.4, then the Breaching Royalties in excess of the four percent (4%) Projected Royalty shall be due and owing for the time period Franchisee is in breach of default upon Franchisor's written demand.

8. OTHER INVESTMENTS REQUIRED OF FRANCHISEE

In addition to all payments, fees, and other obligations required in this Agreement, Franchisee acknowledges that it has made and will continually maintain cash investments in its business, including, but not limited to (i) land and building lease deposits (or equity investment if Franchisee owns its land and building); (ii) equipment lease deposits (or equity investment if Franchisee owns its equipment); and (iii) cash working capital of not less than Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00).

9. RESTAURANT FACILITY

9.1. At Franchisee's expense, and in accordance with plans and specifications approved by Franchisor prior to the commencement of work, Franchisee shall establish and maintain at the Licensed Location a fully equipped Village Inn Restaurant in compliance with the System.

9.2. Franchisor shall provide to Franchisee (in hard copy, electronically or on computer disk in Print Document Format (PDF) file) one set of Franchisor's standard plans and specifications (excluding site development plans and without architectural seal) for the construction and equipping of a new Village Inn Restaurant. Franchisee shall be solely responsible for making modifications to such plans and incurring all expenses to bring them into compliance with Franchisee's lease requirements and applicable building codes, zoning, accessibility, and other governmental requirements relating to the Licensed Location, including without limitation the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"). Any costs incurred by the Franchisor with respect to a change to the Franchisor's standard plans and specifications, shall be borne by the Franchisee.

9.3. If there is an existing structure at the Licensed Location which is to be converted into a Village Inn Restaurant, Franchisor will provide to Franchisee, at Franchisee's expense, minimum specifications for the conversion. However, in any case, Franchisee shall be solely responsible for developing plans and incurring whatever expenses are necessary to comply with Franchisee's lease requirements and all applicable governmental requirements.

9.4. All changes or modifications to previously approved plans or specifications relating to the building, remodeling, refurbishing, or equipping of the Licensed Location shall in each case be submitted to and approved by Franchisor prior to commencement of work.

9.5. Franchisee agrees to make, at its expense, necessary maintenance and repairs to keep the improvements constructed at the Licensed Location, and all furniture, fixtures, and equipment in the Restaurant, in good condition and repair, consistent with Franchisor's standards and specifications, throughout the entire term of this Agreement.

9.6. Franchisor shall have the right, not more than once every five (5) years during the term of this Agreement, to specify in writing the work which Franchisee must undertake to refurbish, remodel, re-equip, or repair the Restaurant in accordance with Franchisor's then-current prototype, design, standards, and specifications for Village Inn Restaurants (the "Upgrade"). Franchisee agrees, at its expense, to perform such work within a reasonable time, not to exceed two hundred and seventy (270) days, after receipt of Franchisor's notice, and to pay Franchisor's then-current fee for remodel plans (currently $7,500). Nothing herein shall be construed to relieve Franchisee of any part of its responsibility for keeping the Licensed Restaurant, with all of its furnishings, fixtures, and equipment, in continuous good repair, maintenance, and appearance.

In the event the franchisee owns two or more Village Inn Restaurants, the Parties agree that the Franchisee will not be required to Upgrade more than 50% of the Franchisee's restaurants in any given year. Moreover, if the Franchisee believes that notwithstanding the foregoing, the demand for Upgrade will cause undue economic burden on the Franchisee or its operation, the parties agree to negotiate in good faith a remodel schedule that will "smooth" the obligation over a number of years, taking into account all Upgrades that are projected to be required throughout the smoothing period. By way of example, if Franchisee would otherwise be required to remodel three restaurants in Year 2, the parties could negotiate to allow the Franchisee to remodel a restaurant in Year 1, a restaurant in Year 2, and a restaurant in Year 3—taking into account that any restaurants that would need to be remodeled in Years 1 and 3 might also then requiring a negotiated smoothing schedule. The intent of the parties is to reach an overall Upgrade schedule that keeps the restaurants current without causing undue economic burden on the Franchisee or its operations.

9.7. Franchisor or its designated representative shall be allowed, at Franchisor's expense, to view the Restaurant during construction or renovation for the purpose of determining the progress of the construction. However, Franchisor's viewing during construction will not, in any way, be deemed an acknowledgment that the construction is being done in accordance with approved plans and specifications, in compliance with applicable governmental requirements, or in a good and workmanlike manner. Accordingly, Franchisor will have no duty or obligation to Franchisee or any other party whatsoever for these matters, all of which are the sole responsibility of Franchisee.

9.8. No later than the commencement of the pre-opening training at the Licensed Location, Franchisee shall provide to Franchisor a letter from a licensed architect certifying that the Restaurant has been constructed in substantial compliance with the plans and specifications approved by Franchisor and in accordance with all applicable governmental requirements. Additionally, Franchisee shall provide to Franchisor an unconditional final certificate of occupancy issued by the appropriate governmental entity prior to opening the Restaurant.

9.9. Franchisee will be solely responsible for inspections during construction or renovation to confirm that the Licensed Location and the Restaurant is being constructed or renovated in a workmanlike manner and according to the specifications established by Franchisor. Franchisee will be solely responsible for complying with all federal, state and local laws, ordinances, statutes, and building codes, including without limitation the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"), and for acquiring all licenses and building and other permits required by law in connection with the construction or renovation of Franchisee's Restaurant at the Franchised Location. Franchisor will have no responsibility to Franchisee or any other party. Franchisee will not open the Restaurant for business without the prior written approval of Franchisor.

10. OPERATIONS

10.1. Franchisee is solely responsible for the operation of its Restaurant in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, the Operating Manuals, and Standards and Policies. Franchisor will provide general assistance in coordinating the Licensed Location's pre-opening activities. Additionally, Franchisor may but is not obligated to provide such advice and counsel and information on new developments and techniques as it deems appropriate, by sending representatives to visit the Licensed Location; through written and other materials; and at meetings, seminars, and training sessions. Franchisee and all of its required individuals shall be obligated, at Franchisee's expense, to attend any meeting, seminar, or training session designated as mandatory by Franchisor, including, but not limited to, those described in Section 12.3.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisor may designate certain aspects of the System or Standards and Policies as either mandatory or suggested.

10.2. Franchisee covenants and warrants with respect to the operation of the Restaurant at the Licensed Location that Franchisee and its employees will at all times strictly comply with all of the Operating Manuals, Standards and Policies, and the System. Without limiting the foregoing, throughout the term of this Agreement, Franchisee shall:

(a) Continuously operate only a Village Inn Restaurant at the Licensed Location in accordance with the System and for at least the minimum days and hours prescribed by Franchisor. Franchisee may not relocate the Restaurant from the Licensed Location without the express written approval of Franchisor, which approval may be conditioned on, among other things, compliance with this Agreement and payment of a new prototype plans fee for the new location.

(b) Maintain and operate the Restaurant in a clean, safe, efficient, and high-quality manner in accordance with the System and in such a fashion as not to detract from or adversely impact the name and reputation of Village Inn Restaurants.

(c) Comply with all applicable governmental laws, ordinances, and requirements.

(d) Maintain the condition and appearance of the interior and exterior of the Restaurant building and the furniture, fixtures, and equipment such that they conform strictly with Franchisor's approved plans and Standards and Policies, including all exterior and interior decorating designs and color schemes.

(e) Offer only for sale all food, beverages, and products prescribed by Franchisor, plus such additional food, beverages, or products as may be approved in advance in writing by Franchisor.

(f) Use Franchisor's menu design, format, and content, and not make any change to the menu unless it is pre-approved in writing by Franchisor. The menu content shall consist of Franchisor's approved food and beverage offerings. Franchisee agrees to conform to all menu changes as they occur, or to become current with all changes at least once every six months. Modifications to the menu are allowed only as a reflection of food and beverage items characteristic of Franchisee's local area and subject to Franchisor's testing and prior written approval. Franchisee is at all times free to charge prices entirely of its own choosing. Franchisor may recommend or suggest prices to be charged by Franchisee for a menu item sold or offered, but such is not binding upon Franchisee in any manner.

(g) Order pies made by only a Franchisor approved vendor. In the event the pies provided by the Franchisor's approved vendor do not adhere to the quality and brand standards as the Franchisee expects, the Franchisee shall notify the FAB and the Franchisor in writing of deficiency of quality and brand standards. In the event the FAB agrees with the complaint, and the Franchisor cannot return the pies to same quality and brand standards within sixty (60) days, either the FAB or the Franchisee may request an alternate vendor to source pies. Franchisor agrees to approve any reasonable alternate vendor. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(h) Not deviate from the formulas or recipes specified or approved by Franchisor.

(i) Maintain sufficient inventories and employ adequate and qualified personnel to operate the Restaurant so as to meet the expectations of customers who patronize the Restaurant.

(j) Require employees to conform to the dress code designated in the Operating Manuals. Franchisee bears sole liability for the hiring, firing and personnel decisions, and the terms and conditions of employment, for Franchisee's personnel and staff. Franchisor and Franchisee acknowledge and agree that Franchisor shall not, and shall have no right or authority to, control the employees of the Licensed Location or Franchisee's employees. Franchisor shall have no right or authority with respect to the hiring, termination, discipline, work schedules, pay rates or pay methods of employees of the Licensed Location or of Franchisee. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that all employees of the Licensed Location and of Franchisee shall be the exclusive employees of Franchisee and shall not be employees of Franchisor nor joint employees of Franchisee and Franchisor. Franchisor neither dictates nor controls labor or employment matters for franchisees and their employees and Franchisor is not responsible for the safety and security of the Licensed Location's employees or customers.

(k) Display at the Licensed Location signs using the Village Inn mark as approved by Franchisor, and not display at or about the Licensed Location or anywhere else signs or advertisements of any kind which Franchisor has not approved in writing.

10.3. Franchisee must implement and maintain an approved Payment Card Industry (PCI) compliance program for the Restaurant. Franchisor may suggest third party PCI compliance vendors occasionally, but Franchisee is free to submit alternative PCI compliance vendors to Franchisor for approval or seek approval to perform Franchisee's own PCI compliance, and Franchisee is in all cases solely responsible for Franchisee's and the Restaurant's PCI compliance programs. Franchisor may in its sole discretion require Franchisee to install a particular type of firewall (hardware and/or software) provided that such required firewall hardware and/or software are the same/similar specifications and price points as those used in current corporate-owned/operated Village Inn restaurants. Franchisee must submit PCI compliance reports to Franchisor in the manner and frequency Franchisor sets in the Operating Manuals. Franchisee's failure to comply will be a material default under this Agreement, and in all cases Franchisee is solely liable for data security for the Restaurant and its customers regardless of whether Franchisor performs any services for Franchisee or the Restaurant.

10.4. Subject to Sections 22.3 and 29.21, Franchisee shall immediately resolve any customer complaints (including, but not limited to, complaints received electronically) regarding the quality of food or beverages, service and/or cleanliness of the Restaurant or any similar complaints. When any customer complaints cannot be immediately resolved, Franchisee shall use best efforts to resolve the customer complaints as soon as practical and shall, whenever feasible, give the customer the benefit of the doubt. If Franchisor, in its sole discretion, determines that its intervention is necessary or desirable to protect the System or the goodwill associated with the System, or if Franchisor, in its sole discretion, believes that Franchisee has failed adequately to address or resolve any customer complaints, Franchisor may, without Franchisee's consent, resolve any complaints and charge Franchisee an amount sufficient to cover Franchisor's reasonable costs and expenses in resolving the customer complaints, which amount Franchisee shall pay Franchisor immediately on demand.

10.5. In order to maintain and enhance the goodwill associated with the Marks, the System and each Village Inn Restaurant, among other reasons, Franchisee agrees to participate in and/or request that its customers participate in programs initiated to verify customer satisfaction and/or Franchisee's compliance with all operational and other aspects of the System, including, but not limited to, a guest telephone survey program, an 800 number, secret shoppers or other programs as Franchisor may require. Franchisee will be responsible for all costs associated with these programs in connection with the Restaurant.

11. RESTAURANT MANAGEMENT AND SUPERVISION

11.1. Franchisee agrees that during the entire term of this Agreement, it shall have in place an individual who (i) has been approved by Franchisor; (ii) has successfully completed the training required in Article 12; and (iii) shall be primarily responsible for the operation of the Restaurant ("Director of Operations"). If Franchisee is an individual, he or she, subject to meeting these requirements, may be the Director of Operations.

11.2. During the entire term of this Agreement, Franchisee shall employ, in addition to the Director of Operations, on a full time basis, not less than two (2) managers who have been approved by Franchisor and have successfully completed Franchisor's manager training program as required in Article 12. One of these two (2) individuals or the Director of Operations shall be designated as the General Manager and shall be responsible for the direct on-premises day-to-day supervision of the Restaurant. At least one of the other remaining two (2) individuals shall be responsible for the direct on-premises supervision of the Restaurant in the absence of the General Manager. The General Manager may not serve in more than one restaurant owned by the Franchisee. Furthermore, in the event that one or more of these individuals shall cease to be employed by Franchisee, or such person's responsibilities change from that of restaurant operations, Franchisee agrees to immediately notify Franchisor of the change, and shall (i) within sixty (60) days thereafter, either replace such individual(s) with another person(s) who has/have been approved by Franchisor and successfully completed the required training, or reinstate the previous individual(s) to his/her/their prior operational responsibilities; or (ii) reassign personnel or responsibilities such that there will always be direct on-premises supervision of the Licensed Location by no less than two (2) Franchisor-approved and trained managers.

11.3. Franchisee shall be responsible, during the term of this Agreement, for training Franchisee's employees in the standards, methods, and techniques required for the satisfactory performance of their duties and in compliance with the System.

12. TRAINING

12.1. Franchisee agrees that, no later than four weeks prior to the commencement of operations at the Licensed Location, the Director of Operations and at least two (2) managers responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Restaurant must have successfully completed Franchisor's management training program. Furthermore, a new individual who later replaces any trained person must successfully complete the management training program within sixty (60) days of taking over managerial responsibilities. Franchisor's sole judgment shall determine whether an individual has successfully completed a training program. Franchisee expressly agrees that the opening date of the Restaurant will not be set nor will the Restaurant open until Franchisor is satisfied that Franchisee and its Director of Operations and managerial employees have been adequately trained with respect to the operation of a Village Inn Restaurant.

12.2. The management training program will include instruction and field training at Franchisor's designated training facilities and restaurants. Training will last for such duration as Franchisor determines to be necessary based upon the trainee's performance, prior training, and experience.

12.3. Periodically during the term of this Agreement, but not more frequently than once a year, Franchisor may require Franchisee and its managers, at Franchisee's cost and expense, to attend and successfully complete refresher or additional training courses at such locations and times as Franchisor may determine. Franchisor shall impose no tuition charge for such required training programs, but Franchisee shall be responsible for all expenses incurred by Franchisee or its employees in connection with the training program. Such costs include, by way of example and not limitation, travel, lodging and meals, wages, insurance, employee benefits, training materials, and other related and incidental expenses.

12.4. Franchisee, its managers, or other personnel may also attend, on a space-available basis, any specified training program offered but not required by Franchisor. Franchisee shall pay all costs and expenses in connection with its personnel attending such programs, including, but not limited to, any tuition charged by Franchisor and the expenses described in Section 12.3.

12.5. If the Restaurant is the first Restaurant opened by Franchisee or its affiliates, for a minimum of 18 business days during the pre- and post-opening period of the Restaurant, Franchisor will furnish to Franchisee, at Franchisee's premises and at Franchisee's expense, a new restaurant opening assistance team consisting of at least 10 team members for the purpose of facilitating the opening of the Restaurant. Franchisee will reimburse to Franchisor the costs of its opening assistance team members, including travel, lodging, meals and other expenses incurred, but Franchisor will not charge Franchisee for its team members' salaries. Franchisor may reduce or eliminate its new restaurant opening assistance to Franchisee if Franchisee or its affiliates have previously opened and are operating Restaurants.

13. INSPECTION

13.1. In order to maintain integrity of the Village Inn brand and System and to help achieve customer satisfaction, Franchisee authorizes Franchisor or its representatives to enter the Licensed Location from time to time during business hours, with or without notice, to inspect the premises and its furnishings, fixtures, and equipment; confer with Franchisee's employees; and examine and inspect the operation in all respects, including Franchisee's accounting records, materials, recipes, and formulas, and all public health or other governmental reports. Franchisee agrees to fully cooperate with Franchisor or its designated representative in conducting such inspections, including instructing its employees to provide prompt, accurate, and confidential responses to questions.

13.2. Franchisor's right of inspection shall include (i) videotaping or photographing the operations of the Restaurant, (ii) removing unsatisfactory or non-compliant items; and (iii) obtaining representative samples of foods and other products or materials for testing and analysis.

13.3. If, as a result of such inspection, Franchisee shall be found to be in non-compliance with the System or Franchisor's Standards and Policies, methods, techniques, procedures, policies, rules, or requirements, Franchisee agrees to correct all areas of non-compliance within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from Franchisor.

14. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, REPORTS, RECORD KEEPING AND AUDITS

14.1. For accounting purposes, Franchisee shall establish and maintain an accounting year consisting of a 52-53 week fiscal year and thirteen four-week fiscal periods. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee may establish and maintain its own fiscal year calendar but shall be required to report to Franchisor pursuant to and in accordance with Franchisor's Fiscal Year calendar.

14.2. Franchisee will, at its expense, prepare monthly, quarterly and year-to-date Financial Statements and will deliver those Financial Statements to Franchisor within 30 days after the end of each period; provided, however, Franchisee will also prepare annual Financial Statements that will be delivered to Franchisor no later than 21 days after the end of Franchisee's fiscal year. All Financial Statements will be in the form prescribed by Franchisor. The Financial Statements must be verified by an officer or owner of Franchisee as to accuracy and completeness. All financial information provided to Franchisor by or on behalf of Franchisee may be used or disclosed by Franchisor for any purpose it deems necessary including, but not limited to, in the marketing of franchises and/or preparing financial performance information. If Franchisee fails to provide Franchisor with any required financial statement, Franchisor shall have the right to order an independent audit of Franchisee's books and records, and Franchisee shall promptly pay Franchisor for all costs of such audit.

14.3. Franchisee shall keep full and proper books and records pertaining to the operation of the Licensed Location. Such records shall include but are not limited to documents reflecting local marketing/advertising expenditures; governmental reports and all federal, state, and local tax returns; register tapes; guest checks; daily reports; and all reports required by Franchisee's lease. Franchisee shall maintain such records for a minimum of three (3) years after the end of each Fiscal Year of Franchisor, or such longer period as may be required by applicable governmental requirements. Franchisee shall also report weekly Gross Sales and entrée counts for its Restaurant on Franchisor's PARIS or other designated system.

14.4. All of Franchisee's books and records, including copies of tax returns, so far as they pertain to the operation of the Restaurant, upon reasonable notice shall be open to examination, inspection, and audit by Franchisor or its designated representative at all times, and copies may be made by Franchisor for its use. Upon reasonable notice, Franchisee shall provide Franchisor immediate access to any information, regardless of who possesses it, that relates in any way to the Restaurant, including access that allows Franchisor to electronically receive or collect such information. Franchisee agrees to fully cooperate with Franchisor or its designated representative in conducting such examination, inspection, or audit. If the examination, inspection, or audit discloses that Gross Sales reported by Franchisee are less than the actual Gross Sales, Franchisee shall immediately pay to Franchisor all Royalty fees due based upon the corrected Gross Sales, together with interest at the rate provided in Section 7.3. If Franchisee has overpaid based upon the corrected Gross Sales, Franchisor shall give a credit to Franchisee on subsequent Royalty due by Franchisee. The cost of the examination, inspection, or audit shall be at Franchisor's expense unless the results reveal that Franchisee underreported its Gross Sales by three percent (3%) or more for any fiscal period; Franchisee has failed to prepare and deliver the reports to Franchisor as required; or Franchisee has failed to maintain the books and records as required, in which event Franchisee shall pay or reimburse Franchisor for the costs of the examination, inspection, or audit.

14.5. Franchisee expressly authorizes Franchisor to use the information obtained under this Article as it deems necessary or appropriate in order to comply with federal or state disclosure laws.

15. TRADEMARK

15.1. Franchisor grants to Franchisee the right to display and use the trademark and name, "Village Inn," and such other trade names, trademarks, service marks, logotypes, labels, designs, and other identifying symbols and names pertaining to Village Inn Restaurant as are now and may hereafter be designated by Franchisor in writing ("Marks"), but only in connection with the Restaurant and upon the terms, covenants, and conditions and during the effective term of this Agreement. Franchisee possesses no right, title, or interest in or to any of the Marks or goodwill attached to them, except the privilege and license to display and use them according to the limitations and upon the terms, covenants, and conditions contained in this Agreement. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, Franchisee shall promptly deliver and surrender to Franchisor all items bearing or containing any of the Marks. Any unauthorized use of the Marks by Franchisee will constitute a breach of this Agreement and an infringement of Franchisor's rights in and to the Marks. Franchisee agrees not to raise or cause to be raised any question concerning, or objections to, the validity of the Marks on any ground whatsoever.

15.2. Franchisee must prominently display the Marks in the manner Franchisor prescribes at the Licensed Location, on menus, and in connection with advertising and marketing materials.

15.3. Franchisee shall adopt and use the Marks only in a manner expressly approved by Franchisor. If, in the sole judgment of Franchisor, Franchisee's use of the Marks infringes upon or is inconsistent with Franchisor's public interest or business standing, then Franchisee will, upon notice from Franchisor, immediately modify its use as prescribed by Franchisor.

15.4. If, in Franchisor's sole judgment, the use of any Mark is to be modified or discontinued and/or the Licensed Location is to use one or more additional or substitute Marks, Franchisee agrees, at its expense, to comply with Franchisor's direction within a reasonable time after receipt of written notice from Franchisor, provided, however that if it would cost more than $10,000, Franchisee must make any such change only if Franchisee agrees to do so in writing.

15.5. The right granted to Franchisee to use the Marks under this Agreement is non-exclusive. Franchisor, in its sole discretion, subject only to Section 2.3, has the right to grant other rights in, to, and under the Marks in addition to those rights already granted, and to develop and grant rights in other names and marks on terms and conditions that Franchisor deems appropriate.

15.6. Except as Franchisor may otherwise permit in writing, Franchisee shall not display or use the trademarks, trade names, service marks, logotypes, labels, designs, or other identifying symbols or names of any other person, firm, or corporation in, on, or at the Licensed Location.

15.7. If Franchisee is other than an individual, it shall not use the name “Village Inn”, “VI BrandCo” or “Franchisor” in whole or in part, or in any derivative form, in its entity name. If local laws or ordinances require that Franchisee file an affidavit of doing business under an assumed name or otherwise indicate that Village Inn is being used as a fictitious or assumed name, Franchisee will include in such filing or application that it is a franchisee of Franchisor.

15.8. Franchisee shall clearly indicate, in its Restaurant, public records, and relationship with others, that its business is independently owned and its operation is separate and distinct from the operation of Franchisor’s business.

15.9. Franchisee agrees to immediately notify Franchisor of any suspected or unauthorized use of or claim relating to the use of the Marks. Franchisor shall have the sole right to forbear, initiate, defend, or settle any suit or claim of infringement at its expense. Franchisee agrees to cooperate with Franchisor, as reasonably requested by and at Franchisor’s expense, in the litigation or defense of any infringement, suit, or claim. Franchisee shall not enter into any negotiation or settlement of any such claim or suit without the prior written consent of Franchisor.

15.10. Franchisee shall not use the Marks on, or promote, offer, or sell any product relating to the Restaurant through the Internet or other future technological avenues without Franchisor’s prior written consent, which Franchisor may withhold for any or no reason. Franchisor may condition its consent on such requirements as it deems appropriate, including, among other things, that Franchisee obtain Franchisor’s written consent to: (i) any and all Internet domain names and home page addresses related to the Restaurant or the Marks; (ii) the proposed form and content of any web site related to the Restaurant or the Marks; (iii) Franchisee’s use of hyperlinks or other links; (iv) Franchisee’s use of materials (including text, video clips, photographs, images, and sound bites) in which any third party has an ownership interest; and (v) any proposed modification of Franchisee’s web site. Franchisor may designate the form and content of Franchisee’s web site relating to the Restaurant or the Marks and/or require that any such web site be hosted by Franchisor or a third party who Franchisor designates, using one or more web sites that Franchisor owns and/or controls. Franchisor may charge Franchisee a fee for developing, reviewing, and consenting to Franchisee’s web site and/or for hosting a web site relating to the Restaurant or the Marks. Franchisee acknowledges that any web page it utilizes for the Restaurant or containing the Marks constitutes advertising and promotion subject to Article 6, above, and Franchisee agrees to comply with all additional policies and standards Franchisor issues from time to time with respect to web sites and web pages specifically. Franchisee must obtain Franchisor’s consent prior to making any change to Franchisee’s web page.

16. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

16.1. Franchisee acknowledges that over the term of this Agreement, Franchisee will receive proprietary information which Franchisor has developed over time and at great expense, including, but not limited to: (i) methods and procedures relating to the development and operation of Village Inn Restaurants; (ii) management and personnel training; (iii) product development and testing; (iv) food, menu specifications, and recipes; (v) site selection; (vi) restaurant construction and equipping; (vii) marketing and promotion; (viii) back office and accounting systems; (ix) purchasing arrangements and vendor lists; and (x) administrative support. Such information is not generally known in the industry and is beyond Franchisee's present skills, experience, and knowledge, or cannot be readily developed, and that to develop such knowledge, skill, and experience would be time-consuming and expensive to Franchisee. Accordingly, Franchisee agrees, at all times (including the expiration or termination of this Agreement), to keep confidential all information disclosed to Franchisee by Franchisor which is deemed a "trade secret" by applicable law or which Franchisor otherwise designates as confidential and proprietary, regardless of any technical definition of "trade secrets" by statute or judicial interpretation, and to use all reasonable means to keep such information secret and confidential. Franchisee will divulge such information only to employees who must have access in order to operate the Restaurant at the Licensed Location. Additionally, Franchisee agrees not to misuse, copy, duplicate, record, or reproduce, in whole or in part, and in any manner, the information provided to him/her/it by Franchisor, or make such information available to any unauthorized person.

16.2. Franchisee agrees that the ownership of the confidential information is and shall remain vested solely in Franchisor.

16.3. In the event of a breach by Franchisee of its obligations under this Article, Franchisor will have the right, in addition to all other rights afforded by law or as set forth in this Agreement, to seek declaratory and/or injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction (i.e., in accordance with the venue provisions of Section 29.6) without the necessity of showing actual or threatened damage, and without being required to furnish a bond or other security.

16.4. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Franchisee may, in accordance with any applicable law including the federal Defend Trade Secrets Act, disclose confidential information, including Franchisor's trade secrets, (a) in confidence, to federal, state, or local government officials, or to an attorney of Franchisee, for the sole purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (b) in a document filed in a Proceeding, but only if the filing is made under seal and protected from public disclosure. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to conflict with any applicable law or create liability for disclosures expressly allowed by law.

16.5. Franchisee may be required and shall require its employees designated by Franchisor, upon request by Franchisor, to execute a confidentiality agreement consistent with the provisions of this Article 16. The omission of such a confidentiality agreement, however, shall not relieve Franchisee of any obligation otherwise required under this Article.

16.6. For purposes of this Article, Franchisee shall be defined as set forth in Section 17.4 of this Agreement. The provisions of this Article shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

17. CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND NON-COMPETE

17.1. Franchisee hereby agrees to the following: (a) Franchisee will not, on their own account or as an employee, principal, agent, independent contractor, consultant, affiliate, licensee, partner, officer, director or owner of any other person, firm, entity, partnership, or corporation for a period of one (1) year after the termination or expiration of this Agreement, own, operate, lease franchise, conduct, engage in, be connected with, have any interest in or assist any person or entity engaged in a food service business that derives 25% or more of its gross income from the sale of whole pies and/or breakfast food items, like pancakes, omelets, skilletts, eggs, pies or other breakfast food items, which is located within four (4) miles of the Licensed Location, within four (4) miles of any other Village Inn restaurant, or within any territory granted by Franchisor or any affiliate of Franchisor pursuant to an Area Development Agreement or other territorial agreement; and (b) Franchisee expressly agrees that: (i) the time, geographical and product limitations set forth in this provision are reasonable and necessary to protect Franchisor and its franchisees if this Agreement expires or is terminated by either party for any reason; (ii) this covenant not to compete is necessary to protect Franchisor's intellectual property and proprietary rights and give Franchisor the opportunity to resell and/or develop a new Village Inn Restaurant at or in the area near the Licensed Location; and (iii) the one-year time period described in this Section 17 will not begin to run until the covered person or entity is in compliance with this Agreement, and will be tolled during any intervening period of non-compliance.

17.2. Franchisee agrees that the provisions of this Article are and have been a primary inducement to Franchisor to enter into this Agreement, and in the event of a breach, Franchisor will be irreparably injured and without adequate remedy at law. Therefore, should Franchisee breach or threaten or attempt to breach any of these provisions, Franchisor shall be entitled, in addition to other remedies which it may have at law or in equity (including the right to terminate this Agreement), to a preliminary and/or permanent injunction, and a decree for specific performance of the terms in this Article without the necessity of showing actual or threatened damage, and without being required to furnish a bond or other security.

17.3. As a forum for dispute resolution for Article 17 to determine the validity or enforceability of this Article, the parties shall nominate each two (2) members to form a committee, which will consist of two employees of the Franchisor and two (2) members of the FAB. Any decision with respect to the validity of Article 17 requires three (3) affirmative votes to render a decision in favor of the Franchisee. The parties agree the decision is binding. In the event the parties cannot come to a majority decision with respect to a favorable outcome to the Franchisee, the parties shall appoint a third party arbitrator to adjudicate the matter in accordance with Section 25.

17.4. For purposes of Articles 16, 17, and 18, "Franchisee" shall include Franchisee, its directors, officers, partners (general or limited), and members, shareholders, or other owners of interest in Franchisee and each such person's spouse, parent, or child.

18. TRANSFERS

18.1. This Agreement is fully transferable by Franchisor and any transferee of Franchisor or other legal successor to Franchisor's interests in this Agreement.

18.2. Neither Franchisee nor any direct or indirect owner of any interest in Franchisee shall (whether voluntarily or by operation of law) directly or indirectly sell, pledge, transfer, or assign any rights under this Agreement or any interest in Franchisee or any entity that owns Franchisee, or a substantial portion of the assets of the Restaurant ("Transfer"), unless the transferor obtains Franchisor's prior written consent. Any attempted transfer without Franchisor's prior written consent will constitute a breach of this Agreement. Furthermore, any purported Transfer without Franchisor's prior written consent will convey no rights to or interest in this Agreement or the Licensed Location. Franchisor may withhold its consent on any reasonable grounds or may impose reasonable conditions including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Franchisee paying all obligations and accounts due Franchisor or its affiliates and to third parties whose obligations Franchisor has guaranteed on behalf of Franchisee.

(b) Franchisee not otherwise being in default of this Agreement or any other agreement by and between Franchisee or its affiliates and Franchisor or its affiliates.

(c) The proposed transferee, in Franchisor's sole judgment, is qualified to provide proper ownership, operation, and financing of the Licensed Location pursuant to Franchisor's criteria which includes, without limitation, net worth; work experience and aptitude; ability to devote time and best efforts to the Restaurant; ability to speak and read English sufficient in Franchisor's opinion to communicate with employees, customers and suppliers and to satisfactorily complete Franchisor's training; and no conflicting interest. In this connection, Franchisor may conduct an investigation, use discretionary judgment, and require additional terms and conditions of the transfer in the same manner as any person (including legal entity) applying for a new franchise, and Franchisor may require the proposed transferee and certain of its employees to attend training programs.

(d) Payment of a transfer fee of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) to Franchisor, except in cases where the transfer is to Franchisee's spouse or children, and notwithstanding the above, Franchisee may be charged a document administration fee of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) ("Document Administration Fee"), payable to Franchisor when Franchisor must prepare an amendment to your franchise documents.

(e) Franchisee, its owners, directors, and officers executing a general release of all claims against all Franchisor Indemnitees.

(f) The proposed transferee, at Franchisor's option shall either: (i) execute an assignment of this Agreement for the remainder of the term and any renewal terms and conditions set forth in Section 3.2 herein and such other ancillary agreements as Franchisor may require; or (ii) enter into the form of franchise agreement then being offered to new Village Inn Restaurant franchisees and such other ancillary agreements as Franchisor may require, with such agreement superseding this Agreement in all respects other than the term and any renewal terms and conditions set forth in Section 3.2 herein, and provided that the terms of the new franchise agreement may differ from this Agreement with respect to the initial franchise fee, royalty, marketing fees, and other terms and conditions.

(g) The proposed transferee, at Franchisor's request and at the transferee's expense, upgrading the Licensed Location to conform to the then-current Standards and Policies and all other requirements for Village Inn Restaurants within the time specified by Franchisor.

(h) Franchisee agreeing to complete and sign a letter of agency, letter of authorization, or equivalent and provide it to the proposed transferee so that proposed transferee may keep the existing telephone number when the Restaurant is transferred to proposed transferee.

(i) Franchisee providing to us a copy of the purchase and sale agreement or other documentation evidencing the Transfer and, following our analysis of the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer, Franchisor, in its sole discretion, concludes that such terms and conditions will not interfere with the financial feasibility of the future operation of the Restaurant.

(j) Franchisor approving the legal documents which its attorneys deem necessary or proper to document the transfer, including without limitation, all governing documents of proposed transferee. Franchisee shall pay all reasonable legal fees associated with the review and approval of the transfer, in addition to the transfer fee specified in Section 18.2(d), and regardless of whether legal counsel is retained independently or employed in-house by Franchisor.

18.3. The Transfers requiring Franchisor's prior written consent under Section 18.2 include, without limitation: (i) if Franchisee is a partnership or other business association, the addition or deletion of a partner or members of the association, or the transfer of any partnership or membership among existing partners or members; and (ii) if Franchisee is an individual, the transfer from such individual to a corporation or other business entity in which the individual has an ownership interest, in which case, Franchisor's approval will be conditioned upon receipt of the personal guarantee of the transferor, of the transferor's guarantors, of all owners, partners, members or officers of the transferee, and of each of the foregoing's respective spouses, of the corporation's or other business entity's performance of the obligations under and for the remainder of this Agreement.

18.4. In the event of the Franchisee's death or legal incapacity, or if Franchisee is a partnership or legal entity, on the death or legal incapacity of any owner of Franchisee, the rights and obligations of Franchisee/such owner under this Agreement shall inure to the Franchisee's/such owner's executors, administrators, heirs, conservators, or legatees (collectively, the "Legatee"), provided that (i) written notice is received by Franchisor within one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of death or the judicial determination of legal incapacity stating that such Legatee has been properly appointed, designated, or bequeathed, accompanied by effective evidence, such as Letters Testamentary or court order, and will perform all of the duties and obligations required by Franchisee or such owner under this Agreement; and (ii) the Legatee is determined by Franchisor, in Franchisor's reasonable discretion, to be able to perform such duties and obligations and the Legatee assumes such responsibility pursuant to an Assignment agreement and guaranty in a form to be prepared by Franchisor. In the event that Franchisor determines, in its reasonable judgment, that the Legatee is not capable of performing all of the duties and obligations required to be performed by Franchisee or such owner under this Agreement, the Legatee shall use best efforts, within twelve (12) months from the date of written notice from Franchisor, to sell his/her/its interest in the Agreement to a bona fide purchaser in accordance with and subject to all of the provisions of this Article. If by the end of such twelve-month period, the Legatee has not effectuated a transfer of such interest in a transaction which meets the requirements of this Article, Franchisor shall have the option to (a) purchase the Legatee's interests at fair market value as determined jointly and in good faith by three (3) appraisers with Franchisor and the Legatee each selecting one (1) appraiser and the two (2) appraisers so chosen selecting the third appraiser; (b) permit the Legatee to perform the duties and obligations required by Franchisee under this Agreement; or (c) terminate the Agreement, but such termination shall not constitute a default by the Franchisee.

Franchisor shall in no event be liable or obligated to verify the validity of the Legatee's appointment, designation, or other circumstances entitling the Legatee to the rights and benefits of this Agreement. In any transfer, the Legatee shall represent and warrant that such Legatee possesses all rights, title, and interests in this Agreement, and shall indemnify, defend (with attorneys reasonably acceptable to Franchisor), and hold harmless the Franchisor Indemnitees from all Losses and Expenses arising from Legatee's fraud, misrepresentations, omissions, or improper or invalid authority to transfer such rights, title, and interests. Franchisor shall have the right (but not the obligation) to defend any Proceeding and/or to participate in the defense of any matter to which it is named as a party, with counsel of its choosing, all of whose fees and expenses will be subject to indemnification hereunder.

18.5 In the event that Franchisee (or any of its owners) shall, subject to the restrictions and conditions of transfer contained in this Article, attempt to raise or obtain funds by the sale of securities (including, without limitation, common or preferred stock, bonds, debentures, or general or limited partnership interests) by means of any public or private investment offering, which contains written information, in any manner, concerning Franchisor or the System, this Agreement, or the relationship used with respect thereto, Franchisee agrees to submit any such written information to Franchisor prior to its inclusion in any registration statement, prospectus, or other offering circular or memorandum ("Offering Document"). Franchisee shall furnish the Offering Document along with a written request to Franchisor to review the Offering Document and also stating the specific purpose for which the information is to be used. Should Franchisor, in its sole discretion, object to any reference made about Franchisor or its business, the System, or this Agreement in such Offering Document, such Offering Document shall not be used unless and until Franchisor's objections are withdrawn. Franchisor assumes no responsibility for the offering whatsoever. Franchisor's written consent obtained pursuant to this Section shall not imply or constitute its involvement in or approval with respect to the sale of the securities, the offering literature submitted to it, or any other aspect of the offering. Additionally, the Offering Document utilized in any offering shall contain the following language in bold-face type on the first textual page:

FRANCHISOR AND/OR ITS AFFILIATES ARE NOT DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY THE ISSUER OF THE SECURITIES OFFERED HEREBY AND ASSUME NO RESPONSIBILITY WITH RESPECT TO THIS OFFERING AND/OR THE ADEQUACY OR ACCURACY OF THE

INFORMATION SET FORTH HEREIN, INCLUDING ANY STATEMENT MADE WITH RESPECT TO IT OR FRANCHISOR'S SYSTEMS, TRADEMARKS, OR VILLAGE INN RESTAURANT FRANCHISE. NEITHER FRANCHISOR NOR ITS AFFILIATE ENDORSE OR MAKE ANY RECOMMENDATION WITH RESPECT TO THE INVESTMENT CONTEMPLATED BY THIS OFFERING.

Franchisee agrees to promptly reimburse Franchisor for any out-of-pocket expense and all attorneys' (including in-house counsel) and accountants' fees in the review of the Offering Document and any other material requested by Franchisee under this Section 18.5. Additionally, Franchisee and each of its owners shall indemnify, defend (with attorneys reasonably acceptable to Franchisor), and hold harmless all Franchisor Indemnitees from all Losses and Expenses incurred in connection with any Proceeding arising from the offer or sale of such securities, whether asserted by a purchaser of any such security or by a governmental agency. Franchisor shall have the right (but not the obligation) to defend such Proceedings and/or to participate in the defense of any matter to which it is named as a party, with counsel of its choosing, all of whose fees and expenses will be subject to indemnification hereunder.

18.6 This Article shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

19. RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

Franchisee and its owners (including Legatees in connection with sales under Section 18.4, above) expressly grant to Franchisor the Right of First Refusal to purchase Franchisee's rights and interests in this Agreement and the Licensed Location in the event of a proposed sale or transfer of this Agreement and Franchisee's Restaurant, or transfer which results in a change of control of Franchisee of fifty-one percent (51%) or more, whether in a single transaction or as the result of several transactions. Franchisee shall, at a minimum, submit a written bona fide offer from the third-party purchaser/transferee, and the terms of this Right of First Refusal shall be the same as those submitted in writing to Franchisee by the bona fide third-party purchaser/transferee, except that Franchisor shall have the right to substitute cash for any other consideration offered. Franchisor shall have thirty (30) days within which to exercise this Right of First Refusal following Franchisee's delivery to Franchisor of the executed written offer containing the essential terms and conditions to which Franchisee and the proposed bona fide purchaser/transferee have committed to be bound toward a contractual agreement. Franchisor reserves the right to request (i) Franchisee's and the bona fide purchaser's/transferee's intent, understanding, or commitment regarding the transaction; (ii) clarification of certain terms and conditions stated in the written offer; and (iii) other information which Franchisor deems, in its sole judgment, to be necessary to make its decision, or which have not been addressed in the written offer, and if such terms are undetermined between Franchisee and the bona fide third party/transferee, the thirty (30) day Right of First Refusal shall be extended for the number of days in which such term remains undetermined until an agreement is reached between Franchisee and the bona fide purchaser/transferee in writing and provided to Franchisor. If Franchisor chooses not to exercise its Right of First Refusal, Franchisee shall be free to proceed with the proposed sale or transfer, subject to Franchisor's written consents and the terms and conditions set forth elsewhere in this Agreement, and provided that Franchisee's sale or transfer substantially conforms to the terms and conditions of the written offer. The terms regarding this Right of First Refusal shall apply with each proposed sale or transfer, and any material change in the terms of any offer prior to the closing shall constitute a new offer and shall be subject to Franchisor's Right of First Refusal as set forth in this Article.

20. INSURANCE AND INDEMNIFICATION

20.1. Franchisee shall, during the term of this Agreement, obtain, pay for, and maintain minimum insurance as may be required by Franchisor from time to time, including commercial general liability insurance for bodily injury and property damage; products liability and contractual liability coverage; workers' compensation; and all coverage required by Franchisee's landlord. Property insurance must be carried on buildings and contents, along with insurance to cover loss of income and extra expenses following a loss that results in the shutdown of the Restaurant. Franchisee must also carry automobile liability insurance to include hired and non-owned automobile liability coverage.

20.2. Franchisee shall include Franchisor, and such additional parties as Franchisor may designate, as Additional Insureds on liability insurance policies, and loss payee on any property insurance on property in which Franchisor may have an interest. All policies required by this Article shall be endorsed to require a thirty (30) day notice to Franchisor of any pending cancellation or proposed modification of insurance coverage. Certificates of Insurance or certified copies of property and liability insurance policies, or such other evidence of coverage as may be requested by Franchisor, shall be provided to Franchisor upon request during the entire term of this Agreement.

20.3. In the event that the Restaurant incurs any casualty, property damage, or loss, Franchisee shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to restore the Restaurant as soon as possible to full operational capacity, in accordance with Franchisor's specifications, and in satisfaction of Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement, including but not limited to Franchisee's obligations under Section 10.2. Franchisee shall be relieved of paying Royalties during the restoration period, however, the Franchisor shall receive the same percentage as the Royalty of any business interruption proceeds received by the Franchisee.

20.4 All required insurance shall be obtained through reputable and responsible insurance companies acceptable to Franchisor. All policies shall extend to and provide indemnity for all obligations assumed by Franchisee under this Agreement and all other matters for which Franchisee is required to indemnify Franchisor.

20.5 If Franchisee at any time fails or refuses to maintain any insurance required by this Agreement or to furnish satisfactory evidence of effective coverage, Franchisor, at its option and in addition to its other rights and remedies, may obtain such insurance on behalf of Franchisee, and Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor on demand all costs incurred by Franchisor in connection with obtaining the insurance. Franchisee must cooperate fully with Franchisor in its efforts (should it undertake to do so) to obtain such insurance.

20.6 In addition to any insurance obligation which Franchisee may have under this Agreement, Franchisee agrees to defend, at Franchisee's cost, with attorneys reasonably acceptable to Franchisor, indemnify, and hold harmless the Franchisor Indemnitees from and against all Losses and Expenses incurred in connection with any Proceeding or by or against the Franchisor Indemnitees or any settlement (whether or not a formal proceeding or action has been instituted), arising out of, resulting from, related to, or connected with the operation of Franchisee's business pursuant to this Agreement, unless such was the result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of an Franchisor Indemnitee. The obligation to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement and includes any loss in excess of Franchisee's insurance coverage.

21. DECLARATION OF DEFAULT

21.1. Franchisor will have the sole and absolute right to terminate this Agreement at any time prior to the opening of the Restaurant at the Licensed Location if Franchisor determines that: (a) any financial, personal, or other information provided by Franchisee to Franchisor is materially false, misleading, incomplete, or inaccurate; or (b) Franchisee has failed to materially comply with the pre-opening obligations set forth in this Agreement or as prescribed by Franchisor's Standards and Policies.

21.2. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor requires strict compliance with the System and all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement for the protection of Franchisor and all other operators of Village Inn Restaurants. Franchisor may declare a default, without giving Franchisee the opportunity to cure, on the happening of any of the following events:

(a) Franchisee filing or consenting to the filing of any petition for bankruptcy, reorganization, or other relief under any bankruptcy statute;

(b) Franchisee being adjudicated bankrupt or insolvent;

(c) Franchisee making any assignment or similar composition or agreement for the benefit of creditors;

(d) Franchisee having its interests herein fall under execution unless, within the time permitted by law, Franchisee takes necessary steps to obtain a stay of execution and furnishes the requisite undertaking;

(e) Franchisee or any of Franchisee's direct or indirect owners makes a Transfer in violation of Article 18 of this Agreement;

(f) A receiver has been appointed for all or substantially all of Franchisee's assets or business and is not discharged or the appointment set aside within thirty (30) days of the appointment;

(g) Any portion of the Restaurant or equipment, furnishing, or fixture located therein, or any interest which Franchisee may have in the Restaurant, equipment, furnishing, or fixture is taken in foreclosure of any mortgage, deed of trust, lien, or security interest, or if Franchisee loses the right to occupy the Licensed Location for any reason;

(h) Franchisee, through its officers, directors, or any authorized employee or agent, knowingly makes any material misrepresentation or omits any material fact of any information provided to Franchisor;

(i) Franchisee or any of its owners is convicted of or pleads guilty to a felony that, in the discretion of Franchisor, adversely affects Franchisor's reputation, the Village Inn System, or the Restaurant; or

(j) Franchisee defaults a third time in a twelve month period (regardless of whether the specific default had previously occurred), despite that Franchisee had defaulted but timely cured his/her/its performance on previous occasions.

21.3. In the event that Franchisee fails to pay any money due Franchisor pursuant to this Agreement or any other agreement existing between Franchisee or its affiliates and Franchisor or its affiliates, Franchisee shall be in default, and Franchisor shall be entitled to pursue its remedies under Article 22 of this Agreement if Franchisee does not cure the default within seven (7) days after written notice from Franchisor of the default.

21.4. Franchisor may pursue its remedies under Article 22 of this Agreement if Franchisee violates any other term or condition of this Agreement or the System and fails to cure the default within fifteen (15) days after receipt of written notice from Franchisor of the default. If the cure cannot be reasonably remedied within such period, Franchisee must at least commence the cure within the fifteen (15) day period and thereafter diligently and fully cure the default. For purposes of this Agreement, an alleged breach of this Agreement will be deemed cured only when Franchisee and Franchisor agree in writing. Further, this section is not applicable for a default under Section 21.2(j).

21.5. The provisions of this Article may be subject to statutes or regulations applicable to the Licensed Location which limit the grounds upon which a franchisee may be terminated or require additional prior written notice of default and opportunity to cure.

21.6. All cure periods under this Agreement and under any other agreement between Franchisee or its affiliates and Franchisor or its affiliates shall be deemed to run concurrently and not sequentially.

21.7. Subject to the consent of Franchisor, which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, Franchisee shall not be in default under this Agreement if Franchisee terminates operations at the Licensed Location, provided all of the following conditions are timely and completely fulfilled:

(a) Franchisee demonstrates to Franchisor a commercially reasonable business case demonstrating the profitability and desirability of closing the Restaurant at the Licensed Location and opening a replacement Restaurant within the Franchised Area (determined with respect to the initial Licensed Location);

(b) Until Franchisee's replacement Restaurant is opened, Franchisee pays to Franchisor, as and when due, all weekly Royalty payments due under Article 5, above, and all marketing fees as required by Article 6, above, computed based upon the average Gross Sales from the Licensed Location over the 36-month period immediately preceding the closing of the Restaurant at the Licensed Location (or if 36 months have not been completed, the average annualized Gross Sales for the period from the opening of the Restaurant through the date of the Event of Default);

(c) Within six (6) months of such termination, Franchisee identifies a new Licensed Location, and such new Licensed Location is approved by Franchisor consistent with Franchisor's normal procedures and standards for approving locations of its franchised restaurants;

(d) Thereafter, Franchisee complies with the applicable provisions of Article 9, above, concerning the construction of a Restaurant at the new Licensed Location consistent with Franchisor's plans and specifications for franchised restaurants; and

(e) Franchisee opens the new Restaurant in accordance with the System and this Agreement no later than fifteen (15) months following the date of closing of the Restaurant at the initial Licensed Location.

22. FRANCHISOR'S RIGHTS UPON DEFAULT BY FRANCHISEE

22.1 In the event of a default by Franchisee which is not cured within the time allowed (if any), Franchisor shall have the right to pursue any or all of the following remedies:

(a) In the event the default by the Franchisee was determined to be in bad faith, terminate this Agreement and all other agreements existing between Franchisor or its affiliates and Franchisee or its affiliates.

(b) Obtain from Franchisee and/or any guarantor (i) all unpaid Royalties, Marketing Fees and other amounts due to Franchisor or its affiliates; (ii) all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by Franchisor arising from Franchisee's default; and (iii) in the event of a unilateral closure of the Restaurant by Franchisee, Early Termination Damages calculated as follows:

(1) Compute the average monthly Royalties and Marketing Fee due for any consecutive twelve (12) month period within the forty-eight (48) months immediately preceding the closure date of the Restaurant, or, if the Restaurant has been open for less than twelve (12) months, the average monthly Royalties and Marketing Fee due since the opening of the Restaurant ("Monthly Average"); and

(2) Multiply the Monthly Average by the number of months remaining in the Term.

(3) The Early Termination Damages shall be considered damages and not a penalty, are not in lieu of other damages, and Franchisee's payment of these damages shall not constitute a release of any other obligation owed to Franchisor. Franchisor, Franchisee, each individual signing on behalf of Franchisee, and each guarantor guaranteeing Franchisee's obligations hereunder, hereby acknowledge and agree that Franchisor's losses due to Franchisee's unilateral closure of the Restaurant and/or termination of this Agreement would be highly difficult or impossible to calculate with reasonable certainty and, therefore, have agreed at the outset of this Agreement that the Early Termination Damages, and the formula for calculating these damages, constitutes a reasonable, good faith forecast of Franchisor's estimated losses and damages due to the premature closure of the Restaurant and/or termination of this Agreement.

(c) Apply to a court and receive injunctive relief in order to prevent the continuance of any existing default, or the occurrence of any threatened default of this Agreement or any related agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor, without the necessity of showing actual or threatened damage, and without being required to furnish a bond or other security.

(d) Apply to a court to have a receiver appointed to take possession of the Licensed Location and to implement any or all of Franchisor's remedies under this Agreement. Furthermore, all costs of such receivership, including any bond required to be furnished by Franchisor, shall be paid by Franchisee.

22.2 If Franchisee fails to comply with a written notice of termination sent by Franchisor, Franchisee shall be liable to Franchisor for damages resulting from such infringement, including, without limitation, and in addition to any fee paid or payable under this Agreement, all profits which Franchisee derived from the post-termination operation of the Restaurant.

22.3 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event that Franchisee is in violation of any health code or in the event of any unsanitary condition or condition which has jeopardized or may jeopardize the health of patrons of the Restaurant, Franchisor may require Franchisee to close the Restaurant immediately upon notice until the condition giving rise to such closure has been resolved to the satisfaction of Franchisor and applicable governmental authorities. In the event such condition is not resolved within ten (10) days from the notice to close (or if such condition requires longer than ten (10) days to cure, then such longer period as determined by Franchisor, after consultation with Franchisee, to be necessary to cure such condition so long as during such period Franchisee takes all commercially reasonable efforts to diligently prosecute such cure to completion), this Agreement shall terminate with no further opportunity for Franchisee to cure.

22.4 Any specific right or remedy set forth in this Agreement - legal, equitable, or otherwise - shall not be exclusive, but shall be cumulative with all other rights and remedies set forth in this Article or allowed by this Agreement or by law.

23. ASSIGNMENT OF FRANCHISEE'S INTEREST AND LOCATION

23.1. If Franchisee leases the real property at the Licensed Location from a third party, the lease shall be submitted to Franchisor for approval prior to execution. Contemporaneously with the execution of such lease, Franchisee, the lessor of the Licensed Location, and Franchisor must enter into the option for assignment of lease attached hereto as Appendix B. If the lease is not satisfactory to Franchisor, or if Appendix B is not executed contemporaneously with the lease, Franchisor shall have the right to terminate this Agreement. Upon approval of such lease by Franchisor, no amendment, assignment, or sublease shall be made or entered into by Franchisee without Franchisor's prior written approval.

23.2. At Franchisor's request, Franchisee shall promptly execute a written Assignment consistent with this Article 23 for purposes of recording. In addition, Franchisee shall provide to Franchisor from time to time, upon request, a written Consent executed by any mortgagee with respect to the Licensed Location, if owned by Franchisee, or executed by Franchisee's landlord, if Franchisee leases the Licensed Location, consenting to the provisions of this Article 23 (which includes, but is not limited to, the option for assignment of lease attached hereto as Appendix B).

23.3. Franchisee shall not grant any security interest in this Agreement without Franchisor's prior written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld. Franchisor's consent may be conditioned, in its sole discretion, on the written agreement by the secured party that, in the event of a default by Franchisee under any agreement related to the security interest, Franchisor shall have the right and option (but not the obligation) to purchase the rights of the secured party upon payment of all sums then due to the secured party.

24. FRANCHISEE'S OBLIGATIONS UPON EXPIRATION OR TERMINATION

24.1. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Franchisee will:

(a) Immediately discontinue the use, in any manner and for any purpose, directly or indirectly, of all Marks, signs, structures, and forms of advertising indicative of Village Inn Restaurants or its business or products, and unless Franchisor continues the operation of the Restaurant, make or cause to be made all changes in signs, buildings, and structures as Franchisor may direct to effectively distinguish the business from its former appearance and other Village Inn Restaurants.

(b) Deliver to Franchisor all Operating Manuals, menus, advertising and training materials, forms, trade secrets, and proprietary information received from Franchisor or otherwise acquired by Franchisee in connection with the franchise relationship established by this Agreement.

(c) Execute all documents required by Franchisor necessary or appropriate to terminate Franchisee's license of the System and to de-identify the Restaurant and the Licensed Location as required by Franchisor and as contemplated by Section 24.1(d), below.

(d) Not thereafter use any Mark, name, insignia, slogan, symbol, design, or other characteristic, or use any food or menu item, recipe, or method of food preparation, or operate or do business under any name or in any manner that may reasonably confuse or tend to give the public the impression that Franchisee or any of its owners is in any way associated with Franchisor or Village Inn Restaurants.

(e) Cancel any fictitious name registration.

(f) Upon Franchisor's written notice to Franchisee within thirty (30) days after the termination or expiration of this Agreement, assign all telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, domain names, or other numbers, names, and telephone directory listings (collectively, "Listings") associated with any of the Marks or the Restaurant, and Franchisee must notify the telephone company, all telephone directory publishers, and all domain name registries and Internet service providers of the termination or expiration of Franchisee's right to use any Listing associated with the Restaurant, and authorize and instruct their transfer to Franchisor or to a third party at Franchisor's direction and/or to instruct the telephone company, domain name registries, and Internet service providers to forward all calls, e-mails, and electronic communications made to Franchisee's names, numbers, or addresses to names, numbers or addresses Franchisor specifies. Franchisee is not entitled to any compensation if Franchisor exercises this option.

24.2. If after notice, Franchisee shall fail or refuse to comply with the requirements of Section 24.1, then Franchisor shall have the right, in addition to all other remedies at law or in equity, to enter upon the premises, without liability and with or without court order or legal proceedings, and take all actions it deems necessary or appropriate, at Franchisor's sole and absolute discretion, for Franchisee to be in compliance, at Franchisee's expense, which Franchisee shall pay on demand.

24.3. The provisions in this Article shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

25. ARBITRATION

25.1. Except as provided in Section 25.2, below, any dispute, breach, controversy, or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any claim that this Agreement, in whole or in part, is invalid, illegal, or otherwise voidable or void ("Dispute"), shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association relating to commercial arbitration, subject to the following:

(a) The arbitrator's award shall be in writing, contain findings of fact and conclusions of law, and set forth the arbitrator's rationale for the award based upon such findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(b) All proposed arbitrators shall be attorneys or current or former judges licensed to practice law in the state where the arbitration will take place, and have no less than 10 years' experience in business law, including substantial experience involving franchise matters.

(c) The arbitration shall be conducted on an individual and not a consolidated or class-wide basis.

(d) The arbitrator shall have the authority to award equitable relief, including, but not limited to, specific performance and injunctive relief. However, except as permitted by this Agreement, the arbitrator shall have no authority to award punitive, exemplary, consequential or multiple damages. See also Section 29.7, below.

(e) Judgment upon an arbitration award may be entered in any court having competent jurisdiction and shall be binding, final, and non-appealable.

(f) In the event that either party fails to appear at any properly noticed arbitration proceeding, an award may be entered against such party by default or otherwise.

(g) The arbitration shall take place in Minneapolis, Minnesota, unless the franchise law in the state where the Restaurant is located requires arbitration in such state, in which case the arbitration shall be held in the largest city in such state.

(h) The arbitration shall have no collateral estoppel effect.

25.2. This Article shall not apply to claims relating to Franchisor's trademarks, service marks, patents, or copyrights; claims related to any lease or sublease of real property between the parties or their related entities; claims or actions for an express obligation to pay monies, declaratory relief, for damage to Franchisor's goodwill, fraudulent conduct by Franchisee; and/or requests for temporary restraining orders, preliminary injunctions, or other procedures in a court of competent jurisdiction to obtain interim relief when deemed necessary by such court to preserve the status quo or prevent injury pending resolution by arbitration of the actual dispute between the parties. Without limiting the scope of the previous sentence, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as limiting or precluding Franchisor from bringing any action, at any time, in any court of competent jurisdiction, for injunctive or other extraordinary relief as Franchisor deems necessary or appropriate to compel Franchisee to comply with its obligations respecting the use, display, or removal of the Marks or to protect the Marks as required under this Agreement. Franchisee agrees that such action or any action for injunction, specific performance, or other equitable relief pertaining to the terms of this Agreement shall not require the posting of any bond, but if a bond shall nevertheless be required by a court of competent jurisdiction, the parties agree that the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) shall be a sufficient amount. This covenant shall be independent, severable, and enforceable, and in addition to all other rights or remedies which Franchisor may have.

25.3. If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that these provisions are unlawful in any way, such court shall modify or interpret them to the minimum extent necessary to have them comply with the law. All issues relating to arbitrability or the enforcement of the agreement to arbitrate contained herein shall be governed by the United States Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §1, et seq.) and the federal common law of arbitration.

25.4. These arbitration provisions shall be deemed to be self-executing and shall remain in full force and effect after expiration or termination of this Agreement.

26. RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES

26.1. This Agreement does not create any agency, employment, joint venture, partnership, or fiduciary relationship between the parties. The business to be operated by Franchisee pursuant to this Agreement or any other of Franchisee's businesses is separate and apart from any which may be operated by Franchisor. Franchisee is an independent contractor and is not authorized to make any contract, agreement, warranty, or representation on behalf of Franchisor, or to create any obligation, express or implied, on behalf of Franchisor. Franchisee shall not make any contract, agreement, warranty, or representation on behalf of Franchisor or commit any act which may adversely affect any right or be detrimental to the good name and reputation of Franchisor, Village Inn Restaurants, or other franchisees of Franchisor or its affiliates. Franchisee shall indemnify, defend (with attorneys reasonably acceptable to Franchisor), and hold harmless Franchisor against all Losses and Expenses and Proceedings arising from Franchisee's breach of this provision.

26.2. Franchisee shall identify itself in all dealings with customers, vendors, public officials, employees, and others as the owner of the Licensed Location under a franchise granted by Franchisor. Should it ever be asserted that Franchisor is the employer, joint employer or co-employer of any of Franchisee's or Franchisee's affiliate's employees, Franchisee irrevocably agrees to timely respond to such assertions, including by providing the contents of Subsection 10.2(j) of the Agreement. If such assertions occur in the context of any private or government investigation, action, proceeding, arbitration, or other legal setting, Franchisee irrevocably agrees to provide honest, truthful, and accurate information about the nature of the relationship between the parties, including (if necessary) appearing at any venue requested by Franchisor to testify about such issues (and, as may be necessary, submitting itself to depositions, other appearances and/or preparing affidavits to provide honest, truthful, and accurate information regarding any allegation that Franchisor is the employer, joint employer or co-employer of any of Franchisee's or Franchisee's affiliates' employees).

26.3. Franchisee shall place such other notices of independent ownership on forms, business cards, checks, stationery, advertising, and other materials as Franchisor may require from time to time. Franchisee may file and renew (if required) the name, "Village Inn," under a certificate of Business Under Fictitious name (or equivalent) in accordance with the then applicable laws of the jurisdiction of the Licensed Location. However, such registration must indicate the corporate or legal name followed by "doing business as Village Inn Restaurant." Franchisee shall not use the words "Village Inn," "VI BrandCo", or "Franchisor," in whole or in part, or in any derivative form, in its legal or corporate name.

27. FRANCHISEE ORGANIZATION

Franchisee represents, warrants, and covenants that all direct, indirect, legal, or beneficial ownership interests ("Interests") in Franchisee are as set forth on Appendix A attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, that no Interest has been pledged or hypothecated, and no change will be made in such Interests other than as permitted by this Agreement. Franchisee agrees to furnish to Franchisor such evidence as Franchisor may request from time to time, for the purpose of assuring Franchisor that the Interests of Franchisee remain as represented herein.

28. CONDEMNATION AND CASUALTY

28.1. Franchisee shall immediately notify Franchisor in writing of any proposed taking of any portion of the Licensed Location by a governmental branch or agency, or other empowered authority. To the extent that the taking is such that Franchisee cannot efficiently and economically operate a Village Inn Restaurant on the remainder of the premises, as determined by Franchisor, then Franchisee shall be allowed to (i) relocate the Restaurant, within one (1) year of the taking, to a new location within the Franchised Area, subject to approval by Franchisor, including but not limited to any remodel plans fee; or (ii) terminate this Agreement as of the effective date of the taking. In the event the Restaurant is relocated as provided in (i) above, all terms and conditions of this Agreement will govern that location without change or modification, including all references to the Franchised Area, meaning the Franchised Area defined with respect to the original Licensed Location.

28.2. If the Licensed Location is damaged by fire or other casualty, Franchisee shall promptly repair the damage in accordance with Franchisor's specifications and reopen the Restaurant as soon as reasonably practicable.

28.3. Nothing in this Article shall be construed as extending the term of this Agreement due to the closure of the Restaurant as the result of a public taking or casualty loss.

29. OTHER PROVISIONS

29.1. If any of the provisions of this Agreement violate or contravene any law, it shall be deemed severable and the remainder shall be in full force and effect unless such provision pertains to the payment of fees, the Marks, or trade secrets, in which case this Agreement shall terminate at Franchisor's option upon written notice to Franchisee. The failure of either party to exercise or enforce, at any time, or for any period of time, any of the provisions of this Agreement, shall not be construed as a waiver of such provision or the right of such party to exercise or enforce it at a later date. Furthermore, Franchisor's acceptance of Royalty or any other agreed or lawful charge shall not be deemed a waiver of any breach by Franchisee of any provision of this Agreement, regardless of Franchisor's knowledge of such breach at the time of acceptance and any legend, protest, or notice to the contrary placed on the check or transmittal letter for such fee or charge.

29.2. This Agreement supersedes all oral and prior written agreements, representations, and arrangements between the parties regarding the Village Inn franchise for the Licensed Location. All rights which the parties may have had under such prior written or oral agreements, if any, are canceled. Furthermore, there are no agreements between the parties superseding any of the provisions of this Agreement. No modifications of this Agreement shall be effective except those in writing hereafter made and signed by both parties.

29.3. The parties agree that there are no representations or warranties other than those set forth herein. Franchisee acknowledges that no officer, employee, independent contractor, or agent of Franchisor has any authority to make any representation or promise not contained in this Agreement, and Franchisee agrees that it has executed this Agreement without reliance upon any other representation or promise.

29.4. Subject to applicable state or federal statute, Franchisor and Franchisee agree that any legal action (whether for arbitration, damages, injunctive, equitable, or other relief, including, but not limited to, rescission) to enforce any liability or obligation of the other arising from this Agreement or otherwise must be commenced within the later of (i) one year after the date of discovery of the facts resulting in such alleged liability or obligation or (ii) two years after the date of the first act or omission giving rise to such alleged liability or obligation, except such limitations shall not apply in the event of Franchisor's collection of any unpaid Royalties, Marketing Fee, Early Termination Damages and/or any other amount due to Franchisor or Franchisor's affiliate(s).

29.5. If any proceeding is brought by or against Franchisor for the purpose of enforcing, interpreting, or preventing the breach of this Agreement, whether by arbitration, judicial, or quasi-judicial action or otherwise, the prevailing party shall be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses in addition to all other relief. In any proceeding involving more than one claim where neither party prevails on all of the claims, the presiding authority (judge, arbitrator, etc.) shall apportion the costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys' fees between the parties. The term, "attorneys' fees," means all related legal fees incurred, including, without limitation, legal fees incurred prior to, in preparation for, or in contemplation of the filing of any written demand or claim, action, hearing, or proceeding, and in all appellate proceedings, and all paralegal fees.

29.6. Except as specifically provided elsewhere in this Agreement, this Franchise Agreement shall be governed by the Lanham Act and the laws of the state in which the Restaurant is located, irrespective of any conflict of laws. The parties agree that any dispute not subject to arbitration under Article 25 shall be litigated in any state or federal district court in Hennepin County, Minnesota, unless the franchise laws in the state where the Restaurant is located prohibit such agreement and require that the dispute be heard solely in its state, in which event the dispute shall be heard in the largest city in that state. Nothing in this Section 29.6 is intended by the parties to subject this Agreement to any franchise, business opportunity, antitrust, consumer protection, or similar law, rule, or regulation to which this Agreement would not otherwise be subject. Further, the parties agree that any state law or regulation applicable to the offer or sale of franchises or the franchise relationship will not apply unless the jurisdictional provisions are independently met.

29.7. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the parties waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right or claim to any punitive, exemplary, or multiple damages against the other and agree that, in the event of a dispute between them, each shall be limited to the recovery of actual damages sustained by it and any claim to liquidated damages that is expressly permitted in this Agreement. Franchisee and Franchisor waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the right to bring, or be a class member in, any class or collective action or suit, and any action brought under this Agreement shall be conducted on an individual basis. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that this Section shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

29.8. THE PARTIES WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, OR COUNTERCLAIM, AT LAW OR IN EQUITY, BROUGHT BY EITHER PARTY.

29.9. Franchisee acknowledges that neither Franchisor nor any other party has guaranteed Franchisee's success in the business to be operated under this Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges that it has entered into this Agreement after making an independent investigation of the System, and that Franchisor has not made any representation, expressed or implied, as to the potential success of such business venture or the gross revenues, volume, profit, or earnings which Franchisee may be expected to realize. The business venture contemplated herein involves substantial risks and requires active management and participation in the daily affairs of the business and operational ability of Franchisee as an independent business entity.

29.10. All notices required to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing addressed as follows, and delivered personally or by facsimile transmission, with printed confirmation of successful transmission; certified or registered mail, first class postage prepaid, with return receipt requested; or a generally recognized overnight delivery service, with documentation of receipt and delivery charges assumed by the sender.

29.11. Caption and Article and Section titles are for convenience and shall not be used to interpret or construe any word, clause, paragraph, subsection, section, or article of this Agreement.

29.12. Any word in singular or plural form or identifying any pronoun shall extend to mean and include all of its other singular or plural forms or all other pronouns as may be applicable to the facts, context, or sense of this Agreement or any Article or Section.

29.13. If Franchisee is owned by more than one person or entity, the obligations and liabilities of its owners shall be joint and several.

29.14. Time is of the essence of this Agreement.

29.15. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Franchisor and Franchisee and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, subject to the restrictions on transfers as contained herein.

29.16. The covenants in this Agreement which require performance in whole or in part after the expiration or termination of this Agreement shall be enforceable regardless of the expiration or termination of this Agreement for whatever reason.

29.17. Franchisor and Franchisee intend for this Agreement to be a complete understanding of their interests, titles, rights, responsibilities, and obligations regarding the Village Inn Restaurant at the Licensed Location.

29.18. Franchisee acknowledges that this Agreement may not be identical to franchise agreements executed by Franchisor (or its predecessors) with other franchisees or future franchisees.

29.19. Except with respect to Section 26.3 and Franchisee's indemnity obligations under this Agreement, there are no third party beneficiaries to this Agreement.

29.20. Franchisor and Franchisee to this Agreement agree to deal with one another in good faith, honestly, and in a non-discriminatory manner in accord with recognized standards of fair dealing in the industry. Additionally, Franchisor and Franchisee agree to exercise any discretion granted to them in this Agreement in a reasonable manner.

29.21. If an event occurs at the Restaurant that has or reasonably may cause harm or injury to customers, guests, or employees (i.e., food spoilage/poisoning, food tampering/sabotage, slip and fall injuries, natural disasters, robberies, shootings, etc.) or may damage the Marks, the System, or the reputation of Franchisor (collectively “Crisis Situation”), Franchisee shall (i) immediately contact appropriate emergency care providers to assist it in curing the harm or injury, and (ii) immediately inform Franchisor by telephone and electronically of the Crisis Situation. Franchisee shall refrain from making any internal or external announcement (i.e., no communication with the news media) regarding the Crisis Situation (unless otherwise directed by Franchisor or public health officials).

To the extent Franchisor deems appropriate, in its sole and absolute discretion, Franchisor or its designee may control the manner in which the Crisis Situation is handled by the parties, including, without limitation, conducting all communication with the news media, providing care for injured persons, and/or temporarily closing the Restaurant. The parties acknowledge that, in directing the management of any Crisis Situation, Franchisor or its designee may engage the services of attorneys, experts, doctors, testing laboratories, public relations firms, and those other professionals as it deems appropriate. Franchisee and its employees shall cooperate fully with Franchisor or its designee in its efforts and activities in this regard and shall be bound by all further Crisis Situation procedures developed by Franchisor hereafter. The indemnification under Section 20.6 shall include all losses and expenses that may result from the exercise by Franchisor or its designee of the management rights granted in this Section 29.21.

29.22. Franchisee acknowledges that under applicable U.S. law, including, without limitation, Executive Order 13224, signed on September 23, 2001 (“Order”), Franchisor is prohibited from engaging in any transaction with any person engaged in, or with a person aiding any person engaged in, acts of terrorism, as defined in the Order. Accordingly, Franchisee represents and warrants to Franchisor that, as of the date of this Agreement, neither Franchisee nor any person holding any ownership interest in Franchisee, controlled by Franchisee, or under common control with Franchisee is designated under the Order as a person with whom business may not be transacted by Franchisor, and that Franchisee: (i) does not, and hereafter shall not, engage in any terrorist activity; (ii) is not affiliated with and does not support any individual or entity engaged in, contemplating, or supporting terrorist activity; and (iii) is not acquiring the rights granted under this Agreement with the intent to generate funds to channel to any individual or entity engaged in, contemplating, or supporting terrorist activity, or to otherwise support or further any terrorist activity.

30. COMPLIANCE WITH STATUTORY DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

Franchisee acknowledges that it has, at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the execution of this Agreement, received Franchisor’s Disclosure Document and that Franchisee has read the Disclosure Document.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above-written.

ADDENDUM TO VI BRANDCO, LLC
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The VI BrandCo, LLC Franchise Agreement between _____ (“Franchise Owner” or “You”) and VI BrandCo, LLC (“Franchisor”) dated _____ (the “Franchise Agreement”) shall be amended by the addition of the following language, which shall be considered an integral part of the Franchise Agreement (the “Addendum”):

CALIFORNIA LAW MODIFICATIONS

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

The Franchise Agreement requires franchisee to execute a general release of claims upon renewal or transfer of the franchise agreement. California Corporations Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order there under is void. Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 – 20043).

The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code §1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination or non-renewal of a franchise. The Federal Bankruptcy Code also provides rights to franchisee concerning termination of the Franchise Agreement upon certain bankruptcy-related events. If the Franchise Agreement is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The Franchise Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur in Minneapolis, Minnesota with the cost being borne by the parties as determined by the arbitrator. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult with private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

2. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

3. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.

4. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Addendum as of the date Franchisor signs below.

This ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS (FOR THE STATE OF HAWAII) (“Addendum”) dated _____ (“Addendum Effective Date”) to the [Franchise Agreement[, as amended], [Consent to Transfer and Release Agreement,] [General Release,] [Promissory Note and Security Agreement] [Sublease] [each] dated _____, and including any and all exhibits attached thereto (individually and collectively, “Franchise Documents”) between _____ (“Franchisee”) and VI BRANDCO, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Franchisor”) hereby amends the Franchise Documents by the addition of the following language, which shall be considered an integral part of the Agreement. To the extent this Addendum contains terms and conditions that differ from those contained in the Franchise Documents, this Addendum shall control. The parties agree that a concept or principle covered in this Addendum shall apply and be incorporated into all other provisions of the Franchise Documents in which the concept or principle is also applicable, notwithstanding the absence of any specific cross-reference thereto. All capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Addendum will have the same meanings ascribed to such terms in the Franchise Documents.

1. The Director of the Hawaii Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs requires that certain provisions contained in franchise documents be amended to be consistent with Hawaii law, including the Hawaii Franchise Investment Law, Hawaii Revised Statutes, Title 26, Chapter 482E-1 through 482E-12 (1988). To the extent that the Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

- a. The Hawaii Franchise Investment Law provides rights to you concerning non-renewal, termination and transfer of the Franchise Agreement. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the Law, the Law will control. Among those rights, the law may require that upon termination or non-renewal Franchisor purchase for fair market value Franchisee’s inventory, supplies, equipment and furnishings purchased from Franchisor or a supplier designated by Franchisor; provided that personalized materials which have no value to Franchisor need not be compensated for. If the non-renewal or termination is for the purpose of converting the Franchisee’s business to one owned and operated by Franchisor, Franchisor may, additionally, be obligated to compensate the Franchisee for loss of goodwill. Franchisor may deduct all amounts due from Franchisee and any costs related to the transportation or disposition of items purchased against any payment for those items. If the parties cannot agree on fair market value, fair market value shall be determined in the manner set forth in the Franchise Agreement. If the Franchise Agreement does not provide for determination of fair market value of assets for purchase by Franchisor, such amount will be determined by an independent appraiser approved by both parties, and the costs of the appraisal shall be shared equally by the parties.

- b. If the Franchisee is required in the Franchise Documents to execute a release of claims, such release shall exclude claims arising under the Hawaii Franchise Investment Law. Any condition, stipulation or provision binding the Franchisee to waive compliance with any provision of Section 482E-6 of the Hawaii Franchise Investment Law shall be void.
- c. The requirement of a franchisee to purchase or lease goods or services of the franchisor or from designated sources may not be enforceable under Hawaii Franchise Investment law unless it is reasonably necessary for a lawful purpose, and does not substantially affect competition.
- d. The Hawaii Franchise Investment Law prohibits the Franchisor from establishing a similar business or granting a franchise for the establishment of a similar business to that of the Franchisee's within the Franchisee's exclusive territory. To the extent the Franchise Documents contain a provision that is inconsistent with the Act, the Act will control.
- e. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

2. Section 482E-3(a) of the Hawaii Franchise Investment Law requires us to give you a copy of the Franchise Disclosure Document at least 7 calendar days prior to signing the Agreement.

3. The Franchise Documents permits us to terminate the Agreement upon your bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under Federal Bankruptcy Law. (11 U.S.C. §101, et seq.).

4. Each provision of this Addendum shall be effective only to the extent that the jurisdictional requirements of the Hawaii Franchise Investment Law applicable to the provision are met independent of this Addendum. This Addendum shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional requirements are not met. Except as set forth in this Addendum, the terms and provisions of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

(FOR THE STATE OF INDIANA)

This ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS (FOR THE STATE OF INDIANA) (“Addendum”) dated _____ (“Addendum Effective Date”) to the [Franchise Agreement[, as amended], [Consent to Transfer and Release Agreement,] [General Release,] [Promissory Note and Security Agreement] [Sublease] [each] dated _____, and including any and all exhibits attached thereto (individually and collectively, “Franchise Documents”) between _____ (“Franchisee”) and VI BRANDCO, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Franchisor”) hereby amends the Franchise Documents by the addition of the following language, which shall be considered an integral part of the Agreement. To the extent this Addendum contains terms and conditions that differ from those contained in the Franchise Documents, this Addendum shall control. The parties agree that a concept or principle covered in this Addendum shall apply and be incorporated into all other provisions of the Franchise Documents in which the concept or principle is also applicable, notwithstanding the absence of any specific cross-reference thereto. All capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Addendum will have the same meanings ascribed to such terms in the Franchise Documents.

INDIANA LAW MODIFICATIONS

1. The Indiana Securities Commissioner requires that certain provisions contained in franchise documents be amended to be consistent with Indiana law, including the Indiana Franchises Act, Ind. Code Ann. §§ 1-51 (1994) and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act, Ind. Code Ann. § 23-27 (1985). To the extent that the Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

- a. The Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act provides rights to Franchisee concerning non-renewal and termination of the Franchise Agreement. To the extent the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the Act, the Act will control.
- b. If the Franchisee is required in the Franchise Documents to execute a release of claims or to acknowledge facts that would negate or remove from judicial review any statement, misrepresentation or action that would violate the Act, or a rule of order under the Act, such release shall exclude claims arising under the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act and the Indiana Franchises Act, and such acknowledgements shall be void with respect to claims under the Act.
- c. If the Franchise Agreement contains covenants not to compete upon expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement that are inconsistent with the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act, the requirements of the Act will control.
- d. The Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act provides that substantial modification of the Agreement by Franchisor requires written consent of the Franchisee. If the Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with this requirement, the Act will control.

- e. If the Franchise Documents requires litigation/arbitration to be conducted in a forum other than the State of Indiana, the requirement may be unenforceable as a limitation on litigation under the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act §§ 23-2.2.7(10).
- f. If the Franchise Documents requires that it be governed by a state's law, other than the State of Indiana, to the extent that such law conflicts with the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act and the Indiana Franchises Act, the Acts will control.
- g. The Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act provides rights to Franchisee concerning the waiver of claims or rights. To the extent the Franchise Documents contains a provision that is inconsistent with the Act, the Act will control.
- h. The Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act provides rights to Franchisee concerning the time period to bring an action against the Franchisor. To the extent the Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the Act, the Act will control.
- i. The Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act prohibits the Franchisor from operating a substantially identical business to that of the Franchisee's within the Franchisee's territory, regardless of trade name. To the extent the Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the Act, the Act will control.
- j. The Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practice Act excludes any indemnification for liability caused by the Franchisee's proper reliance on or use of procedures or materials provided by the Franchisor. To the extent the Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the Act, the Act will control.
- k. If the Franchise Agreement requires goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from the franchisor or sources designated by the franchisor where such goods, supplies, inventories or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by the franchisor, to the extent that such law conflicts with the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act and the Indiana Franchises Act, the Acts will control. Providing a list of approved suppliers to comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Franchisor does not constitute designation of a source under the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.
- l. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

2. Indiana Code § 23-2-2.5-9(2) requires us to give you a copy of the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earlier of: (i) 10 days prior to signing the Agreement; or (ii) 10 days prior to our receipt of any consideration.

3. Each provision of this Addendum shall be effective only to the extent that the jurisdictional requirements of the Indiana Deceptive Practices Act and the Indiana Franchises Act, with respect to each such provision, are met independent of this Addendum. This Addendum shall have no force or effect if such jurisdictional requirements are not met. Except as set forth in this Addendum, the terms and provisions of the Franchise Documents shall remain in full force and effect.

ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS

(FOR THE STATE OF MICHIGAN)

Section 445.1508(1) of the Michigan Franchise Investment Law requires franchisor to give you a copy of the Franchise Disclosure Document earlier of: (i) 10 business days prior to signing the Franchise Agreement; or (ii) 10 business days prior to franchisor's receipt of any consideration.

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN THE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) The term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then-current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

ADDENDUM TO VI BRANDCO, LLC
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

The VI BrandCo, LLC Franchise Agreement between _____ (“Franchise Owner” or “You”) and VI BrandCo, LLC (“Franchisor”) dated _____ (the “Franchise Agreement”) shall be amended by the addition of the following language, which shall be considered an integral part of the Franchise Agreement (the “Addendum”):

MINNESOTA LAW MODIFICATIONS

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 4 which requires that except for certain specified cases, that franchisee be given 180 days’ notice for non-renewal of this Franchise Agreement.

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that franchisor indemnify franchisees whose franchise is located in Minnesota against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee’s use of franchisor’s trademarks (“Marks”) infringe upon the trademark rights of the third party. Franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee’s use of franchisor’s trademark but franchisor shall indemnify franchisee for claims against franchisee solely as it relates to franchisee’s use of the Marks in accordance with the requirements of the Franchise Agreement and franchisor’s standards. As a further condition to indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to franchisor. If franchisor accepts tender of defense, franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Franchisee will not be required to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§ 80C.01 – 80C.22.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 3 which requires that except for certain specified cases, a franchisee be given 90 days’ notice of termination (with 60 days to cure). Termination of the franchise by the franchisor shall be effective immediately upon receipt by franchisee of the notice of termination where its grounds for termination or cancellation are: (1) voluntary abandonment of the franchise relationship by the franchisee; (2) the conviction of the franchisee of an offense directly related to the business conducted according to the Franchise Agreement; or (3) failure of the franchisee to cure a default under the Franchise Agreement which materially impairs the goodwill associated with the franchisor’s trade name, trademark, service mark, logo type or other commercial symbol after the franchisee has received written notice to cure of at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance thereof.

According to Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 in Minnesota Rules or 2860.4400J, the terms of the Franchise Agreement shall not in any way abrogate or reduce your rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. 1984, Chapter 80C, including the right to submit certain matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota. In addition, nothing in this Franchise Agreement shall abrogate or reduce any of franchisee's rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedy provided for by the laws of the State of Minnesota.

Any claims franchisee may have against the franchisor that have arisen under the Minnesota Franchise Laws shall be governed by the Minnesota Franchise Law.

The Franchise Agreement contains a waiver of jury trial provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.

Franchisee consents to the franchisor seeking injunctive relief without the necessity of showing actual or threatened harm. A court shall determine if a bond or other security is required.

The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.

Any action pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5 must be commenced no more than 3 years after the cause of action accrues.

2. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

3. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.

4. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.

4. Any provisions of the Franchise Agreement which require that actions be commenced within one year and that limit the parties’ rights to recover punitive, exemplary, incidental, indirect, special or consequential damages may not be enforceable under South Dakota law.
5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

To the extent this Addendum is deemed to be inconsistent with any terms or conditions of the Franchise Agreement, the terms of this Addendum will govern. All other terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement will remain unchanged and as originally written.

ADDENDUM TO VI BRANDCO, LLC
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

The VI BrandCo, LLC Franchise Agreement between _____ (“Franchise Owner” or “You”) and VI BrandCo, LLC (“Franchisor”) dated _____ (the “Franchise Agreement”) shall be amended by the addition of the following language, which shall be considered an integral part of the Franchise Agreement (the “Addendum”):

WASHINGTON LAW MODIFICATIONS

1. The Director of the Washington Department of Financial Institutions requires that certain provisions contained in franchise documents be amended to be consistent with Washington law, including the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, WA Rev. Code §§ 19.100.010 to 19.100.940 (1991). To the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

- a. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
- b. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.
- c. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
- d. A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
- e. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor’s reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

- f. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

- g. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

2. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

The undersigned does hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.

If applicable, the provisions of the Wisconsin Fair Dealership Law, Wis. Stat. Chapter 135, will supersede any conflicting terms of the Franchise Agreement.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. Report of Independent Auditors

To the Management and Stockholder of MTY Franchising USA, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of MTY Franchising USA, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Company), which comprise the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive (loss) income for the years ended November 30, 2024 and 2023, the consolidated statements of changes in stockholder's equity for the years ended November 30, 2024 and 2023, the consolidated balance sheets as of November 30, 2024 and 2023, and the consolidated statements of cash flows for the years then ended, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the consolidated financial statements).

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of November 30, 2024 and 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to the consolidated financial statements

Years ended November 30, 2024 and 2023

(In thousands of US dollars)

1. Nature of operations

MTY Franchising USA, Inc. (the "Company" or "MTY USA") was incorporated on March 14, 2001. The Company operates, develops and franchises restaurants under a multitude of different banners in the United States of America (the "US").

2. Significant accounting policies

Basis of presentation

The accounting policies of the Company are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the US ("US GAAP"). The Company uses the US dollar as its functional and reporting currency, and tabular amounts are rounded to the nearest thousand ($000) except when otherwise indicated. MTY USA is a wholly owned subsidiary of MTY Franchising Inc. which is a subsidiary of the ultimate parent of MTY Food Group Inc.

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Presented below are those policies considered particularly significant:

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements reflect the financial position and operating results of the Company, including wholly owned subsidiaries and investees that we control.

The principal subsidiaries of the Company are as follows:

Principal subsidiaries	Percentage of equity interest
BF Acquisition Holdings, LLC	100
BQ Concepts, LLC	100
Famous Dave's of America Inc.	100
Kahala Franchising, LLC	100
La Salsa Franchise, LLC	100
Papa Murphy's International, LLC	100
VI Brandco, LLC	100
Wetzel's Pretzels, LLC (Note 3)	100

Revenues and expenses of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive income (loss) from the effective date of acquisition. The subsidiaries are consolidated from the acquisition date until the date on which the Company ceases to control them.

All intercompany transactions, balances, revenues and expenses are eliminated in full upon consolidation.

Business combinations

The Company accounts for acquired businesses using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 805, Business Combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition is the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred, and the equity interest issued. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair value at the acquisition date.

Goodwill is measured as the excess of the purchase price over the estimated fair values of the net assets acquired. If, after reassessment, the net of the acquisition date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed exceeds the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest in the acquiree (if any), the excess is recognized immediately in the statement of operations as a bargain purchase gain.

Goodwill reflects how the acquisition will impact the Company's ability to generate future profits in excess of existing profits. The consideration paid mostly relates to combined synergies, related mainly to revenue growth. These benefits are not recognized separately from goodwill as they do not meet the recognition criteria for identifiable intangible assets.

When the consideration transferred by the Company in a business combination includes assets or liabilities resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement, the contingent consideration is measured at its acquisition date fair value and included as part of the consideration transferred in a business combination.

When a business combination is achieved in stages, the Company's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date (i.e. the date when the Company obtains control) and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is recognized in the statement of operations. Amounts arising from interests in the acquiree prior to the acquisition date that have previously been recognized in income and other comprehensive income are reclassified to the statement of operations where such treatment would be appropriate if that interest were disposed of.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, the Company reports provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete.

Functional currency

The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries is the US dollar. The Company translates monetary assets and liabilities that are denominated in currencies other than the US dollar at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period; non-monetary assets denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rate prevailing at the transaction date; all revenue and expense items denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rate prevailing at the transaction date. All foreign exchange gains and losses are reported in the statement of operations.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized upon the transfer of control of promised goods or services to customer in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to receive for those goods or services:

Revenue from franchise locations

- i) Royalties are based either on a percentage of gross sales as reported by the franchisees or on a fixed monthly fee. They are recognized on an accrual basis in accordance with the substance of the relevant agreement, as they are earned.
- ii) Promotional fund contributions are based on a percentage of gross sales as reported by the franchisees. Corresponding promotional fund transfers are presented directly on the consolidated balance sheets. The Company is not entitled to retain these promotional fund payments received and is obligated to transfer these funds to be used solely for use in promotional and marketing-related costs for specific restaurant banners. The Company sometimes charges a fee for the administration of the promotional funds.

- iii) Initial franchise fees are recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the franchise agreement as the performance obligation relating to franchise rights is fulfilled. Amortization begins once the restaurant has opened.
- iv) Upfront fees related to master license agreements are recognized over the term of the master license agreements on a straight-line basis.
- v) Renewal fees and transfer fees are recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the related franchise agreement.
- vi) The Company earns rent revenue on certain leases it holds; the Company's policy is described below.
- vii) Revenue from equipment sale and retail sales are recognized upon transfer of control, generally upon shipment of the equipment or goods. This revenue is recorded in resale material and retail sales.
- viii) The Company recognizes breakage income proportionately as each gift card is redeemed, based on the historical redemption patterns of the gift cards. The Company also charges various program fees to its franchisees as gift cards are redeemed. Notably, this does not apply to gift card liabilities assumed in a business acquisition, which are accounted for at fair value at acquisition date.
- ix) The Company receives considerations from certain suppliers. Fees are generally earned based on the value of purchases during the period. Agreements that contain an initial upfront fee, in addition to ongoing fees, are recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective agreement. Supplier contributions are recognized as revenue as they are earned and are recorded in franchising revenue.
- x) The Company earns e-commerce fees, which includes point-of-sale ("POS") support fees and transaction fees for purchase made through one of the Company's brands' e-commerce platforms. POS support fees are received quarterly in advance and are recognized over the period they cover. Transaction fees are recognized when the food items purchased from a store are delivered or picked up by customers.

Revenue from corporate-owned locations

Revenue from corporate-owned locations is recorded when goods are delivered to customers.

Contract cost asset

The Company recognizes incremental costs of obtaining a contract as an asset if they are expected to be recoverable, unless their amortization period would be less than one year, in which case they are expensed as incurred. The costs are amortized to operating expenses over the term of the related franchise agreement.

Leasing

In accordance with ASC 842, the Company determines if an arrangement is or contains a lease at contract inception and recognizes a right-of-use asset and a lease liability at the lease commencement date. Leases with an initial term of 12 months or less but greater than one month are not recorded on the balance sheet for select asset classes.

The lease liability is measured at the present value of future lease payments as of the lease commencement date. The right-of-use asset recognized is based on the lease liability adjusted for prepaid and deferred rent and unamortized lease incentives. An operating lease right-of-use asset is amortized on a straight-line basis over the lease term and is recognized as a single lease cost against the operating lease liability. A finance lease right-of-use asset is amortized on a straight-line basis, with interest costs reported separately, over the lesser of the useful life of the leased asset or lease term.

Operating lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term and is included in Operating expenses. Variable lease payments are expensed as incurred. The Company uses its incremental borrowing rates as the discount rate for its leases, which is equal to the rate of interest the Company would have to pay on a collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms. The lease terms for all the Company's leases include the contractually obligated period of the leases, plus any additional periods covered by Company options to extend the leases that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. Certain leases provide that the lease payments may be increased annually based on the fixed rate terms or adjustable terms such as the Consumer Price Index. Future base rent escalations that are not contractually quantifiable as of the lease commencement date are not included in the lease liability.

Lease expense is comprised of operating and finance lease costs, short-term lease costs, and variable lease costs, which primarily include common area maintenance, real estate taxes, and insurance for the Company's real estate leases.

The Company enters into leases for franchised and corporately-owned locations, offices, and equipment in the normal course of business.

The Company as lessee

The Company recognizes operating lease liabilities with corresponding operating lease right-of-use assets, except for short-term leases and leases of low value assets, which are expensed on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The Company's leases are all classified as operating leases. The amortization of the operating lease right-of-use asset and interest expense related to the operating lease liability are recorded together as the lease expense to produce a straight-line recognition effect in the consolidated statement of operations. Under ASC 842, operating lease right-of-use assets are tested for impairment in accordance with ASC 360, Property, Plant and Equipment.

The Company as lessor

When the Company enters into a sublease arrangement as an intermediate lessor, the Company accounts for the head lease and the sublease as two separate contracts. All the subleases of the Company are classified as operating subleases by reference to the operating lease right-of-use asset arising from the underlying asset. For operating subleases, the Company recognizes an operating right-of-use asset relating to the head lease and recognizes a deferred rent asset or liability in the sublease. As the intermediate lessor, the Company retains the operating lease liability on the head lease in its consolidated balance sheet. During the term of the sublease, the Company recognizes both lease income on the sublease and lease expense on the head lease.

Income taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes pursuant to ASC 740, Income Taxes ("ASC 740"). Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded for differences between the financial statement and tax basis of the assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted tax laws and rates. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Income tax expense is recorded for the amount of income tax payable or refundable for the period increased or decreased by the change in deferred tax assets and liabilities during the period.

The Company recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more-likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority.

Expected Credit loss

The Company currently uses an expected credit loss ("ECL") model for its trade receivables, which permits the uses of the lifetime expected loss provision for all trade receivables and also incorporates forward-looking information. Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all probable default events over the expected life of a financial instrument.

2. Significant accounting policies (continued)

Assets held for sale

Assets are classified as held for sale when management with the appropriate authority commits to a plan to sell the assets, the assets are available for immediate sale, the assets are actively marketed at a reasonable price, the sale is probable within a year, and certain other criteria met. Assets held for sale primarily include Company-owned stores and, in some instances, associated trademarks and right-of-use assets, when the Company has committed to their sale as part of an approved plan. Assets designated as held for sale are held at the lower of the net book value or fair value less costs to sell. Depreciation is not charged against property, plant and equipment or right-of-use assets classified as assets held for sale.

Property, plant and equipment

Land and buildings held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes, are stated in the consolidated balance sheet at their historical costs less accumulated depreciation (buildings) and accumulated impairment losses. Cost includes expenditures that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset, including any costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to a working condition for its intended use.

Equipment, leasehold improvements, rolling stock and computer hardware are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

Depreciation is recognized so as to write off the cost or valuation of assets less their residual values over their useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation methods are reviewed at the end of each year, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognized in the statement of operations.

Depreciation is based on the following terms:

Buildings	Straight-line	25 to 50 years
Equipment	Straight-line	Three to 10 years
Leasehold improvements	Straight-line	Term of the lease
Rolling stock	Straight-line	Five to seven years
Computer hardware	Straight-line	Three to seven years

Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if applicable. Amortization is recognized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful lives and amortization methods are reviewed at the end of each year, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis. Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if applicable.

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination and recognized separately from goodwill are initially recognized at their fair value at the acquisition date.

Subsequent to initial recognition, intangible assets having a finite life acquired in a business combination are reported at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if applicable, on the same basis as intangible assets that are acquired separately. Intangible assets having an indefinite life are not amortized and are therefore carried at cost reduced by previous impairment losses, if applicable.

Derecognition of intangible assets

An intangible asset is derecognized on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, are recognized in the statement of operations when the asset is derecognized.

The Company currently carries the following intangible assets in its books:

Franchise rights

The franchise rights acquired through business combinations are recognized at the fair value of the estimated future cash inflows related to the acquisition of franchises. The franchise rights are generally amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the agreements which typically range between 10 to 20 years.

Trademarks

Trademarks acquired through business combinations are recognized at their fair value at the time of the acquisition and are not amortized. Trademarks are determined to have an indefinite useful life based on their brand recognition and their ability to generate revenue through changing economic conditions with no foreseeable time limit.

Other

Included in other intangible assets are purchased software and liquor licences, which are being amortized over their expected useful life on a straight-line basis.

Impairment of long-lived assets other than goodwill

The Company continually reviews whether events or circumstances subsequent to the acquisition of any long-lived assets, including intangible assets with finite and infinite useful lives, have occurred that indicate the remaining estimated useful lives of those assets may warrant revision or that the remaining balance of those assets may not be recoverable. If events and circumstances indicate that the long-lived assets should be reviewed for possible impairment, the Company uses projections to assess whether future cash flows on an undiscounted basis related to the assets exceed the recorded carrying amount of those assets to determine if an asset is impaired. Should an impairment be identified, a loss would be recorded to the extent that the carrying value of the impaired assets exceeds their fair values as determined by valuation techniques appropriate in the circumstances that could include the use of similar cash flow projections on a discounted basis. The reporting units of indefinite intangible assets are individual brands, comprised of franchise rights, trademarks, and perpetual licenses.

Impairment of goodwill

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to the unit or group of units ("reporting unit") that are considered to represent the lowest level within the group at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes. As of September 1, 2024, the Company reassessed the reporting units based on a strategic realignment and merger of business units in the US. With the change in management team and the overall change in decision making and overall synergies brought from the merger of these units, it was determined that the merger US Goodwill Unit A and D would be merged and that US Goodwill Unit B and C would be merged.

As at November 30, 2024, goodwill is allocated as follows:

Goodwill unit description	2024	2023
US Goodwill Unit A	A group of reporting units comprised of all the brands, excluding Papa Murphy's and the brands acquired with BBQ Holdings, Inc. ("BBQ Holdings")	A group of reporting units comprised of all the brands, excluding Papa Murphy's and the brands acquired with BBQ Holdings, Inc. ("BBQ Holdings")
US Goodwill Unit B	A group of reporting units comprised of the BBQ Holdings brands and the Papa Murphy's brand	One reporting unit comprised of Papa Murphy's brand
US Goodwill Unit C		A group of reporting units comprised of the BBQ Holdings brands
US Goodwill Unit D		One reporting unit comprised of Wetzel's Pretzels brand

Goodwill is tested for impairment on an annual basis (September 1 for the Company) and between annual tests if an event occurs or circumstances change that would more likely than not reduce the fair value of a reporting unit below its carrying value. Fair value is determined using a discounted cash flow methodology with a risk adjusted weighted average cost of capital.

Cash and restricted cash

Cash and restricted cash include cash on hand and short-term investments, if any, with maturities upon acquisition of generally three months or less or that are redeemable at any time at full value and for which the risk of a change in value is not significant. As at November 30, 2024, cash and restricted cash included $250 of restricted cash (2023 – $271) that is required as part of guarantees on certain lease commitments.

Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Costs of inventories are determined on a first-in-first-out basis and include acquisition costs and other costs incurred to bring inventories to their present location and condition.

Market value represents the current replacement cost, provided that the cost does not exceed the net realizable value or is not less than the net realizable value reduced by a normal profit margin.

Contingencies

Litigation, disputes and closed stores

Provisions for the expected cost of litigation, disputes and the cost of settling leases for closed stores, with the exception of operating lease liabilities already recorded pursuant to ASC 842, are recognized when it becomes probable the Company will be required to settle the obligation, at management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the Company's obligation.

Contingencies (continued)

Contingent liabilities acquired in a business combination

Contingent liabilities acquired in a business combination are initially measured at fair value at the acquisition date. At the end of subsequent reporting periods, such contingent liabilities are measured at the higher of the amount that would be recognized, and the amount initially recognized.

Financial instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, restricted cash, accounts receivable, loans receivable, receivable from company under common control, receivable from ultimate parent, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, promotional funds payable, advance from parent company, advances from companies under common control, long-term loan from company under common control and holdbacks payable. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments. The fair values for cash, restricted cash, accounts receivable, loans receivable, receivable from company under common control, receivable from ultimate parent, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, promotional funds payable, advance from parent company and advances from companies under common control approximate their carrying values due to their immediate or short-term maturities, unless otherwise noted. The long-term loan from company under common control, advances from ultimate parent and holdbacks payable are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

Promotional funds

Pursuant to the franchise agreements, franchisees must pay a fee to the promotional funds. These amounts are collected by the Company in its capacity as agent and must be used for promotional and advertising purposes, since the amounts are set aside to promote the respective banners for the franchisees' benefit. The promotional funds collected, and the related expenditures are reported on a gross basis in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income. To the extent that promotional funds received exceed the related promotional expenditures, the excess contributions will be recorded in accounts payable or accrued liabilities.

Cash held pursuant to the promotional funds received are classified as unrestricted cash as there are no legal restrictions on the use of these funds; however, the Company intends to use these funds solely to support the promotional funds rather than to fund its ongoing operations. As at November 30, 2024, promotional funds were in a net liability position amounting to $7,694 (2023 – net liability position of $11,357).

Subsequent events

Subsequent events were evaluated through the date that the consolidated financial statements were issued, which was January 31, 2024.

Estimates and assumptions

Business combinations

For business combinations, the Company must make assumptions and estimates to determine the purchase price accounting of the business being acquired. To do so, the Company must determine the acquisition date fair value of the identifiable assets acquired, including such intangible assets as franchise rights and master franchise rights, trademarks, step-in rights and liabilities assumed. Among other things, the determination of these fair market values involves the use of discounted cash flow analyses and future system sales growth. Goodwill is measured as the excess of the fair value of the consideration transferred including the recognized amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree over the net recognized amount of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed, all measured at the acquisition date. These assumptions and estimates have an impact on the asset and liability amounts recorded in the consolidated balance sheets on the acquisition date. In addition, the estimated useful lives of the acquired amortizable assets, the identification of intangible assets and the determination of the indefinite or finite useful lives of intangible assets acquired will have an impact on the Company's future statement of operations.

Goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets

The fair value calculation includes estimates of revenue growth, which are based on past performance and internal projections for the intangible asset group's forecasted growth, and royalty rates, which are adjusted for our particular facts and circumstances. The discount rate is selected based on the estimated cost of capital that reflects the risk profile of the related business. These estimates are highly subjective, the ability to achieve the forecasted cash flows used in our fair value calculations is affected by factors such as the success of strategic initiatives, changes in economic conditions, changes in our operating performance and changes in our business strategies.

Contingencies

The Company makes assumptions and estimations based on its current knowledge of future disbursements it will have to make in connection with various events that have occurred in the past and for which the amount to be disbursed and the timing of such disbursement are uncertain at the date of producing its consolidated financial statements. This includes contingencies for onerous contracts, litigations and disputes and other contingencies.

Gift card liabilities

Management is required to make certain assumptions in both the prorated recognition based on redemption pattern and remoteness recognition of gift card breakage. The significant estimates are breakage rate and the redemption patterns.

5. Assets and liabilities held for sale

Assets and liabilities held for sale as at November 30, 2024 and 2023 are stated at fair value less costs to sell. During the reporting period, the Company designated certain assets and liabilities related to a casual dining brand as held for sale. This decision reflects management's formal commitment to a plan to divest these assets, which include both Company-owned stores and associated intangible assets.

The assets reclassified as held for sale primarily consist of inventories, prepaid expenses, deposits, right-of-use assets (Note 6), property plant, and equipment (Note 7) and intangible assets (Note 8). The liabilities included in the carrying value are the gift card payable and the lease liability (Note 6). This reclassification on November 30, 2024 led to an impairment charge of $849 to right-of-use-asset, $505 to property, plant and equipment and $1,088 to trademarks in Reporting Unit A. The total carrying amount reclassified as held for sale is comprised of assets of $3,116 and liabilities of $2,116 resulting in a net amount of $1,000.

In November 2023 assets held for sale comprised of one locations leasehold improvement, land and building that were transferred from property, plant and equipment (Note 7). They did not meet the definition of assets held for sale at the acquisition date of BBQ Holdings.

10. Impairment – property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and goodwill

The Company performed its annual impairment test as at September 1, 2024, resulting in the recognition of $6,679 (2023 – $4,063) of impairment losses on its intangible assets for five of its brands (2023 – four brands). The Company also recorded an impairment of $1,088 on one of its brands resulting from the reclass to assets held for sale (Note 5).

As of September 1, 2024, the Company reassessed the reporting unit based on a strategic realignment and merger of business units in the US. The goodwill impairment for the reporting unit comprised of Papa Murphy's brand was subject to an impairment test prior to the strategic realignment and this resulted in an impairment of goodwill of $29,685 (2023 – $nil).

Additionally, the Company recorded $6,150 of impairment losses on its property, plant and equipment (2023 – $169), for a total of $43,602 (2023 – $4,232) of impairment charges on its property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and goodwill for the year ended November 30, 2024, which have been recognized in the consolidated statement of operations.

Impairment charges were based on the amount by which the carrying values of the assets exceeded the fair value, determined using expected discounted projected operating cash flows for trademarks and franchise rights.

Impairment by reporting unit for the year ended November 30, 2024:

	Intangible assets					Total

10. Impairment (continued)

Impairment by reporting unit for the year ended November 30, 2023:

	Intangible assets			Total
	Property, plant and equipment	Franchise rights	Trademarks
	$	$	$
Reporting Unit A	22	559	3,264	3,845
Reporting Unit B	—	—	—	—
Reporting Unit C	105	—	240	345
Reporting Unit D	42	—	—	42
	169	559	3,504	4,232

The key assumptions used are those related to projected operating cash flows, as well as the discount rates. The sales forecasts for cash flows were based on the subsequent fiscal year's budgeted operating results, which were prepared by management and approved by the Board, and internal forecasts for subsequent years, which were prepared by management and developed from the budgeted operating results.

The following table presents the key assumptions used in the Company's impairment tests, as well as the recoverable amounts measured at fair value as at September 1, 2024 and 2023:

	2024		2023
	Reporting Unit A	Reporting Unit B	Reporting Unit A	Reporting Unit B	Reporting Unit C	Reporting Unit D
($, except percentage data)
Discount rates after tax	10.0%	10.0%	10.5%	10.5%	10.5%	10.5%
Discount rates pre-tax	12.7%	13.0%	13.4%	13.8%	13.7%	13.6%
Recoverable amounts	875,925	604,533	539,407	266,604	313,644	270,246

Long-term growth rates ranging from 0% to 2% (2023 – 0% to 2%) were used in the impairment test for Reporting Unit A. A change of 100 basis points in discount rates in Reporting Unit A would result in additional impairment charges on intangible assets of four brands (2023 – three brands) representing 0.5% (2023 – 0.7%) of the total carrying value of the franchise rights and trademarks in that unit. A change of 100 basis points in discount rates in Reporting Unit A would not result in additional impairment charges on goodwill for the years ended November 30, 2024 and 2023. For Reporting Unit A, an increase of 430 basis points in the discount rate would have resulted in its recoverable amount being equal to its carrying value.

Long-term growth rates of 2.0% were used in the impairment test for Reporting Unit B. A change of 100 basis points in discount rates in Reporting Unit B would result in additional impairment charges on intangible assets of one brand (2023 – nil) representing 0.1% (2023 – nil) of the total carrying value of the franchise rights and trademarks in that unit. A change of 100 basis points in discount rates in Reporting Unit B would not result in additional impairment charges on goodwill for the years ended November 30, 2024 and 2023. For Reporting Unit B, an increase of 130 basis points in the discount rate would have resulted in its recoverable amount being equal to its carrying value.

The term loan is unsecured and bears interest at the rate set at the Applicable Federal Rates as issued by the US Internal Revenue Service for short-term instruments. The term loan may be repaid, in whole or in part, at any time, without premium or penalty. MTY USA may also request repayment, in whole or in part, at any time, without penalty.

The advance from ultimate parent is comprised of three loans totaling $708,363 seen in note 14 (2023 – $705,683). Those loans are unsecured and each tranche has a different interest rate spanning from non interest bearing to 9.26%. These loans may be repaid, in whole or in part, at any time, without premium or penalty.

The receivable from company under common control and advances from parent company and companies under common control are non-interest bearing and receivable/due on demand with no specified collection/repayment terms.

16. Contingencies

The contingencies for litigation and disputes represent management's best estimate of the outcome of litigations and disputes that are ongoing at the date of the consolidated balance sheet. These contingencies consist of multiple items, a large part of which are insurance claims, including worker's compensation claims, at the Company's corporately owned locations. The timing of the settlement of these contingencies is unknown given their nature, as the Company does not control the litigation timelines.

18. Financial instruments

In the normal course of business, the Company uses various financial instruments which by their nature involve risk, including market risk and the credit risk of non-performance by counterparties. These financial instruments are subject to normal credit standards, financial controls, risk management as well as monitoring procedures.

Fair value of recognized financial instruments

The Company has determined that the fair value of its financial assets and financial liabilities with short-term maturities approximates their carrying value. These financial instruments include cash, accounts receivable, receivable from ultimate parent, deposits loans receivable, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, promotional funds payable, advances from parent company and from companies under common control and holdbacks.

Risk management policies

The Company, through its financial assets and financial liabilities, is exposed to various risks. The following analysis provides a measurement of risks as at November 30, 2024.

Credit risk

The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its trade receivables, loans receivable and deposits. For accounts receivable and loans receivable, the amounts disclosed on the consolidated balance sheets are net of allowances for bad debts, estimated by the Company's management based on past experience and counterparty specific circumstances. The Company believes that the credit risk of accounts receivable is limited for the following reasons:

- The Company's broad client base is spread mostly across the US, which limits the concentration of credit risk.
- The Company accounts for specific bad debt provisions when management considers that the expected recovery is less than the actual account receivable.

The credit risk on cash is limited because the Company invests its excess liquidity in high-quality financial instruments and with credit-worthy counterparties.

Notes to the consolidated financial statements

Years ended November 30, 2024 and 2023

(In thousands of US dollars)

18. Financial instruments (continued)

The credit risk on deposits is also limited as these are mostly with well-established and credit-worthy companies.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the Company's exposure to increases and decreases in financial instrument values caused by the fluctuation in interest rates. The Company has limited exposure to interest rate risk as its long-term loans from company under common control and ultimate parent as well as its long-term debt have fixed interest rates

Under ASC 740, income taxes are recognized for the following: a) amount of tax payable for the current year and b) deferred tax liabilities and assets for future tax consequences of events that have been recognized differently in the consolidated financial statements than for tax purposes.

Report of Independent Auditors

To the Management and Stockholder of MTY Franchising USA, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of MTY Franchising USA, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Company"), which comprise the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive income for the year ended on November 30, 2023 and 2022, the consolidated statement of changes in stockholder's equity for the year ended on November 30, 2023 and 2022, the consolidated balance sheets as of November 30, 2023 and 2022, and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the "consolidated financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of November 30, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

The Company uses the US dollar as its functional and reporting currency, and tabular amounts are rounded to the nearest thousand ($000) except when otherwise indicated. MTY USA is a wholly owned subsidiary of MTY Food Group Inc.

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Presented below are those policies considered particularly significant:

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements reflect the financial position and operating results of the Company, including wholly owned subsidiaries and investees that we control.

The principal subsidiaries of the Company are as follows:

Principal subsidiaries	Percentage of equity interest
	%
BF Acquisition Holdings, LLC	100
Built Franchise Systems, LLC	100
CB Franchise Systems, LLC	100
Kahala Brands Ltd.	100
Papa Murphy's Holdings Inc.	100
BBQ Holdings, Inc. (Note 3)	100
Wetzel's Pretzels, LLC (Note 3)	100

Revenues and expenses of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive income from the effective date of acquisition. The subsidiaries are consolidated from the acquisition date until the date on which the Company ceases to control them.

All intercompany transactions, balances, revenues and expenses are eliminated in full upon consolidation.

Business combinations

The Company accounts for acquired businesses using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 805, Business Combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition is the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred, and the equity interest issued. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair value at the acquisition date.

Goodwill is measured as the excess of the purchase price over the estimated fair values of the net assets acquired. If, after reassessment, the net of the acquisition date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed exceeds the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest in the acquiree (if any), the excess is recognized immediately in profit or loss as a bargain purchase gain.

Goodwill reflects how the acquisition will impact the Company's ability to generate future profits in excess of existing profits. The consideration paid mostly relates to combined synergies, related mainly to revenue growth. These benefits are not recognized separately from goodwill as they do not meet the recognition criteria for identifiable intangible assets.

When the consideration transferred by the Company in a business combination includes assets or liabilities resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement, the contingent consideration is measured at its acquisition date fair value and included as part of the consideration transferred in a business combination.

When a business combination is achieved in stages, the Company's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date (i.e. the date when the Company obtains control) and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is recognized in profit or loss. Amounts arising from interests in the acquiree prior to the acquisition date that have previously been recognized in income and other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss where such treatment would be appropriate if that interest were disposed of.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, the Company reports provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. Those provisional amounts are adjusted retrospectively during the measurement period or additional assets or liabilities are recognized, to reflect new information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date that, if known, would have affected the amounts recognized at that date.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of cost over the net tangible assets and identifiable intangible assets of acquired businesses. Goodwill is carried at cost reduced by previous impairment losses, if any.

Functional currency

The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries is the US dollar. The Company translates monetary assets and liabilities that are denominated in currencies other than the US dollar at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period; non-monetary assets denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rate prevailing at the transaction date; all revenue and expense items denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rate prevailing at the transaction date. All foreign exchange gains and losses are reported in profit or loss.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized upon the transfer of control of promised goods or services to customer in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to receive for those goods or services:

Revenue from franchise locations

- i) Royalties are based either on a percentage of gross sales as reported by the franchisees or on a fixed monthly fee. They are recognized on an accrual basis in accordance with the substance of the relevant agreement, as they are earned.
- ii) Promotional fund contributions are based on a percentage of gross sales as reported by the franchisees. Corresponding promotional fund transfers are presented directly on the consolidated balance sheets. The Company is not entitled to retain these promotional fund payments received and is obligated to transfer these funds to be used solely for use in promotional and marketing-related costs for specific restaurant banners. The Company sometimes charges a fee for the administration of the promotional funds.

- iii) Initial franchise fees are recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the franchise agreement as the performance obligation relating to franchise rights is fulfilled. Amortization begins once the restaurant has opened.
- iv) Upfront fees related to master license agreements are recognized over the term of the master license agreements on a straight-line basis.
- v) Renewal fees and transfer fees are recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the related franchise agreement.
- vi) The Company earns rent revenue on certain leases it holds; the Company's policy is described below.
- vii) Revenue from equipment sale and retail sales are recognized upon transfer of control, generally upon shipment of the equipment or goods. This revenue is recorded in resale material and retail sales.
- viii) The Company recognizes breakage income proportionately as each gift card is redeemed, based on the historical redemption patterns of the gift cards. The Company also charges various program fees to its franchisees as gift cards are redeemed. Notably, this does not apply to gift card liabilities assumed in a business acquisition, which are accounted for at fair value at acquisition date.
- ix) The Company receives considerations from certain suppliers. Fees are generally earned based on the value of purchases during the period. Agreements that contain an initial upfront fee, in addition to ongoing fees, are recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective agreement. Supplier contributions are recognized as revenue as they are earned and are recorded in franchising revenue.
- x) The Company earns e-commerce fees, which includes point-of-sale ("POS") support fees and transaction fees for purchase made through one of the Company's brands' e-commerce platforms. POS supports fees are received quarterly in advance and are recognized over the period they cover. Transaction fees are recognized when the food items purchased from a store are delivered or picked up by customers.

Revenue from corporate-owned locations

Revenue from corporate-owned locations is recorded when goods are delivered to customers.

Contract cost asset

The Company recognizes incremental costs of obtaining a contract as an asset if they are expected to be recoverable, unless their amortization period would be less than one year, in which case they are expensed as incurred. The costs are amortized to operating expenses over the term of the related franchise agreement.

Leasing

In accordance with ASC 842, the Company determines if an arrangement is or contains a lease at contract inception and recognizes a right-of-use asset and a lease liability at the lease commencement date. Leases with an initial term of 12 months or less but greater than one month are not recorded on the balance sheet for select asset classes.

The lease liability is measured at the present value of future lease payments as of the lease commencement date. The right-of-use asset recognized is based on the lease liability adjusted for prepaid and deferred rent and unamortized lease incentives. An operating lease right-of-use asset is amortized on a straight-line basis over the lease term and is recognized as a single lease cost against the operating lease liability. A finance lease right-of-use asset is amortized on a straight-line basis, with interest costs reported separately, over the lesser of the useful life of the leased asset or lease term.

Operating lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term and is included in Operating expenses. Variable lease payments are expensed as incurred. The Company uses its incremental borrowing rates as the discount rate for its leases, which is equal to the rate of interest the Company would have to pay on a collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms. The lease terms for all the Company's leases include the contractually obligated period of the leases, plus any additional periods covered by Company options to extend the leases that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. Certain leases provide that the lease payments may be increased annually based on the fixed rate terms or adjustable terms such as the Consumer Price Index. Future base rent escalations that are not contractually quantifiable as of the lease commencement date are not included in the lease liability.

Lease expense for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Lease expense is comprised of operating and finance lease costs, short-term lease costs, and variable lease costs, which primarily include common area maintenance, real estate taxes, and insurance for the Company's real estate leases.

The Company enters into leases for franchised and corporately-owned locations, offices, and equipment in the normal course of business.

The Company as lessee

The Company recognizes operating lease liabilities with corresponding operating lease right-of-use assets, except for short-term leases and leases of low value assets, which are expensed on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The Company's leases are all classified as operating leases. The amortization of the operating lease right-of-use asset and interest expense related to the operating lease liability are recorded together as the lease expense to produce a straight-line recognition effect in the consolidated statement of operations. Under ASC 842, operating lease right-of-use assets are tested for impairment in accordance with ASC 360, Property, Plant and Equipment.

The Company as lessor

When the Company enters into a sublease arrangement as an intermediate lessor, the Company accounts for the head lease and the sublease as two separate contracts. All the subleases of the Company are classified as operating subleases by reference to the operating lease right-of-use asset arising from the underlying asset. For operating subleases, the Company recognizes an operating right-of-use asset relating to the head lease and recognizes a deferred rent asset or liability in the sublease. As the intermediate lessor, the Company retains the operating lease liability on the head lease in its consolidated balance sheet. During the term of the sublease, the Company recognizes both lease income on the sublease and lease expense on the head lease.

Income taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes pursuant to ASC 740, Income Taxes ("ASC 740"). Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded for differences between the financial statement and tax basis of the assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted tax laws and rates. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Income tax expense is recorded for the amount of income tax payable or refundable for the period increased or decreased by the change in deferred tax assets and liabilities during the period.

The Company recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more-likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority.

Allowance for doubtful accounts

The Company currently uses the simplified expected credit loss ("ECL") model for its trade receivables, which permits the use of the lifetime expected loss provision for all trade receivables and also incorporates forward-looking information. Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all probable default events over the expected life of a financial instrument.

Assets held for sale

Assets are classified as held for sale when management with the appropriate authority commits to a plan to sell the assets, the assets are available for immediate sale, the assets are actively marketed at a reasonable price, the sale is probable within a year, and certain other criteria met. Assets held for sale consist primarily of Company-owned stores where the Company has committed to a plan to sell specific stores. Assets designated as held for sale are held at the lower of the net book value or fair value less costs to sell. Depreciation is not charged against property, plant and equipment classified as assets held for sale.

Property, plant and equipment

Land and buildings held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes, are stated in the consolidated balance sheet at their historical costs less accumulated depreciation (buildings) and accumulated impairment losses. Cost includes expenditures that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset, including any costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to a working condition for its intended use.

Equipment, leasehold improvements, rolling stock and computer hardware are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

Depreciation is recognized so as to write off the cost or valuation of assets less their residual values over their useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation methods are reviewed at the end of each year, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognized in profit or loss.

Depreciation is based on the following terms:

Buildings	Straight-line	25 to 50 years
Equipment	Straight-line	Three to 10 years
Leasehold improvements	Straight-line	Term of the lease
Rolling stock	Straight-line	Five to seven years
Computer hardware	Straight-line	Three to seven years

Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if applicable. Amortization is recognized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful lives and amortization methods are reviewed at the end of each year, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis. Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if applicable.

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination and recognized separately from goodwill are initially recognized at their fair value at the acquisition date.

Subsequent to initial recognition, intangible assets having a finite life acquired in a business combination are reported at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if applicable, on the same basis as intangible assets that are acquired separately. Intangible assets having an indefinite life are not amortized and are therefore carried at cost reduced by previous impairment losses, if applicable.

Derecognition of intangible assets

An intangible asset is derecognized on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, are recognized in profit or loss when the asset is derecognized.

The Company currently carries the following intangible assets in its books:

Franchise rights

The franchise rights acquired through business combinations are recognized at the fair value of the estimated future cash inflows related to the acquisition of franchises. The franchise rights are generally amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the agreements which typically range between 10 to 20 years.

Trademarks

Trademarks acquired through business combinations are recognized at their fair value at the time of the acquisition and are not amortized. Trademarks are determined to have an indefinite useful life based on their brand recognition and their ability to generate revenue through changing economic conditions with no foreseeable time limit.

Other

Included in other intangible assets are purchased software and liquor licences, which are being amortized over their expected useful life on a straight-line basis.

Impairment of long-lived assets other than goodwill

The Company continually reviews whether events or circumstances subsequent to the acquisition of any long-lived assets, including intangible assets with finite useful lives, have occurred that indicate the remaining estimated useful lives of those assets may warrant revision or that the remaining balance of those assets may not be recoverable. If events and circumstances indicate that the long-lived assets should be reviewed for possible impairment, the Company uses projections to assess whether future cash flows on an undiscounted basis related to the assets exceed the recorded carrying amount of those assets to determine if an asset is impaired. Should an impairment be identified, a loss would be recorded to the extent that the carrying value of the impaired assets exceeds their fair values as determined by valuation techniques appropriate in the circumstances that could include the use of similar cash flow projections on a discounted basis. The reporting units of indefinite intangible assets are individual brands, comprised of franchise rights, trademarks, and perpetual licenses.

Impairment of goodwill

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to the unit or group of units ("reporting unit") that are considered to represent the lowest level within the group at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes. As at November 30, 2023, goodwill is allocated as follows:

	Reporting unit description
Reporting Unit A	A group of units comprised of acquired brands in the US, excluding the Papa Murphy's, BBQ Holdings, Inc. ("BBQ Holdings") and Wetzel's Pretzels brands
Reporting Unit B	One unit comprised of the Papa Murphy's brand
Reporting Unit C	A group of units comprised of the BBQ Holdings brands
Reporting Unit D	One unit comprised of the Wetzel's Pretzels brand

Goodwill is tested for impairment on an annual basis (August 31 for the Company) and between annual tests if an event occurs or circumstances change that would more likely than not reduce the fair value of a reporting unit below its carrying value. Fair value is determined using a discounted cash flow methodology with a risk adjusted weighted average cost of capital.

Cash and restricted cash

Cash and restricted cash include cash on hand and short-term investments, if any, with maturities upon acquisition of generally three months or less or that are redeemable at any time at full value and for which the risk of a change in value is not significant. As at November 30, 2023, cash and restricted cash included $271 of restricted cash (2022 – $504) that is required as part of guarantees on certain lease commitments.

Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and market value. Costs of inventories are determined on a first-in-first-out basis and include acquisition costs and other costs incurred to bring inventories to their present location and condition.

Market value represents the current replacement cost, provided that the cost does not exceed the net realizable value or is not less than the net realizable value reduced by a normal profit margin.

Contingencies

Litigation, disputes and closed stores

Provisions for the expected cost of litigation, disputes and the cost of settling leases for closed stores, with the exception of operating lease liabilities already recorded pursuant to ASC 842, are recognized when it becomes probable the Company will be required to settle the obligation, at management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the Company's obligation.

Contingent liabilities acquired in a business combination

Contingent liabilities acquired in a business combination are initially measured at fair value at the acquisition date. At the end of subsequent reporting periods, such contingent liabilities are measured at the higher of the amount that would be recognized, and the amount initially recognized less cumulative amortization recognized, if any.

Financial instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, restricted cash, accounts receivable, loans receivable, receivable from company under common control, receivable from ultimate parent, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, promotional funds payable, advance from parent company, advances from companies under common control, long-term loan from company under common control and holdbacks payable. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments. The fair values for cash, restricted cash, accounts receivable, loans receivable, receivable from company under common control, receivable from ultimate parent, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, promotional funds payable, advance from parent company and advances from companies under common control approximate their carrying values due to their immediate or short-term maturities, unless otherwise noted. The long-term loan from company under common control, advances from ultimate parent and holdbacks payable are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

Promotional funds

Pursuant to the franchise agreements, franchisees must pay a fee to the promotional funds. These amounts are collected by the Company in its capacity as agent and must be used for promotional and advertising purposes, since the amounts are set aside to promote the respective banners for the franchisees' benefit. The promotional funds collected, and the related expenditures are reported on a gross basis in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income. To the extent that promotional funds received exceed the related promotional expenditures, the excess contributions will be recorded in accounts payable or accrued liabilities.

Cash held pursuant to the promotional funds received are classified as unrestricted cash as there are no legal restrictions on the use of these funds; however, the Company intends to use these funds solely to support the promotional funds rather than to fund its ongoing operations. As at November 30, 2023, promotional funds were in a net liability position amounting to $11,357 (2022 – net liability position of $13,278).

Subsequent events

Subsequent events were evaluated through the date that the consolidated financial statements were issued, which was February 2, 2024.

Estimates and assumptions

Business combinations

For business combinations, the Company must make assumptions and estimates to determine the purchase price accounting of the business being acquired. To do so, the Company must determine the acquisition date fair value of the identifiable assets acquired, including such intangible assets as franchise rights and master franchise rights, trademarks, step-in rights and liabilities assumed. Among other things, the determination of these fair market values involves the use of discounted cash flow analyses and future system sales growth. Goodwill is measured as the excess of the fair value of the consideration transferred including the recognized amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree over the net recognized amount of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed, all measured at the acquisition date. These assumptions and estimates have an impact on the asset and liability amounts recorded in the consolidated balance sheets on the acquisition date. In addition, the estimated useful lives of the acquired amortizable assets, the identification of intangible assets and the determination of the indefinite or finite useful lives of intangible assets acquired will have an impact on the Company's future profit or loss.

Goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets

The fair value calculation includes estimates of revenue growth, which are based on past performance and internal projections for the intangible asset group's forecasted growth, and royalty rates, which are adjusted for our particular facts and circumstances. The discount rate is selected based on the estimated cost of capital that reflects the risk profile of the related business. These estimates are highly subjective, the ability to achieve the forecasted cash flows used in our fair value calculations is affected by factors such as the success of strategic initiatives, changes in economic conditions, changes in our operating performance and changes in our business strategies.

Contingencies

The Company makes assumptions and estimations based on its current knowledge of future disbursements it will have to make in connection with various events that have occurred in the past and for which the amount to be disbursed and the timing of such disbursement are uncertain at the date of producing its financial statements. This includes contingencies for onerous contracts, litigations and disputes and other contingencies.

Gift card liabilities

Management is required to make certain assumptions in both the prorated recognition based on redemption pattern and remoteness recognition of gift card breakage. The significant estimates are breakage rate and the redemption patterns.

10. Impairment

The Company performed its annual impairment test as at August 31, 2023, resulting in the recognition of $4,063 (2022 – $5,643) of impairment losses on its intangible assets for four of its brands (2022 – three brands), following indicators of impairment that were noted.

Additionally, the Company recorded $169 of impairment losses on its property, plant and equipment (2022 – $338), and did not record any impairment on goodwill (2022 – nil), for a total of $4,232 (2022 – $5,981) of impairment charges on its property, plant and equipment and intangible assets for the year ended November 30, 2023, which have been recognized in the consolidated statement of operations.

Impairment charges were based on the amount by which the carrying values of the assets exceeded recoverable amounts, determined using expected discounted projected operating cash flows for trademarks and franchise rights.

Impairment by reporting unit for the year ended November 30, 2023:

	Intangible assets			Total
	Property, plant and equipment	Franchise rights	Trademarks
	$	$	$	$

10. Impairment (continued)

Impairment by reporting unit for the year ended November 30, 2022:

	Property, plant and equipment	Intangible assets		Total
		Franchise rights	Trademarks
	$	$	$	$
Reporting Unit A	79	1,776	3,867	5,722
Reporting Unit B	259	—	—	259
Reporting Unit C	—	—	—	—
	338	1,776	3,867	5,981

The key assumptions used, where the recoverable amount was measured as a reporting unit's fair value, are those related to projected operating cash flows, as well as the discount rates. The sales forecasts for cash flows were based on the subsequent fiscal year's budgeted operating results, which were prepared by management and approved by the Board, and internal forecasts for subsequent years, which were prepared by management and developed from the budgeted operating results.

10. Impairment (continued)

The following table presents the key assumptions used in the Company's impairment tests, as well as the recoverable amounts measured at fair value as at August 31, 2023 and 2022:

($, except percentage data)	2023				2022
	Reporting Unit A	Reporting Unit B	Reporting Unit C	Reporting Unit D	Reporting Unit A	Reporting Unit B
Discount rates after tax	10.5%	10.5%	10.5%	10.5%	10.3%	10.3%
Discount rates pre-tax	13.4%	13.8%	13.7%	13.6%	13.1%	13.2%
Recoverable amounts	539,407	266,604	313,644	270,246	515,478	250,715

Long-term growth rates ranging from 0% to 2% (2022 – 0% to 2%) were used in the impairment test for Reporting Unit A. A change of 100 basis points in discount rates in Reporting Unit A would result in additional impairment charges on intangible assets of three brands (2022 – four brands) representing 0.7% (2022 – 0.5%) of the total carrying value of the franchise rights and trademarks in that unit. A change of 100 basis points in discount rates in Reporting Unit A would not result in additional impairment charges on goodwill for the years ended November 30, 2023 and 2022. For Reporting Unit A, an increase of 440 basis points (2022 – 320 basis points) in the discount rate would have resulted in its recoverable amount being equal to its carrying value.

A long-term growth rate of 1.5% (2022 – 1.5%) was used in the impairment test for Reporting Unit B. A change of 100 basis points in discount rates in Reporting Unit B would not result in additional impairment charges on intangible assets or goodwill for the years ended November 30, 2023 and 2022. For Reporting Unit B, an increase of 200 basis points (2022 – 110 basis points) in the discount rate would have resulted in its recoverable amount being equal to its carrying value.

Long-term growth rates of 2.0% were used in the impairment test for Reporting Unit C. A change of 100 basis points in discount rates in Reporting Unit C would not result in additional impairment charges on intangible assets or goodwill for the years ended November 30, 2023. For Reporting Unit C, an increase of 200 basis points in the discount rate would have resulted in its recoverable amount being equal to its carrying value. For the year ended November 30, 2022, the impairment test of Reporting Unit C was performed as at November 30, 2022 and was based on qualitative factors, which did not give rise to any indications of impairment.

A long-term growth rate of 2.0% was used in the impairment test for Reporting Unit D. A change of 100 basis points in discount rates in Reporting Unit D would not result in additional impairment charges on intangible assets or goodwill for the year ended November 30, 2023. For Reporting Unit D, an increase of 160 basis points in the discount rate would have resulted in its recoverable amount being equal to its carrying value.

11. Gift card liability

The changes in the carrying amount of the gift card liability are as follows:

	2023	2022
Gift card liability, beginning of year	91,453	76,097

Deferred revenues consist mostly of initial, transfer and renewal franchise fees paid by franchisees, as well as upfront fees paid by master franchisees, which are generally recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the related agreement. Deferred revenues also include amounts paid in upfront fees received from agreements with suppliers, which are amortized over the term of the related agreement.

$8,055 (2022 – $7,598) of revenue recognized in the current year was included in the deferred revenue balance at the beginning of the year.

The following table provides estimated revenues expected to be recognized in future years related to performance obligations that are unsatisfied as at November 30, 2023:

Estimate for fiscal year:	$

13. Receivables and advances from ultimate parent, parent company and companies under common control

The receivable from ultimate parent is primarily comprised of a renewable one-year term loan facility of $148,670 (2022 – $126,128). The term loan is unsecured and bears interest at the rate set at the Applicable Federal Rates as issued by the US Internal Revenue Service for short-term instruments. The term loan may be repaid, in whole or in part, at any time, without premium or penalty. MTY USA may also request repayment, in whole or in part, at any time, without penalty.

The advance from ultimate parent was repaid in conjunction with the issuance of another loan that makes up a portion of the interest bearing loans totaling $405,833 seen in note 14 (2022 – $198,785). Those loans are due December 8, 2029, are unsecured and bear interest at 9.26%. The term loans may be repaid, in whole or in part, at any time, without premium or penalty.

The receivable from company under common control and advances from parent company and companies under common control are non-interest bearing and receivable/due on demand with no specified collection/repayment terms.

16. Contingencies

The contingencies for litigation and disputes represent management's best estimate of the outcome of litigations and disputes that are ongoing at the date of the consolidated balance sheet. These contingencies consist of multiple items, a large part of which are insurance claims, including worker's compensation claims, at the Company's corporately owned locations. The timing of the settlement of these contingencies is unknown given their nature, as the Company does not control the litigation timelines.

18. Financial instruments

In the normal course of business, the Company uses various financial instruments which by their nature involve risk, including market risk and the credit risk of non-performance by counterparties. These financial instruments are subject to normal credit standards, financial controls, risk management as well as monitoring procedures.

Fair value of recognized financial instruments

The Company has determined that the fair value of its financial assets and financial liabilities with short-term maturities approximates their carrying value. These financial instruments include cash, restricted cash, accrued liabilities, promotional funds payable, and advances from parent company and from companies under common control.

The table below shows the fair value and the carrying value of other financial instruments as at November 30, 2023 and 2022. Since estimates are used to determine fair value, they must not be interpreted as being realizable in the event of a settlement of the instruments.

	2023		2022
	Carrying amount	Fair value	Carrying amount	Fair value
	$	$	$	$
Financial assets
Loans receivable	423	423	1,004	1,004

Determination of fair value

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values of each class of financial instrument:

Cash, restricted cash, accounts receivable, receivable from ultimate parent, deposits, accounts payable, holdback payable, accrued liabilities, advance from parent company, advances from companies under common control – The carrying amounts approximate fair values due to the short maturity of these financial instruments.

Risk management policies

The Company, through its financial assets and financial liabilities, is exposed to various risks. The following analysis provides a measurement of risks as at November 30, 2023.

Credit risk

The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its trade receivables, loans receivable and deposits. For accounts receivable and loans receivable, the amounts disclosed on the consolidated balance sheets are net of allowances for bad debts, estimated by the Company's management based on past experience and counterparty specific circumstances. The Company believes that the credit risk of accounts receivable is limited for the following reasons:

- The Company's broad client base is spread mostly across the US, which limits the concentration of credit risk.
- The Company accounts for specific bad debt provisions when management considers that the expected recovery is less than the actual account receivable.

The credit risk on cash is limited because the Company invests its excess liquidity in high-quality financial instruments and with credit-worthy counterparties.

The credit risk on deposits is also limited as these are mostly with well-established and credit-worthy companies.

Interest rate risk

The Company has limited exposure to interest rate risk as its long-term loans from company under common control and ultimate parent as well as its long-term debt have fixed interest rates

ADDENDUM TO VI BRANDCO, LLC
DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
FOR THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

Section 445.1508(1) of the Michigan Franchise Investment Law requires franchisor to give you a copy of the Franchise Disclosure Document earlier of: (i) 10 business days prior to signing the Agreement; or (ii) 10 business days prior to franchisor's receipt of any consideration.

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

(A) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.

(B) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a Franchise Agreement, from settling any and all claims.

(C) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a Franchise Agreement prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the Franchise Agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.

(D) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a Franchise Agreement without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration, of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchised business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the Franchise Agreement is less than five (5) years; and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the Franchise Agreement or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the Franchise Agreement or the franchisee does not receive at least six (6) months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the Franchise Agreement.

(E) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a Franchise Agreement on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.

(F) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.

(G) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

- (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
- (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.
- (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.
- (iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the Franchise Agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(H) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the Franchise Agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(I) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

(J) No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

MINNESOTA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

To the extent the Minnesota Franchise Act, Minn. Stat. §§80C.01 – 80C.22 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

State Cover Page and Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 and Minn. Rule 2860.4400J prohibit us from requiring litigation to be conducted outside of Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Disclosure Document shall abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

Franchisee cannot consent to the franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. The franchisor may seek injunctive relief. A court will determine if a bond is required.

Item 6, Additional Disclosure:

NSF checks are governed by Minn. Stat. 604.113, which puts a cap of $30 on service charges.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Item 13, Additional Disclosures:

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that a franchisor indemnify Minnesota Franchisees against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee's use of the franchisor's trademark infringes upon the trademark rights of the third party. The franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee's use of a franchisor's trademark except in accordance with the requirements of the franchise agreement, and as the condition to an indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to the franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to the franchisor. If the franchisor accepts tender of defense, the franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Any condition, stipulation or provision, including any choice of law provision, purporting to bind any person who, at the time of acquiring a franchise is a resident of the State of Minnesota or in the case of a partnership or corporation, organized or incorporated under the laws of the State of Minnesota, or purporting to bind a person acquiring any franchise to be operated in the State of Minnesota to waive compliance or which has the effect of waiving compliance with any provision of the Minnesota Franchise Law is void.

We will comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subds. 3, 4 and 5, which requires, except in certain specified cases, that a franchisee be given 90 days notice of termination (with 60 days to cure), 180 days notice for nonrenewal of the Franchise Agreement, and that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

Minnesota Rule 2860.4400D prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§80C.01 – 80C.22.

The limitations of claims section must comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.17, subd. 5.

NORTH DAKOTA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

Any provision requiring franchisees to consent to the jurisdiction of courts outside North Dakota or to consent to the application of laws of a state other than North Dakota may be unenforceable under North Dakota law. Any mediation or arbitration will be held at a site agreeable to all parties. If the laws of a state other than North Dakota govern, to the extent that such law conflicts with North Dakota law, North Dakota law will control.

Any general release the franchisee is required to assent to as a condition of renewal is not intended to nor shall it act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability franchisor may have incurred under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

Covenants not to compete during the term of and upon termination or expiration of the franchise agreement are enforceable only under certain conditions according to North Dakota law. If the Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete that is inconsistent with North Dakota law, the covenant may be unenforceable.

The Franchise Agreement includes a waiver of exemplary and punitive damages. This waiver may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

The Franchise Agreement stipulates that the franchisee shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by franchisor in enforcing the agreement. For North Dakota franchisees, the prevailing party is entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees.

The Franchise Agreement requires the franchisee to consent to a waiver of trial by jury. This waiver may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

The Franchise Disclosure Document and Franchise Agreement state that franchisee must consent to the jurisdiction of courts outside that State of North Dakota. That requirement may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

The Franchise Disclosure Document and Franchise Agreement may require franchisees to consent to termination or liquidated damages. This requirement may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

The Franchise Agreement requires the franchisee to consent to a limitation of claims within one year. To the extent this requirement conflicts with North Dakota law, North Dakota law will apply.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
