Franchisee is not entitled to the same variation or waiver.

11.8 Temporary Public Safety Closure. If Paramount Franchising discovers or becomes aware of any aspect of the Business which, in Paramount Franchising's opinion, constitutes an imminent danger to the health or safety of any person, then immediately upon Paramount Franchising's order, Franchisee must temporarily cease operations of the Business and remedy the dangerous condition. Paramount Franchising shall have no liability to Franchisee or any other person for action or failure to act with respect to a dangerous condition.

11.9 Interim Management. Paramount Franchising has the right, based on Franchisee's death, incapacity, defaults or poor performance to step in to manage Franchisee's Business for a period of time, as Paramount Franchising deems advisable for a fee (currently, $600 per day), plus the cost of travel, food, and lodging during this time. Franchisee shall continue to pay and remain responsible for all royalties, and other fees required by this Agreement. All accounts must remain in Franchisee's name during the interim management period, but Franchisee shall add Paramount Franchising and its representative as a co-signer on certain accounts. Franchisee shall cooperate in communicating with all vendors and suppliers related to the interim management.

ARTICLE 12. INFRINGEMENT OF MARKS

12.1 Infringement.

(a) Defense of Franchisee. If Franchisee has used the Marks in accordance with this Agreement, then (i) Paramount Franchising shall defend Franchisee (at Paramount Franchising's expense) against any Action by a third party alleging infringement by Franchisee's use of a Mark, and (ii) Paramount Franchising shall indemnify Franchisee for expenses and damages if the Action is resolved unfavorably to Franchisee.

(b) Infringement By Third Party. Franchisee shall promptly notify Paramount Franchising if Franchisee becomes aware of any possible infringement of a Mark by a third party. Paramount Franchising may, in its sole discretion, commence or join any claim against the infringing party.

(c) Control. Paramount Franchising shall have the exclusive right to control any prosecution or defense of any Action related to possible infringement of or by the Marks.

ARTICLE 13. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

13.1 Confidential Information. During the term of this Agreement and any extensions or successor Franchises hereof, and at any time after the termination of this Agreement, Franchisee and those over whom it has control shall not make any unauthorized disclosure or use of Paramount Franchising's Confidential Information or Intellectual Property other than as authorized by this Agreement. Franchisee shall adopt and implement all reasonable procedures to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information and Intellectual Property, which procedures may be prescribed from time to time by Paramount Franchising. Franchisee shall never contest the validity of Paramount Franchising's exclusive ownership of and rights to its Intellectual Property or Confidential Information.

13.2 Covenants Not to Compete; Non-Solicitation.

(a) Restriction – In Term. During the term of this Agreement and for any extensions hereof, Franchisee, its principals, principal executives, managers, and or Immediate Family (collectively and individually a "Restricted Party") shall not, directly or indirectly, be a Participant, assist, or serve in any other capacity whatsoever or have any interest in a Competing Business in any capacity, territory, or location, except with Paramount Franchising's prior written consent. Franchisee's owners owning 10% or more must each execute the then-current form of the Guaranty and Non-compete Agreement in the form of the attached Schedule 3 to this Agreement.

(b) Restriction – Post Term. For two years after this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer), no Restricted Party shall directly or indirectly be a Participant, assist, or serve in any other capacity whatsoever or Competing Business within the Territory or within 25 miles of Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of the territory of any other Paramount business operating on the date of termination, expiration or transfer, as applicable.

(c) Interpretation. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Section is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by any court, then parties intend that the court modify such restriction to extent reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Paramount Franchising. Franchisee agrees that the existence of any claim it may have against Paramount Franchising will not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Paramount Franchising of the covenants of this Section. If a Restricted Party fails to comply with the obligations under this Section during the restrictive period, then the restrictive period will be extended for each day of noncompliance.

13.3 General Manager and Key Employees. Franchisee will cause its general manager and other key employees to sign Paramount Franchising's then-current form employee brand protection agreement. A copy of the current employee brand protection agreement is attached as Attachment 6 to this Agreement. A copy of all such agreements must be promptly delivered to Paramount Franchising within 10 days of hiring of the respective employee.

13.4 Non-Contravention; Non-Disparagement. Franchisee shall not undertake any action or inaction to circumvent, contravene, or undermine the purposes of this Agreement. Additionally, during and after the term of this Agreement, Franchisee shall not, in any way, form, or medium, make any negative, disparaging, false or misleading statements, published or made orally, in any medium about Paramount Franchising, the brand, the System, its products and services, or the officers, owners, partners, directors, members, managers, representatives, agents, employees or other franchisees of Paramount Franchising.

13.5 Non-Solicitation of Clients. During the term of this Agreement and for three years after this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason, Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly contact any then-current or former client of Franchisee, or of another franchisee, or Franchisor, or affiliate of Paramount Franchising for the purpose of soliciting from any such client any business that is the same as or substantially similar to services performed by a Paramount Tax & Accounting business, including to another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

ARTICLE 14. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

14.1 Termination by Franchisee. Franchisee may terminate this Agreement only if Paramount Franchising violates a material provision of this Agreement and fails to cure or to make substantial progress toward curing the violation within 60 days after receiving written notice from Franchisee detailing the alleged default. Termination by Franchisee is effective 10 days after Paramount Franchising receives written notice of Termination.

14.2 Termination by Paramount Franchising.

(a) Subject to 10-Day Cure Period. Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement if Franchisee does not make any payment to Paramount Franchising when due, or if Franchisee does not have sufficient funds in its account when Paramount Franchising attempts an electronic funds withdrawal, and Franchisee fails to cure such non-payment within 10 days after Paramount Franchising gives notice to Franchisee of such breach.

(b) Subject to 30-Day Cure Period. If Franchisee breaches this Agreement in any manner other than described in subsection (a) or (c) and fails to cure such breach to Paramount Franchising's satisfaction within 30 days after Paramount Franchising gives notice to Franchisee of such breach, then Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement.

(c) No-Cure Period. Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee misrepresented or omitted material facts when applying to be a franchisee, or breaches any representation in this Agreement;
- (ii) Franchisee intentionally submits any false report or intentionally provides any other false information to Paramount Franchising;
- (iii) a receiver or trustee for the Business or all (or substantially all) of Franchisee's property is appointed by any court, or Franchisee makes a general assignment for the benefit of Franchisee's creditors or Franchisee makes a written statement to the effect that Franchisee is unable to pay its debts as they become due, or a levy or execution is made against the Business, or an attachment or lien remains on the Business for 30 days unless the attachment or lien is being duly contested in good faith by Franchisee, or a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Franchisee, or such a petition is filed against or consented to by Franchisee and the petition is not dismissed within 45 days, or Franchisee is adjudicated as bankrupt;
- (iv) Franchisee fails to open for business by the date specified on the Summary Page;
- (v) Franchisee loses possession of the Location;
- (vi) Franchisee or any Owner commits a material violation of Section 7.2 (compliance with laws) or Section 13.1 (confidentiality), violates Section 13.2 (non-compete) or Article 15 (transfer), or commits any other violation of this Agreement which by its nature cannot be cured;
- (vii) Franchisee abandons or ceases operation of the Business for more than five consecutive days without the prior written authorization of Paramount Franchising;
- (viii) Franchisee or any Owner slanders or libels Paramount Franchising or any of its employees, directors, or officers;
- (ix) Franchisee refuses to cooperate with or permit any audit or inspection by Paramount Franchising or its agents or contractors, or otherwise fails to comply with Section 10.5 or Section 11.2;
- (x) the Business is operated in a manner which, in Paramount Franchising's reasonable judgment, constitutes a significant danger to the health or safety of any person, and Franchisee fails to cure such danger within 48 hours after becoming aware of the danger (due to notice from Paramount Franchising or otherwise);
- (xi) Franchisee has received two or more notices of default and Franchisee commits another breach of this Agreement, all in the same 12-month period;

- (xii) Paramount Franchising (or any affiliate) terminates any other agreement with Franchisee (or any affiliate) due to the breach of such other agreement by Franchisee (or its affiliate); or
- (xiii) Franchisee or any Owner is charged with, pleads guilty to, or is convicted of a felony, or is accused by any governmental authority or third party of any act that in Paramount Franchising's opinion is reasonably likely to materially and unfavorably affect Paramount Franchising's brand.

14.3 Effect of Termination. Upon Termination of this Agreement, all obligations that by their terms or by reasonable implication survive Termination, Including those pertaining to non-competition, confidentiality, and indemnity, will remain in effect, and Franchisee must immediately:

- (i) Pay all amounts owed to Paramount Franchising based on the operation of the Business through the effective date of Termination;
- (ii) Return to Paramount Franchising all copies of the Manual, Confidential Information and any and all other materials provided by Paramount Franchising to Franchisee or created by a third party for Franchisee relating to the operation of the Business, and all items containing any Marks, copyrights, and other proprietary items;
- (iii) Notify the telephone, Internet, email, electronic network, Social Media, directory, and listing entities of the Termination of Franchisee's right to use any numbers, addresses, domain names, locators, Social Media accounts, directories and listings associated with any of the Marks, and authorize their transfer to Paramount Franchising or any new franchisee as may be directed by Paramount Franchising, and Franchisee hereby irrevocably appoints Paramount Franchising, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact, which appointment is coupled with an interest. Franchisee shall execute the Digital and Social Media Authorization for Assignment in the form of Attachment 4 attached hereto and such other directions and authorizations as may be necessary or appropriate to accomplish the foregoing; and
- (iv) Cease doing business under any of the Marks and forward all client information to Paramount Franchising.

14.4 Remove Identification. Within 30 days after Termination, Franchisee shall at its own expense "de-identify" the Location so that it no longer contains the Marks, signage, or any trade dress of a Paramount business, to the reasonable satisfaction of Paramount Franchising. This Includes Franchisee's removal of signs, destruction or removal of letterheads, Marketing material, the change of Business telephone listings, telephone numbers, email addresses, URLs, Internet websites, and any other property that bears Paramount Tax & Accounting brand or is affiliated with the brand. Franchisee must not identify any present or future business owned or operated by Franchisee as having been in any way associated with Paramount Franchising or the System. Franchisee shall comply with any reasonable instructions and procedures of Paramount Franchising for de-identification. If Franchisee fails to do so within 30 days after this Agreement is Terminated, Paramount Franchising may enter the Location to remove the Marks and de-identify the Location. In this event, Paramount Franchising will not be charged with trespass nor be accountable or required to pay for any assets removed or altered, or for any damage caused by Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for all its costs and expenses to remove the Marks and de-identify the Location.

14.5 Other Claims. Termination of this Agreement by Paramount Franchising will not affect or discharge any claims, rights, causes of action or remedies (Including claims for Paramount Franchising's lost future income after Termination), which Paramount Franchising may have against Franchisee, whether arising before or after Termination.

14.6 Purchase Option. When this Agreement is Terminated, Paramount Franchising will have the right (but not the obligation) to purchase any or all of the assets related to the Business, Including computer equipment, server (physical and/or cloud-based), office furniture, etc., at fair market value, and/or to require Franchisee to assign its lease or sublease to Paramount Franchising. To exercise this option, Paramount Franchising must notify Franchisee no later than 30 days after this Agreement is Terminated. If the parties cannot agree on fair market value within 30 days after the exercise notice, the fair market value will be determined by an independent appraiser reasonably acceptable to both parties. The parties will equally share the cost of the appraisal. Paramount Franchising has the right to cover the entire cost of the appraisal and deduct Franchisee's share from the purchase price or include with other amounts due to Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising's purchase will be of assets only (free and clear of all liens) and will not include any liabilities of Franchisee. If Paramount Franchising exercises the purchase option, Paramount Franchising may deduct from the purchase price: (a) all amounts due from Franchisee; (b) Franchisee's portion of the cost of any appraisal conducted hereunder; and (c) amounts paid or to be paid by Paramount Franchising to cure defaults under Franchisee's lease and/or amounts owed by Franchisee to third parties. If any of the assets are subject to liens, Paramount Franchising may withhold a portion of purchase price directly to the lienholder to pay off such lien. Paramount Franchising may also withhold 25% of the purchase price for 90 days to ensure that all of Franchisee's taxes and other liabilities are paid. Paramount Franchising may assign this purchase option to another party.

ARTICLE 15. TRANSFERS

15.1 By Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may transfer or assign this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, to any person or entity, and Paramount Franchising may undergo a change in ownership and/or control, without the consent of Franchisee.

15.2 By Franchisee. Franchisee acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Franchisee and that Paramount Franchising entered into this Agreement in reliance on Franchisee's business skill, financial capacity, personal character, experience and business ability. Accordingly, Franchisee shall not conduct or undergo a Transfer without providing Paramount Franchising at least 60 days' prior written notice of the proposed Transfer, and without obtaining Paramount Franchising's prior written consent. In granting any such consent, Paramount Franchising may impose conditions, Including the following:

- (i) Paramount Franchising receives a transfer fee equal to 50% of the then-current initial franchise fee for new franchisees. Franchisee only needs to reimburse Paramount Franchising's legal fees if Franchisee Transfers less than 25% ownership in Franchisee, and Franchisee's current owners maintain control. However, all guarantors will remain guarantors unless otherwise released by Paramount Franchising;
- (ii) the proposed assignee and its owners have completed Paramount Franchising's franchise application processes, meet Paramount Franchising's then-applicable standards for new franchisees, and have been approved by Paramount Franchising as franchisees;
- (iii) the proposed assignee is not a Competing Business;

- (iv) the proposed assignee executes Paramount Franchising's then-current form of franchise agreement; which form may contain materially different provisions from the Agreement;
- (v) Franchisee has paid all monetary obligations to Paramount Franchising in full, and Franchisee is not otherwise in default of this Agreement;
- (vi) the proposed assignee and its owners and employees undergo such training as Paramount Franchising may require and Franchisee assists in covering the Business during such training if necessary;
- (vii) Franchisee, its Owners, and the transferee and its owners execute a general release of Paramount Franchising in a form satisfactory to Paramount Franchising; and
- (viii) the Business fully complies with all of Paramount Franchising's most recent System Standards, Including upgrading and Remodel requirements.

15.3 Transfer for Convenience of Ownership. If Franchisee is an individual, Franchisee may Transfer this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company formed for the convenience of ownership after at least 15 days' prior written notice to Paramount Franchising, if, prior to the Transfer: (1) the transferee provides the information required by Section 2.3; (2) Franchisee provides copies the entity's charter documents, by-laws (or operating agreement) and similar documents, if requested by Paramount Franchising, (3) Franchisee owns all voting securities of the corporation or limited liability company, and (4) Franchisee provides a guaranty in accordance with Section 2.5.

15.4 Transfer upon Death or Incapacity. Upon the death or incapacity of Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is an entity, the person with the largest ownership interest in Franchisee), the executor, administrator, or personal representative of that person must Transfer the Business to a third party approved by Paramount Franchising within nine months after death or incapacity. Such Transfer must comply with Section 15.2.

15.5 Paramount Franchising's Right of First Refusal. Before Franchisee (or any owner) engages in a Transfer (except under Section 15.3 or Section 15.4), Paramount Franchising will have a right of first refusal, as set forth in this Section. Franchisee (or its owners) shall provide to Paramount Franchising a copy of the terms and conditions of any Transfer. For a period of 30 days from the date of Paramount Franchising's receipt of such copy, Paramount Franchising will have the right, exercisable by notice to Franchisee, to purchase the Business or the assets subject of the proposed Transfer for the same price and on the same terms and conditions (except that Paramount Franchising may substitute cash for any other form of payment). If Paramount Franchising does not exercise its right of first refusal, Franchisee may proceed with the proposed Transfer, subject to the other terms and conditions of this Article. However, if there are any material changes in the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer and any of those changes are less favorable to Franchisee, Franchisee shall notify Paramount Franchising of the changes in writing, and Paramount Franchising will have an additional 10 days within which to elect to purchase the assets proposed to be Transferred on the revised terms and conditions. If the proposed Transfer is not completed for any reason after Paramount Franchising elects not to purchase the assets being Transferred, a new right of first refusal commences as to any subsequent proposed Transfer by Franchisee.

15.6 No Sublicense. Franchisee has no right to sublicense the Marks or any of Franchisee's rights under this Agreement.

15.7 No Lien on Agreement. Franchisee shall not grant a security interest in this Agreement to any person or entity. If Franchisee grants an "all assets" security interest to any lender or other secured party, Franchisee shall cause the secured party to expressly exempt this Agreement from the security interest.

ARTICLE 16. INDEMNITY

16.1 Indemnity. Franchisee shall indemnify and defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Paramount Franchising) Paramount Franchising, its parent entities, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assignees (collectively, “Indemnitees”) against all Losses in any Action by or against Paramount Franchising and/or any Indemnatee directly or indirectly related to, or alleged to arise out of, the operation of the Business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee shall not be obligated to indemnify an Indemnatee from claims arising as a result of any Indemnatee’s misconduct or negligence. Franchisee agrees not to file any crossclaim or counterclaim against Paramount Franchising for any action made by a third-party or make any response that would infer or represent Paramount Franchising is liable as a party or defendant to any action that is contrary to this Section. This Agreement and the terms in this Section and related terms in this Agreement is a bona fide defense to any claim Franchisee may contradictorily make against Paramount Franchising as to Paramount Franchising’s liability or proportion of fault. Franchisee shall bear all costs to defend Paramount Franchising from claims raised by a third party. If Paramount Franchising incurs any costs or liabilities to any third party, Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for costs associated with Paramount Franchising’s defense to those claims. This indemnity will continue in effect after this Agreement ends.

16.2 Assumption by Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may elect to assume the defense and/or settlement of any Action subject to this indemnification, at Franchisee’s expense. Such an undertaking will not diminish Franchisee’s obligation to indemnify the Indemnitees.

ARTICLE 17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Arbitration.

(a) Disputes Subject to Arbitration. Except as expressly provided in subsection (c), any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, will be resolved by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, Including the Optional Rules for Emergency Measures of Protection. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

(b) Location. The place of arbitration will be held in Salt Lake County, Utah or the county and state where Paramount Franchising’s then-current headquarters are located.

(c) Injunctive Relief. Either party may apply to the arbitrator seeking injunctive relief until the arbitration award is rendered or the controversy is otherwise resolved. Either party also may, without waiving any remedy or right to arbitrate under this Agreement, seek from any court having jurisdiction any interim or provisional injunctive relief.

(d) Confidentiality. All documents, information, and results pertaining to any arbitration or lawsuit will be confidential, except as required by law or as required for Paramount Franchising to comply with laws and regulations applicable to the sale of franchises.

(e) Performance During Arbitration or Litigation. Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall comply with this Agreement and perform their respective obligations under this Agreement during the arbitration or litigation process.

17.2 Damages. In any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each party waives any right to punitive or other monetary damages not measured by the prevailing party’s actual damages, except damages authorized by federal statute. In the event of Termination of this Agreement prior

the expiration of the term, Paramount Franchising's actual damages will include its lost future income from Royalty Fees and other amounts that Franchisee would have owed to Paramount Franchising but for the Termination.

17.3 Waiver of Class Actions. The parties agree that any claims will be arbitrated, litigated, or otherwise resolved on an individual basis, and waive any right to act on a class-wide basis.

17.4 Time Limitation. Any arbitration or other legal action arising from or related to this Agreement must be instituted within two years from the date such party discovers the conduct or event that forms the basis of the arbitration or other legal action. The foregoing time limit does not apply to claims (i) by one party related to non-payment under this Agreement by the other party, (ii) for indemnity under Article 16, or (iii) related to unauthorized use of Confidential Information or the Marks.

17.5 Venue Other Than Arbitration. For any legal proceeding not required to be submitted to arbitration, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the United States District Court of Salt Lake County, Utah or where Paramount Franchising's then-current headquarters is located. If there is no federal jurisdiction over the dispute, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the court of record of the state and county where Paramount Franchising's headquarters is then located. Each party consents to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection that it, he or she may have to the laying of venue of any proceeding in any of these courts.

17.6 Legal Costs. In any legal proceeding (including arbitration) related to this Agreement or any guaranty, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's attorney fees, costs and other expenses of the legal proceeding. "Prevailing party" means the party, if any, which prevailed upon the central litigated issues and obtained substantial relief.

ARTICLE 18. MISCELLANEOUS

18.1 Relationship of the Parties. The parties are independent contractors, and neither is the agent, partner, joint venturer, or employee of the other. Paramount Franchising is not a fiduciary of Franchisee and does not control Franchisee or its Business. Paramount Franchising has no liability for Franchisee's obligations to any third party whatsoever.

18.2 No Third-party Beneficiaries. This Agreement does not confer any rights or remedies upon any person or entity other than Franchisee, Paramount Franchising, and Paramount Franchising's affiliates.

18.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties related to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior negotiations and representations whether oral or in writing. Nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made by Paramount Franchising in its franchise disclosure document.

18.4 Modification. No modification or amendment of this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both parties. This provision does not limit Paramount Franchising's rights to modify the Manual or System Standards.

18.5 Consent; Waiver. No consent under this Agreement, and no waiver of satisfaction of a condition or nonperformance of an obligation under this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the party granting the consent or waiver. No waiver by a party of any right will affect the party's rights as to any subsequent exercise of that right or any other right. No delay, forbearance or omission by a party to exercise any right will constitute a waiver of such right.

18.6 Cumulative Remedies. Rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative. No enforcement of a right or remedy precludes the enforcement of any other right or remedy.

18.7 Severability. The parties intend that (i) if any provision of this Agreement is held by an arbitrator or court to be unenforceable, then that provision be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, unless that modification is not permitted by law, in which case that provision will be disregarded, and (ii) if an unenforceable provision is modified or disregarded, then the rest of this Agreement will remain in effect as written.

18.8 Governing Law. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties.

18.9 Notices. Any notice will be effective under this Agreement only if made in writing and delivered as set forth in this Section to: (A) if to Franchisee, addressed to Franchisee at the notice address set forth in the Summary Page; and (B) if to Paramount Franchising, addressed to 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, with a copy to The Franchise & Business Law Group at 222 S. Main Street, Ste 500, Salt Lake City, Utah 84101 (which will not act as notice or service). Any party may designate a new address for notices by giving notice of the new address pursuant to this Section. Notices will be effective upon receipt (or first rejection) and must be: (1) delivered personally; (2) sent by registered or certified U.S. mail with return receipt requested; (3) by email upon receipt of transmission verification; or (4) sent via overnight courier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Paramount Franchising may amend the Manual, give binding notice of changes to System Standards, and deliver notices of default by electronic mail or other electronic communication.

18.10 Joint and Several Liability. If two or more people sign this Agreement as “Franchisee,” each will have joint and several liability.

18.11 No Offer and Acceptance. Delivery of a draft of this Agreement to Franchisee by Paramount Franchising does not constitute an offer. This Agreement shall not be effective unless and until it is executed by both Franchisee and Paramount Franchising.

18.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Paramount Franchising and Franchisee have respectively signed and sealed this Agreement as of the date written on the Summary Page.

(b) Restriction – Post Term. For two years after the Franchise Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged or employed by, any Competing Business located within Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of the territory of any other Paramount business operating on the date of Termination or Transfer, as applicable.

(c) Interpretation. Guarantor agrees that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Guaranty or the Franchise Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Section is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by any court, then parties intend that the court modify such restriction to extent reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Paramount Franchising. Guarantor agrees that the existence of any claim it or Franchisee may have against Paramount Franchising shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Paramount Franchising of the covenants of this Section. If Guarantor fails to comply with the obligations under this Section during the restrictive period, then the restrictive period will be tolled for each day of noncompliance.

(d) Non-Solicitation of Clients. For three years after the Franchise Agreement is Terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly contact any then-current or former client of Franchisee, or of another franchisee or affiliate of Paramount Franchising for the purpose of soliciting from any such client any business that is the same as or substantially similar to services performed by a Paramount business.

4. Enforcement Costs. If Paramount Franchising must enforce this Guaranty in any judicial or arbitration proceeding or any appeals, Guarantor(s) shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for its enforcement costs. Enforcement costs Include reasonable fees from accountants, attorneys, attorney's assistants, arbitrators, and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, arbitration filing fees, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses, whether incurred before, in preparation for, or in contemplation of the filing of any written demand, claim, action, hearing or proceeding to enforce this Guaranty.

5. Modification. Guarantor agrees that Guarantor's liability hereunder will not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by (a) any amendment of the Franchise Agreement, (b) any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which Paramount Franchising may from time to time grant to Franchisee or to any other person or entity, or (c) the acceptance of any partial payment or performance or the compromise or release of any claims.

6. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution. This Guaranty will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Utah. The provisions of Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this Guaranty as if fully set forth herein. If multiple Guarantors sign this Guaranty, each will have joint and several liability.

7. Counterparts. This Guaranty may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

WHEREAS, as part of the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee is granted limited rights to use the Marks in conjunction with the Business; and

WHEREAS, under the Franchise Agreement, all Marketing materials, Customer Data, and Social Media accounts belong to Paramount Franchising; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, agreements, recitals, obligations, terms and conditions herein contained, and the acts to be performed by the respective parties hereto, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Franchisee hereby assigns all rights and interest, Including all associated goodwill, in the Social Media and other digital media accounts used in the Business or used or created in any way by Franchisee or third parties to promote or use the Marks, Including Franchisee’s Facebook, Google listings, Instagram, Pinterest, Twitter, LinkedIn, Tumblr, email accounts, and the like (collectively, the “Social Media Accounts”). Franchisee shall take all action necessary to grant exclusive access of the Social Media Accounts to Paramount Franchising, Including providing all passwords and administrative access to such Social Media Accounts.

2. Franchisee hereby assigns and transfers, (or in Franchisor’s sole discretion disconnects) the telephone listings, telephone numbers, Including the telephone number(s) listed on Marketing and Social Media Accounts, URL’s, Internet sites, and web pages used in the Business or used or created in any way by Franchisee or third parties to promote or use the Marks to Franchisor (collectively “Listings”).

- c. Franchisee shall not prevent or hinder Paramount Franchising from enforcing its rights in or to the assigned Social Media Accounts.
- d. Franchisee has not taken, or permitted, and shall not take or permit any action that would prevent Paramount Franchising from enjoying the full benefits of assignment of the Social Media Accounts and Listings to Paramount Franchising hereunder whether during the term or after the Termination of the Franchise Agreement.

4. Franchisee hereby directs and authorizes each company associated with, or in control of, the Social Media Accounts and Listings to assign, transfer, set over and otherwise authorize Paramount Franchising to take over and control the Social Media Account and Listings. Attachment 6 to Franchise Agreement

EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is entered into as of _____, between _____ ("Franchisee") and _____ ("Employee"), residing at _____.

A. Franchisee is the holder of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise developed by Paramount Franchising LLC ("Franchisor").

B. Franchisor has developed certain confidential and proprietary information for the operation of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, including without limitation, processes, methods, client lists and data, trade secrets, systems, software, pricing, financial information, client data and lists, manuals, marketing techniques, and procedures ("Proprietary Information").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the employment of Employee by Franchisee, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Acknowledgement. Employee acknowledges that during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee he or she has obtained or may obtain knowledge of the Proprietary Information and other confidential matters and procedures developed, licensed to or owned by Franchisor and made available to Franchisee, which are necessary and essential to the operation of the business of Franchisee, which without such information, Franchisee could not efficiently, effectively and profitably operate its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise. Employee further acknowledges that such Proprietary Information was not known to him or her prior to the association with Franchisee or its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise.

2. Non-Use, Non-Disclosure. Except as may be required in the performance of duties for Franchisee, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, use, or disclose to any third party, or authorize any third party to use any portion of the Proprietary Information, and agrees not to copy, transmit, recreate or otherwise reproduce all of any part of the Proprietary Information at any time. Should Employee work for a different Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, Employee shall not share with or use with such new employer any client data for any client or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor. For the purposes of this Agreement, a "prospective client" does not mean any possible client. It means a potential client who has been engaged in some way, or has provided some personal information, or has elected to receive some communication, but who has not yet done business to be considered an actual client.

2.1 No Reverse Engineering. Employee shall not, either personally, in concert with others or through other authorization, reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct or attempt to reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct any portion of the Proprietary Information.

3. Duty to Notify. Employee agrees to notify Franchisor or Franchisee or Employee's immediate superiors of any reasonably suspected attempts to violate the terms or purposes of this Agreement or to otherwise disclose, copy, or reproduce any part of the Proprietary Information. In the event it is discovered that Employee knew or had reason to know of any suspected attempts to violate this Agreement and fails to report such knowledge, Employee agrees to indemnify Franchisor and Franchisee for all costs and fees associated with enforcement, and to reimburse Franchisor and Franchisee for those losses sustained due to such violation. Employee agrees to cooperate with Franchisor and Franchisee in its

or their attempts to enforce the terms of this Agreement and to otherwise protect the Proprietary Information, and to cooperate with Franchisee and Franchisor to the extent Franchisee is obligated to cooperate with Franchisor's attempts to enforce its rights in and to the Proprietary Information.

4. Return of Materials. Immediately upon the termination of employment, Employee agrees to deliver to Franchisee (and shall not keep in his or her possession or deliver to anyone else whether in hard or electronic soft copy) any and all records, data, photographs, notes, manuals, lists, correspondence, specifications, materials, other documents or property, or reproductions relating to, directly or indirectly, to the Proprietary Information.

5. Management and Supervisor Employees. This Section 5 shall only apply if Employee is a management employee and/or acts in a supervisory role over other employees.

5.1 Non-Competition. Subject to applicable law, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee, and for one year thereafter, directly or indirectly in any capacity, without Franchisee's prior written consent, engage in a business, or plan for or organize a business, or have any financial interest in, or become and owner, officer, director, shareholder, partner, associate, employee, contractor, agent, representative or consultant in any offering or selling products or services the same or substantially similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the minimum area of competitive nature will be that area within a 5-mile radius of any client serviced by Franchisee. The ownership of not more than 2% of the voting stock of a publicly held corporation will not be considered a violation of the foregoing provision. The post-termination, non-competition covenants do not apply if Employee works for another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

6. Non-Solicitation of Clients. Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment and for two years thereafter, directly or indirectly, contact any client, former client, or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor for the purpose of soliciting such client to be a client of a business that is the same as or similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business, including to be a client of another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

7. Irreparable Harm. Employee hereby acknowledges and agrees that any breach by him or her of any portion of Sections 1 through 6 above, inclusive, will cause damage to Franchisee and Franchisor in an amount difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, in addition to any other relief to which Franchisee may be entitled, either Franchisee or Franchisor will be entitled to enforce this Agreement and to seek temporary, preliminary, and/or permanent injunctive relief for any breach or threatened breach by Employee of any of the terms of Section 1 through 6 above, inclusive, without proof of actual damages that have been or may be caused to Franchisee or Franchisor by such breach, and without the requirement of posting bond. The existence of a claim against Franchisee or Franchisor will not constitute a defense to enforce the covenants of this Agreement.

8. Modification. Employee hereby agrees that, without limitation, any modifications, alterations, changes, or improvements conceived, designed, devised, developed, perfected or made by Employee, whether alone or in conjunction with others, and related in any manner to the actual or anticipated operation of the Franchisee, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting system, or to any area of research and development related to the operation of the business, must be promptly disclosed to the Franchisee and will become the property of Franchisor, and Employee hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, and conveys any such to Franchisor.

9. Enforceability. If any portion of this Agreement will be held invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder of this Agreement will be considered valid and operative, and effect will be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

10. Survival of Covenants. All covenants made in this Agreement by Employee survive the termination of Employee's employment with Franchisee or the expiration, transfer, or termination of this Agreement.

11. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement may be amended in whole or in part only by an agreement in writing signed by both parties.

12. Attorneys' Fees. In the event any action in law or equity or any arbitration or other proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement or in connection with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties will be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and other costs reasonably incurred in such action or proceeding.

13. Counterpart and Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

14. Third-party Beneficiary. It is agreed and acknowledged that Franchisor is a third-party beneficiary to this Agreement.

FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Because you are becoming a part of the Paramount Tax® franchise system, it is important that you understand and acknowledge who is your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), and who is not.

You have been hired by _____ (Legal Name of Franchisee) (“Franchisee”), which is an independent franchise owner in the Paramount Tax® franchise system (which we call the “System”). Although Franchisee looks the same, has the same name, and is operated the same way as other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System, Franchisee is not part of the same company as those other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System. Paramount Franchising LLC is a completely separate company that owns the name and created the System. Paramount Franchising LLC has devised rules, systems of operation, and policies and procedures that all of its franchisees must follow, including Franchisee, which makes each independent franchise Paramount Tax® outlet look and operate the same way as one another. This way, Paramount Franchising LLC manages a System composed of many different franchisee owners, each of whom is independently responsible for operating its own Paramount Tax® outlet.

It is important that you understand that Franchisee is your only employer (or is the only party associated with the Paramount Tax® franchise system that hired you as an independent contractor). If you are an employee, then Franchisee gives you your paycheck, establishes your hours, and is responsible for all decisions relating to your employment relationship. If you are an independent contractor, then Franchisee compensates you, hires you for certain hours or tasks, and provides you with the job description for your services to Franchisee. Paramount Franchising LLC is not your employer and has not hired you to provide services related to the Paramount Tax® franchise system. If Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives ever give you direction, training, or advice, it is intended only to ensure that the experience of all customers of Paramount Tax® is the same at or through your place of work as it is at other Paramount Tax® outlets in the Paramount Tax® system. The fact that you are trained, or given direction or advice, by Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives does not somehow mean that Paramount Franchising LLC is your employer.

If you have any questions about your employment relationship or your contracted relationship or about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, please direct them to your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), Franchisee.

I have read this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and I understand it. I have had the opportunity to ask any questions that I have about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and those questions have been answered fully to my satisfaction.

MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Multi-Unit Development Agreement (this “MUDA”) is made between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____ (“Franchisee”) on the Effective Date.

Background Statement: On the same day as they execute this MUDA, Paramount Franchising and Franchisee have entered into a Franchise Agreement for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this MUDA have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Paramount Franchising and Franchisee desire that Franchisee develop multiple Paramount businesses.

1. Multi-Unit Commitment.

(a) Development Schedule; Fee. Franchisee shall develop and open Paramount businesses on the following schedule:

Location #	Deadline for Opening	Total # of Locations to be Open and Operating On Deadline	Initial Franchise Fee
2		2	$ _____
3		3	$ _____
4		4	$ _____
Total Initial Franchise Fees:

(b) Payment. Upon execution of this MUDA, Franchisee shall pay the total Initial Franchise Fees for each franchise to be developed to Paramount Franchising. The Initial Franchise Fees are $40,000 for the first franchise and $25,000 for each subsequent franchise. The Initial Franchise Fees are non-refundable except as provided in Section 6.4 of the Franchise Agreement.

2. Form of Agreement. For Location #1, Franchisee and Paramount Franchising have executed the Franchise Agreement simultaneously with this MUDA. For each additional Paramount franchise, Franchisee shall execute Paramount Franchising’s then-current standard form franchise agreement as developed. This MUDA does not give Franchisee the right to construct, open, or operate a Paramount business, and Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee may construct, open, and operate each Paramount business only pursuant to a separate franchise agreement executed pursuant to this MUDA for each such Paramount business.

3. Development Area. Franchisee shall locate each Paramount business it develops under this MUDA within the following area: _____ (the “Development Area”). Franchisee acknowledges that it does not have exclusive rights to develop, open or operate Paramount businesses in the Development Area.

4. Default and Termination. Paramount Franchising may terminate this MUDA by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee fails to meet a deadline for opening a location as set forth in the development schedule; or
- (ii) Franchisee defaults and fails to cure under the terms of any one of its franchise agreements with Paramount Franchising.

Upon Termination of this MUDA, Franchisee’s rights under this MUDA are terminated, and Paramount Franchising may (among its other rights) sell the remaining development rights, sell franchises, or open locations in the Development Area. Additionally, Franchisee will forfeit all deposits made and any contractual rights to develop or purchase additional Paramount businesses within the Development Area.

5. Limitation of Liability. Franchisee’s commitment to develop Paramount businesses is in the nature of an option only. If Paramount Franchising terminates this MUDA for Franchisee’s default, Franchisee shall not be liable to Paramount Franchising for lost future revenues or profits from the unopened Paramount businesses.

6. Conditions. Franchisee’s right to develop each Paramount franchise after the Location #1 is subject to the following:

- (i) Franchisee must possess sufficient financial and organizational capacity to develop, open, operate, and manage each additional Paramount business, in the reasonable judgment of Paramount Franchising, and
- (ii) Franchisee must be in full compliance with all brand requirements at its open Paramount businesses and not in default under any Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with Paramount Franchising.

7. Dispute Resolution; Miscellaneous. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties. Franchisee shall not Transfer this MUDA without the prior written consent of Paramount Franchising, and any Transfer without Paramount Franchising’s prior written consent will be void. The provisions of Article 15 (Transfers), Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) and Article 18 (Miscellaneous) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this MUDA as if fully set forth herein. Nothing in this MUDA or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document.

FORM OF GENERAL RELEASE

[This is our current standard form of General Release. This document is not signed when you purchase a franchise. In circumstances such as a renewal of your franchise or as a condition of our approval of a sale of your franchise, we may require you to sign a general release.]

This General Release (“Release”) is executed by _____ (“Releasor”) and _____ (“Personal Guarantor(s)”) (collectively, the “Releasing Parties”) in favor of Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising” or “Released Party”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Franchisee entered into a Paramount Tax® and Accounting franchise agreement on _____ with Franchisor (“Franchise Agreement”); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement was personally guaranteed by _____ and _____ (“Personal Guarantor(s)”); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement has been terminated effective as of _____.

1. Release. Releasing Parties (on behalf of itself, guarantors, and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective past and present officers, directors, shareholders, managers, members, partners, agents, and employees) hereby releases Paramount Franchising, its affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, employees, and agents from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, debts, agreements, promises, demands, liabilities, contractual rights and/or obligations, of whatever nature, known or unknown, which any Releasing Party now has or ever had against any Released Party based upon and/or arising out of events that occurred through the date hereof, including without limitation, anything arising out of the Franchise Agreement, the relationship described therein and any business transaction, agreement or occurrence, act or omission relating thereto prior to the date hereof. Releasing Parties further waive any and all state law provisions limiting the effect of a general release (collectively, “Claims”).

2. Covenant Not to Sue. Releasor (on behalf of all Releasing Parties) covenants not to initiate, prosecute, encourage, assist, or (except as required by law) participate in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding or investigation in any court, agency, or other forum, either affirmatively or by way of cross-claim, defense, or counterclaim, against any Released Party with respect to any Claim. In the event of a dispute related to this Release, the dispute resolution sections of the Franchise Agreement will apply and govern.

3. Non-Disparagement. Releasor covenants not to, in any way, form, or medium, disparage any of the Released Parties, the System, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting brand.

4. Representations and Acknowledgments. Releasor represents and warrants that each of them fully understands the broad coverage of the release provisions of this Release: (i) Releasor is the sole owner of all Claims, and that no Releasing Party has assigned or transferred, or purported to assign or transfer, to any person or entity, any Claim; (ii) Releasor has full power and authority to sign this Release; and (iii) this Release has been voluntarily and knowingly signed after Releasor has had the opportunity to consult with counsel of Releasor’s choice. Releasor acknowledges that the release in Section 1 is a complete defense to any Claim.

5. For California Residents. These releases are intended to waive, release and discharge all claims, other than those expressly reserved herein, with the express waiver of any statute, legal doctrine or other similar limitation upon the effect of general releases. In particular, the parties waive the benefit of any applicable statutory provision such as by illustration, California Civil Code Section 1542, which states:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

The parties, with the advice of their respective counsel, waive the benefit of both statute and other legal doctrine or principle of similar effect in any jurisdiction.

6. For Washington Residents. This Agreement does not apply with respect to claims arising under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and any rule or order adopted thereunder.

7. Miscellaneous.

7.1 Cooperation. Franchisee and Personal Guarantor(s) will make, execute and deliver to Franchisor, promptly upon request and without additional consideration, any document or instrument necessary to carry out and effectuate the purposes of this Agreement.

7.2 Choice of Law and Jurisdiction. This Agreement will be construed in accordance with and all disputes hereunder will be governed by the laws of the state of Utah without giving effect to its conflicts of law provisions. Franchisee, Personal Guarantor(s), and Franchisor hereby irrevocably consent to the exercise of general personal jurisdiction in the courts of record of the state of Utah even though it may be otherwise possible to obtain jurisdiction elsewhere, and we both agree that Salt Lake County, Utah will be the exclusive venue for any litigation between us. Each party waives any objection they may have to the personal jurisdiction of or venue in the state and federal courts of Salt Lake County, Utah.

7.3 Arbitration. EXHIBIT I

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Investment law requires that a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise be delivered together with the disclosure document at least 14 days prior to the execution by the prospective franchisee of any binding franchise or other agreement, or at least 14 days prior to the receipt of any consideration, whichever occurs first, a copy of the disclosure document, together with a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise..
2. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
3. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
4. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
5. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
6. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake County, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake County, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
7. The franchise agreement requires application of the laws of Utah. This provision may not be enforceable under California law. You may want to consult an attorney to understand the impact of out-of-state governing law on the franchise agreement.
8. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
9. Neither franchisor nor any person listed in Item 2 of the disclosure document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling this or these persons from membership in such association or exchange.
10. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires the Franchisor to give the franchisee a disclosure document, in a form and containing such information as the Commissioner may by rule or order require, before a solicitation of a proposed modification of an existing franchise.
11. OUR WEBSITE at WWW.PARAMOUNT.TAX HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THE WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.
12. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.

13. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:

- (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
- (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
- (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
- (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

14. California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

15. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

16. Franchisee owners or greater must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

17. Item 6 under Late Fees is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

18. Item 19 is amended to include the following:

"The financial performance representations do not reflect the costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your franchised business. Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in this offering circular, may be one source of this information."

19. Under California law, an agreement between a seller and a buyer regarding the price at which the buyer can resell a product (known as vertical price-fixing or resale price maintenance) is illegal. Therefore, requirements on franchisees to sell goods or services at specific prices set by the franchisor may be unenforceable.

FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Illinois law governs the franchise agreement(s).

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

By reading this disclosure document, you are not agreeing to, acknowledging, or making any representations whatsoever to the Franchisor and its affiliates.

STATE REGULATIONS FOR THE STATE OF INDIANA

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the disclosure document, the following provisions shall apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Indiana:

1. The prohibition by Indiana Code § 23-2-2.7-1(7) against unilateral termination of the franchise without good cause or in bad faith, good cause being defined therein as material breach of the Franchise Agreement, shall apply to the franchise agreement in the State of Indiana to the extent they may be inconsistent with such prohibition.

2. Liquidated damages and termination penalties are prohibited by law in the State of Indiana and, therefore, the disclosure document and franchise agreement are amended by the deletion of all references to liquidated damages and termination penalties and the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein:

“Notwithstanding any such termination, and in addition to the obligations of the Franchisee as otherwise provided, or in the event of termination or cancellation of the Franchise Agreement under any of the other provisions therein, the Franchisee nevertheless shall be, continue and remain liable to Franchisor for any and all damages which Franchisor has sustained or may sustain by reason of such default or defaults and the breach of the Franchise Agreement on the part of the Franchisee for the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement.

At the time of such termination of the Franchise Agreement, the Franchisee covenants to pay to Franchisor within 10 days after demand as compensation all damages, losses, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney’s fees) incurred by Franchisor, and/or amounts which would otherwise be payable thereunder but for such termination for and during the remainder of the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement. This Agreement does not constitute a waiver of the Franchisee’s right to a trial on any of the above matters.”

3. No release language set forth in the disclosure document or franchise agreement, shall relieve Franchisor or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of Indiana.

4. To the extent required by the franchise laws of the State of Indiana, the franchise agreement will be construed in accordance with the franchise laws of the State of Indiana.

5. The provisions of the franchise agreement pertaining to litigation jurisdiction and venue shall be amended to be within the scope of the requirements of the Indiana Franchise laws.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

By statute under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause or to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him by any provision contained in the franchise. Accordingly, the Division requests that the franchisor add a Virginia Addendum to the FDD containing the following statements:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, any franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Paramount Franchising LLC for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

The following statements are added to Item 17(h):

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him under the franchise. If any provision of the Franchise Agreement involves the use of undue influence by the franchisor to induce a franchisee to surrender any rights given to the franchisee under the franchise, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Non-solicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Paragraph 19.1 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “but only to the extent necessary to prevent the invalidity of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof or the imposition of civil or criminal penalties or liability. To the extent permitted by the laws of the state whose laws govern this Agreement, You hereby waive any provisions of law or regulations which render any portion of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect.”

20. Paragraph 20.10 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “You represent and acknowledge that no agreements, representations, negotiations, promises, commitments, inducements, assurances, terms, conditions, or covenants of any nature exist between You and Us except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, whether pertaining to this Agreement or to any future, further or additional rights of either You or Us.”

21. Paragraph 20.11 of the franchise agreement is amended to clarify that for Washington franchisees, the Washington Addendum applies even if the Washington Addendum is not executed or not signed by the franchisor, franchisee, or both.

22. Sections 20.14, 20.18, and 20.22 of the franchise agreement do not apply in Washington.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.

EXHIBIT J

STATE ADDENDA TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT
FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California will be the California Investment law and the California Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
 - (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

10. Franchisee owners must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

11. Late Fees in Section 4.6(c) is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

12. Under California law, an agreement between a seller and a buyer regarding the price at which the buyer can resell a product (known as vertical price-fixing or resale price maintenance) is illegal. Therefore, requirements on franchisees to sell goods or services at specific prices set by the franchisor may be unenforceable.

13. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the franchise agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the franchise agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the franchise agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a franchise agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the franchise agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the franchise agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

MARYLAND RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Addendum dated _____, by and between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company hereinafter referred to as “Franchisor” and _____, LLC/Inc., a hereinafter referred to as “Franchisee.”

1. A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective franchisees to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

Except as expressly amended or modified herein, all terms, provisions and conditions of the original Franchise Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Addendum and any provisions of the original Franchise Agreement, the provisions hereof shall in all respects govern and control.

STATE ADDENDA TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

ADDENDUM TO THE MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Multi-Unit Development Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The multi-unit development agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The multi-unit development agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a Multi-Unit Development Agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California, will be the California Franchise Investment law and the California Franchise Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.

(d) Violations of any provision of this division

10. Late Fees is amended to include the following: “The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually.”

11. California’s Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

12. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ADDENDUM TO THE MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Illinois law governs the Multi-Unit Development Agreement.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a Multi-Unit Development Agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a Multi-Unit Development Agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Franchisees rights upon termination and non-renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(6) Allowing for an increase in prices of goods provided by Paramount Franchising which Franchisee had ordered for private retail consumers prior to Franchisee's receipt of an official price increase notification. A sales contract signed by a private retail consumer shall constitute evidence of each order. Price changes applicable to new models of a product at the time of introduction of such new models shall not be considered a price increase. Price increases caused by conformity to a state or federal law, or the estate instead of renting, your costs will be significantly different. We have not included an estimate for the cost to purchase and build a location in the table above, but we estimate the cost of your buildout to range between $200 and $300 per square feet, depending on your market.

3. Leasehold Improvements. If you choose to operate from a commercial space, you may incur costs build out your location according to our specifications. Costs of improvements vary widely based on location, terms of the lease, the total area of your space, as well as construction and material costs. Your landlord may provide you with a tenant improvement allowance as part of your lease, which has not been included as part of these estimates. You should review these costs with a local contractor, commercial real estate agent and other professionals. We do not provide standard design plans and specifications for construction and improvements. If you locate your center to a newly constructed space, the landlord may require significantly greater additional expenditures to cover leasehold improvements. You are not required to lease newly constructed space.

4. Startup Package. We will supply you with a startup package that includes computers, a server (which we can require to be a cloud-based server), monitors, scanners, modem, printers, video conferencing equipment, and software. This amount must be paid in a lump sum at the time of ordering. The startup package also includes folders, mints, and pens. This is only an initial supply and will require replenishment on a regular, on-going basis depending on your volume of sales.

5. Signs. At least 1 exterior sign displaying the trademark (when possible) and 1 interior sign is required. You will receive 1 interior sign with your startup package. These signs may be made locally. All signs must conform to our specifications. All purchase agreements or leases must be negotiated with your suppliers.

6. Initial Training. We will pay for 1 hotel room for up to 5 nights during the initial training. However, you are responsible for all other costs associated with attending the initial training, including travel, lodging (to and from training, if applicable), extra hotel rooms, food, and other expenses for your attendees during training, and you must pay these expenses directly to the supplier (hotels, airlines, restaurants, rental car companies, etc.). We estimate that you will have two people attend training. These costs will vary widely as a function of the distance traveled and the choice of accommodations, meals and transportation.

7. Additional Funds. This includes any other required expenses you will incur before operations begin and during the initial period of operations, such as payroll, additional inventory, rent, and other operating expenses in excess of income generated by the business. In formulating the amount required for additional funds, we relied on: the development experience of a Paramount Tax & Accounting business by our affiliates since 2008, our experience in franchising since 2016, and the experience of our 4290 franchisees that were in operation as of the end of 2024, and our general knowledge of the industry.

8. Total. Other than the initial franchise fees, the figures listed in the table above are estimates for the development of a single franchise unit territory, and we cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting your franchise business. If you enter into a multi-unit development agreement, then you can expect similar costs for each unit to be developed, but we anticipate you will develop your units over time according to the development schedule rather than all at once. All purchase agreements or leases must be negotiated with suppliers. For any items purchased from us or an affiliate, we require immediate payment. We do not offer direct or indirect financing for any item. All fees and payments payable to us or an affiliate are non-refundable. You should verify with any third-party payee whether such payments, deposits, or fees are refundable or not.

(4) Advertising and Promotion

A. Your Own Advertising Material. You may use your own advertising or marketing material only with our approval. To obtain our approval, you must submit any proposed advertising or marketing material at least 14 days prior to use. If we do not respond, the material is deemed rejected. If you develop any advertising or marketing materials, we may use those materials for any purpose, without any payment to you. (Franchise Agreement Section 9.1).

B. Advertising Council. We do not have an advertising council composed of franchisees.

C. Local or Regional Advertising Cooperatives. We do not currently have any local or regional advertising cooperatives, but we have the right to require you to participate in a local or regional advertising cooperative. We will define the area of the cooperative based on media markets, or other geographic criteria that we deem appropriate. The amount you must contribute to the cooperative will be determined by vote of the members, but not less than 1% of gross sales. We do not anticipate that we or an affiliate of ours would ever control voting of an advertising cooperative, but in such a case, there is no cap to member contributions. Your contributions to the marketing cooperative will be counted towards your local marketing contribution. If our own outlets are members of a cooperative, they must contribute to the fund on the same basis as franchisees. Unless otherwise determined by us, the activities of a cooperative will be determined by a majority vote of its members in good standing. We have the right to require the cooperative to operate from written bylaws or other governing documents that we determine. The documents are not currently available for you to review. Cooperatives are not required to prepare annual financial statements or make such statements available to its members for review. We have the power to require cooperatives to be formed, changed, dissolved, or merged. (Franchise Agreement Section 9.3).

E. Required Spending. After you open, you must spend at least 5% of gross sales each month on marketing your business until your location reaches $1,000,000 in annual gross sales. If your annual gross sales later drop below $1,000,000, you must again spend 5% of your annual gross sales on local marketing. This requirement will continue until your annual gross sales again exceeds $1,000,000. (Franchise Agreement Section 9.4).

F. Internet Marketing. We have the exclusive right to own, conduct and manage all marketing and commerce on the Internet or other electronic medium, including all websites and “social media” marketing related to the brand, but we may provide you access to the social media account for your location for certain management responsibilities and functions. You cannot change any login/password information without our prior written approval, and you must supply us with all changed/updated login/password information. You cannot conduct such marketing or commerce, nor establish any website or social media presence independently, except as we may specify, and only with our consent. We retain the right to approve any linking to or other use of the Paramount Tax & Accounting website. You must comply with any Internet, online commerce and/or social media policy that we may prescribe. (Franchise Agreement Section 9.6).

G. Our Rights and Obligations to Market. Under the terms of the franchise agreement, we are not obligated to conduct advertising for the franchise system, or to spend any amount on advertising in your territory. However, we may use any marketing materials or campaigns developed by or on behalf of you and other franchisees, and you will grant us an unlimited, royalty-free license to do so. (Franchise Agreement Section 9.2).

You must give us independent access to the information that will be generated or stored in these systems. There is no contractual limitation on our right to access the information. The information that we may access will include sales, client data, and reports. For this, you may be required to obtain a static IP address from your internet provider. You will be required to pay a reasonable training fee (currently $1,500 per person) and will be responsible to pay all applicable travel, living and other expenses of your attendees or our representatives as applicable. You are required to pay any applicable the registration fees, as well as travel, and living expenses for your attendees. In-person conferences and seminars will be held at locations chosen by us. (Franchise Agreement Section 5.6).

TERRITORY

(1) Territory Protection

We grant you an exclusive territory meaning that we will not open a Paramount Tax & Accounting outlet, nor license or franchise another party to open a Paramount Tax & Accounting outlet in your territory. The continuation of your territorial protection does not depend on achieving a certain sales volume, market penetration, or another contingency.

(2) Your Location

Your franchise is for a specific location approved by us.

(3) Grant of Territory

Your franchise agreement will specify a territory which will be determined by us. Your territory will be made up of one or more ZIP codes. We generally grant territories with a population base of approximately 100,000 people. We have the right to designate the name of each territory and to change the name designation of a territory. You may only provide services to clients at your location, virtually, or as otherwise directed by us. Unless otherwise approved or required by us, you may not make sales by any other means, including without limitation by wholesale, by delivery, by mail order or over the Internet, or at temporary or satellite locations.

(4) Territory Division

We have found that once an office reaches approximately 3,500 clients or an average of 3,000 clients, the service of that office can diminish due to the increased workload, and client attrition can be more widespread. Therefore, once you reach 3,500 clients or maintain an average of 3,000 clients over a 12-month period, we can require you to open a second outlet in your territory, and your original territory will be divided into two separate territories. In such case, you may have one or more territories with less than 100,000 people, but the culmination of the population for all your territories will still be approximately 100,000 people. You would also be required to sign a new franchise agreement for the additional location, but the initial franchise fee will only be $10,000 for this additional franchise, and you would be required to purchase an additional startup package for that additional territory.

(5) Relocation; Establishment of Additional Outlets

You do not have the right to relocate your business, and we have no obligation to approve any request for relocation. Our policy is to approve relocation of a franchisee's business on case-by-case basis, considering factors such as changes in demographics, profitability of your current business, or a loss of your premises due to circumstances beyond your control.

You do not have the right to establish additional franchised outlets or expand into additional territories. If you desire to establish additional franchised outlets, you must (1) meet our then-current criteria for new franchisees as well as our then-current criteria for multi-unit franchisees, (2) be in compliance with your franchise agreement at all times since opening your business, (3) have demonstrated your capability to operate the franchise successfully, and (4) sign our then-current franchise agreement.

(6) Options to Acquire Additional Franchises

You do not receive any options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

(7) Adjustment of Territory Boundaries

We reserve the right to adjust your territory boundaries if a government body revises the ZIP codes that make up your territory, or if the population in your territory increases to a population of more than 150,000 people. In such case, we may readjust the boundaries of your territory, including the assigned ZIP codes for your territory, but any adjustment will not result in your territory(ies) having less than a population base of approximately 100,000 people.

(8) Other

(i) Restrictions on Us from Soliciting or Accepting Orders in Your Territory.

There are no restrictions on us from soliciting or accepting orders from consumers inside your territory. We reserve the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, websites, social media, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales within your territory using our principal trademarks or using trademarks different from the ones you will use under your franchise agreement. We do not pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders from inside your territory.

(ii) Soliciting by You Outside Your Territory

You can advertise outside your territory, so long as you do not advertise in another franchise or affiliate-owned territory. There are no restrictions on you accepting clients from outside of your territory. For example, direct referrals to other clients from existing clients or referral partners will be permitted anywhere in the country regardless of who owns the area. We reserve the right to control all Internet-based marketing.

(iii) Competition by Us Under Different Trademarks

Neither we, nor any of our affiliates operates, franchises, or has plans to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark selling goods or services similar to those you will offer. However, the franchise agreement does not prohibit us from doing so.

(9) Multi-Unit Development Agreements

As a multi-unit developer, you will be assigned a limited, non-exclusive development area over which you will have development authority. You may face competition from other franchisees, from units that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. The size of your development area is to be negotiated. The written boundaries will be included in your multi-unit development agreement. The schedule of units to be developed in your development area are negotiated between you and us. To maintain your territorial development rights, you must develop the number of franchise businesses by the deadlines listed in your development schedule. After you have identified a potential site for a location, we must approve the location. Our approval will be based on our then-current standards for that franchise business pursuant to your franchise agreement.

There are no restrictions on us from soliciting or accepting orders from consumers inside your development area. We reserve the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, websites, social media, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales within your development area using our principal trademarks or using trademarks different from the ones you will use under your franchise agreement. We do not pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders from inside your development area.

It may be modified only by mutual consent of the parties. It may be terminated by our affiliate only if we materially misuse the trademarks and fail to correct the misuse within 60 days of notice. The intercompany license agreement specifies that if it is ever terminated, your franchise rights will remain unaffected.

(8) Protection of Rights

We protect your right to use the principal trademarks listed in this Item and protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition arising out of your use of the trademarks, to the extent described in this section.

The franchise agreement obligates you to notify us of the use of, or claims of rights to, a trademark identical to or confusingly similar to a trademark licensed to you. The franchise agreement does not require us to take affirmative action when notified of these uses or claims. We have the right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed by us to you.

If you use our trademarks in accordance with the franchise agreement, then (i) we shall defend you (at our expense) against any legal action by a third party alleging infringement by your use of the trademark, and (ii) we will indemnify you for expenses and damages if the legal action is resolved unfavorably to you.

Under the franchise agreement, we may require you to modify or discontinue using a trademark, at your expense.

(9) Superior Prior Rights and Infringing Uses

We do not know of either superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the principal trademarks.

(4) Protection of Rights

We have no obligation to protect any of our copyrights or to defend you against claims arising from your use of copyrighted items. The franchise agreement does not require us to take affirmative action when notified of copyright infringement. We control any copyright litigation. We are not required to participate in the defense of a franchisee or indemnify a franchisee for expenses or damages in a proceeding involving a copyright licensed to the franchisee. We may require you to modify or discontinue using the subject matter covered by any of our copyrights.

We do not know of any copyright infringement that could materially affect you.

Item 18 PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchise. However, we reserve the right to use public figures in the future.

Item 19 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

Gross Sales/Expenses/Net Income

The tables below represent an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets and 30 of our franchised outlets that completed at least one full tax season before 2024 and who operated for all of 2024.

We had 45-46 outlets that are not included because they did not complete at least one full tax season before the beginning of 2024 or did not operate for all of 2024. Franchisees typically have different start dates and experience other types of volatility in their first tax season; whereas franchisees that have completed at least one full tax season before the beginning of the year generally have more uniform operations in the reporting year.

We also had 15 outlets that are not included in this Item 19 because they did not operate on a full-time basis in 2024, and part-time franchisees are not included in our offered franchise model. Additionally, we did not include 7 franchisees that had signed franchise agreements but who had not yet opened as of the end of 2024.

Company Owned/Affiliate Outlets

The table below represents an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets in Draper, Utah and Port St. Lucie, Florida from January 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024. We only have 2 affiliate owned outlets. As of December 31, 2024, our Draper, Utah outlet had been operating for more than 10 years, and our Port St. Lucie, Florida outlet had been operating for less than 3 years.

¹ Draper Gross Sales. Most of the gross sales in 2024 for our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet was from tax consulting. Our franchisees are allowed to provide tax consulting as well, but most of the tax consulting performed by our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet involved mineral property donations and conservation easements for high income producing clients, and the IRS and state taxing authorities may phase out this deduction in the near future.

² Draper Royalties. Our Draper, Utah outlet pays us royalties on all tax and accounting work it performs but not tax consulting work. In 2024, gross sales generated from tax and accounting work was $1,017,140.

Notes

1. Gross Sales. “Gross sales” means the total dollar amount of all sales generated by an outlet for a given period, including payment for any services or products sold, whether for cash or credit and the value of any services bartered or done on trade. Gross sales do not include (i) bona fide refunds to clients, (ii) sales taxes collected, (iii) sale of used equipment not in the ordinary course of business, or (iv) sales of prepaid cards or similar products (but the redemption of any such card or product will be included in gross sales).
2. Average. “Average” means the sum of all data points in a set, divided by the number of data points in that set.
3. Median. “Median” means the data point that is in the center of all data points used. That number is found by examining the total number of data points and finding the middle number in that set. In the event the number of data points is an odd number, the median will be the center number. If the dataset contains an even number of data points, the median is reached by taking the 2 numbers in the middle, adding them together, and dividing by 2.
4. Outlet Characteristics. Our affiliate owned outlets and all franchised outlets listed in the tables above offer similar products and services to what new franchisees would offer. Each outlet is in a metropolitan area.
5. Other Expenses. The term “other expenses” includes general and administrative expenses along with direct costs that did not include sales and marketing expenses.

Some outlets have earned this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you will earn as much.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to the prospective franchisee upon reasonable request.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, Paramount Franchising LLC does not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Jon Wilhelm, CPA at Jon@Paramount.tax, 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, and 801-341-2300, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

- (iv) Franchisee executes Paramount Franchising's then-current standard form of franchise agreement, which may be materially different than this form (Including higher and/or different fees), except that Franchisee will not pay another initial franchise fee and will not receive another renewal or successor term; and
- (v) Franchisee and each Owner executes a general release (on Paramount Franchising's then-standard form) of any and all claims against Paramount Franchising, its affiliates, and their respective owners, officers, directors, agents and employees.

ARTICLE 4. FEES

4.1 Initial Franchise Fee. Upon signing this Agreement, Franchisee shall pay an initial franchise fee in the amount stated on the Summary Page. This initial franchise fee is not refundable, except as provided in Section 6.4. If Franchisee is an honorably discharged veteran of the United States military, Franchisee will receive a discount of 20% off the initial franchise fee. Franchisee must provide to Paramount Franchising Veteran ID cards, a DD-214, and other documentation to provide proof of honorable discharged status.

4.2 Royalty Fee. Franchisee shall pay Paramount Franchising a monthly royalty fee (the "Royalty Fee") equal to 10% of Gross Sales. The Royalty Fee for any given month is due on the 5th day of the following month.

4.3 Marketing Cooperative Contributions. If the Business participates in a Marketing Cooperative, then Franchisee shall contribute to the Marketing Cooperative a percentage of Gross Sales (or other amount) determined by the Market Cooperative.

4.4 Non-Compliance Fee. Paramount Franchising may charge Franchisee $250 for any instance of non-compliance with the System Standards or this Agreement (other than Franchisee's non-payment of a fee owed to Paramount Franchising). If such non-compliance is ongoing, Paramount Franchising may charge Franchisee $250 per week until Franchisee ceases such non-compliance. This fee is a reasonable estimate of Paramount Franchising's internal cost of personnel time attributable to addressing the non-compliance and is not a penalty or estimate of all damages arising from Franchisee's breach. The non-compliance fee is in addition to all Paramount Franchising's other rights and remedies; non-compliance is considered a default of this Agreement.

4.5 Reimbursement. Paramount Franchising may (but is never obligated to) pay on Franchisee's behalf any amount that Franchisee owes to a supplier or other third party. If Paramount Franchising does so or intends to do so, Franchisee shall pay such amount plus a 10% administrative charge to Paramount Franchising within 15 days after invoice by Paramount Franchising accompanied by reasonable documentation.

4.6 Payment Terms.

(a) Method of Payment. Franchisee shall pay the Royalty Fee, and any other amounts owed to Paramount Franchising by pre-authorized bank draft or in such other manner as Paramount Franchising may require. Paramount's current ACH agreement is attached hereto as Attachment 7 and may be modified by Paramount at any time at its sole discretion. Franchisee must have an active ACH agreement with Paramount Franchising at all times. Before terminating or canceling any active ACH agreement, Franchisee must provide a new ACH agreement to Paramount Franchising so that there is no time in which Paramount Franchising does not have the ability to automatically withdraw or debit all payments and Fees due and owing to Paramount Franchising. Franchisee shall pay all service charges and fees charged by Franchisee's bank for Paramount Franchising to electronically debit Franchisee's bank account.

(b) Calculation of Fees. Franchisee shall report monthly Gross Sales to Paramount Franchising by the 5th day of the following month. Gross Sales will be determined by the use of the accounting software that Paramount Franchising chooses. Franchisee shall use this accounting software for its reporting requirements, such that the calculation of the Royalty Fee will be available to the Franchisor by the 5th day of each month for the prior month. The amount calculated for the Royalty Fee will be withdrawn through ACH. If Franchisee fails to report monthly Gross Sales, then Paramount Franchising may withdraw estimated Royalty Fees equal to 125% of the last Gross Sales reported to Paramount Franchising, and the parties will true-up the actual fees after Franchisee reports Gross Sales. Franchisee acknowledges that Paramount Franchising has the right to remotely access Franchisee's point-of-sale system and to calculate Gross Sales. Franchisee will also provide information as to the number of tax returns completed each month, as well as the total number of clients. This information will also be required on the 5th day of the month.

(c) Late Fees and Interest. If Franchisee does not make a payment on time, Franchisee shall pay a $100 late fee plus interest on the unpaid amount at a rate equal to 18% per year (or, if such payment exceeds the maximum allowed by law, then interest at the highest rate allowed by law).

(d) Insufficient Funds. Paramount Franchising may charge $50 for any payment returned for insufficient funds (or, if such amount exceeds the maximum allowed by law, then the fee allowed by law).

(e) Costs of Collection. Franchisee shall repay any costs incurred by Paramount Franchising (Including reasonable attorney fees) in attempting to collect payments owed by Franchisee.

(f) Application. Paramount Franchising may apply any payment received from Franchisee to any obligation and in any order as Paramount Franchising may determine, regardless of any designation by Franchisee.

(g) Obligations Independent; No Set-Off. The obligations of Franchisee to pay to Paramount Franchising any fees or amounts described in this Agreement are not dependent on Paramount Franchising's performance and are independent covenants by Franchisee. Franchisee shall make all such payments without offset or deduction.

4.7 Optional Programs. Franchisee understands and agrees that Paramount Franchising has developed optional programs for which there may be a fee paid to a third party or to Paramount Franchising. In such case, the provisions of this Article 4 will apply to all such payments. Additionally, Paramount Franchising may develop additional optional and/or mandatory programs. This Section 4.7 will also apply to programs developed in the future.

4.8 Marketing, SEO (Search Engine Optimization), and Website Management Fee. A monthly fee of $300 (or the then-current fee) is to be paid to Paramount Franchising or (at Paramount Franchising's sole discretion) paid directly to a third party vendor for services related to the franchisee's website. These services may include SEO (search engine optimization), marketing services, website changes, PPC (pay per click) campaigns, etc. This fee/payment will count towards Franchisee's local marketing contribution.

4.9 Email Account(s) Fee. Franchisee shall pay Paramount Franchising or its designated supplier a monthly email account fee of $5 to $30 (currently). This fee may increase based on increased costs and maintenance. This fee is paid annually and is due upon the creation of the email address(es) and the annual renewal date each year thereafter.

4.10 Conferences and Seminars. Paramount Franchising has the discretion to conduct conferences and seminars, which may be through online webinars, videos, live video conferencing, phone conferences or in person, to discuss improvements, new developments, mutual concerns, business issues, sales, Marketing, personnel training, bookkeeping, accounting, inventory control and performance standards. Attendance at conferences and seminars is optional at this time, but Paramount Franchising reserves the right to make a conference or seminar mandatory for Franchisee's Principal Executive. Franchisee is required to pay any applicable registration fees (currently $0 to $2,000 per attendee), as well as travel and living expenses for Franchisee's attendees. In-person conferences and seminars will be held at locations chosen by Paramount Franchising.

ARTICLE 5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

5.1 Intellectual Property and Confidential Information. Franchisee acknowledges that: 1) Paramount Franchising has the sole rights in and to the Intellectual Property and Confidential Information; 2) Franchisee's right to use the System is granted by Paramount Franchising solely pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; and 3) as between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising, Paramount Franchising has the sole right to license and control Confidential Information and Intellectual Property. - (v) Franchisee has paid all monetary obligations to Paramount Franchising in full, and Franchisee is not otherwise in default of this Agreement;
- (vi) the proposed assignee and its owners and employees undergo such training as Paramount Franchising may require and Franchisee assists in covering the Business during such training if necessary;
- (vii) Franchisee, its Owners, and the transferee and its owners execute a general release of Paramount Franchising in a form satisfactory to Paramount Franchising; and
- (viii) the Business fully complies with all of Paramount Franchising's most recent System Standards, Including upgrading and Remodel requirements.

15.3 Transfer for Convenience of Ownership. If Franchisee is an individual, Franchisee may Transfer this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company formed for the convenience of ownership after at least 15 days' prior written notice to Paramount Franchising, if, prior to the Transfer: (1) the transferee provides the information required by Section 2.3; (2) Franchisee provides copies the entity's charter documents, by-laws (or operating agreement) and similar documents, if requested by Paramount Franchising, (3) Franchisee owns all voting securities of the corporation or limited liability company, and (4) Franchisee provides a guaranty in accordance with Section 2.5.

15.4 Transfer upon Death or Incapacity. Upon the death or incapacity of Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is an entity, the person with the largest ownership interest in Franchisee), the executor, administrator, or personal representative of that person must Transfer the Business to a third party approved by Paramount Franchising within nine months after death or incapacity. Such Transfer must comply with Section 15.2.

15.5 Paramount Franchising's Right of First Refusal. Before Franchisee (or any owner) engages in a Transfer (except under Section 15.3 or Section 15.4), Paramount Franchising will have a right of first refusal, as set forth in this Section. Franchisee (or its owners) shall provide to Paramount Franchising a copy of the terms and conditions of any Transfer. For a period of 30 days from the date of Paramount Franchising's receipt of such copy, Paramount Franchising will have the right, exercisable by notice to Franchisee, to purchase the Business or the assets subject of the proposed Transfer for the same price and on the same terms and conditions (except that Paramount Franchising may substitute cash for any other form of payment). If Paramount Franchising does not exercise its right of first refusal, Franchisee may proceed with the proposed Transfer, subject to the other terms and conditions of this Article. However, if there are any material changes in the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer and any of those changes are less favorable to Franchisee, Franchisee shall notify Paramount Franchising of the changes in writing, and Paramount Franchising will have an additional 10 days within which to elect to purchase the assets proposed to be Transferred on the revised terms and conditions. If the proposed Transfer is not completed for any reason after Paramount Franchising elects not to purchase the assets being Transferred, a new right of first refusal commences as to any subsequent proposed Transfer by Franchisee.

15.6 No Sublicense. Franchisee has no right to sublicense the Marks or any of Franchisee's rights under this Agreement.

15.7 No Lien on Agreement. Franchisee shall not grant a security interest in this Agreement to any person or entity. If Franchisee grants an "all assets" security interest to any lender or other secured party, Franchisee shall cause the secured party to expressly exempt this Agreement from the security interest.

ARTICLE 16. INDEMNITY

16.1 Indemnity. Franchisee shall indemnify and defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Paramount Franchising) Paramount Franchising, its parent entities, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assignees (collectively, “Indemnitees”) against all Losses in any Action by or against Paramount Franchising and/or any Indemnatee directly or indirectly related to, or alleged to arise out of, the operation of the Business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee shall not be obligated to indemnify an Indemnatee from claims arising as a result of any Indemnatee’s misconduct or negligence. Franchisee agrees not to file any crossclaim or counterclaim against Paramount Franchising for any action made by a third-party or make any response that would infer or represent Paramount Franchising is liable as a party or defendant to any action that is contrary to this Section. This Agreement and the terms in this Section and related terms in this Agreement is a bona fide defense to any claim Franchisee may contradictorily make against Paramount Franchising as to Paramount Franchising’s liability or proportion of fault. Franchisee shall bear all costs to defend Paramount Franchising from claims raised by a third party. If Paramount Franchising incurs any costs or liabilities to any third party, Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for costs associated with Paramount Franchising’s defense to those claims. This indemnity will continue in effect after this Agreement ends.

16.2 Assumption by Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may elect to assume the defense and/or settlement of any Action subject to this indemnification, at Franchisee’s expense. Such an undertaking will not diminish Franchisee’s obligation to indemnify the Indemnitees.

ARTICLE 17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Arbitration.

(a) Disputes Subject to Arbitration. Except as expressly provided in subsection (c), any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, will be resolved by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, Including the Optional Rules for Emergency Measures of Protection. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

(b) Location. The place of arbitration will be held in Salt Lake County, Utah or the county and state where Paramount Franchising’s then-current headquarters are located.

(c) Injunctive Relief. Either party may apply to the arbitrator seeking injunctive relief until the arbitration award is rendered or the controversy is otherwise resolved. Either party also may, without waiving any remedy or right to arbitrate under this Agreement, seek from any court having jurisdiction any interim or provisional injunctive relief.

(d) Confidentiality. All documents, information, and results pertaining to any arbitration or lawsuit will be confidential, except as required by law or as required for Paramount Franchising to comply with laws and regulations applicable to the sale of franchises.

(e) Performance During Arbitration or Litigation. Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall comply with this Agreement and perform their respective obligations under this Agreement during the arbitration or litigation process.

17.2 Damages. In any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each party waives any right to punitive or other monetary damages not measured by the prevailing party’s actual damages, except damages authorized by federal statute. In the event of Termination of this Agreement prior

the expiration of the term, Paramount Franchising's actual damages will include its lost future income from Royalty Fees and other amounts that Franchisee would have owed to Paramount Franchising but for the Termination.

17.3 Waiver of Class Actions. The parties agree that any claims will be arbitrated, litigated, or otherwise resolved on an individual basis, and waive any right to act on a class-wide basis.

17.4 Time Limitation. Any arbitration or other legal action arising from or related to this Agreement must be instituted within two years from the date such party discovers the conduct or event that forms the basis of the arbitration or other legal action. The foregoing time limit does not apply to claims (i) by one party related to non-payment under this Agreement by the other party, (ii) for indemnity under Article 16, or (iii) related to unauthorized use of Confidential Information or the Marks.

17.5 Venue Other Than Arbitration. For any legal proceeding not required to be submitted to arbitration, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the United States District Court of Salt Lake County, Utah or where Paramount Franchising's then-current headquarters is located. If there is no federal jurisdiction over the dispute, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the court of record of the state and county where Paramount Franchising's headquarters is then located. Each party consents to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection that it, he or she may have to the laying of venue of any proceeding in any of these courts.

17.6 Legal Costs. In any legal proceeding (including arbitration) related to this Agreement or any guaranty, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's attorney fees, costs and other expenses of the legal proceeding. "Prevailing party" means the party, if any, which prevailed upon the central litigated issues and obtained substantial relief.

ARTICLE 18. MISCELLANEOUS

18.1 Relationship of the Parties. The parties are independent contractors, and neither is the agent, partner, joint venturer, or employee of the other. Paramount Franchising is not a fiduciary of Franchisee and does not control Franchisee or its Business. Paramount Franchising has no liability for Franchisee's obligations to any third party whatsoever.

18.2 No Third-party Beneficiaries. This Agreement does not confer any rights or remedies upon any person or entity other than Franchisee, Paramount Franchising, and Paramount Franchising's affiliates.

18.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties related to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior negotiations and representations whether oral or in writing. Nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made by Paramount Franchising in its franchise disclosure document.

18.4 Modification. No modification or amendment of this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both parties. This provision does not limit Paramount Franchising's rights to modify the Manual or System Standards.

18.5 Consent; Waiver. No consent under this Agreement, and no waiver of satisfaction of a condition or nonperformance of an obligation under this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the party granting the consent or waiver. No waiver by a party of any right will affect the party's rights as to any subsequent exercise of that right or any other right. No delay, forbearance or omission by a party to exercise any right will constitute a waiver of such right.

18.6 Cumulative Remedies. Rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative. No enforcement of a right or remedy precludes the enforcement of any other right or remedy.

18.7 Severability. The parties intend that (i) if any provision of this Agreement is held by an arbitrator or court to be unenforceable, then that provision be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, unless that modification is not permitted by law, in which case that provision will be disregarded, and (ii) if an unenforceable provision is modified or disregarded, then the rest of this Agreement will remain in effect as written.

18.8 Governing Law. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties.

18.9 Notices. Any notice will be effective under this Agreement only if made in writing and delivered as set forth in this Section to: (A) if to Franchisee, addressed to Franchisee at the notice address set forth in the Summary Page; and (B) if to Paramount Franchising, addressed to 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, with a copy to The Franchise & Business Law Group at 222 S. Main Street, Ste 500, Salt Lake City, Utah 84101 (which will not act as notice or service). Any party may designate a new address for notices by giving notice of the new address pursuant to this Section. Notices will be effective upon receipt (or first rejection) and must be: (1) delivered personally; (2) sent by registered or certified U.S. mail with return receipt requested; (3) by email upon receipt of transmission verification; or (4) sent via overnight courier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Paramount Franchising may amend the Manual, give binding notice of changes to System Standards, and deliver notices of default by electronic mail or other electronic communication.

18.10 Joint and Several Liability. If two or more people sign this Agreement as “Franchisee,” each will have joint and several liability.

18.11 No Offer and Acceptance. Delivery of a draft of this Agreement to Franchisee by Paramount Franchising does not constitute an offer. This Agreement shall not be effective unless and until it is executed by both Franchisee and Paramount Franchising.

18.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

GUARANTY AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

This Guaranty and Non-Compete Agreement (this “Guaranty”) is entered into and made effective by and between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and the undersigned person(s) (each, a “Guarantor”) owners of _____ (the “Business Entity”).

Background Statement: Business Entity (“Franchisee”) desires to enter into a Franchise Agreement with Paramount Franchising for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this Guaranty have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Guarantor owns an equity interest in Franchisee. Guarantor is executing this Guaranty in order to induce Paramount Franchising to enter into the Franchise Agreement.

Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Guaranty. Guarantor hereby unconditionally guarantees to Paramount Franchising and its successors and assigns that Franchisee shall pay and perform every undertaking, agreement and covenant set forth in the Franchise Agreement and further guarantees every other liability and obligation of Franchisee to Paramount Franchising, whether or not contained in the Franchise Agreement. Guarantor shall render any payment or performance required under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising upon demand from Paramount Franchising. Guarantor waives (a) acceptance and notice of acceptance by Paramount Franchising of this Guaranty; (b) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations of Franchisee; (c) protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; (d) any right Guarantor may have to require that an action be brought against Franchisee or any other person or entity as a condition of liability hereunder; (e) all rights to payments and claims for reimbursement or subrogation which any of the undersigned may have against Franchisee arising as a result of the execution of and performance under this Guaranty by the undersigned; (f) any law which requires that Paramount Franchising make demand upon, assert claims against or collect from Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor), foreclose any security interest, sell collateral, exhaust any remedies or take any other action against Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor) prior to making any demand upon, collecting from or taking any action against the undersigned with respect to this Guaranty; and (g) any and all other notices and legal or equitable defenses to which Guarantor may be entitled.

2. Confidential Information. With respect to all Confidential Information Guarantor shall (a) adhere to all security procedures prescribed by Paramount Franchising for maintaining confidentiality, (b) disclose such information to its employees only to the extent necessary for the operation of the Business; (c) not use any such information in any other business or in any manner not specifically authorized or approved in writing by Paramount Franchising, (d) exercise the highest degree of diligence and make every effort to maintain the confidentiality of all such information during and after the term of the Franchise Agreement, (e) not copy or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information, and (f) promptly report any unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information. Guarantor acknowledges that all Confidential Information is owned by Paramount Franchising or its affiliates (except for any Confidential Information, which Paramount Franchising licenses from another person or entity). Guarantor acknowledges that all Customer Data generated or obtained by Guarantor is Confidential Information belonging to Paramount Franchising. This Section will survive the Termination of the Franchise Agreement indefinitely.

3. Covenants Not to Compete and Non-Solicitation of Clients.

(a) Restriction - In Term. During the term of the Franchise Agreement, Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged, assist, consult or be employed by, any Competing Business.

(b) Restriction – Post Term. For two years after the Franchise Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged or employed by, any Competing Business located within Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of the territory of any other Paramount business operating on the date of Termination or Transfer, as applicable.

(c) Interpretation. Guarantor agrees that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Guaranty or the Franchise Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Section is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by any court, then parties intend that the court modify such restriction to extent reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Paramount Franchising. Guarantor agrees that the existence of any claim it or Franchisee may have against Paramount Franchising shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Paramount Franchising of the covenants of this Section. If Guarantor fails to comply with the obligations under this Section during the restrictive period, then the restrictive period will be tolled for each day of noncompliance.

(d) Non-Solicitation of Clients. For three years after the Franchise Agreement is Terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly contact any then-current or former client of Franchisee, or of another franchisee or affiliate of Paramount Franchising for the purpose of soliciting from any such client any business that is the same as or substantially similar to services performed by a Paramount business.

4. Enforcement Costs. If Paramount Franchising must enforce this Guaranty in any judicial or arbitration proceeding or any appeals, Guarantor(s) shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for its enforcement costs. Enforcement costs Include reasonable fees from accountants, attorneys, attorney's assistants, arbitrators, and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, arbitration filing fees, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses, whether incurred before, in preparation for, or in contemplation of the filing of any written demand, claim, action, hearing or proceeding to enforce this Guaranty.

5. Modification. Guarantor agrees that Guarantor's liability hereunder will not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by (a) any amendment of the Franchise Agreement, (b) any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which Paramount Franchising may from time to time grant to Franchisee or to any other person or entity, or (c) the acceptance of any partial payment or performance or the compromise or release of any claims.

6. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution. This Guaranty will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Utah. The provisions of Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this Guaranty as if fully set forth herein. If multiple Guarantors sign this Guaranty, each will have joint and several liability.

7. Counterparts. This Guaranty may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

Attachment 6 to Franchise Agreement

EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is entered into as of _____, between _____ ("Franchisee") and _____ ("Employee"), residing at _____.

A. Franchisee is the holder of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise developed by Paramount Franchising LLC ("Franchisor").

B. Franchisor has developed certain confidential and proprietary information for the operation of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, including without limitation, processes, methods, client lists and data, trade secrets, systems, software, pricing, financial information, client data and lists, manuals, marketing techniques, and procedures ("Proprietary Information").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the employment of Employee by Franchisee, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Acknowledgement. Employee acknowledges that during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee he or she has obtained or may obtain knowledge of the Proprietary Information and other confidential matters and procedures developed, licensed to or owned by Franchisor and made available to Franchisee, which are necessary and essential to the operation of the business of Franchisee, which without such information, Franchisee could not efficiently, effectively and profitably operate its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise. Employee further acknowledges that such Proprietary Information was not known to him or her prior to the association with Franchisee or its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise.

2. Non-Use, Non-Disclosure. Except as may be required in the performance of duties for Franchisee, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, use, or disclose to any third party, or authorize any third party to use any portion of the Proprietary Information, and agrees not to copy, transmit, recreate or otherwise reproduce all of any part of the Proprietary Information at any time. Should Employee work for a different Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, Employee shall not share with or use with such new employer any client data for any client or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor. For the purposes of this Agreement, a "prospective client" does not mean any possible client. It means a potential client who has been engaged in some way, or has provided some personal information, or has elected to receive some communication, but who has not yet done business to be considered an actual client.

2.1 No Reverse Engineering. Employee shall not, either personally, in concert with others or through other authorization, reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct or attempt to reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct any portion of the Proprietary Information.

3. Duty to Notify. Employee agrees to notify Franchisor or Franchisee or Employee's immediate superiors of any reasonably suspected attempts to violate the terms or purposes of this Agreement or to otherwise disclose, copy, or reproduce any part of the Proprietary Information. In the event it is discovered that Employee knew or had reason to know of any suspected attempts to violate this Agreement and fails to report such knowledge, Employee agrees to indemnify Franchisor and Franchisee for all costs and fees associated with enforcement, and to reimburse Franchisor and Franchisee for those losses sustained due to such violation. Employee agrees to cooperate with Franchisor and Franchisee in its

or their attempts to enforce the terms of this Agreement and to otherwise protect the Proprietary Information, and to cooperate with Franchisee and Franchisor to the extent Franchisee is obligated to cooperate with Franchisor's attempts to enforce its rights in and to the Proprietary Information.

4. Return of Materials. Immediately upon the termination of employment, Employee agrees to deliver to Franchisee (and shall not keep in his or her possession or deliver to anyone else whether in hard or electronic soft copy) any and all records, data, photographs, notes, manuals, lists, correspondence, specifications, materials, other documents or property, or reproductions relating to, directly or indirectly, to the Proprietary Information.

5. Management and Supervisor Employees. This Section 5 shall only apply if Employee is a management employee and/or acts in a supervisory role over other employees.

5.1 Non-Competition. Subject to applicable law, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee, and for one year thereafter, directly or indirectly in any capacity, without Franchisee's prior written consent, engage in a business, or plan for or organize a business, or have any financial interest in, or become and owner, officer, director, shareholder, partner, associate, employee, contractor, agent, representative or consultant in any offering or selling products or services the same or substantially similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the minimum area of competitive nature will be that area within a 5-mile radius of any client serviced by Franchisee. The ownership of not more than 2% of the voting stock of a publicly held corporation will not be considered a violation of the foregoing provision. The post-termination, non-competition covenants do not apply if Employee works for another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

6. Non-Solicitation of Clients. Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment and for two years thereafter, directly or indirectly, contact any client, former client, or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor for the purpose of soliciting such client to be a client of a business that is the same as or similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business, including to be a client of another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

7. Irreparable Harm. Employee hereby acknowledges and agrees that any breach by him or her of any portion of Sections 1 through 6 above, inclusive, will cause damage to Franchisee and Franchisor in an amount difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, in addition to any other relief to which Franchisee may be entitled, either Franchisee or Franchisor will be entitled to enforce this Agreement and to seek temporary, preliminary, and/or permanent injunctive relief for any breach or threatened breach by Employee of any of the terms of Section 1 through 6 above, inclusive, without proof of actual damages that have been or may be caused to Franchisee or Franchisor by such breach, and without the requirement of posting bond. The existence of a claim against Franchisee or Franchisor will not constitute a defense to enforce the covenants of this Agreement.

8. Modification. Employee hereby agrees that, without limitation, any modifications, alterations, changes, or improvements conceived, designed, devised, developed, perfected or made by Employee, whether alone or in conjunction with others, and related in any manner to the actual or anticipated operation of the Franchisee, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting system, or to any area of research and development related to the operation of the business, must be promptly disclosed to the Franchisee and will become the property of Franchisor, and Employee hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, and conveys any such to Franchisor.

9. Enforceability. If any portion of this Agreement will be held invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder of this Agreement will be considered valid and operative, and effect will be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

10. Survival of Covenants. All covenants made in this Agreement by Employee survive the termination of Employee's employment with Franchisee or the expiration, transfer, or termination of this Agreement.

11. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement may be amended in whole or in part only by an agreement in writing signed by both parties.

12. Attorneys' Fees. In the event any action in law or equity or any arbitration or other proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement or in connection with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties will be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and other costs reasonably incurred in such action or proceeding.

13. Counterpart and Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

14. Third-party Beneficiary. It is agreed and acknowledged that Franchisor is a third-party beneficiary to this Agreement.

FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Because you are becoming a part of the Paramount Tax® franchise system, it is important that you understand and acknowledge who is your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), and who is not.

You have been hired by _____ (Legal Name of Franchisee) (“Franchisee”), which is an independent franchise owner in the Paramount Tax® franchise system (which we call the “System”). Although Franchisee looks the same, has the same name, and is operated the same way as other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System, Franchisee is not part of the same company as those other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System. Paramount Franchising LLC is a completely separate company that owns the name and created the System. Paramount Franchising LLC has devised rules, systems of operation, and policies and procedures that all of its franchisees must follow, including Franchisee, which makes each independent franchise Paramount Tax® outlet look and operate the same way as one another. This way, Paramount Franchising LLC manages a System composed of many different franchisee owners, each of whom is independently responsible for operating its own Paramount Tax® outlet.

It is important that you understand that Franchisee is your only employer (or is the only party associated with the Paramount Tax® franchise system that hired you as an independent contractor). If you are an employee, then Franchisee gives you your paycheck, establishes your hours, and is responsible for all decisions relating to your employment relationship. If you are an independent contractor, then Franchisee compensates you, hires you for certain hours or tasks, and provides you with the job description for your services to Franchisee. Paramount Franchising LLC is not your employer and has not hired you to provide services related to the Paramount Tax® franchise system. If Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives ever give you direction, training, or advice, it is intended only to ensure that the experience of all customers of Paramount Tax® is the same at or through your place of work as it is at other Paramount Tax® outlets in the Paramount Tax® system. The fact that you are trained, or given direction or advice, by Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives does not somehow mean that Paramount Franchising LLC is your employer.

If you have any questions about your employment relationship or your contracted relationship or about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, please direct them to your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), Franchisee.

I have read this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and I understand it. I have had the opportunity to ask any questions that I have about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and those questions have been answered fully to my satisfaction.

MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Multi-Unit Development Agreement (this “MUDA”) is made between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____ (“Franchisee”) on the Effective Date.

Background Statement: On the same day as they execute this MUDA, Paramount Franchising and Franchisee have entered into a Franchise Agreement for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this MUDA have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Paramount Franchising and Franchisee desire that Franchisee develop multiple Paramount businesses.

1. Multi-Unit Commitment.

(a) Development Schedule; Fee. Franchisee shall develop and open Paramount businesses on the following schedule:

Location #	Deadline for Opening	Total # of Locations to be Open and Operating On Deadline	Initial Franchise Fee
1		1	$ _____
2		2	$ _____
3		3	$ _____
4		4	$ _____
Total Initial Franchise Fees:

(b) Payment. Upon execution of this MUDA, Franchisee shall pay the total Initial Franchise Fees for each franchise to be developed to Paramount Franchising. The Initial Franchise Fees are $40,000 for the first franchise and $25,000 for each subsequent franchise. The Initial Franchise Fees are non-refundable except as provided in Section 6.4 of the Franchise Agreement.

2. Form of Agreement. For Location #1, Franchisee and Paramount Franchising have executed the Franchise Agreement simultaneously with this MUDA. For each additional Paramount franchise, Franchisee shall execute Paramount Franchising’s then-current standard form franchise agreement as developed. This MUDA does not give Franchisee the right to construct, open, or operate a Paramount business, and Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee may construct, open, and operate each Paramount business only pursuant to a separate franchise agreement executed pursuant to this MUDA for each such Paramount business.

3. Development Area. Franchisee shall locate each Paramount business it develops under this MUDA within the following area: _____ (the “Development Area”). Franchisee acknowledges that it does not have exclusive rights to develop, open or operate Paramount businesses in the Development Area.

4. Default and Termination. Paramount Franchising may terminate this MUDA by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee fails to meet a deadline for opening a location as set forth in the development schedule; or
- (ii) Franchisee defaults and fails to cure under the terms of any one of its franchise agreements with Paramount Franchising.

Upon Termination of this MUDA, Franchisee’s rights under this MUDA are terminated, and Paramount Franchising may (among its other rights) sell the remaining development rights, sell franchises, or open locations in the Development Area. Additionally, Franchisee will forfeit all deposits made and any contractual rights to develop or purchase additional Paramount businesses within the Development Area.

5. Limitation of Liability. Franchisee’s commitment to develop Paramount businesses is in the nature of an option only. If Paramount Franchising terminates this MUDA for Franchisee’s default, Franchisee shall not be liable to Paramount Franchising for lost future revenues or profits from the unopened Paramount businesses.

6. Conditions. Franchisee’s right to develop each Paramount franchise after the Location #1 is subject to the following:

- (i) Franchisee must possess sufficient financial and organizational capacity to develop, open, operate, and manage each additional Paramount business, in the reasonable judgment of Paramount Franchising, and
- (ii) Franchisee must be in full compliance with all brand requirements at its open Paramount businesses and not in default under any Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with Paramount Franchising.

7. Dispute Resolution; Miscellaneous. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties. Franchisee shall not Transfer this MUDA without the prior written consent of Paramount Franchising, and any Transfer without Paramount Franchising’s prior written consent will be void. The provisions of Article 15 (Transfers), Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) and Article 18 (Miscellaneous) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this MUDA as if fully set forth herein. Nothing in this MUDA or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document.

This General Release (“Release”) is executed by _____ (“Releasor”) and _____ (“Personal Guarantor(s)”) (collectively, the “Releasing Parties”) in favor of Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising” or “Released Party”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Franchisee entered into a Paramount Tax® and Accounting franchise agreement on _____ with Franchisor (“Franchise Agreement”); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement was personally guaranteed by _____ and _____ (“Personal Guarantor(s)”); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement has been terminated effective as of _____.

1. Release. Releasing Parties (on behalf of itself, guarantors, and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective past and present officers, directors, shareholders, managers, members, partners, agents, and employees) hereby releases Paramount Franchising, its affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, employees, and agents from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, debts, agreements, promises, demands, liabilities, contractual rights and/or obligations, of whatever nature, known or unknown, which any Releasing Party now has or ever had against any Released Party based upon and/or arising out of events that occurred through the date hereof, including without limitation, anything arising out of the Franchise Agreement, the relationship described therein and any business transaction, agreement or occurrence, act or omission relating thereto prior to the date hereof. Releasing Parties further waive any and all state law provisions limiting the effect of a general release (collectively, “Claims”).

2. Covenant Not to Sue. Releasor (on behalf of all Releasing Parties) covenants not to initiate, prosecute, encourage, assist, or (except as required by law) participate in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding or investigation in any court, agency, or other forum, either affirmatively or by way of cross-claim, defense, or counterclaim, against any Released Party with respect to any Claim. In the event of a dispute related to this Release, the dispute resolution sections of the Franchise Agreement will apply and govern.

3. Non-Disparagement. Releasor covenants not to, in any way, form, or medium, disparage any of the Released Parties, the System, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting brand.

5. For California Residents. These releases are intended to waive, release and discharge all claims, other than those expressly reserved herein, with the express waiver of any statute, legal doctrine or other similar limitation upon the effect of general releases. In particular, the parties waive the benefit of any applicable statutory provision such as by illustration, California Civil Code Section 1542, which states:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

The parties, with the advice of their respective counsel, waive the benefit of both statute and other legal doctrine or principle of similar effect in any jurisdiction.

6. For Washington Residents. This Agreement does not apply with respect to claims arising under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and any rule or order adopted thereunder.

Franchisee, Personal Guarantor(s), and Franchisor hereby irrevocably consent to the exercise of general personal jurisdiction in the courts of record of the state of Utah even though it may be otherwise possible to obtain jurisdiction elsewhere, and we both agree that Salt Lake County, Utah will be the exclusive venue for any litigation between us. Each party waives any objection they may have to the personal jurisdiction of or venue in the state and federal courts of Salt Lake County, Utah.

7.3 Arbitration. In the event any controversy or dispute arises between the Parties hereto in connection with, arising from or with respect to the provisions hereof, the relationship of the Parties hereto, or the validity of this Agreement or any provision hereof, such dispute or controversy will, on the request of any Party hereto be submitted for arbitration to the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its commercial arbitration rules. The Parties agree that any claim hereunder will result in an award not more than 120 days from the date of the statement of claim filed with the American Arbitration Association, unless otherwise waived by the Parties. The award and findings of the arbitrators will be conclusive and binding upon all Parties hereto and the judgment upon the award may be entered in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

EXHIBIT I

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Investment law requires that a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise be delivered together with the disclosure document at least 14 days prior to the execution by the prospective franchisee of any binding franchise or other agreement, or at least 14 days prior to the receipt of any consideration, whichever occurs first, a copy of the disclosure document, together with a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise..
2. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
3. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
4. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
5. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
6. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake County, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake County, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
7. The franchise agreement requires application of the laws of Utah. This provision may not be enforceable under California law. You may want to consult an attorney to understand the impact of out-of-state governing law on the franchise agreement.
8. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
9. Neither franchisor nor any person listed in Item 2 of the disclosure document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling this or these persons from membership in such association or exchange.
10. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires the Franchisor to give the franchisee a disclosure document, in a form and containing such information as the Commissioner may by rule or order require, before a solicitation of a proposed modification of an existing franchise.
11. OUR WEBSITE at WWW.PARAMOUNT.TAX HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THE WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.
12. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.

13. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:

- (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
- (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
- (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
- (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

14. California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

15. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

16. Franchisee owners or greater must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

17. Item 6 under Late Fees is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

18. Item 19 is amended to include the following:

"The financial performance representations do not reflect the costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your franchised business. Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in this offering circular, may be one source of this information."

ADDENDUM TO THE FDD
FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Illinois law governs the franchise agreement(s).

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

By reading this disclosure document, you are not agreeing to, acknowledging, or making any representations whatsoever to the Franchisor and its affiliates.

STATE REGULATIONS FOR THE STATE OF INDIANA

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the disclosure document, the following provisions shall apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Indiana:

1. The prohibition by Indiana Code § 23-2-2.7-1(7) against unilateral termination of the franchise without good cause or in bad faith, good cause being defined therein as material breach of the Franchise Agreement, shall apply to the franchise agreement in the State of Indiana to the extent they may be inconsistent with such prohibition.

2. Liquidated damages and termination penalties are prohibited by law in the State of Indiana and, therefore, the disclosure document and franchise agreement are amended by the deletion of all references to liquidated damages and termination penalties and the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein:

“Notwithstanding any such termination, and in addition to the obligations of the Franchisee as otherwise provided, or in the event of termination or cancellation of the Franchise Agreement under any of the other provisions therein, the Franchisee nevertheless shall be, continue and remain liable to Franchisor for any and all damages which Franchisor has sustained or may sustain by reason of such default or defaults and the breach of the Franchise Agreement on the part of the Franchisee for the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement.

At the time of such termination of the Franchise Agreement, the Franchisee covenants to pay to Franchisor within 10 days after demand as compensation all damages, losses, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney’s fees) incurred by Franchisor, and/or amounts which would otherwise be payable thereunder but for such termination for and during the remainder of the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement. This Agreement does not constitute a waiver of the Franchisee’s right to a trial on any of the above matters.”

3. No release language set forth in the disclosure document or franchise agreement, shall relieve Franchisor or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of Indiana.

4. To the extent required by the franchise laws of the State of Indiana, the franchise agreement will be construed in accordance with the franchise laws of the State of Indiana.

5. The provisions of the franchise agreement pertaining to litigation jurisdiction and venue shall be amended to be within the scope of the requirements of the Indiana Franchise laws.

MARYLAND ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

ITEM 17 of the Disclosure Document is amended to add the following:

- A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
- The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its rights to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legal enforceable.
- Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.
- The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law.
- No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

1. The following information is added to the cover page of the Franchise Disclosure Document:

INFORMATION COMPARING FRANCHISORS IS AVAILABLE. CALL THE STATE ADMINISTRATORS LISTED IN EXHIBIT A OR YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR SERVICES OR INFORMATION. REGISTRATION OF THIS FRANCHISE BY NEW YORK STATE DOES NOT MEAN THAT NEW YORK STATE RECOMMENDS IT OR HAS VERIFIED THE INFORMATION IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. THE FRANCHISOR MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, THE FRANCHISOR CANNOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE TO ACCEPT TERMS WHICH ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. The following is to be added at the end of Item 3:

Except as provided above, with regard to the franchisor, its predecessor, a person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate offering franchises under the franchisor's principal trademark:

No such party has an administrative, criminal or civil action pending against that person alleging: a felony, a violation of a franchise, antitrust, or securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, misappropriation of property, unfair or deceptive practices, or comparable civil or misdemeanor allegations.

B. No such party has pending actions, other than routine litigation incidental to the business, which are significant in the context of the number of franchisees and the size, nature or financial condition of the franchise system or its business operations.

C. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or, within the 10-year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law; fraud; embezzlement; fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property; or unfair or deceptive practices or comparable allegations.

D. No such party is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order or decree relating to the franchise, or under a Federal, State, or Canadian franchise, securities, antitrust, trade regulation or trade practice law, resulting from a concluded or pending action or proceeding brought by a public agency; or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange; or is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to any other business activity as a result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including, without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales agent.

3. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled “Requirements for franchisee to renew or extend,” and Item 17(m), entitled “Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer”:

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by franchisee”: You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(v), titled “Choice of forum”, and Item 17(w), titled “Choice of law”:

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earlier of the first personal meeting, ten (10) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

By statute under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause or to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right give to him by any provision contained in the franchise. Accordingly, the Division requests that the franchisor add a Virginia Addendum to the FDD containing the following statements:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, any franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Paramount Franchising LLC for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

The following statements are added to Item 17(h):

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him under the franchise. If any provision of the Franchise Agreement involves the use of undue influence by the franchisor to induce a franchisee to surrender any rights given to the franchisee under the franchise, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Non-solicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Paragraph 19.1 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “but only to the extent necessary to prevent the invalidity of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof or the imposition of civil or criminal penalties or liability. To the extent permitted by the laws of the state whose laws govern this Agreement, You hereby waive any provisions of law or regulations which render any portion of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect.”

20. Paragraph 20.10 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “You represent and acknowledge that no agreements, representations, negotiations, promises, commitments, inducements, assurances, terms, conditions, or covenants of any nature exist between You and Us except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, whether pertaining to this Agreement or to any future, further or additional rights of either You or Us.”

21. Paragraph 20.11 of the franchise agreement is amended to clarify that for Washington franchisees, the Washington Addendum applies even if the Washington Addendum is not executed or not signed by the franchisor, franchisee, or both.

22. Sections 20.14, 20.18, and 20.22 of the franchise agreement do not apply in Washington.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.

FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California will be the California Investment law and the California Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
 - (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

10. Franchisee owners must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

11. Late Fees in Section 4.6(c) is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

12. Under California law, an agreement between a seller and a buyer regarding the price at which the buyer can resell a product (known as vertical price-fixing or resale price maintenance) is illegal. Therefore, requirements on franchisees to sell goods or services at specific prices set by the franchisor may be unenforceable.

13. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

INDIANA RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”) between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the franchise agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the franchise agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(6) Allowing for an increase in prices of goods provided by Paramount Franchising which Franchisee had ordered for private retail consumers prior to Franchisee's receipt of an official price increase notification. A sales contract signed by a private retail consumer shall constitute evidence of each order. Price changes applicable to new models of a product at the time of introduction of such new models shall not be considered a price increase. Price increases caused by conformity to a state or federal law, or the revaluation of the United States dollar in the case of foreign-made goods, are not subject to this subsection (6).

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the franchise agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a franchise agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the franchise agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the franchise agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

MARYLAND RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Addendum dated _____, by and between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company hereinafter referred to as “Franchisor” and _____, LLC/Inc., a hereinafter referred to as “Franchisee.”

1. A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective franchisees to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

Except as expressly amended or modified herein, all terms, provisions and conditions of the original Franchise Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Addendum and any provisions of the original Franchise Agreement, the provisions hereof shall in all respects govern and control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and by their signatures below, the Parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be effective as of the date listed above with the full authority of the Company principal they represent.

INDIANA RIDER TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Multi-Unit Development Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”), between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(6) Allowing for an increase in prices of goods provided by Paramount Franchising which Franchisee had ordered for private retail consumers prior to Franchisee's receipt of an official price increase notification. A sales contract signed by a private retail consumer shall constitute evidence of each order. Price changes applicable to new models of a product at the time of introduction of such new models shall not be considered a price increase. Price increases caused by conformity to a state or federal law, or the revaluation of the United States dollar in the case of foreign-made goods, are not subject to this subsection (6).

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a Multi-Unit Development Agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the Multi-Unit Development Agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

3. Effective Date. This Rider is effective as of the Effective Date.

MARYLAND RIDER TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Addendum dated _____, 20____, by and between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company hereinafter referred to as “Franchisor” and _____, LLC/Inc., a hereinafter collectively referred to as “Area Developer.”

1. An area developer may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective area developers to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. This development agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

Except as expressly amended or modified herein, all terms, provisions and conditions of the original Multi-Unit Development Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Addendum and any provisions of the original Multi-Unit Development Agreement, the provisions hereof shall in all respects govern and control.

(Franchise Agreement Section 8.1, 7.1 and paragraph 7.3(a)).

E. Initial Training Program. We will conduct our initial training program. (Franchise Agreement Section 6.4).

F. Operating Manual. We will give you access to our manual. (Franchise Agreement Section 5.1).

(2) Length of Time to Open

The typical length of time between signing the franchise agreement and the opening of your business is one month. Factors that may affect the time period include your ability to obtain a lease, obtaining financing, obtaining business permits and licenses, hiring employees, shortages, or delayed installation of equipment, fixtures, and signs.

(3) Assistance During Operation

During the operation of your franchise business:

A. Developing Products or Services You Will Offer to Your Clients. Although it is our intent and practice to refine and develop products or services that you will offer to your clients, the franchise agreement does not obligate us to do so.

B. Employment Matters. We do not assist you with the hiring, firing, discipline, scheduling, management, compensation, supervision, assignment of duties, work rules, safety, or working conditions of your employees. That is your responsibility. We may provide you with a sample employee guide or manual and suggested staffing levels, but if we do, it will only be an example of certain employment matters that you may adopt or not. It is your responsibility to comply with state and federal employment laws. (Franchise Agreement Section 7.5). In order to maintain uniformity of our systems and services and to protect our confidential information, you cannot allow an employee or contractor to perform bookkeeping, tax or accounting work other than through your business while employed or contracted by you. (Franchise Agreement Paragraph 7.5(c)).

C. Provide Continuing Assistance. If you request, we will provide advice to you (by telephone or electronic communication) regarding improving and developing your business, and resolving operating problems you encounter, to the extent we deem reasonable. If we provide in-person support in response to your request, we may charge a fee (currently, $600 per day), plus any out-of-pocket expenses (such as travel, lodging, and meals for our employees providing onsite support). (Franchise Agreement Paragraph 7.6(a)).

(4) Advertising and Promotion

A. Your Own Advertising Material. You may use your own advertising or marketing material only with our approval. To obtain our approval, you must submit any proposed advertising or marketing material at least 14 days prior to use. If we do not respond, the material is deemed rejected. If you develop any advertising or marketing materials, we may use those materials for any purpose, without any payment to you. (Franchise Agreement Section 9.1).

B. Advertising Council. We do not have an advertising council composed of franchisees.

C. Local or Regional Advertising Cooperatives. We do not currently have any local or regional advertising cooperatives, but we have the right to require you to participate in a local or regional advertising cooperative. We will define the area of the cooperative based on media markets, or other geographic criteria that we deem appropriate. The amount you must contribute to the cooperative will be determined by vote of the members, but not less than 1% of gross sales. We do not anticipate that we or an affiliate of ours would ever control voting of an advertising cooperative, but in such a case, there is no cap to member contributions. Your contributions to the marketing cooperative will be counted towards your local marketing contribution. If our own outlets are members of a cooperative, they must contribute to the fund on the same basis as franchisees. Unless otherwise determined by us, the activities of a cooperative will be determined by a majority vote of its members in good standing. We have the right to require the cooperative to operate from written bylaws or other governing documents that we determine. The documents are not currently available for you to review. Cooperatives are not required to prepare annual financial statements or make such statements available to its members for review. We have the power to require cooperatives to be formed, changed, dissolved, or merged. (Franchise Agreement Section 9.3).

You will be required to pay a reasonable training fee (currently $1,500 per person) and will be responsible to pay all applicable travel, living and other expenses of your attendees or our representatives as applicable. You are required to pay any applicable the registration fees, as well as travel, and living expenses for your attendees. In-person conferences and seminars will be held at locations chosen by us. (Franchise Agreement Section 5.6).

TERRITORY

(1) Territory Protection

We grant you an exclusive territory meaning that we will not open a Paramount Tax & Accounting outlet, nor license or franchise another party to open a Paramount Tax & Accounting outlet in your territory. The continuation of your territorial protection does not depend on achieving a certain sales volume, market penetration, or another contingency.

(2) Your Location

Your franchise is for a specific location approved by us.

(3) Grant of Territory

Your franchise agreement will specify a territory which will be determined by us. Your territory will be made up of one or more ZIP codes. We generally grant territories with a population base of approximately 100,000 people. We have the right to designate the name of each territory and to change the name designation of a territory. You may only provide services to clients at your location, virtually, or as otherwise directed by us. Unless otherwise approved or required by us, you may not make sales by any other means, including without limitation by wholesale, by delivery, by mail order or over the Internet, or at temporary or satellite locations.

(4) Territory Division

We have found that once an office reaches approximately 3,500 clients or an average of 3,000 clients, the service of that office can diminish due to the increased workload, and client attrition can be more widespread. Therefore, once you reach 3,500 clients or maintain an average of 3,000 clients over a 12-month period, we can require you to open a second outlet in your territory, and your original territory will be divided into two separate territories. In such case, you may have one or more territories with less than 100,000 people, but the culmination of the population for all your territories will still be approximately 100,000 people. You would also be required to sign a new franchise agreement for the additional location, but the initial franchise fee will only be $10,000 for this additional franchise, and you would be required to purchase an additional startup package for that additional territory.

(5) Relocation; Establishment of Additional Outlets

You do not have the right to relocate your business, and we have no obligation to approve any request for relocation. Our policy is to approve relocation of a franchisee's business on case-by-case basis, considering factors such as changes in demographics, profitability of your current business, or a loss of your premises due to circumstances beyond your control.

You do not have the right to establish additional franchised outlets or expand into additional territories. If you desire to establish additional franchised outlets, you must (1) meet our then-current criteria for new franchisees as well as our then-current criteria for multi-unit franchisees, (2) be in compliance with your franchise agreement at all times since opening your business, (3) have demonstrated your capability to operate the franchise successfully, and (4) sign our then-current franchise agreement.

(6) Options to Acquire Additional Franchises

You do not receive any options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

(7) Adjustment of Territory Boundaries

We reserve the right to adjust your territory boundaries if a government body revises the ZIP codes that make up your territory, or if the population in your territory increases to a population of more than 150,000 people. In such case, we may readjust the boundaries of your territory, including the assigned ZIP codes for your territory, but any adjustment will not result in your territory(ies) having less than a population base of approximately 100,000 people.

(8) Other

(i) Restrictions on Us from Soliciting or Accepting Orders in Your Territory.

There are no restrictions on us from soliciting or accepting orders from consumers inside your territory. We reserve the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, websites, social media, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales within your territory using our principal trademarks or using trademarks different from the ones you will use under your franchise agreement. We do not pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders from inside your territory.

(ii) Soliciting by You Outside Your Territory

You can advertise outside your territory, so long as you do not advertise in another franchise or affiliate-owned territory. There are no restrictions on you accepting clients from outside of your territory. For example, direct referrals to other clients from existing clients or referral partners will be permitted anywhere in the country regardless of who owns the area. We reserve the right to control all Internet-based marketing.

(iii) Competition by Us Under Different Trademarks

Neither we, nor any of our affiliates operates, franchises, or has plans to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark selling goods or services similar to those you will offer. However, the franchise agreement does not prohibit us from doing so.

(9) Multi-Unit Development Agreements

As a multi-unit developer, you will be assigned a limited, non-exclusive development area over which you will have development authority. You may face competition from other franchisees, from units that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. The size of your development area is to be negotiated. The written boundaries will be included in your multi-unit development agreement. The schedule of units to be developed in your development area are negotiated between you and us. To maintain your territorial development rights, you must develop the number of franchise businesses by the deadlines listed in your development schedule. After you have identified a potential site for a location, we must approve the location. Our approval will be based on our then-current standards for that franchise business pursuant to your franchise agreement.

There are no restrictions on us from soliciting or accepting orders from consumers inside your development area. We reserve the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, websites, social media, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales within your development area using our principal trademarks or using trademarks different from the ones you will use under your franchise agreement. We do not pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders from inside your development area.

It may be modified only by mutual consent of the parties. It may be terminated by our affiliate only if we materially misuse the trademarks and fail to correct the misuse within 60 days of notice. The intercompany license agreement specifies that if it is ever terminated, your franchise rights will remain unaffected.

(8) Protection of Rights

We protect your right to use the principal trademarks listed in this Item and protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition arising out of your use of the trademarks, to the extent described in this section.

The franchise agreement obligates you to notify us of the use of, or claims of rights to, a trademark identical to or confusingly similar to a trademark licensed to you. The franchise agreement does not require us to take affirmative action when notified of these uses or claims. We have the right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed by us to you.

If you use our trademarks in accordance with the franchise agreement, then (i) we shall defend you (at our expense) against any legal action by a third party alleging infringement by your use of the trademark, and (ii) we will indemnify you for expenses and damages if the legal action is resolved unfavorably to you.

Under the franchise agreement, we may require you to modify or discontinue using a trademark, at your expense.

(9) Superior Prior Rights and Infringing Uses

We do not know of either superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the principal trademarks.

We have no obligation to protect any of our copyrights or to defend you against claims arising from your use of copyrighted items. Item 18 PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchise. However, we reserve the right to use public figures in the future.

Item 19 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

Gross Sales/Expenses/Net Income

The tables below represent an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets and 30 of our franchised outlets that completed at least one full tax season before 2024 and who operated for all of 2024.

We had 45-46 outlets that are not included because they did not complete at least one full tax season before the beginning of 2024 or did not operate for all of 2024. Franchisees typically have different start dates and experience other types of volatility in their first tax season; whereas franchisees that have completed at least one full tax season before the beginning of the year generally have more uniform operations in the reporting year.

We also had 15 outlets that are not included in this Item 19 because they did not operate on a full-time basis in 2024, and part-time franchisees are not included in our offered franchise model. Additionally, we did not include 7 franchisees that had signed franchise agreements but who had not yet opened as of the end of 2024.

Company Owned/Affiliate Outlets

The table below represents an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets in Draper, Utah and Port St. Lucie, Florida from January 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024. We only have 2 affiliate owned outlets. As of December 31, 2024, our Draper, Utah outlet had been operating for more than 10 years, and our Port St. Lucie, Florida outlet had been operating for less than 3 years.

¹ Draper Gross Sales. Most of the gross sales in 2024 for our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet was from tax consulting. Our franchisees are allowed to provide tax consulting as well, but most of the tax consulting performed by our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet involved mineral property donations and conservation easements for high income producing clients, and the IRS and state taxing authorities may phase out this deduction in the near future.

² Draper Royalties. Our Draper, Utah outlet pays us royalties on all tax and accounting work it performs but not tax consulting work. In 2024, gross sales generated from tax and accounting work was $1,017,140.

Notes

1. Gross Sales. “Gross sales” means the total dollar amount of all sales generated by an outlet for a given period, including payment for any services or products sold, whether for cash or credit and the value of any services bartered or done on trade. Gross sales do not include (i) bona fide refunds to clients, (ii) sales taxes collected, (iii) sale of used equipment not in the ordinary course of business, or (iv) sales of prepaid cards or similar products (but the redemption of any such card or product will be included in gross sales).
2. Average. “Average” means the sum of all data points in a set, divided by the number of data points in that set.
3. Median. “Median” means the data point that is in the center of all data points used. That number is found by examining the total number of data points and finding the middle number in that set. In the event the number of data points is an odd number, the median will be the center number. If the dataset contains an even number of data points, the median is reached by taking the 2 numbers in the middle, adding them together, and dividing by 2.
4. Outlet Characteristics. Our affiliate owned outlets and all franchised outlets listed in the tables above offer similar products and services to what new franchisees would offer. Each outlet is in a metropolitan area.
5. Other Expenses. The term “other expenses” includes general and administrative expenses along with direct costs that did not include sales and marketing expenses.

Some outlets have earned this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you will earn as much.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to the prospective franchisee upon reasonable request.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, Paramount Franchising LLC does not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Jon Wilhelm, CPA at Jon@Paramount.tax, 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, and 801-341-2300, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

Franchisee must provide to Paramount Franchising Veteran ID cards, a DD-214, and other documentation to provide proof of honorable discharged status.

4.2 Royalty Fee. Franchisee shall pay Paramount Franchising a monthly royalty fee (the "Royalty Fee") equal to 10% of Gross Sales. The Royalty Fee for any given month is due on the 5th day of the following month.

4.3 Marketing Cooperative Contributions. If the Business participates in a Marketing Cooperative, then Franchisee shall contribute to the Marketing Cooperative a percentage of Gross Sales (or other amount) determined by the Market Cooperative.

4.4 Non-Compliance Fee. Paramount Franchising may charge Franchisee $250 for any instance of non-compliance with the System Standards or this Agreement (other than Franchisee's non-payment of a fee owed to Paramount Franchising). If such non-compliance is ongoing, Paramount Franchising may charge Franchisee $250 per week until Franchisee ceases such non-compliance. This fee is a reasonable estimate of Paramount Franchising's internal cost of personnel time attributable to addressing the non-compliance and is not a penalty or estimate of all damages arising from Franchisee's breach. The non-compliance fee is in addition to all Paramount Franchising's other rights and remedies; non-compliance is considered a default of this Agreement.

4.5 Reimbursement. Paramount Franchising may (but is never obligated to) pay on Franchisee's behalf any amount that Franchisee owes to a supplier or other third party. If Paramount Franchising does so or intends to do so, Franchisee shall pay such amount plus a 10% administrative charge to Paramount Franchising within 15 days after invoice by Paramount Franchising accompanied by reasonable documentation.

4.6 Payment Terms.

(a) Method of Payment. Franchisee shall pay the Royalty Fee, and any other amounts owed to Paramount Franchising by pre-authorized bank draft or in such other manner as Paramount Franchising may require. Paramount's current ACH agreement is attached hereto as Attachment 7 and may be modified by Paramount at any time at its sole discretion. Franchisee must have an active ACH agreement with Paramount Franchising at all times. Before terminating or canceling any active ACH agreement, Franchisee must provide a new ACH agreement to Paramount Franchising so that there is no time in which Paramount Franchising does not have the ability to automatically withdraw or debit all payments and Fees due and owing to Paramount Franchising. Franchisee shall pay all service charges and fees charged by Franchisee's bank for Paramount Franchising to electronically debit Franchisee's bank account.

(b) Calculation of Fees. Franchisee shall report monthly Gross Sales to Paramount Franchising by the 5th day of the following month. Gross Sales will be determined by the use of the accounting software that Paramount Franchising chooses. Franchisee shall use this accounting software for its reporting requirements, such that the calculation of the Royalty Fee will be available to the Franchisor by the 5th day of each month for the prior month. The amount calculated for the Royalty Fee will be withdrawn through ACH. If Franchisee fails to report monthly Gross Sales, then Paramount Franchising may withdraw estimated Royalty Fees equal to 125% of the last Gross Sales reported to Paramount Franchising, and the parties will true-up the actual fees after Franchisee reports Gross Sales. Franchisee acknowledges that Paramount Franchising has the right to remotely access Franchisee's point-of-sale system and to calculate Gross Sales. Franchisee will also provide information as to the number of tax returns completed each month, as well as the total number of clients. This information will also be required on the 5th day of the month.

(c) Late Fees and Interest. If Franchisee does not make a payment on time, Franchisee shall pay a $100 late fee plus interest on the unpaid amount at a rate equal to 18% per year (or, if such payment exceeds the maximum allowed by law, then interest at the highest rate allowed by law).

(d) Insufficient Funds. Paramount Franchising may charge $50 for any payment returned for insufficient funds (or, if such amount exceeds the maximum allowed by law, then the fee allowed by law).

(e) Costs of Collection. Franchisee shall repay any costs incurred by Paramount Franchising (Including reasonable attorney fees) in attempting to collect payments owed by Franchisee.

(f) Application. Paramount Franchising may apply any payment received from Franchisee to any obligation and in any order as Paramount Franchising may determine, regardless of any designation by Franchisee.

(g) Obligations Independent; No Set-Off. The obligations of Franchisee to pay to Paramount Franchising any fees or amounts described in this Agreement are not dependent on Paramount Franchising's performance and are independent covenants by Franchisee. Franchisee shall make all such payments without offset or deduction.

4.7 Optional Programs. Franchisee understands and agrees that Paramount Franchising has developed optional programs for which there may be a fee paid to a third party or to Paramount Franchising. In such case, the provisions of this Article 4 will apply to all such payments. Additionally, Paramount Franchising may develop additional optional and/or mandatory programs. This Section 4.7 will also apply to programs developed in the future.

4.8 Marketing, SEO (Search Engine Optimization), and Website Management Fee. A monthly fee of $300 (or the then-current fee) is to be paid to Paramount Franchising or (at Paramount Franchising's sole discretion) paid directly to a third party vendor for services related to the franchisee's website. These services may include SEO (search engine optimization), marketing services, website changes, PPC (pay per click) campaigns, etc. This fee/payment will count towards Franchisee's local marketing contribution.

4.9 Email Account(s) Fee. Franchisee shall pay Paramount Franchising or its designated supplier a monthly email account fee of $5 to $30 (currently). This fee may increase based on increased costs and maintenance. This fee is paid annually and is due upon the creation of the email address(es) and the annual renewal date each year thereafter.

4.10 Conferences and Seminars. Paramount Franchising has the discretion to conduct conferences and seminars, which may be through online webinars, videos, live video conferencing, phone conferences or in person, to discuss improvements, new developments, mutual concerns, business issues, sales, Marketing, personnel training, bookkeeping, accounting, inventory control and performance standards. Attendance at conferences and seminars is optional at this time, but Paramount Franchising reserves the right to make a conference or seminar mandatory for Franchisee's Principal Executive. Franchisee is required to pay any applicable registration fees (currently $0 to $2,000 per attendee), as well as travel and living expenses for Franchisee's attendees. In-person conferences and seminars will be held at locations chosen by Paramount Franchising.

ARTICLE 5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

5.1 Intellectual Property and Confidential Information. Franchisee acknowledges that: 1) Paramount Franchising has the sole rights in and to the Intellectual Property and Confidential Information; 2) Franchisee's right to use the System is granted by Paramount Franchising solely pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; and 3) as between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising, Paramount Franchising has the sole right to license and control Confidential Information and Intellectual Property. Paramount Franchising's Intellectual Property and Confidential Information provided to Franchisee by or through Paramount Franchising will remain Paramount Franchising's sole property. Franchisee acknowledges that Paramount Franchising's Confidential Information and Intellectual Property are unique and/or confidential and contain trade secrets and other material proprietary to Paramount Franchising.

5.2 Use of Confidential Information and Intellectual Property. Franchisee has a non-exclusive right to use the Confidential Information and Intellectual Property and only in connection with the Business and in accordance with Paramount Franchising's Manuals and this Agreement. Franchisee understands and agrees that the use of Paramount Franchising's Confidential Information, Intellectual Property, and goodwill are all temporary benefits and expire with the Termination. - (viii) the Business fully complies with all of Paramount Franchising's most recent System Standards, Including upgrading and Remodel requirements.

15.3 Transfer for Convenience of Ownership. If Franchisee is an individual, Franchisee may Transfer this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company formed for the convenience of ownership after at least 15 days' prior written notice to Paramount Franchising, if, prior to the Transfer: (1) the transferee provides the information required by Section 2.3; (2) Franchisee provides copies the entity's charter documents, by-laws (or operating agreement) and similar documents, if requested by Paramount Franchising, (3) Franchisee owns all voting securities of the corporation or limited liability company, and (4) Franchisee provides a guaranty in accordance with Section 2.5.

15.4 Transfer upon Death or Incapacity. Upon the death or incapacity of Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is an entity, the person with the largest ownership interest in Franchisee), the executor, administrator, or personal representative of that person must Transfer the Business to a third party approved by Paramount Franchising within nine months after death or incapacity. Such Transfer must comply with Section 15.2.

15.5 Paramount Franchising's Right of First Refusal. Before Franchisee (or any owner) engages in a Transfer (except under Section 15.3 or Section 15.4), Paramount Franchising will have a right of first refusal, as set forth in this Section. Franchisee (or its owners) shall provide to Paramount Franchising a copy of the terms and conditions of any Transfer. For a period of 30 days from the date of Paramount Franchising's receipt of such copy, Paramount Franchising will have the right, exercisable by notice to Franchisee, to purchase the Business or the assets subject of the proposed Transfer for the same price and on the same terms and conditions (except that Paramount Franchising may substitute cash for any other form of payment). If Paramount Franchising does not exercise its right of first refusal, Franchisee may proceed with the proposed Transfer, subject to the other terms and conditions of this Article. However, if there are any material changes in the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer and any of those changes are less favorable to Franchisee, Franchisee shall notify Paramount Franchising of the changes in writing, and Paramount Franchising will have an additional 10 days within which to elect to purchase the assets proposed to be Transferred on the revised terms and conditions. If the proposed Transfer is not completed for any reason after Paramount Franchising elects not to purchase the assets being Transferred, a new right of first refusal commences as to any subsequent proposed Transfer by Franchisee.

15.6 No Sublicense. Franchisee has no right to sublicense the Marks or any of Franchisee's rights under this Agreement.

15.7 No Lien on Agreement. Franchisee shall not grant a security interest in this Agreement to any person or entity. If Franchisee grants an "all assets" security interest to any lender or other secured party, Franchisee shall cause the secured party to expressly exempt this Agreement from the security interest.

ARTICLE 16. INDEMNITY

16.1 Indemnity. Franchisee shall indemnify and defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Paramount Franchising) Paramount Franchising, its parent entities, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assignees (collectively, “Indemnitees”) against all Losses in any Action by or against Paramount Franchising and/or any Indemnatee directly or indirectly related to, or alleged to arise out of, the operation of the Business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee shall not be obligated to indemnify an Indemnatee from claims arising as a result of any Indemnatee’s misconduct or negligence. Franchisee agrees not to file any crossclaim or counterclaim against Paramount Franchising for any action made by a third-party or make any response that would infer or represent Paramount Franchising is liable as a party or defendant to any action that is contrary to this Section. This Agreement and the terms in this Section and related terms in this Agreement is a bona fide defense to any claim Franchisee may contradictorily make against Paramount Franchising as to Paramount Franchising’s liability or proportion of fault. Franchisee shall bear all costs to defend Paramount Franchising from claims raised by a third party. If Paramount Franchising incurs any costs or liabilities to any third party, Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for costs associated with Paramount Franchising’s defense to those claims. This indemnity will continue in effect after this Agreement ends.

16.2 Assumption by Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may elect to assume the defense and/or settlement of any Action subject to this indemnification, at Franchisee’s expense. Such an undertaking will not diminish Franchisee’s obligation to indemnify the Indemnitees.

17.1 Arbitration.

(a) Disputes Subject to Arbitration. Except as expressly provided in subsection (c), any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, will be resolved by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, Including the Optional Rules for Emergency Measures of Protection. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

(b) Location. The place of arbitration will be held in Salt Lake County, Utah or the county and state where Paramount Franchising’s then-current headquarters are located.

(c) Injunctive Relief. Either party may apply to the arbitrator seeking injunctive relief until the arbitration award is rendered or the controversy is otherwise resolved. Either party also may, without waiving any remedy or right to arbitrate under this Agreement, seek from any court having jurisdiction any interim or provisional injunctive relief.

(d) Confidentiality. All documents, information, and results pertaining to any arbitration or lawsuit will be confidential, except as required by law or as required for Paramount Franchising to comply with laws and regulations applicable to the sale of franchises.

(e) Performance During Arbitration or Litigation. Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall comply with this Agreement and perform their respective obligations under this Agreement during the arbitration or litigation process.

17.2 Damages. In any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each party waives any right to punitive or other monetary damages not measured by the prevailing party’s actual damages, except damages authorized by federal statute. In the event of Termination of this Agreement prior

the expiration of the term, Paramount Franchising's actual damages will include its lost future income from Royalty Fees and other amounts that Franchisee would have owed to Paramount Franchising but for the Termination.

17.3 Waiver of Class Actions. The parties agree that any claims will be arbitrated, litigated, or otherwise resolved on an individual basis, and waive any right to act on a class-wide basis.

17.4 Time Limitation. Any arbitration or other legal action arising from or related to this Agreement must be instituted within two years from the date such party discovers the conduct or event that forms the basis of the arbitration or other legal action. The foregoing time limit does not apply to claims (i) by one party related to non-payment under this Agreement by the other party, (ii) for indemnity under Article 16, or (iii) related to unauthorized use of Confidential Information or the Marks.

17.5 Venue Other Than Arbitration. For any legal proceeding not required to be submitted to arbitration, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the United States District Court of Salt Lake County, Utah or where Paramount Franchising's then-current headquarters is located. If there is no federal jurisdiction over the dispute, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the court of record of the state and county where Paramount Franchising's headquarters is then located. Each party consents to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection that it, he or she may have to the laying of venue of any proceeding in any of these courts.

17.6 Legal Costs. In any legal proceeding (including arbitration) related to this Agreement or any guaranty, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's attorney fees, costs and other expenses of the legal proceeding. "Prevailing party" means the party, if any, which prevailed upon the central litigated issues and obtained substantial relief.

ARTICLE 18. MISCELLANEOUS

18.1 Relationship of the Parties. The parties are independent contractors, and neither is the agent, partner, joint venturer, or employee of the other. Paramount Franchising is not a fiduciary of Franchisee and does not control Franchisee or its Business. Paramount Franchising has no liability for Franchisee's obligations to any third party whatsoever.

18.2 No Third-party Beneficiaries. This Agreement does not confer any rights or remedies upon any person or entity other than Franchisee, Paramount Franchising, and Paramount Franchising's affiliates.

18.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties related to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior negotiations and representations whether oral or in writing. Nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made by Paramount Franchising in its franchise disclosure document.

18.4 Modification. No modification or amendment of this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both parties. This provision does not limit Paramount Franchising's rights to modify the Manual or System Standards.

18.5 Consent; Waiver. No consent under this Agreement, and no waiver of satisfaction of a condition or nonperformance of an obligation under this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the party granting the consent or waiver. No waiver by a party of any right will affect the party's rights as to any subsequent exercise of that right or any other right. No delay, forbearance or omission by a party to exercise any right will constitute a waiver of such right.

18.6 Cumulative Remedies. Rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative. No enforcement of a right or remedy precludes the enforcement of any other right or remedy.

18.7 Severability. The parties intend that (i) if any provision of this Agreement is held by an arbitrator or court to be unenforceable, then that provision be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, unless that modification is not permitted by law, in which case that provision will be disregarded, and (ii) if an unenforceable provision is modified or disregarded, then the rest of this Agreement will remain in effect as written.

18.8 Governing Law. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties.

18.9 Notices. Any notice will be effective under this Agreement only if made in writing and delivered as set forth in this Section to: (A) if to Franchisee, addressed to Franchisee at the notice address set forth in the Summary Page; and (B) if to Paramount Franchising, addressed to 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, with a copy to The Franchise & Business Law Group at 222 S. Main Street, Ste 500, Salt Lake City, Utah 84101 (which will not act as notice or service). Any party may designate a new address for notices by giving notice of the new address pursuant to this Section. Notices will be effective upon receipt (or first rejection) and must be: (1) delivered personally; (2) sent by registered or certified U.S. mail with return receipt requested; (3) by email upon receipt of transmission verification; or (4) sent via overnight courier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Paramount Franchising may amend the Manual, give binding notice of changes to System Standards, and deliver notices of default by electronic mail or other electronic communication.

18.10 Joint and Several Liability. If two or more people sign this Agreement as “Franchisee,” each will have joint and several liability.

18.11 No Offer and Acceptance. Delivery of a draft of this Agreement to Franchisee by Paramount Franchising does not constitute an offer. This Agreement shall not be effective unless and until it is executed by both Franchisee and Paramount Franchising.

18.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

GUARANTY AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

This Guaranty and Non-Compete Agreement (this “Guaranty”) is entered into and made effective by and between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and the undersigned person(s) (each, a “Guarantor”) owners of _____ (the “Business Entity”).

Background Statement: Business Entity (“Franchisee”) desires to enter into a Franchise Agreement with Paramount Franchising for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this Guaranty have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Guarantor owns an equity interest in Franchisee. Guarantor is executing this Guaranty in order to induce Paramount Franchising to enter into the Franchise Agreement.

Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Guaranty. Guarantor hereby unconditionally guarantees to Paramount Franchising and its successors and assigns that Franchisee shall pay and perform every undertaking, agreement and covenant set forth in the Franchise Agreement and further guarantees every other liability and obligation of Franchisee to Paramount Franchising, whether or not contained in the Franchise Agreement. Guarantor shall render any payment or performance required under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising upon demand from Paramount Franchising. Guarantor waives (a) acceptance and notice of acceptance by Paramount Franchising of this Guaranty; (b) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations of Franchisee; (c) protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; (d) any right Guarantor may have to require that an action be brought against Franchisee or any other person or entity as a condition of liability hereunder; (e) all rights to payments and claims for reimbursement or subrogation which any of the undersigned may have against Franchisee arising as a result of the execution of and performance under this Guaranty by the undersigned; (f) any law which requires that Paramount Franchising make demand upon, assert claims against or collect from Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor), foreclose any security interest, sell collateral, exhaust any remedies or take any other action against Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor) prior to making any demand upon, collecting from or taking any action against the undersigned with respect to this Guaranty; and (g) any and all other notices and legal or equitable defenses to which Guarantor may be entitled.

2. Confidential Information. With respect to all Confidential Information Guarantor shall (a) adhere to all security procedures prescribed by Paramount Franchising for maintaining confidentiality, (b) disclose such information to its employees only to the extent necessary for the operation of the Business; (c) not use any such information in any other business or in any manner not specifically authorized or approved in writing by Paramount Franchising, (d) exercise the highest degree of diligence and make every effort to maintain the confidentiality of all such information during and after the term of the Franchise Agreement, (e) not copy or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information, and (f) promptly report any unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information. Guarantor acknowledges that all Confidential Information is owned by Paramount Franchising or its affiliates (except for any Confidential Information, which Paramount Franchising licenses from another person or entity). Guarantor acknowledges that all Customer Data generated or obtained by Guarantor is Confidential Information belonging to Paramount Franchising. This Section will survive the Termination of the Franchise Agreement indefinitely.

3. Covenants Not to Compete and Non-Solicitation of Clients.

(a) Restriction - In Term. During the term of the Franchise Agreement, Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged, assist, consult or be employed by, any Competing Business.

(b) Restriction – Post Term. For two years after the Franchise Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged or employed by, any Competing Business located within Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of the territory of any other Paramount business operating on the date of Termination or Transfer, as applicable.

(c) Interpretation. Guarantor agrees that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Guaranty or the Franchise Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Section is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by any court, then parties intend that the court modify such restriction to extent reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Paramount Franchising. Guarantor agrees that the existence of any claim it or Franchisee may have against Paramount Franchising shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Paramount Franchising of the covenants of this Section. If Guarantor fails to comply with the obligations under this Section during the restrictive period, then the restrictive period will be tolled for each day of noncompliance.

(d) Non-Solicitation of Clients. For three years after the Franchise Agreement is Terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly contact any then-current or former client of Franchisee, or of another franchisee or affiliate of Paramount Franchising for the purpose of soliciting from any such client any business that is the same as or substantially similar to services performed by a Paramount business.

4. Enforcement Costs. If Paramount Franchising must enforce this Guaranty in any judicial or arbitration proceeding or any appeals, Guarantor(s) shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for its enforcement costs. Enforcement costs Include reasonable fees from accountants, attorneys, attorney's assistants, arbitrators, and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, arbitration filing fees, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses, whether incurred before, in preparation for, or in contemplation of the filing of any written demand, claim, action, hearing or proceeding to enforce this Guaranty.

5. Modification. Guarantor agrees that Guarantor's liability hereunder will not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by (a) any amendment of the Franchise Agreement, (b) any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which Paramount Franchising may from time to time grant to Franchisee or to any other person or entity, or (c) the acceptance of any partial payment or performance or the compromise or release of any claims.

6. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution. This Guaranty will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Utah. The provisions of Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this Guaranty as if fully set forth herein. If multiple Guarantors sign this Guaranty, each will have joint and several liability.

7. Counterparts. This Guaranty may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is entered into as of _____, between _____ ("Franchisee") and _____ ("Employee"), residing at _____.

A. Franchisee is the holder of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise developed by Paramount Franchising LLC ("Franchisor").

B. Franchisor has developed certain confidential and proprietary information for the operation of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, including without limitation, processes, methods, client lists and data, trade secrets, systems, software, pricing, financial information, client data and lists, manuals, marketing techniques, and procedures ("Proprietary Information").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the employment of Employee by Franchisee, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Acknowledgement. Employee acknowledges that during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee he or she has obtained or may obtain knowledge of the Proprietary Information and other confidential matters and procedures developed, licensed to or owned by Franchisor and made available to Franchisee, which are necessary and essential to the operation of the business of Franchisee, which without such information, Franchisee could not efficiently, effectively and profitably operate its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise. Employee further acknowledges that such Proprietary Information was not known to him or her prior to the association with Franchisee or its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise.

2. Non-Use, Non-Disclosure. Except as may be required in the performance of duties for Franchisee, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, use, or disclose to any third party, or authorize any third party to use any portion of the Proprietary Information, and agrees not to copy, transmit, recreate or otherwise reproduce all of any part of the Proprietary Information at any time. Should Employee work for a different Paramount Tax & Accounting franchisee, Employee shall not share with or use with such new employer any client data for any client or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor. For the purposes of this Agreement, a "prospective client" does not mean any possible client. It means a potential client who has been engaged in some way, or has provided some personal information, or has elected to receive some communication, but who has not yet done business to be considered an actual client.

2.1 No Reverse Engineering. Employee shall not, either personally, in concert with others or through other authorization, reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct or attempt to reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct any portion of the Proprietary Information.

3. Duty to Notify. Employee agrees to notify Franchisor or Franchisee or Employee's immediate superiors of any reasonably suspected attempts to violate the terms or purposes of this Agreement or to otherwise disclose, copy, or reproduce any part of the Proprietary Information. In the event it is discovered that Employee knew or had reason to know of any suspected attempts to violate this Agreement and fails to report such knowledge, Employee agrees to indemnify Franchisor and Franchisee for all costs and fees associated with enforcement, and to reimburse Franchisor and Franchisee for those losses sustained due to such violation. Employee agrees to cooperate with Franchisor and Franchisee in its

or their attempts to enforce the terms of this Agreement and to otherwise protect the Proprietary Information, and to cooperate with Franchisee and Franchisor to the extent Franchisee is obligated to cooperate with Franchisor's attempts to enforce its rights in and to the Proprietary Information.

4. Return of Materials. Immediately upon the termination of employment, Employee agrees to deliver to Franchisee (and shall not keep in his or her possession or deliver to anyone else whether in hard or electronic soft copy) any and all records, data, photographs, notes, manuals, lists, correspondence, specifications, materials, other documents or property, or reproductions relating to, directly or indirectly, to the Proprietary Information.

5. Management and Supervisor Employees. This Section 5 shall only apply if Employee is a management employee and/or acts in a supervisory role over other employees.

5.1 Non-Competition. Subject to applicable law, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee, and for one year thereafter, directly or indirectly in any capacity, without Franchisee's prior written consent, engage in a business, or plan for or organize a business, or have any financial interest in, or become and owner, officer, director, shareholder, partner, associate, employee, contractor, agent, representative or consultant in any offering or selling products or services the same or substantially similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the minimum area of competitive nature will be that area within a 5-mile radius of any client serviced by Franchisee. The ownership of not more than 2% of the voting stock of a publicly held corporation will not be considered a violation of the foregoing provision. The post-termination, non-competition covenants do not apply if Employee works for another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

6. Non-Solicitation of Clients. Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment and for two years thereafter, directly or indirectly, contact any client, former client, or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor for the purpose of soliciting such client to be a client of a business that is the same as or similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business, including to be a client of another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

7. Irreparable Harm. Employee hereby acknowledges and agrees that any breach by him or her of any portion of Sections 1 through 6 above, inclusive, will cause damage to Franchisee and Franchisor in an amount difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, in addition to any other relief to which Franchisee may be entitled, either Franchisee or Franchisor will be entitled to enforce this Agreement and to seek temporary, preliminary, and/or permanent injunctive relief for any breach or threatened breach by Employee of any of the terms of Section 1 through 6 above, inclusive, without proof of actual damages that have been or may be caused to Franchisee or Franchisor by such breach, and without the requirement of posting bond. The existence of a claim against Franchisee or Franchisor will not constitute a defense to enforce the covenants of this Agreement.

8. Modification. Employee hereby agrees that, without limitation, any modifications, alterations, changes, or improvements conceived, designed, devised, developed, perfected or made by Employee, whether alone or in conjunction with others, and related in any manner to the actual or anticipated operation of the Franchisee, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting system, or to any area of research and development related to the operation of the business, must be promptly disclosed to the Franchisee and will become the property of Franchisor, and Employee hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, and conveys any such to Franchisor.

9. Enforceability. If any portion of this Agreement will be held invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder of this Agreement will be considered valid and operative, and effect will be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

10. Survival of Covenants. All covenants made in this Agreement by Employee survive the termination of Employee's employment with Franchisee or the expiration, transfer, or termination of this Agreement.

11. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement may be amended in whole or in part only by an agreement in writing signed by both parties.

12. Attorneys' Fees. In the event any action in law or equity or any arbitration or other proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement or in connection with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties will be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and other costs reasonably incurred in such action or proceeding.

13. Counterpart and Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

14. Third-party Beneficiary. It is agreed and acknowledged that Franchisor is a third-party beneficiary to this Agreement.

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE OR SHE HAS READ THIS AGREEMENT AND UNDERSTANDS ITS CONTENTS.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement effective as of the day and year first herein above written.

FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Because you are becoming a part of the Paramount Tax® franchise system, it is important that you understand and acknowledge who is your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), and who is not.

You have been hired by _____ (Legal Name of Franchisee) (“Franchisee”), which is an independent franchise owner in the Paramount Tax® franchise system (which we call the “System”). Although Franchisee looks the same, has the same name, and is operated the same way as other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System, Franchisee is not part of the same company as those other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System. Paramount Franchising LLC is a completely separate company that owns the name and created the System. Paramount Franchising LLC has devised rules, systems of operation, and policies and procedures that all of its franchisees must follow, including Franchisee, which makes each independent franchise Paramount Tax® outlet look and operate the same way as one another. This way, Paramount Franchising LLC manages a System composed of many different franchisee owners, each of whom is independently responsible for operating its own Paramount Tax® outlet.

It is important that you understand that Franchisee is your only employer (or is the only party associated with the Paramount Tax® franchise system that hired you as an independent contractor). If you are an employee, then Franchisee gives you your paycheck, establishes your hours, and is responsible for all decisions relating to your employment relationship. If you are an independent contractor, then Franchisee compensates you, hires you for certain hours or tasks, and provides you with the job description for your services to Franchisee. Paramount Franchising LLC is not your employer and has not hired you to provide services related to the Paramount Tax® franchise system. If Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives ever give you direction, training, or advice, it is intended only to ensure that the experience of all customers of Paramount Tax® is the same at or through your place of work as it is at other Paramount Tax® outlets in the Paramount Tax® system. The fact that you are trained, or given direction or advice, by Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives does not somehow mean that Paramount Franchising LLC is your employer.

If you have any questions about your employment relationship or your contracted relationship or about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, please direct them to your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), Franchisee.

I have read this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and I understand it. I have had the opportunity to ask any questions that I have about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and those questions have been answered fully to my satisfaction.

MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Multi-Unit Development Agreement (this “MUDA”) is made between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____ (“Franchisee”) on the Effective Date.

Background Statement: On the same day as they execute this MUDA, Paramount Franchising and Franchisee have entered into a Franchise Agreement for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this MUDA have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Paramount Franchising and Franchisee desire that Franchisee develop multiple Paramount businesses.

1. Multi-Unit Commitment.

(a) Development Schedule; Fee. Franchisee shall develop and open Paramount businesses on the following schedule:

Location #	Deadline for Opening	Total # of Locations to be Open and Operating On Deadline	Initial Franchise Fee
1		1	$ _____
2		2	$ _____
3		3	$ _____
4		4	$ _____
Total Initial Franchise Fees:

(b) Payment. Upon execution of this MUDA, Franchisee shall pay the total Initial Franchise Fees for each franchise to be developed to Paramount Franchising. The Initial Franchise Fees are $40,000 for the first franchise and $25,000 for each subsequent franchise. The Initial Franchise Fees are non-refundable except as provided in Section 6.4 of the Franchise Agreement.

2. Form of Agreement. For Location #1, Franchisee and Paramount Franchising have executed the Franchise Agreement simultaneously with this MUDA. For each additional Paramount franchise, Franchisee shall execute Paramount Franchising’s then-current standard form franchise agreement as developed. This MUDA does not give Franchisee the right to construct, open, or operate a Paramount business, and Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee may construct, open, and operate each Paramount business only pursuant to a separate franchise agreement executed pursuant to this MUDA for each such Paramount business.

3. Development Area. Franchisee shall locate each Paramount business it develops under this MUDA within the following area: _____ (the “Development Area”). Franchisee acknowledges that it does not have exclusive rights to develop, open or operate Paramount businesses in the Development Area.

4. Default and Termination. Paramount Franchising may terminate this MUDA by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee fails to meet a deadline for opening a location as set forth in the development schedule; or
- (ii) Franchisee defaults and fails to cure under the terms of any one of its franchise agreements with Paramount Franchising.

Upon Termination of this MUDA, Franchisee’s rights under this MUDA are terminated, and Paramount Franchising may (among its other rights) sell the remaining development rights, sell franchises, or open locations in the Development Area. Additionally, Franchisee will forfeit all deposits made and any contractual rights to develop or purchase additional Paramount businesses within the Development Area.

5. Limitation of Liability. Franchisee’s commitment to develop Paramount businesses is in the nature of an option only. If Paramount Franchising terminates this MUDA for Franchisee’s default, Franchisee shall not be liable to Paramount Franchising for lost future revenues or profits from the unopened Paramount businesses.

6. Conditions. Franchisee’s right to develop each Paramount franchise after the Location #1 is subject to the following:

- (i) Franchisee must possess sufficient financial and organizational capacity to develop, open, operate, and manage each additional Paramount business, in the reasonable judgment of Paramount Franchising, and
- (ii) Franchisee must be in full compliance with all brand requirements at its open Paramount businesses and not in default under any Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with Paramount Franchising.

7. Dispute Resolution; Miscellaneous. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties. Franchisee shall not Transfer this MUDA without the prior written consent of Paramount Franchising, and any Transfer without Paramount Franchising’s prior written consent will be void. The provisions of Article 15 (Transfers), Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) and Article 18 (Miscellaneous) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this MUDA as if fully set forth herein. Nothing in this MUDA or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Franchisee entered into a Paramount Tax® and Accounting franchise agreement on _____ with Franchisor ("Franchise Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement was personally guaranteed by _____ and _____ ("Personal Guarantor(s)"); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement has been terminated effective as of _____.

Releasing Parties further waive any and all state law provisions limiting the effect of a general release (collectively, "Claims").

2. Covenant Not to Sue. Releasor (on behalf of all Releasing Parties) covenants not to initiate, prosecute, encourage, assist, or (except as required by law) participate in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding or investigation in any court, agency, or other forum, either affirmatively or by way of cross-claim, defense, or counterclaim, against any Released Party with respect to any Claim. In the event of a dispute related to this Release, the dispute resolution sections of the Franchise Agreement will apply and govern.

3. Non-Disparagement. Releasor covenants not to, in any way, form, or medium, disparage any of the Released Parties, the System, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting brand.

5. For California Residents. These releases are intended to waive, release and discharge all claims, other than those expressly reserved herein, with the express waiver of any statute, legal doctrine or other similar limitation upon the effect of general releases. In particular, the parties waive the benefit of any applicable statutory provision such as by illustration, California Civil Code Section 1542, which states:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

The parties, with the advice of their respective counsel, waive the benefit of both statute and other legal doctrine or principle of similar effect in any jurisdiction.

6. For Washington Residents. This Agreement does not apply with respect to claims arising under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and any rule or order adopted thereunder.

Franchisee, Personal Guarantor(s), and Franchisor hereby irrevocably consent to the exercise of general personal jurisdiction in the courts of record of the state of Utah even though it may be otherwise possible to obtain jurisdiction elsewhere, and we both agree that Salt Lake County, Utah will be the exclusive venue for any litigation between us. Each party waives any objection they may have to the personal jurisdiction of or venue in the state and federal courts of Salt Lake County, Utah.

7.3 Arbitration. In the event any controversy or dispute arises between the Parties hereto in connection with, arising from or with respect to the provisions hereof, the relationship of the Parties hereto, or the validity of this Agreement or any provision hereof, such dispute or controversy will, on the request of any Party hereto be submitted for arbitration to the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its commercial arbitration rules. The Parties agree that any claim hereunder will result in an award not more than 120 days from the date of the statement of claim filed with the American Arbitration Association, unless otherwise waived by the Parties. The award and findings of the arbitrators will be conclusive and binding upon all Parties hereto and the judgment upon the award may be entered in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

EXHIBIT I

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Investment law requires that a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise be delivered together with the disclosure document at least 14 days prior to the execution by the prospective franchisee of any binding franchise or other agreement, or at least 14 days prior to the receipt of any consideration, whichever occurs first, a copy of the disclosure document, together with a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise..
2. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
3. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
4. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
5. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
6. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake County, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake County, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
7. The franchise agreement requires application of the laws of Utah. This provision may not be enforceable under California law. You may want to consult an attorney to understand the impact of out-of-state governing law on the franchise agreement.
8. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
9. Neither franchisor nor any person listed in Item 2 of the disclosure document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling this or these persons from membership in such association or exchange.
10. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires the Franchisor to give the franchisee a disclosure document, in a form and containing such information as the Commissioner may by rule or order require, before a solicitation of a proposed modification of an existing franchise.
11. OUR WEBSITE at WWW.PARAMOUNT.TAX HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THE WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.
12. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.

13. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:

- (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
- (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
- (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
- (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

14. California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

15. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

16. Franchisee owners or greater must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

17. Item 6 under Late Fees is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

18. Item 19 is amended to include the following:

"The financial performance representations do not reflect the costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your franchised business. Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in this offering circular, may be one source of this information."

ADDENDUM TO THE FDD
FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Illinois law governs the franchise agreement(s).

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

By reading this disclosure document, you are not agreeing to, acknowledging, or making any representations whatsoever to the Franchisor and its affiliates.

STATE REGULATIONS FOR THE STATE OF INDIANA

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the disclosure document, the following provisions shall apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Indiana:

1. The prohibition by Indiana Code § 23-2-2.7-1(7) against unilateral termination of the franchise without good cause or in bad faith, good cause being defined therein as material breach of the Franchise Agreement, shall apply to the franchise agreement in the State of Indiana to the extent they may be inconsistent with such prohibition.

2. Liquidated damages and termination penalties are prohibited by law in the State of Indiana and, therefore, the disclosure document and franchise agreement are amended by the deletion of all references to liquidated damages and termination penalties and the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein:

“Notwithstanding any such termination, and in addition to the obligations of the Franchisee as otherwise provided, or in the event of termination or cancellation of the Franchise Agreement under any of the other provisions therein, the Franchisee nevertheless shall be, continue and remain liable to Franchisor for any and all damages which Franchisor has sustained or may sustain by reason of such default or defaults and the breach of the Franchise Agreement on the part of the Franchisee for the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement.

At the time of such termination of the Franchise Agreement, the Franchisee covenants to pay to Franchisor within 10 days after demand as compensation all damages, losses, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney’s fees) incurred by Franchisor, and/or amounts which would otherwise be payable thereunder but for such termination for and during the remainder of the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement. This Agreement does not constitute a waiver of the Franchisee’s right to a trial on any of the above matters.”

3. No release language set forth in the disclosure document or franchise agreement, shall relieve Franchisor or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of Indiana.

4. To the extent required by the franchise laws of the State of Indiana, the franchise agreement will be construed in accordance with the franchise laws of the State of Indiana.

5. The provisions of the franchise agreement pertaining to litigation jurisdiction and venue shall be amended to be within the scope of the requirements of the Indiana Franchise laws.

MARYLAND ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

ITEM 17 of the Disclosure Document is amended to add the following:

- The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
- A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
- The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its rights to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legal enforceable.
- Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.
- The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law.
- No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its rights to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. NEW YORK ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

1. The following information is added to the cover page of the Franchise Disclosure Document:

INFORMATION COMPARING FRANCHISORS IS AVAILABLE. CALL THE STATE ADMINISTRATORS LISTED IN EXHIBIT A OR YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR SERVICES OR INFORMATION. REGISTRATION OF THIS FRANCHISE BY NEW YORK STATE DOES NOT MEAN THAT NEW YORK STATE RECOMMENDS IT OR HAS VERIFIED THE INFORMATION IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. IF YOU LEARN THAT ANYTHING IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT IS UNTRUE, CONTACT THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION AND THE APPROPRIATE STATE OR PROVINCIAL AUTHORITY. THE FRANCHISOR MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, THE FRANCHISOR CANNOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE TO ACCEPT TERMS WHICH ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. The following is to be added at the end of Item 3:

Except as provided above, with regard to the franchisor, its predecessor, a person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate offering franchises under the franchisor's principal trademark:

A. No such party has an administrative, criminal or civil action pending against that person alleging: a felony, a violation of a franchise, antitrust, or securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, misappropriation of property, unfair or deceptive practices, or comparable civil or misdemeanor allegations.

B. No such party has pending actions, other than routine litigation incidental to the business, which are significant in the context of the number of franchisees and the size, nature or financial condition of the franchise system or its business operations.

C. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or, within the 10-year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law; fraud; embezzlement; fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property; or unfair or deceptive practices or comparable allegations.

D. No such party is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order or decree relating to the franchise, or under a Federal, State, or Canadian franchise, securities, antitrust, trade regulation or trade practice law, resulting from a concluded or pending action or proceeding brought by a public agency; or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange; or is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to any other business activity as a result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including, without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales agent.

3. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled “Requirements for franchisee to renew or extend,” and Item 17(m), entitled “Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer”:

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by franchisee”: You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(v), titled “Choice of forum”, and Item 17(w), titled “Choice of law”:

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or upon the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

7. Receipts. Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. § 680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earlier of the first personal meeting, ten (10) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

By statute under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause or to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him by any provision contained in the franchise. Accordingly, the Division requests that the franchisor add a Virginia Addendum to the FDD containing the following statements:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, any franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Paramount Franchising LLC for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

The following statements are added to Item 17(h):

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him under the franchise. If any provision of the Franchise Agreement involves the use of undue influence by the franchisor to induce a franchisee to surrender any rights given to the franchisee under the franchise, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Non-solicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Paragraph 19.1 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “but only to the extent necessary to prevent the invalidity of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof or the imposition of civil or criminal penalties or liability. To the extent permitted by the laws of the state whose laws govern this Agreement, You hereby waive any provisions of law or regulations which render any portion of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect.”

20. Paragraph 20.10 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “You represent and acknowledge that no agreements, representations, negotiations, promises, commitments, inducements, assurances, terms, conditions, or covenants of any nature exist between You and Us except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, whether pertaining to this Agreement or to any future, further or additional rights of either You or Us.”

21. Paragraph 20.11 of the franchise agreement is amended to clarify that for Washington franchisees, the Washington Addendum applies even if the Washington Addendum is not executed or not signed by the franchisor, franchisee, or both.

22. Sections 20.14, 20.18, and 20.22 of the franchise agreement do not apply in Washington.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.

FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California will be the California Investment law and the California Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
 - (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

10. Franchisee owners must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

11. Late Fees in Section 4.6(c) is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

12. Under California law, an agreement between a seller and a buyer regarding the price at which the buyer can resell a product (known as vertical price-fixing or resale price maintenance) is illegal. Therefore, requirements on franchisees to sell goods or services at specific prices set by the franchisor may be unenforceable.

INDIANA RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”) between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the franchise agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the franchise agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the franchise agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a franchise agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the franchise agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the franchise agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

MARYLAND RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Addendum dated _____, by and between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company hereinafter referred to as “Franchisor” and _____, LLC/Inc., a hereinafter referred to as “Franchisee.”

1. A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective franchisees to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

Except as expressly amended or modified herein, all terms, provisions and conditions of the original Franchise Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Addendum and any provisions of the original Franchise Agreement, the provisions hereof shall in all respects govern and control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and by their signatures below, the Parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be effective as of the date listed above with the full authority of the Company principal they represent.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

INDIANA RIDER TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Multi-Unit Development Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”), between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

revaluation of the United States dollar in the case of foreign-made goods, are not subject to this subsection (6).

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a Multi-Unit Development Agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the Multi-Unit Development Agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

3. Effective Date. This Rider is effective as of the Effective Date.

MARYLAND RIDER TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Addendum dated _____, 20____, by and between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company hereinafter referred to as “Franchisor” and _____, LLC/Inc., a hereinafter collectively referred to as “Area Developer.”

1. An area developer may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective area developers to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. This development agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

Except as expressly amended or modified herein, all terms, provisions and conditions of the original Multi-Unit Development Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Addendum and any provisions of the original Multi-Unit Development Agreement, the provisions hereof shall in all respects govern and control.

A. Post-Opening Training. We may at any time require that your principal executive or other personnel complete training programs in any format and at any location as determined by us. You will be required to pay a reasonable training fee (currently $1,500 per person) and will be responsible to pay all applicable travel, living and other expenses of your attendees or our representatives as applicable. We may also require you to provide training programs to your employees. (Franchise Agreement Section 7.6).

B. Conferences and Seminars. At our discretion, we may conduct conferences and seminars, which may be through online webinars, videos, live video conferencing, phone conferences or in person, to discuss improvements, new developments, mutual concerns, business issues, sales, marketing, personnel training, bookkeeping, accounting, inventory control and performance standards. (Franchise Agreement Section 5.6).

Item 12

TERRITORY

(1) Territory Protection

We grant you an exclusive territory meaning that we will not open a Paramount Tax & Accounting outlet, nor license or franchise another party to open a Paramount Tax & Accounting outlet in your territory. The continuation of your territorial protection does not depend on achieving a certain sales volume, market penetration, or another contingency.

(2) Your Location

Your franchise is for a specific location approved by us.

(3) Grant of Territory

Your franchise agreement will specify a territory which will be determined by us. Your territory will be made up of one or more ZIP codes. We generally grant territories with a population base of approximately 100,000 people. We have the right to designate the name of each territory and to change the name designation of a territory. You may only provide services to clients at your location, virtually, or as otherwise directed by us. Unless otherwise approved or required by us, you may not make sales by any other means, including without limitation by wholesale, by delivery, by mail order or over the Internet, or at temporary or satellite locations.

(4) Territory Division

We have found that once an office reaches approximately 3,500 clients or an average of 3,000 clients, the service of that office can diminish due to the increased workload, and client attrition can be more widespread. Therefore, once you reach 3,500 clients or maintain an average of 3,000 clients over a 12-month period, we can require you to open a second outlet in your territory, and your original territory will be divided into two separate territories. In such case, you may have one or more territories with less than 100,000 people, but the culmination of the population for all your territories will still be approximately 100,000 people. You would also be required to sign a new franchise agreement for the additional location, but the initial franchise fee will only be $10,000 for this additional franchise, and you would be required to purchase an additional startup package for that additional territory.

(5) Relocation; Establishment of Additional Outlets

You do not have the right to relocate your business, and we have no obligation to approve any request for relocation. Our policy is to approve relocation of a franchisee's business on case-by-case basis, considering factors such as changes in demographics, profitability of your current business, or a loss of your premises due to circumstances beyond your control.

You do not have the right to establish additional franchised outlets or expand into additional territories. If you desire to establish additional franchised outlets, you must (1) meet our then-current criteria for new franchisees as well as our then-current criteria for multi-unit franchisees, (2) be in compliance with your franchise agreement at all times since opening your business, (3) have demonstrated your capability to operate the franchise successfully, and (4) sign our then-current franchise agreement.

(6) Options to Acquire Additional Franchises

You do not receive any options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

(7) Adjustment of Territory Boundaries

We reserve the right to adjust your territory boundaries if a government body revises the ZIP codes that make up your territory, or if the population in your territory increases to a population of more than 150,000 people. In such case, we may readjust the boundaries of your territory, including the assigned ZIP codes for your territory, but any adjustment will not result in your territory(ies) having less than a population base of approximately 100,000 people.

(8) Other

(i) Restrictions on Us from Soliciting or Accepting Orders in Your Territory.

There are no restrictions on us from soliciting or accepting orders from consumers inside your territory. We reserve the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, websites, social media, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales within your territory using our principal trademarks or using trademarks different from the ones you will use under your franchise agreement. We do not pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders from inside your territory.

(ii) Soliciting by You Outside Your Territory

You can advertise outside your territory, so long as you do not advertise in another franchise or affiliate-owned territory. There are no restrictions on you accepting clients from outside of your territory. For example, direct referrals to other clients from existing clients or referral partners will be permitted anywhere in the country regardless of who owns the area. We reserve the right to control all Internet-based marketing.

(iii) Competition by Us Under Different Trademarks

Neither we, nor any of our affiliates operates, franchises, or has plans to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark selling goods or services similar to those you will offer. However, the franchise agreement does not prohibit us from doing so.

(9) Multi-Unit Development Agreements

As a multi-unit developer, you will be assigned a limited, non-exclusive development area over which you will have development authority. You may face competition from other franchisees, from units that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. The size of your development area is to be negotiated. The written boundaries will be included in your multi-unit development agreement. The schedule of units to be developed in your development area are negotiated between you and us. To maintain your territorial development rights, you must develop the number of franchise businesses by the deadlines listed in your development schedule. After you have identified a potential site for a location, we must approve the location. Our approval will be based on our then-current standards for that franchise business pursuant to your franchise agreement.

There are no restrictions on us from soliciting or accepting orders from consumers inside your development area. We reserve the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, websites, social media, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales within your development area using our principal trademarks or using trademarks different from the ones you will use under your franchise agreement. We do not pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders from inside your development area.

It may be modified only by mutual consent of the parties. It may be terminated by our affiliate only if we materially misuse the trademarks and fail to correct the misuse within 60 days of notice. The intercompany license agreement specifies that if it is ever terminated, your franchise rights will remain unaffected.

(8) Protection of Rights

We protect your right to use the principal trademarks listed in this Item and protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition arising out of your use of the trademarks, to the extent described in this section.

The franchise agreement obligates you to notify us of the use of, or claims of rights to, a trademark identical to or confusingly similar to a trademark licensed to you. The franchise agreement does not require us to take affirmative action when notified of these uses or claims. We have the right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed by us to you.

If you use our trademarks in accordance with the franchise agreement, then (i) we shall defend you (at our expense) against any legal action by a third party alleging infringement by your use of the trademark, and (ii) we will indemnify you for expenses and damages if the legal action is resolved unfavorably to you.

Under the franchise agreement, we may require you to modify or discontinue using a trademark, at your expense.

(9) Superior Prior Rights and Infringing Uses

We do not know of either superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the principal trademarks.

Item 14

PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

(1) Patents

We do not own rights in, or licenses to, patents that are material to the franchise.

(2) Copyrights

All our original works of authorship fixed in a tangible medium of expression are automatically protected under the U.S. Copyright Act, whether or not we have obtained registrations. This includes our operating manual as well as all other sales, training, management and other materials that we have created or will create. You may use these copyrighted materials during the term of the franchise, in a manner consistent with our ownership rights, solely for the purpose of your franchised business.

We do not have any registered copyrights. There are no pending copyright applications for our copyrighted materials. There are no currently effective determinations of the U.S. Copyright Office (Library of Congress) or any court regarding any copyright.

(3) Agreements

Our affiliate owns all of the copyrights described in this Item 14. Under an intercompany license agreement between us and our affiliate entered into in 2018, we have been granted the exclusive right to sublicense the copyrighted materials to franchisees throughout the United States for 50 years with renewal periods of 25 years. It may be modified only by mutual consent of the parties. It may be terminated by our affiliate only if we materially misuse the copyrights and fail to correct the misuse within 60 days of notice. The intercompany license agreement specifies that if it is ever terminated, your franchise rights will remain unaffected.

There are no agreements currently in effect that limit our right to use or license the use of our copyrighted materials.

(4) Protection of Rights

We have no obligation to protect any of our copyrights or to defend you against claims arising from your use of copyrighted items. The franchise agreement does not require us to take affirmative action when notified of copyright infringement. We control any copyright litigation. We are not required to participate in the defense of a franchisee or indemnify a franchisee for expenses or damages in a proceeding involving a copyright licensed to the franchisee. We may require you to modify or discontinue using the subject matter covered by any of our copyrights.

We do not know of any copyright infringement that could materially affect you.

(5) Proprietary Information

We have proprietary, confidential manuals and related materials that include guidelines, standards and policies for the development and operation of your business. We also claim proprietary rights in other confidential information or trade secrets that include all methods for developing and operating the business, and all non-public plans, data, financial information, processes, vendor pricing, supply systems, marketing systems, formulas, techniques, designs, layouts, operating procedures, client data, information and know-how.

You must protect the confidentiality of our manuals and other proprietary information and use our confidential information only for your franchised business. We require your owners and key employees to sign confidentiality agreements.

(6) Improvements to the System

Any improvements you make to the system will be owned by us and considered a “work-made-for-hire” or will otherwise be assigned to us.

Item 15

(1) Your Participation

You must designate one person as your “principal executive.” If you as the franchisee are an individual, the principal executive is you personally, if you as the franchisee are an entity, the principal

The principal executive must also complete any post-opening training programs that we develop in the future. The principal executive cannot fail to attend more than 3 consecutive required meetings.

(2) “On-Premises” Supervision

There is no limit on who you can hire as an on-premises supervisor.

You, your partners, directors, members, shareholders, and principal executive must sign our standard principal brand protection agreement agreeing to protect and keep confidential our trade secrets and confidential information and to conform with the covenants not to compete described in Item 17. Your employees will also be required to sign a brand protection agreement, and that agreement also imposes certain non-competition restrictions on management employees. Some states may impose certain restrictions on non-competition agreements. We provide you with this form, but it is your responsibility to conform it to the laws and regulations of your state.

Additionally, if you have the proper licensing as required by your state, we may approve of you providing auditing services and other types of consulting services to your clients. Depending on state law, these fees will be considered part of your gross sales, and thus, included in the calculation of your ongoing royalty payment.

We do not restrict your access to clients, and you may accept referrals from anywhere in the country, even if that client is in another franchisee's territory. However, you are not permitted to market in another franchisee's or affiliate- owned territory.

Item 18 PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchise. However, we reserve the right to use public figures in the future.

Item 19 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

Gross Sales/Expenses/Net Income

The tables below represent an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets and 30 of our franchised outlets that completed at least one full tax season before 2024 and who operated for all of 2024.

We had 45-46 outlets that are not included because they did not complete at least one full tax season before the beginning of 2024 or did not operate for all of 2024. Franchisees typically have different start dates and experience other types of volatility in their first tax season; whereas franchisees that have completed at least one full tax season before the beginning of the year generally have more uniform operations in the reporting year.

We also had 15 outlets that are not included in this Item 19 because they did not operate on a full-time basis in 2024, and part-time franchisees are not included in our offered franchise model. Additionally, we did not include 7 franchisees that had signed franchise agreements but who had not yet opened as of the end of 2024.

Company Owned/Affiliate Outlets

The table below represents an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets in Draper, Utah and Port St. Lucie, Florida from January 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024. We only have 2 affiliate owned outlets. As of December 31, 2024, our Draper, Utah outlet had been operating for more than 10 years, and our Port St. Lucie, Florida outlet had been operating for less than 3 years.

¹ Draper Gross Sales. Most of the gross sales in 2024 for our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet was from tax consulting. Our franchisees are allowed to provide tax consulting as well, but most of the tax consulting performed by our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet involved mineral property donations and conservation easements for high income producing clients, and the IRS and state taxing authorities may phase out this deduction in the near future.

² Draper Royalties. Our Draper, Utah outlet pays us royalties on all tax and accounting work it performs but not tax consulting work. In 2024, gross sales generated from tax and accounting work was $1,017,140.

Notes

1. Gross Sales. “Gross sales” means the total dollar amount of all sales generated by an outlet for a given period, including payment for any services or products sold, whether for cash or credit and the value of any services bartered or done on trade. Gross sales do not include (i) bona fide refunds to clients, (ii) sales taxes collected, (iii) sale of used equipment not in the ordinary course of business, or (iv) sales of prepaid cards or similar products (but the redemption of any such card or product will be included in gross sales).
2. Average. “Average” means the sum of all data points in a set, divided by the number of data points in that set.
3. Median. “Median” means the data point that is in the center of all data points used. That number is found by examining the total number of data points and finding the middle number in that set. In the event the number of data points is an odd number, the median will be the center number. If the dataset contains an even number of data points, the median is reached by taking the 2 numbers in the middle, adding them together, and dividing by 2.
4. Outlet Characteristics. Our affiliate owned outlets and all franchised outlets listed in the tables above offer similar products and services to what new franchisees would offer. Each outlet is in a metropolitan area.
5. Other Expenses. The term “other expenses” includes general and administrative expenses along with direct costs that did not include sales and marketing expenses.

Some outlets have earned this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you will earn as much.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to the prospective franchisee upon reasonable request.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, Paramount Franchising LLC does not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Jon Wilhelm, CPA at Jon@Paramount.tax, 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, and 801-341-2300, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

11.3 Paramount Franchising's Right to Cure. If Franchisee breaches or defaults under any provision of this Agreement with regards to an obligation to a third party, Paramount Franchising may (but has no obligation to) take any action to cure the default on behalf of Franchisee, without any liability to Franchisee. Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for its costs and expenses (Including the allocation of any internal costs) for such action, plus 10% as an administrative fee.

11.4 Right to Discontinue Supplies Upon Default. While Franchisee is in default or breach of this Agreement, Paramount Franchising may (i) require that Franchisee pay cash on delivery for products or services supplied by Paramount Franchising, (ii) stop selling or providing any products and services to Franchisee, and/or (iii) request any third-party vendors to not sell or provide products or services to Franchisee. No such action by Paramount Franchising shall be a breach or constructive termination of this Agreement, change in competitive circumstances or similarly characterized, and Franchisee shall not be relieved of any obligations under this Agreement because of any such action. Such rights of Paramount Franchising are in addition to any other right or remedy available to Paramount Franchising.

11.5 Business Data. All client data, the Manual and other non-public data generated by the Business, Including any data generated through the use of technology and third party platforms (collectively "Business Data") is Confidential Information and is exclusively owned by Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising hereby licenses such data back to Franchisee without charge solely for Franchisee's use in connection with the Business for the term of this Agreement. Franchisee must gather, upload, and/or store all Business Data Paramount Franchising requires. To the extent that Paramount Franchising does not otherwise have access, Franchisee must provide Paramount Franchising copies of all Business Data upon request, except if the distribution of any such information is prohibited by law. Franchisee must abide by all applicable laws pertaining to the privacy of consumer, employee and transaction information, client, and client tax information, do-not-contact laws as well as any applicable fiduciary obligations owed to clients, clients and third parties. If Paramount Franchising allows Franchisee to use the Business Data to transmit advertisements to clients and potential clients, Franchisee is solely responsible to comply with the laws pertaining to calling or texting clients, the sending of emails, or any other transmission of information, Including any anti-spam legislation. Any part of the Manual may not be copied either physically or electronically. Paramount Franchising will have unlimited access to Franchisee's computer system, including Franchisee's server (physical and/or cloud-based). If Paramount Franchising provides Franchisee with an email account/address, Paramount Franchising will own such email account and have the right to access Franchisee's email account at any time, and Franchisee understands and acknowledges that Franchisee has no expectation of privacy in the assigned email accounts.

11.6 Delegation. Paramount Franchising may delegate any duty or obligation of Paramount Franchising under this Agreement to a third party.

11.7 System Variations. Paramount Franchising may vary or waive any System Standard for any one or more Paramount franchises due to the peculiarities of the particular site or circumstances, density of population, business potential, population of trade area, existing business practices, or any other condition relevant to the performance of a franchise or group of franchises. Franchisee is not entitled to the same variation or waiver.

11.8 Temporary Public Safety Closure. If Paramount Franchising discovers or becomes aware of any aspect of the Business which, in Paramount Franchising's opinion, constitutes an imminent danger to the health or safety of any person, then immediately upon Paramount Franchising's order, Franchisee must temporarily cease operations of the Business and remedy the dangerous condition. Paramount Franchising shall have no liability to Franchisee or any other person for action or failure to act with respect to a dangerous condition.

11.9 Interim Management. Paramount Franchising has the right, based on Franchisee's death, incapacity, defaults or poor performance to step in to manage Franchisee's Business for a period of time, as Paramount Franchising deems advisable for a fee (currently, $600 per day), plus the cost of travel, food, and lodging during this time. Franchisee shall continue to pay and remain responsible for all royalties, and other fees required by this Agreement. All accounts must remain in Franchisee's name during the interim management period, but Franchisee shall add Paramount Franchising and its representative as a co-signer on certain accounts. Franchisee shall cooperate in communicating with all vendors and suppliers related to the interim management.

12.1 Infringement.

(a) Defense of Franchisee. If Franchisee has used the Marks in accordance with this Agreement, then (i) Paramount Franchising shall defend Franchisee (at Paramount Franchising's expense) against any Action by a third party alleging infringement by Franchisee's use of a Mark, and (ii) Paramount Franchising shall indemnify Franchisee for expenses and damages if the Action is resolved unfavorably to Franchisee.

(b) Infringement By Third Party. Franchisee shall promptly notify Paramount Franchising if Franchisee becomes aware of any possible infringement of a Mark by a third party. Paramount Franchising may, in its sole discretion, commence or join any claim against the infringing party.

(c) Control. Paramount Franchising shall have the exclusive right to control any prosecution or defense of any Action related to possible infringement of or by the Marks.

ARTICLE 13. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

13.1 Confidential Information. During the term of this Agreement and any extensions or successor Franchises hereof, and at any time after the termination of this Agreement, Franchisee and those over whom it has control shall not make any unauthorized disclosure or use of Paramount Franchising's Confidential Information or Intellectual Property other than as authorized by this Agreement. Franchisee shall adopt and implement all reasonable procedures to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information and Intellectual Property, which procedures may be prescribed from time to time by Paramount Franchising. Franchisee shall never contest the validity of Paramount Franchising's exclusive ownership of and rights to its Intellectual Property or Confidential Information.

13.2 Covenants Not to Compete; Non-Solicitation.

(a) Restriction – In Term. During the term of this Agreement and for any extensions hereof, Franchisee, its principals, principal executives, managers, and or Immediate Family (collectively and individually a "Restricted Party") shall not, directly or indirectly, be a Participant, assist, or serve in any other capacity whatsoever or have any interest in a Competing Business in any capacity, territory, or location, except with Paramount Franchising's prior written consent. Franchisee's owners owning 10% or more must each execute the then-current form of the Guaranty and Non-compete Agreement in the form of the attached Schedule 3 to this Agreement.

(b) Restriction – Post Term. For two years after this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer), no Restricted Party shall directly or indirectly be a Participant, assist, or serve in any other capacity whatsoever or Competing Business within the Territory or within 25 miles of Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of the territory of any other Paramount business operating on the date of termination, expiration or transfer, as applicable.

(c) Interpretation. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Section is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by any court, then parties intend that the court modify such restriction to extent reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Paramount Franchising. Franchisee agrees that the existence of any claim it may have against Paramount Franchising will not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Paramount Franchising of the covenants of this Section. If a Restricted Party fails to comply with the obligations under this Section during the restrictive period, then the restrictive period will be extended for each day of noncompliance.

13.3 General Manager and Key Employees. Franchisee will cause its general manager and other key employees to sign Paramount Franchising's then-current form employee brand protection agreement. A copy of the current employee brand protection agreement is attached as Attachment 6 to this Agreement. A copy of all such agreements must be promptly delivered to Paramount Franchising within 10 days of hiring of the respective employee.

13.4 Non-Contravention; Non-Disparagement. Franchisee shall not undertake any action or inaction to circumvent, contravene, or undermine the purposes of this Agreement. Additionally, during and after the term of this Agreement, Franchisee shall not, in any way, form, or medium, make any negative, disparaging, false or misleading statements, published or made orally, in any medium about Paramount Franchising, the brand, the System, its products and services, or the officers, owners, partners, directors, members, managers, representatives, agents, employees or other franchisees of Paramount Franchising.

13.5 Non-Solicitation of Clients. During the term of this Agreement and for three years after this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason, Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly contact any then-current or former client of Franchisee, or of another franchisee, or Franchisor, or affiliate of Paramount Franchising for the purpose of soliciting from any such client any business that is the same as or substantially similar to services performed by a Paramount Tax & Accounting business, including to another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

ARTICLE 14. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

14.1 Termination by Franchisee. Franchisee may terminate this Agreement only if Paramount Franchising violates a material provision of this Agreement and fails to cure or to make substantial progress toward curing the violation within 60 days after receiving written notice from Franchisee detailing the alleged default. Termination by Franchisee is effective 10 days after Paramount Franchising receives written notice of Termination.

14.2 Termination by Paramount Franchising.

(a) Subject to 10-Day Cure Period. Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement if Franchisee does not make any payment to Paramount Franchising when due, or if Franchisee does not have sufficient funds in its account when Paramount Franchising attempts an electronic funds withdrawal, and Franchisee fails to cure such non-payment within 10 days after Paramount Franchising gives notice to Franchisee of such breach.

(b) Subject to 30-Day Cure Period. If Franchisee breaches this Agreement in any manner other than described in subsection (a) or (c) and fails to cure such breach to Paramount Franchising's satisfaction within 30 days after Paramount Franchising gives notice to Franchisee of such breach, then Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement.

(c) No-Cure Period. Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee misrepresented or omitted material facts when applying to be a franchisee, or breaches any representation in this Agreement;
- (ii) Franchisee intentionally submits any false report or intentionally provides any other false information to Paramount Franchising;
- (iii) a receiver or trustee for the Business or all (or substantially all) of Franchisee's property is appointed by any court, or Franchisee makes a general assignment for the benefit of Franchisee's creditors or Franchisee makes a written statement to the effect that Franchisee is unable to pay its debts as they become due, or a levy or execution is made against the Business, or an attachment or lien remains on the Business for 30 days unless the attachment or lien is being duly contested in good faith by Franchisee, or a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Franchisee, or such a petition is filed against or consented to by Franchisee and the petition is not dismissed within 45 days, or Franchisee is adjudicated as bankrupt;
- (iv) Franchisee fails to open for business by the date specified on the Summary Page;
- (v) Franchisee loses possession of the Location;
- (vi) Franchisee or any Owner commits a material violation of Section 7.2 (compliance with laws) or Section 13.1 (confidentiality), violates Section 13.2 (non-compete) or Article 15 (transfer), or commits any other violation of this Agreement which by its nature cannot be cured;
- (vii) Franchisee abandons or ceases operation of the Business for more than five consecutive days without the prior written authorization of Paramount Franchising;
- (viii) Franchisee or any Owner slanders or libels Paramount Franchising or any of its employees, directors, or officers;
- (ix) Franchisee refuses to cooperate with or permit any audit or inspection by Paramount Franchising or its agents or contractors, or otherwise fails to comply with Section 10.5 or Section 11.2;
- (x) the Business is operated in a manner which, in Paramount Franchising's reasonable judgment, constitutes a significant danger to the health or safety of any person, and Franchisee fails to cure such danger within 48 hours after becoming aware of the danger (due to notice from Paramount Franchising or otherwise);
- (xi) Franchisee has received two or more notices of default and Franchisee commits another breach of this Agreement, all in the same 12-month period;

- (xii) Paramount Franchising (or any affiliate) terminates any other agreement with Franchisee (or any affiliate) due to the breach of such other agreement by Franchisee (or its affiliate); or
- (xiii) Franchisee or any Owner is charged with, pleads guilty to, or is convicted of a felony, or is accused by any governmental authority or third party of any act that in Paramount Franchising's opinion is reasonably likely to materially and unfavorably affect Paramount Franchising's brand.

14.3 Effect of Termination. Upon Termination of this Agreement, all obligations that by their terms or by reasonable implication survive Termination, Including those pertaining to non-competition, confidentiality, and indemnity, will remain in effect, and Franchisee must immediately:

- (i) Pay all amounts owed to Paramount Franchising based on the operation of the Business through the effective date of Termination;
- (ii) Return to Paramount Franchising all copies of the Manual, Confidential Information and any and all other materials provided by Paramount Franchising to Franchisee or created by a third party for Franchisee relating to the operation of the Business, and all items containing any Marks, copyrights, and other proprietary items;
- (iii) Notify the telephone, Internet, email, electronic network, Social Media, directory, and listing entities of the Termination of Franchisee's right to use any numbers, addresses, domain names, locators, Social Media accounts, directories and listings associated with any of the Marks, and authorize their transfer to Paramount Franchising or any new franchisee as may be directed by Paramount Franchising, and Franchisee hereby irrevocably appoints Paramount Franchising, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact, which appointment is coupled with an interest. Franchisee shall execute the Digital and Social Media Authorization for Assignment in the form of Attachment 4 attached hereto and such other directions and authorizations as may be necessary or appropriate to accomplish the foregoing; and
- (iv) Cease doing business under any of the Marks and forward all client information to Paramount Franchising.

14.4 Remove Identification. Within 30 days after Termination, Franchisee shall at its own expense "de-identify" the Location so that it no longer contains the Marks, signage, or any trade dress of a Paramount business, to the reasonable satisfaction of Paramount Franchising. This Includes Franchisee's removal of signs, destruction or removal of letterheads, Marketing material, the change of Business telephone listings, telephone numbers, email addresses, URLs, Internet websites, and any other property that bears Paramount Tax & Accounting brand or is affiliated with the brand. Franchisee must not identify any present or future business owned or operated by Franchisee as having been in any way associated with Paramount Franchising or the System. Franchisee shall comply with any reasonable instructions and procedures of Paramount Franchising for de-identification. If Franchisee fails to do so within 30 days after this Agreement is Terminated, Paramount Franchising may enter the Location to remove the Marks and de-identify the Location. In this event, Paramount Franchising will not be charged with trespass nor be accountable or required to pay for any assets removed or altered, or for any damage caused by Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for all its costs and expenses to remove the Marks and de-identify the Location.

14.5 Other Claims. Termination of this Agreement by Paramount Franchising will not affect or discharge any claims, rights, causes of action or remedies (Including claims for Paramount Franchising's lost future income after Termination), which Paramount Franchising may have against Franchisee, whether arising before or after Termination.

14.6 Purchase Option. When this Agreement is Terminated, Paramount Franchising will have the right (but not the obligation) to purchase any or all of the assets related to the Business, Including computer equipment, server (physical and/or cloud-based), office furniture, etc., at fair market value, and/or to require Franchisee to assign its lease or sublease to Paramount Franchising. To exercise this option, Paramount Franchising must notify Franchisee no later than 30 days after this Agreement is Terminated. If the parties cannot agree on fair market value within 30 days after the exercise notice, the fair market value will be determined by an independent appraiser reasonably acceptable to both parties. The parties will equally share the cost of the appraisal. Paramount Franchising has the right to cover the entire cost of the appraisal and deduct Franchisee's share from the purchase price or include with other amounts due to Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising's purchase will be of assets only (free and clear of all liens) and will not include any liabilities of Franchisee. If Paramount Franchising exercises the purchase option, Paramount Franchising may deduct from the purchase price: (a) all amounts due from Franchisee; (b) Franchisee's portion of the cost of any appraisal conducted hereunder; and (c) amounts paid or to be paid by Paramount Franchising to cure defaults under Franchisee's lease and/or amounts owed by Franchisee to third parties. If any of the assets are subject to liens, Paramount Franchising may withhold a portion of purchase price directly to the lienholder to pay off such lien. Paramount Franchising may also withhold 25% of the purchase price for 90 days to ensure that all of Franchisee's taxes and other liabilities are paid. Paramount Franchising may assign this purchase option to another party.

ARTICLE 15. TRANSFERS

15.1 By Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may transfer or assign this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, to any person or entity, and Paramount Franchising may undergo a change in ownership and/or control, without the consent of Franchisee.

15.2 By Franchisee. Franchisee acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Franchisee and that Paramount Franchising entered into this Agreement in reliance on Franchisee's business skill, financial capacity, personal character, experience and business ability. Accordingly, Franchisee shall not conduct or undergo a Transfer without providing Paramount Franchising at least 60 days' prior written notice of the proposed Transfer, and without obtaining Paramount Franchising's prior written consent. In granting any such consent, Paramount Franchising may impose conditions, Including the following:

- (i) Paramount Franchising receives a transfer fee equal to 50% of the then-current initial franchise fee for new franchisees. Franchisee only needs to reimburse Paramount Franchising's legal fees if Franchisee Transfers less than 25% ownership in Franchisee, and Franchisee's current owners maintain control. However, all guarantors will remain guarantors unless otherwise released by Paramount Franchising;
- (ii) the proposed assignee and its owners have completed Paramount Franchising's franchise application processes, meet Paramount Franchising's then-applicable standards for new franchisees, and have been approved by Paramount Franchising as franchisees;
- (iii) the proposed assignee is not a Competing Business;

- (iv) the proposed assignee executes Paramount Franchising's then-current form of franchise agreement; which form may contain materially different provisions from the Agreement;
- (v) Franchisee has paid all monetary obligations to Paramount Franchising in full, and Franchisee is not otherwise in default of this Agreement;
- (vi) the proposed assignee and its owners and employees undergo such training as Paramount Franchising may require and Franchisee assists in covering the Business during such training if necessary;
- (vii) Franchisee, its Owners, and the transferee and its owners execute a general release of Paramount Franchising in a form satisfactory to Paramount Franchising; and
- (viii) the Business fully complies with all of Paramount Franchising's most recent System Standards, Including upgrading and Remodel requirements.

15.3 Transfer for Convenience of Ownership. If Franchisee is an individual, Franchisee may Transfer this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company formed for the convenience of ownership after at least 15 days' prior written notice to Paramount Franchising, if, prior to the Transfer: (1) the transferee provides the information required by Section 2.3; (2) Franchisee provides copies the entity's charter documents, by-laws (or operating agreement) and similar documents, if requested by Paramount Franchising, (3) Franchisee owns all voting securities of the corporation or limited liability company, and (4) Franchisee provides a guaranty in accordance with Section 2.5.

15.4 Transfer upon Death or Incapacity. Upon the death or incapacity of Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is an entity, the person with the largest ownership interest in Franchisee), the executor, administrator, or personal representative of that person must Transfer the Business to a third party approved by Paramount Franchising within nine months after death or incapacity. Such Transfer must comply with Section 15.2.

15.5 Paramount Franchising's Right of First Refusal. Before Franchisee (or any owner) engages in a Transfer (except under Section 15.3 or Section 15.4), Paramount Franchising will have a right of first refusal, as set forth in this Section. Franchisee (or its owners) shall provide to Paramount Franchising a copy of the terms and conditions of any Transfer. For a period of 30 days from the date of Paramount Franchising's receipt of such copy, Paramount Franchising will have the right, exercisable by notice to Franchisee, to purchase the Business or the assets subject of the proposed Transfer for the same price and on the same terms and conditions (except that Paramount Franchising may substitute cash for any other form of payment). If Paramount Franchising does not exercise its right of first refusal, Franchisee may proceed with the proposed Transfer, subject to the other terms and conditions of this Article. However, if there are any material changes in the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer and any of those changes are less favorable to Franchisee, Franchisee shall notify Paramount Franchising of the changes in writing, and Paramount Franchising will have an additional 10 days within which to elect to purchase the assets proposed to be Transferred on the revised terms and conditions. If the proposed Transfer is not completed for any reason after Paramount Franchising elects not to purchase the assets being Transferred, a new right of first refusal commences as to any subsequent proposed Transfer by Franchisee.

15.6 No Sublicense. Franchisee has no right to sublicense the Marks or any of Franchisee's rights under this Agreement.

15.7 No Lien on Agreement. Franchisee shall not grant a security interest in this Agreement to any person or entity. If Franchisee grants an "all assets" security interest to any lender or other secured party, Franchisee shall cause the secured party to expressly exempt this Agreement from the security interest.

ARTICLE 16. INDEMNITY

16.1 Indemnity. Franchisee shall indemnify and defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Paramount Franchising) Paramount Franchising, its parent entities, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assignees (collectively, “Indemnitees”) against all Losses in any Action by or against Paramount Franchising and/or any Indemnatee directly or indirectly related to, or alleged to arise out of, the operation of the Business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee shall not be obligated to indemnify an Indemnatee from claims arising as a result of any Indemnatee’s misconduct or negligence. Franchisee agrees not to file any crossclaim or counterclaim against Paramount Franchising for any action made by a third-party or make any response that would infer or represent Paramount Franchising is liable as a party or defendant to any action that is contrary to this Section. This Agreement and the terms in this Section and related terms in this Agreement is a bona fide defense to any claim Franchisee may contradictorily make against Paramount Franchising as to Paramount Franchising’s liability or proportion of fault. Franchisee shall bear all costs to defend Paramount Franchising from claims raised by a third party. If Paramount Franchising incurs any costs or liabilities to any third party, Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for costs associated with Paramount Franchising’s defense to those claims. This indemnity will continue in effect after this Agreement ends.

16.2 Assumption by Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may elect to assume the defense and/or settlement of any Action subject to this indemnification, at Franchisee’s expense. Such an undertaking will not diminish Franchisee’s obligation to indemnify the Indemnitees.

17.1 Arbitration.

(a) Disputes Subject to Arbitration. Except as expressly provided in subsection (c), any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, will be resolved by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, Including the Optional Rules for Emergency Measures of Protection. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

(b) Location. The place of arbitration will be held in Salt Lake County, Utah or the county and state where Paramount Franchising’s then-current headquarters are located.

(c) Injunctive Relief. Either party may apply to the arbitrator seeking injunctive relief until the arbitration award is rendered or the controversy is otherwise resolved. Either party also may, without waiving any remedy or right to arbitrate under this Agreement, seek from any court having jurisdiction any interim or provisional injunctive relief.

(d) Confidentiality. All documents, information, and results pertaining to any arbitration or lawsuit will be confidential, except as required by law or as required for Paramount Franchising to comply with laws and regulations applicable to the sale of franchises.

(e) Performance During Arbitration or Litigation. Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall comply with this Agreement and perform their respective obligations under this Agreement during the arbitration or litigation process.

17.2 Damages. In any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each party waives any right to punitive or other monetary damages not measured by the prevailing party’s actual damages, except damages authorized by federal statute. In the event of Termination of this Agreement prior

the expiration of the term, Paramount Franchising's actual damages will include its lost future income from Royalty Fees and other amounts that Franchisee would have owed to Paramount Franchising but for the Termination.

17.3 Waiver of Class Actions. The parties agree that any claims will be arbitrated, litigated, or otherwise resolved on an individual basis, and waive any right to act on a class-wide basis.

17.4 Time Limitation. Any arbitration or other legal action arising from or related to this Agreement must be instituted within two years from the date such party discovers the conduct or event that forms the basis of the arbitration or other legal action. The foregoing time limit does not apply to claims (i) by one party related to non-payment under this Agreement by the other party, (ii) for indemnity under Article 16, or (iii) related to unauthorized use of Confidential Information or the Marks.

17.5 Venue Other Than Arbitration. For any legal proceeding not required to be submitted to arbitration, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the United States District Court of Salt Lake County, Utah or where Paramount Franchising's then-current headquarters is located. If there is no federal jurisdiction over the dispute, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the court of record of the state and county where Paramount Franchising's headquarters is then located. Each party consents to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection that it, he or she may have to the laying of venue of any proceeding in any of these courts.

17.6 Legal Costs. In any legal proceeding (including arbitration) related to this Agreement or any guaranty, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's attorney fees, costs and other expenses of the legal proceeding. "Prevailing party" means the party, if any, which prevailed upon the central litigated issues and obtained substantial relief.

ARTICLE 18. MISCELLANEOUS

18.1 Relationship of the Parties. The parties are independent contractors, and neither is the agent, partner, joint venturer, or employee of the other. Paramount Franchising is not a fiduciary of Franchisee and does not control Franchisee or its Business. Paramount Franchising has no liability for Franchisee's obligations to any third party whatsoever.

18.2 No Third-party Beneficiaries. This Agreement does not confer any rights or remedies upon any person or entity other than Franchisee, Paramount Franchising, and Paramount Franchising's affiliates.

18.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties related to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior negotiations and representations whether oral or in writing. Nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made by Paramount Franchising in its franchise disclosure document.

18.4 Modification. No modification or amendment of this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both parties. This provision does not limit Paramount Franchising's rights to modify the Manual or System Standards.

18.5 Consent; Waiver. No consent under this Agreement, and no waiver of satisfaction of a condition or nonperformance of an obligation under this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the party granting the consent or waiver. No waiver by a party of any right will affect the party's rights as to any subsequent exercise of that right or any other right. No delay, forbearance or omission by a party to exercise any right will constitute a waiver of such right.

18.6 Cumulative Remedies. Rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative. No enforcement of a right or remedy precludes the enforcement of any other right or remedy.

18.7 Severability. The parties intend that (i) if any provision of this Agreement is held by an arbitrator or court to be unenforceable, then that provision be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, unless that modification is not permitted by law, in which case that provision will be disregarded, and (ii) if an unenforceable provision is modified or disregarded, then the rest of this Agreement will remain in effect as written.

18.8 Governing Law. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties.

18.9 Notices. Any notice will be effective under this Agreement only if made in writing and delivered as set forth in this Section to: (A) if to Franchisee, addressed to Franchisee at the notice address set forth in the Summary Page; and (B) if to Paramount Franchising, addressed to 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, with a copy to The Franchise & Business Law Group at 222 S. Main Street, Ste 500, Salt Lake City, Utah 84101 (which will not act as notice or service). Any party may designate a new address for notices by giving notice of the new address pursuant to this Section. Notices will be effective upon receipt (or first rejection) and must be: (1) delivered personally; (2) sent by registered or certified U.S. mail with return receipt requested; (3) by email upon receipt of transmission verification; or (4) sent via overnight courier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Paramount Franchising may amend the Manual, give binding notice of changes to System Standards, and deliver notices of default by electronic mail or other electronic communication.

18.10 Joint and Several Liability. If two or more people sign this Agreement as “Franchisee,” each will have joint and several liability.

18.11 No Offer and Acceptance. Delivery of a draft of this Agreement to Franchisee by Paramount Franchising does not constitute an offer. This Agreement shall not be effective unless and until it is executed by both Franchisee and Paramount Franchising.

18.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

Attachment 3 to Franchise Agreement

GUARANTY AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

This Guaranty and Non-Compete Agreement (this “Guaranty”) is entered into and made effective by and between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and the undersigned person(s) (each, a “Guarantor”) owners of _____ (the “Business Entity”).

Background Statement: Business Entity (“Franchisee”) desires to enter into a Franchise Agreement with Paramount Franchising for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this Guaranty have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Guarantor owns an equity interest in Franchisee. Guarantor is executing this Guaranty in order to induce Paramount Franchising to enter into the Franchise Agreement.

Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Guaranty. Guarantor hereby unconditionally guarantees to Paramount Franchising and its successors and assigns that Franchisee shall pay and perform every undertaking, agreement and covenant set forth in the Franchise Agreement and further guarantees every other liability and obligation of Franchisee to Paramount Franchising, whether or not contained in the Franchise Agreement. Guarantor shall render any payment or performance required under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising upon demand from Paramount Franchising. Guarantor waives (a) acceptance and notice of acceptance by Paramount Franchising of this Guaranty; (b) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations of Franchisee; (c) protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; (d) any right Guarantor may have to require that an action be brought against Franchisee or any other person or entity as a condition of liability hereunder; (e) all rights to payments and claims for reimbursement or subrogation which any of the undersigned may have against Franchisee arising as a result of the execution of and performance under this Guaranty by the undersigned; (f) any law which requires that Paramount Franchising make demand upon, assert claims against or collect from Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor), foreclose any security interest, sell collateral, exhaust any remedies or take any other action against Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor) prior to making any demand upon, collecting from or taking any action against the undersigned with respect to this Guaranty; and (g) any and all other notices and legal or equitable defenses to which Guarantor may be entitled.

2. Confidential Information. With respect to all Confidential Information Guarantor shall (a) adhere to all security procedures prescribed by Paramount Franchising for maintaining confidentiality, (b) disclose such information to its employees only to the extent necessary for the operation of the Business; (c) not use any such information in any other business or in any manner not specifically authorized or approved in writing by Paramount Franchising, (d) exercise the highest degree of diligence and make every effort to maintain the confidentiality of all such information during and after the term of the Franchise Agreement, (e) not copy or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information, and (f) promptly report any unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information. Guarantor acknowledges that all Confidential Information is owned by Paramount Franchising or its affiliates (except for any Confidential Information, which Paramount Franchising licenses from another person or entity). Guarantor acknowledges that all Customer Data generated or obtained by Guarantor is Confidential Information belonging to Paramount Franchising. This Section will survive the Termination of the Franchise Agreement indefinitely.

3. Covenants Not to Compete and Non-Solicitation of Clients.

(a) Restriction - In Term. During the term of the Franchise Agreement, Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged, assist, consult or be employed by, any Competing Business.

(b) Restriction – Post Term. For two years after the Franchise Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged or employed by, any Competing Business located within Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of the territory of any other Paramount business operating on the date of Termination or Transfer, as applicable.

(c) Interpretation. Guarantor agrees that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Guaranty or the Franchise Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Section is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by any court, then parties intend that the court modify such restriction to extent reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Paramount Franchising. Guarantor agrees that the existence of any claim it or Franchisee may have against Paramount Franchising shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Paramount Franchising of the covenants of this Section. If Guarantor fails to comply with the obligations under this Section during the restrictive period, then the restrictive period will be tolled for each day of noncompliance.

(d) Non-Solicitation of Clients. For three years after the Franchise Agreement is Terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly contact any then-current or former client of Franchisee, or of another franchisee or affiliate of Paramount Franchising for the purpose of soliciting from any such client any business that is the same as or substantially similar to services performed by a Paramount business.

4. Enforcement Costs. If Paramount Franchising must enforce this Guaranty in any judicial or arbitration proceeding or any appeals, Guarantor(s) shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for its enforcement costs. Enforcement costs Include reasonable fees from accountants, attorneys, attorney's assistants, arbitrators, and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, arbitration filing fees, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses, whether incurred before, in preparation for, or in contemplation of the filing of any written demand, claim, action, hearing or proceeding to enforce this Guaranty.

5. Modification. 6. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution. This Guaranty will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Utah. The provisions of Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this Guaranty as if fully set forth herein. as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

Attachment 6 to Franchise Agreement

EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) is entered into as of _____, between _____ (“Franchisee”) and _____ (“Employee”), residing at _____.

A. Franchisee is the holder of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise developed by Paramount Franchising LLC (“Franchisor”).

B. Franchisor has developed certain confidential and proprietary information for the operation of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, including without limitation, processes, methods, client lists and data, trade secrets, systems, software, pricing, financial information, client data and lists, manuals, marketing techniques, and procedures (“Proprietary Information”).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the employment of Employee by Franchisee, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Acknowledgement. Employee acknowledges that during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee he or she has obtained or may obtain knowledge of the Proprietary Information and other confidential matters and procedures developed, licensed to or owned by Franchisor and made available to Franchisee, which are necessary and essential to the operation of the business of Franchisee, which without such information, Franchisee could not efficiently, effectively and profitably operate its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise. Employee further acknowledges that such Proprietary Information was not known to him or her prior to the association with Franchisee or its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise.

2. Non-Use, Non-Disclosure. Except as may be required in the performance of duties for Franchisee, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, use, or disclose to any third party, or authorize any third party to use any portion of the Proprietary Information, and agrees not to copy, transmit, recreate or otherwise reproduce all of any part of the Proprietary Information at any time. Should Employee work for a different Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, Employee shall not share with or use with such new employer any client data for any client or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor. For the purposes of this Agreement, a “prospective client” does not mean any possible client. It means a potential client who has been engaged in some way, or has provided some personal information, or has elected to receive some communication, but who has not yet done business to be considered an actual client.

2.1 No Reverse Engineering. Employee shall not, either personally, in concert with others or through other authorization, reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct or attempt to reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct any portion of the Proprietary Information.

3. Duty to Notify. Employee agrees to notify Franchisor or Franchisee or Employee’s immediate superiors of any reasonably suspected attempts to violate the terms or purposes of this Agreement or to otherwise disclose, copy, or reproduce any part of the Proprietary Information. In the event it is discovered that Employee knew or had reason to know of any suspected attempts to violate this Agreement and fails to report such knowledge, Employee agrees to indemnify Franchisor and Franchisee for all costs and fees associated with enforcement, and to reimburse Franchisor and Franchisee for those losses sustained due to such violation. Employee agrees to cooperate with Franchisor and Franchisee in its

or their attempts to enforce the terms of this Agreement and to otherwise protect the Proprietary Information, and to cooperate with Franchisee and Franchisor to the extent Franchisee is obligated to cooperate with Franchisor's attempts to enforce its rights in and to the Proprietary Information.

4. Return of Materials. Immediately upon the termination of employment, Employee agrees to deliver to Franchisee (and shall not keep in his or her possession or deliver to anyone else whether in hard or electronic soft copy) any and all records, data, photographs, notes, manuals, lists, correspondence, specifications, materials, other documents or property, or reproductions relating to, directly or indirectly, to the Proprietary Information.

5. Management and Supervisor Employees. This Section 5 shall only apply if Employee is a management employee and/or acts in a supervisory role over other employees.

5.1 Non-Competition. Subject to applicable law, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee, and for one year thereafter, directly or indirectly in any capacity, without Franchisee's prior written consent, engage in a business, or plan for or organize a business, or have any financial interest in, or become and owner, officer, director, shareholder, partner, associate, employee, contractor, agent, representative or consultant in any offering or selling products or services the same or substantially similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the minimum area of competitive nature will be that area within a 5-mile radius of any client serviced by Franchisee. The ownership of not more than 2% of the voting stock of a publicly held corporation will not be considered a violation of the foregoing provision. The post-termination, non-competition covenants do not apply if Employee works for another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

6. Non-Solicitation of Clients. Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment and for two years thereafter, directly or indirectly, contact any client, former client, or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor for the purpose of soliciting such client to be a client of a business that is the same as or similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business, including to be a client of another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

7. Irreparable Harm. Employee hereby acknowledges and agrees that any breach by him or her of any portion of Sections 1 through 6 above, inclusive, will cause damage to Franchisee and Franchisor in an amount difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, in addition to any other relief to which Franchisee may be entitled, either Franchisee or Franchisor will be entitled to enforce this Agreement and to seek temporary, preliminary, and/or permanent injunctive relief for any breach or threatened breach by Employee of any of the terms of Section 1 through 6 above, inclusive, without proof of actual damages that have been or may be caused to Franchisee or Franchisor by such breach, and without the requirement of posting bond. The existence of a claim against Franchisee or Franchisor will not constitute a defense to enforce the covenants of this Agreement.

8. Modification. Employee hereby agrees that, without limitation, any modifications, alterations, changes, or improvements conceived, designed, devised, developed, perfected or made by Employee, whether alone or in conjunction with others, and related in any manner to the actual or anticipated operation of the Franchisee, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting system, or to any area of research and development related to the operation of the business, must be promptly disclosed to the Franchisee and will become the property of Franchisor, and Employee hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, and conveys any such to Franchisor.

9. Enforceability. If any portion of this Agreement will be held invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder of this Agreement will be considered valid and operative, and effect will be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

10. Survival of Covenants. All covenants made in this Agreement by Employee survive the termination of Employee's employment with Franchisee or the expiration, transfer, or termination of this Agreement.

11. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement may be amended in whole or in part only by an agreement in writing signed by both parties.

12. Attorneys' Fees. In the event any action in law or equity or any arbitration or other proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement or in connection with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties will be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and other costs reasonably incurred in such action or proceeding.

13. Counterpart and Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

14. Third-party Beneficiary. It is agreed and acknowledged that Franchisor is a third-party beneficiary to this Agreement.

FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Because you are becoming a part of the Paramount Tax® franchise system, it is important that you understand and acknowledge who is your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), and who is not.

You have been hired by _____ (Legal Name of Franchisee) (“Franchisee”), which is an independent franchise owner in the Paramount Tax® franchise system (which we call the “System”). Although Franchisee looks the same, has the same name, and is operated the same way as other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System, Franchisee is not part of the same company as those other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System. Paramount Franchising LLC is a completely separate company that owns the name and created the System. Paramount Franchising LLC has devised rules, systems of operation, and policies and procedures that all of its franchisees must follow, including Franchisee, which makes each independent franchise Paramount Tax® outlet look and operate the same way as one another. This way, Paramount Franchising LLC manages a System composed of many different franchisee owners, each of whom is independently responsible for operating its own Paramount Tax® outlet.

It is important that you understand that Franchisee is your only employer (or is the only party associated with the Paramount Tax® franchise system that hired you as an independent contractor). If you are an employee, then Franchisee gives you your paycheck, establishes your hours, and is responsible for all decisions relating to your employment relationship. If you are an independent contractor, then Franchisee compensates you, hires you for certain hours or tasks, and provides you with the job description for your services to Franchisee. Paramount Franchising LLC is not your employer and has not hired you to provide services related to the Paramount Tax® franchise system. If Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives ever give you direction, training, or advice, it is intended only to ensure that the experience of all customers of Paramount Tax® is the same at or through your place of work as it is at other Paramount Tax® outlets in the Paramount Tax® system. The fact that you are trained, or given direction or advice, by Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives does not somehow mean that Paramount Franchising LLC is your employer.

If you have any questions about your employment relationship or your contracted relationship or about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, please direct them to your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), Franchisee.

I have read this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and I understand it. I have had the opportunity to ask any questions that I have about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and those questions have been answered fully to my satisfaction.

MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Multi-Unit Development Agreement (this “MUDA”) is made between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____ (“Franchisee”) on the Effective Date.

Background Statement: On the same day as they execute this MUDA, Paramount Franchising and Franchisee have entered into a Franchise Agreement for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this MUDA have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Paramount Franchising and Franchisee desire that Franchisee develop multiple Paramount businesses.

1. Multi-Unit Commitment.

(a) Development Schedule; Fee. Franchisee shall develop and open Paramount businesses on the following schedule:

Location #	Deadline for Opening	Total # of Locations to be Open and Operating On Deadline	Initial Franchise Fee
1		1	$ _____
2		2	$ _____
3		3	$ _____
4		4	$ _____
Total Initial Franchise Fees:

(b) Payment. Upon execution of this MUDA, Franchisee shall pay the total Initial Franchise Fees for each franchise to be developed to Paramount Franchising. The Initial Franchise Fees are $40,000 for the first franchise and $25,000 for each subsequent franchise. The Initial Franchise Fees are non-refundable except as provided in Section 6.4 of the Franchise Agreement.

2. Form of Agreement. For Location #1, Franchisee and Paramount Franchising have executed the Franchise Agreement simultaneously with this MUDA. For each additional Paramount franchise, Franchisee shall execute Paramount Franchising’s then-current standard form franchise agreement as developed. This MUDA does not give Franchisee the right to construct, open, or operate a Paramount business, and Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee may construct, open, and operate each Paramount business only pursuant to a separate franchise agreement executed pursuant to this MUDA for each such Paramount business.

3. Development Area. Franchisee shall locate each Paramount business it develops under this MUDA within the following area: _____ (the “Development Area”). Franchisee acknowledges that it does not have exclusive rights to develop, open or operate Paramount businesses in the Development Area.

4. Default and Termination. Paramount Franchising may terminate this MUDA by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee fails to meet a deadline for opening a location as set forth in the development schedule; or
- (ii) Franchisee defaults and fails to cure under the terms of any one of its franchise agreements with Paramount Franchising.

Upon Termination of this MUDA, Franchisee’s rights under this MUDA are terminated, and Paramount Franchising may (among its other rights) sell the remaining development rights, sell franchises, or open locations in the Development Area. Additionally, Franchisee will forfeit all deposits made and any contractual rights to develop or purchase additional Paramount businesses within the Development Area.

5. Limitation of Liability. Franchisee’s commitment to develop Paramount businesses is in the nature of an option only. If Paramount Franchising terminates this MUDA for Franchisee’s default, Franchisee shall not be liable to Paramount Franchising for lost future revenues or profits from the unopened Paramount businesses.

6. Conditions. Franchisee’s right to develop each Paramount franchise after the Location #1 is subject to the following:

- (i) Franchisee must possess sufficient financial and organizational capacity to develop, open, operate, and manage each additional Paramount business, in the reasonable judgment of Paramount Franchising, and
- (ii) Franchisee must be in full compliance with all brand requirements at its open Paramount businesses and not in default under any Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with Paramount Franchising.

7. Dispute Resolution; Miscellaneous. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties. Franchisee shall not Transfer this MUDA without the prior written consent of Paramount Franchising, and any Transfer without Paramount Franchising’s prior written consent will be void. The provisions of Article 15 (Transfers), Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) and Article 18 (Miscellaneous) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this MUDA as if fully set forth herein. Nothing in this MUDA or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document.

Releasor (on behalf of all Releasing Parties) covenants not to initiate, prosecute, encourage, assist, or (except as required by law) participate in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding or investigation in any court, agency, or other forum, either affirmatively or by way of cross-claim, defense, or counterclaim, against any Released Party with respect to any Claim. In the event of a dispute related to this Release, the dispute resolution sections of the Franchise Agreement will apply and govern.

3. Non-Disparagement. Releasor covenants not to, in any way, form, or medium, disparage any of the Released Parties, the System, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting brand.

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

The parties, with the advice of their respective counsel, waive the benefit of both statute and other legal doctrine or principle of similar effect in any jurisdiction.

6. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake County, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake County, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
7. The franchise agreement requires application of the laws of Utah. This provision may not be enforceable under California law. You may want to consult an attorney to understand the impact of out-of-state governing law on the franchise agreement.
8. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
9. Neither franchisor nor any person listed in Item 2 of the disclosure document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling this or these persons from membership in such association or exchange.
10. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires the Franchisor to give the franchisee a disclosure document, in a form and containing such information as the Commissioner may by rule or order require, before a solicitation of a proposed modification of an existing franchise.
11. OUR WEBSITE at WWW.PARAMOUNT.TAX HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THE WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.
12. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.

13. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:

- (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
- (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
- (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
- (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

14. California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

15. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

16. Franchisee owners or greater must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

17. Item 6 under Late Fees is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

18. Item 19 is amended to include the following:

"The financial performance representations do not reflect the costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your franchised business. Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in this offering circular, may be one source of this information."

19. Under California law, an agreement between a seller and a buyer regarding the price at which the buyer can resell a product (known as vertical price-fixing or resale price maintenance) is illegal. Therefore, requirements on franchisees to sell goods or services at specific prices set by the franchisor may be unenforceable.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

By reading this disclosure document, you are not agreeing to, acknowledging, or making any representations whatsoever to the Franchisor and its affiliates.

STATE REGULATIONS FOR THE STATE OF INDIANA

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the disclosure document, the following provisions shall apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Indiana:

1. The prohibition by Indiana Code § 23-2-2.7-1(7) against unilateral termination of the franchise without good cause or in bad faith, good cause being defined therein as material breach of the Franchise Agreement, shall apply to the franchise agreement in the State of Indiana to the extent they may be inconsistent with such prohibition.

2. Liquidated damages and termination penalties are prohibited by law in the State of Indiana and, therefore, the disclosure document and franchise agreement are amended by the deletion of all references to liquidated damages and termination penalties and the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein:

“Notwithstanding any such termination, and in addition to the obligations of the Franchisee as otherwise provided, or in the event of termination or cancellation of the Franchise Agreement under any of the other provisions therein, the Franchisee nevertheless shall be, continue and remain liable to Franchisor for any and all damages which Franchisor has sustained or may sustain by reason of such default or defaults and the breach of the Franchise Agreement on the part of the Franchisee for the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement.

At the time of such termination of the Franchise Agreement, the Franchisee covenants to pay to Franchisor within 10 days after demand as compensation all damages, losses, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney’s fees) incurred by Franchisor, and/or amounts which would otherwise be payable thereunder but for such termination for and during the remainder of the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement. This Agreement does not constitute a waiver of the Franchisee’s right to a trial on any of the above matters.”

3. No release language set forth in the disclosure document or franchise agreement, shall relieve Franchisor or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of Indiana.

4. To the extent required by the franchise laws of the State of Indiana, the franchise agreement will be construed in accordance with the franchise laws of the State of Indiana.

5. The provisions of the franchise agreement pertaining to litigation jurisdiction and venue shall be amended to be within the scope of the requirements of the Indiana Franchise laws.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Non-solicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Paragraph 19.1 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “but only to the extent necessary to prevent the invalidity of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof or the imposition of civil or criminal penalties or liability. To the extent permitted by the laws of the state whose laws govern this Agreement, You hereby waive any provisions of law or regulations which render any portion of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect.”

20. Paragraph 20.10 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “You represent and acknowledge that no agreements, representations, negotiations, promises, commitments, inducements, assurances, terms, conditions, or covenants of any nature exist between You and Us except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, whether pertaining to this Agreement or to any future, further or additional rights of either You or Us.”

21. Paragraph 20.11 of the franchise agreement is amended to clarify that for Washington franchisees, the Washington Addendum applies even if the Washington Addendum is not executed or not signed by the franchisor, franchisee, or both.

EXHIBIT J

FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California will be the California Investment law and the California Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
 - (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

10. Franchisee owners must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

11. Late Fees in Section 4.6(c) is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

12. Under California law, an agreement between a seller and a buyer regarding the price at which the buyer can resell a product (known as vertical price-fixing or resale price maintenance) is illegal. Therefore, requirements on franchisees to sell goods or services at specific prices set by the franchisor may be unenforceable.

13. INDIANA RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”) between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the franchise agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the franchise agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the franchise agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a franchise agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the franchise agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the franchise agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

1. A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

STATE ADDENDA TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

ADDENDUM TO THE MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Multi-Unit Development Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The multi-unit development agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The multi-unit development agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a Multi-Unit Development Agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California, will be the California Franchise Investment law and the California Franchise Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.

(d) Violations of any provision of this division

10. Late Fees is amended to include the following: “The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually.”

11. California’s Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

12. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

You will be required to pay a reasonable training fee (currently $1,500 per person) and will be responsible to pay all applicable travel, living and other expenses of your attendees or our representatives as applicable. We may also require you to provide training programs to your employees. (Franchise Agreement Section 7.6).

B. Conferences and Seminars. Attendance at conferences and seminars is optional at this time, but we reserve the right to make a conference or seminar mandatory for your principal executive. You are required to pay any applicable the registration fees, as well as travel, and living expenses for your attendees. In-person conferences and seminars will be held at locations chosen by us. (Franchise Agreement Section 5.6).

Item 12 TERRITORY

(1) Territory Protection

We grant you an exclusive territory meaning that we will not open a Paramount Tax & Accounting outlet, nor license or franchise another party to open a Paramount Tax & Accounting outlet in your territory. The continuation of your territorial protection does not depend on achieving a certain sales volume, market penetration, or another contingency.

(2) Your Location

Your franchise is for a specific location approved by us.

(3) Grant of Territory

Your franchise agreement will specify a territory which will be determined by us. Your territory will be made up of one or more ZIP codes. We generally grant territories with a population base of approximately 100,000 people. We have the right to designate the name of each territory and to change the name designation of a territory. You may only provide services to clients at your location, virtually, or as otherwise directed by us. Unless otherwise approved or required by us, you may not make sales by any other means, including without limitation by wholesale, by delivery, by mail order or over the Internet, or at temporary or satellite locations.

(4) Territory Division

We have found that once an office reaches approximately 3,500 clients or an average of 3,000 clients, the service of that office can diminish due to the increased workload, and client attrition can be more widespread. Therefore, once you reach 3,500 clients or maintain an average of 3,000 clients over a 12-month period, we can require you to open a second outlet in your territory, and your original territory will be divided into two separate territories. In such case, you may have one or more territories with less than 100,000 people, but the culmination of the population for all your territories will still be approximately 100,000 people. You would also be required to sign a new franchise agreement for the additional location, but the initial franchise fee will only be $10,000 for this additional franchise, and you would be required to purchase an additional startup package for that additional territory.

(5) Relocation; Establishment of Additional Outlets

You do not have the right to relocate your business, and we have no obligation to approve any request for relocation. Our policy is to approve relocation of a franchisee's business on case-by-case basis, considering factors such as changes in demographics, profitability of your current business, or a loss of your premises due to circumstances beyond your control.

You do not have the right to establish additional franchised outlets or expand into additional territories. If you desire to establish additional franchised outlets, you must (1) meet our then-current criteria for new franchisees as well as our then-current criteria for multi-unit franchisees, (2) be in compliance with your franchise agreement at all times since opening your business, (3) have demonstrated your capability to operate the franchise successfully, and (4) sign our then-current franchise agreement.

(6) Options to Acquire Additional Franchises

You do not receive any options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

(7) Adjustment of Territory Boundaries

We reserve the right to adjust your territory boundaries if a government body revises the ZIP codes that make up your territory, or if the population in your territory increases to a population of more than 150,000 people. In such case, we may readjust the boundaries of your territory, including the assigned ZIP codes for your territory, but any adjustment will not result in your territory(ies) having less than a population base of approximately 100,000 people.

(8) Other

(i) Restrictions on Us from Soliciting or Accepting Orders in Your Territory.

There are no restrictions on us from soliciting or accepting orders from consumers inside your territory. We reserve the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, websites, social media, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales within your territory using our principal trademarks or using trademarks different from the ones you will use under your franchise agreement. We do not pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders from inside your territory.

(ii) Soliciting by You Outside Your Territory

You can advertise outside your territory, so long as you do not advertise in another franchise or affiliate-owned territory. There are no restrictions on you accepting clients from outside of your territory. For example, direct referrals to other clients from existing clients or referral partners will be permitted anywhere in the country regardless of who owns the area. We reserve the right to control all Internet-based marketing.

(iii) Competition by Us Under Different Trademarks

Neither we, nor any of our affiliates operates, franchises, or has plans to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark selling goods or services similar to those you will offer. However, the franchise agreement does not prohibit us from doing so.

(9) Multi-Unit Development Agreements

As a multi-unit developer, you will be assigned a limited, non-exclusive development area over which you will have development authority. You may face competition from other franchisees, from units that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. The size of your development area is to be negotiated. The written boundaries will be included in your multi-unit development agreement. The schedule of units to be developed in your development area are negotiated between you and us. To maintain your territorial development rights, you must develop the number of franchise businesses by the deadlines listed in your development schedule. After you have identified a potential site for a location, we must approve the location. Our approval will be based on our then-current standards for that franchise business pursuant to your franchise agreement.

There are no restrictions on us from soliciting or accepting orders from consumers inside your development area. We reserve the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, websites, social media, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales within your development area using our principal trademarks or using trademarks different from the ones you will use under your franchise agreement. We do not pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders from inside your development area.

The following are the principal trademarks and slogans that we license to you. These trademarks and slogans are owned by our affiliate, Paramount Tax & Accounting CPAs, PC. They are registered on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, or a mark has not been filed for registration, but we claim common law rights in the mark. It may be modified only by mutual consent of the parties. It may be terminated by our affiliate only if we materially misuse the trademarks and fail to correct the misuse within 60 days of notice. The intercompany license agreement specifies that if it is ever terminated, your franchise rights will remain unaffected.

(8) Protection of Rights

We protect your right to use the principal trademarks listed in this Item and protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition arising out of your use of the trademarks, to the extent described in this section.

The franchise agreement obligates you to notify us of the use of, or claims of rights to, a trademark identical to or confusingly similar to a trademark licensed to you. The franchise agreement does not require us to take affirmative action when notified of these uses or claims. We have the right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed by us to you.

If you use our trademarks in accordance with the franchise agreement, then (i) we shall defend you (at our expense) against any legal action by a third party alleging infringement by your use of the trademark, and (ii) we will indemnify you for expenses and damages if the legal action is resolved unfavorably to you.

Under the franchise agreement, we may require you to modify or discontinue using a trademark, at your expense.

(9) Superior Prior Rights and Infringing Uses

We do not know of either superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the principal trademarks.

Item 14

PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

(1) Patents

We do not own rights in, or licenses to, patents that are material to the franchise.

(2) Copyrights

All our original works of authorship fixed in a tangible medium of expression are automatically protected under the U.S. Copyright Act, whether or not we have obtained registrations. This includes our operating manual as well as all other sales, training, management and other materials that we have created or will create. You may use these copyrighted materials during the term of the franchise, in a manner consistent with our ownership rights, solely for the purpose of your franchised business.

We do not have any registered copyrights. There are no pending copyright applications for our copyrighted materials. There are no currently effective determinations of the U.S. Copyright Office (Library of Congress) or any court regarding any copyright.

(3) Agreements

Our affiliate owns all of the copyrights described in this Item 14. Under an intercompany license agreement between us and our affiliate entered into in 2018, we have been granted the exclusive right to sublicense the copyrighted materials to franchisees throughout the United States for 50 years with renewal periods of 25 years. It may be modified only by mutual consent of the parties. It may be terminated by our affiliate only if we materially misuse the copyrights and fail to correct the misuse within 60 days of notice. The intercompany license agreement specifies that if it is ever terminated, your franchise rights will remain unaffected.

There are no agreements currently in effect that limit our right to use or license the use of our copyrighted materials.

(4) Protection of Rights

We have no obligation to protect any of our copyrights or to defend you against claims arising from your use of copyrighted items. The franchise agreement does not require us to take affirmative action when notified of copyright infringement. We control any copyright litigation. We are not required to participate in the defense of a franchisee or indemnify a franchisee for expenses or damages in a proceeding involving a copyright licensed to the franchisee. We may require you to modify or discontinue using the subject matter covered by any of our copyrights.

We do not know of any copyright infringement that could materially affect you.

(5) Proprietary Information

We have proprietary, confidential manuals and related materials that include guidelines, standards and policies for the development and operation of your business. We also claim proprietary rights in other confidential information or trade secrets that include all methods for developing and operating the business, and all non-public plans, data, financial information, processes, vendor pricing, supply systems, marketing systems, formulas, techniques, designs, layouts, operating procedures, client data, information and know-how.

You must protect the confidentiality of our manuals and other proprietary information and use our confidential information only for your franchised business. We require your owners and key employees to sign confidentiality agreements.

(6) Improvements to the System

Any improvements you make to the system will be owned by us and considered a “work-made-for-hire” or will otherwise be assigned to us.

Item 15

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

(1) Your Participation

You must designate one person as your “principal executive.” If you as the franchisee are an individual, the principal executive is you personally, if you as the franchisee are an entity, the principal executive is the executive primarily responsible for your business and has decision-making authority on behalf of the business. The principal executive must own at least 10% of the business.

The principal executive must also complete any post-opening training programs that we develop in the future. There is no limit on who you can hire as an on-premises supervisor.

If the franchise business is owned by an entity, we do not require that the general manager own any equity in the entity.

A licensed professional must e-file all tax returns and approve of all the work produced by the franchised firm.

We do not restrict your access to clients, and you may accept referrals from anywhere in the country, even if that client is in another franchisee's territory. However, you are not permitted to market in another franchisee's or affiliate- owned territory.

Item 18 PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchise. However, we reserve the right to use public figures in the future.

Item 19 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

Gross Sales/Expenses/Net Income

The tables below represent an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets and 30 of our franchised outlets that completed at least one full tax season before 2024 and who operated for all of 2024.

We had 45-46 outlets that are not included because they did not complete at least one full tax season before the beginning of 2024 or did not operate for all of 2024. Franchisees typically have different start dates and experience other types of volatility in their first tax season; whereas franchisees that have completed at least one full tax season before the beginning of the year generally have more uniform operations in the reporting year.

We also had 15 outlets that are not included in this Item 19 because they did not operate on a full-time basis in 2024, and part-time franchisees are not included in our offered franchise model. Additionally, we did not include 7 franchisees that had signed franchise agreements but who had not yet opened as of the end of 2024.

Company Owned/Affiliate Outlets

The table below represents an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets in Draper, Utah and Port St. Lucie, Florida from January 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024. We only have 2 affiliate owned outlets. As of December 31, 2024, our Draper, Utah outlet had been operating for more than 10 years, and our Port St. Lucie, Florida outlet had been operating for less than 3 years.

¹ Draper Gross Sales. Most of the gross sales in 2024 for our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet was from tax consulting. Our franchisees are allowed to provide tax consulting as well, but most of the tax consulting performed by our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet involved mineral property donations and conservation easements for high income producing clients, and the IRS and state taxing authorities may phase out this deduction in the near future.

² Draper Royalties. Our Draper, Utah outlet pays us royalties on all tax and accounting work it performs but not tax consulting work. In 2024, gross sales generated from tax and accounting work was $1,017,140.

Notes

1. Gross Sales. “Gross sales” means the total dollar amount of all sales generated by an outlet for a given period, including payment for any services or products sold, whether for cash or credit and the value of any services bartered or done on trade. Gross sales do not include (i) bona fide refunds to clients, (ii) sales taxes collected, (iii) sale of used equipment not in the ordinary course of business, or (iv) sales of prepaid cards or similar products (but the redemption of any such card or product will be included in gross sales).
2. Average. “Average” means the sum of all data points in a set, divided by the number of data points in that set.
3. Median. “Median” means the data point that is in the center of all data points used. That number is found by examining the total number of data points and finding the middle number in that set. In the event the number of data points is an odd number, the median will be the center number. If the dataset contains an even number of data points, the median is reached by taking the 2 numbers in the middle, adding them together, and dividing by 2.
4. Outlet Characteristics. Our affiliate owned outlets and all franchised outlets listed in the tables above offer similar products and services to what new franchisees would offer. Each outlet is in a metropolitan area.
5. Other Expenses. The term “other expenses” includes general and administrative expenses along with direct costs that did not include sales and marketing expenses.

Some outlets have earned this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you will earn as much.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to the prospective franchisee upon reasonable request.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, Paramount Franchising LLC does not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Jon Wilhelm, CPA at Jon@Paramount.tax, 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, and 801-341-2300, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

- (iv) Franchisee executes Paramount Franchising's then-current standard form of franchise agreement, which may be materially different than this form (Including higher and/or different fees), except that Franchisee will not pay another initial franchise fee and will not receive another renewal or successor term; and
- (v) Franchisee and each Owner executes a general release (on Paramount Franchising's then-standard form) of any and all claims against Paramount Franchising, its affiliates, and their respective owners, officers, directors, agents and employees.

ARTICLE 4. FEES

4.1 Initial Franchise Fee. Upon signing this Agreement, Franchisee shall pay an initial franchise fee in the amount stated on the Summary Page. This initial franchise fee is not refundable, except as provided in Section 6.4. If Franchisee is an honorably discharged veteran of the United States military, Franchisee will receive a discount of 20% off the initial franchise fee. Franchisee must provide to Paramount Franchising Veteran ID cards, a DD-214, and other documentation to provide proof of honorable discharged status.

4.2 Royalty Fee. Franchisee shall pay Paramount Franchising a monthly royalty fee (the "Royalty Fee") equal to 10% of Gross Sales. The Royalty Fee for any given month is due on the 5th day of the following month.

4.3 Marketing Cooperative Contributions. If the Business participates in a Marketing Cooperative, then Franchisee shall contribute to the Marketing Cooperative a percentage of Gross Sales (or other amount) determined by the Market Cooperative.

4.4 Non-Compliance Fee. Paramount Franchising may charge Franchisee $250 for any instance of non-compliance with the System Standards or this Agreement (other than Franchisee's non-payment of a fee owed to Paramount Franchising). If such non-compliance is ongoing, Paramount Franchising may charge Franchisee $250 per week until Franchisee ceases such non-compliance. This fee is a reasonable estimate of Paramount Franchising's internal cost of personnel time attributable to addressing the non-compliance and is not a penalty or estimate of all damages arising from Franchisee's breach. The non-compliance fee is in addition to all Paramount Franchising's other rights and remedies; non-compliance is considered a default of this Agreement.

4.5 Reimbursement. Paramount Franchising may (but is never obligated to) pay on Franchisee's behalf any amount that Franchisee owes to a supplier or other third party. If Paramount Franchising does so or intends to do so, Franchisee shall pay such amount plus a 10% administrative charge to Paramount Franchising within 15 days after invoice by Paramount Franchising accompanied by reasonable documentation.

4.6 Payment Terms.

(a) Method of Payment. Franchisee shall pay the Royalty Fee, and any other amounts owed to Paramount Franchising by pre-authorized bank draft or in such other manner as Paramount Franchising may require. Paramount's current ACH agreement is attached hereto as Attachment 7 and may be modified by Paramount at any time at its sole discretion. Franchisee must have an active ACH agreement with Paramount Franchising at all times. Before terminating or canceling any active ACH agreement, Franchisee must provide a new ACH agreement to Paramount Franchising so that there is no time in which Paramount Franchising does not have the ability to automatically withdraw or debit all payments and Fees due and owing to Paramount Franchising. Franchisee shall pay all service charges and fees charged by Franchisee's bank for Paramount Franchising to electronically debit Franchisee's bank account.

(b) Calculation of Fees. Franchisee shall report monthly Gross Sales to Paramount Franchising by the 5th day of the following month. Gross Sales will be determined by the use of the accounting software that Paramount Franchising chooses. Franchisee shall use this accounting software for its reporting requirements, such that the calculation of the Royalty Fee will be available to the Franchisor by the 5th day of each month for the prior month. The amount calculated for the Royalty Fee will be withdrawn through ACH. If Franchisee fails to report monthly Gross Sales, then Paramount Franchising may withdraw estimated Royalty Fees equal to 125% of the last Gross Sales reported to Paramount Franchising, and the parties will true-up the actual fees after Franchisee reports Gross Sales. Franchisee acknowledges that Paramount Franchising has the right to remotely access Franchisee's point-of-sale system and to calculate Gross Sales. Franchisee will also provide information as to the number of tax returns completed each month, as well as the total number of clients. This information will also be required on the 5th day of the month.

(c) Late Fees and Interest. If Franchisee does not make a payment on time, Franchisee shall pay a $100 late fee plus interest on the unpaid amount at a rate equal to 18% per year (or, if such payment exceeds the maximum allowed by law, then interest at the highest rate allowed by law).

(d) Insufficient Funds. Paramount Franchising may charge $50 for any payment returned for insufficient funds (or, if such amount exceeds the maximum allowed by law, then the fee allowed by law).

(e) Costs of Collection. Franchisee shall repay any costs incurred by Paramount Franchising (Including reasonable attorney fees) in attempting to collect payments owed by Franchisee.

(f) Application. Paramount Franchising may apply any payment received from Franchisee to any obligation and in any order as Paramount Franchising may determine, regardless of any designation by Franchisee.

(g) Obligations Independent; No Set-Off. The obligations of Franchisee to pay to Paramount Franchising any fees or amounts described in this Agreement are not dependent on Paramount Franchising's performance and are independent covenants by Franchisee. Franchisee shall make all such payments without offset or deduction.

4.7 Optional Programs. Franchisee understands and agrees that Paramount Franchising has developed optional programs for which there may be a fee paid to a third party or to Paramount Franchising. In such case, the provisions of this Article 4 will apply to all such payments. Additionally, Paramount Franchising may develop additional optional and/or mandatory programs. This Section 4.7 will also apply to programs developed in the future.

4.8 Marketing, SEO (Search Engine Optimization), and Website Management Fee. A monthly fee of $300 (or the then-current fee) is to be paid to Paramount Franchising or (at Paramount Franchising's sole discretion) paid directly to a third party vendor for services related to the franchisee's website. These services may include SEO (search engine optimization), marketing services, website changes, PPC (pay per click) campaigns, etc. This fee/payment will count towards Franchisee's local marketing contribution.

4.9 Email Account(s) Fee. Franchisee shall pay Paramount Franchising or its designated supplier a monthly email account fee of $5 to $30 (currently). This fee may increase based on increased costs and maintenance. This fee is paid annually and is due upon the creation of the email address(es) and the annual renewal date each year thereafter.

4.10 Conferences and Seminars. Paramount Franchising has the discretion to conduct conferences and seminars, which may be through online webinars, videos, live video conferencing, phone conferences or in person, to discuss improvements, new developments, mutual concerns, business issues, sales, Marketing, personnel training, bookkeeping, accounting, inventory control and performance standards. Attendance at conferences and seminars is optional at this time, but Paramount Franchising reserves the right to make a conference or seminar mandatory for Franchisee's Principal Executive. Franchisee is required to pay any applicable registration fees (currently $0 to $2,000 per attendee), as well as travel and living expenses for Franchisee's attendees. In-person conferences and seminars will be held at locations chosen by Paramount Franchising.

ARTICLE 5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

5.1 Intellectual Property and Confidential Information. Franchisee acknowledges that: 1) Paramount Franchising has the sole rights in and to the Intellectual Property and Confidential Information; 2) Franchisee's right to use the System is granted by Paramount Franchising solely pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; and 3) as between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising, Paramount Franchising has the sole right to license and control Confidential Information and Intellectual Property. - (v) Franchisee has paid all monetary obligations to Paramount Franchising in full, and Franchisee is not otherwise in default of this Agreement;
- (vi) the proposed assignee and its owners and employees undergo such training as Paramount Franchising may require and Franchisee assists in covering the Business during such training if necessary;
- (vii) Franchisee, its Owners, and the transferee and its owners execute a general release of Paramount Franchising in a form satisfactory to Paramount Franchising; and
- (viii) the Business fully complies with all of Paramount Franchising's most recent System Standards, Including upgrading and Remodel requirements.

15.3 Transfer for Convenience of Ownership. If Franchisee is an individual, Franchisee may Transfer this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company formed for the convenience of ownership after at least 15 days' prior written notice to Paramount Franchising, if, prior to the Transfer: (1) the transferee provides the information required by Section 2.3; (2) Franchisee provides copies the entity's charter documents, by-laws (or operating agreement) and similar documents, if requested by Paramount Franchising, (3) Franchisee owns all voting securities of the corporation or limited liability company, and (4) Franchisee provides a guaranty in accordance with Section 2.5.

15.4 Transfer upon Death or Incapacity. Upon the death or incapacity of Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is an entity, the person with the largest ownership interest in Franchisee), the executor, administrator, or personal representative of that person must Transfer the Business to a third party approved by Paramount Franchising within nine months after death or incapacity. Such Transfer must comply with Section 15.2.

15.5 Paramount Franchising's Right of First Refusal. Before Franchisee (or any owner) engages in a Transfer (except under Section 15.3 or Section 15.4), Paramount Franchising will have a right of first refusal, as set forth in this Section. Franchisee (or its owners) shall provide to Paramount Franchising a copy of the terms and conditions of any Transfer. For a period of 30 days from the date of Paramount Franchising's receipt of such copy, Paramount Franchising will have the right, exercisable by notice to Franchisee, to purchase the Business or the assets subject of the proposed Transfer for the same price and on the same terms and conditions (except that Paramount Franchising may substitute cash for any other form of payment). If Paramount Franchising does not exercise its right of first refusal, Franchisee may proceed with the proposed Transfer, subject to the other terms and conditions of this Article. However, if there are any material changes in the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer and any of those changes are less favorable to Franchisee, Franchisee shall notify Paramount Franchising of the changes in writing, and Paramount Franchising will have an additional 10 days within which to elect to purchase the assets proposed to be Transferred on the revised terms and conditions. If the proposed Transfer is not completed for any reason after Paramount Franchising elects not to purchase the assets being Transferred, a new right of first refusal commences as to any subsequent proposed Transfer by Franchisee.

15.6 No Sublicense. Franchisee has no right to sublicense the Marks or any of Franchisee's rights under this Agreement.

15.7 No Lien on Agreement. Franchisee shall not grant a security interest in this Agreement to any person or entity. If Franchisee grants an "all assets" security interest to any lender or other secured party, Franchisee shall cause the secured party to expressly exempt this Agreement from the security interest.

ARTICLE 16. INDEMNITY

16.1 Indemnity. Franchisee shall indemnify and defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Paramount Franchising) Paramount Franchising, its parent entities, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assignees (collectively, “Indemnitees”) against all Losses in any Action by or against Paramount Franchising and/or any Indemnatee directly or indirectly related to, or alleged to arise out of, the operation of the Business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee shall not be obligated to indemnify an Indemnatee from claims arising as a result of any Indemnatee’s misconduct or negligence. Franchisee agrees not to file any crossclaim or counterclaim against Paramount Franchising for any action made by a third-party or make any response that would infer or represent Paramount Franchising is liable as a party or defendant to any action that is contrary to this Section. This Agreement and the terms in this Section and related terms in this Agreement is a bona fide defense to any claim Franchisee may contradictorily make against Paramount Franchising as to Paramount Franchising’s liability or proportion of fault. Franchisee shall bear all costs to defend Paramount Franchising from claims raised by a third party. If Paramount Franchising incurs any costs or liabilities to any third party, Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for costs associated with Paramount Franchising’s defense to those claims. This indemnity will continue in effect after this Agreement ends.

16.2 Assumption by Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may elect to assume the defense and/or settlement of any Action subject to this indemnification, at Franchisee’s expense. Such an undertaking will not diminish Franchisee’s obligation to indemnify the Indemnitees.

17.1 Arbitration.

(a) Disputes Subject to Arbitration. Except as expressly provided in subsection (c), any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, will be resolved by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, Including the Optional Rules for Emergency Measures of Protection. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

(b) Location. The place of arbitration will be held in Salt Lake County, Utah or the county and state where Paramount Franchising’s then-current headquarters are located.

(c) Injunctive Relief. Either party may apply to the arbitrator seeking injunctive relief until the arbitration award is rendered or the controversy is otherwise resolved. Either party also may, without waiving any remedy or right to arbitrate under this Agreement, seek from any court having jurisdiction any interim or provisional injunctive relief.

(d) Confidentiality. All documents, information, and results pertaining to any arbitration or lawsuit will be confidential, except as required by law or as required for Paramount Franchising to comply with laws and regulations applicable to the sale of franchises.

(e) Performance During Arbitration or Litigation. Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall comply with this Agreement and perform their respective obligations under this Agreement during the arbitration or litigation process.

17.2 Damages. In any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each party waives any right to punitive or other monetary damages not measured by the prevailing party’s actual damages, except damages authorized by federal statute. In the event of Termination of this Agreement prior

the expiration of the term, Paramount Franchising's actual damages will include its lost future income from Royalty Fees and other amounts that Franchisee would have owed to Paramount Franchising but for the Termination.

17.3 Waiver of Class Actions. The parties agree that any claims will be arbitrated, litigated, or otherwise resolved on an individual basis, and waive any right to act on a class-wide basis.

17.4 Time Limitation. Any arbitration or other legal action arising from or related to this Agreement must be instituted within two years from the date such party discovers the conduct or event that forms the basis of the arbitration or other legal action. The foregoing time limit does not apply to claims (i) by one party related to non-payment under this Agreement by the other party, (ii) for indemnity under Article 16, or (iii) related to unauthorized use of Confidential Information or the Marks.

17.5 Venue Other Than Arbitration. For any legal proceeding not required to be submitted to arbitration, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the United States District Court of Salt Lake County, Utah or where Paramount Franchising's then-current headquarters is located. If there is no federal jurisdiction over the dispute, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the court of record of the state and county where Paramount Franchising's headquarters is then located. Each party consents to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection that it, he or she may have to the laying of venue of any proceeding in any of these courts.

17.6 Legal Costs. In any legal proceeding (including arbitration) related to this Agreement or any guaranty, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's attorney fees, costs and other expenses of the legal proceeding. "Prevailing party" means the party, if any, which prevailed upon the central litigated issues and obtained substantial relief.

ARTICLE 18. MISCELLANEOUS

18.1 Relationship of the Parties. The parties are independent contractors, and neither is the agent, partner, joint venturer, or employee of the other. Paramount Franchising is not a fiduciary of Franchisee and does not control Franchisee or its Business. Paramount Franchising has no liability for Franchisee's obligations to any third party whatsoever.

18.2 No Third-party Beneficiaries. This Agreement does not confer any rights or remedies upon any person or entity other than Franchisee, Paramount Franchising, and Paramount Franchising's affiliates.

18.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties related to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior negotiations and representations whether oral or in writing. Nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made by Paramount Franchising in its franchise disclosure document.

18.4 Modification. No modification or amendment of this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both parties. This provision does not limit Paramount Franchising's rights to modify the Manual or System Standards.

18.5 Consent; Waiver. No consent under this Agreement, and no waiver of satisfaction of a condition or nonperformance of an obligation under this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the party granting the consent or waiver. No waiver by a party of any right will affect the party's rights as to any subsequent exercise of that right or any other right. No delay, forbearance or omission by a party to exercise any right will constitute a waiver of such right.

18.6 Cumulative Remedies. Rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative. No enforcement of a right or remedy precludes the enforcement of any other right or remedy.

18.7 Severability. The parties intend that (i) if any provision of this Agreement is held by an arbitrator or court to be unenforceable, then that provision be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, unless that modification is not permitted by law, in which case that provision will be disregarded, and (ii) if an unenforceable provision is modified or disregarded, then the rest of this Agreement will remain in effect as written.

18.8 Governing Law. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties.

18.9 Notices. Any notice will be effective under this Agreement only if made in writing and delivered as set forth in this Section to: (A) if to Franchisee, addressed to Franchisee at the notice address set forth in the Summary Page; and (B) if to Paramount Franchising, addressed to 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, with a copy to The Franchise & Business Law Group at 222 S. Main Street, Ste 500, Salt Lake City, Utah 84101 (which will not act as notice or service). Any party may designate a new address for notices by giving notice of the new address pursuant to this Section. Notices will be effective upon receipt (or first rejection) and must be: (1) delivered personally; (2) sent by registered or certified U.S. mail with return receipt requested; (3) by email upon receipt of transmission verification; or (4) sent via overnight courier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Paramount Franchising may amend the Manual, give binding notice of changes to System Standards, and deliver notices of default by electronic mail or other electronic communication.

18.10 Joint and Several Liability. If two or more people sign this Agreement as “Franchisee,” each will have joint and several liability.

18.11 No Offer and Acceptance. Delivery of a draft of this Agreement to Franchisee by Paramount Franchising does not constitute an offer. This Agreement shall not be effective unless and until it is executed by both Franchisee and Paramount Franchising.

18.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

GUARANTY AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

This Guaranty and Non-Compete Agreement (this “Guaranty”) is entered into and made effective by and between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and the undersigned person(s) (each, a “Guarantor”) owners of _____ (the “Business Entity”).

Background Statement: Business Entity (“Franchisee”) desires to enter into a Franchise Agreement with Paramount Franchising for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this Guaranty have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Guarantor owns an equity interest in Franchisee. Guarantor is executing this Guaranty in order to induce Paramount Franchising to enter into the Franchise Agreement.

Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Guaranty. Guarantor hereby unconditionally guarantees to Paramount Franchising and its successors and assigns that Franchisee shall pay and perform every undertaking, agreement and covenant set forth in the Franchise Agreement and further guarantees every other liability and obligation of Franchisee to Paramount Franchising, whether or not contained in the Franchise Agreement. Guarantor shall render any payment or performance required under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising upon demand from Paramount Franchising. Guarantor waives (a) acceptance and notice of acceptance by Paramount Franchising of this Guaranty; (b) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations of Franchisee; (c) protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; (d) any right Guarantor may have to require that an action be brought against Franchisee or any other person or entity as a condition of liability hereunder; (e) all rights to payments and claims for reimbursement or subrogation which any of the undersigned may have against Franchisee arising as a result of the execution of and performance under this Guaranty by the undersigned; (f) any law which requires that Paramount Franchising make demand upon, assert claims against or collect from Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor), foreclose any security interest, sell collateral, exhaust any remedies or take any other action against Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor) prior to making any demand upon, collecting from or taking any action against the undersigned with respect to this Guaranty; and (g) any and all other notices and legal or equitable defenses to which Guarantor may be entitled.

2. Confidential Information. With respect to all Confidential Information Guarantor shall (a) adhere to all security procedures prescribed by Paramount Franchising for maintaining confidentiality, (b) disclose such information to its employees only to the extent necessary for the operation of the Business; (c) not use any such information in any other business or in any manner not specifically authorized or approved in writing by Paramount Franchising, (d) exercise the highest degree of diligence and make every effort to maintain the confidentiality of all such information during and after the term of the Franchise Agreement, (e) not copy or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information, and (f) promptly report any unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information. Guarantor acknowledges that all Confidential Information is owned by Paramount Franchising or its affiliates (except for any Confidential Information, which Paramount Franchising licenses from another person or entity). Guarantor acknowledges that all Customer Data generated or obtained by Guarantor is Confidential Information belonging to Paramount Franchising. This Section will survive the Termination of the Franchise Agreement indefinitely.

3. Covenants Not to Compete and Non-Solicitation of Clients.

(a) Restriction - In Term. During the term of the Franchise Agreement, Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged, assist, consult or be employed by, any Competing Business.

(b) Restriction – Post Term. For two years after the Franchise Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged or employed by, any Competing Business located within Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of the territory of any other Paramount business operating on the date of Termination or Transfer, as applicable.

(c) Interpretation. Guarantor agrees that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Guaranty or the Franchise Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Section is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by any court, then parties intend that the court modify such restriction to extent reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Paramount Franchising. Guarantor agrees that the existence of any claim it or Franchisee may have against Paramount Franchising shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Paramount Franchising of the covenants of this Section. If Guarantor fails to comply with the obligations under this Section during the restrictive period, then the restrictive period will be tolled for each day of noncompliance.

(d) Non-Solicitation of Clients. For three years after the Franchise Agreement is Terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly contact any then-current or former client of Franchisee, or of another franchisee or affiliate of Paramount Franchising for the purpose of soliciting from any such client any business that is the same as or substantially similar to services performed by a Paramount business.

4. Enforcement Costs. If Paramount Franchising must enforce this Guaranty in any judicial or arbitration proceeding or any appeals, Guarantor(s) shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for its enforcement costs. Enforcement costs Include reasonable fees from accountants, attorneys, attorney's assistants, arbitrators, and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, arbitration filing fees, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses, whether incurred before, in preparation for, or in contemplation of the filing of any written demand, claim, action, hearing or proceeding to enforce this Guaranty.

5. Modification. Guarantor agrees that Guarantor's liability hereunder will not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by (a) any amendment of the Franchise Agreement, (b) any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which Paramount Franchising may from time to time grant to Franchisee or to any other person or entity, or (c) the acceptance of any partial payment or performance or the compromise or release of any claims.

6. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution. This Guaranty will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Utah. The provisions of Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this Guaranty as if fully set forth herein. If multiple Guarantors sign this Guaranty, each will have joint and several liability.

7. Counterparts. This Guaranty may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) is entered into as of _____, between _____ (“Franchisee”) and _____ (“Employee”), residing at _____.

A. Franchisee is the holder of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise developed by Paramount Franchising LLC (“Franchisor”).

B. Franchisor has developed certain confidential and proprietary information for the operation of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, including without limitation, processes, methods, client lists and data, trade secrets, systems, software, pricing, financial information, client data and lists, manuals, marketing techniques, and procedures (“Proprietary Information”).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the employment of Employee by Franchisee, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Acknowledgement. Employee acknowledges that during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee he or she has obtained or may obtain knowledge of the Proprietary Information and other confidential matters and procedures developed, licensed to or owned by Franchisor and made available to Franchisee, which are necessary and essential to the operation of the business of Franchisee, which without such information, Franchisee could not efficiently, effectively and profitably operate its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise. Employee further acknowledges that such Proprietary Information was not known to him or her prior to the association with Franchisee or its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise.

2. Non-Use, Non-Disclosure. Except as may be required in the performance of duties for Franchisee, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, use, or disclose to any third party, or authorize any third party to use any portion of the Proprietary Information, and agrees not to copy, transmit, recreate or otherwise reproduce all of any part of the Proprietary Information at any time. Should Employee work for a different Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, Employee shall not share with or use with such new employer any client data for any client or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor. For the purposes of this Agreement, a “prospective client” does not mean any possible client. It means a potential client who has been engaged in some way, or has provided some personal information, or has elected to receive some communication, but who has not yet done business to be considered an actual client.

2.1 No Reverse Engineering. Employee shall not, either personally, in concert with others or through other authorization, reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct or attempt to reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct any portion of the Proprietary Information.

3. Duty to Notify. Employee agrees to notify Franchisor or Franchisee or Employee’s immediate superiors of any reasonably suspected attempts to violate the terms or purposes of this Agreement or to otherwise disclose, copy, or reproduce any part of the Proprietary Information. In the event it is discovered that Employee knew or had reason to know of any suspected attempts to violate this Agreement and fails to report such knowledge, Employee agrees to indemnify Franchisor and Franchisee for all costs and fees associated with enforcement, and to reimburse Franchisor and Franchisee for those losses sustained due to such violation. Employee agrees to cooperate with Franchisor and Franchisee in its

or their attempts to enforce the terms of this Agreement and to otherwise protect the Proprietary Information, and to cooperate with Franchisee and Franchisor to the extent Franchisee is obligated to cooperate with Franchisor's attempts to enforce its rights in and to the Proprietary Information.

4. Return of Materials. Immediately upon the termination of employment, Employee agrees to deliver to Franchisee (and shall not keep in his or her possession or deliver to anyone else whether in hard or electronic soft copy) any and all records, data, photographs, notes, manuals, lists, correspondence, specifications, materials, other documents or property, or reproductions relating to, directly or indirectly, to the Proprietary Information.

5. Management and Supervisor Employees. This Section 5 shall only apply if Employee is a management employee and/or acts in a supervisory role over other employees.

5.1 Non-Competition. Subject to applicable law, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee, and for one year thereafter, directly or indirectly in any capacity, without Franchisee's prior written consent, engage in a business, or plan for or organize a business, or have any financial interest in, or become and owner, officer, director, shareholder, partner, associate, employee, contractor, agent, representative or consultant in any offering or selling products or services the same or substantially similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the minimum area of competitive nature will be that area within a 5-mile radius of any client serviced by Franchisee. The ownership of not more than 2% of the voting stock of a publicly held corporation will not be considered a violation of the foregoing provision. The post-termination, non-competition covenants do not apply if Employee works for another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

6. Non-Solicitation of Clients. Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment and for two years thereafter, directly or indirectly, contact any client, former client, or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor for the purpose of soliciting such client to be a client of a business that is the same as or similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business, including to be a client of another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

7. Irreparable Harm. Employee hereby acknowledges and agrees that any breach by him or her of any portion of Sections 1 through 6 above, inclusive, will cause damage to Franchisee and Franchisor in an amount difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, in addition to any other relief to which Franchisee may be entitled, either Franchisee or Franchisor will be entitled to enforce this Agreement and to seek temporary, preliminary, and/or permanent injunctive relief for any breach or threatened breach by Employee of any of the terms of Section 1 through 6 above, inclusive, without proof of actual damages that have been or may be caused to Franchisee or Franchisor by such breach, and without the requirement of posting bond. The existence of a claim against Franchisee or Franchisor will not constitute a defense to enforce the covenants of this Agreement.

8. Modification. Employee hereby agrees that, without limitation, any modifications, alterations, changes, or improvements conceived, designed, devised, developed, perfected or made by Employee, whether alone or in conjunction with others, and related in any manner to the actual or anticipated operation of the Franchisee, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting system, or to any area of research and development related to the operation of the business, must be promptly disclosed to the Franchisee and will become the property of Franchisor, and Employee hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, and conveys any such to Franchisor.

9. Enforceability. If any portion of this Agreement will be held invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder of this Agreement will be considered valid and operative, and effect will be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

10. Survival of Covenants. All covenants made in this Agreement by Employee survive the termination of Employee's employment with Franchisee or the expiration, transfer, or termination of this Agreement.

11. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement may be amended in whole or in part only by an agreement in writing signed by both parties.

12. Attorneys' Fees. In the event any action in law or equity or any arbitration or other proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement or in connection with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties will be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and other costs reasonably incurred in such action or proceeding.

13. Counterpart and Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

14. Third-party Beneficiary. It is agreed and acknowledged that Franchisor is a third-party beneficiary to this Agreement.

FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Because you are becoming a part of the Paramount Tax® franchise system, it is important that you understand and acknowledge who is your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), and who is not.

You have been hired by _____ (Legal Name of Franchisee) (“Franchisee”), which is an independent franchise owner in the Paramount Tax® franchise system (which we call the “System”). Although Franchisee looks the same, has the same name, and is operated the same way as other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System, Franchisee is not part of the same company as those other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System. Paramount Franchising LLC is a completely separate company that owns the name and created the System. Paramount Franchising LLC has devised rules, systems of operation, and policies and procedures that all of its franchisees must follow, including Franchisee, which makes each independent franchise Paramount Tax® outlet look and operate the same way as one another. This way, Paramount Franchising LLC manages a System composed of many different franchisee owners, each of whom is independently responsible for operating its own Paramount Tax® outlet.

It is important that you understand that Franchisee is your only employer (or is the only party associated with the Paramount Tax® franchise system that hired you as an independent contractor). If you are an employee, then Franchisee gives you your paycheck, establishes your hours, and is responsible for all decisions relating to your employment relationship. If you are an independent contractor, then Franchisee compensates you, hires you for certain hours or tasks, and provides you with the job description for your services to Franchisee. Paramount Franchising LLC is not your employer and has not hired you to provide services related to the Paramount Tax® franchise system. If Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives ever give you direction, training, or advice, it is intended only to ensure that the experience of all customers of Paramount Tax® is the same at or through your place of work as it is at other Paramount Tax® outlets in the Paramount Tax® system. The fact that you are trained, or given direction or advice, by Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives does not somehow mean that Paramount Franchising LLC is your employer.

If you have any questions about your employment relationship or your contracted relationship or about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, please direct them to your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), Franchisee.

I have read this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and I understand it. I have had the opportunity to ask any questions that I have about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and those questions have been answered fully to my satisfaction.

MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Multi-Unit Development Agreement (this “MUDA”) is made between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____ (“Franchisee”) on the Effective Date.

Background Statement: On the same day as they execute this MUDA, Paramount Franchising and Franchisee have entered into a Franchise Agreement for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this MUDA have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Paramount Franchising and Franchisee desire that Franchisee develop multiple Paramount businesses.

1. Multi-Unit Commitment.

(a) Development Schedule; Fee. Franchisee shall develop and open Paramount businesses on the following schedule:

Location #	Deadline for Opening	Total # of Locations to be Open and Operating On Deadline	Initial Franchise Fee
1		1	$ _____
2		2	$ _____
3		3	$ _____
4		4	$ _____
Total Initial Franchise Fees:

(b) Payment. Upon execution of this MUDA, Franchisee shall pay the total Initial Franchise Fees for each franchise to be developed to Paramount Franchising. The Initial Franchise Fees are $40,000 for the first franchise and $25,000 for each subsequent franchise. The Initial Franchise Fees are non-refundable except as provided in Section 6.4 of the Franchise Agreement.

2. Form of Agreement. For Location #1, Franchisee and Paramount Franchising have executed the Franchise Agreement simultaneously with this MUDA. For each additional Paramount franchise, Franchisee shall execute Paramount Franchising’s then-current standard form franchise agreement as developed. This MUDA does not give Franchisee the right to construct, open, or operate a Paramount business, and Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee may construct, open, and operate each Paramount business only pursuant to a separate franchise agreement executed pursuant to this MUDA for each such Paramount business.

3. Development Area. Franchisee shall locate each Paramount business it develops under this MUDA within the following area: _____ (the “Development Area”). Franchisee acknowledges that it does not have exclusive rights to develop, open or operate Paramount businesses in the Development Area.

4. Default and Termination. Paramount Franchising may terminate this MUDA by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee fails to meet a deadline for opening a location as set forth in the development schedule; or
- (ii) Franchisee defaults and fails to cure under the terms of any one of its franchise agreements with Paramount Franchising.

Upon Termination of this MUDA, Franchisee’s rights under this MUDA are terminated, and Paramount Franchising may (among its other rights) sell the remaining development rights, sell franchises, or open locations in the Development Area. Additionally, Franchisee will forfeit all deposits made and any contractual rights to develop or purchase additional Paramount businesses within the Development Area.

5. Limitation of Liability. Franchisee’s commitment to develop Paramount businesses is in the nature of an option only. If Paramount Franchising terminates this MUDA for Franchisee’s default, Franchisee shall not be liable to Paramount Franchising for lost future revenues or profits from the unopened Paramount businesses.

6. Conditions. Franchisee’s right to develop each Paramount franchise after the Location #1 is subject to the following:

- (i) Franchisee must possess sufficient financial and organizational capacity to develop, open, operate, and manage each additional Paramount business, in the reasonable judgment of Paramount Franchising, and
- (ii) Franchisee must be in full compliance with all brand requirements at its open Paramount businesses and not in default under any Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with Paramount Franchising.

7. Dispute Resolution; Miscellaneous. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties. Franchisee shall not Transfer this MUDA without the prior written consent of Paramount Franchising, and any Transfer without Paramount Franchising’s prior written consent will be void. The provisions of Article 15 (Transfers), Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) and Article 18 (Miscellaneous) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this MUDA as if fully set forth herein. Nothing in this MUDA or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document.

This General Release (“Release”) is executed by _____ (“Releasor”) and _____ (“Personal Guarantor(s)”) (collectively, the “Releasing Parties”) in favor of Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising” or “Released Party”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Franchisee entered into a Paramount Tax® and Accounting franchise agreement on _____ with Franchisor (“Franchise Agreement”); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement was personally guaranteed by _____ and _____ (“Personal Guarantor(s)”); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement has been terminated effective as of _____.

Releasing Parties (on behalf of itself, guarantors, and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective past and present officers, directors, shareholders, managers, members, partners, agents, and employees) hereby releases Paramount Franchising, its affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, employees, and agents from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, debts, agreements, promises, demands, liabilities, contractual rights and/or obligations, of whatever nature, known or unknown, which any Releasing Party now has or ever had against any Released Party based upon and/or arising out of events that occurred through the date hereof, including without limitation, anything arising out of the Franchise Agreement, the relationship described therein and any business transaction, agreement or occurrence, act or omission relating thereto prior to the date hereof. Releasing Parties further waive any and all state law provisions limiting the effect of a general release (collectively, “Claims”).

2. Covenant Not to Sue. Releasor (on behalf of all Releasing Parties) covenants not to initiate, prosecute, encourage, assist, or (except as required by law) participate in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding or investigation in any court, agency, or other forum, either affirmatively or by way of cross-claim, defense, or counterclaim, against any Released Party with respect to any Claim. In the event of a dispute related to this Release, the dispute resolution sections of the Franchise Agreement will apply and govern.

3. Non-Disparagement. Releasor covenants not to, in any way, form, or medium, disparage any of the Released Parties, the System, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting brand.

5. For California Residents. These releases are intended to waive, release and discharge all claims, other than those expressly reserved herein, with the express waiver of any statute, legal doctrine or other similar limitation upon the effect of general releases. In particular, the parties waive the benefit of any applicable statutory provision such as by illustration, California Civil Code Section 1542, which states:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

The parties, with the advice of their respective counsel, waive the benefit of both statute and other legal doctrine or principle of similar effect in any jurisdiction.

6. For Washington Residents. This Agreement does not apply with respect to claims arising under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and any rule or order adopted thereunder.

Franchisee, Personal Guarantor(s), and Franchisor hereby irrevocably consent to the exercise of general personal jurisdiction in the courts of record of the state of Utah even though it may be otherwise possible to obtain jurisdiction elsewhere, and we both agree that Salt Lake County, Utah will be the exclusive venue for any litigation between us. Each party waives any objection they may have to the personal jurisdiction of or venue in the state and federal courts of Salt Lake County, Utah.

7.3 Arbitration. In the event any controversy or dispute arises between the Parties hereto in connection with, arising from or with respect to the provisions hereof, the relationship of the Parties hereto, or the validity of this Agreement or any provision hereof, such dispute or controversy will, on the request of any Party hereto be submitted for arbitration to the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its commercial arbitration rules. EXHIBIT I

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Investment law requires that a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise be delivered together with the disclosure document at least 14 days prior to the execution by the prospective franchisee of any binding franchise or other agreement, or at least 14 days prior to the receipt of any consideration, whichever occurs first, a copy of the disclosure document, together with a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise..
2. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
3. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
4. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
5. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
6. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake County, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake County, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
7. The franchise agreement requires application of the laws of Utah. This provision may not be enforceable under California law. You may want to consult an attorney to understand the impact of out-of-state governing law on the franchise agreement.
8. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
9. Neither franchisor nor any person listed in Item 2 of the disclosure document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling this or these persons from membership in such association or exchange.
10. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires the Franchisor to give the franchisee a disclosure document, in a form and containing such information as the Commissioner may by rule or order require, before a solicitation of a proposed modification of an existing franchise.
11. OUR WEBSITE at WWW.PARAMOUNT.TAX HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THE WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.
12. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.

13. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:

- (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
- (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
- (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
- (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

14. California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

15. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

16. Franchisee owners or greater must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

17. Item 6 under Late Fees is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

18. Item 19 is amended to include the following:

"The financial performance representations do not reflect the costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your franchised business. Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in this offering circular, may be one source of this information."

ADDENDUM TO THE FDD
FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Illinois law governs the franchise agreement(s).

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

By reading this disclosure document, you are not agreeing to, acknowledging, or making any representations whatsoever to the Franchisor and its affiliates.

STATE REGULATIONS FOR THE STATE OF INDIANA

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the disclosure document, the following provisions shall apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Indiana:

1. The prohibition by Indiana Code § 23-2-2.7-1(7) against unilateral termination of the franchise without good cause or in bad faith, good cause being defined therein as material breach of the Franchise Agreement, shall apply to the franchise agreement in the State of Indiana to the extent they may be inconsistent with such prohibition.

2. Liquidated damages and termination penalties are prohibited by law in the State of Indiana and, therefore, the disclosure document and franchise agreement are amended by the deletion of all references to liquidated damages and termination penalties and the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein:

“Notwithstanding any such termination, and in addition to the obligations of the Franchisee as otherwise provided, or in the event of termination or cancellation of the Franchise Agreement under any of the other provisions therein, the Franchisee nevertheless shall be, continue and remain liable to Franchisor for any and all damages which Franchisor has sustained or may sustain by reason of such default or defaults and the breach of the Franchise Agreement on the part of the Franchisee for the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement.

At the time of such termination of the Franchise Agreement, the Franchisee covenants to pay to Franchisor within 10 days after demand as compensation all damages, losses, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney’s fees) incurred by Franchisor, and/or amounts which would otherwise be payable thereunder but for such termination for and during the remainder of the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement. This Agreement does not constitute a waiver of the Franchisee’s right to a trial on any of the above matters.”

3. No release language set forth in the disclosure document or franchise agreement, shall relieve Franchisor or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of Indiana.

4. To the extent required by the franchise laws of the State of Indiana, the franchise agreement will be construed in accordance with the franchise laws of the State of Indiana.

5. The provisions of the franchise agreement pertaining to litigation jurisdiction and venue shall be amended to be within the scope of the requirements of the Indiana Franchise laws.

MARYLAND ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

ITEM 17 of the Disclosure Document is amended to add the following:

- A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
- The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its rights to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legal enforceable.
- Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.
- The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law.
- No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

1. The following information is added to the cover page of the Franchise Disclosure Document:

INFORMATION COMPARING FRANCHISORS IS AVAILABLE. CALL THE STATE ADMINISTRATORS LISTED IN EXHIBIT A OR YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR SERVICES OR INFORMATION. REGISTRATION OF THIS FRANCHISE BY NEW YORK STATE DOES NOT MEAN THAT NEW YORK STATE RECOMMENDS IT OR HAS VERIFIED THE INFORMATION IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. THE FRANCHISOR MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, THE FRANCHISOR CANNOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE TO ACCEPT TERMS WHICH ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. The following is to be added at the end of Item 3:

Except as provided above, with regard to the franchisor, its predecessor, a person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate offering franchises under the franchisor's principal trademark:

No such party has an administrative, criminal or civil action pending against that person alleging: a felony, a violation of a franchise, antitrust, or securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, misappropriation of property, unfair or deceptive practices, or comparable civil or misdemeanor allegations.

B. No such party has pending actions, other than routine litigation incidental to the business, which are significant in the context of the number of franchisees and the size, nature or financial condition of the franchise system or its business operations.

C. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or, within the 10-year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law; fraud; embezzlement; fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property; or unfair or deceptive practices or comparable allegations.

D. No such party is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order or decree relating to the franchise, or under a Federal, State, or Canadian franchise, securities, antitrust, trade regulation or trade practice law, resulting from a concluded or pending action or proceeding brought by a public agency; or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange; or is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to any other business activity as a result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including, without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales agent.

3. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled “Requirements for franchisee to renew or extend,” and Item 17(m), entitled “Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer”:

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by franchisee”: You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(v), titled “Choice of forum”, and Item 17(w), titled “Choice of law”:

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earlier of the first personal meeting, ten (10) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

By statute under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause or to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him by any provision contained in the franchise. Accordingly, the Division requests that the franchisor add a Virginia Addendum to the FDD containing the following statements:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, any franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Paramount Franchising LLC for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

The following statements are added to Item 17(h):

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him under the franchise. If any provision of the Franchise Agreement involves the use of undue influence by the franchisor to induce a franchisee to surrender any rights given to the franchisee under the franchise, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Non-solicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Paragraph 19.1 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “but only to the extent necessary to prevent the invalidity of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof or the imposition of civil or criminal penalties or liability. To the extent permitted by the laws of the state whose laws govern this Agreement, You hereby waive any provisions of law or regulations which render any portion of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect.”

20. Paragraph 20.10 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “You represent and acknowledge that no agreements, representations, negotiations, promises, commitments, inducements, assurances, terms, conditions, or covenants of any nature exist between You and Us except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, whether pertaining to this Agreement or to any future, further or additional rights of either You or Us.”

21. Paragraph 20.11 of the franchise agreement is amended to clarify that for Washington franchisees, the Washington Addendum applies even if the Washington Addendum is not executed or not signed by the franchisor, franchisee, or both.

22. Sections 20.14, 20.18, and 20.22 of the franchise agreement do not apply in Washington.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.

FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California will be the California Investment law and the California Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
 - (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

10. Franchisee owners must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

11. Late Fees in Section 4.6(c) is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

12. Under California law, an agreement between a seller and a buyer regarding the price at which the buyer can resell a product (known as vertical price-fixing or resale price maintenance) is illegal. Therefore, requirements on franchisees to sell goods or services at specific prices set by the franchisor may be unenforceable.

INDIANA RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”) between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the franchise agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the franchise agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the franchise agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a franchise agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the franchise agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the franchise agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

MARYLAND RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Addendum dated _____, by and between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company hereinafter referred to as "Franchisor" and _____, LLC/Inc., a hereinafter referred to as "Franchisee."

1. A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective franchisees to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

Except as expressly amended or modified herein, all terms, provisions and conditions of the original Franchise Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Addendum and any provisions of the original Franchise Agreement, the provisions hereof shall in all respects govern and control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and by their signatures below, the Parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be effective as of the date listed above with the full authority of the Company principal they represent.

INDIANA RIDER TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Multi-Unit Development Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”), between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

revaluation of the United States dollar in the case of foreign-made goods, are not subject to this subsection (6).

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a Multi-Unit Development Agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the Multi-Unit Development Agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

3. Effective Date. This Rider is effective as of the Effective Date.

MARYLAND RIDER TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Addendum dated _____, 20____, by and between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company hereinafter referred to as “Franchisor” and _____, LLC/Inc., a hereinafter collectively referred to as “Area Developer.”

1. An area developer may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective area developers to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. This development agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

Except as expressly amended or modified herein, all terms, provisions and conditions of the original Multi-Unit Development Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Addendum and any provisions of the original Multi-Unit Development Agreement, the provisions hereof shall in all respects govern and control.

(10) Additional Training

A. Post-Opening Training. We may at any time require that your principal executive or other personnel complete training programs in any format and at any location as determined by us. You will be required to pay a reasonable training fee (currently $1,500 per person) and will be responsible to pay all applicable travel, living and other expenses of your attendees or our representatives as applicable. We may also require you to provide training programs to your employees. (Franchise Agreement Section 7.6).

B. Conferences and Seminars. At our discretion, we may conduct conferences and seminars, which may be through online webinars, videos, live video conferencing, phone conferences or in person, to discuss improvements, new developments, mutual concerns, business issues, sales, marketing, personnel training, bookkeeping, accounting, inventory control and performance standards. Attendance at conferences and seminars is optional at this time, but we reserve the right to make a conference or seminar mandatory for your principal executive. You are required to pay any applicable the registration fees, as well as travel, and living expenses for your attendees. In-person conferences and seminars will be held at locations chosen by us. (Franchise Agreement Section 5.6).

TERRITORY

(1) Territory Protection

We grant you an exclusive territory meaning that we will not open a Paramount Tax & Accounting outlet, nor license or franchise another party to open a Paramount Tax & Accounting outlet in your territory. The continuation of your territorial protection does not depend on achieving a certain sales volume, market penetration, or another contingency.

(2) Your Location

Your franchise is for a specific location approved by us.

(3) Grant of Territory

Your franchise agreement will specify a territory which will be determined by us. Your territory will be made up of one or more ZIP codes. We generally grant territories with a population base of approximately 100,000 people. We have the right to designate the name of each territory and to change the name designation of a territory. You may only provide services to clients at your location, virtually, or as otherwise directed by us. Unless otherwise approved or required by us, you may not make sales by any other means, including without limitation by wholesale, by delivery, by mail order or over the Internet, or at temporary or satellite locations.

(4) Territory Division

We have found that once an office reaches approximately 3,500 clients or an average of 3,000 clients, the service of that office can diminish due to the increased workload, and client attrition can be more widespread. Therefore, once you reach 3,500 clients or maintain an average of 3,000 clients over a 12-month period, we can require you to open a second outlet in your territory, and your original territory will be divided into two separate territories. In such case, you may have one or more territories with less than 100,000 people, but the culmination of the population for all your territories will still be approximately 100,000 people. You would also be required to sign a new franchise agreement for the additional location, but the initial franchise fee will only be $10,000 for this additional franchise, and you would be required to purchase an additional startup package for that additional territory.

(5) Relocation; Establishment of Additional Outlets

You do not have the right to relocate your business, and we have no obligation to approve any request for relocation. Our policy is to approve relocation of a franchisee's business on case-by-case basis, considering factors such as changes in demographics, profitability of your current business, or a loss of your premises due to circumstances beyond your control.

You do not have the right to establish additional franchised outlets or expand into additional territories. If you desire to establish additional franchised outlets, you must (1) meet our then-current criteria for new franchisees as well as our then-current criteria for multi-unit franchisees, (2) be in compliance with your franchise agreement at all times since opening your business, (3) have demonstrated your capability to operate the franchise successfully, and (4) sign our then-current franchise agreement.

(6) Options to Acquire Additional Franchises

You do not receive any options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

(7) Adjustment of Territory Boundaries

We reserve the right to adjust your territory boundaries if a government body revises the ZIP codes that make up your territory, or if the population in your territory increases to a population of more than 150,000 people. In such case, we may readjust the boundaries of your territory, including the assigned ZIP codes for your territory, but any adjustment will not result in your territory(ies) having less than a population base of approximately 100,000 people.

(8) Other

(i) Restrictions on Us from Soliciting or Accepting Orders in Your Territory.

There are no restrictions on us from soliciting or accepting orders from consumers inside your territory. We reserve the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, websites, social media, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales within your territory using our principal trademarks or using trademarks different from the ones you will use under your franchise agreement. We do not pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders from inside your territory.

(ii) Soliciting by You Outside Your Territory

You can advertise outside your territory, so long as you do not advertise in another franchise or affiliate-owned territory. There are no restrictions on you accepting clients from outside of your territory. For example, direct referrals to other clients from existing clients or referral partners will be permitted anywhere in the country regardless of who owns the area. We reserve the right to control all Internet-based marketing.

(iii) Competition by Us Under Different Trademarks

Neither we, nor any of our affiliates operates, franchises, or has plans to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark selling goods or services similar to those you will offer. However, the franchise agreement does not prohibit us from doing so.

(9) Multi-Unit Development Agreements

As a multi-unit developer, you will be assigned a limited, non-exclusive development area over which you will have development authority. You may face competition from other franchisees, from units that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. The size of your development area is to be negotiated. The written boundaries will be included in your multi-unit development agreement. The schedule of units to be developed in your development area are negotiated between you and us. To maintain your territorial development rights, you must develop the number of franchise businesses by the deadlines listed in your development schedule. After you have identified a potential site for a location, we must approve the location. Our approval will be based on our then-current standards for that franchise business pursuant to your franchise agreement.

There are no restrictions on us from soliciting or accepting orders from consumers inside your development area. We reserve the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, websites, social media, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales within your development area using our principal trademarks or using trademarks different from the ones you will use under your franchise agreement. We do not pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders from inside your development area.

The intercompany license agreement specifies that if it is ever terminated, your franchise rights will remain unaffected.

(8) Protection of Rights

We protect your right to use the principal trademarks listed in this Item and protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition arising out of your use of the trademarks, to the extent described in this section.

The franchise agreement obligates you to notify us of the use of, or claims of rights to, a trademark identical to or confusingly similar to a trademark licensed to you. The franchise agreement does not require us to take affirmative action when notified of these uses or claims. We have the right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed by us to you.

If you use our trademarks in accordance with the franchise agreement, then (i) we shall defend you (at our expense) against any legal action by a third party alleging infringement by your use of the trademark, and (ii) we will indemnify you for expenses and damages if the legal action is resolved unfavorably to you.

Under the franchise agreement, we may require you to modify or discontinue using a trademark, at your expense.

(9) Superior Prior Rights and Infringing Uses

We do not know of either superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the principal trademarks.

Item 14

(1) Patents

We do not own rights in, or licenses to, patents that are material to the franchise.

(2) Copyrights

All our original works of authorship fixed in a tangible medium of expression are automatically protected under the U.S. Copyright Act, whether or not we have obtained registrations. This includes our operating manual as well as all other sales, training, management and other materials that we have created or will create. You may use these copyrighted materials during the term of the franchise, in a manner consistent with our ownership rights, solely for the purpose of your franchised business.

We do not have any registered copyrights. There are no pending copyright applications for our copyrighted materials. There are no currently effective determinations of the U.S. Copyright Office (Library of Congress) or any court regarding any copyright.

(3) Agreements

Our affiliate owns all of the copyrights described in this Item 14. Under an intercompany license agreement between us and our affiliate entered into in 2018, we have been granted the exclusive right to sublicense the copyrighted materials to franchisees throughout the United States for 50 years with renewal periods of 25 years. It may be modified only by mutual consent of the parties. It may be terminated by our affiliate only if we materially misuse the copyrights and fail to correct the misuse within 60 days of notice. The intercompany license agreement specifies that if it is ever terminated, your franchise rights will remain unaffected.

There are no agreements currently in effect that limit our right to use or license the use of our copyrighted materials.

(4) Protection of Rights

We have no obligation to protect any of our copyrights or to defend you against claims arising from your use of copyrighted items. The franchise agreement does not require us to take affirmative action when notified of copyright infringement. We control any copyright litigation. We are not required to participate in the defense of a franchisee or indemnify a franchisee for expenses or damages in a proceeding involving a copyright licensed to the franchisee. We may require you to modify or discontinue using the subject matter covered by any of our copyrights.

We do not know of any copyright infringement that could materially affect you.

(5) Proprietary Information

We have proprietary, confidential manuals and related materials that include guidelines, standards and policies for the development and operation of your business. We also claim proprietary rights in other confidential information or trade secrets that include all methods for developing and operating the business, and all non-public plans, data, financial information, processes, vendor pricing, supply systems, marketing systems, formulas, techniques, designs, layouts, operating procedures, client data, information and know-how.

You must protect the confidentiality of our manuals and other proprietary information and use our confidential information only for your franchised business. We require your owners and key employees to sign confidentiality agreements.

(6) Improvements to the System

Any improvements you make to the system will be owned by us and considered a “work-made-for-hire” or will otherwise be assigned to us.

Item 15

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

(1) Your Participation

You must designate one person as your “principal executive.” If you as the franchisee are an individual, the principal executive is you personally, if you as the franchisee are an entity, the principal executive is the executive primarily responsible for your business and has decision-making authority on behalf of the business. The principal executive must own at least 10% of the business.

Your principal executive is not required to participate personally in the direct operation of your business. However, we recommend that your principal executive participates in the direct operations and must also be your principal point of contact with us.

The principal executive must also complete any post-opening training programs that we develop in the future. The principal executive must make reasonable efforts to attend all in-person meetings and remote meetings (such as telephone conference calls), including regional or national brand conferences, that we require. The principal executive cannot fail to attend more than 3 consecutive required meetings.

(2) “On-Premises” Supervision

Your principal executive is not required to personally conduct “on-premises” supervision (that is, act as general manager) of your business. However, we recommend on-premises supervision by your principal executive.

There is no limit on who you can hire as an on-premises supervisor.

If the franchise business is owned by an entity, we do not require that the general manager own any equity in the entity.

A licensed professional must e-file all tax returns and approve of all the work produced by the franchised firm.

(3) Restrictions On Your Manager

If we request, you must have your general manager sign a confidentiality and non-compete agreement. We do not require you place any other restrictions on your manager.

You, your partners, directors, members, shareholders, and principal executive must sign our standard principal brand protection agreement agreeing to protect and keep confidential our trade secrets and confidential information and to conform with the covenants not to compete described in Item 17. Your employees will also be required to sign a brand protection agreement, and that agreement also imposes certain non-competition restrictions on management employees. Some states may impose certain restrictions on non-competition agreements. We provide you with this form, but it is your responsibility to conform it to the laws and regulations of your state.

(7) Required Operations

You must operate the franchise business at least 30 hours per week throughout the year, except for the week between Christmas and New Years as designated by us (unless waived in writing by us).

Item 16

We have the right to change the types of authorized goods or services, and there are no limits on our right to make changes. You may not outsource any part of your services to a third party, including to another Paramount Tax & Accounting franchisee without our prior written approval.

Additionally, if you have the proper licensing as required by your state, we may approve of you providing auditing services and other types of consulting services to your clients. Depending on state law, these fees will be considered part of your gross sales, and thus, included in the calculation of your ongoing royalty payment.

We do not restrict your access to clients, and you may accept referrals from anywhere in the country, even if that client is in another franchisee's territory. However, you are not permitted to market in another franchisee's or affiliate- owned territory.

Item 18 PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchise. However, we reserve the right to use public figures in the future.

Item 19 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

Gross Sales/Expenses/Net Income

The tables below represent an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets and 30 of our franchised outlets that completed at least one full tax season before 2024 and who operated for all of 2024.

We had 45-46 outlets that are not included because they did not complete at least one full tax season before the beginning of 2024 or did not operate for all of 2024. Franchisees typically have different start dates and experience other types of volatility in their first tax season; whereas franchisees that have completed at least one full tax season before the beginning of the year generally have more uniform operations in the reporting year.

We also had 15 outlets that are not included in this Item 19 because they did not operate on a full-time basis in 2024, and part-time franchisees are not included in our offered franchise model. Additionally, we did not include 7 franchisees that had signed franchise agreements but who had not yet opened as of the end of 2024.

Company Owned/Affiliate Outlets

The table below represents an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets in Draper, Utah and Port St. Lucie, Florida from January 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024. We only have 2 affiliate owned outlets. As of December 31, 2024, our Draper, Utah outlet had been operating for more than 10 years, and our Port St. Lucie, Florida outlet had been operating for less than 3 years.

¹ Draper Gross Sales. Most of the gross sales in 2024 for our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet was from tax consulting. Our franchisees are allowed to provide tax consulting as well, but most of the tax consulting performed by our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet involved mineral property donations and conservation easements for high income producing clients, and the IRS and state taxing authorities may phase out this deduction in the near future.

² Draper Royalties. Our Draper, Utah outlet pays us royalties on all tax and accounting work it performs but not tax consulting work. In 2024, gross sales generated from tax and accounting work was $1,017,140.

[The table representing our franchised outlets is on the following page]

Notes

1. Gross Sales. “Gross sales” means the total dollar amount of all sales generated by an outlet for a given period, including payment for any services or products sold, whether for cash or credit and the value of any services bartered or done on trade. Gross sales do not include (i) bona fide refunds to clients, (ii) sales taxes collected, (iii) sale of used equipment not in the ordinary course of business, or (iv) sales of prepaid cards or similar products (but the redemption of any such card or product will be included in gross sales).
2. Average. “Average” means the sum of all data points in a set, divided by the number of data points in that set.
3. Median. “Median” means the data point that is in the center of all data points used. That number is found by examining the total number of data points and finding the middle number in that set. In the event the number of data points is an odd number, the median will be the center number. If the dataset contains an even number of data points, the median is reached by taking the 2 numbers in the middle, adding them together, and dividing by 2.
4. Outlet Characteristics. Our affiliate owned outlets and all franchised outlets listed in the tables above offer similar products and services to what new franchisees would offer. Each outlet is in a metropolitan area.
5. Other Expenses. The term “other expenses” includes general and administrative expenses along with direct costs that did not include sales and marketing expenses.

Some outlets have earned this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you will earn as much.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to the prospective franchisee upon reasonable request.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, Paramount Franchising LLC does not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Jon Wilhelm, CPA at Jon@Paramount.tax, 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, and 801-341-2300, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

During the term of this Agreement and any extensions or successor Franchises hereof, and at any time after the termination of this Agreement, Franchisee and those over whom it has control shall not make any unauthorized disclosure or use of Paramount Franchising's Confidential Information or Intellectual Property other than as authorized by this Agreement. Franchisee shall adopt and implement all reasonable procedures to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information and Intellectual Property, which procedures may be prescribed from time to time by Paramount Franchising. Franchisee shall never contest the validity of Paramount Franchising's exclusive ownership of and rights to its Intellectual Property or Confidential Information.

13.2 Covenants Not to Compete; Non-Solicitation.

(a) Restriction – In Term. During the term of this Agreement and for any extensions hereof, Franchisee, its principals, principal executives, managers, and or Immediate Family (collectively and individually a "Restricted Party") shall not, directly or indirectly, be a Participant, assist, or serve in any other capacity whatsoever or have any interest in a Competing Business in any capacity, territory, or location, except with Paramount Franchising's prior written consent. Franchisee's owners owning 10% or more must each execute the then-current form of the Guaranty and Non-compete Agreement in the form of the attached Schedule 3 to this Agreement.

(b) Restriction – Post Term. For two years after this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer), no Restricted Party shall directly or indirectly be a Participant, assist, or serve in any other capacity whatsoever or Competing Business within the Territory or within 25 miles of Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of the territory of any other Paramount business operating on the date of termination, expiration or transfer, as applicable.

(c) Interpretation. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Section is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by any court, then parties intend that the court modify such restriction to extent reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Paramount Franchising. Franchisee agrees that the existence of any claim it may have against Paramount Franchising will not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Paramount Franchising of the covenants of this Section. If a Restricted Party fails to comply with the obligations under this Section during the restrictive period, then the restrictive period will be extended for each day of noncompliance.

13.3 General Manager and Key Employees. Franchisee will cause its general manager and other key employees to sign Paramount Franchising's then-current form employee brand protection agreement. A copy of the current employee brand protection agreement is attached as Attachment 6 to this Agreement. A copy of all such agreements must be promptly delivered to Paramount Franchising within 10 days of hiring of the respective employee.

13.4 Non-Contravention; Non-Disparagement. Franchisee shall not undertake any action or inaction to circumvent, contravene, or undermine the purposes of this Agreement. Additionally, during and after the term of this Agreement, Franchisee shall not, in any way, form, or medium, make any negative, disparaging, false or misleading statements, published or made orally, in any medium about Paramount Franchising, the brand, the System, its products and services, or the officers, owners, partners, directors, members, managers, representatives, agents, employees or other franchisees of Paramount Franchising.

13.5 Non-Solicitation of Clients. During the term of this Agreement and for three years after this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason, Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly contact any then-current or former client of Franchisee, or of another franchisee, or Franchisor, or affiliate of Paramount Franchising for the purpose of soliciting from any such client any business that is the same as or substantially similar to services performed by a Paramount Tax & Accounting business, including to another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

ARTICLE 14. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

14.1 Termination by Franchisee. Franchisee may terminate this Agreement only if Paramount Franchising violates a material provision of this Agreement and fails to cure or to make substantial progress toward curing the violation within 60 days after receiving written notice from Franchisee detailing the alleged default. Termination by Franchisee is effective 10 days after Paramount Franchising receives written notice of Termination.

14.2 Termination by Paramount Franchising.

(a) Subject to 10-Day Cure Period. Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement if Franchisee does not make any payment to Paramount Franchising when due, or if Franchisee does not have sufficient funds in its account when Paramount Franchising attempts an electronic funds withdrawal, and Franchisee fails to cure such non-payment within 10 days after Paramount Franchising gives notice to Franchisee of such breach.

(b) Subject to 30-Day Cure Period. If Franchisee breaches this Agreement in any manner other than described in subsection (a) or (c) and fails to cure such breach to Paramount Franchising's satisfaction within 30 days after Paramount Franchising gives notice to Franchisee of such breach, then Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement.

(c) No-Cure Period. Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee misrepresented or omitted material facts when applying to be a franchisee, or breaches any representation in this Agreement;
- (ii) Franchisee intentionally submits any false report or intentionally provides any other false information to Paramount Franchising;
- (iii) a receiver or trustee for the Business or all (or substantially all) of Franchisee's property is appointed by any court, or Franchisee makes a general assignment for the benefit of Franchisee's creditors or Franchisee makes a written statement to the effect that Franchisee is unable to pay its debts as they become due, or a levy or execution is made against the Business, or an attachment or lien remains on the Business for 30 days unless the attachment or lien is being duly contested in good faith by Franchisee, or a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Franchisee, or such a petition is filed against or consented to by Franchisee and the petition is not dismissed within 45 days, or Franchisee is adjudicated as bankrupt;
- (iv) Franchisee fails to open for business by the date specified on the Summary Page;
- (v) Franchisee loses possession of the Location;
- (vi) Franchisee or any Owner commits a material violation of Section 7.2 (compliance with laws) or Section 13.1 (confidentiality), violates Section 13.2 (non-compete) or Article 15 (transfer), or commits any other violation of this Agreement which by its nature cannot be cured;
- (vii) Franchisee abandons or ceases operation of the Business for more than five consecutive days without the prior written authorization of Paramount Franchising;
- (viii) Franchisee or any Owner slanders or libels Paramount Franchising or any of its employees, directors, or officers;
- (ix) Franchisee refuses to cooperate with or permit any audit or inspection by Paramount Franchising or its agents or contractors, or otherwise fails to comply with Section 10.5 or Section 11.2;
- (x) the Business is operated in a manner which, in Paramount Franchising's reasonable judgment, constitutes a significant danger to the health or safety of any person, and Franchisee fails to cure such danger within 48 hours after becoming aware of the danger (due to notice from Paramount Franchising or otherwise);
- (xi) Franchisee has received two or more notices of default and Franchisee commits another breach of this Agreement, all in the same 12-month period;

- (xii) Paramount Franchising (or any affiliate) terminates any other agreement with Franchisee (or any affiliate) due to the breach of such other agreement by Franchisee (or its affiliate); or
- (xiii) Franchisee or any Owner is charged with, pleads guilty to, or is convicted of a felony, or is accused by any governmental authority or third party of any act that in Paramount Franchising's opinion is reasonably likely to materially and unfavorably affect Paramount Franchising's brand.

14.3 Effect of Termination. Upon Termination of this Agreement, all obligations that by their terms or by reasonable implication survive Termination, Including those pertaining to non-competition, confidentiality, and indemnity, will remain in effect, and Franchisee must immediately:

- (i) Pay all amounts owed to Paramount Franchising based on the operation of the Business through the effective date of Termination;
- (ii) Return to Paramount Franchising all copies of the Manual, Confidential Information and any and all other materials provided by Paramount Franchising to Franchisee or created by a third party for Franchisee relating to the operation of the Business, and all items containing any Marks, copyrights, and other proprietary items;
- (iii) Notify the telephone, Internet, email, electronic network, Social Media, directory, and listing entities of the Termination of Franchisee's right to use any numbers, addresses, domain names, locators, Social Media accounts, directories and listings associated with any of the Marks, and authorize their transfer to Paramount Franchising or any new franchisee as may be directed by Paramount Franchising, and Franchisee hereby irrevocably appoints Paramount Franchising, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact, which appointment is coupled with an interest. Franchisee shall execute the Digital and Social Media Authorization for Assignment in the form of Attachment 4 attached hereto and such other directions and authorizations as may be necessary or appropriate to accomplish the foregoing; and
- (iv) Cease doing business under any of the Marks and forward all client information to Paramount Franchising.

14.4 Remove Identification. Within 30 days after Termination, Franchisee shall at its own expense "de-identify" the Location so that it no longer contains the Marks, signage, or any trade dress of a Paramount business, to the reasonable satisfaction of Paramount Franchising. This Includes Franchisee's removal of signs, destruction or removal of letterheads, Marketing material, the change of Business telephone listings, telephone numbers, email addresses, URLs, Internet websites, and any other property that bears Paramount Tax & Accounting brand or is affiliated with the brand. Franchisee must not identify any present or future business owned or operated by Franchisee as having been in any way associated with Paramount Franchising or the System. Franchisee shall comply with any reasonable instructions and procedures of Paramount Franchising for de-identification. If Franchisee fails to do so within 30 days after this Agreement is Terminated, Paramount Franchising may enter the Location to remove the Marks and de-identify the Location. In this event, Paramount Franchising will not be charged with trespass nor be accountable or required to pay for any assets removed or altered, or for any damage caused by Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for all its costs and expenses to remove the Marks and de-identify the Location.

14.5 Other Claims. Termination of this Agreement by Paramount Franchising will not affect or discharge any claims, rights, causes of action or remedies (Including claims for Paramount Franchising's lost future income after Termination), which Paramount Franchising may have against Franchisee, whether arising before or after Termination.

14.6 Purchase Option. When this Agreement is Terminated, Paramount Franchising will have the right (but not the obligation) to purchase any or all of the assets related to the Business, Including computer equipment, server (physical and/or cloud-based), office furniture, etc., at fair market value, and/or to require Franchisee to assign its lease or sublease to Paramount Franchising. To exercise this option, Paramount Franchising must notify Franchisee no later than 30 days after this Agreement is Terminated. If the parties cannot agree on fair market value within 30 days after the exercise notice, the fair market value will be determined by an independent appraiser reasonably acceptable to both parties. The parties will equally share the cost of the appraisal. Paramount Franchising has the right to cover the entire cost of the appraisal and deduct Franchisee's share from the purchase price or include with other amounts due to Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising's purchase will be of assets only (free and clear of all liens) and will not include any liabilities of Franchisee. If Paramount Franchising exercises the purchase option, Paramount Franchising may deduct from the purchase price: (a) all amounts due from Franchisee; (b) Franchisee's portion of the cost of any appraisal conducted hereunder; and (c) amounts paid or to be paid by Paramount Franchising to cure defaults under Franchisee's lease and/or amounts owed by Franchisee to third parties. If any of the assets are subject to liens, Paramount Franchising may withhold a portion of purchase price directly to the lienholder to pay off such lien. Paramount Franchising may also withhold 25% of the purchase price for 90 days to ensure that all of Franchisee's taxes and other liabilities are paid. Paramount Franchising may assign this purchase option to another party.

ARTICLE 15. TRANSFERS

15.1 By Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may transfer or assign this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, to any person or entity, and Paramount Franchising may undergo a change in ownership and/or control, without the consent of Franchisee.

15.2 By Franchisee. Franchisee acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Franchisee and that Paramount Franchising entered into this Agreement in reliance on Franchisee's business skill, financial capacity, personal character, experience and business ability. Accordingly, Franchisee shall not conduct or undergo a Transfer without providing Paramount Franchising at least 60 days' prior written notice of the proposed Transfer, and without obtaining Paramount Franchising's prior written consent. In granting any such consent, Paramount Franchising may impose conditions, Including the following:

- (i) Paramount Franchising receives a transfer fee equal to 50% of the then-current initial franchise fee for new franchisees. Franchisee only needs to reimburse Paramount Franchising's legal fees if Franchisee Transfers less than 25% ownership in Franchisee, and Franchisee's current owners maintain control. However, all guarantors will remain guarantors unless otherwise released by Paramount Franchising;
- (ii) the proposed assignee and its owners have completed Paramount Franchising's franchise application processes, meet Paramount Franchising's then-applicable standards for new franchisees, and have been approved by Paramount Franchising as franchisees;
- (iii) the proposed assignee is not a Competing Business;

- (iv) the proposed assignee executes Paramount Franchising's then-current form of franchise agreement; which form may contain materially different provisions from the Agreement;
- (v) Franchisee has paid all monetary obligations to Paramount Franchising in full, and Franchisee is not otherwise in default of this Agreement;
- (vi) the proposed assignee and its owners and employees undergo such training as Paramount Franchising may require and Franchisee assists in covering the Business during such training if necessary;
- (vii) Franchisee, its Owners, and the transferee and its owners execute a general release of Paramount Franchising in a form satisfactory to Paramount Franchising; and
- (viii) the Business fully complies with all of Paramount Franchising's most recent System Standards, Including upgrading and Remodel requirements.

15.3 Transfer for Convenience of Ownership. If Franchisee is an individual, Franchisee may Transfer this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company formed for the convenience of ownership after at least 15 days' prior written notice to Paramount Franchising, if, prior to the Transfer: (1) the transferee provides the information required by Section 2.3; (2) Franchisee provides copies the entity's charter documents, by-laws (or operating agreement) and similar documents, if requested by Paramount Franchising, (3) Franchisee owns all voting securities of the corporation or limited liability company, and (4) Franchisee provides a guaranty in accordance with Section 2.5.

15.4 Transfer upon Death or Incapacity. Upon the death or incapacity of Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is an entity, the person with the largest ownership interest in Franchisee), the executor, administrator, or personal representative of that person must Transfer the Business to a third party approved by Paramount Franchising within nine months after death or incapacity. Such Transfer must comply with Section 15.2.

15.5 Paramount Franchising's Right of First Refusal. Before Franchisee (or any owner) engages in a Transfer (except under Section 15.3 or Section 15.4), Paramount Franchising will have a right of first refusal, as set forth in this Section. Franchisee (or its owners) shall provide to Paramount Franchising a copy of the terms and conditions of any Transfer. For a period of 30 days from the date of Paramount Franchising's receipt of such copy, Paramount Franchising will have the right, exercisable by notice to Franchisee, to purchase the Business or the assets subject of the proposed Transfer for the same price and on the same terms and conditions (except that Paramount Franchising may substitute cash for any other form of payment). If Paramount Franchising does not exercise its right of first refusal, Franchisee may proceed with the proposed Transfer, subject to the other terms and conditions of this Article. However, if there are any material changes in the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer and any of those changes are less favorable to Franchisee, Franchisee shall notify Paramount Franchising of the changes in writing, and Paramount Franchising will have an additional 10 days within which to elect to purchase the assets proposed to be Transferred on the revised terms and conditions. If the proposed Transfer is not completed for any reason after Paramount Franchising elects not to purchase the assets being Transferred, a new right of first refusal commences as to any subsequent proposed Transfer by Franchisee.

15.6 No Sublicense. Franchisee has no right to sublicense the Marks or any of Franchisee's rights under this Agreement.

15.7 No Lien on Agreement. Franchisee shall not grant a security interest in this Agreement to any person or entity. If Franchisee grants an "all assets" security interest to any lender or other secured party, Franchisee shall cause the secured party to expressly exempt this Agreement from the security interest.

ARTICLE 16. INDEMNITY

16.1 Indemnity. Franchisee shall indemnify and defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Paramount Franchising) Paramount Franchising, its parent entities, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assignees (collectively, “Indemnitees”) against all Losses in any Action by or against Paramount Franchising and/or any Indemnatee directly or indirectly related to, or alleged to arise out of, the operation of the Business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee shall not be obligated to indemnify an Indemnatee from claims arising as a result of any Indemnatee’s misconduct or negligence. Franchisee agrees not to file any crossclaim or counterclaim against Paramount Franchising for any action made by a third-party or make any response that would infer or represent Paramount Franchising is liable as a party or defendant to any action that is contrary to this Section. This Agreement and the terms in this Section and related terms in this Agreement is a bona fide defense to any claim Franchisee may contradictorily make against Paramount Franchising as to Paramount Franchising’s liability or proportion of fault. Franchisee shall bear all costs to defend Paramount Franchising from claims raised by a third party. If Paramount Franchising incurs any costs or liabilities to any third party, Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for costs associated with Paramount Franchising’s defense to those claims. This indemnity will continue in effect after this Agreement ends.

16.2 Assumption by Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may elect to assume the defense and/or settlement of any Action subject to this indemnification, at Franchisee’s expense. Such an undertaking will not diminish Franchisee’s obligation to indemnify the Indemnitees.

17.1 Arbitration.

(a) Disputes Subject to Arbitration. Except as expressly provided in subsection (c), any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, will be resolved by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, Including the Optional Rules for Emergency Measures of Protection. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

(b) Location. The place of arbitration will be held in Salt Lake County, Utah or the county and state where Paramount Franchising’s then-current headquarters are located.

(c) Injunctive Relief. Either party may apply to the arbitrator seeking injunctive relief until the arbitration award is rendered or the controversy is otherwise resolved. Either party also may, without waiving any remedy or right to arbitrate under this Agreement, seek from any court having jurisdiction any interim or provisional injunctive relief.

(d) Confidentiality. All documents, information, and results pertaining to any arbitration or lawsuit will be confidential, except as required by law or as required for Paramount Franchising to comply with laws and regulations applicable to the sale of franchises.

(e) Performance During Arbitration or Litigation. Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall comply with this Agreement and perform their respective obligations under this Agreement during the arbitration or litigation process.

17.2 Damages. In any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each party waives any right to punitive or other monetary damages not measured by the prevailing party’s actual damages, except damages authorized by federal statute. In the event of Termination of this Agreement prior

the expiration of the term, Paramount Franchising's actual damages will include its lost future income from Royalty Fees and other amounts that Franchisee would have owed to Paramount Franchising but for the Termination.

17.3 Waiver of Class Actions. The parties agree that any claims will be arbitrated, litigated, or otherwise resolved on an individual basis, and waive any right to act on a class-wide basis.

17.4 Time Limitation. Any arbitration or other legal action arising from or related to this Agreement must be instituted within two years from the date such party discovers the conduct or event that forms the basis of the arbitration or other legal action. The foregoing time limit does not apply to claims (i) by one party related to non-payment under this Agreement by the other party, (ii) for indemnity under Article 16, or (iii) related to unauthorized use of Confidential Information or the Marks.

17.5 Venue Other Than Arbitration. For any legal proceeding not required to be submitted to arbitration, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the United States District Court of Salt Lake County, Utah or where Paramount Franchising's then-current headquarters is located. If there is no federal jurisdiction over the dispute, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the court of record of the state and county where Paramount Franchising's headquarters is then located. Each party consents to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection that it, he or she may have to the laying of venue of any proceeding in any of these courts.

17.6 Legal Costs. In any legal proceeding (including arbitration) related to this Agreement or any guaranty, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's attorney fees, costs and other expenses of the legal proceeding. "Prevailing party" means the party, if any, which prevailed upon the central litigated issues and obtained substantial relief.

ARTICLE 18. MISCELLANEOUS

18.1 Relationship of the Parties. The parties are independent contractors, and neither is the agent, partner, joint venturer, or employee of the other. Paramount Franchising is not a fiduciary of Franchisee and does not control Franchisee or its Business. Paramount Franchising has no liability for Franchisee's obligations to any third party whatsoever.

18.2 No Third-party Beneficiaries. This Agreement does not confer any rights or remedies upon any person or entity other than Franchisee, Paramount Franchising, and Paramount Franchising's affiliates.

18.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties related to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior negotiations and representations whether oral or in writing. Nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made by Paramount Franchising in its franchise disclosure document.

18.4 Modification. No modification or amendment of this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both parties. This provision does not limit Paramount Franchising's rights to modify the Manual or System Standards.

18.5 Consent; Waiver. No consent under this Agreement, and no waiver of satisfaction of a condition or nonperformance of an obligation under this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the party granting the consent or waiver. No waiver by a party of any right will affect the party's rights as to any subsequent exercise of that right or any other right. No delay, forbearance or omission by a party to exercise any right will constitute a waiver of such right.

18.6 Cumulative Remedies. Rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative. No enforcement of a right or remedy precludes the enforcement of any other right or remedy.

18.7 Severability. The parties intend that (i) if any provision of this Agreement is held by an arbitrator or court to be unenforceable, then that provision be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, unless that modification is not permitted by law, in which case that provision will be disregarded, and (ii) if an unenforceable provision is modified or disregarded, then the rest of this Agreement will remain in effect as written.

18.8 Governing Law. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties.

18.9 Notices. Any notice will be effective under this Agreement only if made in writing and delivered as set forth in this Section to: (A) if to Franchisee, addressed to Franchisee at the notice address set forth in the Summary Page; and (B) if to Paramount Franchising, addressed to 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, with a copy to The Franchise & Business Law Group at 222 S. Main Street, Ste 500, Salt Lake City, Utah 84101 (which will not act as notice or service). Any party may designate a new address for notices by giving notice of the new address pursuant to this Section. Notices will be effective upon receipt (or first rejection) and must be: (1) delivered personally; (2) sent by registered or certified U.S. mail with return receipt requested; (3) by email upon receipt of transmission verification; or (4) sent via overnight courier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Paramount Franchising may amend the Manual, give binding notice of changes to System Standards, and deliver notices of default by electronic mail or other electronic communication.

18.10 Joint and Several Liability. If two or more people sign this Agreement as “Franchisee,” each will have joint and several liability.

18.11 No Offer and Acceptance. Delivery of a draft of this Agreement to Franchisee by Paramount Franchising does not constitute an offer. This Agreement shall not be effective unless and until it is executed by both Franchisee and Paramount Franchising.

18.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

Attachment 3 to Franchise Agreement

GUARANTY AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

This Guaranty and Non-Compete Agreement (this “Guaranty”) is entered into and made effective by and between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and the undersigned person(s) (each, a “Guarantor”) owners of _____ (the “Business Entity”).

Background Statement: Business Entity (“Franchisee”) desires to enter into a Franchise Agreement with Paramount Franchising for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this Guaranty have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Guarantor owns an equity interest in Franchisee. Guarantor is executing this Guaranty in order to induce Paramount Franchising to enter into the Franchise Agreement.

Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Guaranty. Guarantor hereby unconditionally guarantees to Paramount Franchising and its successors and assigns that Franchisee shall pay and perform every undertaking, agreement and covenant set forth in the Franchise Agreement and further guarantees every other liability and obligation of Franchisee to Paramount Franchising, whether or not contained in the Franchise Agreement. Guarantor shall render any payment or performance required under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising upon demand from Paramount Franchising. Guarantor waives (a) acceptance and notice of acceptance by Paramount Franchising of this Guaranty; (b) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations of Franchisee; (c) protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; (d) any right Guarantor may have to require that an action be brought against Franchisee or any other person or entity as a condition of liability hereunder; (e) all rights to payments and claims for reimbursement or subrogation which any of the undersigned may have against Franchisee arising as a result of the execution of and performance under this Guaranty by the undersigned; (f) any law which requires that Paramount Franchising make demand upon, assert claims against or collect from Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor), foreclose any security interest, sell collateral, exhaust any remedies or take any other action against Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor) prior to making any demand upon, collecting from or taking any action against the undersigned with respect to this Guaranty; and (g) any and all other notices and legal or equitable defenses to which Guarantor may be entitled.

2. Confidential Information. With respect to all Confidential Information Guarantor shall (a) adhere to all security procedures prescribed by Paramount Franchising for maintaining confidentiality, (b) disclose such information to its employees only to the extent necessary for the operation of the Business; (c) not use any such information in any other business or in any manner not specifically authorized or approved in writing by Paramount Franchising, (d) exercise the highest degree of diligence and make every effort to maintain the confidentiality of all such information during and after the term of the Franchise Agreement, (e) not copy or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information, and (f) promptly report any unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information. Guarantor acknowledges that all Confidential Information is owned by Paramount Franchising or its affiliates (except for any Confidential Information, which Paramount Franchising licenses from another person or entity). Guarantor acknowledges that all Customer Data generated or obtained by Guarantor is Confidential Information belonging to Paramount Franchising. This Section will survive the Termination of the Franchise Agreement indefinitely.

3. Covenants Not to Compete and Non-Solicitation of Clients.

(a) Restriction - In Term. During the term of the Franchise Agreement, Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged, assist, consult or be employed by, any Competing Business.

(b) Restriction – Post Term. For two years after the Franchise Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged or employed by, any Competing Business located within Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of the territory of any other Paramount business operating on the date of Termination or Transfer, as applicable.

(c) Interpretation. Guarantor agrees that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Guaranty or the Franchise Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Section is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by any court, then parties intend that the court modify such restriction to extent reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Paramount Franchising. Guarantor agrees that the existence of any claim it or Franchisee may have against Paramount Franchising shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Paramount Franchising of the covenants of this Section. If Guarantor fails to comply with the obligations under this Section during the restrictive period, then the restrictive period will be tolled for each day of noncompliance.

(d) Non-Solicitation of Clients. For three years after the Franchise Agreement is Terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly contact any then-current or former client of Franchisee, or of another franchisee or affiliate of Paramount Franchising for the purpose of soliciting from any such client any business that is the same as or substantially similar to services performed by a Paramount business.

4. Enforcement Costs. If Paramount Franchising must enforce this Guaranty in any judicial or arbitration proceeding or any appeals, Guarantor(s) shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for its enforcement costs. Enforcement costs Include reasonable fees from accountants, attorneys, attorney's assistants, arbitrators, and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, arbitration filing fees, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses, whether incurred before, in preparation for, or in contemplation of the filing of any written demand, claim, action, hearing or proceeding to enforce this Guaranty.

5. Modification. Guarantor agrees that Guarantor's liability hereunder will not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by (a) any amendment of the Franchise Agreement, (b) any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which Paramount Franchising may from time to time grant to Franchisee or to any other person or entity, or (c) the acceptance of any partial payment or performance or the compromise or release of any claims.

6. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution. This Guaranty will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Utah. WHEREAS, as part of the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee is granted limited rights to use the Marks in conjunction with the Business; and

WHEREAS, under the Franchise Agreement, all Marketing materials, Customer Data, and Social Media accounts belong to Paramount Franchising; and

EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) is entered into as of _____, between _____ (“Franchisee”) and _____ (“Employee”), residing at _____.

A. Franchisee is the holder of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise developed by Paramount Franchising LLC (“Franchisor”).

B. Franchisor has developed certain confidential and proprietary information for the operation of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, including without limitation, processes, methods, client lists and data, trade secrets, systems, software, pricing, financial information, client data and lists, manuals, marketing techniques, and procedures (“Proprietary Information”).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the employment of Employee by Franchisee, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Acknowledgement. Employee acknowledges that during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee he or she has obtained or may obtain knowledge of the Proprietary Information and other confidential matters and procedures developed, licensed to or owned by Franchisor and made available to Franchisee, which are necessary and essential to the operation of the business of Franchisee, which without such information, Franchisee could not efficiently, effectively and profitably operate its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise. Employee further acknowledges that such Proprietary Information was not known to him or her prior to the association with Franchisee or its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise.

2. Non-Use, Non-Disclosure. Except as may be required in the performance of duties for Franchisee, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, use, or disclose to any third party, or authorize any third party to use any portion of the Proprietary Information, and agrees not to copy, transmit, recreate or otherwise reproduce all of any part of the Proprietary Information at any time. Should Employee work for a different Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, Employee shall not share with or use with such new employer any client data for any client or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor. For the purposes of this Agreement, a “prospective client” does not mean any possible client. It means a potential client who has been engaged in some way, or has provided some personal information, or has elected to receive some communication, but who has not yet done business to be considered an actual client.

2.1 No Reverse Engineering. Employee shall not, either personally, in concert with others or through other authorization, reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct or attempt to reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct any portion of the Proprietary Information.

3. Duty to Notify. Employee agrees to notify Franchisor or Franchisee or Employee’s immediate superiors of any reasonably suspected attempts to violate the terms or purposes of this Agreement or to otherwise disclose, copy, or reproduce any part of the Proprietary Information. In the event it is discovered that Employee knew or had reason to know of any suspected attempts to violate this Agreement and fails to report such knowledge, Employee agrees to indemnify Franchisor and Franchisee for all costs and fees associated with enforcement, and to reimburse Franchisor and Franchisee for those losses sustained due to such violation. Employee agrees to cooperate with Franchisor and Franchisee in its

or their attempts to enforce the terms of this Agreement and to otherwise protect the Proprietary Information, and to cooperate with Franchisee and Franchisor to the extent Franchisee is obligated to cooperate with Franchisor's attempts to enforce its rights in and to the Proprietary Information.

4. Return of Materials. Immediately upon the termination of employment, Employee agrees to deliver to Franchisee (and shall not keep in his or her possession or deliver to anyone else whether in hard or electronic soft copy) any and all records, data, photographs, notes, manuals, lists, correspondence, specifications, materials, other documents or property, or reproductions relating to, directly or indirectly, to the Proprietary Information.

5. Management and Supervisor Employees. This Section 5 shall only apply if Employee is a management employee and/or acts in a supervisory role over other employees.

5.1 Non-Competition. Subject to applicable law, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee, and for one year thereafter, directly or indirectly in any capacity, without Franchisee's prior written consent, engage in a business, or plan for or organize a business, or have any financial interest in, or become and owner, officer, director, shareholder, partner, associate, employee, contractor, agent, representative or consultant in any offering or selling products or services the same or substantially similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the minimum area of competitive nature will be that area within a 5-mile radius of any client serviced by Franchisee. The ownership of not more than 2% of the voting stock of a publicly held corporation will not be considered a violation of the foregoing provision. The post-termination, non-competition covenants do not apply if Employee works for another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

6. Non-Solicitation of Clients. Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment and for two years thereafter, directly or indirectly, contact any client, former client, or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor for the purpose of soliciting such client to be a client of a business that is the same as or similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business, including to be a client of another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

7. Irreparable Harm. Employee hereby acknowledges and agrees that any breach by him or her of any portion of Sections 1 through 6 above, inclusive, will cause damage to Franchisee and Franchisor in an amount difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, in addition to any other relief to which Franchisee may be entitled, either Franchisee or Franchisor will be entitled to enforce this Agreement and to seek temporary, preliminary, and/or permanent injunctive relief for any breach or threatened breach by Employee of any of the terms of Section 1 through 6 above, inclusive, without proof of actual damages that have been or may be caused to Franchisee or Franchisor by such breach, and without the requirement of posting bond. The existence of a claim against Franchisee or Franchisor will not constitute a defense to enforce the covenants of this Agreement.

8. Modification. Employee hereby agrees that, without limitation, any modifications, alterations, changes, or improvements conceived, designed, devised, developed, perfected or made by Employee, whether alone or in conjunction with others, and related in any manner to the actual or anticipated operation of the Franchisee, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting system, or to any area of research and development related to the operation of the business, must be promptly disclosed to the Franchisee and will become the property of Franchisor, and Employee hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, and conveys any such to Franchisor.

9. Enforceability. If any portion of this Agreement will be held invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder of this Agreement will be considered valid and operative, and effect will be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

10. Survival of Covenants. All covenants made in this Agreement by Employee survive the termination of Employee's employment with Franchisee or the expiration, transfer, or termination of this Agreement.

11. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement may be amended in whole or in part only by an agreement in writing signed by both parties.

12. Attorneys' Fees. In the event any action in law or equity or any arbitration or other proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement or in connection with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties will be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and other costs reasonably incurred in such action or proceeding.

13. Counterpart and Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

14. Third-party Beneficiary. It is agreed and acknowledged that Franchisor is a third-party beneficiary to this Agreement.

FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Because you are becoming a part of the Paramount Tax® franchise system, it is important that you understand and acknowledge who is your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), and who is not.

You have been hired by _____ (Legal Name of Franchisee) (“Franchisee”), which is an independent franchise owner in the Paramount Tax® franchise system (which we call the “System”). Although Franchisee looks the same, has the same name, and is operated the same way as other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System, Franchisee is not part of the same company as those other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System. Paramount Franchising LLC is a completely separate company that owns the name and created the System. Paramount Franchising LLC has devised rules, systems of operation, and policies and procedures that all of its franchisees must follow, including Franchisee, which makes each independent franchise Paramount Tax® outlet look and operate the same way as one another. This way, Paramount Franchising LLC manages a System composed of many different franchisee owners, each of whom is independently responsible for operating its own Paramount Tax® outlet.

It is important that you understand that Franchisee is your only employer (or is the only party associated with the Paramount Tax® franchise system that hired you as an independent contractor). If you are an employee, then Franchisee gives you your paycheck, establishes your hours, and is responsible for all decisions relating to your employment relationship. If you are an independent contractor, then Franchisee compensates you, hires you for certain hours or tasks, and provides you with the job description for your services to Franchisee. Paramount Franchising LLC is not your employer and has not hired you to provide services related to the Paramount Tax® franchise system. If Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives ever give you direction, training, or advice, it is intended only to ensure that the experience of all customers of Paramount Tax® is the same at or through your place of work as it is at other Paramount Tax® outlets in the Paramount Tax® system. The fact that you are trained, or given direction or advice, by Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives does not somehow mean that Paramount Franchising LLC is your employer.

If you have any questions about your employment relationship or your contracted relationship or about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, please direct them to your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), Franchisee.

I have read this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and I understand it. I have had the opportunity to ask any questions that I have about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and those questions have been answered fully to my satisfaction.

MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Multi-Unit Development Agreement (this “MUDA”) is made between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____ (“Franchisee”) on the Effective Date.

Background Statement: On the same day as they execute this MUDA, Paramount Franchising and Franchisee have entered into a Franchise Agreement for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this MUDA have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Paramount Franchising and Franchisee desire that Franchisee develop multiple Paramount businesses.

1. Multi-Unit Commitment.

(a) Development Schedule; Fee. Franchisee shall develop and open Paramount businesses on the following schedule:

Location #	Deadline for Opening	Total # of Locations to be Open and Operating On Deadline	Initial Franchise Fee
1		1	$ _____
2		2	$ _____
3		3	$ _____
4		4	$ _____
Total Initial Franchise Fees:

(b) Payment. Upon execution of this MUDA, Franchisee shall pay the total Initial Franchise Fees for each franchise to be developed to Paramount Franchising. The Initial Franchise Fees are $40,000 for the first franchise and $25,000 for each subsequent franchise. The Initial Franchise Fees are non-refundable except as provided in Section 6.4 of the Franchise Agreement.

2. Form of Agreement. For Location #1, Franchisee and Paramount Franchising have executed the Franchise Agreement simultaneously with this MUDA. For each additional Paramount franchise, Franchisee shall execute Paramount Franchising’ then-current standard form franchise agreement as developed. This MUDA does not give Franchisee the right to construct, open, or operate a Paramount business, and Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee may construct, open, and operate each Paramount business only pursuant to a separate franchise agreement executed pursuant to this MUDA for each such Paramount business.

3. Development Area. Franchisee shall locate each Paramount business it develops under this MUDA within the following area: _____ (the “Development Area”). Franchisee acknowledges that it does not have exclusive rights to develop, open or operate Paramount businesses in the Development Area.

4. Default and Termination. Paramount Franchising may terminate this MUDA by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee fails to meet a deadline for opening a location as set forth in the development schedule; or
- (ii) Franchisee defaults and fails to cure under the terms of any one of its franchise agreements with Paramount Franchising.

Upon Termination of this MUDA, Franchisee’s rights under this MUDA are terminated, and Paramount Franchising may (among its other rights) sell the remaining development rights, sell franchises, or open locations in the Development Area. Additionally, Franchisee will forfeit all deposits made and any contractual rights to develop or purchase additional Paramount businesses within the Development Area.

5. Limitation of Liability. Franchisee’s commitment to develop Paramount businesses is in the nature of an option only. If Paramount Franchising terminates this MUDA for Franchisee’s default, Franchisee shall not be liable to Paramount Franchising for lost future revenues or profits from the unopened Paramount businesses.

6. Conditions. Franchisee’s right to develop each Paramount franchise after the Location #1 is subject to the following:

- (i) Franchisee must possess sufficient financial and organizational capacity to develop, open, operate, and manage each additional Paramount business, in the reasonable judgment of Paramount Franchising, and
- (ii) Franchisee must be in full compliance with all brand requirements at its open Paramount businesses and not in default under any Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with Paramount Franchising.

7. Dispute Resolution; Miscellaneous. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties. Franchisee shall not Transfer this MUDA without the prior written consent of Paramount Franchising, and any Transfer without Paramount Franchising’s prior written consent will be void. The provisions of Article 15 (Transfers), Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) and Article 18 (Miscellaneous) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this MUDA as if fully set forth herein. Nothing in this MUDA or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document.

This General Release (“Release”) is executed by _____ (“Releasor”) and _____ (“Personal Guarantor(s)”) (collectively, the “Releasing Parties”) in favor of Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising” or “Released Party”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Franchisee entered into a Paramount Tax® and Accounting franchise agreement on _____ with Franchisor (“Franchise Agreement”); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement was personally guaranteed by _____ and _____ (“Personal Guarantor(s)”); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement has been terminated effective as of _____.

1. Release. Releasing Parties (on behalf of itself, guarantors, and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective past and present officers, directors, shareholders, managers, members, partners, agents, and employees) hereby releases Paramount Franchising, its affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, employees, and agents from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, debts, agreements, promises, demands, liabilities, contractual rights and/or obligations, of whatever nature, known or unknown, which any Releasing Party now has or ever had against any Released Party based upon and/or arising out of events that occurred through the date hereof, including without limitation, anything arising out of the Franchise Agreement, the relationship described therein and any business transaction, agreement or occurrence, act or omission relating thereto prior to the date hereof. Releasing Parties further waive any and all state law provisions limiting the effect of a general release (collectively, “Claims”).

2. Covenant Not to Sue. Releasor (on behalf of all Releasing Parties) covenants not to initiate, prosecute, encourage, assist, or (except as required by law) participate in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding or investigation in any court, agency, or other forum, either affirmatively or by way of cross-claim, defense, or counterclaim, against any Released Party with respect to any Claim. In the event of a dispute related to this Release, the dispute resolution sections of the Franchise Agreement will apply and govern.

3. Non-Disparagement. Releasor covenants not to, in any way, form, or medium, disparage any of the Released Parties, the System, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting brand.

4. Representations and Acknowledgments. Releasor represents and warrants that that each of them fully understands the broad coverage of the release provisions of this Release: (i) Releasor is the sole owner of all Claims, and that no Releasing Party has assigned or transferred, or purported to assign or transfer, to any person or entity, any Claim; (ii) Releasor has full power and authority to sign this Release; and (iii) this Release has been voluntarily and knowingly signed after Releasor has had the opportunity to consult with counsel of Releasor’s choice. 5. For California Residents. These releases are intended to waive, release and discharge all claims, other than those expressly reserved herein, with the express waiver of any statute, legal doctrine or other similar limitation upon the effect of general releases. In particular, the parties waive the benefit of any applicable statutory provision such as by illustration, California Civil Code Section 1542, which states:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

The parties, with the advice of their respective counsel, waive the benefit of both statute and other legal doctrine or principle of similar effect in any jurisdiction.

6. For Washington Residents. This Agreement does not apply with respect to claims arising under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and any rule or order adopted thereunder.

Franchisee, Personal Guarantor(s), and Franchisor hereby irrevocably consent to the exercise of general personal jurisdiction in the courts of record of the state of Utah even though it may be otherwise possible to obtain jurisdiction elsewhere, and we both agree that Salt Lake County, Utah will be the exclusive venue for any litigation between us. Each party waives any objection they may have to the personal jurisdiction of or venue in the state and federal courts of Salt Lake County, Utah.

7.3 Arbitration. In the event any controversy or dispute arises between the Parties hereto in connection with, arising from or with respect to the provisions hereof, the relationship of the Parties hereto, or the validity of this Agreement or any provision hereof, such dispute or controversy will, on the request of any Party hereto be submitted for arbitration to the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its commercial arbitration rules. All arbitration hearings will be conducted exclusively in Salt Lake County, Utah, and the laws of the state of Utah will govern, without giving effect to its conflicts of law provisions. The arbitrator will have the power and jurisdiction to decide such controversy or dispute solely in accordance with the express provisions of this Agreement. The prevailing Party in any arbitration suit or action to enforce this Agreement, will be entitled to recover the administrative costs of the arbitration proceeding and the fee for the arbitrator. The Parties agree that any claim hereunder will result in an award not more than 120 days from the date of the statement of claim filed with the American Arbitration Association, unless otherwise waived by the Parties. The award and findings of the arbitrators will be conclusive and binding upon all Parties hereto and the judgment upon the award may be entered in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

EXHIBIT I

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Investment law requires that a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise be delivered together with the disclosure document at least 14 days prior to the execution by the prospective franchisee of any binding franchise or other agreement, or at least 14 days prior to the receipt of any consideration, whichever occurs first, a copy of the disclosure document, together with a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise..
2. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
3. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
4. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
5. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
6. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake County, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake County, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
7. The franchise agreement requires application of the laws of Utah. This provision may not be enforceable under California law. You may want to consult an attorney to understand the impact of out-of-state governing law on the franchise agreement.
8. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
9. Neither franchisor nor any person listed in Item 2 of the disclosure document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling this or these persons from membership in such association or exchange.
10. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires the Franchisor to give the franchisee a disclosure document, in a form and containing such information as the Commissioner may by rule or order require, before a solicitation of a proposed modification of an existing franchise.
11. OUR WEBSITE at WWW.PARAMOUNT.TAX HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THE WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.
12. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.

13. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:

- (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
- (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
- (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
- (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

14. California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

15. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

16. Franchisee owners or greater must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

17. Item 6 under Late Fees is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

18. Item 19 is amended to include the following:

"The financial performance representations do not reflect the costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your franchised business. Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in this offering circular, may be one source of this information."

ADDENDUM TO THE FDD
FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Illinois law governs the franchise agreement(s).

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

By reading this disclosure document, you are not agreeing to, acknowledging, or making any representations whatsoever to the Franchisor and its affiliates.

STATE REGULATIONS FOR THE STATE OF INDIANA

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the disclosure document, the following provisions shall apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Indiana:

1. The prohibition by Indiana Code § 23-2-2.7-1(7) against unilateral termination of the franchise without good cause or in bad faith, good cause being defined therein as material breach of the Franchise Agreement, shall apply to the franchise agreement in the State of Indiana to the extent they may be inconsistent with such prohibition.

2. Liquidated damages and termination penalties are prohibited by law in the State of Indiana and, therefore, the disclosure document and franchise agreement are amended by the deletion of all references to liquidated damages and termination penalties and the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein:

“Notwithstanding any such termination, and in addition to the obligations of the Franchisee as otherwise provided, or in the event of termination or cancellation of the Franchise Agreement under any of the other provisions therein, the Franchisee nevertheless shall be, continue and remain liable to Franchisor for any and all damages which Franchisor has sustained or may sustain by reason of such default or defaults and the breach of the Franchise Agreement on the part of the Franchisee for the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement.

At the time of such termination of the Franchise Agreement, the Franchisee covenants to pay to Franchisor within 10 days after demand as compensation all damages, losses, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney’s fees) incurred by Franchisor, and/or amounts which would otherwise be payable thereunder but for such termination for and during the remainder of the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement. This Agreement does not constitute a waiver of the Franchisee’s right to a trial on any of the above matters.”

3. No release language set forth in the disclosure document or franchise agreement, shall relieve Franchisor or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of Indiana.

4. To the extent required by the franchise laws of the State of Indiana, the franchise agreement will be construed in accordance with the franchise laws of the State of Indiana.

5. The provisions of the franchise agreement pertaining to litigation jurisdiction and venue shall be amended to be within the scope of the requirements of the Indiana Franchise laws.

MARYLAND ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

In the State of Maryland only, this Disclosure Document is amended as follows:

ITEM 17 of the Disclosure Document is amended to add the following:

- A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
- The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its rights to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legal enforceable.
- Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.
- The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law.
- No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

By statute under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause or to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him by any provision contained in the franchise. Accordingly, the Division requests that the franchisor add a Virginia Addendum to the FDD containing the following statements:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, any franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Paramount Franchising LLC for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

The following statements are added to Item 17(h):

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him under the franchise. If any provision of the Franchise Agreement involves the use of undue influence by the franchisor to induce a franchisee to surrender any rights given to the franchisee under the franchise, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Non-solicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Paragraph 19.1 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “but only to the extent necessary to prevent the invalidity of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof or the imposition of civil or criminal penalties or liability. To the extent permitted by the laws of the state whose laws govern this Agreement, You hereby waive any provisions of law or regulations which render any portion of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect.”

20. Paragraph 20.10 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “You represent and acknowledge that no agreements, representations, negotiations, promises, commitments, inducements, assurances, terms, conditions, or covenants of any nature exist between You and Us except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, whether pertaining to this Agreement or to any future, further or additional rights of either You or Us.”

21. Paragraph 20.11 of the franchise agreement is amended to clarify that for Washington franchisees, the Washington Addendum applies even if the Washington Addendum is not executed or not signed by the franchisor, franchisee, or both.

22. Sections 20.14, 20.18, and 20.22 of the franchise agreement do not apply in Washington.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.

EXHIBIT J

FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California will be the California Investment law and the California Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
 - (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

10. Franchisee owners must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

11. Late Fees in Section 4.6(c) is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

12. Under California law, an agreement between a seller and a buyer regarding the price at which the buyer can resell a product (known as vertical price-fixing or resale price maintenance) is illegal. Therefore, requirements on franchisees to sell goods or services at specific prices set by the franchisor may be unenforceable.

INDIANA RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”) between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the franchise agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the franchise agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the franchise agreement.

1. A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective franchisees to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. STATE ADDENDA TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Multi-Unit Development Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The multi-unit development agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The multi-unit development agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a Multi-Unit Development Agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California, will be the California Franchise Investment law and the California Franchise Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.

(d) Violations of any provision of this division

10. Late Fees is amended to include the following: “The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually.”

11. California’s Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

12. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ADDENDUM TO THE MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Illinois law governs the Multi-Unit Development Agreement.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a Multi-Unit Development Agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a Multi-Unit Development Agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Franchisees rights upon termination and non-renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

INDIANA RIDER TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Multi-Unit Development Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”), between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

revaluation of the United States dollar in the case of foreign-made goods, are not subject to this subsection (6).

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a Multi-Unit Development Agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the Multi-Unit Development Agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

Item 18 PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchise. However, we reserve the right to use public figures in the future.

Item 19 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

Gross Sales/Expenses/Net Income

The tables below represent an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets and 30 of our franchised outlets that completed at least one full tax season before 2024 and who operated for all of 2024.

We had 45-46 outlets that are not included because they did not complete at least one full tax season before the beginning of 2024 or did not operate for all of 2024. Franchisees typically have different start dates and experience other types of volatility in their first tax season; whereas franchisees that have completed at least one full tax season before the beginning of the year generally have more uniform operations in the reporting year.

We also had 15 outlets that are not included in this Item 19 because they did not operate on a full-time basis in 2024, and part-time franchisees are not included in our offered franchise model. Additionally, we did not include 7 franchisees that had signed franchise agreements but who had not yet opened as of the end of 2024.

Company Owned/Affiliate Outlets

The table below represents an historic performance representation of our 2 affiliate owned outlets in Draper, Utah and Port St. Lucie, Florida from January 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024. We only have 2 affiliate owned outlets. As of December 31, 2024, our Draper, Utah outlet had been operating for more than 10 years, and our Port St. Lucie, Florida outlet had been operating for less than 3 years.

¹ Draper Gross Sales. Most of the gross sales in 2024 for our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet was from tax consulting. Our franchisees are allowed to provide tax consulting as well, but most of the tax consulting performed by our affiliate's Draper, Utah outlet involved mineral property donations and conservation easements for high income producing clients, and the IRS and state taxing authorities may phase out this deduction in the near future.

² Draper Royalties. Our Draper, Utah outlet pays us royalties on all tax and accounting work it performs but not tax consulting work. In 2024, gross sales generated from tax and accounting work was $1,017,140.

[The table representing our franchised outlets is on the following page]

Franchised Outlets

The table below represents an historic performance representation of our 30 franchised outlets that had completed at least one full tax season prior to the beginning of 2024 and who operated for all of 2024. These franchisees also operated on a full-time basis for the entire 2024 calendar year. The table represents figures from January 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024.

Notes

1. Gross Sales. “Gross sales” means the total dollar amount of all sales generated by an outlet for a given period, including payment for any services or products sold, whether for cash or credit and the value of any services bartered or done on trade. Gross sales do not include (i) bona fide refunds to clients, (ii) sales taxes collected, (iii) sale of used equipment not in the ordinary course of business, or (iv) sales of prepaid cards or similar products (but the redemption of any such card or product will be included in gross sales).
2. Average. “Average” means the sum of all data points in a set, divided by the number of data points in that set.
3. Median. “Median” means the data point that is in the center of all data points used. That number is found by examining the total number of data points and finding the middle number in that set. In the event the number of data points is an odd number, the median will be the center number. If the dataset contains an even number of data points, the median is reached by taking the 2 numbers in the middle, adding them together, and dividing by 2.
4. Outlet Characteristics. Our affiliate owned outlets and all franchised outlets listed in the tables above offer similar products and services to what new franchisees would offer. Each outlet is in a metropolitan area.
5. Other Expenses. The term “other expenses” includes general and administrative expenses along with direct costs that did not include sales and marketing expenses.

Some outlets have earned this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you will earn as much.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to the prospective franchisee upon reasonable request.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, Paramount Franchising LLC does not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Jon Wilhelm, CPA at Jon@Paramount.tax, 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, and 801-341-2300, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

Franchisee must provide to Paramount Franchising Veteran ID cards, a DD-214, and other documentation to provide proof of honorable discharged status.

4.2 Royalty Fee. Franchisee shall pay Paramount Franchising a monthly royalty fee (the "Royalty Fee") equal to 10% of Gross Sales. The Royalty Fee for any given month is due on the 5th day of the following month.

4.3 Marketing Cooperative Contributions. If the Business participates in a Marketing Cooperative, then Franchisee shall contribute to the Marketing Cooperative a percentage of Gross Sales (or other amount) determined by the Market Cooperative.

4.4 Non-Compliance Fee. Paramount Franchising may charge Franchisee $250 for any instance of non-compliance with the System Standards or this Agreement (other than Franchisee's non-payment of a fee owed to Paramount Franchising). If such non-compliance is ongoing, Paramount Franchising may charge Franchisee $250 per week until Franchisee ceases such non-compliance. This fee is a reasonable estimate of Paramount Franchising's internal cost of personnel time attributable to addressing the non-compliance and is not a penalty or estimate of all damages arising from Franchisee's breach. The non-compliance fee is in addition to all Paramount Franchising's other rights and remedies; non-compliance is considered a default of this Agreement.

4.5 Reimbursement. Paramount Franchising may (but is never obligated to) pay on Franchisee's behalf any amount that Franchisee owes to a supplier or other third party. If Paramount Franchising does so or intends to do so, Franchisee shall pay such amount plus a 10% administrative charge to Paramount Franchising within 15 days after invoice by Paramount Franchising accompanied by reasonable documentation.

4.6 Payment Terms.

(a) Method of Payment. Franchisee shall pay the Royalty Fee, and any other amounts owed to Paramount Franchising by pre-authorized bank draft or in such other manner as Paramount Franchising may require. Paramount's current ACH agreement is attached hereto as Attachment 7 and may be modified by Paramount at any time at its sole discretion. Franchisee must have an active ACH agreement with Paramount Franchising at all times. Before terminating or canceling any active ACH agreement, Franchisee must provide a new ACH agreement to Paramount Franchising so that there is no time in which Paramount Franchising does not have the ability to automatically withdraw or debit all payments and Fees due and owing to Paramount Franchising. Franchisee shall pay all service charges and fees charged by Franchisee's bank for Paramount Franchising to electronically debit Franchisee's bank account.

(b) Calculation of Fees. Franchisee shall report monthly Gross Sales to Paramount Franchising by the 5th day of the following month. Gross Sales will be determined by the use of the accounting software that Paramount Franchising chooses. Franchisee shall use this accounting software for its reporting requirements, such that the calculation of the Royalty Fee will be available to the Franchisor by the 5th day of each month for the prior month. The amount calculated for the Royalty Fee will be withdrawn through ACH. If Franchisee fails to report monthly Gross Sales, then Paramount Franchising may withdraw estimated Royalty Fees equal to 125% of the last Gross Sales reported to Paramount Franchising, and the parties will true-up the actual fees after Franchisee reports Gross Sales. Franchisee acknowledges that Paramount Franchising has the right to remotely access Franchisee's point-of-sale system and to calculate Gross Sales. Franchisee will also provide information as to the number of tax returns completed each month, as well as the total number of clients. This information will also be required on the 5th day of the month.

(c) Late Fees and Interest. If Franchisee does not make a payment on time, Franchisee shall pay a $100 late fee plus interest on the unpaid amount at a rate equal to 18% per year (or, if such payment exceeds the maximum allowed by law, then interest at the highest rate allowed by law).

(d) Insufficient Funds. Paramount Franchising may charge $50 for any payment returned for insufficient funds (or, if such amount exceeds the maximum allowed by law, then the fee allowed by law).

(e) Costs of Collection. Franchisee shall repay any costs incurred by Paramount Franchising (Including reasonable attorney fees) in attempting to collect payments owed by Franchisee.

(f) Application. Paramount Franchising may apply any payment received from Franchisee to any obligation and in any order as Paramount Franchising may determine, regardless of any designation by Franchisee.

(g) Obligations Independent; No Set-Off. The obligations of Franchisee to pay to Paramount Franchising any fees or amounts described in this Agreement are not dependent on Paramount Franchising's performance and are independent covenants by Franchisee. Franchisee shall make all such payments without offset or deduction.

4.7 Optional Programs. Franchisee understands and agrees that Paramount Franchising has developed optional programs for which there may be a fee paid to a third party or to Paramount Franchising. In such case, the provisions of this Article 4 will apply to all such payments. Additionally, Paramount Franchising may develop additional optional and/or mandatory programs. This Section 4.7 will also apply to programs developed in the future.

4.8 Marketing, SEO (Search Engine Optimization), and Website Management Fee. A monthly fee of $300 (or the then-current fee) is to be paid to Paramount Franchising or (at Paramount Franchising's sole discretion) paid directly to a third party vendor for services related to the franchisee's website. These services may include SEO (search engine optimization), marketing services, website changes, PPC (pay per click) campaigns, etc. This fee/payment will count towards Franchisee's local marketing contribution.

4.9 Email Account(s) Fee. Franchisee shall pay Paramount Franchising or its designated supplier a monthly email account fee of $5 to $30 (currently). This fee may increase based on increased costs and maintenance. This fee is paid annually and is due upon the creation of the email address(es) and the annual renewal date each year thereafter.

4.10 Conferences and Seminars. Paramount Franchising has the discretion to conduct conferences and seminars, which may be through online webinars, videos, live video conferencing, phone conferences or in person, to discuss improvements, new developments, mutual concerns, business issues, sales, Marketing, personnel training, bookkeeping, accounting, inventory control and performance standards. Attendance at conferences and seminars is optional at this time, but Paramount Franchising reserves the right to make a conference or seminar mandatory for Franchisee's Principal Executive. Franchisee is required to pay any applicable registration fees (currently $0 to $2,000 per attendee), as well as travel and living expenses for Franchisee's attendees. In-person conferences and seminars will be held at locations chosen by Paramount Franchising.

ARTICLE 5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

5.1 Intellectual Property and Confidential Information. Franchisee acknowledges that: 1) Paramount Franchising has the sole rights in and to the Intellectual Property and Confidential Information; 2) Franchisee's right to use the System is granted by Paramount Franchising solely pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; and 3) as between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising, Paramount Franchising has the sole right to license and control Confidential Information and Intellectual Property. Paramount Franchising's Intellectual Property and Confidential Information provided to Franchisee by or through Paramount Franchising will remain Paramount Franchising's sole property. Franchisee acknowledges that Paramount Franchising's Confidential Information and Intellectual Property are unique and/or confidential and contain trade secrets and other material proprietary to Paramount Franchising.

5.2 Use of Confidential Information and Intellectual Property. Franchisee has a non-exclusive right to use the Confidential Information and Intellectual Property and only in connection with the Business and in accordance with Paramount Franchising's Manuals and this Agreement. Franchisee understands and agrees that the use of Paramount Franchising's Confidential Information, Intellectual Property, and goodwill are all temporary benefits and expire with the Termination. - (viii) the Business fully complies with all of Paramount Franchising's most recent System Standards, Including upgrading and Remodel requirements.

15.3 Transfer for Convenience of Ownership. If Franchisee is an individual, Franchisee may Transfer this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company formed for the convenience of ownership after at least 15 days' prior written notice to Paramount Franchising, if, prior to the Transfer: (1) the transferee provides the information required by Section 2.3; (2) Franchisee provides copies the entity's charter documents, by-laws (or operating agreement) and similar documents, if requested by Paramount Franchising, (3) Franchisee owns all voting securities of the corporation or limited liability company, and (4) Franchisee provides a guaranty in accordance with Section 2.5.

15.4 Transfer upon Death or Incapacity. Upon the death or incapacity of Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is an entity, the person with the largest ownership interest in Franchisee), the executor, administrator, or personal representative of that person must Transfer the Business to a third party approved by Paramount Franchising within nine months after death or incapacity. Such Transfer must comply with Section 15.2.

15.5 Paramount Franchising's Right of First Refusal. Before Franchisee (or any owner) engages in a Transfer (except under Section 15.3 or Section 15.4), Paramount Franchising will have a right of first refusal, as set forth in this Section. Franchisee (or its owners) shall provide to Paramount Franchising a copy of the terms and conditions of any Transfer. For a period of 30 days from the date of Paramount Franchising's receipt of such copy, Paramount Franchising will have the right, exercisable by notice to Franchisee, to purchase the Business or the assets subject of the proposed Transfer for the same price and on the same terms and conditions (except that Paramount Franchising may substitute cash for any other form of payment). If Paramount Franchising does not exercise its right of first refusal, Franchisee may proceed with the proposed Transfer, subject to the other terms and conditions of this Article. However, if there are any material changes in the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer and any of those changes are less favorable to Franchisee, Franchisee shall notify Paramount Franchising of the changes in writing, and Paramount Franchising will have an additional 10 days within which to elect to purchase the assets proposed to be Transferred on the revised terms and conditions. If the proposed Transfer is not completed for any reason after Paramount Franchising elects not to purchase the assets being Transferred, a new right of first refusal commences as to any subsequent proposed Transfer by Franchisee.

15.6 No Sublicense. Franchisee has no right to sublicense the Marks or any of Franchisee's rights under this Agreement.

15.7 No Lien on Agreement. Franchisee shall not grant a security interest in this Agreement to any person or entity. If Franchisee grants an "all assets" security interest to any lender or other secured party, Franchisee shall cause the secured party to expressly exempt this Agreement from the security interest.

ARTICLE 16. INDEMNITY

16.1 Indemnity. Franchisee shall indemnify and defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Paramount Franchising) Paramount Franchising, its parent entities, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assignees (collectively, “Indemnitees”) against all Losses in any Action by or against Paramount Franchising and/or any Indemnatee directly or indirectly related to, or alleged to arise out of, the operation of the Business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee shall not be obligated to indemnify an Indemnatee from claims arising as a result of any Indemnatee’s misconduct or negligence. Franchisee agrees not to file any crossclaim or counterclaim against Paramount Franchising for any action made by a third-party or make any response that would infer or represent Paramount Franchising is liable as a party or defendant to any action that is contrary to this Section. This Agreement and the terms in this Section and related terms in this Agreement is a bona fide defense to any claim Franchisee may contradictorily make against Paramount Franchising as to Paramount Franchising’s liability or proportion of fault. Franchisee shall bear all costs to defend Paramount Franchising from claims raised by a third party. If Paramount Franchising incurs any costs or liabilities to any third party, Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for costs associated with Paramount Franchising’s defense to those claims. This indemnity will continue in effect after this Agreement ends.

16.2 Assumption by Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may elect to assume the defense and/or settlement of any Action subject to this indemnification, at Franchisee’s expense. Such an undertaking will not diminish Franchisee’s obligation to indemnify the Indemnitees.

17.1 Arbitration.

(a) Disputes Subject to Arbitration. Except as expressly provided in subsection (c), any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, will be resolved by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, Including the Optional Rules for Emergency Measures of Protection. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

(b) Location. The place of arbitration will be held in Salt Lake County, Utah or the county and state where Paramount Franchising’s then-current headquarters are located.

(c) Injunctive Relief. Either party may apply to the arbitrator seeking injunctive relief until the arbitration award is rendered or the controversy is otherwise resolved. Either party also may, without waiving any remedy or right to arbitrate under this Agreement, seek from any court having jurisdiction any interim or provisional injunctive relief.

(d) Confidentiality. All documents, information, and results pertaining to any arbitration or lawsuit will be confidential, except as required by law or as required for Paramount Franchising to comply with laws and regulations applicable to the sale of franchises.

(e) Performance During Arbitration or Litigation. Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall comply with this Agreement and perform their respective obligations under this Agreement during the arbitration or litigation process.

17.2 Damages. In any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each party waives any right to punitive or other monetary damages not measured by the prevailing party’s actual damages, except damages authorized by federal statute. In the event of Termination of this Agreement prior

the expiration of the term, Paramount Franchising's actual damages will include its lost future income from Royalty Fees and other amounts that Franchisee would have owed to Paramount Franchising but for the Termination.

17.3 Waiver of Class Actions. The parties agree that any claims will be arbitrated, litigated, or otherwise resolved on an individual basis, and waive any right to act on a class-wide basis.

17.4 Time Limitation. Any arbitration or other legal action arising from or related to this Agreement must be instituted within two years from the date such party discovers the conduct or event that forms the basis of the arbitration or other legal action. The foregoing time limit does not apply to claims (i) by one party related to non-payment under this Agreement by the other party, (ii) for indemnity under Article 16, or (iii) related to unauthorized use of Confidential Information or the Marks.

17.5 Venue Other Than Arbitration. For any legal proceeding not required to be submitted to arbitration, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the United States District Court of Salt Lake County, Utah or where Paramount Franchising's then-current headquarters is located. If there is no federal jurisdiction over the dispute, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the court of record of the state and county where Paramount Franchising's headquarters is then located. Each party consents to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection that it, he or she may have to the laying of venue of any proceeding in any of these courts.

17.6 Legal Costs. In any legal proceeding (including arbitration) related to this Agreement or any guaranty, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's attorney fees, costs and other expenses of the legal proceeding. "Prevailing party" means the party, if any, which prevailed upon the central litigated issues and obtained substantial relief.

ARTICLE 18. MISCELLANEOUS

18.1 Relationship of the Parties. The parties are independent contractors, and neither is the agent, partner, joint venturer, or employee of the other. Paramount Franchising is not a fiduciary of Franchisee and does not control Franchisee or its Business. Paramount Franchising has no liability for Franchisee's obligations to any third party whatsoever.

18.2 No Third-party Beneficiaries. This Agreement does not confer any rights or remedies upon any person or entity other than Franchisee, Paramount Franchising, and Paramount Franchising's affiliates.

18.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties related to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior negotiations and representations whether oral or in writing. Nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made by Paramount Franchising in its franchise disclosure document.

18.4 Modification. No modification or amendment of this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both parties. This provision does not limit Paramount Franchising's rights to modify the Manual or System Standards.

18.5 Consent; Waiver. No consent under this Agreement, and no waiver of satisfaction of a condition or nonperformance of an obligation under this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the party granting the consent or waiver. No waiver by a party of any right will affect the party's rights as to any subsequent exercise of that right or any other right. No delay, forbearance or omission by a party to exercise any right will constitute a waiver of such right.

18.6 Cumulative Remedies. Rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative. No enforcement of a right or remedy precludes the enforcement of any other right or remedy.

18.7 Severability. The parties intend that (i) if any provision of this Agreement is held by an arbitrator or court to be unenforceable, then that provision be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, unless that modification is not permitted by law, in which case that provision will be disregarded, and (ii) if an unenforceable provision is modified or disregarded, then the rest of this Agreement will remain in effect as written.

18.8 Governing Law. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties.

18.9 Notices. Any notice will be effective under this Agreement only if made in writing and delivered as set forth in this Section to: (A) if to Franchisee, addressed to Franchisee at the notice address set forth in the Summary Page; and (B) if to Paramount Franchising, addressed to 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, with a copy to The Franchise & Business Law Group at 222 S. Main Street, Ste 500, Salt Lake City, Utah 84101 (which will not act as notice or service). Any party may designate a new address for notices by giving notice of the new address pursuant to this Section. Notices will be effective upon receipt (or first rejection) and must be: (1) delivered personally; (2) sent by registered or certified U.S. mail with return receipt requested; (3) by email upon receipt of transmission verification; or (4) sent via overnight courier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Paramount Franchising may amend the Manual, give binding notice of changes to System Standards, and deliver notices of default by electronic mail or other electronic communication.

18.10 Joint and Several Liability. If two or more people sign this Agreement as “Franchisee,” each will have joint and several liability.

18.11 No Offer and Acceptance. Delivery of a draft of this Agreement to Franchisee by Paramount Franchising does not constitute an offer. This Agreement shall not be effective unless and until it is executed by both Franchisee and Paramount Franchising.

18.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

GUARANTY AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

This Guaranty and Non-Compete Agreement (this “Guaranty”) is entered into and made effective by and between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and the undersigned person(s) (each, a “Guarantor”) owners of _____ (the “Business Entity”).

Background Statement: Business Entity (“Franchisee”) desires to enter into a Franchise Agreement with Paramount Franchising for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this Guaranty have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Guarantor owns an equity interest in Franchisee. Guarantor is executing this Guaranty in order to induce Paramount Franchising to enter into the Franchise Agreement.

Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Guaranty. Guarantor hereby unconditionally guarantees to Paramount Franchising and its successors and assigns that Franchisee shall pay and perform every undertaking, agreement and covenant set forth in the Franchise Agreement and further guarantees every other liability and obligation of Franchisee to Paramount Franchising, whether or not contained in the Franchise Agreement. Guarantor shall render any payment or performance required under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising upon demand from Paramount Franchising. Guarantor waives (a) acceptance and notice of acceptance by Paramount Franchising of this Guaranty; (b) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations of Franchisee; (c) protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; (d) any right Guarantor may have to require that an action be brought against Franchisee or any other person or entity as a condition of liability hereunder; (e) all rights to payments and claims for reimbursement or subrogation which any of the undersigned may have against Franchisee arising as a result of the execution of and performance under this Guaranty by the undersigned; (f) any law which requires that Paramount Franchising make demand upon, assert claims against or collect from Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor), foreclose any security interest, sell collateral, exhaust any remedies or take any other action against Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor) prior to making any demand upon, collecting from or taking any action against the undersigned with respect to this Guaranty; and (g) any and all other notices and legal or equitable defenses to which Guarantor may be entitled.

2. Confidential Information. With respect to all Confidential Information Guarantor shall (a) adhere to all security procedures prescribed by Paramount Franchising for maintaining confidentiality, (b) disclose such information to its employees only to the extent necessary for the operation of the Business; (c) not use any such information in any other business or in any manner not specifically authorized or approved in writing by Paramount Franchising, (d) exercise the highest degree of diligence and make every effort to maintain the confidentiality of all such information during and after the term of the Franchise Agreement, (e) not copy or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information, and (f) promptly report any unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information. Guarantor acknowledges that all Confidential Information is owned by Paramount Franchising or its affiliates (except for any Confidential Information, which Paramount Franchising licenses from another person or entity). Guarantor acknowledges that all Customer Data generated or obtained by Guarantor is Confidential Information belonging to Paramount Franchising. This Section will survive the Termination of the Franchise Agreement indefinitely.

3. Covenants Not to Compete and Non-Solicitation of Clients.

(a) Restriction - In Term. During the term of the Franchise Agreement, Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged, assist, consult or be employed by, any Competing Business.

(b) Restriction – Post Term. For two years after the Franchise Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged or employed by, any Competing Business located within Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of the territory of any other Paramount business operating on the date of Termination or Transfer, as applicable.

(c) Interpretation. Guarantor agrees that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Guaranty or the Franchise Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Section is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by any court, then parties intend that the court modify such restriction to extent reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Paramount Franchising. Guarantor agrees that the existence of any claim it or Franchisee may have against Paramount Franchising shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Paramount Franchising of the covenants of this Section. If Guarantor fails to comply with the obligations under this Section during the restrictive period, then the restrictive period will be tolled for each day of noncompliance.

(d) Non-Solicitation of Clients. For three years after the Franchise Agreement is Terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly contact any then-current or former client of Franchisee, or of another franchisee or affiliate of Paramount Franchising for the purpose of soliciting from any such client any business that is the same as or substantially similar to services performed by a Paramount business.

4. Enforcement Costs. If Paramount Franchising must enforce this Guaranty in any judicial or arbitration proceeding or any appeals, Guarantor(s) shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for its enforcement costs. Enforcement costs Include reasonable fees from accountants, attorneys, attorney's assistants, arbitrators, and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, arbitration filing fees, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses, whether incurred before, in preparation for, or in contemplation of the filing of any written demand, claim, action, hearing or proceeding to enforce this Guaranty.

5. Modification. Guarantor agrees that Guarantor's liability hereunder will not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by (a) any amendment of the Franchise Agreement, (b) any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which Paramount Franchising may from time to time grant to Franchisee or to any other person or entity, or (c) the acceptance of any partial payment or performance or the compromise or release of any claims.

6. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution. This Guaranty will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Utah. The provisions of Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this Guaranty as if fully set forth herein. If multiple Guarantors sign this Guaranty, each will have joint and several liability.

7. Counterparts. This Guaranty may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

Attachment 6 to Franchise Agreement

EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is entered into as of _____, between _____ ("Franchisee") and _____ ("Employee"), residing at _____.

A. Franchisee is the holder of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise developed by Paramount Franchising LLC ("Franchisor").

B. Franchisor has developed certain confidential and proprietary information for the operation of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, including without limitation, processes, methods, client lists and data, trade secrets, systems, software, pricing, financial information, client data and lists, manuals, marketing techniques, and procedures ("Proprietary Information").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the employment of Employee by Franchisee, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Acknowledgement. Employee acknowledges that during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee he or she has obtained or may obtain knowledge of the Proprietary Information and other confidential matters and procedures developed, licensed to or owned by Franchisor and made available to Franchisee, which are necessary and essential to the operation of the business of Franchisee, which without such information, Franchisee could not efficiently, effectively and profitably operate its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise. Employee further acknowledges that such Proprietary Information was not known to him or her prior to the association with Franchisee or its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise.

2. Non-Use, Non-Disclosure. Except as may be required in the performance of duties for Franchisee, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, use, or disclose to any third party, or authorize any third party to use any portion of the Proprietary Information, and agrees not to copy, transmit, recreate or otherwise reproduce all of any part of the Proprietary Information at any time. Should Employee work for a different Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, Employee shall not share with or use with such new employer any client data for any client or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor. For the purposes of this Agreement, a "prospective client" does not mean any possible client. It means a potential client who has been engaged in some way, or has provided some personal information, or has elected to receive some communication, but who has not yet done business to be considered an actual client.

2.1 No Reverse Engineering. Employee shall not, either personally, in concert with others or through other authorization, reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct or attempt to reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct any portion of the Proprietary Information.

3. Duty to Notify. Employee agrees to notify Franchisor or Franchisee or Employee's immediate superiors of any reasonably suspected attempts to violate the terms or purposes of this Agreement or to otherwise disclose, copy, or reproduce any part of the Proprietary Information. In the event it is discovered that Employee knew or had reason to know of any suspected attempts to violate this Agreement and fails to report such knowledge, Employee agrees to indemnify Franchisor and Franchisee for all costs and fees associated with enforcement, and to reimburse Franchisor and Franchisee for those losses sustained due to such violation. Employee agrees to cooperate with Franchisor and Franchisee in its

or their attempts to enforce the terms of this Agreement and to otherwise protect the Proprietary Information, and to cooperate with Franchisee and Franchisor to the extent Franchisee is obligated to cooperate with Franchisor's attempts to enforce its rights in and to the Proprietary Information.

4. Return of Materials. Immediately upon the termination of employment, Employee agrees to deliver to Franchisee (and shall not keep in his or her possession or deliver to anyone else whether in hard or electronic soft copy) any and all records, data, photographs, notes, manuals, lists, correspondence, specifications, materials, other documents or property, or reproductions relating to, directly or indirectly, to the Proprietary Information.

5. Management and Supervisor Employees. This Section 5 shall only apply if Employee is a management employee and/or acts in a supervisory role over other employees.

5.1 Non-Competition. Subject to applicable law, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee, and for one year thereafter, directly or indirectly in any capacity, without Franchisee's prior written consent, engage in a business, or plan for or organize a business, or have any financial interest in, or become and owner, officer, director, shareholder, partner, associate, employee, contractor, agent, representative or consultant in any offering or selling products or services the same or substantially similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the minimum area of competitive nature will be that area within a 5-mile radius of any client serviced by Franchisee. The ownership of not more than 2% of the voting stock of a publicly held corporation will not be considered a violation of the foregoing provision. The post-termination, non-competition covenants do not apply if Employee works for another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

6. Non-Solicitation of Clients. Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment and for two years thereafter, directly or indirectly, contact any client, former client, or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor for the purpose of soliciting such client to be a client of a business that is the same as or similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business, including to be a client of another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

7. Irreparable Harm. Employee hereby acknowledges and agrees that any breach by him or her of any portion of Sections 1 through 6 above, inclusive, will cause damage to Franchisee and Franchisor in an amount difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, in addition to any other relief to which Franchisee may be entitled, either Franchisee or Franchisor will be entitled to enforce this Agreement and to seek temporary, preliminary, and/or permanent injunctive relief for any breach or threatened breach by Employee of any of the terms of Section 1 through 6 above, inclusive, without proof of actual damages that have been or may be caused to Franchisee or Franchisor by such breach, and without the requirement of posting bond. The existence of a claim against Franchisee or Franchisor will not constitute a defense to enforce the covenants of this Agreement.

8. Modification. Employee hereby agrees that, without limitation, any modifications, alterations, changes, or improvements conceived, designed, devised, developed, perfected or made by Employee, whether alone or in conjunction with others, and related in any manner to the actual or anticipated operation of the Franchisee, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting system, or to any area of research and development related to the operation of the business, must be promptly disclosed to the Franchisee and will become the property of Franchisor, and Employee hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, and conveys any such to Franchisor.

9. Enforceability. If any portion of this Agreement will be held invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder of this Agreement will be considered valid and operative, and effect will be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

10. Survival of Covenants. All covenants made in this Agreement by Employee survive the termination of Employee's employment with Franchisee or the expiration, transfer, or termination of this Agreement.

11. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement may be amended in whole or in part only by an agreement in writing signed by both parties.

12. Attorneys' Fees. In the event any action in law or equity or any arbitration or other proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement or in connection with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties will be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and other costs reasonably incurred in such action or proceeding.

13. Counterpart and Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

14. Third-party Beneficiary. It is agreed and acknowledged that Franchisor is a third-party beneficiary to this Agreement.

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE OR SHE HAS READ THIS AGREEMENT AND UNDERSTANDS ITS CONTENTS.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement effective as of the day and year first herein above written.

FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Because you are becoming a part of the Paramount Tax® franchise system, it is important that you understand and acknowledge who is your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), and who is not.

You have been hired by _____ (Legal Name of Franchisee) (“Franchisee”), which is an independent franchise owner in the Paramount Tax® franchise system (which we call the “System”). Although Franchisee looks the same, has the same name, and is operated the same way as other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System, Franchisee is not part of the same company as those other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System. Paramount Franchising LLC is a completely separate company that owns the name and created the System. Paramount Franchising LLC has devised rules, systems of operation, and policies and procedures that all of its franchisees must follow, including Franchisee, which makes each independent franchise Paramount Tax® outlet look and operate the same way as one another. This way, Paramount Franchising LLC manages a System composed of many different franchisee owners, each of whom is independently responsible for operating its own Paramount Tax® outlet.

It is important that you understand that Franchisee is your only employer (or is the only party associated with the Paramount Tax® franchise system that hired you as an independent contractor). If you are an employee, then Franchisee gives you your paycheck, establishes your hours, and is responsible for all decisions relating to your employment relationship. If you are an independent contractor, then Franchisee compensates you, hires you for certain hours or tasks, and provides you with the job description for your services to Franchisee. Paramount Franchising LLC is not your employer and has not hired you to provide services related to the Paramount Tax® franchise system. If Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives ever give you direction, training, or advice, it is intended only to ensure that the experience of all customers of Paramount Tax® is the same at or through your place of work as it is at other Paramount Tax® outlets in the Paramount Tax® system. The fact that you are trained, or given direction or advice, by Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives does not somehow mean that Paramount Franchising LLC is your employer.

If you have any questions about your employment relationship or your contracted relationship or about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, please direct them to your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), Franchisee.

I have read this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and I understand it. I have had the opportunity to ask any questions that I have about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and those questions have been answered fully to my satisfaction.

MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Multi-Unit Development Agreement (this “MUDA”) is made between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____ (“Franchisee”) on the Effective Date.

Background Statement: On the same day as they execute this MUDA, Paramount Franchising and Franchisee have entered into a Franchise Agreement for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this MUDA have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Paramount Franchising and Franchisee desire that Franchisee develop multiple Paramount businesses.

1. Multi-Unit Commitment.

(a) Development Schedule; Fee. Franchisee shall develop and open Paramount businesses on the following schedule:

Location #	Deadline for Opening	Total # of Locations to be Open and Operating On Deadline	Initial Franchise Fee
1		1	$ _____
2		2	$ _____
3		3	$ _____
4		4	$ _____
Total Initial Franchise Fees:

(b) Payment. Upon execution of this MUDA, Franchisee shall pay the total Initial Franchise Fees for each franchise to be developed to Paramount Franchising. The Initial Franchise Fees are $40,000 for the first franchise and $25,000 for each subsequent franchise. The Initial Franchise Fees are non-refundable except as provided in Section 6.4 of the Franchise Agreement.

2. Form of Agreement. For Location #1, Franchisee and Paramount Franchising have executed the Franchise Agreement simultaneously with this MUDA. For each additional Paramount franchise, Franchisee shall execute Paramount Franchising’s then-current standard form franchise agreement as developed. This MUDA does not give Franchisee the right to construct, open, or operate a Paramount business, and Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee may construct, open, and operate each Paramount business only pursuant to a separate franchise agreement executed pursuant to this MUDA for each such Paramount business.

3. Development Area. Franchisee shall locate each Paramount business it develops under this MUDA within the following area: _____ (the “Development Area”). Franchisee acknowledges that it does not have exclusive rights to develop, open or operate Paramount businesses in the Development Area.

4. Default and Termination. Paramount Franchising may terminate this MUDA by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee fails to meet a deadline for opening a location as set forth in the development schedule; or
- (ii) Franchisee defaults and fails to cure under the terms of any one of its franchise agreements with Paramount Franchising.

Upon Termination of this MUDA, Franchisee’s rights under this MUDA are terminated, and Paramount Franchising may (among its other rights) sell the remaining development rights, sell franchises, or open locations in the Development Area. Additionally, Franchisee will forfeit all deposits made and any contractual rights to develop or purchase additional Paramount businesses within the Development Area.

5. Limitation of Liability. Franchisee’s commitment to develop Paramount businesses is in the nature of an option only. If Paramount Franchising terminates this MUDA for Franchisee’s default, Franchisee shall not be liable to Paramount Franchising for lost future revenues or profits from the unopened Paramount businesses.

6. Conditions. Franchisee’s right to develop each Paramount franchise after the Location #1 is subject to the following:

- (i) Franchisee must possess sufficient financial and organizational capacity to develop, open, operate, and manage each additional Paramount business, in the reasonable judgment of Paramount Franchising, and
- (ii) Franchisee must be in full compliance with all brand requirements at its open Paramount businesses and not in default under any Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with Paramount Franchising.

7. Dispute Resolution; Miscellaneous. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties. Franchisee shall not Transfer this MUDA without the prior written consent of Paramount Franchising, and any Transfer without Paramount Franchising’s prior written consent will be void. The provisions of Article 15 (Transfers), Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) and Article 18 (Miscellaneous) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this MUDA as if fully set forth herein. Nothing in this MUDA or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Franchisee entered into a Paramount Tax® and Accounting franchise agreement on _____ with Franchisor ("Franchise Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement was personally guaranteed by _____ and _____ ("Personal Guarantor(s)"); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement has been terminated effective as of _____.

Releasing Parties further waive any and all state law provisions limiting the effect of a general release (collectively, "Claims").

2. Covenant Not to Sue. Releasor (on behalf of all Releasing Parties) covenants not to initiate, prosecute, encourage, assist, or (except as required by law) participate in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding or investigation in any court, agency, or other forum, either affirmatively or by way of cross-claim, defense, or counterclaim, against any Released Party with respect to any Claim. In the event of a dispute related to this Release, the dispute resolution sections of the Franchise Agreement will apply and govern.

3. Non-Disparagement. Releasor covenants not to, in any way, form, or medium, disparage any of the Released Parties, the System, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting brand.

5. For California Residents. These releases are intended to waive, release and discharge all claims, other than those expressly reserved herein, with the express waiver of any statute, legal doctrine or other similar limitation upon the effect of general releases. In particular, the parties waive the benefit of any applicable statutory provision such as by illustration, California Civil Code Section 1542, which states:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

The parties, with the advice of their respective counsel, waive the benefit of both statute and other legal doctrine or principle of similar effect in any jurisdiction.

6. For Washington Residents. This Agreement does not apply with respect to claims arising under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and any rule or order adopted thereunder.

Franchisee, Personal Guarantor(s), and Franchisor hereby irrevocably consent to the exercise of general personal jurisdiction in the courts of record of the state of Utah even though it may be otherwise possible to obtain jurisdiction elsewhere, and we both agree that Salt Lake County, Utah will be the exclusive venue for any litigation between us. Each party waives any objection they may have to the personal jurisdiction of or venue in the state and federal courts of Salt Lake County, Utah.

7.3 Arbitration. In the event any controversy or dispute arises between the Parties hereto in connection with, arising from or with respect to the provisions hereof, the relationship of the Parties hereto, or the validity of this Agreement or any provision hereof, such dispute or controversy will, on the request of any Party hereto be submitted for arbitration to the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its commercial arbitration rules. The Parties agree that any claim hereunder will result in an award not more than 120 days from the date of the statement of claim filed with the American Arbitration Association, unless otherwise waived by the Parties. The award and findings of the arbitrators will be conclusive and binding upon all Parties hereto and the judgment upon the award may be entered in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

EXHIBIT I

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Investment law requires that a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise be delivered together with the disclosure document at least 14 days prior to the execution by the prospective franchisee of any binding franchise or other agreement, or at least 14 days prior to the receipt of any consideration, whichever occurs first, a copy of the disclosure document, together with a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise..
2. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
3. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
4. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
5. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
6. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake County, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake County, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
7. The franchise agreement requires application of the laws of Utah. This provision may not be enforceable under California law. You may want to consult an attorney to understand the impact of out-of-state governing law on the franchise agreement.
8. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
9. Neither franchisor nor any person listed in Item 2 of the disclosure document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling this or these persons from membership in such association or exchange.
10. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires the Franchisor to give the franchisee a disclosure document, in a form and containing such information as the Commissioner may by rule or order require, before a solicitation of a proposed modification of an existing franchise.
11. OUR WEBSITE at WWW.PARAMOUNT.TAX HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THE WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.
12. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.

13. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:

- (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
- (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
- (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
- (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

14. California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

15. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

16. Franchisee owners or greater must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

17. Item 6 under Late Fees is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

18. Item 19 is amended to include the following:

"The financial performance representations do not reflect the costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your franchised business. Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in this offering circular, may be one source of this information."

ADDENDUM TO THE FDD
FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Illinois law governs the franchise agreement(s).

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

By reading this disclosure document, you are not agreeing to, acknowledging, or making any representations whatsoever to the Franchisor and its affiliates.

STATE REGULATIONS FOR THE STATE OF INDIANA

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the disclosure document, the following provisions shall apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Indiana:

1. The prohibition by Indiana Code § 23-2-2.7-1(7) against unilateral termination of the franchise without good cause or in bad faith, good cause being defined therein as material breach of the Franchise Agreement, shall apply to the franchise agreement in the State of Indiana to the extent they may be inconsistent with such prohibition.

2. Liquidated damages and termination penalties are prohibited by law in the State of Indiana and, therefore, the disclosure document and franchise agreement are amended by the deletion of all references to liquidated damages and termination penalties and the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein:

“Notwithstanding any such termination, and in addition to the obligations of the Franchisee as otherwise provided, or in the event of termination or cancellation of the Franchise Agreement under any of the other provisions therein, the Franchisee nevertheless shall be, continue and remain liable to Franchisor for any and all damages which Franchisor has sustained or may sustain by reason of such default or defaults and the breach of the Franchise Agreement on the part of the Franchisee for the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement.

At the time of such termination of the Franchise Agreement, the Franchisee covenants to pay to Franchisor within 10 days after demand as compensation all damages, losses, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney’s fees) incurred by Franchisor, and/or amounts which would otherwise be payable thereunder but for such termination for and during the remainder of the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement. This Agreement does not constitute a waiver of the Franchisee’s right to a trial on any of the above matters.”

3. No release language set forth in the disclosure document or franchise agreement, shall relieve Franchisor or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of Indiana.

4. To the extent required by the franchise laws of the State of Indiana, the franchise agreement will be construed in accordance with the franchise laws of the State of Indiana.

5. The provisions of the franchise agreement pertaining to litigation jurisdiction and venue shall be amended to be within the scope of the requirements of the Indiana Franchise laws.

MARYLAND ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

In the State of Maryland only, this Disclosure Document is amended as follows:

ITEM 17 of the Disclosure Document is amended to add the following:

- A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
- The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its rights to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legal enforceable.
- Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.
- The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law.
- No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

NEW YORK ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

1. The following information is added to the cover page of the Franchise Disclosure Document:

INFORMATION COMPARING FRANCHISORS IS AVAILABLE. CALL THE STATE ADMINISTRATORS LISTED IN EXHIBIT A OR YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR SERVICES OR INFORMATION. REGISTRATION OF THIS FRANCHISE BY NEW YORK STATE DOES NOT MEAN THAT NEW YORK STATE RECOMMENDS IT OR HAS VERIFIED THE INFORMATION IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. THE FRANCHISOR MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, THE FRANCHISOR CANNOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE TO ACCEPT TERMS WHICH ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. The following is to be added at the end of Item 3:

Except as provided above, with regard to the franchisor, its predecessor, a person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate offering franchises under the franchisor's principal trademark:

B. No such party has pending actions, other than routine litigation incidental to the business, which are significant in the context of the number of franchisees and the size, nature or financial condition of the franchise system or its business operations.

C. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or, within the 10-year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law; fraud; embezzlement; fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property; or unfair or deceptive practices or comparable allegations.

3. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled “Requirements for franchisee to renew or extend,” and Item 17(m), entitled “Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer”:

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by franchisee”: You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(v), titled “Choice of forum”, and Item 17(w), titled “Choice of law”:

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or upon the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

7. Receipts. Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. § 680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earlier of the first personal meeting, ten (10) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

By statute under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause or to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right give to him by any provision contained in the franchise. Accordingly, the Division requests that the franchisor add a Virginia Addendum to the FDD containing the following statements:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, any franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Paramount Franchising LLC for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

The following statements are added to Item 17(h):

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him under the franchise. If any provision of the Franchise Agreement involves the use of undue influence by the franchisor to induce a franchisee to surrender any rights given to the franchisee under the franchise, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Non-solicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Paragraph 19.1 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “but only to the extent necessary to prevent the invalidity of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof or the imposition of civil or criminal penalties or liability. To the extent permitted by the laws of the state whose laws govern this Agreement, You hereby waive any provisions of law or regulations which render any portion of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect.”

20. Paragraph 20.10 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “You represent and acknowledge that no agreements, representations, negotiations, promises, commitments, inducements, assurances, terms, conditions, or covenants of any nature exist between You and Us except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, whether pertaining to this Agreement or to any future, further or additional rights of either You or Us.”

21. Paragraph 20.11 of the franchise agreement is amended to clarify that for Washington franchisees, the Washington Addendum applies even if the Washington Addendum is not executed or not signed by the franchisor, franchisee, or both.

22. Sections 20.14, 20.18, and 20.22 of the franchise agreement do not apply in Washington.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.

FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California will be the California Investment law and the California Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
 - (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

10. Franchisee owners must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

11. Late Fees in Section 4.6(c) is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

12. Under California law, an agreement between a seller and a buyer regarding the price at which the buyer can resell a product (known as vertical price-fixing or resale price maintenance) is illegal. Therefore, requirements on franchisees to sell goods or services at specific prices set by the franchisor may be unenforceable.

INDIANA RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”) between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the franchise agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the franchise agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the franchise agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a franchise agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the franchise agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the franchise agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

MARYLAND RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Addendum dated _____, by and between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company hereinafter referred to as “Franchisor” and _____, LLC/Inc., a hereinafter referred to as “Franchisee.”

1. A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective franchisees to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

Except as expressly amended or modified herein, all terms, provisions and conditions of the original Franchise Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Addendum and any provisions of the original Franchise Agreement, the provisions hereof shall in all respects govern and control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and by their signatures below, the Parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be effective as of the date listed above with the full authority of the Company principal they represent.

Illinois law governs the Multi-Unit Development Agreement.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a Multi-Unit Development Agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a Multi-Unit Development Agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Franchisees rights upon termination and non-renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Franchisor and Franchisee have respectively signed and sealed this Multi-Unit Development Agreement as of _____.

INDIANA RIDER TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Multi-Unit Development Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”), between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(6) Allowing for an increase in prices of goods provided by Paramount Franchising which Franchisee had ordered for private retail consumers prior to Franchisee's receipt of an official price increase notification. A sales contract signed by a private retail consumer shall constitute evidence of each order. Price changes applicable to new models of a product at the time of introduction of such new models shall not be considered a price increase. Price increases caused by conformity to a state or federal law, or the revaluation of the United States dollar in the case of foreign-made goods, are not subject to this subsection (6).

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a Multi-Unit Development Agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the Multi-Unit Development Agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

3. Effective Date. This Rider is effective as of the Effective Date.

MARYLAND RIDER TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Addendum dated _____, 20____, by and between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company hereinafter referred to as “Franchisor” and _____, LLC/Inc., a hereinafter collectively referred to as “Area Developer.”

1. An area developer may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective area developers to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. This development agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

Except as expressly amended or modified herein, all terms, provisions and conditions of the original Multi-Unit Development Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Addendum and any provisions of the original Multi-Unit Development Agreement, the provisions hereof shall in all respects govern and control.

14.2 Termination by Paramount Franchising.

(a) Subject to 10-Day Cure Period. Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement if Franchisee does not make any payment to Paramount Franchising when due, or if Franchisee does not have sufficient funds in its account when Paramount Franchising attempts an electronic funds withdrawal, and Franchisee fails to cure such non-payment within 10 days after Paramount Franchising gives notice to Franchisee of such breach.

(b) Subject to 30-Day Cure Period. If Franchisee breaches this Agreement in any manner other than described in subsection (a) or (c) and fails to cure such breach to Paramount Franchising's satisfaction within 30 days after Paramount Franchising gives notice to Franchisee of such breach, then Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement.

(c) No-Cure Period. Paramount Franchising may terminate this Agreement by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee misrepresented or omitted material facts when applying to be a franchisee, or breaches any representation in this Agreement;
- (ii) Franchisee intentionally submits any false report or intentionally provides any other false information to Paramount Franchising;
- (iii) a receiver or trustee for the Business or all (or substantially all) of Franchisee's property is appointed by any court, or Franchisee makes a general assignment for the benefit of Franchisee's creditors or Franchisee makes a written statement to the effect that Franchisee is unable to pay its debts as they become due, or a levy or execution is made against the Business, or an attachment or lien remains on the Business for 30 days unless the attachment or lien is being duly contested in good faith by Franchisee, or a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Franchisee, or such a petition is filed against or consented to by Franchisee and the petition is not dismissed within 45 days, or Franchisee is adjudicated as bankrupt;
- (iv) Franchisee fails to open for business by the date specified on the Summary Page;
- (v) Franchisee loses possession of the Location;
- (vi) Franchisee or any Owner commits a material violation of Section 7.2 (compliance with laws) or Section 13.1 (confidentiality), violates Section 13.2 (non-compete) or Article 15 (transfer), or commits any other violation of this Agreement which by its nature cannot be cured;
- (vii) Franchisee abandons or ceases operation of the Business for more than five consecutive days without the prior written authorization of Paramount Franchising;
- (viii) Franchisee or any Owner slanders or libels Paramount Franchising or any of its employees, directors, or officers;
- (ix) Franchisee refuses to cooperate with or permit any audit or inspection by Paramount Franchising or its agents or contractors, or otherwise fails to comply with Section 10.5 or Section 11.2;
- (x) the Business is operated in a manner which, in Paramount Franchising's reasonable judgment, constitutes a significant danger to the health or safety of any person, and Franchisee fails to cure such danger within 48 hours after becoming aware of the danger (due to notice from Paramount Franchising or otherwise);
- (xi) Franchisee has received two or more notices of default and Franchisee commits another breach of this Agreement, all in the same 12-month period;

- (xii) Paramount Franchising (or any affiliate) terminates any other agreement with Franchisee (or any affiliate) due to the breach of such other agreement by Franchisee (or its affiliate); or
- (xiii) Franchisee or any Owner is charged with, pleads guilty to, or is convicted of a felony, or is accused by any governmental authority or third party of any act that in Paramount Franchising's opinion is reasonably likely to materially and unfavorably affect Paramount Franchising's brand.

14.3 Effect of Termination. Upon Termination of this Agreement, all obligations that by their terms or by reasonable implication survive Termination, Including those pertaining to non-competition, confidentiality, and indemnity, will remain in effect, and Franchisee must immediately:

- (i) Pay all amounts owed to Paramount Franchising based on the operation of the Business through the effective date of Termination;
- (ii) Return to Paramount Franchising all copies of the Manual, Confidential Information and any and all other materials provided by Paramount Franchising to Franchisee or created by a third party for Franchisee relating to the operation of the Business, and all items containing any Marks, copyrights, and other proprietary items;
- (iii) Notify the telephone, Internet, email, electronic network, Social Media, directory, and listing entities of the Termination of Franchisee's right to use any numbers, addresses, domain names, locators, Social Media accounts, directories and listings associated with any of the Marks, and authorize their transfer to Paramount Franchising or any new franchisee as may be directed by Paramount Franchising, and Franchisee hereby irrevocably appoints Paramount Franchising, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact, which appointment is coupled with an interest. Franchisee shall execute the Digital and Social Media Authorization for Assignment in the form of Attachment 4 attached hereto and such other directions and authorizations as may be necessary or appropriate to accomplish the foregoing; and
- (iv) Cease doing business under any of the Marks and forward all client information to Paramount Franchising.

14.4 Remove Identification. Within 30 days after Termination, Franchisee shall at its own expense "de-identify" the Location so that it no longer contains the Marks, signage, or any trade dress of a Paramount business, to the reasonable satisfaction of Paramount Franchising. This Includes Franchisee's removal of signs, destruction or removal of letterheads, Marketing material, the change of Business telephone listings, telephone numbers, email addresses, URLs, Internet websites, and any other property that bears Paramount Tax & Accounting brand or is affiliated with the brand. Franchisee must not identify any present or future business owned or operated by Franchisee as having been in any way associated with Paramount Franchising or the System. Franchisee shall comply with any reasonable instructions and procedures of Paramount Franchising for de-identification. If Franchisee fails to do so within 30 days after this Agreement is Terminated, Paramount Franchising may enter the Location to remove the Marks and de-identify the Location. In this event, Paramount Franchising will not be charged with trespass nor be accountable or required to pay for any assets removed or altered, or for any damage caused by Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for all its costs and expenses to remove the Marks and de-identify the Location.

14.5 Other Claims. Termination of this Agreement by Paramount Franchising will not affect or discharge any claims, rights, causes of action or remedies (Including claims for Paramount Franchising's lost future income after Termination), which Paramount Franchising may have against Franchisee, whether arising before or after Termination.

14.6 Purchase Option. When this Agreement is Terminated, Paramount Franchising will have the right (but not the obligation) to purchase any or all of the assets related to the Business, Including computer equipment, server (physical and/or cloud-based), office furniture, etc., at fair market value, and/or to require Franchisee to assign its lease or sublease to Paramount Franchising. To exercise this option, Paramount Franchising must notify Franchisee no later than 30 days after this Agreement is Terminated. If the parties cannot agree on fair market value within 30 days after the exercise notice, the fair market value will be determined by an independent appraiser reasonably acceptable to both parties. The parties will equally share the cost of the appraisal. Paramount Franchising has the right to cover the entire cost of the appraisal and deduct Franchisee's share from the purchase price or include with other amounts due to Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising's purchase will be of assets only (free and clear of all liens) and will not include any liabilities of Franchisee. If Paramount Franchising exercises the purchase option, Paramount Franchising may deduct from the purchase price: (a) all amounts due from Franchisee; (b) Franchisee's portion of the cost of any appraisal conducted hereunder; and (c) amounts paid or to be paid by Paramount Franchising to cure defaults under Franchisee's lease and/or amounts owed by Franchisee to third parties. If any of the assets are subject to liens, Paramount Franchising may withhold a portion of purchase price directly to the lienholder to pay off such lien. Paramount Franchising may also withhold 25% of the purchase price for 90 days to ensure that all of Franchisee's taxes and other liabilities are paid. Paramount Franchising may assign this purchase option to another party.

ARTICLE 15. TRANSFERS

15.1 By Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may transfer or assign this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, to any person or entity, and Paramount Franchising may undergo a change in ownership and/or control, without the consent of Franchisee.

15.2 By Franchisee. Franchisee acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Franchisee and that Paramount Franchising entered into this Agreement in reliance on Franchisee's business skill, financial capacity, personal character, experience and business ability. Accordingly, Franchisee shall not conduct or undergo a Transfer without providing Paramount Franchising at least 60 days' prior written notice of the proposed Transfer, and without obtaining Paramount Franchising's prior written consent. In granting any such consent, Paramount Franchising may impose conditions, Including the following:

- (i) Paramount Franchising receives a transfer fee equal to 50% of the then-current initial franchise fee for new franchisees. Franchisee only needs to reimburse Paramount Franchising's legal fees if Franchisee Transfers less than 25% ownership in Franchisee, and Franchisee's current owners maintain control. However, all guarantors will remain guarantors unless otherwise released by Paramount Franchising;
- (ii) the proposed assignee and its owners have completed Paramount Franchising's franchise application processes, meet Paramount Franchising's then-applicable standards for new franchisees, and have been approved by Paramount Franchising as franchisees;
- (iii) the proposed assignee is not a Competing Business;

- (iv) the proposed assignee executes Paramount Franchising's then-current form of franchise agreement; which form may contain materially different provisions from the Agreement;
- (v) Franchisee has paid all monetary obligations to Paramount Franchising in full, and Franchisee is not otherwise in default of this Agreement;
- (vi) the proposed assignee and its owners and employees undergo such training as Paramount Franchising may require and Franchisee assists in covering the Business during such training if necessary;
- (vii) Franchisee, its Owners, and the transferee and its owners execute a general release of Paramount Franchising in a form satisfactory to Paramount Franchising; and
- (viii) the Business fully complies with all of Paramount Franchising's most recent System Standards, Including upgrading and Remodel requirements.

15.3 Transfer for Convenience of Ownership. If Franchisee is an individual, Franchisee may Transfer this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company formed for the convenience of ownership after at least 15 days' prior written notice to Paramount Franchising, if, prior to the Transfer: (1) the transferee provides the information required by Section 2.3; (2) Franchisee provides copies the entity's charter documents, by-laws (or operating agreement) and similar documents, if requested by Paramount Franchising, (3) Franchisee owns all voting securities of the corporation or limited liability company, and (4) Franchisee provides a guaranty in accordance with Section 2.5.

15.4 Transfer upon Death or Incapacity. Upon the death or incapacity of Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is an entity, the person with the largest ownership interest in Franchisee), the executor, administrator, or personal representative of that person must Transfer the Business to a third party approved by Paramount Franchising within nine months after death or incapacity. Such Transfer must comply with Section 15.2.

15.5 Paramount Franchising's Right of First Refusal. Before Franchisee (or any owner) engages in a Transfer (except under Section 15.3 or Section 15.4), Paramount Franchising will have a right of first refusal, as set forth in this Section. Franchisee (or its owners) shall provide to Paramount Franchising a copy of the terms and conditions of any Transfer. For a period of 30 days from the date of Paramount Franchising's receipt of such copy, Paramount Franchising will have the right, exercisable by notice to Franchisee, to purchase the Business or the assets subject of the proposed Transfer for the same price and on the same terms and conditions (except that Paramount Franchising may substitute cash for any other form of payment). If Paramount Franchising does not exercise its right of first refusal, Franchisee may proceed with the proposed Transfer, subject to the other terms and conditions of this Article. However, if there are any material changes in the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer and any of those changes are less favorable to Franchisee, Franchisee shall notify Paramount Franchising of the changes in writing, and Paramount Franchising will have an additional 10 days within which to elect to purchase the assets proposed to be Transferred on the revised terms and conditions. If the proposed Transfer is not completed for any reason after Paramount Franchising elects not to purchase the assets being Transferred, a new right of first refusal commences as to any subsequent proposed Transfer by Franchisee.

15.6 No Sublicense. Franchisee has no right to sublicense the Marks or any of Franchisee's rights under this Agreement.

15.7 No Lien on Agreement. Franchisee shall not grant a security interest in this Agreement to any person or entity. If Franchisee grants an "all assets" security interest to any lender or other secured party, Franchisee shall cause the secured party to expressly exempt this Agreement from the security interest.

ARTICLE 16. INDEMNITY

16.1 Indemnity. Franchisee shall indemnify and defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Paramount Franchising) Paramount Franchising, its parent entities, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assignees (collectively, “Indemnitees”) against all Losses in any Action by or against Paramount Franchising and/or any Indemnatee directly or indirectly related to, or alleged to arise out of, the operation of the Business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee shall not be obligated to indemnify an Indemnatee from claims arising as a result of any Indemnatee’s misconduct or negligence. Franchisee agrees not to file any crossclaim or counterclaim against Paramount Franchising for any action made by a third-party or make any response that would infer or represent Paramount Franchising is liable as a party or defendant to any action that is contrary to this Section. This Agreement and the terms in this Section and related terms in this Agreement is a bona fide defense to any claim Franchisee may contradictorily make against Paramount Franchising as to Paramount Franchising’s liability or proportion of fault. Franchisee shall bear all costs to defend Paramount Franchising from claims raised by a third party. If Paramount Franchising incurs any costs or liabilities to any third party, Franchisee shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for costs associated with Paramount Franchising’s defense to those claims. This indemnity will continue in effect after this Agreement ends.

16.2 Assumption by Paramount Franchising. Paramount Franchising may elect to assume the defense and/or settlement of any Action subject to this indemnification, at Franchisee’s expense. Such an undertaking will not diminish Franchisee’s obligation to indemnify the Indemnitees.

ARTICLE 17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Arbitration.

(a) Disputes Subject to Arbitration. Except as expressly provided in subsection (c), any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, will be resolved by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, Including the Optional Rules for Emergency Measures of Protection. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

(b) Location. The place of arbitration will be held in Salt Lake County, Utah or the county and state where Paramount Franchising’s then-current headquarters are located.

(c) Injunctive Relief. Either party may apply to the arbitrator seeking injunctive relief until the arbitration award is rendered or the controversy is otherwise resolved. Either party also may, without waiving any remedy or right to arbitrate under this Agreement, seek from any court having jurisdiction any interim or provisional injunctive relief.

(d) Confidentiality. All documents, information, and results pertaining to any arbitration or lawsuit will be confidential, except as required by law or as required for Paramount Franchising to comply with laws and regulations applicable to the sale of franchises.

(e) Performance During Arbitration or Litigation. Paramount Franchising and Franchisee shall comply with this Agreement and perform their respective obligations under this Agreement during the arbitration or litigation process.

17.2 Damages. In any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each party waives any right to punitive or other monetary damages not measured by the prevailing party’s actual damages, except damages authorized by federal statute. In the event of Termination of this Agreement prior

the expiration of the term, Paramount Franchising's actual damages will include its lost future income from Royalty Fees and other amounts that Franchisee would have owed to Paramount Franchising but for the Termination.

17.3 Waiver of Class Actions. The parties agree that any claims will be arbitrated, litigated, or otherwise resolved on an individual basis, and waive any right to act on a class-wide basis.

17.4 Time Limitation. Any arbitration or other legal action arising from or related to this Agreement must be instituted within two years from the date such party discovers the conduct or event that forms the basis of the arbitration or other legal action. The foregoing time limit does not apply to claims (i) by one party related to non-payment under this Agreement by the other party, (ii) for indemnity under Article 16, or (iii) related to unauthorized use of Confidential Information or the Marks.

17.5 Venue Other Than Arbitration. For any legal proceeding not required to be submitted to arbitration, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the United States District Court of Salt Lake County, Utah or where Paramount Franchising's then-current headquarters is located. If there is no federal jurisdiction over the dispute, the parties agree that any such legal proceeding will be brought in the court of record of the state and county where Paramount Franchising's headquarters is then located. Each party consents to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection that it, he or she may have to the laying of venue of any proceeding in any of these courts.

17.6 Legal Costs. In any legal proceeding (including arbitration) related to this Agreement or any guaranty, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's attorney fees, costs and other expenses of the legal proceeding. "Prevailing party" means the party, if any, which prevailed upon the central litigated issues and obtained substantial relief.

ARTICLE 18. MISCELLANEOUS

18.1 Relationship of the Parties. The parties are independent contractors, and neither is the agent, partner, joint venturer, or employee of the other. Paramount Franchising is not a fiduciary of Franchisee and does not control Franchisee or its Business. Paramount Franchising has no liability for Franchisee's obligations to any third party whatsoever.

18.2 No Third-party Beneficiaries. This Agreement does not confer any rights or remedies upon any person or entity other than Franchisee, Paramount Franchising, and Paramount Franchising's affiliates.

18.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties related to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior negotiations and representations whether oral or in writing. Nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made by Paramount Franchising in its franchise disclosure document.

18.4 Modification. No modification or amendment of this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both parties. This provision does not limit Paramount Franchising's rights to modify the Manual or System Standards.

18.5 Consent; Waiver. No consent under this Agreement, and no waiver of satisfaction of a condition or nonperformance of an obligation under this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the party granting the consent or waiver. No waiver by a party of any right will affect the party's rights as to any subsequent exercise of that right or any other right. No delay, forbearance or omission by a party to exercise any right will constitute a waiver of such right.

18.6 Cumulative Remedies. Rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative. No enforcement of a right or remedy precludes the enforcement of any other right or remedy.

18.7 Severability. The parties intend that (i) if any provision of this Agreement is held by an arbitrator or court to be unenforceable, then that provision be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, unless that modification is not permitted by law, in which case that provision will be disregarded, and (ii) if an unenforceable provision is modified or disregarded, then the rest of this Agreement will remain in effect as written.

18.8 Governing Law. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties.

18.9 Notices. Any notice will be effective under this Agreement only if made in writing and delivered as set forth in this Section to: (A) if to Franchisee, addressed to Franchisee at the notice address set forth in the Summary Page; and (B) if to Paramount Franchising, addressed to 12481 South Fort St., Suite 200, Draper, Utah 84020, with a copy to The Franchise & Business Law Group at 222 S. Any party may designate a new address for notices by giving notice of the new address pursuant to this Section. Notices will be effective upon receipt (or first rejection) and must be: (1) delivered personally; (2) sent by registered or certified U.S. mail with return receipt requested; (3) by email upon receipt of transmission verification; or (4) sent via overnight courier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Paramount Franchising may amend the Manual, give binding notice of changes to System Standards, and deliver notices of default by electronic mail or other electronic communication.

18.10 Joint and Several Liability. If two or more people sign this Agreement as “Franchisee,” each will have joint and several liability.

18.11 No Offer and Acceptance. Delivery of a draft of this Agreement to Franchisee by Paramount Franchising does not constitute an offer. This Agreement shall not be effective unless and until it is executed by both Franchisee and Paramount Franchising.

18.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

This Guaranty and Non-Compete Agreement (this “Guaranty”) is entered into and made effective by and between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and the undersigned person(s) (each, a “Guarantor”) owners of _____ (the “Business Entity”).

Background Statement: Business Entity (“Franchisee”) desires to enter into a Franchise Agreement with Paramount Franchising for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this Guaranty have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Guarantor owns an equity interest in Franchisee. Guarantor is executing this Guaranty in order to induce Paramount Franchising to enter into the Franchise Agreement.

Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Guaranty. Guarantor hereby unconditionally guarantees to Paramount Franchising and its successors and assigns that Franchisee shall pay and perform every undertaking, agreement and covenant set forth in the Franchise Agreement and further guarantees every other liability and obligation of Franchisee to Paramount Franchising, whether or not contained in the Franchise Agreement. Guarantor shall render any payment or performance required under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising upon demand from Paramount Franchising. Guarantor waives (a) acceptance and notice of acceptance by Paramount Franchising of this Guaranty; (b) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations of Franchisee; (c) protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; (d) any right Guarantor may have to require that an action be brought against Franchisee or any other person or entity as a condition of liability hereunder; (e) all rights to payments and claims for reimbursement or subrogation which any of the undersigned may have against Franchisee arising as a result of the execution of and performance under this Guaranty by the undersigned; (f) any law which requires that Paramount Franchising make demand upon, assert claims against or collect from Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor), foreclose any security interest, sell collateral, exhaust any remedies or take any other action against Franchisee or any other person or entity (Including any other guarantor) prior to making any demand upon, collecting from or taking any action against the undersigned with respect to this Guaranty; and (g) any and all other notices and legal or equitable defenses to which Guarantor may be entitled.

2. Confidential Information. With respect to all Confidential Information Guarantor shall (a) adhere to all security procedures prescribed by Paramount Franchising for maintaining confidentiality, (b) disclose such information to its employees only to the extent necessary for the operation of the Business; (c) not use any such information in any other business or in any manner not specifically authorized or approved in writing by Paramount Franchising, (d) exercise the highest degree of diligence and make every effort to maintain the confidentiality of all such information during and after the term of the Franchise Agreement, (e) not copy or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information, and (f) promptly report any unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information. Guarantor acknowledges that all Confidential Information is owned by Paramount Franchising or its affiliates (except for any Confidential Information, which Paramount Franchising licenses from another person or entity). Guarantor acknowledges that all Customer Data generated or obtained by Guarantor is Confidential Information belonging to Paramount Franchising. This Section will survive the Termination of the Franchise Agreement indefinitely.

3. Covenants Not to Compete and Non-Solicitation of Clients.

(a) Restriction - In Term. During the term of the Franchise Agreement, Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged, assist, consult or be employed by, any Competing Business.

(b) Restriction – Post Term. For two years after the Franchise Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly have any ownership interest in, or be engaged or employed by, any Competing Business located within Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of Franchisee's Territory or within 25 miles of the territory of any other Paramount business operating on the date of Termination or Transfer, as applicable.

(c) Interpretation. Guarantor agrees that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Guaranty or the Franchise Agreement. If all or any portion of the covenants in this Section is held to be unenforceable or unreasonable by any court, then parties intend that the court modify such restriction to extent reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Paramount Franchising. Guarantor agrees that the existence of any claim it or Franchisee may have against Paramount Franchising shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Paramount Franchising of the covenants of this Section. If Guarantor fails to comply with the obligations under this Section during the restrictive period, then the restrictive period will be tolled for each day of noncompliance.

(d) Non-Solicitation of Clients. For three years after the Franchise Agreement is Terminated for any reason (or, if applicable, for two years after a Transfer by Guarantor), Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly contact any then-current or former client of Franchisee, or of another franchisee or affiliate of Paramount Franchising for the purpose of soliciting from any such client any business that is the same as or substantially similar to services performed by a Paramount business.

4. Enforcement Costs. If Paramount Franchising must enforce this Guaranty in any judicial or arbitration proceeding or any appeals, Guarantor(s) shall reimburse Paramount Franchising for its enforcement costs. Enforcement costs Include reasonable fees from accountants, attorneys, attorney's assistants, arbitrators, and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, arbitration filing fees, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses, whether incurred before, in preparation for, or in contemplation of the filing of any written demand, claim, action, hearing or proceeding to enforce this Guaranty.

5. Modification. Guarantor agrees that Guarantor's liability hereunder will not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by (a) any amendment of the Franchise Agreement, (b) any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which Paramount Franchising may from time to time grant to Franchisee or to any other person or entity, or (c) the acceptance of any partial payment or performance or the compromise or release of any claims.

6. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution. This Guaranty will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Utah. The provisions of Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this Guaranty as if fully set forth herein. If multiple Guarantors sign this Guaranty, each will have joint and several liability.

7. Counterparts. This Guaranty may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature with full legal force and effect and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

Attachment 6 to Franchise Agreement

EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYEE BRAND PROTECTION AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is entered into as of _____, between _____ ("Franchisee") and _____ ("Employee"), residing at _____.

A. Franchisee is the holder of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise developed by Paramount Franchising LLC ("Franchisor").

B. Franchisor has developed certain confidential and proprietary information for the operation of a Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, including without limitation, processes, methods, client lists and data, trade secrets, systems, software, pricing, financial information, client data and lists, manuals, marketing techniques, and procedures ("Proprietary Information").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the employment of Employee by Franchisee, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Acknowledgement. Employee acknowledges that during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee he or she has obtained or may obtain knowledge of the Proprietary Information and other confidential matters and procedures developed, licensed to or owned by Franchisor and made available to Franchisee, which are necessary and essential to the operation of the business of Franchisee, which without such information, Franchisee could not efficiently, effectively and profitably operate its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise. Employee further acknowledges that such Proprietary Information was not known to him or her prior to the association with Franchisee or its Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise.

2. Non-Use, Non-Disclosure. Except as may be required in the performance of duties for Franchisee, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, use, or disclose to any third party, or authorize any third party to use any portion of the Proprietary Information, and agrees not to copy, transmit, recreate or otherwise reproduce all of any part of the Proprietary Information at any time. Should Employee work for a different Paramount Tax & Accounting franchise, Employee shall not share with or use with such new employer any client data for any client or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor. For the purposes of this Agreement, a "prospective client" does not mean any possible client. It means a potential client who has been engaged in some way, or has provided some personal information, or has elected to receive some communication, but who has not yet done business to be considered an actual client.

2.1 No Reverse Engineering. Employee shall not, either personally, in concert with others or through other authorization, reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct or attempt to reverse engineer, decompile or deconstruct any portion of the Proprietary Information.

3. Duty to Notify. Employee agrees to notify Franchisor or Franchisee or Employee's immediate superiors of any reasonably suspected attempts to violate the terms or purposes of this Agreement or to otherwise disclose, copy, or reproduce any part of the Proprietary Information. In the event it is discovered that Employee knew or had reason to know of any suspected attempts to violate this Agreement and fails to report such knowledge, Employee agrees to indemnify Franchisor and Franchisee for all costs and fees associated with enforcement, and to reimburse Franchisor and Franchisee for those losses sustained due to such violation. Employee agrees to cooperate with Franchisor and Franchisee in its

or their attempts to enforce the terms of this Agreement and to otherwise protect the Proprietary Information, and to cooperate with Franchisee and Franchisor to the extent Franchisee is obligated to cooperate with Franchisor's attempts to enforce its rights in and to the Proprietary Information.

4. Return of Materials. Immediately upon the termination of employment, Employee agrees to deliver to Franchisee (and shall not keep in his or her possession or deliver to anyone else whether in hard or electronic soft copy) any and all records, data, photographs, notes, manuals, lists, correspondence, specifications, materials, other documents or property, or reproductions relating to, directly or indirectly, to the Proprietary Information.

5. Management and Supervisor Employees. This Section 5 shall only apply if Employee is a management employee and/or acts in a supervisory role over other employees.

5.1 Non-Competition. Subject to applicable law, Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment by Franchisee, and for one year thereafter, directly or indirectly in any capacity, without Franchisee's prior written consent, engage in a business, or plan for or organize a business, or have any financial interest in, or become and owner, officer, director, shareholder, partner, associate, employee, contractor, agent, representative or consultant in any offering or selling products or services the same or substantially similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the minimum area of competitive nature will be that area within a 5-mile radius of any client serviced by Franchisee. The ownership of not more than 2% of the voting stock of a publicly held corporation will not be considered a violation of the foregoing provision. The post-termination, non-competition covenants do not apply if Employee works for another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

6. Non-Solicitation of Clients. Employee shall not, during the course of his or her employment and for two years thereafter, directly or indirectly, contact any client, former client, or prospective client of Franchisee, Franchisor, or an affiliate of Franchisor for the purpose of soliciting such client to be a client of a business that is the same as or similar to a Paramount Tax & Accounting business, including to be a client of another Paramount Tax & Accounting business.

7. Irreparable Harm. Employee hereby acknowledges and agrees that any breach by him or her of any portion of Sections 1 through 6 above, inclusive, will cause damage to Franchisee and Franchisor in an amount difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, in addition to any other relief to which Franchisee may be entitled, either Franchisee or Franchisor will be entitled to enforce this Agreement and to seek temporary, preliminary, and/or permanent injunctive relief for any breach or threatened breach by Employee of any of the terms of Section 1 through 6 above, inclusive, without proof of actual damages that have been or may be caused to Franchisee or Franchisor by such breach, and without the requirement of posting bond. The existence of a claim against Franchisee or Franchisor will not constitute a defense to enforce the covenants of this Agreement.

8. Modification. Employee hereby agrees that, without limitation, any modifications, alterations, changes, or improvements conceived, designed, devised, developed, perfected or made by Employee, whether alone or in conjunction with others, and related in any manner to the actual or anticipated operation of the Franchisee, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting system, or to any area of research and development related to the operation of the business, must be promptly disclosed to the Franchisee and will become the property of Franchisor, and Employee hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, and conveys any such to Franchisor.

9. Enforceability. If any portion of this Agreement will be held invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder of this Agreement will be considered valid and operative, and effect will be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

10. Survival of Covenants. All covenants made in this Agreement by Employee survive the termination of Employee's employment with Franchisee or the expiration, transfer, or termination of this Agreement.

11. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement may be amended in whole or in part only by an agreement in writing signed by both parties.

12. Attorneys' Fees. In the event any action in law or equity or any arbitration or other proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement or in connection with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties will be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and other costs reasonably incurred in such action or proceeding.

13. Counterpart and Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts by facsimile, electronic signature, or scanned and emailed signature, or similar electronic means, which will be deemed the same as an original signature and may be used for all purposes as if it were an original.

14. Third-party Beneficiary. It is agreed and acknowledged that Franchisor is a third-party beneficiary to this Agreement.

FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Because you are becoming a part of the Paramount Tax® franchise system, it is important that you understand and acknowledge who is your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), and who is not.

You have been hired by _____ (Legal Name of Franchisee) (“Franchisee”), which is an independent franchise owner in the Paramount Tax® franchise system (which we call the “System”). Although Franchisee looks the same, has the same name, and is operated the same way as other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System, Franchisee is not part of the same company as those other Paramount Tax® outlets in the System. Paramount Franchising LLC is a completely separate company that owns the name and created the System. Paramount Franchising LLC has devised rules, systems of operation, and policies and procedures that all of its franchisees must follow, including Franchisee, which makes each independent franchise Paramount Tax® outlet look and operate the same way as one another. This way, Paramount Franchising LLC manages a System composed of many different franchisee owners, each of whom is independently responsible for operating its own Paramount Tax® outlet.

It is important that you understand that Franchisee is your only employer (or is the only party associated with the Paramount Tax® franchise system that hired you as an independent contractor). If you are an employee, then Franchisee gives you your paycheck, establishes your hours, and is responsible for all decisions relating to your employment relationship. If you are an independent contractor, then Franchisee compensates you, hires you for certain hours or tasks, and provides you with the job description for your services to Franchisee. Paramount Franchising LLC is not your employer and has not hired you to provide services related to the Paramount Tax® franchise system. If Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives ever give you direction, training, or advice, it is intended only to ensure that the experience of all customers of Paramount Tax® is the same at or through your place of work as it is at other Paramount Tax® outlets in the Paramount Tax® system. The fact that you are trained, or given direction or advice, by Paramount Franchising LLC’s representatives does not somehow mean that Paramount Franchising LLC is your employer.

If you have any questions about your employment relationship or your contracted relationship or about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, please direct them to your employer (or the party that hired you as an independent contractor), Franchisee.

I have read this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and I understand it. I have had the opportunity to ask any questions that I have about this Franchise Relationship Acknowledgement, and those questions have been answered fully to my satisfaction.

MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Multi-Unit Development Agreement (this “MUDA”) is made between Paramount Franchising LLC (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____ (“Franchisee”) on the Effective Date.

Background Statement: On the same day as they execute this MUDA, Paramount Franchising and Franchisee have entered into a Franchise Agreement for the franchise of a Paramount business (the “Franchise Agreement”; capitalized terms used but not defined in this MUDA have the meanings given in the Franchise Agreement). Paramount Franchising and Franchisee desire that Franchisee develop multiple Paramount businesses.

1. Multi-Unit Commitment.

(a) Development Schedule; Fee. Franchisee shall develop and open Paramount businesses on the following schedule:

Location #	Deadline for Opening	Total # of Locations to be Open and Operating On Deadline	Initial Franchise Fee
1		1	$ _____
2		2	$ _____
3		3	$ _____
4		4	$ _____
Total Initial Franchise Fees:

(b) Payment. Upon execution of this MUDA, Franchisee shall pay the total Initial Franchise Fees for each franchise to be developed to Paramount Franchising. The Initial Franchise Fees are $40,000 for the first franchise and $25,000 for each subsequent franchise. The Initial Franchise Fees are non-refundable except as provided in Section 6.4 of the Franchise Agreement.

2. Form of Agreement. For Location #1, Franchisee and Paramount Franchising have executed the Franchise Agreement simultaneously with this MUDA. For each additional Paramount franchise, Franchisee shall execute Paramount Franchising’s then-current standard form franchise agreement as developed. This MUDA does not give Franchisee the right to construct, open, or operate a Paramount business, and Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee may construct, open, and operate each Paramount business only pursuant to a separate franchise agreement executed pursuant to this MUDA for each such Paramount business.

3. Development Area. Franchisee shall locate each Paramount business it develops under this MUDA within the following area: _____ (the “Development Area”). Franchisee acknowledges that it does not have exclusive rights to develop, open or operate Paramount businesses in the Development Area.

4. Default and Termination. Paramount Franchising may terminate this MUDA by giving notice to Franchisee, without opportunity to cure, if any of the following occur:

- (i) Franchisee fails to meet a deadline for opening a location as set forth in the development schedule; or
- (ii) Franchisee defaults and fails to cure under the terms of any one of its franchise agreements with Paramount Franchising.

Upon Termination of this MUDA, Franchisee’s rights under this MUDA are terminated, and Paramount Franchising may (among its other rights) sell the remaining development rights, sell franchises, or open locations in the Development Area. Additionally, Franchisee will forfeit all deposits made and any contractual rights to develop or purchase additional Paramount businesses within the Development Area.

5. Limitation of Liability. Franchisee’s commitment to develop Paramount businesses is in the nature of an option only. If Paramount Franchising terminates this MUDA for Franchisee’s default, Franchisee shall not be liable to Paramount Franchising for lost future revenues or profits from the unopened Paramount businesses.

6. Conditions. Franchisee’s right to develop each Paramount franchise after the Location #1 is subject to the following:

- (i) Franchisee must possess sufficient financial and organizational capacity to develop, open, operate, and manage each additional Paramount business, in the reasonable judgment of Paramount Franchising, and
- (ii) Franchisee must be in full compliance with all brand requirements at its open Paramount businesses and not in default under any Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with Paramount Franchising.

7. Dispute Resolution; Miscellaneous. The laws of the state of Utah (without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of law) govern all adversarial proceedings between the parties. Franchisee shall not Transfer this MUDA without the prior written consent of Paramount Franchising, and any Transfer without Paramount Franchising’s prior written consent will be void. The provisions of Article 15 (Transfers), Article 17 (Dispute Resolution) and Article 18 (Miscellaneous) of the Franchise Agreement apply to and are incorporated into this MUDA as if fully set forth herein. Nothing in this MUDA or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document.

This General Release ("Release") is executed by _____ ("Releasor") and _____ (Personal Guarantor(s) (collectively, the "Releasing Parties") in favor of Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company ("Paramount Franchising" or "Released Party").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Franchisee entered into a Paramount Tax® and Accounting franchise agreement on _____ with Franchisor ("Franchise Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement was personally guaranteed by _____ and _____ ("Personal Guarantor(s)"); and

WHEREAS, the Franchise Agreement has been terminated effective as of _____.

1. Release. Releasing Parties (on behalf of itself, guarantors, and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective past and present officers, directors, shareholders, managers, members, partners, agents, and employees) hereby releases Paramount Franchising, its affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, employees, and agents from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, debts, agreements, promises, demands, liabilities, contractual rights and/or obligations, of whatever nature, known or unknown, which any Releasing Party now has or ever had against any Released Party based upon and/or arising out of events that occurred through the date hereof, including without limitation, anything arising out of the Franchise Agreement, the relationship described therein and any business transaction, agreement or occurrence, act or omission relating thereto prior to the date hereof. Releasing Parties further waive any and all state law provisions limiting the effect of a general release (collectively, "Claims").

2. Covenant Not to Sue. Releasor (on behalf of all Releasing Parties) covenants not to initiate, prosecute, encourage, assist, or (except as required by law) participate in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding or investigation in any court, agency, or other forum, either affirmatively or by way of cross-claim, defense, or counterclaim, against any Released Party with respect to any Claim. In the event of a dispute related to this Release, the dispute resolution sections of the Franchise Agreement will apply and govern.

3. Non-Disparagement. Releasor covenants not to, in any way, form, or medium, disparage any of the Released Parties, the System, or the Paramount Tax & Accounting brand.

5. For California Residents. These releases are intended to waive, release and discharge all claims, other than those expressly reserved herein, with the express waiver of any statute, legal doctrine or other similar limitation upon the effect of general releases. In particular, the parties waive the benefit of any applicable statutory provision such as by illustration, California Civil Code Section 1542, which states:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

The parties, with the advice of their respective counsel, waive the benefit of both statute and other legal doctrine or principle of similar effect in any jurisdiction.

6. For Washington Residents. This Agreement does not apply with respect to claims arising under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and any rule or order adopted thereunder.

Franchisee, Personal Guarantor(s), and Franchisor hereby irrevocably consent to the exercise of general personal jurisdiction in the courts of record of the state of Utah even though it may be otherwise possible to obtain jurisdiction elsewhere, and we both agree that Salt Lake County, Utah will be the exclusive venue for any litigation between us. Each party waives any objection they may have to the personal jurisdiction of or venue in the state and federal courts of Salt Lake County, Utah.

7.3 Arbitration. EXHIBIT I

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Investment law requires that a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise be delivered together with the disclosure document at least 14 days prior to the execution by the prospective franchisee of any binding franchise or other agreement, or at least 14 days prior to the receipt of any consideration, whichever occurs first, a copy of the disclosure document, together with a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise..
2. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
3. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
4. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
5. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
6. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake County, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake County, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
7. The franchise agreement requires application of the laws of Utah. This provision may not be enforceable under California law. You may want to consult an attorney to understand the impact of out-of-state governing law on the franchise agreement.
8. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
9. Neither franchisor nor any person listed in Item 2 of the disclosure document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling this or these persons from membership in such association or exchange.
10. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires the Franchisor to give the franchisee a disclosure document, in a form and containing such information as the Commissioner may by rule or order require, before a solicitation of a proposed modification of an existing franchise.
11. OUR WEBSITE at WWW.PARAMOUNT.TAX HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THE WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.
12. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.

13. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:

- (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
- (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
- (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
- (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

14. California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

15. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

16. Franchisee owners or greater must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

17. Item 6 under Late Fees is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

18. Item 19 is amended to include the following:

"The financial performance representations do not reflect the costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your franchised business. Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in this offering circular, may be one source of this information."

ADDENDUM TO THE FDD
FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Illinois law governs the franchise agreement(s).

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

By reading this disclosure document, you are not agreeing to, acknowledging, or making any representations whatsoever to the Franchisor and its affiliates.

STATE REGULATIONS FOR THE STATE OF INDIANA

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the disclosure document, the following provisions shall apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Indiana:

1. The prohibition by Indiana Code § 23-2-2.7-1(7) against unilateral termination of the franchise without good cause or in bad faith, good cause being defined therein as material breach of the Franchise Agreement, shall apply to the franchise agreement in the State of Indiana to the extent they may be inconsistent with such prohibition.

2. Liquidated damages and termination penalties are prohibited by law in the State of Indiana and, therefore, the disclosure document and franchise agreement are amended by the deletion of all references to liquidated damages and termination penalties and the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein:

“Notwithstanding any such termination, and in addition to the obligations of the Franchisee as otherwise provided, or in the event of termination or cancellation of the Franchise Agreement under any of the other provisions therein, the Franchisee nevertheless shall be, continue and remain liable to Franchisor for any and all damages which Franchisor has sustained or may sustain by reason of such default or defaults and the breach of the Franchise Agreement on the part of the Franchisee for the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement.

At the time of such termination of the Franchise Agreement, the Franchisee covenants to pay to Franchisor within 10 days after demand as compensation all damages, losses, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney’s fees) incurred by Franchisor, and/or amounts which would otherwise be payable thereunder but for such termination for and during the remainder of the unexpired Term of the Franchise Agreement. This Agreement does not constitute a waiver of the Franchisee’s right to a trial on any of the above matters.”

3. No release language set forth in the disclosure document or franchise agreement, shall relieve Franchisor or any other person, directly or indirectly, from liability imposed by the laws concerning franchising of the State of Indiana.

4. To the extent required by the franchise laws of the State of Indiana, the franchise agreement will be construed in accordance with the franchise laws of the State of Indiana.

5. The provisions of the franchise agreement pertaining to litigation jurisdiction and venue shall be amended to be within the scope of the requirements of the Indiana Franchise laws.

MARYLAND ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

In the State of Maryland only, this Disclosure Document is amended as follows:

ITEM 17 of the Disclosure Document is amended to add the following:

- The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
- A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
- The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its rights to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legal enforceable.
- Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.
- The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law.
- No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
- The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its rights to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legal enforceable.

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

7. Receipts. Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

By statute under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause or to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right give to him by any provision contained in the franchise. Accordingly, the Division requests that the franchisor add a Virginia Addendum to the FDD containing the following statements:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, any franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Paramount Franchising LLC for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

The following statements are added to Item 17(h):

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him under the franchise. If any provision of the Franchise Agreement involves the use of undue influence by the franchisor to induce a franchisee to surrender any rights given to the franchisee under the franchise, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Non-solicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Paragraph 19.1 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “but only to the extent necessary to prevent the invalidity of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof or the imposition of civil or criminal penalties or liability. To the extent permitted by the laws of the state whose laws govern this Agreement, You hereby waive any provisions of law or regulations which render any portion of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect.”

20. Paragraph 20.10 of the franchise agreement is amended to remove the following language, “You represent and acknowledge that no agreements, representations, negotiations, promises, commitments, inducements, assurances, terms, conditions, or covenants of any nature exist between You and Us except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, whether pertaining to this Agreement or to any future, further or additional rights of either You or Us.”

21. Paragraph 20.11 of the franchise agreement is amended to clarify that for Washington franchisees, the Washington Addendum applies even if the Washington Addendum is not executed or not signed by the franchisor, franchisee, or both.

22. Sections 20.14, 20.18, and 20.22 of the franchise agreement do not apply in Washington.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.

2. The following shall apply to Franchise Agreements in the State of Wisconsin:
 - a. The Wisconsin Fair Dealership Act, Wisconsin Statutes, Chapter 135 (the “Act”), shall apply to and govern the provisions of Franchise Agreements issued in the State of Wisconsin.

EXHIBIT J

FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California will be the California Investment law and the California Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The franchise agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
 - (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

10. Franchisee owners must sign a personal guaranty, making you and your spouse individually liable for your financial obligations under the agreement if you are married. The guaranty will place your and your spouse's marital and personal assets at risk, perhaps including your house, if your franchise fails.

11. Late Fees in Section 4.6(c) is amended to include the following: "The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually."

12. Under California law, an agreement between a seller and a buyer regarding the price at which the buyer can resell a product (known as vertical price-fixing or resale price maintenance) is illegal. Therefore, requirements on franchisees to sell goods or services at specific prices set by the franchisor may be unenforceable.

13. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

INDIANA RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”) between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the franchise agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the franchise agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the franchise agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a franchise agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the franchise agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the franchise agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

3. Effective Date. This Rider is effective as of the Effective Date.

MARYLAND RIDER TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Addendum dated _____, by and between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company hereinafter referred to as "Franchisor" and _____, LLC/Inc., a hereinafter referred to as "Franchisee."

1. A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective franchisees to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. The franchise agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

Except as expressly amended or modified herein, all terms, provisions and conditions of the original Franchise Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Addendum and any provisions of the original Franchise Agreement, the provisions hereof shall in all respects govern and control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and by their signatures below, the Parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be effective as of the date listed above with the full authority of the Company principal they represent.

STATE ADDENDA TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

ADDENDUM TO THE MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. The California Franchise Relations Act, Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Multi-Unit Development Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with California law, California law controls.
2. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)
3. The multi-unit development agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
4. The multi-unit development agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
5. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Salt Lake City, Utah with the costs being borne by you for travel to, and lodging in, Salt Lake City, Utah, and other costs associated with arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and Federal laws (this or these as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 128a, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a Multi-Unit Development Agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. Both the Governing Law and Choice of Law for Franchisees operating outlets located in California, will be the California Franchise Investment law and the California Franchise Relations Act regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the franchise agreement or amendment to or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
7. You must sign a general release if you transfer, renew or terminate your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
8. The Multi-Unit Development Agreement provides for waiver of a jury trial. This may not be enforceable in California.
9. Section 31512.1 Franchise Agreement Provisions Void as Contrary to Public Policy. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:
 - (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
 - (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
 - (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.

(d) Violations of any provision of this division

10. Late Fees is amended to include the following: “The highest interest rate allowed in California is 10% annually.”

11. California’s Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code section 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

12. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

FOR THE STATE OF FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Illinois law governs the Multi-Unit Development Agreement.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a Multi-Unit Development Agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a Multi-Unit Development Agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Franchisees rights upon termination and non-renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

INDIANA RIDER TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Rider amends the Multi-Unit Development Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Agreement”), between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Paramount Franchising”) and _____, a _____ (“Franchisee”).

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Rider have the meanings given in the Agreement. The “Indiana Acts” means the Indiana Franchise Act and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

2. Certain Provisions Deleted. Any provision of the Agreement which would have any of the following effects is hereby deleted:

(1) Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from Paramount Franchising or sources designated by Paramount Franchising where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by Paramount Franchising. However, the publication by Paramount Franchising of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by Paramount Franchising does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of Paramount Franchising to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This subdivision does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by Paramount Franchising.

(2) Allowing Paramount Franchising to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of Franchisee within the exclusive territory granted Franchisee by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting Paramount Franchising to compete unfairly with Franchisee within a reasonable area.

(3) Allowing substantial modification of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement by Paramount Franchising without the consent in writing of Franchisee.

(4) Allowing Paramount Franchising to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom Franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between Franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by Paramount Franchising, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to Franchisee.

(5) Requiring Franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act or requiring any controversy between Franchisee and Paramount Franchising to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on Franchisee. This subsection (5) does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(6) Allowing for an increase in prices of goods provided by Paramount Franchising which Franchisee had ordered for private retail consumers prior to Franchisee's receipt of an official price increase notification. A sales contract signed by a private retail consumer shall constitute evidence of each order. Price changes applicable to new models of a product at the time of introduction of such new models shall not be considered a price increase. Price increases caused by conformity to a state or federal law, or the revaluation of the United States dollar in the case of foreign-made goods, are not subject to this subsection (6).

(7) Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this subsection (7) includes any material violation of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement.

(8) Permitting Paramount Franchising to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This chapter shall not prohibit a Multi-Unit Development Agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if Franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

(9) Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with Paramount Franchising for a period longer than three years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the Multi-Unit Development Agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

(10) Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever.

(11) Requiring Franchisee to participate in any (A) advertising campaign or contest; (B) promotional campaign; (C) promotional materials; or (D) display decorations or materials; at an expense to Franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the Multi-Unit Development Agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that Franchisee may be required to pay.

MARYLAND RIDER TO MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Addendum dated _____, 20____, by and between Paramount Franchising LLC, a Nevada limited liability company hereinafter referred to as “Franchisor” and _____, LLC/Inc., a hereinafter collectively referred to as “Area Developer.”

1. An area developer may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

3. The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective area developers to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. This development agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

Except as expressly amended or modified herein, all terms, provisions and conditions of the original Multi-Unit Development Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Addendum and any provisions of the original Multi-Unit Development Agreement, the provisions hereof shall in all respects govern and control.
