What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit B.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation and/or litigation only in Illinois. Out-of-state mediation or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate and/or litigate with the franchisor in Illinois than in your own state.

2. Sales Performance Required. You must maintain minimum sales performance levels. Your inability to maintain these levels may result in loss of any territorial rights you are granted, termination of your franchise, and loss of your investment.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

MICHIGAN ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the Franchised Business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) The term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logo type, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards;
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor;
 - (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations;
 - (iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligation to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

Notes:

1. Fee. Except where otherwise specified, we uniformly impose and collect all the fees in this table, you pay them to us, and they are not refundable.

2. Amount. “Gross Revenues” means the aggregate dollar amount from all sales of goods or services made, provided by, or in connection with the Franchised Business or the Marks, whether for cash or credit or non-cash payments or consideration at fair market value, regardless of collection in the case of credit, before the deductions of any fees, costs, or expenses you incur. Gross Revenue includes, without limitation the total commissions earned from each transaction before any deductions, including without limitation, MLS fees. By way of example, and not a limitation, in the event your office or one of your agents sells a home with a closing price of $500,000, a commission of 6%, a seller/buyer agent split of 50/50, this sale would generate a gross commission of $15,000. The Gross Revenue for that transaction, upon which Royalties and other fees will be calculated, will be $15,000.

Before you may commence operations of the Franchised Business, you must sign and deliver to us all bank documents needed to permit us to debit your bank account via ACH Electronic Transfer for all fees and payments due to us or our affiliates. If you change your bank account or transfer your account to a different bank, you must notify us within one day, and sign and deliver to us and the bank new documents to permit us to debit your bank account within three days. We require you to execute an Automatic Bank Draft Authorization and pay most fees to us via ACH electronic funds transfer. See Exhibit 2 to the Franchise Agreement.

3. @academy, Founder Mentoring, and other Designated Programming. We may develop (a) an additional training program for you and your affiliated real estate agents (“@academy”), (b) a mentoring program for you, your Designated Owner, and any other individuals we approve (“Founder Mentoring”), and (c) any other specialty training, mentoring, or development program we develop from time to time (“Designated Programming”). You will pay any fees we designate for @academy, Founder Mentoring, and any other Designated Programming as we describe in the Operations Manual, and we will not increase any such fees more than once per calendar year, once implemented. We may implement the @academy, Founder Mentoring, and any other Designated Programming at any time we determine, and you agree to participate in the @acaemdy, Founder Mentoring, and any other Designated Programming as described in the Operations Manual at any time we designate.

Notes:

1. Type of Expenditure. The amounts in Item 7 assume you are an existing real estate brokerage company with approximately 50 affiliated real estate agents converting to a @properties Franchised Business. If you are a new real estate brokerage company, your costs will likely be higher than those included in this Item 7. None of the fees paid to us in this chart are refundable. Whether such fees paid to third parties are refundable would depend upon their policies. We do not offer direct or indirect financing to franchisees for any items.

2. Initial Franchise Fee. The initial franchise fee is $35,000 and is payable in accordance with Item 5.

3. Initial Training Expenses. We typically offer initial training in or near Chicago, Illinois, but we may offer the initial training electronically. Travel and living expenses will vary significantly depending upon whether you live within driving distance or whether you must fly, rent a car, or incur lodging expenses.

4. Leasehold Improvements. You will operate the Franchised Business from a retail office location that we consent to. We anticipate the amount of leasehold improvement expense that you will incur will depend upon whether you already have a suitable office location and, if not, the extent to which you will need to make renovations and repairs.

5. Rent and Security Deposit. We anticipate your Franchised Business will need to rent a location containing approximately 1,000 to 10,000 square feet depending on the number of agents that are affiliated with your Franchised Business, the location of your Franchised Business, and other factors. The amount of rent that you will incur will depend upon whether you already have a suitable office location and will also vary considerably in different market areas. The figures in the chart are an estimate rent for the first three months plus a security deposit for one month's rent.

6. “For Sale” Signage. The amount you will spend on “for sale” signage will depend on a number of factors, including the number of agents affiliated with your Franchised Business, the number of properties the Franchised Business lists at a time, and other factors.

7. Office Signage. You must obtain exterior signage for identifying the Main and Additional Offices of the Franchised Business. The type of signage allowed varies depending on city ordinances, property owner's association covenants, and landlord preferences.

8. Equipment and Furniture. You will need telephones, chairs, desks, file cabinets, tables, scanner, printer, and other items we specify. The amount you incur will depend on the size of your Main Office, the number of Additional Offices your Franchised Business operates, the number of agents affiliated with your Franchised Business, and other factors.

9. Computers and Software. We require you to use the computer hardware, software, and systems as we specify, which may include vendors that we designate from time to time, which may include us, our affiliates, or third parties. Even if you have the required computer hardware we require, you may incur costs to access the required computer software and systems we require, including our proprietary technology system. In order to utilize some of the functionality of the proprietary software, you or your agents may be required to contract with 3rd party software providers and pay additional fees, or we may implement those additional technology tools, processes, or systems, and you will be responsible for paying additional fees related to those implementations.

10. Start-Up Supplies and Inventory. Your primary cost for start-up supplies and inventory will be basic real estate related marketing materials, products (listing presentations, buyer books, relocation booklets, branded closing gifts, About Us brochures, etc.), touchpoints, paper, and general office supplies.

11. Insurance. You will need to obtain insurance in the types, amounts and coverages as we specify, as summarized in Item 8. Your costs will vary depending on your geographic location, the insurance company that issues your Franchised Business' policies, the number of agents affiliated with the Franchised Business, and other factors.

12. Professional Expenses. You may incur professional legal and accounting fees to assist with your entity set up, local licensing, and other legal and accounting issues. We recommend that you operate your Franchised Business as an entity.

13. Utilities. Utilities rates vary by market areas. Additionally, some utilities such as gas, electric, sewer, water, or trash removal are included in the lease rate and some are not.

14. Licensing Costs. You will need a real estate brokers license(s). You may need to be a member of the state, local, and National Association of Realtors. You may also need to be a member of the local or regional multiple listing services (MLS).

15. MLS Data Feed Transmission. We require you to subscribe to a real estate listing data feed, presently the multi-listing service ("MLS") and pay the associated subscriber fees. The amount you will spend for the MLS data fee transmission depends on the local MLS or association charges.

16. Additional Funds – 3 Months. Additional funds are to pay for permits, payroll, miscellaneous expenses, and to maintain sufficient working capital. These figures are estimates of your initial expenses covering the first three months of your operation. We base this estimate upon our management team's more than twenty years of experience in the real estate industry.

17. Total. Your costs will depend on several factors, including but not limited to, how well you follow our methods and procedures; your management skills; your prior experience and business acumen; local economic conditions; the local market for our services; the prevailing wage rate; competition; and more. We cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting your Franchised Business. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase the franchise.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

To ensure a consistent brand and quality of products and services, you must maintain and comply with our quality standards. We will provide you information on these standards through Operations Manual. As we determine trends in the marketplace or develop new marketing techniques, technologies, products, and services, we anticipate that we will develop new and/or modify existing standards and notify you through Operations Manual amendments. You must comply with all such mandatory standards.

Equipment, Products and Signs

In operating your Franchised Business, you may only use approved or designated materials, supplies, equipment, furniture, tools, internal and external signage for the Main and Additional Offices, all “for sale” signs, inventory, supplies, forms, printed and electronic advertising materials, computer hardware and software that we have approved as meeting our specifications and standards for appearance, function, and performance (“Approved Items”). You will purchase Approved Items from those suppliers we approve or designate. We or one of our affiliates may be a designated or an approved supplier of one or more Approved Items, but as of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, neither we nor our affiliates are the sole supplier for Approved Items. We reserve the right to name ourselves, our affiliates, or a third party as the sole, or one of, the approved suppliers for one or more Approved Items.

Computer Hardware and Software

We require that you obtain and use certain computer hardware and software to operate your Business in accordance with our then-current information technology requirements as specified in the Operations Manual from time to time. You are responsible for purchasing the required computers, as well as any costs related to any accessories, repairs, replacement or upgrades to the computer(s).

You must use any proprietary bundle of software and services in the operation of your Franchised Business that we designate. You will pay us the monthly Brokerage Tech Fee and User Tech Fee to access our proprietary software, which is currently $500 per month for the Main Office, $250 per month per Additional Office, and $50 per month per staff member and agent affiliated with your Franchised Business. In the future we may require that you use the communications technology program, Konverse, and pay their then-current fees.

Since technology, particularly in the real estate brokerage business is changing, we reserve the right to require businesses operating under the System and Marks, including your Business, to change technology systems, or implement new or changed technologies, and you would be required to pay the initial, conversion, and ongoing fees and costs associated with those changes, which payments may be to us or to third parties.

Insurance

Before beginning operations under the Franchise Agreement, you must obtain, and maintain in full force and effect during the term of the Franchise Agreement, those insurance policies we require, including but not limited to the following, insuring you and us against any liability that may accrue by reason of your operation of the Franchised Business:

1. Comprehensive General Liability Insurance, including broad form contractual liability, broad form property damage, personal injury, completed operations, fire damage, advertising and products liability coverage, in the amount of $1,000,000 per occurrence for bodily injury and property damage.

2. Workers’ Compensation and Employers Liability insurance in the minimum amount of $500,000 for bodily injury per accident, $500,000 for bodily disease per employee, $500,000 bodily disease policy limit, or such other amounts as may be prescribed by the state or locality in which the Franchised Business is located, unless your state requires that employers must participate in a state-administered insurance pool (in which case you must adopt and implement a qualifying plan).

3. Automobile liability coverage, including coverage of any owned, non-owned and hired vehicles, in amounts not less than $1,000,000 combined single limit.

4. Errors and omissions liability insurance in the minimum amount of $1,000,000 per occurrence covering real estate brokerage services plus any other approved services and products, as applicable, that any person associated with your Franchised Business offers.

5. Such other insurance as may be required by the state or locality in which the Franchised Business is located and operated.

6. Each policy, except workers' compensation, must name us as an additional insured. All policies must be endorsed to include a waiver of subrogation in our favor and our subsidiaries, affiliates, successors and assigns and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, members, managers, partners, employees, servants, representatives, independent contractors and associates.

The insurance coverage must be obtained from an admitted, responsible carrier or carriers acceptable to us, with a rating of at least "A" by Standard and Poor, Moody's and A.M. Best. In addition to or in lieu of the above, you must maintain any other insurance as may be required by statute or regulation of the state in which you operate the Franchised Business. If your state or local insurance requirements, including coverage requirements, are less stringent, less comprehensive, or lower than what we have specified, you must comply with our requirements. We will provide you with a list of approved insurance carriers, and related information in the Operations Manual, and you must obtain required insurance coverages from an approved insurance carrier. You must name us, our affiliates, and our and our affiliates' respective owners, officers, directors, and employees as additional insured for each required policy. All insurance policies must contain a waiver of the insurance company's right of subrogation against us and must provide that we will receive prior written notice of any material change, termination, expiration or cancellation of any policy.

We may periodically change the minimum coverage and deductible requirements for you, and we may require different or additional kinds of insurance for you to reflect economic, industry, or standard changes in your liability and insurance coverage. We will provide you prior written notice and at least 45 days to obtain the revised insurance policies.

At least two weeks before you open your Franchised Business, you must provide us with copies of the certificate of insurance, insurance policy endorsements, or other evidence of compliance with our insurance requirements. Further, you must send us a copy of the evidence of the renewal or extension of each insurance policy in a form we require at least two weeks before the expiration of your then current policy.

We may designate other policies, procedures, or standards regarding insurance in our Operations Manual from time to time.

Signs

You must purchase from approved suppliers all internal and external signage for the Main and Additional Offices, and all “for sale” signs that you and your agents will use in your Franchised Business. Additionally, you may purchase these materials from a third party provided the purchased materials comply with our standards as described in the Operations Manual. Immediately upon receipt of notice from us, you must stop using any signs from a non-approved supplier if, solely in our judgment, that sign violates our policies and procedures or could adversely impact the Marks or the @properties System.

Marketing and Advertising Materials

You must purchase from us and other approved suppliers any approved marketing materials you want to use in your Franchised Business that we designate, including brochures, business cards, promotional items, signage, and other marketing materials.

Website

We will develop and maintain a comprehensive website that is built with location-specific content, information, and real estate search on our digital platform, and you will reimburse us for such costs and expenses. Your website must comply with the policies that we establish from time to time which include, but are not limited to, the brand guidelines that are contained in the Operations Manual. You are required to own and operate a website to advertise your Franchised Business and the properties offered for sale by your Franchised Business, provided that (A) all uses of the Marks comply with the brand guidelines, and (B) that you comply with our requirements for (1) linking or framing our website; (2) the use, registration, and ownership of Internet domain name; and (3) the use any e-mail addresses related to the Franchised Business.

Photography and Videography

You must obtain professional photography services from a photographer that we approve for photos and videos of your Main Office, Additional Offices, and other people or locations as we determine.

Approved and Alternate Suppliers

With the exception of the marketing materials and our proprietary software, neither we nor our affiliates are currently the only designated or approved supplier of any other products or services. We reserve the right to be one of, or the sole, designated or approved supplier in the future.

You must purchase or lease certain Approved Items only from our designated or approved suppliers, which may include our affiliates or us. The Operations Manual will contain a list of approved suppliers and a list of approved items we deem necessary to operate your Franchised

Business. These lists may include suppliers from which you must purchase certain items, or specific brands or types of items that you may buy from any source provided that the items conform to the standards and specification we designated. Approved suppliers, specifications, and standards are determined based on the current needs for operating Franchised Businesses, and we may make changes in the Operations Manual.

We consider a variety of factors when considering which suppliers we will deem as approved suppliers, such as price, service, quality, warranty, delivery terms, ability to provide products and services that meet our specifications, responsiveness, and other commercially reasonable benchmarks. If you want to use a material, supply, equipment, product or sign that we have not yet approved, or you want to purchase any items from any supplier that we have not approved, you must first notify us in writing and must submit to us, at our request, sufficient information, specifications, and samples for us to determine whether the services, material, supply, equipment, product or sign complies with our specifications and standards, or whether the supplier meets our approved supplier criteria. We reserve the right to approve or disapprove without any obligation to provide an explanation of the approval criteria to you. Within 90 days of receiving your request, we will either accept or reject the proposed item or supplier. You will not distribute or offer for sale any products or services of the proposed supplier until you receive our written approval. We do not charge a fee to evaluate alternative supplier or items. We may revoke our approval of any supplier or item with 30 days' prior written notice to you. Upon receipt of written notice of such revocation, you must cease to purchase from the disapproved supplier(s) or to purchase the disapproved item(s).

Revenues and Rebates

We and our affiliates have the right to receive, collect and retain payments, manufacturing allowances, marketing allowances, rebates, credits, monies, or benefits (collectively, "Allowances") offered by our suppliers to you or to us or our affiliates based upon your and/or other Affiliates' purchases of products and services. These Allowances may be based on individual or network-wide purchases of products and services. You assign to us or our designee all of your right, title and interest in and to any and all such Allowances and authorize us or our designee to collect and retain any or all such Allowances without restriction (unless otherwise prohibited by the supplier). We may use all amounts so received for any purpose we and our affiliates deem appropriate.

During our last fiscal year that ended December 31, 2024, we did not receive any Allowances from the sale of required products and services to our franchisees.

Miscellaneous

One or more of our officers listed in Item 2 of this disclosure document have an ownership interest in us and our affiliates Proper Rate, Proper Title, At Development, Suburban Jungle Ansley and Konverse.

We estimate that required purchases described above will be approximately 50-70% of all purchases and leases by you of goods and services to establish your Franchised Business, and approximately 30-50% of your total cost of operating the Franchised Business.

We do not have any purchasing or distribution co-operatives as of the issuance date of this Franchise Disclosure Document. We may negotiate purchase arrangements with designated and approved suppliers for the benefit of our franchisees. We do not provide material benefits, such as renewing or granting additional franchises to franchisees, based on their use of designated or approved suppliers or purchases of particular products or services.

Pre-Opening Obligations. Before you commence operations of your @properties Franchised Business, we will:

- Initial Training. We provide an initial training program as described below. (Franchise Agreement, Section 4.1).
- Lease. We will review and consent to your proposed leases for the Main Office. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.2(b)).
- Plans and Layout. We will provide you our consent (or notice that we don't consent) to a proposed layout within 14 days of your submission to us. Once you've received our consent, it is your responsibility to remodel the premises and install the furniture, fixtures, and equipment accordingly. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.2(d)).
- Operations Manual. We provide access to our confidential manual (the "Operations Manual") to offer guidance in the operation of your Franchised Business. (Franchise Agreement, Section 4.9).

- Pre-Approved Suppliers. We may establish and provide a list of pre-approved suppliers (which will include written specifications for certain items of equipment, signs, fixtures, opening inventory and supplies in some instances and pre-approved suppliers in other instances). We do not deliver or install any items. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.6).

During the Operation of the Franchise. During the term of the Franchise Agreement, we will provide the following support to you:

- Operational Support. We may offer assistance with operating problems and issues that you may encounter. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.54.4).
- Ancillary Services. We or our affiliates may offer other ancillary services, directly or indirectly, to assist you in operating your Franchised Business. Ancillary services may include new development consulting and marketing, certain loan brokerage services, escrow services, title searches, and similar products or services related to a real estate brokerage operation, but we will not provide assistance in establishing prices for your Franchised Business. These services may not be available in all markets, and we have the right to add, change or discontinue any ancillary service at any time, and we reserve the right to charge our then-current fees for such ancillary services. (Franchise Agreement, Section 4.7).

- Update the Operations Manual. Periodically provide you with updated and revised materials for the Operations Manuals (Franchise Agreement, Section 4.9).

Site Selection, Time to Open:

We do not generally own the premises for your Main Office or Additional Offices and lease it to you. We must consent to any site you select before you sign a lease for that location. We typically provide you our consent (or notice that we don't consent) to a proposed site within 14 days of your submission to us of the information required by us on the proposed site. You may not operate your @properties Franchised Business from a home office. We may allow you to utilize a co-working or shared office space for a temporary period after you commence operations of the Franchised Business; however, this will not likely be a long-term office solution that we consent to for your Franchised Business and we may require a separate physical office location for your Main Office.

We consider the following factors when reviewing a proposed site for your Main Office and Additional Offices (if any): (i) residential population, (ii) income levels, (iii) demographics, (iv) competition, (v) visibility, (vi) proximity to other @properties offices, (vii) accessibility, (viii) traffic, (ix) size, (x) condition and character, (xi) parking, and (xii) available signage.

If you do not locate a site of which we consent to within 120 days of the date of the Franchise Agreement, we can terminate the Franchise Agreement without any refund to you, or we can allow you more time to locate a site. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 5.2(a) and 5.3).

The typical length of time between the signing of the Franchise Agreement and the opening of your Main Office is 60 and 120 days. You agree to begin operations and commence operations of the Franchised Business no later than 120 from the time both parties execute the Franchise Agreement, or we may terminate the Franchise Agreement. Factors that can affect the time length in which to be open for business include: the size and scale of your market, web development timeline, content creation and photography timeline, time needed to secure a location and lease, the time needed to obtain building permits, requirements of local zoning laws and other ordinances, the availability of labor and materials, the time needed to acquire and install furniture, fixtures, and equipment, obtaining broker license(s); hiring and training any staff; and obtaining any needed occupancy permit. You will have 90 days from the date of the Franchise Agreement to install all outdoor and indoor office signs with your Franchised Business name utilizing the Marks. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.3)

Advertising Program:

Our Obligation to Conduct Advertising. We may advise you in the conduct of advertising or conduct advertising ourselves using online, radio, television, direct mail, billboards, print or other advertising. We may use local, regional, or national advertising. We may produce advertising material in-house or through outside agencies. We are not required to spend any amount on advertising in the geographic area where you will be located. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.10).

@properties Website. We shall mutually determine the URL extension and location-specific office name for your Franchised Business, if any. You must utilize an approved, professional photographer and/or videographer to capture imagery for your Franchised Business's website. Your Franchised Business's photography needs will be determined in conjunction with us as we develop content for the website, you will license to us access to the photos and a license to use them. You will be responsible for all website hosting and related fees that we or you incur on behalf of your Franchised Business. (Franchise Agreement, Section 7.4).

Private Websites. You are not allowed to have an independent website or obtain or use any domain name (Internet address) for your Franchised Business, without first obtaining our written approval. (Franchise Agreement, Section 7.4). If we permit you to maintain an independent website for your Franchised Business, you must comply with the policies that we establish from time to time regarding such website which include, but are not limited to, the brand guidelines that are contained in the Operations Manual. You must not register, as Internet domain names, any of the Marks or any abbreviation, acronym or variation of the Marks, or any other name that could be deemed confusingly similar.

Digital Marketing. All digital marketing must comply with our social media policy in the brand guidelines that are contained in the Operations Manual. We also reserve, maintain, and control all rights with respect to the metaverse. As used herein, “metaverse” means any 3D virtual space powered by technologies – including virtual reality, augmented reality, artificial intelligence, the Internet of Things, and blockchain – that allows people to interact with each other and to have lifelike experiences online. (Franchise Agreement, Section 7.5).

Digital Campaigns. We may negotiate contracts with vendors such as realtor.com, Zillow, Trulia, and Google AdWords. If you choose to participate, you must pay your pro-rata share either directly to the vendor or reimburse us if we are paying the vendor. (Franchise Agreement, Section 7.6).

Print Design and Marketing Collateral. We may, but are not required to, create print collateral and publications. We may provide you with access to a variety of print design files, including but not limited to letterhead, envelopes, notecards, property brochures, print advertising, post cards, business cards, and For Sale signage and sign riders. We may provide you with access to print marketing templates for company-wide marketing and branding. If requested, we may assist with the customization of these standard, brokerage-wide print advertisements and printed pieces for each market. We may also offer certain enhanced marketing programs from time to time, at our option. (Franchise Agreement, Section 7.7).

Signs. You must begin using yard signs containing our Marks within 90 days from the date of the Franchise Agreement. You must install one (1) or more exterior signs displaying your Trade Name on your Main Office and any Additional Offices. Your sign(s) must conform to the brand guidelines. The sign(s) utilizing our Marks must be installed within ninety (90) days from the date of the Franchise Agreement. You must obtain our prior written permission for any exception to the office sign requirements due to local ordinances or other reasons and you must provide written documentation reflecting the reasons for varying the signage (Franchise Agreement, Sections 5.1 and 7.10).

Use of Your Own Advertising Material. You may use your own advertising materials provided that you submit them to us and we approve them, in writing, or they adhere to our current brand guidelines, and the material adheres to federal, state, and local law. If our written approval is not received within 14 days from the date we received the material, the material is deemed disapproved. (Franchise Agreement, Section 7.2).

Advertising Council, Cooperative. We do not currently have an advertising council or cooperative, and we reserve the right to develop an advertising council or cooperative at any time in the future.

Advertising Fund. We reserve the right to require you to pay a monthly Advertising Fund Fee for deposit into a system marketing fund (the “Advertising Fund”). We may increase the Advertising Fund Fee at any time; however, the Advertising Fund Fee will not exceed 3% of Gross Revenue. If collected, you will pay the Advertising Fund Fee in the same manner and at the same time as the Royalty Fee. If collected, we will place all Advertising Fund Fees we receive in the Advertising Fund, and we will manage such Advertising Fund. Any @properties businesses operated by us or our affiliates will not be required to contribute to the Advertising Fund. The Advertising Fund will pay expenses in connection with the general promotion of the Marks and the System, which may include, but are not limited to, the development and operation of a call center; market research; customer retention; incentive programs; sales development programs; media planning; media buying fees; creating and producing advertising materials; outside advertising agency fees for creating advertising programs; public relation activities; outside public relations agency fees; technology investments; digital marketing; and reimbursing us the costs of administering the Advertising Fund. Additionally, we may use up to 10% of the Advertising Fund to solicit new franchise sales. The Advertising Fund is not a trust or escrow account, and we have no fiduciary obligations regarding the Advertising Fund. We cannot ensure that any individual franchisee will benefit directly or on a pro rata basis from the future placement of any such advertising in its local market. We may spend in any fiscal year an amount greater or less than the aggregate contributions to the Advertising Fund in that year. We will determine the methods of advertising, media employed, and scope, contents, terms and conditions of advertising, marketing, promotional and public relations campaigns and programs. Upon written request, we will provide you an annual unaudited statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Advertising Fund for the most recent calendar year. We do not intend to audit the Advertising Fund. Any end-of-year surpluses or shortages in the Advertising Fund in a given year will carry over to the next year.

In our last fiscal year ending December 31, 2024, we did not collect or spend any Advertising Fund Fees.

Computer Systems:

We require you to have an internet connection, email, a laptop or desktop computer, a printer, a scanner, along with basic editing and spreadsheet software. You may be required to use our web-based proprietary software to operate your real estate brokerage business, and you must pay us the Brokerage Tech Fee ($500 per month for the Main Office and $250 per month per Additional Office) for the use of our proprietary software. In addition to the Brokerage Tech Fee, you must pay us the User Tech Fee (currently, $50 per month per staff member and agent affiliated with your Franchised Business) for access to our proprietary software and for other user-based technology services we provide to you from time to time.

Our proprietary software is a suite of integrated technology applications that enable end-to-end management of the client relationship and real estate transaction for agents. Core applications within the software may include a CRM; DMS (Deal Management System); internal communications app; marketing tools for e-mail, social media, print collateral, signage and digital advertising; a Digital CMA (Comparative Market Analysis); an open house management software; and a web-based presentations app with back-end analytics for presenting and following up on offers and other critical communications.

You must ensure that any technology you use in connection with the Franchised Business, includes and maintains appropriate data security controls, and complies with our data security policies, which may be designated on our Operations Manual or otherwise by us from time to time, which include, but are not limited, to the following: (i) authentication mechanisms designed so that they cannot be bypassed to gain unauthorized access to systems, (ii) encryption; and (iii) undertaking password protection measures, such as protecting the form in which they are stored and complexity of character classes and password length.

You are required to provide us with an approved data feed from your MLS(s) that enables us, our affiliates, you and your agents to display listings on the internet for consumers to view online. We may utilize this data feed for any reason, within the rules of the relevant MLS(s) or data feed providers, to run additional reports, aggregate information, track trends, or for any other allowed internal or public-facing marketing or data tracking initiative. You understand that if you fail to provide us with the information from your MLS, then you may not receive certain services or access to certain tools of the Computer System, including proprietary software. Therefore, in order to access all services and tools under the Computer System, you must provide us with the approved data feed from your MLS.

There may be fees - both initial and ongoing - associated with receiving and maintaining this data feed. Such fees are based on local MLS rules and may vary by MLS, and we anticipate your fees may range from $0 to $10,000 for initial fees and $100 and $2,500 for ongoing fees. You will be solely responsible for these fees.

We may offer additional technology tools, processes, or systems related to our technology offering that, should you elect to participate, may require you or your agents to contract with third-party service providers for additional fees, which you agree to pay. Likewise, we may integrate some third-party technology systems and services into our technology offering. In order to utilize some of the functionality of our proprietary software, you or your agents may be required to contract with 3rd party software providers and pay additional fees, or we may implement those additional technology tools, processes, or systems, and you will be responsible for paying additional fees related to those implementations.

The capabilities of the services that we offer in our proprietary software may vary to each franchisee based on MLS rules, data feed restrictions, state and local laws or any other restrictions that may arise.

Depending on what computer systems and software you already have, and the number and type of equipment you will need, these items can be purchased for approximately $2,500 - $10,000.

Neither we nor our affiliates or any third-party have any obligation to provide ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades or updates. You must maintain your computer systems in good working order and must replace, update or upgrade your hardware systems as we require. The estimated annual cost of optional or required maintenance, updating, upgrading, or support contracts to your computer systems is approximately $1,000.

Since technology, particularly in the real estate brokerage business is changing, we reserve the right to require businesses operating under the System and Marks, including your Franchised Business, to change technology systems, or implement new or changed technologies, and you would be required to pay the initial, conversion, and ongoing fees and costs associated with those changes, which payments may be to us or to third parties.

Anti-virus protection. You must use anti-virus protection on your computer. At present, we do not specify a particular vendor, but reserve the right to do so.

Independent Access to Information. You are required to provide us with independent access to the information that will be generated or stored in your Computer Systems, which includes, but not limited to, Customer Data and certain other operational information we require in the Operations Manual. We have the right to review your business operations, in person, by mail, or electronically, and to inspect your operations and obtain your paper and electronic business records related to the Franchised Business and any other operations taking place through your Franchised Business. If, as part of a review of your Franchised Business, we request a copy of any business records, you must send us at your expense these records within five days of receiving our request.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

Your Main Office and Any Additional Offices

The physical address of your Franchised Business (the “Main Office”) must be approved by us in writing before you can begin to operate your Franchised Business. Your Main Office will be identified in Exhibit 1 of the Franchise Agreement.

You may open additional offices (each, an “Additional Office”) as listed in Exhibit 1 of the Franchise Agreement, or as needed, so long as we receive prior written notification before you enter into any binding agreement to lease, purchase, or otherwise occupy the Additional Office.

We reserve the right to reject the location of your anticipated Additional Office. If we approve your proposed Additional Office, you must execute the Additional Office Addendum.

You may not relocate your Main Office or Additional Office without our prior written consent. We consider the following factors when reviewing your initial proposed site for your Main Office or Additional Office, and any request for relocation: (i) residential population, (ii) income levels, (iii) demographics, (iv) competition, (v) visibility, (vi) proximity to other @properties offices, (vii) accessibility, (viii) traffic, (ix) size, (x) condition and character, (xi) parking, and (xii) available signage.

Territory - Protected Territories and Non-Exclusive Territories

Protected Territories

Your Franchise Agreement will indicate whether you have a “Protected Territory.” In cases where we grant a Protected Territory, there is no “minimum” Protected Territory, and you and we will agree upon a Protected Territory to designate. The Protected Territory will typically be a list of counties, zip codes, or other geographical designations, which will be designated in the Franchise Agreement. If we grant you a Protected Territory, your Main Office and any Additional Offices must be located within the Protected Territory.

If we grant you a Protected Territory, neither we nor our franchisees will establish and operate, or grant licenses or franchises to others to establish and operate, any other office of an @properties Franchised Business within the Protected Territory during the term of the Franchise Agreement, as long as you are in compliance with the Franchise Agreement.

Non-Exclusive or Not Protected Territories

If the Franchise Agreement does not designate a Protected Territory, then the Franchise Agreement does not grant you a territory or any territorial protection. In that case, your right to operate a Franchised Business pursuant to a Franchise Agreement is limited solely to the Main Office and any Additional Offices, although your affiliated real estate agents may offer and sell their real estate services anywhere they are licensed.

Operations Within and Outside of the Territory

The franchise granted to you under the Franchise Agreement is personal in nature, and shall only be used from the Main Office and any Additional Office authorized by us. However, you shall have the right to offer and sell real estate brokerage services identified by the Marks through any other channels of distribution, including the Internet (subject to the restrictions in the Franchise Agreement, Operations Manual, and our policies). Your Protected Territory does not include the metaverse, and we reserve, maintain, and control all rights with respect to the metaverse.

Your right to offer and sell real estate brokerage services under the Franchise Agreement is subject to the limitations set forth in the Operations Manual or as we otherwise periodically prescribe, which may include certain territorial policies that we establish or modify from time to time. You may not establish or operate any @properties office outside the Protected Territory, unless we permit you to do so under a separate Franchise Agreement. You are not granted any options or rights to acquire additional franchises. You may not subfranchise or sublicense any of your rights under the Franchise Agreement. We and our franchisees, and our and their respective licensees, franchisees, and affiliates, as well as our agents and the agents of any of these parties, have the right (without compensation to you) to offer and sell real estate brokerage services under the Marks to clients located within the Protected Territory and for real estate located within the Protected Territory, as long as the real estate brokerage services are offered and sold from offices of @properties businesses outside of the Protected Territory. In turn, you and your agents have the right to offer and sell real estate brokerage services under the Marks to clients located outside the Protected Territory and for real estate located outside the Protected Territory but only inside the United States (including Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and other U.S. territories), as its borders exist on the Effective Date, so long as those real estate brokerage services are offered and sold from the Main Office and any authorized Additional Office. The following additional limitations exist: (1) your rights outside your Protected Territory may be limited based on territorial grants or protections that we or our franchisees have granted to other franchisees, affiliates or other third parties, and (2) the scope of your rights outside of your Protected Territory may be modified by us from time to time, and are subject to the territorial policies that we establish or modify from time to time in the Operations Manual. You do not have any right to exclude, control or impose conditions on our development of future licensed, franchised, company or franchise-owned @properties businesses, or other company owned businesses at any time or at any location.

If you and your agents are licensed, as prescribed by law, to provide real estate brokerage services in an area where another licensee, franchisee or affiliate has been granted a protected territory by us (“Other Area”) but their grant does not prevent others from offering real estate brokerage services under the Marks in the Other Area, so long as you do not exceed 5% of your inventory (as measured by the number of properties) at any given time, you may list properties for sale using the Marks in the Other Area so long as they are listed from your Main Office or Additional Office. If your properties listed in the Other Area exceeds 5% of your inventory and, upon notice from us, you do not cease such listings promptly, you will be in default, and we can terminate the Agreement. Conversely, to the extent another licensee, franchisee, affiliate, or its agents, are licensed as prescribed by law, to provide real estate brokerage services in your Protected Territory, we will use commercially reasonable efforts to limit such party from listing more than 5% of its inventory of properties using the Marks in your Protected Territory, assuming such party has not been granted unlimited rights by us. However, we have no obligation to enforce this against such other parties.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control, or competitive brands owned, operated, licensed or franchised by our affiliates.

Our Reserved Rights

We reserve (for ourselves and our affiliates) reserve all rights to engage in all activities associated with the @properties Marks, and all rights to engage in any business, licensing, franchising, or other activities associated with other brands, marks, and real estate brokerage systems, anywhere in the world, not specifically granted to you under the Franchise Agreement or expressly prohibited under the Franchise Agreement, or expressly prohibited from us engaging in under the Franchise Agreement. Without limiting the preceding sentence, we (for ourselves and our franchisees and affiliates) specifically reserve the right, from any location at any time, without any compensation to you or any other franchisee and regardless of whether it competes with the Franchised Business, the following rights:

(a) To own and operate, and grant licenses or franchises to others to own and operate, @properties offices outside of the Protected Territory;

(b) To own and operate, and grant licenses or franchises to others to own and operate, any business of any kind (other than an office located within your Protected Territory selling the same services as @properties businesses) under the Marks at any locations within or outside of your Protected Territory, including by electronic means such as the Internet, applications, by websites we may establish, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales;

(c) To own and operate, and grant licenses or franchises to others to own and operate, any business of any kind, including a real estate business selling the same or similar services as @properties businesses, under any names, trademarks, service marks, logos and other commercial symbols other than the Marks, regardless of where such businesses are located, including within the Protected Territory;

(d) To merge with, acquire, be acquired by, or become associated with any businesses that are the same or similar to @properties businesses and operate or license others to operate such businesses regardless of where the businesses are located, including within the Protected Territory, and to be acquired by any third party that operates businesses that are the same or similar to @properties businesses regardless of where such businesses are located, including within the Protected Territory;

(e) to promote, sell, and distribute products, items, and other materials under the Marks or other trademarks through dissimilar channels of distribution (i.e., other than the operation of an @properties office within the Protected Territory), including by electronic means such as the Internet, applications, by websites we may establish, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales;

(f) To advertise the System anywhere, including, without limitation, on the Internet (or any other existing or future form of electronic commerce) and to create, operate, maintain, and modify, or discontinue the use of a website or any online presence using the Marks; and

(g) to engage in all other activities associated with the @properties Marks not expressly prohibited under the Franchise Agreement.

As indicated above, if the Franchise Agreement does not designate a Protected Territory, then you have no territorial protection, we reserve all rights, and we and other franchisees may operate real estate brokerages or other businesses under the @properties mark anywhere.

Minimum Performance Requirement

Your rights under the Franchise Agreement are dependent on you achieving the minimum performance requirements identified on Exhibit 1 to the Franchise Agreement (referred to as the “Minimum Performance Requirement”). If you fail to satisfy the Minimum Performance Requirement during the term of the Franchise Agreement, we have the right, but are not required, to terminate the Franchise Agreement, or, in lieu of termination, modify or rescind any such territorial or protected rights. The Minimum Performance Requirements are determined when we consider a number of factors, including your experience, the area in which you plan to operate your Franchised Business, the number of agents affiliated with you, and other factors we may solely determine.

For franchisees who are converting an existing real estate business to Franchised Business, the Minimum Performance Requirement is equal to a minimum amount of Gross Revenues that is designated in the Franchise Agreement.

You are required to comply with the programs, policies, and procedures that we designate with regard to client referrals from time to time, which may be modified, suspended, or augmented from time to time at our option. If we do not have any referral programs, policies, or procedures in place at the time that you communicate with a client referral, and except as otherwise permitted by us, you are required to direct any client referrals to other franchisees. If, at the time during the term of the Franchise Agreement, you are a member of an affiliation approved by us, and are required by said affiliation to comply with its programs, policies, and procedures, then you may continue to abide by those approved membership agreements. As of the date of the Franchise Agreement, you will list any third-party affiliations that you are currently a member of on Exhibit 6 to the Franchise Agreement. For any additional, subsequent, or substitute affiliations that you may wish to join, you must secure our approval in advance, and we will update Exhibit 6.

Our Affiliated Companies

Our affiliate, Christie’s International Real Estate (“CIRE”), offers and sells real estate brokerage franchises under the “CHRISTIE’S INTERNATIONAL REAL ESTATE” trademarks. CIRE franchises may solicit or accept orders anywhere they are permitted under their CIRE franchise agreements, which may include the geographic area where you operate your Franchised Business. As noted in Item 1 above, Compass, which acquired control of our Ultimate Parent in early 2025, is a residential real estate brokerage firm, operating in over 95 markets in the United States, with over 400 offices and over 33,000 agents. Compass businesses and agents operate under the names and marks “COMPASS” and “URBAN COMPASS”, but Compass does not grant franchises. However, its agents may operate and offer and sell real estate, including soliciting and accepting orders to buy or sell real estate, throughout the United States (subject to state and local real estate licensing laws), and this may include within the geographic area where you operate your Franchised Business. There is no restriction under the Franchise Agreement that prevents us, CIRE, Compass, or our other franchisees or affiliates from owning, operating, franchising, or licensing others to operate real estate brokerages or other businesses under the “@properties,” “CHRISTIE’S INTERNATIONAL REAL ESTATE,” or “COMPASS” marks, or other service and trademarks, anywhere, including within your Protected Territory or any area in which you operate your Franchised Business.

Except for any statutory limitations, there are no restrictions on us or our affiliates, or our or our affiliates' franchisees, that would prevent us or our affiliates, or our or our affiliates' franchisees from accepting, clients or listings for real estate sales anywhere, including areas where you and your Franchised Business operate. You are not entitled to receive any compensation from us or others for any business generated by us or our affiliates, or our or our affiliates' franchisees, from clients in any market area, including clients in your market area. Further, we and our affiliates have the right to use and allow our and our affiliates' franchisees to use, without any compensation to you, alternative channels of distribution, including the internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to make sales anywhere using the Marks or any other service marks.

ITEM 13

Our trademark counsel will control and coordinate the defense. We will bear all costs of the defense, and we retain the right to any money we may be awarded in any such defense. If the Marks are being used by an unlicensed party and you ask us to protect or enforce your rights to the Marks, we will take the action we deem appropriate with your cooperation. Our trademark counsel will control and coordinate the action. We will bear all costs of the action, and we retain the right to any money we may be awarded in any such action. ITEM 15
OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

We recommend that you operate as a business entity.

You must designate one Principal Owner as the “Designated Owner” who (i) is the primary Principal Owner responsible for your Franchised Business and communications with us; (ii) has authority over all transactions and dealings related to your Franchised Business and (iii) has the power to create binding agreements with us. The Designated Owner must operate the Franchised Business on a full-time basis.

The Designated Owner must be a broker to hold all necessary real estate licenses and to supervise all real estate activities and transactions handled by the Franchised Business (also known as the “Responsible Broker”).

You must appoint a manager that will be responsible for the on-premises supervision of your Main Office at all times (the “Office Broker”). If your Franchised Business operates one or more Additional Offices, you must appoint an Office Broker for each Approve Office. The Designated Owner and an Office Broker may be the same individual and they need not own any interest in your company.

The Responsible Broker and each Office Broker must be in good standing with the local association or board of Realtors and also the state and national board of Realtors. Your Designated Owner, Office Broker, Marketing Director, and Training/Agent Support Director of the Main and Additional Offices must attend and complete, to our satisfaction, the initial training program. The Responsible Broker, Office Broker, Office Manager and any other employees or affiliates with access to the Confidential Information must sign a confidentiality agreement in a form we approve (currently Exhibit 5 to the Franchise Agreement and in the Operations Manual).

A “Principal Owner” is any person or entity who, directly or indirectly, owns a 5% or greater interest in the Franchisee. If any corporation or other entity other than a partnership is a Principal Owner, a “Principal Owner” also will mean a shareholder or owner of a 5% or greater interest in such corporation or other entity. If a partnership is a Principal Owner, a “Principal Owner” also will mean each general partner of such partnership and, if such general partner is an entity, each owner of a 5% or greater interest in such general partner.

Each of your Principal Owners must guarantee your obligations under the Franchise Agreement by signing our then-current form of guaranty agreement, which is currently attached as Exhibit 3 to the Franchise Agreement (the “Guaranty Agreement”). If any corporation or other entity other than a partnership is a Principal Owner, a “Principal Owner” also will mean a shareholder or owner of a 5% or greater interest in such corporation or other entity. If a partnership is a Principal Owner, a “Principal Owner” also will mean each general partner of such partnership and, if such general partner is an entity, each owner of a 5% or greater interest in such general partner. If no individual owns 5% or greater interest in you at any time, then each owner will be considered a Principal Owner and will be required to sign the Guaranty Agreement.

You and your personnel must comply with all applicable labor, employment and wage and hours laws and regulations. All personnel decisions, including hiring, firing, disciplining, compensating, benefits, and scheduling, will be made by you, without any influence from us, and such decisions and actions will not be, nor be deemed to be, a decision or action of ours, even if we provide advice or recommendations on these issues.

If you desire to offer goods and services that we do not yet approve (“New Products and Services”), you must submit to us a detailed description and we must approve New Products and Services in writing before you may offer them. We may ask for any additional information including actual samples, photos, and other supporting items. We reserve the right to not approve New Products and Services. If we permit you to conduct activities that do not involve residential real estate brokerage services, then such activities must be conducted within the guidelines specified in the Franchise Agreement and Operations Manual, under a trade name not containing the symbol @ or any term or terms that could be confused with @properties and in a manner to eliminate the prospect that the public might believe that the other business relates to your @properties Franchised Business in any way. Item 17 of the Disclosure Document is amended by adding the following paragraphs:

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. §101 et seq.)

The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of New York. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code §1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

MARYLAND ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

To the extent the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, Md. Code Bus. Reg. §§14-201 – 14-233 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Our termination of the Franchise Agreement because of your bankruptcy may not be enforceable under applicable federal law (11 U.S.C.A. 101 et seq.).

You may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment/transfer will not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

Franchisee Disclosure Questionnaire:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

MINNESOTA ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

As to franchises governed by the Minnesota franchise laws, if any of the terms of the Disclosure Document are inconsistent with the terms below, the terms below control.

State Cover Page and Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Minn. Stat. §80C.21 and Minn. Rule 2860.4400(J) prohibits the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Franchise Disclosure Document or agreements can abrogate or reduce (1) any of the franchisee's rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or (2) franchisee's rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

The franchisee cannot consent to the franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. The franchisor may seek injunctive relief. See Minn. Rules 2860.4400J.

Item 6, Additional Disclosure:

NSF checks are governed by Minn. Stat. 604.113, which puts a cap of $30 on service charges.

Item 13, Additional Disclosures:

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that a franchisor indemnify Minnesota Franchisees against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee's use of the franchisor's trademark infringes upon the trademark rights of the third party. The franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee's use of a franchisor's trademark except in accordance with the requirements of the Franchise Agreement, and as the condition to an indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to the franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to the franchisor. If the franchisor accepts tender of defense, the franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Any condition, stipulation or provision, including any choice of law provision, purporting to bind any person who, at the time of acquiring a franchise is a resident of the State of Minnesota or in the case of a partnership or corporation, organized or incorporated under the laws of the State of Minnesota, or purporting to bind a person acquiring any franchise to be operated in the State of Minnesota to waive compliance or which has the effect of waiving compliance with any provision of the Minnesota Franchise Law is void.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, the franchisor will comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14 Subds. 3, 4, and 5 which require (except in certain specified cases), that a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the Franchise Agreement and that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(D) prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§80C.01 – 80C.22.

The Limitations of Claims section must comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5.

Franchisee Disclosure Questionnaire:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

1. The following information is added to the Cover Page of the Franchise Disclosure Document.

INFORMATION COMPARING FRANCHISORS IS AVAILABLE. CALL THE STATE ADMINISTRATORS LISTED IN EXHIBIT B OR YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR SERVICES OR INFORMATION. REGISTRATION OF THIS FRANCHISE BY NEW YORK STATE DOES NOT MEAN THAT NEW YORK STATE RECOMMENDS IT OR HAS VERIFIED THE INFORMATION IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. THE FRANCHISOR MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, THE FRANCHISOR CAN NOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE TO ACCEPT TERMS THAT ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. The following is to be added at the end of Item 3:

With the exception of what is stated above, the following applies to the franchisor, its predecessor, a person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate offering franchises under the franchisor's principal trademark:

A. No such party has an administrative, criminal, or civil action pending against that person alleging: a felony, a violation of a franchise, antitrust, or securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, misappropriation of property, unfair or deceptive practices, or comparable civil or misdemeanor allegations.

B. No such party has pending actions, other than routine litigation incidental to the business, which are significant in the context of the number of franchisees and the size, nature, or financial condition of the franchise system or its business operations.

C. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or, within the 10-year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property, unfair or deceptive practices, or comparable allegations.

D. 3. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled “Requirements for a franchisee to renew or extend,” and Item 17(m), entitled “Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer”:

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Section 687.4 and 687(5) be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by franchisee”:

You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(v), titled “Choice of forum,” and Item 17(w), titled “Choice of law”:

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York.

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements: No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

7. Receipts: Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. § 680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earlier of the first personal meeting, ten (10) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

NORTH DAKOTA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

To the extent the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, N.D. Cent. Code, §§51-19-01 – 51-19-17 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures. The following statements are added to Item 17:

Any provision requiring franchisees to consent to the jurisdiction of courts outside North Dakota or to consent to the application of laws of a state other than North Dakota may be unenforceable under North Dakota law. Any mediation or arbitration will be held at a site agreeable to all parties. If the laws of a state other than North Dakota govern, to the extent that such law conflicts with North Dakota law, North Dakota law will control.

Any general release the franchisee is required to assent to as a condition of renewal is not intended to, nor shall it act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability franchisor may have incurred under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

Covenants not to compete during the term of and upon termination or expiration of the Franchise Agreement are enforceable only under certain conditions according to North Dakota law. If the Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete that is inconsistent with North Dakota law, the covenant may be unenforceable.

The Franchise Agreement includes a waiver of exemplary and punitive damages. This waiver may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

The Franchise Agreement stipulates that the franchisee shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by franchisor in enforcing the agreement. For North Dakota franchisees, the prevailing party is entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees.

The Franchise Agreement requires the franchisee to consent to a waiver of trial by jury. This waiver may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

The Franchise Disclosure Document and Franchise Agreement state that franchisee must consent to the jurisdiction of courts outside that State of North Dakota. That requirement may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

The Franchise Disclosure Document and Franchise Agreement may require franchisees to consent to termination or liquidated damages. This requirement may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

The Franchise Agreement requires the franchisee to consent to a limitation of claims within one year. To the extent this requirement conflicts with North Dakota law, North Dakota law will apply.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

RHODE ISLAND ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

To the extent the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act, R.I. Gen. Law ch. 395 §§19-28.1-1 – 19-28.1-34 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

Item 17, Additional Disclosure. The following statement is added to Item 17:

Section 19-28.1-14 of the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act provides that: “A provision in a franchise agreement restricting jurisdiction or venue to a forum outside this state or requiring the application of the laws of another state is void with respect to a claim otherwise enforceable under this Act.”

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

To the extent the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, Va. Code §§13.1-557 – 13.1-574 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Any provision in any of the contracts that you sign with us which provides for termination of the franchise upon the bankruptcy of the franchisee may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C. 101 et. seq.).

“According to Section 13.1 – 564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.”

Franchisee Disclosure Questionnaire:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

In addition, nothing in the Franchise Disclosure Document or agreements can abrogate or reduce (1) any of the franchisee's rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or (2) franchisee's rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, the franchisor will comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14 Subds. 3, 4, and 5 which require (except in certain specified cases), that a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the Franchise Agreement and that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that franchisor indemnify franchisees whose franchise is located in Minnesota against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee's use of franchisor's trademarks ("Marks") infringe upon the trademark rights of the third party. Franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee's use of franchisor's trademark but franchisor shall indemnify franchisee for claims against franchisee solely as it relates to franchisee's use of the Marks in accordance with the requirements of the Franchise Agreement and franchisor's standards. As a further condition to indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to franchisor. If franchisor accepts tender of defense, franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Franchisee will not be required to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§ 80C.01 – 80C.22.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 3 which requires that except for certain specified cases, a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure). Termination of the franchise by the franchisor shall be effective immediately upon receipt by franchisee of the notice of termination where its grounds for termination or cancellation are: (1) voluntary abandonment of the franchise relationship by the franchisee; (2) the conviction of the franchisee of an offense directly related to the business conducted according to the Franchise Agreement; or (3) failure of the franchisee to cure a default under the Franchise Agreement which materially impairs the goodwill associated with the franchisor's trade name, trademark, service mark, logo type or other commercial symbol after the franchisee has received written notice to cure of at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance thereof.

According to Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 in Minnesota Rules or 2860.4400J, the terms of the Franchise Agreement shall not in any way abrogate or reduce your rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. 1984, Chapter 80C, including the right to submit certain matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota. In addition, nothing in this Franchise Agreement shall abrogate or reduce any of franchisee's rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedy provided for by the laws of the State of Minnesota.

Any claims franchisee may have against the franchisor that have arisen under the Minnesota Franchise Laws shall be governed by the Minnesota Franchise Law.

The Franchise Agreement contains a waiver of jury trial provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.

Franchisee consents to the franchisor seeking injunctive relief without the necessity of showing actual or threatened harm. A court shall determine if a bond or other security is required.

The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Any action pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5 must be commenced no more than 3 years after the cause of action accrues.

□□ Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.

3. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.

To the extent the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, N.D. Cent. Code, §§51-19-01 – 51-19-17 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

Any release executed in connection with a renewal shall not apply to any claims that may arise under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

Covenants not to compete during the term of and upon termination or expiration of the franchise agreement are enforceable only under certain conditions according to North Dakota law. If the Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete that is inconsistent with North Dakota law, the covenant may be unenforceable.

The choice of law other than the State of North Dakota may not be enforceable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. If the laws of a state other than North Dakota govern, to the extent that such law conflicts with North Dakota law, North Dakota law will control.

The requirement that mediation be held outside the State of North Dakota may not be enforceable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. Any mediation will be held at a site agreeable to all parties.

The Franchise Agreement states that franchisee must consent to the jurisdiction of courts located outside the State of North Dakota. This requirement may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

The Franchise Agreement requires the franchisee to consent to a limitation of claims within one year. To the extent this requirement conflicts with North Dakota law, North Dakota law will apply.

Franchise Agreement stipulates that the franchisee shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by Franchisor in enforcing the agreement. For North Dakota franchisees, the prevailing party is entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.

Dated this _____ day of _____ 20_____.

THIS FRANCHISE AGREEMENT (the “Franchise Agreement” or “Agreement”) is made and entered into this ____ day of _____, 20____ (the “Effective Date”), between At World Franchising, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, with a principal place of business at 806 N. Peoria Street, Chicago, IL 60642 (“@properties,” “we,” “us” or “our”), and _____ (new entity will be inserted), a [resident of / corporation organized in / limited liability company organized in] the state of _____ (“you” or “your”).

BACKGROUND

- A. As a result of our investment of time, skill, effort, and resources, we have developed and continue to develop a unique system for the development and operation of a business that offers real estate brokerage products and services under the Marks (as defined in Section 21.9 below) and System (as defined in Section 21.13 below).
- B. We grant qualified persons the right to develop, own and operate a licensed @properties business using the Marks and System as an @properties franchisee (“Franchisee”), and you desire to obtain the right to develop and operate a licensed @properties business using the Marks and System.
- C. We have agreed to grant you the right to develop and operate a licensed @properties business subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including all exhibits and related documents) and our Operations Manual.

AGREEMENTS

NOW, THEREFORE, for value received, you and we (“the Parties”) agree as follows:

1. GRANT

1.1. Grant. Subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement, including all exhibits and related documents, and Operations Manual, we grant you a non-exclusive license to own and operate an @properties business (the “Business”). The physical address of your Business (“Main Office”) must be located within the Protected Territory and approved by us in writing before you can begin to operate your Business. Your Main Office and the Protected Territory are identified in Exhibit 1 to this Agreement. You may not relocate your Main Office without our prior written consent, as described in Section 5.2 of this Agreement.

1.2 Nature of the Protected Territory. Except as described below, and except as modified by Exhibit 1 (if applicable), we will not establish and operate, or grant licenses or franchises to others to establish and operate an @properties business using the Marks within the Protected Territory during the term of this Agreement, so long as you are in compliance with this Agreement. The license granted to you under this Agreement is personal in nature and shall only be used from the Main Office and any Additional Office authorized by us. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, and subject to the terms of this Agreement, you shall have the right to offer and sell real estate brokerage services identified by the Marks through any other channels of distribution, including the Internet but excluding the metaverse. We reserve, maintain, and control all rights with respect to said metaverse. As used herein, “metaverse” means any 3D virtual space powered by technologies – including virtual reality, augmented reality, artificial intelligence, the Internet of Things, and blockchain – that allows people to interact with each other and to have lifelike experiences online. The rights granted under this Agreement are subject to the 2025 At World Franchising [Franchisee Name/Market] Franchise Agreement limitations set forth in the Operations Manual or as we otherwise periodically prescribe, which may include certain territorial policies that we establish or modify from time to time. You may not establish or operate any @properties office outside the Protected Territory, unless we permit you to do so under a separate franchise agreement. You may not subfranchise or sublicense any of your rights under this Agreement.

1.2.1 Subject to Section 1.2.2 below, we and our affiliates, and our and their respective licensees, and franchisees, as well as our agents and the agents of any of these parties, have the right (without compensation to you) to offer and sell real estate brokerage services under the Marks to clients located within the Protected Territory and for real estate located within the Protected Territory, as long as the real estate brokerage services are offered and sold from offices of @properties businesses outside of the Protected Territory. In turn, and also subject to Section 1.2.2 below, you and your agents have the right to offer and sell real estate brokerage services under the Marks to clients located outside the Protected Territory and for real estate located outside the Protected Territory but only inside the United States (including Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and other U.S. territories), as its borders exist on the Effective Date, so long as the real estate brokerage services are offered and sold from the Main Office and any authorized Additional Office. However, you acknowledge and agree: (1) that your rights outside your Protected Territory may be limited based on territorial grants or protections that we or our affiliates have granted to other franchisees or other third parties, and (2) that the scope of your rights outside of your Protected Territory may be modified by us from time to time, and are subject to the territorial policies that we establish or modify from time to time in the Operations Manual.

1.2.2. If you and your agents are licensed, as prescribed by law, to provide real estate brokerage services in an area where another licensee or Franchisee has been granted a protected territory by us (“Other Area”) but their grant does not prevent others from offering real estate brokerage services under the Marks in the Other Area, so long as you do not exceed 5% of your inventory (as measured by the number of properties) at any given time, you may list properties for sale using the Marks in the Other Area so long as they are listed from your Main Office or Additional Office. If your properties listed in the Other Area exceeds 5% of your inventory and, upon notice from us, you do not cease such listings promptly, you will be in default, and we can terminate the Agreement. Conversely, to the extent another licensee, Franchisee, or its agents, are licensed as prescribed by law, to provide real estate brokerage services in your Protected Territory, we will use commercially reasonable efforts to limit such party from listing more than 5% of its inventory of properties using the Marks in your Protected Territory, assuming such party has not been granted unlimited rights by us. However, we have no obligation to enforce this provision against such other parties.

1.2.3 Except for the limitations described in this Section, you acknowledge and agree that you do not have any right to exclude, control or impose conditions on our development of future licensed, franchised, company or affiliate-owned @properties businesses, or other company owned businesses at any time or at any location.

(a) To own and operate, and grant licenses or franchises to others to own and operate @properties offices outside of the Protected Territory;

(b) To own and operate, and grant licenses or franchises to others to own and operate, any business of any kind (other than an office located within your Protected Territory selling the same services as an @properties businesses) under the Marks at any locations within or outside of your Protected Territory, including by electronic means such as the Internet, applications, by websites we may establish, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales;

(c) To own and operate, and grant licenses or franchises to others to own and operate, any business of any kind, including a real estate business selling the same or similar services as @properties businesses, under any names, trademarks, service marks, logos and other commercial symbols other than the Marks, regardless of where such businesses are located, including within the Protected Territory;

(d) To merge with, acquire, be acquired by, or become associated with any businesses that are the same or similar to any @properties businesses and operate or license others to operate such businesses regardless of where the businesses are located, including within the Protected Territory, and to be acquired by any third party that operates businesses that are the same or similar to any @properties businesses regardless of where such businesses are located, including within the Protected Territory;

(e) to promote, sell, and distribute products, items, and other materials under the Marks or other trademarks through dissimilar channels of distribution (i.e., other than the operation of an @properties office within the Protected Territory), including by electronic means such as the Internet, applications, by websites we may establish, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales;

(f) To advertise the System anywhere, including, without limitation, on the Internet (or any other existing or future form of electronic commerce) and to create, operate, maintain, and modify, or discontinue the use of a website or any online presence using the Marks; and

You may open additional offices (each, an “Additional Office”) as needed, so long as we receive prior written notification before you enter into any binding agreement to lease, purchase, or otherwise occupy the Additional Office. We reserve the right to reject the location of your anticipated Additional Office. Nothing in the previous sentence is intended to suggest that a rejection of the location of the anticipated Additional Office will act as a rejection of your ability to open an Additional Office. The Main Office and Additional Office are each referred to herein as an “Office.” If we approve your proposed Additional Office location, you must execute an addendum granting you such rights, the current version of which is attached as Exhibit 4.

1.5. Minimum Performance Requirement. (e) Abide by any other covenant in this Agreement that requires performance by you after you are no longer a Franchisee.

(f) Make all filings with the relevant court or government (federal, state, local, foreign or provincial), or any political subdivision thereof, including any department, commission, agency or other regulatory, administrative or governmental body or instrumentality, and take all other actions necessary or desirable to change the corporate name, trade name, assumed (or d/b/a) name and any other similar corporate identifier to any name and identifier that does not constitute or include any Mark, or variation or composite thereof (if any);

(g) Irrevocably assign to us, or a designee, as we designate, all Internet domain names that consist in part of, or incorporate, any of the Marks (if any); and

(h) Execute, from time to time, any necessary papers, documents, and assurances to effectuate the intent of this Section 11.

11.2. Return of Information. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, you will return to us all of our Confidential Information embodied in tangible form, and will destroy, unless otherwise agreed, all other sources that contain or reflect any such Confidential Information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you may retain Confidential Information as needed solely for legal, tax, and insurance purposes, but the information retained will remain subject at all times to the confidentiality restrictions of this Agreement.

11.3. Our Option to Purchase the Business. If you were new to the real estate brokerage business before you signed this Agreement and became a Franchisee, and you did not have an existing real estate brokerage business that converted to the @properties brand, then if this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason, we have the option, but not the obligation, upon 60 days' written notice from the date of expiration or termination, to purchase from you all the tangible and intangible assets relating to the Business (excluding any unsalable inventory, cash, short term investments and accounts receivable) (collectively, the "Purchased Assets"). We may assign this option to purchase, and assignment separate and apart from the remainder of this Agreement. The purchase price for the Business will be the book value of the Purchased Assets; provided that: (a) we may exclude from the Purchased Assets any products or other items that are not in compliance with this Agreement; and (b) we may exclude from fair market value any provision for goodwill or similar value attributable to intangible property (such as the Marks and Confidential Information). If the parties cannot agree on fair market value within a reasonable time, we may designate an independent appraiser to determine the fair market value of the Purchased Assets. The determination of such appraiser will be binding on the parties hereto, and the costs of such appraisal will be divided equally between you and us. The purchase price, as determined above, will be paid in cash at the closing of the purchase, which will occur within a reasonable time, not to exceed 60 days, after the fair market value is determined. At the closing, you will deliver documents transferring good and merchantable title to the assets purchased, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and liabilities to us or our designee and such other documents we may reasonably request to permit us to operate the Business without interruption. We may set off against and reduce the purchase price by all amounts you owe to us or any of our affiliates. If we exercise our option to purchase the Business, we may, pending the closing, appoint a manager to maintain Business operations.

11.4. Continuing Obligations. All obligations and rights of us and you which expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect following its expiration or termination and until they are satisfied or expire.

11.5. Liquidated Damages.

(a) If this Agreement is terminated due to your default, you must pay to us a lump-sum payment, within thirty (30) days of termination, an amount calculated as follows: (a) the average of your monthly Royalty Fees for the last 12 months immediately preceding the termination of this Agreement (or such shorter time as you were open); (b) multiplied by the lesser of 24 or the number of months remaining in the term of this Agreement.

(b) The payments called for in this Section 11.5 constitute liquidated damages for causing the premature termination of this Agreement. A precise calculation of the full extent of damages that we will incur if this Agreement terminates because you default cannot be reasonably determined. Nevertheless, the parties agree that the lump-sum payment provided under this Section 11.5 is reasonable in light of the damages for premature termination that may reasonably be expected to occur in such event. The amounts contemplated under this Section 11.5 are not a penalty, the payment is intended by the parties only as a compensatory remedy for past breaches and not as a preventative remedy to deter future breaches, and the amount does not represent a price for the privilege of not performing nor does the payment represent an alternative manner of performance. Accordingly, as a purely liquidated damages provision, this Section does not preclude, and is not inconsistent with, a court granting us specific performance or any other equitable remedies, such as an injunction, to prevent future breaches. Our rights to liquidated damages and specific performance or any other equitable relief are not mutually exclusive.

11.6. Holdover. If you continue to operate your Business after the expiration of the Term as described in Section 2.4, you will be deemed to have materially breached this Agreement including, but not limited to this Section 11.

12. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES/INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1. Independent Contractor. We and you are independent contractors. Neither party is the agent, legal representative, partner, subsidiary, joint venture or employee of the other. Neither party shall have the right or authority to independently obligate the other to any third parties or represent any right to do so. This Agreement does not reflect or create a fiduciary relationship or a relationship of special trust or confidence. You must identify yourself in all dealings with customers, lessors, contractors, suppliers, public officials and others as the owner of the Business under a franchise agreement from us. You must place a conspicuous notice on or near the entrance(s) of the Offices(s), that clearly states “EACH OFFICE IS INDEPENDENTLY OWNED AND OPERATED,” or any modification of the statement as we may require in the Operations Manual (“Disclaimer”). You must include the Disclaimer on all signage, business cards, stationery, promotional and advertising materials, website and internet communications, email signature blocks, real estate documents, and all other materials you use.

12.2. Independent Business. You acknowledge and agree that by executing this Agreement you are agreeing to establish and operate an independent @properties business, the success of which depends on, among other things, your individual ability to operate your business, attract and retain qualified agents and other personnel, and otherwise operate all phases of an independent business over which you will have substantial control. As an independent business owner, you agree that: (i) the relationship created by this Agreement is not a relationship between principal and agent, or that it is a fiduciary relationship; (ii) you are not our employee and will not earn any wages, nor be eligible for or receive any of the other benefits normally provided to employees, but rather your income will solely be the profits you earn from the operation of your Business; (iii) we are not the employer or co-employer of any employee that you hire; (iv) except as set forth herein, all management, personnel, and training requirements are at your discretion and are your responsibility; (v) you are responsible for ensuring that your Business operates in accordance with the law of the state, county, city, and town in which you operate; (vi) you alone are permitted to contract with your customers and you are required to sign all contracts and agreements, including purchase agreements, using your independent business name; (vii) you are free to set the prices you charge your customers; and (viii) we shall not be liable for damages to any person or property arising directly or indirectly out of your operation of your Business nor shall we be liable for any taxes, assessments, fines or penalties levied upon you or your Business arising out of your Business. You agree that should you assert a claim or seek a determination that this Agreement, or any of its exhibits or attachments, creates anything but an independent business relationship, including an employment relationship, we may seek a determination that this Agreement is null and void. You also agree that if a court, administrative body, arbitrator, board, or other tribunal enters a judgment that this Agreement, or any of its exhibits or attachments, creates anything but an independent business relationship, including an employment relationship, then we shall have the option to immediately terminate this Agreement.

12.3. Indemnity. You will hold harmless, defend, and indemnify us and our past, present and future affiliates, officers, directors, interest holders, members, shareholders, agents, attorneys, consultants, and employees (“Indemnified Parties”) against any claims, losses, costs, expenses (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses (and interest on such fees, costs, and expenses), costs of investigation, settlement costs, and interest), liabilities and damages (collectively, “Indemnification Claims”) arising directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with this Agreement, your operation of the Business, the relationship between the Parties, your and/or your employees’ actions or inactions, any claim that any of the Indemnified Parties are a joint employer with you for any reason, your activities under this Agreement, and/or your breach of this Agreement, including, without limitation, those alleged to be caused by the negligence of the Indemnified Parties unless (and then only to the extent that) the Indemnification Claims are determined to be caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of one of the Indemnified Parties according to a final, unappealable ruling issued by a court or arbitrator with competent jurisdiction (including, but not limited to, Indemnification Claims brought by you). In the event the Indemnified Parties incur any costs or expenses, including, without limitation, legal fees (including, but not limited to, attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses), travel expenses, and other charges in connection with any proceeding involving you in which the Indemnified Parties are not a party, you must reimburse the Indemnified Parties for all such costs and expenses promptly upon presentation of invoices. With respect to any threatened or actual litigation, proceeding, or dispute that could directly or indirectly affect the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties have the right, but not the obligation, to: (i) choose counsel; (ii) direct and control the handling of the matter; (iii) settle any claim against the Indemnified Parties; and (iv) seek reimbursement from you pursuant to the terms of this paragraph. This Section will survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement and applies to Indemnification Claims even if they exceed the limits of your insurance coverage.

13. COVENANTS

13.1. Non-Solicitation of Customers. You, each Principal Owner, and the Responsible Broker, will not, during the term of this Agreement, and for a period of 1 year after its expiration or termination, directly or indirectly, divert or attempt to divert any @properties business, account or customer of the Business or any other @properties business referred to you by us, or the System to any competing business including, but not limited to, the competing businesses set forth in Section 6.3(e). We will not during the term of this Agreement, and for a period of 1 year after its expiration or termination, divert or attempt to divert any business, account, client, or customer of yours that we gained knowledge of in connection with this Agreement.

13.2. Covenant Not to Compete During Term. You and each Principal Owner will not, during the term of this Agreement, directly, or as an employee, agent, consultant, partner, officer, director or shareholder of any other person, firm, entity, partnership or corporation, own, operate, lease, franchise, conduct, engage in, be connected with, have any interest in or assist any person or entity engaged in any business that offers for sale real estate brokerage services, or any other related business that is similar to, offers the same or similar products or services to, or is otherwise competitive with, the Business, anywhere in the United States, including, but not limited to, those competing businesses set forth in Section 6.3(e), except the ownership of securities listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market that represent 1% or less of that class of securities. For clarification and avoidance of doubt, the above restriction regarding the operation of competing businesses applies to any separate real estate brokerage business under any brand, or Protected Territories or franchise agreements or other territories, franchises, licenses or other businesses you, your affiliates or Principal Owner have with us or any of our affiliates, including following the termination or expiration of any such rights.

13.2.1 Notwithstanding the foregoing, you and each Principal Owner may own other businesses that do not offer residential real estate brokerage services and that do not compete with the Business and are owned and operated under a legal entity that is separate from, a different entity from, and represented to the public as a different entity from the entity that executed this Agreement and operates the Business. Further, you covenant and agree not to divert any real estate business from the Business.

13.2.2 You acknowledge and agree that any permitted business or operations under Section 13.2.1 above shall not (a) be of the type described in Section 6.3(c); (ii) in any way be affiliated or associated with those competing businesses set forth in Section 6.3(c); and (iii) use any @properties branding or Marks.

13.3. Injunctive Relief. You agree that damages alone cannot adequately compensate us if there is a violation of any covenant in this Section and that injunctive relief is essential and necessary to prevent irreparable harm and damage to us. You therefore agree that we are entitled to injunctive relief without posting any bond or security, in addition to the remedies that may be available to us at equity or law, if you, the Principal Owners or their respective spouses or children, or the Responsible Broker violate any covenant in this Section. The covenants stated in this Section will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

13.4. Waiver of Bond. If we bring suit to enforce this Agreement by injunctive relief, you agree that no bond or other security is necessary and you hereby waive any requirement that we post bond to obtain a temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunction to enforce the duties set forth in this Agreement.

13.5. Severability. If any covenant or provision of Section 13.1 or 13.2 is determined to be void, overbroad or unenforceable, in whole or in part, the parties agree that the offending portion shall be deemed severed and removed from this Agreement and shall not affect or impair the validity of any other remaining covenant or provision. Further, these obligations are considered independent of any other provision in this Agreement and the existence of any claim or cause of action by either party to this Agreement against the other, whether based upon this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of these obligations.

14. TRANSFER

14.1. Assignment by Us. We may transfer or assign this Agreement and all or any part of the rights or obligations under this Agreement, or any interests in our assets, or any ownership or equity interests in us, to any person or legal entity, and any assignee will become solely responsible for all obligations of the licensor under this Agreement from the date of assignment.

14.2. Your Assignment to Corporation or Limited Liability Company. You must obtain our prior written consent to assign this Agreement. We will not unreasonably withhold our consent to an assignment of this Agreement to an entity that you own and control and that we approve, provided you comply with all of the following conditions: (i) the entity must not conduct any business other than the Business; (ii) the ownership and management is substantially unchanged; (iii) the Responsible Broker actively manages the Business in accordance with this Agreement; (iv) you and all Principal Owners of the assignee entity sign the Guarantee, Indemnification, and Acknowledgment attached hereto as Exhibit 3; (v) you provide us no less than fifteen (15) days' written notice before the proposed date of assignment of this Agreement to the entity; (vi) you provide to us a certified copy of the articles of incorporation, operation agreement, organizational documents, and a list of all shareholders or members having beneficial ownership, reflecting their respective interest in the assignee entity; and (vii) the organizational documents and all issued and outstanding stock or membership certificates will bear a legend, in form acceptable to us, reflecting or referring to the assignment restrictions stated in this Agreement.

14.3. Your Assignment or Sale of Substantially All of Your Assets. You understand that we have granted you the rights under this Agreement in reliance upon the individual or collective character, aptitude, attitude, business ability and financial capacity of your Principal Owners. You (including all Principal Owners) will not voluntarily or involuntarily transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of, in one or more transactions, your entity or business, the Business, all or substantially all of the assets of your business, this Agreement, or any material interest in you ("material interest" to include a proposed transfer of twenty percent (20%) or more of the common (voting) stock of a corporation or ownership interest in a limited liability company or partnership) unless you obtain our prior written consent (except as provided in Section 14.2 above). We may condition our approval of any proposed transfer upon satisfaction of the following occurrences:

- (a) You are current in all monetary obligations to us, our affiliates, and suppliers and vendors;
- (b) You are in full compliance with this Agreement, Operations Manual, and our System standards;
- (c) You execute any transfer, amendment, or release forms that we may require;
- (d) You or the transferee will provide to us a copy of the proposed documents as we may request to evidence the transfer;
- (e) The transferee must be approved by us, the owners must be licensed real estate brokers, and demonstrate to our satisfaction that they meet our educational, managerial and business standards; possess a good moral character, business reputation and credit rating; have the aptitude and ability to conduct the business to be transferred; and have adequate financial resources and capital to meet the performance obligations under this Agreement;
- (f) The transferee must execute our then-current form of franchise agreement;

(g) You or the transferee must pay to us the Transfer Fee specified in Section 3.5 of this Agreement;

(h) The transferee must satisfactorily complete our initial training program at the transferee's expense within the time frame we establish;

(i) You must comply with all post-termination provisions of this Agreement;

(j) The transferee must obtain within the time limits set by us and maintain thereafter, all permits, and licenses required for operation of the Business;

(k) To the extent required by the terms of any leases or other agreements, the lessors or other parties must have consented to the proposed transfer;

(l) The transfer must be made in compliance with any laws that apply to the transfer, including state and federal laws governing the offer and sale of franchises;

(m) You and all departing owners must release us from any and all claims against us and our past, present and future affiliates, officers, directors, interest holders, members, shareholders, agents and employees.

(n) The purchase price and terms of the proposed transfer are not so burdensome to the prospective transferee as to impair or materially threaten its future operation and performance under its franchise agreement; and

(o) We waive our right of first refusal set forth under Section 14.4.

14.4. Right of First Refusal. If you have received and desire to accept a signed, bona fide offer to purchase or otherwise transfer this Agreement, any interest in it, or substantially all the assets of the Business, or all or substantially all of the equity ownership in your entity, you shall grant us the option (the "Right of First Refusal") to purchase the Business as provided here:

(a) Within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the written, signed offer, you shall offer the Right of First Refusal to us by notice in writing, including a copy of the signed offer to purchase which you received ("Notice"). We shall have the right to purchase the Business or interest in the Business, or all or substantially all of the equity ownership in your or your entity, at and for the price and upon the terms set out in the Notice, except that we may substitute cash for any non-cash form of payment proposed and we shall have 60 days after the exercise of our Right of First Refusal to close the said purchase. Should we wish to exercise our Right of First Refusal, we will notify you in writing within 15 days from its receipt of the Notice. Upon the giving of such notice by us, there shall immediately arise between us and you, or its owners, a binding contract of purchase and sale at the price and upon the terms contained in the Notice.

(b) If we do not exercise our Rights of First Refusal, you may transfer the Business or ownership interest therein according to the terms set forth in the Notice, provided that you satisfy the conditions in this Agreement, including Section 14.5 above, and complete the sale within ninety (90) days from the day on which we received the Notice. If you do not conclude the proposed sale transaction within the ninety-day (90-day) period, the Right of First Refusal granted to us shall continue in full force and effect.

14.5. Death or Incapacity. The death of your Designated Owner, you, or your estate, or your Designated Owner or her/his estate, as the case may be, must actively begin the process to seek a transfer of your or your Designated Owner’s rights under this Agreement within sixty (60) days and must complete the transfer within six (6) months of death or incapacity. If your Designated Owner or her/his estate, fails in either respect, then we may terminate this Agreement. The new franchisee must pay the transfer fee specified in Section 3.5 of this Agreement, meet our then-current qualifications for a new franchisee, complete our initial training program, and enter into our then-current form of franchise agreement. You or your estate, or your Principal Owner or her/his estate, must reimburse us for any reasonable expenses we incur in managing or operating your Business from the date of your death or incapacity until a transfer pursuant to this Section 14 is completed or we terminate this agreement pursuant to Section 10 of this Agreement. The term “incapacity” means a condition that prevents you from reasonably carrying out your duties under this Agreement.

15. BINDING EFFECT, MODIFICATION

This Agreement is binding upon the parties and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, assigns, and successors in interest, and will not be modified except by written agreement signed by both you and us. Except as provided above, this Agreement is not intended, and will not be deemed, to confer any rights or remedies upon any person or legal entity not a party to this Agreement.

16. NON-WAIVER OF BREACH

Our waiver of any breach by you, or our delay or failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement, will not be deemed to be a waiver of any other or subsequent breach or be deemed an estoppel to enforce our rights respecting that or any other breach. In addition, acceptance by us of any payments or partial payments due to us under this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver by us of any preceding or succeeding breach by you of any terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement, or other amounts due.

17. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement and the exhibits hereto constitute the entire agreement between the parties. This Agreement and the exhibits hereto supersede all other prior oral and written agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. Nothing in this or in any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document we furnished to you.

18. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

18.1. Choice of Law. This Agreement is effective upon its acceptance in Illinois by our authorized officer. Except as to claims governed by federal law, Illinois law governs all claims that in any way relates to or arises out of this Agreement, our business relationship, or any dealings between the parties (“Claims”). However, no laws regulating the sale of franchises or governing the relationship between franchisor and franchisee shall apply unless the jurisdictional requirements of such laws are met independently of this paragraph.

18.2. Jurisdiction and Venue. You and we agree that venue and jurisdiction for any Claims shall be proper solely in the state and federal court nearest to our corporate headquarters at the time of the dispute, presently located in Chicago, Illinois.

18.3. JURY WAIVER. YOU AND WE IRREVOCABLY WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, OR COUNTERCLAIM, WHETHER AT LAW OR IN EQUITY, BROUGHT BY EITHER OF THEM AGAINST THE OTHER, WHETHER OR NOT THERE ARE OTHER PARTIES IN SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING.

18.4. CLASS ACTION WAIVER. YOU AGREE TO BRING ANY CLAIMS, IF AT ALL, INDIVIDUALLY AND YOU SHALL NOT JOIN SUCH CLAIM WITH CLAIMS OF ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY OR BRING, JOIN OR PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS OR COLLECTIVE ACTION AGAINST US. YOU HEREBY AGREE NOT TO SEEK JOINDER OF ANY OF YOUR CLAIMS WITH THOSE OF ANY OTHER PARTY.

18.5. PUNITIVE DAMAGES WAIVER. EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN 11.5, YOU AND WE AND OUR AFFILIATES AGREE TO WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO OR A CLAIM FOR ANY PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES AGAINST THE OTHER AND AGREE THAT IN THE EVENT OF ANY DISPUTE BETWEEN US, EACH WILL BE LIMITED TO THE RECOVERY OF ACTUAL DAMAGES SUSTAINED BY IT.

18.6. Contractual Limitation of Actions. You agree to bring any Claims against us, if at all, within one (1) year of the occurrence of the facts giving rise to such Claims. The parties hereto agree that any Claims not asserted in an action filed within this period shall be time-barred, whether asserted as a claim, counterclaim, defense, or set-off.

18.7. Prior Notice of Claims. As a condition precedent to commencing an action for a Claim, you must notify us within thirty (30) days after the occurrence of the violation or breach, and failure to timely give such notice shall preclude any claim for damages.

18.8. Mediation. Except as otherwise stated in this Section 18, the parties agree to submit any claim, controversy or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement (and attachments) or the relationship created by this Agreement to non-binding mediation before bringing such claim, controversy or dispute to a court. The mediation will be conducted either through an individual mediator or a mediator appointed by a mediation services organization, experienced in the mediation of disputes between franchisors and franchisees, agreed upon by the parties. If the parties do not agree upon a mediator or mediation services organization within fifteen (15) days after either party has notified the other of its desire to seek mediation, the dispute will be mediated by the American Arbitration Association pursuant to its rules governing mediation, at our corporate headquarters in Illinois, or in such other city and state in which our corporate headquarters is then located, if we move such headquarters. The costs and expenses of the mediation services organization, including compensation of the mediator, will be borne equally by the parties. Each party will bear the costs of its own attorney's fees and travel, if any, for the mediation. If the parties cannot resolve the claim, controversy or dispute within ninety (90) days after conducting the mediation, either party may submit such claim, controversy or dispute to court under this Section 18. Either party may bring an action under the applicable provisions of this Section 18 without first submitting the dispute to mediation under this Section 18.8: (i) for monies owed, (ii) for injunctive relief, or (iii) involving the possession or disposition of, or other relief relating to, real property.

18.9. Attorneys' Fees. The non-prevailing party will pay all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, that prevailing party incurs in any action brought to enforce any provision of this Agreement or to enjoy any violation of this Agreement.

18.10. Survival. All of the covenants contained in this Agreement that may require performance after the termination or expiration of this Agreement will survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

18.11. Severability Clause. All provisions of this Agreement are severable, and this Agreement will be interpreted and enforced as if all completely invalid or unenforceable provisions were not contained herein and partially valid and enforceable provisions will be enforced to the extent valid and enforceable. If any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction requires a greater prior notice of the termination or non-renewal of this Agreement than is required, or the taking of some other action not required, the prior notice and/or other action required by law or rule will be substituted for the comparable provisions.

18.12. Rights of Parties are Cumulative. The rights that we and you have are cumulative and no exercise or enforcement by either party of any right or remedy precludes such party from exercising or enforcing any other right or remedy to which such party is entitled by law or equity to enforce.

18.13. Interpretation of Rights and Obligations. The following provisions will apply to and govern the interpretation of this Agreement, the parties' rights under this Agreement and the relationship between the parties:

(a) Our Rights. Whenever this Agreement provides that we have a certain right, that right is absolute, and the parties intend that our exercise of that right will not be subject to any limitation or review. We have the right to operate, administrate, develop and change the System in any manner that is not specifically precluded by the provisions of this Agreement.

(b) Our Reasonable Business Judgment. Whenever we reserve discretion in a particular area or where we agree or are required to exercise our rights reasonably or in good faith, we will satisfy our obligations whenever we exercise "reasonable business judgment" in making our decision or exercising our rights. A decision or action by us will be deemed to be the result of "reasonable business judgment," even if other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternatives are available, if our decision or action is intended to promote the brand or benefit the System generally even if the decision or action also promotes our financial or other individual interests. Examples of items that will promote the brand or benefit the System include enhancing the value of the Marks, improving customer service and satisfaction, improving product quality, improving uniformity, enhancing or encouraging modernization, and improving our competitive position and/or the System. Neither you nor any third party (including a trier of fact) will substitute their judgment for our reasonable business judgment.

19. NOTICES

Any and all notices required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be personally delivered, sent via a recognized overnight delivery service (e.g., UPS, FedEx, etc.), or sent by other means which affords the sender evidence of delivery, or of rejected delivery, to the respective parties at the addresses shown on Exhibit 1, unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other party. Any notice by a means which affords the sender evidence of delivery, or rejected delivery, shall be deemed to have been given at the date and time of receipt or rejected delivery.

20. REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

20.1. Franchisee Warranties. You represent, warrant, and covenant to us that:

(a) if you are an entity, you are (i) duly organized, validly existing and in good standing and has all requisite power and authority to carry on its business as now conducted; and (ii) duly qualified to transact business and in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the failure to so qualify would have a material adverse effect on its business or properties;

(b) all action on the part of you, your officers, directors, managers, members and shareholders, if any, necessary for the authorization, execution, and delivery of this Agreement has been taken, and the performance of all your obligations hereunder constitute valid and legally binding obligations of you, enforceable against you in accordance with the respective terms hereof;

(c) Your execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement will not (i) violate, conflict with or result in a breach of any applicable law; (ii) require the consent, authorization or approval of any other person or entity not a party to this Agreement; (iii) permit the acceleration of the maturity of any indebtedness of you; or (iv) violate or conflict with any provisions of the certificate or articles of incorporation, charter, bylaw or similar organizational instruments, if any, of you; and

(d) As of the Effective Date, there are no existing, pending, or threatened lawsuits or claims against you, the Principal Owners, or the current or prior brokerage, except as you may disclose in writing to us and we approve.

(e) you and/or your Principal Owners are experienced operators of a real estate brokerage business or businesses and are knowledgeable about both the real estate industry and the operation of a real estate brokerage business.

20.2. Success of the Business. You acknowledge and agree that the success of the business venture you intend to undertake under this Agreement is speculative and depends, to a large extent, upon your (or the Principal Owner's) ability as an independent businessperson, and your active participation in the daily affairs of the Business as well as other factors that may not be controllable. We do not make any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the potential success of the Business.

20.3. Independent Investigation. You acknowledge that you have entered into this Agreement after making an independent investigation of our operations and not upon any representation by us as to gross revenues, volume, potential earnings or profits which you might be expected to realize, nor have we made any other representation, which is not expressly stated herein, to induce you to accept this license and sign this Agreement.

20.4. Receipt of Documents. You represent and acknowledge that you have received our franchise disclosure document at least 14 calendar days before the date of the execution of this Agreement. In addition, you represent and acknowledge that you received from us a copy of this Agreement with all material blanks filled in at least 7 calendar days before the date of execution of this Agreement. You represent that you have read this Agreement in its entirety, including exhibits and related agreements, and that you have been given the opportunity to consult with any attorney or other professional advisor and to clarify any provisions of the Agreement that you did not understand. You further represent that you understand the provisions of this Agreement and agree to be bound.

20.5. Additional Representations. You and your owners represent and warrant that neither you nor any of the owners is identified, either by name or by an alias, pseudonym, or nickname, on the lists of "Specially Designated Nationals" or "Blocked Persons" maintained by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control (text currently available at www.treas.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/). Further, you and your owners represent and warrant that neither you nor any of the owners has violated, and you and all of the owners agree not to violate, any law prohibiting corrupt business practices, money laundering, or the aid or support of persons or entities who conspire to commit acts of terror against any person, entity, or government, including acts prohibited by the USA Patriot Act (text currently available at <https://www.gpo.gov/fdsys/pkg/BILLS-107hr3162enr/pdf/BILLS-107hr3162enr.pdf>), or any similar law. The foregoing constitutes continuing representations and warranties, and you and the owners shall immediately notify us in writing of the occurrence of any event or the development of any circumstance that might render any of the foregoing representations and warranties false, inaccurate, or misleading.

20.6. Other Licenses or Franchises. You acknowledge that our other franchisees have or will be granted licenses or franchises at different times and in different situations and further acknowledge that the provisions of such agreements may vary substantially from those contained in this Agreement.

20.7. Notice of Our Potential Profit. We hereby advise you that we and/or our affiliates periodically may make available to you goods, products and/or services for use in the Business from which we and/or our affiliates may make a profit. We further advise you that we and our affiliates periodically may receive consideration from suppliers and manufacturers from the sale of goods, products or services to you or in consideration for services provided or rights licensed to such suppliers. 20.8. Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence in this Agreement and each of its terms. It will be a material breach of this Agreement if you fail to perform any obligation within the time required or allowed by this Agreement.

This Agreement may be signed in multiple counterparts, and the signature pages may be exchanged between the parties via facsimile or email, and all of which, when taken together, will constitute one original Agreement. A fully signed copy of this Agreement will have the same force and effect as the original.

Gross Revenue includes, without limitation, the total commissions earned from each transaction before any deductions, including without limitation, MLS fees. By way of example, and not a limitation, in the event your office or one of your agents sells a home with a closing price of $500,000, a commission of 6%, a seller/buyer agent split of 50/50, this sale would generate a gross commission of $15,000. The “Gross Revenues” for that transaction, upon which Royalty Fees and other fees will be calculated, will be $15,000. 21.10. “MLS Feed” means the local multiple listing service (“MLS”) feed(s) obtained by you from one or more MLSs for selected geographic areas, in order to enable display of real estate listings for such areas.

Report of Independent Auditors

To the Management of At World Franchising, LLC

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of At World Franchising, LLC (the “Company”), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of operations, of member’s equity and of cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2024, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2024 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors’ report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

A. Nature of Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations

At World Franchising, LLC (the "Company") was formed under the laws of the State of Delaware on July 7, 2020 and was initially funded on July 27, 2020 ("Inception"). The Company operates as the central franchisor organization for the franchising of various real estate brokerages throughout the United States. The Company enters into franchise agreements with franchisees under which the franchisee is granted the right to operate in a particular location for an agreed upon term under the @properties brand name.

Basis of Preparation

The Company uses the accrual basis of accounting. Under this method, income is recognized in the period earned rather than when received and expenses are recognized in the period incurred rather than when paid.

Use of Estimates

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the balance sheet, and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue Recognition Policy

The Company provides franchisees with a franchise right. Revenues from franchisees consist primarily of initial and additional office franchise fees, branding fees, administrative fees, strategy fees, affiliate onboarding fees and agent and affiliate monthly fees, service fees, software fees, transfer fees, and property management fees. Performance obligations for all franchising revenue streams are satisfied over time. The Company has elected the practical expedient for recognizing revenue when the Company has a right to consideration from a customer in an amount that corresponds directly with the value to the customer of the Company's performance completed to date. This practical expedient has been applied to all franchisee related revenue streams, except initial, renewal, transfer, and additional office franchise fees, as the Company has the right to invoice for these revenues.

The initial and renewal franchise fee, as well as the additional office fee, and the transfer fee ("franchise fees"), includes multiple performance obligations, including initial franchisee training, site selection, assistance with equipment, access to operations manual, and access to the Company's proprietary trademarks for the duration of the contract. These performance obligations are highly interrelated to the promise to provide the franchise right. As such, these promises are not distinct and have been combined into a single performance obligation that is satisfied over the term of the franchise agreement. The Company's revenue recognition policy for initial franchise fees is to begin recognizing revenue earned when the franchise is deemed as fully operational .. Revenues associated with the franchise renewal fee, additional office fee, and transfer fee performance obligations are recognized over the term of the remaining period or new term. Initial, renewal, additional office, and transfer fees are collected at the inception or renewal of the franchise agreement, and as such, the portion of those fees paid by the franchisee that relates to performance obligations to be satisfied in future periods have been reflected as deferred revenue on the balance sheets.

Branding, administrative, and strategy fees (“royalties”) are invoiced monthly based on a percentage of the gross commission income of the franchisee. The Company has utilized an election that allows for recognition of revenue related to sales-based fees when the subsequent sale by the franchisee occurs and is reported to the Company. The amount is estimated throughout the month and is adjusted to actual at month end when invoicing occurs.

As part of the franchise agreements, the Company earns revenue from affiliate onboarding fees, affiliate monthly fees, software and computer systems support fees, and various service fees that relate to operational support (“support fees”). These fees are provided and invoiced on a monthly basis.

In certain instances, the Company will include in the franchise agreement an allowance payable to the franchisee for re-branding expenses. When the re-branding allowance is paid to the franchisee, the Company recognizes an asset and amortizes it over the life of the franchise agreement, typically 10 years. From time to time, the Company may also extend a loan to franchisees to help them with their initial start-up costs and expansion. The loans are forgivable, upon the franchisee meeting the terms of its franchise agreement for the duration of the arrangement. When the loan is made to the franchisee, the Company recognizes an asset and amortizes it over the life of the arrangement, which is typically the life of the franchise agreement. In February 2022, the Company entered into an agreement with a franchisee, RLAH RE, LLC, for a loan in the amount of $2,000,000 to help them with expanding their business. The loan is forgiven over the ten-year term of the franchise agreement. If the affiliate is terminated prior to the end of the term, then the remaining unforgiven balance is payable within 30 days after the termination date. Contract assets of $237,780 and $205,530, and contract assets, net of current portion, of $1,415,561 and $1,718,137, as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, are included on the accompanying balance sheets.

Deferred revenue is comprised of deferred fees under these agreements and totaled $49,129 and $128,412 as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Previously deferred franchise fees of $79,245, $13,798, and $14,000 were recognized in Franchise revenues on the statements of operations for the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, respectively.

Significant Judgments

The Company enters into multi-year franchise agreements with its franchisees. Management used significant judgment in determining if these agreements contain a significant financing component regarding the upfront payment for the initial franchise fee. The Company has requested the upfront payment for reasons other than financing needs, specifically to ensure that the counter party performs. As such, there is no significant financing component.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable from the Company's franchise operations are recorded at the time the Company is entitled to bill under the terms of the franchise agreements and other contractual arrangements. These receivables do not bear interest and are due under normal trade terms typically requiring payment within 10 days from the invoice date. Accounts receivables are presented net of an estimated allowance for expected credit losses. On a periodic basis, the Company evaluates its receivables and established an allowance for expected credit loss based on historical experience and other currently available information. The allowance reflects the Company's best estimate of collectability risks on outstanding receivables.

Advertising and Marketing

The Company expenses advertising and marketing costs as incurred. Advertising and marketing costs are recorded in Advertising and marketing within the statements of operations.

Income Taxes

The Company was formed as a limited liability company. Accordingly, federal income taxes are not payable by the Company. Income (or loss) is allocated to the Company's members and is included in the member's income tax returns. Therefore, no liability or provision for income taxes is included in the balance sheet.

Personal Assets and Liabilities and Allocations to Members

In accordance with the generally accepted method of presenting limited liability company financial statements, the financial statements do not include the personal assets and liabilities of the members, including their obligations for an income tax liability.

As the Company is organized as a limited liability company, its member is not liable for any act, debt, obligation, or liability of the Company, except to the extent that the member personally guarantees any liability of the Company.

Allocations of income and distributions to the member is based on the provisions of the Company's Limited Liability Company Agreement dated July 7, 2020.

The members contributed initial capital of $110,000 on July 27, 2020, which is considered the inception date.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts of certain financial instruments, including prepaid expenses, other current assets, due to related parties, and accrued expenses approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

It is the Company's policy, in general, to measure nonfinancial assets and liabilities at fair value on a nonrecurring basis. These items are not measured at fair value on an ongoing basis but are subject to fair value adjustments in certain circumstances (such as evidence of impairment) which, if material, are disclosed in the accompanying notes to these financial statements.

Significant Accounting Standard Applicable in Prior Year

On January 1, 2023, the Company adopted ASU 2016-13 Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments (ASC 326). This standard replaced the incurred loss methodology with an expected loss methodology that is referred to as the current expected credit loss (“CECL”) methodology. CECL requires an estimate of credit losses for the remaining estimated life of the financial asset using historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts and generally applies to financial assets measured at amortized cost. Financial assets measured at amortized cost will be presented at the net amount expected to be collected by using an allowance for credit losses.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these financial statements.

The Company adopted ASC 326 and all related subsequent amendments effective January 1, 2023 using the modified retrospective approach for all Contract assets measured at amortized cost. For the year ended December 31, 2023, there was no transition adjustment for the adoption of CECL included in an allowance for credit losses on the financial assets.

C. Commitments and Contingencies

Guarantee

Effective July 7, 2020, the Company was added as a party to a guaranty and security agreement related to a credit agreement dated April 24, 2018 of its parent company, At World Properties, LLC, with an original maturity of April 24, 2025. The outstanding amounts due under the credit agreement were paid off in conjunction with the transaction described in Note F.

Contractual Commitment

On July 9, 2020, the Company entered into an agreement with a third-party to provide the Company with consulting services effective through July 2024. Under the agreement, the Company will pay the third-party a monthly fee due no later than the first day of the month in which services are to be provided and reimbursement for business related expenses. The contract also stipulates that the third-party may be entitled to bonuses if certain conditions are met. This contract was terminated in August 2022. Consulting fees under the agreement totaled $77,767 for the year ending December 31, 2022, and this amount is included in Professional fees within the accompanying statements of operations.

D. Related Party Transactions

The Company's infrastructure and personnel is shared with its parent company. The Company receives a monthly allocation of such costs, which comprises the majority of wages and benefits, office expenses and supplies, and other operating expenses on the statements of operations. As a result of such arrangement, from time to time, the Company has monies due from or to its parent company and its subsidiaries related to these allocated costs.

Starting in 2024, Company implemented a cash pooling arrangement with its parent company where funds are automatically swept from the Company's primary cash account to a parent company operating cash account, to facilitate cash management. In accordance with the terms of the pooling arrangement with the parent company, the parent company is required to fund the Company's operating account to make payments when due. The Due from related parties balance of $2,085,666 at December 31, 2024, reflect $4,488,066 of cash swept to the parent company as part of the pooling arrangement at the end of the period, net of $2,533,433 in amounts due to the parent company and its subsidiaries.

These balances are unsecured, due on demand, and non-interest bearing and therefore have been classified as current on the accompanying balance sheets as of December 31, 2024, 2023 and 2022.

E. Risks and Uncertainties

Uninsured Cash

Cash and cash equivalents include amounts on deposit with financial institutions and investments with maturities of 90 days or less. The Company maintains funds on deposit at banks, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses on such deposits. As of December 31, 2024 and 2023, the Company did not hold any cash equivalents or restricted cash.

F. Subsequent Events

On November 25, 2024, the Company's ultimate parent, At World Properties Holding, LLC ("AWPH") entered into a Merger Agreement with Compass, Inc. ("Compass"), a Delaware corporation, which closed on January 13, 2025. Per the agreement, Compass acquired all of the issued and outstanding equity securities of AWPH and its subsidiaries.

Management has evaluated subsequent events through April 11, 2025, the date that these financial statements were available to be issued. Management has determined that no events or transactions, other than the events described above, have occurred subsequent to the balance sheet date that require disclosure in the financial statements.
