How to Use This Franchise Disclosure Document

Here are some questions you may be asking about buying a franchise and tips on how to find more information:

QUESTION	WHERE TO FIND INFORMATION
How much can I earn?	Item 19 may give you information about outlet sales, costs, profits or losses. You should also try to obtain this information from others, like current and former franchisees. You can find their names and contact information in Item 20 or Exhibit H and I.
How much will I need to invest?	Items 5 and 6 list fees you will be paying to the franchisor or at the franchisor's direction. Item 7 lists the initial investment to open. Item 8 describes the suppliers you must use.
Does the franchisor have the financial ability to provide support to my business?	Item 21 or Exhibit G includes financial statements. Review these statements carefully.
Is the franchise system stable, growing, or shrinking?	Item 20 summarizes the recent history of the number of company-owned and franchised outlets.
Will my business be the only TemperaturePro business in my area?	Item 12 and the "territory" provisions in the franchise agreement describe whether the franchisor and other franchisees can compete with you.
Does the franchisor have a troubled legal history?	Items 3 and 4 tell you whether the franchisor or its management have been involved in material litigation or bankruptcy proceedings.
What's it like to be TemperaturePro franchisee?	Item 20 or Exhibit H and I lists current and former franchisees. You can contact them to ask about their experiences.
What else should I know?	These questions are only a few things you should look for. Review all 23 Items and all Exhibits in this disclosure document to better understand this franchise opportunity. See the table of contents.

What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Louisiana. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Louisiana than in your own state.
2. Financial Condition. The Franchisor's financial condition as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21) calls into question the Franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.
3. Supplier Control. You must purchase all or nearly all of the inventory or supplies that are necessary to operate your business from the franchisor, its affiliates, or suppliers that the franchisor designates, at prices the franchisor or they set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchise business.
4. High Turnover Rate. During the last 3 years, a large number of franchised outlets (183), which is over 60% of the number of franchised outlets that were operating at the beginning of 2020, were terminated or ceased operations for other reasons. This franchise could be a higher risk investment than a franchise in a system with a lower turnover rate.
5. Previous Experience Required. The training program provided by the franchisor (see Item 11) is not designed to provide the knowledge and skills that will be necessary to operate the franchise business. Franchisees will either need to possess the additional knowledge and skills themselves, or hire employees that possess the knowledge and skills, to be able to perform and provide the franchise's services professionally and safely.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

Notes:

- (1) This table describes the initial investment by expense category, which you should expect to expend in connection with the operation of a franchise before commencement of the business and for at least a 6-month period thereafter. With the exception of the initial franchise fee, all the expenses listed are estimates only. These expenses are expressed as a range from a projected low amount to a projected high amount. The projected low amount assumes that you will employ 1 TemperaturePro Technician in a franchise area having a population of about 500,000 and the projected maximum amount assumes that you will employ 5 TemperaturePro Technicians. The number of technician's required, and actual costs may vary for many reasons, including, for example, the geographic size of your franchise area, your call volume or logistical consideration. All fees are non-refundable.
- (2) Initial Franchise Fee. The initial franchise fee, $147,500 is based upon a population of 500,000. Franchises are granted for a minimum territory population of 500,000. It is not refundable for any reason.
- (3) Printed Marketing Materials. ~~You must purchase invoices ("Work Orders") from a Franchisor approved provider before the commencement of operations. In addition, you must purchase other printed materials including business cards, yard signs, door hangers, various promotional materials, and the like.~~ you must purchase invoices ("Work Orders") from a Franchisor approved provider before the commencement of operations. In addition, you must purchase other printed materials including business cards, letterhead, envelopes, coupons, and the like.
- (4) HVAC Service.

1 The Franchisor does not finance part of the initial investment, nor does any affiliate.

Vehicle and Business Equipment-Tools: In addition, you must equip the HVAC technician with a fully loaded HVAC truck, equipment, and inventory. We estimate that the vehicle and equipment costs for one technician will be ~~$60~~$75,000. The actual costs will vary and depend on the degree of complexity of this service for your franchise, as we may occasionally permit you to perform HVAC services to a lesser degree or with a reduced inventory of machines, tools, equipment, supplies or stock so long as we are informed of exactly what services are to be rendered, what material resources will be available and what level of training the service provider has achieved and we give prior approval of the arrangement. (The average franchisee will spend approximately ~~$60~~$75,000 for their vehicle and HVAC equipment.) You must use the Licensed Marks, including all service marks under Pending Applications, in full compliance with rules prescribed by us. For any such pending applications for unregistered marks for which we do not have federal registrations for, these principal marks do not have many legal benefits and rights as a federally registered trademark.

In addition, you must acknowledge our ownership rights in the Licensed Marks and agree not to use any of the Licensed Marks in a confusingly similar manner in your own corporate or business name.

There are no agreements currently in effect that significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of the Licensed Marks in any manner material to the franchise.

In the event of any infringement of, or challenge to, your use of any Licensed Mark, you are obligated to immediately notify us. We will have sole discretion to take such action as we deem appropriate. In the event we take any action to prosecute or defend an infringement action, at our request you must assist us in any manner deemed reasonable and necessary, at our expense. We are not obligated, however, to defend or indemnify you against a claim arising from your use of the Licensed Marks.

Franchisor and franchisee have the right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed by franchisor to franchisee because both Franchisor and franchisee can incur business and reputation losses that they want to pursue.

Under the Franchise Agreement, we reserve the right, in our sole discretion, to modify or designate new Licensed Marks (including discontinuance of existing Licensed Marks). In that event, you will be required to use the modified or new Licensed Marks at your expense. Any expenses or costs associated with the use by Franchisee of any such new, modified, or replacement Licensed Marks shall be the sole responsibility of the Franchisee.

A list of the names of all franchisees and their addresses and telephone numbers are listed on Exhibit H to this Disclosure Document. A list of the names, city and state, and last known telephone numbers of every franchisee who has had their franchise terminated, canceled, not renewed, or otherwise voluntarily or involuntarily ceased to do business under the Franchise Agreement during fiscal year 202~~4~~³, or who has not communicated with us within 10 weeks of our application date, is attached on Exhibit I.

If you buy this franchise, your contact information may be disclosed to other buyers when you leave the franchise system.

In some instances, current and former franchisees sign provisions restricting their ability to speak openly about their experience with TemperaturePro. You may wish to speak with current and former franchisees but be aware that not all such franchisees will be able to communicate with you.

We do not know of any trademark-specific franchisee organization associated with the franchise system being offered, other than the franchisee “advisory capacity only” advertising council, currently composed of three franchisees that advise us on advertising policies and programs. This franchisee council is not formally incorporated and does not have a separate address and telephone number.

No independent franchisee organization has asked to be included in this Disclosure Document.

The approval by Franchisor of advertising material on one occasion does not mean that it will be approved on every occasion.
- 8.10 Brand Standards. Franchisee must strictly comply with the unified brand standards guide.
- 8.11 National Accounts. Franchisor shall have the right to enter into service contracts with agencies and departments of the ~~f~~Federal, ~~s~~State and ~~L~~Local ~~g~~Governments, regional, national and international industries and institutions and other regional, national and international accounts (herein collectively referred to as "National Accounts") requiring the availability to such National Accounts of Authorized Services and Required Services. Franchisor reserves the right to assign service duties for regional or national accounts in unfranchised areas to whomever it sees fit, including existing TemperaturePro ~~f~~Franchisees, be they in contiguous area, non-contiguous areas or even to non-franchised providers that best meet the needs of the system.

In the event the Franchised Business is included in Franchisee's personal tax returns, Franchisee shall provide full and complete copies of such personal tax returns to Franchisor upon request. Franchisor shall keep all such information confidential. In the event the Franchised Business is included in a “consolidated” tax return filed by the Franchisee which includes other businesses owned by the Franchisee, Franchisee agrees to provide Franchisor with all pertinent data and information related to the Franchised Business, the same as if an individual tax return had been prepared for the Franchised Business.

10.00 COVENANTS

- 10.01 Efforts of Franchisee. Franchisee, through training and otherwise, will familiarize himself thoroughly with the standards and methods of operation of the TemperaturePro System. Franchisee will render assistance to and cooperate with Franchisor and other Franchisees as may reasonably be required to carry out the intents and purposes of this Agreement and to maximize sales under the Licensed Marks. Franchisor makes no representations regarding any activities or services to be engaged in or provided by Franchisor, except as expressly provided herein.
- 10.02 Non-Competition. During the term of this Agreement, Franchisee, and each Guarantor hereof, covenants not to engage as an employee, owner, operator, or in any managerial or consulting capacity in any business which engages in or offers HVAC services, or any other similar or Additional authorized or Required Services made part of the TemperaturePro System other than as an authorized TemperaturePro Franchisee. Further, in the event this Agreement is terminated, expires, or is not renewed, or if Franchisee or any Guarantor assigns or transfers its interest herein to any person or business organization, then in such event Franchisee and any such Guarantor covenants, for a period of two (2) years after such termination, expiration, non-renewal, transfer, or assignment not to engage as an employee, owner, operator, or in any managerial or consulting capacity in any business which engages in or offers HVAC services, or any other similar or Authorized or Required Services part of the TemperaturePro System within a radius of sixty (60) miles of, or in the Franchise Area, a TemperaturePro Franchise, other than as an authorized TemperaturePro System Franchise in another area. Franchisee understands and agrees that the purpose of this covenant is not to deprive Franchisee of a means of livelihood and that complying with this covenant will not do so, but is rather to protect the goodwill, trade secrets, and proprietary nature of the TemperaturePro System.

10.03 Non-Disparagement & Confidentiality. During the term of this Agreement and thereafter, Franchisee and each Guarantor agrees that they shall not disparage or defame Franchisor in any respect. Additionally, during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, Franchisee and each Guarantor covenants not to communicate directly or indirectly, nor to divulge or use for its benefit or the benefit of any other person or legal entity, any trade secrets which are proprietary to Franchisor or any information, knowledge, or know-how deemed confidential under Article 7 hereof, except as permitted by Franchisor. In the event of any termination, expiration or non-renewal of this Agreement, Franchisee agrees that it will never use Franchisor's confidential information, trade secrets, methods of operation, or any proprietary components of the TemperaturePro System in the development or operation of any business which engages in or offers HVAC services, or any other Additional authorized or Required Services made part the TemperaturePro System. Franchisee agrees that if it engages as an employee, owner, operator, or in any managerial or consulting capacity in any such business, it will assume the burden of proving that it has not used Franchisor's confidential information, trade secrets, methods of operation, or any proprietary components of the TemperaturePro System. No conversations can be recorded between Franchisor and Franchisee, any recording is a direct violation of, and a default of the Franchise Agreement.

10.04 Employee Non-Disclosure/Non-Competition Agreements. Franchisee agrees to execute non-disclosure and non-competition agreements, in accordance with the law of the state in which the Franchised Business operates, with each of its employees, which shall prohibit competition by its employees during and for a period of one (1) year after termination of their employment with Franchisee in any business which engages in or offers services similar in nature to the Authorized Services within sixty (60) miles of or in the Franchise Area and which shall further prohibit the employee from (i) disclosing to any other person or legal entity or (ii) using any trade secrets or any other information, knowledge, or know-how deemed confidential by Franchisor concerning the operation of the Franchised Business or the TemperaturePro System. Franchisor shall be a third-party beneficiary of such agreements and, as such, the agreements shall be subject to the prior written approval of Franchisor. Franchisee shall not amend, modify, or terminate any such agreement without Franchisor's prior written consent.

11.00 TRANSFER AND ASSIGNMENT

11.01 Assignment by Franchisee. Franchisee shall not sell, assign, transfer, pledge, or convey any interest in the Franchise Agreement or the Franchised Business without the prior written consent of Franchisor. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld provided that any consent to such action may carry with it terms and conditions prescribed by the Franchisor, including, without limitation, the following conditions:

- (i) Franchisee's assignee shall assume all the duties, obligations, and liabilities of Franchisee to Franchisor and shall have executed the then-current form of Franchise

Franchisee may assign, without penalty and without the payment of any transfer fee to the Franchisor, this Agreement to a corporation or other legal entity which it may own or form in the future, provided only that Franchisee shall at all times remain in control of and own all of the outstanding stock in said corporation and act as the principal officer(s) and director(s) thereof. The Franchisee shall be and remain, together with the corporation and its shareholders, jointly and severally liable for all obligations under this Agreement and for all breaches thereof. The corporation shall execute a then-current form of Franchise Agreement and each shareholder shall execute a written guaranty by which each personally guarantees the performance of all obligations under this Agreement.

11.04 Franchisor's Right of First Refusal. If Franchisee desires to sell or assign its rights under this Agreement for value, Franchisee shall first notify Franchisor in writing of such intention and offer to sell such rights to Franchisor upon the terms and conditions set forth in such notice, which shall be at least as favorable as those offered by a bona fide third party (and such notice shall include a copy of such third party offer), net of any business brokerage commissions. If Franchisor declines or fails to accept the offer within 30 days of receipt, Franchisee may sell or assign the Franchise to such bona fide third party based upon the terms of said offer, provided that all applicable requirements of Article 11 hereof are satisfied.

11.05 Death or Incapacity of Franchisee. In the event of the death or mental incompetence of a sole proprietor or partner Franchisee, the executor, administrator, or personal representative of the Franchisee may transfer the rights under this Agreement to Franchisee's heirs, legatees, or successors, provided only that such heirs, legatees, or successors meet the then-current qualifications required of a TemperaturePro Franchisee and further provided that such heirs, legatees, or successors agree in writing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. If not, the executor, administrator, or personal representative of the Franchisee shall have a period of three (3) months following the failure to qualify to sell the deceased's interest in the Franchise Agreement to an assignee acceptable to Franchisor as provided in Article 11.01. If such a sale is not concluded within that period, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement. Franchisor shall have the right, but not the obligation, to manage/operate Franchisee's Franchised Business, for reasonable costs and management fee, until a qualified Franchisee and manager owns and operates the Franchised Business

12.00 DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

12.01 Immediate Termination. Franchisor shall have the right to terminate this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder immediately upon written notice to Franchisee without opportunity to cure for the following reasons:

- (i) If Franchisee transfers any rights or obligations arising from this Franchise Agreement to any third party without Franchisor's prior written consent.
- (ii) If the Franchisee or the Franchised Business is declared bankrupt or judicially determined to be insolvent, or all or a substantial part of the assets thereof are assigned to or for the benefit of any creditor, or the Franchisee admits or by other actions evidences its inability to pay its debts as they come due;
- (iii) If the Franchisor and Franchisee agree in writing to terminate this Agreement;
- (iv) If Franchisee fails to commence the operation of the Franchised Business on the date and as directed by Franchisor, abandons the Franchised Business or ceases to actively remain open for business for seven (7) consecutive days, or any shorter period after which it is reasonable under the facts and circumstances for Franchisor to conclude that Franchisee does not intend to continue to operate the Franchised Business or provide all of the Required or Additional Required Services;
- (v) If the Franchisee is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have committed an offense which damages the goodwill associated with the Licensed Marks or the TemperaturePro System;
- (vi) If the Franchisee makes any materially false statements or reports to the Franchisor in connection with the Franchise Agreement or the application thereto;
- (vii) If on more than two (2) occasions within any consecutive twelve (12) month period during the term of this Agreement, Franchisee has been in default of its payment obligations under Article 4.01 and 4.02, or its reporting obligations under Article 9.02 of this Agreement; or
- (viii) If on more than two (2) occasions within any consecutive twelve (12) month period during the term of this Agreement, Franchisee is found to be in repeated violation of other material compliance requirements specified in this Agreement (Including, but not limited to, Articles 8.01, 8.03, 9.05, and complete compliance with the uniform and vehicle identification standards set forth in the Operations Manual).

In the event that Franchisee shall claim that Franchisor has failed to meet any obligation under this Agreement, Franchisee shall provide Franchisor with written notice of such claim, within one (1) year of its occurrence, specifically enumerating all alleged deficiencies and providing Franchisor with an opportunity to cure, which shall in no event be less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days from the date of receipt of such notice by Franchisor from Franchisee. Failure to give such notice shall constitute a waiver of any such alleged default.

12.04 Conformity with State Law. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article 12.00, if any valid, applicable law or regulation of a competent governmental authority having jurisdiction over the franchise and the parties to this Agreement shall limit the Franchisor's rights of termination or shall require longer notice periods than those set forth above, the Franchise Agreement is deemed amended to conform to such rules and regulations.

- 16.02 Waiver Provision. 2. This addendum to the Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act, §§ 19-28.1-1 through 19-28.1-34, are met independently without reference to this addendum to the Disclosure Document.

Washington Disclosure

In recognition of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act is located at Wash. Rev. Code §§ 19.100.010 to 19.100.940, the Franchise Disclosure Document for SystemForward America, LLC in connection with the offer and sale of franchises for use in the State of Washington shall be amended to include the following:

1. Item 17, “Renewal, Termination, Transfer and Dispute Resolution,” shall be amended by the addition of the following paragraphs at the conclusion of the Item:

The state of Washington has a statute, RCW 19.100.180, which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Use of Franchise Brokers. The franchisor may use the services of franchise brokers to assist it in selling franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. Do not rely only on the information provided by a franchise broker about a franchise. Do your own investigation by contacting the franchisor's current and former franchisees to ask them about their experience with the franchisor.

2. Each provision of this addendum to the Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, is located at Wash. Rev. Code §§ 19.100.110 to 19.100.940, are met independently without reference to this addendum to the Disclosure Document..

4. Section 11.01, under the heading “Transfer and Assignment,” is deleted in its entirety, and shall have no force or effect; and the following paragraph shall be substituted in lieu thereof:

(v) Franchisee must execute a general release of all claims, if any, it may have or believes it may have against Franchisor, excluding only such claims as the transferor may have under the Minnesota Franchises Law and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder by the Minnesota Commissioner of Commerce.

5. Section 11.00 of the Agreement, under the heading “Transfer and Assignment,” shall be supplemented by the addition of the following new paragraph 11.06:

New York Franchise Agreement Amendment

In recognition of the requirements of the New York General Business Law, Article 33, Sections 680 through 695, and of the regulations promulgated thereunder (N.Y. Comp. Code R. & Regs., tit. 13, §§ 200.1 through 201.16), the parties to the attached SystemForward America, LLC Franchise Agreement (the “Agreement”) agree as follows:

1. Section 11.01, under the heading “Transfer and Assignment,” is deleted in its entirety, and shall have no force or effect; and the following paragraph shall be substituted in lieu thereof:

(v) Franchisee must execute a general release of all claims, if any, it may have or believes it may have against Franchisor, provided, however, that all rights enjoyed by the transferor and any causes of action arising in its favor from the provisions of New York General Business Law Sections 680-695 and the regulations issued thereunder, shall remain in force; it being the intent of this provision that the non-waiver provisions of N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law Sections 687.4 and 687.5 be satisfied.

2. Section 18.00 of the Agreement, under the heading “Governing Law and Dispute Resolution,” shall be supplemented by the addition of the following language:

Nothing in this Agreement should be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon Franchisee by New York General Business Law, Sections 680-695.

3. There are circumstances in which an offering made by SystemForward America, LLC would not fall within the scope of the New York General Business Law, Article 33, such as when the offer and acceptance occurred outside the state of New York. However, an offer or sale is deemed made in New York if Franchisee is domiciled in or the franchise will be opening in New York. SystemForward America, LLC is required to furnish a New York prospectus to every prospective franchisee who is protected under the New York General Business Law, Article 33.

Washington Franchise Agreement Amendment

In recognition of the requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Wash. Rev. Code §§ 19.100.010 through 19.100.940, the parties to the attached SystemForward America, LLC Franchise Agreement agree as follows:

1. The state of Washington has a statute, RCW 19.100.180, which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.
2. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
3. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW shall prevail.
4. A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
5. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
6. Each provision of this amendment shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Wash. Rev. Code §§ 19.100.010 through 19.100.940, are met independently without reference to this amendment.
7. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

8. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
