What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or to a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other state law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit G.

Your state may also have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires that most disputes with us be submitted to arbitration and litigation in Orange County, California. Out-of-state arbitration or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to arbitration or litigate with us in California than in your home state.

Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement, even if your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets (perhaps including your house) at risk if your franchise fails.

Supplier Control. You must purchase all or nearly all of the inventory or supplies that are necessary to operate your business from us, our affiliates or suppliers that we designate, at prices that we or the supplier set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchise business.

Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty payments and advertising contributions regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make these payments may result in termination of your franchise agreement and loss of your investment.

Financial Condition Statements. The franchisor's financial condition, as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21, exhibit C), calls into question the franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.

Unopened Franchises. ~~The franchisor has signed a significant number of franchise agreements with franchisees who have not yet opened their outlets. If other franchisees are experiencing delays in opening their outlets, you also may experience delays in opening your own outlet.~~

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

THE FOLLOWING APPLY TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW ONLY

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

(a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.

(b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in the Michigan Franchise Investment Act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.

(c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.

(d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.

(e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.

(f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.

(g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

(i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.

(ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000, the franchisor shall, at the request of a franchisee, arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENFORCEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

We also offer and sell optional “mastermind” business coaching services to Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees. You are not permitted to sell any Fit Body Boot Camp Products in connection with the Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp—Business. The services and products you are authorized or required to offer and sell under the Franchise Agreement are referred to as the “Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products.”

Area Development Agreement

In addition to our single-unit offering, we grant qualified individuals the right to own and operate three (3) Fit Body Boot Camp Businesses through an Area Development Agreement (the “ADA”). If you sign an ADA, you are required to develop three (3) Fit Body Boot Camp Franchised Businesses in the area designated in the ADA as the “Development Area” in accordance with the development schedule attached to the ADA (the “Development Schedule”). A copy of the ADA is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit B. You must sign our then-current form of Franchise Agreement before you open each Fit Body Boot Camp Franchised Business. The then-current Franchise Agreement may contain materially different terms as compared to the form of Franchise Agreement attached to this FDD as Exhibit A. A sample release is attached to our Franchise Agreement as Exhibit 3.

General Market for Franchised Products and Services

The general market for the products and services you will offer consists of (i) individuals who reside in close proximity to your Outlet who are interested in engaging in physical fitness training activities remotely, via virtual sessions ; and (ii) individuals who reside in close proximity to your Outlet. The market for fitness services and related products is fully developed, does not involve sale primarily to a certain group and is not seasonal.

Industry Specific Laws or Regulations

The franchised business is subject to local, state and federal laws, rules and regulations that apply to businesses generally, in addition to laws pertaining to the regulation of fitness centers. The fitness industry is highly regulated. It is your obligation to develop, open and operate the franchised business in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations. You will need a business license and reseller’s permit, and you must comply with federal, state and local laws applicable to the operation and licensing of a physical fitness and organized exercise business, including obtaining all applicable licenses, permits, inspections and approvals by any applicable municipal, county or state agencies that regulate physical fitness and organized exercise operations. If your Outlet is in a jurisdiction (such as the District of Columbia or the states of Georgia, Maryland, New York, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Texas or Utah) with laws regulating and licensing “health spas” (defined as businesses which sell memberships in facilities providing physical exercise programs), you will need to comply with these laws. State laws and regulations may require registration with the state and filing of a corporate surety bond or letter of credit and may regulate the language of your Outlet membership agreements. Your Outlet must meet applicable municipal, county, state and federal handicap access codes. You are also subject to employment laws such as the Fair Labor Standards Act and various state laws governing matters including minimum wages, overtime and working conditions. These laws, rules and regulations may change over time. We strongly suggest that you consult with an attorney, consultant and/or financial advisor regarding all laws and regulations applicable to your Outlet before you buy a franchise from us.

Competition

This market is well developed and highly competitive. There are various independent and national fitness chains in operation and developing throughout the country. All Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees will compete with fitness centers, health clubs and other retail businesses that offer services and products comparable to the Franchised Business and Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products. The market can change based on local, regional and national economic conditions, changes in consumer tastes and increases in the number and types of personal fitness facilities.

Prior Experience of Franchisor, Predecessors and Affiliates

We have been operating since March 2011 and we began offering Fit Body Boot Camp franchises in October 2011. We have not previously offered franchises providing the type of business you will operate. Nor have we ever offered franchises in other lines of business.

The Fit Body Boot Camp concept was developed in Chino Hills, California by Bedros Keuilian, and a business partner who is no longer associated with us. Between 2009 and 2011, our affiliate FMM, formerly known (until March 2, 2011) as Fit Body Boot Camp, LLC, conducted a business equivalent to the business you will be providing. Since 2001, Bedros Keuilian has trained and coached individuals and entities in fitness techniques that are equivalent to those that are used by Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees. Some of these individuals and entities were licensed by our affiliate, FMM, to use the name “Fit Body Boot Camp” on a royalty free basis, but they were not licensed to engage in their business under a marketing plan or system prescribed in substantial part by FMM.

FMM has not previously offered franchises providing the type of business you will operate or in other lines of businesses.

ITEM 3: LITIGATION

In March 2014, we entered into a franchise agreement with a resident of Rhode Island for an Outlet to be operated in Providence, Rhode Island. At the time of the sale, our franchise was neither registered in Rhode Island nor exempt from registration. When we filed our initial franchise registration in Rhode Island in July 2016, we were asked by the examiner about this unregistered sale. In August 2016, we told the regulator we had inadvertently made an unregistered sale to a Rhode Island franchisee and we would promptly offer rescission, pay any monetary penalties and undertake not to make any future sales of franchises in Rhode Island that had not been registered or exempt from registration in that state. On September 6, 2016, the Rhode Island Department of Business Regulation (“RIDBR”) issued a Consent Order Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Actions In the Matter of Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc. Respondent (a regulatory action brought by the RIDBR, File No. FR.9900509), in reaction to an Admission and Offer of Settlement Order under Section 18 of the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act, Section 19-28.1, et. seq., of the Rhode Island General Laws. Under the terms of the Consent Order Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Actions, we made a rescission offer to one Rhode Island Fit Body Boot Camp franchisee, agreed not to violate the Rhode Island Retail Franchising Act in the future and paid to the RIDBR $4,000 in monetary penalties. The Rhode Island franchisee elected to decline the rescission offer. On September 19, 2016, the RIDBR issued its Final Order (i) acknowledging that Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc. had fulfilled its obligations under the Settlement Order and (ii) dismissing the matter.

Through our designated reporting software, we may have direct access to your financial information, including Gross Revenue information. Under the terms of the Franchise Agreement, we have the right to continuous, unrestricted access to your financial information, including all data and financial reports and we have the right to use any or all of this information for any purpose we deem appropriate, including in connection with Financial Performance Representations including in Item 19 of our franchise disclosure documents. If we change the method through which we collect financial information, we have the right to require you to prepare and send us Gross Revenues Reports (the “Gross Revenue Reports”) in the manner and frequency we designate.

Note 3. All payments, unless we designate otherwise, are processed through an electronic funds transfer system (“EFT”). You must sign and deliver to us and our designees all of the documents, forms and information we require to authorize automatic payments to us for the Royalty, Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution, Software Reimbursement Fees and other amounts due under the Franchise Agreement and any related agreement (the “Recurring Fees”). You must instruct and authorize the commercial billing service to credit and transfer to our bank account the Recurring Fees, and all other fees you are required to pay to us under the Franchise Agreement. You are obligated to sign any and all consents and agreements we or our designee requires to implement our designated payment method. We reserve the right to change this payment method at any time, effective on 30 days’ prior written notice to you, and we may require you to pay the Recurring Fees through any method and manner we designate. You must allow the POS provider and any commercial billing service provider to grant us access to all of your records, including databases and receivables. We will have full access to all of your data, system and related information by means of direct access, whether in person or by telephone/modem installed and maintained at your sole cost and expense. If you pay any ongoing fees, including, without limitation, the Royalty Fee, Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution, and/or Software Reimbursement Fees with a credit card, you will be responsible for paying our designated processing fees, which fees are currently set at 3%.

Note 4. If any payment is not paid when due, you must pay interest on the unpaid amount at an APR of 18% (or the highest rate permitted in your state, if that is lower), and you must reimburse us immediately upon demand for all reasonable costs of collection relating to delinquent amounts, including court costs, investigator fees, expert witness fees and attorneys’ fees. Interest begins to accrue from the date payment was due.

Note 5. These fees are subject to adjustment based on changes since the effective date of the Franchise Agreement in the annual average of the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (“CPI”), published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor, or the highest similar future index if these figures become unavailable.

The above table reflects the estimated initial investment to commence operation of the Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp Business, as well as the subsequent opening of the physical Outlet for the Fit Body Boot Camp franchised location, based on our current model and updated standards and specifications in effect as of the issuance date of this disclosure document. You will commence operation of the Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp Business after you complete the initial training program.

(1) The Initial Franchise Fee is $54,600—USD and is described in greater detail in Item 5 of this Franchise Disclosure Document. This fee is fully earned and non-refundable upon payment.

(2)As of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document, the initial training program for the Fit Body Boot Camp—Business is conducted both in person and remotely. The in-person training will either be held in California or Michigan, based on the month you attend. After you commence operation of the Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp—Business, you will complete the training program for the operation of the physical Outlet. The range in the chart is based upon two persons attending the initial training program in Chino Hills, California or at a designated Fit Body Boot Camp® location, as we designate. This range increases if you choose—to bring additional persons to attend the initial training program.

(3) You are encouraged to work with an attorney or other professional lease negotiator to negotiate the terms of your lease agreement. This includes estimates for fees paid to an attorney or lease negotiator in connection with lease negotiation services.

(2)(4) This includes estimates for security deposits payable under your lease agreement when you sign your lease.

(5) You must operate the retail Outlet in a stand-alone facility that can either be a free-standing building or an in-line located in a retail strip center. Our current model requires a facility with a minimum of 2,500—square feet and up to 3,500—3,000 square feet. Rent for your training facility will vary based on several factors, including square footage, location and condition of the space and lease arrangements. A security deposit and first month's rent are standard requirements for a commercial lease, but these requirements may vary. The Outlet must conform to our standards and specifications for appearance, layout and design. We may provide you our specifications for construction, remodeling and decorating the Outlet and general floor plans and interior layout and design. You must submit to us for approval all construction and design plans for adapting our specifications to your Location. It is your responsibility to ensure that all design, construction and remodeling work is performed in a competent and professional manner, in accordance with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and codes at your sole cost and expense. The costs Architect fees, permitting fees and other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the design, remodeling, decorating and/or construction of the Outlet will vary greatly depending on a number of factors, including the size and location, as well as the amount of construction or remodeling needed and the prior use of the premises. At our option, you must employ any design, construction and remodeling professionals we designate. The cost of your build-out may be reduced by a Tenant Improvement ("TI") allowance or rebate from the landlord, which varies depending on the terms of each lease agreement. The figures above include the estimates for initial lease deposits, pre-paid rental amounts, and build-out and construction costs. If you obtain financing from a third party for some or all of the construction costs, you will also have to pay interest on the amount borrowed. You are strongly advised to consult with a business advisor to determine a more appropriate estimate of the real estate rental fees, costs and expenses you are likely to incur in the area in which you wish to open a franchised business before you sign the franchise agreement or a lease.

(3)(6) This is an estimate of the costs associated with obtaining necessary business licenses to operate the Outlet. You are strongly encouraged to consult with an attorney or business advisor to determine the required licenses and permits, and costs associated therewith, in the area in which you are looking to open an Outlet as part of your due diligence.

(4)(7) You must purchase and use our designated Computer System and POS System, including the commercial billing service and its supplied computer program. This estimate includes fees related to our software reimbursement of $400—USD per month (which currently includes Fit Pro Newsletter,

(8) You must purchase or lease fixtures, furniture and equipment necessary for the Outlet from our designated suppliers. Leasing these items may significantly reduce your initial investment expense by spreading out the costs over time. The estimate in the table assumes that you purchase, rather than lease, the furniture, fixtures and equipment.

~~(5)~~(9) This figure includes an estimate for purchasing our required initial inventory of the following items: dumbbells, kettlebells, slam balls, resistance bands, AED unit, first aid kit, battling ropes, battling rope mounts, suspension straps and suspension training rig, small cones, speakers, equipment and Plyo-boxes. ~~(9)~~(17) The range of premiums anticipates an annual payment. The currently required minimum coverage and limits of insurance are (i) General Liability at minimum limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence / $3,000,000 annual aggregate, (ii) Auto Liability at minimum limits of $1,000,000 combined single limit covering all owned, hired and non-owned vehicles, (iii) Workers' Compensation to meet the statutory coverage of the state where your Outlet is located; and (iv) employment practices liability insurance. To the extent permissible under law, these insurance requirements may be satisfied with a combination of primary, umbrella and/or excess policies. All insurance policies will name you as named insured and, except for Workers' Compensation policies, will name us and any of our subsidiaries and affiliates of these companies now existing or which may hereafter exist as additional insureds, including their employees, officers and directors on additional insured endorsement forms. All required insurance must be purchased from insurance companies of good reputation with a rating of "A VII" or better by A. M. Best Company. You must provide us with a Certificate of Insurance evidencing this coverage on an ongoing basis. The costs of premiums will vary based on location of the Outlet and any prior claim history.

~~(10)~~(18) You must conduct a Grand Opening Launch advertising and marketing campaign in accordance with our requirements and specifications. If you deviate from our requirements and specifications, in addition to being in default of your obligations under the Franchise Agreement. Your costs may vary depending on the area in which your franchised business is located and the extent of your marketing campaign.

~~(11)~~ Although we do not require minimum funds for you to start your business, there are some expenses you will incur when you begin operation of the Outlet, such as expenses associated with inventory, supplies and employees. It is always a good idea to have sufficient cash reserves available to cover initial operating expenses. The range in the chart estimates the additional funds you will need for your first 3 ~~to 6~~ months of operation. The estimate of additional funds is based on an owner-operated franchised business. It includes payroll costs but does not include any allowance for owner's draws.

(19) We strongly encourage you to reach out to system franchisees to discuss their initial investment expenditure experiences for additional information.

~~(12)~~(20) General Note. This estimates your initial startup expenses. These figures are estimates, and we do not guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting the business. If you are operating an existing fitness facility and converting it to a Fit Body Boot Camp franchised location, or if you are purchasing an existing Fit Body Boot Camp franchised location, you may incur a greater or smaller investment than the estimated disclosed in the chart, depending on the circumstances and the condition of the facility.

All fees and payments due to us or any of our affiliates are non-refundable. The terms you negotiate with outside suppliers or third parties govern the refundability of all payments due to them. We do not finance any part of the initial investment. This estimate is based on the experience of our affiliates, certain franchised outlets, and principal officers in opening and operating Outlets. We strongly encourage you to reach out to system franchisees to discuss their initial investment expenditures for additional information and to review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase the franchise, as system franchisees do not always share their investment cost experiences with us.

We have the right to change our designations, including supplier designations, at any time.

We communicate these requirements and changes to you through the Manual or other written communications. We anticipate that our standards and specifications will change over time and you will be required to adhere to these changes. You may incur increased costs and expenses to comply with these changes.

You may only offer and sell the services and goods we designate or otherwise approve in writing, and only in the format and manner we authorize or designate. You must offer and participate in all programs, including promotional programs, we designate at your sole cost and expense. You are responsible for all ongoing maintenance and repairs and upgrades. Currently, you must pay us a monthly Software Reimbursement to cover the ongoing costs of the POS system and other designated software and technology programs. We reserve the right to require you to pay these fees directly to the POS system provider or our designee at any time in the future effective on written notice to you.

The supplier or distributor must also provide us with any information we request in order to analyze the supplier's or distributor's suitability, and the composition and conformity of the product and/or service to our standards and specifications. We will have the right to require our representative to be permitted to inspect the supplier's facility and samples from the supplier to be delivered for evaluation and testing, either to us or to an independent testing facility we designate. You must pay us an evaluation and testing fee of $1,500 USD. Our criteria for supplier approvals have been developed by us, our affiliates and/or principals through the expenditure of extensive work and time and are considered confidential information. Therefore, we do not make our standards and specifications or our other criteria for supplier or distributor approval available to our franchisees or suppliers. Within approximately 30 days after our receipt of the completed request, all information we require, and completion of the evaluation and testing (if required by us), we will notify you in writing of our approval or disapproval of the proposed supplier. Approval of a proposed supplier may be conditioned on meeting criteria we determine, including performance relating to frequency of delivery, standards of service, and payment or other consideration to us or parties designated by us. You or the proposed supplier will be responsible for all costs and expenses associated with the testing and approval process. As disclosed above, we may, at any time, terminate or withhold approval of any products or services, or any supplier of such items, on written notice to you.

You must not use in your Outlet, provide, display, sell or offer for sale any products or services from a proposed supplier until you receive our written approval of the proposed supplier and of the proposed product or service, as applicable. We may revoke our approval of specific products, services or suppliers at any time in our sole discretion, including if we determine in our sole discretion the products, services or suppliers no longer meet our standards. We may also consider the impact of an additional supplier (and consequent reductions in supplier volume and increase in distribution expense) on the overall supply chain being utilized by the system.

Upon receipt of written notice of such revocation, you must cease purchasing or selling any disapproved product or service, as applicable.

Issuance of Specifications and Standards

We issue specifications and standards regarding authorized Fit Body Services and Products to franchisees through the Manual and other communications in writing or by email. We also issue specifications and standards regarding authorized Fit Body Services and Products to our designated and approved suppliers in writing or by email. We may modify these specifications and standards at any time but only after delivering written notification of the modifications and providing System franchisees or suppliers a reasonable amount of time, which need not be more than 30 days, to implement the modifications.

You must obtain and maintain insurance coverage according to our specifications, as disclosed in more detail in Items 7 and 11. All marketing and promotional materials must be approved by us in writing before use. You must find a site that meets our standards and specifications for each Outlet you develop.

This income may be derived in any form, including as a rebate from various suppliers based on the quantity of System franchisee purchases. These amounts and considerations are subject to change without restriction. We and our affiliates may use these benefits for any purpose we deem appropriate. We and our affiliates are not obligated to remit any benefits to you and reserve the right to retain all such benefits. We and our affiliates may charge a mark-up on any products and/or services sold or leased to you by us and/or our affiliates and/or any system supplier. Cooperatives; Purchasing Programs

We may establish national or regional purchasing programs for the purpose of negotiating purchases of certain products and/or services from approved or designated suppliers. The purchasing programs may (but are not required to) benefit you by reducing prices, increasing reliability in supply, improving distribution, establishing consistent pricing for reasonable periods and to avoid market fluctuations. If a national and/or regional purchasing program is established for the region where your Outlet is located, you must participate in the program. In the future we may negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers of products for the benefit of franchisees.

We negotiated an arrangement with the System suppliers of body composition analyzers, nutrition application services, branded fitness equipment and supplements under which the suppliers pay us rebates ranging from 5% to 10% of the invoice price. We reserve the right to modify these arrangements and amounts paid to us at any time without restriction.

Except as disclosed in this Item, as of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document, we have not established any purchasing arrangements with designated suppliers and do not currently receive payments on the basis of required franchisee purchases. ITEM 11: FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS AND TRAINING Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

Franchise Agreement

Our Pre-Opening Obligations and Assistance

Before you commence operation of the Virtual Fit Body—Business, we will do the following:

- (1) Provide you with an online initial training program designed to train you to operate the Virtual Fit Body—Business; and
- (2) Will provide to you, on loan, one copy of the confidential Manual (see section 8.2 of the Franchise Agreement). We may provide this copy electronically, including through email or intranet access, or any other method we designate.

Before you open your physical Outlet, we will do the following:

- (1) Designate your franchise territory (see section 3.1 and Exhibit 1 of the Franchise Agreement).
- (2) Provide your Initial Training Team (as defined below) with our then-current initial training program for the physical Outlet at the place we designate (see section 6.1 of the Franchise Agreement and the Training Program described below in this Item 11). Your Initial Training Team must successfully complete initial training to our satisfaction before you can open your Outlet.
- (3) Provide you with a sample general plan for a prototypical layout at your request; furnishing and equipping of your Outlet (see section 7.2(a) of the Franchise Agreement). You must, at your expense, adapt the suggested specifications to the Outlet premises and construct and build-out the Outlet in accordance with our standards and specifications and all applicable laws, rules and regulations. You must perform all necessary construction of the Outlet and you must purchase and install all fixtures, equipment and signs designated by us at your expense. Regarding necessary equipment, signs, fixtures, opening inventory and supplies, we do not provide any of these items directly nor do we deliver or install these items, but we do provide the names of approved suppliers of these items and we do provide written specifications for these items.
- (4) Provide you with site selection guidelines and communicate our acceptance or rejection of your proposed site for your Outlet (see section 7.2(b) of the Franchise Agreement). You and your landlord may be required to complete and sign a rider or addendum to the lease that: (i) restricts the use of the premises solely to the operation of the franchised Outlet; (ii) prohibits you from subleasing or assigning all or any part of your rights or extending the term of or renewing the lease agreement without our prior consent; (iii) provides us with the right to enter the premises to make modifications necessary to protect the marks or the System, or to cure any default under your Franchise Agreement or the lease agreement; (iv) grants us an option to assume your position as lessee under the lease for the Outlet premises if you are in material default of either the lease for the Outlet premises (including an obligation of the landlord to notify us if you are in default) or the Franchise Agreement; (v) requires the landlord to fully cooperate with us in completing de-identification of the Outlet if the Franchise Agreement is terminated or expires without being renewed; and (vi) includes any other provision we believe is necessary to protect our interests. You have 90 days after signing the Franchise Agreement to locate an acceptable site for your Outlet. We will notify you of our consent to or disapproval of the proposed site for your Outlet within 10 business days after you have identified this location to us. If you are unable to locate an acceptable site within 90 days after signing the Franchise Agreement or opened the Outlet within ~~180~~270 days after signing the Franchise Agreement, we can cancel the Franchise Agreement (see section 7.2(a) of the Franchise Agreement). The factors that we consider in consenting to a site for the Outlet include general location and neighborhood, traffic patterns, parking, size, physical characteristics of existing buildings and lease or rental terms. We do not typically own and lease to you the premises on which the Outlet will be located. We do not assist you in conforming the premises of the Outlet to local ordinances and building codes or obtaining any required permits.

Length of Time to Open the Outlet

We estimate the typical length of time between the signing of the Franchise Agreement and the opening of your Outlet will be approximately ~~180~~215 days. Factors that may affect this length of time include the satisfactory completion of initial training by your designated attendees, location of an acceptable site, ability to obtain an appropriate lease, financing arrangements, compliance with zoning and local ordinances, weather conditions, shortages, the contractor's ability to complete construction of the Outlet, and delivery and installation of equipment, fixtures and signs. If you have not located a site for your Outlet that is acceptable to us within 90 days after the effective date of your Franchise Agreement (required by section 7.1(a) of the Franchise Agreement), we may cancel the Franchise Agreement. If we do so, we are not obligated to refund your Franchise Fee or any other amounts you have paid us up to the date of cancellation.

Our Obligations during the Operation of the Franchise

During the operation of the Franchised Business, we:

(1) Will provide you with access to, and integrate information about your physical Outlet into, the Fit Body Boot Camp website (see section 6.2 of the Franchise Agreement).

(2) Will be reasonably available by phone and e-mail for guidance to provide you with advisory assistance in the operation of your Outlet (see section 6.2 of the Franchise Agreement). We do not provide you with assistance in hiring, supervising or discharging employees and we do not exercise direct or indirect control over your employment practices. It is entirely your responsibility to handle employment matters and you are strongly advised to consult with an employment attorney to advise you on appropriate and legally compliant employment practices.

(3) May visit you periodically to provide additional sales and administrative review and assistance. If you request additional assistance and we agree to provide it, you must reimburse us for the cost of our representative's transportation and lodging. We may, at our discretion, charge an additional training fee of up to $750 USD per person per day for Fit Body Boot Camp training courses, seminars, conferences or other programs that we require you or your representatives to attend. The nature, frequency and duration of this assistance by our representatives will be in our sole discretion (see section 6.2 of the Franchise Agreement).

(4) Will notify you if the general state of repair, appearance or cleanliness of your Outlet or its fixtures, equipment or signs do not meet our standards, and specify the action you must take to correct the deficiency (see section 8.11 of the Franchise Agreement).

(5) May conduct a system-wide mandatory meeting (or annual convention) not more than once a year (typically no more than 2 days in duration). As of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document, we anticipate offering an annual—system-wide meeting or conference. Attendance of the General Manager at these meetings will be mandatory (and is highly recommended for all your Principal Equity Owners). You must pay the cost of travel, hotel and meal expenses for your attendees at these mandatory meetings (see section 6.3 of the Franchise Agreement). We reserve the right to charge an attendance fee for your attendance at the meetings, which will not exceed $2,000 USD per person. As of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document, the attendance fee is ~~$500~~ 1,000 USD per attendee.

(6) We have no contractual obligation to assist you in establishing prices. However, we may recommend and reserve the right to set minimum and maximum retail prices for Fit Body Services and Products and other products and services we authorize for sale at your Outlet (to enhance uniformity in the delivery of goods and services to retail customers by our franchises and the strength of our Marks in inter-brand competition), and if we do so, you may not advertise or promote (whether by telephone, printed materials or any other media, including, without limitation, social media) retail prices that are inconsistent with these recommended prices.(see section 8.1(c) of the Franchise Agreement).

(7) "The 100 Lives Changed Conditions". You must comply with the 100 Lives Changed Conditions during the period commencing 8 weeks prior to the scheduled Grand Opening Date and ending at the earlier to occur of: (a) the date on which you have 100 clients signed up for the Launch Programs offered by your Franchised Business; or (b) the 12-month anniversary of your Grand Opening Date (the “100 Lives Changed Period”). The “100 Lives Changed Conditions” are as follows: For the duration of the 100 Lives Changed Period, you must: (i) spend at least ~~$100 per day~~ 10,000 on ad spend ~~in accordance with our specifications before your doors are open~~; (ii) participate in every scheduled sales coaching call; (iii) send to us at least one of your recorded sales calls before each of the sales coaching calls; and (iv) you must submit a weekly “sales call scorecard” in the form and manner we designate. Provided that you: (i) are in compliance with your obligations under the Franchise Agreement; and (b) complied with the 100 Lives Changed Conditions during the 8 week period leading up to your scheduled Grand Opening Date, if you do not have 100 clients signed up for the Launch programs offered by your Franchised Business by your Grand Opening Date, then, during the period beginning on the Grand Opening Date and ending on the expiration of the 100 Lives Changed Period, you must spend at least $100 per day on ad spend in accordance with our specifications and we will continue to run social media ads in the form and manner and at the frequency we designate. ~~As set forth above, you will still be responsible for the daily ad spend during this period and for complying with the 100 Lives Changed Conditions until the expiration of 100 Lives Changed Period.~~

Advertising Program for the Franchise System

We are not required to spend any amount on advertising in your area or Territory. You must pay to us or our designee a monthly Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution of $500 USD per month (section 4.3(a) of the Franchise Agreement). Fit Body Boot Camp retail outlets owned by entities affiliated with us (if applicable) will contribute Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution at the same rate that Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees do. While we are not contractually required to spend any Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution in or near your Outlet, we strive to expend amounts in the area near or surrounding your Outlet. None of the Marketing and Promotion Fund Contributions paid to us are refundable at any time, including upon termination or expiration of the Franchise Agreement.

Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution collected from Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees and any earnings on any such fees collected are used to meet the costs of producing, maintaining, administering, directing, conducting, and preparing of national, regional and local advertising, marketing, and related programs, materials and services, including, without limitation, digital and traditional media, public relations services and materials, network advertising, market research, printing costs, and promotional campaigns, and any other activities which we believe will enhance the image of the System. We will determine, in our sole discretion, the cost, form or media, content, format, production and timing, including regional or local concentration and seasonal exposure, location and all other matters involving advertising, public relations and promotional campaigns.

Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution are deposited into a separate bank account. This account will not be subject to audit, and no interest on the amounts on deposit will be imputed for your benefit or paid to you. Administration of the Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution may result in either a surplus or a deficit. In any given year, we may expend an amount that is greater than or less than the aggregate contributions collected during that year. We have the right to borrow from lenders, including from us or affiliated lenders. We or our designee will administer the expenditure of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution and we will have the sole right to determine all aspects of the programs and materials financed by the Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution, including national, regional and/or local media, materials, concepts, sponsorships, endorsements and programs. Without limiting this broad discretion, we may engage third party or related party agencies to administer or otherwise provide services in connection with the expenditure of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution. While our goal is to maximize general brand recognition, awareness and goodwill associated with the Marks for the entire System, we cannot assure you that you or any particular franchisee will benefit directly or pro-rata from any expenditures of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution. We have no obligation to spend any amount on advertising, marketing or promotional activities in your area. We and/or our designee will have the right to receive a fee in administering Marketing and Promotion Fee expenditures of up to 15% of the annual aggregate Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution, and we will have the right to recover our costs and expenses incurred in administering the fund expenditures. Marketing and Promotion Fund Contributions may be used to pay salaries, travel and other expenses of our or our designee's employees whose services are provided in connection with the use, administration, collection and expenditure of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution. We do not act as a trustee or in any other fiduciary capacity.

We intend to use digital media (Internet), social media (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, etc.), and targeted print media in our marketing and advertising efforts, but we are not limited to these types of media. In the future, we may use local radio and television advertising, and we reserve the right to use other media to market and promote the Brand. We may be using in-house advertising personnel to do this, and we may hire advertising and public relations firms to assist us in these efforts.

We may provide general advertising programs and sales promotion, campaign and sample advertising materials. You may develop advertising materials for your own use, at your own cost, however, before you use any such materials, you must provide to us, in advance of use, your proposed materials for our prior approval, which we may grant or deny in our sole discretion. You grant us the right to use the name, image and likeness of you, all Principal Equity Owners and any of your affected employees, for commercial purposes in connection with the marketing and promotion of the Marks, Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products, any Fit Body Boot Camp Outlet and the Fit Body Boot Camp system (see section 9.1(d) of the Franchise Agreement).

We also intend to work with third party promotional companies (e.g., Groupon) to develop New Client Lead Generation Programs to develop new clients for Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees. We may use in-house personnel to set up and administer the New Client Lead Generation Programs and we will incur expenses to do so. We will retain up to 100% of the revenues generated from any New Client Lead Generation Program, including as reimbursement for set up and administrative expenses. You should follow the sales conversion program described in the Manual for new client leads generated from the applicable program to convert leads into new clients of yours, thereby generating additional revenues paid to you from those clients (see section 4.4 of the Franchise Agreement). We may require you to purchase and use our designated or approved suppliers for member and client lead generation and/or lead conversion services. We may disapprove any supplier of these types of services. You are not permitted to purchase any product or service from any disapproved supplier.

During our fiscal year ended December 31, ~~2023~~ 2024, we expended Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution funds as follows: (a) ~~42.29~~6.3% on PR Advertising and Promotional Expenses, (b) ~~128.24~~% on ~~Direct Mail Advertising~~Production, (c) ~~11.13~~ % on Marketing Consultancy, (d) ~~29.41~~ 3.1% on Online and Social Media Marketing, (e) ~~34.73~~ 38.22% on Search Engine Optimization (SEO), (f) ~~11.44~~14.84% on Administrative Fees, (g) ~~05.29~~% of Fund Reserved for ~~2024~~2025.

If we do not expend all Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution collected for one year, the amount remaining would be retained for future advertising, marketing and promotion. If you request in writing in January or February an accounting of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution, we will provide you with an unaudited statement generally describing the annual receipts and expenditures of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution during the calendar year that just ended within 45 days following the completion and issuance of such unaudited statement.

None of the Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution will be used primarily for the solicitation for new franchise sales, although we may generally expend funds to promote the Fit Body Boot Camp brand in such ways, methods and using the media as we may decide in our sole discretion. We reserve the right to include a notation in any and all advertising and materials created through use of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution that indicates franchise opportunities are available.

Advertising Councils

We do currently have a franchisee advisory council that provides us with advisory input on advertising policies. Members are franchisees who ~~either nominate themselves or who are nominated~~ are either nominated or appointed by fellow franchisees, with final appointment by our executive team. The council serves in an advisory capacity only, and we have the right in our sole discretion to dissolve the council.

Advertising Cooperatives

We do not have the right to establish local or regional advertising cooperatives for Fit Body Boot Camp franchised businesses in your local or regional area.

Grand Opening Marketing and Advertising Expenditure Requirement

You must conduct a Grand Opening Launch Campaign in accordance with our standards, specifications and requirements, to promote the opening of your franchised business and you must expend between ~~$5,600~~ $10,000 and ~~$8,000~~ $17,000 in connection with this campaign, as we designate. Within three months after the date you open the Outlet, you must send us evidence as we require to verify your compliance with the Grand Opening Launch Campaign and expenditure requirements. (see section 4.3(c) of the Franchise Agreement).

Local Advertising Requirements

Beginning on the date the Outlet opens for business, we require that you spend each month, $500 on the local advertising and promotion of your Outlet (see section 4.3(d) of the Franchise Agreement).

On a national or regional basis, we may impose an additional assessment on all affected Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees for special advertising or promotional activities if 2/3 of all affected franchised Outlets agree to this additional assessment, confirmed in writing by each franchisee (see section 4.3(e) of the Franchise Agreement).

You may not establish or maintain any website, social media site or presence and/or mobile or internet-based applications (or any comparable future developed technology). We have the right to establish and implement social media guidelines and policies at any time, and we have the right to discontinue, modify and supplement any social media guidelines and policies as we determine in our discretion. You must comply with any and all established social media guidelines and policies, and you are responsible for ensuring that your managers and employees comply with the guidelines and procedures.

Pricing and Promotion Requirements

We reserve the right to require you to offer services, memberships, and products at prices not to exceed the prices we publish from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law. We reserve the right to require you and other System Outlets to offer and participate in all promotions we designate at any time, including charitable promotions, at your sole cost and expense. We may require you to promote and offer one or more awards to challenge winners in accordance with our specifications. You are responsible for ensuring compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

POS System and Computer Hardware and Software Requirements

You must use the web-based management software and electronic cash register system provided by our designated vendor, currently, FitPro Tracker. We reserve the right to change our designated vendor at any time and you will be required to comply with any such changes. Currently, the monthly Software Reimbursement covers FitPro Tracker's current ongoing fees for licensing and support services. This fee currently includes upgrades and system maintenance and technical support. The fees and costs are subject to change and may increase. You must purchase a credit card processor and digital signature pad compliant with the then-current web-based management software system. FitPro Tracker currently provides software support through its helpdesk and software upgrades, which is subject to change in the future. You are responsible for hardware repairs and replacements of components and software that are not covered under warranty. The software licensed by FitPro Tracker is FitPro Tracker's proprietary property. As of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document, the FitPro Tracker POS system is the only approved POS system for use for franchisees purchasing a franchise under this disclosure document, however we reserve the right to change this requirement at any time following the issuance date without restriction.

FitPro Tracker currently maintains customer data for purposes of billing the customers' enrollment and monthly membership fees. We have independent access to this data via the FitPro Tracker system. We have the independent right to access the data on your POS System and Computer System throughout the term of your franchise agreement without restriction. We may use this information for any and all other lawful purposes. There are no contractual limitations on our right to access this data.

In addition to the POS System, you must purchase, use and maintain a Computer System (including all related hardware and software) as specified in the Manual or otherwise by us in writing for use at the Outlet. We anticipate the expense for you to purchase or lease the Computer System and the POS System will be approximately $3,000—. You must always maintain an email account, connect the Computer System to a dedicated telephone line (or other communications medium specified by us), and have access to the Internet via a third-party network designated in the Manual or otherwise by us in writing. We estimate that the annual cost for you to provide maintenance, repairs or updates to the Computer System will not exceed $1,000, but this is just an estimate as these costs are controlled by third parties and factors outside of our control. We have no contractual obligation for maintenance, repairs, updates and upgrades to your Computer System or related hardware and software. If we update the Computer System requirements, we will provide you with written notice of the update requirements and you must incorporate the updates at your sole cost and expense when you receive the notification or within the time period we designate in the notification. You must allow us and/or our designated affiliate independent access to the Computer System on a daily or other basis at such times and in such manner as established by us or our designated affiliate, with or without notice, and to retrieve transaction information including sales, sales mix, usage and other operations data as we or our designated affiliate deems appropriate. You must always have and maintain adequate anti-virus software in any computer you use to communicate with us directly or through our master web site (see section 8.4(b) of the Franchise Agreement).

We may identify and designate additional and/or updated computer software that must be used in the operation of the POS system and/or Computer System. When we do so, you must license or sublicense such software from our _____ designated vendor and enter into a software license agreement on the designated vendor's then-current form (see section 8.4(c) of the Franchise Agreement).

We reserve the right to change the computer system requirements, electronic cash register systems, the POS system and the designated suppliers for any of these items and/or services at any time. We will provide you with advance notice of any required changes. You will not be required to update or replace a POS system any more frequently than once each year.

Regardless of any changes in the computer and/or POS System, we must always have independent access to your POS system and there are no contractual limits on our independent access to the information and data stored on your POS system. You are responsible for all ongoing maintenance and repairs and upgrades.

Brand Standards Manual

We will loan you a copy of our Manual, which may be provided in electronic format. As of the issuance date of this disclosure document, our Manual contains a total of 88 pages (see section 8.2 of the Franchise Agreement). The Manual contains mandatory and suggested specifications, standards and procedures for operation of your Outlet.

* Note: These are estimated hours and we have the right to change the initial training program at any time.
 We may require that all initial training, including Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp—_Business Training, be held in-person, virtually, or through a combination of both virtual and in-person training, at our discretion and as we designate.

As of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document, we offer the initial training program, Fit Body Boot Camp Onsite Experience (“OSE”)——, on a monthly——_basis. The initial training program is typically offered each month in Chino Hills, California, or Berkley, Michigan——. You (if you are a legal entity, one of your Principal Equity Owners) must attend and successfully complete the initial training program that is offered in the calendar quarter immediately following the date you signed the Franchise Agreement. Additionally, one of your managers must, and one of your fitness trainers may, attend a one-day training session on the day we designate during the Fit Body Boot Camp Onsite Experience——. If you bring more than two (2) people to the Fit Body Boot Camp Onsite Experience (and we authorize you to bring such additional attendees), you must purchase a ticket for each additional person at our then-current rates. Except as disclosed in this Item, we do not charge for the initial training program. You must, however, pay for all travel costs, salaries (if applicable) and living expenses for yourself, your manager and your trainers incurred in attending training. These costs (not inclusive of salaries) are estimated in Item 7. You are responsible for training your own employees and management personnel.

You must complete the initial training to our satisfaction. The failure of your Initial Training Team to successfully complete the initial training program may result in the termination of your Franchise Agreement; provided however that if your designated General Manager fails to complete initial training satisfactorily, you will have the option of designating a replacement approved by us to complete initial training. You must then reimburse us for our costs in providing this replacement training plus a training fee of $997—USD per day per person of training.

The instructional materials used in initial training may include content on any platform we designate and may include documents, training videos and webinars, content that may exist on the Fit Body Boot Camp Academy website, and content from the Manual. Live multi day training is provided by Fit Body Boot Camp Business Coaches at a Fit Body location, either in Mission Viejo, California or Berkley, Michigan, as we designate and we reserve the right to provide the training virtually. Our principal Business Coaches are ~~Barret~~Barrett Henson and Bryce Henson. ~~Barret~~Barrett Henson has been with us for ~~6~~—7 years and has ~~10~~—11 years of experience in the industry and Bryce Henson has been with us for ~~7~~—8 years and has ~~13~~—14 years of experience in the industry. The principal Business Coaches are assisted by our operations staff, Coaching and Profitability (CAP) Coaches and other employees.

In addition to the initial training program described above, you will also be required to complete all onboarding training courses in the first 180 days after you sign the Franchise Agreement to review all the initial business and training concepts available on our Fit Body Academy online training platform and in the Manual to support the launch and operations of your Fit Body Boot Camp location, thus completing your Initial Training.

Additional Training

All Fitness Trainers must also obtain and maintain in good standing fitness certifications provided through Fit Body Boot Academy and on-line at www.fitbodybootcamp.learnupon.com. Details and costs of Fit Body Boot Academy courses and fitness certifications are contained in the Manual.

Additional on-site training at your Outlet may be provided when you open your Outlet, subject to our availability. We may provide you with proprietary information and related materials for use in training your staff. These materials are our sole property and must be returned to us when you are finished with them.

We may require you to attend additional training programs or refresher courses in person, or virtually (as we designate), at any time during the term of your Franchise Agreement. Additionally, you can request additional on-site training and/or assistance at any time. We may provide additional training at our option and subject to our availability, but the Franchise Agreement does not require us to do so. We have the right to charge you for additional training we require or that you request. Currently, our additional training fees are assessed on a daily basis at a rate of $750 USD per day per person trained. Additionally, if you decide to attend the additional training at our headquarters, currently Chino Hills, California, or at another training center we designate or approve, you must pay all travel and living expenses for each person you send to the additional training.

Not more often than once each year, we may conduct a system-wide meeting or series of regional meetings to discuss Fit Body Boot Camp business activities or other matters relating to the Franchised Business. We anticipate holding these system-wide meetings or conferences on an annual basis but reserve the right to hold it bi-annually. Attendance of the General Manager at these meetings will be mandatory (and is highly recommended for all your Principal Equity Owners). We may limit the number of your attendees at these meetings. You must pay the cost of travel, hotel and meal expenses for your attendees at these mandatory meetings. We reserve the right to charge a registration fee for your attendance at the annual meeting or convention, which will not exceed $2,000 USD per person. As of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document, the attendance fee is $500 ~~per attendee~~ 1,000 USD for unlimited tickets.

You must pay all the expenses (including transportation costs, meals, lodging and other living expenses) incurred by your trainees who attend the Initial Training Program and any other training, conferences, conventions or other meetings (see sections 6.1(e), 6.2(f) and 6.3 of the Franchise Agreement).

ITEM 12: TERRITORY

Franchise Agreement

Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp ~~Business~~

You are not granted any territory rights or protections in connection with your operation of the Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp ~~Business~~. We have the right to directly or indirectly, including through our affiliates, licensees and other franchisees, to market, promote, offer, sell and provide virtual fitness classes and other products and services through the Internet, remote access media, social media platforms and any other future developed channel without restriction. You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

We may restrict your advertising, promotional and marketing activities relating to the operation of the Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp ~~Business~~ and we may limit your ability to offer Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp ~~Classes~~ to customers residing in your Territory (as defined below). To the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, we may designate minimum and maximum pricing for virtual membership and online training services.

Physical Outlet

Each Franchise granted is for one Outlet only, at a location we approve. We do not select your site, it is your obligation to find and secure a site that meets our standards and specifications, and to obtain our approval of the site and the lease or other agreement to secure the site. Once you secure an approved location for your Outlet, it will be listed in Exhibit 1 of the Franchise Agreement and we will designate your approved territory ("Territory").

We will determine the size and boundaries of the Territory, within our discretion, based upon factors including geographic area, population density, location and the number of competing businesses in the surrounding area, and other factors. A typical approved Territory will cover an area varying from ¼ mile to 3 miles surrounding your Outlet location. We may grant a Territory of less than a ¼ mile to 3-mile radius based on the demographics of the area in which your Outlet is located.

If you do not commit a default that remains uncured beyond all applicable notice and cure periods, we will not license another person or entity the right to open a physical Fit Body Boot Camp franchised outlet within your Territory, nor will we or any of our affiliated entities operate an Outlet, within your Territory. Except for this limited protection, your franchise is not-exclusive. You are not granted any options, rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional Outlets.

You may face competition for customers from other Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees located near your Territory or from other channels of distribution for Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products.

We have the unlimited right to establish Outlets anywhere outside of your Territory, regardless of proximity. We will describe your Territory in Exhibit 1 when we approve your proposed location for the Outlet.

You may relocate your Outlet with our written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld. Not less than 90 days before the desired date of relocation (unless prior notice is impractical because of a required relocation in which event your notice must be given as soon as possible), you must make a written request for consent to relocate, describing the reasons for the relocation and providing complete written details respecting any proposed new location. Within 20 business days after we receive your request, we will either approve or disapprove in writing such closure or relocation in our sole discretion. If we disapprove of a proposed relocation, you may request an alternative proposed new location. If we approve the relocation request, you must pay us a relocation administration fee of $500 USD.

Area Development Agreement

Under the terms of the ADA, we grant you the right to establish, according to a schedule, three Fit Body Boot Camp Franchised Businesses within a designated geographical territory (“Development Area”). A Development Area is usually defined by zip codes or other boundaries such as streets, city, county, or state limits or by other reasonable boundaries. In designating a Development Area, we take into consideration the demographics and other characteristics of a Development Area, including population density, income and other characteristics of the surrounding area, natural boundaries, extent of competition and whether the proposed Development Area is urban, suburban or rural in nature. You have no option, right of first refusal or similar contractual right to acquire additional Fit Body Boot Camp Franchised Businesses within your Development Area or in contiguous areas.

Each of the three (3) Fit Body Boot Camp Franchised Businesses must be open according to the following Development Schedule: (a) you must open the first Franchised Business within 180~~270~~ days of signing the ADA (the “1st Opening Deadline”); (b) you must open the second Franchised Business within ~~fifteen (15) months after the earlier to occur of the date you open the first~~270 days after signing the Franchise Agreement for Franchised Business #2 under the ADA,~~or the 1st Opening Deadline~~ (the “2nd Opening Deadline”); and (c) you must open the third Franchised Business within ~~fifteen (15) months after the earlier to occur of the date you open the second~~270 days after signing the Franchise Agreement for Franchised Business #3 under the ADA,~~or the 2nd –~~ (the “3rd Opening Deadline”). If you fail to meet the mandatory Development Schedule and the ADA is terminated, you will retain your rights to any individual Franchised Businesses previously developed pursuant to the ADA, including the territorial rights described in the Franchise Agreement for such Franchised Businesses, provided that the ADA was not terminated as a result of your failure to comply with the terms of your existing Franchise Agreement(s). Thereafter, we will have the right to develop the Development Area on our own and/or through third parties.

Reservation of Rights under the Franchise Agreement and ADA

We retain all rights that are not expressly granted to you under the Franchise Agreement. If you sign an ADA, we retain all rights that are not expressly granted to you under the ADA. Without limiting this broad retention, and without granting you any rights therein, we and our direct or indirect affiliates reserve the right to:

(a) use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, social media outlets, catalog sales, telemarketing or other direct marketing sales, to make sales of any product or service anywhere including within your Territory, and if you sign an ADA, within your Development Area, using our principal trademarks and under trademarks differ from the ones you will use under the Franchise Agreement. If we solicit or accept orders from inside your Territory (and if you sign an ADA, within your Development Area) through other channels of distribution, we are not obligated to pay you any compensation; and

(b) merge with, acquire, or be acquired by any business of any kind under other systems and/or other marks, which businesses may offer, sell, operate or distribute and/or license others to offer, sell, operate and distribute, goods and services through franchised or non-franchised businesses, at wholesale or retail—, within and outside of the Territory, and, if you sign an ADA, within and outside the Development Area.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

As stated above, we may restrict your advertising, marketing and promotional activities relating to the Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp—Business, including within your Territory. You must comply with our specifications, rules and regulations relating to advertising, marketing and promoting the Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp—Business.

With respect to your physical Outlet, although you are not restricted from providing Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products to customers of your Outlet who reside outside your Territory, you are restricted from advertising outside your Territory (and if you sign an ADA, outside your Development Area) unless you obtain our prior written consent. We understand that many forms of advertising (such as radio and print ads in publications) may reach into territories of other Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees. We may condition our approval on, among other things, your agreement to offer other Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees who are operating franchised locations in the area encompassed by the circulation base of the proposed advertising the opportunity to participate in and share the expense of your solicitation and/or advertising. You may not engage in any mail order solicitations, catalog sales, telemarketing or television solicitation programs, or use any other advertising media outside of your territory without our prior written approval.

You may not offer or sell Fit Body Boot Camp products or services directly or indirectly through other channels of distribution, including the Internet, except as authorized by us in the Manual or otherwise in writing, and then, only in accordance with our designated standards, specifications and procedures.

We or our designee will publish all website content and we may provide you with a presence on our master web site (www.fitbodybootcamp.com) and if we do this, you must participate in this website. We or our designee will maintain the “Uniform Resource Locator” (or “URL”) and you may never own any Internet domain name that contains any of the Marks. Under no circumstances are you authorized to establish your own personal websites (including social media sites) for the purpose of advertising your Franchised Business or our principal trademarks.

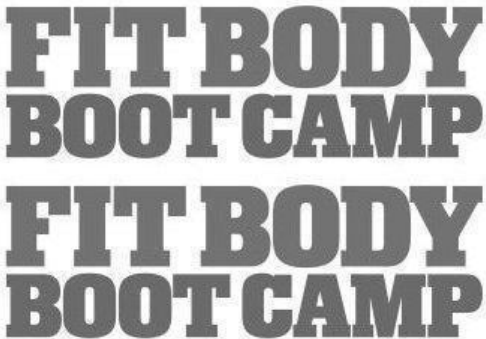

We have not established and do not intend to establish company-owned, physical retail outlets selling Fit Body Boot Camp services and products in your Territory. Although we have no current plans to do so, we and our affiliated companies reserve the right to offer and sell other types of franchises that are not directly competitive with the Fit Body Boot Camp franchise and to develop other systems involving similar or dissimilar services or goods, under dissimilar service marks, trademarks and trade names belonging to us, without granting you any rights in those systems.

ITEM 13: TRADEMARKS

We grant you the right to operate a franchised business using the System, which is identified by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems and indicia of origin (the “Marks”) as are designated by us in writing for use in connection with the System.

The current marks you are licensed to use to identify and operate the Outlet are provided below:

REGISTRATION NO.	EFFECTIVE DATE OF REGISTRATION	MARK
3852206	September 28, 2010	FIT BODY BOOT CAMP
5329068	November 7, 2017
5061091	October 11, 2016	FIT BODY FOREVER
5190109	April 25, 2017

There are presently no effective determinations of the USPTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or any state trademark administrator or court, nor any pending interference, opposition or cancellation proceedings involving our trademarks. There are no agreements currently in effect that significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of trademarks listed in this Item in a manner material to the franchise. There is no pending material federal or state court litigation regarding our use or ownership rights in the trademarks. All required affidavits have been filed. No trademark registration has been renewed yet.

All trademarks are owned by our affiliated company ETH, which granted us a trademark license (the “Trademark License”) and exclusive right to use and franchise the principal trademark and associated trade names, trademarks, service marks, logotypes and other commercial symbols and copyrights and proprietary materials in the United States by and to operators of Fit Body Boot Camps. The Trademark License does not contain any significant limitations on our right to use or license the trademarks to you, and will continue for a term of 25 years, with the right to renew the Trademark License for additional consecutive periods of 25 years. If the Trademark License were to be terminated, (i) we would have the right to change the name under which we and our franchisees operate and continue to operate and license the existing Fit Body Boot Camps under a different name, or (ii) Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees would have the right to continue to use the Marks while operating their franchised Outlets for not less than the existing term of their Franchise Agreements. Except as described above, no agreements limit our rights to use or license the use of the trademarks.

You must follow our rules when you use the trademarks. You cannot use a name or mark as part of a corporate or legal entity name or with modifying words, designs or symbols except for those which we license to you. You may not use the Marks to offer or sell any unauthorized product or service, or in any manner we have not authorized in writing. You may not register or own any domain name containing any of the Marks. The Marks licensed to you may only be used by you for the purpose of operating the Outlet in accordance with the Franchise Agreement.

We have the right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed to you by us. You must notify us promptly if you learn about an alleged infringement, unfair competition, unauthorized third-party use of or challenge to your use of the trademarks. We then will promptly take the action we think appropriate. We will indemnify you for any action against you by a third party based solely on alleged infringement, unfair competition or similar claims about the Marks. But we have no obligation to defend or indemnify you if the claim against you relates to your use of the Marks in violation of the Franchise Agreement.

If you learn that any third-party whom you believe is not authorized to use the Marks is using them or any variant of them, you must promptly notify us. We will determine whether we wish to take any action against the third party. You will have no right to make any demand or to prosecute any claim against an alleged infringer for the infringement of our Marks.

You must modify or discontinue the use of a Mark if we modify or discontinue it. You must not directly or indirectly contest our rights to the Marks, trade secrets or business techniques that are part of our business.

There are no infringing uses or superior previous rights known to us that can materially affect your use of the Marks in this state or any other state in which the franchised business is to be located.

ITEM 14: PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

Patents and Copyrights

We do not own rights in, or licenses to, patents or registered copyrights that are material to the franchise and you do not receive the right to use any item covered by a patent or registered copyright. However, we assert a common law copyright on the contents of the Manual and only you or your authorized employees can have access to and use the proprietary information in the Manual.

Our intellectual property, whether the subject of a patent, copyright or not, also is protected by common law principles which limit the use of our confidential proprietary information, except as we have licensed it. We will enforce those rights as we determine.

Confidential Information

You may never reveal any of our confidential proprietary information to another person or use it for another person or business. You may not copy any of our confidential proprietary information or disclose it to a third party except as we authorize. You must also promptly tell us when you learn about unauthorized use of any of our confidential proprietary information. We are not obligated to take any action but will respond to your notification of unauthorized use as we think appropriate.

ITEM 15: OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

We are seeking franchisees whose principal owner plans to actively participate in the direct management and operation of the Outlet (we don't require but we do recommend this active participation). Additionally, you must employ at least one designated "General Manager" (if you are a sole proprietor, this could be you) who has successfully completed our initial training program. You must disclose the identity of the General Manager to us and if he or she is for any reason no longer acting as General Manager, you must notify us immediately and in writing.

The General Manager cannot have an interest or business relationship with any of our business competitors. The General Manager must devote his or her full time during normal business hours to the management, operation and development of the Franchised Business. We do not require your General Manager to have any ownership interest in your business, although he or she may do so. If the General Manager does not own an equity interest in your franchisee entity, he or she may be required to sign a confidentiality and non-competition agreement including restrictions and covenants like those contained in the non-competition clauses and confidentiality clauses contained in your Franchise Agreement. You must give us the name, phone number and email address of your Principal Equity Owner (may be the same person) who (i) will be your primary contact person when interacting with us about the Franchise Agreement and (ii) will be guaranteeing the lease or rental agreement for your Outlet.

If you are, or at any time during the term of the Franchise Agreement, you become, a legal entity, at least one of your equity owners must own at least 51% of the entity, and such owner must be designated as the "Responsible Owner". The Responsible Owner must have the authority to accept all notices from us and must be granted the authority to legally bind the legal entity with respect to all contracts, agreements and commercial documents related to your franchised business. This person must have attended and successfully completed our initial training program.

ITEM 16: RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must offer and sell only those goods and services that we have expressly approved in writing. We may regulate minimum and maximum pricing to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, membership transfer policies and programs, promotional events and challenges, and other programs. You must comply with all of these regulations, policies, procedures and programs. You must participate fully in any reciprocal membership access program, challenges and any other customer loyalty program we specify or establish in accordance with our policies, procedures, rules and regulations. You may not be entitled to any compensation or reimbursement for membership fees or the cost of goods or services provided to any reciprocal access member using your Outlet under the reciprocity program or applicable customer loyalty program.

We have the right to add other authorized goods and services that you will be required to offer. There are no limits on our right to do so.

Except for applicable laws restricting discrimination against customers based on public policy, there are no restrictions on the customers at your Outlet to whom you may sell Fit Body Boot Camp services and products and related products.

ITEM 19: FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the Disclosure Document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

We do not make any representations about a franchisee's future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised outlets. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor’s management by contacting our President, Mr. Bedros Keulian, Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc., 5867 Pine Avenue, Chino Hills, California 91709, (888) 638-3222.

Within three months after the date you open the Outlet, you must send us evidence as we require to verify your compliance with the Grand Opening Launch Campaign and expenditures. Not later than 90 days after the Outlet Opening Date, you must provide us with a report itemizing your expenditures on the Grand Opening Launch Campaign.

(g) Commencing on the Outlet Opening Date, you must spend $500 each calendar month on the local marketing, advertising and promotion of your Outlet, using marketing and promotional materials pre-approved or otherwise authorized in writing by us (“Local Advertising”). Within five business days after we ask for it, you must report to us all details of your Local Advertising for the previous 30 days. If you do not comply with this obligation, we have the right to require you to pay the amount you failed to expend to us, in which case we will have the right to expend the amount directly for local marketing and advertising purposes in the area surrounding your Franchised Business. This payment is only due to us if you do not comply with your obligations to expend the amount directly, locally, and we elect to require you to pay the deficiency amount to us.

(h) On a regional or system-wide basis, we may impose an additional assessment upon affected franchisees for special designated advertising or promotional activities if two-thirds of all affected Fit Body Boot Camp franchised outlets agree to such additional assessment by affirmative vote.

(i) With respect to regional or system-wide advertising, including without limitation advertising paid from Marketing and Promotion Fund Contributions, we determine the cost, form of media, content, format, production, timing (including regional or local concentration and seasonal exposure), location and all other matters relating to advertising, public relations and promotional campaigns.

4.4 New Client Lead Generation Programs; Reciprocal Membership.

(a) You must participate in any “New Client Lead Generation Program”, incentive programs, System-wide challenges, and similar programs, as we designate, including programs set up with third parties, all in accordance with our rules, regulations, standards, specifications and procedures (each a “New Client Lead Generation Program” and collectively, “New Client Lead Generation Programs”). You must strictly adhere to our designated processes and procedures relating to the methods used to offer, market and/or promote any and all New Client Lead Generation Programs, including use of designated marketing funnels, and restrictions on marketing funnels and methods not expressly approved by us in writing. We may retain up to 100% of the one-time upfront fees paid by the prospect for these New Client Lead Generation Programs and “low barrier offers”, which are designed to drive traffic and prospects into your business. Your goal is to convert prospects originated through the New Client Lead Generation Programs and low barrier offers to become a formal member of your Franchised Business.

(b) You must fully participate with any other gift card, customer loyalty, referral and other contests, and promotions we designate, require or authorize Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees to participate in. Details regarding such contests and promotions may be set forth in the Brand Standards Manual or other written communications.

(c) You must also participate in any other Fit Body Boot Camp website promotions we designate, including those hosted and managed by us, our affiliates or our designees, on the Fit Body Boot Camp webpage for the Outlet. You must participate in any System-wide member challenge we designate and permit your members to join the challenge. We reserve the right to collect registration fees from each participating member and we are not required to remit any of the revenues generated from such registration fees to you.

(d) You must participate fully in any reciprocal membership access program and/or any other customer loyalty program we specify or establish in accordance with our designated policies, procedures, rules and regulations. You may not be entitled to any compensation or reimbursement for membership fees or the cost of goods or services provided to any reciprocal access member using your Outlet under the reciprocity program or applicable customer loyalty program.

(e) You must participate in all challenges, including System-wide member challenges, as we designate and permit your members to join the challenge. We reserve the right to collect registration fees from each participating member and are not required to remit any of the revenues generated from such registration fees to you.

(f) It is your obligation and responsibility to ensure that your operations, including participation in New Client Lead Generation Programs, customer loyalty, referral and other contest and promotions, reciprocal membership programs, and any and all other activities in connection with the operation and/or promotion of the Franchised Business are conducted in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

4.5 Electronic Funds Transfer.

Unless we designate otherwise in writing, all payments you are obligated to make to us under this Agreement and otherwise, including, without limitation, the monthly Royalty, Marketing and Promotion Fund Contributions, and Software Reimbursement must be paid by electronic funds transfer (“EFT”). All payments are to be made in U.S. Dollars. You must sign and deliver to us and our designees all of the documents, forms and information we require to authorize EFT and automatic payments to us. Unless we designate otherwise in writing, you must use the commercial billing service and its supplied computer program to process your member fees (including enrollment, monthly fees and other payments) as we designate. You must instruct and authorize the commercial billing service to credit and transfer to our bank account all Royalty, Marketing and Promotion Fund Contributions, Software Reimbursement payments and all other fees you are required to pay to us under this Agreement. You must also, in addition to those terms and conditions set forth in the Brand Standards Manual, maintain a single bank account for such payments (with overdraft protection from your operating account) and must maintain such minimum balance in such account as we may reasonably specify from time to time. You must not alter or close such account except upon our prior written approval. If you pay any ongoing fees, including, without limitation, the Royalty Fee, Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution, and/or Software Reimbursement Fees with a credit card, you will be responsible for paying to us our then-current processing fees, which fees are currently (as of April ~~2023~~2025) 3% of the amount charged. You acknowledge and agree that you will not be permitted to pay any fees due to us under this Agreement via credit card unless we authorize you to do so in writing. Any failure of yours to comply with your obligations under this Section 4.5 in strict accordance with our instructions will constitute a material default of this Agreement. We reserve the right to change this payment method at any time, effective on 30 days’ prior written notice to you, and we may require that you pay any and all fees due to us through any method and manner we designate. You hereby authorize the commercial billing service provider to grant us access to all of your records, including databases and receivables. We will have full access to all of your data, system and related information by means of direct access, whether in person or by telephone/modem installed and maintained at your sole cost and expense.

4.6 Fees Fully Earned; No Setoff on Payments.

All payments made by you to us under this Agreement are fully earned and non-refundable when paid. All payments to be made by you to us will be without setoff, deduction, defense, counterclaim or claims in recoupment.

4.7 Late Fee; Interest on Delinquent Payments; Administrative Fee.

(a) Any payment, including any payment of Royalty, Software Reimbursement and/or Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution not received by us when due will be a material breach of this Agreement and will be subject to a late charge of 5% of the amount past due. In connection therewith, you and we agree that the late charge is a reasonable and good faith estimate by you and us of such costs because (i) we will incur certain costs and expenses including, without limitation, administrative costs, collection costs, loss of interest, and other direct and indirect costs in an uncertain amount; and (ii) it would be impractical or extremely difficult to fix the exact amount of such costs in such event.

(b) All delinquent amounts will bear interest from the date payment was due at an annual percentage rate ("APR") of 18% (unless interest rates on delinquent payments in the state in which your Outlet is located are limited by law to a lesser percentage, in which case that APR will apply), and you must reimburse us immediately upon demand for all reasonable costs of collection relating to delinquent amounts.

(c) In addition to any other applicable fee due to us under this Agreement, you must pay us an Administration Fee of $500 USD to cover our administrative costs in connection with your request to: (a) remove an owner; (b) add an owner; or (c) relocate your Outlet. This fee is due at the time you submit your request.

(d) You agree not to dispute any payment you make to us via credit card. If you pay any fee due to us under this Agreement by credit card, and you subsequently dispute any such payment, in addition to any and all rights and remedies available to us under this Agreement and applicable law, you must pay to us the fee due, plus all charges, costs, expenses, and fees we incur as a result of any such dispute, including attorneys' fees and all reasonable costs of collection.

4.8 No Accord or Satisfaction.

If you pay, or we otherwise receive, a lesser amount than the full amount provided for under this Agreement for any payment due hereunder, such payment or receipt will be applied against the earliest amount due us. We may accept any check or payment in any amount without prejudice to our right to recover the balance of the amount due or to pursue any other right or remedy. No endorsement or statement on any check or payment or in any letter accompanying any check or payment or elsewhere will constitute or be construed as an accord or satisfaction.

V. INITIAL TERM AND RENEWAL TERMS

5.1 Initial Term.

The initial term of this Agreement (applicable solely to the Franchised Business licensed hereunder) commences on the Effective Date and expires on the 7th anniversary of the Effective Date, unless sooner terminated pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

5.2 Renewal Terms.

(a) Upon written notice delivered to us not less than 120 days before the end of the existing term hereof, you may renew your Franchise for successor seven-year terms commencing on the expiration date of the previous term, subject to the provisions of sections 5.2(a) through 5.2(i) below.

(b) At the time of renewal, you must (i) then be solvent (which means that you are able to pay your debts as and when promised by you and you have assets that are greater than your debts), (ii) have not abandoned the Franchise, (iii) not be operating the Franchise in a manner endangering public health or safety or materially harming the Fit Body Boot Camp brand or reputation, and (iv) not have knowingly submitted false or incomplete reports to us during the initial term.

(c) Notwithstanding section 5.2(a) above, we are not obligated to renew your rights granted under this Agreement for an additional term if one or more of the following applies or occurs:

(i) You give us written notice of your intention not to renew this Agreement at least 180 days before the expiration of the initial term or any successor term.

(ii) During the 180 days prior to expiration of the Franchise, we permit you to sell your Franchised Business to a purchaser meeting our then current requirements for granting new Franchises or (if we are not granting a significant number of new Franchises) the then current requirements for granting renewal Franchises.

(iii) Termination of this Agreement would be permitted pursuant to sections 13.1 or 13.2 hereof.

(iv) You and we agree not to renew the Franchise.

(v) We withdraw from distributing our products or services through Franchises in the geographic market you serve, provided that:

(A) Upon expiration of the Franchise, we agree not to seek to enforce any covenant of the non-renewed franchisee not to compete with us or our franchisees; and

(B) The failure to renew is not because we are converting the business conducted by you pursuant to this Agreement to an operation by our employees or agents for our own account.

(vi) At the time of renewal, you or any Principal Equity Owner has been convicted of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude, consumer fraud or any other offense that is reasonably likely, in our reasonable judgment, to have a materially adverse effect on the Marks, the System or the goodwill associated with the Marks or System.

(d) As a condition to renewing your Franchise rights, (i) you must sign our then-current form of Franchise Agreement (which may contain materially different terms); and (ii) you must sign a mutual general release in the form we designate releasing us from any and all claims through the effective date of the release. IN ADDITION TO NOT GRANTING ANY ADDITIONAL RIGHTS BEYOND THOSE GRANTED IN THIS AGREEMENT, THE THEN-CURRENT RENEWAL FRANCHISE AGREEMENT MAY CONTAIN OTHER TERMS THAT ARE SUBSTANTIALLY DIFFERENT FROM THOSE IN THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING DIFFERENT OR HIGHER ROYALTY FEES AND OTHER RECURRING FEES. The then-current Renewal Franchise Agreement, when executed, will supersede this Agreement.

(e) At the time of renewal, you must have satisfied all monetary obligations owed by you to us and to our affiliates and all other material obligations under this Agreement, and we may examine your books and records to verify compliance with this requirement anytime during normal business hours within 60 days of your renewal date.

(f) At the time of renewal, you and your Principal Equity Owners may be required to execute a release, in the form prescribed by us, of all actual or potential claims you or they may have against us, our affiliates and our respective officers, directors, agents and employees as of the effective date of the Renewal Franchise Agreement.

(g) Before or not later than 90 days after your execution of a Renewal Franchise Agreement for an additional term, you must make such physical modifications to your Outlet as are reasonably necessary so that they are consistent with the then current System requirements, and so that they can accommodate new Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products, if any. You must also bring your Outlet and equipment, materials and supplies into compliance with the standards then applicable to new Fit Body Boot Camp franchises.

(h) You must pay us a renewal fee of $5,000 USD at the time you sign the Renewal Franchise Agreement.

5.3 Month to Month Extension; Longer Notice of Expiration Required by Law.

(a) If you continue to operate the Outlet after the initial term expires, and you do not execute the Renewal Franchise Agreement and otherwise comply with the conditions of renewal set forth in Section 5.2 within 30 days of the date on which the Term expires, then, in addition to any and all rights and remedies available to us under this Agreement and applicable law, at our option, to be exercised in our sole and absolute discretion, we may extend this Agreement on a month-to-month basis by notifying you we are doing so; provided, however the monthly Royalty Fee during the Hold-Over Period (as defined below) will be increased to the greater of $2,000 USD per month, or 8% of Gross Revenues. Said month-to-month extension (the “Hold-Over Period”) will continue until we give you at least a 30-day notice that the Franchise rights must be formally renewed in accordance with section 5.2 or the Agreement will expire and be terminated.

(b) If applicable law requires us to give a longer period of notice to you than herein provided prior to the expiration of the initial term or any successor term, we will give such additional required notice. If we do not give such required additional notice, this Agreement will remain in effect on a month-to-month basis only until you have received such required additional notice.

7.1 Approved Location; Your Outlet.

(a) If you have not secured an approved location for the Outlet as of the Effective Date, you shall, at your sole cost and expense, (i) find a location within the Designated Area identified on Exhibit 1 for the Outlet, which location shall be subject to our prior approval, which may be granted or withheld in our sole and absolute discretion, (ii) enter into a binding lease agreement for the location within 90 days of the Effective Date, in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (iii) begin constructing and equipping the Outlet in strict accordance with our then-current standards, procedures, plans and specifications. If you do not secure an approved location for the Outlet within the 90 days after the Effective Date, we have the right to immediately terminate this Agreement. We will communicate our approval or disapproval of the proposed site within 15 business days of the date you submit all information we require regarding the proposed location. We will assist you in the site selection process and we reserve the sole right of final review and consent to any location of the Outlet. We may use available demographic information to help you evaluate the site and the area in which it is located, and analyze area income figures, traffic patterns, visibility, population density, competition, zoning, parking, accessibility and other related, relevant circumstances. Our final review and consent to the location of your Outlet is not a guarantee that a Fit Body Boot Camp business can be successfully operated there or anywhere else.

(b) You must provide a copy of the proposed lease agreement for the Outlet location before you sign any letter of intent or binding agreement. You are not permitted to sign a lease agreement for the Outlet unless and until we approve the lease agreement. You agree that we do not guarantee that the terms, including rent, will represent the most favorable terms available in the market. We require the inclusion of the terms set forth in the Lease Rider attached to this Agreement as Exhibit 4. You shall ensure that the terms of the Lease Rider are incorporated in the lease. You shall provide us with a copy of your fully executed lease agreement immediately after signing.

(c) You acknowledge that the location, selection, procurement and development of the site for the Outlet are your responsibilities. You further acknowledge that our approval of a site and/or rendering of assistance in the selection of any site does not constitute a representation, promise, warranty or guarantee, express or implied, by us or our officers, employees, directors, attorneys or agents, as to the potential sales volume, profits or success of the Franchised Business to be developed, opened and operated by you at the location. We will not have any liability to you with respect to any assistance we or our designees provided to you in making your selection, and in our recommendation or approval of any location. Once the location for the Outlet is secured in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, we will issue an amended Exhibit 1 to identify the approved location as the Outlet from which you will operate the Franchised Business and the Territory.

(d) To promote the orderly and timely service of Fit Body Boot Camp customers, you may not deliver Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products outside your Territory without our prior written consent.

7.2 Building Out Your Outlet.

(a) You must build out your Outlet (and commence operation of the Franchised Business there) within ~~180~~270 days after the Effective Date, using architects, project managers, contractors, subcontractors, architectural plans and key equipment suppliers designated by us (or one of our affiliated companies) or otherwise reasonably acceptable to us. You must commence operation of the Franchised Business at your Outlet as soon as practicable after your receipt of a certificate of occupancy (or equivalent document) from the responsible local government authority. If you have not commenced operation of the Franchised Business within ~~180~~270 days after the Effective Date, we may terminate this Agreement effective on written notice, and if we do so, you will not be entitled to receive any refund of your Initial Franchise Fee. We may give you an extension of time to open the Outlet beyond the mandatory dates specified above in this section 7.2(a) if we deem in our sole discretion that you have made a diligent effort to open but were unable to do so due to reasons beyond your reasonable control.

(b) Upon receipt of written request from you, we will provide you with a sample prototype layout for your Outlet. You acknowledge that such plans and specifications will not contain the requirements of any federal, state, or local law, code or regulation (including, without limitation, those concerning the Americans with Disabilities Act (the “ADA”) or similar rules governing public accommodations or commercial facilities for persons with disabilities), nor will such plans contain the requirements of, or be used for, construction drawings or other documents necessary to obtain permits or authorization to build the Outlet. It is your sole and absolute responsibility to construct the Outlet in accordance with all applicable laws, including the ADA and local laws, rules and regulations governing public accommodations. Without limiting the foregoing, at your sole expense, you must employ architects, designers, engineers or others designated or approved by us to complete, adapt, modify or substitute the sample plans and specifications for the Outlet. The architect must submit a complete set of final plans and specifications to us for approval before commencing construction of the Outlet. We will review these plans and specifications promptly and either approve them as stated or provide you with our comments on the plans and specifications. You may not commence construction of the Outlet until we approve, in writing, the final plans, specifications and contractors to be used in constructing the Outlet. We will consult with you, to the extent we deem necessary, on the construction and equipping of the Outlet, but it is and will remain your sole responsibility to diligently construct, equip and otherwise make ready, and then open the Outlet. You are responsible, at your expense, for obtaining all zoning classifications, permits, clearances, certificates of occupancy and center clearances which may be required by governmental authorities and for complying with all covenants, conditions, easements, and restrictions of record.

(c) You must use licensed general contractors, designers, vendors and architects approved by us before performing construction work at your Outlet. We expressly disclaim any representation or warranty of the quality of any goods or services provided by architects, contractors, or any other persons or entities which we may refer to you, including, but not limited to any warranty as to merchantability or fitness for any specific purpose. We will not be responsible for delays in the construction, equipping or decoration of the Outlet or for any loss resulting from the Outlet design or construction since we have no control over the landlord or developer and numerous construction or related problems which could occur, and consequent delay in the opening of your Outlet. We must approve in writing all changes in the Outlet plans prior to construction of the Outlet or the implementation of such changes.

(d) We must have access to your Outlet while work is in progress. We may make video records of construction in process and may require such reasonable alterations to or modifications in the construction of the Outlet as we deem necessary to bring your Outlet into compliance with then-current brand standards. Your failure to promptly commence the design, construction, inventorying, equipping and opening of the Outlet with due diligence will be grounds for the termination of this Agreement. And if you do not complete the build out of the Outlet in a reasonable time, we have the right, but not the obligation, to complete the build out, all expenses of which will then be paid or reimbursed by you. Before opening of the Outlet and prior to final inspections by any governmental agency, we will complete a final “walk through” inspection of the Outlet and issue a written consent to open. Any deficiencies noted by us during this inspection must be corrected by you within 30 days or this Agreement may be terminated without any liability to us.

(e) We have the right to regularly inspect your Outlet and any other site where you conduct the Franchised Business.

7.3 Equipment, Furnishings, Fixtures, Signs, Decor and Initial Inventory.

(b) You may use the Intranet, but only if you are in strict compliance with the standards and specifications, protocols and restrictions that we may establish from time to time regarding such use. Such standards and specifications, protocols and restrictions may relate to, among other things, (i) the use of abusive, slanderous or otherwise offensive language in electronic communications, (ii) communications between or among franchisees that endorse or encourage default of any Fit Body Boot Camp franchise agreement, or other agreement with us or our affiliates, (iii) confidential treatment of materials that we transmit via the Intranet, (iv) password protocols and other security precautions, including limitations on the number and types of employees that may be granted access to the Intranet, (v) grounds and procedures for our suspending or revoking a franchisee’s access to the Intranet, and (vi) a privacy policy governing our access to and use of electronic communications that franchisees post to the Intranet. You acknowledge that, as administrator of the Intranet, we can technically access and view any communication that any person posts on the Intranet. You further acknowledge that the Intranet facility and all communications that are posted to it will become our property, free of any claims of privacy or privilege that you or any other person may assert.

(c) You must establish and continually maintain (during all times that the Intranet is operational and until the termination of this Agreement) an electronic connection (the specifications of which will be specified in the Brand Standards Manual) with the Intranet that allows us to send messages to and receive messages from you, subject to the standards and specifications.

8.15 Franchise Advisory Council.

We may, at our option, establish a franchise advisory council (the “FAC”), which will be composed of franchisees of the System. The FAC will, among other functions requested by us, serve as a representative committee for franchisees of the System and facilitate and coordinate the sharing of information and ideas between franchisees of the System and us. If appointed or elected to do so, you (or your designee) must, at your own expense, participate as a member of the FAC. We reserve the right to set reasonable standards for appointment or election to the FAC and you acknowledge that if we establish the FAC, you may be required to pay a fee or otherwise contribute to the FAC, as the FAC leadership or we may require. You acknowledge that the role of the FAC is advisory only, and we are not obligated to implement the FAC’s recommendations. Neither you nor your designee will have the right to be appointed, elected, and if appointed or elected, to continue to serve on the FAC if you are in material default of this Agreement, or are not current in your financial obligations to us, and your landlord (if any), suppliers and vendors.

IX. PROPRIETARY MARKS

9.1 License of the Marks.

(a) We hereby grant you the right during the term hereof to use and display the Marks in accordance with the provisions and restrictions contained in this Agreement and in the Brand Standards Manual, solely in connection with your operation of the Franchised Business. You agree to be responsible for and supervise all your employees and agents to insure the proper use of the Marks in compliance with this Agreement.

(b) You acknowledge that the Marks have been licensed to us by our affiliate, the Owner of the Marks (the “Owner”), to use in the franchised System. You acknowledge and agree your use of the Marks is a temporary authorized use under this Agreement and that the Owner of the Marks retains all ownership interests in the Marks and that the Owner of the Marks, we and the Owner of the Marks retain all ownership of the goodwill generated by the Marks. You acknowledge that the use of the Marks outside the scope of the terms of this Agreement without our written consent is an infringement of the Owner of the Marks’ and our exclusive rights, title and interest in and to the Marks. You agree that as between you and us, all rights to use the Marks within the franchised System are our exclusive property. You now assert no claim and will hereafter assert no claim to any goodwill, reputation or ownership thereof resulting from your franchised use thereof or otherwise. It is expressly understood and agreed that ownership and title of the Trade Dress, Brand Standards Manual and our other manuals, bulletins, instruction sheets, forms, methods of operation and goodwill are and, as between you and us, remains vested solely in us, and the use thereof is only co-extensive with the term of this Agreement.

(c) You agree that during the term of the Franchise, and after the repurchase, expiration or termination of the Franchise, you will not, directly or indirectly, commit an act of infringement or contest or aid others in contesting the validity, distinctiveness, secondary meaning, ownership or enforceability of the Marks or take any other action in derogation of the Marks, and that no monetary amount will be assigned as attributable to any goodwill associated with your use of the System or the Marks.

(d) You hereby grant us the right at any time to use the name, image and likeness of you and your owners for commercial purposes in the marketing and promotion of the Marks, Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products, any Fit Body Boot Camp Outlet, and the System, without any form of compensation or remuneration. You also agree (i) to have any affected employee of yours who is not a Principal Equity Owner sign a release in the form contained in the Brand Standards Manual authorizing us to also use his or her name, image and likeness for the purposes described in this section 9.1(d), without compensation or remuneration, and (ii) to provide us with a copy of such signed release. The terms of this section 9.1(d) survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

[Your Initials:_____Principal Equity Owners' Initials:_____]

(e) You acknowledge that we prescribe uniform standards respecting the nature and quality of Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products provided by you when the Marks are used. Nothing herein gives you any right, title or interest in or to any of the Marks, except a mere privilege and license during the term hereof to display and use the same and you agree that all your use of the Marks under this Agreement inures to our benefit and the benefit of the Owner of the Marks.

(f) You and all of your owners agree that all materials associated with us, Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products or other services, artwork, graphics, layouts, slogans, names, titles, text or similar materials incorporating, or being used in connection with, the Marks which may be created by you, your employees, agents and subcontractors and any other party with whom you may contract to have such materials produced pursuant to this Agreement will become the sole property of the Owner of the Marks, including copyright and trademark rights. In furtherance thereof, you hereby and irrevocably assign to us all such materials, artwork, graphics, layouts, slogans, names, titles, text or similar materials, whether presently or hereafter existing. Furthermore, you agree on behalf of yourself, your employees, your agents, your subcontractors and any other party with whom you may contract to have such materials produced, to promptly execute any and all appropriate documents in this regard.

(g) If necessary, you agree to join with us and share the expenses in any application to enter you as a registered or permitted user, or the like, of the Marks with any appropriate governmental agency or entity. Upon termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever, we may immediately apply to cancel your status as a registered or permitted user and you hereby consent to the cancellation and agree to join in any cancellation petition. You will bear the expense of any cancellation petition.

9.2 Your Business Name.

(a) During the term of this Agreement, you shall hold yourself out to the public as an independent contractor operating the franchised business pursuant to a license from us. You must take all action as may be necessary to do so, including, without limitation, exhibiting a notice in a conspicuous place at the Outlet premises, the content of which we reserve the right to specify, providing that you are a franchisee and independent contractor. Without limiting the foregoing, you shall display the following notice, unless we designate otherwise in writing, at a prominent place visible to customers of your Outlet with your name inserted where indicated: "This Fit Body Boot Camp business is a franchised location and is independently owned and operated by [INSERT Franchisee name]". Additionally, in connection with your operation of the Outlet, you agree that at all times and in all advertising, promotions, signs and other display materials, on your letterheads, business forms, and at the Outlet and other authorized business sites, in all of your business dealings related thereto and to the general public, you will identify the Franchised Business as an "INDEPENDENTLY OWNED AND OPERATED" franchised business on your letterhead, contract agreements, invoices, advertising and other written materials containing the Marks as we may direct. You must provide written notification to each person you intend to hire as an employee advising such person that Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc. is NOT and will under no circumstances be construed as their employer.

(b) You must file and keep current a fictitious business name statement, assumed name certificate or similar document with respect to your Business Name in the county or other designated jurisdiction in which you are conducting business and at such other places as may be required by law. Before you commence engaging in the Franchised Business under the Marks, you must supply evidence satisfactory to us that you have complied with relevant laws regarding the use of fictitious or assumed names.

(c) On expiration or sooner termination of this Agreement, we may, if you do not do so, execute in your name, and on your behalf, all documents necessary, in our judgment, to end and cause a discontinuance of the use by you of the Marks and Business Name registrations and we are hereby irrevocably appointed and designated as your attorney-in-fact to do so.

(d) You further agree that you will not identify yourself as (i) us, (ii) a subsidiary, parent, division, shareholder, partner, agent or employee of ours or the Owner of the Marks or (iii) any of our other franchisees.

(e) If you are an entity and not an individual proprietor, you cannot use any of the Marks in your entity's legal name.

9.3 Trade Secrets and Proprietary Information.

(a) Under this Agreement, we are licensing you access to our Proprietary Information and other confidential data and information. You acknowledge that the material and information now and hereafter provided or revealed to you pursuant to this Agreement (including without limitation, the contents of the Brand Standards Manual) are our confidential trade secrets and are revealed in confidence, and you expressly agree to keep and respect the confidences so reposed, both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter. We expressly reserve all rights with respect to the Marks, Proprietary Information, methods of operation and other proprietary information, except as may be expressly granted to you hereby or in the Brand Standards Manual. We may disclose to you certain Trade Secrets as reasonably needed for the operation by you of your Franchised Business by loaning to you, for the term of this Agreement, the Brand Standards Manual and other written materials containing the Trade Secrets, through training and assistance provided to you hereunder, and by and through the performance of our other obligations under this Agreement.

(b) You acknowledge that we are the sole owner of all Proprietary Information, including our Trade Secrets; that such information is being imparted to you only because of your special status as a franchisee of the System; and that our Proprietary Information are not generally known to our industry or the public at large and are not known to you except by reason of such disclosure. You further acknowledge that you will acquire no interest in the Proprietary Information disclosed to you, other than the right to use them in the development and operation of the Franchised Business during the term of this Agreement.

(c) You agree that you will not do or permit any act or thing to be done in derogation of any of our rights in the Marks, either during the term of this Agreement or thereafter, and that you will use these only for the uses and in the manner franchised and licensed hereunder and as herein provided.

Furthermore, you and your employees and agents will not engage in any act or conduct that impairs the goodwill associated with the Marks.

(d) You agree to indemnify us and hold us harmless from all “Losses” (as defined in section 16.2 of this Agreement), which we may sustain because of any unauthorized use or disclosure of Proprietary Information or Marks by you or your employees and agents. You further agree and acknowledge that the disclosure or use of Proprietary Information or Marks in a manner not authorized by this Agreement will cause immediate and irreparable damage to us that would be impossible or inadequate to measure and calculate and could not be fully remedied by monetary damages. Accordingly, we have the right to specifically enforce this Agreement and seek injunctive or other equitable relief as may be necessary or appropriate to prevent such unauthorized disclosures or use without the necessity of proving actual damages resulting from any such breach or threatened breach of this Agreement. You further agree that no bond or other form of security is required to obtain such equitable relief and you hereby consent to the issuance of such injunction and to the ordering of specific performance. You further agree and acknowledge that such remedies are in addition to any other rights or remedies, whether at law or in equity, which may be available to us, including monetary damages.

(e) 18 USC Section 1833(b) states: “An individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any Federal or State trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a Federal, State, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.” Accordingly, you and we will each have the right to disclose in confidence Trade Secrets to Federal, State, and local government officials, or to an attorney, for the sole purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law. You and we also have the right to disclose Trade Secrets in a document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, but only if the filing is made under seal and protected from public disclosure. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to conflict with 18 U.S.C. Section 1833(b) or create liability for disclosures of trade secrets that are expressly allowed by 18 U.S.C. Section 1833(b).

9.4 Modification of Marks and Trade Dress.

We may add to, substitute or modify any of the Marks or Trade Dress from time to time, by directive in the Brand Standards Manual. You must accept, use, display, or cease using, as may be applicable, the Marks and Trade Dress, including but not limited to, any such modified or additional trade names, trademarks, service marks, logo types and commercial symbols, and must within 30 days of receiving notification, commence to implement such changes and use your best efforts to complete such changes as soon as practicable.

9.5 Mark Infringement Claims and Defense of Marks.

(a) If you receive notice or otherwise become aware of any claim, suit or demand, threatened or pending, against you by any party other than us, the Owner of the Marks or any of our affiliates on account of any alleged infringement, unfair competition or similar matter arising from your use of the Marks in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, or any misuse of the Marks by third parties on the Internet or otherwise, you must promptly notify us of any such claim, suit, demand or misuse. You will have no power, right or authority to settle or compromise any such claim, suit or demand by a third party or to intervene to stop misuse, without our prior written consent. We will defend, compromise or settle at our discretion any such claim, suit or demand and take steps to stop misuse at our cost and expense, using attorneys selected by us or the Owner of the Marks, and you agree to cooperate fully in such matters.

(b) We will indemnify you and hold you harmless from and against all judgments resulting from any claim, suit or demand arising from your authorized and proper use of the Marks in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. We have the sole discretion to determine whether a similar trademark or service mark that is being used by a third party is confusingly like the Marks being used by you or constitutes a misuse of the Marks, and whether and what subsequent action, if any, should be undertaken with respect to such similar trademark or service mark or misuse.

X. MARKETING AND PROMOTION

10.1 Use of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution.

(a) You must pay to us the Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution on a monthly basis, unless we designate otherwise. Marketing and Promotion Fund Contributions collected from you and other Fit Body Boot Camp franchisees, and any earnings on any such fees collected, are used to meet the costs of producing, maintaining, administering, directing, conducting, and preparing of national, regional and local advertising, marketing, and related programs, materials and services, including, without limitation, digital and traditional media, public relations services and materials, network advertising, market research, printing costs, and promotional campaigns, and any other activities which we believe will enhance the image and goodwill of the System. We will determine, in our sole discretion, the cost, form or media, content, format, production and timing, including regional or local concentration and seasonal exposure, location and all other matters involving advertising, public relations and promotional campaigns.

(b) Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution are deposited into a separate bank account. This account will not be subject to audit, and no interest on the amounts on deposit will be imputed for your benefit or paid to you. Administration of the Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution may result in either a surplus or a deficit. In any given year, we may expend an amount that is greater than or less than the aggregate contributions collected during that year. We have the right to borrow from lenders, including from us or affiliated lenders. We or our designee will administer the expenditure of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution and we will have the sole right to determine all aspects of the programs and materials financed by the Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution, including national, regional and/or local media, materials, concepts, sponsorships, endorsements and programs. Without limiting this broad discretion, we may engage third party or related party agencies to administer or otherwise provide services in connection with the expenditure of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution. While our goal is to maximize general brand recognition, awareness and goodwill associated with the Marks for the entire System, we cannot assure you that you or any particular franchisee will benefit directly or pro-rata from any expenditures of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution. We have no obligation to spend any amount on advertising, marketing or promotional activities in your area.

(c) We and/or our designee will have the right to receive a fee in administering Marketing and Promotion Fee expenditures of up to 15% of the annual aggregate Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution, and we will have the right to recover our costs and expenses incurred in administering the fund expenditures. Administrative expenses may include amounts equivalent to salaries, travel and other expenses of our or our designee's employees whose services are provided in connection with the use, administration, collection and expenditure of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution. We do not act as a trustee or in any other fiduciary capacity.

(d) We intend to use digital media (Internet), social media (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, etc.), and targeted print media in our marketing and advertising efforts, but we are not limited to these types of media. In the future, we may use local radio and television advertising, and we reserve the right to use other media to market and promote the Brand. We may be using in-house advertising personnel to do this, and we may hire advertising and public relations firms to assist us in these efforts.

(e) We may provide general advertising programs and sales promotion, campaign and sample advertising materials. You may develop advertising materials for your own use, at your own cost, however, before you use any such materials, you must provide to us, in advance of use, your proposed materials for our prior approval, which we may grant or deny in our sole discretion. You grant us the right to use the name, image and likeness of you, all Principal Equity Owners and any of your affected employees, for commercial purposes in connection with the marketing and promotion of the Marks, Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products, any Fit Body Boot Camp Outlet and the Fit Body Boot Camp system.

(f) If we do not expend all Marketing and Promotion Fund Contributions collected for one year, the amount remaining would be retained for future advertising, marketing and promotion. If you submit a written request in January or February an accounting of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution expenditures for the immediately preceding calendar year, we will provide you with an unaudited statement generally describing annual receipts and expenditures of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contributions during the preceding calendar year within 45 days after the completion of the statement.

(g) The Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution will not be used primarily for the solicitation for new franchise sales, although we may generally expend funds to promote the Fit Body Boot Camp brand in such ways, methods and using the media as we may decide in our sole discretion. We reserve the right to include a notation in any and all advertising and materials created through use of Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution that indicates franchise opportunities are available.

10.2 Advertising Content and Costs.

With respect to local, regional or system-wide advertising, we determine the cost, form of media, content, format, production, timing (including regional or local concentration and seasonal exposure), location and all other matters relating to advertising, public relations and promotional campaigns.

XI. NON-COMPETITION COVENANTS

11.1 Exclusive In-Term Dealing.

(a) You acknowledge that you will receive valuable specialized training and access to Proprietary Information, including, without limitation, information regarding the operational, sales, promotional and marketing methods and techniques of the System and our Trade Secrets. In consideration for the use and license of such valuable information, you agree and covenant that, during the Term, except as otherwise approved in writing by us, neither you, nor any of your officers, directors, members, managers, shareholders, partners or owners, nor your spouse or the spouse of any of the aforementioned individuals (each a “Bound Party” and collectively, the “Bound Parties”) will, directly or indirectly, for him or herself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, limited liability company or corporation: (i) operate, manage, own, assist or hold an interest in (direct or indirect as an employee, officer, director, shareholder, manager, member, partner or otherwise), or engage in, any “Competing Business”. (b) It is the intention of both you and us that you maximize the Franchised Business within the Territory, and any action of yours that diverts business to another entity or diminishes the Franchised Business being conducted in the Territory will be a material breach of this Agreement. Accordingly, neither you nor any Bound Party may, either directly or indirectly, for yourself or themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with, any person, persons, partnership, corporation or other entity, (i) divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the Franchised Business to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or (ii) do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Marks or the System.

11.2 Post Termination Non-Competition Covenants.

(a) For a period of two—_continuous, uninterrupted years commencing upon the expiration, transfer or termination of this Agreement (regardless of the cause for termination), you agree that neither you nor any Bound Party will, either directly or indirectly, for yourself or themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with, any person, persons, partnership, corporation or other entity) operate, manage, own, assist or hold an interest in (direct or indirect as an employee, officer, director, shareowner, partner or otherwise), or engage in, any Competing Business (1) through any virtual platform, or (2) that is, or is intended to be, located: (a) at your Outlet location; (b) within 25 miles of your Outlet location; (c) within the Territory; (d) at the location of any other Fit Body Boot Camp business; or (e) within a 25 mile radius of any other Fit Body Boot Camp location (this obligation also applies to you if you assign your franchise), without our express prior written consent, which consent may be withheld in our sole and absolute discretion. Following termination or expiration of this Agreement, you must always refrain from any use, direct or indirect, of any of our Proprietary Information. Following termination or expiration of this Agreement, you may not offer or sell any products, services or items to any Fit Body Boot Camp® franchisee.

11.3 General Provisions regarding Non-Competition Covenants.

(a) You acknowledge that the restrictions contained in this Article XI are reasonable and necessary in order to protect our legitimate interests, and in the event of violation of any of these restrictions, we are entitled to recover damages including, without limitation, Royalties, Marketing and Promotion Fund Contribution and other fees that would have been payable if such business were included in the Franchised Business, and an equitable accounting of all earnings, profits and other benefits arising from such violation, which rights and remedies will be cumulative and in addition to any other rights or remedies to which we are entitled at law or in equity.

(b) You agree to indemnify us and hold us harmless from all Losses (as defined in section 16.2 of this Agreement) which we may sustain because of any breach of this Article XI by you, any Principal Equity Owner, or your General Manager. You further agree that a breach of the non-competition covenants set forth above will cause immediate and irreparable damage to us that would be impossible or inadequate to measure and calculate and could not be fully remedied by monetary damages. Accordingly, we have the right to specifically enforce this Agreement and seek injunctive or other equitable relief as may be necessary or appropriate to prevent such breach or continued breach without the necessity of proving actual damages resulting from any such breach or threatened breach of this Agreement. You and each Principal Equity Owner further agree that no bond or other security will be required in obtaining such equitable relief and hereby consent to the issuance of such injunction and to the ordering of specific performance. You and each Principal Equity Owner further acknowledge that such remedies are in addition to any other rights or remedies, whether at law or in equity, which may be available to us, including, but not limited to, monetary damages.

(c) This Article XI applies to your General Manager, your owners, and each of your other managers, directors, officers, general partners and affiliates.

(d) Each provision of this Article XI is independent of each other provision of this Agreement. If any provision of this Article XI is held unreasonable or unenforceable by any court, agency or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction, you agree to be bound by the maximum duty permitted by law with respect to that provision, which will be deemed restated accordingly, and agree to be bound by all other provisions of this Article XI.

XII. ASSIGNMENT

12.1 Assignment by Us.

We have the right to Transfer this Agreement, and all of our rights and privileges hereunder (“Assignment by Us”) to any other person, firm or corporation (“Our Assignee”).

12.2 Assignment by You.

(a) This Agreement is being executed in reliance upon and in consideration of the singular personal skills and qualifications of you and your owners and the trust and confidence we repose in you and them. Therefore, neither your interest in this Agreement and the Franchise granted hereunder, nor all or substantially all of the assets of the Franchised Business, nor a controlling or non-controlling interest in you (if you are a legal entity) or the Franchised Business, may be assigned, transferred, shared or divided, voluntarily or involuntarily, in whole or in part, by operation of law or otherwise, in any manner (collectively, “Assignment by You”), without our prior written consent and subject to our right of first refusal provided for in section 12.3 hereof (except that our right of first refusal will not apply to any transfer of a non-controlling interest in you if you are a legal entity). Our consent to a specific Assignment by You is not cumulative and will not apply to any subsequent assignments, in respect of each of which you must comply with this section 12.2.

(b) Prior to any Assignment by You, you must notify us of your intent to sell, transfer or assign the Franchise, all or most of the assets of the Franchised Business, or a controlling or non-controlling interest in your and/or the Franchised Business. The notice must be in writing, delivered to us in accordance with section 16.1 hereof and include the following:

(i) The name and address of the proposed assignee (“Your Assignee”);

(ii) A copy of all agreements related to the sale, assignment, or transfer of the Franchise, the assets of the Franchised Business, or the interest in the Franchised Business; and

(iii) Your Assignee’s application for approval to become the successor franchisee. The application must include all forms, financial disclosures and related information we designate, including those generally utilized by us when interviewing prospective new franchisees, if those forms are made available to you. If the forms are not readily available, you must request that we deliver the forms to you by business courier in accordance with section 16.1 hereof within 15 calendar days. As soon as practicable after the receipt of Your Assignee’s application, we will notify you and Your Assignee, in writing, of any additional information or documentation necessary to complete the transfer application. If our then-existing standards for the approval of new or renewing franchisees are not readily available to you when you notify us of your intent to sell, transfer, or assign the Franchise, all or most of the assets of the Franchised Business, or the controlling or non-controlling interest in the Franchised Business, we will communicate the standards to you within 15 calendar days.

(c) Within 60 days after the receipt of all the necessary information and documentation required pursuant to section 12.2(b) above, or as specified by written agreement between we and you, we will notify you of the approval or disapproval of the proposed Assignment by You. The notice will be in writing and delivered to you by business courier in accordance with section 16.1 hereof. Should we elect not to exercise our right of first refusal, or should such right of first refusal be inapplicable, as herein provided, the proposed Assignment by You will be deemed approved, unless disapproved by us in writing and for reasons permitted by the law governing this Agreement. If the proposed sale, assignment or transfer is disapproved, we shall include in the notice of disapproval a statement setting forth the reasons for the disapproval. We may impose, among other things, the following conditions precedent to our consent to any such Assignment by You:

(i) Your Assignee must complete our application for a franchise, and in connection therewith, you and Your Assignee must fully disclose in writing all terms and conditions of the Assignment by You;

(ii) Your Assignee and its principal equity owners demonstrate that they have the skills, qualifications and economic resources necessary, in our sole judgment, to conduct the business contemplated by this Agreement;

(iii) Your Assignee and each of its principal equity owners expressly assume in writing for our benefit all of your obligations under this Agreement;

(iv) Your Assignee executes the then current form of Franchise Agreement being used by us for the remainder of the term of this Agreement or, in our sole discretion, for the initial term of the then current form of Franchise Agreement and the Assignee pays to us the initial franchise fee required under our then-current form of Franchise Agreement;

(v) You must have complied fully as of the date of any such Assignment by You with all your material obligations to us, whether under this Agreement or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding with us;

(vi) Your Assignee agrees that our Initial Training program described in section 6.1 hereof and any other training or orientation programs then required by us will be satisfactorily completed by Your Assignee's General Manager and other necessary personnel within 30 days after the execution by Your Assignee of a Successor Franchise Agreement, provided, however, that Your Assignee must agree to pay for all of their expenses incurred in connection therewith, including any fee we charge for training (at the rate in effect at the time of transfer), travel, hotel and meal expenses;

(vii) You or the Assignee shall upgrade the Outlet to conform to our then-current standards and specifications and shall complete the upgrading and other requirements within the time period specified by us;

(viii) Not later than 10 days before the transfer, you must pay us a non-refundable "Transfer Fee" of $7,500 USD. The Transfer Fee is subject to adjustment in our discretion based on corresponding changes in the CPI since the Effective Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you must pay a transfer fee of $750 USD if the franchise agreement is being transferred by the individuals who signed this agreement as franchisee to a legal entity wholly owned by such individual(s), or to an heir, conservator or personal representative upon the individual's death or legal disability. You acknowledge that in addition to the Transfer Fee you are required to pay to us, the transferee will be required to pay the Initial Franchise Fee (as defined in the transferee's franchise agreement) to us at or prior to closing under the sale or assignment transaction, as applicable.

(d) You do not have a right to pledge, encumber, hypothecate or otherwise give any third party a security interest in this Agreement in any manner whatsoever (except that with our consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld, you may pledge a security interest in this Agreement in connection with a Small Business Administration loan), nor subfranchise or otherwise transfer, or attempt to subfranchise or otherwise transfer the Franchised Business, or to transfer or subfranchise a portion but not all of your rights hereunder without our express prior written consent, which may be withheld for any reason in our sole discretion.

(e) Any attempt by you to assign or any purported Assignment by You in violation of this section 12.2 is void and will (i) constitute a material breach of this Agreement, (ii) cause this Agreement (and in our sole discretion any or all other agreements between you and us, or between you and our affiliates) to be subject to immediate termination without further notice, and (iii) confer no rights or interest whatsoever under this Agreement upon any other party.

(f) Upon our consent to any Assignment by You, you must bring all accounts with us current and, together with us, execute a mutual release.

(g) You, the Principal Equity Owners, the Assignee and all of its Principal Equity Owners execute our then-current form of Consent to Transfer and Release Agreement and/or Assignment and Assumption of Franchise Agreement, as we designate. A sample form of Assignment and Assumption Agreement, which may be amended in the future, is attached to this Agreement as Exhibit 3.

12.3 Right of First Refusal.

(a) Any party holding any interest in you (if you are a legal entity) or in the franchise granted pursuant to this Agreement and who desires to accept any bona fide offer from a third party to purchase such interest or the Franchised Business (including any sale of substantially all of the assets of the Franchised Business) shall notify us in writing of each such offer and shall provide such information and documentation relating to the offer as we may require. Except for a transfer to your heirs, personal representatives or conservators in the case of death or legal incapacity as provided in section 12.6 hereof, any proposed transfer shall be subject to our right of first refusal, which will be exercised in accordance with the terms of this section 12.3.

(b) You must deliver to us a written notice setting forth (i) all the terms and conditions of any bona fide offer relating to a proposed Assignment by You, and (ii) all available information concerning your Assignee including a detailed summary of how the proposed assignee meets our qualifications for a new Fit Body Boot Camp franchisee, and any other related information requested by us. If the specified terms and conditions include consideration of a non-monetary nature, such consideration must be expressed in reasonably equivalent monetary terms, and if it involves matters that cannot be stated in monetary terms, such consideration will not be applicable to our right of first refusal.

(c) Within 15 days after our receipt of such notice (or if we request additional information, within 10 days after receipt of such additional information), we may either (i) consent or withhold our consent to such Assignment by You, in accordance with section 12.2 hereof, or (ii) at our option, accept the Assignment by You ourselves or on behalf of our nominee upon the terms and conditions specified in the notice.

(d) If we elect not to exercise our right of first refusal and consent to the Assignment by You, you will for a period of 60 days, and subject to the provisions of section 12.2 hereof, be free to assign this Agreement to such proposed Assignee upon the terms and conditions specified in said notice. If, however, these terms are modified in any material manner (as determined by us), or if said 60-day period expires, we will again have such right of first refusal with respect thereto and you will again be required to comply with section 12.3(b) above. Detailed terms of assignment must be delivered to us no later than 72 hours following the close of escrow or other consummation of the transaction.

12.4 Transfers to Certain Family Members.

You or a principal owner, if a natural person, may with our consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld, transfer the Franchised Business or an equity interest in your franchised entity to such person's spouse or person having equivalent rights under applicable federal or state law, parent, sibling, niece, nephew, descendant or spouse's descendant provided that adequate provision is made for the management of the Franchised Business and the transferor guarantees, in form and substance satisfactory to us, the performance of the transferee's obligations under this Agreement. No transfer under this section 12.4 will be subject to our right of first refusal set forth in section 12.3 hereof. However, you must comply with section 12.2(b)(i) through (vi) and (to the extent applicable) section 12.2(c) above, as well as provide full disclosure of the terms of said transfer and deliver to us no later than three business days prior to the close of the transaction. In addition, copies of fully executed paperwork must be delivered to us no less than three business days following the close of the transaction.

12.5 Transfers to Affiliated Entities.

You or a Principal Equity Owner may without our consent, upon 30 days prior written notice to us, Transfer the Franchised Business or an equity interest in your franchised entity to an entity that is (i) organized for the purpose of operating the Franchised Business and (ii) owned in the same proportionate amount of ownership as prior to such Transfer, provided that adequate provision is made for the management of the Franchised Business. No Transfer under this section 12.5 will be subject to our right of first refusal set forth in section 12.3 hereof or the Transfer Fee set forth in section 12.2(b)(vii) hereof. However, you must comply with section 12.2(b)(i) through (vi) above, as well as provide full disclosure of the terms of said transfer and deliver to us no later than three business days prior to the close of the transaction. In addition, copies of fully executed paperwork must be delivered to us no less than three business days following the close of the transaction. Also, you acknowledge and agree that any Transfer to an affiliate will not relieve you from your obligations under this Agreement.

12.6 Transfers upon the Death or Incapacity of an Individual Franchisee or Majority Equity Owner.

(a) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of your death or legal incapacity, if you are an individual, or the death or legal incapacity of a Principal Equity Owner holding a majority equity interest (“Majority Equity Owner”) if you are a corporation, limited liability company or partnership, the transfer of your or the deceased Majority Equity Owner’s interest in this Agreement to his or her heirs, personal representatives or conservators, as applicable, will not be deemed an Assignment by You provided that a responsible management employee or agent of yours that has been satisfactorily trained by us will be responsible for the Franchised Business.

(b) In the event of your death (if you are an individual) or the death of a Majority Equity Owner, such person’s interest in this Agreement or its equity interest in the franchise entity must Transfer as soon as practicable (but not more than 270 days) after the date of death in accordance with such person’s will or, if such person dies without a will, in accordance with laws of intestacy governing the distribution of such person’s estate, provided that adequate provision is made for the management of the Franchised Business at all times. If we determine (i) there is no imminent sale to a qualified successor or (ii) there is no heir or other Principal Equity Owner capable of operating the Franchise, we may (but are not obligated to) immediately commence operating the Outlet on your behalf for a period of up to 90 days, renewable as necessary for up to one year and we will periodically discuss the status with your representatives or your heirs. For such management assistance, you or the successor in interest must pay us a reasonable per diem management fee/charge for serving as the interim manager.

(c) No Transfer under this section 12.6 will be subject to (i) our right of first refusal set forth in section 12.3 hereof or (ii) the Transfer Fee set forth in section 12.2(b)(vii) above, although such refusal right and Transfer Fee will be applicable to any subsequent Transfer by your (or a Majority Equity Owner’s) heirs, personal representatives or conservators. However, you must comply with section 12.2(b)(i) through (vi) above, as well as provide full disclosure of the terms of said transfer and deliver to us no later than three business days prior to the close of the transaction. In addition, copies of fully executed paperwork must be delivered to us no less than three business days following the close of the transaction.

12.7 Consent to Transfers.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement and subject to our right of first refusal provided in section 12.3 hereof, you or an Principal Equity Owner may consummate any Transfer of a direct or indirect interest in this Agreement, the Franchised Business or the economic benefits derived therefrom, or any equity interest in your franchised entity, not permitted by the preceding sections 12.4, 12.5 and 12.6, only after written notice to us and only with our written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld, and your compliance with all conditions precedent. We will exercise our good faith business judgment in determining whether to give or withhold our consent to a Transfer under this section 12.7. Such exercise of good faith business judgment may include our consideration of certain skills and qualifications of the prospective transferee which are of business concern to us, including without limitation, the following: experience in businesses similar to the Franchised Business, financial and operational skills and qualifications, economic resources, reputation and character of such prospective transferee; the ability of such prospective transferee to fully and faithfully conduct the Franchised Business as contemplated by this Agreement; and the effect that the Transfer and the prospective transferee will have or may reasonably be expected to have on the reputation or business operations of the Franchised Business, the System or us or any of our affiliates.

XIII.DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

13.1 General.

(a) If you commit any act of default under this Agreement, and you fail to cure the default after any required notice and cure periods, as applicable, we shall have the right to immediately terminate this Agreement on notice to you. If any applicable law requires a longer period not notice, or longer cure period than is provided in this Agreement, then the period required by law shall be substituted for the time period provided in this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, in those circumstances under which we have the right to terminate this Agreement, we also have (i) the option, to be exercised in our sole discretion, to choose alternative remedies to our right to terminate the entire Agreement and (ii) the right to exercise all remedies available to us at law or in equity, including without limitation specific performance and damages (including punitive damages). All rights and remedies provided herein are in addition to and not in substitution of all other rights and remedies available to a party at law or in equity. Without limiting the foregoing, if we issue you a notice of default for failure to pay continuing fees due pursuant to this Agreement, including Royalty, Software Reimbursement and/or Marketing and/or Advertising Fund Contributions, and you do not cure such default before the expiration of 30 calendar days after your receipt of a notice of default, we may, in lieu of exercising our right to terminate this Agreement, exercise any or all of the following alternative remedies: (a) disable your access to and use of any and all software and any and all other services available to you or that you otherwise use in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business for the duration of the period during which your default remains uncured, (b) restrict you or any of your staff's attendance (whether virtual or in person) at any training, meetings, workshops and/or conventions, (c) refuse to sell or furnish to you any advertising or promotional materials, (d) permanently reduce the size of your Territory, (e) increase your continuing monthly Royalty to $2,000 USD for the duration of the period during which your default remains uncured, and/or (f) prohibit you from engaging in the Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp—_Business and otherwise offering Virtual Fit Body Boot Camp—_Classes for the duration of the period during which your default remains uncured.

You agree that our exercise of any right set forth in this Section 13.1 will not be deemed a constructive termination of this Agreement or any other agreement between us and you and will not be deemed a breach of any provision of this Agreement. We may, in our business judgment, reinstate any services or benefits removed, curtailed or limited under this Section 13.1, and you agree to accept immediately any such reinstatement of services or benefits. You must continue to timely pay all fees and other amounts due to us as required under this Agreement or any other agreement between us and you at all times.

13.2 Immediate Termination.

(a) We have the right to terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice to you without an opportunity to cure:

(i) You or the business to which the Franchise relates has been the subject of an order for relief in bankruptcy, is judicially determined to be insolvent, all or a substantial part of the assets thereof are assigned to or for the benefit of any creditor, or you admit your inability to pay your debts as they come due;

(ii) You Abandon the Franchise by failing to operate the Outlet for five consecutive days during which you are required to operate the business under the terms of this Agreement, or any shorter period after which it is not unreasonable under the facts and circumstances for us to conclude that you do not intend to continue to operate the Franchise, unless such failure to operate is due to fire, flood, earthquake or other similar causes beyond your control;

(iii) You make any material misrepresentations relating to the acquisition of the Franchise or you engage in conduct that reflects materially and unfavorably upon the operation and reputation of the Franchised Business or the System;

(iv) You fail, for a period of 10 days after notification of noncompliance, to comply with any federal, state or local law or regulation, including, but not limited to, all health, safety, building, and labor laws or regulations applicable to the operation of the Franchise;

(v) After curing any failure in accordance with section 13.3 below, you engage in the same noncompliance whether such noncompliance is corrected after notice;

(vi) You repeatedly fail to comply with one or more material requirements of this Agreement, whether corrected after notice;

(vii) The Franchised Business or the business premises of the Franchise are seized, taken over, or foreclosed by a government official in the exercise of his or her duties, or seized, taken over, or foreclosed by a creditor, lien holder or lessor, provided that a final judgment against the franchisee remains unsatisfied for 30 days (unless an appeal bond has been filed); or a levy of execution has been made upon the license granted by this Agreement or upon any property used in the Franchised Business, and it is not discharged within five days of such levy;

(viii) You are convicted of a felony or any other criminal misconduct which is relevant to the operation of the Franchise; or

(ix) We make a reasonable determination that your continued operation of the Franchise will result in an imminent danger to public health or safety.

(b) If your rights under this Agreement are terminated by us because of an event described in section 13.2(a) above, section 14.1 below is not applicable, and we may immediately commence an action under section 14.2 or 14.3 below, as applicable, to collect damages or otherwise enforce our rights.

13.3 Termination After Notice.

(a) Except as provided in section 13.2 hereof, we may terminate this Agreement only for good cause (as defined in section 13.1(a) above) after giving you prior written notice setting forth the asserted breach of this Agreement and giving you 30 days in which to cure the default. Upon receipt of a notice of default, you must immediately commence diligently to cure said breach, and if you cure said breach within 30 days, our right to terminate this Agreement will cease. If because of the nature of the breach, it would be unreasonable for you to be able to cure the default within 30 days, you will be given additional time (up to 15 additional days) as is reasonably necessary in our determination to cure said breach, upon condition that you must, upon receipt of such notice from us, immediately commence to cure such breach and continue to use your best efforts to do so.

(b) If your rights under this Agreement are terminated by us for material breach, we may, at our option, (i) declare you in default of all franchise agreements or other agreements you have with us, and (ii) terminate your rights under those franchise agreements or other agreements as well.

(c) If your rights under this Agreement are terminated by us for your failure to make any payment due under this Agreement, section 14.1 below is not applicable, and we may immediately commence an action under section 14.2 below to collect damages or otherwise enforce our rights.

(d) The description of any default in any notice served by us hereunder upon you in no way precludes us from specifying additional or supplemental defaults in any action, arbitration, mediation, hearing or suit relating to this Agreement or the termination thereof.

13.4 Description of Default.

The description of any default in any notice served by us hereunder upon you in no way precludes us from specifying additional or supplemental defaults in any action, arbitration, mediation, hearing or suit relating to this Agreement or the termination thereof.

13.5 Statutory Limitations.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article XIII, in the event any valid, applicable law or regulation of a competent governmental authority having jurisdiction over this Agreement or the parties hereto limits our rights of termination hereunder or requires longer notice periods than those set forth herein, and in the event the parties are prohibited by law from agreeing to the shorter periods set forth herein, then this Agreement will be deemed amended to conform to the requirements of such laws and regulations, but in such event the provisions of the Agreement thus affected will be amended only to the extent necessary to bring it within the requirements of the law or regulation.

13.6 Extended Cure Period.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, including, without limitation, section 13.3(c) hereof, in those circumstances under which we have the right to terminate this Agreement, we also have the right, to be exercised in our sole discretion, to grant to you in writing only, in lieu of termination of this Agreement, an extended period of time to cure the breach which gave rise to our right to terminate, but in no event may such extended cure period exceed six months from the last day of the cure period otherwise applicable to such breach. You acknowledge that our election to grant an extended cure period to you will not operate as a waiver of any of our rights hereunder. Further, if we issue you a notice of default for a default that is capable of being cured, and you do not cure the default before the expiration of the cure period stated in the Franchise Agreement for that default, then you may send us a written request for an extension to the cure period and pay to us, along with your written request, a Cure Period Extension Fee of $1,000 USD. We do not have to grant you any extensions. The decision will be in our sole and absolute discretion.

13.7 Our Right to Cure Your Defaults.

In addition to all other remedies herein granted, if you default in the performance of any of your obligations or breach any term or condition of this Agreement or any related agreement involving third parties, we may, at our election, immediately or at any time thereafter, without waiving any claim for breach hereunder and without notice to you, cure the default for your account and on your behalf, and all costs or expenses including attorney's fees incurred by us on account thereof are due and payable by you to us on demand.

13.8 Waiver and Delay.

No waiver by us of any breach or series of breaches or defaults in performance by you and no failure, refusal or neglect of ours either to exercise any right, power or option given to us hereunder or to insist upon strict compliance with or performance of your obligations under this Agreement or the Brand Standards Manual, constitutes a waiver of the provisions of this Agreement or the Brand Standards Manual with respect to any subsequent breach thereof or a waiver by us of our right at any time thereafter to require exact and strict compliance with the provisions thereof.

13.9 Recovery of Lost Royalty; Liquidated Damages.

The parties agree that, if this Agreement is terminated as a result of your default before the expiration of the term, it would be impossible to calculate with reasonable precision, the losses that we would incur because of the unpredictability of future business conditions, inflationary prices, the impact on our and the System's reputation from having a closed location, our ability to replace the Franchised Business in the same market, and other factors. Accordingly, if this Agreement is terminated as a result of any default by you, we shall be entitled to recover as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, an amount equal to the (a) aggregate monthly Royalty fees and Promotional and Marketing Fund Contributions you are required to pay to us under this Agreement; multiplied by (b) 36 months.

13.10 Collection Costs.

We are entitled to reimbursement from you upon our demand of all costs we have incurred (including reasonable attorneys' fees and investigators' fees) to enforce our rights under this Agreement, including actions to collect any amounts due and delinquent hereunder.

13.11 Continuance of Business Relations.

Any continuance of business relations between you and us after termination of this Agreement will not be construed as a renewal, extension or continuation of this Agreement.

13.12 Post-Term Member Communications.

If this Agreement expires or is terminated, regardless of the cause for termination, we and our designees may, without restriction, contact members of your Franchised Business, including for the purpose of notifying such members of the termination or expiration of your right to operate the Franchised Business, and to inform them of other franchised business locations nearby. You are responsible for compliance with any and all applicable laws relating to notifying members of the closing and/or de-branding of the Franchised Business, as applicable.

XIV. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

14.1 Initial Steps to Resolve a Dispute; Mediation.

(a) We and you have entered into a long-term franchise relationship which gives rise to an obligation, subject to and consistent with the terms of this Agreement, to endeavor to make the relationship succeed, considering the overall best interests of the System, and as contemplated by this Agreement. To that end, you and we acknowledge that you and we need to attempt to resolve disagreements or disputes before such disagreements or disputes negatively impact the relationship. Good faith communications between you and us are an important aspect of that obligation. The parties hereby pledge and agree that they will resolve any dispute, claim or controversy (a) arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any alleged breach hereof, including any claim that this Agreement or any part hereof is invalid, illegal or otherwise voidable or void, and / or (b) related to the parties' relationship; and/or (c) events occurring prior to the entry into this Agreement, and/or (d) the Franchised Business, and/or (e) any System standard (collectively, "Dispute"), in accordance with the dispute resolution procedures set forth in this Agreement. Good faith participation in these procedures to the greatest extent reasonably possible, despite lack of cooperation by one or more of the other parties, is a precondition to maintaining any arbitration or legal action, including any action to interpret or enforce this Agreement. The parties pledge and agree that they will first attempt to resolve any Dispute by first having our executive officers and your Principal Equity Owners meet in person within five business days (or such longer period as the parties may mutually agree) after a party notifies the other party that a Dispute has arisen at our principal executive office (without our respective legal counsel) to conduct a good faith discussion and negotiation of the issues with a view to resolving the Dispute. Notwithstanding anything contained in this paragraph or otherwise in this Agreement to the contrary, we may proceed to terminate this Agreement in either of the following two situations without a settlement meeting or mediation proceeding: (i) if there is any breach of this Agreement by you that may result in an immediate termination of this Agreement pursuant to section 13.2 above, or (ii) if you fail to pay any sums due us under this Agreement which may result in termination of this Agreement pursuant to section 13.3 above. Also, if a party refuses to participate in the settlement meeting or mediation within the respective time frames set forth in this section 14.1, the other party may immediately commence an arbitration proceeding pursuant to section 14.2 below.

(b)If we are unable to settle the Dispute at the settlement conference described in section 14.1 above, 10 business days after the date this conference took place (or should have taken place), you and we may submit the dispute to non-binding mediation conducted by a mediator, and at a location, mutually agreeable to both parties. If the Dispute is not resolved through mediation, then within 10 business days after the conclusion of the mediation, the Dispute may be immediately submitted to binding resolution through arbitration proceedings pursuant to section 14.2 below. Any mediation proceeding should be completed within 45 days following the date either party first gives notice of mediation. The fees and expenses of the mediator will be shared equally by the parties. The mediator will be disqualified as a witness, expert or counsel for any party with respect to the Dispute and any related matter. Mediation is a compromise negotiation and will constitute privileged communications under the law governing this Agreement. The entire mediation process will be confidential and the conduct, statements, promises, offers, views and opinions of the mediator and the parties will not be discoverable or admissible in any legal proceeding for any purpose; provided, however, that evidence which is otherwise discoverable or admissible will not be excluded from discovery or admission because of its use in the mediation.

14.2 Arbitration.

(a)Except as specifically provided in sections 13.2(b) and 13.3(c) above, or in Section 14.3 below regarding injunctive relief, any Dispute between us (and/or our affiliated entities) and you (and/or your Principal Equity Owners or affiliated entities) not settled through the procedures described in section 14.1 above will be resolved through binding arbitration by and before JAMS, Inc. in accordance with its Streamlined Arbitration Rules and Procedures (if the amount in controversy is less than $250,000) or its Comprehensive Arbitration Rules and Procedures (if the amount in controversy is $250,000 or more), or if the parties in dispute mutually agree, through binding arbitration by any other mutually agreeable arbitration organization. It is explicitly agreed by each of the parties hereto that no arbitration of any Dispute may be commenced except in accordance with this section 14.2.

(b)All hearings and other proceedings will take place in Orange County, California, or other county where our headquarters is then located, or if we so elect, at the JAMS business location nearest in the county where your (or an applicable Principal Equity Owner's) principal place of business is then located.

(c)Either party may present briefs and affidavits of witnesses who are unable to attend hearings. A limited amount of discovery is permitted within the discretion of the arbitrator (including affidavits, interrogatories and depositions). The arbitrator will have the right to award or include in the award any relief that the arbitrator deems proper in the circumstances, including money damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from the date due), specific performance and injunctive relief, provided that the arbitrator will not have the right to declare any Mark generic or otherwise invalid or to award punitive damages. If either party fails to appear or participate in the arbitration proceeding, the other party will be entitled to a default judgment award. The arbitration award will be final and binding on the parties, and judgment on the award may be entered in any federal or state court having jurisdiction.

(d) TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ALL CLAIMS BROUGHT UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE BROUGHT IN AN INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY. THIS AGREEMENT MAY NOT BE CONSTRUED TO ALLOW OR PERMIT THE CONSOLIDATION OR JOINDER OF OTHER CLAIMS OR CONTROVERSIES INVOLVING

ANY OTHER FRANCHISEES OR PERMIT SUCH CLAIMS OR CONTROVERSIES TO PROCEED AS A CLASS ACTION, CLASS ARBITRATION, COLLECTIVE ACTION, OR ANY SIMILAR REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. NO ARBITRATOR WILL HAVE THE AUTHORITY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT TO ORDER ANY SUCH CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. BY SIGNING BELOW, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE YOU ARE AGREEING TO WAIVE ANY SUBSTANTIVE OR PROCEDURAL RIGHTS THAT YOU MAY HAVE TO BRING AN ACTION ON A CLASS, COLLECTIVE, REPRESENTATIVE OR OTHER SIMILAR BASIS. ACCORDINGLY, YOU EXPRESSLY AGREE TO WAIVE ANY RIGHT YOU MAY HAVE TO BRING AN ACTION ON A CLASS, COLLECTIVE, REPRESENTATIVE OR OTHER SIMILAR BASIS.

(e) TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE PARTIES WAIVE ALL RIGHTS THEY MAY HAVE TO SEEK PUNITIVE, MULTIPLE AND/OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES FROM ONE ANOTHER, EXCEPT THIS WAIVER AND LIMITATION SHALL NOT APPLY WITH RESPECT TO (A) YOUR OBLIGATION TO INDEMNIFY US PURSUANT TO ANY PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT; OR (B) ANY CLAIMS WE BRING AGAINST YOU OR ANY OF YOUR OWNERS FOR UNAUTHORIZED USE OF THE MARKS, UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OR USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, UNFAIR COMPETITION, BREACH OF YOUR NON-COMPETITION COVENANTS AND/OR ANY CAUSE OF ACTION BROUGHT BY US OR ANY OF OUR AFFILIATES UNDER THE LANHAM ACT. ACCORDINGLY, THE ARBITRATOR WILL HAVE NO POWER TO ASSESS PUNITIVE DAMAGES AGAINST EITHER PARTY.

(f) This arbitration provision is deemed to be self-executing and will remain in full force and effect after expiration or termination of this Agreement. If either party fails to appear at any properly noticed arbitration proceeding, an award may be entered against such party by default or otherwise notwithstanding said failure to appear.

(g) The provisions of this section 14.2 are intended to benefit and bind certain third-party non-signatories and will continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any expiration or termination of this Agreement. Furthermore, this section 14.2 will be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement; provided, however, that if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any of such provisions are unlawful in any way, the court is respectfully requested to modify or interpret such provisions to the minimum extent necessary to comply with the law.

14.3 Injunctive Relief.

Any party has the right in a situation where there is an imminent threat of harm to the legal rights of a party and damages would not be adequate relief to seek a temporary restraining order and temporary or preliminary injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, without the necessity of first complying with sections 14.1 and 14.2 above or posting any bond, and if bond is nevertheless required by a court of competent jurisdiction, the parties agree that the sum of $1,000 will be a sufficient bond (this amount may be adjusted by changes in the Consumer Price Index since the Effective Date). If an arbitration proceeding has already commenced pursuant to section 14.2 above when a party seeks injunctive relief, then the party seeking such injunctive relief agrees to contemporaneously submit the merits of its dispute to the arbitrator. The existence of a proceeding commenced under section 14.1 or 14.2 above will in no event abate or otherwise affect the ability of party to seek injunctive relief under this section 14.3. You acknowledge that failure on your part to comply fully with any of the terms of this Agreement respecting the obligations regarding examinations, audits and the Marks could cause irreparable damage to us or other affiliated persons or entities and we or our affiliates could seek injunctive relief to protect the Marks. This covenant is independent, severable and enforceable notwithstanding any other rights or remedies that any party may have.

14.4 Legal Fees and Expenses.

The prevailing party in any arbitration or litigation to resolve a dispute between any of the parties hereto will be entitled to recover from the losing party reasonable legal fees (and incurred costs of the prevailing party's counsel) and all other "Expenses" (as defined in section 16.2(e) below) incurred by the prevailing party in bringing or defending such arbitration, action or proceeding and/or enforcing any resulting award or judgment (including without limitation arbitration or court filing fees, expert and other witness fees, discovery expenses and compensation payable to the arbitrator), whether incurred prior to or in preparation for or in contemplation of the filing of the action or thereafter. The prevailing party will be determined by the arbitrator or court. This section 14.4 is intended to be expressly severable from the other provisions of this Agreement, is intended to survive any judgment and is not to be deemed merged into the judgment.

14.5 Survival.

The terms of this Article XIV survive termination, expiration or cancellation of this Agreement.

14.6 Limitation of Action.

Except for claims arising from your non-payment or underpayment of amounts you owe to us or our affiliates, or claims related to your unauthorized use of the Marks or violation of any non-competition covenant, any and all claims arising out of or related to this Agreement or the relationship of the parties will be barred unless a judicial or arbitration proceeding, as required under this Agreement, is commenced within one (1) year from the date on which the party asserting such claim knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to such claims, and that any action not so brought shall be barred, whether as a claim, counterclaim, defense or setoff. Without limiting the foregoing, you acknowledge and agree that you may not maintain any action against us or any of our owners, employees, directors, officers, shareholders, affiliates, parents, successors or assigns unless (a) you deliver written notice of any claim to the other party within one hundred eighty (180) days after the event complained of becomes known to you, and (b) you strictly adhere to the negotiation, mediation and arbitration procedures set forth in this Agreement.

XV. OBLIGATIONS AND RIGHTS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

15.1 Your Obligations.

(a) If there is a termination, cancellation or expiration of this Agreement (whether by reason of your breach, default, non-renewal, lapse of time or other cause), in addition to any other obligations provided for in this Agreement, you must forthwith discontinue the use or display of the Marks in any manner whatsoever, and you may not thereafter operate or do business under the Marks or any other Fit Body Boot Camp brand or any other name or in any manner that might tend to give the general public the impression that you are in any way associated or affiliates with us, or any of the businesses conducted by us or the owner of the Marks, including without limitation repainting the business premises in a distinctively different color and removing or rearranging distinctive elements of the Fit Body Boot Camp trade dress. You must contact online business review sites and other online directories and websites and request the removal of all use of the trademarks relating to the former Fit Body Boot Camp Franchised Business (and the physical address of the former Fit Body Boot Camp Outlet) and all use of former reviews from the period you were a Fit Body Boot Camp franchisee. And, you also must comply with section 15.2 respecting the return to us of certain materials and must not thereafter use, in any manner, or for any purpose, directly or indirectly, any of our trade secrets, procedures, techniques, or materials acquired by you by virtue of the relationship established by this Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) any training or other materials, manuals, bulletins, instruction sheets, or supplements thereto, or (ii) any equipment, videotapes, videodiscs, forms, advertising matter, devices, insignias, slogans or designs used from time to time in connection with the Franchised Business.

(b) If there is a termination, cancellation or expiration as described in section 15.1(a) above, you must comply with section 11.2 of this Agreement respecting post-termination competition and promptly:

(i) Remove at your expense all signs erected or used by you and bearing the Marks, or any word or mark indicating that you are associated or affiliated with us;

(ii) Erase or obliterate from letterheads, stationery, printed matter, advertising or other forms used by you the Marks and all words indicating that you are associated or affiliated with us;

(iii) Permanently discontinue all advertising of yours that states or implies that you are associated or affiliated with us or the System;

(iv) If you engage in any business thereafter, you must use trade names, service marks or trademarks that are significantly different from those under which you had done business and must use sign formats that are significantly different in color and type face; and take all necessary steps to ensure that your present and former employees, agents, officers, shareholders and partners observe the foregoing obligations;

(v) Assign all interest and right to use all telephone numbers and all listings applicable to the Franchised Business in use at the time of such termination to us and take all action necessary to change all such telephone numbers immediately and change all such listings as soon as possible;

(vi) At our option, assign to us or our designee, any interest which you have in any lease for the Franchised Business. If we do not require you to assign the lease to us or our designee, you shall make all modifications, changes and alterations to the interior and exterior of the premises, as we may direct, so as to completely de-identify the premises from the System;

(vii) You shall immediately pay all sums owing to us and our subsidiaries and affiliates, including Royalty Fees and Marketing and Promotion Fund Contributions, interest on any of the foregoing, and all other amounts owed to us that are then unpaid.

(c) If you fail or omit to make or cause to be made any removal or change described in section 15.1(b)(i) through 15.1(b)(vi) above, then we will have the right within 15 days after written notice to enter your Outlet or other premises from which the Franchised Business is being conducted without being deemed guilty of trespass or any other tort, and make or cause to be made such removal and changes at your expense, which expenses you agree to pay to us promptly upon demand; and you hereby irrevocably appoint us as your lawful attorney upon termination of this Agreement with authority to file any document in the name of and on our behalf for the purpose of terminating any and all of your rights in any trade name you have used that contains any of the Marks.

15.2 Our Rights as Franchisor.

(a) The termination, cancellation, expiration or assignment of this Agreement will be without prejudice to any rights of us against you and such termination, cancellation, expiration or assignment will not relieve you of any of your obligations to us existing at the time of termination, cancellation, expiration or assignment or terminate those obligations of ours which, by their nature, survive the termination, cancellation, expiration or assignment of this Agreement.

(b) We may direct that all applicable suppliers immediately cease providing you with equipment, marketing materials, e-mail access, website access, accessories and other items comprising or to be used to provide Fit Body Boot Camp Services and Products.

(c) You are obligated to return, at no expense to us, any and all copies of the Brand Standards Manual and all other Fit Body Boot Camp proprietary materials and any other items that were supplied by us for your use without additional charge in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business. You must also permanently erase anything relating to us or the Franchised Business from any computers and other media storage devices you retain after expiration, cancellation or termination of this Agreement.

(d) Within 30 days after termination, expiration or non-renewal of this Agreement, we will have the option, but not the obligation, to purchase all or any portion of your reusable inventory, apparel containing the Marks, proprietary equipment, parts, fixtures and furnishings owned and used by you in your franchised operation. We will be permitted to deduct and withdraw from the purchase price to be paid to you all sums then due and owing to us. The purchase price for your inventory of apparel containing the Marks will be at your cost for said items. The purchase price for the proprietary equipment, parts, fixtures and furnishings will be the fair market value thereof as we mutually determine. In determining the fair market value of such items, you and we agree to exclude any factor or increment for goodwill or going concern value. The purchase price to be paid to you will be paid in cash at the closing of any purchase that will occur no less than 30 days from the date we exercise our option, unless you and we are unable to agree on the fair market value of the assets to be purchased. If you and we are unable to reach agreement within a reasonable time as to the fair market value of the items we have agreed to purchase, we will designate an independent appraiser, and the appraiser's determination will be binding. You and we must each pay 50% of the fee charged by the independent appraiser.

(d) Any notices sent to you which include a statement of intent to terminate or not renew the Franchise must provide (i) the reasons why and (ii) the effective date of such termination or nonrenewal or expiration.

16.2 Indemnity.

(a) You and your owners, jointly and severally, hereby agree to protect, defend and indemnify us, and all of our past, present and future owners, affiliates, officers, directors, shareholders, employees, attorneys and designees, and each of them, and hold them harmless from and against any and all Losses directly or indirectly arising out of, related to, or in connection with any "Proceeding" (as defined in section 16.2(f) below) concerning: (a) the Outlet; (b) your development, maintenance or operation of the Outlet; (c) any breach of this Agreement; and/or (d) the Franchised Business, except if caused by our intentional misfeasance or gross negligence. This indemnity will continue in effect after the expiration, transfer or termination of this Agreement. Under no circumstances will we or any other indemnified party under this paragraph, be required to seek recovery from any insurer or other third party, or otherwise to mitigate their or our losses or expenses, in order to maintain and fully recover a claim against you or any of your owners.

(b) For the indemnification to be effective, each indemnified party ("Indemnified Party") will give the indemnifying party ("Indemnifying Party") reasonable notice of each claim or loss for which the Indemnified Party demands indemnity and defense, except that failure to provide such notice will not release the Indemnifying Party from any obligations hereunder except to the extent that the Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced by such failure. The Indemnifying Party will assume, at its sole cost and expense, the defense of such Proceeding through legal counsel reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party, except that the Indemnified Party may at its option and expense select and be represented by separate counsel. The Indemnifying Party will have control over the Proceeding, including the right to settle; provided, however, the Indemnifying Party will not, absent the written consent of the Indemnified Party, consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement that: (i) provides for any admission of liability on the part of the Indemnified Party or relief other than the payment of monetary damages for which the Indemnifying Party will be solely liable; or (ii) adversely affects the rights of the Indemnified Party under this Agreement, or (iii) does not release the Indemnified Party from all Proceedings and "Losses" (as defined in section 16.2(d) below) in respect thereof. In no event will the Indemnified Party be liable for any Losses that are compromised or settled in violation of this section 16.2. The Indemnifying Party's duty to defend is independent of its duty to indemnify. Each indemnified party must submit all its claims to its insurers in a timely manner. Any payments made by an indemnified party will be net of benefits received by any indemnified party from insurance in respect of such claims.

(c) The term "Losses" means, refers to, and includes all "Expenses" (as defined in section 16.2(e) below), liabilities, obligations, losses, fines, penalties, costs, or damages including all reasonable out of pocket fees and disbursements of legal counsel in the investigation or defense of any of the same or in asserting any party's respective rights hereunder but excluding punitive damages (unless resulting from third party claims).

It is further agreed that you have no authority to create or assume in our name or on our behalf, any obligation, express or implied, or to act or purport to act as agent or representative on our behalf for any purpose whatsoever. Neither you nor we are the employer, employee, agent, partner, fiduciary or co-venturer of or with the other, each being independent. You agree that you will not hold yourself out as our agent, employee, partner or co-venturer or the Owner of the Marks. All employees or agents hired or engaged by or working for you will be only the employees or agents of yours and will not for any purpose be deemed employees or agents of ours or the Owner of the Marks, nor subject to our control; and in particular, we will have no authority to exercise control over the hiring or termination of these employees, independent contractors, or others who work for you, their compensation, working hours or conditions, or their day-to-day activities, except to the extent necessary to protect the Marks. You agree to diligently consider customer reviews and respond to customer indications of dissatisfaction with services rendered by you in a diligent and professional manner and agree to cooperate with representatives of ours or the Owner of the Marks in any investigation undertaken by us of complaints respecting your activities. You and we agree to file our own tax, regulatory and payroll reports with respect to our respective employees or agents and operations, saving and indemnifying the other party hereto of and from any liability of any nature whatsoever by virtue thereof.

(b) During the term of this Agreement (and any renewals hereof), you and your Principal Equity Owners jointly and severally (i) covenant to refrain from making any derogatory and/or disparaging statements to any other person or third parties or regulatory authorities about us, any of our officers, managers, employees or agents, or the Fit Body Boot Camp franchise system, and (ii) agree not to issue any public statement or otherwise cause to be disclosed any information that is designed, intended or might reasonably be anticipated to have a negative effect on the Fit Body Boot Camp franchise system, us, or any of our officers, managers, employees or agents. Any violation of the terms of this section 16.3(b) by you or a Principal Equity Owner will be deemed a material breach of this Agreement.

16.4 No Third-Party Beneficiaries.

This Agreement is not intended to benefit any other person or entity except the named parties hereto and no other person or entity (other than financing sources to whom we may have granted or consented to a collateral assignment of this Agreement) will be entitled to any rights hereunder due to so-called “third party beneficiary rights” or otherwise.

16.5 Survival of Covenants.

The covenants contained in this Agreement that by their terms require performance by the parties after the expiration or termination of this Agreement will be enforceable notwithstanding said expiration or other termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

16.10 Severability; Partial Invalidity.

Whenever there is any conflict between (i) any provisions of this Agreement or the Brand Standards Manual and (ii) any present or future statute, law, ordinance, regulation or judicial decision, contrary to which the parties have no legal right under this Agreement, the latter will prevail, but in such event the provision of this Agreement or the Brand Standards Manual thus affected will be curtailed and limited only to the extent necessary to bring it within the requirements of the law. In the event that any part, article, section, sentence or clause of this Agreement or the Brand Standards Manual is held to be indefinite, invalid or otherwise unenforceable, that specific language will be deemed deleted but the remaining parts thereof will continue in full force and effect.

The Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §1 et seq.) governs the arbitration of disputes under this Agreement. Otherwise, the laws of the state in which the Outlet is located or intended to be located shall govern this Agreement and all related matters, documents and agreements, without regard to conflicts of laws. If any provision of this Agreement is impermissible under a governing law, the provision will be deemed amended to conform to that law while maintaining to the maximum extent possible the original intent of the provision, or if the provision as amended cannot substantially maintain the original intent, then the provision will be deemed deleted.

16.14 Entire Agreement.

(a) The parties to this Agreement each acknowledge and warrant to each other that they wish to have all terms of this business relationship defined solely in and by this written Agreement and the Brand Standards Manual. Recognizing the costs on all parties which attend uncertainty, the signatories to this Agreement each confirm that neither wishes to enter into a business relationship with the other in which any terms or obligations are the subject of alleged oral statements or in which oral statements or non-contract writings (which have been or may in the future be exchanged between them) serve as the basis for creating rights or obligations different than or supplementary to the rights and obligations set forth herein. Accordingly, the signatories each agree and promise each other that this Agreement, the Brand Standards Manual, and the representations made by us in the Fit Body Boot Camp Franchise Disclosure Document (“FDD”) provided to you, supersede and cancel any prior and/or contemporaneous discussions or writings (whether described as representations, inducements, promises, agreements, understandings or any other term), by any of the parties or by anyone acting on his, her or their behalf, with respect to the rights and obligations of the parties to this Agreement or the relationship between them. Each signatory to this Agreement agrees and promises the other that they have placed, and will place, no reliance on any such discussions or writings.

(b) In accordance with the foregoing section 16.14(a), the parties to this Agreement agree that this Agreement, and the Brand Standards Manual, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and contain all of the terms, conditions, rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the franchised business contemplated by this Agreement and any other aspect of the relationship between the parties; provided however, that nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement or writing is intended to disclaim the representations made in the FDD that was provided to you.

(c) This Agreement cannot be modified or changed except by written instrument signed by all of the parties hereto.

XVII. EFFECTIVENESS OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement will become effective only upon the execution thereof by you and by us, and only after you were furnished with an FDD. HOWEVER, THIS AGREEMENT IS NOT BINDING ON US UNLESS AND UNTIL IT HAS BEEN ACCEPTED AND SIGNED BY US.

EXHIBIT 3 – SAMPLE ASSIGNMENT & ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF FRANCHISE AGREEMENT (the “Assignment”) is made and entered into this _____ day of _____, 201____ (the “Effective Date”), by and between: (i) Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc. (“Franchisor”); (ii) [INSERT INDIVIDUAL ASSIGNOR(S)], as individuals (collectively the “Assignor”); and (iii) [INSERT FRANCHISEE ENTITY], a _____ with an address at _____ (“Assignee”) which entity is owned and controlled by Assignor (“Guarantors”).

BACKGROUND

A. Franchisor and Assignor entered into a certain Franchise Agreement dated on or about [INSERT DATE OF FRANCHISE AGREEMENT] (the “Franchise Agreement”) whereby Assignor was granted the right and undertook the obligation to operate a Fit Body Boot Camp® franchise (the “Franchised Business”).

B. Assignor has formed a legal entity, namely Assignee, for the convenience and purpose of owning and operating the Franchised Business.

C. Assignor desires to assign their rights and obligations under the Franchise Agreement to Assignee pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of the Franchise Agreement.

D. Franchisor is willing to consent to the assignment of the Franchise Agreement to Assignee, subject to the terms and conditions of this Assignment, including without limitation, each Assignor’s agreement to guarantee the performance by Assignee of its obligations under the Franchise Agreement and to continue to be bound by all of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement.

AGREEMENT

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained in this Assignment, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound, the parties agree as follows:

1. Assignment and Assumption. Assignor hereby assigns and transfers over to Assignee all of their rights, title and interest in and to the Franchise Agreement and Franchised Business, effective as of the date of this Assignment. Assignee hereby assumes all of Assignor’s obligations, assignments, commitments, duties and liabilities under the Franchise Agreement, and agrees to be bound by and observe and faithfully perform all of the obligations, assignments, commitments and duties of the franchisee under the Franchise Agreement with the same force and effect as if the Franchise Agreement were originally written with Assignee as the “Franchisee” thereunder. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Assignment, Franchisor consents to the assignment and assumption described in this Section 1, and hereby waives any right of first refusal with respect to the assignment described in this Agreement.

2. Assignor’s Personal Guaranty of Franchisee’s Obligation; Continued Obligations under Franchise Agreement. Each Assignor agrees that it shall continue to be personally bound by all of the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement, and each Guarantor agrees to be personally bound by all of Franchisee’s obligations under the Franchise Agreement, including all covenants not to compete set forth therein, and further agree that nothing contained in this Assignment herein shall be deemed to relieve any Assignor of any of their obligations contained in the Franchise Agreement. Each Assignor further agrees to, and by this instrument does hereby, guarantee the performance by Assignee of all of its obligations, commitments, duties and liabilities under the Franchise Agreement, including without limitation, all monetary obligations thereunder. Guarantors hereby agree to enter into the form of Personal Guaranty designated by Franchisor immediately on the Effective Date.

3. Enforcement. In the enforcement of any of its rights against either Assignor, the parties agree that Franchisor may proceed as if each Assignor were the primary obligor under the Franchise Agreement. Each Assignor waives any right to require Franchisor to first proceed against Assignee or to proceed against or exhaust any security (if any) held by Franchisor or to pursue any other remedy available to it before proceeding against Assignor. No dealing between Franchisor and Assignee shall exonerate, release, discharge or in any way reduce the obligations of any Assignor hereunder, in whole or in part, and in particular and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Franchisor may modify or amend the Franchise Agreement, grant any indulgence, release, postponement or extension of time, waive any term or condition of the Franchise Agreement, or any obligation of Assignee, take or release any securities or other guarantees for the performance by Assignee of any of its obligations, and otherwise deal with Assignee as Franchisor may see fit without affecting, lessening or limiting in any way the liability of Assignor. Notwithstanding any assignment for the general benefit of creditors or any bankruptcy or other act of insolvency by Assignee and notwithstanding any rejection, disaffirmance or disclaimer of this Assignment or the Franchise Agreement, Assignor shall continue to be fully liable.

4. Release. Upon execution of this Assignment, each Assignor, for himself/herself and all persons and entities claiming by, through or under any of either of them, hereby releases, acquits, and forever discharges Franchisor and its present and former officers, employees, shareholders, directors, agents, servants, representatives, affiliates, franchisees, licensees, successors and assigns (the "Franchisor Releasees") from all obligations, claims, debts, demands, covenants, contracts, promises, agreements, liabilities, costs, attorneys' fees, actions or causes of action whatsoever, whether known or unknown, which either Assignor, by himself/herself or on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, persons, partnership or corporation, has, had, or might claim to have against the Franchisor Releasees that accrued prior to the date this Assignment is fully executed, including those arising out of or related to: (i) the offer, sale, operation and/or transfer of the Franchised Business and any other franchise granted by Franchisor as of the date of this Agreement; (ii) the Franchise Agreement and any other contract/agreement entered into between any Assignor and any Franchisor Releasee, as well as the parties' respective rights or obligations in connection with such agreements; and (iii) any and all rights, obligations or claims under any state franchise regulations or franchise relationship laws. Each Assignor warrants and represents that it has not assigned or otherwise transferred any claim or cause of action released by this Assignment. Each Assignor further warrants and represents that it will not sue or assist or cooperate with any third party in any third-party action against, any Franchisor Releasee arising out of or related to the claims released under this Section.

The parties acknowledge that they have been advised by counsel and are familiar with and expressly waive the provisions of California Civil Code § 1542, which provides as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

Each of the Releasing Parties hereby waive and relinquish every right or benefit which he/she or it may have under Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, and any similar statute under any other state or federal law, to the fullest extent that he/she or it may lawfully waive such right or benefit. In connection with this waiver and relinquishment, with respect to the Claims released above, each party acknowledges that it may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those which they now know or believe to be true but that it is the parties' intention, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, to fully, finally and forever to settle and release all such claims, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which now exist, may exist or did exist, and, in furtherance of such intention, the release given above shall be and remain in effect as a full and complete release, notwithstanding the discovery or existence of any such additional or different facts.

5. Successors and Assigns. Neither Assignor nor Assignee may assign, transfer, convey or otherwise delegate any of their respective rights, title, interest or obligations under this Assignment without Franchisor's prior written consent. This Assignment shall be binding and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective heirs, successors and permitted assigns.

6. Governing Law, Venue and Dispute Resolution Same as Franchise Agreement. The parties acknowledge and agree that the governing law, venue and dispute resolution provisions set forth in the Franchise Agreement shall apply to this Assignment as if set forth fully herein.

7. Entire Agreement; Acknowledgement and Representation. This Assignment shall constitute the entire integrated assignment between the parties with respect to the subject matter contained herein and shall not be subject to change, modification, amendment or addition without the express written consent of all the parties. Each Assignor: (i) agrees and acknowledges that Assignor's obligations under this Assignment are joint and several in nature; and (ii) that they are the owners of all ownership interests of the Assignor entity.

8. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. In the event that it becomes necessary for Franchisor to retain the services of legal counsel to enforce the terms of this Assignment, Franchisor shall be entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, expert and investigative fees, incurred in enforcing the terms of this Assignment.

9. Right to Review and to Counsel. Each party declares that the terms of this Assignment have been completely read and are fully understood and voluntarily accepted by each party, after having a reasonable opportunity to retain, and confer with counsel. This Assignment is entered into after a full investigation by the parties, and the parties are not relying upon any statements or representations not contained in this Assignment.

10. Authority. The persons executing this Assignment on behalf of Assignee acknowledge their authority to do so.

I HAVE READ THE ABOVE AGREEMENT AND UNDERSTAND ITS TERMS. I WOULD NOT SIGN THIS AGREEMENT IF I DID NOT UNDERSTAND AND AGREE TO BE BOUND BY ITS TERMS.

2. Landlord, Tenant and Franchisee shall enter into Franchisor’s collateral assignment of lease in the form attached to this Rider as Attachment A.
3. Franchisor or its designee shall have the right, but not the obligation, upon giving written notice of its election to Tenant and Landlord, to cure any breach of the Lease and, if so, stated in the notice, to also succeed to Tenant’s rights, title and interests thereunder.
4. Landlord and Tenant hereby acknowledge that Tenant has agreed under the Franchise Agreement that Franchisor and its employees or agents shall have the right to enter the Location for certain purposes. Landlord hereby agrees not to interfere with or prevent such entry by Franchisor, its employees or agents. - 8.9. References to the Landlord, Tenant and Franchisor include the successors and assigns of each of the parties.

COLLATERAL ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE

THIS COLLATERAL ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE is made as of the last date below written by and among _____ (“Tenant”), FIT BODY BOOT CAMP INC. (“Franchisor”), and _____ (“Landlord”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Tenant is the tenant under a certain lease (or sublease), dated _____ (the “Lease”), wherein Landlord leased to Tenant certain premises at _____ (the “Premises”); and

WHEREAS, Tenant and Franchisor have, or will, enter into a Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”), whereby Franchisor will grant to Tenant the right to open and operate a Fit Body Boot Camp® franchised Outlet at the Premises; and

WHEREAS, as a condition to Franchisor entering into the Franchise Agreement, Franchisor has required that Tenant assign its right, title and interest in the Lease, with the right to reassign (as provided therein), as security for Tenant’s obligations and Franchisor’s rights under the Franchise Agreement; and

WHEREAS, in order to induce Franchisor to enter into the Franchise Agreement, Tenant has agreed to assign its right, title and interest in the Lease, with the right to reassign (as provided therein), as security for Tenant’s obligations and Franchisor’s rights under the Franchise Agreement.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration for the foregoing premises and the mutual promises contained herein and in the Franchise Agreement, and in order to secure Tenant’s obligations and Franchisor’s rights under the Franchise Agreement, Tenant does hereby collaterally assign, transfer and set over unto Franchisor, with the right to reassign (as provided herein), all of its right, title and interest in and to the Lease and in and to the Premises; it being nevertheless expressly understood and agreed that this assignment is made and is consented to by the Landlord contingent upon the following terms, covenants, limitations and conditions:

1. Tenant’s Right to Possession. Tenant shall retain right to possession of the Premises in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Lease until the occurrence of an Assignment Event (as defined in paragraph 2 of this Agreement).

2. Assignment Events.

2.1 Franchisor shall have the right to exercise either of the options set forth in paragraphs 2.1(i) or 2.1(ii) below upon: (a) Franchisor’s declaration of a default by Tenant under the Franchise Agreement, which remains uncured beyond all applicable notice and cure periods; (b) the expiration or earlier termination of the Franchise Agreement; or (c) an expression by Tenant of its desire to terminate the Lease (each, an “Assignment Event”). Upon the occurrence of an Assignment Event, Franchisor shall have the option to either:

(i) assume and occupy the Premises upon written notice to Landlord and Tenant, in which event Franchisor shall be deemed to be substituted as the tenant under the Lease in the place and stead of Tenant and shall be deemed to have assumed expressly all of the terms, covenants and obligations of the

Lease theretofore applicable to Tenant and shall likewise be entitled to enjoy all of the rights and privileges granted to Tenant under the terms and conditions of the Lease; or

(ii) assign the Lease to an affiliate or an approved Fit Body Boot Camp® franchisee, without obtaining Landlord's prior written consent, provided that, in the event of an assignment to a franchisee, such franchisee: (x) has a net worth equal to or greater than the net worth of Tenant at the time of Lease execution; (y) assumes all of Tenant's obligations under the Lease; and (z) completes Franchisor's initial training program to Franchisor's satisfaction.

2.2 If Franchisor exercises either of the rights set forth in paragraphs 2.1(i) or 2.1(ii) above, Tenant shall remain obligated under the Lease and Tenant shall be liable to Franchisor for all payments by Franchisor for rent and other Lease obligations. The parties acknowledge that such payments are reasonable expenses of foreclosure.

2.3 If Franchisor exercises either of the rights set forth in paragraphs 2.1(i) or 2.1(ii) above, Landlord shall not terminate or accelerate the rent owed under the Lease in connection with any such assignment, so long as Franchisor, or its franchisee, assumes, in writing, the obligations of Tenant under the Lease. Nothing in this Paragraph 2.3 shall serve to extend the term of the Lease or provide Franchisor with occupancy rights, options to renew or other rights not expressly set forth to Tenant in the Lease.

3. Agreement of Landlord.

3.1 Landlord agrees to provide Franchisor with copies of any and all letters and notices to Tenant pertaining to the Lease and the Premises at the same time that such letters and notices are sent to Tenant.

3.2 Landlord further agrees that, if it intends to terminate the Lease, Landlord will give Franchisor the same advance written notice of such intent as provided to Tenant, specifying in such notice all defaults that are the cause of any proposed termination. Franchisor shall have the right to cure, at its sole option, any such default within the time periods granted to Tenant under the Lease.

3.3 If neither Tenant nor Franchisor cures all such defaults within the prescribed time period (or such longer period as may be specifically permitted by the Lease), then the Landlord may terminate the Lease, re-enter the Premises, and/or exercise all other rights as set forth in the Lease. Landlord will promptly notify Franchisor of any expression by Tenant of its desire to terminate the Lease.

4. Right to Enter and Make Modifications to Premises. Before the expiration or termination of the Lease, Franchisor shall have the right to enter the Premises to make any reasonable modifications or reasonable alterations necessary to protect Franchisor's interest in the Fit Body Boot Camp® franchise system or its proprietary marks, or to cure any default under the Franchise Agreement entered into by and between Franchisor and Tenant, or any affiliate of Tenant. Landlord and Tenant agree that Franchisor shall not be liable for trespass or any other crimes or tort.

5. Notices. All notices and demands required to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be sent by personal delivery, expedited delivery service, certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, first-class postage prepaid, facsimile, telegram or telex (provide that the sender confirm the facsimile, telegram or telex by sending an original confirmation copy by certified transmission), to the respective parties at the following addresses unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other parties.

If to Franchisor:

Fit Body Boot Camp Inc.

With a copy to:

If to Tenant:

If to Landlord:

Any notices sent by personal delivery shall be deemed given upon receipt. Any notices given by telex or facsimile shall be deemed given on the business day of transmission, provided confirmation is made as provided above. Any notice sent by expedited delivery service or registered or certified mail shall be deemed given three (3) business days after the time of mailing. Any change in the foregoing addresses shall be effected by giving fifteen (15) days written notice of such change to the other parties.

6. No Material Modification of Lease. Landlord and Tenant will not amend, renew, extend or otherwise modify the Lease in any manner which would materially affect any of the foregoing provisions without Franchisor's prior written consent.

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc. which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, and the related statements of operations, stockholder's deficit, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc. as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with U.S. GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with U.S. GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1 – Nature of Business and Operations

Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc. (the Company or FBBC) was incorporated in California on March 2, 2011. The Company was organized for the purpose of franchising fitness programs and services worldwide under the name “Fit Body Boot Camp.” The sole stockholder of the Company is a family trust, hereinafter referred to as the “Stockholder.”

The Company entered into a perpetual and nontransferable license agreement with Empire TM Holding Company, LLC (the “Licensor”). The Licensor is an entity related to the Company through common ownership. The license agreement grants the Company an exclusive right to use the Fit Body Boot Camp trademarks, service marks, and other intellectual property (“FBBC IP”). It gives the Company the ability to license the FBBC IP to franchisees under the franchise agreements.

The Company is also engaged in the administration, development, operation, and licensing of businesses that operate the franchise studios.

As of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, the Company had franchises in operation of 277, 299, and 277, respectively, with Fit Body Boot Camp studios in most states in the United States and Canada, and licensed sites in Great Britain and Australia. During the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, the Company sold 36, 49, and 46 franchises, respectively, to new and existing franchisees. Additionally, as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, there were no corporate-owned locations opened.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of presentation – The Company’s financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP). The Company believes this information includes all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring accruals, necessary to fairly present the financial condition as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022. References to ASC and ASU included hereinafter refers to the Accounting Standards Codification and Accounting Standards Update established by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) as the source of authoritative U.S. GAAP.

Use of estimates – The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the balance sheet date. The actual results could differ significantly from those estimates.

Cash – The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of 90 days or less to be cash equivalents. The Company had no cash equivalents as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022.

Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Accounts receivable – Accounts receivable represent amounts due from franchisees for royalty, software, and marketing fee revenues and are stated net of an allowance for credit losses. Amounts are stated at the amounts expected to be collected from balances outstanding. The Company accounts for accounts receivables in line with ASU 2016-13 and estimates the allowance for credit losses when lifetime credit losses are expected. The Company assesses collectability based on consideration of the age, nature of the past due accounts, historical losses, existing economic conditions, and specific analysis of each account. As of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, the Company recorded an allowance for credit losses of $37,174, $60,997, and $13,135, respectively. As of January 1, 2022, the opening balance of accounts receivable, net was $196,044.

Property and equipment – Property and equipment are carried at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Expenditures for additions, replacement, and major improvements are capitalized. Maintenance, repairs, and minor renewals are expensed as incurred. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of six years for computer and office equipment and seven years for furniture, fixtures, and vehicles. Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the useful lives of the improvements. When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related accumulated depreciation is removed from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is recognized.

Leases – The Company accounts for its operating lease under ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). Leases are evaluated and classified as operating or finance leases for financial reporting purposes. The classification evaluation begins at the commencement date, and the lease term used in the evaluation includes the noncancellable period for, which the Company has the right to use the underlying asset.

Right-of-use (ROU) asset represents the Partnership's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liability represents the Partnership's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. The Lease liability is recognized at the lease commencement date based on the present value of future lease payments over the lease term discounted at the risk-free rate (discount rate) corresponding with the lease term.

The lease term used for straight-line rent expense is calculated from the commencement date through the lease termination date. The Company has elected to not separate lease and nonlease components. The Company has also elected to not apply the recognition requirement to any leases with a term of 12 months or less. In the prior year, the Company had one long-term related party lease classified as an operating lease under ASC 842, however, as of December 31, 2023, the lease was amended to be short-term. Under ASU 2023-01 (Common Control Arrangements under ASC 842) the Company applies the practice expedient to use the written terms and conditions of a common control arrangements to determine whether a lease exists and, if so, the classification between short-term and long-term. The Company does not have any finance leases.

Contract liability – Contract liability or deferred revenue is a liability related to a revenue-producing activity for which revenue has not yet been recognized. The Company records a contract liability when it receives consideration from a customer before achieving certain criteria that must be met for revenue to be recognized in conformity with U.S. GAAP.

Revenue recognition – The core principle of ASC 606 is that a reporting entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the reporting entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The revenue recognition approach under ASC 606 includes the following five-step approach:

1. Identify the contract with the customer.
2. Identify the performance obligations in the contract.
3. Determine the transaction price.
4. Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract.
5. Recognize revenue when, or as, the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

The following revenue streams are recognized by the Company over time under ASC 606:

Initial franchise fees – Franchise fees revenue consists primarily of initial and renewal franchise fees and upfront fees from area development agreements (ADAs). Franchise agreements are for a seven-year term, with subsequent renewals available subject to approval. A franchisee may generally renew its agreement upon expiration.

Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Initial and renewal franchise fees are deferred as deferred revenue and recognized on a straight-line basis as the performance obligations of the contract are satisfied. Performance obligations of the contract are generally satisfied starting on the opening date of the franchise location through the end of the franchise agreement term.

The Company's performance obligation under area development agreements generally consists of an obligation to grant geographic exclusive area development rights. These development rights are not distinct from franchise agreements, so upfront fees paid by franchisees for exclusive development rights are deferred and apportioned to each franchise agreement signed by the franchisee. The pro rata amount apportioned to each franchise agreement is accounted for identically to the initial franchise fee.

The Company accounts for franchise fees in accordance with ASU 2021-02, Practical Expedient, which allows franchisors to treat any pre-opening activities as a single bundled performance obligation. Activities performed by the Company are highly interrelated with the franchise license and are considered to represent a single performance obligation, which is the transfer of the franchise license and intellectual property. The nature of the Company's promise in granting the franchise license is to provide the franchise owner with access to the FBBC IP over the term of the franchise arrangement.

Franchise royalty – Franchise royalty is the flat monthly royalty fee received from ongoing franchisees based on the rate agreed upon in the franchisees' agreements. Continuing franchise royalties are collected and recognized monthly, and the royalty fee is fixed based on amounts indicated in the franchise agreements.

Marketing and promotional – Marketing and promotional revenues are earned from a monthly marketing service fee charged to ongoing franchisees based on a rate agreed upon in the franchisees' agreements and services provided to participating franchisees related to various ad hoc marketing campaigns. Marketing fees are collected and recognized monthly, and the fee is fixed based on amounts indicated in the franchise agreements. Revenue related to ad hoc marketing campaigns is charged and recognized when the performance obligation is satisfied, which is upon completion of the campaigns.

Software fees – Software fee revenue is earned from a monthly software fee charged to ongoing franchisees based on a rate agreed upon in the franchisees' agreements. Software fees are collected and recognized monthly, and the fee is fixed based on amounts indicated in the franchise agreement.

Mastermind fees – Mastermind fee revenue is earned monthly through franchisees who elect to participate in the Mastermind Coaching Program. The program gives franchisees access to Fit Body Boot Camp Mastermind coaching services during the agreement term, which may include the franchisee's right to participate in online, in-person, or telephone coaching sessions.

Trainerize fees – Trainerize fees are monthly revenues from certain franchisees to gain access to use an online coaching program. Trainerize fees are collected and recognized monthly based on the agreed-upon monthly fee. The Company transitioned back to in-person training and discontinued the online platform in 2023.

Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Fit Body Forever – Fit Body Forever is revenue from a fitness program designed for adults 55+ who want to stay fit and active, live with independence, and keep healthy for the long haul. Note that an individual franchise must buy in to the Fit Body Forever program and will also be required to pay monthly invoices to continue to participate in the program. As such, buy-in fees are amortized over the life of the agreement and monthly fees are recognized during the period incurred.

The following revenue streams are recognized by the Company at a point in time under ASC 606:

Commission income – Commission revenue arise from the sale of FBBC products sold via Shopify. The company also recognizes commission revenue through the use of affiliate links to promote products such as “Torque Fitness,” “Send Out Cards,” or “ClickFunnel”.

Web special – Web special revenue is generated from promotional/discounted sign-up specials offered through the FBBC website for brand new members to attend a franchise location for three weeks. All purchases of web specials are revenue to FBBC. If members decide to enroll past the promotional period of the web special, the subsequent payments would be revenues to franchisees. The web special revenues are recognized upon payment.

Other revenues – Other revenues include commission income and miscellaneous income. Commission income includes the Company’s portion of income for sales of supplements, meals, and fitness gear purchased online.

Advertising costs – Advertising costs are charged to operating expenses as incurred. Advertising costs for the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, were approximately $1,297,000, $1,303,000, and $1,464,000, respectively. Advertising is performed through many different media, such as direct mailing, tradeshow, and the internet. Advertising costs are included in sales, general, and administrative expenses in the statements of operations.

Government assistance – The employee retention credit (ERC) was established by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act and was intended to help businesses assist employers that experienced a decline in gross receipts resulting from COVID-19. The ERC is calculated based on a percentage of qualified wages paid to employees. The Company applied for relief under this program to recover a portion of the employer’s shares of federal payroll taxes that were paid during 2020 and 2021. The Company recognizes the ERC and similar government programs in the period the conditions of the program have been substantially met. Accordingly, for years ending December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, the Company recognized approximately $0, $0, and $187,000, respectively, related to the ERC, which is included in other income on the accompanying statements of operations for the years ending December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022. As of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, there were no receivables relating to the ERC recorded. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) reserves the right to review the ERC three years after the filing date of the relevant 941 tax return and five years in the case of the ERC claims for the third and fourth quarters of 2022.

Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc. Notes to Financial Statements

Income taxes – The Company has elected to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Under federal and most state laws, taxes based on income of an S corporation are payable by the Company's stockholder to the extent the stockholder is subject to income tax. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022. Some states may impose certain franchise taxes; such provision for state income taxes was included in the operating expenses in the accompanying statements of operations.

Concentration of credit risk – As of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, cash and cash equivalents were maintained with one financial institution in the United States, and current deposits are in excess of federally insured limits. If the Company is unable to access cash and cash equivalents as needed, the Company's financial position and ability to operate the business could be adversely affected. To mitigate risk, the Company uses a high credit quality, major financial institution.

Fair value of financial instruments – The carrying value of the Company's other current assets, payables, and accrued expenses approximates fair value due to their short-term nature.

Sales, general, and administrative expenses – Sales, general, and administrative expenses consist of costs associated with administrative support functions. These costs primarily consist of payroll, rent, credit card fees, sales, use and property tax, insurance, marketing, legal, and accounting expenses.

Private company accounting alternative for variance interest entities – The Company does not apply the variable interest entity (VIE) guidance to certain legal entities under common control when all of the following conditions are met:

- The Company and legal entity are under common control of a parent. This determination only considers the direct and indirect voting interest held by the Company's parent in the Company and the legal entity.
- Neither the Company nor the legal entity are under control of a public business entity.
- The legal entity under common control is not a public business entity.
- The Company does not directly or indirectly have a controlling financial interest in the legal entity. This determination excludes consideration of a controlling financial interest under the VIE guidance and only considers the voting interest model.

Entities under common control during 2024, 2023, and 2021, consist of the Stockholder; Company; ENP Ventures, LLC; FBBC Operations, LLC; Fitness Mastermind, LLC; Empire Systems, Inc.; Empire TM Holdings, LLC; Go Inspire Fitness, LLC; and Empire Traffic, Inc. The Company makes an ongoing assessment of whether entities under common control meet these criteria.

Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Subsequent events – Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the balance sheets date, but before the financial statements are issued. The Company recognizes in the financial statements the effects of all subsequent events that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the balance sheets, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing the financial statements. The Company's financial statements do not recognize subsequent events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the balance sheets but arose after the balance sheets date and before the financial statements were issued.

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through April 14, 2025, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc., which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, and the related statements of operations, stockholder's deficit, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc., as of December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with U.S. GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with U.S. GAAS, we:

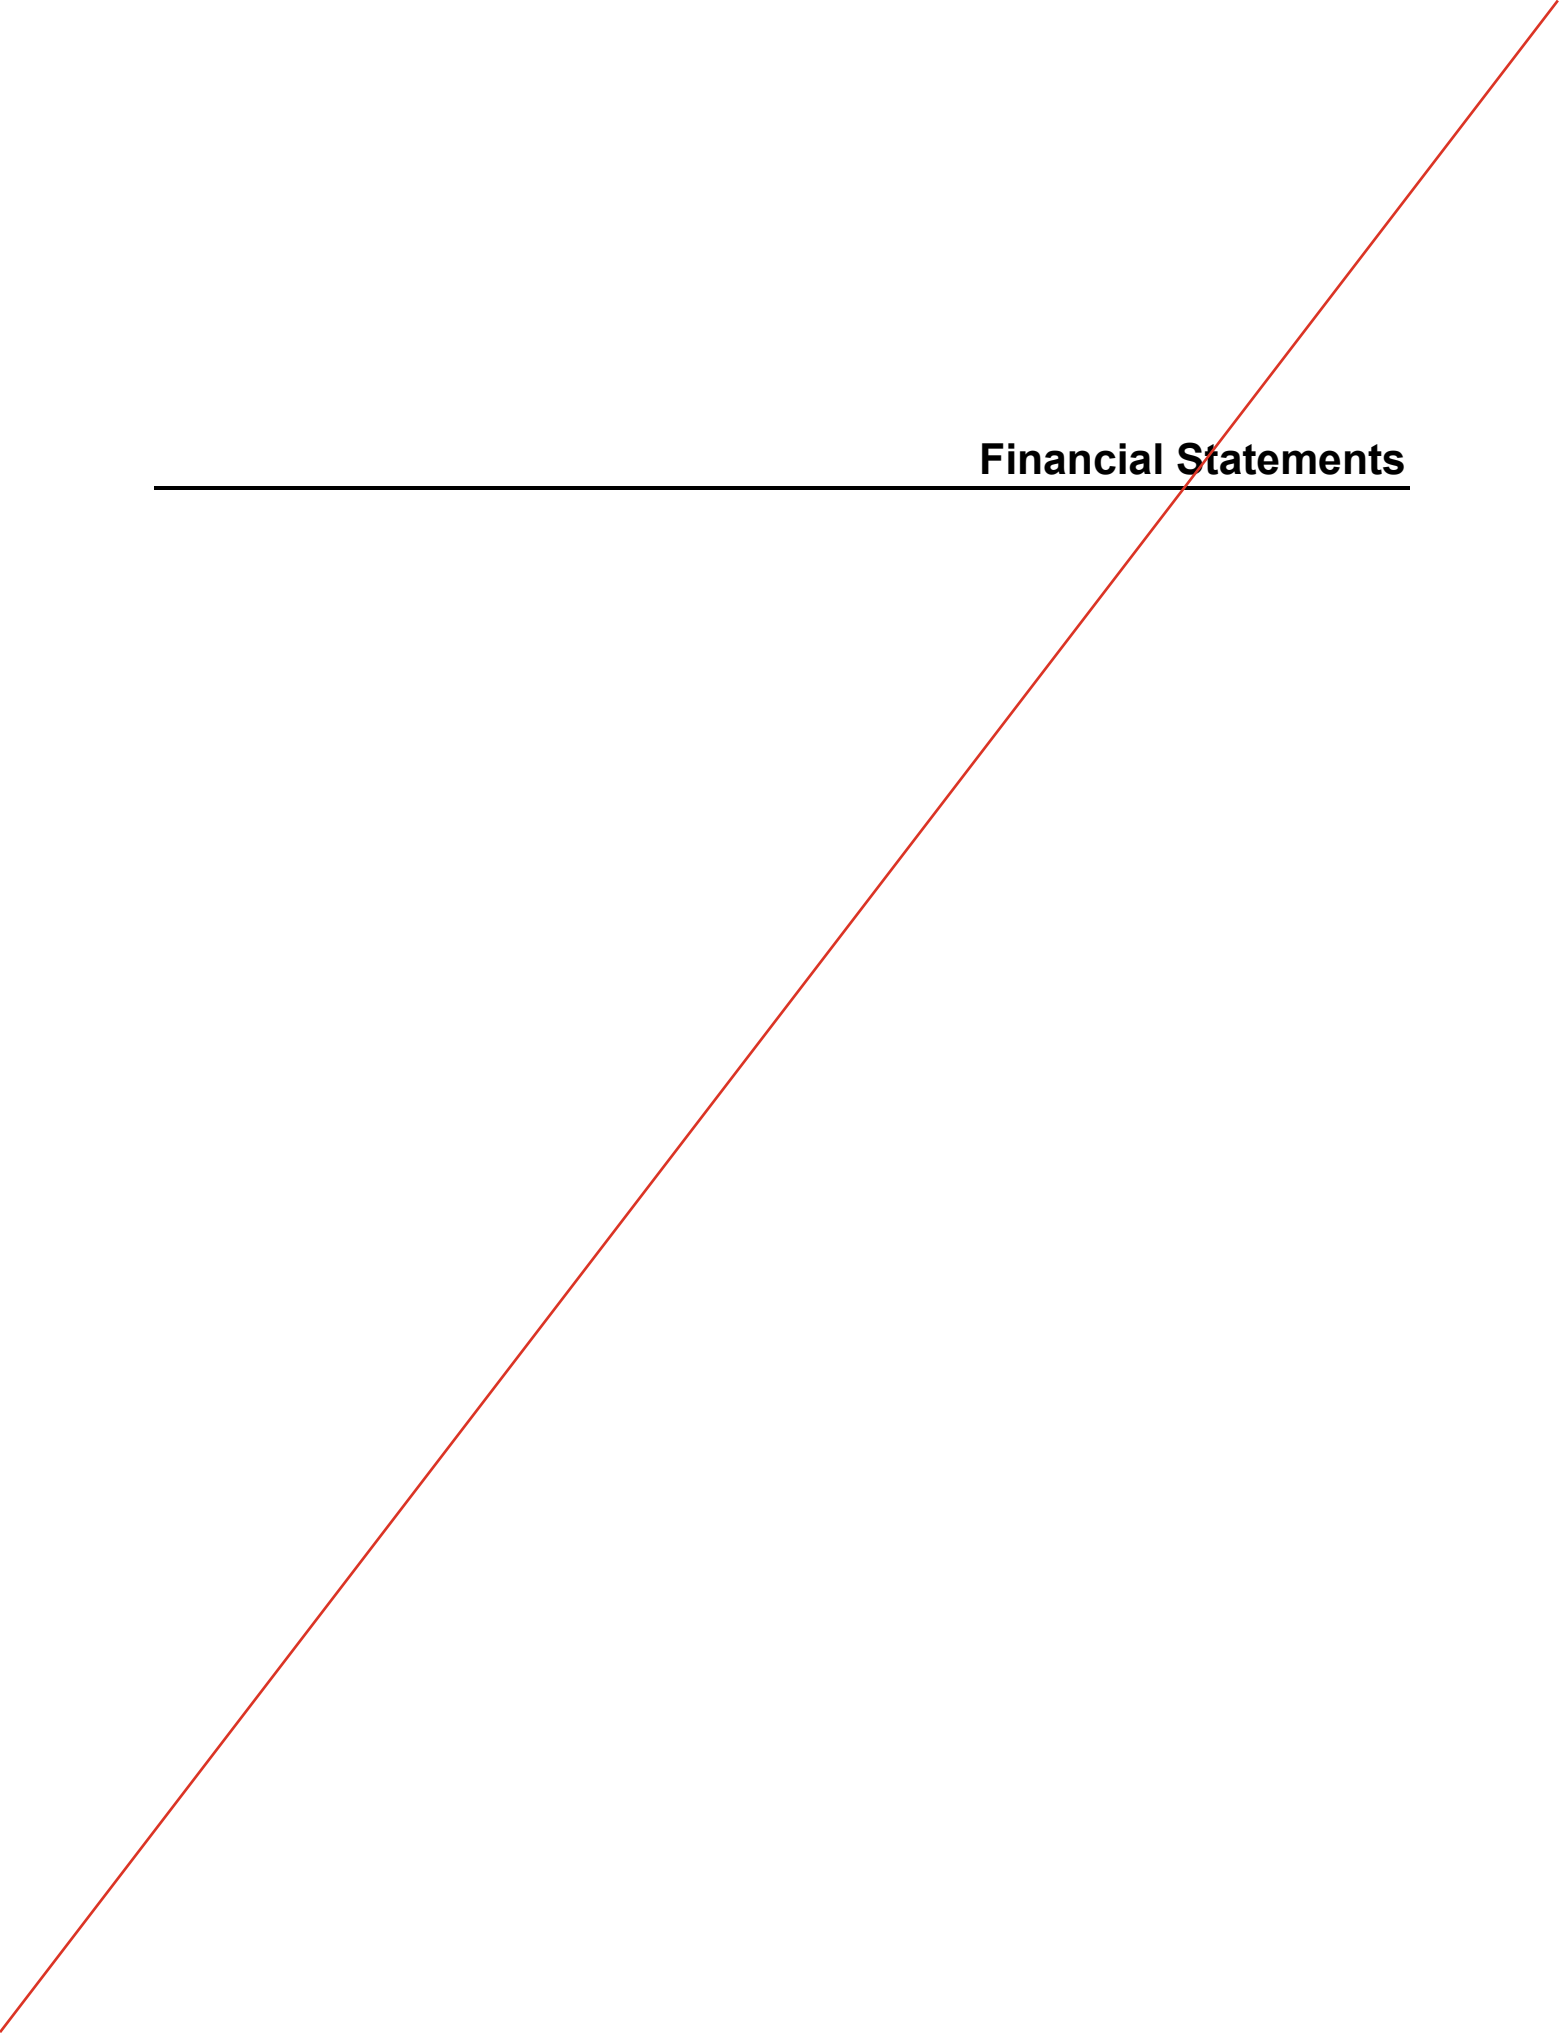

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.'s, internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.'s, ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1 – Nature of Business and Operations

Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc. (the Company or FBBC) was incorporated in California on March 2, 2011. The Company was organized for the purpose of franchising fitness programs and services worldwide under the name “Fit Body Boot Camp.” The franchise concept is to provide a completely new category in the fitness, wellness, and personal training industry. The sole stockholder of the Company is a family trust, hereinafter referred to as the “Stockholder.”

The Company is engaged in the administration, development, operation, and licensing of businesses that operate the franchise studios.

As of December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, the Company had franchises in operation of 299, 277, and 386, respectively, with Fit Body Boot Camp studios in most states in the United States and Canada, and licensed sites in Great Britain and Australia. During the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, the Company sold 49, 46, and 29 franchises, respectively, to new and existing franchisees. Additionally, as of December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, there were no corporate-owned locations opened.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of presentation – The Company’s financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

Reclassification – Certain financial statement reclassifications have been made to prior-year amounts to conform to current-year presentation. The reclassifications had no impact on the statements of operations or net income previously reported.

Use of estimates – The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents – The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of 90 days or less to be cash equivalents. The Company had no cash equivalents as of December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021.

Accounts receivable – Accounts receivable represent amounts due from franchisees for royalty, software, and marketing fee revenues and are stated net of an allowance for credit losses. Amounts are stated at the amounts expected to be collected from balances outstanding. The Company estimates the allowance for credit losses when lifetime credit losses are expected. The Company assesses collectability based on consideration of the age, nature of the past due accounts, historical losses, existing economic conditions, and specific analysis of each account. As of December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, an allowance for credit losses of $60,997, $13,135, and $112,469, respectively, was recorded. As of January 1, 2021, the opening balance of accounts receivable, net was $271,959.

Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Property and equipment – Property and equipment are carried at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Expenditures for additions, replacement, and major improvements are capitalized. Maintenance, repairs, and minor renewals are expensed as incurred. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of six years for computer and office equipment and seven years for furniture, fixtures, and vehicles. Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the useful lives of the improvements. When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related accumulated depreciation is removed from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is recognized.

Leases – In the ordinary course of business, the Company enters a variety of operating lease agreements. Leases are evaluated and classified as operating or finance leases for financial reporting purposes. The classification evaluation begins at the commencement date, and the lease term used in the evaluation includes the noncancellable period for which the Company has the right to use the underlying asset.

Right-of-use (ROU) asset represents the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liability represents the Company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. The lease liability is recognized at the lease commencement date based on the present value of future lease payments over the lease term discounted at the risk-free rate (discount rate) corresponding with the lease term.

The lease term used for straight-line rent expense is calculated from the commencement date through the lease termination date. The Company has elected to not separate lease and nonlease components. The Company has also elected to not apply the recognition requirement to any leases with a term of 12 months or less. In the prior year, the Company had one long-term related party lease classified as an operating lease under Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 842, however, as of December 31, 2023, the lease was amended to be short-term. During 2023, the Company adopted ASU 2023-01, Leases (Topic 842): Common Control Arrangements, which provides a practical expedient for private companies to determine if a lease exists in common control arrangements. Under ASU 2023-01 the Company is allowed to use the written terms and conditions of a common control arrangements to determine whether a lease exists and, if so, the classification between short-term and long-term. The Company does not have any finance leases.

Contract liability – Contract liability or deferred revenue is a liability related to a revenue-producing activity for which revenue has not yet been recognized. The Company records a contract liability when it receives consideration from a customer before achieving certain criteria that must be met for revenue to be recognized in conformity with U.S. GAAP.

Revenue recognition – The core principle of ASC 606 is that a reporting entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the reporting entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The revenue recognition approach under ASC 606 includes the following five-step approach:

1. Identify the contract with the customer.
2. Identify the performance obligations in the contract.
3. Determine the transaction price.
4. Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract.
5. Recognize revenue when, or as, the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

Initial franchise fees – Franchise fees revenue consists primarily of initial and renewal franchise fees and upfront fees from area development agreements (ADAs). Franchise agreements are for a seven-year term, with subsequent renewals available subject to approval. A franchisee may generally renew its agreement upon expiration.

Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Initial and renewal franchise fees are recognized as revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective franchise agreement. The Company's performance obligation under area development agreements generally consists of an obligation to grant geographic exclusive area development rights. These development rights are not distinct from franchise agreements, so upfront fees paid by franchisees for exclusive development rights are deferred and apportioned to each franchise agreement signed by the franchisee. The pro rata amount apportioned to each franchise agreement is accounted for identically to the initial franchise fee.

The Company accounts for franchise fees in accordance with Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2021-02, Practical Expedient, which allows franchisors that are not public business entities to treat the entire franchise fee as one performance obligation. The performance obligation includes the right of use to the Company's franchise license. Occasionally, the Company provides pre-opening services such as training, marketing, and grand opening marketing. These pre-opening services are included in the initial franchise fees and included together as one performance obligation.

The following revenue streams are recognized by the Company over time under ASC 606:

Franchise royalty – Franchise royalty is the flat monthly royalty fee received from ongoing franchisees based on the rate agreed upon in the franchisees' agreements. Continuing franchise royalties are collected and recognized monthly, and the royalty fee is fixed based on amounts indicated in the franchise agreements.

Marketing and promotional – Marketing and promotional revenues are earned from a monthly marketing service fee charged to ongoing franchisees based on a rate agreed upon in the franchisees' agreements and services provided to participating franchisees related to various ad hoc marketing campaigns. Marketing fees are collected and recognized monthly, and the fee is fixed based on amounts indicated in the franchise agreements. Revenue related to ad hoc marketing campaigns is charged and recognized when the performance obligation is satisfied, which is upon completion of the campaigns.

Software fees – Software fee revenue is earned from a monthly software fee charged to ongoing franchisees based on a rate agreed upon in the franchisees' agreements. Software fees are collected and recognized monthly, and the fee is fixed based on amounts indicated in the franchise agreement.

Challenge fees – Challenge fee revenue is earned from a monthly fee charged to franchisees who elect to participate in the various fitness challenges that help attract new members, such as a weight loss challenge. Challenge fees are collected and recognized monthly based on the agreed-upon monthly fee. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company did not offer any challenges and did not record any revenue related to this revenue stream.

Mastermind fees – Mastermind fee revenue is earned monthly through franchisees who elect to participate in the Mastermind Coaching Program. The program gives franchisees access to Fit Body Boot Camp Mastermind coaching services during the agreement term, which may include the franchisee's right to participate in online, in-person, or telephone coaching sessions.

Trainerize fees – Trainerize fees are monthly revenues from certain franchisees to gain access to use an online coaching program. Trainerize fees are collected and recognized monthly based on the agreed-upon monthly fee. The Company transitioned back to in-person training and discontinued the online platform in 2023.

Notes to Financial Statements

Fit Body Forever – Fit Body Forever is revenue from a fitness program designed for adults 55+ who want to stay fit and active, live with independence, and keep healthy for the long haul. Note that an individual franchise must buy in to the Fit Body Forever program and will also be required to pay monthly invoices to continue to participate in the program. As such, buy-in fees are amortized over the life of the agreement and monthly fees are recognized during the period incurred.

The following revenue streams are recognized by the Company at a point in time under ASC 606:

Commission income – Commission revenue arise from the sale of FBBC products sold via Shopify. The company also recognizes commission revenue through the use of affiliate links to promote products such as “Torque Fitness,” “Send Out Cards,” or “ClickFunnel”.

Web special – Web special revenue is generated from promotional/discounted sign-up specials offered through the FBBC website for brand new members to attend a franchise location for three weeks. All purchases of web specials are revenue to FBBC. If members decide to enroll past the promotional period of the web special, the subsequent payments would be revenues to franchisees. The web special revenues are recognized upon payment.

Other revenues – Other revenues include commission income and miscellaneous income. Commission income includes the Company’s portion of income for sales of supplements, meals, and fitness gear purchased online.

Advertising costs – Advertising costs are charged to operating expenses as incurred. Advertising costs for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, were approximately $1,303,000, $1,464,000, and $1,680,000, respectively. Advertising is performed through many different media, such as direct mailing, tradeshow, and the internet. Advertising costs are included in sales, general, and administrative expenses in the statements of operations.

Government assistance – The employee retention credit (ERC) was established by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act and was intended to help businesses assist employers that experienced a decline in gross receipts resulting from COVID-19. The ERC is calculated based on a percentage of qualified wages paid to employees. The Company applied for relief under this program to recover a portion of the employer’s shares of federal payroll taxes that were paid during 2020 and 2021. The Company recognizes the ERC and similar government programs in the period the conditions of the program have been substantially met. Accordingly, for years ending December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, the Company recognized approximately $0, $187,000, and $0, respectively, related to the ERC, which is included in other income on the accompanying statements of operations for the years ending December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021. As of December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, there were no receivables relating to the ERC recorded. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) reserves the right to review the ERC three years after the filing date of the relevant 941 tax return and five years in the case of the ERC claims for the third and fourth quarters of 2022.

Notes to Financial Statements

Income taxes – The Company has elected to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Under federal and most state laws, taxes based on income of an S corporation are payable by the Company's stockholder to the extent the stockholder is subject to income tax. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021. Some states may impose certain franchise taxes; such provision for state income taxes was included in the operating expenses in the accompanying statements of operations.

Concentration of credit risk – As of December 31, 2023, 2022, and 2021, cash and cash equivalents were maintained with one financial institution in the United States, and current deposits are in excess of federally insured limits. If the Company is unable to access cash and cash equivalents as needed, the Company's financial position and ability to operate the business could be adversely affected. To mitigate risk, the Company uses a high credit quality, major financial institution.

Fair value of financial instruments – The carrying value of the Company's other current assets, payables, and accrued expenses approximates fair value due to their short-term nature.

Sales, general, and administrative expenses – Sales, general, and administrative expenses consist of costs associated with administrative support functions. These costs primarily consist of payroll, rent, credit card fees, sales, use and property tax, insurance, marketing, legal, and accounting expenses.

Private company accounting alternative for variance interest entities – The Company does not apply the variable interest entity (VIE) guidance to certain legal entities under common control when all of the following conditions are met:

- The Company and legal entity are under common control of a parent. This determination only considers the direct and indirect voting interest held by the Company's parent in the Company and the legal entity.
- Neither the Company nor the legal entity are under control of a public business entity.
- The legal entity under common control is not a public business entity.
- The Company does not directly or indirectly have a controlling financial interest in the legal entity. This determination excludes consideration of a controlling financial interest under the VIE guidance and only considers the voting interest model.

Entities under common control during 2023, 2022, and 2021, consist of the Stockholder; Company; ENP Ventures, LLC; FBBC Operations, LLC; Fitness Mastermind, LLC; Empire Systems, Inc.; Empire TM Holdings, LLC; and Empire Traffic, Inc. The Company makes an ongoing assessment of whether entities under common control meet these criteria.

Notes to Financial Statements

Recently adopted accounting pronouncements - In June 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments—Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which introduced an expected credit loss methodology for the measurement and recognition of credit losses on most financial assets, including trade accounts receivable. The expected credit loss methodology under ASU 2016-13 is based on historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts, and replaces the probable/incurred loss model for measuring and recognizing expected losses under current U.S. GAAP. The ASU also requires disclosures of information regarding how a company developed its allowance, including changes in the factors that influenced management's estimate of expected credit losses and the reasons for those changes. The ASU and its related clarifying updates are effective for nonpublic companies in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022, and interim periods within those fiscal years, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the new standard on January 1, 2023, and it did not have a material impact on the estimate of the allowance for uncollectable accounts.

Subsequent events – Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the balance sheets date, but before the financial statements are issued. The Company recognizes in the financial statements the effects of all subsequent events that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the balance sheets, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing the financial statements. The Company's financial statements do not recognize subsequent events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the balance sheets, but arose after the balance sheets date and before the financial statements were issued.

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through March 29, 2024, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

FIT BODY BOOT CAMP
APPENDIX FOR MINNESOTA FRANCHISEES

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires the following specific disclosures to be made to prospective Minnesota franchisees:

1. With respect to Item 17(b) of the Disclosure Document and Section 3.4 of the Franchise Agreement, please note that if you do not elect to extend your Franchise for an additional term, you will be given an opportunity to operate your Franchise over a sufficient period of time to enable you to recover the fair market value of the Franchise as a going concern, as determined and measured from the date of the failure to renew. FBBC will not refuse to renew a Franchise for the purpose of converting your business premises to an operation that will be owned by FBBC for our own account.

2. Notwithstanding Item 17(d) of the Disclosure Document and Section 13 of the Franchise Agreement, Minnesota Statutes Section 80C.14, Subdivision 3, 4 and 5 require, except in certain specified cases, that you be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the franchise agreement. To the extent the notice provisions of this Agreement are inconsistent with the foregoing, the aforesaid Minnesota statute will govern.

Notwithstanding the immediately preceding paragraph, notice of termination or cancellation of the Franchise shall be effective immediately upon receipt where the alleged grounds for termination or cancellation are:

- (i) voluntary abandonment of the Franchise relationship by you;
- (ii) your conviction of an offense directly related to the business conducted pursuant to the Franchise; or
- (iii) failure to cure a default under the Franchise Agreement which materially impairs a goodwill associated with FBBC's trade name, trademark, service mark, logo type or other commercial symbol after you have received written notice to cure at least 24 hours in advance.

3. Minnesota Rule 2860.4400D prohibits FBBC from requiring you to assent to a general release.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of Item 17u of the Disclosure Document and Section 16 of the Franchise Agreement, Minnesota Rule 2860.4400J prohibits waiver of a jury trial.

5. Under Minnesota Rule 2860.4400J, (i) the franchisor cannot require you to waive rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction, or to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties, or judgment notes; provided that this rule does not bar an exclusive arbitration clause and (ii) only a court may determine if a bond is required. Also, the franchisee cannot be required to consent in advance to the franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. However, the franchisor may seek injunctive relief.

6. Throughout the Disclosure Document, wherever consent is required, it shall not be unreasonably withheld within the meaning of Minnesota Statutes section 80C.14, part 2860.4400J.

7. Minnesota Statutes section 80C.21 and Minnesota Rule 2860.4400J prohibit us from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota. In addition, nothing in the Disclosure Document or agreement can abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

8. Notwithstanding Item 13 of the Disclosure Document and Section 14 of the Franchise Agreement, FBBC will defend you at our cost and expense against liability or claims in connection with your authorized use of our Name or Marks. You will not be responsible for the costs of any litigation to protect or defend the Name or Marks unless your unauthorized use of the Name or Marks caused it.

Minnesota considers it unfair to not protect your right to use FBBC's trademarks pursuant to Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.12, Subd. 1(g).

9. Minnesota Statutes Section 80C.17, Subdivision 5 limits claims against FBBC to 3 years. To the extent necessary our signatures below amend the Franchise Agreement between FBBC and you in accordance with the above sections 1 through 9.

10. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement to the contrary, you do not have to pay us the Initial Franchise Fee until we perform our pre-opening obligations under the Franchise Agreement and you commence operations. Once we complete our pre-opening obligations and you commence operation, you must immediately pay us all initial fees we deferred.

11. The Franchise Agreement is amended to state the following: "No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (a) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. APPENDIX FOR VIRGINIA FRANCHISEES

The Division of Securities and Retail Franchising of Virginia requires the following specific disclosures to be made to prospective Virginia franchisees.

The Virginia State Corporation Commission's Division of Securities and Retail Franchising requires us to defer payment of the initial franchise fee and other initial payments owed by franchisees to the franchisor until the franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement.

In recognition of the restriction contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Fit Body Boot Camp, Inc., for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute "reasonable cause", as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

The Franchise Agreement is amended to state the following: "No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (a) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise."

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND RELATED AGREEMENTS

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

Please be advised that we have entered into an assurance of discontinuance with the Washington Attorney General's Office regarding no-poach provisions in our franchise agreement.

Section 7.1(a) of the Franchise Agreement is hereby amended to remove the following sentence:

Our final review and consent to the location of your Outlet is not a guarantee that a Fit Body Boot Camp business can be successfully operated there or anywhere else.

Section 7.1(c) of the Franchise Agreement is hereby amended to remove the following:

You further acknowledge that our approval of a site and/or rendering of assistance in the selection of any site does not constitute a representation, promise, warranty or guarantee, express or implied, by us or our officers, employees, directors, attorneys or agents, as to the potential sales volume, profits or success of the Franchised Business to be developed, opened and operated by you at the location.

Section 18.1(g) of the Franchise Agreement is hereby amended to delete: “or relied on”.

Section 18.1(h) of the Franchise Agreement is hereby deleted in its entirety.

In lieu of an impound of franchise fees, the Franchisor will not require or accept the payment of any initial franchise fees until the franchisee has (a) received all opening and initial training obligations that it is entitled to under the franchise agreement or offering circular, and (b) is open for business.

The Franchise Agreement is amended to state the following: “No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (a) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.”

The undersigned does hereby acknowledge receipt of this addendum.
