What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit D.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by arbitration or litigation only in Tennessee. Out-of-state arbitration or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Tennessee than in your own state.
2. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for your financial obligations under the franchise agreement, even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the business. This guarantee will place both you and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.
3. Sales Performance Required. You must maintain minimum sales performance levels. Your inability to maintain these levels may result in loss of any territorial rights you are granted, termination of your franchise, and loss of your investment.
4. Turnover Rate. During the last 3 years 42 outlets were terminated, not renewed, reacquired, or ceased operations for other reasons. This franchise could be a higher risk investment than a franchise in a system with a lower turnover rate.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

THE FOLLOWING APPLY TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW ONLY

The state of Michigan prohibits certain unfair provisions that are sometimes in franchise documents. If any of the following provisions are in these franchise documents, the provisions are void and cannot be enforced against you.

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in the Michigan Franchise Investment Act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.
 - (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000, the franchisor shall, at the request of a franchisee, arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

The fact that there is a notice of this offering on file with the attorney general does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the attorney general.

Item 1.

The Franchisor, and any Parents, Predecessors, and Affiliates

Introduction

To simplify the language in this franchise disclosure document (this “disclosure document”), “AtWork,” “we,” and “us” mean AtWork Franchise, Inc., the franchisor. “You” means the person who buys a franchise from us. We do not permit individuals to enter into franchise agreements or operate franchises. You must, therefore, operate your franchise as a corporation, limited liability company, or general or limited partnership. Your owners will have to guarantee your obligations and be bound by the provisions of your franchise agreement and other agreements as described in this disclosure document. Each owner’s spouse will also be required to sign the guaranty to consent to such owner’s execution of the guaranty.

The Franchisor

We are a Tennessee corporation. We were incorporated on April 20, 1992, and we have offered franchises since that time. We conduct business under our corporate name and the name “AtWork.” Our principal business address is 3215 W. John Sevier Highway, Knoxville, Tennessee 37920. From 1992 through 2002 we offered only AtWork Personnel Businesses (defined below), and from 2003 through 2011 we offered franchises limited to other specific secondary businesses (such as a business that placed medical personnel). We began offering AtWork Professional Businesses (defined below) on March 31, 2026. Except as described above, we have not offered franchises in any other lines of business. We do not operate businesses of the type being offered in this disclosure document. We do not have any other business activities.

Our agents for service of process are disclosed in Exhibit D.

Our Parent, Predecessors and Affiliates

We do not have a parent or any predecessors.

As of December 31, 2025, our affiliate, G.C. Hall, LLC (“GC Hall”) operated 7 company-owned Personnel Businesses. GC Hall shares our principal business address. GC Hall has operated businesses of the type being offered in this disclosure document since December 2011. GC Hall has not offered franchises in any line of business.

Our affiliate, Pipeline Talent Solutions, LLC (“Pipeline”), is a Tennessee limited liability company formed on August 8, 2019 and shares our principal business address. Our affiliate, AtWorkGroup LLC (“AtWorkGroup”), is a Tennessee limited liability company formed on November 20, 2013 and shares our principal business address. Neither Pipeline nor AtWorkGroup have offered franchises in any line of business.

Overview of Franchisor’s Business and Franchise Offered:

The franchise offered is for the operation of a business operating a staffing office (an “Office”) offering either (i) temporary clerical and light industrial personnel (a “Personnel Business”) to customers located within a specific territory (a “Protected Territory”), or (ii) contract and project-based professional workers, including (a) workers providing services in information technology, engineering, healthcare, and other professional job categories, and (b) executive direct hires (a “Professional Business”). If you operate a Personnel Business, you will also receive the non-exclusive right to offer full-time placements to customers in the Protected Territory. In this disclosure document, we sometimes refer to the franchise that you acquire as “your Staffing Business.” Both Personnel Businesses and Professional Businesses are referred to herein as “Staffing Businesses.”

Your Staffing Business will operate under the name “AtWork” and other trademarks, service marks, logos, and commercial symbols we periodically authorize (the “Marks”). Staffing Businesses will offer the services and goods we authorize, and use our distinctive business formats, business system, methods, procedures, signs, designs, layouts, standards, specifications, and the Marks, all of which we may improve, further develop, or otherwise modify from time to time (collectively, the “Franchise System”).

To acquire a franchise for a Staffing Business, you must enter into a Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”), which is attached as Exhibit B to this disclosure document. To operate a Personnel Business, you must enter into the Personnel Services Addendum in the form attached as Exhibit A-1 to the Franchise Agreement (the “Personnel Addendum”). To operate a Professional Business, you must enter into the Professional Services Addendum in the form attached as Exhibit A-2 to the Franchise Agreement (the “Professional Addendum”).

The Franchise Agreement, along with our franchisee policy manuals (the “Operations Manual”), which we may modify as we see fit, govern the development and operation of your Staffing Business. We bill and collect staffing fees from customers and remit your share of those fees monthly, after deducting certain charges and offsets, including Royalties and Marketing Fund Contributions owed to us. We refer to such personnel as “Assigned Temporary Workers.”

If you are an existing franchisee of a Personnel Business who meets our eligibility standards, and you wish to add a territory and additional Office to your Staffing Business, you must sign an Addendum to Franchise Agreement for Additional Territory (an “Additional Territory Addendum”). Our current form of Additional Territory Addendum is attached as Exhibit C to this disclosure document. Not every franchisee will qualify to be granted an additional territory. We may choose to stop offering the opportunity for existing franchisees to receive an additional territory at any time and, instead, require them to sign a new Franchise Agreement.

Overview of Industry and Competition:

The market for staffing services is a highly developed, multi-billion-dollar industry and includes any employer who hires or could benefit from temporary help or full-time placement of employees.

You will compete with a wide range of businesses offering various types of operations within the field of staffing, from small independently owned enterprises to large national and international companies. You will offer services to a broad range of customers, however most customers consist of employers who have 20 or more employees per location. The demand for staffing services by some customers is seasonal depending on the nature of their business.

Overview of Industry-Specific Regulations

The staffing industry is heavily regulated. You must comply with all federal, state and local laws that apply to the establishment and operation of AtWork businesses. These laws and regulations include health, sanitation, insurance, non-smoking, equal-employment opportunity, OSHA regulations, non-discrimination, employment, sexual harassment laws, the Fair Labor Standards Act (and similar state or local statutes), and laws governing the payment of wages (including, overtime wages, minimum wages, and paid sick leave).

Many of the laws, rules and regulations vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction. You must learn and comply with the laws, rules and regulations for the type of business you will have and the area where it will be located.

Your Staffing Business may also be subject to federal, state or local licensing and bonding requirements. There are wide variations in licensing and bonding requirements, including the relative cost and difficulty in obtaining them. You must learn and comply with the requirements for the area where your business will be located.

Failure to comply with the laws, rules, regulations, licensing, and bonding requirements could adversely affect your business and operations and could subject you to tax, civil, and criminal penalties. The laws, rules, regulations, licensing and bonding requirements that will govern your business may change over time and these changes could adversely affect your business and operations.

You should consider these laws, rules, regulations and licensing requirements when evaluating your purchase of a franchise. We do not assist prospective franchisees in this regard, so we strongly recommend you consult with a qualified attorney for an understanding of them.

Additional Territory – increased Minimum Performance Standard	We estimate the minimum will be doubled, but the actual increase will depend on the size of the additional territory and the additional Gross Revenue generated. ⁽²⁾	We account for these fees monthly by the 25 th of each month for the preceding month. ⁽³⁾	The increase would only apply if you operate a Personnel Business and signed the Additional Territory Addendum.

The increase would only apply if you operate a Personnel Business and signed the Additional Territory Addendum.

Notes:

(1) All fees are imposed by and payable to us, except as otherwise noted in the table, and are non-refundable except for the Risk Management Reserve. Upon expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement, the balance of your Risk Management Reserve will be payable to you after final settlement of all accounts receivable for Assigned Temporary Workers and the payment to us of all chargebacks and other amounts then due to us or our affiliates under the Franchise Agreement or otherwise. The amounts in your Risk Management Reserve are not otherwise refundable. Unless otherwise noted, we uniformly impose the fees described in the table.

You must make all payments due us or our affiliates in the manner we designate. You authorize us and/or any third party we designate to debit your business checking account automatically for any or all amounts due.

(2) The term “Gross Revenue” means all revenue or consideration that you receive, directly or indirectly, from operating your Staffing Business, whether from cash, check, credit and debit card, barter exchange, trade credit, or other credit transactions. Gross Revenue includes the proceeds of any business interruption insurance or similar insurance. Gross Revenue does not include any federal, state, or municipal use or service taxes collected from customers and paid to the appropriate taxing authority.

(3) On or before the 25th day of each calendar month, we will remit to you an amount (the “Balance Payment”) of the Gross Invoice Amount during the applicable month from customers for services performed by Assigned Temporary Workers, less any Applicable Deductions at such time. “Gross Invoice Amount” means, for any period, the gross amount invoiced by us to customers of your Staffing Business during such period for services performed by Assigned Temporary Workers. “Direct Payroll Costs” means the aggregate of Worker Expenses and disability insurance where required by law, but do not include the employer contribution costs of employee elected benefits (such as health insurance plan contributions, supplemental insurance, and matching 401(k) retirement plans), or your overhead or fees payable to us. “Worker Expenses” means all wages, employer payroll taxes, bonuses and fringe benefits paid (such as health insurance offerings and reimbursements) to your Assigned Temporary Workers, including holiday pay, travel allowances, and other direct employee benefits, workers’ compensation insurance premiums and costs, unemployment claims management, and other payments that an employer would have to make to federal, state and local government agencies as the employer of the Assigned Temporary Workers. We will pay from the Gross Invoice Amount all Worker Expenses for Assigned Temporary Workers except, with respect to Personnel Businesses, (a) workers’ compensation insurance premiums and costs and (b) bonuses and fringe benefits. “Applicable Deductions” means the aggregate of: Direct Payroll Costs; credit insurance (if we deem credit insurance necessary); other fees, deductions, accruals, contributions to your Risk Management Reserve, and chargebacks; any current or past due fees or indebtedness you owe us or our affiliates under the Franchise Agreement or otherwise, including the Royalty; as well as mutually agreed upon customer discounts, pass-throughs, and other offsets, if any. Applicable Deductions will not include non-payment of Gross Invoice Amounts for Credit Risk. “Credit Risk” means, with respect to any Gross Invoice Amounts, the risk of non-payment of such Gross Invoice Amounts due solely to the financial inability of the customer to pay such Gross Invoice Amounts or the insolvency of such customer. In no event will Credit Risk include the risk of non-payment on Gross Invoice Amounts that are subject to a Dispute. "Dispute" means any dispute or claim in any respect, regardless of merit, arising out of or in connection with Gross Invoice Amounts or any other related transactions, such as any alleged dispute as to price, invoice terms, quantity, quality, late delivery or non-performance of services, and claims of release from liability, counterclaim or any alleged claim of deduction, offset, or counterclaim or otherwise. We do not process payroll for your internal staff.

(4) We may adjust the Royalty by up to 0.5% every 6 months, to be effective beginning January 1 and/or July 1; provided, that we may not increase the Royalty by more than 1.0% in any two-year period. However, the Royalty may be discounted for certain customers that you can demonstrate to us as qualifying for a "low gross margin" discount. Under this discount program, if you satisfy the criteria to obtain a discount, the discounted Royalty ranges from 6.5% to 4.5% of Gross Revenue for Personnel Businesses and from 7.5% to 5.5% of Gross Revenue for Professional Businesses. This program may be modified or discontinued in the future.

(5) The Risk Reserve Schedule depends on your annual Gross Revenues and is subject to revision on an annual basis. The current Risk Reserve Schedule is as follows:

Annual Gross Revenues	Reserve Amount Required
$0 - 2,000,000	$15,000
$2,000,000 - 4,000,000	$20,000
$4,000,001 - $8,000,000	$30,000
$8,000,001 - $10,000,000	$40,000
$10,000,001 and above	$50,000

If you sign the Additional Territory Addendum, the Risk Management Reserve for such additional territory will be determined separately from the initial territory under your Franchise Agreement pursuant to our then-current Risk Reserve Schedule.

(6) You will be required to pay us this fee if we terminate the Franchise Agreement based on your default or if you terminate the Franchise Agreement without cause. The amount will be calculated by multiplying (1) the number of calendar months in the Damages Period by (2) the aggregate of the combined Royalty and Marketing Fund Contribution percentages, by (3) the average monthly Gross Revenue of your Staffing Business during the 12 full calendar months immediately preceding the last date of regular operations of your Staffing Business in accordance with the Franchise Agreement. However, if as of the termination date, your Staffing Business has not been operating for at least 12 months, this amount will be calculated based on the average monthly Gross Revenue during our previous fiscal year immediately preceding the termination date of all Personnel Businesses or Professional Businesses, as applicable, operating during the entirety of that fiscal year.

(7) If you are signing the Additional Territory Addendum in order to receive an additional territory, you will pay us an “Additional Territory Fee” equal to 50% of our then-current initial franchise fee at the time you sign the Additional Territory Addendum. Currently, our initial franchise fee is $40,000, so the Additional Territory Fee would be $20,000.

NOTES:

(1) General. Amounts payable to us are non-refundable, unless otherwise indicated. Amounts payable to others (landlord, contractors, vendors, local agents, airlines, hotels, restaurants, suppliers, attorneys, accountants and consultants etc.) may be refundable based on their policies.

(2) Initial Franchise Fee. The Initial Franchise Fee is due and fully earned by us when you sign the Franchise Agreement. If your Operating Partner (defined in Item 15), your Manager (if applicable), or any of your initially hired employee(s) is unable to complete our initial Training Programs (defined in Item 11) to our satisfaction, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement and, if you and your owners agree to execute general releases in a form satisfactory to us, we will refund 50% of the Initial Franchise Fee to you, less our out-of-pocket expenses. Otherwise, the Initial Franchise Fee is not refundable under any circumstances.

(3) Office Equipment and Supplies. These amounts will vary depending on the location and size of your Office, the type of equipment you purchase and the overall set-up of your Staffing Business. This category includes the cost of purchasing a computer system for your business. A typical set-up for a Personnel Business involves a single storefront office with a size of 1,000 to 1,250 square feet located in a strip mall or other similar location. We may require you to purchase components of your computer system, including computers and printers, from a designated supplier. If you operate a Professional Business, we expect that your Office will be the residence of one of your owners and, accordingly, that you will not incur rent or leasehold improvement expenses.

(4) Risk Management Reserve Deposit. We require you to allow us to hold and maintain a Risk Management Reserve to cover disputed invoices that are charged back, improper payment of Assigned Temporary Workers, charges for misclassified workers, and other authorized deductions, and we will be allowed to draw on your Risk Management Reserve to pay for such costs and expenses. Before you begin operating your Staffing Business, you must remit to us $5,000 to hold as your initial Risk Management Reserve. Upon expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement, the balance of your Risk Management Reserve will be payable to you after final settlement of all accounts receivable for Assigned Temporary Workers and the payment to us of all chargebacks and other amounts then due to us or our affiliates under the Franchise Agreement or otherwise. The amounts in your Risk Management Reserve are not otherwise refundable.

(5) Insurance. If you operate a Personnel Business, we will accrue, on your behalf, workers' compensation insurance premiums and costs for your employees and Assigned Temporary Workers and you will be able to draw on this accrual account as necessary to pay such premiums and costs directly to the relevant insurer or governmental agency. Staffing Businesses are required to arrange all specified insurance, including comprehensive general liability insurance, motor vehicle liability insurance, and property damage insurance from vendors we designate. The cost will vary depending on the location and size of your Staffing Business, as well as from state to state depending on what is required and what you determine is necessary.

(6) Grand Opening Advertising. Beginning 2 weeks before the opening date of your Staffing Business and ending 6 weeks after your opening date, you must spend at least $5,000 (if you operate a Personnel Business) or $1,500 (if you operate a Professional Business) on a grand opening advertising program pursuant to a plan that you prepare and submit to us for approval.

(7) Advertising. Beginning on the date when you first begin operating your Staffing Business, you agree to spend a minimum of $2,500 on local advertising approved by us during each calendar quarter. You must pay this amount for each additional territory that may be added to the Protected Territory and for each franchise agreement you sign. If you sign the Additional Territory Addendum, we may increase your local advertising obligation to account for the increase in size of your Protected Territory.

(8) Cost to Attend Initial Training. You will pay all travel and living expenses (including, wages, transportation, food, lodging, and workers' compensation insurance) that your Operating Partner or any employee (including the Manager, if any) incurs during the initial Training Programs. This estimate assumes that 3 individuals attend the initial Training Programs. If you send additional employees, you may incur more expenses.

(9) Professional Services. The estimated costs associated with your investigation and any professional reviews are included under the heading Professional Services, as well as estimated incorporation, business license and other miscellaneous costs.

(10) Additional Funds. This range covers our estimate of additional funds you will need for the first 6 to 9 months of your business's operation. The high end of this range anticipates that you will employ a Manager to oversee the day-to-day operation of your Staffing Business. This range covers expenses such as overhead, but it does not include your personal salary or draw. This range is an estimate only and your expenses may be higher. Our estimate does not include any revenue your business may generate during the start-up phase. When preparing this estimate, we relied upon our affiliate's experience in operating Personnel Businesses and the experience of our franchisees.

We do not offer direct or indirect financing. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before deciding to acquire the franchise.

Item 8.

Restrictions on Sources of Products and Services

We have the right to require that franchisees purchase certain items or services from a designated supplier. You must use and sell all services, and only the services, that we have authorized you to use or provide. We have the right to change the authorized services.

You must use certain services provided by us. Specifically, we will provide you with payroll calculation, invoice preparation and related services and you will pay us the Royalty described in Item 6.

Computer Software and Support

You must purchase a computer system for your Staffing Business that meets our minimum specifications as described in our confidential Operations Manual. We currently provide you with the staffing software and basic support necessary for your business. You must obtain computer equipment sufficient to operate this software. We may, but currently do not, require you to purchase or lease all or a portion of your computer system, including but not limited to computers and printers for your Staffing Business, from a designated vendor.

Specifications, Signage, and Office Supplies

To protect and maintain the goodwill and public recognition of our Marks and manner of doing business, you must comply with our specifications in your Franchise Agreement and Operations Manual regarding signs, business cards, stationery, office supplies, advertising and other items utilizing the AtWork names and/or logos. We purchase certain of these materials, such as timecards, in bulk and offer them to franchisees at our cost, which may result in savings to you if you make your purchases from us, but it is not currently required that franchisees purchase any of these items from us or our affiliates (though it may be in the future). We also negotiate prices for some supplies and services provided by third-party vendors, which may result in savings to you if you make your purchases from these vendors. We do not endorse or guarantee any products or services provided by others and you are not required to make any of these purchases from us or the vendors we tell you about. You instead may purchase these approved materials and services from whatever source you choose.

Insurance

During the term of the Franchise Agreement, you must maintain in force at your sole expense comprehensive general liability, personal injury liability, property liability, hired/non-owned automobile, commercial liability umbrella, and other types of insurance we require. Currently, we require you to obtain such insurance from designated vendors according to the specifications we approve. All of these policies must contain the minimum coverage we prescribe from time to time and must have deductibles not to exceed the amounts we specify. We may periodically increase the amounts of coverage required under these insurance policies and/or require different or additional insurance coverages (including reasonable excess liability insurance) at any time. These insurance policies must be purchased from licensed insurers having a rating of "A/VIII" or higher by the then-current edition of Best Insurance Reports published by A.M. Best Company (or other similar publication or criteria we designate). In addition, you must maintain in force at your sole expense workers' compensation containing the minimum coverage we prescribe from time to time and must have deductibles not to exceed the amounts we specify, and we may periodically increase the amounts of coverage required under this insurance policy at any time.

* If you operate a Professional Business, we will be the employer of record for the Assigned Temporary Workers of your Staffing Business, and in addition to the above insurance requirements, you must pay us the Insurance Fees described in Item 6.

Your insurance policies must name us and any affiliates or lenders we designate as Additional insureds, using a form of endorsement that we have approved, and provide for 30 days' prior written notice to us of a policy's material modification, cancellation or expiration. Your liability policies must provide primary liability coverage with no contribution from us. Your general liability, professional liability, auto liability and workers compensation policies must contain a waiver of all subrogation rights against us, our affiliates and their successors and assigns. You must periodically furnish us copies of your certificates of insurance or other evidence of your maintaining this insurance coverage and paying premiums. The insurance coverage required above may not contain a deductible of more than $25,000 without prior written consent from us.

We may, at any time, establish and require your participation in additional mandatory insurance programs. We may also require you to use designated insurance suppliers for such insurance program.

Unemployment Insurance

With respect to unemployment insurance for your Assigned Temporary Workers and internal staff, the state in which you operate your Staffing Business will determine the unemployment insurance rate, and we will deduct the cost of unemployment insurance from the amounts we pay you. (See Item 6.) Your claims history and resulting unemployment insurance rate may be affected by your decisions in the recruiting of Assigned Temporary Workers and your internal staff. Your unemployment insurance rate may impact your ability to service certain customers and the profitability of your Staffing Business.

You will be required to interview, test, and screen Assigned Temporary Workers and obtain other pre-employment services from vendors that we designate.

Except as described above, you do not currently have to purchase or lease any goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory, computer hardware and software, real estate, or comparable items from us or any other designated source to establish and operate your Staffing Business. If established, we will give you written specifications for the minimum standards of any products, equipment and supplies, and we would expect to issue and modify these specifications by updating the Operations Manual.

Except as described above, neither we nor our affiliates are currently an approved supplier for any service or good that you must purchase or lease (but we may be in the future). There are no approved suppliers in which any of our officers owns an interest.

Use of Alternative Suppliers

If you would like to purchase or use any products, services, supplies or materials from any unapproved supplier, you must submit to us a written request for approval of the proposed supplier before purchasing any such products, services, supplies or materials. We are not obligated to respond to your request. Our criteria for approving suppliers are not typically made available to franchisees. Under our current evaluation procedure, we will notify you in writing of the approval or rejection of the proposed supplier within a reasonable time after completion of the investigation. If we fail to respond within 60 days, your request will be deemed denied. We may elect to withhold approval of the supplier for any reason. You acknowledge that we are likely to reject your request for a new supplier without conducting any investigation if we have already designated an exclusive supplier for that product or service. We may periodically re-inspect the facilities and products of any approved supplier. We may revoke our approval if the supplier does not continue to meet any of our criteria.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, neither we nor our affiliates derived any revenue from required purchases or leases by franchisees.

There are no purchasing or distribution cooperatives related to AtWork franchises. We do not provide any material benefits (for example, renewal or granting additional franchises) to franchisees based on a franchisee’s purchase of particular products or services or use of particular suppliers. We may negotiate purchase arrangements with some of our suppliers (including price terms) for the benefit of our franchisees, but we are under no obligation to do so. We do not currently receive payment, in the form of preferred pricing or rebates, from any suppliers due to franchisee purchases from such suppliers. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, neither we nor our affiliates derived any revenue from vendors based on required purchases by franchisees.

The estimated proportion of purchases and leases subject to our specifications compared to your total purchases and leases in establishing your business is 10%. The estimated proportion of purchases and leases subject to our specifications compared to your total purchases and leases in operating your business is 5%.

Except as listed below, AtWork Franchise, Inc., is not required to provide you with any assistance.

Before you begin operating your Staffing Business we or our designee will:

1. Designate your Protected Territory if you operate a Personnel Business. (Personnel Addendum – Section 5)
2. If you operate a Personnel Business or if you operate a Professional Business from a location other than your residence, approve the location for your Office. (Personnel Addendum – Section 9; Professional Addendum – Section 9)
3. Provide your Operating Partner, your Manager (if any), and your initially hired employees with training programs in the operations of a Staffing Business as more fully described below. (Franchise Agreement, 3.A.)
4. Provide you online access to the Operations Manual in an electronic format via a restricted website, intranet, or via other electronic means (including by sending to you via email), which (Franchise Agreement, 3.C.)
5. Provide you with a list of specifications for equipment, supplies, advertising, inventory and other products and services we require you to use to operate your Staffing Business and a list of approved, recommended, or designated suppliers of these items. We do not deliver or install these items. (Franchise Agreement, 7.E)

Site Selection and Lease Negotiation

Personnel Businesses

You must, on your own initiative and at your own expense, lease (or buy) and occupy the approved location for your Office. We do not provide you with any assistance in approving or negotiating the lease (or purchase agreement) for the location of your Office. If you sign the Additional Territory Addendum, you must obtain a separate Office for each additional territory.

We do not generally own the premises of your Office. We must approve the location of the Office, which location must have a size of between 1,000 to 1,250 square feet unless otherwise approved by us. If the location for the Office is not determined at the time you sign the Franchise Agreement, then you will submit to us a complete report for a site you propose for your Staffing Business. Unless you have our prior written approval to search for a proposed site outside of your Protected Territory, all site reports that you submit to us must be for a site within your Protected Territory. Your report must contain the documents and information we require, including a description of the proposed site, and a letter of intent or other evidence confirming your favorable prospects for obtaining the proposed site. Some of the factors that we consider in approving a site for your Office include demographic characteristics, traffic patterns, parking, the character of the neighborhood, proximity of competition, and the size, appearance and other physical characteristics of the premises. We will use reasonable efforts to accept or not accept the proposed site within 30 days after receiving your report. There is no specific consequence in the Franchise Agreement if you fail to find an approved site for your Office within a given amount of time, however, you must begin operating your Staffing Business on a full-time basis on the first Monday following your completion to our satisfaction of all phases of the Training Programs, which in no event may be later than 90 days after the effective date of the Franchise Agreement. Your failure to meet this deadline will give us the right to terminate your Franchise Agreement.

Professional Businesses

You may, and we expect that you will, operate your Staffing Business from your (or your owner's) residence. If you elect to operate your Staffing Business from a location other than your residence, you must, on your own initiative and at your own expense, lease (or buy) and occupy the approved location for your Office. We do not provide you with any assistance in approving or negotiating the lease (or purchase agreement) for the location of your Office. We do not generally own the premises of your Office.

If you elect to operate your Staffing Business from a location other than your residence, then you will submit to us a complete report for a site you propose for your Staffing Business. Your report must contain the documents and information we require, including a description of the proposed site, and a letter of intent or other evidence confirming your favorable prospects for obtaining the proposed site. Some of the factors that we consider in approving a site for your Office include demographic characteristics, traffic patterns, parking, the character of the neighborhood, proximity of competition, and the size, appearance and other physical characteristics of the premises. We will use reasonable efforts to accept or not accept the proposed site within 30 days after receiving your report. There is no specific consequence in the Franchise Agreement if you fail to find an approved site for your Office within a given amount of time, however, you must begin operating your Staffing Business on a full-time basis on the first Monday following your completion to our satisfaction of all phases of the Training Programs, which in no event may be later than 90 days after the effective date of the Franchise Agreement. Your failure to meet this deadline will give us the right to terminate your Franchise Agreement.

Operations Manual

The table of contents of the current version of the Operations Manual is included as Exhibit F. Our current version of the Operations Manual has 174 pages. Under the terms of the Franchise Agreement, we are entitled to revise the Operations Manual at any time, and you will be obligated to adhere to those revised specifications and requirements.

Time Between First Payment and Business Opening

You must begin full-time operation of your Staffing Business on the first Monday following your completion to our satisfaction of all phases of the Training Programs, which in no event may be later than 90 days after you and we sign the Franchise Agreement. The typical length of time between signing the Franchise Agreement and opening your Staffing Business is 90 days. The main factors in determining the length of time between signing the Franchise Agreement and opening your business have been the amount of time required to obtain the required insurance coverage and hiring staff.

During your operation of your Staffing Business we or one of our affiliates (or our designee) will:

1. Continue to provide you online access to the Operations Manual in an electronic format via a restricted website, intranet, or via other electronic means (including by sending to you via email) (Franchise Agreement, 3.C.)
2. We will process payroll for the Assigned Temporary Workers of Personnel Businesses (Franchise Agreement, 3.D.) or serve as employer of record of all Assigned Temporary Workers of your Staffing Business. (Professional Addendum, Section 7). We do not process payroll for the internal workers of Staffing Businesses.
3. If you operate a Personnel Business, we will pay all of the Worker Expenses of Assigned Temporary Workers on your behalf other than (a) workers' compensation insurance premiums and costs and (b) bonuses and fringe benefits. (Franchise Agreement, 3.D.)
4. If you operate a Professional Business, we will be the employer of record of all Assigned Temporary Workers of your Staffing Business. (Professional Addendum, Section 7)

5. If you operate a Personnel Business, we will accrue, on your behalf, workers' compensation insurance premiums and costs for your Assigned Temporary Workers and you will be able to draw on this accrual account as necessary to pay such premiums and costs directly to the relevant insurer or governmental agency. (Franchise Agreement, 3.D.)
6. Hold and maintain a Risk Management Reserve to cover disputed invoices that are charged back, improper payment of Assigned Temporary Workers, charges for misclassified workers, and other authorized deductions, and we will be allowed to draw on your Risk Management Reserve to pay for such costs and expenses. Although we will hold and administer your Risk Management Reserve, your Risk Management Reserve will remain your property. Upon termination of the Franchise Agreement, we will pay the balance of your Risk Management Reserve to you after final settlement of all accounts receivable for Assigned Temporary Workers and the payment to us of all chargebacks and other amounts then due to us or our affiliates. (Franchise Agreement, 3.E.)
7. We will transmit all invoices to customers for services performed by Assigned Temporary Workers as reported by you, and all customer payments will be made to us or one of our affiliates. (Franchise Agreement, 4.H.)
8. On or before the 25th day of each calendar month, we will remit to you the Balance Payment. (Franchise Agreement, 4.H.)
9. Issue you refurbishment notices setting forth required renovations to your Office and its operating assets, including signage, pursuant to System Standards. (Franchise Agreement – Section 7.C.)
10. We may periodically set a minimum price that you may charge for products or services offered by your Staffing Business (Franchise Agreement, Section 7.I.)
11. We will approve or reject contracts and/or customers you propose for your Staffing Business (Franchise Agreement, Section 7.K)
12. Maintain and administer a Marketing Fund (defined below). (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.D.)

Advertising

Grand Opening Marketing Program.

You must spend at least $5,000, if you operate a Personnel Business, or $1,500, if you operate a Professional Business, for a grand opening advertising program for your Staffing Business to take place during the period beginning 2 weeks before the opening date of your Staffing Business and ending 6 weeks after your opening date (the “Grand Opening Advertising Program”). You must comply with our guidelines for your Grand Opening Advertising Program and conduct the Grand Opening Advertising Program in accordance with a plan which you will prepare and submit to us for approval at least 60 days prior to the opening date of your Staffing Business. We may require you to use the advertising, marketing and/or public relations programs, firms, media and materials we approve for your Grand Opening Advertising Program. We have the right to approve the type of expenditure that will count towards your minimum expenditure on your Grand Opening Advertising Program.

Local Advertising

Starting when you begin operating your Staffing Business, you must spend a minimum of $2,500 on advertising approved by us during each calendar quarter. Your local advertising expenditures are separate from and in addition to your Marketing Fund Contributions obligation. If you sign the Additional Territory Addendum, we may increase your local advertising obligation to account for the increase in size of your Protected Territory. On or before the 30th day after each calendar quarter, you must provide us with an accurate accounting of your advertising expenditures and marketing activities during the immediately preceding calendar quarter. We may, at any time, issue you a notice that the amounts required to be spent by you for advertising must, instead, be paid to us or our designee. If we exercise this option, we will then spend such amounts to advertise and promote your Staffing Business on your behalf.

Before you use any advertising and promotional materials not prepared by or previously approved by us, you will submit samples of such materials to us for approval. If we do not approve the materials in writing within 15 days from the date we receive the materials, the materials are deemed to be disapproved. If we approve the materials, you may use them. However, we may, without compensating you for any of your costs associated with the manufacture or distribution of the unused materials, withdraw our approval. You must not use any advertising or promotional materials that we have not approved or have disapproved. You agree that your advertising, promotion, and marketing will be completely clear, factual, and not misleading and conform to both the highest standards of ethical advertising and marketing and the advertising and marketing policies that we prescribe from time to time.

National Marketing Fund.

We have established a national advertising and marketing fund (the “Marketing Fund”). We intend for the Marketing Fund to promote the Marks, Staffing Businesses, and the “AtWork” brand generally. You must contribute to the Marketing Fund an amount up to 1.0% of your Staffing Business’s Gross Revenues (“Marketing Fund Contribution”). Currently, the Marketing Fund Contribution is 0.5% of your Staffing Business’s Gross Revenues, but we may revise the Marketing Fund Contribution upon prior notice subject to the foregoing cap. The Marketing Fund Contribution is payable in the same manner as the Royalty.

Staffing Businesses owned by us or our affiliates will contribute to the Marketing Fund on the same basis as our franchisees.

We or our affiliates or other designees will direct all programs that the Marketing Fund finances, with sole control over the creative concepts, materials, and endorsements used and their geographic, market, and media placement and allocation. The Marketing Fund may pay for preparing and producing video, audio, and written materials and electronic, virtual, or digital media; developing, implementing, and maintaining a Franchise System website and related strategies; administering regional and multi-regional marketing and advertising programs, including programmatic job distribution programs, purchasing trade journal, direct mail, and other media advertising and using advertising, promotion, and marketing agencies and other advisors to provide assistance; administering online advertising and marketing campaigns (including search engine, social media, email, and display ad campaigns); developing and administering software, apps, and related integrations; and supporting public relations, market research, and other advertising, promotion, and marketing activities. The Marketing Fund will not be used principally to solicit new franchise sales.

We will account for the Marketing Fund separately from our other funds and not use the Marketing Fund for any of our general operating expenses. However, we may use the Marketing Fund to reimburse us or our affiliates or designees for the reasonable salaries and benefits of personnel who manage and administer the Marketing Fund, the Marketing Fund's other administrative costs, travel expenses of personnel while they are on Marketing Fund business, meeting costs, overhead relating to Marketing Fund business, and other expenses that we incur in activities reasonably related to administering or directing the Marketing Fund and its programs, including conducting market research, public relations, preparing advertising, promotion, and marketing materials, and collecting and accounting for Marketing Fund contributions.

The Marketing Fund will not be our asset. We do not owe any fiduciary obligation to you for administering the Marketing Fund or any other reason. We will hold all Marketing Fund contributions for the benefit of the contributors and use contributions for the purposes described above. The Marketing Fund may spend in any fiscal year more or less than the total Marketing Fund contributions in that year, borrow from us or others (paying reasonable interest) to cover deficits, or invest any surplus for future use. We may use all interest earned on the Marketing Fund contributions to pay costs before using the Marketing Fund's other assets. We will prepare an annual, unaudited statement of Marketing Fund collections and expenses. You may obtain the statement upon written request. We may have the Marketing Fund audited annually, at the Marketing Fund's expense, by an independent certified public accountant. We may incorporate the Marketing Fund or operate it through a separate entity whenever we deem appropriate.

We intend for the Marketing Fund to promote recognition of the applicable Marks, the AtWork brand and patronage of Staffing Businesses. Although we will try to use the Marketing Fund to develop advertising and marketing materials and programs, and to place advertising and marketing, that will benefit all Staffing Businesses contributing to the Marketing Fund, we need not ensure that Marketing Fund expenditures in or affecting any geographic area are proportionate or equivalent to Marketing Fund contributions by Staffing Businesses operating in that geographic area or that any Staffing Business benefits directly or in proportion to its Marketing Fund contribution from the development of advertising and marketing materials or the placement of advertising and marketing. Some franchisees may not be required to contribute to the Marketing Fund, and some franchisees may contribute to the Marketing Fund at different rates. We have the right, but no obligation, to use collection agents and institute legal proceedings to collect Marketing Fund contributions at the Marketing Fund's expense. We also may forgive, waive, settle, and compromise all claims by or against the Marketing Fund. Except as expressly provided, we assume no direct or indirect liability or obligation to you for collecting amounts due to, maintaining, directing, or administering the Marketing Fund.

We may at any time defer or reduce contributions of a Staffing Business franchise owner and, upon 30 days' prior notice to you, reduce or suspend Marketing Fund contributions and operations for one or more periods of any length and terminate (and, if terminated, reinstate) the Marketing Fund. If we terminate the Marketing Fund, we will, at our option, either spend all unspent monies in accordance with the procedures above, until such amounts are exhausted, or distribute the funds in the Marketing Fund to the contributing Staffing Business owners on a pro rata basis.

During our 2025 fiscal year, the Marketing Fund contributions were used as follows: 59% for production; 21.3% for administrative expenses; and 19.7% for other expenses (including website and online advertisement design and placement). During the 2024 fiscal year, no portion of the Marketing Fund was principally to solicit new franchisees.

Franchise Advisory Council

We have formed a Franchise Advisory Council ("FAC") that is composed of franchisees selected by members of our operations team. The FAC meets quarterly (both in-person and by conference call or webinar) to advise us on topics such as operations, services, software, communications, and new initiatives. The FAC serves in an advisory capacity only. We may change or dissolve the FAC at our discretion.

There are currently no local or regional advertising cooperatives in which you are required to participate.

Computer Systems

We maintain a central computer and industry-specific software for our front and back office procedures for operating a staffing service business. We currently provide you with the necessary staffing software to connect your business to our central computer through your personal computer, which staffing software fees are included in the technology bundle fee. We will have independent access to this information and data in order to process it for you and us. There are no contractual limitations on our right to access this information.

You must purchase at least 3 computers for your internal staff. These computers must run Windows 11 Pro or newer software, and be equipped with antivirus software we approve. In addition, you must purchase printers, modems, and other network peripherals that meet our specifications as detailed in our Operations Manual. In addition to computers for your internal staff, you must purchase an additional 2 to 3 computer workstations for applicant-testing purposes.

We estimate the cost of purchasing the computer system and related office equipment will range from $4,000 to $12,000 depending on the location and size of your Office, the type of equipment you purchase and the overall set-up of your Staffing Business.

We do not assume any responsibility for maintaining, repairing or upgrading any computer equipment or related office equipment that you operate. You are not required to have an ongoing maintenance or support agreement, but you may find it advantageous to do so. The cost will depend, in part, on the services you choose and the length of the contract.

We may require you to purchase all or a portion of your computer system, including but not limited to computers and printers for your Staffing Business, from a designated vendor. In addition to any components of your computer system that we require you to purchase from a designated vendor, if any, we may supply you with a recommended equipment list and vendors for your business.

Training Programs

We will provide you with training programs in the operations of a Staffing Business (collectively, the "Training Programs"). The Training Programs currently consist of assigned eLearnings, virtual webinars, Launch Program and attending our Foundation Learning program. Each of your owners and your Manager (if any) must complete all assigned eLearning, each assigned Launch phase, coordinate one on one calls with departments, and attend our Foundation Learning Program.

The Launch Program, which is assigned through our Learning Management System and consists of eLearning assigned in three phases relative to timing in getting your business set up. Each course requires you setting up a call with the department to review your questions and obtain any additional information to assist with your set up.

However, the Training Programs are subject to change without prior notice to you due to updates in materials, methods, manuals and personnel. You may invite additional employees to be assigned the Launch Program portion of Training. We may require that your trainees obtain such professional certifications as we require before they may attend the Training Programs. We may vary the Training Programs based on the experience and skill level of the individual(s) attending. We will provide the Training Programs at the times and locations we determine, which may include sending our trainer(s) to the Office to conduct any part of the Training Programs. We may provide the Training Programs or portions thereof virtually, such as through video-conferencing software or through eLearning technologies. Your Operating Partner, your Manager (if applicable), and your initially hired employee(s) must complete the Training Programs to our satisfaction before commencing operation of your Staffing Business. If your Operating Partner, your Manager (if applicable), or any of your initially hired employee(s), fails to complete the Training Programs to our satisfaction, we may require such individual to attend additional training. In addition, if, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, we determine that your Operating Partner, your Manager (if applicable), or any employee requires refresher training, we may require such individuals to retake all or a portion of the initial Training Programs. Additional training will be provided at the time and location of our choice. If your Operating Partner, your Manager, or any employee required by us, is unable to complete the additional required training to our satisfaction, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement. If we terminate the Franchise Agreement because your Operating Partner, your Manager, or an employee required by us, is unable to complete the Training Programs to our satisfaction, and you and your owners agree to execute general releases in a form satisfactory to us, we will refund 50% of the Initial Franchise Fee, less our out-of-pocket expenses, to you.

We offer a learning curriculum to all new employees. Each employee is assigned position-based eLearning, access to self-enrolled virtual webinars, and training resources. You are responsible for ensuring the employee completes that program and you must also provide a training program for all your employees other than the attendees of the Training Programs. All employees must complete the program to our satisfaction before providing services for your Staffing Business. We may approve the length and content of all training programs you provide to your employees. If we determine that one or more of your employees is not properly trained to provide the services offered by your Staffing Business, we may require such person to cease providing services for your Staffing Business and/or to be trained by us at our then-current training fee.

We may make available to you eLearning courses throughout the term of the Franchise Agreement for your owners, Operating Partner, Manager (if applicable), and your employees. You must oversee and ensure that your employees complete such eLearning and training courses as we designate during the term of the Franchise Agreement, and you agree to provide us evidence of such completion.

From time to time, we may provide virtual learning trainings available to your owners, Operating Partner, Manager (if applicable), and employees. The initial Training Programs are currently held on a monthly basis, but we may tailor the timing of these Training Programs. Additional programs may be held on an as-needed basis to accommodate the needs of franchisees. If you appoint a new Operating Partner or Manager, he or she must attend the then-current Training Programs within 30 days of the appointment date unless we determine that you are sufficiently trained to provide a comparable substitute training program to such Manager. If we permit you to train any Manager yourself, you must provide such training according to our then-current standards and specifications, and we must determine that such Manager has been adequately trained before providing any services for your Staffing Business. If we determine that any Manager that you trained is not sufficiently trained to provide services for your Staffing Business, we may require such person attend our Training Programs. If we determine that you are sufficiently trained to provide a comparable substitute training program to any Manager, we may elect not to make the Training Programs available to such person until the next time our Training Programs would otherwise be offered.

You agree to pay all travel and living expenses (including, wages, transportation, food, lodging, and workers' compensation insurance) that your Operating Partner or any employee (including the Manager, if any) incurs during any and all in person meetings and/or training courses and programs. You are also responsible for the travel and living expenses and out-of-pocket costs we incur in sending our trainer(s) to the Office to conduct training, including food, lodging and transportation.

Our training programs are conducted primarily by our Vice President of Learning & Development, Alena Watts, and other instructors from our corporate office. Ms. Watts has 31 years of experience in the subjects taught and 2+ year of experience with us. Other individuals who may provide portions of our training program include: Larry Marion (28 years of experience in the staffing industry and 9 years of experience with us); Jason Leverant (19 years of experience in the staffing industry and 17 years of experience with us); Craig Kirby (35 years of experience in the staffing industry and 5 years with us) Robert Lewellen (26 years of experience in the staffing industry and 5 years of experience with us); Robin Bayless (3 years of staffing industry and 3 year of experience with us) and our Training Coordinator, Montre Cospy (6 years in the staffing industry and 6 years of experience with us; Victoria Mayer (12 years of experience in the staffing industry and 2 years with us)

The instructional material used in the Training Programs is part of the Operations Manual, AtWork Connect Library, and in our AtWork Course Catalog.

Additional Training and Conferences

We may require your Operating Partner, your Manager, and/or certain other employees of your Staffing Business to attend various training courses, trade shows, ongoing education or certification programs, and/or webinars at the times and locations designated by us, including courses and programs provided by third parties we designate. Besides attending these training courses, programs and events, we require your Operating Partner and your Manager (if applicable) to attend an annual meeting of franchise owners and/or meetings for regional franchise owners. These meetings will be held at our discretion and at locations we designate. However, any attendance at any additional training courses, programs or events, or any annual or regional franchise owner meetings, will not be required for more than 10 days during a calendar year (which days may not necessarily be consecutive). We currently charge $500 per attendee for the first 2 attendees and $250 for each additional attendee at our annual meeting.

Item 12.

Territory

Personnel Businesses:

Your Office Site and Protected Territory

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Under the Franchise Agreement, we grant to you the right and obligation to own and operate one Personnel Business under our Marks and according to our System at a specific approved Office location within your Protected Territory. Once approved, you may not relocate your Staffing Business from the approved Office without our approval. In considering a request for relocation, our approval will be conditioned on the same factors that we use in considering your initial Office location, namely demographic characteristic, traffic patterns, parking, the character of the neighborhood, proximity of competition, and the size, appearance and other physical characteristics of the proposed office premises.

Your Protected Territory will be agreed upon between you and us before you sign the Franchise Agreement and will be identified in Exhibit A to the Franchise Agreement. Your Protected Territory will be described by reference to specified counties, or by reference to specific streets, ZIP codes, governmental jurisdictions, or other natural boundaries, through reports that are prepared by the US Census Bureau (www.census.gov) or a similar resource.

Under the Franchise Agreement, you will also receive the non-exclusive right to offer full-time placements to customers in the Protected Territory. Other AtWork franchisees may have the right to offer full-time placements within the Protected Territory, and you agree to abide by any restrictions we place on your right to offer full-time placements.

The exact geographic area of each Protected Territory will be decided on a market-by-market basis. The Protected Territory will have population of approximately 200,000 individuals. Major metropolitan markets will be divided into multiple territories.

If during the term of the Franchise Agreement the population of the Protected Territory increases by more than 50% (as measured by whichever demographic reports we elect to use), we may reduce the size of your Protected Territory. However, you would be permitted to retain any then-existing accounts for customers you serviced in your original Protected Territory.

If you are an existing franchisee who meets our eligibility standards, and you wish to add a territory to your Staffing Business, you must sign the Additional Territory Addendum and pay us the Additional Territory Fee described in Item 6. Upon signing the Additional Territory Addendum and payment of the Additional Territory Fee, the additional territory will be added to your Protected Territory. The exact geographic area of each additional territory will be decided on a market-by-market basis but will generally have a minimum population of approximately 200,000 individuals. You will be required to operate a separate Office within each additional territory.

You may not provide services to any customers outside of your Protected Territory unless we have provided our prior written consent. We will grant our consent only upon your satisfaction of the following conditions:

- (1) The area in which you wish to provide service is not included in another franchisee's territory or in an area currently served by a company-owned business.
- (2) You may not conduct any advertising targeting customers outside your Protected Territory unless you can completely discontinue the advertising on 30 days' notice or less.
- (3) When the area is granted to another franchisee, you agree to immediately stop providing services and turn over your list of prospects and customers in the external area to the franchisee to which the area has been granted without seeking or accepting any compensation for doing so. You must immediately discontinue any advertising you have directed to customers in the area.
- (4) You agree to immediately stop serving customers in the external area if we withdraw our consent to your operating there. Failure to stop serving customers in the external area within thirty 30 days after written notice is grounds for our termination of your franchise.

Other than this limited exception, you may not solicit or accept orders from consumers outside the Protected Territory through any channel of distribution (including the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing) without our prior written consent. You may only accept customers and contracts that we approve. If another AtWork franchisee violates this or any similar restriction under an agreement with us, we are not obligated to compensate you for any staffing services such franchisee may have provided in your Protected Territory.

Rights We Reserve

Other than your Protected Territory (if you operate a Personnel Business), you have no territorial protection and we (and our affiliates) retain all rights with respect to the placement of Staffing Businesses and other businesses using the Marks, the sale of similar or dissimilar products and services, and any other activities. These rights include:

- (1) the right to establish and operate, and allow others to establish and operate any businesses (including business offering full-time placements), other than Personnel Businesses, using the Marks or the Franchise System, at any location within or outside of the Protected Territory, and on any terms and conditions we approve;
- (2) the right to serve or authorize others to serve National/Regional/Onsite Account Customers (defined below) at locations within your Protected Territory on an ongoing basis if you are unqualified or unable to do so, or if a particular National/Regional/Onsite Account Customer specifies to us in writing that it wishes to use another franchisee, according to the procedures and upon the terms described in the Operations Manual, as revised from time to time, for our National/Regional/Onsite Account Contract Program (defined below), if one is instituted;
- (3) the right to establish and operate, and allow others to establish and operate, other Personnel Businesses using the Marks or the Franchise System, at any location outside the Protected Territory, and on any terms and conditions we approve;
- (4) the right to establish and operate, allow others to establish and operate, or acquire the ownership interests or assets of another business that establishes or operates, any business using trade names, trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols other than the Marks (including other Personnel Businesses), anywhere in the world (including in the Protected Territory), regardless of the nature or location of the customers of such business, which may offer products and services that may be identical or similar to products and services offered by Personnel Businesses;
- (5) the right to establish, and allow others to establish, other distribution channels (including the internet) wherever located or operating, including within your Protected Territory, regardless of the nature or location of the customers, with whom such other distribution channels do business, that operate under the Marks or any other trade names, trademarks, service marks or commercial symbols that are the same as or different from Personnel Businesses, and that sell products and/or services that are identical or similar to, and/or competitive with, those that Personnel Businesses customarily sell under any terms and conditions we approve;

We are not required to compensate you if we exercise any of these rights.

Professional Businesses:

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Under the Franchise Agreement, we grant to you the right and obligation to own and operate one Professional Business under our Marks and according to our System. We anticipate that your Office will be your owner's residence. If you desire to operate your Office from a location other than your residence, you must receive our approval for the specific location. Once approved, if your Office is not a residence, you may not relocate your Staffing Business from the approved Office to a location other than your residence without our approval. In considering a request for relocation, our approval will be conditioned on the same factors that we use in considering your initial Office location, namely demographic characteristic, traffic patterns, parking, the character of the neighborhood, proximity of competition, and the size, appearance and other physical characteristics of the proposed office premises.

Subject to applicable law and our system standards, you may solicit and accept orders from any location in the United States through any channel of distribution (including the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing); provided, that you may only accept customers and contracts that we approve.

Rights We Reserve

You have no territorial protection and we (and our affiliates) retain all rights with respect to the placement of Staffing Businesses and other businesses using the Marks, the sale of similar or dissimilar products and services, and any other activities. These rights include:

(1) the right to establish and operate, and allow others to establish and operate, staffing businesses (including businesses offering Full-Time Placements) using the Marks or the Franchise System, at any location, and on any terms and conditions we approve;

(2) the right to establish and operate, allow others to establish and operate, or acquire the ownership interests or assets of another business that establishes or operates, any business using trade names, trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols other than the Marks (including other Professional Businesses), anywhere in the world, regardless of the nature or location of the customers of such business, which may offer products and services that may be identical or similar to products and services offered by Professional Businesses;

(3) the right to establish, and allow others to establish, other distribution channels (including the internet) wherever located or operating, regardless of the nature or location of the customers, with whom such other distribution channels do business, that operate under the Marks or any other trade names, trademarks, service marks or commercial symbols that are the same as or different from Professional Businesses, and that sell products and/or services that are identical or similar to, and/or competitive with, those that Professional Businesses customarily sell under any terms and conditions we approve;

(4) the right to acquire the assets or ownership interests of one or more businesses that operate, or grant franchises or licenses to operate, one or more Professional Businesses wherever located or operated, notwithstanding the fact that such professional service businesses may be the same as or similar to Professional Businesses; and in the event of such an acquisition, we or our affiliates (as applicable) shall have the right to continue to operate such Professional Businesses and to develop additional Professional Businesses of such concept, and to grant others the right to develop and operate Professional Businesses of such concept, wherever located;

(5) the right to be acquired (regardless of the form of transaction) by a business, whether or not such business is a Competitive Business, even if such business operates, franchises and/or grants licenses for the operation of staffing businesses which may be the same as or similar to Professional Businesses; and in the event of such an acquisition, the acquirer and its affiliates (as applicable) shall have the right to continue to operate such Professional Businesses and to develop additional Professional Businesses of such concept, and to grant others the right to develop and operate staffing businesses of such concept, wherever located; and

(6) engage in all other activities not expressly prohibited by this Agreement, wherever located.

We are not required to compensate you if we exercise any of these rights.

Personnel Businesses and Professional Businesses:

Minimum Performance Standard

You do not have to achieve any certain sales volume or market penetration to retain your rights to the Territory. However, by entering into a Franchise Agreement, you agree that the amount of Royalties that is generated by your Staffing Business during any "Agreement Year," which is defined as each 12-month period starting on the date you begin operating your Staffing Business and each anniversary of that date, will be no less than the following (the "Minimum Performance Standard"):

- During your first Agreement Year, there is no minimum.

- During your second Agreement Year, your Staffing Business must generate a Royalty of at least $50,000.
- During your third Agreement Year, your Staffing Business must generate a Royalty of at least $75,000.
- During your fourth Agreement Year and each subsequent Agreement Year through the end of the term of the Franchise Agreement, your Staffing Business must generate a Royalty of at least $100,000.

We may terminate the Franchise Agreement if you fail to satisfy the required Minimum Performance Standard in any Agreement Year. Our establishment of the Minimum Performance Standard is not our representation that your Staffing Business will achieve any minimum level of sales. If you operate multiple Offices under your Franchise Agreement under an Additional Territory Addendum, the Minimum Performance Standard applies to each Office, individually.

Businesses Operated Under Other Trademarks

Although we are not restricted from doing so, we and our affiliates have not established and do not currently intend to establish any other franchises or company-owned outlets offering similar services or goods under a different trademark anywhere in the United States.

Additional Rights

We do not grant options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises or territories.

Item 14.
Patents, Copyrights and Proprietary Information

We do not own any patents that are material to the franchise. We have not filed any patent applications that are material to the franchise.

Various marketing, sales, training and management materials which we have created, including the Operations Manual, marketing materials, newsletters, training and informational materials, printing, advertising and promotional materials, and related items, used in operating a Staffing Business, are protected under the U.S. Copyright Act, whether or not we have obtained registrations. You may use these copyrighted materials during the term of the franchise, in a manner consistent with our ownership rights, for the purpose of operating and promoting your Staffing Business, but you do not receive any rights in those materials.

There are no determinations of the U.S. Copyright Office (Library of Congress) or any court, nor are there any pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceedings or material litigation, involving the copyrighted materials which are relevant to their use by our franchisees.

No agreements limit our right to use or license the use of our copyrighted materials. We are not obligated under any agreement to protect or defend our copyrights, although we may do so. We do not know of any infringing uses of or superior rights in our copyrighted materials.

We have developed and may continue to develop confidential information for the operation of a Staffing Business, including: the Operations Manual, marketing materials, training materials, methods, techniques, formats, specifications, systems (including accounting systems), procedures, recommended prices and pricing methods, sales and marketing techniques, and marketing and advertising programs and materials.

The confidential information includes our trade secrets. We disclose it to you on the condition that you do not use the information in any other business, or in violation of the Franchise Agreement, during and after the term of the franchise, that you not make unauthorized copies of any portion of the information, and that you implement all procedures we require to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the information. We may require you to have your employees and contractors execute a nondisclosure agreement and will have the right to regulate the form of and to be a party to or third-party beneficiary under any such agreement with independent enforcement rights. We attach a form of Confidentiality Agreement to the Franchise Agreement, but this form may or may not be enforceable in a particular jurisdiction, and you are solely responsible for obtaining your own professional advice with respect to the adequacy of the terms and provisions of any confidentiality agreement that your employees, agents and independent contractors sign.

Item 15.

Obligation to Participate in the Actual Operation of the Franchise Business

We do not permit individuals to enter into franchise agreements or operate Staffing Businesses. You must, therefore, operate your Staffing Business, and you must sign the Franchise Agreement, as a corporation, limited liability company, or general or limited partnership. You must identify one of your owners who is a natural person with at least a 51% ownership interest and voting power in you, with the authority to take legally binding actions on your behalf, to act as your “Operating Partner.” The Operating Partner is authorized to deal with us on your behalf for all matters whatsoever that may arise with respect to the Franchise Agreement.

If your Operating Partner does not wish to supervise your Staffing Business on a full-time basis, you must appoint a manager who has completed the Training Programs to work full-time to supervise the operation of your Staffing Business (the “Manager”). We may establish minimum qualifications for any such Manager, which may include completion of Training Programs, confirmation that they will have no competitive business activities, and/or execution of a non-disclosure agreement or other covenants we require. If any Manager ceases to act as your Staffing Business’s Manager, your Operating Partner must manage your Staffing Business until such time as a replacement Manager has satisfactorily completed the Training Programs and meets our then-current minimum qualifications. The Manager does not need to own an equity ownership in you.

Each of your owners must sign a Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations, which is attached as an exhibit to the Franchise Agreement, guaranteeing the performance of your obligations under the Franchise Agreement. The spouse of each owner will also be required to consent in writing to his or her spouse’s execution of the guaranty, which serves to bind the assets of the marital estate to the guarantor’s performance of the Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations.

Item 16.

Restrictions on What the Franchisee May Sell

You must use and sell all the goods and services and only the goods and services that we have authorized you to provide. We have the right to change the authorized goods and services. There is no limit to this right. If you operate a Personnel Business, you may offer staffing services relating only to temporary clerical, management, and light industrial personnel. If you operate a Professional Business, you may offer staffing services relating only to contract and project-based professional workers and executive direct hires in the particular employment verticals we designate. You must receive our approval for each customer and contract for Assigned Temporary Workers for your Staffing Business.

You must recruit, screen, test, interview, hire and assign Assigned Temporary Workers according to our standards and procedures and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. If you operate a Personnel Business, you will be employer of record for all Assigned Temporary Workers and internal staff, but we may notify you in writing that we intend to be the employer of record for all Assigned Temporary Workers. If you operate a Professional Business, we will be employer of record for all Assigned Temporary Workers, and you will be employer of record for any of your internal staff.

You must solicit and negotiate with customers to furnish Assigned Temporary Workers according to our standards and procedures and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. We may require you to submit proposed customer contracts to us for review before executing or accepting such contracts, and we may reject such contracts or require revisions to such contracts. We may reject any prospective customer. We will own the customer information and customer lists for the customers to whom you provide Assigned Temporary Workers.

If you operate a Personnel Business, you may not provide service to a customer at any location outside your Protected Territory except under the limited conditions described in Item 12 of this disclosure document. Upon our payment to you of the first Balance Payment for any Gross Invoice Amount, we will become absolute owner of the Gross Invoice Amount relating to such Balance Payment.

We may institute and administer a “National/Regional/Onsite Contract Program,” operated according to written procedures in the Operations Manual, as revised from time to time, to enable Personnel Business franchisees in our systemwide franchise network to accommodate the needs of National/Regional/Onsite Account Customers. A “National/Regional/Onsite Account Customer” means a customer that conducts its business in more than one company or franchisee territory and that we have designated as a “National/Regional/Onsite Account Customer.” If you operate a Personnel Business and we institute a National/Regional/Onsite Contract Program, and we determine that you qualify to participate (using the qualification standards that we establish in the Operations Manual from time to time, which may include standards such as your length of experience within offering staffing services), you may be required to serve National/Regional/Onsite Account Customers at locations within your Protected Territory according to the procedures and upon the terms for the program described in the Operations Manual, as revised from time to time. If you are unqualified or unwilling to serve a National/Regional/Onsite Account Customer in your Protected Territory, or if a National/Regional/Onsite Account Customer specifies to us in writing that it wishes to use a particular franchisee, then we have the right to serve or authorize others to serve National/Regional/Onsite Account Customers at locations within your Protected Territory on an ongoing basis.

Item 19.
Financial Performance Representations

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

As of December 31, 2025, there were 47 franchisees operating 83 Personnel Business Offices (the "Franchised Offices"). Of these 83 Franchised Offices, we have excluded (i) 14 Franchised Offices that opened during the 2025 calendar year and did not operate for the entire 2025 calendar year, and (ii) 6 Franchised Offices that operate as satellite offices offering limited services focused on in-person recruiting. INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Atwork Franchise, Inc.
Knoxville, Tennessee

We have audited the financial statements of Atwork Franchise, Inc. (the "Company"), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the related statements of income, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audits of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued or available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audits of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audits, significant audit findings, and certain internal control–related matters that we identified during the audits.

ATWORK FRANCHISE, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2025 and 2024

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Atwork Franchise, Inc. (Atwork or the Company) is in the business of franchising and servicing franchisees throughout the United States. Atwork grants franchises to franchisees to operate offices which provide temporary employees and other staffing services to their customers. Conventional franchise arrangements generally include an exclusive right and license to own and operate a business at an agreed upon location within a specified territory. The arrangements provide for payment of initial fees, as well as continuing royalties and fees to Atwork based upon a percent of sales. Under these arrangements, franchisees are granted the right to operate, generally for a period of ten years.

This summary of significant accounting policies is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company's management who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements. Significant accounting policies are:

Management Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition - The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with Accounting Standards Update (ASC) Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which provides a five-step model for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers as follows: 1) Identify the contract with a customer, 2) Identify the performance obligations in the contract, 3) Determine the transaction price, 4) Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and 5) Recognize revenue when or as performance obligations are satisfied.

The Company's revenues consist almost entirely of fees and royalties collected from franchisees and initial franchise fees. The Company's products and services are marketed and sold primarily to customers in the United States. Results of operations are substantially affected by economic conditions, which can vary significantly by market.

The Company's franchise agreements include (a) the right to use the Company's symbolic intellectual property over the term of each franchise agreement, (b) pre-opening services, such as training, and (c) ongoing services, such as development of training materials and franchisee support. These promises are highly dependent upon and interrelated with the franchise right granted in the franchise agreement, so they are not considered to be individually distinct and therefore are accounted for as a single performance obligation, except for pre-opening services. The performance obligation under the franchise agreement is the promise to provide daily access to the symbolic intellectual property over the term of each franchise agreement, which is a series of distinct services that represents a single performance obligation. Although the franchisor's underlying activities associated with the symbolic intellectual property will vary both within a day and day-to-day, the symbolic intellectual property is accessed over time and the customer (the franchisee) simultaneously receives and consumes the benefit from the franchisor's performance of providing access to the symbolic intellectual property (including other related activities). The Company charges an initial franchisee fee for pre-opening services. The Company has elected the practical expedient for certain pre-opening services and recognizes revenue for the pre-opening services performance obligation over time as it performs these services, generally in less than one year. Continuing royalties are calculated as a percentage of franchisee's sales that are related entirely to our performance obligation under the franchise agreement. These royalties are considered variable consideration but because they relate to a license of intellectual property, they are not included in the transaction price. Instead, royalty revenue is recognized as franchisee sales occur.

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

The franchise agreement also includes a fee for providing administrative services to the franchisee such as processing payroll, remitting payroll taxes, and billing the end customer. As a practical expedient, the Company recognizes revenue in the amount to which it has a right to bill the franchisee for the administrative services provided.

Total revenue recognized at a point in time and over time was as follows for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024:

	2025	2024
Revenue recognized at a point in time	$ 9,768,858	$ 9,561,349
Revenue recognized over time	578,790	960,944
	$ 10,347,648	$ 10,522,293

Revenue recognized at a point in time is comprised primarily of franchise royalty fees and administrative fees. Revenue recognized over time is comprised primarily of income from initial franchise sales.

Incremental costs to obtain a contract are classified on the balance sheet as "deferred expenses". These fees and commissions are amortized over the contractual term of the franchise agreement, generally ten years.

Contract liabilities are classified on the balance sheet as "deferred revenue". Deferred revenue represents initial franchisee fees in excess of the stand-alone value of services provided for pre-opening activities that are amortized over the contractual term of the franchise agreement, generally ten years. The balance of deferred revenue as of January 1, 2024 was $371,037.

Receivables - The Company records accounts receivable when it has the unconditional right to issue an invoice and receive payment, regardless of whether revenue has been recognized. Trade receivables are uncollateralized customer obligations due under normal trade terms stated at the amount billed. Receivable advances without recourse that have been transferred to the Company from franchisees meet the criteria for purchase treatment, and accordingly, the accounts receivable and proceeds thereof are owned exclusively by the Company. In accordance with the franchise agreement franchise fees are due at the time services are rendered.

The Company recognizes an allowance for expected credit losses on uncollectible receivables. The allowance is determined using historical loss rates adjusted for management's assessment of current market conditions and supportable forecasts about future economic events. Receivables are charged against this reserve when they are deemed uncollectible by management. The balance of receivables as of January 1, 2024 was $15,141,650.

Property and Equipment - Property and equipment including internal-use software used in the Company's operations is stated at cost. Depreciation is computed principally using the straight-line method and is based on estimated useful lives of three to thirty-nine years. Significant improvements are capitalized and depreciated over their estimated useful lives, while repair and maintenance expenditures are charged to expense.

Right-of-Use Lease Asset - Right-of-use lease assets are recognized upon lease commencement and represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term.

Lease Liabilities - Lease liabilities are recognized at commencement date and represent the Company's obligation to make lease payments arising from a lease, measured on a discounted basis.

Intangible Assets - Intangible assets consists primarily of software developed for use by franchisees. Capitalized software costs are amortized over their estimated life once development is complete and the assets are placed in service. These assets are tested annually by management for impairment. There was no amortization expense recorded in 2025 or 2024 on intangible assets.

Franchisee Obligations and Reserves - In accordance with the franchise agreements, the Company reserves funds for the franchisees and records these on the balance sheet as franchisee obligations and reserves. These balances are maintained by the Company to cover future obligations and expenses of the franchisees.

Advertising - Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expense was approximately $316,000 and $423,000 for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Income Taxes - Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes related primarily to differences between the basis of certain assets and liabilities including intangible assets, the allowance for credit losses, tax credits, and the calculation of depreciation expense for financial and income tax reporting purposes. The deferred tax assets and liabilities represent the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when the assets and liabilities are recovered or settled.

Reclassifications - Certain reclassifications of amounts previously reported have been made to the accompanying financial statements to maintain consistency between periods presented.

Subsequent Events - Management has evaluated subsequent events through March 25, 2026 which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued and determined that there are no subsequent events that require disclosure.

NOTE 2 - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

The Company maintains its cash accounts with certain U.S. financial institutions. The Company may periodically have cash deposited in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insurance limits. The cash accounts are insured by FDIC up to $250,000 per legal ownership. There were no uninsured cash balances as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

The Company also has credit risk associated with its continuing franchise fees and royalties. The Company's continuing franchise fees and royalties are dependent upon the activities, primarily sales, of the franchises that it services. The variability of these activities can be significant and are dependent upon but not limited to the following: operational changes in the temporary employment industry; changes in state and federal labor practices and regulations; changes in levels of localized and national employment; and changes in the economy in general.

NOTE 3 - RECEIVABLES

Accounts receivable consist of the following as of December 31:

	2025	2024
Franchisee Sales Receivables	$ 14,287,195	$ 13,190,464
Franchise Fees Receivable	0	38,985
Advances to Franchisees	522,140	722,332
Other Receivables	36,770	114,563
Allowance for Credit Losses	(98,254)	(69,829)
	$ 14,747,851	$ 13,996,515

NOTE 4 - PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment consist of the following as of December 31:

	2025	2024
Buildings and Improvements	$ 280,768	$ 280,768
Equipment	295,246	272,035
Software	456,123	433,471
Accumulated Depreciation	(464,530)	(353,980)
	$ 567,607	$ 632,294

Depreciation expense totaled $104,258 and $76,144 for 2025 and 2024, respectively.

NOTE 5 - REVOLVING CREDIT AGREEMENT

The Company has a revolving credit agreement which allows maximum borrowings of $16,000,000 based on borrowing availability. The revolving credit agreement expires on September 27, 2026 and bears interest payable monthly at the Daily Simple Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("Daily Simple SOFR") plus 2.85%. The revolving credit agreement is collateralized by all assets of the Company and is guaranteed by W.G. Hall, LLC; G.C. Hall, LLC; and Pipeline Talent Solutions, LLC (see Note 7). In addition, the revolving credit agreement contains certain restrictive covenants with which the Company was in compliance or has obtained an appropriate waiver. At December 31, 2025, the outstanding balance on the revolving credit agreement was $9,175,522 ($9,653,317 in 2024).

The Company has also entered into a $300,000 standby letter of credit with Sunz Insurance Company as the beneficiary. The standby letter of credit reduces the Company's available balance on the revolving credit agreement.

NOTE 6 - LEASE COMMITMENTS / RELATED PARTY

The Company leases office space for its Knoxville, Tennessee corporate headquarters from its shareholders. This lease agreement includes a 10 year initial term beginning January 2019 with one optional renewal period of 5 years. Monthly lease payments for the initial term are $21,028. Operating expense under all leases, including short term leases, totaled approximately $279,000 for each of the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

The Company assesses contracts at inception to determine whether an arrangement is or includes a lease, which conveys the Company's right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Operating lease right of use assets and associated liabilities are recognized at the commencement date and initially measured based on the present value of lease payments over the defined lease term. The Company assesses lease option renewals using a threshold of reasonably certain, which is a high threshold and, therefore, the Company's leases do not include renewal periods for the measurement of the right of use asset and the associated lease liability.

The Company has elected the practical expedient to not separate lease and non-lease components. The Company's real estate lease agreement has lease and non-lease components, which are generally accounted for separately where applicable. The Company assesses each contract individually and applies the appropriate variable payments based on the terms of the agreement. The Company's lease agreement does not contain residual value guarantees, restrictions or covenants.

Future minimum lease payments under noncancelable operating leases as of December 31, 2025 are as follows. The weighted average remaining term as of December 31, 2025 is approximately 3 years and the weighted average discount rate is approximately 2%.

2027		252,336
2028		252,336
Total Minimum Lease Payments		757,008
Less: Amounts Representing Interest		16,844
Present Value of Lease Liabilities	$	740,164

NOTE 7 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

From time to time, the Company may borrow or advance funds from its shareholders or related entities which are controlled by the Company's shareholders. At December 31, 2025, the Company had net receivables of approximately $67,000 from the shareholders and these related parties (net payables of $777,000 in 2024).

At December 31, 2025, the Company had advances receivable of approximately $317,000 ($229,000 in 2024) from W.G. Hall, LLC; borrowings of approximately $1,656,000 ($1,593,000 in 2024) from G.C. Hall, LLC; advances receivable of approximately $153,000 ($93,000 in 2024) from Pipeline Talent Solutions; and advances receivable of approximately $427,000 from Atwork Group. The Company has determined that all these entities, which are owned 100% by Atwork's shareholders, are variable interest entities (VIE) and that Atwork is their primary beneficiary but has elected the private company accounting alternative and has not consolidated these entities.

The Company converted approximately $2,100,000 of the advance receivable to W.G. Hall, LLC to a note receivable as of January 1, 2021. The note requires monthly payments of $19,548 plus interest at 2.25% (plus the greater of 0.25% or Daily 1 Month SOFR) until December 2030. The outstanding balance of the note was approximately $1,108,000 at December 31, 2025 ($1,315,000 in 2024).

In addition, in 2025 the Company recognized revenue of approximately $1,611,000 ($1,439,000 in 2024) from services provided to related parties, and has operating receivables from related parties of approximately $2,832,000 at December 31, 2025 ($2,789,000 in 2024) which are reported in accounts receivable.

The Company also obtains service and products from an entity which is owned by the Company's shareholders. The service and products include software which is used for payroll and billing processes of the franchisees. At December 31, 2025, the Company had receivables of approximately $1,871,000 ($1,504,000 in 2024).

While the Company has no contractual obligation to do so, it may voluntarily elect to provide these related entities with additional direct or indirect financial support based on its business objectives. The Company's maximum exposure to losses on these variable interest entities is limited to the total amount of any outstanding balances.

The Company also has net borrowings from Atwork's shareholders which totaled approximately $2,155,000 at December 31, 2025 ($2,232,000 in 2024). These borrowings are due on demand and accrue interest.

NOTE 8 - INCOME TAXES

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and various state jurisdictions. The Company has included in expenses insignificant amounts for interest or penalties associated with income taxes for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to examinations by tax authorities for years before 2022. The provision for income taxes differs from the expected amount computed by applying the statutory federal tax rate due principally to permanent differences in taxable income and tax credits.

Income taxes (benefit) for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 consist of:

	2025	2024
Current	$ 44,752	$ 29,501
Deferred	238,756	189,708
	$ 283,508	$ 219,209

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities in the accompanying balance sheets include the following:

	2025	2024
Deferred Tax Assets	$ 810,666	$ 580,977
Deferred Tax Liabilities	(1,438,704)	(970,259)
Net Deferred Tax Asset (Liability)	$ (628,038)	$ (389,282)

NOTE 9 - CONTINGENCIES

The nature and scope of the Company's business brings it into regular contact with the general public and a variety of businesses and governmental entities in the ordinary course of business. Such activities inherently subject the Company to the hazards of litigation. The Company is from time to time subject to pending claims and lawsuits arising in the ordinary course of business. The Company accrues for such claims when payment is probable and estimable in accordance with GAAP. At this time, in the opinion of management, the ultimate resolution of pending legal proceedings will not have a material adverse effect on operations, financial position, or cash flows.

In 2022, the Company applied for an employee retention credit as provided for under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (the "CARES Act"). This credit is a refundable tax credit against certain employment taxes for eligible employers. Management will record the tax credit once there is reasonable assurance that the assistance will be collected.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Atwork Franchise, Inc.
Knoxville, Tennessee

We have audited the financial statements of Atwork Franchise, Inc. (the "Company"), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, the related statements of income, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audits of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued (or within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued when applicable).

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audits of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audits, significant audit findings, and certain internal control–related matters that we identified during the audits.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2024 and 2023

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Atwork Franchise, Inc. (Atwork or the Company) is in the business of franchising and servicing franchisees throughout the United States. Atwork grants franchises to franchisees to operate offices which provide temporary employees and other staffing services to their customers. Conventional franchise arrangements generally include an exclusive right and license to own and operate a business at an agreed upon location within a specified territory. The arrangements provide for payment of initial fees, as well as continuing royalties and fees to Atwork based upon a percent of sales. Under these arrangements, franchisees are granted the right to operate, generally for a period of ten years.

This summary of significant accounting policies is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company's management who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements. Significant accounting policies are:

Management Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition - The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with Accounting Standards Update (ASC) Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which provides a five-step model for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers as follows: 1) Identify the contract with a customer, 2) Identify the performance obligations in the contract, 3) Determine the transaction price, 4) Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and 5) Recognize revenue when or as performance obligations are satisfied.

The Company's revenues consist almost entirely of fees and royalties collected from franchisees and initial franchise fees. The Company's products and services are marketed and sold primarily to customers in the United States. Results of operations are substantially affected by economic conditions, which can vary significantly by market.

The Company's franchise agreements include (a) the right to use the Company's symbolic intellectual property over the term of each franchise agreement, (b) pre-opening services, such as training, and (c) ongoing services, such as development of training materials and franchisee support. These promises are highly dependent upon and interrelated with the franchise right granted in the franchise agreement, so they are not considered to be individually distinct and therefore are accounted for as a single performance obligation, except for pre-opening services. The performance obligation under the franchise agreement is the promise to provide daily access to the symbolic intellectual property over the term of each franchise agreement, which is a series of distinct services that represents a single performance obligation. Although the franchisor's underlying activities associated with the symbolic intellectual property will vary both within a day and day-to-day, the symbolic intellectual property is accessed over time and the customer (the franchisee) simultaneously receives and consumes the benefit from the franchisor's performance of providing access to the symbolic intellectual property (including other related activities). The Company charges an initial franchisee fee for pre-opening services. The Company has elected the practical expedient for certain pre-opening services and recognizes revenue for the pre-opening services performance obligation over time as it performs these services, generally in less than one year. Continuing royalties are calculated as a percentage of franchisee's sales that are related entirely to our performance obligation under the franchise agreement. These royalties are considered variable consideration but because they relate to a license of intellectual property, they are not included in the transaction price. Instead, royalty revenue is recognized as franchisee sales occur.

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

The franchise agreement also includes a fee for providing administrative services to the franchisee such as processing payroll, remitting payroll taxes, and billing the end customer. As a practical expedient, the Company recognizes revenue in the amount to which it has a right to bill the franchisee for the administrative services provided.

Total revenue recognized at a point in time and over time was as follows for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023:

	2024	2023
Revenue recognized at a point in time	$ 9,561,349	$ 9,158,629
Revenue recognized over time	960,944	452,694
	$ 10,522,293	$ 9,611,323

Incremental costs to obtain a contract are classified on the balance sheet as "deferred expenses". These fees and commissions are amortized over the contractual term of the franchise agreement, generally ten years.

Contract liabilities are classified on the balance sheet as "deferred revenue". Deferred revenue represents initial franchisee fees in excess of the stand-alone value of services provided for pre-opening activities that are amortized over the contractual term of the franchise agreement, generally ten years. The balance of deferred revenue as of January 1, 2023 was $518,730.

Receivables - The Company records accounts receivable when it has the unconditional right to issue an invoice and receive payment, regardless of whether revenue has been recognized. Trade receivables are uncollateralized customer obligations due under normal trade terms stated at the amount billed. Receivable advances without recourse that have been transferred to the Company from franchisees meet the criteria for purchase treatment, and accordingly, the accounts receivable and proceeds thereof are owned exclusively by the Company. In accordance with the franchise agreement franchise fees are due at the time services are rendered.

The Company recognizes an allowance for expected credit losses on uncollectible receivables. The allowance is determined using historical loss rates adjusted for management's assessment of current market conditions and supportable forecasts about future economic events. Receivables are charged against this reserve when they are deemed uncollectible by management. The balance of receivables as of January 1, 2023 was $15,975,414.

Property and Equipment - Property and equipment including internal-use software used in the Company's operations is stated at cost. Depreciation is computed principally using the straight-line method and is based on estimated useful lives of three to thirty-nine years. Significant improvements are capitalized and depreciated over their estimated useful lives, while repair and maintenance expenditures are charged to expense.

Right-of-Use Lease Asset - Right-of-use lease assets are recognized upon lease commencement and represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term.

Lease Liabilities - Lease liabilities are recognized at commencement date and represent the Company's obligation to make lease payments arising from a lease, measured on a discounted basis.

Intangible Assets - Intangible assets consists of software developed for use by franchisees, and franchise rights and agreements with indefinite useful lives. Capitalized software costs are amortized over their estimated life. These assets are tested annually by management for impairment.

Franchisee Obligations and Reserves - In accordance with the franchise agreements, the Company reserves funds for the franchisees and records these on the balance sheet as franchisee obligations and reserves. These balances are maintained by the Company to cover future obligations and expenses of the franchisees.

Advertising - Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expense was approximately $423,000 and $401,000, respectively, for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023.

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Income Taxes - Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes related primarily to differences between the basis of certain assets and liabilities including intangible assets, the allowance for credit losses, tax credits, and the calculation of depreciation expense for financial and income tax reporting purposes. The deferred tax assets and liabilities represent the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when the assets and liabilities are recovered or settled.

Reclassifications - Certain reclassifications of amounts previously reported have been made to the accompanying financial statements to maintain consistency between periods presented.

Evaluation of Subsequent Events - Management has evaluated subsequent events through March 24, 2025 which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued and determined that there are no subsequent events that require disclosure.

NOTE 2 - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

The Company maintains its cash accounts with certain U.S. financial institutions. The Company may periodically have cash deposited in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insurance limits. The cash accounts are insured by FDIC up to $250,000 per legal ownership. There were no uninsured cash balances as of December 31, 2024 and 2023.

The Company also has credit risk associated with its continuing franchise fees and royalties. The Company's continuing franchise fees and royalties are dependent upon the activities, primarily sales, of the franchises that it services. The variability of these activities can be significant and are dependent upon but not limited to the following: operational changes in the temporary employment industry; changes in state and federal labor practices and regulations; changes in levels of localized and national employment; and changes in the economy in general.

NOTE 3 - RECEIVABLES

Accounts receivable consist of the following as of December 31:

	2024	2023
Franchisee Sales Receivables	$ 13,190,404	$ 14,511,330
Franchise Fees Receivable	38,985	151,489
Advances to Franchisees	722,332	414,652
Other Receivables	114,623	114,623
Allowance for Credit Losses	(69,829)	(50,444)
	$ 13,996,515	$ 15,141,650

NOTE 4 - REVOLVING CREDIT AGREEMENT

The Company has a revolving credit agreement which allows maximum borrowings of $16,000,000 based on borrowing availability. The revolving credit agreement expires on September 27, 2026 and bears interest payable monthly at the Daily Simple Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("Daily Simple SOFR") plus 2.85%. The revolving credit agreement is collateralized by all assets of the Company and is guaranteed by W.G. Hall, LLC; G.C. Hall, LLC; and Pipeline Talent Solutions, LLC (see Note 6). In addition, the revolving credit agreement contains certain restrictive covenants with which the Company was in compliance or has obtained an appropriate waiver. At December 31, 2024, the outstanding balance on the revolving credit agreement was $9,653,317 ($7,836,245 in 2023).

The Company has also entered into a $200,000 standby letter of credit with Sunz Insurance Company as the beneficiary. The standby letter of credit reduces the Company's available balance on the revolving credit agreement.

NOTE 5 - LEASE COMMITMENTS / RELATED PARTY

The Company leases office space for its Knoxville, Tennessee corporate headquarters from its shareholders. This lease agreement includes a 10 year initial term beginning January 2019 with one optional renewal period of 5 years. Monthly lease payments for the initial term are $21,028. Operating expense under all leases, including short term leases, totaled approximately $279,000 and $276,000 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

The Company assesses contracts at inception to determine whether an arrangement is or includes a lease, which conveys the Company's right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Operating lease right of use assets and associated liabilities are recognized at the commencement date and initially measured based on the present value of lease payments over the defined lease term. The Company assesses lease option renewals using a threshold of reasonably certain, which is a high threshold and, therefore, the Company's leases do not include renewal periods for the measurement of the right of use asset and the associated lease liability.

The Company has elected the practical expedient to not separate lease and non-lease components. The Company's real estate lease agreement has lease and non-lease components, which are generally accounted for separately where applicable. The Company assesses each contract individually and applies the appropriate variable payments based on the terms of the agreement. The Company's lease agreement does not contain residual value guarantees, restrictions or covenants.

Future minimum lease payments under noncancelable operating leases as of December 31, 2024 are as follows. The weighted average remaining term as of December 31, 2024 is approximately 4 years and the weighted average discount rate is approximately 1.55%.

2026		252,336
2027		252,336
2028		252,336
Total Minimum Lease Payments		1,009,344
Less: Amounts Representing Interest		30,004
Present Value of Lease Liabilities	$	979,340

NOTE 6 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

From time to time, the Company may borrow or advance funds from its shareholders or related entities which are controlled by the Company's shareholders. At December 31, 2024, the Company had net payables of approximately $777,000 to the shareholders and these related parties (net payables of approximately $2,922,000 in 2023).

At December 31, 2024, the Company had advances receivable of approximately $229,000 ($20,000 in 2023) from W.G. Hall, LLC and borrowings of approximately $1,593,000 ($2,152,000 in 2023) from G.C. Hall, LLC. The Company has determined that W.G. Hall, LLC and G.C. Hall, LLC, which are owned 100% by Atwork's shareholders, are variable interest entities (VIE) and that Atwork is their primary beneficiary but has elected the private company accounting alternative and has not consolidated these entities.

The Company converted approximately $2,100,000 of the advance receivable from W.G. Hall, LLC to a note receivable as of January 1, 2021. The note requires monthly payments of $19,548 plus interest at 2.25% (plus the greater of 0.25% or Daily 1 Month SOFR) until December 2030. The outstanding balance of the note was approximately $1,315,000 at December 31, 2024 ($1,518,000 in 2023).

In addition, in 2024 the Company recognized revenue of approximately $1,258,000 ($1,306,000 in 2023) from services provided to G.C. Hall, LLC and W.G. Hall, LLC, and has operating receivables of approximately $2,704,000 from G.C. Hall, LLC and W. G. Hall, LLC at December 31, 2024 ($2,849,000 in 2023) which are reported in accounts receivable.

The Company also obtains service and products from an entity which is owned by the Company's shareholders. The service and products include software which is used for payroll and billing processes of the franchisees. At December 31, 2024, the Company had receivables of approximately $1,504,000 (receivables of approximately $20,000 in 2023).

While the Company has no contractual obligation to do so, it may voluntarily elect to provide these related entities with additional direct or indirect financial support based on its business objectives. The Company's maximum exposure to losses on these variable interest entities is limited to the total amount of any outstanding balances.

The Company also has net borrowings from Atwork's shareholders which totaled approximately $2,232,000 at December 31, 2024 ($2,328,000 in 2023). These borrowings are due on demand and accrue interest.

NOTE 7 - INCOME TAXES

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and various state jurisdictions. The Company has included in expenses insignificant amounts for interest or penalties associated with income taxes for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to examinations by tax authorities for years before 2021. The provision for income taxes differs from the expected amount computed by applying the statutory federal tax rate due principally to permanent differences in taxable income and tax credits.

Income taxes (benefit) for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 consist of:

	2024	2023
Current	$ 29,501	$ 7,735
Deferred	189,708	38,964
	$ 219,209	$ 46,699

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities in the accompanying balance sheets include the following:

	2024	2023
Deferred Tax Assets	$ 580,977	$ 480,862
Deferred Tax Liabilities	(970,259)	(680,436)
Net Deferred Tax Asset (Liability)	$ (389,282)	$ (199,574)

NOTE 8 - CONTINGENCIES

The nature and scope of the Company's business brings it into regular contact with the general public and a variety of businesses and governmental entities in the ordinary course of business. Such activities inherently subject the Company to the hazards of litigation. The Company is from time to time subject to pending claims and lawsuits arising in the ordinary course of business. The Company accrues for such claims when payment is probable and estimable in accordance with GAAP. At this time, in the opinion of management, the ultimate resolution of pending legal proceedings will not have a material adverse effect on operations, financial position, or cash flows.

In 2022, the Company applied for an employee retention credit as provided for under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (the "CARES Act"). This credit is a refundable tax credit against certain employment taxes for eligible employers. Management will record the tax credit once there is reasonable assurance that the assistance will be collected.

(4) We grant franchises to persons who meet our qualifications and are willing to undertake the investment and effort to own and operate a Staffing Business, and you have applied and been approved for a franchise to own and operate a Staffing Business.

1.B. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

You acknowledge that:

(1) you have independently investigated this franchise opportunity and recognize that, like any other business, the nature of the business that a Staffing Business conducts may (and probably will) evolve and change over time;

(2) attracting customers for your Staffing Business will require you to make consistent sales and marketing efforts in your community through various methods, including cold calling, customer site visits (both scheduled and drop-in), media advertising, direct mail advertising and networking, online and social media marketing, and display and use of promotional materials. As used in this Agreement, a “customer” is any party who is or will be provided or who receives goods or services which are the subject of this Agreement including the placement of workers on temporary, contract, project based, and temp-to-hire assignments (“Assigned Temporary Workers”), as well as full-time placements (“Full-Time Placements”);

(3) our officers, directors, employees, and agents act only as representatives of us, and not as individuals, and that business dealings between you and them as a result of this Agreement are deemed to be only between you and us;

(4) to induce our entry into this Agreement, you have represented to us that all statements you have made and all materials you have given us are accurate and complete and that you have made no misrepresentations or material omissions in obtaining the franchise; and

(5) we have the right to restrict your sources of goods and services, as provided in various sections of this Agreement, including Section 7.E below.

1.C. GRANT AND TERM OF FRANCHISE.

Subject to this Agreement’s terms, we grant you a franchise to use the Franchise System and the Marks to operate a Staffing Business (“your Staffing Business”) from the address listed to be selected in accordance with Section 2.A (the “Office”). If the Staffing Business you operate under this Agreement will be a Personnel Business, you and we will enter into a Personnel Business Addendum (“Personnel Addendum”) in the form of Exhibit A-1, attached hereto. If the Staffing Business you operate under this Agreement will be a Professional Business, you and we will enter into a Professional Business Addendum (the “Professional Addendum”) in the form of Exhibit A-2, attached hereto. The Professional Addendum and the Personnel Addendum, as applicable, are referred to herein as the “Applicable Program Addendum.”

The term of this Agreement (the “Term”) begins on the Effective Date and expires ten (10) years from the Effective Date, unless sooner terminated as provided herein.

You agree at all times faithfully, honestly, and diligently to perform your obligations under this Agreement and to use your best efforts to promote your Staffing Business.

1.D. CORPORATION, LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY, OR PARTNERSHIP.

We do not permit individuals to enter into franchise agreements or operate Staffing Businesses. You must, therefore, operate your Staffing Business, and you must sign this Agreement, as a corporation, limited liability company, or general or limited partnership, and you agree and represent that:

(1) You are validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state in which you were formed, and have the authority to execute, deliver, and perform your obligations under this Agreement and all related agreements;

(2) Your organizational documents state that this Agreement restricts the issuance and transfer of any of your ownership interests, and all certificates and other documents representing your ownership interests will bear a legend referring to this Agreement’s restrictions;

(3) Exhibit C to this Agreement completely and accurately describes all of your owners and their interests in you as of the Effective Date;

(4) Any person owning an interest in you at any time during this Agreement’s term will execute a guaranty in the form we prescribe undertaking personally to be bound, jointly and severally, by all provisions of this Agreement and any ancillary agreements between you and us. Our current form of guaranty is attached hereto as Appendix 1. Subject to our rights and your obligations under Section 14, you and your owners agree to sign and deliver to us a revised Exhibit C to reflect any changes in your ownership information;

(5) You must identify one of your owners on Exhibit C who is a natural person with at least a fifty-one percent (51%) ownership interest and voting power in you, with the authority to take legally binding actions on your behalf, to act as your “Operating Partner.” We reserve the right to approve the Operating Partner. In the event that your Operating Partner ceases to own at least a fifty-one percent (51%) ownership interest and voting interest in you, your Operating Partner resigns or otherwise indicates to us or to you that he or she wishes to cease acting as Operating Partner, or we disapprove of your Operating Partner, you must recruit a new Operating Partner within thirty (30) days of the change in ownership or disapproval and deliver to us a revised Exhibit C to accurately identify the Operating Partner for our review and approval;

(6) You agree that the Operating Partner is authorized to deal with us on your behalf for all matters whatsoever that may arise with respect to this Agreement. Any decision made by the Operating Partner will be final and binding on you and we will be entitled to rely solely on the decision of the Operating Partner without discussing the matter with any other party. We will not be held liable for any actions based on any decision or actions of the Operating Partner; and

(7) Your Staffing Business will be the only business that you operate.

1.E. PROTECTED TERRITORY.

Except as provided in the Personnel Addendum, if applicable, we do not grant any, and you have no, exclusive rights or territorial protection around your Office. You acknowledge and agree that the franchise granted under this Agreement is non-exclusive. 2. DEVELOPMENT AND OPENING OF YOUR BUSINESS

2.A. OPERATING ASSETS.

Before you open your Staffing Business, you agree to obtain and install the fixtures, furniture, equipment, components of the Computer System (as defined in Section 2.B), furnishings, and signs that we approve for Staffing Businesses as meeting our specifications and standards for quality, design, appearance, function, and performance (collectively, “Operating Assets”). You agree to purchase or lease the brands, types, and models of Operating Assets that we designate or approve. You agree to purchase or lease the Operating Assets only from suppliers we designate or approve (which may include or be limited to us and/or our affiliates).

2.B. COMPUTER SYSTEM.

You agree to obtain and use the computer hardware, sales and scheduling software, antivirus and antimalware software, and/or other operating software we specify from time to time (the “Computer System”). We may modify specifications for and components of the Computer System from time to time and you agree to implement our modifications within sixty (60) days after you receive notice from us. We might periodically require you to purchase, lease, and/or license new or modified computer hardware and/or software and to obtain service and support for the Computer System. Although we cannot estimate the future costs of the Computer System or required service or support, and although these costs might not be fully amortizable over this Agreement's remaining term, you agree to incur the costs of obtaining the computer hardware and software comprising the Computer System (and any additions and modifications) and required service or support.

You must obtain and install the Computer System, and ensure that the Computer System is functioning properly, before your Staffing Business opens.

You must pay for any proprietary software or technology that we, our affiliates or third-party designees license to you and for other maintenance and support services that we, our affiliates or third-party designees provide during the Term. We or our affiliates may condition your license of any proprietary software, or your use of technology that we or our affiliates develop or maintain, on your signing a license agreement or similar document that we or our affiliates approve to regulate your use of, and our and your respective rights and responsibilities with respect to, such software or technology.

The Computer System may give us and our affiliates access to all information generated by the Computer System, including price maintenance and information relating to customers for your Staffing Business. At our request, you agree to sign a release with any vendor of your Computer System providing us with unlimited access to your data.

Despite the fact that you agree to buy, license, use, and maintain the Computer System according to our standards and specifications, you will have sole and complete responsibility for acquiring, operating, maintaining and upgrading: (1) the Computer System; (2) the connectivity of your Computer System; and (3) third-party interfaces between the Computer System and our and any third party's computer system. You will have sole and complete responsibility for any and all consequences if the Computer System is not properly operated, maintained, and upgraded.

2.C. TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

You agree that each telephone number, directory listing, and any other type of contact information used by or that identifies or is associated with your Staffing Business (any "Contact Identifiers") will be used solely to identify your Staffing Business in accordance with this Agreement. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, you agree to transfer, assign or otherwise convey to us full control of all Contact Identifiers and Online Presences (defined in Section 9.C) that you used to operate your Staffing Business or that displays any of the Marks or any reference to the Franchise System. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you agree that all liabilities and obligations arising from any such Contact Identifiers or Online Presence prior to the date of the transfer, assignment or conveyance to us will remain your sole responsibility in all respects, and any costs we incur in connection therewith will be indemnifiable under Section 10.D. You hereby appoint us your true and lawful attorney-in-fact to take such actions and execute such documents on your behalf as may be required to effect the foregoing purposes.

2.D. COMMENCEMENT OF BUSINESS.

You may not commence operating your Staffing Business until:

- (1) your Operating Partner and your Manager (defined in Section 7.H) have completed the Training Programs to our satisfaction (defined in Section 3.A);
- (2) you pay the Initial Franchise Fee and all other amounts then due to us;

- (3) you establish your Risk Management Reserve (defined in Section 3.E) with us;
- (4) you give us certificates for all required insurance policies (as described in Section 8);
- (5) you have otherwise satisfied all conditions to opening as set forth in the Applicable Program Addendum and/or the Operations Manual, including, if applicable, those with respect to minimum staffing; and
- (6) you meet all regulatory requirements, including all state and local professional regulations.

Subject to your compliance with these conditions, you agree to commence full-time operation of your Staffing Business on the first Monday following your completion to our satisfaction of all phases of the Training Programs described in Section 3.A (the “Commencement Date”), which in no event shall be later than ninety (90) days after the Effective Date (the “Commencement Date Deadline”). Once you have commenced operation of your Staffing Business, you must operate your Staffing Business continuously, on a full-time basis, for the remainder of the Term.

3. TRAINING AND ASSISTANCE.

3.A. INITIAL TRAINING PROGRAMS.

We will provide you with training programs in the operations of a Staffing Business (collectively, the “Training Programs”). Your Operating Partner, your Manager (if applicable), and your initially hired internal staff (if applicable) (the “Required Trainees”) must complete the Training Programs to our satisfaction prior to commencing operation of your Staffing Business. Scheduling, location (including virtual), content, length and format of the Training Programs is at our discretion. We may require that the Required Trainees obtain such professional certifications as we require from time to time before they may attend the Training Programs. We reserve the right to vary the Training Programs based on the experience and skill level of the Required Trainees. You may invite additional staff to attend the appropriate portions of the Training Programs if space allows, though we reserve the right to limit the number of additional attendees.

If any Required Trainee fails to complete the Training Programs to our satisfaction, we reserve the right, in our sole discretion, to require such individual to attend additional training and we may charge you our then-current training fee for such additional training. In addition, if, during the Term, we determine, in our discretion, that a Required Trainee requires refresher training, we may require such individuals to retake all or a portion of the initial Training Programs at a time and location of our choice. If a Required Trainee is unable to complete the additional required training to our satisfaction, we reserve the right, in our sole discretion, to terminate this Agreement; provided, that if we terminate this Agreement on such basis, and you and your owners agree to execute general releases in a form satisfactory to us, we will refund fifty percent (50%) of the Initial Franchise Fee, less our out-of-pocket expenses, to you.

You are responsible for providing a training program for all your internal staff other than the attendees of the Training Programs. All your internal staff must pass the program to our satisfaction prior to providing services for your Staffing Business. We reserve the right to approve the length and content of all training programs you provide to your internal staff. If we determine, in our sole discretion, that one or more of your internal staff members is not properly trained to provide the services offered by your Staffing Business, we may require such person to cease providing services for your Staffing Business and/or to be trained by us at our then-current training fee.

If you appoint a new Operating Partner or Manager, he or she must attend the then-current Training Programs within thirty (30) days of the appointment date unless we determine that you are sufficiently trained to provide a comparable substitute training program to such Manager, which determination we will make in our sole discretion. If we permit you to train any Manager yourself, you must provide such training according to our then-current standards and specifications, and we must determine that such Manager has been adequately trained prior to providing any services for your Staffing Business. If we determine that any Manager that you trained is not sufficiently trained to provide services for your Staffing Business, we may require such person attend our Training Programs. If we determine that you are sufficiently trained to provide a comparable substitute training program to any Manager, we may elect not to make the Training Programs available to such person until the next time our Training Programs would otherwise be offered.

If your attendees complete the Training Programs to our satisfaction and have not expressly informed us at the end of the program that they do not feel sufficiently trained in the operation of a Staffing Business, then you and they will be deemed to have been trained sufficiently to operate a Staffing Business.

We may require your Operating Partner, your Manager, and/or certain other internal staff members of your Staffing Business to attend various training courses, trade shows, ongoing education or certification programs, and/or webinars at the times and locations designated by us, including courses and programs provided by third parties we designate. Besides attending these training courses, programs and events, we require your Operating Partner and your Manager (if applicable) to attend an annual meeting of franchise owners and/or meetings for regional franchise owners. These meetings will be held at our discretion and may be held at locations we designate or through an online, virtual platform. However, any attendance at any additional training courses, programs or events, or any annual or regional franchise owner meetings, will not be required for more than ten (10) days during a calendar year (which days may not necessarily be consecutive). We may charge a registration fee for each individual you send to these meetings.

You agree to pay all travel and living expenses (including, wages, transportation, food, lodging, and workers' compensation insurance) that your Operating Partner or any internal staff member (including the Manager, if any) incurs during any and all meetings and/or training courses and programs. You are also responsible for the travel and living expenses and out-of-pocket costs we incur in sending our trainer(s) to your Staffing Business to conduct training, including food, lodging and transportation. You understand and agree that any specific ongoing training or advice we provide does not create an obligation (whether by course of dealing or otherwise) to continue to provide such specific training or advice, all of which we may discontinue and modify from time to time.

3.B. GENERAL GUIDANCE.

We may advise you from time to time regarding your Staffing Business's operation based on your reports or our inspections. We reserve the right to periodically visit and evaluate your Staffing Business.

3.C. OPERATIONS MANUAL.

We will make the brand manual for the operation of Staffing Businesses available to you during the Term (the "Operations Manual"), which may include one or more separate manuals, newsletters, memos, or bulletins, as well as any audio or video content, and/or other content available through or distributed by any Online Presence or other electronic or digital means. The Operations Manual contains mandatory specifications, standards, operating procedures, and rules that we periodically prescribe for Staffing Business ("System Standards"), other specifications, standards, and policies we may suggest from time to time, and information on your obligations under this Agreement. We may modify the Operations Manual periodically to reflect changes in System Standards. If we make any portion of the Operations Manual available on any Online Presence, you agree to monitor and access that Online Presence for any updates to the Operations Manual. You agree that the Operations Manual and any passwords or other access credentials necessary to access the Operations Manual on any Online Presence will be deemed to be part of Confidential Information (as defined in Section 5 below). We have no obligation to provide you a printed copy of the Operations Manual.

3.D. PAYMENT OF WAGES FOR ASSIGNED TEMPORARY WORKERS.

We will process all of the Worker Expenses of Assigned Temporary Workers on your behalf and prepare and file all necessary payroll tax reports regarding the Assigned Temporary Workers. You must promptly provide us with any information we request, in the manner and form we specify, to enable us to perform these tasks, including copies of timesheets no less frequently than every week. “Worker Expenses” means all (i) wages, (ii) employer payroll taxes, (iii) bonuses and fringe benefits paid to the Assigned Temporary Workers, including holiday pay, travel allowances, and other direct employee benefits, (iv) workers’ compensation insurance premiums and costs, (v) unemployment claims management, and (vi) other payments that an employer would have to make to federal, state and local government agencies as the employer of the Assigned Temporary Workers.

Other than (a) workers’ compensation insurance premiums and costs and (b) bonuses and fringe benefits paid to the Assigned Temporary Workers, we will pay all of the Worker Expenses on your behalf. You acknowledge that, subject to applicable state or local law, we will only pay the Worker Expenses via electronic means (such as direct deposit), and we will not issue paper checks. We will not process more than two payroll-processing runs per calendar week. We will prepare and file all necessary payroll tax reports regarding the Assigned Temporary Workers.

We will not process Worker Expenses for your internal staff. Currently, we have an approved third party that we have approved to provide internal staff benefits and payroll services, but you are not required to use such third party.

3.E. RISK MANAGEMENT RESERVE

We require you to allow us to hold and maintain a risk management reserve (the “Risk Management Reserve”) to cover disputed invoices that are charged back, improper payment of Assigned Temporary Workers, charges for misclassified workers, and other authorized deductions, and we will be allowed to draw on your Risk Management Reserve to pay for such costs and expenses. Before the Commencement Date, you must remit to us Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), which amount shall be considered the initial minimum reserve (the “Minimum Reserve”). If at any time your Risk Management Reserve balance falls below the Minimum Reserve, as initially established and as amended from time to time, then within ten (10) days following our written notice of the shortfall to you, you must submit sufficient funds to us to bring your Risk Management Reserve back to the Minimum Reserve.

After the Commencement Date, whenever your Risk Management Reserve balance falls below the maximum reserve amount set forth in the Risk Management Reserve Schedule attached hereto as Exhibit D and as amended from time to time (the “Maximum Reserve”), we shall on a monthly basis deduct from amounts otherwise payable to you an amount equal to one percent (1%) of your Gross Revenue, and we shall credit such amounts to your Risk Management Reserve.

Upon termination of this Agreement, the balance of your Risk Management Reserve will be payable to you after final settlement of all accounts receivable for Assigned Temporary Workers and the payment to us of all chargebacks and other amounts then due to us or our affiliates under this Agreement or otherwise.

The Minimum Reserve and Maximum Reserve are subject to change by us on an annual basis, with any change effective beginning on the first day of January each year for the duration of the applicable year.

4. FEES.

4.A. INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE.

You agree to pay us a nonrecurring initial franchise fee when you sign this Agreement (the “Initial Franchise Fee”) in the amount set forth in the Applicable Program Addendum. The Initial Franchise Fee is due and fully earned by us when you sign this Agreement. If your Operating Partner or your Manager (if applicable) is unable to complete the Training Programs to our satisfaction, we may terminate this Agreement and, if you and your owners agree to execute general releases in a form satisfactory to us, we will refund fifty percent (50%) of the Initial Franchise Fee to you, less our out-of-pocket expenses. Otherwise, the Initial Franchise Fee is not refundable under any circumstances. You must pay us the Initial Franchise Fee by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account we designate, or by any other method we specify.

4.B. ROYALTY FEE.

You agree to pay us a monthly royalty fee (the “Royalty”) in the amount set forth in the Applicable Program Addendum. We may adjust the Royalty by up to one-half of one percent (0.5%) every six (6) months; provided, that we may not increase the Royalty by more than one percent (1.0%) in any two-year period of the Term.

The Royalty is subject to potential discount for “Qualified Low Gross Margin Accounts,” as described in Exhibit E to this Agreement for Personnel Businesses and Professional Businesses, respectively. You must be in compliance with all of terms and conditions of this Agreement in order to qualify for the Qualified Low Gross Margin Accounts discount. We may modify or terminate this program at our sole discretion.

The term “Gross Revenue” means all revenue or consideration that you receive, directly or indirectly, from operating your Staffing Business, whether from cash, check, credit and debit card, barter exchange, trade credit, or other credit transactions. Gross Revenue includes the proceeds of any business interruption insurance or similar insurance. Gross Revenue does not include any federal, state, or municipal use or service taxes collected from customers and paid to the appropriate taxing authority.

4.C. MARKETING FUND CONTRIBUTION.

You agree to contribute to the Marketing Fund (as defined in Section 9.E) in amounts we specify from time to time, payable in the same manner as the Royalty (the “Marketing Fund Contribution”). Currently, the required Marketing Fund Contribution is one-half of one percent (0.5%) of Gross Revenue. The Marketing Fund Contribution will not exceed one percent (1.0%) of Gross Revenue. The Marketing Fund Contribution is not refundable under any circumstances.

4.D. HIGH-RISK SURCHARGE.

If a customer's invoice for an Assigned Temporary Worker is unpaid for over sixty (60) days from the invoice date, you shall pay us a "High-Risk Surcharge" equal to one and one-half percent (1.5%) of the total unpaid invoice balance. The High-Risk Surcharge shall be calculated using an accounts receivable aging report and shall be accounted for on a monthly basis on the same date as the Royalty.

4.E. INTEREST ON LATE PAYMENTS.

All amounts that you owe us for any reason will bear interest accruing as of their original due date at one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month or the highest commercial contract interest rate the law allows, whichever is less. We may debit your bank account automatically for service charges and interest. You acknowledge that this Section 4.E is not our agreement to accept any payments after they are due or our commitment to extend credit to you or finance the operation of your Staffing Business.

4.F. NON-SUFFICIENT FUNDS AND CREDIT CARD PROCESSING.

If a customer writes us a check that is returned, cancelled or dishonored, or if we debit a customer's bank account and the customer's account has insufficient funds or is inaccessible, you must pay us a nonsufficient funds fee of $50. If a customer pays an invoice by credit card or debit card or other electronic means that generates a processing fee (thereby reducing the amount that we actually receive from the amount set forth on the applicable invoice), you must reimburse us the amount of such processing fee.

4.G. APPLICATION OF PAYMENTS.

Despite any designation you make, we may apply any of your payments to us or our affiliates to any of your past due indebtedness to us or our affiliates. We may set off any amounts you or your owners owe us or our affiliates against any amounts we or our affiliates owe you or your owners, including but not limited to our reasonable attorney's fees incurred in connection with your default under this Agreement. You may not withhold payment of any amounts you owe us due to our alleged nonperformance of any of our obligations under this Agreement.

4.H. PROCESS FOR PAYMENTS TO YOU

We will transmit all invoices to customers for services performed by Assigned Temporary Workers as reported by you, and all customer payments shall be made to us or one of our affiliates. You shall not bill or invoice customers, and any payment received by you shall be deemed money received in trust for our or our affiliate's benefit and shall be immediately forwarded to us or our affiliate, properly endorsed to us or our affiliate, as necessary. You shall not deposit or convert any funds received from a customer. Your unauthorized deposit or conversion of any funds received from a customer shall be a material breach of this Agreement permitting us to terminate this Agreement along with exercising any other remedies available to us under this Agreement or applicable law.

On or before the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each calendar month, we will remit to you an amount equal to the Gross Invoice Amount during the applicable month (the "Gross Purchase Price") less all Applicable Deductions (the "Balance Payment").

On or before the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month for the previous month, we will provide you with one or more statements (the "Statements") setting forth all credits, payments, deductions and accruals during the applicable period in the format that we determine. We reserve the right at any time to modify the form or content of the Statements. We will calculate, process and include on the Statements your reported Gross Revenue, including the Gross Invoice Amount during the preceding month, as well as the Direct Payroll Costs, and the corresponding taxes, insurance, and other Applicable Deductions being deducted, withheld, accrued, or reserved.

“Gross Invoice Amount” means, for any period, the gross amount invoiced by us to customers of your Staffing Business during such period for services performed by Assigned Temporary Workers as reported by you.

“Direct Payroll Costs” means the aggregate of Worker Expenses and disability insurance where required by law. “Direct Payroll Costs” do not include the employer contribution costs of employee elected benefits (including but not limited to health insurance plan contributions, supplemental insurance, and matching 401(k) retirement plans), or your overhead or fees payable to us.

“Applicable Deductions” means the aggregate of: Direct Payroll Costs; other fees, deductions, accruals, contributions to your Risk Management Reserve, and chargebacks; any current or past due fees or indebtedness you owe us or our affiliates under this Agreement or otherwise, including but not limited to the Royalty; as well as mutually agreed upon customer discounts, pass-throughs, and other offsets, if any. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, in no event shall Applicable Deductions include non-payment of Gross Invoice Amounts for Credit Risk (defined below).

4.I. OWNERSHIP OF GROSS INVOICE AMOUNTS

You agree to sell to us, and we agree to purchase from you, without further action, all accounts (as defined in Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in the State of Tennessee) arising from services rendered by Assigned Temporary Workers pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement (the “Accounts”). Our purchase of an Account is effective as of the date such Account is created without further action by either of us. You acknowledge and agree that our application of the Gross Purchase Price for an Account to Applicable Deductions, and our payment to you in accordance with Section 4.H of this Agreement of any Balance Payment remaining after such application, constitutes payment by us of the purchase price for such Account.

We shall assume the Credit Risk of Accounts but not the risk of non-payment of Accounts for any other reason, including by reason of Dispute. Except in the event of a Dispute, all purchases by us of Accounts shall be without recourse to you for non-payment thereof. “Credit Risk” means, with respect to any Account, the risk of non-payment of such Account due solely to the financial inability of the customer to pay such Account or the insolvency of such customer. In no event shall Credit Risk include the risk of non-payment on an Account that are subject to a Dispute. “Dispute” means any dispute or claim in any respect, regardless of merit, arising out of or in connection with an Account, the Gross Invoice Amount thereof or any other transaction related thereto, and include any alleged dispute as to price, invoice terms, quantity, quality, late delivery or non-performance of services, and claims of release from liability, counterclaim or any alleged claim of deduction, offset, or counterclaim or otherwise.

We may deduct and pay from the Gross Purchase Price and/or any Balance Payment all Applicable Deductions, including chargebacks for Gross Invoice Amounts subject to Dispute or with respect to which any of the representations or warranties in this Agreement relating to such Gross Invoice Amounts or Accounts are or at any time become untrue or inaccurate.

We and you intend that the conveyances and transfers of Accounts be true sales by you to us that provide us with the full benefits of ownership of the Accounts and Related Assets. Neither we nor you intend for the transactions contemplated under or in connection with this Section 4.I be, or for any purpose to be characterized as, loans from us to you or an assignment by way of security by you to us. “Related Assets” mean, with respect to any Accounts, (i) all contract rights relating to such Accounts and all other obligations for the payment of money arising therefrom, (ii) all collateral, insurance, supporting obligations (as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in the State of Tennessee (the “UCC”)) and guaranties with respect to such Accounts, (iii) all rights and remedies against the customer and/or third parties obligated on such Accounts, (iv) all books and records (as defined in the UCC) relating to such Accounts or Related Assets, (v) all chattel paper, documents, general intangibles, commercial tort claims and instruments (as each such term is defined in the UCC) that evidence, govern, secure or relate to such Accounts or Related Assets, (vi) all insurance policies concerning any of the foregoing and (vii) all proceeds (as defined in the UCC) of such Accounts and Related Assets.

4.J. TECHNOLOGY BUNDLE FEE.

You agree to pay us (or our affiliates) a fee (the “Technology Bundle Fee”) for ongoing subscription, maintenance and support of various technology systems, platforms and resources, plus our costs and expenses. We may in our discretion periodically modify the amount of the Technology Bundle Fee based on costs imposed by third-party providers. You must pay the Technology Bundle Fee at the times, and in the manner, designated by us. We may require you to enter into written agreements with us or our affiliates to receive such services, with terms and conditions we approve. In addition to any services and subscriptions provided by us through the Technology Bundle Fee, you must obtain any component of the Computer System we require.

4.K. METHOD OF PAYMENT.

Other than costs and fees that we collect pursuant to Section 4.H, you must make all payments due under this Agreement in the manner we designate from time to time and you agree to comply with all of our payment instructions. You hereby authorize us and/or any third party we designate to debit your business checking account automatically for any or all amounts due under this Agreement (the “EFT Authorization”). You agree to execute and deliver to us any document(s) we require to evidence the EFT Authorization. The EFT Authorization will remain in full force and effect during the Term. We or our designee will debit the business account you designate in the EFT Authorization for amounts you owe us on their due dates (or the subsequent business day if the due date is a national holiday or a weekend day). You agree to ensure that funds are available in your designated account to cover our withdrawals. You shall pay us a fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100) each time we attempt to debit your business account and we receive a notice of insufficient funds.

We may receive information regarding your Gross Revenue through our access to the Computer System or we may require you to submit weekly and/or monthly Gross Revenue reports in the format we require. If we ever stop having access to information from your Computer Systems, and you fail to report your Staffing Business’s Gross Revenue when due, then for each payment due under this Agreement that is calculated based on Gross Revenue, we may debit your business account one hundred ten percent (110%) of the average of the last three (3) applicable payments that we debited. If the amounts that we debit from your business account are less than the amounts you actually owe us (once we have determined your Staffing Business’s true and correct Gross Revenue), we will debit your business account for the balance on any day we specify. If the amounts that we debit from your business account are greater than the amounts you actually owe us, we will credit the excess against the amounts we otherwise would debit from your business account on the next payment due date.

5. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

In connection with your development and operation of your Staffing Business, you and your owners and personnel may from time to time be provided and/or have access to non-public information about the Franchise System and the operation of Staffing Business (including your Staffing Business), some of which constitutes trade secrets under applicable law, regardless of whether it is marked confidential (the “Confidential Information”), including:

- (1) training and operations materials, including the Operations Manual;
- (2) the System Standards and other methods, formats, specifications, standards, systems, procedures, sales and marketing techniques, knowledge, and experience used in developing and operating Businesses;
- (3) market research, promotional, marketing and advertising strategies and programs for Staffing Business;
- (4) strategic plans, including expansion strategies and targeted demographics;
- (5) knowledge of, specifications for and suppliers of, and methods of ordering, Operating Assets and other products and supplies;
- (6) any computer software or similar technology which is proprietary to us or the Franchise System, including digital passwords and identifications and any source code of, and data, reports, and other printed materials generated by, the software or similar technology;
- (7) knowledge of the operating results and financial performance of Staffing Business other than your Staffing Business;
- (8) information generated by, or used or developed in, your Staffing Business’s operation, including information contained from time to time in the Computer System;
- (9) lists of current, former, and prospective customers, including information such as customer names, contact persons, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses, buying habits, preferences, demographic information, and related information (collectively, “Customer Information”); and
- (10) any other information designated as confidential or proprietary by us.

All Confidential Information (excluding Restricted Data, as hereinafter defined) will be owned by us. You acknowledge and agree that you will not acquire any interest in Confidential Information, other than the right to use it as we specify in operating your Staffing Business during the Term, and that Confidential Information is proprietary, includes our trade secrets, and is disclosed to you only on the condition that you agree, and you in fact do agree, that you, your owners, and your Manager (if any):

- (a) will not use Confidential Information in any other business or capacity;
- (b) will keep each item deemed to be part of Confidential Information absolutely confidential, both during the Term and then thereafter;

(c) will not make unauthorized copies of any Confidential Information disclosed via electronic medium or in written or other tangible form;

(d) will adopt and implement reasonable procedures to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information, including by restricting its disclosure and/or by requiring persons who have access to the Confidential Information to execute a Confidentiality Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit B; and

(e) will not sell, trade or otherwise profit in any way from the Confidential Information, except using methods approved by us.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing obligations, we reserve the right to require that any employee, agent or independent contractor that you hire execute a non-disclosure agreement to protect the Confidential Information. We reserve the right to regulate the form of non-disclosure agreement that you use and to be a third-party beneficiary of those agreements with independent enforcement rights. You acknowledge that any form of non-disclosure agreement that we require you to use, provide to you, or regulate the terms of (including the Confidentiality Agreement attached as Exhibit B) may or may not be enforceable in a particular jurisdiction. You agree that you are solely responsible for obtaining your own professional advice with respect to the adequacy of the terms and provisions of any confidentiality agreement that your employees, agents and independent contractors sign.

Confidential Information does not include information, knowledge, or know-how, which (i) before we provided it to you, lawfully came to your attention, (ii) before we disclosed it to you, had already lawfully become known to you through publication or communication by others (without violating an obligation to us or our affiliates), or (iii) after we disclosed it to you, lawfully becomes known through publication or communication by others (without violating an obligation to us or our affiliates). However, if we include any matter in Confidential Information, anyone who claims that it is not Confidential Information must prove that one of the exclusions provided in this paragraph is fulfilled.

All ideas, concepts, techniques, or materials relating to a Staffing Business, whether or not protectable intellectual property and whether created by or for you or your owners or employees, must be promptly disclosed to us and will be our sole and exclusive property, part of the Franchise System, and works made-for-hire for us. To the extent that any item does not qualify as a “work made-for-hire” for us, you hereby assign ownership of that item, and all related rights to that item, to us and agree to take whatever action (including signing assignment or other documents) we request to evidence our ownership or to help us obtain intellectual property rights in the item.

6. EXCLUSIVE RELATIONSHIP DURING TERM.

6.A. COVENANTS AGAINST COMPETITION.

You acknowledge that we have granted you a franchise in consideration of and reliance on your agreement to deal exclusively with us. You therefore agree that, during the Term, neither you, any of your owners, nor any of your or your owners’ immediate family members will:

(1) have any direct or indirect controlling or non-Controlling Interest (defined in Section 14.C) as an owner (whether of record, beneficially, or otherwise) in a Competitive Business (defined below), wherever located or operating (except that equity ownership of less than three percent (3%) of a Competitive Business whose stock or other forms of ownership interest are publicly traded on a recognized United States stock exchange will not be deemed to violate this subparagraph);

(2) perform services as a director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, lessor, representative, or agent for a Competitive Business, wherever located or operating;

(3) divert or attempt to divert any actual or potential business or customer of your Staffing Business to a Competitive Business;

(4) engage in any other activity which might injure the goodwill of the Marks and Franchise System or would constitute an act of moral turpitude; or

(5) solicit, interfere, or attempt to interfere with our, our affiliates', or our franchisee's relationships with any customers, vendors, or consultants.

A “Competitive Business” means (1) any temporary or full-time staffing business or any business performing any temporary or full-time staffing, employment, contingent-workforce, contract, statement of work, or managed service provider project-based assignments, or recruiting services of any kind; or (2) any businesses granting franchises or licenses to others to operate the type of staffing business specified in subparagraph (1).

You agree to obtain similar covenants from the personnel we specify, including officers, directors, your Manager, and other employees having access to Confidential Information. We have the right to regulate the form of agreement that you use and to be a third-party beneficiary of such agreements with independent enforcement rights, provided that it is your responsibility to ensure that such forms comply with and are enforceable under applicable laws in your jurisdiction.

6.B. NON-DISPARAGEMENT.

You agree not to (and to use your best efforts to cause your current and former owners, officers, directors, agents, partners, employees, representatives, attorneys, spouses, affiliates, successors and assigns not to) (i) disparage or otherwise speak or write negatively, directly or indirectly, of us, our affiliates, any of our or our affiliates' directors, officers, employees, representatives or affiliates, the “AtWork” brand, the Franchise System, any Staffing Business, any business using the Marks, or (ii) take any other action which would, directly or indirectly, subject the “AtWork” brand to ridicule, scandal, reproach, scorn, or indignity, or which would negatively impact the goodwill of us or the “AtWork” brand.

7. SYSTEM STANDARDS.

7.A. COMPLIANCE WITH SYSTEM STANDARDS.

You acknowledge and agree that operating and maintaining your Staffing Business according to System Standards is essential to preserve the goodwill of the Marks and all Staffing Businesses. Therefore, you agree at all times to operate and maintain your Staffing Business according to all of our System Standards, as we periodically modify and supplement them, even if you believe that a System Standard is not in the Franchise System's or your best interests. Although we retain the right to establish and periodically modify System Standards, your Operating Partner is solely responsible for the management and operation of your Staffing Business and for implementing and maintaining System Standards at your Staffing Business.

As examples, and without limitation, System Standards may regulate any one or more of the following, in addition to the items described in Sections 7.B through 7.L below:

- (1) the minimum number of sales calls and visits to potential customers that you must make;
- (2) recruitment activities and campaigns for potential Assigned Temporary Workers and the media used in these activities and campaigns;
- (3) amounts and types of equipment and inventory you must purchase and/or maintain;

- (5) use and display of the Marks at your Staffing Business and on uniforms, labels, forms, paper, products, and other supplies;
- (6) staffing levels for your Staffing Business, employee credentials and qualifications, and training (although you have sole responsibility and authority concerning employee selection, promotion, and termination, hours worked, rates of pay and other benefits, work assigned, and working conditions);
- (7) customer service standards and policies;
- (8) policies for the registration, use, content, or management of Online Presences, or other technology systems, solutions, or products;

You agree that the System Standards we prescribe in the Operations Manual, or otherwise communicate to you in writing or another tangible form (for example, via a Franchise System extranet or website), are part of this Agreement as if fully set forth within its text. All references to this Agreement include all System Standards as periodically modified.

7.B. VARIATION AND MODIFICATION OF SYSTEM STANDARDS.

You acknowledge that complete and detailed uniformity might not be possible or practical under varying conditions, and that we specifically reserve the right (as we consider best, in our sole discretion) to vary System Standards for any franchise owner based on the peculiarities of any condition that we consider important to that franchise owner's successful operation. We may choose not to authorize similar variations or accommodations to you or other franchise owners. We may also permit variations in the System Standards (as we consider best, in our sole discretion) between Staffing Businesses owned by us or our affiliates and Staffing Businesses owned by franchisees.

We may periodically modify System Standards. These modifications may obligate you to invest additional capital in your Staffing Business and/or incur higher operating costs. You agree to implement any changes in System Standards within the time period we request, whether they involve refurbishing or remodeling the Office, buying new Operating Assets, adding new products and services, adding personnel or otherwise modifying the nature of your operations, as if they were part of this Agreement as of the Effective Date.

7.C. CONDITION AND APPEARANCE OF YOUR BUSINESS.

During the Term, you must regularly maintain and repair the interior and exterior of the Office, repair or replace damaged, worn out or obsolete Operating Assets and otherwise maintain the condition of the Office and the Operating Assets to meet the highest standards of professionalism, cleanliness, sanitation, efficient, courteous service and pleasant ambiance.

Unless you operate your Staffing Business from your residence as a Professional Business, beginning five years after the Effective Date, and not more than once during any five year period thereafter, we periodically may issue a notice to you (each, a "Refurbishment Notice") requiring you to renovate the Office and replace Operating Assets, including, but not limited to, signage ("Renovations"), to conform to our then-current System Standards. You will commence the Renovations within 30 days of receipt of any Refurbishment Notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall limit or otherwise excuse your obligation to ensure the Office, including the Operating Assets therein, is in good repair and conform to then-current System Standards. If the general state of repair, appearance or cleanliness of the Office or the Operating Assets does not meet our standards at any time in our reasonable judgment, we may notify you, specifying the action you must take to correct the deficiency. If you do not initiate action to correct such deficiencies within ten (10) days after you receive our notice, and/or do not complete any required maintenance or refurbishing in good faith and with due diligence, we have the right, in addition to all other remedies, to enter the Office and do any required maintenance or refurbishing on your behalf. You agree to reimburse us on demand for any expenses we incur in maintaining or refurbishing the Office on your behalf.

You will place or display at the Office (interior and exterior) only those signs, emblems, designs, artwork, lettering, logos, and display and advertising materials that we approve from time to time.

7.D. APPROVED PRODUCTS AND SERVICES.

You agree that: (1) you will offer for sale or sell in connection with your Staffing Business the products and services that we specify from time to time; (2) you will offer for sale or sell in connection with your Staffing Business approved products and services only in the manner we have prescribed; (3) you will not offer for sale or sell in connection with your Staffing Business any products or services we have not approved; (4) you will discontinue selling and offering for sale any products or services that we at any time decide (in our sole discretion) to disapprove; and (5) you will purchase and use only the brands, types, or models of products, materials, packaging, supplies and services (including the Operating Assets and the Computer System) that we designate for operating your Staffing Business.

7.E. APPROVED DISTRIBUTORS AND SUPPLIERS.

We may designate, approve or develop standards and specifications for manufacturers, distributors and suppliers of products and services to your Staffing Business, which may be us or our affiliates (collectively, “suppliers”). You must purchase the products and services we periodically designate only from the suppliers we prescribe and only on the terms and according to the specifications we approve.

We may concentrate purchases with one or more suppliers to obtain lower prices, advertising support and/or services for any group of Staffing Business franchised or operated by us or our affiliates. We may also designate a single supplier for any product, service, Operating Asset, or other material, or approve a supplier only for certain products or services. You acknowledge and agree that we and/or our affiliates may derive revenue based on your purchases (including from charging you for products and services we or our affiliates provide to you and from promotional allowances, rebates, volume discounts and other payments, services or consideration we receive from suppliers that we designate or approve for some or all of our franchise owners). We and/or any of our affiliates may use such revenue or profit without restriction.

Approval of a supplier may be conditioned on requirements relating to product quality, prices, consistency, reliability, financial capability, labor relations, customer relations, frequency of delivery, concentration of purchases, standards of service, including prompt attention to complaints, or other criteria and may be temporary, pending our continued evaluation of the supplier from time to time.

If you would like us to consider approving a supplier that is not then approved, you must submit your request in writing before purchasing any items or services from that supplier. We will not be obligated to respond to your request, and any actions we take in response to your request will be at our discretion. We may, with or without cause, revoke our approval of any supplier at any time.

7.F. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND GOOD BUSINESS PRACTICES.

You must secure and maintain all required licenses, permits and certificates relating to your Staffing Business and must at all times operate your Staffing Business in full compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations. You agree to comply and assist us in our compliance efforts with any and all laws and regulations, including those relating to truth in lending, safety and sanitation, truth in advertising, occupational hazards, health and anti-discrimination laws, and anti-terrorist activities or the conduct of transactions involving certain foreign parties (including the U.S. Patriot Act, Executive Order 13224, and related U.S. Treasury and/or other regulations). In connection with such compliance efforts, you agree not to enter into any prohibited transactions and to properly perform any currency reporting and other activities relating to your Staffing Business as may be required by us or by law. You confirm that you, your owners, employees, agents, and representatives are not presently listed (nor has any such individual previously been listed) on the U.S. Treasury Department’s List of Specially Designated Nationals, the Annex to Executive Order 13224, or in any other governmental list which prohibits us or you from dealing with such individuals, and agree not to hire any person so listed or have any dealing with a person so listed. You are solely responsible for ascertaining what actions must be taken by you to comply with all such laws, orders and/or regulations, and specifically acknowledge and agree that your indemnification responsibilities (as provided in Section 10.D) apply to your obligations under this Section.

Your Staffing Business must adhere to the highest standards of honesty, integrity, fair dealing and ethical conduct in all dealings with customers, suppliers, us and the public. You agree to refrain from any business or advertising practice which may injure our business and the goodwill associated with the Marks and other Staffing Businesses. You must notify us in writing within five (5) days of the threat of or commencement of any action, suit or proceeding, and of the issuance of any order, writ, injunction, award or decree of any court, agency or other governmental instrumentality, which may adversely affect your operation or financial condition or that of your Staffing Business and of any notice of violation of any law, ordinance, or regulation relating to your Staffing Business.

You agree to apply for and diligently pursue any government-issued, government-sponsored, or governmental-guaranteed grants, non-recourse loans, and/or bailouts for which you qualify and that are made available to small businesses as an economic stimulus.

7.G. INFORMATION SECURITY

You may from time to time have access to information that can be used to identify an individual, including names, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses, employee identification numbers, signatures, passwords, financial information, credit card information, biometric or health data, government-issued identification numbers and credit report information (“Personal Information”). You may gain access to such Personal Information from us, our affiliates, our vendors, or your own operations. You acknowledge and agree that all Personal Information (other than Restricted Data) is our Confidential Information and is subject to the protections of Section 5 herein.

During and after the Term, you (and if you are conducting business as an Entity, each of your owners) agree to, and to cause your current and former employees, representatives, affiliates, successors and assigns to: (a) process, retain, use, collect, and disclose all Personal Information only in strict accordance with all applicable laws, regulations, orders, the guidance and codes issued by industry or regulatory agencies, and the privacy policies and terms and conditions of any applicable Online Presence; (b) assist us with meeting our compliance obligations under all applicable laws and regulations relating to Personal Information, including the guidance and codes of practice issued by industry or regulatory agencies; and (c) promptly notify us of any communication or request from any customer or other data subject to access, correct, delete, opt-out of, or limit activities relating to any Personal Information.

If you become aware of a suspected or actual breach of security or unauthorized access involving Personal Information, you will notify us immediately and specify the extent to which Personal Information was compromised or disclosed. You also agree to follow our instructions regarding curative actions and public statements relating to the breach. We reserve the right to conduct a data security and privacy audit of any of the Staffing Business’s and your computer systems at any time, from time to time, to ensure that you are complying with our requirements. You must promptly notify us if you receive any complaint, notice, or communication, whether from a governmental agency, customer or other person, relating to any Personal Information, your compliance with its obligations relating to Personal Information under this Agreement, and/or if you have any reason to believe you will not be able to satisfy any of your obligations relating to Personal Information under this Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or otherwise, you agree that we do not control or own any of the following Personal Information (collectively, the “Restricted Data”): (a) any Personal Information of the employees, officers, contractors, owners or other personnel of you, your affiliates, or the Staffing Business; (b) such other Personal Information as we may from time to time expressly designate as Restricted Data; and/or (c) any other Personal Information to which we do not have access. Regardless of any guidance we may provide generally and/or any specifications that we may establish for other Personal Information, you have sole and exclusive responsibility for all Restricted Data, including establishing protections and safeguards for such Restricted Data; provided, that in each case you agree to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, orders, and the guidance and codes issued by industry or regulatory agencies applicable to such Restricted Data.

7.H. MANAGEMENT OF YOUR BUSINESS.

Your Staffing Business must at all times be under the direct, day-to-day, full-time supervision of your Operating Partner. The Operating Partner must attend all meetings scheduled and conducted by us for the purpose of further training, educating or informing the individual supervising Businesses.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if you do not wish to have your Operating Partner supervise the Staffing Business on a full-time basis, you may appoint an individual who meets the minimum qualifications we specify periodically, including completing the Training Programs, to supervise the operation of your Staffing Business on a day-to-day, full-time basis (the “Manager”). We may establish minimum qualifications for any such Manager, which may include completion of training, confirmation that they will have no competitive business activities, and/or execution of a non-disclosure agreement or other covenants we require. If any Manager ceases to act as the Staffing Business’s Manager, your Operating Partner must manage the Staffing Business until such time as a replacement Manager has satisfactorily completed the Training Programs and meets our then-current minimum qualifications.

7.I. PRICING.

We may periodically set a minimum price that you may charge for products and services offered by your Staffing Business. If we impose a minimum price for any product or service, you may not charge less for such product or service than the minimum price we impose. For any product or service for which we do not impose a minimum price, we may require you to comply with an advertising policy adopted by us which will prohibit you from advertising any price for a product or service that is different than our suggested price. Although you must comply with any advertising policy we adopt, you will not be prohibited from selling any product or service at a price below the suggested price unless we impose a minimum price for such product or service.

7.J. RECRUITMENT OF ASSIGNED TEMPORARY WORKERS

You must recruit, screen, test, interview, hire and assign Assigned Temporary Workers according to our standards and procedures and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Except as expressly set forth in the Professional Addendum, you acknowledge and agree that you will be employer of record for all Assigned Temporary Workers, provided, however, by written notice to you, we reserve the right to be (or to designate a third party to be) the employer of record for all Assigned Temporary Workers. You must maintain a system for time and record keeping in conformity with our specifications set forth in the Operations Manual and you must submit to us, using the forms and software that we designate from time to time, and at the intervals that we designate (typically weekly) the Payroll Data for each Assigned Temporary Worker placed by you. You are solely responsible for the accuracy of the Payroll Data you submit to us. “Payroll Data” includes but is not limited to the identity of each Assigned Temporary Worker, the amount of time worked, the pay rate, the workers’ compensation code, and any payroll deductions for the Assigned Worker.

7.K. CUSTOMER SOLICITATION

You must solicit and negotiate with customers to furnish Assigned Temporary Workers according to our standards and procedures and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. We may require you to submit proposed contracts to us for review before executing or accepting such contracts, and we may reject such contracts or require revisions to such contracts, in our discretion. We reserve the right to reject any contract and/or customer in our discretion.

All Customer Information will be owned by us. You will use Customer Information only for the promotion of your Staffing Business during the Term. You will refrain from selling Customer Information to third parties. You will institute a data privacy and security policy for Customer Information in conformity with the requirements of Section 7.G.

7.L. MINIMUM PERFORMANCE STANDARD

You agree to use your best effort to operate your Staffing Business in a manner that generates maximum exposure for the AtWork brand and maximum revenue for your Staffing Business. Toward that end, you agree that the amount of Royalties generated from the operation of your Staffing Business during any Agreement Year (defined below) will be no less than the following minimum Royalty (the “Minimum Performance Standard”):

- During your first Agreement Year, there is no minimum.
- During your second Agreement Year, your Staffing Business must generate a Royalty of at least $50,000.
- During your third Agreement Year, your Staffing Business must generate a Royalty of at least $75,000.
- During your fourth Agreement Year and each subsequent Agreement Year through the end of the Term, your Staffing Business must generate a Royalty of at least $100,000.

An “Agreement Year” will be each 12-month period starting on the Commencement Date and each anniversary thereof. Any failure to satisfy the required Minimum Performance Standard in any Agreement Year will be a material default of this Agreement, and we may terminate this Agreement upon the occurrence of such default. Our establishment of the Minimum Performance Standard is not our representation that your Staffing Business will achieve any minimum level of sales.

8. INSURANCE.

During the Term, you must maintain in force at your sole expense comprehensive general liability, personal injury liability, property liability, hired/non-owned automobile, commercial liability umbrella, and other types of insurance we require. Currently, we require you to obtain such insurance from designated vendors according to the specifications we approve. All of these policies must contain the minimum coverage we prescribe from time to time and must have deductibles not to exceed the amounts we specify. We may periodically increase the amounts of coverage required under these insurance policies and/or require different or additional insurance coverages (including reasonable excess liability insurance) at any time. These insurance policies must be purchased from licensed insurers having a rating of “A/VIII” or higher by the then-current edition of Best Insurance Reports published by A.M. Best Company (or other similar publication or criteria we designate).

Each insurance policy for liability coverage must name us and any affiliates or lenders we designate as additional named insureds, using a form of endorsement that we have approved, and provide for thirty (30) days’ prior written notice to us of a policy’s material modification, cancellation or expiration. Each insurance policy must contain a waiver of all subrogation rights against us, our affiliates and their successors and assigns. You must routinely furnish us copies of your certificates of insurance or other evidence of your maintaining this insurance coverage and paying premiums.

Our requirements for minimum insurance coverage are not representations or warranties of any kind that such coverage is sufficient for the operation of your Staffing Business. Such requirements represent only the minimum coverage that we deem acceptable to protect our interests. It is your sole responsibility to obtain insurance coverage for your Staffing Businesses that you deem appropriate, based on your own independent investigation. We are not responsible if you sustain losses that exceed your insurance coverage under any circumstances.

Your obligation to maintain insurance coverage as herein described shall not be affected in any manner by reason of any separate insurance maintained by us, nor shall the maintenance of such insurance relieve you of any indemnification obligations under this Agreement.

You must maintain in force at your sole expense workers' compensation containing the minimum coverage we prescribe from time to time and must have deductibles not to exceed the amounts we specify, and we may periodically increase the amounts of coverage required under this insurance policy at any time.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we may, at any time during the Term, establish and require your participation in additional mandatory insurance programs. We reserve the right to approve, from time to time, insurance suppliers for such insurance programs. However, we have no obligation under this Agreement to establish any additional insurance programs for Staffing Businesses and may only allow participation to qualifying Businesses.

9. ADVERTISING.

9.A. GRAND OPENING ADVERTISING PROGRAM.

You agree to spend at least the amount set forth in the Applicable Program Addendum (the "Minimum Grand Opening Spend") for a grand opening advertising program for your Staffing Business to take place during the period beginning two (2) weeks before and ending 6 weeks after you open your Staffing Business (the "Grand Opening Advertising Program"). You agree to comply with our System Standards for your Grand Opening Advertising Program and conduct the Grand Opening Advertising Program pursuant to a plan which you will prepare and submit to us for approval at least sixty (60) days prior to you open your Staffing Business. We may require you to use the advertising, marketing and/or public relations programs, firms, media and materials we approve for your Grand Opening Advertising Program. We reserve the right to approve the type of expenditure that will count towards your Minimum Grand Opening Spend.

9.B. LOCAL ADVERTISING.

Separate from and in addition to the Grand Opening Advertising Program, beginning on the Commencement Date, you agree to spend a minimum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500) on local advertising approved by us during each calendar quarter. On or before the thirtieth (30th) day after each calendar quarter, you must provide to us with an accurate accounting of your local advertising expenditures and marketing activities during the immediately preceding calendar quarter. You agree to provide to us such other periodic reports and records of such local advertising as we may request. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you acknowledge that we reserve the right, pursuant to Section 13.B hereof, to audit your local advertising expenditures.

We reserve the right, at any time, to issue you a notice that the amounts required to be spent by you under this Section 9.B shall, instead, be paid to us or our designee. If we exercise this option, we will then spend such amounts, in accordance with local marketing guidelines and programs that we develop from time to time, to advertise and promote your Staffing Business on your behalf. We may instead, in our discretion, contribute any such amounts to the Marketing Fund in accordance with and as required under Section 9.D below. We may also elect, on one or more occasions and without prejudice to our rights to issue further notices, to temporarily or permanently cease conducting such marketing activities on your behalf and, instead, to require you to conduct such marketing activities yourself in accordance with this Section 9.B.

9.C. OUR APPROVAL OF ADVERTISING MATERIALS.

Before you use any local advertising and promotional materials not prepared by or previously approved by us, you will submit samples of such materials to us for approval. If we do not approve the materials in writing within fifteen (15) days from the date we receive the materials, the materials are deemed to be disapproved. If we approve the materials, you may use them; provided, however, that we may, in our discretion, and without compensating you for any of your costs associated with the manufacture or distribution of the unused materials, withdraw our approval. You must not use any advertising or promotional materials that we have not approved or have disapproved. You agree that your advertising, promotion, and marketing will be completely clear, factual, and not misleading and conform to both the highest standards of ethical advertising and marketing and the advertising and marketing policies that we prescribe from time to time.

9.D. WEBSITES, SOCIAL MEDIA ACCOUNTS, AND OTHER ONLINE PRESENCES.

Except as specified by us in the Operations Manual, you may not develop, maintain or authorize any website, domain name, email address, social media account, username, other online presence or presence on any electronic, virtual, or digital medium of any kind (an “Online Presence”) that mentions your Staffing Business, links to any Franchise System website, or displays any of the Marks, or engage in any promotional or similar activities, whether directly or indirectly, through any Online Presence. We may, in our discretion, issue email addresses to you for use in connection with your Staffing Business. If we require you to use such an email address, you must do so according to our then-current System Standards. You acknowledge and agree that we will have unrestricted access to and sole ownership of all such email accounts, and all document, data, materials, and messages shared from or by such accounts. We may deactivate any such account or limit your or your users’ access to it at any time. With respect to any social media account Online Presence that we authorize you to maintain, we will establish such social media account and assign administration of such accounts to you. If we approve the use of any such Online Presence in the operation of your Staffing Business other than social media accounts, you will (i) develop (except to the extent we develop your social media accounts) and maintain such Online Presence only in accordance with our guidelines, including our guidelines for posting any messages or commentary on other third-party websites and (ii) prepare a privacy policy for such website that complies with all applicable laws. We will own the rights to each such Online Presence. At our request, you agree to grant us access to each such Online Presence, and to take whatever action (including signing assignment or other documents) we request to evidence our ownership of such Online Presence, or to help us obtain exclusive rights in such Online Presence. We may require that you: (1) provide us the information and materials we request to develop, update, and modify any Franchise System website; and (2) notify us whenever any information on the Franchise System website regarding you or your Office is not accurate.

9.E. MARKETING FUND.

Recognizing the value of advertising and marketing to the goodwill and public image of Staffing Business, we have established a national advertising and marketing fund (the “Marketing Fund”) for the advertising, marketing, public relations and Franchise System programmatic job distribution programs and materials we deem appropriate that will be used nationally, regionally, or locally in our franchise owners’ markets. you must pay us the Marketing Fund Contribution in accordance with Section 4.C. Staffing Businesses owned by us or our affiliates will contribute to the Marketing Fund on the same basis as our franchise owners.

We or our affiliates or other designees will direct all programs that the Marketing Fund finances, with sole control over the creative concepts, materials, and endorsements used and their geographic, market, and media placement and allocation. The Marketing Fund may pay for preparing and producing video, audio, and written materials and electronic, virtual, or digital media; developing, implementing, and maintaining a Franchise System website and related strategies; administering regional and multi-regional marketing and advertising programs, including programmatic job distribution programs, purchasing trade journal, direct mail, and other media advertising and using advertising, promotion, and marketing agencies and other advisors to provide assistance; administering online advertising and marketing campaigns (including search engine, social media, email, and display ad campaigns); developing and administering software, apps, and related integrations; and supporting public relations, market research, and other advertising, promotion, and marketing activities.

We will account for the Marketing Fund separately from our other funds and not use the Marketing Fund for any of our general operating expenses. However, we may use the Marketing Fund to reimburse us or our affiliates or designees for the reasonable salaries and benefits of personnel who manage and administer the Marketing Fund, the Marketing Fund’s other administrative costs, travel expenses of personnel while they are on Marketing Fund business, meeting costs, overhead relating to Marketing Fund business, and other expenses that we incur in activities reasonably related to administering or directing the Marketing Fund and its programs, including conducting market research, public relations, preparing advertising, promotion, and marketing materials, and collecting and accounting for Marketing Fund Contributions.

The Marketing Fund is not our asset. We do not owe any fiduciary obligation to you for administering the Marketing Fund or any other reason. We will hold all Marketing Fund Contributions for the benefit of the contributors and use contributions for the purposes described in this Section 9.E. The Marketing Fund may spend in any fiscal year more or less than the total Marketing Fund Contributions in that year, borrow from us or others (paying reasonable interest) to cover deficits, or invest any surplus for future use. We may use all interest earned on the Marketing Fund Contributions to pay costs before using the Marketing Fund’s other assets. We will prepare an annual, unaudited statement of Marketing Fund collections and expenses and give you the statement upon written request. We may have the Marketing Fund audited annually, at the Marketing Fund’s expense, by an independent certified public accountant. We may incorporate the Marketing Fund or operate it through a separate entity whenever we deem appropriate. The successor entity will have all of the rights and duties specified in this Section 9.E.

We intend for the Marketing Fund to promote recognition of the applicable Marks, the AtWork brand and patronage of Staffing Business. We need not ensure that Marketing Fund expenditures in or affecting any geographic area are proportionate or equivalent to Marketing Fund Contributions by Staffing Businesses operating in that geographic area or that any Staffing Business benefits directly or in proportion to its Marketing Fund Contribution from the development of advertising and marketing materials or the placement of advertising and marketing. We have the right, but no obligation, to use collection agents and institute legal proceedings to collect Marketing Fund Contributions at the Marketing Fund's expense. We also may forgive, waive, settle, and compromise all claims by or against the Marketing Fund. Except as expressly provided in this Section 9.D, we assume no direct or indirect liability or obligation to you for collecting amounts due to maintaining, directing, or administering the Marketing Fund.

We may at any time defer or reduce contributions of an Staffing Business franchise owner and, upon 30 days' prior notice to you, reduce or suspend Marketing Fund Contributions and operations for one or more periods of any length and terminate (and, if terminated, reinstate) the Marketing Fund. If we terminate the Marketing Fund, we will, at our option, either spend all unspent monies in accordance with this Section, until such amounts are exhausted, or distribute the funds in the Marketing Fund to the contributing Staffing Business owners on a pro rata basis.

10. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES/INDEMNIFICATION.

10.A. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS.

You and we understand and agree that each of us is an independent business and that you and we are and will be independent contractors. This Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between you and us, and nothing in this Agreement is intended to make either you or us a general or special agent, joint venturer, partner, or employee of the other for any purpose. You agree to identify yourself conspicuously to all persons (including customers, suppliers, public officials, and employees of your Staffing Business) as your Staffing Business's owner and indicate clearly that you operate your Staffing Business separately and independently from our business operations. You agree to place notices of independent ownership on all interior and exterior signage, forms, business cards, stationery, advertising, and other materials that we may require from time to time.

You acknowledge and agree that you are solely responsible for all decisions relating to employees, agents, and independent contractors that you may hire to assist in the operation of your Staffing Business. You agree that any employee (which shall include your Assigned Temporary Workers), agent, or independent contractor, that you hire will be your employee, agent or independent contractor, and not our employee, agent or independent contractor. You also agree that you are exclusively responsible for the terms and conditions of employment of your employees, including recruiting, hiring, firing, training, work hours and schedules, work assignments, safety and security, discipline, and supervision. You agree to manage the employment functions of your Staffing Business in compliance with federal, state, and local employment laws.

10.B. NO LIABILITY FOR ACTS OF THE OTHER PARTY.

We and you may not make any express or implied agreements, warranties, guarantees, or representations, or incur any debt, in the name or on behalf of the other or represent that our respective relationship is other than franchisor and franchise owner. We will not be obligated for any damages to any person or property directly or indirectly arising out of your Staffing Business's operation or the business you conduct under this Agreement.

10.C. TAXES.

We will have no liability for any sales, use, service, occupation, excise, gross revenue, income, property, or other taxes, whether levied on you or your Staffing Business, due to the business you conduct (except for our income taxes). You are responsible for paying these taxes and must reimburse us for any taxes that we must pay to any state taxing authority on account of either your operation or payments that you make to us.

10.D. INDEMNIFICATION BY YOU.

You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless us, our affiliates, and our and their respective owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors, and assignees (the “Indemnified Parties”) against, and to reimburse any one or more of the Indemnified Parties for, all claims, obligations, and damages directly or indirectly arising out of: (i) the development or operation of your Staffing Business, (ii) your (or your owners, employees, agents, and/or independent contractors’) participation in any training conducted by us, including the Training Programs, (iii) the business you conduct under this Agreement, (iv) your breach of this Agreement, and/or (v) your employment practices or that are instituted by your employees, including those alleged to be or found to have been caused by the Indemnified Party’s gross negligence or willful misconduct, unless (and then only to the extent that) the claims, obligations, or damages are determined to be caused solely by our gross negligence or willful misconduct in a final, unappealable ruling issued by a court or arbitrator with competent jurisdiction.

For purposes of this indemnification, “claims” include all obligations, damages (actual, consequential, or otherwise), and costs that any Indemnified Party reasonably incurs in defending any claim against it, including reasonable accountants’, arbitrators’, attorneys’, and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, travel and living expenses, and other expenses of litigation, arbitration, or alternative dispute resolution, regardless of whether litigation, arbitration, or alternative dispute resolution is commenced. Each Indemnified Party may, in its discretion and at your expense, control the defense of any claim against it (including choosing and retaining its own legal counsel), agree to settlements of claims against it, and take any other remedial, corrective, or other actions in response to such claims.

This indemnity will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding this Agreement’s expiration or termination. An Indemnified Party need not seek recovery from any insurer or other third party, or otherwise mitigate its losses and expenses, in order to maintain and recover fully a claim for indemnity under this Section. You agree that a failure to pursue a recovery or mitigate a loss will not reduce or alter the amounts that an Indemnified Party may recover under this Section.

11. MARKS.

11.A. OWNERSHIP AND GOODWILL OF MARKS.

Your right to use the Marks and the Franchise System is derived only from this Agreement. You may only use the Marks and the Franchise System to operate your Staffing Business according to this Agreement and in accordance with System Standards. Your unauthorized use of the Marks or the Franchise System is a breach of this Agreement and infringes our intellectual property rights. Your unauthorized use of the Marks or the Franchise System will cause us irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law and will entitle us to injunctive relief. You acknowledge and agree that your use of the Marks and any goodwill established by that use are exclusively for our benefit and this Agreement does not confer any goodwill or other interests in the Marks to you (other than the right to operate your Staffing Business under this Agreement). All provisions of this Agreement relating to the Marks apply to any additional proprietary trade and service marks we authorize you to use. You may not at any time during or after the Term contest or assist any other person in contesting the validity of the Marks or our ownership of the Marks.

11.B. LIMITATIONS ON YOUR USE OF THE MARKS.

You have no right to sublicense or assign your right to use the Marks. You agree to display the Marks prominently as we prescribe at your Staffing Business and on forms, advertising, supplies, staff and employee uniforms and other materials we designate. You may not use any other trademarks, service marks or commercial symbols to identify or operate your Staffing Business.

You agree to identify yourself as the independent owner of your Staffing Business in the manner we prescribe. You may not use any Mark (1) as part of any corporate or legal business name, (2) with any prefix, suffix, or other modifying words, terms, designs, or symbols (other than logos we have licensed to you), (3) in selling any unauthorized services or products, (4) as part of any Online Presence, except in accordance with our guidelines set forth in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing from time to time; (5) in advertising any prospective transfer requiring our consent under Section 14.B, or (6) in any other manner that we have not expressly authorized in writing. However, you may, or we may require you to, file an assumed name application (e.g., a d/b/a) using the Marks in your assumed name using the following format: “AtWork - <Name of City or Neighborhood>,” (your “Assumed Name”) and we reserve the right to specify which city or neighborhood you use in your Assumed Name. You agree to give the notices of trade and service mark registrations that we specify and to obtain any fictitious or assumed name registrations required under applicable law. We may require you to identify your Staffing Business on any Online Presence by your Assumed Name, and we may identify your Staffing Business by your Assumed Name on any of our websites, online presences, marketing materials, or any other advertising platform.

11.C. NOTIFICATION OF INFRINGEMENT AND CLAIMS.

You agree to notify us immediately of any apparent infringement or challenge to your use of any Mark, or of any person’s claim of any rights in any Mark, and not to communicate with any person other than us, our attorneys, and your attorneys, regarding any possible infringement, challenge, or claim. We and/or our affiliates may take any action we deem appropriate (including no action) and control exclusively any litigation, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office proceeding, or other administrative proceeding arising from any infringement, challenge, or claim or otherwise concerning any Mark. You agree to sign any documents and take any other reasonable action that, in the opinion of our attorneys, are necessary or advisable to protect and maintain our interests in any litigation or Patent and Trademark Office or other proceeding or otherwise to protect and maintain our interests in the Marks. We will reimburse you for your reasonable costs of taking any action that we have asked you to take.

11.D. DISCONTINUANCE OF USE OF MARKS.

We may at any time, in our sole discretion, require you to modify or discontinue using any Mark and/or use one or more additional or substitute Marks. You agree to replace the Marks at the Office with the modified, additional or substitute Marks we specify and comply with all other directions we give regarding the Marks at the Office within a reasonable time after receiving notice from us. We are not required to reimburse you for any costs or expenses associated with making such changes, for any loss of revenue due to any modified or discontinued Mark, or for your expenses of promoting a modified or substitute Mark.

Our rights in this Section 11.D apply to any and all of the Marks (and any portion of any Mark) that we authorize you to use in this Agreement. We may exercise these rights at any time and for any reason, business or otherwise, that we think best. You acknowledge both our right to take this action and your obligation to comply with our directions.

11.E. INDEMNIFICATION FOR USE OF THE MARKS.

We agree to reimburse you for all damages and expenses that you incur in responding to any trademark infringement proceeding disputing your authorized use of any Mark under this Agreement if you have timely notified us of the proceeding, and complied with our directions in responding to it. At our option, we and/or our affiliates may defend and control the defense of any proceeding arising from your use of any Mark under this Agreement.

12. RECORDS AND REPORTS.

You must maintain in a secure location at the Office (or if you own more than one (1) Business in a secure location at your principal place of business or such other location as we may approve) during the Term, and must preserve for at least three (3) years from the dates of their preparation, full, complete and accurate books, records and accounts from your Staffing Business (including sales checks, purchase orders, invoices, payroll records, customer lists, check stubs, sales tax records and returns, cash receipts and disbursement journals, and general ledgers) in the form and manner we prescribe in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing.

You shall comply with the following reporting obligations:

(a) within the time limits specified in the Operations Manual, such other periodic operating statements, financial statements, statistical reports and other information we request regarding you and your Staffing Business;

(b) by March 15th of each year, annual profit and loss and source and use of funds statements and a balance sheet for your Staffing Business as of the end of the prior calendar year; provided, however, we reserve the right to require you to submit such reports on a monthly basis showing your financial results for the preceding month; and

(c) within ten (10) days after our request, exact copies of federal and state income tax returns, sales tax returns, and any other forms, records, books, and other information we may periodically require relating to you and your Staffing Business.

You (or one of your officers) agree to sign and verify each report and financial statement in the manner we prescribe. We may disclose data derived from these reports. Moreover, we may, as often as we deem appropriate (including on a daily basis), independently access the Computer System and retrieve and retain all information relating to the operation of your Staffing Business. We may require you to have audited financial statements prepared annually during the Term.

13. INSPECTION AND AUDITS.

13.A. OUR RIGHT TO INSPECT YOUR BUSINESS.

To determine whether you and your Staffing Business are complying with this Agreement and all System Standards, we and our designated agents or representatives may at all times and without prior notice to you: (1) inspect the Office and any location where any of your employees are providing services; (2) photograph the Office and observe and videotape your Staffing Business's operation for consecutive or intermittent periods we deem necessary; (3) continuously or periodically monitor your Staffing Business using electronic surveillance or other means; (4) remove samples of any products and supplies; (5) interview your Staffing Business's personnel and customers; (6) inspect the Computer System, including hardware, software, security, configurations, connectivity, and data access; and (7) inspect and copy any books, records, and documents relating to your Staffing Business's operation. Additionally, we may contract with third parties to conduct mystery shopper, customer survey or other market research testing, and quality assurance inspections at your Staffing Business, and we reserve the right to require you to reimburse us the costs and expenses associated with such inspection services. You agree to cooperate with us fully during the course of these inspections and tests. If we exercise any of these rights, we will not interfere unreasonably with your Staffing Business's operation. You must reimburse all of our costs (including supplier fees, travel expenses, room and board, and compensation of our employees) associated with any re-inspections or follow-up visits that we conduct after any inspection of your Office identifies one of more failures of System Standards, and/or if any follow-up visit is necessary because we or our designated representatives were for any reason prevented from properly inspecting any or all of your Office (including because you or your personnel refuse entry to the premises of your Office).

13.B. OUR RIGHT TO AUDIT.

We may at any time during your business hours, and without prior notice to you, examine your and your Staffing Business's bookkeeping and accounting records, sales and income tax records and returns, and other records. You agree to cooperate fully with our representatives and independent accountants in any examination. If any examination discloses an understatement of your Staffing Business's Gross Revenue, you agree to pay us the Royalty, Marketing Fund Contribution, and any other fees understated, plus interest on the understated amounts from the date originally due until the date of payment, within fifteen (15) days after receiving the examination report. Furthermore, if an examination is necessary due to your failure to furnish reports, supporting records, or other information as required, or to furnish these items on a timely basis, or if our examination reveals an understatement of Gross Revenue exceeding two percent (2%) of the amount that you actually reported to us for the period examined, you agree to reimburse us for the costs of the examination, including the charges of attorneys and independent accountants and the travel expenses, room and board, and compensation of our employees. These remedies are in addition to our other remedies and rights under this Agreement and applicable law.

14. TRANSFER OF INTEREST.

14.A. BY US.

You acknowledge that we maintain a staff to manage and operate the Franchise System and that staff members can change as employees come and go. You acknowledge that you did not sign this Agreement in reliance on the continued participation by or employment of any of our owners, directors, officers, or employees. We may change our ownership or form of organization and/or assign this Agreement and any other agreement to a third party without restriction. After our assignment of this Agreement to a third party who expressly assumes the obligations under this Agreement, we no longer will have any obligations under this Agreement. This Agreement and any other agreement will inure to the benefit of any transferee or other legal successor to our interest in it.

14.B. BY YOU.

You acknowledge that the rights and duties this Agreement creates are personal to you and your owners and that we have granted you the franchise in reliance on our perception of your and your owners' individual or collective character, skill, aptitude, attitude, business ability, and financial capacity. Accordingly, none of the following may be transferred without our prior written approval: (i) this Agreement (or any interest in this Agreement); (ii) your Staffing Business (or any right to possess, control, or manage your Staffing Business, or to receive all or a portion of your Staffing Business's profits or losses or capital appreciation related to your Staffing Business); (iii) substantially all of the assets of your Staffing Business; (iv) any direct or indirect ownership interest in you (regardless of its size); or (v) any direct or indirect ownership interest in any of your owners (if such owners are legal entities). A transfer of your Staffing Business's ownership, possession, or control, or substantially all of its assets, may be made only with a transfer of this Agreement. Any transfer without our approval is a breach of this Agreement and has no effect. In this Agreement, the term “transfer” includes a voluntary, involuntary, direct, or indirect assignment, sale, gift, or other disposition, including transfer by reason of merger, consolidation, issuance of additional securities, death, disability, divorce, insolvency, foreclosure, surrender or by operation of law.

Additionally, you may not pledge or encumber this Agreement, your Staffing Business or an ownership interest in you or your owners (to someone other than us) as security for any loan or other financing unless (1) we grant our prior written consent and (2) the lender agrees that its claims will be subordinate to all amounts you owe at any time to us, our affiliates, or lenders.

If you intend to list your Staffing Business for sale with any broker or agent, you shall do so only after obtaining our written approval of the broker or agent and of the listing agreement. You may not use or authorize the use of any Mark in advertising the transfer or other disposition of your Staffing Business or of any ownership in you without our prior written consent. You shall not use or authorize the use of, and no third party shall on your behalf use, any written materials to advertise or promote the transfer of your Staffing Business or of any ownership interest in you without our prior written approval of such materials.

14.C. CONDITIONS FOR APPROVAL OF TRANSFER

Subject to the other provisions of this Section 14, if you and your owners are fully complying with this Agreement, we will approve a transfer that meets all of the requirements in this Section 14.C.

If the proposed transfer is not of a Controlling Interest (defined below) in you or your owners (determined as of the date on which the proposed transfer will occur), then we will approve such transfer if the proposed transferee and its direct and indirect owners (if the transferee is an entity) are of good character and meet our then applicable standards for franchise owners (including no ownership interest or performance of services for a Competitive Business). If the proposed transfer is of this Agreement, your Staffing Business, substantially all the assets of your Staffing Business, or a Controlling Interest in you or one of your owners, or is one of a series of transfers (regardless of the time period over which these transfers take place), which in the aggregate transfers this Agreement, your Staffing Business, substantially all the assets of your Staffing Business, or a Controlling Interest in you or one of your owners, then all of the following conditions must be met before or concurrently with the effective date of the transfer:

(1) you submit an application in writing requesting our consent and providing us all information or documents we request about the proposed transfer, the transferee and its owners that we request to evaluate their ability to satisfy their respective obligations under our then-current form of franchise agreement and any documents ancillary thereto, and each such person must have completed and satisfied all of our application and certification requirements, including the criteria that neither the transferee nor its owners (if the transferee is an entity) or affiliates have an ownership interest (direct or indirect) in or perform services for a Competitive Business;

(2) you have provided us executed versions of any documents executed by you (or your owners) and the transferee (and its owners) to effect the transfer, and all other information we request about the proposed transfer, and such transfer meets all of our requirements, including criteria for terms and conditions, closing date, purchase price, amount of debt and payment terms;

(3) you (and your owners) and the transferee (and its owners) sign all of the documents we are then requiring in connection with a transfer, in a form satisfactory to us, including: (i) a general release of any and all claims against us and our affiliates and our and their owners, officers, directors, employees, and agents, (ii) a covenant that you and your transferring owners (and your and their immediate family members) will not, for two (2) years beginning on the transfer's effective date, engage in any of the activities proscribed in Section 17.E below, (iii) covenants that you and your transferring owners satisfy all other post-termination obligations under this Agreement;

(4) you have paid all Royalties and other amounts owed to us, our affiliates, and third-party vendors, and have submitted all required reports and statements;

(5) you and your owners have not violated any provision of this Agreement or any other agreement with us or our affiliates during both the sixty (60) day period before you requested our consent to the transfer and the period between your request and the effective date of the transfer;

(6) the transferee's Operating Partner and any other manager and/or assistant manager we designate, complete our then-current Training Programs, to our satisfaction;

(7) if the proposed transfer (including any assignment of the lease or subleasing of the Office) requires notice to or approval from your landlord, or any other action under the terms of the lease, you have taken such appropriate action and delivered us evidence of the same;

(8) the transferee shall (if the transfer is of this Agreement), or you shall (if the transfer is of a Controlling Interest in you or one of your owners), sign our then-current form of franchise agreement and related documents, any and all of the provisions of which may differ materially from any and all of those contained in this Agreement, including the amount of the Royalty and the Minimum Performance Standard; provided, however, that the term of the new franchise agreement signed will equal the remainder of the then-remaining Term;

(9) you pay us a transfer fee equal to fifty percent (50%) of our then-current initial franchise fee, unless the transfer is of a non-controlling interest in you (if you are an entity), in which case you must only reimburse us for any direct costs we incur in connection with documenting and otherwise processing such transfer, including reasonable legal fees;

(10) we have determined that the purchase price and payment terms will not adversely affect the transferee's operation of your Staffing Business;

(11) if you or your owners finance any part of the purchase price, you and/or your owners agree that all of the transferee's obligations under promissory notes, agreements, or security interests reserved in your Staffing Business are subordinate to the transferee's obligation to pay Royalties and other amounts due to us, our affiliates, and third-party vendors related to the operation of your Staffing Business and otherwise to comply with this Agreement;

(12) if the proposed transferee will operate from the Office, you have corrected any existing deficiencies of your Staffing Business of which we have notified you, and/or the transferee agrees to upgrade, remodel, and refurbish the Office in accordance with our then-current requirements and specifications for new Staffing Businesses within the time period we specify following the effective date of the transfer (we will advise the transferee before the effective date of the transfer of the specific actions that it must take and the time period within which such actions must be taken) and the transferee agrees to escrow an amount we approve for payment of the required upgrade, remodel or refurbishment; and

(13) you provide us the evidence we reasonably request to show that appropriate measures have been taken to effect the transfer as it relates to the operation of your Staffing Business, including, by transferring all necessary and appropriate business licenses, insurance policies, and material agreements, or obtaining new business licenses, insurance policies and material agreements.

In addition to the foregoing conditions, a proposed transfer of this Agreement may not be made separately from or independently of a transfer to the same recipient of all of the Franchise Agreements (and the Staffing Businesses operated pursuant thereto) executed by you or your affiliates.

We may review all information regarding your Staffing Business that you give the transferee, correct any information that we believe is inaccurate, and give the transferee copies of any reports that you have given us or we have made regarding your Staffing Business.

Our consent to a transfer pursuant to this Section is not a representation of the fairness of the terms of any contract between you and the transferee, a guarantee of your Staffing Business's or transferee's prospects of success, or a waiver of any claims we have against you (or your owners) or of our right to demand the transferee's full compliance with this Agreement.

For purposes of this Agreement, a "Controlling Interest" means:

(1) if you are a corporation, such number of the voting shares of you as (a) shall permit voting control of you on any issue and (b) shall prevent any other person, group, combination, or entity from blocking voting control on any issue or exercising any veto power;

(2) if you are a general partnership, a managing partnership interest or such percentage of the general partnership interests in you as (a) shall permit determination of the outcome on any issue and (b) shall prevent any other person, group, combination, or entity from blocking voting control on any issue or exercising any veto power;

(3) if you are a limited partnership, a general partnership interest; or

(4) if you are a limited liability company, such percentage of the membership interests as (a) shall permit determination of the outcome on any issue and (b) shall prevent any other person, group, combination or entity from blocking voting control on any issue or exercising any veto power.

14.D. DEATH OR DISABILITY.

(1) Upon the death or permanent disability of your Operating Partner, the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative of that person, or the remaining shareholders, members or partners, must appoint a new Operating Partner within a reasonable time, not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of death or permanent disability. The appointed Operating Partner must attend and successfully complete the Training Programs within one hundred twenty (120) days of the appointment. If your Staffing Business is not being managed by an Operating Partner approved by us within thirty (30) days after death or permanent disability, we are authorized, but not required, to immediately appoint a manager to maintain the operations of your Staffing Business on your behalf, in accordance with Section 16.C, until an approved assignee is able to assume the management and operation of your Staffing Business.

(2) Upon the death of you (or any owner), the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative of that person must transfer his interest to a person we approve within a reasonable time, not to exceed twelve (12) months from the date of death.

14.E. OUR RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL.

If you or any of your owners shall at any time determine to sell an interest in this Agreement, the franchise, your Staffing Business, some or all of the assets of your Staffing Business (other than in the ordinary course of business) or an ownership interest in you, you or your owner(s) shall obtain a bona fide, arms' length, executed letter of intent from a qualified, responsible, bona fide and fully disclosed purchaser. You or your owner (or both) shall immediately submit to us a true and complete copy of such letter of intent (conditioned on our right of first refusal) and any proposed ancillary agreements. The letter of intent must apply only to an interest which is permitted to be transferred under this Agreement and may not include the purchase of any of your (or your owners') other property or rights. The price and terms of purchase offered to you (or your owner(s)) in the letter of intent for the aforementioned interests shall reflect the bona fide price offered therefor and shall not reflect any value for any other property or rights. If the purchaser proposes to buy any other property or rights from you (or your owner(s)) under a separate, contemporaneous transaction, you shall submit a true and complete copy of a bona fide, arms' length executed letter of intent for that transaction (and any proposed ancillary agreements).

We will have the right, exercisable by written notice delivered to you or such owner(s) within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt by us of an exact copy of such letter of intent to purchase such interest for the price and on the terms and conditions contained in such letter of intent, provided that our credit shall be deemed equal to the credit of any proposed purchaser, and we shall have not less than sixty (60) days to prepare for closing. If the letter of intent contemplates payment of any or the entire purchase price by a credit instrument of any type, we shall have the option to use the same payment method at our discretion. Regardless of whether contemplated under the letter of intent, we shall be entitled to all customary representations and warranties given by the seller of a business, including representations and warranties as to: (1) ownership, condition and title to the ownership interests and/or assets being purchased; (2) liens and encumbrances relating to such ownership interests and/or assets; and (3) validity of contracts and liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of any legal entity whose ownership interests are purchased.

A transfer of the franchise, your Staffing Business, or an ownership interest in you to an immediate family member is not subject to our right of first refusal, but such transfer is subject to the requirements of Sections 14.B and 14.C. For purposes of this paragraph, an "immediate family member" is limited to a spouse and/or a living child or living children or living grandchildren.

If we do not exercise our right of first refusal, you or your owner(s) may complete the sale to such purchaser pursuant to and on the exact terms of such letter of intent, subject to our approval of the transfer, as provided for in this Agreement, provided that if the sale to such purchaser is not completed within one hundred twenty (120) days after receipt of such letter of intent by us, or if there is a change in the terms of the sale, we shall have an additional right of first refusal for thirty (30) days as set forth herein on the modified or initial terms and conditions of sale.

15. EXPIRATION OF THIS AGREEMENT.

15.A. YOUR RIGHT TO ACQUIRE A SUCCESSOR FRANCHISE.

Upon expiration of this Agreement, you will have the option to acquire a successor franchise to operate your Staffing Business for one (1) additional term equal to the term of new Staffing Business franchises being granted at such time, if you meet the following conditions:

(1) you (and each of your owners) have substantially complied with this Agreement during its term. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you must have satisfied the Minimum Performance Standard during each Agreement Year during the Term;

(2) you (and each of your owners) are, both on the date you give us written notice of your election to acquire a successor franchise (as provided in Section 15.B below) and on the date on which the term of the successor franchise would commence, in full compliance with this Agreement and all System Standards;

(3) you maintain possession of and agree to remodel and/or expand the Office, add or replace improvements and Operating Assets, and otherwise modify your Staffing Business as we require to comply with System Standards then-applicable for new Staffing Businesses, or, at your option, you secure a substitute office that we approve and you develop that office according to System Standards then-applicable for Staffing Businesses;

(4) you sign the franchise agreement we then use to grant franchises for Staffing Business (modified as necessary to reflect the fact that it is for a successor franchise), which may contain provisions that differ materially from those contained in this Agreement, including a higher Royalty or Minimum Performance Standard; and

(5) you and your owners agree to sign, in a form satisfactory to us, guarantees and general releases of any and all claims against us and our owners, officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, and assigns.

If you (and your owners) fail to meet the conditions set forth in this Section, you acknowledge that we need not grant you a successor franchise, whether or not we had, or chose to exercise, the right to terminate this Agreement during its term under Section 16.A.

15.B. GRANT OF A SUCCESSOR FRANCHISE.

You agree to give us written notice (“Your Notice”) of your election to acquire a successor franchise no more than one (1) year and no less than one hundred eighty (180) days before this Agreement expires. We agree to give you written notice (“Our Notice”) of our decision to grant or not to grant you a successor franchise not more than six (6) months after we receive Your Notice. If applicable, Our Notice will describe the remodeling, maintenance, expansion, improvements, technology upgrades, trade dress updates, and/or modifications required to bring your Staffing Business into compliance with then-applicable System Standards for new Staffing Businesses, and state the actions you must take to correct operating deficiencies and the time period in which you must correct these deficiencies.

If Our Notice states that you must remodel the Office and/or must cure certain deficiencies of your Staffing Business or its operation as a condition to our granting you a successor franchise, and you fail to complete the remodeling and/or to cure those deficiencies, we will give you written notice of our decision not to grant a successor franchise, not less than ninety (90) days before this Agreement expires; provided, that we need not give you ninety (90) days' notice if we decide not to grant you a successor franchise due to your breach of this Agreement during the ninety (90) day period before it expires. We may extend this Agreement's term for the time period necessary to give you either reasonable time to correct deficiencies or the ninety (90) days' notice of our refusal to grant a successor franchise. If you fail to notify us of your election to acquire a successor franchise within the prescribed time period, we need not grant you a successor franchise.

16. TERMINATION.

16.A. TERMINATION BY US.

We may terminate this Agreement, effective on delivery of written notice of termination to you, if:

- (1) you (or any of your owners) have made or make any material misrepresentation or omission in acquiring the franchise or operating your Staffing Business;

(12) you fail to pay when due any federal or state income, service, sales, or other taxes due on your Staffing Business's operation, unless you are in good faith contesting your liability for these taxes;

(13) you have insufficient funds in your designated account to cover your payments owed for Royalties and other amounts due on three (3) separate occasions within a twelve (12) month period;

(14) you fail to satisfy the Minimum Performance Standard in any applicable Agreement Year;

(21) you fail to comply with any third party obligation arising out of or owed in connection with your ownership or operation of the Staffing Business and do not correct such failure within any cure periods permitted by the person or entity to whom such obligations are owed;

(22) you deposit or convert any funds received from customers in violation of Section 4.H of this Agreement; or

(23) you (or any of your owners) fail to comply with any other provision of this Agreement or any System Standard and do not correct the failure within thirty (30) days after we deliver written notice of the failure to you.

16.B. TERMINATION BY YOU.

You may terminate this Agreement if you are in full compliance with this Agreement and we materially fail to comply with this Agreement, and (i) we fail to correct the failure within sixty (60) days after you deliver written notice of the material failure to us, or (ii) if we cannot correct the failure within sixty (60) days, we fail to give you within sixty (60) days after your notice reasonable evidence of our effort to correct the failure within a reasonable time. Your termination under this Section will be effective an additional thirty (30) days after you deliver to us a written notice of termination following our failure to correct the failure identified in your initial written notice to us. If you terminate this Agreement other than according to this Section 16.B, the termination will be deemed a termination without cause and a breach of this Agreement.

16.C. INTERIM OPERATIONS.

We have the right (but not the obligation), if you fail to comply with any provision of this Agreement or the Franchise System standards and do not cure the failure within the time period we specify in our notice to you, to enter the Office and operate on an interim basis (or to appoint a third party to do so) your Staffing Business for a period of time we deem appropriate but not to exceed 90-day increments. We will periodically discuss with you the results of operation of your Staffing Business during the time that we (or such third party designee) operate it. If we (or a third party) assume interim operations of your Staffing Business pursuant to this Section 16.C, you agree to pay us (in addition to the Royalties and other amounts due under this Agreement) an amount equal to 10% of Gross Revenue, plus our (or the third party's) out-of-pocket costs and expenses, after we (or such third party) assume such operations. If we (or a third party) assume interim operations of your Staffing Business, you must cooperate with us and our designees, continue to support the operations of your Staffing Business, and comply with all of our instructions and System Standards, including making available any and all books, records, and accounts. If we (or a third party) assume interim operations of your Staffing Business, you will not prohibit your employees from working for us or the third party during such period of interim operations. You understand and acknowledge that during any such interim period, you are still the owner of your Staffing Business and you continue to bear sole liability for any and all accounts payable, obligations, and/or contracts, including all obligations under your lease for the Office and all obligations to your vendors and employees and contractors, unless and until we expressly assume them in connection with the purchase of your Staffing Business under Section 18. You understand that we are not required to use your employees, vendors, or accounts to operate your Staffing Business. You also agree that we may elect to cease such interim operations of your Staffing Business at any time with notice to you.

17. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION.

17.A. PAYMENT OF AMOUNTS OWED TO US.

You agree to pay us the Royalties, Marketing Fund Contributions, interest, and all other amounts owed to us (and our affiliates) within fifteen (15) days after this Agreement expires or is terminated, or on any later date that we determine, calculated as of the date of payment. We have the right to set off any amount you or your owners owe us or our affiliates, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by us, if any, in connection with the termination of this Agreement pursuant to your default hereunder, against any amounts we or our affiliates owe you, your owners or your affiliates. You acknowledge that termination or expiration of this Agreement does not affect your liability for amounts you (or your owners or affiliates) owe any third parties or creditors and we do not assume any such liabilities.

17.B. MARKS.

In the case of expiration, you must remove all signs containing any Mark and return to us or destroy all items, forms and materials containing any Mark or otherwise identifying or relating to a Staffing Business on or before the date on which this Agreement expires. In the case of a termination, you must remove all signs containing any Mark and return to us or destroy all items, forms and materials containing any Mark or otherwise identifying or relating to a Staffing Business within seven (7) days after the date this Agreement is terminated.

When this Agreement expires or is terminated, you and your owners:

- (a) may not directly or indirectly at any time or in any manner (except with other Staffing Businesses you own and operate) identify yourself or any business as a current or former Staffing Business or as one of our current or former franchise owners; use any Mark, any colorable imitation of a Mark, or other indicia of a Staffing Business in any manner or for any purpose; or use for any purpose any trade name, trade or service mark, or other commercial symbol that indicates or suggests a connection or association with us;
- (b) agree to take the action required to cancel or assign all fictitious or assumed name or equivalent registrations relating to your use of any Mark;
- (c) agree to cease using and, at our direction, either disable or instruct the registrar of any Contact Identifiers or Online Presence to transfer exclusive control and access of such Contact Identifiers or Online Presence to us or our designee in accordance with our instructions;
- (d) you agree to comply with all applicable laws in connection with the closure and de-identification of your Staffing Business;
- (e) immediately cease using any email address that is associated with a domain name we own or the Marks; and
- (f) you agree to give us, within thirty (30) days after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, evidence satisfactory to us of your compliance with these obligations.

If you fail to take any of the actions (or refrain from taking any of the actions) described above, we may take whatever action and sign whatever documents we deem appropriate on your behalf to cure the deficiencies, including, without liability to you or third parties for trespass or any other claim, entering the Office and removing any signs or other materials containing any Marks from your Staffing Business.

17.C. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

You agree that when this Agreement expires or is terminated you will immediately cease using any of our Confidential Information in any business or otherwise and return to us all copies of the Operations Manual and any other Confidential Information that we have loaned you. You also agree to comply with all of our directions for returning or deleting Personal Information, in any form, in your possession or the possession of any of your employees. We may require you to certify in writing that you have returned or securely deleted all Personal Information.

17.D. CONTINUING OBLIGATIONS.

All of our and your (and your owners') obligations which expressly or by their nature survive this Agreement's expiration or termination will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding its expiration or termination and until they are satisfied in full or by their nature expire.

17.E. POST-TERM COVENANT NOT TO COMPETE

Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, neither you, your affiliates, nor any owner nor any member of the immediate family of you or any owner, shall directly or indirectly for a period of twenty-four (24) months commencing on the effective date of such termination or expiration, or the date on which you cease to operate your Staffing Business, whichever is later:

- (1) have any interest as a disclosed or beneficial owner in any Competitive Business located or operating in the Restricted Area (as defined in the Applicable Program Addendum);
- (2) perform services as a director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, lessor, representative, agent, or otherwise for any Competitive Business located or operating in the Restricted Area;
- (3) divert or attempt to divert any business or any customers of any Staffing Businesses to any Competitive Business; or
- (4) solicit, interfere, or attempt to interfere with our, our affiliates', or our franchisee's relationships with any customers, vendors, or consultants, or otherwise use or exploit the Customer Information in any manner.

The restrictions of Subparagraph (1) of this Section 17.E. will not be applicable to the ownership of shares of a class of securities listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market and quoted on a national inter-dealer quotation system that represent less than three percent (3%) of the number of shares of that class of securities issued and outstanding. If any person restricted by this Section 17.E fails to comply with the foregoing obligations as of the date of termination or expiration, the twenty-four (24) month restricted period for that person will commence on the date the person begins to comply with this Section 17.E, which may be the date a court order is entered enforcing this provision.

17.F. WEBSITE

Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, you will surrender and, if requested by us, will assign and transfer to us, any website domain name and address you have registered for or incidental to the operation of your Staffing Business under this Agreement. We have the right and are hereby empowered to effectuate the assignment and transfer of the website domain name and address if you fail to do so, but you will remain liable to the registrar, hosting company and/or internet service provider for all past due fees owing to such companies on or before the effective date of the assignment and transfer hereunder.

17.G. LOST REVENUE DAMAGES

If we terminate this Agreement because of your breach or if you terminate this Agreement without cause, you and we agree that it would be difficult, if not impossible, to determine the amount of damages that we would suffer due to the loss or interruption of the revenue stream we otherwise would have derived from your continued payment of Royalties and Marketing Fund Contributions, less any cost savings, through the remainder of the Term (the “Damages”). You and we agree that a reasonable estimate of the Damages is, and you agree to pay us as compensation for the Damages, an amount equal to the then net present value of the Royalties and Marketing Fund Contributions that would have become due had this Agreement not been terminated, from the date of termination to the earlier of: (a) five (5) years following termination or (b) the scheduled expiration of the then-current Term (the “Damages Period”). For this purpose, Damages shall be calculated by multiplying (1) the number of calendar months in the Damages Period by (2) the aggregate of the applicable Royalty and Marketing Fund Contribution percentages, by (3) the average monthly Gross Revenue of your Staffing Business during the 12 full calendar months immediately preceding the last date of regular operations of your Staffing Businesses in accordance with the Franchise Agreement; however, if as of the termination date, your Staffing Business has not been operating for at least 12 months, Damages will be calculated based on the average monthly Gross Revenue during our previous fiscal year immediately preceding the termination date of all Personnel Businesses or Professional Businesses, as applicable, operating during the entirety of that fiscal year. You and we agree that the calculation described in this Section is a calculation only of the Damages and that nothing herein shall preclude or limit us from proving and recovering any other damages caused by your breach of this Agreement.

18. OUR OPTION TO PURCHASE.

If this Agreement expires or is terminated by us or due to your abandonment of your Staffing Business, we or our assignee shall have the option, exercisable by giving written notice thereof within sixty (60) days from the date of such expiration or termination (the “Election Period”), to purchase from you all the assets used in your Staffing Business. As used in this paragraph, “assets” shall mean and include, as applicable, leasehold improvements, equipment, computer hardware, furnishings, fixtures, signs, inventory, materials, and supplies and the lease or sublease for your Staffing Business. If you have signed the Personnel Addendum and you, any of your owners or any of your or their affiliates, owns the Office of your Staffing Business, we and you shall (and, if applicable, you or such owner shall cause such affiliate to) enter into a lease for the Office on reasonable terms and conditions that are commercially reasonable in light of the location and condition of the Office and other relevant circumstances. We shall have the unrestricted right to assign this option to purchase. We or our assignee shall be entitled to all customary warranties and representations given by the seller of a business including representations and warranties as to: (1) ownership, condition and title to assets; (2) liens and encumbrances relating to the assets; and (3) validity of contracts and liabilities, inuring to us or affecting the assets, contingent or otherwise. As part of the terms of any such purchase, you and your owners will provide us or our assignee indemnification consistent with your indemnification obligations included in Section 10.D of this Agreement.

The purchase price for the assets of your Staffing Business shall be the product of the earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) of your Staffing Business for the twelve (12) month period ending ten (10) days immediately preceding the closing date, multiplied by three (3). We shall have the right to set off against and reduce the purchase price by any and all amounts owed by you to us, the amount of any liabilities assumed by us, and the amount necessary to modify or replace any assets so that your Staffing Business meets our then-current standards and specifications for Staffing Business.

The purchase price shall be paid in cash at the closing of the purchase, which shall take place no later than ninety (90) days after your receipt of our notice of exercise of this option to purchase, at which time you shall deliver instruments transferring to us or our assignee: (i) good and merchantable title to the assets purchased, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances (other than liens and security interests acceptable to us or our assignee), with all sales and other transfer taxes paid by you; (ii) all licenses and permits of your Staffing Business which may be assigned or transferred; and (iii) if you have signed the Personnel Addendum, the lease or sublease for the Office. In the event that you cannot deliver clear title to all of the purchased assets as aforesaid, or in the event there shall be other unresolved issues, the closing of the sale shall be accomplished through an escrow. Further, you and we shall, prior to closing, comply with all applicable legal requirements, including the bulk sales provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code of the state in which your Staffing Business is located and the bulk sales provisions of any applicable tax laws and regulations. You shall, prior to or simultaneously with the closing of the purchase, pay all tax liabilities incurred in connection with the operation of your Staffing Business.

During the Election Period and, if we or our assignee exercises this option to purchase, until the closing of such purchase as hereinabove provided, we shall have the right to assume (or to designate a third party to assume) operations of the Staffing Business until the closing or such earlier time we elect. During such interim operations, you acknowledge and agree that we will own all Gross Revenue of the Staffing Business. We may elect to be (or to designate a third party to be) the employer of record for all Assigned Temporary Workers during such interim operations. You will not prohibit your employees from working for us or the designated third party during the Election Period or thereafter if we elect to exercise our purchase option under this Section 18. Alternatively, we may require you to close your Staffing Business during such time period without removing any assets from your Staffing Business. In either case, you shall maintain in force all insurance policies and business licenses required pursuant to this Agreement, through the date of closing. If you have signed the Personnel Addendum and the Office of your Staffing Business is leased, we agree to use reasonable efforts to effect a termination of the existing lease for the Office and enter into a new lease on reasonable terms with the landlord. In the event we are unable to enter into a new lease and your rights under the lease for the Office are assigned to us or we sublease the Office from you, we will indemnify and hold you harmless from any ongoing liability under the lease from the date we assume possession of the Office.

19. ENFORCEMENT.

19.A. SEVERABILITY AND SUBSTITUTION OF VALID PROVISIONS.

Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, each section, paragraph, term, and provision of this Agreement is severable, and if any part of this Agreement is held to be invalid or contrary to or in conflict with any applicable present or future law or regulation for any reason (in a final, unappealable ruling issued by any court, agency, or tribunal with competent jurisdiction), that ruling will not impair the operation of, or otherwise affect, any other portions of this Agreement, which will continue to have full force and effect and bind the parties.

If any covenant which restricts competitive activity is deemed unenforceable by virtue of its scope in terms of area, business activity prohibited, and/or length of time, but would be enforceable if modified, you and we agree that the covenant will be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in the jurisdiction whose law determines the covenant's validity.

If any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction requires more notice of this Agreement's termination than this Agreement requires, or some other action that this Agreement does not require, or any provision of this Agreement or any System Standard is invalid, unenforceable, or unlawful, the notice and/or other action required by the law or rule will be substituted for the comparable provisions of this Agreement, and we may modify the invalid or unenforceable provision or System Standard to the extent required to be valid and enforceable or delete the unlawful provision in its entirety. You agree to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty the law permits which is subsumed within any provision of this Agreement, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement.

19.B. WAIVER OF OBLIGATIONS.

We and you may by written instrument unilaterally waive or reduce any obligation of or restriction on the other under this Agreement, effective on delivery of written notice to the other or another effective date stated in the notice of waiver. Any waiver granted will be without prejudice to any other rights we or you have, will be subject to continuing review, and may be revoked at any time and for any reason effective on delivery of ten (10) days' prior written notice.

We and you will not waive or impair any right, power, or option this Agreement reserves (including our right to demand exact compliance with every term, condition, and covenant or to declare any breach to be a default and to terminate this Agreement before its term expires) because of any custom or practice at variance with this Agreement's terms; our or your failure, refusal, or neglect to exercise any right under this Agreement or to insist on the other's compliance with this Agreement, including any System Standard; our waiver of or failure to exercise any right, power, or option, whether of the same, similar, or different nature, with other Staffing Businesses; the existence of franchise agreements for other Staffing Businesses which contain provisions different from those contained in this Agreement; or our acceptance of any payments due from you after any breach of this Agreement. No special or restrictive legend or endorsement on any check or similar item given to us will be a waiver, compromise, settlement, or accord and satisfaction. We are authorized to remove any legend or endorsement, which then will have no effect.

The following provision applies if you or the franchise granted hereby are subject to the franchise registration or disclosure laws in California, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, or Wisconsin: No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

19.C. SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE / INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.

Nothing in this Agreement, including the provisions of Section 19.E, bars our right to obtain specific performance of the provisions of this Agreement and injunctive relief against any threatened or actual conduct that will cause us, the Marks, or the Franchise System loss or damage, under customary equity rules, including applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and temporary or preliminary injunctions. You agree that we may seek such relief from any court of competent jurisdiction in addition to such further or other relief as may be available to us at law or in equity. You agree that we will not be required to post a bond to obtain injunctive relief and that your only remedy if an injunction is entered against you will be the dissolution of that injunction, if warranted, upon due hearing (all claims for damages by injunction being expressly waived hereby).

19.D. RIGHTS OF PARTIES ARE CUMULATIVE.

Our and your rights under this Agreement are cumulative, and our or your exercise or enforcement of any right or remedy under this Agreement will not preclude our or your exercise or enforcement of any other right or remedy which we or you are entitled by law to enforce.

19.E. ARBITRATION.

We and you agree that all controversies, disputes, or claims between us or any of our affiliates, and our and their respective owners, officers, directors, agents, and employees, on the one hand, and you (and your owners, guarantors, affiliates, and employees), on the other hand, arising out of or related to: (1) this Agreement or any other agreement between you (or any of your owners) and us (or any of our affiliates); (2) our relationship with you; (3) the scope or validity of this Agreement or any other agreement between you (or any of your owners) and us (or any of our affiliates) or any provision of any of such agreements (including the validity and scope of the arbitration provision under this Section, which we and you acknowledge is to be determined by an arbitrator, not a court); or (4) any System Standard, must be submitted for binding arbitration, on demand of either party, to the American Arbitration Association (the “AAA”). The arbitration proceedings will be conducted by one arbitrator and, except as this Section otherwise provides, according to the AAA’s then current Commercial Arbitration Rules. All proceedings will be conducted at a suitable location chosen by the arbitrator that is within 50 miles of our or, as applicable, our successor’s or assign’s, then-current principal place of business (currently, Knoxville, Tennessee). All matters relating to arbitration will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.). The interim and final awards of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon each party, and judgment upon the arbitrator’s awards may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

The arbitrator has the right to award or include in his or her awards any relief which he or she deems proper, including money damages, pre- and post-award interest, interim costs and attorneys’ fees, specific performance, and injunctive relief, provided that the arbitrator may not declare any of the trademarks owned by us or our affiliates generic or otherwise invalid, or award any punitive or exemplary damages against any party to the arbitration proceeding (we and you hereby waiving to the fullest extent permitted by law any such right to or claim for any punitive or exemplary damages against any party to the arbitration proceeding). In any arbitration brought pursuant to this arbitration provision, and in any action in which a party seeks to enforce compliance with this arbitration provision, the prevailing party shall be awarded its costs and expenses, including attorneys’ fees incurred in connection therewith.

We and you agree to be bound by the provisions of any applicable contractual or statutory limitations provision, whichever expires earlier. We and you further agree that, in any arbitration proceeding, each party must submit or file any claim which would constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding. Any claim which is not submitted or filed as required will be forever barred. The arbitrator may not consider any settlement discussions or offers that might have been made by either you or us.

WE AND YOU AGREE THAT ARBITRATION WILL BE CONDUCTED ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS AND THAT AN ARBITRATION PROCEEDING BETWEEN US AND ANY OF OUR AFFILIATES, OR OUR AND THEIR RESPECTIVE OWNERS, OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AGENTS, AND EMPLOYEES, ON THE ONE HAND, AND YOU (OR YOUR OWNERS, GUARANTORS, AFFILIATES, AND EMPLOYEES), ON THE OTHER HAND, MAY NOT BE: (I) CONDUCTED ON A CLASS-WIDE BASIS, (II) COMMENCED, CONDUCTED OR CONSOLIDATED WITH ANY OTHER ARBITRATION PROCEEDING, (III) JOINED WITH ANY SEPARATE CLAIM OF AN UNAFFILIATED THIRD-PARTY, OR (IV) BROUGHT ON YOUR BEHALF BY ANY

ASSOCIATION OR AGENT. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any court or arbitrator determines that all or any part of the preceding sentence is unenforceable with respect to a dispute, controversy or claim that otherwise would be subject to arbitration under this Section, then all parties agree that this arbitration clause shall not apply to that dispute, controversy or claim and that such dispute, controversy or claim shall be resolved in a judicial proceeding in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions of this Agreement.

We and you agree that, in any arbitration arising as described in this Section, the arbitrator shall have full authority to manage any necessary exchange of information among the parties with a view to achieving an efficient and economical resolution of the dispute. The parties may only serve reasonable requests for documents, which must be limited to documents upon which a party intends to rely or documents that are directly relevant and material to a significant disputed issue in the case or to the case's outcome. The document requests shall be restricted in terms of time frame, subject matter and persons or entities to which the requests pertain, and shall not include broad phraseology such as "all documents directly or indirectly related to." You and we further agree that no interrogatories or requests to admit shall be propounded, unless the parties later mutually agree to their use.

With respect to any discovery of electronically stored information, you and we agree that such requests must balance the need for production of electronically stored information relevant and material to the outcome of a disputed issue against the cost of locating and producing such information. You and we agree that:

- (1) production of electronically stored information need only be from sources used in the ordinary course of business. No party shall be required to search for or produce information from back-up servers, tapes, or other media;
- (2) the production of electronically stored information shall normally be made on the basis of generally available technology in a searchable format which is usable by the party receiving the information and convenient and economical for the producing party. Absent a showing of compelling need, the parties need not produce metadata, with the exception of header fields for email correspondence;
- (3) the description of custodians from whom electronically stored information may be collected shall be narrowly tailored to include only those individuals whose electronically stored information may reasonably be expected to contain evidence that is relevant and material to the outcome of a disputed issue;
- (4) the parties shall attempt to agree in advance upon, and the arbitrator may determine, reasonable search parameters; and
- (5) where the costs and burdens of electronic discovery are disproportionate to the nature of the dispute or to the amount in controversy, or to the relevance of the materials requested, the arbitrator shall either deny such requests or order disclosure on condition that the requesting party advance the reasonable cost of production to the other side, which cost advance will not be awarded to the prevailing party in any final award.

In any arbitration each side may take no more than three depositions, unless the parties mutually agree to additional depositions. Each side's depositions are to consume no more than a total of 15 hours, and each deposition shall be limited to 5 hours, unless the parties mutually agree to additional time.

The provisions of this Section are intended to benefit and bind certain third-party non-signatories. The provisions of this Section will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement. Any provisions of this Agreement below that pertain to judicial proceedings shall be subject to the agreement to arbitrate contained in this Section.

19.F. COSTS AND ATTORNEYS' FEES.

The prevailing party in any arbitration or litigation shall be entitled to recover from the other party all damages, costs and expenses, including arbitration and court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the prevailing party in connection with such arbitration or litigation.

19.G. GOVERNING LAW.

ALL MATTERS RELATING TO ARBITRATION WILL BE GOVERNED BY THE FEDERAL ARBITRATION ACT (9 U.S.C. §§ 1 ET SEQ.). EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT GOVERNED BY THE FEDERAL ARBITRATION ACT, THE UNITED STATES TRADEMARK ACT OF 1946 (LANHAM ACT, 15 U.S.C. SECTIONS 1051 ET SEQ.), OR OTHER FEDERAL LAW, THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY RELATED AGREEMENTS, THE FRANCHISE, AND ALL CLAIMS ARISING FROM THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN US (OR ANY OF OUR AFFILIATES, AND OUR AND THEIR RESPECTIVE OWNERS, OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AGENTS, REPRESENTATIVES, AND EMPLOYEES) AND YOU (AND YOUR RESPECTIVE OWNERS, GUARANTORS, AFFILIATES, AND EMPLOYEES) WILL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, WITHOUT REGARD TO ITS CONFLICT OF LAWS RULES, EXCEPT THAT ANY STATE LAW REGULATING THE OFFER OR SALE OF FRANCHISES OR GOVERNING THE RELATIONSHIP OF A FRANCHISOR AND ITS FRANCHISEE WILL NOT APPLY UNLESS ITS JURISDICTIONAL REQUIREMENTS ARE MET INDEPENDENTLY WITHOUT REFERENCE TO THIS SECTION.

19.H. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION.

SUBJECT TO SECTION 19.E ABOVE AND THE PROVISIONS BELOW, WE AND YOU (AND YOUR OWNERS) AGREE THAT ALL ACTIONS ARISING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY RELATED AGREEMENTS, OR OTHERWISE AS A RESULT OF THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN YOU (AND YOUR RESPECTIVE OWNERS, GUARANTORS, AFFILIATES, AND EMPLOYEES) AND US (OR ANY OF OUR AFFILIATES, AND OUR AND THEIR RESPECTIVE OWNERS, OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AGENTS, REPRESENTATIVES, AND EMPLOYEES) MUST BE COMMENCED IN THE STATE OR FEDERAL COURT CLOSEST TO OUR OR, AS APPLICABLE, OUR SUCCESSOR'S OR ASSIGN'S, THEN-CURRENT PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS (CURRENTLY, KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE), AND WE AND YOU (AND EACH OWNER) IRREVOCABLY CONSENT TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THOSE COURTS AND WAIVE ANY OBJECTION TO EITHER THE JURISDICTION OF OR VENUE IN THOSE COURTS. NONETHELESS, WE AND YOU (AND YOUR OWNERS) AGREE THAT ANY OF US MAY ENFORCE ANY ARBITRATION ORDERS AND AWARDS IN THE COURTS OF THE STATE OR STATES IN WHICH YOU ARE DOMICILED OR YOUR BUSINESS IS LOCATED.

19.I. VARIANCES.

You acknowledge that we have and may at different times, in our absolute and sole discretion, approve exceptions or changes from the uniform standards of the Franchise System, which we deem desirable or necessary under particular circumstances. You understand that you have no right to object to or automatically obtain such variances, and that we must approve in advance and in writing any exception or change in advance. You understand that existing franchisees may operate under different forms of agreements and that the rights and obligations of existing franchisees may differ materially from this Agreement.

19.J. LIMITATIONS OF CLAIMS AND CLASS ACTION BAR.

EXCEPT FOR CLAIMS ARISING FROM YOUR NON-PAYMENT OR UNDERPAYMENT OF AMOUNTS YOU OWE US, ANY AND ALL CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH YOU WILL BE BARRED UNLESS A JUDICIAL OR ARBITRATION PROCEEDING IS COMMENCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS AGREEMENT WITHIN ONE (1) YEAR FROM THE DATE ON WHICH THE PARTY ASSERTING THE CLAIM KNEW OR SHOULD HAVE KNOWN OF THE FACTS GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIMS.

WE AND YOU AGREE THAT ANY PROCEEDING WILL BE CONDUCTED ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS AND THAT ANY PROCEEDING BETWEEN US AND ANY OF OUR AFFILIATES, OR OUR AND THEIR RESPECTIVE OWNERS, OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AGENTS, AND EMPLOYEES, ON THE ONE HAND, AND YOU (OR YOUR OWNERS, GUARANTORS, AFFILIATES, AND EMPLOYEES), ON THE OTHER HAND, MAY NOT BE: (I) CONDUCTED ON A CLASS-WIDE BASIS, (II) COMMENCED, CONDUCTED OR CONSOLIDATED WITH ANY OTHER PROCEEDING, (III) JOINED WITH ANY CLAIM OF AN UNAFFILIATED THIRD-PARTY, OR (IV) BROUGHT ON YOUR BEHALF BY ANY ASSOCIATION OR AGENT.

NO PREVIOUS COURSE OF DEALING SHALL BE ADMISSIBLE TO EXPLAIN, MODIFY, OR CONTRADICT THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT. NO IMPLIED COVENANT OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING SHALL BE USED TO ALTER THE EXPRESS TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT.

19.K. WAIVER OF PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

EXCEPT FOR YOUR OBLIGATION TO INDEMNIFY US FOR THIRD-PARTY CLAIMS UNDER SECTION 10.D, WE AND YOU (AND YOUR OWNERS) WAIVE TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW ANY RIGHT TO OR CLAIM FOR ANY PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES AGAINST THE OTHER AND AGREE THAT, IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE BETWEEN US AND YOU, THE PARTY MAKING A CLAIM WILL BE LIMITED TO EQUITABLE RELIEF AND TO RECOVERY OF ANY ACTUAL DAMAGES IT SUSTAINS.

19.L. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

WE AND YOU IRREVOCABLY WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING, BROUGHT BY EITHER OF US.

19.M. BINDING EFFECT.

This Agreement is binding on us and you and our and your respective executors, administrators, heirs, beneficiaries, permitted assigns, and successors in interest. Subject to our right to modify the Operations Manual and System Standards, this Agreement may not be modified except by a written agreement signed by both our and your duly authorized officers.

19.N. CONSTRUCTION.

The preambles and exhibits hereto are a part of this Agreement which, together with the System Standards contained in the Operations Manual (which may be periodically modified, as provided in this Agreement), constitutes our and your entire agreement, and there are no other oral or written understandings or agreements between us and you, or oral or written representations by us, relating to the subject matter of this Agreement, the franchise relationship, or your Staffing Business. Any understandings or agreements reached, or any representations made, before this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement. Nothing in this or in any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document that we furnished to you.

Any policies that we adopt and implement from time to time to guide us in our decision-making are subject to change, are not a part of this Agreement, and are not binding on us.

Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement is intended or deemed to confer any rights or remedies on any person or legal entity not a party to this Agreement.

You agree that whenever this Agreement allows or requires us to take actions or make decisions, we may do so in our sole and unfettered discretion, even if you believe our action or decision is unreasonable, unless the Agreement expressly and specifically requires that we act reasonably or refrain from acting unreasonably in connection with the particular action or decision. The headings of the sections and paragraphs are for convenience only and do not define, limit, or construe the contents of these sections or paragraphs.

References in this Agreement to “we,” “us,” and “our,” with respect to all of our rights and all of your obligations to us under this Agreement, include any of our affiliates with whom you deal. The term “affiliate” means any person or entity directly or indirectly owned or controlled by, under common control with, or owning or controlling you or us. The term “control” means the power to direct or cause the direction of management and policies. The use of the term “including” in this Agreement, means in each case “including, without limitation”.

If two or more persons are at any time the owners of your Staffing Business, whether as partners or joint venturers, their obligations and liabilities to us will be joint and several. References to “owner” mean any person holding a direct or indirect ownership interest (whether of record, beneficially, or otherwise) or voting rights in you (or a transferee of this Agreement and your Staffing Business or an ownership interest in you), including any person who has a direct or indirect interest in you (or a transferee), this Agreement or your Staffing Business and any person who has any other legal or equitable interest, or the power to vest in himself or herself any legal or equitable interest, in their revenue, profits, rights, or assets.

The term “your Staffing Business” includes all of the assets of your Staffing Business you operate under this Agreement, including its revenue and the lease for the Office, if applicable.

19.O. DELEGATION OF PERFORMANCE.

You agree that we have the right to delegate the performance of any portion or all of our obligations under this Agreement to third party designees, whether these designees are our agents or independent contractors with whom we have contracted to perform these obligations. If we do so, such third-party designees will be obligated to perform the delegated functions for you in compliance with this Agreement.

19.P. GRANT OF SECURITY INTEREST TO US.

You irrevocably and unconditionally authorize us (or our designee) to file at any time and from time to time such financing statements with respect to the Gross Invoice Amounts and Related Assets naming you as seller/debtor and us as buyer/secured party, as we may require in our discretion. Such authorization shall apply to all financing statements filed on, prior to or after the date of this Agreement.

20. NOTICES AND PAYMENTS.

All written notices, payments and reports permitted or required to be delivered by the provisions of this Agreement or the Operations Manual shall be deemed so delivered on the earlier of the date of actual delivery or one of the following: (a) at the time of transmission if delivered by email; (b) one business day after being placed in the hands of a nationally recognized commercial courier service for next business day delivery; or (c) three business days after placement in the United States Mail by Registered or Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, postage prepaid and addressed to the party to be notified at its most current principal business address of which the notifying party has been notified. Notices must be sent to the party to be notified at its address shown set forth on the first page of this Agreement, or the most current principal business address of which the notifying party has notice. Any notice that we send to you by electronic means will be deemed delivered if it (i) is sent to your email address listed in the Agreement or any other email address of which you have notified us, and/or any branded email address we issue you that is associated with a Franchise System website; and (ii) is delivered to the server on which your email address resides:

21. BUSINESS JUDGMENT.

We retain the right to operate, develop and change the Franchise System and the products and services offered by Staffing Businesses in any manner that is not specifically prohibited in this Agreement. Whenever we have reserved the right in this Agreement to take or refrain from taking any action, or to prohibit you from taking or refraining from any action, we may, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, make our decision or exercise our rights based on the information then readily available to us and on our judgment of what is in our best interests, the best interests of our affiliates and/or the best interests of Staffing Business as a whole at the time the decision is made, regardless of whether we could have made other reasonable, or even arguably preferable, alternative decisions and regardless of whether our decision or action promotes our interests, those of our affiliates or any other person or entity.

APPENDIX 1

GUARANTY AND ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATIONS

THIS GUARANTY AND ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATIONS IS GIVEN AS OF _____, _____, by _____

(the "Guarantor").

In consideration of, and as an inducement to, the execution of that certain Franchise Agreement of even date (as amended, modified, restated or supplemented from time to time, the "Agreement") by AtWork Franchise, Inc. (the "Franchisor"), and _____ ("Franchisee"), each of the undersigned hereby personally and unconditionally (a) guarantees to Franchisor, and its successor and assigns, for the term of the Agreement and afterward as provided in the Agreement, that Franchisee shall punctually pay and perform each and every undertaking, agreement and covenant set forth in the Agreement, and (b) agrees to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every provision in the Agreement, both monetary obligations and obligations to take or refrain from taking specific actions or to engage or refrain from engaging in specific activities.

Each of the undersigned waives: (1) acceptance and notice of acceptance by Franchisor of the foregoing undertakings; (2) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations guaranteed; (3) protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations guaranteed; and (4) any right he/she may have to require that an action be brought against Franchisee or any other person as a condition of liability. Each of the undersigned consents and agrees that: (1) his/her direct and immediate liability under this guaranty shall be joint and several; (2) he/she shall render any payment or performance required under the Agreement upon demand if Franchisee fails or refuses punctually to do so; (3) liability shall not be contingent or conditioned upon pursuit by Franchisor of any remedies against Franchisee or any other person; (4) liability shall not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which Franchisor may grant to Franchisee or to any other person, including the acceptance of any partial payment or performance, or the compromise or release of any claims, none of which shall in any way modify or amend this guaranty, which shall be continuing and irrevocable during the term of the Agreement; and (5) upon Franchisor's request, he or she must submit to Franchisor suitable credit and financial information to allow Franchisor to make a reasonable decision as to the undersigned's creditworthiness and financial position including, without limitation, a personal net worth statement and such other information which would reasonably be considered relevant to Franchisor in determining whether or not the undersigned has the ability to satisfy his or her obligations under this Guaranty.

Each of the undersigned Guarantors represents and warrants that, by signing the Guaranty: (a) the financial statements and other financial information that Guarantor submitted to Franchisor identify the separate property of Guarantor and any marital property (community property) against which Franchisor may enforce its rights under this Guaranty and do not include any separate property of Guarantor's spouse against which Franchisor may not enforce this Guaranty; (b) if no signature appears below for such Guarantor's spouse, such Guarantor is either not married or, if married, is a resident of a state which does not require the consent of both spouses to encumber the assets of a marital estate (e.g., community property); and (c) if Guarantor's spouse signs below to indicate his/her consent to the Guarantor giving such Guaranty, then such consent also serves to bind the assets of the marital estate to Guarantor's performance of this Guaranty.

Guarantor hereby consents and agrees that:

Guaranty-1

(1) Guarantor's liability under this undertaking shall be direct, immediate, and independent of the liability of, and shall be joint and several with, Franchisee and the other parties who may be held liable for Franchisee's performance of the Agreement;

(2) Guarantor shall render any payment or performance required under the Agreement upon demand if Franchisee fails or refuses punctually to do so;

(3) This undertaking will continue unchanged by the occurrence of any bankruptcy with respect to Franchisee or any assignee or successor of Franchisee or by any abandonment of the Agreement by a trustee of Franchisee. Neither the Guarantor's obligations to make payment or render performance in accordance with the terms of this undertaking nor any remedy for enforcement shall be impaired, modified, changed, released or limited in any manner whatsoever by any impairment, modification, change, release or limitation of the liability of Franchisee or its estate in bankruptcy or of any remedy for enforcement, resulting from the operation of any present or future provision of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code or other statute, or from the decision of any court or agency;

(4) Franchisor may proceed against Guarantor and Franchisee jointly and severally, or Franchisor may, at its option, proceed against Guarantor, without having commenced any action, or having obtained any judgment against Franchisee. Guarantor hereby waives the defense of the statute of limitations in any action hereunder or for the collection of any indebtedness or the performance of any obligation hereby guaranteed;

(5) Guarantor agrees to pay all reasonable attorneys' fees and all costs and other expenses incurred in any collection or attempt to collect amounts due pursuant to this undertaking or any negotiations relative to the obligations hereby guaranteed or in enforcing this undertaking against Guarantor; and

(6) Guarantor agrees that the provisions contained in Section 19.E (Arbitration), Section 19.F (Costs and Attorneys' Fees), Section 19.G (Governing Law), and Section 19.H (Consent to Jurisdiction) of the Agreement are incorporated into this Guaranty by reference and shall govern this Guaranty and any dispute between Guarantor and Franchisor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the undersigned has affixed his signature on the same day and year as the Agreement was executed.

EXHIBIT A -1 TO THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

PERSONNEL BUSINESS ADDENDUM

THIS PERSONNEL BUSINESS ADDENDUM (this “Addendum”) is entered into and made effective as of the Effective Date of the Franchise Agreement signed concurrently herewith (“Franchise Agreement”) by and between ATWORK FRANCHISE, INC. (“we,” “us,” or “our”), and _____, a(n) _____ (“you” or “your”).

1. Background. This Addendum is annexed to and forms part of the Franchise Agreement. This Addendum is being signed because the Staffing Business you will operate under the Franchise Agreement is a Personnel Business. Capitalized terms used, but not defined, herein shall have the meanings given them in the Franchise Agreement.

2. Initial Franchise Fee. The Initial Franchise Fee is $40,000.

3. Royalty Fee. Subject to the adjustments set forth in Section 4.B of the Franchise Agreement, the Royalty is equal to seven percent (7%) of Gross Revenue derived during the preceding month; provided, however, the Royalty will be equal to ten percent (10%) of Gross Revenue derived from the placement of Full-Time Placements with customers.

4. Minimum Grand Opening Spend. The Minimum Grand Opening Spend is $5,000.

5. Protected Territory. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Franchise Agreement, and subject to your compliance with this Agreement, neither we nor any affiliate shall establish or authorize any person or entity to establish a Personnel Business using the Marks that sells services offering temporary clerical and light industrial personnel to customers located in the area described in Exhibit A-1(A) (the “Protected Territory”) during the Term; provided, however, if the population of the Protected Territory increases by more than fifty percent (50%) (as measured by whichever demographic reports we elect to use) during the Term, we may, at our sole discretion, reduce the size of your Protected Territory; provided, however, you would be permitted to retain any then-existing accounts for customers you serviced in your original Protected Territory.

Except for the limited circumstances described in Section 7 of this Addendum, you are prohibited from soliciting or selling services offering temporary clerical and light industrial personnel to customers located outside of the Protected Territory.

6. Territorial Rights We Reserve. You acknowledge and agree that the franchise granted under this Agreement is non-exclusive. Other than your Protected Territory, you have no territorial protection and we (and our affiliates) retain all rights with respect to the placement of Personnel Businesses and other businesses using the Marks, the sale of similar or dissimilar products and services, and any other activities. These rights include:

(1) the right to establish and operate, and allow others to establish and operate, staffing businesses (including businesses offering professional services placements and Full-Time Placements) other than Personnel Businesses using the Marks or the Franchise System, at any location within or outside of the Protected Territory, and on any terms and conditions we approve;

(2) the right to serve or authorize others to serve National/Regional/Onsite Account Customers (defined in Section 14 of this Addendum) at locations within your Protected Territory on an ongoing basis if you are unqualified or unwilling to do so, or if a particular National/Regional/Onsite Account Customer specifies to us in writing that it wishes to use another franchisee, according to the procedures and upon the terms described in the Operations Manual, as revised from time to time, for our National/Regional/Onsite Account Contract Program (defined in Section 14 of this Addendum), if one is instituted;

(3) the right to establish and operate, and allow others to establish and operate, other Personnel Businesses using the Marks or the Franchise System, at any location outside the Protected Territory, and on any terms and conditions we approve;

(4) the right to establish and operate, allow others to establish and operate, or acquire the ownership interests or assets of another business that establishes or operates, any business using trade names, trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols other than the Marks (including other personnel businesses), anywhere in the world (including in the Protected Territory), regardless of the nature or location of the customers of such business, which may offer products and services that may be identical or similar to products and services offered by Personnel Businesses;

(5) the right to establish, and allow others to establish, other distribution channels (including the internet) wherever located or operating, including within your Protected Territory, regardless of the nature or location of the customers, with whom such other distribution channels do business, that operate under the Marks or any other trade names, trademarks, service marks or commercial symbols that are the same as or different from Personnel Businesses, and that sell products and/or services that are identical or similar to, and/or competitive with, those that Personnel Businesses customarily sell under any terms and conditions we approve;

(6) the right to acquire the assets or ownership interests of one or more businesses that operate, or grant franchises or licenses to operate, one or more personnel businesses located or operating within or outside the Protected Territory, notwithstanding the fact that such personnel service businesses may be the same as or similar to Personnel Businesses; and in the event of such an acquisition, we or our affiliates (as applicable) shall have the right to continue to operate such personnel businesses and to develop additional personnel businesses of such concept, and to grant others the right to develop and operate personnel businesses of such concept, both within and outside the Protected Territory;

(7) the right to be acquired (regardless of the form of transaction) by a business, whether or not such business is a Competitive Business (defined in Section 6.A), even if such business operates, franchises and/or grants licenses for the operation of staffing businesses which may be the same as or similar to Personnel Businesses within the Protected Territory; and in the event of such an acquisition, the acquirer and its affiliates (as applicable) shall have the right to continue to operate such personnel businesses and to develop additional personnel businesses of such concept, and to grant others the right to develop and operate staffing businesses of such concept, both within and outside the Protected Territory; and

(8) engage in all other activities not expressly prohibited by this Agreement, both within and outside of the Protected Territory.

7. Operation Outside Your Protected Territory. You acknowledge that you may not provide services to any customers outside of your Protected Territory unless we have provided our prior written consent. We will grant our consent only upon your satisfaction of the following conditions:

(1) The area in which you wish to provide service is not included in another franchisee's territory or in an area currently served by a company-owned Staffing Business.

(2) You may not conduct any advertising targeting customers outside your Protected Territory unless you can completely discontinue the advertising on thirty (30) days' notice or less.

(3) If and when the area is granted to another franchisee, you agree to immediately stop providing services and turn over your list of prospects and customers in the external area to the franchisee to which the area has been granted without seeking or accepting any compensation for doing so. You must immediately discontinue any advertising you have directed to customers in the area.

(4) You agree to immediately stop serving customers in the external area if we withdraw our consent to your operating there. Failure to stop serving customers in the external area within thirty (30) days after written notice is grounds for our termination of your franchise.

If another AtWork franchisee violates this or any similar restriction under an agreement with us, we are not obligated to compensate you for any staffing services such franchisee may have provided in your Protected Territory.

8. Non-Exclusive Right to Offer Full-Time Placement. In addition to providing Assigned Temporary Workers to customers in the Protected Territory, we grant you, during the Term, the non-exclusive right to use the Franchise System and the Marks to offer Full-Time Placements to customers located within the Protected Territory. Unless we provide prior written consent, you will not offer Full-Time Placements to customers located outside the Protected Territory. You acknowledge that other AtWork franchisees may have the right to offer Full-Time Placements and professional employee placements within the Protected Territory, and you agree to abide by any restrictions we place on your right to offer Full-Time Placements.

9. Site Selection. We must approve the location for the Office. You will submit to us a complete report for a site you propose located within your Protected Territory for your Personnel Business. Your report must contain the documents and information we require, including a description of the proposed site, and a letter of intent or other evidence confirming your favorable prospects for obtaining the proposed site. We may also require that you hire a service provider that we designate, which may be one of our affiliates, to assist you with the site selection process.

We have the right to accept or not accept all proposed sites, including sites selected using the services of any of our designees, in our sole discretion. We will use reasonable efforts to accept or not accept the proposed site within thirty (30) days after receiving your report. After we approve a site, and after you secure the site, such site will be your Office.

You acknowledge and agree that your acceptance of a site is based on your own independent investigation of the site's suitability for a Personnel Business. Our recommendations and assistance indicate only that we believe that the site and location meet our then-acceptable criteria. Applying criteria that have appeared effective with other sites and locations might not accurately reflect the potential for all sites and locations, and factors included in or excluded from our criteria could change, altering the potential of a site or location. The uncertainty and variability of these criteria are beyond our control, and we are not responsible if a site and location we recommend fails to meet your expectations.

You may not relocate your Personnel Business to a location other than the Office without our approval.

10. Development and Construction of your Personnel Business. You are responsible for developing the Office and maintaining the Office in a safe, orderly, businesslike, and clean state, and keeping it properly staffed, furnished, and identified as an AtWork office. You may not offer or conduct any other services other than those authorized by this Agreement from the Office. If you need to secure financing to complete your development obligations, you agree to do so independently and at your own expense. We may, but are not obligated to, give you mandatory and suggested specifications for the Office, including requirements for dimensions, design, image, interior layout, decor, fixtures, equipment, signs, furnishings, and color scheme. You agree to develop, construct and decorate the Office at your own expense. It is your responsibility to confirm all required construction plans and specifications comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act and all other applicable ordinances, building codes, permit requirements, and requirements and restrictions under your lease.

11. Lease of Site. You must, on your own initiative and at your own expense, lease (or buy) and occupy the approved location for the Office. We do not provide you with any assistance in approving or negotiating the lease (or purchase agreement) for the location for the Office. You may use the Office only for your Personnel Business. You agree not to conduct the business of your Personnel Business at any site other than the Office.

12. Commencement of Business. In addition to the pre-opening conditions set forth in Section 2.B of the Franchise Agreement, you may not commence operating your Staffing Business until: (i) you have obtained the right to occupy the Office (either by lease or purchase) and have completed the build-out of and furnished the Office as necessary to operate your Personnel Business, and (ii) you have hired no fewer than two (2) internal staff members to work full-time at your Personnel Business.

13. Risk Management Reserve. You acknowledge that the Risk Management Reserve must be deposited for any additional territory that may be added to the Protected Territory (and the Minimum Reserve and Maximum Reserve for such Risk Management Reserve will be determined based on such additional territory), and if you or your affiliate sign another franchise agreement with us, your Risk Management Reserve obligations will be set forth in such other franchise agreement.

14. National/Regional/Onsite Contract Program. We may, in our sole discretion, institute and administer a “National/Regional/Onsite Contract Program,” operated according to written procedures in the Operations Manual, as revised from time to time, to enable the Franchise System to accommodate the needs of National/Regional/Onsite Account Customers. A “National/Regional/Onsite Account Customer” means a customer that conducts its business in more than one company or franchisee territory and that we have designated as a “National/Regional/Onsite Account Customer.” If we institute a National/Regional/Onsite Contract Program, and we determine that you qualify to participate (using the qualification standards that we establish in the Operations Manual from time to time, which may include standards such as your length of experience with offering staffing services), you may be required to serve National/Regional/Onsite Account Customers at locations within your Protected Territory according to the procedures and upon the terms for the program described in the Operations Manual, as revised from time to time. If you are unqualified or unwilling to serve a National/Regional/Onsite Account Customer in your Protected Territory, or if a particular National/Regional/Onsite Account Customer specifies to us in writing that it wishes to use another franchisee, we have the right to serve or authorize others to serve National/Regional/Onsite Account Customers at locations within your Protected Territory on an ongoing basis.

15. Minimum Performance Standard. If you operate an additional Office pursuant to an Additional Territory Addendum, you acknowledge and agree that the Minimum Performance Standard is applicable to the Royalty of each Office individually and not in the aggregate.

16. Local Advertising. You acknowledge that the local advertising expenditure obligation set forth in Section 9.B of the Franchise Agreement must be spent for each additional territory that may be added to the Protected Territory, and if you or an affiliate sign another franchise agreement with us, your local advertising expenditure obligations will be set forth in such other franchise agreement.

17. Termination By Us. The following is added as subpart (24) to Section 16.A of the Franchise Agreement:

(24) you lose the right to occupy the Office whether or not through any fault of yours;

18. Workers' Compensation Insurance. To the extent permitted by applicable law and subject to you meeting eligibility requirements, we will accrue on your behalf, workers' compensations insurance premiums and costs for your Assigned Temporary Workers, and you will be able to draw on an accrual account as necessary to pay such premiums and costs to the relevant insurer or governmental agency.

19. Post-Term Covenant Not to Compete. As used in the Franchise Agreement, "Restricted Area" means: (i) the Office, (ii) within the Protected Territory, and (iii) within a twenty five (25) mile radius of any other Personnel Business in operation or under development on the effective date of the termination or expiration of the Franchise Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed and delivered this Addendum as of the effective date indicated below.

2. Initial Franchise Fee. The Initial Franchise Fee is $60,000.

3. Royalty Fee. Subject to the adjustments set forth in Section 4.B of the Franchise Agreement, the Royalty is equal to eight percent (8%) of Gross Revenue derived during the preceding month; provided, however, the Royalty will be equal to ten percent (10%) of Gross Revenue derived from the placement of Full-Time Placements with customers.

These rights include:

(1) the right to establish and operate, and allow others to establish and operate, staffing businesses (including businesses offering Full-Time Placements) using the Marks or the Franchise System, at any location, and on any terms and conditions we approve;

(2) the right to establish and operate, allow others to establish and operate, or acquire the ownership interests or assets of another business that establishes or operates, any business using trade names, trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols other than the Marks (including other professional businesses), anywhere in the world, regardless of the nature or location of the customers of such business, which may offer products and services that may be identical or similar to products and services offered by Professional Businesses;

(3) the right to establish, and allow others to establish, other distribution channels (including the internet) wherever located or operating, regardless of the nature or location of the customers, with whom such other distribution channels do business, that operate under the Marks or any other trade names, trademarks, service marks or commercial symbols that are the same as or different from Professional Businesses, and that sell products and/or services that are identical or similar to, and/or competitive with, those that Professional Businesses customarily sell under any terms and conditions we approve;

(4) the right to acquire the assets or ownership interests of one or more businesses that operate, or grant franchises or licenses to operate, one or more professional businesses wherever located or operated, notwithstanding the fact that such professional service businesses may be the same as or similar to Professional Businesses; and in the event of such an acquisition, we or our affiliates (as applicable) shall have the right to continue to operate such Professional Businesses and to develop additional professional businesses of such concept, and to grant others the right to develop and operate professional businesses of such concept, wherever located;

(5) the right to be acquired (regardless of the form of transaction) by a business, whether or not such business is a Competitive Business (defined in Section 6.A), even if such business operates, franchises and/or grants licenses for the operation of staffing businesses which may be the same as or similar to Professional Businesses; and in the event of such an acquisition, the acquirer and its affiliates (as applicable) shall have the right to continue to operate such professional businesses and to develop additional professional services businesses of such concept, and to grant others the right to develop and operate staffing businesses of such concept, wherever located; and

(6) engage in all other activities not expressly prohibited by this Agreement, wherever located.

6. Office. You may operate your business from your (or your Operating Partner's) residence. If, however, during the term of this Agreement, your desire for your Office to be located at physical location other than your (or your Operating Partner's) primary residence, then you will submit to us a complete report for a site you propose for the Office. We have the right to accept or not accept all proposed Office sites, including sites selected using the services of any of our designees, in our sole discretion. We will use reasonable efforts to accept or not accept the proposed Office site within thirty (30) days after receiving your report.

If we agree that you may operate your Staffing Business from an Office other than your (or your Operating Partner's) residence, you must follow the policies and procedures we implement from time to time as set forth in the Operations Manual. We may also, as a condition to granting our consent to the operation of your Staffing Business from the Office, require you to execute a form of addendum that will set forth the terms and conditions under which you must obtain, develop, operate, and maintain the Office and which may include a general release of any and all claims against us and our shareholders, officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, and assigns.

7. Employer of Record. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 7.J of the Franchise Agreement, you acknowledge and agree that we will be employer of record for all Assigned Temporary Workers of your Staffing Business. In addition to your insurance obligations under Section 8 of the Franchise Agreement, you agree to pay a monthly fee in the following amounts for the insurance we maintain for Assigned Temporary Workers you place: (a) 0.5% of your Staffing Business's gross payroll for Assigned Temporary Workers in the preceding month for general liability, auto insurance, and professional insurance, plus (b) for the workers' compensation insurance we maintain for Assigned Temporary Workers, the greater of (i) our actual costs of obtaining and maintaining such insurance, or (ii) 2.0% of your Staffing Business's gross payroll for Assigned Temporary Workers in the preceding month.

STATE ADDENDA AND AGREEMENT RIDERS

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES FOR THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT OF ATWORK FRANCHISE, INC.

The following are additional disclosures for the Franchise Disclosure Document of AtWork Franchise, Inc., required by various state franchise laws. Each provision of these additional disclosures will only apply to you if the applicable state franchise registration and disclosure law applies to you.

FOR THE FOLLOWING STATES: CALIFORNIA, HAWAII, ILLINOIS, INDIANA, MARYLAND, MICHIGAN, MINNESOTA, NEW YORK, NORTH DAKOTA, RHODE ISLAND, SOUTH DAKOTA, VIRGINIA, WASHINGTON, OR WISCONSIN.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

CALIFORNIA

Registration of this franchise does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the Commissioner of the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation.

1. THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. SECTION 31125 OF THE FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES US TO GIVE YOU A DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT APPROVED BY THE COMMISSIONER OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION & INNOVATION BEFORE WE ASK YOU TO CONSIDER A MATERIAL MODIFICATION OF YOUR FRANCHISE AGREEMENT.

3. OUR WEBSITES, www.atwork.com AND www.atworkfranchise.com, HAVE NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION & INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THE WEBSITES MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS OVERSIGHT AT www.dfpi.ca.gov.

4. California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code sections 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. The following is added at the end of Item 3:

Neither we, our parent, predecessor or affiliates nor any person in Item 2 of the Disclosure Document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. Sections 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in that association or exchange.

7. The following paragraphs are added at the end of Item 17:

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer or nonrenewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, and the law applies, the law will control.

The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete that extends beyond termination of the franchise. This provision might not be enforceable under California law.

The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision might not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sections 101 et seq.).

The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of the State of Tennessee. This provision might not be enforceable under California law.

The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

The Franchise Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will be conducted at a suitable location chosen by the arbitrator which is in or within 50 miles of our then-current principal place of business (currently Knoxville, Tennessee) with the costs being borne as provided in the Franchise Agreement. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of the Franchise Agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

The Franchise Agreement requires you to sign a general release of claims upon renewal or transfer of the Franchise Agreement. California Corporations Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order thereunder is void. Section 31512 might void a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Section 31000 – 31516). Business and Professions Code Section 20010 might void a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 – 20043).

Section 31512.1 of the California Corporations Code requires that any provision of the Franchise Agreement, Disclosure Document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable: (a) representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee; (b) reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents; (c) reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto; or (d) violations of any provision of this division.

8. The following paragraph is added to the end of Item 19:

The earnings claims figures do not reflect the costs of sales, operating expenses or other costs or expenses that must be deducted from gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your Staffing Business. Franchisees or former franchisees listed in the Franchise Disclosure Document may be one source of this information.

HAWAII

1. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

2. THESE FRANCHISES WILL BE/HAVE BEEN FILED UNDER THE FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW OF THE STATE OF HAWAII. FILING DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE DIRECTOR OF COMMERCE AND CONSUMER AFFAIRS OR A FINDING BY THE DIRECTOR OF COMMERCE AND CONSUMER AFFAIRS THAT THE INFORMATION PROVIDED HEREIN IS TRUE, COMPLETE AND NOT MISLEADING.

RIDER TO THE
FOR USE IN NORTH DAKOTA

THIS RIDER is made and entered into by and between ATWORK FRANCHISE, INC., a Tennessee corporation with our principal business address at 3215 John Sevier Highway, Knoxville, Tennessee 37920 (“we”) and _____, having its principal business address at _____ (“you”).

1. BACKGROUND. We and you are parties to that certain Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Franchise Agreement”). This Rider is annexed to and forms part of the Franchise Agreement. This Rider is being signed because (a) you are a resident of North Dakota and the Staffing Business that you will operate under the Franchise Agreement will be located or operated in North Dakota; and/or (b) any of the offering or sales activity relating to the Franchise Agreement occurred in North Dakota.

2. RELEASES. The following is added to the end of Sections 14.C.(3) and 15.A.(5) of the Franchise Agreement:

We and you acknowledge that certain parts of this provision might not be enforceable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. Accordingly, this Section will not be enforced to the extent prohibited by applicable law.

4. ARBITRATION. The first paragraph of Section 19.E of the Franchise Agreement is amended to read as follows:

E. Arbitration. We and you agree that all controversies, disputes, or claims between us or any of our affiliates, and our and their respective owners, officers, directors, agents, and employees on the one hand, and you (and your owners, guarantors, affiliates, and/or employees), on the other hand, arising out of or related to:

(1) this Agreement or any other agreement between you (or any of your owners) and us (or any of our affiliates); (2) our relationship with you; (3) the scope or validity of this Agreement or any other agreement between you (or any of your owners) and us (or any of our affiliates) or any provision of any such agreements (including the validity and scope of the arbitration provision under this Section, which we and you acknowledge is to be determined by an arbitrator, not a court); or (4) any System Standard;

must be submitted for binding arbitration, on demand of either party, to the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”). The arbitration proceedings will be conducted by one arbitrator and, except as this Section otherwise provides, according to the AAA’s then-current Commercial Arbitration Rules. All proceedings will be conducted at a suitable location chosen by the arbitrator that is within 50 miles of our or, as applicable, our successor’s or assign’s then-current principal place of business (currently, Knoxville, Tennessee); provided, however, that to the extent otherwise required by the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law (unless such a requirement is preempted by the Federal Arbitration Act), arbitration shall be held at a site to which we and you mutually agree. All matters relating to arbitration will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.). The interim and final awards of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon each party, and judgment upon the arbitrator’s awards may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

5. GOVERNING LAW. Section 19.G of the Franchise Agreement is deleted and replaced with the following:

Except to the extent governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. If any of the provisions of this Agreement which relate to restrictions on you and your owners’ competitive activities are found unenforceable under Tennessee law, the enforceability of those provisions will be governed by the laws of the state in which your Staffing Business is located.

6. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION. The following language is added to the end of Section 19.H of the Franchise Agreement:

RIDER TO THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT
AND RELATED AGREEMENTS FOR USE IN WASHINGTON

THIS RIDER is made and entered into by and between ATWORK FRANCHISE, INC., a Tennessee corporation with our principal business address at 3215 John Sevier Highway, Knoxville, Tennessee 37920 (“we”) and _____, a(n) _____, having its principal business address at _____ (“you”).

BACKGROUND. We and you are parties to that certain Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Franchise Agreement”). This Rider is annexed to and forms part of the Franchise Agreement. This Rider is being signed because (a) you are domiciled in Washington; and/or (b) the Staffing Business that you will operate under the Franchise Agreement will be located or operated in Washington; and/or (c) any of the offering or sales activity relating to the Franchise Agreement occurred in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages may be void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's gross negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Section 1.B(1) of the Franchise Agreement is deleted in its entirety.

CONSENT TO TRANSFER

CONSENT TO TRANSFER

THIS CONSENT TO TRANSFER (“Consent”) is made by and among AtWork Franchise, Inc., a Tennessee corporation (“Franchisor”); _____, a _____ (“Transferor”), the undersigned parties listed as Transferor Guarantors (“Transferor Guarantors”), _____, a _____ (“Transferee”), and the undersigned parties listed as Transferee Guarantors (“Transferee Guarantors”). Transferor and Transferor Guarantors are collectively referred to as the “Transferor Parties.” Transferee and Transferee Guarantors are collectively referred to as the “Transferee Parties.”

RECITALS

A. Franchisor and Transferor are parties to that certain Franchise Agreement dated _____ (the “Original Agreement”), pursuant to which Franchisor granted Transferor, and Transferor undertook, the right and license to own and operate a Staffing Business located at _____ (the “Staffing Business”). Transferor Guarantors personally guaranteed all obligations of Transferor under the Original Agreement (the “Original Guaranty”).

B. Transferor has notified Franchisor that it wishes to transfer the Staffing Business to Transferee, including a transfer of substantially all the assets of the Staffing Business and a transfer of the lease to the premises of the Staffing Business (the “Transfer”), pursuant to the terms of that certain Asset Purchase Agreement dated _____, in form and substance provided to Franchisor (the “Purchase Agreement”).

AGREEMENT

FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION of the foregoing recitals, the covenants and agreements contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Consent to Transfer and Waiver of Right of First Refusal. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Consent, Franchisor hereby consents to the Transfer of the Staffing Business on the terms set forth in the Purchase Agreement and hereby waives its right of first refusal to acquire the assets of the Staffing Business on the basis of such Transfer under the Original Agreement. Any substantive change or amendment to, or waiver of, any provision of the Purchase Agreement prior to the Transfer will require Franchisor’s separate prior written consent and waiver of right of first refusal. In the event that any term or condition of this Consent is not met by the parties as of the date of the Transfer (the “Transfer Date”), including any representation or warranty that is not true as of the Effective Date or the Transfer Date, Franchisor’s consent to the Transfer may be withdrawn, and any transfer that occurs thereafter, of any kind, including the Transfer, shall be deemed an unauthorized transfer under the terms of the Original Agreement.

2. Termination of Original Agreement. Upon consummation of the Transfer, the Original Agreement will automatically terminate effective as of the Transfer Date. After the Transfer Date, the provisions of the Original Agreement shall be of no further force or effect; provided, that nothing in this Consent will be deemed to terminate or release the Transferor Parties from any of the following obligations (together, the “Surviving Obligations”): (i) any obligations under the Original Agreement that, either expressly or by their nature, survive termination thereof (including, post-termination restrictive covenants, indemnification, dispute resolution, non-disparagement, confidentiality provisions, and the obligation to cease using any proprietary trademarks); (ii) any obligations arising prior to the Transfer Date (including any obligations to pay any amounts to Franchisor accruing prior to the Transfer Date); (iii) any failure to perform, improper performance, or other breach, default or violation by any Transferor Party of the Original Agreement; or (iv) any obligations of the Transferor Parties under this Consent. The Original Guaranty shall remain in force and effect and shall serve as a guaranty of the Surviving Obligations, and Transferor Guarantors acknowledge and agree that Franchisor may seek any available remedies against them for the failure of any Transferor Party to comply with any Surviving Obligations.

3. Representations and Warranties. The Transferor Parties and the Transferee Parties each hereby, jointly and severally, represent and warrant to Franchisor as of the Effective Date and as of the Transfer Date that: (i) Transferor and Transferee are each a legal entity duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of their respective jurisdiction of organization; (ii) Transferor and Transferee each have all requisite power and authority to be bound by the terms hereof and to carry out and perform its obligations under this Consent, the Purchase Agreement, and in the case of Transferee, the New Agreement (as defined below); and (iii) the parties have provided Franchisor with a final executed and effective copy of the Purchase Agreement and no provision of the Purchase Agreement has been modified, amended, waived, or disclaimed in any manner by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date.

4. Conditions to Consent. Franchisor's consent to the Transfer is conditioned on all of the following terms and conditions being met on or prior to the Transfer Date:

(a) The Transfer must occur no later than _____, and if the Transfer shall not have occurred by such date, this Consent shall be deemed void, and Franchisor's consent to the Transfer shall be deemed withdrawn, and any transfer that occurs thereafter, of any kind, including the Transfer, shall be deemed an unauthorized transfer under the terms of the Original Agreement;

(b) All of the representations and warranties made in this Consent by the Transferor Parties and Transferee Parties must be true and correct as of the Transfer Date, and Transferor Parties and Transferee Parties must not have violated any provision of this Consent, the Original Agreement, the New Agreement or any other agreement between any such party and Franchisor or Franchisor's affiliates, or any suppliers or landlord of the Staffing Business, as applicable;

(c) Transferor Parties must provide Franchisor all information or documents Franchisor requests about the Transferee Parties to evaluate their ability to satisfy their obligations under Franchisor's then-current form of franchise agreement and any documents ancillary thereto, and each such person must have completed and satisfied all of Franchisor's application and certification requirements;

(d) Transferor Parties must provide Franchisor executed versions of any documents executed by Transferor Parties and Transferee Parties to effect the Transfer, and all other information Franchisor requests about the proposed Transfer, and such Transfer meets all of Franchisor's requirements, including terms, closing date, purchase price, amount of debt and payment terms, and Franchisor has determined that the purchase price and payment terms of the Transfer will not adversely affect the Transferee's operation of the Staffing Business;

(e) Transferor Parties must not have violated any provision of the Original Agreement or any other agreement with Franchisor or its affiliates during both the sixty (60) day period before Transferor Parties requested Franchisor's consent to the Transfer and the period between Transferor Parties' request and the Transfer Date, including that Transferor

Parties have paid all amounts owed to Franchisor, its affiliates, and third-party vendors, and have submitted all required reports and statements;

(f) If the proposed Transfer (including any assignment of the lease of the premises of the Staffing Business or subleasing of the premises of the Staffing Business) requires notice to or approval from Transferor's landlord, or any other action under the terms of the lease for the Staffing Business, Transferor has taken such appropriate action and delivered Franchisor evidence of the same;

(g) Transferee must sign Franchisor's then-current form of franchise agreement and related documents, including execution of a guaranty of all obligations thereunder by the Transferee Guarantors (together, the "New Agreement"), any and all of the provisions of which may differ materially from any and all of those in the Original Agreement; provided, the term of the New Agreement will be the remaining term of the Original Agreement;

(h) Transferee and its required personnel satisfactorily complete Franchisor's then-current training program as required under the New Agreement;

(i) Transferor must pay Franchisor a transfer fee equal to 50% of Franchisor's then-current initial fee;

(j) If Transferor Parties finance any part of the purchase price, Transferor Parties agree that all of the Transferee's obligations under promissory notes, agreements, or security interests reserved in the Staffing Business are subordinate to the Transferee's obligation to pay amounts due to Franchisor, Franchisor's affiliates, and third-party vendors related to the operation of the Staffing Business and otherwise to comply with the Original Agreement;

(k) Transferor must have corrected any existing deficiencies of the Staffing Business of which Franchisor has notified Transferor, and/or the Transferee agrees to upgrade, remodel, and refurbish the Staffing Business in accordance with Franchisor's then-current requirements and specifications for Staffing Business within the time period Franchisor specifies following the Transfer Date and the Transferee agrees to escrow an amount Franchisor approves for payment of the required upgrade, remodel or refurbishment; and

(l) Transferor provides Franchisor the evidence Franchisor reasonably requests to show that appropriate measures have been taken to effect the Transfer as it relates to the operation of the Staffing Business, including, by transferring all necessary and appropriate business licenses, insurance policies, and material agreements, or obtaining new business licenses, insurance policies and material agreements.

5. Terms of Purchase Agreement. Notwithstanding the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the Transferor Parties and Transferee Parties hereby agree that the Transfer shall not transfer or purport to transfer any assets, rights or interests reserved by, owned by or accruing to the benefit of Franchisor, including, without limitation: (i) any assets, rights or interests associated with the trademarks, trade dress, copyrights, goodwill, domain names, or other intellectual property used in connection with the Staffing Business; (ii) any customer lists, databases, website data, logins and passwords, or any other proprietary information used in connection with the Staffing Business; and (iii) any other assets, rights or interests reserved to Franchisor under the terms of the Original Agreement and/or New Agreement. All such assets, rights or interests of Franchisor are hereby expressly reserved by Franchisor, and the Transferor Parties and Transferee Parties hereby expressly waive and disclaim such assets, rights or interests in all respects.

REPRESENTATIONS AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT STATEMENT

REPRESENTATIONS AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT STATEMENT

DO NOT SIGN THIS QUESTIONNAIRE IF YOU ARE A RESIDENT OF, DOMICILED IN, OR LOCATED IN, YOUR STAFFING BUSINESS WILL BE OPERATED IN, OR THE FRANCHISE GRANTED IS SUBJECT TO THE FRANCHISE REGISTRATION OR DISCLOSURE LAWS OF: CALIFORNIA, HAWAII, ILLINOIS, INDIANA, MARYLAND, MICHIGAN, MINNESOTA, NEW YORK, NORTH DAKOTA, RHODE ISLAND, SOUTH DAKOTA, VIRGINIA, WASHINGTON, OR WISCONSIN.

The purpose of this Statement is to demonstrate to ATWORK FRANCHISE, INC., (“Franchisor”) that each person signing below (“I,” “me” or “my”), whether acting individually or on behalf of any legal entity established to acquire the franchise rights (“Franchisee”), (a) fully understands that the purchase of an AtWork franchise is a significant long-term commitment, complete with its associated risks, and (b) is not relying on any statements, representations, promises or assurances that are not specifically set forth in Franchisor’s Franchise Disclosure Document and Exhibits (collectively, the “FDD”) in deciding to purchase the franchise.

In that regard, I represent to Franchisor and acknowledge that:

I understand that buying a franchise is not a guarantee of success. Purchasing or establishing any business is risky, and the success or failure of the franchise is subject to many variables over which Franchisor has no control such as my skills and abilities (and those of my partners, officers, employees), the time my associates and I devote to the business, competition, interest rates, the economy, inflation, operation costs, location, lease terms, the market place generally and other economic and business factors. I am aware of and am willing to undertake these business risks. I understand that the success or failure of my business will depend primarily upon my efforts and not those of Franchisor.	INITIAL:
I received a copy of the FDD, including the Franchise Agreement, at least 14 calendar days before I executed the Franchise Agreement. I understand that all of my rights and responsibilities and those of Franchisor in connection with the franchise are set forth in these documents and only in these documents. I acknowledge that I have had the opportunity to personally and carefully review these documents and have, in fact, done so. I have been advised to have professionals (such as lawyers and accountants) review the documents for me and to have them help me understand these documents. I have also been advised to consult with other franchisees regarding the risks associated with the purchase of the franchise.	INITIAL:
Neither the Franchisor nor any of its officers, employees or agents (including any franchise broker) has made a statement, promise or assurance to me concerning any matter related to the franchise (including those regarding advertising, marketing, training, support service or assistance provided by Franchisor) that is contrary to, or different from, the information contained in the FDD.	INITIAL:
My decision to purchase the franchise has not been influenced by any oral representations, assurances, warranties, guarantees or promises whatsoever made by the Franchisor or any of its officers, employees or agents (including any franchise broker), including as to the likelihood of success of the franchise.	INITIAL:

I have made my own independent determination as to whether I have the capital necessary to fund the business and my living expenses, particularly during the start-up phase.	INITIAL:
SPECIAL REPRESENTATION REGARDING RECEIPT OF FINANCIAL INFORMATION. PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING QUESTION CAREFULLY. THEN SELECT YES OR NO AND PLACE YOUR INITIALS WHERE INDICATED. Have you received any information from the Franchisor or any of its officers, employees or agents (including any franchise broker) concerning actual, average, projected or forecasted sales, revenues, income, profits or earnings of the franchise business (including any statement, promise or assurance concerning the likelihood of success) other than information contained in the FDD? ☐ Yes ☐ No (INSERT INITIAL HERE: _____) If you selected "Yes," please describe the information you received on the lines below: _____ _____

Prohibited Parties Clause. I acknowledge that Franchisor, its employees and its agents are subject to U.S. laws that prohibit or restrict (a) transactions with certain parties, and (b) the conduct of transactions involving certain foreign parties. These laws include, without limitation, U.S. Executive Order 13224, the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the Bank Secrecy Act, the International Money Laundering Abatement and Anti-terrorism Financing Act, the Export Administration Act, the Arms Export Control Act, the U.S. Patriot Act, and the International Economic Emergency Powers Act, and the regulations issued pursuant to these and other U.S. laws. As part of the express consideration for the purchase of the franchise, I represent that neither I nor any of my employees, agents, or representatives, nor any other person or entity associated with me, is now, or has been listed on:

1. the U.S. Treasury Department's List of Specially Designated Nationals;
2. the U.S. Commerce Department's Denied Persons List, Unverified List, Entity List, or General Orders;
3. the U.S. State Department's Debarred List or Nonproliferation Sanctions; or
4. the Annex to U.S. Executive Order 13224.

I warrant that neither I nor any of my employees, agents, or representatives, nor any other person or entity associated with me, is now, or has been: (i) a person or entity who assists, sponsors, or supports terrorists or acts of terrorism; or (ii) is owned or controlled by terrorists or sponsors of terrorism. I warrant that I am now, and have been, in compliance with U.S. anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing laws and regulations, and that any funds provided by me to Franchisor were legally obtained in compliance with these laws.

I further covenant that neither I nor any of my employees, agents, or representatives, nor any other person or entity associated with me, will, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, become a person or entity described above or otherwise become a target of any anti-terrorism law.
