What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit D.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement and area development agreement require you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Illinois. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Illinois than in your own state.

Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the Franchise Agreement, even if your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This Guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets (perhaps including your house) at risk if your franchise fails.

Financial Condition. The Franchisor's financial condition as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21) calls into question the Franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

ITEM 1
THE FRANCHISOR, PARENTS, PREDECESSORS, AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language, this disclosure document uses “we” or “us” to mean Tutu School Franchises LLC, the franchisor. “You” means the individual, corporation, or other entity that buys a Tutu School franchise. If the franchisee is a corporation, partnership or other entity, “you” includes the franchisee’s owners unless otherwise indicated.

Franchisor, Affiliates and Prior Experience

We conduct our business under the name Tutu School. Our principal business address 3717 North Ravenswood Avenue, #237, Chicago, IL 60613. We are an Illinois limited liability company originally formed on August 1, 2011 in California and converted to an Illinois entity in 2018. We have had no change in ownership. We began offering Tutu School franchises for the first time in 2012. We do not conduct business under any other name, and we do not operate a business of the type described in this FDD or offer franchises in any other line of business.

We do not have any corporate parent. We have two affiliates. One is Tutu School LLC, which owns and operates four Tutu School locations similar to the type described in this FDD. It began operating the first Tutu School in San Francisco in February 2008. Our affiliate’s principal business address is 519 Bay Street, San Francisco, CA 94133.

The other affiliate is Andrew Weeks Photography LLC (“Andrew Weeks Photography”), a professional photography business operated as a sole proprietorship by Andrew Weeks, one of the owners of Tutu School Franchises, LLC. Andrew Weeks Photography’s principal business address is 4212 N. Damen Avenue, Chicago, IL 60618. Andrew Weeks Photography does not operate or offer any businesses similar to the one described in this FDD.

Neither of our affiliates conducts business under any other name, and neither has offered franchises in any other line of business.

Agent for Service of Process

Our agents for service of process are listed in Exhibit F.

The Business We Offer

We offer franchises for Tutu School® businesses (“Schools”). Your School will offer dance and movement instruction to children, with an emphasis on ballet. Unless we approve otherwise, you will also sell a limited selection of clothing and related merchandise, which may include our proprietary retail line of ballet-related items. A School is operated out of a commercial space, typically in a strip mall or urban street front commercial space. The majority of the students in a School are between 6 months and eight years old. The focus of Tutu School classes is on early ballet and movement concepts and encouraging children to have fun while engaging their creativity and imagination. Schools do not offer formal ballet training for older children, teens or adults.

Your Tutu School programs must be taught by an experienced dancer. If you are not an experienced dancer, you may own a School, but you will have to hire a dancer to teach the classes.

You will be subject to a criminal background check before we sell you a franchise, and you are required to conduct criminal background checks on all dance instructors before you hire them.

The market for toddlers' and children's extracurricular activities is highly developed, although there are relatively few businesses that teach dance exclusively to very young children. Your competitors will include other ballet schools and dance studios as well as children's gyms, children's camps, sports programs, and children's after school and extracurricular programs in general. The business is somewhat seasonal in that it is common for parents to think about enrollment for school-aged children at the beginning of school semesters and over the summer, but children enroll throughout the year.

If you and we agree that you will open more than one School, you will sign an Area Development Agreement with us. Under an Area Development Agreement, you will agree to open a specific number of Schools within a specified period of time in a particular geographic area. You and we will both agree on the number of locations, the time period, and the geographic area before you sign the Area Development Agreement. You will sign the franchise agreement included in this Franchise Disclosure Document for your first School to be developed under the Area Development Agreement. At the time you begin developing each additional School, you will sign the then-current franchise agreement for that location. That franchise agreement may differ from the franchise agreement included in this Franchise Disclosure Document (except that we will not increase the initial franchisee fee for locations you timely develop under the Area Development Agreement).

Applicable Regulations

You must comply with federal, state and local requirements regarding children's programs and, in some jurisdictions, a School may constitute a "school" that is subject to certain zoning and facilities requirements including space, bathrooms, outdoor area, emergency exits, and ratios of teachers to children. You should investigate your local area's definition of a "school" further.

Under California's Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act, certain businesses qualify as "youth service organizations" because they directly contact and supervise children as part of educational services they provide to those children. Your Tutu School may qualify as a youth service organization under this definition, which would make your employees who directly supervise children mandated reporters of child abuse or neglect. Those employees will be subject to specific state-mandated background checks (starting in 2024) and to training in identifying and reporting child abuse and neglect. California also requires businesses that provide services to minors to provide a written notice to parents or guardians about the business's policies regarding criminal background checks for employees. That notice must disclose whether the background checks include state and federal criminal history information and the types of offenses that the business searches for in those background checks.

Outside of California, you should investigate whether applicable local laws will make employees of your Tutu School mandated reporters or will impose any specific background checking or training obligations which may exceed our minimum requirements, or any local restrictions on facilities that teach children, such as any required licenses, permits or other conditions for your operation.

ITEM 3
LITIGATION

No litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

BANKRUPTCY

No bankruptcies are required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 5
INITIAL FEES

You must pay an initial franchise fee in the lump sum of $49,500 when you sign a franchise agreement. The initial franchise fee is nonrefundable.

We currently offer a discounted Initial Franchise Fee of $40,000 (a discount of $9,500) for eligible long-time employees of Tutu School locations.

If you wish to develop and operate more than one School and we agree to license you to open multiple locations, you will sign an area development agreement (“Area Development Agreement”). The development fee is $10,000 for each additional School. Each development fee will be credited toward the initial franchise fee you pay when you sign the Franchise Agreement for that location within the agreed timelines. The initial fee that you pay us upon signing an Area Development Agreement is not refundable. If you are a new franchisee, you must sign the franchise agreement and pay the full initial franchise fee for your first location at the same time as the Area Development Agreement.

If you are an existing owner in our system opening additional locations, our current practice is to charge an Initial Franchise Fee for additional locations based on the amount you paid for your first location less a 15% discount. Accordingly, the Initial Franchise Fees we collected in 2025 ranged from $25,000 to $48,000.

You also may, but are not required, to purchase retail items from us for sale at the School. We estimate that the cost to purchase an initial inventory of retail items from us will range from $6,000 to $12,000.

You are also required to purchase certain wall art from us for display at the School. We estimate that the costs for the purchase of the wall art will be $4,300.

You are required to spend a minimum of $8,000 on Grand Opening Marketing and we recommend you budget $8,000 to $12,000. This amount must be spent during the period beginning 60 days before and ending one month after the location opens. We reserve the right to collect this amount from you and spend it on your behalf.

However, should we implement any other Software License Fee, the initial fee that we establish will be based on the costs and expenses that we incur, which we estimate to be not greater than $250 to $500 per month.

Note 6: You are also responsible for all other costs of attendance at the Summit (including travel, room and board, and your employees' wages, benefits and other expenses).

Note 7: In addition to paying the transfer fee, any transfer of your interest during the term of this agreement requires our prior agreement and approval of the proposed transferee.

Note 8: You must make reasonable capital expenditures to remodel, modernize and redecorate the School premises and to replace and modernize the supplies, fixtures, signs and equipment used in your School so that your School reflects the then-current physical appearance of new School. We may require you to take such action as a condition to transfer, as a condition to renewal, or otherwise during the term of the Franchise Agreement as further described in the operations manual. If you acquire property that requires a more extensive build out, such as installation or removal of walls or extensive built-in fixtures, or you elect to lease a much larger sized property, your expenses will be higher. In certain markets, landlords may assist with some of the tenant improvements.

Note 3: Our estimates assume you will pay one month's rent as a down deposit for securing your lease of commercial space. However, some landlords may require you to pre-pay multiple months of rent as a down deposit, in which case, your costs may be greater than those included in the range above.

Note 4: Our estimate includes all of the required furniture, computer equipment and reusable classroom props we require. Currently, you purchase all these items from third party vendors.

Note 5: Our estimate includes all of the wall art, window dressings and other décor we require as part of our Tutu School brand image. Wall art tutus are purchased directly from us.

Note 6: Our estimate is for the cost of liability insurance for one year. If you choose to take out a larger policy than we require, your cost may be higher. If you choose to pay your insurance premiums monthly or quarterly, your expenses in the first three months will probably be lower than our estimate.

Note 7: Our estimate for opening supply inventory is for items that will be used up in the course of operating your business, including items your students will keep, an initial investment of retail items, office supplies, bathroom supplies, birthday party décor, and instructor dancewear, plus required music.

Note 8: Your initial franchise fee covers the cost of our providing initial training to you and one other person. However, unless you live in the Chicago, Illinois area, you will incur costs to travel to our training and stay in the area. If you bring an instructor who is your employee, you may incur costs to pay wages while he or she attends training.

Note 9: You must spend at least $8,000 on a grand opening marketing campaign to promote the opening of your School and to generate sales. We recommend, however, that you spend between $8,000 and $12,000 on grand opening marketing. Your pre-sale marketing campaign will generally be conducted in the 60-day period before grand opening and continue after your School opens for two to three months.

Note 10: We estimate that a typical franchisee will have only a single, part-time employee instructor when they first open for business. If you are not an experienced dancer, you will need to hire at least one instructor as your employee to teach all classes you offer, and your expenses will be at the higher end of this range.

Note 11: Our estimate for professional expenses is for hiring an attorney, accountant or other professionals. For example, you may retain an attorney to help you set up a legal entity to own your business, and you may hire a bookkeeper or accountant to help you with financial aspects of running your business.

Note 12: This is an estimate of your start-up expenses.

Note 13: All of the amounts summarized in this table are non-refundable. The only exception could be payments you make to a third party who agrees to refund some or all of your payment under certain circumstances. However, in our experience, these amounts are non-refundable.

YOUR ESTIMATED INITIAL INVESTMENT FOR AN AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT (assuming two units to be developed)

Type of Expenditure	Amount	Method of Payment	When Due	To Whom Payment is to be Made
Development Fee (Note 1)	$10,000 (Note 1)	Lump sum	At signing of franchise agreement	Tutu School Franchises
Initial Franchise Fee (Note 1)	$49,500	Lump sum	At signing of development agreement	Tutu School Franchises
All other expenses as listed in the prior table, except the initial franchise fee	$74,500 to $222,500	As specified in the prior table	As specified in the prior table	As specified in the prior table
TOTAL (Note 2)	$134,000 to $282,000

Note 1: As explained in Item 5, your development fee is $10,000 for each additional School you commit to open under that agreement and if you are new to the system, you must sign your first franchise agreement and pay the full initial franchise fee at the same time as you sign an Area Development Fee. If you are an existing franchisee signing an Area Development Agreement for additional Schools, you are not required to sign the franchise agreement at the same time as the Area Development Agreement so you will pay only the $10,000 per location portion of the development fee. When you sign each franchise agreement you will pay the balance of the initial fee that you owe to us.

Note 2: This estimate shows your estimated initial cost for entering into an Area Development Agreement with us for two units and opening the first of those two units. It does not include your costs to open the second unit. You should be aware that your initial investment for your second and subsequent Schools may be higher than the above estimates for your first School due to inflation, increased labor costs, increased materials and other economic factors that may vary over time.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Required Purchases

In order to ensure a uniform image and uniform quality of products and services throughout the Tutu School system, you must maintain and comply with our quality standards. Although you are not required to purchase or lease real estate from us or our affiliates, we must approve the location of your School (see Item 11). You must construct and equip your School in accordance with our then current approved design, specifications and standards. In addition, it is your responsibility to ensure that your building plans comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act and all other federal, state and local laws. You also must use equipment (which includes hardware and software for a computerized record-keeping system), signage, fixtures, furnishings, products, supplies and marketing and sales promotion materials that meet our specifications and standards. We reserve the right to designate a primary or single source of supply for certain products and supplies, and we or an affiliate may be that single source.

We require you to use certain classical music in your curriculum for our classes. We provide the ASCAP, BMI and SESAC licenses (described more in Item 11, below) required for you to use this music in connection with your Tutu School location. We require you to purchase specific tutus and certain props used by the children in the classes. We also require you to purchase and carry retail items (unless otherwise approved) for sale at your School. We rolled out a proprietary retail component in 2023, our capsule collection. We are the only approved supplier of these items. While you must offer approved retail items, these currently include both approved third-party items and our proprietary retail items. You are not currently required to purchase and sell the proprietary retail items, but we reserve the right to require you to carry a limited supply of this merchandise in the future. At present, if you would like to carry other retail items at your School, you may do so as long as we have approved both the items and the vendors.

Other than any required products where we designate one or more designated suppliers, you have no obligation to purchase or lease products, goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory, computer hardware and software, real estate, or comparable items related to establishing or operating the School from us, our affiliates or designated third parties.

Required and Approved Suppliers

We require you to purchase certain products, including tutus, props, furniture and decor, from our approved suppliers, which are listed in our operations manual. You may only sell retail items we approve from vendors we approve.

Approval of Alternate Suppliers

From time to time, we may approve other suppliers whose products meet our standards and requirements. If you would like to purchase from an alternate supplier, you must make a written request that we review that supplier's products and determine whether or not to approve them as a vendor. We may require you to purchase, at your own expense, an example of the proposed vendor's product for us to review. Our approval of other suppliers depends on many factors, including the proposed supplier's business reputation, delivery performance, product quality, production capability, financial status and credit rating, and our ability to retain bulk discounts, if any, for particular items. We do not currently have a set of criteria we use to approve alternative supplier, but we may develop one in the future. We reserve the right to charge a supplier review fee of $2,000 or our reasonable and actual costs incurred, if higher. We will give you notice of approval or disapproval within 90 days of receipt of your written request. Approval may be revoked in our sole discretion by providing written notice to the supplier.

Revenue from Franchisee Purchases

In the previous fiscal year ending December 31, 2025, we collected $1,115,271 from the sale of products (including costumes, retail merchandise and wall art tutus) to franchisees, which was 38% of our total revenue of $2,931,799 in 2025 based on our audited financials.

We do require you to display photographs taken by our affiliate, Andrew Weeks Photography, in your business, but neither we nor Andrew Weeks Photography receives any revenue from this. Our officers do not have an ownership interest in any Tutu School supplier.

Cooperatives

We do not have any purchasing or distribution cooperatives.

Negotiated Prices

We may negotiate prices for numerous products for the benefit of the Tutu School system but not on behalf of individual franchisees. Currently, there is no purchasing or distribution cooperative but we reserve the right to create a cooperative and require you to participate. We may receive volume discounts for the Tutu School system from some third party approved suppliers, which we may pass through to our franchisees. Beyond these discounts, we do not provide material benefits to you because of your use of approved suppliers.

Required Purchases in Relation to All Purchases

Our detailed specifications and standards for purchasing are in our Operation Manual, as modified periodically, and are available for your review.

This includes specifications, recommendations, requirements, and limitations on the type of space you rent, the amount of insurance you obtain, the advertising you place, the background checks you perform on employees, as well as, the décor, fixtures, and props you buy. These purchases will comprise 90 to 95% of your expenditures to establish the business other than what you spend on payroll, rent, utilities and miscellaneous professional services. On an ongoing basis, you should estimate that up to 90% of your purchases will be subject to some requirement in our Operations Manual.

These estimates are based on the experience of the four existing company-owned School operations. The proportion of your purchases we recommended in establishing and operating your School may vary widely from the given estimates.

FINANCING

We do not offer direct or indirect financing. We do not guarantee your note, lease or obligation.

ITEM 11
FRANCHISOR’S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, Tutu School is not required to provide you with any assistance.

Pre-Opening Assistance

Before you open the business, we will:

1. Identify your designated area. (Franchise Agreement - Sections 2.2, 2.3). If you have signed an Area Development Agreement, we will work with you prior to the execution of each individual franchise agreement to establish designated area for the specific School you are opening, based on the determination we made prior to signing the Area Development Agreement about the general areas within the development territory where you could establish a business.

2. Review your proposed business site for the School, which must be within your designated area. (Franchise Agreement - Section 5.2)

3. Provide you with the Tutu School design packet for the build-out of your School. You may choose to hire your own designer and to have a custom design to fit your space, but the custom design will need to reflect our trade dress and must be approved in writing by us before you start renovations based on the plans. (Franchise Agreement - Section 5.6) We do not modify the designs we provide to you for local building codes or requirements and you will be responsible for obtaining all building permits, hiring and managing the construction, remodeling and decorating processes and obtaining our approval for any material changes to the design packet that you are proposing for your location.

4. Provide you with information on how to obtain a criminal background check on each of your employees, which is a requirement within the Tutu School system. You are solely responsible for hiring your employees. We do not assist with hiring. (Franchise Agreement - Section 6.7)

5. Provide training for you and employees you hire in how to operate a School, our class curriculum, and how to follow the Tutu School System of operations. While we provide general information to you about how to maintain your books and accounts and generate reports in the format we require, we do not train on inventory control procedures for your retail merchandise sales, and we encourage you to engage the help of a bookkeeper and/or accountant for additional business accounting assistance. (Franchise Agreement - Section 4.1)

6. Assist you in ordering signs, fixtures, and opening inventory materials. We will provide you a written summary of the equipment, signage and décor you must purchase. We will approve the drawings provided by the sign company, provide you with design assistance for your local advertising flyers, business cards and other advertising materials, and make recommendations for how to handle your grand opening. We do not purchase, deliver or install any of your signs, fixtures or other décor on your behalf. (Franchise Agreement - Section 5.7)

Post-Opening Assistance

During the operation of the business within the term of the Agreement, we will:

1. Periodically develop advertising materials and provide those to you for use in the local advertising of your School, and provide suggestions and advice regarding the best advertising practices. (Franchise Agreement - Section 9.1)

2. Provide guidance and assistance in the operation of your School. This guidance may be provided in the form of periodic in-person meetings, webinars or video calls and telephone or written communications and will cover topics such as products or services to be offered to customers; improvements and developments in your School. (Franchise Agreement - Section 4.4)

3. Maintain the company website which will include a link to a site-specific page for your School, including the classes you offer, their times, instructor information, your business address and other information we approve. (Franchise Agreement - Section 6.10)

4. Maintain licenses that permit you to use specified classical music compositions in your Tutu School classes. Our licenses have limitations, and do not cover all music, and you will be required to comply with these limits. (Franchise Agreement - Section 4.8)

5. We have held an annual franchisee conference the last several years and intend to continue doing so in the future. We may charge a conference fee and you will be responsible for all of your travel and living expenses during the conference. You must attend the annual conference unless otherwise approved.

While we may provide information about pricing, including how various units within the system have set their pricing and changes to your pricing structure that you could consider implementing, we are not obligated to do so, and we do not dictate your pricing.

Site Selection

We will review your proposed business site for the School, which must be within your designated area. We approve sites based on a variety of factors including density of population, population characteristics, traffic patterns, access factors, cost and size and availability of space, cost of construction of leasehold improvements, availability, parking, and other factors. We will not provide a nonstructural floor plan for the planning, designing and construction of improvements to the School premises.

A typical location for a School is in a strip mall shopping center, or in a store front in an urban or suburban area with heavy foot traffic, near an area where there is a high density of families with young children. We do not generally own or lease to you the premises where you will operate your School. You will lease the premises directly from a third-party landlord. You must obtain our approval before entering into a lease for a site. We will provide you with our approval or refusal of a proposed site within 14 days of your written request. (Franchise Agreement - Section 5.2)

We require franchisees to identify a proposed business site within six months of signing a franchise agreement and open for business within 12 months of signing a franchise agreement. In most areas, you should be able to identify a location, install the required décor, complete training and open for business three to twelve months after signing a franchise agreement. However, the length of time to identify a site and negotiate a lease, the amount of construction required to complete the build-out, and local ordinances governing building permits and business licenses can all affect the length of time it will take you to open for business. We may establish different timetables for opening the School where circumstances warrant an adjustment, but this is in our sole discretion. If you do not identify a suitable site and open by the time required under your Franchise Agreement, we can terminate the Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement - Sections 5.2(b), 6.1)

Advertising and Marketing

National Marketing and Technology Fund

We provide certain advertising materials and advertising support to you through our National Marketing and Technology Fund. We may use the National Marketing and Technology Fund for activities to support the marketing and promotion of Tutu School brand, the Tutu School trademarks, and the School locations, including: providing creative development services (including graphic design for marketing collateral); updating and hosting a website; development and maintenance of software used by franchisees (including class registration and billing software), social media support; subscription fees and set-up expenses for design and learning platforms; the cost of music licensing; the expenses of franchise system-wide meetings; providing market intelligence through analytics to the franchise system; conducting member interviews, focus groups and surveys; conducting promotions; engaging advertising and marketing agencies and public relations firms; and any other expenses for developing and promoting the brand or Tutu School system. We may be reimbursed for reasonable administrative costs, salaries and overhead incurred in administering or providing services to the National Marketing and Technology Fund.

We need not spend all amounts we collect for this advertising in the same year collected. If the amount collected exceeds what is needed to pay for currently planned advertising, marketing and technology, we may accrue the excess amounts for use in future years. We will provide you with an unaudited accounting of how we used payments in the last fiscal year upon your request. We do not use your advertising payments in any advertising that is principally to solicit prospective franchisees, provided our general marketing materials may reference franchise sales available. You will not receive a refund of any advertising fees paid on termination, nonrenewal or expiration of your franchise. We are not required to segregate these payments from other funds we hold or to audit what we collect and spend.

We collect the National Marketing and Technology Fund contributions at the same rate from all franchised Schools and the Schools owned and operated by our affiliate, Tutu School, LLC, and identified as corporate-owned locations in this FDD.

We may increase your required contribution to the National Marketing and Technology Fund, in our sole discretion, up to a total of 3% of gross programming sales. The National Marketing and Technology Fund contribution was increased to 2% of gross programming sales, effective January 2026. We anticipate that contributions will increase to 3% of gross programming sales in increments by 2028 and will provide notice of those changes in advance to the franchisees in the system.

In 2025, we collected $224,310.30 for the National Marketing and Technology Fund and spent $572,148.16 on behalf of the National Marketing and Technology Fund. The difference was paid by us out of our general funds.

The National Marketing and Technology Fund expenditures were spent as follows in 2025:

Agency Creative & Content Development	15%
Website Design & Development (balance)	12%
Local Marketing Support, Initiatives and Pilots	13%
Registration and Class Management Software	18%
Listings Management	3%
Website & Email Hosting	6%
Other Tools and Technology	9%
Systemwide Meetings (net of sponsorships)	14%
Music Licensing	8%

Local Marketing

You must spend a minimum of 5% of Gross Revenues per month on approved local marketing activities in accordance with the Manual. Within 30 days of our request, you must provide us with verification of the local marketing you conduct, including reports and receipts evidencing the placement of ads or verification copies of advertising.

We will provide you with pre-approved marketing templates that you can have personalized for your School. You must use only such marketing materials (including any print, radio, television, electronic, or other media forms that may become available in the future) as we furnish, approve or make available or as otherwise provided in the Manual, and the materials must be used only in a manner that we prescribe. Furthermore, any promotional activities you conduct in the School or on its premises are subject to our approval. You must submit all advertising and promotional materials to us prior to your use. If we do not respond within 14 days after you submit the proposed advertising materials to us, the advertising materials will be deemed not approved. We will not unreasonably withhold approval of any sales promotion materials or media and activities; provided that they are current, in good condition, in good taste and accurately depict the Marks. Any materials you submit to us for our review will become our property, and there will be no restriction on our use or distribution of these materials. At our request, you must include certain language in your local marketing materials, including “Franchises Available” and our website address and other contact information we may specify.

Grand Opening Marketing

You must spend no less than $8,000 to conduct a grand opening marketing campaign during the 60-day period prior to opening and during the first 30 days after your School opens. We recommend you budget between $8,000 and $12,000 for the grand opening marketing campaign. We may require you to follow our prescribed activities to conduct your grand opening activities.

Cooperative Marketing/Local Marketing Groups

We have the right to designate local or regional marketing groups and if designated, you must participate in and contribute to the advertising and marketing programs in your designated local/regional marketing group. If established, you must contribute to the group the amount we designate. We have the right to form, change, dissolve or merge local/regional marketing groups. Any amount you spend on approved local/regional marketing group activities will count towards your local marketing requirements. The payments you make to a Cooperative or Group may be applied by you toward satisfaction of your local marketing requirement. If the amount you contribute is less than your local advertising requirement, you must still spend the difference locally. All contributions will be maintained and administered in accordance with the documents governing the Cooperative or Group, if any. The Cooperative will be operated solely as a conduit for the collection and expenditure of the Cooperative fees for the purposes outlined above. Currently there are no Cooperatives or Groups in the Tutu School system and we have no immediate plans to implement any Cooperative or Group. The Cooperative or Group is not required to prepare an annual financial statement.

Franchise Advisory Council

In 2023, we established a Franchise Advisory Council (the “FAC”). The FAC is made up of five franchisees each representing specific segments of our franchise owner community. FAC members serve staggered terms of two years and are selected by random drawing from eligible owners nominated by franchisees (including self-nomination). The FAC serves in an advisory capacity to provide advice on advertising, marketing and general business initiatives. We have the right to form, change or dissolve the FAC.

Technology System and Computer Requirements

We require you to have a printer and a computer that can access the internet and run word processing and a bookkeeping program of your choice. We also require you to have some kind of stereo system. We recommend an Apple iPad and connecting speakers, but you may also use any other type of stereo system you prefer.

The cost of purchasing a desktop computer, an Apple iPad, speakers and a printer is about $2,200, and is included in our Item 7 estimate of your initial expenses. Provided that you use these components properly, there should be no maintenance costs associated with them, except for periodic replacement of your printer cartridges.

In 2023, we introduced a new software called Classbug, customized for our system. It does not require you to add any hardware and the National Marketing and Technology Fund currently covers your subscription fees for Classbug. If you choose to purchase any optional hardware that works with Classbug, you will bear those costs.

We also require you to use a web-based marketing platform, called ActiveCampaign, to assist you in developing and distributing local marketing. You must sign the ActiveCampaign Franchisee Agreement (Exhibit C to this disclosure document), under which you agree to pay us a monthly fee (currently, $95 per month) for access to the ActiveCampaign platform and you further agree to conform all marketing developed using the platform to our brand guidelines.

We may in the future create other custom applications or software for use by the Schools, and in that case you may need to upgrade or modify the information technology products and services you use for compatibility at your sole expense. Otherwise, we do not currently issue any specifications or standards for your computer or cash register system, but reserve the right to do so in the future. We reserve the right to develop proprietary computer software or systems or point of sale systems and may require you to use them and enter into appropriate licensing agreements to protect our rights in them. We do not have any contractual obligation during the term of the franchise to update or upgrade any website or computer program we might develop. We cannot at this time estimate the cost to comply with any future requirements we may impose, but we will not impose any requirements on you that are unreasonable for a business like the Franchised Business.

We have independent, on-line access to data stored in your computer system, including sales, purchasing and membership data (together “Membership Information”). We have full access on-line to all data and records of the School available through your use of our website, to any communications you make through or receive at the website and to information that you may post at the website. We will have the right to control the use of the Membership Information. You will only use the Membership Information as a processor as necessary to operate the School, unless you obtain our prior written approval. You also must provide the Membership Information to us at any time that we request you to do so. You have the right to use Membership Information, but only in connection with operating the School only in accordance with the policies that we establish from time to time. You may not sell, transfer, sublicense or otherwise share Membership Information to or with any third party for any purpose other than operating the School and marketing the products and services, unless you obtain our prior written approval. You must provide to us usernames and passwords to access the computer system, point-of-sale system and any system, website, or other platform used in association with the School. You must comply with any data protection and breach response policies we periodically may establish and must not use or disclose Membership Information in a manner that would cause us to be in violation of our published privacy policy. We are not required to give you notice of our access to that data.

Operations Manual and Program Guide

We will loan you a copy of the operations manual and program guide that contain mandatory and suggested specifications, our Tutu School curriculum, and other information about the Tutu School system. The operations manual and program guide is 134 pages long. These documents are confidential and remain our property. You will be required to restrict access to them and ensure that your employees do not copy these or disclose their contents, except as authorized. We will modify them from time to time, but the modifications will not alter your status and rights under the Franchise Agreement. The Table of Contents for the operations manual is attached as Exhibit I. Our program guide includes outlines of class programs.

Total Hours		40	10

We offer initial training for each franchisee and up to one additional instructor at no cost, and you may bring additional instructors or staff to any pre-scheduled initial training session. We require that your principal instructor attend the training and successfully complete training to our satisfaction any time before you can open your Studio. The trainings are conducted as needed (currently 5-6 sessions per year or approximately every other month). You must pay for you and your employees' travel and living expenses, in addition to any wages for your employees who attend. Our training program covers the subjects listed in the table above. If you request additional or custom training for your team outside our regularly scheduled sessions, and we agree to provide you with that training, you must pay our additional training fee for each person attending the training.

Currently, our training staff includes Genevieve Weeks, Sara Schultz, Shaylyn Gulickson and Jen Alexander, although our roster of instructors is subject to change. Your training staff will be dictated by franchise location and available trainers. Ms. Weeks has over eighteen years experience of operating the company-owned Tutu Schools and is the founder of Tutu School. She has owned and operated Tutu School first as a sole proprietorship and then as a limited liability company since February 2008. For over fifteen years (1998 - 2013), Ms. Weeks was also a freelance ballet dancer. Sara Schultz has seven years of franchise support experience and over 10 years of operational experience in membership-based business models. Shaylyn Gulickson is Tutu School's Director of Curriculum and Training and has an academic background in clinical psychology. She has created and refined many of Tutu School's training tools. Jen Alexander has over ten years of experience in franchise marketing, support and operations.

In addition to our initial training, outlined above, we reserve the right to require you and your instructors to take an annual refresher course.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

When the franchise agreement is signed, you will receive a Preliminary Designated Area which is the general area where you intend to secure a site for the School. We will not grant anyone else the right to develop or operate a School in the Preliminary Designated Area for 180 days from the Effective Date of the Franchise Agreement. Once you identify a site for your School and we have approved that as your Authorized Location, we will designate the final Designated Area and the Designated Area will be substantially the same as the Preliminary Designated Area in terms of size, shape and/or demographics. If the Authorized Location is not within the Designated Area, the Designated Area will be defined by us based on our current criteria for size, demographics and topographical features. Once defined, your Designated Area will remain constant throughout the initial term of the Franchise Agreement (unless you relocate the School and upon renewal or transfer).

A minimum Preliminary Designated Area and Designated Area will consist of one city block and, in suburban and rural areas, may include several miles from the anticipated location representing as much as a 15-minute drive time. The actual size and boundaries of your Designated Area will depend on a variety of factors, including the population base; density of population; growth trends of population; the density of residential and business entities; and major topographical features which clearly define contiguous areas, like rivers, mountains, major freeways, and underdeveloped land areas.

We will not grant permission for any other School to be established within your designated area. You must have our approval before selecting a site for your franchise, and you must obtain our permission to relocate. Any request to relocate must be in writing, must specify the requested area for relocation with as much specificity as possible, and must state the reason for the request to relocate. We have discretion over whether or not to grant you permission to relocate, and we will respond within 14 days to any request to relocate, although our response may include a request for additional information.

If we approve you to sign an Area Development Agreement and you do so, we will work with you to determine the total number of Schools you will open and the corresponding territory, based on the factors we consider for each individual Tutu School location. We will assign the unit-specific designated area for each of the units you commit to developing at the time you sign a franchise agreement for that unit.

Customers who reside in your designated area may do business with a School located in another area. Other Schools may sell to purchasers in your designated area. You are permitted to use pre-approved social media channels to promote your School. The Franchise Agreement provides that franchisees must focus their marketing efforts primarily within their own designated areas and must abide by our written policies for advertising and marketing outside of the designated area. We determine what action to take, if any, in response to franchisee violations of these prohibitions and policies. We will not approve direct marketing, telemarketing, catalog sales or other mechanisms for targeting areas outside of your designated area. There are no provisions in the Franchise Agreement for compensating you in case we, or an affiliate, or any of their franchisees or licensees, sell any goods or services to customers in your designated area.

We or other related businesses, including Tutu School, LLC and Andrew Weeks Photography as described below have the right to sell Tutu School related products or services, including our new line of retail merchandise, within your Designated Area through alternate channels of trade, including but not limited to sales by us in clothing or department stores, gift stores, over the internet, or through catalogs.

We also reserve to ourselves and any affiliates all marketing and development rights that are not expressly contrary to the designated area rights granted to you, including the rights, at any location: (i) to own and operate or franchise any Schools or other Competitive Businesses at any locations outside of the designated area regardless of proximity to the Designated Area; (ii) to own and operate businesses that are not Competitive Businesses within and outside the designated area; (iii) to participate in trade shows, franchise trade shows, and other marketing events to promote or increase awareness of the Tutu School system; (iv) to offer to sell, sell and distribute, any products or services associated with the Tutu School system (now or in the future) or identified by the Marks, or any other trademarks, services marks or trade names, through any distribution channels or methods (including without limitation retail stores, wholesale and the internet); and (v) to merge with, acquire, be acquired, or become associated with any businesses of any kind under other systems and/or other marks, which businesses may convert to or operate under the Marks or other trademarks and may offer or sell products and services that are the same as or similar to the products and services offered at or from the Schools, and which may be located anywhere inside or outside the Designated Area. A “Competitive Business” is one that offers or sells any products/services the same as or similar to the Approved Products/Services at retail or wholesale.

You do not receive the right to establish additional franchises within your designated area unless you sign a new franchise agreement. You do not have a right of first refusal, right of first offer, or any similar right or interest in any other territories other than the single School which we grant you permission to develop, unless you sign an Area Development Agreement. If you sign an Area Development Agreement, you have an obligation to develop the specified number of Schools within the specified territory described in that agreement, but you do not have a right of first refusal, right of first offer, or any similar right or interest in any other territories or any right to develop more locations than are described in the agreement. Neither we nor our affiliates currently plan to operate a business under a different trademark that will offer similar goods or services to those offered by Schools.

TRADEMARKS

We grant you the right to operate a franchise under the name “Tutu School” using our trademark. You may also use our other current or future trademarks to operate your franchise, provided that we include them in our operations manual as marks approved for your use.

The trademarks TUTU SCHOOL and our Tutu Logo are registered on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“PTO”). These are the principal marks used by Schools. All required affidavits and renewals have or will be filed for these marks.

Trademark	Registration/Application Date	Registration Number / Serial Number
TUTU SCHOOL	June 19, 2012 (Registered)	4,160,212
	July 3, 2018 (Registered)	5,508,179

At this time, there are no pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceedings or material litigation involving any of the principal marks which are relevant to their use in any state.

There are no currently effective determinations of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the trademark administrator or any court, pending interference, opposition or cancellation proceeding, or material litigation involving the above registered Marks.

There is no currently effective agreement that significantly limits our rights to use or license the Marks.

You must notify us if you become aware of any unauthorized use of the Marks or an imitation of the Marks, or if litigation involving the Marks is instituted or threatened against you, and to cooperate fully with the Franchisor in this regard. We have the right to control any litigation concerning the Marks.

We intend to take all steps reasonably necessary to preserve and protect the ownership and validity of the trademarks. We will defend and indemnify you in the event of a claim against you for your use of our trademarks, provided that you complied with our guidelines about trademark use. We have the right to control any litigation concerning the trademarks.

We may at any time, in our sole discretion, modify, substitute or discontinue use of any Mark, and in that case you must comply with these changes at your expense within a reasonable period of time.

We are not aware of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the principal trademarks.

We permit you to use our Marks in social media for promoting your franchise and our brand. However, your use of our Marks must be positive and enhance the goodwill of our system and the Marks and must comply with all applicable laws and relevant terms of use. We may require you to delete disparaging, negative, or unlawful content connected to our Marks.

In the event of any trademark or unfair competition lawsuits brought against you arising from use of the licensed marks, provided that your use of the marks is consistent with our guidelines and restrictions, we may, but are not required to, defend and indemnify you. Alternatively, we may direct you to change your use of the mark in question to one or more marks of our choosing.

We may from time to time modify the trademarks, develop new trademarks, or discontinue certain trademarks. You at your own expense must comply with any changes in the trademarks which we implement.

You must not directly or indirectly contest our right to our trademarks, trade secrets, or business techniques that are part of our business. You are not permitted to use our trademarks in social media or on the internet, including registering a domain name including our trademarks, without our prior permission.

ITEM 14 PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

You do not receive the right to use any item covered by a patent, but you can use the proprietary information in the Operations Manual and program guide, together with our training materials which include videos and advertising materials. Our Operations Manual is not registered with the Copyright Office. As of the date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, our training videos are not yet registered with the Copyright Office. We do not own the copyrights for the music you will use to teach your classes; however, we have secured ASCAP, BMI and SESAC licenses that allow you to play music identified by us during your classes as part of the curriculum. We renew these licenses annually. Not all music is covered by these licenses. In addition to notifying us and obtaining our approval to teach classes using different music, you may be required to obtain an additional license, at your cost, to play specific music during your classes or recitals if it is outside of the list of music we provide to you.

ITEM 15
OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

You are required to participate personally in the direct operation of the franchise by personally managing staff, hiring and operational decisions. You are responsible for ensuring that qualified and trained instructors are present at all times and leading all classes. If the franchisee is a company or business entity, at least one of its shareholders or members must attend and pass training and serve as the manager of the Franchised School.

Our franchise agreement contains a non-competition clause, which restricts your right to own or operate a competing franchise during the term of the franchise agreement and for up to two years after the end of the franchise agreement. If the franchisee is anything other than a natural person, all individuals with an equity interest in the franchise must agree to this noncompetition term. They must also each execute a personal guaranty (Exhibit D to the Franchise Agreement), providing for joint and several liability for each and every obligation created under the Franchise Agreement.

In addition, if you are married, your spouse will be required to sign the Spousal Consent and Waiver (Exhibit K), providing that he or she understands and agrees to waive any community property rights in the franchise.

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

We have strict limitations on the services you may offer. A School is designed to be a movement and ballet school for toddlers and young children, and we do not have a curriculum for children over the age of 8, or those ready for more advanced ballet studies. We require that you offer a minimum of 16 classes per week, and that those classes include programs for children at each of the different levels of instruction that we offer, unless you obtain our approval to eliminate required classes. We also prohibit you from offering classes that are outside our curriculum, unless we have given you prior approval.

We have the right to introduce new classes and programs from time to time and to require you to offer the new classes in your School. We also have the right to change a class curriculum or remove a class entirely if we determine, in our discretion, that the curriculum is unsafe or harmful to the Tutu School brand.

Schools also sell a limited amount of approved retail products, unless approved to operate without a retail component. You may only offer approved retail items purchased from approved retail vendors. We also launched a proprietary retail line in 2023 and Schools have the option to carry these retail lines. We reserve the right in the future to require you to include these items in your retail offering.

We require that you offer only approved products and services and that, with the exception of the recital, you provide services only from your School. If you want to offer offsite services, such as an offsite Tutu School party or series of classes, you must obtain our prior written approval. In considering your request, we will evaluate all of the following:

1. Whether you can provide offsite services under the Tutu School brand to our standards for operation outside of your School location;
2. Whether you can operate your regular classes at your School to our standards for operation while engaging in the offsite services; and
3. Whether the offsite services infringe on another franchisee’s protected territory, or otherwise negatively impact our brand or the rights of another franchisee.

PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchises.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

We disclose information about the Schools' gross revenue in the tables below. Gross revenue includes revenue for both services and merchandise. Gross revenue does not include sales taxes or customer refunds made in accordance with our policies or requirements. Not all Schools have elected to sell merchandise. As of December 31, 2025, there were 107 franchised Schools and 4 corporate Schools in operation.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of
Tutu School Franchises, LLC

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Tutu School Franchises, LLC, which comprises the balance sheet as of December 31, 2025 & 2024, and the related statement of operations, and changes in members' (deficit), and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Tutu School Franchises, LLC as of December 31, 2025 & 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Tutu School Franchises, LLC, and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Tutu School Franchises, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Tutu School Franchises, LLC s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Tutu School Franchises, LLC s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

AGREEMENT

For and in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants herein contained, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1 Defined Terms.

The following terms capitalized in this Agreement will have the meanings provided below:

“Agreement” means this Agreement, including the Summary Page and all exhibits.

“Approved Services” means the classes, camps, programs, and retail products and merchandise approved by us for offer and sale by the Franchised School, which may vary by market area and according to other circumstances and which can be changed by us from time to time.

“Approved Suppliers” means the vendors, photographers and other suppliers of Approved Services that are expressly approved by us, which may vary by market area and according to other circumstances and which can be changed by us from time to time.

“Company School” means any School owned or operated by us or any affiliate of us under the Marks and the System.

“Competitive Business” means any business that offers or sells any products/services the same as or similar to the Approved Services, including but not limited to any School or Program.

“Confidential Information” is certain information owned by us as defined in Section 10.1 below.

“Controlling Interest” means either a fifty-one percent (51%) or greater ownership interest in you or the Franchised School, or if there is no one ownership interest of at least fifty-one percent (51%) then it means the largest undivided ownership interest in you or the Franchised School, and refers separately to each of the highest percentage ownership interests where there is not one which is largest.

“Designated Area” means the geographic area or areas described in Exhibit B attached hereto in which you must locate and operate the Franchised School and focus marketing efforts for the Franchised School, and in which you will have the rights set forth in Section 2.2 below, subject to our reserved rights as set forth in Section 2.3.

“Effective Date” means the date on which we sign this Agreement.

“Equipment” means any office or business equipment (including a computer system), furniture, furnishings, office supplies, stationery, and business forms used in the Franchised School.

“Franchised School” means the business operated by you under this Agreement.

“Gross Programming Revenue” means any and all revenue earned by the Franchised School, including from classes, day camps, birthday parties, private events, or any other nature whatsoever, except Gross Retail Revenue, whether from the sale or provision of Approved Services or the use of the Marks or System or otherwise, during the term of this Agreement and any renewals hereof. Gross Programming Revenue includes any monies earned by the Franchised School and the cash equivalent of any other consideration received by the Franchised School including the full amount of all sales and charges made at the Franchised School other than those which generate Gross Retail Revenue, including but not limited to those for complimentary services/goods, and the fair market value of any complimentary or other non-cash property and services received by you in lieu of cash payments, or other income derived from the business conducted upon the Premises. The term “Gross Programming Revenue” excludes sales taxes collected from customers and remitted to the appropriate taxing authorities and for customer refunds but only in accordance with our policies or requirements and subject to any conditions for deducting customer refunds from Gross Programming Revenue as may be included in such policies or requirements.

“Gross Retail Revenue” means any and all revenue earned by the Franchised School from the sale or provision of retail goods separate from those included as part of a program, class, day camp, birthday party, private event or other service, including any monies earned by the Franchised School and the cash equivalent of any other consideration received by the Franchised School including the full amount of all sales and charges made at the Franchised School including but not limited to those for complimentary goods, and the fair market value of any complimentary or other non-cash property and services received by you in lieu of cash payments, the gross amount received by you for merchandise (if any) sold pursuant to orders received in or from the Franchised School. The term “Gross Retail Revenues” excludes sales taxes collected from customers and remitted to the appropriate taxing authorities and for customer refunds but only in accordance with our policies or requirements and subject to any conditions for deducting customer refunds from Gross Retail Revenue as may be included in such policies or requirements. For avoidance of doubt, if a retail item is included as part of a program (such as cupcakes included as part of a birthday party or a camp including a tutu per student), the value of such retail item is not deductible from the cost of the program and 100% of the cost of the program constitutes Gross Programming Revenue, but the separate sale of any retail item constitutes Gross Retail Revenue. Any revenue generated in any way by you at, through, or in association with the Franchised School constitutes Gross Programming Revenue if it is not Gross Retail Revenue or excluded tax.

“Gross Revenue” means all Gross Programming Revenue and all Gross Retail Revenue.

“Improvements” include any enhancements, adaptations, derivative works, modifications, techniques, processes, forms, systems or methods, including but not limited to new programs, techniques, décor enhancements or other innovations based on or developed in whole or in part upon or from any part of the Tutu School System, trade secrets or any intellectual property owned by us or any of our affiliates.

“Marks” means the trademarks and service marks listed on Exhibit A and all other trademarks, service marks, logos, commercial symbols, trade dress and other marks now or hereafter licensed to or owned or used by us in connection with the System as may be modified by us from time to time.

“National Marketing and Technology Fees” means the fees payable to us under Section 9.2 of this Agreement for national marketing and technology provided by us through the National Marketing and Technology Fund.

“Operating Principal” means an equity owner who will manage the Franchised School and who is authorized to act for you and communicate with us in relation to the Franchised School.

“Operations Manual” means the manual or manuals provided by us to you in such paper or electronic format or formats as we determine in our sole discretion and containing mandatory and suggested information, standards, specifications, requirements, policies, guidelines and instructions about some or all of the following subjects, among others, as determined and modified by us from time to time: operations and procedures; use of the Marks; Approved Services and Approved Suppliers; Equipment; programs and techniques; appearance and maintenance of the Premises; sales goals and business plans; financial and operational reports; accounting and bookkeeping; customer service standards; business forms and formats; marketing, advertising and promotions and other matters relating to the establishment, operation and marketing of Tutu School Schools.

“Premises” means any location within the Designated Area approved by us from which the Franchised School will be operated.

“Retail Program” means the specific retail products and merchandise from specific vendors or of specific types that we have approved you to sell in its Franchised School in accordance with Section 9.5 of this Agreement.

You may not solicit memberships online, in person or through advertising or other direct marketing method outside your Designated Area, except with our prior written approval and in strict accordance with our then-current policies and restrictions.

(b) The licensed granted by this Agreement does not include (i) any right to sell services and products identified by the Marks at any location other than the Authorized Location, or through any other channels or methods of distribution, including the internet (or any other existing or future form of electronic commerce), catalog sales, telemarketing or other direct marketing, (ii) any right to sell services and products identified by the Marks to any person or entity for resale or further distribution; or (iii) except for the designated area protection described in Section 2.3, any right to exclude, control or impose conditions on our development of future franchised, company or affiliate owned Schools at any time or at any location.

premises no later than 180 days from the Effective Date of this Agreement, at which time you authorize us to insert the Authorized Location on the Summary Page. You must identify a site for the Franchised School that meets our site selection criteria and that is located within the Preliminary Designated Area identified on the Summary Page (see Section 5). You may not use the Franchised School premises or Authorized Location for any purpose other than the operation of a School during the term of this Agreement.

2.3 Designated Area

(a) The Preliminary Designated Area identified on the Summary Page, if any, is the general location where you intend to secure a site for the Franchised School. If a Preliminary Designated Area is specified on the Summary Page, we will not grant anyone else the right to develop or operate a School in the Preliminary Designated Area for 180 days from the Effective Date of this Agreement. Once the Authorized Location has been identified, you hereby authorize us to define in Exhibit B a “Designated Area” around the Authorized Location; provided that such Designated Area will be substantially the same as the Preliminary Designated Area in terms of size, shape and/or demographics. If the Authorized Location is not within the Preliminary Designated Area, the Designated Area will be defined by us based on our current criteria for size, demographics and topographical features. Once defined in Exhibit B, your Designated Area will remain constant throughout the initial term of this Agreement (unless you relocate the Franchised School and upon renewal or transfer).

(b) During the term of this Agreement and provided you are in compliance with the terms of this Agreement and subject to Section 2.4 below, within the Designated Area we will not establish, place or locate or authorize anyone else to establish, place or locate a School physically within the Designated Area. You acknowledge and agree that we have the right to develop and operate and grant others the right to develop and operate Schools outside the Designated Area, regardless of their proximity to the Designated Area or any negative impact they may have on your Franchised School.

2.4 Reservation of Rights

Other than as provided in Section 2.3 above, no other form of exclusivity in the Designated Area is granted and none will exist or may be implied from this Agreement or from any other conduct or course of dealing. Other than the conduct expressly prohibited in this Section 2, we and our affiliates will have all rights to own, operate or franchise Schools or other Competitive Businesses and to market and sell products or services by any methods, through any channels of distribution, to any customers at or from any locations without compensation to you. Without limiting the foregoing, we may, or may grant others the rights, at any location: (i) to own and operate or franchise any Schools or other Competitive Businesses at any locations outside of the Designated Area regardless of proximity to the Designated Area; (ii) to own and operate businesses that are not Competitive Businesses within and outside the Designated Area; (iii) to participate in dance exhibitions and competitions, events targeted at children and parents, franchise trade shows, and other marketing events to promote or increase awareness of the Tutu School System and Network; (iv) to offer to sell, sell and distribute, any products or services associated with the Tutu School System and Network (now or in the future) or identified by the Marks, or any other trademarks, services marks or trade names, through any distribution channels or methods (including without limitation retail stores, wholesale and the internet). and (v) to merge with, acquire, be acquired, or become associated with any businesses of any kind under other systems and/or other marks, which businesses may convert to or operate under the Marks or other trademarks and may offer or sell products and services that are the same as or similar to the products and services offered at or from the Schools, and which may be located anywhere inside or outside the Designated Area.

3. THE MARKS

3.1 Grant and Use of the Marks.

We hereby grant you a limited, nonexclusive, personal license to use the Marks in connection with the Franchised School during the term of this Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and all of our quality control standards and requirements. You must not attempt to assert, establish or acquire, by registration or otherwise, any rights to the Marks or the goodwill associated therewith. You must not register or use the Marks as part of the legal name of any corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity. You must not register or otherwise establish (i) any Internet domain name that incorporates any of the Marks or any derivatives thereof; or (ii) use the Marks or any confusingly similar version of the marks as a username, login or personal ID as an email address or on any social media site; or (iii) otherwise use the Marks or any derivatives thereof in any meta-tags or otherwise use the Marks on the Internet except as we may permit in writing. (b) Upon expiration, termination or nonrenewal of this Agreement for any reason, the license to use the Marks will automatically terminate and you, at your own expense, must immediately cease all use of the Marks and must provide us with evidence that you have done so. After termination, you must not adopt or use any name or mark that is confusingly similar to any of the Marks.

(c) All goodwill associated with, or arising out of, your use of the Marks inures to our benefit.

3.4 Infringement.

If any person or entity improperly uses or infringes the Marks or challenges your use of our use or ownership of the Marks, we will control all litigation and we have the right to determine whether suit will be instituted, prosecuted or settled, the terms of settlement, and whether any other action will be taken. You must promptly notify us of any such use or infringement of which you are aware, or any challenge or claim arising out of your use of any Mark. You must take all reasonable steps we require, without compensation, to assist us with any action we undertake. We will be responsible for our fees and expenses with any such action, unless the challenge or claim results from your misuse of the Marks in violation of this Agreement.

3.5 Modification of the Marks.

We reserve the right at any time, for any reason, to adopt additional or substitute Marks or to modify or discontinue any of the Marks. Upon notice from us, all such additions, substitutions, modifications or discontinuances relative to the Marks (collectively “changes”) will become effective and the scope of the Marks, and the license to use the Marks, will be deemed modified to reflect such changes. Promptly upon notice of any such changes to the Marks, you must adopt and comply with the changes for all purposes in connection with the Franchised School at your own expense.

4. TRAINING AND ASSISTANCE

4.1 Initial Training.

(a) We will provide an initial training program to you. You (or if you are a legal entity, one of your Operating Principals) must attend and complete our initial training program to our satisfaction prior to opening your Franchised School. It then is solely your responsibility to ensure that your employees are properly trained. There is no additional cost for the first two individuals who attend the initial training program during the same training session. You may send more than two people to our initial training program, but we reserve the right to charge you our then-current additional training fee for each additional person who attends our initial training program or if you attend multiple training sessions.

(b) All Operating Principals of the Franchised School during the term of this Agreement must attend and successfully complete the initial training. (c) You are solely responsible for all of your costs and expenses associated with the attendance at initial training, including travel and lodging, meals and compensation for any of your representatives or employees attending initial training. 4.2 Additional Training.

(a) You must, at your expense, comply with all the training requirements we prescribe for the Franchised School to be developed under this Agreement. We may require you and other key employees of the Franchised School to attend, at your expense, ongoing training at our training School, the Authorized Location or any other location we designate. We reserve the right to charge you our then-current training fee for all training we conduct for you.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, in the event that you are given notice of default, and the default relates in whole or in part, to your failure to meet any operational standards, we have the right to require as a condition of curing the default that you and your manager, at your expense, comply with our additional training requirements within a reasonable time as we specify. You will be solely responsible for all of your costs associated with attending any such additional training. We reserve the right to charge you reasonable fees for additional training or training materials, and to receive reimbursement for our reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in providing additional training.

4.3 Requirements for Attendees.

All persons you send to training provided by us must sign our form of Confidentiality Agreement as provided in Section 10 below before commencing the training. We reserve the right to establish other criteria for admitting attendees to any training provided by us.

(b) Our representatives may visit the Franchised School at reasonable times during the term of this Agreement to observe its operations and provide feedback to you, which may be delivered orally, in a face-to-face meeting, in writing or by other reasonable means as we may select. franchise conventions and meetings that we require. We may charge you our then-current fee in connection with your attendance at any convention or meetings we hold or sponsor. If you are not able to attend a meeting or convention, you must notify us prior to the meeting and must have a substitute person acceptable to us attend the meeting. Any fee we may charge will be payable by you whether or not you or a substitute person attends the conference or meeting. If you fail to attend two (2) or more conventions during the term of this Agreement, we have the right to require you to attend additional training, in addition to any other rights and remedies available to us for your breach of this provision.

4.5 Operations Manual.

We provide you access to the Operations Manual through electronic access on the franchisee portal we maintain. You must adopt and use as your continuing operational routine the required standards, procedures, methods of operation and management described in our Operations Manual. The Operations Manual is at all times our sole property. You must at all times treat the Operations Manual, and the information it contains, as secret and confidential, and must use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential. We may from time to time revise the contents of the Operations Manual and you expressly agree to comply with each new or changed requirement. You acknowledge and agree that the Operations Manual and other system communications may only be available on the Internet or other online or computer communications.

4.6 Modifications.

You acknowledge and agree that we have the right to modify, add to or rescind any required standard or specification that we prescribe under this Agreement to adapt the System to changing conditions, competitive circumstances, business strategies, business practices and other changes we deem appropriate. This right includes, but is not limited to, the right to introduce new products and services. You must comply with these required modifications, additions or rescissions at your expense, subject to the express limitations listed in this Agreement.

4.7 Website or Intranet

We provide a website and intranet for the Network as we may determine from time to time. Any such Website or Intranet will be provided "AS IS". We make no representation or warranty that use will be error free or uninterrupted. We will not be liable for any delays or failures in functionality or any security breaches regarding use of its Website or Intranet. You must, at your expense, participate in our website and any intranet system we may develop or other online communications as we may require. We have the right to determine the content and use of our website and intranet system and we may establish rules under which School franchisees may or must participate. We retain all rights related to our website and intranet system. Your general conduct on our website, intranet system or other online communications and specifically your use of the Marks or any advertising is subject to the provisions of this Agreement. You acknowledge that certain information related to your participation in our website or intranet system may be considered Confidential Information, including access codes and identification codes. You may not use the Marks or any part or derivative thereof on the internet, except as we expressly permit in writing and as authorized by our then-current policies. We will maintain a limited license allowing you to play specified music in connection with instruction at your Franchised Business. You agree to play only the music specified by us and understand that if the terms of our license change, you may be required to modify your music following written notice from us. We reserve the right to require you to adopt a music system provided by a third party and to pay the associated fees to such provider (including, if applicable, music licensing fees).

5. THE PREMISES AND PRE-OPENING REQUIREMENTS

5.1 Background Checks; Staff Restrictions.

(a) Because the Franchised School caters to children, it is critical to the brand image of Tutu School that you and all of your staff have no history of criminal conduct or behavior that could pose a danger to the children enrolled in classes at the Franchised School or could reasonably create a public relations problem for the brand. As part of your franchise application, you, or your owners if you are not a natural person, have represented that they have a clean criminal background. In addition, you, or your owners if you are not a natural person, must submit to a criminal and personal background check to be conducted by us at our expense before your execution of a lease and at such times as we may periodically request during the term. In the event that we discover that you or your owners materially misrepresented or omitted pertinent information from the franchise application, we may immediately terminate this Agreement and we are not required to refund any portion of the Initial Franchise Fee.

(b) You agree to conduct criminal background checks at your expense and through an Approved Supplier on all employees or independent contractors who will work at the Franchised School, including any owners. If you will have any employees or independent contractors working at the Franchised School as of the Opening Date, these background checks must be completed prior to opening the Franchised School. You must not hire any person who does not successfully pass the criminal background check to perform any task at the Franchised School. It is your responsibility to ensure that all background checks are completed in compliance with applicable law. If you become aware of a conflict between our policies and applicable law, you must follow the law and must notify us so that we can approve an alternative option that meets our brand standards.

5.2 Selection of Suitable Premises.

(a) We will provide general guidance concerning site selection and will provide you with standards and requirements for the Premises of a Tutu School. You must select and lease Premises for each School consistent with our standards and requirements. Without limiting the foregoing, the Premises must be located in an area zoned for commercial use and have adequate parking or be well served by mass transit. Typical locations include strip malls and storefronts in commercial areas heavily trafficked by parents with young children. You are solely responsible for identifying and securing suitable Premises for the Franchised School. You must obtain our prior written approval of any Premises before leasing the Premises and must submit information we reasonably request, including but not limited to photographs, floor plan, demographic information and other information about the Premises and its surrounding area as reasonably requested. The parties acknowledge and agree that our site approval is not an assurance that the Franchised School will achieve a certain sales volume or level of profitability; it means only that the site meets our minimum site selection criteria. We will have the right but not the obligation to inspect any proposed location.

(b) You must select and lease the Premises within 180 days of the Effective Date of this Agreement.

5.3 Use of Premises.

The Premises may not be used for any purpose or business other than the operation of the Franchised School. You may not conduct or permit the conduct of any unlawful activity at the Premises or through the Franchised School.

5.4 Leasing the Premises.

You are solely responsible for negotiating the lease for any Premises. The Lease may not prevent you from performing your obligations under this Agreement, and must permit us to exercise our rights pursuant to this Agreement. We may condition our approval of a proposed site on the full execution of a Lease Addendum substantially in the form attached as Exhibit E to this Agreement. You must deliver to us a fully executed copy of the Lease as amended by the Lease Addendum within 10 days of its execution.

5.5 No Assurances by Us.

You are responsible for locating and securing the Premises and for the suitability of the Premises for the Franchised School notwithstanding any guidance or assistance we may provide to you concerning selection of the Premises and the terms of the lease. We will have no liability to you concerning the suitability of the location, the Premises or the lease. We do not warrant in any way that the location, the Premises or lease terms will be adequate for your needs or purposes. Our reviews, approvals, and assistance are based on our general criteria and are not a guaranty that you will succeed in the location selected or under the terms of the lease approved by us.

5.6 Development of Premises and Pre-Opening Requirements.

You have full and sole responsibility for:

- (a) Customizing plans and drawings needed for the development of the Premises as a Tutu School meeting our standards and requirements;
- (b) Obtaining any required zoning changes, all required building, utility and sign permits and licenses and any other required permits and licenses;

(c) Purchasing or leasing and installing at the Premises approved Equipment required for the Franchised School in compliance with this Agreement and any specifications and standards set forth in the Operations Manual or other writings from us;

(d) Completing any construction or leasehold improvements needed, including, but not limited to, remodeling, installation of fixtures, furniture and signs, and decorating of the Premises in full and strict compliance with our standards and requirements and following all applicable ordinances, building codes and permit requirements, including but not limited to any requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act;

(e) Hiring any staff for the operation of the Franchised School;

(f) Completing our satisfaction all training required by Section 4.1 of this Agreement;

(g) Completing development of and having the Franchised School ready to open and commence business in accordance with Section 6.1 of this Agreement; and

(h) Planning and conducting appropriate pre-opening and “market introduction” marketing, promotion and advertising for the Franchised School in accordance with good business practices and our standards and specifications which includes a required minimum amount of $8,000 spent on advertising and marketing of your Franchised School in the period beginning 60 days before opening and through your first month of business operations.

5.7 Trade Dress and Furnishings.

We will provide you with the design criteria and image and layout specifications for a Tutu School. Without limiting any other provisions of this Agreement, you must design and decorate the Premises in accordance with all of our design criteria and image specifications, including but not limited to those concerning, signs, décor, artwork, color schemes, furnishings and fixtures, and must from time to time redecorate, refurbish and otherwise update the Premises as reasonably required by us to comport with modifications in our trade dress and image.

5.8 Maintenance and Repair of Premises.

You must maintain and repair the Premises in accordance with our standards and with the requirements of the Premises lease. Without limiting the foregoing, the Premises must be kept safe and clean at all times and have an immaculate and inviting appearance in keeping with the highest standards for a School with all health, fire, safety, access and egress requirements of applicable laws and ordinances, including any laws specifically applicable to businesses serving young children.

5.9 Modernization.

From time to time as we require, you must modernize and/or replace the building interior, trade dress, equipment, fixtures and improvements as may be necessary for your Franchised School to conform to the standards for similarly situated new Schools. A transfer of a Controlling Interest in this Agreement or your business governed by Section 11 or renewal covered by Section 12.2 is expressly conditioned upon your (or the transferee, as applicable) modernizing the Franchised

School to confirm to new standards for new Schools. You acknowledge and agree that the requirements of this Section are both reasonable and necessary to ensure continued public acceptance and patronage of Schools and avoid deterioration in connection with the operation of your Franchised School. If you fail to make any improvement or perform the required maintenance, we may, in addition to our other rights and obligations under this Agreement, complete such improvement or maintenance on your behalf and you must reimburse us for the costs we incur.

5.10 Relocation.

You may not relocate your Franchised School without our prior written consent. If you need to relocate because of condemnation, destruction or expiration or cancellation of your lease for reasons other than your breach, we will grant you authority to do so at a site acceptable to us that is within your Designated Area, is reasonably suited for a School, and does not infringe on the rights of any other School franchisee, provided that the new Franchised School premises is open and operating within 60 days after you discontinue operation at the present Premises, all in accordance with our then-current standards. If you voluntarily decide to relocate the Franchised School, you must obtain our prior written consent and your right to relocate the Franchised School will be void and your interest in this Agreement will be voluntarily abandoned, unless you have given us notice of your intent to relocate not less than 60 days prior to closing the Franchised School, have procured a site within your Designated Area that we accept 15 days prior to such closure, have opened the new School within 48 hours of such closure and complied with any other conditions that we reasonably require. In connection with your relocation for any reason, you must sign our then-current form of relocation agreement (which may include a general release of claims to the extent permitted by law), you must pay the costs of relocation, and we reserve the right to charge you for any reasonable costs we incur. Upon relocation of the Franchised School for any reason, we may modify your Designated Area, in our sole judgment, to take into account the designated areas of neighboring schools and other factors. We have the right to refuse to consent to a relocation if you lose the right to occupy the Premises because of termination of your lease due to your breach. Further, the cancellation of your lease due to your breach is grounds for immediate termination under Section 12.3.

6. OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISED SCHOOL

6.1 Commencement of Business.

(a) You must commence operation at the Franchised School promptly after completion of initial training and all other pre-opening requirements and in no event later than 12 months after the Effective Date.

(b) Once open for business, the Franchised School must remain in operation. You may not under any circumstances close any School without our prior written approval. Any relocation of the Franchised School is subject to the requirements of Section 5.9.

6.2 Minimum Period of Operation.

We do not currently prescribe exact hours of operation. However, you must actively operate the Franchised School and must offer at least 16 hours of class per week, unless consent to operate for a lesser period is granted by us in writing. We reserve the right to increase the minimum number of class hours and to prescribe specific hours of operation as may be set forth in the Operations Manual from time to time.

6.3 Required Equipment.

You must at your sole expense provide all necessary Equipment for operation of the Franchised School and must use in the Franchised School such Equipment meeting any specifications as we may have issued. We may modify Equipment and related requirements from time to time and you must comply with all such changes, modifications and updates by replacing, modifying or updating the Equipment, provided that the requirements imposed are reasonable in terms of cost, frequency of the changes and the time imposed for full implementation of the changes.

6.4 Technology System.

(a) You must purchase and use any technology system that we develop or select for the Franchised School or Network, including all future updates, supplements and modifications (the “Technology System”). The Technology System may include all hardware and software used in the operation of the Schools, including (i) all computer hardware and related accessories and peripheral equipment; (ii) the billing, electronic point-of-sale cash registers, school management and back office programs used to record, analyze and report sales and School operations; and (iii) any other hardware or software component that we develop or select for the Franchised School or Network. Requirements may include, among other things, connection to remote servers, off-site electronic repositories, high speed internet connections, and establishment of one or more email accounts. If you request additional branded email accounts for your Franchised School, we may charge our then-current fee for each additional branded email account beyond the number we require. You must (i) use any software programs, system documentation manuals, and other materials that we provide to you in connection with the operation of your Franchised School; (ii) input and maintain in designated systems such data and information as we prescribe in the Operations Manual and other written directives; and (iii) purchase new or upgraded software programs, system documentation manuals, and other materials at then-current prices whenever we adopt such new or upgraded programs, manuals, and materials system-wide. You must enter into all software license agreements, “terms of use” agreements, software-as-a-service agreements, and software maintenance agreements, in the form and manner we prescribe, and pay all fees imposed by us, our affiliate or any third party software and software services provider there-under. We may later increase any Technology System related fee upon 30 days’ notice to you. You acknowledge that we may independently access from a remote location, at any time, all information input into and compiled by your Technology System or an off-site server, including Member Information. We reserve the right to designate a single source from whom you must purchase any component of the Technology System. It is your responsibility to make sure you comply with all laws that are applicable to the Technology System, including all data protection, privacy and security laws.

(b) You acknowledge and agree that we control the use of Membership Information related to your Franchised School. You will only use the Membership Information as a processor as necessary to operate your Franchised School for the term of this Agreement unless you otherwise obtain our prior written approval. You have no right to sell, transfer, sublicense or otherwise share Membership Information to or with any third party unless you obtain our prior written approval or the third party is a service provider bound to substantially similar obligations as this Section and you remain liable for their use. You will comply with all directives and terms in the Operations Manual respecting your use of the Membership Information. We may independently access Membership Information on the Technology System or an off-site server from a remote location and at the Franchised School and you will allow us to audit your records to confirm compliance with these provisions. You must provide to us usernames and passwords to access the Technology System. You are solely responsible for protecting Membership Information from cyber-attacks or unauthorized access, and you waive any claim you may have against us as the direct or indirect result of such attacks or unauthorized access. You must comply with all applicable federal, state, provincial and local laws and regulations concerning the storage, handling, use and protection of Membership Information. In addition, you must comply with any data protection and breach response policies we periodically may establish and must not use or disclose Membership Information in a manner that would cause us to be in violation of our published privacy policy. You must notify us immediately of any actual or suspected data breach or cyber-attack at or in connection with the Franchised School or Membership Information. We will periodically update the Operations Manual to the extent necessary to carry out the full intention of this section should any federal, state or other applicable privacy or related laws restrict or otherwise impose obligations respecting our rights to access Membership Information on the Technology System or at the Franchised School. Separately, each party is an independent data controller of, or, if applicable, a business in relation to, the personal data or information relating to the other party's employees, contractors and/or executives it collects and processes and each party will comply with all applicable laws and regulations in relation to the same. The parties will enter into a separate data sharing agreement or processing agreement to the extent and as required by applicable law.

6.5 Approved Services and Products.

You may offer and sell only approved services and approved products in the Franchised School and must offer for sale the complete range of required services and required products as listed in the approved products and approved services list in the Operations Manual, as we may amend from time to time. You may not offer, sell, or supply any products or services which are not approved products or services (including products or services that we have withdrawn), without our prior written consent. We may designate or approve specific suppliers (including us or an affiliate) to provide products, Equipment, goods or services to all or part of the Network as further outlined in Section 7.

6.6 Compliance with Operations Manuals and Standards.

You must operate the Franchised School in strict compliance with all required quality and service standards and specifications, and other requirements, standards, procedures, specifications and policies we establish. Without limiting the foregoing, you must at all times comply with the latest version of the Operations Manual, which may be modified from time to time by us in our sole discretion, provided that the cost of complying with any modifications must be reasonable. The required standards generally will be set forth in the Operations Manual. The Operations Manual also will include guidelines or recommendations in addition to required standards. In some instances, the required standards will include recommendations or guidelines to meet the required standards. You may follow the recommendations or guidelines or some other suitable alternative, provided you meet and comply with the required standards. In other instances, no suitable alternative may exist. In order to protect our interests in the System and Marks, we reserve the right to determine if you are meeting a required standard and whether an alternative is suitable to any recommendations or guidelines. Any required standards exist to protect our interests in the System and the Marks and not for the purpose of establishing any control or duty to take control over those matters that are reserved to you.

6.7 Compliance with Laws and Good Business Practices.

You must comply with all federal, state and local laws, regulations and ordinances applicable to the Franchised School and its operations, including but not limited to local or state licensing requirements, public health, child safety requirements, workplace and occupational safety requirements, employment regulations, intellectual property laws, the Americans With Disabilities Act and other laws concerning access to the Premises and all permit requirements. While we may provide information about such laws, regulations and ordinances, you are solely responsible for identifying and complying with those laws, regulations and ordinances applicable to the Franchised School. You are solely responsible for and must promptly pay all taxes, license fees, assessments, rent, trade obligations and all other debts and obligations of the Franchised School. You must conduct the Franchised School in an ethical, competent, courteous and professional manner. You must not take or omit to take any action or permit any action by any person under its control that may damage, tarnish or detract from the goodwill and reputation associated with the Marks, the Network or us.

6.8 Ongoing Background Checks; Staff Restrictions.

Throughout the term of this Agreement, you agree to perform background checks through an Approved Supplier on any new employees or independent contractors who will work at the Franchised School prior to their employment, and will not hire an individual without completing the required background check or if the results of a background check on such person do not meet our standards. In addition, you are aware and agree that any misconduct by an employee or independent contractor of the Franchised School involving harm to minors or any criminal charge of sexual misconduct against any person, regardless of whether it occurs in connection with the Franchised School or not, constitutes improper behavior which is likely to harm the Tutu School Marks and requires your immediate intervention, upon discovery, to prevent such a person from interacting with any of the children attending classes in the future. You must at all times consider the safety and security of the public, as well as the goodwill in the Marks, in making hiring decisions relating to the Franchised School. You acknowledge that you are an independent business and solely responsible for control and management of your Franchised School, including, but not limited to, the hiring and discharging of your employees and setting and paying wages and benefits of your employees. You acknowledge that we have no power, responsibility or liability in respect to the hiring, discharging, setting and paying of wages or related matters.

6.9 Customer Service.

You must comply with our standards for customer service. Without limiting the foregoing, you must ensure that all messages from customers, referral sources and potential customers receive a reply within 24 hours of receipt or by the next business day. You must respond promptly, courteously and substantively to customer inquiries and any complaints regarding the Franchised School or the customer's experience with the Franchised School and will otherwise conduct the Franchised School so as to promote good customer and business relations. We may establish standards for customer satisfaction and/or refund policies and you must abide by all such standards and policies. You must follow our policies, prohibitions or programs concerning gift cards or certificates, coupons and promotions and must participate in any gift card or certificate programs that we may establish.

6.10 Communication with Us.

You must return all our telephone calls and respond to all other communications from us to which a response is requested within a reasonable length of time. You must inform us of any material problems you encounter with the use any part of the Tutu School System, the Tutu School Methods, any of the Approved Services or Approved Suppliers.

6.11 Advertising.

You may only use advertising, marketing and promotional materials (including communications in print, broadcast, on the Internet and in other media or form) that are either supplied by us or that meet the standards and specifications contained in the Operations Manual or other writings from us. You must submit all advertising, marketing and promotional materials we did not provide us for approval by us before use. We maintain the absolute right to determine in our sole discretion whether any advertising, marketing or promotional materials used by or proposed for use by you are permissible. You, on notice from us, will refrain from using or discontinue use of any such materials that we deem inappropriate for any reason. Your use of the Marks to advertise and market the business online is governed by the terms of Section 4.7.

6.12 Personnel and Supervision Standards.

(a) During the term of this Agreement, you (if you are an individual) or your Operating Principal (if you are a legal entity), or your general manager must devote full time and attention to the management and operation of your Franchised School and provide direct supervision of the Franchised School. The use of a general manager in no way relieves you of your obligations to comply with this Agreement and to ensure that the Franchised School is properly operated. Any general manager or replacement general manager must complete the training described in Section 4.1.

(b) You must employ a sufficient number of competent and trained employees to ensure efficient service to your customers.

(c) No employee of yours will be deemed our employee for any purpose whatsoever, and nothing in any aspect of the System and Marks in any way shifts any employee or employment related responsibility from you to us. You acknowledge that you are an independent business and responsible for the control and management of your Franchised School, including, but not limited to, the hiring, discharging, training, compliance with wage and hour requirements, personnel policies, benefits, recordkeeping, scheduling, supervision and discipline of employees, regardless of whether you receive advice from us on these subjects. You acknowledge that we have no power, responsibility or liability for personnel decisions regarding your employees.

6.13 Image.

We have established and wish to foster a certain image and ambience for all Schools and the Network. You acknowledge that image and ambience are critical to building and maintaining the goodwill and reputation associated with the Marks and the Network. Accordingly, you must strictly comply with all standards, specifications or prohibitions we issue concerning image and ambience, including, but not limited to, trade dress and the maintenance of a fresh, updated and inviting Franchised School appearance at all times.

7. SUPPLIER ARRANGEMENTS

You must use only our designated or approved suppliers as applicable to specific products, Equipment, goods, or services. We may change the Approved Supplier list from time to time and will provide you with updated lists as they are changed. Although we do not do so for every item, we have the right to approve the manufacturer, distributor and/or supplier of approved supplies. You acknowledge and agree that certain approved supplies may only be available from one source and we or our affiliates may be that source. You will pay the then-current price in effect for approved supplies you purchase from us or our affiliates. All inventory, products, materials and other items and supplies used in the operation of the Franchised School that are not included in the approved supplies or approved suppliers lists must conform to the specifications and standards we establish from time to time. ALTHOUGH APPROVED BY US, WE AND OUR AFFILIATES MAKE NO WARRANTY AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ALL WARRANTIES, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WITH RESPECT TO PRODUCTS, EQUIPMENT (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY REQUIRED TECHNOLOGY SYSTEMS), SUPPLIES, FIXTURES, FURNISHINGS OR OTHER APPROVED ITEMS.

Except for any products, supplies or materials for which we designate a single approved supplier, if you wish to purchase products, supplies, materials or equipment from suppliers not approved by us, you must submit to us a written request to approve the proposed supplier, together with any background documents or evidence we may require. We will have the right to require you to obtain permission from the supplier to allow our representatives to inspect the supplier's facilities and that you deliver samples from the supplier for evaluation and testing to us or to an independent testing Store that we designate. We may charge you an evaluation fee to conduct our evaluation and testing. We will, within 30 days after our receipt of your evaluation request, notify you in writing of our approval or disapproval of your proposed supplier. We may revoke our approval of particular products, equipment or suppliers when we determine that such products, equipment or suppliers no longer meet our standards. Upon receipt of our revocation of approval, you must cease to use or sell any disapproved products and cease to purchase from any disapproved supplier. You understand and agree that we and any supplier may communicate freely with each other concerning purchases made by you and other matters relevant to the Franchised School or the Network.

8. FEES AND REPORTS

8.1 Initial Franchise Fee.

You must pay us an initial franchise fee (“Initial Franchise Fee”) in the amount set forth on the Summary Page, due in full on signing of this Agreement. The initial fee is deemed fully earned upon payment in consideration for our expenses incurred and services rendered in granting you the franchise and is non-refundable.

8.2 Royalties.

(a) During the full term of this Agreement, or any Interim Period, and in consideration of the rights granted to you, you must pay to us a monthly Royalty Fee on your Franchised School’s Gross Programming Revenue and Gross Retail Revenue in the amounts set forth on the Summary Page.

(b) You must accurately report sales made at or through the Franchised School and may not delay collection of tuition or otherwise manipulate the revenues or the making of bank deposits as a means of avoiding or lessening the payment of Royalty. The taking of any such actions will constitute an intentional understatement and a material default of this Agreement. You must also certify the computation of the amounts in the manner and form we specify, and you must supply to us any supporting or supplementary materials as we reasonably require to verify the accuracy of remittances.

(c) You must pay the Royalty to us by the 10th day of each month. We reserve the right to change the due date of any or all amounts on notice to you. At the time required for payment, you must deliver to us a true and correct accounting of Gross Revenue (including each of Gross Programming Revenue and Gross Retail Revenue) received during the prior month. All such accounting statements must be prepared and delivered in the form and manner we prescribe from time to time.

(d) You waive any and all existing and future claims and offsets against any amounts due under this Agreement, which amounts you must pay when due. We have the right to apply or cause to be applied against amounts due to us or any of our affiliates any amounts that we or our affiliates may hold from time to time on your behalf or that we or our affiliates owe to you.

8.3 Reports, Audits and Records.

(a) Each month you must submit to us a report of your Gross Revenues with respect to the preceding month on the day and in the form and content as we periodically prescribe. The monthly report or other reports that we may require will include, but not be limited to, the following information for the preceding the applicable reporting period: (i) amount of Gross Revenues of the Franchised School, amount of sales tax and the computation of the Royalty Fee and other fees; (ii) copies of your most recent sales tax return, sales summary and monthly balance sheet and statement of profit and loss, including a summary of your costs for utilities, labor, rent and other material cost items; and (iii) if requested by us to verify your Gross Revenues, all such books and records as we may require under our audit policies published from time to time. You also must, at your expense, submit to us within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year a detailed balance sheet, profit and loss statement and statement of cash flows for such fiscal year. We may require that the annual financial statements be reviewed by a certified public accountant. You must certify all reports to be true and correct.

(b) We or our authorized representative have the right at all times during the business day to enter the premises where your books and records relative to the Business are kept and to evaluate, copy and audit such books and records. We also have the right to request information from your suppliers and vendors. In the event that any such evaluation or audit reveals any understatement of 2% or more of your Gross Revenues, you must pay for the audit, and in addition to any other rights we may have, we have the right to conduct further periodic audits and evaluations of your books and records as we reasonably deem necessary for up to 3 years thereafter and any further audits and evaluations will be at your sole expense, including, without limitation, professional fees, travel, and room and board expenses directly related thereto. Furthermore, if you intentionally understate or underreport Gross Revenues at any time, or if a subsequent audit or evaluation conducted within the 3-year period reveals any understatement of your Gross Revenues of 2% or more, in addition to any other remedies provided for in this Agreement, at law or in equity, we have the right to terminate this Agreement immediately.

(c) You must keep books and records (including using our standard chart of accounts) and submit reports as we periodically require, including but not limited to a monthly profit plan, monthly balance sheet and monthly statement of profit and loss, records of prices and special sales, check registers, purchase records, invoices, sales summaries and inventories, sales tax records and returns, payroll records, cash disbursement journals and general ledgers, all of which accurately reflect the operations and condition of your Franchised School operations. You must compile, keep and submit to us the books, records and reports on the forms and using the methods of bookkeeping and accounting as we periodically may prescribe. The records that you are required to keep for your Franchised School must include detailed daily sales, cost of sales, and other relevant records or information maintained in an electronic media format and methodology we approve. You must provide this information to us according to reporting formats, methodologies and time schedules that we establish from time to time. You also must preserve and retain the books, records and reports for not less than 36 months. You must allow us electronic and manual access to any and all records relating to your Franchised School.

8.4 Interest Charges and Late Fees.

Any and all amounts that you owe to us or to our affiliates will bear interest at the rate of 18% per annum or the maximum contract rate of interest permitted by governing law, whichever is less, from and after the date of accrual. In addition to interest charges on late Royalty Fees and other payments due to us, you must pay to us a service charge of $50 for each delinquent periodic report or payment that you owe to us under this Agreement. A payment is delinquent for any of the following reasons: (i) we do not receive the payment on or before the date due; or (ii) there are insufficient funds in your bank account to collect the total payment by a transfer of funds on or after the date due. The service charge is not interest or a penalty, it is only to compensate us for increased administrative and management costs due to late payment.

8.5 Methods of Payment.

You must make payments to us and our affiliates by electronic funds transfer or such alternative methods as we may designate. You must execute and deliver to us, our bank and your bank, as necessary, all forms and documents that we request to permit us to use any payment method we designate. You must comply with all procedures we specify and take such reasonable action as we request to assist in any of the payment methods. Specifically, you agree that upon notice by us, all payments owed to us and our affiliates may be deducted from the monies your billing and payment processor collects on your behalf and you hereby authorize the billing and payment processor to deduct such amounts and to pay those amounts to us on the due date of such amount. You must maintain a balance in your account sufficient to allow us and our affiliates to collect the amounts owed to us when due and must notify us at least 20 days before closing or changing the account against which such debits are to be made. You are responsible for any penalties, fines or other similar expenses associated with the transfer of funds described in this Section.

8.6 Inflation Adjustment.

Any fees or charges stated as fixed dollar amounts anywhere in this Agreement are subject to inflation adjustment by us. Adjustments may be made no more than once each year and must be in proportion to the changes in the Consumer Price Index (meaning the annual average of the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, 1982-84=100, published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor (or any successor index that we designate) since the Effective Date or, if prior adjustments have been made, since the previous date an inflation adjustment was made by us.

8.7 Taxes.

If any taxes, fees, or assessments are imposed on royalties or other fees by reason of us acting as us or licensing the Marks or the System under this Agreement (for example, sales tax), you will reimburse us the amount of those taxes, fees, or assessments within 15 days after receipt of our written notice to you.

9. MARKETING

9.1 Approved Materials.

You must use only such marketing materials (including any print, radio, television, electronic, or other media forms that may become available in the future) as we furnish, approve or make available, and the materials must be used only in a manner that we prescribe. Furthermore, any promotional activities you conduct in the Franchised School or on its premises are subject to our approval. You must submit all advertising and promotional materials to us prior to your use. If we do not respond within 14 days after you submit the proposed advertising materials to us, the advertising materials will be deemed not approved. We will not unreasonably withhold approval of any sales promotion materials or media and activities; provided that they are current, in good condition, in good taste and accurately depict the Marks.

9.2 National Marketing and Technology Fee.

(a) You must pay us each month a National Marketing and Technology Fee in the amount set forth on the Summary Page. We may increase the National Marketing and Technology Fee upon notice to you. We will deposit the National Marketing and Technology Fee in the National Marketing and Technology Fund that we manage. The Fund is not a trust or escrow account, and we have no fiduciary obligation to you with respect to the Fund; provided, however, we will make a good faith effort to expend such fees in a manner that we determine is in the general best interests of the Network.

(b) We may use the National Marketing and Technology Fund for activities to support the marketing and promotion of Schools, the Network and the Marks, including: providing creative development services (including graphic design for marketing collateral); updating and hosting a website; development and maintenance of software used by you (including class registration and billing software), social media support; subscription fees and set-up expenses for design and learning platforms; the cost of music licensing; the expenses of franchise system-wide meetings; providing market intelligence through analytics to the franchise system; conducting member interviews, focus groups and surveys; conducting promotions; engaging advertising and marketing agencies and public relations firms; and any other expenses for developing and promoting the brand or System. We may be reimbursed for reasonable administrative costs, salaries and overhead incurred in administering or providing services to the National Marketing and Technology Fund. We need not spend all amounts we collect in the same year collected. If the amount collected exceeds what is needed to pay for currently-planned advertising, marketing and technology, we may accrue the excess amounts for use in future years. We will provide you with an unaudited accounting of how we used payments in the last fiscal year upon your request. We do not use your marketing and technology payments in any advertising that is principally to solicit prospective franchisees, provided our general marketing materials may reference franchise sales available. You will not receive a refund of any marketing and technology fees paid on termination, nonrenewal or expiration of your franchise. We are not required to segregate these payments from other funds we hold or to audit what we collect and spend.

9.3 Local Marketing

You must use your best efforts to aggressively promote and advertise the Franchised School in your local area, and participate in any local marketing and promotional programs that we establish from time to time (subject to applicable law). In addition to the National Marketing and Technology Fee, you must spend a minimum of 5% of Gross Revenues per month on approved local marketing activities each year. We strongly recommend that you spend money every month on local marketing but you may want to spend more on local marketing during peak months and less during non-peak months. Within 30 days of our request, you must provide us with verification of the local marketing you conduct, including reports and receipts evidencing the placement of ads or verification copies of advertising. If you fail to spend at least 5% of Gross Revenues in a calendar year, we reserve the right to collect the deficiency from you and deposit that amount in the National Advertising and Technology Fund.

9.4 Local/Regional Marketing Groups

We have the right to designate local or regional marketing groups and if designated, you must participate in and contribute to the advertising and marketing programs in your designated local/regional marketing group. If established, you must contribute to the group the amount we designate. We have the right to form, change, dissolve or merge local/regional marketing groups. Any amount you spend on approved local/regional marketing group activities will count towards your local marketing requirements.

10. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND NONCOMPETITION

10.1 Confidential Information.

(a) You will have access to certain confidential information (“Confidential Information”) concerning us, the System, other Tutu School franchisees and related matters, all of which are our sole property. You must treat all Confidential Information strictly in accordance with the terms set forth in this Section 10 and the Operations Manual. “Confidential Information” means and includes: any information disclosed by us to you or generated in the operation of the Franchised School, whether disclosure is direct or indirect, in writing, orally or by inspection of tangible objects or observation of procedures, and includes but is not limited to: (i) our business strategies, plans and objectives, including but not limited to development, marketing, advertising and promotional strategies, proposals and plans; (ii) the System; (iii) the content of the Operations Manual, training programs and materials; (iv) the Tutu School Methods; (v) any proprietary computer system or program; (vi) programs, classes, camps and teaching material; (vii) information on identity of designated or approved suppliers and the pricing and other arrangements with such suppliers, as well as information which is designated as “Confidential,” “Proprietary” or some similar designation, and information disclosed under circumstances that reasonably indicate that it is considered Confidential Information.

(b) Confidential Information does not include any information that: (i) was publicly known and made generally available in the public domain prior to the time of disclosure by us; (ii) becomes publicly known and made generally available after disclosure by us to you through no action or inaction of you; (iii) is already in your possession at the time of disclosure by us as shown by your files and records immediately prior to the time of disclosure; (iv) is obtained by you from a third party without a breach of such third party’s obligations of confidentiality; or (v) is independently developed by you without use of or reference to the our Confidential Information, as shown by documents and other competent evidence in your possession.

10.2 Protection of Confidential Information.

(a) You may only use the Confidential Information in the development and operation of the Franchised School and for no other purpose. You must not use or disclose, directly or indirectly, any Confidential Information, whether in tangible or intangible form, to any person except as may be expressly permitted by us in writing. You must at all times keep all of the Confidential Information in a secure manner that prevents unauthorized access. You must not copy, reproduce, duplicate or redact the Confidential Information in any form. You must take all reasonable measures to prevent the unauthorized use and disclosure of Confidential Information, and to prevent unauthorized persons or entities from obtaining or using such Confidential Information. You further agree to refrain from directly or indirectly taking any action that would constitute or facilitate the unauthorized use or disclosure of such Confidential Information. You will follow our directives, including any requirements of the Operations Manual, regarding the protection of the Confidential Information.

(b) You may disclose Confidential Information to your officers, owners, executives and employees only to the extent necessary to enable you to operate the Franchised School in compliance with this Agreement. Such disclosure may only be made to qualified and responsible officers, owners, executives, employees or contractors to the extent they need to know the information and who have entered into a form of confidentiality agreement satisfactory to us. You must obtain from all employees and contractors, upon their engagement, signed confidentiality agreements in a form satisfactory to us. You will be liable for any unauthorized use and disclosure of Confidential Information by your employees, contractors, owners, affiliates or anyone controlled by or under common control of you. You will not be liable for disclosure of such Confidential Information as you are required by law or court order to disclose, provided that you give us prompt written notice of such requirement prior to such disclosure and cooperate with us in seeking an order protecting the information from public disclosure.

10.3 Noncompetition

You acknowledge and agree that (i) the System and the Confidential Information are valuable and proprietary; (ii) Without this Agreement and the relationship with us, you would not have acquired access to or knowledge of the System or the Confidential Information; (iii) irreparable damage to us and the Network could result were the System or the Confidential Information to be used in a Competitive Business; (iv) it would be difficult, if not impossible, for you to operate a Competitive Business without using therein all or part of the System and the Confidential Information; and (v) we have a legitimate interest in protecting the System and the Confidential Information from use in any Competitive Business. Therefore, it is necessary to protect the System and the Confidential Information, and you agree:

(a) You and your shareholders, partners or other owners (including their respective spouses and immediate family) must not directly or indirectly establish, assist, engage in or have any direct or indirect interest, whether as an owner, partner, shareholder, employee, salesperson, consultant, officer, director, principal or agent, security holder, lender, investor or guarantor of or for the benefit of, in any Competitive Business as follows:

(i) At any location during the term of this Agreement or any renewals hereof; and

(ii) For a period of 2 years following any termination, expiration or nonrenewal of this Agreement in the following areas:

(A) at the Premises;

(B) anywhere within the Designated Area;

(C) anywhere within 15 miles of the Designated Area; or

(D) within 15 miles of any operating School in the System.

(b) Notwithstanding the above, you may own, directly or indirectly, solely as a passive investor, securities of any Competitive Business, if such securities are traded on any national securities exchange and you: (i) are not a controlling person of, or a member of a group which controls, such Competitive Business, and (ii) do not, directly or indirectly, own more than one percent (1%) of any class of securities of such Competitive Business.

For purposes of this Section 10.3, licensing, selling, providing or otherwise making available to any other business or person any information that would enable such business or person to provide retail services competitive with those offered by Schools in the Network is deemed a form of assisting a Competitive Business and is prohibited hereunder. In addition, the length of time in subpart (a)(ii) will be tolled for any period during which you or any Related Party is in breach of the covenants or any other period during which we seek to enforce this Agreement. The parties agree that the foregoing covenants will be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement.

10.4 Compliance by Related Parties.

You must cause each of your owners, shareholders and partners and any other person, company, partnership or entity that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with you (collectively “Related Parties”) to comply with and fully observe the provisions of this Section 10 and, at our request, must require such Related Parties to execute a form of Non-Disclosure and Non-Competition Agreement as may be approved by us.

10.5 Enforcement.

If you breach, or if any of your Related Parties breach, any of the provisions of this Section 10 (the “Restrictive Covenants”), we have the following rights and remedies, each of which is independent of the other and severally enforceable, and all of which are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available to us under law or in equity:

(a) To have the Restrictive Covenants specifically enforced, by preliminary injunction or otherwise, by any court having jurisdiction, all without the need to post a bond or any other security or to prove any amount of actual damage or that money damages would not provide an adequate remedy, it being acknowledged and agreed that any such breach or threatened breach will cause irreparable injury to us and that monetary damages will not provide an adequate remedy to us; and

(b) To require you:

(i) to account for and pay over to us all compensation, profits, monies, accruals, increments and other benefits derived or received by you or any Related Party deriving such benefits as a result of any such breach of the Restrictive Covenants; and

(ii) to indemnify and hold us harmless and each of our officers, directors, stockholders, employees, agents, attorneys and their respective successors and assigns from and against any other losses, damages (including special and consequential damages), costs and expenses, including actual attorneys’ fees and court costs (whether or not suit is filed), that may be incurred by us and that may result from or arise out of any such breach or threatened breach of the Restrictive Covenants.

10.6 Narrowing of Restrictive Covenants.

We may elect to enforce or demand enforcement of the Restrictive Covenants to their full extent or at our option, to such lesser extent as we determine is necessary to protect our interest. If any court determines that any Restrictive Covenant, or any part thereof, is invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of the Restrictive Covenants will not thereby be affected and must be given full effect without regard to the invalid portions. If any court of competent jurisdiction determines that any of the Restrictive Covenants, or any part thereof, is invalid or unenforceable because of the duration or geographic scope of such provision, we and you consent to the court reducing the duration or geographic scope of such provision so that it is valid and enforceable.

10.7 Grant-Back of Improvements.

If in the employment and utilization of the System, the Tutu School Methods or in the operation of the Franchised School, you or any of your owners or employees make or acquire any Improvements, you hereby agree to grant-back exclusive rights in such Improvements to us in consideration of the grant of the franchise made under this Agreement and without the payment of additional consideration by us. We may include any Improvements made or acquired by you in the Tutu School Methods, the Operations Manual and the System for use by all Tutu School franchisees.

11. ASSIGNMENT AND RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

11.1 Assignment by Us.

We may freely assign this Agreement, and any or all of our rights and privileges hereunder to any other person, firm or corporation without your prior consent; provided that, in respect to any assignment resulting in the subsequent performance by the assignee of the functions of us: (a) we will determine in good faith if the assignee is financially responsible and economically capable of performing the obligations of us hereunder; and (b) the assignee will expressly assume and agree to perform such obligations.

11.2 Assignment by You.

You understand and acknowledge that the rights and duties created by this Agreement are personal to you and your owners and that we have granted the franchise to you in reliance upon the individual or collective character, skill, aptitude, attitude, business ability and financial capacity of you and your owners. Accordingly, neither this Agreement nor the franchise (or any interest therein), nor any part or all of the ownership of you or the Franchised School (or any interest therein), may be transferred unless you have first tendered to us the right of first refusal to acquire this Agreement in accordance with Section 11.8, and, if we do not exercise such right, unless prior written consent is obtained, the transfer fee provided for in Section 11.3 is paid, and the transfer conditions described in Section 11.4 are satisfied.

As used in this Section 11, a “transfer” requiring our approval includes the voluntary, involuntary, direct or indirect assignment, sale, gift or other transfer of any interest in: (i) this Agreement; (ii) the franchise; (iii) the ownership of you; or (iv) the Franchised School or a substantial part of the assets used in the Franchised School and includes any transfer of ownership of capital stock, partnership or membership interest; merger or consolidation or issuance of additional securities representing an ownership interest in you; any sale of voting stock of you or any security convertible to voting stock of you, transfer of an interest in you, this Agreement, the franchise or the Franchised School in a divorce, insolvency, corporate or partnership dissolution proceeding or otherwise by operation of law; or transfer of an interest in this Agreement, the franchise, you, or the Franchised School in the event of the death of you or an owner, by will, declaration of or transfer in trust, or under the laws of intestate succession.

11.3 Transfer Fee.

You must pay us a transfer fee in an amount equal to 50% of our then-current initial franchise fee paid by you; provided that the transfer fee is reduced to (i) 25% of our then current initial franchise fee paid by you if the buyer is an existing Tutu School franchisee in good standing or (ii) $2,500 if we determine that the transfer does not result in a change in control in you.

11.4 Consent to Transfer.

We will not unreasonably withhold our consent to transfer, provided we determine that all of the conditions described in this Section 11 have been satisfied. Application for our consent to a transfer and tender of the right of first refusal provided for in Section 11.7 must be made by submission of our form of application for consent to transfer, which must be accompanied by the documents we request and other required information. The application must indicate whether you or an Owner proposes to retain a security interest in the property to be transferred. No security interest may be retained or created, however, without our prior written consent and except upon conditions acceptable to us. Any agreement used in connection with a transfer will be subject to our prior written approval, which approval will not be withheld unreasonably. You immediately must notify us of any proposed transfer and must submit promptly to us the application for consent to transfer and any other required documents and information. Any attempted transfer by you without our prior written consent or otherwise not in compliance with the terms of this Agreement will be void, your interest in this Agreement will be voluntarily abandoned, and it will provide us with the right to elect either to deem you in default and terminate this Agreement or to collect from you and the guarantors a transfer fee equal to two times the transfer fee provided for in Section 11.3.

11.5 Conditions for Approval of Transfer.

We condition our consent to any proposed transfer, whether to an individual, a corporation, a partnership or any other entity upon the following:

(a) The transferee must meet all of our then-current requirements for Tutu School franchisees, including that they have sufficient business experience, aptitude and financial resources to operate the Franchised School in our judgment;

(b) You must pay all amounts owed to us or to any of our affiliates that are then owed and unpaid;

(c) The transferee or person designated as the transferee's Operating Principal must complete our training program to our satisfaction;

(d) The transferee must execute our then-current form of franchise agreement, which may be materially different from this Agreement (including with respect to fees of Designated Area; provided that no initial franchise fee will be due thereunder) or, at our sole election must assume this Agreement in writing;

(e) You and your owners must execute all transfer documents that we require and in the form we designate, which documents will include a general release of any and all claims, whether known or unknown, against us, any of our affiliates and their respective shareholders, officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns; provided however that the release will not be inconsistent with any applicable state law regulating franchising;

(f) If any part of the sale price of the transferred interest is financed, the transferor must agree that all obligations of the transferee under or pursuant to any promissory note, agreements or security interests reserved by the transferor in the assets of the Franchised School or the Premises must be subordinate to the obligations of the transferee to pay fees, and other amounts due to us and our affiliates;

(g) The transferor and you must execute a noncompetition covenant in favor of the transferee in a form satisfactory to us;

(h) The transferee must agree to complete modernization of the Franchised School as set forth in Section 5.9; and

(i) You must have complied with any other conditions that we reasonably require from time to time as part of our transfer policies.

11.6 Death or Disability.

If any individual who is an Operating Principal or owner dies or becomes disabled or incapacitated and the decedent's or disabled or incapacitated person's heir or successor-in-interest wishes to continue as an owner or Operating Principal, such person or entity must apply for our consent under Section 11.4, comply with the training requirements of Section 4.1, pay the transfer fee, if applicable, under Section 11.3, and satisfy the transfer conditions under Section 11.5, as in any other case of a proposed transfer, all within 180 days of the death or event of disability or incapacity. During any transition period to an heir or successor-in-interest, the Franchised School still must be operated in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If the assignee of the decedent or disabled or incapacitated person is the spouse or child of such person, the transfer conditions in Section 11.5 will apply; provided no transfer fee will be payable to us and we will not have a right of first refusal as stated in Section 11.8.

11.7 Effect of Consent and Transfer.

Our consent to any transfer under this Section 11 and any transfer hereunder will in no event constitute a novation or a release of you or any of your partners, shareholders or other owners or of any guarantors of this Agreement.

11.8 Our Right of First Refusal.

At least 30 days prior to any proposed transfer: (i) of this Agreement or the franchise hereunder; or (ii) the Franchised School or (iii) a substantial part of the assets used therein; or (iv) that would effect a change in the Controlling Interest, you will provide us with written notice of the proposed transfer, including all of the terms and conditions of the proposed transfer, the identity of the proposed transferee and a copy of any bona fide offer, proposed agreement to transfer or letter of intent for the proposed transfer. We or our designee will have 15 business days after receipt of the foregoing information in which to elect to acquire the interest to be transferred on the same terms and conditions as those contained in the notice. We or our designee will not be required to match any terms and conditions that relate to an offer to buy or acquire any rights or assets or to assume any liabilities unconnected with the Franchised School and may require that such terms and conditions be excluded from the offer and the offer restated to reflect the transfer only of rights, assets and liabilities related to the Franchised School. We or our designee may substitute equivalent cash consideration for any non-cash consideration included in the offer. If this right of first refusal is exercised, we or our designee will be entitled to acquire the interest subject to all customary representations and warranties from the transferor as to title and ownership of stock or assets, condition of the assets, liens and encumbrances, liabilities and contingent liabilities.

11.9 Type of Franchisee.

(a) If you are not a natural person but is a business entity e.g., a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, in that event all owners of that entity must execute a form of undertaking and unconditional guaranty required by us (the current form of which is attached to this Agreement as Exhibit C) agreeing to be bound by all the terms, conditions and covenants (including Restrictive Covenants) of this Agreement and to be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all debts and obligations hereunder. Additionally, in such cases:

(i) There must always be an individual shareholder, partner or owner designated by you and approved in writing by us as the Operating Principal and designated contact person for you and that person will be deemed to have full authority in matters concerning the Franchised School we will be entitled to rely on the acts, representations and decisions of that person in relation to the Franchised School;

(ii) We must receive copies of any articles of incorporation, formation documents, operating agreement, partnership agreement, by-laws and other organizational documents and changes thereto;

(iii) You will provide to us, and update upon any change, a complete list of the current officers, shareholders, partners, members or other owners and their respective titles within the organization and the amount of their respective ownership interests in you which list will be updated by notice to us as changes occur;

(iv) All shares of capital stock in any corporation must bear the following legend: “The sale or other transfer of the shares of stock represented by this certificate is restricted by and subject to the terms and conditions of a written franchise agreement with Tutu School Inc.”;

(v) All shareholders, partners, members owners must be natural persons; and

(vi) The corporation, partnership or limited liability company may not own or be engaged in any business or enterprise other than the Franchised School and its shareholders, partners, members or owners may not own or be engaged in any Competitive Business.

(b) If you are a natural person or a partnership, you may transfer this Agreement and your interest in the Franchised School to a corporation or limited liability company (i) that is and will be owned solely by the same natural persons as you or your partners before, (ii) in which you maintain management control, (iii) of which you own and control 100% of the equity and voting power of all issued and outstanding equity interests, and (iv) further provided that all assets of the Franchised School are owned, and the entire School is conducted by a single business entity. Any transfer meeting the conditions of this Section will not be subject to the conditions in Section 11.3 or 11.4, however, the corporate or limited liability company must execute a document in a form approved by us in which it agrees to become a party to and be bound by all the provisions of this Agreement and the owners must agree to remain personally liable under this Agreement.

11.10 Public or Private Offerings.

You acknowledge and agree that the written information used to raise or secure funds can reflect upon us and the Network. You further acknowledge and agree that you may not engage in a public or private offering without our prior written consent. All materials required for any offering or registration of the proposed securities pursuant to federal or state law must be submitted to us for review prior to filing with any government agency; and any materials to be used in any exempt offering must be submitted to use for review prior to their use. If we object to any reference to us or our affiliates or any of our businesses in the offering literature or prospectus, the literature or prospectus must not be used until our objections are withdrawn. No offerings of securities of you or your affiliates may imply, by use of the Marks or otherwise, that we are participating in an underwriting, issuance, or offering of securities of either you or us. The participants in the offering must fully indemnify us and our affiliates in connection with the offering. For each proposed offering, you will pay us a non-refundable fee of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), or such greater amount as may be necessary to reimburse us for our reasonable administrative and professional costs and expenses associated with reviewing the proposed offering, including, without limitation, legal and accounting fees. You agree to provide us with written notice at least 45 days prior to the date of commencement of any offering or other transaction covered by this Section 11.10. Any offering or other transaction covered by this Section 11.10 are subject to our right of first refusal, as set forth in Section 11.8.

11.11 Your Information.

You have the right, but not the obligation, to furnish any prospective transferee or assignee of the Franchised School or an interest in you with copies of all financial statements furnished by you to us in accordance with this Agreement during the 3 year period prior to the date the approval of the proposed assignment, transfer or sale is sought. We also have the right, but not the obligation to advise any prospective assignee of any uncured breaches or defaults by you under this Agreement, or any under other agreement relating to the Franchised School or any other material information relative to the Franchised School. We will have no liability to you or your owners for making any such disclosures to a proposed transferee or assignee. Our approval of such proposed transaction will not, however, be deemed a representation or guarantee by us that the terms and conditions of the proposed transaction are economically sound or that, if the transaction is consummated, the assignee will be capable of successfully conducting the Franchised School and no inference to such effect may be made from such approval.

12. TERM, RENEWAL AND TERMINATION

12.1 Initial Term.

This Agreement is effective on the Effective Date and expires on the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date. Upon your written request, within six (6) months after the opening date of your Franchised School, we will, in our sole discretion, consider a reasonable extension or reduction of the Term to match the expiration of your lease for the premises of the Franchised School.

12.2 Renewal.

12.5 Termination by You.

You may terminate this Agreement only (a) with our prior written consent; or (b) upon a material breach of this Agreement by us that is not cured within 60 days after notice from you.

12.6 Cross Default.

Any default by you or any of your affiliates under any other agreement with us or any of our affiliates may be deemed a default under this Agreement, and any default by you of this Agreement may be deemed a default under any and all other such agreements with us or any of our affiliates.

12.7 Option to Purchase Business.

On termination, nonrenewal or expiration of this Agreement for any reason, we have the right but not the obligation to purchase the assets of the Franchised School at their fair market value, less any amounts due to us and after deduction of any amounts we may be required to pay to the landlord, Approved Suppliers or any creditors of the Franchised School to satisfy any indebtedness of you. This option may be exercised by written notice to you which may be given at any time from 30 days before through 30 days after the termination or expiration, or from such earlier time as it becomes apparent that the franchise will terminate, expire or not be renewed by you through 30 days after the termination, expiration or nonrenewal. Upon receipt of the notice, you must preserve the assets of the Franchised School and refrain from any acts or omissions that would deplete or damage the assets of the Franchised School. Assets to be transferred will include the leasehold interest in the Franchised School, furniture, fixtures, furnishings, equipment, signs, decor and inventory, telephone listings, social media names or sub-domains, and any other assets owned by you and necessary for the operation of the Franchised School. The fair market value of the Franchised School must not include any factor for the value of or goodwill generated by use of the Marks as all such value belongs to us. If we cannot agree on fair market value of the assets, it will be established by an experienced business appraiser agreed on by both parties, with each party paying one half of the appraisal fee. Failing agreement on an appraiser, each party must select and pay the fees of its own appraiser, who must be an experienced business appraiser, and fair market value will be the average of both appraisals. Any appraisal must be reasonable, made in good faith and consistent with the provisions of this Section 12.7.

12.8 Other Remedies.

If we issue you a notice of default and you fail to cure such default within any applicable time period, in addition to any other remedies we may have and without waiving our right to terminate this Agreement as a result of such default, we have the right to withhold services pending any cure of the default including: (1) removing your Franchised School from any website we manage; (2) suspending access to our systems; or (3) limiting or ceasing support. You must hold us harmless with respect to any action we take pursuant to this Section 12.8; and you agree that we will not be liable for any loss, expense, or damage you incur because of any action we take pursuant to this Section 12.8. Nothing in this Section 12.8 constitutes a waiver of any of our rights or remedies under this Agreement or any other agreement between us and you, including the right to terminate this Agreement. You agree that our exercise of our rights pursuant to this Section 12.8 will not be deemed a constructive termination of this Agreement or of any other agreement between us and you, and may not be deemed a breach of any provision of this Agreement.

13. POST-TERMINATION OBLIGATIONS AND RIGHTS

13.1 Your Duties.

Upon termination, nonrenewal or expiration of this Agreement for any reason or cause, you have the following obligations, all of which are at your expense:

(a) You must immediately and completely cease any and all use of the Marks or any other name or mark or trade dress confusingly similar to any of the Marks. The foregoing includes but is not limited to the obligation to cancel all advertising and fictitious business name statements or filings that incorporate any of the Marks, refrain from any use of the Marks to identify you as a former franchisee of us or to otherwise suggest a past or present affiliation between you and us.

(b) If we or our designee are not assuming possession of the Premises, you must promptly take such action as is necessary to change the trade dress of the Premises so that it does not resemble a Tutu School.

(c) You must immediately cease using, in any manner, or for any purpose, directly or indirectly, any part of the Tutu School Methods, the System or the Confidential Information, must permanently delete all electronic files containing any such information or documentation in your possession or control, and must immediately deliver to us all physical documents including:

The expiration or termination of this Agreement is without prejudice to the rights of either party hereto against the other party and such expiration or termination will not relieve either party of any of their obligations to the other party existing at the time of expiration or termination or terminate those obligations which expressly or by their nature, survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

14. INDEMNIFICATION, INSURANCE AND LIMITATIONS ON LIABILITY

14.1 Indemnification by You.

If you do not procure and maintain the insurance coverage required by this Agreement, we have the right, but not the obligation, to procure insurance coverage and to charge the same to you, together with a reasonable fee for the expenses we incur in doing so, payable by you immediately upon notice. You acknowledge that the foregoing minimum insurance requirements do not constitute advice or a representation that such coverages are necessary or adequate to protect you from losses in connection with your School. Nothing in this Agreement prevents or restricts you from acquiring and maintaining insurance with higher policy limits or lower deductibles than we require.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Relationship of the Parties.

You and us are independent contractors. No fiduciary, employment, joint venture, agency or partnership relationship is created by or will be implied from this Agreement. Neither us nor you may make any agreements, representations or warranties in the name of or on behalf of the other, nor represent that their relationship is other than an independent contractor, franchise relationship. You are responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Franchised School and for all decisions about its operations, subject only to the quality standards and other requirements of this Agreement. You must at all times identify yourself as an independently owned franchise of us in all of your business dealings and to the general public. We may require you to display notices at the Premises, on invoices, brochures or other materials, that the Franchised School is an independently owned and operated business by you.

15.2 Our Right To Cure Defaults.

In addition to all other remedies herein granted, if you default in the performance of any of your obligations or breaches any term or condition of this Agreement or any related agreement, we may, at your election, following 10 days written notice to you, without waiving any claim for breach hereunder and without further notice to you, cure such default for the account and on behalf of you, and the cost to us thereof will be due and payable on demand and will be deemed to be additional compensation due to us hereunder and will be added to the amount of compensation next accruing hereunder, at the election of us.

15.3 Waiver and Delay.

No waiver by either party of any breach or series of breaches or defaults in performance by the other party and no failure, refusal or neglect of either party to exercise any right, power or option given to it hereunder or to insist upon strict compliance with or performance of the other party's obligations under this Agreement or the Operations Manual, will constitute a waiver of the provisions of this Agreement or the Operations Manual with respect to any subsequent breach thereof or a waiver by such party of your right at any time thereafter to require exact and strict compliance with the provisions thereof. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement is effective unless it is in a writing signed by the party whose rights are being waived.

15.4 Force Majeure.

Neither us nor you will be in breach of this Agreement for any failure to perform any obligations or requirements of this Agreement that results from fire, flood, earthquake, or other act of nature, war, terrorists, riots, insurrection, labor strike, power or water outages (other than for reason of nonpayment by you) or government shutdown provided that these events will excuse or extend the time for performance only as reasonably necessary. However, no such causes excuse prompt payment of amounts due or owed.

15.5 Survival of Covenants.

The covenants contained in this Agreement, which, by their terms, require performance by the parties after the expiration, or termination of this Agreement, will be enforceable notwithstanding said expiration or other termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

15.6 Successors and Assigns.

This Agreement is binding upon and inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of us and you, subject to the restrictions on transfers contained herein.

15.7 Joint and Several Liability.

If you or the Franchised School is owned by more than one (1) person or entity, or a combination thereof, the obligations and liabilities of each such persons or entities to us hereunder are joint and several.

15.8 Governing Law, Venue, Arbitration and Dispute Resolution.

(a) Subject to our rights under federal trademark laws and the parties' rights under the Federal Arbitration Act, all claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement and the parties' relationship will be governed by, and will be interpreted in accordance with the substantive laws of the state of Illinois (irrespective of any conflicts of laws); provided that the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act and any other law or regulation applicable to the offer or sale of franchises or the franchise relationship will only apply if the jurisdictional provisions of the law are otherwise met.

(b) Dispute Resolution Procedures.

(i) Mediation. Except as otherwise stated in this Section 15.8(b)(i), the parties agree to submit any claim, controversy or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement (and attachments) or the relationship created by this Agreement to non-binding mediation before bringing such claim, controversy or dispute to arbitration or to a court. The mediation will be conducted either through an individual mediator or a mediator appointed by a mediation services organization, experienced in the mediation of disputes between us and you, agreed upon by the parties. If the parties do not agree upon a mediator or mediation services organization within 15 days after either party has notified the other of its desire to seek mediation, the dispute will be mediated by the American Arbitration Association pursuant to its rules governing mediation, at our corporate headquarters (currently in Chicago, Illinois). The costs and expenses of mediation, including compensation of the mediator, will be borne equally by the parties. If the parties cannot resolve the claim, controversy or dispute within 90 days after conferring with the mediator, either party may submit such claim, controversy or dispute to arbitration under Section 15.8(b)(i) below. Either party may bring an action under the applicable provisions of this Section 15.8 without first submitting the action to mediation under this Section 15.8(b)(i): (i) for monies owed, (ii) for injunctive relief, or (iii) involving the possession or disposition of, or other relief relating to, real property.

(ii) Arbitration. Except to the extent we elect to enforce the provisions of this Agreement by injunction as provided in Section 15.8(b)(iii) below, all disputes, claims and controversies between the parties arising under or in connection with this Agreement or the making, performance or interpretation thereof (including claims of fraud in the inducement and other claims of fraud in the arbitrability of any matter) that have not been settled by or are not otherwise subject to mediation as described in Section 15.8(b)(i) above will be resolved by arbitration on an individual basis under the authority of the Federal Arbitration Act in the Chicago, Illinois. The arbitration will be on an individual basis only and not consolidated with any other proceeding, and you agree not to seek joinder of any of your claims with those of any other parties. The arbitrator(s) shall have no authority to select a different hearing locale for the arbitration. The arbitrator(s) will have a minimum of 5 years' experience in franchising or distribution law and will have the right to award specific performance of this Agreement. The proceedings will be conducted under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, or the rules of such other arbitration services organization as the parties otherwise may agree upon in writing, to the extent such rules are not inconsistent with the provisions of this arbitration provision or the Federal Arbitration Act. As part of the arbitration proceedings, each party agrees to submit no more than 25 interrogatories or to conduct no more than 4 depositions during the course of discovery, should discovery be ordered by the arbitrator(s). The decision of the arbitrator(s) will be final and binding on all parties; provided, however, the arbitrator(s) may not under any circumstances: (i) stay the effectiveness of any pending termination of this Agreement; (ii) assess punitive or exemplary damages; or (iii) make any award which extends, modifies or suspends any lawful term of this Agreement or any reasonable standard of business performance set by us. This Section 15.8(b)(ii) will survive termination or nonrenewal of this Agreement under any circumstances. Judgment upon the award of the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(iii) Injunctive Relief. Notwithstanding Sections 15.8(b)(i) and (ii) above, you recognize that a single franchisee's failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement could cause irreparable damage to us and/or to some or all other Schools. Therefore, if you breach or threaten to breach any of the terms of this Agreement, we will be entitled to an injunction restraining such breach and/or a decree of specific performance, without showing or proving any actual damage, together with recovery of reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs incurred in obtaining such equitable relief, until such time as a final and binding determination is made by the arbitrators.

(iv) Attorneys' Fees. The nonprevailing party will pay all costs, expenses and interest, including reasonable attorneys' fees, the prevailing party incurs in any action brought to enforce any provision of this Agreement or to enjoin any violation of this Agreement.

(v) Venue. Any claims, controversies or disputes arising out of or related to this Agreement that are not subject to arbitration as provided above, must be brought in the Federal District Court for the district of our then-current headquarters (currently, the Northern District of Illinois) or in the state district court having jurisdiction over our corporate headquarters (currently, Cook County District Court, Chicago, Illinois). We also have the right to file any such suit against you in the federal or state court where the Franchised School is located. We and you irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of such courts and waive all rights to challenge personal jurisdiction and venue. The provisions of this Section 15.8 will survive the termination of this Agreement.

15.9 Interpretation of Rights and Obligations.

Whenever this Agreement provides that we have a certain right, that right is absolute and the parties intend that our exercise of that right will not be subject to any limitation or review. We have the right to operate, administrate, develop, and change the System in any manner that is not specifically precluded by the provisions of this Agreement, although this right does not modify express limitations set forth in this Agreement. Whenever we reserve discretion in a particular area or where we agree to exercise our rights reasonably or in good faith, we will satisfy our obligations whenever we exercise Reasonable Business Judgment in making our decision or exercising our rights. Our decisions or actions will be deemed to be the result of Reasonable Business Judgment, even if other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternatives are available, if our decision or action is intended, in whole or significant part, to promote or benefit the Network generally even if the decision or action also promotes our financial or other individual interest. Examples of items that will promote or benefit the Network include, without limitation, enhancing the value of the Trademarks, improving customer service and satisfaction, improving product quality, improving uniformity, enhancing or encouraging modernization and improving the competitive position of the System.

15.10 Entire Agreement.

This Agreement is the complete expression of the agreement made by us and you as to the subject matter hereof. Any other agreements, promises, representations or understandings between the parties are expressly superseded hereby and merged herein. Nothing in the Agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the Franchise Disclosure Document that we furnished to you. No officer or employee or agent of us have any authority to make any representation or promise not contained in this Agreement and you agree that it has executed this Agreement without reliance upon any such representation or promise. This Agreement cannot be modified or changed except by written instrument signed by you and us.

15.11 No Warranty of Success.

We do not represent and have not promised that you will or are likely to be successful in or realize any profits from the operation of the Franchised School. You acknowledge and agree that the success or failure or profitability of the Franchised School is dependent on your efforts and business acumen and on other factors that are not within our control. We do not make any representations or warranties concerning current or continuing consumer acceptance of or market demand for the Approved Services or the retail services provided by the Franchised School.

15.12 Titles for Convenience.

Article and section titles used in this Agreement are for convenience only and will not be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any of the terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

You have not received or relied on any guaranty, express or implied, as to the revenues, profits, or likelihood of success of the Franchised School. You acknowledge that there have been no representations by us or our employees, or agents that are not contained in, or consistent with, the statements made in the Uniform Franchise Disclosure Document or with the provisions of this Agreement.

You acknowledge that all owners, members, executives, employees and agents of us have acted and will act only in a representative capacity in relation to this Agreement and that Agreement is being made by us and not by any such individuals in a personal capacity.

All information that you have provided to us in any franchise application, financial statements or other documents you have supplied to us to substantiate your qualifications to become a franchisee are accurate and no misrepresentations have been made therein. In consideration of the execution of the Franchise Agreement by us, and for other good and valuable consideration, the undersigned, for themselves, their heirs, successors, and assigns, do jointly, individually and severally hereby become surety and guarantor for the payment of all amounts and the performance of the covenants, terms and conditions in the Franchise Agreement, to be paid, kept and performed by the franchisee, including without limitation the arbitration and other dispute resolution provisions of the Agreement.

Further, the undersigned, individually and jointly, hereby agree to be personally bound by each and every condition and term contained in the Franchise Agreement, including but not limited to the non-compete provisions in subparagraph 10.D, and agree that this Personal Guarantee will be construed as though the undersigned and each of them executed a Franchise Agreement containing the identical terms and conditions of this Franchise Agreement.

The undersigned waives: (1) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; (2) protest and notice of default to any party respecting the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; and (3) any right he/she may have to require that an action be brought against the franchisee or any other person as a condition of liability.

EXHIBIT D
SPOUSAL CONSENT AND WAIVER

The undersigned (“Spouse”) hereby represents that he/she is a _____ [state] resident and is the spouse of _____ (“Franchise Owner”). Spouse acknowledges and understands that, contemporaneously herewith, Franchise Owner, or a corporation, partnership or limited liability company in which Franchise Owner is a principal owner (the “Franchisee”), will be entering into a Franchise Agreement with Tutu School Franchises LLC (“Franchisor”, “we”, “our” or “us”,) to acquire a Tutu School franchise and operate a Tutu School business. Spouse hereby consents to this transaction and waives any right, now or in the future, to assert a community property or quasi community property interest in the franchise, the Franchise Agreement, the Tutu School store or in the Franchisee. Spouse understands that in the absence of this Spousal Consent and Waiver, Franchisor, as a condition of granting the Tutu School franchise to Franchise Owner, would have required Spouse to personally enter into the Franchise Agreement or to execute a personal guaranty of all of Franchisee’s obligations under the Franchise Agreement. Spouse represents and agrees that the waiver of this condition by us is sufficient consideration for this Spousal Consent and Waiver. Spouse understands that if Spouse did not wish to provide this Spousal Consent and Waiver, Spouse could have agreed to personally execute the Franchise Agreement or the personal guaranty. Spouse hereby represents and acknowledges that Spouse knowingly and deliberately elected not to do so and to instead provide this Spousal Consent and Waiver. If notwithstanding this Spousal Consent and Waiver, Spouse claims or is awarded in a legal action a community property interest, quasi community property interest or other ownership interest in the franchise, the Franchise Agreement, the Tutu School business or in Franchisee, other than by way of a transfer approved in writing by us as provided in the Franchise Agreement, Spouse hereby agrees, without further action or execution of further instruments, to be personally bound by all of the terms of the Franchise Agreement and to be liable for the performance of all obligations thereunder.

EXHIBIT E

Lease Addendum

This Lease Addendum (“Addendum”), dated _____, 20__, is entered into between _____ (“Landlord”) and _____ (“Tenant”).

RECITALS

- A. The parties have entered into a Lease Agreement, dated _____, 20__ (the “Lease”), pertaining to the premises located at _____ (the “Premises”). All defined terms not specifically defined in this Addendum shall be given the meanings ascribed to them in the Lease.
- B. The Landlord acknowledges that Tenant intends to operate a “Tutu School” business (“School”) from the Premises pursuant to Tenant’s Franchise Agreement (“Franchise Agreement”) with Tutu School Franchises LLC (“Franchisor”), whereby Tenant will use the “Tutu School” name and the “Tutu School” Marks as Franchisor may designate in the operation of the School at the Premises.
- C. Landlord further acknowledges that Franchisor has approved Tenant’s request to locate its Store on the Premises that is the subject of the Lease, provided that the conditions and agreements set forth in this Addendum are made a part of the Lease.

AGREEMENTS

NOW, THEREFORE, for valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree to amend the Lease as follows:

1. Remodeling and Decor. Landlord agrees to allow Tenant to remodel, equip, paint and decorate the interior of the Premises and to display such Marks and signs on the interior and exterior of the Premises as Tenant is reasonably required to do pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, and any renewal of the Franchise Agreement under which Tenant may operate a School on the Premises. Any remodel of the building and/or its signs will be subject to Landlord’s prior and reasonable approval. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant may non-structurally reimage and/or redecorate within the Premises in an amount up to $10,000 per project without Landlord's prior consent, so long as the work is performed in a good and workmanlike manner. Tenant may close its School once every five (5) years for up to thirty (30) days to reimage and redecorate the Premises.
2. Assignment By Tenant. So long as Tenant is in good standing under the Lease, Tenant has the right to assign the Lease or sublet the Premises, without charge and without Landlord’s consent, to Franchisor or its parent, subsidiaries or affiliates (each, a “Tutu Entity”) during the term of the Lease, including any extensions or renewals. No such assignment will be effective, however, until the Tutu Entity gives Landlord written notice of its acceptance of the assignment. If the Tutu Entity elects to assume the Lease, the Tutu Entity will not be required to begin paying rent until Landlord delivers possession of the Premises to the Tutu Entity. In the event of an assignment to a Tutu Entity, (i) Tenant will remain liable for the responsibilities and obligations, including amounts owed to Landlord, prior to the date of assignment and assumption, and (ii) the Tutu Entity shall have the right to reassign the Lease or sublet the Premises, without charge and without Landlord's consent, to a duly authorized franchisee of a Tutu Entity, provided that such duly authorized franchisee agrees to operate the School as a Tutu School pursuant to a franchise agreement with a Tutu Entity, and the Tutu Entity will thereupon be released from any further obligations or liability under the Lease. At any time until the Landlord delivers possession of the Premises, the Tutu Entity will have the right to rescind the election to assume the Lease by written notice to Landlord. Any options to extend the term of the Lease shall automatically transfer to the assignee involved in any transfer made pursuant to this Paragraph.

Tenant shall also have the right to assign the Lease or sublet the Premises, without charge but with Landlord's consent, not to be unreasonably withheld, to another duly authorized franchisee of a Tutu Entity, provided that such duly authorized franchisee agrees to operate the School as a Tutu School pursuant to a franchise agreement with a Tutu Entity. Tenant will remain liable for the responsibilities and obligations, including amounts owed to Landlord, prior to the date of assignment and assumption. Any options to extend the term of the Lease shall automatically transfer to the assignee involved in any transfer made pursuant to this Paragraph.

3. Exclusive Use. Throughout the term of the Lease, including any extensions or renewals, Landlord agrees that Tenant shall have the exclusive right in the Shopping Center to provide various ballet classes and lessons, and related services. This exclusive use provision shall not include any Shopping Center tenant existing as of the date of the Lease. However, to the extent Landlord has the right, Landlord shall not consent to any assignment or sublease if the change in use would violate this exclusive use provision. If this exclusive use provision is violated, then in addition to any other remedy available at law or in equity, Tenant shall have the right (i) to immediately reduce its base rent to One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month until Landlord cures the breach or, (ii) if Landlord fails to cure the breach within 30 days of Tenant's notice of such breach, at Tenant's option, to terminate the Lease at any time.
4. Landlord Warranties. Landlord represents, covenants and warrants that:
 - (i) it has lawful title to the Shopping Center;
 - (ii) the Shopping Center is in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act;
 - (iii) it shall maintain throughout the term of the Lease, including any extensions or renewals, general liability insurance coverage for the Shopping Center consistent with coverage maintained by prudent owners of properties similar to the Shopping Center;

- (iv) so long as Tenant pays all monetary obligations due under the Lease and performs all of its other covenants under the Lease, Tenant shall peacefully and quietly have, hold, occupy and enjoy the Premises; and
- (v) Tenant's permitted use does not violate any easements, restrictive covenants, CC&R's, leases, contracts or agreements to which Landlord is a party.

In addition, Landlord shall indemnify and hold harmless Tenant and its officers, partners, agents and employees from and against any loss, cost, liability, damage or expense arising out of (i) Landlord's operation of the Shopping Center, (ii) Landlord's negligence or breach in the performance of any of its obligations under the Lease or (iii) any violation of law by Landlord or any other act or omission of Landlord or its contractors, agents or employees. The foregoing indemnification shall survive expiration or termination of the Lease.

5. Signage. Tenant has the right to install the customary and usual display signs mandated by Franchisor (i) in the Premises, (ii) on the exterior of its building, and (iii) on monument/pylon signs, in each case, to the maximum-allowable size. Tenant's signs are subject to Landlord's sign criteria and approval, not to be unreasonably withheld, and any applicable municipal codes. Tenant shall also have the right to display a banner reading "Coming Soon" (or similar message) during the period between Lease execution and the date that is 30 days after Tenant opens for business to the public.
6. Hazardous Materials. Landlord represents and warrants that the Premises are free of all asbestos, asbestos containing materials and other hazardous or toxic materials (collectively, "Hazardous Materials"). Tenant shall have no obligation to make any repairs, alterations or improvements to the Premises or incur any costs or expenses whatsoever as a result of Hazardous Materials in or about the Shopping Center, the Building or the Premises, other than those Hazardous Materials that are physically brought onto such areas by Tenant. Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from and against all liabilities, loss, costs, damages and expenses which Tenant may incur (including reasonable attorneys' fees) as a result of a violation or breach of Landlord's representation and warranty set forth in this Paragraph.
7. Landlord Work and Repairs. If the Shopping Center is not in compliance with all laws, codes or other regulations, Landlord shall perform any necessary remedial work at its sole cost and expense. Throughout the term of the Lease, including any extensions or renewals, Landlord covenants and agrees, at its sole cost and expense and without reimbursement or contribution by Tenant, to keep, maintain and replace, if necessary, the foundations, the exterior paint, the plumbing system, the electrical system, the utility and sewer lines and connections to the Premises, the sprinkler mains, if any, structural elements and systems including, without limitation, the roof, roof membrane, roof covering (including interior ceiling if damaged by leakage), load-bearing walls, floor slabs and masonry walls in good condition and repair.
8. Tenant Financing. Tenant shall have the right from time to time to grant and assign a mortgage or other security interest in Tenant's personal property and equipment located within the Premises in connection with Tenant's financing arrangements, and any lien of Landlord against Tenant's personal property and equipment (whether by statute or under the terms of the Lease) shall be subject and subordinate to such security interest. Landlord shall execute any documents as Tenant's lenders may reasonably request in connection with any such financing. The parties acknowledge that there may be certain personal property and equipment in the Premises not owned by Tenant, which property and equipment shall not be subject to any lien of Landlord. Upon request, Landlord shall grant the party who owns such property and equipment reasonable access to the Premises for the sole purpose of removing such items, provided such party repairs any damage caused by such removal.

9. Default and Notices to Franchisor.

- a. If there is a default or violation by Tenant under the terms of the Lease, Landlord agrees to give Tenant and Franchisor written notice of such default or violation within a reasonable time after Landlord knows of its occurrence. Landlord agrees to provide Franchisor the written notice of default as written and on the same day as Landlord gives it to Tenant. Although Franchisor is under no obligation to cure the default, Franchisor will notify Landlord it intends to cure the default and unilaterally assume Tenant's interest in the lease as provided in paragraph 3(c). Franchisor will have an additional 15 days from the expiration of Tenant's cure period in which to cure the default or violation.
- b. All notices to Franchisor must be sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to the following address: Tutu School Franchises LLC, Attention: Legal Department, 3717 North Ravenswood Avenue, #237, Chicago, IL 60613. 13. Conflicts. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Lease and the terms set forth in this Addendum, the terms set forth herein will govern. In the event of a conflict between notices provided to Landlord by Tenant and Franchisor, the notices of Franchisor will prevail.

Active Campaign Franchisee Agreement

This Active Campaign Franchisee Agreement (“Agreement”) is entered into by and between Tutu School Franchises, LLC (“Franchisor”, “we” or “us”) and the Franchisee identified on the signature block below (“Franchisee” or “you”) for and on behalf of all Tutu School franchised locations associated with Franchisee now and in the future.

This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions that apply to your access to and use of the ActiveCampaign HQ software-as-a-service platform (“ActiveCampaign HQ”) and ActiveCampaign’s suite of web-hosted marketing automation solutions, related applications, tools, and other products and services which we make available from time to time for use in connection with ActiveCampaign HQ (the “Services”).

You agree to all terms and conditions of this Agreement, and to use ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services in accordance with their Acceptable Use Policy (<https://www.activecampaign.com/legal/acceptable-use-policy>), Privacy Policy (<https://www.activecampaign.com/legal/privacy-policy>), Consent Policy (<https://www.activecampaign.com/legal/consent-policy>), Anti-Spam Policy (<https://www.activecampaign.com/legal/anti-spam-policy>), each of which is incorporated by reference into this Agreement and may be updated or amended from time to time by ActiveCampaign as set forth therein (together, the “Additional Terms”). We may also ask you to accept additional terms, guidelines, and use policies related to ActiveCampaign HQ which shall also be included within the definition of Additional Terms. Your continued access to and use of ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services constitutes consideration and your acceptance of the Additional Terms. To the extent any Additional Terms conflict with this Agreement, the Additional Terms govern.

1) Eligibility and Authority

Your use and access to ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services is at all times subject to the terms of your Franchise Agreement(s) (“Franchise Agreement(s)”) and conditioned on your Franchise Agreement remaining valid and effective. You and all Authorized Users must be at least 18 years of age or older to access or use ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services. You represent and warrant (i) that you have full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder; and (ii) in entering into, exercising rights under, or performing any activities relating to this Agreement, you will not and will not conflict with, violate, or constitute a breach or default under its charter documents or any agreement, commitment, or instrument to which you are a party.

2) Accounts; Account Security; Electronic Communications

2.1) Franchisee Account

We will provide you with access to your “Franchisee Account” through which you may access and use of all ActiveCampaign HQ and Service features. Any reference in this Agreement to the distribution of the Services means providing the right to access and use the Services as made available by ActiveCampaign and not the actual sale, resale, or transfer of any software, technology, or documentation associated with the Services.

2.2) Violations

If you add features and functionality as part of your overall product or service offering that includes the Services, we or ActiveCampaign may review and monitor your offering of added features and functionality and, if we or ActiveCampaign believe that your added features and functionality are in any way detrimental, offensive, or damaging to us, the Tutu School brand or system, or ActiveCampaign, we may immediately suspend or terminate access and use of ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services.

You will promptly inform us in writing of any such acts or omissions that you suspect could constitute a violation of this Agreement and you will cooperate to address the suspected violation.

2.3) Fees and Billing

You must pay the then-current fees, plus applicable taxes ("Fees") per location for access to and use of ActiveCampaign HQ. Fees are paid monthly under the same terms and conditions as Royalty under your Franchise Agreement(s).

2.4) Support

You will have access to certain online support tools from ActiveCampaign. Tier 1 support is provided directly by Franchisor.

If you develop added-value features for the Services, such as in the form of automation recipes and e-mail templates, you may not share these features in the ActiveCampaign marketplace without our prior express written consent. We reserve the right to review and monitor the features you share and may take them down at any time.

2.5) Account Security

ActiveCampaign implements appropriate technical and organizational measures consistent with industry standards to protect and ensure the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of Contact Data. You acknowledge that ActiveCampaign's technical and organizational measures are subject to technical progress and further development. Accordingly, ActiveCampaign reserves the right to update or modify the technical and organizational measures from time to time provided that such updates and modifications do not degrade or diminish the overall security of the Services.

"Access Credentials" means any user name, identification number, password, license or security key, security token, PIN, or other security code, method, technology, or device, used alone or in combination, to verify an individual's identity and authorization to access and use ActiveCampaign HQ and/or the Services. The individuals explicitly authorized by you to utilize ActiveCampaign HQ and/or the Services in accordance with this Agreement are Authorized Users. "Authorized Users" are your employees, consultants, contractors, and agents who are authorized by you to access and use ActiveCampaign HQ and/or the Services under the rights granted to you by ActiveCampaign pursuant to this Agreement. You may not exceed the number of approved Authorized Users at any time.

When you and any other Authorized Users register for an account, the Authorized User must provide accurate account information and promptly update this information if it changes. You acknowledge and agree that you also must not share or allow to be shared Access Credentials, and promptly notify us or ActiveCampaign if you discover or suspect that someone has accessed an account without your permission. You must employ all physical, administrative, and technical controls, screening, and security procedures and other safeguards necessary to: (a) securely administer the distribution and use of all Access Credentials and protect against any unauthorized access to or use of AC HQ and the Services; and (b) control the content and use of Contact Data (as defined below), including the uploading or other provision of Contact Data for Processing by ActiveCampaign.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, you acknowledge and agree you are liable for all use of ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services under your Franchisee Account by those who have access to ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services through you, including all use by you any Authorized User and any other access gained to these accounts whether authorized or not.

2.6) Responsibility for Accounts

You acknowledge and agree that you are responsible for all access to and use of your Franchisee Accounts, Authorized Users, and the ActiveCampaign Content, and any issues arising from or relating to any of the foregoing, by any Authorized User, by or through any of your Franchisee Accounts by any means, including any: (i) information, instructions, or materials provided to ActiveCampaign HQ, the Services or ActiveCampaign; (ii) any communications made by or materials or information provided through ActiveCampaign HQ or the Services; (iii) results obtained from any use of ActiveCampaign HQ, the Services or ActiveCampaign Content; and (iv) conclusions, decisions, or actions based on such use.

2.7) Communications

You and each Authorized User consent to receive electronic communications from ActiveCampaign (e.g., via email or by posting notices on ActiveCampaign HQ or the Services). These communications may include notices about your account (e.g., password changes and other transactional information) and are part of your relationship. You agree that any notices, agreements, disclosures or other communications that we or ActiveCampaign send to you electronically will satisfy any legal communication requirements, including, but not limited to, that such communications be in writing.

2.8) Cooperation and Assistance

You will cooperate with us and ActiveCampaign in good faith and provide to us or ActiveCampaign the information that we or ActiveCampaign reasonably requests and requires to provide ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services, including support, administration, and invoicing thereof.

3) Privacy

You represent and warrant that you have lawfully obtained all required permissions, authorizations, and consents under applicable laws for you, us and ActiveCampaign to use, collect, disclose, and otherwise process personal data that you submit to ActiveCampaign HQ or the Services including Contact Data and any other data that is used in connection with ActiveCampaign HQ and/or the Services. If and to the extent required by applicable laws, you may be permitted to audit our records as they relate to the processing of your personal data. If you receive any personal data requests for access or deletion, you must direct the individual to us.

4) ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services

4.1) Marketing Content

ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services may allow you to create, post, store and share marketing, communications, or other content, including, but not limited to, email, text or SMS messages, photos, videos, software and other materials, and review or message boards (collectively, “Marketing Content”). Your creation and usage of all Marketing Content must follow our brand guidelines. You are fully and solely responsible for the creation and substance of your Marketing Content notwithstanding any comments, suggestions, or advice we may provide. You understand and agree that ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services provide “interactive computer services” as that term is used in 47 U.S.C. § 230 and that ActiveCampaign is entitled to all rights and privileges attendant thereto. Except for the license granted below, we retain all rights in and to the Marketing Content, as between you and ActiveCampaign. We grant you a nonexclusive license to use, reproduce, adapt, publish, translate, distribute, and display the Marketing Content to the recipients or audience designated by you or, as applicable, in accordance with the settings you specify in ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services as reasonably necessary to provide the Services to you (including, for the avoidance of doubt, to develop, improve, support, secure and operate the Services). As a part of ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services, ActiveCampaign and we may view, copy, and internally use Marketing Content to help us train and improve ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services, including their functionality and effectiveness for you and your campaigns, as well as to assist us in detecting security, fraud, compliance and functionality issues and for the benefit of the franchise network. You may not create, post, store or share any Marketing Content that violates this Agreement, including ActiveCampaign HQ’s Acceptable Use Policy (<https://www.activecampaign.com/legal/acceptable-use-policy>), or for which you do not have all the rights necessary to grant us the license described above. If you exceed the total number of Contacts to which we authorize you send Marketing Content through ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services, you will not be able to send any more Marketing Content to Contacts, including any messages scheduled for sending at a future date, until the start of the next subscription period.

4.2) Contact Data

When using ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services, you may import data, including personal data (or its equivalent concept “personally identifiable information”), regarding Contacts (“Contact Data”). ActiveCampaign and we view and use Contact Data only to provide ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services in accordance with this Agreement, at your direction and, as part of ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services, to train, detect security, fraud, compliance and functionality issues with ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services, and to ensure their proper functioning and your compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. We and ActiveCampaign do not disclose Contact Data to third parties, except as follows:

- We and ActiveCampaign may share Contact Data with our third party service providers to provide ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services or administer the site.
- If any portion of ActiveCampaign is sold, Contact Data may be part of the business assets ActiveCampaign transfers. Contact Data also may be disclosed if ActiveCampaign is considering or completes the financing, securitization, insuring, sale, assignment or other transfer of all or part of the company.
- We and ActiveCampaign may disclose Contact Data as we reasonably believe is necessary to comply with any judicial or governmental subpoenas, warrants or orders.
- We and ActiveCampaign reserve the right to use, disclose and share your information and Contact Data to investigate, prevent or take action with respect to any potential or actual fraud, illegal activities, circumstances which threaten the physical safety of any person, violations of this Agreement or as otherwise required by law.
- We and ActiveCampaign may receive requests directly from individuals, including Contacts, not to receive emails from ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services. To comply with international data protection laws and to respect their requests, we and ActiveCampaign may place those individuals on a communications exclusion list (“Global Exclusion List”) so that they may no longer receive communications from ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services. If a requesting individual is a Contact in your database, we or ActiveCampaign will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify you of such request before placing that Contact on our Global Exclusion List.

6) Additional Terms of Sale

6.1) AI Features

If you use the ActiveCampaign AI feature and/or any other artificial intelligence powered content generation feature of ActiveCampaign HQ or the Services (collectively, the "AI Features"), this Section applies. The AI Features may allow you to submit text inputs ("Prompts") and generate Marketing Content based on your Prompts. You must use the AI Features and the generated Marketing Content only (i) in a lawful manner and in compliance with all applicable laws; (ii) in accordance with this Agreement, other ActiveCampaign documentation directed to the AI Features and the Franchise Agreement; and (iii) in a manner that does not infringe or attempt to infringe, misappropriate or otherwise violate any of our or ActiveCampaign rights or those of any third party (for clarity, "manner" includes, without limitation, the method, purpose and/or means of causing or attempting to cause the AI Features to generate output). Due to the nature of the AI Features, generated Marketing Content may not be unique across users and the AI Features may generate the same or similar Marketing Content for other users. In addition, other users may ask similar questions and receive the same, similar or different responses.

ActiveCampaign does not claim ownership of the Prompts or Marketing Content that you generate from the AI Features, and you are responsible for such materials and warrant that possess all the rights necessary for you to provide, post, upload, input or submit such materials. The AI Features are not error-free, may not work as expected and may generate incorrect information. You should not rely on the AI Features and you should not use the AI Features for advice of any kind. Your use of the AI Features is at your own risk.

Without limitation, for the sake of clarity, neither we nor ActiveCampaign make any warranty or representation of any kind that any output generated by the AI Features does not infringe the rights of any third party (including, but not limited to, copyright, trademark, rights of privacy and publicity, and defamation).

6.2) Beta Features

From time to time, new or test features or functionality may be added to ActiveCampaign HQ or the Services in an unfinished or beta form or as a preview or an early access offering (collectively, “Beta Features”). All provisions of this Agreement will apply to the Beta Features, and you agree to be bound by any additional terms applicable to the Beta Features as provided by us or ActiveCampaign. Beta Features are for evaluation and feedback purposes only in order to allow ActiveCampaign to create improvements for the benefit of you and others, and ActiveCampaign and we may monitor how you use the Beta Features and use that information to improve the Beta Features, ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services. Beta Features are optional and, if you elect to use a Beta Feature, you do so at your own risk. You acknowledge that Beta Features may be untested, inoperable or incomplete, and may contain bugs, errors or other problems. We advise that you do not rely on the Beta Features for any purpose whatsoever. ActiveCampaign provides no warranties, indemnities or support for any of the Beta Features, and ActiveCampaign has no obligation to correct or repair any Beta Features. We reserve the right to fully or partially discontinue Beta Features at any time and for any reason, temporarily or permanently, with or without notice. ActiveCampaign will have no liability to you or any third party for any harm or damage arising out of or in connection with any of the Beta Features.

6.3) Contact Data Retrieval

Once you mark Contact Data for deletion within the Services, it will be moved to a queue for deletion where it may be temporarily available for you to restore from ActiveCampaign’s most recent available data backup for a period of thirty (30) days (the “Restore Period”). You acknowledge and agree that, once the Restore Period has expired, neither we nor ActiveCampaign can, and neither we nor ActiveCampaign have any obligation to, restore such Contact Data. You further acknowledge and agree that neither we nor ActiveCampaign have any liability related to the failure to successfully restore any Contact Data to a usable state. Upon cancellation or termination, you will not have access to or be able to restore any Contact Data.

6.4) Usage Limits

Usage limits, including monthly send limits, may apply to your Franchisee Accounts and will be specified within the account console or in this Agreement. If your Franchisee Account reaches its monthly send limit, you will not be able to send any more messages to its Contacts, including any messages scheduled for sending at a future date, until the start of the next calendar month.

7) Limited License; Intellectual Property Rights

ActiveCampaign HQ, the Services and the text, graphics, images, photographs, videos, illustrations, trademarks, trade names, service marks, logos, slogans and other content contained therein (collectively, the “ActiveCampaign Content”) are owned by or licensed to ActiveCampaign and are protected under both United States and foreign laws. Except as explicitly stated in this Agreement, ActiveCampaign and its licensors reserve all rights in and to ActiveCampaign HQ, the Services and the ActiveCampaign Content. Subject to and conditioned on your payment in full of the subscription fees as well as your and your Authorized Users' compliance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, you are hereby granted a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, revocable license to access and use ActiveCampaign HQ, the Services and ActiveCampaign Content during the Term solely for your internal business purposes in accordance with this Agreement. However, such license is subject to this Agreement and does not include any right to (a) sell, resell or commercially use ActiveCampaign HQ or ActiveCampaign Content; (b) copy, reproduce, distribute, publicly perform or publicly display ActiveCampaign Content, except as expressly permitted by us or our licensors; (c) modify the ActiveCampaign Content, remove any proprietary rights notices or markings, or otherwise make any derivative uses of ActiveCampaign HQ, the Services or ActiveCampaign Content; (d) use any data mining, robots or similar data gathering or extraction methods; and (e) use ActiveCampaign HQ, the Services or ActiveCampaign Content other than for their intended purposes. Any use of ActiveCampaign HQ or ActiveCampaign Content other than as specifically authorized herein, without ActiveCampaign and our prior written permission, is strictly prohibited and will terminate the license granted herein. You have no right, license, or authorization with respect to ActiveCampaign HQ, the Services or any of the ActiveCampaign Content except as expressly set forth in this Agreement or an applicable third-party license, in each case subject to any limitations provided by this Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” means any and all registered and unregistered rights granted, applied for, or otherwise now or hereafter in existence under or related to any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, database protection, or other intellectual property rights laws, and all similar or equivalent rights or forms of protection, in any part of the world.

8) Third Party Content and Services

We may display content, advertisements and promotions from third parties through ActiveCampaign HQ and the Services (“Third Party Content”). Neither we nor ActiveCampaign control, endorse or adopt any Third Party Content, and we and ActiveCampaign make no representations or warranties of any kind regarding such Third Party Content, including, without limitation, regarding its accuracy or completeness. You acknowledge and agree that your interactions with third parties providing Third Party Content are solely between you and such third parties, and that neither we nor ActiveCampaign have any responsibility or liability for any Third Party Content. If ActiveCampaign requires you to accept additional terms, conditions, or obligations in connection with your use of third party services or third party integrations (“Third Party Terms”), we will provide you advanced notice and obtain your authorization or acceptance of such Third Party Terms, which shall include your continued use of such services or integrations.

We may also provide you with access to certain services, features or functionality offered by a third party in connection with ActiveCampaign HQ or the Services. Use of any such services, features or functionality will be subject to separate terms of service between you and such third party, and not this Agreement. The third party provider, and not ActiveCampaign or us, will be solely responsible for providing you with such services, features or functionality.

9) Feedback

Any questions, comments, suggestions, ideas, original or creative materials or other information you submit about ActiveCampaign, ActiveCampaign HQ, or our products or Services (collectively, “Feedback”), is non-confidential and will become the sole property of ActiveCampaign. ActiveCampaign will own exclusive rights, including, without limitation, all Intellectual Property Rights, in and to Feedback and will be entitled to the unrestricted use and dissemination of Feedback for any purpose, commercial or otherwise, without acknowledgment or compensation to you.

23) General Provisions

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between you and us and supersedes any and all other agreements or contracts, either oral or written, between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. Any remedies specified in this Agreement are in addition to any other remedies that may be available at law or in equity. You and we are entering this Agreement as independent contractors, and nothing will be construed to create a partnership, agency, joint venture, or employment relationship between you and us. Neither you or we will be considered to be in breach of or default under this Agreement on account of any delay or failure to perform as a result of any causes, conditions, events or circumstances that are beyond the reasonable control of the party affected including, without limitation, acts of God, acts of government, flood, fire, earthquakes, civil unrest, acts of terror, strikes, computer, telecommunications, Internet service provider or hosting facility failures or delays involving hardware, software or power systems not within our possession or reasonable control, and denial of service attacks (each a “Force Majeure Event”). If any Force Majeure Event occurs, the affected party will give prompt written notice to the other and will use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the impact of the event. The section titles in this Agreement are for convenience only and have no legal or contractual effect. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid, unlawful, void, or unenforceable to any extent, such provision will be interpreted to best reflect the parties’ intent, and the remainder of this Agreement will not be affected and will continue to be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement is intended solely for the benefit of the parties and is not intended to confer third party beneficiary rights upon any other person or entity, except that ActiveCampaign shall be considered an intended third party beneficiary entitled to enforce certain terms of this Agreement where applicable. This Agreement may not be assigned or transferred, in whole or in part, by you except with our prior written consent. Any attempt to do so in violation of such restriction will be null and void. Subject to that restriction, this Agreement will be binding on, inure to the benefit of, and enforceable against the parties and their respective successors and assigns.

AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

TUTU SCHOOL
AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is entered into effective as of the Effective Date (defined below) by and between Tutu School Franchises, LLC, an Illinois limited liability company (“Company”, “Tutu School”, “we” or “our”); and the individual or entity identified on the signature page (“Developer” or “you”).

RECITALS

A. Tutu School and its affiliates have developed a proprietary business format and system (“System”) for operating ballet schools (“Schools”) offering children’s ballet and movement classes and other authorized services and products, and use of proprietary and confidential information.

B. Schools operating under the System are identified by the trade name and service mark “TUTU SCHOOL” and other trademarks, service marks and trade identifiers designated by Company (“Marks”).

C. Developer desires to develop, own and operate multiple Schools.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and promises contained herein, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by each of the parties, Company and Developer hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

GRANT OF DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS; RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

1.1 Grant of Development Rights. Tutu School hereby grants to Developer, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the right and license to develop a specified number of Schools within the Development Area (defined below). Developer must develop and open the Schools according to the Development Schedule in Exhibit A. Each School to be developed hereunder must be established and operated pursuant to a Franchise Agreement, as further described in Article 1.5 below. This Agreement is not a franchise agreement and Developer will have no right to use the Marks in any manner by virtue hereof unless and until a franchise agreement for each Schools is executed by Developer and Tutu School. Developer may not franchise or subfranchise its rights under this Agreement, but may designate a wholly-owned subsidiary or affiliate under common ownership to be the franchisee for any School to be developed hereunder.

1.2 Area Development Fee. As a condition to the effectiveness of this Agreement, Developer must pay Tutu School a non-refundable Development Fee in the amount reflected in Exhibit A, due upon execution of this Agreement.

1.3 Development Area. The development area (“Development Area”) is the geographic area identified on Exhibit A.

1.4 Scope of Exclusivity; Reservation of Rights. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Tutu School agrees that it will not license to another person or entity the right to establish and operate new Tutu School locations physically within the Development Area during the Term, except that Tutu School reserves all rights that are not expressly contrary to the rights granted to Developer, without compensation to Developer, including the following rights: (a) to own and operate or franchise any Schools or other Competitive Businesses at any locations outside of the Development Area regardless of proximity to the Development Area; (b) to own and operate businesses that are not Competitive Businesses within and outside the Development Area; (c) to participate in trade shows, franchise trade shows, and other marketing events to promote or increase awareness of the Tutu School System; (d) to offer to sell, sell and distribute, any products or services associated with the Tutu School System (now or in the future) or identified by the Marks, or any other trademarks, services marks or trade names, through any distribution channels or methods (including without limitation retail stores, wholesale and the internet); and (d) the right to merge with, acquire or become associated with a multi-unit brand (through a stock purchase, asset purchase, merger or otherwise) in which case Tutu School or its affiliate may operate, franchise or license the operation of the acquired brand (whether a Competitive Business or not) within and outside the Development Area. A “Competitive Business” is one that offers products or services that are substantially similar to the Schools.

1.5 Franchise Agreements. Unless Developer is an existing franchisee with a current franchise agreement in effect, Developer must sign its first Franchise Agreement in connection with signing this Agreement. Developer (or its designated wholly-owned subsidiary) must execute the then-current form of Franchise Agreement for each additional School to be established pursuant to this Agreement, provided that (a) the per location amount of the Development Fee noted in Section 1.2 and paid by Developer will be deducted from the Initial Franchise Fee due for the corresponding Franchise Agreement; and (b) for all timely developed locations, the Initial Franchise Fee will be reduced as reflected on Exhibit A. All future Franchise Agreements must be executed on the earlier of (a) the deadline under the Development Schedule, (b) lease signing; or (c) School opening.

1.6 Site Selection. Developer must find a proposed site for the School which it reasonably believes to conform to the Tutu School site selection criteria (as modified by us from time to time) and submit to Tutu School a complete site report (containing such demographic, commercial, and other information and photographs as Tutu School may reasonably require) for such site. Developer must receive written consent to the proposed site. Tutu School agrees not to unreasonably withhold consent to a proposed site. In approving or disapproving any proposed site, Tutu School will consider such matters as it deems material, including demographic characteristics of the proposed site, traffic patterns, visibility, business mix, parking, layout and dimensions of location, physical characteristics of the site, and other commercial characteristics (including the purchase or lease obligations for the proposed site). Tutu School may conduct on-site evaluations, as it deems advisable, as part of the evaluation of the site for the School. Tutu School reserves the right to charge its then-current site evaluation fee for each on-site evaluation it conducts. Tutu School’s review and approval of a prospective site or the rendering of assistance in the selection of a site for a School does not in any manner constitute a representation, promise or guarantee by Tutu School that a School operated at that site will be profitable or otherwise successful. Developer remains responsible for all costs, liability, expenses, and responsibility for locating, obtaining, and developing sites for Schools.

1.7 Continuing Qualification. Developer’s right to open additional Schools as provided in this Agreement is subject to Developer’s continuing qualification for a Tutu School franchise as follows: (a) Developer must not be in default of this Agreement, any Franchise Agreement entered into pursuant to this Agreement or any other agreement between Developer and any of Developer’s affiliates and Tutu School or any of its affiliates; (b) Developer must have satisfied, on a timely basis, all monetary and other material obligations under the Franchise Agreements for all Developer’s existing Schools; (c) Developer must furnish to us, at least 60 days prior to the earlier of (i) the opening due date set forth in the Development Schedule or (ii) the actual date on which the Franchise Agreement would be executed, financial statements and other information regarding Developer and the operation of the proposed School (including, without limitation, investment and financing plans for the proposed School) as Tutu School may reasonably require; and (d) Developer must receive written confirmation from Tutu School that Developer meets the then-current standards for franchisees, including the financial capability criteria for the development of a new School.

1.8 Ownership; Guarantee. Developer represents and warrants that the ownership information outlined in Exhibit B is true, correct and complete. If Developer is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, partnership or other legal entity, all of Developer’s owners must execute the form of undertaking and guarantee attached as Exhibit C to this Agreement. Any person or entity that at any time after the date of this Agreement becomes an owner must also execute the form of undertaking and guarantee.

ARTICLE 2
TERM AND TERMINATION

2.1. Term. Unless sooner terminated as provided herein, the term of this Agreement will expire on the earlier of (a) the opening due date for the last School to be developed in accordance with the Development Schedule; or (b) the date the last School to be developed under this Agreement opens for business (the “Term”).

2.2. Default and Termination. If Developer fails to comply with any of the terms of this Agreement or any Franchise Agreement with Company to which Developer or an approved related entity have an interest, upon expiration of any applicable cure period, Company has the right to terminate this Agreement without the need to obtain a judicial or arbitral resolutions and without any responsibility for Company, by means of simple written notice to Developer. Without waiving any rights afforded to Company under this Agreement or any Franchise Agreement in which Developer (or its approved affiliates) own or hold any interest, Company has the discretionary right, but no obligation, to do any one or more of the following: (a) terminate or reduce the size of the Development Area, (b) terminate this Agreement as provided above, or (c) exercise any other rights and remedies which Company may have under this Agreement or applicable law.

2.3. Effect of Expiration or Termination. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason: (a) all remaining rights granted Developer to establish Schools under this Agreement automatically revert to Company, without any responsibility for Company; (b) Developer will have no right to establish or operate any School for which a Franchise Agreement has not been executed by Company before the effective date of the expiration or termination; and (c) Developer and Company’s rights and obligations with respect to the existing Schools will be governed by the terms of the applicable Franchise Agreements unless there also exists a basis or cause to terminate the applicable Franchise Agreement for a School.

TRANSFER AND ASSIGNMENT OF DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

3.1. Assignment by Company. This Agreement and all rights hereunder may be unilaterally assigned and transferred by Company without the need to obtain the consent of Developer and, if so assigned, is binding upon and inure to the benefit of Company’s successors and assigns. The assignee will be required to fully perform all of Company’s obligations under this Agreement and expressly assume and agree to perform such obligations. Developer hereby consents to such assignment and agrees that upon notice of such assignment from Company and/or its assignee, the assignee will be solely responsible to Developer for the Company’s obligations under this Agreement.

3.2. Assignment by Developer. Neither Developer nor any partner or shareholder thereof may, without Company’s prior written consent, directly or indirectly sell, assign, transfer, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage or otherwise encumber any interest in this Agreement or in any School (collectively referred to as “Transfer”) or in Developer, unless Developer obtains Company’s prior written consent and Developer transfers all of its rights and interest under this Agreement and all Franchise Agreements for Schools in the Development Area. Upon any Transfer, the Base Initial Franchise Fee reflected in Exhibit A will re-set to the then-current initial franchise fee then being offered to new franchisees. Developer acknowledges and agrees that it cannot Transfer its rights under this Agreement independent of its rights under the Franchise Agreements. Accordingly, the assignment terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreements apply to any Transfer of Developer’s rights and interest under this Agreement, including the payment of transfer fees and Company’s right of first refusal. Furthermore, the transferee must demonstrate to Company’s satisfaction that he, she or it meets the Company’s managerial, financial, and business standards, possesses a good business reputation and credit rating, and possesses the aptitude and ability to operate the Clubs required to be opened and operating pursuant to this Agreement in an economic and businesslike manner. Any such proposed Transfer occurring by operation of law or otherwise, including any assignment by or to any trustee in an insolvency or bankruptcy procedure, without Company's prior written consent, is a material default of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

4.1 Mediation. Except as otherwise stated in this Section 4.1, the parties agree to submit any claim, controversy or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement (and attachments) or the relationship created by this Agreement to non-binding mediation before bringing such claim, controversy or dispute to arbitration or to a court. The mediation will be conducted either through an individual mediator or a mediator appointed by a mediation services organization, experienced in the mediation of disputes between Tutu School and Developer, agreed upon by the parties. If the parties do not agree upon a mediator or mediation services organization within 15 days after either party has notified the other of its desire to seek mediation, the dispute will be mediated by the American Arbitration Association pursuant to its rules governing mediation, at Tutu School's corporate headquarters (currently in Chicago, Illinois). The costs and expenses of mediation, including compensation of the mediator, will be borne equally by the parties. If the parties cannot resolve the claim, controversy or dispute within 90 days after conferring with the mediator, either party may submit such claim, controversy or dispute to arbitration under Section 4.2 below. Either party may bring an action under the applicable provisions of this Article 4 without first submitting the action to mediation under this Section 4.1: (i) for monies owed, (ii) for injunctive relief, or (iii) involving the possession or disposition of, or other relief relating to, real property.

4.2 Arbitration. Except to the extent Tutu School elects to enforce the provisions of this Agreement by injunction as provided in Section 4.3 below, all disputes, claims and controversies between the parties arising under or in connection with this Agreement or the making, performance or interpretation thereof (including claims of fraud in the inducement and other claims of fraud in the arbitrability of any matter) that have not been settled by or are not otherwise subject to mediation as described in Section 4.1 above will be resolved by arbitration on an individual basis under the authority of the Federal Arbitration Act in the city where Tutu School's corporate headquarters are located (currently Chicago, Illinois). The arbitration will be on an individual basis only and not consolidated with any other proceeding, and Developer agrees not to seek joinder of any of Developer's claims with those of any other parties. The arbitrator(s) shall have no authority to select a different hearing locale for the arbitration. The arbitrator(s) will have a minimum of 5 years' experience in franchising or distribution law and will have the right to award specific performance of this Agreement. The proceedings will be conducted under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, or the rules of such other arbitration services organization as the parties otherwise may agree upon in writing, to the extent such rules are not inconsistent with the provisions of this arbitration provision or the Federal Arbitration Act. As part of the arbitration proceedings, each party agrees to submit no more than 25 interrogatories or to conduct no more than 4 depositions during the course of discovery, should discovery be ordered by the arbitrator(s). The decision of the arbitrator(s) will be final and binding on all parties; provided, however, the arbitrator(s) may not under any circumstances: (i) stay the effectiveness of any pending termination of this Agreement; (ii) assess punitive or exemplary damages; or (iii) make any award which extends, modifies or suspends any lawful term of this Agreement or any reasonable standard of business performance set by Tutu School. This Section 4.2 will survive termination or nonrenewal of this Agreement under any circumstances. Judgment upon the award of the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

4.3 Injunctive Relief. Notwithstanding Sections 4.1 and 4.2 above, Developer recognizes that a single franchisee's failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement could cause irreparable damage to Tutu School and/or to some or all other Schools. Therefore, if Developer's breach or threaten to breach any of the terms of this Agreement, Tutu School will be entitled to an injunction restraining such breach and/or a decree of specific performance, without showing or proving any actual damage, together with recovery of reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs incurred in obtaining such equitable relief, until such time as a final and binding determination is made by the arbitrators.

4.4 Attorneys' Fees. The nonprevailing party will pay all costs, expenses and interest, including reasonable attorneys' fees, the prevailing party incurs in any action brought to enforce any provision of this Agreement or to enjoin any violation of this Agreement.

4.5 Venue. Any claims, controversies or disputes arising out of or related to this Agreement that are not subject to arbitration as provided above, must be brought in the Federal District Court for the district of Tutu School's then-current headquarters (currently, the Northern District of Illinois) or in the state district court having jurisdiction over Tutu School's corporate headquarters (currently, Cook County District Court, Chicago, Illinois). Tutu School also has the right to file any such suit against Developer in the federal or state court where any of its Schools are located. Tutu School and Developer irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of such courts and waive all rights to challenge personal jurisdiction and venue. The provisions of this Section 4.5 will survive the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 MISCELLANEOUS

5.1 Independent Contractor. Developer is an independent contractor. Nothing herein contained may be deemed or construed to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venture, employment, or a fiduciary relationship, and Developer may not hold itself out as an agent, legal representative, partner, subsidiary, joint venturer, servant or employee of Company. Neither Company nor Developer has the right to bind or obligate the other to any obligations or debts.

5.2 Waiver and Delay. No waiver or delay by either party with respect to any default by the other of any term, covenant, or condition of this Agreement or in exercising any right, power, or remedy with regard to any such default may be construed as a waiver of any preceding or succeeding default of any other term, covenant or condition of this Agreement, nor will it impair any right, remedy or power to enforce the same. The acceptance of any payments is not, nor may be construed to be, a waiver of any default of any term, covenant or condition of this Agreement. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any provision or condition of this Agreement or of any default under this Agreement must be in writing and will be effective only to the extent specifically allowed by such writing. All remedies, either under this Agreement, at law, in equity, or otherwise are cumulative and not alternative and may be exercised simultaneously or sequentially in any order.

5.3 Successors. Subject to the restrictions in Article 3, this Agreement is binding upon and inure to the benefit of the permitted successors, assigns, heirs, and personal representatives of the parties.

5.4 Notices. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any notice, demand or communication provided for in this Agreement must be in writing and signed by the party serving the same and (i) delivered personally or (ii) delivered by a reputable overnight service (such as FedEx or UPS) and addressed to the party's registered address or the address noted in this Agreement or such other address as the party may designate in writing from time to time. Notices for purposes of this Agreement will be deemed to have been received if mailed or delivered as provided in this Section.

5.5 Applicable Law. All claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement and the parties' relationship will be governed by, and will be in accordance with, the substantive laws of Illinois (regardless of any conflicts of laws); provided that the Illinois Franchise Act and any other law or regulation applicable to the offer or sale of franchises or the franchise relationship will apply only if the jurisdictional provisions of the law are otherwise met.

5.7 Severability. All provisions of this Agreement are severable and this Agreement will be interpreted and enforced as if all completely invalid or unenforceable provisions were not contained herein and partially valid and enforceable provisions will be enforced to the extent valid and enforceable.

5.8 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and all exhibits and documents referenced in this Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede any and all prior negotiations, understandings, representations and agreements. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement may be amended only by a written document signed by the Developer and Company. Nothing in this or in any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document that we furnished to you.

5.9 Further Assurances. The parties hereby agree to execute such other documents as may be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

5.10 Reasonable Business Judgment. Whenever Tutu School reserves discretion in a particular area or agrees to exercise our rights reasonably or in good faith, Tutu School will satisfy its obligations whenever it exercises Reasonable Business Judgment in making the decision or exercising its rights. Tutu School's decisions or actions will be deemed to be the result of Reasonable Business Judgment, even if other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternatives are available, if the decision or action is intended, in whole or significant part, to promote or benefit the System generally even if the decision or action also promotes Tutu School's financial or other individual interest. Examples of items that will promote or benefit the System include, without limitation, enhancing the value of the Marks, improving customer service and satisfaction, improving product quality, improving uniformity, enhancing or encouraging modernization and improving the competitive position of the System.

5.11 Force Majeure. Should Developer be unable to meet the Development Obligation solely as the result of acts wholly beyond the control of the parties ("Force Majeure"), including, but not limited to, strikes, material shortages, fires, floods, earthquakes, and other acts of God, or by force of law (including, but not limited to, any legal disability of Tutu School to deliver a Franchise Disclosure Document), which result in the inability of Developer to construct or operate School(s) in the Development Area, and which Developer could not by the exercise of due diligence have avoided, the Development Periods will be extended by the amount of time during which such Force Majeure exists.

5.11 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts and delivered by e-mail or facsimile, all of which taken together will constitute one instrument.

5.12 Effective Date. Tutu School will designate the "Effective Date" of this Agreement in the space provided below. If no Effective Date is designated below, the Effective Date is the date when Tutu School signs this Agreement.

STATE ADDENDA

CALIFORNIA APPENDIX

1. The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.
2. The California Franchise Investment Law requires that a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise be delivered together with the disclosure document.
3. California Business and Professions Code Section 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer or nonrenewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.
4. The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 USCA § 101 et seq.).
5. The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete that extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.
6. Neither the franchisor nor any person described in Item 2 of the disclosure document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities exchange as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 USCA 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.
7. Our url is www.tutuschool.com. Our website has not been reviewed or approved by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation. Any complaints concerning the content of this website may be directed to the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation at www.dfpi.ca.gov.
8. Before the franchisor can ask you to materially modify your existing franchise agreement, Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires the franchisor to file a material modification application with the Department that includes a disclosure document showing the existing terms and the proposed new terms of your franchise agreement. Once the application is registered the franchisor must provide you with that disclosure document with an explanation that the changes are voluntary.
9. You must sign a general release if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code §31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code §§31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code §20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code §§20000 through 20043).

10. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
11. Any interest rate charged to a California franchisee shall comply with the California Constitution. The interest rate shall not exceed either (a) 10% annually or (b) 5% annually plus the prevailing interest rate charged to banks by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, whichever is higher.
12. The financial performance representation does not reflect the costs of sales, operating expenses, or other costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your franchised business. Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in the Franchise Disclosure Document, may be one source of this information.
13. The Department has determined that we, the franchisor, have not demonstrated we are adequately capitalized and/or that we must rely on franchise fees to fund our operations. The Commissioner has imposed a requirement for us to maintain a surety bond under California Corporations Code section 3113 and 10 C.C.R. section 310.113.5, which must remain in effect until the Department lifts this requirement. The surety bond is in the amount of $180,000 with Travelers Casualty and Surety Company of America and is available for you to recover your damages in the event we do not fulfill our obligations to you to open your franchised business. We will provide you with a copy of the surety bond upon request.

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT AND AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This California Addendum amends the Franchise Agreement and, if the parties enter into one, the Area Development Agreement as follows:

1. Section 5.5 of the Franchise Agreement is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

You are responsible for locating and securing the Premises and for the suitability of the Premises for the Franchised School notwithstanding any guidance or assistance we may provide to you concerning selection of the Premises and the terms of the lease. We will have no liability to you concerning the suitability of the location, the Premises or the lease.

2. Section 15.10 of the Franchise Agreement is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

This Agreement is the complete expression of the agreement made by us and you as to the subject matter hereof. Any other agreements, promises, representations or understandings between the parties are expressly superseded hereby and merged herein. Nothing in the Agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the Franchise Disclosure Document that we furnished to you. This Agreement cannot be modified or changed except by written instrument signed by you and us.

3. All but the last two paragraphs of Section 16 of the Franchise Agreement are deleted in their entirety.
4. For franchisees operating outlets located in California, the California Franchise Investment Law and the California Franchise Relations Act will apply regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the Franchise Agreement or any amendment thereto or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.
5. The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.
6. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Rule 2860.4400J prohibit us from requiring litigation to be conducted outside of Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Disclosure Document shall abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

Item 13, Additional Disclosures:

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that a franchisor indemnify Minnesota Franchisees against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee's use of the franchisor's trademark infringes upon the trademark rights of the third party. The franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee's use of a franchisor's trademark except in accordance with the requirements of the franchise agreement, and as the condition to an indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to the franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to the franchisor. If the franchisor accepts tender of defense, the franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Any condition, stipulation or provision, including any choice of law provision, purporting to bind any person who, at the time of acquiring a franchise is a resident of the State of Minnesota or in the case of a partnership or corporation, organized or incorporated under the laws of the State of Minnesota, or purporting to bind a person acquiring any franchise to be operated in the State of Minnesota to waive compliance or which has the effect of waiving compliance with any provision of the Minnesota Franchise Law is void.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

MINNESOTA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

To the extent the Minnesota Franchise Act, Minn. Stat. §§80C.01 – 80C.22 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 4 which requires that except for certain specified cases, that franchisee be given 180 days' notice for non-renewal of this Franchise Agreement.

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that franchisor indemnify franchisees whose franchise is located in Minnesota against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee's use of franchisor's trademarks ("Marks") infringe upon the trademark rights of the third party. Franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee's use of franchisor's trademark but franchisor shall indemnify franchisee for claims against franchisee solely as it relates to franchisee's use of the Marks in accordance with the requirements of the Franchise Agreement and franchisor's standards. As a further condition to indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to franchisor. If franchisor accepts tender of defense, franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Franchisee will not be required to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§ 80C.01 – 80C.22.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 3 which requires that except for certain specified cases, a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure). Termination of the franchise by the franchisor shall be effective immediately upon receipt by franchisee of the notice of termination where its grounds for termination or cancellation are: (1) voluntary abandonment of the franchise relationship by the franchisee; (2) the conviction of the franchisee of an offense directly related to the business conducted according to the Franchise Agreement; or (3) failure of the franchisee to cure a default under the Franchise Agreement which materially impairs the goodwill associated with the franchisor's trade name, trademark, service mark, logo type or other commercial symbol after the franchisee has received written notice to cure of at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance thereof.

According to Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 in Minnesota Rules or 2860.4400J, the terms of the Franchise Agreement shall not in any way abrogate or reduce your rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. 1984, Chapter 80C, including the right to submit certain matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota. In addition, nothing in this Franchise Agreement shall abrogate or reduce any of franchisee's rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedy provided for by the laws of the State of Minnesota.

Any claims franchisee may have against the franchisor that have arisen under the Minnesota Franchise Laws shall be governed by the Minnesota Franchise Law.

The Franchise Agreement contains a waiver of jury trial provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.

Franchisee consents to the franchisor seeking injunctive relief without the necessity of showing actual or threatened harm. A court shall determine if a bond or other security is required.

The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.

Any action pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5 must be commenced no more than 3 years after the cause of action accrues.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

2. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.

3. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Addendum as of the date Franchisor signs below.

With the exception of what is stated above, the following applies to the franchisor, its predecessor, a person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate offering franchises under the franchisor's principal trademark:

A. No such party has an administrative, criminal, or civil action pending against that person alleging: a felony, a violation of a franchise, antitrust, or securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, misappropriation of property, unfair or deceptive practices, or comparable civil or misdemeanor allegations.

B. No such party has pending actions, other than routine litigation incidental to the business, which are significant in the context of the number of franchisees and the size, nature, or financial condition of the franchise system or its business operations.

C. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or, within the 10-year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law; fraud; embezzlement; fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property; or unfair or deceptive practices or comparable allegations.

D. No such party is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order or decree relating to the franchise, or under a Federal, State, or Canadian franchise, securities, antitrust, trade regulation, or trade practice law, resulting from a concluded or pending action or proceeding brought by a public agency; or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange; or is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to any other business activity as a result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including, without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales agent.

3. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled “Requirements for a franchisee to renew or extend,” and Item 17(m), entitled “Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer”:

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by franchisee”:

You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(v), titled “Choice of forum,” and Item 17(w), titled “Choice of law”:

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements--No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

7. Receipts--Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. § 680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earlier of the first personal meeting, ten (10) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

This Addendum relates to franchises sold in the state of Virginia and is intended to comply with Virginia statutes and regulations.

1. Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause or to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him by any provision contained in the franchise. If any ground for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.
2. The Virginia State Corporation Commission's Division of Securities and Retail Franchising requires us to defer payment of the initial franchise fee, development fee (if applicable), and other initial payments owed by franchisees to the franchisor until the franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement.
3. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
4. The following two sections apply to any Franchise Agreement entered into after June 30, 2026:

Under subsection D of § 13.1-559 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, for all franchises located in Virginia, the franchise contract or agreement offered or entered into pursuant to terms of this chapter shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Under subdivision A 4 of § 13.1-563 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act (“Act”), it is unlawful to offer or enter into a franchise agreement that restricts the right of a franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail after termination or expiration of the franchise agreement. However, subsection B of § 13.1-563 of the Act provides that if a franchisee sells a franchise at a mutually agreed upon price to a third party or back to the franchisor, such sale may include a term restricting the right of such franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail for a period of no more than two years after such sale.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

To the extent the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, Va. Code §§13.1-557 – 13.1-574 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

“According to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any ground for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.”

2. The following two sections apply to any Franchise Agreement entered into after June 30, 2026 if required under the Virginia Retail Franchising Act:

a. Section 10.3 of the Franchise Agreement is modified to provide that the post-termination non-compete will not apply to Franchisee following termination or expiration of the Franchise Agreement.

b. Section 15.8(a) of the Franchise Agreement is amended to provide that the Franchise Agreement will be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

3. The Virginia State Corporation Commission's Division of Securities and Retail Franchising requires us to defer payment of the initial franchise fee and other initial payments owed by franchisees to the franchisor until the franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement.

4. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.

5. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

6. This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Addendum as of the date Franchisor signs below.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE
DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, THE DEVELOPMENT
AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.
8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.
9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).
10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).
18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.
19. Section 16 of the Franchise Agreement is deleted in its entirety.
20. The Franchisor will not require or accept the payment of any initial franchise fees until the franchisee has (a) received all initial training that it is entitled to under the franchise agreement or offering circular, and (b) is open for business. Because franchisor has material pre-opening obligations with respect to each franchised business Franchisee opens under the Area Development Agreement, payment of the franchise fee will be released proportionally with respect to each franchise outlet opened and is deferred until franchisor has met all its pre-opening obligations under the Agreement and Franchisee is open for business with respect to each such location.
