What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit D.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Colorado. Out-of-state mediation or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate or litigate with the franchisor in Colorado than in your own state.
2. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty or advertising fund payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
3. Financial Condition. The Franchisor's financial condition as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21) calls into question the Franchisor's ability to provide services and support to you.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

NOTICE REQUIRED
BY STATE OF MICHIGAN

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.

THE MICHIGAN NOTICE APPLIES ONLY TO FRANCHISEES WHO ARE RESIDENTS OF MICHIGAN OR LOCATE THEIR FRANCHISES IN MICHIGAN.

(f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.

(g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

(i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then-current reasonable qualifications or standards.

(ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

The fact that there is a notice of this offering on file with the attorney general does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the attorney general.

Any questions regarding this notice should be directed to the Michigan Department of Attorney General, Franchise Section, 525 W. Ottawa Street, G. Mennen Williams Building, 5th Floor, Lansing, Michigan 48913, telephone (517) 335-7622.

FOR PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEES

JOVIE, INC.

ITEM 1

THE FRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this Franchise Disclosure Document “we,” “us” or “Jovie” means Jovie Inc., the Franchisor. “You” or “Franchisee” means the person or persons, or the business entity that buys the franchise. If a corporation, partnership or other entity is the Franchisee, “you” includes the Franchisee’s owners.

The Franchisor

We are a Minnesota corporation that was incorporated on February 28, 2005 under the name College Nannies & Tutors Development, Inc. On August 30, 2023, we amended our legal entity name to Jovie Inc. We do business under the name “Jovie” and our corporate name. We previously did business under the name “College Nannies + Sitters + Tutors” and offered and sold franchises that used the mark “College Nannies + Sitters + Tutors” until April 2022. Existing franchisees also discontinued using “College Nannies + Sitters + Tutors” mark in 2022. Since April 2022, all new franchised businesses operate under the Jovie mark. Our principal business address is 11030 Circle Point Road, Suite 300 Westminster, CO 80020, telephone (303) 604-6545. Our agents for service of process are disclosed in Exhibit D.

We grant franchises for the operation of Jovie™ businesses. We are also engaged in the administration of our franchise system. We do not have any predecessors. We currently operate Jovie businesses using the marks “Jovie”. We have offered franchises since May 2005. We do not and have not offered franchises in other lines of business.

Our immediate parent is Bright Horizons Children’s Centers LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“BHCC”). BHCC is owned by our ultimate parent Bright Horizons Family Solutions Inc. (NYSE: BFAM), a Delaware corporation (“Bright Horizons”). Both BHCC and Bright Horizons have a principal business address of 2 Wells Ave. Newton, MA 02459. BHCC and Bright Horizons do not and have never offered franchises in any line of business. BHCC and Bright Horizons do not provide products or services to our franchisees, although Bright Horizons is a client of many of our franchisees in connection with its corporate back-up care business, as further described in Item 12.

The Business

Jovie:

At Jovie, our mission is to Build Stronger Families®. Our ambition is to be the preferred choice for caregivers, families and investors. The business concept and our standards of operation (the “System”) is built on the foundation of our core values: can do, results matter, and leave it better. We achieve our mission and ambition by executing our business purpose and strategy to serve more families more often with our community of professional, prepared & trained caregivers.

Each Jovie franchised business offered under this franchise disclosure document (a “Business”) offers on demand, part-time and full-time family childcare solutions.

Our in-home placement services are customized to meet the needs of families. We have flexible scheduling options, including full-time, part-time, before and after school, and summer childcare.

Our on-demand service offers private in-home childcare services to families and to business accounts such as churches, schools, hotels, childcare centers, events, country clubs and gyms. For the business segment, our franchisees either provide direct care at these accounts on a weekly or monthly basis, or they provide staffing augmentation to these businesses when they are in need of a substitute sitter. The private and business segments leverage our proprietary technology that allows parents and organizations to schedule safe, easy, hourly childcare when and where it is convenient for them.

The childcare offering also provides corporate back-up care through local, regional, and national accounts, including a long-standing collaboration with our parent Bright Horizons®, the leading provider of employer-sponsored childcare and early education services (NYSE: BFAM). Under our arrangement with Bright Horizons, Jovie franchisees may participate in providing back-up care services arranged through Bright Horizons for over 1,000 corporate clients. Corporate back-up care is hourly, on-call childcare, driven by our proprietary and automated system and technology that allows individuals and businesses to schedule care in situations in which an employee needs temporary childcare in order to attend work or a work-related function.

Jovie Businesses fulfill a critical role for busy parents and businesses. Caregivers are recruited, interviewed, screened and trained to be much more than a neighborhood babysitter. Through our process, we provide professionally trained and qualified caregivers for the children in our care. Business logistics and all family and employee scheduling are managed by you through our proprietary on-demand technology and mobile application solutions. And as the employer, the Jovie franchisee handles all of the required tax filing, insurance and payroll calculations required by law, so that the parents do not have to worry about this responsibility.

You will sign the franchise agreement included with this disclosure document as Exhibit B (the “Franchise Agreement”) before you begin operating. If you are opening your first Jovie Business, you are required to rent, or otherwise establish, an approved “Office” for your Business within 12 months after you sign the Franchise Agreement, but we recommend that you open the Office as soon as possible. We have a flexible real estate strategy that allows you to grow your real estate footprint as you grow your Business. The Office may be a shared office space (provided it has a door with a lock), an executive office, traditional office space or retail space. Your Office must be located within the Territory defined in your Franchise Agreement. Your Office must be approved by us and must be designed in accordance with our proprietary brand standards, which are outlined in our Location Playbook manual. However, if you have multiple Territories under the same legal entity, then at all times that entity will only be required to have one Office in one of its Territories throughout the country. Each entity will not be required to have multiple Offices, regardless of the number of Territories or the proximity of your Territories to each other. However, if you have multiple Franchise Agreement under different entities, then each franchisee entity needs to have at least one Office within its respective Territories.

If you meet our financial and operational qualifications, we may permit you to sign multiple Franchise Agreements and our then-current form of a Multiple Territory Addendum (attached as Schedule 7 to the Franchise Agreement), for the purchase of additional Territories that are adjacent to one another or located within the same Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) (as defined by the United States Office of Management and Budget) by the same entity. The Multiple Territory Addendum addresses certain overlap under the separate Franchise Agreements within the same MSA by the same franchisee entity, such as being able combine minimum royalty fees, submit and pay one aggregate Royalty Fee, Brand Fund Contribution, and Technology Fee, and aggregate local marketing expenditure requirements.

As part of the franchise award and selection process, we conduct a criminal background screen on you and we may contact your personal, professional and financial references. You are required to make sure all of your employees pass the same criminal and reference investigation.

Market and Competition

The market for childcare services is developed but rapidly evolving with the advance of technology. Parents are the primary target audience for these services while small to large companies and schools serve as secondary customers. Parents utilize customized care services for childcare needed on an occasional or regular basis ranging from a 3-hour babysitting need to 40+ hours of care on a weekly basis. Small to large companies primarily utilize back-up care services which provide a temporary caregiver for employees that are unable to work due to short-term childcare needs. These benefit packages are a growing segment for employers in a competitive marketplace to hire and retain talent and often are subsidized or sponsored entirely by the employer. Childcare centers, Montessori's and other schools, hotels and other hospitality companies, religious organizations, private clubs and special event organizers utilize our on-demand professional childcare to provide on-site childcare on an as-needed basis during functions and for traveling families.

The Business experiences seasonal changes which reflect the calendar of the local public and private schools. For example, certain portions of the Business (such as the placement of summer nannies) are seasonal in nature.

You will compete with other nanny/babysitting concepts such as Care.com, local nanny placement agencies, and au pair agencies.

Regulations

You must comply with all laws which apply to the operation of your Business including obtaining any required permits or licenses. Some states may require nannies to: (1) be specially screened; (2) review safety standards; (3) meet certain childcare standards; (4) be bonded; or (5) have special driving permits in order to drive children. If you elect to offer and sell approved respite care services, then you may be subject to additional state-specific regulations, such as additional license requirements. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that you are complying with all applicable laws and regulations. We strongly advise that you obtain advice from local counsel and business advisors that specialize in this industry to opine on the applicability of various laws and regulations, and to aid you in complying with such laws and regulations.

There are other federal, state and local laws with which you will also need to comply. Examples of federal laws affecting most businesses include laws and regulations regarding wages and hours of employees, occupational health and safety, equal employment opportunity, taxes, communication to employees, hazardous waste and environmental, and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Typically, state laws cover many of these same topics.

We also reserve the right to charge you a training fee for each manager that attends training. Should we charge a fee, we also reserve the right to increase the fee on an annual basis; however, the fee will not exceed $1,500 per manager. You must pay this fee for each of the new key managers that you appoint for your Business to attend training and Training is held either virtually or at our national support center in Colorado but may be held in other locations from time to time. The typical franchisee has 1-2 key managers attend initial training. Any new or replacement managers that you hire must complete training within 6 months of assuming their duties.
- (10) Conference and Meeting Fee. Your Principal Operator must attend the conferences and meetings that we designate and you must pay our then-current attendance fee (currently $250) each conference and meeting the Principal Operator attends. If you elect to send additional conference or meeting attendees beyond your Principal Operator, you must pay our then-current fee for the first two non-Principal Operator attendees (currently, $125 per attendee). You will not be charged a fee for any attendees beyond the first two non-Principal Operator attendees. We reserve the right to increase these fees upon 30 days' notice to you; however, we will not increase the fees more than 50% annually.

Notes:

- (1) U.S. Dollars. All dollars specified are in U.S. currency.
- (2) Basis. This schedule has been prepared with the benefit of our franchisees' experience in operating Jovie Businesses.
- (3) Initial Franchise Fee. The above estimate assumes that this is your first franchised Territory. See Item 5 for a description of the initial franchise fees payable.
- (4) Initial Marketing and Recruitment. You must spend at least $20,000 on initial marketing within the first 12 months of your operations. These funds must be spent according to the specifications in the Manual and will include expenses for the acquisition of a direct mail list, newspaper and magazine advertising, online marketing and recruitment, printing and postage costs. We may waive the initial marketing expenditure requirement if you are opening a Jovie business in a Territory that is physically adjacent to or located within the same Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) as an existing Jovie business owned by you.
- (5) Construction and Remodeling. The amount of construction and remodeling costs will vary dramatically depending upon the type of location, the terms of your lease, if applicable, and whether your landlord pays for leasehold improvements which are in turn reflected in your lease payment. You are required to establish an approved “Office” for your Business within 12 months after you sign the Franchise Agreement, but we recommend that you open the Office as soon as possible. We have a flexible real estate strategy that allows you to grow your real estate footprint as you grow your Business. The Office may be a shared office space (provided it has a door with a lock), an executive office, traditional office space or retail space. We encourage you to open an Office in each Territory; however, if you already have an Office that meets our then-current standards, then you will not be required to open additional Offices if you sign multiple Franchise Agreements under the same entity. If you sign Franchise Agreements under multiple entities, then each entity needs to have its own Office within one of its respective Territories.

- (6) Furnishings, Equipment, Supplies and Technology. Before beginning operations, you must purchase an assortment of office equipment including computers, a printer, a voice telephone system and other items as prescribed in the Manual, as well as furnishings and supplies.
- (7) Legal and Accounting. This item is the estimated cost of basic legal services if you choose to retain a professional to review your Franchise Agreement and form your business entity.
- (8) Training Expenses. You must make arrangements and pay the expenses for you to attend the training certification program including transportation, lodging, meals and wages (if applicable). The amount expended will depend, in part, on the distance you must travel and the type of accommodations you choose. The estimate is for 1 to 2 persons’ travel expenses.
- (9) Insurance. This estimate is for the entire annual premium. You must obtain and pay for insurance in such amounts and of such coverage as we prescribe. In some states, the cost of the insurance may be significantly higher.
- (10) Additional Funds. This amount of working capital is estimated to be sufficient to cover any initial operating/working capital expenses (including rent for your Office, employee wages, ongoing marketing and other costs) that are not covered by fees collected during the first 3 months of operation. Because many of your costs are fixed, the amount of working capital will vary based on the number of families you serve. We have based this estimate on the experience in opening and operating franchised Businesses during the past 15 years.
- (11) Total. The figures above are estimates only and may vary depending on location. These figures do not include any applicable sales tax. Your initial investment will also vary considerably depending upon the method and amount of financing that you use. As further described in Item 10, if you meet our credit standards, we will finance a portion of the initial franchise fee(s) payable by you under the Franchise Agreement. We will not finance any other portions of your initial investment.

ITEM 8

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Required Sources; Rebates

As of the date of this disclosure document, we do not require you to purchase or lease any products or services directly from us or entities affiliated with us. As of this date, we do not receive revenues from any required purchases or leases. We (directly or through an affiliate) may derive revenue directly or in the form of rebates or other payments from suppliers, based directly or indirectly on sales of products, advertising materials and other items to franchisees, and from other service providers. These payments may range from less than 1% up to 10% or more of the total purchase price of those items.

Approved Suppliers

In order to maintain the uniformly high standards and reputation of our franchise system, we will formulate standards and specifications we deem necessary to protect our marks and image. Accordingly, you must purchase for use or sale at your Business those products and services used in or sold by your Business and other services or products we designate from us, our designees or from other suppliers we approve. This requirement currently applies to signage, furniture, fixtures, accounting software, merchant services, and child development materials and screening services. You are required to conduct criminal background screens according to the Operations Manual on all of your employees, including nannies and sitters scheduled or placed. Accurate Background currently is our approved supplier for national, state and county pre-employment background screens. You are required to purchase or lease computer hardware and software and fixtures which meet our specifications. Currently, you are required to use Microsoft Office 365 for your email system, and your Microsoft 365 license also provides you access to Microsoft SharePoint where you can access Jovie franchisee and manager training. You are also required to use QuickBooks Online as your accounting system, Canva for creative asset management, creative development and requests, Business Impact Group for promotional supplies, printing, direct mail and collateral fulfillment, Brand Amplifier and RioSEO for digital marketing, Constant Contact for email marketing, and JazzHR for your applicant tracking software. Insurance is through the Marsh & McLennan Agency LLC, and they manage a captive insurance program for worker's compensation insurance for those in non-monopolistic states. Required vendors are subject to change. We currently recommend, but do not require, that you use ADP for payroll processing, but we reserve the right to require you to use ADP or another supplier in the future.

We, our affiliates, or our designees may be the designated or sole source of supply for certain services and products. As of the date of this disclosure document, we are not a required supplier for any products or services, but we reserve the right to do so. Further, there are no suppliers in which any of our officers have an ownership interest.

Specifications for our designated or approved vendors may include minimum standards for quality, quantity, delivery, design, appearance, durability, style, price range and other related restrictions. If you propose to purchase any items from a supplier not previously approved in writing by us, but which you believe meet our quality control specifications, you must first notify us. We may require, among other things, submission of sufficient samples, specifications, photographs, drawings and other related information to determine whether items meet our specifications. The proposed supplier will pay a charge not to exceed the reasonable costs of inspection and the actual cost of the test.

We apply the following general criteria, among others, in considering whether the supplier will be designated as an approved supplier:

1. Ability to provide the learning materials used in our designated program;
2. Ability to produce the products and meet our standards and specifications for quality and uniformity;
3. Production and delivery capabilities and ability to meet supply commitments;
4. Integrity of ownership (to assure that its association with us would not be inconsistent with our image);
5. Financial stability;
6. The negotiation of a mutually satisfactory license to protect our intellectual property rights; and
7. We may consider whether the supplier and the supplier agreement meet Bright Horizon's applicable standards and specifications, which may include, without limitation, information security requirements.

These criteria are only examples, and the criteria may change at any time in our sole discretion. We may modify the standards and specifications and will provide you with the approved lists as we deem advisable.

We will advise you within 60 days whether the proposed supplier meets our specifications, and our approval will not be unreasonably withheld. You will be notified in writing of our approval or disapproval of your proposed supplier. You will be notified in writing of a revocation of any approved supplier. Suppliers must maintain standards based on our written specifications and any modifications. Failure to correct a deviation from the System's specifications will result in the revocation of status as an approved supplier.

We may negotiate discounted prices for products with suppliers and you may, in that event, purchase products at the discounted price. We currently have no purchasing or distribution cooperatives serving the System. We do not provide any material benefits to franchisees for use of designated or approved sources. We may receive rebates from suppliers that sell to our franchisees, and we currently receive rebates from the supplier of email/marketing subscription services. During our 2025 fiscal year, we received $174,815.90 from required purchases and leases of products, supplies, equipment and services by Jovie franchisees. While these amounts are pass-throughs and not technically accounted for as revenue, this amount equals 2.0% of our total revenue of $8,714,125. If we receive rebates in the future, we will retain and use such payments as we deem appropriate. We also reserve the right to add a mark-up on products sold to you by us in the future.

The estimated proportion of the required purchases, purchases from approved suppliers and purchases in accordance with our specifications to all purchases in establishing the Business is 60% to 70% and in the operation of the franchised Business is 20% to 40%.

Insurance

You must carry insurance policies protecting you and us, according to our current requirements, which we may update in the Manual or otherwise in writing. We may require you to use certain insurers for some or all of the insurance requirements described below. Prior to opening for business, you must provide us with certificates issued by each of your insurers indicating that all premiums due have been paid, that all required insurance is in full force and effect and that the insurance will not be terminated or changed without at least 30 days' prior written notice from the insurer to us. Within five days of any request by us, you must provide us with a copy of all insurance policies, certificates, or endorsements to us for examination.

Currently, you must carry the following coverage:

- (1) Workers' compensation insurance as required by law, employer's liability insurance with employer's liability limit of at least $1,000,000 or any greater limit as required by law, and any other insurance required by law for employers;
- (2) General liability insurance—$1,000,000 per occurrence with an annual policy aggregate of $3,000,000. Policy language to include coverage for:
 - a. Sexual/Physical Abuse & Molestation Limit of $1,000,000 per occurrence with an annual policy aggregate of $3,000,000
 - b. Professional Liability - must be purchased from an insurer designated or approved by us with limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence with an annual policy aggregate of $3,000,000
 - c. Additional insured: grantor of franchise in favor of Jovie Inc.
 - d. Additional Insured: Bright Horizons and its respective affiliates, officers, directors, members and others as their interest may appear;
- (3) Umbrella coverage of $3,000,000 (currently required only for franchisees servicing certain customers, as further detailed in the Manual);
- (4) Non-owned automobile liability insurance with minimum limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence;
- (5) Any other insurance required by us, or by national account programs you participate in, or by your lease.

You may, at your option, choose to carry the following coverage through an insurer that we approve:

- (1) Cyber liability insurance with a minimum limit of $1,000,000 per occurrence; and
- (2) Employment practices liability Insurance at a limit of your choosing (generally $500,000 per occurrence).

If you fail to obtain or maintain adequate insurance, we may, at our election, obtain insurance for and in your name. Within five days of any written request by us, you shall pay all costs of obtaining adequate insurance.

Except as described in this Item 8, there are no other requirements for you to purchase or lease based on our specifications or from approved suppliers.

We may provide direct financing of the Initial Franchise Fee to you if you purchase one or more Territories at the same time as follows:

Item Financed (Source)	Down Payment	Amount Financed	Term (Mos.)	Interest Rate (annual)	Monthly Payment	Prepayment Penalty	Security Required	Liability Upon Default
Initial Franchise Fees: 1 Territory	$10,000	$39,999	24	Greater of 2% over prime rate ⁽²⁾ or 7%	Currently, $1,790.86	None	Personal Guarantee	Loss of Franchise and Repayment of Outstanding Loan Balance

Other Financing	None

We may also provide direct financing of the Initial Franchise Fee if you are an existing franchisee and subsequently wish to purchase a second or third territory as follows:

Item Financed (Source)	Down Payment	Amount Financed	Term (Mos.)	Interest Rate (annual)	Monthly Payment	Prepayment Penalty	Security Required	Liability Upon Default
Initial Franchise Fee: 2 nd Territory ⁽¹⁾	$8,000	$31,999	24	Greater of 2% over prime rate ⁽²⁾ or 7%	Currently, $1,432.68	None	Personal Guarantee	Loss of Franchise and Repayment of Outstanding Loan Balance

(1) This financing arrangement reflects a purchase of a second or third Territory, and not the purchase of multiple Territories at once.

If you meet our credit standards, we will finance your Initial Franchise Fee(s). You must make an initial down payment of at least 20% of the total Initial Franchise Fee(s) at the time you sign the Franchise Agreement. The remainder, plus interest, must be paid over a period of 24 months.

In the table above, prime rate means the most recent consensus prime rate published by the Wall Street Journal (determined on the date you sign the Franchise Agreement). As of April 24, 2026, the prime rate was 6.75%.

If you choose to finance the initial franchise fee, you must execute a Promissory Note, using the form attached to the Franchise Agreement as Schedule 2 (see Exhibit B to this disclosure document). The only security we require is a personal guarantee of the Promissory Note by you and your spouse, or by all the shareholders or owners of you if you are an entity. The Promissory Note can be prepaid without penalty at any time during its term. If you do not pay on time, we can call the loan and demand immediate payment of the full outstanding balance and obtain court costs and attorney's fees if a collection action is necessary. We also have the right to terminate your franchise if you do not make your payments on time and do not cure your default within 10 days. The Promissory Note requires that you waive your rights to notice of a collection action and to assert defenses to collection against us. It is not our current practice to sell these notes to third parties, although we are not restricted from doing so in the future.

Except as described above for the Initial Franchise Fee, neither we nor any affiliate of ours offers direct or indirect financing to you. We do not guarantee your note, lease or other obligations. We do not currently place financing with anyone and do not receive payment for placement of financing. We do not have any past or present practice or intention to sell, assign, or discount to any third party, any financing arrangements. If you secure a business loan backed by the Small Business Administration (SBA), we will execute with you the mandated SBA Addendum to the Franchise Agreement.

ITEM 11 FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEM AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, Jovie Inc. is not obligated to provide any assistance to you.

Pre-Opening Obligations:

Before you open your franchised Business:

We will designate your Territory. If you opt to open your Office immediately, we will evaluate the site for your Office. (See Section 5.B.ii of the Franchise Agreement.)

We will provide you with specifications for signage, layout, décor and similar items. (See Section 5.B.ii of the Franchise Agreement.)

At your request, we will provide advice regarding your selection, training and supervision of staff. (See Section 5.B.iii of the Franchise Agreement.)

We will furnish you with specifications for all equipment, inventory and supplies for the operation of your Business and a list of approved suppliers for certain of these items. (See Section 5.B.iv of the Franchise Agreement.)

We will advise you on your initial marketing, recruiting and public relations efforts. (See Section 5.B.v of the Franchise Agreement.)

We will provide pre-training and an initial training program in the operation of the franchised Business for you as further described below. (See Sections 5.B.vi and 6.D of the Franchise Agreement.)

We will provide you electronic access to our confidential operating manuals (the “Manual”) which will include specifications for equipment, supplies, inventory, management and operation. (See Section 5.C.i of the Franchise Agreement.) The Manual is confidential and remains our property. We may modify the Manual, but these modifications will not alter your status and rights under the Franchise Agreement. The Manual contains both mandatory and suggested standards and procedures that we develop to ensure the brand standards for Jovie Businesses and information relating to your obligations as a franchisee.

Obligations After Opening:

During the operation of the franchised Business:

1. If applicable, we will evaluate the site for your Office when you are ready to open it. (See Section 5.B.ii of the Franchise Agreement.)
2. We will provide you with updates to the Manual. (See Section 5.C.i of the Franchise Agreement.)
3. We may hold periodic conferences or meetings to discuss marketing techniques, new developments, advertising programs, business procedures and other topics. You, and certain personnel from your Business, will be required to attend these conferences and meetings and will be required to pay a fee for such attendance. We will charge you the conference and meeting fee whether or not you and the required personnel attend the designated conference and/or meeting. See Sections 5.C.ii and 6.Q of the Franchise Agreement.)
4. We will formulate advertising and promotional programs as further described in this Item 11. (See Sections 4 and 5 of the Franchise Agreement.)
5. We will provide you with ongoing consultation in such form and at such times as we deem appropriate. (See Section 5.C.iv of the Franchise Agreement.)
6. We will, on a periodic basis as we deem advisable, conduct inspections of the franchised Business and its operations and evaluations of the operations. We specifically have the right to conduct unannounced visits at any time during business hours. Any inspection of your Business by us is to protect our interest in the Marks and System and is not to control the day-to-day operation of your Business or for supervision of your employees. (See Sections 4.M and 6.N of the Franchise Agreement.)
7. We may, as we deem advisable, establish and enforce minimum performance standards and administer quality assurance programs applicable to you and other franchisees, to monitor and improve the overall quality of the services provided under the Marks (See Sections 6.K and 4.D of the Franchise Agreement.)

8. We will provide ongoing consultation to help resolve operating problems. (See Section 5.C.v. of the Franchise Agreement.)

9. We will conduct product research and development that we deem appropriate to improve the System. (See Section 5.C.vi of the Franchise Agreement.)

10. We or our affiliate may offer to provide certain optional services to or for your Business, which currently includes recruiting applicants, conducting reference checks, and providing scheduling services, for additional fees.

11. We may, but are not required to, assist you with establishing prices, such as setting minimum and/or maximum prices at which you must sell products and services, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Site Selection

We do not select the location of your Business's facilities. Site selection is your responsibility. If you are signing your first Jovie franchise agreement, you are required to rent, or otherwise establish, an Office in your Territory within 12 months of signing your Franchise Agreement. The site of your Office must be approved by us. In order to accomplish this, you will provide us with information about your potential location. We will approve or disapprove the proposed location within 30 days of your submission. If we do not approve the proposed location, you will have to find an alternative location of which we approve. The criteria that we use in evaluating an Office site include safety for visitors, adequate space, adequate access and parking, and cleanliness and appearance of location. We have the right to terminate your franchise if you do not open your Office within 12 months of signing the Franchise Agreement.

If you sign multiple Franchise Agreements under the same entity, then you will only be required to open and maintain one physical Office in one of your Territories, regardless of the number of Territories that you have or their locations. If you elect to utilize a physical Office in one of your other Territories, then you must establish a P.O. box, or other virtual office as we may designate in the Manual or otherwise in writing, within your Territory. Failure to maintain at least one physical Office in one of your Territories that complies with our then-current standards will constitute a breach of each of your Franchise Agreements. If you sign multiple Franchise Agreements under multiple entities, then each entity will be required to establish its own Office in its respective Territories.

Marketing

General:

All advertising and promotion by you in any medium must be conducted in a professional manner and shall conform to our standards and requirements as provided in the Manuals or otherwise in writing. In addition, you will use only approved advertising and marketing materials in promoting the Business. Under no circumstances may you modify or alter the Marks in any materials, and you are required to use only the approved versions of the Marks as set forth in the Manuals or otherwise in writing.

Brand Fund:

We will establish, maintain and administer a “Brand Fund.” You will contribute 2% of your Gross Revenues to the Brand Fund. Payments to the Brand Fund are made at the same time and in the same manner as the Royalty Fee. We will oversee all marketing programs and have sole control over creative concepts, materials and media used in such programs including the placement and allocation. We will use the Brand Fund to develop and administer advertising, marketing, recruiting and public relations materials. The scope of the marketing will initially be local and regional, but we have the right to change the scope at any time. We cannot and do not ensure that any particular franchisee will benefit directly or pro rata from the Brand Fund expenditures. For each of our company-owned or affiliate-owned Jovie Businesses, we will make contributions to the Brand Fund on the same basis as the contributions required of franchisees. Our Franchise Advisory Council provides input on advertising and marketing issues, including the Brand Fund. However, we alone determine how the Brand Fund will be used. We will administer and control the Brand Fund and we will have the absolute and unilateral right to determine how, when and where the monies in the Brand Fund will be spent. This includes the right to use Brand Fund monies for (a) broadcast or print advertising; (b) the creation, development and production of advertising and promotional materials, including, but not limited to, ad slicks, radio, film and television commercials, videotapes, direct mail pieces, and other print advertising for both recruitment of staff and customers for our franchisees; (c) any marketing or related research and development; (d) advertising and marketing expenses, including payment for research and development, new product testing, and pilot programs; (e) services provided by advertising agencies, public relations firms or other marketing, research or consulting firms, agencies, or franchisees; (f) marketing meetings; (g) development and enhancement of web pages and internet access provider costs; and (h) administrative costs.

Sums paid by franchisees to the Brand Fund will be maintained in a separate account from our general funds and will not be used to defray any of our general operating expenses, except for reasonable administrative costs and overhead that we incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the Brand Fund and advertising programs including costs incurred in collecting and accounting for assessments for the Brand Fund and salaries for marketing support personnel. If we do not spend the monies in the Brand Fund in the year they were collected, they will be carried over to the following year. If we spend more Brand Fund contributions than we collect in any given year, then we may use future Brand Fund contributions to offset any deficit. We may have the Brand Fund borrow from us or other lenders to cover any Brand Fund deficits. Monies in the Brand Fund are not used to solicit the sale of franchises. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, we collected Brand Fund contributions totaling $1,771, 802 and spent $1,826,458 (103%) in Brand Fund and marketing programs. Of the $1,826,458, 23% was spent on national marketing initiatives, 34% was invested in our digital footprint (website development, website presence, social media and technology upgrades); 37% was spent on administration and support; 4% was spent on national recruitment and retention programs; and 2% was spent on franchisee design support.

Although we intend the Brand Fund to be of perpetual duration, we have the right to terminate it if we choose. We will not terminate the Brand Fund, however, until all monies in the Brand Fund have been expended for advertising and promotional purposes.

An unaudited accounting of Brand Fund contributions and expenditures will be prepared annually and will be made available to you upon request. At our option, any such annual accounting may include an audit of the contributions and expenditures of the Brand Fund prepared by an independent certified public accountant selected by us and prepared at the expense of the Brand Fund.

Although we do not have a separate advertising council, our Franchise Advisory Council (“FAC”) provides input on our advertising and marketing activities. Members of the FAC are elected by all franchisees. The FAC serves only in an advisory capacity and does not have any operational or decision-making power. We have the right to change or dissolve the FAC or the marketing committees at any time.

Other Advertising:

In addition to the contributions to the Brand Fund, you must spend at least $20,000 on initial marketing and recruitment in the first 12 months of operating your Business. We may waive the initial marketing expenditure requirement if you are opening a Jovie business in a Territory that is physically adjacent to or located within the same Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) as an existing Jovie business owned by you.

You must also spend the greater of 2% of Gross Revenues or $15,000 per year on approved local advertising. If you operate multiple Jovie businesses in Territories that are physically adjacent to one another or located within the same Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) as determined by us, the minimum local marketing expenditure requirement will apply to such Territories on a combined basis.

Before using any promotional and advertising materials, you will submit to us, for our prior approval, all information pertaining to promotional materials and advertising initiated by you. In the event written disapproval of any such advertising and promotional material has not been given by us to you within 20 days from the date such information has been received by us, the materials will be deemed approved.

You must submit documentation of your advertising expenditures at such times and in such form as we designate. If you fail to make any required advertising expenditures, we have the right to require you to contribute the amount of any deficiency to the Brand Fund to be used by us for general advertising and promotion.

We may require you to join and participate in marketing or promotional programs for customers or customer networks that have multiple locations or use services in multiple Territories. The Franchise Agreement gives us the right to specify maximum resale prices through these multi-area marketing programs, to the extent permitted by law. In addition, we may negotiate special pricing and special terms of service with larger customers or customer networks on behalf of the entire network of Jovie businesses. If you wish to participate in special programs with these customers or networks, you may sign an amendment to the Franchise Agreement giving us the right to negotiate and enter into agreements customer that bind you and other franchisees (Schedule 8 to the Franchise Agreement).

We reserve the right to require that local or regional advertising cooperatives be formed, changed, dissolved or merged.

You may not independently market or operate your Business or use words or symbols that are the same as or similar to the Marks on the internet, in any website, domain name, link, social media platform, mobile app, blog, metatag or search technique, except as designated by us or permitted by our then-current policies regarding online activity. The initial training program is mandatory for you (if you are an individual) or for the Principal Operator (if you are an entity). At least 1 person associated with you or your Business must complete the classroom training session to our satisfaction prior to opening the Business. The Training is provided to franchise owners, Principal Operators and management level employees only. Training will be held at our franchise support center in Colorado and via virtual sessions. The primary instructional resources used in the training program consist of: 1) Training Manual (accessible on Microsoft SharePoint), 2) Operations Manual (accessible on Microsoft SharePoint), 3) MyJovie powered by Aaniiie, and 4) other learning materials.

We also offer a Success Summit, which is generally offered at months 9-12 of your business operations (you will determine the optimal timing for your Business) and designed to support and refine your business plans.

Peter Coffin is in charge of the training/certification program. Mr. Coffin joined us in May 2024 and has over 19 years in our system as an owner and trainer. Our other employees or representatives that may assist in the training program will have at least one-year experience in the respective subject they teach. These subject matter experts may be assisted in providing the training by other persons who have experience in some facet of the operation of a Jovie business. The initial training program is offered on a pre-determined schedule throughout the year.

We reserve the right to require you to attend additional training. Ongoing training or re-training may be required as determined by us including in the event you hire a new Principal Operator for the Business. The cost of attending any future training or retraining shall be paid by you. The current cost of additional training is $2,000 per person per day.

We also require manager training (delivered virtually) for all key managers of your Business, including all new managers that you appoint in connection with the opening of your Business. Required training includes online learning pre-training components and virtual classroom training. We currently do not charge for manager training; however, you will need to pay your manager for the hours worked while attending the virtual training program. Any future managers must attend training at your expense.

Computer Requirements

You must purchase (or lease), use, maintain and update computer and other systems and software programs which meet our then-current specifications as they evolve over time and which, in some cases, may only be available from designated suppliers (the “Computer System”). The required Computer System can access the internet and has the capabilities to receive a high-speed internet connection. The system must have Microsoft Office 365 business or later software (Outlook, Excel, PowerPoint and Word). The Computer System will be used in the day-to-day operation of the Business primarily to access our proprietary internet-based database system named MyJovie and must utilize the supported browser of our discretion. The Computer System will also be used to report and communicate with us for your accounting and record keeping and for other uses as we designate. You must use the accounting software that we designate, which is currently QuickBooks Online, and report financial information to us in the form, format, and manner prescribed or approved by us. You must maintain your Computer System’s network and you must promptly update and otherwise change your computer hardware and software systems as we require, at your expense. You must pay all amounts charged by any supplier or licensor of the systems and programs used by you, including charges for use, maintenance, support and/or update of these systems or programs. We will have direct access to the data regarding the Business.

Except as noted below, we do not specify a particular brand or model of computer equipment. Our current specifications for your computer are as follows:

Computers	Windows based computer
Processor	Intel Core i5 or equivalent/better
Processor	2.9GHz
Operating System	Windows 10 or newer
Memory	4 GB RAM
Disk Space	128 GB

Internet Connection	Business grade Fiber/Broadband/Cable/DSL Connection 15-25Mb down/5 Mb up

The estimated cost of the Computer System (hardware and software) is $2,000. The estimated annual cost of any optional or required maintenance, updating, upgrading or support contracts is $250. We contractually reserve the right to require you to upgrade your Computer System. There are no contractual limitations on our ability to require you to upgrade your Computer System. Further, there are no contractual limits on our ability to have independent access to the information and data stored on your Computer System.

Operations Manual

The Table of Contents of the Manual is contained in Exhibit F to this disclosure document. As of the issuance date of the disclosure document, the total number of pages in the Manual is 84.

Opening

The length of time between signing the Franchise Agreement and opening your Business will vary. We estimate that the typical length of time between the date you sign the Franchise Agreement and the date you open for Business will be 2 to 4 months. You must begin operating the Business within 6 months of the effective date of the Franchise Agreement. If you fail to do so, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

You will receive a protected territory in which to operate your Business (the “Territory”). We will not locate another Jovie company-owned or franchised business in your Territory. We have reserved the right to use other channels of distribution such as the Internet or other direct marketing sales to make sales in your area under the Marks or under different trademarks. We will not pay any compensation to you for accepting orders from customers in your Territory. You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

You are restricted from marketing or soliciting business from any customers outside your Territory. Similarly, we and other franchisees are not allowed to conduct direct marketing or solicit customers in your Territory.

You must comply with our then-current inter-territory referral policy, as described further in the Manual, with respect to servicing a customer in another franchisee’s territory. Under current our inter-territory policy: (A) you are not restricted from conducting business-to-consumer sales and directly servicing individual customers (i.e. families and students) who are located outside your Territory; but (B) you may not conduct business-to-business sales and accept business from business accounts located outside of your Territory (i) unless those businesses are part of a national/regional/local account and we have granted our prior written consent for you to service those business accounts; and (ii) except as otherwise permitted in accordance with our then-current inter-territory referral policy. We and other franchisees may service customers in your Territory. There is no compensation paid to you by us or other franchisees for servicing customers who reside in your Territory.

Our parent Bright Horizons operates childcare centers and offers corporate back-up care services under the mark “Bright Horizons” and BH@Home throughout the country, including within the Territories of our franchisees. Bright Horizons’ offerings include placement of childcare providers in the homes of families, as part of the corporate back-up care program that its customers offer to their employees as a workplace benefit. There are no restrictions on Bright Horizons’ ability to market, offer, or sell these services in your Territory.

Except as described in this Item 12, as of the date of this disclosure document, neither we nor any of our affiliates operates, franchises, or has plans to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark that will sell goods or services similar to those that you will offer.

The Territory will be delineated by zip codes and we will determine the size and parameters of the Territory. In determining the Territory, we consider the number of “qualified households.” We determine the number of qualified households for purposes of determining the size and parameters of your Territory through a third-party information services provider (currently Data Axle®), which gathers its information from a variety of sources, including the most current available census data. A household is considered a “qualified household” for purposes of this determination when the following two characteristics are met: (1) household income is equal to or greater than an assigned threshold depending on the cost of living index in that zip code, and (2) there is at least one child present (under 14 years old) in that household. As of the issuance date of this disclosure document, we apply the following thresholds to determine the number of “qualified households” in a particular zip code:

Cost of Living Index	Household Income Threshold
175+	$200,000
174-150	$225,000
149-125	$250,000
124 to 100	$275,000
Below 100	$300,000

Typically, each standard-sized Territory will be comprised of at least approximately 5,000 qualified households. However, because it is impossible to determine the number of qualified households with complete precision at any given point in time (for example, the census is conducted only once every 10 years), your Territory may include a different number of qualified households at the time you sign the Franchise Agreement or during its term. The actual size and boundaries of your Territory may also upon other factors, such as density of population, growth trends of population, and major topographical features which clearly define contiguous areas, like rivers, mountains, major freeways, and underdeveloped land areas.

Except as described in this Item 12, neither we nor our affiliates will operate or grant franchises for businesses within your Territory that offer the same services you do under any of our trademarks. However, as noted above, other franchised or company-owned businesses may be permitted to service customers in your Territory.

Our parent Bright Horizons owns SitterCity.com, which is an online marketplace under the “SitterCity” trademarks whereby individuals post care needs, and caregivers can apply to open jobs. We will not be involved in the operation of SitterCity, but families and caregivers that utilize SitterCity may solicit and coordinate jobs within your Territory. We currently do not have a system in place to resolve conflicts between SitterCity and our franchisees regarding territory, customers, and franchisor support. SitterCity has a principal place of business at 2 Wells Ave. Newton, MA 02459. There are currently no plans for SitterCity to begin offering or selling franchises.

Our Parent Bright Horizons also owns Steve and Kate’s Camp, which is a day camp operating under the “Steve and Kate’s Camp” trademarks that offers specialized “studios” for activities such as dance, music, bread making, coding and animation, along with outdoor activities, for pre-K through 7th grade students. We will not be involved in the operation of Steve and Kate’s Camp, but Steve and Kate’s Camp may operate within your Territory. We currently do not have a system in place to resolve conflicts between Steve and Kate’s Camp and our franchisees regarding territory, customers, and franchisor support. Steve and Kate’s Camp has a principal place of business at 25 Broadway, San Francisco, CA 94111. There are currently no plans for Steve and Kate’s Camp to begin offering or selling franchises.

We do not have the right to alter the size of the Territory without your consent. Continuation of your Territory is not dependent upon your achieving a certain sales level, market penetration or other contingency, although you are required to pay a minimum Royalty Fee starting 18 months after you sign the Franchise Agreement as described in Item 6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if you are signing a Franchise Agreement in connection with a renewal or transfer, then you will be required to pay the minimum royalty fee effective immediately as of the Effective Date of the newly executed Franchise Agreement. We do not have the right to unilaterally alter your Territory.

Within 12 months after you sign the Franchise Agreement, you must operate your Business from an Office approved by us. If you are signing your first Franchise Agreement, your Office must be located within your Territory. If you sign multiple Franchise Agreements under the same entity, then you will only be required to open and maintain one Office in one of your Territories, regardless of the number of Territories that you have or their locations. If you elect to maintain a physical Office within one of your other Territories to operate your Business, then you must establish a P.O. box, or other virtual office as we may designate in the Manual or otherwise in writing, within your Territory. Failure to maintain at least one Office in one of your Territories that complies with our then-current requirements will constitute a breach of each of your Franchise Agreements. If you sign Franchise Agreements under multiple entities, then each entity needs to have its own Office within one of its respective Territories.

You may not relocate the Office without our prior written approval. Any relocation of the Office must be within one of your Territories and must meet our then-current standards for site approval including proximity to other Jovie Businesses and demographics of the neighborhood.

With respect to national, regional and local accounts, we have the right to set the terms and conditions (including pricing) of providing services and to determine which Jovie Businesses will service the accounts. You have the right to not participate in, or to subsequently opt-out of, a national/regional/local account program that is offered to you. At all times we, our affiliates, and Bright Horizons and will have the right to, and we may offer other franchisees the right to, solicit and sell to customers of those national, regional, or local account programs in your Territory without compensation to you. We do not provide a list of our national, or local regional accounts to prospective franchisees. If you opt to participate in national/regional/local account program that is offered to you, you must service those accounts yourself and may not subcontract the work to other individuals or entities (including other franchisees) without our prior written approval, which will be determined in our sole discretion

Our parent Bright Horizons is a national account of ours with respect to corporate back-up care services. Under our preferred vendor arrangement with Bright Horizons, which predates Bright Horizons' acquisition of us, multiple Jovie franchisees located in the same general market area may be listed as "preferred partners" to be contacted when the need for back-up care services arises in that general market. Bright Horizons utilizes Jovie franchisees and other third-party providers for its corporate back-up care programs or may provide these services directly. Bright Horizons alone determines the basis upon which back-up care service jobs are offered to eligible providers in the market. Neither you nor any other franchisee is guaranteed any minimum number or proportion of back-up care referrals from Bright Horizons, and you should not base your decision to purchase the franchise on the assumption that Bright Horizons will refer any back-up care service jobs to your Business. Any back-up care service jobs that you may receive from Bright Horizons is only intended to supplement the services that you provide to your other customers. Therefore, after your first full year of operations, the total amount of Gross Revenues that you may generate from national accounts, including back-up care service jobs that you receive from Bright Horizons, may not exceed 90% of your total annual Gross Revenue in any given year. Again, this maximum threshold level is not an indication that you may receive any amount of back-up care service jobs from Bright Horizons. The Franchise Agreement contains no limitations other than as stated above on our right to establish other franchises or to offer products and services in other channels of distribution. Specifically, we and our affiliates reserve the right to:

1. Use and license others to use the Marks and System at any location other than in the Territory;
2. Use, and license others to use, other proprietary marks or methods which are not the same as or confusingly similar to the Marks, at any location (including within the Territory) which may be the same as, similar to or different from the services offered by Jovie Businesses;
3. Sell any products or services anywhere, whether or not using the Marks, through various channels of distribution (including Internet, wholesale, mail order, and retail channels). The Internet is a channel of distribution reserved exclusively to us, and you may not independently market on the Internet or conduct e-commerce except as we approve;

4. Develop or own other franchise systems for the same or similar products and services using different Marks than those licensed to you;

5. Purchase or be purchased by, or merge or combine with, competing businesses wherever located;

6. Offer franchises in the future on terms we deem appropriate, including terms that differ from those in our current Franchise Agreement; and

7. Establish national, regional and local accounts, and multi-area marketing programs within and outside of the Territory. We may offer you the opportunity to service national, regional and local accounts and other customers developed by a multi-area marketing program, or we may make other arrangements to do so.

ITEM 13 TRADEMARKS

We grant you the right to operate a Business under the name “JOVIE” and other marks as we may designate from time to time (“Marks”). You may also use such other current or future Marks which we designate to operate your Jovie Business.

Our immediate parent company, Bright Horizons Family Solutions LLC (“BHFS”), owns the following service mark, which is registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”) on its Principal Registrar:

Mark	Registration Date	Registration Number
JOVIE	July 2, 2024	7,434,508

Our right to use and license others to use the Marks is exercised under a trademark license agreement (“the TM Agreement”) with BHFS dated April 18, 2022. Under the TM Agreement, we are granted the right to use and to permit others to use the Marks. The TM Agreement has a perpetual term. If we were ever to lose our right to the Marks, BHFS is required under the TM Agreement to allow our franchisees to maintain their rights to use the Marks in accordance with their franchise agreements. Also, the franchise agreements will be assigned to BHFS. Other than the TM Agreement, there are no agreements in effect which significantly limit our rights to use or license the Marks in any state in a manner material to Jovie franchises.

We also own the following service mark registration with the USPTO on its Principal Registrar:

Mark	Registration Date	Registration Number
Building Stronger Families	February 2, 2010	3,744,325

We and BHFS have filed or intend to file all renewals and required affidavits for the respective Marks. BHFS and us also claim common law rights in the respective Marks. In addition, we use a number of unregistered Marks. You must follow our rules when you use any of the Marks. You cannot use the Marks as part of a business entity name or domain name or with modifying words, designs or symbols except for those which we license to you. You may not use any of the Marks or any variations of them in connection with the sale of an unauthorized product or service or in a manner not authorized in writing by us. You may not use the Marks on your employment applications, employee evaluation forms, benefits statements, payroll checks or other documents or materials relating to your employees.

There are no currently effective determinations of the USPTO, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the trademark administrator of any state or any court. There is no pending infringement, opposition or cancellation, or material litigation involving the Marks.

We are not obligated to protect your right to use the Marks, to protect you from claims of infringement or unfair competition, or to take affirmative action when notified of uses or claims. You must immediately notify us of any apparent infringement of or challenge to your use of any Mark or claim by any person of any rights to any Mark. We have the sole right to decide to take any action we deem appropriate and will have the right to control exclusively any litigation or USPTO proceeding arising out of any infringement, challenge or claim, or otherwise relating to any Mark. You must cooperate with us in connection with any litigation or USPTO proceeding. If it becomes advisable at any time in our sole determination to modify or discontinue the use of any name or Mark and/or use one or more additional or substitute names or Marks, we will reimburse you for the tangible costs (including replacing signs and materials) associated with the change.

Under the Franchise Agreement, you agree not to contest, directly or indirectly, the ownership, title, right or interest in the name or Marks or contest our right to register, use or license others to use the names and Marks.

We do not know of any infringing uses that could materially affect the use of the Marks in any state.

ITEM 14 PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

We do not claim rights in any patents that are material to our business. We have no pending patent applications. We claim proprietary rights and copyright protection to all confidential information, all information contained in the Manual, and all information contained on our Website. We also claim copyright protection on our operational materials and on other proprietary materials specifically created by us or by others for use in the System, including the advertisements, printed materials and forms used in the operation of a franchised Business. The Manual and other proprietary materials have not been registered with any copyright office. You must promptly inform us if you learn about unauthorized use of the confidential information. We are not obligated to take any action but will respond to this information as we deem appropriate.

ITEM 15 OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

The Franchise Agreement provides that the Business must at all times be under the direct, on-premises supervision of a “Principal Operator” that you designate. Your Principal Operator may have an ownership interest in you or the Business, but this is not required. Your Principal Operator must meet our standards for business and managerial experience and other qualifications, provide acceptable references, and pass our required background checks. You must obtain our approval of your initial and any substitute Principal Operator as meeting our standards and qualifications. Your Principal Operator must attend and successfully complete the initial training program. We have the right to require other owners of the Business who are not your Principal Operator to attend training or an owner orientation program, as we designate. Your Principal Operator must devote his or her full time and best efforts to the operation of the Business. He or she is the person responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operation of the Business and will be the person with whom we may conduct all communications relating to the Business. As long as you have an approved Principal Operator in place, your owners are not required to participate in the day-to-day operation of the Business, or devote any specific amount of time to overseeing its operations, although you are ultimately responsible for ensuring that the Business is operated according to our required standards. The owners will be required to execute a personal guaranty attached to the Franchise Agreement, but each owner's respective spouse will not be required to sign the personal guaranty. If you execute the promissory note, your spouse will be obligated to sign the promissory note as well.

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

The Franchise Agreement provides that you must offer, and may only offer, the products and services that we authorize in the Manual, as they may be updated or otherwise changed in writing. There are no contractual limits on our right to change the types of authorized goods and services. You are prohibited from offering or selling products and services not authorized by us. We reserve the right to change the types of authorized services and products. There are currently no limitations imposed by us on the persons to whom you may provide products and services within your Territory, but you may not (i) solicit customers outside of your Territory, and you may not (ii) offer childcare services in your Office(s). Your ability to offer and sell services to customers outside of your Territory will be subject to our then-current inter-territory policy.

ITEM 18 PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figures to promote the franchise.

ITEM 19 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC’s Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances. We have divided our financial performance representations into 2 sections, set out below, based on the type of information provided.

The information presented in this Item 19 is based upon our franchised businesses that were open and operating throughout 2025. They are the same business that is being offered and sold under this disclosure document. We have also excluded company-owned outlets from this Item 19.

Section A (Average Rates and Margins):

In this Section A, we have prepared 3 tables listing the average bill rate, average pay rate and average gross margin percentage for the entire franchise system during the 2025 calendar year.

In Tables 1-3 below, the bill rate is the average amount that was charged to customers for the specified type of services, as an hourly rate. The pay rate is the average hourly rate that was paid to employees who provided the specified services. Gross margin percentage is calculated by subtracting the hourly wage paid to the employee and all payroll taxes, workers’ compensation premiums and payroll processing costs from the bill rate and dividing the result by the bill rate. The tables below include average bill rates, pay rates and gross margin percentages for the entire franchise system.

Table 1: Nanny Placement Services (including full-time, part-time and summer nanny services)
	All Locations
Average (Median) Bill Rate to Families	$32.42 ($31.63)
Average (Median) Pay Rate to Nanny	$19.63 ($18.63)
Average (Median) Gross Margin Percentage	32% (31%)

Table 2: Babysitting Services
	All Locations
Average (Median) Bill Rate to Families	$31.42 ($30.91)
Average (Median) Pay Rate to Sitter	$18.10 ($17.53)
Average (Median) Gross Margin Percentage	35% (35%)

Section B (Gross Revenues):

In this Section B, we have prepared two tables to show 2025 Gross Revenues information for single and multi-territory franchisees that were in operation for at least 12 months as of December 31, 2025.

As of December 31, 2025, there were a total of 34 franchisees operating in a total of 160 territories. The tables below include information for the 34 franchisees operating in 154 territories that were in operation for at least 12 months as of December 31, 2025. Franchisees operating in more than one territory report information for their businesses on a combined basis. 2 territories included in the tables below are listed in Table 3 of Item 20 as “ceased operating” in one state and “opening” in another state. We included those territories in this Item 19 because they continually operated throughout the 2025 calendar year and there was no reduction in the geographic scope of territories. Excluded from the tables below are 6 territories that commenced operations during the 2025 calendar year and therefore were not open and operating for at least 12 months as of December 31, 2025, and 11 territories that were “terminated” during the 2025 calendar year. These territories that were “terminated” were the result of territories under existing franchise agreements being merged into other existing franchise agreements, upon the franchisee’s request. We and each franchisee entered into mutual termination agreements for the respective territory and then amended an already-existing franchise agreement to add the zip codes from the “terminated” agreement. There was no reduction in the geographic scope of territories that are serviced by Jovie franchisees as a result of these consolidations. Of the 11 territories that were terminated during the 2025 calendar year, none had been operating for less than 12 months.

In Table 4 below, we separated the 27 franchisees that have more than one territory into 4 roughly equal-sized tiers based on their calendar year Gross Revenues in 2025. Out of these 27 franchisees, 5 have two territories, 3 have three territories, 7 have four territories, 2 have five territories, 3 have six territories, 2 have eight territories, 2 have nine territories, 1 has ten territories, 1 has thirteen territories, and 1 has fifteen territories.

In Table 5 below, we separated the 7 franchisees that are single territory franchisees into 3 tiers based on their calendar year Gross Revenues in 2025.

For the purpose of this Item 19, Gross Revenues mean the gross amount, whether in money or other form of consideration, earned or received by the applicable franchisees from any source in connection with the operation of the franchised businesses or any similar or related activity, but does not include any sales tax or refunds actually paid to their clients.

We have not audited the figures provided in this Item 19. The financial performance representation figures listed in this Item 19 do not reflect the cost of sales, operating expenses or other costs and expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit.

You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your Business. Franchisees listed in this Disclosure Document may be one source of this information.

Some outlets have earned this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance you'll earn as much.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to the prospective franchisee upon reasonable request.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, we do not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor’s management by contacting Franchise Development, c/o Jovie Inc., 11030 Circle Point Rd. Suite 300 Westminster, 80020, telephone (303) 604-6545, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

(1) An “Outlet” refers to an individual Territory (as opposed to a “franchised Business”) regardless of whether the franchisee has established a physical office or Office within it.

(2) In January 2025, our parent company Bright Horizons, which had been operating company-owned Jovie outlets, has re-branded them as BH@Home, and they are no longer operating as a part of the Jovie System.

*Four Oregon territories were transferred to a new owner in 2025. These four territories later merged into two territories, one in Oregon, and one in Washington. For purposes of this Table 2, we have listed 1 transferred territory. In Table 3, we listed two Oregon territories as “terminated,” one Oregon territory as “ceased operations,” and one Washington territory “opened.”

One territory encompassing both North Carolina and Tennessee was transferred to a new owner in 2025. The new franchisee will operate the territory from Tennessee. We have listed the transfer from North Carolina in this Table 2; however, in Table 3 we listed the territory as “ceased operations” in North Carolina, and “opened” in Tennessee.

* These “terminations” were the result of territories under existing franchise agreements being consolidated and merged into other existing franchise agreements, upon the franchisee’s request.

 In 2025, as a result of a reallocation of zip codes, a franchised outlet previously operating in a territory encompassing Oregon now operates in the state of Washington. For purposes of this Table 3, we identified this territory as “ceasing operation” in Oregon and “opening” in Washington.

 In 2025, as a result of an ownership transfer, a franchised outlet previously operating in a territory encompassing North Carolina now operates in the state of Tennessee. For purposes of this Table 3, we identified this territory as “ceasing operation” in North Carolina and “opening” in Washington.

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Jovie, Inc. f/k/a College Nannies & Tutors Development, Inc. (the Company), which comprises the balance sheets as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, and the related statements of operations, retained earnings (deficit), and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Jovie, Inc. f/k/a College Nannies & Tutors Development, Inc. as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Jovie, Inc. f/k/a College Nannies & Tutors Development, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Years Ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023

1. NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

Jovie, Inc., formerly known as College Nannies & Tutors Development, Inc., (the Company) was incorporated in the State of Minnesota on February 28, 2005 to franchise the College Nannies & Tutors system under the College Nannies & Tutors registered mark throughout the United States. CNT, LLC (CNT) was formed in the State of Minnesota on October 22, 2012 to acquire and operate corporate-owned franchises offered by College Nannies & Tutors Development, Inc. Effective July 1, 2016, Bright Horizons Children's Centers LLC (BHCC) acquired 100% of the shares outstanding in College Nannies & Tutors Development, Inc. BHCC, in turn, is a subsidiary of Bright Horizons Family Solutions, Inc. (BHFS). During 2023, College Nannies & Tutors Development, Inc. changed its name to Jovie, Inc. as a part of its rebranding efforts.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates include allowance for doubtful accounts, depreciation, and impairment assessments. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are uncollateralized customer obligations due under normal trade terms typically requiring payment within 30 days from the invoice date. Interest of 1.5% per month is charged on balances not paid within 30 days. The carrying amount of accounts receivable is reduced by a valuation allowance that reflects management's best estimate of the amounts that will not be collected based on historical write-off experience and other factors. Accounts are charged against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line and accelerated methods over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred; major renewals and betterments are capitalized.

Jovie, Inc. f/k/a College Nannies & Tutors Development, Inc.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Years Ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023

1. NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

As items of property or equipment are sold or retired, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss is included in operating income. The estimated useful lives range from 3 to 39 years. Depreciation expense was $8,702, $8,800, and $2,863 for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively.

Intangible Assets

The Company capitalized various software development costs including acquired software, development costs for code, mobile, and web applications, database, and testing costs. Costs incurred during the planning and content development stages are expensed along with ongoing costs to operate and maintain the software. Capitalized costs are amortized over the useful life which is estimated to be three years.

Revenue, Deferred Revenue, and Related Deferred Costs

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, and provides a five-step model for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers as follows:

1. Identify the contract with a customer
2. Identify the performance obligations in the contract
3. Determine the transaction price
4. Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
5. Recognize revenue when or as performance obligations are satisfied

Initial Franchise Fees, Renewal Fees, and Related Direct Costs

The Company has determined that the criteria to recognize revenue for initial franchise fees and renewal fees to be met over the contract term. Accordingly, revenue is recorded as deferred revenue in the balance sheet until all material service or conditions have been substantially performed or satisfied by the Company, at which point revenue is recognized over the term of the franchise agreement, typically 10 years. Direct costs related to initial franchise and renewal fees, primarily broker commissions, are recorded as deferred costs in the balance sheet and amortized over the term of the franchise agreement. Under previous guidance, the initial franchise and renewal fees and related direct costs were recognized when the training of the principal operator is complete.

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Revenue, Deferred Revenue, and Related Deferred Costs (Continued)

Transfer Fees

The Company has determined that there is no continuing obligation after the contract is signed and fees are paid with revenue recognized at that point in time.

Royalty Fees

These fees are 5% of franchisee gross monthly revenue and recognized in the period in which the revenue occur and are billed and collected monthly in arrears.

Technology Fees

These fees are for data storage, technology support and email licenses and are based on contractual rates, invoiced monthly and collected at same time as royalty fees.

Brand Fund Revenue and Expenditures

Franchises contribute generally 2% of gross monthly revenue and are recognized on a gross basis, invoiced monthly and collected at the same time as royalty fees. These funds are non-refundable and contractually required to be spent by the Company over the calendar year on marketing and related activities per the franchise agreement.

Backup Care Revenue

Revenue from the Backup Care Services Fees are recorded to revenue when the services are performed along with the corresponding expenses. These are one-time occurrences.

Other Revenue

Captive Insurance Fees

As discussed below, the Company joined a captive insurance group in 2018 in order to control workers compensation costs at the franchisee level. Franchisees must opt in to participate in the captive group and they are charged a percentage of franchisee wages plus an additional charge for the Company's management of the captive arrangement, which includes negotiating rates ongoing oversight. Rates are subject to change based on the overall group loss experience under this captive arrangement. Since the Company controls and manages this arrangement, it recognizes these fees at gross as they are charged in other income and records the related insurance expense in operating expenses.

Training Fees

The Company recognizes training fees when a franchisee completes their training. Interest income related to notes receivable for financing a portion of initial financing fees is recognized and collected monthly.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Years Ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023

1. NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Captive Insurance

In September 2018, the Company joined a captive insurance group for purposes of insuring its workers' compensation. Each member of the group contributes a one-time payment of $36,000 for common and preferred shares in the group which is domiciled in the Cayman Islands. Each member of the captive is charged premiums based on actuarially determined loss forecasts. Loss funding is grouped into two categories: Fund "A" covers the first $150,000 of any loss while Fund "B" covers the Company's loss layer from $150,001 to $500,000 total per occurrence. The captive operates on a five-year cycle for computing a specific underwriting year and each understanding year stands on its own. Additionally, the captive group has re-insurance to provide for coverage against any single catastrophic loss. The Companies accrue for such estimated losses as necessary. As security collateral towards potential claims, the Company must provide an additional deposit or letter of credit facility as determined annually by the captive group. The Company opted to make an additional deposit in lieu of a letter of credit.

Income Taxes

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are computed annually for differences between the financial and tax basis of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted tax laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. The Company files as part of a consolidated tax group through its parent company, BHCC, whose taxable income flows into the next corporation that is not an LLC. The Company does, however, record its share of the consolidated federal and state tax provision on a separate return basis. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Income tax expense is the tax payable or refundable for the period plus or minus the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

Reclassification

Certain reclassifications were made to the 2024 and 2023 financial statements to conform to the 2025 presentation. These reclassifications had no effect on net income (loss).

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated all other subsequent events through April 17, 2026 the date the financial statements were available to be issued and no items requiring disclosure in or adjustment to the financial statements were noted.

The Company is a subsidiary in a consolidated group that is subject to U.S. federal income tax as well as multiple state jurisdictions. U.S. federal income tax returns are typically subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the statute of limitations for federal income tax returns is three years. State income tax returns are generally subject to examination for a period of three to five years after filing of the respective return. The state impact of any federal changes remains subject to examination by various states for a period of up to one year after formal notification to the states. All federal and state income tax payments are made at the parent company level and allocated back to the Company through the due from related party balance sheet account.

The Company follows the authoritative guidance relating to the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. The Company may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on technical merits of the position. Any tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position should be measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than fifty percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement.

Based on the Company's evaluation, they have recognized no liability for uncertain tax positions as they believe there are no material uncertain tax positions at December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023.

The Company recognizes interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits and penalties in other expense. During the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, The Company recognized $0 in interest and penalties.

A. Grant. Subject to all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, we grant to you, and you accept, for the term of this Agreement the right and non-exclusive license to: (i) operate a Jovie business within the territory defined in Schedule 1 hereto (the “Territory”); (ii) use the Marks and the System; and (iii) offer and market only services and products which have been approved by us. You accept such license and undertake to diligently operate the Franchised Business according to the terms of this Agreement for the term of this Agreement. Once you have selected and obtained our approval of an Authorized Location in accordance with Section 5(A) and established your Office in accordance with Section 6(B) and 6(C), you must operate the Franchised Business at and from the Authorized Location in accordance with this Agreement and the Manual. You may not establish any other retail space or office for the Franchised Business other than at the Authorized Location.

B. Territorial Rights and Limitations. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, we will not locate or permit franchisees or licensees of ours to locate a nanny and babysitting services business under the Jovie name within the Territory. In consideration of this limited territorial protection, you agree to use your best efforts to promote the Franchised Business within the Territory. You may not conduct or direct marketing activities, or otherwise solicit new customers, outside the Territory without our prior written consent, which may be given, withheld, conditioned, or withdrawn in our sole and absolute discretion at any time. You must comply with our then-current inter-territory referral policy, as set forth in the Manual or otherwise, and any other rules and conditions we provide (collectively, the “Inter-territory Referral Policy”) for servicing of customers in areas that are outside of the Territory and are either (i) within the Territory of another Jovie business (an “Owned Territory”) or (ii) are not within the territory of any other Jovie business, but may be awarded as part of a territory in the future (an “Unowned Territory”). We and other franchisees may service customers in your Territory. In all cases, you may use only telephone numbers and Online Platforms that we have approved in writing. Whether or not you have been granted our consent to conduct marketing or other activities outside of the Territory, upon our demand or upon your actual notice that an Unowned Territory has been purchased by another franchisee, you agree to immediately cease and desist from conducting all out-of-Territory marketing and solicitation activities. Following the conversion of an Unowned Territory to an Owned Territory, without limiting the foregoing, you shall cease and desist from using any Online Platforms, telephone numbers, or listings, which are or have been used outside the Territory and are associated with the now Owned Territory. You may continue to perform services in the Owned Territory in the manner described in the Inter-territory Referral Policy. You acknowledge that other franchised, company-owned, or affiliate-owned Jovie businesses may perform services within your Territory at the request of their customers, resulting from person-to-person customer referrals, or pursuant to Multi-Area Marketing Programs or National Account programs.

C. Our Reservation of Rights. Except for the rights specifically granted to you, we reserve all other rights, including the following rights:

- i. We may use, and license others to use, the Marks and System for the operation of Jovie businesses anywhere outside of the Territory. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, this Agreement shall not restrict us, or grant any rights to you, with respect to the pursuit of any business concept other than the Jovie concept;
- ii. We may use and license the use of other proprietary marks or methods which are not the same as or confusingly similar to the Marks, at any location, including within the Territory, for services which may be the same as, similar to or different from the services offered by Jovie businesses;

iii. We may sell any products or services anywhere, whether or not using the Marks, through various channels of distribution (including through Online Platforms, by wholesale, mail order, and retail channels). You may not market your Jovie business through Online Platforms or conduct e-commerce except in accordance with the Manual and our Internet Policies, or as we otherwise approve in writing;

iv. We may develop or own other franchise systems for the same or similar products and services using different Marks than those licensed to you;

v. We may purchase or be purchased by, or merge or combine with, competing businesses wherever located;

vi. We may offer franchises in the future on terms we deem appropriate, including terms that differ from this Agreement; and

vii. We may establish Multi-Area Marketing Programs within and outside of the Territory. We may offer you the opportunity to service customers developed by a Multi-Area Marketing Program, or we may make other arrangements to do so.

D. Modifications. You recognize that variations and additions to the System may be required from time to time in order to preserve or enhance the System. Therefore, we expressly reserve the right to add to, subtract from, revise, modify or change from time to time the System or any part thereof, and you agree to promptly accept and comply with any such addition, subtraction, revision, modification or change and to make such reasonable expenditures as may be necessary to comply.

E. Relocation. Provided you are not in default of this Agreement, you may, at your sole expense and with our prior written approval, relocate your Office if the proposed new location is located in your Territory (or if you operate in multiple territories, in one of your other territories) and the proposed new location meets our then-current requirements. The new location of your Office, including the real estate and the building, must comply with our then-current image, décor, standards and specifications. You will pay us a relocation fee of $3,000 on the date we approve your right to relocate to the new location.

3. TERM OF THE AGREEMENT; RENEWAL

A. Term. We will designate the “Effective Date” of this Agreement in the space provided on the cover page. If no Effective Date is designated on the cover page, the Effective Date is the date when we sign this Agreement. This Agreement is not effective until signed by us. Subject to earlier termination in accordance with the termination procedures set forth elsewhere in this Agreement, the term of this Agreement shall begin on the Effective Date and shall continue for a period of ten years (the “Term”).

B. Option to Execute New Franchise Agreement. Upon the expiration of the initial term of this Agreement, you shall have the option to enter into a Jovie franchise agreement (under our then-current version of Franchise Agreement) for one additional successor term of ten years, provided you satisfy and comply with each of the following terms and conditions upon the following terms and conditions:

- i. Such right may only be exercised by you by written notice to us given not more than six months nor less than three months before the expiration of the Term of this Agreement.
- ii. There is no outstanding breach by you of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- iii. You have substantially observed and performed the terms and conditions of this Agreement throughout the Term.
- iv. You, at your expense, bring the Franchised Business up to the then-current standards for a Jovie business and comply with any applicable updating or remodeling requirements. There is no limitation on the amount we may require you to spend on refurbishing, remodeling and replacement.
- v. You agree to complete any additional training we may require;
- vi. You sign our then-current prescribed form of Franchise Agreement (which may contain materially different terms) with us provided, however, that:
 - (1) You will not be required to pay any Initial Franchise Fee, but you will pay a renewal fee equal to $3,000; and
 - (2) We will not be required to provide any of the initial training or other services contained in such Agreement which we provide to a new franchisee;
- vii. You will sign a general release in a form we prescribe, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to release us and our officers and employees from any claims you may have against us;
- viii. If, after the service of the notice referred to in Section 3.B(i) and prior to the signing of the new Franchise Agreement, you fail to comply with the provisions of Section 3.B(iv) or commit a breach of this Agreement which could result in its termination, your right to renew the franchise shall, at our option, cease and be of no effect.

4. FEES AND OTHER PAYMENTS

A. Initial Franchise Fee. You must pay us the sum of $49,999 as an Initial Franchise Fee (“Initial Franchise Fee”) upon the execution of this Agreement. The Initial Franchise Fee shall be deemed to have been fully earned by us when this Agreement is signed by you (regardless of the manner of payment) and is non-refundable. However, the Initial Franchise Fee will be $39,999 if you are purchasing a second franchised territory, or $29,999 if you are purchasing your third or more territory. If you are financing any portion of the Initial Franchise Fee, you must execute the Promissory Note attached to this Agreement as Schedule 2 and make all payments in accordance with the Promissory Note.

B. Royalties; Technology Fee. At all times that you operate the Business, you must pay us continuing non-refundable Royalty Fee equal to 5% of Gross Revenues which will be reported and paid to us as provided in this Agreement. Beginning as of the 18th full calendar month after the Effective Date, the monthly Royalty Fee will be the greater of 5% of Gross Revenues or $800. You must also pay us a continuing non-refundable Technology Fee. As of the Effective Date, the Technology Fee is $225 per month. We reserve the right to increase the amount of the monthly Technology Fee upon 30 days' written notice, however, we will not increase the fee more than 20% annually.

C. Initial Marketing. You acknowledge that initial marketing, recruitment, public relations and promotional activities are required to advise the public that your Jovie business is open for business. You agree to conduct initial public relations and promotional activities according to our specifications. Your minimum initial marketing and promotional expense is $20,000. You are required to spend this amount within 12 months following the date that you open or were required to have opened your Franchised Business to the public. We may waive the initial marketing expenditure requirement if the Business is located in a Territory that is physically adjacent to or located within the same Metropolitan Statistical Area as an existing Jovie business owned by you.

D. Brand Fund Contribution. At all times that you operate the Business, you must pay a Brand Fund Contribution, which will be allocated to the Jovie Brand Fund ("Fund"). The amount of the Brand Fund Fee is 2% of your Gross Revenues. Your required payments to the Fund will be made at the same time and in the same manner as the Royalties. Such payment shall be made in addition to and exclusive of any sums that you may be required to spend on local advertising and promotion. The Fund shall be maintained and administered by us or our designee, as follows:

i. We will oversee all Brand Fund programs and have sole control over creative concepts, materials and media used in such programs including the placement and allocation. We will use the Fund to develop marketing initiatives. We cannot and do not ensure that any particular franchisee will benefit directly or pro rata from the advertising.

ii. For each of our company-owned or affiliate-owned Jovie business, we will make contributions to the Fund on the same basis as Franchised Businesses.

iii. We will administer and control the Fund and we will have the absolute and unilateral right to determine how, when and where the monies in the Fund will be spent. This includes the right to use Fund monies for (a) broadcast or print advertising, (b) the creation, development and production of advertising and promotional materials, including, but not limited to, ad slicks, radio, film and television commercials, videotapes, direct mail pieces, and other print advertising; (c) any marketing or related research and development, including development and testing of pilot programs; (d) promotional materials provided to Franchised Businesses; (e) administration of quality assurance and customer satisfaction programs, and (f) advertising and marketing expenses, including payment for research and development, services provided by advertising agencies, public relations firms or other marketing, research or consulting firms or agencies, customer incentive programs, sponsorships, marketing meetings and sales incentives, development and enhancement of Online Platform initiatives, internet access provider costs, and administrative costs. All sums paid by you to the Fund will be maintained in a separate account from our general funds and shall not be used to defray any of our general operating expenses, except for such reasonable administrative costs and overhead, if any, as we may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the Fund and advertising programs including, without limitation, costs incurred in collecting and accounting for assessments for the Fund and salaries for marketing support personnel.

iv. It is our intent that all contributions to the Fund will be expended for marketing purposes during the fiscal year within which contributions are made. Any monies not expended in the fiscal year in which they were contributed will be applied and used for Fund expenses in the following year.

v. Although we intend the Fund to be of perpetual duration, we have the right to terminate the Fund. We will not terminate the Fund, however, until all monies in the Fund have been expended for advertising and promotional purposes.

vi. An unaudited accounting of Fund contributions and expenditures will be prepared annually and a certificate confirming the amount spent will be made available to you upon request. At our option, any such annual accounting may include an audit of the contributions and expenditures of the Fund prepared by an independent certified public accountant selected by us and prepared at the expense of the Fund.

E. Local Expenditures. In addition to the Brand Fund Contribution, you are required to spend a minimum of 2% of Gross Revenues or $15,000 per year, whichever is greater, on approved local marketing. You will comply with the following requirements for local advertising:

i. Before using any promotional and advertising materials not provided by us, you will submit to us, for our prior approval, all information pertaining to promotional materials and advertising initiated by you. In the event written disapproval of any such advertising and promotional material has not been given by us to you within 20 days from the date such information has been received by us, the materials will be deemed approved. We have the right to use, copyright and provide to our franchisees the use of any marketing, promotional or advertising materials developed by you.

ii. You will submit documentation of your advertising expenditures at such times and in such form as we designate. If you fail to make any required advertising expenditures, we have the right to require you to contribute the amount of any deficiency to the Fund to be used by us for general advertising and promotion.

F. Materials. We will make available to you all advertising and promotion materials for the Business which are used by us and by other franchisees.

G. Special Promotions. You shall fully participate in all promotional campaigns, prize contests, special offers, and other programs, national, regional, or local in nature (including the introduction of new services or products, new franchises or other marketing programs directed or approved by us), which are prescribed from time to time by us. You shall be responsible for the costs of such participation. To the extent permitted by law, you will comply with any maximum price restrictions which we promulgate from time to time.

H. Multi-Area Marketing Programs and National Accounts. We may require you to join and participate in Multi-Area Marketing Programs, and we may specify maximum resale prices to the extent permitted by law. In addition, we may negotiate special pricing and special terms of service with National Accounts, on behalf of the entire network of Jovie businesses. If you wish to participate in these special programs with National Accounts, you must execute the Amendment to Franchise Agreement for National Account Program Participation, which is attached to this Agreement as Schedule 8, under which you grant us the authority to negotiate and enter into agreements with National Accounts that bind you and other franchisees. However, if you execute the National Account Program Participation agreement, you agree and acknowledge that commencing after your first full year of operations, the total amount of Gross Revenues that you may generate from National Accounts may not exceed 90% of your total annual Gross Revenue in any given year. This maximum threshold level is not an indication that you may receive any amount of back-up care service jobs from National Accounts.

I. Cooperative Advertising. We may designate local or regional advertising coverage areas to develop cooperative local or regional advertising and promotional programs. You must participate in and contribute your share to the cooperative advertising and promotional programs in your advertising coverage area in addition to the contributions and expenditures required by this Agreement. Your contributions to cooperative advertising or promotional programs will be credited toward the minimum local advertising contribution. Any such cooperatives will establish the procedures for contribution payments. You may be required to belong to and contribute a maximum of 100% of your local advertising contribution to any cooperative to which you are assigned. We may designate the coverage area, method and timing of payment, and any outside agencies; and may merge or dissolve cooperatives; and must approve bylaws and all activities and advertising; of any such cooperative. All cooperatives will report to us in the manner required by, and follow all requirements of, this Agreement.

J. Manner of Payment and Reports. On or before the fifth business day of each month, or such other time that we specify, you must make all payments to us for the preceding month by means of electronic funds transfer or any other method we specify. To facilitate the electronic funds transfer, you will arrange for you and your bank to execute the Authorization Agreement set forth in Schedule 3, or such other form as we may provide. On or before the fifth business day of each month, or such other time that we specify, you will deliver an itemized report of your Gross Revenues for the prior month (or other period) on such form and in the manner, including electronically, that we prescribe. This report will include your certification and records of Gross Revenues for the period reported. You will provide us with all hard copies and access to electronic reports, that we prescribe, including a list of prices and services sold. You will not set off any claim for damages or money due to you from us against any payments to be paid by you to us under this Agreement or any related agreement between the parties. No endorsement or statement will be effective as an acknowledgment of payment in full. We will have the right to accept any payment and to recover the balance due or to pursue any other remedy available to us. You must pay a late fee of $100 in the event any amount (royalty, Brand Fund contribution or other payment) is not paid within five days of the due date. In addition, interest at the rate of 1.5% per month (18% per annum), or the maximum allowed by law, if less, will be added to any sums to be paid under this Agreement that remain unpaid after the date due.

K. Records. You shall keep such complete records of the Franchised Business as a prudent and careful businessperson would normally keep. You shall keep your financial books and records as we may from time to time direct in the Manual or otherwise, including retention of all invoices, order forms, payroll records, cash register tapes, check records, bank deposit receipts, tax records and returns, cash disbursements journals and general ledgers. You shall advise us of the location of all original documents and shall not destroy any records without our prior written consent. You will transmit accurate records relating to the Franchised Business, including each business transaction and point-of-sale tapes and records, in the form, time and manner we prescribe (including both paper copy and electronic records accessible by us).

L. Financial Statements. You must prepare all financial reports in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied, and in a form, format, and manner prescribed or approved by us (which may include, without limitation, using our prescribed form of accounting software). You must use the chart of accounts we prescribe. You must periodically deliver to us accounting, tax and other information (or copies of documents), as we request in the form, format, and manner we prescribe, including a quarterly financial statement with profit and loss and balance sheet delivered to us with 28 days after each calendar quarter. You will provide us with a copy of your annual financial statements including a profit and loss statement and a balance sheet. Such annual statements will be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied, and be delivered to us within 90 days after your fiscal year end.

M. Other Information. You shall provide such further information relating to the Franchised Business as we deem necessary to assist us in the discharge of our duties or the enforcement of our rights under the terms of this Agreement.

N. Audit Rights. During the term of this Agreement for a period of three years after the termination or expiration of this Agreement, we and our authorized agents shall have the right to inspect and audit any of the records of your Franchised Business wherever they may be located. We agree to do inspections and audits at reasonable times. If any inspection or audit discloses a deficiency in the payment of any royalties, advertising or other amounts required to be paid or expended under this Agreement, you shall immediately pay the deficiency to us. In addition, if the deficiency for any audit period equals or exceeds 2% of the correct amount due, you will also immediately pay to us the entire cost of the inspection or audit including travel, lodging, meals, salaries and other expenses of the inspecting or auditing personnel.

5. OUR OBLIGATIONS

A. Site Selection.

i. You are responsible for finding and selecting the location of your Office. Except as noted in Section 5(A)(ii) below, your Office must be located within the Territory. If you request assistance in selecting a site for the Office, we will provide reasonable assistance, but we reserve the right to charge for this service. We do not guarantee success for any location you select and we are not liable for any consequences of your choice of any site. Any site recommendation or approval we make is not a representation that any particular site is available or appropriate for use as a Franchised Business. It is your responsibility to investigate all applicable zoning, licensing, leasing and other requirements for any proposed site. You must obtain our prior written approval for the Authorized Location site and for any relocation of the Authorized Location, which approval may be withheld in our sole judgment. In determining whether to accept the site you select, we may consider our market analysis, market penetration plans, franchise placement strategies and prior franchise commitments. You must pay the costs of any relocation, and we reserve the right to charge you for any reasonable costs that we incur. You will deliver to us a copy of your proposed lease for our review at least ten days before signing. Your lease for the Authorized Location must contain an Addendum to Lease in the form attached to this Agreement as Schedule 4.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if (a) you close or relocate the Office, (b) the Office no longer complies with our then-current standards and specifications, or (c) the franchise agreement for the territory where you operate the Office is terminated or transferred, then you will be required to open and maintain an Office in the Territory (or in another territory in which you operate) pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of Section 5(A)(i).

You and the architect(s) and contractor(s) that you engage are solely responsible for ensuring that your Office complies with all applicable laws, codes, and regulations, including, but not limited to the Americans with Disabilities Act. You are responsible for acquiring, at your expense, all licenses and building permits required in connection with the construction and remodeling of your Office. Under no circumstances will we be liable to you or any other party for your failure to comply with applicable laws, or for any costs or overruns that you incur in the construction and remodeling of your Office.

D. Personnel. You will employ adequately trained and competent personnel to provide quality service in accordance with our criteria. Your Principal Operator must devote full time and attention to the Business as may be necessary to perform the operational, management, administrative, marketing, accounting and other aspects of the Business. You shall purchase all supplies, materials, other products and services used or offered for sale from us or from suppliers who have been approved by us. In some cases, there may only be one supplier for a particular item (which may be us or our affiliate). We will provide you with a list of approved suppliers. If you desire to purchase any products from an unapproved supplier, you shall submit to us a written request for such approval, or shall request the supplier itself to do so. You shall not purchase from any supplier until and unless such supplier has been approved in writing by us. We shall have the right to require that our representatives be permitted to inspect the proposed supplier's facilities, and that samples from the supplier be delivered to us for testing. A charge not to exceed the reasonable cost of the inspection and the actual cost of the test shall be paid by supplier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you may be required to purchase from us or from a single designated source certain products that we consider integral to the System. We have the right to mark up any products sold by us to you and to receive rebates or similar payments from suppliers as a result of your purchases. We may use these funds as we deem appropriate.

We have the right to specify how data from your Business will be stored and accessed. In connection with the approved information system, you agree to the following:

- i. We must have at all times direct access to the information stored by your system and we shall have the right to retrieve, analyze, download and use all software, data and files stored or used on the information system. You shall store all data and information on the information system that we designate from time to time.

ii. You acknowledge and agree that there may be fees payable by you in connection with the installation, use, support, maintenance, and periodic enhancements of the approved information system. These fees will be payable to us or a vendor designated by us and may be increased from time to time. As of the Effective Date, you are required to pay us a technology fee. We reserve the right to charge for additional services provided by us in connection with the information system. You will be responsible for the cost of all required upgrades.

J. Compliance with Our Standards. You will conform to all customer service standards prescribed by us in writing. You will operate the Business through strict adherence to the standards, specifications and policies of the System as they now exist, and as they may from time to time be modified, in order to ensure compliance with the quality standards of the System. These standards, specifications and policies will cover many aspects of the Franchised Business and may include, without limitation, specifications and policies regarding: (i) hours of operation; (ii) safety, maintenance, cleanliness, sanitation, function and appearance of the Office; (iii) critical incident reporting and safety requirements; (iv) training, dress, general appearance and demeanor of your staff; (v) advertising and promotional programs; (vi) use and retention of standard forms; (vii) your identification as the owner of the Franchised Business; (viii) handling of customer complaints; and (ix) any other standard of performance, specification or procedure designated by us relating to the brand and quality standards of the System.

We may, from time to time, suggest prices at which authorized services and products offered by your Jovie business may be sold or offered for sale. Although you generally have the right to establish prices for the services and products you sell, we reserve the right to establish and enforce prices, both minimum and maximum, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

K. Compliance with Laws. You will, at your expense, comply with all applicable local, state, federal and municipal laws, ordinances, rules and regulations pertaining to the operation of the Franchised Business, including the obtaining of any necessary permits or licenses, and you are solely responsible for complying with all such applicable laws, ordinances, rules and regulations and obtaining any necessary permits or licenses. We are under no obligation to inform you about any laws, ordinances, rules or regulations that may impact your Franchised Business. You acknowledge and agree that you have consulted with your own advisors with respect to the legal, financial and other aspects of this Agreement. You will operate the Franchised Business in a healthy and safe manner. You shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations regarding hiring and firing of employees, and you acknowledge and agree that all personnel decisions shall be made by you, without any influence or advice from us, and such decisions and actions shall not be, nor be deemed to be, a decision or action of us.

L. Payment of Liabilities. You will timely pay all of your obligations and liabilities due and payable to us and to your suppliers and lessors.

M. Taxes. You will promptly pay all federal, state and local taxes arising out of the operation of your Business. We will not be liable for these or any other taxes and you will indemnify us for any such taxes that may be assessed or levied against us which arise or result from your Business. You shall reimburse us for any sales tax, gross receipts tax, use tax or other tax or assessment imposed by any taxing authority in the state where the Franchised Business is located on any fees or other amounts payable to us under this Agreement. Such taxes are distinguishable from income taxes imposed on us by the jurisdiction in which the Franchised Business is located. Such income taxes are our responsibility.

N. Manual. You will operate your Business in accordance with the Manual. The Manual will contain mandatory and suggested standards and procedures that we develop to ensure the brand standards for Jovie businesses and information relating to your obligations as a Jovie franchisee. You will treat the Manual as confidential, and will use all reasonable efforts to maintain the Manual as secret and confidential. You shall ensure that the Manual is kept up to date at all times. As provided in Section 5(C)(i), you must comply with all updates and modifications to the standards set forth in the Manual.

O. Visits. A representative of ours may make announced or unannounced visits to the Office (or, prior to your renting or establishment of the Office, to any location at which the Franchised Business is conducted) to ensure compliance with all required standards, specifications and procedures. Our representative shall be allowed to inspect the condition and operation of the Business at any time during normal business hours. Any inspection or evaluation of the Business by us is to protect our interest in the Marks and System and is not intended and does not constitute control over the day-to-day operation of the Office or supervision of your employees. In addition, we have the right to utilize third-party mystery shoppers to evaluate the operation of your Business and to contact your customers to complete customer surveys.

P. Owner Agreement. If you are a business entity, all of your Owners shall execute an Owner Agreement in form attached as Schedule 6 to this Agreement.

Q. Meetings. Your Principal Operator shall, at your expense, attend such conferences and meetings which we designate, provided that he/she will not be required to travel out of state for such meetings more than once per year. We will charge you our then-current conference and meeting fee for your Principal Operator's attendance at the conference and meetings. If you elect to send additional conference or meeting attendees beyond your Principal Operator, we will charge you our then-current fee for the first two (2) additional attendees. You will not be charged a fee for any attendees beyond the first two (2) non-Principal Operator attendees. We may increase the conference and meeting fee upon thirty (30) days' notice to you, however, we will not increase the fee more than fifty percent (50%) annually. Your Principal Operator must attend the conference and meetings that we designate, subject to the limitations stated in this Section 6(Q). In addition to any other rights we may exercise under the terms of this Agreement, we also reserve the right to charge you our then-current conference and meeting fee should your Principal Operator fail to attend any designated conferences or meeting.

R. Collection of Information; Privacy; PCI Compliance. You must comply with our standards and policies pertaining to Privacy Laws. You must not publish, disseminate, implement, revise, or rescind a data privacy policy without our prior written consent. It is your responsibility to comply with all laws and regulations to the payment card industry data security standards ("PCI Compliance"). You must notify us immediately of any suspected data breach at or in connection with the Office or the Business.

7. MARKS

A. Ownership. You acknowledge and agree that we are the owner of all right, title and interest in the Marks and the System. Any improvements relating to the Marks or System (including, but not limited to, advertising material) will also become the sole property of us. You will not be entitled to any payment for improvements to the Marks or System originated or developed by you. You agree not to ever dispute, contest, or challenge, directly or indirectly, the validity or enforceability of the Marks or our ownership of the Marks, nor counsel or assist anyone else to do the same, nor will you take any action that is inconsistent with our ownership of the Marks, nor will you represent that it has any right, title, or interest in the Marks other than those expressly granted by this Agreement.

B. Use. You acknowledge and agree that it is of utmost importance that the goodwill, stature, and image of quality associated with the Marks be maintained and enhanced by you. You will make no use of the Marks without our prior approval and you will use the Marks only in the manner prescribed by us. You further acknowledge that your right to use the Marks is derived solely from this Agreement and is limited to the conduct of business by you in compliance with this Agreement and all applicable standards, specifications, and procedures prescribed by us in the Manual or otherwise from time to time. If, in our judgment, your conduct infringes upon or demeans the goodwill, standards of uniformity or quality, or business standing associated with the Marks or System, you will immediately, upon written notice from us, modify your use of the Marks and System in the manner prescribed by us in writing. You must post a sign in the form and location we designate at the Office putting your customers on notice that the Business is independently owned and operated by you as our franchisee, and take any other steps reasonably requested by us to minimize the chance of a claim being made against us as a joint employer of your employees or for anything that occurs at your Office. All of your written materials including stationery and invoices shall contain the notice that your Business is independently owned and operated by you. You are prohibited from using any of the Marks on your employment applications, employee evaluation forms, benefits statements, payroll checks or other documents or materials relating to your employees.

C. Promotion. You will operate your Business so that it is clearly identified and advertised as a Jovie business. The style, form and use of the words comprising any of the Marks in any advertising, written materials, products or supplies must, however, have our prior written approval. You will use the Marks which now or hereafter may form a part of the System, on all signs, paper supplies, business cards, advertising materials, and other articles in the identical combination and manner as we may prescribe in writing. You will comply with all trademark, trade name, service mark and copyright notice marking requirements. You will not use the words “Jovie” as part of the name of your business entity.

D. Use of Online Platforms. We have the sole right to control, set standards for, and approve any and all activity relating to the Franchised Business on the internet or through any Online Platform. Accordingly, you may not use the Marks, promote the Franchised Business, or conduct any business function using any Online Platform except to the extent that your activities are permitted by and compliant with our then-current Internet Policies, or as we may otherwise approve in advance and in writing. Our Internet Policies will be set out in the Manual or communicated by us in the manner that we determine. We reserve the right to modify our Internet Policies from time to time and to withdraw any consent(s) previously given, and you must promptly adhere to the changes we make. We may require you to provide us with content regarding your Franchised Business for our online marketing activities. You may not establish any independent website for the Franchised Business, it being understood that any website for or related to the Franchised Business will be administered by us and accessed only through our home page. You are solely responsible for protecting yourself from disruptions, internet content failures, and attacks by hackers and other unauthorized intruders and you waive any and all claims you may have against us for the direct or indirect result of such disruptions, failures, or attacks.

E. Substitutions. If it becomes advisable at any time, in our sole judgment, to modify or discontinue use of any Mark, or use one or more additional or substitute trade names, trademarks, service marks, or other commercial symbols, either system-wide or with respect to use by any selected franchisee, you shall comply with our directions within a reasonable time after notice to you, we shall have no liability or obligation whatsoever with respect to your modification or discontinuance of any Mark. You will not make any changes or amendments in or to the use of the Marks or System unless directed by us in writing.

F. Litigation. You will have no obligation to and will not, without our prior written consent, defend or enforce any of the Marks in any court or other proceedings for or against imitation, infringement, any claim of prior use, or for any other allegation. You will, however, immediately notify us of any claims or complaints made against you with respect to the Marks and will, at your expense, cooperate in all respects with us in any court or other proceedings involving the Marks. We will pay the cost and expense of all litigation incurred by us including attorneys’ fees, specifically relating to the Marks. We will have the right to control and conduct any litigation relating to the Marks.

G. Copyrighted Materials. You acknowledge and agree that (1) we may authorize you to use certain copyrighted or copyrightable works (the “Copyrighted Materials”), including the Manual, advertising materials and forms; (2) the Copyrighted Materials are our valuable property; and (3) your rights to use the Copyrighted Materials are granted to you solely on the condition that you comply with the terms of this Agreement. Your use of the Copyrighted Materials does not vest you with any interest other than the non-exclusive license to use the Copyrighted Materials granted in this Agreement.

H. Protection. You shall execute any documents that we or our counsel deem necessary for the protection of the Copyrighted Materials or the Marks or to maintain their validity or enforceability, or to aid us in acquiring rights in or in registering any of the Marks or any trademarks, trade names, service marks, slogans, logos or emblems that we subsequently adopt.

8. INSURANCE

- v. Such additional insurance (or increase in coverage limits) as may be required by us as set forth in the Manual or otherwise in writing, by the terms of any lease for the Business, or by any National Account program you participate in.

The liability insurance afforded by the policy or policies shall not be limited in any way by reason of any insurance that may be maintained by us.

B. Certificates. All policies of insurance required under this Section will be with responsible companies qualified to do business and in good standing in the state where the Business is located, and shall be in a form reasonably satisfactory to us. You must obtain such endorsements added to the policies as required to carry out the requirements in this Section. All general and professional liability policies shall name us and any parent or affiliate of ours that we designate as an additional insured. You must purchase your professional liability insurance from an insurer designated or approved by us and we reserve the right to require you to use certain insurers for some or all of the other insurance requirements described above in Section 8(A) or as we otherwise set forth in writing. Prior to opening for business, you shall furnish to us with certificates issued by each of your insurers indicating that all premiums due have been paid, that all required insurance is in full force and effect and that the insurance will not be terminated or changed without at least 30 days' prior written notice from the insurer to us. 9. RELATIONSHIP

A. Independent Contractor. You acknowledge and agree that you are an independent contractor and not an agent, partner, joint venturer or employee of ours. Neither party is liable or responsible for the other's debts or obligations, nor shall either party be obligated for any damages to any person or property directly or indirectly arising out of the operation of the other party's business authorized by or conducted pursuant to this Agreement. The parties agree that no partnership, fiduciary relationship, joint venture or employment relationship exists between them. You shall conspicuously identify yourself in all dealings with the public as an entity separate from us. It is expressly agreed that the parties intend by this Agreement to establish between us and you the relationship of franchisor and franchisee. It is further agreed that you have no authority to create or assume in our name or on our behalf, any obligation, express or implied, or to act or purport to act as agent or representative on behalf of us for any purpose whatsoever. You agree that you will not hold yourself out as our agent, employee, partner or co-venturer. Each of the parties agrees to file its own tax, regulatory and payroll reports with respect to its respective employees and operations, saving and indemnifying the other party from any liability of any nature whatsoever. You will hire all employees of the Franchised Business and be exclusively responsible for the terms of their employment, scheduling, benefits, disciplining, compensation, and all other personnel decisions. All persons hired by or working for you shall not, for any purpose, be deemed our employees or subject to our control.

B. Indemnification. You and each owner of the Franchised Business will protect, indemnify and hold us harmless, and our officers, directors, employees, affiliates and agents against all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, losses, damages, costs, suits, judgments, debts, losses, fines, assessments, taxes, liens, legal fees and disbursements, penalties, expenses, and liabilities of any kind or nature arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection with the Franchised Business, your and your employees' actions, inaction, or representations, or your breach of this Agreement. However, you are not required to indemnify us for claims resulting from our breach of this Agreement or other wrongs we commit.

10. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

A. Confidential Information. You acknowledge and agree that your entire knowledge of the operation of the Franchised Business is derived from our Confidential Information or by virtue of your association with us prior to the Effective Date. The Confidential Information is proprietary and constitutes valuable trade secrets. You also acknowledge and agree that all of the Confidential Information is our property and that we have the right to use the Confidential Information in any manner we wish at any time. You shall maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information and will not use the Confidential Information in an unauthorized manner or disclose the same to any unauthorized person without first obtaining our written consent.

i. You acknowledge that the Confidential Information is disclosed to you on the condition that you, and your owners agree that during and after the term of this Agreement you: (a) will not use the Confidential Information in any other business or capacity; (b) will maintain the absolute confidentiality of the Confidential Information; (c) will not make unauthorized copies of any portion of the Confidential Information disclosed in written or other tangible form; and (d) will adopt and implement all reasonable procedures we periodically require to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information.

ii. The restrictions on the disclosure and use of the Confidential Information will not apply to the following: (a) information and knowledge which are or become generally known in the child care industry within the Territory, other than through disclosure you make (whether deliberate or inadvertent); and (b) the disclosure of the Confidential Information in judicial or administrative proceedings to the extent that you are legally compelled to disclose the information.

B. In-Term Non-Compete. You and your owners will not, directly or indirectly, during the term of this Agreement, in any capacity participate, engage in, be connected with, have any interest in or assist any person or entity engaged in any other business which offers child development services, child care services, nanny services, or babysitting services.

C. Post-Term Non-Compete. You and your owners will not, directly or indirectly for a period of two years after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, in any capacity participate, engage in, be connected with, have any interest in or assist any person or entity which offers child development services, child care services, nanny services, or babysitting services within the Territory or within a ten-mile radius from the Territory. You agree that the time period and the scope of the prohibition are the reasonable and necessary time and distance needed to protect us if this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason.

D. Exception. The purchase of a publicly traded security of a corporation engaged in a competitive business or service shall not in itself be deemed violative of this Section so long as you do not own, directly or indirectly, more than 1% of the securities of such corporation.

E. Enforceability. The unenforceability of all or part of these covenants not to compete in any jurisdiction will not affect the enforceability of the covenants not to compete in other jurisdictions, or the enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement. The covenants not to compete are given in part in consideration for training and access to our Confidential Information, and which, if used in a competitive business, would give an unfair advantage.

F. Injunctive Relief. You agree that damages alone cannot adequately compensate us if there is a violation of these noncompetitive covenants and that injunctive relief is essential for our protection. You therefore agree that in case of any alleged breach or violation of this Section by it, we may seek injunctive relief, in addition to all other remedies that may be available to us at equity or law.

11. TRANSFER

A. By Us. You acknowledge that our obligations under this Agreement are not personal, and we can unconditionally assign this Agreement to another entity, be acquired by another entity or merge with another entity.

i. We reserve the right to assign the franchise system to anyone including the operator of a competing system. We shall have the absolute right to transfer or assign this Agreement or any of our rights or obligation under this Agreement to any person or entity.

ii. You acknowledge and agree that we may sell our assets, the Marks or the System to any third party of our choice; may offer our securities privately or publicly; may merge with or acquire other corporations or be acquired by another corporation; may undertake a refinancing, recapitalization, leveraged buyout, or other economic or financial restructuring; or may terminate or cease to exist or dissolve, in any such case without your consent and, provided the transferee expressly assumes and undertakes to perform our obligations in all material respects, free of any responsibility or liability whatsoever to you after the transaction occurs.

iii. With regard to any of the above sales, assignment and dispositions, you expressly and specifically waive any claims, demands, or damages against us arising from or related to the transfer of the Marks or the System from us to any other party.

B. By You. You acknowledge and agree that we have entered into this Agreement in reliance on your Owners' qualifications and that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to you. Accordingly, you will not make a Transfer or make any lease or sublease of the Office, without our prior written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld, provided all pre-requisite conditions to transfer are met. Any attempted Transfer without our prior written consent will be a default under the terms of this Agreement and will be voidable by us. No transfer or assignment of this Agreement will be approved by us or be effective unless and until all the following conditions are satisfied:

i. You are in full compliance with this Agreement, you have no uncured defaults, and all your debts and financial obligations to us are current. However, we will waive the Minimum Royalty Fee in the month that the Transfer takes place;

ii. You execute a written agreement in a form satisfactory to us in which you and your owners covenant to observe all applicable post-term obligations and covenants contained in this Agreement;

iii. The proposed transferee executes our then-current standard form of franchise agreement (which may provide for different fees, advertising and marketing contributions, and other rights and obligations from those provided in this Agreement);

iv. The proposed transferee agrees in writing to perform such maintenance, remodeling and re-equipping of the Business and that we determine necessary to bring the Business in compliance with our then-current standards;

v. Prior to the date of the proposed Transfer, the proposed transferee's Principal Operator successfully completes such training and instruction as we deem necessary;

vi. We are satisfied that the proposed transferee and its Principal Operator meet all of the requirements for our new franchisees applicable on the date we receive notice of the proposed transfer and including, but not limited to, good reputation and character, business experience, management experience, and financial strength and liquidity;

vii. You and all holders of an interest in you execute a general release, in the form prescribed by us, releasing, to the fullest extent permitted by law, all claims that you or any of your owners may have against us or our affiliates, including our and their respective shareholders, officers, directors and employees, in both their individual and corporate capacities;

viii. You pay us a transfer fee equal to $10,000 plus $2,000 for the cost of training at the time of the Transfer; and

ix. We waive our right of first refusal under this Agreement.

C. Transfer Upon Death or Disability. Upon the death, mental incapacity or disability of any of your Owners, we shall consent to the transfer of that Owner's interest in the franchise, the Franchised Business and this Agreement to his or her spouse, heirs, or relative by blood or by marriage whether such transfer is made by will or by operation of law if, in our sole judgment, such person or persons meet our educational, managerial and business standards; successfully completes our training at the earliest opportunity; possess a good moral character, business reputation and credit rating; have the aptitude and ability to conduct the Franchised Business; have at least the same managerial and financial criteria required by new franchisees; and shall have sufficient equity capital to operate the Franchised Business. If said transfer is not approved by us, then the executor, administrator or personal representative of such person shall transfer his interest to a third party approved by us within six months after such death, mental incapacity or disability. Such transfer shall be subject to our right of first refusal and to the same conditions as any other transfer.

D. Operation of Business By Us. In order to prevent any interruption in the operation of the Franchised Business and any injury to the goodwill and reputation which would cause harm to the Franchised Business, you authorize us, and we shall have the right, but not the obligation, to operate the Franchised Business for so long as we deem necessary and practical, and without waiver of any other rights or remedies we may have under this Agreement, in the event that: (i) your Principal Operator is absent or incapacitated by reason of illness or death and you are not, in our sole judgment, able to designate an acceptable substitute Principal Operator or perform under this Agreement, or (ii) any allegation or claim is made against the Franchised Business, any Owner, or the Principal Operator involving or relating to any fraudulent or deceptive practice or any activity that endangers a child. In the event that we install a support manager to operate the Franchised Business, we, at our option, shall not be obligated so to operate it for a period more than 90 days. All revenues from the operation of the Franchised Business during such period of operation by us shall be kept in a separate account and the expenses of the Franchised Business, including royalty fees, advertising contributions, compensation and expenses for our representative, shall be charged to said account. If the revenues are not sufficient to cover these expenses, you will pay us on demand the amount necessary to pay these expenses in full. If we elect to temporarily operate the Franchised Business on your behalf, you agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from any and all claims arising from our acts and omissions.

12. OUR RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL TO PURCHASE

A. Restrictions. You will not make a Transfer without first offering the same to us in writing, at a stated price and on stated terms. Your written offer to us must contain all material terms and conditions of the proposed sale or transfer. Upon our receipt of written notice specifying the proposed price and terms of proposed sale or transfer of your business, we will give you written notice within ten business days which will either waive our right of first refusal to purchase, or will state an interest in negotiating to purchase the business according to the proposed terms. If we commence negotiations to purchase your business, you may not sell the business to a third party for at least 30 days or until we and you agree in writing that the negotiations have terminated, whichever comes first. If we waive our right to purchase, you will have the right to complete the sale or transfer of the business according to the terms set forth in the written notice to us but not upon more favorable terms to the proposed buyer. Any such sale, transfer or assignment to a third party is expressly subject to the provisions of this Agreement. Your obligations under this Agreement will not be affected or changed because of our nonacceptance of your written offer.

B. Structure of Entity. If you are a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity, a controlling interest in your entity may not be sold, pledged, assigned, traded, transferred or otherwise disposed of until the interest has been first offered to us in writing under the same terms and conditions offered to any third party. Notwithstanding the terms of this Section, one of your owners may bequeath, sell, assign, trade or transfer his/her interest to your other owners without first offering it to us; however, you must provide us with written notice of all such transactions.

13. OUR TERMINATION RIGHTS

A. Without Opportunity to Cure. You shall be in default and we may, at our option, terminate this Agreement, without affording you any opportunity to cure the default, effective upon the earlier of receipt of notice of termination by you, or five days after mailing of such notice by us, upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- i. You are insolvent, liquidated or dissolved;

- ii. You cease to operate or otherwise abandon the Business or forfeit the right to do or transact business in the jurisdiction where the Business is located;
- iii. You or any of your owners make an unauthorized Transfer under this Agreement;
- iv. You or any of your owners is proven to have engaged in fraudulent conduct, or is convicted of, or pleads guilty or no contest to a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude, or any other crime or offense that is reasonably likely to have an adverse effect on the Business, the System, the Marks or related goodwill;
- v. Your Principal Operator or any Owner does anything, or omits to do anything, the consequences of which adversely affects the safety, welfare or well-being of any child at any time;
- vi. You are given two or more notices of being in material violation of any of the terms or requirements of this Agreement within any 12-month period, whether or not such defaults are timely cured after notice;
- vii. You knowingly or intentionally maintain false books or records or submit any false record, statement or report to us;
- viii. You, by act or omission, materially impair the value of, or the goodwill associated with, any of the Marks or the System; or
- ix. You commit any other default under this Agreement which, by its nature, cannot be cured.

B. With Notice and Opportunity to Cure. Except for those defaults provided for above, you shall be in default of this Agreement for any failure to maintain or comply with any of the terms, covenants, specifications, standards, procedures or requirements imposed by this Agreement or in the Manual or other written document provided by us, or to carry out the terms of this Agreement in good faith. For such defaults, we will have the right to terminate this Agreement and your right to operate a Jovie business if you fail to cure the default within a period of 30 days (or 10 days, if your default is the non-payment of monies due) following written notice by us to you of the default(s). Alternatively, if a default (other than for non-payment) cannot reasonably be cured within 30 days, we will provide you with written notice requiring you to begin, within 30 days, to take substantial and continuing action to cure such default and to provide us with evidence of such actions. If the defaults specified in our notice are not cured within the specified cure period, this Agreement shall automatically terminate upon the expiration of the applicable cure period, without further notice. We have the right to modify the cure periods specified in this Section to comply with applicable law or to grant a longer cure period or delay termination, in our sole discretion. Defaults subject to cure by you shall include, without limitation, the following:

- i. You fail to satisfactorily complete the training, and commence operating the Business within 6 months of the Effective Date or fail to secure a suitable location for the Office within 12 months of the Effective Date;

- ii. You lose the right to possession of the Office, you close or relocate the Office without our prior written consent, the Office no longer complies with our then-current standards and specifications, or the franchise agreement for the territory where the Office is located is terminated or transferred, and you do not cure the default within 30 days following written notice by us to you of the default; or
- iii. You fail to comply with the terms of this Agreement or fail to comply with the Manual;
- iv. You fail, refuse, or neglect to promptly pay any monies owing to us, our affiliates or the Brand Fund when due, or to submit the financial or other information required under this Agreement;
- v. You misuse or make any unauthorized use of the Marks;
- vi. You sell non-approved services or products; or
- vii. You, by act or omission in connection with the operation of the Business, permit a continuing violation of, any applicable law, ordinance, rule, or regulation of a governmental body.

C. Non-Compliance Fee. In addition to, and notwithstanding the attorneys' fees provision in Section 18(C) below, in the event of your default under this Section 13, or in the event of any instance of your non-compliance with this Agreement, the Manual, or other policies and System standards, for which we notify you of such default or non-compliance, we may require you to pay an administrative fee to Franchisor in the amount of $500 per full or partial month that each instance of default or non-compliance remains uncured (collectively, the "Non-Compliance Fee"). The Non-Compliance Fee is intended to reimburse us for our damages and other losses incurred, as well as the time, expense, and other expenditure of resources incurred due to your default or non-compliance. The monthly charge is our best estimate of the ongoing costs to monitor your action until the default or non-compliance is rectified and cured. The Non-Compliance Fee applies to each notice of non-compliance that we provide you, for each separate event, action, or inaction of default or non-compliance. Our decision to require you to pay an administrative fee will be without prejudice to any other rights that we may have under this Agreement, including without limitation, our right to terminate this Agreement and/or to terminate any other rights, options or arrangements under this Agreement at any time thereafter for the same default or as a result of any additional defaults of the terms of this Agreement.

14. YOUR TERMINATION RIGHTS; NOTICE REQUIRED

A. Termination. You may terminate this Agreement if we violate any material obligation to you and fail to cure such violation within 30 days after our receipt of written notice from you; provided, however, that you are in compliance with the Agreement at the time of giving such notice of termination. Your written notice must identify the violation and demand that it be cured.

B. Required Notice. A party must give the other party written notice of an alleged default under or violation of this Agreement after it has knowledge of, determines, or is of the opinion that there has been an alleged default under or violation of this Agreement. If there is failure to give written notice of an alleged default under this Agreement within one year from the date that the non-breaching party has knowledge of, determines or is of the opinion that there has been an alleged default, the alleged default will be deemed to be approved and waived, and the alleged default or violation will not be deemed to be a default under or violation of this Agreement.

15. YOUR OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

A. Post-Term Obligations. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights granted to you under this Agreement will terminate, the franchise will revert to us, and you will have the following obligations with respect to the Business:

i. You must immediately cease to operate the Business and shall not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent to the public or hold yourself out as a Jovie franchisee with respect to such business and discontinue all use of the Marks.

ii. You must immediately and permanently cease to use, in any manner whatsoever, including all Online Platforms, all Confidential Information, approved information system and related methods, procedures and techniques used by or associated with the System, and the Marks and distinctive forms, slogans, signs, symbols, logos and designs associated with the System.

iii. You must immediately return to us the Manual and any property held or used by you that is owned by us and shall cease to use, and either destroy or convey to us, all signs, advertising materials, displays, stationery, forms and any other materials that bear or display the Marks.

iv. You must take such actions as may be necessary to cancel any assumed name or similar registration that contains the Mark “Jovie” or any other Mark, and you shall furnish us with evidence satisfactory to us of compliance with this obligation within 30 days after termination or expiration.

v. You must promptly pay all sums owed to us, and if this Agreement is terminated for any reason other than as a result of a material breach of this Agreement by us that is not cured within 30 days or such longer period as may be necessary after written notice thereof from you, such sums shall include all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, and interest on such costs, expenses, and fees, incurred by us as a result of the default and the termination. You agree that until such obligation is paid in full, you will grant us a lien against any and all of the personal property, furnishings, equipment, signs, fixtures and inventory owned by you and located at the Office on the date this Agreement terminates or expires.

vi. You must pay to us all damages, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, and interest on such costs, expenses, and fees, incurred by us by subsequent to the termination or expiration of this Agreement in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any term, covenant or provision of this Agreement.

vii. You must take all further action and execute all documents necessary to convey and assign to us all telephone numbers that have been used in the operation of the Business and you shall cease all use of such telephone numbers.

viii. You must comply with the covenants contained in this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the covenant not to compete and the covenant not to disclose Confidential Information.

B. Our Option to Purchase. Upon the termination of this Agreement, we shall have the option to purchase all of your rights, title and interest in the Franchised Business and all improvements, equipment, Products, accounts, contract rights and other business assets (“Assets”). The purchase price for the Assets will be the current fair market value of the Assets, excluding any goodwill or going concern value. If the parties cannot agree on the fair market value within a reasonable time, an independent appraiser will be designated by each of the parties to appraise the value of the Assets consistent with this Section 15(B), and an average of the two appraised values will be binding. For the avoidance of doubt, appraised values of the Assets shall exclude any and all consideration for goodwill or going concern value created by the Marks and System licensed to you.

16. NOTICES

A. Method. All notices sent by one party to the other must be hand-delivered, sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or transmitted by facsimile or sent by means of other electronic means, if the sender can verify receipt. They will be addressed to us at our office, or at any other address we designate in writing, and addressed to you at your last known business address, or at any other address you designate in writing.

B. Effective Receipt. Any notice is considered given and received, when delivered, if hand-delivered; if sent by facsimile, or electronic means in which receipt can be verified, on the next business day after sent; and if mailed, on the third business day following the mail.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

A. Governing Law. Except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.) or other federal law, this Agreement shall be interpreted under the laws of the State in which the Territory is located, excluding its choice of law rules. The parties agree that any state law or regulation applicable to the offer or sale of franchises or the franchise relationship will not apply unless the jurisdictional provisions are independently met. You waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the rights and protections provided by any such franchise law or regulation.

B. Negotiation and Mediation. This dispute resolution clause applies to claims by and against all parties and their affiliates, successors, owners, managers, officers, directors, employees, agents, and representatives, as to claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or of violation of any applicable law or regulation, except as stated below. This dispute resolution clause shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement. The parties will first attempt to resolve any dispute relating to or arising out of this Agreement by negotiation. We will provide a procedure for internal dispute resolution. Any dispute subject to negotiation, and not resolved within ten days, before commencing further dispute resolution must be submitted to non-binding mediation. Mediation will be before a single skilled independent mediator mutually and reasonably agreed on by the parties. The parties will equally bear the costs of mediation. Mediation will be conducted in accordance with the procedures of United States Arbitration and Mediation Service, Inc. (“USA&M”) at the option of the party initiating mediation or other mediation service agreed to by you and us. The mediation will be conducted in the city that USA&M has an office nearest our headquarters office, unless otherwise mutually agreed.

C. Venue. Any cause of action, claim, suit or demand allegedly arising from or related to the terms of this Agreement or the relationship of the parties must be brought in the Federal District Court for Colorado or in the Colorado State District Court in the County of Denver, Colorado. Both parties hereto irrevocably submit themselves to, and consent to, the jurisdiction of said courts. Any such action shall be conducted on an individual basis, and not as part of a consolidated, common, or class action, and you and your Owners waive any and all rights to proceed on a consolidated, common, or class basis. The provisions of this subparagraph will survive the termination of this Agreement. You are aware of the business purposes and needs underlying the language of this subparagraph, and with a complete understanding thereof, agree to be bound in the manner set forth.

D. Jury Waiver. All parties hereby waive any and all rights to a trial by jury in connection with the enforcement or interpretation by judicial process of any provision of this Agreement, and in connection with allegations of state or federal statutory violations, fraud, misrepresentation or similar causes of action or any legal action initiated for the recovery of damages for breach of this Agreement.

E. Waiver of Punitive Damages. You and us and our affiliates agree to waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the right to or claim for any punitive or exemplary damages against the other and agree that in the event of any dispute between them, each will be limited to the recovery of actual damages sustained.

18. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Additional Notice. If any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction requires a greater prior notice of the termination of this Agreement than is required hereunder, the prior notice or other action required by such law or rule will be substituted for the notice requirements hereof. Such modifications to this Agreement will be effective only in such jurisdiction and will be enforced as originally made and entered into in all other jurisdictions. We have the right unilaterally to reduce the scope of any of your covenants contained in this Agreement upon notice to you, whereupon you must comply with them as so modified.

B. Severability. All provisions of this Agreement are severable and this Agreement shall be interpreted and enforced as if all completely invalid or unenforceable provisions were not contained herein; all partially valid and enforceable provisions shall be enforced to the extent that they are valid and enforceable.

C. Attorneys’ Fees. If either party institutes a legal proceeding, including court proceeding and arbitration, and prevails entirely or in part in any action at law or in equity against the other party based entirely or in part on the terms of this Agreement, including without limitation, a claim related to the offering of a franchise or the franchise relationship, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the losing party, in addition to any judgment, reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and all of the prevailing party's expenses, and interest on such fees, costs, and expenses, in connection with any action at law.

D. Waiver. No failure, forbearance, neglect or delay of any kind on our part in connection with the enforcement or exercise of any rights under this Agreement shall affect or diminish our right to strictly enforce and take full benefit of each provision of this Agreement at any time, whether at law for damages, in equity for injunctive relief or specific performance, or otherwise. No custom, usage or practice with regard to this Agreement by you or by our other franchisees shall preclude the strict enforcement of this Agreement in accordance with its literal terms. No waiver by us of performance of any provision of this Agreement shall constitute or be implied as a waiver of our right to enforce that provision at any future time. Subsequent acceptance by us of any payments due to us hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver by us of any preceding or succeeding breach by you of any terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

E. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Manual, any written related agreements and all Exhibits, constitutes the entire understanding and agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior understandings, whether oral or written, pertaining to this Agreement, and the System and Business. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to negate or disclaim the disclosures contained in our Disclosure Document. No interpretation, change, termination or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, and no consent or approval under this Agreement, shall be binding upon you or us or effective unless in writing signed by you and us, except that a waiver need be signed only by the party waiving. You acknowledge that the franchise has been granted in reliance upon the information supplied to us your application for a franchise.

F. Performance. You agree that you shall not, on grounds of an alleged nonperformance by us of any of our obligations or any other reason, withhold payment of any amount due to us whatsoever. No endorsement or statement on any check or payment of any sum less than the full sum due to us shall be construed as an acknowledgment of payment in full or an accord and satisfaction, and we may accept and cash such check or payment without prejudice to its right to recover the balance due or pursue any other remedy provided herein or by law. We may apply any payments made by you against any past due indebtedness of yours as we may see fit. We may set off against any payment due to you any of your outstanding debts.

G. Cumulative Rights. The rights of the parties hereto are cumulative and no exercise or enforcement by a party of any right or remedy hereunder shall preclude the exercise or enforcement by that party of any other right or remedy herein contained, or to which it is entitled by law.

H. Headings. The headings of the Sections hereof are for convenience only and do not define, limit or construe the contents of such Sections.

I. Acknowledgement. The parties declare that they are independent contractors and not agents or partners, and no training or supervision given by, or assistance from, us shall be deemed to negate such independence. You acknowledge that the success of your Business is largely dependent on your own efforts and hereby assume the responsibility for your success or failure.

You acknowledge that you have had ample time and opportunity to investigate our business and to consult with legal and financial advisors of your choice.

J. Force Majeure. Neither party hereto shall be liable for any loss or damage due to any delay in the due performance of the terms hereof (except for the payment of money) by reason of strikes, lockouts and other labor relations, fires, riots, wars, embargoes and civil commotion, or acts of God. Any such delay shall extend performance only so long as such event is in progress.

K. Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and subject to Section 11, shall inure to the benefit of, the parties' successors.

L. Modifications. This Agreement may only be modified or amended by a written document executed by both parties. You acknowledge that we may modify our standards, procedures, specifications and marketing techniques set forth in the Manual unilaterally under any conditions and to the extent in which we, in our sole judgment, deem necessary to protect, promote, or improve the Marks, and the quality of the System, but under no circumstances will such modifications be made arbitrarily without such determination.

M. Delegation. From time to time, we shall have the right to delegate the performance of any portion or all of our obligations and duties under this Agreement to third parties, whether the same are our agents or independent contractors which we have contracted with to provide such services. You agree in advance to any such delegation by us of any portion or all of our obligations and duties hereunder.

N. Injunctive Relief. Nothing herein shall prevent the parties from seeking injunctive relief to prevent irreparable harm, in addition to all other remedies. If it is necessary for us to seek preliminary or permanent injunctive relief, we may do so without a bond.

O. Interpretation of Rights and Obligations. The following provisions apply to and govern the interpretation of this Agreement, the parties' rights under this Agreement, and the relationship between the parties:

1. Our Rights. Whenever this Agreement provides that we have a certain right, that right is absolute and the parties intend that our exercise of that right will not be subject to any limitation or review. We have the right to operate, administrate, develop, and change the System in any manner that is not specifically precluded by the provisions of this Agreement, although this right does not modify any express limitations set forth in this Agreement.

2. Our Reasonable Business Judgment. Whenever we reserve discretion in a particular area or where we agree to exercise our rights reasonably or in good faith, we will satisfy our obligations whenever we exercise reasonable business judgment in making our decision or exercising our rights. Our decisions or actions will be deemed to be the result of reasonable business judgment, even if other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternatives are available, if our decision or action is intended, in whole or significant part, to promote or benefit the System generally even if the decision or action also promotes our financial or other individual interest. Examples of items that will promote or benefit the System include, without limitation, enhancing the value of the Marks, improving customer service and satisfaction, improving product quality, improving uniformity, enhancing or encouraging modernization and improving the competitive position of the System.

P. Adaptations and Variances. Complete and detailed uniformity under many varying conditions may not always be possible, practical, or in the best interest of the System. Accordingly, we have the right to vary the standards, specifications, and requirements for any customs or circumstances of a particular franchise or operating agreement, site or location, population density, business potential, existing business practice, competitive circumstance or any other condition that we deem to be of importance to the operation of such Business or the System. We are not required to grant to you a like or other variation as a result of any variation from standard specifications or requirements granted to any other franchisee.

Q. Notice of Potential Profit. We and our affiliates may from time to time make available to you goods, products and services for use in your Business on the sale of which we or our affiliates may make a profit. Further, we and our affiliates may from time to time receive consideration from suppliers and manufacturers in respect to sales of goods, products or services to you or in consideration of services rendered or rights licensed to such persons. You agree that we and our affiliates are entitled to said profits and/or consideration.

This entire Agreement, including corrections, changes, and all attachments and addenda, will only be binding upon us when executed or initialed by our authorized representative.

RECITALS:

A. The parties hereto have entered into a certain Lease Agreement, dated _____, 20____, and pertaining to the premises located at _____ (the “Lease”).

B. Lessor acknowledges that Lessee intends to operate a nanny placement business from the leased premises specified in the Lease (the “Office”) pursuant to a Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) with Jovie Inc. (“Company”) under the name “Jovie™” (“Franchised Business”).

C. The parties now desire to amend the Lease in accordance with the terms and conditions contained herein.

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby mutually covenanted and agreed between Lessor and Lessee as follows:

(1) Remodeling and Decor. Lessor agrees that Lessee shall have the right to remodel, equip, paint and decorate the interior of the Office and to display such proprietary marks and signs on the interior and exterior of the Office as Lessee is reasonably required to do pursuant to the Franchise Agreement and any successor Franchise Agreement under which Lessee may operate a Franchised Business at the Office. Lessee agrees that all exterior signage and marks will comply with applicable municipal codes.

(2) Assignment. Lessee shall have the right to assign all of its right, title and interest in the Lease to Company or Company’s affiliate, at any time during the term of the Lease, including any extensions or renewals thereof, without first obtaining Lessor’s consent. However, no assignment shall be effective until such time as Company or its designated affiliate gives Lessor written notice of its acceptance of such assignment, and nothing contained herein or in any other document shall constitute Company or its designated affiliate as a party to the Lease, or guarantor thereof, and shall not create any liability or obligation of Company or its affiliate unless and until the Lease is assigned to, and accepted in writing by, Company or its affiliate. In the event of an assignment, Lessee shall remain liable under the terms of the Lease.

(3) Default and Notice.

a. In the event there is a default or violation by Lessee under the terms of the Lease, Lessor shall give Lessee and Company written notice of such default or violation within a reasonable time after Lessor receives knowledge of its occurrence. If Lessor gives Lessee a default notice, Lessor must contemporaneously give Company a copy of such notice. Company will notify Lessor whether it intends to cure the default and take an automatic assignment of Lessee's interest as provided in Paragraph 4(a). Company will have an additional 15 days from the expiration of Lessee's cure period in which to cure the default or violation.

b. All notices to Company shall be sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to the following address: 11030 Circle Point Road, Suite 300 Westminster, CO 80020.

Company may change its address for receiving notices by giving Lessor written notice of such new address. Lessor agrees that it will notify both Lessee and Company of any change in Lessor's mailing address to which notices should be sent.

(4) Termination or Expiration.

a. Upon Lessee's default and failure to cure a default under either the Lease or the Franchise Agreement, Company will, at its option, have the right (but not the requirement) to take an automatic assignment of Lessee's interest. In order to exercise this right, Company must give Lessor written notice of its intent to take over the lease within five business days of the date of termination of either the Lease or the Franchise Agreement and must agree to cure all existing defaults within ten business days of the date of termination of either the Lease or the Franchise Agreement.

b. Upon the expiration or termination of either the Lease or the Franchise Agreement, Landlord will cooperate with Company in gaining possession of the Office within 15 days of termination or expiration. If Company does not elect to take an assignment of the Lessee's interest, Lessor will, within 15 days of termination, allow Company to enter the Office, without being guilty of trespass and without incurring any liability to Lessor, to remove all signs and all other items identifying the Office as a Franchised Business and to make such other modifications (such as repainting) as are reasonably necessary to protect the Jovie marks and system, and to distinguish the Office from other Franchised Business.

(5) Consideration; No Liability.

a. Lessor hereby acknowledges that the provisions of this Addendum to Lease are required pursuant to the Franchise Agreement under which Lessee plans to operate its business and the Lessee would not lease the Office without this Addendum.

b. Lessor further acknowledges that Lessee is not an agent or employee of Company and the Lessee has no authority or power to act for, or to create any liability on behalf of, or to in any way bind Company or any affiliate of Company, and that Lessor has entered into this Addendum to Lease with full understanding that it creates no duties, obligations or liabilities of or against Company or any affiliate of Company.

(6) Amendments. No amendment or variation of the terms of this Addendum to the Lease shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

(7) Reaffirmation of Lease. Except as amended or modified herein, all of the terms, conditions and covenants of the Lease shall remain in full force and effect and are incorporated herein by reference and made a part hereof as though copied herein in full.

(8) Beneficiary. Lessor and Lessee expressly agree that Company is a third-party beneficiary of this Addendum.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, witness the signatures of the parties hereto as of the day, month and year first written above.

SCHEDULE 8
AMENDMENT TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT
FOR NATIONAL ACCOUNT PROGRAM PARTICIPATION

This Amendment to Franchise Agreement for National Account Program Participation (this “Amendment”) is made and entered into by and between Jovie Inc. (“Jovie”) and the Franchisee listed in the signature area below (“Franchisee”). Jovie and Franchisee are parties to a Jovie® Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”), under which Franchisee operates a Jovie franchised business (the “Business”) within a defined Territory. Under the Franchise Agreement, Jovie has the right to establish and administer “Multi-Area Marketing Programs” on behalf of the Jovie franchise system, including programs for marketing and providing nanny and sitter services to customers or customer networks having a regional or national scope (“National Accounts”) under special pricing or terms that Jovie negotiates with such National Accounts (“Programs”), and which may be governed by a written agreement between Jovie and the National Account customer (a “Program Agreement”). In some cases, participation in Programs require that the participating franchisees comply with special terms and conditions, as a condition of providing services to the National Account customer. Franchisee recognizes the value of participating in Programs and the potential for increased negotiating leverage available to Jovie in negotiating Program Agreements on behalf of a large number of Jovie businesses, and wishes to authorize Jovie to negotiate and enter into Program Agreements and to bind Franchisee to the terms of Programs, subject to Franchisee’s opt-out rights as described herein. Accordingly, and in consideration of the mutual covenants and considerations set forth herein, Jovie and Franchisee agree to amend the Franchise Agreement, as follows:

1. Grant of Authority. Without limiting in any way Jovie’s rights to establish and administer “Multi-Area Marketing Programs” under the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee grants Jovie the additional right, power and authority to negotiate with National Accounts and, subject to Jovie’s sole judgment, to enter into Program Agreements on behalf of all Jovie franchised and company-owned businesses, including the Business. Franchisee agrees that upon Jovie’s signing of a Program Agreement and Franchisee’s acceptance of any customer order under a Program, Franchisee will be immediately bound to the rules, conditions, guidelines, and requirements of the Program, as they are communicated to Franchisee by Jovie via email, Jovie’s web portal or any other method of notifications that Jovie establishes. Within thirty (30) days of signing a new Program Agreement for any new Program, Jovie will provide Franchisee with a summary of the material terms and conditions of each new Program (a “Program Summary”). All Program Summaries are incorporated into this Amendment by reference, and Franchisee agrees that any National Account executing a Program Agreement with Jovie will be a third party beneficiary to this Amendment with respect to enforcement of mandatory components of Programs. Jovie may, as necessary, require that Franchisee execute additional agreement(s) or riders to this Amendment, as a condition of the Franchisee’s participation in a Program. Franchisee shall not be entitled to review Program Agreements directly.

2. Opt-Out Rights. Upon receiving written notice of a new Program and its features, Franchisee has the right at any time, by providing Jovie with ten (10) days’ advance written notice (or such longer notice period as Jovie may set forth in the Program summary described in Paragraph 1, above), to opt out of the Program. Upon expiration of the notice period (or sooner at Jovie’s discretion): (a) Franchisee will no longer be eligible to participate in the Program; and (b) Franchisee will remain liable for satisfying any and all obligations of Franchisee under the applicable Program to the extent accrued prior to expiration of the notice period. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that if Franchisee opts out of any Program, pursuant to the Franchise Agreement Jovie may fulfill National Account customer orders for the Program, either directly or through other Jovie franchised businesses, including in areas close to or within Franchisee’s territory.

3. Compliance with Guidelines and Management of Programs. Franchisee agrees to adhere to all rules and guidelines established by Jovie regarding Programs generally or regarding any Program in particular. Jovie shall have the sole right and privilege (to the exclusion of Franchisee) to communicate with National Accounts and their representatives regarding Program-related matters. Violation of the rules, conditions or guidelines of any Program by Franchisee shall be deemed a default under the Franchise Agreement.

4. Indemnity. Without limiting Franchisee’s indemnification obligations under the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee agrees protect, indemnify and hold harmless Jovie and the applicable National Account, from and against all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, losses, damages, costs, suits, judgments, debts, losses, fines, assessments, taxes, liens, legal fees and disbursements, penalties, expenses, and liabilities of any kind or nature arising directly or indirectly out of the provision of services to customers under Programs, by Franchisee or its owners, shareholders, employees, or contractors.

5. Termination Rights. Either party has the right to terminate this Amendment upon thirty (30) days' advance written notice to the other party; provided that if Franchisee elects to terminate this Amendment, at Jovie's option: (a) Franchisee will no longer be eligible to participate in any Programs; and (b) Franchisee will remain liable for satisfying any and all obligations of Franchisee, under any Programs, which accrued prior to termination of this Amendment.

6. Construction. In all other respects, the Franchise Agreement will be construed and enforced according to its terms.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Jovie and Franchisee have signed this Amendment as of the day and year first above written.

THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

OUR WEBSITE HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AND COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENTS OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.

SECTION 31125 OF THE CALIFORNIA CORPORATIONS CODE REQUIRES US TO GIVE YOU A DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, IN A FORM CONTAINING THE INFORMATION THAT THE COMMISSIONER MAY BY RULE OR ORDER REQUIRE, BEFORE A SOLICITATION OF A PROPOSED MATERIAL MODIFICATION OF AN EXISTING FRANCHISE.

Item 3, Additional Disclosure:

Neither we nor any person described in Item 2 of the Disclosure Document is subject to any currently effective order of any National Securities Association or National Securities Exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq. suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.

Item 6, Additional Disclosure:

The highest interest rate allowed by law in California is 10% annually.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

The franchise agreement requires franchisee to execute a general release of claims upon renewal or transfer of the franchise agreement. California Corporations Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order there under is void. Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 – 20043)).

The franchise agreement requires application of the laws of Colorado. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code §1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. §101 et seq.)

The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

To the extent the California Franchise Investment Law, Cal. Corp. Code §§ 31000-31516 or the California Franchise Relations Act, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§20000-20043 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

The Franchise Agreement requires franchisee to execute a general release of claims upon renewal or transfer of the franchise agreement. California Corporations Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order there under is void. Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 – 20043)).

The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of Colorado. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code §1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination or non-renewal of a franchise. The Federal Bankruptcy Code also provides rights to franchisee concerning termination of the Franchise Agreement upon certain bankruptcy-related events. If the Franchise Agreement is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

2. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.

3. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.

THESE FRANCHISES HAVE BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE MINNESOTA FRANCHISE ACT. REGISTRATION DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE OF MINNESOTA OR A FINDING BY THE COMMISSIONER THAT THE INFORMATION PROVIDED HEREIN IS TRUE, COMPLETE AND NOT MISLEADING.

THE MINNESOTA FRANCHISE ACT MAKES IT UNLAWFUL TO OFFER OR SELL ANY FRANCHISE IN THIS STATE WHICH IS SUBJECT TO REGISTRATION WITHOUT FIRST PROVIDING TO THE PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE, AT LEAST 7 DAYS PRIOR TO THE EXECUTION BY THE PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE OF ANY BINDING FRANCHISE OR OTHER AGREEMENT, OR AT LEAST 7 DAYS PRIOR TO THE PAYMENT OF ANY CONSIDERATION, BY THE FRANCHISEE, WHICHEVER OCCURS FIRST, A COPY OF THIS PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT, TOGETHER WITH A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE FRANCHISE. To the extent the Minnesota Franchise Act, Minn. Stat. §§80C.01 – 80C.22 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 4 which requires that except for certain specified cases, that franchisee be given 180 days' notice for non-renewal of this Franchise Agreement.

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that franchisor indemnify franchisees whose franchise is located in Minnesota against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee's use of franchisor's trademarks ("Marks") infringe upon the trademark rights of the third party. Franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee's use of franchisor's trademark but franchisor shall indemnify franchisee for claims against franchisee solely as it relates to franchisee's use of the Marks in accordance with the requirements of the Franchise Agreement and franchisor's standards. As a further condition to indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to franchisor. If franchisor accepts tender of defense, franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Franchisee will not be required to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§ 80C.01 – 80C.22.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 3 which requires that except for certain specified cases, a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure). Termination of the franchise by the franchisor shall be effective immediately upon receipt by franchisee of the notice of termination where its grounds for termination or cancellation are: (1) voluntary abandonment of the franchise relationship by the franchisee; (2) the conviction of the franchisee of an offense directly related to the business conducted according to the Franchise Agreement; or (3) failure of the franchisee to cure a default under the Franchise Agreement which materially impairs the goodwill associated with the franchisor's trade name, trademark, service mark, logo type or other commercial symbol after the franchisee has received written notice to cure of at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance thereof.

According to Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 in Minnesota Rules or 2860.4400J, the terms of the Franchise Agreement shall not in any way abrogate or reduce your rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. 1984, Chapter 80C, including the right to submit certain matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota. In addition, nothing in this Franchise Agreement shall abrogate or reduce any of franchisee's rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedy provided for by the laws of the State of Minnesota.

Any claims franchisee may have against the franchisor that have arisen under the Minnesota Franchise Laws shall be governed by the Minnesota Franchise Law.

The Franchise Agreement contains a waiver of jury trial provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.

brought by a public agency; or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange; or is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to any other business activity as a result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including, without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales agent.

3. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled “Requirements for a franchisee to renew or extend,” and Item 17(m), entitled “Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer”:

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; this proviso intends that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by a franchisee”: “You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.”
5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(v), titled “Choice of forum,” and Item 17(w), titled “Choice of law”:

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York.

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements -- No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
7. Receipts -- Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. § 680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earliest of the first personal meeting, ten (10) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

To the extent the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, Va. Code §§13.1-557 – 13.1-574 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

The Virginia State Corporation Commission's Division of Securities and Retail Franchising requires franchisor to defer payment of the initial franchise fee and other payments owed by franchisee to franchisor until franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement.

The following two sections apply to any Franchise Agreement entered into after June 30, 2026:

Under subsection D of § 13.1-559 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, for all franchises located in Virginia, the franchise contract or agreement offered or entered into pursuant to terms of this chapter shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Under subdivision A 4 of § 13.1-563 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act ("Act"), it is unlawful to offer or enter into a franchise agreement that restricts the right of a franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail after termination or expiration of the franchise agreement. However, subsection B of § 13.1-563 of the Act provides that if a franchisee sells a franchise at a mutually agreed upon price to a third party or back to the franchisor, such sale may include a term restricting the right of such franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail for a period of no more than two years after such sale.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

To the extent the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, Va. Code §§13.1-557 – 13.1-574 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

“According to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any ground for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.”

The Virginia State Corporation Commission’s Division of Securities and Retail Franchising requires franchisor to defer payment of the initial franchise fee and other initial payments owed by franchisee to franchisor until the franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

The following section applies to any Franchise Agreement entered into after June 30, 2026:

Section 10(C) of the Franchise Agreement is modified to provide that the post-termination non-compete will not apply to Franchisee upon termination or expiration of the Franchise Agreement.

2. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.

3. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Addendum as of the date Franchisor signs below.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Payment of the initial franchise fee is deferred until such time as the franchisor completes its initial obligations and franchisee is open for business.
