What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit C.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Virginia. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Virginia than in your own state.

2. Minimum Sales Performance. You must maintain minimum sales performance levels. Your inability to maintain these levels may result in loss of any territorial rights you are granted, termination of your franchise, and loss of your investment.

3. Turnover Rate. In the last year a high percentage of franchised outlets were terminated, transferred, re-acquired, or ceased operations for other reasons. This franchise could be a higher risk investment than a franchise in a system with a lower turnover rate.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

The Business We Offer

You may enter into an Area Representative Agreement in the form attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit B (the “Area Representative Agreement” or “Franchise Agreement”) to develop and operate an ATAX area representative business (an “Area Representative Business” or “Franchised Business”) within a designated territory (your “Territory” or “Area Representative Territory”).

You (as the “Area Representative”) will find, solicit, and recruit prospective franchisees on our behalf to operate a unit franchise outlet (each a “Unit Franchise”) within a designated territory (each a “Unit Territory”) using the ATAX model (“System”) within your Area Representative Territory. Our unit franchise opportunity is offered through a separate disclosure document and involves delivering retail tax preparation and related services (collectively “Tax Services”) in an exclusive territory. The Area Representative Agreement conveys no right to deliver the Tax Services or otherwise operate a unit franchised business, which is exclusively reserved to Unit Franchisees.

As Area Representative, you will find, solicit, and recruit Unit Franchisees within the Area Representative Territory and then support each Unit Franchisee by providing marketing and operating assistance. The Unit Franchisees will serve all customers within their territory, and you will not have management control over their sales or operations. As an Area Representative, subject to the terms of your Area Representative Agreement, you will receive the following compensation from us:

Franchise Fee Compensation – For each Unit Franchise that we authorize and approve for development and operation within your designated Area Representative Territory during the Term of your Area Representative Agreement we will pay to you a one-time payment / amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the “Net Initial Franchise Fee” that is unconditionally paid to us and received by us (the “Franchise Fee Compensation”).

The Net Initial Franchise Fee is calculated by taking the initial franchise fee paid by a prospect purchasing a Unit Territory within your Area Representative Territory (each a “Unit Franchisee”) and then deducting any brokerage and certain other fees that are imposed, paid, or owed by us. For example, if a $35,000 initial fee is paid to us by a Unit Franchisee and the Unit Franchisee was introduced to you or us by a broker with a $17,500 referral fee, the Net Initial Franchise Fee would be $17,500, and you would receive $8,750 (50% of the $17,500 Net Initial Franchise Fee). Certain other fees are incurred solely by you and are not accounted for when calculating the Net Initial Franchise Fee. For example, if you used our internal sales team on the same deal, you would only receive $3,750, because the Internal Sales Fee of $5,000 is solely incurred by you (calculated as $8,750 minus the $5,000 Internal Sales Fee) (see Item 6 for further details on fees imposed). The Franchise Fee Compensation will vary by transaction or may be inapplicable if an Initial Franchise Fee is waived or discounted to a level where there is no Net Initial Franchise Fee to distribute. Further, you will not receive any Franchise Fee Compensation until after the Unit Franchise fee is unconditionally paid to us and received by us.

Royalty Compensation – For each Unit Franchise that is developed and first opened within your Area Representative Territory during the initial term of your Area Representative Agreement, we will pay to you fifty percent (50%) of the net royalty fees paid to us by each Unit Franchisee for unit outlets located within your Area Representative Territory, during the initial term of your Area Representative Agreement and, if applicable, the renewal term of your Area Representative Agreement (the “Royalty Compensation”).

The Royalty Compensation is calculated based on net royalty fees paid to us from authorized franchisees of Unit Franchises with ATAX approved Unit Franchise designated territories located within your Area Representative Territory. The Royalty Compensation does not include and is not calculated based on any other fees paid to us from Unit Franchisees including, without limitation, brand development fund fees, renewal fees, transfer fees, training fees, technology fees, interest fees, audit fees, attorney fees, or any other fees paid to us or our affiliates by Unit Franchisees.

As an Area Representative you are not authorized to sign any documents on our behalf or on behalf of the System. You will refer all qualified franchisee candidates to us and we may, in our sole and absolute discretion, determine whether or not we approve or disapprove of each respective franchisee candidate. If we reject a franchisee candidate or elect to not enter into a Unit Franchise Agreement with a franchisee candidate, you will not receive any compensation. As an Area Representative, as to your Area Representative Territory and Unit Franchisees located within your Area Representative Territory, you will have the following on-going responsibilities, all subject to our then current standards, specifications, and requirements: (a) to solicit, screen, and recruit franchisee candidates that meet our qualifications and requirements; (b) to refer qualified franchisee candidates to us; (c) to provide on-going operational support and training support to franchisees in accordance with our System; (d) to provide marketing assistance in accordance with our System; (e) to conduct recurring performance and quality control assessments; and (f) to monitor and maintain franchisee relations.

As an Area Representative you will be responsible for complying with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations related to the offer and sale of franchises including the proper disclosure of our Unit Franchise Disclosure Document, the disclosure and registration of your activities as a franchise seller, and adherence to all laws, rules, and regulations related to the offer and sale of franchises.

Market and Competition

The general market for the service and support of franchisees in general is well developed. You will focus most of your activity on locating individuals to own their own small businesses in the field of income tax preparation and offering support to them. Typically, these individuals either have a small business background or are looking to become small business owners. This is a year-round business.

The primary competition comes from other franchisors and franchise brokers.

Industry-Specific Laws and Regulations

Your conduct in the offer of franchises is primarily governed by Federal Trade Commission regulation and corresponding state laws. These laws generally require that a prospective franchisee receive a Franchise Disclosure Document at least 14 calendar days before signing of a binding agreement or making any payment to us. Franchisor is responsible for the preparation and related costs of the Franchise Disclosure Document that a Franchise Seller or Area Representative must give to a prospective franchisee. As an Area Representative you may not solicit, and Franchisor will not offer a franchise opportunity in any franchise registration or filing state until we have an effective registration or filing in the respective state.

In addition, certain states have laws governing the sale of franchises and the relationship between franchisors and franchisees. In general, as to state franchise sales laws, you are required to engage in truthful advertising and not make false claims or financial performance representations, except as stated in the Franchise Disclosure Document. Typically, state relationship laws mandate fair dealing between a franchisor and franchisee, require that a franchisee not be terminated or otherwise lose rights as a franchisee absent good cause, and require that reasonable standards be applied in determining whether to approve the sale or transfer of an existing franchise to a new franchise owner. You should investigate the application of these laws further.

Under certain state laws (Illinois, New York, and Washington State), if you will offer and sell franchises there, you may be required to register as a franchise broker before you may offer or sell franchises to residents of those states or as to a territory located in those states.

Under certain state laws, if you will function as a Franchise Seller in those states, you must complete and return a Biographical Information Sheet and annual updates for us.

ITEM 3. LITIGATION

Pending Action:

Ira Lubert and John Martinson v. John T. Hewitt, ATAX, LLC, and Loyalty, LLC, Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, Case No. 250503829, filed May 30, 2025, amended August 19, 2025. Plaintiffs are minority investors in ATAX, LLC, who allege they were solicited to invest in ATAX as a qualified opportunity zone business and that ATAX failed to qualify. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants failed to perform certain remedial commitments, including an amendment to ATAX's Operating Agreement and certain financial controls, and that Hewitt caused unauthorized cash transfers from ATAX's accounts to himself and affiliated entities without Board approval. Plaintiffs assert the following claims: (1) Fraud (against Hewitt); (2) Aiding and Abetting Fraud (against Loyalty); (3) Breach of Fiduciary Duty (against Hewitt and Loyalty); (4) Conversion (against Hewitt and Loyalty); (5) Breach of Contract (against Hewitt, Loyalty, and ATAX); (6) Unjust Enrichment (against Hewitt and Loyalty); (7) Breach of the Virginia Stock Corporation Act (against Hewitt and Loyalty); and (8) Violation of the Pennsylvania Voidable Transfers Act (against Hewitt and Loyalty). Plaintiffs seek rescission of their investments, redemption of their ownership interests at fair value, monetary damages, attorneys' fees, and interest. Defendants deny all allegations and intend to vigorously contest all claims. Trial is scheduled for May 30, 2027.

Fortis Lux Financial, Inc. and Tutum Strategies, LLC v. Loyalty Business Services, LLC a/k/a Ledgers USA, JSM Tax, Inc. d/b/a Ledgers, USA, Loyalty, LLC d/b/a Loyalty Brands and John T. Hewitt, filed May 9, 2025, before the American Arbitration Association for hearing in Virginia (AAA Case No. 01-25-0002-2722). John T. Hewitt was not initially named as a Respondent; however, he was later personally named in Claimant's Statement of Claim and JMS TAX, Inc. was voluntarily removed in an Amended Statement of Claim. The Claimants are an investment advisory and insurance products sales organization, and they entered a joint venture with Ledgers to develop or acquire accounting offices and then convert them to franchise locations. The Claimants filed an Amended Statement of Claim on January 21, 2026, alleging breach of contract, breach of implied duty of good faith and fair dealing, fraud in the inducement, common-law fraud, negligent misrepresentation or in the alternate rescission/restitution. The Respondents deny the allegations and have asserted counterclaims alleging that the Claimant breached the joint venture agreement by failing to enter into franchise agreements, and failing to operate as a franchise and pay advertising fees, royalties, training fees, and other required fees, along with failure to comply with operational requirements, unauthorized use of registered trademarks, false advertising, and failure to pay for certain support services. The Claimant seeks approximately $1,945,301.11 in damages, together with interest, attorneys' fees, arbitration costs, and such other relief as permitted by law or agreement. The Respondents seek $225,000 on the counterclaims. No conclusions of law or fact have been made, and an arbitration hearing has been scheduled for November 17-20, 2026.

Defendant Annette Mercedes was a franchisee of ATAX and the other Defendants are competitors of ATAX. The action arose after ATAX discovered that Annette Mercedes' ATAX office had been converted to a Toro Tax office and obtained information from various sources that ATAX customers were being contacted by the Toro Tax Franchisee. Further, that Annette Mercedes was operating a competing tax business, which ATAX alleged was in violation of restrictive covenants contained in the ATAX franchise agreement. On January 19, 2024, the Court issued a permanent injunction in favor of ATAX enjoining the defendants from (i) disclosing, conveying, transmitting, copying, or otherwise making available in any manner, either directly or indirectly, to any person or entity, any confidential or proprietary information or lists, trade secrets, business information, software, pricing models, or customer information of Plaintiff ATAX (collectively, "Confidential

JTH Tax LLC d/b/a Liberty Tax Service v. John T. Hewitt, Loyalty LLC, ATAX LLC, ATAX Franchise, Inc. and Yneva Marte (Case No.2:21-cv-00076-RBS-LRL) filed February 4, 2021 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. Plaintiff filed the action alleging that ATAX franchisees maintained signage that is confusingly similar to trade dress and logos of the plaintiff. The Plaintiff also allege that Mr. Hewitt tortiously interfered with certain contractual relations by discussing with existing and former franchisees of the Plaintiff opportunities at ATAX. The complaint alleges that Mr. Hewitt breached his employment agreement by sharing and using trade secrets, confidential and proprietary information for his own benefit or the benefit of a third party by convincing existing and prospective franchisees of the Plaintiff to leave and instead open ATAX franchises. Lastly, the complaint alleges that Mr. Hewitt engaged in a conspiracy to unfairly compete against and damage Liberty Tax by convincing customers and prospective customers to pick ATAX over Liberty Tax. Plaintiffs sought $20 million in actual damages, treble damages, costs, and legal fees along with injunctive relief. The Defendants have denied the allegations. The matter was settled on December 31, 2021. Under the Settlement Agreement, Defendants agreed to pay the Plaintiff $545,000 over 6 years, and to refrain from: (1) unfairly competing with Liberty Tax by tortiously interfering with its franchise agreements; (2) diverting or attempting to interfere with or divert any leases from Liberty; (3) palming off any of ATAX's products or services as those of Liberty; (4) any action or statement that could reasonably cause likelihood of confusion that any ATAX location is associated with Liberty; (5) possessing, misappropriating, using or disclosing Liberty's confidential information; and (6) accessing any of Liberty's computer systems or databases. ATAX agreed to permanently close three specific ATAX locations and use their best efforts to assign leases for those locations to Liberty. The Court retained jurisdiction to enforce the final consent order.

Nominal Defendant, Case No. 2017-0914, was filed the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware on December 22, 2017. The Complaint asserted claims for breach of fiduciary duty and breach of fiduciary duty by violation of the nominating committee charter. A mediation took place on November 12, 2018 but did not result in a resolution. On March 15, 2019, the parties entered into a stipulation of settlement of which the material terms of the settlement are as follows: (i) Liberty Tax agreed to implement an anti-harassment policy; (ii) Liberty Tax will conduct yearly code of conduct training; (iii) Liberty Tax will terminate for cause any employee who violates the anti-harassment policy that has been substantiated as such; (iv) Liberty Tax will revise its audit committee charter to reflect that SEC filings must be pre-approved by the Audit Committee; (v) Liberty Tax will take reasonable steps to be listed on NASDAQ or NYSE; (vi) Hewitt agrees not to solicit company employees; and (vii) No party admits any liability. RSL Senior Partners, LLC, derivatively and on behalf of Liberty Tax, Inc. v Brunot et al., (Case No. 2:18-cv-00127-HCM-DEM), filed on March 7, 2018, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. This purported shareholder derivative action was filed on behalf of LT Inc. seeking to address the alleged wrongs of LT Inc.'s directors and officers. The Complaint claimed that certain conduct created an inappropriate tone at the top, resulting in the loss of key executives, employees, directors and otherwise harmed LT Inc. The Complaint asserted claims under Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5 and Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, breach of fiduciary duty, unjust enrichment, abuse of control, gross mismanagement, and waste of corporate assets. The Complaint sought the following relief: (a) declaring that the Plaintiff may maintain this action on behalf of LT Inc., and that the Plaintiff is an adequate representative of LT Inc.; (b) declaring that the Individual Defendants have breached and/or aided and abetted the breach of their fiduciary duties to LT Inc.; (c) determining and awarding to LT Inc. the damages sustained by it as a result of the violations set forth above from each of the Individual Defendants, jointly and severally, together with pre-judgment and post-judgment interest thereon; (d) directing LT Inc. and the Individual Defendants to take all necessary actions to reform and improve its corporate governance and internal procedures to comply with applicable laws and to protect LT Inc. and its shareholders from a repeat of the damaging events (e) awarding LT Inc. restitution from Individual Defendants; and (f) awarding the Plaintiff the costs and disbursements of the action, including reasonable attorneys' and experts' fees, costs, and expenses. Stockholder Litigation* action in Delaware Chancery Court becoming final. On September 11, 2019, the Court conducted a hearing for approval of the settlement and for attorney's fees. On September 12, 2019, the Court found the shareholder notice to be adequate and in compliance with the requirements of rule 23.1(c). The Court approved the settlement ordered in the *In Re: Liberty Tax, Inc. This matter was dismissed with prejudice.

The plaintiff filed suit which, as amended, claimed that JTH Tax and Siempre Tax failed to pay to him certain monies owed under various Purchase and Sale Agreements, that a constructive trust should be imposed on certain monies received by Liberty Tax and Siempre for the subsequent sale of those territories, that the defendants committed fraud in the inducement, and that Hewitt orally guaranteed the Purchase and Sale obligations. Shahabuddin sued for $600,000 in compensatory damages, $350,000 in punitive damages, plus pre-judgment and post-judgment interest. The parties reached a settlement of all claims whereby JTH Tax paid $775,000 and a portion of certain upcoming Net Revenue at offices previously owned by the plaintiff to him. The case was dismissed on November 14, 2018.

Governmental Actions Against John T. Hewitt:

In the Matter of a Consent Order between The Commissioner of Financial Protection and Innovation and John T. Hewitt, before the Commissioner of Financial Protection and Innovation for the State of California. The Commissioner is the head of the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation (Department) and is responsible for administering and enforcing the Franchise Investment Law (FIL) (Corp. Code, § 31000 et seq.), The Commissioner has determined pursuant to her authority under the FIL that John T. Hewitt is “subject to” the Final entered in the matter of United States of America v. Franchise Group Intermediate L 1, LLC d/b/a Liberty Tax Service (Case No. 2:19-cv-00653-RAJ-DEM) filed on or around December 3, 2019 in the United States District Court for the Eastern 25 District of Virginia (the Final Order). John T. Hewitt agreed that he is required to disclose the Final Order in Item 3 of any Franchise Disclosure Document filed by any present or future Franchisor where John T. Hewitt is a director, trustee, general partner, principal officer, or maintains management responsibility relating to the sale or operation of the respective Franchisor, along with disclosure of this governmental action.

Governmental Actions against Unrelated Entities:

United States of America v. Franchise Group Intermediate L 1, LLC d/b/a Liberty Tax Service, (Case No. 2:19-cv-00653-RAJ-DEM) filed on or around December 3, 2019 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. The Department of Justice (DOJ) filed a complaint asserting that Liberty Tax failed to maintain adequate controls over the tax returns prepared by its franchisees and failed to take steps to prevent the filing of potentially false or fraudulent returns prepared by its franchises despite notice of fraud at some of its franchisee stores. The primary focus of the DOJ’s investigation that preceded the complaint related to the alleged operational wrongdoing of 12 franchisees. Also on December 3, 2019, the DOJ and Liberty Tax filed a joint motion asking the court to approve a proposed settlement order setting forth certain enhancements to the Liberty Tax service compliance program and requiring Liberty Tax to retain an independent monitor to oversee the implementation of the required enhancements to the compliance program; and work with Liberty Tax to make further enhancements to improve the compliance program. As part of the proposed order, Liberty Tax agreed not to rehire John T. Hewitt, under whose supervision the alleged conduct at issue occurred. Liberty Tax further agreed not to grant John T. Hewitt any options or other rights to acquire equity in Liberty Tax or to nominate him to the company’s board of directors. On December 20, 2019, the court granted the joint motion and the motion to seal, which fully resolved the legal proceedings initiated by the DOJ. Although he is referenced in the court’s order, John T. Hewitt was not a named party to this case.

Other than these actions, no litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 4. BANKRUPTCY

No bankruptcy is required to be disclosed in this item.

ITEM 5. INITIAL FEES

The Initial Fees depend on the size and composition of the Area Representative Territory you select. We calculate this initial fee (the “Initial Area Representative Fee”) based on (i) the number of Unit Territories that can fit within the geographic boundaries of the Area Representative Territory and (ii) a determination of whether any Unit Territories have already been developed by a Unit Franchisee of ours within the geographical boundaries of the Area Representative Territory.

When purchasing area representative rights over an Area Representative Territory with no developed Unit Franchises, the Initial Area Representative Fee is calculated at a rate of $10,000 per undeveloped Unit Territory in the Area Representative Territory you select. Typically, an Area Representative will purchase 10-50 Unit territories, for a total Initial Franchise Fee of $100,000 - $500,000.

When purchasing an Area Representative Territory with existing developed Single Unit Franchise Territories, the precise amount will be negotiated based upon pertinent factors such as: how many existing Unit Franchises are already in the Territory and how much royalty revenue they generate, demand for Services and the level of competition in your area, population density, geographic layout, road layouts and traffic patterns, and demographic factors.

We offer a 10% discount to all qualified veterans and first responders who purchase a Territory, subject to verification of status and our approval. We may offer limited incentive programs as part of our franchise development efforts. We reserve the right to offer, modify, or withdraw any such incentive program at any time without notice to you, and such programs may not be available in all jurisdictions or to all candidates.

You must submit the Initial Area Representative Fee to us before attending Initial Area Representative Training. We will refund to you the Initial Area Representative Fee if we do not approve your application or if you do not pass our Initial Area Representative Training in accordance with our current passing standards for training, provided that you return to us all materials which we distributed to you during training. Otherwise, the Initial Area Representative Fee is fully earned and nonrefundable when both you and we execute the Area Representative Agreement between us.

We disclose financing terms in Item 10.

Except as described in this Item 5, the Initial Fees are uniformly imposed and non-refundable.

The cost will vary depending upon cost and difficulty of obtaining the prospects.

Note 2: Broker Fees- We may utilize an independent franchise broker to develop leads. Brokers are typically paid a commission based on a successful referral. Rates vary. If a Unit Franchise located within the geographical boundaries of your Area Representative Territory is sold to an individual or entity referred by a broker, then the amount of the broker's fee will be shared equally (50/50) between you and us. This amount will be deducted before any Initial Fee Commission is paid to you.

Note 3: Internal Sales Fees – Our parent, Loyalty, LLC, currently maintains a sales team (our "Internal Sales Team") to generate, develop, and close qualified leads. We also actively advertise the brand and our franchise offering to generate interest. A representative from our Internal Sales Team typically ensures a prospect is disclosed with the then-current unit disclosure document, works with the prospect throughout the sales process to select a territory, and coordinates with the operations and legal teams through execution of a franchise agreement. You will incur this fee on the sale of a Unit Franchise in your Territory unless you fully generate, develop, and close the transaction without the assistance of a representative from the Internal Sales Team. We will deduct the Internal Sales Fee from any Initial Fee Commission otherwise due to you. This fee is paid by you and is not a shared expense. This fee is fixed and is paid to the Internal Sales Team without regard for the Initial Franchise Fee charged to the new franchisee.

NOTES:

1. Initial Franchise Fee: The initial franchise fee is $10,000 per Unit territory in your Area Representative Territory. Typically, an Area Representative will purchase 10-50 Unit territories for a total Initial Franchise Fee of $100,000 - $500,000. Depending on your creditworthiness, we may, in our sole discretion, extend financing to you of up to 100% of the Initial Franchise Fee repayable monthly over 48 months at 12% per annum interest. For a loan of $250,000 repayable over 48 months at 12% interest, your monthly payment would be approximately $6,583.00. See Item 10 for additional details.
2. Travel and Living Expenses to Attend Initial Training: We offer Initial Training in Virginia Beach, VA, or online, at our choosing. We do not charge for Initial Training, but you are responsible for costs you incur for travel, transportation, meals, and possible lodging. Those costs will vary depending on how far away you live from Virginia Beach, VA, the level of lodging you select, and other factors.
3. Equipment and Furniture: Unless you have these items already, you will need a printer, telephone, desk, chair, and file cabinet along with standard office supplies to operate the franchise. The low estimate assumes that you have these items already.
4. Computer Hardware and Software: You will need an e-mail account, computer with internet access, and printer to operate the franchise. If you do not have this equipment, you will be required to purchase such hardware and software. We may also require you to purchase software such as Microsoft Office, sales lead management software, or other software that we may develop in the future. The low-end estimate assumes you already have a computer with internet access and a printer. The high-end estimate assumes you need to purchase these items.
5. Rent: We recommend that you operate your Area Representative franchise from home and not incur any rent expense. However, if you lease an office and make improvements to the property, you will incur additional expense.
6. Payroll: You are not required to have employees. However, if you hire one or more employees, you will incur payroll expense for those employees.
7. Insurance: You will need to purchase such insurance as we specify in the Operations Manual and as is required by your state law. At present, we do not require you to purchase insurance. Your costs may vary.
8. Professional Expenses: You will incur professional legal and accounting fees to assist with your entity set up, local licensing, and other legal and accounting issues.

9. Additional Funds: Additional funds are to pay local license and other government fees, miscellaneous supplies, utility costs, and similar items. We base this estimate upon the experience of our management in franchising.
10. These figures are estimates of your initial expenses covering your initial three months of operation. These figures are estimates and we cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting the business. Your costs will depend on factors such as: how much you follow our methods and procedures; your management skill; experience and business acumen, local economic conditions; the local market for our product; the prevailing wage rate; competition; and the sales level reached during the initial period.

We do not charge a separate fee for Initial Training for you and one manager, but you are responsible for all costs of travel, lodging, meals, and other living expenses to attend. The topics covered in Initial Training are described in the chart below in this Item 11. (Area Representative Agreement, Section 6.1).

Site Selection. We do not provide site selection assistance as you may operate from your home or any office location. (Area Representative Agreement, Section 6.2).

Operations Manual. We will provide you with access to our confidential Manual to offer guidance in performing your opening and support services. The Manual will be provided in electronic format. (Area Representative Agreement, Section 6.3).

Computer Systems, Equipment and Supplies. We may issue computer, software, equipment, and supply specifications. (Area Representative Agreement, Section 6.6).

Length of Time Before Opening:

You must be open for business within 30 days of completion of Initial Training. (Area Representative Agreement, Section 7.4). If you do not open within 30 days, we may, in our sole discretion, grant you additional time; however, you will remain accountable for all minimum performance requirements from the original deadline, and we reserve the right to terminate the Area Representative Agreement for failure to timely open.

Factors affecting the time length to open for business include: obtaining any needed licenses or permits, obtaining marketing materials, and obtaining computer hardware, software, equipment, and office supplies.

During the Operation of the Franchise:

Payment of Commissions. We calculate and pay commissions to you on Single Unit franchises sold in your Territory. (Area Representative Agreement, Section 5).

We will provide reasonable support to you in the operation of your Area Representative Territory, which may include telephone and email support, periodic updates to the Manual, and other assistance as we deem appropriate in our sole discretion. (Area Representative Agreement, Section 6.4).

Advanced Training. We may provide and may require your attendance at advanced or other training, which we may offer from time to time at select locations, or we may offer such training via webinar or other electronic means. We do not charge a separate training fee for such training for you and one manager, but you must pay for all travel, lodging, meals, and other expenses to attend any in-person training. (Area Representative Agreement, Section 6.8).

Establishing Prices. We establish the price of our Unit Franchise offering, which is offered through a separate disclosure document.

Advertising Program and Fund:

Marketing Fund and Fee. We do not have a Marketing Fund nor require you to pay any Marketing Fee to us. Nonetheless, we may conduct marketing using electronic or print advertising of any kind. The media coverage may be local, regional, or national. We may produce advertising in-house or through a local or regional advertising agency. (Area Representative Agreement, Section 6.7).

We do not have to spend any amount on advertising in the area or territory where your Area Representative operations are located. Likewise, franchisor-owned outlets do not contribute to a Marketing Fund (since we do not have one).

You are permitted to use your own advertising material provided that we first approve it.

Domain Names. You are not allowed to have an independent website for your franchise.

Advertising Council. We do not have an advertising council composed of Area Representatives that advise us on advertising policy.

Advertising Cooperative. You are not required to participate in a local or regional advertising cooperative.

Computer and Cash Register Systems:

Computer Equipment and Software. You will need an e-mail account, computer with internet access, and printer to operate the franchise. We may also require you to purchase software such as Microsoft Office, sales lead management software, or other software that we may develop in the future. Your costs will vary depending on whether you have these items already and what type of computer you purchase. Depending on what you have already, these items can typically be purchased for $1,000 - $1,500.

Neither we nor our affiliates or any third party have any obligation to provide ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades or updates. You must maintain your computer systems in good working order and must replace, update or upgrade your hardware systems as we require. The estimated annual cost of optional or required maintenance, updating, upgrading, or support contracts to your computer systems is $500 - $750.

Independent Access to Information. We reserve the right to have independent access to the information that will be generated or stored in your computer system, which includes prospect, financial, and operational information. There are no contractual limitations on our right to access the information.

We may require additional training or refresher courses at our expense, except that you will be responsible for your own travel, lodging, and meal expenses.

ITEM 12. TERRITORY

The scope and size of your territory (“Territory or “Area Representative Territory”) will depend on our determination as to the number of Unit Franchises that we believe may be potentially developed within the boundaries of the Area Representative Territory. Your Area Representative Territory will be mutually agreed upon prior to signing an Area Representative Agreement and will be set forth in Schedule 1 of the Area Representative Agreement. Your Area Representative Territory will be identified by zip code, boundary streets, highways, county lines, designated market area, and/or other recognizable boundaries. A typical Area Representative Territory will be of a sufficient size to contain 10-50 Unit Franchise territories, though the actual number may vary based on population density and market conditions. Each Unit Franchise territory will contain a population of approximately 30,000 – 33,000 people. We obtain population data from the U.S. Census Bureau or another service we deem reliable.

You may operate the Franchised Business out of your home or any office location. You are not required to obtain our approval to relocate the office of your Franchised Business; however, relocation of your office will not affect your territorial rights and obligations. Under no circumstance will you be permitted to relocate the Area Representative Territory and/or modify the Area Representative Territory without our prior written consent, which we may withhold in our sole reasonable business judgment.

As an area representative, you will recruit and support Unit Franchisees. You and other franchisees may solicit outside of your territory for franchisees to locate a Unit Franchise in your Territory, including using other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing, pursuant to our guidelines. The Area Representative Agreement does not provide you with any right to operate a Unit Franchise.

You will not receive an exclusive Territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Continuation of your Territorial rights depends on achieving a certain development goal, specifically, meeting the minimum development quota set forth in Schedule II of your Area Representative Agreement at the time of signing (the "Minimum Requirements"). If you fail to meet Minimum Requirements, we reserve the right to terminate your territorial rights under the Area Representative Agreement for the development of additional units. You will still maintain your rights, obligations and share of royalties for any existing franchise agreements for the term of the Area Representative Agreement so long as you are in compliance with the remaining terms of the Area Representative Agreement; however, we may then freely sell and develop the terminated territory without sharing any of the initial franchise fees or royalties from new franchises established after such termination. There are no other circumstances that permit us to modify your territorial rights except on expiration or termination of the Area Representative Agreement.

We may grant to you approval to open additional outlets within your Territory if circumstances permit such as the population increases. We may grant you additional franchise territories if we feel you have the time, energy, capital, and management structure to be able to successfully open and operate more outlets. You do not have a right of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional territories.

Your right to operate a Franchised Business in the Territory is subject to certain rights reserved by us. We, our parent, and our affiliates reserve all rights not expressly granted in the Franchise Agreement. For example, we, our parent, and our affiliates have the right to:

- (a) use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to solicit or accept customers within your Territory using our principal trademarks (or another trademark) without any compensation to you;
- (b) to implement cross-territorial protocols and other guidelines applicable to such situations as group advertising buys by multiple franchisees which may extend into multiple territories, solicitation of orders of individuals who may reside in one Territory, yet work in another, and other cross-territorial situations;
- (c) to establish and operate, and grant rights to others to establish and operate a Franchised Businesses or similar businesses at any locations outside of the Territory and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate;
- (d) to own, develop, acquire, be acquired by, merge with, or otherwise engage in any transaction with another business (competitive or not), which may offer products and services like your Franchised Business and may have one or more competing outlets within your Territory; however, we will not convert any acquired business in your Territory to a franchise using our primary trademarks during the Term of your Area Representative Agreement;
- (e) to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark which such business sells or will sell goods or services like those you will offer, anywhere;
- (f) to negotiate purchase agreements with vendors and suppliers which we reasonably believe are for the benefit of our franchisees; and,
- (g) to engage in any other business activities not expressly prohibited by the Franchise Agreement, anywhere.

Our affiliate Loyalty Business Services LLC d/b/a Ledgers offers franchise opportunities for compliance, advisory and tax services under the Ledgers brand as described in Item 1. All outlets are franchisee owned, but our affiliate reserves the right to operate company owned outlets in the future. Although Ledgers and ATAX typically target a different client base, Ledgers franchisees do offer goods and services that are similar to the goods and services you will offer in your Territory and therefore may solicit or accept orders from within your Territory. Ledgers and ATAX share the same principal business address, but their staff maintain physically separate offices and they provide training at different times or at different facilities.

We will be the sole decision maker for any conflicts between the franchisor and franchisees and between franchisees of each system regarding territory, customers, and franchisor support. Except as stated in this Item 12, neither we, our parent, or affiliates have any plans to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark that offers or sells similar goods and services.

ITEM 13. TRADEMARKS

The Area Representative Agreement licenses to you the right to use the following principal trademarks (“Marks”) registered or applied for with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”):

Description of Mark	Serial/Registration Number	Principal or Supplemental Register of the USPTO	Registration Date
ATAX (Wordmark)	3441651	Principal	June 3, 2008
 (Design Mark, color is not claimed as a feature of the mark and you may use this mark in multiple color configurations as approved by us)	7839399	Principal	June 24, 2025
 (Mascot)	8201832	Principal	April 7, 2026

We have filed all required affidavits and renewals.

There are currently no effective determinations of the USPTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or any state trademark administrator or any court; or any pending infringement, opposition, or cancellation proceeding in which we unsuccessfully sought to prevent registration of a trademark in order to protect a trademark licensed by the franchisor. There are no pending material federal or state court litigation regarding our use or ownership rights in a trademark.

There are no currently effective agreements that significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of our trademarks listed in this section.

If you learn of any claim against you for alleged infringement, unfair competition, or similar claims about the Marks, you must promptly notify us. We are not required to take affirmative action when notified of these uses or claims.

We have the sole right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed by us to you. The Area Representative Agreement does not require us to participate in your defense or indemnify you for expenses or damages if you are a party to an administrative or judicial proceeding involving a trademark licensed by us to you or if the proceeding is resolved unfavorably to you.

If we discontinue or modify our Marks, you must adopt and use any new Marks as required by us. Any expenses you incur because of adopting and using these Marks are your responsibility.

We do not know of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of our Marks anywhere except there is an A TAX in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin that has performed tax preparation services. They may have prior or superior rights in their area to certain uses of the mark "A TAX" in connection with tax preparation services.

ITEM 14. PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

At this time, we do not hold any patents. We claim a copyright in our Operations Manual, marketing material such as our website text, and other printed material, although we have not presently filed a registration of those copyrights.

There are no currently effective determinations of the U.S. Copyright Office or any court or any pending litigation or other proceedings regarding any copyrighted materials. No agreement limits our rights to use or allow Area Representatives to use the copyrighted materials.

We do not have an obligation in the Area Representative Agreement to protect our patent or copyrights, but we intend to do so. We will remain in control of any such litigation. We are not required to participate in the defense of you or indemnify you for expenses or damages in a proceeding involving a patent, patent application, or copyright licensed to you. We may modify or change the copyrighted materials and compel you to accept and adopt such modifications or changes at your expense.

We know of no superior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the copyrighted materials.

We claim proprietary rights in our Operations Manual and business methods. You must use these items per the terms of your Area Representative Agreement.

ITEM 15. OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISED BUSINESS

You must provide Area Representative services under your direct supervision and control or under the direct supervision and control of a general manager who has attended and passed our Initial Training. If the franchisee is a business entity, the general manager does not have to have any equity interest in the franchisee's business.

You are subject to a covenant not to compete. Furthermore, your general manager must sign an employment contract containing confidentiality requirements and, to the extent permitted by law, a covenant not to compete.

All owners of this franchise must sign the signature page of the Franchisee Agreement and thereby guarantee the obligations under the Franchise Agreement. However, your spouse is not required to guarantee your performance under the franchise agreement or franchisor's practice. This means your spouse is not bound by their own personal guaranty, duty of confidentiality or duty not to compete; however, that does not mean you can circumvent your obligations by sharing our know-how with your spouse (or any family member) nor assist them in competing with us. Furthermore, your general manager must sign an employment contract with you containing confidentiality requirements and, to the extent permitted by law, a covenant not to solicit customers or compete against you.

You agree to accurately and completely furnish to us the names, contact information, and ownership percent on anyone owning an interest in this franchise on the Signature Page to the Franchise Agreement. No change to the owners or ownership percentages are permitted without our prior written consent.

ITEM 16. RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must offer and sell only the goods and services that we approve and you must sell all the goods and services that we authorize. We have the right to change the types of authorized goods and services but we do not intend to materially change the nature of this relation or the authorized goods and services.

During the term of your Area Representative Agreement, and for two years thereafter, you are bound to a non-compete agreement which limits your ability to offer competitive services.

ITEM 18. PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figures to promote our System.

ITEM 19. FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

We do not make any representations about a franchisee's future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised outlets. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Alberto J. Ortiz at 780 Lynnhaven Parkway, Suite 240, Virginia Beach, VA 23452, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

The Area Representative Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

The Area Representative Agreement requires application of the laws of Virginia. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

ILLINOIS ADDENDUM
TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

As to franchises governed by the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, if any of the terms of the Franchise Disclosure Document are inconsistent with the terms below, the terms below control.

1. Illinois law governs the Area Representative Agreement.
2. In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in an Area Representative Agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, an Area Representative Agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.
3. Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal of an agreement are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.
4. In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation, or provision of the Area Representative Agreement purporting to bind you to waive compliance with any provision of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of the State of Illinois is void.
5. Item 5 of the Disclosure Document is modified to also provide that we defer collection of all initial fees until we have satisfied our pre-opening obligations to you and you have commenced doing business under the Area Representative Agreement. The Illinois Attorney General's Office imposed this deferral requirement due to our financial condition.

MARYLAND ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

As to franchises governed by the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, if any of the terms of the Disclosure Document are inconsistent with the terms below, the terms below control.

1. Item 5 of the FDD is modified to also provide, "Based upon the franchisor's financial condition, the Maryland Securities Commissioner has required financial assurance. Therefore, all initial fees and payments owed by franchisees shall be deferred until the franchisor completes its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement."

2. Item 17.b. is modified to also provide, "The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale, and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law."

3. Item 17.u. is modified to also provide, "This Area Representative Agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable."

4. Item 17.v. is modified to also provide, "Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise."

MICHIGAN ADDENDUM
TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchise's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) The term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logo type, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards;
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor;
 - (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations; (iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligation to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Any questions regarding this notice should be directed to Department of the Attorney General's Office, Consumer Protection Division, Franchise Section, G. Mennen Williams Building, 525 W. Ottawa Street, Lansing, Michigan 48913; telephone number (517) 373-7117.

THIS MICHIGAN NOTICE APPLIES ONLY TO FRANCHISEES WHO ARE RESIDENTS OF MICHIGAN OR LOCATE THEIR FRANCHISES IN MICHIGAN.

MINNESOTA ADDENDUM
TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

THESE FRANCHISES HAVE BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE MINNESOTA FRANCHISE ACT. REGISTRATION DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE OF MINNESOTA OR A FINDING BY THE COMMISSIONER THAT THE INFORMATION PROVIDED HEREIN IS TRUE, COMPLETE AND NOT MISLEADING.

THE MINNESOTA FRANCHISE ACT MAKES IT UNLAWFUL TO OFFER OR SELL ANY FRANCHISE IN THIS STATE WHICH IS SUBJECT TO REGISTRATION WITHOUT FIRST PROVIDING TO THE PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE, AT LEAST 7 DAYS PRIOR TO THE EXECUTION BY THE PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE OF ANY BINDING FRANCHISE OR OTHER AGREEMENT, OR AT LEAST 7 DAYS PRIOR TO THE PAYMENT OF ANY CONSIDERATION, BY THE FRANCHISEE, WHICHEVER OCCURS FIRST, A COPY OF THIS PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT, TOGETHER WITH A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE FRANCHISE. THIS PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT CONTAINS A SUMMARY ONLY OF CERTAIN MATERIAL PROVISIONS OF THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT. THE CONTRACT OR AGREEMENT SHOULD BE REFERRED TO FOR AN UNDERSTANDING OF ALL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF BOTH THE FRANCHISOR AND THE FRANCHISEE.

- Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.21 and Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(J) prohibit the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Franchise Disclosure Document or agreement(s) can abrogate or reduce (1) any of the franchisee's rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C or (2) franchisee's rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.
- With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, the franchisor will comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.14, Subd. 3-5, which require (except in certain specified cases) (1) that a franchisee be given 90 days notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days notice for non-renewal of the franchise agreement and (2) that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.
- The franchisor will protect the franchisee's rights to use the trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes or other commercial symbols or indemnify the franchisee from any loss, costs or expenses arising out of any claim, suit or demand regarding the use of the name. Minnesota considers it unfair to not protect the franchisee's right to use the trademarks. Refer to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.12, Subd. 1(g).
- Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(D) prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release.

- The franchisee cannot consent to the franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. The franchisor may seek injunctive relief. See Minnesota Rules 2860.4400J. Also, a court will determine if a bond is required.
- The Limitations of Claims section must comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5.
- No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including, fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed with the franchise.
- Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(G) prohibits a franchisor from imposing on a franchisee by contract or rule, whether written or oral, any standard of conduct that is unreasonable.

3. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled “Requirements for franchisee to renew or extend,” and Item 17(m), entitled “Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer”:

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by franchisee”: You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.
5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(v), titled “Choice of forum”, and Item 17(w), titled “Choice of law”:

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or upon the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements--No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
7. Receipts--Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. § 680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure

Document at the earlier of the first personal meeting, ten (10) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

RHODE ISLAND ADDENDUM
TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

As to franchises governed by the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act, if any of the terms of the Disclosure Document are inconsistent with the terms below, the terms below control.

Item 17.m. of the Disclosure Document is revised to provide:

Section 19-28.1-14 of the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act prohibits an Area Representative to be restricted in choice of jurisdiction or venue. To the extent any such restriction is purported to be required by us, it is void with respect to all Area Representatives governed under the laws of Rhode Island.

Item 17.w. of the Disclosure Document is revised to provide:

Rhode Island law applies.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

As to franchises governed by the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, if any of the terms of the Disclosure Document are inconsistent with the terms below, the terms below control.

1. In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document is amended as follows:

Additional Disclosure: The following statements are added to Item 17.h.

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any ground for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

2. Item 5 of the Disclosure Document and Section 4 of the Franchise Agreement is modified to also provide:

The Virginia State Corporation Commission’s Division of Securities and Retail Franchising requires us to defer payment of the initial franchise fee and other initial payments owed by franchisees to the franchisor until the franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement.

3. The Disclosure Document and Franchise Agreement are modified to add:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Under subsection D of § 13.1-559 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, for all franchises located in Virginia, the franchise contract or agreement offered or entered into pursuant to terms of this chapter shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Under subdivision A 4 of § 13.1-563 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act (“Act”), it is unlawful to offer or enter into a franchise agreement that restricts the right of a franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail after termination or expiration of the franchise agreement. However, subsection B of § 13.1-563 of the Act provides that if a franchisee sells a franchise at a mutually agreed upon price to a third party or back to the franchisor, such sale may include a term restricting the right of such franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail for a period of no more than two years after such sale.

Washington Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.
9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).
10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.
15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor.

As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Franchisor will defer collection of the initial franchise fee until the franchisor has fulfilled its initial pre-opening obligations to the franchisee and the franchisee is open for business.

20. Franchisor has been required to supplement Item 3 in Washington in furtherance of the objectives of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act. Accordingly, Franchisor makes the following additional disclosures related to its litigation history:

Asbestos Workers’ Philadelphia Pension Fund, derivatively on behalf of Liberty Tax, Inc., v. John Hewitt. Defendant, and Liberty Tax, Inc., Nominal Defendant, (Case No. 2017-0883), Erie County Employees Retirement. System, on behalf of Liberty Tax, Inc. v. John T. Hewitt. Defendant, and Liberty Tax, Inc. Nominal Defendant, Case No. 2017-0914, and RSL Senior Partners, LLC, derivatively and on behalf of Liberty Tax, Inc. v Brunot et al, (Case No. 2:18-cv-00127-HCM-DEM).

Description of the allegations of misconduct: It was alleged that John Hewitt (“Hewitt”) maintained romantic relationships with company employees and franchisees and gave them preferential treatment.

John Hewitt’s post termination involvement: Hewitt was Chairman of the Board and CEO at liberty tax. Although he was terminated as CEO, Hewitt remained Chairman of the Board because he was the sole holder of the Class B common stock of Liberty. During a period of in-fighting, Hewitt replaced two of the directors of the board and another member resigned. The Chief Financial Officer also resigned. Ultimately, Hewitt reached an agreement to sell his ownership interest in Liberty and relinquish control of the Board. It was alleged that Hewitt continued to interact with franchisees and area representatives for Liberty during the transition. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Liberty oversaw the investigation of the allegations and the report prepared by the Audit Committee was not provided to Hewitt.

Description of KPMG's reasons for resigning as independent auditor: Liberty filed a Form 8-K on December 11, 2017 with the SEC to publicly disclose that KPMG's resignation was accepted and approved by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Liberty. Item 4.01. Changes in Registrants Certifying Accountant.

On December 8, 2017, KPMG LLP ("KPMG") resigned as the independent registered public accounting firm of Liberty Tax, Inc. (the "Company"), effective immediately, and KPMG's resignation was accepted and approved by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). The Company is currently in the process of finding a successor independent registered public accounting firm in the hope that the Company's financial statements for the second quarter ended October 31, 2017 can be completed with as little delay as possible.

KPMG's reports on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended April 30, 2017 and April 30, 2016 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. In addition, there were no disagreements between the Company and KPMG on accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of KPMG, would have caused them to make reference to the disagreement in their reports for such periods, or any subsequent interim period preceding KPMG's resignation. The Company will authorize KPMG to respond fully to the inquiries of the successor independent registered public accounting firm, which has yet to be selected.

KPMG expressed to the Audit Committee and Company management its concern that the actions of former Chief Executive Officer John T. Hewitt, who remains the Chairman of the Board and controlling stockholder as the sole holder of the Company's outstanding Class B common stock, have created an inappropriate tone at the top which leads to ineffective entity level controls over the organization. Prior to the termination of Mr. Hewitt's employment as Chief Executive Officer of the Company on September 5, 2017, the Audit Committee oversaw an investigation of allegations of misconduct by Mr. Hewitt. In particular, KPMG noted that Mr. Hewitt took actions to replace two independent members of the Board around the time information relating to this investigation appeared in media reports. KPMG also noted that following the replacement by Mr. Hewitt of two Class B directors, the chair of the Audit Committee retired from the Board, the Company's Chief Financial Officer announced her intention to resign from the Company, and another independent member of the Board announced that he would not stand for reelection at the Company's next annual meeting. Further, KPMG was made aware that following his termination as Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Hewitt may have continued to interact with franchisees and area developers of the Company. Although Mr. Hewitt stated to KPMG during a meeting on November 9, 2017 that he would not reinsert himself into the management of the Company, in light of Mr. Hewitt's actions and his ability to control the Board as the sole holder of the Class B common stock, KPMG informed the Audit Committee and management that it has concerns regarding the Company's internal control over financial reporting as related to integrity and tone at the top and such matters should be evaluated as potential material weaknesses.

Specifically, KPMG informed the Audit Committee and management that Mr. Hewitt's past and continued involvement in the Company's business and operations, including his continued interactions with franchisees and area developers of the Company, has led it to no longer be able to rely on management's representations, and therefore has caused KPMG to be unwilling to be associated with the Company's consolidated financial statements. In notifying the Company of its resignation, KPMG advised the Audit Committee and management that it is not aware of any information that cause it to question the integrity of current management, but rather that the structural arrangement by which Mr. Hewitt controls the Company is the cause of KPMG's concerns. KPMG also noted that because certain information known to the Board regarding the reasons that the Board terminated Mr. Hewitt as Chief Executive Officer had not been disclosed to the current Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, KPMG was uncertain as to whether it could continue to rely on management's representations.

The Company has provided KPMG with a copy of the disclosures required by Item 304(a) of Regulation S-K contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K, and has requested that KPMG furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") stating whether it agrees with the statements made by the Company in this Current Report on Form 8-K and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A copy of KPMG's letter, dated December 11, 2017, confirming KPMG's agreement with these statements is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 11, 2017, the Company issued a press release announcing the resignation of KPMG as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and that the Company will delay the filing of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended October 31, 2017. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Forward Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which provides a "safe harbor" for such statements in certain circumstances. The forward-looking statements include statements or expectations regarding potential impacts of KPMG's resignation, ability and timing to complete the accounting review and audits, comprehensiveness of the Company's accounting review and ability to engage an independent accounting firm and related matters. These statements are based upon current expectations, estimates, projections, beliefs and assumptions of Company management, and there can be no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. Because forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties and speak only as of the date on which they are made, actual events or results could differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including but not limited to loss of key personnel or inability to engage accounting personnel as needed; inability to address the previously disclosed accounting matters; identification of additional material weaknesses or significant deficiencies; disagreements or additional reportable events that KPMG may identify in a letter addressed to the SEC pursuant to Item 304 of Regulation S-K; failure to engage an independent accounting firm, complete the audits and re-audits and file any required restatements and periodic reports; adverse effects resulting from the Company's common stock being delisted from the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC; risks relating to the substantial costs and diversion of personnel's attention and resources due to these matters and related litigation and other factors discussed in greater detail in the Company's filings with the SEC. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such statements and to consult the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and other SEC filings for additional risks and uncertainties that may apply to the Company's business and the ownership of the Company's securities. The Company's forward-looking statements are presented as of the date made, and the Company does not undertake any duty to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

AREA REPRESENTATIVE AGREEMENT

This contract (“Agreement”) is between ATAX LLC d/b/a ATAX (“ATAX”, “we”, “us”, or “our”) and the entity and all Signatories identified on the signature page, in their personal capacity, (collectively “Area Representative”, “you”, or “your”).

Recitals

ATAX has developed a system (“Franchise System”) for the operation of an income tax preparation office (“Franchise Services”). The Franchise System utilizes prescribed marketing techniques and operating procedures, including proprietary methods, trademarks, service marks, trade names, logos, and other commercial symbols (collectively, the “Marks”), to deliver outstanding service to customers (“Clients”).

Area Representative desires to identify and recruit qualified individuals (“Candidates”) willing to own and operate one or more unit locations (each a “Unit Franchise” as a “Unit Franchisee”) to serve Clients within the Area Representative’s designated territory.

ATAX will compensate Area Representative for identifying and recruiting Candidates while also provide continuing support (collectively “Services”) on our behalf to Candidates.

For mutual promises expressed in this Agreement, along with other valuable consideration, the receipt of which is acknowledged, ATAX and Area Representative (collectively “the Parties”) will be bound as follows:

1. GRANT OF FRANCHISE

ATAX grants you the right to operate an area representative business (“Area Representative Business” or “Franchised Business”) using our System and our Marks to recruit Candidates to open and operate a Unit Franchise within the geographical boundaries identified in Schedule 1 (the “Territory” or “Area Representative Territory”) and then support such unit franchisees, by and through the Franchisee Business Entity identified on the Summary Page and signature page of this Agreement (or as a sole proprietor or partnership if you have no business entity), subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

2. TERM AND RENEWAL

2.1 Term. This Agreement will commence upon its Effective Date and will last for a term of ten (10) years (the “Term”).

2.2 Renewal. Upon the completion of the Term of this Agreement, provided you are in compliance with the terms and conditions in this Agreement, we will provide you with the right to enter into a new Agreement with us for the provision of services similar to those in this Agreement for additional ten-year terms. If you wish to renew this Agreement, you must notify us in writing at least 90 days before the expiration of this Agreement and execute a general release of all claims you may have against us, to the extent permitted by applicable law. You may renew future Area Representative Agreements if you are in compliance with its Terms and qualify for renewal. We agree not to change your Territory or the Area Representative Commissions in your renewals.

3. TERRITORY

- 3.1. Description. Schedule 1 defines your Area Representative Territory by zip codes, political, or geographic boundaries. You will provide services and support for Unit franchisees in your Territory. You may identify Candidates for the purpose of signing them up as a Unit Franchise owner only in your Territory. This Agreement conveys no right to operate a Unit Franchise within the Territory.
- 3.2. Office Location. You may work out of your home or any office location. You are not required to obtain our approval if you relocate your Franchise Business, but you must stay within your Territory.
- 3.3. Additional Territories. We may grant to you approval to open additional outlets within your Territory if circumstances permit such as the population increases. We may grant you additional franchise territories if we feel you have the time, energy, capital, and management structure to be able to successfully open and operate more outlets. You do not have rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional territories.
- 3.4. Dual Distribution. The Territory you receive is non-exclusive. You may face competition from other franchisees, outlets that we own, other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. We or an affiliate may make sales within your Territory using our principal trademarks, including through the use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales. We or an affiliate may make sales within your Territory using trademarks different from the ones you will use under this Agreement. If we establish another Unit Franchise in your Territory, then you will receive 50% of the net Initial Franchise Fees paid by the Unit Franchisee, less any broker or sales commission including any Internal Sales Fee, along with 50% of the Royalties paid by the Unit Franchisee, just as if you sold the Unit Franchise the Territory yourself.
- 3.5. Minimum Requirements. You will provide ATAX with a minimum number of Candidates each year that open and operate a Unit Franchise in the Territory. The Territory must be grown as described in Schedule 2 (the "Minimum Requirements"). A year will include each fiscal year (including any partial year) ending on December 31.
- 3.6. Failure to Meet Minimum Requirements. If you fail to meet Minimum Requirements, we reserve the right to terminate your territorial rights under the Agreement for the opening of additional units. You will still maintain your rights, obligations and share in the Initial Franchise Fees and Royalties for any existing franchise agreements for the term of the Area Representative Agreement; however, we may then freely sell and develop the terminated territory without sharing any of the Initial Franchise Fees or Royalties from new Unit Franchises established after such termination.. There are no other circumstances that permit us to modify your Territorial Rights, except in the event of Termination or Expiration of this Agreement.

3.7. Reservation of Rights. Your right to operate a Franchised Business in the Territory is subject to certain rights reserved by us. We, our parent, and our affiliates reserve all rights not expressly granted in the Franchise Agreement. For example, we, our parent, and our affiliates have the right to:

- (a) use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales, to solicit or accept customers within your Territory using our principal trademarks (or another trademark) without any compensation to you;
- (b) to implement cross-territorial protocols and other guidelines applicable to such situations as group advertising buys by multiple franchisees which may extend into multiple territories, solicitation of orders of individuals who may reside in one Territory, yet work in another, and other cross-territorial situations;
- (c) to establish and operate, and grant rights to others to establish and operate a Franchised Businesses or similar businesses at any locations outside of the Territory and on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate;
- (d) to own, develop, acquire, be acquired by, merge with, or otherwise engage in any transaction with another businesses (competitive or not), which may offer products and services like your Franchised Business and may have one or more competing outlets within your Territory, however, we will not convert any acquired business in your Territory to a franchise using our primary trademarks during the Term of your Franchise Agreement;
- (e) to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark which such business sells or will sell goods or services like those you will offer, anywhere;
- (f) to negotiate purchase agreements with vendors and suppliers which we reasonably believe are for the benefit of our franchisees; and,
- (g) to engage in any other business activities not expressly prohibited by the Franchise Agreement, anywhere.

4. FEES PAID BY AREA REPRESENTATIVE

4.1 Initial Area Representative Fee. You will pay us $_____ upon execution of this Agreement. The Initial Area Representative Fee is fully earned and nonrefundable when both you and we execute the Area Representative Agreement between us.

4.2 Other Area Representative Fees

- a) Fee for Franchisee Prospects. From time to time, we may provide to you leads of Candidates interested in buying one of our Unit franchises within the Territory. If we provide you leads, we will set and publish fees based upon the cost and the difficulty of acquiring the leads. You are under no obligation to purchase these leads.

- b) Credit Card Fee. If we allow you to pay any fee to us by credit card, you also agree to pay to us the then-current credit card processing fee charged by third-party credit card processors.
- c) Franchise Broker Fee. We may use the services of franchise brokers to identify Candidates who are potentially interested in becoming Franchisees. If a franchise broker generates a Candidate who becomes a Unit Franchisee in your Territory, you will pay a proportionate share (50%) of the Broker's fee. This fee will be deducted from any amount paid to you.
- d) Internal Sales Fee. If a staff or a designated agent of ours, our parent Loyalty, LLC, or any affiliate of ours (our "Internal Sales Team") assists you with the selling process for a Unit Franchisee who buys a unit within your Territory, you will pay us $5,000 per unit sold (the "Internal Sales Fee"). If that Unit Franchisee purchases multiple units, then the Internal Sales Fee will be 5,000 for each unit sold in your Territory. Assistance may come in various degrees, but will typically involve assistance in generating leads, developing leads, or closing qualified leads during the sales process. For example, you will always pay the Internal Sales Fee if we or our Internal Sales Team generate the lead or communicate directly with the lead prior to execution of a franchise agreement. This fee is paid by you and is not a shared expense.
- e) Renewal Fee. You must pay to us a $2,000 Renewal Fee to enter into a further Area Representative Agreement with us at the expiration of the term of this Agreement.
- f) Transfer Fee. You must pay us a $10,000 Transfer Fee if you wish to transfer ownership, or a majority of ownership interest, of your rights as an Area Representative.
- g) Third Party Charges. If we incur third party charges on your behalf, you agree to reimburse us for any such charges.
- h) Sales, Excise, or Gross Receipts Tax. You must reimburse us if we pay any tax on any fee related to your Area Representative Agreement.
- i) Late Fees. Payment for charges we bill to you is due within 30 days of billing and will be subject to a 12% per annum late fee, or the maximum allowed by law, if less.

4.3 Payment Terms. We will bill you by the 15th of the month as to fees incurred to us by you in the prior month. We reserve the right to deduct monies that you owe to us from Commissions that we pay to you and pay you the net amount owed to you, or charge you any net amount you may owe to us. You agree to execute an Automatic Bank Draft Authorization and that we may withdraw fees and other monies you owe to us pursuant to the Authorization from your bank account, and also electronically deposit monies owed to you in the same bank account.

5. COMMISSIONS TO AREA REPRESENTATIVE

We pay to you the following Commissions for your Services under this Agreement:

- a) Initial Franchise Fee. We will pay you 50% of the net Initial Fee (the “Initial Franchise Fee”) we receive from any individual or entity that buys a Unit Franchise with a designated area (each a “Unit Territory”) within the geographical boundaries of your Area Representative Territory during the Term. The split of the Initial Franchise Fee will be after reduction for any broker fees or referral fees incurred by us in connection with the transaction.

For example, if a $40,000 initial fee is paid to us by a Unit Franchisee and the Unit Franchisee was introduced to you or us by a broker with a $20,000 referral fee, the Net Initial Franchise Fee would be $20,000, and you would receive $10,000 (50% of the $20,000 Net Initial Franchise Fee).

Certain other fees as set forth in Section 4.2 of this Agreement are incurred solely by you and are not accounted for when calculating the Net Initial Franchise Fee. For example, if you used the Internal Sales Team provided by us, our parents, or an affiliate on the same deal described in this Section 5(a), then you would only receive $5,000, because the Internal Sales Fee is solely incurred by you ($10,000 minus the $5,000 Internal Sales Fee).

Finally, we are the sole determine of the price of the Initial Franchise Fee charged to and collected for each Unit Territory. We may discount or even waive the Initial Franchise Fee as part of our development efforts. You are not entitled to any Commissions for any discounted or waived amount.

- b) Franchise Royalties. We will pay you an amount equal to 50% of all ongoing royalties received by us, if any, from any ATAX Franchised Units located in your Territory. We will pay you all royalties for any Units in your Territory during the Term of your Agreements except for royalties which were already due and owing before the Effective Date of this Agreement.
- c) Demand for Payment. Except upon our prior written consent, you will not demand any payment due from a Franchisee of ours or any other person or entity to us. Further, we are the sole determiner of the amount of the fees imposed in each Unit Territory.
- d) Exclusions. We may, in our discretion, require a Unit Franchise to pay fees for other services, including, but not limited to, advertising fees, technology fees, CRM fees, transfer fees, and renewal fees. These fees are not subject to split with you.
- e) Pay When Paid. Fees paid to you will be paid only as funds are received. For example, in the case of a financed Initial Franchise Fee, the distribution would only be after the funds were actually received by us. You will be entitled to your share of the Initial Franchise Fees and royalties only with respect to amounts actually collected, and we will be entitled to take credits against previous payments to you to the extent that any payments from a Franchisee are subject to a subsequent refund, offset or other credit. Each payment of your share of Franchise Fees or royalties will be accompanied by information in sufficient detail to allow you to determine the basis on which your share of the Franchise Fees and royalties was calculated as well as deductions made for monies owed to us.

- f) Payment Terms. -We will pay you all Commissions that we owe you within four (4) weeks after the end of the month in which such Commissions were earned, less any amounts you owe to us. All Commission payments will be made via electronic transfer to a bank account you designate in writing, or by such other method as we may designate. You are entitled to your share of Initial Franchise Fees and royalties only with respect to amounts we actually collect. To the extent any payment from a Franchisee is subject to a subsequent refund, offset, or other credit, we may take a corresponding credit against prior or future Commission payments made to you. Each Commission payment will be accompanied by a statement in sufficient detail to allow you to verify the basis on which your share of Franchise Fees and royalties was calculated, including any deductions for amounts you owe to us.

- a) In-Term. You will not, during the Term of this Agreement, in the United States, directly or indirectly (i) recruit, search for, or solicit franchisees or prospective franchisees to engage in income tax preparation, except as to seeking ATAX franchisees under this Agreement, or (ii) aid or facilitate another person or entity (except our franchisees) in the provision of income tax preparation services.

16.3 Severability. If any covenant or provision of Section 16.1 is determined to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, it shall be deemed severed and removed from this Agreement and shall not affect or impair the validity of any other covenant or provision. Further, these obligations are considered independent of any other provision in this Agreement and the existence of any claim or cause of action by either party to this Agreement against the other, whether based upon this agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of these obligations.

17. STATUS OF PARTIES

17.1 Independent Contractor. This Agreement does not create a partnership, company, joint venture, or any other entity or similar legal relationship between the Parties, and no Party has a fiduciary duty, other special duty, or relationship with respect to the other Party. The Parties acknowledge that your relationship with us is that of an independent contractor.

18. GOODWILL

18.1 Maintenance of Goodwill. You will not disparage us or our current and former employees, agents, members, directors, or franchisees. During the term of this Agreement, you will not do any act harmful, prejudicial, or injurious to us.

You will indemnify, defend and hold us and our affiliates, officers, directors, members, partners, employees, and agents (the "Indemnified Parties") harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorney fees) which relate to or arise from your breach of any of your duties under this Agreement, except to the extent caused by our gross negligence or willful misconduct.

20. TRANSFER

20.1 Assignment by Us. We may assign this Agreement to an assignee who agrees to remain bound by its terms. We do not permit a sub-license of the Agreement.

20.2 Transfer by You. You may transfer your interest under this Agreement or your ownership in your Territory only if we approve, and you comply with the provisions in this Section 20. We shall not unreasonably withhold approval. No interest may be transferred unless and until you are in full compliance with this Agreement and current in all monies owed to us. If this Agreement is held by joint tenants or tenants in common, all joint tenants or tenants in common must join in any transfer of an ownership interest in this Agreement, except any person who is deceased or under a legal disability. You shall sign our then current transfer and release forms and pay to us the Transfer Fee specified in Section 4 above

20.3 Transfer to Controlled Entity. A "Controlled Entity" is an entity in which you are the beneficial owner of 100% of each class of voting ownership interest. A transfer to a "Controlled Entity" shall not trigger the Right of First Refusal. At the time of the desired transfer of interest to a Controlled Entity, you must notify us in writing of the name of the Controlled Entity and the name and address of each officer, director, shareholder, member, partner, or similar person and their respective ownership interest. Each such person of the Controlled Entity shall sign the then-current amendment and release forms and/or Area Representative Agreement as required by us. We do not charge a Transfer Fee for this change.

20.4 Transfer within an Entity. A transfer of interest within an Area Representative entity shall not trigger the Right of First Refusal if only the percentage ownership, rather than the identity of the owners, is changing. At the time of the desired transfer of interest within an entity, you must notify us in writing of the name and address of each officer, director, shareholder, member, partner or similar person and their respective ownership interest. Each such person of the Controlled Entity shall sign the then-current amendment and release forms or Area Representative Agreement as required by us. We do not charge a Transfer Fee for this change.

20.5 Right of First Refusal. If you have received and desire to accept a signed, bona fide offer to purchase or otherwise transfer the Area Representative Agreement or any interest in it, you shall grant us the option (the "Right of First Refusal") to purchase the Area Representative Territory as provided here:

- a) Within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the offer, you shall offer the Right of First Refusal to us by notice in writing, including a copy of the signed offer to purchase which you received (“Notice”). We shall have the right to purchase the Area Representative Territory or interest in the Area Representative Territory at and for the price and upon the terms set out in the Notice, except that we may substitute cash for any non-cash form of payment proposed (valued at fair market value as of the date of the Notice) and we shall have 60 days after the exercise of our Right of First Refusal to close the said purchase. Should we wish to exercise our Right of First Refusal, we will notify you in writing within 15 days from its receipt of the Notice. Upon the giving of such notice by us, there shall immediately arise between us and you, or your owners, a binding contract of purchase and sale at the price and upon the terms contained in the Notice.

- b) If we do not exercise our Rights of First Refusal, you may transfer the Area Representative Territory or ownership interest therein according to the terms set forth in the Notice, provided that you satisfy the conditions in Sections 20.2 and 20.6 below and complete the sale within 90 days from the day on which we received the Notice. If you do not conclude the proposed sale transaction within the 90-day period, the Right of First Refusal granted to us shall continue in full force and effect.

20.6 Transferee Requirements. The proposed transferee(s) must complete our then-current Area Representative application and pass our application screening using our then current qualifications; sign either, at our option, an assignment of the rights remaining in your Area Representative Agreement or our current Area Representative Agreement with the term adjusted to such length as remains on the term of your Area Representative Agreement; and attend and successfully complete Initial Training. In addition, as a condition of our approval of any transfer, you must execute a transfer agreement on a form acceptable to us, which shall include (i) a general release of all claims against us and our affiliates, officers, directors, members, employees, and agents arising prior to the effective date of the transfer, to the extent permitted by applicable law; and (ii) a post-transfer covenant not to compete for a period of two (2) years, consistent with the post-term non-competition obligations set forth in Section 16 of this Agreement.

21. DEATH OR INCAPACITY

In the event of your death or incapacity, you, or your estate, as the case may be, must actively begin the process to seek a transfer of your rights under this Agreement within 60 days and must complete the transfer within 6 months of your death or incapacity. If you or your estate fails in either respect, then we may terminate this Agreement. The new Area Representative must pay the Transfer Fee specified above, meet our qualifications, complete Initial Training, and enter into a new Area Representative Agreement. And we are entitled to reimbursement from you or your estate for any reasonable expenses incurred continuing Services from the date of your death or incapacity until transfer or termination. The term “incapacity” means a condition that prevents you from reasonably carrying out your duties under this Agreement.

22. MODIFICATION

No modifications to this Agreement will have any effect unless such modification is in writing and signed by you and by our authorized officer. We may, however, modify the provisions of the Manual, without your consent, as discussed in Paragraph 7.5.

23. NON-WAIVER OF BREACH

The failure of either Party to enforce any one or more of the terms or conditions of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such terms or conditions or of either party's rights thereafter to enforce each and every term and condition of this Agreement.

24. FULL UNDERSTANDING

This Agreement and all exhibits to this Agreement constitute the entire Agreement between the Parties and supersede any and all prior negotiations, understandings, representations, and agreements. Nothing in this or in any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the Franchise Disclosure Document that we furnished to you.

25. GOVERNING LAW

25.1 Choice of Law. This Agreement will be interpreted and construed under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, without regard to its conflict of laws principles, subject to the following exceptions: (a) federal law, including without limitation the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq., as it may be amended, governs all matters relating to trademarks, service marks, trade dress, unfair competition, and any other claims arising under federal intellectual property law; (b) the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, Virginia Code § 13.1-557 et seq., as it may be amended, along with any other Virginia laws regulating the offer or sale of franchises, business opportunities, or governing the franchisor-franchisee relationship, applies only if the Franchised Business is located in Virginia or the jurisdictional prerequisites of that Act are otherwise satisfied; and (c) if a particular provision of this Agreement is unenforceable under Virginia law and the Franchised Business is located outside of Virginia, that provision will be interpreted and construed under the laws of the state in which the Franchised Business is located.

25.2 Jurisdiction and Venue. Venue and jurisdiction for any Claims will be proper solely in arbitration before the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) in the city or county where our corporate headquarters are located, provided that, nothing in this clause shall bar us from seeking injunctive relief for claims which may cause irreparable harm including, but not limited to, the infringement of our trademarks or dissemination of confidential or customer information, in the state and federal court nearest to our corporate headquarters, presently located in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

25.3 Jury Waiver. In any trial between any of the Parties as to any Claims, you and we agree to waive our rights to a jury trial and instead have such action tried by a judge.

25.4 Class Action Waiver. You will bring any Claims, if at all, individually and you shall not join such Claim with Claims of any other person or entity or bring, join or participate in a class action against us.

25.5 Compensatory Damages. As to any Claims, you and we will waive our rights, if any, to seek or recover punitive damages.

25.6 Limitation of Actions. You will bring any Claims against us, if at all, within one (1) year of the occurrence of the facts giving rise to such Claims.

25.7 Prior Notice of Claims. As a condition precedent to commencing an action for a Claim, you must notify us within thirty (30) days after the occurrence of the violation or breach by providing written notice (“Notice”) to our Chief Executive Office (“CEO”) using either certified mail or overnight delivery through a common carrier like UPS or FedEx. The Notice must contain: (a) a description of the specific nature of the Claim; (b) all relevant facts; (c) all supporting evidence; and (d) either the specific dollar amount of damages or the action requested to resolve the matter, or both (“Cure”). Failure to timely give such notice shall preclude any Claim for damages. You will continue performance under this Agreement after you provide Notice of your Claim and will continue performance under this Agreement while the Claim is being resolved as described in this Agreement.

25.8 Internal Dispute Resolution. You must first bring any Claim to our CEO, after providing notice as set forth in Section 25.7 above. You must exhaust this internal dispute resolution procedure before you may bring your Claim before a third party.

25.9 Mediation. Before you may bring any Claim against us, you will try for a period of 60 days to mediate such Claim before a mutually agreed to mediator in the city or county where our headquarters are located. If we cannot mutually agree on a mediator, you and we will use the mediation services of the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) and split any AAA and mediator fees equally. The mediation will be conducted in accordance with the mediation rules of the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”).

25.10 Arbitration. If the Claim cannot be resolved through Mediation, then you must submit the Claim to arbitration with the AAA in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA then in effect. The proceedings will be held by a single arbitrator. You must include in your demand for arbitration an estimate for legal fees (“Budget”) necessary to establish liability and damages. The Budget will include the maximum number of: a) witnesses, b) experts and c) documents. The Arbitrator will evaluate the Budget for proportionality to the Cure. The Budget must be approved by the Arbitrator, before conducting any discovery, or hearings. The Arbitrator must approve any increases in the Budget. Each Party will bear their own costs, including attorney's fees and expert witness fees related to the resolution of the Claim, except as otherwise provided in Section 25.12 of this Agreement. Other than the filing fees, the cost of the Arbitrator will be shared equally among the Parties. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the Parties. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

25.11 Waiver of Bond. If we are forced to bring suit to enforce any provision of this Agreement, you waive any requirement that we post bond to obtain a temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunction to enforce these duties.

25.12 Attorney Fees. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, if we are the substantially prevailing Party as to any Claims, you will reimburse our costs and attorney fees incurred in pursuing or defending the Claims.

25.13 Third Party Beneficiaries. Our officers, directors, members, shareholders, agents, and employees are express third-party beneficiaries of the terms of the Governing Law provisions contained herein.

25.14 Survival. All of the covenants contained in this Agreement that may require performance after the termination or expirations of this Agreement will survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

25.15 Severability Clause. If any covenant or provision in this Agreement is determined to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, it shall be deemed severed and removed from this Agreement and shall not affect or impair the validity of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement.

26. RELEASE OF PRIOR CLAIMS

By executing this Agreement, the undersigned entity, if any, and individuals, on behalf of yourselves and your heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns, and each assignee of this Agreement, forever releases and discharges us, our past and present employees, agents, members, officers, and directors, including any of our parent, subsidiary and affiliated entities, their respective past and present employees, agents, members, officers, and directors, from any and all claims arising prior to the date of this Agreement. 28. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO THE AREA REPRESENTATIVE AGREEMENT

If any of the terms of the Area Representative Agreement are inconsistent with the terms below, the terms below control.

Sections 14.2 and 14.3 are deleted and in their place are substituted the following:

14.2 Termination by Us Without Right to Cure. We may terminate this Agreement without notice and the opportunity to cure for any of the following reasons:

(a) The Area Representative or the business to which the franchise relates has been judicially determined to be insolvent, all or a substantial part of the assets thereof are assigned to or for the benefit of any creditor, or the Area Representative admits his or her inability to pay his or her debts as they come due;

(b) The Area Representative abandons the franchise by failing to operate the business for five consecutive days during which the Area Representative is required to operate the business under the terms of the franchise, or any shorter period after which it is not unreasonable under the facts and circumstances for the franchisor to conclude that the Area Representative does not intend to continue to operate the franchise, unless such failure to operate is due to fire, flood, earthquake, or other similar causes beyond the Area Representative's control;

(c) The franchisor and Area Representative agree in writing to terminate the franchise;

(d) The Area Representative makes any material misrepresentations relating to the acquisition of the franchise business or the Area Representative engages in conduct which reflects materially and unfavorably upon the operation and reputation of the franchise business or system;

(f) The Area Representative, after curing any failure in accordance with Section 14.3 engages in the same noncompliance whether or not such noncompliance is corrected after notice;

(g) The Area Representative breaches the Area Representative agreement three or more times in a 12-month period, whether or not corrected after notice;

(h) The franchised business or business premises of the franchise are seized, taken over, or foreclosed by a government official in the exercise of his or her duties, or seized, taken over, or foreclosed by a creditor, lienholder, or lessor, provided that a final judgment against the Area Representative remains unsatisfied for 30 days (unless a supersedeas or other appeal bond has been filed); or a levy of execution has been made upon the license granted by the Area Developer Agreement or upon any property used in the franchised business, and it is not discharged within five days of such levy;

14.3 Termination by Us with Opportunity to Cure. We may terminate this Agreement, after sending you notice and a 60 day opportunity to cure, for any other breach of this Agreement.

The Area Representative Agreement is modified with the addition of the following language: “The Department of Financial Protection and Innovation requires that the franchisor defer the collection of all initial fees from California franchisees until the franchisor has completed all its pre-opening obligations and franchisee is open for business.”

If any of the terms of the Area Representative Agreement are inconsistent with the terms below, the terms below control.

1. Illinois law governs the Area Representative Agreement.
2. In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in an Area Representative Agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, an Area Representative Agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.
3. Franchisee rights upon termination and non-renewal are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.
4. In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation, or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.
5. The Area Representative Agreement is modified to also provide that we defer collection of all initial fees until we have satisfied our pre-opening obligations to you and you have commenced doing business under the Area Representative Agreement. MARYLAND ADDENDUM

If any of the terms of the Area Representative Agreement are inconsistent with the terms below, the terms below control.

1. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

2. This Area Representative Agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is an unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

3. A general release required as a condition of renewal, sale, and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. All representations requiring prospective Area Representatives to assent to a release, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. Based upon the franchisor's financial condition, the Maryland Securities Commissioner has required financial assurance. Therefore, all initial fees and payments owed by franchisees shall be deferred until the franchisor completes its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement.

MINNESOTA ADDENDUM
TO THE AREA REPRESENTATIVE AGREEMENT

If any of the terms of the Area Representative Agreement are inconsistent with the terms below, the terms below control.

- Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.21 and Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(J) prohibit the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Franchise Disclosure Document or agreement(s) can abrogate or reduce (1) any of the franchisee's rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C or (2) franchisee's rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.
- With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, the franchisor will comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.14, Subd. 3-5, which require (except in certain specified cases) (1) that a franchisee be given 90 days notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days notice for non-renewal of the franchise agreement and (2) that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.
- The franchisor will protect the franchisee's rights to use the trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes or other commercial symbols or indemnify the franchisee from any loss, costs or expenses arising out of any claim, suit or demand regarding the use of the name. Minnesota considers it unfair to not protect the franchisee's right to use the trademarks. Refer to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.12, Subd. 1(g).
- Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(D) prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release.
- The franchisee cannot consent to the franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. The franchisor may seek injunctive relief. See Minnesota Rules 2860.4400J. Also, a court will determine if a bond is required.
- The Limitations of Claims section must comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5.
- No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including, fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed with the franchise.
- Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(G) prohibits a franchisor from imposing on a franchisee by contract or rule, whether written or oral, any standard of conduct that is unreasonable

2. Any provision in the Area Representative Agreement restricting jurisdiction or venue to a forum outside of Rhode Island is void with respect to a claim otherwise enforceable under the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM
TO THE AREA REPRESENTATIVE AGREEMENT

As to franchises governed by the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, if any of the terms of the Area Representative Agreement are inconsistent with the terms below, the terms below control.

1. In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document is amended as follows:

Additional Disclosure: The following statements are added to Item 17.h.

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any ground for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

2. Item 5 of the Disclosure Document and Section 4 of the Franchise Agreement is modified to also provide:

The Virginia State Corporation Commission’s Division of Securities and Retail Franchising requires us to defer payment of the initial franchise fee and other initial payments owed by franchisees to the franchisor until the franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement.

3. The Disclosure Document and Franchise Agreement are modified to add:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Under subsection D of § 13.1-559 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, for all franchises located in Virginia, the franchise contract or agreement offered or entered into pursuant to terms of this chapter shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Under subdivision A 4 of § 13.1-563 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act (“Act”), it is unlawful to offer or enter into a franchise agreement that restricts the right of a franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail after termination or expiration of the franchise agreement. However, subsection B of § 13.1-563 of the Act provides that if a franchisee sells a franchise at a mutually agreed upon price to a third party or back to the franchisor, such sale may include a term restricting the right of such franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail for a period of no more than two years after such sale.

Washington Addendum to the Area Representative Agreement and All Related Agreements

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.
8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.
9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).
10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor.

As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Franchisor will defer collection of the initial franchise fee until the franchisor has fulfilled its initial pre-opening obligations to the franchisee and the franchisee is open for business.

20. Franchisor has been required to supplement Item 3 in Washington in furtherance of the objectives of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act. Accordingly, Franchisor makes the following additional disclosures related to its litigation history:

Asbestos Workers’ Philadelphia Pension Fund, derivatively on behalf of Liberty Tax, Inc., v. John Hewitt. Defendant, and Liberty Tax, Inc., Nominal Defendant, (Case No. 2017-0883), Erie County Employees Retirement. System, on behalf of Liberty Tax, Inc. v. John T. Hewitt. Defendant, and Liberty Tax, Inc. Nominal Defendant, Case No. 2017-0914, and RSL Senior Partners, LLC, derivatively and on behalf of Liberty Tax, Inc. v Brunot et al, (Case No. 2:18-cv-00127-HCM-DEM).

Description of the allegations of misconduct: It was alleged that John Hewitt (“Hewitt”) maintained romantic relationships with company employees and franchisees and gave them preferential treatment.

John Hewitt's post termination involvement: Hewitt was Chairman of the Board and CEO at liberty tax. Although he was terminated as CEO, Hewitt remained Chairman of the Board because he was the sole holder of the Class B common stock of Liberty. During a period of in-fighting, Hewitt replaced two of the directors of the board and another member resigned. The Chief Financial Officer also resigned. Ultimately, Hewitt reached an agreement to sell his ownership interest in Liberty and relinquish control of the Board. It was alleged that Hewitt continued to interact with franchisees and area representatives for Liberty during the transition. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Liberty oversaw the investigation of the allegations and the report prepared by the Audit Committee was not provided to Hewitt.

Description of KPMG's reasons for resigning as independent auditor: Liberty filed a Form 8-K on December 11, 2017 with the SEC to publicly disclose that KPMG's resignation was accepted and approved by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Liberty. The 8-K contains a description of the reasons provided by KPMG for his resignation. A copy of the 8-k is attached and incorporated into this Addendum by reference.

Item 4.01. Changes in Registrants Certifying Accountant.

On December 8, 2017, KPMG LLP ("KPMG") resigned as the independent registered public accounting firm of Liberty Tax, Inc. (the "Company"), effective immediately, and KPMG's resignation was accepted and approved by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). The Company is currently in the process of finding a successor independent registered public accounting firm in the hope that the Company's financial statements for the second quarter ended October 31, 2017 can be completed with as little delay as possible.

KPMG's reports on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended April 30, 2017 and April 30, 2016 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. In addition, there were no disagreements between the Company and KPMG on accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of KPMG, would have caused them to make reference to the disagreement in their reports for such periods, or any subsequent interim period preceding KPMG's resignation. The Company will authorize KPMG to respond fully to the inquiries of the successor independent registered public accounting firm, which has yet to be selected.

KPMG expressed to the Audit Committee and Company management its concern that the actions of former Chief Executive Officer John T. Hewitt, who remains the Chairman of the Board and controlling stockholder as the sole holder of the Company's outstanding Class B common stock, have created an inappropriate tone at the top which leads to ineffective entity level controls over the organization. Prior to the termination of Mr. Hewitt's employment as Chief Executive Officer of the Company on September 5, 2017, the Audit Committee oversaw an investigation of allegations of misconduct by Mr. Hewitt. In particular, KPMG noted that Mr. Hewitt took actions to replace two independent members of the Board around the time information relating to this investigation appeared in media reports. KPMG also noted that following the replacement by Mr. Hewitt of two Class B directors, the chair of the Audit Committee retired from the Board, the Company's Chief Financial Officer announced her intention to resign from the Company, and another independent member of the Board announced that he would not stand for reelection at the Company's next annual meeting. Further, KPMG was made aware that following his termination as Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Hewitt may have continued to interact with franchisees and area developers of the Company. Although Mr. Hewitt stated to KPMG during a meeting on November 9, 2017 that he would not reinsert himself into the management of the Company, in light of Mr. Hewitt's actions and his ability to control the Board as the sole holder of the Class B common stock, KPMG informed the Audit Committee and management that it has concerns regarding the Company's internal control over financial reporting as related to integrity and tone at the top and such matters should be evaluated as potential material weaknesses.

Specifically, KPMG informed the Audit Committee and management that Mr. Hewitt's past and continued involvement in the Company's business and operations, including his continued interactions with franchisees and area developers of the Company, has led it to no longer be able to rely on management's representations, and therefore has caused KPMG to be unwilling to be associated with the Company's consolidated financial statements. In notifying the Company of its resignation, KPMG advised the Audit Committee and management that it is not aware of any information that cause it to question the integrity of current management, but rather that the structural arrangement by which Mr. Hewitt controls the Company is the cause of KPMG's concerns. KPMG also noted that because certain information known to the Board regarding the reasons that the Board terminated Mr. Hewitt as Chief Executive Officer had not been disclosed to the current Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, KPMG was uncertain as to whether it could continue to rely on management's representations.

The Company has provided KPMG with a copy of the disclosures required by Item 304(a) of Regulation S-K contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K, and has requested that KPMG furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") stating whether it agrees with the statements made by the Company in this Current Report on Form 8-K and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A copy of KPMG's letter, dated December 11, 2017, confirming KPMG's agreement with these statements is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 11, 2017, the Company issued a press release announcing the resignation of KPMG as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and that the Company will delay the filing of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended October 31, 2017. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Forward Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which provides a "safe harbor" for such statements in certain circumstances. The forward-looking statements include statements or expectations regarding potential impacts of KPMG's resignation, ability and timing to complete the accounting review and audits, comprehensiveness of the Company's accounting review and ability to engage an independent accounting firm and related matters. These statements are based upon current expectations, estimates, projections, beliefs and assumptions of Company management, and there can be no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. Because forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties and speak only as of the date on which they are made, actual events or results could differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including but not limited to loss of key personnel or inability to engage accounting personnel as needed; inability to address the previously disclosed accounting matters; identification of additional material weaknesses or significant deficiencies; disagreements or additional reportable events that KPMG may identify in a letter addressed to the SEC pursuant to Item 304 of Regulation S-K; failure to engage an independent accounting firm, complete the audits and re-audits and file any required restatements and periodic reports; adverse effects resulting from the Company's common stock being delisted from the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC; risks relating to the substantial costs and diversion of personnel's attention and resources due to these matters and related litigation and other factors discussed in greater detail in the Company's filings with the SEC. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such statements and to consult the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and other SEC filings for additional risks and uncertainties that may apply to the Company's business and the ownership of the Company's securities. The Company's forward-looking statements are presented as of the date made, and the Company does not undertake any duty to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

Independent Auditor's Report

To Members of
ATAX, LLC
Virginia Beach, Virginia

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of ATAX, LLC (a limited liability company), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of operations, changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ATAX, LLC as of December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, and its results of operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of ATAX, LLC and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about ATAX, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of ATAX, LLC's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about ATAX, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The Schedules of Selling, General and Administrative Expenses is presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Activities

ATAX, LLC ("ATAX" or the "Company") is a limited liability company, organized by the Commonwealth of Virginia in 2019. The Company is primarily engaged in the business of franchising ATAX Tax Preparation and Business Services, which provides Latino tax services and related Hispanic support. The Company franchises the intellectual property, which are the basic attributes of the franchised operations.

A summary of the Company's significant accounting policies follows:

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Adoption of New Accounting Standard

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2025-05, Financial Instruments—Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses for Accounts Receivable and Contract Assets. This ASU introduces a practical expedient that allows entities to estimate expected credit losses on current accounts receivables and notes receivable using historical loss information, adjusted for current conditions, without requiring forecasts of future economic conditions. The Company elected to apply this practical expedient to all accounts receivables and notes receivable arising from revenue transactions within the scope of ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, that are due within one year or less. This election is consistent with the Company's historical experience and the short-term nature of these assets.

Additionally, as a non-public business entity, the Company elected the related accounting policy permitted under ASU 2025-05 to incorporate subsequent cash collections received after the balance sheet date when estimating expected credit losses. The Company considers cash collections through 45 days subsequent to period end in its evaluation. The adoption of this practical expedient did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company includes all highly liquid financial instruments which are not subject to withdrawal restrictions or penalties with a maturity of three months or less as cash and cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from balances outstanding at year end net of an allowance for credit losses. The Company determines past-due status of individual accounts receivable based on the original billing date. The Company estimates its allowance for credit losses based on a combination of factors, including the Company's knowledge of the current composition of receivables, historical losses, collections subsequent to year end through February 15, 2026, and current economic conditions. Accounts receivable that management believes to be ultimately not collectible are written off upon such determination. Based on management's assessment, the allowance for credit losses was $148,285, $109,417, and $90,812 as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively.

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Goodwill and Intangible Assets

Intangible assets consist of franchise contract rights, non-compete agreements, and trademarks. Intangible assets are amortized over the useful life of the respective asset using the straight-line method. All intangible assets are measured for impairment at each reporting period. Intangible assets considered impaired are written down to estimated fair value, which becomes the new carrying value.

Goodwill consists of the excess fair value of purchase considerations over the fair values of identifiable assets and liabilities. The Company follows the provisions of Accounting Standards, Intangibles - Goodwill and - Other (Topic 350): Accounting for Goodwill, which provides an alternative to accounting for goodwill for private companies. The alternative allows an entity to amortize goodwill over a period not to exceed 10 years. An entity that elects the alternative is also required to make an election to test goodwill for impairment at the entity level or the reporting unit level. Under the alternative, goodwill is tested for impairment only when a triggering event occurs or circumstances change that indicate that the fair value of the entity (or reporting unit) may be less than its carrying amount.

Revenue Recognition

The Company generates revenue from three primary sources: (1) franchise fees and area representative sales, (2) royalty fees generated from franchisees and (3) referral fees earned from vendors.

The Company offers Franchise Agreements and Area Representative Sales Agreements ("ARA") for the right to operate an ATAX outlet or to develop ATAX locations in a designated area. To license the use of the Company's brand, each franchisee enters into a franchise agreement or ARA that includes an initial license fee and monthly royalty and advertising fees based on a percentage of each franchisee's gross revenue. The Company recognizes revenue from the sale of the initial franchise and ARA licenses over time upon satisfaction of applicable performance obligations over the life of the agreement which is typically 10 years.

Monthly franchise royalties and monthly advertising fees pursuant to the franchise agreements, are recognized monthly at a point in time consistent with the period in which the franchisee sales are generated.

The Company also generates revenue for referring certain vendors to its franchisees. Referral fee revenue arrangements vary by vendor and the underlying revenues are generally earned at a point in time commensurate with when the franchisee enrolls with the vendor.

The Company has elected to apply the practical expedient to expense direct costs, such as sales commissions and associated personnel costs, as incurred when the expected amortization period is one year or less. Due to the nature of the Company's business, there is typically no significant variable consideration, such as discounts, allowances, and returns.

Initial franchise fees for the sale of the franchise license and ARAs received prior to the recognition of revenue are recorded as deferred revenue. Deferred revenue at December 31 are as follows:

	2025	2024	2023
Deferred initial franchise fees	$ 1,179,189	$ 1,225,459	$ 993,158
Deferred area representative fees	2,724,128	4,241,960	6,519,657
	$ 3,903,317	$ 5,467,419	$ 7,512,815

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Income Tax Status

For income tax purposes, the Company has elected to be taxed as a C Corporation by filing an Entity Classification Election (Form 8832). The Company accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method whereby deferred tax asset and liability account balances are determined based on temporary differences between the financial statements and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. A valuation allowance is established when management estimates that it is more likely than not that deferred tax assets will not be realized. Realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon future pretax earnings, the reversal of temporary differences between book and tax income, and the expected tax rates in future periods. The temporary difference relates to net operating losses. The deferred tax asset represents the future tax benefit of those differences.

The determination of current and deferred income taxes is a critical accounting estimate which is based on complex analyses of many factors including interpretation of federal and state income tax laws; the evaluation of uncertain tax positions; differences between the tax and financial reporting bases of assets and liabilities (temporary differences); estimates of amounts due or owed, such as the timing of reversal of temporary differences; and current financial accounting standards.

Additionally, there can be no assurance that estimates and interpretations used in determining income tax liabilities will not be challenged by federal and state taxing authorities. Actual results could differ significantly from the estimates and tax law interpretations used in determining the current and deferred income tax benefits.

It is the Company's policy to evaluate all tax positions to identify those that may be considered uncertain. All identified material tax positions will be assessed and measured by a more-likely-than-not threshold to determine if the benefit of any uncertain tax position should be recognized in the financial statements. Any changes in the amount of a tax position will be recognized in the period the change occurs. No material uncertain tax positions were identified for 2025, 2024, and 2023.

Advertising Costs

The Company expenses advertising costs as they are incurred. Total advertising expense for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023 were $458,219, $499,122, and $504,994, respectively.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through April 28, 2026, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
