What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit D.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted.

1. Out of State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with us by mediation, arbitration, and litigation only in Texas. Out-of-state arbitration, litigation, and mediation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost you more to sue, arbitrate, or mediate with us in Texas than in your own state.
2. Spousal Guarantee. Your spouse must sign a document, such as a guarantee, that makes your spouse liable for your financial obligations under the franchise agreement even if your spouse does not own any part of the franchise business. If you live in a community property state, your spouse may be liable for your financial obligations even if he or she hasn't signed anything. In either case, both you and your spouse's marital and personal assets, including your house, could be lost if your franchise fails.
3. Supplier Control. You must purchase all or nearly all of the inventory or supplies that are necessary to operate your business from the franchisor, its affiliates, or suppliers that the franchisor designates, at prices the franchisor or they set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchise business.
4. Financial Condition. The franchisor's financial condition, as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21), calls into question the franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

Our Parents, Predecessors and Affiliates

We have no parent or predecessor. Our affiliate OFFO, LLC, a Texas limited liability company formed on January 22, 2021, is a supplier of certain products for Feng Cha businesses. It maintains a principal business address at 412 N Bowser Rd, Richardson, TX 75081. Feng Cha businesses offer bubble tea blends, coffee and teas, smoothies, juices, cakes, desserts and other related products.

You will be required to sign our franchise agreement, which is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit B (the “Franchise Agreement”) for the right to operate one Feng Cha business at a location selected by you and accepted by us (the “Approved Location”). If we have not yet designated an Approved Location for the Feng Cha business when the Franchise Agreement is signed then you are responsible for locating a site within a specified geographic site selection area (the “Search Area”).

You will operate your Franchised Business under our unique system governing the establishment and operation of Feng Cha businesses (the “System”). The System includes the Proprietary Marks; IT platforms; recognized designs, decor and color schemes; distinctive specifications for furniture, fixtures, equipment, and wall, ceiling and display designs; know-how; training techniques; trade secrets; uniform specifications of products and services; menu items; proprietary products; recipes and ingredients; procedures for sanitation; food preparation techniques and storage; sales techniques and merchandising, marketing; advertising; inventory management systems; quality control procedures; and procedures for operation and management of System businesses. Your Feng Cha business must be open on the days and times we specify.

The “Proprietary Marks” include various trade names, trademarks, service marks, logos, and other indicia of origin, including the trademark “Feng Cha” or any other marks we have designated or may in the future designate for use in connection with the System.

Under a separate disclosure document, we used to offer franchises to qualified individuals to serve as our Area Representatives and solicit prospective franchisees for Feng Cha franchised businesses. Since November, 2016 , we have sold a limited number of area representative franchises. As of the date of this Disclosure Document, we have two Area Representatives.

Multi-Unit Developer Agreement

We offer a Multi-Unit Developer Agreement for the development of multiple Feng Cha businesses within a defined development area. Our form of Multi-Unit Developer Agreement is attached as Exhibit C to this Disclosure Document. Franchisees who wish to enter into our Multi-Unit Developer Agreement are required to open each Franchised Business in accordance with a development schedule. The Franchise Agreement for each Franchised Business developed under the Multi-Unit Developer Agreement will be the form of Franchise Agreement being offered by us generally at the time each Franchise Agreement is executed.

Market and Competition

The general market for bubble tea, tea drinks and other items sold at Feng Cha businesses is developing in the Unites States. The general market for food and beverages, however, is highly competitive and you will be competing with other businesses offering tea and coffee drinks and blended juice drinks, smoothies, snack and juice bars, and general food service establishments carrying similar products as an offering on their menus. National and local restaurants and coffee shops, both franchised and independent, also may offer tea, coffee, juice, and other drinks as additional menu items, and national and local supermarkets and other retailers may carry some of the same or similar product lines.

The market for bubble tea, tea drinks and other items sold at a Feng Cha business also may be affected by general economic conditions and may be more seasonal in some parts of the country.

Industry Regulations

The food service industry is heavily regulated. Your Franchised Business will be subject to various federal, state and local laws and regulations affecting the Franchised Business. You must investigate, keep informed of and comply with these laws. You must comply with all local, state and federal laws applicable to establishments handling food, including zoning, licensing, health, sanitation, safety, fire, insecticides, and use, storage and disposal of waste (including laws requiring recycling and regulating the use of certain types of containers and other materials potentially harmful to the environment). The operation of your Franchised Business may require a license for preparing and serving food on-premises.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and state and local health departments administer and enforce laws and regulations that govern food preparation and service and establishment of sanitary conditions. State and local agencies inspect foodservice establishments to ensure that they comply with these laws and regulations. Some state and local authorities have adopted, or are considering adopting, laws or regulations that could affect: the content or make-up of food served in restaurants, such as the level of trans fat contained in a food item; general requirements or restrictions on advertising containing false or misleading claims, or health and nutrient claims on menus or otherwise, such as “low calorie” or “fat free”; the posting of calorie and other nutritional information on menus; the use of polystyrene in packaging; the use of plastic carry out bags and the use of plastic straws.

The Federal Clean Air Act and various implementing state laws require certain state and local areas to meet national air quality standards limiting emissions of ozone, carbon monoxide and particulate matters, including caps on emissions from commercial food preparation. Some areas have also adopted or are considering proposals that would regulate indoor air quality.

Your Franchised Business will also be subject to other laws or regulations that are not specific to the industry, but apply to businesses generally, including the Americans with Disabilities Act and privacy laws.

You or your Operating Principal (if you are an entity) and your General Manager (and other employees as we may designate) must be ServSafe Manager Training certified (or another similar food safety training certification which we approve, at our discretion).

INITIAL FEES

Franchise Agreement

Initial Franchise Fee

You must pay us an initial franchise fee for the right to establish a single Feng Cha business under a franchise agreement in the amount of $30,000. You must pay the initial franchise fee in full when you sign the franchise agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, the initial franchise fee is imposed uniformly on all franchisees and is not refundable under any circumstances.

We may pay a referral fee in the amount of $10,000 to certain chambers of commerce who provide us with prospective franchisee leads that result in the signing of a Franchise Agreement. This referral program is administered in our sole discretion and may be changed or discontinued by us at any time. The amount of the referral fee is also subject to change at any time. Those who are eligible to participate in this referral program and who refer prospective franchisees are not acting as our agent and do not speak for us, despite the receipt of a referral fee. We do not control what these individuals say, and we cannot guarantee the accuracy of any statement made by them, to you or any other prospective franchisee.

Multi-Unit Developer Agreement

We offer qualified candidates the ability to open multiple Feng Cha stores pursuant to a Multi-Unit Developer Agreement. If you qualify to develop and operate multiple Feng Cha stores, you must pay to us a development fee. The development fee will be based on a percentage of the initial franchise fee. For purposes of calculation, the initial franchise fee utilized for the first location will be $30,000, the initial franchise fee utilized for the second location will be $25,000 and the initial franchise fee for each additional location will be $20,000, payable as follows:

For the development of 2 stores the development fee will be equal to 100% of the initial franchise fee for the first location and 50% of the initial franchise fee for the second location, totaling $42,500. The remaining 50% of the initial franchise fee for location 2 must be paid at the time the franchise agreement for location 2 is signed.

For the development of 3 stores the development fee will be equal to 100% of the initial franchise fee for the first location and 50% of the initial franchise fee for locations 2 and 3, totaling $52,500. The remaining 50% of the initial franchise fee for each of location 2 and location 3 must be paid at the time the respective franchise agreements for locations 2 and 3 are signed.

For the development of 4 or more locations, the development fee will increase by $10,000 per location. The remaining 50% of the initial franchise fee for each location (other than location 1) must be paid at the time each franchise agreement is signed.

The development fee must be paid in full when you sign the Multi-Unit Developer Agreement. The development fee is imposed uniformly on all Multi-Unit Developers, is fully earned by us when received and is not refundable. Each franchise agreement must be executed (and the balance of the initial franchise fee must be paid) at least 12 months prior to the expected date of opening as listed in the Development Schedule.

Initial Training Fee.

You will be required to participate in basic training, presently delivered through an online platform. Upon successful completion (with a 90% passing grade), you will be required to attend an in-person training at a location of our designation, anticipated to span at least six (6) days. Associated with this in-person training, you will pay us a $10,000 Initial Training Fee plus, our trainers' airfare or other transportation, lodging and meal costs in delivering the follow-up on-site support (estimated at 7 days) when your Franchised Business is under its soft opening.

Supplies and Inventory.

You will also pay for initial supplies, inventory and smallware that will be used in your Feng Cha business, including supplies and smallware used for the location and lobby. We require all such supplies, inventory and smallware to be purchased from us, or our affiliate, and the anticipated total cost, is generally around $18,600 to $24,600. Among the initial supplies, inventory, and equipment will be your fructose dispenser (sugar machine), smallware kit, and cup sealer machine, initial marketing materials (posters, interior signage, canvas and etc.) as well as your initial supply of tea, coffee, concentrates, and flavoring ingredients, as well as packaging materials, cups, and other merchandise bearing our logo.

Additionally, equipment such as appropriate refrigeration and freezer fixtures, a coffee and espresso machine, and other related items will be purchased from our affiliate, Offo, LLC. The anticipated cost for these items is $43,500-$69,300.

Tiles.

Franchisees may choose to purchase tiles for the store's build out from our affiliate Offo, LLC. We estimate the cost for tile purchases from our affiliate to be between $0-$12,000. The low end assumes that the tiles are being purchased from a third party vendor.

Inventory Management Software Setup Fee.

You will be required to pay a $50 setup fee for the use of our inventory management software. This amount is collected by us and is paid by us to the third party vendor as a pass through.

Gross Revenues expressly excludes customer refunds or adjustments. Gift cards or similar program payments are currently included in Gross Revenues when the gift card or applicable credit is purchased, not upon redemption, however we reserve our right to change this in the future.

The Royalty Fee will be withdrawn from your designated bank account by electronic funds transfer (“EFT”) monthly based on the Franchised Business’ Gross Revenues for the preceding month. If you do not report the Franchised Business’ Gross Revenues, we may debit your account for 120% of the last Royalty Fee that we debited. If the fees we debit are less than the fees you actually owe us, once we have been able to determine the true and correct Gross Revenues, we will debit your account for the balance on a day we specify. If the fees we debit are greater than the fees you actually owe us, we will credit the excess against the amount we otherwise would debit from your account during the next collection period.

If any state imposes a sales or other tax on the Royalty Fees, then we have the right to collect this tax from you.

(3) No Cooperatives have been established as of the date of this Disclosure Document. If established, our affiliate owned businesses may but will have no obligation to participate in any such advertising cooperatives.

(4) Our Area Representative may conduct the additional training and the refresher training program and seminars noted in this Item 6.

(5) You must maintain accurate business records, reports, accounts, books and data relating to the operation of your Franchised Business. We have the right to inspect and/or audit your business records during normal business hours. If any audit reveals that you have understated Gross Revenues by 2% or more, or if you have failed to submit complete reports and/or remittances for any 2 reporting periods within a 12 month period, or you do not make them available when requested, you must pay the reasonable cost of the audit, including the cost of auditors and attorneys, together with amounts due for royalty and other fees as a result of the understated Gross Revenues, including interest from the date when the Gross Revenues should have been reported or paid.

(6) If we terminate your Franchise Agreement for cause, or should you terminate the franchise agreement early, within 15 days after the effective date of termination, liquidated damages equal to the average monthly Royalty Fees you owed to us during the 12 months of operation preceding the effective date of termination (or your period of operation if less than 12 months) multiplied by: (a) 24 (being the number of months in two full years), or (b) the number of months remaining in the Agreement had it not been terminated, whichever is less.

(7) If we engage an attorney to collect any unpaid amounts (whether or not formal judicial proceedings are initiated), you must pay all reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and collection expenses incurred by us. If you are in breach or default of any non-monetary material obligation and we engage an attorney to enforce our rights (whether or not judicial proceedings are initiated), you must pay all reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and litigation expenses. If you institute any legal action to interpret or enforce the terms of the Franchise Agreement, and your claim in the action is denied or the action is dismissed, we may recover our reasonable attorneys' fees, and all other reasonable costs and expenses incurred in defending against the same.

You should anticipate the preceding initial expenditures in connection with the establishment of a FENG CHA franchised business. Additional factors related to each expenditure category are described in the following notes. None of the expenses listed in the above chart are refundable. We do not finance any portion of your initial investment.

Note *: Please note that all entries of these anticipated initial investment amounts reflect an estimate for the initial three months.

Note 1: The typical franchise will need approximately 1200-2,500 square feet of space. The cost of purchasing or leasing retail space varies with the location and size of the premises.

Note 2: You are required to have access to a reliable computer, telephone, internet services and reliable transportation.

Note 3: Supplies, equipment, software and inventory are required as outlined in the FENG CHA ShareDrive: myfengcha.com and a copy of an itemized projected supply and equipment list may be obtained from the Franchise Relationship Manager prior to execution of your Franchise Agreement.

Note 4: We estimate that the initial phase covered by the additional funds estimate to be approximately 3 months, with the estimated amounts ranging from 1 month at the low end of the estimates to 3 months at the high end of the estimates, based upon our supply order data. The predominant factors for calculating the 3-month estimates are amounts paid for your location, employee wages and inventory. A minimum of $10,000 to $40,000 of additional funds is strongly recommended. You should plan on other sources of income to cover your living expenses. We relied upon the experience of our franchised locations, and our general business knowledge when preparing these figures.

Note 5: No allowance has been made in this table for interest or other financing expenses related to opening the franchise. The need for this type of expense will vary with the terms of any financing you get in connection with your franchise. Financing sources may reduce your initial cash requirements, and the availability and terms of financing to any individual franchisee will depend upon factors including the availability of financing in general, your credit worthiness, the collateral security that you may have and policies of lending institutions concerning the type of business to be operated by you. The investment and expenditures required of actual franchisees may vary considerably from the projections outlined above, depending on many factors, including geographical area, the amount of space leased by you and the capabilities of any particular management and service team. If you are purchasing multiple franchises, you will incur the estimated initial expenditures for each franchise you operate.

You must pay all taxes required by local, state or federal laws related to the services furnished or used in connection with the operation of your franchise. You must obtain all permits, certificates or licenses necessary for the full and proper conduct of the franchise.

ITEM 8
RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Required Purchases

We, and our affiliates, have spent considerable time, effort and money to develop the System. We also anticipate that our System standards will change over time. You are required to adhere to these changes. System standards and specifications may regulate required signs, letterhead, business cards and other promotional materials, computer hardware and software, food, beverage and ingredient purchases, packaging, paper goods, insurance providers and coverage, types and models of authorized equipment and supplies to be used in operating the Franchised Business, and designation of approved suppliers and vendors of these items.

Your Franchised Business must conform to our high and uniform standards of quality, safety, cleanliness, appearance and service. Part of the appeal of the System is the quality and consistency of the products and services offered to customers. Accordingly, you must not purchase any fixtures, furnishings, equipment, décor items, signs, games, vending machines or other items that do not comply with our specifications, without our written consent. You must purchase all food and beverage products, paper products, furniture, fixtures, decorations, uniforms, equipment, merchandise, and items and products containing the Proprietary Marks and other specified items, exclusively in accordance with our standards and specifications that will be disclosed to you in the Operations Manual or otherwise. We reserve the right to require you to use our designated marketing agency.

You must purchase all advertising materials, equipment, supplies, specified merchandise, and kiosks from us or our approved suppliers to ensure uniformity and quality. Any equipment, products, inventory, or other items that bear the Proprietary Marks must be bought from us or an approved supplier. You must purchase all equipment, inventory, and all other items used in your franchised business from us or from approved suppliers to ensure the quality and uniformity of services in the System. We reserve the right to require you to purchase furniture and construction materials from us or our affiliate. Among the approved suppliers is our affiliate, OFFO LLC, who is the only approved supplier for ingredients, flavors, and certain equipment and packaging. None of our officers have an ownership interest in any other approved supplier. We are currently the only approved suppliers for advertising materials and equipment, products, inventory, and all other items that bear the FENG CHA name or logo.

We reserve the right to designate ourselves or our affiliates as the only approved supplier for any of the items noted above in the future. We reserve the right to earn a profit from the sale of items to our franchisees.

Those items for which we have neither designated nor approved suppliers must be purchased in accordance with our standards and specifications as described in the Operations Manual or otherwise. We have the right to modify specifications, standards, suppliers and approval criteria by providing you written notice. There is no limit on our right to do so. We will not permit you or another franchisee to be a supplier of any products or services to other System franchisees, unless we grant approval for same in writing.

We estimate that the current required purchases and leases described above in accordance with our standards and specifications and designated suppliers are approximately 60% to 90% of your overall purchases and leases to establish and operate the Franchised Business and approximately 70% to 90% of the ongoing purchases and leases.

It is recommended that you have at least 15 days' worth of products on hand. Otherwise, we do not require a specific level of inventory.

Approval of New Suppliers or Items

If we designate one or more exclusive suppliers for a particular good or service, you may not request to utilize an alternative supplier. However, if an exclusive supplier has not been designated and you desire to purchase any item from a supplier that is not on our approved supplier list, you must request approval of the item or supplier in writing and we will evaluate the supplier and/or item for approval. Although we are not contractually bound to evaluate any supplier or item within a definite time period, we will make a good faith effort to evaluate the supplier or item and to notify you of approval or disapproval within 30 days from the date we receive your written request. You must pay us our then-current fee for evaluating a supplier, product or item and must reimburse us for our reasonable costs of evaluation and/or testing the proposed supplier, product or item, regardless of whether we approve the supplier, product or item.

Before approving any supplier, product or item we may take into consideration: i) consistency of products and/or name brands, ii) economies of scale achieved by larger volumes, iii) delivery frequency and reliability, and iv) certain other benefits that a particular supplier may offer, such as new product development capability. When approving a supplier, product or item we take into consideration the System as a whole, which means that certain franchisees may pay higher prices than they could receive from another supplier that is not approved. We reserve the right to withhold approval for any reason. We do not release our standards and specifications or criteria for supplier approval to System franchisees.

You may not purchase any item from any supplier for which approval is required until you have first received written notification of our approval. Your request is considered denied unless and until you hear otherwise from us. We may withdraw our approval of a supplier at any time, in our sole discretion.

You must permit us or our agents, at any reasonable time, to remove a reasonable number of food or non- food samples from your Feng Cha business free of charge for testing by us or by an independent laboratory, to determine whether the samples meet our then-current standards and specifications. In addition to any other remedies we may have, we may require you to reimburse us for the cost of the inspection and testing if (i) a supplier being utilized is found to be one we have not previously approved; or (ii) any sample taken by us fails to conform to our specifications.

Revenues of Franchisor and Affiliates

We, and our affiliates, may derive income or revenue from franchisee purchases. We and/or our affiliates have the right to receive payments from any supplier, manufacturer, vendor or distributor to you or to other franchisees within our franchise system and to use these monies without restriction, and as we deem appropriate. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, we earned $39,059.20 in rebate revenue from approved suppliers based on their sales of products to System franchisees which was approximately 2.2% of our total revenue of $1,767,993.00. The revenue we receive from the rebates is based on different methods of calculation. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, we did not earn any revenue from the sale of products to our franchisees. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, our affiliate earned $4,844,404.80 from the sale of products to our franchisees.

Approved Location

We must pre-approve the location of your Feng Cha business and any applicable lease for the premises. Our approval of the lease will be conditioned upon your execution, and your landlord's execution, of the Collateral Assignment of Lease and Consent of Lessor attached as Exhibit 4 to the Franchise Agreement under which you, as the lessee, conditionally assign to us your rights under the lease. We reserve the right to reject any lease that does not have general business terms that meet our standards.

We will provide you with a sample layout and specifications for the Feng Cha business. You must hire an approved architect to prepare your plans and make any necessary changes to our standard layout and specifications. Before we approve your final architectural renderings, plans, and specifications for your Feng Cha business we must receive certification that the architectural renderings, plans, and specifications comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (the "ADA"), the architectural guidelines under the ADA, and all applicable state and local codes for accessible facilities. You must display a sign at all times that states "Independently owned and operated."

You must hire a general contractor to complete the build-out of your Feng Cha business. You must obtain certain items of machinery and equipment from sources we approve. Our approval of your equipment source will not in any way be our endorsement of your equipment source or render us liable for your equipment source's performance. You must obtain certain equipment for the opening of your Feng Cha business through vendors that we have approved.

Computer Purchase

You must purchase our specified computer system or an alternative system we approve and must purchase software and/or subscribe to any internet-based programs we require, as specified in the Operations Manual or otherwise. We reserve the right to designate ourselves or our affiliate as the sole supplier of required hardware, software or subscription services. We also reserve the right to designate other exclusive technology vendors.

You must accept all major credit cards for customer purchases. This requirement may require that you invest in additional equipment and that you incur fees from the credit card processing vendors that we designate.

You may be required to install a camera system in the Feng Cha Business and provide us with access if we request it. All of your employees must sign documentation acknowledging that they may be recorded and/or may be subject to monitoring and agreeing to same.

Advertising

All advertising and promotion of your Feng Cha business must conform to our specifications and standards and must be accepted by us in advance. You must submit to us, for our prior approval, at least 30 days in advance of placement deadlines, copies of all advertising and promotional materials, including but not limited to, business cards, signs, displays and mail outs. All advertising and promotional materials, signs, decorations, paper goods (including recipe cards, marketing boards and all forms and stationery used in the Feng Cha business) and other items we designate must bear the Proprietary Marks in the form, color, location and manner we prescribe.

You must comply with our rules, specifications, reporting requirements, and reimbursement procedures concerning the offer, sale, redemption, and accounting for gift certificates, gift cards and/or stored value cards.

You must participate in and comply with our rules, specifications, reporting requirements, and reimbursement procedures concerning any loyalty card program and other system-wide marketing programs.

Insurance Requirements

You must obtain and keep in force at a minimum the insurance we require in the Operations Manual or otherwise. The mandatory insurance currently includes the following:

- A. Comprehensive general liability insurance, including completed operations, property damage, contractual liability, independent contractors liability, and personal injury coverage with a combined single limit of at least $2,000,000 per occurrence and $4,000,000 aggregate.
- B. Workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance, and other insurance required by statute or rule of the state in which the franchise is located and operated.
- C. Business interruption and lost profit insurance
- D. Employment Practices liability insurance.
- E. You must obtain automobile liability insurance, including owned, non-owned, leased and hired vehicle coverage, with a combined single limit of at least $1,000,000 for death, personal injury and property damage for each vehicle designated for business use.

You may, after obtaining our written consent, elect to have reasonable deductibles under the coverage described above. All of the policies must include a waiver of subrogation in favor of all parties. The policies must contain certain clauses approved by us and waivers approved by us as outlined in the Operations Manual and must be "occurrence" coverage rather than "claims made" coverage.

If the lease for the Approved Location requires you to purchase additional insurance or insurance with higher limits than those we require, the lease insurance requirements will take precedence. All insurance policies must contain a separate endorsement naming us and our affiliates as additional insureds providing coverage at least as broad as ISO forms CG2033 and CG2029 or an equivalent endorsement (no blanket additional insured language is acceptable) and must be written by an insurance carrier accepted by us in writing with an A. M. Best and Standard and Poor's rating of at least "A" or better. You must provide us with all information requested by us to assist us in determining whether a carrier is acceptable. We may require that you obtain insurance from a carrier we designate. No insurance policy may be subject to cancellation, termination, non-renewal or material modification, except upon at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice from the insurance carrier to us. Upon request, you must provide us with a currently issued certificate of insurance evidencing coverage in conformity with our requirements. We may increase or otherwise modify the minimum insurance requirements and you must comply with any modification. We may obtain insurance coverage for your Franchised Business if you fail to do so, at your cost, plus our administrative fee for doing so.

If you will be engaging in any construction, renovation or build-out of the premises for the Feng Cha business, either you or your third-party contractor must have in force for the duration of said project, Commercial General Liability insurance and Worker's Compensation and Employer's Liability insurance in the amounts listed above as well as Builder's Risk insurance in an amount approved by us.

Purchasing or Distribution Cooperatives

We may negotiate purchase arrangements with some of our suppliers (including price terms and product allocations) for the benefit of System franchisees, but we are under no obligation to do so. There are currently no purchasing or distribution cooperatives related to the System.

Material Benefits

We do not provide material benefits to franchisees, such as renewal rights or ability to purchase additional franchises, based on your use of approved or designated sources.

If you are a Multi-Unit Developer, in addition to assigning you a Development Area, we will do the following:

2. We will provide you with standard specifications and layouts for building and furnishing the Franchised Business (Multi-Unit Developer Agreement – Section 5.1.4).

If we have not yet designated an Approved Location for the Franchised Business when the Franchise Agreement is signed then you are responsible for locating a site within a Search Area. The Search Area is delineated for the sole purpose of site selection and does not provide any territorial exclusivity or protection.

You must assume all costs, liabilities, expenses and responsibility for locating, obtaining and developing a site for the Franchised Business and for constructing and equipping the Franchised Business at the approved site. You will select the site for the Franchised Business subject to our approval and using our site selection criteria and any designated vendors we require. Before you lease or purchase the site for the Feng Cha business, you must locate a site that satisfies our site selection guidelines. Our approval only means that the site meets our minimum requirements for a Feng Cha business. We reserve the right to approve deviations from our site selection standards based on the individual factors and components of a particular site.

On-site evaluations will be performed as we deem necessary or in response to your reasonable request for site approval, in our discretion.

Site selection assistance by us does not relieve you of the primary obligation to locate a site within the time periods prescribed herein. Our criteria for site selection include, but are not limited to: location of the site and its setting (free-standing building, shopping center, downtown location, etc.); availability of parking; visibility from main roads; availability, size and placement of signage; co-tenants in the shopping center or immediate area; accessibility to the site; condition of the premises and how much build-out or construction it will need; proximity to competitive businesses; and availability of utilities. We will use these and other factors in determining the suitability of your proposed site for a Feng Cha business. Once the location for your Feng Cha business has been determined your Feng Cha business may not be relocated without our prior written consent. You must provide us with a copy of the lease for your Feng Cha business' location for review prior to execution. You must also provide an executed copy once signed.

There is no contractual limit on the time it takes us to approve or reject your proposed location, however we generally do not take more than 30 days from the time we receive the information requested by us, to approve or reject your proposed location. You must sign a lease for an Approved Location within six months from the signing the Franchise Agreement. We estimate that the time from when you sign the Franchise Agreement to the opening of the Franchised Business will be twelve months. This time depends on the time necessary to obtain financing, to obtain the permits and licenses for the construction and operation of the Feng Cha business, to complete construction or remodeling as it may be affected by weather conditions, shortages, delivery schedules and other similar factors, to complete the interior and exterior of the Feng Cha business, including decorating, purchasing and installing fixtures, equipment and signs, and to complete preparation for operating the Feng Cha business, including purchasing inventory and supplies. If you are unable to open the Feng Cha business within twelve months from signing the Franchise Agreement we have the right to terminate your Franchise Agreement without providing a refund of any portion of the initial franchise fee.

You may not open for business until: (i) you pay the initial franchise fee and other amounts due to us or our affiliate; (ii) we notify you in writing that your Franchised Business meets our standards and specifications; (iii) you and your General Manager have successfully completed initial training to our satisfaction and have obtained the required certifications; (iv) you have provided us with certificates of insurance for all required insurance policies; and (v) you have received our written approval.

Advertising Generally

All franchisees must participate in any customer rewards/loyalty program we establish and adhere to the guidelines we establish from time to time, as set forth in our Operations Manual. We may change the program in any way in our discretion and we may discontinue the program at any time. All Franchised Businesses will be required to honor the rewards any customer receives as part of being a member of the program, unless we state otherwise. Further, you must participate in and comply with all advertising and promotional campaigns and activities that we conduct, including our gift card program. You must honor all gift cards presented to you in conformance with our gift card policies then in effect.

Grand Opening Marketing Campaign

You must conduct a grand opening marketing campaign to promote the opening of your Feng Cha business, and you must spend between $4,000 to $6,000 for this campaign. This marketing campaign will begin after your soft opening and will continue until approximately 60 days post-opening, provided however, we may designate a different time period. We must approve your grand opening marketing campaign before it is conducted.

Brand Development Fund

We have established a brand development fund to be administered for the common benefit of System franchisees (the "Fund"). Under the Franchise Agreement, we have the right to require you to contribute 1% of your monthly Gross Revenues to the Fund which is currently required to be paid on the 5th day of each month, beginning when you begin making sales in connection with your Franchised Business. We reserve the right to change the pay day or frequency. We can increase the brand development fund payment to a maximum of 2% upon 30 days' notice to you.

Our affiliate-owned Feng Cha businesses will be required to contribute to the Fund. We have the sole right to determine contributions and expenditures from the Fund, or any other advertising program, and sole authority to determine the selection of the advertising materials and programs. We are not required, under the Franchise Agreement, to spend any amount of Fund contributions in the immediate vicinity of your store and not all System franchisees will benefit directly or on a pro rata basis from these expenditures. (Section 4.3.3.2 and 4.3.3.3 of the Franchise Agreement). We have the right to use Fund contributions, at our discretion, to meet any and all costs of maintaining, administering, directing, conducting, and preparing advertising, marketing, public relations, and/or promotional programs and materials, and any other activities which we believe will enhance the image of the System, including the costs of preparing and conducting radio, television, electronic and print advertising campaigns in any local, regional or national medium; utilizing networking sites and social media, such as Instagram, Facebook, X, TikTok, LinkedIn, Threads, YouTube, and online blogs and forums; creating and/or maintaining a presence in virtual worlds; developing, maintaining, and updating a World Wide Web or Internet site for the System; direct mail advertising; deploying social networking promotional initiatives through online media channels; marketing surveys; employing advertising and/or public relations agencies to provide assistance; purchasing promotional items; conducting and administering promotions and "mystery shopper" program(s) which may include call recording; implementation and use of Customer Relationship Management software and solutions; including the development and maintenance of application software designed to run on computers and other personal electronic devices and providing promotional and other marketing materials and services to the Feng Cha businesses operating under the System. Our decisions in all aspects related to the Fund will be final and binding. We may charge the Fund for the costs and overhead, if any, we incur in activities reasonably related to the creation, implementation and administration of the Fund and the advertising and marketing programs for franchisees. These costs and overhead include: (i) the cost of preparing advertising campaigns and other public relations activities, (ii) the cost of employing advertising agencies, including fees to have print or broadcast advertising placed by an agency and all other advertising agency fees, and (iii) the proportionate compensation of our employees who devote time and render services in the conduct, formulation, development and production of advertising, marketing and promotion programs or who administer the Fund. (Section 4.3.3.2 of the Franchise Agreement).

Although we anticipate that all Fund contributions will be spent in the fiscal year in which they are collected, any remaining amounts will be carried over for use during the next fiscal year. We do not owe you any fiduciary obligation for administering the Fund. The Fund may spend more or less than the total Fund annual contributions in a given fiscal year and may borrow funds to cover deficits. If we terminate the Fund, we may choose to spend the funds in accordance with our then-current marketing policies or distribute funds to franchisees on a pro-rata basis. There is no requirement that the Fund be audited. Upon your written request, we will provide you with un-audited fiscal year-end accountings of Fund expenditures. (Section 4.3.3.2 of the Franchise Agreement). We may incorporate the Fund or operate it through a separate entity if we deem appropriate and we may maintain contributions to the Fund in a separate bank account or hold them in our general account and account for them separately.

In our prior fiscal year, we received $216,624.41 in Fund contributions. $150,699.01 was spent by the Fund. Of the amount spent, 26.47% was spent on marketing agency services; 23.01% was spent on a graphic designer; 45.39% was spent on a loyalty system and 3.19% was spent on advertisements and 2.03% was spent on marketing materials.

Local Advertising to be used by the Fund or by you locally may be produced in-house or through an outside agency. (Section 4.3.3.2 of the Franchise Agreement).

We will benefit from contacts by new franchisee candidates through our Website, and our franchise opportunity information and application pages will be present within the site, however, we do not otherwise anticipate that any part of your contributions to the Fund will be used for advertising that is principally a solicitation for the sale of additional franchises, but we reserve the right to include a message or statement in any advertisement indicating that franchises are available for purchase and related information. (Section 4.3.3.3 of the Franchise Agreement). We also reserve the right to require you to place a “franchises available” sign (which signage will be provided by us) at a location we designate at your Franchised Business.

Local Advertising and Marketing

You must conduct local advertising geared towards your store and you must spend at least 1% of your monthly Gross Revenue on local advertising, in addition to your Fund contribution and amounts owed to any cooperative. We reserve the right to adjust this amount (not to exceed 2% of your Monthly Gross Revenue) as needed, upon 30 days advanced written notice. However, in the event you are in the bottom 25% of System average unit volume, as determined by our review of financial information, your required local advertising spend shall be 2% of your monthly Gross Revenue and shall remain as such unless and until we notify you otherwise. You must report your quarterly advertising expenditures to us by the 10th day after the end of each quarter, or at times, on forms, and in a manner we determine.

We must approve all promotional materials before you use them. You must not advertise or use our Proprietary Marks in any fashion on the Internet, World Wide Web or via other means of advertising through telecommunication without our express written consent.

You must provide any proposed promotional materials to us at least 30 days before placement deadline. We are not contractually obligated to accept or reject any materials submitted to us within the 30 days, but we will attempt to do so. You may not use the materials unless we give you approval in writing. Any materials you submit to us for our review will become our property, and there will be no restriction on our use or distribution of these materials. We reserve the right to require you to use our designated marketing agency.

We reserve the right to require you to include certain language in your local advertising, such as “Franchises Available” and/or “Each Franchise Location Independently Owned and Operated” and our website address and phone number.

Cooperative Marketing

If we establish an advertising cooperative within a geographically defined local or regional marketing area in which your Franchised Business is located, you must participate and abide by any rules and procedures the cooperative adopts and we approve. You will not have to participate in more than one advertising cooperative. Each cooperative will be organized for the exclusive purposes of administering marketing programs and developing promotional materials for use by the members in local advertising and marketing. You will contribute to your respective cooperative an amount determined by the cooperative, but not to exceed 2% of your monthly Gross Revenues, which is in addition to your local advertising requirement. We have the right to draft your bank account for the advertising cooperative contribution and to pass those funds on to your respective cooperative. Our affiliate owned businesses may, but will have no obligation to, participate in any such advertising cooperatives.

The cooperative members are responsible for the administration of their respective advertising cooperative, as stated in the bylaws that we approve. The bylaws and governing agreements will be made available for review by the cooperative's franchisee members. Each cooperative will maintain its own funds; however, we have the right to review the cooperative's finances, if we so choose. We may require a cooperative to prepare annual or periodic financial statements for our review. Your Franchised Business may not benefit directly or proportionately to its contribution to the cooperative.

We reserve the right to approve all of a cooperative's marketing programs and advertising materials and to approve all expenditures. On 30 days written notice to affected franchisees, we may terminate or suspend a cooperative's program or operations. We may form, change, dissolve or merge any advertising cooperative. Currently there are no cooperatives in the System.

Website

Posting on internet websites is considered "advertising" under the Franchise Agreement, and is subject (among other things) to our review and prior written approval. The term Website includes Internet and World Wide Web pages and encompasses social media sites and activities in virtual worlds. You may not establish a Website using or displaying any of the Proprietary Marks, and you may not advertise your Franchised Business or the sale of products or services offered by your Franchised Business on a Website, except as we permit. We may host and give you access to a separate web page for your Franchised Business on our website(s) ("Location Micro-Site"). Any electronic materials you propose to use must be approved in advance by us before publication to any site. (Section 4.3.4 of the Franchise Agreement).

Currently, customers will find your Location Micro-Site as a link on our System Website. You do not have any responsibility for designing or hosting the Website. However, if you are found to not be in compliance with the System or anything required under this Agreement you may be denied the benefits of your Location Micro-Site until the violation is corrected.

We will have the right to establish a Website or other electronic system providing private and secure communications between us, our franchisees, and other persons and entities that we decide are appropriate. If we require, you must establish and maintain access in the manner we designate.

We reserve the right to develop proprietary software or alternate sources to provide your Location Micro-Site hosting and/or other services. If we do so, we or our designee shall license the software to you and you must pay any fees associated as a result. You must comply with all standards and specifications prescribed by us in the Operations Manual.

We reserve the right to provide you password protected access to conduct all business related e-mail operations through your private portion of your Location Micro-Site. You may only use the Website and Internet presence provided by us. You may not use any other form of Website, URL or Internet advertising without our express permission.

Computer and Accounting System

We have the contractual right to develop a point of sale (POS) system and a backroom computer system for use in connection with the System. You must acquire computer hardware equipment, software, telecommunications infrastructure products, credit card processing equipment, security and support services we require in connection with the operation of your Franchised Business and all additions, substitutions and upgrades we specify. Your computer system must be able to send and receive email and attachments on the Internet and provide access to the World Wide Web and otherwise support our then-current information technology system. (Section 6.9.5 of the Franchise Agreement). We may provide you with a Feng Cha e-mail address. We own all Feng Cha e-mail addresses that you are permitted to use and have full access to all communications sent and received using those addresses. When conducting business with customers, vendors or suppliers of your Franchised Business via e-mail, you must use any Feng Cha e-mail address provided by us.

We will have the right to independently access information and data collected by the POS system or otherwise related to the operation of your Franchised Business. You must allow us to access the information remotely and we shall have the right to disclose the information and data contained therein to the System and/or third parties. There is no contractual limitation on our right to access this information and data. (Sections 6.9.5 of the Franchise Agreement).

Currently, you are required to use a designated point-of-sale provider and the kiosk order services we select for the System. You will pay such provider its standard fee for such license, which is currently approximately $320 per month. This monthly fee includes all required updates and upgrades to the system. It's also mandatory to use our designated app, at a fee of $129.00 per month, subject to change upon notice of the provider as well as our inventory management software which currently costs $19 per month in addition to a $50 setup fee. Your point-of-sale account's ownership will be maintained under Connect LLC. You may receive the administration right for your daily operation, but we will retain the ownership of the account.

We do not require that you engage any other third-party vendor to maintain your computer system. But if you do, after obtaining our prior written approval, any updates or upgrades will be at your expense. The cost of maintaining, updating or upgrading your computer system or its components in addition to the point-of-sale maintenance might range from nothing to as much as $2,000 in any year. It will depend on local costs of computer maintenance services in your area and technological developments that we cannot predict. We may also require upgrades in accordance with the terms of the franchise agreement. There is no limitation on the frequency or cost of such upgrades.

The cost of the required computer point of sale system and printer is approximately $1,000 to $3,000.

We may require you to use an information processing and communication system that is fully compatible with any program or system which we, in our sole discretion, may employ. If we require, you must record and transmit all financial information using this system and our designated ISP or other communication vendors. We may at our discretion change standards for reporting to provide effective technology for the entire system. We will have full ability to poll your data, system, and related information by means of direct access whether in person or remotely. We will have independent access to the information that will be generated and stored in your information processing and communication system. We will have access to all of your data and there will be no contractual limitation on our right to access your information or data. We will not implement any electronic system that will disrupt or damage your electronic system, and our access will be read only.

Other than our proprietary software referenced above, none of the hardware or software you are required to obtain is proprietary to us. Any hardware and software that is functionally equivalent and fully compatible to that listed may be used, except for your estimating software.

You must upgrade or update your computer equipment and software to comply with our current requirements within thirty days of a change in our requirements. There is no contractual limitation on the frequency or cost of required updates or upgrades. We reserve the right to adopt new technology at any time, which may result in additional fees to you that are not currently known.

*This includes “virtual” training.

“On-the-job” training hours may be converted to “classroom” training hours if we determine that in person training is not advisable due to health and safety reasons or otherwise in our discretion. In that case, remote training will be conducted.

We will give you an Initial Training and familiarization program (“Initial Training Program”) before the opening of your business. You will first complete an orientation, delivered via online portal (with a required 100% completion score). Then the in-person Initial Training will be held at our headquarters or a designated site over an estimated seven day period, subject to change. All your accommodations, travel, room, board, and wage expenses during this period are borne exclusively by you. Following the Initial Training, our trainer will deliver on-site training and support as you prepare for your opening and as your store holds a “soft” opening. The training program must be completed by the Franchisee (or Operating Principal) and General Manager, unless, at our reasonable discretion, based upon a franchisee’s experience, it is deemed unnecessary. The training must be completed, to our satisfaction, no later than 30 days before the date the Franchised Business begins operation.

The initial training program is designed to provide training in the operation and management of a Feng Cha business. We plan to conduct this training at our corporate headquarters in the Dallas, Texas area or at another location we designate, however, we may conduct portions of training virtually. There currently are no fixed (such as monthly or bi-monthly) training schedules. We will hold our training program on an “as needed” basis, depending on the number of franchisees and their employees needing training.

We will provide instructors and training materials for up to three trainees (consisting of the Franchisee (or Operating Principal) and General Manager), the cost of which is included in the Initial Training Fee. We may permit you to have additional owners or personnel trained by us for the Franchised Business, at your expense, for the then-current additional per person training fee (currently $500 per day) plus travel, lodging and meal expenses. You are responsible for all training related expenses including transportation to and from the training site, lodging and dining expenses. In addition, if your employees will receive a salary during training, you are solely responsible for paying their salary.

Any General Manager or Operating Principal subsequently designated by you must also receive and complete the initial training program. We may approve you to train replacement managers under our training program but you may not train any personnel until we have approved you as a trainer.

The instructional materials used in the initial training include our Operations Manual, marketing and promotion materials, supplemental resources and any other materials that we believe will be beneficial to our franchisees in the training process.

The instructors primarily conducting our initial training program will be Mr. Kaihui Li and Ms. LaQuanda McGeachy. Mr. Li has been serving as the corporate trainer for Feng Cha since 2021, bringing extensive experience in restaurant operations and management. Prior to joining the corporate team, Mr. Li managed a Feng Cha store for three years. Ms. McGeachy has been serving as a corporate trainer since 2025 and has been involved in the corporate training space for over three years. Ms. McGeachy brings experience in operations and management.

We may delegate initial training and orientation to be conducted by our Area Representative, Ms. Jin has served as our Area Representative since June, 2020 and currently operates three Feng Cha franchised businesses.

If, during the term of your Franchise Agreement, you request that we provide additional training or assistance on-site at your Approved Location, or if we determine it is necessary, you must pay our then-current fee (currently $500 per person, per day) and you must reimburse us for any expenses our trainers incur, such as costs of travel, lodging, and meals. Remote training may be substituted for in person training, at our discretion. If remedial training will be provided off-site you must pay the per person daily fee plus travel, lodging, meals and wages for you and your attendees. Additional training and/or consultation may also be conducted by our Area Representative, at our discretion.

We may also choose to hold continuing education seminars and refresher training courses, and we may designate that attendance is mandatory for you, your Operating Principal, General Manager and/or other personnel. We may charge our then-current fee (currently $500 per person, per day) and you must pay for all of the expenses incurred by your trainees, including travel, lodging, meals and wages. You are required to attend all franchisee meetings and continuing education held at our corporate office or elsewhere as we determine.

The entire training program is subject to change due to updates in materials, methods, manuals and personnel without notice to you. The subjects and time periods allocated to the subjects actually taught to a specific franchisee and its personnel may vary based on the individual needs and/or experience of those persons being trained.

We may choose to hold an annual conference of our franchisees to provide additional training, introduce new products or changes to the System, or for other reasons. We may designate that attendance at an annual conference is mandatory for you, your Operating Principal, your General Manager and/or other personnel. We do not expect that any conference will last longer than four days.

In addition, you, your General Managers and any other personnel we designate must complete ServSafe Manager Training (or a similar certification program approved by us). The cost of this certification is not included in the initial franchise fee and we do not provide certification. You may need to receive periodic additional training and/or certification.

You must hire all employees of your Franchised Business and are responsible for the terms of their work, training, compensation, management, promotions, terminations, and oversight. You must communicate clearly with your employees in your employment agreements, employee manuals, human resources materials, written and electronic correspondence, pay checks and other materials that you (and only you) are their employer.

Confidential Franchise Operations Manual

The Table of Contents for our Operations Manual is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit G. Our Operations Manual contains approximately 123 pages.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

You will not receive an exclusive Territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

The Franchise Agreement grants you the right to operate one Feng Cha business at the Approved Location identified in the Franchise Agreement or subsequently identified and mutually acceptable to both you and us. You must locate an Approved Location within the non-exclusive Search Area that we specify. The Approved Location will be added to the Franchise Agreement once we approve it and you secure it. Your Search Area is not exclusive and is only intended to give you a general indication of the area within which you may locate the site for the Approved Location.

If the lease term is shorter than the term of the Franchise Agreement and the lease cannot be renewed or extended, or you cannot continue for any other reason to occupy the premises of the Feng Cha business, you must relocate your Feng Cha business to a site mutually acceptable to you and us in order to complete the balance of the term of the Franchise Agreement. You must give us notice of your intent to relocate, must pay the relocation fee, must procure a site acceptable to us within 60 days after closing the prior Feng Cha business location, and must re-open the Feng Cha business within 180 days of closing the previous one. We may or may not agree to such relocation based upon various criteria including, but not limited to: area demographics, estimated market demand and proximity to other System businesses. If you fail to comply with the relocation requirements, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

The continuation of your right to operate the Feng Cha business is not dependent upon achieving a certain sales volume, market penetration or other contingency.

You have no right to distribute any services or products offered in the Feng Cha business through any alternate channels of distribution such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing or other mail order devices. We and/or our affiliates retain the right to use and to license others to use the System for the operation and licensing of other Feng Cha businesses at any locations regardless of the proximity to your Feng Cha business.

We and our affiliates are under no obligation to pay you any compensation for selling similar products or services through other channels of distribution under the same and/or different proprietary marks anywhere. We or our affiliates will fulfill all orders placed through the retail portion of our Website and you will not be entitled to any portion of the profits received from this.

You are unrestricted as to the geographic area from which you may accept business as a System franchisee. Except as we otherwise approve, you may not take part in any sales from a location other than the premises of the Franchised Business. You are not permitted to conduct off-site services without our prior written consent. Consent may be revoked at any time. We currently allow franchisees to provide catering and delivery services regardless of where the order originates (as long as the product is fresh at the time of delivery), though we reserve the right to change this in the future.

We do not offer you a protected Territory. Your Territory will consist of the Approved Location only.

You are not entitled to any automatic option, right of first refusal or any similar right to acquire additional franchises, but we reserve the right to offer franchisees such rights, in our discretion.

Multi-Unit Developer Agreement

If you enter into a Multi-Unit Developer Agreement, we will define a Development Area within which you will have the right to locate and secure the Approved Location for each Franchised Business you must open under your Development Schedule. The size of the Development Area will likely vary among new prospects and developers, with the size of your Development Area typically depending on the demographics of the area in and around the region you wish to develop.

We typically identify your Development Area early during the franchise due diligence and offer process, based on where you tell us you wish to operate, and the agreed-to geographic description is inserted into your Multi-Unit Developer Agreement before you sign it. The Development Area may not be modified at any time during the term of the Multi-Unit Developer Agreement unless the parties mutually agree to the modification in a separate signed writing. Typically, your Development Area will be all or part of a Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA). You maintain your rights to your Development Area, even if the population increases.

Your Development Schedule will depend on the number of Franchised Businesses you acquire the rights to develop in your Multi-Unit Developer Agreement. If you enter into an agreement granting you the rights to develop three units, your Development Schedule will typically be as follows:

Number of Businesses to be Opened	Initial Franchise Fee Owed and Franchise Agreement Signing Deadline	Business to be Opened By (Date)	Number of Businesses to be Open and Operating by Opening Date (in previous column)
1	12 months prior to expected "Opened By" Date	12 months from Effective Date of Development Agreement	1
1	12 months prior to expected "Opened By" Date	18 months from Effective Date of Development Agreement	2
1	12 months prior to expected "Opened By" Date	24 months from Effective Date of Development Agreement	3

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we control, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Upon completion of your Development Area in the Multi-Unit Developer Agreement, your rights to develop Franchised Businesses within the Development Area will end and you will have no further rights in the Development Area.

We and/or our affiliate or predecessor reserve all other rights with respect to your Development Area, which include but are not limited to:

- (i) in connection with a merger or acquisition, the right to own, operate, franchise or license businesses operating under names other than those identified by the Proprietary Marks, regardless of whether or not these other concepts offer products and services similar to or competitive with those to be offered by your Franchised Businesses and regardless of location, and the right to convert those locations to Feng Cha businesses;
- (ii) the right to be acquired by (or merge or become affiliated with) any other business operating under names other than the Proprietary Marks, including a competing business, with locations anywhere, which may result in the required conversion of franchised businesses;

- (iii) the right to establish and operate, and allow others to establish and operate, businesses that may offer products and services which are identical or similar to products and services offered by Feng Cha businesses, under other trade names, trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols different from the Proprietary Marks; and
- (iv) the right to distribute products and services in alternative channels of distribution both within and outside the Development Area, (which alternative channels of distribution include but are not limited to: sales of services and products at or through mail order, catalog, telemarketing, direct mail marketing or via the internet, and any similar outlets or distribution methods).

You are not granted any right of first refusal to obtain additional development rights.

TRADEMARKS

Under the Franchise Agreement, we grant to you the right to use certain trademarks, service marks and other commercial symbols in connection with the operation of your franchise (the “Proprietary Marks”). The Multi-Unit Developer Agreement does not grant you the right to use these Proprietary Marks or the System. Our primary service marks are listed below. Our affiliate, FC USA, LLC, is the owner of the following marks which are registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”) on the Principal Register. FC USA, LLC intends to renew the registrations and to file all appropriate affidavits. You may not sublicense these Proprietary Marks without our written permission. This list may not be an exhaustive list of all marks owned by us or our affiliate.

Mark	Registration Number	Registration Date	Classes
FENG CHA (design mark)	5514563	July 10, 2018	IC 043
FENG CHA (design mark)	6296253	March 16, 2021	IC 030

Unregistered Marks:

(design mark)

We do not have a federal registration for all of our Proprietary Marks. Therefore, unregistered or pending Proprietary Marks do not have as many legal benefits and rights as federally registered trademarks. If our right to use these Proprietary Marks is challenged, upon our discretion, you may have to change to an alternative trademark, which may increase your expenses.

We own and claim common law trademark rights in the trade dress used in your Feng Cha Business. Our common law trademark rights and trade dress are also included as part of the Proprietary Marks. You cannot contest, directly or indirectly, our and/or our affiliate’s ownership of the Proprietary Marks.

There are no currently effective determinations of the USPTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the trademark administrator of any state, or any court involving the Proprietary Marks, nor any pending infringement, opposition, or cancellation proceedings or material litigation involving the Proprietary Marks.

Our right to the registered Proprietary Marks is derived from a license agreement dated January 2, 2026 (the “Intercompany License”) between us and FC USA, LLC. The Intercompany License grants us the right to use the Proprietary Marks for the purpose of licensing them to our franchisees and fulfilling our obligations under the Franchise Agreement. The Intercompany License runs for thirty (30) years and automatically renews for an unlimited number of terms of twenty (20) years each, unless either party notifies the other party in writing that it does not intend to renew for an additional term at least one hundred eighty (180) days before the end of the then-current term. This Agreement may be terminated by written consent of both parties or for material uncured breach. Other than the Intercompany License there are no agreements currently in effect that significantly limit our right to use or license the use of the Proprietary Marks in any manner material to the franchise. We are not aware of any superior rights that could affect your use of the Proprietary Marks.

Your rights to the Proprietary Marks are derived solely from your Franchise Agreement. You may have the right to potentially use future trademarks, service marks and logos that we may subsequently license to you. You will only use the Proprietary Marks as we authorize. In using the Proprietary Marks, you must strictly follow our rules, standards, specifications, requirements and instructions which may be modified by us in our discretion. All goodwill associated with the Proprietary Marks remains our and our affiliate’s exclusive property. You may not use the Proprietary Marks with any unauthorized product or service or in any way not explicitly authorized by the Franchise Agreement. When your Franchise Agreement expires or terminates, all rights for you to use the Proprietary Marks shall cease and you shall not maintain any rights to use any Proprietary Marks. You may not use any other marks, names, commercial symbols or logo type other than those listed above in offering services to the public in connection with your Feng Cha business.

You cannot use the Proprietary Marks (or any variation of the Proprietary Marks) as part of a corporate name, domain name, homepage, email address or on any website or with modifying words, designs or symbols. There are no currently effective determinations of the USPTO, the United States Copyright Office or any court, nor any pending litigation or other proceedings, regarding any copyrighted materials. We do not know of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of our copyrighted materials. We are not required by any agreement to protect or defend copyrights or to defend you against claims arising from your use of patented or copyrighted items or to participate in your defense or indemnify you.

Confidential Operations Manual

You must operate your Franchised Business according to the strict standards, methods, policies and procedures specified in the Operations Manual. The Operations Manual is our sole, exclusive and confidential property which we reveal to you in confidence and may only be used by you as provided in the Franchise Agreement. We may revise the contents of the Operations Manual and you must comply with each new or changed standard, at your own expense. You must make sure that the Operations Manual is kept current at all times. If there is any dispute as to the contents of the Operations Manual, the terms of the master copy maintained by us at our corporate office will be controlling. We may provide you with a hard copy of the Operations Manual or make our Operations Manual available electronically. You must take all necessary precautions to protect the security of all physical and electronic copies of the Operations Manual.

Confidential and Proprietary Information

Any and all information, knowledge, know-how, techniques and data which we designate as confidential will be deemed confidential for purposes of your Franchise Agreement. Examples of confidential information include, without limitation: (1) site selection, construction plans and design specifications; (2) methods, formats, specifications, standards, systems, procedures, pricing and cost data, sales and marketing techniques; (3) recipes, formulas, ingredients and food preparation techniques; (4) knowledge of specifications for and suppliers of, and methods of ordering, certain products, ingredients, materials, equipment and supplies; (5) knowledge of the operating results and financial performance of other Feng Cha businesses; (6) the Operations Manual; (7) training materials and programs; (8) customer data; (9) all password protected portions of our Website, intranets and extranets and the information they contain (including the email addresses of our franchisees); and (10) specifics regarding the inner workings of computer software, applications or other technology used by our System.

The Franchise Agreement provides that you acknowledge that your knowledge of the operation of the Feng Cha System, including the specifications, standards and operating procedures of the System, is derived from information we disclose to you and that all this information is confidential and our trade secrets. You must require your owners, officers, directors, managers and any of their spouses to sign a personal Guaranty, which binds them to the confidentiality provision in the Franchise Agreement. You must inform your employees and others having access to confidential information of the obligation to maintain the information in confidence and subject to applicable law. All employees must sign a Confidentiality Agreement in a form satisfactory to us, giving us the right to enforce the agreement as a third-party beneficiary. All executed agreements must be forwarded to us to ensure compliance. You are responsible for assuring, before any person leaves your employment, such person returns to you all documents and materials containing our trade secrets and confidential information.

All data that you collect from customers of the Feng Cha business or through marketing is deemed to be owned exclusively by us and/or our affiliates. You must install and maintain security measures and devices necessary to protect the customer data from unauthorized access or disclosure, and you may not sell or disclose to anyone else any personal or aggregated information concerning any customers. You have the right to use the customer data only in connection with your Franchised Business, while the Franchise Agreement is in effect. If you transfer the Franchised Business to a new owner, who will continue to operate it under an agreement with us, you may transfer the customer data to the new owner as part of the going concern value of the business.

All new products, items, services and other developments, whether they be of our original design or variations of existing services or techniques, or your original design or variations of existing services or techniques, and whether created by or for you or an employee will be deemed a work made for hire and we will own all rights in them. If they do not qualify as works made for hire, you must assign ownership to us under the Franchise Agreement. You will not receive any payment, adjustment or other compensation in connection with any new products, items, services or developments.

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISED BUSINESS

You (or, if you are an entity, your Operating Principal) must personally participate in the operation of your Franchised Business. The Operating Principal must be an equity owner in the Franchised Business (in an amount of at least 10%) and have the authority to bind you in all operational decisions regarding the franchise. We will have the right to rely on any statement, agreement or representation made by the Operating Principal. You may not change the Operating Principal without our prior written approval.

If you (or your affiliate) operate more than one Feng Cha Business, you will need a full-time General Manager to be responsible for the direct on-premises supervision of each Feng Cha Business at all times during the hours of operation as required by us. However, you are still responsible for the operations of your Feng Cha Business. At all times, you will keep us advised of the identity of your General Manager. If your General Manager's employment terminates for any reason, you must engage a suitable replacement as soon as possible, but in no event more than 60 days from the date of termination and you must provide suitable coverage in the interim. Your General Manager need not have any equity interest in the Franchised Business. You may disclose to your General Manager only the information needed to operate your Feng Cha business and the General Manager must be advised that any confidential information is our trade secret.

Both the franchisee (in the case of an individual), your Operating Principal (in the case of an entity) and the General Manager must attend and satisfactorily complete our initial training program.

All of your employees must execute the Confidentiality Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit 5 to the Franchise Agreement. If you are a legal entity, each of the following individuals must sign the Guaranty to our Franchise Agreement: (i) each of your shareholders if you are a corporation; (ii) each of your partners if you are a general partnership; or (iii) each of your members and managers if you are a limited liability company. Spouses of the aforementioned are also required to sign the Guaranty.

If we determine in our sole judgment that the operation of your business is in jeopardy, or if a default occurs, then in order to prevent an interruption in operation of the Franchised Business, we may operate your business for as long as we deem necessary and practical. In our sole judgment, we may deem you incapable of operating the Franchised Business if, without limitation, you are absent or incapacitated by reason of illness or death; you have failed to make payments when due or have failed to remove any and all liens or encumbrances of every kind placed upon or against your business; or we determine that operational problems require that we operate your Franchised Business for a period of time that we determine, in our sole discretion, to be necessary to maintain the operation of the business as a going concern. We shall keep in a separate account all monies generated by the operation of your Feng Cha business, less our management fee and our expenses, including reasonable compensation and expenses for our representatives. You must hold us and our representatives harmless from and against all actions occurring during the course of such temporary operation. You must pay all of our reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred. All royalty fees and other fees due under the Franchise Agreement shall remain payable during our period of operation and shall be paid out of the revenues from the Franchised Business.

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You may only offer or sell products and services that are approved by us and must offer for sale certain products and services as designated by us. We may add, delete or alter approved products or services that you are required or allowed to offer in our sole discretion. There are no limits on our right to do so. You must discontinue selling and offering any products, services or items that we, in our sole discretion, disapprove in writing at any time. You may not conduct any other business or activity at the premises of the Feng Cha business without our written permission. You are not permitted to rent out the premises of the Feng Cha business or host any events at your Feng Cha business, which are not affiliated with Feng Cha and approved by us. You may only sell products at retail and may not engage in the wholesale or distribution of any product.

You must prepare all food items with our recipes and procedures for preparation contained in the Operations Manual or other written instructions, including the measurements of ingredients, and you must not deviate from our standards and specifications by the use or offer of non-conforming items or differing amounts of any item without first obtaining our written consent.

On a case-by-case basis, we may allow you or other franchisees to offer additional services, products or programs that are not otherwise part of the Feng Cha System. We will decide which franchisees can offer additional services and products based on test marketing, the franchisees' qualifications and operational history, differences in regional or local markets and other factors.

You may not create unapproved gift certificates or gift cards, and cannot create unapproved rewards or loyalty programs. Your Feng Cha business cannot offer free products or services unless approved by us. We may regulate procedures for online/electronic orders and registration, and we have the right to set restrictions on the pricing and sizes of all products that are sold or distributed.

We require you to limit your business to the operation of the Feng Cha business. If you are an entity, you must be a single purpose entity and you cannot operate any other business or sell any products or services, other than those approved in connection with your Feng Cha business, using your entity name.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members
Cannect LLC
Richardson, Texas

Report on the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Cannect LLC (the "Company"), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 and the related statements of operations, changes in members' deficit, and cash flows for the years then ended and related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 and the results of its operations, changes in members' deficit and cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year from the date the financial statements are issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used, and the reasonableness of, significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control–related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Organization and OperationsDescription of Business

Cannect LLC, a Texas limited liability company, was formed on November 9, 2016 and is located in Richardson, Texas. References in these financial statement footnotes to “Company”, “we”, “us”, and “our” refer to the business of Cannect LLC.

The Company is in the business of granting franchises for the establishment and operation of Feng Cha businesses offering bubble tea blends, coffee and teas, smoothies, juices, cakes, desserts and other related products, under the trademark “Feng Cha”.

During the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company owned the Feng Cha trademarks and other intellectual property. In April 2025, pursuant to an assignment and contribution agreement, the Company assigned the Feng Cha trademarks and other intellectual property to its affiliate, FC USA, LLC (“FC USA”). On April 30, 2025, subsequent to the assignment, the Company entered into a Trademark License Agreement (the “License”) with FC USA in which the Company licensed the Feng Cha trademarks and other intellectual property. The License grants the Company the right to use the Feng Cha trademarks and other intellectual property for the purpose of licensing them to franchisees of the Company in the United States for an initial period of thirty years. The License may be renewed for an unlimited number of terms of twenty years each, unless either party notifies the other party that it does not intend to renew for an additional term of at least one hundred and eighty days before the end of the then current term.

The Company is a limited liability company, and therefore, the members are not liable for the debts, obligations or other liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, unless the members have signed a specific guarantee.

Going Concern

Management has evaluated our ability to continue as a going concern as of December 31, 2025. Due to the liquidity position of the Company at December 31, 2025, we have concluded that there is not significant doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. Significant Accounting PoliciesBasis of Accounting

The Company uses the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("U.S. GAAP"). Under this method, revenue is recognized when earned and expenses are recognized as incurred.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements and accompanying notes in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reported period. Estimates are used for the following, among others: revenue recognition, useful lives for amortization of long-live assets, deferred costs and deferred revenue. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Company's financial instruments consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents, unbilled revenue, other receivables, and accrued expenses. The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, unbilled revenue, other receivables, and accrued expenses are considered to be representative of their respective fair values due to the short-term nature of these instruments.

Assets and liabilities that are carried at fair value are classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

Level 1: Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2: Observable market-based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs that are not corroborated by market data

Non-recurring fair value measurements include the assessment of property and equipment and intangible assets for impairment. As there is no corroborating market activity to support the assumptions used, the Company has designated these estimates as Level 3.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less are considered cash equivalents.

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash consists of funds related to gift cards. Funds collected by the Company for gift cards are maintained in separate restricted cash accounts to cover the expenditures required to be made under this program and is not available to be used for the normal recurring operations of the Company.

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)Deferred costs

The Company capitalizes incremental contract costs associated with obtaining franchise contracts which include commissions to area representatives that would not have been incurred had the franchise sale not occurred. These balances are reported as deferred costs on the balance sheets and are amortized over the term of the related franchise agreements. Amortization is included as commission expense in the statements of operations.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives of the respective asset:

	Estimated Useful Life
Furniture and fixtures	7 Years
Vehicles	5 Years
Computer and equipment	5 Years

Maintenance and repair costs are expensed in the period incurred. Expenditures for purchases and improvements that extend the useful lives of property and equipment are capitalized.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful life of the respective asset:

	Estimated Useful Life
Software	3 Years

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company assesses potential impairment of its long-lived assets whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. Factors that the Company considers important which could trigger an impairment review include, but are not limited to, significant under-performance relative to historical or projected future operating results, significant changes in the manner of use of the acquired assets or the strategy for the Company's overall business, and significant industry or economic trends. When the Company determines that the carrying value of the long-lived assets may not be recoverable based upon the existence of one or more of the above indicators, the Company determines the recoverability by comparing the carrying amount of the asset to net future undiscounted cash flows that the asset is expected to generate. If the carrying value is not recoverable, an impairment is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the fair value of the asset. During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, no impairment charges were recognized related to long-lived assets.

Gift Card Liability

The Company sells gift cards to its customers through its franchisees. The Company's gift cards do not have an expiration date and are not redeemable for cash except where required by law. Until redemption, outstanding customer balances are recorded as a liability. An obligation is recorded at the time of sale of the gift card and it is included in gift card payable on the Company's balance sheets. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company had liabilities of $16,266 and $0 in gift card payable, respectively. No gift card breakage has been recognized for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)Revenue Recognition*Franchise fee revenue

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with FASB ASC 606-10-25, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. In January 2021, the FASB issued ASU 2021-02, "Franchisors – Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606): Practical Expedient." ASU 2021-02 provides a practical expedient that simplifies the application of ASC 606 about identifying performance obligations and permits franchisors that are not public entities to account for pre-opening services listed within the guidance as distinct from the franchise license. The Company has adopted ASU 2021-02 and implemented the guidance on its revenue recognition policy.

The Company sells individual franchises. The franchise agreements typically require the franchisee to pay an initial, non-refundable fee prior to opening the respective location(s). The Company also charges continuing royalty and other fees on a monthly basis based upon a percentage of franchisees' gross sales.

A franchise agreement establishes a Feng Cha business developed in one defined geographic area and provides for a 10-year initial term with the option to renew for one additional 5 or 10-year term as defined in each franchise agreement. Subject to the Company's approval, a franchisee may generally renew the franchise agreement upon its expiration. If approved, a franchisee may transfer a franchise agreement to a new or existing franchisee, at which point a transfer fee is typically paid by either existing or new franchisee, and the existing franchise agreement is terminated. A new franchise agreement is signed with the new franchisee with no franchise fee required.

Under the terms of our franchise agreements, the Company typically promises to provide franchise rights, pre-opening services such as site selection, training and ongoing services. The Company considers certain pre-opening activities and the franchise rights and related ongoing services to represent two separate performance obligations. The franchise fee revenue has been allocated to the two separate performance obligations using a residual approach. The Company has estimated the value of performance obligations related to certain pre-opening activities deemed to be distinct based on cost plus an applicable margin, and assigned the remaining amount of the initial franchise fee to the franchise rights and ongoing services. Revenue allocated to preopening activities is recognized when (or as) these services are performed, no later than the opening date. Revenue allocated to franchise rights and ongoing services is recognized on a straight-line basis over the contractual term of the franchise agreement as this ensures that revenue recognition aligns with the customer's access to the franchise right. Renewal fees are recognized over the renewal term of the respective franchise from the start of the renewal period. Transfer fees are recognized over the contractual term of the franchise agreement.

The Company enters into multi-unit developer agreements with certain franchisees. The development agreements generally provide the franchisee with the right to open a specified number of new Feng Cha business over a specified period of time. A franchise agreement is required for each Feng Cha business specified in the development agreement. The development agreements typically require the franchisee to pay an initial non-refundable fee upon execution of the agreement. The development fee is then applied proportionately to each franchise agreement.

The Company also enters in to area representative agreements. The area representative agreements generally provide the area representative the rights to develop the assigned territory, to receive franchise fee, royalty, and brand development fund revenue from franchisees developed by the area representative and require the area representative to provide ongoing assistance to those franchisees. In addition, the area representative agreements require the area representatives to own and operate a minimum number of the Feng Cha businesses. For each Feng Cha business developed by an area representative the area representative is required to pay the Company a fixed monthly loyalty fee as determined by the respective area representative agreement.

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)Revenue Recognition (continued)*Franchise fee revenue (continued)

Company recognizes the initial upfront area representative fee on a straight-line basis over the term of the area representative agreement. During the year end December 31, 2024, the Company terminated nine area representative agreements. At December 31, 2024, the Company had two area representatives. In connection with these terminations, the Company recognized $627,752 in franchise fee revenue and recognized $854,000 related termination expense for the year ended December 31, 2024.

Royalty and loyalty revenue

Royalty revenue from Feng Cha businesses is based on five percent of gross revenues. Loyalty revenue consists of fixed monthly fees from area representatives. Royalty and loyalty revenue are recognized as earned.

Brand development fund revenue

The Company uses brand development fund to promote general brand recognition of the services. Funds are collected from franchisees and used to pay costs of maintaining, administering, directing, preparing, and producing advertising, including the cost of preparing and producing television, radio, magazine and newspaper advertising campaigns, the cost of direct mail and outdoor billboard advertising, the cost of public relations activities and advertising agencies, the cost of developing and maintaining an Internet website, and personnel and other departmental costs for advertising that Franchisor internally administers or prepares. Although brand development fund revenue is not a separate performance obligation distinct from the underlying franchise right, the Company is primarily responsible for the fulfillment and control of the brand fund services. As a result, the Company records brand development fund contributions in revenue and related brand development fund expenditures in expenses in the statement of operations. When brand development fund revenue exceeds the related brand development fund expenses in a reporting period, brand development fund expenses are accrued up to the amount of the brand development fund revenue recognized. Brand fund revenue is contributed by franchisees, generally monthly, which is one percent of gross sales generated by the Feng Cha businesses and is recognized as earned.

Technology fee revenue

Franchise agreements require the franchisees to pay a fixed monthly technology fee in connection with certain technology services necessary to operate the Feng Cha business. Technology fee revenue is recognized as earned.

Other revenue

Other revenue consists of termination fee revenue and other fee revenue and is recognized as earned.

Advertising and marketing

All costs associated with advertising and marketing are expensed in the period incurred.

Compensated Absences

The Company's personnel policy provides employees with regular leave for any approved personal reasons. Executive employees receive 15 days of paid time off per year. All other salary employees receive 12 days of paid time off per year, accruing at a rate of one paid time off day per month of active employment. Unused paid time off days can roll over to the next year without any restrictions. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company accrued an amount of $18,998 and $0 for any unused leave of absence, respectively. These amounts are included in accrued expenses on the balance sheets.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)Leases

The company accounts for leases under ASC 842. Lease arrangements are determined at the inception of the contract. Operating leases are included in operating lease right-of-use ("ROU") assets, operating lease liabilities and long-term operating lease liabilities on the balance sheet. Operating lease ROU assets and operating lease liabilities are recognized based on the present value of the future minimum lease payments over the lease term at commencement date. As most leases do not provide an implicit rate, we use an incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at commencement date in determining the present value of future payments. The operating lease ROU assets also includes any lease payments made and excludes lease incentives and initial direct costs incurred. The lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise that option. Lease expense for minimum lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company determines whether an arrangement is a lease at inception. The Company has elected to apply the short-term lease exception to all leases with a term of one year or less. Leases with an initial term of 12 months or less are not recorded on the balance sheet. Lease expense is recognized for these leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Income Taxes

The Company elected to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Under these provisions, the Company does not pay federal corporate income taxes on its taxable income. Instead, the members are liable for individual federal income taxes on the taxable income. The Company recognizes income tax related interest and penalties in interest expense and other general and administrative expenses, respectively.

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the state jurisdictions in which it operates. The Company is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Company believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2022.

In accordance with FASB ASC 740-10, Income Taxes, the Company is required to disclose uncertain tax positions. Income tax benefits are recognized for income tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, only when it is determined that the income tax position will more-likely-than-not be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities.

The Company has analyzed tax positions taken for filing with the Internal Revenue Service and all state jurisdictions where it operates. The Company believes that income tax filing positions will be sustained upon examination and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. Management's determination of the taxable status of the entity, including its status as an S Corporation, a pass through entity, is a tax position that is subject to consideration of uncertainty. The Company believes it has complied with all regulations required to maintain its status as an S Corporation and more likely than not, this status would hold up under examination. Accordingly, the Company has not recorded any reserves, or related accruals for interest and penalties for uncertain income tax positions at December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

We reviewed significant newly-issued accounting pronouncements and concluded that they either are not applicable to our operations or that no material effect is expected on our financial statements as a result of future adoption.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members
Cannect LLC
Richardson, Texas

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the financial statements of Cannect LLC (the "Company"), which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2024 and the related statements of operations, changes in members' deficit, and cash flows for the year then ended and related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2024 and the results of its operations, changes in members' deficit and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Cannect LLC and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Cannect LLC's ability to continue as a going concern within one year from the date the financial statements are issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Connect LLC's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used, and the reasonableness of, significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Connect LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control–related matters that we identified during the audit.

The Company is in the business of granting franchises for the establishment and operation of Feng Cha businesses offering bubble tea blends, coffee and teas, smoothies, juices, cakes, desserts and other related products, under the trademark “Feng Cha”.

In April 2025, pursuant to an assignment and contribution agreement, the Company assigned the Feng Cha trademarks and other intellectual property to its affiliate, FC USA, LLC (“FC USA”). On April 30, 2025, subsequent to the assignment, the Company entered into a Trademark License Agreement (the “License”) with FC USA in which the Company licensed the Feng Cha trademarks and other intellectual property. The License grants the Company the right to use the Feng Cha trademarks and other intellectual property for the purpose of licensing them to franchisees of the Company in the United States for an initial period of thirty years. The License may be renewed for an unlimited number of terms of twenty years each, unless either party notifies the other party that it does not intend to renew for an additional term of at least one hundred and eighty days before the end of the then current term.

Going Concern

Management has evaluated our ability to continue as a going concern as of December 31, 2024. Due to the positive net income for the year ended December 31, 2024 and the liquidity position of the Company at December 31, 2024, we have concluded that there is not significant doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

2. Significant Accounting PoliciesBasis of Accounting

The Company uses the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“U.S. GAAP”). Under this method, revenue is recognized when earned and expenses are recognized as incurred.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements and accompanying notes in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reported period. Estimates are used for the following, among others: revenue recognition, useful lives for amortization of long-lived assets and deferred revenue. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Company's financial instruments consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents, unbilled revenue, other receivables, and accrued expenses. The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, unbilled revenue, other receivables, and accrued expenses are considered to be representative of their respective fair values due to the short-term nature of these instruments.

Assets and liabilities that are carried at fair value are classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

Level 1: Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2: Observable market-based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs that are not corroborated by market data

Non-recurring fair value measurements include the assessment of property and equipment and intangible assets for impairment. As there is no corroborating market activity to support the assumptions used, the Company has designated these estimates as Level 3.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less are considered cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

The balance in accounts receivable consists of royalties and other fees due from franchisees and are stated at the amount the Company expects to collect. The Company maintains allowances for credit losses for estimated losses resulting from the inability of its customers to make required payments. Management considers the following factors when determining the collectability of specific customer accounts: customer credit worthiness, past transaction history with the customer, current economic industry trends, and changes in customer payment terms. Past due balance over 90 days and other higher risk amounts are reviewed individually for collectability. If the financial condition of the Company's customers were to deteriorate, adversely affecting their ability to make payments, additional allowances would be required. Based on management's assessment, the Company provides for estimated uncollectible amounts through a charge to earnings and a credit to an allowance. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the allowance for credit losses.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives of the respective asset:

	Estimated Useful Life
Furniture and fixture	7 Years
Vehicles	5 Years
Computer and equipment	5 Years

Maintenance and repair costs are expensed in the period incurred. Expenditures for purchases and improvements that extend the useful lives of property and equipment are capitalized.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful life of the respective asset:

	Estimated Useful Life
Software	3 Years

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company assesses potential impairment of its long-lived assets whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. Factors that the Company considers important which could trigger an impairment review include, but are not limited to, significant under-performance relative to historical or projected future operating results, significant changes in the manner of use of the acquired assets or the strategy for the Company's overall business, and significant industry or economic trends. When the Company determines that the carrying value of the long-lived assets may not be recoverable based upon the existence of one or more of the above indicators, the Company determines the recoverability by comparing the carrying amount of the asset to net future undiscounted cash flows that the asset is expected to generate. If the carrying value is not recoverable, an impairment is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the fair value of the asset. During the year ended December 31, 2024, no impairment charges were recognized related to long-lived assets.

Revenue RecognitionFranchise fee revenue

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with FASB ASC 606-10-25, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. In January 2021, the FASB issued ASU 2021-02, "Franchisors – Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606): Practical Expedient." ASU 2021-02 provides a practical expedient that simplifies the application of ASC 606 about identifying performance obligations and permits franchisors that are not public entities to account for pre-opening services listed within the guidance as distinct from the franchise license. The Company has adopted ASU 2021-02 and implemented the guidance on its revenue recognition policy.

The Company sells individual franchises. The franchise agreements typically require the franchisee to pay an initial, non-refundable fee prior to opening the respective location(s). The Company also charges continuing royalty and other fees on a monthly basis based upon a percentage of franchisees' gross sales.

A franchise agreement establishes a Feng Cha business developed in one defined geographic area and provides for a 10-year initial term with the option to renew for one additional 5-year term. Subject to the Company's approval, a franchisee may generally renew the franchise agreement upon its expiration. If approved, a franchisee may transfer a franchise agreement to a new or existing franchisee, at which point a transfer fee is typically paid by either existing or new franchisee, and the existing franchise agreement is terminated. A new franchise agreement is signed with the new franchisee with no franchise fee required.

Under the terms of our franchise agreements, the Company typically promises to provide franchise rights, pre-opening services such as site selection, training and ongoing services. The Company considers certain pre-opening activities and the franchise rights and related ongoing services to represent two separate performance obligations. The franchise fee revenue has been allocated to the two separate performance obligations using a residual approach. The Company has estimated the value of performance obligations related to certain pre-opening activities deemed to be distinct based on cost plus an applicable margin, and assigned the remaining amount of the initial franchise fee to the franchise rights and ongoing services. Revenue allocated to preopening activities is recognized when (or as) these services are performed, no later than the opening date. Revenue allocated to franchise rights and ongoing services is recognized on a straight-line basis over the contractual term of the franchise agreement as this ensures that revenue recognition aligns with the customer's access to the franchise right. Renewal fees are recognized over the renewal term of the respective franchise from the start of the renewal period. Transfer fees are recognized over the contractual term of the franchise agreement.

The Company enters into multi-unit developer agreements with certain franchisees. The development agreements generally provide the franchisee with the right to open a specified number of new Feng Cha business over a specified period of time. A franchise agreement is required for each Feng Cha business specified in the development agreement. The development agreements typically require the franchisee to pay an initial non-refundable fee upon execution of the agreement. The development fee is then applied proportionately to each franchise agreement.

The Company also enters in to area representative agreements. The area representative agreements generally provide the area representative the rights to develop the assigned territory, to receive franchise fee, royalty, and brand development fund revenue from franchisees developed by the area representative and require the area representative to provide ongoing assistance to those franchisees. In addition, the area representative agreements require the area representatives to own and operate a minimum number of the Feng Cha businesses. For each Feng Cha business developed by an area representative the area representative is required to pay the Company a fixed monthly loyalty fee as determined by the respective area representative agreement.

Company recognizes the initial upfront area representative fee on a straight-line basis over the term of the area representative agreement. During the year end December 31, 2024, the Company terminated nine area representative agreements. At December 31, 2024, the Company had two area representatives. In connection with the terminations, the Company recognized $627,752 in franchise fee revenue and recognized $854,000 related termination expense.

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)Revenue Recognition (continued)*Royalty and loyalty revenue

Royalty revenue from Feng Cha businesses is based on five percent of gross revenues. Loyalty revenue consists of fixed monthly fees from area representatives. Royalty and loyalty revenue are recognized as earned.

Brand development fund revenue

The Company uses brand development fund to promote general brand recognition of the services. Funds are collected from franchisees and used to pay costs of maintaining, administering, directing, preparing, and producing advertising, including the cost of preparing and producing television, radio, magazine and newspaper advertising campaigns, the cost of direct mail and outdoor billboard advertising, the cost of public relations activities and advertising agencies, the cost of developing and maintaining an Internet website, and personnel and other departmental costs for advertising that Franchisor internally administers or prepares. Although brand development fund revenue is not a separate performance obligation distinct from the underlying franchise right, the Company is primarily responsible for the fulfillment and control of the brand fund services. As a result, the Company records brand development fund contributions in revenue and related brand development fund expenditures in expenses in the statement of operations. When brand development fund revenue exceeds the related brand development fund expenses in a reporting period, brand development fund expenses are accrued up to the amount of the brand development fund revenue recognized. Brand fund revenue is contributed by franchisees, generally monthly, which is one percent of gross sales generated by the Feng Cha businesses and is recognized as earned.

Technology fee revenue

Franchise agreements require the franchisees to pay a fixed monthly technology fee in connection with certain technology services necessary to operate the Feng Cha business. Technology fee revenue is recognized as earned.

Other revenue

Other revenue consists of termination fee revenue and other fee revenue and is recognized as earned.

Advertising and marketing

All costs associated with advertising and marketing are expensed in the period incurred.

Leases

The company accounts for leases under ASC 842. Lease arrangements are determined at the inception of the contract. Operating leases are included in operating lease right-of-use ("ROU") assets, operating lease liabilities and long-term operating lease liabilities on the balance sheet. Operating lease ROU assets and operating lease liabilities are recognized based on the present value of the future minimum lease payments over the lease term at commencement date. As most leases do not provide an implicit rate, we use an incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at commencement date in determining the present value of future payments. The operating lease ROU assets also includes any lease payments made and excludes lease incentives and initial direct costs incurred. The lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise that option. Lease expense for minimum lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company determines whether an arrangement is a lease at inception. The Company has elected to apply the short-term lease exception to all leases with a term of one year or less. Leases with an initial term of 12 months or less are not recorded on the balance sheet. Lease expense is recognized for these leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)Income Taxes

The Company elected to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Under these provisions, the Company does not pay federal corporate income taxes on its taxable income. Instead, the members are liable for individual federal income taxes on the taxable income. The Company recognizes income tax related interest and penalties in interest expense and other general and administrative expenses, respectively.

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the state jurisdictions in which it operates. The Company is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Company believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2021.

In accordance with FASB ASC 740-10, Income Taxes, the Company is required to disclose uncertain tax positions. Income tax benefits are recognized for income tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, only when it is determined that the income tax position will more-likely-than-not be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities.

The Company has analyzed tax positions taken for filing with the Internal Revenue Service and all state jurisdictions where it operates. The Company believes that income tax filing positions will be sustained upon examination and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. Management's determination of the taxable status of the entity, including its status as an S Corporation, a pass through entity, is a tax position that is subject to consideration of uncertainty. The Company believes it has complied with all regulations required to maintain its status as an S Corporation and more likely than not, this status would hold up under examination. Accordingly, the Company has not recorded any reserves, or related accruals for interest and penalties for uncertain income tax positions at December 31, 2024.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

We reviewed significant newly-issued accounting pronouncements and concluded that they either are not applicable to our operations or that no material effect is expected on our financial statements as a result of future adoption.

Subsequent Events

In accordance with FASB ASC 855, Subsequent Events, the Company has evaluated subsequent event through May 16, 2025, the date on which these financial statements were available to be issued. Except as disclosed in Notes 1 and 8, there were no material subsequent events that required recognition or additional disclosure in these financial statements.

CANNECT, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements

1. General and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

Nature of operations: As used herein, the terms "CANNECT, LLC.," the "Company," or similar terms refer to CANNECT, LLC.

The Company is a franchisor management company that sells franchise (collecting franchise fee, manages franchise brand (monthly loyalty fee) and expands franchise.

Basis of presentation: The consolidated financial statements of the Company are prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and include the accounts of all of its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts and disclosures. Realized results could differ from those estimates and assumptions. Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified for consistency with the current year presentation.

Cash and cash equivalents: The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Uninsured cash balances: The Company has not, and does not, plan to have cash balances which exceed federally insured amounts at various financial institutions.

Revenue recognition: In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, which amends ASC Topic 606, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers." The amendments in the ASU provide a five-step analysis of contracts to determine when and how revenue is recognized and replaces most existing revenue recognition guidance in GAAP. The core principle of the new guidance is that an entity should recognize revenue to reflect the transfer of goods and services to customers in an amount equal to the consideration the entity receives or expects to receive. The amendments in this ASU are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018 for private entities. The Company has adopted the guidance as of January 1, 2019 using the modified retrospective transition method. However, because adoption of this guidance did not change the timing or amount of the Company's recognition of revenue, there was no adjustment to retained earnings needed as part of adoption of the new standard.

Revenue from franchise sale is recognized upon services and procedures that the Company need to perform, and the acceptance of the franchise contract by the Company's customers. Revenue from franchise management is recognized upon services performed monthly.

Property and equipment: Property and equipment, including improvements that significantly add to the productive capacity or extend useful life, are recorded at cost. Maintenance and repairs are expensed currently. Property and equipment are depreciated over their useful lives using the straight-line method of depreciation. Software and computer equipment are amortized or depreciated over three to five years. Furniture and fixtures are depreciated over five to ten years. Equipment is depreciated over five to seven years. Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the lesser of the useful life, which ranges from three to ten years, or the remaining term of the lease. Building improvements are depreciated straight-line over ten to thirty-nine years. When property is sold or retired, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the balance sheet and any gain or loss is included in the income statement.

Investment in other entities: The Company has majority of ownership and controlling interest in other entities and the other entities' net income or loss were consolidated to the Company's net loss.

Advertising costs: Advertising costs are expensed when incurred.

CANNECT, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements

1. General and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued):

Income Taxes: The Company, with the consent of its members, has elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be treated as a partnership. Under the election, the Company does not pay federal corporate income taxes on its taxable income. Instead, the members are liable for individual income taxes on their respective shares of corporate income. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal income tax in the accompanying financial statements. Current state income tax will be provided for at applicable rates.

Deferred state income taxes are provided for the temporary differences between the carrying values of the Company's assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and their corresponding income tax basis.

The temporary differences reflected are attributable to unrealized holding gains derived from the difference of the fair value over amortized cost of marketable securities available for sale, as well as utilizing different depreciation methods for income tax purposes. The temporary difference is computed by applying current statutory rates to the taxable temporary difference of the asset in the financial statements.

Use of estimates: The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Significant estimates have been made by management with respect to the timing and amount of future cash collections of the Company's finance receivables portfolios. Actual results could differ from these estimates making it reasonably possible that a change in these estimates could occur within one year.

2. Property and Equipment, net:

FENG CHA FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This agreement (the "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between CANNECT, LLC, a Texas limited liability company having its principal place of business at 412 N. Bowser Rd., Richardson TX 75081 ("Franchisor") and _____ with a principal address at _____ ("Franchisee") on the date this Agreement is executed by Franchisor below (the "Effective Date").

BACKGROUND

A. Franchisor and/or its equity owners, parent, predecessor or affiliate, through the expenditure of considerable money, time and effort, have developed a system (the "Feng Cha System" or "System") for the establishment, development and operation of Feng Cha stores (each a "Feng Cha Store"). The System includes Franchisor's Proprietary Marks; IT platforms; recognized designs, decor and color schemes; distinctive specifications for furniture, fixtures, equipment, and wall, ceiling and display designs; know-how; training techniques; trade secrets; uniform specifications of products and services; menu items; proprietary products; recipes and ingredients; procedures for sanitation, food preparation techniques and storage; sales techniques and merchandising, marketing; advertising; inventory management systems; quality control procedures; and procedures for operation and management of System businesses pursuant to the Confidential Operations Manual provided by Franchisor and modified from time to time and other standards and specifications Franchisor otherwise provides.

B. The Feng Cha System is identified by various trade names, trademarks and service marks used by Franchisor and its franchisees including, without limitation, the trademark "Feng Cha" and other identifying marks and symbols that Franchisor uses now or may later use as part of the Feng Cha System (the "Proprietary Marks"). The rights to all the Proprietary Marks shall be owned exclusively by Franchisor, its equity owners, parent, predecessor or its affiliate. Franchisor intends to further develop and use the Proprietary Marks to identify to the public Franchisor's standards of quality and the services marketed under the Proprietary Marks.

C. Franchisor is engaged in the business of granting franchises to qualified individuals and business entities to use the System to operate a Feng Cha Store.

D. Franchisee has applied to Franchisor for a franchise to operate a Feng Cha Store using the System and Proprietary Marks and to receive the training, confidential information and other assistance Franchisor provides. Franchisor has approved Franchisee's application in reliance upon all of the representations made in the application.

E. By executing this Agreement, Franchisee acknowledges the importance of Franchisor's quality and service standards and agrees to operate Franchisee's business in accordance with those standards. Franchisee also acknowledges that adhering to the terms of this Agreement and implementing the System as Franchisor directs are essential to the operation of Franchisee's business, to the System, and to all Franchisor's franchisees.

In consideration of the mutual promises and commitments contained in this Agreement, together with other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, Franchisor and Franchisee agree as follows:

1. GRANT OF FRANCHISE

1.1. Grant and Acceptance. Franchisor grants to Franchisee, and Franchisee accepts, all subject to the terms of this Agreement, a franchise to establish and operate one Feng Cha Store using the Feng Cha System and the Proprietary Marks pursuant to this Agreement (the “Franchised Business” or the “Feng Cha Store”). Franchisee shall use the Proprietary Marks, participate in the promotional, advertising and educational programs that are made available to Franchisee, and have access to certain proprietary trade secrets, marketing expertise and business expertise of Franchisor, as they may be modified from time to time, in connection with the Franchised Business.

1.2. Territory. Franchisee shall not have an exclusive or designated territory. Franchisor shall have the right to own, operate, franchise or license any other Feng Cha Stores at any locations including in other channels of distribution and at Special Sites as described in Section 1.3. Franchisor and/or Franchisor’s affiliates, retain all rights, including without limitation, the unrestricted rights: (i) in connection with a merger or acquisition, to own, operate, franchise or license businesses operating under names other than the Proprietary Marks regardless of whether or not these other concepts offer products and services which are similar to or compete with those offered by the Franchised Business and regardless of location, and the right to convert those locations to Feng Cha Stores, (ii) the right to be acquired by (or merge or become affiliated with) any other business operating under names other than the Proprietary Marks, including a competing business with locations anywhere which may result in the required conversion of a Franchised Business; (iii) to distribute products and services as described in Section 1.3; (iv) to use, and to license others to use, the System for the operation and licensing of other Feng Cha Stores at any locations; and (v) the right to own, operate, franchise or license Feng Cha stores, cafes and food distributors or retailers or any other business operating under names other than the Proprietary Marks, regardless of whether or not these other concepts offer products and services which are similar to or competitive with those offered by the Franchised Business. Franchisee is not permitted to conduct any off-site services without Franchisor’s prior written consent.

1.3. Special Sites and Other Channels of Distribution. Franchisor and Franchisor’s, parent, predecessor and affiliate, reserve the unrestricted right to offer products and services (which may include, but are not limited to, branded and non-branded products, food, and videos), whether now existing or developed in the future, identified by the Proprietary Marks or other marks Franchisor and/or Franchisor’s parent, predecessor and/or affiliate, own or license, through any distribution method they may establish, and may franchise or license others to do so, regardless of whether the offering of products or services in the other channels of distribution compete with the Franchised Business. Such other channels of distribution include, but are not limited to, sales of products or services via retail establishments, mail order, catalog, via the internet, or any similar outlets or distribution methods. Additionally, Franchisor reserves the right to establish and operate Feng Cha Stores and/or offer products and services at “Special Site”, whether now existing or developed in the future (which Special Sites include but are not limited to: club stores, specialty stores, grocery stores, supermarkets, special events centers, parks, stadiums, arenas, museums, art centers, military bases, airports, other public transportation facilities, government offices or institutions, department stores, shopping malls, health care facilities and other institutional food service facilities, hotels and motels, toll road or highway rest stops, colleges, universities, food concession stands, theaters, theme parks, amusement centers, truck stops, beaches, boardwalks and casinos, temporary events, and retail restaurant locations being sublet under a lease to a master concessionaire. This Agreement does not grant Franchisee any rights to distribute products through other channels of distribution or at Special Sites as described in this Section 1.3, and Franchisee has no right to share, nor does Franchisee expect to share, in any of the proceeds Franchisor and/or Franchisor's parent, predecessor, affiliate, or other franchisees or licensees or any other party receives in connection with the alternate channels of distribution or Special Sites. Franchisor and/or its affiliates will fulfill all orders placed through the retail portion of the Website and Franchisee will not be entitled to any portion of the profits received from this, unless Franchisor determines otherwise, in its sole discretion. Franchisee may not engage in the wholesale or distribution of any product.

2. TERM AND RENEWAL

2.1. Term. This Agreement grants rights to Franchisee for a period of 10 years and is effective when signed by Franchisor, but will be extended to align with lease expiration date provided least term is no more than 10 years.

2.2. Renewal. Franchisee shall have the right to renew this Agreement for one period of 10 years if the following conditions have been met:

2.2.1. Franchisee has given Franchisor written notice of its election to renew the franchise not less than 6 months nor more than 13 months prior to the expiration of the current term;

2.2.2. Franchisee owns or has the right under a lease to occupy the premises of the Franchised Business for an additional 5 years and has presented evidence to Franchisor that Franchisee has the right to remain in possession of the premises of the Franchised Business for the duration of the renewal term; or, in the event Franchisee is unable to maintain possession of the premises of the Franchised Business, Franchisee has secured substitute premises approved by Franchisor by the expiration date of this Agreement, and the terms of any such lease are acceptable to Franchisor;

2.2.3. Franchisee has completed, no later than 30 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term and to Franchisor's satisfaction, all maintenance, refurbishing, renovating and remodeling of the premises of the Franchised Business and all of the equipment, fixtures, furnishings, interior and exterior signs as Franchisor shall require so that the premises reflect the then-current image of a Feng Cha store.

2.2.4. Franchisee is not in default of any provision of this Agreement or any other related agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor or its parent, predecessor and/or affiliate, either at the time Franchisee gives notice of its intent to renew or at any time through the last day of the then current term, and Franchisee has substantially complied with all of these agreements during their respective terms;

2.2.5. Franchisee has satisfied all monetary obligations owed by Franchisee to Franchisor and/or its parent, predecessor and affiliate or otherwise pursuant to the Franchise Agreement;

2.2.6. Franchisee has executed, at the time of such renewal, Franchisor's then-current form of franchise agreement and renewal addendum, the terms of which may vary materially from the terms of this Agreement and may include, without limitation, higher royalty and advertising fees. The renewal franchise agreement, when executed, shall supersede this Agreement in all respects;

2.2.7. Franchisee, at its expense, has satisfied Franchisor's then-current training requirements for new franchisees as of the date of the renewal;

2.2.8. Franchisee has paid a renewal fee equal to $15,000.

2.2.9. Franchisee has executed a release of any and all claims against Franchisor and its parent, predecessor and affiliate, and their shareholders, members, officers, directors, agents, employees, attorneys and accountants arising out of or related to this Agreement or any related agreement. The release shall contain language and be of the form chosen by Franchisor, except the release shall not release any liability specifically provided for by any applicable state statute regulating franchising if such release is not legally permitted. Franchisor's current form of release is attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit 6.

3. LOCATION

3.1. Approved Location. Franchisee is granted a non-exclusive franchise, which permits the operation of a single Feng Cha Store at the location identified in Exhibit 1 to this Agreement (the "Approved Location"). If the Approved Location is not identified in Exhibit 1 when the parties execute this Agreement, Franchisee shall find a location and submit it to Franchisor for approval as required in Section 3.2. Franchisee shall not operate another business at the Approved Location nor rent the Approved Location to others. All events held at the Approved Location must be affiliated with the Franchised Business. Franchisee is unrestricted as to the geographic area from which it may obtain business as a System franchisee; however, Franchisee may not make any sales from a location, other than the Approved Location, without the Franchisor's prior written permission. Franchisee shall not conduct any mail order, catalog or Internet business without the express approval of the Franchisor. Franchisee shall be permitted to provide delivery and catering services in connection with its Franchised Business under the terms and conditions outlined in the Operations Manual or otherwise, unless otherwise prohibited by Franchisor.

3.2. Site Search; Purchase or Lease of Premises. If the Approved Location is not identified on Exhibit 1 when this Agreement is executed, then Franchisee is responsible for locating a site within the geographic site selection area described on Exhibit 1 (the "Search Area"). The Search Area is delineated for the sole purpose of site selection and does not provide any territorial exclusivity or protection. Franchisee must find a location in the Search Area and submit it to Franchisor for approval as required in this Agreement. Franchisee shall use its best efforts to find a suitable location subject to Franchisor's procedures and guidelines. Franchisor must grant written authorization before Franchisee may proceed with any proposed location. Franchisor's recommendation or approval of any site only indicates that Franchisor believes that the site meets Franchisor's then acceptable criteria that have been established for Franchisor's own purposes. Criteria that have appeared effective with other sites and other locations might not accurately reflect the potential for all sites and locations. Franchisor is not responsible if a site and location fails to meet Franchisee's expectations. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that its acceptance of the selection of the Approved Location is based on Franchisee's own independent investigation of the site's suitability for the Franchised Business.

If the Approved Location is not designated in Exhibit 1 at the time of execution of this Agreement, Franchisee must complete all steps to acquire a suitable location within 6 months after the date of execution of this Agreement. Within the 6 month period, Franchisee must: (i) find a suitable site, meeting Franchisor's specifications; (ii) submit a request for approval of the proposed site; and (iii) deliver all information and copies of proposed agreements to Franchisor. Upon receiving Franchisor's written approval for a site Franchisee must promptly enter into a lease or sublease for the site, meeting Franchisor's requirements, including the requirements listed in Section 3.3, or enter into an agreement to purchase the site. If Franchisee or its equity owner or affiliate purchases or owns the Approved Location, Franchisee (or its equity owner or affiliate) shall grant Franchisor an option to purchase or lease the site upon termination or expiration of this Agreement at the fair market value or fair market rent.

Franchisee shall provide Franchisor with any information Franchisor requests and a copy of the proposed lease or purchase agreement in connection with Franchisor's review. In order for Franchisor to approve any designation of the Approved Location in Exhibit 1 at the time of execution of this Agreement, Franchisee must have supplied Franchisor with all required information and copies of proposed agreements prior to the execution of this Agreement. Franchisee shall not sign any lease or purchase agreement for the Approved Location until this Agreement is fully executed by both parties and Franchisor has granted approval of the agreement in writing.

3.3. Lease or Purchase.

3.3.1. Any lease for the proposed location must contain certain provisions, including (i) a limitation that the premises shall be used only for a Feng Cha Store; (ii) a prohibition against assignment or subletting by Franchisee without Franchisor's prior written approval; (iii) permission for Franchisor to enter the premises and make changes to protect the Proprietary Marks; (iv) concurrent written notice to Franchisor of any default and the right (but not the obligation) for Franchisor to cure such default; (v) the right, at Franchisor's election, to receive an assignment of the lease upon the termination or expiration of the Franchise Agreement; and (vi) a prohibition against the lease being modified without Franchisor's prior written consent. In addition, prior to execution of the lease, Franchisor and Franchisee shall execute the Collateral Assignment of Lease which grants Franchisor the right, but not the obligation, to assume the lease upon Franchisee's default under the lease or this Agreement. Upon execution of the lease, Franchisor and lessor shall execute the Consent and Agreement of Lessor. The Collateral Assignment of Lease and Consent and Agreement of Lessor shall be in the forms attached as Exhibit 4 to this Agreement. Franchisee shall deliver an executed copy of the lease to Franchisor within 15 days after the execution of the lease.

3.3.2 Franchisor's review of the lease or purchase agreement for the Approved Location does not constitute Franchisor's opinion regarding the terms of the lease, purchase agreement or the viability of the location. Approval by the Franchisor of the lease or purchase agreement shall simply mean that the terms contained in the lease or purchase agreement, including general business terms, are acceptable to Franchisor. Franchisee acknowledges that it is not relying on Franchisor's lease or purchase agreement negotiations, lease or purchase agreement review or approval, or site approval and acknowledges that any involvement by Franchisor in lease negotiations is for the sole benefit of Franchisor. Franchisee acknowledges and understands that it has been advised to obtain its own competent counsel to review the lease or purchase agreement before Franchisee signs any lease or purchase agreement.

3.3.3 If Franchisee does not agree with any lease provisions that Franchisor has approved or negotiated, Franchisee may elect not to sign the lease, but Franchisee is required to find another suitable site for the Approved Location within the required timeframe. If Franchisee rejects a site Franchisor approves because Franchisee does not agree with the lease provisions that Franchisor or its representatives have negotiated, Franchisor may permit another franchisee to enter into a lease for such site, whether on the terms Franchisee rejected, or other terms.

3.4. Relocation. In the event the lease term is shorter than the term of this Agreement and the lease cannot be renewed or extended, or Franchisee cannot continue to occupy the Approved Location, Franchisee shall relocate the Franchised Business to a site mutually acceptable to Franchisee and Franchisor in accordance with Franchisor's specifications and subject to Section 3.2 and Section 3.3, in order to complete the balance of the term of this Agreement. Franchisee shall give Franchisor notice of Franchisee's intent to relocate, pay the $5,000 relocation fee and must complete all steps to either enter into a lease or sublease or an agreement to purchase the site within 60 days after closing the Franchised Business at the original location. Franchisee must open the Franchised Business for business at the new location within 180 days of closing the original location. If Franchisee fails to comply with the terms of this Section 3.4, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement.

4. FEES AND COSTS

4.1. Initial Franchise Fee. Franchisee shall pay Franchisor an initial franchise fee for the right to establish a single Feng Cha Store in the amount of $30,000 in cash, wire transfer or by certified check, at Franchisor's option, at the time of execution of this Agreement. The initial franchise fee is fully earned and is not refundable under any circumstances.

4.2. Royalty Fee.

4.2.1. Royalty; Gross Revenues. Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor a royalty fee equal to 5% of all monthly "Gross Revenues" of the Franchised Business. Royalty fees are due beginning when the Franchised Business begins to generate revenue and are currently payable on the fifth day of each month. "Gross Revenues" means the total selling price of all services and products and all income of every other kind and nature related to the Franchised Business, whether for cash or credit and regardless of collection in the case of credit. Gross Revenue also includes fair market value for any product or service Franchisee receives in barter or exchange for products or services and all insurance proceeds that Franchisee receives for the loss of the Feng Cha Store due to a casualty to or similar event at the Franchised Business (including business interruption insurance). The entire amount of the sale generated from service providers such as Uber Eats, GrubHub, Door Dash and similar companies is reportable as Gross Revenue. Gross Revenue expressly excludes taxes collected from customers and paid to the appropriate taxing authority and customer refunds or adjustments. Gift cards or similar program payments are currently included in Gross Revenues when the gift card or applicable credit is redeemed however Franchisor reserves the right to change this in the future.

4.2.2. Payment; Reporting. The Royalty Fee shall be paid by Franchisee via electronic fund transfer on the days outlined in section 4.2.1 or another day (or at another frequency) Franchisor specifies. Franchisee must provide monthly summaries of sales and services rendered during the preceding month, (hereinafter, "Report"), which Report shall accurately reflect all monies received or accrued, sales or other services performed during the relevant period and such other additional information as may be required by Franchisor as it deems necessary in its sole discretion to properly evaluate the progress of Franchisee. Franchisee shall provide the Report in the manner that Franchisor specifies no later than the first business day following the close of the reporting month, or at such time that Franchisor specifies. If Franchisee fails to submit any Report on a timely basis, Franchisor may withdraw from Franchisee's operating account 120% of the last Royalty Fee debited. Any overpayments from the withdrawn amount shall be forwarded to Franchisee or credited to Franchisee's account once reconciled; Franchisee shall pay any underpayments, with interest. Any payment Franchisee makes may be applied by Franchisor, at Franchisor's option, to any of Franchisee's past due indebtedness regardless of Franchisee's written or orally expressed intention.

4.2.3. Single Operating Account; EFT. Franchisee shall make suitable arrangements for on time delivery of payments due to or collected by Franchisor under this Agreement. Franchisee shall designate one account at a commercial bank of its choice (the "Account") for the payment of continuing periodic royalty, advertising contributions to the Fund (defined in Section 4.3.3.1) and any other amounts due Franchisor in connection with this Agreement and the Franchised Business. Franchisor shall have "view-only" access. In addition, Franchisee shall furnish the bank with authorizations necessary to permit Franchisor to make withdrawals from the Account by electronic funds transfer (a copy of a form acceptable to Franchisor is currently attached as Exhibit 11). Franchisee shall bear any expense associated with these authorizations and electronic funds transfers. Franchisee shall pay Franchisor its actual cost incurred for bank charges, plus Franchisor's administrative fee (of up to $50 per attempt) in Franchisor's sole discretion if the electronic funds transfer attempt is unsuccessful in whole or in part, or rejected, or if Franchisee closes the operating account, or any check or other means of payment used is returned not paid.

4.3. Advertising. Franchisee agrees to actively promote the Franchised Business and to abide by all of Franchisor's advertising requirements. Franchisee shall comply with each of its advertising obligations provided in this Agreement notwithstanding the payment by other Feng Cha System franchisees of greater or lesser advertising obligations or default of these obligations by any other franchisees. Franchisee may not take part in any sales from a location other than the premises of the Franchised Business. With regard to advertising generally for the Franchised Business, Franchisee shall place or display at the Franchised Business premises (interior and exterior) only such signs, emblems, lettering, logos and display and advertising materials as Franchisor approves in writing from time to time. No outside solicitations are permitted. All advertising, marketing and promotion by Franchisee of any type shall be conducted in a dignified manner, shall coordinate and be consistent with Franchisor's marketing plans and strategies and shall conform to the standards and requirements Franchisor prescribes. If Franchisor determines at any point that any advertising materials no longer conform to System requirements, Franchisor shall provide Franchisee with notice of the same, at which point Franchisee shall promptly discontinue such use. Except as may otherwise be approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee shall not use any advertising or promotional materials which Franchisor has not approved in writing. All materials must be approved by Franchisor before being ordered and Franchisor will retain exclusive rights to any and all materials requested to be produced by franchisees and has the right, without payment of any kind, to make these materials available for use by Franchisor and all other franchisees. Franchisee will have no rights in the materials other than Franchisor's permission to use them. Franchisor may require that Franchisee utilize Franchisor's designated marketing agency, at Franchisee's cost.

4.3.1. Grand Opening Marketing. Beginning after the Feng Cha Store's soft opening and for a period of approximately 60 days post opening of the Franchised Business (unless a different timeframe is designated by Franchisor), Franchisee shall expend between $4,000-$6,000 on grand opening advertising and promotion for the Franchised Business. Franchisor shall make such expenditure in accordance with Franchisor's written requirements and specifications. Franchisor must approve of the grand opening marketing campaign before it is conducted. Franchisee shall keep detailed records of all expenditures and provide these records to Franchisor within 15 days if Franchisor requests them.

4.3.2. Minimum Promotional Expenditure; Local Advertising and Marketing.

Franchisee must conduct paid local advertising and marketing and must spend at least 1% of monthly Gross Revenue on such local advertising and marketing (the "Minimum Promotional Expenditure"). Franchisor reserves the right to adjust this amount (not to exceed 2% of monthly Gross Revenue), as needed, upon 30 days advanced written notice. However, in the event Franchisee is in the bottom 25% of System average unit volume, as determined by Franchisor's review of financial information, Franchisee's required local advertising spend shall be 2% of Franchisee's monthly Gross Revenue and shall remain as such until Franchisor advises otherwise. Franchisee must report quarterly advertising and marketing expenditures to Franchisor by the 10th day after the end of each quarter, or at times, on forms, and in a manner Franchisor determines. Franchisor must approve all promotional materials before use. Franchisee must not advertise or use the Proprietary Marks in any fashion on the Internet, World Wide Web or via other means of advertising through telecommunication without Franchisor's express written consent. Franchisee must provide any proposed promotional materials to Franchisor at least 30 days before placement deadline. Franchisor is not contractually obligated to accept or reject any materials submitted within the 30 days, but will attempt to do so. Franchisee may not use the materials unless Franchisor gives approval in writing. Any materials submitted for review will become Franchisor's property, and there will be no restriction on Franchisor's use or distribution of these materials. Franchisee may be required to include certain language and/or contact information for the Franchisor in its advertisements. The Minimum Promotional Expenditure is in addition to amounts owed to the Fund or to any Cooperative.

4.3.3. Brand Development Fund.

4.3.3.1 Franchisor has the right to establish, administer and control the Brand Development Fund (the "Fund"). Franchisee agrees to contribute to the Fund in an amount of 1% of Franchisee's Gross Revenues via electronic fund transfer or as otherwise directed by Franchisor, currently required to be paid monthly, beginning when the Franchised Business begins making sales. Franchisor reserves the right to change the pay day or frequency. Franchisor can increase the brand development fund payment to a maximum of 2% upon 30 days' notice to Franchisee. Franchisee agrees to expend and/or contribute all advertising fees required under this Agreement notwithstanding the actual amount of contribution by other franchisees of Franchisor, or of default of this obligation by any other franchisees. Franchisor may maintain contributions to the Fund in a separate bank account or hold them in Franchisor's general account and account for them separately. Franchisor may establish separate entities to administer the Fund and the Fund contributions. Franchisor intends the Fund to be of perpetual duration, but Franchisor maintains the right to terminate the Fund or to create new Fund accounts or merge accounts. Franchisor shall not terminate the Fund until all money in the Fund has been expended for advertising and/or marketing purposes or returned to contributors on the basis of their respective contributions. The money contributed to the Fund shall not be considered to be trust funds. Franchisor and any designee shall not have to maintain the money in the Fund in interest bearing accounts or obtain any level of interest on the money and Franchisor does not owe any fiduciary obligation for administering the Fund.

4.3.3.2 Franchisor has the right to use Fund contributions, at its discretion, to meet any and all costs of maintaining, administering, directing, conducting, and preparing advertising, marketing, public relations, and/or promotional programs and materials, either in house or via a third party, and any other activities which Franchisor believes will enhance the image of the Feng Cha System, including the costs of preparing and conducting radio, television, electronic and print advertising campaigns in any local, regional or national medium; utilizing networking and social media sites, such as Facebook, X, LinkedIn, YouTube, Instagram, TikTok, Threads, Pinterest and on-line blogs and forums; creating and/or maintaining a presence in virtual worlds; developing, maintaining, and updating a World Wide Web or Internet site for System Franchised Businesses; direct mail advertising; deploying social networking promotional initiatives through online media channels; marketing surveys; employing advertising and/or public relations agencies to provide assistance; purchasing promotional items; conducting and administering in-store promotions and “mystery shopper” program(s) which may include call recording; implementation and use of Client Relationship Management software and solutions; and providing promotional and other marketing materials and services to the businesses operating under the System. Franchisor is not required to spend any amount of Fund contributions in the area in which the Franchised Business is located. Franchisor’s decisions in all aspects related to the Fund shall be final and binding. Franchisor may charge the Fund for the costs and overhead, if any, Franchisor incurs in activities reasonably related to the creation, implementation and administration of the Fund and the advertising and marketing programs for franchisees. These costs and overhead include the proportionate compensation of Franchisor’s employees who devote time and render services in the conduct, formulation, development and production of advertising, marketing and promotion programs or who administer the Fund. At Franchisee’s written request, Franchisor shall provide unaudited fiscal year end accounting for the applicable Fund expenditures when available. Franchisee may have to purchase advertising materials produced by the Fund, by Franchisor or by its parent, predecessor or affiliate, and Franchisor, or its parent, predecessor or affiliate, may make a profit on the sale. The Fund may spend more or less than the total annual Fund contributions in a given fiscal year and may borrow funds to cover deficits. Fund contributions not spent in the fiscal year in which they accrue, will be carried over for use during the next fiscal year. Locations owned by Franchisor’s affiliates will contribute to the Fund.

4.3.3.3 The advertising and promotion Franchisor conducts is intended to maximize general public recognition and patronage of System businesses and the Feng Cha brand in the manner that Franchisor determines to be most effective. Franchisor will benefit from contacts by new franchisee candidates through its Website, and its franchise opportunity information and application pages will be present within the site, however, Franchisor does not otherwise anticipate that any part of contributions to the Fund will be used for advertising that is principally a solicitation for the sale of additional franchises. Franchisor reserves the right to include a message or statement in any advertisement indicating that franchises are available for purchase and related information. Franchisor is not obligated to ensure that the expenditures from the Fund are proportionate or equivalent to Franchisee’s contributions or that the Franchised Business or any Feng Cha Store shall benefit directly or pro rata or in any amount from the placement of advertising.

4.3.3.4 From time to time, Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, establish special promotional campaigns applicable to the Feng Cha System franchisees as a whole or to specific advertising market areas. If Franchisee participates, or is required to participate, in any special promotional programs, Franchisee shall be required to pay for the development, purchase, lease, installation and/or erection of all materials necessary to such promotional campaigns, including but not limited to posters, banners, signs, photography or give-away items. Franchisee may not offer any special promotional programs without Franchisor’s prior written consent. Additionally, Franchisee shall be required to offer any and all discounts mandated by Franchisor to customers designated by Franchisor to receive same and comply with the requirements of any gift card, gift certificate, customer loyalty or retention, or special promotional program that Franchisor implements for all or part of the System and shall sign the forms and take the other action that Franchisor requires for Franchisee to participate in such programs. Franchisee must honor all gift cards presented regardless of where or how the gift card was originally purchased and must follow the gift card policy in the Manual, including any rules regarding repayment of unredeemed amounts upon non-renewal or termination. Franchisee may not create unapproved gift cards, gift certificates, rewards or loyalty programs. Franchisee cannot offer free products or services unless approved by Franchisor.

4.3.4 Website Requirements. Franchisee shall not develop, own or operate any website (or establish any other online presence, including a presence in virtual worlds, or post to any social media platform, including but not limited to, Facebook, X, LinkedIn, YouTube, Instagram, TikTok, Threads and Pinterest) using the Proprietary Marks or otherwise referring to the Franchised Business or the products or services sold under the Feng Cha System (each the “Website”) without Franchisor’s prior written approval. All content on a Website is deemed to be advertising and must comply with the requirements Franchisor establishes for websites in the Confidential Operations Manual or otherwise. Franchisor has the right, but not the obligation, to establish and maintain a Website, which may promote the Proprietary Marks and /or Feng Cha System and/or the businesses operating under the Feng Cha System. Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, host and give Franchisee access to a separate web page for the Franchised Business on its website(s) (“Location Micro-Site”). Any electronic materials Franchisee proposes to use must be approved in advance by Franchisor before publication to any site. Franchisee shall establish electronic links to Franchisor’s website(s) or any other website Franchisor designates. Franchisor will have the sole right to control all aspects of the Website, including without limitation its design, content, functionality, links to other websites, legal notices, and policies and terms of usage. Franchisor will also have the right to discontinue operation of the Website at any time without notice to Franchisee. Franchisee’s Location Micro-Site may be removed and all mention of the Franchised Business location may be removed from Franchisor’s website and/or social media accounts anytime Franchisee is found to not be in compliance with the System or anything required under this Agreement. Access will be reinstated only once violations are deemed cured, in Franchisor’s sole discretion. Currently, Franchisor does not charge any fee for franchisees for the use of its Website, but reserves the right to do so. Upon the expiration, termination or non-renewal of this agreement, Franchisee will assign any permitted website domain or social media account used in connection with the Franchised Business to Franchisor. Franchisee does not have any responsibility for designing or hosting the Website. Franchisor reserves the right to provide password protected access to conduct all business-related e-mail operations through the private portion of the Location Micro-Site. Franchisee may only use the Website and Internet presence provided by Franchisor.

4.3.5 Advertising Cooperatives. Franchisor reserves the right to create a regional advertising cooperative and require Franchisee to contribute an amount determined by the cooperative, up to 2% of Franchisee's monthly Gross Revenues. Amounts contributed to a cooperative will be in addition to amounts required to be spent on local advertising and marketing. Franchisor has the right to draft Franchisee's bank account for the advertising cooperative contribution and to pass those funds on to the respective cooperative. The cooperative members are responsible for the administration of their respective advertising cooperative, as stated in the by-laws that Franchisor approves. The by-laws and governing agreements will be made available for review by the cooperative's franchisee members. Franchisor may require a cooperative to prepare annual or periodic financial statements for review. Each cooperative will maintain its own funds; however, Franchisor has the right to review the cooperative's finances, if it so chooses. The Franchised Business may not benefit directly or proportionately to its contribution to the Cooperative. Franchisor reserves the right to approve all of a cooperative's marketing programs and advertising materials and any expenditures. On 30 days written notice to affected franchisees, Franchisor may terminate or suspend a cooperative's program or operations. Franchisor may form, change, dissolve or merge any advertising cooperative. Franchisor's affiliate owned businesses may but will have no obligation to participate in any such advertising cooperatives.

4.4 Initial Training Fee. Prior to initial training, Franchisee shall pay Franchisor an amount equal to $10,000 for the costs for delivering in-person training as well as in delivering the follow-up on-site support (estimated at 7 days) when the Franchised Business is under its soft opening.

4.5 Technology Fee. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that changes to technology are dynamic and not predictable within the term of this Agreement. In order to provide for inevitable, but unpredictable, changes to technological needs and opportunities, Franchisee agrees that Franchisor shall have the right to establish, in writing, new standards for the implementation of technology in the Feng Cha System; and Franchisee agrees that he or she will abide by those standards established by Franchisor as if this Agreement were periodically revised by Franchisor for that purpose. Franchisor reserves the right to require Franchisee to pay to Franchisor, its affiliate, or approved vendor, its then-current technology fee (of up to $350) which may be used towards costs in relation to establishing and maintaining software, subscriptions, hosting and other technology related items. Franchisor reserves the right to increase the Technology Fee upon 30 days written notice. This fee is in addition to fees paid direct to third party vendors.

4.6 Step-in-Rights. If Franchisor determines in its sole judgment that the operation of the Franchised Business is in jeopardy due to Franchisee or an owner's death, disability or for any other reason, including occurrence of a default, then in order to prevent an interruption of the Franchised Business which would cause harm to the System and thereby lessen its value, Franchisee authorizes Franchisor to operate the Franchised Business for as long as Franchisor deems necessary and practical, and without waiver of any other rights or remedies which Franchisor may have under this Agreement. In Franchisor's sole judgment, it may deem Franchisee incapable of operating the Franchised Business if, without limitation, Franchisee fails to make payments when due or fails to remove any and all liens or encumbrances of every kind placed upon or against the business; or if Franchisor determines that operational problems require that it operate the Franchised Business for a period of time that it determines, in its sole discretion, to be necessary to maintain the operation of the business as a going concern. Franchisor shall receive its then current fee for same and the reasonable compensation and expenses of its representatives to assist with operating the Franchised Business. Franchisor reserves the right to change its fee upon 30 days written notice. In addition, Franchisee will also be required to pay Franchisor's expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees incurred) and fees due under this agreement, such as royalties. In the event Franchisor exercises these rights, Franchisee agrees to hold Franchisor and its representatives harmless for all actions occurring during the course of such temporary operation. Nothing contained herein shall prevent Franchisor from exercising any other right which it may have under this Agreement, including, without limitation, termination.

4.7 On-Site Evaluation. On-site evaluations are performed as Franchisor deems necessary or in response to reasonable request for site approval.

4.8 Non-Compliance and Prohibited Products. Franchisee shall be responsible to pay Franchisor's $100 per day fee if Franchisee fails any compliance inspection, or otherwise is confirmed to be non-compliant with this agreement or with the operations manual, which will continue to accrue until the deficiency is corrected. Additionally, Franchisee shall be responsible to pay Franchisor's $300 fee for each day of use or offering of unauthorized products or services (including unauthorized ingredients, menu items, services, or use of unauthorized third-party vendors for goods or services) if Franchisee continues to sell or purchase an unauthorized product or service after receiving notice to stop.

4.9 Addendum Fee. Franchisee shall be responsible to pay Franchisor's $500 fee for modifications or changes to this agreement that necessitate an addendum.

4.10 Re-Examination Fee. Franchisee shall be responsible to pay Franchisor's $100 fee plus the inspector's travel costs (inclusive of a reasonable fee for the driving or commuting time to and from Franchisee's store and inclusive of any required round trip airfare, lodging, ground transportation, and per diem meals) in the event Franchisee fails an on-site inspection performed by Franchisor or its designee and a reinspection is performed.

4.11 Collection Costs, Attorneys' Fees, Interest Late Fee. Any late payment or underpayment of the Royalty Fee, advertising contributions and any other charges or fees due Franchisor or its parent, predecessor or affiliate from Franchisee shall bear interest from the due date until paid at the lesser of 1.5% interest per month or the highest lawful interest rate which may be charged for commercial transactions in the state in which the Franchised Business is located. If Franchisor engages an attorney to collect any unpaid amounts under this Agreement or any related agreement (whether or not formal judicial proceedings are initiated), Franchisee shall pay all reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and collection expenses incurred by Franchisor. If Franchisee is in breach or default of any non-monetary material obligation under this Agreement or any related agreement, and Franchisor engages an attorney to enforce its rights (whether or not formal judicial proceedings are initiated), Franchisee shall pay all reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and other expenses incurred by Franchisor. If Franchisee institutes any legal action to interpret or enforce the terms of this Agreement and the claim in the action is denied or the action is dismissed, Franchisor may recover its reasonable attorneys' fees, and all other reasonable costs and expenses incurred in defending against the same.

4.12 Audit. Franchisee shall maintain accurate business records, reports, correspondence, accounts, books and data relating to Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business. At any time during normal business hours, Franchisor or its designee may enter the Franchised Business or any other premises where these materials are maintained and inspect and/or audit Franchisee's business records and make copies to determine if Franchisee is accurately maintaining same. Alternatively, upon request from Franchisor, Franchisee shall deliver these materials to Franchisor or its designee. If any audit reveals that Franchisee has understated Gross Revenues by 2% or more, or if Franchisee has failed to submit complete Reports and/or remittances to Franchisor for any 2 reporting periods within a 12 month period, or Franchisee does not make these materials available, Franchisee shall pay the reasonable cost of the audit and/or inspection, including the cost of auditors and attorneys, incurred by Franchisor, together with amounts due for royalty and other fees as a result of such understated Gross Revenues, including interest from the date when the Gross Revenues should have been reported, no later than fourteen (14) days after the completion of such audit.

4.13 Financial Records and Reports. Franchisee shall maintain for at least 5 fiscal years from their production, or any longer period required by law, complete financial records for the operation of the Franchised Business in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and shall provide Franchisor with: (i) the Gross Revenue records, which Franchisor may access on a regular basis through the point of sale system or other equipment used in connection with the recording of Franchisee's Gross Revenues; (ii) annual financial reports and operating statements in the form specified by Franchisor on the date specified by Franchisor (Franchisor reserves the right to require that it receive reports prepared by a certified public accountant or state licensed public accountant, within 60 days after the close of each fiscal year of Franchisee); (iii) state and local sales tax returns or reports within 15 days after their timely completion; (iv) federal, state and local income tax returns for each year in which the Franchised Business is operated, within 60 days after their timely completion; and (v) such other reports as Franchisor may from time to time require, in the form and at the time prescribed by Franchisor, for which Franchisor may require preparation by a certified public accountant. To assist Franchisee in recording and keeping accurate and detailed financial records for reports and tax returns, Franchisor, at its discretion, may specify the form in which the business records are to be maintained, provide a uniform set of business records to be used by Franchisee, and specify the type of point of sale system or other equipment and software to be used in connection with the recording of Gross Revenues. Franchisor may obtain Gross Revenues and other information from Franchisee by modem or other similar means, from a remote location, without the need for consent, at the times and in the manner as Franchisor specifies, in Franchisor's sole discretion. Franchisee will keep its books and records related to this business separate from any other business owned by Franchisee or its principals. Any such separate business will be conducted by a separate entity. In the event the Franchisee fails to submit the required financial statements on timely basis, at franchisees expense, the Franchisor shall have the right to hire an independent CPA to prepare and submit the required financial statements when due.

4.14 Taxes on Payments to Franchisor. In the event any taxing authority, wherever located, shall impose any tax, levy or assessment on any payment made by Franchisee to Franchisor, Franchisee shall, in addition to all payments due to Franchisor, pay such tax, levy or assessment, which will enable Franchisor to receive the payment in full.

4.15 No Right of Set Off. Franchisee has no right to offset or withhold payments of any kind owed or to be owed to Franchisor, or its parent, predecessor or affiliate, against amounts purportedly due as a result of any dispute of any nature or otherwise, except as authorized by an award from a court of competent jurisdiction.

5. FRANCHISOR SERVICES

5.1. Site Selection.

5.1.1. Site Selection Assistance. Franchisor or its designated suppliers may assist Franchisee in identifying potential locations that meet Franchisor's standards and criteria, including size, layout and other physical characteristics. Franchisee must acquire an acceptable site within 6 months from the effective date of this Agreement. This assistance provided by Franchisor or its designees does not relieve Franchisee of the primary obligation to locate and open a suitable site in the required timeframe.

5.1.2. Site Selection Approval. Franchisor or its designated suppliers shall review and approve or reject sites proposed by Franchisee for the location of the Franchised Business. Final site selection must be acceptable to both Franchisor and Franchisee. Upon the selection of a mutually acceptable site, Franchisor or its designee shall review Franchisee's proposed lease or purchase agreement for the premises. Neither Franchisor's approval of a site nor approval of a proposed lease or purchase agreement constitutes a representation that the Franchised Business shall be successful.

5.2. Layout. Franchisor shall provide Franchisee with a copy of a floor plan designed for a prototypical Feng Cha store. Franchisee shall construct and equip the Franchised Business in accordance with Franchisor's then-current approved specifications and standards pertaining to design and layout of the premises, and to equipment, signs, fixtures, furnishings, location and design and accessory features. Franchisee must hire an architect approved by Franchisor to prepare plans and make any necessary changes to the standard floor plan design. The architect must certify that the architectural renderings, plans, and specifications comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (the "ADA"), the architectural guidelines under the ADA, and all applicable state and local codes for accessible facilities before approval will be granted for the final plans. Franchisee shall bear the cost and responsibility of compliance with state or local ordinances, including but not limited to architectural seals, zoning and other permits. All costs of and connected with the construction, leasehold improvements, equipment, furnishings, fixtures, and signs are the responsibility of Franchisee. The layout, design and appearance (the "trade dress") of the Franchised Business shall meet Franchisor's approval and conform to Franchisor's standards and specifications as set forth in the Confidential Operations Manual, and Franchisee may not alter the trade dress without Franchisor's consent.

5.3. Training.

5.3.1 Initial Training. Franchisor shall provide, either itself or through its designee, an initial training program to be held in the greater Dallas Texas area, at the Franchised Location or another location designated by Franchisor, or virtually, at the times Franchisor shall designate, at Franchisor's discretion. Initial training is provided at no cost for up to three attendees (consisting of Franchisee or Franchisee's Operating Principal and General Manager). Franchisor shall schedule an initial training program, at Franchisor's convenience, between the time Franchisee signs this Agreement and the time Franchisee is scheduled to open the Franchised Business. Franchisee must first complete an orientation, delivered via online portal (with a required 90% completion score). Franchisee, or if Franchisee is a business entity, Franchisee's Operating Principal, and Franchisee's General Manager must attend and complete the initial training program to Franchisor's satisfaction at least thirty (30) days prior to the opening of the Franchised Business. Franchisee shall be responsible for the personal expenses, including transportation to and from the training site and lodging, meals, and salaries during training, for individuals attending training. If initial training is otherwise required for Franchisee or any equity owner, General Manager, or other employee, Franchisee shall pay Franchisor's then-current tuition (up to a maximum of $1,000 per person per day, plus expenses) for each person to attend the initial training program. Franchisee (or Franchisee's Operating Principal) and General Manager must satisfactorily complete initial training. If Franchisee (or Franchisee's Operating Principal) or Franchisee's General Manager do not satisfactorily complete the initial training program, the individuals who have not passed must, at Franchisee's cost, do remedial training. If the individuals attending remedial training are still unable to pass the final exam a second time Franchisor may terminate this Agreement. Franchisor may, but is not required to, allow Franchisee to provide training to replacement personnel but such training may not occur unless Franchisor provides advanced written consent. Additionally, Franchisee must make arrangements to ensure that Franchisee's owners and all employees hold all certifications required by Franchisor from time to time from organizations designated by Franchisor, in its discretion, which may include ServSafe Manager Training (or similar, in Franchisor's sole discretion).

5.3.2 On-Site Training; Remedial Training. Franchisor shall provide other on-going assistance as Franchisor deems appropriate and advisable. Subject to availability of personnel and at the request of Franchisee, or in the event Franchisor deems it necessary, Franchisor shall make available corporate personnel to provide additional on-site assistance at Franchisee's location and may charge Franchisee its then-current tuition (up to a maximum of $1,000 per person per day) plus the travel, lodging and meal costs for Franchisor's trainers. If remedial training occurs offsite, Franchisee must pay Franchisor's then-current fee (up to a maximum of $1,000 per person per day) plus transportation expenses, lodging, meals and salary for all attendees.

5.3.3 Refresher Courses; Supplemental Training. Franchisor reserves the right to offer refresher courses and supplemental training programs, and continuing education courses which, in Franchisor's sole discretion, may be optional or mandatory, from time to time, to Franchisee, its equity owners (if Franchisee is a business entity), its General Manager, instructors and/or its employees. In addition to paying Franchisor's then-current cost for tuition (up to a maximum of $1,000 per person per day), Franchisee shall be responsible for the personal expenses, including transportation to and from the training site and lodging, meals, and salaries during training, for individuals attending any refresher or supplemental training.

5.4. Continuing Consultation and Advice. In addition to the assistance rendered Franchisee prior to opening, Franchisor shall provide Franchisee continuing consultation and advice as Franchisor deems advisable during the term of this Agreement regarding client procurement, sales and marketing techniques, inventory, personnel development and other business, operational and advertising matters that directly relate to the operation of the Franchised Business. Such assistance may be provided by telephone, facsimile, email, postings to Franchisor's intranet, periodically through on-site assistance by appropriate personnel of Franchisor, and/or other methods. Franchisor reserves the right to delegate any or all of its obligations under this Agreement to a third party of its choosing. Franchisor is not obligated to perform services set forth in this Agreement to any particular level of satisfaction, but as a function of Franchisor's experience, knowledge and judgment. Franchisor does not represent or warrant that any other services will be provided, other than as set forth in this Agreement.

5.5. Confidential Operations Manual. Franchisor shall loan or otherwise provide access by Franchisee to one copy of a specifications, operations and procedures manual, and one copy of other books, binders, videos or other electronic media, intranet postings and other materials, and appropriate revisions as may be made from time to time, referred to collectively as the "Confidential Operations Manual". Franchisee shall operate the Franchised Business in strict compliance with the Confidential Operations Manual. From time to time Franchisor may, through changes in the Confidential Operations Manual or by other notice to Franchisee, change any standard or specification or any of the Proprietary Marks applicable to the operation of the Franchised Business or change all or any part of the System, and Franchisee shall take all actions, at Franchisee's expense, to implement these changes. Franchisor may vary the standards and specifications to take into account unique features of specific locations or types of locations, special requirements and other factors Franchisor considers relevant in its sole discretion. The Confidential Operations Manual shall be confidential and at all times remain the property of Franchisor. Franchisee shall not make any disclosure, duplication or other unauthorized use of any portion of the Confidential Operations Manual. The provisions of the Confidential Operations Manual constitute provisions of this Agreement as if fully set forth in this Agreement. Franchisee shall ensure that its copy of the Confidential Operations Manual is current and up-to-date. If there is a dispute relating to the contents of the Confidential Operations Manual, the master copy maintained by Franchisor at its principal office shall be controlling. Franchisor may elect to provide the Confidential Operations Manual solely through Franchisor's website(s) and/or intranets or other electronic means without any need to provide Franchisee with a paper copy or other physical format. Franchisor may release the Confidential Operations Manual in sections at varying times.

5.6. Annual Franchise Meeting. Franchisor reserves the right to hold a conference of all franchisees, which will not be held more frequently than annually. Franchisor may designate that attendance at a franchisee conference by Franchisee, Franchisee's Operating Principal, General Manager and/or certain personnel is mandatory. Franchisee must pay all expenses incurred by all attendees on its behalf, including travel, lodging, meals, applicable wages and meeting materials.

6. FRANCHISE SYSTEM STANDARDS

6.1. Opening for Business. Franchisee must open the Franchised Business for business within twelve (12) months after the execution of this Agreement. Franchisee shall not open the Franchised Business for business until Franchisee has complied with Franchisor's requirements for opening, and Franchisor has granted Franchisee written permission to open. Franchisor's opening requirements include: (i) Franchisee must have paid the initial franchise fee and other amounts then due to Franchisor, or its affiliate; (ii) the Franchised Business complies with Franchisor's standards and specifications; (iii) all required personnel have satisfactorily completed Franchisor's pre-opening training requirements; (iv) Franchisee has obtained all applicable licenses and permits; (v) Franchisee has provided Franchisor with copies of all required insurance policies and evidence of coverage and premium payment and (vi) Franchisor has provided its written approval. If the Franchised Business is not opened for business within twelve (12) months from the date of this Agreement, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement.

6.2. Compliance with Standards. Franchisee acknowledges that its obligations under this Agreement are reasonable, necessary and desirable for the operation of the Franchised Business and the Feng Cha System. Franchisee shall adhere to Franchisor's standards and specifications as set forth in this Agreement and the Confidential Operations Manual, including, but not limited to, specifications of product quality and uniformity and equipment compatibility among individual Feng Cha franchisees, inventory requirements and any revisions or amendments. Franchisee shall purchase only products and services, including Feng Cha branded products, inventory, supplies, furniture, fixtures, equipment, signs, software and logo-imprinted products, which Franchisor approves, including purchasing from approved suppliers or a designated sole supplier for any items. Franchisor and its parent, predecessor or affiliate may be an approved supplier or designated sole supplier for any purchases of products or services, and may obtain revenue from Franchisee and make a profit. Franchisee must purchase or obtain these products and services through Franchisor or a supplier approved by Franchisor at the then-current costs. If Franchisor designates itself or its affiliate as the sole supplier of an item no other vendor may be used. Franchisee may designate a third-party vendor as a sole supplier of items which originate from Franchisor or its affiliate. Purchase of these items from the third-party vendor is required and, in that case, only those items that originate from Franchisor or its affiliate may be used at the Franchised Business. Franchisee cannot be a supplier to other franchisees without Franchisor's written approval. Franchisee may not install any fixtures, furnishings, equipment, décor items, signs, games, vending machines or other items that do not comply with our specifications, without or written consent. If Franchisor has not designated an approved supplier for a particular product or service, Franchisee shall purchase these products and services only from suppliers that meet Franchisor's standards and specifications. Franchisor is not liable for the actions of any supplier or vendor. Franchisee may request approval of a supplier, product or item under Franchisor's published procedures, which include inspection of the facilities and testing of product samples. Franchisor may charge its then-current fee ($500 per request or up to $2,000 if a request involves more than one supplier, product or item of equipment) for making a determination on the proposed supplier, product or item as well as require reimbursement of its testing and evaluation costs, regardless of whether the supplier, product or item are ultimately approved. Franchisee may also be responsible for reimbursing costs for evaluations if Franchisee is found to be offering unapproved items. Franchisor reserves the right, at its option, to re-inspect the facilities and products of any approved supplier, and to revoke approval if the supplier fails to continue to meet any of Franchisor's criteria. Franchisor may receive fees and other payments from suppliers and others in connection with Franchisee's purchases and may use the fees for Franchisor's own purposes. Franchisee may only offer and sell the products and services that Franchisor periodically specifies and may not offer or sell at the Franchised Business, the Approved Location or any other location any products or services Franchisor has not authorized. Franchisee must discontinue selling and offering for sale any products or services that Franchisor at any time disapproves. Franchisee agrees at all times to operate and maintain the Franchised Business according to each and every System standard, as Franchisor periodically modifies and supplements them. System standards may regulate any aspect of the Franchised Business's operation and maintenance, including requirements on the music played in the Franchised Business. Franchisor may impose its then-current fine for each incident of Franchisee's non-compliance. Franchisor may recommend or mandate pricing for products and services to be sold at the Franchised Business (subject to state law).

6.3. Operations.

6.3.1. Franchisee shall keep the Franchised Business open as specified by Franchisor in the Confidential Operations Manual and must keep the Franchised Business opened for the minimum hours and days as required.

6.3.2. Franchisee shall maintain the Franchised Business in a clean, safe and attractive manner, and in accordance with all applicable requirements of law and the Confidential Operations Manual. Franchisee and its employees shall give prompt, courteous and efficient service to the public and shall otherwise operate the Franchised Business so as to preserve, maintain and enhance the reputation and goodwill of the Feng Cha System.

6.3.3. Franchisee shall at all times maintain and employ working capital as Franchisor may reasonably deem necessary to enable Franchisee to properly and fully carry out and perform all of its duties, obligations and responsibilities under this Agreement and to operate the business in a businesslike, proper and efficient manner.

6.3.4. Franchisee shall operate the Franchised Business in conformity with the highest ethical standards and sound business practices and in a manner which shall enhance the Feng Cha Proprietary Marks and brand and the Feng Cha System. Franchisee shall employ a sufficient number of qualified, competent people to satisfy the demand for its products and services as well as other office personnel. Franchisee shall be solely responsible for all employment decisions and functions, including hiring, firing, discipline, supervision, setting terms of employment and compensation and implementing a training program for employees of the Franchised Business in accordance with training standards and procedures Franchisor specifies in order for Franchisee to conduct the business of the Franchised Business at all times in compliance with Franchisor's requirements. Franchisee shall never represent or imply to prospective employees that they shall be or are employed by Franchisor. Franchisee must communicate clearly with its employees in its employment agreements, employee manuals, human resources materials, written and electronic correspondence, pay checks and other materials that Franchisee (and only Franchisee) is their employer, and Franchisor is not their employer and does not engage in any employer-type activities, for which only Franchisee is responsible.

6.3.5. Franchisee acknowledges that proper management of the Franchised Business is extremely important. Franchisee (or its Operating Principal) is responsible for the management, direction and control of the Franchised Business. If Franchisee is an entity, Franchisee must appoint and maintain throughout the Term an "Operating Principal", who must be an equity owner of at least 10% of the Franchised Business. The Operating Principal is identified on Exhibit 2 to this Agreement. The Operating Principal shall have the authority to bind Franchisee in all operational decisions regarding the Franchised Business. Franchisor shall have the right to rely on any statement, agreement or representation made by the Operating Principal. The Operating Principal cannot be changed without Franchisor's prior written approval.

Franchisee must hire a General Manager to be responsible for the direct on-premises supervision of the Franchised Business at all times during the hours of operation. Franchisee's General Manager must furnish full-time attention and best efforts to the management of the Franchised Business. However, Franchisee is still responsible for the operations of the Franchised Business and its obligations under the Franchise Agreement. Franchisee may not change the General Manager of the Franchised Business without Franchisor's prior approval. Additionally, in the event the Feng Cha Store fails any inspection by Franchisor Franchisee will be required to pay Franchisor's $500 re-inspection fee, as well as Franchisor's expenses, including travel, lodging, meals and wages for Franchisor's representatives performing the re-inspection. 6.8. Changes to the System. Franchisor may, from time to time, change the standards and specifications applicable to operation of the Franchised Business, including standards and specifications for inventory, products, services, supplies, signs, fixtures, furnishings, technology and equipment, by written notice to Franchisee or through changes in the Confidential Operations Manual. Franchisor also may from time to time eliminate and introduce new services and products. Franchisee may incur an increased cost to comply with such changes, and Franchisee shall accept and implement such changes at its own expense as if they were part of the Feng Cha System when this Agreement was executed, including discontinuing or modifying the use of or substituting any of the Proprietary Marks.

6.9. Authorized Products, Services, Supplies, and Equipment.

6.9.2. Franchisee shall use in the operation of the Franchised Business only such products, supplies and equipment as are specified by Franchisor in the Confidential Operations Manual, or otherwise in writing by Franchisor. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that these may be changed periodically by Franchisor and that Franchisee is obligated to conform to the requirements as so changed.

6.9.3. Franchisor shall have the exclusive right in its sole discretion to vary from the authorized products in establishing the authorized product line for the Franchised Business. Complete and detailed uniformity under many varying conditions may not always be possible or practical and Franchisor reserves the right and privilege, at its sole discretion, to vary not only the products but other standards for any System franchisee based upon the customs or circumstances of a particular site or location, density of population, business potential, population of trade area, existing business practices, or any condition which Franchisor deems to be of importance to the operation of that franchisee's business.

6.9.4. Franchisee shall at all times use and maintain only such products, equipment, supplies and services as Franchisor specifies, which Franchisee shall obtain before opening the Franchised Business. As any products, equipment, supplies or services may become obsolete or inoperable, Franchisee shall replace the same with such products, equipment, supplies and services as are then being used in new Feng Cha Stores at the time of replacement.

6.9.5. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor reserves the right to develop a point of sale (POS) system and a backroom computer system for use in connection with the System. Franchisee shall acquire computer hardware equipment, software, maintenance contracts, telecommunications infrastructure products and credit card processing equipment and support services as Franchisor reasonably requires in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business and all additions, substitutions and upgrades Franchisor shall specify. Franchisor owns all Feng Cha e-mail addresses and has full access to all communications sent and received using those addresses. Franchisor shall have the right to access information through the Point of Sale system related to operation of the Feng Cha Franchised Business, from a remote location, at such times and in such manner as Franchisor shall require, in its sole discretion and shall have the right to disclose the information and data contained therein to a third party and/or the System. Franchisee may also be required to install a camera system at the Franchised Business and, upon request, must provide Franchisor with access to evaluate an event and/or the facility. All Franchisee employees must sign documentation acknowledging that they may be recorded and/or may be subject to monitoring and agreeing to same.

6.9.6. Franchisee acknowledges that the quality and consistency of the products and services offered to Franchisee's customers are essential conditions of this Agreement. Accordingly, Franchisee shall purchase all products, packaging, equipment, and other specified items exclusively in accordance with Franchisor's standards and specifications as provided in Section 6.2. Franchisor is not obligated to approve or consider for approval any item or supplier not specified by it. Franchisor may derive income through markups of the prices charged for products, ingredients, services and kitchen equipment it or its affiliates supply, whether directly or indirectly.

6.10. Pending Actions. Franchisee shall notify Franchisor, in writing, within five (5) days of the commencement of any action, suit or proceeding and of the issuance of any order, suit or proceeding of any court, agency or other governmental instrumentality which may adversely affect the operation or financial condition of Franchisee or the Franchised Business.

6.11 Media. Franchisee is prohibited from speaking with the media and/or responding to requests for comment, without Franchisor's express written permission. Only Franchisor may handle public relations on behalf of Feng Cha. Franchisee must notify Franchisor immediately of all customer complaints and of any potential crisis situations involving the Franchised Business, including but not limited to any accident or injury that occurs on the property operated by the Franchised Business.

6.12 Customer Service. Every detail of the quality of customer service, customer relations, appearance and demeanor of Franchisee and its employees and/or independent contractors, equipment and materials used by Franchisee in the Franchised Business is important to Franchisor and to other Feng Cha Stores. Franchisee must cooperate with Franchisor by maintaining its high standards in the operation of the Franchised Business and must give prompt, courteous and efficient service to all customers. The Franchised Business will in all dealings with its customers, suppliers and the public adhere to the highest standards of honesty, fair dealing and ethical conduct. Any complaints Franchisee receives from a customer must be handled by Franchisee or its General Manager. Franchisor may perform customer surveys via any method Franchisor deems appropriate and may require Franchisee to participate in any survey program, at Franchisee's cost.

7. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS OF FRANCHISEE.

7.1. Independent Contractor Status. Franchisee is an independent contractor, responsible for full control over the management and daily operation of the Franchised Business, and neither Franchisor nor Franchisee is the agent, principal, partner, employee, employer or joint venturer of the other. Franchisee shall not act or represent itself, directly or by implication, as an agent, partner, employee or joint venturer of Franchisor, nor shall Franchisee incur any obligation on behalf of or in the name of Franchisor.

7.2. Indemnification. Franchisee shall defend, indemnify and hold Franchisor and its parents, predecessors, affiliates, and any of its/their respective officers, directors, managers, members, partners, shareholders, independent contractors and employees (the “Indemnified Parties”) harmless from all fines, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, liabilities, injuries, damages, expenses, obligations or actions of any kind (including costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) arising in whole or in part from Franchisee's ownership, operation or occupation of the Franchised Business, performance or breach of its obligations under this Agreement, breach of any warranty or representation in this Agreement or from the acts or omissions of Franchisee, its employees or agents, including its advertising of the Franchised Business, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. Franchisor and any Indemnified Party shall promptly give Franchisee written notice of any claim for indemnification under this Section 7.2. Any failure to give the notice shall not relieve Franchisee of any liability under this Agreement except to the extent the failure or delay causes actual material prejudice. Franchisor shall have the right to control all litigation and defend and/or settle any claim against Franchisor or other Indemnified Parties affecting Franchisor's interests, in any manner Franchisor deems appropriate. Franchisor may also retain its own counsel to represent Franchisor or other Indemnified Parties and Franchisee shall either advance or reimburse Franchisor's costs, at Franchisor's discretion. Franchisor's exercise of this control over the litigation shall not affect its rights to indemnification under this Section 7.2. Franchisee may not consent to the entry of judgment with respect to, or otherwise settle, an indemnified claim without the prior written consent of Franchisor or of the applicable Indemnified Parties. Franchisor and the other Indemnified Parties do not have to seek recovery from third parties or otherwise attempt to mitigate losses to maintain a claim to indemnification under this Section 7.2. The provisions of this Section 7.2 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

7.3. Payment of Debts. Franchisee understands that it alone, and not Franchisor, is responsible for selecting, retaining and paying its employees; the payment of all invoices for the purchase of inventory and goods and services for use in the Franchised Business; and determining whether, and on what terms, to obtain any financing or credit which Franchisee deems advisable or necessary for the conduct and operation of the Franchised Business.

7.4. Noncompetition.

7.4.1. During the Term of This Agreement. During the term of this Agreement, neither Franchisee, its equity owners nor any spouse of Franchisee or its equity owners shall, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, partnership or corporation own, maintain, engage in, be employed by, or have any interest in any other business of a character and concept similar to the Franchised Business and which primarily offers competing products and services as a Feng Cha store (a “Competing Business”); provided, however, that this Section shall not apply to Franchisee's operation of any other Franchised Business.

During the term of this Agreement, neither Franchisee, its equity owners nor any spouse of Franchisee or its equity owners shall, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, partnership or corporation solicit business from customers of Franchisee's Franchised Business for any competitive business purpose.

During the term of this Agreement, neither Franchisee, its equity owners nor any spouse of Franchisee or its equity owners shall, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, partnership, corporation or other entity own, maintain, engage in, be employed by, or have any interest in any company which grants franchises or licenses for any business competing in whole or in part with Franchisor.

7.4.2. After the Term of This Agreement. For a period of 2 years after the expiration and nonrenewal, transfer or termination of this Agreement (or the maximum period allowed by law, if shorter), regardless of the cause, neither Franchisee, its equity owners nor any spouse Franchisee or its equity owners shall, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, partnership or corporation own, maintain, engage in, be employed by, or have any interest in any Competing Business within a radius of 10 miles (as the crow flies) of the Franchised Business, or any other Feng Cha store in operation or under construction, or of any site for which Franchisee has knowledge that a lease has been signed or discussions are under way for a Feng Cha store; provided, however, Franchisee may continue to operate any other Franchised Business for which Franchisee and Franchisor have a current franchise agreement.

For a period of 2 years (or the maximum period allowed by law, if shorter) after the expiration and nonrenewal, transfer or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause, neither Franchisee, its equity owners nor any spouse of Franchisee or its equity owners shall, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, partnership or corporation solicit business from clients of Franchisee's former Franchised Business for any competitive business purpose nor solicit any employee of Franchisor or any other Feng Cha System franchisee to discontinue his employment with Franchisor or any other System franchisee.

For a period of 2 years (or the maximum period allowed by law, if shorter) after the expiration and nonrenewal, transfer or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause, neither Franchisee, its equity owners nor any spouse of Franchisee or its equity owners shall, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, partnership, corporation or other entity own, maintain, engage in, be employed by, or have any interest in any company which grants franchises or licenses for any business competing in whole or in part with the Feng Cha System.

7.4.3. Intent and Enforcement. It is the intent of the parties that the provisions of this Section 7.4 shall, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, be judicially enforced; accordingly, any reduction in scope or modification of any part of the noncompetition provisions contained in this Agreement shall not render any other part unenforceable. In the event of the actual or threatened breach of this Section 7.4 by Franchisee, any of its equity owners or any spouse of Franchisee or any of its equity owners, Franchisor shall be entitled to an injunction restraining such person from any such actual or threatened breach. In the event of the actual or threatened breach of this Section 7.4, Franchisor's harm shall be irreparable and Franchisor shall have no adequate remedy at law to prevent the harm. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees on its own behalf and on behalf of the persons who are liable under Section 7.4 that each has previously worked or been gainfully employed in other fields and that the provisions of Section 7.4 in no way prevent any of these persons from earning a living. Franchisee further acknowledges and agrees that the provisions of Section 7.4 shall be tolled during any default of this Agreement.

7.4.4. Publicly-Owned Entity. This Section 7.4 shall not apply to any ownership by Franchisee or any other person subject to Section 7.4 of a beneficial interest of less than 1% in the outstanding securities or partnership interests in any publicly-held entity.

7.4.5. Non-Disparagement. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of 2 years after the expiration and nonrenewal, transfer or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause Franchisee agrees not to disparage Franchisor, its parents, affiliate or any of their current and former employees, officers or directors. During the term of the Agreement, Franchisee also agrees not to do or perform any act harmful, prejudicial or injurious to Franchisor or the Feng Cha System.

7.5. Telephone. Franchisee shall obtain at its own expense a new telephone number and listing, to be listed under the Feng Cha name and not under Franchisee's corporate, partnership, or individual name, to be used exclusively in connection with Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business. Upon the expiration and nonrenewal, transfer or termination of this Agreement for any reason, Franchisee shall terminate its use of such telephone number and listing and assign same to Franchisor or its designee and Franchisee shall execute Franchisor's form of Telephone, Internet Websites and Listings Agreement (a copy of Franchisor's current form is attached as Exhibit 10). The Franchised Business shall be serviced by a suitable telephone system approved by Franchisor. Franchisee shall answer the telephone in the manner set forth by Franchisor in the Confidential Operations Manual or otherwise.

7.6. Insurance. At all times during the term of this Agreement and at its own expense, Franchisee shall obtain and keep in force at a minimum the insurance required by Franchisor in the Confidential Operations Manual or otherwise, and deductibles, if any, may only be permitted in amounts as approved by Franchisor. The policies must contain certain clauses approved by Franchisor and must be "occurrence" coverage rather than "claims made" coverage, unless otherwise expressly agreed by Franchisor. If the lease for the Franchised Business requires Franchisee to purchase additional insurance or insurance with higher limits than those Franchisor specifies, the lease insurance requirements shall control. All insurance policies shall contain a separate endorsement providing coverage at least as broad as ISO forms CG2033 and CG2029 or equivalent (no blanket additional insured language is acceptable) naming Franchisor, its officers, directors, managers, members, limited partners, general partners, shareholders, parents, affiliates, independent contractors and employees as additional insureds, and shall expressly provide that any interest of an additional insured shall not be affected by Franchisee's breach of any policy provisions or any negligence on the part of an additional insured. All policies shall also include a waiver of subrogation in favor of the additional insureds. All insurance must be written by an insurance carrier with an A. M. Best and Standard and Poor's rating of at least "A" or better. All policies shall be written by an insurance carrier approved in writing by Franchisor. Franchisor may require that Franchisee obtain coverage from a carrier it designates. Franchisor's approved of an insurance carrier does not constitute Franchisor's representation or guarantee that the insurance carrier shall remain a going concern or capable of meeting claim demands during the term of the insurance policy. Defense costs cannot erode policy limits. No insurance policy shall be subject to cancellation, termination, nonrenewal or material modification, except upon at least 30 days' prior written notice from the insurance carrier to Franchisor. Upon Franchisor's request, and at least annually, Franchisee shall provide Franchisor with a currently issued certificate of insurance evidencing coverage in conformity with the provisions of this Section 7.6. If Franchisee fails to comply with at least the minimum insurance requirements set forth by Franchisor, Franchisor may obtain the insurance and keep the insurance in force and effect and Franchisee shall pay Franchisor, on demand, the cost of the premium plus Franchisor's administrative fee in the amount of 25% of the premium cost in connection with obtaining the insurance. Franchisor may also choose to terminate the Franchise Agreement for failure to obtain required insurance. Franchisor may increase or otherwise modify the minimum insurance requirements upon 30 days prior written notice to Franchisee, and Franchisee shall comply with any such modification. Franchisee's obligation to obtain the required policies in the amounts specified is not limited in any way by any insurance Franchisor maintains. Franchisee's obligation to maintain the insurance does not relieve Franchisee of any liability under the indemnity provisions of Section 7.2. If Franchisee will be engaging in any construction, renovation or build-out of the premises for the Franchised Business, either Franchisee or Franchisee's third party contractor must have in force for the duration of said project, Commercial General Liability insurance and Worker's Compensation and Employer's Liability insurance in the amounts required by Franchisor as well as Builder's Risk insurance in an amount approved by Franchisor.

7.7. Publicity. Franchisee shall permit Franchisor or its designee, at Franchisor's expense, to enter upon the premises of the Franchised Business, both interior and exterior, for the purpose of taking or making photographs, slides, drawings, or other such images ("pictures") of the Franchised Business. Franchisee agrees that Franchisor may use the pictures for publicity and other legal purposes without any remuneration to Franchisee in connection with the use of the pictures. Franchisor also reserves the right to require Franchisee to place a "franchises available" sign at a location Franchisor designates at the Franchised Business.

7.8. Distribution. Franchisor or its affiliates may distribute products identified by the Proprietary Marks or other marks owned or licensed by Franchisor or its affiliates through any distribution method which periodically may be established or licensed by Franchisor or its affiliates and may franchise or license others to do so, except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement.

7.9. Image. The Feng Cha System has been developed to deliver products and services which distinguish Feng Cha Stores from other businesses which offer similar products and services. Therefore, Franchisor requires Franchisee to offer products and services and operate the Franchised Business in such a manner which shall serve to emulate and enhance the image intended by Franchisor for the Feng Cha System. Each aspect of the Feng Cha System is important not only to Franchisee but also Franchisor, its parent, predecessor and affiliate, and other Feng Cha franchisees in order to maintain the highest operating standards, achieve system wide uniformity and increase the demand for the products sold and services rendered by Feng Cha System franchisees, Franchisor and its parent, predecessor and affiliate. Franchisee shall comply with the standards, specifications and requirements set forth by Franchisor in order to uniformly convey the distinctive image of a Feng Cha Store.

8. SALE OR TRANSFER

8.1. Consent to Transfer. Franchisee's rights under this Agreement are personal, and if Franchisee is an individual, Franchisee shall not change, sell, transfer, assign or encumber its percentage of ownership interest in this Agreement or the Franchised Business, without the prior written consent of Franchisor. Any unauthorized transfer by Franchisee shall constitute a material breach of the Agreement and shall be voidable by Franchisor. If Franchisee is an entity, Section 8.3 shall govern.

8.2. Death or Disability. In the event of the death, disability or incapacity of any individual Franchisee or officer or director or member of an incorporated Franchisee or limited liability company or partner of a partnership Franchisee, should the decedent's or disabled or incapacitated person's executor, heir or legal representative, or the business entity, as the case may be, wish to continue as Franchisee under this Agreement, such person shall apply for Franchisor's consent, execute the then-current franchise agreement, and complete the training program to Franchisor's satisfaction, as applicable, as in any other case of a proposed transfer of Franchisee's interest in this Agreement. Such assignment by operation of law shall not be deemed a violation of this Agreement, provided the heirs or legatees or business entity meet the conditions imposed by this Agreement and are acceptable to Franchisor.

If Franchisee is a business entity, this Agreement shall continue in effect upon the death of the largest equity owner, provided that the active management of the business entity shall remain stable and reasonably satisfactory to Franchisor in its sole discretion.

Franchisee's executor, heir or legal representative shall have 60 days from the date of death, disability or incapacity to designate an operator that is acceptable to Franchisor and within 120 days must execute Franchisor's then-current franchise agreement or transfer the franchise rights and business upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement (except that the term shall be the balance of Franchisee's term). At the conclusion of the balance of the term, the new franchisee may exercise any or all of the then applicable renewal rights.

8.3. Entity Ownership Changes. A transfer requiring the prior written consent of Franchisor shall be deemed to occur upon any sale, transfer, assignment or encumbrance of Franchisee's interest in this Agreement or the Franchised Business. Additionally, a transfer requiring consent shall be deemed to occur (i) if Franchisee is a corporation or limited liability company, upon any change, assignment, sale, pledge or transfer of any of the voting stock or membership interests of Franchisee including any ownership restructuring of Franchisee or of any owners of Franchisee; or (ii) if Franchisee is a partnership, upon the change, assignment, sale, pledge or transfer of any partnership ownership, including an ownership restructuring of Franchisee or of any owners of Franchisee. Franchisee shall notify Franchisor of any change in stock ownership, membership interests or partnership ownership interests in Franchisee while this Agreement is in effect which shall result in a change, sale, transfer or assignment within the meaning of this Section 8.3. A transfer as a result of the death, disability or incapacity of a partner, shareholder or member in accordance with Section 8.2, or a transfer to an inter vivos trust where the transferring Franchisee, partner, shareholder or member is the only grantor beneficiary other than a spouse, shall not be a violation of this Agreement or a ground for termination; any such ownership change shall not be subject to Franchisor's right of first refusal under Section 8.3.1. Any unauthorized transfer by Franchisee shall constitute a material breach of the Agreement and shall be voidable by Franchisor..

8.3.1. Right of First Refusal. If Franchisee or its equity owners propose to transfer or assign any of Franchisee's interest in this Agreement or in the business conducted under this Agreement or in Franchisee to any third party (other than as specifically excluded herein) in connection with a bona fide offer from such third party, Franchisee or its equity owners shall first offer to sell to Franchisor, Franchisee's or its equity owners' offered interest. Franchisee or its equity owner shall obtain from the third party offeror an earnest money deposit (of at least 15% of the offering price) and deliver to Franchisor a statement in writing, signed by the offeror and by Franchisee, of the terms of the offer. In the event of Franchisee's insolvency or the filing of any petition by or against Franchisee under any provisions of any bankruptcy or insolvency law, an amount and terms of purchase shall be established by an appraiser chosen by the bankruptcy court or by the chief judge of the federal district court of Franchisee's district and Franchisee or Franchisee's legal representative shall deliver to Franchisor a statement in writing incorporating the appraiser's report. Franchisor shall then have 30 days from its receipt of either statement to accept the offer by delivering written notice of acceptance by Franchisor or its nominee to Franchisee or its equity owner. The acceptance shall be on the same terms as stated in the statement delivered to Franchisor; provided, however, Franchisor or its nominee shall have the right to substitute equivalent cash for any noncash consideration included in the offer. If the parties cannot agree within a reasonable time on the equivalent cash for any noncash consideration, Franchisor shall designate an independent appraiser and the appraiser's determination shall be binding. If Franchisor or its nominee elects not to accept the offer within the 30 day period, Franchisee or its equity owner shall be free for 90 days after such period to complete the transfer described in the statement delivered to Franchisor, but only with the prior written consent of Franchisor and subject to the conditions for approval set forth in Section 8.3.2. Franchisee and its equity owners shall affect no other sale or transfer of this Agreement or Franchisee's interest in this Agreement or the business conducted under this Agreement or the interest in Franchisee, without first offering or reoffering the same to Franchisor in accordance with this Section 8. If in Franchisor's opinion there is a material change in the terms of the offer, the offer shall be deemed a new proposal and Franchisee or its equity owner shall be required to grant Franchisor or its nominee a right of first refusal with respect to such offer.

8.3.2. Conditions for Approval. Franchisor may condition its approval of any proposed sale, assignment, encumbrance or transfer of the Franchised Business or of Franchisee's interest in this Agreement or of the interest in Franchisee or its owners upon satisfaction of the following requirements:

8.3.2.1. All of Franchisee's accrued monetary obligations to Franchisor, its parent, predecessor or affiliate and any supplier for the Franchised Business have been satisfied;

8.3.2.2. All existing defaults under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreements with Franchisor have been cured within the period permitted for cure;

8.3.2.3. Franchisee (and its equity owners if Franchisee is a business entity), has executed a general release under seal, in a form satisfactory to Franchisor of any and all claims against Franchisor and its parent, predecessor and affiliate and their officers, directors, partners, shareholders, agents, employees, attorneys and accountants in their corporate and individual capacities; provided, however, the release shall not release any liability specifically provided for by any applicable state statute regulating franchising;

8.3.2.4. Franchisee has provided Franchisor a copy of the executed purchase agreement relating to the proposed transfer with all supporting documents and schedules;

8.3.2.5. The transferee has demonstrated to Franchisor's satisfaction that it meets Franchisor's educational, managerial and business standards; possesses a good moral character, business reputation and credit rating; has the aptitude and ability to conduct the business to be transferred; and has adequate financial resources and capital to meet the performance obligations of this Agreement; however, transferee shall not be in the same business as Franchisor either as licensor, franchisor, independent operator or licensee of any other business, chain or network which is similar in nature or in competition with Franchisor or any Feng Cha Store, except that the transferee may be an existing franchisee of Franchisor;

8.3.2.6. The transferee has executed Franchisor's then-current Franchise Agreement, at Franchisor's option;

8.3.2.7. Franchisee has complied, to Franchisor's satisfaction, or Franchisee or the transferee have agreed to comply with and have made arrangements satisfactory to the Franchisor to comply with all obligations to remodel, refurbish, and improve the Franchised Business as required by this Agreement to conform to Franchisor's then-current standards and trade dress;

8.3.2.8. Franchisee or transferee has paid Franchisor a transfer fee equal to $15,000. In the event Franchisor introduces the buyer to Franchisee, Franchisor reserves the right to charge an additional 5% of the purchase price.

8.3.2.9. The transferee or the Operating Principal, and its General Manager shall complete Franchisor's training program to Franchisor's satisfaction at the transferee's own expense within the time frame set forth by Franchisor; and

8.3.2.10. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the post-termination provisions of this Agreement shall survive the transfer of the Franchised Business.

8.3.2.11. Franchisor, Franchisee, Transferee and any Guarantors enter into Franchisor's then-current form of Transfer Agreement. Franchisor's current form of Transfer Agreement is attached hereto and Exhibit 8.

8.3.2.12. The Transferee demonstrates it has received approval from the landlord to take over possession of the Franchised Business' lease.

8.4. Transfer to a Corporation or Limited Liability Company. If Franchisee is one or more individuals or a partnership, Franchisee may do a one-time assignment of its rights under this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company for convenience of ownership, provided:

8.4.1. The corporation or limited liability corporation is newly organized and its activities are confined to operating the Franchised Business;

8.4.2. Franchisee owns 100% of the outstanding shares of the corporation or interests in the limited liability company, and if Franchisee is more than one individual each individual shall have the same proportionate ownership interest in the new entity that he or she had in this Agreement and the Franchised Business prior to the transfer, otherwise the transfer may be considered a regular transfer subject to payment of a transfer fee;

8.4.3. The corporation or limited liability company agrees in writing to assume all of Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement in a form acceptable to Franchisor (a copy of Franchisor's current form agreement is attached as Exhibit 9);

8.4.4. All stockholders of the corporation, or members and managers of the limited liability company, and any spouses, personally guarantee prompt payment and performance by the corporation or limited liability company, as applicable, of all its obligations to Franchisor under the

Agreement and agree to all covenants, including all non-competition covenants set forth in Section 7.4;

8.4.5. Each stock certificate of the corporate franchisee shall have conspicuously endorsed upon its face a statement, in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, that it is held subject to, and that further assignment or transfer thereof is subject to, all restrictions imposed upon assignments by this Agreement; the operating agreement of any limited liability company and any membership certificates shall contain a similar limitation; and

8.4.6. Franchisee shall promptly provide Franchisor a copy of, as applicable: (i) the transferee corporation's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, resolutions including, without limitation, the resolutions of the Board of Directors authorizing entry into this Agreement; or (ii) the limited liability company's certificate of organization; and all other governing documents.

Franchisee is not required to pay Franchisor a transfer fee with respect to a transfer in accordance with this Section 8.4. However, Franchisor may seek reimbursement of its expenses in connection with a transfer under this Section 8.4.

8.5. Secured Interests and Securities.

8.5.1. Franchisee shall not grant, and shall not permit a transfer in the nature of a grant, of a security interest in this Agreement.

8.5.2. If Franchisee is a corporation, it shall maintain stop transfer instructions against the transfer on its records of any securities with voting rights subject to the restrictions of this Section 8 and shall issue no such securities upon the face of which the following printed legend does not legibly and conspicuously appear:

The transfer of this stock is subject to the terms and conditions of a Franchise Agreement between [Franchisor] and the corporation dated _____, 20____. Reference is made to the Franchise Agreement and to the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of this corporation.

8.6. Transfer by Franchisor. Franchisor may sell, transfer, assign and/or encumber all or any part of its interest in itself or the Franchise Agreement.

9. BREACH AND TERMINATION

9.1. Termination by Franchisee. Franchisee may terminate this Agreement for cause if Franchisor is in breach of any material provision of this Agreement, by giving Franchisor written notice within 60 days of the event or circumstances giving rise to the breach. Franchisee must be in material compliance with this Agreement. The notice shall state specifically the nature of the breach and allow Franchisor 90 days after receipt of the notice to correct the breach. Franchisee's failure to give timely written notice of any breach shall be deemed to be a waiver of Franchisee's right to complain of that breach. If Franchisor fails to cure any material breach within the 90 day cure period, Franchisee may terminate this Agreement for that reason by providing written notice to Franchisor, except if the breach is not susceptible to cure within 90 days, but Franchisor takes action within 90 days to begin curing the breach and acts diligently to complete the corrective action within a reasonable time, Franchisor shall be deemed to have timely cured the breach. Franchisee's termination will be effective only if Franchisee signs all documentation that Franchisor requires, including a release.

9.2. Termination by Franchisor. If Franchisee is in breach of any obligation under this Agreement, and Franchisor delivers a notice of termination, Franchisor has the right to suspend its performance of any of its obligations under this Agreement including, without limitation, the sale or supply of any services or products for which Franchisor is a supplier, whether directly or indirectly. Franchisor may terminate this Agreement under the following circumstances:

9.2.1. With Cause and With Opportunity to Cure. If Franchisee is in breach of any material provision of this Agreement not listed in Section 9.2.2, by giving Franchisee written notice of the event or circumstances giving rise to the breach. The notice will state specifically the nature of the breach and allow Franchisee the following amount of time to correct the breach after receipt of notice:

(i) 10 days if the failure relates to Franchisee's failure to retain a qualified replacement General Manager in the time period required;

(ii) 15 days if the failure relates to Franchisee's failure to make any payment of money to Franchisor or its parent, predecessor or affiliate; and

(iii) 30 days if the failure relates to Franchisee's failure to make any payment of money to any other third party (other than Franchisor or its parents, predecessors or affiliates) or for any other breach not listed in this Section 9.2.1 or in Section 9.2.2.

If Franchisee fails to cure any material breach within the applicable cure period, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement for that reason by providing written notice to Franchisee.

9.2.2. With Cause and Without Opportunity to Cure. Franchisor may terminate this Agreement upon written notice without giving Franchisee opportunity to cure for any of the following breaches or defaults:

(i) Criminal Acts. If Franchisee or any owner of Franchisee is convicted of or pleads guilty or no contest to a felony or commits any criminal acts involving moral turpitude or other criminal acts which may affect the reputation of the Franchised Business, the System or goodwill of the Proprietary Marks.

(ii) Fraud. If Franchisee or any owner of Franchisee commits fraud in the operation of the Franchised Business.

(iii) Misrepresentation. If Franchisee or any owner of Franchisee misrepresents anything in any way (including through omission of information) in connection with the franchise application.

(v) Involuntary Bankruptcy. If proceedings are commenced to have Franchisee or any owner of Franchisee adjudicated as bankrupt or to seek a reorganization of Franchisee under any state or federal bankruptcy or insolvency law, and such proceedings are not dismissed within 60 days, or a trustee or receiver is appointed for Franchisee or the Franchised Business without Franchisee's consent, and the appointment is not vacated within 60 days.

(vi) Taxes and Liens. If taxes are not paid when due or a levy or writ of attachment or execution or any other lien is placed against Franchisee, any partner of Franchisee if Franchisee is a partnership, or any guarantor of Franchisee under Section 14 or any of their assets which is not released or bonded against within 60 days.

(vii) Insolvency. If Franchisee, any partner of Franchisee, or the majority equity owner of Franchisee is insolvent.

(viii) Repeated Breaches. If Franchisor sends Franchisee 3 or more written notices to cure any defaults in any 12 month period.

(ix) Breach of Other Agreements. If Franchisee or any owner of Franchisee materially breaches any other agreement with: Franchisor, its parent, predecessor or affiliate.

(x) Intentional Underreporting or Misstatement. If Franchisee or any owner intentionally underreports or misstates any information required to be reported to Franchisor under this Agreement, including but not limited to Gross Revenues required to be reported under this Agreement or otherwise maintains false books or records.

(xi) Abandonment. If Franchisee voluntarily or otherwise abandons the Franchised Business. The term "abandon" means conduct of Franchisee which indicates a desire or intent to discontinue the Franchised Business in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and shall apply in any event if Franchisee fails to operate the Franchised Business as a Feng Cha store for a period of 3 or more consecutive days without the prior written approval of Franchisor.

(xii) Failure to Open Franchised Business or Open Without Authorization. If Franchisee fails to open the Franchised Business during the time periods set forth in this Agreement or opens without obtaining the required approvals.

(xiv) Restrictive Covenants. Upon any violation of any restrictive covenants set forth in this Agreement (including those regarding confidentiality and competition) or failure to execute any required covenants.

(xv) Failure to Locate an Approved Location. If Franchisee fails to locate a suitable Approved Location in the time period required.

(xvi) Insurance. If Franchisee fails to maintain required insurance coverage.

(xvii) Unauthorized Transfer or Failure to Transfer. If a transfer occurs without meeting the requirements set forth in Section 8 of this Agreement or if a transfer does not occur as required following an event of death or disability.

(xviii) Failure to Complete Training. If Franchisee or any required employee fails to complete training to Franchisor's satisfaction.

(xix) Loss of Occupancy. If Franchisee loses the right to occupy the Franchised Business premises.

(xx) Dissolution. If Franchisee is an entity and becomes dissolved.

(xxi) Proprietary Marks. If Franchisee or any owner uses the Proprietary Marks in an unauthorized manner.

(xxii) Breach of Law. If Franchisee or its owners breaches any applicable law in relation to the operation of the Franchised Business.

(xxiii) Insufficient Funds. If there are 3 or more insufficient funds fees in any 12 months period.

(xxiv) Unauthorized Sales. If Franchisee sells unauthorized products or services or sells products or services at an unauthorized location or in an unauthorized forum.

(xxv) Unethical Behavior. If Franchisee or Franchisee's owners engage in dishonest or unethical behavior.

9.3. Nonwaiver. Franchisor's delay in exercising or failure to exercise any right or remedy under this Agreement or Franchisor's acceptance of any late or partial payment due under this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee or Franchisor's consent to a transfer of any interest in Franchisee shall not constitute a waiver of any of Franchisor's rights or remedies against Franchisee.

9.4. Liquidated Damages. If Franchisor terminates this Agreement for Cause, or in the event Franchisee terminates this Agreement early, Franchisee must pay, within 15 days after the effective date of termination, liquidated damages equal to the average monthly Royalty Fees and Brand Development Fund Fees owed to Franchisor during the 12 months of operation preceding the effective date of termination (or the period of operation if less than 12 months) multiplied by: (a) 24 (being the number of months in two full years), or (b) the number of months remaining in the Agreement had it not been terminated, whichever is less. The liquidated damages provision only covers Franchisor's damages from the loss of cash flow from the Royalty Fees and Brand Development Fund contribution. It does not cover any other damages, including damages to Franchisor's reputation with the public and damages arising from a violation of any provision of this Agreement other than the Royalty Fee and Brand Development Fund contribution Sections. Franchisee and each of its principals agree that the liquidated damages provision does not give Franchisor an adequate remedy at law for any default under, or for the enforcement of, any provision of this Agreement other than the Royalty Fees and Brand Development Fund contribution Sections.

10. RIGHTS AND DUTIES UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

10.1. Franchisee's Obligations. Upon termination of this Agreement by either Franchisor or Franchisee, regardless of the cause, and upon expiration and nonrenewal or transfer of this Agreement, Franchisee shall:

10.1.8. If Franchisor elects to assume Franchisee's lease, immediately vacate the premises or, if Franchisor does not elect, immediately change the appearance of the premises inside and outside, including trade dress, signs, furnishings and fixtures, so that they no longer resemble a Feng Cha Store and to protect the Proprietary Marks, including any changes Franchisor specifically requests. If Franchisee fails to make the modifications or alterations, Franchisor will have the right to re-enter the premises and do so and charge Franchisee its costs plus a reasonable administrative fee in its sole discretion;

10.1.9. Cease to hold itself out as a franchisee of Franchisor;

10.1.10. 10.1.13. Sign a release (subject to state law)

10.1.14. Pay liquidated damages as required under this agreement (if applicable).

10.2. Power of Attorney. Franchisor is hereby irrevocably appointed as Franchisee's attorney-in-fact to execute in Franchisee's name and on Franchisee's behalf all documents necessary to discontinue Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks and the Confidential Information.

12.1. Amendments. THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING ANY EXHIBITS AND ADDENDA, CONSTITUTES THE ENTIRE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES REGARDING THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS AGREEMENT AND SUPERSEDES ALL PRIOR UNDERSTANDINGS OR AGREEMENTS, WHETHER ORAL, OR WRITTEN, PERTAINING TO ANY RIGHTS OR OBLIGATIONS IN THIS AGREEMENT. THIS AGREEMENT MAY NOT BE CHANGED, EXCEPT BY A WRITTEN DOCUMENT SIGNED BY BOTH PARTIES. HOWEVER, FRANCHISEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT FRANCHISOR MAY MODIFY ITS STANDARDS, SPECIFICATIONS AND CONFIDENTIAL OPERATIONS MANUAL AS FRANCHISOR, IN ITS SOLE DISCRETION, DEEMS NECESSARY. FRANCHISOR WILL ALSO HAVE THE RIGHT TO UNILATERALLY REDUCE THE SCOPE OF ANY COVENANTS OF FRANCHISEE CONTAINED IN THIS AGREEMENT UPON NOTICE TO FRANCHISEE, WHEREUPON FRANCHISEE WILL COMPLY WITH THE REDUCED COVENANTS, AS MODIFIED. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT IS INTENDED TO DISCLAIM ANY INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE FRANCHISOR'S FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

12.2. Mediation. Except for actions which the Franchisor may bring in any court of competent jurisdiction (a) for monies owed, (b) for injunctive or other extraordinary relief, or involving the possession or disposition of, or other relief relating to, real property, the Marks or the Confidential Information, the parties agree to submit any claim, controversy or dispute between Franchisor or any of its affiliates (and their respective shareholders, officers, directors, agents, representatives and/or employees) and Franchisee (and Franchisee's agents, representatives and/or employees, as applicable) arising out of or related to (i) this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee or their respective affiliates, (ii) Franchisor's relationship with Franchisee, (iii) the validity of this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee or their respective affiliates, or (iv) any System standard, to mediation prior to bringing such claim, controversy or dispute in a court or before any other tribunal. If the parties are unable to resolve the claim, controversy or dispute within ninety (90) days after the mediator has been chosen, then, unless such time is extended by written agreement of the parties, either party may institute litigation. Nothing herein shall require the need for legal process prior to Franchisor taking any enforcement actions permitted under this Agreement, including termination.

12.3. Choice of Law and Selection of Venue. Except as otherwise set forth in Section 12.5 this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas and any action at law or equity instituted against either party to this Agreement shall be commenced only in the then-current State and County where Franchisor's corporate headquarters is located. Franchisee hereby irrevocably consents to the personal jurisdiction of the courts in the then-current State or County where Franchisor's corporate headquarters is located, as set forth above.

12.4. Injunctive Relief. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent Franchisor from obtaining injunctive relief against actual or threatened conduct that shall cause it loss or damages, in any appropriate forum under the usual equity rules, including the applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and preliminary and permanent injunctions.

12.5. Arbitration. Except as set forth in Section 12.4 above, the rights and obligations of the parties hereto, or any other claims or causes of action relating to the making, interpretation, or performance of either party under this Agreement, will be submitted to arbitration at the office of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") responsible for administering claims filed in the then-current County and State where Franchisor's corporate headquarters is located, in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA to the extent such rules are not inconsistent with the provisions of this arbitration provision. The Federal Arbitration Act shall govern the interpretation and enforcement of this provision and the proceedings hereunder. To the extent state law is applicable under the Federal Arbitration Act, the law of the state of Texas shall apply. The statute of limitations of the state of Texas shall be strictly enforced.

The following shall supplement and, in the event of a conflict, shall govern any dispute submitted to arbitration. The parties shall select one arbitrator from the panel provided by the AAA. In selecting the arbitrator from the list provided by the AAA, the Franchisor and Franchisee shall make the selection by the striking method. The arbitrator shall apply the Federal Rules of Evidence at the hearings. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party all costs of arbitration, including, without limitation, the arbitrator's fee, attorneys' fees, interest, and costs of investigation. Arbitration shall take place in the then-current County and State where the Franchisor's corporate headquarters is located.

The arbitrator shall have no authority to amend or modify the terms of the Agreement, except as provided for herein. The Franchisor and Franchisee further agree that, unless such a limitation is prohibited by applicable law, neither the Franchisor nor Franchisee shall be liable for punitive or exemplary damages, and the arbitrator shall have no authority to award the same. To the extent permitted by applicable law, no issue of fact or law shall be given preclusive or collateral estoppel effect in any arbitration hereunder, except to the extent such issue may have been determined in another proceeding between the Franchisor and Franchisee. Judgment upon the award of the arbitrator may be submitted for confirmation to the applicable United States District Court or the Courts of the then-current County and State where Franchisor's corporate headquarters is located, and, if confirmed, may be subsequently entered in any court having competent jurisdiction. This agreement to arbitrate shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

12.6. Construction of Language. The language of this Agreement shall be construed according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against either party. All words in this Agreement refer to whatever number or gender the context requires. If more than one party or person is referred to as Franchisee, their obligations and liabilities shall be joint and several. Headings are for reference purposes and do not control interpretation. The BACKGROUND Section at the beginning of this Agreement contains contractual terms that are not mere recitals.

12.7. Successors. References to Franchisor or Franchisee include their successors, assigns or transferees, subject to the limitations of this Agreement.

12.8. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is deemed invalid or inoperative for any reason, that provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to make it valid and operative or, if it cannot be so modified, it shall then be severed, and the remainder of that provision shall continue in full force and effect as if this Agreement had been signed with the invalid portion so modified or eliminated; provided, however, that if any part of this Agreement relating to payments to Franchisor or its parent, predecessor or affiliate or protection of the Proprietary Marks, or the Confidential Information, including the Confidential Operations Manual and Franchisor's other trade secrets, is declared invalid or unenforceable, then Franchisor at its option may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to Franchisee.

12.9. No Right to Offset. Franchisee shall not withhold all or any part of any payment to Franchisor or any of its affiliates on the grounds of the alleged nonperformance of Franchisor or its parent, predecessor or affiliate or as an offset against any amount Franchisor or any of its parent, predecessor or affiliate may owe or allegedly owe Franchisee under this Agreement or any related agreements.

12.10. Force Majeure. Neither Franchisor, its parent, predecessor or affiliate nor Franchisee shall be liable for loss or damage or deemed to be in breach of this Agreement or any related agreement if its failure to perform its obligations is not the fault nor within the reasonable control of the person due to perform but results from, without limitation, fire, flood, natural disasters, acts of God, governmental acts or orders, or civil disorders. Any delay resulting from any such cause shall extend the time of performance for the period of such delay or for such other reasonable period of time as the parties agree in writing or shall excuse performance, in whole or in part, as Franchisor deems reasonable, provided however, in the event that any such delay (i) extends any deadline to open or (ii) prevents the operation of the Franchised Business, in excess of ninety (90) days, Franchisor may, at its option, terminate this Agreement. Nothing herein shall extend the timing for the payment of fees owed by Franchisee to Franchisor nor excuse payment.

12.11. Rights Cumulative. No right or remedy under this Agreement shall be deemed to be exclusive of any other right or remedy under this Agreement or of any right or remedy otherwise provided by law or and equity. Each right and remedy will be cumulative.

12.12. PARTIES. THE SOLE ENTITY AGAINST WHICH FRANCHISEE MAY SEEK DAMAGES OR ANY REMEDY UNDER LAW OR EQUITY FOR ANY CLAIM IS FRANCHISOR OR ITS SUCCESSORS OR ASSIGNS. THE SHAREHOLDERS, MEMBERS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AGENTS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF FRANCHISOR AND OF ITS PARENT, PREDECESSOR OR AFFILIATES SHALL NOT BE NAMED AS A PARTY IN ANY LITIGATION OR OTHER PROCEEDINGS COMMENCED BY FRANCHISEE IF THE CLAIM ARISES OUT OF OR RELATES TO THIS AGREEMENT.

12.13. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL FRANCHISOR BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR ANY OTHER DAMAGES THAT ARE NOT DIRECT DAMAGES, REGARDLESS OF THE NATURE OF THE CLAIM FOR DAMAGES.

12.14. JURY TRIAL WAIVER. FRANCHISOR AND FRANCHISEE, RESPECTIVELY,

WAIVE ANY RIGHT EITHER MIGHT HAVE TO TRIAL BY JURY ON ANY AND ALL CLAIMS ASSERTED AGAINST THE OTHER. FRANCHISOR AND FRANCHISEE, RESPECTIVELY, EACH ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THEY HAVE HAD A FULL OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL CONCERNING THIS WAIVER, AND THAT THIS WAIVER IS INFORMED, VOLUNTARY, INTENTIONAL AND NOT THE RESULT OF UNEQUAL BARGAINING POWER.

12.15. FRANCHISOR AND FRANCHISEE AGREE THAT LITIGATION OR ARBITRATION WILL BE CONDUCTED ON AN INDIVIDUAL, NOT A CLASS-WIDE OR MULTIPLE PLAINTIFF, BASIS UNLESS PROHIBITED BY LAW.

12.16. FRANCHISOR APPROVAL AND DISCRETION. TO THE EXTENT THAT FRANCHISOR'S CONSENT OR APPROVAL IS REQUIRED OR ANY DECISION IS SUBJECT TO THE DISCRETION OF THE FRANCHISOR, AND WHENEVER FRANCHISOR EXERCISES A RIGHT, PRESCRIBES AN ACT OR THING, OR OTHERWISE MAKES A CHOICE OR USES DISCRETION, THE PARTIES AGREE THAT FRANCHISOR HAS THE WHOLLY UNRESTRICTED RIGHT TO MAKE DECISIONS AND/OR TAKE (OR REFRAIN FROM TAKING) ACTIONS. FRANCHISOR WILL NOT BE REQUIRED TO CONSIDER FRANCHISEE'S INDIVIDUAL INTERESTS OR THE INTERESTS OF ANY OTHER PARTICULAR FRANCHISEE(S), EVEN IF A PARTICULAR DECISION/ACTION MAY HAVE NEGATIVE CONSEQUENCES FOR FRANCHISEE, A PARTICULAR FRANCHISEE OR GROUP OF FRANCHISEES.

FRANCHISEE ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT THE ULTIMATE DECISION-MAKING RESPONSIBILITY WITH RESPECT TO THE SYSTEM MUST BE, AS A PRACTICAL BUSINESS MATTER, VESTED SOLELY IN FRANCHISOR, SINCE FRANCHISEE, FRANCHISOR AND ALL OTHER FRANCHISEES HAVE A COLLECTIVE INTEREST IN WORKING WITHIN A FRANCHISE SYSTEM WITH THE UNRESTRICTED FLEXIBILITY TO QUICKLY ADJUST TO CHANGING BUSINESS CONDITIONS, INCLUDING COMPETITIVE CHALLENGES, NEW REGULATORY DEVELOPMENTS AND EMERGING BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES. FRANCHISEE UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES THAT FRANCHISOR HAVING SUCH RIGHTS ARE CRITICAL TO ITS ROLE AS FRANCHISOR AND TO OBTAIN THE PARTIES GOALS FOR CONTINUING IMPROVEMENT OF THE FENG CHA SYSTEM.

12.17. Execution. This Agreement becomes valid when signed and accepted by Franchisor. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which when taken together shall form one valid and effective agreement which may be electronically signed, and any digital or electronic signatures (including pdf or electronically imaged signatures provided by DocuSign or any other nationally recognized digital signature provider) will be treated the same as handwritten signatures for the purposes of validity, enforceability and admissibility, and delivery of any such electronic signature, or a signed copy of this Agreement, may be made by email or other electronic transmission.

13. REPRESENTATIONS

13.1. RECEIPT. THE UNDERSIGNED ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT OF THIS

AGREEMENT, WITH ALL BLANKS COMPLETED AND WITH ANY AMENDMENTS AND EXHIBITS, AT LEAST 7 CALENDAR DAYS PRIOR TO EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT. IN ADDITION, THE UNDERSIGNED ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT OF FRANCHISOR'S UNIFORM FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT AT LEAST 14 CALENDAR DAYS PRIOR TO THE EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT OR FRANCHISEE'S PAYMENT OF ANY MONIES TO FRANCHISOR, REFUNDABLE OR OTHERWISE.

13.2. EXECUTION OF AGREEMENT. EACH OF THE UNDERSIGNED PARTIES WARRANTS THAT IT HAS THE FULL AUTHORITY TO SIGN AND EXECUTE THIS AGREEMENT. IF FRANCHISEE IS A PARTNERSHIP, CORPORATION OR LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY, THE PERSON EXECUTING THIS AGREEMENT ON BEHALF OF THE BUSINESS ENTITY WARRANTS TO FRANCHISOR, BOTH INDIVIDUALLY AND IN HIS CAPACITY AS PARTNER, OFFICER, MEMBER OR MANAGER, THAT ALL OF THE EQUITY OWNERS OF FRANCHISEE, AS APPLICABLE, HAVE READ AND APPROVED THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING ANY RESTRICTIONS WHICH THIS AGREEMENT PLACES UPON RIGHTS TO TRANSFER THEIR INTEREST IN THE BUSINESS ENTITY.

13.3. ANTI-TERRORISM LAW COMPLIANCE. FRANCHISEE AND ITS EQUITY OWNERS AGREE TO COMPLY WITH, AND TO ASSIST FRANCHISOR, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT POSSIBLE IN FRANCHISOR'S EFFORTS TO COMPLY WITH ANTI-TERRORISM LAWS (DEFINED BELOW). IN CONNECTION WITH THAT COMPLIANCE, FRANCHISEE, AND ITS OWNERS CERTIFY, WARRANT AND REPRESENT THAT NONE OF FRANCHISEE'S, OR ITS EQUITY OWNER'S PROPERTY, OR INTERESTS ARE SUBJECT TO BEING BLOCKED UNDER ANY ANTI-TERRORISM LAWS, AND THAT FRANCHISEE AND ITS OWNERS OTHERWISE ARE NOT IN VIOLATION OF ANY ANTI-TERRORISM LAWS. "ANTI-TERRORISM LAWS" MEANS EXECUTIVE ORDER 13224 ISSUED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, THE USA PATRIOT ACT, AND ALL OTHER PRESENT AND FUTURE FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL LAWS, ORDINANCES, REGULATIONS, POLICIES, LISTS AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS OF ANY GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY ADDRESSING OR IN ANY WAY RELATING TO TERRORIST ACTS AND ACTS OF WAR. FRANCHISEE SHALL IMMEDIATELY NOTIFY FRANCHISOR OF ANY MISREPRESENTATION OR BREACH OF THIS SECTION

14. PERSONAL GUARANTEES

If Franchisee is a corporation, general partnership or limited liability company, or subsequent to execution of this Agreement, Franchisee assigns this Agreement to a corporation, general partnership or limited liability company, all shareholders, all general partners or all members and managers, respectively, and the spouses of the foregoing, hereby personally and unconditionally guarantee without notice, demand or presentment the payment of all of Franchisee's monetary obligations under this Agreement as if each were an original party to this Agreement in his or her individual capacity. In addition, all personal guarantors further agree to be bound by the in term and post-term restrictions and requirements of Franchisee as if each were an original party to this Agreement in his or her individual capacity. All personal guarantors shall execute a continuing personal guaranty in the form attached as Exhibit 3. Spouses of owners signing in their individual capacity must sign the guaranty as well.

15. OWNERSHIP OF FRANCHISEE

The Statement of Ownership Interest attached to this Agreement as Exhibit 2 completely and accurately describes all of the equity owners and their interests in Franchisee and Franchisee's Operating Principal. Subject to Franchisor's rights and Franchisee's obligations under Section 8, Franchisee agrees to sign and deliver to Franchisor a revised Statement of Ownership Interest to reflect any permitted changes in the information that Exhibit 2 now contains. Franchisee shall promptly provide Franchisor a copy of, as applicable: (i) any transferee corporation's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, resolutions including, without limitation, the resolutions of the Board of Directors authorizing entry into this Agreement; or (ii) any limited liability company's certificate of organization or formation, the Operating Agreement and all other governing documents. If Franchisee is an entity, it must be a single purpose entity and cannot operate any other business using the entity name.

INTENDING TO BE LEGALLY BOUND HEREBY, THE PARTIES HAVE CAUSED THIS AGREEMENT TO BE EXECUTED EFFECTIVE AS OF THE DATE EXECUTED BY FRANCHISOR BELOW.

COLLATERAL ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned ("Assignor") assigns and transfers to CANNECT LLC, a Texas limited liability company ("Assignee"), all of Assignor's right, title and interest as tenant in, to and under that certain lease, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" (the "Lease") respecting premises commonly known as _____ (the "Premises"). This Assignment is for collateral purposes only and except as specified in this Agreement, Assignee shall have no liability or obligation of any kind whatsoever arising from or in connection with this Assignment or the Lease unless Assignee takes possession of the premises demised by the Lease pursuant to the terms hereof and assumes the obligations of Assignor there under.

Assignor represents and warrants to Assignee that it has full power and authority to so assign the Lease and its interest therein and that Assignor has not previously assigned or transferred, and is not obligated to assign or transfer, any of its interest in the Lease or the premises demised thereby.

Upon a default by Assignor under the Lease or under the franchise agreement between Assignee and Assignor for the operation of a Feng Cha Store (the "Franchise Agreement"), or in the event of a default by Assignor under any document or instrument securing the Franchise Agreement, Assignee shall have the right and is hereby empowered to take possession of the premises demised by the Lease, expel Assignor there from, and, in such event, Assignor shall have no further right, title or interest in the Lease.

If Assignee does not otherwise agree in writing, and upon failure of Assignor to so elect to extend or renew the Lease as aforesaid, Assignor hereby appoints Assignee as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact to exercise such extension or renewal options in the name, place and stead of Assignor for the purpose of effecting such extension or renewal.

EXHIBIT 5 TO
FENG CHA FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT
(For employees of the Franchisee)

1. Pursuant to a Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20__ (the “Franchise Agreement”), _____ (the “Franchisee”) has acquired the right and franchise from CANNECT, LLC (the “Franchisor”) to establish and operate a Feng Cha Store (the “Franchised Business”) and the right to use in the operation of the Franchised Business the Franchisor’s trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin (the “Proprietary Marks”), as they may be changed, improved and further developed from time to time in the Franchisor’s sole discretion.

2. The Franchisor, as the result of the expenditure of time, skill, effort and resources, has developed and owns a distinctive format and system (the “System”) relating to the establishment and operation of Feng Cha Stores. The Franchisor possesses certain proprietary and confidential information relating to the operation of the System, which includes proprietary trade secrets, specifications, security protocols, computer hardware and systems, technology and equipment used, methods of business practices and management, research and development, training processes, operational manuals, presentation materials, recipes, food preparation techniques, vendor agreements, supplier lists, vendor lists, marketing and merchandising strategies, plans for new product or service offerings, financial information, pricing, and knowledge of, and experience in, the operation of the Franchised Business (the “Confidential Information”). Confidential Information shall also expressly include all customer and franchisee personal and business information that I obtain or have access to during my employment, as well as the confidential information of any other third parties to whom the Franchisor owes a duty of confidentiality. Further, any and all information, knowledge, know-how, and techniques which the Franchisor specifically designates as confidential shall be deemed to be Confidential Information for purposes of this Agreement.

3. In consideration for my access to the Confidential Information as part of my employment with Franchisee, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, I hereby acknowledge and agree to the terms of this Confidentiality Agreement (the “Agreement”).

4. As an employee of Franchisee, the Franchisor and/or Franchisee may disclose the Confidential Information to me via training programs, the Franchisor’s Confidential Operations Manuals (the “Manuals”), or the development process during the term of my employment with the Franchisee.

5. I will not acquire any interest in the Confidential Information, other than the right to utilize it in performing my duties for Franchisee during the term of my employment and the use or duplication of the Confidential Information for any use outside the System would constitute an unfair method of competition. I covenant that I will not forward or provide the Confidential Information to any third party, nor store it on any personal or third-party electronic device, disk, drive, or otherwise, unless expressly authorized to do so by the Franchisor.

6. Any work performed by me during my employment with Franchisee in relation to Feng Cha or the Franchise Agreement and any derivative works created by me using the Confidential Information or any proprietary information of the Franchisor are considered “works made for hire” and I will have no ownership interest in the items created.

7. The Confidential Information is proprietary, involves trade secrets of the Franchisor, and is disclosed to me solely on the condition that I agree, and I do hereby agree, that I shall hold in strict confidence all Confidential Information. Unless the Franchisor otherwise agrees in writing, I will disclose and/or use the Confidential Information only in connection with my duties as an employee of Franchisee, and will continue not to disclose or use any such information even after I cease to be employed by Franchisee, unless I can demonstrate that such information has become generally known to the public or easily accessible other than by the breach of an obligation of Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement, a breach of the employees or associates of Franchisee, or a breach of my own duties or the duties hereunder.

8. I agree that each of the foregoing covenants shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. In the event any provision of this Agreement is ever deemed to exceed the limits permitted by any applicable law, the provisions set forth herein will be reformed to the extent necessary to make them reasonable and enforceable. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement will not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions, all of which are severable and will be given full force and effect.

9. I understand and acknowledge that the Franchisor shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in this Agreement, or any portion thereof, without my consent, effective immediately upon receipt by me of written notice thereof; and I agree to comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified.

10. The Franchisor is a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement and may enforce it, solely and/or jointly with Franchisee. I am aware that my violation of this Agreement may cause the Franchisor and Franchisee irreparable harm; therefore, I acknowledge and agree that Franchisee and/or the Franchisor may apply for the issuance of an injunction preventing me from violating this Agreement, without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting a bond, in addition to any other remedies available to them, and I agree to pay Franchisee and the Franchisor all the costs it/they incur(s), including, without limitation, legal fees and expenses, if this Agreement is enforced against me. Due to the importance of this Agreement to Franchisee and the Franchisor any claim I have against Franchisee or the Franchisor is a separate matter and does not entitle me to violate, or justify any violation of, this Agreement.

11. This is not a contract for employment and does not guaranty my employment for any set period of time. I agree and understand that Franchisee is my employer and I have no employment relationship with the Franchisor.

12. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, excluding that body of law known as choice of law, and shall be binding upon the parties hereto in the United States and worldwide. The parties agree that service of process in any such action may be made if delivered in person, by courier service, or by first class mail, and shall be deemed effectively given upon receipt. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE ACTIONS OF ANY PARTY HERETO IN NEGOTIATION, ADMINISTRATION, PERFORMANCE OR ENFORCEMENT HEREOF.

13. I hereby irrevocably agree that the forum for any suit will lie with a court of competent jurisdiction in Dallas County, Texas or the applicable district court in Texas and hereby agree to the personal jurisdiction and venue of such court.

14. This Agreement will be binding upon me, my heirs, and personal representatives, and shall inure to the benefit of the Franchisor and Franchisee and any of their affiliates, parents, subsidiaries, successors and assigns. I understand that this Agreement may and will be assigned or transferred to any successor of the Franchisor, and any successor will be deemed substituted, for all purposes, as the "Franchisor" under the terms of this Agreement. As used in this Agreement the term "successor" will mean any person, firm, corporation, or business entity which at any time, whether by merger, purchase or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets of the business of the Franchisor. I acknowledge that the services to be rendered by me in my employment are unique and personal. Accordingly, I may not assign any of my rights nor delegate any of my duties or obligations under this Agreement.

15. This Agreement may not be modified except by a written agreement executed by the parties, which has been approved by the Franchisor.

16. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which when taken together shall form one valid and effective agreement which may be electronically signed, and any digital or electronic signatures (including pdf or electronically imaged signatures provided by DocuSign or any other nationally recognized digital signature provider) will be treated the same as handwritten signatures for the purposes of validity, enforceability and admissibility, and delivery of any such electronic signature, or a signed copy of this Agreement, may be made by email or other electronic transmission.

FORM OF RELEASE
(Current Form – Subject to Change)

This Termination Agreement and General Release (“Agreement”) is made and entered into as of the date executed by the Franchisor (“Effective Date”) by and between CANNECT, LLC, a Texas limited liability company having its principal place of business 412 N. Bowser Rd., Richardson TX 75081 (the “Franchisor”), and _____, with an address of _____ (“Franchisee”) (Franchisor together with Franchisee, the “Parties”).

WHEREAS, Franchisor and Franchisee entered into a franchise agreement dated _____ (the “Franchise Agreement”) which provides Franchisee with the right to own and operate a franchised business with a Approved Location as outlined on Exhibit 1 to the Franchise Agreement (the “Franchised Business”);

WHEREAS, Franchisee and Franchisor agree to terminate the Franchise Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, wherein the parties hereto, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency and receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and in reliance upon the representations, warranties, and comments herein set forth, do agree as follows:

1. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that by entering into this Agreement, all of Franchisee’s rights under the Franchise Agreement are terminated as of the Effective Date, however, Franchisee shall continue to be bound by the post-termination restrictions and covenants contained in the Franchise Agreement and any schedules attached thereto, which include, but are not limited to, covenants relating to Franchisor’s confidential information and intellectual property, a covenant not to compete, and a covenant of indemnification. Further, Franchisee shall honor all obligations required upon termination, including those listed in Section 10 of the Franchise Agreement.
2. Franchisee on his/her/its own behalf and on behalf of his/her/its servants, employees, heirs, successors and assigns does hereby release Franchisor, its officers, directors, shareholders, agents, parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, servants, employees, franchisees, partners, members, heirs, successors, principals and assigns (“Franchisor Released Parties”), from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, suits, debts, dues, duties, sums of money, accounts, reckonings, judgments, liabilities and obligations, both fixed and contingent, known and unknown, in law or in equity, under local law, state or federal law or regulation, from the beginning of time to the Effective Date, arising under or in connection with the Franchise Agreement or the business operated pursuant to the Franchise Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, but by way of example only, the release shall apply to any and all state and federal antitrust, securities, breach of contract, fiduciary duty, or fraud claims and causes of action arising under or in connection with the Franchise Agreement to the extent permitted by law.
3. Franchisee has either been advised by independent counsel before signing this or, acknowledging the need for independent counsel, knowingly waives any such review and advice.
4. The governing law, methods of dispute resolution and any right to recovery of attorney’s

5. This Agreement and the other documents referred to herein contain the entire agreement between the parties hereto pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements, except those contemplated hereunder. Any waiver, alteration or modification of any of the provisions of this Agreement or cancellation or replacement of this Agreement shall not be valid unless in writing and signed by the parties.

6. This Agreement shall be binding upon Franchisee and Franchisee's heirs and personal representatives and shall inure to the benefit of Franchisor and its respective successors and assigns. Franchisee may not assign this Agreement or any of the rights or obligations hereunder, without the express written consent of Franchisor.

7. Any waiver of any term of this Agreement by Franchisor will not operate as a waiver of any other term of this Agreement nor will any failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement operate as a waiver of Franchisor's right to enforce any other provision of this Agreement.

8. In the event any provision of this Agreement is ever deemed to exceed the limits permitted by any applicable law, the provisions set forth herein will be reformed to the extent necessary to make them reasonable and enforceable. Franchisor’s consent to the Transaction is subject to and made in reliance upon the following terms, conditions, representations and warranties. Transferor’s and/or Transferee’s failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement will result in a default and render the Transaction void:
 - A. Transferor represents, warrants, covenants and agrees that each of the following are true and correct as of its date of execution, and shall remain true through the Closing (as defined herein):

(1) Transferor is the sole owner of, and possesses good and marketable right, title and interest in and to, the Transferred Business; and no other person or entity owns or has any right, title or interest in and to the Franchise Agreement, Franchised Business and the Transferred Business.

(3) Transferee relied solely and exclusively on Transferee's own independent investigation of the franchise system and of the Franchised Business and the historical financial records of the Franchised Business provided to Transferee by Transferor; and based on the receipt of the actual historical performance of the Franchised Business it would not be reasonable to rely on the financial performance representation contained in Franchisor's Franchise Disclosure Document, or any other financial performance representation, pro forma or projection that differed or diverged, in whole or in part, from the Franchised Business' actual historical financial performance.

C. To the extent not already completed, Transferee (or Transferee Guarantor, if an entity) and any required employees shall attend and complete, to the satisfaction of Franchisor, Franchisor's training program required of new franchisees, at the time directed by Franchisor.

Franchisor assumes no obligations in that regard. Transferor acknowledges and agrees that the sale of the assets of the Transferred Business is for Transferor's own account.

6. Insurance. Prior to Closing, Transferee must provide Franchisor with a Certificate of Insurance for the insurance coverages specified in the franchise agreement, which policy(ies) must name Franchisor and all related parties as an additional insured.

If any material provision or restriction contained herein shall be declared void or unenforceable under applicable law, the parties agree that such provision or restriction will be reformed to the extent necessary to make it valid and enforceable. To the extent a provision cannot be reformed, it shall be stricken, and the remainder of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect. 11. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which when taken together shall form one valid and effective agreement which may be electronically signed, and any digital or electronic signatures (including pdf or electronically imaged signatures provided by DocuSign or any other nationally recognized digital signature provider) will be treated the same as handwritten signatures for the purposes of validity, enforceability and admissibility, and delivery of any such electronic signature, or a signed copy of this Agreement, may be made by email or other electronic transmission.

12. Miscellaneous. The parties hereto agree that this Agreement constitutes, upon the execution of this Agreement by all of the parties and after it has been accepted and executed by Franchisor, the complete understanding between the parties regarding the subject matter hereof, and no representation, agreement, warranties, or statement, oral or in writing, not contained herein, shall be of any force and effect against any party, except any Termination Agreement and Release and any new Franchise Agreement executed in connection with the transfer shall be valid and read in conjunction with this Agreement. The waiver by any party of any breach or violation of any provision of this Agreement will not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other or subsequent breach or violation hereof. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties, and their respective heirs, executors, successors and assigns. The governing law and methods of dispute resolution in the Franchise Agreement shall govern this Agreement as well.

13. Agreement Survives Closing. All representations, warranties, terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Closing, and the consummation of the Transaction provided for herein.

14. Review of Agreement and Representation. Transferor, Transferor Guarantor, Transferee Guarantor and Transferee each represent and acknowledge that he/she/it has received, read and understands this Agreement and that Franchisor has fully and adequately explained the provisions to each to their satisfaction; and that Franchisor has afforded each of them ample time and opportunity to consult with advisors of their own choosing about the potential benefits and risks of entering into this Agreement.

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, Franchisee desires to enter into a Franchise Agreement with Franchisor for the right to own and operate a Feng Cha Store (the “Franchise Agreement”); and

WHEREAS, Franchisor would not enter into the Franchise Agreement without Franchisee’s agreement to enter into, comply with, and be bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, and in further consideration of the Franchise Agreement and the mutual promises and covenants contained therein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS

All terms used but not otherwise defined in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in the Franchise Agreement. “Termination” of the Franchise Agreement shall include, but shall not be limited to, the voluntary termination, involuntary termination, or natural expiration thereof.

2. TRANSFER; APPOINTMENT

2.1 Interest in Telephone Numbers, Internet Web Sites and Listings. Franchisee may acquire (whether in accordance with or in violation of the Franchise Agreement) during the term of the Franchise Agreement, certain right, title, and interest in and to certain telephone numbers and telephone directory listings (collectively, the “Telephone Numbers and Listings”); social media accounts, domain names, hypertext markup language, uniform resource locator addresses, and access to corresponding Internet web sites, blogs, vlogs, email addresses and the right to hyperlink to certain web sites and listings on various Internet search engines (collectively, the “Internet Web Sites and Listings”) related to the Franchised Business or the Proprietary Marks (all of which right, title, and interest is referred to herein as “Franchisee’s Interest”).

2.2 Transfer. On Termination of the Franchise Agreement, or on periodic request of Franchisor, Franchisee will immediately direct all Telephone companies or listing companies, Internet Service Providers, social media platforms, domain name registries, Internet search engines, and other listing agencies (collectively, the “Companies”) with which Franchisee has Telephone Numbers and Listings or Internet Web Sites and Listings: (i) to transfer all of Franchisee's Interest in such Telephone Numbers and Listings or Internet Web Sites and Listings to Franchisor; and (ii) to execute such documents and take such actions as may be necessary to effectuate such transfer. In the event Franchisor does not desire to accept any or all such Telephone Numbers and Listings or Internet Web Sites and Listings, Franchisee will immediately terminate Telephone Numbers and Listings or Internet Web Sites and Listings, or if such termination requires the involvement of the Companies, immediately direct the Companies to terminate such Telephone Numbers and Listings or Internet Web Sites and Listings and Franchisee will take such other actions as Franchisor directs.

2.3 Appointment; Power of Attorney. Franchisee hereby constitutes and appoints Franchisor and any officer or agent of Franchisor, for Franchisor's benefit under the Franchise Agreement and this Agreement or otherwise, with full power of substitution, as Franchisee's true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power and authority in Franchisee's place and stead, and in Franchisee's name or the name of any affiliated person or affiliated company of Franchisee, to take any and all appropriate action and to execute and deliver any and all documents that may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement. Franchisee further agrees that this appointment constitutes a power coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until Franchisee has satisfied all of its obligations under the Franchise Agreement and any and all other agreements to which Franchisee and any of its affiliates on the one hand, and Franchisor and any of its affiliates on the other, are parties, including without limitation this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Franchisee hereby grants to Franchisor the power and right to do the following:

2.3.1 Direct the Companies to transfer all Franchisee's Interest to Franchisor;

2.3.2 Direct the Companies to terminate any or all of the Telephone Numbers and Listings or Internet Web Sites and Listings; and

2.5 Cessation of Obligations. After the Companies have duly transferred all Franchisee's Interest to Franchisor, as between Franchisee and Franchisor, Franchisee will have no further interest in, or continuing obligations under, such Telephone Numbers and Listings or Internet Web Sites and Listings. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisee will remain liable to each and all of the Companies for the sums Franchisee is obligated to pay such Companies for obligations Franchisee incurred before the date Franchisor duly accepted the transfer of such Interest and shall remain liable for any actions occurring prior to the date of transfer.

3. MISCELLANEOUS

MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPER AGREEMENT

This Multi-Unit Developer Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into and made by and between Cconnect, LLC, a Texas limited liability company, with its principal business address at 412 N. Bowser Rd., Richardson TX 75081 ("Company") and _____ with a principal address at _____ ("Developer") on the date this Agreement is executed by the Company below (the "Effective Date").

BACKGROUND

A. The Company and/or its equity owners, parent, predecessor or affiliate, through the expenditure of considerable money, time and effort, has developed a system (the "Feng Cha System" or "System") for the establishment, development and operation of Feng Cha businesses (each a "Franchised Business" or a "Feng Cha Business"). The System includes our proprietary marks, recognized designs, decor and color schemes, trade dress, distinctive specifications for fixtures, IT platforms, equipment, and designs; recipes, know-how, and trade secrets; procurement of customers, sales techniques, and merchandising, marketing, advertising, record keeping and business management systems; quality control procedures; and procedures for operation and management of a Franchised Business.

B. The Feng Cha System is identified by various trade names, trademarks and service marks used by the Company and its franchisees including, without limitation, the trademark "Feng Cha" and other identifying marks and symbols that the Company uses now or may later use as part of the Feng Cha System (the "Proprietary Marks"). The rights to all the Proprietary Marks shall be owned exclusively by the Company, its equity owners, parent, predecessor or its affiliate.

C. The Company is engaged in the business of granting franchises to qualified individuals and business entities to use the System to operate a Feng Cha Business.

D. Developer wishes to obtain certain development rights to develop Feng Cha businesses under the System, to be identified with the Proprietary Marks in the Development Area described in this Agreement, and to be trained by the Company to establish and operate Feng Cha businesses.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties, in consideration of the mutual covenants and commitments herein contained, hereby agree as follows:

1. GRANT

1.1 The Company hereby grants to Developer, pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the development rights outlined herein, and Developer hereby undertakes the obligation, to establish and open the Feng Cha Businesses, pursuant to the development schedule set forth in Exhibit "3" (the "Development Schedule") at specific locations to be designated in separate franchise agreements (the “Franchise Agreements”) executed by Developer as provided in Section 3.1 hereof. Each Franchised Business developed hereunder shall be located in the area described in Exhibit “1” (the “Development Area”) attached hereto.

1.2 Each Franchised Business developed hereunder shall be established and operated pursuant to a separate Franchise Agreement entered into between Developer or its affiliate and the Company in accordance with Section 3.1 hereof.

1.3 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, subject to Developer’s full compliance with this Agreement and the full compliance of Developer and its affiliates with any other agreement between Developer or any of its affiliates and the Company or any of its affiliates, neither the Company nor any affiliate shall establish, or authorize any person or entity other than Developer or any of its affiliates to establish, a Feng Cha business in the Development Area (other than in a Reserved Area) during the term of this Agreement. The Franchisor and its affiliates have and retain all rights within and outside the Development Area except those expressly granted to Developer. Accordingly, the Company, its affiliates, and any other authorized person or entity shall have the right, among others: (1) to develop and establish other business systems using the Proprietary Marks and the right to develop and establish other names or marks and to grant licenses to use those systems at any location without providing any rights to Developer; (2) to advertise and promote the System in the Development Area; (3) to operate, and license others to operate, Feng Cha businesses at any location outside the Development Area and in any Reserved Area, including locations that are adjacent to the Development Area; (4) to operate or license any type of business under other names or marks inside or outside the Development Area; (5) to acquire the assets or ownership interest in (or merge or become affiliated with) one or more businesses operating under names other than the Proprietary Marks, including competing businesses, and the right to convert those locations to Feng Cha businesses, regardless of location, and the right to be acquired by (or merge or become affiliated with) any other business operating under names other than the Proprietary Marks, including a competing business, with locations anywhere, which may result in the required conversion of Feng Cha businesses; and (6) except for any restriction set forth in the Franchise Agreements, to engage, directly or indirectly, at wholesale, retail or otherwise, in the production, distribution, license and sale of any and all food, beverages, or other services and products, under the Proprietary Marks, or under other names or marks, within and outside the Development Area, through any method of distribution, including, but not limited to, from or through catering, delivery, temporary or seasonal facilities at special events or venues (including, without limitation, concerts, street fairs, parks, parades, sporting events, and similar venues), mail order catalogs or the Internet, regardless of the proximity to, or the competitive impact on, Developer’s Feng Cha Businesses. “Reserved Areas” shall include any mall (defined as an enclosed indoor or outdoor retail space consisting of 250,000 or more square feet); airport; train or bus station; hospital; school, college, university or other educational institution; hotel, resort or other lodging facility; amusement park; sports facility; state or national parks; exhibition hall, conference facility or convention center; casino or gambling establishment; military base; highway plaza or rest stops; or any similar area.

1.4 This Agreement is not a franchise agreement, and does not grant to Developer any right to use in any manner the Proprietary Marks or System. Developer shall have no right under this Agreement to license others to use in any manner the Proprietary Marks or System.

2. DEVELOPMENT FEE

2.1 In consideration of the development rights granted herein, Developer shall pay to the Company, upon execution of this Agreement, the development fee set forth on Exhibit “3” (the “Development Fee”), which shall be deemed fully earned and non-refundable upon execution of this Agreement in consideration of the administrative and other expenses incurred by the Company and for the development opportunities lost or deferred as a result of the rights granted Developer herein.

3. DEVELOPMENT OBLIGATIONS

3.1 In exercising its development rights and fulfilling its development obligations under this Agreement, Developer shall execute a Franchise Agreement for each Franchised Business at a site approved by the Company in the Development Area as hereinafter provided. The Franchise Agreement for the first Franchised Business developed hereunder shall be in the form of the then current Franchise Agreement and shall be executed concurrently with this Agreement. The Franchise Agreement for each additional Franchised Business developed hereunder shall be the form of the then-current Franchise Agreement being offered for new Feng Cha businesses, generally, by the Company at the time each such Franchise Agreement is executed (which shall be executed prior to Developer entering into any lease agreement for an approved site and must be executed (and the balance of the initial franchise fee must be paid) at least 12 months prior to the expected date of opening as listed in the Development Schedule). The terms and conditions of each subsequent Franchise Agreement signed by Developer may differ from the previous Franchise Agreement, however, Developer shall not be required to pay a separate initial franchise fee for the first Franchise Agreement executed pursuant to this Section 3.1. The initial franchise fee for each location beyond the first location will be discounted with location 2 equaling $30,000 and locations 3 and beyond each equaling $25,000 with 50% of the discounted amount paid as part of the development fee and the remaining 50% due when each applicable franchise agreement is signed. In addition, each Franchise Agreement will be subject to the below royalty discounts (to the extent applicable) based on the number of Feng Cha stores Developer operates. The below royalty discounts are not transferrable.

3.2 Prior to Developer’s acquisition by lease or purchase of any site for a Franchised Business, Developer shall submit to the Company, in the form specified by the Company, the description of the proposed site and such information or materials as the Company may reasonably require, together with a letter of intent or other evidence satisfactory to the Company which confirms Developer’s favorable prospects for obtaining the proposed site. The Company shall have sixty (60) days after receipt of the description of the proposed site and other information and materials from Developer to exercise its right and option, in writing, to approve or disapprove the proposed site for development as a Franchised Business. In the event the Company does not approve a proposed site by written notice to Developer within such sixty (60) days, such site shall be deemed disapproved by the Company. The Company may present sites to Developer which meet the criteria and are available, but Developer shall have no obligation to accept any such sites. Developer acknowledges that Developer, and not the Company, has the duty and obligation to obtain an approved site for each Franchised Business.

3.3 Developer acknowledges that Developer is solely responsible for locating and securing sites acceptable to the Company and for negotiating leases for the sites acceptable to the Company. Developer shall submit to the Company the information developed at Developer’s expense that the Company requests concerning any site and lease proposed by Developer for the Company’s approval under this Agreement at any time as the Company may request. Developer acknowledges and agrees that the Company’s review of the site information and lease (if any), presentation of a site to Developer, and/or approval does not constitute an assurance, representation or warranty of any kind, express or implied, as to the suitability of the site for a Franchised Business or any lease terms or for any other purpose, or of its compliance with any federal, state or local laws, codes or regulations, including, without limitation, the applicable provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act regarding the construction, design and operation of the Franchised Business. The Company’s presentation and/or approval of the site and/or lease (if any) indicates only that the Company believes the site and lease complies with acceptable minimum criteria established by the Company solely for its purposes as of the time of the evaluation. Both Developer and the Company acknowledge that application of criteria that have been effective with respect to other sites and premises under the System may not be predictive of potential for all sites and leases and that, subsequent to the Company’s approval of a site, demographic and/or economic factors, such as competition from other similar businesses, included in or excluded from the Company’s criteria could change, thereby altering the potential of a site or lease. Such factors are unpredictable and are beyond the Company’s control. The Company shall not be responsible for the failure of a site or lease presented or approved by the Company to meet Developer's expectations as to revenue or operational criteria. Developer further acknowledges and agrees that its acceptance of a franchise for the operation of a Feng Cha business at the site or lease is based on its own independent investigation of the suitability of the site or the lease.

3.4 Recognizing that time is of the essence, Developer agrees, by the dates described in the Development Schedule, to (i) execute each subsequent Franchise Agreement and (ii) have open and operating the minimum cumulative number of Franchised Businesses. If Developer fails, by the respective dates set forth in the Development Schedule to (1) execute the Franchise Agreements for the number of locations described in the Development Schedule and (2) have open and operating the minimum number of Franchised Businesses required in the Development Schedule, Developer shall be in material default of this Agreement, and the Company shall have the right to all remedies described in Section 6.2 hereof.

4. TERM

4.1 Unless sooner terminated in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the term of this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder shall expire on the earlier of: (i) the last date specified in the Development Schedule; or (ii) the date when Developer has open and in operation all of the Franchised Businesses required by the Development Schedule.

4.2 Upon expiration of this Agreement as set forth in Section 4.1 of this Agreement:

4.2.1 Developer shall not have any right to establish any Franchised Businesses for which a Franchise Agreement has not been executed by the Company at the time of expiration; and

4.2.2 The Company shall be entitled to establish and operate, and license others to establish and operate Franchised Businesses under the System and Proprietary Marks in the Development Area, except as may otherwise be provided under any Franchise Agreement which has been executed between the Company and Developer.

5. DUTIES OF THE PARTIES

5.2.2.1 Developer shall furnish the Company with its partnership agreement as well as such other documents as the Company may reasonably request, and any amendments thereto, which shall contain a restriction on transfer of any partnership interest without the prior written consent of the Company.

5.2.2.2 Developer shall prepare and furnish to the Company, upon request, but in no event less frequently than when a change is made to same, a list of all general and limited partners in Developer.

5.2.3.1 Developer shall furnish the Company with a copy of its operating agreement and other governing documents and any amendments thereto. The Company shall maintain the right to review other of Developer's limited liability company documents from time to time as it, in its sole discretion, deems advisable including all documents the Company may reasonably request, and any amendments thereto.

5.2.3.2 Developer shall be a newly organized limited liability company, and shall at all times confine its activities, and its governing documents shall at all times provide that its activities are confined, exclusively to the management and operation of the business contemplated hereunder.

5.2.3.3 Developer shall maintain a current list of all members and managers of record and shall furnish the list to the Company upon request, but in no event less frequently than when a change is made to same

5.2.4 Developer represents and warrants that, as of the Effective Date, the list of owners and their respective ownership interests described in Exhibit "2" attached hereto is complete and accurate.

5.2.5 As a condition of the effectiveness of this Agreement, all owners with any interest in Developer shall execute the Guaranty attached as Exhibit "4" hereto.

5.2.6 Developer shall comply with all requirements of federal, state, and local laws, rules, and regulations.

5.2.7 Developer shall comply with all of the other terms, conditions and obligations of Developer under this Agreement.

6. DEFAULT

6.1 Developer shall be deemed in default under this Agreement, and Company may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to Developer, if Developer (or any of Developer's owners): (i) falsifies any information or material provided to the Company; (ii) becomes insolvent or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (iii) if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Developer or such a petition is filed against and consented to by Developer; (iv) is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent; (v) if a bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Developer or other custodian for Developer's business or assets is filed and consented to by Developer or a receiver is appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction; (vi) if execution is levied against Developer's business or assets; (vii) if suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the premises or equipment is instituted against Developer and not dismissed within thirty (30) days or if the real or personal property of any of Developer's Franchised Businesses shall be sold after levy thereupon by any sheriff, marshal or constable; (viii) uses the Company's Confidential Information in an unauthorized way; (ix) breaches a covenant, including the non-competition covenants; (x) commit any acts of moral turpitude or other criminal acts which may affect the reputation or the goodwill of the Proprietary Marks; (xi) is convicted of or pleads guilty or nolo contendere of a felony; (xii) failure to comply with or to perform any of the terms, conditions or obligations of this Agreement, (including the development obligations described herein); (xiii) failure to comply with any Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between Developer or any of its affiliates and the Company, its parent, predecessor or affiliates or subsidiaries; or (xiv) if an unauthorized transfer is made or attempted to be made in violation of Section 7.2 hereof.

6.5 All defaults not listed in Section 6.1 are considered curable defaults and shall have a 30 day cure period.

6.6 No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Company is exclusive of any other right or remedy provided or permitted by law or equity.

7. TRANSFERS

7.1 Transfer by the Company:

The Company shall have the right to transfer, assign or delegate all or any part of its rights or obligations herein to any person or legal entity, Developer agrees hereby to consent to any such assignment and delegation and to execute any documents in connection therewith as reasonably requested by the Company. Any such assignment shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company's successors and assigns.

7.2 Transfer by Developer:

Developer understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are unique to Developer, and are granted in reliance on the business skill, financial capacity, and personal character of Developer or Developer's owners. Developer shall have no right to transfer, sell, assign or encumber this Agreement, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the Company. Additionally, a sale, transfer, encumbrance or assignment requiring the prior written consent of the Company shall be deemed to occur: (i) if Developer is a corporation or limited liability company, upon any change, assignment, sale, pledge or transfer of any of the voting stock or membership interests of Developer including any ownership restructuring of Developer or of any owners of Developer or (ii) if Developer is a partnership, upon the change, assignment, sale, pledge or transfer of any partnership ownership, including an ownership restructuring of Developer or of any owners of Developer. If Developer or its equity owners propose to transfer or assign any of Developer's interest in this Agreement or in the business conducted under this Agreement or in Developer or Developer's owners to any third party in connection with a bona fide offer from such third party, Developer or its equity owners shall first tender to the Company the right of first refusal to acquire such interest in accordance with the provisions and other conditions set forth below, and then if the Company fails to exercise said right, only with the prior written consent of the Company. The Company's consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any purported assignment or transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, not having the written consent of the Company, shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement, for which the Company may then terminate this Agreement without opportunity to cure pursuant to this Agreement. Developer acknowledges and agrees that each condition which must be met by the transferee developer is necessary to assure such transferee's full performance of the obligations hereunder. The Company shall not unreasonably withhold its consent to a transfer, sale, assignment or encumbrance of this Agreement, or a direct or indirect interest in Developer, or of Developer's business, or of the assets of Developer; provided, however, the Company may, in its sole discretion, require as a condition of its approval that:

7.2.1 All of Developer's accrued monetary obligations to the Company and its parent, predecessor and affiliate and all other outstanding obligations related to the terms and conditions under this Agreement shall have been satisfied;

7.2.2 Developer (and its affiliates and owners) is not in default of any material provision of this Agreement, any amendment hereof or successor hereto, or any other agreement with the Company, or its subsidiaries parent, predecessor and affiliate;

7.2.3 The transferor shall have executed a general release under seal, in a form satisfactory to the Company, of any and all claims against the Company, its parent, predecessor and affiliate and their officers, directors, shareholders, and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state, and local laws, rules, and ordinances;

7.2.4 If the transfer is taking place pursuant to a transfer or sale of a direct or indirect interest in Developer, or of Developer's business, or of the assets of Developer, transferor shall provide the Company with an executed copy of the purchase agreement;

7.2.5 The transferee (and, if the transferee is other than an individual, such owners of a beneficial interest in the transferee as the Company may request) shall enter into a written assignment, under seal and in a form satisfactory to the Company, assuming and agreeing to discharge all of Developer's obligations under this Agreement, and all the owners of any interest in Developer shall execute the Company's then-current form of guaranty of Developer's obligations hereunder;

7.2.6 The transferee (and, if the transferee is other than an individual, such owners of a beneficial interest in the transferee as the Company may request) shall demonstrate to the Company's satisfaction that the transferee meets the Company's educational, managerial, and business standards; possesses a good moral character, business reputation, and credit rating; has the aptitude and ability to conduct the business contemplated herein (as may be evidenced by prior related business experience or otherwise) and has adequate financial resources and capital to comply with the Development Schedule;

7.2.7 At the Company's option, (i) the transferee (and, if the transferee is other than an individual, such owners of a legal or beneficial interest in the transferee as the Company may request) shall execute (and/or, upon the Company's request, shall cause all interested parties to execute), at the Company's option, the Company's then-current standard form of Agreement, which agreement shall supersede this Agreement in all respects and the terms of which agreement may differ from the terms of this Agreement; provided, however, that the Development Schedule thereunder shall be the same as in this Agreement, and (ii) all owners of an interest in Developer shall execute the Company's then-current form of guaranty of Developer's obligations under the development agreement;

7.2.8 Developer shall remain liable for all obligations of Developer's business prior to the effective date of the transfer and shall execute any and all instruments reasonably requested by the Company to evidence such liability;

7.2.9 Each Franchised Business which has opened and been approved for operation by the Company is in full compliance with all the conditions and terms of the Franchise Agreement for such Franchised Business;

7.2.10 Developer shall pay a transfer fee equal to 50% of the Company's then-current initial franchise fee; provided, however, in the case of a one-time transfer to a corporation or limited liability company formed by Developer for the convenience of ownership with the same ownership composition as Developer, such fee shall be waived, provided however, Company may seek reimbursement of its expenses in connection with the transfer. An example of the Company's form of Assignment Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 6.

7.3 Developer shall use its best efforts in the event it grants a security interest in any of the assets of the business licensed hereunder to cause the secured party to agree that in the event of any default by Developer under any documents related to the security interest, the Company shall have the right and option to be substituted as obligor to the secured party and to cure any default of Developer, it being understood that such right of the Company may be subordinate to the rights of Developer's lenders or landlord.

7.4 For any transfer triggering the Company's right of first refusal pursuant to Section 7.2, the Company or its designated affiliate shall have the right and option, exercisable within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notification, to send written notice to the seller that the Company or its parent, predecessor or affiliate intends to purchase the seller's interest on the same terms and conditions offered by the third party. In the event that the Company or its parent, predecessor or affiliate elects to purchase the seller's interest, no material change in any offer and no other offers by a third party for such interest shall be considered with respect to the Company's right of first refusal. In the event that the Company or its parent, predecessor or affiliate elects to purchase the seller's interest, closing on such purchase must occur within ninety (90) days from the date of notice to the seller of the election to purchase by the Company or its parent, predecessor or affiliate. In the event that the Company or its parent, predecessor or affiliate has elected not to purchase the seller's interest, any material change in the terms of any offer prior to closing by any third party shall constitute a new offer subject to the same rights of first refusal by the Company described in this Section 7.4 as in the case of an initial offer. Failure by the Company or its parent, predecessor or affiliate to exercise the option afforded by this Section 7.4 shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of this Section 7.4 with respect to a proposed transfer. In the event the consideration, terms, and/or conditions offered by a third party are such that the Company or its designated affiliate may not reasonably be required to furnish the same consideration, terms, and/or conditions, then the Company or its parent, predecessor or affiliate may purchase the interest in the Developer's business proposed to be sold for the reasonable equivalent in cash. If the parties cannot agree within a reasonable time on the reasonable equivalent in cash of the consideration, terms, and/or conditions offered by the third party, an independent appraiser shall be designated by mutual agreement of the Company and Developer, and his determination shall be binding. If the Company and Developer cannot agree upon the selection of a single appraiser, then each party shall designate one (1) such appraiser and the two (2) designated appraisers, in turn, shall designate a third party appraiser and the determination of the three (3) appraisers shall be binding.

7.5 Upon the death or mental incompetency of any person with a controlling interest in this Agreement or in Developer, the transfer of which requires the consent of the Company as provided in Section 7.2 hereof, the executor, administrator, personal representative, guardian, or conservator of such person shall transfer such interest within ninety (90) days after such death or mental incompetency to a third party approved by the Company. Such transfers, including, without limitation, transfers by devise or inheritance, shall be subject to the same conditions as any inter vivos transfer. However, in the case of transfer by devise or inheritance, if the heirs or beneficiaries of any such person are unable to meet the conditions of this Section 7, the personal representative of the deceased person shall have a reasonable time to dispose of the deceased's interest, which disposition shall be subject to all the terms and conditions for transfers contained in this Agreement. If the interest is not disposed of within a reasonable time, the Company may terminate this Agreement.

7.6 The Company's consent to any transfer under this Section 7 shall not constitute a waiver of any claims the Company may have against the transferring party, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of the Company's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the transferee.

8. COVENANTS

8.1 Developer covenants that during the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by the Company, Developer or, if Developer is a corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, a principal of Developer approved by the Company, shall devote full time, energy, and best efforts to the management and operation of the business contemplated hereunder, including the establishment and operation of the Franchised Businesses to be developed hereunder.

8.2 Developer specifically acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Developer will receive valuable confidential information, including, without limitation, information regarding the site selection and marketing methods and techniques of the Company and the System, and that Developer has the right and obligation under this Agreement to identify sites and develop the Development Area for the benefit of the System. Developer covenants that during the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by the Company, Developer shall not, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, or legal entity:

8.2.1 Divert or attempt to divert any business or client of Developer's Franchised Businesses or any franchised business to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Company's Proprietary Marks and the System; or

8.2.2 Own, maintain, operate, engage in, act as a consultant for, perform services for, be employed by, or have any interest in any business which offers similar products and services as a Feng Cha business (a "Competing Business"). The prohibitions in this Section 8.2.2 shall not apply to interests in or activities performed in connection with a Franchised Business.

8.3 Developer covenants that, except as otherwise approved in writing by the Company, Developer shall not, for a continuous uninterrupted period commencing upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause for termination, and continuing for two (2) years thereafter, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, corporation, or limited liability company, own, maintain, operate, engage in, act as a consultant for, be employed by, perform services for, or have any interest in any Competing Business that is then, or is intended to be, located at or within:

8.3.1 the Development Area; or

8.3.2 fifteen (15) miles of any franchised business operating under the System and/or utilizing the Proprietary Marks.

8.4 Section 8.3 shall not apply to ownership by Developer of less than a three percent (3%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any corporation which is registered under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934.

8.5 The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Section 8 is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in an unappealed final decision to which the Company is a party, Developer expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Section 8.

8.6 Developer understands and acknowledges that the Company shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in Sections 8.2 and 8.3 in this Agreement or any portion thereof, without Developer's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Developer of written notice thereof, and Developer agrees to comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified, which shall be fully enforceable notwithstanding the provisions of Section 13 hereof.

8.7 Developer expressly acknowledges that the existence of any claims which Developer may have against the Company, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of the covenants in this Section 8.

8.8 Developer acknowledges that Developer's violation of the terms of this Section 8 would result in irreparable injury to the Company and its parents, affiliates or predecessors for which no adequate remedy at law may be available. Accordingly, the Company shall be entitled to seek equitable and injunctive relief against actual or threatened conduct that shall cause such loss or damages, without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting a bond. In any such action for equitable relief, injunctive relief or specific performance, Developer agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Company in seeking to prohibit conduct by Developer in violation of the terms of this Section 8.

8.9 With respect to each person who is or becomes associated with Developer in an ownership capacity Developer shall require and obtain such covenants from them and promptly provide the Company with executed copies of such covenant, which are included in the Guaranty that must be executed by them. In no event shall any person enumerated be granted access to any confidential aspect of the System or any Franchised Business prior to execution of such a covenant. Further, in the case of a non-owner, no access shall be granted prior to execution of a confidentiality agreement. Confidentiality covenants shall be in the form attached as Exhibit "5" and shall identify the Company as a third-party beneficiary of such covenants with the independent right to enforce them. Failure by Developer to obtain execution of a covenant required by this Section 8.9, and provide the same to the Company, shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement. Developer shall be liable to the Company for all actions and omissions with respect to the Company's confidential information of Developer's employees and representatives who have access to the Company's confidential information.

9. NOTICES

Any and all notices required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be either personally delivered; sent by nationally recognized overnight courier (Ex: FedEx); sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested; or sent by email (provided that the sender also sends a copy by certified or registered mail or recognized overnight courier contemporaneously) to the respective parties at the following addresses unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Developer's knowledge of a change in the Company's principal place of business shall be deemed adequate designation of a change and notice shall be sent to the Company's new address.

Notices to the Company:

CANNECT, LLC
412 N. Bowser Rd.
Richardson TX 75081
Attn: CEO

Notices to Developer:

Any notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time of personal delivery or, in the case of email, upon confirmation of receipt (or confirmation of delivery via contemporaneous methods required above, whichever occurs first) or, in the case of overnight courier, on the next business day after mailing, or in the case of registered or certified mail, three (3) business days after the date and time of mailing.

10. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them; that Developer shall be an independent contractor; and, that nothing in this Agreement is intended to constitute either party an agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venturer, partner, employee, or servant of the other for any purpose whatsoever.

10.2 During the term of this Agreement, Developer shall hold itself out to the public to be an independent contractor operating pursuant to this Agreement. Developer agrees to take such affirmative action as shall be necessary to do so, including, without limitation, exhibiting a notice of that fact in a conspicuous place, the content of which the Company reserves the right to specify.

10.3 Developer understands and agrees that nothing in this Agreement authorizes Developer to make any contract, agreement, warranty, or representation on the Company's behalf, or to incur any debt or other obligation in the Company's name.

10.4 Developer shall indemnify, defend and hold the Company and its parents, affiliates and predecessors and any of their officers, directors, and employees (the "Indemnified Parties") harmless against any and all such claims arising directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with Developer's activities (or omissions), or those of its owners, employees or representatives, and from all costs (including attorney's fees), damages, sums of money, settlements, or judgments. In the settlement of any matter hereunder, in no event shall Developer be permitted to admit fault on behalf of the Indemnified Parties nor to agree to any provision that places any obligations or restrictions on an Indemnified Party (including the payment of any money) without the Indemnified Party's express written consent. At Developer's expense and risk, the Indemnified Party may elect to assume (but under no circumstance is obligated to undertake) the defense and/or settlement of any such action, suit, proceeding, claim, demand, inquiry or investigation, provided that the Indemnified Party will seek Developer's advice and counsel and shall keep Developer informed with regard to any such proposed or contemplated settlement(s). Such an undertaking by an Indemnified Party shall in no manner or form diminish Developer's obligation to indemnify the Indemnified Party and to hold the party harmless.

11. APPROVALS AND WAIVERS

11.1 Whenever this Agreement requires the prior approval or consent of the Company, Developer shall make timely written request to the Company therefor; and, except as otherwise provided herein, any approval or consent granted shall be in writing.

11.2 The Company makes no warranties or guarantees upon which Developer may rely, and assumes no liability or obligation to Developer, by providing any waiver, approval, advice, consent, or suggestion to Developer in connection with this Agreement, or by reason of any neglect, delay, or denial of any request therefor.

11.3 No failure of the Company to exercise any power reserved to it by this Agreement, or to insist upon strict compliance by Developer with any obligation or condition hereunder, and no custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms hereof, shall constitute a waiver of the Company's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms herein. Waiver by the Company of any particular default by Developer shall not affect or impair the Company's rights with respect to any subsequent default of the same, similar or different nature, nor shall any delay, forbearance or omission of the Company to exercise any power or right arising out of any breach or default by Developer of any of the terms, provisions or covenants hereof, affect or impair the Company's right to exercise the same, nor shall such constitute a waiver by the Company of any right hereunder, or the right to declare any subsequent breach or default and to terminate this Agreement prior to the expiration of its term. Subsequent acceptance by the Company of any payments due to it hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver by the Company of any preceding breach by Developer of any terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement.

12. SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

12.1 Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, each section, part, term, and/or provision of this Agreement shall be considered severable; and if, for any reason, any section, part, term, and/or provision herein is determined to be invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, such shall not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portions, sections, parts, terms, and/or provisions of this Agreement as may remain otherwise intelligible, and the latter shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties hereto; and said invalid sections, parts, terms, and/or provisions shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

12.2 Nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer upon any person or legal entity other than the Company or Developer and such of their respective successors and assigns as may be contemplated by Section 7 hereof, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement, except as expressly provided for herein.

12.3 Developer expressly agrees to be bound by any promise or covenants imposing the maximum duty permitted by law which is subsumed within the terms of any provision hereof, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement, that may result from striking from any of the provisions hereof any portion or portions which a court may hold to be unreasonable and unenforceable in a final decision to which the Company is a party, or from reducing the scope of any promise or covenant to the extent required to comply with such a court order.

12.4 All captions in this Agreement are intended solely for the convenience of the parties, and none shall be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

13. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, the documents referred to herein, and the Attachments hereto, if any, constitute the entire, full, and complete agreement between the Company and Developer concerning the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all prior agreements. Nothing in this or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the latest franchise disclosure document furnished to Developer.

14. APPLICABLE LAW AND JURISDICTION

14.1 Amendments. THIS AGREEMENT MAY NOT BE CHANGED EXCEPT BY A WRITTEN DOCUMENT SIGNED BY BOTH PARTIES. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT IS INTENDED TO DISCLAIM ANY INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE COMPANY'S FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

14.2 Choice of Law and Selection of Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas. Except as provided in Sections 14.4 and 14.5 below, any action at law or equity instituted against either party to this Agreement shall be commenced only in the Courts in the then-current County and State where the Company's corporate headquarters is located. Developer hereby irrevocably consents to the personal jurisdiction of the then-current County and State where the Company's corporate headquarters is located, as set forth above. Any action or proceeding under this Agreement shall be brought on an individual basis, and not on a class-wide or multiple plaintiff basis, unless prohibited by law.

14.3 Mediation. Except for any action brought in accordance with Section 14.4 any disputes and claims relating to this Agreement, the rights and obligations of the parties hereto, or any other claims or causes of action relating to the making, interpretation, or performance of either party under this Agreement, shall first be submitted for mediation administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") in accordance with its Commercial Mediation Procedures before resorting to arbitration, litigation, or some other dispute resolution procedure. If submitted to mediation, the same shall take place before a sole mediator in the then-current County and State where the Company's corporate headquarters is located. The parties shall each bear all of their own costs of mediation; provided, however, the fees of the mediator shall be divided equally between the Company and Developer.

14.4 Injunctive Relief. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Company from obtaining injunctive relief against actual or threatened conduct that shall cause it loss or damages, in any appropriate forum under the usual equity rules, including the applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and preliminary and permanent injunctions without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting a bond. In any such action for equitable relief, injunctive relief or specific performance, Developer agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Company in seeking to prohibit any conduct by Developer.

14.5 Arbitration. Except as set forth in Section 14.4 above, disputes and claims relating to this Agreement, the rights and obligations of the parties hereto, or any other claims or causes of action relating to the making, interpretation, or performance of either party under this Agreement, will be submitted to arbitration at the office of the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) responsible for administering claims filed in the then-current County and State where the Company’s corporate headquarters is located, in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA to the extent such rules are not inconsistent with the provisions of this arbitration provision. The Federal Arbitration Act shall govern the interpretation and enforcement of this provision and the proceedings hereunder. To the extent state law is applicable under the Federal Arbitration Act, the law of the state of Texas shall apply. The statute of limitations of the state of Texas shall be strictly enforced.

The following shall supplement and, in the event of a conflict, shall govern any dispute submitted to arbitration. The parties shall select one arbitrator from the panel provided by the AAA. In selecting the arbitrator from the list provided by the AAA, the Company and Developer shall make the selection by the striking method. The arbitrator shall apply the Federal Rules of Evidence at the hearings. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party all costs of arbitration, including, without limitation, the arbitrator’s fee, attorneys’ fees, interest, and costs of investigation. Arbitration shall take place in the then-current County and State where the Company’s corporate headquarters is located.

The arbitrator shall have no authority to amend or modify the terms of the Agreement. The Company and Developer further agree that, unless such a limitation is prohibited by applicable law, neither the Company nor Developer shall be liable for punitive or exemplary damages, and the arbitrator shall have no authority to award the same. To the extent permitted by applicable law, no issue of fact or law shall be given preclusive or collateral estoppel effect in any arbitration hereunder, except to the extent such issue may have been determined in another proceeding between the Company and Developer. Judgment upon the award of the arbitrator shall be submitted for confirmation to the applicable United States District Court or the Courts of the then-current County and State where the Company’s corporate headquarters is located, and, if confirmed, may be subsequently entered in any court having competent jurisdiction. This agreement to arbitrate shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

14.6 Construction of Language. The language of this Agreement shall be construed according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against either party. All words in this Agreement refer to whatever number or gender the context requires. If more than one party or person is referred to as Developer, their obligations and liabilities shall be joint and several. Headings are for reference purposes and do not control interpretation. The BACKGROUND Section at the beginning of this Agreement contains contractual terms that are not mere recitals.

14.7 Successors. References to the Company or Developer include their successors, assigns or transferees, subject to the limitations of this Agreement.

14.8 Reformation. If any provision of this Agreement is deemed invalid or inoperative for any reason, that provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to make it valid and operative or, if it cannot be so modified, it shall then be severed, and the remainder of that provision shall continue in full force and effect as if this Agreement had been signed with the invalid portion so modified or eliminated; provided, however, that if any part of this Agreement relating to payments to the Company or its parent, predecessor or affiliate or protection of the Proprietary Marks, or the Confidential Information, including the Confidential Operations Manual and the Company's other trade secrets, is declared invalid or unenforceable, then the Company at its option may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to Developer.

14.9 Force Majeure. Neither the Company, its parent, predecessor or affiliate nor Developer shall be liable for loss or damage or deemed to be in breach of this Agreement or any related agreement if its failure to perform its obligations results from circumstances beyond the reasonable control of a party, including but not limited to fire, flood, earthquake or other natural disasters, or acts of a public enemy, war, rebellion or sabotage. Any delay resulting from any such cause shall extend the time of performance, provided however, in the event that any such delay extends any deadline under the Development Schedule in excess of ninety (90) days the Company may, at its option, terminate this Agreement.

14.10 Rights Cumulative. No right or remedy under this Agreement shall be deemed to be exclusive of any other right or remedy under this Agreement or of any right or remedy otherwise provided by law or and equity. Each right and remedy will be cumulative.

14.11 PARTIES. THE SOLE ENTITY AGAINST WHICH DEVELOPER MAY SEEK DAMAGES OR ANY REMEDY UNDER LAW OR EQUITY OR ANY CLAIM IS AGAINST THE COMPANY OR ITS SUCCESSORS OR ASSIGNS. THE SHAREHOLDERS, MEMBERS, GENERAL MANAGERS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AGENTS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE COMPANY AND OF ITS PARENT, PREDECESSOR AND AFFILIATE SHALL NOT BE NAMED AS A PARTY IN ANY LITIGATION, ARBITRATION OR OTHER PROCEEDINGS COMMENCED BY DEVELOPER IF THE CLAIM ARISES OUT OF OR RELATES TO THIS AGREEMENT.

14.12 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL THE COMPANY BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR ANY OTHER DAMAGES THAT ARE NOT DIRECT DAMAGES, REGARDLESS OF THE NATURE OF THE CLAIM FOR DAMAGES.

14.13 JURY TRIAL WAIVER. THE COMPANY AND DEVELOPER, RESPECTIVELY, WAIVE ANY RIGHT EITHER MIGHT HAVE TO TRIAL BY JURY ON ANY AND ALL CLAIMS ASSERTED AGAINST THE OTHER. THE COMPANY AND DEVELOPER, RESPECTIVELY, EACH ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THEY HAVE HAD A FULL OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL CONCERNING THIS

WAIVER, AND THAT THIS WAIVER IS INFORMED, VOLUNTARY, INTENTIONAL AND NOT THE RESULT OF UNEQUAL BARGAINING POWER.

15. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

15.1 Developer acknowledges that it received the Company's current Franchise Disclosure Document at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the date on which this Agreement was executed. Developer further acknowledges that it received a completed copy of this Agreement, and all related agreements attached to the Franchise Disclosure Document, with any changes to such agreements unilaterally and materially made by the Company at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the date on which this Agreement and all related agreements were executed.

15.2 Developer acknowledges that under applicable U.S. law, including, without limitation, Executive Order 13224, signed on September 23, 2001 (the "Executive Order"), the Company is prohibited from engaging in any transaction with any person engaged in, or with a person aiding any person engaged in, acts of terrorism, as defined in the Executive Order. Accordingly, Developer represents and warrants to the Company that as of the date of this Agreement, neither Developer nor any person holding any ownership interest in Developer, controlled by Developer, or under common control with Developer is designated under the Executive Order as a person with whom business may not be transacted by the Company, and that Developer (i) does not, and hereafter shall not, engage in any terrorist activity; (ii) is not affiliated with and does not support any individual or entity engaged in, contemplating, or supporting terrorist activity; and (iii) is not acquiring the rights granted under this Agreement with the intent to generate funds to channel to any individual or entity engaged in, contemplating, or supporting terrorist activity, or to otherwise support or further any terrorist activity.

15.3 This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which when taken together shall form one valid and effective agreement which may be electronically signed, and any digital or electronic signatures (including pdf or electronically imaged signatures provided by DocuSign or any other nationally recognized digital signature provider) will be treated the same as handwritten signatures for the purposes of validity, enforceability and admissibility, and delivery of any such electronic signature, or a signed copy of this Agreement, may be made by email or other electronic transmission.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have fully executed, sealed, and delivered this Agreement on the date executed by the Company and listed above as the Effective Date.

CANNECT, LLC
MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPER AGREEMENT

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT
(for employees of Developer)

1. Pursuant to a Multi-Unit Developer Agreement dated _____ (the "MUDA"), _____ (the "Developer") has acquired the right and franchise from Cannect, LLC (the "Company") to develop Feng Cha (the "Franchised Business").

2. The Company, as the result of the expenditure of time, skill, effort and resources, has developed and owns a distinctive format and system (the "System") relating to the establishment and operation of Feng Cha businesses. The Company possesses certain proprietary and confidential information relating to the operation of the System, which includes but is not limited to, recipes, proprietary trade secrets, specifications, security protocols, computer hardware and systems, technology and equipment used, methods of business practices and management, research and development, training processes, operational manuals, presentation materials, vendor agreements, supplier lists, vendor lists, marketing and merchandising strategies, plans for new product or service offerings, and knowledge of, and experience in, the operation of the Franchised Business (the "Confidential Information"). Confidential Information shall also expressly include all customer and Developer personal and business information that I obtain or have access to during my employment, as well as the confidential information of any other third parties to whom the Company owes a duty of confidentiality. Further, any and all information, knowledge, know-how, and techniques which the Company specifically designates as confidential shall be deemed to be Confidential Information for purposes of this Agreement.

3. In consideration for my access to the Confidential Information as part of my employment with Developer, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, I hereby acknowledge and agree to the terms of this Confidentiality (the "Agreement").

4. As an employee of Developer, the Company and/or Developer may disclose the Confidential Information to me via training programs, the Company's Confidential Operations Manuals (the "Manuals"), or otherwise during the term of my employment with the Developer.

5. I will not acquire any interest in the Confidential Information, other than the right to utilize it in performing my duties for Developer during the term of my employment and the use or duplication of the Confidential Information for any use outside the System is strictly prohibited. I covenant that I will not forward, disclose or provide the Confidential Information to any third party, nor store it on any personal or third-party electronic device, disk, drive, or otherwise, unless expressly authorized to do so by the Company.

6. Any work performed by me during my employment with Developer in relation to Feng Cha or the MUDA and any derivative works created by me using the Confidential Information or any proprietary information of the Company are considered "works made for hire" and I will have no ownership interest in the items created.

7. The Confidential Information is proprietary, involves trade secrets of the Company, and is disclosed to me solely on the condition that I agree, and I do hereby agree, that I shall hold in strict confidence all Confidential Information. Unless the Company otherwise agrees in writing, I will disclose and/or use the Confidential Information only in connection with my duties as an employee of Developer, and will continue not to disclose or use any such information even after I cease to be employed by Developer, unless I can demonstrate that such information has become generally known to the public other than by the breach of an obligation of Developer under the MUDA, a breach of the employees or associates of Developer, or a breach of my own duties or the duties hereunder.

8. I agree that each of the foregoing covenants shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. In the event any provision of this Agreement is ever deemed to exceed the limits permitted by any applicable law, the provisions set forth herein will be reformed to the extent necessary to make them reasonable and enforceable. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement will not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions, all of which are severable and will be given full force and effect.

9. I understand and acknowledge that the Company shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in this Agreement, or any portion thereof, without my consent, effective immediately upon receipt by me of written notice thereof; and I agree to comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified.

10. The Company is a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement and may enforce it, solely and/or jointly with Developer. I am aware that my violation of this Agreement may cause the Company and Developer irreparable harm; therefore, I acknowledge and agree that Developer and/or the Company may apply for the issuance of an injunction preventing me from violating this Agreement, without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting a bond, in addition to any other remedies available to them, and I agree to pay Developer and the Company all the costs it/they incur(s), including, without limitation, legal fees and expenses, if this Agreement is enforced against me. Due to the importance of this Agreement to Developer and the Company, any claim I have against Developer or the Company is a separate matter and does not entitle me to violate, or justify any violation of this Agreement.

11. This is not a contract for employment and does not guaranty my employment for any set period of time. I agree and understand that Developer is my employer and I have no employment relationship with the Company.

12. Except for an action seeking injunctive or other equitable relief all claims, disputes or controversies that may arise concerning this Agreement, or the construction, performance, or breach of this Agreement, whether based on contract, tort, statute or any other theory, will be submitted to and adjudicated, determined and resolved through compulsory, binding arbitration, unless prohibited by law. Matters shall be decided on an individual basis, and not on a class-wide or multiple plaintiff basis or in an action where any party hereto acts in a representative capacity, unless prohibited by law. The parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") for any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, which will be governed in accordance with its Employment Arbitration Rules, to the extent such rules are not inconsistent with the provisions of this arbitration provision and unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties or prohibited by law. The parties agree that any such arbitration will be final and binding and in agreeing to arbitration, the parties understand that they are waiving their respective rights to seek remedies in court, including the right to a jury trial. In any arbitration, each party is solely responsible for payment of the fees and expenses of his, her or its counsel fees, and each party shall pay their required share of arbitration costs. Notwithstanding any choice of law or other provision herein, the parties agree and acknowledge that the Federal Arbitration Act shall govern the interpretation and enforcement of this provision and the proceedings hereunder. To the extent state law is applicable under the Federal Arbitration Act, the laws of the state of Texas shall apply. The statute of limitations of the state of Texas shall be strictly enforced. The arbitration shall be conducted in Union County, Texas by one (1) arbitrator.

13. In the event any action for equitable relief, injunctive relief or specific performance is filed, or should any action be filed to confirm, modify or vacate any award rendered through compulsory binding arbitration, or otherwise, I hereby irrevocably agree that the forum for any such suit will lie with a court of competent jurisdiction in Dallas County, Texas or the district court for the Northern District of Texas and hereby agree to the personal jurisdiction and venue of such court.

14. This Agreement will be binding upon me, my heirs, and personal representatives, and shall inure to the benefit of Company and Developer and any of their affiliates, parents, subsidiaries, successors and assigns. I understand that this Agreement may and will be assigned or transferred to any successor of the Company, and any successor will be deemed substituted, for all purposes, as the "Company" under the terms of this Agreement. As used in this Agreement the term "successor" will mean any person, firm, corporation, or business entity which at any time, whether by merger, purchase or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets of the business of the Company. I acknowledge that the services to be rendered by me in my employment are unique and personal. Accordingly, I may not assign any of my rights nor delegate any of my duties or obligations under this Agreement.

15. This Agreement may not be modified except by a written agreement executed by the Parties, which has been approved by the Company.

16. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which when taken together shall form one valid and effective agreement which may be electronically signed, and any digital or electronic signatures (including pdf or electronically imaged signatures provided by DocuSign or any other nationally recognized digital signature provider) will be treated the same as handwritten signatures for the purposes of validity, enforceability and admissibility, and delivery of any such electronic signature, or a signed copy of this Agreement, may be made by email or other electronic transmission.

Bowser Rd., Richardson TX 75081 (“Company”), _____ an individual with an address at _____ (“Assignor”), and _____ with an address at _____ (“Assignee”).

BACKGROUND

A. Assignor and Company entered into a certain Multi-Unit Developer Agreement dated _____ (the “MUDA”) whereby Assignor was given the right and undertook the obligation to develop _____ Feng Cha Franchised Businesses (the “Franchised Businesses”) within the Development Area designated on Exhibit 1 to the MUDA.

B. Assignor has organized and incorporated Assignee for the convenience and sole purpose of developing said Franchised Businesses.

C. Assignor desires to assign the rights and obligations under the MUDA to Assignee pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of the MUDA.

D. Company is willing to consent to the assignment of the MUDA to Assignee, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the agreement by Assignor to guarantee the performance by Assignee of its obligations under the MUDA.

AGREEMENT

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound, the parties agree as follows:

1. Assignor hereby assigns and transfers over to Assignee all right, title and interest in and to the MUDA, effective as of the Effective Date.

2. Assignee hereby assumes all of Assignor’s obligations, agreements, commitments, duties and liabilities under the MUDA, and agrees to be bound by and observe and faithfully perform all of the obligations, agreements, commitments and duties of the Developer thereunder with the same force and effect as if the MUDA were originally written with Assignee as Developer.

3. Exhibit A to this Agreement lists all of Assignee’s owners and their interests in Assignee as of the Effective Date. Assignee agrees that it and its owners will sign and deliver to Company a revised Exhibit A to reflect any permitted changes in the information that Exhibit A now contains.

4. The Assignor as an owner of Assignee and in consideration of benefits received and to be received, shall sign and deliver to Company a personal guaranty in the form attached as Exhibit B to this Agreement.

5. Assignor, for himself/herself and his/her agents, servants, employees, partners, members, heirs, predecessors, successors and assigns does hereby release Company, its officers, directors, shareholders, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries, servants, employees, partners, members, heirs, successors and assigns, from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, suits, debts, dues, duties, sums of money, accounts, reckonings, judgments, liabilities and obligations, both fixed and contingent, known and unknown, in law or in equity, under local law, state or federal law or regulation which he/she had, from the beginning of time to this date, arising under or in connection with the MUDA.

6. Assignee agrees that the Franchised Businesses which Assignee will develop will be the only businesses Assignee operates (although Assignor may have other, non-competitive business interests);

7. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their heirs, successors and assigns.

8. The governing law and methods of dispute resolution in the MUDA shall govern this Agreement as well.

9. This Agreement, and the documents referenced herein, shall constitute the entire integrated agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter contained herein and shall supersede any prior agreements, verbal or written. This Agreement shall not be subject to change, modification, amendment or addition without the express written consent of all the parties.

10. If Company retains the services of legal counsel to enforce the terms of this Agreement, Company shall be entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including travel, reasonable attorney, expert and investigative fees, incurred in enforcing the terms of this Agreement.

11. Each party declares that the terms of this Agreement have been completely read and are fully understood and voluntarily accepted by each party, after having a reasonable opportunity to retain and confer with counsel.

12. The obligations of Assignor and Assignee under this Agreement shall be joint and several.

STATE ADDENDA

Cannect, LLC

ADDENDUMS TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT AND FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

California:

THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

THE FRANCHISOR'S WEBSITE www.fengchausa.com HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION at www.dfpi.ca.gov.

FDD Item 5 and the Franchise Agreement are amended to provide that any and all initial fees are deferred until the franchisor has completed all of its initial obligations to the franchisee and the franchisee is open for business.

Neither the franchisor, nor any person or franchise broker identified in Item 2 of this disclosure document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. § 78a et seq., suspending or expelling the person from membership in the association or exchange.

California Business and Professions Code § 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning transfer, termination or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. § 101 et seq.).

The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete, which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of the State of Texas. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code § 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure § 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a Franchise Agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

§ 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires the franchisor to give the franchisee a special disclosure document before soliciting a proposed material modification of an existing franchise.

The Franchise Agreement requires the franchisee to sign a general release of claims as a condition of relocation, resale, or renewal of the franchise. § 31512 of the California Corporations Code provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of the Franchise Investment Law or any rule or order under it is void.

Therefore, any general release of claims that you are required to sign under the Franchise Agreement will be considered amended to delete any waiver of Franchisor’s compliance with the Franchise Investment Law. This will not prevent Franchisor from requiring you to sign a general release of claims, including claims arising under the Franchise Investment Law, as part of the negotiated settlement of a dispute.

The Antitrust Law Section of the Office of the California Attorney General views maximum price agreements as per se violations of the Cartwright Act. Any restrictions on pricing may not be enforceable under California law.

The franchise agreement may contain a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

The highest interest rate allowed by law in California is 10% annually.

The franchise agreement prohibits you from employing individual who were employed by your Franchised Business or are employed by us or our franchisees, for a period of time after the term of the franchise agreement. This provision is not enforceable in California and is therefore deleted from the franchise agreement.

For franchisees operating outlets located in California, the California Franchise Investment Law and the California Franchise Relations Act will apply regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the Franchise Agreement or any amendment thereto or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.

The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the Commissioner.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise. See NASAA STATEMENT OF POLICY REGARDING THE USE OF FRANCHISE QUESTIONNAIRES AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. <https://www.nasaa.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/11/sop-franchise-questionnaires.pdf>.

“In accordance with applicable requirements of Minnesota law, Franchisor shall protect Franchisee’s right to use the trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes or other commercial symbols and/or shall indemnify Franchisee from any loss, costs or expenses arising out of any claim, suit or demand regarding such use.”

2. Item 17 of the Disclosure Document, and the appropriate sections of the Franchise Agreement and Multi-Unit Developer Agreement are amended, to the extent applicable, by the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein:

“With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, the franchisor will comply with Minnesota Statutes Sec. 80C.14, Subds.3, 4 and 5, which require (except in certain specified cases) that a franchisee be given 90 days’ notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days’ notice for non-renewal of the franchise agreement and that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.”

3. Item 17 of the Disclosure Document, and the appropriate sections of the Franchise Agreement and Multi-Unit Developer Agreement relating to Governing Law, Jurisdiction and Venue, and Choice of Forum are amended to conform to the requirements of Minnesota law, to the extent applicable, as follows:

“Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 and Rule 2860.4400(J) prohibit the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Franchise Disclosure Document or agreements can abrogate or reduce any of the franchisee’s rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or franchisee’s rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.”

4. Item 17 of the Disclosure Document and the appropriate sections of the Franchise Agreement and Multi-Unit Developer Agreement are amended to conform to the requirements of Minnesota law, to the extent applicable, as follows:

“Minn. Rule 2860.4400D prohibits us from requiring you to assent to a general release.”

6. Any reference to waiver of a jury trial in the Franchise Agreement or Multi-Unit Developer Agreement is hereby deleted in accordance with Minn. Rule 2860.4400J, to the extent applicable.

7. Any offending sections of the Franchise Agreement or Multi-Unit Developer Agreement regarding Limitations of Claims are hereby amended to comply with Minn. Stat. §80C.17, Subd. 5, to the extent applicable.

8. Item 6, Insufficient Fund Fees: NSF fees are governed by Minnesota Statute 604.113; which puts a cap of $30 on a NSF check. This applies to everyone in Minnesota who accepts checks except banks.

9. Under Minn. Rule 2860.440J, the franchisee cannot consent to the franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. The franchisor may seek injunctive relief. A court will determine if a bond is required. The appropriate sections of the Franchise Agreement and Multi-Unit Developer Agreement are hereby amended accordingly, to the extent applicable.

10. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including, fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed with the franchisee.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.

3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).

5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).

11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.

12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.

14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor.

As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Due to the franchisor’s financial condition, the Securities Division of the Washington Department of Financial Institutions requires that the franchisor’s collection of the initial franchise fee will be deferred until the franchisor has fulfilled its initial pre-opening obligations and your franchised business is open for business. For Washington franchisees who sign a development agreement, the payment of the development and initial fees attributable to a specific unit in your development schedule is deferred until that unit is open.

20. The Franchise Agreement is revised to provide that liquidated damages measurement shall be equal to the average monthly Royalty Fees owed to Franchisor during the 12 months of operation preceding the effective date of termination (or the period of operation if less than 12 months) multiplied by: (a) 24 (being the number of months in two full years), or (b) the number of months remaining in the Agreement had it not been terminated, whichever is less.

21. Item 5 of the Franchise Disclosure Document is hereby amended to provide that franchisees who receive financial incentives to refer franchise prospects to the Franchisor may be required to register as franchise brokers under the laws of Washington State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed, sealed and delivered this Addendum dated this _____ day of _____, 20__.
