What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit V.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risk(s) to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Illinois. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Illinois than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

THE FOLLOWING APPLY TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW ONLY

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in the Michigan Franchise Investment Act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000, the franchisor shall, at the request of a franchisee, arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

Elizabeth Hessler v. Ace Hardware Corporation, et al. (Case No. 2025L011064, Circuit Court of Illinois, Cook County). On September 10, 2025, Elizabeth Hessler (“Hessler”) filed a consumer action against Ace, Ace Handyman Franchising, Inc. (“AHS Franchising”), Sidney W. Canchester d/b/a Ace Handyman Services Oak Park River Forest (“AHS Oak Park”), Anchor Court Ace Handyman Services a/k/a Anchor Court Management LLC (“Anchor Court”), and Samuel Cundari. AHS Oak Park and Anchor Court are franchisees of Ace Handyman Franchising, Inc. and Cundari is/was the general manager of both franchisee entities. The complaint asserts claims under the Illinois Consumer Fraud and Deceptive Business Practices Act, the Home Repair and Remodeling Act, and breach of contract. Hessler entered into a construction contract with AHS Oak Park for improvements to her property. She alleges that the work completed by Ace Handyman Services Oak Park River Forest was defective and the relationships between Ace, AHS Franchising, AHS Oak Park and Anchor Court was misleading. The plaintiff seeks damages in excess of $50,000, plus interest, attorneys' fees, costs and any other relief that is necessary or proper. We and AHS Franchising have moved to dismiss the complaint against us, contending that the dispute is a consumer matter solely between the plaintiff and AHS Oak Park arising from the performance of the contract between the two of them. As of the date of this Disclosure Document, no discovery has been undertaken.

Twomey v. Ace Hardware Corporation, Ace Retail Holdings LLC, Ace Retail Group, Inc., and Epicor Software Corporation (Case No. 1:26-cv-05320, United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division). On May 7, 2026, Sean Twomey (“Twomey”), a consumer, filed a class action complaint alleging that we, our subsidiaries Ace Retail Holdings LLC (“ARH”) and Ace Retail Group, Inc. (“ARG” and, together with ARH and us, “Ace Defendants”), and Epicor Software Corporation (“Epicor”) engaged in violations of federal antitrust law under Section 1 of the Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. §§ 1, 3). The complaint asserts three causes of action: (1) horizontal price fixing, alleging that Ace Defendants, Epicor, and retail stores participating in the Ace Hardware Corporation retail cooperative (“Member Stores”) colluded to raise and stabilize prices through coordinated pricing practices, including the collection and sharing of competitively sensitive price and sales data, the issuance of localized price recommendations and alerts, and the development, procurement, and supply of technology that enables Member Stores to collude to increase or stabilize prices; (2) horizontal market allocation, alleging that Ace Defendants imposed territorial and sales restrictions on existing and prospective Member Stores; and (3) anticompetitive information exchange, alleging that Ace Defendants and Epicor exchanged competitively sensitive information among Member Stores, causing anticompetitive effects without procompetitive justification. Twomey seeks class action certification, treble damages, injunctive and equitable relief, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. This case remains pending. We deny any liability in this matter and will defend ourselves vigorously.

Concluded Actions

Cathay Bank v. Ace Hardware Corporation, et al. (Case No. KC069647, Superior Court of the State California, County of Los Angeles, Eastern District.) In February 2017, Cathay Bank ("Bank") obtained several money judgments against Sentron International, Inc. ("Sentron"), a former Ace vendor, in the aggregate amount of $10,642,452, and had a receiver, Robb Evans & Associates LLC ("Receiver") appointed to liquidate Sentron's assets. In May 2017, the Bank obtained a money judgment against Smith Barnett LLC ("Smith Barnett"), also a former Ace vendor, in the amount of $2,332,080, for successor liability, among other claims. In September 2017, the Bank and the Receiver filed a civil action against Ace and other defendants alleging that Ace made wrongful payments to Smith Barnett to purchase products belonging to Sentron in the amount of $2,020,084, and possible additional wrongful payments totaling $4,352,224, which may include the $2,020,084. The eight-count third amended complaint alleged violations of various California commercial code sections, conversion, breach of fiduciary duty, constructive fraud, involuntary and constructive trust, and tort in essence, and seeks the return of Sentron's proceeds, unspecified monetary damages, punitive damages, the imposition of a constructive trust, disgorgement and attorneys' fees. The breach of fiduciary duty count was dismissed in December 2020. On March 15, 2021, Ace filed an Amended Cross-Complaint against the Bank alleging that in connection with its loans to Sentron the Bank violated California's Unfair Competition Law by: (i) aiding and abetting Sentron's fraudulent business practices; and (ii) violating its internal commercial lending policies and federal banking guidelines and regulations. On May 13, 2022, the parties settled this matter in consideration for the payment of $1.1 million to the plaintiffs, $450,000 of which was paid by co-defendant JMI, Inc. and $650,000 of which was paid by Ace Hardware. The plaintiffs' complaint and Ace Hardware's cross-complaint were dismissed on July 14, 2022.

Advanced Caregivers, LLC d/b/a Hialeah Ace Hardware and William Bloodworth v. Ace Hardware Corporation (Case No. 12-20082-CIV-Williams, U.S District Court, Southern District of Florida). In January 2012, this former member and its owner brought a civil action against Ace on behalf of themselves and a putative nationwide class alleging that Ace defrauded them in connection with their decision to become an Ace member and operate a Vision 21 store in Hialeah, Florida. The three-count complaint alleged violations of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, fraudulent inducement and fraud, and sought class action certification and unspecified monetary damages and attorneys' fees, which was amended on December 5, 2012 asserting the same causes and seeking the same relief. On January 31, 2013, Ace filed (i) a motion to transfer the lawsuit to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, and (ii) a motion to dismiss the amended complaint. On April 12, 2013, the Court granted Ace's motion to transfer the case to Illinois. On June 25, 2014, Count I of the amended complaint alleging a violation of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act was dismissed with prejudice. Counts II and III, which assert claims for fraud and fraudulent inducement, were dismissed without prejudice. Plaintiffs' filed a second amended complaint naming twelve different former Ace retailers and one current Ace retailer as plaintiffs. The second amended complaint contained substantially similar allegations as the first amended complaint and alleged fraud and fraudulent inducement. On October 25, 2014, plaintiffs filed a third amended complaint which named 53 plaintiffs. On November 4, 2015, plaintiffs filed a fourth amended complaint adding two additional plaintiffs that had previously filed bankruptcies and were represented by trustees. On March 30, 2016, the Court issued its memorandum opinion and order essentially dismissing the individual plaintiffs based on a lack of standing to pursue claims on behalf of the legal entities that were the actual Ace members but allowing the plaintiffs to file a fifth (and final) amended complaint with respect to the corporate entities. The remaining plaintiffs (fifteen corporate entities and seven bankruptcy trustees) filed their fifth amended complaint on May 20, 2016, which contained essentially the same allegations as the prior complaint. On July 26, 2016, all of the plaintiffs settled for $25,000 each and the case was dismissed with prejudice on July 27, 2017.

Ace Handyman Services, Inc. v. Ace Hardware Corporation et al., (Cause No. 2020-CI-03722, 468th Judicial District Bexar County, Texas). On February 25, 2020, Ace Handyman Services, Inc., a Texas corporation unrelated to Ace (“Ace Handyman Services”) filed a complaint and obtained a temporary restraining order against Ace Hardware Corporation, Ace Handyman Franchising, Inc., Ace Handyman Operating, Inc., and several Ace Handyman franchisees (collectively “Ace Defendants”) alleging that it had superior rights in the mark “ACE HANDYMAN SERVICES” in 8 counties in the San Antonio, Texas region in connection with a handyman services business. The plaintiff alleged common law trademark infringement and common law unfair competition and was seeking to prevent the Ace Defendants from using the name “ACE HANDYMAN SERVICES” in eight counties in the State of Texas. The plaintiff was granted a temporary restraining order and sought a permanent injunction, unspecified actual and exemplary damages, prejudgment and post-judgment interest, attorneys’ fees, and costs. On April 16, 2020, the parties settled this matter for $150,000 allowing the immediate use of the ACE HANDYMAN SERVICES mark by Ace and the discontinuance of Ace and Ace Handyman Services by the Plaintiff.

INITIAL FEES

Affiliation Fee

The affiliation fee for each new Ace location is five thousand dollars ($5,000). The affiliation fee will be billed on your first Ace store statement, which will be issued the month after your membership is approved and your store number is activated in our system. This affiliation fee is non-refundable. The affiliation fee is uniform for all members in the United States unless you qualify for a waiver.

We will waive the $5,000 affiliation fee if 1) you own a retail hardware store that is affiliated with another hardware wholesaler and convert it to an Ace Hardware store; 2) you are purchasing a retail hardware store that is affiliated with another hardware wholesaler and convert it to an Ace Hardware store; or 3) there is a change of ownership among family members of an existing Ace Hardware store.

We will also waive the $5,000 affiliation fee for any new Ace Hardware store if you are a veteran or an active duty serviceperson and qualify for the Veterans' Incentive Program. The Veterans' Incentive Program is available to all individuals who either have received an honorable discharge from one of the U.S. Armed Forces (i.e., Army, Air Force, Coast Guard, Marine Corps or Navy) or are currently serving in one of the U.S. Armed Forces and are eligible to receive an honorable discharge. Any veteran choosing to take advantage of The Veteran's Incentive Program will be required to submit their honorable discharge papers (DD 214) at the time they submit their application. If you are a legal entity and not an individual, an individual meeting these eligibility requirements must own at least 50% of the entity. We reserve the right to extend, change or discontinue the Veterans' Incentive Program at any time.

If you are not already a member of our cooperative (or a store in a group owned or controlled by you is not already a member), you must submit three different types of signed agreements. One of these is an Ace Hardware Membership Agreement (Nonbranded). Another is the Ace Brand Agreement. The third one is the Subscription for Capital Stock Agreement, under which you subscribe for shares of our capital stock having a total par value of $5,000. Copies of these agreements are attached to this disclosure document as Exhibits A, B and C, respectively.

A separate application, Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) (Exhibit A), Ace Brand Agreement (Exhibit B) and Subscription for Capital Stock Agreement (Exhibit C), must be submitted for each location where you desire to operate an Ace store.

The price that we pay to you if we repurchase your shares of our stock is $1,000 per share par value in the case of shares of Class "A" voting stock and the greater of $100 per share par value or the price last established by our Board of Directors in the case of shares of Class "C" non-voting stock.

The assessment will be billed to each Ace billing statement in increments of $250. For subsequent years, the store's Local Lift Max Assessment tier will be based on the store's consumer internet search demand and the total dollar investment the store would be required to make to achieve a greater search presence in internet search results. If a new store opens in Q4, the store will pay zero dollars for the remainder of the calendar year and will be placed in a Local Lift Max Assessment tier the following year based on the store's consumer internet search demand and the total dollar investment the store would be required to make to achieve a greater search presence in internet search results. Your store's general liability insurance must also have a limit of no less than $2 million in the aggregate. Your store must also carry statutory workers' compensation insurance and furnish evidence of insurance that is acceptable to us. Your store must also have umbrella liability coverage of no less than $1 million. It is strongly recommended that you also maintain Employers Practice Liability (EPLI) coverage and Cyber Liability coverage. Your store's insurance must be written with a carrier with an AM Best Key Rating of at least an A- and must provide us with at least 10 days' notice of cancellation. You must provide evidence of such insurance to Ace's Corporate Risk Management Department.

- (7) The amount of the initial brand assessment for a new store activated in 2026 is a flat fee of $6,000. If the new store is activated by Ace in the first three (3) calendar year quarters, the flat fee brand assessment will be billed on the store's bi-weekly statement issued on or after the date that is sixty (60) days following the date of the new store's activation. The store's annual brand assessment in subsequent years will be calculated based upon 2% of purchases made during the prior year, subject to the minimum and maximum assessments set forth below, which will be billed annually in twenty-six (26) equal installments on the store's bi-weekly statement from February to January.

If a new store is activated in the fourth (4th) calendar quarter, the billing of the $6,000 flat fee brand assessment will be deferred until the following year. In addition, a brand assessment charge of $6,000 for the calendar year following activation will be aggregated with the flat fee brand assessment for a total assessment of $12,000, which will be billed in twenty-six (26) equal installments on its bi-weekly statement starting in February of the year following activation. Thereafter, the annual brand assessment will be calculated based upon 2% of purchases made during the prior year, subject to a minimum and maximum assessment which will be billed annually in twenty-six (26) equal installments on the store's bi-weekly statement from February to January.

The annual minimum assessment is $6,270 and the maximum assessment is $13,600. The annual brand assessment, including, without limitation, the minimum and maximum assessment, is subject to change by our Board of Directors.

- (8) Each store is assigned a Local Lift Max Assessment tier. A store's tier is based on consumer internet search demand and the total dollar investment the store would be required to make to achieve a greater search presence in internet search results. If a new Ace store or an existing non-Ace Hardware store is converted to an Ace Hardware store and is open and active on acehardware.com, in the first three (3) calendar year quarters, the store will be placed in the $6,500 tier and pay a prorated annual assessment. The assessment will be billed to each Ace billing statement in increments of $250 until the end of the calendar year. If you participate in a regional advertising group and the Matching Funds Program (as described in Item 11, Exhibit P), you are eligible to receive a credit on your Ace billing statement. For subsequent years, the store's Local Lift Max Assessment tier will be based on the store's consumer internet search demand and the total dollar investment the store would be required to make to achieve a greater search presence in internet search results. If a new store opens in Q4, the store will pay zero dollars for the remainder of the calendar year and will be placed in a Local Lift Max Assessment tier the following year based on the store's consumer internet search demand and the total dollar investment the store would be required to make to achieve a greater search presence in internet search results. If an existing Ace store, undergoes a change of ownership, the new owner will resume the monthly equal installments already established for the store. For existing stores, the minimum assessment is $4,500 and the maximum assessment is $48,100.

Any changes to your store's Local Lift Max Assessment will be communicated by October for the following year. The annual investment will be billed annually in twenty-six (26) equal installments on the store's bi-weekly statement from January to December.

- (9) If you are opening a new store that is not a branch store or a conversion, and you do not also own an existing separate business that uses a point-of-sale computer system, we require that you purchase or lease or finance your point-of-sale computer system from one of Ace's designated vendors.
- (10) If your store does not meet the Site Readiness Conditions (as defined in agreement) and no written notice has been communicated at least 35 days prior to scheduled project start date, the Retailer may be charged liquidated damages in the amount of $5,000 per calendar day of delay, commencing on the first day following the missed project start date and continuing until all Site Readiness Conditions have been met. This amount represents a reasonable estimate of the costs and losses anticipated due to idle resources, rescheduling and remobilization costs and other project inefficiencies. The parties further acknowledge that due to scheduling constraints, a missed site readiness date may require rescheduling to the next available window, which could result in the project being pushed out by several weeks or months.
If Retailer selects Professional Retail Services, Retailer shall be billed separately for those services in 26 equal payments following the initial Kick-Off call with the District Manager, Project Manager, Professional Retail Services Consultant and Retailer. These services are independent of Store Planning Services. See Note 13 below.
- (11) Local Lift is an optional program, above and beyond the Local Lift Max Assessment, that allows you to add your own local marketing budget and enroll in Google® Local paid search campaigns. Pricing will vary by market and there is an initial three-month commitment and a minimum monthly budget of $250. In addition to your advertising spend, there is a one-time set up fee of $59. There are flat rate support fees based on the number of stores you have in the campaign and a management fee based on how many overall locations are participating in the optional Ace Local Lift program.
- (12) Digital Circular Program contains an optional component that allows stores to customize the base National Advertisement for additional fees. There is a one-time setup fee of $500 for microsite; $50 per Ad setup, $4 per item changed, and $95 per hour for design fees. If you own more than one Ace store, customization costs can be shared across all stores in your group.
- (13) Retail Loss Prevention is a part of the Property/Loss Prevention Department. Participation in the programs or services or purchase of products offered is optional, most of which are offered by unaffiliated third-party vendors. Prices will vary depending upon the equipment desired or level of service requested. In-store consulting, auditing, training and investigations are available for fees beginning at $500 plus at cost expenses, with fees increasing for additional services, if any, that you request. All in-store investigations are provided by unaffiliated third-party vendors and are billed directly to you by the vendor. General consulting, auditing, training and services through the Professional Retailer Services program will be billed by us directly to your store's statement. (See Exhibit Q)

- (14) If your store participates in one of our third-party marketplace programs, the third-party shopping and delivery fee will be commission based. If your store utilizes a third-party delivery service in connection with acehardware.com purchases, fees will vary based on the selected third-party delivery service, mileage and product weight. All fees will be billed by us directly to your store's statement.
- (15) SavingSource® is group discount/purchasing program. We negotiate discount programs with unaffiliated vendors to enable you to obtain discounts on purchase of goods and services, such as technology and communications products, office and retail store supplies, professional services, facility services, and construction and capital projects. You are not required to purchase or use any of the goods or services offered. You will contract directly with the vendor for the goods and services you purchase. Most vendors will bill you directly; however, in some instances a vendor may bill you through us.
- (16) The National Account Program is a business to business ("B2B") program. This is a negotiated discount/pricing and rebate program for national account B2B customers that shop at a Member's store. The terms of the negotiated discount/pricing and rebate program offered to a B2B national account will vary by account. Members are automatically enrolled in the program but may opt out of the program in its entirety.
- (17) The Ace Handyman Services Rebate Program participation is available to Members that have not opted out of the National Account program. Participating Members fund a 10% rebate to Ace Handyman Services franchise owners on items purchased at the participating store and corresponding acehardware.com webpage. Rebates will be processed monthly in arrears and Ace will debit your store statement the appropriate rebate amount on a monthly basis.

ITEM 7

Our estimates of the ranges of initial investments in Ace stores are shown in the Tables below, do not include the purchase and development of real estate. We recommend that you review these figures with your business advisor and in light of your own investigation of the business before making any decisions. Ace stores vary widely in size, product mix and location. As illustrations, a low/high range of estimates is set forth below stores having between 3,000 - 12,000 square feet. None of the fees listed in this Item are refundable, unless otherwise provided.

Notes:

- (1) The amounts provided in the table above reflect estimated costs you will incur to develop a new Ace store (See Table 2 below and its accompanying notes in this Item 7 for the estimated initial investment to convert an existing hardware store to an Ace store.) In preparing this estimate, we have assumed that you will use our vendors for supplies, fixtures, and equipment and bill through the Ace system; and you will participate in one of the new store incentive programs that we offer to finance certain items comprising the initial investment, the terms of which are detailed in Item 10. Except for the security deposit under your lease, which is typically refundable if you comply with the lease terms, and except as provided in Notes 2 and 10, all fees and payments are non-refundable. These ranges do not include atypical upgrades to equipment or store design. The costs for rent, furniture, fixtures, interior décor, equipment, leasehold improvements and inventory and supplies will vary based on your Ace store's square footage, condition of the property, location (including geographic location and the store format (freestanding, strip mall, etc.), market conditions, financing costs, and other physical characteristics of the Ace store's location.
- (2) We describe the affiliation fee in Item 5. If we approve your membership application, this affiliation fee is non-refundable.
- (3) The initial brand assessment for new stores is billed when a new store is activated. New stores opened in the first three quarters are billed $6,000 payable in a lump sum. New stores opened in the fourth quarter are billed $12,000 payable in installments. See Item 6, of this disclosure document for additional information on the Annual Brand Assessment. You may, however, elect to spend additional amounts (i.e., in excess of the initial brand assessment) on the grand opening of your Ace store.
- (4) The Local Lift Max assessment for new stores is billed when a store opens. A store's tier is based on consumer internet search demand and the total dollar investment the store would be required to make to achieve a greater search presence in internet search results. If a new Ace store or an existing non-Ace Hardware store is converted to an Ace Hardware store and is open and active on acehardware.com, in the first three (3) calendar year quarters, the store will be placed in the $6,500 tier and pay a prorated annual assessment until the end of the calendar year. The assessment will be billed to the Ace billing statement in increments of $250. For subsequent years, the store's Local Lift Max Assessment tier will be based on the store's consumer internet search demand and the total dollar investment the store would be required to make to achieve a greater search presence in internet search results. If a new store opens in Q4, the store will pay zero dollars for the remainder of the calendar year and will be placed in a Local Lift Max Assessment tier the following year based on the store's consumer internet search demand and the total dollar investment the store would be required to make to achieve a greater search presence in internet search results. If an existing Ace store, undergoes a change of ownership, the new owner will resume the monthly equal installments already established for the store. For existing stores, the minimum assessment is $4,500 and the maximum assessment is $48,100. If you participate in a regional advertising group and the Matching Funds Program (as described in Item 11, Exhibit P), you are eligible to receive a credit on your Ace billing statement.

- (5) If you are a new Ace member, or an existing Ace member opening your first branch store, you are required to pay us in advance before we release your orders.
- (6) Some landlords may pay all or some of your tenant improvements as part of your lease negotiations. The amounts will vary depending on your Ace store's size, location (freestanding, strip mall, etc.), geographic location, and condition. You may also elect to spend additional amounts on your Ace store (i.e. upgrades to flooring, lighting, etc.) This estimate does not include construction of a new building.
- (7) The cost will vary and will be based on the size and scope of your store's project.
- (8) This estimate includes computer system with point-of-sale (Hardware/Software), telephone, in-store communications, security, and other equipment for a store ranging from 3,000 to 12,000 square feet. The amounts will vary depending primarily on your Ace store's size.
- (9) Rent amounts can vary depending upon the area in which the Ace store is located, its size, the condition of the premises, the landlord's contribution to your leasehold improvements and other factors. You probably will also have to pay the landlord a first and last months' rent deposit and possibly a lease security deposit when you sign the lease. You may choose to purchase, rather than rent, real estate on which a building suitable for the Ace store already is constructed or could be constructed. Real estate costs depend on location, size, visibility, economic conditions, accessibility and competitive market conditions. Because of the numerous variables that affect the value of a particular parcel of real estate, this initial investment table does not reflect the potential purchase cost of real estate or the costs of constructing a building suitable for the Ace store.
- (10) The above assumes Opening Inventory is purchased from Ace. See Items 8 and 10, respectively, of this disclosure document for details regarding product sourcing restrictions and our new-store incentive programs. You may also elect to purchase additional inventory direct from us or suppliers. The cost will vary based on your product choice and supplier.
- (11) Insurance purchased through Ace Insurance Agency, Inc., may be refundable on an earned basis if canceled after the effective date.
- (12) New Investor Retail Training is required if you are a new member opening your first Ace store. If you are already a member and are opening a branch store, New Investor Retail Training is not required. You will also be required to pay your own travel expenses, if any.
- (13) This estimate is for the initial working capital, or cash reserve, necessary to cover initial operating expenses of an Ace store for the first 90 days of operation. These expenses include inventory, payroll, and market expenses. These figures are estimates, and you may have additional expenses starting the business. Your costs will depend on factors such as your management skill, experience, and business acumen, the local market for your Ace store's products and services, prevailing local economic or climatic conditions which might exist at the time your store opens for business and the level of sales obtained during the first 90 days of operation. The working capital is estimated based on our experience opening new Ace stores and will vary based on the total project cost and such other factors as may be required by your lenders or recommended by your business advisors.

- (14) The total estimated investment does not include purchase and development of real estate, finance charge, interest, or debt service obligation. The availability and terms of financing depend on many factors, including the availability of financing generally, your creditworthiness and collateral; the lending policies of financial institutions from which you request a loan or if you are an existing Ace retailer, your participation in one of our loan programs (See Item 10). You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before deciding to acquire the franchise.

Notes:

- (1) The amounts provided in in the table above reflect estimated costs you will incur to convert an existing hardware business to an Ace store. In preparing this estimate, we have assumed that you will use our vendors for supplies, fixtures, and equipment and bill through the Ace system. All fees and payments are non-refundable. These ranges do not include atypical upgrades to equipment or store design. The costs for fixtures and equipment, inventory and supplies will vary based on your Ace store's square footage, condition of the property, location (including geographic location and the store format (freestanding, strip mall, etc.), market conditions, financing costs, if any, and other physical characteristics of the Ace store's location.
- (2) We describe the capital stock requirements and affiliation fee in Item 5. If we approve your membership application, the affiliation fee is waived.
- (3) The initial brand assessment for new stores is billed when a new store is activated. New stores opened in the first three quarters are billed $6,000 payable in a lump sum. New stores opened in the fourth quarter are billed $12,000 payable in installments. See Item 6, footnote 6 of this disclosure document for additional information on the Annual Brand Assessment You may, however, elect to spend additional amounts (i.e., in excess of the initial brand assessment) on the grand opening of your Ace store.
- (4) The Local Lift Max Assessment for new stores is billed when a store opens. A store's tier is based on consumer internet search demand and the total dollar investment the store would be required to make to achieve a greater search presence in internet search results. If a new Ace store or an existing non-Ace Hardware store is converted to an Ace Hardware store and is open and active on acehardware.com, in the first three (3) calendar year quarters, the store will be placed in the $6,500 tier and pay a prorated annual assessment until the end of the calendar year. $250 will be billed to each Ace billing statement for the Local Lift Max Assessment. For subsequent years, the store's Local Lift Max Assessment tier will be determined by the store's consumer internet search demand and the total dollar investment that the store would be required to make to achieve a greater search presence in internet search results. If you participate in a regional advertising group and the Matching Funds Program (as described in Item 11, Exhibit P), you are eligible to receive a credit on your Ace billing statement. See Item 6, of this disclosure document for additional information on the Local Lift Max Assessment.

- (5) This estimate includes store planning, interior décor, fixtures (consolidated) and furniture for a store ranging from 3,000 to 12,000 square feet. The amounts will vary depending primarily on your Ace store's size, location (freestanding, strip mall, etc.), geographic location, and condition and how you may choose to relay, remodel, or remerchandise your store.
- (6) This estimate includes computer system with point-of-sale (Hardware/Software) upgrades (or a new system) and other equipment for a store ranging from 3,000 to 12,000 square feet. The amounts will vary depending primarily on your Ace store's size.
- (7) This estimate will vary based on the size and scope of your project.
- (8) The above assumes Opening Inventory is purchased through Ace. See items 8 and 10, respectively, of this disclosure document for details regarding product sourcing restrictions and our store incentive programs. You may also elect to purchase additional inventory from us or suppliers. The cost will vary based on your product selections and suppliers.
- (9) Insurance purchased through Ace Insurance Agency, Inc., may be refundable on an earned basis if canceled after the effective date.
- (10) Conversion Retail Training is required if you operate a hardware store and are converting your hardware store to Ace. New Investor Retail Training will be required if you are a new member opening your first Ace store and do not currently operate a hardware store.
- (11) The total estimated investment does not include purchase of an existing business, finance charge, interest, or debt service obligation. The availability and terms of financing depend on many factors, including the availability of financing generally, your creditworthiness and collateral; the lending policies of financial institutions from which you request a loan or if you are an existing Ace retailer, your participation in one of our loan programs (See Item 10).

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Ace and its affiliates are not the only suppliers for goods and services. We do not currently approve or disapprove your outside non-Ace suppliers. Although, we maintain a list of Ace approved suppliers and service providers, there is no current obligation under the Membership Agreement (Nonbranded), the Ace Brand Agreement or otherwise for you to purchase or lease any specific goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory or real estate from any designated sources, except as follows, or as otherwise previously indicated in Items 5, 6 and 7 of this disclosure document.

The General Member Standards/ Ace Brand Standards/ Member Operational Requirements (part of Exhibit A and Exhibit B) require you to make the Company your primary source of supply by giving first and careful consideration to all merchandise lines and products offered for sale by the Company. When you sign the Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) and Ace Brand Agreement, you must adhere to our category management specifications, as required under Sections 6(a) and (b) of the Ace Brand Standards section of the General Member Standards/ Ace Brand Standards/ Member Operational Requirements, which include our minimum inventory specifications for basic hardware department merchandise. The General Member Standards/Ace Brand Standards/ Member Operational Requirements are subject to change. We are the only source for Ace private label merchandise.

Participation in the Ace Rewards (provided your technology allows) and Ace Gift Card programs require you to comply with certain program terms which we may designate from time to time. See Exhibit H and Exhibit I, respectively.

Participation in one of our incentive programs or loan programs require you to comply with certain program terms which we may designate from time to time. See Item 10 and Exhibit N.

You may make your purchases from us in one of three main ways. The first way is by ordering directly from our warehouse stock. You order at our established price, we ship the merchandise to you from our warehouse, and we add a variable handling charge of approximately 10%, unless your purchase is made under one of our special programs that we sometimes offer at a lower handling charge. We bill you for the cost of your warehouse merchandise, plus the handling charge, on your regular bi-weekly billing statement. We also charge you freight-related fees.

The second way you may purchase from us is by sending an Ace purchase order directly to a vendor. This type of order is called "drop ship" where the vendor makes the sale to us, but ships directly to you. We, in turn, pay the vendor for your drop ship orders and bill you on your regular bi-weekly billing statement for the cost of the merchandise (including freight where applicable) plus a fixed percentage handling charge based on your prior year drop ship purchase volume. The handling charge begins at 2.0 percent and declines to 0.5 percent for those retailers whose annual purchase volumes exceed $815,000. If you purchase from one of our vendors that participates in our ACENET Direct program, there is no handling charge. If the vendor has provided you with extended payment terms, the dating is passed through to the bi-weekly billing statement.

The third way you may purchase from us is on the bulletin program. Under this program, we notify you of items available for bulletin order at a specific price, but we purchase them only after we receive our members' specific advance orders for these items. On bulletin orders, we generally add a handling charge of 6% (however it could be up to 10%) unless your purchase is made under one of our special programs that we sometimes offer at a lower handling charge. We also charge you freight-related fees.

You may also purchase outside our system by ordering independently on behalf of your business from any vendor you choose and by paying that vendor directly, rather than billing the order through us. We do not have or keep records of, or derive any revenues from, these types of purchases. No officers have any interest in any supplier described in this Item 8 except nominal interests in public companies.

Although our affiliates Emery Jensen Distribution, LLC, and Ace Insurance Agency, Inc. derive revenues from purchases that our members voluntarily make from them, there are no purchases or leases that you are required to make from them. Although you are required to carry mandatory levels of business insurance as discussed in Item 6 of this disclosure document, and we require you to provide us with evidence of this insurance from companies acceptable to us, there are no formal policies, procedures or specifications by which we grant or revoke approval to these or any other suppliers.

We require that all merchandise orders be submitted to us through an electronic ordering process. We also require that you operate a point-of-sale computer system in connection with the operation of your store. If you are opening a new store that is not a branch store or a conversion, and you do not also own an existing separate business that uses a point-of-sale computer system, we require that you purchase or lease or finance your point-of-sale computer system from our designated vendors. See Item 11 for detailed information on computer hardware and software.

Because we, as a consolidated group with our affiliates, operate as a retailer-owned cooperative in the United States, the only income we derive from our members is income necessary to offset (or partially offset) our cost of providing our programs and services to them. Also, because we operate as a cooperative, all or substantially all of our net income from the sale of merchandise to our U.S. members is distributed back to them annually in the form of patronage distributions. These patronage distributions represent all or substantially all of the excess of our sales receipts from members over the aggregate of our costs of merchandise, our expenses and such reserves as are reasonably determined to be appropriate by the Board of Directors.

This distribution is made in accordance with our Patronage Distribution Plan (Exhibit E), Article VIII of our By-laws (Exhibit D), and Subchapter T of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code.

Under our current Patronage Distribution Plan (Exhibit E), forty percent (40%) of your patronage distributions are distributed in cash and the remaining sixty percent (60%) is distributed in a combination of shares of Class “C” non-voting stock and non-negotiable patronage refund certificates. The respective percentages of patronage refund certificates and stock for this sixty percent (60%) portion of your patronage distribution is determined based on whether or not you have already satisfied the stock requirement, as set forth in the Patronage Distribution Plan.

In addition, according to Article VIII of our By-Laws (Exhibit D), if there are any unpaid, outstanding amounts due from you to us, including any interest, fees and charges, we will first apply the sixty percent (60%) portion of your patronage distribution to the payment of such unpaid, outstanding amounts, and then distribute the remaining balance of your patronage distribution, if any, to you in shares of our Class “C” non-voting stock and/or non-negotiable patronage refund certificates, as described above. In addition, if you become indebted to us, we may also apply the 40% cash portion of patronage distributions to such indebtedness, unless you make a timely written request to us to the contrary (Article VIII of our By-laws (Exhibit D)).

In fiscal year 2025, Ace’s revenues from the sale of merchandise and services to our members were $8.2 billion, or 82% of our consolidated revenues of $10.0 billion. Since we have no general requirement that any specific percentage of your total purchases be made from us, and we do not receive financial data in a consistent format from all of our members, we are unable to estimate what percentage your payments to us might bear in relation to all of the purchases which you may make in the establishment or operation of your business. Except as described above, neither we nor our affiliates derive revenue or other material consideration as a result of required purchases or leases. As a retailer-owned cooperative, we endeavor to negotiate purchase arrangements (including price terms) with suppliers for the benefit of our members. We do not provide material benefits (such as granting approvals for additional Ace stores) to members based on their use of designated or approved sources.

FRANCHISEE'S OBLIGATIONS

This table lists your principal obligations under the Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) (Exhibit A), the Ace Brand Agreement (Exhibit B), and if applicable, the respective incentive agreement if you participate in one of our new store incentive programs. ITEM 11
FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEM, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

1. Pre-opening Assistance Obligations

Because you can operate your Ace store only in a location that has been approved by us, we are required to provide you with site selection criteria. (See Exhibit A, Article V, Section 10.) We are not obligated to furnish you any other pre-opening assistance.

2. Obligations During the Operation of Your Business

We have no obligation to provide assistance during the operation of your business other than:

- a. to license to you for non-exclusive use, certain service marks (Article I, Section 1 of the Ace Brand Agreement (Exhibit B));
- b. to sell to you for your Ace store, the merchandise and services that we elect to offer to our members generally (Article I, Section 4 of the Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) (Exhibit A); and Article I, Section 2 of the Ace Brand Agreement (Exhibit B));
- c. permit you to attend, upon your payment of the applicable fee, the conventions, trade shows, workshops or seminars that we might elect to offer (Article I, Section 2 of the Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) (Exhibit A)); and
- d. to pay or apply patronage dividends in accordance with our By-laws, the Patronage Distribution Plan (respectively, Exhibits D, and E) and Article I, Section 3 of the Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) (Exhibit A).

We currently offer numerous special services such as inventory control systems, price and bin ticketing, an electronic ordering system, retail computer systems, a retail pricing strategy service, store design services, retail consultation services and promotional and newspaper advertising kits; however, neither the Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) nor the Ace Brand Agreement requires us to continue to offer any of these special services.

3. Our Advertising Programs

We currently do not have a separate Advertising or Marketing Fund. You will pay an Ace Brand Assessment (See Item 6) all of which we allocate to Ace's national advertising, marketing, branding and promotional initiatives. In fiscal 2025, 100% of the Ace Brand Assessment that was allocated to advertising and marketing was used for national media placement and digital marketing. You will also pay an assessment for our digital marketing program, Local Lift Max (See Item 6). The advertising programs are determined and administered by our consumer marketing department. We do not account for the advertising budget and expenditures separately, other than within the context of the corporate financial statements. We also collect fees from our vendors, and we include those fees in advertising and marketing budgets.

We currently develop and execute advertising programs in multiple channels, including but not limited to: print, television, content marketing, digital internet media, online marketing, paid search, email, social media and direct mail. Coverage of our current advertising, depending on the program, may be local, regional or national in scope. The sources of our national advertising currently include, in addition to our in-house consumer marketing and creative services departments, RR Donnelley & Sons Company for print and logistics for preprints, direct mail and store signage, OKRP as our national advertising agency for advertising creative, Starcom for media buying and placement, Assembly for national digital placement and Location 3 for local paid search. Ace also works with agencies at a local level who specialize on certain marketing programs that are tailored for local markets.

You are permitted to use your own advertising materials subject to compliance with our policies and guidelines for the proper display of our trademarks, service marks, logos, and the like. You are not permitted to feature both your Ace store and any of your non-Ace stores in the same ad. We also expect that any advertising materials of your own that you elect to use will be clear, factual, not misleading, and conform to the highest ethical standards of marketing and promotion.

We have a Consumer Marketing Retailer Input Team which is made up of approximately 12 members. They are appointed by Ace and selected by the Corporate Vice President, Marketing. The Committee serves in an advisory capacity to help establish Ace's short and long term brand and promotional strategies. Their recommendations are not binding on us, and we make the final decision regarding advertising programs and policies. We have the power to change or dissolve the Consumer Marketing Retailer Input Team at any time.

Participation in a regional advertising group is voluntary and you may decide whether or not to participate. Retailers from time to time form regional advertising groups that work together and contribute monies to fund regional advertising programs, including television, radio (terrestrial & streaming), digital, social media and regional events. We currently support retailer advertising groups through our Matching Funds Program. The Matching Funds Program provides retailers participating in an advertising group with a credit of up to $4800 toward their Local Lift Max Assessment, which is based off the Higher Ground performance stores that participate in a group achieved during the prior year. New Ace Hardware locations joining an advertising group and participating in the Matching Funds Program are eligible to receive a pro rata credit on a quarterly basis during the first year. See 2026 Matching Funds Store Agreement (Exhibit P). Once signed up, a store is automatically renewed each year unless the Local Marketing Manager is otherwise notified. We retain the right to form, change, dissolve or merge groups of regional or local members for the purpose of advertising from time to time. Our role in regional and local advertising is to help the retailers develop optional annual advertising strategies and plans. Ace bills the participating retailers on a quarterly basis and assists in the planning, execution and reporting of the advertising campaign.

4. Required Point-of-Sale Systems

We require that all merchandise orders be submitted to us through an electronic ordering process. We also require that you operate a point-of-sale computer system in connection with the operation of your store. For example, a configuration for an 8,000 square foot store could include: 4 computer terminals; 2 Zebra Touch Computer devices; 2 EMV enabled PIN pads; 1 Report/label printer; 1 invoice printer; 2 receipt printers; and wireless network equipment. If you are opening a new store that is not a branch store or a conversion, and you do not also own an existing separate business that uses a point-of-sale computer system, we require that you purchase or lease or finance your point-of-sale computer system from one of our designated vendors. The cost will vary depending on the computer equipment selected by you. You will also incur charges for ongoing computer hardware and software maintenance services provided by third parties not affiliated with us; costs for these services will vary depending on the services selected by you.

We have the right to access and collect data from your computer system related to your store operations (See Exhibit J - Data Collection Program Agreement).

5. Operating Manuals

You are permitted to view the provisions of our non-mandatory Operating Standards Manual before purchasing a membership.

6. Site Selection

While we do not select the location for your business, we provide you with site selection criteria. You must already be operating your business or must identify a site for the proposed operation of your business before applying for membership. As a matter of practice, we may assist you in identifying potential sites and preparing for the opening of your store. We may perform market studies using available competitive and demographic information, prior to our decision whether or not to approve a membership application. Neither the Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) nor the Ace Brand Agreement, however, requires us to offer any of these services (other than providing you with site selection criteria).

7. Time Period For Opening the Business

We estimate the time from the date you sign the Membership Agreement and Brand Agreement to the date you open your Ace store is 20 to 180 days. Some factors which may affect this time period include: a) our prompt receipt from you and others of any necessary credit or financial information; and b) whether you are applying to convert an ongoing business, or you are opening a new business. In the latter case, there may be additional factors such as: 1) your ability to acquire real estate, if applicable; 2) your ability to obtain a lease, if applicable; 3) your ability to obtain any necessary financing, building permits, or business licenses; 4) possible construction delays; 5) weather conditions; 6) any delays in the installation of equipment or fixtures; and 7) the requirements of any applicable zoning or other local ordinances. There may be other factors applicable to your particular situation and that of others.

8. Our Training Programs

We are not contractually obligated under the Membership Agreement to provide training programs. Below is a summary of our current training programs, all of which are subject to enhancement, revision, deletion and/or replacement based on curriculum revisions and other factors determined by us.

TERRITORY

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other member stores, from stores that our affiliates own, competitive brands, and/or from other channels of distribution (for example, the internet and mail order houses). We make sales directly to consumers on our website and mobile app. We allocate online and mobile sales to member stores based on the store that the consumer selects for the purchase. Your membership is granted for the specific location of your store as stated in your Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) and Ace Brand Agreement. The relocation of your store or the establishment by you of additional Ace store(s) requires our specific approval. Our general policy is to grant as many memberships in a given market area as we deem necessary in order for the area to be adequately served by our program.

In Ace's sole discretion, we may offer memberships whereby a member can receive the benefits of being a member but cannot hold himself or herself out as an Ace store. Under this arrangement, the person signs only the Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) and is not granted a license to use the Ace marks. Such a member can purchase and sell Ace merchandise, including Ace private label merchandise. However, such a member's location is not a franchise, and the member cannot identify or promote his or her retail business as an Ace store.

TRADEMARKS

We are the owner of numerous trademarks and service marks which are currently registered on the Principal Register in the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Most of these marks are for our own products or services and are not licensed to you under the Ace Brand Agreement (Exhibit B). The principal registered marks that are currently being licensed under the Ace Brand Agreement are set forth below.

We have no obligation to maintain the registrations of these marks and we may, in our sole discretion, determine the marks that are to be licensed to you under the terms of your Ace Brand Agreement. The following marks are some of our service marks that are federally registered on the Principal Register for retail store services in the field of hardware and related goods. All required affidavits have been filed for these marks.

REGISTERED MARKS LICENSED UNDER THE ACE BRAND AGREEMENT ON A FORMAT-SPECIFIC BASIS

DESCRIPTION OF MARK	DATE OF REGISTRATION	REGISTRATION NUMBER	EXPIRATION DATE
Name "ACE" in stylized lettering design	November 3, 1987	1,464,025	November 3, 2027
Name "ACE Hardware" in stylized lettering design	April 26, 1988	1,486,528	April 26, 2028

There are no currently effective material determinations of the Patent and Trademark Office, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the Trademark Administrator or any Court in this State involving the marks identified above, nor are there any pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceedings involving them.

There are no agreements currently in effect that significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of any of the above-mentioned trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes or other commercial symbols in any manner material to membership.

We are not obligated by the Ace Brand Agreement or otherwise to protect any of our trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes or commercial symbols. If at any time it becomes advisable in our sole discretion to modify or discontinue the use of any name or mark and/or use one or more additional or substitute marks, you are obligated to do so, and we do not have any obligation to reimburse or compensate you in connection with these changes or discontinuations.

Under the Ace Brand Agreement, you may not adopt or use, without our prior written consent, any word or mark which is likely to be similar or confusing to any of our trademarks or service marks. All variations or adaptations of our trademarks and service marks are our exclusive property and we have the exclusive right to register and license them. Under the Ace Brand Agreement, you agree that with respect to any marks that we may license to you, you will refrain from using such mark(s) as part of your corporate name, your registered trade or commercial name or internet domain name or user identification name or the name of your Ace store unless the name also includes another word or words clearly distinguishing it from our corporate or trade name or names and those of any of our subsidiaries, divisions or other members. You also agree under the Ace Brand Agreement that you do not now, and will not in the future, assert any claims to goodwill or ownership of any of our trademarks, service marks or other intellectual property, including, but not limited to, the marks we specifically license to you. You also agree that you will not engage in any acts or conduct contrary to our ownership rights to these marks and property. For information concerning your obligations concerning our marks upon the termination of your membership, see Item 17 of this disclosure document.

We are not obligated to protect your right to use our trademarks. We have the sole discretion to decide whether these marks will be registered or continue to be registered. We also have the sole discretion to decide what action, if any, should be taken against someone who may be infringing our marks. You have no contractual obligation under the Ace Brand Agreement to specifically notify us of trademark infringements. You do, however, have the obligation under the Ace Brand Agreement not to authorize, permit or condone an infringing use of our marks by another person or firm. As a matter of practice, our members notify us by telephone, in writing or by any other convenient means when they become aware of the possible infringement of our marks, so that we may investigate these situations. The Ace Brand Agreement does not require us to take any affirmative action when we are notified of uses or claims of rights to a mark that is identical or confusingly similar to the marks we license to you. You are obligated to fully cooperate with us in our efforts to maintain and defend our ownership and the validity of our marks against infringement and claims of infringement.

We do not know of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use in this state of the marks discussed above.

PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

There are no patents or registered copyrights owned by the Company that are material to the franchise; however, the Company claims copyrights on materials it creates and provides to its members.

We are not required to take affirmative action to protect or defend your rights to use our copyrights when notified of a possible infringement, although we intend to do so if we deem appropriate. We may control any action we choose to bring, even if you bring the matter to our attention. We need not participate in your defense and/or indemnify you for damage or expenses in a proceeding involving a copyright.

The General Member Standards/Ace Brand Standards/ Member Operational Requirements (part of Exhibit A and Exhibit B) and other materials contain our confidential information (some of which constitutes trade secrets under applicable law). This information includes training and operations materials; methods, formats, specifications, standards, systems, procedures, sales and marketing techniques, knowledge, and experience used in developing and operating Ace stores; knowledge of specifications for and suppliers of products, services and supplies for use in Ace stores; catalogs, price lists and order forms; and graphic designs and related intellectual property.

You may not use our confidential information in an unauthorized manner. Under Article II, Section 4 of your Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) (Exhibit A), you agree to comply with all policy statements and instructions that we may issue regarding our confidential information. You also agree to keep our confidential information in strict confidence, and to return such confidential materials to us if your membership terminates.

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

Although not addressed by the Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) or the Ace Brand Agreement (respectively, Exhibits A and B), it is our general policy not to grant a membership unless the owner or one of the principal owners of the business participates personally and directly in its operation.

Ace does not currently place any restrictions or limitations on whom you may hire as managers, supervisors or other personnel to run your business.

You may be a business entity or an individual sole proprietor. We have no requirement that any on-premises supervisors of yours have any equity interest in your business entity.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in this Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

Upon our request, members are required to furnish their stores' financial results to us. In addition, members may participate in the Retail Financial Report (RFR) which is prepared by Profit Planning Group, Inc., (PPG) of Boulder, Colorado. The data submitted to PPG, by our members, is the basis of this financial performance representation. The financial performance representation does not include data from Ace stores operated by our subsidiaries Westlake or GLA.

The 2024 RFR prepared by PPG used single store operations data voluntarily supplied by 478 participating Ace branded stores (“Reporting Stores”). The Reporting Stores represent 9.78% of total domestic Ace branded member stores operating as of December 31, 2024. All of the Reporting Stores had been open at least one (1) full year. The average number of years each Reporting Store had been operated, as of the end of 2024, was approximately 16.4 years, ranging from 1 to 93 years and the median was 11 years. As of December 31, 2025, all of the Reporting Stores are still operating; but 2 stores underwent a change in ownership in 2025. Summary data used in preparing the RFR is available to prospective members upon reasonable request.

The Reporting Stores are classified into the following retail formats: Hardware Stores (Express, Convenience, Core and Super) and Home Centers. Hardware Stores cater to Do-It-Yourself consumers, focusing on repair, replacement, and small projects. Hardware Stores (438 Reporting) are further separated into four different categories by hardware square footage. Home Centers serve the small contractor as well as the Do-It-Yourself consumer, carrying basic hardware plus expanded millwork, windows and doors, lumber and building materials, and kitchen and bath lines.

Of the Reporting Stores, 7 (1.6%) are in the Express Hardware Format, stores with a retail selling space up to 3,500 square feet. The median annual sales volume of the Reporting stores in the Express Hardware Format is $1,662,449. The average annual sales volume of the Reporting Stores in the Express Hardware Supply Format was $2,117,668. The highest and lowest sales results for the Reporting Stores were $4,974,431 and $624,882. The average number of years these stores have been operating is 16 years and the median is 15 years.

Of the Reporting Stores, 50 stores (10.4%) are in the Convenience Hardware Format, stores with a retail selling space up to 6,000 square feet. The median annual sales volume of the Reporting Stores in the Convenience Hardware Format was $1,906,064. The average annual sales volume of the Reporting Stores in the Convenience Hardware Format was $2,935,511. The highest and lowest sales results for the Reporting Stores in the Convenience Hardware Format were $16,267,675 and $625,686. The average number of years these stores have been operating is 16.8 years and the median is 10 years.

Of the Reporting Stores, 231 stores (48.32%) are in the Core Hardware Format, stores with a retail selling space of 6,001 to 12,000 square feet. The median annual sales volume of the Reporting Stores in the Core Hardware Format is $2,676,961. The average annual sales volume of the Reporting Stores in the Core Hardware Format was $3,061,641. The highest and lowest sales results for the Reporting Stores were $30,208,380 and $825,008. The average number of years these stores have been operating is 9 years and the median is 11 years.

Of the Reporting Stores, 150 (31.4%) are in the Super Hardware Format, stores with a retail selling space of more than 12,001 square feet. The median annual sales volume of the Reporting Stores in Super Hardware Format is $4,210,921. The average annual sales volume of the Reporting Stores in the Super Hardware Format was $5,521,303. The highest and lowest sales results for the Reporting Stores were $21,312,947 and $771,798. The average number of years these stores have been operating is 16.3 years and the median is 12.5 years.

Of the Reporting Stores, 33 (6.9%) are in the Home Center Format. The median annual sales volume of the Reporting stores in the Home Center Format is $8,487,057. The average annual sales volume of the Reporting Stores in the Home Center Format was $10,756,255. The highest and lowest sales results for the Reporting Stores were $56,075,516 and $1,917,753. The average number of years these stores have been operating is 33.3 years and the median is 39 years.

When reviewing the financial performance representation, please remember that Reporting Stores within the hardware format contain diverse types of outlets. Individual retailer operating and financial performance is dependent on the following factors, among others:

- Type of store/outlet - Financial performance for these varying types of businesses is significantly different, with different cost structures. Performance can also vary significantly within type.
- Location - In the current retail environment, the location of the store in relation to the target market is a critical decision and factor in retail success. Although we often assist the member or prospective member in market and demographic studies for both new businesses and expansion plans, the final decision rests with the member.
- Management abilities of the owner - Since all stores are independently owned, this is one of the most important factors. Ownership and management of a retail store is difficult and demanding. Store hours, depending on location, can cover up to 80 hours per week. You select both management and hourly employees for your store. Although training programs currently are offered by us, we are not required to provide any training; all store training is controlled by you. We believe that owner-operators are more successful than absentee owners.
- Capitalization - Initial capitalization is of the utmost importance in opening a new store. Retailers must expect to operate unprofitably for a period of time and have adequate capital to fund the project until acceptable results are obtained. Adequate inventory levels must be maintained to support sales. Adequate capital in the business continues to be important to be competitive within local economic and competitive conditions and to fund growth of the business or store expansions and remodeling.
- Local/regional economy and competition - Every marketplace is different and changing. Although we assist retailers with market analysis, conditions may change within a very short period of time. Competition from mass merchandisers, online retailers and discount chains has also increased and intensified, with a few competitors having very aggressive, and unpredictable, expansion plans. Members in all markets, large and small, must be prepared for changing economic conditions and increased competition, both through aggressive retail programs, quality management and adequate capitalization.

You are responsible for developing your own business plan for your store, including budgets for investments in inventory, leasehold improvements and fixtures and equipment, forecasts of sales and operating expenses and other elements appropriate to your particular circumstances. Prospective members generally utilize industry data and knowledge about the actual proposed location and market to prepare a detailed business plan, sales forecast, and proforma financial statement tailored for the specific operation. The prospective member's sales forecast is often done at various ranges of performance whereas his or her proforma financial statement is based on his or her single best estimate. While our field personnel may assist, you will work cooperatively with them to review and validate all assumptions underlying your prospective members with their business plans, sales forecasts and/or proforma financial statements, the prospective member is responsible for the soundness of all assumptions contained in all such plans, forecasts and proformas. Consult with your own financial, business and legal advisors, to forecast sales, estimate expenses and prepare budgets for your store.

Some Ace stores have sold and earned these amounts. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you'll sell or earn as much.

Other than the preceding, we do not make any financial performance representations about a franchisee's future financial performance, or the past financial performance of company owned or franchised outlets. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing.

WITNESSETH:

In consideration of the respective undertakings and covenants herein contained, the Company and the Member hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
MEMBER RIGHTS

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the parties have reached the following agreements as to the rights hereby granted by the Company to the Member:

1. No License. The parties mutually understand and agree that the Member is NOT being granted any license to use the word "ACE," "ACE Hardware" or any other registered or unregistered trademarks, service marks, logos, or commercial symbols owned by the Company (hereinafter individually and collectively referred to as the "Marks") to identify or promote the retail business operated by the Member at the member location, and that the Member shall, at all times refrain from using such Marks and from adopting any confusingly similar identification or marks unless and until the Member enters into a separate written Ace Brand Agreement with the Company. The parties further understand and agree that any and all separate Ace Brand Agreements are offered and accepted in the Company's sole and exclusive discretion and that the Member has no rights, expressed or implied, a) to use the Company's Marks apart from a duly executed Ace Brand Agreement or b) to have an Ace Brand Agreement offered or accepted by the Company.
2. Trade Shows and Workshops. The Company grants the Member the right, upon payment of such fees and charges as the Company shall reasonably require from time to time, to attend such Conventions, Trade Shows, workshops and seminars, if any, as may be sponsored by the Company for similarly situated members operating in the same format as the Member hereunder.
3. Patronage Dividends. The Member has the right to receive from the Company within 8 ½ months following the close of each year the proportionate share allocable to the member location of the patronage dividends distributed by the Company out of its net earnings from operations conducted by it (or from the operations of each separate division or category of sales as shall be established on the Company's books) with or for patrons to whom the Company is obligated to pay patronage dividends on qualifying purchases made from it in accordance with and in the manner provided for by the then effective applicable provisions of the Company's By-laws and any applicable patronage dividend distribution plan.
4. Services, Products and Programs. The Member has right to purchase such merchandise and to subscribe to such services or programs, if any, in connection with the business operated at the member location, as the Company may, from time to time, in its sole and exclusive discretion offer for sale to the Member, which shall in the case of products other than retail store equipment and supplies, be offered for resale by the Member at retail from the member location. Such merchandise may, in the Company's sole and exclusive discretion, include or exclude such items, if any, as the Company may choose to offer or distribute a) to members operating under other formats or agreements or b) under private labels bearing the trademarks "ACE," "ACE Hardware" or other trademarks owned by the Company, provided that no sale to the Member of such private label merchandise shall establish any ongoing rights on the part of the Member to continue to purchase such private label merchandise in the future unless a duly executed and effective Ace Brand Agreement has been entered into by the parties and such agreement or the brand standards promulgated thereunder provide otherwise. Nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent the Member from truthfully advertising any genuine merchandise, provided that the Member's action in doing so does not violate the trademark or intellectual property rights of the Company or others, or the then-current General Member Standards that govern the Member hereunder.

The Member agrees:

- (d) which arise out of the Member's execution and delivery of this Agreement, or the performance of any of its obligations to the Company hereunder, or under any other agreement with the Company, or any liabilities arising in connection with site selection services or training provided by the Company; or
- (e) which arise out of any transfer of interest by the Member herein, or the Member's interest in any other agreement with the Company, or the Member's membership in the Company, the member location, or some or all of the assets of its business in any manner not in accordance with the provisions hereof or the provisions of any other applicable agreement with the Company, or the Company's By-laws; or
- (f) which arise out of the Company's collection of any past due balances owing by the Member for the purchase of merchandise or services from the Company or any sums of money otherwise due and owing to the Company by the Member hereunder or under any other agreement with the Company; or
- (g) which arise out of the Company's obtaining relief from the automatic stay provisions of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code or otherwise protecting any secured or unsecured interest of the Company in any property of the Member in the event that the Member becomes the subject of proceedings under said Code; and
- (h) which arise out of or relate to the Member's operation of the member location or the acts or omissions of the Member or any of its agents, employees, servants, or contractors in connection with the sale of products or rendering of services by the Member, and for all claims for damage to property or for injury or death of any persons directly or indirectly resulting therefrom.

7. Service Charges and Fees. To pay to the Company all sums due on a timely basis including but not limited to such service charges and fees as may, from time to time, be imposed by, or as authorized by the Company's Board of Directors. This includes, but is not limited to the obligation:
- (a) To pay to the Company in accordance with the Low Volume Service Charge Program established by the Company's Board of Directors, as modified from time to time, a special service charge when the Member's qualifying purchases during any calendar year are below the minimum established in the Program. Minimum purchase level requirements applicable to Members may be changed from time to time upon advance notice to the Member by the Company. Notwithstanding the payment of any low volume service charges by the Member under the program as aforesaid, the Member understands and agrees that the failure to meet the Company's minimum purchase level requirements constitutes cause for termination pursuant to Article III, Paragraph 1 hereof. The Member understands that the Board of Directors of the Company reserves the right to change minimum purchase level requirements from time to time, and in the event that there may be different levels of low volume service charges or minimum purchase requirements imposed for members operating in different formats; and
 - (b) To pay all amounts shown as currently due on the Company's billing statements for purchases of merchandise, supplies and services made by the Member and other sums incurred by the Member with such promptness as shall enable the Company to receive payment no later than the 10th day following the date of the statement (it being understood that all invoices for merchandise purchased on extended payment terms become currently due when other items billed are not paid when due), and to pay such service charge per bi-weekly billing statement on any past due balance as the Company regularly imposes upon its members (it being acknowledged by the Member that, unless the Member has been or is hereafter informed by the Company in writing of a change which has been or is to be made in the percentage applied by it in determining such charge, such percentage shall be .77% of the past due balance shown on each statement except that the percentage applied to any business operated by the Member in Texas shall be .384% and to any business operated by the Member in Georgia shall be .692%) unless and until such time as notice of change is given to the Member as aforesaid; and
 - (c) to timely pay such other sums, as are required by such of the Company's programs, if any, that are then applicable to the Member or that are required under the Company's then current General Member Standards or that arise under any other standards of the Company that are applicable to the Member hereunder or under any other agreements between the Member and the Company.

The foregoing obligation shall not be construed to prohibit the Member from a) joining any association of Members or retailers, b) making any private or confidential reports to any officer, director, manager or employee of the Company, c) making any truthful statements or extending other cooperation to courts, government agencies or officials, banks or bankers, attorneys, accountants or other business advisors, or d) making any other communication the prohibition of which would violate applicable law. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement.
11. Inspections. To keep accurate books of account and records covering all transactions made from the member location while this Agreement is in effect, and to permit the Company and its duly authorized representatives as of the effective date of this Agreement and for a period of two years after its termination, however caused, to photograph the interior and exterior of the member location and to examine, copy and make extracts from said books of account and records as well as all from other documents and material in the possession or under the control of the Member with respect to the business conducted by the Member under this Agreement. Member agrees to undertake such actions as may be required to ensure that the Company has free and full access to such books, records, documents and materials and to the member location for the inspections permitted hereunder, and Company agrees to exercise any rights granted in this paragraph in a reasonable manner which shall, in the case of premises occupied by an ongoing business mean during normal business hours, and in such manner as not to interfere with the conduct of the business. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement to the extent specifically provided herein with respect to the duration of inspection rights.
12. General Member Standards. To comply with all the provisions of the General Member Standards of the Company now in force or as hereafter amended or adopted by the Company by the action of the Board of Directors or as otherwise authorized by the Board of Directors. Subject to the foregoing, the Company hereby unilaterally, without limitation, reserves the sole and exclusive right and discretion to amend, modify and change the General Member Standards under any conditions and to any extent which the Company may deem necessary or desirable. ARTICLE III TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

1. Termination By Either Party Upon Advance Written Notice. This Agreement may be terminated with or without cause at any time by either the Member or the Company by giving written notice of such intention to terminate to the other party. As used herein, "cause" means a breach by Member of any material obligation of this Agreement or the General Member Standards now in force or hereafter amended or adopted by the Company. It is further understood that (i) any misrepresentations made by Member in connection with the obtaining of rights granted hereunder or (ii) the failure by the Member to meet the annual minimum purchase levels established by the Company from time to time or (iii) any conduct by the Member or its officers, partners, owners or executives that results in publicity to the trade or to the public that adversely reflects upon the Member, the Company or their respective business operations or the Marks or (iv) any other cause for termination that is expressly permitted under law shall each constitute cause for termination of the Agreement by the Company. Any such notice shall be given not less than thirty (30) days in advance of the termination date set forth in the notice, with the exception of notices given by the Company under Article III, Paragraph 2 hereof for account delinquency.
2. Termination By Company for Account Delinquency. Upon three (3) days advance written notice to the Member, the Company may terminate this Agreement in the event of a delinquency on the part of the Member in making payment for merchandise or services supplied by the Company to the member location or which the Company has billed to the Member as a result of purchases that the Member originally billed through the Company, or for other payments, fees or charges, if any, of a like or different nature that are properly due and owing from the Member to the Company in time for receipt thereof by the Company not more than fifteen (15) days after the date on which such payment is due.
3. Automatic Termination Upon Closing Down of Member's Business or Member's Insolvency. The closing down of the business operated at the member location shall automatically cause this Agreement to be terminated unless such business is moved to another location to which the Company consents in accordance with the provisions of the Company's By-laws. This Agreement shall also automatically terminate upon the giving of written notice by the Company to the Member at any time after the Member becomes insolvent or admits the inability to pay its debts as they become due, or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors.
4. Termination Upon Member's Transfer of Capital Stock of the Company. Unless the Company shall expressly consent to the continuation of this Agreement after such time, this Agreement shall automatically be deemed to have terminated as of the time when any of the shares of capital stock of the Company issued to the Member with respect to the Member's business at the member location are transferred (with the Company's consent) to another eligible holder for said shares or are purchased back from the Member by the Company.
5. Termination Upon Death Unless Company Approves Continuation. If the business operated at the member location is owned by an individual sole proprietor, this Agreement shall automatically terminate upon the death of such individual. If such business is owned by a partnership, this Agreement shall automatically terminate upon the death of a general partner in such partnership. However, with the Company's approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), such business may continue to be operated under this Agreement by the estate of such deceased individual sole proprietor or by the person(s) to whom ownership of said business is to be distributed by such deceased individual's estate or by the person(s) or partnership succeeding to the interest of such deceased member of a partnership owning the business.
6. Termination Upon Transfer of Stock of Member's Corporation. If the business operated at the member location is owned by a corporation, this Agreement shall automatically terminate upon the consummation of any sale or transfer of all of the shares of capital stock (both voting and non-voting) of such corporation held by the holder or holders of 50% or more of its outstanding voting stock or upon the sale or transfer of all of the shares of capital stock (both voting and non-voting) of a corporation owning 80% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation owning said business held by the holder or holders of 50% or more of the outstanding voting stock of that corporation unless such sale or transfer of shares did not result in a repurchase by the Company of the shares of capital stock of the Company theretofore issued by it to the corporation owning the business operated at the member location.

7. Advertising Former Relationship to Company. Upon the termination of this Agreement, the Member agrees to make no reference to the Member's former relationship with the Company in the advertising or promotion of the Member's business at the member location or in the advertising or promotion of any other business whether or not such business is owned in whole or in part by the Member. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV ADDITIONAL MODIFICATION OF TERMS

1. Reservation By The Company Of The Right To Modify. The Member acknowledges and agrees that Article XV, Section 15.6 of the Company's By-laws provides that the By-laws, as amended from time to time, constitute a binding legal contract between the Company and its shareholders, and are legally binding on all shareholders and their successors, heirs, executors, administrators, assigns and personal representatives. The Member further acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement is modifiable by amendment of the Company's By-laws and otherwise by action of the Company's shareholders or its Board of Directors, in each case unilaterally, without limitation, and without the consent of the Member. The Member further acknowledges and agrees that the Company may modify the General Member Standards unilaterally hereunder.
2. Modifications To Comply With Amendments to Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws. If any provision of any amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company or any provision of any amendment to the By-laws of the Company which is duly adopted subsequent to the Member's execution of this Agreement is in any way inconsistent with or in conflict with any provision of this Agreement, then the Agreement shall be deemed to have been modified effective as of the date specified in an advance written notice given by the Company to the Member in order to place the Agreement in conformity with such amendment. The Member's act of continuing to do business with the Company after the effective date of such modification shall be deemed to constitute the Member's consent to be bound by such modification.
3. Status of Prior Membership Agreements. If the Member has previously entered into a membership agreement with the Company for a business owned or controlled by the Member at the member location, then, as of the date of acceptance of this Agreement by the Company for the same location, the parties agree that the previous membership agreement for the member location shall be automatically superceded and replaced in its entirety by this Agreement. If the Member has previously entered into a membership agreement with the Company for a business owned or controlled by the Member at a location other than the member location, then the parties agree that such membership agreement for such other location shall be unaffected by this Agreement. The parties further agree that no automatic modification of this Agreement shall be deemed to occur as a result of any future grant of membership for a business owned or controlled by the Member at a location other than the member location designated herein. The applicable provisions of the Company's By-laws shall govern all determinations as to whether any such other retail business is owned or controlled by the Member.

ARTICLE V MISCELLANEOUS

1. Effective Date; Application of Illinois Law; Partial Illegality Not To Void Rest of Agreement. The signing of this Agreement by the Member constitutes an application only, and the Agreement shall not be effective unless and until it has been duly accepted and countersigned by the Company at its principal office in Illinois. All orders for merchandise, supplies and services placed by the Member pursuant to this Agreement shall be transmitted to the Company at said office, and the Member hereby consents and agrees that:

(a) all provisions of this Agreement shall be interpreted and construed in accordance with the laws of Illinois, except that such state's choice of law and conflicts of law rules shall not apply; and

(b) if any provision of this Agreement shall be held to be illegal or void, the validity or the legality of the remaining portion hereof shall not be affected thereby.

2. Successor and Assigns. Neither this Agreement nor any interest of the Member herein shall be pledged, mortgaged, hypothecated, or subject to transfer, assignment or encumbrance by the Member except in strict accordance with the Company's By-laws, and a purchaser of or successor to the business operated by the Member at the member location shall be entitled to operate such business as a member of the Company only if qualified and permitted under the Company's By-laws, and if such purchaser or successor has agreed to be bound to, and the Company has accepted in writing any applicable Company-approved form of membership agreement for that purpose. The Company expressly reserves the right to assign this Agreement and all of its rights and privileges to any other person, firm or corporation, and this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of any such transferee or other legal successor to the interest of the Company herein.
3. Minimum Cash Portion of Patronage Dividend Distributions. The cash portion of the patronage dividends distributed each year to the Member by the Company shall not be less than 20%, but the entire undistributed patronage dividends accrued for the member location at the time of termination of this Agreement shall nevertheless be applied against any indebtedness then owing to the Company by the Member to the extent of such indebtedness unless the Member submits a timely request to the Company for payment of 20% of such patronage dividends in cash.
4. Company's Right To Deny or Limit Member's Credit and Merchandise Orders. If the Company at any time reasonably believes that the financial condition of the Member may not be capable of supporting the continued extension of normal credit to the Member by the Company, the Company may limit or deny the extension of credit to the Member and/or may limit the Member's orders to those which are to be filled from the Company's warehouse inventories and may otherwise limit the quantities of merchandise which the Member may purchase, or the manner or terms of payment which shall be applicable to such orders.
5. Status of Agreement With Respect to Other Documents. This Agreement shall be deemed to constitute the "franchise or membership agreement" utilized by the Company in any reference to such term contained in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, its By-laws or in any document affecting the relationship between the Company and its members. The term "member location" as used in this Agreement shall also be deemed to constitute the "licensed location" in any reference to the latter term that may be contained in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, its By-laws or in any document or instrument affecting the relationship between the Company and its members, and the parties further understand and agree that no license to use any of the Company's Marks is thereby granted or implied.
6. Manner of Giving Notices. All notices required or permitted to be given hereunder by one party to the other party shall be effective if personally delivered, sent by expedited delivery service or mailed to the other party by registered or certified mail at the address of such other party set forth herein or at such other address as such party shall have specified in writing, and shall be deemed to have been given on the date of such personal delivery or on the date of deposit in the U.S. mails, as the case may be.
7. Independent Relationship. The relationship between the Company and the Member established by this Agreement shall at all times and for all purposes be deemed to be one between separate and totally independent parties. Neither the Member nor any employee of the Member shall be deemed to be an employee of the Company. No legally recognized partnership, agency or similar relationship is hereby created in any respect. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, it is mutually understood and agreed that the Member will control and be solely responsible for the day-to-day operation of the member location, and any and all policies affecting the Member's soliciting, hiring, firing, disciplining, paying, scheduling and managing of the Member's employees, the financial management of the Member's business, and the Member's compliance with applicable governmental laws and regulations are to be established solely by the Member. However, the Member shall not thereby be relieved from satisfying any of its obligations hereunder, or under applicable laws or regulations. It is further understood and agreed by the parties hereto that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them. The Member shall identify itself in all dealings as the independent owner of its business.

8. Waiver of Rights. No waiver by the Company of any obligation of the Member or restriction on the Member pursuant to the terms and conditions hereof shall be effective unless in writing and signed by an officer of the Company. Any such waiver granted by the Company shall be without prejudice to any of the Company's rights hereunder, will be subject to continuing review by the Company and may be effectively revoked upon written notice thereof to the Member upon the terms and conditions set forth therein, if applicable or otherwise. Neither party shall be deemed to have waived or impaired any of its rights hereunder, (including, without limitation, the right to demand exact compliance with every term, condition and provision herein, or to declare any breach thereof to be a default and to terminate this Agreement) by reason of any verbal agreement between the parties or by virtue of any custom, practice or actions of the parties at variance with the terms hereof, or by reason of any failure, refusal, or omission by either party in exercising any of its rights hereunder or in failing to insist on strict compliance herewith by the other party. No waiver, forbearance, delay, failure or omission by the Company in the exercise of any of its rights or powers with respect to any other member, shareholder, dealer, or any other person shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of any of the Company's rights hereunder, nor shall any acceptance of payments by the Company from the Member be deemed a waiver by the Company of any preceding breach by the Member of its obligations under this Agreement.
9. Reservation of Company's Right To Approve Additional Membership Locations. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to grant the Member an exclusive territory or exclusive rights, or to limit, deny, or otherwise restrict the Company's right to enter into agreements for the licensing of its marks or for the acceptance of other members or dealers or for the authorization of others to own or operate retail or other outlets which offer products or services similar to those of the Member at any locations and within any proximity to the Member's member location as the Company, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive discretion, shall determine.
10. Site Approval or Acceptance. The Member hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Company's approval or acceptance of a site for the Member's store does not constitute an assurance, representation or warranty of any kind, express or implied, as to the suitability of the member location for such store or the successful operation or profitability of the store hereunder. The Company's approval or acceptance of any site, including the member location, indicates only that the Company believes that such site falls within acceptable minimum criteria established by the Company solely for the Company's own purposes and benefit at the time of the Company's approval or acceptance thereof. The parties acknowledge that application of criteria that have been effective with respect to other sites and premises may not be predictive of potential for the member location and that demographic and/or economic factors, such as competition from other similar businesses, included in or excluded from the Company's own criteria could change, thereby altering the potential thereof. The parties acknowledge that such factors are unpredictable and are beyond the Company's control, and the Member agrees that the Company shall not be responsible for the failure of any site approved or accepted by the Company to meet the Member's expectations as to revenue or operational criteria, or otherwise. The Member also represents and warrants that its acceptance of a membership for the operation of a retail store at the member location is based on its own independent investigation of the suitability of the site for such purpose.
11. Further Representations of Member. As an inducement to the Company to enter into this Agreement, the Member further represents and warrants as follows: a) that the Member has conducted an independent investigation of the business contemplated by this Agreement, and recognizes that the nature of the business or its market area are subject to change over time, that the Member's investment involves business risks; b) that no representations have been made by the Company or by any of its officers, directors, employees or agents that are contrary to the terms contained in this Agreement, or contrary to any statements contained in any disclosure document heretofore delivered to the Member; and c) the Member has not received or relied upon any guarantee, whether express or implied, of the sales, revenues, profits or success of the business venture contemplated by this Agreement.

12. Arbitration of Disputes. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to: a) this Agreement or any other agreement between Company and the Member (and/or Member's owners, guarantors or affiliates); or b) the relationship between Company and Member (and/or Member's owners, guarantors or affiliates), shall be settled by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its then current commercial arbitration rules, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The costs of arbitration will be borne equally by the parties. The parties agree that Chicago, Illinois shall be the location of all hearings held under this Article V, Section 12, and that such hearings shall be held before a single arbitrator, not a panel. The arbitrator has the right to award any relief it deems proper, including, without limitation, money damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from the due date), specific performance, injunctive relief, and attorneys fees and costs, provided that the arbitrator may not: (i) declare any trademark owned by the Company generic or otherwise invalid; or (ii) award any punitive or exemplary damages against either party (the parties hereby waiving to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claim or right to punitive or exemplary damages against the other). The parties agree that any proceeding will be conducted on an individual, not a class-wide basis, and any proceeding between Company and Member may not be consolidated with another proceeding between Company and any other entity or person. Any disputes concerning the enforceability or scope of this arbitration clause shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.) and not by any state arbitration law. The parties agree to be bound by the provisions of any limitation on the period of time in which claims must be brought under applicable law or this Agreement, whichever expires earlier. The parties further agree that, in any arbitration proceeding, each must submit or file any claim which would constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates, and any claim which is not submitted or filed as required is forever barred. Notwithstanding anything in this Section to the contrary, the parties each have the right in a proper case to seek temporary restraining orders and temporary or permanent injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction.

1. License. A nonexclusive, nontransferable, nonassignable license to use, in a manner designated or approved by the Company, the Service Mark "ACE" and/or certain marks, presently "ACE Hardware" and such other marks as the Company may from time to time designate or approve in writing (hereinafter individually and collectively referred to as the "Marks") to identify and promote the retail business operated by the Member at the member location, and in connection therewith to display such ACE identification signs at such location as shall comply with the standards prescribed by the Company. Member agrees that its use of the Marks will be in strict compliance with the terms and conditions hereof and with all policies, instructions, guidelines and standards of the Company as the same are presently in effect, or as they may be modified from time to time hereafter in the Company's sole and exclusive discretion. If it becomes advisable at any time in Company's sole judgment for the Member to modify or discontinue use of any of the Marks or for the Member to use one or more additional or substitute trademarks or service marks or an additional or substitute type of trade dress, or both, then the Member agrees to immediately comply with Company's directions to modify or otherwise discontinue the use of such Marks, or to use one or more additional or substitute trademarks, service marks, logos or commercial symbols or additional or substitute trade dress, as the case may be, after notice thereof by Company. Company shall not have any obligation to reimburse the Member for any expenditures made by the Member to modify or discontinue the use of any of the Marks or to adopt additional marks or substitutes for any discontinued Marks, or trade dress, including, without limitation, any expenditures relating to advertising or promotional materials or to compensate the Member for any impairment of goodwill of the Member's store or other compensation that is related in any way to any discontinued Marks or the Company's designation of new Marks, logos, commercial symbols or additional or substitute trade dress. Further, the Company retains the sole and exclusive discretion to determine whether any of the Marks shall be or continue to be registered and what action, if any, shall be taken against any person in the event of any actual or alleged infringement thereof. The Member agrees that no right to sublicense the Marks is hereby granted or implied.
2. Services, Products and Programs. The right to purchase from the Company for resale at retail from the member location such merchandise, including private label merchandise, as the Company may, from time to time, in its sole discretion offer for sale to its members who operate under an Ace Brand Agreement. The Member also agrees not to manufacture or cause the manufacture of any merchandise that bears the Marks or any markings that are similar to the Marks, except as specifically permitted under a Company-sponsored program, if any, established for that purpose. The Member shall also have the right to subscribe to such services or programs, if any, in connection with the business operated at the member location as the Company may, from time to time, in its sole and exclusive discretion offer to those of its members who operate under an Ace Brand Agreement. The Member shall also have the right to purchase or subscribe for, in connection with the business operated at the member location, such advertising circulars and materials, identification signs, and other promotional materials, and such other retail service materials, equipment, devices, programs and systems as the Company makes available from time to time to its members who operate under an Ace Brand Agreement, including such items, if any, as the Company may choose to prepare or distribute under private labels bearing the trademarks "ACE," "ACE Hardware" or other trademarks owned by the Company.

ARTICLE II DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE MEMBER

The Member agrees:

1. Charges and Assessments. To pay to the Company such then-current charges and assessments, if any, as the Company imposes from time to time upon its members who are parties to an Ace Brand Agreement. The Member acknowledges and agrees that such charges and assessments are subject to change from time to time by the Company's Board of Directors or pursuant to authorization that has been granted by the Company's Board of Directors.
2. Restrictions on Corporate or Trade Name Use of "ACE". To refrain from using the word "ACE" or the words "ACE Hardware" as part of the corporate name or the registered trade or commercial name or the internet domain name or user identification name of the Member, its shareholders, officers or executives, or of the Member's retail outlet covered by this Agreement unless such name also includes another word or words clearly distinguishing it from the corporate or trade name or names used by the Company or any of its subsidiaries or divisions or by any other retail entity licensed by the Company to use the Marks or any other trademarks, service marks, logos or commercial symbols owned by the Company to identify and promote its business. The Member agrees that it does not now and will not in the future assert any claims to any goodwill or ownership of any of the Company's trademarks, service marks or other intellectual property, including, but not limited to, the Marks licensed to the Member hereunder, and will not engage in any acts or conduct in derogation of the Company's ownership thereof, or in derogation of any licenses or other intellectual property rights that the Company may have granted to others.
3. Compliance with Trademark Policy Statements and Guidelines. To strictly comply with all policy statements and guidelines communicated from time to time to the Company's members by the Company with respect to the use of any trade name, trademark or service mark belonging to or registered by the Company (including, but not limited to the Marks licensed to the Member hereunder) and, without the Company's prior written consent, to (a) at no time use any such trade name, trademark or service mark in a manner or for a product or service not approved by the Company for such use, (b) at no time authorize, permit or condone the use of any of the foregoing items by any other person or firm, and (c) at no time adopt or use, or authorize, permit or condone the use by any other person or firm, of any name, word or mark which is similar to or likely to be confused with, the Marks or with any trade name, trademark or service mark belonging to or registered by the Company (it being understood and agreed that all variations or adaptations of any of the Marks, or any trademarks or service marks owned or registered by the Company shall be the exclusive property of the Company and that the Company shall have the exclusive right to register the same and to license the use thereof).
4. Brand and Advertising Assessments. To pay its applicable portion of such charges as the Company assesses its members in order to support, preserve, maintain or uphold the Company's brand and the Marks licensed hereunder and to fund the Company's national and regional advertising programs, or for other advertising promotions or events, including, but not limited to any assessments imposed by the Company under any advertising plan or program established by the Company for its members in a particular format or a particular marketing area.
5. Company Rights of Approval. To submit for the Company's advance written approval, upon the Company's written request therefor and prior to the release thereof, any advertising and promotional materials which have been developed by the Member itself or for the Member by a third party (other than the Company or an entity designated by the Company) that bear the Marks or illustrations of products bearing the Marks. In addition, any quotations or summaries of remarks attributed to the Company or its officers, directors or employees shall at all times be subject to the Company's advance written approval prior to any use, dissemination or distribution thereof by Member. In any matter requiring the Company's written approval under this paragraph, if such approval has not been received by the Member within thirty (30) days after receipt of such material by the Company, then such material shall be considered disapproved, and the same shall not be used, disseminated or distributed by the Member. Once the Company's written approval has been obtained in a matter so requiring it, then further approval of the same material need not be obtained for future or repeat use. All publicly-released material prepared by the Member, or for the Member by a third party other than the Company shall, at all times, be consistent with the maintenance of the value of the Company's Marks and other intellectual property, and the value of the Company's excellent reputation. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

6. Ace Brand Standards. To comply with all the provisions of the Ace Brand Standards of the Company now in force or as hereafter amended or adopted by the Company by the action of the Board of Directors or within the scope of authority conferred by the Board of Directors. Subject to the foregoing, the Company hereby unilaterally, without limitation, reserves the sole and exclusive right and discretion to amend, modify and change the Ace Brand Standards under any conditions and to any extent which the Company may deem necessary or desirable to meet competition, to protect its trademarks, service marks, trade names or logos, or to improve the quality of the products or services provided by the Company or the Member. Such amendments, modifications and changes may include, but are not limited to, the subjects and subject matter presently set forth in the Ace Brand Standards, or the image, appearance and decor of the Member's store, the types of merchandise, services and equipment to be acquired, utilized, or offered by the Member, and any approved manufacturers, distributors or suppliers thereof, or specifications therefor.
7. Cooperation with Company. To fully cooperate with Company in the Company's efforts to maintain and defend the Company's ownership and the validity of the Marks against infringement and claims of infringement. Member will promptly notify the Company of (i) any suspected infringement or unauthorized use of any Marks by any third party, or (ii) any allegations by any third party that Member's use of the Marks is improper. Member shall not initiate or defend any action concerning the Marks without the Company's prior written consent. At the request of Company, and without compensation to Member (aside from the reimbursement by the Company of any reasonable and necessary travel and lodging expenses that may be incurred at the Company's specific request), the Member shall promptly do such acts and execute, acknowledge, and deliver such papers that may be necessary or desirable, in the sole discretion of Company, to obtain, maintain, protect, and/or vest in Company the entire right, title, and interest in and to any of the Marks in all countries of the world; including rendering such assistance as the Company may request in any litigation, Patent and Trademark Office proceeding, or other proceeding. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement.
8. Company's Sole and Exclusive Ownership Rights. Additionally, the Member acknowledges that (i) the Company is the sole owner of all right, title, and interest in and to the Marks, and (ii) any copyright and trademark right or any other rights which may be created in any article, label, design or other material bearing or including the Marks shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company; and (iii) the Member has and will hereby acquire no rights in the Marks, and any copyrights, trademark rights, or other rights which may be created in connection with any use of the Marks, or any article, label, design, or material incorporating the Marks or a variation of the Marks in whole or in part, (other than the limited right to use the same as herein provided while this Agreement is in full force and effect) shall be the exclusive property of the Company; and (iv) at no time will the Member, either during the term of this Agreement or thereafter, claim any rights therein or register any word, device, or symbol confusingly similar to the Marks or any similar or related mark or any copyrights or other rights which may be created in any article, label, design, or other material bearing or including the Marks or any similar or related mark or trade name, except pursuant to this Agreement. All use of the Marks by the Member and all goodwill pertaining thereto shall inure to the benefit of the Company. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE III TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

1. Termination By Either Party Upon Advance Written Notice. This Agreement may be terminated with or without cause at any time by either the Member or the Company by giving written notice of such intention to terminate to the other party. As used herein, "cause" means a breach by either party of any material obligation hereunder. "Cause" shall also include but not be limited to the following: (i) any misrepresentations made by Member in connection with the obtaining of rights granted hereunder or (ii) the failure of the Member to meet all of its obligations hereunder including, but not limited to those imposed on the Member pursuant to the Ace Brand Standards established by the Company from time to time hereunder or (iii) the termination for any reason of the Member's membership in the Company or (iv) any conduct by the Member or its officers, partners, owners or executives that results in publicity to the trade or to the public that adversely reflects upon the Member, the Company or their respective business operations or the Marks or (v) any other cause for termination that is expressly permitted under law. Any such notice shall be given not less than thirty (30) days in advance of the termination date set forth in the notice, unless a shorter time is permitted or a longer time is prescribed under law. Where a shorter or a longer period of advance notice or particular types of other conduct that constitute "cause" or "good cause" are prescribed by a state statute, rule or regulation that is arguably applicable to the member location, then this Agreement shall be deemed to be reformed and amended to the extent necessary to avoid a violation of such statute, rule or regulation. The Company shall not, however, be precluded from contesting the validity, enforceability or application of any such statute, rule or regulation in any action, proceeding or dispute relating to this Agreement or to its rescission or termination.

2. Advertising Former Relationship to Company. Upon the termination of this Agreement, the Member agrees to make no reference to the Member's former relationship with the Company hereunder in the advertising or promotion of the Member's business at the member location or in the advertising or promotion of any other business whether or not such business owned in whole or in part by the Member. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

3. Use of "ACE" Identification to Cease upon Termination of Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement for any reason, to discontinue the use of any and all Marks, including but not limited to, the word "ACE," and the use of all trade names, trademarks, service marks, or logos belonging to or registered by the Company (including, but not limited to, those bearing or suggesting any reference, directly or indirectly, to the Member's former affiliation with the Company) and to remove, at the Member's sole expense, all identification, signs, decals, displays, or other materials used by the Member at the member location which contain any of the foregoing, (it being further understood that this also requires that the word "ACE" be eliminated if it has been used as a part of the Member's corporate name or trade name at such location). Further, if the Member continues, following such termination, to display at or have affixed to the member location any identification, signs, decals, displays or other materials bearing any Marks or other intellectual property of the Company, then the Member agrees to pay to the Company a fee in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) per month, payable on the first day of each and every month during which any such identification sign continues to be affixed to or displayed at the member location for one or more days. Such payments shall continue to accrue and be due and payable until the first day of the month following the month in which all such identification, signs have been permanently removed from the member location. Without prejudice to the Company's right to collect the fee hereinabove prescribed, and to pursue any other remedies, whether at law or in equity, the parties agree that any display of identification signage bearing any of the Company's trade names, trademarks, service marks, or logos by the Member following termination of membership is an infringement thereof, the continuation of which is likely to result in irreparable harm to the Company, and in such event, the Company is hereby granted the right, with or without process of law, to remove such signage and, in furtherance thereof, the Member hereby expressly grants the Company the right to enter upon and have free access to the member location without being deemed guilty of trespass or any other tort whatsoever for the purpose aforesaid. The Member further agrees that it will pay promptly, upon demand, any and all of the Company's costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the Company in exercising or enforcing any of the aforesaid rights and remedies. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

4. Termination of Listings. The Member agrees that upon the termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever, the Member will promptly issue such instructions and execute and file such documents as may be necessary to revoke or terminate any listing, registration or service which the Member may have obtained under any designation that includes in whole or in part the words, "Ace," "Ace Hardware," the Marks or any other trademarks, service marks, logos or commercial symbols owned by the Company or any variations thereof. For purposes hereof, listings, registrations and services include, but are not limited to the Member's corporate or trade names, assumed names or other registrations with governmental entities, domain name registrations, and any telephone service, telephone directory assistance listings and printed telephone directory listings. The Member hereby irrevocably appoints the Company as the Member's attorney-in-fact for the limited purpose of issuing such instructions and to executing and filing such documents as the Company may deem necessary or desirable to accomplish the foregoing in the Member's name and on its behalf in the event that the Member, for any reason, does not do so promptly upon the termination of this Agreement. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV ADDITIONAL MODIFICATION OF TERMS

1. Reservation By The Company Of The Right To Modify. The Member acknowledges and agrees that Article XV, Section 15.6 of the Company's By-laws provides that the By-laws, as amended from time to time, constitute a binding legal contract between the Company and its shareholders, and are legally binding on all shareholders and their successors, heirs, executors, administrators, assigns and personal representatives. The Member further acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement is modifiable by amendment of the Company's By-laws and otherwise by action of the Company's shareholders or its Board of Directors, in each case unilaterally, without limitation, and without the consent of the Member. The Member further acknowledges and agrees that the Company may unilaterally modify the trademark license granted hereunder as well as the Ace Brand Standards to which the Member is subject hereunder.
2. Modifications To Comply With Amendments to Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws. If any provision of any amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company or any provision of any amendment to the By-laws of the Company which is duly adopted subsequent to the Member's execution of this Agreement is in any way inconsistent with or in conflict with any provision of this Agreement, then the Agreement shall be deemed to have been modified effective as of the date specified in an advance written notice given by the Company to the Member in order to place the Agreement in conformity with such amendment. The Member's act of continuing to do business with the Company after the effective date of such modification shall be deemed to constitute the Member's consent to be bound by such modification.

ARTICLE V MISCELLANEOUS

1. Effective Date; Application of Illinois Law; Partial Illegality Not To Void Rest of Agreement. The signing of this Agreement by the Member constitutes an application only, and the Agreement shall not be effective unless and until it has been duly accepted and countersigned by the Company at its principal office in Illinois. All orders for merchandise, supplies and services placed by the Member pursuant to this Agreement shall be transmitted to the Company at said office, and the Member hereby consents and agrees that:
 - (a) all provisions of this Agreement shall be interpreted and construed in accordance with the laws of Illinois, except that such state's choice of law and conflicts of law rules shall not apply and the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any successor statute and/or regulation shall not apply unless its jurisdictional requirements are met independently without reference to this paragraph; and
 - (b) if any provision of this Agreement shall be held to be illegal or void, the validity or the legality of the remaining portion hereof shall not be affected thereby.
2. Successor and Assigns. Neither this Agreement nor any interest of the Member herein shall be pledged, mortgaged, hypothecated, assigned, encumbered or transferred by the Member, except in strict accordance with the Company's By-laws, and a purchaser of or successor to of the business operated by the Member at the member location shall be entitled to operate such business as an authorized branded member of the Company only if qualified and permitted under the Company's By-laws, and if such purchaser or successor has agreed to be bound to, and the Company has accepted in writing any applicable Company-approved forms of agreement for that purpose. The Company expressly reserves the right to assign this Agreement and all of its rights and privileges to any other person, firm or corporation, and this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of any such transferee or other legal successor to the interest of the Company herein.

3. Status of Agreement With Respect to Other Documents. This Agreement may only be offered and accepted with respect to persons who are parties to a currently effective Ace Hardware Membership Agreement (nonbranded). This Agreement is for the purpose of granting the Member certain additional rights and privileges and binding the Member to certain additional obligations beyond those that are contained in such Membership Agreement.
4. Manner of Giving Notices. All notices required or permitted to be given hereunder by one party to the other party shall be effective if personally delivered, sent by expedited delivery service or mailed to the other party by registered or certified mail at the address of such other party set forth herein or at such other address as such party shall have specified in writing, and shall be deemed to have been given on the date of such personal delivery or on the date of deposit in the U.S. mails, as the case may be.
5. Independent Relationship. The relationship between the Company and the Member established by this Agreement shall at all times and for all purposes be deemed to be one between separate and totally independent parties. Neither the Member nor any employee of the Member shall be deemed to be an employee of the Company. No legally recognized partnership, agency or similar relationship is hereby created in any respect. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, it is mutually understood and agreed that the Member will control and be solely responsible for the day-to-day operation of the member location, and any and all policies affecting the Member's soliciting, hiring, firing, disciplining, paying, scheduling and managing of the Member's employees, the financial management of the Member's business, and the Member's compliance with applicable governmental laws and regulations are to be established solely by the Member. However, the Member shall not thereby be relieved from satisfying any of its obligations hereunder, or under applicable laws or regulations. It is further understood and agreed by the parties hereto that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them. The Member shall identify itself in all dealings as the independent owner of its business.
6. Waiver of Rights. No waiver by the Company of any obligation of the Member or restriction on the Member pursuant to the terms and conditions hereof shall be effective unless in writing and signed by an officer of the Company. Any such waiver granted by the Company shall be without prejudice to any of the Company's rights hereunder, will be subject to continuing review by the Company and may be effectively revoked upon written notice thereof to the Member upon the terms and conditions set forth therein, if applicable or otherwise. Neither party shall be deemed to have waived or impaired any of its rights hereunder, (including, without limitation, the right to demand exact compliance with every term, condition and provision herein, or to declare any breach thereof to be a default and to terminate this Agreement) by reason of any verbal agreement between the parties or by virtue of any custom, practice or actions of the parties at variance with the terms hereof, or by reason of any failure, refusal, or omission by either party in exercising any of its rights hereunder or in failing to insist on strict compliance herewith by the other party. No waiver, forbearance, delay, failure or omission by the Company in the exercise of any of its rights or powers with respect to any other member, shareholder, dealer, or any other person shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of any of the Company's rights hereunder, nor shall any acceptance of payments by the Company from the Member be deemed a waiver by the Company of any preceding breach by the Member of its obligations under this Agreement.
7. Reservation of Company's Rights and Nonexclusivity. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to grant the Member an exclusive territory or exclusive rights, or to limit, deny, or otherwise restrict the Company's right to enter into agreements for the licensing of its Marks or for the acceptance of other members or dealers or for the authorization of others to own or operate retail or other outlets which offer products or services similar to those of the Member at any locations and within any proximity to the member location as the Company, in the exercise of its sole and exclusive discretion, shall determine. The Company may license other entities, including but not limited to, firms, individuals, partnerships and corporations to use the Marks or to operate under licenses or other agreements in any part of the world, and Company reserves all rights pertaining to the Marks.

8. Site Approval or Acceptance. The Member hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Company's approval or acceptance of a site for branded Member's store does not constitute an assurance, representation or warranty of any kind, express or implied, as to the suitability of the member location for such store or the successful operation or profitability of the store hereunder. The Company's approval or acceptance of any site, including the member location, indicates only that the Company believes that such site falls within acceptable minimum criteria established by the Company solely for the Company's own purposes and benefit at the time of the Company's approval or acceptance thereof. The parties acknowledge that application of criteria that have been effective with respect to other sites and premises may not be predictive of potential for the member location and that demographic and/or economic factors, such as competition from other similar businesses, included in or excluded from the Company's own criteria could change, thereby altering the potential thereof. The parties acknowledge that such factors are unpredictable and are beyond the Company's control, and the Member agrees that the Company shall not be responsible for the failure of any site approved or accepted by the Company to meet the Member's expectations as to revenue or operational criteria, or otherwise. The Member also represents and warrants that its conclusion that it wishes to operate a branded retail store under this Ace Brand Agreement at the member location is based on its own independent investigation of the suitability of the site for such purpose.

9. Further Representations of Member. As an inducement to the Company to enter into this Agreement, the Member further represents and warrants as follows: a) that the Member has conducted an independent investigation of the business contemplated by this Agreement, and recognizes that the nature of the business or its market area are subject to change over time, that the Member's investment involves business risks; b) that no representations have been made by the Company or by any of its officers, directors, employees or agents that are contrary to the terms contained in this Agreement, or contrary to any statements contained in any disclosure document or offering circular heretofore delivered to the Member; and c) the Member has not received or relied upon any guarantee, whether express or implied, of the sales, revenues, profits or success of the business venture contemplated by this Agreement.

10. Arbitration of Disputes. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to: a) this Agreement or any other agreement between Company and the Member (and/or Member's owners, guarantors or affiliates); or b) the relationship between Company and Member (and/or Member's owners, guarantors or affiliates), shall be settled by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its then current commercial arbitration rules, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The costs of arbitration will be borne equally by the parties. The parties agree that Chicago, Illinois shall be the location of all hearings held under this Article V, Section 12, and that such hearings shall be held before a single arbitrator, not a panel. The arbitrator has the right to award any relief it deems proper, including, without limitation, money damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from the due date), specific performance, injunctive relief, and attorneys fees and costs, provided that the arbitrator may not: (i) declare any trademark owned by the Company generic or otherwise invalid; or (ii) award any punitive or exemplary damages against either party (the parties hereby waiving to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claim or right to punitive or exemplary damages against the other), provided, however, that the fee provided for in Article III, Section 3 of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be punitive or exemplary damages. The parties agree that any proceeding will be conducted on an individual, not a class-wide basis, and any proceeding between Company and Member may not be consolidated with another proceeding between Company and any other entity or person. Any disputes concerning the enforceability or scope of this arbitration clause shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.) and not by any state arbitration law. The parties agree to be bound by the provisions of any limitation on the period of time in which claims must be brought under applicable law or this Agreement, whichever expires earlier. The parties further agree that, in any arbitration proceeding, each must submit or file any claim which would constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates, and any claim which is not submitted or filed as required is forever barred. Notwithstanding anything in this Section to the contrary, the parties each have the right in a proper case to seek temporary restraining orders and temporary or permanent injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction.

BY-LAWS OF
ACE HARDWARE CORPORATION

As Amended through May 23, 2019

ARTICLE VIII
MEMBERS' PATRONAGE DIVIDENDS

Section 8.1 Patronage Dividends. With respect to each fiscal year of the Corporation, the Corporation shall distribute on a patronage basis to each Member, in a manner that takes into account the amount of patronage business done with respect to each Store owned by such Member, all the net savings and overcharges effected by or resulting from the patronage operations conducted and carried on by the Corporation during such fiscal year in connection with sales of merchandise, services and other business done by the Corporation with respect to each Store owned by such Member, which net savings and overcharges remain after payment of all operating and administrative expenses of the Corporation and all interest on its indebtedness and after the setting aside of such reasonable reserves for necessary purposes as the Board determines from time to time to be appropriate (such amount available for such distribution shall be determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and is referred to as "Patronage Dividends"). The Corporation shall distribute Patronage Dividends for each fiscal year no later than eight and one-half (8½) months following the close of such fiscal year. In no event shall less than twenty percent (20%) of the total Patronage Dividends distributed with respect to each fiscal year to each Member be distributed in cash, except as provided in Section 8.5. Subject to the provisions of this Article VIII, the remaining Patronage Dividends shall be distributed in cash, Written Notices of Allocation (as defined in Section 1388 of the IRC) or other property in whatever proportions as shall be determined for each fiscal year by the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any amounts withheld by the Corporation from the Patronage Dividends distributable to any Member, and paid to the United States government as taxes, tax withholding or the like with respect to such Member, shall be deemed to have been paid in cash to such Member as part of such Member's Patronage Dividends.

Section 8.2 Application of Patronage Dividends to Member Debt. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8.1, each Member authorizes the Corporation, in its sole discretion, to apply the Patronage Dividends for any fiscal year distributable to such Member under Section 8.1 which are in excess of the twenty percent (20%) portion of the amount of Patronage Dividends required to be distributed in cash, to the payment of any Member Debt of such Member and its Affiliates. The balance of any such Patronage Dividends not so applied shall then be distributed in the manner set forth in Section 8.1.

Section 8.3 Consent. Each Person who hereafter applies for and is accepted as a Member, and each Member of the Corporation on the effective date of these Bylaws that continues as a Member after such date, shall, by such act alone, be deemed to consent that the amount of any Patronage Dividends distributed to such Member in the form of Written Notices of Allocation (as described in Section 1388 of the IRC) and which are received by such Member from the Corporation, will be taken into account by such Member at their stated dollar amounts in the manner provided in Section 1385(a) of the IRC in the taxable year in which such Written Notices of Allocation are received by such Member. The term Written Notice of Allocation as used herein shall include where applicable, a letter of advice or statement to such Member which discloses the amount which the Corporation has elected to apply in accordance with Sections 8.2 or 8.5 against any Member Debt owed to the Corporation by such Member and its Affiliates.

Section 8.4 Written Notices of Allocation – Liens, Redemption and Set-Off. As collateral security for the unpaid balance of any Member Debt, each Person, upon becoming a Member, and each Person that is a Member on the effective date of these Bylaws, shall be deemed to have pledged or confirmed the pledge, as the case may be, to the Corporation, and granted or confirmed the grant, as the case may be, to the Corporation, a first security interest in and lien on, any Written Notice of Allocation that is distributable to such Member and all proceeds thereof. In the event such Member or an Affiliate of such Member defaults under any Member Debt and the Corporation elects to accelerate thereon, such Member shall be in default under said security interest and the Corporation shall have all of the rights of a secured party under the UCC. Upon request by the Corporation, such Member shall, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, such Member hereby authorizes the Corporation, to execute and deliver to the Corporation such additional pledge agreements, financing statements and other documents as the Corporation shall determine from time to time to be necessary to further evidence, perfect or protect the Corporation's security interest in and lien on said Written Notice of Allocation and/or to secure payment of any Member Debt of such Member and its Affiliates. The Written Notices of Allocation shall be redeemable by the Corporation in cash at the discretion of the Board and/or in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation and these By-laws. Each Member hereby grants the Corporation the right at all times, in the Corporation's sole discretion, to set off such Member's Written Notices of Allocation against the amount of any Member Debt owed to the Corporation by such Member and its Affiliates.

Section 8.5 Set-Off. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions, the portion of any Patronage Dividends which would otherwise be paid in cash under any provision of this Article VIII to a Member shall first be applied by the Corporation, in its sole discretion, to the payment of any Member Debt owed to the Corporation by or on behalf of such Member and its Affiliates; provided, however, that an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the total Patronage Dividends distributable for the applicable fiscal year to any such Member shall nevertheless remain payable in cash, within eight and one-half (8½) months following the close of such year, to such Member, if such Member submits a timely written request for the payment of such cash amount.

Section 8.6 Allocation Units, Losses, Nonpatronage Business. Each Member shall, solely by commencing or continuing to do business with the Corporation, be deemed to have authorized and directed that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Article VIII, the Patronage Dividends payable pursuant to Section 8.1 shall be determined in a manner that takes into account the quantity or value of patronage business done by each Store owned by such Member with each separate division of the Corporation with respect to each category of sales, services or other business as shall be established on the books of the Corporation. For purposes of this Article VIII, all business of the Corporation with or for each Store owned by such Member shall be conducted on a patronage basis (and shall thus be "patronage business" or part of "patronage operations" as those terms are used in this Article VIII) unless the business is with a division or other operating unit of the Corporation which the Board has designated in advance to be nonpatronage, or the business otherwise involves sales of a particular kind or category which the Board has designated in advance as nonpatronage sales. Each such Member shall further be deemed to have authorized and directed that, in any taxable year of the Corporation during which a loss is incurred in connection with the operations of any such patronage division, other operating unit or in connection with any such patronage category of sales (each a "patronage pool"), (a) such loss shall be deducted first from the net earnings of the patronage pool that includes the Corporation's primary handled sales, to the extent of such net earnings, and any remaining such loss shall be deducted proportionately from the net earnings of the Corporation's other patronage pools and (b) the amount of Patronage Dividends which the Corporation would otherwise be obligated to distribute in connection with the operations of each such patronage pool shall be reduced accordingly.

Section 8.7 Adjustment for Material Loss or Overpayment of Patronage Dividends. In the event of any material loss or overpayment of patronage dividends, the Board may adopt a plan to allocate all or part of such loss to, or recover all or part of such overpayment from, the Members and/or former Members on such basis as the Board determines in the reasonable exercise of its business judgment to be fair and equitable. Any such plan may contain such terms and conditions as the Board may reasonably determine and shall be deemed to be a part of these By-laws.

Section 8.8 Adjustment for the Restatement of Income. In the event of any restatement of income resulting from the adoption of new generally accepted accounting pronouncements or a change in the application of any existing generally accepted accounting principle, the Board may adopt a plan to: (a) allocate all or part of such adjustment to, (b) recover all or part of such overpayment from, or (c) distribute any underpayment to, the applicable Members and/or former Members on such basis as the Board determines in the reasonable exercise of its business judgment to be fair and equitable. Any such plan may contain such terms and conditions as the Board may reasonably determine and shall be deemed to be a part of these By-laws. In the event the Board determines the income or loss resulting from the restatement of income does not warrant the adoption of a specific plan to allocate or recover such adjustment, it shall be included in the patronage distributions for the year of the change.

ACE HARDWARE CORPORATION (THE “CORPORATION”)
AMENDED AND RESTATED PATRONAGE DISTRIBUTION PLAN – FISCAL 2013 AND SUBSEQUENT YEARS

1. This Plan applies to patronage distributions on purchases made during fiscal 2013 and subsequent years, until a new or revised patronage distribution plan is adopted by the Board of Directors.
2. Patronage distributions will continue to be calculated and determined on a store by store basis.
3. With respect to each store owned or controlled by each eligible and qualifying retailer, such retailer shall receive 40% of such patronage distribution in cash.
4. For any store for which an equity restoration variance allocation account under the Corporation’s Equity Restoration Plan adopted in December 2007 (“Equity Restoration Plan”) remains as of the fiscal year end, the entire non-cash portion of any such patronage distribution shall be applied to reduce such equity restoration variance allocation account balance until such balance is reduced to zero.
5. For any store for which no such equity restoration variance allocation account exists, or for which the balance has been reduced to zero, patronage shall be distributed as follows:
 - A. The portion of the total annual distribution allocated to any such retailer for each store owned or controlled by such retailer in excess of the amount to be distributed to such retailer for such store in cash shall be distributed each year in the form of shares of the Corporation’s Class C Non-voting Common Stock, par value $100 per share (“Class C Stock”), valued at the par value thereof, until the total par value of all shares of all classes of capital stock of the Corporation held by such retailer with respect to such store equals or exceeds the greater of:
 - i) $25,000; or
 - ii) a sum equal to the total of the following categories of purchases made by such retailer for such store during the most recent fiscal year:
 - (a) 20% of the total volume of:
 - (1) all sales of merchandise from the Corporation’s Retail Support Centers (warehouses), including without limitation warehouse, bulletin and Store Traffic Opportunity (S.T.O.P.) sales, plus

(2) all sales of products manufactured by the Corporation or one of its subsidiaries; plus

(3) all private label liquid paint products;

(b) 4% of the total volume of:

(1) all sales of merchandise shipped directly from the vendor to the retailer without any physical “handling” by the Corporation (i.e., drop ship sales), plus

(2) all Less Than Truckload Plus (LTL+) sales and all sales on which patronage distributions are, in effect, paid “up front” (but excluding S.T.O.P. sales); provided, however, that no fractional shares of Class C Stock shall be issued to any retailer and that any amount which would have otherwise been distributable as a fractional share of such stock shall instead be distributed to such retailer in cash.

B. The portion of the total patronage distribution allocated each year to any such retailer for each store owned or controlled by such retailer which exceeds the sum of (i) the amount to be distributed to such retailer for such store in cash pursuant to Paragraph 3 above and (ii) any amount to be distributed in the form of shares of Class C Stock pursuant to Paragraph 5A above shall be distributed to such retailer in the form of a non-negotiable patronage refund certificate having such a maturity date and bearing interest at such an annual rate as shall be determined by the Board of Directors prior to the issuance thereof.

6. All such patronage distributions shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable but in no event later than nine and one-half months following the close of the Corporation’s fiscal year to which such distribution relates (e.g., patronage distributions on fiscal 2013 purchases shall be distributed not later than nine and one-half months after the final day of the Corporation’s 2013 fiscal year).

1. Retailer will participate in the Program for the processing of its VISA, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express credit card transactions ("Transactions") at the Retailer's Ace affiliated retail store, and will comply with all Program rules and requirements in effect from time to time, including, without limitation, the display of promotional materials supplied to Retailer to inform Retailer's customers that Retailer honors Program credit cards. Ace will notify Retailer of any changes to the Program, which notice may be provided via ACENET. Retailer must acquire and maintain, at its sole expense, the equipment necessary to process Transactions.
2. Retailer must also comply with the terms and conditions contained in Appendix 1, attached hereto and made a part hereof, which terms and conditions are required by Ace's credit card processor ("Appendix 1"). In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions of this Agreement and Appendix 1, those of Appendix 1 govern.
3. Retailer must: (a) comply with the then-current terms, conditions and procedures set forth in the Card Organization Rules (as defined in Appendix 1) and any other credit card association, processor or network involved in processing Transactions (together with the Card Organization Rules, the "Rules"), as each may be amended from time to time; (b) provide Ace's third party credit card processors prompt access to Retailer's facilities and records for inspection and copying of Retailer's books and records regarding Transactions, and be responsible for the quality and accuracy of all information provided to Ace's credit card processors; and (c) cooperate with Ace's credit card processors to establish Retailer identification and verify compliance with the Rules. In addition, Retailer will review the Card Organization Rules from time to time for changes, and is responsible for staying up to date with all applicable changes to the Card Organization Rules. Card Organization Rules are available on web sites maintained by the Card Organization, i.e., <http://www.mastercardmerchant.com>, <http://www.discover.com>, and <http://americanexpress.com>, and http://www.usa.visa.com/merchants/operations/op_regulations.html.
4. Upon notice to Retailer, Ace or its representatives may conduct remote electronic scans of Retailer's card acceptance and processing systems to confirm compliance with PCI DSS (as defined in Appendix 1) and Card Organization Rules. Retailer must cooperate with Ace and its credit card processors to facilitate such scans.
5. Retailer must receive authorization for all Transactions regardless of dollar value and must settle all Transactions on a daily basis. Retailer agrees that Transaction settlement funds will be applied by Ace first to amounts due and owing to Ace, and that such applications will be posted to Retailer's Ace billing statement. Retailer must not submit authorization requests for Transactions (a) between (i) Retailer and cardholders who are officers, employees or financially involved with Retailer other than for genuine purchases, leases or rentals of goods or services from Retailer or other payments to Retailer in the ordinary course of business, or (ii) cardholders and third parties, or (b) for (i) a new Card type until Ace and its credit card processors have contracted regarding same or (ii) a Card type Ace desires to discontinue later than the effective date of Ace's notice to its credit card processors.
6. Transactions will be subject to a discount fee, which may be changed from time to time and which may vary by credit card issuer. Retailer must pay the discount fees, annual Program participation fee, equipment maintenance fee and other Program charges, which may be changed from time to time.

7. Retailer's account will be charged for all Chargebacks applied to Ace by its credit card processors with respect to Transactions by Retailer under the Program.

8. Retailer must retain the original sales draft for each Transaction for three (3) years, and provide Ace and Ace's credit card processors with a legible and unaltered copy of any sales draft upon request. Failure to provide a copy of the sales draft within ten (10) days of Ace's request will result in a Chargeback. Retailer must comply with all cardholder data security and storage requirements, and maintain fraud and Chargebacks below the thresholds set forth in the Rules.

9. Retailer must keep confidential and not disclose any confidential information of Ace and/or its credit card processors and safeguard such confidential information using a reasonable degree of care, but not less than that degree of care used by it in safeguarding its own similar information or material. Upon request or upon termination of this Agreement, Retailer will return to Ace or destroy all of Ace's and/or its credit card processors' Confidential Information in Retailer's possession or control.

10. Ace may amend this Agreement as required by any Rules or otherwise by Ace's credit card processors upon twenty (20) days prior written notice. To comply with the Rules or for security reasons, Ace may require that certain amendments become effective upon shorter notice.

11. Retailer may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Ace effective on the termination date set forth in the notice. Ace may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Retailer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Ace may terminate this Agreement immediately if Retailer is in breach of this Agreement or is or has been engaged in fraudulent activity or violation of Applicable Law or any provision permitting or requiring termination under the Rules, or if Ace terminates the Program or its relationship with its credit card processors. This Agreement shall terminate automatically upon the termination of Retailer's membership or other Retailer agreement with Ace. Notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement, Retailer remains liable for any Chargebacks for Transactions processed prior to such termination.

12. ACE DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WITH RESPECT TO ANY SOFTWARE, HARDWARE, NETWORK FACILITIES AND SERVICES PROVIDED TO OR USED BY RETAILER IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROGRAM. IN NO EVENT SHALL ACE BE LIABLE TO RETAILER OR ANY OTHER PERSON FOR ANY SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROGRAM OR FOR LOSS OF PROFITS OR GOODWILL.

13. Retailer may not assign, transfer, sell or exchange this Agreement or the financial obligations thereof without the prior written approval of Ace.

14. This Agreement supersedes all prior written and verbal agreements between Retailer and Ace regarding Retailer's participation in the Ace Bankcard Program, including, without limitation, any prior agreement between Retailer and Ace related to credit card processing. This Agreement may not be modified or waived in whole or part, except in writing and signed by an officer or duly authorized representative of both parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing to the contrary, the terms of this Agreement do not limit, reduce, terminate, amend, or modify any obligations Retailer has under any other agreement between Retailer and Ace or any of Ace's subsidiaries, including, without limitation, the Ace Hardware Membership Agreement (Non-branded) or the Ace Brand Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Agreement and either the Ace Hardware Membership Agreement (Non-branded) or the Ace Brand Agreement, such other agreement shall prevail.

Retailer has caused this Agreement to be executed by its duly authorized officer.

Unless otherwise permitted under Applicable Law and the Card Organization Rules, if a Cardholder returns goods or cancels services purchased from Retailer with a Card, or Retailer allows any other price adjustment after a sale has been completed and a refund or adjustment is due to a Cardholder, Retailer will not return cash to the Cardholder but will instead prepare a credit draft and process each such refund or adjustment, as specified in the Card Organization Rules, giving the Cardholder a copy of the completed credit draft.
- g) Retailer shall (i) be responsible for auditing, balancing, verifying and reconciling any out-of-balance condition within Retailer's systems, and for notifying Ace of any errors in the foregoing after receipt of the applicable report from Ace; (ii) notify Ace of all incorrect reports or output within five (5) Business Days after receipt of such reports or output; and (iii) balance its transactions to Servicers systems for each Business Day that it is open, within five (5) Business Days of the original transaction. - h) Retailer represents and warrants with the submission of each transaction that:
 - (i) each Card transaction is genuine and arises from a bona fide transaction, permissible under the Card Organization Rules and Applicable Law, by the Cardholder directly with Retailer;
 - (ii) each Card transaction represents a valid obligation for the amount shown on the sales draft, preauthorized order, or credit draft, and does not involve the use of a Card for any other purpose;
 - (iii) each Card transaction represents an obligation of the related Cardholder for the amount of the Card transaction;
 - (iv) the amount charged for each Card transaction is not subject to any dispute, set off or counterclaim;
 - (v) each Card transaction amount is only for respective merchandise or services (including taxes, but without any surcharge except as permitted under Card Organization Rules) sold, leased or rented or other payments to Retailer and, except for any delayed delivery or advance deposit Card transactions expressly authorized by Ace, that merchandise or service was actually delivered to or performed for the Cardholder entering into that Card transaction simultaneously upon Retailer accepting and submitting that Card transaction for processing;
 - (vi) with respect to each Card transaction, Retailer has no knowledge or notice of any fact, circumstance or defense indicating that such Card transaction is fraudulent or unauthorized or that the Cardholder's obligations hereunder are invalid, uncollectable, or unenforceable;
 - (vii) each Card transaction is made in accordance with the terms of this Retailer Agreement and Applicable Law;
 - (viii) each sales draft is free of any alteration not authorized by the related Cardholder; and
 - (ix) no more than one Card transaction per sale, or one Card transaction per shipment of goods for which Retailer has agreed to partial shipments, has been completed.
- i) Retailer shall retain legible copies or images of sales drafts, credit drafts and any other transaction records in accordance with the terms of the Card Organization Rules.

3. Information Regarding Retailers.

- a) Retailer shall promptly provide to Ace or Servicers, upon request, information reasonably requested regarding Retailer or its business, including but not limited to: the current address of each of its retail stores, all “doing business as” (DBA) names used by Retailer, a complete description of goods sold and services provided to Cardholders, the identity of its Merchant Providers, and the names and domiciles of Retailer’s principals.
 - b) Retailer must promptly notify Ace of any change to the information it has provided to Ace, including: (i) any new lines or types of business; (ii) change in ownership; (iii) the opening, closing or liquidation of business or any location; (iv) voluntary or involuntary party to a bankruptcy case; (v) change in legal name or structure, and/or (vi) entry into a loan or other agreement with a Person that seeks to affect this Agreement. Ace retains the right to terminate this Retailer Agreement if Retailer fails to notify Ace of any change to the information in the Retailer profile.
 - c) Retailer shall require that its Merchant Providers comply with (i) the Card Organization Rules, including, without limitation, those regarding registration, periodic reporting, and data security standards, and (ii) all Applicable Law.
 - d) Retailer shall promptly notify Ace of any changes or modifications of its transaction systems including modifications to accommodate changes in Card Organization Rules or Applicable Law, and allow Ace and its designees a reasonable amount of time to conduct certification testing of such systems to verify that it meets Servicers’, their affiliates’, and the Card Organizations’ then-current applicable requirements.
4. Card Organization Rules and Marks.
- a) During the term of this Retailer Agreement, Retailer shall comply with all Applicable Law and all Card Organization Rules applicable to Retailer and Card acceptance as may be amended by the Card Organizations from time to time.
 - b) The Card Organizations have the right to enforce the Card Organization Rules and to prohibit Retailer from engaging in any conduct a Card Organization deems could injure or create a risk of injury to the Card Organization, including injury to reputation, or that could adversely affect the integrity of the interchange system and/or the Card Organization’s confidential information. Retailer will not take any action that could interfere with or prevent the exercise of this right by the Card Organizations.
 - c) Retailer acknowledges and agrees that the Card Organizations are the sole and exclusive owners of their Marks and Retailer shall not contest the ownership of such Marks for any reason. Card Organizations may at any time, immediately and without advance notice, prohibit Retailer from using any of their respective Marks for any reason. Retailer shall at all times comply with the Card Organization Rules regarding the use of the Card Organization-owned Marks. Retailer shall not assign to any Person, the rights to use the Marks of the Card Organizations or the Marks of Servicers.
5. Data Security Requirements.
- a) Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards (PCI DSS). Visa, MasterCard, Discover, American Express and JCB aligned data security requirements to create a global standard for the protection of Cardholder Data. The resulting Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards (“PCI DSS”) defines the requirements with which all entities that store, process, or transmit payment card data must comply. PCI DSS is the name used to identify those common data security requirements. The Cardholder Information Security Program (“CISP”) is Visa’s data security program, the Site Data Protection (“SDP”) program is MasterCard’s data security program and Discover Information Security and Compliance (“DISC”) is Discover’s data security program, and the Data Security Operating Policy (“DSOP”) is American Express’ data security program, each based on the PCI DSS and industry aligned validation requirements. PCI DSS compliance validation is focused on Merchant Systems where Cardholder Data is processed, stored, or transmitted, including:

- All external connections into Retailer's network (i.e., employee remote access, third party access for processing, and maintenance);
- All connections to and from the authorization and settlement environment (i.e., connections for employee access or for devices such as firewalls, and routers); and
- Any data repository outside of the authorization and settlement environment.

The Card Organizations, Ace or Servicers may impose fines or penalties, or restrict Retailer from accepting Cards if it is determined that Retailer is not compliant with the applicable data security requirements, and Ace may pass through such fines or penalties imposed by the Card Organizations, Ace or Servicers on Ace as a result of Retailer's failure to comply with the applicable data security requirements. Ace or Servicers may suspend services to Retailer, indefinitely, for any actual or suspected data security compromise. In addition, Ace may terminate this Retailer Agreement for any actual or suspected data security compromise. Retailer agrees that Retailer will not request any authorizations, submit any sales drafts or credit drafts until Retailer has read and understood the PCI DSS, CISP, SDP, DISC and DSOP for which Retailer acknowledges Ace has provided Retailer sufficient information to obtain, and Retailer will be deemed to have done so upon Servicers' receipt of Retailer's request or submission of any authorizations, sales drafts or credit drafts.

Retailer must comply with the data security requirements described in this Section, including, without limitation, PCI DSS, CISP, SDP, DISC and DSOP, and any additional Card Organization requirements applicable to payment applications and PIN transactions.

b) Immediate Notice Required. In the event that any Cardholder Data or transaction data is known or suspected of having been accessed or retrieved by any unauthorized Person ("Data Compromise Event"), Retailer must contact Ace immediately and in no event more than 24 hours after becoming aware of such activity. Retailer must not alter or destroy any related records and must maintain complete and accurate documentation regarding any modifications made to the records.

c) Merchant Providers. The data security standards set forth in this Section also apply to Merchant Providers. If Retailer uses any Merchant Provider other than Epicor Software Corporation, Retailer must provide to Ace in writing (a) the Merchant Provider's legal name, (b) contact information, and (c) intended function. Retailer acknowledges and agrees that Retailer will not use, or provide Cardholder Data access to, any Merchant Provider until such Merchant Provider has received Servicers' approval and, if required, confirmation of that Merchant Provider's registration with applicable Card Organizations. Retailer must require that its Merchant Providers comply with: (i) Servicers' registration process applicable to Merchant Providers; (ii) the periodic and other reporting required by a Card Organization; and (iii) all applicable Card Organization Rules, including without limitation, those requiring security of Cardholder Data. Retailer may allow Merchant Providers access to Cardholder Data only for purposes authorized under and in conformance with the Card Organization Rules. Retailer is responsible to Ace for all costs and expenses associated with Servicers' review, approval, certification, registration (and recertification and/or annual registration renewal as may be required) of any Merchant Providers.

6. Card and Cardholder Information.

- a) Retailer will not use, store, disclose, sell or disseminate any Cardholder Data obtained in connection with a Card transaction except in accordance with the relevant Cardholder's consent as obtained by Retailer, the Card Organization Rules and Applicable Law (e.g., for purposes of authorizing, completing and settling Card transactions and resolving any Chargebacks, retrieval requests or similar issues involving Card transactions). The foregoing will not apply in the instance of a court or governmental request, subpoena or order.
- b) Retailer shall use proper controls for and limit access to, and render unreadable prior to discarding, all records containing Cardholder account numbers and Card imprints. Retailer may not retain or store magnetic stripe data or card validation codes after a transaction has been authorized. If Retailer stores any electronically captured signature of a Cardholder, Retailer may not reproduce such signature except upon Ace's specific request.
- c) Retailer acknowledges that it will not obtain ownership rights in the transaction data derived from Servicers processing Card transactions (i.e., which includes all information regarding the transaction that is not Cardholder Data).

7. Examinations, Audits and Corrective Action.

- a) Audit Rights. Ace and its respective designees will have the right, during the term of this Retailer Agreement and for one (1) year thereafter, upon reasonable advance written notice and during normal business hours, to conduct a review of (and make copies of, to the extent necessary) the books, records, operations and Merchant Equipment of Retailer and its Merchant Providers, as may be permitted by the agreement between Retailer and its Merchant Provider, to determine or to verify Retailer's and its Merchant Providers compliance with Retailer's obligations under this Retailer Agreement. Retailer agrees that Ace and its respective designees may obtain relevant information from any applicable telecommunications provider utilized by Retailer, as necessary to investigate any allegation of fraud, suspected fraud or other actual or alleged wrongful act by Retailer in connection with the services. To the extent Retailer's agreement with a Merchant Provider does not permit Ace and its designees the access provided in this subsection, Retailer shall cooperate with Ace and its designees to work with such Merchant Provider to obtain such access.
- b) Regulatory Agencies and Card Organizations. Retailer will provide reasonable access to Merchant Systems and Retailer's facilities and records and those of its Merchant Providers, as may be permitted by the agreement between Retailer and its Merchant Providers, during normal business hours, for examination purposes to any regulatory agency with jurisdiction over Servicers, any Card Organization and any of their designees, upon Ace or its designees prior written request. The results, including any written reports of such examinations and audits, must be made available to the entity requesting it and Ace, who will share the results with Servicers. All reasonable expenses related to such examinations and audits will be paid by Retailer.
- c) Remediation. Retailer must promptly take corrective action acceptable to Ace, Servicers, the regulatory agency and the Card Organizations, as applicable, to rectify (i) any failure to comply with this Retailer Agreement or any problem identified in any report, examination or audit that could reasonably be expected to have an adverse impact on Ace, Servicers, Card issuers, Card Organizations or Cardholders and (ii) any control deficiencies identified in such report.

8. Representations and Warranties. Retailer represents, warrants and covenants as follows:

- a) Retailer is validly existing, in good standing and authorized to enter into this Retailer Agreement;
- b) All information provided to Ace in connection with this Retailer Agreement or Ace's provision of services to Retailer is true and correct;
- c) Retailer is not doing business under a name or style not previously disclosed to Ace;

- e) Retailer will use the services provided by Ace only for its own proper business purposes and will not resell, directly or indirectly, any part of such services to any Person;
- f) Retailer has not filed a bankruptcy petition not previously disclosed to Ace;
- g) Retailer has not and will not submit or facilitate the submission of Card transactions for processing on behalf of any party other than itself;
- h) Retailer will not attempt to transfer its financial liability for each Card transaction by requiring or incenting any Cardholder to waive his or her dispute rights;
- i) To the extent Retailer interacts with the Cardholder, Retailer will prominently and unequivocally inform the Cardholder of the identity of the Retailer at all points of interaction so that the Cardholder readily can distinguish the Retailer from any other party, such as a supplier of products or services to Retailer, including Ace;
- j) Retailer must ensure that the Cardholder understands who is responsible for the Card transaction, including delivery of the products (whether physical or digital) or provision of the services, and for customer service and dispute resolution; and
- k) Retailer shall, and shall require that its Merchant Providers, at all times cooperate with Ace and Servicers and provide such parties with all necessary information (to the extent reasonably obtainable by Retailer) and assistance required or requested by them to (i) provide their respective services; (ii) monitor transaction activity, Chargebacks, and other processing data relating to Retailer; (iii) facilitate prompt remediation of any breach of this Retailer Agreement by Retailer relating to the services; (iv) maintain compliance with the Card Organization Rules and Applicable Law; and (v) promptly remediate any violation thereof.

9. Assignment, Amendment, and Termination.

- a) Retailer shall not assign, sell, or exchange, this Retailer Agreement without the prior written consent of Ace.
- b) Ace may terminate this Retailer Agreement and/or suspend services provided to Retailer under this Retailer Agreement, immediately without notice if any of the following events shall occur (each an “Event of Default”):

 - (ii) Retailer is placed on the Specially Designated Nationals list maintained by the U.S. Office of Foreign Assets Control;
 - (iii) Retailer is in material violation of Applicable Law or Card Organization Rules (other than a Data Compromise Event) and has not cured the violation, or taken all necessary steps to stop the violation if it is ongoing, within thirty (30) days following Servicers’ notice to Ace of such violation;
 - (iv) Irregular Card sales by Retailer, excessive Chargebacks, noncompliance with any applicable data security standards, as determined by Ace, any Card Organization, Servicers, or an actual or suspected data security breach, or any other circumstances which, in the discretion of Ace or Servicers, may increase the risk exposure of such parties or otherwise present a direct or indirect financial, security, or reputational risk to such parties; or
 - (v) Fraudulent activity by Retailer, or a violation by Retailer of any Applicable Law, or other actions specified by the Card Organizations giving rise to terminate a Retailer, including, but not limited to, a Retailer’s conduct that is deemed to be in violation of the applicable Card Organization Rules or designed to circumvent or obscure compliance with Card Organization Rules or this Retailer Agreement as determined by Ace, Servicers, or the applicable Card Organization.
- c) This Retailer Agreement will automatically and immediately terminate with respect to a particular Card Organization if Servicers are de-registered by such Card Organization, Servicer that is a Card Organization member ceases to be a member of such Card Organization, or if Servicers fail to have a valid license to use such Card Organization's Marks. In addition, Retailer agrees that Ace or Servicers may suspend services if continued provision of services under this Retailer Agreement would cause Ace or Servicers to be in material violation of Applicable Law or Card Organization Rules.

- d) Neither the expiration nor termination of this Retailer Agreement shall terminate the obligations and rights of the parties pursuant to provisions of this Retailer Agreement which by their terms are intended to survive or be perpetual or irrevocable. Such provisions shall survive the expiration or termination of this Retailer Agreement.
- e) The Card Organizations often maintain lists of merchants who have had their merchant agreements or Card acceptance rights terminated for cause. If this Retailer Agreement is terminated for cause, Retailer acknowledges that Ace may be required to report Retailer's business name and the names and other information regarding its principals to the Card Organizations or to Servicers for inclusion on such list(s). Retailer expressly agrees and consents to such reporting if it is terminated as a result of the occurrence of an Event of Default or for any reason specified as cause by a Card Organization. Furthermore, Retailer agrees to waive and hold Ace and Servicers harmless from and against any and all claims which Retailer may have as a result of such reporting.

10. Servicers.

- a) Retailer acknowledges and agrees that its relationship in connection with this Retailer Agreement is with Ace and not Servicers. Retailer shall seek no recourse against either Servicer, and Servicers shall have no obligation or liability whatsoever to Retailer under or in connection with this Retailer Agreement or services performed hereunder, including without limitation for any damages (direct, indirect or otherwise) arising out of this Retailer Agreement.
- b) Retailer agrees to indemnify and hold Ace and Servicers harmless from and against all losses, liabilities, damages and expenses arising out of or resulting from: (a) any breach of any warranty, covenant or agreement or any misrepresentation by Retailer under this Retailer Agreement; (b) Retailer's or its employees' or agents' acts, omissions, negligence or willful misconduct, in connection with Card transactions or otherwise arising from Retailer's provision of goods and services to Cardholders; (c) Retailer's use of the services or Retailer's failure to supply accurate information regarding the services provided hereunder; (d) Cardholder disputes and other Cardholder customer service issues relating to transactions submitted on behalf of Retailer; or (e) arising out of any third party indemnifications Ace or Servicers are obligated to make as a result of Retailer's actions (including indemnification of any Card Organization or Card issuer).

Each time a consumer makes a qualifying purchase at a participating store and presents their ACE REWARDS identification card (“Card”) or phone number, the Card will be electronically scanned (or their ID number looked up in the Ace Rewards Database (as defined below) and the consumer will accumulate points based on a schedule determined by Ace. Qualifying purchases will be determined by Ace. All point levels and rewards will be determined and awarded solely by Ace. Following each period in which a consumer has accumulated a certain minimum number of points (as determined by Ace), Ace will send that consumer a monetary reward offer, which the consumer may use at any participating Ace store. The content of the communications from Ace and the terms of any offers (including rewards) included in the communication will be determined solely by Ace. By participating in the Program, you hereby agree to honor all rewards presented at the Store by members. However, you do have the right, on a case by case basis, to adopt or not adopt Ace Rewards discounts on qualifying purchases identified by Ace, which may be communicated to you electronically through price file/hotsheet or other similar updates to your point-of-sale system (“POS System”). This Agreement will also terminate automatically if your Ace membership is terminated for any reason. In addition, for a period of six (6) months after the Agreement termination date, you agree to honor any rewards presented to you by consumers. Ace may, in its sole discretion, send a letter directly to such members to advise them that their Program accounts have been assigned to another participating Ace retailer.

From time to time Processor may make available certain developments, enhancements, improvements, and modifications, (collectively, "Enhancements"), including those required by Processor for the Program to remain compliant with law or the terms of Processor's agreement with Company, including data security and confidentiality obligations ("Mandatory Enhancements"). If Retailer elects to utilize an Enhancement, Retailer shall make any necessary modifications to the Card Authorization Equipment, including upgrading the Card Authorization Equipment to the most recent version of Processor's specifications. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Retailer must modify the Card Authorization Equipment as necessary to implement a Mandatory Enhancement within the time frame established by Processor or cease using the Card Authorization Equipment to access Processor's system until such Mandatory Enhancement has been implemented.

2.3. Card Sales, Activation, and Loadings. Retailer agrees to offer Cards for sale at the Retailer Participating Locations identified on the Agreement Cover Sheet. Retailer will use reasonable efforts to maintain an inventory of Cards adequate to meet anticipated demand. Retailer will purchase all Card inventory from Company. Retailer shall not activate any Card until purchased by a customer. Retailer shall not load any Card for a value in excess of the face value of the Card, if any. In no event will Retailer (i) load (or reload) any Card with a balance that exceeds $2,000 at any time, (ii) load (or reload) any Card for more than $2,000 in the aggregate during any calendar day, or (iii) sell Cards worth more than $10,000 to any person during any day. Retailer shall implement policies and procedures reasonably adapted to prevent a person from purchasing Cards with funds that exceed $10,000 during any day. Company may establish lower thresholds for Card sales and loading in the Program Procedures, in which event Retailer shall comply with such lower thresholds.

2.4. Card Redemption. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Program Procedures, Retailer agrees to accept Program Cards, including physical and virtual Cards (regardless of whether purchased at or distributed by an Ace Hardware retailer, third-party "gift card mall," on Company's website, bulk order B2B purchaser, or other Program location authorized by Company), for purchases at all Retailer Participating Locations. Retailer shall not honor any Card unless the Retailer has obtained Authorization for the transaction. Retailer shall contact Company immediately, and not honor a Card, if Retailer suspects fraudulent activity, including presentation of an altered, revoked, or counterfeit Card. Retailer will obtain payment from cardholder for any shortfall between the purchase price and the authorized redemption amount.

2.5. Fees. Retailer shall not charge any transaction, maintenance or other fee or surcharge to Card purchasers or cardholders in connection with a Card unless expressly required or authorized by the Program Procedures.

2.6. Settlement. Company, through Processor, will provide certain settlement services through ACH debits and credits to the designated accounts of Retailer and Company for the net value of amounts owed to or to be collected from each Party for Card transactions and other transfers contemplated by this Agreement. By way of example and not limitation, the Retailer Account(s) (as defined below) will be debited for the value of authorized Card activations at Retailer Participating Locations and credited for the value of authorized Card redemptions at Retailer Participating Locations. Company will make available to Retailer an online tool for reviewing settlement transactions reports. Retailer shall promptly review such reports and compare them to Retailer's records to identify any discrepancies or errors. If any discrepancies or errors are identified, Retailer shall notify Company of same within thirty (30) days of the availability of the applicable report.

2.7. Retailer Account and ACH Authorization. Retailer shall establish and maintain a designated deposit account(s) at a depository institution ("Retailer Account") for the settlement of Card transactions and any fees and charges described in this Agreement or the Program Procedures. Retailer shall maintain a sufficient balance in the Retailer Account to cover Retailer's settlement obligations and any applicable bank charges as they become due. Prior to participating in the Program, Retailer must complete and execute an ACH credit and debit authorization ("ACH Authorization") in the form required by Company and provide such other information as may be requested by Company or Processor. Retailer will keep its Retailer Account information and other requested information current and updated at all times. Company, Processor, their Affiliates, and services providers will have no liability for ACH debits and credits made pursuant to this Agreement, the Program Procedures, or the ACH Authorization form on file with Company. The ACH Authorization shall remain in effect unless and until revoked by Retailer in accordance with the terms of the ACH Authorization. If the Retailer Account is terminated or Retailer desires to change the designated account, Retailer agrees to immediately notify company and complete a new ACH Authorization form.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Retailer shall be liable for any fines levied against Company, Processor or their Affiliates or service providers for any violation of the rules and regulations of the National Automated Clearing House Association (the “NACHA Rules”) by Retailer. For purposes of this Agreement, “Affiliate” means, with respect to either Party, a legal entity which directly or indirectly owns, controls, is owned by, controlled by, or is under common ownership or control with a Party.

2.8. Compliance. Retailer shall strictly comply with (i) Company’s then-current Program Procedures; (ii) all federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations and any official interpretation thereof relating to the Cards, the Program, the Parties, or the subject matter of this Agreement (“Applicable Law”); and (iii) the then-current NACHA Rules.

2.9. Errors. Retailer shall be solely responsible and liable for the acts and omissions of Retailer and its employees, including any clerical or keying errors.

2.10. Cardholder Disputes. Retailer shall refer any cardholder questions or disputes regarding Cards, Card balances or the Card Program to Company’s toll-free customer care telephone number. Retailer shall be solely responsible and liable for any customer or cardholder disputes related to merchandise or services purchased using a Card.

2.11. Training. Retailer shall ensure that its in-store employees are trained and knowledgeable regarding the Card Program and the sale, redemption and use of Cards.

3. Charges. Retailer shall pay Company the following amounts:

3.1. Card Inventory. Physical Cards ordered by Retailer from the Ace warehouse will be billed at the then-current prices displayed on ACENET. Card inventory charges will appear on Retailer’s monthly statement, and shall be paid by Retailer in the same manner as other inventory ordered by Retailer.

3.2. Fees. Company currently does not assess transaction fees in connection with the Program; provided, that Company, in its sole discretion, may elect to charge Retailer transaction fees or such other fees and charges as may be established from time to time in the Program Procedures.

4. Confidentiality.

4.1. Use of Confidential Information. Retailer will not disclose Confidential Information (as defined below) to any third party and will use Confidential Information only to exercise Retailer’s rights and to perform Retailer’s obligations hereunder, provided that Retailer may disclose Confidential Information (i) as required by Applicable Law; (ii) to Retailer’s auditors and lawyers (internal and external) and regulators having jurisdiction over Retailer (and to the extent requested by such regulators); and (iii) to third parties, including suppliers and POS vendors, if any, to the extent necessary to enable Retailer’s performance of its obligations or exercise of its rights under this Agreement, provided that such third parties are under obligation to treat such Confidential Information with at least the same degree of care as required of Retailer. Retailer will safeguard Confidential Information using a reasonable degree of care, but not less than that degree of care used by it in safeguarding its own similar information or material. Any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information by any entity to whom Retailer disclosed Confidential Information as permitted under this Agreement, shall be deemed an unauthorized use or disclosure by Retailer.

4.2. Exclusions. The obligations of confidentiality and restrictions on use in this Section 4 will not apply to any Confidential Information that: (i) was in the public domain prior to the date of this Agreement or subsequently came into the public domain through no fault of Retailer; (ii) was received from a third party free of any obligation of confidence of the Retailer to the third party and which third party, to Retailer’s knowledge, was not under an obligation to keep the information confidential; (iii) was already in Retailer’s possession prior to receipt from Company or Processor; (iv) is subsequently and independently developed by Retailer without use of or reference to the Confidential Information; or (v) Company agrees in writing may be disclosed.

4.3. Legal Compulsion. If Retailer is required to disclose Confidential Information pursuant to Applicable Law, subpoena, court order or other legal process, Retailer agrees to give Company reasonable advance notice (unless prohibited by law) so that Company may contest the disclosure or seek a protective order. In the absence of a protective order, Retailer (a) will disclose only such part of the Confidential Information as Retailer is advised by its counsel is legally required to be disclosed, and (b) will use reasonable efforts to obtain other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to such Confidential Information.

4.4. Breach. Retailer acknowledges that breach of the restrictions on use or disclosure of the Confidential Information would result in immediate and irreparable harm to Company and money damages would be inadequate to compensate for that harm. In such event, Company will be entitled to seek equitable relief, in addition to all other available remedies, to redress any breach.

4.5. Rights in Confidential Information. Except as specifically provided for herein, (i) this Agreement does not confer any right, license, interest or title in, to or under the Confidential Information to Retailer, and (ii) no license to Confidential Information is granted to Retailer, by estoppel or otherwise, under any patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret or other intellectual property or proprietary rights of Company or Processor. Title to the Confidential Information will remain solely with the Company or Processor, as applicable.

4.6. Destruction. Upon Company’s request, Retailer will use reasonable efforts to collect and surrender (or confirm the destruction or non-recoverable data erasure of computerized data) all Confidential Information, except as may be required to be kept in accordance with Applicable Law.

4.7. Definition. For purposes of this Agreement, “Confidential Information” means any information obtained by Retailer regarding Company, its service providers, or their Affiliates that is designated confidential or proprietary or that Retailer knows or reasonably should know to be confidential or proprietary. Confidential Information will also include strategic business information and capabilities; financial information; pricing related to products and services; and information or specifications related to systems, processes, products, or services. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Retailer acknowledges and agrees that any Processor specifications and Enhancements, including Mandatory Enhancements, provided to Retailer are and shall remain the Confidential Information and property of Processor.

5. Term and Termination.

5.1. Term. The term of this Agreement shall commence upon execution by both Parties. This Agreement shall remain in effect until terminated as permitted herein.

5.2. Termination for Cause. Either Party has the right to terminate this Agreement (i) immediately upon notice (i) in the event that the other Party materially breaches this Agreement, and such breach remains uncured thirty (30) days following receipt of notice thereof; or (ii) immediately without notice (a) in the event the other Party suffers the appointment of a receivership of its assets, goes into bankruptcy, liquidation, or receivership, voluntarily or involuntarily, or otherwise takes advantage of any insolvency laws, (b) upon any involuntary sale, transfer, or other disposition of substantially all of the assets of the other Party, or (c) if the other Party ceases to conduct business operations generally (except for permitted assignments pursuant to Section 9.1 of this Agreement). In addition, Company may terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice to Retailer if Retailer fails to implement a Mandatory Enhancement within the time frame required by Processor.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

5.3. Change in Retailer Status. This Agreement shall terminate automatically without notice if at any time the membership agreement between Retailer and Ace Hardware Corporation expires or is terminated or Retailer ceases to be an Ace Hardware retailer.

5.4. Termination for Convenience. Either Party may terminate this Agreement without cause upon thirty (30) days' notice to the other Party.

5.5. Program Cancellation. Company, in its sole discretion, may cancel the Program at any time for any reason. If Company cancels the Program, this Agreement shall terminate automatically upon the effective date of cancellation.

5.6. Suspension and Revocation. In addition to the rights of Company to terminate this Agreement as set forth herein, Company may immediately suspend Retailer's participation in the Program and Processor may immediately suspend the provision of Processor's services in connection with Retailer if (i) Retailer experiences a security incident in connection with the Program, including unauthorized access to any systems, equipment, Confidential Information, personal data, or personally identifiable information (a "Retailer Security Incident"), (ii) Retailer experiences irregular Card processing activities, including reasonable suspicion of fraud, (iii) Retailer materially violates this Agreement, the Program Procedures or Applicable Law, (iv) Retailer is placed on the lists of prohibited persons and prohibited countries maintained by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the US Department of the Treasury, or (v) continued participation by Retailer in the Program would cause Company or Processor to be in material violation of law or otherwise give rise to material risk to Company or Processor. If, after reasonable investigation, Company or Processor determines that permanent revocation Retailer's participation in the Program is warranted, Company may terminate this Agreement effective immediately upon notice to Retailer.

5.7. Effect of Termination. Upon the effective date of suspension or termination, Retailer shall cease all activity with respect to the Program, including the sale, activation, loading, reloading, and redemption of Cards, and any marketing related to or referencing the Program.

5.8. Survival. The following provisions shall survive termination of this Agreement: Sections 2.7 and Article 3 (with respect to any amounts accruing prior to termination), Section 2.10, Article 4, Section 5.7, Section 5.8, Article 6, Article 7, Article 8 and Article 9.

6. Disclaimer of Warranties; Limitation of Liability.

6.1. Disclaimer of Warranties. THE PROGRAM AND ANY SERVICES AND/OR PRODUCTS PROVIDED TO RETAILER IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROGRAM ARE PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" "AS AVAILABLE" BASIS. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, COMPANY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, OBLIGATIONS, AND LIABILITIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR ARISING BY LAW OR OTHERWISE, WITH RESPECT TO THE PROGRAM AND ANY SERVICES AND/OR PRODUCTS PROVIDED TO RETAILER IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROGRAM, INCLUDING ANY: (i) IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE; (ii) IMPLIED WARRANTY ARISING FROM COURSE OF PERFORMANCE, COURSE OF DEALING OR USAGE OF TRADE; AND/OR (iii) IMPLIED WARRANTY OF NON-INFRINGEMENT. COMPANY DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE PROGRAM WILL MEET RETAILER'S REQUIREMENTS OR THAT THE PROGRAM WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE.

6.2. Exclusion. IN NO EVENT WILL COMPANY BE LIABLE TO RETAILER UNDER ANY THEORY OF TORT, CONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHER LEGAL THEORY FOR LOST PROFITS, LOST REVENUES, LOST BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES, OR EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, EACH OF WHICH IS HEREBY EXCLUDED BY AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER SUCH DAMAGES WERE FORESEEABLE OR WHETHER ANY PARTY OR ANY ENTITY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

7. Indemnification.

7.1. Indemnity. Retailer shall defend, indemnify and hold Company, its Affiliates, and each of their employees, directors, officers, agents, and representatives (the "Indemnified Parties") harmless from and against any Claims brought against the Indemnified Parties, and all related Losses arising from (i) Retailer's breach of any provision of this Agreement; (ii) any act or omission of Retailer in connection with this Agreement or the Program; (iii) Retailer's fraud, negligence, or willful misconduct; (iv) Retailer's violation of Applicable Law; (v) a Retailer Security Incident; and (vi) the sale of any merchandise (other than physical Cards) or services by Retailer to a cardholder or any other person or any representation made in connection with such sale. For purposes of this Agreement, "Claim" means any third party claim, demand, suit, action, cause of action, or proceeding of any form, kind or nature (including contract claims and negligence and other tort claims) and "Losses" means any liability, obligation, loss, damage, judgment, settlement, cost, and expense of any kind or nature (including reasonable attorneys' fees, expert witness fees and collection costs), regardless of whether suit is brought, and any assessment, fee, or fine imposed by any regulatory body.

7.2. Procedure. Retailer shall obtain the written consent of Company, which Company will not unreasonably withhold, prior to (i) choosing counsel to defend the Claim and (ii) settling or otherwise disposing of a Claim. Company will cooperate with Retailer, at Retailer's expense, in the defense and settlement of the Claim, as Retailer may reasonably request. Company shall have the right to participate in the defense thereof with counsel of its choosing at its own expense. If Retailer is not adequately and promptly defending the Claim, or if there is a conflict of interest between Retailer and Company, Company shall, after reasonable notice and opportunity for Retailer to cure such condition, have the right to assume the defense with counsel of its own choosing at the expense of Retailer.

8. Dispute Resolution.

8.1. Arbitration. The Parties agree that any and all disputes or Claims that have arisen or may arise between them in connection with the Program or this Agreement shall be resolved exclusively through confidential, final, and binding arbitration; provided that either Party may file suit in court seeking to enjoin infringement, misappropriation or misuse of its intellectual property rights. RETAILER IS GIVING UP THE RIGHT TO LITIGATE A DISPUTE IN COURT BEFORE A JUDGE OR JURY. The arbitration will be conducted by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") under its rules and procedures applicable to commercial disputes, as modified by this Agreement. The arbitration shall be held in DuPage County, Illinois or at another mutually agreed location. If the value of the relief sought is $10,000 or less, either Party may elect to have the arbitration conducted by telephone or based solely on written submissions, which election shall be binding on the other Party, subject to the arbitrator's discretion to require an in-person hearing if the circumstances warrant. Attendance at an in-person hearing may be made by telephone, unless the arbitrator requires otherwise. The arbitrator will decide the substance of all Claims in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois, including recognized principles of equity, and will honor all claims of privilege recognized by law. The arbitrator's award shall be confidential, final, and binding, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Payment of all filing, administration, and arbitrator fees will be governed by the AAA's rules.

8.2. Prohibition of Class Actions. A Party may bring Claims against the other Party only on an individual basis and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative action or proceeding. Unless both Parties agree otherwise, the arbitrator may not consolidate or join more than one person's or party's claims and may not otherwise preside over any form of a consolidated, representative, or class proceeding. Also, the arbitrator may award relief (including monetary, injunctive, and declaratory relief) only in favor of the individual Party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to provide relief necessitated by that Party's individual Claim(s). Retailer acknowledges that RETAILER IS GIVING UP THE RIGHT TO COMMENCE OR PARTICIPATE IN CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTIONS.

8.3. Time Limitation. Retailer may not assert any Claim against Company under this Agreement or in connection with the Program that was or reasonably should have been discovered by Retailer more than one year prior to the filing of a suit or the commencement of arbitration proceedings alleging such Claim.

9. Miscellaneous.

9.1. Assignment. Retailer shall not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of Company, which Company may grant, withhold or condition in its sole discretion. Company expressly reserves the right to assign this Agreement and all of its rights, privileges, and obligations to any other person or entity and this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of any such transferee or other legal successor to the interest of the Company herein. Any assignment in violation of this provision shall be void.

9.2. Status of Other Agreements. The Ace Retailer Acceptance Agreement (“Acceptance Agreement”) between Ace Hardware Corporation and Retailer, if any, shall not apply to the Program, including any Card transactions or settlement services related to the Program. For clarity, the Acceptance Agreement shall continue to govern transactions made under the Ace Hardware gift card program in effect at the time the Acceptance Agreement was executed (the “Prior Program”), including the settlement of Prior Program transactions even if such settlement occurs after the Program Start Date. Except as expressly provided herein, nothing in this Agreement is intended to limit, reduce, terminate, amend, or modify any obligations Retailer may have pursuant to any other agreement between Retailer and Ace Hardware Corporation or any Company Affiliate.

9.3. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois, regardless of any conflict of law rules. For any Claim not subject to arbitration, the Parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located in the State of Illinois.

9.4. Relationship of Parties. The relationship between Company and Retailer established by this Agreement shall at all time and for all purposes be deemed to be one between separate and totally independent parties. No legally recognized partnership, joint venture, agency, or similar relationship is hereby created in any respect.

9.5. Notice. Except as otherwise provided herein, all notices which either Party is required or may desire to give the other Party hereunder shall be sufficiently given if delivered in person, by registered or certified mail (return receipt requested), postage prepaid, or by prepaid overnight courier, addressed to the receiving party as follows: if to Retailer, to the then-current address of record for Retailer as maintained in Company's (or Company's Affiliates) files and if to Company to Ace Incentives, Inc., Attention: General Counsel, Marketing Operations Manager, 2200 Kensington Court, Oak Brook, IL 60523, or to such other address as shall be furnished in writing and in the manner set forth above by either Party; provided, that a copy of any notice to Company, which shall not alone constitute notice but which must be delivered in order to constitute notice, shall be delivered to: Ace Incentives, Inc., Attention: General Counsel, 2200 Kensington Court, Oak Brook, IL 60523. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Company may provide notice to retailers participating in the Program, including Retailer, by posting the notice on ACENET.

9.6. Complete Agreement; Modification. This Agreement is the complete and exclusive understanding of the Parties with respect to its subject matter. This Agreement may be modified only in a writing signed by the Parties hereto.

9.7. Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement shall be found to be void or contrary to law, such term shall, to the extent necessary to bring this Agreement within the requirements of law, be severed from this Agreement, and shall not invalidate any other provision, or part thereof, and it shall be replaced by a provision that comes closest to such severed provision, or part thereof, in language and intent.

9.8. Waiver. Any failure on the part of either Party to insist upon the performance of this Agreement or any part thereof shall not constitute a waiver of any right under this Agreement.

9.9. Interpretation. Each definition in this Agreement includes the singular and plural. The word “including” means “including, but not limited to”. The headings and captions of this Agreement are included merely for convenience of reference. They are not to be considered part of, or to be used in interpreting, this Agreement and in no way limit or affect any of the contents of this Agreement or its provisions.

STORE PLANNING AGREEMENT

This Store Planning Agreement ("Agreement"), is made as of _____, between Ace Hardware Corporation, a Delaware Corporation, with its principal place of business at 2915 Jorie Blvd, Oak Brook, Illinois 60523 ("Ace") and _____, with its principal place of business at _____ ("Retailer"), sets forth the terms and conditions under which Ace agrees to perform the services contained herein.

1. THE SERVICES, ACE RESPONSIBILITIES.

- a) The services selected by Retailer and other basic project information shall be set forth on Exhibit A – Scope, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
- b) When Retailer selects the Full-Service Package on Exhibit A, Ace shall provide a professional detailed plan ("Plan") for Retailer's new or existing store using Ace best practices. Such Plan shall consist of the following: a floor plan, a fixture plan, merchandise plan, décor plan, electrical and data Plan, and a lighting plan. Ace utilizes AutoCAD and JDA Floor Planning software to design the store by analyzing total space available and creating a functional floor layout that optimizes and maximizes floor space, utilizes recommended fixtures, counters and planograms. When Retailer selects any package other than the Full-Service Package, the plans provided shall be as described under the option Retailer selects.
- c) The Plan will be completed by one or more Ace store planners ("Store Planner"). All Ace Store Planners have accredited design degrees and maintain certifications and training as needed by industry design standards.
- d) The Plan or Plans that are provided to the Retailer:
 - i. Shall meet minimum standards set forth by the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA").
 - ii. May be used or modified at the Retailer's discretion.
 - iii. Are not a substitute for Retailer's use of architectural, engineering, legal or other services.
 - iv. Do not constitute a warranty or representation by Ace that Retailer's use of the same will result in any specific financial performance of Retailer's store.
 - v. Are not warranted to be compliant with any laws outside of the United States.
- e) Ace contracts with third-party measuring/survey vendors to complete an As-Built AutoCad plan of the existing retail store layout. This includes placement of structural and non-structural building attributes, existing fixture layout and dimensions, and any other information required for the Store Planner to provide a new Plan.
 - i. In the event the Retailer selects any option other than the Full-Service Package, Retailer must have an existing As-Built AutoCAD plan on file no older than three (3) years from the effective date of this Agreement. Retailer must acknowledge in writing that the Retailer's existing As-Built AutoCad plan on file is an accurate reflection of Retailer's store location as of the effective date of this Agreement.
 - ii. If an architectural file is used for a new store location, Retailer must validate and expressly consent to the use of said file in writing. Any changes that are not reflected in the architectural file and any additional efforts required to adjust the Plan after it is finalized, are the sole responsibility of the Retailer.

- f) Any building additions or Retailer requests for the As-Built survey must be requested in writing prior to executing this Agreement.
- g) In the event that changes or building improvements are made to a retail store location after the use of an architectural file, the Retailer may request measuring services upon completion of said building improvements. No additional fees will be incurred as a result of this request.
- h) The timeframe of which the third-party vendor measures the store is dependent upon existing lead times and cannot be guaranteed by Ace.
- i) When possible, the Store Planner will also provide data analytics using category management best practices and space productivity analysis.
- j) The Plan will be provided to the Ace Project Management team to order necessary fixtures and components to set up the store during the execution phase of the project. Retailer must enter into a separate agreement for store set up, as provided by the Ace Project Management team.
- k) If the Retailer chooses to engage in any optional Ace Professional Retail Services programs that are available as part of a new store or store renovation project, Retailer will check the box indicating so on Exhibit A. Retailer will be contacted separately by the Ace Professional Retail Services team for that engagement. Location codes will be uploaded for any Professional Retail Services upon the time of project execution.

2. RETAILER RESPONSIBILITIES.

- a) Retailer shall obtain all building, zoning and related permits and ensure the store complies with all applicable federal, state and local laws and ordinances, including but not limited to the ADA.
- b) Retailer must allow access for the Ace designated third-party measuring/survey vendor to conduct measuring services at the retail location. The coordination of such efforts is on the advice of but not within the sole discretion of the Ace Store Planning Team.
- c) Prior to the arrival of the third-party measuring/survey vendor, Retailer must ensure that there is a clean pathway throughout the store for measurements to be taken and that there is clear and safe access to count and measure any fixtures required.
- d) Retailer shall designate a point of contact for the duration of the project ("Retailer Contact"). The Retailer Contact shall be available to communicate with the Store Planner as needed, including for a once per week for a virtual meeting with the Store Planner to review each phase of the planning process. Feedback will be provided from the Retailer Contact to the Store Planner and changes will be made both during and after the virtual meetings. Retailer acknowledges that Retailer Contact's failure to communicate or otherwise meet with Store Planner may result in delays. Any additional costs incurred as a result of such delays shall be the sole responsibility of the Retailer.
- e) The Plan will be finalized thirty-five (35) days prior to the store set up project start date. This allows for adequate time for Project Management team to review and place orders approved by Retailer. Plans will not be changed if the set up project start date is delayed less than three (3) months from the original planned start date. In the event that the set up project start date is delayed more than three (3) months from the initial date due to the acts or omissions of the Retailer, additional fees may be incurred to re-finalize plans. Any such additional fees shall be the responsibility of the Retailer.

- f) New Construction & Site Readiness Conditions. If the store Plan is for new construction, the Retailer must provide Ace with the following, in accordance with requirements set forth by the governing local authority:
- i. Certificate of Occupancy: a Temporary or Permanent Certificate of Occupancy issued by the local authority having jurisdiction, confirming that the space is legally permitted for occupancy and activity.
 1. Retailer shall notify Ace that a Certificate of Occupancy is required at least 90 days prior to project start date.
 2. The Ace Project Manager will be validating status of the Certificate of Occupancy at 45 days prior to project start date, either in-person or virtually.
 3. At 35 days prior to start date, the Certificate of Occupancy must be filed or otherwise presented with the Ace Project Manager for plans to be finalized in accordance with section 2(e) above and to secure said project start date.
 - ii. Functioning HVAC System: HVAC must be operational and capable of maintaining a stable climate suitable for labor and the protection of materials.
 - iii. Active Utilities: all core utilities – including but not limited to, electricity, water and internet/data connectivity (if applicable) – must be fully active, tested and available throughout the workspace.
 - iv. Site Access: Unrestricted access must be provided to the store premises, including interior work areas, delivery zones, parking lots and storage areas. Loading docks must be accessible for equipment and materials.
 - v. Environmental Readiness: the interior must be broom-clean, dry and free of construction debris, hazardous materials or unsafe conditions that may impede work or violate safety standards.
 - vi. Life Safety Systems: fire alarms, emergency lighting, sprinkler systems, and other life safety systems must be installed and tested, or temporarily occupational, in compliance with local code.
 - vii. Permits and Inspections: all required municipal permits must be obtained and posted. Any preliminary inspections necessary to begin interior work must be completed and documented. Ace reserves the right to request copies of and/or access to any said permits or inspections.
 - viii. General Contractor Release (if applicable): if a third-party General Contractor is managing site construction, a formal turnover notice or sign-off must be provided, indicating the space is ready for Ace's contractual labor team to begin installation or set-up activities.

3. PAYMENT.

- a) The Store Planning fee will be invoiced in 26 equal payments for remodels or one lump sum for a new store for Ace domestic Retailers. For Retailers located outside of the United States, the fee shall be invoiced as one lump sum.
- b) Additional fees from third party measuring/survey services will be included in this invoice amount.
- c) Retailer will be billed upon completion of the on-site measuring/survey. In the event that Retailer chooses to forgo measuring/survey services, Retailer will be billed when store planning begins with the Project Kick-Off call.
- d) Additional Charges.
 - i. The fee includes up to three (3) major revisions to each phase of the plan (Fixture, Merchandise or Décor). Any additional revisions may result in additional charges of $750 per revision. Retailer will receive notice prior to incurring said charges.

- ii. Any increase in fees incurred by the third-party measurement/survey vendor will be passed on to the Retailer at Ace's discretion.
 - iii. If plans need to be re-finalized under section 2d above or otherwise changed beyond the three (3) revisions covered in 3(d)(i), the Retailer will be charged an additional $750 fee to complete changes and re-finalization.
- e) If a store signs the Agreement without an active store number, the fees will be held until there is an active store number. In the event that the project cancels or a store number is not otherwise activated within 6 months of signing the Agreement, the parent store will be billed the full amount of the Agreement.
- f) Site Readiness Delay: If the Retailer fails to meet the Site Readiness Conditions outlined in section 2(f) above, and no written notice has been communicated at least 35 calendar days prior to scheduled project start date, the Retailer may be charged liquidated damages in the amount of $5,000 per calendar day of delay, commencing on the first day following the missed project start date and continuing until all Site Readiness Conditions have been met. This amount represents a reasonable estimate of the costs and losses anticipated due to idle resources, rescheduling and remobilization costs and other project inefficiencies. The parties further acknowledge that due to scheduling constraints, a missed site readiness date may require rescheduling to the next available window, which could result in the project being pushed out by several weeks or months.
- g) Professional Retail Services
- i. If Retailer selects Professional Retail Services by checking the box on Exhibit A, Retailer shall be billed separately for those services following the initial Kick-Off call with the District Manager, Project Manager, Professional Retail Services Consultant and Retailer.

4. DURATION. The Agreement shall remain in effect from one year of the date of signing. Ace reserves the right to request Retailer enter into a new Agreement upon the expiration of this one-year term. Any additional fees that will be charged with the new Agreement will be charged at the discretion of the Store Planner.
5. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any previous understandings, agreements, practices or customs between the parties. Any and all modifications, amendments, or waivers of any provisions of or to this agreement must be in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the parties.
6. GOVERNING LAW: This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of Illinois is, without regard to its conflict of laws and principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement on the date first set forth above.

STORE DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT
(TIER 1-3 Multi-Unit Capital Stock Financing Program)

THIS STORE DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made and entered into as of _____, 20____ ("Effective Date") by and between ACE HARDWARE CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation ("Ace"), and _____, a _____ organized in the state of _____ ("Retailer").

Recitals

- A. Retailer directly or indirectly owns and operates a total of _____ (_____) Ace-affiliated (i.e., Ace branded or individually branded) retail hardware stores (each, an "Existing Ace Store") in _____.
- B. Retailer is or shall become the borrower, and Ace is or shall become the lender, under a Multi-Unit Capital Stock Financing Program Loan Agreement and agreements related thereto (collectively, "Loan Documents") and executed concurrently herewith or subsequent to this Agreement and delivered by Retailer to Ace pursuant to Ace's Multi-Unit Capital Stock Financing Program ("Program").
- C. As a condition to Ace making any loan to Retailer under the Program, Ace requires that Retailer execute and deliver this Agreement to Ace.

THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by each party, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Requirement to Open Additional Ace Stores; Ace Higher Ground Commitment

(a) Subject to all terms and conditions stated herein and in the Loan Documents, Retailer shall open, in the United States, two (2) ("Required Quota") Ace-affiliated retail hardware stores (each, an "Additional Ace Store") within the sixty (60)-month period that commences on the Effective Date (such sixty-month period defined herein as the "Mandated Period"), and thereafter own and operate each such Additional Ace Store.

(b) Subject to Ace's written consent, Retailer may designate an affiliated entity that is controlled by, or under common control with, Retailer (each a "Retailer's Designee") to open and thereafter own and operate each Additional Ace Store, provided, however, that Retailer's Designee(s) shall be, or become, a borrower under the Loan Documents for the Program and also a borrower, co-borrower or guarantor, as the case may be, under any and all loan documents for any other then-outstanding loan agreements with Ace under which Retailer is a borrower, co-borrower or guarantor.

(c) Retailer shall execute and commit to Ace's Higher Ground Visionary Commitment.

2. Development Fee.

(a) The fee ("Development Fee") is Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for each Additional Ace Store.

(b) Concurrently with Retailer's execution and delivery of this Agreement, Retailer has paid Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) to Ace in full payment of the total Development Fee for the Required Quota of Additional Ace Stores (i.e., $5,000 for each Additional Ace Store).

(c) The Development Fee is non-refundable.

(d) Each time Retailer or Retailer's Designee applies to open an Additional Ace Store within the Mandated Period, Ace will deduct Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) from the amount of Ace's then-current membership application fee otherwise payable to Ace. Ace and Retailer acknowledge that as of the date hereof, Ace's per-store membership application fee is $5,000 and, thus, unless and until Ace increases said fee, the Development Fee shall fully offset Ace's membership application fee for each Additional Ace Store.

3. Application Process: Conversion Stores Included.

(a) For each Additional Ace Store that Retailer is required hereunder to open, Retailer shall execute and deliver to Ace all membership, brand, stock subscription and other agreements and instruments, and shall submit all pro forma and other financial and other information as Ace shall require, consistent with Ace's then-standard protocols for new store applications. Ace shall not be obligated to approve any Additional Ace Store if

(i) the proposed Additional Ace store does not satisfy Ace's then-applicable financial, site and other criteria for new Ace-branded stores or (ii) Retailer or any of Retailer's affiliates is past due or otherwise not in full compliance with all of its obligations under each of its various agreements with Ace and its affiliates, including but not limited all representations, warranties and covenants applicable to Retailer or Retailer's affiliates pursuant to the Loan Documents . In addition, in connection with each Membership Application submitted for any Additional Ace Store, Ace reserves the right to review the financial and/or operational performance of any Existing Ace Store and/or Additional Ace Store already owned and operated by Retailer and its affiliates and to decline to approve any Additional Ace Store if the performance of the reviewed store(s) is not satisfactory to Ace in Ace's sole discretion. Ace's refusal to approve any membership application for an Additional Ace Store shall not relieve Retailer of its obligation to establish in accordance with this Agreement and, thereafter to own and operate, the Required Quota of Additional Ace Stores.

(b) If Retailer or an affiliate shall purchase and convert any existing retail hardware store to Ace membership as an Ace-affiliated store, such store so converted shall be deemed an Additional Ace Store (i.e., it shall be counted toward satisfaction of the Required Quota of Additional Ace Stores that Retailer is obligated hereunder to open during the Mandated Period).

4. Events of Default: Ace's Remedies.

4.1. Events of Default. Any of the following constitutes an Event of Default hereunder:

(a) Retailer fails to open the Required Quota of Additional Ace Stores prior to the expiration of the Mandated Period.

(b) At any time a balance exists under the Loan Documents for any Additional Ace Store, such Additional Ace Store's Ace membership is terminated (for any reason) or such Additional Ace Store is closed (unless it is relocated with Ace's consent).

(c) Retailer breaches or otherwise fails to fully comply fully with the non-compete covenant contained in Section 6 herein.

4.2. Ace's Remedies.

(a) If an Event of Default occurs under Section 4.1(a) above, Ace shall be entitled to exercise any or all of the following remedies:

i. enforcement of the non-compete provision in Section 6; and/or
ii. treat such Event of Default as a default under the Loan Documents, provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing remedies, Ace shall not terminate the membership of any Existing Store or Additional Ace Store solely as result of any failure by Retailer to open in accordance with this Agreement, and thereafter own and operate, the Required Quota of Additional Ace Stores.

(b) If an Event of Default occurs under Sections 4.1(b) or (c) above, Ace shall, in addition to the rights and remedies specified in Section 4.2(a) above, be entitled to immediately accelerate Retailer's obligation to pay all then outstanding principal and interest due under the Loan Documents, whether or not such amounts would, in the absence of such Event of Default hereunder, then be due and payable.

5. Assignment. This Agreement is fully assignable by Ace and shall inure to the benefit of any assignee or other legal successor to the interest of Ace. This Agreement and the rights granted to Retailer hereunder are personal to Retailer and neither this Agreement, nor any of the rights granted to Retailer hereunder, may be voluntarily or involuntarily, directly or indirectly, by operation of law or otherwise, assigned or otherwise transferred or encumbered by Retailer. Retailer's Designee(s) is (are) not and shall not be deemed a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement.

6. Retailer's Covenant Not to Compete.

(a) During the pendency of this Agreement, and for one year thereafter, except as otherwise approved in writing by Ace (which approval Ace may grant, withhold or condition in Ace's sole discretion) Retailer shall not, and shall cause Retailer's affiliates to not, directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person or entity, own, maintain, engage in or have any interest in any non-Ace- affiliated business located in the United States which sells hardware, housewares, paint, and/or lawn and garden furniture and the like.

(b) Retailer expressly agrees that the existence of any claim it may have against Ace, whether or not arising from this Agreement or any other agreement between Ace and Retailer, or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to Ace's enforcement of the covenant contained in Section 6(a).

(c) Retailer acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Section 6 will cause Ace irreparable injury for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and, notwithstanding the arbitration provision contained in Section 9 below, Retailer hereby accordingly consents to the issuance of an injunction prohibiting any conduct by Retailer in violation of the terms of this Section 6. Ace may also avail itself of any other legal or equitable rights and remedies which it may have under this Agreement or otherwise.

7. Waiver of Provisions. Failure of either party to insist, in one or more instances, on performance by the other in strict accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver or relinquishment of any right granted hereunder or of the future performance of any such other term or condition of this Agreement, unless such waiver is in a writing signed by or on behalf of both parties.
8. Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted hereunder shall be deemed sufficiently given if personally delivered, mailed or sent by overnight courier to the address specified on Exhibit A. Any party may change its mailing address by giving notice to the other party in the manner herein provided.
9. Governing Law; Dispute Resolution. This Agreement is executed and delivered in, and shall be governed, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of, the State of Illinois, without regard to its conflicts of law rules. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, shall be settled by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.
10. Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the preamble and recitals set forth above and all exhibits attached hereto, each of the foregoing of which by this reference is hereby incorporated herein) contains the sole and entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the matters contained herein and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous discussions and agreements between the parties, either oral or written, and any such prior or contemporaneous agreements shall, from and after the date hereof, be null and void.
11. Modification and Amendment. This Agreement shall not be modified or amended except by an instrument in writing signed by or on behalf of the parties hereto.
12. Ace Consents and Approvals. With respect to every instance in this Agreement which references Ace's consent or approval, Retailer expressly acknowledges and agrees that Ace may grant, withhold or condition such consent or approval as Ace in its sole discretion shall determine.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the undersigned by its respective duly authorized representatives has executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

(b) Upon satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3.2 hereof, and subject to the representations, warranties, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, the Lender agrees to make, on the applicable Closing Date, an additional Loan in the applicable Loan Amount to the Borrower with respect to each additional Relevant Store Location opened by Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the Development Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Lender will have no obligation to make any additional Loans or advances after the termination or expiration of the five (5) year term of the Development Agreement.

(c) The Lender may, in its sole and absolute discretion, make any Loan to the Borrower in the form of one or more advances for credit against statements for good and services provided by the Lender to the Borrower with respect to the Relevant Store Location with respect to which the Loan is made, as and when such statements are generated by the Lender.

2.2 Prepayments. The Borrower may, at any time or from time to time voluntarily prepay the Loans in whole or in part without premium or penalty; provided that any prepayment shall be in a principal amount of $5,000.00 or a whole multiple of $5,000.00 in excess thereof or, if less, the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding. Any prepayment of the Loans shall be accompanied by all accrued interest on the amount prepaid, together with any other amount then due under the Loan Documents with respect to any Loan. Any prepayment in respect of a Loan shall be applied to the remaining scheduled principal installments in respect of the Loan in inverse order of maturity (i.e, first applied to amounts due on the Maturity Date until reduced to zero).

2.3 Repayment of Loans. Each Loan shall be repaid as follows:

(a) Commencing with the first Payment Date occurring after the applicable Closing Date, the Borrower shall make amortizing principal repayments of the Loan on the basis of a level payment amortization schedule (i.e., each level payment will consist in part of interest and in part of principal) determined by the Lender based on a term of 10 years and on the interest chargeable from time to time in respect of the Loan as provided in Section 2.4 below.

(b) The Lender shall notify the Borrower of the initial amount of the level payment referred to in clause (a) above prior to the Payment Date referred to in clause (a) above and the Lender shall notify the Borrower from time to time of any changes in the amount of the level payment (and any corresponding changes in the amortization schedule with respect to the principal amount of the Loan) resulting from changes in the interest rate chargeable under Section 2.4 or from changes in the Base Rate (it being understood that a failure or delay by the Lender to notify the Borrower of changes in the level amount due and payable with respect to a Payment Date or successive Payment Dates shall not affect the principal or interest actually owed or owing in respect of the Loan.)

(c) The first nine (9) annual amortizing installments of principal and interest on each Loan will be due and payable as follows:

(i) If Borrower is eligible to make all or any portion of such payment by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the applicable Payment Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower may elect to have the payment billed and paid in the manner set forth in subsection (ii) below, if it notifies Lender in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the Payment Date of its intent to make payment in cash.

(ii) To the extent all or any portion of such payment may not or will not be paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends pursuant to subsection (i), Lender will bill the amount of such payment on the bi-weekly billing statement submitted by Lender to Borrower for merchandise and services purchased by Borrower from Lender during the period including the applicable Payment Date, and such payment shall be due and payable on the due date then applicable to the billing statement on which such payment is billed and shall be paid to the Lender in the manner applicable to such billing statement, or in such other manner as may be agreed by Lender in writing. Any payment billed on a bi-weekly billing statement and not paid when due will incur late payment service charges as set forth in such bi-weekly billing statement, in addition to interest accruing under this Agreement.

(d) On the Maturity Date of each Loan, the Borrower shall pay to the Lender the entire outstanding principal balance of such Loan, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon and any and all other Obligations hereunder with respect to such Loan, without any notice or demand from Lender whatsoever. To the extent Borrower is eligible to make such payment by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the Maturity Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower may elect to pay such payment in cash if it notifies Lender in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the Maturity Date of its intent to make payment in cash. To the extent not paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends, payment of the principal and interest of each Loan and any and all other Obligations with respect to such Loan on the Maturity Date shall be paid by the Borrower in immediately available funds not later than 1:00 p.m. Chicago time on the Maturity Date.

2.4 Interest.

(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) below, each Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof from the Closing Date at a rate of interest equal to the Base Rate plus One Percent (1.0%) per annum.

(b) While any Event of Default exists, the Borrower shall pay interest on the principal amount of all outstanding Obligations hereunder at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Base Rate plus Six Percent (6.0%) per annum, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

(c) Accrued and unpaid interest on any past due amounts shall be due and payable upon demand.

(d) Interest on each Loan shall be due and payable on each applicable Payment Date occurring after the Closing Date of the Loan as part of the level payments referred to under Section 2.3 above and on the Maturity Date of the Loan. Interest on each Loan shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof before and after judgment, and before and after the commencement of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law.

2.5 Computation of Interest. All computations of interest shall be made on the basis of a year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be, and actual days elapsed.

2.6 Evidence of Debt. Each Loan shall be evidenced by an account or record maintained by the Lender in the ordinary course of business. The account or record maintained by the Lender shall be conclusive absent manifest error of the amount of the Loan to the Borrower and the interest and payments thereon. Any failure to so record or any error in doing so shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrower hereunder to pay any amount owing with respect to the Obligations.

2.7 Payments.

(a) All payments to be made by the Borrower shall be made without condition or deduction for any counterclaim, defense, recoupment or setoff.

(b) At Borrower's option, Borrower may make any payments of principal or interest of each Loan by application of non-cash patronage dividends held by any Borrower attributable to any of its Ace affiliated retail hardware stores; provided that: (i) after giving effect to such application of such non-cash patronage dividends, Borrower will hold, in the aggregate, an amount of non-cash patronage dividends not less than $5,000.00 for each of its Ace affiliated retail hardware stores; and (ii) after giving effect to such application of such non-cash patronage dividends, Borrower will be in all respects in compliance with the Development Agreement and no Event of Default will exist under this Agreement. In addition, Borrower may not make any prepayment of any Loan, in whole or in part, by application of non-cash patronage dividends unless and until such time as Borrower has repaid and discharged in full any and all existing loans from Lender to any Borrower which are so-called Capital Stock Loans or Equity Match Loans.

(c) Borrower agrees and acknowledges that there is no assurance that non-cash patronage dividends will be issued or available to Borrower to make any or all required payments of any Loan. Borrower further agrees and acknowledges that Lender may, in its sole discretion, apply any cash and non-cash patronage dividends otherwise payable to Borrower to any other obligation or indebtedness owed by Borrower or Borrower's Affiliates to Lender. Except where payment is made by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with this Section 2.7, Borrower is obligated to make all payments required under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents when due, in full and in cash.

Documents, including its rights under this Section, or (B) in connection with the Loans made, including all such out-of-pocket expenses incurred during any workout, restructuring or negotiations in respect of such Loans.

(b) Indemnification by the Borrower. The Borrower shall indemnify on demand the Lender and each of the Lender's Affiliates and the partners, directors, officers, employees, agents and advisors of the Lender and the Lender's Affiliates (each such Person being called an "Indemnitee") against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses (including the fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for any Indemnitee), incurred by any Indemnitee or asserted against any Indemnitee by any third party or by the Borrower or any other Loan Party arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance by the parties hereto of their respective obligations hereunder or thereunder, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or, the administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (ii) any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use or proposed use of the proceeds therefrom, (iii) any actual or alleged presence or release of hazardous materials on or from any property owned or operated by the Borrower, or any environmental liability related in any way to the Borrower, or (iv) any actual or prospective claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether based on contract, tort or any other theory, whether brought by a third party or by the Borrower or any other Loan Party, and regardless of whether any Indemnitee is a party thereto, in all cases, whether or not caused by or arising, in whole or in part, out of the comparative, contributory or sole negligence of the Indemnitee; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee.

(c) Waiver of Consequential Damages, Etc. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Borrower shall not assert, and hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof.

8.5 Successors and Assigns. 8.6 Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Lender, and each of Lender's Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, to set off and apply any and all obligations at any time owing by the Lender, or any such Affiliate of the Lender, to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower or any other Loan Party against any and all of the Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party now or hereafter existing under this Agreement or any other Loan Document to the Lender, irrespective of whether or not the Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or any other Loan Document and although such Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party may be contingent or unmatured. The rights of the Lender and Lender's Affiliates under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that the Lender or the Lender's Affiliates may have.

8.7 Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by applicable law (the "Maximum Rate"). 8.9 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made by any Loan Party hereunder and in any other Loan Document or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof. Such representations and warranties have been or will be relied upon by the Lender, regardless of any investigation made by the Lender or on Lender's behalf and notwithstanding that the Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default at the time of the making of the Loan, and shall continue in full force and effect for as long as any Loan or any other Obligation hereunder shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied or as Lender has any continuing obligation to fund additional Loans hereunder.

8.10 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, (a) the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall not be affected or impaired thereby and (b) the parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions. The invalidity of a provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

8.11 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Etc.

(a) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS WITHOUT REGARD TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF.

(b) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement to the contrary, it is intended that the joint and several nature of the Obligations of Borrower and the liens and security interests granted by Borrower to secure the Obligations, not constitute a “Fraudulent Conveyance” (as defined below). Consequently, Lender and Borrower agree that if the Obligations of a Borrower, or any liens or security interests granted by such Borrower securing the Obligations would, but for the application of this sentence, constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, the Obligations of such Borrower and the liens and security interests securing such Obligations shall be valid and enforceable only to the maximum extent that would not cause such Obligations or such lien or security interest to constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, and the Obligations of such Borrower and this Agreement shall automatically be deemed to have been amended accordingly. For purposes hereof, “Fraudulent Conveyance” means a fraudulent conveyance under Section 548 of Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code or a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under the applicable provisions of any fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer law or similar law of any state, nation or other governmental unit, as in effect from time to time.

If Lender, in its sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to a Borrower, Lender shall not be under any obligation to update any such information or to provide any such information to such Borrower on any subsequent occasion.

(d) Lender is hereby authorized, without notice or demand and without affecting the liability of a Borrower hereunder, at any time and from time to time, to do the following: (i) renew, extend, accelerate or otherwise change the time for payment of, or other terms relating to another Borrower’s Obligations or otherwise modify, amend or change the terms of any promissory note or other agreement, document or instrument now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (ii) accept partial payments on a Borrower's Obligations; (iii) take and hold security or collateral for the payment of another Borrower's Obligations hereunder or for the payment of any guaranties of another Borrower's Obligations or other liabilities of another Borrower and exchange, enforce, waive and release any such security or collateral; (iv) apply such security or collateral and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as Lender, in its sole discretion, may determine; and (v) settle, release, compromise, collect or otherwise liquidate a Borrower's Obligations and any security or collateral therefor in any manner, without affecting or impairing the obligations of the other Borrowers.

(e) Each Borrower hereby agrees that, except as hereinafter provided, its obligations hereunder are unconditional, irrespective of any of the following: (i) the absence of any attempt to collect a Borrower's Obligations from any Borrower or any guarantor or other action to enforce the same; (ii) the waiver or consent by Lender with respect to any provision of any instrument evidencing Borrower's Obligations, or any part thereof, or any other agreement heretofore, now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (iii) failure by Lender to take any steps to perfect and maintain its security interest in, or to preserve its rights to, any security or collateral for Borrower's Obligations; (iv) the institution of any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code, or any similar proceeding, by or against a Borrower or Lender's election in any such proceeding of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code; (v) any borrowing or grant of a security interest by any Borrower as debtor-in-possession, under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; (vi) the disallowance, under Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, of all or any portion of any claim by Lender for repayment of any of Borrower's Obligations; or (vii) any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

(f) No payment made by or for the account of a Borrower including, without limitations, a payment made by that Borrower on behalf of another Borrower's Obligations or a payment made by any other person under any guaranty, will entitle that Borrower, by subrogation or otherwise, to any payment from any such other Borrower or from or out of any such other Borrower's property and that Borrower shall not exercise any right or remedy against any such other Borrower or any property of any such other Borrower by reason of any performance of any such Borrower of its joint and several obligations hereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the date first above written.

ARTICLE 2 THE LOAN; MECHANICS

2.1 Loans.

(a) Upon satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3.1 hereof, and subject to the representations, warranties, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, the Lender agrees to make, on the applicable Closing Date, an initial Loan in the applicable Loan Amount to the Borrower with respect to the initial Relevant Store Location.

(b) Upon satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3.2 hereof, and subject to the representations, warranties, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, the Lender agrees to make, on the applicable Closing Date, an additional Loan in the applicable Loan Amount to the Borrower with respect to each additional Relevant Store Location opened by Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the Development Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Lender will have no obligation to make any additional Loans or advances after the termination or expiration of the five (5) year term of the Development Agreement.

(c) The Lender may, in its sole and absolute discretion, make any Loan to the Borrower in the form of one or more advances for credit against statements for good and services provided by the Lender to the Borrower with respect to the Relevant Store Location with respect to which the Loan is made, as and when such statements are generated by the Lender.

2.2 Prepayments. The Borrower may, at any time or from time to time voluntarily prepay the Loans in whole or in part without premium or penalty; provided that any prepayment shall be in a principal amount of $5,000.00 or a whole multiple of $5,000.00 in excess thereof or, if less, the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding. Any prepayment of the Loans shall be accompanied by all accrued interest on the amount prepaid, together with any other amount then due under the Loan Documents with respect to any Loan. Any prepayment in respect of a Loan shall be applied to the remaining scheduled principal installments in respect of the Loan in inverse order of maturity (i.e, first applied to amounts due on the Maturity Date until reduced to zero).

2.3 Repayment of Loans. Each Loan shall be repaid as follows:

(a) Commencing with the first Payment Date occurring after the applicable Closing Date, the Borrower shall make amortizing principal repayments of the Loan on the basis of a level payment amortization schedule (i.e., each level payment will consist in part of interest and in part of principal) determined by the Lender based on a term of 10 years and on the interest chargeable from time to time in respect of the Loan as provided in Section 2.4 below.

(b) The Lender shall notify the Borrower of the initial amount of the level payment referred to in clause (a) above prior to the Payment Date referred to in clause (a) above and the Lender shall notify the Borrower from time to time of any changes in the amount of the level payment (and any corresponding changes in the amortization schedule with respect to the principal amount of the Loan) resulting from changes in the interest rate chargeable under Section 2.4 or from changes in the Base Rate (it being understood that a failure or delay by the Lender to notify the Borrower of changes in the level amount due and payable with respect to a Payment Date or successive Payment Dates shall not affect the principal or interest actually owed or owing in respect of the Loan.)

(c) The first nine (9) annual amortizing installments of principal and interest on each Loan will be due and payable as follows:

(i) If Borrower is eligible to make all or any portion of such payment by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the applicable Payment Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower may elect to have the payment billed and paid in the manner set forth in subsection (ii) below, if it notifies Lender in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the Payment Date of its intent to make payment in cash.

(ii) To the extent all or any portion of such payment may not or will not be paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends pursuant to subsection (i), Lender will bill the amount of such payment on the bi-weekly billing statement submitted by Lender to Borrower for merchandise and services purchased by Borrower from Lender during the period including the applicable Payment Date, and such payment shall be due and payable on the due date then applicable to the billing statement on which such payment is billed and shall be paid to the Lender in the manner applicable to such billing statement, or in such other manner as may be agreed by Lender in writing. Any payment billed on a bi-weekly billing statement and not paid when due will incur late payment service charges as set forth in such bi-weekly billing statement, in addition to interest accruing under this Agreement.

(d) On the Maturity Date of each Loan, the Borrower shall pay to the Lender the entire outstanding principal balance of such Loan, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon and any and all other Obligations hereunder with respect to such Loan, without any notice or demand from Lender whatsoever. To the extent Borrower is eligible to make such payment by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the Maturity Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower may elect to pay such payment in cash if it notifies Lender in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the Maturity Date of its intent to make payment in cash. To the extent not paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends, payment of the principal and interest of each Loan and any and all other Obligations with respect to such Loan on the Maturity Date shall be paid by the Borrower in immediately available funds not later than 1:00 p.m. Chicago time on the Maturity Date.

2.4 Interest.

(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) below, each Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof from the Closing Date at a rate of interest equal to the Base Rate plus One Percent (1.0%) per annum.

(b) While any Event of Default exists, the Borrower shall pay interest on the principal amount of all outstanding Obligations hereunder at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Base Rate plus Six Percent (6.0%) per annum, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

(c) Accrued and unpaid interest on any past due amounts shall be due and payable upon demand.

(d) Interest on each Loan shall be due and payable on each applicable Payment Date occurring after the Closing Date of the Loan as part of the level payments referred to under Section 2.3 above and on the Maturity Date of the Loan. Interest on each Loan shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof before and after judgment, and before and after the commencement of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law.

2.5 Computation of Interest. All computations of interest shall be made on the basis of a year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be, and actual days elapsed.

2.6 Evidence of Debt. Each Loan shall be evidenced by an account or record maintained by the Lender in the ordinary course of business. The account or record maintained by the Lender shall be conclusive absent manifest error of the amount of the Loan to the Borrower and the interest and payments thereon. Any failure to so record or any error in doing so shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrower hereunder to pay any amount owing with respect to the Obligations.

2.7 Payments.

(a) All payments to be made by the Borrower shall be made without condition or deduction for any counterclaim, defense, recoupment or setoff.

(b) At Borrower's option, Borrower may make any payments of principal or interest of each Loan by application of non-cash patronage dividends held by any Borrower attributable to any of its Ace affiliated retail hardware stores; provided that: (i) after giving effect to such application of such non-cash patronage dividends, Borrower will hold, in the aggregate, an amount of non-cash patronage dividends not less than $5,000.00 for each of its Ace affiliated retail hardware stores; and (ii) after giving effect to such application of such non-cash patronage dividends, Borrower will be in all respects in compliance with the Development Agreement and no Event of Default will exist under this Agreement. In addition, Borrower may not make any prepayment of any Loan, in whole or in part, by application of non-cash patronage dividends unless and until such time as Borrower has repaid and discharged in full any and all existing loans from Lender to any Borrower which are so-called Capital Stock Loans or Equity Match Loans.

(c) Borrower agrees and acknowledges that there is no assurance that non-cash patronage dividends will be issued or available to Borrower to make any or all required payments of any Loan. Borrower further agrees and acknowledges that Lender may, in its sole discretion, apply any cash and non-cash patronage dividends otherwise payable to Borrower to any other obligation or indebtedness owed by Borrower or Borrower's Affiliates to Lender. Except where payment is made by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with this Section 2.7, Borrower is obligated to make all payments required under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents when due, in full and in cash.

ARTICLE 3 CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO LOAN

ARTICLE 8 MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Amendments, Etc. No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, and no consent to any departure by the Borrower or any other Loan Party therefrom, shall be effective unless in writing signed by the Lender and the Borrower or the applicable Loan Party, as the case may be, and each such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given.

8.2 Notices; Effectiveness; Electronic Communication.

(a) Notices Generally. Except in the case of notices and other communications expressly permitted to be given by telephone (and except as provided in subsection (b) below), all notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or overnight courier service, mailed by certified or registered mail or sent by telecopier as follows, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the address, telecopier number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 8.2. Notices sent by hand or overnight courier service, or mailed by certified or registered mail, shall be deemed to have been given when received; notices sent by telecopier shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next business day for the recipient).

(b) Change of Address, Etc. The Borrower and the Lender may change their respective address, telecopier or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the other party hereto.

8.3 No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. No failure or delay by the Lender in exercising, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

8.4 Expenses; Indemnity; Damage Waiver.

(a) Costs and Expenses. The Borrower shall pay on demand (i) all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Lender (including the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of counsel for the Lender), in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions hereof or thereof (whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby shall be consummated), and (ii) all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Lender (including the fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Lender), in connection with the enforcement or protection of its rights (A) in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan

Documents, including its rights under this Section, or (B) in connection with the Loans made, including all such out-of-pocket expenses incurred during any workout, restructuring or negotiations in respect of such Loans.

(b) Indemnification by the Borrower. The Borrower shall indemnify on demand the Lender and each of the Lender's Affiliates and the partners, directors, officers, employees, agents and advisors of the Lender and the Lender's Affiliates (each such Person being called an "Indemnitee") against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses (including the fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for any Indemnitee), incurred by any Indemnitee or asserted against any Indemnitee by any third party or by the Borrower or any other Loan Party arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance by the parties hereto of their respective obligations hereunder or thereunder, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or, the administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (ii) any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use or proposed use of the proceeds therefrom, (iii) any actual or alleged presence or release of hazardous materials on or from any property owned or operated by the Borrower, or any environmental liability related in any way to the Borrower, or (iv) any actual or prospective claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether based on contract, tort or any other theory, whether brought by a third party or by the Borrower or any other Loan Party, and regardless of whether any Indemnitee is a party thereto, in all cases, whether or not caused by or arising, in whole or in part, out of the comparative, contributory or sole negligence of the Indemnitee; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee.

(c) Waiver of Consequential Damages, Etc. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Borrower shall not assert, and hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof.

8.5 Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Lender.

8.6 Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Lender, and each of Lender's Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, to set off and apply any and all obligations at any time owing by the Lender, or any such Affiliate of the Lender, to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower or any other Loan Party against any and all of the Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party now or hereafter existing under this Agreement or any other Loan Document to the Lender, irrespective of whether or not the Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or any other Loan Document and although such Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party may be contingent or unmatured. The rights of the Lender and Lender's Affiliates under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that the Lender or the Lender's Affiliates may have.

8.7 Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by applicable law (the "Maximum Rate"). If the Lender shall receive interest in an amount that exceeds the Maximum Rate, the excess interest shall be applied to the principal of the Loans or, if it exceeds such unpaid principal, refunded to the Borrower. In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged, or received by the Lender exceeds the Maximum Rate, such Person may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee, or premium rather than interest, (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate, and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

8.8 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto in different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 3.1, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Borrower and the Lender.

8.9 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made by any Loan Party hereunder and in any other Loan Document or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof. Such representations and warranties have been or will be relied upon by the Lender, regardless of any investigation made by the Lender or on Lender's behalf and notwithstanding that the Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default at the time of the making of the Loan, and shall continue in full force and effect for as long as any Loan or any other Obligation hereunder shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied or as Lender has any continuing obligation to fund additional Loans hereunder.

8.10 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, (a) the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall not be affected or impaired thereby and (b) the parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions. The invalidity of a provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

8.11 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Etc.

(a) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS WITHOUT REGARD TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF.

(b) ARBITRATION. THE BORROWER AND EACH OTHER LOAN PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY SUBMITS, FOR ITSELF AND ITS PROPERTY, TO BINDING ARBITRATION FOR ANY MATTER OR DISPUTE ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT. THE ARBITRATION SHALL BE CONDUCTED BY A SOLE ARBITRATOR AND BE GOVERNED BY THE UNITED STATES ARBITRATION ACT. JUDGMENT UPON THE AWARD RENDERED BY THE ARBITRATOR MAY BE ENTERED BY ANY COURT HAVING JURISDICTION THEREOF. THE PLACE OF THE ARBITRATION SHALL BE CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

(c) WAIVER OF VENUE. THE BORROWER AND EACH OTHER LOAN PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT IN ANY U.S. FEDERAL OR ILLINOIS STATE COURT IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT.

(d) SERVICE OF PROCESS. EACH PARTY HERETO IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN THE MANNER PROVIDED FOR NOTICES IN SECTION 8.2. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT WILL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY HERETO TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

8.12 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PERSON HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PERSON WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE

THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

8.13 Joint and Several Liability.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all Obligations of Borrower hereunder shall be joint and several obligations of each Person identified as the Borrower in this Agreement, together with each other Person that becomes a Borrower pursuant to Section 5.14 or otherwise.

(b) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement to the contrary, it is intended that the joint and several nature of the Obligations of Borrower and the liens and security interests granted by Borrower to secure the Obligations, not constitute a “Fraudulent Conveyance” (as defined below). Consequently, Lender and Borrower agree that if the Obligations of a Borrower, or any liens or security interests granted by such Borrower securing the Obligations would, but for the application of this sentence, constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, the Obligations of such Borrower and the liens and security interests securing such Obligations shall be valid and enforceable only to the maximum extent that would not cause such Obligations or such lien or security interest to constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, and the Obligations of such Borrower and this Agreement shall automatically be deemed to have been amended accordingly. For purposes hereof, “Fraudulent Conveyance” means a fraudulent conveyance under Section 548 of Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code or a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under the applicable provisions of any fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer law or similar law of any state, nation or other governmental unit, as in effect from time to time.

(c) Each Borrower assumes responsibility for keeping itself informed of the financial condition of each of the other Borrowers, if any, and any and all endorsers and/or guarantors of any instrument or document evidencing all or any part of such other Borrower’s Obligations and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment by such other Borrower of their Obligations and each Borrower agrees that Lender shall not have any duty to advise such Borrower of information known to Lender regarding such condition or any such circumstances or to undertake any investigation not a part of its regular business routine. If Lender, in its sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to a Borrower, Lender shall not be under any obligation to update any such information or to provide any such information to such Borrower on any subsequent occasion.

(d) Lender is hereby authorized, without notice or demand and without affecting the liability of a Borrower hereunder, at any time and from time to time, to do the following: (i) renew, extend, accelerate or otherwise change the time for payment of, or other terms relating to another Borrower’s Obligations or otherwise modify, amend or change the terms of any promissory note or other agreement, document or instrument now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (ii) accept partial payments on a Borrower's Obligations; (iii) take and hold security or collateral for the payment of another Borrower's Obligations hereunder or for the payment of any guaranties of another Borrower's Obligations or other liabilities of another Borrower and exchange, enforce, waive and release any such security or collateral; (iv) apply such security or collateral and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as Lender, in its sole discretion, may determine; and (v) settle, release, compromise, collect or otherwise liquidate a Borrower's Obligations and any security or collateral therefor in any manner, without affecting or impairing the obligations of the other Borrowers.

(e) Each Borrower hereby agrees that, except as hereinafter provided, its obligations hereunder are unconditional, irrespective of any of the following: (i) the absence of any attempt to collect a Borrower's Obligations from any Borrower or any guarantor or other action to enforce the same; (ii) the waiver or consent by Lender with respect to any provision of any instrument evidencing Borrower's Obligations, or any part thereof, or any other agreement heretofore, now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (iii) failure by Lender to take any steps to perfect and maintain its security interest in, or to preserve its rights to, any security or collateral for Borrower's Obligations; (iv) the institution of any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code, or any similar proceeding, by or against a Borrower or Lender's election in any such proceeding of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code; (v) any borrowing or grant of a security interest by any Borrower as debtor-in-possession, under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; (vi) the disallowance, under Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, of all or any portion of any claim by Lender for repayment of any of Borrower's Obligations; or (vii) any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

(f) No payment made by or for the account of a Borrower including, without limitations, a payment made by that Borrower on behalf of another Borrower's Obligations or a payment made by any other person under any guaranty, will entitle that Borrower, by subrogation or otherwise, to any payment from any such other Borrower or from or out of any such other Borrower's property and that Borrower shall not exercise any right or remedy against any such other Borrower or any property of any such other Borrower by reason of any performance of any such Borrower of its joint and several obligations hereunder.

STORE DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT
(Tier 4 Multi-Unit Capital Stock Financing Program)

THIS STORE DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made and entered into as of _____, 20____ ("Effective Date") by and between ACE HARDWARE CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation ("Ace"), and _____, a _____ organized in the state of _____ ("Retailer").

Recitals

- A. Retailer directly or indirectly owns and operates a total of _____ (_____) Ace-affiliated (i.e., Ace branded or individually branded) retail hardware stores (each, an "Existing Ace Store") in _____.
- B. Retailer is or shall become the borrower, and Ace is or shall become the lender, under a Multi-Unit Capital Stock Financing Program Loan Agreement (Tier 4) and agreements related thereto (collectively, "Loan Documents") and executed concurrently herewith or subsequent to this Agreement and delivered by Retailer to Ace pursuant to Ace's Tier 4 Multi-Unit Capital Stock Financing Program ("Program").
- C. As a condition to Ace making any loan to Retailer under the Program, Ace requires that Retailer execute and deliver this Agreement to Ace. .

THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by each party, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Requirement to Open Additional Ace Stores: Ace Higher Ground Commitment.

(a) Subject to all terms and conditions stated herein and in the Loan Documents, Retailer shall open, in the United States, three (3) ("Required Quota") Ace-affiliated retail hardware stores (each, an "Additional Ace Store") within the sixty (60)-month period that commences on the Effective Date (such sixty-month period defined herein as the "Mandated Period"), and thereafter own and operate each such Additional Ace Store.

(b) Subject to Ace's written consent, Retailer may designate an affiliated entity that is controlled by, or under common control with, Retailer (each a "Retailer's Designee") to open and thereafter own and operate each Additional Ace Store, provided, however, that Retailer's Designee(s) shall be, or become, a borrower under the Loan Documents for the Program and also a borrower, co-borrower or guarantor, as the case may be, under any and all loan documents for any other then-outstanding loan agreements with Ace under which Retailer is a borrower, co-borrower or guarantor.

(c) Retailer shall execute and commit to Ace's Higher Ground Visionary Commitment.

2. Program Participation Fee.

(a) The Program participation fee ("Program Participation Fee") is Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).

(b) Prior to or concurrently with Retailer's execution and delivery of this Agreement, Retailer has paid Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) to Ace in full payment of the Program Participation Fee.

(c) The Program Participation Fee shall be refunded solely in the event of and upon Retailer's opening of the third Additional Ace Store to the public in accordance with the terms of this Agreement within the Mandated Period; otherwise the Program Participation Fee is non-refundable.

3. Development Fee.

(a) The development fee ("Development Fee") is Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for each Additional Ace Store.

(b) Prior to or concurrently with Retailer's execution and delivery of this Agreement, Retailer has paid Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) to Ace in full payment of the total Development Fee for the Required Quota of Additional Ace Stores (i.e., $5,000 for each Additional Ace Store).

(c) The Development Fee is non-refundable.

(d) Each time Retailer or Retailer's Designee applies to open an Additional Ace Store within the Mandated Period, Ace will deduct Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) from the amount of Ace's then-current membership application fee otherwise payable to Ace. Ace and Retailer acknowledge that as of the date hereof, Ace's per-store membership application fee is $5,000 and, thus, unless and until Ace increases said fee, the Development Fee shall fully offset Ace's membership application fee for each Additional Ace Store.

4. Application Process: Conversion Stores Included.

(a) For each Additional Ace Store that Retailer is required hereunder to open, Retailer shall execute and deliver to Ace all membership, brand, stock subscription and other agreements and instruments, and shall submit all pro forma and other financial and other information as Ace shall require, consistent with Ace's then-standard protocols for new store applications. Ace shall not be obligated to approve any Additional Ace Store if (i) the proposed Additional Ace store does not satisfy Ace's then-applicable financial, site and other criteria for new Ace-branded stores or (ii) Retailer or any of Retailer's affiliates is past due or otherwise not in full compliance with all of its obligations under each of its various agreements with Ace and its affiliates, including but not limited all representations, warranties and covenants applicable to Retailer or Retailer's affiliates pursuant to the Loan Documents . In addition, in connection with each Membership Application submitted for any Additional Ace Store, Ace reserves the right to review the financial and/or operational performance of any Existing Ace Store and/or Additional Ace Store already owned and operated by Retailer and its affiliates and to decline to approve any Additional Ace Store if the performance of the reviewed store(s) is not satisfactory to Ace in Ace's sole discretion. Ace's refusal to approve any membership application for an Additional Ace

Store shall not relieve Retailer of its obligation to establish in accordance with this Agreement and, thereafter to own and operate, the Required Quota of Additional Ace Stores.

(b) If Retailer or an affiliate shall purchase and convert any existing retail hardware store to Ace membership as an Ace-affiliated store, such store so converted shall be deemed an Additional Ace Store (i.e., it shall be counted toward satisfaction of the Required Quota of Additional Ace Stores that Retailer is obligated hereunder to open during the Mandated Period).

5. Events of Default: Ace's Remedies.

5.1 Events of Default. Any of the following constitutes an Event of Default hereunder:

(a) Retailer fails to open the Required Quota of Additional Ace Stores prior to the expiration of the Mandated Period.

(b) At any time a balance exists under the Loan Documents for any Additional Ace Store, such Additional Ace Store's Ace membership is terminated (for any reason) or such Additional Ace Store is closed (unless it is relocated with Ace's consent).

(c) Retailer breaches or otherwise fails to fully comply fully with the non-compete covenant contained in Section 7 herein.

5.2 Ace's Remedies.

(a) If an Event of Default occurs under Section 5.1(a) above, Ace shall be entitled to exercise any or all of the following remedies:

i. enforcement of the non-compete provision in Section 7; and/or
ii. treat such Event of Default as a default under the Loan Documents, provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing remedies, Ace shall not terminate the membership of any Existing Store or Additional Ace Store solely as result of any failure by Retailer to open in accordance with this Agreement, and thereafter own and operate, the Required Quota of Additional Ace Stores.

(b) If an Event of Default occurs under Sections 5.1(b) or (c) above, Ace shall, in addition to the rights and remedies specified in Section 5.2(a) above, be entitled to immediately accelerate Retailer's obligation to pay all then outstanding principal and interest due under the Loan Documents, whether or not such amounts would, in the absence of such Event of Default hereunder, then be due and payable.

6. Assignment. This Agreement is fully assignable by Ace and shall inure to the benefit of any assignee or other legal successor to the interest of Ace. This Agreement and the rights granted to Retailer hereunder are personal to Retailer and neither this Agreement, nor any of the rights granted to Retailer hereunder, may be voluntarily or involuntarily, directly or indirectly, by operation of law or otherwise, assigned or otherwise transferred or encumbered by Retailer. Retailer's Designee(s) is (are) not and shall not be deemed a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement.

7. Retailer's Covenant Not to Compete.

(a) During the pendency of this Agreement, and for one year thereafter, except as otherwise approved in writing by Ace (which approval Ace may grant, withhold or condition in Ace's sole discretion) Retailer shall not, and shall cause Retailer's affiliates to not, directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person or entity, own, maintain, engage in or have any interest in any non-Ace- affiliated business located in the United States which sells hardware, housewares, paint, and/or lawn and garden furniture and the like.

(b) Retailer expressly agrees that the existence of any claim it may have against Ace, whether or not arising from this Agreement or any other agreement between Ace and Retailer, or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to Ace's enforcement of the covenant contained in Section 7(a).

(c) Retailer acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Section 7 will cause Ace irreparable injury for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and, notwithstanding the arbitration provision contained in Section 10 below, Retailer hereby accordingly consents to the issuance of an injunction prohibiting any conduct by Retailer in violation of the terms of this Section 7. Ace may also avail itself of any other legal or equitable rights and remedies which it may have under this Agreement or otherwise.

8. Waiver of Provisions. Failure of either party to insist, in one or more instances, on performance by the other in strict accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver or relinquishment of any right granted hereunder or of the future performance of any such other term or condition of this Agreement, unless such waiver is in a writing signed by or on behalf of both parties.

9. Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted hereunder shall be deemed sufficiently given if personally delivered, mailed or sent by overnight courier to the address specified on Exhibit A. Any party may change its mailing address by giving notice to the other party in the manner herein provided.

10. Governing Law: Dispute Resolution. This Agreement is executed and delivered in, and shall be governed, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of, the State of Illinois, without regard to its conflicts of law rules. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, shall be settled by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

11. Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the preamble and recitals set forth above and all exhibits attached hereto, each of the foregoing of which by this reference is hereby incorporated herein) contains the sole and entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the matters contained herein and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous discussions and agreements between the parties, either oral or written, and any such prior or contemporaneous agreements shall, from and after the date hereof, be null and void.

12. Modification and Amendment. This Agreement shall not be modified or amended except by an instrument in writing signed by or on behalf of the parties hereto.

13. Ace Consents and Approvals. With respect to every instance in this Agreement which references Ace's consent or approval, Retailer expressly acknowledges and agrees that Ace may grant, withhold or condition such consent or approval as Ace in its sole discretion shall determine.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the undersigned by its respective duly authorized representatives has executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

(b) Upon satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3.2 hereof, and subject to the representations, warranties, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, the Lender agrees to make, on the applicable Closing Date, an additional Loan in the applicable Loan Amount to the Borrower with respect to each additional Relevant Store Location opened by Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the Development Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Lender will have no obligation to make any additional Loans or advances after the termination or expiration of the five (5) year term of the Development Agreement.

(c) The Lender may, in its sole and absolute discretion, make any Loan to the Borrower in the form of one or more advances for credit against statements for good and services provided by the Lender to the Borrower with respect to the Relevant Store Location with respect to which the Loan is made, as and when such statements are generated by the Lender.

2.2 Prepayments. The Borrower may, at any time or from time to time voluntarily prepay the Loans in whole or in part without premium or penalty; provided that any prepayment shall be in a principal amount of $5,000.00 or a whole multiple of $5,000.00 in excess thereof or, if less, the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding. Any prepayment of the Loans shall be accompanied by all accrued interest on the amount prepaid, together with any other amount then due under the Loan Documents with respect to any Loan. Any prepayment in respect of a Loan shall be applied to the remaining scheduled principal installments in respect of the Loan in inverse order of maturity (i.e., first applied to amounts due on the Maturity Date until reduced to zero).

2.3 Repayment of Loans. Each Loan shall be repaid as follows:

(a) Commencing with the first Payment Date occurring after the applicable Closing Date, the Borrower shall make amortizing principal repayments of the Loan on the basis of a level payment amortization schedule (i.e., each level payment will consist in part of interest and in part of principal) determined by the Lender based on a term of 10 years and on the interest chargeable from time to time in respect of the Loan as provided in Section 2.4 below.

(b) The Lender shall notify the Borrower of the initial amount of the level payment referred to in clause (a) above prior to the Payment Date referred to in clause (a) above and the Lender shall notify the Borrower from time to time of any changes in the amount of the level payment (and any corresponding changes in the amortization schedule with respect to the principal amount of the Loan) resulting from changes in the interest rate chargeable under Section 2.4 or from changes in the Base Rate (it being understood that a failure or delay by the Lender to notify the Borrower of changes in the level amount due and payable with respect to a Payment Date or successive Payment Dates shall not affect the principal or interest actually owed or owing in respect of the Loan.)

(c) The first nine (9) annual amortizing installments of principal and interest on each Loan will be due and payable as follows:

(i) If Borrower is eligible to make all or any portion of such payment by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the applicable Payment Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower may elect to have the payment billed and paid in the manner set forth in subsection (ii) below, if it notifies Lender in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the Payment Date of its intent to make payment in cash.

(ii) To the extent all or any portion of such payment may not or will not be paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends pursuant to subsection (i), Lender will bill the amount of such payment on the bi-weekly billing statement submitted by Lender to Borrower for merchandise and services purchased by Borrower from Lender during the period including the applicable Payment Date, and such payment shall be due and payable on the due date then applicable to the billing statement on which such payment is billed and shall be paid to the Lender in the manner applicable to such billing statement, or in such other manner as may be agreed by Lender in writing. Any payment billed on a bi-weekly billing statement and not paid when due will incur late payment service charges as set forth in such bi-weekly billing statement, in addition to interest accruing under this Agreement.

(d) On the Maturity Date of each Loan, the Borrower shall pay to the Lender the entire outstanding principal balance of such Loan, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon and any and all other Obligations hereunder with respect to such Loan, without any notice or demand from Lender whatsoever. To the extent Borrower is eligible to make such payment by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the Maturity Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower may elect to pay such payment in cash if it notifies Lender in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the Maturity Date of its intent to make payment in cash. To the extent not paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends, payment of the principal and interest of each Loan and any and all other Obligations with respect to such Loan on the Maturity Date shall be paid by the Borrower in immediately available funds not later than 1:00 p.m. Chicago time on the Maturity Date.

2.4 Interest.

(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) below, each Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof from the Closing Date at a rate of interest equal to the Base Rate plus One Percent (1.0%) per annum.

(b) While any Event of Default exists, the Borrower shall pay interest on the principal amount of all outstanding Obligations hereunder at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Base Rate plus Six Percent (6.0%) per annum, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

(c) Accrued and unpaid interest on any past due amounts shall be due and payable upon demand.

2.6 Evidence of Debt. Each Loan shall be evidenced by an account or record maintained by the Lender in the ordinary course of business. The account or record maintained by the Lender shall be conclusive absent manifest error of the amount of the Loan to the Borrower and the interest and payments thereon. Any failure to so record or any error in doing so shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrower hereunder to pay any amount owing with respect to the Obligations.

2.7 Payments.

(a) All payments to be made by the Borrower shall be made without condition or deduction for any counterclaim, defense, recoupment or setoff.

(b) At Borrower's option, Borrower may make any payments of principal or interest of each Loan by application of non-cash patronage dividends held by any Borrower attributable to any of its Ace affiliated retail hardware stores; provided that: (i) after giving effect to such application of such non-cash patronage dividends, Borrower will hold, in the aggregate, an amount of non-cash patronage dividends not less than $10,000.00 for each of its Ace affiliated retail hardware stores; and (ii) after giving effect to such application of such non-cash patronage dividends, Borrower will be in all respects in compliance with the Development Agreement and no Event of Default will exist under this Agreement. In addition, Borrower may not make any prepayment of any Loan, in whole or in part, by application of non-cash patronage dividends unless and until such time as Borrower has repaid and discharged in full any and all existing loans from Lender to any Borrower which are so-called Capital Stock Loans or Equity Match Loans.

(c) Borrower agrees and acknowledges that there is no assurance that non-cash patronage dividends will be issued or available to Borrower to make any or all required payments of any Loan. Borrower further agrees and acknowledges that Lender may, in its sole discretion, apply any cash and non-cash patronage dividends otherwise payable to Borrower to any other obligation or indebtedness owed by Borrower or Borrower's Affiliates to Lender. Except where payment is made by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with this Section 2.7, Borrower is obligated to make all payments required under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents when due, in full and in cash.

Documents, including its rights under this Section, or (B) in connection with the Loans made, including all such out-of-pocket expenses incurred during any workout, restructuring or negotiations in respect of such Loans.

(b) Indemnification by the Borrower. The Borrower shall indemnify on demand the Lender and each of the Lender's Affiliates and the partners, directors, officers, employees, agents and advisors of the Lender and the Lender's Affiliates (each such Person being called an "Indemnitee") against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses (including the fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for any Indemnitee), incurred by any Indemnitee or asserted against any Indemnitee by any third party or by the Borrower or any other Loan Party arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance by the parties hereto of their respective obligations hereunder or thereunder, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or, the administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (ii) any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use or proposed use of the proceeds therefrom, (iii) any actual or alleged presence or release of hazardous materials on or from any property owned or operated by the Borrower, or any environmental liability related in any way to the Borrower, or (iv) any actual or prospective claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether based on contract, tort or any other theory, whether brought by a third party or by the Borrower or any other Loan Party, and regardless of whether any Indemnitee is a party thereto, in all cases, whether or not caused by or arising, in whole or in part, out of the comparative, contributory or sole negligence of the Indemnitee; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee.

(c) Waiver of Consequential Damages, Etc. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Borrower shall not assert, and hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof.

8.5 Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Lender.

8.6 Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Lender, and each of Lender's Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, to set off and apply any and all obligations at any time owing by the Lender, or any such Affiliate of the Lender, to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower or any other Loan Party against any and all of the Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party now or hereafter existing under this Agreement or any other Loan Document to the Lender, irrespective of whether or not the Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or any other Loan Document and although such Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party may be contingent or unmatured. The rights of the Lender and Lender's Affiliates under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that the Lender or the Lender's Affiliates may have.

8.7 Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by applicable law (the "Maximum Rate"). If the Lender shall receive interest in an amount that exceeds the Maximum Rate, the excess interest shall be applied to the principal of the Loans or, if it exceeds such unpaid principal, refunded to the Borrower. In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged, or received by the Lender exceeds the Maximum Rate, such Person may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee, or premium rather than interest, (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate, and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

8.8 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto in different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 3.1, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Borrower and the Lender.

8.9 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made by any Loan Party hereunder and in any other Loan Document or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof. Such representations and warranties have been or will be relied upon by the Lender, regardless of any investigation made by the Lender or on Lender's behalf and notwithstanding that the Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default at the time of the making of the Loan, and shall continue in full force and effect for as long as any Loan or any other Obligation hereunder shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied or as Lender has any continuing obligation to fund additional Loans hereunder.

8.10 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, (a) the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall not be affected or impaired thereby and (b) the parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions. The invalidity of a provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

8.11 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Etc.

(a) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS WITHOUT REGARD TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF.

THE ARBITRATION SHALL BE CONDUCTED BY A SOLE ARBITRATOR AND BE GOVERNED BY THE UNITED STATES ARBITRATION ACT. JUDGMENT UPON THE AWARD RENDERED BY THE ARBITRATOR MAY BE ENTERED BY ANY COURT HAVING JURISDICTION THEREOF. THE PLACE OF THE ARBITRATION SHALL BE CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

(c) WAIVER OF VENUE. THE BORROWER AND EACH OTHER LOAN PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT IN ANY U.S. FEDERAL OR ILLINOIS STATE COURT IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT.

(d) SERVICE OF PROCESS. EACH PARTY HERETO IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN THE MANNER PROVIDED FOR NOTICES IN SECTION 8.2. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT WILL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY HERETO TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

8.12 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PERSON HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PERSON WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE

THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

8.13 Joint and Several Liability.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all Obligations of Borrower hereunder shall be joint and several obligations of each Person identified as the Borrower in this Agreement, together with each other Person that becomes a Borrower pursuant to Section 5.14 or otherwise.

(b) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement to the contrary, it is intended that the joint and several nature of the Obligations of Borrower and the liens and security interests granted by Borrower to secure the Obligations, not constitute a “Fraudulent Conveyance” (as defined below). Consequently, Lender and Borrower agree that if the Obligations of a Borrower, or any liens or security interests granted by such Borrower securing the Obligations would, but for the application of this sentence, constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, the Obligations of such Borrower and the liens and security interests securing such Obligations shall be valid and enforceable only to the maximum extent that would not cause such Obligations or such lien or security interest to constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, and the Obligations of such Borrower and this Agreement shall automatically be deemed to have been amended accordingly. For purposes hereof, “Fraudulent Conveyance” means a fraudulent conveyance under Section 548 of Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code or a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under the applicable provisions of any fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer law or similar law of any state, nation or other governmental unit, as in effect from time to time.

(c) Each Borrower assumes responsibility for keeping itself informed of the financial condition of each of the other Borrowers, if any, and any and all endorsers and/or guarantors of any instrument or document evidencing all or any part of such other Borrower’s Obligations and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment by such other Borrower of their Obligations and each Borrower agrees that Lender shall not have any duty to advise such Borrower of information known to Lender regarding such condition or any such circumstances or to undertake any investigation not a part of its regular business routine. If Lender, in its sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to a Borrower, Lender shall not be under any obligation to update any such information or to provide any such information to such Borrower on any subsequent occasion.

(d) Lender is hereby authorized, without notice or demand and without affecting the liability of a Borrower hereunder, at any time and from time to time, to do the following: (i) renew, extend, accelerate or otherwise change the time for payment of, or other terms relating to another Borrower’s Obligations or otherwise modify, amend or change the terms of any promissory note or other agreement, document or instrument now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (ii) accept partial payments on a Borrower's Obligations; (iii) take and hold security or collateral for the payment of another Borrower's Obligations hereunder or for the payment of any guaranties of another Borrower's Obligations or other liabilities of another Borrower and exchange, enforce, waive and release any such security or collateral; (iv) apply such security or collateral and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as Lender, in its sole discretion, may determine; and (v) settle, release, compromise, collect or otherwise liquidate a Borrower's Obligations and any security or collateral therefor in any manner, without affecting or impairing the obligations of the other Borrowers.

(e) Each Borrower hereby agrees that, except as hereinafter provided, its obligations hereunder are unconditional, irrespective of any of the following: (i) the absence of any attempt to collect a Borrower's Obligations from any Borrower or any guarantor or other action to enforce the same; (ii) the waiver or consent by Lender with respect to any provision of any instrument evidencing Borrower's Obligations, or any part thereof, or any other agreement heretofore, now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (iii) failure by Lender to take any steps to perfect and maintain its security interest in, or to preserve its rights to, any security or collateral for Borrower's Obligations; (iv) the institution of any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code, or any similar proceeding, by or against a Borrower or Lender's election in any such proceeding of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code; (v) any borrowing or grant of a security interest by any Borrower as debtor-in-possession, under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; (vi) the disallowance, under Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, of all or any portion of any claim by Lender for repayment of any of Borrower's Obligations; or (vii) any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

(f) No payment made by or for the account of a Borrower including, without limitations, a payment made by that Borrower on behalf of another Borrower's Obligations or a payment made by any other person under any guaranty, will entitle that Borrower, by subrogation or otherwise, to any payment from any such other Borrower or from or out of any such other Borrower's property and that Borrower shall not exercise any right or remedy against any such other Borrower or any property of any such other Borrower by reason of any performance of any such Borrower of its joint and several obligations hereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the date first above written.

ARTICLE 2 THE LOAN; MECHANICS

2.1 Loans.

(a) Upon satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3.1 hereof, and subject to the representations, warranties, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, the Lender agrees to make, on the applicable Closing Date, an initial Loan in the applicable Loan Amount to the Borrower with respect to the initial Relevant Store Location.

(b) Upon satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3.2 hereof, and subject to the representations, warranties, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, the Lender agrees to make, on the applicable Closing Date, an additional Loan in the applicable Loan Amount to the Borrower with respect to each additional Relevant Store Location opened by Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the Development Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Lender will have no obligation to make any additional Loans or advances after the termination or expiration of the five (5) year term of the Development Agreement.

(c) The Lender may, in its sole and absolute discretion, make any Loan to the Borrower in the form of one or more advances for credit against statements for good and services provided by the Lender to the Borrower with respect to the Relevant Store Location with respect to which the Loan is made, as and when such statements are generated by the Lender.

2.2 Prepayments. The Borrower may, at any time or from time to time voluntarily prepay the Loans in whole or in part without premium or penalty; provided that any prepayment shall be in a principal amount of $5,000.00 or a whole multiple of $5,000.00 in excess thereof or, if less, the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding. Any prepayment of the Loans shall be accompanied by all accrued interest on the amount prepaid, together with any other amount then due under the Loan Documents with respect to any Loan. Any prepayment in respect of a Loan shall be applied to the remaining scheduled principal installments in respect of the Loan in inverse order of maturity (i.e, first applied to amounts due on the Maturity Date until reduced to zero).

2.3 Repayment of Loans. Each Loan shall be repaid as follows:

(a) Commencing with the first Payment Date occurring after the applicable Closing Date, the Borrower shall make amortizing principal repayments of the Loan on the basis of a level payment amortization schedule (i.e., each level payment will consist in part of interest and in part of principal) determined by the Lender based on a term of 10 years and on the interest chargeable from time to time in respect of the Loan as provided in Section 2.4 below.

(b) The Lender shall notify the Borrower of the initial amount of the level payment referred to in clause (a) above prior to the Payment Date referred to in clause (a) above and the Lender shall notify the Borrower from time to time of any changes in the amount of the level payment (and any corresponding changes in the amortization schedule with respect to the principal amount of the Loan) resulting from changes in the interest rate chargeable under Section 2.4 or from changes in the Base Rate (it being understood that a failure or delay by the Lender to notify the Borrower of changes in the level amount due and payable with respect to a Payment Date or successive Payment Dates shall not affect the principal or interest actually owed or owing in respect of the Loan.)

(c) The first nine (9) annual amortizing installments of principal and interest on each Loan will be due and payable as follows:

(i) If Borrower is eligible to make all or any portion of such payment by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the applicable Payment Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower may elect to have the payment billed and paid in the manner set forth in subsection (ii) below, if it notifies Lender in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the Payment Date of its intent to make payment in cash.

(ii) To the extent all or any portion of such payment may not or will not be paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends pursuant to subsection (i), Lender will bill the amount of such payment on the bi-weekly billing statement submitted by Lender to Borrower for merchandise and services purchased by Borrower from Lender during the period including the applicable Payment Date, and such payment shall be due and payable on the due date then applicable to the billing statement on which such payment is billed and shall be paid to the Lender in the manner applicable to such billing statement, or in such other manner as may be agreed by Lender in writing. Any payment billed on a bi-weekly billing statement and not paid when due will incur late payment service charges as set forth in such bi-weekly billing statement, in addition to interest accruing under this Agreement.

(d) On the Maturity Date of each Loan, the Borrower shall pay to the Lender the entire outstanding principal balance of such Loan, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon and any and all other Obligations hereunder with respect to such Loan, without any notice or demand from Lender whatsoever. To the extent Borrower is eligible to make such payment by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the Maturity Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower may elect to pay such payment in cash if it notifies Lender in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the Maturity Date of its intent to make payment in cash. To the extent not paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends, payment of the principal and interest of each Loan and any and all other Obligations with respect to such Loan on the Maturity Date shall be paid by the Borrower in immediately available funds not later than 1:00 p.m. Chicago time on the Maturity Date.

2.4 Interest.

(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) below, each Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof from the Closing Date at a rate of interest equal to the Base Rate plus One Percent (1.0%) per annum.

(b) While any Event of Default exists, the Borrower shall pay interest on the principal amount of all outstanding Obligations hereunder at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Base Rate plus Six Percent (6.0%) per annum, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

(c) Accrued and unpaid interest on any past due amounts shall be due and payable upon demand.

(d) Interest on each Loan shall be due and payable on each applicable Payment Date occurring after the Closing Date of the Loan as part of the level payments referred to under Section 2.3 above and on the Maturity Date of the Loan. Interest on each Loan shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof before and after judgment, and before and after the commencement of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law.

2.5 Computation of Interest. All computations of interest shall be made on the basis of a year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be, and actual days elapsed.

2.6 Evidence of Debt. Each Loan shall be evidenced by an account or record maintained by the Lender in the ordinary course of business. The account or record maintained by the Lender shall be conclusive absent manifest error of the amount of the Loan to the Borrower and the interest and payments thereon. Any failure to so record or any error in doing so shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrower hereunder to pay any amount owing with respect to the Obligations.

2.7 Payments.

(a) All payments to be made by the Borrower shall be made without condition or deduction for any counterclaim, defense, recoupment or setoff.

(b) At Borrower's option, Borrower may make any payments of principal or interest of each Loan by application of non-cash patronage dividends held by any Borrower attributable to any of its Ace affiliated retail hardware stores; provided that: (i) after giving effect to such application of such non-cash patronage dividends, Borrower will hold, in the aggregate, an amount of non-cash patronage dividends not less than $10,000.00 for each of its Ace affiliated retail hardware stores; and (ii) after giving effect to such application of such non-cash patronage dividends, Borrower will be in all respects in compliance with the Development Agreement and no Event of Default will exist under this Agreement. In addition, Borrower may not make any prepayment of any Loan, in whole or in part, by application of non-cash patronage dividends unless and until such time as Borrower has repaid and discharged in full any and all existing loans from Lender to any Borrower which are so-called Capital Stock Loans or Equity Match Loans.

(c) Borrower agrees and acknowledges that there is no assurance that non-cash patronage dividends will be issued or available to Borrower to make any or all required payments of any Loan. Borrower further agrees and acknowledges that Lender may, in its sole discretion, apply any cash and non-cash patronage dividends otherwise payable to Borrower to any other obligation or indebtedness owed by Borrower or Borrower's Affiliates to Lender. Except where payment is made by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with this Section 2.7, Borrower is obligated to make all payments required under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents when due, in full and in cash.

Documents, including its rights under this Section, or (B) in connection with the Loans made, including all such out-of-pocket expenses incurred during any workout, restructuring or negotiations in respect of such Loans.

(b) Indemnification by the Borrower. The Borrower shall indemnify on demand the Lender and each of the Lender's Affiliates and the partners, directors, officers, employees, agents and advisors of the Lender and the Lender's Affiliates (each such Person being called an "Indemnitee") against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses (including the fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for any Indemnitee), incurred by any Indemnitee or asserted against any Indemnitee by any third party or by the Borrower or any other Loan Party arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance by the parties hereto of their respective obligations hereunder or thereunder, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or, the administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (ii) any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use or proposed use of the proceeds therefrom, (iii) any actual or alleged presence or release of hazardous materials on or from any property owned or operated by the Borrower, or any environmental liability related in any way to the Borrower, or (iv) any actual or prospective claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether based on contract, tort or any other theory, whether brought by a third party or by the Borrower or any other Loan Party, and regardless of whether any Indemnitee is a party thereto, in all cases, whether or not caused by or arising, in whole or in part, out of the comparative, contributory or sole negligence of the Indemnitee; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee.

(c) Waiver of Consequential Damages, Etc. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Borrower shall not assert, and hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof.

8.5 Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Lender.

8.6 Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Lender, and each of Lender's Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, to set off and apply any and all obligations at any time owing by the Lender, or any such Affiliate of the Lender, to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower or any other Loan Party against any and all of the Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party now or hereafter existing under this Agreement or any other Loan Document to the Lender, irrespective of whether or not the Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or any other Loan Document and although such Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party may be contingent or unmatured. The rights of the Lender and Lender's Affiliates under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that the Lender or the Lender's Affiliates may have.

8.7 Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by applicable law (the "Maximum Rate"). If the Lender shall receive interest in an amount that exceeds the Maximum Rate, the excess interest shall be applied to the principal of the Loans or, if it exceeds such unpaid principal, refunded to the Borrower. In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged, or received by the Lender exceeds the Maximum Rate, such Person may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee, or premium rather than interest, (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate, and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

8.8 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto in different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 3.1, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Borrower and the Lender.

8.9 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made by any Loan Party hereunder and in any other Loan Document or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof. Such representations and warranties have been or will be relied upon by the Lender, regardless of any investigation made by the Lender or on Lender's behalf and notwithstanding that the Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default at the time of the making of the Loan, and shall continue in full force and effect for as long as any Loan or any other Obligation hereunder shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied or as Lender has any continuing obligation to fund additional Loans hereunder.

8.10 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, (a) the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall not be affected or impaired thereby and (b) the parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions. The invalidity of a provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

8.11 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Etc.

(a) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS WITHOUT REGARD TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF.

(b) ARBITRATION. THE BORROWER AND EACH OTHER LOAN PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY SUBMITS, FOR ITSELF AND ITS PROPERTY, TO BINDING ARBITRATION FOR ANY MATTER OR DISPUTE ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT. THE ARBITRATION SHALL BE CONDUCTED BY A SOLE ARBITRATOR AND BE GOVERNED BY THE UNITED STATES ARBITRATION ACT. JUDGMENT UPON THE AWARD RENDERED BY THE ARBITRATOR MAY BE ENTERED BY ANY COURT HAVING JURISDICTION THEREOF. THE PLACE OF THE ARBITRATION SHALL BE CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

(c) WAIVER OF VENUE. THE BORROWER AND EACH OTHER LOAN PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT IN ANY U.S. FEDERAL OR ILLINOIS STATE COURT IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT.

(d) SERVICE OF PROCESS. EACH PARTY HERETO IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN THE MANNER PROVIDED FOR NOTICES IN SECTION 8.2. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT WILL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY HERETO TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

8.12 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PERSON HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PERSON WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE

THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

8.13 Joint and Several Liability.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all Obligations of Borrower hereunder shall be joint and several obligations of each Person identified as the Borrower in this Agreement, together with each other Person that becomes a Borrower pursuant to Section 5.14 or otherwise.

(b) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement to the contrary, it is intended that the joint and several nature of the Obligations of Borrower and the liens and security interests granted by Borrower to secure the Obligations, not constitute a “Fraudulent Conveyance” (as defined below). Consequently, Lender and Borrower agree that if the Obligations of a Borrower, or any liens or security interests granted by such Borrower securing the Obligations would, but for the application of this sentence, constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, the Obligations of such Borrower and the liens and security interests securing such Obligations shall be valid and enforceable only to the maximum extent that would not cause such Obligations or such lien or security interest to constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, and the Obligations of such Borrower and this Agreement shall automatically be deemed to have been amended accordingly. For purposes hereof, “Fraudulent Conveyance” means a fraudulent conveyance under Section 548 of Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code or a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under the applicable provisions of any fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer law or similar law of any state, nation or other governmental unit, as in effect from time to time.

(c) Each Borrower assumes responsibility for keeping itself informed of the financial condition of each of the other Borrowers, if any, and any and all endorsers and/or guarantors of any instrument or document evidencing all or any part of such other Borrower’s Obligations and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment by such other Borrower of their Obligations and each Borrower agrees that Lender shall not have any duty to advise such Borrower of information known to Lender regarding such condition or any such circumstances or to undertake any investigation not a part of its regular business routine. If Lender, in its sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to a Borrower, Lender shall not be under any obligation to update any such information or to provide any such information to such Borrower on any subsequent occasion.

(d) Lender is hereby authorized, without notice or demand and without affecting the liability of a Borrower hereunder, at any time and from time to time, to do the following: (i) renew, extend, accelerate or otherwise change the time for payment of, or other terms relating to another Borrower’s Obligations or otherwise modify, amend or change the terms of any promissory note or other agreement, document or instrument now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (ii) accept partial payments on a Borrower's Obligations; (iii) take and hold security or collateral for the payment of another Borrower's Obligations hereunder or for the payment of any guaranties of another Borrower's Obligations or other liabilities of another Borrower and exchange, enforce, waive and release any such security or collateral; (iv) apply such security or collateral and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as Lender, in its sole discretion, may determine; and (v) settle, release, compromise, collect or otherwise liquidate a Borrower's Obligations and any security or collateral therefor in any manner, without affecting or impairing the obligations of the other Borrowers.

(e) Each Borrower hereby agrees that, except as hereinafter provided, its obligations hereunder are unconditional, irrespective of any of the following: (i) the absence of any attempt to collect a Borrower's Obligations from any Borrower or any guarantor or other action to enforce the same; (ii) the waiver or consent by Lender with respect to any provision of any instrument evidencing Borrower's Obligations, or any part thereof, or any other agreement heretofore, now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (iii) failure by Lender to take any steps to perfect and maintain its security interest in, or to preserve its rights to, any security or collateral for Borrower's Obligations; (iv) the institution of any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code, or any similar proceeding, by or against a Borrower or Lender's election in any such proceeding of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code; (v) any borrowing or grant of a security interest by any Borrower as debtor-in-possession, under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; (vi) the disallowance, under Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, of all or any portion of any claim by Lender for repayment of any of Borrower's Obligations; or (vii) any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

(f) No payment made by or for the account of a Borrower including, without limitations, a payment made by that Borrower on behalf of another Borrower's Obligations or a payment made by any other person under any guaranty, will entitle that Borrower, by subrogation or otherwise, to any payment from any such other Borrower or from or out of any such other Borrower's property and that Borrower shall not exercise any right or remedy against any such other Borrower or any property of any such other Borrower by reason of any performance of any such Borrower of its joint and several obligations hereunder.

Oak Brook, Illinois

[Insert Date of Note]

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned, [Insert legal name of Borrower] ("Borrower"), a [limited liability company/corporation/sole proprietor] organized pursuant to the laws of the State of [Insert state in which Borrower is incorporated], promises to pay to the order of ACE HARDWARE CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation (together with its successors and assigns, the "Lender"), the principal amount of [INSERT LOAN AMOUNT ($)] (the "Loan").

Borrower shall use the Loan for the purchase of goods and services from Lender or for other costs and expenses in connection with the Borrower's acquisition, development and opening of an Ace affiliated retail hardware store located at [insert new store address] (the "New Store"). The Loan proceeds shall be applied by Lender as a credit to Borrower's Ace statement of account for the New Store.

Borrower shall repay the Loan, without interest if paid contemporaneously as provided herein, including by authorizing Lender to redeem Borrower's previously issued Class C shares of Ace Hardware Corporation having a par value or redemption value equal to the outstanding balance of the Loan and to apply the proceeds of such redemption as a set-off against the Loan. If the Loan is not paid contemporaneously as contemplated herein, the outstanding principal balance shall bear interest at a rate equal to ___% per annum, but in no event greater than the maximum rate permitted by applicable law. Borrower hereby authorizes Lender to immediately and contemporaneously redeem such Class C shares and to apply the redemption proceeds as a credit against Borrower's obligations under this Promissory Note. To the extent Borrower elects to satisfy the Loan through the redemption of Class C shares owned by Borrower's Affiliates, Borrower represents that such Affiliates have authorized such redemption and application.

For purposes of this Promissory Note, Borrower's Affiliates means any person, corporation, limited liability company, or other entity that is a member of Ace Hardware Corporation and directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with Borrower.

Concurrently with or prior to the execution of this Promissory Note, Borrower has executed and submitted to Lender a certain Store Development Agreement ("SDA") dated [INSERT DATE OF APPLICABLE SDA] in connection with the Multi-Unit Capital Stock Financing Program pursuant to which Borrower agrees to open and operate new Ace-affiliated retail hardware stores within a sixty (60) month period of time as set forth in the SDA.

This Promissory Note evidences the Loan for one of the new stores required to be opened under the SDA. Borrower shall execute a separate Promissory Note or other loan documentation required by Lender for any other new stores required to be opened under the SDA.

Borrower and Lender acknowledge and agree that the Loan evidenced by this Promissory Note and any redemption of Class C shares of Ace Hardware Corporation authorized by Borrower for repayment of the Loan are intended by the parties to constitute parts of a single, integrated financing transaction entered into for the purpose of providing Borrower with capital to acquire, develop, and open the New Store.

Borrower further acknowledges that the Loan proceeds are being applied by Lender directly as a credit to Borrower's Ace statement of account and are not intended to provide Borrower with unrestricted cash proceeds.

The parties intend that any repayment of the Loan through the redemption of Class C shares and the application of the redemption proceeds to the Loan shall constitute a contemporaneous exchange for new value and shall not constitute a payment of an antecedent debt.

THIS NOTE HAS BEEN DELIVERED IN ILLINOIS AND SHALL BE DEEMED TO BE A CONTRACT MADE UNDER AND GOVERNED BY THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS. BORROWER AND LENDER HEREBY AGREE AND WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WHETHER THE DISPUTE ARISES OUT OF THIS NOTE, THE LOAN DOCUMENTS, OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENTS OF ANY TYPE OR NATURE NOW OR HEREAFTER ARISING. BORROWER AND LENDER SPECIFICALLY AND FOREVER CONSENT TO THE VENUE AND JURISDICTION OF THE STATE AND FEDERAL COURTS OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS IN ENFORCING ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY ARISE BETWEEN THEM.

Borrower represents and warrants that the execution and delivery of this Note has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or other organizational action and that the undersigned is authorized to execute this Note on behalf of Borrower.

1.2 Section Headings. Section headings herein and in the other Loan Documents are included for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Agreement or any other Loan Document.

ARTICLE 2 THE LOAN; MECHANICS

2.1 Loan. Upon satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3.1 hereof, and subject to the representations, warranties, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, the Lender agrees to make, on the Closing Date, a Loan in the Loan Amount to the Borrower with respect to the Relevant Store Location. The Lender may, in its sole and absolute discretion, make the Loan to the Borrower in the form of one or more advances for credit against statements for good and services provided by the Lender to the Borrower with respect to the Relevant Store Location with respect to which the Loan is made, as and when such statements are generated by the Lender.

2.2 Prepayments. Provided that any and all existing patronage based loans (including but not limited to, capital stock and equity match loans) are paid in full, the Borrower may, at any time or from time to time voluntarily prepay the Loan in whole or in part without premium or penalty. It is further provided that any prepayment shall not reduce Borrower’s Class C Ace stock, such that the resulting prepayment would cause the Borrower’s equity to be less than $5,000.00 in the Relevant Store Location. Any prepayment of the Loan shall be accompanied by all accrued interest on the amount prepaid, together with any other amount then due under the Loan Documents with respect to the Loan. Any prepayment in respect of the Loan shall be applied to the remaining scheduled principal installments in respect of the Loan in inverse order of maturity (i.e, first applied to amounts due on the Maturity Date until reduced to zero).

2.3 Repayment of Loan. The Loan shall be repaid as follows:

(a) Commencing with the first Payment Date occurring after the Closing Date, the Borrower shall make amortizing principal repayments of the Loan on the basis of a level payment amortization schedule (i.e., each level payment will consist in part of interest and in part of principal) determined by the Lender based on a term of 10 years and on the interest chargeable from time to time in respect of the Loan as provided in Section 2.4 below.

(b) The Lender shall notify the Borrower of the initial amount of the level payment referred to in clause (a) above prior to the Payment Date referred to in clause (a) above and the Lender shall notify the Borrower from time to time of any changes in the amount of the level payment (and any corresponding changes in the amortization schedule with respect to the principal amount of the Loan) resulting from changes in the interest rate chargeable under Section 2.4 or from changes in the Base Rate (it being understood that a failure or delay by the Lender to notify the Borrower of changes in the level amount due and payable with respect to a Payment Date or successive Payment Dates shall not affect the principal or interest actually owed or owing in respect of the Loan.)

(c) The first nine (9) annual amortizing installments of principal and interest on the Loan will be due and payable as follows:

(i) If Borrower is eligible to make all or any portion of such payment by application of all available non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of all available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the applicable Payment Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower may elect to have the payment billed and paid in the manner set forth in subsection (ii) below, if it notifies Lender in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the Payment Date of its intent to make payment in cash.

(ii) To the extent all or any portion of such payment may not or will not be paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends pursuant to subsection (i), Lender will bill the amount of such payment on the bi-weekly billing statement submitted by Lender to Borrower for merchandise and services purchased by Borrower from Lender during the period including the applicable Payment Date, and such payment shall be due and payable on the due date then applicable to the billing statement on which such payment is billed and shall be paid to the Lender in the manner applicable to such billing statement, or in such other manner as may be agreed by Lender in writing. Any payment billed on a bi-weekly billing statement and not paid when due will incur late payment service charges as set forth in such bi-weekly billing statement, in addition to interest accruing under this Agreement.

(d) On the Maturity Date, the Borrower shall pay to the Lender the entire outstanding principal balance of the Loan, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon and any and all other Obligations hereunder with respect to the Loan, without any notice or demand from Lender whatsoever. To the extent Borrower is eligible to make such payment by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the Maturity Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower may elect to pay such payment in cash if it notifies Lender in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the Maturity Date of its intent to make payment in cash. To the extent not paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends, payment of the principal and interest of the Loan and any and all other Obligations with respect to the Loan on the Maturity Date shall be paid by the Borrower in immediately available funds not later than 1:00 p.m. Chicago time on the Maturity Date.

2.4 Interest.

(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) below, the Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof from the Closing Date at a rate of interest equal to the Base Rate ("Prime, plus 1.0%").

(b) While any Event of Default exists, the Borrower shall pay interest on the principal amount of all outstanding Obligations hereunder at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Base Rate plus Five Percent ("Base Rate, plus 5.0%") per annum, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

(c) Accrued and unpaid interest on any past due amounts shall be due and payable upon demand.

(d) Interest on the Loan shall be due and payable on each applicable Payment Date occurring after the Closing Date of the Loan as part of the level payments referred to under Section 2.3 above and on the Maturity Date of the Loan. Interest on the Loan shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof before and after judgment, and before and after the commencement of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law.

2.5 Computation of Interest. All computations of interest shall be made on the basis of a year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be, and actual days elapsed.

7.2 Notices; Effectiveness. All notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or overnight courier service, mailed by certified or registered mail or sent by telecopier as follows, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the address, telecopier number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 7.2. 7.3 No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. No failure or delay by the Lender in exercising, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

7.4 Expenses; Damage Waiver.

(a) Costs and Expenses. The Borrower shall pay on demand (i) all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Lender (including the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of counsel for the Lender), in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions hereof or thereof (whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby shall be consummated), and (ii) all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Lender (including the fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Lender), in connection with the enforcement or protection of its rights (A) in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, including its rights under this Section, or (B) in connection with the Loan made, including all such out-of-pocket expenses incurred during any workout, restructuring or negotiations in respect of the Loan.

instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof.

7.5 Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Lender.

7.6 Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Lender, and each of Lender's Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, to set off and apply any and all obligations at any time owing by the Lender, or any such Affiliate of the Lender, to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower or any other Loan Party against any and all of the Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party now or hereafter existing under this Agreement or any other Loan Document to the Lender, irrespective of whether or not the Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or any other Loan Document and although such Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party may be contingent or unmatured. The rights of the Lender and Lender's Affiliates under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that the Lender or the Lender's Affiliates may have.

In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged, or received by the Lender exceeds the Maximum Rate, such Person may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee, or premium rather than interest, (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate, and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

7.8 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto in different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 3.1, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Borrower and the Lender.

7.9 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made hereunder and in any other Loan Document or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof.

7.10 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, (a) the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall not be affected or impaired thereby.

CONDUCTED BY A SOLE ARBITRATOR AND BE GOVERNED BY THE UNITED STATES ARBITRATION ACT. JUDGMENT UPON THE AWARD RENDERED BY THE ARBITRATOR MAY BE ENTERED BY ANY COURT HAVING JURISDICTION THEREOF. THE PLACE OF THE ARBITRATION SHALL BE CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

(c) WAIVER OF VENUE. THE BORROWER AND EACH OTHER LOAN PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT IN ANY US FEDERAL OR ILLINOIS STATE COURT IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT.

EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PERSON HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PERSON WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

7.13 Joint and Several Liability.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all Obligations of Borrower hereunder shall be joint and several obligations of each Person identified as the Borrower in this Agreement, together with each other Person that becomes a Borrower pursuant to Section 5.14 or otherwise.

(b) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement to the contrary, it is intended that the joint and several nature of the Obligations of Borrower and the liens and security interests granted by Borrower to secure the Obligations, not constitute a "Fraudulent Conveyance" (as defined below). Consequently, Lender and Borrower agree that if the Obligations of a Borrower, or any liens or security interests granted by such Borrower securing the Obligations would, but for the application of this sentence, constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, the Obligations of such Borrower and the liens and security interests securing such Obligations shall be valid and enforceable only to the maximum extent that would not cause such Obligations or such lien or security interest to constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, and the Obligations of such Borrower and this Agreement shall automatically be deemed to have been amended accordingly. For purposes hereof, "Fraudulent Conveyance" means a fraudulent conveyance under Section 548 of Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code or a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under the applicable provisions of any fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer law or similar law of any state, nation or other governmental unit, as in effect from time to time.

(c) Lender is hereby authorized, without notice or demand and without affecting the liability of a Borrower hereunder, at any time and from time to time, to do the following: (i) renew, extend, accelerate or otherwise change the time for payment of, or other terms relating to another Borrower's Obligations or otherwise modify, amend or change the terms of any promissory note or other agreement, document or instrument now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (ii) accept partial payments on a Borrower's Obligations; (iii) take and hold security or collateral for the payment of another Borrower's Obligations hereunder or for the payment of any guaranties of another Borrower's Obligations or other liabilities of another Borrower and exchange, enforce, waive and release any such security or collateral; (iv) apply such security or collateral and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as Lender, in its sole discretion, may determine; and (v) settle, release, compromise, collect or otherwise liquidate a Borrower's Obligations and any security or collateral therefor in any manner, without affecting or impairing the obligations of the other Borrowers.

(d) Each Borrower hereby agrees that, except as hereinafter provided, its obligations hereunder are unconditional, irrespective of any of the following: (i) the absence of any attempt to collect a Borrower's Obligations from any Borrower or any guarantor or other action to enforce the same; (ii) the waiver or consent by Lender with respect to any provision of any instrument evidencing Borrower's Obligations, or any part thereof, or any other agreement heretofore, now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (iii) failure by Lender to take any steps to perfect and maintain its security interest in, or to preserve its rights to, any security or collateral for Borrower's Obligations; (iv) the institution of any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code, or any similar proceeding, by or against a Borrower or Lender's election in any such proceeding of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code; (v) any borrowing or grant of a security interest by any Borrower as debtor-in-possession, under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; (vi) the disallowance, under Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, of all or any portion of any claim by Lender for repayment of any of Borrower's Obligations; or (vii) any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the date first above written.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR THE STORE IMPROVEMENT LOAN PROGRAM

The minimum loan amount is $15,000, up to a maximum amount equal to $15.00 per square foot (Max. = $150,000.00). Loan origination amount will be in $1,000 increments.

After approval of the loan and confirmation by an Ace representative of project commencement, the amount financed shall be set forth in a credit memo invoice to be issued directly to the retailer's Ace statement of account. A loan commitment fee of 1% of the loan amount will also be assessed upon funding of the loan and billed directly to the retailer's Ace statement of account. Additional charges are applicable if further security is required and will be assessed upon funding of the loan and billed directly to the retailer's Ace statement of account.

The interest rate for the program is fixed at five percent (5%) per annum on the unpaid balance. The loan term is five (5) years and the loan is a fully amortizing installment loan. Each loan installment will be billed to the retailer's A/R statement. There is no prepayment penalty, however, only cash prepayments will be allowed.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR SIX MONTHS DEFERRED DATING FOLLOWED BY TWENTY SIX (26) INSTALLMENT PLAN

For items covered by a six months deferred dating, followed by twenty six (26) installments under this program, the retailer agrees that after the six month deferral period to pay the principal sum to Ace in 26 substantially equal bi-weekly payments as billed by Ace. Such payments shall have the same due dates that apply to Ace's regular billing statements. Retailer agrees to furnish to Ace such invoices, photos or other proof of performance if requested by Ace. Retailer also agrees that if the Ace membership, 2020 Visionary Path commitment, and/or project plan for the applicable store is terminated for any reason, or if the Ace statement of account becomes past due or the retailer otherwise fails to comply with the eligibility criteria, then the entire principal balance under the designated payment plan, plus any interest and/or accrued late payment charges, shall become immediately due and payable.

ARTICLE 2 THE LOAN; MECHANICS

2.1 Loan. Upon satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3.1 hereof, and subject to the representations, warranties, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, the Lender agrees to make, on the Closing Date, a Loan in the Loan Amount to the Borrower with respect to the Relevant Store Location. The Lender may, in its sole and absolute discretion, make the Loan to the Borrower in the form of one or more advances for credit against statements for good and services provided by the Lender to the Borrower with respect to the Relevant Store Location with respect to which the Loan is made, as and when such statements are generated by the Lender.

2.2 Prepayments. The Borrower may, at any time or from time to time voluntarily prepay the Loan in cash in whole or in part without premium or penalty. Any prepayment of the Loan shall be accompanied by all accrued interest on the amount prepaid, together with any other amount then due under the Loan Documents with respect to the Loan. Any prepayment in respect of the Loan shall be applied to the remaining scheduled principal installments in respect of the Loan in inverse order of maturity (i.e., first applied to amounts due on the Maturity Date until reduced to zero).

2.3 Repayment of Loan. The Loan shall be repaid as follows:

(a) Commencing with the first Payment Date occurring after the Closing Date, the Borrower shall make amortizing principal repayments of the Loan on the basis of a level payment amortization schedule (i.e., each level payment will consist in part of interest and in part of principal) determined by the Lender based on a term of 6 years and on the interest chargeable from time to time in respect of the Loan as provided in Section 2.4 below.

(b) The Lender shall notify the Borrower of the initial amount of the level payment referred to in clause (a) above prior to the Payment Date referred to in clause (a) above and the Lender shall notify the Borrower from time to time of any changes in the amount of the level payment (and any corresponding changes in the amortization schedule with respect to the principal amount of the Loan) resulting from changes in the interest rate chargeable under Section 2.4 or from changes in the Base Rate (it being understood that a failure or delay by the Lender to notify the Borrower of changes in the level amount due and payable with respect to a Payment Date or successive Payment Dates shall not affect the principal or interest actually owed or owing in respect of the Loan.)

(c) The first six (6) annual amortizing installments of principal and interest on the Loan will be due and payable as follows:

(i) If Borrower is eligible to make all or any portion of such payment by application of all available non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of all available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the applicable Payment Date.

(ii) To the extent all or any portion of such payment may not or will not be paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends pursuant to subsection (i), Lender will bill the amount of such payment on the bi-weekly billing statement submitted by Lender to Borrower for merchandise and services purchased by Borrower from Lender during the period including the applicable Payment Date, and such payment shall be due and payable on the due date then applicable to the billing statement on which such payment is billed and shall be paid to the Lender in the manner applicable to such billing statement, or in such other manner as may be agreed by Lender in writing. Any payment billed on a bi-weekly billing statement and not paid when due will incur late payment service charges as set forth in such bi-weekly billing statement, in addition to interest accruing under this Agreement.

(d) On the Maturity Date, the Borrower shall pay to the Lender the entire outstanding principal balance of the Loan, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon and any and all other Obligations hereunder with respect to the Loan, without any notice or demand from Lender whatsoever. To the extent Borrower is eligible to make such payment by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with Section 2.7(b), then Borrower shall be deemed to elect to make such payment, by application of available non-cash patronage dividends to the maximum extent it may do so in accordance with Section 2.7(b) and Lender will be authorized to effectuate the making of such payment on the Maturity Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower may elect to pay such payment in cash if it notifies Lender in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the Maturity Date of its intent to make payment in cash. To the extent not paid by application of non-cash patronage dividends, payment of the principal and interest of the Loan and any and all other Obligations with respect to the Loan on the Maturity Date shall be paid by the Borrower in immediately available funds not later than 1:00 p.m. Chicago time on the Maturity Date.

2.4 Interest.

(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) below, the Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof from the Closing Date at a rate of interest equal to the Base Rate ("Prime Rate, plus 1.0%, adjusted quarterly").

(b) While any Event of Default exists, the Borrower shall pay interest on the principal amount of all outstanding Obligations hereunder at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Prime Rate plus Six Percent (“Prime Rate, plus 6.0%”) per annum, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

(c) Accrued and unpaid interest on any past due amounts shall be due and payable upon demand.

(d) Interest on the Loan shall be due and payable on each applicable Payment Date occurring after the Closing Date of the Loan as part of the level payments referred to under Section 2.3 above and on the Maturity Date of the Loan. Interest on the Loan shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof before and after judgment, and before and after the commencement of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law.

2.5 Computation of Interest. All computations of interest shall be made on the basis of a year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be, and actual days elapsed.

2.6 Evidence of Debt. The Loan shall be evidenced by an account or record maintained by the Lender in the ordinary course of business. The account or record maintained by the Lender shall be conclusive absent manifest error of the amount of the Loan to the Borrower and the interest and payments thereon. Any failure to so record or any error in doing so shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrower hereunder to pay any amount owing with respect to the Obligations.

2.7 Payments.

(a) All payments to be made by the Borrower shall be made without condition or deduction for any counterclaim, defense, recoupment or setoff.

(b) Borrower shall make any payments of principal or interest of the Loan by application of the non-cash patronage dividends issued to Borrower.

(c) Borrower agrees and acknowledges that there is no assurance that non-cash patronage dividends will be issued or available to Borrower to make any or all required payments of any Loan. Borrower further agrees and acknowledges that Lender may, in its sole discretion, apply any non-cash patronage dividends otherwise payable to Borrower to any other obligation or indebtedness owed by Borrower or Borrower’s Affiliates to Lender. Except where payment is made by application of non-cash patronage dividends in accordance with this Section 2.7, Borrower is obligated to make all payments required under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents when due, in full and in cash.

ARTICLE 7 MISCELLANEOUS

7.1 Amendments, Etc. No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, and no consent to any departure by the Borrower or any other Loan Party therefrom, shall be effective unless in writing signed by the Lender and the Borrower or the applicable Loan Party, as the case may be, and each such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given.

7.2 Notices; Effectiveness. All notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or overnight courier service, mailed by certified or registered mail or sent by telecopier as follows, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the address, telecopier number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 7.2. The Borrower and the Lender may change their respective address, telecopier or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the other party hereto.

7.3 No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. No failure or delay by the Lender in exercising, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

7.4 Expenses; Damage Waiver.

(a) Costs and Expenses. The Borrower shall pay on demand (i) all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Lender (including the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of counsel for the Lender), in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions hereof or thereof (whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby shall be consummated), and (ii) all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Lender (including the fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Lender), in connection with the enforcement or protection of its rights (A) in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, including its rights under this Section, or (B) in connection with the Loan made, including all such out-of-pocket expenses incurred during any workout, restructuring or negotiations in respect of the Loan.

(b) Waiver of Consequential Damages, Etc. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Borrower shall not assert, and hereby waives, any claim against Lender, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof.

7.5 Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Lender.

7.6 Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Lender, and each of Lender's Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, to set off and apply any and all obligations at any time owing by the Lender, or any such Affiliate of the Lender, to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower or any other Loan Party against any and all of the Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party now or hereafter existing under this Agreement or any other Loan Document to the Lender, irrespective of whether or not the Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or any other Loan Document and although such Obligations of the Borrower or such Loan Party may be contingent or unmatured. The rights of the Lender and Lender's Affiliates under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that the Lender or the Lender's Affiliates may have.

7.7 Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by applicable law (the "Maximum Rate"). If the Lender shall receive interest in an amount that exceeds the Maximum Rate, the excess interest shall be applied to the principal of the Loan or, if it exceeds such unpaid principal, refunded to the Borrower. In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged, or received by the Lender exceeds the Maximum Rate, such Person may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee, or premium rather than interest, (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate, and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

7.8 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto in different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 3.1, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Borrower and the Lender.

7.9 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made hereunder and in any other Loan Document or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof.

7.10 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, (a) the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall not be affected or impaired thereby.

7.11 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Etc.

(a) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS WITHOUT REGARD TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF.

THE ARBITRATION SHALL BE CONDUCTED BY A SOLE ARBITRATOR AND BE GOVERNED BY THE UNITED STATES ARBITRATION ACT. JUDGMENT UPON THE AWARD RENDERED BY THE ARBITRATOR MAY BE ENTERED BY ANY COURT HAVING JURISDICTION THEREOF. THE PLACE OF THE ARBITRATION SHALL BE CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

(c) WAIVER OF VENUE. THE BORROWER AND EACH OTHER LOAN PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT IN ANY US FEDERAL OR ILLINOIS STATE COURT IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT.

(d) SERVICE OF PROCESS. EACH PARTY HERETO IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN THE MANNER PROVIDED FOR NOTICES IN SECTION 7.2. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT WILL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY HERETO TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PERSON HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PERSON WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

7.13 Joint and Several Liability.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all Obligations of Borrower hereunder shall be joint and several obligations of each Person identified as the Borrower in this Agreement, together with each other Person that becomes a Borrower pursuant to Section 5.14 or otherwise.

(b) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement to the contrary, it is intended that the joint and several nature of the Obligations of Borrower and the liens and security interests granted by Borrower to secure the Obligations, not constitute a "Fraudulent Conveyance" (as defined below). Consequently, Lender and Borrower agree that if the Obligations of a Borrower, or any liens or security interests granted by such Borrower securing the Obligations would, but for the application of this sentence, constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, the Obligations of such Borrower and the liens and security interests securing such Obligations shall be valid and enforceable only to the maximum extent that would not cause such Obligations or such lien or security interest to constitute a Fraudulent Conveyance, and the Obligations of such Borrower and this Agreement shall automatically be deemed to have been amended accordingly. For purposes hereof, "Fraudulent Conveyance" means a fraudulent conveyance under Section 548 of Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code or a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under the applicable provisions of any fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer law or similar law of any state, nation or other governmental unit, as in effect from time to time.

(c) Lender is hereby authorized, without notice or demand and without affecting the liability of a Borrower hereunder, at any time and from time to time, to do the following: (i) renew, extend, accelerate or otherwise change the time for payment of, or other terms relating to another Borrower's Obligations or otherwise modify, amend or change the terms of any promissory note or other agreement, document or instrument now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (ii) accept partial payments on a Borrower's Obligations; (iii) take and hold security or collateral for the payment of another Borrower's Obligations hereunder or for the payment of any guaranties of another Borrower's Obligations or other liabilities of another Borrower and exchange, enforce, waive and release any such security or collateral; (iv) apply such security or collateral and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as Lender, in its sole discretion, may determine; and (v) settle, release, compromise, collect or otherwise liquidate a Borrower's Obligations and any security or collateral therefor in any manner, without affecting or impairing the obligations of the other Borrowers.

(d) Each Borrower hereby agrees that, except as hereinafter provided, its obligations hereunder are unconditional, irrespective of any of the following: (i) the absence of any attempt to collect a Borrower's Obligations from any Borrower or any guarantor or other action to enforce the same; (ii) the waiver or consent by Lender with respect to any provision of any instrument evidencing Borrower's Obligations, or any part thereof, or any other agreement heretofore, now or hereafter executed by a Borrower and delivered to Lender; (iii) failure by Lender to take any steps to perfect and maintain its security interest in, or to preserve its rights to, any security or collateral for Borrower's Obligations; (iv) the institution of any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code, or any similar proceeding, by or against a Borrower or Lender's election in any such proceeding of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code; (v) any borrowing or grant of a security interest by any Borrower as debtor-in-possession, under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; (vi) the disallowance, under Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, of all or any portion of any claim by Lender for repayment of any of Borrower's Obligations; or (vii) any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the date first above written.

Ace shall have the right of first refusal to purchase the Targeted Store(s) by giving written notice to Retailer, within sixty (60) days after Ace's receipt of Retailer's notice, of Ace's intention to purchase on the same terms as set forth in Retailer's notice. However, if Ace fails to exercise its right and any or all of the Targeted Store(s) are not subsequently sold to the proposed purchaser on such terms and conditions for any reason, Ace shall continue to have, upon the same conditions set forth herein, a right of first refusal to purchase such Targeted Store(s) upon the terms and conditions of any subsequent proposed sale or transfer.

- (3) Upon written notice to Retailer, but without Retailer's consent required, Ace may assign its purchase rights under this Section 2.F with respect to the Targeted Stores to such person(s) or entity(ies), at such time(s) and subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as Ace in its sole discretion may from time to time determine.
- (4) The provisions of this Section 2.F shall survive for a period of five (5) years after termination for any reason, whether by Retailer, Ace, operation of law or otherwise, of any and/or all of the following agreements: (i) this Agreement, (ii) the respective Membership Agreement relating to the New Store and/or to any Other Store(s), and (iii) the respective Brand Agreement relating to the New Store and/or to any Other Store(s).

3. Termination, Breach and Acceleration. If (i) Retailer's Membership Agreement or Ace Brand Agreement relating to the New Store is terminated for any reason during the Five Year Period, whether by Retailer, Ace, operation of law or otherwise, or (ii) Retailer breaches any term or condition of this Agreement, Ace reserves the right to charge Retailer, via the Retailer's Ace billing statement, for the Credit component only of the New Store Incentive, prorated based on the number of full and partial months remaining until completion of the Five Year Period.

4. Notices. Any notices required or permitted hereunder shall be sent to the other party, via overnight delivery by the United States Postal Service, Federal Express, UPS or other national overnight delivery service, at the respective address listed herein for such party. 6. Waiver. Any failure by a party to comply with any obligation, agreement or condition herein may be expressly waived in writing by each of the other parties, but such waiver or failure to insist upon strict compliance with such obligation, agreement or conditions shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

7. Severability. If any term, provision or condition of this Agreement is determined by a court or other judicial or administrative tribunal to be illegal, void or otherwise ineffective or not in accordance with public policy, the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby and shall remain in full force and effect.

Now, therefore, the parties by their respective duly authorized representative do hereby sign and execute this Agreement as of the Effective Date.

This Discovery Improvement Incentive Agreement ("Agreement") is executed by and between (i) Ace Hardware Corporation, a Delaware corporation with offices at 2915 Jorie Blvd, Oak Brook, Illinois 60523 ("Ace") and (ii) the undersigned prospective Ace member ("Retailer"), and is effective as of the date executed by Ace ("Effective Date"), said Effective Date being listed on the second page hereof.

Whereas, Retailer will operate an Ace-branded retail hardware store located at _____ (the "New Store") pursuant to an Ace Hardware Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) and an Ace Brand Agreement (collectively, "New Member Agreements"), among other agreements, to be entered into by and between Ace and Retailer.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the mutual rights and obligations contained herein and in the New Member Agreements, the receipt and sufficiency of which consideration is hereby acknowledged, Ace and Retailer hereby AGREE as follows:

1. New Store Incentive. Ace shall provide to Retailer a new store incentive ("Discovery Improvement Incentive") comprised of a credit in an amount equal to Retailer's order of Ace Discovery recommended skus and quantities for the New Store format (i.e. Core, Convenience or Express, which must fit within the linear feet of the New Store) for such skus not in the New Store's purchase history prior to the placement of the order. To qualify for the credit, the products (which will receive six months deferred dating plus 26 equal installments) must be ordered through Ace's assortment planner and be received by Retailer within six months of the New Store's activation date. The credit applies to resets of all New Store departments or to a select group of departments, but only one order per department will qualify for the credit. Each department must contain at least 80% of the Ace Discovery assortment for such department upon completion of the reset in order to qualify for the credit. Orders for Discovery products not in the reset departments will be billed to Retailer's Ace statement in 26 equal installments. Retailer must dispose of all existing inventory of products replaced by Discovery assortment products.

2. Retailer Covenants. Retailer represents warrants and covenants to Ace as follows:

A. Store Planning and Visual Merchandising: Prior to the New Store's opening, Retailer shall utilize a store plan prepared by an Ace Store Planner for the New Store as well as visual merchandising services recommended by or approved by Ace.

B. Discovery Acceptance: Each reset department within the New Store must include a minimum of 80% of the Ace Discovery assortment for each such department.

C. Retailer Compliance with Membership Agreement and Brand Agreement for the New Store: During the first five (5) years after the New Store first opens to the public ("Five Year Period"), Retailer shall fully satisfy Retailer's obligations with respect to the New Store under each of the following agreements and programs:

(1) Membership Agreement and Brand License. Retailer shall remain in good standing as a member of Ace with respect to the New Store. For purposes of this Agreement, Retailer shall be deemed to not be in "good standing" if Retailer is in default under the Membership Agreement or the Brand Agreement for the New Store, as either or both such agreement(s) may be amended by Ace from time to time; and

(2) Category Management. Subscribe to and purchase, for each department reset in the New Store, 80% of the Ace Discovery assortment for such department, as the same may be amended by Ace from time to time.

D. Retailer Compliance with Platinum Performance. Within 24 months after the Effective Date, Retailer must achieve and thereafter maintain compliance with all Platinum Performance Retailing Standards, as the same may be amended by Ace from time to time.

3. Termination, Breach and Acceleration. If (i) Retailer's Membership Agreement or Ace Brand Agreement relating to the New Store is terminated for any reason during the Five Year Period, whether by Retailer, Ace, operation of law or otherwise, or (ii) Retailer breaches any term or condition of this Agreement, Ace reserves the right to charge Retailer, via the Retailer's Ace billing statement, for the amount of the Discovery Improvement Incentive, prorated based on the number of full and partial months remaining until completion of the Five Year Period.

4. Notices. Any notices required or permitted hereunder shall be sent to the other party, via overnight delivery by the United States Postal Service, Federal Express, UPS or other national overnight delivery service, at the respective address listed herein for such party. Any notices sent to Ace shall be in duplicate (i.e. separate envelopes) and shall be addressed, respectively, to "Attention: Vice President, Retail Operations, and "Attention: General Counsel, Legal Department."

Now, therefore, the parties by their respective duly authorized representative do hereby sign and execute this Agreement as of the Effective Date.

Report of Independent Auditors

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Ace Hardware Corporation (the Company), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of January 3, 2026 and December 28, 2024, and the related consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, equity and cash flows for each of the three fiscal years in the period ended January 3, 2026 and the related notes (collectively referred to as the “financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company at January 3, 2026 and December 28, 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three fiscal years in the period ended January 3, 2026 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free of material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free of material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations and five-year summary of earnings and distributions but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information, and we do not express an opinion or any form of assurance thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and consider whether a material inconsistency exists between the other information and the financial statements, or the other information otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work performed, we conclude that an uncorrected material misstatement of the other information exists, we are required to describe it in our report.

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Company and Its Business

Ace Hardware Corporation (“the Company”) is a wholesaler of hardware, paint and other related products. The Company also provides to its retail members (“Retailers”) value-added services such as advertising, marketing, merchandising and store location and design services. The Company’s goods and services are sold predominately within the United States, primarily to retailers that operate hardware stores and with whom the Company has a retail membership agreement. As a retailer-owned cooperative, the Company distributes substantially all of its patronage sourced income in the form of patronage distributions to Retailers based on their volume of merchandise purchases.

Ace International Hardware Corporation (“AIH”), is a majority-owned and controlled subsidiary of the Company with a 20.5 percent noncontrolling interest held by AIH customers. AIH shareholders do not own shares of stock in the Company nor receive patronage dividends.

Ace Retail Holdings LLC (“ARH”) is the owner of the 189-store Westlake Ace Hardware (“Westlake”) and the 79-store Great Lakes Ace Hardware (“GLA”) retail chains. On December 31, 2025, Westlake and GLA were merged into a newly formed entity, Ace Retail Group, Inc. (“ARG”). Following the merger, ARH is the owner of ARG, which serves as the operating company for the combined retail operations. ARG is a retailer of hardware, paint and other related products.

Ace Wholesale Holdings LLC (“AWH”) owns and operates Emery Jensen Distribution (“EJD”). EJD is a wholesaler of hardware, paint and other related products to non-member retailers.

Ace Services Holdings LLC (“ASH”), through its subsidiaries, operates Ace Hardware Home Services (“AHHS”), a provider of residential plumbing, heating, cooling and electric (“PHCE”) services, and Ace Handyman Services, a franchisor of home improvement, maintenance and repair services.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”). The Company’s fiscal year ends on the Saturday nearest December 30. Accordingly, fiscal years 2025, 2024 and 2023 ended on January 3, 2026, December 28, 2024 and December 30, 2023, respectively. Unless otherwise noted, all references herein for the years 2025, 2024 and 2023 represent fiscal years ended January 3, 2026, December 28, 2024 and December 30, 2023, respectively. Fiscal year 2025 consisted of 53 weeks. Fiscal years 2024 and 2023 consisted of 52 weeks each.

Subsequent events have been evaluated through February 17, 2026, the date these statements were issued.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its majority-owned subsidiaries. All intercompany transactions have been eliminated.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash, Cash Equivalents and Marketable Securities

In the normal course of business, the Company has outstanding checks and unsettled electronic funds transfers (“EFTs”) that exceed the cash balances in the Company’s bank accounts, which create a book overdraft that are recorded as a liability. As of January 3, 2026 and December 28, 2024, the Company had outstanding checks and EFTs in excess of bank balances totaling $108.7 million and $93.6 million, respectively, which have been included in accounts payable in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. These outstanding amounts were subsequently funded through cash receipts and borrowings under the Company’s debt facilities during the following fiscal year.

The Company classifies all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less as cash equivalents.

ACE HARDWARE CORPORATION

(In millions)

The Company determines the appropriate classification of its investments in marketable securities, which are predominately held by the Company's New Age Insurance, Ltd. ("NAIL") subsidiary, at the time of purchase and evaluates such designation at each balance sheet date. All marketable securities have been classified and accounted for as available for sale. The Company may hold debt securities until maturity. In response to changes in the availability of and the yield on alternative investments as well as liquidity requirements, securities are occasionally sold prior to their stated maturities. Debt securities with maturities beyond twelve months are viewed by the Company as available to support current operations and are therefore classified as current assets in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets. Marketable securities are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices, with unrealized gains and losses, net of taxes, reported as a component of Accumulated other comprehensive income ("AOCI") for debt securities, while equity securities' unrealized gain and losses are recorded as a component of Other income, net. Realized gains and losses on securities are determined using the specific identification method.

In the normal course of NAIL's operations, standby letters of credit totaling $21.2 million and $17.2 million at January 3, 2026 and December 28, 2024, respectively, were issued in favor of the insurance companies that reinsure a portion of NAIL's loss exposure. At January 3, 2026, NAIL has pledged substantially all of its cash and cash equivalents and marketable securities as collateral for these letters of credit. The Company maintains a multiple employer welfare arrangement ("MEWA") that offers medical insurance and other welfare benefits to employees of the Company and Retailers and their employees at participating Ace retail locations. See Note 12 for more information.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when performance obligations under the terms of contracts with our customers are satisfied; generally, this occurs with the transfer of control of merchandise or services. Revenue is measured as the amount of consideration we expect to receive in exchange for transferring goods or providing services. The Company excludes sales and usage-based taxes collected and recognizes revenues net of expected returns. Provisions for sales returns are provided at the time the related sales are recorded based on historic returns activity.

The Company's warehouse merchandise revenue originates with a single performance obligation to ship the products, and therefore the Company's performance obligations are satisfied when control of the products is transferred to the customer per the arranged shipping terms. The customer takes ownership and assumes risk of loss for warehouse merchandise upon delivery. Although products are generally shipped FOB shipping point, the Company effectively retains the responsibilities of ownership until the goods reach the customer. The Company considers shipping and handling as activities to fulfill its performance obligation for warehouse merchandise revenues. Billings for freight are accounted for as Revenues and shipping and handling costs are accounted for in Cost of revenues.

The Company has direct shipment arrangements with various vendors to deliver products to its customers without having to physically hold the inventory at the Company's warehouses, thereby increasing efficiency and reducing costs. The Company recognizes revenue for direct shipment arrangements upon delivery to the customer with contract terms that typically specify FOB destination. The Company recognizes the revenue and cost of goods sold from these arrangements on a gross basis as the principal in the transaction as the Company is primarily responsible for fulfilling the promise to customers to provide merchandise at negotiated prices with the vendors, assumes inventory risk if the product is returned by the customers, and assumes all the credit risk for the vendors with the customers.

Service revenues (advertising activities, brand building initiatives and fees for other services provided primarily to domestic Retailers) are recognized when the service is complete as this is when the Retailer has the ability to direct the use of and obtain the benefits from the service. Service revenues from the Company's residential home service businesses are recognized when the repair or installation is complete and the consumer has tendered payment. Service revenues are included in Wholesale revenues on the Consolidated Statements of Income.

The Company's digital revenues come from Ace Hardware's website. For digital transactions, customers choose whether to have merchandise delivered to them or to collect their merchandise from an Ace store ("in-store pick up"). For items delivered directly to the customer, control passes and revenue is recognized when delivery has been completed to the customer, as title has passed and we have transferred possession to the customer. For in-store pick up, control passes and revenue is recognized once the customer has taken possession of the merchandise. Any fees charged to customers for delivery are a component of the transaction price and are recognized when delivery has been completed. Payment terms for retail and digital sales are at the point of sale. Digital revenues are included in Wholesale revenues on the Consolidated Statements of Income.

Retail revenues from retail locations owned and operated by the Company are recognized when the customer takes ownership of the products sold and assumes the risk of loss. The customer takes ownership and assumes risk of loss generally at the point of sale in our owned retail locations. The Company offers its Retailers various incentive programs which provide the Retailers with certain sales allowances. The Company offers these incentive programs in anticipation of future sales to the Retailers that participate in these programs. Since the sales allowances provide future economic benefit to the Company, they are capitalized in Other assets and amortized as a reduction of revenue on a straight-line basis over the period of expected future sales to these Retailers, which is generally five years.

The following table provides a summary of revenues by sales category:

	Years Ended
	January 3, 2026	December 28, 2024
Warehouse merchandise	$ 6,430.2	$ 6,162.7
Direct shipment merchandise	1,640.2	1,556.9
Retail revenues	884.6	825.4
Digital revenues	485.4	382.3
Service revenues	603.2	564.1
Total revenues	$ 10,043.6	$ 9,491.4

Trade Receivables

Trade receivables from customers include amounts invoiced for the sale of merchandise, services and equipment used in the operation of customers' businesses.

Notes Receivable

The Company makes available to its Retailers various lending programs whose terms exceed one year. The notes bear interest at various rates based on market rates, the loan program or the Retailer's credit quality and are recorded at face value. Interest is recognized over the life of the note on the effective interest method. Loan origination fees were not material for any period presented.

Allowance for Expected Credit Losses

The Company estimates an allowance for credit losses related to future expected losses by using relevant information such as historical collection statistics, current customer credit information, the current economic environment, the aging of receivables, the evaluation of compliance with lending covenants and the offsetting amounts due to Retailers for stock, notes, interest and anticipated but unpaid patronage distributions. Significant past due accounts are reserved on a specific identification basis. For the remainder of the accounts, the allowance is evaluated on a pool basis for accounts with similar risk characteristics and a loss-rate for each pool is determined using current conditions and historical credit loss statistics. The Company considers accounts and notes receivable past due if invoices remain unpaid past their due date and provides for the write-off of uncollectible receivables after exhausting all commercially reasonable collection efforts.

Inventories

Wholesale inventories are valued at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Cost is determined primarily using the last-in, first-out ("LIFO") method for all inventories.

Inventories at retail locations operated by ARG are valued at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Inventory cost is determined using the moving average method, which approximates the first-in, first-out ("FIFO") method.

Vendor Funds

The Company receives funds from vendors in the normal course of business principally as a result of purchase volumes, sales, early payments or promotions of vendors' products. Based on the provisions of the vendor agreements in place, management develops accrual rates by estimating the point at which the Company will have completed its performance under the agreement and the amount agreed upon will be earned. Amounts accrued throughout the year can be impacted if actual purchase volumes differ from projected annual purchase volumes. At year-end, the accrual reflects actual purchases made throughout the year.

Vendor funds are treated as a reduction of inventory cost, unless they represent a reimbursement of specific, incremental and identifiable costs incurred by the Company to sell the vendor's product, in which case the costs are netted. The majority of the vendor funds that the Company receives do not meet the specific, incremental and identifiable criteria. Therefore, the Company treats a majority of these funds as a reduction in the cost of inventory as the amounts are accrued and recognizes these funds as a reduction of cost of revenues when the inventory is sold.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Expenditures for maintenance, repairs and renewals of relatively minor items are generally charged to expense. Significant improvements or renewals are capitalized.

Depreciation expense is computed on the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives as follows:

Buildings	15 – 40 years
Leasehold improvements	Lease life
Warehouse equipment	3 – 20 years
Transportation equipment	5 – 10 years
Office equipment	3 – 10 years

Leasehold improvements are generally amortized on a straight-line basis over the lesser of the lease term or the estimated useful life of the asset.

The Company evaluates long-lived assets, such as property and equipment, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset group to estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset group. If the carrying amount of an asset group exceeds its estimated future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset group exceeds its fair value.

Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of an acquired business over the fair value of the net tangible assets acquired and identified intangible assets. Goodwill is not amortized but is tested for impairment at a reporting unit level on an annual basis as of the first day of the fourth quarter, or more frequently, if circumstances change or an event occurs that would more likely than not reduce the fair value of a reporting unit below its carrying amount.

The Company's other intangible assets primarily relate to trademarks, tradenames and customer relationships. The intangibles are amortized over their estimated useful lives.

See Note 8 for additional information.

Internal-Use Software

Included in fixed assets is the capitalized cost of internal-use software. The Company capitalizes costs incurred during the application development stage of internal-use software and amortizes these costs over its estimated useful life. Costs incurred related to design or maintenance of internal-use software are expensed as incurred.

Leases

At the commencement date of a lease, the Company recognizes a liability to make lease payments and an asset representing the right to use the underlying asset during the lease term. The lease liability is measured at the present value of lease payments over the lease term, including variable fees that are known or subject to a minimum floor. The Company generally does not include options to extend or terminate leases unless it is reasonably certain that the option will be exercised. The Company has lease agreements that contain both lease and non-lease components. The Company elected to not separate non-lease components from lease components for all categories. The Company utilizes the practical expedient to use a risk-free discount rate at commencement date based upon the lease term in determining the recognition of the operating and finance lease assets and liabilities. The initial valuation of the right-of-use ("ROU") asset includes the initial measurement of the lease liability, lease payments made in advance of the lease commencement date and initial direct costs incurred by the Company and excludes lease incentives.

Real estate operating leases also typically require payment of real estate taxes, common area maintenance and insurance. These components comprise the majority of variable lease costs and are excluded from the present value of lease obligations. Operating lease assets also include prepaid or accrued lease payments and are reduced by lease incentives.

Certain retail lease agreements also provide for contingent rentals based on sales performance in excess of specified minimums or on changes in the consumer price indexes. Contingent rentals, which are based upon future performance or changes in indices, are excluded from the determination of lease payments and were not material.

Leases with an initial term of 12 months or less are classified as short-term leases and are not recorded on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The lease expense for short-term leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Advertising Expense

The Company expenses advertising costs when incurred. Gross advertising expenses amounted to $374.6 million, $336.9 million, and $297.7 million in fiscal 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Gift Cards

The Company sells gift cards to customers through its Retailers, the Company website and select third parties. The gift cards do not expire. A liability is initially established for the value of the gift card when sold. Gift card breakage income is recognized proportionately as redemption occurs at the approximate monthly breakage rate and represents the balance of gift cards for which the Company believes the likelihood of redemption by the customer is remote. The breakage income calculation takes into account any legal obligation to remit the unredeemed portion to relevant jurisdictions. During fiscal years 2025, 2024 and 2023, the Company recognized gift card breakage income of $2.5 million, $4.3 million and $3.3 million, respectively. The Company does not believe there is a reasonable likelihood that there will be a material change in the future estimates or assumptions used to record breakage.

Retirement Plans

The Company sponsors health benefit plans for its retired officers and a limited number of retired non-officer employees. The Company and its subsidiaries also sponsor defined contribution plans for substantially all employees. The Company's contributions under these plans are determined annually by the Board of Directors and charged to expense in the period in which it is earned by employees.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method. Under this approach, deferred taxes are recognized for the future tax consequences of differences between the financial statement and income tax bases of existing assets and liabilities and measured based upon enacted tax laws and rates.

Self-Insurance

NAIL, the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, operates as a captive insurance company. NAIL provides the reinsurance of property and casualty insurance policies for some Retailers and is the direct insurer for certain property and casualty insurance policies of the Company. These insurance programs are subject to varying retention levels of self-insurance. Such self-insurance relates to losses and liabilities primarily associated with property, general liability, workers' compensation, and auto liability insurance programs. Losses are accrued based upon the Company's estimates of the aggregate liability for claims incurred using certain actuarial assumptions based on Company experience and insurance industry metrics.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Credit risk pertains primarily to the Company's trade and notes receivables. The Company extends credit to its customers as part of its day-to-day operations. Management believes that as no specific receivable or group of receivables comprises a significant percentage of total trade accounts, its concentration of credit risk with respect to trade receivables is limited. Additionally, management believes that its allowance for doubtful accounts is adequate with respect to overall customer credit risks. Also, the Company's certificate of incorporation and by-laws specifically provide that the Company may set-off its obligation to make any payment to a Retailer for such Retailer's stock, notes, interest and declared and unpaid distributions against any obligation owed by the Retailer to the Company. The Company, but not the Retailer, may at its sole discretion exercise these set-off rights when any such funds become due to former Retailers with outstanding accounts and notes receivable owed to the Company and current Retailers with past due receivables owed to the Company.

Supplier Finance Program

The Company has a supplier finance program whereby we have entered into a payment processing agreement with a financial institution. Under this agreement, the financial institution acts as our paying agent with respect to accounts payable due to certain foreign suppliers. Participating suppliers may, at their sole discretion, elect to receive payment for one or more of our payment obligations, prior to their scheduled due dates, at a discounted price from the participating financial institution. The Company is not a party to the agreements between the participating financial institution and the suppliers in connection with the program, and our rights and obligations to our suppliers are not impacted. The Company does not reimburse suppliers for any costs they incur for participation in the program. The Company has not pledged any assets as security or provided any guarantees as part of the program. The Company has no economic interest in our suppliers' decisions to participate in the program. The Company's responsibility is limited to making payment to the respective financial institution according to the terms originally negotiated with the supplier, regardless of whether the supplier elects to receive early payment from the financial institution. The payment terms we negotiate with our suppliers are consistent, irrespective of whether a supplier participates in the program. Current payment terms with a majority of our suppliers are generally 60 days, which we deem to be commercially reasonable. Outstanding payment obligations under the supplier finance program are included in Accounts payable on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The associated payments are included in operating activities within the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

(In millions)

Impact of New Accounting Standards

Recently issued accounting pronouncements that are not yet effective and that were not discussed below are either inapplicable to the Company or, if applicable, the Company does not expect that they will have a material impact on consolidated results of operations, consolidated financial condition, or consolidated cash flows.

New Accounting Pronouncements – Issued

In December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2023-09, “Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures,” which requires disclosures of disaggregated information about a reporting entity’s effective tax rate reconciliation as well as disclosures on income taxes paid by jurisdiction. ASU No. 2023-09 is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2025. The guidance is required to be applied on a prospective basis, with the option to apply the standard retrospectively. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is evaluating the impact of the standard on our consolidated financial statement disclosures.

In September 2025, the FASB issued ASU No. 2025-06, “Intangibles – Goodwill and Other – Internal-Use Software (Subtopic 350-40): Targeted Improvements to the Accounting for Internal-Use Software,” which is intended to modernize internal-use software guidance by removing all references to project stages and by clarifying the thresholds entities apply to begin capitalizing costs. ASU No. 2025-06 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2027, and interim periods within those annual reporting periods. Early adoption is permitted. The guidance can be applied on a prospective basis, a modified basis for in-process projects, or a retrospective basis. The Company is evaluating the impact of the standard on our consolidated financial statements.

(2) Acquisitions

The Company accounts for all business combinations using the acquisition method to record a new cost basis for the assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The difference between the purchase price and the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed has been recorded as goodwill in the financial statements. The results of operations are reflected in the consolidated financial statements of the Company from the dates of acquisition.

During the year ended January 3, 2026, ASH acquired additional PHCE businesses for consideration of $10.1 million, prior to working capital adjustments. These acquisitions resulted in ASH recording $9.1 million of goodwill.

In addition, during the year ended January 3, 2026, ARG acquired retail stores for consideration of $10.2 million, prior to working capital adjustments. These acquisitions resulted in ARG recording $5.3 million of goodwill. The goodwill is expected to be deductible for tax purposes.

During the year ended January 3, 2026, the Company acquired the land and building utilized for its warehouse and distribution operations located in Jackson County, Georgia. The property, which had previously been leased by the Company, was purchased from the landlord for total consideration of $90.3 million.

(3) Receivables, net

(4) Inventories

The excess of replacement cost over the LIFO value of inventory was $279.6 million and $251.4 million at January 3, 2026 and December 28, 2024, respectively. Inventories at ARG retail locations are valued at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Inventory cost is determined using the moving average method, which approximates the FIFO method. The Company regularly reviews its inventory and establishes a reserve for excess and obsolete inventory based on a number of factors, including historical sales, sales forecasts, obsolescence due to technology changes and defective goods.

(7) Notes Receivable, net

The Company makes available to its Retailers various lending programs whose terms exceed one year. At January 3, 2026 and December 28, 2024, the outstanding balance of the notes was $50.7 million and $36.8 million, respectively, of which the current portion of $38.7 million and $35.5 million, respectively, was recorded in Receivables, net and the long-term portion of $8.6 million and $1.3 million, respectively, was recorded in Other assets.

	January 3, 2026	December 28, 2024
Notes receivable, gross	$ 90.8	$ 74.6
Less accrued patronage to be applied	(40.1)	(37.8)
Net of accrued patronage	50.7	36.8
Less current portion of notes receivable included in Receivables, net	(38.7)	(35.5)
Less allowance for doubtful accounts	(3.4)	-
Notes receivable, net	$ 8.6	$ 1.3

For substantially all of the Company's Notes receivable, the amounts due are generally expected to be collected through the non-cash portion of the following year's annual patronage distribution and are therefore classified as current. In the event a Retailer cancels its membership with the Company, any outstanding loans are transferred from Notes receivable to Trade receivables and are due immediately. As the non-cash portion of the patronage distribution is used to settle the Notes receivable, there are no loans that are currently past due. The patronage distribution for each Retailer can vary from year to year based on the Company's financial performance, as well as the volume of patronage-based merchandise that each Retailer purchases from the Company. The contractual maturities of the Notes Receivable, before consideration of patronage deductions to be applied are as follows:

5 – 8 years	36.0	27.1
9 – 10 years	26.7	22.0
Total	$ 90.8	$ 74.6

The Company evaluates risk on its loan portfolio by categorizing each loan into an internal risk category. The Company's risk categories include:

Low – The Retailer possesses a strong financial position, above average payment record to both Ace and other vendors, and the business is well established.

Moderate – The Retailer possesses an average financial position, an average payment record to both Ace and other vendors, and the business is somewhat established.

High – The Retailer possesses a weak financial position, a substandard payment record to Ace or other vendors, or the business is somewhat new.

Based upon these criteria, the Company has classified its loan portfolio as follows:

Corporate Credit Exposure:
Low risk	$ 31.4	$ 29.1
Moderate risk	32.8	27.1
High risk	26.6	18.4
Total	$ 90.8	$ 74.6

Pursuant to the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and the Company's by-laws, notes receivable (like all obligations owed to the Company by the Company's Retailers) are secured by the Company stock owned by the Retailers. For this reason, as well as the fact that substantially all of the notes receivable are repaid from the following year's annual patronage distribution, the actual risk of collection is low for the notes receivable portfolio despite many Retailers being classified as Moderate and High risk.

The Company applies a consistent practice of establishing an allowance for notes that it feels may become uncollectible by monitoring the financial strength of its Retailers. The collectability of certain notes is evaluated on an individual basis, while the remaining notes are evaluated on a collective basis. Due to the nature of the notes and the collateral held by the Company, virtually all outstanding notes were collectively evaluated for impairment.

The Company has evaluated the collectability of the notes and has established an allowance for doubtful accounts of $3.4 million and $2.0 million for January 3, 2026 and December 28, 2024, respectively. The allowance at December 28, 2024 was reclassified as a component of Receivables, net as the notes being reserved against were classified as short-term. As of January 3, 2026, $0.3 million of the allowance was a reclassification from Receivables, net as these notes being reserved against were classified as long-term. Management records the allowance for doubtful accounts based on the above information as well as judgments made considering a number of factors, primarily historical collection statistics, current Retailer credit information, the current economic environment and the offsetting amounts due to Retailers for stock, notes, interest and declared and unpaid patronage distributions. The components of changes to the Notes receivable allowance for doubtful accounts for 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

Beginning balance	$ -	$ 1.6
Charges to provision	1.1	0.4
Reclassifications from (to) Receivables, net	2.0	(2.0)
Reclassifications from Accounts receivable allowance for doubtful accounts	0.3	-
Ending balance	$ 3.4	$ -

Notes bear interest at various rates and are recorded at face value. Interest is recognized over the life of the note based on the outstanding balance and stated interest rate, which approximates the effective interest method. During fiscal years 2025, 2024 and 2023, $6.1 million, $5.9 million and $4.6 million, respectively, were recorded as interest income related to the notes.

Generally, in the event a Retailer cancels their membership with the Company, any outstanding Notes receivable, and related allowance for doubtful accounts, are transferred to trade receivables and the Retailer is billed for any unpaid principal and interest balances. In fiscal 2025 and 2024, $17.4 million and $14.5 million, respectively, of Notes receivable were transferred to Trade receivables as an event occurred which made the notes due immediately.

(8) Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

Changes in the carrying value of goodwill were as follows:

Balance at December 30, 2023	$ 373.3
Purchase accounting adjustments	3.4
Acquired goodwill	46.3
Balance at December 28, 2024	$ 423.0
Purchase accounting adjustments	(2.0)
Balance at January 3, 2026	$ 435.4

Impairment exists when a reporting unit's carrying value exceeds its fair value. The Company tests reporting units for impairment annually as of the first day of the fourth quarter, or more frequently if events or circumstances indicate it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying value.

Identifiable intangible assets were as follows:

Trademarks and tradenames	$ 9.2	$ 9.2
Customer relationships	39.1	39.1
Total identifiable intangible assets, gross	48.3	48.3

The trademarks and tradenames are being amortized over 2-20 years. The customer relationships are being amortized over 10 years. Net amortization expense related to all intangible assets was $3.7 million, $5.0 million and $3.8 million for fiscal years 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The estimated total amortization expense over the next five fiscal years is $18.6 million.

(9) Patronage Distributions and Refund Certificates Payable

The Company operates as a cooperative organization and has paid or may pay patronage distributions to Retailers on a portion of patronage-based income derived from business with such Retailers. Patronage distributions are allocated in proportion to the volume of purchases by Retailers during the period. The cash portion of the patronage distribution was 40 percent for all years presented.

The accrued patronage distributions composition is summarized as follows:

	Years Ended
	January 3, 2026	December 28, 2024	December 30, 2023
Cash portion	$ 139.0	$ 137.2	$ 137.1

Patronage financing deductions	44.8	42.4	40.0
Total patronage distributions accrued for third party Retailers	$ 339.6	$ 335.6	$ 335.7

Patronage distributions are allocated on a fiscal year basis with issuance in the following year.

In those instances where the Class C stock requirements have been met, the non-cash portion of the patronage distribution is distributed in the form of patronage refund certificates with a five-year term and bearing interest at 4 percent.

The patronage refund certificates outstanding at January 3, 2026 are payable as follows:

(11) Debt

The Company has a $1.1 billion line of credit facility. The facility is expandable to $1.4 billion through a $300.0 million accordion that is exercisable without the consent of existing lenders provided that the Company is not in default of the credit agreement and further provided that none of the existing lenders are required to provide any portion of the increased facility. At the Company's discretion, borrowings under the credit facility bear interest at a rate of either 25 to 100 basis points over the prime rate or 125 to 200 basis points over the Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR"), depending on the Company's leverage ratio. The credit facility was priced at SOFR plus 150 basis points at January 3, 2026. Fees on the unused portion of the line of credit range from 17.5 to 27.5 basis points depending on the Company's leverage ratio. The credit facility expires on January 24, 2028. As of January 3, 2026, the Company was in compliance with its covenants and had $374.5 million in borrowings outstanding under the credit facility.

The credit facility includes a $175.0 million sublimit for the issuance of standby and commercial letters of credit. As of January 3, 2026, a total of $38.9 million in letters of credit were outstanding.

The credit facility allows the Company to make revolving loans and other extensions of credit to AIH in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $100.0 million at any time. As of January 3, 2026, there were $11.0 million in loans or other extensions of credit provided to AIH.

The Company's Westlake subsidiary had a $125.0 million asset-based revolving credit facility ("Westlake Facility") that was scheduled to expire on August 3, 2026. On January 1, 2026, the facility was amended to accommodate the merger of the Company's Westlake and GLA subsidiaries, and the name change of the combined entity to ARG. In addition, the maximum borrowing capacity was increased to $175 million and the due date was extended to December 31, 2030. The facility is expandable to $200.0 million through a $25.0 million accordion that is exercisable without the consent of existing lenders provided that the Company is not in default of the credit agreement and further provided that none of the existing lenders are required to provide a portion of the increased facility. Under this facility, ARG has the right to issue letters of credit up to a maximum of $7.5 million. Borrowings under this facility bear interest at a rate of either the prime rate plus an applicable spread of 25 to 50 basis points or SOFR plus an applicable spread of 125 to 150 basis points, depending on ARG's average availability under the ARG Facility as measured on a trailing 12-month basis. The ARG Facility was priced at SOFR plus 125 basis points at January 3, 2026.

The ARG Facility is collateralized by substantially all of ARG's tangible and intangible assets. Borrowings under the facility are subject to a borrowing base calculation consisting of certain advance rates applied to eligible collateral balances (primarily consisting of certain receivables and inventories). This agreement requires maintenance of certain financial covenants including a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio. As of January 3, 2026, ARG was in compliance with its covenants and had $41.8 million in borrowings outstanding under the ARG Facility.

The ARG Facility includes a lender-controlled cash concentration system that results in all of ARG's daily available cash being applied to the outstanding borrowings under their facility. Pursuant to Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification Section 470-10-45, "Classification of Revolving Credit Agreements Subject to Lock-Box Arrangements and Subjective Acceleration Clauses," all borrowings under the ARG Facility are classified as a Current maturity of long-term debt.

Total debt outstanding is comprised of the following:

	January 3, 2026	December 28, 2024
Revolving Credit Facility	$ 374.5	$ 216.5
ARG Facility	41.8	60.1
Installment notes with maturities through 2029 at a fixed rate of 6.00%	50.9	50.5
Total debt	467.2	327.1
Less maturities within one year	(63.4)	(80.6)
Long-term debt	$ 403.8	$ 246.5

The aggregate scheduled maturities of total debt at January 3, 2026 are as follows:

(12) Commitments and Contingencies

Contingencies

The Company has certain contingent liabilities resulting from litigation and claims incident to the ordinary course of business. Management believes that the probable resolution of such contingencies will not materially affect the financial position, results of operations, or liquidity of the Company. The Company expenses legal fees as they are incurred.

Other guarantees

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into commercial commitments including standby letters of credit and guarantees that could become contractual obligations. Letters of credit are issued generally to insurance agencies and financial institutions in direct support of the Company's corporate and Retailer insurance programs. As of January 3, 2026, the Company had outstanding standby letters of $38.9 million issued by the Company's credit facility.

The Company maintains the Ace Hardware Corporation Cooperative Group Health Plan ("AHP"), which is a MEWA that provides medical insurance and other welfare benefits to employees of the Company and their families and employees and families of participating Retailers.

The AHP is insured by Ace Group Insurance, Inc. ("AGI"), a Vermont-based captive insurance company. AGI is owned by a funded welfare trust ("Trust") that serves as the mechanism for the AHP to collect, hold, invest and pay funds deposited with the AHP for the conduct of AHP operations. The Trust is not owned by the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

The Company maintains a $15.0 million standby letter of credit in favor of AGI. The letter of credit is held by the Vermont Department of Financial Regulations ("VDFR") and can be drawn upon at VDFR's direction if AGI becomes illiquid. The Company believes that the likelihood of the letter of credit being drawn is remote.

(13) Fair Value

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. There is a three-level hierarchy for disclosure to show the extent and level of judgment used to estimate fair value measurements.

Level 1 – Investments included in this category are the Company's Fixed income mutual funds, Equity mutual funds, Money market funds and U.S. government notes. The Company's valuation techniques used to measure the fair values of Level 1 investments are derived from quoted market prices for identical instruments, as active markets for these instruments exist. The Company has classified its investments used to support the Company's deferred compensation plan as Other assets as these investments are restricted solely for this purpose.

Level 2 – Investments included in this category are the Company's Corporate fixed income securities, Mortgage-backed securities and Other debt securities. Other debt securities primarily consist of taxable municipal bonds, corporate asset-backed securities, and U.S. Agency fixed rate notes and bonds. The Company's valuation techniques used to measure the fair values of Level 2 securities are derived from the following: non-binding market consensus prices that are corroborated by observable market data, quoted market prices for similar instruments, or pricing models, such as discounted cash flow techniques, with all significant inputs derived from or corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3 – Uses inputs that are unobservable and are supported by little or no market activity and reflect the use of significant management judgment. These values are generally determined using pricing models for which the assumptions utilize management's estimates of market participant assumptions.

The tables below set forth, by level, the Company's financial assets that were accounted for at fair value as of January 3, 2026 and December 28, 2024. The tables do not include cash on hand and also do not include assets and liabilities that are measured at historical cost or any basis other than fair value. The carrying values for other current financial assets and liabilities, such as accounts receivable and accounts payable, approximate fair value due to the short maturity of such instruments. Long-term notes receivable approximate fair value because the Company charges its Retailers interest and a significant portion of the notes have the Company's stock as collateral.

The fair value of the Company's debt and equity securities exceeded cost by $7.9 million and $1.5 million at January 3, 2026 and December 28, 2024, respectively. The realized and unrealized gains and losses on equity securities are recorded to Other income, net and the realized gain or loss on debt securities are recorded in the period in which the gain or loss occurs to Other income, net in the Consolidated Statement of Income. Unrealized gains and losses on debt securities are recorded as a component of Other comprehensive income (loss), net of tax. The Company has not recorded an allowance due to the unrealized losses being driven by the market factors related to fluctuating interest rates as opposed to credit factors. All debt securities are expected to reach par value at their maturity dates.

Total	$ 7.1	$ 9.5	$ 5.3	$ 18.6	$ 40.5

The Company's debt instruments are recorded at cost on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The fair value of the Company's debt approximated carrying value at January 3, 2026. The estimated fair value of long-term debt is based on estimated rates for similar instruments and discounted cash flow analysis using the Company's weighted-average interest rate and is, therefore, classified as Level 3 within the fair value hierarchy.

The federal net operating loss can be carried forward indefinitely. For those states not conforming to the indefinite federal carryforward provisions, the state net operating losses can, generally, be carried forward through the 2045 tax year. A valuation allowance of $2.2 million has been established against the federal and state net operating losses as it is more likely than not that the benefit of the net operating losses will not be realized.

At January 3, 2026, the Company has foreign net operating loss carryforwards of $69.1 million available for offset against future taxable income. A valuation allowance of $18.4 million has been established against the foreign net operating losses as it is more likely than not that the benefit of the net operating losses will not be realized.

The foreign tax credits may be carried forward through the 2035 tax year. A valuation allowance of $3.3 million has been established against the foreign tax credits as it is more likely than not that the benefit of the federal tax credits will not be realized.

At January 3, 2026, the Company has state tax credit carryforwards of $5.4 million available to offset future state income tax expense. The state tax credits may be carried forward to tax years 2026 through 2027. A valuation allowance of $5.4 million has been established against certain state tax credits as it is more likely than not that the benefit of the tax credits will not be realized.

The federal income tax returns of the consolidated group are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”), generally for three years after the returns are filed. The 2021 through 2025 tax years remain subject to examination by the IRS. For state purposes, the 2020 through 2025 tax years remain subject to examination.

The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in Income tax expense. Accrued interest and penalties included in the reserve for uncertain tax positions and recognized in income tax expense are immaterial. It is reasonably possible that the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits will increase or decrease within the next twelve months. The Company currently estimates that such increases and decreases will not be significant.

Company Overview

The Company is a wholesaler of hardware and other related products and provides services and best practices for its member Retailers ("Retailers"). The overall home improvement industry is estimated to be approximately $531 billion and consists of a broad range of products and services, including lawn and garden products, paint and sundries, certain building supplies and general merchandise typically used in connection with home and property improvement, remodeling, repair and maintenance. The industry is fragmented and competition exists between the large home improvement centers, retail hardware stores and other chains offering hardware merchandise. In addition, we face growing competition from online and multichannel retailers.

The Company's Retailers generally compete in the $61.6 billion "convenience hardware" segment which is characterized by purchases primarily of products related to home maintenance and repair, including paint and related products, lawn and garden equipment, and those products less focused on large-scale building, renovation and remodeling projects. The Company believes that the following competitive strengths distinguish it from its peers and contribute to its success in the convenience hardware market: (1) strong consumer recognition of the Ace Brand; (2) well-regarded for exceptional customer service and convenience; (3) strength of distribution operations; (4) consolidated purchasing power; (5) differentiated and localized product and service offerings; and (6) a diversified network of independent retailers.

The Company strives to be the best provider of products, services and operating methods for convenience hardware retailers. The four main drivers that support that goal and the Company's efforts to grow the business are improving the store model, accelerating new store openings, increasing store projects that drive store sales and profitability and reducing the number of store closings.

Ace International Hardware Corporation ("AIH"), is a majority-owned and controlled subsidiary of the Company with a 20.5 percent noncontrolling interest held by AIH customers. AIH shareholders do not own shares of stock in the Company nor receive patronage dividends. AIH has wholesale distribution capabilities in Ningbo, China and Cuautitlán Izcalli, Mexico. AIH customers operate 573 stores in approximately 50 countries.

Ace Retail Holdings LLC ("ARH") is the owner of the 189-store Westlake Ace Hardware ("Westlake") and the 79-store Great Lakes Ace Hardware ("GLA") retail chains. On December 31, 2025, Westlake and GLA were merged into a newly formed entity, Ace Retail Group, Inc. ("ARG"). Following the merger, ARH is the owner of ARG, which serves as the operating company for the combined retail operations. ARG is a retailer of hardware, paint and other related products.

Ace Wholesale Holdings LLC ("AWH") owns and operates Emery Jensen Distribution ("EJD"). EJD is a wholesaler of hardware, paint and other related products to non-member retailers.

Ace Services Holdings LLC ("ASH"), through its subsidiaries, operates Ace Hardware Home Services ("AHHS"), a provider of residential plumbing, heating, cooling and electric ("PHCE") services, and Ace Handyman Services, a franchisor of home improvement, maintenance and repair services.

Fiscal 2025 consisted of 53 weeks compared to 52 weeks in fiscal 2024. The 53rd week added $119.4 million in sales. Excluding the 53rd week, sales increased $432.8 million or 4.6 percent compared to fiscal 2024.

Total wholesale revenues were $9.2 billion for fiscal 2025, an increase of $493.0 million or 5.7 percent, as compared to the prior year. Increases were seen across many departments with lawn and garden, impulse, fertilizer, grilling and power tools showing the largest gains. New domestic Ace stores are defined as stores that were activated from January 2024 through December 2025. In 2025, the Company had an increase in wholesale merchandise revenues from new domestic Ace stores of $260.5 million. This increase was partially offset by a decrease in wholesale merchandise revenues due to domestic Ace store cancellations of $44.2 million. As a result, the Company realized a net increase in wholesale merchandise revenues of $216.3 million related to the impact of both new Ace stores affiliated with the Company and from stores that cancelled their membership in 2024 and 2025. Wholesale merchandise revenues to comparable domestic Ace stores increased $81.3 million compared to the prior year. Warehouse sales represented 76.5 percent of wholesale merchandise revenue in 2025 compared to 77.2 percent in 2024, while direct ship sales were 23.5 percent, up from 22.8 percent in 2024.

AWH wholesale revenues were $585.1 million during fiscal 2025. This is an increase of $104.6 million from fiscal 2024, which was primarily due to higher sales to pro lumber, hardware, and digital customers.

AIH wholesale revenues were $176.1 million during fiscal 2025. This is a decrease of $38.9 million from fiscal 2024 primarily due to the loss of what had been AIH's largest customer.

ASH wholesale revenues were $193.9 million during fiscal 2025. This is an increase of $22.1 million from fiscal 2024.

Revenues from Acehardware.com were $485.4 million during fiscal 2025. This is an increase of $103.1 million from fiscal 2024.

The GLA chain experienced a 3.6 percent increase in same-store-sales, while the Westlake chain experienced a 0.2 percent decrease in same-store-sales in fiscal 2025. The new stores opened by ARG in 2024 and 2025 contributed $54.5 million of incremental revenues during fiscal 2025.

Wholesale gross profit for fiscal 2025 was $1.3 billion, an increase of $97.6 million from fiscal 2024. The wholesale gross margin percentage was 13.8 percent of wholesale revenues in fiscal 2025, up from 13.5 percent in fiscal 2024.

Retail gross profit for fiscal 2025 was $405.0 million, an increase of $30.3 million from fiscal 2024. The retail gross margin percentage was 45.8 percent of retail revenues in fiscal 2025, up from 45.4 percent in fiscal 2024. For ARG, retail gross profit as reported in the Ace financial statements is based on the Ace wholesale acquisition cost of product, not ARG's acquisition cost which includes a markup from the Company.

Wholesale operating expenses increased $94.3 million, or 10.2 percent in fiscal 2025, as compared to fiscal 2024. Included in this increase were non-recurring asset impairment and shut-down charges of $20.6 million related to AIH. The remaining increase was primarily driven by higher compensation benefit expenses and planned increases in marketing, advertising and supply chain spending. As a percentage of wholesale revenues, wholesale operating expenses increased to 11.1 percent of wholesale revenues in fiscal 2025 from 10.7 percent of wholesale revenues in fiscal 2024. Excluding the $20.6 million of non-recurring AIH charges, wholesale operating expenses were 10.9 percent of wholesale revenues in fiscal 2025.

Retail operating expenses increased $33.7 million, or 11.3 percent in fiscal 2025, as compared to fiscal 2024. The increase is driven by expenses incurred related to new stores added in 2024 and 2025. Retail operating expenses as a percentage of retail revenue increased to 37.5 percent of retail revenues in fiscal 2025 from 36.1 percent in fiscal 2024.

Interest expense increased $8.1 million compared to fiscal 2024 due to higher average borrowings.

Other income, net decreased $10.9 million compared to fiscal 2024 due to the absence of the $17.8 million gain on sale of the Company's RSC located in Little Rock, Arkansas in fiscal 2024; partially offset by gains on long term investments in fiscal 2025.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company believes that existing cash balances, along with the existing lines of credit and long-term financing, will be sufficient to finance the Company's working capital requirements, debt service, patronage distributions, capital expenditures, share redemptions from Retailer cancellations and growth initiatives for at least the next 12 months.

The Company's borrowing requirements have historically arisen from, and are expected to continue to arise from, seasonal working capital needs, debt service, capital improvements and acquisitions, patronage distributions and other general corporate purposes. In the past, the Company has met its operational cash needs using cash flows from operating activities and funds from its revolving credit facilities. The Company currently estimates that its cash flows from operating activities and working capital, together with its lines of credit, will be sufficient to fund its short-term liquidity needs. Actual liquidity and capital funding requirements depend on numerous factors, including operating results, general economic conditions and the cost of capital.

The Company has a $1.1 billion line of credit facility. The facility is expandable to $1.4 billion through a $300.0 million accordion that is exercisable without the consent of existing lenders provided that the Company is not in default of the credit agreement and further provided that none of the existing lenders are required to provide any portion of the increased facility. At the Company's discretion, borrowings under the credit facility bear interest at a rate of either 25 to 100 basis points over the prime rate or 125 to 200 basis points over the Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR"), depending on the Company's leverage ratio. The credit facility was priced at SOFR plus 150 basis points at January 3, 2026. Fees on the unused portion of the line of credit range from 17.5 to 27.5 basis points depending on the Company's leverage ratio. The credit facility expires on January 24, 2028. As of January 3, 2026, the Company was in compliance with its covenants and had $374.5 million in borrowings outstanding under the credit facility.

The credit facility includes a $175.0 million sublimit for the issuance of standby and commercial letters of credit. As of January 3, 2026, a total of $38.9 million in letters of credit were outstanding.

The credit facility allows the Company to make revolving loans and other extensions of credit to AIH in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $100.0 million at any time. As of January 3, 2026, there were $11.0 million in loans or other extensions of credit provided to AIH.

The Company's Westlake subsidiary had a $125.0 million asset-based revolving credit facility ("Westlake Facility") that was scheduled to expire on August 3, 2026. On January 1, 2026, the facility was amended to accommodate the merger of the Company's Westlake and Great Lakes subsidiaries, and the name change of the combined entity to Ace Retail Group, Inc. (ARG). In addition, the maximum borrowing capacity was increased to $175 million and the due date was extended to December 31, 2030. The facility is expandable to $200.0 million through a $25.0 million accordion that is exercisable without the consent of existing lenders provided that the Company is not in default of the credit agreement and further provided that none of the existing lenders are required to provide a portion of the increased facility. Under this facility, ARG has the right to issue letters of credit up to a maximum of $7.5 million. Borrowings under this facility bear interest at a rate of either the prime rate plus an applicable spread of 25 to 50 basis points or SOFR plus an applicable spread of 125 to 150 basis points, depending on ARG's average availability under the ARG Facility as measured on a trailing 12-month basis. The ARG Facility was priced at SOFR plus 125 basis points at January 3, 2026.

The ARG Facility is collateralized by substantially all of ARG's tangible and intangible assets. Borrowings under the facility are subject to a borrowing base calculation consisting of certain advance rates applied to eligible collateral balances (primarily consisting of certain receivables and inventories). This agreement requires maintenance of certain financial covenants including a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio. As of January 3, 2026, ARG was in compliance with its covenants and had $41.8 million in borrowings outstanding under the ARG Facility.

The ARG Facility includes a lender-controlled cash concentration system that results in all of ARG's daily available cash being applied to the outstanding borrowings under their facility. Pursuant to FASB Accounting Standards Codification Section 470-10-45, "Classification of Revolving Credit Agreements Subject to Lock-Box Arrangements and Subjective Acceleration Clauses," all borrowings under the ARG Facility are classified as a Current maturity of long-term debt.

As of January 3, 2026, total debt was $467.2 million and was comprised of $416.3 million borrowed on lines of credit and $50.9 million owed to former Retailers. As of December 28, 2024, total debt of $327.1 million was comprised of $276.6 million borrowed on lines of credit and $50.5 million owed to former Retailers.

Net cash provided by operating activities	399.8	548.1
Net cash used in investing activities	(276.0)	(222.8)
Net cash used in financing activities	(113.3)	(320.9)
Net change in cash and cash equivalents	$ 10.5	$ 4.4

The Company's operating activities generated $399.8 million of cash in fiscal 2025 compared to $548.1 million in fiscal 2024. Excluding the impact of net changes in assets and liabilities, cash provided by operating activities increased from $431.9 million in fiscal 2024 to $469.1 million in fiscal 2025. Higher non-cash operating expenses in 2025 and a non-operating gain in 2024 resulted in higher cash provided by operations in 2025, despite the decline in net income.

The net change in assets and liabilities used $69.3 million of cash in fiscal year 2025 compared to $116.2 million provided in fiscal year 2024. Accounts payable and accrued expenses increased $7.7 million during fiscal 2025 compared to an increase of $149.7 million during fiscal 2024. The higher increase in accounts payable and accrued expenses during fiscal 2024 was primarily due to the timing of vendor payments.

Net cash used for investing activities was $276.0 million in fiscal 2025 compared to $222.8 million in fiscal 2024. Investing activities in fiscal 2025 consisted of $226.9 million in capital expenditures, a $31.3 million increase in notes receivable for Retailer loan programs and $17.8 million paid to acquire businesses. Investing activities in fiscal 2024 consisted of $155.4 million in capital expenditures, $58.6 million paid to acquire businesses and a $37.3 million increase in notes receivable for Retailer loan programs; partially offset by $22.7 million of proceeds from the sale of the Company's RSC located in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Net cash used in financing activities was $113.3 million in fiscal 2025 compared to $320.9 million provided in fiscal 2024. During 2025, the Company borrowed $139.7 million under its revolving credit facilities, paid $137.8 million for the cash portion of the 2024 patronage distribution, made principal payments on finance leases of $52.7 million, paid $28.8 million on patronage refund certificates and made payments on long-term debt of $22.6 million. During 2024, the Company paid $137.1 million for the cash portion of the 2023 patronage distribution, paid down borrowings under its revolving credit facilities by $85.3 million, made principal payments on finance leases of $40.3 million, paid $22.9 million on patronage refund certificates and made payments on long-term debt of $21.1 million.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company has certain other guarantees, as further described in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements – Note 12 – Commitments and Contingencies. The Company believes the likelihood of any such payment under these guarantees is remote.

Application of Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses in the consolidated financial statements. On an ongoing basis, the Company evaluates its estimates and judgments based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates, and these estimates would vary under different assumptions or conditions. Management believes these estimates and assumptions are reasonable.

The Company annually reviews its financial reporting and disclosure practices and accounting policies to ensure that they provide accurate and comprehensive information relative to the current economic and business environment. The Company's significant accounting policies are described in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements. The following represents those critical accounting policies which involve a relatively higher degree of judgment, estimation and complexity and where materially different amounts could be reported under different conditions or using different assumptions.

Valuation of Inventories When necessary, the Company provides allowances to adjust the carrying value of inventories to the lower of cost or market, including costs to sell or dispose of surplus or damaged/obsolete inventory, and for estimated shrinkage. Estimates of the future demand for the Company's products are key factors used by management in assessing the net realizable value of the inventories. While management believes that the estimates used are appropriate, an unanticipated decline in revenues at retail outlets or a significant decline in demand for products in selected product categories could result in valuation adjustments.

Vendor Funds The Company receives funds from vendors in the normal course of business principally as a result of purchase volumes, revenues or promotions of vendors' products. Based on the provisions of the vendor agreements in place, management develops accrual rates by estimating the point at which the Company will have completed its performance under the agreement and the amount agreed upon will be earned. Amounts accrued throughout the year can be impacted if actual purchase volumes differ from projected annual purchase volumes, especially in the case of programs that provide for increased funding when graduated purchase volumes are met. At year-end, the accrual reflects actual purchases made throughout the year.

Vendor funds are treated as a reduction of inventory cost, unless they represent a reimbursement of specific, incremental and identifiable costs incurred by the customer to sell the vendor's product, in which case the costs would be netted. The majority of the vendor funds that the Company receives do not meet the specific, incremental and identifiable criteria. Therefore, the Company treats a majority of these funds as a reduction in the cost of inventory as the amounts are accrued and recognized as a reduction of cost of revenues when the inventory is sold.

Allowance for Expected Credit Losses The Company estimates an allowance for credit losses related to future expected losses by using relevant information such as historical collection statistics, current customer credit information, the current economic environment, the aging of receivables, the evaluation of compliance with lending covenants and the offsetting amounts due to Retailers for stock, notes, interest and anticipated but unpaid patronage distributions. Significant past due accounts are reserved on a specific identification basis. For the remainder of the accounts, the allowance is evaluated on a pool basis for accounts with similar risk characteristics and a loss-rate for each pool is determined using current conditions and historical credit loss statistics. The Company considers accounts and notes receivable past due if invoices remain unpaid past their due date and provides for the write-off of uncollectible receivables after exhausting all commercially reasonable collection efforts. While the Company believes it has appropriately considered known or expected outcomes, its customers' ability to pay their obligations, including those to the Company, could be adversely affected by declining revenues at retail resulting from such factors as contraction in the economy or competitive conditions in the wholesale and retail industry including increased competition from omni-channel retailers, discount stores, chain stores and other mass merchandisers.

Insurance Reserves Insurance reserves for claims related to the Company's self-insured property, general liability, workers' compensation and auto liability insurance programs are dependent on assumptions used in calculating such amounts. These assumptions include projected ultimate losses and confidence levels of the reserve requirement and consider historical loss levels and other factors. While management believes that the assumptions used are appropriate, differences in actual claims experience or changes in assumptions may affect the Company's insurance reserves.

Goodwill Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of an acquired business over the fair value of net tangible assets acquired and identified intangible assets. Goodwill is not amortized but is tested for impairment at a reporting unit level on an annual basis or more frequently, if circumstances change or an event occurs that would more likely than not reduce the fair value of a reporting unit below its carrying amount.

Qualitative factors may be assessed to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. If an election is made to not perform the qualitative assessment, or the qualitative assessment indicates that the carrying amount is more likely than not higher than the fair value, goodwill is tested for impairment. If the fair value of a reporting unit exceeds its carrying amount, goodwill of the reporting unit is considered not impaired. If the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, an impairment loss shall be recognized in an amount equal to that excess.

Significant judgment is applied when goodwill is assessed for impairment. This judgment includes developing cash flow projections, selecting appropriate discount rates, identifying relevant market comparables, incorporating general economic and market conditions and selecting an appropriate control premium. The income approach is based on discounted cash flows, which are derived from internal forecasts and economic expectations for each respective reporting unit.

The Company tests reporting units for impairment annually as of the first day of the fourth quarter, or more frequently if events or circumstances indicate it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying value. No goodwill impairment charge was recorded during fiscal years 2025 and 2024.

Qualitative and Quantitative Disclosure About Market Risk

Inflation and Changes in Prices The Company's business is not generally governed by contracts that establish prices substantially in advance of the receipt of goods or services. As vendors increase or decrease their prices for merchandise supplied to the Company, the Company generally increases or decreases the price to its customers in an equal amount plus the normal handling charge on such amounts. The U.S. economy experienced a significant increase in inflation as the prices of raw materials and freight negatively impacted the costs the Company pays to acquire products. For the most part, the Company was able to offset the effect of increased costs by passing along cost increases to the Company's customers. Although inflation has slowed, the Company is unable to ensure that a future increase in inflation will be able to be passed on to its customers through increased prices. If these increases cannot be passed to our customers, our financial condition, results of operations, liquidity, and cash flows may be negatively affected.

Foreign Currency Although the Company has international operating entities, its exposure to foreign currency rate fluctuations is not significant to its financial condition and results of operations.

Customer Credit Risk The Company is exposed to the risk of financial non-performance by customers. The Company's ability to collect on sales to its customers is dependent on the liquidity of its customer base. Volatility in credit markets may reduce the liquidity of the Company's customer base. To manage customer credit risk, the Company monitors historical collection statistics, current retailer credit information, the current economic environment, the aging of receivables, the evaluation of compliance with lending covenants and the offsetting amounts due to Retailers for stock, notes, interest and anticipated but unpaid patronage distributions. From certain customers, the Company also obtains collateral as considered necessary to reduce risk of loss. The Company does not believe the loss of any single customer would have a material adverse effect on its results of operations.

Interest Rate Volatility The Company has exposure to fluctuations in interest rates on its floating rate debt. The Company believes that its exposure to interest rate fluctuations is not significant to its financial condition and results of operations.

Certain Other Risks

The Company relies extensively on information technology systems, some of which are managed or provided by third-party service providers, to analyze, process, store, manage and protect transactions and data. In managing the business, the Company also relies heavily on the integrity of, security of and consistent access to this data for information such as customer data, merchandise planning and inventory replenishment, supplier purchases, sales to Retailers, warehousing, distribution, inventory control, and various corporate-level financial and other functions including communication with the Retailers. The Company's systems and the systems managed by third parties are subject to damage or interruption from a number of causes, including power outages; computer and telecommunications failures; computer viruses; security breaches or cyber-attacks. Although the Company and the third-party service providers seek to maintain the Company's respective systems effectively and to successfully address the risk of compromise of the integrity, security and consistent operations of these systems, such efforts may not be successful. If the Company's or our service providers' systems are damaged, breached or cease to function properly, this could significantly disrupt the Company's operations and be costly, time consuming and resource-intensive to remedy.

The Company and its third-party system providers receive, collect and store personally identifiable, confidential, proprietary and other information from our vendors, customers and employees so that they may, among other things, purchase products or services and enroll in promotional programs. Any breach of the Company's or its third-party system providers' security could result in significant costs to protect any customers, vendors, employees, and other parties whose personal data is compromised. Loss of customer, supplier, employee or other business information could disrupt operations, damage the Company's reputation and expose the Company to claims from customers, vendors, financial institutions, regulators, payment card associations, employees and others, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company, its financial condition and results of operations.

The Company imports inventory from manufacturers outside the United States, particularly in Asia. Importing involves risks including duties, tariffs, quotas on imported merchandise and potential disruptions resulting from geopolitical problems in countries from which merchandise is imported. Our ability to manage the importing of goods from overseas, their production, timing of deliveries and U.S. Customs-related compliance is an important component of our merchandising strategy. Geopolitical issues and military conflicts outside of the United States may increase the likelihood of supply chain interruptions and have a negative impact on our import activities.

The Company continues to monitor these market forces and risks but cannot reasonably predict the long-term impacts of these evolving developments.

The Company maintains a system of internal accounting controls, which is supported by an internal audit program and is designed to provide reasonable assurance, at an appropriate cost, that the Company's assets are safeguarded and transactions are properly recorded. This system is continually reviewed and modified in response to changing business conditions and operations and as a result of recommendations by the internal and external auditors. In addition, the Company has distributed to employees its policies for conducting business affairs in a lawful and ethical manner.

The Audit and Finance Committee of the Board of Directors meets periodically with the independent auditors and with the Company's internal auditors, both privately and with management present, to review accounting, auditing, internal control and financial reporting matters. The Audit and Finance Committee recommends to the full Board of Directors the selection of the independent auditors and regularly reviews the internal accounting controls, the activities of the outside auditors and internal auditors and the financial condition of the Company. VIRGINIA

1. In Item 17, the language in the Summary column of 17 h is amended by adding the following:

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any ground for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute "reasonable cause," as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

2. In Item 17, the language in the Summary column of 17(r) is amended by adding the following:

Effective July 1, 2026, under subdivision A 4 of Section 13.1-563 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act ("Act"), it is unlawful to offer or enter into a franchise agreement that restricts the right of a franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail after termination or expiration of the franchise agreement. However, subsection B of § 13.1-563 of the Act provides that if a franchisee sells a franchise at a mutually agreed upon price to a third party or back to the franchisor, such sale may include a term restricting the right of such franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail for a period of no more than two years after such sale.

WASHINGTON

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by Ace Hardware Corporation, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on behalf of Ace Hardware Corporation. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

The following paragraph is added at the end of Item 17:

If any of the provisions in this disclosure document or the Franchise Agreements are inconsistent with the relationship provisions of Revised Code of Washington Section 19.100.180 or any other requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act (the "Act"), then (if the Act applies by its terms) the provisions of the Act will prevail over the inconsistent terms of the disclosure document and/or Franchise Agreements for any franchises sold in Washington. However, we and you agree to enforce the Franchise Agreements' provisions to the extent the law allows.

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180, may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with Company, including the areas of termination and renewal of Member's franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor, including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site shall be either in the State of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, might not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

This Addendum is effective only if the jurisdictional requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act and its regulations are met independently, without reference to this Addendum.

RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL AGREEMENT *

This Right of First Refusal Agreement ("Agreement") is executed by and between (i) Ace Hardware Corporation, a Delaware corporation with offices at 2915 Jorie Blvd, Oak Brook, Illinois 60523 ("Ace") and (ii) the undersigned retailer ("Retailer") and is effective as of the date executed by Ace ("Effective Date").

Recitals

- A. Retailer desires to open an Ace-branded retail hardware store at the location listed below ("New Store") pursuant to (i) an Ace Hardware Membership Agreement (Nonbranded) ("Membership Agreement") and (ii) an Ace Brand Agreement ("Brand Agreement"), each of the foregoing executed respectively by and between Ace and Retailer with respect to the New Store.
- B. Ace is willing to grant to Retailer the right to operate the New Store as an Ace member subject to Retailer granting to Ace the right of first refusal stated herein.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the mutual rights and obligations contained herein and in the Membership Agreement and the Brand Agreement, the receipt and sufficiency of which consideration is hereby acknowledged by, respectively, Ace and Retailer, Ace and Retailer hereby AGREE as follows:

1. Right of First Refusal.

(A) From and after the Effective Date, Retailer shall provide written notice to Ace of Retailer's intent to sell or otherwise transfer ownership of (i) the New Store and/or (ii) any other retail hardware store(s) now or at any time hereafter owned or controlled by, or under common control with, Retailer or the New Store, respectively (each an "Other Store" and collectively "Other Stores"), including in each case a sale or other transfer in a single transaction or series of related transactions of a majority of the inventory and fixtures of such store(s). Retailer's notice to Ace shall be sent at least sixty (60) days prior to the proposed effective date of such intended sale or transfer, and shall set forth the name and address of the proposed purchaser, the identity of the respective store(s) subject to Retailer's proposed sale or transfer (each, a "Targeted Store" and collectively, the "Targeted Stores") and all terms and conditions of any such proposed sale or transfer. Ace shall have the right of first refusal to purchase the Targeted Store(s) by giving written notice to Retailer, within sixty (60) days after Ace's receipt of Retailer's notice, of Ace's intention to purchase on the same terms as set forth in Retailer's notice. However, if Ace fails to exercise its right and any or all of the Targeted Store(s) are not subsequently sold to the proposed purchaser on such terms and conditions for any reason, Ace shall continue to have, upon the same conditions set forth herein, a right of first refusal to purchase such Targeted Store(s) upon the terms and conditions of any subsequent proposed sale or transfer.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Ace shall have no purchase right under Section 1.(A) with respect to any proposed sale or other transfer of any Target Store(s) if, in good faith, the proposed purchaser or transferee:

- a. applies to become a member of Ace with respect to the Targeted Store(s); and
- b. intends to own and operate the Targeted Store(s) as Ace-branded retail hardware store(s) both immediately upon consummation of the proposed purchase or transfer and for the foreseeable future thereafter; and
- c. executes a right of first refusal in favor of Ace, similar in substance to the right set forth in this Section 1, for all Targeted Store(s) so purchased or transferred and any other retail hardware store(s) that would be under common control with the Targeted Stores immediately following such sale or transfer, in a form satisfactory to Ace in its sole discretion.

(C) Upon written notice to Retailer, but without Retailer's consent required, Ace may assign its purchase rights with respect to the Targeted Stores to such person(s) or entit(ies), at such time(s) and subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as Ace in its sole discretion may from time to time determine.

This Agreement must be executed by Ace members who are: (1) opening a new Ace store, including without limitation under Ace's "buy to convert" program (i.e., purchase a non-Ace store and convert it to an Ace store); (2) applying for an Ace loan in excess of $200,000.00; or (3) purchasing an existing Ace store provided, however, that in the case of (1) and (3) above, (a) Ace members that have one or more Ace stores in existence as of March 28, 2022 and are opening an additional Ace store; and (b) existing non-Ace stores converting to Ace stores are not required to execute this Agreement.

(D) The provisions of this Section (1) shall survive for a period of five (5) years after termination for any reason, whether by Retailer, Ace, operation of law or otherwise, of any and/or all of the following agreements: (i) this Agreement, (ii) the respective Membership Agreement relating to the New Store and/or to any Other Store(s), and (iii) the respective Brand Agreement relating to the New Store and/or to any Other Store(s).

2. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties and their respective successors and assigns.
3. Waiver. Any failure by a party to comply with any obligation, agreement or condition herein may be expressly waived in writing by each of the other parties, but such waiver or failure to insist upon strict compliance with such obligation, agreement or conditions shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.
4. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be interpreted and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois, without reference to its choice of law and conflict of laws principles. Notwithstanding anything in the Membership Agreement and Brand Agreement to the contrary, the parties agree that any action, suit or proceeding arising under this Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the federal or state courts located in Cook County, Illinois.
5. Severability. If any term, provision or condition of this Agreement is determined by a court or other judicial or administrative tribunal to be illegal, void or otherwise ineffective or not in accordance with public policy, the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby and shall remain in full force and effect.
6. Notices. Any notices required or permitted hereunder shall be sent to the other party, via overnight delivery by the United States Postal Service, Federal Express, UPS or other national overnight delivery service, at the respective address listed herein for such party. Any notices sent to Ace shall be in duplicate (i.e. separate envelopes) and shall be addressed, respectively, to "Attention: Vice President, Retail Operations" and "Attention: General Counsel, Legal Department."

Now, therefore, the parties by their respective duly authorized representative do hereby sign and execute this Agreement as of the Effective Date.
